X unknown
a. What was the estimated fiscal impact?
(1) DMV may see fewer customers in its offices because customers may purchase the Sno-Park permit online, which will save DMV Field Office employees time to focus on other driver and vehicle related customer needs. It is unknown at this time if Sno-Park Permit Agents will experience any reduction in Sno-Park permit sales due to online purchases of Sno-Park permits through DMV's website (DMV2U). Approximately 130 Sno-Park Permit Sales Agents are small businesses.
Some Sno-Park permit sales agents may receive less revenue and some may not. The decrease in revenue depends upon the number of customers who opt to purchase a Sno-park permit online instead of at a private business or non-profit entity. The business would lose the optional service fee charged by the business unless the business increased their service fee. There is no limit in the amount of service fee an agent can charge, so DMV is unable to quantify the impact. Sno-park permits sales by Sno-park permit sales agents vary year to year and DMV attributes the variance on the amount of snow during a particular year and the different methods of purchasing a Sno-park permit. Due to the variables, DMV is unable to quantify the impact, if any, on businesses.
b. What was the actual fiscal impact?
If any fiscal impact, it is negligible. The revenue from SPP sales goes to a TOF that funds snow removal in SP designated areas in Oregon.
c. If the answer to question 2 is unknown, briefly explain why.
As previously stated, DMV is unable to quantify the fiscal impact on small business as stated in the original fiscal and on this document in section (a). DMV is unable to determine if it assisted fewer customers because they can obtain Sno-Park Permits from a variety of permit providers.
3. Have subsequent changes in the law required the rule be repealed or amended?
yesX_ no
If yes, explain below.
4. Is the rule still needed? X yes no
Explain below.
DMV prefers to maintain the rule to inform the public on the option to purchase an Annual Sno-Park permit online on DMV's website which is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Agency 5-Year Rule Review Report

Pursuant to ORS 183.405 January 2025

BACKGROUND AND INTRODUCTION

The Oregon Board of Physical Therapy (OBPT) is pleased to submit this report to the Secretary of State as directed by ORS 183.405. Paper copies of this report may be obtained from OBPT Rules Coordinator, 800 NE Oregon St, Suite 407, Portland, Oregon, 97232.

ORS 183.405 requires all state agencies to review newly adopted rules not later than five years after adopting the rule, with the purpose of analyzing the impacts of each rule. Specifically, the report must determine:

- Whether the rule had the intended effect;
- Whether the anticipated fiscal impact of the rule was underestimated or overestimated;
- Whether subsequent changes in the law require that the rule be repealed or amended;
- Whether there is continued need for the rule; and
- What impacts the rule has had on small businesses.

In this report, OBPT is submitting rule reviews for rules adopted in 2019. The final report will be sent to the Small Business Rules Advisory Committee, to any rule advisory committee that aided in the adoption of a rule subject to review, and to the Secretary of State for inclusion in the comprehensive report to the Oregon Legislative Assembly.

Exemptions

Under ORS 183.405 (5) and (6), this rule review does not apply to the amendment or repeal of a rule, rules that are adopted to implement court orders or the settlement of civil proceedings, rules that adopt federal laws or rules by reference, rules adopted to implement legislatively approved fee changes, or rules adopted to correct errors or omissions.

OREGON DEPARTMENT OF FISH & WILDLIFE 5-YEAR RULES REVIEW INFORMATION ORS 183.405

Review Year: January 1, 2019 through December 31, 2019 Submitted: January 27, 2025

Review of New Rules

Agencies must review new rules, with some exceptions, within five years of adoption. ORS 183.405. Although this requirement applies only to new rules, agencies should as a practical matter conduct an on-going review of all administrative rules to ensure that rules remain viable. Agency rules may also require periodic review of all rules.

ORS 183.405 requires agencies to review a rule not later than five years after adopting it. The requirement for review does not apply to:

- Rules already in existence as of January 1, 2006, or for which notice of proposed rule making was delivered to the Secretary of State before January 1. 2006;
- The amendment or repeal of a rule, but does apply to the adoption of new rules;
- Any rules that are required by a court order or settlement or a civil proceeding, ORS 183.405(4);
- Any rules adopting a federal law or rule by reference, ORS 183.405(5)(b);
- Any rules adopted to implement legislatively approved fee changes, ORS 183.405(5)(c); and
- Any rules adopted to correct errors or omissions, ORS 183.405(5)(d).

When an agency reviews a new rule under this provision, the agency must consider five specific factors:

- 1. Has the rule had its intended effect?
- 2. Did the agency overestimate or underestimate the rule's fiscal impact?
- 3. Do subsequent changes in the law require a change in the rule?
- 4. Does the rule continue to be necessary?
- 5. What impact does the rule have on small business?

Note: A YES answer to any of the above questions requires an explanation.

- 2. Did the agency overestimate or underestimate the rule's fiscal impact? No not applicable
- 3. Do subsequent changes in the law require a change in the rule? No
- 4. Does the rule continue to be necessary? Yes This treaty tribal fishery still exists and Oregon has an on-going obligation under U.S. vs OR to have a parallel rule to allow for commercial sales to state-licensed buyers.
- 5. What impact does the rule have on small business? unknown

Questions: Note: A YES answer to any of the following questions requires an explanation.

1. Has the rule had its intended effect? Yes

This rule is intended to automatically implement in-season area-specific biotoxin management measures in the commercial Dungeness crab fishery when biotoxin testing shows that crab in an open fishing area exceed human health thresholds set by the federal Food and Drug Administration, thereby eliminating the need to implement measures through temporary rule authority. Since adoption, biotoxin management measures have been automatically implemented one time, and a temporary rules was not needed.

- 2. Did the agency overestimate or underestimate the rule's fiscal impact? No
- 3. Do subsequent changes in the law require a change in the rule? No
- 4. Does the rule continue to be necessary? Yes Conditions have not changed since rule adoption. If the rule were rescinded, ODFW would return to implementing in-season biotoxin management measures through temporary rule, increasing administrative burden and staff workload.
- 5. What impact does the rule have on small business?

None. The rule only changes how management measures are implemented administratively, and does not change human health biotoxin thresholds or ODFW's biotoxin management measures.

Questions: Note: A YES answer to any of the following questions requires an explanation.

1. Has the rule had its intended effect? Yes

This rule is for the Conservation Plan for Lampreys. It provides guidelines for ODFW on primary conservation and management needs for several lamprey species in Oregon. Consistent with the Plan's status assessment, three lamprey species (Pacific Lamprey, Western River Lamprey, and Western Brook Lamprey) have remained on the State Sensitive Species List. It has resulted in the addition of Pacific Brook Lamprey to the sensitive species list as well. The Plan has also been successful in guiding ODFW actions to conserve and manage lamprey in Oregon.

- 2. Did the agency overestimate or underestimate the rule's fiscal impact? No
- 3. Do subsequent changes in the law require a change in the rule? No
- 4. Does the rule continue to be necessary? Yes

This Plan draws attention to the importance of lampreys for ecosystem services and cultural uses of Pacific Lamprey by various tribes. The Plan demonstrates to tribes, Oregon citizens, the Pacific Northwest, and the world that lamprey conservation is important to ODFW and the State of Oregon (of which we are seen as leaders in many respects), and that conservation and management actions continue to be important to protect our native lampreys. The Plan highlights many actions that remain necessary to conserve, manage, assess, and understand lamprey.

5. What impact does the rule have on small business? There is no known impact on small business.

Rule Title:

Identifying School Districts with a High Rate of Chronic Absenteeism

Did the rule achieve its intended effect?

