INFORMATION AND PUBLICATION SCHEDULE

General Information

The Administrative Rules Unit, Archives Division, Secretary of State publishes the Oregon Administrative Rules Compilation and the on-line Oregon Bulletin. The Oregon Administrative Rules Compilation is an annual print publication containing the complete text of Oregon Administrative Rules (OARs) filed during the previous year through November 15, or the last workday before that if the 15th falls on a weekend or holiday. The Oregon Bulletin is a monthly on-line supplement that contains rule text amended after publication of the print Compilation, as well as proposed rulemaking and rulemaking hearing notices. The Bulletin also publishes certain non-OAR items such as Executive Orders of the Governor, Opinions of the Attorney General, and Department of Environmental Quality cleanup notices.

Background on Oregon Administrative Rules

ORS 183.310(9) defines “rule” as “any agency directive, standard, regulation or statement of general applicability that implements, interprets or prescribes law or policy, or describes the procedure or practice requirements of any agency.” Agencies may adopt, amend, repeal or renumber rules, permanently or temporarily (up to 180 days), using the procedures outlined in the Oregon Attorney General’s Administrative Law Manual. The Administrative Rules Unit assists agencies with the notification, filing and publication requirements of the administrative rulemaking process.

How to Cite

Every administrative rule uses the same numbering sequence of a three-digit chapter number followed by a three-digit division number and a four-digit rule number (000-000-0000). Example: Oregon Administrative Rules, chapter 166, division 500, rule 0020 (short form: OAR 166-500-0020).

Understanding an Administrative Rule’s “History”

State agencies operate in a dynamic environment of ever-changing laws, public concerns and legislative mandates which necessitate ongoing rulemaking. To track changes to individual rules and organize the rule filing forms for permanent retention, the Administrative Rules Unit has developed for each rule a “history” which is located at the end of the rule text. An administrative rule “history” outlines the statutory authority, statutes implemented and dates of each authorized modification to the rule text. Changes are listed in chronological order and identify in abbreviated form the agency, filing number, year, filing date and effective date. For example: “OSA 4-1993, f. & cert. ef. 11-10-93” documents a rule change made by the Oregon State Archives (OSA). The history notes this was the 4th filing from the Archives in 1993, it was filed on November 10, 1993 and the rule changes became effective on the same date. The most recent change to each rule is listed at the end of the “history.”

Locating the Most Recent Version of an Administrative Rule

The on-line OAR Compilation is updated on the first of each month to include all rule actions filed with the Administrative Rules Unit, Secretary of State’s office by the 15th of the previous month, or by the last workday before the 15th if that date falls on a weekend or holiday. The annual printed OAR Compilation contains the full text of all rules filed during the previous year through November 15, or the last workday before that if the 15th falls on a weekend or holiday. Subsequent changes to individual administrative rules are listed by rule number in the OAR Revision Cumulative Index which is published monthly in the on-line Oregon Bulletin. These listings include the effective date, the specific rulemaking action, and the issue of the Bulletin that contains the full text of the amended rule. The Bulletin contains the full text of permanent and temporary rules filed for publication.

Locating Administrative Rules Unit Publications

The Oregon Administrative Rules Compilation and the Oregon Bulletin are available on-line through the Oregon State Archives web site at <<http://arcweb.sos.state.or.us>>. Printed volumes of the Compilation are deposited in Oregon’s Public Documents Depository Libraries listed in OAR 543-070-0000. Complete sets and individual volumes of the Compilation may be ordered by contacting: Administrative Rules Unit, Archives Division, 800 Summer Street NE, Salem, OR 97310, (503) 373-0701, Julie.A.Yamaka@state.or.us

2009–2010 Oregon Bulletin Publication Schedule

The Administrative Rules Unit accepts proposed rulemaking notices and administrative rule filings Monday through Friday, 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, at the Oregon State Archives, 800 Summer Street NE, Salem, Oregon 97310. To expedite the rulemaking process agencies are encouraged file a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking Hearing specifying hearing date, time and location, and submit their filings early in the submission period to meet the following deadlines:

Reminder for Agency Rules Coordinators

Each agency that engages in rulemaking must appoint a rules coordinator and file an “Appointment of Agency Rules Coordinator” form, ARC 910-2003, with the Administrative Rules Unit, Archives Division, Secretary of State. Agencies which delegate rulemaking authority to an officer or employee within the agency must also file a “Delegation of Rulemaking Authority” form, ARC 915-2005. It is the agency’s responsibility to monitor the rulemaking authority of selected employees and to keep the appropriate forms updated. The Administrative Rules Unit does not verify agency signatures as part of the rulemaking process. Forms are available from the Administrative Rules Unit, Archives Division, 800 Summer Street NE, Salem, Oregon 97301, (503) 373-0701, or are downloadable at <<http://arcweb.sos.state.or.us/banners/rules.htm>>

Publication Authority

The Oregon Bulletin is published pursuant to ORS 183.360(3). Copies of the original Administrative Orders may be obtained from the Archives Division, 800 Summer Street, Salem, Oregon, 97310; (503) 373-0701. The Archives Division charges for such copies.

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 10 - 01

PRESERVING AND ENHANCING OREGON'S HISTORIC DOWNTOWNS

Oregon's historic downtowns, including its main street communities and urban commercial neighborhoods, are precious assets to our State. Historic downtowns provide important cultural and civic centers; contribute to the state's economic vitality; advance greenhouse gas reduction goals by creating pedestrian friendly environments; and demonstrate sustainability.

Historic downtowns are repositories of architecturally and historically significant buildings that reflect the aspirations and culture of the communities in which they are located. These buildings provide a sense of place and local identity while offering settings for civic and commercial activities, the arts, and community affairs. Historic downtowns are also a major tourist attraction. Many Oregon communities view cultural heritage tourism as an important economic development strategy because it creates jobs, provides business opportunities, and generates tax revenues for local governments.

Historic downtowns help to reduce greenhouse gas emissions through their embodiment of land use and community design concepts that enable Oregonians to move about without relying completely on the automobile for transportation. These districts are characterized by compact, mixed-use development; the concentration of public agencies, stores, housing and services within close proximity of each other; pedestrian-friendly architecture and urban design; and short blocks with convenient connections. Taken together, these features reduce distances between destinations, thereby allowing people to take short trips by foot rather than by motor vehicle. In larger communities, these compact areas also make public transit more feasible.

Historic buildings were built to last. Their age is a testament to their sustainability. Their adaptive use is an example of recycling. Their enduring popularity reflects the desire of people everywhere to be ennobled and dignified by beauty in their surroundings. The architects of historic buildings applied good design and sustainability principles to the construction of such buildings. They took advantage of time-honored, natural methods of heating and cooling. Continued use of historic buildings takes advantage of the resources and energy embodied in them, reduces the need to consume more natural resources for new buildings, and eases pressures on landfills. The revitalization of historic downtowns lessens the need for new infrastructure at the fringes of urban areas and cuts down on the consumption of farm and forest land for new development.

Oregonians have invested in the infrastructure of historic downtowns. Retaining this infrastructure promotes economic efficiency. Siting and retaining state facilities in compact, pedestrian-friendly central locations, such as historic downtowns, is in the long-term best interest of the State of Oregon.

Recently, Department of Administrative Services (DAS) Facilities Division has made concerted efforts to locate and site state agency facilities in historic downtowns. The Facilities Division successfully sited facilities for the Department of Human Services, Department of Transportation, Department of Justice, Department of Corrections, and Employment Department in historic districts in Albany, Portland and Salem. To continue to improve upon these efforts, I issue the following Order.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY DIRECTED AND ORDERED:

1. As part of the established DAS Facilities Division facility siting process (Policy Number 125-6-115), directors of state agencies shall contact the State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) to seek its assistance in identifying properties in historic downtowns that might meet the agencies' facilities needs and mission in ways that comport with local downtown revitalization objectives.
2. When economically feasible and consistent with the agency's mission and existing law, state agencies shall strive to locate offices in buildings located in historic downtowns that are pedestrian-friendly, sustainable, and compatible with the uses of nearby historic structures.
3. When economically feasible and consistent with the agency's mission and existing law, agencies shall strive to obtain meeting space and lodging accommodations in historic buildings located in historic downtowns. When such space or accommodations are not available, or not suitable, state agencies shall consider meeting space or lodging in non-historic buildings located in pedestrian friendly and/or transit friendly areas in historic downtowns.
4. In consultation with the SHPO, the director of DAS shall develop policies to implement this order as soon as practicable. The policies so developed shall provide for consultation with local officials and the consideration of local planning initiatives intended to enhance the livability and economic vibrancy of historic downtowns. Any parking calculations in the policies shall encourage the retention of historic buildings as well as urban form characteristics of historic areas that minimize the need to make short trips by automobile, thereby reducing local carbon footprints. Directors of state agencies shall cooperate with the DAS and SHPO in implementing this order.

Done at McMinnville, Oregon this 13th day of January, 2010.

OTHER NOTICES

REQUEST FOR COMMENTS PROPOSED APPROVAL OF CLEANUP AT FORMER PORTLAND DOCK COMMISSION

COMMENTS DUE: March 3, 2010, 5 p.m.

PROJECT LOCATION: 2435 NW Front Avenue, Portland, Oregon

PROPOSAL: The Department of Environmental Quality proposes to approve a cleanup of petroleum in the soil at the former Portland Dock Commission. DEQ has determined that the site meets state requirements to protect human health and the environment and that no further action is needed at the site.

HIGHLIGHTS: Columbia Rivers Pensioners currently owns the property which currently has a two-story building constructed in 1981, housing offices and an International Longshore and Warehouse Union meeting hall. The City of Portland Commission of Public Docks purchased the property in 1946 from Eastern and Western Lumber Company. The site was formerly used for lumber storage and a car wash. During excavation activities for an addition to the building, an underground storage tank and two sumps were discovered in 2004. Petroleum hydrocarbons were detected in soil and groundwater, and chlorinated hydrocarbons were also detected in groundwater. The source of contamination at the site appears to be associated with historical operations, specifically the former car wash. Specific details and operations of the car wash facility are not known. Leaks from the sumps and piping likely caused the observed subsurface contamination.

HOW TO COMMENT: The project file may be reviewed by appointment at DEQ's Bend Office, 475 NE Bellevue Drive, Suite 110, Bend, Oregon 97701. To schedule an appointment to review the file or ask questions, please contact Marcy Kirk at 541-633-2009. To access site summary information and the staff report in DEQ's Environmental Cleanup Site Information (ECSI) database on the Internet, go to <http://www.deq.state.or.us/lq/ECSI/ecsiquery.asp>, then enter 5173 in the Site ID box and click "Submit" at the bottom of the page. Next, click the link labeled 5173 in the Site ID/Info column. Send written comments by 5 p.m., March 3, 2010 to Marcy Kirk, Project Manager at the above address or to kirk.marcy@deq.state.or.us.

THE NEXT STEP: DEQ will consider all public comments received by the close of the comment period before making a final decision regarding the "No Further Action" determination.

ACCESSIBILITY INFORMATION: DEQ is committed to accommodating people with disabilities. Please notify DEQ of any special physical or language accommodations or if you need information in large print, Braille or another format. To make these arrangements, contact DEQ Communications and Outreach (503) 229-5696 or toll free in Oregon at (800) 452-4011; fax to 503-229-6762; or e-mail to deqinfo@deq.state.or.us.

People with hearing impairments may call the Oregon Telecommunications Relay Service at 1-800-735-2900. Give the phone number (541-633-2009).

REQUEST FOR COMMENTS A CHANCE TO COMMENT ON NO FURTHER ACTION DETERMINATION FOR ASTORIA AREA WIDE PETROLEUM SITE AREA 3

COMMENTS DUE: March 3, 2010

PROJECT LOCATION: 585 Hamburg Road, Astoria, Oregon

PROPOSAL: Pursuant to Oregon Revised Statute, ORS 465.320, the Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) issues this notice regarding a proposed No Further Action (NFA) cleanup determination for a portion of the Port of Astoria's property. The DEQ will consider public comments in finalizing its NFA determination. Send written comments on the proposed NFA to Anna Coates, Oregon DEQ, Northwest Region, 2020 SW 4th Avenue, Suite 400, Portland, Oregon 97201, or e-mail to coates.anna@deq.state.or.us. by 5 p.m. on Wednesday March 3, 2010.

HIGHLIGHTS: The Port of Astoria facility is part of a larger investigation and cleanup site referred to as the "Astoria Area Wide Cleanup Site". It is divided into five operating areas based on property ownership, geography, and contaminant characteristics. Area 3 formerly contained a Chevron/McCall Oil Bulk Plant located at 585 Hamburg Road in Astoria, Oregon (Chevron Facility No. 206195). The site is bordered by Burlington Northern Railroad tracks to the south, Hamburg Road to the east, Port of Astoria property and the Columbia River to the north, and Port property and Young's Bay to the west.

The site was a marine terminal, including four above-ground bulk-fuel-storage tanks within a walled containment. Three fuel-delivery pipelines extended from the fuel-storage facility to the end of the Port of Astoria's Pier 2. A leak was discovered in one of the pipelines during pressure testing. This leak is a source (among others) of an ongoing petroleum seep into Slip 2 sediments and Columbia River surface water.

In December 2001, DEQ issued an order (DEQ No. ECSR-NWR-01-11) to the Port, Chevron and several other current and past owners and operators at and adjacent to the Port's facilities where releases of petroleum fuels occurred that required investigation and cleanup of petroleum contamination. The site-wide investigation work was completed in 2008, and cleanup alternatives for other areas of the larger area-wide project are in progress.

Chevron completed a removal action in 2002 at their former bulk plant in Area 3 to facilitate redevelopment. Approximately 6,800 tons of petroleum-contaminated soil was excavated from the site and disposed at Hillsboro Landfill, a licensed Subtitle D landfill. A risk assessment was completed for the site to evaluate risk posed by remaining contamination in Area 3. The risk assessment indicates current environmental conditions are protective to human health and the environment.

Site stormwater discharges to the Port of Astoria stormwater system regulated by DEQ's Water Quality Program under a National Pollution Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permit. The proposed NFA is conditional based on maintaining the NPDES permit and associated best management practices specified in the Stormwater Pollution Control Plan (SWPCP) under the permit.

HOW TO COMMENT: Written comments can be sent to DEQ Northwest Region at 2020 SW Fourth Ave., Suite 400, Portland, Oregon 97201-4987. To view the project files please call Dawn Weinberger, File Review Specialist, at (503) 229-6729 to schedule an appointment (ask for ECSI file #2277). If you have any questions, please call the DEQ project manager, Anna Coates, at 503-229-5213 or by email at coates.anna@deq.state.or.us.

THE NEXT STEP: Once the public comment period has closed DEQ will consider all comments before making a decision concerning the final cleanup remedy.

PUBLIC NOTICE PROPOSED REMEDIAL ACTION FOR FORMER CHEVRON STATION NO. 9-2382 LAKEVIEW, OR

COMMENTS DUE: March 5, 2010

PROJECT LOCATION: Corner of Fourth & G Streets, Lakeview, Lake County

PROPOSAL: The Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) is proposing to issue a No Further Action decision regarding cleanup activities at the above referenced site based upon an approval of work done to date and a proposed Risk-Based Corrective Action Plan.

HIGHLIGHTS: Petroleum contamination was discovered at the site in 1987; site investigations confirmed the presence of petroleum impacted soil and groundwater, which resulted in the installation of groundwater monitoring wells. Groundwater at the site has been monitored on a regular basis since 1989. The former Chevron Station (No. 9-2382) ceased operations as a retail service station in 2002; the underground storage tanks (USTs) were removed in 2002 and 2003. Contaminants remaining in groundwater at the site have been shown to be present at concentrations below site-specific risk-based concentrations, which are considered to be protective of human health, welfare, and the environment.

OTHER NOTICES

A conceptual site model was developed and a risk-based assessment performed by Stantec Consulting Corporation, Salt Lake City, Utah, showing that residual petroleum hydrocarbons do not pose an unacceptable risk to human health and the environment by all reasonably likely current and future exposure pathways. The site is in an area served by a municipal water system.

Based upon DEQ's evaluation of the consultant Stantec's findings, there are no pathways by which humans, animals or other "ecological receptors" may be exposed to site-related contaminants. Residual contaminants at the site do not currently produce odors or other nuisance conditions.

If implemented as proposed, the risk-based corrective action plan submitted by Stantec submitted by Chevron's consultant and reviewed by DEQ, will achieve protective conditions at the site as defined in Oregon Administrative Rule (OAR) 340-122-0040.

All documents and reports pertaining to the recommendation of acceptance of the proposed remedial action may be reviewed by appointment, at DEQ's office in Bend, 475 NE Bellevue Drive, Bend OR 97701. To schedule an appointment or make inquiries, contact the project manager, Joe Klemz at (541) 633-2015.

COMMENTS: Written comments should be sent to the attention of Mr. Klemz at the address listed above and must be received by March 5, 2010. Questions or comments may also be directed to Mr. Klemz via email at klemz.joe@deq.state.or.us

NEXT STEP: DEQ will consider all comments received. A final decision concerning the proposed remedial actions will be made after consideration of public comments.

PUBLIC NOTICE SELECTED REMEDIAL ACTION AT THE CHEMCENTRAL (AKA UNIVAR, INC.) SITE

PROJECT LOCATION: 10821 North Lombard Street, Portland, Oregon

DECISION: The Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) has selected a remedy to address soil and groundwater contamination at the CHEMCENTRAL (aka Univar, Inc.) site located at 10821 N. Lombard Street in Portland, Oregon. The site is identified as #878 in DEQ's Environmental Cleanup and Site Information (ECSI) database. The selected remedial action, consisting of treatment of soil by vapor extraction, groundwater treatment by in-situ remediation, and monitored natural attenuation, has been approved by DEQ's Northwest Region (NWR) Administrator following a public comment period in December 2009.

HIGHLIGHTS: Site investigation has identified volatile organic compounds (VOCs) in soil and groundwater beneath the site. Contamination is related to releases from underground storage tanks and an on-site dry well. Soil interim remedial actions undertaken by CHEMCENTRAL/Univar and natural biodegradation have reduced the concentration and extent of contamination; however, based on a 2009 Risk Assessment approved by DEQ, VOCs remain above risk-based levels in soil, and in groundwater around a dry well. A remedy for the site consisting of: 1) treatment of soil by expanding the existing soil vapor extraction system; 2) treatment of groundwater by injection of a non-toxic "carbon donor" to stimulate bacterial destruction around dry well #2; and 3) monitored natural attenuation. The proposed remedy was outlined in a November 2009 Staff Report, and public notice issued on December 1 in The Oregonian and the Secretary of State's Bulletin. No comment was received during the 30-day comment period. A Record of Decision (ROD) was signed by the NWR Administrator on January 11, 2010 approving the remedy. The remedy is protective, addresses the balancing factors outlined in OAR 340-122-090(3), and addresses DEQ's preference for treatment of hot spots required under OAR 340-122-085(5,6,7) and 340-122-090(4).

SITE INFORMATION: The project file including a copy of the ROD may be reviewed by appointment at DEQ's Northwest Region Office at 2020 SW Fourth Avenue, Suite #400, Portland, OR 97201. To schedule an appointment to review the file or to ask questions, please contact Dawn Weinberger at (503) 229-6729. Summary information and a copy of DEQ's ROD are available in DEQ's ECSI database on the Internet, go to <http://www.deq.state.or.us/lq/>

ECSI/ecsiquery.asp, then enter 878 in the Site ID box and click "Submit" at the bottom of the page. Next, click the link labeled 878 in the Site ID/Info column. The DEQ project manager is Daniel Hafley.

REQUEST FOR COMMENTS DEQ RECOMMENDS NO FURTHER ACTION FOR CLEANUP OF THE FORMER UNOCAL BULK PLANT AND TERMINAL, COOS BAY

COMMENTS DUE: 5 pm on March 2, 2010

PROJECT LOCATION: 2395 Bayshore Drive, Coos Bay

PROPOSAL: Per OAR 340-120-0078, a 30-day public comment period is required before a proposed No-Further-Action determination can be approved by the DEQ. The current owner of the former Unocal bulk plant and terminal conducted investigation and cleanup of petroleum-contaminated soil and groundwater at Area 1 of the site, located at 2395 Bayshore Drive, (tax lot 400, Map 25S-13W-22DA) Coos Bay. Residual contamination in soil and groundwater at Area 1 is below occupational cleanup levels and thus DEQ recommends No Further Action for investigation and cleanup of Area 1.

HIGHLIGHTS: Various petroleum products were delivered to, stored, and transferred from the bulk plant from 1935 to about 2000 under various ownership including Unocal, TOSCO, and ConocoPhillips. Historical releases of petroleum from storage and transfer operations impacted soil and groundwater.

The site was divided into 2 cleanup areas, Area 1 (upland) and Area 2 (waterfront). Area 1 incorporates the portion of the site west of Highway 101 including a smaller portion west of Willow Street. Area 2 consists of the area under Highway 101 impacted by petroleum and the waterfront portion east of Highway 101. This No-Further-Action proposal is only for Area 1. Area 2 requires additional assessment and potentially cleanup.

Investigation activities began in 1988 which included several phases of assessment and cleanup. Tanks and piping were decommissioned and removed in 2006 as well as 39 tons of petroleum-impacted soil. Additional risk assessment and land use review was conducted between 2006 and 2009, concluding investigation activities on Area 1. Residual contamination remains on the site. However, soil and groundwater contamination on Area 1 is below cleanup levels for a commercially or industrially-zoned facility. As long as the site does not have residential uses, the site will be protective of human health and the environment. The site is not zoned residential and will likely not be zoned residential. DEQ recommends No Further Action for investigation and cleanup of Area 1.

DEQ is soliciting public comment on the No-Further-Action recommendation.

HOW TO COMMENT: A Summary Report prepared by DEQ presents details about the site and the No Further Action recommendation. The summary report is available online at <http://www.deq.state.or.us/lq/ECSI/ecsi.htm> on the Environmental Site Cleanup Inventory as site # 288 or by contacting the DEQ project manager, Bryn Thoms at 541-687-7424 or at thoms.bryn@deq.state.or.us. The report can be viewed in person at the DEQ Eugene office by appointment. The Eugene office address and contact information is presented to the right.

Comments on the proposed cleanup need to be received by the Eugene Office, attn: Bryn Thoms, by 5 pm on March 2, 2010. Fax or email comments are acceptable.

THE NEXT STEP: Upon completion of the comment period, the comments will be addressed. Once the comments have been adequately addressed, the DEQ may approve, modify, or deny the No Further Action determination for the site.

ACCESSIBILITY INFORMATION: DEQ is committed to accommodating people with disabilities. Please notify DEQ of any special physical or language accommodations or if you need information in large print, Braille or another format. # NOTICES OF PROPOSED RULEMAKING

Notices of Proposed Rulemaking and Proposed Rulemaking Hearings

The following agencies provide Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to offer interested parties reasonable opportunity to submit data or views on proposed rulemaking activity. To expedite the rulemaking process, many agencies have set the time and place for a hearing in the notice. Copies of rulemaking materials may be obtained from the Rules Coordinator at the address and telephone number indicated.

Public comment may be submitted in writing directly to an agency or presented orally or in writing at the rulemaking hearing. Written comment must be submitted to an agency by 5:00 p.m. on the Last Day for Comment listed, unless a different time of day is specified. Written and oral comments may be submitted at the appropriate time during a rulemaking hearing as outlined in OAR 137-001-0030.

Agencies providing notice request public comment on whether other options should be considered for achieving a proposed administrative rule's substantive goals while reducing negative economic impact of the rule on business.

In Notices of Proposed Rulemaking where no hearing has been set, a hearing may be requested by 10 or more people or by an association with 10 or more members. Agencies must receive requests for a public rulemaking hearing in writing within 21 days following notice publication in the Oregon Bulletin or 28 days from the date notice was sent to people on the agency mailing list, whichever is later. If sufficient hearing requests are received by an agency, notice of the date and time of the rulemaking hearing must be published in the Oregon Bulletin at least 14 days before the hearing.

**Auxiliary aids for persons with disabilities are available upon advance request. Contact the agency Rules Coordinator listed in the notice information.*

Board of Chiropractic Examiners Chapter 811

Rule Caption: Establishes requirements for chiropractic pre-payment plans to address escrow accounts, refunds and treatment plans.

Date:	Time:	Location:
3-18-10	9:30 a.m.	Eugene Hilton 66 E. 6th Ave. Eugene, OR

Hearing Officer: Dave McTeague

Stat. Auth.: ORS 684

Other Auth.: ORS 684.155(b)

Stats. Implemented: ORS 684.0155(b)

Proposed Adoptions: 811-015-0002

Last Date for Comment: 3-18-10, Close of Hearing

Summary: DIVISION 15, CONSUMER PROTECTION
811-015-0002 Fees (New Proposed Section)

(1) Pre-Paid Treatment Plans: Chiropractic physicians accepting pre-payment for services planned but not yet delivered must establish an escrow account to hold all pre-payment funds.

(a) Funds may be removed from the escrow account following the delivery of services in such amounts equal to the chiropractors usual and customary charges for like services with any discounted percentage contained in the pre-paid agreement for the contracted treatment plan.

(b) Funds received in advance of the day that services are delivered must be deposited into the escrow account in a timely manner.

(2) The patient's file must contain the proposed treatment plan including enumeration of all aspects of evaluation, management and treatment planned to therapeutically benefit the patient relative to the condition determined to be present and necessitating treatment.

(a) The patient's financial file must contain documents outlining any necessary procedures for refunding unused payment amounts in the event that either the patient or the doctor discharge the others services or therapeutic association.

(b) The treatment plan in such cases where prepayment is contracted must contain beginning and ending dates and a proposed breakdown of the proposed treatment frequency, types of modalities and procedures included in the contracted treatment and methods of evaluating the patients progress or serial outcome assessment plan and method of recording or assessing patient satisfaction.

(3) A contract for services and consent for treatment document must be maintained in the patient's file. It must specify the condition(s) for which the treatment plan is formulated, prognosis and alternate treatment options.

(4) The chiropractic physician is responsible for providing all treatments appropriate and necessary to address and manage the condition including unforeseen exacerbations or aggravations, within the chiropractic physician's licensure, that may occur during the course of time for which the contract is active. This does not include alternative services procured by the patient or treatment by providers other than the treating chiropractor or those under the chiropractor's direct supervision. At any time during the course of the contract, referrals to outside providers shall be made when warranted.

(4) If nutritional products or other hard goods including braces, supports or patient aids are to be used during the proposed treatment plan, the patient documents must state whether these items are included in the gross treatment costs or if they constitute a separate and distinct service and fee. Any additional fees must be explained to the patient in advance and noted in the chart notes.

Proposed Adoptions: 334-001-0055

Last Date for Comment: 3-8-10, Close of Hearing

Summary: 334-001-0055—Board Member Stipend—The Oregon Board of Massage Therapists hereby adopts a board member stipend of $100.00 per month for each month a board member serves in their appointment.

During the 2009 legislative session HB 2058 was passed which changed state statute to allow all health related boards the discretion to determine and adopt by rule an appropriate board member stipend. As a semi-independent state agency the Oregon Board of Massage Therapists has had board discretion over its stipend which did not require the board to adopt the stipend by rule. To comply with the new law the OBMT is adding a rule to address the Board Member

Summary: We received the research results about a new trichomoniasis diagnostic test that is more accurate and less expensive than our current method. This test, known as a quantitative Polymerase Chain Reaction (qPCR) Assay, is more accurate as a single test than are three cultures that are no required by rule to diagnose trichomoniasis. This rule allows procedures to use the new qPCR Assay in place of the culture method for testing their bulls for Tritrichomonas fetus.

Summary: In 2008, Congress passed the Housing and Economic Recovery Act (HERA). Title V of HERA (the S.A.F.E. Act) created minimum standards for states to license mortgage loan originators. To implement these, the Oregon legislature passed House Bill 2189 directing the department to coordinate licensing of mortgage loan originators with the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry (NMLSR), to comply with the minimum requirements of the federal S.A.F.E. Act. These rules implement the statutory requirements for a new license for mortgage loan originators and make conforming requirements to the rules governing mortgage bankers, mortgage brokers, and consumer finance licensees who employ mortgage loan originators. The proposed rules revise the bonding requirements for mortgage bankers and brokers, update advertising requirements, and change the retention of documents in loan files to meet updated licensing requirements of mortgage loan originators and data needed by the NMLSR. The proposed rules related to consumer finance lenders update the advertising requirements, create a new bonding requirement, and create a new state background check requirement. The proposed rules also change the retention of documents in loan files to meet the updated licensing requirements of mortgage loan originators and data needed by the NMLSR for consumer finance lenders. The new rules also regulate the use of professional designations by mortgage bankers, mortgage brokers, and loan originators.

ing expedited services criteria, the hardship criteria for use of a telephone interview rather than a face-to-face interview, and when the Department must inform an applicant he or she has missed the first scheduled interview appointment.

OAR 461-115-0690 about the time limits for an applicant to verify information after being determined eligible for expedited services in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) is being amended to state when the verification may be postponed and that notice of the closing of or changes in SNAP program expedited services benefits due to postponed verification is provided in accordance with OAR 461-175-0300.

OAR 461-135-0498 is being adopted to state the specific activation of, eligibility for, and issuance of benefits requirements for the Pandemic-related Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (PSNAP). This rule is part of the implementation the PSNAP program to ensure children certified eligible to receive free and reduced price school lunches receive nutritional assistance during pandemic-related school closures.

OAR 461-135-0570 about how the Department determines if a student is eligible or ineligible for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits is being amended to state that the definition of employee in OAR 461-001-0015 also applies to this rule. This rule also is being amended to state that a student participating in a state or federally funded work study program must be assigned to and perform work in a work study position in his or her school's current academic term to be eligible for SNAP program benefits. This rule also is being amended to state that work in an externship, graduate assistantship, graduate fellowship, or internship and work for which the student receives in-kind payments rather than wages does not qualify to meet the 20 hours per week working student criteria for SNAP program eligibility.

OAR 461-135-0575 about the specific eligibility requirements for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) expedited services is being amended to clarify when a SNAP program applicant is screened for and receives expedited services. This rule also is being amended to state cross-references to rules about eligibility process interviews, application processing timeframes, and verification requirements for SNAP program expedited services.

OAR 461-135-0730 about the specific eligibility requirements for the Department's Qualified Medicare Beneficiaries (QMB) programs is being amended to state that to be eligible for the Qualified Medicare Beneficiaries — Qualified Individuals (QMB-SMF) program a client must be receiving Medicare Part A hospital insurance, including clients who must pay a monthly premium to receive the Medicare coverage.

OAR 461-135-0832 about the definitions used in the Department's Estate Administration rules is being amended to restate the definition of an "estate" when the Department is seeking reimbursement of public assistance payments made to a recipient on or after July 18, 1995 and the recipient died on or after October 1, 2008.

OAR 461-135-0835 about the limitations on claims the Department may make against the estate of a prior recipient of public assistance is being amended to state that in the Breast and Cervical Cancer Medical (BCCM), General Assistance (GA), General Assistance Medical (GAM), Oregon Health Plan (OHP), Oregon Supplemental Income Program (OSIP), Oregon Supplemental Income Program Medical (OSIPM), and Qualified Medicare Beneficiaries (QMB) programs the Department may file a claim against the estate of a recipient's spouse when the recipient's spouse dies before the recipient.

OAR 461-135-1195 about the specific requirements to be eligible for the State Family Pre-SSI/SSDI (SFPSS) program is being amended to state that a client is required to sign an interim assistance agreement allowing the Department to collect the amount of any interim SFPSS program benefits a client received once the client receives an initial Supplemental Security Income payment. This rule also is being amended to make permanent the temporary rule changes effective November 16, 2009.

OAR 461-145-0022 about how the Department treats annuities in the Oregon Supplemental Income Program Medical (OSIPM) program is being amended to revise and ease the requirements for an annuity to be considered actuarially sound.

OAR 461-145-0130 about how the Department treats a client's earned income when making eligibility and benefit determinations is being amended in response to a recent change in federal guidelines to exclude the earned income of temporary census workers from consideration when the Department determines eligibility and benefit level for a client in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). This rule also is being amended to make permanent the temporary rule changes effective January 1, 2010.

OAR 461-145-0150 about the treatment of educational income is being amended to state the Department's policy for the treatment of educational income from an externship, graduate assistantship, graduate fellowship, and internship.

OAR 461-145-0184 is being adopted to state how the Department treats payments received by a veteran or the spouse of a veteran who served in the military of the Government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines during World War II and made under the Filipino Veterans Equity Compensation Fund authorized by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009.

OAR 461-145-0320 about how the Department treats the value of life and burial insurance policies when determining a client's eligibility (the decision as to whether an individual qualifies, under financial and nonfinancial requirements, to receive program benefits) and benefit level is being amended to state that benefits paid on a life insurance policy are counted as unearned income in the month paid and as a resource in following months whether the payment resulted from the death of the insured individual or the insured individual received accelerated payments before death. This rule also is being amended to state that a deduction of $1,500 from a life insurance payment for the cost of the deceased individual's last illness and burial is allowed only when the payment resulted from the insured individual's death.

OAR 461-145-0550 about how the Department treats unemployment compensation benefits when determining a client's income is being amended — in response to recent federal legislation, the Worker, Home Ownership, and Business Assistance Act of 2009 (Pub. Law 111-92) — to state that the $25 supplemental payment authorized by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 is excluded from income when determining eligibility for all of the Department's programs. This amendment makes permanent the temporary rule changes effective November 24, 2009.

OAR 461-150-0090 about how the Department treats contract and self-employment income for clients in all programs, except the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) and Refugee Assistance Medical (REFM) programs, who are assigned to prospective budgeting is being amended to state how the Department determines countable income when current contract income is not representative of future income. This rule also is being amended to state that in the Employment Related Day Care (ERDC), Food Stamp (FS), Medical Assistance Assumed (MAA), Medical Assistance to Families (MAF), Refugee Assistance (REF), and Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) programs non-self employment income received during a less than 12-month period but intended as a full year's income is annualized. These rule amendments also make permanent the temporary rule changes effective December 1, 2009.

OAR 461-155-0700 about special needs payments for personal incidentals and room and board allowances to Oregon Supplemental Income Program — Medical (OSIPM) program clients in community-based care facilities is being amended to state when the payment is made and how the Department calculates the amount of the special needs payment for a legally married couple when one spouse is institutionalized and the other is a community spouse (not in a medical institution or nursing facility) and the client does not have sufficient income to divert to the community spouse. This rule also is being amended to remove a reference to the Oregon Supplemental

Summary: The Oregon Health Plan Program administrative rules govern Division of Medical Assistance Programs' (DMAP) payments for services provided to certain clients. DMAP temporarily amended 410-141-0520, referencing the January 1, 2010–December 31, 2011 Oregon Health Services Commission's Prioritized List of Health Services that reflects interim modifications and technical changes made, subject to Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) approval January 1, 2010. The January 1, 2010 interim modifications and technical changes include application of 2009 national code to the HSC lines and HSC guideline refinements.

Retroactively, to January 1, 2010, the 2010–11 Prioritized List includes 678 lines (down from 680), with a funding line that covers all services appearing on line 1-502. The change in the funding line number from 503 to 502 does not result in a reduction in covered services.

Summary: The Department of Human Services, Public Health Division is proposing to amend Oregon Administrative Rules 333-061-0010 through 333-061-0325 to comply with changes made to ORS 448.271 with the passage of SB 739 during the 2009 legislative session, to amend accredited laboratory and mandatory reporting criteria, and to amend the scope of the public water system definition in response to activity completed during the 2009 legislative session. Amendments also reflect housekeeping changes related to federal regulations published in the January 4, January 5 and November 8, 2006 Federal Registers. These proposed rule amendments are necessary for state primacy requirements relating to surface water treatment requirements, microbiological monitoring requirements for water systems supplied by groundwater sources, monitoring requirements for disinfection byproducts, variances from treatment techniques, and lead and copper monitoring and public education requirements. Some housekeeping changes are also proposed for reorganization and clarification of the rules division. Four rules are being repealed because they are redundant and duplicate other rules within the division. One rule change will increase fees for a small number of community water system that provide water on a wholesale basis but do not directly serve individual customers. This rule change also adds a late fee if a water system does not pay its sanitary surveys fee in a timely manner.

Last Date for Comment: 2-26-10, 5 p.m.

Summary: OAR 137-050-0760 is being adopted to provide factors for rebuttal to the presumed correct child support amount. This rule replaces the temporary rule which was effective January 4, 2010. It is being changed to clarify that the rebuttal factors listed may not include all possible rebuttal factors, and to remove the requirement to use certain rebuttal factors in each area subject to rebuttal.

OAR 137-055-1070 is being amended to provide criteria under which the program may provide services sufficient to establish paternity, without seeking a cash child support or medical support order.

OAR 137-055-2160 is being amended to clarify time frames when service is made by mail.

OAR 137-055-3340 is being amended to clarify how the program will establish medical support and administer contingent medical provisions in orders.

Stat. Auth.: ORS 184.616, 184.619, 802.010, 807.070, 807.120 & 807.150

Proposed Amendments: 735-062-0060

Last Date for Comment: 2-22-10

Summary: Persons 50 years of age or older must have their eyesight tested when their driver license is renewed. Effective January 1, 2010, some driver licenses are issued for a period that is less than eight years if the person is legally present in the United States on a temporary basis. DMV proposes to amend OAR 735-062-0060 to clarify that an eyesight test will be required whenever a person who is 50 years of age or older renews a driver license, regardless of the length of time it is valid. DMV also proposes to amend OAR 735-062-0060 to clarify that even if the person is under 50 years of age at the time he or she applies for renewal, DMV will conduct an eyesight test if the license to be renewed expires on or after the person's 50th birthday. For example, a person who applies for renewal at age 48 or 49 may be required to pass an eyesight test if he will be 50 years of age or older when his current driver license expires. This must be clarified because effective January 1, 2010, OAR 735-062-0090 allows a person to renew driving privileges up to 14 months prior to expiration. Also, the rule is being amended to clarify that if the driver license expires when the person is 49 years of age, but the person does not apply for renewal until he or she is 50 years of age or older, the person's eyesight will be tested.

Other changes are made for clarity and consistency with other DMV rules.

Last Date for Comment: 2-22-10

Summary: OAR 735-063-0070 establishes DMV's program for issuing a Waiver of Physical Disqualification to a driver of a commercial motor vehicle (CMV) who does not meet all physical qualification standards set by the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA). The Oregon Waiver of Physical Disqualification Program allows drivers with certain disqualifying conditions to meet the physical qualification requirements for issuance of a commercial driver license (CDL) or commercial driver permit to operate a CMV in intrastate commerce, but only if the driver is able to show that the condition does not impair his or her ability to operate a CMV safely.

The current rule does not specify the physical conditions for which a driver may qualify for a Waiver of Physical Disqualification. The medical guidelines used to determine whether a person qualifies for a Waiver of Physical Disqualification were initially developed in the late 1970's and early 1980's. DMV recently evaluated our program to see if it was consistent with current medical practices and federal guidelines. DMV determined that we would issue a Waiver of Physical Disqualification for five FMCSA physical disqualifications that have clearly defined standards and for which issuance of a waiver is supported by FMCSA medical advisory reports and DMV experience that providing a waiver for these types of conditions has shown no adverse affect on safety. The five disqualifying physical conditions that DMV will consider for a waiver are: loss or impairment of limb; diabetes; seizure disorder; impaired vision; and hearing loss. Therefore, DMV proposes to amend OAR 735-063-0070 to specify the disqualifying conditions for which a waiver may be issued. DMV proposes to further amend OAR 735-063-0070 to specify that those waivers issued prior to August 10, 2009 for a sleep disorder or a cardiac condition may be renewed as long as all other qualification requirements are met.

Department of Transportation, Highway Division Chapter 734

Rule Caption: ODOT intends to amend rules regarding tire requirements for triple trailer combinations.

Proposed Amendments: 734-074-0008, 734-074-0020

Last Date for Comment: 2-22-10

Summary: OAR 734-074-0008 contains definitions for Division 74 rules. OAR 734-078-0020 describes maximum allowable weights for axles and tires for vehicles operating in excess of statutory weight limits. Currently, a triple trailer combination in Oregon is required to use four tires on each single axle of a triple trailer combination. Advancement in tire technology since the current rule was adopted has resulted in development and national usage of a single wide base tire capable of replacing two tires on each side of an axle without compromising performance or safety. The Oregon Trucking Association requested a revision to the current rules to allow use of two new generation wide base single tires in lieu of four tires on converter dollies utilized in triple trailer combinations, citing:

- National Highway Transportation Safety Administration approval of wide base single tires on heavy trucks;
- Environmental Protection Agency, through their SmartWay Program, promotion of wide base single tires because of their lower rolling resistance and resultant fuel savings and reduced emissions;
- Reduced employee injuries resulting from maneuvering equipment at terminals;
- A nine year history of usage of wide base single tires; and
- That Oregon is currently the only state prohibiting use of wide base single tires on triple trailer combinations.

The proposed definition of "new generation wide base single tire" is uniform with the Western Alliance of State Highway Transportation Organization definition. Use of new generation wide base single tires is proposed provided vehicle, axle or tire load rating requirements are not compromised

Last Date for Comment: 2-22-10

Summary: These rules cover the annual adoption of federal motor carrier safety and hazardous materials transportation regulations. In addition, these rules cover the adoption of international standards related to driver, vehicle and hazardous materials out-of-service violations. The changes are necessary to ensure Oregon's motor carrier safety; hazardous materials; and driver, vehicle and hazardous materials out-of-service requirements are current with national and international standards. Amendments to the adoption of CFR 49 Part 391 regarding driver qualifications for intrastate motor carriers are necessary to ensure compatibility with federal regulations. Oregon stands to lose approximately $2.4 million of Motor Carrier Safety Assistance Program (MCSAP) funds if it fails to amend and maintain compatible rules.

Last Date for Comment: 3-18-10

Summary: The proposed amendments to rules OAR 660-027-0010 and 660-027-0070 would clarify the intent of the Land Conservation and Development Commission with regard to provisions in OAR 660-027-0070 that prohibit counties from amending land use regulations for areas designated as urban or rural reserves to allow uses that were not allowed at the time of their designations as reserves. State statutes and LCDC rules currently allow certain uses to be allowed on farm and forest lands through a plan amendment process. These uses include:

(1) New significant Goal 5 resources; Goal 5, its implementing rules and related statutes require plan amendments and corresponding zone amendments to allow the use of and/or protect newly-inventoried significant Goal 5 resources;

(2) New roads, highways and other transportation facilities and improvements; certain statutory provisions and LCDC rules require plan and zone amendments, and in some cases an exception to statewide goals, in order to authorize certain new roads, highways and other transportation facilities and improvements, as specified in OAR 215.213(10)(a), 215.283(10)(a), and 215.296.

Last Date for Comment: 3-11-10

Summary: This rule describes the minor postings that the Commission assigns to those licensed premises that allow on-premises consumption. These minor postings define if and under what conditions minors are allowed in areas where alcohol is consumed or there is a drinking environment. Staff proposes the deletion of subsection (4)(b) thereby removing the reference to “happy hours” because of the rulemaking already under way to remove it from the advertising restriction rule (OAR 845-007-0020(2)). Staff also proposes the amendment of subsection (5)(f) regarding the Number V posting for tasting rooms in order to standardize the size of distilled spirits tastings with the recently adopted Distillery tastings rule (OAR 845-006-0452). Two other minor revisions proposed are (1) the amendment of subsection (7)(b), adding language to clarify that licensees can’t later contest a permanent minor posting change if they agreed to the change, and (2) restructuring subsections (10)(b) & (c) so that the language regarding assigning a posting where one is normally not assigned only applies to private clubs and catered events, not temporary licenses. And finally, due to the smoking ban and subsequent growth in sidewalk areas being licensed, staff proposes amending what will now be subsection (10)(c) by adding language creating an exception to the 24 hour application of minor postings for public right-of-ways.

Last Date for Comment: 2-22-10

Summary: To establish Tuition and Fees for the 2009–10 Academic Year, including Room and Board rates. Due to the Legislative schedule, the Board approved the 2009–2010 Academic Year Fee Book as a temporary rule on July 10, 2009. On September 25, 2009, the Board also approved the following three amendments to the Fee Book: adopt a Nonresident Veteran Fee Remission policy, a housing rate change at Eastern Oregon University, and a program fee change at the University of Oregon. No other material changes have been made to the 2009–2010 Academic Year Fee Book approved by the Board on July 10, 2009. Scheduled public hearings on the proposed 2009–2010 Academic Year Fee Book were held Thursday, November 5, 2009 and Thursday, November 12, 2009, in Room 235 of Kerr Administration Building, on the Oregon State University campus. Prior to hearings, campus reminders of the hearings were sent via email to our customary distribution list including but not limited to: student body presidents, budget directors, housing directors, registrars, vice presidents for student affairs, student advocates, and the Oregon Student association. No students attended the hearings and no oral or written testimony was received.

NOTICES OF PROPOSED RULEMAKING

Last Date for Comment: 3-3-10, Close of hearing

Summary: The proposed rule changes create consistency in the way interest is calculated; clarify whether amended returns that are paid, filed, or received are consistent with the timing of when a utility will book a provision for an amended filing; and include into the calculation of revenues and taxes collected the seasonality of energy sold and used by customers. The proposed changes address specifically how interest should be calculated using the actual annual average weighted cost of debt multiplied by the rate base. Also, the proposed changes clarify the treatment of amended tax returns when calculating "taxes paid" under ORS 757.268. Lastly, including the weighted number of months into the calculation of revenues and taxes collected considers the seasonality of energy sold. Adopting these proposed rule changes will create consistency in the methods employed by a utility company when it files its SB 408 tax report ensuring that the intent of ORS 757.268 is upheld. These proposed rule changes will create more consistent outcomes for ratepayers of the different utilities that are subject to ORS 757.268.

Summary: These new rules and amendments are in response to Senate Bill 640 (Chapter 502, Oregon Laws 2009) that becomes effective January 1, 2011. The legislation allows the Real Estate Agency and the Real Estate Board to take any action before the operative date of the bill that is necessary to carry out the duties and functions required. The Agency anticipates filing permanent rules in this matter that will become effective on July 1, 2010. The rules implement legislation which created a structure for certifying continuing education course providers; changing the continuing education requirements for renewal of real estate broker, principal broker and property managers; establishing eligible continuing education course topics and learning objectives; requiring all license applicants to have a high school diploma or equivalent; and requiring principal broker applicants to pass an examination. Although the effective date of SB 640 is January 1, 2011, the rules will be effective July 1, 2010 in order to allow continuing education providers to apply for certification and establish eligible continuing education courses. Licensees renewing after January 1, 2011 must comply with the new continuing education requirements.

New Division 20 will contain all the continuing education requirements for licensees and course provider rules. New division 22 will contain the requirements for Agency and Board approval of specific pre-license and post-license education courses including advanced practices, broker administration and sales supervision, three-hour law and rule update and all pre-license courses. The Agency will post draft proposed rules to its website. www.rea.state.or.us, as soon as they are available. The Agency anticipates posting these rules no later than February 20, 2010.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Board of Chiropractic Examiners Chapter 811

Rule Caption: Proposed administrative rules for informed consent for examinations, open book Ethics & Jurisprudence Examination; Increases board member per diem.

Adm. Order No.: BCE 2-2009

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-22-2009

Certified to be Effective: 12-22-09

Notice Publication Date: 9-1-2009

Rules Amended: 811-010-0071, 811-035-0005, 811-035-0015

Subject: 811-035-0005 — Amends subsection (2). The current rule on informed consent is ambiguous regarding informed consent for examination procedures. The Board of Chiropractic Examiners wants to clarify these informed consent requirements to make the rule requirement for informed consent more explicit.

811-035-0015 — Amends subsection (18). This section needs to be amended to allow an open book examination for the revised Ethics and Jurisprudence state examination.

811-010-0071 — Creates a new subsection (2). HB 2058 passed the 2009 Legislature which allows health regulatory boards to determine board member per diem by administrative rule. HB 5054 passed approving an increase in funding for OBCE board member per diem. The proposed level of $139 per day recognizes the major time commitment required of board members.

811-010-0071

Board Members

(1) Members of the State Board of Examiners during their terms as such shall maintain a position of strict neutrality.

(2) Board members shall receive a per diem of $155 a day for board meetings, conference attendance and presentations.

Duties and Obligations of Chiropractic Physicians to Their Patients

(1) The health and welfare of the patient shall always be the first priority of Chiropractic physicians and expectation of remuneration shall not affect the quality of service to the patient.

(2) The patient has the right to informed consent regarding examination, therapy and treatment procedures, risks and alternatives, and answers to questions with respect to the examination, therapy and treatment procedures, in terms that they can be reasonably expected to understand.

(a) Chiropractic physicians shall inform the patient of the diagnosis, plan of management, and prognosis in order to obtain a fully informed consent of the patient during the early course of treatment.

(b) In order to obtain the informed consent of a patient, the chiropractic physician shall explain the following:

(A) In general terms, the examination procedure or treatment to be undertaken;

(B) That there may be alternative examination procedures or methods of treatment, if any; and

(C) That there are risks, if any, to the examination procedure or treatment

(3) Chiropractic physicians have the right to select their cases and patients. The patient has the right to continuity of care once the doctor has agreed to treat the patient. The chiropractor may terminate the patient-doctor relationship only when the patient has been given reasonable notice. It is permissible for the doctor to terminate the patient-doctor relationship when the patient fails to cooperate.

Unprofessional Conduct in the Chiropractic Profession

Unprofessional conduct means any unethical, deceptive, or deleterious conduct or practice harmful to the public; any departure from, or failure to conform to, the minimal standards of acceptable chiropractic practice; or a willful or careless disregard for the health, welfare or safety of patients, in any of which cases proof of actual injury need not be established. Unprofessional conduct shall include, but not be limited to, the following acts of a Chiropractic physician:

(1)(a) Engaging in any conduct or verbal behavior with or towards a patient that may reasonably be interpreted as sexual, seductive, sexually demeaning or romantic (also see ORS 684.100).

(b) A licensee shall not engage in sexual relations or have a romantic relationship with a current patient unless a consensual sexual relationship or a romantic relationship existed between them before the commencement of the doctor-patient relationship.

(c) "Sexual relations" means:

(A) Sexual intercourse; or

(B) Any touching of sexual or other intimate parts of a person or causing such person to touch the sexual or other intimate parts of the licensee for the purpose of arousing or gratifying the sexual desire of either licensee or patient.

(d) In determining whether a patient is a current patient, the Board may consider the length of time of the doctor-patient contact, evidence of termination of the doctor-patient relationship, the nature of the doctor-patient relationship, and any other relevant information.

(e) A patient's consent to, initiation of or participation in sexual behavior or involvement with a licensee does not change the nature of the conduct nor lift the prohibition.

(2) Charging fees for unnecessary services;

(3) Failing to teach and/or directly supervise persons to whom chiropractic services have been delegated;

(4) Practicing outside the scope of the practice of chiropractic in Oregon;

(5) Charging a patient for services not rendered;

(6) Intentionally causing physical or emotional injury to a patient;

(7) Directly or indirectly engaging in threatening, dishonest, or misleading fee collection techniques;

(8) Soliciting or borrowing money from patients;

(9) Possessing, obtaining, attempting to obtain, furnishing, or prescribing controlled drugs to any person, including self, except as directed by a person authorized by law to prescribe drugs; illegally using or dispensing controlled drugs;

(10) Aiding, abetting, or assisting an individual to violate any law, rule or regulation intended to guide the conduct of Chiropractic physicians or other health care providers; or

(11) Violating the rights of privacy or confidentiality of the patient unless required by law to disclose such information;

(12) Perpetrating fraud upon patients or third party payors, relating to the practice of chiropractic;

(13) Using any controlled or illegal substance or intoxicating liquor to the extent that such use impacts the ability to safely conduct the practice of chiropractic;

(14) Practicing chiropractic without a current Oregon license;

(15) Allowing another person to use one's chiropractic license for any purpose;

(16) Resorting to fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit in applying for or taking the licensure exam or obtaining a license or renewal thereof;

(17) Impersonating any applicant or acting as a proxy for the applicant in any chiropractic licensure examination;

(18) Disclosing the contents of the licensure examination or soliciting, accepting, distributing, or compiling information regarding the contents of the examination before, during, or after its administration; Notwithstanding this section, the Ethics and Jurisprudence Examination is open book and there is no restriction on applicants discussing answers to individual questions between themselves or with others.

(19) Failing to provide the Board with any documents requested by the Board;

(20) Failing to fully cooperate with the Board during the course of an investigation, including but not limited to, waiver of confidentiality privileges, except attorney-client privilege;

(21) Failing to comply with State and Federal laws regarding child and elderly abuse, and communicable diseases;

(22) Claiming any academic degree not actually conferred or awarded;

(23) Disobeying a final order of the Board; and

(24) Splitting fees or giving or receiving a commission in the referral of patients for services.

Applications

(1) Application for licensure as a professional counselor and marriage and family therapist must be submitted to the Board and be on forms provided by the Board.

(2) Application for licensure must include gender, date of birth, social security number, practice and residence addresses; similar licenses held in other states, and history of professional discipline, litigation, and criminal involvement and be accompanied by:

(a) The non-refundable application fee;

(b) Official transcript sent to the Board from the college or university and supporting documentation as necessary showing education requirements have been met;

(c) Documentation to prove experience requirements have been met or request for registration as an intern with a proposed plan to obtain required experience;

(d) Verification that approved examination has been passed, or state examination is being requested;

(e) Proposed professional disclosure statement for review and approval; and

(f) Criminal history information as specified in OAR 833-120-0021.

(3) Applicants, will be allowed one year from Board receipt of an application to file a complete application which documents that the applicant meets the educational and experience qualifications for licensure.

(4) Failure to withdraw the application or complete the process within the allowed time will result in closure of the file. An incomplete application includes but is not limited to an application in which

(a) Required information or original signatures are not provided;

(b) Required forms are not submitted;

(c) No or an insufficient fee is received.

(5) The Board retains the right to extend the one year period to complete application.

(6) Applicants who submit complete documentation but are not approved for registration, examination, or licensure will be notified in writing that the application is being denied and state the reason(s) for denial.

(7) To be reconsidered for licensure, applicants who failed to become licensed, who were refused licensure, who withdrew from consideration, or interns who have allowed their registration to expire will be required to file a new application, fee, and resubmit all documentation necessary to meet the standards for licensure in effect at the time of reapplication. Applicants reapplying must fulfill any deficiencies that are the result of changes to requirements that may have been implemented between former and current application.

Intern Registration Method

(1) The intern registration method is required for applicants who seek acceptance of post-degree supervised work experience completed in Oregon after June 30, 2002. The intern registration method requires applicant to obtain Board approval of a proposed plan for completing required hours of supervised work experience. No less than 1,000 hours of supervised work experience must be completed under an approved plan.

(2) Applicants approved for registration as an intern who maintain registration status and meet the conditions for annual renewal will be allowed five years to complete the experience requirements, as specified in OAR 833 division 50, to be approved for licensure or for examination. Failure to meet the experience requirements for licensure within five years will result in expiration of registration and closure of the application file.

(3) The intern may petition the Board to allow renewal for up to one year of registration beyond the maximum five years if he/she can show good cause for such extension.

Reciprocity Method

(1) The reciprocity method is required for applicants who seek acceptance of supervised work experience previously used to obtain a comparable license in another jurisdiction. The reciprocity method requires the applicant to document that the experience requirements under which the applicant obtained a comparable license held in another state are equivalent to the standards required for Oregon licensure as a professional counselor or as a marriage and family therapist.

(2) The Board will review each application designating the reciprocity method to determine if licensing is appropriate. The Board will compare the minimum standards in effect in the other jurisdiction when it granted a license with the current education, experience, and examination standards required for Oregon licensure.

(3) Application for licensure must be submitted to the Board office and be on forms provided by the Board.

(4) Application for licensure must be accompanied by:

(a) The non-refundable application fee;

(b) Official transcript of graduate degree that qualified the individual for licensure in the other state;

(c) Verification of licensure from the other state and information on the education, experience and examination requirements for licensure in that state at the time licensure was granted; and

(d) Professional disclosure statement.

(5) To qualify for licensure via reciprocity:

(a) The applicant must document holding:

(A) A graduate degree in counseling, or marriage and family therapy or a related degree from a college or university that was regionally accredited at time of graduation that meets the requirements under OAR 833 division 60 Majority Standards for Graduate Degrees; and

(B) A current, active license in another state comparable to the Oregon license requested either that of professional counselor or marriage and family therapist. Temporary, probationary, expired, revoked, or suspended licenses will not be considered.

(b) The jurisdiction of licensure must verify that the applicant has not been disciplined for misconduct or incompetence.

(c) The license held must have:

(A) Required at least a graduate degree in counseling (for LPC) or graduate degree in marriage and family therapy or related degree with systemic coursework (for LMFT);

(B) Been issued to an applicant whose qualifying degree meets Majority Standards for Graduate Degrees in 833 division 60.

(C) Required documentation of supervised work experience performing direct client counseling or marriage and family therapy, which must have included no less than:

(i) 1,000 post-degree direct service hours in two years or the equivalent for licensed professional counselor;

(ii) 2,000 post-degree direct service hours earned in 3 calendar years for licensed marriage and family therapist.

(D) Required passage of a competency examination as a condition for licensure; and

(E) Been obtained by a method of application that involved state review of documentation of education and experience under adopted standards, and not obtained through reciprocity; act of portability; mutual recognition; recognition of non-governmental, professional certification or membership; waiver of any of the education, experience, or examination requirements; or "grandparenting".

(d) The applicant must pass the Oregon law and rules examination.

Re-Licensure Method

(1) The re-licensure method is required for applicants who have previously been licensed by the Board. The re-licensure method requires the applicant, as a previous Board licensee, to request a new license with a new license number, but without documenting further supervised work experience.

(2) To be considered for re-licensure, licensees whose licenses have been expired for less than two years from last date of renewal must file:

(a) An application for re-licensure, using forms provided by the Board that must include a sworn statement that there is no reason for denial, including that applicant;

(A) Has not been subject to any disciplinary action by a professional mental health licensing or certification agency; and

(B) Has not been convicted of a crime related to practice within the mental health field.

(b) Payment of the current application fee plus one current annual renewal fee;

(c) Updated professional disclosure statement, statement that the applicant is not currently practicing professional counseling or marriage and family therapy, or request for waiver of the professional disclosure statement; and

(d) Report listing 20 hours of continuing education meeting the standards set forth in OAR 833-080-0011, completed within one year prior to the date the Board will receive the new application or within the year allowed for application to be completed.

(3) To be considered for re-licensure, licensees whose licenses have been expired for two or more years from last date of renewal must file:

(a) A new application, using forms provided by the Board, to show compliance with the standards in effect at the time the Board will receive this new application;

(b) The application fee;

(c) Proposed professional disclosure statement, statement that applicant is not currently practicing professional counseling or marriage and family therapy, or request for waiver of the professional disclosure statement; and

(d) Request for examination or proof of passage of a competency examination acceptable to the Board which was passed within 10 years of date of new application.

(4) All applicants for re-licensure must successfully pass the current law and rules section of the state examination.

(2) To qualify for licensure as a marriage and family therapist under ORS 675.715(5), an applicant must pass a competency examination prescribed by the Board or have passed other approved alternative exams, within 10 years from the date of application for licensure.

(3) The Board prescribes as the competency section the computerized marital and family therapy examination of the Association of Marital and Family Therapy Regulatory Boards (AMFTRB) in association with the Professional Examination Service.

(4) To qualify to sit for the competency examination, a LMFT applicant must:

(a) Submit an application;

(b) Meet the graduate program and coursework requirements prescribed in OAR 833 division 60; and

(c) Meet the supervised work experience requirements prescribed in OAR 833-040-0031.

(5) Candidates will pay exam and exam administration fees to the prescribed examination providers.

(6) Passing scores will be:

(a) Established by the AMFTRB for applicants who plan to take the exam after making application for Oregon licensure; or

(b) Established by the agency verifying passage of its examination for applicants who have completed an approved alternative examination.

(7) The Board will notify examinees, in writing only, of the results of their examination.

(8) Following passage of the approved competency examination, the Board requires passage of an Oregon state law and rules examination, with a passing score as determined by the Board.

Supervision

(1) Supervision of direct client contact must take place within the same calendar month as the completed direct client contact hours.

(2) Supervision meetings must take place at least twice per month, and in different weeks.

(3) Supervision meetings must be no less than one hour, defined as no less than 50 minutes.

(4) Supervision must total at least:

- (a) Two (2) hours for months in which 45 or fewer hours of direct client contact are completed; or
- (b) Three (3) hours for months in which 46 or more hours of direct client contact are completed.

(5) At least 25% of supervision hours must be conducted in a professional setting, face to face. Up to 75% of supervision hours may be conducted through electronic communication.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(6) At least 50% of the required number of monthly supervision hours must be individual supervision 1-to-1.

(7) Group supervision must meet the following requirements at each meeting.

- (a) Include no more than six (6) supervisees;
- (b) Have leadership that does not shift from one supervisor to another; and

(c) Not be a staff or team meeting, intensive training seminar, discussion group, consultation session, or quality assurance or review group.

(8) If in any month an intern does not receive the minimum supervision hours required, no client contact hours will be credited for that month.

(9) Interns must take steps to ensure consistency in supervision throughout the internship. The intern must request approval from the Board to change supervisors more than three times during the internship and provide steps taken to ensure consistency when changing supervisors.

(10) An approved plan for a single practice, such as private practice or employment by one agency offering services at one or more sites, may have no more than two supervisors at any given time.

(11) The supervisor must have the authority to:

- (a) Review all case records, billings, appointment books, and client population;
- (b) Review and determine appropriateness of individual charts and case records;
- (c) Direct the intern to refer clients to other therapists when client needs are outside the intern's scope of practice; and
- (d) Determine appropriate client caseload to be served by the intern.

Continuing Education Audit and Penalties

(1) The Board will conduct an audit of the records of randomly selected licensees to verify actual participation, completion, and compliance with standards for content and providers of approved continuing professional education. Failure to maintain or document actual completion of continuing professional education activities claimed, failure to make such records available to the Board for inspection, or falsification of reports may result in disciplinary action by the Board.

(2) Licensees participating in the continuing education audit that are unable to satisfactorily document that they completed training meeting the standards set forth in OAR 833-080-0041 will be assessed a civil penalty as follows:

- (a) Persons successfully documenting 31-39 hours — $250;
  - (b) Persons successfully documenting 21-30 hours — $500;
  - (c) Persons successfully documenting 11-20 hours — $750;
  - (d) Persons successfully documenting 10 or fewer hours — $1,000.
- (3) The civil penalty may not be paid in lieu of training.

(4) Failure to document required hours, or certifying programs or supervision not meeting approval requirements will result in non-renewal or, in the case of discovery after renewal, possible suspension of license.

Technology and Informed Consent

(1) Licensees must give all potential clients access to the licensee's Professional Disclosure Statement (PDS) prior to service delivery with a means of confirming receipt and acknowledgement of the PDS.

(2) Licensees must inform clients of the benefits and limitations of distance service delivery, including:

(a) Issues related to the difficulty of maintaining the confidentiality of electronically transmitted communications;

(b) Names of colleagues, supervisors, and employees, such as Informational Technology (IT) administrators, who may have authorized or unauthorized access to electronic transmissions;

(c) The risks of all authorized or unauthorized people who have access to any technology clients may use in the counseling process. This includes family members, friends, acquaintances, and fellow employees;

(d) Limitations governing the practice of the LPC or LMFT profession in the State of Oregon, including that the laws and statutes regarding the practice of professional counseling and marriage and family therapy differ from state-to-state;

(e) Contact information and alternate methods of contact in case of technology failure; and

General Purpose and Scope

(1) This code constitutes the standards against which the required professional conduct of licensed professional counselors and marriage and family therapists is measured. It has as its goal the welfare and protection of the individuals and groups with whom counselors and therapists work. This code applies to the conduct of all licensees, registered interns and applicants, including the applicant's conduct during the period of education, training, and employment which is required for licensure. Violation of the provisions of this code of ethics will be considered unprofessional or unethical conduct and is sufficient reason for disciplinary action, including, but not limited to, denial of licensure.

(2) If ethical responsibilities appear to conflict with law, regulations, or other governing legal authority, licensees are to make known their commitment to their ethical responsibilities and take steps to resolve the apparent conflict. If demands of an organization with which a licensee is affiliated conflicts with any aspect of the code of ethics, the licensee must clarify the nature of the conflict, make known their commitment to this code and resolve the conflict in a way that permits adherence to this code of ethics.

Responsibility

(1) A licensee's primary professional responsibility is to the client. A licensee makes every reasonable effort to advance the welfare and best interests of all clients for whom the licensee provides professional services. A licensee respects the rights of those persons seeking assistance and makes reasonable efforts to ensure that the licensee's services are used appropriately:

(2) A licensee recognizes that there are other professional, technical, and administrative resources available to clients. The licensee makes a reasonable effort to provide referrals to those resources when it is in the best interest of clients to be provided with alternative or complementary services or when the client requests a referral.

(3) Licensees do not give or receive commissions, rebates or any other form of remuneration when referring clients for professional services.

(4) A licensee seeks appropriate professional assistance for the licensee's own personal problems or conflicts that are likely to impair the licensee's work performance or clinical judgment.

(5) A licensee provides supervision only when the licensee's professional competence is sufficient to meet the needs of the trainee or intern. A licensee does not permit a trainee or intern under the licensee's supervision to perform, nor purport to be competent to perform, professional services beyond the trainee's or intern's level of training and accepts responsibility for the effects of the actions of the trainee or intern of which they should be aware.

(6) A licensee does not practice under the influence of alcohol or any controlled substance not prescribed by a physician, or if incapacitated by habitual or excessive use of intoxicants, drugs or controlled substances.

(7) A licensee does not practice when adversely influenced by either physical or emotional impairment that would interfere with their ability to provide professional services.

(8) A licensee abides by all applicable statutes and administrative rules regulating the practice of counseling or therapy or any other applicable laws, including, but not limited to, the reporting of abuse of children or vulnerable adults.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(9) A licensee does not condone or engage in discrimination on the basis of age, color, culture, disability, ethnicity, national origin, gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, or socioeconomic status.

(10) A licensee does not provide services to a client when the licensee's objectivity or effectiveness is impaired. If a licensee's objectivity or effectiveness becomes impaired during a professional relationship with a client, the licensee notifies the client that the licensee can no longer serve the client professionally and makes a reasonable effort to assist the client in obtaining other professional services.

(11) A licensee respects the right of a client to make decisions and helps the client understand the consequences of these decisions. A licensee advises a client that all decisions are the responsibility of the client.

(12) A licensee displays in a prominent place, available to clients, a Board issued license.

(13) A licensee obtains written informed consent from the client or legal representative of the client for rendering professional services. Informed consent constitutes informing the client as early in the therapeutic relationship as possible of the nature and anticipated course of therapy, services and approaches to be used, potential risks or experimental methods proposed, alternatives for treatment, fees, involvement of third parties, limits of confidentiality, and the client's right to accept or refuse any and all therapeutic treatment.

(14) A licensee makes available as part of the disclosure statement a bill of rights of clients, including a statement that consumers of counseling or therapy services offered by Oregon licensees have the right:

(a) To expect that a licensee has met the minimum qualifications of training and experience required by state law;

(b) To examine public records maintained by the Board and to have the Board confirm credentials of a licensee;

(c) To obtain a copy of the Code of Ethics;

(d) To report complaints to the Board;

(e) To be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services;

(f) To be assured of privacy and confidentiality while receiving services as defined by rule or law, including the following exceptions:

(A) Reporting suspected child abuse;

(B) Reporting imminent danger to the client or others;

(C) Reporting information required in court proceedings or by client's insurance company or other relevant agencies;

(D) Providing information concerning licensee case consultation or supervision; and

(E) Defending claims brought by the client against licensee;

(g) To be free from being the object of discrimination on any basis listed in subsection (9) of this rule while receiving services.

(15) A licensee terminates a client relationship when it is reasonably clear that the treatment no longer serves the client's needs or interests. Whenever possible prior to termination, a licensee provides pre-termination counseling and recommendations and alternatives for the client.

Client Welfare

(1) Licensees strive to benefit those with whom they work and take care to do no harm. In their professional actions, licensees seek to safeguard the welfare and rights of those with whom they interact professionally and other affected persons and shall hold the welfare and interests of clients as primary.

(2) Licensees take reasonable steps to avoid harming their client, students, supervisees, research participants, organizational clients and others with whom they work, and to minimize harm where it is foreseeable and unavoidable.

(3) The primary obligation of licensees is to respect the integrity and promote the welfare of their clients, including treating the client at all times in a caring, fair, courteous and respectful manner. This is particularly true for vulnerable populations such as children, seniors or clients with disabilities.

(4) Licensees actively attempt to understand the diverse cultural backgrounds of the clients with whom they work. This includes, but is not limited to, learning how the licensee's own background and identity impacts the licensee's values and beliefs about the counseling process.

(5) Licensees do not engage in physical contact with clients when there is a possibility of physical or psychological harm from the contact.

(6) Licensees avoid actions or words that clients could reasonably interpret as demeaning or derogatory, including, but not limited to, coarse or harsh language directed at the client.

Integrity

(1) A licensee acts in accordance with the highest standards of professional integrity and competence. A licensee is honest in dealing with clients, students, trainees, colleagues, related third parties, and the public.

(2) Licensees are aware of their influential positions with respect to students, employees, supervisees, and clients, and they avoid exploiting the trust and dependency of such persons. Licensees make every effort to avoid conditions and multiple relationships with clients that could impair professional judgment or increase the risk of exploitation. Such relationships include, but are not limited to, business or personal relationships, sexual relationship, relatives, students, employees, or supervisees.

(3) A licensee does not enter into an employer, supervisor, or other relationship where there is potential for exercising undue influence on any client. This includes the sale of services or goods that will exploit the client for financial gain or personal gratification of the licensee or a third party.

(4) A licensee shall not engage in or solicit sexual acts or a sexual relationship with a supervisee.

(5) A licensee does not engage in or solicit sexual acts or a sexual relationship with a client or with individuals the licensee knows to be immediate relatives, guardians, supervisees, or significant others of current clients, or with a former client within three years since the rendering of professional services.

(6) A licensee does not engage in or solicit sexual acts or a sexual relationship with a former client after three years from the termination of services if such act or solicitation could exploit the client. Exploitation may be indicated by such factors as the time elapsed between the termination of the professional relationship and the beginning of the sexual relationship, nature and duration of therapy, circumstances of termination of professional relationship, client personal history, client's current mental status, likelihood of adverse impact on client, any statements or actions made by the licensee during the course of therapy suggesting or inviting the possibility of a post-termination sexual or romantic relationship, and whether the licensee attempted to protect the client by referral or consultation. Licensees do not accept as clients those with whom they have engaged in sexual intimacies.

(7) A licensee does not enter into an employment, business, supervisory, or personal relationship, or one that involves the exchange of goods and services, with a former client if exploitation can be demonstrated by review of such factors as amount of time that has passed, nature and duration of therapy, circumstances of termination of professional relationship, client's personal history, client's current mental status, likelihood of adverse impact on client, and whether client encouraged a post-treatment relationship during the professional relationship.

