10. OPTIONAL PROVISIONS

Elimination of Liability

A) To the fullest extent permitted by law, no manager of the limited liability company will be personally liable to the limited liability company or its members for damages for acts or omissions as a manager, except that this provision will not eliminate or limit the liability of a manager for any of the following:

i) Any act or omission occurring before the date this provision becomes effective;

ii) Any breach of the manager's duty of loyalty to the limited liability company or its members;

iii) Acts or omissions not in good faith that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

iv) Any distribution to members that is unlawful; or

v) Any transaction from which the manager derived an improper personal benefit.

B) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if the provisions of applicable law are further amended at any time, and from time to time, to authorize limited liability company action further eliminating the personal liability of managers of a limited liability company, the liability of managers of the limited liability company will be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, as so amended.

C) No amendment to or repeal of this Article, or adoption of any provision of these Articles of Organization inconsistent with this Article, or a change in the law, will adversely affect any elimination or limitation of liability, or other right or protection, that is based upon this Article and pertains to any act, conduct, omission, or circumstance that occurred or existed before the amendment, repeal, adoption, or change. No change in the law will reduce or eliminate the rights and protections set forth in this Article unless the change in law specifically requires the reduction or elimination. No amendment to or repeal of this Article will apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any manager of the limited liability company for or with respect to any acts or omissions before the amendment or repeal.

Indemnification

A) The limited liability company will indemnify, for acts or omissions as a manager, any manager who is made or threatened to be made a party to, witness in, or otherwise involved in, any action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative, or otherwise (including any action, suit, or proceeding by or in the right of the limited liability company), except that this provision will not eliminate or limit the liability of a manager for any of the following:

i) Any act or omission occurring before the date this provision becomes effective;

ii) Any breach of the manager's duty of loyalty to the limited liability company or its members;

iii) Acts or omissions not in good faith that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

iv) Any distribution to members that is unlawful; or

v) Any transaction from which the manager derived an improper personal benefit.

B) Any indemnification provided pursuant to this Article will not be exclusive of any rights to which the manager may otherwise be entitled under any provision of these Articles of Organization, any operating agreement, other agreement, statute, policy of insurance, or otherwise.

C) Unless the manager is expelled from the limited liability company, indemnification provided under this Article will continue to cover any manager after she or he ceases to be a manager and will inure to the benefit of the manager's heirs, personal representatives, and administrators.

D) The right to indemnification conferred by this Article will be considered a contract right between the limited liability company and the manager.

E) In addition to any rights set forth above in this Article, the limited liability company will advance all reasonable expenses incurred by a manager who on behalf of the limited liability company is party to a proceeding, in advance of the proceeding to the fullest extent required or authorized under the law.