To a moderate degree. This OAR allowed districts with the highest needs related to attendance to be identified to receive support. It was so broad in its approach that nearly every school district in the state would qualify for the rate set in section 1 of this rule. The percentage used in rule correlates with the state definition of chronic absenteeism. Since the pandemic, nearly every school in Oregon is experiencing chronic absenteeism rates much higher than the "90% or less" regular attender threshold.

Was the fiscal impact of the rule overestimated or underestimated?

There is not a fiscal impact associated with this rule.

Has there been changes in the law that require the rule be amended or repealed?

Rule Title:

Selecting School Districts to Receive Targeted Assistance

Did the rule achieve its intended effect?

Somewhat. Given the low percentage (10%) defined in 581-020-0637, and the ongoing effects post-pandemic to attendance rates, the process to identify school districts can be very general in nature, as nearly every school district will qualify in the current climate.

School districts do not receive direct funding at this time from ODE nor direct targeted assistance, as this rule outlines this is an action ODE may take. However, school districts with high rates of absenteeism receive many other supports, including federal funding for school improvement and SIA funds. Additionally, there has been a shift in the funding and support structure to provide support to ESDs and to Community Based Organizations in the current biennium with a focus on building regional capacity and supports vs. providing targeted assistance to schools or districts from ODE.

Was the fiscal impact of the rule overestimated or underestimated?

There is not a fiscal impact associated with this rule.

Has there been changes in the law that require the rule be amended or repealed?

This rule had a minor statute correction in 2022. The rule was amended to correct grammatical errors. No other changes in the law require a rule change at this time.

Has this rule had an impact on small businesses? If so, what were the impacts?

No, this rule has no impact on small businesses.

Rule Number:

581-020-0649

Rule Title:

Chronic Absenteeism Coaches

Did the rule achieve its intended effect?

Somewhat. The rule identified extra support that districts would receive through the coach. Some districts really took advantage of the expertise brought by the coach to their district, while other districts were less engaged with their coach. The contract management of coaches by ODE was cumbersome to manage and took a great deal of time on the part of ODE staff to manage the details of each contract on an ongoing (monthly) basis.

Was the fiscal impact of the rule overestimated or underestimated?

There is not a fiscal impact associated with this rule.

Has there been changes in the law that require the rule be amended or repealed?

	a.	What was the intended effect?
		The oil tank railroad car fee was established by the 2019 Legislature, and it was imposed on owners of oil transported by loaded tank railroad car in Oregon. Because the law didn't include due dates for reporting and paying fees to the department, this rule intended to provide due dates for the filing of reports and fee payments.

The rule clarifies that employees may provide a withholding statement (to determine how much state income tax to withhold from their wages or other income) or an exemption certificate (if wages or other income is exempt from withholding) to their employer. There was no anticipated fiscal impact due to rule changes, adoption of a new rule and repealing one rule. These changes are necessary to conform to statutory amendments in HB 2119 (2019) and policy changes to provide guidance to employers and tax practitioners for using the 2020 version of the Oregon Form OR-W-4.

a. What was the actual fiscal impact?

De minimis. Configuration to payroll software may have been necessary to account for the reduction in the withholding rate on supplemental wage payments. Additionally, due to the changes to the federal form, employees seeking to modify their Oregon income tax withholding after January 1, 2020 need to fill out the Oregon Form OR-W-4 in addition to the federal Form W-4, since the federal form is no longer usable for the purposes of determining the correct amount of Oregon income tax withholding. Oregon employers may have additional recordkeeping required to maintain records of different withholding for Federal and Oregon purposes due to the changes to the federal Form W-4 if more employees withhold differently for Oregon and federal purposes.

a. What was the intended effect?
The rules were adopted to support the implementation of the Lottery's first fully digital sports betting game. Five Year Review of New Rules Check List Impact on small businesses?

Unknown. The exact economic impact to small business was unknown at the time of the initial rulemaking, because the department could not determine how many small businesses may want to use an off-site storage location. Small businesses were a part of the rule advisory committee. Small businesses were consulted as part of this review and provided no response to this question.

The rule allows NDP to continue using NMLS, which makes it easier to regulate multiple industries across state lines.

Impact on small businesses? At the time of the rulemaking, the Department estimated that about 3,330 Oregon licensees will be impacted. It was unknown how many affected licensees meet the definition of a small business. However, since approximately 90% of Oregon businesses employ 50 people or less, the department assumed that at least some of the impacted entities are "small businesses." At the time of the rulemaking, the Department anticipated that the proposed rules would not change costs because it amends the process that the department uses to help licensees meet their obligation to post a license. As such, the Department determined there is no anticipated impact on small businesses. The department does not anticipate that licensees will need to acquire new equipment or supplies or an increase in labor and administration to comply with the proposed rules.

amended. There may be a slight impact on the Department as it will be required under the rules to input data regarding the required coverage and follow up with licensees if forms are incomplete.

- 2. Cost of compliance effect on small business (ORS 183.336):
- a. Estimate the number of small businesses and types of business and industries with small businesses subject to the rule: The Department estimates that about 280 Oregon registered investment advisor firms will be impacted. It is unknown how many affected licensees meet the definition of a small business. However, since approximately 90% of Oregon businesses employ 50 people or less, the department presumes that many of the impacted entities are "small businesses." It is unknown how many affected financial professionals already have errors and omissions coverage.
- b. Projected reporting, recordkeeping and other administrative activities required for compliance, including costs of professional services: There is unlikely to be an economic impact related to reporting, record keeping, or other administrative activities because the proposed rules do not add substantive requirements beyond those mandated by ORS 59.175 and 59.225. The economic impact is expected to be small. Affected firms will be required to obtain the form from the DCBS web page, complete and submit it. This time and documentation process may impact covered firms. However, the exact impact is unknown at this time and largely stem from the underlying legislation.
- c. Equipment, supplies, labor, and increased administration required for compliance: There is unlikely to be more than a minimal fiscal impact due to the proposed rules on equipment, supplies, labor and increased administration. The proposed rules do not add any substantive requirements but rather clarify how affected broker-dealers and investment advisors can demonstrate the requisite errors and omissions insurance to the department.

b. What was the actual fiscal impact?

The fiscal impact was as estimated -- the rule had no economic impact separate from the underlying legislation. However, there was sentiment from internal staff that the underlying legislation created notable administrative work for our licensing and examinations team.

c. If the answer to question 'b' is unknown, briefly explain why:

Have continued need?

providers are small businesses.

Based on the information available to DCBS, the proposed rules will not likely have a fiscal or economic impact on state agencies, local governments, or the public.

Statement of Cost of Compliance:

1. Impact on state agencies, units of local government and the public (ORS 183.335(2)(b)(E)):

Based on information currently available to DCBS, the proposed rule would not have a fiscal or economic impact on state agencies, local government units, nor the public.

The underlying statutory provisions may have an impact on DCBS through modifying the department's regulatory authority in the area of prior authorization, which may lead to changes in the pattern and frequency of complaints or requests for external review received, or compliance and enforcement actions undertaken. However, the proposed rule will not. The proposed rules provide finer details regarding the implementation of the law's requirements and are expected to have a negligible impact on costs to the department.

The proposed rules do not add any new requirements on public entities, but instead clarify DCBS's supervisory expectations with regard to health insurers' prior authorization practices. Other state agencies and local governments are not expected to incur any fiscal impact, because the requirements established by the law are not applicable to these entities.

Based on the information currently available to DCBS, the proposed rule does not have an economic impact on the general public beyond the underlying statutory requirements.

2. Cost of compliance effect on small business (ORS 183.336):

a. Estimate the number of small businesses and types of business and industries with small businesses subject to the rule:

The proposed rules establish requirements for health insurers' practices in the area of prior authorization, including timelines for making determinations and required communications with health care providers and enrollees. Compliance with these requirements may require significant costs for insurers. DCBS does not have data on the specific number of employees employed by insurers authorized to transact insurance in Oregon, but it is unlikely that any of the health insurers to which this rule applies are small businesses.