(8) A licensee does not allow an individual or agency that is paying for the professional services of a client to exert undue influence over the licensee's evaluation or treatment of the client. Regardless of the source of payment, the licensee's first obligation is to the client.

(9) A licensee does not engage in sexual or other harassment of a client, former client, or supervisee. A licensee does not engage in any form of communication or physical behavior that is sexually suggestive, seductive, or demeaning to the client or former client.

(10) A licensee does not use the counseling relationship to further personal, religious, political, sexual, or financial interests.

(11) A licensee informs a client of a divergence of interests, values, attitudes, or biases between a client and the licensee that is sufficient to impair their professional relationship. Either the client or the licensee may terminate the relationship.

Confidentiality

(1) A licensee holds in confidence all information obtained in the course of professional services, as within the limits of the setting, such as a public agency. A licensee safeguards client confidences as permitted by rule or law.

(2) A licensee does not use any confidence of a client to the client's disadvantage.

(3) A licensee, including employees and professional associates of the licensee, does not disclose any confidential information that the licensee, employee, or associate may have acquired in rendering services except as provided by rule or law. All other confidential information is disclosed only with the written informed consent of the client.

(4) A licensee is responsible for being aware of the state and federal regulations concerning confidentiality and for informing clients of the limits of confidentiality as a part of informed consent for services in the context of couple, family, or group treatment. A licensee does not reveal any individual's confidences to others in the client unit without the prior written permission of that individual.

(5) Whenever a licensee provides services to groups of clients such as couples, families or therapy groups, special care must be taken related to issues of confidentiality. In group therapy, confidentiality issues are to be discussed in the beginning of the group. The parameters of confidentiality within marriage and family therapy are to be discussed early in the counseling process and a clear understanding achieved with all involved.

(6) Whenever a licensee's services are requested or paid for by one client for another, the licensee informs both clients of the licensee's responsibility to treat any information gained in the course of rendering the services as confidential information.

(7) A licensee limits access to client records and informs every individual associated with the agency or facility of the licensee, such as a staff member, student, or volunteer, that access to client records must be limited to only the licensee with whom the client has a professional relationship, an individual associated with the agency or facility whose duties require access, and an individual authorized to have access by the written informed consent of the client. Client records are defined as the records of the counseling or therapeutic relationship, including interview notes, assessments, diagnosis, appraisals, correspondence, or recordings.

(8) A licensee maintains the records of a client after the professional relationship between the licensee and the client has ceased and informs clients as to how long records are retained. The licensee stores and disposes of records in ways that maintain confidentiality. The licensee makes advance provision for the confidential disposition of records in the event the licensee is unable to do so for reasons such as illness or death.

(9) A licensee discloses to the Board and its agents any client records that the Board and its agents consider germane to a disciplinary proceeding. The general requirement that licensees keep information confidential does not apply when:

(a) Disclosure is required to prevent clear and imminent danger to the client or others; or

(b) Legal requirements demand that confidential information must be revealed.

(10) A licensee must obtain written informed consent from each client before electronically recording sessions with that client or before permitting third party observations of their sessions.

(11) A licensee adequately disguises the identity of a client when using material derived from a counseling relationship for purposes of training, research, professional meetings, or publications.

(12) A licensee provides clients reasonable access to records concerning them and should take due care to protect the confidences of others contained in those records, or when information from others about the client could result in harm to that person or persons upon disclosure to the client. Following guidelines set forth in ORS 192.518(2) and 675.765(1), unless otherwise ordered by the court, parents shall have access to the client records of juveniles who are receiving professional services from the licensee.

(13) When a licensee is unclear on professional issues or standards of practice, consultation is to be obtained while protecting any confidentiality issue that may be involved.

(14) Licensees proceed cautiously when asked to provide services to a client currently seeing another professional. Consideration is given to the client's welfare and the situation. Care is given to minimize the risk of confusion and conflict; and when appropriate, the other service provider is consulted. It is not ethical to provide the same therapeutic service that is simultaneously being provided by another professional without collaboration regarding the best interests of the client.

Conduct and Competence

(1) A licensee accepts the obligation to conform to higher standards of conduct in the capacity of a counseling professional. The private conduct of a licensee is a personal matter to the degree that it does not compromise the fulfillment of professional responsibilities. A licensee will respect the traditions of the profession, and refrain from any conduct that would bring discredit to the profession.

(2) Licensees correct, wherever possible, false, misleading, or inaccurate information and representations made by others concerning the licensee's qualifications, services, or products. A licensee does not advertise in a way that is false, fraudulent, or misleading to the public. Testimonials from current clients are not solicited for advertising or other purposes due to the client's vulnerability to undue influence. A licensee does not engage in any conduct likely to deceive or defraud the public or the Board. A licensee does not participate in, condone, or become associated with dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation.

(3) A licensee reports to the Board within 30 days any civil lawsuit brought against the licensee that relates in any way to the licensee's professional conduct and notifies the Board of any disciplinary action or loss of a mental health professional or state license, certification, or registration.

(4) A licensee convicted of a misdemeanor or felony or who is arrested for a felony reports that information to the Board within 10 days after the conviction or arrest.

(5) A licensee files a complaint with the Board when the licensee has reason to believe that another licensee is or has been engaged in conduct that violates law or rules adopted by the Board. This requirement to file a complaint does not apply when the belief is based on information obtained in the course of a professional relationship with a client who is the other counselor or therapist. In that case, the client-therapist confidentiality supersedes the licensee's requirement to report the other therapist. However, this does not relieve a licensee from the duty to file any reports required by law concerning abuse of children or vulnerable adults. Licensees do not initiate, participate in, or encourage the filing of ethics complaints that are unwarranted or intended to harm a counselor/therapist rather than to protect clients or the public.

(6) A licensee who believes that a licensee of another health professional licensing agency has engaged in prohibited or unprofessional conduct will report the conduct to the other licensee's board within 10 days of learning of the conduct.

(7) A licensee does not engage in sexual or other harassment or exploitation of clients, students, trainees, employees, colleagues, research subjects, or actual or potential witnesses or complainants in disciplinary proceedings. A licensee cooperates with the Board, or any committee or representative of the Board, in any investigation it may pursue relating to licensee misconduct or violation of the law or rules of the Board. Failure to cooperate is an ethics violation.

(8) A licensee understands the areas of competence of related professions and acts with due regard for the needs, special competencies, and obligations of colleagues in other allied professions, and does not disparage the qualifications of any colleague.

(9) A licensee recognizes the importance of a clear understanding of financial matters with clients. Arrangements for fees and payments are made at the beginning of the counseling or therapeutic relationship. When a client presents financial hardship, the licensee will make reasonable effort to direct the client to possible affordable options. Licensees do not withhold records under their control that are requested by the client solely because payment has not been received for services. Licensees who work in an organizational setting do not divert clients to the licensee's own private practice unless it is in the best interests of the client in the opinion of the client and the organization.

(10) A licensee makes certain that the qualifications of persons in a licensee's employ are represented in a manner that is not false or misleading.

(11) A licensee does not perform, nor pretend to be able to perform, professional services beyond the licensee's field or fields of competence based on their education, training, supervision, consultation, study or professional experience. Licensees are responsible for keeping current in areas of competence. When working in emerging areas of the profession, the licensee ensures competence through relevant education, training, supervised experience, consultation, or study.

(12) A licensee does not misrepresent professional qualifications, education, experience, or affiliations.

(13) A licensee does not provide what is, or may be reasonably considered, inappropriate, unnecessary, or inadequate treatment or counseling/therapeutic services. A licensee practices within accepted professional standards based on recognized knowledge through research and theoretical best practices.

Assessment, Measurement, Research and Consulting

(1) Licensees who conduct professional services related to counseling do so with regard to high ethical standards.

(2) Licensees conduct proper assessments of clients within their level of competence and base findings on reliable information and techniques sufficient to substantiate their conclusions. Licensees administer, adapt, score, interpret or use assessment techniques, such as tests and measurement instruments, only with training and consistency with therapeutic objectives.

(3) Licensees who conduct research do so with the welfare of participants of primary importance. Ethical research includes informed consent from participants, institutional approval, when appropriate, including measures to protect research participants, and debriefing participants as soon as possible regarding the nature, results and conclusions of the research. The results of research are reported accurately without fabrication or unreported errors.

(4) Licensees who consult or provide services where the client is an organization do so with a high degree of self-awareness of their own values, knowledge, skills, limitations and goals and match these factors with the needs and goals of the organization. It is the licensee's responsibility to ensure agreement on the issues, goals and predicted consequences of consulting interventions.

Response to Complaints

(1) Charges or information, filed by any person, group of persons, or the Board on its own action that a counselor or therapist, licensee, or applicant for licensure is incompetent or has committed an act or acts in violation of ORS 675.745, 675.755, or 675.765, the licensing law or rules adopted by the Board including the Code of Ethics will be considered a complaint of professional misconduct.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) Charges or information, filed by any person, group of persons, or the Board on its own action that a person who does not hold a valid license issued under ORS 675.715 is or has indicated state licensure as a professional counselor or marriage and family therapist will be considered a complaint of title violation.

(3) The Board will make forms available to the public and encourage complainants to use the Board's form. However, the complaint may be filed in any format, written or oral as long as it:

- (a) Is filed at the Board office;
- (b) Includes a first and last name of the counselor or therapist who is the subject of the complaint; and
- (c) Indicates incompetence, or action that may be considered misconduct or violation of the law or rules administered by the Board.

(4) Upon receipt of a complaint, a complaint file will be opened. The complaint will be immediately assigned to a delegated representative who will conduct a preliminary investigation or review and determine if additional investigation and the assignment of additional investigators is necessary or file a report with the Board recommending the complaint be dismissed without further action.

(5) Additional investigators will be assigned by a delegated representative of the Board and the subject of the complaint will be notified that he/she is under investigation and provided with general information regarding the nature of his/her conduct that is being investigated. Notification may request a written response. Licensees and applicants must cooperate with Board representatives during investigations.

(6) At the conclusion of the investigation, a report will be filed with the Board ORS 676.175-676-180. The report will:

- (a) Describe evidence, summarize witness interviews, and present any disciplinary history with the Board; and
- (b) Be submitted within 120 days from the date the complaint was filed, unless a 30-day extension or subsequent 30-day extensions were granted by a delegate of the Board for just cause, which may include but not be limited to complexity of case, location of evidence or witnesses, unavailability of witnesses, number of other pending actions involving licensee/applicant that affect ability to obtain evidence, ability of investigator to accomplish task due to workload, health, work schedule, or previous personal commitments, end of appointment, termination of employment or contract, or legal actions.

(7) Following review of the investigation report, the Board may dismiss the complaint, issue a warning, propose disciplinary action, propose non-disciplinary action, negotiate a stipulated agreement in lieu of hearing, default, or disciplinary action. Board discussions will be in executive session, closed to the public. Decisions as to action will be voted upon during a public meeting, but case numbers will be used. Decisions to propose disciplinary action, suspension, revocation, or denial of license, will be made known to the public if adopted by a majority vote of the Board. A notice of intent to propose disciplinary action with opportunity for hearing will be issued by the Board Administrator and served upon the applicant or licensee, and may be provided to the complainant.

(8) The Board will maintain written procedures for handling complaints, which will be available through the Board office.

(9) Complaint and information gathered by investigation into licensee or applicant competency or conduct will be kept confidential in accordance with ORS 676.175-676.180. The Board must not reveal when a complaint has been filed nor identify the identity of the person or persons filing the complaint. Only information included in the notice to take disciplinary action voted by a majority of the Board and the final order or stipulated agreement will be available to the public.

Disciplinary Action

(1) The Board will initiate disciplinary actions for failure to meet professional conduct and practice standards, or violation of the licensing law or rules when it determines probable cause of:

- (a) Failure to meet the standards requirements for continuation of licensure that are unlikely to harm clients or the public;
  - (b) Professional misconduct or incompetence capable of causing or resulting in harm to a client or the public; and
  - (c) Title violation.
- (2) Proposed disciplinary actions include, but are not limited to:
- (a) Suspension or revocation of licensure;
  - (b) Refusal to issue or renew a license;
  - (c) Civil penalty of up to $2,500 per occurrence for violation; and
  - (d) Reprimand, probation, probation with specific conditions.

(3) Negotiated disciplinary actions include, but are not limited to, letter of reprimand, limited suspension, probation, limited practice, education, enrollment in an impaired professional program, rehabilitation, supervision, therapy, payment of disciplinary costs or civil penalties, or any combination thereof.

(4) Non-disciplinary actions include, but are not limited to, letter of concern; voluntary diversion or enrollment in an impaired professionals program.

Purpose and Scope

(1) The purpose of these rules, OAR 833-120-0011 to 833-120-0041, is to provide for the screening under ORS 181.534 of licensees, registered interns, and applicants for licensure with the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists to determine if they have a history of criminal behavior such that they would be unable to, or should not be allowed to, perform the services of a Licensed Professional Counselor or Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist.

(2) The following persons must take the steps necessary to complete a state or nationwide criminal history check under ORS 181.534:

- (a) A person who, on or after January 1, 2010, submits an application for licensure to the Board in accordance with OAR 833 division 20;
- (b) A licensee or registered intern who, on or after January 1, 2010, submits an application for renewal of their license or status; and
- (c) A licensee or registered intern who is the subject of inquiry or investigation by the board.

(d) Exceptions. In lieu of completing a new state or nationwide criminal history check, a licensee in good standing with the Board may submit verification of a fingerprint-based criminal history check conducted within one year of the license renewal date by a Board approved agency.

(3) A criminal history check of each licensee and registered intern will be conducted at least once every five years as part of the license or internship renewal process.

Requirements

(1) To complete a criminal history check, the Board will require each person to:

- (a) Provide fingerprints on a standard FBI fingerprint card (additional fingerprints may be required if the initial fingerprint card is rejected by OSP or the FBI);
  - (A) Fingerprints must have been taken not more than 60 days prior to submission to the Board.
  - (B) Licensees must submit fingerprints by their license renewal date.
- (b) Provide personal information necessary to obtain the criminal history check; and
- (c) Pay the actual cost to the board of conducting the criminal history check as part of a licensing or application fee, including fees imposed by OSP and for certified court records or documents.

(2) The Board may also request, and the applicant, licensee, or registered intern will provide the following information.

- (a) Responses to a criminal history questionnaire; and
- (b) Written response to questions by the Board regarding the person's criminal history.

Information Considered

(1) In reviewing the information obtained from a criminal history check, the Board will consider the following circumstances related to any criminal conviction, indictment, or pending indictment, arrest, and related information.

- (a) The nature of the crime of which the person has been convicted, indicted, or arrested;
- (b) The facts that support the conviction, indictment, or arrest;
- (c) The relevancy to the specific requirements of the person's position as a licensee or applicant;
- (d) The passage of time since the commission of the crime;
- (e) The age of the person at the time of the crime;
- (f) The likelihood of a repetition of an offense or of the commission of another crime;
- (g) Whether the person accepts responsibility for past actions;
- (h) The commission of other relevant crimes;
- (i) Whether the conviction was set aside and the legal effect of setting aside the conviction;
- (j) A recommendation from an employer who employed the person after the conviction;
- (k) Charges, arrests, and other behavior involving contact with law enforcement;
- (l) Periods of incarceration;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(m) Compliance with parole, post-prison supervision, or probation;
(n) Drug or alcohol issues related to criminal activity including history of use, manufacturing, delivery, treatment, rehabilitation, and relapse;
(o) Other treatment or rehabilitation related to criminal activity includes assessments, evaluations, and risk assessments conducted before, after, or during treatment or rehabilitation;

(p) Protective services investigations or abuse and neglect reports;
(q) Local or national healthcare practitioner databases; and
(r) Previous complaints and investigations on file with the Board or any other licensing or professional oversight authority.

(2) False statements are grounds for denial of an application for licensure or disciplinary action authorized under ORS 675.785.

(3) A refusal to submit or consent to a criminal records check including fingerprint identification will result in disciplinary action as mandated by ORS 181.534. In the case of such a refusal by an applicant, the Board will consider the application incomplete and the application will be denied.

Record Keeping and Confidentiality

(1) Information obtained by the board in carrying out its responsibilities under this rule is considered part of an investigation and is confidential under ORS 676.175.

(2) Information obtained from the Law Enforcement Data System is confidential and will be maintained by the Board in accordance with applicable OSP requirements. Copies of LEDS reports will not be shared.

(3) The results of a fingerprint-based national criminal history check provided by the FBI or through OSP are confidential and may not be disseminated by the Board, with the following exceptions:

(a) The subject of a fingerprint-based criminal history check will be provided a copy of the results, if requested; and

(b) The results may be used as exhibits during a contested case hearing.

(4) Challenges to the accuracy or completeness of criminal background information must be made to the reporting agency and not to the Board.

(5) A person against whom disciplinary action is taken by the board on the basis of information obtained as the result of a criminal records check conducted pursuant to this rule is entitled to notice and hearing in accordance with the provisions for contested cases in ORS Chapter 183.

(6) All completed criminal history request forms, other criminal history information and other records collected or developed during the criminal history check process will be kept confidential and only disseminated as allowed by law.

Requirements for Certificate of Clinical Social Work Associate

To be eligible for an initial certificate of clinical social work associate, a person must:

(1) Submit a complete and accurate application on a form provided by the board.

(2) Hold a master's degree in social work from a college or university accredited by a credentialing body recognized by the board. The Council on Social Work Education and the Canadian Association for Social Work Education are recognized by the Board. The Board accepts determinations of equivalency of foreign degrees by the Council on Social Work Education's International Social Work Degree Recognition and Evaluation Service. Submission of proof of foreign degree equivalency and cost of the foreign degree equivalency determination are the responsibility of the applicant.

(3) Submit to the board for approval and, following approval, satisfactorily work toward completing an approved plan of practice and supervision that:

(a) Shows that the person will meet the requirements in OAR 877-020-0010(3) while working in an agency that:

(A) Provides the associate with sufficient support to progress toward licensure;

(B) Screens patients who are served by the agency and by the associate; and

(C) Either:

(i) Is licensed by the Oregon Department of Human Services; or

(ii) If not required to be licensed by the Oregon Department of Human Services, is in compliance with the requirements to conduct business in Oregon.

(b) Requires a minimum of 3,500 practice hours of which at least 2,000 hours must involve direct contact with a client of the agency.

(c) Provides for supervision of the associate that meets the requirements of OAR 877-020-0012.

(d) Provides that the associate meet with the plan supervisor for a minimum of one hour not fewer than two times a month. This requirement of the supervision is not met through a training or administrative activity. The associate may meet alone with the supervisor (individual supervision) or may meet with the supervisor and as many as four other mental health professionals (group supervision).

Renewals of Certificates and Licenses

(1) The holder of a certificate or license may renew it by timely submitting the following to the board:

(a) A completed application for renewal.

(b) The fee required by OAR 877-020-0020.

(2) The board will act on an application only if, not later than 30 days after the person's birth month, the complete application and required fee are received by the board.

(3) The board will issue a certificate upon renewal only if the last report required by OAR 877-020-0012(2)(e)(A) has been received by the board and demonstrates that satisfactory progress is being made toward completion of the associate's current board-approved plan of practice and supervision.

(4) The application for renewal of a license must show that the licensee:

(a) Is unaware of any reason for denial of the renewal; and

(b) Has met the requirement for continuing education in division 25 of this chapter of rules.

(5) If the application for renewal of a certificate or license fails to meet the requirements of this rule, the application is incomplete and will not be acted upon by the board.

Limitations on Types of Continuing Education

The number of hours creditable in a two-year reporting period is subject to the following provisions:

(1) A licensee must report a total of six or more hours of continuing education in ethics:

(a) In the first biennial report required by OAR 877-025-0021 for a two-year period that ends after January 1, 2009; and

(b) In each alternate biennial report due thereafter.

(2) No more than 10 hours of continuing education described in OAR 877-025-0006(2)(b) may be credited in a report.

(3) No more than 20 hours of continuing education described in OAR 877-025-0006(5) may be credited in a report.

(4) A licensee who reports more than 40 hours for a two-year reporting period or 20 for a one-year reporting period may carry over the excess hours to the next required report. No more than 10 hours may be carried over to the next reporting period.

(5) If the first reporting period is one year rather than two, the limits in sections (2) and (3) of this rule are pro-rated.

Reporting Requirements

(1) Licensees must report the completion of continuing education every two years in a manner prescribed by the board. The report must be made at the time the licensee submits an application to renew a license as follows:

(a) A licensee whose license number ends with an odd number must submit the report with an application for renewal effective in an odd-numbered year.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) A licensee whose license number ends with an even number must submit the report with an application for renewal effective in an even-numbered year.

(2) The report is part of the renewal application and must contain information sufficient to demonstrate that the licensee has met the requirements in this division of rules. A licensee who fails to meet the requirements is subject to a denial of the application for renewal unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the licensee and the licensee agrees to a plan to compensate for the deficiency.

(3) The board conducts routine, random audits of compliance with continuing education requirements. Licensees must retain completion certificates, program information, and other documents needed to demonstrate that the licensee met the requirements of this division of rules for a minimum of 24 months after reporting completion of continuing education requirements to the board and must provide them to the board upon request.

Conduct and Reporting Requirements of Regulated Social Workers

(1) Conduct: The following minimum standards of professional conduct apply to regulated social workers:

(a) Private conduct of regulated social workers is a personal matter to the same extent as with any other person, except when that conduct compromises the fulfillment of professional responsibilities.

(b) Regulated social workers may not participate in, condone, or be associated with dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation.

(c) Regulated social workers may not misrepresent their professional qualifications, education, experience, or affiliations.

(2) Reporting Requirements:

(a) Regulated social workers must report the following to the Board as soon as practicable, but not later than 10 days after:

(A) Being convicted of a misdemeanor or felony;

(B) Being arrested for a felony crime;

(C) Receiving notice of a civil lawsuit that names the regulated social worker as a defendant and makes allegations related to the regulated social worker's practice of clinical social work or the regulated social worker's license or certificate;

(D) Becoming an in-patient in a psychiatric hospital or psychiatric day treatment facility; or

(E) Receiving notice of a regulatory action related to the regulated social worker's license or certificate.

(b) Regulated social workers must report child and elderly abuse as required by ORS 419B.005 to 419B.050 and 124.050 to 124.095. .

Definitions

The following definitions apply in this division of rules:

(1) "Complainant" — A person or group of persons who files a complaint.

(2) "Complaint" — A mandatory report or an allegation that a person regulated by the board has committed an act that would subject the person to discipline under ORS 675.540. A complaint should specifically describe the conduct complained of to the best of the ability of the complainant

(3) "Consumer Protection Committee" — A committee of one or more board members assigned by the board to fulfill specified functions related to complaints.

(4) "Respondent" — A person regulated by the board against whom a complaint is filed.

(5) "Social work" in ORS 675.540(1)(c) and (1)(d) means "clinical social work" as defined in ORS 675.510(2).

Reporting Possible Prohibited Conduct to Law Enforcement Agency

(1) If, during the investigation of a complaint, a member of the Consumer Protection Committee or any board member believes a respondent has engaged in prohibited conduct, the committee or member must refer the case as soon as practicable to the board for its review. The board will review the case not later than the next regularly scheduled board meeting and will determine whether it has reasonable cause to believe that the respondent has engaged in prohibited conduct.

(2) If the board concludes there is reasonable cause to believe that the respondent has engaged in prohibited conduct, the board will present the facts to an appropriate law enforcement agency within 10 working days.

(3) In this rule, the term "prohibited conduct" has the same meaning given to it in section 1 (1)(c), chapter 536, Oregon Laws 2009. "Prohibited conduct" means conduct by a licensee that: (a) Constitutes a criminal act against a patient or client; or (b) Constitutes a criminal act that creates a risk of harm to a patient or client." The term "licensee" in the definition includes all regulated social workers.

851-050-0002

Application for Initial Certification as a Nurse Practitioner

- (1) An applicant for initial certification in Oregon as a nurse practitioner shall:
  - (a) Hold a current unencumbered registered nurse license in the State of Oregon, and

(b) Meet the following educational requirements:

(A) A Master's Degree in Nursing or a Doctorate in Nursing from a CCNE (Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education) or NLNAC (National League for Nursing Accreditation Commission) accredited graduate nursing program or a credentials evaluation from a Board approved credentials service for graduate nursing degrees obtained outside the U.S. which demonstrates educational equivalency to an accredited U.S. graduate nursing degree; and

(B) Satisfactory completion of a Nurse Practitioner Program that meets OAR 851-050-0001 requirements and is specific to the role and role population focus for which application is made.

(C) Nurse practitioner programs completed after January 1, 2005 shall be formally affiliated within a CCNE, ACME (Accreditation Commission for Midwifery Education), or NLNAC accredited graduate level program at the Masters or post-masters graduate level; or an equivalent non-U.S. graduate program as specified in OAR 851-050-0001(11); and

(c) Meet the practice requirement in OAR 851-050-0004; and

(d) As of January 1, 2011 provide verification of current accredited national board certification from a Nurse Practitioner national certification examination which meets criteria in OAR 851-050-0008, congruent with a Board recognized nurse practitioner role and population focus.

(2) An applicant for initial certification in Oregon who has been certified in another state as an advanced practice nurse, and who meets all other requirements for certification, may be certified in Oregon if their program meets the standards of OAR 851-050-0001 and was completed within the following time frames:

(a) Prior to January 1, 1981, completion of a nursing educational program leading to licensure as a registered nurse and subsequent completion of a nurse practitioner program.

(b) As of January 1, 1981, a nurse obtaining Oregon certification shall have a minimum of a baccalaureate degree with a major in nursing and, in addition, satisfactory completion of an educational program in the nurse practitioner specialty area. Specialty preparation obtained within a baccalaureate nursing program does not meet this requirement.

(c) As of January 1, 1986, the minimum educational requirement for Oregon shall be a Masters degree in Nursing with satisfactory completion of an educational program in the nurse practitioner specialty area.

(d) Graduates of schools of nursing outside of the U.S. must submit a credentials evaluation through a Board approved credentials service demonstrating educational equivalency to a U.S. accredited graduate level Masters or Doctoral Degree in Nursing.

(3) The graduate degree requirement may be met prior to, concurrent with, or after completion of the nurse practitioner program.

(4) The following documents shall be submitted as part of the initial application process:

(a) An official transcript of the graduate program, showing degree granted and received directly from the registrar of the university or college.

(b) An official transcript, or other evidence of satisfactory completion of the nurse practitioner program showing all courses, grades, quality points, grade point average, degree granted, date of graduation, and appropriate registrar's signature received by the Board directly from the program or registrar.

(c) Evidence that the nurse practitioner program meets the Board's standards as described in OAR 851-050-0001, including documentation of credentials evaluation as indicated for graduates of programs outside of the U.S.

(5) An applicant for initial certification in Oregon as a nurse practitioner shall meet all requirements for prescriptive authority described in Division 56 and obtain prescribing authority under the provisions of Division 56 of the Oregon Nurse Practice Act.

(6) Revocation, suspension, or any other encumbrance of a registered nurse license held in another state, territory of the United States, or any foreign jurisdiction may be grounds for denial of certification in Oregon.

(7) The applicant shall submit all fees required by the Board with the application. The fees are not refundable. An application for initial certification, which remains incomplete after one calendar year, shall be considered void.

Re-Entry Requirements

(1) If the practice requirement in OAR 851-050-0004 has not been met, applicants shall:

(a) Obtain a limited license as a registered nurse in the State of Oregon; or hold a current, unencumbered Oregon registered nurse license.

(b) Submit an application for a limited license, which meets educational requirements of OAR 851-050-0002(1), or an application for delinquent renewal of previous certification as a nurse practitioner in Oregon. An application, which is not completed, becomes void after one year from date of receipt.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) Submit a plan of study for approval, which specifies:

(A) Clinical sites, patient population, objectives, competency evaluation, and supervisory relationship of preceptor;

(B) Number of practice hours required and how their completion shall be met,

(C) Eligibility of reentry plan to meet requirements for national board certification from a Nurse Practitioner national certification examination which meets criteria in OAR 851-050-0008, congruent with a Board recognized nurse practitioner role and population focus.

(d) Submit names and qualifications for approval of preceptors which are Oregon certified nurse practitioners and/or Oregon licensed MD/DO physicians in the same specialty area as the nurse practitioner certification specialty.

(e) Determine practice hours in consultation with the Board to ensure one of the following options have been met:

(A) 300 hours of supervised practice if the applicant has practiced less than 960 hours in the last five years, or has completed a nurse practitioner program within the last two years and has not worked a minimum of 192 hours. Advanced practice hours completed during these time frames may be applied to reduce the total number of supervised clinical practice hours required, except that in no case shall the precepted practice be less than 150 hours.

(B) 600 hours of supervised practice if the applicant has not practiced 960 hours in the last five years, but has practiced at least 960 hours in the last six years. Advanced practice hours completed during the six year time frame may be applied to reduce the total number of supervised clinical practice hours required except that in no case shall the precepted practice be less than 300 hours.

(C) 1000 hours of supervised practice if the applicant has not practiced at least 960 hours in the last ten years. Advanced practice hours completed during the ten year time frame may be applied to reduce the total number of supervised clinical practice hours required except that in no case shall the precepted practice be less than 500 hours.

(D) If the applicant has not practiced at least 960 hours within the last ten years, the re-entry requirement shall be met through successful completion of a nurse practitioner post masters certificate program which meets the requirements of OAR 851-050-0001, or of a comprehensive series of nurse practitioner courses within a CCNE or NLNAC accredited nurse practitioner program in the specialty sought. The plan of study shall be submitted in advance for Board approval before enrollment. The plan of study shall cover the entire scope of the advanced specialty area under which the applicant was previously certified/licensed, and must include both clinical and didactic hours. The program of study shall include advanced pharmacology which meets the requirements of OAR 851-056-0008, pathophysiology, physical assessment, differential diagnosis, and clinical management. The institution shall provide documentation, which demonstrates previous credits, courses, or competency testing applied to meet final completion. Proof of completion of this plan of study shall be provided to the Board in the form of official transcripts documenting completion of all required coursework.

(2) In addition to meeting the re-entry practice requirement, all participants will submit evidence of 100 hours of continuing education which meet the standards in OAR 851-050-0138 completed within the last two years by the completion of their re-entry precepted practice. The continuing education hours must include an advanced pharmacology course meeting the criteria in OAR 851-056-0008, physical assessment, treatment modalities, client management and laboratory/diagnostic studies with content related to the NP scope of practice being sought. The continuing education may be obtained in the following ways, provided that no less than 50% is comprised of CME or CE accredited courses at the advanced practice specialty level:

(a) Independent learning activities, e.g. reading professional journals;

(b) Unstructured learning activities, e.g. professional meetings and clinical rounds;

(c) Structured learning activities, e.g. seminars and workshops.

(3) The re-entry participant shall practice under a limited certificate, and successfully complete clinical practice directly supervised by the approved preceptor in the same area of practice. Application for a limited certificate shall be made prior to the beginning of the supervised clinical practice. The limited certificate shall be valid for one year, with one renewal of an additional one year permitted. The supervising practitioner shall submit a final evaluation to the Board to verify that the applicant's knowledge and skills are at a safe and acceptable level and verify the hours of supervised practice. An application for a limited license for re-entry without issuance after one calendar year shall be considered void.

(4) Supervised practice hours shall be without compensation.

(5) Upon successful completion of the supervised practice hours and proof of national Board certification, the full nurse practitioner certificate will be issued with an expiration date that coincides with the applicant's registered nurse license.

(6) Re-entry hours must be completed within a two-year time frame from the issuance of the limited license.

(7) Successful completion of Board approved advanced practice re-entry will satisfy requirements for the registered nurse re-entry.

(8) Prescriptive authority will be issued only upon completion of precepted hours to applicants meeting all criteria in OAR 851-056-0006. Written documents during precepted practice shall be signed with the nurse practitioner specialty title, followed with "Re-entry" and the preceptors co-signature.

(9) The applicant shall submit all fees required by the Board with the application. The fees are not refundable.

Definitions

(1) "Assessment" means a process of collecting information regarding a client's health status including, but not limited to, illness; response to illness; health risks of individuals, families and groups; resources; strengths and weaknesses, coping behaviors; and the environment. The skills employed during the assessment process may include, but are not limited to: obtaining client histories, conducting physical examinations, ordering, interpreting and conducting a broad range of diagnostic procedures (e.g., laboratory studies, EKGs, and x rays).

(2) "Asynchronous learning" means using multiple media for students to access the curriculum without the need to be onsite at the education site.

(3) "Client(s) or patient(s)" means a family, group or individual who has been assessed by and has a client/patient record established by the nurse practitioner.

(4) "Clinical Practice Experience" means the supervised provision of direct patient care in a clinical setting that complements course work and ensures acquisition of advanced practice nursing skills.

(5) "Clinical Preceptor" means health care provider qualified by education and clinical competency to provide direct supervision of the clinical practice experience of students in an Oregon nurse practitioner program.

(6) "Collaboration" means working with another health care provider to jointly provide client care.

(7) "Consultation" means discussion with another health care provider for the purpose of obtaining information or advice in order to provide client care.

(8) "Counseling" means a mutual exchange of information through which advice, recommendations, instruction, or education is provided to the client.

(9) "Delinquent Renewal" means the renewal of a nurse practitioner certificate previously held in Oregon which is expired.

(10) "Diagnosis" means identification of actual or potential health problems or need for intervention, based on analysis of the data collected.

(11) "Direct Supervision" means the clinical preceptor or faculty member physically present at the practice site who retains the responsibility for patient care while overseeing the student and if necessary, redirecting or intervening in patient care and is able to intervene if necessary.

(12) "Evaluation" means the determination of the effectiveness of the intervention(s) on the client's health status.

(13) "Holistic Health Care" means an approach to diagnosis and treatment of clients, which considers the status of the whole person (physical, emotional, social, spiritual, and environmental).

(14) "Initial certification" means the first certification granted by the Board. This may follow the applicant's completion of a nurse practitioner program or be granted to an applicant in Oregon who has been recognized by and has practiced as a nurse practitioner in another state or jurisdiction.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(15) "Intervention" means measures to promote health, to protect against disease, to treat illness in its earliest stages, and to manage acute and chronic conditions and/or illness. Interventions may include, but are not limited to: issuance of orders, direct nursing care, prescribing or administering medications or other therapies, and consultation or referral.

(16) "Major curriculum change" means a change that results in a refocus of purpose and objectives or a substantive change in program structure or method of instructional delivery.

(17) "Management" means the provision and/or coordination of the care that the client receives related to physical and psycho-social health-illness status;

(18) "National Board Certification" means current certification as an advanced Nurse Practitioner in a role and population focus through testing accredited by the National Commission on Certifying Agencies or the American Boards of Nursing Specialties, as approved by the Board.

(19) "Nurse Practitioner Educator" refers to a licensed Nurse Practitioner faculty member, who has responsibility for developing and implementing the curriculum, policies, and practices associated with student advising and evaluation, mentoring and collaborating with clinical preceptors and other health care professionals.

(20) "Nurse Practitioner Program Administrator" refers to a licensed Nurse Practitioner appointed by the Dean or Director of the Nursing school who is assigned the responsibility and accountability for the nursing educational program within an accredited academic institution, including those functions aligned with program and curricular design and resource acquisition and allocation.

(21) "Nurse Practitioner" (NP) means an advanced practice registered nurse who is certified by the Board to independently assume responsibility and accountability for the care of clients. The title nurse practitioner and population foci of practice shall not be used unless the individual is certified by the Board.

(22) "Nurse Practitioner Orders" means written or verbal instructions or directions by the nurse practitioner for interventions, diagnostic tests, evaluations, drugs, or treatment modalities. Nurse practitioners may establish protocols and standing orders.

(23) "Oregon Based Nurse Practitioner Program" means an academic program accredited by a nursing organization recognized by the United States Department of Education or the Council of Higher Education Accreditation that offers a graduate degree or graduate level certificate to qualified students.

(24) "Practice requirement" in an expanded specialty role means independent clinical practice in the specialty role of certification providing health care or other such activities, which have a clinical focus and are at an advanced nursing level. These activities include, but are not limited to, teaching, consulting, supervision and research related to the specialty area of certification.

(25) "Provision of Care" means holistic health care, which is continuous and comprehensive. Health care includes:

- (a) Health promotion;
- (b) Prevention of disease and disability;
- (c) Health maintenance;
- (d) Rehabilitation;
- (e) Identification of health problems;
- (f) Management of health problems;
- (g) Referral.

(26) "Referral" means directing the client to other resources for the purpose of assessment or intervention.

(27) "State Certification" means certification to practice as a Nurse Practitioner authorized by the Oregon State Board of Nursing.

851-050-0001

Standards for Nurse Practitioner Programs

The Board's standards for all nurse practitioner programs for initial applicants are as follows:

(1) The nurse practitioner program shall be a minimum of one academic year in length; however, programs completed before January 1, 1986 and post-Masters programs completed for the purpose of changing category of nurse practitioner certification may be less than one academic year in length if the program otherwise meets all requirements.

(2) Faculty who teach within the nurse practitioner program shall be educationally and clinically prepared in the same specialty area(s) as the theory and clinical areas they teach and shall include advanced practice nurses.

(3) The curriculum content shall contain theory and clinical experience in the nurse practitioner population focus specified in OAR 851-050-0005(6) for which application is being made, preparing the graduate to meet all competencies within the scope including physical assessment, pharmacology, pathophysiology, differential diagnosis and clinical management.

(4) The number of contact hours of clinical experience shall be equal to or greater than the number of contact hours of nurse practitioner theory. The clinical experience must consist of full scope preparation in the population focus for which application is being made.

(5) Post-graduate Nurse Practitioner programs which prepare an individual for dual role or population focus certification must meet all competencies designated for the Nurse Practitioner role including supervised clinical hours of no less than 500 hours for each role or population focus.

(6) Programs must provide documentation that students meet the program's curriculum requirements in effect at the time of enrollment.

(7) Written program materials shall accurately reflect the mission, philosophy, purposes, and objectives of the program.

(8) Programs shall demonstrate appropriate course sequencing and requirements for matriculation into the program, including completion of all pre-licensure nursing curriculum requirements before advancement into nurse practitioner clinical coursework.

(9) Preceptors shall meet clinical and licensure qualifications for the state in which they practice.

(10) Asynchronous learning programs shall meet all standards of OAR 851-050-0001.

(11) All courses required for completion of the nurse practitioner program must be at the graduate level, if completed after January 1, 1986.

(12) Nurse practitioner programs outside of the United States must meet all standards of OAR 851-050-0001. Such programs shall be determined by Board approved credentials review to be equivalent to graduate nurse practitioner programs offered in the United States which prepare the nurse practitioner for practice within the advanced nursing specialty scope. Nationally recognized accreditation standards may be applied by the Board at the Board's discretion, in accordance with the Oregon Office of Degree Authorization regulations.

(13) The Board's additional requirements for Oregon based Nurse Practitioner programs are as follows: The Dean or Director of the Nursing school which provides one or more Nurse Practitioner programs/tracks shall ensure that one or more qualified faculty are appointed and have defined position responsibility to address the administrative functions of the program/track. Administrative functions include budget and resource preparation, curricular design, oversight of program implementation and evaluation. The appointed faculty and preceptor(s) in the program shall meet the following requirements:

Nurse Practitioner Program Faculty, Administration and Preceptors

(a) Nurse Practitioner Program Administrator who has overall responsibility for one or more NP tracks shall meet the following requirements:

(A) A current active unencumbered Oregon Nurse Practitioner state certificate;

(B) National certification as a Nurse Practitioner in at least one population focus area;

(C) A doctoral degree in a health-related field;

(D) Educational preparation or experience in teaching and learning principles for adult education, including curriculum development and administration and at least two years of current clinical experience which meets Oregon's practice requirements;

(E) In a multi-track program, where only one Program Administrator is appointed by the Dean or Director of the school, there must be evidence of additional program administrators or lead Nurse Practitioner faculty to provide oversight for student supervision who are nationally certified in that specific program's population focus.

(b) The Nurse Practitioner Program Educator shall meet the following requirements:

(A) A current active unencumbered Oregon Nurse Practitioner state certificate;

(B) An earned doctoral degree in nursing; or

(C) A masters degree with a major in nursing and an appropriate advanced practice nurse credential; and

(D) Two years of clinical experience as a Nurse Practitioner; and

(E) Current knowledge, competence, and certification as a Nurse Practitioner in the population foci consistent with teaching responsibilities;

(F) Adjunct clinical faculty employed solely to supervise clinical nursing experiences of students shall meet all the faculty requirements.

(c) Clinical Preceptors in the Nurse Practitioner program shall meet the following requirements:

(A) Student preceptor ratio shall be appropriate to accomplishment of learning objectives, to provide for patient safety, and to the complexity of the clinical situation;

(B) Oregon licensure or certification appropriate to the health professional area of practice;

(C) Functions and responsibilities for the preceptor shall be clearly documented in a written agreement between the agency, the preceptor, and the clinical program

(D) Initial experiences in the clinical practicum and a majority of the clinical experiences shall be under the supervision of clinical preceptors who are licensed advanced practice registered nurses.

(d) Nurse Practitioner Educator responsibilities shall include:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(A) Making arrangements with agency personnel in advance of the clinical experience which provides and verifies student supervision, preceptor orientation, and faculty defined objectives;

(B) Monitoring student assignments, making periodic site visits to the agency, evaluating students' performance on a regular basis with input from the student and preceptor, and availability for direct supervision during students' scheduled clinical time;

(C) Providing direct supervision by a qualified faculty or experienced licensed clinical supervisor as required for patient safety and student skill attainment.

(e) Nurse Practitioner Program Administrator responsibilities shall include:

(A) Ensuring appropriate student faculty ratios to meet program goals and objectives;

(B) Provision of leadership and accountability for the administration, planning, implementation and evaluation of the program;

(C) Preparation and administration of the program budget;

(D) Facilitation of faculty recruitment, development, performance review, promotion and retention;

(E) Assurance that cooperative agreements with clinical practice sites are current.

Program Accreditation Required and Board Notification Process

(f) Upon receipt from the national accrediting agency, and no later than 90 days from enactment of these rules, currently accredited programs that prepare nurse practitioners for state certification under these rules and requirements shall submit to the Board:

(A) A copy of their most recent program self-evaluation reports;

(B) Documentation of current accreditation from all national nursing accrediting agencies; and

(C) Interim reports reviewed by the national nursing accreditation agency.

(g) Programs which prepare nurse practitioners for state certification under development or pre-accreditation review shall submit the following for review by the Board:

(A) Copies of the curricula within 30 days of sending the information to the accrediting agency;

(B) Copies of self-evaluation reports and any interim reports provided to all national nursing accreditation agencies, at the time of notification from the accrediting agency that the program has not been fully accredited;

(C) Verification of accreditation from all accrediting agencies within 30 days of receipt by the program;

(D) Annual reports which enable the monitoring of continued compliance with Board requirements.

(h) Grounds for denial of graduate nurse practitioner applicants for initial certification include failure of the Oregon based Nurse Practitioner program to:

(A) Maintain accreditation status through the National League for Nursing Accreditation Commission, Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education, or Accreditation Commission for Midwifery Education;

(B) Submit curricula, self-evaluation reports, interim reports or notice of accreditation reports as required by the Board.

Approval of a New Nurse Practitioner Educational Program

(i) Any university or college wishing to establish a Nurse Practitioner education program must make application to the Board on forms supplied by the Board no later than one year before proposed enrollment of students.

(j) The following information must be included with the initial application along with supporting documentation:

(A) Purpose for establishing the nursing education program;

(B) Community needs and studies made as the basis for establishing a nursing education program;

(C) Type of program including clear identification of proposed licensure role and population foci for graduates;

(D) Accreditation status, relationship of educational program to parent institution;

(E) Financial provision for the educational program;

(F) Potential student enrollment;

(G) Provision for qualified faculty;

(H) Proposed clinical facilities and other physical facilities;

(I) Proposed time schedule for initiating the program. If initial approval is denied, the applicant may request a hearing before the Board and the provisions of the Administrative Procedures Act shall apply. Survey of Nurse Practitioner Programs Survey Criteria

(k) Board representatives will conduct in person visits to nursing programs for the following purposes:

(A) Review of application for initial program approval;

(B) Initial and continuing full approval of an educational program;

(C) Receipt by the Board of cause for review including but not limited to:

(i) Significant curricular change which includes addition of a new state certification recognized population focus or role;

(ii) Evidence that graduates fail to meet national certification criteria;

(iii) Violation of Board standards.

(D) If approval is denied or withdrawn, the applicant may request a hearing before the Board and the provisions of the Administrative Procedures Act shall apply.

(l) Board representatives will contact nursing programs to schedule site visits:

(A) Within 60 days of receipt of an application for initial program approval;

(B) Upon receipt of national accreditation report for existing programs; one year after implementation of new programs, every 3-5 years for continuing approval;

(C) Within 30 days of receipt of a complaint.

(D) For purposes of reviewing a major curriculum change.

Nurse Practitioner Practice Requirements

(1) The practice requirement as a nurse practitioner must be met through practice, which meets the definition in OAR 851-050-0000(17) in the following manner:

(a) Completion of a nurse practitioner program within the past one year;

(b) Completion of a nurse practitioner program within the past two years and a minimum of 192 hours of practice as a nurse practitioner; or

(c) 960 hours of nurse practitioner practice within the five years preceding certification application or renewal; or

(d) Completion of a Board supervised advanced practice re-entry program which meets the requirements of OAR 851-050-0006 within two years immediately preceding issuance of certification under a limited or registered nurse license and a limited nurse practitioner certificate.

(2) The prior practice as a registered nurse requirement for nurse practitioner applicants is as follows:

(a) All initial applicants must provide documentation of a minimum of 384 hours of registered nurse practice, which includes assessment and management of clients and is not completed as an academic clinical requirement or continuing education program.

(b) The applicant shall verify completion of the required hours before issuance of the nurse practitioner certificate.

(c) This requirement shall be waived for individuals practicing in the specialty area as a licensed certified nurse practitioner in another state for at least 384 hours in the advanced practice role.

(3) All practice hours claimed are subject to audit and disciplinary action for falsification.

(4) A nurse practitioner student may participate in supervised clinical practicum in Oregon provided he or she meets the following requirements:

(a) A current, unencumbered registered nurse license in Oregon;

(b) Enrollment in a nurse practitioner program accredited by a United States Department of Education or the Council of Higher Education Accreditation approved national accrediting body;

(c) Submission of a written, signed agreement between the nursing program responsible for the student and the Oregon licensed preceptor;

(d) Identification of the faculty advisor accountable for general supervision from the nurse practitioner program; and

(e) Verification of regional accreditation and/or Board of Nursing approval from the state in which the program originates.

851-050-0005

Nurse Practitioner Scope of Practice

(1) Purpose of Scope of Practice:

(a) To establish acceptable levels of safe practice for the nurse practitioner.

(b) To serve as a guide for the Board to evaluate nurse practitioner practice.

(c) To distinguish the scope of practice of the nurse practitioner from that of the registered nurse.

(2) The role of the nurse practitioner will continue to expand in response to societal demand and new knowledge gained through research, education, and experience.

(3) The nurse practitioner provides holistic health care to individuals, families, and groups across the life span in a variety of settings, including hospitals, long term care facilities and community based settings.

(4) Within his or her specialty, the nurse practitioner is responsible for managing health problems encountered by the client and is accountable for health outcomes. This process includes:

(a) Assessment;

(b) Diagnosis;

(c) Development of a plan;

(d) Intervention;

(e) Evaluation.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(5) The nurse practitioner is independently responsible and accountable for the continuous and comprehensive management of a broad range of health care, which may include:

- (a) Promotion and maintenance of health;
- (b) Prevention of illness and disability;
- (c) Assessment of clients, synthesis and analysis of data and application of nursing principles and therapeutic modalities;
- (d) Management of health care during acute and chronic phases of illness;

(e) Admission of his/her clients to hospitals and/or health services including but not limited to home health, hospice, long term care and drug and alcohol treatment;

- (f) Counseling;
- (g) Consultation and/or collaboration with other health care providers and community resources;
- (h) Referral to other health care providers and community resources;
- (i) Management and coordination of care;
- (j) Use of research skills;
- (k) Diagnosis of health/illness status;

(l) Prescribing, dispensing, and administration of therapeutic devices and measures, including legend drugs and controlled substances as provided in Division 56 of the Oregon Nurse Practice Act, consistent with the definition of the practitioner's specialty category and scope of practice.

(6) The nurse practitioner scope of practice includes teaching the theory and practice of advanced practice nursing.

(7) The nurse practitioner is responsible for recognizing limits of knowledge and experience, and for resolving situations beyond his/her nurse practitioner expertise by consulting with or referring clients to other health care providers.

(8) The nurse practitioner will only provide health care services within the nurse practitioner's scope of practice for which he/she is educationally prepared and for which competency has been established and maintained. Educational preparation includes academic coursework, workshops or seminars, provided both theory and clinical experience are included.

(9) The scope of practice as previously defined is incorporated into the following specialty categories and further delineates the population served:

(a) Acute Care Nurse Practitioner (ACNP) — The Acute Care Nurse Practitioner independently provides health care to persons who are acutely or critically ill;

(b) Adult Nurse Practitioner (ANP) The Adult Nurse Practitioner independently provides health care to adolescents and adults;

(c) Nurse Midwife Nurse Practitioner (NMNP) The Nurse Midwife Nurse Practitioner independently provides health care to women, focusing on pregnancy, childbirth, the postpartum period, care of the newborn, and the family planning and gynecological needs of women. The scope of practice includes treating the male partners of their female clients for sexually transmitted diseases, and reproductive health. Counseling related to sexuality, relationship, and reproductive issues is included in this scope.

(d) Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP) The Family Nurse Practitioner independently provides health care to families and to persons across the lifespan;

(e) Geriatric Nurse Practitioner (GNP) The Geriatric Nurse Practitioner independently provides health care to older adults;

(f) Neonatal Nurse Practitioner (NNP) — The Neonatal Nurse Practitioner independently provides health care to neonates and infants.

(g) Pediatric Nurse Practitioner (PNP) The Pediatric Nurse Practitioner independently provides health care to persons newborn to young adulthood;

(h) Psychiatric/Mental Health Nurse Practitioner (PMHNP) The Psychiatric/Mental Health Nurse Practitioner independently provides health care to clients with mental and emotional needs and/or disorders;

(i) Women's Health Care Nurse Practitioner (WHCNP) The Women's Health Care Nurse Practitioner independently provides health care to adolescent and adult females. The scope of practice includes treating the male partners of their female clients for sexually transmitted diseases and reproductive health. Counseling related to sexuality, relationship, and reproductive health is included in this scope.

Criteria for Evaluating Nurse Practitioner National Certification Examinations

The Board shall determine whether a certification examination can be used to fulfill the requirement for licensure of nurse practitioners based upon verification the following standards:

- (1) The certification program is national in its scope of credentialing.
- (2) Conditions for taking the examination are consistent with acceptable standards of the testing community.

(3) Educational requirements include completion of a graduate advanced practice education program of study in the area of nursing certification.

(4) Educational requirements are consistent with a Board recognized advanced practice role and population foci and include a minimum of 500 hours of supervised clinical practice.

(5) Certification examinations meet the criteria of the National Commission on Certifying Agencies or the American Board of Nursing Specialties.

(6) The examination represents entry-level practice in the nurse practitioner role and population focus.

(7) The certification program demonstrates and maintains an established process of secure communication with the Board of Nursing.

(8) The examination represents the knowledge, skills and abilities for safe advanced nursing care based upon incumbent job analysis and logical job analysis studies.

(9) Examination items are reviewed for content validity and correct scoring using an established mechanism before use and at least every five years.

(10) Examinations are evaluated for psychometric performance with passing standards re-evaluated at least every five years.

(11) Examination security is maintained through established procedures.

(12) Certification is issued based upon meeting all certification requirements and passing the examination.

(13) A re-take policy is in place.

(14) The certification program has mechanisms in place for communication to Boards of Nursing in a timely manner when individuals are certified, recertified, when there is a change in certification status; and when there are changes in the certification program including qualifications, test plan, and scope of practice.

(15) A certification maintenance program, which includes review of qualifications and continued competence is in place.

(16) The Board has a secure mechanism for timely verification of an individual's certification status, changes in certification status, and changes in the certification program requirements including qualifications, test plan and scope of practice; and

(17) An evaluation process is in place to provide quality assurance in the certification program.

Renewal of Nurse Practitioner State Certification

(1) Renewal of state certification shall be on the same schedule as the renewal system of the registered nurse license. The requirements for recertification are:

(a) Current unencumbered license as a registered nurse in the state of Oregon.

(b) Submission of all required application fees. Fees are not refundable. An application that has not been completed during the current biennial renewal cycle shall be considered void.

(c) Completion of 100 clock hours of continuing education related to advanced practice nursing and to the area(s) of population focus certification.

(d) Verification of current national Board certification in a role and population focus congruent with educational preparation and current Oregon nurse practitioner certification. Proof of National board certification may be used to meet structured accredited continuing education course requirements for the current renewal cycle for up to 50% of the total CE requirement.

(e) Verification of practice hours which meet the practice requirement in OAR 851-050-0004.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(f) Verification of utilization of prescriptive authority which meets the requirements specified in 851-056-0014 unless already certified as an Oregon Nurse Practitioner without prescriptive authority.

(2) An applicant for renewal who has graduated from the nurse practitioner program less than two years prior to his/her first renewal will not be required to document the full 100 clock hours of continuing education. The applicant's continuing education will be prorated on a monthly basis based on the length of time between graduation and the date of the first renewal.

(3) Nurse practitioners shall maintain accurate documentation and records of any claimed continuing education and practice hours for no less than five years from the date of submission to the Board.

(4) Renewal shall be denied if the applicant does not meet the practice, prescribing, or continuing education requirement for renewal.

(5) Applications for renewal past the expiration date shall meet all requirements for renewal and pay a delinquent fee. Applications which are 60 or more days late require reactivation.

(6) Any individual whose nurse practitioner certification is expired may not practice or represent themselves as a nurse practitioner in Oregon until state certification is complete, subject to civil penalty.

(7) Any individual initially licensed after January 1, 2011 whose nurse practitioner national certification is expired may not practice or represent themselves as a nurse practitioner in Oregon regardless of state certification subject to civil penalty.

Standards for Program Approval: Curriculum

(1) Board-approved curriculum shall be used in approved nursing assistant level 1 and medication aide training programs.

(2) A nursing assistant level 1 training program shall consist of:

(a) At least 150 hours of instruction divided into 75 hours of classroom instruction and 75 hours of supervised clinical experience;

(b) At least 24 hours of supervised classroom/laboratory instruction with return student demonstrations of learned skills to determine comprehension and competency, in addition to facility orientation, preceding the students' care of clients; and

(c) At least 75 hours of supervised clinical experience in a hospital, licensed nursing, residential, or assisted living facility that has a registered nurse on duty during all scheduled student clinical hours and is in substantial compliance with all standards of licensure.

(3) An on-line nursing assistant level 1 training program shall consist of:

(a) At least the equivalent of 51 hours according to the nationally recognized standard of content to credit ratio;

(b) At least 24 hours of supervised laboratory instruction provided no later than two weeks after the successful completion of the on-line portion of the curriculum. The laboratory portion of the program shall include return student demonstration of learned skills to determine comprehension and competency, in addition to facility orientation, preceding the students' care of clients;

(c) At least 75 hours of supervised clinical experience in a hospital, licensed nursing, residential, or assisted living facility that has a registered nurse on duty during all scheduled student clinical hours and is in substantial compliance with all standards of licensure;

(d) Ongoing technical support service(s) to sustain the electronically offered program including provisions for staffing, reliability, privacy, and security; and

(e) Ongoing technical support service(s) for students on each required educational technology hardware, software, and delivery system.

(4) A nursing assistant level 2 training program will have Board approved:

(a) Standardized category curriculum that may vary in training hours from other Board approved standardized category curricula; and

(b) Competency evaluation.

(5) Medication aide training program classroom and clinical instruction hours:

(a) A medication aide training program shall consist of at least 80 hours of instruction divided into at least 24 hours of classroom instruction and at least 24 hours of 1:1 supervised clinical experience.

(b) All clinical hours shall be completed at one site (licensed nursing facility, hospital, assisted living facility, or residential care facility).

(c) All required clinical hours shall be in medication administration related activities.

(6) Admission requirements for medication aide training programs shall be:

(a) Current, unencumbered CNA 1 status on the Oregon CNA Registry maintained by the Board;

(b) Documentation of graduation from an approved basic nursing assistant level 1 training program at least six months prior to enrollment in the medication aide training program; and

(c) Documentation of at least six months full time experience as a nursing assistant level 1 or the equivalent in part time experience since graduation from a basic nursing assistant training program.

(7) Classroom and clinical faculty/student ratios for nursing assistant level 1, level 2, and medication aide training programs:

(a) Classroom:

(A) The ratio of students per instructor in the classroom shall be such that each trainee is provided with registered nurse assistance and supervision and be no more than 30 students per instructor for nursing assistant level 1 training programs, 20 students per instructor for medication aide training programs, and 32 students per instructor for CNA level 2 training programs.

(B) The amount of students assigned per instructor with self-directed, on-line instruction shall be such that each trainee is provided with consultation and additional clarification by a Board approved instructor within 72 hours of a trainee's inquiry.

(C) The ratio of students per instructor with instructor-directed, on-line instruction shall be such that each trainee is provided with consultation and additional clarification by a Board approved instructor within 72 hours of a trainee's inquiry, and the class size shall be no more than 20 students per instructor per on-line classroom.

(b) Lab: The ratio of students per instructor in nursing assistant level 1, level 2, and medication aide training programs shall be no more than 10 students per instructor at all times during the lab experience.

(c) Clinical:

(A) The ratio of students per instructor in a nursing assistant level 1 training program shall be no more than 10 students per instructor at all times during the clinical experience.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(B) The ratio of students per instructor in a nursing assistant level 2 training program shall be no more than 8 students per instructor at all times during the clinical experience.

(C) The ratio of students per instructor in a medication aide training program shall begin with a ratio of one clinical preceptor to one medication aide student during the first 24 hours of the clinical experience. Less intensive supervision (either more students per preceptor or less direct supervision by preceptor) may occur after the first 24 hours, with satisfactory evaluation and approval of the clinical preceptor and primary instructor.

(8) Clinical experience and demonstration of competency for nursing assistant level 1 and medication aide training programs:

(a) A clinical schedule shall be prepared for all students prior to the beginning of the clinical experience, and provided to the clinical facility director of nursing, the clinical instructor/preceptor, and the student.

(b) Student practice and demonstration of competency for nursing assistant level 1 and medication aide training programs:

(A) Students may provide direct client care within their authorized duties under the supervision of an approved instructor.

(B) Students shall be identified as students at all times while in the clinical area.

(C) Students must not be counted as staff or utilized as staff during the hours that are scheduled for clinical experience.

(D) Students may be on a unit, floor or wing of a facility only under direct supervision of a qualified instructor.

(E) Students shall not be on a unit, floor, or wing without a CNA or licensed nurse.

(F) Students shall provide care only to the level they have been taught and determined competent by the approved clinical instructor.

(c) In addition, for medication aide training programs, the clinical experience shall consist of a minimum of 10 medication passes to a minimum of five residents/patients during the first 20 hours of supervised clinical experience;

(9) Program completion:

(a) Completion of a nursing assistant level 1 or medication aide training means that:

(A) The student has successfully completed 100% of the required classroom and clinical hours and content in the curriculum;

(B) The student has successfully demonstrated the required skills on the laboratory and clinical skills checklist;

(C) The student has achieved a score of 75% or higher on the program's final examination;

(D) The student has successfully completed the clinical portion of the program no later than four months following the last date of classroom instruction or within four months after the successful completion of the on-line portion of the program; and

(E) In addition, for nursing assistant level 1 training programs, the student has successfully completed current, adult CPR certification in accordance with Board-approved curriculum.

(b) Completion of a nursing assistant level 2 training means that:

(A) The student has successfully completed 100% of the required classroom and clinical hours and content in the curriculum; and

(B) The student has successfully completed the competency evaluation.

Conduct Unbecoming a Nursing Assistant

A CNA, regardless of job location, responsibilities, or use of the title "CNA," who, in the performance of nursing related duties, may adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of the public, may be found guilty of conduct unbecoming a nursing assistant. Conduct unbecoming a nursing assistant includes but is not limited to:

- (1) Conduct related to the client's safety and integrity:
  - (a) Leaving a nursing assistant assignment without properly notifying appropriate supervisory personnel;
  - (b) Failing to report to proper authorities information regarding incompetent, unethical or illegal practice of any health care provider;
  - (c) Failing to respect client rights and dignity regardless of social or economic status, personal attributes or nature of health problems or disability;
  - (d) Failing to report actual or suspected incidents of client abuse; or
  - (e) Engaging in sexual misconduct related to the client or to the workplace.
- (2) Conduct related to other federal or state statutes/rule violations:
  - (a) Knowingly aiding, abetting or assisting an individual to violate or circumvent any law, rule or regulation intended to guide the conduct of health care providers;
  - (b) Violating the rights of privacy, confidentiality of information or knowledge concerning the client, unless required by law to disclose such information;
  - (c) Discriminating against a client on the basis of age, race, religion, sex, sexual preference, national origin or disability;
  - (d) Abusing a client. The definition of abuse includes but is not limited to intentionally causing physical harm or discomfort, striking a client, intimidating, threatening or harassing a client;
  - (e) Neglecting a client. The definition of neglect includes but is not limited to unreasonably allowing a client to be in physical discomfort or be injured;
  - (f) Engaging in other unacceptable behavior or verbal abuse towards or in the presence of a client such as using derogatory names or gestures or profane language;
  - (g) Using the client relationship to exploit the client by gaining property or other items of value from the client either for personal gain or sale, beyond the compensation for services;
  - (h) Possessing, obtaining, attempting to obtain, furnishing or administering prescription or controlled drugs to any person, including self, except as directed by a person authorized by law to prescribe drugs; or

- (i) Removing or attempting to remove drugs, supplies, property or money from the workplace without authorization.

- (3) Conduct related to communication:
  - (a) Inaccurate recordkeeping in client or agency records;
  - (b) Incomplete recordkeeping regarding client care; including but not limited to failure to document care given or other information important to the client's care or documentation which is inconsistent with the care given;

(c) Falsifying a client or agency record; including but not limited to filling in someone else's omissions, signing someone else's name, recording care not given, fabricating data/values;

(d) Altering a client or agency record; including but not limited to changing words/letters/numbers from the original document to mislead the reader of the record, adding to the record after the original time/date without indicating a late entry;

(e) Destroying a client or agency record;

(f) Failing to maintain client records in a timely manner which accurately reflects management of client care, including failure to make a late entry within a reasonable time period; or

(g) Failing to communicate information regarding the client's status to the supervising nurse or other appropriate person in a timely manner.

- (4) Conduct related to the client's family:
  - (a) Failing to respect the rights of the client's family regardless of social or economic status, race, religion or national origin;
  - (b) Using the CNA client relationship to exploit the family for the CNA's personal gain or for any other reason;
  - (c) Stealing money, property, services or supplies from the family; or
  - (d) Soliciting or borrowing money, materials or property from the family.

(5) Conduct related to co-workers: violent, abusive, threatening, harassing or intimidating behavior towards a co-worker which either occurs in the presence of clients or otherwise relates to the delivery of safe care to clients.

- (6) Conduct related to achieving and maintaining clinical competency:
  - (a) Failing to competently perform the duties of a nursing assistant;
  - (b) Performing acts beyond the authorized duties for which the individual is certified; or

(c) Assuming duties and responsibilities of a nursing assistant without nursing assistant training or when competency has not been established or maintained.

- (7) Conduct related to impaired function:
  - (a) Using intoxicants, prescription, over the counter or controlled drugs to an extent or in a manner injurious to the nursing assistant or others or to the extent that such use impairs the ability to conduct safely the duties of a nursing assistant; or
  - (b) Having a physical or mental condition that makes the nursing assistant unable to perform safely the duties of a nursing assistant.

(8) Conduct related to certificate violations:

- (a) Providing, selling, applying for or attempting to procure a certificate by willful fraud or misrepresentation;
- (b) Functioning as a medication assistant without current certification as a medication assistant;

(c) Altering a certificate of completion of training and/or nursing assistant certification issued by the Board;

(d) Disclosing contents of the competency examination or soliciting, accepting or compiling information regarding the contents of the examination before, during or after its administration;

(e) Allowing another person to use one's nursing assistant certificate for any purpose;

- (f) Using another's nursing assistant certificate for any purpose; or
- (g) Representing oneself as a CNA without current, valid CNA certification.

(9) Conduct related to the certificate holder's relationship with the Board:

(a) Failing to cooperate with the Board during the course of an investigation. The duty to cooperate does not include waiver of confidentiality privileges, except if a client is harmed. This waiver of confidentiality privileges does not apply to client-attorney privilege.

(b) Failing to answer truthfully and completely any question asked by the Board on an application for initial certification, renewal of certification or recertification;

(c) Failing to provide the Board with any documents requested by the Board; or

- (d) Violating the terms and conditions of a Board order.

Definitions

(1) "Addiction" means a primary, chronic, neurobiological disease with genetic, psychosocial, and environmental factors influencing its development and manifestations. It is characterized by behaviors that include one or more of the following: impaired control over drug use, compulsive use, continued use despite harm, and craving. Neither physical dependence nor tolerance alone, as defined by these rules, constitutes addiction.

(2) "Administer" means the direct application of a drug or device, whether by injection, inhalation, ingestion, or any other means to the body of a patient or research subject.

(3) "Assessment" means a process of collecting information regarding a client's health status including, but not limited to, illness, response to illness, health risks of individuals, families and groups, resources, strengths and weaknesses, coping behaviors, and the environment. The skills employed during the assessment process may include, but are not limited to, obtaining client histories, conducting physical examinations, and ordering, interpreting, and conducting a broad range of diagnostic procedures (e.g., laboratory studies, EKGs, and X-rays).

(4) "Client(s) or patient(s)" means a family, group or individual who has been assessed by and has a client/patient record established by the clinical nurse specialist or nurse practitioner.

(5) "Clinical education in patient management" means a set of structured learning activities, including but not limited to, supervised clinical practice in the pharmacological management of individual clients, as well as other learning activities to promote understanding of pharmacological interventions.

(6) "Diagnosis" means identification of actual or potential health problems or need for intervention based on analysis of the data collected.

(7) "Differential diagnosis" means the process of determining a medical diagnosis from among similar diseases and conditions based upon collection and analysis of clinical data.

(8) "Discrete pharmacology course" means an advanced pharmacology course with pharmacologically specific requirements, objectives, and content, which is offered for academic or continuing education credit, and is not integrated into other coursework.

(9) "Dispense" or "dispensing" means the labeling and distribution of a medication to the clinical nurse specialist's or nurse practitioner's client which is prepackaged by a manufacturer registered with the State Board of Pharmacy, or repackaged by a pharmacist licensed with the State Board of Pharmacy.

(10) "Dispensing authority" means to prepare and deliver substances to the client provided the authority is exercised in compliance with applicable federal and state laws.

(11) "Distribute" means the delivery of a drug other than by administering or dispensing, such as prepackaged samples.

(12) "Functional impairment" means:

(a) Practicing nursing when unable/unfit to perform procedures and/or make decisions due to physical impairment as evidenced by documented deterioration of functioning in the practice setting and/or by assessment of a health care provider qualified to diagnose physical condition/status.

(b) Practicing nursing when unable/unfit to perform procedures and/or make decisions due to psychological or mental impairment as evidenced by documented deterioration of functioning in the practice setting, and/or by the assessment of a health care provider qualified to diagnose mental condition/status.

(c) Practicing nursing when physical or mental ability to practice is impaired by use of drugs, alcohol, or mind-altering substances.

(13) "Pain" means an unpleasant sensory and emotional experience related to adverse nociceptive or neuropathic stimuli. It may also be idiopathic in nature.

(a) "Acute pain" is brief and responds to timely intervention or subsides as healing takes place. Inadequate treatment may delay recovery. Such pain responds to anti-inflammatory and opioid medications, as well as to other approaches.

(b) "Chronic pain" is on going or frequently recurring and may become unresponsive to intervention over time.

(c) "Intractable pain" means a pain state in which the cause cannot be removed or otherwise treated and no relief or cure has been found after reasonable efforts.

(14) "Pharmacodynamics" means the study of the biochemical and physiologic effects of drugs and their mechanism of action.

(15) "Pharmacokinetics" means the action of drugs in the body over a period of time.

(16) "Pharmacotherapeutics" means the study of the uses of drugs in the treatment of disease.

(17) "Physical dependence" means the physiologic adaptation to the presence of a medication characterized by withdrawal when its use is stopped abruptly.

(18) "Prescribe" means a written, verbal, or electronic legal directive to procure or designate for use legend drugs or controlled substances. Additionally, a prescription may be issued or required for use of over-the-counter medications.

(19) "Prescribing authority" means the legal permission to determine which drugs and controlled substances shall be used by or administered to a client.

(20) "Specialty" means the defined area of expertise such as that provided by academic education, clinical training, and may include additional legal or professional credentialing mechanisms.

(21) "Target audience" means a population for whom an educational program is designed.

(22) "Therapeutic device" means an instrument or an apparatus intended for use in diagnosis or treatment and in the prevention of disease or maintenance or restoration of health.

(23) "Tolerance" means the physiologic adaptation to a controlled substance over time, resulting in the need to increase the dose to achieve the same effect, or in a reduction of response with repeated administration.

Application Requirements for Prescriptive Authority in Oregon

(1) Current, unencumbered registered nurse license in the State of Oregon.

(2) Currently has or is eligible for an unencumbered nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist certificate in the State of Oregon.

(3) Submission of application and fees required by the Board. Fees are nonrefundable. An application not completed after one calendar year will be considered void.

(4) Evidence of successful completion of 45 contact hours of pharmacology as defined in OAR 851-056-0008 including content related to the specialty scope of practice which shall be met through:

(a) Completion within two years prior to the application date; or

(b) Evidence of completion of a 30 hour discrete pharmacology course congruent with the specialty role sought with:

(A) An additional 15 CE hours in pharmacological management congruent with the area of clinical specialty completed in the two years prior to the application date; and

(B) Current prescriptive authority in another state or U.S. jurisdiction, including a U.S. federal institution or facility; or

(c) Evidence of completion of a clinical nurse specialist or nurse practitioner program within two years prior to application date, which included a 45 hour pharmacology course and subsequent clinical practicum in pharmacologic management of individual patients prior to graduation.

(5) Evidence of successful completion of required clinical education in patient management. An applicant may be considered to meet this requirement through:

(a) Completion of graduate level nursing academic credits, or continuing education credits accredited by a national nursing accrediting body that include a directly supervised clinical practicum of not less than 150 hours containing evidence of clinical experiences in differential diagnosis and applied pharmacological management of patients congruent with the specialty role; or

(b) Evidence of unencumbered prescriptive authority in another state or U.S. jurisdiction, including a U.S. federal institution or facility with a minimum of 400 hours utilizing prescriptive authority and patient management within the past two years.

