|     |                |   |
| 018 | Chair Miller   | The -A7 amendment changes the implementation date from the year 2000 to 2001. (Exhibit 1)   |
|     |                |   |
| 023 | All members    | Discussion and questions regarding the difference between the (-A5) amendment and the (-A7) amendment and clarification as to which version of the measure is being considered.   |

|     |                |   |
| 086 | Rep. Welsh     | Regrets the removal of the (-A3) amendment (stay-at-home credit), but since the original measure, as amended is better then nothing I will support it.  |
|     |                |   |
| 099 | Rep. Rosenbaum | Favors the House version of the measure; finds it unfortunate that the measure being considered will not help the people at the lowest end of the pay scale, but people who are making more money. The change in the implementation date postpones the help for either group into the future. |

108 Sen. Hartung Concurred with Rep. Rosenbaum's comments, but this can be addressed again in January 2001; for that reason I will support the measure as it is before us.