DCBS convened a rulemaking advisory committee, which included representatives of health care providers, insurers, and consumer and patient advocates. Committee feedback suggested that the proposed rules were unlikely to have a significant impact on small businesses in Oregon (i.e., businesses with 50 or fewer employees).

b. Projected reporting, recordkeeping and other administrative activities required for compliance, including costs of professional services:

The proposed rules provide clarification of the statutory requirements and do not impose additional requirements in the areas of reporting and recordkeeping.

c. Equipment, supplies, labor and increased administration required for compliance:

Generally, the proposed rules provide clarification of the statutory requirements and do not impose additional requirements.

However, the proposed rules require health benefit plans to notify enrollees when a prior authorization request is denied in whole or in part, regardless of whether the enrollee submitted the prior authorization request, and that the notification must inform the enrollee of their right to appeal the denial. This requirement is applicable only to health benefit plans, not to policies and certificates of health insurance that are not health benefit plans. This notification requirement is not specified in Oregon Laws Chapter 284, and may impose additional administrative costs on issuers of health benefit plans. This notification is necessary to ensure that Oregon consumers are informed of their legal rights to appeal adverse benefit determinations.

DCBS does not have data on the specific number of employees employed by insurers authorized to transact insurance in Oregon. Based on the feedback of the rulemaking advisory committee, it is unlikely that any of the health insurers to which this rule applies are small businesses.

Unknown.

Non-anesthesia reimbursement base rate

Base rates are listed for each CPT code with modifiers, TC, 26, or no modifier. Base rates were calculateed from median allowed amounts for commercial claims reported to the All Payer All Claims Database in 2015. The data set includes professional claims by Oregon providers that were paid. The data set excludes facility claims, claims with allowed amounts listed at or below 0, and claims listed with service units listed at or below 0. Separate base rates are calculated for each of the 7 geographic rating areas. A minimum of 50 claims were required to calculate a median rate. If the minimum was not met, the statewide rate was used.

the program and expand service to accommodate transaction volume increases. Additionally, the cost model utilized both actual and budgeted expenditures to calculate the fee. The time to recover the cost was assumed to be five years based upon an assumption that most Oregonians choosing a Real ID compliant credential will have processed through the eight year renewal cycle by the fifth year.

The rule impacts any member of the public who applies for a Real ID compliant driver license, driver permit or identification card. The applicant must pay an additional $30 each time the person is issued an original, replacement or renewal Real ID compliant driver license, driver permit or identification card. DMV recovers its costs through the $30 additional Real ID fee.

b. What was the actual fiscal impact?

The additional $30 fee covers the REAL ID operating cost. DMV is currently experiencing an increase in Real ID credential issuances. DMV believes this increase is a direct result in the federal government finally requiring a Real ID credential to board a domestic flight. Their enforcement began on May 7, 2025. Even with the increased issuances, the fee continues to cover operating costs.

Explain below.
ORS 807.460 still requires DMV to impose a fee for each Real ID issued, renewed or replaced, for the purpose of covering the additional costs to the department related to the issuance of Real IDs.

ORS 183.405 Five Year Rule Review Report

Rule Number and Title:
OAR 177-010-0105, Restriction of Access
Original Adoption Date/History of Amendments:
Adopted 1/1/2021
Advisory Committee Used?
☐ Yes No
If yes, identify members and provide members with a copy of this completed report.
1. Did the rule achieve its intended effect?
∑ Yes □ No
a. What was the intended effect?
The purpose of the rule was to provide a clear process to follow when the Lottery needed to restrict a person's access to Lottery premises for safety or security concerns. The rule requires the Lottery to provide written notice, an opportunity to obtain Lottery services in an alternative manner, and an opportunity to appeal the decision.
b. How did the rule succeed or fail in achieving this effect?
The rule has met its purpose to provide a procedure to follow in the event we need to restrict someone's access to the Lottery.
2. The fiscal impact statement was: (Check One)
☐ Underestimated ☐ Overestimated
☐ Just about right ☐ Unknown

a. What was the estimated fiscal impact?

In the Notice filed on October 26, 2020, the Lottery estimated no fiscal impact to any entity, including other state agencies, the Lottery, units of local government, or the public, including retailers and Lottery players. The reason being that the Lottery can implement this rule using existing resources and no one whose access is restricted can be denied Lottery services. The Lottery did note that the prohibited conduct described in the rule, such as harassment and threats, could result in fiscal impact, such as losing employment or having criminal charges or other penalties. However, such impacts are from the conduct, and not from this rule, which is merely intended to codify previous practice and ensure notice and opportunity to appeal to a person whose access is restricted.

b. What was the actual fiscal impact?
Lottery is not aware of any fiscal impacts caused by this rule.
c. If the answer to question two is unknown, briefly explain why:
N/A.
3. Have subsequent changes in the law required the rule to be repealed or amended?
☐ Yes
4. Is the rule still needed?
∑ Yes □ No
The Lottery has a constitutional obligation to ensure the security of the Lottery. (See Article XV, § 4(4)(b).) Additionally, as an employer, the Lottery needs authority to ensure the safety of employees when at work. This rule ensures Lottery exercises that authority in a fair, consistent, and transparent manner by providing notice and opportunity to appeal. Therefore, Lottery has determined the rule is still needed. That said, our new Assistant Director for Security is reviewing the rule with subject matter experts and may propose amendments to ensure the rule continues to meet our needs.
5. What impacts has the rule had on small businesses?

Agencies are only required to use available information to conduct this review.

If the agency appointed an advisory committee in developing the rule, the agency must provide the committee members a copy of the review.

Exemptions

Rules are exempt from this review if they:

- Consist only of the repeal of or an amendment to an existing rule
- Are adopted to implement court orders or to settle civil proceedings

Cleaner Air Oregon Hazard Index

Adopted date: April 24, 2020 Rule numbers: 340-245-0320 Reviewer: Susan MacMillan

Summary

This rulemaking made the following changes to OAR 340, division 245 that:

- Adjusted the benchmark, or Risk Action Level, at which existing facilities regulated under the Cleaner Air Oregon program must take action to reduce excess noncancer risk from 158 noncancer toxic air contaminants. This action lowered noncancer Risk Action Level benchmarks for 158 toxic air contaminants from a Hazard Index of 5 to a Hazard Index of 3.
- Provided a calculation for existing facilities to estimate site-specific risk if they emit a mix of noncancer toxic air contaminants that are regulated at both a Risk Action Level of a Hazard Index of 3 and a Hazard Index of 5.

Did the rule have the intended effect?

Yes. The rules were established to provide more protective human health standards under the Cleaner Air Oregon program for noncancer health effects from exposure to toxic air contaminants emitted from facilities in Oregon. The rule identified 158 noncancer toxic air contaminants to be regulated at a Hazard Index of 3, based on whether the contaminant caused developmental or other severe human health effects. Subsequently, these more protective excess noncancer standards were used in risk assessment work conducted by the Cleaner Air Oregon program for facilities emitting noncancer toxic air contaminants.

Did the agency over- or underestimate the rule's fiscal impact?

DEQ accurately anticipated the fiscal impact of the rules and has not had to make any adjustment.

Do subsequent changes in the law require the agency to amend or repeal the rule?