(6) Evidence of successful completion of accredited graduate level nursing courses documented by CE or academic credit. Such courses must include physical assessment, pathophysiology, and clinical management sufficient to prepare the applicant for safe prescribing with individual patients. Integrated courses taken before January 1, 1996 may be considered if content otherwise meets all requirements for equivalency.

(7) Applicants for initial certification as a nurse practitioner shall meet all requirements for prescriptive authority. Clinical nurse specialists may obtain and renew certification with the Board without prescriptive authority.

(8) Initial applicants seeking prescriptive authority who do not meet Oregon's pharmacology requirements shall complete a pharmacology course from a list approved by the Board, equal to a minimum of 45 contact hours.

(9) Nurse practitioners who were certified in Oregon prior to July 1, 1997, and who did not have prescriptive authority as of that date, are not required to obtain or renew with prescriptive authority.

Prescription Requirements

(1) A written prescription shall include the date, printed name, legal signature, specialty category/title, business address, and telephone number of the prescribing nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist in addition to the required patient and drug information.

(2) An electronically transmitted prescription as defined in OAR 855-006-0015 of the Pharmacy Act shall include the name and immediate contact information of the prescriber and be electronically encrypted or in some manner protected by up-to-date technology from unauthorized access, alteration or use. Controlled substances have additional restrictions as defined by the DEA which shall be followed.

(3) A tamper resistant prescription shall meet criteria as defined in OAR 855-006-0015 of the Pharmacy Act.

(4) Prescriptions may be written for over the counter drugs, durable medical equipment (DME) and devices.

(5) Prescriptions shall be signed by the prescriber with the abbreviated specialty title of the nurse practitioner as per OAR 851-050-0005(9) or the title CNS as per 851-054-0015.

(6) The nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist shall comply with all applicable laws and rules in prescribing, administering, and distributing drugs, including compliance with the labeling requirements of ORS Chapter 689.

(7) A nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist shall only prescribe controlled substances in conjunction with their own valid and current DEA registration number appropriate to the classification level of the controlled substance.

(8) Clinical nurse specialists and nurse practitioners with prescriptive authority are authorized to prescribe:

- (a) Over-the-counter drugs;
- (b) Appliances and devices;
- (c) Orphan drugs; and
- (d) Limited access drugs;

(e) Antibiotics to partner(s) of patients diagnosed with a sexually transmitted infection without first examining the partner of the patient, consistent with Department of Human Services guidelines regarding Expedited Partner Therapy.

Conduct Derogatory to the Standards for Prescriptive or Dispensing Authority

(1) The Board may deny, suspend or revoke the authority to write prescriptions and/or dispense drugs for the causes identified in ORS 678.111(1) or with proof that the authority has been abused.

(2) The abuse of the prescriptive or dispensing authority constitutes conduct derogatory to nursing standards and is defined as:

(a) Prescribing, dispensing or distributing drugs which are not FDA approved unless done through protocol registration in a United States Institutional Review Board or Expanded Access authorized clinical trial.

(b) Prescribing, dispensing, administering, or distributing drugs for other than therapeutic or prophylactic purposes;

(c) Prescribing, dispensing, or distributing drugs to an individual who is not the clinical nurse specialist's or nurse practitioner's client unless written under Expedited Partner Therapy guidelines from the Department of Human Services or is not within the scope of practice or type of client population served;

(d) Prescribing, dispensing, or distributing drugs for personal use;

(e) Prescribing, dispensing, administering, or distributing drugs while functionally impaired;

(f) Prescribing, dispensing, administering, or distributing drugs in an unsafe or unlawful manner or without adequate instructions to the client according to acceptable and prevailing standards or practice;

(g) Prescribing, dispensing, or distributing drugs which are specifically restricted under federal law;

(h) Failure to properly assess and document client assessment when prescribing, dispensing, administering, or distributing drugs;

(i) Selling, purchasing, trading, or offering to sell, purchase or trade any drug sample;

(j) Dispensing medications without dispensing authority granted by the Board or other dispensing authority issued by the State of Oregon;

(k) Charging a client or any third party payer in a grossly negligent manner.

Dispensing Authority

(1) An "applicant" for dispensing authority must be an unencumbered Oregon certified nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist with prescriptive authority in good standing with the Oregon State Board of Nursing.

(2) Applicants shall submit an application and information as required by the Board.

(3) Applicants must demonstrate, through a description of the clinical nurse specialist's or nurse practitioner's patient population, a lack of readily available access to pharmacy services as provided in ORS 678.390 and that the grant of dispensing authority to the applicant would correct this lack of access.

(4) The applicant shall show evidence of completion of the following dispensing program:

(a) Documented review of content regarding safe dispensing listed below:

(A) Board of Nursing handbook "Nurse Practitioner and Clinical Nurse Specialist Prescriptive Authority in Oregon";

(B) The Drug Enforcement Administration Pharmacist's Manual (2004);

(C) OAR 851 division 56;

(D) ORS Chapter 689 and OAR chapter 855;

(E) U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission publication "Poison Prevention Packaging: A Text for Pharmacists and Physicians," and;

(F) The Institute for Safe Medication Practices (ISMP) "List of Error-Prone Abbreviations, Symbols, and Dose Designations" (2007); and

(G) Information on available electronic or hard copy prescription drug references which provide information to professionals authorized to dispense prescription medications.

(b) Successful self examination as provided by the Board on these materials.

(5) Dispensing under this authority is limited to patients that meet any of the following criteria:

(a) Lack of patient access to a pharmacy due to the following:

(A) The patient lives outside the boundaries of a metropolitan statistical area as defined by the federal Office of Management and Budget;

(B) The patient lives 30 or more highway miles from the closest hospital within the major population center in a metropolitan statistical area as defined by the federal Office of Management and Budget; or

(C) The patient lives in a county with a population of less than 75,000.

(b) The patient faces a financial barrier to purchase prescriptions, including but not limited to:

(A) The patient receives services from a health care safety net program;

(B) The patient is eligible for participation in a patient assistance program of a pharmaceutical company.

(c) Patients of a certified nurse practitioner seen at a qualified institution of higher education as defined by ORS 399.245.

(6) The staff of the Board shall provide written notice to the Oregon Board of Pharmacy upon receipt and again upon approval of such application.

(7) Applicants must provide complete and accurate information requested by the Board. Failure to complete application material as requested or failure to meet criteria in this rule shall be grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation of dispensing authority.

Drug Delivery and Dispensing

(1) Policies and procedures: A nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist with dispensing authority shall follow procedures established by federal and state law for:

(a) Drug dispensing, storage, security and accountability;

(b) Maintenance of all drug records;

(c) Procedures for procurement of drugs.

(2) Dispensing:

(a) Drugs shall be prepackaged by a pharmacy or manufacturer registered with the Oregon State Board of Pharmacy, and provide on the label:

(A) The name and strength of the drug. If the drug does not have a brand name, then the generic name of the drug and the drug manufacturer must be on the label.

(B) The quantity of the drug;

(C) Cautionary statements, if any, required by law;

(D) The name, address, and phone number of the practitioner's practice site; and

(E) The manufacturer's expiration date, or an earlier date if preferable, after which the patient should not use the drug.

(b) The nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist shall personally dispense drugs which require hand labeling with the following information:

(A) Name of the patient;

(B) Directions for use; and

(C) Physical description, including any identification code that may appear on tablets and capsules.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) The nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist may delegate the dispensing function to staff assistants under limited circumstances where the staff assistant performs technical support that does not require prescriptive judgment. The staff assistant can dispense only those drugs that are pre-labeled by the dispensing pharmacy with the following information:

- (A) Name of the patient;
- (B) Name of the prescriber;
- (C) Directions for use; and
- (D) A physical description, including any identification code that may appear on tablets and capsules.

(E) Staff assistants may complete and label the drug with the patient's address, date of dispensing, and initials of dispensing personnel and distribute them to the patient.

(d) Drugs shall be dispensed in containers complying with the federal Poison Prevention Packaging Act unless the patient requests a non-complying container.

(e) The nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist shall provide a means for patients to receive verbal and written information on drugs dispensed to the patient. The written drug information shall include:

- (A) Drug name and class;
  - (B) Proper use and storage;
  - (C) Common side effects;
  - (D) Precautions and contraindications; and
  - (E) Significant drug interactions.
- (3) Drug security, storage and disposal:

(a) In the absence of the person authorized to dispense and prescribe, drugs shall be kept in a locked cabinet or drug room which is sufficiently secure to deny access to unauthorized persons.

(b) Controlled substances shall be maintained in a secure, locked container at all times.

(c) All drugs shall be stored in areas which will assure proper sanitation, temperature, light, ventilation, and moisture control.

(d) Drugs which are outdated, damaged, deteriorated, misbranded, or adulterated shall be physically separated from other drugs until they are destroyed or returned to their supplier.

(e) Controlled substances, which are expired, deteriorated, or unwanted, shall be disposed of in conformance with current State and Federal Regulations, including but not limited to, 21 CFR 1307.21 and OAR 855-080-0105.

(4) Drug records:

(a) A drug dispensing record shall be maintained separately from the patient record and kept for a minimum of three years. The dispensing record shall show, at a minimum, the following:

- (A) Name of patient;
- (B) Brand name of drug, or generic name and manufacturer or distributor;
- (C) Date of dispensing; and
- (D) Initials of nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist.

(b) A physical copy of the prescription for each medication dispensed shall be retained in the patient chart and shall be produced upon request.

(c) All records required by these rules or by federal or state law shall be readily retrievable and available for inspection by the Board and the Board of Pharmacy.

(d) A patient record shall be maintained for all patients to whom the nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist dispenses medications.

(5) Clinical nurse specialists and nurse practitioners with dispensing authority shall be responsible for safe storage, distribution, and destruction of all drugs under their authority.

(6) Clinical nurse specialists and nurse practitioners granted dispensing authority under this rule shall comply with the labeling and record keeping requirements of OAR 851-050-0164.

(7) A person granted dispensing authority under this rule shall have available at the dispensing site a hard copy or electronic version of prescription drug reference works commonly used by professionals authorized to dispense prescription medications.

(8) A person granted dispensing authority under this rule shall permit representatives of the Oregon State Board of Pharmacy, upon receipt of a complaint about that person's dispensing practices and notice to the Board of Nursing, to inspect a dispensing site.

Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision Chapter 255

Rule Caption: Amends Exhibit J, which lists all of the general, and some of the special, conditions of supervision.

Adm. Order No.: PAR 5-2009

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-31-2009

Certified to be Effective: 1-1-10

Notice Publication Date: 12-1-2009

Rules Amended: 255-070-0001

Subject: The Board has jurisdiction to impose conditions of supervision for offenders on parole, post-prison supervision (PPS), or both. OAR 255-070-0001 provides that the Board may order parole conditions or PPS conditions and that supervision conditions are not limited to those shown in Exhibit J. Exhibit J is being amended to reflect the current general conditions of supervision and to list some of the special conditions that the Board orders. Exhibit J is also being amended to make formatting changes and to streamline the conditions ordered consistent with best-practices in the field.

255-070-0001

Conditions Not Limited by Exhibit J

(1) The Board may order parole conditions pursuant to OAR 255-070-0015.

(2) The Board shall approve post-prison supervision conditions pursuant to OAR 213-011-0001.

(3) Conditions of parole and post-prison supervision are not limited to those shown in Exhibit J.

Subject: Division 62 rules put in place procedures for implementing statutory changes that prohibit the Board from holding a subsequent hearing after the Board denies a petition for a change in terms of confinement of an inmate convicted of aggravated murder or murder, and that prohibit the Board from granting a release date in less than two years, or more than 10 years, after the Board denies a firm parole or post-prison supervision release date for certain inmates.

When Parole Deferral Periods May Occur

(1) After the Board denies a petition for change in terms of confinement of an inmate convicted of aggravated murder or murder, the Board may not hold a subsequent hearing that is less than two years, or more than 10 years, from date petition is denied.

(2) After the Board denies a firm parole or post-prison supervision release date for certain inmates, the Board may not hold a subsequent hearing to consider granting a release date in less than two years, or more than 10 years, from date on which release on parole or post-prison supervision is denied.

(3) Upon finding that it is not reasonable to expect that the inmate would be granted a change in the terms of confinement or would be granted a firm release date following two years, the Board will deliberate and select a deferral date of between two and 10 years from the date of the decision.

Type of Hearing Eligible for a Deferral of More than Two Years

OAR 255-062-0005 applies to the following hearings:

(1) Murder Review Hearing: If the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision denies a petition for a change in the terms of confinement filed by an inmate under ORS 163.105 or ORS 163.115, the Board may not grant the inmate a subsequent hearing that is less than two years, or more than 10 years, from the date the petition is denied.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) Exit Interview Hearing: Crime Commitment Date prior to 05/19/1988 – but on or after 10/4/1977: If the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision concludes that an inmate suffers from a present severe emotional disturbance such as to constitute a danger to the health or safety of the community, the Board may not defer the projected parole release date for less than two years, or more than 10 years, from the date of inmate's current projected parole release date.

(3) Exit Interview Hearing: Crime Commitment Date on or after 05/19/1988 – but before 11/11/1989: If the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision determines that the psychological evaluation does constitute a finding that an inmate suffers from a present severe emotional disturbance such as to constitute a danger to the health or safety of the community (and after considering the psychological evaluation and all of the other evidence in the record), the Board may not defer the projected parole release date for less than two years, or more than 10 years, from the date of inmate's current projected parole release date.

(4) Exit Interview Hearing: Crime Commitment Date on or between 1/29/1977 and 10/3/1977: If the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision finds, based on the doctor's report and diagnosis, coupled with all the information that the Board is considering, and applying OAR 254-50-015 (1977), ORS 144.180, and pursuant to ORS 144.175 (1) (2), that deferral of the inmate's projected parole release date is necessary, the Board may not defer the projected parole release date for less than two years, or more than 10 years, from the date of inmate's current projected parole release date.

(5) Parole Consideration Hearing: If the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision finds that an inmate has a mental or emotional disturbance, deficiency, condition, or disorder predisposing the inmate to the commission of any crime to a degree rendering him or her a danger to the health or safety of others, and that therefore, the condition that made the inmate dangerous is not in remission and the inmate continues to remain a danger, and that the inmate cannot be adequately controlled with supervision and mental health treatment which are available in the community, the Board will conduct the next review hearing no less than two years, or more than 10 years, from the current parole consideration date.

(6) Parole Hearing: Crime Commitment Date before 1/29/1977: If the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision finds that there is not a reasonable probability that an inmate will, after parole, remain outside the institution without violating the law, and that the inmate's parole release is not compatible with the welfare of society, the Board may not grant the inmate a subsequent hearing that is less than two years, or more than 10 years, from the date the petition is denied.

Factors to be Considered in Establishing a Deferral Period Longer Than Two Years

Following an interview and consideration of all the information presented at the hearing, the Board may find by unanimous vote of the members participating in the hearing, that it is not reasonable to expect that the inmate would be granted a change in the terms of confinement, or it is not reasonable to expect that the inmate would be granted a firm release date following two years, based on any of the following non-exclusive factors:

(1) A determination by the Board, based on the psychological evaluation and all the information available at the hearing, that the inmate has a mental or emotional disturbance, deficiency, condition, or disorder predisposing him/her to the commission of any crime to a degree rendering the inmate a danger to the health or safety of others;

(2) Infractions of institutional rules and discipline;

(3) Commission of crimes subsequent to the crime of conviction;

(4) Inmate's failure to demonstrate understanding of the factors that led to his/her criminal offense(s);

(5) Inmate's demonstrated lack of effort to address criminal risk factors of psychological or emotional problems;

(6) Inmate's demonstrated lack of effort to address criminal risk factors of substance abuse problems;

(7) Failure to seek and maintain appropriate work or training;

(8) Inmate's failure to seek out and benefit from programming including but not limited to sex offender treatment, batterers intervention programs, anger management, cognitive therapy, and victim impact panels where available;

(9) Inmate's inability to experience or demonstrate remorse or empathy, including but not limited to any registered victims;

(10) Demonstrated poor planning and foresight;

(11) Demonstrated impulsivity; or

(12) Demonstrated lack of concern for others, including but not limited to any registered victims.

Request for Interim Hearing

(1) When the Board defers the inmate's next hearing for more than two years from the date a petition is denied or from the current projected parole release date, current parole consideration date, or current parole hearing date, the inmate may submit a request for an interim hearing not earlier than the date that is two years from the date the petition is denied or from the current projected parole release date, current parole consideration date, or current parole hearing date, and at intervals of not less than two years thereafter. Such petitions must conform to the following format:

(a) Petitions must be legible and double spaced. Handwritten petitions will be accepted, although typed documents are preferred;

(b) In no more than one page, a summary outlining how the inmate qualifies for an interim hearing;

(c) From the date of the last hearing to the petition date, a current copy of the following documents:

(1) Oregon Corrections Plan

(2) Earned time computation form

(3) Spending Account

(4) Disciplinary Report

(d) In no more than 10 pages, any supporting facts, information or documents relevant to the criteria outlined in section (3) or other factors specific to how the inmate has demonstrated a significant change or progression;

(e) Although reference to rules, codes, or laws may be appropriate, the Board will not accept or consider additional pages or exhibits including copies of codebooks, manuals, other manuscripts, certificates, news articles, legal opinions, or other materials not directly related to the inmate's case.

(2) The Board shall consider the request for an interim hearing by file pass.

(3) At its discretion, the Board may request additional information from the inmate.

(4) If a petition is denied, the inmate may petition again no earlier than two years from the date of the denial.

Interim Hearing Finding

If the Board finds, based upon a properly-submitted request for an interim hearing, that there is reasonable cause to believe that the inmate may be granted a change in the terms of confinement or a firm release date, the Board shall conduct a hearing as soon as is reasonably convenient. An interim hearing may be granted by a majority of the Board, except in cases where a full Board is required by ORS 144.054.

Final Orders

(1) When the Board grants an inmate a hearing that is more than two years from the date a petition is denied or from the current projected parole release date, current parole consideration date, or current parole hearing date, and when the Board denies a petition for an interim hearing, the Board shall issue a final order.

(a) The order shall be accompanied by findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(b) The findings of fact shall consist of a concise statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings as to each contested issue of fact and as to each ultimate fact required to support the board's order.

Board of Pharmacy Chapter 855

Rule Caption: Amend criteria for implementation of rules for a Public Health Emergency. Correct grammar and ambiguities.

Adm. Order No.: BP 4-2009

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-24-2009

Certified to be Effective: 12-24-09

Notice Publication Date: 11-1-2009

Rules Amended: 855-007-0010, 855-007-0020, 855-007-0030, 855-007-0040, 855-007-0050, 855-007-0060, 855-007-0080, 855-007-0090, 855-007-0100, 855-007-0110, 855-007-0120

Subject: Current rules do not allow for a situation where the President or a federal official has declared an emergency or has authorized a state to implement measures in preparation for an emergency. In addition, current rules do not adequately address an emergency that is limited in scope. This amendment corrects the omission. The

Declaration of Emergency

(1) With the exception of OAR 855-007-0060(2)(a) and (b), 855-007-0080(2), 855-007-0080(8)(a) and (b), and 855-007-0120 that are always in effect, the rules in this Division are only effective when:

(a) A State of Emergency or a Public Health Emergency has been declared by the Governor of Oregon under ORS 401.055 or 433.441 through 433.452;

(b) The provisions of any relevant rules in chapter 855 Oregon Administrative Rules have been suspended by the Governor under the authority of ORS 401.065(2);

(c) A signatory to the Pacific Northwest Emergency Management Arrangement (the states of Alaska, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, the Province of British Columbia, and Yukon) has requested assistance during a civil emergency as authorized in Chapter 25 Oregon Laws 2008;

(d) A signatory to the Emergency Management Assistance Compact has requested assistance during a civil emergency as authorized in ORS 401.043;

(e) The President of the United States or another federal official has declared a public health emergency; or

(f) The Governor has authorized the Public Health Director to take the actions described in ORS 431.264.

(2) When these rules are authorized by any one of the actions listed in (1)(a)–(f) they are in effect to the extent necessitated by the scope of the declaration, and control to the extent that they are in conflict with other Divisions of OAR Chapter 855.

Applicability

(1) These rules apply to all persons licensed or registered with the Board under OAR chapter 855 and to any persons acting under the authority of Oregon State Public Health Division or any other state agency, or any local or county health department or emergency manager, during a Declared Emergency or a Public Health Emergency, or to any such person acting in preparation for a Public Health Emergency.

(2) These rules may apply to the whole state of Oregon or only to a county or area included in the declared emergency. They also apply to the activities of any licensee or registrant who is working during a declared emergency in the state or territory of any of the signatories of Pacific Northwest Emergency Management Arrangement or the Emergency Management Assistance Compact.

(3) These rules apply to the dispensing and administration of drugs and vaccines to any person within an area subject to an emergency declaration or to any person who has been displaced from their place of residence even if the place to which they have been displaced has not been included in the emergency declaration.

(4) Insofar as neither the Governor of Oregon nor the Board has the authority to waive any provisions of Federal Law, nothing in these rules that conflicts with the Federal Controlled Substances Act (CSA) or the implementing regulations in 21 CFR, shall apply to federal controlled substances as listed in Division 80 of this chapter of rules, unless an agency of the US Government has waived the appropriate section of the CSA or the implementing regulations in 21 CFR.

Emergency Licensure

(1) Article V of ORS 401.043 (EMAC) and Article V of Annex B of PNEMA provide that whenever a person holds a license, certificate or other permit issued by a signatory to the compact evidencing the meeting of qualifications for professional, mechanical or other skills, and when such assistance is requested by the receiving signatory, the person is deemed to be licensed, certified or permitted by the signatory requesting assistance to render aid involving the skill to meet an emergency or disaster, to the extent allowed by law and subject to limitations and conditions as the requesting signatory prescribes by executive order or otherwise.

(2) When an emergency has been declared, a drug outlet may employ a pharmacist, intern or pharmacy technician who does not hold a license issued by the Board, provided that the individual provides evidence that they hold a comparable license issued by any other state or signatory to PNEMA or EMAC.

(3) In an emergency, the Board may grant an emergency temporary license to a licensee of the board of pharmacy of any state, province, foreign state or political sub-division that is not a signatory to PNEMA or EMAC as follows:

(a) A pharmacist, intern, pharmacy technician or certified pharmacy technician who holds an active license in another state, province, foreign state or political sub-division that is not suspended or restricted for any reason and who is sponsored by a pharmacy that has an active registration from the Board may be granted an emergency temporary license subject to approval by the Board of an application that contains:

(A) The name, permanent address and phone number of the applicant;

(B) The license number and state, province or political sub-division of permanent licensure;

(C) The name and license number of the sponsoring Oregon pharmacy; and

(D) Any other information requested by the Board.

(b) The emergency temporary license issued under these rules shall be valid for a period determined by the Board, but not exceeding six months. If the emergency still exists after six months, the Board may renew any emergency temporary license for an additional six months.

(c) The Board shall notify the sponsoring pharmacy of the approval of each emergency temporary license.

(d) A licensee granted an emergency temporary license under this rule may only practice in the sponsoring pharmacy or a pharmacy under common ownership with the sponsoring pharmacy, except that the licensee may transfer to another pharmacy that is not under common ownership with the sponsoring pharmacy, provided that the licensee notifies the Board within three days.

(4) Inactive License Reactivation: In an emergency, the Board may allow a pharmacist whose license has been inactive for no more than two years to reactivate their license without completing any required continuing

SNS and State Stockpile Emergency Drugs

(1) General: When drugs from the Strategic National Stockpile (SNS) are delivered to the state, the drugs may be delivered to a state Receipt, Staging and Storage center (RSS) for further distribution to Points of Dispensing (PODs) selected by OSPHD. State drugs (state stockpile) may also be delivered to the RSS.

(2) Storage of drugs from SNS or state stockpile:

(a) The RSS, PODs and local health departments (LHD) are authorized to store any drugs from the SNS or state stockpile prior to and during an emergency without any registration from the Board.

(b) All such drugs must be stored in accordance with manufacturers' guidelines.

(c) This authority to possess drugs shall extend beyond the declared emergency until procedures issued by OSPHD for the return or destruction of unused drugs have been completed.

(3) Repackaging: If it is necessary to repackage drugs into unit-of-use regimen packages, this will be done at RSS under Centers for Disease Control (CDC) protocols as follows:

(a) Repackaging equipment will be provided by SNS or OSPHD;

(b) Staff from the CDC Technical Advisory Response Unit (TARU) will train the repackaging team members on the use of the equipment and will provide team leadership.

(c) OSPHD will provide repackaging procedures and team members.

(d) For SNS drugs, unit-of-use regimens shall be labeled in accordance with SNS protocols as follows:

(A) Official health agency name, city and state;

(B) Prescriber's name — when using State protocols prescriber's name will be "State Protocol";

(C) Date repackaged;

(D) Quantity of drugs in the regimen;

(E) Prescription number, name, strength, expiration date and lot number of the drug;

(F) Number for 24-hour telephone line;

(G) Patients name left blank — to be filled in at time of dispensing.

(4) Distribution: The RSS, POD or LHD may distribute or dispense SNS or state stockpile drugs in accordance with the distribution and dispensing procedures provided by OSPHD.

(5) Administration and dispensing: A health-care provider designated by OSPHD or a LHD to supervise the administration and dispensing of SNS or state stockpile drugs shall follow protocols approved by OSPHD, a local health officer or CDC.

(6) An Intake Form that shall serve as a valid prescription is to be filled out for each person receiving a drug at a POD. The intake form is to be retained as specified in OAR 855-007-0110.

(7) Returns: At the conclusion of the emergency, all such drugs are to be returned to the RSS or other designated location under instructions issued by OSPHD.

Emergency Immunization and Drug Distribution

When these rules are in effect, the following principles and procedures shall apply to the distribution, dispensing and administration of vaccines or drugs:

(1) The distribution of vaccines and drugs is to be in accordance with instructions provided by OSPHD.

(2) LHDs are authorized to distribute SNS or state stockpile drugs to designated Treatment Centers (TC) or health-care providers designated by the State Public Health Director or a local health administrator.

(3) A TC may include but is not limited to:

(a) A LHD;

(b) A clinician;

(c) A community health clinic;

(d) An independent or chain pharmacy;

(e) A hospital or other health-care facility;

(f) A temporary pharmacy;

(g) A mobile pharmacy; or

(h) A tribal health-care facility.

(4) A TC may possess, distribute, dispense and administer vaccines and drugs if these rules are in effect.

(5) A health-care provider, designated by the local health administrator, at a TC shall be responsible for administration, distribution and tracking of vaccines and drugs in accordance with procedures established by OSPHD.

(6) A health-care provider may, if permitted under that provider's scope of practice and these rules, distribute, dispense and administer vaccines and drugs.

(7) An Individual Data Collection Form (IDCF) shall be filled out for each person receiving a vaccine or drug at a TC or from a health-care provider, and this IDCF shall be treated as a valid prescription and retained as follows:

(a) An IDCF initiated at a pharmacy or other licensed health-care facility shall be filed and retained for three years;

(b) An IDCF initiated at a facility that is not a licensed health-care facility or at a temporary or mobile pharmacy shall be sent to OSPHD at the end of the state of emergency except that where the temporary or mobile facility has been established under the authority of OAR 855-007-0100 all records shall be filed and retained in accordance with 855-007-0110.

(8) Community Partner: A Community Partner means any entity that is authorized by OSPHD or OBOP to:

(a) Purchase and store vaccines or drugs prior to a pandemic event;

(b) Store vaccines or drugs in a Board registered facility or at a tribal site;

(c) Take possession of the vaccines or drugs and distribute to critical infrastructure and key resources when so directed by OSPHD in accordance with OSPHD protocols and procedures.

(d) A Community Partner shall:

(A) Distribute all drugs within 72 hours of removal from the storage site;

(B) Store all drugs in accordance with manufacture's guidelines;

(C) Record all distributions on a Distribution Log that shall include:

(i) The name and age of the person receiving the drugs;

(ii) The name, strength and quantity of the drugs;

(iii) The date and the time of the distribution.

(e) The Distribution Log shall be treated as a valid prescription and stored or otherwise disposed of as specified in 855-007-0110;

(9) This authority for LHDs, TCs, health-care providers and Community Partners to possess drugs shall extend beyond the declared emergency until procedures issued by OSPHD for the return or destruction of unused drugs have been completed.

Emergency Pharmacy Rules

(1) Refills: A pharmacist in the area covered by a declared emergency or in an area engaged in disaster assistance may dispense a refill of a prescription drug without a valid prescription provided that:

(a) In the pharmacist's professional judgment, the drug is essential to the maintenance of the patient's health or the continuation of therapy; and

(b) The pharmacist provides no more than a 30-day supply; and

(c) The pharmacist records all relevant information and indicates that it is an Emergency Prescription; and

(d) The pharmacist informs the patient or the patient's agent that the drug is being provided without a prescriber's authorization and that a prescriber authorization is required for any additional refill.

(e) If the refill is for a controlled substance, permission has been granted by the DEA for this type of refill, either by waiver of appropriate controlled substance regulations or by notification to the Board.

(2) New and modified drug therapy: A pharmacist in the area covered by a declared emergency or in an area engaged in disaster assistance may, after consultation with any authorized prescriber, initiate or modify any drug therapy, and dispense an amount of the drug to meet the patient's health needs until that patient can be seen by a health-care practitioner, provided that:

(a) The pharmacist acts in accordance with currently accepted standards of care; and

(b) In the pharmacist's professional judgment, the drug is essential to the maintenance of the patient's health or to the continuation of therapy; and

(c) The pharmacist records all relevant information to a form and indicates that a drug therapy has been initiated or modified and that this is an Emergency Prescription; and

(d) The pharmacist informs the patient or the patient's agent at the time of dispensing that the drug is being provided in the absence of a valid patient — prescriber relationship but that a prescriber was consulted regarding the appropriateness of the drug therapy; and

(e) The pharmacist informs the patient or the patient's agent that a prescriber authorization is required for any refill.

Temporary Pharmacies

(1) When these rules are in effect, the Board may issue a Temporary Pharmacy Registration to any facility or mobile facility.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) A facility, including a mobile pharmacy, holding a Temporary Pharmacy Registration may store and dispense drugs in accordance with the requirements of OAR 855-041 and these rules. The supervising pharmacist of a mobile pharmacy shall notify the Board of the pharmacy location within three working days of commencing business, and within three working days of any change in location.

(3) A Temporary Pharmacy Registration automatically expires when the state of emergency ends unless specifically extended by the Board.

(4) Within 30 days of the end of the declared emergency, the holder of a Temporary Pharmacy Registration shall notify the Board as to the disposition of its drug inventory and records.

(5) A temporary or mobile pharmacy that is established for the sole purpose of expediting distribution of emergency immunizations, antibiotics or antiviral drugs under OAR 855-007-0080, is located adjacent to an existing pharmacy registered with the Board and is under the supervision of the PIC of the existing pharmacy, does not need to be registered as a temporary pharmacy.

Emergency Recordkeeping

All records initiated during a state of emergency shall be disposed of as follows:

(1) POD intake forms and Individual Data Collection Forms or electronic records shall be transferred to OSPHD at the end of the emergency;

(2) Community Partner's Logs:

(a) Vaccines: Logs shall be transferred to OSPHD within 14 days of administration to be entered into the statewide immunization information system. If the Community Partner is a registered health-care facility or under the control of a licensed health-care provider, a copy of the log shall be made before submission and retained for three years.

(b) Antivirals and other drugs: Logs shall be transferred to OSPHD at the end of the emergency unless the Community Partner is a registered health-care facility or under the control of a licensed health-care provider in which case logs shall be stored securely by the Community Partner;

(3) Emergency Prescriptions and Individual Data Collection Forms for drugs dispensed from a pharmacy that is not a Temporary or Mobile Pharmacy shall be stored at the pharmacy.

(4) Emergency Prescriptions and Individual Data Collection Forms for drugs dispensed from a Temporary or Mobile Pharmacy shall be stored at whichever of the following locations is most appropriate:

(a) At the parent pharmacy that provided the majority of the drugs to the Temporary or Mobile Pharmacy; or

(b) At the pharmacy that employs the supervising pharmacist of the Temporary or Mobile Pharmacy; or

(c) At the pharmacy that receives the unused drugs from the Temporary or Mobile Pharmacy at the end of the emergency.

(5) Unless otherwise specified, all records are to be retained for three years and must be made available to the Board upon request.

Damage to a Pharmacy and Drug Integrity

(1) If a pharmacy prescription department sustains damage, whether by flood or otherwise, the entire drug inventory, including any prescriptions that are awaiting pickup, is unfit for dispensing, shall be classified as adulterated and must be destroyed unless, in the pharmacist's professional judgment, any items are deemed safe for dispensing. Any incident of this nature must be reported to the Board within three working days.

(2) If a pharmacy loses power that affects temperature or humidity controls such that USP standards for proper storage of drugs have been violated, such drugs shall be classified as adulterated and may not be dispensed.

NOTE: for those drugs labeled for storage at "controlled room temperature," the acceptable range of temperature is 68° to 77°F with allowances for brief deviations between 59° to 86°F.

(3) Controlled substances damaged, lost or stolen shall be documented and reported to the DEA and the Board on DEA Form 41 or DEA Form 106 as appropriate.

(4) A pharmacy that is required to temporarily close or relocate due to an emergency must report this event to the Board within three working days.

Subject: The new rules in division 62, and the amended rules in division 65 define which entities must register as drug distribution agents and as drug wholesalers. The new category of Drug Distribution Agent is created in division 62 to accommodate entities that are involved in the drug manufacturing and distribution industry but that do not ever take ownership or possession of actual product and are not licensed with the FDA as manufacturers. Division 65 is further amended to eliminate confusion over the status of repackagers and brokers, to eliminate the requirement for a surety bond for a wholesale drug outlet that is accredited by the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy's Verified Accredited Wholesale Distributor (VAWD) program, and to classify certain entities as Class 2 Wholesalers. The fee schedule in division 110 is amended to include the new category of Drug Distribution Agent. Division 110 is also amended to add the $25 Electronic Prescription Monitoring Fund Fee mandated by SB 355 (Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 799), to the pharmacist license fee.

Application

(1) Any person who is involved in the manufacture or wholesale distribution of a drug that is intended for distribution, dispensing or administration in Oregon, but who does not at any time have possession of any of the Active Product Ingredients (API) or the final product, and does not participate in the actual manufacturing process, must register under these rules as a Drug Distribution Agent, except that any such person, registered with the FDA as a manufacturer, who is accountable to the FDA for the purity and integrity of a drug must register as a manufacturer under Division 60 of this chapter of rules.

(2) The following persons must register as a Drug Distribution Agent under this division of rules:

(a) A broker;

(b) An import broker;

(c) An agent for a foreign manufacturer who is registered with the FDA;

(d) Sales and marketing office for a drug;

(e) A Drug Order Contractor;

(f) A person registered with the FDA as the holder of a New Drug Application (NDA) or an Abbreviated New Drug Application (ANDA) that contracts with a third-party for the manufacture of a drug but does not take physical possession of the drug, does not have its name on the label and is not accountable to the FDA for the purity and integrity of the drug.

(3) Any person who would otherwise be required to register as a wholesaler under Division 65 of this chapter of rules but who does not at any time have possession of a drug intended for distribution must register as a Drug Distribution Agent under this division of rules.

(4) A person whose sole purpose is the marketing, brokering or arranging the initial distribution of drugs manufactured by a registered manufacturer, but does not take physical possession of a product must register as a Drug Distribution Agent.

Definitions

(1) "Broker" means a person engaged in the marketing, offering, or contracting for wholesale distribution and sale of a drug into, within, or out of Oregon and who does not take physical possession of the drug.

(2) "Closed Door Pharmacy" means a pharmacy that provides pharmaceutical services to a defined and exclusive group of patients and is not open for dispensing to the general patient population and cannot be registered as a wholesale distributor.

(3) "Co-Manufacturing Partner" means a pharmaceutical manufacturer that has entered into an agreement with another pharmaceutical manufacturer to engage in a business activity or occupation related to the manufacture or distribution of a prescription drug.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(4) "Drug": In this division of rules, the term "drug" shall mean any drug and any prescription device as these terms are defined in ORS 689.005.

(5) "Manufacturer" means any person, including a manufacturer's co-manufacturing partner, that is engaged in the manufacture of a drug, is responsible or otherwise accountable to the FDA for the manufacture of the drug, or is the private label manufacturer or distributor of product bearing its NDC number that is intended for sale, distribution, dispensing or administration in Oregon, and who holds one or more of the following registrations or licenses with the FDA:

- (a) A New Drug Application number (NDA);
- (b) An Abbreviated New Drug application number (ANDA);
- (c) A Labeler Code number (LC) or National Drug Code Number (NDC);
- (d) An FDA Central File Number (CFN);
- (e) An FDA Establishment Identifier number (FEI);
- (f) A Biologic License Application (BLA).

(6) "Manufacture" means the preparation, propagation, compounding, or processing of a drug or device intended for human or animal use. Manufacture includes repackaging or otherwise changing the container, wrapper, or labeling of any drug package in furtherance of the distribution of the drug from the original place of manufacture to the person who makes final delivery or sale to the ultimate consumer or user, except when the process is part of a shared pharmacy service agreement as defined in OAR 855-006-0005.

(7) "Person" means individual, corporation, partnership, association, joint-stock company, business trust or unincorporated organization.

855-062-0020 Registration

(1) Any person engaged in any part of the process of manufacture or wholesale distribution of a drug into, out of, or within Oregon must be registered with the Board. A person must register as either:

- (a) A manufacturer under Division 60 of this chapter of rules; or
- (b) A wholesaler under Division 65 of this chapter of rules; or
- (c) A Drug Distribution Agent under this division of rules.

(2) A person that is required to register as a Drug Distribution Agent must be registered before commencing business in Oregon and before any drug for which they provide a manufacturing, marketing or distribution service, may be sold, distributed, dispensed or administered in Oregon.

(3) A person that is required to register as a Drug Distribution Agent must apply for registration on a form provided by the Board and must provide information required by the Board that shall include but is not limited to:

- (a) The name, business address, social security number or federal tax identification number of each owner, officer, and stockholder owning more than 10 per cent of the stock of the company, unless the stock of the company is publicly traded;
- (b) Every trade or business name used by the applicant;
- (c) Any disciplinary action taken by any state or federal authority against the applicant or any other distributor under common ownership or control, or any owner, principal or designated representative of the applicant, in connection with the drug laws or regulations of any state or the federal government.

(4) An applicant for renewal must complete the form provided by the Board and submit it to the Board with the appropriate fee by August 31 annually.

(5) An applicant that provides a manufacturing or distribution service in respect of a controlled substance as defined in Division 80 of this chapter of rules must also complete and submit the Controlled Substance registration form provided by the Board, with the appropriate fee.

(6) The Board may require a criminal history and financial background check of each principal, owner or officer of the applicant prior to initial registration and prior to any renewal unless the applicant is publicly traded. Any such checks shall be at the applicant's expense.

(7) The Board may require a physical inspection of each facility prior to initial registration and prior to any renewal.

(8) Each separate business entity and each location that does business in Oregon must be separately registered by the Board.

(9) The registrant must notify the Board, within 15 days, of any substantial change to the information provided on the registration application. Substantial change shall include but is not limited to:

- (a) Change of ownership;
- (b) Change of business address;
- (c) Any disciplinary action taken or pending by any state or federal authority against the registrant, or any of its principals, owners, directors, officers.

(10) The registration certificate is issued to a specific person and is non-transferable. Any addition or deletion of an owner or partner constitutes a change of ownership.

(11) The Board may waive any requirement of this rule if, in the Board's judgment, a waiver will further public health or safety. A waiver granted under this section shall only be effective when issued in writing.

855-062-0050 Prohibited Practices

(1) The following practices are expressly prohibited:

(a) A Drug Distribution Agent may not participate in the purchase of a drug from a closed-door pharmacy;

(b) A Drug Distribution Agent may not participate in any way in the sale, distribution or transfer of a drug to a person who is required by the laws and rules of Oregon to be registered with the Board and who is not appropriately registered. Before authorizing or facilitating the distribution of a drug, a Drug Distribution Agent must verify that the person supplying or receiving the drug is appropriately registered with the Board.

(2) A Drug Distribution Agent may not perform, cause the performance of, or aid the performance of any of the following:

(a) The manufacture, repackaging, sale, delivery, holding, or offering for sale of a drug that is adulterated, misbranded, counterfeit, suspected counterfeit, or is otherwise unfit for distribution;

(b) The adulteration, misbranding, or counterfeiting of a drug;

(c) The receipt of a drug that is adulterated, misbranded, stolen, obtained by fraud or deceit, counterfeit, or suspected counterfeit, and the delivery or proffered delivery of the drug for pay or otherwise;

(d) The alteration, mutilation, destruction, obliteration, or removal of the whole or a part of the labeling of a drug or the commission of another act with respect to a drug that results in the drug being misbranded;

(e) The forging, counterfeiting, simulating, or falsely representing a drug using a mark, stamp, tag, label, or other identification device;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(f) The purchase or receipt of a drug from a person that is not registered to distribute drugs to the purchaser or recipient;

(g) The sale or transfer of a drug to a person that is not authorized under the law of the jurisdiction in which the person receives the drug, to purchase or receive drugs from the person selling or transferring the drug;

(h) The failure to maintain or provide records as required under these rules;

(i) Providing the Board, a representative of the Board, or a state or federal official with false or fraudulent records or making false or fraudulent statements regarding a matter related to these rules;

(j) Participating in the wholesale distribution of a drug that was:

(A) Purchased by a public or private hospital or other health care entity under the terms of an "own-use" contract; or

(B) Donated or supplied at a reduced price to a charitable organization;

or

(C) Stolen or obtained by fraud or deceit; or

(D) Illegally imported into the USA.

(k) Facilitating the distribution or attempting to facilitate the distribution of a drug by fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation;

(L) Facilitating the distribution of a drug that was previously dispensed by a retail pharmacy or a practitioner;

(m) Failing to report an act prohibited by any of the rules in OAR Chapter 855 to the appropriate state or federal authorities.

Definitions

(1) "Authenticate" means to verify that each transaction listed on the pedigree and other accompanying documentation has occurred and is accurately recorded.

(2) "Authorized Distributor of Record" means a wholesale distributor with whom a manufacturer has established an ongoing relationship to distribute the manufacturer's prescription drug. An ongoing relationship is deemed to exist between such wholesale distributor and a manufacturer when the wholesale distributor, including any affiliated group of the wholesale distributor, as defined in Section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code, complies with either or both of the following:

(a) The wholesale distributor has a written agreement currently in effect with the manufacturer evidencing such ongoing relationship; or

(b) The wholesale distributor is listed on the manufacturer's current list of authorized distributors of record, which is updated by the manufacturer no less than monthly.

(3) "Broker" means a person engaged in the marketing, offering, or contracting for wholesale distribution and sale of a drug into, within, or out of Oregon and who does not take physical possession of the brokered substance.

(4) "Chain Pharmacy Warehouse" means a physical location for drugs that acts as a central warehouse and performs intra company sales or transfers of drugs to a group of chain pharmacies that have the same common ownership and control.

(5) "Closed Door Pharmacy" means a pharmacy that provides pharmaceutical services to a defined and exclusive group of patients and is not open for dispensing to the general patient population and cannot be registered as a wholesale distributor.

(6) "Co-Manufacturing Partner" means a pharmaceutical manufacturer that has entered into an agreement with another pharmaceutical manufacturer to engage in a business activity or occupation related to the manufacture or distribution of a prescription drug.

(7) "Common Carrier" means an organization that is available to the public to transport a product or service using its facilities, or those of other carriers.

(8) "Contraband Drug" means a drug that is counterfeit, stolen, misbranded, obtained by fraud, or purchased by an entity for its own use and placed in commerce in violation of an own-use agreement for that drug.

(9) "Cooperative Pharmacy Warehouse" means a physical location for drugs that acts as a central warehouse and is owned, operated or affiliated with a group purchasing organization or pharmacy buying cooperative and distributes drugs exclusively to its members. To be considered part of the Normal Chain of Distribution as defined in section (16) of this rule, a Cooperative Pharmacy Warehouse must also be listed as an Authorized Distributor of Record for that manufacturer.

(10) "Designated Representative" means an individual designated by each wholesale distributor registered by the Board who will serve as the primary contact person for the wholesale distributor with the Board and who is responsible for managing the company's operations at that registered location.

(11) "Drop Shipment" means a drug transaction whereby the manufacturer, that manufacturer's co-manufacturing partner, that manufacturer's third-party logistics provider, or that manufacturer's exclusive distributor delivers a drug directly to a chain pharmacy warehouse, a cooperative pharmacy warehouse, a pharmacy, or other person authorized to administer or dispense prescription drugs to a patient, but transfers title to the drug to a wholesale distributor. A drop shipment shall be considered as part of a normal chain of distribution as defined in section (16) of this rule.

(12) "Drug Sample" means a unit of a drug that is intended to promote the sale of the drug, but which is not itself for sale.

(13) "Intra Company Transfer" means the transfer of any drug between a division, subsidiary, parent, and an affiliated or related company under the common ownership and control of a corporate entity.

(14) "Manufacturer" means anyone, including a manufacturer's co-manufacturing partner, who is engaged in manufacturing, preparing, propagating, compounding, processing, packaging, repackaging, or labeling of a drug, except when the process is part of a shared pharmacy service agreement as defined in OAR 855-006-0005.

(15) "Manufacturer's Exclusive Distributor" means an entity, including a manufacturer's wholly owned distributor, that contracts with a manufacturer who is registered under Division 60 of this chapter of rules, to provide or coordinate warehousing, distribution, or other services on behalf of a manufacturer and takes title to that manufacturer's drug, but does not have general responsibility to direct the drug's sale or disposition. To be considered part of the Normal Chain of Distribution as defined in section (16) of this rule, a Manufacturer's Exclusive Distributor must also be listed as an Authorized Distributor of Record for that manufacturer.

(16) "Normal Chain of Distribution" means a chain of distribution, including a drop-shipment, for a prescription drug that goes from: a manufacturer; a manufacturer's co-manufacturing partner; a manufacturer's exclusive distributor; or a manufacturer's third-party logistics provider to:

(a) A pharmacy or a person authorized to administer or dispense a prescription drug to a patient; or

(b) A manufacturer's authorized distributor of record, to a pharmacy or a person authorized to administer or dispense a prescription drug to a patient; or

(c) A manufacturer's authorized distributor of record, to a chain pharmacy warehouse, to that chain pharmacy warehouse's intra company pharmacy, to a patient or a person authorized to administer or dispense a prescription drug to a patient; or

(d) A chain pharmacy warehouse, to that chain pharmacy warehouse's intra company pharmacy, to a patient or a person authorized to administer or dispense a prescription drug to a patient; or

(e) A manufacturer's authorized distributor of record, to a specialty wholesaler, to a pharmacy or a person authorized to administer or dispense a prescription drug to a patient; or

(f) A manufacturer's authorized distributor of record to a cooperative pharmacy warehouse, to a member of the affiliated group purchasing organization or pharmacy buying cooperative, to a patient or a person authorized to administer or dispense a prescription drug to a patient.

(17) "Pedigree" means a statement or record in a written or electronic form that accurately records each wholesale distribution of a prescription drug from the sale by a manufacturer through acquisition and sale by any wholesale distributor or repackager until final sale to a pharmacy or other person authorized to administer or dispense the drug. The pedigree must include, but not be limited to, the following information for each transaction:

(a) The source of the prescription drug, including the name and principal address of the seller;

(b) The proprietary and established name of the prescription drug, the National Drug Code number, the amount of the prescription drug, its dosage form and dosage strength, the date of the purchase, the sales invoice number or other unique shipping document number that identifies the transaction, container size, number of containers, expiration date, and lot number or control number of the prescription drug;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) The business name and address of each owner of the prescription drug and its shipping information, including the name and address of the facility of each person certifying delivery or receipt of the prescription drug.

(18) "Prescription Drug" means any drug required by law to be dispensed only by a prescription.

(19) "Repackage" means repackaging or otherwise changing the container, wrapper, or labeling to further the distribution of a prescription drug excluding that completed by the pharmacist responsible for dispensing the product to a patient.

(20) "Specialty Wholesale Distributor" means an entity that exclusively distributes a limited product line of drugs to a specific group of pharmacies or registered practitioners as approved in writing by the Board. To be considered part of the Normal Chain of Distribution as defined in section (16) of this rule, a Specialty Wholesale Distributor must also be listed as an Authorized Distributor of Record for that manufacturer.

(21) "Third-Party Logistics Provider" means an entity that contracts with a manufacturer who is registered under these rules to provide or coordinate warehousing, distribution, or other services on behalf of the manufacturer, but does not take title to the drug or have general responsibility to direct the sale or disposition of the drug. To be considered part of the Normal Chain of Distribution as defined in section (16) of this rule, a Third-Party Logistics Provider must also be listed as an Authorized Distributor of Record for that manufacturer.

(22) "Wholesale Distribution" means distribution of a drug to a person other than a consumer or patient, but does not include:

(a) Delivery by a retail pharmacy of a prescription drug to a patient or patient's agent pursuant to the lawful order of a licensed practitioner.

(b) The sale of minimal quantities of a prescription drug by retail pharmacies to licensed practitioners for office use.

(c) The sale, purchase, or trade of a drug or an offer to sell, purchase, or trade a drug for emergency medical reasons, including but not limited to transfer of a drug by a pharmacy to another pharmacy to alleviate a temporary shortage.

(d) Intra company transfer of drugs as defined in these rules.

(e) The lawful distribution of a drug sample by a manufacturer's or a distributor's representative.

(f) The sale of a drug by a charitable organization described under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code to a non-profit affiliate of the organization to the extent permitted by law.

(g) The purchase or acquisition of a drug by a hospital or other health care entity that is a member of a group purchasing organization, for the hospital's or health care entity's own use, from the group purchasing organization or from other hospitals or health care entities that are members of the organization or under common control.

(h) The transfer of a prescription drug between pharmacies pursuant to a shared pharmacy service agreement as defined in OAR 855-006-0005.

(i) The distribution by a manufacturer, as part of a prescription assistance program, of a drug intended for a specific patient, to a person authorized to prescribe, administer or dispense prescription drugs.

(j) The sale, purchase, or trade of blood and blood components intended for transfusion.

(k) Drug returns, when conducted in accordance with state and federal laws and regulations. A drug return includes the sale or transfer from a retail pharmacy or chain pharmacy warehouse of expired, damaged, returned or recalled drugs to the original manufacturer, wholesale distributor, or to a third-party returns processor or reverse wholesaler, and the returns of saleable drugs to the original manufacturer or wholesaler.

(L) The transporting of a drug by common carrier where the common carrier does not take title to the drug and does not have responsibility to direct the drug's sale or distribution.

(m) The sale, transfer, merger or consolidation of all or part of the business of a pharmacy from or with another pharmacy.

(n) The distribution of drugs by a manufacturer registered under Division 60 of this chapter of rules of its own products to a person other than a patient.

(23) "Wholesale Distributor" means any entity engaged in the wholesale distribution of drugs, including any entity whose business name appears on any invoice or other type of shipping document indicating possession or title. The term "Wholesale Distributor" includes but is not limited to, own-label distributors; private-label distributors; warehouses, including manufacturers' and distributors' warehouses; drug wholesalers or distributors; independent wholesale drug traders; third-party logistics providers; cooperative pharmacy warehouses; retail pharmacies that conduct wholesale distribution; and chain pharmacy warehouses that conduct wholesale distribution. To be considered part of the Normal Chain of Distribution as defined in section (16) of this rule, a Wholesale Distributor must also be listed as an Authorized Distributor of Record for that manufacturer.

(24) "Wholesaler" means any wholesale distributor:

(a) "Class I Wholesaler" means any person operating or maintaining a wholesale distribution center, wholesale business or any other business in which prescription drugs, medicinal chemicals, or poisons are sold, dispensed, stocked, exposed or offered for sale at wholesale to a pharmacy or other legally licensed drug outlets or persons;

(b) "Class II Wholesaler" means any person operating or maintaining a wholesale distribution center, wholesale business or any other business in which any of the products in paragraphs (A) – (D) below are stored, or offered for sale or distribution at wholesale to a drug outlet or practitioner legally authorized to resell, distribute, dispense or administer:

(A) Non-prescription drugs;

(B) Drugs distributed exclusively for veterinary use. If any prescription drugs not intended for veterinary use are offered for sale, the wholesaler must register as a Class I wholesaler;

(C) Prescription devices that do not contain a prescription drug;

(D) Drugs or devices possessed by a state or local government agency, or non-profit relief organization approved by the Board.

Registration Requirements

(1) Every wholesale distributor, wherever located, that engages in wholesale distribution into, out of, or within Oregon must be registered with the Board in accordance with the laws and regulations of Oregon before engaging in wholesale distribution of drugs. Every applicant for registration or renewal of registration must pay the appropriate fee in accordance with OAR 855-110-0007 and 855-110-0010. An applicant must register as a Class I Wholesaler or a Class II Wholesaler unless the applicant qualifies for registration as a Drug Distribution Agent under Division 62 of this chapter of rules.

(2) Application for registration must be on a form approved by the Board and must include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(a) The name, business address, social security number and federal tax identification number of each owner, officer, and stockholder owning more than 10 per cent of the stock of the company, unless the stock of the company is publicly traded;

(b) All trade or business names used by the applicant including any businesses outside Oregon;

(c) The names, addresses and telephone numbers of the designated representatives for all facilities used by the applicant that engage in wholesale distribution into, out of, or within Oregon;

(d) The normal business hours for the applicant; and

(e) Any disciplinary action taken by any state or federal authority against the applicant or any other wholesale distributor under common ownership or control, or any owner, principal or designated representative of the applicant, in connection with the drug laws or regulations of any state or the federal government.

(3) The Board may require a criminal history and financial background check of each principal, owner, officer and designated representative of the applicant prior to initial registration and prior to any renewal. Any such checks shall be at the applicant's expense.

(4) The Board may require a physical inspection of each facility prior to initial registration and prior to any renewal.

(5) Any wholesale distributor located outside the boundaries of Oregon, applying for registration or re-registration, as a Class I Wholesaler, must provide evidence of one of the following:

(a) A current license or registration as a wholesale distributor in a state that has a license or registration procedure approved by the Board that included a physical inspection within the past three years; or

(b) A current accreditation by a process approved by the Board such as The National Association of Boards of Pharmacy's Verified Accredited Wholesale Distributor (VAWD) program or other nationally recognized accreditation program or contract inspection service.

(6) Any wholesale distributor located inside the boundaries of Oregon, applying for registration or re-registration, as a Class I Wholesaler, must provide evidence of one of the following:

(a) A current accreditation by a process approved by the Board such as The National Association of Boards of Pharmacy's Verified Accredited Wholesale Distributor (VAWD) program or other nationally recognized accreditation program or contract inspection service; or

(b) That it is a small business as defined in ORS 183.310(10); and

(A) The applicant has no affiliation with any out-of-state pharmaceutical company; and

(B) All owners and principals of the applicant are Oregon residents; and

(C) No owner or principal, or close family member of an owner or principal, has a controlling or business interest in any other pharmaceutical company; and

(D) Neither the applicant, nor any of its owners or principals, has ever been found to be in violation of any drug law or regulation in this or any other state.

(7) In addition to the above registration requirements, an applicant for registration as a Class I wholesaler under this rule, that has not received VAWD accreditation, must provide evidence that it has obtained a bond or equivalent means of security of at least $100,000 that provides direct access to the Oregon Board of Pharmacy as a beneficiary to secure payment of any administrative penalties that may be imposed by the Board and any fees and costs that may be incurred by the Board and that:

- (a) Are related to a registration held by the wholesale distributor; and
- (b) Are authorized under Oregon law; and
- (c) The wholesale distributor fails to pay less than thirty days after the penalties, fees, or costs become final.

(8) The Board may make a claim against a bond or security posted under section (7) of this rule within one year after the wholesale distributor's registration is no longer valid or sixty days after the conclusion of whichever occurs later:

(a) An administrative or legal proceeding before or on behalf of the Board that involves the wholesale distributor and results in penalties, fees or costs; or

(b) An appeal of such a proceeding.

(9) Where operations are conducted at more than one location by a single wholesale drug outlet, each such location that does business in Oregon must be registered by the Board.

(10) The registrant must notify the Board, within 15 days, of any substantial change to the information provided on the registration application. Substantial change shall include but not be limited to: change of ownership; change of business address; change of normal business hours; any disciplinary action taken or pending by any state or federal authority against the registrant, or any of its principals, owners, directors, officers, or designated representatives.

(11) The registration certificate is issued to a specific person and is non-transferable. Additions or deletions of an owner or partner shall be considered as a change of ownership.

(12) A new registration form is required for a change of ownership or location and must be submitted to the Board with the fees as specified in OAR 855-110-0007 within 15 days of the change.

(13) Upon written request, the Board may waive any of the requirements of this rule if a waiver will further public health or safety. A waiver granted under this section shall only be effective when it is issued in writing.

Board Duties and Procedure

(1) Board Meetings. The State Board of Psychologist Examiners shall meet as necessary at a time and place specified by the Board and at such other times and places as specified by the Chair of the Board, a majority of members of the Board or by the Governor. The time and place of all meetings shall be posted on the Board's website.

(2) Internal Organization. At the last meeting in each fiscal year, the first order of business shall be organizational matters, including election of Board Chair and Vice-Chair and the assignment of standing responsibilities to Board members. The term of the Chair, Vice Chair or any standing assigned responsibility can be changed or terminated at any meeting where the proposal has been placed on the agenda and sent to the members one week in advance of the meeting, or by unanimous consent of the Board.

(3) Chair and Vice Chair Responsibilities:

(a) The Chair is authorized to take emergency action between Board meetings, subject to ratification by the Board. However, in the case of actions significant enough to normally require Board decisions, the Chair shall first attempt to get authorization for such decisions from the Board members through telephone or email communication. All emergency actions of any kind shall be noted in the agenda for the next meeting and shall become the first order of business at that next meeting;

(b) The Vice-Chair shall perform the duties of the Chair when the Chair is unable to do so.

(4) Board Communications. Only the Board Chair shall write other than routine or form letters in the name of the Board unless members are specifically authorized in a Board meeting to do so. The Board should approve in advance any correspondence that may materially affect Board policies and procedures. When a delay might render the Board's functioning ineffective, the Chair may be required to take immediate action that shall be reviewed at the next meeting of the Board.

(5) Board Files. All Board files shall be assembled in the Board's official office. The Board Administrator shall maintain the Board's files under the direction of the Chair. The Board Administrator shall maintain a master record of any files that are checked out of the Board office by Board members. The Board Administrator shall be notified whenever any Board file is transferred from the possession of one person to another, and shall so note in the Board's records. Individuals who have in their possession documents or files pertaining to Board affairs are responsible for their protection and privacy.

(6) Minutes and Agendas:

(a) The minutes of a meeting shall be distributed to all Board members at least one week in advance of the next meeting;

(b) The agenda shall be prepared by the Board Chair or Board Administrator and distributed to all Board members at least one week before each meeting. The agenda items shall include reports by the Board Administrator, the Chair and each Board member who has received a specific assignment at the previous meeting or has a report to make regarding standing assignments. If there is insufficient time to inform the Board Chair, the Board Administrator shall make additional scheduling at the direct request of Board members. The Board may at its discretion, revise the agenda or limit it to a particular topic under special circumstances. Reports may be added as an addendum to the minutes of any meeting.

(c) The agenda shall be distributed to all licensees and applicants for licensure.

(7) The Attorney General's Model Rules of Procedure under the Administrative Procedure Act, printed and promulgated by the Attorney General, effective January 1, 2009, shall be the rules of procedure before the Board under ORS 183.310 to 183.500.

Process and Disposition of Application for License

(1) Application Review Procedure. When the application and all of the required supporting documents have been received, the application file shall be reviewed for eligibility. The reviewer shall either:

(a) Approve the application. When the reviewer determines the application is complete, a letter of approval shall be sent notifying the applicant of eligibility to take the EPPP and the Jurisprudence examination and to enter into a Resident Supervision Contract.

(b) Deny the application. If the application is denied, the reviewer shall send the applicant a letter noting the reason.

(c) Full Board review. Under unusual circumstances, the application will be reviewed by the full Board for determination of disposition.

(d) Applicants for licensure may appeal a decision by the reviewer by requesting in writing an application review by the full Board.

(2) Active Application. The Board shall maintain an incomplete application file for one year from the date the application was received. A file shall be presumed inactive if Correspondence from the Board is returned as "undeliverable."

(3) The Board may extend the application period upon written request prior to the one year expiration date. Failure to receive a courtesy reminder notice from the Board shall not relieve an applicant of the responsibility to request an extension.

(4) Reapplication. If an application for licensure has been denied by the Board for any reason, the Board will not review a second application until at least one year has lapsed from the date of the previous denial.

(5) Information Changes. An Applicant must notify the Board immediately if any information submitted on the application changes, including but not limited to: address and telephone number; complaints; disciplinary actions; and, civil, criminal, or ethical charges and employment investigations which lead to termination or resignation. Failure to do so may be grounds for denial of the application or revocation of the license, once issued.

Procedure for Written Examination

(1) National Written Examination. The Board shall utilize the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) developed by the Professional Examination Service (PES) for the Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards (ASPPB).

(a) Applicants whose educational credentials and professional references have been approved by the Board shall be eligible to take the EPPP.

(b) Eligible applicants prepared to take the EPPP must submit a written request to the Board. The Board shall provide PES with the names of eligible applicants.

(c) Applicants who have taken the EPPP prior to April 20, 1990, must have passed the examination by achieving a score at or above the national mean of doctoral candidates taking the examination for the first time on that day. Applicants who have taken the EPPP prior to April 1993 must have passed the examination by achieving a score at or above the national mean of doctoral candidates taking the examination for the first time on that day or 75 percent, whichever is lower. The passing score for the EPPP from April 1993 to April 2001 shall be 140 or 70 percent. For computer administered forms of the EPPP, the Board requires a scaled score of 500.

(d) Special Accommodations. The Board shall provide PES an approval for special accommodations for a verified disability or for English as a second language upon written request by the applicant as described in OAR 858-010-0030(5).

(2) Re-examination. Any applicant who fails to achieve a passing score on the EPPP shall be allowed to take the examination a second time. If the examination is failed twice, the candidate must submit a written study plan for the Board to review and approve.

Procedures for Oregon Jurisprudence Examination

(1) Jurisprudence Examination. The purpose of the examination is to measure the candidate's knowledge and application of state laws and regulations related to the professional practice of psychology, including the American Psychological Association's ethical principles incorporated by Board statute and rule.

(a) Candidates whose education credentials, training and references have been accepted by the Board shall be notified in writing of their eligibility to take the jurisprudence examination.

(b) The jurisprudence examination shall be administered at least twice a year.

(2) Eligible candidates prepared to take the jurisprudence examination must submit a written request to the Board postmarked at least 30 days prior to the examination date and pay the examination fee.

(3) The Jurisprudence examination fee is not refundable.

(4) The applicant shall be given no less than two weeks' notice of the date, time and place of the applicant's scheduled examination. Appearance at the scheduled examination shall constitute a waiver of the prior written notice.

(5) Special Accommodations. Requests for special accommodations for a disability or for English as a second language must be made at the time of the written request to sit for the examination is made, or when the disability becomes known to the applicant. The request must include:

(a) Written verification of the disability from a qualified care provider (i.e. a person certified or licensed by the state to provide such services) detailing:

(A) Nature, extent and duration of disability;

(B) Recommendation(s) for accommodation.

(b) English as a Second Language: Written request for reasonable accommodation detailing:

(A) Level of proficiency in English including, but not limited to, number of years speaking and/or writing English.

(B) History of special accommodations granted in similar testing circumstances.

(C) Other information to support request for special accommodation;

(D) Recommendation(s) for accommodation.

(6) Administration.

(a) The Board shall determine the questions on each examination and shall determine the passing score.

(b) The Board shall provide a Candidate Handbook that includes a copy of the Board's examination rules and an explanation of the Board requirements related to scheduling and the conduct during the examination, current examination study materials and the Candidate Handbook shall be available at all times on the Board's website at www.Oregon.gov/OBPE.

(c) Disqualification. A candidate sitting for the jurisprudence examination may be disqualified during or after the examination for conduct which affects the integrity of the candidate's performance or the examination. Disqualification will result in denial of the candidate's application.

(7) Scoring. Candidates shall be assigned a number so test scorers do not know the identity of the test taker until the examination report is prepared for the Board. The Board shall notify each candidate in writing regarding the result of the examination within one week of the date of the examination. If a candidate has a complaint under investigation, the Board may delay issuing the licensure of that candidate until the complaint has been resolved.

(8) Reconsideration, Review and Reexamination.

(a) Within thirty days after notice of the examination results, a candidate who does not pass the examination may petition the Board in writing to have their examination rescored.

(b) Review. A candidate who does not pass the examination may review the examination record of incorrect questions and answers at the Board's office within a period of ninety days following the date of the examination and upon written request to the Board. The purpose of the review is to assist the candidate prepare to retake the examination. No more than one review shall be allowed.

(c) Reexamination. A candidate who does not pass the examination may be reexamined. If a candidate does not pass the second examination and wishes to take a third examination the candidate must submit a study plan for the Board's review and approval prior to sitting for the third examination. If a candidate fails to pass the third examination, the candidate's application for licensure shall be denied.

Criminal Background Checks

(1) The purpose of these rules is to provide for the reasonable screening of all applicants for licensure, and licensees who are under investigation, on or after March 1, 2010 in order to determine if they have a history of criminal behavior and are not fit to be issued a license by the Board.

(2) These rules are to be applied when evaluating the criminal history of an applicant for licensure or a licensee under investigation and conducting fitness determinations based upon such history. The fact that an applicant has cleared the criminal history check does not guarantee the granting of a license. The fact that a licensee under investigation has cleared the criminal history check does not guarantee continued licensure.

(3) The Board may require fingerprints of all applicants for a psychologist or psychologist associate license to determine fitness to practice. The Board may require licensees under investigation to provide fingerprints when the Board has a rational reason to determine if the licensee has a history of criminal behavior. Fingerprints will be provided on prescribed forms provided by the Board. Fingerprints may be obtained at a law enforcement office or at a private service acceptable to the Board; the Board will submit fingerprints to the Oregon Department of State Police to conduct a Criminal History Check and a National Criminal History Check. Any original fingerprint cards will subsequently be destroyed by the Oregon Department of State Police in accordance with ORS 181-534(4).

(4) The Board may determine whether an applicant is fit to be granted a license, or whether a licensee under investigation is fit for continued licensure, based on the criminal records background check, any false statements made regarding their criminal history, any refusal to submit or consent to a criminal records check including fingerprint identification. The Board may make a fitness determination conditional upon applicant's or licensee's acceptance of probation, conditions, limitations, or other restrictions upon licensure.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in section (2), in making the fitness determination, the Board shall consider:

(a) The nature of the crime;

(b) The facts that support the conviction or pending indictment or that indicate the making of the false statement;

(c) The relevancy, if any, of the crime or the false statement to the specific requirements of the applicant's or licensee's present or proposed license; and

(d) Mitigating circumstances relevant to the responsibilities and circumstances of the license. Mitigating circumstances include but are not limited to:

(A) The passage of time since the commission of the crime;

(B) The age of the applicant or licensee at the time of the crime;

(C) The likelihood of a repetition of offenses or of the commission of another crime;

(D) The subsequent commission of another relevant crime;

(E) Whether the conviction was set aside and the legal effect of setting aside the conviction; and

(F) Evidence, if any, of rehabilitation submitted.

(6) All requested background checks include available state and national data, unless obtaining one or the other is an acceptable alternative.

(7) In order to conduct the Oregon and National Criminal History Check and fitness determination, the Board may require additional information from the licensee under investigation or applicant as necessary, such as but not limited to, proof of identity; residential history; names used while living at each residence; or additional criminal, judicial or other background information.

(8) Criminal offender information is confidential. Dissemination of information received under HB 2157 is only available to people with a demonstrated and legitimate need to know the information. The information is part of the investigation of an applicant or licensee and as such is confidential pursuant to ORS 676.175(1).

(9) The Board will permit the individual for whom a fingerprint-based criminal records check was conducted to inspect their own state and national criminal offender records and, if requested, provide the individual with a copy of their own state and national criminal offender records.

(10) The Board may consider any conviction of any violation of the law in compliance with ORS 670.280, and for which the court could impose a punishment. The Board may also consider any arrests and court records that may be indicative of an individual's inability to perform as a licensee with care and safety to the public.

(10) The Board may consider any conviction of any violation of the law for which the court could impose a punishment and in compliance with ORS 670.280. The Board may also consider any arrests and court records that may be indicative of an individual's inability to perform as a licensee with care and safety to the public.

(11) If an applicant or licensee is determined not to be fit for licensure, the applicant or licensee is entitled to a contested case process pursuant to

ORS 183.414-470. Challenges to the accuracy or completeness of information provided by the Oregon Department of State Police, Federal Bureau of Investigation and agencies reporting information must be made through the Oregon Department of State Police, Federal Bureau of Investigation, or reporting agency and not through the contested case process pursuant to ORS 183.

(12) If the applicant or licensee successfully contests the accuracy or completeness of information provided by the Oregon State Police, the Federal Bureau of Investigation or other agency reporting information to the Board, the Board will conduct a new criminal history check and reevaluate the criminal history upon submission of a new criminal history request form.

(13) If the applicant discontinues the application process or fails to cooperate with the criminal history check process, the application is considered incomplete.

Guidelines for Supervised Work Experience Psychologists

(1) Policy. Two years of supervised work experience is required for licensure. A minimum of one year of the required work experience must take place after the doctorate degree is conferred.

(a) One year of supervised work experience is defined as 1,500 hours of psychological work performed over a period not less than twelve months.

(b) The Board may approve one year of pre-doctoral supervised work experience if the experience was a formal requirement of the applicant's doctoral program.

(c) Psychological work is defined as psychotherapy and treatment for an individual or group; diagnosis and assessment; completing documentation related to diagnosis or treatment provided; treatment planning; termination reports; chart reviews; client care meetings and consultation; psychological testing; research related to client care; report writing; and receiving formal training including workshops and conferences.

(d) At least 50% of psychological work must be face-to-face client contact.

(e) For the purposes of licensure, psychological work does not include business development; credentialing activities; marketing; purchasing; creating forms; administrative billing or other business management activities.

(2) The following guidelines shall be used by the Board to define supervised employment. While obtaining postdoctoral supervised work experience, the applicant must be in a Board approved Resident Supervision Contract:

(a) Working under the supervision of an Oregon licensed psychologist licensed in Oregon for at least two years; or

(b) Working under the supervision of an Oregon licensed psychologist licensed for at least two years in a state with licensing standards comparable to Oregon.

(c) Supervised employment in other jurisdictions must be in a formal supervised work experience arrangement under the supervision of a psychologist who has been licensed for at least two years in a state with licensing standards comparable to Oregon or

(d) For the period April 8, 2008 through December 31, 2009, an employee of an institution or agency exempt from licensure under ORS 675.090 (1)(c), who provides documentation of supervision by a psychologist licensed for at least two years may, at the discretion of the Board, receive supervised employment credit.

