There's something
all of us can do to help keep people
safe and free-up congestion on Oregon's roads.
If you get in a
non-injury crash,
just MOVE IT!
It's that simple –
move your vehicle
out of the way so
other drivers can safely pass.

What is Oregon's "Move It" Law?

It's ORS 811.717. Here's what it says:

- (1) The driver of a motor vehicle commits the offense of failure to remove a motor vehicle from the roadway if, after an accident:
 - (a) A person has not suffered any apparent personal injury as a result of the accident;
 - (b) The motor vehicle is operable and does not require towing;
 - (c) It is safe to drive the motor vehicle to a location off of the roadway as close to the accident scene as possible; and
 - (d) The driver does not move the motor vehicle to a location off of the roadway as close to the accident scene as possible.
- (2) The offense described in this section, failure to remove a motor vehicle from the roadway, is a Class C traffic violation. [2007 c.664 §4; 2008 c.10 §3]