The Hazard Index Rulemaking of 2020 reduced the Risk Action Levels for existing sources emitting toxic air contaminants from a noncancer Hazard Index value of 5 to 3 if the chemical was expected to cause developmental or other severe human health effects. The Air Toxics Alignment Implementation Rulemaking of 2021 created a new rule (OAR 340-247) to maintain the list of toxic air contaminants to report, as well as all the regulatory standards for toxic air contaminants for the Air Quality Division at DEQ. This rulemaking also updated CAO rules that were confusing or ambiguous, led to unintended outcomes in process, or could improve program efficiency for the agency and facilities. CAO is also in the process of reviewing Toxicity Reference Values as required by rule 340-247-0040.

Is there a continued need for the rule?

Yes, the Oregon Legislature directed DEQ to administer risk assessment of emissions from facilities as part of the Cleaner Air Oregon program, and the Cleaner Air Oregon Hazard Index rules are necessary to maintain and implement the program. Because the CAO program is the only air quality permitting program that integrates public health directly into the establishment of permit conditions for industrial facilities, there is an ongoing need for these rules to issue health-protective air quality permits.

Greenhouse Gas Reporting and Third-Party Verification

Adopted date: May 7, 2020

Rule numbers: 340-272-0010, 0020, 0100, 0110, 0120, 0210, 0220, 0300, 0350, 0355, 0405, 0410, 0415, 0420, 0425, 0430, 0435, 0440, 0445, 0450, 0455, 0460, 0465, 0470, 0495, 0500, 340-215-0032, 0034, 0042, 0044, 0046, 0105, 0110, 0115, 0120, 0125, 340-253-0700

Reviewers:

Liz Hardee, Third Party Verification Program Administrator

Elizabeth Elbel, GHG Reporting Program Lead

Summary

This rulemaking established the Third-Party Verification Program rules and requirements and amended rules in the Greenhouse Gas Reporting Program and the Clean Fuels Program that included:

- Modifying the Greenhouse Gas Reporting Program in Oregon Administrative Rules
 Chapter 340, Division 215 to provide a better understanding of greenhouse gas emissions in the state, better inform greenhouse gas policy decision-making, and improve the ability to track progress toward meeting Oregon's emission reduction goals
- Streamlining the reporting requirements of the GHG RP in OAR Chapter 340 Division 215 and the Clean Fuels Program in OAR Chapter 340, Division 253 to enable entities that are subject to both programs to report into a single system
- Requiring that some data that is submitted to DEQ to comply with the GHG RP and the CFP be verified by independent third parties

 Amending OAR Chapter 340, Division 12 to classify violations and establish or clarify enforcement criteria for violations of the GHG RP, the CFP and third-party verification regulations

Did the rule have the intended effect?

Amended GHG RP and CFP Rules:

Yes, DEQ has implemented the changes to the GHG RP resulting in improved data collection. This includes collecting data from operators of natural gas systems and new data elements across all sectors that supports climate policy analysis and mitigation program development, including providing data needed for designing and implementing Oregon's Climate Protection Program.

Amendments to GHG RP and CFP rules, intended to streamline the reporting, have been implemented through modification of the Oregon Fuels Reporting System. At least 100 regulated fuel suppliers now comply with reporting for both the GHG and CFP programs through a single online system. Implementation of this combined reporting is supported through training and technical assistance by staff in both programs.

Third party verification program rules:

Yes, OAR Chapter 340, Division 272 was adopted to ensure that data reported to the Greenhouse Gas Reporting Program under OAR Chapter 340, Division 215 and to the Clean Fuels Program under OAR Chapter 340, Division 253 is completely and accurately reported.

Reporters subject to third party verification include:

- Permitted stationary sources, electricity suppliers, electricity service suppliers, liquid fuel suppliers, natural gas suppliers and natural gas systems with annual reported emissions of 25,000 MT CO2e and above
- Clean Fuels Program participating entities that report 6,000 total combined credits and deficits generated for the program during the reporting year
- Holders of Oregon-specific Clean Fuels Program fuel pathways
- All entities subject to the Climate Protection Program rules under OAR Chapter 340, Division 273, regardless of emissions level

In the program's first five years, the quality of data reported to these programs has improved as anticipated as the result of the more detailed level of review third party verification bodies are able to provide, in addition to the audit work performed annually by DEQ staff. The program has excellent participation rates, with minimal enforcement needed annually.

The available supply of DEQ-approved verification bodies and verifiers has been able to meet the demand for verification services, and DEQ maintains rigorous oversight of services provided through desk audits, site visit observations, verifier trainings and other resources.

Did the agency over- or underestimate the rule's fiscal impact?

DEQ accurately anticipated the fiscal impact of the rules. The fiscal impact statement anticipated minimal impacts related to the adopted recordkeeping and reporting rules for GHG RP and cost savings related to streamlining reporting of liquid fuels data.

The fiscal statement also stated a range of costs related to third party verification. Based on information provided by verifiers during implementation the actual costs of verification are within the range anticipated in the fiscal impact statement issued by the agency.

Do subsequent changes in the law require the agency to amend or repeal the rule?

No subsequent changes in the law require the agency to amend or repeal the rules.

Is there a continued need for these rules?

Yes, these rules are needed to support the implementation of the greenhouse gas reporting and clean fuels programs. These are foundational greenhouse gas emissions reduction programs and are essential components to reducing emissions in support of Oregon's climate goals. Third party verification helps to ensure the accuracy of the data underpinning DEQ's two large market-based emissions reduction programs, the Clean Fuels Program and Climate Protection Program.

Drug Take-Back

Adopted date: Sept. 17, 2020

Rule numbers: 340-098-0000, 340-098-0010, 340-098-0300, 340-098-0350, 340-098-0370,

340-098-0390

Reviewer: Michael Lee

Summary

This rulemaking made the following changes to OAR 340, division 98 that:

- Clarified the applicability of OAR 340-098-0300, 340-098-0350, 340-098-0370, 340-098-0390 and clarified the definitions for terms used in those rules
- Specified requirements for a drug take-back program plan or updated plan submitted to DEQ
- Specified what DEQ will consider when evaluating a program operator's request to provide services and collection events in place of a required drop-off site

- Specified that DEQ, on behalf of the Environmental Quality Commission, may undertake any action authorized by ORS 459A.239 related to enforcement
- Established DEQ's administrative fees, including the plan review fee, the annual fee an hourly fee

Did the rule have the intended effect?

Yes. The rules were established to ensure that:

- Drug take-back programs, when providing services and collection events in place of a drop-off site required by law, will continue offering convenient statewide service
- DEQ can act on the Environmental Quality Commission's behalf to ensure compliance with the drug take-back law
- Fee revenue covers DEQ's costs of administering the Drug Take-Back Program

Did the agency over- or underestimate the rule's fiscal impact?

DEQ accurately anticipated the fiscal impact of the rules and has not had to make any adjustment.

Do subsequent changes in the law require the agency to amend or repeal the rule?

Not at this time.

Is there a continued need for the rule?

Yes, the Oregon Legislature directed DEQ to administer the Drug Take-Back Program and these rules are necessary for DEQ to maintain oversight of the Program.

In Q2 of FY 2020, ODVA invited Oregon Department of Transportation Public Transportation Division (PTD) into a partnership to develop and deliver RVHT. A review of PTD's programs and expenditure authorities found the Special Transportation Fund (STF) Discretionary Grant Program (STF, 732-020-0005) to be the best fit for receipt of resources from ODVA.

b. What was the actual fiscal impact?
$401,371 in RVHT funding was awarded to Oregon transportation providers for services that connect rural veterans with healthcare services. The remaining $98,629 funded an outreach and engagement project leveraging the Go-Vets program developed by Rogue Valley Transportation District to grow awareness and use by Oregon's rural veterans seeking healthcare access.