(3) Applicants whose educational credentials and professional references have been approved by the Board shall be eligible to enter into a Resident Supervision Contract as described in subsection (2)(a) of this rule.

(a) Resident status shall begin the date the Board approves the Resident Supervision Contract.

(b) Termination of a Resident Supervision Contract will be granted by the Board at the written request of the supervisor or the resident. The termination shall be effective at the time the Board approves the request in writing.

(c) If the supervisor is to be paid for supervision payment must be in the form of a per-hour fee.

(d) Supervision of more than two residents concurrently shall require prior approval by the Board.

(4) Resident's Responsibilities. The resident's conduct must conform to the following standards:

(a) Title. The resident must be designated at all times by the title "psychologist resident." All signed materials, letterheads, business cards, telephone directory listings, Internet postings; brochures, insurance billings and any other public or private representation must include the individual's title as "psychologist resident" and the supervisor's name and designation "supervisor."

(b) Scope of Practice. The resident will only offer services in those areas that the supervisor is competent.

(c) Nature of Supervision. The resident must obtain frequent and regular supervision meetings throughout the duration of the Resident Supervision Contract. The resident must provide the supervisor with a periodic evaluation of all cases and psychological activities in which the resident is engaged. The resident's practice must comply with Oregon laws and administrative rules.

(d) The supervisor is not required to be working on-site with the resident.

(e) Non-routine individual supervision may occur by electronic means when geographical distance, weather or emergency prohibit a face-to-face meeting.

(f) Frequency. If a resident works 1-20 hours in a week the resident must at least one hour of individual supervision every week. If a resident works more than 21 hours in a week the resident must receive at least two hours of supervision every week. One hour must be individual and one hour may be group supervision. On a non-routine basis individual supervision may be delayed up to 14 days to accommodate vacations, illness, travel or inclement weather.

(A) Group supervision must be:

(i) A formal and on-going group of at least three mental health professionals;

(ii) Facilitated by a licensed mental health professional;

(iii) Approved by the resident's supervisor; and

(iv) All legal and ethical issues must be referred back to the supervisor if the group facilitator is not a licensed psychologist.

(g) Duration. The resident status is a transitional step toward licensure and is not intended as a means to avoid licensure. A Psychologist Resident Contract shall be effective for a period, not to exceed two years from the date of Board approval. The Board may extend the contract beyond two years upon a written request from the resident and the supervisor prior to the expiration of the contract. Failure to receive a courtesy reminder notice from the Board shall not relieve the resident of the responsibility to request an extension.

(h) Confidentiality. The resident must advise all clients orally and in their informed consent policy that the supervisor may have access to all information and material relevant to the client's case.

(i) Promptly communicate to the Board any significant interruption or expected termination of the Resident Supervision Contract;

(j) The resident must provide the Board with a Supervisor Evaluation Report at the conclusion, or termination of the Resident Supervision Contract.

(5) Responsibilities of the Supervisor. The supervisor's conduct must conform to the following standards:

(a) Closely review, supervise and evaluate representative and problem cases with attention to diagnostic evaluation, treatment planning, ongoing case management, emergency intervention, recordkeeping and termination;

(b) Countersign all psychological reports and professional correspondence produced by the resident; and ensure that letterhead, business cards, telephone directory listings, brochures, insurance billing and any other public or private representation includes the appropriate title of "Psychologist Resident" or "Psychologist Associate Resident" the supervisor's name and designation as "supervisor" Client progress notes do not need to be co-signed by the supervisor.

(c) Review with the resident, Oregon laws and administrative rules related to the practice of psychology, including the 2002 APA "Ethical Principles of Psychologists and Code of Conduct," professional relationships and referrals, protection of records, billing practices, recordkeeping and report writing;

(d) Assist the psychologist resident in developing a plan to prepare for the national written exam and the Oregon jurisprudence examination;

(e) Promptly communicate to the Board any professional or ethical concerns regarding the resident's conduct or performance;

(f) Promptly communicate to the Board any significant interruption or expected termination of the Resident Supervision Contract;

(g) Ensure that the resident has access to supervision by telephone to discuss urgent matters, if the supervisor is unavailable for any reason, during a period not to exceed fourteen days;

(h) In the absence of the primary supervisor, not to exceed fourteen days, one-on-one supervision hours may be conducted retro-actively.

(i) Keep notes of each supervisory session, and provide them to the Board upon request;

(j) Maintain a record of hours of supervision and provide it to the Board upon request and

(k) Provide the Board with a Resident Evaluation Report at the conclusion, or termination, of the Resident Supervision Contract.

(6) Associate Supervisor. Any supervision of the resident by a person other than the primary supervisor must be identified in the Resident Contract and approved by the Board.

(a) The associate supervisor is responsible for providing supervision as described in section (5) of this rule in the event that the primary supervisor is unavailable for any reason; and

(b) The associate supervisor is responsible for reporting any professional or ethical concerns regarding the resident's conduct or performance to the primary supervisor and the Board.

License Renewals

(1) Before the Board will issue a license or approve a request for active or semi-active status under ORS 675.110, a licensee must:

(a) Submit a signed Renewal Notice and Affidavit attesting to meeting the continuing education requirements of OAR 585-040-0015 and reporting any history of felony convictions, pending criminal charges or history of discipline;

(b) Pay the appropriate fee; and

(c) Pay the delinquent fee (if any).

(2) Semi-Active License.

(a) Continuing education requirements shall be the same as for active licensees as described in OAR 858-040-0015.

(b) Before the Board will approve a request for semi-active status a licensee must:

(A) Be at least 62 years of age; and

(B) Not engage in the practice of psychology as defined in ORS 675.020 for more than twenty client contact hours per week.

(3) A Renewal Notice and Affidavit and the correct fee must be post-marked by the stated due date to be considered timely. Licensee holds the burden of proof of mailing.

(4) Delinquent Fees.

(a) A delinquent fee must be paid for a license renewed after the stated due date. The Board shall have discretion to waive this fee in documented hardship cases.

(b) If license renewal and delinquent fees are not paid within 30 days immediately following the due date defined in section (3), the license shall lapse.

(c) To renew a license that has lapsed for nonpayment of the renewal or delinquent fees, an individual must:

(A) Submit a completed Application for Reinstatement postmarked within sixty days of the stated due date on the Renewal Notice and Affidavit; and

(B) Attest that the individual has not engaged in the unlicensed practice of psychology during the lapsed period; and

Inactive Status

Inactive status may be granted to licensees who have made a request in writing to the Board.

(1) To reactivate a license from inactive status to active or semi-active status the licensee shall request in writing and report professional and continuing education activities covering the period since the inactive license was granted.

(2) Reactivation Request. If the written request to reactivate a licensee from inactive status to active or semi-active status occurs within five years the Board may, at its discretion, reactivate the license.

(3) If the Board determines that the licensee has not engaged in professional and continuing education activities sufficient to maintain professional competence, or if the written request to reactivate the license is not received within five years, the licensee must re-take the Oregon jurisprudence examination and obtain a passing score.

(4) If the inactive licensee does not pass the Oregon jurisprudence examination, the Board may require the submission of a study plan designed to correct deficiencies in the licensee's examination performance and/or require that the licensee establish a Board approved consultation relationship as described in OAR 858-010-0036 the duration of which may be specified by the Board.

(5) The Board may reactivate the license upon receipt of documentation that the proposed study plan and/or period of consultation has been successfully completed and the deficiencies rectified, or at its discretion, may require the re-take and successful passing of the Oregon jurisprudence examination.

Limited Permits

(1) The Board may grant a limited permit to practice psychology in the State of Oregon to individuals who possess and have maintained an active license as a psychologist in another jurisdiction in good standing. Applicants must:

(a) Submit a Visitor's Permit Application or a Temporary Permit Application;

(b) Submit proof of licensure in good standing from other jurisdictions;

(c) Pay the limited permit fee;

(d) Submit a statement certifying that the applicant has read and understands Oregon laws relating to the practice of psychology.

(2) Limited Permit Types.

(a) Visitor's Permit. A visitor's permit may be issued to psychologists that do not intend to seek full licensure in Oregon, and are providing psychological services for a limited, time-specific period only.

(A) A statement of work must be submitted with the Visitor's Permit Application, and whenever the psychologist re-enters Oregon.

(B) The statement of work must include purpose, location, and the specific dates of service.

(C) A visitor's permit shall be effective for no more than 30 days in a 12 month period.

(b) Temporary Permit. The Board may grant a temporary permit to an approved applicant for full licensure in Oregon.

(A) Individuals applying for a temporary permit that do not have a minimum of five years of licensure must consult with an Oregon licensed psychologist at least one hour per week on matters pertaining to Oregon laws. The consultant must agree and be named on the Limited Permit Application.

(B) A temporary permit shall be effective for no more than 180 calendar days. Applicants granted a temporary permit must take the jurisprudence examination within 180 days from the date the permit is approved.

(C) Failure to pass the jurisprudence examination shall result in cancellation of the temporary permit. The Board has discretion to extend the temporary permit for an additional 30 days in order to allow the applicant time to transition clients to another provider.

(D) Applicants whose temporary permit is cancelled may submit a Consultation Contract for Board approval to continue providing services after the cancellation date.

Psychological Records

(1) Maintenance and retention of records. The psychologist or psychologist associate rendering professional services to an individual client or services billed to a third party payer, shall maintain professional records for a client for a minimum of seven years from the date of last service. The records shall include:

(a) The name of the client and other identifying information;

(b) The presenting problem(s) or purpose or diagnosis;

(c) The fee arrangement;

(d) The date and substance of each billed or service-count contact or service;

(e) Any test results or other evaluative results obtained and any basic test data from which they were derived;

(f) Notation and results of formal consults with other providers;

(g) A copy of all test or other evaluative reports prepared as part of the professional relationship;

(h) Any releases executed by the client;

(i) Any signed informed consents.

(2) Disposition in case of death or incapacity of the licensee. Psychologists and psychologist associates shall make necessary arrangements for maintenance of and access to client records to ensure confidentiality in case of death or incapacity of the licensee.

(3) Oregon licensees shall name a Qualified Person to intercede for client welfare and to make necessary referrals, when appropriate, and shall keep the Board notified of the name of the qualified person. The Board shall not release the name of the qualified person except in the case of the death or incapacity of the licensee or if the licensee is inactive or has resigned and the former client is unable to locate the licensee.

(4) Qualified Person. A qualified person under this rule is an active or semi-active Oregon licensed psychologist.

Complaints on Which the Board Can Act

Any complaint submitted to the Board must be specific as to the conduct upon which the complaint is based and why this conduct is cause for a complaint. The Board will review and accept for consideration complaints which might affect the licensure of psychologists and psychologist associates who are already licensed or are candidates for licensure, or which concern the possible practice of psychology by non-psychologists or unlicensed psychologists. A complaint concerning a licensed psychologist associate or psychologist resident may be regarded as a complaint against the supervisor. Other types of complaints will be rejected, or, if authorized by ORS 676.160 to 676.180, may be referred to appropriate individuals or groups with the consent of the complainant.

Form of Complaints

(1) If the complaint is first made in verbal form, is tentative, or undocumented, the Board shall require a statement in writing, accompanied by documentation and a signed complaint form. The Board will advise a complainant about the nature and form of documentation required. The Board shall provide all complainants with copy of ORS 676.160, Processing of Complaints Against Health Professionals.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) If the complainant is a client or former client of the respondent, the complainant must sign a waiver of confidentiality allowing the Board and its counsel access to records and other materials which are the ethical and legal responsibility of the respondent. Refusal by a complainant to comply with this requirement may result in dismissal of the complaint.

(3) If a Board member becomes a complainant or a respondent, the same procedures will apply as in any other case. The Board member will abstain from any participation in discussion and deliberations of the Board regarding the complaint.

Notice and Investigation Process

(1) Notice to Respondent. The Board's Administrator shall notify the respondent by letter when a complaint is filed, or an investigation has been initiated, into respondent's conduct or practice. The notice letter shall provide respondent with a citation to the laws and regulations that apply to the investigation. The notice letter shall also set out the general allegations to be investigated. The investigator may modify the scope of the investigation as needed. The Board Administrator may delegate this notification procedure to the Board's investigator.

(2) Notice to Supervisors. When a complaint is filed against an individual acting under the supervision of a licensed psychologist, the supervising psychologist(s) shall be notified that any investigation into the conduct of the supervisee may affect the licensure of the supervisor(s). The Board may open a companion investigation naming the supervisor(s).

(3) Purpose of Investigation. The purpose of the investigation shall be to determine whether sufficient credible evidence exists of violation of rules or laws administered by the Board to justify issuance of a Notice of Intent to Impose sanctions against a person licensed by the Board or such other action as the circumstances may warrant.

(4) Scope of Investigation. The investigator shall seek guidance as appropriate and necessary from individual Board members, the full Board, agency legal counsel, and the Board's administrator. Should the Board decide to operate with a Consumer Protection Committee structure, that committee shall serve as the primary source of guidance for the investigator.

(5) Cooperation. Failure by Respondent to cooperate with a board investigation constitutes unprofessional conduct per ORS 675.070(2). Cooperation by respondent includes:

(a) Making a diligent and documented good faith effort to obtain all necessary information releases for a full investigation of the allegations presented in the notice letter;

(b) Sending a complete case file to the Board's investigator;

(c) Being available for a personal interview with the Board's investigator; and

(d) Responding to questions presented by the Board's investigator.

(6) Duty of the Investigator. The investigator shall collect evidence, interview witnesses and make a written report to the Board.

Investigator's Report to the Board

(1) When the investigation is complete, the investigator will make an investigation report to the Board, in accordance with the timeline and procedures outlined in ORS 183.310 to 183.500 and 676.160 to 676.180, and shall clearly set forth the issues on which the Board should consider possible action.

(2) The Board shall consider the investigator's report and the standards for disciplinary actions under its statutes and OAR 858-010-0075. The Board may:

(a) Dismiss the Complaint;

(b) Continue the investigation; or

(c) Issue a Thirty-Day Letter. The Board administrator shall notify the respondent of the specific allegations of conduct that may constitute violations of APA Ethical Principles or Oregon statutes and administrative rules in the view of the Board. The letter shall require a response from the respondent within 30 days from the date of mailing and provide warning that failure to respond may result in Board disposition of the complaint without the response.

Board Action

(1) Upon consideration of the Respondent's response to the specific allegations in the Thirty-Day letter, the Board may:

(a) Dismiss the complaint; or

(b) Institute disciplinary action under ORS 675.070; 675.085; and 675.100 by contested case notice pursuant to the provisions of ORS 183.310 to 183.550.

(2) The Board shall give notice of its action to all parties involved. The Board's administrator shall provide notice when a complaint is dismissed.

Subject: Since 2005, the Department of Administrative Services (DAS) has developed and amended rules (Rules) to put into practice the Public Contracting Code ORS 279 ABC (Code). The Rules apply to state agencies subject to DAS procurement authority (Agencies). In 2009, the Legislature changed the Code. Also, Agencies requested Rule changes. Now, in response to the Legislature changes to the Code ad requests for change from shareholders, DAS needs to adopt a few new Rules, amend select Rules and repeal select Rules.

Definitions

The following terms are a compilation of definitions, including those found in the Public Contracting Code, in other statutes referenced by the Public Contracting Code, and elsewhere in these Rules. Partial definitions of the Public Contracting Code are for the use of the Agencies only. The following terms, when capitalized in these Rules, have the meaning given below:

(1) "Addendum" or "Addenda" means an addition to, deletion from, a material change in, or general interest explanation of a Solicitation Document.

(2) "Adequate" is defined in ORS 279C.305 and means sufficient to control the performance of the Work and to ensure satisfactory quality of construction by the contracting agency personnel.

(3) "Advantageous" means a judgmental assessment by the Agency of the Agency's best interests.

(4) "Advocate for Minority, Women and Emerging Small Business" means the individual appointed by the Governor to advise the Governor, Legislature and Director's Office on issues related to the integration of minority, women and emerging small business into the mainstream of the Oregon economy and business sector. The Advocate oversees the resolution of business concerns with Agencies impacting certified disadvantaged, minority, women and emerging small businesses (DMWESB). The Advocate is also charged with maintaining the Oregon Opportunity Register and Clearinghouse to facilitate the timely notice of business and contract opportunities to DMWESB firms certified by the Office of Minority, Women and Emerging Small Businesses according to ORS 200.025.

(5) An "Administrator" or "Administering Agency" is defined in OAR 125-246-0400(3)(a).

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(6) "Affected Person" or "Affected Offeror" means a Person whose ability to participate in a Procurement is adversely affected by an Agency decision.

(7) "Affirmative Action" is defined in ORS 279A.100 and means a program designed to ensure equal opportunity in employment and business for persons otherwise disadvantaged by reason of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age or physical or mental disability.

(8) "Agency" means those agencies of the State of Oregon that are subject to the procurement authority of the Director of the Department according to ORS 279A.050 and 279A.140. This term includes the Department when the Department is engaged in Public Contracting. Under these Rules, an Agency is authorized only through a delegation of authority according to OAR 125-246-0170.

(9) "Agreement to Agree" means a Price Agreement as defined in Subsection (110).

(10) "Amendment" means a Written modification to the terms and conditions of a Public Contract, other than Changes to the Work as defined in OAR 125-249-0910, that meets the requirements of OAR 125-246-0560. For the purposes of these Rules, Amendments are included within the definitions of "Procurements" and "Contract Administration."

(11) "Architect" is defined in ORS 279C.100 and means a person who is registered and holds a valid certificate in the practice of architecture in the State of Oregon, as provided under ORS 671.010 to 671.220, and includes without limitation the terms "architect," "licensed architect" and "registered architect."

(12) "Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services" is defined in ORS 279C.100 and collectively means professional services that are required to be performed by an architect, engineer or land surveyor. "Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services" includes "Architectural, Engineering or Land Surveying Services," separately or any combination thereof, as appropriate within the context of a Rule.

(13) "Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services" is defined in ORS 279C.100(2) and 279C.100(6) and collectively means professional services that are required to be performed by an architect, engineer or land surveyor and Related Services. "Related Services" means services that are related to the planning, design, engineering or oversight of Public Improvement projects or components thereof, including but not limited to landscape architectural services, facilities planning services, energy planning services, space planning services, environmental impact studies, hazardous substances or hazardous waste or toxic substances testing services, wetland delineation studies, wetland mitigation studies, Native American studies, historical research services, endangered species studies, rare plant studies, biological services, archaeological services, cost estimating services, appraising services, material testing services, mechanical system balancing services, commissioning services, project management services, construction management services and owner's representative services or land-use planning services. "Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services" includes "Architectural, Engineering or Land Surveying Services, or Related Services, separately or in any combination thereof, as appropriate within the context of a Rule."

(14) "As-Is, Where-Is" applies to the sale of Goods and means that the Goods are of the kind, quality, and locale represented, even though they are in a damaged condition. It implies that the buyer takes the entire risk as to the quality of the Goods involved, based upon the buyer's own inspection. Implied and express warranties are excluded in sales of Goods "As-Is, Where-Is."

(15) "Authorized Agency" means any Person authorized according to OAR 125-246-0170 to conduct a Procurement or take other actions on an Agency's behalf. This term, including its use in the Rules, does not convey authority to an Agency. For the authority of Agencies under the Code and these Rules, see OAR 125-246-0170 only.

(16) "Award" means the Agency's identification of the Person(s) with whom the Agency intends to enter into a Contract.

(17) "Bid" means a Written response to an Invitation to Bid.

(18) "Bidder" means a Person who submits a Bid in response to an Invitation to Bid.

(19) "Brand Name or Equal Specification" is defined in ORS 279B.200(1) and means a Specification that uses one or more manufacturers' names, makes, catalog numbers or similar identifying characteristics to describe the standard of quality, performance, functionality or other characteristics needed to meet the Agency's requirements and that authorizes Offerors to offer Supplies and Services that are equivalent or superior to those named or described in the Specification.

(20) "Brand Name Specification" is defined in ORS 279B.200(2) and means a Specification limited to one or more products, brand names, makes, manufacturer's names, catalog numbers or similar identifying characteristics.

(21) "Business Day" means 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Pacific time, Monday through Friday, excluding State of Oregon holidays.

(145) "Responsible Offeror" means, as the context requires, a Responsible Bidder, Responsible Proposer or a Person who has submitted an Offer and meets the standards set forth in OAR 125-247-0640 or 125-249-0390(2), and who has not been debarred or disqualified by the Agency under OAR 125-247-0575 or 125-249-0370, respectively.

(146) "Responsible Proposer" or "Responsible Bidder" is defined in ORS 279B.005 and means a Person who meets the standards of responsibility described in ORS 279B.110.

(147) "Responsive" means having the characteristic of substantial compliance in all material respects with applicable solicitation requirements.

(148) "Responsive Bid" or "Responsive Proposal" is defined in ORS 279B.005 and means a Bid or Proposal that substantially complies with the Invitation to Bid or Request for Proposals, respectively, and all prescribed Procurement procedures and requirements.

(149) "Responsive Offer" means, as the context requires, a Responsive Bid, Responsive Proposal or other Offer that substantially complies in all material respects with applicable solicitation requirements.

(150) "Responsive Proposal" or "Responsive Bid" is defined in ORS 279B.005 and means a bid or proposal that substantially complies with the Invitation to Bid or Request for Proposals and all prescribed procurement procedures and requirements.

(151) "Retainage" is defined in ORS 279C.550 and means the difference between the amount earned by a Contractor on a Public Contract and the amount paid on the contract by the Authorized Agency.

(152) "Rules" means these Public Contracting Rules of the Department including Divisions 246 through 249, unless otherwise indicated.

(153) "Scope" means the extent or range of view, outlook, application, operation, or effectiveness. Scope does not include the dollar amount of the Contract.

(154) "Secondary Waste Materials" means fragments of products or finished products of a manufacturing process that has converted a virgin resource into a commodity of real economic value. "Secondary Waste Materials" includes post-consumer waste. "Secondary Waste Materials" does not include excess virgin resources of the manufacturing process. For paper, "Secondary Waste Materials" does not include fibrous waste generated during the manufacturing process such as fibers recovered from waste water or trimmings of paper machine rolls, mill broke, wood slabs, chips, sawdust or other wood residue from a manufacturing process.

(155) "Serial Negotiation" means a Negotiation that is sequential, ongoing, consecutive, alternating, or repetitive.

(156) "Services" or "services," for the purpose of these Rules only, means Trade Services, Personal Services, or any combination thereof.

(157) "Signature" means any Written mark, word or symbol that is made or adopted by a Person with the intent to be bound and that is attached to or logically associated with a Written document to which the Person intends to be bound.

(158) "Signed" means, as the context requires, that a Written document contains a Signature or that the act of making a Signature has occurred.

(159) "Small Procurement" means a sourcing method according to ORS 279B.065.

(160) "Sole-Source Procurement" means a sourcing method by which an Authorized Agency awards a Contract without competition to a single source for Supplies and Services, when Written justification demonstrates no other source is available, in accordance with ORS 279B.075 and OAR 125-247-0275.

(161) "Solicitation" means:

(a) A request by an Authorized Agency for the purpose of soliciting Offers. This request may take the form of an Invitation for Bid, a Request for Proposal, a Request for Quotation, a Request for Qualifications or a similar document; or

(b) The process of notifying prospective Offerors that the Authorized Agency requests such Offers; or

(c) The Solicitation Document itself. A Solicitation and award process uses methods identified in ORS 279A.200 through 279A.220 (Cooperative Procurement); 279B.055 through 279B.060 (bidding and proposals); 279B.070 (intermediate procurements); 279B.085 (special procurements); 279C.100 through 279C.125 (Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying and Related Services); or 279C.300 through 279C.450 (Public Improvements).

(162) "Solicitation Document," means an Invitation to Bid; a Request for Proposals; a Writing for a Small, Intermediate, Informal Selection, Competitive Quote, or Emergency Procurement; a Special Procurement Solicitation; or other document issued to invite Offers from prospective Contractors in accordance with ORS 279B or 279C. "Solicitation Document" includes related documents, either attached or incorporated by reference, and any changes thereto, issued by an Authorized Agency to establish an Original Contract that forms the basis for an Agency's participation in a Procurement. The following examples are not Solicitation Documents because they do not invite offers from prospective Contractors: Request for Qualifications, a prequalification of Bidders, a request for information, and a request for product prequalification.

(163) "Special Government Body" is defined in ORS 174.117 and

(a) Means any of the following:

(A) A public corporation created under a statute of this State and specifically designated as a public corporation.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(E) A community college district or community college service district established under ORS Chapter 341.

(F) An intergovernmental body formed by two or more public bodies.

(G) Any entity that is created by statute, ordinance or resolution that is not part of state government or local government.

(H) Any entity that is not otherwise described in this Section that is:

(i) Not part of state government or local government;

(ii) Created according to authority granted by a statute, ordinance or resolution, but not directly created by that statute, ordinance or resolution; and

(iii) Identified as a governmental entity by the statute, ordinance or resolution authorizing the creation of the entity, without regard to the specific terms used by the statute, ordinance or resolution.

(b) Subject to ORS 174.117, "Special Government Body" includes:

(A) An entity created by statute for the purpose of giving advice only to a special government body;

(B) An entity created by a Special Government Body for the purpose of giving advice to the special government body, if the document creating the entity indicates that the entity is a public body; and

(C) Any entity created by a Special Government Body described in Subsection (a) of this Section, other than an entity described in paragraph (B) of this Subsection, unless the document creating the entity indicates that the entity is not a governmental entity or the entity is not subject to any substantial control by the Special Government Body.

(164) "Special Procurement" means a sourcing method may be a class Special Procurement, a contract-specific Special Procurement or both, unless the context requires otherwise in accordance with ORS 279B.085 and OAR 125-247-0287.

(a) "Class Special Procurement" is defined in ORS 279B.085 and means a contracting procedure that differs from the procedures described in ORS 279B.055, 279B.060, 279B.065 and 279B.070 and is for the purpose of entering into a series of Contracts over time for the acquisition of a specified class of Supplies and Services.

(b) "Contract-specific Special Procurement" means a contracting procedure that differs from the procedures described in ORS 279B.055, 279B.060, 279B.065 and 279B.070 and is for the purpose of entering into a single Contract or a number of related contracts for the acquisition of specified Supplies and Services on a one-time basis or for a single project.

(165) "Specification" is defined in ORS 279B.200(3) and means any description of the physical or functional characteristics, or of the nature of the Supplies and Services to be procured by an Agency. "Specification" includes: any requirement for inspecting, testing, or preparing the Supplies and Services for delivery and the quantities or qualities of Supplies and Services to be furnished under the Contract. Specifications generally will state the result to be obtained and occasionally may describe the method and manner of performance.

(166) "State" means the State of Oregon.

(167) "State Government," subject to ORS 174.108, means the Executive Department, the Judicial Department and the Legislative Department.

(168) "State Procurement Office" means that office of the State Services Division of the Department designated by the Director to carry out the authority of the Department under the Public Contracting Code and these Rules. The State Procurement Office provides leadership and services for innovative, responsive, and accountable public Procurement. The authority of the State Procurement Office is described in OAR 125-246-0170, originating with the Director, delegated to the Chief Procurement Officer, and subdelegated in Writing by the Chief Procurement Officer to any subdelegatee within the State Procurement Office. When a Rule refers to the approval of the State Procurement Office, any individual acting on behalf of the State Procurement Office must be authorized to give such approval in accordance with OAR 125-246-0170.

(169) "Substantial Completion" is defined in ORS 12.135 and means the date when the contractee accepts in Writing the construction, alteration or repair of the improvement to real property or any designated portion thereof as having reached that state of completion when it may be used or occupied for its intended purpose or, if there is no such Written acceptance, the date of acceptance of the completed construction, alteration or repair of such improvement by the contractee.

(170) "Supplies and Services" includes "Supplies or Services" and collectively means Goods, Trade Services, Personal Services, and Ordinary Construction Services separately or in any combination of these terms thereof as appropriate within the context of the Rule. "Supplies and Services" includes the terms "goods and services," "goods or services," and "personal services" contained in ORS 279A and 279B. This term does not include Public Improvements or Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services, governed under ORS 279C.

(171) "Surplus Property" means all personal property, vehicles and titled equipment property received by the Department as surplus from federal government units, state agencies, local governments, and special government bodies for sale to state agencies, political subdivisions of the State, and private not-for-profit organizations or the general public or any combination thereof. See OAR 125-050.

(172) "Sustainability" is defined in ORS 184.421 and means using, developing and protecting resources in a manner that enables people to meet current needs and provides that future generations can also meet future needs, from the joint perspective of environmental, economic and community objectives.

(173) "Threshold" means a specific monetary limitation that distinguishes one Procurement method from another, triggers a requirement, or marks a point of reference or change in Rule. For example, the Thresholds of $5,000 to $150,000 distinguish Intermediate Procurements under ORS 279B from other methods.

(174) "Trade Services" means all remaining services that do not meet the definition for Personal Services.

(175) "Transitional Contracts" means all Public Contracts first advertised before March 1, 2005, but not entered into until on or after March 1, 2005. See OAR 125-246-0100(6).

(176) "Unnecessarily Restrictive" is defined in ORS 279B.405(1)(c) and means that Specifications limit competition arbitrarily, without reasonably promoting the fulfillment of the Procurement needs of an Agency.

(177) "Used Oil" is defined in ORS 459A.555 and means a petroleum-based oil which through use, storage or handling has become unsuitable for its original purpose due to the presence of impurities or loss of original properties.

(178) "Virgin Oil" means oil that has been refined from crude oil and that has not been used or contaminated with impurities.

(179) "Work" means the furnishing of all materials, equipment, labor, and incidentals necessary to successfully complete any individual item or the entire Contract and the carrying out and completion of all duties and obligations imposed by the Contract.

(180) "Work Order" means an Ordering Instrument related to Services, including any incidental Supplies.

(181) "Writing" means letters, characters and symbols inscribed on paper by hand, print, type or other method of impression, intend to represent or convey particular ideas or meanings. "Writing" when required or permitted by law, or required or permitted in a Solicitation Document, also means letters, characters and symbols made in electronic form and intended to represent or convey particular ideas or meanings.

(182) "Written" means existing in Writing.

Application of the Code and Rules; Exceptions

(1) Code, Rules and Policies. Except as set forth in this Section and ORS 279A.025, an Agency must exercise all rights, powers and authority related to Public Contracting in accordance with the Public Contracting Code, Rules, and applicable Department policies (Policies).

(2) Exceptions for Contracts and Grants. These Rules do not apply to the following:

(a) Contracts between Agencies;

(b) Contracts between Agencies and Public Bodies;

(c) Contracts between Agencies and the federal government;

(d) For Cooperative Procurements, any contractual relationship described in Subsections (2)(a) through (c) of this Rule. The Code, Rules, and policies apply to the contractual relationships between the Agencies and Providers, other states, tribes, other nations, and any of their public entities; and

(e) Grants.

(A) Agency as Recipient. If an Agency is a recipient in an agreement with a grantor, the definition of Grant in ORS 279A.010 and OAR 125-246-0110 determines if the agreement is subject to the Code and these Rules. If the grantor has substantial involvement in the program or activity of the Agency, the agreement is not a Grant. The agreement is subject to the Code and these Rules.

(B) Agency as Grantor. If an Agency is a grantor in an agreement with a recipient, the definition of Grant in ORS 279A.010 and OAR 125-246-0110 determines if the agreement is subject to the Code and these Rules. If the Agency has substantial involvement in the program or activity of the Agency's recipient, the agreement is not a Grant. The agreement is subject to the Code and these Rules.

(3) Exception for a Federal Program. Authorized Agencies otherwise subject to the Code and these Rules may enter into Public Contracts under a federal program described in ORS 279A.180 and according to OAR 125-246-0360, without following the procedures set forth in ORS 279B.050 through 279B.085 and 125-247-0250 through 125-247-0690.

(4) Exception when Procuring from Qualified Rehabilitation Facilities (QRFs). Agencies subject to the Code and these Rules are not subject to the methods set forth in ORS 279A.200 through 279A.225 (Cooperative Purchasing) or 279B.050 through 279B.085 (Sourcing Methods) and related Rules when the Agencies procure Supplies and Services according to ORS

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

279.835 through 279.855 and OAR 125-055-0010(1) (Acquisition of Supplies and Services from QRFs). Agencies are subject to the remainder of the Code and these Rules, including but not limited to delegation of authority in accordance with OAR 125-246-0170.

(5) Exception for Correctional Industries. Agencies otherwise subject to the Code and these Rules may enter into Contracts with correctional industries according to the Oregon Constitution, Article I, Subsection 11, without being subject to the source selection procedures set forth in either ORS 279A.200 through 279A.225 (Cooperative Purchasing) or 279B.050 through 279B.085 (Sourcing Methods) and their respective rules.

(6) Exception for Price Agreements. Agencies otherwise subject to the Code and these Rules are not subject to the methods set forth in ORS 279A.200 through 279A.225 (Cooperative Purchasing) or 279B.050 through 279B.085 (Sourcing Methods) and related Rules when the Agencies procure Supplies and Services from a DAS Price Agreement or other Price Agreement. Agencies are subject to the remainder of the Code and these Rules, including but not limited to delegation of authority in accordance with OAR 125-246-0170.

Applicability of These Rules to Agencies

Agencies subject to the authority of the Director of the Department must follow these Rules. If an Agency is partially independent of the authority of the Department and partially subject to the authority of the Department, that Agency is responsible for obtaining any legal determination related to these Rules.

Delegation Policy and Procedures

(1) Generally.

(a) Purpose. This Rule describes the policy and procedures related to the delegation of authority under OAR 125-246-0170, including but not limited to:

- (A) Policy of the Code;
- (B) Individual Representation;
- (C) Forms of Delegations and Revocations of Authority;
- (D) Changes in Individual Representation;
- (E) Procedural Requirements;
- (F) Signature; and
- (G) Commitment of Funds.

(b) This Rule applies to all delegations and sub-delegations of Authority (collectively, Delegations), modifications of Delegations, and revocations of Delegations under OAR 125-246-0170. This Rule does not delegate authority. All delegations by authority under the Rules are found solely in OAR 125-246-0170.

(2) Policy of the Code. The policy of the Code is to clarify responsibilities, instill public confidence, promote efficient use of resources, implement socioeconomic programs, allow meaningful competition, and provide a structure that supports evolving procurement methods, according to ORS 279A.015. These Rules support this policy of the Code.

(3) Individual Representation. Public Contracting may be delegated only to an individual, representing the State's interests. Authority under these Rules may be delegated only to individuals acting on behalf of the Agencies and in accordance with this Rule. All individual delegates must hold and use this Authority within the scope of their employment by the Agency and act on behalf of the Agency as the Agency's representative. Sub-delegations may be in whole or in part according to ORS 279A.075. Any individual may decline a sub-delegation in whole or in part. A delegator or delegatee may also be referred to in this Rule as an "Authorized Individual."

(4) Forms of Delegations and Revocations of Authority. ORS 279A.075 provides that the exercise of all authorities in the Code may be delegated and sub-delegated in whole or in part. The form of a Delegation or revocation of Authority by an Authorized Individual may be by:

- (a) OAR 125-246-0170 by the Director of the Department;
- (b) A Written external or internal policy by an authorized delegator or revoker;
- (c) An Interagency Agreement, signed by the Chief Procurement Officer and the Authorized Agency; or
- (d) A letter or memorandum signed by an authorized delegator or revoker.

(5) Changes in Individual Representation. If an Agency determines that an Authorized Individual has ceased to represent that Agency for Procurement (Absent Individual), then:

(a) The Authority of the Absent Individual automatically reverts back to the individual who originally delegated the Authority to the Absent Individual. The Agency must determine who receives the reverted Authority in accordance with this Rule. If the Absent Individual is a head of an Agency or Designated Procurement Officer, the delegator of authority to that individual must notify the State Procurement Office within thirty (30) days after the change in representation.

(b) Sub-delegations, if any, by an Absent Individual remain in effect unless and until the Authority of any sub-delegatees is modified or revoked by an Authorized Individual.

(6) Procedural Requirements.

(a) Compliance. Authorized Agencies must maintain good contracting procedures in accordance with the Public Contracting Code, related Rules and policies of the Department. Delegation of Authority does not exempt anyone from the requirements of the Public Contracting Code, related Rules, and policies of the Department. Any individual receiving delegated Authority is responsible for following the Public Contracting Code, related Rules, and policies of the Department.

(b) Modifications or Revocations.

(A) Authority. Subject to the conditions of Subsection (ii) below, any Delegation may be modified or revoked by:

- (i) The Director of the Department,
- (ii) The Chief Procurement Officer in accordance with Section 3(d)(F);

(iii) The head of an Agency in accordance with Subsection (2)(a)(B); or
(iv) The original authorized delegator or successor of this delegator who made this Delegation being modified or revoked.

(B) Conditions.

- (i) This modification or revocation of a Delegation must be Writing;
- (ii) The delegatee must receive reasonable notice of the modification or revocation of the Delegation; and
- (iii) This modification or revocation of a Delegation must be based upon a determination, as set forth in the related policy of the Department.

(c) Maintenance of Documents. The Authorized Agency must maintain copies of letters, memoranda, or agreements granting a Delegation.

(7) Signature. When an Authorized Agency has delegated Authority according to OAR 125-246-0170, the Authorized Agency's signature constitutes both the execution and approval of the Contract, except as described in Subsections (1)(h), (2)(a)(B), and (2)(b)(F).

(8) Commitment of Funds. ORS 291 and 293, together with the policies of the State Controller's Division of the Department, provide for public financial administration, including: appropriations, allotments by the Department, and an individual's authority to commit or encumber funds, financially obligate the Agency, and decide to expend funds. This type of authority may be referred to as commitment, expenditure, obligation, expenditure decision or signature authority (collectively, Commitment of Funds).

(9) Requests for Delegations. Any Agency may submit a delegation request through ORPIN to the State Procurement Office for authority in accordance with the Public Contracting Code, this Rule, and any related policy of the Department. All requested Delegations must be approved in Writing by the Chief Procurement Officer and based upon a consideration of relevant criteria as follows:

- (a) The nature of the Supplies and Services to be provided;
- (b) Resources of the Agency requesting the delegation, including trained and qualified contract officers and staff, the Agency's experience and expertise, staff time available, and the degree of economy and efficiency to be achieved in meeting the state's requirements if authority is delegated;
- (c) The Agency's Procurement and public contracting past performance;
- (d) SPO's resources to exercise the authority if it is not delegated; and
- (e) Value added by the Agency if the authority is delegated.

(10) Revocation of Delegations. The Chief Procurement Officer may revoke any delegation issued under Section (9) of this Rule at any time by written notice to the Designated Procurement Officer of the Agency, as defined in OAR 125-246-0170, based upon, but not limited to any of the following:

- (a) Failure to comply with the requirements of the delegation;
- (b) Deficiencies evidenced by performance audits performed by SPO, the Secretary of State, or the Legislative Assembly.
- (c) Failure to comply with SPO training requirements to obtain an Oregon Basic Procurement Certification, Advanced Certification, or specific training described in the delegation;
- (d) Lack of adequate experience in terms of procurement knowledge and any specialized knowledge pertinent to the authority delegated;
- (e) The available resources of SPO to conduct the purchasing activities if authority is revoked; and
- (f) The degree of economy and efficiency to be achieved in meeting the state's requirements if authority is revoked.

(11) Return of Delegations from Agencies to the Chief Procurement Officer. If an Agency needs assistance, an Agency may request that the Chief Procurement Officer reclaim the authority previously delegated to the Agency. With sole discretion, the Chief Procurement Officer may accept the reclamation request for assistance according to the responsibilities, resources, and needs of the State Procurement Office and the Agency.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

125-246-0170

Delegation of Authority

(1) Generally.

(a) Purpose. This Rule delegates the procurement authority of the Department (Authority). Only this Rule delegates this Authority.

(b) Authority of Agencies. The Director of the Department delegates Authority to the Designated Procurement Officers of the Authorized Agencies in Section (2) of this Rule.

(c) Authority of the Chief Procurement Officer. The Director of the Department delegates Authority to the Chief Procurement Officer in Section (3) of this Rule.

(d) Authority of the Director. According to ORS 279A.140, the Department must conduct all Procurements, including Contract Administration, for the Agencies. Other Sections of the Code authorize specific actions by the Director of the Department. According to ORS 279A.050(1) and (2), this Authority of the Department vests only in the Director of the Department. The Director is ultimately responsible for the Procurement of the Agencies.

(2) Delegation to Individuals in Agencies.

(a) Chain of Delegation and Responsibilities.

(A) Head and Designated Procurement Officer of the Agency.

(i) Conditional Delegation. The Director delegates Authority, only as set forth in this Section (2), to the heads of Authorized Agencies, on the condition that the heads of Authorized Agencies subdelegate such Authority to their Agencies' Designated Procurement Officers, who may further subdelegate such Authority in accordance with policies of their Agencies (Chain of Delegation). Every Authorized Agency must appoint a Designated Procurement Officer to serve that Authorized Agency; if none is appointed, the head of the Agency is deemed to be the Designated Procurement Officer and assumes the Authority, duties and responsibilities of the Designated Procurement Officer (collectively, "Designated Procurement Officer"). The heads of the Agencies may not subdelegate Authority outside this Chain of Delegation, except as provided in Subsection (2)(a)(B).

(ii) Manner of Appointment. The Authorized Agency determines its procedure for appointing its Designated Procurement Officer, and this Rule does not require or imply any inherent Authority in individual(s) or the Agency in order to make this appointment. The Agency must send a Written notice of its appointment of the Designated Procurement Officer to the State Procurement Office.

(B) Exceptions: Head and Other Individuals of the Agency.

(i) Execution of Contracts. Heads of Authorized Agencies may subdelegate the Authority to execute Contracts, as described in Subsection (2)(b)(F), to other individuals within their respective Agency, provided this subdelegation is in accordance with a Written alternative subdelegation plan, maintained on file with the Agency's Designated Procurement Officer.

(ii) Special Procurements of General or Special Counsel Authorized by the Attorney General, according to OAR 125-247-0295. Heads of Authorized Agencies may subdelegate the Authority to procure general or special counsel authorized by the Attorney General, as described in Subsection (2)(d)(Q), to other individuals within their respective Agency, provided the head of the Authorized Agency has determined that the individual receiving the subdelegation has the requisite skills and knowledge to carry out the subdelegation. Such subdelegations may be further subdelegated within that Authorized Agency, provided the subdelegator has determined that each individual receiving the Delegation has the requisite skills and knowledge to carry out the subdelegation.

(iii) Chain of Delegation. Authorized Individuals in accordance with Subsections (2)(a)(B)(i) and (ii) are included in the Chain of Delegation.

(C) Responsibilities. Each individual in the Chain of Delegation remains responsible for the exercise of Authority by that individual's subdelegates, and subdelegation does not waive this responsibility. Each delegator must determine and document that the delegatee is capable and accountable for the Procurement. The Designated Procurement Officer, appointed within each Authorized Agency, is responsible for all delegated procurement activity on behalf of the Authorized Agency, as described in this Section (2), except as provided in Subsection (2)(a)(B).

(b) Duties and Responsibilities of Designated Procurement Officers. The Authority, duties and responsibilities of the Designated Procurement Officer, according to (2)(a)(A), are as follows:

(A) Serve as the exclusive supervisor and manager of the Authorized Agency's Procurement system;

(B) Conduct, supervise and manage the Procurement and the Procurement Process for the Authorized Agency in accordance with the Code and these Rules, except for those Procurements conducted by a delegatee to whom the Designated Procurement Officer has delegated Authority;

(C) Prepare or monitor the use of Specifications or statements of work for all Procurements of the Authorized Agency;

(D) Issue Solicitations and implement other non-Solicitation methods for all Procurements of the Authorized Agency in accordance with the Code and these Rules;

(E) Award Contracts only as authorized in accordance with this Rule;

(F) Execute Contracts, which means causing the signing of Contracts and performance of all necessary formalities to bring the Contracts into their final, legally enforceable forms. If the Designated Procurement Officer is unable to make a Commitment of Funds as described in Subsection (1)(h), then the head of the Authorized Agency may follow an alternative subdelegation plan in accordance with Subsection (2)(a)(B)(i).

(G) Comply with the reporting requirements of the Code, these Rules, and Department policies;

(H) Monitor sourcing decisions, Procurements, development of Contracts, awarded Contracts, Contract compliance, spend, Delegations, Special Procurements and exemptions. Monitoring Contract development, awards, and compliance applies to all Delegations;

(I) Based upon the monitoring described in Subsection (2)(b)(H), determine opportunities, establish targets, and utilize methods according to ORS 279A.200 through 279A.220 and 279B.055 through 279B.085 to optimize savings consistent with strategic sourcing; and

(J) Conduct Cost Analyses, approve Feasibility Determinations and Exceptions, and otherwise comply with OAR 125-247-0110.

(c) Delegation by Rule Based Upon Thresholds. By this Rule, the Director of the Department delegates authority to the heads of all Authorized Agencies, subject to Section (2)(a)(A) and (B), for the following Procurements, including Contract Administration:

(A) Small Procurements of Supplies and Services up to and including the Threshold of $5,000, according to ORS 279B.065 and related Rules;

(B) Direct appointments of Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services and Related Services according to OAR 125-248-0200;

(C) Intermediate Procurements of Supplies and Services greater than $5,000 and not exceeding $150,000, according to ORS 279B.070, OAR 125-247-0270, and any related policy;

(D) Informal Selection Procedures of Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services and Related Services according to ORS 279C.110 and OAR 125-248-0210, provided that the Authorized Agency follows the requirements as set forth in the policy of the Department;

(E) Competitive Quotes for Public Improvements estimated not to exceed $100,000, provided that the Authorized Agency follows the requirements as set forth in the policy of the Department;

(F) Competitively Sealed Bidding not exceeding $150,000 and according to OAR 125-247-0255;

(G) Competitively Sealed Proposals not exceeding $150,000 and according to OAR 125-247-0260;

(H) Sole-Source Procurements not exceeding $150,000 and according to ORS 279B.075 and OAR 125-247-0275;

(I) Special Procurements in accordance with OAR 125-247-0287 not exceeding $150,000.

(J) Purchase of Used Personal Property Special Procurements not exceeding $150,000 and according to OAR 125-247-0288(9);

(K) Reverse Auctions Special Procurements not exceeding $150,000 and according to OAR 125-247-0288(10); and

(i) For Contracts and Ordering Instruments authorized according to this Section (2)(c) and (d), the Contract Administration of these Public Contracts and Ordering Instruments, including but not limited to: appropriate payment approvals, ordering in accordance with the terms of Department Price Agreements, and the oversight of the Provider(s); but excluding the Contract Administration described in Subsection (v) below;

(ii) The daily or routine Contract Administration of Ordering Instruments placed against Department Price Agreements and Contracts procured by the State Procurement Office on behalf of Agencies. This daily or routine Contract Administration includes but is not limited to: appropriate payment approvals, ordering in accordance with the terms of Department Price Agreements, and the oversight of the Provider(s);

(iii) Activities specified in Writing by the Chief Procurement Officer or delegatee;

(iv) Activities specified in a related policy of the Department; and

(v) Despite Subsection (2)(c)(K)(i) through (iv) above, this Delegation by Subsection (2)(c)(K) does not include:

(I) The Contract Administration of Department Price Agreements; or

(II) For Contracts procured by the State Procurement Office on behalf of Agencies, Amendments when the amended value of Contract exceeds $150,000; and terminations of such Contracts when the amended value of such Contract exceeds $150,000.

(d) Delegation by Rule Based Upon Type. By this Rule, the Director of the Department delegates authority to the heads of all Authorized Agencies, subject to Section (2)(a)(A) and (B), for the following Procurements, including Contract Administration:

(A) Emergency Procurements, in accordance with ORS 279B.080, 279C.335(5), OAR 125-248-0200, or related Rules;

(B) One-time, nonrepetitive Joint Cooperative Procurements in accordance with OAR 125-246-0430, provided that:

(i) No such Procurement results in a Permissive Cooperative Procurement that is open to any Agency outside of those Agencies jointly named in the original Procurement;

(ii) No such Procurement of Supplies and Services exceeds the Threshold of $150,000, including all Amendments, according to OAR 125-246-0560;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(iii) No such Procurement of Public Improvements exceeds $100,000, including Amendments according to OAR 125-246-0560; and

(iv) The Authorized Agency must follow any related policy of the Department.

(C) Federal program Procurements not exceeding $150,000 or according to a delegation agreement with the State Procurement Office, and in accordance with ORS 279A.180 and related Rules;

(D) Client Services Special Procurements according to OAR 125-247-0288(1) and (2);

(E) Client Services procured under ORS 279B.055 through 279B.085 and related Rules, including all amendments according to OAR 125-246-0560;

(F) Renegotiations of Existing Contracts with Incumbent Contractors Special Procurements according to OAR 125-247-0288(3) and as follows: the Authorized Agency is limited to the same authority delegated to that Agency with regard to the Original Contract and any Amendments and may not collectively exceed any Threshold related to its authority to procure the Original Contract, except this limit may be exceeded with the prior Written approval of the Chief Procurement Officer or delegatee of the State Procurement Office;

(G) Advertising Contracts Special Procurements according to OAR 125-247-0288(4);

(H) Equipment Repair and Overhaul Special Procurements according to OAR 125-247-0288(5);

(I) Contracts for Price Regulated Items Special Procurements according to OAR 125-247-0288(6);

(J) Investment Contracts Special Procurements according to OAR 125-247-0288(7);

(K) Food Contracts Special Procurements according to OAR 125-247-0288(8);

(L) Special Procurements of General or Special Counsel Authorized by the Attorney General, according to OAR 125-247-0295;

(M) Special Procurement(s) related to disaster response, according to OAR 125-247-0287;

(N) Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying and Related Services (A&E) Procurement according to OAR 125-248-0200 through 125-248-0340;

(O) Brand Name Specification Determinations for Solicitations in accordance with OAR 125-247-0691; and

(P) Brand Name Specification Determinations for Sole Source Procurements not exceeding $150,000 and according to OAR 125-247-0691.

(3) Delegation to the Chief Procurement Officer.

(a) Powers and Authorities. The Director of the Department delegates to the Chief Procurement Officer the rights, powers and authority vested in the Director of the Department to:

(A) Delegate and subdelegate these authorities in whole or in part according to ORS 279A.075;

(B) Approve Special Procurement requests, according to ORS 279B.085 and related Rules, and receive filed protests of approvals of Special Procurements, according to ORS 279B.400(1);

(C) Conduct hearings, approve Agency findings, approve exemption requests, and issue exemption orders, according to ORS 279C.335, ORS 279C.345, 279C.390, and related Rules;

(D) Create all procedures and Specifications required by the Public Contracting Code and these Rules;

(E) Receive, maintain, and act upon information contained in reports, including but not limited to ORS 279A.140(h) and 279C.355, as required by the Public Contracting Code and these Rules;

(F) Receive and resolve protests according to ORS 279B.400 to 279B.420 and Division 247 Rules, except for appeals from a decision of the Chief Procurement Officer or delegatee;

(G) Receive notices, conduct hearings, and make decisions regarding prequalifications, debarments, and Disqualifications according to ORS 279A.110, 279B.425, ORS 279C.450, ORS 200.065(5), and ORS 200.075(1), except for appeals from a decision of the Chief Procurement Officer or delegatee;

(H) Approve Unanticipated Amendments according to OAR 125-246-0560(2);

(I) Approve expedited notices for Sole-Source Procurements according to OAR 125-247-0275;

(J) Procure and administer Cooperative Procurements and receive, hear, and resolve related protests and disputes, according to ORS 279A.200 through 279A.225 and OAR 125-246-0400 through 125-246-0460;

(K) Approve General Service Administration federal programs or federal Contracts in accordance with OAR 125-246-0360;

(L) Authorize public notice of bids, proposals, and public improvement Contracts to be published electronically and according to ORS 279B.055(4)(c) and 279C.360(1);

(M) Approve the manner and character of retainage according to ORS 279C.560(1) and (5);

(N) Approve exemptions waiving or reducing the bid security or bonds for Public Improvement projects in accordance with ORS 279C.390(1);

(O) Approve electronic-filing (e-filing) in accordance with ORS 84.049, 84.052 and 84.064;

(P) Approve procurement-related activities required by other law;

(Q) Conduct Cost Analyses, approve Feasibility Determinations and Exceptions, and otherwise comply with OAR 125-247-0110; and

(R) Other actions of the State Procurement Office specifically required by these Rules.

(b) Duties and Responsibilities of the Chief Procurement Officer. The authority, duties and responsibilities of the Chief Procurement Officer are as follows:

(A) Conduct Procurements, including administration of Contracts, for Agencies.

(B) Develop and maintain State-wide Procurement rules, policies, procedures and standard contract terms and conditions as necessary to carry out the Public Contracting Code.

(C) Subdelegate authority in whole or part, based upon consideration and documentation of one or more of the following factors in making this decision:

(i) The procurement expertise, specialized knowledge and past experience of the individual;

(ii) The impact of the subdelegation of the Procurement on efficiency and effectiveness;

(iii) The individual's adherence to the Code, these Rules, standards, procedures and manuals;

(iv) The ability and assent of the individual to be accountable for the delegated Procurement; or

(v) The short-term demands upon the staff and resources of the State Procurement Office, arising from unusual circumstances;

(D) Revoke authority delegated by the Chief Procurement Officer or in accordance with (3)(d)(F), in whole or part, based upon consideration and documentation of one or more of the following factors in making this decision:

(i) The procurement expertise, specialized knowledge and past experience of the individual;

(ii) The impact of the subdelegation of the Procurement on efficiency and effectiveness;

(iii) The individual's adherence to the Code, these Rules, standards, procedures and manuals; or

(iv) The ability and assent of the individual to be accountable for the delegated Procurement;

(E) Maintain a file of Written subdelegation authority granted and revoked under these Rules in accordance with the law;

(F) Provide guidance and leadership on Procurement matters to Agencies and their employees;

(G) Provide training and instruction opportunities to assure SPO staff and Agency staff are equipped with necessary knowledge and skills to comply with requirements of the Public Contracting Code, Rules, and Department policy related to Procurement;

(H) Monitor sourcing decisions, Procurements, development of Contracts, awarded Contract, Contract compliance, spend, Delegations, Special Procurements and exemptions. Report these matters to the Authorized Agency and Director as appropriate. Monitoring Contract development, awards, and compliance applies to all Delegations;

(I) Based upon monitoring described in Subsection (3)(b)(H), determine opportunities, establish targets, and utilize methods according to ORS 279A.200 through 279A.220 and 279B.055 through 279B.085 to optimize savings consistent with strategic sourcing.

(J) Appoint procurement advisory committees to assist with Specifications, procurement decisions, and structural change that can take full advantage of evolving procurement methods as they emerge within various industries, while preserving competition according to ORS 279A.015.

(c) Delegation by Rule Based Upon Threshold. By this Rule, the Director of the Department delegates authority to the Chief Procurement Officer for the following Procurements, including Contract Administration:

(A) Small Procurements of Supplies and Services on behalf of Agencies and according to ORS 279B.065;

(B) Intermediate Procurements of Supplies and Services greater than $5,000 and not exceeding $150,000, on behalf of Agencies and according to ORS 279B.070 and OAR 125-247-0270;

(C) Informal Selection procedures of Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services and Related Services, on behalf of Agencies and according to ORS 279C.110 and OAR 125-248-0210;

(D) Competitive Quotes of Public Improvements estimated not to exceed $100,000, according to ORS 279C.410 notes and OAR 125-249-0160; and

(E) All Procurements exceeding the Thresholds for Intermediate Procurements, Informal Procurements, or Competitive Quotes, according to ORS 279B.070 and OAR-125-247-0270 (Supplies and Services); ORS 279C.110 and OAR 125-248-0210 (Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying and Related Services); and ORS 279C.410 and OAR 125-249-0210 (Public Improvements), respectively.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(d) Delegation by Rule Based Upon Type. By this Rule, the Director of the Department delegates authority to the Chief Procurement Officer for the following Procurements, including Contract Administration:

(A) Cooperative Procurements in accordance with ORS 279A.200 through 279A.225 and OAR 125-246-0400 through 125-246-0460, except as provided in Section (7)(a)(C) of this Rule; and the State Procurement Office may delegate this authority by agreement to an Authorized Agency, provided this Delegation to an Authorized Agency meets the following criteria:

(i) There is no pre-existing Department Price Agreement or Mandatory Use Agreement;

(ii) The proposed Procurement does not negatively impact DAS Price Agreements or other Contracts identified by the State Procurement Office;

(iii) A competitive process was used for the original agreement; and

(iv) The initial Solicitation was or will be advertised in Oregon.

(B) Special Procurements according to ORS 279B.085 and related Rules;

(C) Sole-Source Procurements in accordance with ORS 279B.075 and OAR 125-247-0275;

(D) Emergency Procurements in accordance with ORS 279B.080, 279C.335(5), OAR 125-248-0200, or related Rules;

(E) Federal program Procurements in accordance with ORS 279A.180 and OAR 125-246-0360;

(F) Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying and Related Services (A&E) Procurement according to OAR 125-248-0200 through 125-248-0340;

(G) Brand Name Specification Determinations for Solicitations in accordance with OAR 125-247-0691;

(H) Brand Name Specification Determinations for Sole Source Procurements according to OAR 125-247-0691; and

(I) All Procurements otherwise delegated to an Authorized Agency according to Section (2) if the Chief Procurement Officer, at her or his own discretion, revokes and assumes this delegated authority, based upon a determination that any Authorized Agency refuses or fails to comply with any Delegation described in Section (2).

Subcontracting to and Contracting with Emerging Small Businesses; Disqualification

(1) As set forth in ORS 279A.105, an Authorized Agency may require a Contractor to subcontract some part of a Contract to, or to obtain materials to be used in performing the Contract from:

(a) A business enterprise that is certified under ORS 200.055 as an emerging small business; or

(b) A business enterprise that is:

(A) Certified under ORS 200.055 as an emerging small business; and

(B) Is located in or draws its Workforce from economically distressed areas, as designated by the Oregon Business Development Department.

(2) For purposes of ORS 279A.105, a subcontractor certified under ORS 200.055 as an emerging small business is located in or draws its Workforce from economically distressed areas if:

(a) Its principal place of business is located in an area designated as economically distressed by the Oregon Business Development Department according to administrative rules adopted by the Oregon Economic and Community Development Department; or

(b) The Contractor certifies in Writing to the Authorized Agency that a substantial number of the subcontractor's employees, or subcontractors that will manufacture or provide the Goods or perform the Services under the Contract, reside in an area designated as economically distressed by the Oregon Business Development Department according to administrative rules adopted by the Oregon Business Development Department. For the purposes of making the foregoing determination, the Authorized Agency must determine in each particular instance what proportion of a Contractor's subcontractor's employees or subcontractors constitutes a substantial number.

(3) Discrimination in Subcontracting Prohibited.

(a) Prohibition. An Offeror who competes for or is awarded a Public Contract may not discriminate against a subcontractor in the awarding of a subcontract because the subcontractor is a minority, woman, emerging small business enterprise certified under ORS 200.055 or against a business enterprise that is owned or controlled by or that employs a disabled veteran, as defined in ORS 408.225.

(b) Certification. Authorized Agencies must include in each Solicitation Document a requirement that Offerors certify in their Offers that the Offeror has not and will not discriminate, in violation of Subsection (3)(a), against a subcontractor in the awarding of a subcontract because the subcontractor is a minority, woman or emerging small business enterprise certified under ORS 200.055 or against a business enterprise that is owned or controlled by or that employs a disabled veteran, as defined in ORS 408.225.

(4) Disqualification

(a) An Authorized Agency may disqualify a Person from consideration of award of the Authorized Agency's Contracts under ORS 200.065(5), or suspend a Person's right to bid on or participate in any Public Contract according to ORS 200.075(1) after providing the Person with notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard in accordance with Subsections (d) and (e) of this Section.

(b) As provided in ORS 200.065 and 200.075 an Authorized Agency may disqualify or suspend a Person's right to submit an Offer or to participate in a Contract (e.g., act as a subcontractor) as follows:

(A) For a Disqualification under ORS 200.065, the Authorized Agency may disqualify a Person upon finding that the Person engaged in any of the activities made unlawful by ORS 200.065(1) or (2), or if the Person has been disqualified by another Authorized Agency according to ORS 200.065.

(B) For a Disqualification under ORS 200.075, the Authorized Agency may suspend a Person upon finding that the Person engaged in any of the acts prohibited by ORS 200.075(a) through (c).

(c) An Authorized Agency may disqualify or suspend a Person's right to submit Offers or participate in Public Contracts only for the length of time permitted by ORS 200.065 or 200.075, as applicable.

(d) The Authorized Agency must provide Written notice to the Person of a proposed Disqualification. The Agency must deliver the Written notice by personal service or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested. This notice must:

(A) State that the Authorized Agency intends to disqualify or suspend the Person;

(B) Set forth the reasons for the Disqualification;

(C) Include a statement of the Person's right to a hearing if requested in Writing within the time stated in the notice and that if the Authorized Agency does not receive the Person's Written request for a hearing within the time stated, the Person must have waived the right to a hearing;

(D) Include a statement of the authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing will be held;

(E) Include a reference to the particular Sections of the statutes and rules involved;

(F) State the proposed Disqualification period; and (G) State that the Person may be represented by legal counsel.

(e) Hearing. Upon the Authorized Agency's receipt of the Person's timely request, the Authorized Agency must promptly deliver written notification and this request to the Chief Procurement Officer. The State Procurement Office must schedule a hearing upon its receipt of the Person's timely request. The State Procurement Office must notify the Person of the time and place of the hearing and provide information on the procedures, right of representation and other rights related to the conduct of the hearing before the hearing. The Chief Procurement Officer has the discretion to delegate authority under OAR 125-246-0170(3)(a)(G) and specify how the delegatee must review and hear Disqualifications.

Advocate's Office and OMWESB

(1) The "Governor's Advocate's Office for Minority, Women and Emerging Small Business (Advocate's Office)" was created in the Office of the Governor, and the "Advocate for Minority, Women and Emerging Small Business" is the individual appointed by the Governor to advise the Governor, Legislature and Director's Office on issues related to the integration of minority, women and emerging small business into the mainstream of the Oregon economy and business sector. The Advocate oversees the resolution of business concerns with Authorized Agencies impacting certified disadvantaged, minority, women and emerging small businesses (DMWESB). The Advocate is also charged with maintaining the Oregon Opportunity Register and Clearinghouse to facilitate the timely notice of business and contract opportunities to DMWESB firms certified by the Office of Minority, Women and Emerging Small Businesses according to ORS 200.025.

(2) The "Office of Minority, Women and Emerging Small Business" (OMWESB), located in the Oregon Business Development Department, administers the certification process for the Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE), Minority Business Enterprise/Women Business Enterprise (MBEWBE), and Emerging Small Business (ESB) Programs. As the sole certification authority in Oregon for disadvantaged, minority-and woman-owned businesses, and emerging small businesses, the Office of Minority, Women and Emerging Small Business (OMWESB) provides certification services for disadvantaged, minority, woman and emerging small businesses, according to ORS 200.025 and 200.055.

(3) A "Disadvantaged Business Enterprise" means a small business concern which is at least 51 percent owned by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged individuals or, in the case of any corporation, at least 51 percent of the stock of which is owned by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged individuals and whose management and daily business operations are controlled by one or more of the socially and economically disadvantaged individuals who own it.

(4) An "Emerging Small Business" is a business with its principal place of business located in this State; a business with average annual gross receipts over the last three years not exceeding $1 million for construction firms and $300,000 for non-construction firms which has fewer than 20 employees; an independent business (not a subsidiary, affiliate, or successor company of another business whose average gross receipts would exceed the stated limits); and a business properly licensed and legally registered in this State.

(5) A "Minority or Women Business Enterprise" is a small business concern which is at least 51 percent owned by one or more minorities or women, or in the case of a corporation, at least 51 percent of the stock of which is owned by one or more minorities or women, and whose management and daily business operations are controlled by one or more of such individuals, according to ORS 200.005.

(6) The general policy of the Department and these Rules is to expand economic opportunities for Disadvantaged Business Enterprises, Minority Business Enterprises, Women Business Enterprises and Emerging Small Businesses by exposing them to contracting and subcontracting opportunities available through Public Contracts, according to ORS 279A.105 and based upon the Legislative findings set forth in ORS 200.015.

(7) The Agency must support the participation of Minority, Women owned and Emerging Small Businesses in its purchasing processes by notifying the Advocate for Minority, Women and Emerging Small Business as required under ORS 200.035.

(8) When a Public Improvement Contract is less than $100,000 and the Offerors are being drawn exclusively from a list of Certified Emerging Small Businesses maintained by the Office of Minority, Women and Emerging Small Business, the Authorized Agency may let the Contract without formal competitive sourcing methods after a good faith effort to obtain a minimum of three competitive Quotes from Emerging Small Businesses. To obtain maximum exposure for all firms and guard against favoritism, care must be taken to obtain Quotes from different firms each time the list is used. The Authorized Agency must keep a Written record of the source and amount of the Quotes received and comply with the applicable requirements of this Rule.

(9) In carrying out the policy of affirmative action, an Authorized Agency may rely upon ORS 279A.100 and advice of legal counsel regarding its application.

(10) No Special Procurement according to ORS 279B.085 and no exemption according to 279C.335 approved by the Chief Procurement Officer waives or excepts the requirement of notice to the Governor's Advocate for Minority, Women and Emerging Small Businesses in accordance with 200.035 and any DAS policy. All Agencies must comply with 200.035, notwithstanding the Public Contracting Code.

Reciprocal Preferences

(1) When evaluating Offers according to OAR 125-247-0255 through 125-247-0260, 125-249-0390 or 125-249-0640 through 125-249-0660, Authorized Agencies must add a percentage increase to the Offer of a Nonresident Offeror equal to the percentage, if any, of the preference that would be given to that Offeror in the state in which the Offeror resides. An Authorized Agency may rely on the list maintained by the Department according to ORS 279A.120(4) to determine:

(a) Whether the Nonresident Offeror's state gives preference to in-state Offerors; and if so,

(b) The amount of such preference (Percentage).

(2) Authorized Agencies must add a percentage to the Offer that matches the Percentage described in Section (1) before determining Tie-Offers in accordance with OAR 125-246-0300.

Agricultural Preference

Despite provisions of law requiring an Authorized Agency to award a Contract to the lowest responsible Bidder, the responsible Proposer or the Provider of a quotation, an Authorized Agency that uses public funds to procure Goods for a public use may apply a preference for Oregon agricultural products. This preference allows the Authorized Agency to procure an agricultural product that is produced and transported entirely within Oregon, upon meeting the following condition(s):

(1) The agricultural product costs do not exceed 10 percent (Percentage) over the cost of an agricultural product that is not produced and transported entirely within Oregon; or

(2) An Authorized Agency may set a higher Percentage if the Designated Procurement Officer of the Authorized Agency:

(a) Makes a Written determination;

(b) Finds good cause to set the higher Percentage, and

(c) Explains the reasons and evidence for the finding.

Disabled Veterans Preference

(1) Generally. The Public Contracting Code and these Rules may not be construed to prohibit an Authorized Agency from engaging in public contracting practices designed to promote affirmative action goals, policies or programs to give a preference in awarding Public Contracts to Disabled Veterans. In carrying out an affirmative action goal, policy or program, an Authorized Agency may limit competition for any Public Contract estimated to not exceed $50,000 to Disabled Veterans as defined in Section (2) ("Preference").

(2) Definition. "Disabled Veteran" is defined in ORS 408.225. "Disabled Veteran" includes the individual as defined in ORS 408.225 and any business enterprise that one or more such individuals own or control, if the cumulative ownership or control by such individuals is 51% or greater.

(3) Establishing the Preference. The Authorized Agency may use a percentage for the Preference in a competitive procurement process or use the Preference for a direct award to the Disabled Veteran instead. In either case, the process for a Contract may not exceed $50,000, and the Designated Procurement Officer of the Authorized Agency must make a written determination that supports the Preference.

(4) Subcontracting. An Authorized Agency may require a Contractor to subcontract some part of a Contract not to exceed $50,000 to, or obtain materials to be used in performing the Contract from, a Disabled Veteran.

(5) Proof. Under Section (3) or (4), an Authorized Agency may require that a Disabled Veteran produce proof of service-connected disability from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs. The proof of service-connected disability may be in the form of an:

(a) Award letter;

(b) Award card; or

(c) Other evidence acceptable to the Authorized Agency from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs.

(6) Discrimination. A Bidder or Proposer who competes for or is awarded a Public Contract may not discriminate against a subcontractor in awarding a subcontract because the subcontractor employs a Disabled Veteran or is a Disabled Veteran.

(7) Debarment or Disqualification.

(a) Finding and Appeal. An Authorized Agency may debar or disqualify a Bidder or Proposer (Offeror) under OAR 125-247-0575 or 125-249-0370, if the Authorized Agency finds that the Offeror has violated Section (6). A debarred or disqualified Offeror may appeal under OAR 125-247-0750 or 125-249-0370.

(b) Limitation. An Authorized Agency may not allege an occurrence of discrimination in subcontracting as a basis for debarring or disqualifying a Bidder or Proposer under Section (6) more than three (3) years after the alleged discriminatory conduct occurred or more than three (3) years after the Authorized Agency, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, should have discovered the conduct, whichever is later.

(8) Certification. An Offeror must certify in the documents accompanying its Offer that the Offeror has not discriminated and will not discriminate against a Disabled Veteran or a subcontractor that employs a Disabled Veteran in obtaining a required subcontract.

(9) Violation. After a Contractor is awarded a Public Contract and if the Contractor violates the certification made under Section (8), the Authorized Agency may regard the violation as a major breach of contract that permits the Authorized Agency to:

(a) Terminate the Contract; or

(b) Exercise any of the remedies for breach of contract that are reserved in the Contract.

Supplier Requirements

(1) Tax Compliance. No Contract or other agreement for more than $1,000 may be entered into, renewed or extended with any Person unless the Person certifies in Writing, under penalty of perjury, that the Person is not in violation of any tax laws described in ORS 305.385(6) and (7).

(2) Requirements to Transact Business in Oregon.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) A Contractor who is a corporation, partnership, or who has an assumed business name must be registered with the Secretary of State Office in accordance with ORS Chapters 58, 60, 62, 63, 65, 67, 70, and 648. This registration is the obligation of the Contractor, not the Agency.

(b) In addition, for Contracts requiring the services of one or more architects, engineers, and land surveyors, these Consultants must be registered with the appropriate licensing boards under the provisions of ORS 671.020, 672.020, and 672.025.

(c) The statutory requirements for contracting firms to register with the Secretary of State's Office may be subject to a limited number of exceptions under federal law. For example, national banks, when they contract with Authorized Agencies, are not subject to the registration requirement.

(d) The Contractor or Consultant must be registered at the time of the execution of the Contract and thereafter.

Independent Contractors

(1) An Authorized Agency may, within the limits of its delegation under OAR 125-246-0170 and its legislatively approved budget, Contract for Personal Services with Providers who are Independent Contractors.

(2) "Independent Contractor" means a Person who provides services to an Authorized Agency in which the Authorized Agency neither controls nor has the right to control the means or manner by which Work is performed. The Authorized Agency may control the results of the services, but not control the means or manner of Contractor's performance of the Work.

(3) Within the parameters of employment, Workers' compensation, and other relevant state and federal laws, and after determining that the contract will not violate any collective bargaining agreements, an Authorized Agency may contract for Personal Services when:

(a) The Work cannot be done in a reasonable time with the Authorized Agency's own Workforce;

(b) An independent and impartial evaluation is required; or

(c) It will be less expensive to contract for the Work.

(4) The Authorized Agency may not use Personal Services Contracts to obtain and pay for the services of an employee. If a Contractor is not an Independent Contractor, the Authorized Agency may not enter into a Personal Services Contract with the Contractor; instead, the Authorized Agency must follow personnel policies for employment options.

(5) Independent Contractor Status. The Authorized Agency must develop a Statement of Work for Trade or Personal Services, including Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services, that will not result in an employee relationship with the potential Contractor. Contractors must complete the Independent Contractor Certification either as a contract provision or on a form approved by the State Procurement Office (Independent Contractor Certification). If the Contractor cannot certify Independent Contractor status, the Authorized Agency may not contract with the Contractor using a Trade or Personal Services Contract, including Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services, except as otherwise allowed in Subsection (5)(f) of this Rule:

(a) An Independent Contractor Certification must be part of each Contract;

(b) If the Contractor is a corporation, the Independent Contractor Certification is still required.

(c) If the nature of the Services or project is such that an employee/employer relationship will exist, the Authorized Agency must hire the individual through normal personnel procedures.

(d) The Contract must include the Contractor's legal name and address. Either the Contract or a separate cover sheet for the Contract must include the Contractor's Social Security or federal tax identification number.

(e) The Contract must provide that the Contractor is responsible for federal Social Security, except those categories excluded by law, and for any federal or state taxes applicable to the contract payment.

(f) When a Contractor cannot certify that the Contractor meets the definition of "independent contractor," is customarily engaged in an independently established business, and meets at least three of the requirements for such a business in accordance with ORS 670.600, then the Authorized Agency may contract with the Contractor only if the Designated Procurement Officer of the Authorized Agency approves the Contract upon a determination that the Contractor is an Independent Contractor and the Contract will not result in undue risk to the State.

Authority and Standards for Personal Services Contracts

(1) Application. For the purposes of this Rule only, "Personal Services" includes Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services and Related Services.

(2) Identification of Personal Services Contracts.

(a) According to ORS 279A.140(2)(h), the State Procurement Office may designate Contracts or classes of Contracts as Personal Services Contracts for the purposes of reporting Personal Services Contracts in accordance with ORS 279A.140 and identifying the appropriate required procedures in accordance with ORS 279A.070 and 270A.140. In the event of uncertainty or disagreement as to the status of any particular Contract or class of Contracts, the State Procurement Office may determine whether a particular contract is a Personal Services Contract.

(b) The Authorized Agency must identify within the Contract that the Authorized Agency is contracting for Personal Services. A failure to adequately describe Personal Services within the Contract will not invalidate the Procurement or Contract if the Authorized Agency properly used a sourcing method according to ORS 279B.055 through 279B.085 or 279C.100 through 279C.125 and substantially followed the related Rules.

(3) Contracting Out for Services Provided by Employees.

(a) Where the Authorized Agency is contemplating contracting for Work performed by Authorized Agency employees represented by a labor organization, the Authorized Agency must review the relevant collective bargaining agreement to ensure the contract complies with the provisions and, if applicable, the requirements of ORS 279A.140.

(b) Whenever the Authorized Agency pays more in a given 12-month period to a Provider under a Personal Services Contract for services historically performed by state employees than would have been paid to the Authorized Agency employee performing the same Work, the Authorized Agency must report that fact, with a justifying statement to the Department. The report must be made at the conclusion of each fiscal year.

Procedures for Personal Services Contracts

(1) Contract and Amendment Forms for Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services. Authorized Agencies must comply with OAR 125-248-0300(1).

(2) Other Forms for Personal Services Contracts and Amendments. Authorized Agencies must use one of the forms provided or approved by the State Procurement Office for Personal Services Contracts and Amendments (Forms).

(a) Revised Forms.

(A) Designated Procurement Officer Approval up to $150,000. For revised Forms up to a cumulative value of $150,000 and before an Authorized Agency may use a revised Form, it must obtain its Designated Procurement Officer's approval of any revisions to the Form's terms and conditions. The Designated Procurement Officer's approval is not required for revisions to Form exhibits that are unrelated to terms and conditions.

(B) Department of Justice Approval over $150,000. For revised Forms exceeding a cumulative value of $150,000 and before an Authorized Agency may use a revised Form, it must obtain Department of Justice approval of any revisions to the revised Form's terms and conditions. The Department of Justice approval is not required for revisions to Form exhibits that are unrelated to terms and conditions. The Department of Justice approval may be delivered by facsimile, email, letter or any other objective means of approval.

(b) Upon an Authorized Agency's request, the Department of Justice may approve a revised Form for repeated use for a specific class or classes of transactions.

(c) The Authorized Agency must review the approved Form at least every two years. If upon review the Authorized Agency revises the Form, the Authorized Agency must obtain Department of Justice approval before using the revised Form.

(3) Screening, Selection, Evaluation and Award Procedures. An Authorized Agency must follow the procedures set forth in Division 248 of these Rules when contracting for Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services. For all other Personal Services Contracts, an Authorized Agency must select a sourcing method from the seven methods available according to ORS 279B.055 through 279B.085 and follow the screening, selection, evaluation and award procedures set forth for the selected sourcing method in division 247 of these Rules.

(4) Amendments and Reinstatements. The procedures for Amendments and reinstatements are found in OAR 125-246-0560 and 125-246-0570, respectively. Procedures for Amendments and reinstatements for Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services are found in OAR 125-248-0340 and 125-248-0310, respectively.

Acquiring Services Before Obtaining Requisite Approvals

(1) Application. For the purposes of this Rule only, "Personal Services" includes Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services and Related Services.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) Personal Services may be performed before all requisite approvals are obtained under a Personal Services Contract if the Personal Services Contract is exempt from the prohibition against services being performed before review for legal sufficiency is obtained under ORS 291.047(6).

(3) The process set forth in this Rule is intended to allow Authorized Agencies to acquire services before obtaining all requisite approvals for those Personal Services Contracts that call for payments of less than the Threshold for legal sufficiency review by the Attorney General.

(4) The State Procurement Office may authorize an Authorized Agency to acquire services before obtaining all requisite approvals when circumstances exist that require prompt action to protect the interests of the State. An Authorized Agency may seek such authorization for a Personal Services Contract or a class of Personal Services Contracts to address specific recurring needs to acquire services on short notice. An Authorized Agency seeking the State Procurement Office's authorization must describe particular circumstances that make it impracticable to obtain all requisite approvals before acquiring services. The State Procurement Office will only authorize an Authorized Agency to acquire services before obtaining all requisite approvals if the Authorized Agency follows the procedures set forth in this Rule. The State Procurement Office's authorization according to this Rule only allows the Authorized Agency to acquire services before obtaining all requisite approvals. It does not authorize the Authorized Agency to make any payments before obtaining all requisite approvals.

(5) The Authorized Agency seeking the State Procurement Office's authorization to acquire services before obtaining all requisite approvals must provide:

(a) Written findings to The State Procurement Office that describe the specific recurring circumstances that require the Authorized Agency to take prompt action to protect the interests of the State because they create substantial risk of loss, damage, interruption of services or threat to public health or safety. The Authorized Agency must also describe why, under these specific circumstances, it will be impracticable to obtain all requisite approvals before acquiring services;

(b) The Personal Services Contract form that the Authorized Agency will use for the Contract entered into after acquiring services, but before making payments.

(c) Documentation demonstrating that the Authorized Agency has established procedures to administer the Contract or class of Contracts, for which it seeks authorization.

(6) The State Procurement Office after review of the material required by Section (5) above, may authorize the Authorized Agency to acquire the specific services under the specific circumstances described in response to Section (5)(a) above before obtaining all requisite approvals. If the State Procurement Office provides authorization, the State Procurement Office will do so in Writing, subject to any conditions or limitations the State Procurement Office deems appropriate, including but not limited to the duration of the authorization, and any other terms and conditions the State Procurement Office may determine are appropriate.

(7) If Authorized Agency acquires services before obtaining all requisite approvals when authorized by the State Procurement Office, the Authorized Agency, as soon as practicable after acquiring the services, must enter into a Written Contract in the form submitted by the Authorized Agency and approved by the State Procurement Office. The Authorized Agency must not revise the terms of the approved Contract form submitted by Authorized Agency without the State Procurement Office's approval.

(8) The Authorized Agency must not make any payments for services before obtaining all requisite approvals.

(9) The State Procurement Office authorization to perform services before obtaining all requisite approvals does not exempt the Authorized Agency from obtaining legal sufficiency review, if required under the provisions of ORS 291.047.

(10) An Authorized Agency authorized to perform services before obtaining all requisite approvals must follow all applicable screening and selection requirements unless otherwise exempt from those requirements.

Purchases Through Federal Programs

(1) Exemption. An Authorized Agency may purchase certain authorized Supplies and Services through General Service Administration (GSA) federal programs or federal Contracts (Federal Programs) without Competitive Sealed Bidding, Competitive Sealed Proposals or other competition required under ORS 279B.050 to 279B.085, provided that the Authorized Agency has federal authorization to purchase through the Federal Program and follows the procedures set forth in this rule.

(2) Federal Authorization.

(a) The Federal Programs named in ORS 279A.180 are accessible to Authorized Agencies for purchasing Supplies and Services. In addition, by this Rule, the Director of the Department (Director) hereby makes the determination according to ORS 279A.180, that the GSA Order of 2000 and any subsequent revisions or updating of this GSA Order of 2000 (GSA Orders) describe other Federal Programs that, under federal law, are similar to 10 U.S.C. 381 or Section 211 of the Electronic Government Act of 2002 in effectuating or promoting transfers of property to Authorized Agencies; therefore, Authorized Agencies may purchase through those Federal Programs described in a GSA Order without making individual requests for determination to the Director.

(b) If an Authorized Agency desires to purchase through another Federal Program that is not expressly named in ORS 279A.180 or a GSA Order, the Authorized Agency must request in Writing a determination from the Director or the Director's designated representative. In the request, the Authorized Agency must document that the federal government has authorized states, including the Authorized Agency, to purchase through the proposed Federal Program. The request of the Authorized Agency and the determination by the Director or representative must be limited to those other Federal Programs described in ORS 279A.180 that, under federal law, are similar to 10 U.S.C. 381 or Section 211 of the Electronic Government Act of 2002 in effectuating or promoting transfers of property to Authorized Agencies.

(c) If no federal authorization exists as described in Sections (2)(a) and (b) of the Rule, then an Authorized Agency is not permitted to purchase through any Federal Program.

(3) Procedures. To purchase through a Federal Program, an Authorized Agency must document in its Procurement File that:

(a) The federal authority for the Authorized Agency to purchase through the Federal Program, referring to ORS 279A.180, a GSA Order, or the State Procurement Office's approval of an Authorized Agency's request.

(b) The acquisition meets the Authorized Agency's needs;

(c) The price and other terms of the acquisition are Advantageous to the State;

(d) No Department Price Agreement for the authorized Supplies and Services exists, based upon the Authorized Agency's inquiry through ORPIN;

(e) The Authorized Agency has considered the acquisition's impact upon local business as follows:

(A) If the Procurement is in excess of $5,000, the Authorized Agency has given timely notice through ORPIN of its needs, reasons, and intent to procure through a Federal Program;

(B) The Authorized Agency has provided a reasonable time period under the circumstances for individuals to respond to the notice and send Written comments to the Authorized Agency; and

(C) The Authorized Agency has considered any comments and replied, if appropriate, before proceeding with its Procurement through a Federal Program. This Rule provides for an informal opportunity to comment to and be considered by the Authorized Agency, instead of the formal notice requirements for Solicitations in excess of $5,000 according to ORS 200.035.

(f) State and local preference programs, including but not limited to the Inmate Work Program of ORS 279.015, the Products of Disabled Individuals Program of ORS 279.835 to 850, and state requirements Contracts under OAR 125-247-0296, are not waived or otherwise adversely affected by an acquisition through a Federal Program;

(g) The Authorized Agency has complied with OAR 137-045-0010 to 137-045-0090, and if it is required, obtained a legal sufficiency review or exemption from the Department of Justice; and

(h) The Authorized Agency is informed of its Federal Program's Procurement Process, including:

(A) Voluntary and Direct Contract. The Authorized Agency and Contractors participate voluntarily. The Contractors make direct deliveries to the Authorized Agency and retain the right to decline orders on a case-by-case basis, for any reason, within a five-Day period of receipt of that order;

(B) Funding Fee. The price of a Federal Program Contract includes a GSA industrial funding fee to cover GSA administrative costs to operate the Federal Program;

(C) New Contract. When a Contractor accepts an order from an Authorized Agency, a new Contract is formed. The Contract's terms and conditions are incorporated by reference; and

(D) Additional Terms and Conditions. The Authorized Agency may add to its Contract such significant, substantial contract terms and conditions as are required by State statutes or rules, if such additions do not conflict with the Federal Program's Contract terms and conditions. Examples of such terms and conditions include, but are not limited to:

(i) Prompt Payment. The Authorized Agency may apply the terms and conditions of Oregon's prompt payment law to its Contracts, but if the Authorized Agency fails to make this addition, then the Authorized Agency may be subject to the Federal Prompt Payment Act, 31 U.S.C. sec. 3901 et seq., as implemented at subpart 32.9 of the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR);

(ii) Commercial Terms. Patent indemnity and other commercial terms and conditions may be added if they do not conflict with the Federal Program's terms and conditions; and

(iii) Conflict Resolution. The Authorized Agency may revise the Contract's dispute resolution provision to use Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) to the extent authorized by law.

ORS 190 Agreements

(1) Reporting 190 Agreements through ORPIN. A state agency that enters into an agreement under ORS 190.110, 190.420 or 190.485, or an agreement under ORS 190.112 or under 660.342, must submit a summary of the agreement through ORPIN within the 30-day period immediately following the effective date of the agreement. For the purpose of this Rule only, "state agency" is defined in ORS 190. The summary must include the following information:

- (a) Names of the parties to the agreement;
- (b) Date of the agreement;
- (c) Subject matter of the agreement; and
- (d) The agency through which a person may obtain a copy of the agreement.

(2) Interstate and International Agreements. Following ORS 190, each Agency may enter into Interstate and International Agreements through negotiation, direct award, direct appointment, or in any other manner that satisfies the legal requirements for such Agreements.

(3) Tribal Agreements. Following ORS 190, each Agency may enter into Tribal Agreements through negotiation, direct award, direct appointment, or in any other manner that satisfies the legal requirements for such Agreements.

(4) Interagency and Intergovernmental Agreements. Following ORS 190, each Agency may enter into Interagency and Intergovernmental Agreements through negotiation, direct award, direct appointment, or in any other manner that satisfies the legal requirements for such Agreements.

(5) All Interstate, International, Tribal, Interagency and Intergovernmental Agreements, when required, are subject to review and approval by the Attorney General.

Amendments

(1) Generally. This Rule on Amendments sets forth:

(a) Requirements for all Amendments under this Rule, found in Section (2);

(b) A General Rule for Anticipated Amendments, found in Section (3) applicable to Contracts for Supplies and Services;

(c) A General Rule for Unanticipated Amendments, found in Section (4) applicable to Contracts for Supplies and Services;

(d) Special Rules for Amendments in Sections (5) through (10), applicable to different types of Contracts. These Special Rules replace the General Rule, unless expressly stated otherwise.

(2) Requirements for All Amendments under this Rule. An Authorized Agency may make Amendments to Contracts as set forth in this Rule under the following conditions:

(a) Scope. The Amendment must be within the Scope of the original Solicitation Document, if any, and the Original Contract;

(b) Original Contract. The Original Contract was awarded either:

(A) According to ORS 279B.055, 279B.060, 279B.065, 279B.070, 279B.075, 279B.080, 279B.085, or 279A.200-279A.220;

(B) For Transitional or Old Contracts only, as defined in OAR 125-246-0100(6); or

(C) Other statutory law.

(c) Legal Requirements. The Amendment is made consistent with applicable Department of Justice legal sufficiency review according to ORS 291.047;

(d) Writing. All Amendments to Contracts must be in Writing;

(e) Authority. All Amendments to Contracts must be signed by the authorized representatives of the parties to the Contracts, except that Amendments to Ordering Instruments may be accepted by the action of the Provider in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Ordering Instruments. All Amendments must receive all required approvals before the Amendments become binding on the Authorized Agency and before any service may be performed or payment made, including but not limited to the Department of Justice legal sufficiency review according to ORS 291.047.

(3) General Rule for Anticipated Amendments.

(a) "Anticipated Amendment" means:

(A) The Authorized Agency has planned for and stated in the Solicitation Document, if any, and the Original Contract ("Contract") that the Authorized Agency may amend the Contract; and

(B) Required language in the Solicitation Document, if any, and the Contract includes:

(i) The general circumstances that might require an Anticipated Amendment to be issued under the Contract. "General circumstances" means broad or important aspects of the circumstances and not detailed. "Circumstances" means the anticipated conditions, state of affairs, or context that might require the Amendment. "Anticipated" means considered, realized, foreseen, or expected before its time. "Contract" for the purpose of this Rule means the specific Original Contract or class of Original Contracts being amended (specific Contract). This requirement is not satisfied by boilerplate language. "Boilerplate language" means standard language used commonly in documents without variation based on specific circumstances; and

(ii) A general description of certain or known changes to the requirements of the Contract that may be anticipated or planned for, but not necessarily quantified at the time of Contract execution. These changes may be specifically described in any Solicitation and Contract as: Additional Work; Work to be done if certain situations are encountered; or changes in terms, conditions, price, or type of Work. "General description" means broad or important aspects of the certain or known changes and not detailed. "Certain or known changes" that "may be anticipated or planned for" does not mean all possibilities; it means anticipated changes that might be required by the circumstances, as defined in Subsection (3)(a)(B)(i). This general description of changes must relate to the specific Contract and is not satisfied by boilerplate language, as defined in Subsection (3)(a)(B)(i).

(b) Authority for Anticipated Amendments. An Authorized Agency may make one or more Anticipated Amendments to a Contract without an additional competitive process and for an unlimited amount.

(c) No Designation Required. The Authorized Agency is not required to designate an Amendment in any Solicitation Document and Original Contract as an "Anticipated Amendment."

(4) General Rule for Unanticipated Amendments.

(a) "Unanticipated Amendment" means an Amendment that does not otherwise meet the requirements of being an Anticipated Amendment.

(b) Conditions. An Authorized Agency may make one or more Unanticipated Amendments, without any additional competitive process as set forth in this Rule under the following conditions:

(A) Limited Amount. The cumulative amounts of one or more Unanticipated Amendments to a Contract must not exceed 20% of the Original Contract amount; or

(B) Unlimited Amount. The cumulative amounts of one or more Unanticipated Amendments may be unlimited only if the Authorized Agency's Designated Procurement Officer or the Chief Procurement Officer for the State Procurement Office gives Written approval of the Unanticipated Amendment, based upon a determination that:

(i) The change is legitimate and due to unforeseen circumstances which occurred as Work progressed, and that the reasons for the change were unforeseen at the time the Original Contract was established, as opposed to an effort to evade Procurement requirements;

(ii) The Original Contract contains clauses authorizing modification; and

(iii) The Unanticipated Amendment does not represent a material change that alters the essential identity or main purpose of the Original Contract, or is of such importance as to constitute a new undertaking. The determination and approval must be included in the Procurement File according to OAR 125-246-0556.

(5) Special Rules for Amendments based on Thresholds.

(a) Small Procurements. An Authorized Agency may amend a Contract awarded as a Small Procurement under OAR 125-247-0265, and the cumulative Amendments must not increase the total contract price to exceed $6,000. The General Rules do not apply to amendments of a Contract awarded as a Small Procurement.

(b) Intermediate Procurements. The General Rules on Amendments apply to a Contract awarded as an Intermediate Procurement under OAR 125-247-0270. If the Contract and all cumulative Amendments would result in an amended contract amount exceeding $150,000, then the Authorized Agency must request and obtain prior approval of a Special Procurement in accordance with OAR 125-247-0287.

(6) Special Rule for Amendments of Contracts for Emergencies. Despite the General Rules on Amendments, an Authorized Agency may modify a Contract awarded as an Emergency Procurement if the emergency justification for entering into the Contract still exists, and the Amendment is necessary to address the continuing emergency. This modification may be made by change order or Amendment to address the conditions described in the original declaration or an amended declaration that further describes additional Work necessary and appropriate for related Emergency circumstances.

(7) Special Amendment Provisions Located in Other Rules.

(a) Reinstatement of Expired Contracts. Despite the General Rules on Amendments, the Rule for Reinstatement of Expired Contracts is found at OAR 125-246-0570.

(b) Retroactive Approvals and Payment Authorization for Cost Overruns for Services Contracts. Despite the General Rules on Amendments, the Rules for Retroactive Approvals and Payment Authorization for Cost Overruns are found at OAR 125-246-0570 and 125-246-0576, respectively.

(c) Renegotiated Contracts. Despite the General Rules on Amendments, the Special Procurement Rule for Renegotiated Contracts is found at OAR 125-247-0288(3).

(d) Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services. Despite the General Rules on Amendments, the Rule for Amendments of Contracts for Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services is found at OAR 125-248-0340.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(e) Public Improvements. Despite the General Rules on Amendments, the Rule for Amendments of Contracts for Public Improvements is found at OAR 125-249-0160.

(8) Special Rule for Amendments of Price Agreements. Despite the General Rules on Amendments, the State Procurement Office or its delegatee may amend a Price Agreement as follows:

(a) As permitted by the Price Agreement;

(b) As permitted by any applicable Special Rule for Amendments, Sections (5) through (10); or

(c) As permitted by applicable law.

(9) Special Rule for Amendments of Cooperative Procurements under OAR 125-246-0400 through 125-246-0460.

(a) An Administering Authorized Agency may amend an Original Contract only in accordance with ORS 279A.205 through 279A.225 and in a manner that is substantially equivalent to this Rule.

(b) A Participating Authorized Agency may amend its own Contract resulting from a Cooperative Procurement in a manner that complies with this Rule.

(10) Special Rule for Amendments of Transitional and Old Contracts.

(a) Definition. "Transitional Contracts" and "Old Contracts" are defined in OAR 125-246-0110.

(b) Authority. An Authorized Agency must have authority to amend the Transitional or Old Contract in accordance with OAR 125-246-0170, including but not limited to delegations by rule, agreement, letter and policy.

(c) Processes. An Authorized Agency may amend a Transitional or Old Contract by complying with one of the following four (4) processes:

(A) New Amendment Process. An Authorized Agency may apply Sections (1) through (9) of this Amendment Rule; or

(B) New Special Procurement Process. An Authorized Agency may amend through the Special Procurement Rules for Supplies and Services, as set forth in OAR 125-247-0285 through 125-247-0287; or

(C) Exclusive Amendment Process. This Process is not available for Personal Services Contracts. An Authorized Agency may amend an Original Contract with a Provider without competitive bidding and for additional Work or product which is reasonably related to the Scope of Work under the Original Contract, including Changes to Work, extra Work, field orders, or other change in the original Specifications that increases the Original Contract price, if it meets one or more of the following conditions:

(i) The Original Contract:

(I) Was let by a competitive bidding or alternative Procurement process;

(II) Unit prices or additive alternates were provided that established the cost basis for the additional Work or product; and

(III) A binding obligation exists on the parties covering the terms and conditions of the additional Work; or

(ii) The Original Contract was let pursuant to a declaration of emergency, in accordance with former ORS 279.015(4)(a) and 279.015(5) and former OAR 125-310-0030; or

(iii) The additional Work is required by reason of existing regulations or ordinances of federal, state or local agencies, dealing with the prevention of environmental pollution and the preservation of natural resources, that affect performance of the Original Contract and such regulations or ordinances, as provided in former ORS 279.318, either were not cited in the Original Contract or were enacted or amended after submission of the successful Bid or Proposal; or

(iv) The Original Contract was for the renovation or remodeling of a building.

(v) Except for Amendments entered into pursuant to Subsections (C)(i) to (iv), the aggregate increase resulting from all Amendments to a Contract must not exceed 20 percent of the initial Contract price. Contracts for the renovation or remodeling of buildings may have aggregate Amendments not exceeding 33 percent of the initial Contract price. Provided, however, that Amendments made pursuant to Subsection (C)(i) are not to be applied against either the 20 percent or the 33 percent aggregate limit on Contract Amendments. Provided, further, that Contracts amended pursuant to Subsections (C)(ii) or (iii) are not subject to either the 20 percent or the 33 percent aggregate limit on Contract Amendments.

(vi) If the Original Contract required the Contractor to provide a performance and payment bond, and the Authorized Agency has terminated the Contract and notified the surety of such termination, the Authorized Agency may allow the Contractor's surety an opportunity to provide a substitute Contractor to complete performance of the Original Contract. Such substitute performance, and any Amendment of the Original Contract that makes a substitute Contractor a party to the Contract, and is not an award of a Public Contract for purposes of former ORS 279.015(1), must not be subject to the competitive procurement provisions of former ORS 279.005 through 279.111.

(D) Personal Services Amendment Process. This process is for Personal Services Contracts only.

(i) Contract Amendments must be made in writing.

(ii) Amendments to Contracts must fall within the Scope of the original Solicitation, unless the Original Contract was exempt under former OAR 125-020-0610, including whether the Contract consideration or term limit for performance may be increased (See former OAR 125-020-0310(4)(b)).

Amendments may not be used to circumvent rules establishing approvals at certain monetary levels.

(iii) The State Procurement Office must approve an Amendment to a Contract unless approval of the amended Contract is delegated under OAR 125-246-0170.

(iv) Except for Contracts related to Year 2000 services or Phased Development projects, Amendments to perform additional work related to information technology must not exceed 33% of the amount identified in the original Contract.

(v) The Attorney General must approve an amendment to a Personal Services Contract if the resulting Contract requires legal sufficiency review under ORS 291.047.

(vi) The Authorized Agency must provide justification for any increase in time, compensation or other modification to the State Procurement Office.

(vii) The Contract Amendment form(s) must comply with OAR 125-246-0345.

(viii) For Amendments, the Authorized Agency is required to:

(I) Prepare a Contract Amendment;

(II) Obtain necessary approvals before the Amendment is effective; and

(III) Issue the Award justification on ORPIN for Amendments that do not require State Procurement Office approval.

(ix) For Contract Amendments that require State Procurement Office approval, the Authorized Agency must submit the Contract Amendment package (one original and one copy of the Contract Amendment, a copy of the original Contract, copies of any previous Amendment(s), and the justification statement) to the State Procurement Office.

(x) The State Procurement Office will review and approve the Contract Amendment for compliance with applicable rules.

125-246-0570

Reinstatement of Expired Contract; Retroactive Approval of Existing Contract

(1) Application. This Rule applies to the reinstatement of expired or terminated Contracts (expired Contracts) and the retroactive approval of existing Contracts procured by Authorized Agencies for Supplies and Services and for Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services ("Contracts"). This Rule does not apply to mistakes that may occur in the solicitation process (see OAR 125-247-0470).

(2) Requirements to Reinstatement an Expired Contract.

(a) Before expiration, the Contract was properly signed by all parties;

(b) Then the signed Contract expired;

(c) The Agency reinstates the Contract:

(A) To fulfill its term, up to the maximum time period provided in the Contract; or

(B) To complete one or more deliverable(s) included within the Contract's Scope at the time of its expiration;

(d) The Agency documents in the Procurement File the deliverable(s) to be completed at the time of the expired Contract's reinstatement; and

(e) If the Contractor has performed work under the Contract, the reinstatement does not apply to payments made for work performed between the expiration of the Contract and the date of any reinstatement.

(3) Requirements to Retroactively Approve an Existing Contract.

(a) The Contract exists and has not expired;

(b) The Contract was signed by all parties except that the required approval of the DPO or CPO was lacking;

(c) If the Contractor has performed work under the Contract, the retroactive approval does not apply to payments made for work performed between the start of the Contract and the date of any retroactive approval.

(4) Process. For either a reinstatement of an expired Contract or retroactive approval of an existing Contract, the requesting Agency must meet the following conditions:

(a) The Agency must submit a Written request to the Agency's Designated Procurement Officer (DPO) if the Agency is authorized under OAR 125-246-0170, or if not, to the Chief Procurement Officer (CPO) with authority under OAR 125-246-0170 (Request). If the Request is submitted to the DPO, the Agency must also follow its internal procedures.

(b) The Request must explain the following:

(A) The proposed reinstatement of the expired Contract or retroactive approval of the existing Contract.

(B) The background facts that led to the Request;

(C) The good faith basis for making the Request;

(D) The need for reinstatement of an expired Contract or retroactive approval of an existing Contract due to unforeseen or unavoidable conditions;

(E) The steps to prevent a reoccurrence. For examples:

(i) Improvement of Agency's internal policies and procedures; and

(ii) Provision of new training or retraining; and

(F) Acknowledgement that the Request is in the best interest of the Agency.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) Obtain all other approvals required for the Contract, including but not limited to: Attorney General's approval of legal sufficiency under ORS 291.047 or ratification under ORS 291.049. The Authorized Agency must obtain all other approvals required for the Contract before any reinstatement, extension of time under Subsection (6), or retroactive approval becomes binding.

(d) The DPO or CPO, as described in Subsection (3)(a), must approve the Request.

(5) Effect of Approval.

(a) An approved reinstatement of an expired Contract makes the Contract in full force and effect, as if it had not expired.

(b) An approved retroactive approval of an existing Contract makes the Contract in full force and effect, as if it had been approved by the DPO or CPO when the Contract was formed.

(c) The DPO or CPO, as appropriate, may create any related Contract documents to implement the reinstatement or retroactive approval.

(d) The Agency may make an approved payment after any related Contract documents are signed by the necessary parties.

(6) Amendments of a Reinstated Contract.

(a) If the Agency requests reinstatement of an expired Contract, the Request of the Agency may also include a request to amend the reinstated Contract for time only. The DPO or CPO, as appropriate, may approve this Request, including the amendment.

(b) The Agency may amend a reinstated or retroactively approved Contract for purposes other than time in accordance with OAR 125-246-0560.

Payment Authorization for Cost Overruns for Services Contracts

(1) Payments on Contracts for Trade or Personal Services that exceed the maximum contract consideration (Cost Overruns) require approval (Approval). If the aggregated value of the Contract, including Cost Overruns, does not exceed $150,000, the Designated Procurement Officer of the requesting Authorized Agency may approve the Cost Overruns in accordance with Section (2) of this Rule. If the aggregated value of the Contract, including Cost Overruns, exceeds $150,000, the State Procurement Office may approve the Cost Overruns in accordance with Section (2) of this Rule. The Cost Overruns may also require approval from the Department of Justice pursuant to OAR 137-045-0010 et seq.

(2) Approval may be provided if:

(a) The Original Contract was duly executed and, if required, approved by the Department and the Attorney General;

(b) Payments relate to Services that were provided during the term of the Contract;

(c) The cost overrun is not associated with any change in the Statement of Work set out in the Original Contract;

(d) The cost overrun arose out of extraordinary circumstances or conditions encountered in the course of contract performance that were reasonably not anticipated at the time the Original Contract, or the most recent Amendment, if any, was signed. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to: emergencies arising in the course of the Contract that require prompt action to protect the Work already completed, compliance with official or judicial commands or directives issued during contract performance or insurance that the purpose of the Contract will be realized;

(e) The cost overrun was incurred in good faith, results from the good faith performance by the Contractor, and is no greater than the prescribed hourly rate or the reasonable value of the additional Work or performance rendered;

(f) The aggregated value of the Contract, including the Cost Overrun, and the Contract's objective are within the procurement authority of the Authorized Agency pursuant to OAR 125-246-0170, and the Authorized Agency currently has funds available for payment under the Contract; and

(g) The Agency must prepare a Written report that describes the Authorized Agency's discovery of the Cost Overrun, the reasons for the Cost Overrun, and the Agency's satisfaction of the conditions set forth in this Section (2) (Report). The Authorized Agency must maintain this Report in its Procurement File and make this Report available to the State Procurement Office upon request.

(h) The Designated Procurement Officer of the Authorized Agency approves in Writing the payment of the overrun, or such portion of the overrun amount as the Designated Procurement Officer of the Authorized Agency determines may be paid consistent with the conditions of this Rule. If the Designated Procurement Officer of the Authorized Agency has signed the Contract, or has immediate supervisory responsibility over performance of the Contract, that Person must designate an alternate delegate to grant or deny Written approval of payment.

(3) The Authorized Agency must obtain any Attorney General's approval of the Contract Amendment, if such approval is required by ORS 291.047, before making any Cost Overrun payment.

Anti-Trust Laws

(1) Authorized Agencies must be generally informed about anti-trust laws and their prohibitions, including the prohibition of any Contract or conspiracy in restraint of trade. Violations of anti-trust laws include but are not limited to the attempt of any Person(s) to monopolize or to conspire with any other Person(s) to monopolize any trade of commerce.

(2) Violations of anti-trust laws harm competition and the policies of ORS 279A.015. Also see OAR 125-247-0500, 125-247-0575, 125-249-0370 and 125-249-0390.

Authorized Agency and Provider Communications

(1) Research Phase. Authorized Agencies are encouraged to conduct research with Providers who can meet the State's needs. This research includes but is not limited to: meetings, industry presentations, and demonstrations with any Providers that, in the Agency's discretion, may be able to meet an Agency's need. Authorized Agencies must document the items discussed during the research phase of Solicitation development. The research phase ends the day of a Solicitation release or request for a Quote according to an Intermediate Procurement, unless the Solicitation or Intermediate Procurement provides for a different process that permits on-going research.

(2) Solicitation and Contracting Phase. Any communication between an Authorized Agency and Providers regarding a Solicitation, that occurs after the Solicitation release or request for a Quote and before the Award of a Contract, must only be made within the context of the Solicitation Document or Intermediate Procurement requirements (Communication). This Communication may allow for Discussions, Negotiations, Addenda, Providers' questions, and the Agency's answers to Providers' questions about terms and conditions, Specifications, Amendments, or related matters. During this phase, telephone conversations and meetings must be documented in the Procurement File. Written inquiries regarding the Solicitation should be responded to by the Authorized Agency in Writing. A record of all material Communications regarding the Solicitation by interested Providers must be made a part of the Procurement File according to OAR 125-246-0556.

125-247-0110

Feasibility Determination, Cost Analysis and Department Report

(1) The Table of Contents for this Rule is as follows:

Section 2: Generally

Section 3: Feasibility Determination

Section 4: Cost Analysis: Estimation of Agency and Contractor Data

Section 5: Decision: Comparison of Compensation and Other Costs

Section 6: Decision: Comparison of Agency and Contracting Costs

Section 7: Department Evaluation and Report

(2) Generally.

(a) Before conducting a Procurement for Services, an Authorized Agency must, in the absence of a Feasibility Determination under Section (3) of this Rule, conduct a Written Cost Analysis under Sections (4) through (6) of this Rule (Cost Analysis).

(b) Responsibilities for the Conduct of the Cost Analysis.

(A) An Agency with procurement authority must conduct the Cost Analysis for its Agency-specific Procurements;

(B) An Agency without procurement authority must conduct the Cost Analysis for its Agency-specific Procurements to be procured by the State Procurement Office (SPO);

(C) At SPO's request, an Agency must contribute to the Cost Analysis for statewide Price Agreement Procurements; and

(D) SPO must conduct the Cost Analysis for statewide Price Agreement Procurements and SPO-specific Procurements.

(c) This Rule applies to a Procurement for Services that the Authorized Agency estimates will result in one or more Contracts with a value that exceeds $250,000 for the estimated term of the Contract(s) (Value), including incidental costs related to the Services, and Anticipated Amendments, but not Unanticipated Amendments. Authorized Agencies must not fragment to avoid this threshold (see OAR 125-246-0630).

(d) If a Procurement is conducted in accordance with this Rule, an Award is made, and one or more Unanticipated Amendments then increase the estimated contract's value over $250,000, a Cost Analysis is not required at that time.

(e) "Services" has the meaning as defined in OAR 125-246-0110, except that for purposes of this Rule only:

(A) "Services" does not include the services of an Architect, Engineer, Land Surveyor or Provider of Related Services as defined in ORS 279C.100; and

(B) "Services" does not include Client Services, defined as of August 4, 2009, in OAR 125-246-0110, as follows:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(i) "Client" means any individual, family or Provider:

(I) For whom an Agency must provide Services and incidental or specialized Goods, in any combination thereof ("Services and Incidental Supplies"), according to state, federal law, rule, and policy. Those Services and Incidental Supplies include but are not limited to treatment, care, protection, and support without regard to the proximity of the services being provided;

(II) Who in fact receives and utilizes services provided by an Agency primarily for that individual's or family's benefit;

(III) Who is under the custody, care, or both of the Agency; or

(IV) Who provides direct care or Services and is a proxy or representative of the non-Provider Client.

(ii) "Client Services" means any Services that directly or primarily support a Client, whether the Client is the recipient through the provision of voluntary or mandatory Services. Client Services also means any Goods that are incidental or specialized in relation to any Services defined in this Subsection. Client Services may include but are not limited to (where these terms are used in another statute, they must have that meaning):

(I) Housing, including utilities, rent or mortgage or assistance to pay rent, mortgage or utilities;

(II) Sustenance, including clothing;

(III) Employment training or Skills training to improve employability;

(IV) Services for people with disabilities;

(V) Foster care or foster care facilities;

(VI) Residential care or residential care facilities;

(VII) Community housing;

(VIII) In-home care including home delivered meals;

(IX) Medical care, services and treatment, including but not limited to:

(aa) Medical, Dental, Hospital, Psychological, Psychiatric, Therapy,

Vision;

(bb) Alcohol and drug treatment;

(cc) Smoking cessation;

(dd) Drugs, prescriptions and non-prescription;

(ee) Nursing services and facilities;

(ff) Transportation or relocation;

(gg) Quality of life, living skills training; or

(hh) Personal care; or

(ii) Legal services and expert witnesses services;

(jj) Religious practices, traditions and services, separately or in any combination thereof; and

(kk) Educational services. The term "Client Services" does not include benefits or services provided as a condition of employment with an Agency.

(3) Feasibility Determination. An Authorized Agency may proceed with the Procurement of Services without conducting a Cost Analysis if the Authorized Agency makes Written findings that one or more of the Special Circumstances described in Subsection (3)(b) make the Authorized Agency's use of its own personnel and resources to provide the Services not feasible (Feasibility Determination).

(a) Approval of Feasibility Determination.

(A) The Designated Procurement Officer or delegate (DPO) of an Authorized Agency must approve the Feasibility Determination for its Procurement;

(B) The DPO of an Agency without authority must approve the Feasibility Determination for an Agency-specific Procurement to be procured by the State Procurement Office (SPO) on behalf of that Agency;

(C) The Chief Procurement Officer or delegate (CPO) must approve the Feasibility Determination for a statewide Price Agreement Procurement or SPO-specific Procurement. At SPO's request, DPOs must cooperate with SPO to prepare the findings for the Feasibility Determination for a statewide Price Agreement Procurement.

(b) Special Circumstances. Special Circumstances include any circumstances, conditions or occurrences that would make the Services, if performed by the Authorized Agency's employees, incapable of being managed, utilized or dealt with successfully in terms of the quality, timeliness of completion, success in obtaining desired results, or other reasonable needs of the Authorized Agency. Special Circumstances may include, but are not limited to, the following circumstances:

(A) Expertise. The DPO approves a determination that the Authorized Agency lacks the specialized capabilities, experience, or technical or other expertise necessary to perform the Services. In making the finding, the Authorized Agency must compare the Authorized Agency's capability, experience or expertise in the field most closely involved in performing the Services with a potential contractor's capability, experience or expertise in the same or a similar field.

(B) Funding Requirement. The terms under which the Authorized Agency receives a grant or other funds for use in a Procurement require the Authorized Agency to obtain Services through an independent contractor;

(C) Law Requirement. Other state or federal law requires the Authorized Agency to procure Services through an independent contractor;

(D) Real or Personal Property. The Procurement is for Services that are incidental to a contract for purchasing or leasing real or personal property, including service and maintenance agreements for equipment that is leased or rented;

(E) Conflict of Interest; Unbiased Review. The Authorized Agency cannot accomplish policy, administrative or legal goals, including but not limited to avoiding conflicts of interest or ensuring independent or unbiased findings in cases when using the Authorized Agency's existing personnel or persons the Authorized Agency could hire through a regular or ordinary process would not be suitable;

(F) Emergency Procurement. The Procurement is for Services to which the provisions of ORS 279B.080 apply;

(G) Delay. The Procurement is for Services, the need for which is so urgent, temporary or occasional that attempting to perform the Services with the Authorized Agency's own personnel or resources would cause a delay that would frustrate the purpose for obtaining the Services; and

(H) Services Completed within Six Months. The Services that the Authorized Agency intends to procure will be completed within six months after the date on which the contract for the Services is executed.

(c) Procurement File. All written determinations required in this Section (3) must be made a part of the Procurement File in accordance with OAR 125-246-0556.

(4) Cost Analysis: Estimation of Agency and Contractor Data.

(a) Costs of Using Authorized Agency's Own Personnel and Resources. The Authorized Agency must estimate the Authorized Agency's cost of performing the Services and consider cost factors that include:

(A) Salaries or Wages and Benefits. The salary or wage and benefit costs for the employees of the Authorized Agency who would be directly involved in performing the Services, to the extent those costs reflect the proportion of the activity of those employees in the direct provision of the Services. These costs include those salary or wage and benefit costs of the employees who inspect, supervise or monitor the performance of the Services, to the extent those costs reflect the proportion of the activity of those employees in the direct inspection, supervision or monitoring of the performance of the Services.

(B) Material Costs. The material costs necessary to the performance of the Services, including the costs for space, energy, transportation, storage, raw and finished materials, equipment and supplies used or consumed in the provision of the Services.

(C) Related Costs.

(i) Costs incurred in planning for, training for, starting up, implementing, transporting and delivering the Services.

(ii) Any costs related to stopping and dismantling a project or operation because the Authorized Agency intends to procure a limited quantity of Services or to procure the Services within a defined or limited period of time.

(iii) The miscellaneous costs related to performing the Services, including but not limited to reasonably foreseeable fluctuations in the costs for the items identified in this Subsection (4)(a) over the expected duration of the Procurement. These costs exclude the Authorized Agency's indirect overhead costs for existing salaries or wages and benefits for administrators and exclude costs for rent, equipment, utilities and materials, except to the extent the cost items identified in this sentence are attributed solely to performing the Services and would not be incurred unless the Authorized Agency performed the Services.

(D) Other Information. The Authorized Agency's costs described in this Subsection (4)(a)(A) do not constitute an exclusive list of cost information. An Authorized Agency may consider other reliable information that bears on the cost to the Authorized Agency of performing the Services. For example, if the Authorized Agency has accounted for its actual costs of performing the Services under consideration, or reasonably comparable Services, in a relatively recent Services project, the Authorized Agency may consider those actual costs in making its estimate.

(b) Costs a Potential Contractor Would Incur. The Authorized Agency must estimate the cost a potential Contractor would incur in performing the Services and consider cost factors that include:

(A) Salaries or Wages and Benefits. The estimated salary or wage and benefit costs for a potential Contractor and potential Contractor's employees who work in the business or industry most closely involved in performing the Services; and who would be necessary and directly involved in performing the Services or who would inspect, supervise, or monitor the performance of the Services.

(i) The Authorized Agency may, but is not required to, communicate with any actual Contractor for information related to this estimate (see OAR 125-246-0635).

(ii) The Authorized Agency may consider in making this estimate any public source of information, including but not limited to:

(I) Other Contracts of the Authorized Agency or another Agency for reasonably comparable services;

(II) Trade or other marketplace websites;

(III) Industry or professional associations and publications;

(IV) The Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries or an agency of another jurisdiction that performs comparable functions; and

(V) A survey of Persons who provide reasonably comparable services by means including but not limited to Internet or telephone searches.

(B) Material Costs. The material costs necessary to the performance of the Services, including the costs for space, energy, transportation, storage,

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

raw and finished materials, equipment and supplies used or consumed in the provision of the Services.

(C) Related Costs. The miscellaneous costs related to performing the Services. These miscellaneous costs include but are not limited to reasonably foreseeable fluctuations in the costs listed in Subsections (4)(b)(A) through (C) over the expected duration of the Procurement.

(D) Other Information. The potential Contractor's costs described in Subsections (4)(b)(A) through (C) do not constitute an exclusive list of cost information. An Authorized Agency may consider other reliable information that bears on the costs a potential Contractor would incur. For example, if in the recent past, the Authorized Agency conducted a Solicitation that required cost information or permitted negotiation of price based on a cost analysis for Services reasonably comparable to the current Services, the Authorized Agency may use that cost information in estimating the costs of current Services.

(5) Decision: Comparison of Compensation and Other Costs.

(a) The Authorized Agency must compare:

(A) The Authorized Agency's estimated costs under Subsection (4)(a) and

(B) The Contractor's estimated costs under Subsection (4)(b).

(b) Decision. If the Authorized Agency's costs exceed the Contractor's costs under Subsection (5)(a) for the sole reason that the Contractor's costs for salaries or wages and benefits under Subsection (4)(b)(A) are lower than the Authorized Agency's costs for salaries or wages and benefits under Subsection (4)(a)(A), then the Authorized Agency may not conduct the Procurement.

(6) Decision: Comparison of Agency and Contracting Costs.

(a) If Subsection (5)(b) does not apply, the Authorized Agency must compare:

(A) The Authorized Agency's estimated costs under Subsection (4)(a) and

(B) The total estimated costs that the Authorized Agency would incur in procuring the Services from a Contractor (Contracting Costs).

(b) Profit Included. Contracting Costs include the Authorized Agency's estimate of Contractor's profit in addition to the estimate of Contractor's costs under Subsection (4)(b). If the Authorized Agency, in the reasonably near past, received Bids or Proposals for the performance of the Services under consideration, or reasonably comparable services, the Authorized Agency may consider the pricing offered in those Bids or Proposals in making its estimate. Similarly, the Authorized Agency may consider what it actually paid under a Contract for the same or similar services. For the purposes of these examples, the reasonably near past is limited to Contracts, Bids or Proposals entered into or received within the five (5) years preceding the date of the cost estimate. The Authorized Agency must take into account, when considering the pricing offered in previous Bids, Proposals, or Contracts, adjustments to the pricing in light of measures of market price adjustments that apply to the Services, such as the Consumer Price Indexes.

(c) Decision. If the Authorized Agency's Contracting Cost under this Section is lower than the Authorized Agency's cost under Subsection (4)(a), the Authorized Agency may conduct the Procurement. If the Authorized Agency's Contracting Cost is higher than the Authorized Agency's cost under Subsection (4)(a), the Authorized Agency may not conduct the Procurement, unless the Exception of Subsection (6)(d) applies

(d) Exception Based on Lack of Agency Personnel and Resources; Reporting. If the Authorized Agency determines that it would incur less cost in providing the Services with its own personnel and resources, the Authorized Agency may still conduct the Procurement if, at the time the Authorized Agency intends to conduct the Procurement, the Authorized Agency determines that it lacks personnel and resources to perform the Services within the time the Authorized Agency requires the Services (Exception). When an Authorized Agency conducts a Procurement under this Exception, the Authorized Agency must:

(A) Make and keep a Written determination that it lacks personnel and resources to perform the Services within the time the Authorized Agency requires the Services and the basis for the Authorized Agency's decision to conduct the Procurement;

(B) Obtain the Written approval by the DPO of the Authorized Agency of the Exception before conducting an Agency-specific Procurement or the Written approval by the CPO of the Exception before SPO conducts a Procurement.

(C) Provide to the Emergency Board, each calendar quarter, copies of each Cost Analysis, Exception, and any other records described in this Subsection (6)(d);

(D) Prepare a request to the Governor for an appropriation and authority necessary for the Authorized Agency to hire personnel and obtain resources necessary to perform the Services that the Authorized Agency procured under this Subsection (6)(d). The request must include a copy of the records that the Authorized Agency provided to the Emergency Board under Subsection (6)(d)(C).

(7) Department Evaluation and Report.

(a) Application. This Section applies to all public bodies authorized by law to conduct a Procurement, except for the Judicial Department and the Legislative Department (Public Bodies, for this Rule only). Public Bodies include state and local agencies with contracting authority under ORS 279A.140, 279A.050, and related rules.

(b) Evaluation.

(A) The State Procurement Office, in consultation with other Public Bodies, must evaluate the extent to which Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 880 and this Rule (Law), aided the Public Bodies in making their determinations as to whether to procure Services or to perform Services with the Public Bodies' own personnel and resources (Determinations).

(B) For the purpose of this Evaluation, Public Bodies must keep and make available to the State Procurement Office, only at its discretion and upon its request, all records and internal evaluations related to whether the Law aided them in making their Determinations.

(c) Report. The State Procurement Office must report the results of the consultation and Evaluation to the Legislative Assembly on January 10, 2011.

Buy Decision and Methods of Source Selection

(1) Buy Decision. The Buy Decision means the decision to buy Supplies and Services through socio-economic programs, agreements, or the open market (Source). The Agencies' authority to select a Source under this Section is outside OAR 125-246-0170. See the specific Statute or Rules for the authority to use each Source.

(2) Priority. Agencies must make their Buy Decision in the priority order set forth in Subsections A through D (Priority). If a higher Priority Source satisfies a Procurement, the Agency must procure through that higher Priority Source and may not elect to procure through a lower Priority Source.

(a) Surplus Property. Procuring from surplus property promotes the efficient use of existing resources (see OAR 125-050-0100 through 125-050-0400).

(b) Qualified Rehabilitation Facilities (QRFs). Assists individuals with disabilities through gainful employment (see ORS 279.835 through 279.855 and OAR 125-055-0005 through 125-055-0045).

(c) Inmate Labor. See the Oregon Constitution, Article I, Section 41.

(d) Statewide DAS Price Agreement. Promotes economy and efficiency through volume and strategic purchases (see OAR 125-247-0296). To determine if a Price Agreement exists go to ORPIN and perform a "Statewide Contract Search" or an "Award Search" for "active" Contracts. Under ORS 279A.140, DAS has the procurement authority to establish and administer statewide Price Agreements, and according to the terms of each Price Agreement, DAS delegates the procurement authority to the Agencies to use these Price Agreements.

(3) ORS 190 Agreement. Section (2) does not apply to ORS 190 Agreements that promote the use of existing state resources, including an Interagency Agreement, Intergovernmental Agreement, Interstate Agreement, International Agreement, or Tribal Agreement (see OAR 125-246-0365). An Agency may elect to use an ORS 190 Agreement at any time.

(4) Open Market. If Sections (2) and (3) do not apply, the Agency may procure Supplies and Services through the open market, using the methods provided under the Public Contracting Code, related Rules, and policies. See ORS 279AB, OAR 125-246 and 247.

(5) Methods of Source Selection. An Authorized Agency must award a Contract for Supplies and Services by one of the following seven sourcing methods in accordance with the Code and related Rules:

(a) Competitive Sealed Bidding according to ORS 279B.055;

(b) Competitive Sealed Proposals according to ORS 279B.060;

(c) Small Procurement according to ORS 279B.065;

(d) Intermediate Procurement according to ORS 279B.070;

(e) Sole-Source Procurement according to ORS 279B.075;

(f) Emergency Procurement according to ORS 279B.080; or

(g) Special Procurement according to ORS 279B.085. A Cooperative Procurement in accordance with OAR 125-246-0400 through 125-246-0470 substantially uses a Competitive Sealed Bidding or Competitive Sealed Proposals method.

(a) Multistep Invitation to Bid: Phases

(b) Revised Rounds of Bidding

Section 5: Prequalification or Request for Qualifications

(2) Generally.

(a) Application. An Authorized Agency may procure Supplies and Services by Competitive Sealed Bidding as set forth in ORS 279B.055 and use one or more or any combination of the procedures described in this Rule. An Invitation to Bid is used to initiate a Competitive Sealed Bidding Solicitation and must contain the information required by ORS 279B.055(2) and by this Rule.

(b) Public Notice. The Authorized Agency must provide public notice of the Competitive Sealed Bidding Solicitation as set forth in OAR 125-247-0305.

(3) Invitation to Bid. In addition to the provisions required by ORS 279B.055(2), the Invitation to Bid must include the following:

(a) General Information.

(A) Notice of any pre-Offer conference as follows:

(i) The time, date and location of any pre-Offer conference;

(ii) Whether attendance at the conference will be mandatory or voluntary; and

(iii) A provision that provides that statements made by the Authorized Agency's representatives at the conference are not binding upon the Authorized Agency unless confirmed by Written Addendum.

(B) The form and instructions for submission of Bids and any other special information, e.g., whether Bids may be submitted by electronic means (See OAR 125-247-0330 for required provisions of electronic Bids);

(C) The time, date and place of Opening;

(D) The office where the Solicitation Document may be reviewed;

(E) A statement that each Bidder must identify whether the Bidder is a "resident Bidder," as defined in ORS 279A.120(1);

(F) Bidder's certification of nondiscrimination in obtaining required subcontractors in accordance with ORS 279A.110(4). (See OAR 125-246-0210(2));

(G) How the Authorized Agency will notify Bidders of Addenda and how the Authorized Agency will make Addenda available (See OAR 125-247-0430); and

(H) The requirement, if applicable, for the awarded Bidder to obtain or subcontract labor, materials, or labor and materials from a supplier registered as an Emerging Small Business.

(b) Authorized Agency Need to Purchase. The character of the Supplies and Services the Authorized Agency is purchasing including, if applicable, a description of the acquisition, Specifications, delivery or performance schedule, inspection and acceptance requirements. For Services as required by Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 880, Section 5, the Authorized Agency's description of its need to purchase must:

(A) Identify the scope of the work to be performed under the resulting Contract, if the Authorized Agency awards one;

(B) Outline the anticipated duties of the Contractor under any resulting Contract;

(C) Establish the expectations for the Contractor's performance of any resulting Contract; and

(D) Unless the Authorized Agency for Good Cause specifies otherwise, the scope of work must require the Contractor to meet the highest standards prevalent in the industry or business most closely involved in providing the Supplies or Services that the Authorized Agency is purchasing.

(c) Bidding and Evaluation Process.

(A) The anticipated Solicitation schedule, deadlines, protest process, and evaluation process;

(B) The Authorized Agency must set forth objective evaluation criteria in the Solicitation Document; and

(C) If the Authorized Agency intends to award Contracts to more than one Bidder according to OAR 125-247-0600(4)(d), the Authorized Agency must identify in the Solicitation Document the manner in which it will determine the number of Contracts it will Award. This may be left to the Authorized Agency's discretion at the time of the Award, provided it is so described in the Solicitation.

(d) Applicable Preferences according to ORS 279B.055(6)(b).

(A) Preference for Oregon Supplies and Services, according to ORS 279A.120 and OAR 125-246-0300 and 125-246-0310;

(B) Preference for recycled materials, according to ORS 279A.125 and OAR 125-246-0320 through 125-246-0324; and

(C) Performance with the State of public printing, binding and stationery Work, according to ORS 282.210.

(e) Certification if Required. For Authorized Agencies subject to ORS 305.385, Contractor's certification of compliance with the Oregon tax laws in accordance with ORS 305.385.

(f) Terms and Conditions. All contractual terms and conditions in the form of Contract provisions the Authorized Agency determines are applicable to the Procurement. For Services as required by Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 880, Section 5, the Contract terms and conditions must specify the consequences of the Contractor's failure to perform the scope of work or to meet the performance standards established by the resulting Contract. Those consequences may include, but are not limited to:

(A) The Authorized Agency's right to reduce or withhold payment under the Contract;

(B) The Authorized Agency's right to require the Contractor to perform, at the Contractor's expense, any additional work necessary to perform the statement of work or to meet the performance standards established by the resulting Contract; and

(C) The Authorized Agency's rights, which the Authorized Agency may assert individually or in combination, to declare a default of the resulting Contract, to terminate the resulting Contract, and to seek damages and other relief available under the resulting Contract or applicable law.

(4) Good Cause Finding. For the purposes of this Rule, "Good Cause" means a reasonable explanation for not requiring Contractor to meet the highest standards, and may include an explanation of circumstances that support a finding that the requirement would unreasonably limit competition or is not in the best interest of the Authorized Agency. The Authorized Agency must document in the Procurement File the basis for the determination of Good Cause to specify otherwise. An Authorized Agency will have Good Cause to specify otherwise under the following circumstances:

(a) The use or purpose to which the Supplies or Services will be used does not justify a requirement that the Contractor meet the highest prevalent standards in performing the Contract;

(b) Imposing express technical, standard, dimensional or mathematical specifications will better ensure that the Supplies or Services will be compatible with or will operate efficiently or effectively with components, equipment, parts, Services or information Technology including hardware, Services or software with which the Supplies or Services will be used, integrated, or coordinated;

(c) The circumstances of the industry or business that provides the Supplies or Services are sufficiently volatile in terms of innovation or evolution of products, performance techniques, scientific developments, that a reliable highest prevalent standard does not exist or has not been developed;

(d) Any other circumstances in which Authorized Agency's interest in achieving economy, efficiency, compatibility or availability in the Procurement of the Supplies or Services reasonably outweighs the Authorized Agency's practical need for the highest prevalent standard in the applicable or closest industry or business that supplies the Supplies or Services to be delivered under the resulting Contract.

(5) Optional Procedures. A step and a round have the same meaning for purposes of putting into practice ORS 279B.055(12). All of the procedures described in ORS 279B.055(12) and this Rule may be collectively referred to in Division 247 as a "Multistep Sealed Bidding."

(a) Multistep Invitation to Bid: Phases.

(A) A Multistep Invitation to Bid is a phased procurement process that seeks necessary information or unpriced submittals in Phase One, followed by a Phase Two of competitive sealed bidding, inviting Bidders who submitted eligible Bids in Phase One to submit competitive sealed price Bids on the unpriced submittals in Phase Two. The Authorized Agency initially issues a Multistep Invitation to Bid, requesting the submission of unpriced submittals. This Phase One may include multiple steps, at the discretion of the Authorized Agency, in order to obtain necessary information or unpriced submittals. At the conclusion of Phase One, the Authorized Agency evaluates those unpriced submittals to determine the eligibility of the Bidders to submit priced Bids. After this determination, the Authorized Agency may begin Phase Two by issuing subsequent Invitations to Bid, limited to those Bidders eligible to submit priced Bids. The Contract must be awarded to the lowest Responsible Bidder or to multiple Responsible Bidders in accordance with ORS 279B.055(10).

(B) Public Notice. Whenever an Authorized Agency uses a Multistep Invitation to Bid, the Authorized Agency must give public notice for Phase One in accordance with OAR 125-247-0305. Public notice is not required for subsequent steps in Phase One, unless a step in Phase One expands the number of Bidders, and then public notice is required. Public notice is not required for Phase Two. However, an Authorized Agency must give notice to all Bidders from Phase One (Bidders). If an Authorized Agency elects to provide a protest opportunity for Addenda issued after the Closing of Phase One according to OAR 125-247-0430, then the Authorized Agency must give notice to the Bidders of this right to protest such Addenda. If an Authorized Agency elects to provide an opportunity to protest exclusion from Phase Two according to OAR 125-247-0720, then the Authorized Agency must give notice to the Bidders of this right to protest such exclusion.

(C) General Procedures. In addition to the procedures set forth in OAR 125-247-0300 through 125-247-0490, an Authorized Agency must comply with the following procedures set forth in this Subsection (5)(a):

(i) Solicitation Protest. Before the Closing of Phase One, an Authorized Agency must provide an opportunity to protest the Solicitation under ORS 279B.405 and OAR 125-247-0730.

(ii) Addenda Protest. An Authorized Agency may provide an opportunity to protest any Addenda issued after closing of Phase Two according to OAR 125-247-0430(3)(b).

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(iii) Exclusion Protest. An Authorized Agency may provide an opportunity for a Bidder to protest exclusion from Phase Two as set forth in OAR 125-247-0720.

(iv) Administrative Remedy. Bidders may submit a protest to any Addenda or to any action by the Authorized Agency that has the effect of excluding the Bidder from a Phase Two to the extent such protests are provided for in the Solicitation Document or required by this Section (5). Failure to so protest must be considered the Bidder's failure to pursue an administrative remedy made available to the Bidder by the Authorized Agency.

(v) Award Protest. An Authorized Agency must provide an opportunity to protest its intent to award a Contract according to ORS 279B.410 and OAR 125-247-0740. An Affected Bidder may protest, for any of the bases set forth in OAR 125-247-0720(2), its exclusion from Phase Two or an Addendum issued following Closing of Phase One if the Authorized Agency did not previously provide Bidders the opportunity to protest such exclusion or Addendum.

(D) Procedure for Phase One.

(i) Form. Authorized Agency must initiate a Multistep Invitation to Bid by the issuance of an Invitation to Bid in the form and manner required for Competitive Sealed Bidding, except as hereinafter provided. In addition to the requirements set forth in OAR 125-247-0255(1) and (2), the Invitation to Bid must state:

(I) That unpriced submittals are requested;

(II) Whether price Bids are to be submitted at the same time as unpriced submittals; if they are, that such price Bids must be submitted in a separate sealed envelope;

(III) That the Solicitation is a multistep Invitation to Bid, and priced Bids will be considered only in Phase Two and only from those Bidders whose unpriced submittals are found eligible in Phase One;

(IV) The criteria to be used in the evaluation of unpriced submittals;

(V) That the Authorized Agency, to the extent that it finds necessary, may conduct oral or Written Discussions for the purposes of clarification of the unpriced submittals;

(VI) That the Supplies and Services being procured must be furnished generally in accordance with the Bidder's unpriced submittal as found to be finally eligible and must meet the requirements of the Invitation to Bid; and

(VII) Whether Bidders excluded from Phase Two have a right to protest the exclusion before the notice of intent to award. Such information must be included in the Bid Solicitation or changed by Addenda.

(ii) Addenda to the Invitation to Bid. After receipt of unpriced submittals in Phase One, Addenda to the Invitation to Bid must be distributed only to Bidders who submitted unpriced submittals.

(iii) Receipt and Handling of Unpriced Submittals. Unpriced submittals in Phase One do not need to be opened publicly.

(iv) Evaluation of Unpriced Submittals. Unpriced submittals submitted by Bidders in Phase One must be evaluated solely in accordance with the criteria set forth in the Invitation to Bid. Unpriced submittals must be categorized as:

(I) Eligible;

(II) Potentially eligible; that is, reasonably susceptible of being made eligible; or

(III) Ineligible. The Authorized Agency must record in Writing the basis for determining an unpriced submittal ineligible and make it part of the Procurement File in accordance with OAR 125-246-0355. The Authorized Agency may initiate the Phase Two of the procedure if, in the Authorized Agency's opinion, there are sufficient eligible unpriced submittals to assure effective price competition in Phase Two without Discussions. If the Authorized Agency finds that such is not the case, the Authorized Agency may issue an Addendum to the Invitation to Bid or engage in Discussions as set forth in Subsection (2)(e) of this Rule.

(v) Discussion of Unpriced Submittals. The Authorized Agency may seek clarification of an unpriced submittal by any eligible or potentially eligible Bidder. During the course of such Discussions, the Authorized Agency may not disclose any information derived from one unpriced submittal to any other Bidder. Once Discussions have begun, any Bidder who has not been notified that its unpriced submittal has been found ineligible, may submit supplemental information amending its unpriced submittal, at any time until the Closing of the Phase Two. Such submission may be made at the request of the Authorized Agency or upon the Bidder's own initiative.

(vi) Notice of Ineligible Unpriced Submittal. When the Authorized Agency determines a Bidder's unpriced submittal to be ineligible, such Bidder may not be afforded an additional opportunity to supplement its unpriced submittal.

(vii) Mistakes during a Multistep Invitation to Bid. Mistakes may be corrected or unpriced submittals may be withdrawn during Phase One in accordance with OAR 125-247-0470 and:

(I) Before unpriced submittals are considered;

(II) After any Discussions have commenced under Subsection (5)(e); or

(III) When responding to any Addenda of the Invitation to Bid.

(viii) Revisions to Solicitation Specifications. After the Closing of Phase One, the Authorized Agency may issue Addenda that modify the Specifications, references, and other terms and conditions of the Invitation to Bid. The Authorized Agency must provide such Addenda to all Bidders who initially submitted Unpriced Submittals. The Authorized Agency may then require Bidders to submit revised Unpriced Submittals.

(E) Procedure for Phase Two of Multistep Sealed Bidding.

(i) Initiation. Upon the completion of Phase One, the Authorized Agency must invite each eligible Bidder to submit a price Bid.

(ii) Conduct. An Authorized Agency must conduct Phase Two as any other Competitive Sealed Bidding Procurement except:

(I) As specifically set forth in this Rule; and

(II) Public notice does not need to be given of this invitation to submit price Bids since such notice was previously given.

(b) Revised Rounds of Bidding.

(A) Revised Rounds of Bidding means a process that begins with an initial round of Competitive Sealed Bidding according to OAR 125-247-0255 and may, at the discretion of the Authorized Agency, include successive rounds of Bidding in order for the Authorized Agency to gain the best Offer for purposes of Award. An Authorized Agency may revise the Solicitation's Specifications, terms and conditions, and pricing structure for successive rounds to best meet the State's needs. Bidders will be allowed adequate time to revise and resubmit their Bids in accordance with the requirements set forth in the newly revised Solicitation Document. At each successive round, Authorized Agency may disregard its scoring of prior Bids and commence new scoring for the new Bids. The Authorized Agency must comply with the following procedures for this type of Solicitation:

(B) Revisions. An Authorized Agency may reject any Bid, after any round, because the Bid did not meet a minimum score or minimum set of requirements. An Authorized Agency may then proceed with a subsequent round that requires additional Bids to be submitted, based on different Specifications, terms and conditions, pricing structure, scoring model, references and set of award criteria, separately or in any combination thereof, in order to best meet the State's interests (Revisions). If any Revision is made by an Authorized Agency in any subsequent round, the Authorized Agency has the right, in its sole discretion, to permit any Bidder whose Bid was previously rejected to submit a new Bid, if the reason(s) for the rejection of the prior Bid by that Bidder no longer applies.

(C) Public Notice. An Authorized Agency must give public notice according to OAR 125-247-0305. The initial Solicitation Document must disclose that a Revised Rounds of Bidding process will or may be used. An Authorized Agency must give notice to all initial Bidders of any Revision(s) in the Specifications, terms and conditions, pricing structure, scoring model, and set of award criteria, separately or in any combination thereof. If an Authorized Agency discloses any prices, terms or conditions offered by other Bidders, the Authorized Agency will give notice of these disclosures to the initial Bidders. At the end of the process, the Authorized Agency must give a Notice of Intent to award at least seven (7) calendar Days before making the Award. Following clarifications and additional investigations, an Offeror may be reinstated or disqualified at any stage of the evaluation process.

(2) Generally.

(a) Application. An Authorized Agency may procure Supplies and Services by Competitive Sealed Proposals as set forth in ORS 279B.060 and use one or more or any combination of the procedures described in this Rule. A Request for Proposals is a Solicitation Document used to initiate Competitive Sealed Proposals.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Public Notice. The Authorized Agency must provide public notice of the Request for Proposals as set forth in OAR 125-247-0305.

(3) Request for Proposals. The Request for Proposals must include the following:

(a) General Information.

(A) Notice of any pre-Proposal conference as follows:

(i) The time, date and location of any pre-Proposal conference; and

(ii) Whether attendance at the conference will be mandatory or voluntary; and

(iii) A provision that provides that statements made by the Authorized Agency's representatives at the conference are not binding upon the Authorized Agency unless confirmed by Written Addendum.

(B) The form and instructions for submission of Proposals and any other special information, e.g., whether Proposals may be submitted by electronic means (See OAR 125-247-0330 for required provisions of electronic Proposals), the name and title of the person designated for receipt of Proposals and the person designated by the Authorized Agency as the contact person for the procurement, if different;

(C) The time and date by which sealed Proposals must be received, and a place at which the Proposals must be submitted, and may, in the sole discretion of the Authorized Agency, direct or permit the submission and receipt of Proposals by electronic means (see also (ORS 279B.060(5)(a)));

(D) Proposer's certification of nondiscrimination in obtaining required subcontractors in accordance with ORS 279A.110(4). (See OAR 125-246-0210(2)); and

(E) How the Authorized Agency will notify Proposers of Addenda and how the Authorized Agency will make Addenda available. (See OAR 125-247-0430).

(b) Authorized Agency Need to Purchase. The character of the Supplies and Services the Authorized Agency is purchasing, including if applicable, a description of the procurement process, Specifications, scope of work, delivery or performance schedule, inspection and acceptance requirements. For Services as required by Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 880, Section 6, the Authorized Agency's description of its need to purchase must:

(A) Identify the scope of the work to be performed under the resulting Contract, if the Authorized Agency awards one;

(B) Outline the anticipated duties of the Contractor under any resulting Contract;

(C) Establish the expectations for the Contractor's performance of any resulting Contract; and

(D) Unless the Contractor under any resulting Contract will provide Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services that are subject to ORS 279C.100 to 279C.125, or the Authorized Agency for Good Cause specifies otherwise, the scope of work must require the Contractor to meet the highest standards prevalent in the industry or business most closely involved in providing the Supplies or Services that the Authorized Agency is purchasing.

(c) The time, date and location that responsibility prequalification applications, if any, must be filed and the classes of work, if any, for which Proposers must be prequalified in accordance with ORS 279B.120;

(d) All contractual terms and conditions in the form of Contract provisions the Authorized Agency determines are applicable to the Procurement. For Services as required by Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 880, Section 6, the Contract terms and conditions must specify the consequences of the Contractor's failure to perform the scope of work or to meet the performance standards established by the resulting Contract. Those consequences may include, but are not limited to:

(A) The Authorized Agency's right to reduce or withhold payment under the Contract;

(B) The Authorized Agency's right to require the Contractor to perform, at the Contractor's expense, any additional work necessary to perform the statement of work or to meet the performance standards established by the resulting Contract; and

(C) The Authorized Agency's rights, which the Authorized Agency may assert individually or in combination, to declare a default of the resulting Contract, to terminate the resulting Contract, and to seek damages and other relief available under the resulting Contract or applicable law.

(e) The Authorized Agency may include the applicable contractual terms and conditions in the form of Contract provisions, or legal concepts to be included in the resulting Contract. Further, the Authorized Agency may specify that it will include or use Proposer's terms and conditions that have been pre-negotiated under OAR 125-247-0550, but the Authorized Agency may only include or use a Proposer's pre-negotiated terms and conditions in the resulting Contract to the extent those terms and conditions do not materially conflict with the applicable Contract terms and conditions. The Authorized Agency must not agree to any Proposer's terms and conditions that were expressly rejected in a solicitation protest under OAR 125-247-0730.