3. Have subsequent changes in the law required the rule be repealed or amended?

If yes, explain below.
SB 5538 indicated that RVHT would be a one-time investment. Due to the success of the program, HB 2139 was adopted by the Oregon legislature in July 2021 to continue the work with a slightly larger biennial budget ($650,000). Pursuant to HB 2139, a minor amendment was introduced to explicitly include as eligible, Oregon's ten highly rural jurisdictions that have historically been served by the federal Highly Rural Veterans program. In July 2023, STF (including the RVHT provisions) was repealed. Its intent and legacy resources were consolidated into the Statewide Transportation Improvement Fund (STIF). RVHT was not included in the consolidation because it's delivered via and Interagency Agreement between ODVA and PTD – which is materially inconsistent with the taxation and distribution strategies of STF and STIF. As a result, ODVA adopted a new set of rules governing RVHT under OAR 274-039-0010.

Rule number: OAR 809-050-0015 Temporary Military Spouse Registration
Date rule effective: 03/09/2020
Date rule review due: 03/09/2025
Date rule review completed: 06/13/2025
Advisory committee used as part of initial rule development process? yes; X no
1. Did the rule achieve its intended effect? _X_ yes no
a. What was the intended effect? OAR 809-050-0015 was adopted to institute a new type of registration for geologists relocating in Oregon as a spouse or domestic partner of an active duty military member. The rule implemented a new state law requiring Oregon licensure boards to offer this type of registration.
b. How did the rule succeed or fail in achieving this effect? The Board has not received any applications or inquiries related to this type of registration since the permanent rule was adopted in 2020. This is not necessarily a failure of the rule, but it does indicate that there has been no demand for this registration type. The Board was not surprised at this lack of demand given the limited military presence in Oregon and the small size of the registered geologist professional community.
2. Was the fiscal impact statement_ underestimated, _ overestimated, _ just about right _ unknown?
a. What was the estimated fiscal impact? No negative fiscal impact was anticipated. The rule created an additional registration option for spouses or domestic partners of active military members stationed in Oregon. For those spouses or domestic partners holding a valid, active geologist license from elsewhere, this registration is an option in addition to the cooperative registration offered by the Board. The new rule and fee rule amendments only impacted those individuals that qualified for the new registration type and chose this option over a standard cooperative registration.
b. What was the actual fiscal impact? No fiscal impact.
c. If the answer to question 2 is unknown, briefly explain why. Not applicable.
3. Have subsequent changes in the law required the rule be repealed or amended? noX_ yes If yes, explain. Federal law changes now allow military members and military spouses to practice geology in Oregon under a valid, active license issued by another geologist board. These individuals are required to provide some information to the Board, but they are not required to obtain a registration from the Board. The Board has identified a need to amend the rule to address the federal law changes and anticipates amendments will be completed in 2025. These amendments will keep the temporary military spouse registration as an option but otherwise clarify that military members and spouses are allowed to practice geology in Oregon in accordance with the terms of the federal law.

The Board still must follow state law that says licensure boards need to offer a temporary military spouse registration. The state law has not been updated to address the federal law changes.

This rule has not had any impacts on small businesses. The rule does not contain any provisions that apply to small businesses.

a. What was the intended effect? 804-022-0035 was adopted to institute a new type of registration for landscape architects relocating in Oregon as a military spouse or domestic partner. The rule implemented a state law requirement for licensure boards to offer this type of registration.
b. How did the rule succeed or fail in achieving this effect? The Board has not received any applications or inquiries related to this registration type. This is not necessarily a failure of the rule, but it does indicate that the demand for this registration type has not been there. The Board was not surprised at this lack of demand.
2. Was the fiscal impact statement_ underestimated, _ overestimated, _ just about right _ unknown?
a. What was the estimated fiscal impact? No negative fiscal impact was anticipated. The rule created an additional registration option for spouses or domestic partners of military members stationed in Oregon and holding a valid, active landscape architecture license from elsewhere. This provided an option in addition to the existing option of registration by reciprocity. The new rule and fee rule amendments only impacted those individuals that qualified for the new registration type and choose this option over a standard reciprocity registration.
b. What was the actual fiscal impact? No fiscal impact.

Department of Consumer and Business Services Workers' Compensation Division

Five-year Administrative Rule Review

Rule division name and rule numbers: OAR 436-060-0141 Claims for COVID-19 or Exposure to SARS-CoV-2 (temporary rule)

Date adopted: 9/30/2020

Date reviewed: July 9, 2025

Advisory Committee Used: No; temporary rule

The Workers' Compensation Division (WCD) determined that failure to act promptly would result in serious prejudice to the public interest or the interest of the parties concerned. Stakeholders expressed concerns about inconsistencies in the processing of claims for COVID-19 or exposure to SARS-CoV-2, and recommended immediate action to promote reasonable investigation of those claims.

1. Did the rule achieve its intended effect? Yes

a. What was the intended effect?

In 2020, the Management-Labor Advisory Committee (MLAC) developed recommendations for workers' compensation system changes in light of the COVID-19 pandemic. One item that MLAC noted concern about was COVID-19 claim denial rates for some insurers. Additionally, MLAC management members proposed that (1) clear and consistent rules for processing COVID-19 claims be adopted and (2) the department audit claims of insurers with high numbers of COVID claim denials to determine whether the claim investigations were reasonable and proper. Following this recommendation, WCD prepared a draft rule, solicited further feedback from MLAC, and ultimately adopted a temporary rule, OAR 436-060-0141.

The rule was intended to clarify that insurers must conduct a reasonable investigation before denying any claim and describe what a reasonable investigation must include when the claim is for COVID or exposure to COVID on and after October 1, 2020. The rule was also intended to explain when the director would audit an insurer regarding claims denied for COVID or exposure to COVID, and that the audit would review whether the insurer conducted a reasonable investigation.

b. How did the rule succeed or fail in achieving this effect?

Following adoption of the temporary rule, WCD conducted two audits of denied COVID-19 claims, in 2021 and 2022.

The 2021 audit covered claims filed before COVID specific reasonable investigation standards were added in rule and assessed compliance with the general reasonable investigation standards in OAR 436-060-0140. WCD found reasonable investigations were conducted in all claims reviewed.

The 2022 audit covered claims filed on or after the COVID specific investigation standards were added under OAR 436-060-0141(2), and assessed compliance with that rule. WCD found investigations were reasonable and compliant with OAR 436-060-0141(2) in all claims reviewed.

Based on these audit results, WCD deemed further audits unnecessary. It appears that stakeholders were able to successfully implement the standards established in the rule for reasonable investigations of COVID claims.

2.	Was	the fiscal impact statement:
		☐ Underestimated
		☐ Overestimated ☐ Just about right
	J
	\boxtimes L	Jnknown
	a.	What was the estimated fiscal impact?
		No fiscal impact was estimated, this review relates to a temporary rule. However, an insurer has inquired about whether the division will remove the rule, as they find the rule requirements unnecessarily burdensome.
	b.	What was the actual fiscal impact?
		See part c.
	c.	If the answer to question 2 is unknown, briefly explain why.

3. Have subsequent changes in the law required the rule be repealed or amended?

No.

WCD does not have data available regarding the costs incurred by stakeholders to comply with the reasonable investigation or audit requirements of this rule.

4. Is the rule still needed? No

This rule (and the subsequent permanent rule) was originally adopted to promote appropriate and consistent processing of claims for COVID-19 or exposure to SARS-CoV-2 during the public health emergency in 2020. However, public health recommendations and COVID testing approaches have changed since 2020, and it appears that the rule is no longer consistent with current recommendations or practice.

- The rule requires getting a medical or expert opinion if the worker tests positive for COVID. Today, at home COVID tests are more widely available and workers may not need to go a medical provider for a test.
- The rule requires getting a medical or expert opinion if a medical service provider diagnoses a presumptive case of COVID, the insurer is aware of the test results or presumptive diagnosis, and the source of exposure is unclear. Since COVID tests are more widely available, it may be less likely that providers are diagnosing presumptive cases.
- The rule requires determining if the worker did not work for a period of quarantine or isolation at the direction of a medical service provider, the Oregon Health Authority Public Health Division, a local public health authority, or the employer. However, the Oregon Health Authority and Centers for Disease Control no longer recommend isolating for a set number of days, and instead recommend quarantine until certain symptoms stop for at least 24 hours.

Based on the changes noted above, it appears that having investigation requirements tied to previous recommendations regarding testing and quarantine periods may no longer be appropriate.

Additionally, though the rule establishes that WCD will conduct audits of denied claims, this rule is not required in order for WCD to conduct an audit. If necessary, WCD may conduct audits about reasonable investigations even if OAR 436-060-0141 was repealed. If repealed, the standard for a reasonable investigation would be based on OAR 436-060-0140. Though the standard under OAR 436-060-0140 is not specific to COVID claims, it would be reasonable to interpret it to include steps that are included in OAR 436-060-0141, such as investigating the connection between the diagnosis and the worker's employment, obtaining medical documentation, and determining whether the worker missed time from work due to the claimed condition or exposure.

The rule may also no longer be necessary because the number of COVID claims has decreased since the rule was implemented. Claim data reported to the division¹ indicates

5. What impacts has the rule had on small businesses?

The division is unaware of any impact the rule has had on small businesses.

The department must review each administrative rule not later than five years after its adoption. Under ORS 183.405, the agency must determine:

- (a) Whether the rule has had the intended effect;
- (b) Whether the anticipated fiscal impact of the rule was underestimated or overestimated;
- (c) Whether subsequent changes in the law require that the rule be repealed or amended;
- (d) Whether there is continued need for the rule; and
- (e) What impacts the rule has on small businesses.

The department must report its findings to any advisory committee appointed under ORS 183.333, to the Secretary of State, and to the Small Business Advisory Committee.

REVIEW OF ADOPTED RULES - ORS 183.405

On-Site Delivery of Marijuana by Retailer OAR 845-025-2885

Date Adopted: 9/15/20

Advisory Committee (AC) used? No

AC members: N/A

1) Did the rule achieve its intended effect?

a) What was the intended effect?

As a way to promote social distancing in the wake of the COVID-19 virus, the Governor's Executive Order dated March 17, 2020 prohibited public gatherings of 25 people or more, and encouraged people to distance themselves by at least 3 feet while in public. Retail marijuana stores remained open, but these changes allowed them to operate in a way that is consistent with the guidance from the Executive Order. During the period of March 1-18, 2020, OLCC marijuana retailers saw a 25-30% increase in sales compared to the same period the prior year. These changes allowed for all retailers to better serve the public, including those with health conditions which make them a part of a vulnerable population, and decrease in-store activity by allowing retailers to deliver marijuana to customers in the immediate area outside the licensed premises. By not taking action, OLCC retail marijuana licensees and their employees and customers would have continued to be in close contact in confined spaces, which, according to CDC guidance at the time, may have furthered the spread of COVID-19. Adopting this rule allowed customers to be served outside of the store in the open air with appropriate distance from others. The adoption of OAR 845-025-2885 enabled licensees the option to deliver marijuana items "on-site" (within 150 ft of the license premise) to a consumer.

- b) How did the rule succeed or fail in achieving this effect? The rule succeeded in allowing licensees greater choice in offering low-contact options for customers to purchase cannabis. The proportion of sales that switched from in-store to on-site delivery cannot be quantified. Both types of transactions are recorded in the same manner under the cannabis tracking system developed under ORS 475C.177.
- 2) Was the fiscal impact underestimated, overestimated, just about right, or unknown?
 - a) What was the estimated fiscal impact?

Licensees may be impacted by these changes depending upon their position and actions within the regulated market in the following ways:

i.Licensees who choose to sell curbside marijuana products will be able to provide more social distancing options.

- ii. The Commission forecasts a positive impact to the public health and safety by providing more options for social distancing.
- b) What was the actual fiscal impact? Just about right
- c) If the answer to question 2 is unknown, briefly explain why. N/A
- 3) Have subsequent changes in the law required the rule to be repealed or amended? If yes, explain. Not substantially. ORS chapter 475B was renumbered to chapter 475C in the 2021 Oregon Revised Statutes and an Executive Order cited as being implemented in the rule expired, requiring amendments to the Authority and Implemented citations for the rule. The other significant amendment to the rule, effective January 1, 2023, clarified the circumstances where marijuana may be delivered when a minor is present in the vehicle; this clarification was not related to a change in the law.
- 4) Is the rule still needed? Uncertain. Explain: The rule has outlived its original purpose. This style of "on-site" delivery was initially prohibited out of precaution. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, there is significant concern that carries increased risk of facilitating prohibited transactions that could be prevented through in-person sales occurring inside the store, such as sales to minors or to visibly intoxicated persons. During the height of the COVID-19 public health emergency, these concerns were overcome by the urgency of slowing the spread of COVID-19 and increasing options for vulnerable populations to avoid exposure to communicable diseases like COVID-19.

Since the public health emergency has ended, there is a need to revisit this rule and assess how to best balance the competing public interests.

5) What, if any, is the impact on small businesses? The effect of this rule does not differ substantially differ depending on the size of the business. On-site delivery offers greater choice to customers, but the OLCC is not aware of any data indicating that it increases sales volume. If a retail location has a substantial number of on-site orders, it could increase the number of employees needed to operate the store at any given time, which could slightly disadvantage smaller businesses that are less able to absorb additional operating expenses.

Yes, the program has been established and operational since 2020. The rules established the program's policies and procedures. As of May 2024, the funding had been fully reserved. How did the rule succeed or fail in achieving this effect? The rules established the program's policies and procedures allowing the agency to operate the program effectively and communicate requirements to program applicants. What was the estimated fiscal impact? The Department anticipated that the rules would have a minimal fiscal impact. The rules did not create any regulatory requirements for public bodies or members of the public. Was the anticipated fiscal impact of the rule underestimated or overestimated? The administrative rules had a minimal fiscal impact and the impact assessment was accurate. The program through the financial assistance provided is thought to have had a positive fiscal impact, though ODOE does not have data to assess whether the rebates from the Solar + Storage Rebate program were the only driver of solar uptake. Other incentives were available during program operation and may have also driven the uptake of solar. What was the actual fiscal impact? The program is optional and contractors may choose to apply for rebates. ODOE does not have access to costs incurred by contractors in complying with the program requirements such as project requirements or time spent submitting applications. However, the actual fiscal impact of the rules is thought to have been minimal. The impact of the program is thought to have been positive with ODOE having received nearly 7000 rebate reservation applications for a total of $23,613,871 in rebates, with the majority of those funds having been paid to contractors who passed on the upfront savings to their customers. Do subsequent changes in the law require that the rule be repealed or amended? Yes, if funding is appropriated to the program the rules would need to be amended to implement SB 827 (2025) that permits a new rebate type for energy storage systems. Is there a continued need for the rule? Yes, the sunset of the program was extended by HB 3409 (2023) until January 2, 2029. Notes:

TO: Oregon Secretary of State, Administrative Rules

FROM: Eric Hartstein, Senior Policy Coordinator SUBJECT: OWEB 2025 Five Year Rule Review Report

Introduction

This report satisfies ORS 183.405 requiring agencies to review newly adopted rules no later than five years after adoption.