(f) For multiple Award Contracts, the Authorized Agency may enter into Contracts with different terms and conditions with each Contractor to the extent those terms and conditions do not materially conflict with the applicable contractual terms and conditions. The Authorized Agency must not agree to any Proposer's terms and conditions that were expressly rejected in a solicitation protest under OAR 125-247-0730.

(g) Identification of those contractual terms or conditions, if any, the Authorized Agency reserves for negotiation with Proposers; Authorized Agency may also request that Proposers propose, for negotiation, contractual terms and conditions that relate to subject matter reasonably identified in the Request for Proposals.

(h) Proposal Evaluation and Contractor Selection Process.

(A) The anticipated Solicitation schedule, deadlines, protest process, and evaluation process;

(B) Solicitation, multi-tiered and multi-step protest requirements (Refer to OAR 125-247-0720 and 125-247-0730);

(C) Any optional procedure as described in 125-247-0260(4);

(D) If the Authorized Agency intends to award Contracts to more than one Proposer according to OAR 125-247-0600(4)(d), the Authorized Agency must identify in the Solicitation Document the manner in which it will determine the number of Contracts it will award. This may be left to the Authorized Agency's discretion at the time of the Award, provided it is so described in the Solicitation; and

(E) If the Authorized Agency's solicitation process provides for the possibility of Proposer interviews, the evaluation committee may elect to interview Proposers if the evaluation committee considers it necessary or desirable. If the evaluation committee conducts interviews, it must award weights, points or other classifications indicated in the Request for Proposals for the anticipated interview.

(i) The Authorized Agency must set forth the selection methodology and criteria in the Solicitation Document.

(A) The selection methodology may include, but is not limited to, negotiation with the highest ranked Proposer, competitive negotiations, multiple-tiered competition designed to identify a class of Proposers that fall within a competitive range or to otherwise eliminate from consideration a class of lower ranked Proposers, or any one or more or combination of procedures described in Rule;

(B) Criteria used to evaluate Proposals must include, but is not limited to, the relative importance of price and any other evaluation factors used to rate the Proposals in the first tier of competition, and if more than one tier of competitive evaluation may be used, a description of the process under which the Proposals will be evaluated in the subsequent tiers.

(i) Evaluation criteria need not be precise predictors of actual future costs and performance, but to the extent possible, such factors must be reasonable estimates of actual future costs based on information available to the Authorized Agency;

(ii) If the Authorized Agency intends to award Contracts to more than one Proposer according to OAR 125-247-0600(4)(d), the Authorized Agency must identify in the Solicitation Document the manner in which it will determine the number of Contracts it will award. This may be left to the Authorized Agency's discretion at the time of the Award, provided it is so described in the Solicitation.

(iii) The Authorized Agency may require Proposal security in any form it deems prudent. Proposal security shall serve the same function with respect to Requests for Proposals as bid security serves with respect to Invitations to Bid under ORS 279B.055.

(j) Applicable Preferences.

(A) Preference for Oregon Supplies and Services, according to ORS 279A.120 and OAR 125-246-0300 and 125-246-0310;

(B) Preference for recycled materials, according to ORS 279A.125 and OAR 125-246-0320 through 125-246-0324; and

(C) Performance with the State of public printing, binding and stationery Work, according to ORS 282.210.

(D) Agricultural Preference, according to OAR 125-246-0312.

(E) Disabled Veterans Preference, according to OAR 125-246-0314.

(k) Certification if Requested. For Authorized Agencies subject to ORS 305.385, Contractor's certification of compliance with the Oregon tax laws in accordance with ORS 305.385.

(l) Required Statements or Information. Requests for Proposals must include:

(A) A statement that "Contractors shall use recyclable products to the maximum extent economically feasible in the performance of the contract work set forth in this document." If the Request for Proposals is issued by an Authorized Agency;

(B) A statement that the Authorized Agency may cancel the procurement or reject any or all Proposals in accordance with ORS 279B.100;

(C) A statement that requires the contractor or subcontractor to possess an asbestos abatement license, if required under ORS 468A.710;

(m) Expectations and Standards. Authorized Agencies must comply with ORS 279B.060, as revised by Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 880.

(n) Terms and Conditions. All contractual terms and conditions applicable to the Procurement, including a provision indicating whether the Contractor can assign the Contract, delegate its duties, or subcontract the delivery of the Supplies and Services without prior Written approval from the Authorized Agency.

(4) Good Cause Finding. For the purposes of this Rule, "Good Cause" means a reasonable explanation for not requiring Contractor to meet the highest standards, and may include an explanation of circumstances that support a finding that the requirement would unreasonably limit competition or is not in the best interest of the Authorized Agency. The Authorized Agency must document in the Procurement File the basis for the determination of Good Cause to specify otherwise. An Authorized Agency will have Good Cause to specify otherwise under the following circumstances:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) The use or purpose to which the Supplies or Services will be put does not justify a requirement that the Contractor meet the highest prevalent standards in performing the Contract;

(b) Imposing express technical, standard, dimensional or mathematical specifications will better ensure that the Supplies or Services will be compatible with or will operate efficiently or effectively with, associated information technology hardware, software, components, equipment, parts, or ongoing Services with which the Supplies or Services will be used, integrated, or coordinated;

(c) The circumstances of the industry or business that provides the Supplies or Services are sufficiently volatile in terms of innovation or evolution of products, performance techniques, scientific developments, that a reliable highest prevalent standard does not exist or has not been developed;

(d) Any other circumstances in which Authorized Agency's interest in achieving economy, efficiency, compatibility or availability in the Procurement of the Supplies or Services reasonably outweighs the Authorized Agency's practical need for the highest standard prevalent in the applicable or closest industry or business that supplies the Supplies or Services to be delivered under the resulting Contract.

(5) Optional Procedures. All of the optional procedures described in this Section may be alternatively referred to as "Multistep Sealed Proposals." A "step," "tier" and "round" have the same meaning for purposes of implementing ORS 279B.060. An Authorized Agency may use any one or more or combination of the procedures described below including:

(a) Competitive Range. When an Authorized Agency elects to use a Competitive Range at any stage in the procurement process, the Authorized Agency must comply with the following procedures:

(A) Determining Competitive Range.

(i) The Authorized Agency must establish a Competitive Range after evaluating all Responsive Proposals in accordance with the evaluation criteria set forth in the Request for Proposals. After evaluation of all Proposals in accordance with the criteria set forth in the Request for Proposals, the Authorized Agency must determine and rank the Proposers in the Competitive Range. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an Authorized Agency may establish a Competitive Range of all Proposers to enter into Discussions with Proposers for the purpose of correcting deficiencies in Proposals under this Subsection.

(ii) The Authorized Agency may increase the number of Proposers in the Competitive Range if the Authorized Agency's evaluation of Proposals establishes a natural break in the scores of Proposers indicating a number of Proposers greater than the initial Competitive Range are closely competitive, or have a reasonable chance of being determined the most Advantageous Proposer. The Authorized Agency may decrease the number of Proposers in the initial Competitive Range only if the excluded Proposers have no reasonable chance to be the most Advantageous Proposer.

(B) Notice and Protests. The Authorized Agency may provide Written notice to all Proposers identifying Proposers in the Competitive Range. An Authorized Agency may provide an opportunity for Proposers excluded from the Competitive Range to protest the Authorized Agency's evaluation and determination of the Competitive Range in accordance with OAR 125-247-0720.

(C) Intent to Award; Discuss or Negotiate. After determination of the Competitive Range and after any protest period expires, or after the Authorized Agency has provided a final response to any protest, whichever date is later, the Authorized Agency may either:

(i) Intent to Award. Provide Written notice to all Proposers in the Competitive Range of its intent to award the Contract to the highest-ranked Proposer in the Competitive Range:

(I) An unsuccessful Proposer may protest the Authorized Agency's intent to award in accordance with OAR 125-247-0740 and ORS 279B.410.

(II) After the protest period provided in accordance with OAR 125-247-0740 expires, or after the Authorized Agency has provided a final response to any protest, whichever date is later, the Authorized Agency must commence Negotiations in accordance with this Rule with Proposers in the Competitive Range; or

(ii) Discussions and Revised Proposals. An Authorized Agency may engage in Discussions with Proposers in the Competitive Range and accept revised Proposals, evaluate the revised Proposals, and conduct Negotiations with the Proposers in the Competitive Range.

(b) Discussions and Revised Proposals. If Discussions and revised Proposals are conducted, an Authorized Agency must proceed as follows:

(A) Initiating Discussions. An Authorized Agency may conduct Discussions with Proposers to exchange information, compare views, take counsel, and communicate with another for the purposes of achieving clarification and mutual understanding of a Proposal. If the Authorized Agency initiates any Discussion, the Authorized Agency must provide the opportunity for oral or Written Discussions with all Proposers submitting Responsive

Proposals or all Proposers in the Competitive Range (collectively "eligible Proposers"). The Authorized Agency may conduct Discussions for the following purposes:

(i) Informing eligible Proposers of deficiencies in their initial Proposals;

(ii) Notifying eligible Proposers of parts of their Proposals for which the Authorized Agency would like additional information; or

(iii) Otherwise allowing eligible Proposers to develop revised Proposals that will allow the Authorized Agency to obtain the best Proposal based on the requirements and evaluation criteria set forth in the Request for Proposals.

(B) Conducting Discussions. The Authorized Agency may conduct Discussions with each eligible Proposer necessary to fulfill the purposes of this Section, but need not conduct the same amount of Discussions with each eligible Proposer. The Authorized Agency may terminate Discussions with any eligible Proposer at any time. However, if the Authorized Agency elects to use the best and final Offer procedure, then the Authorized Agency must offer all eligible Proposers the same opportunity to discuss their Proposals with the Authorized Agency before the Authorized Agency notifies eligible Proposers of the date and time that best and final Offers will be due.

(i) In conducting Discussions, the Authorized Agency:

(I) Must treat all eligible Proposers fairly and may not favor any eligible Proposer over another;

(II) Must follow ORS 279B.060(6)(a)(B) and (C) regarding disclosure of other eligible Proposer's Proposals or Discussions;

(III) May adjust the evaluation of a Proposal as a result of a Discussion under this Section. The conditions, terms, or price of the Proposal may be altered or otherwise changed during the course of the Discussions provided the changes are within the Scope of the Request for Proposals.

(ii) At any time during the time allowed for Discussions, the Authorized Agency may:

(I) Continue Discussions with a particular eligible Proposer;

(II) Terminate Discussions with a particular eligible Proposer and continue Discussions with other eligible Proposers; or

(III) Conclude Discussions with all remaining eligible Proposers and provide notice according to this Rule to the eligible Proposers.

(c) Negotiations

(A) Conducting Negotiations. The Authorized Agency may negotiate serially with the highest-ranked eligible Proposer or simultaneously with all eligible Proposers.

(B) Scope. The Authorized Agency may negotiate:

(i) The statement of work;

(ii) The Contract Price as it is affected by negotiating the statement of work; and

(iii) Any other terms and conditions reasonably related to those expressly authorized for Negotiation in the Request for Proposals or Addenda thereto. Accordingly, the Proposers must not submit, and the Authorized Agency must not accept, for Negotiation any alternative terms and conditions that are not reasonably related to those expressly authorized for Negotiation in the Request for Proposals or Addenda thereto.

(C) Terminating Negotiations. At any time during Discussions or Negotiations that the Authorized Agency conducts in accordance with this Rule, the Authorized Agency may terminate Discussions or Negotiations with the highest-ranked Proposer, or the Proposer with whom it is currently discussing or negotiating, if the Authorized Agency reasonably believes that:

(i) The eligible Proposer is not discussing or negotiating in good faith; or

(ii) Further Discussions or Negotiations with the eligible Proposer will not result in the parties agreeing to the terms and conditions of a final Contract in a timely manner.

(D) Continuing Serial Negotiations. If the Authorized Agency is conducting serial Negotiations and the Authorized Agency terminates Negotiations with an eligible Proposer in accordance with this Rule, the Authorized Agency may then commence Negotiations with the next highest scoring eligible Proposer, and continue the process described in this Rule until the Authorized Agency has determined either:

(i) To award the Contract to the eligible Proposer with whom it is currently discussing or negotiating; or

(ii) Has completed one step of Discussions or Negotiations with all eligible Proposers, (or with all Proposers in the Competitive Range, if a Competitive Range is established) unless the Authorized Agency provided for more than one round of Discussions or Negotiations in the Request for Proposals.

(E) Competitive Simultaneous Negotiations. If the Authorized Agency chooses to conduct competitive Negotiations, the Authorized Agency may negotiate simultaneously with competing eligible Proposers. The Authorized Agency:

(i) Must treat all eligible Proposers fairly and must not favor any Proposer over another;

(ii) May only disclose other eligible Proposer's Proposals or the substance of Negotiations with other eligible Proposers if the Authorized Agency notifies all of the eligible Proposers with whom the Authorized Agency will engage in Negotiations before engaging in Negotiations with any eligible Proposer; and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(iii) Any oral modification of a Proposal resulting from Negotiations under this Section must be reduced to Writing.

(d) Revised Rounds of Negotiations. This procedure begins with the standard Solicitation procedures for a Request for Proposals and may include successive rounds of Proposals achieved through Negotiations to gain the best Proposal for purposes of Award. These Negotiations may concern the price, Specifications, and final terms and conditions, separately or in any combination thereof. The Authorized Agency must treat all Proposers fairly. Before the start of each round of Negotiations, the Authorized Agency must disclose the parameters of that round of Negotiations. At that time, the Authorized Agency may revise the Solicitation's Specifications, terms and conditions, evaluation criteria and weight, and pricing structure in order to best meet the State's interests (Revisions). At each successive round, the Authorized Agency may disregard its scoring of prior Proposals and commence new scoring for the new Proposals. The Authorized Agency may eliminate any Proposal after a round because the Proposal did not meet a minimum score, or the Proposal was not susceptible to award, and then proceed with a subsequent round that requires additional Proposals based on the Revision(s). If any Revision is made by the Authorized Agency in any subsequent round, the Authorized Agency reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to permit any Proposer whose Proposal was previously eliminated to submit a new Proposal, if the reason(s) for the elimination of the prior Proposal by that Proposer no longer applies. For each Solicitation, on a case-by-case basis, the Authorized Agency may determine whether prequalification of suppliers is needed. If prequalification is used, the Authorized Agency must prequalify suppliers and provide an appeal process in accordance with ORS 279B.120 and related rules.

(e) Best and Final Offers. The procedure for best and final Offers requires an Authorized Agency to establish a common date and time by which eligible Proposers must submit best and final Offers. Best and final Offers must be submitted only once; provided, however, the Authorized Agency may make a Written determination that it is in the Authorized Agency's best interest to conduct additional Discussions and Negotiations or change the Authorized Agency's requirements and require another submission of best and final Offers. Otherwise, no Discussion of or changes in the best and final Offers may be allowed before award. All eligible Proposers must also be informed if they do not submit notice of withdrawal or another best and final Offers, their immediately previous Proposal will be construed as their best and final Offer. The Authorized Agency must evaluate Proposals as modified by the best and final Offers. The Authorized Agency must conduct evaluations conducted as described in OAR 125-247-0600. The Authorized Agency may not modify evaluation factors or their relative importance after the date and time that best and final Offers are due.

(f) Multistep Sealed Proposals: Phases.

(A) Process. The Multistep Sealed Proposals process is a phased procurement process that seeks necessary information or unpriced submittals in Phase One and invites Proposers who submitted qualified unpriced submittals in Phase One to submit competitive sealed price Proposals in Phase Two. The Contract must be awarded to the Responsible Proposer, or in the case of multiple awards, the Responsible Proposers according to ORS 279B.060(10), submitting the most Advantageous Proposal in accordance with the terms of the Solicitation Document applicable to Phase Two. A "Phase" may include one or more "steps"

(B) Public Notice. Whenever an Authorized Agency uses Multistep Proposals, the Authorized Agency must give Public Notice in accordance with OAR 125-247-0305. Public Notice is not required for Phase Two. However, an Authorized Agency must give notice to all Proposers from Phase One (Proposers). If an Authorized Agency elects to provide a protest opportunity for Addenda issued after the Closing of Phase One according to OAR 125-247-0430, then the Authorized Agency must give notice to the Proposers of this right to protest such Addenda. If an Authorized Agency elects to provide an opportunity to protest exclusion from Phase Two according to OAR 125-247-0720, then the Authorized Agency must give notice to the Proposers of this right to protest such exclusion.

(C) Procedures Generally. In addition to the procedures set forth in OAR 125-247-0300 through 125-247-0490, an Authorized Agency must employ the following procedures set forth in this Section for Multistep Sealed Proposals:

(i) Solicitation Protest. Before the Closing of Phase One, an Authorized Agency must provide an opportunity to protest the Solicitation under ORS 279B.405 and OAR 125-247-0730.

(ii) Addenda Protest. An Authorized Agency may provide an opportunity to protest any Addenda issued after closing of Phase Two according to OAR 125-247-0430(3)(b).

(iii) Exclusion Protest. An Authorized Agency may provide an opportunity for a Proposer to protest exclusion from Phase Two as set forth in OAR 125-247-0720.

(iv) Administrative Remedy. Proposers may submit a protest to any Addenda or to any action by the Authorized Agency that has the effect of excluding the Proposer from a Phase Two to the extent such protests are provided for in the Solicitation Document or required by this Section. Failure to so protest must be considered the Proposer's failure to pursue an administrative remedy made available to the Proposer by the Authorized Agency.

(v) Award Protest. An Authorized Agency must provide an opportunity to protest its intent to award a Contract according to ORS 279B.410 and OAR 125-247-0740. An Affected Proposer may protest, for any of the bases set forth in OAR 125-247-0720(2), its exclusion from Phase Two or an Addendum issued following Closing of Phase One if the Authorized Agency did not previously provide Bidders the opportunity to protest such exclusion or Addendum.

(D) Procedure for Phase One.

(i) The Form of the Request for Proposals. Multistep Proposals must be initiated by the issuance of a Request for Proposal in the form and manner required for Competitive Sealed Proposals in accordance with OAR 125-247-0260, except as provided in this Rule. In addition to the requirements set forth in OAR 125-247-0260(2), this Request for Proposal must state:

(I) That unpriced submittals are requested;

(II) That the Solicitation is a unpriced submittal Procurement, and priced Proposals will be considered only in Phase Two and only from those Proposers whose unpriced submittals are found acceptable in Phase One;

(III) The criteria to be used in the evaluation of unpriced submittals;

(IV) That the Authorized Agency, to the extent that it finds necessary, may conduct oral or Written Discussions for the purposes of clarification of the unpriced submittals;

(V) That the Supplies and Services being procured must be furnished generally in accordance with the Proposer's unpriced submittals as found to be finally qualified and must meet the requirements of the Request for Proposals;

(VI) Whether Proposers excluded from subsequent steps or Phase Two have a right to protest the exclusion. Such information must be given in the Solicitation or changed by Addenda; and

(VII) If time is a factor, the Authorized Agency may require Proposers to submit a separate sealed price Proposal during Phase One to be opened after the evaluation of unpriced submittals.

(ii) Addenda to the Request for Proposal. After receipt of unpriced submittals in Phase One, Addenda to the Request for Proposal must be distributed only to those Proposers who submitted unpriced submittals.

(iii) Receipt and Handling of Unpriced Proposals. The Authorized Agency is not required to publicly open unpriced submittals.

(iv) Evaluation of Unpriced Proposals. The unpriced submittals submitted by Proposers must be evaluated solely in accordance with the criteria set forth in the Request for Proposals. The unpriced submittals must be categorized as:

(I) Qualified;

(II) Potentially qualified; that is, reasonably susceptible of being made qualified; or

(III) Unqualified. The Authorized Agency must record in Writing the basis for determining a Proposal unqualified and make it part of the Procurement File in accordance with OAR 125-246-0355. The Authorized Agency may initiate Phase Two of the procedure if, in the Authorized Agency's opinion, there are sufficient qualified unpriced submittals to assure effective price competition in Phase Two without Discussions. If the Authorized Agency finds that such is not the case, the Authorized Agency may issue an Addendum to the Request for Proposals or engage in Discussions as set forth in this Rule.

(v) Discussion of Unpriced Submittals. The Authorized Agency may seek clarification of any Proposal of any Proposer who submits a qualified, or potentially qualified unpriced submittal. During the course of such Discussions, the Authorized Agency may not disclose any information derived from one unpriced submittal to any other Proposer. Once Discussions begin, any Proposer may submit supplemental information amending the unpriced submittal at any time until the Closing of Phase Two set by the Authorized Agency. A submission may be in response to a request of the Authorized Agency or be initiated by the Proposer.

(vi) Notice of Unqualified Unpriced Submittals. When the Authorized Agency determines a Proposer's unpriced submittal to be unqualified, such Proposer must not be afforded an additional opportunity to supplement its unpriced submittal.

(vii) Mistakes during Multistep Sealed Proposals. Mistakes may be corrected or Proposals may be withdrawn during Phase One:

(I) Before unpriced submittals are considered;

(II) After any Discussions have commenced under this Rule;

(III) When responding to any Addenda of the Request for Proposals; or

(IV) In accordance with OAR 125-247-0470.

(E) Procedure for Phase Two.

(i) Initiation. Upon the completion of Phase One, the Authorized Agency must invite each qualified Proposer to submit price Proposals.

(ii) Conduct. An Authorized Agency must conduct Phase Two as any other Competitive Sealed Proposal according to OAR 125-247-0260, except:

(I) As specifically set forth in this Rule; and

(II) No public notice need be given of the request to submit price Proposals because such notice was previously given.

(6) Prequalification or Request for Qualifications. In addition, an Authorized Agency may also prequalify prospective Offerors or use a Request for Qualifications in accordance with OAR 125-247-0550 and before any of the procedures described in this Rule.

Intermediate Procurements

(1) Generally. For Procurements of Supplies and Services greater than $5,000 and less than or equal to $150,000, an Authorized Agency may award a Contract as an Intermediate Procurement according to ORS 279B.070. Authorized Agencies must procure Intermediate Procurements for Supplies and Services in accordance with ORS 279A and 279B.070.

(a) Informal Solicitation. When conducting an Intermediate Procurement, an Authorized Agency must seek at least three informally solicited competitive price Quotes, Bids or Proposals from prospective Offerors. An Intermediate Procurement may be called an informal request for quotes, informal invitation to bid, or informal request for proposals.

(b) Written Record. The Authorized Agency must keep a written record of the sources of the Quotes, Bids or Proposals received. If three Quotes, Bids or Proposals are not reasonably available, fewer will suffice, but the Authorized Agency must make a written record of the effort made to obtain the Quotes, Bids or Proposals.

(c) Award. If a Contract is awarded, the Authorized Agency must award the Contract to the Offeror whose Quote, Bid or Proposal will best serve the interests of the Authorized Agency, taking into account price as well as considerations including, but not limited to, experience, expertise, product functionality, suitability for a particular purpose and Contractor responsibility under ORS 279B.110.

(2) Written Solicitation. Authorized Agencies are not required to use a Written Solicitation, unless an Agency's Designated Procurement Officer requires a Written Solicitation, and then the requirements of this Section (2) apply. The Written Solicitation must include fair, efficient, competitive Award evaluation criteria. This Written Solicitation may allow revisions to the Solicitation and opportunity for protests, at the discretion of the Agency. The process, potential revisions to the Solicitation, if any, and opportunity for protests, if any, must be disclosed in the Solicitation. Authorized Agencies must document:

(a) The Agency's methodology under this Subsection (2),

(b) The Agency's compliance with legal sufficiency review requirements of the Attorney General under ORS 291.047; and

(c) Communications between the Agency and Providers regarding:

(A) The subject matter of OAR 125-246-0635 and ORS 279B.210;

(B) Offers;

(C) The Award; and

(D) Protests, if a protest opportunity is provided by the Agency, at its discretion.

(3) Borderline Procurements. If an Authorized Agency's Designated Procurement Officer or delegatee (DPO) in good faith estimated that the Procurement would be equal to or less than $150,000, and learned thereafter that all of the Quotes, Bids, or Proposals were minimally exceeding $150,000, this Procurement is deemed to have complied with Section (2) of this Rule upon the following conditions:

(a) The DPO must document in the Procurement File the basis for the original estimate under $150,000 and the process used; and

(b) The Agency must still comply with the remainder of this Rule.

(4) Inclusion of Minority, Women and Emerging Small Businesses (MWESBs). The Solicitations of Agencies must be inclusive, in accordance with Department policy and ORS 200.035.

(5) Notices and ORPIN.

(a) The Agency must post on ORPIN a notice of its verbal or Written Solicitation of at least three Quotes, Bids, or Proposals. In addition, the Agency may informally solicit Quotes, Bids, or Proposals by any other appropriate means (collectively, Notice).

(b) The Notice must provide:

(A) A general description of the Supplies and Services to be acquired; and

(B) A reasonable and sufficient interval between the first date of the Notice and the Closing. A reasonable and sufficient interval provides enough time during the work week for new Providers to obtain information and assistance to compete with any incumbent, established, or highly-resourced competitor in that Procurement (Objectives). Agencies may adjust the interval to account for the type of Procurement and needs of the Agencies, so long as the Objectives are not undermined. See Department policy;

(C) For Intermediate Procurements exceeding $100,000, the Time Period must be a reasonable interval of at least seven (7) calendar Days;

(D) The name, title and address of the individual authorized by the Agency to receive Offers; and

(E) Any other information the Agency deems to be appropriate.

(c) OAR 125-247-0305 (Public Notice of Solicitation Documents) does not apply to Intermediate Procurements.

(6) Negotiations. An Authorized Agency may negotiate with a Proposer to clarify its Quote, Bid, or Proposal or to effect modifications that will make the Quote, Bid, or Proposal acceptable or make the Quote, Bid, or Proposal more Advantageous to the Authorized Agency.

(7) No Fragmentation. A Procurement may not be artificially divided or fragmented so as to constitute an Intermediate Procurement, according to ORS 279B.070(2).

(8) ORPIN. Agencies must post all Awards over $5,000 on ORPIN.

(9) Amendments. An Authorized Agency may amend a Contract awarded as an Intermediate Procurement in accordance with OAR 125-246-0560.

(10) Legal Sufficiency Review. The Authorized Agency must comply with legal sufficiency review requirements of the Attorney General under ORS 291.047.

125-247-0275

Sole-Source Procurements

(1) Generally. An Authorized Agency with delegated authority according to OAR 125-246-0170 may award a Contract without a competitive process through a Sole-Source Procurement according to the requirements of ORS 279B.075, this Rule, and the policy of the Department. The Authorized Agency must make a determination of a sole source based upon Written findings of fact that the Supplies and Services are available from only one source.

(2) Findings of Fact. Findings of fact required under OAR 125-247-0275(1) may include:

(a) Compatibility. The efficient utilization of existing Supplies and Services requires the acquisition of compatible Supplies and Services from only one source. For example, compatibility may be implicated when: Supplies are required to directly interface with or attach to equipment of the same manufacturer and no other manufacturer's Supplies will correctly interface with existing equipment; or when Services such as maintenance, warranty, project management, or systems integration are required to interface or integrate with existing Supplies and Services.

(b) Exchange of Software or Data. Specific Supplies and Services, which are available from only one source, may be required for the exchange of software or data with other public or private agencies. This finding may be particularly applicable when the Supplies and Services involve assets such as copyrights, patents, trademarks, and trade secrets.

(c) Pilot or Experimental Project. Supplies and Services are for the use in such projects, which may include but are not limited to research and economic development projects.

(d) Other findings that support the conclusion that Supplies and Services are available from only one source may include but are not limited to considerations of: unique design, availability, geographic location, exclusive authorized representative, cost of conversion, and warranty services.

(3) Market Research. ORS 279B.075 requires that the Authorized Agency "determines in writing" that the goods or services are "available from only one source." This means that the Authorized Agency must conduct and document its market research before public notice described in Section (4) or (5).

(4) Contracts up to $150,000. For all Contracts awarded through Sole-Source Procurements over $5,000 and not exceeding $150,000:

(a) The Authorized Agency must place a public notice on ORPIN of its determination that the Supplies and Services or class of Supplies and Services are available from only one source.

(b) The public notice must describe the Supplies and Services to be acquired through a Sole-Source Procurement and identify the prospective Contractor and include the date, time and place that protests are due.

(c) The Authorized Agency must give Affected Persons at least seven calendar (7) Days from the date of the public notice of the determination that the Supplies or Services are available from only one source to protest the determination under OAR 125-247-0710. If the State Procurement Office is conducting the Sole-Source Procurement, then the State Procurement Office is the Authorized Agency for purposes of this Rule.

(d) The Authorized Agency must obtain the Written approval of that Agency's Designated Procurement Officer or delegatee before the Authorized Agency places a public notice on ORPIN in accordance with this Section.

(5) Contracts over $150,000. For all Contracts exceeding $150,000:

(a) The Authorized Agency must place a public notice on ORPIN in accordance with Subsections (4)(a)-(c); and if the State Procurement Office is conducting the Sole-Source Procurement, then the State Procurement Office is the Authorized Agency for purposes of this Rule; and

(b) The Authorized Agency must obtain the Written approval of the Chief Procurement Officer or delegatee before the Authorized Agency places a public notice on ORPIN in accordance with this Section.

(6) Negotiation. According to ORS 279B.075 and to the extent reasonably practical, the Authorized Agency must negotiate with the sole source to obtain contract terms advantageous to the Authorized Agency.

(7) Protest. An Affected Person may protest the Authorized Agency's determination that the Supplies and Services or class of Supplies and Services are available from only one source in accordance with OAR 125-247-0710.

(8) Brand Name Requirements. If the findings of fact required under this Rule include a specification of a Brand Name, that specification must be in accordance with ORS 279B.215 and OAR 125-247-0691.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(9) Legal Sufficiency Review. When legal sufficiency review by the Attorney General is required under ORS 291.047, the Authorized Agency must seek this approval.

125-247-0280

Emergency Procurements

(1) An Authorized Agency may award a Contract as an Emergency Procurement under ORS 279B.080. An Authorized Agency has delegated authority to enter into an Emergency Contract according to OAR 125-246-0170.

(2) An Authorized Agency may, in its discretion, enter into a Contract without competitive Solicitation if an Emergency exists. Emergency means circumstances that could not have been reasonably foreseen that create a substantial risk of loss, damage, interruption of services or threat to public health or safety that requires prompt execution of a Contract to remedy the condition.

(3) Regardless of the dollar value of the Contract, the Authorized Agency entering into an Emergency Contract must encourage competition that is reasonable and appropriate under the Emergency circumstances. However, for the emergency procurement of construction services that are not Public Improvements, see ORS 279B.080(2).

(4) Regardless of the dollar value of the Contract, the Authorized Agency entering into an Emergency Contract must, either before or promptly after entering into an Emergency Contract, make and retain in its Procurement File documentation of the nature of the Emergency that includes:

(a) A brief description of the Supplies and Services to be provided under the Contract, together with its cost or anticipated cost;

(b) A brief explanation of how the Contract, in terms of duration or Supplies and Services provided under it, was restricted to the Scope reasonably necessary to adequately deal only with the risk created or anticipated to be created by the Emergency circumstances;

(c) A description of the emergency circumstances that require the prompt performance of the Contract, stating the anticipated harm from failure to establish the Contract on an expedited basis; and

(d) Documentation of the measures taken under Section (3) to encourage competition; the amounts of the Bids, Quotes or Proposals obtained, if any; and the reason for selecting the Contractor.

(5) The head of the Authorized Agency, or a person designated under ORS 279A.075, must authorize the conduct of the emergency procurement, and must review and approve the documentation required by Section (4) of this Rule.

(6) Any Contract awarded under this Rule must be awarded no later than sixty (60) days following the approval of the documentation of the emergency unless the head of the Authorized Agency or Person designated has granted an extension.

(7) Agencies must also comply with OAR 137-045-0070, Emergency Public Contract Exemption, if applicable. The Authorized Agency must maintain a copy of any required report in the Authorized Agency's Emergency Procurement File.

(8) For an Emergency Procurement of construction services that are not Public Improvements, the Authorized Agency must insure competition for a contract for the emergency work that is reasonable and appropriate under the emergency circumstances. In conducting the Procurement, the Authorized Agency must set a solicitation time period that the Authorized Agency determines to be reasonable under the emergency circumstances and may issue Written or oral requests for Offers or make direct appointments without competition in cases of extreme necessity.

(9) 2009 "Go Oregon!" Economic Stimulus Package.

(a) Program. The 2009 "Go Oregon!" Economic Stimulus Package, Enrolled Senate Bill 338, House Bill 5562 and related legislative measures (Program), provides funding and direction to identified Authorized Agencies for deferred maintenance, capital construction, capital renewal, code compliance, safety, renovation, and other construction projects (Projects). The Program's objective is to stimulate Oregon's economy through job growth by providing opportunities to local businesses and certified minority, women and emerging small businesses. The Director of the Department has made a determination of emergency circumstances and documented the nature of the Emergency under the Program (Emergency Determination). Most of the Projects are not Public Improvements as defined in OAR 125-246-0110(127). ORS 279C.320 provides that ORS 279B.080 regulates these Projects.

(b) Application. Sections (2) through (6) of this Rule do not apply to Procurements and Contracts under the Program.

(c) Emergency Documentation. The Emergency Determination documents the nature of the Emergency on behalf of the Authorized Agencies to satisfy the requirement of ORS 279B.080. No further documentation that an Emergency exists is required of the Authorized Agencies.

(d) Authorization. The Designated Procurement Officer, or designee, of the Authorized Agency must authorize Procurements under the Program and may determine whether to excuse the requirement of furnishing a good and sufficient performance bond or payment bond.

(e) Procurement Processes. The Authorized Agencies may conduct expedited Emergency Procurement processes, including but not limited to: informal or formal requests for quotes, invitations to bid, and requests for proposals; special procurements; and direct awards. Any of these processes may be utilized regardless of project value.

(f) Project Documentation. The Authorized Agency must retain in its Procurement File(s) the following documentation of its Emergency Procurements and Contracts under the Program:

(A) Copies of all data requested by the Department;

(B) A brief description of the Project;

(C) A description of how the particular contractor was selected and the measures taken to encourage competition, if reasonable and appropriate under the emergency circumstances.

(D) A statement by the Designated Procurement Officer, or designee, excusing performance and payment bonds for the Project in accordance with ORS 279C.380(4), if applicable.

(g) Timing. The documentation described in Section (9)(f) may occur a reasonable time after the award of the Contract. No documentation is required before the award of the Contract.

(10) Other State Economic Stimulus Programs.

(a) Application. For any other state economic stimulus program that is administered by the Department or an Authorized Agency (State Program), Sections (9)(d) through (g) replace Sections (2) through (6) of this Rule and apply to the State Program on the following condition: the Department or Authorized Agency determines that the State Program is in response to adverse economic circumstances.

(b) Emergency Determination and Documentation. The Director of the Department may make an emergency determination and document the nature of the Emergency on behalf of Authorized Agencies. Regardless of any determination by the Director of the Department, an Authorized Agency may make an emergency determination and document the nature of the Emergency on that Agency's behalf and in accordance with ORS 279B.080.

(11) Federal Economic Stimulus Programs.

(a) Application. For any federal economic stimulus program that is administered by the Department or an Authorized Agency (Federal Program), Sections (9)(d) through (g) replace Sections (2) through (6) of this Rule and apply to the Federal Program upon the following condition: the Department determines that the Federal Program is in response to adverse economic circumstances.

(b) Emergency Determination and Documentation. The Director of the Department may make an emergency determination and document the nature of the Emergency on behalf of Authorized Agencies. Regardless of any determination by the Director of the Department, an Authorized Agency may make an emergency determination and document the nature of the Emergency on that Agency's behalf and in accordance with ORS 279B.080.

(12) Amendment. An Emergency Procurement may be amended in accordance with OAR 125-246-0560.

Special Procurements; Request Procedures

(1) Approval. An Authorized Agency may request approval of its new or amended Special Procurement from the Chief Procurement Officer. The request must describe one or more particular Contracts or class of Contracts and use the designated ORPIN form. A request for a Special Procurement concerns the procurement process only, and the authority to use the Special Procurement is determined under OAR 125-246-0170.

(2) Requests. Special Procurement Requests must contain the following:

(a) Request must include reason(s) why Agency has elected to use Special Procurement and how it will benefit the Agency or the public.

(b) The Request must include findings, market research, or other documentation that the Special Procurement:

(A) Is unlikely to encourage favoritism in the awarding of Public Contracts or to substantially diminish competition for Public Contracts, and

(B) Either:

(i) Is reasonably expected to result in substantial cost savings to the Agency or to the public; or

(ii) Otherwise substantially promotes the public interest in a manner that could not practicably be realized by complying with requirements that are applicable under ORS 279B.055, 279B.060, 279B.065 or 279B.070 or under any related Rules.

(c) The alternative process designed by the Agency must be clear and complete, including a description of the Supplies and Services that are the subject of the Special Procurement, provisions for advertisement, a procurement process, including provisions for Amendment and criteria for selection, and the proposed contract document.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(d) The State Procurement Office may require any additional information deemed necessary to evaluate the Agency's request for approval of a Special Procurement.

(3) Effect. The Special Procurement approval is effective only after the Chief Procurement Officer's approval of the findings and Request and completion of the Public Notice required under Section (4) of this Rule.

(4) Public Notice. The Public Notice process and requirements are as follows:

(a) General. The requesting Authorized Agency must give public notice of the approval of its Special Procurement as required under ORS 279B.085(4) and in accordance with this Rule, unless otherwise directed by the Chief Procurement Officer (Public Notice). As a Written condition to approval of the Special Procurement, the Chief Procurement Officer may require that the State Procurement Office instead of the requesting Agency give the Public Notice.

(b) Content. The Public Notice must at least describe the Supplies and Services or class of Supplies and Services to be acquired through the Special Procurement.

(c) Time Periods.

(A) If the Special Procurement involves one or more Solicitations, then Public Notice of the approval of the proposed Special Procurement must be given at least seven (7) calendar Days before the Award. The Solicitation Document must either contain the attached request and approval of the Special Procurement or incorporate the request and approval by reference with the documents easily accessible to Affected Persons; or

(B) If the Special Procurement does not involve a Solicitation, then Public Notice of the approval of the Special Procurement must be given at least seven (7) Days before the commencement of the Special Procurement.

(d) An Agency may request certain information to be withheld from the public notice requirement of this Rule in cases where confidentiality or security may be jeopardized only according to an exception under the Public Records Law (ORS 192.410–192.505).

(5) Protest. An Affected Person may protest the approval of a Special Procurement in accordance with ORS 279B.400 and OAR 125-247-0700.

(6) Reference. Any Solicitation or Contract resulting from a Special Procurement approval must contain a reference to the number of the approved Special Procurement.

(7) Conditions. If the Chief Procurement Officer provides Written approval of the proposed Special Procurement (Approval), the Authorized Agency must award any Contract under the Special Procurement in accordance with the conditions of this Approval and any subsequent amendments to the Approval. The Approval may include conditions, including but not limited to expiration, Public Notice and dollar limitations, and may be revoked at any time by the Chief Procurement Officer.

(8) If an Authorized Agency competitively solicits, it must comply with the process described in the Special Procurement or the Rules for that method of Solicitation according to ORS 279B.055 through 279B.075 and 279A.200 et seq.

(9) Nothing in this Rule exempts the Agency from obtaining the approval of the Attorney General for legal sufficiency according to ORS 291.047.

(10) All Agencies must comply with ORS 200.035 and related Department policy, despite this Rule.

(11) If an Authorized Agency intends to award a Contract through a Special Procurement that calls for competition among prospective contractors, the Authorized Agency must award the Contract to the Offeror the Authorized Agency determines to be the most advantageous to the Authorized Agency.

Special Procurements; by Rule

(1) Client Placement and Client Health Care Services.

(a) Authorization and Application. An Authorized Agency with delegated authority under OAR 125-246-0170 may use this Special Procurement by Rule to enter into Written agreements for Client Placement and Client Health Care services, as described in this Rule. When an Authorized Agency determines that a need exists to secure or maintain Client Placement Services or to secure Client Health Care Services, the Authorized Agency may contract subject to the following definitions and conditions of this Section (1).

(A) "Client Placement Services" means securing, enhancing, or continuing the placement of a Client in a structured family-like setting or residential setting operated by a qualified Provider.

(B) "Client Health Care Services" means health care services or provision of incidental or specialized supplies related to the health of a Client. Client Health Care Services include but are not limited to: preventive, diagnostic, therapeutic, behavioral, rehabilitative, maintenance, or palliative care and counseling services, assessment, or procedure with respect to the physical or mental condition, or functional status of a Client, or that affect the structure or function of the body; and the sale or dispensing of a drug, device, equipment, or other item in accordance with a prescription.

(C) Services that may prevent a placement or placement disruption but that cannot definitively be classified as Client Placement Services by the Authorized Agency are deemed to be Client Placement Services and are subject to the Special Procurement approved under this Rule. This Special Procurement for Client Placement Services may include training only if it is provided directly to the Client, excluding Providers.

(b) Authorized Agencies must execute a Contract or amendment to an existing Contract within 180 days of obtaining the Client Placement Services or Client Health Care Services as defined herein. Should the Authorized Agency fail to execute the Contract within this specified period, then the Authorized Agency may execute the Contract if:

(A) A Written statement of justification that describes the unforeseen or unavoidable circumstances that were reasonably unanticipated and preclude the Authorized Agency from executing the Contract within the initial 180 day period; and

(B) A copy of the Written justification is maintained in the Procurement File.

(c) The Authorized Agency may not make any payments for Client Placement Services or Client Health Care Services before obtaining all requisite approvals of the Contract.

(d) An Authorized Agency may:

(A) Use one of the defined source selection methods as found in OAR 125-247-0200. If an Authorized Agency elects to use one of the defined source selection methods, it must conduct it in accordance with the Code, Rules and Department policies; or

(B) The Authorized Agency may elect to create its own source selection method. If an Authorized Agency elects to create its own source selection method, it must document the file describing why the alternate method was selected.

(e) The Authorized Agency must ensure that all Procurement personnel responsible for procuring Placement Services or Client Health Care Services are provided training on the conditions and limitations of this Rule.

(f) Contract and Amendment Forms.

(A) Original Forms. Authorized Agencies must use a Contract form and Amendment form (Form) approved by the State Procurement Office when acquiring Client Placement Services or Client Health Care Services according to this Rule. The State Procurement Office may approve the Form by facsimile, email, letter or any other method that provides an objective means to verify its approval. The Authorized Agency must review the approved Form at least every two years.

(B) Revised Forms.

(i) Designated Procurement Officer Approval up to $150,000. For revised Forms up to a cumulative value of $150,000 and before an Authorized Agency may use a revised Form, it must obtain its Designated Procurement Officer's approval of any revisions to a Form's terms and conditions. The Designated Procurement Officer's approval is not required for revisions to Form exhibits that are unrelated to terms and conditions.

(ii) Department of Justice Approval over $150,000. For revised Forms exceeding a cumulative value of $150,000 and before an Authorized Agency may use a revised Form, it must obtain Department of Justice approval of any revisions to the revised Form's terms and conditions. The Department of Justice approval is not required for revisions to Form exhibits that are unrelated to terms and conditions. The Department of Justice approval may be delivered by facsimile, email, letter or any other objective means of approval. Upon an Authorized Agency's request, the Department of Justice may approve a revised Form for repeated use for a specific class or classes of transactions.

(g) Nothing in this Rule exempts the Authorized Agency from obtaining the approval of the Attorney General for legal sufficiency according to ORS 291.047.

(2) Client Services Source Selection.

(a) An Authorized Agency with delegated authority under OAR 125-246-0170 may use this Special Procurement Rule.

(b) The Chief Procurement Officer waives the source selection requirements as found in OAR 125-247-0200(1)–(6) for Authorized Agencies to procure Client Services, as defined in OAR 125-246-0110.

(c) The Authorized Agency is urged to solicit for Client Services when there is known competition. Under these circumstances, the Authorized Agency may:

(A) Use one of the defined source selection methods as found in OAR 125-247-0200. If an Authorized Agency uses one of the defined source selection methods, it must conduct it in accordance with the Code, Rules and Department policies; or

(B) The Authorized Agency may elect to create its own source selection method. If an Authorized Agency creates its own source selection method, it must document the file describing why the alternate method was selected. This Subsection (2)(c) does not apply to Section (1) above.

(3) Renegotiations of Existing Contracts with Incumbent Contractors.

(a) Authorization. An Authorized Agency with delegated authority under OAR 125-246-0170 may use this Special Procurement by Rule to renegotiate and amend existing Contracts with incumbent Contractors, and then only if it is in the best interest of the State.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Process and Criteria. The Authorized Agency may renegotiate various items of the Contract, including but not limited to: price, term, delivery and shipping, order size, item substitution, warranties, discounts, on-line ordering systems, price adjustments, product availability, product quality, and reporting requirements. The Authorized Agency must meet the following conditions in its Renegotiations with incumbent Contractors

(A) Favorable Result. The Authorized Agency must determine that, with all things considered, the renegotiated Contract is at least as favorable to the State as the Original Contract and document this in the Procurement File. For example, the Authorized Agency and the Contractor may adjust terms and conditions within the Original Contract to meet different needs;

(B) Within the Scope. The Supplies and Services provided under the renegotiated Contract must be reasonably related to the Original Contract's Solicitation. For example, the Authorized Agency may accept functionally equivalent substitutes for any Supplies and Services in the Original Contract's Solicitation;

(C) Optional Term or Condition. If a Contractor offered to the Authorized Agency during the original Solicitation a term or condition that was rejected at that time, (for the purpose of this Subsection only, Rejected Term or Condition), the Authorized Agency may not renegotiate for a lower price based on this Rejected Term or Condition as a mandatory term or condition in the renegotiated Contract. If, however, a Contractor offers a lower price according to a Rejected Term or Condition without additional consideration from the Authorized Agency and as only an option to the Authorized Agency, then the Authorized Agency may accept the option of a lower price under the Rejected Term or Condition. For example, if the Authorized Agency initially rejected a Contractor's proposed Condition that the price required a minimum order, any renegotiated Contract may not mandate this Condition; but the Authorized Agency may agree to the option to order lesser amounts or receive a reduced price based upon a minimum order; and

(D) Market. In order to avoid encouraging favoritism or diminishing competition, the Authorized Agency may research the accepted competitive practices and expectations of Offerors within the market for the specific Contract(s) or Classes of Contracts to be renegotiated (Market Norm). If the Authorized Agency researches the Market Norm, then the Authorized Agency must document its results in the Procurement File. Based upon this information, the Authorized Agency may confirm that, if the Authorized Agency follows the Market Norm, favoritism is not likely to be encouraged, competition is not likely to be diminished, and substantial cost savings may be realized. Under no condition may the Authorized Agency accept or follow any Market Norm that likely encourages favoritism or diminishes competition, even if it is accepted or expected in the market.

(4) Advertising Contracts.

(a) Authorization. An Authorized Agency with delegated authority under OAR 125-246-0170 may use this Special Procurement by Rule to purchase media advertising, regardless of dollar value, without competitive bidding, according to OAR 125-246-0170.

(b) Process and Criteria. Authorized Agencies must use competitive methods where practicable to achieve best value and must document in Agency policy or the Procurement File the reasons why a competitive process was deemed to be impractical. If the anticipated purchase exceeds $5,000 and a competitive method is used, the Authorized Agency must post notice on ORPIN. The resulting Contract must be in Writing and the Authorized Agency Procurement File must document the use of this Special Procurement Rule by number to identify the sourcing method. Nothing in this Rule waives the Department of Justice legal sufficiency review if applicable under ORS 291.047.

(5) Equipment Repair and Overhaul.

(a) Authorization. An Authorized Agency with delegated authority under OAR 125-246-0170 may use this Special Procurement by Rule for equipment repair and overhaul, as described in this Rule.

(b) Conditions. An Authorized Agency, having delegated purchasing authority according to OAR 125-246-0170, may enter into a Public Contract for equipment repair or overhaul without competitive bidding, subject to the following conditions:

(A) Service or parts required are unknown and the cost cannot be determined without extensive preliminary dismantling or testing; or

(B) Service or parts required are for sophisticated equipment for which specially trained personnel are required and such personnel are available from only one source; and

(C) The Authorized Agency purchases within the limits and according to the methods in (4)(c) of this Rule.

(c) Process and Criteria. Authorized Agencies must use competitive methods where practicable to achieve best value and must document in Agency policy or the Procurement File the reasons why a competitive process was deemed to be impractical. If the anticipated purchase exceeds $5,000 and a competitive method is used, the Authorized Agency must post notice on ORPIN. The resulting Contract must be in Writing and the Authorized Agency Procurement File must document the use of this Special Procurement Rule by number to identify the sourcing method. Nothing in this Rule waives the Department of Justice legal sufficiency review if applicable under ORS 291.047.

(6) Contracts for Price Regulated Items.

(a) Authorization. An Authorized Agency with delegated authority under OAR 125-246-0170 may use this Special Procurement by Rule for the Procurement of price regulated items, and the Authorized Agency must comply with the conditions of this Rule. An Authorized Agency having delegated purchasing authority according to OAR 125-246-0170 may, regardless of dollar value and without competitive bidding, contract for the direct purchase of Supplies and Services where the rate or price for the Supplies and Services being purchased is established by federal, state, or local regulatory authority.

(b) Process and Criteria. Authorized Agencies must use competitive methods where practicable to achieve best value and must document in Agency policy or the Procurement File the reasons why a competitive process was deemed to be impractical. If the anticipated purchase exceeds $5,000 and a competitive method is used, the Authorized Agency must post notice on ORPIN. The resulting Contract must be in Writing and the Authorized Agency Procurement File must document the use of this Special Procurement Rule by number to identify the sourcing method. Nothing in this Rule waives the Department of Justice legal sufficiency review if applicable under ORS 291.047.

(7) Investment Contracts.

(a) Authorization. An Authorized Agency with delegated authority under OAR 125-246-0170 may use this Special Procurement by Rule for investment Contracts, including related Contracts arising from or giving rise to investment opportunities (collectively, investment Contracts), as described in this Rule. An Authorized Agency may, without competitive bidding, and regardless of dollar amount, contract for the purpose of the investment of public funds or the borrowing of funds by the Authorized Agency when such investment or borrowing is contracted according to duly enacted statute, or constitution.

(b) Process and Criteria. Authorized Agencies must use competitive methods where practicable to achieve best value and must document in Agency policy or the Procurement File the reasons why a competitive process was deemed to be impractical. If the anticipated purchase exceeds $5,000 and a competitive method is used, the Authorized Agency must post notice on ORPIN. The resulting Contract must be in Writing and the Authorized Agency Procurement File must document the use of this Special Procurement Rule by number to identify the sourcing method. Nothing in this Rule waives the Department of Justice legal sufficiency review if applicable under ORS 291.047.

(8) Food Contracts.

(a) Intent. The intent of this Rule is to provide a method for Authorized Agencies to procure food products, which are available for a limited period of time at "lower than normal" prices (also referred to as "spot buys") (Food Contracts).

(b) Authorization. An Authorized Agency with delegated authority under OAR 125-246-0170 may use this Special Procurement by Rule for the Procurement of Food Contracts, and the Authorized Agency must comply with the conditions of this Rule.

(c) Conditions. An Authorized Agency may procure an unlimited dollar value of food using a competitive bid or quote process when all of the following conditions are present:

(A) The proposed unit price of the item(s) to be purchased is significantly less than a comparable item's price on an existing Mandatory Use Contract or any recent bid and the amount saved exceeds any additional administrative costs incurred to purchase using this Special Procurement; (B) The product being purchased has limited availability (i.e., the product may no longer be available upon completion of normal bid processes); and

(C) The purchase does not jeopardize fulfillment of a guaranteed minimum volume under an existing Mandatory Use Contract.

(d) Documentation. Purchases may only be made under this Special Procurement after the Authorized Agency documents the following in its Procurement File in accordance with OAR 125-246-0556: the Authorized Agency's attempt and method to obtain Quotes from at least three sources; the Written Quote or Bid, if obtained; item Specifications; quantity; unit pricing; delivery; and other pertinent information. Contract or bid pricing used for comparison must be representative of current pricing available and must have been obtained or confirmed no more than six (6) months before the current purchase. When practical, Written Quotes are recommended.

(e) Process and Criteria. Authorized Agencies must use competitive methods where practicable to achieve best value and must document in Agency policy or the Procurement File the reasons why a competitive process was deemed to be impractical. If the anticipated purchase exceeds $5,000 and a competitive method is used, the Authorized Agency must post notice on ORPIN, except when the competitive method involves verbal Quotes for perishable food. The resulting Contract must be in Writing and the Authorized Agency Procurement File must document the use of this Special Procurement Rule by number to identify the sourcing method. Nothing in this Rule waives the Department of Justice legal sufficiency review if applicable under ORS 291.047.

(9) Purchase of Used Personal Property.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) Authorization. An Authorized Agency with delegated authority under OAR 125-246-0170 may use this Special Procurement by Rule Subject to the provisions of this Rule, an Authorized Agency may purchase used property or equipment without competitive bidding and without obtaining Quotes, if, at the time of purchase, the Agency has determined and documented that the purchase will (i) be unlikely to encourage favoritism or diminish competition; and (ii) result in substantial cost savings or promote the public interest. "Used personal property or equipment" means the property or equipment which has been placed in its intended use by a previous owner or user for a period of time recognized in the relevant trade or industry as qualifying the personal property or equipment as "used," at the time of the Authorized Agency purchase. "Used personal property or equipment" generally does not include property or equipment if the Authorized Agency was the previous user, whether under a lease, as part of a demonstration, trial or pilot project, or similar arrangement.

(b) Process and Criteria.

(A) For purchases of used personal property or equipment not exceeding $150,000, Authorized Agencies having delegated authority according to OAR 125-246-0170, must, where feasible, obtain three Quotes, unless the Authorized Agency has determined and documented that a purchase without obtaining Quotes will result in cost savings to the Authorized Agency and will not diminish competition or encourage favoritism.

(B) For purchases of used personal property or equipment exceeding $150,000, the State Procurement Office must obtain and keep a Written record of the source and amount of Quotes received. If three Quotes are not available, a Written record must be made of the attempt to obtain Quotes.

(C) If the total purchase is estimated to exceed $150,000, an Authorized Agency must submit a Written request for a Written delegation of authority from the State Procurement Office before making the purchase.

(D) Authorized Agencies must use competitive methods wherever possible to achieve best value and must document in Agency policy or the Procurement File the reasons why a competitive process was deemed to be impractical. If the anticipated purchase exceeds $5,000 and a competitive method is used, the Authorized Agency must post notice on ORPIN. The resulting Contract must be in Writing and the Authorized Agency Procurement File must document the use of this Special Procurement Rule by number to identify the sourcing method. Nothing in this Rule waives the Department of Justice legal sufficiency review if applicable under ORS 291.047.

(10) Reverse Auctions.

(a) Authority. An Authorized Agency with delegated authority under OAR 125-246-0170 may use this Special Procurement by Rule.

(b) Process. A Reverse Auction means a process for the purchase of Supplies and Services by a buyer from the lowest Bidder. The Authorized Agency as the buyer must conduct Reverse Auctions by first publishing a Solicitation that describes its requirements, Contract terms and conditions. Then, the Authorized Agency must solicit online Bids from all interested Bidders through an Internet-based program. The Solicitation must set forth a start and end time for Bids and specify the following type of information to be disclosed to Bidders during the Reverse Auction:

(A) The prices of the other Bidders or the price of the most competitive Bidder;

(B) The rank of each Bidder (e.g., (i) "winning" or "not winning" or (ii) "1st, 2nd, or higher");

(C) The scores of the Bidders if the Authorized Agency chooses to use a scoring model that weighs non-price factors in addition to price; or

(D) Any combination of (A), (B) and (C) above. Before the Reverse Auction commences, Bidders must be required by the Authorized Agency to assent to the Contract terms and conditions, either in Writing or by an Internet "click" agreement. The Bidders then compete for the award of a Contract by offering successively lower prices, informed by the price(s), ranks, and scores, separately or in any combination thereof, disclosed by the Authorized Agency. The identity of the Bidders must not be revealed during this process. Only the successively lower price(s), ranks, scores and related details, separately or in any combination thereof, will be revealed to the participants. The Authorized Agency may cancel this Solicitation if this Agency determines that it is in this Agency's or the State's best interest. At the end of this Bidding process, the Authorized Agency must award any potential Contract to the lowest Responsible Bidder or in the case of multiple awards, lowest Responsible Bidders according to ORS 279B.055(10)(b). This process allows the Authorized Agency to test and determine the suitability of the Supplies and Services before making the Award. The Authorized Agency must comply with the following procedures for this type of Solicitation:

(c) Policy. The Authorized Agency must follow the policy of the Department.

(d) Public Notice.

(A) The Authorized Agency must disclose the Reverse Auction process in the Solicitation Document. The Reverse Auction process must include the manner of giving notices of the price(s) offered, rank(s), score(s), and related details to the initial Bidders.

(B) The Authorized Agency must provide initial notice of this Solicitation through ORPIN.

(C) If the value exceeds $150,000, the Authorized Agency must issue a Notice of Intent to award at least seven (7) calendar Days before making the Award.

(e) Prequalification. For each Solicitation, on a case-by-case basis, the Authorized Agency may determine whether prequalification of suppliers is needed. If prequalification is used, the Authorized Agency must prequalify suppliers and provide an appeal process in accordance with ORS 279B.120 and related Rules.

(f) E-Procurement. The requirements of OAR 125-247-0330 apply to Reverse Auctions. In the event of conflict or ambiguity, the more specific requirements of this Section (11) take precedence over the more general requirements of OAR 125-247-0330.

Price Agreements and Mandatory Use Contracts

(1) Mandatory Use Contracts, for the purposes of this Rule and including Department Price Agreements, service agreements, and sales agreements, may be established for the purposes of minimizing paper work, achieving continuity of product, securing a source of supply, reducing inventory, combining Agency requirements for volume discounts, standardization among Agencies, and reducing lead time for ordering. A Mandatory Use Contract requires the Authorized Agency to purchase Supplies and Services for an anticipated need at a predetermined price, provided the Mandatory Use Contract is let by a competitive Procurement Process according to the requirements of ORS 279ABC and these Rules.

(2) Authorized Agencies may purchase the Supplies and Services from a Contractor awarded a Mandatory Use Contract without first undertaking additional competitive Solicitation.

(3) Authorized Agencies must use Mandatory Use Contracts established by the Department unless otherwise specified in the Contract, allowed by law or these Rules, or specifically authorized by the State Procurement Office.

(4) Despite Section (3) above, Authorized Agencies are exempted from Mandatory Use Contracts for acquisition of the following, regardless of dollar amount:

(a) Supplies and Services from another Oregon Public Agency provided that a formal, Written agreement is entered into between the parties;

(b) Personal property for resale through student stores operated by public educational Agencies; and

(c) Emergency purchases declared by an Authorized Agency according to ORS 279B.

(5) Authorized Agencies may be exempted from a Mandatory Use Contract upon a request to and approval by the State Procurement Office.

(6) The term of the Contract, including renewals, must not exceed the maximum term stated in the original Solicitation.

Public Notice of Solicitation Documents

(1) Application. This Rule applies only to Bidding and Proposals in accordance with ORS 279B.055, 279B.060, and OAR 125-247-0255 through 125-247-0260.

(2) Notice of Solicitation Documents.

(a) Official Notice. An Authorized Agency must post public notice of every Solicitation Document on ORPIN in accordance with OAR 125-246-0500 (Official Notice).

(b) Additional Notice. The Authorized Agency may give additional notice if:

(A) The additional notice refers to the Official Notice, and

(B) The Authorized Agency uses any method it determines appropriate to foster and promote competition, including:

(i) Mailing notice of the availability of the Solicitation Document to Persons that have expressed an interest in the Authorized Agency's Procurements;

(ii) Placing notice on the Authorized Agency's Internet World Wide Web site; or

(iii) Publishing notice in a newspaper of general circulation as described in ORS 279B.055(4) (Additional Notice).

(3) Content of Official and Additional Notices. All notices for solicitation of Offers must set forth:

(a) Where, when, how, and for how long the Solicitation Document may be obtained;

(b) A general description of the Supplies and Services to be acquired;

(c) The date that Persons must file applications for prequalification if prequalification is a requirement and the class of Supplies and Services is one for which Persons must be prequalified;

(d) The office where contract terms, conditions and Specifications may be reviewed if not electronically attached;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(e) The name, title and address of the individual authorized by the Authorized Agency to receive Offers;

(f) The scheduled Opening; and

(g) Any other information the Authorized Agency deems to be appropriate.

(4) Notice Time Periods.

(a) The Authorized Agency must give Official Notice of an Invitation to Bid at least fourteen (14) Days before the Closing.

(b) The Authorized Agency must give Official Notice of a Request for Proposals at least thirty (30) Days before the Closing.

(c) The Authorized Agency may give Additional Notice for any reasonable time

(d) Despite Section (4)(a) and (b), the Authorized Agency may determine that a shorter time period is in the public's interest and that a shorter time period will not substantially affect competition. In no event may the Authorized Agency give any Official Notice less than seven (7) Days before Closing. The Authorized Agency must document the specific reasons for the shorter time period in the Procurement File in accordance with OAR 125-246-0556.

(e) Despite other provisions of this Rule, the public notice time period for a Qualified Products List is at least seven (7) days.

(5) Availability of Written Advertisement for Offers. Upon the request of any member of the public, the Authorized Agency must provide a copy of each advertisement for Offers and all supporting documents, to be located in the Procurement File or an identified repository.

(6) Minority, Women, and Emerging Small Business. In accordance with ORS 200.035, an Authorized Agency must provide timely notice of all Procurements to the Advocate for Minority, Women and Emerging Small Business if the estimated Contract Price exceeds $5,000.

(7) Fees. The Authorized Agency may charge a fee or require a deposit for the Solicitation Document, supporting documents and any combination thereof.

(8) Notice of Addenda. The Authorized Agency must provide notice to potential Offerors on ORPIN of any Addenda to a Solicitation Document in accordance with OAR 125-247-0430.

Bids or Proposals are Offers

(1) Offer and Acceptance. The Bid or Proposal is the Bidder's or Proposer's Offer to enter into a Contract.

(a) In competitive bidding and competitive Proposals, the Offer is always a "Firm Offer," i.e., the Offer must be held open by the Offeror for the Authorized Agency's acceptance for the period specified in OAR 125-247-0480. The Authorized Agency may elect to accept the Offer at any time during the specified period, and the Authorized Agency's Award of the Contract constitutes acceptance of the Offer and binds the Offeror to the Contract.

(b) Despite the fact that a competitive Proposal is a "Firm Offer" for the period specified in OAR 125-247-0480, the Authorized Agency may elect to discuss or negotiate certain contractual provisions, as identified in these Rules or in the Solicitation Document, with the Proposer. Where negotiation is permitted by these Rules or the Solicitation Document, Proposers are obligated to negotiate in good faith and only on those terms or conditions that these Rules or the Solicitation Document have reserved for negotiation.

(2) Contingent Offers. Except to the extent the Proposer is authorized to propose certain terms and conditions according to OAR 125-247-0260, a Proposer must not make its Offer contingent upon the Authorized Agency's acceptance of any terms or conditions (including Specifications) other than those contained in the Solicitation Document.

(3) Offeror's Acknowledgment. By Signing and returning the Offer, the Offeror acknowledges it has read and understands the terms and conditions contained in the Solicitation Document and that it accepts and agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions of the Solicitation Document. If the Request for Proposals permits Proposal of alternative terms or conditions under OAR 125-247-0260, the Offeror's Offer includes any nonnegotiable terms and conditions, any proposed terms and conditions offered for Negotiation upon and to the extent accepted by the Authorized Agency in Writing, and Offeror's agreement to perform the scope of work and meet the performance standards set forth in the final negotiated scope of work, in accordance with Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 880, Sections 5 and 6.

Facsimile Bids and Proposals

(1) Authorized Agency Authorization. An Authorized Agency may authorize Offerors to submit facsimile Offers. If the Authorized Agency determines that Bid or Proposal security is or will be required, the Authorized Agency should not authorize facsimile Offers unless the Authorized Agency has another method for receipt of such security. Before authorizing the submission of facsimile Offers, the Authorized Agency must determine that the Authorized Agency's equipment and personnel are capable of receiving the size and volume of anticipated Offers within a short period of time. In addition, the Authorized Agency must establish administrative procedures and controls:

(a) To receive, identify, record, and safeguard facsimile Offers;

(b) To ensure timely delivery of Offers to the location of Opening; and

(c) To preserve the Offers as sealed.

(2) Provisions to be Included in Solicitation Document. In addition to all other requirements, if the Authorized Agency authorizes a facsimile Offer, the Authorized Agency will include in the Solicitation Document the following:

(a) A provision substantially in the form of the following: "A 'facsimile Offer,' as used in this Solicitation Document, means an Offer, modification of an Offer, or withdrawal of an Offer that is transmitted to and received by the Authorized Agency via a facsimile machine";

(b) A provision substantially in the form of the following: "Offerors may submit facsimile Offers in response to this Solicitation Document. The entire response must arrive at the place and by the time specified in this Solicitation Document";

(c) A provision that requires Offerors to Sign their facsimile Offers;

(d) A provision substantially in the form of the following: "The Authorized Agency reserves the right to award the Contract solely on the basis of a facsimile Offer. However, upon the Authorized Agency's request the apparent successful Offeror must promptly submit its complete original Signed Offer;

(e) The data and compatibility characteristics of the Authorized Agency's receiving facsimile machine as follows:

(A) Telephone number; and

(B) Compatibility characteristics, e.g. make and model number, receiving speed, communications protocol; and

(f) A provision that provides that the Authorized Agency is not responsible for any failure attributable to the transmission or receipt of the facsimile Offer including, but not limited to the following:

(A) Receipt of garbled or incomplete documents;

(B) Availability or condition of the receiving facsimile machine;

(C) Incompatibility between the sending and receiving facsimile machine;

(D) Delay in transmission or receipt of documents;

(E) Failure of the Offeror to properly identify the Offer documents;

(F) Illegibility of Offer documents; and

(G) Security and confidentiality of data.

Reverse Auctions

(1) If the Authorized Agency desires to conduct a Reverse Auction as defined in OAR 125-247-0288, the Authorized Agency must follow the policy of the Department. The requirements of OAR 125-247-0288 apply to Reverse Auctions. In the event of conflict or ambiguity, the more specific requirements of OAR 125-247-0288 take precedence over the more general requirements of this Rule.

(2) Multiple Receipts of Offers during a Period of Time. When the Authorized Agency specifies that Persons may submit multiple Electronic Offers during a period of time, the Authorized Agency must accept Electronic Offers, and Persons may submit Electronic Offers, in accordance with the following:

(a) Following receipt of the first Electronic Offer after the day and time the Authorized Agency first receives Electronic Offers, the Authorized Agency must give notice to the initial Bidders and update on a real time basis:

(A) The prices of the other Bidders or the price of the most competitive Bidder;

(B) The rank of each Bidder (e.g., (i) "winning" or "not winning" or (ii) "1st, 2nd, or higher");

(C) The scores of the Bidders if the Authorized Agency chooses to use a scoring model that weighs non-price factors in addition to price; or

(D) Any combination of (A), (B) and (C) above. At any time before the date and time after which the Authorized Agency will no longer receive Electronic Offers, a Person may revise its Electronic Offer, except that a Person may not lower its price unless that price is below the then lowest Electronic Offer.

(b) A Person may not increase the price set forth in an Electronic Offer after the day and time that the Authorized Agency first accepts Electronic Offers.

(c) A Person may withdraw an Electronic Offer only in compliance with these division 247 Rules. If a Person withdraws an Electronic Offer, it may not later submit an Electronic Offer at a price higher than that set forth in the withdrawn Electronic Offer.

125-247-0470

Mistakes

(1) General. To protect the integrity of the competitive Procurement Process and to assure fair treatment of Offerors, an Authorized Agency should carefully consider whether to permit waiver, correction or withdrawal of Offers for certain mistakes.

(2) Authorized Agency Treatment of Mistakes. An Authorized Agency must not allow an Offeror to correct or withdraw an Offer for an error in judgment. If the Authorized Agency discovers certain mistakes in an Offer after Opening, but before the Award of the Contract, the Authorized Agency may take the following action:

(a) An Authorized Agency may waive, or permit an Offeror to correct, a minor informality. A minor informality is a matter of form rather than substance that is evident on the face of the Offer, or an insignificant mistake that can be waived or corrected without prejudice to other Offerors. Examples of minor informalities include an Offeror's failure to:

(A) Return the correct number of Signed Offers or the correct number of other documents required by the Solicitation Document;

(B) Sign the Offer in the designated block, provided a Signature appears elsewhere in the Offer, evidencing an intent to be bound; and

(C) Acknowledge receipt of an Addendum to the Solicitation Document, provided: it is clear on the face of the Offer that the Offeror received the Addendum and intended to be bound by its terms; or the Addendum involved did not affect price, quality or delivery.

(b) An Authorized Agency may correct a clerical error if the error is evident on the face of the Offer, or other documents submitted with the Offer, and the Offeror confirms the Authorized Agency's correction in Writing. A clerical error is an Offeror's error in transcribing its Offer. Unit prices must prevail over extended prices in the event of a discrepancy between extended prices and unit prices.

(c) An Authorized Agency may permit an Offeror to withdraw an Offer based on one or more clerical errors in the Offer only if the Offeror shows with objective proof and by clear and convincing evidence:

(A) The nature of the error;

(B) That the error is not a minor informality under this Subsection or an error in judgment;

(C) That the error cannot be corrected or waived under Subsection (b) of this Section;

(D) That the Offeror acted in good faith in submitting an Offer that contained the claimed error and in claiming that the alleged error in the Offer exists;

(E) That the Offeror acted without gross negligence in submitting an Offer that contained a claimed error;

(F) That the Offeror will suffer substantial detriment if the Authorized Agency does not grant the Offeror permission to withdraw the Offer;

(G) That the Authorized Agency's or the public's status has not changed so significantly that relief from the forfeiture will Work a substantial hardship on the Authorized Agency or the public it represents; and

(H) That the Offeror promptly gave notice of the claimed error to the Authorized Agency.

(d) The criteria in Subsection (2)(c) of this Rule must determine whether an Authorized Agency will permit an Offeror to withdraw its Offer after Closing. These criteria also must apply to the question whether an Authorized Agency will permit an Offeror to withdraw its Offer without forfeiture of its Bid bond (or Proposal security), or without liability to the Authorized Agency based on the difference between the amount of the Offeror's Offer and the amount of the Contract actually awarded by the Authorized Agency, whether by Award to the next lowest Responsive and Responsible Bidder the most Advantageous Responsive and Responsible Proposer, or by resort to a new Solicitation.

(3) Rejection for Mistakes. The Authorized Agency must reject any Offer in which a mistake is evident on the face of the Offer and the intended correct Offer is not evident or cannot be substantiated from documents accompanying the Offer.