In 2020, OWEB adopted rules for the agency's monitoring and water acquisition grant programs. ORS 183.405 requires agencies to answer the following questions:

- 1) Has the rule had its intended effect?
- 2) Did the agency overestimate or underestimate the rule's fiscal impact?
- 3) Do subsequent changes in the law require a change in the rule?
- 4) Does the rule continue to be necessary?
- 5) What impact does the rule have on small businesses?

Rules: Monitoring Grants- 695-025-0080, 695-025-0100, 695-025-0150, 695-025-0160, 695-025-0170, 695-025-0180, and 695-025-0190

- Did the rule achieve its intended effect? Yes, several grant solicitations for monitoring grants have occurred since 2020, and the adopted rules have achieved the intended effect. In 2025, staff identified minor language revisions in 695-025-0150 and 695-025-0160, and the OWEB Board approved amending those rules in January 2025.
- 2) Did the agency overestimate or underestimate the rule's fiscal impact? OWEB did not foresee that adoption of monitoring grant rules would have a fiscal impact as it is a voluntary grant program. This remains an accurate assessment of the fiscal impact of the rules.
- 3) Do subsequent changes in the law require a change in the rule? No, there have been no relevant changes in law that require a change in the rules.
- 4) Does the rule continue to be necessary? Yes, monitoring grants are an integral element of OWEB's grant offerings, and these rules allow the program to be administered through annual solicitations.

5) What impact does the rule have on small businesses? There has been no known impact of the rules on small businesses. If there is an impact on small businesses, it would likely be positive as OWEB grantees often use small business consultants to implement their projects.

Rules: Water Acquisition Grants – 695-046-0035, 695-046-0196, 695-046-0201, and 695-046-0202

- 1) Did the rule achieve its intended effect? Yes, several grant solicitations for water acquisition grants have occurred since 2020, and the adopted rules have achieved the intended effect. As a part of a review of the rules, OWEB staff have identified areas where rule amendments would be beneficial, and rulemaking in the program is currently underway.
- 2) Did the agency overestimate or underestimate the rule's fiscal impact? The program rules are used to administer a voluntary water acquisition grant program. As this is a voluntary grant program providing funding to entities to acquire interests in water from willing sellers, a fiscal impact was not expected with the adoption of program rules. This remains an accurate assessment of the fiscal impact of the rules.
- 3) Do subsequent changes in the law require a change in the rule? No, there have been no relevant changes in law that require a change in the rules.
- 4) Does the rule continue to be necessary? Yes, the water acquisition grant program is an integral element of OWEB's grant offerings, and these rules allow for the program to be administered.
- 5) What impact does the rule have on small businesses? There has been no known impact of the rules on small businesses. If there is an impact on small businesses, it would likely be positive as OWEB grantees often use small business consultants to implement their projects.

5-Year Rule Review Report 2020 (10/10/2025)

Director: Michael Reese

BACKGROUND AND INTRODUCTION

The Oregon Department of Corrections (DOC) is pleased to submit this report to the Secretary of State as directed by ORS 183.405. Paper copies of this report may be obtained from DOC Rules Coordinator, 3723 Fairview Industrial Drive SE, Suite 200, Salem, Oregon 97302.

ORS 183.405 requires all state agencies to review newly adopted rules not later than five years after adopting the rule, with the purpose of analyzing the impacts of each rule. Specifically, the report must determine:

- Whether the rule had the intended effect;
- Whether the anticipated fiscal impact of the rule was underestimated or overestimated;
- Whether subsequent changes in the law require that the rule be repealed or amended;
- Whether there is continued need for the rule; and
- What impacts the rule has had on small businesses.

In this report, DOC is submitting rule reviews for rules adopted 2020.

The final report will be sent to the Small Business Rules Advisory Committee, to any rule advisory committee that aided in the adoption of a rule subject to review, and to the Secretary of State for inclusion in the comprehensive report to the Oregon Legislative Assembly.

EXEMPTIONS

Under ORS 183.405 (5) and (6), this rule review does not apply to the amendment or repeal of a rule, rules that are adopted to implement court orders or the settlement of civil proceedings, rules that adopt federal laws or rules by reference, rules adopted to implement legislatively approved fee changes, or rules adopted to correct errors or omissions.

RULE REVIEWS 2020

DOC adopted a total of 5 rules subject to review as described in ORS 183.405(1).

These rulemakings involved two rule divisions.

Department of Consumer and Business Services Workers' Compensation Division

Five-year Administrative Rule Review

Rule division name and rule numbers: OAR 436-060-0141 Claims for COVID-19 or Exposure to SARS-CoV-2 (permanent)

Date adopted: This rule was adopted permanently on January 26, 2021.

Date reviewed: November 5, 2025

Advisory Committee Used:

The rulemaking advisory committee met regarding the permanent rule on October 28, 2020. At that time, a near-identical temporary rule was in effect (effective September 30, 2020).

1. Did the rule achieve its intended effect? Yes

a. What was the intended effect?

In 2020, the Management-Labor Advisory Committee (MLAC) developed recommendations for workers' compensation system changes in light of the COVID-19 pandemic. One item that MLAC noted concern about was COVID-19 claim denial rates for some insurers. Additionally, MLAC management members proposed that (1) clear and consistent rules for processing COVID-19 claims be adopted and (2) the department audit claims of insurers with high numbers of COVID-19 claim denials to determine whether the claim investigations were reasonable and proper. Following this recommendation, the Workers' Compensation Division (WCD) prepared a draft rule, solicited further feedback from MLAC, and ultimately adopted a temporary rule, OAR 436-060-0141.

The rule was intended to clarify that insurers must conduct a reasonable investigation before denying any claim and describe what a reasonable investigation must include when the claim is for COVID-19 or exposure to COVID-19 on and after October 1, 2020. The rule was also intended to explain when the director would audit an insurer regarding claims denied for COVID-19 or exposure to COVID-19, and that the audit would review whether the insurer conducted a reasonable investigation.

b. How did the rule succeed or fail in achieving this effect?

Following adoption of the temporary rule, WCD conducted two audits of denied COVID-19 claims, in 2021 and 2022.

The 2021 audit covered claims filed before COVID-19 specific reasonable investigation standards were added in rule and assessed compliance with the general reasonable investigation standards in OAR 436-060-0140. WCD found reasonable investigations were conducted in all claims reviewed.

The 2022 audit covered claims filed on or after the COVID-19 specific investigation standards were added under OAR 436-060-0141(2), and assessed compliance with that rule. WCD found investigations were reasonable and compliant with OAR 436-060-0141(2) in all claims reviewed.

Based on these audit results, WCD deemed further audits unnecessary. It appears that stakeholders were able to successfully implement the standards established in the rule for reasonable investigations of COVID-19 claims.

2.	Was the fiscal impact statement:
	Underestimated
	Overestimated
	☐ Just about right
	Unknown

a. What was the estimated fiscal impact?

No increased costs were expected for state agencies or units of local government when amendments to the rule were proposed in late 2020, with the possible exception of units of local government that are self-insured employers. WCD estimated that the proposed rule changes might affect costs to the public for compliance with the rule, specifically for insurers, self-insured employers, and service companies. However, when these rule amendments were proposed, many of these claim processors were already managing claim consistent with the proposed standards. To the extent that adoption of the rule would prompt enhancements to claim investigations, WCD expected that insurers, self-insured employers and service companies might incur additional costs, primarily for obtaining any needed medical or expert opinions. WCD did not have data that would allow for estimating the extent of additional costs.

Since adoption of the permanent rule, an insurer has inquired about whether the division will remove the rule, as they find the rule requirements unnecessarily burdensome.

b. What was the actual fiscal impact?

See part c.

c. If the answer to question 2 is unknown, briefly explain why.

WCD does not have data available regarding the costs incurred by stakeholders to comply with the reasonable investigation or audit requirements of this rule.

3. Have subsequent changes in the law required the rule be repealed or amended?

No.

4. Is the rule still needed?

It appears the rule is no longer needed; after recently gathering input from stakeholders, WCD proposed that the rule be repealed. The proposal to repeal the rule was published in the Oregon Bulletin on November 3, 2025. Public comment regarding the proposal is open until November 26, 2025. If no testimony is received, the repeal will become permanent and effective on January 1, 2026.

- This rule was originally adopted to promote appropriate and consistent processing of claims for COVID-19 or exposure to SARS-CoV-2 during the public health emergency in 2020. However, public health recommendations and COVID-19 testing approaches have changed since 2020, and it appears that the rule is no longer consistent with current recommendations or practice.
- The rule requires getting a medical or expert opinion if, before a compensability denial is issued, the worker tests positive for COVID-19 or a medical service provider diagnoses a presumptive case of COVID-19, the insurer is aware of the test results or presumptive diagnosis, and the source of exposure is unclear. Since COVID-19 tests are more widely available, workers may not need to go to a medical provider for a test, and it may be less likely that providers are diagnosing presumptive cases.
- The rule requires determining if the worker did not work for a period of quarantine or isolation at the direction of a medical service provider, the Oregon Health Authority Public Health Division, a local public health authority, or the employer. However, the Oregon Health Authority and Centers for Disease Control no longer recommend isolating for a set number of days, and instead recommend staying home until certain symptoms stop for at least 24 hours.

Based on the changes noted above, it appears that having investigation requirements tied to previous recommendations regarding testing and quarantine periods may no longer be appropriate.

Additionally, though the rule establishes that WCD will conduct audits of denied claims, this rule is not required in order for WCD to conduct an audit. If necessary, WCD may conduct audits about reasonable investigations even if OAR 436-060-0141 was repealed. If repealed, the standard for a reasonable investigation would be based on OAR 436-060-0140. Though the standard under OAR 436-060-0140 is not specific to COVID-19 claims, it would be reasonable to interpret it to include steps that are included in OAR 436-060-0141, such as investigating the connection between the diagnosis and the worker's employment, obtaining medical documentation, and determining whether the worker missed time from work due to the claimed condition or exposure.

The rule may also no longer be necessary because the number of COVID-19 claims has decreased since the rule was implemented. Claim data reported to the division¹ indicates that in 2024, 160 claims were filed, compared to a peak of 3,277 in 2022. As of July 6, 2025, only 5 claims have been filed for this year.

COVID-19 related claims 2020 - 2025

2020	2,779
2021	2,425
2022	3,277
2023	802

5. What impacts has the rule had on small businesses?

The division is unaware of any impact the rule has had on small businesses.

The department must review each administrative rule not later than five years after its adoption. Under ORS 183.405, the agency must determine:

- (a) Whether the rule has had the intended effect;
- (b) Whether the anticipated fiscal impact of the rule was underestimated or overestimated;
- (c) Whether subsequent changes in the law require that the rule be repealed or amended;
- (d) Whether there is continued need for the rule; and
- (e) What impacts the rule has on small businesses.

The department must report its findings to any advisory committee appointed under ORS 183.333, to the Secretary of State, and to the Small Business Advisory Committee.

The data does not include accepted nondisabling claims. Insurers are not required to report accepted nondisabling claims to the division.

What was the intended effect of this rule adoption?

For ODHS OTIS to conduct child abuse investigations by accused adults (respondents) who are not a parent or family to the child but a "third-party" (as defined in rule). New duties of OTIS, who specialize in child abuse investigations that involve professionals in regulated settings by nonfamily caregivers, while ODHS Child Welfare concentrates on abuse within families.

Yes	Has the rule had the intended effect? Assures ODHS responds to reports of alleged child abuse as required under ORS 419B.005 to 419B.050 to make findings. OTIS also assures notice of rights to due process offered for founded child abuses determined following investigation, provides opportunity for a contested case hearing prior to an ODHS final order being issued.
	Was the anticipated fiscal impact of the rule underestimated? Expected fiscal impact for ODHS OTIS as new work; these allegations were closed at screening without further investigation by ODHS Child Welfare, and cross-reported to law enforcement. Specific funding unaddressed in 2019 SB 155 that required these cases be completed if not done by law enforcement. 2020 SB 1605 allowed ODHS to delay implementing these third-party investigations to April 2021 with data to be collected by Nov 2020: Data projected 1824 allegations per year and 38 positions for OTIS. The legislature funded OTIS 17 positions. The number of allegations investigated each year and determined founded (as of Yes	Sept 30, 2025*): 2021 (as of March 1): 327 allegations with 17% of these founded. 2022: 824 allegations with 23.5% of these founded. 2023: 1188 allegations with 42.3% of these founded. 2024: 1411 allegations with 39.3% of these founded. 2025*: 927 allegations with 35.9% of these founded. While the numbers of allegations investigated each year is below the 2020 projected total, a significant percentage of founded allegations eligible for a contested case hearing is noted in 2023, 2024 & the first three quarters of 2025. According to the OTIS Appeals Team: Roughly one-third of eligible cases are appealed with about 10-15 contested cases per month, and a hearing/lay representative able to complete about three per month. Appeals Team manager states initial funding of one representative was not adequate.
No	Was the anticipated fiscal impact of the rule overestimated? No anticipated fiscal impact identified by stakeholders during the Rules Advisory Committee.
X Yes	 Have subsequent changes in the law required the rule to be repealed or amended? 2023 Legislations: Senate Bill 93 amended ORS 419B.005, the definition of "mental injury"; DHS 18-2023, effective 01/01/2024, permanent rulemaking for OAR 407-047-0680 Abuse Determinations that were temporarily amended by DHS 4-2023, effective 09/01/2023 due to emergency clause.

Senate Bill 757 amended OAR 407-047-0700 to require OTIS provides a copy of the respondent's notification for founded child abuse to their attorney (if applicable), as part of DHS 18-2023, effective 01/01/2024. House Bill 3558, minor corrections for name change of the Office of Child Care to the Dept. of Early Learning and Care (DELC), see DHS 16-2023 and DHS 17-2023. OTIS amended their rules based on the following policy decisions: DHS 29-2022, effective 08/01/2022 repealed OAR 407-047-0720 & OAR 407-047-0730 with creation of OAR chapter 407, division 44 for contested case hearings and use of lay representation in all appeals of a founded OTIS child abuse determination. Additional amends made to further align all OTIS child abuse rules related to deviations in notifications (OAR 407-047-0650 & OAR 407-047-0700), add required Tribal notifications prior to an Indian child being contacted (OAR 407-047-0660), allow 10 business day response time (OAR 407-047-0630 & OAR 407-047-0640), add "volunteers" to the definition of third-party professional (OAR 407-047-0610), and minor corrections due to new division 44 rules. DHS 10-2024, effective 08/01/2024 for OAR 407-047-0660 for Investigations and OAR 407-047-0700 for Notifications. Added the requirement OTIS must provide written notification to a respondent before requesting an investigative interview. And upon closure of the investigation, OTIS must provide written information to the respondent about their ability to request a redacted report, as part of the notice of rights to appeal the founded abuse. • Effective 11-1-2024, DHS 16-2024 filed for rules renumbered from OAR 407-047-0600 through OAR 407-047-0710 to OAR chapter 419, division 240. Also, minor correction orders filed (OTIS 47-2024 through OTIS 58-2024) due to renumbered rules.

X Yes

Is there a continued need for the rule?

These rules are part of OTIS shared services with Child Welfare related to child abuse investigations by others who are not family (third-party).

What impact has the rule had on small businesses? No additional costs were expected for small businesses.