(4) Identification of Mistakes After Award. The procedures and criteria set forth above are Offeror's only opportunity to correct mistakes or withdraw Offers because of a mistake. Following Award, an Offeror is bound by its Offer, and may only withdraw its Offer or rescind a Contract entered into according to this Division 247 to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Responsibility of Offerors

(1) Determination. Before awarding a Contract, the Authorized Agency must determine that the Offeror submitting the lowest Bid or Proposal or most Advantageous Offer is Responsible. The Authorized Agency must use the standards set forth in ORS 279B.110 and OAR 125-247-0640(1)(c)(F) to determine if an Offeror is Responsible. In the event an Authorized Agency determines an Offeror is not Responsible, it must prepare a Written determination of non-Responsibility as required by ORS 279B.110 and must reject the Offer.

(2) Independent Contractor Status, Tax Compliance, and Requirements to Transact Business in Oregon. For these responsibilities of Offerors, see OAR 125-246-0330.

(3) Life Cycle Costing. See OAR 125-247-0170.

(4) Record of Performance and Integrity. Authorized Agencies must comply with ORS 279B.110, as revised by Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 880.

Prequalification of Prospective Offerors, Pre-negotiation of Contract Terms and Conditions, and Request for Qualifications (RFQ)

(1) Prequalification of Prospective Offerors. An Authorized Agency may prequalify prospective Offerors according to ORS 279B.120 and 279B.125. Despite the prohibition against revocation of prequalification in ORS 279B.120(3), an Authorized Agency may determine that a prequalified Offeror is not Responsible before Contract Award.

(2) Pre-negotiation of Contract Terms and Conditions. An Authorized Agency may pre-negotiate some or all Contract terms and conditions including prospective Proposer Contract forms such as license agreements, maintenance and support agreements or similar documents for use in future Procurements. Such pre-negotiation of Contract terms and conditions (including prospective Proposer forms) may be part of the prequalification process of a Proposer in Section (1) or the pre-negotiation may be a separate process and not part of a prequalification process. Unless required as part of the prequalification process, the failure of the Authorized Agency and the prospective Proposer to reach agreement on pre-negotiated Contract terms and conditions does not prohibit the prospective Proposer from responding to Procurements. An Authorized Agency may agree to different pre-negotiated Contract terms and conditions with different prospective Proposers. When an Authorized Agency has pre-negotiated different terms and conditions with Proposers or when permitted, Proposers offer different terms and conditions, an Authorized Agency may consider the terms and conditions in the Proposal evaluation process.

(3) Request for Qualifications (RFQ). For purposes of this Section, an RFQ may be used without the RFQ constituting a Prequalification according to Section (1) of this Rule, if the Authorized Agency establishes the RFQ to determine whether competition exists to perform the needed services or to establish a nonbinding, open list of qualified Contractors in addition to the general public and in order to expand the pool of qualified Contractors, before issuing a Request for Proposals (RFP). If an Authorized Agency establishes a closed, exclusive, or binding list of qualified Contractors, then the Authorized Agency must comply with Section (1) of this Rule. The Authorized Agency is not required to issue an RFQ and may elect to forego using an RFQ before issuing an RFP.

(a) At a minimum, the RFQ must describe the particular specialty desired, the qualifications the Contractor(s) must have in order to be considered, and the evaluation factors and their relative importance. The RFQ may require information including, but not limited to: the Contractor's particular capability to perform the required services; the number of experienced staff available to perform the required services, including specific qualifications and experience of personnel; a list of similar services the Contractor has completed, with references concerning past performance; and any other information deemed necessary by the Authorized Agency to evaluate Contractor qualifications.

(b) A qualifications pre-submission meeting, voluntary or mandatory, may be held for all interested Contractors to discuss the proposed services. The RFQ must include the date, time and place of the meeting(s).

(c) Unless the RFQ establishes that competition does not exist or unless the Solicitation process is canceled or all qualification statements are rejected, all respondents who met the published qualifications must receive a notice, or other materials as appropriate, in addition to the general public, of any required services and have an opportunity to submit a proposal in response to an Authorized Agency's subsequent RFP.

(d) All RFQs must:

(A) Be in Writing;

(B) Be posted on ORPIN;

(C) Provide that the Authorized Agency may, at any time during the Solicitation process, reject any or all Proposals or cancel the Solicitation without liability if it is in the public interest to do so; and

(D) Provide that the Authorized Agency is not responsible for any costs of any proposers incurred while submitting Proposals, and that all Proposers who respond to Solicitations do so solely at their own expense, unless compensation is expressly provided for in the Solicitation Document.

(e) According to ORS 200.035, the Authorized Agency must notify, in Writing, the Advocate for Minority, Women and Emerging Small Businesses of each Solicitation and contracting opportunity exceeding $5,000.

Offer Evaluation and Award

(1) Authorized Agency Evaluation. The Authorized Agency must evaluate Offers only as set forth in the Solicitation Document, according to ORS 279B.055(6)(a) and 279B.060(6)(b), and in accordance with applicable law. The Authorized Agency must not evaluate Offers using any other requirement or criterion.

(a) Evaluation of Bids.

(A) Nonresident Bidders. In determining the lowest Responsive Bid, the Authorized Agency must apply the reciprocal preference set forth in ORS 279A.120(2)(b) and OAR 125-246-0310 for nonresident Bidders.

(B) Public Printing. The Authorized Agency must, for the purpose of evaluating Bids, apply the public printing preference set forth in ORS 282.210.

(C) Award When Bids are Identical. If the Authorized Agency determines that one or more Bids are identical under OAR 125-246-0300, the Authorized Agency must award a Contract in accordance with the procedures set forth in OAR 125-246-0300.

(b) Evaluation of Proposals.

(A) Award When Proposals are Identical. If the Authorized Agency determines that one or more Proposals are identical under OAR 125-246-0300, the Authorized Agency must award a Contract in accordance with the procedures set forth in OAR 125-246-0300.

(B) Public Printing. The Authorized Agency must for the purpose of evaluating Proposals apply the public printing preference set forth in ORS 282.210.

(c) Recycled Materials. When procuring Goods, the Authorized Agency must give preference for Recycled Materials as set forth in ORS 279A.125 and OAR 125-246-0322.

(2) Clarification of Bids or Proposals. After the Bid Opening, an Authorized Agency may conduct Discussions with apparent Responsive Offerors for the purpose of clarification and to assure full understanding of the Bids or Proposals. All Bids or Proposals, at the Authorized Agency's sole discretion, needing clarification must be afforded such an opportunity. The Authorized Agency must document clarification of any Bidder's Bid in the Procurement File in accordance with OAR 125-246-0556.

(3) Negotiations Prohibited or Allowed.

(a) Prohibition in Competitive Sealed Bidding. An Authorized Agency must not negotiate with any Bidder in a competitive sealed bidding according to ORS 279B.060 and related Rule. After Award of the Contract, the Authorized Agency and Contractor may only modify the Contract in accordance with OAR 125-246-0560. An Authorized Agency may conduct Discussions in accordance with OAR 125-247-0255

(b) Allowance in Other Procurement Methods. An Authorized Agency may conduct Discussions or Negotiations with one or more Offerors in Competitive Sealed Proposals, Small Procurements, Intermediate Procurements, Emergency Procurements if applicable, and Special Procurements if applicable, in accordance with ORS 279B.060(6)(b), OAR 125-247-0260, 125-247-0260, 125-247-0270, 125-247-0287, and 125-247-0288. To the extent practical, an Authorized Agency must negotiate in Sole-Source Procurements in accordance with OAR 125-247-0275. After Award of the Contract, the Authorized Agency and Contractor may only modify the Contract in accordance with OAR 125-246-0560.

(c) Other Procurements. This Section (3) does not apply to Small Procurements, Emergency Procurements, or Special Procurements which do not use Solicitations.

(4) Award.

(a) General. If awarded, the Authorized Agency must award the Contract to the Responsible Bidder submitting the lowest, Responsive Bid or the Responsible Proposer submitting the most Advantageous, Responsive Proposal. The Authorized Agency may award by item, groups of items or the entire Offer provided such Award is consistent with the Solicitation Document and in the public interest.

(b) Multiple Items. An Invitation to Bid or Request for Proposals may call for pricing of multiple items of similar or related type with the Award based on individual line item, group total of certain items, a "market basket" of items representative of the Authorized Agency's expected purchases, or grand total of all items.

(c) Multiple Awards; Bids.

(A) Despite Subsection 4(a) of this Rule, an Authorized Agency may award multiple Contracts under an Invitation to Bid in accordance with the criteria set forth in the Invitation to Bid. A multiple Award may be made if the Award to two or more Bidders is beneficial for adequate availability, delivery, service, competition, pricing, product capabilities, skills, or other factors deemed significant by the Authorized Agency. Multiple Awards may not be allowed for user preference unrelated to utility or economy. A notice to prospective Bidders that multiple Contracts may be awarded for any Invitation to Bid must not preclude the Authorized Agency from awarding a single Contract for such Invitation to Bid.

(B) If an Invitation to Bid permits the Award of multiple Contracts, the Authorized Agency must specify in the Invitation to Bid the criteria it will use to choose from the multiple Contracts when purchasing Supplies and Services. This criteria may include consideration and evaluation of the terms and conditions agreed to by the Contractors.

(d) Multiple Awards; Proposals.

(A) Despite Subsection 4(a) of this Rule, an Authorized Agency may award multiple Contracts under a Request for Proposals in accordance with the criteria set forth in the Request for Proposals. A multiple Award may be made if the Award to two or more Proposers is beneficial for adequate availability, delivery, service, competition, pricing, product capabilities, skills, or other factors deemed significant by the Authorized Agency. Multiple Awards may not be allowed for user preference unrelated to utility or economy. A notice to prospective Proposers that multiple Contracts may be awarded for any Request for Proposals must not preclude the Authorized Agency from awarding a single Contract for such Request for Proposals.

(B) If a Request for Proposals permits the Award of multiple Contracts, the Authorized Agency must specify in the Request for Proposals the criteria it will use to choose from the multiple Contracts when purchasing Supplies and Services. This criteria may include consideration and evaluation of the terms and conditions agreed to by the Contractors.

(e) Partial Awards. If after evaluation of Offers, the Authorized Agency determines that an acceptable Offer has been received for only parts of the requirements of the Solicitation Document:

(A) The Authorized Agency may award a Contract for the parts of the Solicitation Document for which acceptable Offers have been received; or

(B) The Authorized Agency may reject all Offers and may issue a new Solicitation Document on the same or revised terms, conditions and Specifications.

(f) All or None Offers. An Authorized Agency may award all or no Offers if the evaluation shows an all or no Award to be the lowest cost for Bids or the most Advantageous for Proposals of those submitted.

(g) Life Cycle Costing. The Authorized Agency must follow OAR 125-247-0170.

Notice of Intent to Award

(1) Notice of Intent to Award. The Authorized Agency must provide Written notice of its intent to award a Contract resulting from a formal Invitation to Bid or Request for Proposal to all Offerors according to ORS 279B.135 at least seven (7) Days before the Award of a Contract, unless the Authorized Agency determines that circumstances justify prompt execution of the Contract, in which case the Authorized Agency may provide a shorter notice period. The Authorized Agency must document the specific reasons for the shorter notice period in the Procurement File in accordance with OAR 125-246-0556.

(2) Finality. The Authorized Agency's Award must not be final until the later of the following:

(a) The expiration of the protest period provided according to OAR 125-247-0740; or

(b) The Authorized Agency provides Written responses to all timely-filed protests denying the protests and affirming the Award.

(3) The Authorized Agency may provide this notice through any reasonable means and, if functionality exists, through ORPIN in accordance with OAR 125-246-0500.

Availability of Award Decisions

(1) Contract Documents. To the extent required by the Solicitation Document, the Authorized Agency must deliver to the successful Offeror a Contract, a Signed Purchase Order, Price Agreement, or other Contract documents as applicable.

(2) Availability of Award Decisions. A Person may obtain tabulations of awarded Bids or evaluation summaries of Proposals for a minimal charge, in person or by submitting to the Authorized Agency a Written request accompanied by payment. The requesting Person must provide the Solicitation Document number and enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope. In addition, the Authorized Agency may make available tabulations of Bids and Proposals through ORPIN or the Authorized Agency's website.

(3) Availability of Procurement Files. After the notice of intent to award, the Authorized Agency must make Procurement Files available in accordance with applicable law, except where applicable law requires the Authorized Agency to make information contained in the Procurement Files available before any notice of intent to award. See the Public Records Law. A protestor of a Competitive Range in accordance with OAR 125-247-0260 is not entitled to obtain or review the Procurement Files related to the protest until after the notice of intent to award. See OAR 125-247-0720.

Rejection of an Offer

(1) Rejection.

(a) An Authorized Agency may reject any Offer as set forth in ORS 279B.100.

(b) The Authorized Agency must reject an Offer upon the Authorized Agency's finding that the Offer:

(A) Is contingent upon the Authorized Agency's acceptance of terms and conditions (including Specifications) that differ from the Solicitation Document;

(B) Takes exception to terms and conditions (including Specifications) set forth in the Solicitation Document;

(C) Attempts to prevent public disclosure of matters in contravention of the terms and conditions of the Solicitation Document or in contravention of applicable law;

(D) Offers Supplies and Services that fail to meet the Specifications of the Solicitation Document;

(E) Is late;

(F) Is not in substantial compliance with the Solicitation Document; or

(G) Is not in substantial compliance with all prescribed public procurement procedures.

(c) The Authorized Agency must reject an Offer upon the Authorized Agency's finding that the Offeror:

(A) Has not been prequalified under ORS 279B.120 and the Authorized Agency required mandatory prequalification;

(B) Has been Debarred as set forth in ORS 279B.130 or has been disqualified pursuant to OAR 125-246-0210(4) (DBE Disqualification);

(C) Has not met the requirements of ORS 279A.105, if required by the Solicitation Document;

(D) Has not submitted properly executed Bid or Proposal security as required by the Solicitation Document;

(E) Has failed to provide the certification of non-discrimination required under ORS 279A.110(4); or

(F) Is non-Responsible. Offerors are required to demonstrate their ability to perform satisfactorily under a Contract. Before awarding a Contract, the Authorized Agency must have information that indicates that the Offeror meets the applicable standards of Responsibility. To be a Responsible Offeror, the Authorized Agency must determine pursuant to ORS 279B.110 that the Offeror:

(i) Has available the appropriate financial, material, equipment, facility and personnel resources and expertise, or ability to obtain the resources and expertise, necessary meet all contractual responsibilities;

(ii) Has completed previous Contracts of a similar nature with a satisfactory record of performance. A "satisfactory record of performance" means that to the extent the costs associated with and the time available to perform a previous Contract were within the Offeror's control, the Offeror stayed within the time and budget allotted for the Procurement and otherwise performed the Contract in a satisfactory manner. An Authorized Agency should carefully scrutinize an Offeror's record of contract performance if the Offeror is or recently has been materially deficient in contract performance. In reviewing the Offeror's performance, the Authorized Agency should determine whether the Offeror's deficient performance was expressly excused under the terms of the contract, or whether the Offeror took appropriate corrective action. The Authorized Agency may review the Offeror's performance on both private and Public Contracts in determining the Offeror's record of contract performance. Pursuant to ORS 279B.110(2)(b), the Authorized Agency must make its basis for determining an Offeror non-Responsible under this subparagraph part of the Procurement File in accordance with OAR 125-246-0355;

(iii) Has a satisfactory record of integrity. An Offeror may lack integrity if an Authorized Agency determines the Offeror demonstrates a lack of business ethics such as violation of state environmental laws or false certifications made to an Authorized Agency. An Authorized Agency may find an Offeror non-Responsible based on the lack of integrity of any Person having influence or control over the Offeror (such as a key employee of the Offeror that has the authority to significantly influence the Offeror's performance of the Contract or a parent company, predecessor or successor Person). The standards for Debarment under ORS 279B.130 may be used to determine an Offeror's integrity. An Authorized Agency may find an Offeror non-responsible based on previous convictions of offenses related to obtaining or attempting to obtain a Contract or subcontract or in connection with the Offeror's performance of a Contract or subcontract. Pursuant to ORS 279B.110(2)(c), the Authorized Agency must make its basis for determining that an Offeror is non-Responsible under this subparagraph part of the Procurement File in accordance with OAR 125-246-0355;

(iv) Is legally qualified to contract with the Authorized Agency; and

(v) Has supplied all necessary information in connection with the inquiry concerning Responsibility. If the Offeror fails to promptly supply information requested by the Authorized Agency concerning Responsibility, the Authorized Agency must base the determination of Responsibility upon any available information, or may find the Offeror non-Responsible.

(2) Form of Business Entity. For purposes of this Rule, the Authorized Agency may investigate any Person submitting an Offer. The investigation may include that Person's officers, directors, owners, affiliates, or any other Person acquiring ownership of the Person to determine application of this Rule or to apply the Debarment provisions of ORS 279B.130.

Cancellation of Procurement or Solicitation

(1) Cancellation in the Public Interest. An Authorized Agency may cancel a Procurement or Solicitation as set forth in ORS 279B.100.

(2) Notice of Cancellation before Opening. If the Authorized Agency cancels a Procurement or Solicitation before Opening, the Authorized Agency must provide Written notice of cancellation in the same manner that the Authorized Agency initially provided notice of the Solicitation. Such notice of cancellation must:

(a) Identify the Solicitation Document;

(b) Briefly explain the reason for cancellation; and

(c) If appropriate, explain that an opportunity will be given to compete on any re-solicitation.

(3) Notice of Cancellation after Opening. If the Authorized Agency cancels a Procurement or Solicitation after Opening, the Authorized Agency must provide Written notice of cancellation to all Offerors who submitted Offers.

Brand Name or Equal Specification

(1) Applicability and Use. This Rule applies to Specifications for a Solicitation or class of Solicitations. For a Solicitation or class of Solicitations under ORS 279B.060, 279B.065, 279B.070, 279B.085, or 279A.200-279A.225, as provided in ORS 279B.215:

(a) A brand name or equal Specification may be used when the use of a brand name or equal Specification is advantageous to the Agency, because the brand name describes the standard of quality, performance, functionality and other characteristics of the product needed by the Agency.

(b) The Agency is entitled to determine what constitutes a product that is equal or superior to the product specified, and any such determination is final.

(c) Nothing in this Subsection may be construed as prohibiting an Agency from specifying one or more comparable products as examples of the quality, performance, functionality or other characteristics of the product needed by the Agency.

(2) Determination. A brand name Specification may be prepared and used only if the Agency determines for a Solicitation or a class of Solicitations that only the identified brand name Specification will meet the needs of the Agency based on one or more of the following written determinations:

(a) That use of a brand name Specification is unlikely to encourage favoritism in the awarding of Public Contracts or substantially diminish competition for Public Contracts;

(b) That use of a brand name Specification would result in substantial cost savings to the Agency;

(c) That there is only one manufacturer or seller of the product of the quality, performance or functionality required; or

(d) That efficient utilization of existing Goods requires the acquisition of compatible Goods or Services.

(3) An Agency's use of a brand name Specification may be subject to review only as provided in ORS 279B.405.

(4) Single Manufacturer, Multiple Sellers. An Authorized Agency may prepare and use a brand name or equal Specification for Supplies and Services available from only one manufacturer, but available through multiple sellers, if the Authorized Agency complies with Sections (1) and (2) of this Rule and the following requirements:

(a) If the total purchase is $5,000 or more but does not exceed $150,000 and Supplies and Services are not available under an existing Mandatory Use Contract, the Authorized Agency must obtain informal, competitive Quotes, Bids, or Proposals and document this process in the Procurement File according to ORS 279B.070 and OAR 125-247-0270;

(b) If the purchase exceeds $150,000, and the Supplies and Services are not available under an existing Price Agreement for information technology with competing products or a Mandatory Use Contract, an Authorized Agency must first request and obtain prior written authorization from the Chief Procurement Officer to proceed with the acquisition.

(5) Single Manufacturer, Multiple Purchases. If an Authorized Agency intends to make several purchases of brand name-specified Supplies and Services from a particular manufacturer or seller for a period not to exceed five (5) years, the Authorized Agency must so state this information in: the

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Procurement File; the Solicitation Document, if any; or a Public Notice of a solicitation on ORPIN. If the Authorized Agency estimates the total purchase amount to exceed $150,000, this estimate must also be stated in the Public Notice. This Section (5) does not apply to Department Price Agreements, also known as Mandatory Use Contracts.

(6) Nothing in this Rule exempts the Authorized Agency from obtaining the approval of the Attorney General for legal sufficiency according to ORS 291.047.

(7) All Authorized Agencies must comply with ORS 200.035 and related Department policy, despite this Rule.

Protests and Judicial Review of Approvals of Special Procurements

(1) Purpose. An Affected Person may protest the approval of a Special Procurement. According to ORS 279B.400(1), before seeking judicial review of the approval of a Special Procurement, an Affected Person must file a Written protest with the Chief Procurement Officer and exhaust all administrative remedies.

(2) Delivery. Regardless of the requirements for filing a writ of review under ORS Chapter 34 according to ORS 279B.400(4)(a), an Affected Person must deliver a Written protest to the Chief Procurement Officer within seven Days after the first date of public notice of the approval of a Special Procurement by the Chief Procurement Officer, unless a different protest period is provided in the public notice of the approval of a Special Procurement:

(3) Content of Protest. The Written protest must include:

- (a) A detailed statement of the legal and factual grounds for the protest;
- (b) A description of the resulting harm to the Affected Person; and
- (c) The relief requested.

(4) Chief Procurement Officer Response. The Chief Procurement Officer must not consider an Affected Person's protest of the approval of a Special Procurement submitted after the timeline established for submitting such protest under this Rule or such different time period as may be provided in the public notice of the approval of a Special Procurement. The Chief Procurement Officer must issue a Written disposition of the protest in a timely manner. If the Chief Procurement Officer upholds the protest, in whole or in part, the Chief Procurement Officer may with sole discretion implement the sustained protest in the approval of the Special Procurement, or revoke the approval of the Special Procurement.

(5) Judicial Review. An Affected Person may seek judicial review of the Chief Procurement Officer's decision relating to a protest of the approval of a Special Procurement in accordance with ORS 279B.400.

Protests and Judicial Review of Sole-Source Procurements

(1) Purpose. For Sole-Source Procurements requiring public notice under OAR 125-247-0275, an Affected Person may protest the determination of the Chief Procurement Officer or Designated Procurement Officer of the Authorized Agency for Contracts not exceeding $150,000 or under a specific delegation agreement (Designated Procurement Officer), that the Supplies and Services or class of Supplies and Services are available from only one source. According to ORS 279B.420(3)(f), before seeking judicial review, an Affected Person must file a Written protest with the Chief Procurement Officer or Designated Procurement Officer and exhaust all administrative remedies.

(2) Delivery. Unless otherwise specified in the public notice of the Sole-Source Procurement, an Affected Person must deliver a Written protest to the Chief Procurement Officer or Designated Procurement Officer within seven (7) Days after the first date of public notice of the Sole-Source Procurement, unless a different protest period is provided in the public notice of a Sole-Source Procurement.

(3) Content of Protest. The Written protest must include:

- (a) A detailed statement of the legal and factual grounds for the protest;
- (b) A description of the resulting harm to the Affected Person; and
- (c) The relief requested.

(4) Response. The Chief Procurement Officer or Designated Procurement Officer must not consider an Affected Person's Sole-Source Procurement protest submitted after the timeline established for submitting such protest under this Rule, or such different time period as may be provided in the public notice of the Sole-Source Procurement. The Chief Procurement Officer or Designated Procurement Officer must issue a Written disposition of the protest in a timely manner. If the Chief Procurement Officer or Designated Procurement Officer upholds the protest, in whole or in part, the Authorized Agency must not enter into a sole-source Contract.

(5) Judicial Review. Judicial review of the Chief Procurement Officer's or Designated Procurement Officer's disposition of a Sole-Source Procurement protest must be in accordance with ORS 279B.420.

Protests and Judicial Review of Multiple-Tiered and Multistep Solicitations

(1) Purpose. An Affected Offeror may protest exclusion from the Competitive Range or from subsequent tiers or steps of a Solicitation in accordance with the applicable Solicitation Document. When such a protest is permitted by the Solicitation Document, then according to ORS 279B.420(3)(f), before seeking judicial review, an Affected Offeror must file a Written protest with the Authorized Agency and exhaust all administrative remedies. A protestor of a Competitive Range in accordance with this Rule is not entitled to obtain or review the Procurement Files related to the protest until after the notice of intent to award. See OAR 125-247-0630.

(2) Basis for Protest. An Affected Offeror may only protest its exclusion from a tier or step of competition if the Offeror is Responsible and submitted a Responsive Offer and but for the Authorized Agency's mistake in evaluating the Offeror's or other Offerors' Offers, the protesting Offeror would have been eligible to participate in the next tier, step or Phase of competition. For example, the protesting Offeror must claim it is eligible for inclusion in the Competitive Range if all ineligible higher-scoring Offerors are removed from consideration, and that those ineligible Offerors are ineligible for inclusion in the Competitive Range because: their Proposals were not Responsive, or the Authorized Agency committed a substantial violation of a provision in the Solicitation Document or of an applicable procurement statute or administrative rule, and the protesting Offeror was unfairly evaluated and would have, but for such substantial violation, been included in the Competitive Range.

(3) Delivery. Unless otherwise specified in the Solicitation Document, an Affected Offeror must deliver a Written protest to the Authorized Agency within seven (7) Days after issuance of the notice of the Competitive Range or notice of subsequent tiers, steps or Phases.

(4) Content of Protest. The Affected Offeror's protest must be in Writing and must specify the grounds upon which the protest is based.

(5) Authorized Agency Response. The Authorized Agency must not consider an Affected Offeror's multi-tiered or multistep Solicitation protest submitted after the timeline established for submitting such protest under this Rule, or such different time period as may be provided in the Solicitation Document. The Authorized Agency must issue a Written disposition of the protest in a timely manner. If the Authorized Agency upholds the protest, in whole or in part, the Authorized Agency may in its sole discretion either issue an Addendum under OAR 125-247-0430 reflecting its disposition or cancel the Procurement or Solicitation under OAR 125-247-0660.

(6) Judicial Review. Judicial review of the Authorized Agency's decision relating to a multi-tiered or multistep Solicitation protest must be in accordance with ORS 279B.420.

Protests and Judicial Review of Contract Award

(1) Purpose. An Offeror may protest the Award of a Contract, or the Intent to Award a Contract, whichever occurs first, if the conditions set forth in ORS 279B.410(1) are satisfied. An Offeror must file a Written protest with the Authorized Agency and exhaust all administrative remedies before seeking judicial review of the Authorized Agency's Contract Award decision.

(2) Delivery. Unless otherwise specified in the Solicitation Document, an Offeror must deliver a Written protest to the Authorized Agency within seven (7) Days after the Award of the Contract or the issuance of the notice of intent to award the Contract, whichever occurs first.

(3) Content of Protest. An Offeror's Written protest must specify the grounds for the protest to be considered by the Authorized Agency according to ORS 279B.410(2).

(4) Authorized Agency Response. The Authorized Agency must not consider an Offeror's Contract Award protest submitted after the timeline established for submitting such protest under this Rule, or such different time period as may be provided in the Solicitation Document. The Authorized Agency must issue a Written disposition of the protest in a timely manner as set forth in ORS 279B.410(4). If the Authorized Agency upholds the protest, in whole or in part, the Authorized Agency may in its sole discretion either award the Contract to the successful protestor or cancel the Procurement or Solicitation.

(5) Judicial Review. Judicial review of the Authorized Agency's decision relating to a Contract Award protest must be in accordance with ORS 279B.415.

Judicial Review of Other Violations

(1) Any violation of ORS Chapter 279A or 279B by an Authorized Agency, for which no judicial remedy is otherwise provided in the Public Contracting Code, is subject to judicial review as set forth in ORS 279B.420.

(2) Alleged Violation. Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 880, Section 8 provides that an alleged violation of an Authorized Agency is subject to judicial review under this Rule, and Authorized Agencies must comply with ORS 279B.145.

Applicable Selection Procedures; Pricing Information; Disclosure of Proposals; Conflicts of Interest

(1) When selecting the most qualified Consultants to perform Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, Authorized Agencies that are contracting with Consultants under the conditions listed in ORS 279C.110(2) must follow the applicable selection procedure under either OAR 125-248-0200 (Direct Appointment Procedure), 125-248-0210 (Informal Selection Procedure) or 125-248-0220 (Formal Selection Procedure). Authorized Agencies subject to this Section (1) must not solicit or use pricing policies and pricing proposals, or other pricing information, to determine a Consultant's compensation until after the Authorized Agency has selected the most qualified Consultant in accordance with the applicable selection procedure.

(2) Authorized Agencies selecting Consultants to perform Related Services must follow one of the following selection procedures:

(a) When selecting a Consultant on the basis of qualifications alone, Authorized Agencies must follow the applicable selection procedure under OAR 125-248-0200 (Direct Appointment Procedure) if the requirements of OAR 125-248-0200(1) apply, 125-248-0210 (Informal Selection Procedure) or 125-248-0220 (Formal Selection Procedure); and

(b) When selecting a Consultant on the basis of price competition alone, Authorized Agencies must follow either the provisions under OAR Chapter 125, Division 247 for obtaining and evaluating Bids, or OAR 125-248-0200 (Direct Appointment Procedure) if the requirements of OAR 125-248-0200(1) apply; and

(c) When selecting a Consultant on the basis of price and qualifications, Authorized Agencies must follow either the provisions under OAR Chapter 125, Division 247 for obtaining and evaluating Proposals, or OAR 125-248-0200 (Direct Appointment Procedure) if the requirements of OAR 125-248-0200(1) apply. Authorized Agencies subject to this Section (2) may request and consider a Proposer's pricing policies and pricing proposals or other pricing information, submitted with a Proposal as part of the evaluation.

(3) Authorized Agencies may use electronic methods to screen and select a Consultant in accordance with the procedures described in Sections (1) and (2) of this rule. If an Authorized Agency uses electronic methods to screen and select a Consultant, the Authorized Agency must conduct the screening and selection procedure by electronic means, substantially in conformance with OAR 125-247-0330 (Electronic Procurement).

(4) In applying these Rules, Authorized Agencies must support the State's goal of promoting a sustainable economy in the rural areas of the State.

(5) Consistent with the requirements of ORS 279C.107 and the remaining requirements of ORS 279C.100, 279C.105 and 279C.110 through 279C.125, the following provisions apply to proposals received by an Authorized Agency for Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services:

(a) The term "competitive proposal", for purposes of ORS 279C.107 includes proposals under OAR 125-248-0200 (Direct Appointment Procedure), 125-248-0210 (Informal Selection Procedure), 125-248-0220 (Formal Selection Procedure) or 125-248-0130(2)(c) (selection based on price and qualifications),

(b) For purposes of proposals received by an Authorized Agency under OAR 125-248-0200 (Direct Appointment Procedure), a formal notice of intent to award is not required. As a result, OAR 125-248-0200 proposals are not required to be open for public inspection until after the Authorized Agency has made the decision to begin contract negotiations with the selected consultant.

(c) In the limited circumstances permitted by ORS 279C.110, 279C.115 and 279C.120, where the Authorized Agency is conducting discussions or negotiations with proposers who submit proposals that the Authorized Agency has determined to be closely competitive or to have a reasonable chance of being selected for award, the Authorized Agency may open proposals so as to avoid disclosure of proposal contents to competing Proposers, consistent with the requirements of ORS 279C.107. Otherwise, Authorized Agencies should open proposals in such a way as to avoid disclosure of the contents until after the Authorized Agency issues a notice of intent to award a contract.

(d) Disclosure of proposals and proposal information is otherwise governed by ORS 279C.107.

(6) As required by Oregon Laws 2009, chapter 880, Section 11, pertaining to requirements to ensure the objectivity and independence of providers of certain Personal Services which are procured under ORS 279C, Authorized Agencies may not:

(a) Procure the Personal Services identified in Oregon Laws 2009, chapter 880, Section 11 from a Contractor or an affiliate of a Contractor who is a party to the Public Contract that is subject to administration, management, monitoring, inspection, evaluation or oversight by means of the Personal Services; or

(b) Procure the Personal Services identified in Oregon Laws 2009, chapter 880, Section 11 through the Public Contract that is subject to administration, management, monitoring, inspection, evaluation or oversight by means of the Personal Services.

(7) The requirements of Oregon Laws 2009, chapter 880, Section 11 and Section (6) of this Rule apply in the following circumstances, except as provided in Section (8) of this Rule:

(a) The Procurement of Personal Services which an Authorized Agency requires for the purpose of administering, managing, monitoring, inspecting, evaluating compliance with or otherwise overseeing a Public Contract or performance under a Public Contract that is subject to ORS 279C. A Public Contract that is "subject to ORS 279C" includes a Public Contract for Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, a Public Contract for Related Services or a Public Contract for construction services under ORS 279C.

(b) The Procurements of Personal Services subject to the restrictions of Oregon Laws 2009, chapter 880, Section 11 include, but are not limited to, the following:

(A) Procurements for Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, which involve overseeing or monitoring the performance of a construction Contractor under a Public Contract for construction services subject to ORS 279C;

(B) Procurements for commissioning services, which involve monitoring, inspecting, evaluating or otherwise overseeing the performance of a Contractor providing Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or the performance of a construction Contractor under a Public Contract for construction services subject to ORS 279C;

(C) Procurements for project management services, which involve administration, management, monitoring, inspecting, evaluating compliance with or otherwise overseeing the performance of a Contractor providing Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, construction services subject to ORS 279C, commissioning services or other Related Services for a Project;

(D) Procurements for special inspections and testing services, which involve inspecting, testing or otherwise overseeing the performance of a construction Contractor under a Public Contract for construction services subject to ORS 279C; and

(E) Procurements for other Related Services or Personal Services, which involve administering, managing, monitoring, inspecting, evaluating compliance with or otherwise overseeing the Public Contracts described in Section (7)(a) of this Rule.

(8) The restrictions of Oregon Laws 2009, chapter 880, Section 11 do not apply in the following circumstances, except as further specified below:

(a) To an Authorized Agency's Procurement of both design services and construction services through a single "Design-Build" Procurement, as that term is defined in OAR 125-249-0610. Such a Design-Build Procurement includes a Procurement under an Energy Savings Performance Contract, as defined in ORS 279A.010. Provided, however, the restrictions of Oregon Laws 2009, chapter 880, Section 11 do apply to an Authorized Agency's Procurement of Personal Services for the purpose of administering, managing, monitoring, inspecting, evaluating compliance with or otherwise overseeing a Design-Build Contract or performance under such a Contract resulting from a Design-Build Procurement.

(b) To an Authorized Agency's Procurement of both pre-construction services and construction services through a single "Construction Manager/General Contractor" Procurement, as defined in OAR 125-249-0610. Provided, however, the restrictions of Oregon Laws 2009, chapter 880, Section 11 do apply to an Authorized Agency's Procurement of Personal Services for the purpose of administering, managing, monitoring, inspecting, evaluating compliance with or otherwise overseeing a Construction Manager/General Contractor Contract or performance under such a Contract resulting from a Construction Manager/General Contractor Procurement.

(9) All Agencies must provide timely notice to the Advocate for Minority, Women and Emergency Small Business, according to ORS 200.035.

Direct Appointment Procedure

(1) Authorized Agencies may enter into a Contract directly with a Consultant without following the selection procedures set forth elsewhere in these Rules if:

(a) Emergency. The Authorized Agency finds that an Emergency exists; or

(b) Small Estimated Fee. The Estimated Fee to be paid under the Contract does not exceed $50,000; or

(c) Continuation of Project with Intermediate Estimated Fee. Where a Project is being continued, as more particularly described below, and where the Estimated Fee will not exceed $150,000, the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services to be performed under the Contract must meet the following requirements:

(A) The services consist of or are related to Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services that have been substantially described, planned or otherwise previously studied in an earlier Contract with the same Consultant and are rendered for the same Project as the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services rendered under the earlier Contract;

(B) The Estimated Fee to be made under the Contract does not exceed $150,000; and

(C) The Authorized Agency used either the formal selection procedure under OAR 137-048-0220 (Formal Selection Procedure) or the formal selection procedure applicable to selection of the Consultant at the time of original selection, to select the Consultant for the earlier Contract; or

(d) Continuation of Project with Extensive Estimated Fee. Where a Project is being continued, as more particularly described below, and where the Estimated Fee is expected to exceed $150,000, the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services to be performed under the Contract must meet the following requirements:

(A) The services consist of or are related to Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services that have been substantially described, planned or otherwise previously studied in an earlier Contract with the same Consultant and are rendered for the same Project as the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services rendered under the earlier Contract;

(B) The Authorized Agency used either the formal selection procedure under OAR 125-248-0220 (Formal Selection Procedure) or the formal selection procedure applicable to selection of the Consultant at the time of original selection, to select the Consultant for the earlier Contract; and

(C) The Authorized Agency makes written findings that entering into a Contract with the Consultant, whether in the form of an amendment to an existing Contract or a separate Contract for the additional Scope of services, will:

(i) Promote efficient use of public funds and resources and result in substantial cost savings to Authorized Agency;

(ii) Protect the integrity of the public contracting process and the competitive nature of the Procurement by not encouraging favoritism or substantially diminishing competition in the award of the Contract.

(2) The Authorized Agencies may select Consultants for Contracts under this Rule from the following sources:

(a) The Authorized Agency's list of Consultants that is created under OAR 125-248-0120 (List of Interested Consultants; Performance Record);

(b) Another Authorized Agency's list of Consultants that the Authorized Agency has created under OAR 125-248-0120 (List of Interested Consultants; Performance Record), with Written consent of that Authorized Agency; or

(c) All Consultants offering the required Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services that Authorized Agencies reasonably can identify under the circumstances.

(3) The Authorized Agency must direct Negotiations with Consultants selected under this Rule toward obtaining Written agreement on:

(a) Consultant's performance obligations and performance schedule;

(b) Payment methodology and a maximum amount payable to the Consultant for the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services required under the Contract that is fair and reasonable to the Authorized Agency as determined solely by the Authorized Agency, taking into account the value, Scope, complexity and nature of the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services; and

(c) Any other provisions the Authorized Agency believes to be in the Authorized Agency's best interest to negotiate.

Informal Selection Procedure

(1) Authorized Agencies may use the informal selection procedure described in this Rule to obtain a Contract if the Estimated Fee is expected to not exceed $150,000.

(2) Authorized Agencies using the informal selection procedure must:

(a) Create a Request for Proposals that includes at a minimum the following:

(A) A description of the Project for which Consultant's Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services are needed and a description of the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services that will be required under the resulting Contract;

(B) Anticipated Contract performance schedule;

(C) Conditions or limitations, if any, that may constrain or prohibit the selected Consultant's ability to provide additional services related to the Project, including construction services;

(D) Date and time Proposals are due and other directions for submitting Proposals;

(E) Criteria upon which the most qualified Consultant will be selected. Selection Criteria may include:

(i) Amount and type of resources and number of experienced staff Consultant has available to perform the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the Request for Proposals within the applicable time limits, including the current and projected Workloads of such staff and the proportion of time such staff would have available for the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services;

(ii) Proposed management techniques for the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the Request for Proposals;

(iii) A Consultant's capability, experience and past performance history and record in providing similar Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services, including but not limited to quality of Work, ability to meet schedules, cost control methods and Contract Administration practices;

(iv) A Consultant's approach to Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the Request for Proposals and design philosophy, if applicable;

(v) A Consultant's geographic proximity to and familiarity with the physical location of the Project;

(vi) Volume of Work, if any, previously awarded to a Consultant, with the objective of effecting equitable distribution of Contracts among qualified Consultants, provided such distribution does not violate the principle of selecting the most qualified Consultant for the type of professional services required; and

(vii) A Consultant's ownership status and employment practices regarding women, minorities and emerging small businesses or historically underutilized businesses;

(F) A Statement that Proposers responding to the RFP do so solely at their expense, and the Authorized Agency is not responsible for any Proposer expenses associated with the RFP;

(G) A statement directing Proposers to the protest procedures set forth in these Rules; and

(H) For Related Services only, pricing policies, and pricing proposals, or other pricing information.

(b) Provide a Request for Proposals to a minimum of five (5) prospective Consultants drawn from:

(A) The Authorized Agency's list of Consultants that is created and maintained under OAR 125-248-0120 (List of Interested Consultants; Performance Record);

(B) Another Authorized Agency's list of Consultants that is created and maintained under OAR 125-248-0120 (List of Interested Consultants; Performance Record); or

(C) All Consultants the Authorized Agency can reasonably locate that offer the desired Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services, separately or in any combination thereof.

(c) Review and rank all Proposals received according to the criteria set forth in the Request for Proposals, and select the three highest ranked Proposers.

(3) If the Authorized Agency does not cancel the RFP after it reviews and ranks each Proposer, the Authorized Agency will begin negotiating a Contract with the highest ranked Proposer. The Authorized Agency must direct Negotiations toward obtaining Written agreement on:

(a) Consultant's performance obligations and performance schedule;

(b) Payment methodology and a maximum amount payable to the Consultant for the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services required under the Contract that is fair and reasonable to the Authorized Agency as determined solely by the Authorized Agency, taking into account the value, Scope, complexity and nature of the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services; and

(c) Any other provisions the Authorized Agency believes to be in the Authorized Agency's best interest to negotiate.

(4) The Authorized Agency must, either orally or in Writing, formally terminate Negotiations with the highest ranked Proposer if the Authorized Agency and Proposer are unable for any reason to reach agreement on a Contract within a reasonable amount of time. The Authorized Agency may thereafter negotiate with the second ranked Proposer, and if necessary, with the third ranked Proposer, in accordance with Section (3) of this Rule, until Negotiations result in a Contract. If Negotiations with any of the top three

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Proposers do not result in a Contract within a reasonable amount of time, the Authorized Agency may end the particular informal Solicitation and thereafter may proceed with a new informal Solicitation under this Rule or proceed with a formal Solicitation under OAR 125-248-0220 (Formal Selection Procedure).

(5) The Authorized Agency must terminate the informal selection procedure and proceed with the formal selection procedure under OAR 125-248-0220 if the Scope of the anticipated Contract is revised during Negotiations so that the Estimated Fee will exceed $150,000. Regardless of the foregoing, the Authorized Agency may continue Contract Negotiations with the Proposer selected under the informal selection procedure if the Authorized Agency makes Written findings that contracting with that Proposer will:

(a) Promote efficient use of the public funds, and resources and result in substantial cost savings to the Authorized Agency; and

(b) Protect the integrity of the Public Contracting process and the competitive nature of the Procurement by not encouraging favoritism or substantially diminishing competition in the award of the Contract.

(6) The Authorized Agency must comply with applicable preferences for recycled materials, according to ORS 279A.125 and OAR 125-246-0320 through 125-246-0324.

(7) Minority, Women and Emerging Small Business. In accordance with ORS 200.035, an Authorized Agency must provide timely notice of all Procurements to the Advocate for Minority, Women and Emerging Small Business if the estimated Contract Price exceeds $5,000.

125-248-0220

Formal Selection Procedure

(1) General. Subject to OAR 125-248-0130 (Applicable Selection Procedures; Pricing Information; Disclosure of Proposals), Authorized Agencies must use the formal selection procedure described in this Rule to select Consultants if the Consultants cannot be selected under either OAR 125-248-0200 (Direct Appointment Procedure) or under 125-248-0210 (Informal Selection Procedure). The Formal Selection Procedure may otherwise be used at Authorized Agencies' discretion.

(2) Advertisement. Authorized Agencies using the formal selection procedure must obtain Contracts through public advertisement of Requests for Proposals or Requests for Qualifications followed by Requests for Proposals.

(a) The Authorized Agency must advertise each RFP and RFQ at least once in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the area where the Project is located and in as many other issues and publications as may be necessary or desirable to achieve adequate competition. Other issues and publications may include, but are not limited to: local newspapers, trade journals, and publications targeted to reach the minority, women and emerging small business enterprise audiences. In addition, an Authorized Agency must use ORPIN according to OAR 125-246-0500, provided the Authorized Agency follows a procedure for electronic advertisement approved by the State Procurement Office or its designee.

(A) The Authorized Agency must publish the advertisement within a reasonable time before the deadline for the Proposal submission or response to the RFQ or RFP, but in any event no fewer than fourteen (14) calendar Days before the closing date set forth in the RFQ or RFP.

(B) The Authorized Agency must include a brief description of the following items in the advertisement:

(i) The Project;

(ii) A description of the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services the Authorized Agency seeks;

(iii) How and where Consultants may obtain a copy of the RFQ or RFP; and

(iv) The deadline for submitting a Proposal or response to the RFQ or RFP.

(b) The Authorized Agency may also send notice of the RFP or RFQ directly to all Consultants on the Authorized Agency's list of Consultants that is created and maintained under OAR 125-248-0120 (List of Interested Consultants; Performance Record).

(3) Request for Qualifications Procedure. Authorized Agencies may use the RFQ procedure to evaluate potential Consultants and establish a short list of qualified Consultants to whom the Authorized Agency may issue an RFP for some or all of the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFQ.

(a) The Authorized Agency must include the following, at a minimum, in each RFQ:

(A) A brief description of the Project for which the Authorized Agency is seeking Consultants;

(B) A description of the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services the Authorized Agency seeks for the Project;

(C) Conditions or limitations, if any, that may constrain or prohibit the selected Consultant's ability to provide additional services related to the Project, including but not limited to construction services;

(D) The deadline for submitting a response to the RFQ;

(E) A description of required Consultant qualifications for the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services the Authorized Agency seeks;

(F) The RFQ evaluation criteria, including weights, points, or other classifications applicable to each criterion;

(G) A statement whether or not the Authorized Agency will hold a pre-qualification meeting for all interested Consultants to discuss the Project and the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFQ and if a pre-qualification meeting will be held, the location of the meeting and whether or not attendance is mandatory; and

(H) A Statement that Consultants responding to the RFQ do so solely at their expense, and the Authorized Agency is not responsible for any Consultant expenses associated with the RFQ.

(b) The Authorized Agency may include a request for any or all of the following in each RFQ:

(A) A statement describing Consultants' general qualifications and related performance information;

(B) A description of Consultants' specific qualifications to perform the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFQ including Consultants' available resources and recent, current and projected workloads;

(C) A list of similar Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services and references concerning past performance, and a copy of all records, if any, of Consultants' performance under Contracts with any other Authorized Agency;

(D) The number of Consultants' experienced staff available to perform the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services described in the RFQ, including such personnel's specific qualifications and experience and an estimate of the proportion of their time that such personnel would spend on those services;

(E) Consultants' approaches to Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFQ and design philosophy, if applicable;

(F) Consultants' geographic proximity to and familiarity with the physical location of the Project;

(G) Consultants' Ownership status and employment practices regarding women, minorities and emerging small businesses or historically underutilized businesses;

(H) Consultants' ability to assist an Authorized Agency in complying with art acquisition requirements, according to ORS 276.073 through 276.090;

(I) Consultants' ability to assist an Authorized Agency in complying with State of Oregon energy efficient design requirements, according to ORS 276.900 through 276.915;

(J) Consultants' ability to assist an Authorized Agency in complying with the solar energy technology requirements of ORS 279C.527;

(K) Any other information the Authorized Agency deems reasonable and necessary to evaluate Consultants' qualifications; and

(L) For Related Services only, Consultants' pricing policies and pricing proposals and other pricing information.

(c) RFQ Evaluation Committee. The Authorized Agency must establish an RFQ evaluation committee of at least two (2) individuals to review, score, and rank the responding Consultants according to the Solicitation criteria. The Authorized Agency may appoint to the evaluation committee, Authorized Agency employees, or employees of other public Authorized Agencies, with experience in architecture, engineering and land surveying, Related Services, construction or Public Contracting. If an Authorized Agency procedure permits, the Authorized Agency may include on the evaluation committee private practitioners of architecture, engineering and land surveying or related professions. The Authorized Agency must designate one member of the evaluation committee as the evaluation committee chairperson.

(d) The Authorized Agency may use any reasonable screening or evaluation method to establish a short list of qualified Consultants, including but not limited to the following:

(A) Requiring Consultants responding to an RFQ to achieve a Threshold score before qualifying for placement on the short list;

(B) Placing a pre-determined number of the highest scoring Consultants on a short list;

(C) Placing on a short list only those Consultants with certain essential qualifications; or experience, whose practice is limited to a particular subject area, or who practice in a particular geographic locale or region, provided that such factors are material, would not unduly restrict competition, and were announced as dispositive in the RFP.

(e) After the evaluation committee reviews, scores and ranks the responding Consultants, the Authorized Agency must establish a short list of at least three qualified Consultants, provided however, that if four or fewer Consultants responded to the RFQ, then:

(A) The Authorized Agency may establish a short list of fewer than three qualified Consultants; or

(B) The Authorized Agency may cancel the RFQ and issue an RFP.

(f) No Consultant will be eligible for placement on the Authorized Agency's short list established under Section (3) of this Rule if the Consultant or any of Consultant's principals, partners or associates is a member of the Authorized Agency's RFQ evaluation committee.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(g) Except when the RFQ is cancelled, the Authorized Agency must provide a copy of the subsequent RFP to each Consultant on the short list.

(4) Formal Selection of Consultants through Request for Proposals. Authorized Agencies must use the procedure described in Section (4) of this Rule when issuing an RFP for a Contract described in Section (1) of this Rule.

(a) RFP Required Contents. Authorized Agencies using the formal selection procedure must include at least the following in each Request for Proposals, whether or not the RFP is preceded by an RFQ:

(A) General background information, including a description of the Project and the specific Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services sought for the Project, the estimated Project cost, the estimated time period during which the Project is to be completed, and the estimated time period in which the specific Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services sought will be performed.

(B) The RFP evaluation process and the criteria which will be used to select the most qualified Proposer, including the weights, points or other classifications applicable to each criterion. If the Authorized Agency does not indicate the applicable number of points, weights or other classifications then each criterion is of equal value. Evaluation criteria may include, but are not limited to, the following:

(i) Proposers' availability and capability to perform the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFP;

(ii) Experience of Proposers' key staff persons in providing similar Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services on comparable Projects;

(iii) The amount and type of resources, and number of experienced staff persons Proposers have available to perform the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Service or Related Services described in the RFP;

(iv) The recent, current and projected workloads of the staff and resources referenced in this Section;

(v) The proportion of time Proposers estimate that the staff referenced in this Section would spend on the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFP;

(vi) Proposers' demonstrated ability to successfully complete similar Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services on time and within budget, including whether or not there is a record of satisfactory performance under OAR 125-248-0120 (List of Interested Consultants; Performance Record);

(vii) References and recommendations from past clients;

(viii) Proposers' performance history in meeting deadlines, submitting accurate estimates, producing high quality Work, and meeting financial obligations;

(ix) Status and quality of any required license or certification;

(x) Proposers' knowledge and understanding of the Project and Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFP as shown in Proposers' approaches to staffing and scheduling needs for the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services and proposed solutions to any perceived design and constructability issues;

(xi) Results from interviews, if conducted;

(xii) Design philosophy, if applicable, and approach to the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFP;

(xiii) Any other criteria that the Authorized Agency seems relevant to the Project and Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services described in the RFP, including, where the nature and budget of the Project so warrant, a design competition between competing Proposers;

(C) Conditions or limitations, if any, that may constrain or prohibit the selected Consultant's ability to provide additional services related to the Project, including but not limited to construction services;

(D) Whether interviews are possible and if so, the weight, points, or other classifications applicable to the potential interview;

(E) The date and time Proposals are due, and the delivery location for Proposals;

(F) Reservation of the right to seek clarifications of each Proposal;

(G) Reservation of the right to negotiate a final Contract that is in the best interest of the Authorized Agency;

(H) Reservation of the right to reject any or all Proposals and reservation of the right to cancel the RFP at anytime if doing either would be in the public interest as determined by the Authorized Agency;

(I) A Statement that Proposers responding to the RFP do so solely at their expense, and the Authorized Agency is not responsible for any Proposer expenses associated with the RFP;

(J) A statement directing Proposers to the protest procedures set forth in these Rules;

(K) Special Contract requirements, including but not limited to disadvantaged business enterprise ("DBE"), minority business enterprise

("MBE"), women business enterprise ("WBE") and emerging small business enterprise ("ESB") participation goals or good faith efforts with respect to DBE, MBE, WBE and ESB participation, and federal requirements when federal funds are involved;

(L) A statement whether or not the Authorized Agency will hold a pre-Proposal meeting for all interested Consultants to discuss the Project and the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFP and if a pre-Proposal meeting will be held, the location of the meeting and whether or not attendance is mandatory;

(M) A request for any information the Authorized Agency deems reasonably necessary to permit the Authorized Agency to evaluate, rank and select the most qualified Proposer to perform the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFP;

(N) A sample form of the Contract; and

(O) For Related Services only, pricing policies, proposals and other pricing information.

(b) RFP Evaluation Committee. The Authorized Agency must establish a committee of at least three individuals to review score and rank Proposals according to the evaluation criteria set forth in the RFP. If the RFP has followed an RFQ, the Authorized Agency may include the same members who served on the RFQ evaluation committee. The Authorized Agency may appoint to the evaluation committee, Authorized Agency employees, or employees of other public Authorized Agencies, with experience in architecture, engineering and land surveying, related services, construction or Public Contracting. At least one member of the evaluation committee must be an Authorized Agency employee. If the Authorized Agency procedure permits, the Authorized Agency may include on the evaluation committee private practitioners of architecture, engineering and land surveying or related professions. The Authorized Agency must designate one of its employees who also is a member of the evaluation committee as the evaluation committee chairperson.

(A) No Proposer will be eligible for award of the Contract under the RFP if the Proposer or any of Proposer's principals, partners or associates is a member of the Authorized Agency's RFP evaluation committee for the Contract.

(B) If the RFP provides for the possibility of Proposer interviews, the evaluation committee may elect to interview Proposers if the evaluation committee considers it necessary or desirable. If the evaluation committee conducts interviews, it must award weights, points or other classifications indicated in the RFP for the anticipated interview.

(C) The evaluation committee must provide to the Authorized Agency the results of the scoring and ranking for each Proposer.

(c) Initial Negotiations. If the Authorized Agency does not cancel the RFP after it receives the results of the scoring and ranking for each Proposer, the Authorized Agency will begin negotiating a Contract with the highest ranked Proposer. The Authorized Agency must direct Negotiations toward obtaining Written agreement on:

(A) Consultant's performance obligations and performance schedule;

(B) Payment methodology and a maximum amount payable to the Consultant for the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services required under the Contract that is fair and reasonable to the Authorized Agency as determined solely by the Authorized Agency, taking into account the value, Scope, complexity and nature of the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services; and

(C) Any other provisions the Authorized Agency believes to be in the Authorized Agency's best interest to negotiate.

(d) Subsequent Negotiations. The Authorized Agency must, either orally or in Writing, formally terminate Negotiations with the highest ranked Proposer if the Authorized Agency and Proposer are unable for any reason to reach agreement on a Contract within a reasonable amount of time. The Authorized Agency may thereafter negotiate with the second ranked Proposer, and if necessary, with the third ranked Proposer, and so on, in accordance with Section 4(c) of this Rule, until Negotiations result in a Contract. If Negotiations with any Proposer do not result in a Contract within a reasonable amount of time, the Authorized Agency may end the particular formal Solicitation. Nothing in this Rule precludes the Authorized Agency from proceeding with a new formal Solicitation for the same Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFP that failed to result in a Contract.

Ties Among Proposers

(1) If an Authorized Agency is selecting a Consultant on the basis of qualifications alone and determines after the ranking of Proposers that two or more Proposers are equally qualified, the Authorized Agency may select a candidate through any process that the Authorized Agency believes will result in the best value for the Authorized Agency, taking into account the Scope, complexity and nature of the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services. The process must instill public confidence through ethical and fair dealing, honesty and good faith on the part of the Authorized Agency and Proposers and must protect the integrity of the Public Contracting process. Once a tie is broken, the Authorized Agency and the selected Proposer must proceed with Negotiations under OAR 125-248-0210(3) or 125-248-0220(4)(c), as applicable.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) If an Authorized Agency is selecting a Consultant on the basis of price alone, or on the basis of price and qualifications, and determines after the ranking of Proposers that two or more Proposers are equal in terms of price or are equal in terms of price and qualifications, then the Authorized Agency must follow the procedure set forth in OAR 125-246-0300 (Preferences for Oregon Supplies and Services) to select the Consultant.

Protest Procedures

(1) RFP Protest and Request for Change. Consultants may submit a Written protest of anything contained in an RFP and may request a change to any provision, Specification or Contract term contained in an RFP, no later than seven (7) calendar Days before the date Proposals are due unless a different deadline is indicated in the RFP. Each protest and request for change must include the reasons for the protest or request, and any proposed changes to the RFP provisions, Specifications or Contract terms. The Authorized Agency will not consider any protest or request for change that is submitted after the submission deadline.

(2) Protest of Consultant Selection.

(a) Single Award. In the event of an Award to a single Proposer, the Authorized Agency must provide to all Proposers a copy of the selection notice that the Authorized Agency sent to the highest ranked Proposer. A Proposer who claims to have been adversely affected or aggrieved by the selection of the highest ranked Proposer may submit a Written protest of the selection to the Authorized Agency no later than seven (7) calendar Days after the date of the selection notice unless a different deadline is indicated in the RFP. A Proposer submitting a protest must claim that the protesting Proposer is the highest ranked Proposer because the Proposals of all higher ranked Proposers failed to meet the requirements of the RFP or because the higher ranked Proposers otherwise are not qualified to perform the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFP.

(b) Multiple Awards. In the event of an Award to more than one Proposer, the Authorized Agency must provide to all Proposers copies of the selection notices that the Authorized Agency sent to the highest ranked Proposers. A Proposer who claims to have been adversely affected or aggrieved by the selection of the highest ranked Proposers may submit a Written protest of the selection to the Authorized Agency no later than seven (7) calendar Days after the date of the selection notices, unless a different deadline is indicated in the RFP. A Proposer submitting a protest must claim that the protesting Proposer is one of the highest ranked Proposers because the Proposals of all higher ranked Proposers failed to meet the requirements of the RFP, or because a sufficient number of Proposals of higher ranked Proposers to include the protesting Proposer in the group of highest ranked Proposers failed to meet the requirements of the RFP. In the alternative, a Proposer submitting a protest must claim that the Proposals of all higher ranked Proposers, or a sufficient number of higher ranked Proposers to include the protesting Proposer in the group of highest ranked Proposers, otherwise are not qualified to perform the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the RFP.

(c) Effect of Protest Submission Deadline. The Authorized Agency may not consider any protest that is submitted after the submission deadline.

(3) Resolution of Protests. A duly authorized representative of the Authorized Agency must resolve all timely submitted protests within a reasonable time following the Authorized Agency's receipt of the protest and once resolved, must promptly issue a Written decision on the protest to the Proposer who submitted the protest. If the protest results in a change to the RFP, the Authorized Agency must revise the RFP accordingly and must re-advertise the RFP in accordance with these Rules.

Two-Tiered Selection Procedure for Local Contracting Agency Public Improvement Projects

(1) Definition. For purposes of this Rule, "Local Contracting Agency" is defined in ORS 279A.010(1)(n) and means a local government or special government body authorized by law to conduct a Procurement. "Local Contracting Agency" includes any Person authorized by a Local Contracting Agency to conduct a Procurement on behalf of the Local Contracting Agency.

(2) Generally. If a Local Contracting Agency requires an Architect, Engineer, or Land Surveyor to provide Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services for a Public Improvement owned and maintained by that Local Contracting Agency, and an Authorized Agency will serve as the lead Authorized Agency and will enter into Contracts with Consultants for Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services for that Public Improvement, the Authorized Agency must utilize the two-tiered selection process described below to obtain these Contracts with Architects, Engineers or Land Surveyors.

(3) Tier One. The Authorized Agency must, when feasible, identify no fewer than the three (3) most qualified Proposers responding to an RFP that was issued under the applicable selection procedures described in OAR 125-248-0210 (Informal Selection Procedure) and 125-248-0220 (Formal Selection Procedure), or from among Architects, Engineers or Land Surveyors identified under OAR 125-248-0200 (Direct Appointment Procedure), and must notify the Local Contracting Agency of the Architects, Engineers or Land Surveyors selected.

(4) Tier Two. In accordance with the Qualifications Based Selection requirements of ORS 279C.110, the Local Contracting Agency must either:

(a) Select an Architect, Engineer or Land Surveyor from the State Authorized Agency's list of Proposers provided from the Authorized Agency to perform the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services for Local Contracting Agency's Public Improvement; or

(b) Select an Architect, Engineer or Land Surveyor to perform the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services, and Related Services for the Local Contracting Agency's Public Improvement through an alternative process adopted by the Local Contracting Agency, consistent with the provisions of the applicable RFP, if any, and these Division 248 Rules. The Local Contracting Agency's alternative process must be described in the applicable RFP, may be structured to take into account the unique circumstances of the particular Local Contracting Agency, and may include provisions to allow the Local Contracting Agency to perform its tier two responsibilities efficiently and economically, alone or in cooperation with other Local Contracting Agencies. The Local Contracting Agency's alternative process may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following methods:

(A) A general written direction from the Local Contracting Agency to the Authorized Agency, before the advertisement of a Procurement or series of Procurements or during the course of the Procurement or series of Procurements, that the Local Contracting Agency's tier two selection must be the highest-ranked firm identified by the Authorized Agency during the tier one process, and that no further coordination or consultation with the Local Contracting Agency is required. However, the Local Contracting Agency may provide written notice to the Authorized Agency that the Local Contracting Agency's general written direction is not to be applied for a particular Procurement and describe the process that the Local Contracting Agency will utilize for the particular Procurement. In order for a written direction from the Local Contracting Agency consistent with this Subsection to be effective for a particular Procurement, it must be received by the Authorized Agency with adequate time for the Authorized Agency to revise the RFP in order for Proposers to be notified of the tier two process to be utilized in the Procurement. In the event of a multiple award under the terms of the applicable Procurement, the written direction from the Local Contracting Agency may apply to the highest ranked firms that are selected under the terms of the Procurement document.

(B) An intergovernmental agreement between the Local Contracting Agency and the Authorized Agency outlining the alternative process that the Local Contracting Agency has adopted for a Procurement or series of Procurements.

(C) Where multiple Local Contracting Agencies are involved in a two-tiered selection procedure, the Local Contracting Agencies may name one or more authorized representative(s) to act on behalf of all the Local Contracting Agencies, whether the Local Contracting Agencies are acting collectively or individually, to select the Architect, Engineer or Land Surveyor to perform the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services under the tier two selection process. In the event of a multiple Award under the terms of the applicable Procurement, the authorized representative(s) of the Local Contracting Agencies may act on behalf of the Local Contracting Agencies to select the highest ranked firms that are required under the terms of the Procurement document, as part of the tier two selection process.

(5) The Authorized Agency must thereafter begin contract Negotiations with the selected Architect, Engineer or Land Surveyor in accordance with the negotiation provisions in OAR 125-248-0200 (Direct Appointment Procedure), 125-248-0210 (Informal Selection Procedure) or 125-248-0220 (Formal Selection Procedure) as applicable.

(6) Nothing in these division 248 rules may be construed to deny or limit a Local Contracting Agency's ability to contract directly with Architects, Engineers or Land Surveyors according to ORS 279C.125(4), through a selection process established by that Local Contracting Agency.

Contract Form; Prohibited Payment Methodology; Purchase Restrictions

(1) Contract Forms. The State Procurement Office or its delegatee must develop and maintain a standard Contract form and an Amendment form, which must be used by the Authorized Agencies in completing all Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying and Related Services Contracts. These forms can be obtained from the State Procurement Office. Authorized Agencies must review the approved Contract form and Amendment form at least every two years. If upon review the Authorized Agency revises either form, the Authorized Agency must obtain approval from its Designated Procurement Officer for revised forms up to $100,000 or approval from the Department of Justice for revised forms exceeding $100,000, before using the revised Contract or Amendment form. In using the standard Contract form and standard Amendment form, Authorized Agencies must abide by the following Contract provisions:

(2) Except as otherwise allowed by law, the Authorized Agency must not enter into any Contract in which the compensation provisions expressly provide for payment of:

(a) Consultant's costs under the Contract plus a percentage of those costs; or

(b) A percentage of the Project construction costs or total Project costs.

(3) Except as otherwise allowed by law, an Authorized Agency must not enter into any Contract in which:

(a) The compensation paid under the Contract is solely based on or limited to the Consultant's hourly rates for the Consultant's personnel Working on the Project and reimbursable expenses incurred during the performance of Work on the Project (sometimes referred to as a "time and materials" Contract); and

(b) The Contract does not include a maximum amount payable to the Consultant for the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying, and Related Services required under the Contract.

(4) Except in cases of Emergency or in the particular instances noted in the Subsections below, the Authorized Agency must not purchase any building materials, supplies or equipment for any building, structure or facility constructed by or for the Authorized Agency from any Consultant under a Contract with an Authorized Agency to perform Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying, and Related Services, for the building, structure or facility. This prohibition does not apply if either of the following circumstances exists:

(a) Consultant is providing Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying, or Related Services under a Contract with to perform Design-Build services as defined in OAR 125-249-0010(3) or Energy Savings Performance Contract services (see OAR 125-249-0670 and 125-249-0680); or

(b) That portion of the Contract relating to the acquisition of building materials, supplies or equipment was awarded to Consultant according to applicable law governing the award of such Contracts.

Expired or Terminated Contracts

(1) If an Authorized Agency enters into a Contract for Architectural, Engineering, and Land Surveying Services or Related Services and that Contract subsequently expires or is terminated, the Authorized Agency may proceed as follows, subject to the requirements of Subsection (2) of this Rule:

(a) Expired Contracts. If the Contract has expired as the result of Project delay caused by the Authorized Agency or caused by any other occurrence outside the reasonable control of the Authorized Agency or the Consultant, and if no more than one year has passed since the Contract expiration date, the Authorized Agency may amend the Contract to extend the Contract expiration date, revise the description of the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services required under the Contract to reflect any material alteration of the Project made as a result of the delay, and revise the applicable performance schedule. Beginning on the effective date of the Amendment, the Authorized Agency and the Consultant must continue performance under the Contract as amended; or

(b) Terminated Contracts. If the Authorized Agency or both parties to the Contract have terminated the Contract for any reason and if no more than one year has passed since the Contract termination date, then the Authorized Agency may enter into a new Contract with the same Consultant to perform the remaining Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services not completed under the original Contract, or to perform any remaining Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services not completed under the Contract as adjusted to reflect a material alteration of the Project.

(2) The Authorized Agency may proceed under either Subsection (1)(a) or (1)(b) of this Rule only after making Written findings that amending the existing Contract or entering into a new Contract with Consultant will:

(a) Promote efficient use of public funds and resources and result in substantial cost savings;

(b) Protect the integrity of the Public Contracting process and the competitive nature of the Procurement process by not encouraging favoritism or substantially diminishing competition in the award of Contracts; and

(c) Result in a Contract that is still within the Scope of the final form of the original Procurement document.

Special Contract Processes

(1) Consultants for Agreements-To-Agree must be selected, and the Authorized Agency must obtain Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying and Related Services by selecting a Consultant or Consultants in the following manner:

(a) The Authorized Agency selects one or more Consultants under the applicable provisions of OAR 125-248-0200, 125-248-0210, or 125-248-0220.

(b) The Authorized Agency develops a document that includes the general provisions required under OAR 125-248-300 and a specific Statement of Work for each anticipated Contract under the Agreement-To-Agree document.

(c) When the Authorized Agency selects more than one Consultant under the Agreement-To-Agree Solicitation process, the Authorized Agency must identify a standard in the Solicitation Document and the Agreement-to-Agree to be used in assigning particular Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying and or Related Services under the Agreements-To-Agree.

(2) Design-Build Contracts involve the provision of both design and construction services for Public Improvements under one Contract. Under most circumstances, Design-Build Contracts are Mixed Contracts with the predominate purpose of the Contract involving construction of the Public Improvement. If the predominate purpose of the Contract is to obtain Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying and Related Services, selection may proceed under these division 248 rules, so long as the requirements of OAR 125-248-0300 are not violated. Otherwise, the selection process will require an exemption from competitive bidding under ORS 279C, unless the Design-Build Contract is to be awarded to the Responsible Bidder submitting the lowest Responsive Bid.

Contract Amendments

(1) An Authorized Agency may amend any Contract for Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying and Related Services if the Authorized Agency, in its sole discretion, determines that the Amendment is within the Scope of the Solicitation Document and that the Amendment would not materially impact the field of competition for the Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services described in the final form of the original Procurement document. In making this determination, the Authorized Agency must consider potential alternative methods of procuring the services contemplated under the proposed Amendment. An Amendment would not materially impact the field of competition for the services described in the Solicitation Document, if the Authorized Agency reasonably believes that the number of Proposers would not significantly increase if the Procurement document were re-issued to include the additional services.

(2) The Authorized Agency may amend any Contract if the additional services are required by reason of existing or new regulations or ordinances of federal, state or local agencies, and these existing or new regulations or ordinances affect performance of the Original Contract and were not cited in the original Request for Proposals or Contract or were enacted or amended after issuance of the original Request for Proposals or execution of the Original Contract.

(3) All Amendments to Contracts must be in Writing, must be signed by an authorized representative of the Consultant and the Authorized Agency and must receive all required approvals before the Amendments will be binding on the Authorized Agency.

Definitions

The definitions for this Division 249 are found in OAR 125-246-0110, except the following Rule and definitions apply only to this Division 249: Capitalized terms used in this Division 249 of the Rules must have the meaning set forth below or within the Sections in which they appear (such as the Section on Alternative Contracting Methods beginning at OAR 125-249-0600, and if not defined there, then the meaning set forth in division 246 of the rules, and if not defined there, then the meaning set forth in the Code at ORS 279A.010 (general definitions) or 279C.330 (for the term Findings).

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(1) "Competitive Range" means the number of Proposers with whom the Authorized Agency will conduct Discussions or Negotiations if the Authorized Agency intends to conduct Discussions or Negotiations in accordance with OAR 125-249-0390. The size of the Competitive Range must be stated in the Solicitation Document, but will be decreased if the number of Proposers that submit Proposals is less than the specified number, or may be increased by the Authorized Agency in accordance with OAR 125-249-0390.

(2) "Conduct Disqualification" means a Disqualification according to ORS 279C.440.

(3) "Disqualification" means the preclusion of a Person from contracting with an Authorized Agency for a period of time. Disqualification may be a Conduct Disqualification or DBE Disqualification. An Authorized Agency is authorized to disqualify a Person in accordance with OAR 125-249-0370.

(4) "Foreign Contractor" means a Contractor that is not domiciled in or registered to do business in the State of Oregon. See OAR 125-249-0490.

(5) "Notice" means any of the alternative forms of public announcement of Procurements, as described OAR 125-249-0210.

(6) "Responsible Offeror" (also, Responsible Bidder or Responsible Proposer, as applicable) means a Person that has submitted an Offer and meets the standards set forth in OAR 125-249-0390(2) and that has not been disqualified by the Authorized Agency under OAR 125-249-0370. When used alone, "Responsible" means meeting the aforementioned standards.

(7) "Responsive Offer" (also, Responsive Bid or Responsive Proposal, as applicable) means an Offer that substantially complies in all material respects with applicable Solicitation procedures and requirements and the Solicitation Document. When used alone, "Responsive" means having the characteristic of substantially complying in all material respects with applicable Solicitation procedure and requirements and the Solicitation Document.

125-249-0145

Contracts for Oversight of Public Contracts

(1) Application.

(a) This Rule does not apply to a Procurement that qualifies as a construction manager/general contractor procurement or a design-build procurement, both as defined on August 4, 2009, in OAR 125-249-0610, as follows:

(A) "Construction Manager/General Contractor" (CM/GC) means a form of Procurement that results in a Public Improvement Contract for a Construction Manager/General Contractor to undertake project team involvement with design development; constructability reviews; value engineering, scheduling, estimating and subcontracting services; establish a Guaranteed Maximum Price to complete the Contract Work; act as General Contractor; hold all subcontracts, self-perform portions of the Work as may be allowed by the Authorized Agency under the CM/GC Contract; coordinate and manage the building process; provide general Contractor expertise; and act as a member of the project team along with the Authorized Agency, architect/engineers and other Consultants. CM/GC also refers to a Contractor under this form of Contract, sometimes known as the "Construction Manager at Risk."

(B) "Design-Build" means a form of Procurement that results in a Public Improvement Contract in which the construction Contractor also provides or obtains specified design Services, participates on the project team with the Authorized Agency, and manages both design and construction. In this form of Contract, a single Person provides the Authorized Agency with all of the Personal Services and Work necessary to both design and construct the project.

(b) This Rule applies to:

(A) Procurements first advertised or otherwise solicited on or after January 1, 2010; or

(B) Contracts entered into on or after January 1, 2010.

(2) Definitions. For the purposes of this Rule only,

(a) "Personal Services" means Personal Services as defined in OAR 125-246-0110.

(b) "Affiliate" means a Person that, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by or is under common control with the Contractor who is a party to a Public Contract that is subject to oversight by means of a Public Contract for Personal Services.

(3) Requirements.

(a) If an Authorized Agency has contracted with a firm to provide construction services or Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services, the Authorized Agency may not contract with that same firm or an affiliate of that firm to provide Personal Services for administering, managing, monitoring, inspecting, evaluating compliance with, or otherwise providing oversight of the construction services or Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services.

(b) An Authorized Agency may not contract with a firm to perform construction services or Architectural, Engineering and Land Surveying Services or Related Services and then use the contract with that firm, through a sub-contract, to contract with a Person to provide Personal Services for administering, managing, monitoring, inspecting, evaluating compliance with, or otherwise providing oversight of that firm.

Solicitation Documents; Required Provisions; Assignment or Transfer

(1) Solicitation Document. According to ORS 279C.365 and this Rule, the Solicitation Document must include the following:

(a) General Information.

(A) Identification of the Public Improvement project, including the character of the Work, and applicable plans, Specifications and other contract documents;

(B) Notice of any pre-Offer conference as follows:

(i) The time, date and location of any pre-Offer conference;

(ii) Whether attendance at the conference will be mandatory or voluntary; and

(iii) That statements made by the Authorized Agency's representatives at the conference are not binding upon the Authorized Agency unless confirmed by Written Addendum.

(C) The deadline for submitting mandatory prequalification applications and the class or classes of Work for which Offerors must be prequalified if prequalification is a requirement;

(D) The name and title of the Authorized Agency Person designated for receipt of Offers and contact Person (if different);

(E) Instructions and information concerning the form and submission of Offers, including the address of the office to which Offers must be delivered, any Bid or Proposal security requirements, and any other required information or special information, e.g., whether Offers may be submitted by Facsimile or electronic means (See OAR 125-249-0300 regarding Facsimile Bids or Proposals and OAR 125-249-0310 regarding electronic Procurement);

(F) The time, date and place of Opening;

(G) The time and date of Closing after which an Authorized Agency will not accept Offers, which time must be not less than five (5) Days after the date of the last publication of the advertisement. Although a minimum of five (5) Days is proscribed, Authorized Agencies are encouraged to use at least a (fourteen) 14 Day Solicitation period when feasible. If the Authorized Agency is issuing an ITB that may result in a Public Improvement Contract with a value in excess of $100,000, the Authorized Agency must designate a time of Closing consistent with the first-tier subcontractor disclosure requirements of ORS 279C.370(1)(b) and OAR 125-249-0360. For timing issues relating to Addenda, see OAR 125-249-0250;

(H) The office where the Specifications for the Work may be reviewed;

(I) A statement that each Bidder to an ITB must identify whether the Bidder is a "resident Bidder", as defined in ORS 279A.120;

(J) If the Contract resulting from a Solicitation will be a Contract for a Public Work subject to ORS 279C.800 to 279C.870 or the Davis-Bacon Act (40 U.S.C. 3141 to 3148), a statement that no Offer will be received or considered by the Authorized Agency unless the Offer contains a statement by the Offeror as a part of its Offer that "Contractor agrees to be bound by and will comply with the provisions of ORS 279C.838, 279C.840 or 40 U.S.C. 3141 to 3148;

(K) A statement that the Authorized Agency will not receive or consider an Offer for a Public Improvement Contract unless the Offeror is registered with the Construction Contractors Board, or is licensed by the State Landscape Contractors Board, as specified in OAR 125-249-0230;

(L) Whether a Contractor or a subcontractor under the Contract must be licensed under ORS 468A.720 regarding asbestos abatement projects;

(M) Contractor's certification of nondiscrimination in obtaining required subcontractors in accordance with ORS 279A.110(4). (See OAR 125-249-0440(3));

(N) How the Authorized Agency will notify Offerors of Addenda and how the Authorized Agency will make Addenda available (See OAR 125-249-0250); and

(O) When applicable, instructions and forms regarding First-Tier Subcontractor Disclosure requirements, as set forth in OAR 125-249-0360.

(b) Evaluation Process.

(A) A statement that the Authorized Agency may reject any Offer not in compliance with all prescribed Public Contracting procedures and requirements, including the requirement to demonstrate the Bidder's responsibility under ORS 279C.375(3)(b), and may reject for good cause all Offers after finding that doing so is in the public interest;

(B) The anticipated Solicitation schedule, deadlines, protest process, and evaluation process, if any;

(C) Evaluation criteria, including the relative value applicable to each criterion, that the Authorized Agency will use to determine the Responsible Bidder with the lowest Responsive Bid (where Award is based solely on price) or the Responsible Proposer or Proposers with the best Responsive Proposal or Proposals (where use of Competitive Proposals is authorized under ORS 279C.335 and OAR 125-249-0620), along with the process the Authorized Agency will use to determine acceptability of the Work;

(i) If the Solicitation Document is an Invitation to Bid, the Authorized Agency must set forth any special price evaluation factors in the Solicitation Document. Examples of such factors include, but are not limited to, conversion costs, transportation cost, volume weighing, trade-in allowances, cash discounts, depreciation allowances, cartage penalties, and ownership or life-cycle cost formulas. Price evaluation factors need not be precise predictors of actual future costs; but, to the extent possible, such evaluation factors must be objective, reasonable estimates based upon information the Authorized Agency has available concerning future use;

(ii) If the Solicitation Document is a Request for Proposals, the Authorized Agency must refer to the additional requirements of OAR 125-249-0650.

(c) Contract Provisions. The Authorized Agency must include all contract terms and conditions, including warranties, insurance and bonding requirements, that the Authorized Agency considers appropriate for the Public Improvement project. The Authorized Agency must also include all applicable contract provisions required by Oregon law as follows:

(A) Prompt payment to all Persons supplying labor or material; contributions to Industrial Accident Fund; liens and withholding taxes (ORS 279C.505(1));

(B) Demonstrate that an employee drug testing program is in place (ORS 279C.505(2));

(C) If the Contract calls for demolition Work described in ORS 279C.510(1), a condition requiring the Contractor to salvage or recycle construction and demolition debris, if feasible and cost-effective;

(D) If the Contract calls for lawn or landscape maintenance, a condition requiring the Contractor to compost or mulch yard waste material at an approved site, if feasible and cost effective (ORS 279C.510(2));

(E) Payment of claims by public officers (ORS 279C.515(1));

(F) Contractor and first-tier subcontractor liability for late payment on Public Improvement Contracts according to ORS 279C.515(2), including the rate of interest;

(G) Person's right to file a complaint with the Construction Contractors Board for all Contracts related to a Public Improvement Contract (ORS 279C.515(3));

(H) Hours of labor in compliance with ORS 279C.520;

(I) Environmental and natural resources regulations (ORS 279C.525);

(J) Payment for medical care and attention to employees (ORS 279C.530(1));

(K) Maximum hours, holidays and overtime (ORS 279C.540);

(L) Time limitation on claims for overtime (ORS 279C.545);

(M) Prevailing wage rates (ORS 279C.800 to 279C.870);

(i) BOLI Public Works bond (ORS 279C.830(2));

(N) Retainage (ORS 279C.550 to 279C.570);

(i) Prompt payment policy, progress payments, rate of interest (ORS 279C.570);

(O) Contractor's relations with subcontractors (ORS 279C.580);

(P) Notice of claim (ORS 279C.605);

(Q) Contractor's certification of compliance with the Oregon tax laws in accordance with ORS 305.385; and

(R) Contractor's certification that all subcontractors performing Work described in ORS 701.005(2) (i.e., construction Work) will be registered with the Construction Contractors Board or licensed by the State Landscape Contractors Board in accordance with ORS 701.035 to 701.055 before the subcontractors commence Work under the Contract.

(2) Assignment or Transfer Restricted. Unless otherwise provided in the Contract, the Contractor must not assign, sell, dispose of, or transfer rights, or delegate duties under the Contract, either in whole or in part, without the Authorized Agency's prior Written consent. Unless otherwise agreed by the Authorized Agency in Writing, such consent must not relieve the Contractor of any obligations under the Contract. Any assignee or transferee must be considered the agent of the Contractor and be bound to abide by all provisions of the Contract. If the Authorized Agency consents in Writing to an assignment, sale, disposal or transfer of the Contractor's rights or delegation of Contractor's duties, the Contractor and its surety, if any, must remain liable to the Authorized Agency for complete performance of the Contract as if no such assignment, sale, disposal, transfer or delegation had occurred unless the Authorized Agency otherwise agrees in Writing.

Eligibility to Bid or Propose; Registration or License

(1) Construction Contracts. An Authorized Agency must not consider a Person's Offer to do Work as a Contractor, as defined in ORS 701.005(2), unless the Person has a current, valid certificate of registration issued by the Construction Contractors Board at the time the Offer is made.

(2) Landscape Contracts. An Authorized Agency must not consider a Person's Offer to do Work as a landscape Contractor as defined in ORS 671.520(2), unless the Person has a current, valid landscape Contractors license issued according to ORS 671.560 by the State Landscape Contractors Board at the time the Offer is made.

(3) Noncomplying Entities. The Authorized Agency must deem an Offer received from a Person that fails to comply with this rule nonresponsive and must reject the Offer as stated in ORS 279C.365(1)(k), unless contrary to federal law or subject to different timing requirements set by federal funding Authorized Agencies.

Request for Clarification or Change; Solicitation Protests

(1) Clarification. Before the deadline for submitting a Written request for change or protest, an Offeror may request that the Authorized Agency clarify any provision of the Solicitation Document. The Authorized Agency's clarification to an Offeror, whether orally or in Writing, does not change the Solicitation Document and is not binding on the Authorized Agency unless the Authorized Agency amends the Solicitation Document by Addendum.

(2) Request for Change.

(a) Delivery. An Offeror may request in Writing a change to the Specifications or contract terms and conditions. Unless otherwise specified in the Solicitation Document, an Offeror must deliver the Written request for change to the Authorized Agency not less than ten (10) Days before Closing;

(b) Content of Request for Change.

(A) An Offeror's Written request for change must include a statement of the requested change(s) to the contract terms and conditions, including any Specifications, together with the reason for the requested change.

(B) An Offeror must mark its request for change as follows:

(i) "Contract Provision Request for Change"; and

(ii) Solicitation Document number (or other identification as specified in the Solicitation Document).

(3) Protest.

(a) Delivery. An Offeror may protest Specifications or contract terms and conditions. Unless otherwise specified in the Solicitation Document, an Offeror must deliver a Written protest on those matters to the Authorized Agency not less than ten (10) Days before Closing;

(b) Content of Protest.

(A) An Offeror's Written protest must include:

(i) A detailed statement of the legal and factual grounds for the protest;

(ii) A description of the resulting prejudice to the Offeror; and

(iii) A statement of the desired changes to the contract terms and conditions, including any Specifications.

(B) An Offeror must mark its protest as follows:

(i) "Contract Provision Protest"; and

(ii) Solicitation Document number (or other identification as specified in the Solicitation Document)

(4) The Authorized Agency Response. The Authorized Agency is not required to consider an Offeror's request for change or protest after the deadline established for submitting such request or protest. The Authorized Agency must provide notice to the applicable Person if it entirely rejects a protest. If the Authorized Agency agrees with the Person's request or protest, in whole or in part, the Authorized Agency must either issue an Addendum reflecting its determination under OAR 125-249-0260 or cancel the Solicitation under 125-249-0270.

(5) Extension of Closing. If an Authorized Agency receives a Written request for change or protest from an Offeror in accordance with this Rule, the Authorized Agency may extend Closing if the Authorized Agency determines an extension is necessary to consider the request or protest and issue an Addendum, if any, to the Solicitation Document.

Cancellation of Solicitation Document

(1) Cancellation in the Public Interest. An Authorized Agency may cancel a Solicitation for good cause if the Authorized Agency finds that cancellation is in the public interest. The Authorized Agency's reasons for cancellation must be made part of the Solicitation file.

(2) Notice of Cancellation. If the Authorized Agency cancels a Solicitation before Opening, the Authorized Agency must provide Notice of cancellation in accordance with OAR 125-249-0210(1). Such notice of cancellation must:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

- (a) Identify the Solicitation;
- (b) Briefly explain the reason for cancellation; and
- (c) If appropriate, explain that an opportunity will be given to compete on any re-Solicitation.

(3) Disposition of Offers.

(a) Before Offer Opening. If the Authorized Agency cancels a Solicitation before Offer Opening, the Authorized Agency will return all Offers it received to Offerors unopened, provided the Offeror submitted its Offer in a hard copy format with a clearly visible return address. If there is no return address on the envelope, the Authorized Agency will open the Offer to determine the source and then return it to the Offeror.

(b) After Offer Opening. If the Authorized Agency rejects all Offers, the Authorized Agency will retain all such Offers as part of the Authorized Agency's Solicitation file.

Offer Submissions

(1) Offer and Acceptance. The Bid or Proposal is the Bidder's or Proposer's offer to enter into a Contract.

(a) In competitive bidding and competitive Proposals, the Offer is always a "Firm Offer," i.e., the Offer must be held open by the Offeror for the Authorized Agency's acceptance for the period specified in OAR 125-249-0410. The Authorized Agency may elect to accept the Offer at any time during the specified period, and the Authorized Agency's Award of the Contract to a Bidder constitutes acceptance of the Offer and binds the Offeror to the Contract.

(b) Despite the fact that a competitive Proposal is a "Firm Offer" for the period specified in OAR 125-249-0410, the Authorized Agency may elect to discuss or negotiate certain contractual provisions, as identified in these rules or in the Solicitation Document with the Proposer. See OAR 125-249-0650 on Requests for Proposals and OAR 125-249-0290 on Bid or Proposal Security. Where negotiation is permitted by the rules or the Solicitation Document, Proposers are bound to an obligation to negotiate in good faith and only on those terms that the rules or the Solicitation Document has reserved for negotiation.

(2) Responsive Offer. An Authorized Agency may award a Contract only to a Responsible Offeror with a Responsive Offer.

(3) Contingent Offers. Except to the extent that an Offeror is authorized to propose certain terms and conditions according to OAR 125-249-0650, an Offeror must not make an Offer contingent upon the Authorized Agency's acceptance of any terms or conditions (including Specifications) other than those contained in the Solicitation Document.

(4) Offeror's Acknowledgement. By signing and returning the Offer, the Offeror acknowledges they have read and understand the terms and conditions contained in the Solicitation Document and that they accept and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of the Solicitation Document. If the Request for Proposals permits proposal of alternative terms under OAR 125-249-0650, the Offeror's Offer includes the nonnegotiable terms and conditions and any proposed terms and conditions offered for Negotiation upon and to the extent accepted by the Authorized Agency in Writing.

(5) Instructions. Offerors must submit and Sign their Offers in accordance with the Solicitation Document. Offerors must initial and submit any corrections or erasures to their Offers before the Opening in accordance with the requirements for submitting an Offer under the Solicitation Document.

(6) Forms. Offerors must submit their Offers on the form(s) provided in the Solicitation Document, unless Offerors are otherwise instructed in the Solicitation Document.

(7) Documents. Offerors must provide the Authorized Agency with all documents and Descriptive Literature required under the Solicitation Document.

(8) Facsimile or Electronic Submissions. If the Authorized Agency permits facsimile or electronic Offers in the Solicitation Document, the Offeror may submit facsimile or electronic Offers in accordance with the Solicitation Document. The Authorized Agency must not consider facsimile or electronic Offers unless authorized by the Solicitation Document.

(9) Product Samples and Descriptive Literature. An Authorized Agency may require Product Samples or Descriptive Literature if it is necessary or desirable to evaluate the quality, features or characteristics of the offered items. The Authorized Agency will dispose of Product Samples, or return or make available for return Product Samples to the Offeror in accordance with the Solicitation Document.

(10) Identification of Offers.

(a) To ensure proper identification and handling, Offers must be submitted in a sealed envelope appropriately marked or in the envelope provided by the Authorized Agency, whichever is applicable.

(b) The Authorized Agency is not responsible for Offers submitted in any manner, format or to any delivery point other than as required in the Solicitation Document.

(11) Receipt of Offers. The Offerors are responsible for ensuring that the Authorized Agency receives their Offers at the required delivery point before the Closing, regardless of the method used to submit or transmit the Offer.

Facsimile Bids and Proposals

(1) The Authorized Agency Authorization. An Authorized Agency may authorize Offerors to submit facsimile Offers. If the Authorized Agency determines that Bid or Proposal security is or will be required, the Authorized Agency must not authorize facsimile Offers unless the Authorized Agency has established a method for receipt of such security. Before authorizing the submission of facsimile Offers, the Authorized Agency must determine that the Authorized Agency's equipment and personnel are capable of receiving the size and volume of anticipated Offers within a short period of time. In addition, the Authorized Agency must establish administrative procedures and controls:

(a) To receive, identify, record and safeguard facsimile Offers;

(b) To ensure timely delivery of Offers to the location of Opening; and

(c) To preserve the Offers as sealed.

(2) Provisions to be Included in Solicitation Document. In addition to all other requirements, if the Authorized Agency authorizes a facsimile Offer for Bids or Proposals, the Authorized Agency must include in the Solicitation Document (other than in a request for Quotes) the following:

(a) A provision substantially in the form of the following: "A 'facsimile Offer', as used in this Solicitation Document, means an Offer, modification of an Offer, or withdrawal of an Offer that is transmitted to and received by the Authorized Agency via a facsimile machine";

(b) A provision substantially in the form of the following: "Offerors may submit facsimile Offers in response to this Solicitation Document. The entire response must arrive at the place and by the time specified in this Solicitation Document.";

(c) A provision that requires Offerors to Sign their facsimile Offers;

(d) A provision substantially in the form of the following: "The Authorized Agency reserves the right to award the Contract solely on the basis of the facsimile Offer. However, upon the Authorized Agency's request the apparent successful Offeror must promptly submit its complete original Signed Offer.";

(e) The data and compatibility characteristics of the Authorized Agency's receiving facsimile machine as follows:

(A) Telephone number; and

(B) Compatibility characteristics, e.g., make and model number, receiving speed, communications protocol; and

(f) A provision that the Authorized Agency is not responsible for any failure attributable to the transmission or receipt of the facsimile Offer including, but not limited to the following:

(A) Receipt of garbled or incomplete documents;

(B) Availability or condition of the receiving facsimile machine;

(C) Incompatibility between the sending and receiving facsimile machine;

(D) Delay in transmission or receipt of documents;

(E) Failure of the Offeror to properly identify the Offer documents;

(F) Illegibility of Offer documents; and

(G) Security and confidentiality of data.

Receipt, Opening and Recording of Offers; Confidentiality of Offers

(1) Receipt. An Authorized Agency must electronically or mechanically time-stamp or hand-mark each Offer and any modification upon receipt. The Authorized Agency must not open the Offer or modification upon receipt, but must maintain it as confidential and secure until Opening. If the Authorized Agency inadvertently opens an Offer or a modification before the Opening, the Authorized Agency must return the Offer or modification to its secure and confidential state until Opening. The Authorized Agency must document the resealing for the Procurement File in accordance with OAR 125-246-0556 (e.g. "The Authorized Agency inadvertently opened the Offer due to improper identification of the Offer").

(2) Opening and Recording. An Authorized Agency must publicly open Offers including any modifications made to the Offer according to OAR 125-249-0320. In the case of Invitations to Bid, to the extent practicable, the Authorized Agency must read aloud the name of each Bidder, the Bid price(s), and such other information as the Authorized Agency considers appropriate. In the case of Requests for Proposals or voluminous Bids, if the

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Solicitation Document so provides, the Authorized Agency will not read Offers aloud.

(3) Availability. After Opening, the Authorized Agency must make Bids available for public inspection, but according to ORS 279C.410 Proposals are not required to be available for public inspection until after notice of intent to award is issued. In any event Authorized Agencies may withhold from disclosure those portions of an Offer that the Offeror designates as trade secrets or as confidential proprietary data in accordance with applicable law. See ORS 192.501(2); 646.461 to 646.475. To the extent the Authorized Agency determines such designation is not in accordance with applicable law, the Authorized Agency must make those portions available for public inspection. The Offeror must separate information designated as confidential from other non-confidential information at the time of submitting its Offer. Prices, makes, model or catalog numbers of items offered, scheduled delivery dates, and terms of payment are not confidential, and must be publicly available regardless of an Offeror's designation to the contrary.

125-249-0350

Mistakes

(1) Generally. To protect the integrity of the competitive Procurement Process and to assure fair treatment of Offerors, an Authorized Agency should carefully consider whether to permit waiver, correction or withdrawal of Offers for certain mistakes.

(2) The Authorized Agency Treatment of Mistakes. An Authorized Agency must not allow an Offeror to correct or withdraw an Offer for an error in judgment. If the Authorized Agency discovers certain mistakes in an Offer after Opening, but before Award of the Contract, the Authorized Agency may take the following action:

(a) An Authorized Agency may waive, or permit an Offeror to correct, a minor informality. A minor informality is a matter of form rather than substance that is evident on the face of the Offer, or an insignificant mistake that can be waived or corrected without prejudice to other Offerors. Examples of minor informalities include an Offeror's failure to:

(A) Return the correct number of Signed Offers or the correct number of other documents required by the Solicitation Document;

(B) Sign the Offer in the designated block, provided a Signature appears elsewhere in the Offer, evidencing an intent to be bound; and

(C) Acknowledge receipt of an Addendum to the Solicitation Document, provided that it is clear on the face of the Offer that the Offeror received the Addendum and intended to be bound by its terms; or the Addendum involved did not affect price, quality or delivery.

(b) An Authorized Agency may correct a clerical error if the error is evident on the face of the Offer or other documents submitted with the Offer, and the Offeror confirms the Authorized Agency's correction in Writing. A clerical error is an Offeror's error in transcribing its Offer. Unit prices must prevail over extended prices in the event of a discrepancy between extended prices and unit prices.

(c) An Authorized Agency may permit an Offeror to withdraw an Offer based on one or more clerical errors in the Offer only if the Offeror shows with objective proof and by clear and convincing evidence:

(A) The nature of the error;

(B) That the error is not a minor informality under this Subsection or an error in judgment;

(C) That the error cannot be corrected or waived under Subsection (b) of this Section;

(D) That the Offeror acted in good faith in submitting an Offer that contained the claimed error and in claiming that the alleged error in the Offer exists;

(E) That the Offeror acted without gross negligence in submitting an Offer that contained a claimed error;

(F) That the Offeror will suffer substantial detriment if the Authorized Agency does not grant the Offeror permission to withdraw the Offer;

(G) That the Authorized Agency's or the public's status has not changed so significantly that relief from the forfeiture will Work a substantial hardship on the Authorized Agency or the public it represents; and

(H) That the Offeror promptly gave notice of the claimed error to the Authorized Agency.

(d) The criteria in Subsection (2)(c) of this Rule must determine whether an Authorized Agency will permit an Offeror to withdraw its Offer after Closing. These criteria also must apply to the question of whether an Authorized Agency will permit an Offeror to withdraw its Offer without forfeiture of its Bid bond (or other Bid or Proposal security), or without liability to the Authorized Agency based on the difference between the amount of the Offeror's Offer and the amount of the Contract actually awarded by the Authorized Agency, whether by Award to the next lowest Responsive and Responsible Bidder or the best Responsive and Responsible Proposer, or by resort to a new Solicitation.

(3) Rejection for Mistakes. The Authorized Agency must reject any Offer in which a mistake is evident on the face of the Offer and the intended correct Offer is not evident or cannot be substantiated from documents submitted with the Offer.

(4) Identification of Mistakes after Award. The procedures and criteria set forth above are Offeror's only opportunity to correct mistakes or withdraw Offers because of a mistake. Following Award, an Offeror is bound by its Offer, and may withdraw its Offer or rescind a Contract entered into according to this division 249 only to the extent permitted by applicable law.

First-Tier Subcontractors; Disclosure and Substitution; ITB

(1) Required Disclosure. Within two (2) Working hours after the Bid Closing on an ITB for a Public Improvement having a Contract Price anticipated by the Authorized Agency to exceed $100,000, all Bidders must submit to the Authorized Agency a disclosure form as described by ORS 279C.370(2), identifying any first-tier subcontractors (those Entities that would be contracting directly with the prime Contractor) that will be furnishing labor or labor and materials on the Contract, if Awarded, whose subcontract value would be equal to or greater than:

(a) Five percent (5%) of the total Contract Price, but at least $15,000; or

(2) Bid Closing, Disclosure Deadline, and Bid Opening. For each ITB to which this rule applies, the Authorized Agency must:

(a) Set the Bid Closing on a Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday, and at a time between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m., except that these Bid Closing restrictions do not apply to an ITB for maintenance or construction of highways, bridges or other transportation facilities, and provided that the two (2) hour disclosure deadline described by this Rule would not then fall on a legal holiday;

(b) Open Bids publicly immediately after the Bid Closing; and

(c) Consider for Contract Award only those Bids for which the required disclosure has been submitted by the announced deadline on forms prescribed by the Authorized Agency.

(3) Bidder Instructions and Disclosure Form. For the purposes of this Rule, an Authorized Agency in its Solicitation must:

(a) Prescribe the disclosure form that must be utilized, substantially in the form set forth in ORS 279C.370(2); and

(b) Provide instructions in a notice substantially similar to the following: "Instructions for First-Tier Subcontractor Disclosure." Bidders are required to disclose information about certain first-tier subcontractors (see ORS 279C.370). Specifically, when the contract amount of a first-tier subcontractor furnishing labor or labor and materials would be greater than or equal to: 5% of the project Bid, but at least $15,000, or $350,000 regardless of the percentage, the Bidder must disclose the following information about that subcontract either in its Bid submission, or within two (2) hours after Bid Closing:

(A) The subcontractor's name,

(B) The category of Work that the subcontractor would be performing, and

(C) The dollar value of the subcontract. If the Bidder will not be using any subcontractors that are subject to the above disclosure requirements, the Bidder is required to indicate "NONE" on the accompanying form.

"THE AUTHORIZED AGENCY MUST REJECT A BID IF THE BIDDER FAILS TO SUBMIT THE DISCLOSURE FORM WITH THIS INFORMATION BY THE STATED DEADLINE."

(4) Submission. A Bidder must submit the disclosure form required by this Rule either in its Bid submission, or within two working hours after Bid Closing in the manner specified by the ITB.

(5) Responsiveness. Compliance with the disclosure and submittal requirements of ORS 279C.370 and this Rule is a matter of Responsiveness. Bids which are submitted by Bid Closing, but for which the disclosure submittal has not been made by the specified deadline, are not Responsive and must not be considered for Contract Award.

(6) Authorized Agency Role. Authorized Agencies must obtain, and make available for public inspection, the disclosure forms required by ORS 279C.370 and this Rule. Authorized Agencies must also provide copies of disclosure forms to the Bureau of Labor and Industries as required by ORS 279C.835. Authorized Agencies are not required to determine the accuracy or completeness of the information provided on disclosure forms.

(7) Substitution. Substitution of affected first-tier subcontractors must be made only in accordance with ORS 279C.585. Authorized Agencies must accept Written submissions filed under that statute as public records. Aside from issues involving inadvertent clerical error under ORS 279C.585, Authorized Agencies do not have a statutory role or duty to review, approve, or resolve disputes concerning such substitutions. See ORS 279C.590 regarding complaints to the Construction Contractors Board on improper substitution.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

125-249-0370

Disqualification of Persons

(1) Authority. An Authorized Agency may disqualify a Person from consideration of Award of the Authorized Agency's Contracts after providing the Person with notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard in accordance with Sections (2) and (4) of this Rule.

(a) Standards for Conduct Disqualification. As provided in ORS 279C.440, an Authorized Agency may disqualify a Person for:

(A) Conviction for the commission of a criminal offense as an incident in obtaining or attempting to obtain a public or private Contract or subcontract, or in the performance of such Contract or subcontract.

(B) Conviction under state or federal statutes of embezzlement, theft, forgery, bribery, falsification or destruction of records, receiving stolen property, or any other offense indicating a lack of business integrity or business honesty that currently, seriously and directly affects the Person's responsibility as a Contractor.

(C) Conviction under state or federal antitrust statutes.

(D) Violation of a contract provision that is regarded by the Authorized Agency to be so serious as to justify Disqualification. A violation under this Subsection 2(d) may include but is not limited to material failure to perform the terms of a Contract or an unsatisfactory performance in accordance with the terms of the Contract. However, a Person's failure to perform or unsatisfactory performance caused by acts beyond the Person's control is not a basis for Disqualification.

(b) Standards for DBE Disqualification. As provided in ORS 200.065, 200.075 or 279A.110, an Authorized Agency may disqualify a Person's right to submit an Offer or to participate in a Contract (e.g. subcontractors) as follows:

(A) For a DBE Disqualification under ORS 200.065, the Authorized Agency may disqualify a Person upon finding that:

(i) The Person fraudulently obtained or retained or attempted to obtain or retain or aided another Person to fraudulently obtain or retain or attempt to obtain or retain certification as a disadvantaged, minority, women or emerging small business enterprise; or

(ii) The Person knowingly made a false claim that any Person is qualified for certification or is certified under ORS 200.055 for the purpose of gaining a Contract or subcontract or other benefit; or

(iii) The Person has been disqualified by another Authorized Agency according to ORS 200.065.

(B) For a DBE Disqualification under ORS 200.075, the Authorized Agency may disqualify a Person upon finding that:

(i) The Person has entered into an agreement representing that a disadvantaged, minority, women, or emerging small business enterprise, certified according to ORS 200.055 ("Certified Enterprise"), will perform or supply materials under a Public Improvement Contract without the knowledge and consent of the Certified Enterprise; or

(ii) The Person exercises management and decision-making control over the internal operations, as defined by ORS 200.075(1)(b), of any Certified Enterprise; or

(iii) The Person uses a Certified Enterprise to perform Work under a Contract to meet an established Certified Enterprise goal, and such enterprise does not perform a commercially useful function, as defined by ORS 200.075(3), in performing its obligations under the Contract.

(iv) If a Person is Disqualified for a DBE Disqualification under ORS 200.075, the affected Authorized Agency must not permit such Person to participate in that Authorized Agency's Contracts.

(C) For a DBE Disqualification under ORS 279A.110, an Authorized Agency may disqualify a Person if the Authorized Agency finds that the Person discriminated against minority, women, or emerging small business enterprises in awarding a subcontract under a Contract with that Authorized Agency.

(2) Notice of Intent to Disqualify. The Authorized Agency must notify the Person in Writing of a proposed Disqualification personally or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested. This notice must:

(a) State that the Authorized Agency intends to disqualify the Person;

(b) Set forth the reasons for the Disqualification;

(c) Include a statement of the Person's right to a hearing if requested in Writing within the time stated in the notice and that if the Authorized Agency does not receive the Person's Written request for a hearing within the time stated, the Person must have waived its right to a hearing;

(d) Include a statement of the authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing will be held;

(e) Include a reference to the particular Sections of the statutes and rules involved;

(f) State the proposed Disqualification period; and

(g) State that the Person may be represented by legal counsel.

(3) Hearing. The Authorized Agency must schedule a hearing upon the Authorized Agency receipt of the Person's timely request. The Authorized Agency must notify the Person of the time and place of the hearing and provide information on the procedures, right of representation and other rights related to the conduct of the hearing before the hearing.

(4) Notice of Disqualification. The Authorized Agency will notify the Person in Writing of its Disqualification, personally or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice must contain:

(a) The effective date and period of Disqualification;

(b) The grounds for Disqualification; and

(c) A statement of the Person's appeal rights and applicable appeal deadlines. For a Conduct Disqualification or a DBE Disqualification under ORS 279A.110, the Disqualified Person must notify the Authorized Agency in Writing within three (3) business days after receipt of the Authorized Agency's notice of Disqualification if the Person intends to appeal the Authorized Agency's decision.

125-249-0390

Offer Evaluation and Award; Determination of Responsibility

(1) General. If awarded, the Authorized Agency must award the Contract to the Responsible Bidder submitting the lowest, Responsive Bid or the Responsible Proposer or Proposers submitting the best, Responsive Proposal or Proposals, provided that such Person is not listed by the Construction Contractors Board as disqualified to hold a Public Improvement Contract (ORS 279C.375(3)(a)) or is ineligible for award as a nonresident education service district (ORS 279C.325). The Authorized Agency may award by item, groups of items or the entire Offer provided such Award is consistent with the Solicitation Document and in the public interest. Where Award is based on competitive Bids, ORS 279C.375(5) permits multiple contract awards when specified in the ITB.

(2) Determination of Responsibility. Offerors are required to demonstrate their ability to perform satisfactorily under a Contract. Before Awarding a Contract, the Authorized Agency must have information that indicates that the Offeror meets the standards of responsibility set forth in ORS 279C.375(3)(b). To be a Responsible Offeror, the Authorized Agency must determine that the Offeror:

(a) Has available the appropriate financial, material, equipment, facilities and Personnel resources and expertise, or ability to obtain the resources and expertise, necessary to meet all contractual responsibilities;

(b) Has completed previous contracts of a similar nature with a satisfactory record of performance. A satisfactory record of performance means that to the extent the costs associated with and time available to perform a previous contract were within the Offeror's control, the Offeror stayed within the time and budget allotted for the Procurement and otherwise performed the Contract in a satisfactory manner. An Authorized Agency should carefully scrutinize an Offeror's record of contract performance if the Offeror is or recently has been materially deficient in contract performance. In reviewing the Offeror's performance, the Authorized Agency should determine whether the Offeror's deficient performance was expressly excused under the terms of Contract, or whether the Offeror took appropriate corrective action. The Authorized Agency may review the Offeror's performance on both private and Public Contracts in determining the Offeror's record of contract performance. The Authorized Agency must make its basis for determining an Offeror not Responsible under this paragraph part of the Solicitation file;

(c) Has a satisfactory record of integrity. An Offeror may lack integrity if an Authorized Agency determines the Offeror demonstrates a lack of business ethics such as violation of state environmental laws or false certifications made to an Authorized Agency. An Authorized Agency may find an Offeror not Responsible based on the lack of integrity of any Person having influence or control over the Offeror (such as a key employee of the Offeror that has the authority to significantly influence the Offeror's performance of the Contract or a parent company, predecessor or successor Person). The standards for Conduct Disqualification under OAR 125-249-0370 may be used to determine an Offeror's integrity. An Authorized Agency may find an Offeror non-responsible based on previous convictions of offenses related to obtaining or attempting to obtain a Contract or subcontract or in connection with the Offeror's performance of a Contract or subcontract. The Authorized Agency must make its basis for determining that an Offeror is not Responsible under this paragraph part of the Solicitation file;

(d) Is legally qualified to contract with the Authorized Agency; and

(e) Has supplied all necessary information in connection with the inquiry concerning responsibility. If the Offeror fails to promptly supply information requested by the Authorized Agency concerning responsibility, the Authorized Agency must base the determination of responsibility upon any available information, or may find the Offeror not Responsible.

(3) Documenting Agency Determinations. Authorized Agencies must document their compliance with ORS 279C.375(3) and the above Sections of this Rule on a Responsibility Determination Form substantially as set forth in ORS 279C.375(3)(c).

(4) Authorized Agency Evaluation. The Authorized Agency must evaluate an Offer only as set forth in the Solicitation Document and in accordance with applicable law. The Authorized Agency must not evaluate an Offer using any other requirement or criterion.

(5) Offeror Submissions.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) The Authorized Agency may require an Offeror to submit Product Samples, Descriptive Literature, technical data, or other material and may also require any of the following before award:

(A) Demonstration, inspection or testing of a product before award for characteristics such as compatibility, quality or Workmanship;

(B) Examination of such elements as appearance or finish; or

(C) Other examinations to determine whether the product conforms to Specifications.

(b) The Authorized Agency must evaluate product acceptability only in accordance with the criteria disclosed in the Solicitation Document to determine that a product is acceptable. The Authorized Agency must reject an Offer providing any product that does not meet the Solicitation Document requirements. An Authorized Agency's rejection of an Offer because it offers nonconforming Work or materials is not Disqualification and is not appealable under ORS 279C.445.

(6) Evaluation of Bids. The Authorized Agency must use only objective criteria to evaluate Bids as set forth in the ITB. The Authorized Agency must evaluate Bids to determine which Responsible Offeror offers the lowest Responsive Bid.

(a) Nonresident Bidders. In determining the lowest Responsive Bid, the Authorized Agency must add a percentage increase to the Bid of a nonresident Bidder equal to the percentage, if any, of the preference given to that Bidder in the state in which the Bidder resides.

(b) Clarifications. In evaluating Bids, an Authorized Agency may seek information from a Bidder only to clarify the Bidder's Bid. Such clarification must not vary, contradict or supplement the Bid. A Bidder must submit Written and Signed clarifications and such clarifications must become part of the Bidder's Bid.

(c) Negotiation Prohibited. The Authorized Agency must not negotiate Scope of Work or other terms or conditions under an Invitation to Bid process before award.

(7) Evaluation of Proposals. See OAR 125-249-0650 regarding rules applicable to Requests for Proposals.

(8) Independent Contractor Status, Tax Compliance, and Requirements to Transact Business in Oregon. For these responsibilities of Offerors, see OAR 125-246-0330.

Negotiation With Bidders Prohibited

(1) Bids. Except as permitted by ORS 279C.340 and OAR 125-249-0430 when all bids exceed the cost estimate, an Authorized Agency must not negotiate with any Bidder before Contract Award. After Award of the Contract, the Authorized Agency and Contractor may only modify the Contract by change order or Amendment to the Contract in accordance with OAR 125-249-0860.

(2) Requests for Proposals. An Authorized Agency may only conduct Discussions or Negotiations with Proposers in accordance with the requirements of OAR 125-249-0650.

125-249-0430

Negotiation When Bids Exceed Cost Estimate

(1) Generally. In accordance with ORS 279C.340, if all Responsive Bids from Responsible Bidders on a competitively Bid Project exceed the Authorized Agency's Cost Estimate, before Contract Award the Authorized Agency may negotiate Value Engineering and Other Options with the Responsible Bidder submitting the lowest, Responsive Bid in an attempt to bring the Project within the Authorized Agency's Cost Estimate. The subcontractor disclosure and substitution requirements of OAR 125-249-0360 do not apply to Negotiations under this Rule.

(2) Definitions. The following definitions apply to this Rule:

(a) "Cost Estimate" means the Authorized Agency's most recent pre-Bid, good faith assessment of anticipated contract costs, consisting either of an estimate of an architect, engineer or other qualified professional, or confidential cost calculation Worksheets, where available, and otherwise consisting of formal planning or budgetary documents.

(b) "Other Options" means those items generally considered appropriate for Negotiation in the RFP process, relating to the details of contract performance as specified in OAR 125-249-0650, but excluding any material requirements previously announced in the Solicitation process that would likely affect the field of competition.

(c) "Project" means a Public Improvement.

(d) "Value Engineering" means the identification of alternative methods, materials or systems which provide for comparable function at reduced initial or life-time cost. It includes proposed changes to the plans, Specifications, or other contract requirements which may be made, consistent with industry practice, under the Original Contract by mutual agreement in order to take advantage of potential cost savings without impairing the essential functions or characteristics of the Public Improvement. Cost savings include those resulting from life cycle costing, which may increase or decrease absolute costs over varying time periods.

(3) Rejection of Bids. In determining whether all Responsive Bids from Responsible Bidders exceed the Cost Estimate, only those Bids that have been formally rejected, or Bids from Bidders who have been formally disqualified by the Authorized Agency, must be excluded from consideration.

(4) Scope of Negotiations. Authorized Agencies must not proceed with Contract Award if the scope of the Project is significantly changed from the original Bid. The scope is considered to have been significantly changed if the pool of competition would likely have been affected by the change; that is, if other Bidders would have been expected by the Authorized Agency to participate in the Bidding process had the change been made during the Solicitation process rather than during Negotiation. This Rule must not be construed to prohibit Solicitation of trade subcontracts.

(5) Discontinuing Negotiations. The Authorized Agency may discontinue Negotiations at any time, and must do so if it appears to the Authorized Agency that the apparent low Bidder is not negotiating in good faith or fails to share cost and pricing information upon request. Failure to re-bid any portion of the project, or to obtain subcontractor pricing information upon request, must be considered a lack of good faith.

(6) Limitation. Negotiations may be undertaken only with the lowest Responsive, Responsible Bidder according to ORS 279C.340. That statute does not provide any additional authority to further negotiate with Bidders next in line for Contract Award.

(7) Public Records. To the extent that a Bidder's records used in contract Negotiations under ORS 279C.340 are public records, they are exempt from disclosure until after the negotiated Contract has been awarded or the Negotiation process has been terminated, at which time they are subject to disclosure according to the provisions of the Oregon Public Records Law, ORS 192.410 to 192.505.

125-249-0440

Rejection of Offers

(1) Rejection of an Offer.

(a) An Authorized Agency may reject any Offer upon finding that to accept the Offer may impair the integrity of the Procurement Process or that rejecting the Offer is in the public interest.

(b) The Authorized Agency must reject an Offer upon the Authorized Agency's finding that the Offer:

(A) Is contingent upon the Authorized Agency's acceptance of terms and conditions (including Specifications) that differ from the Solicitation Document, or

(B) Takes exception to terms and conditions (including Specifications), or

(C) Attempts to prevent public disclosure of matters in contravention of the terms and conditions of Solicitation Document or in contravention of applicable law; or

(D) Offers Work that fails to meet the Specifications of the Solicitation Document; or

(E) Is late; or

(F) Is not in substantial compliance with the Solicitation Documents; or

(G) Is not in substantial compliance with all prescribed public Solicitation procedures.

(c) The Authorized Agency must reject an Offer upon the Authorized Agency's finding that the Offeror:

(A) Has not been prequalified under ORS 279C.430 and the Authorized Agency required mandatory prequalification; or

(B) Has been Disqualified; or

(C) Has been declared ineligible under ORS 279C.860 by the Commissioner of Bureau of Labor and Industries and the Contract is for a Public Work; or

(D) Is listed as not qualified by the Construction Contractors Board, if the Contract is for a Public Improvement; or

(E) Has not met the requirements of ORS 279A.105 if required by the Solicitation Document; or

(F) Has not submitted properly executed Bid or Proposal security as required by the Solicitation Document; or

(G) Has failed to provide the certification required under Section 3 of this Rule; or

(H) Is not Responsible. See OAR 125-249-0390(2) regarding Authorized Agency determination that the Offeror has met statutory standards of responsibility.

(2) Form of Business. For purposes of this Rule, the Authorized Agency may investigate any Person submitting an Offer. The investigation may include that Person's officers, Directors, owners, affiliates, or any other Person acquiring ownership of the Person to determine application of this Rule or to apply the Disqualification provisions of ORS 279C.440 to 279C.450 and OAR 125-249-0370.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(3) Certification of Non-Discrimination. The Offeror must certify and deliver to the Authorized Agency Written certification, as part of the Offer that the Offeror has not discriminated against minority, women or emerging small business enterprises in obtaining any required subcontracts. Failure to do so must be grounds for disqualification.

(4) Rejection of all Offers. An Authorized Agency may reject all Offers for good cause upon the Authorized Agency's Written finding it is in the public interest to do so. The Authorized Agency must notify all Offerors of the rejection of all Offers, along with the good cause justification and finding.

(5) Criteria for Rejection of All Offers. The Authorized Agency may reject all Offers upon a Written finding that:

(a) The content of or an error in the Solicitation Document, or the Solicitation process unnecessarily restricted competition for the Contract;

(b) The price, quality or performance presented by the Offerors is too costly or of insufficient quality to justify acceptance of the Offer;

(c) Misconduct, error, or ambiguous or misleading provisions in the Solicitation Document threaten the fairness and integrity of the competitive process;

(d) Causes other than legitimate market forces threaten the integrity of the competitive Procurement Process. These causes include, but are not limited to, those that tend to limit competition such as restrictions on competition, collusion, corruption, unlawful anti-competitive conduct, and inadvertent or intentional errors in the Solicitation Document;

(e) The Authorized Agency cancels the Solicitation in accordance with OAR 125-249-0270; or

(f) Any other circumstance indicating that Awarding the Contract would not be in the public interest.

125-249-0450

Protest of Contractor Selection, Contract Award

(1) Purpose. An adversely affected or aggrieved Offeror must exhaust all avenues of administrative review and relief before seeking judicial review of the Authorized Agency's Contractor selection or Contract Award decision.

(2) Notice of Competitive Range. Unless otherwise provided in the RFP, when the competitive proposal process is authorized under OAR 125-249-0650, the Authorized Agency must provide Written notice to all Proposers of the Authorized Agency's determination of the Proposers included in the Competitive Range. The Authorized Agency's notice of the Proposers included in the Competitive Range must not be final until the later of the following:

(a) Ten (10) Days after the date of the notice, unless otherwise provided therein; or

(b) Until the Authorized Agency provides a Written response to all timely-filed protests that denies the protest and affirms the notice of the Proposers included in the Competitive Range.

(3) Notice of Intent to Award. The Authorized Agency must provide Written notice to all Offerors of the Authorized Agency's intent to award the Contract as provided by OAR 125-249-0395.

(4) Right to Protest Award.

(a) An adversely affected or aggrieved Offeror may submit to the Authorized Agency a Written protest of the Authorized Agency's intent to award within seven (7) Days after issuance of the notice of intent to award the Contract, unless a different protest period is provided under the Solicitation Document.

(b) The Offeror's protest must be in Writing and must specify the grounds upon which the protest is based.

(c) An Offeror is adversely affected or aggrieved only if the Offeror is eligible for Award of the Contract as the Responsible Bidder submitting the lowest Responsive Bid or the Responsible Proposer submitting the best Responsive Proposal and is next in line for Award, i.e., the protesting Offeror must claim that all lower Bidders or higher-scored Proposers are ineligible for Award:

(A) Because their Offers were non-responsive; or

(B) The Authorized Agency committed a substantial violation of a provision in the Solicitation Document or of an applicable procurement statute or administrative rule, and the protesting Offeror was unfairly evaluated and would have, but for such substantial violation, been the Responsible Bidder offering the lowest Bid or the Responsible Proposer offering the highest-ranked Proposal.

(d) The Authorized Agency must not consider a protest submitted after the time period established in this Rule or such different period as may be provided in the Solicitation Document. A Proposer may not protest an Authorized Agency's decision not to increase the size of the Competitive Range above the size of the Competitive Range set forth in the RFP.

(5) Right to Protest Competitive Range.

(a) An adversely affected or aggrieved Proposer may submit to the Authorized Agency a Written protest of the Authorized Agency's decision to exclude the Proposer from the Competitive Range within seven (7) Days after issuance of the notice of the Competitive Range, unless a different protest period is provided under the Solicitation Document. (See procedural requirements for the use of RFPs at OAR 125-249-0650.)

(b) The Proposer's protest must be in Writing and must specify the grounds upon which the protest is based.

(c) A Proposer is adversely affected only if the Proposer is responsible and submitted a Responsive Proposal and is eligible for inclusion in the Competitive Range, i.e., the protesting Proposer must claim it is eligible for inclusion in the Competitive Range if all ineligible higher-scoring Proposers are removed from consideration, and that those ineligible Proposers are ineligible for inclusion in the Competitive Range because:

(A) Their Proposals were not responsive; or

(B) The Authorized Agency committed a substantial violation of a provision in the RFP or of an applicable procurement statute or administrative rule, and the protesting Proposer was unfairly evaluated and would have, but for such substantial violation, been included in the Competitive Range.

(d) The Authorized Agency must not consider a protest submitted after the time period established in this Rule or such different period as may be provided in the Solicitation Document. A Proposer may not protest an Authorized Agency's decision not to increase the size of the Competitive Range above the size of the Competitive Range set forth in the RFP.

(6) Authority to Resolve Protests. The head of the Authorized Agency, or such Person's delegatee, may settle or resolve a Written protest submitted in accordance with the requirements of this Rule.

(7) Decision. If a protest is not settled, the head of the Authorized Agency, or such Person's delegatee, must promptly issue a Written decision on the protest. Judicial review of this decision will be available if provided by statute.

(8) Award. The successful Offeror must promptly execute the Contract after the Award is final. The Authorized Agency must execute the Contract only after it has obtained all applicable required documents and approvals.

125-249-0620

Use of Alternative Contracting Methods

(1) Competitive Bidding Exemptions. ORS Chapter 279C requires a competitive bidding process for Public Improvement Contracts unless a statutory exception applies, a class of Contracts has been exempted, or an individual Contract has been exempted in accordance with ORS 279C.335 and any applicable Authorized Agency rules. Use of Alternative Contracting Methods may be directed by the State Procurement Office as an exception to the prescribed Public Contracting practices in Oregon, and their use must be justified in accordance with the Public Contract law and these OAR 125-249-0600 to 125-249-0690 Rules. See OAR 125-249-0630 regarding required Findings and restrictions on class exemptions.

(2) Energy Savings Performance Contracts. Unlike other Alternative Contracting Methods covered by these OAR 125-249-0600 to 125-249-0690 Rules, ESPCs are exempt from the competitive bidding requirement process for Public Improvement Contracts according to ORS 279C.335(1)(f), if the Authorized Agency complies with the procedures set forth in these OAR 125-249-0600 to 125-249-0690 Rules related to the Solicitation, Negotiation and contracting for ESPC Services. If those procedures are not followed, an ESPC procurement may still be exempted from competitive bidding requirements by following the general exemption procedures within ORS 279C.335.

(3) Post-Project Evaluation. ORS 279C.355 requires that the Authorized Agency prepare a formal post-project evaluation of Public Improvement projects in excess of $100,000 for which the competitive bidding process was not used. The purpose of this evaluation is to determine whether it was actually in the Authorized Agency's best interest to use an Alternative Contracting Method. The evaluation must be delivered to the Director of the Department as applicable within thirty (30) Days of the date the Authorized Agency "accepts" the Public Improvement project, which event is typically defined in the Contract. In the absence of such definition, acceptance of the Project occurs on the later of the date of final payment or the date of final completion of the Work. ORS 279C.355 describes the timing and content of this evaluation, with three (3) required elements:

(a) Financial information, consisting of cost estimates, any Guaranteed Maximum Price, changes and actual costs;

(b) A narrative description of successes and failures during design, engineering and construction; and

(c) An objective assessment of the use of the Alternative Contracting Method as compared to the exemption Findings.

125-249-0640

Competitive Proposals; Procedure

Authorized Agencies may utilize the following RFP process for Public Improvement Contracts, allowing flexibility in both Proposal evaluation and contract Negotiation, only in accordance with ORS 279C.400 to 279C.410

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

and OAR 125-249-0600 to 125-249-690, unless other applicable statutes control an Authorized Agency's use of competitive Proposals for Public Improvement Contracts. Also see the Subdivision of Rules in this Division entitled Formal Procurement Rules, OAR 125-249-0200 to 125-249-0490, and RFP related Rules under the Alternative Contracting Methods Subdivision at OAR 125-249-0640 to 125-249-0660. For ESPCs, the following RFP process must be utilized if an Authorized Agency desires the Procurement Process to be exempt from the competitive bidding requirements of ORS 279C.335. The RFP process for the Alternative Contracting Methods identified in OAR 125-249-0600 to 125-249-0690 includes the following steps:

(1) Proposal Evaluation. Factors in addition to price may be considered in the selection process, but only as set forth in the RFP. For ESPC Proposal evaluations, the Authorized Agency may provide in the RFP that qualifications-based evaluation factors will outweigh the Authorized Agency's consideration of price-related factors, due to the fact that prices for the major components of the Work to be performed during the ESPC process contemplated by the RFP will likely not be determinable at the time of Proposal evaluation. Proposal evaluation must be as objective as possible. Evaluation factors need not be precise predictors of future costs and performance, but to the extent possible such evaluation factors must:

(a) Be reasonable estimates based on information available to the Authorized Agency;

(b) Treat all Proposals equitably; and

(c) Recognize that public policy requires that Public Improvements be constructed at the least overall cost to the Authorized Agency. See ORS 279C.305.

(2) Evaluation Factors.

(a) In basic negotiated construction contracting, where the only reason for an RFP is to consider factors other than price, those factors may consist of firm and personnel experience on similar projects, adequacy of equipment and physical plant, sources of supply, availability of key personnel, financial capacity, past performance, safety records, project understanding, proposed methods of construction, proposed milestone dates, references, service, and related matters that affect cost or quality.

(b) In CM/GC contracting, in addition to (a) above, those factors may also include the ability to respond to the technical complexity or unique character of the project, analyze and propose solutions or approaches to complex project problems, coordination of multiple disciplines, the time required to commence and complete the improvement, and related matters that affect cost or quality.

(c) In Design-Build contracting, in addition to (a) and (b) above, those factors may also include design professional qualifications, specialized experience, preliminary design submittals, technical merit, design-builder team experience and related matters that affect cost or quality.

(d) In ESPC contracting, in addition to the factors set forth in Subsections (a), (b) and (c) above, those factors may also include sample Technical Energy Audits from similar projects, sample M & V reports, financial statements and related information of the ESCO for a time period established in the RFP, financial statements and related information of joint venturers comprising the ESCO, the ESCO's capabilities and experience in performing energy baseline studies for facilities (independently or in cooperation with an independent third-party energy baseline Consultant), past performance of the ESCO in meeting energy guarantee contract levels, the specific Person that will provide the Energy Savings Guarantee to be offered by the ESCO, the ESCO's management plan for the project, information on the specific methods, techniques and equipment that the ESCO will use in the performance of the Work under the ESPC, the ESCO's team members and Consultants to be assigned to the project, the ESCO's experience in the Energy Savings Performance contracting field, the ESCO's experience acting as the prime Contractor on previous ESPC projects (as opposed to a subcontractor or Consultant to a prime ESCO), the ESCO's vendor and product neutrality related to the development of ECMs, the ESCO's project history related to removal from an ESPC project or the inability or unwillingness of the ESCO to complete an ESPC project, the ESCO's M & V capabilities and experience (independently or in cooperation with an independent third-party M & V Consultant), the ESCO's ability to explain the unique risks associated with ESPC projects and the assignment of risk in the particular project between the Authorized Agency and the ESCO, the ESCO's equipment performance guarantee policies and procedures, the ESCO's energy savings and cost savings guarantee policies and procedures, the ESCO's project cost guarantee policies and procedures, the ESCO's pricing methodologies, the price that the ESCO will charge for the Technical Energy Audit phase of the Work and the ESCO's fee structure for all phases of the ESPC.

(3) Contract Negotiations. Contract terms may be negotiated to the extent allowed by the RFP and OAR 125-249-0600 to 125-249-0690, provided that the general Work Scope remains the same and that the field of competition does not change as a result of material changes to the requirements stated in the Solicitation Document. See OAR 125-249-0650. Terms that may be negotiated consist of details of contract performance, methods of construction, timing, assignment of risk in specified areas, fee, and other matters that affect cost or quality. In ESPC contracting, terms that may be negotiated also include the Scope of preliminary design of ECMs to be evaluated by the parties during the Technical Energy Audit phase of the Work, the Scope of services to be performed by the ESCO during the Project Development Plan phase of the Work, the detailed provisions of the Energy Savings Guarantee to be provided by the ESCO and Scope of Personal Services and Work, methodologies and compensation terms and conditions during the design and construction phase and M & V phase of the Work, consistent with the requirements of OAR 125-249-0680 below.

Requests for Qualifications (RFQ)

As provided by ORS 279C.405(1), Authorized Agencies may utilize Requests for Qualifications (RFQs) to obtain information useful in the preparation or distribution of a Request for Proposals (RFPs). When using RFQs as the first step in a two (2) step solicitation process, in which distribution of the RFPs will be limited to the firms identified as most qualified through their submitted statements of qualification, Authorized Agencies must first advertise and provide notice of the RFQ in the same manner in which RFPs are advertised, include the RFP, specifically state that RFPs will be distributed only to the firms selected in the RFQ process and also provide within the RFQ a protest provision substantially in form of OAR 125-249-0450(5) regarding protests of the competitive range. Thereafter, Authorizing Agencies may distribute RFPs to the selected firms without further advertisement of the Solicitation.

Requests for Proposals (RFP)

(1) Generally. The use of competitive proposals must be specially authorized for a Public Improvement Contract under the competitive bidding requirement of ORS 279C.335(1), OAR 125-249-0130 and 125-249-0600 to 125-249-0690. Also see ORS 279C.400 to 279C.410 for statutory requirements regarding competitive Proposals, and OAR 125-249-0640 regarding competitive Proposal procedures.

(2) Solicitation Documents. In addition to the Solicitation Document requirements of OAR 125-249-0200, this Rule applies to the requirements for Requests for Proposals. RFP Solicitation Documents must conform to the following standards:

(a) The Authorized Agency must set forth selection criteria in the Solicitation Document. Examples of evaluation criteria include price or cost, quality of a product or service, past performance, management, capability, personnel qualification, prior experience, compatibility, reliability, operating efficiency, expansion potential, experience of key personnel, adequacy of equipment or physical plant, financial wherewithal, sources of supply, references and warranty provisions. See OAR 125-249-0640. Evaluation factors need not be precise predictors of actual future costs and performance, but to the extent possible, such factors must be reasonable estimates based on information available to the Authorized Agency;

(b) When the Authorized Agency is willing to negotiate terms and conditions of the Contract or allow submission of revised Proposals following Discussions, the Authorized Agency must identify the specific terms and conditions in or provisions of the Solicitation Document that are subject to Negotiation or Discussion and authorize Offerors to propose certain alternative terms and conditions instead of the terms and conditions the Authorized Agency has identified as authorized for Negotiation. The Authorized Agency must describe the evaluation and Discussion or Negotiation process, including how the Authorized Agency will establish the Competitive Range;

(c) The anticipated size of the Competitive Range must be stated in the Solicitation Document, but may be decreased if the number of the Proposers that submit responsive Proposals is less than the specified number, or may be increased as provided in OAR 125-249-0650(4)(a)(B);

(d) When the Authorized Agency intends to award Contracts to more than one Proposer, the Authorized Agency must identify in the Solicitation Document the manner in which it will determine the number of Contracts it will Award. The Authorized Agency must also include the criteria it will use to determine how the Authorized Agency will endeavor to achieve optimal value, utility and substantial fairness when selecting a particular Contractor to provide Supplies and Services from those Contractors Awarded Contracts.

(3) Evaluation of Proposals.

(a) Evaluation. The Authorized Agency must evaluate Proposals only in accordance with criteria set forth in the RFP and applicable law. The Authorized Agency must evaluate Proposals to determine the Responsible Proposer or Proposers submitting the best Responsive Proposal or Proposals.

(A) Clarifications. In evaluating Proposals, an Authorized Agency may seek information from a Proposer to clarify the Proposer's Proposal. A Proposer must submit Written and Signed clarifications and such clarifications must become part of the Proposer's Proposal.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(B) Limited Negotiation. If the Authorized Agency did not permit Negotiation in its Request for Proposals, the Authorized Agency may, nonetheless, negotiate with the highest-ranked Proposer, but may then only negotiate the:

- (i) Statement of Work; and
- (ii) Contract Price as it is affected by negotiating the statement of Work.
- (iii) The process for Discussions or Negotiations that is outlined and explained in Subsections (5)(b) and (6) of this Rule does not apply to this limited Negotiation.

(b) Discussions; Negotiations. If the Authorized Agency permitted Discussions or Negotiations in the Request for Proposals, the Authorized Agency must evaluate Proposals [and establish the Competitive Range, and may then conduct Discussions and Negotiations in accordance with this Rule.

(A) If the Solicitation Document provided that Discussions or Negotiations may occur at the Authorized Agency's discretion, the Authorized Agency may forego Discussions and Negotiations and evaluate all Proposals in accordance with this Rule.

(B) If the Authorized Agency proceeds with Discussions or Negotiations, the Authorized Agency must establish a Negotiation team tailored for the acquisition. The Authorized Agency's team may include legal, technical and negotiating personnel.

(c) Cancellation. Nothing in this Rule must restrict or prohibit the Authorized Agency from canceling the Solicitation at any time.

(4) Competitive Range, Protest, Award.

(a) Determining Competitive Range.

(A) If the Authorized Agency does not cancel the Solicitation, after the Opening the Authorized Agency will evaluate all Proposals in accordance with the evaluation criteria set forth in the Request for Proposals. After evaluation of all Proposals in accordance with the criteria set forth in the Request for Proposals, the Authorized Agency will determine and rank the Proposers in the Competitive Range.

(B) The Authorized Agency may increase the number of Proposers in the Competitive Range if the Authorized Agency's evaluation of Proposals establishes a natural break in the scores of Proposers indicating a number of Proposers greater than the initial Competitive Range are closely competitive, or have a reasonable chance of being determined the best Proposer after the Authorized Agency's evaluation of revised Proposals submitted in accordance with the process described in this Rule.

(b) Protesting Competitive Range. The Authorized Agency must provide Written notice to all Proposers identifying Proposers in the Competitive Range. A Proposer that is not within the Competitive Range may protest the Authorized Agency's evaluation and determination of the Competitive Range in accordance with OAR 125-249-0450.

(c) Intent to Award; Discuss or Negotiate. After the protest period provided in accordance with these Rules expires, or after the Authorized Agency has provided a final response to any protest, whichever date is later, the Authorized Agency may either:

(A) Provide Written notice to all Proposers in the Competitive Range of its intent to award the Contract to the highest-ranked Proposer in the Competitive Range.

(i) An unsuccessful Proposer may protest the Authorized Agency's intent to award in accordance with OAR 125-249-0450.

(ii) After the protest period provided in accordance with OAR 125-249-0450 expires, or after the Authorized Agency has provided a final response to any protest, whichever date is later, the Authorized Agency must commence final contract Negotiations with the highest-ranked Proposer in the Competitive Range; or

(B) Engage in Discussions with Proposers in the Competitive Range and accept revised Proposals from them, and, following such Discussions and receipt and evaluation of revised Proposals, conduct Negotiations with the Proposers in the Competitive Range.

(5) Discussions; Revised Proposals. If the Authorized Agency chooses to enter into Discussions with and receive revised Proposals from the Proposers in the Competitive Range, the Authorized Agency must proceed as follows:

(a) Initiating Discussions. The Authorized Agency must initiate oral or Written Discussions with all of the Proposers in the Competitive Range regarding their Proposals with respect to the provisions of the RFP that the Authorized Agency identified in the RFP as the subject of Discussions. The Authorized Agency may conduct Discussions for the following purposes:

- (A) Informing Proposers of deficiencies in their initial Proposals;
- (B) Notifying Proposers of parts of their Proposals for which the Authorized Agency would like additional information; and

(C) Otherwise allowing Proposers to develop revised Proposals that will allow the Authorized Agency to obtain the best Proposal based on the requirements and evaluation criteria set forth in the Request for Proposals.

(b) Conducting Discussions. The Authorized Agency may conduct Discussions with each Proposer in the Competitive Range necessary to fulfill the purposes of this Section, but need not conduct the same amount of Discussions with each Proposer. The Authorized Agency may terminate Discussions with any Proposer in the Competitive Range at any time. However, the Authorized Agency must offer all Proposers in the Competitive Range the opportunity to discuss their Proposals with the Authorized Agency before the Authorized Agency notifies Proposers of the date and time according to this Section that revised Proposals will be due.

(A) In conducting Discussions, the Authorized Agency:

(i) Must treat all Proposers fairly and must not favor any Proposer over another;

(ii) Must not discuss other Proposers' Proposals;

(iii) Must not suggest specific revisions that a Proposer should make to its Proposal, and must not otherwise direct the Proposer to make any specific revisions to its Proposal.

(B) At any time during the time allowed for Discussions, the Authorized Agency may:

(i) Continue Discussions with a particular Proposer;

(ii) Terminate Discussions with a particular Proposer and continue Discussions with other Proposers in the Competitive Range; or

(iii) Conclude Discussions with all remaining Proposers in the Competitive Range and provide notice to the Proposers in the Competitive Range to submit revised Proposals.

(c) Revised Proposals. If the Authorized Agency does not cancel the Solicitation at the conclusion of the Authorized Agency's Discussions with all remaining Proposers in the Competitive Range, the Authorized Agency must give all remaining Proposers in the Competitive Range notice of the date and time by which they must submit revised Proposals. This notice constitutes the Authorized Agency's termination of Discussions, and Proposers must submit revised Proposals by the date and time set forth in the Authorized Agency's notice.

(A) Upon receipt of the revised Proposals, the Authorized Agency must score the revised Proposals based upon the evaluation criteria set forth in the Request for Proposals, and rank the revised Proposals based on the Authorized Agency's scoring.

(B) The Authorized Agency may conduct Discussions with and accept only one revised Proposal from each Proposer in the Competitive Range unless otherwise set forth in the Request for Proposals.

(d) Intent to Award; Protest. The Authorized Agency must provide Written notice to all Proposers in the Competitive Range of the Authorized Agency's intent to award the Contract. An unsuccessful Proposer may protest the Authorized Agency's intent to award in accordance with OAR 125-249-0450. After the protest period provided in accordance with that Rule expires, or after the Authorized Agency has provided a final response to any protest, whichever date is later, the Authorized Agency must commence final contract Negotiations.

(6) Negotiations.

(a) Initiating Negotiations. The Authorized Agency may determine to commence Negotiations with the highest-ranked Proposer in the Competitive Range following the:

(A) Initial determination of the Competitive Range; or

(B) Conclusion of Discussions with all Proposers in the Competitive Range and evaluation of revised Proposals.

(b) Conducting Negotiations and Scope. The Authorized Agency may negotiate:

(A) The statement of Work;

(B) The Contract Price as it is affected by negotiating the statement of Work; and

(C) Any other terms and conditions reasonably related to those expressly authorized for Negotiation in the Request for Proposals. Accordingly, Proposers must not submit, and the Authorized Agency must not accept, for Negotiation any alternative terms and conditions that are not reasonably related to those expressly authorized for Negotiation in the Request for Proposals.

(c) Terminating Negotiations. At any time during Discussions or Negotiations that the Authorized Agency conducts in accordance with this Rule, the Authorized Agency may terminate Discussions or Negotiations with the highest-ranked Proposer, or the Proposer with whom it is currently discussing or negotiating, if the Authorized Agency reasonably believes that:

(A) The Proposer is not discussing or negotiating in good faith; or

(B) Further Discussions or Negotiations with the Proposer will not result in the parties agreeing to the terms and conditions of a final Contract in a timely manner.

(d) Continuing Negotiations. If the Authorized Agency terminates Discussions or Negotiations with a Proposer, the Authorized Agency may then commence Negotiations with the next highest scoring Proposer in the Competitive Range, and continue the process described in this Rule until the Authorized Agency has either:

(A) Determined to award the Contract to the Proposer with whom it is currently discussing or negotiating; or

(B) Completed one round of Discussions or Negotiations with all Proposers in the Competitive Range, unless the Authorized Agency provided for more than one round of Discussions or Negotiations in the Request for Proposals.

RFP Pricing Mechanisms

(1) A Request for Proposals may result in a lump sum Contract Price, as in the case of competitive bidding. Alternatively, a cost reimbursement Contract may be negotiated.

(2) Economic incentives or disincentives may be included to reflect stated Authorized Agency purposes related to time of completion, safety or other Public Contracting objectives, including total least cost mechanisms such as Life Cycle Costing according to OAR 125-247-0170.

(3) A Guaranteed Maximum Price (GMP) is used as the pricing mechanism for CM/GC where a total Contract Price is provided in the design phase in order to assist the Authorized Agency in determining whether the project Scope is within the Authorized Agency's budget, and allowing for design changes during preliminary design rather than after final design Work has been completed.

(a) If this collaborative process is successful, the Contractor must propose a final GMP, which may be accepted by the Authorized Agency and included within the Contract.

(b) If this collaborative process is not successful, and no mutually agreeable resolution on GMP can be achieved with the Contractor, then the Authorized Agency must terminate the Contract. The public Authorized Agency may then proceed to negotiate a new Contract (and GMP) with the firm that was next ranked in the original selection process, or employ other means for continuing the project under ORS Chapter 279C.

(4) When cost reimbursement Contracts are utilized, regardless of whether a GMP is included, the Authorized Agency must provide for audit controls that will effectively verify rates and ensure that costs are reasonable, allowable and properly allocated.

125-249-0680

Energy Savings Performance Contracts (ESPC)

(1) Generally. These OAR 125-249-0600 to 125-249-0690 Rules include a limited, efficient method for Authorized Agencies to enter into ESPCs outside the competitive bidding requirements of ORS 279C.335 for existing buildings or structures, but not for new construction. If an Authorized Agency chooses not to utilize the ESPC Procurement method provided for by these OAR 125-249-0600 to 125-249-0690 Rules, the Authorized Agency may still enter into an ESPC by complying with the competitive bidding exemption process set forth in ORS 279C.335, or by otherwise complying with the procurement requirements applicable to any Authorized Agency not subject to all the requirements of ORS 279C.335.

(2) ESPC Contracting Method. The ESPC form of contracting, as defined at OAR 125-249-0610(6), has unique technical complexities associated with the determination of what ECMS are feasible for the Authorized Agency, as well as the additional technical complexities associated with a Design-Build Contract. Authorized Agencies must only utilize the ESPC contracting method with the assistance of knowledgeable staff or Consultants who are experienced in its use. In order to utilize the ESPC contracting process, the Authorized Agency must be able to reasonably anticipate one or more of the following types of benefits:

(a) Obtaining, through an ESCO, the following types of integrated services: facility profiling, energy baseline studies, ECMS, Technical Energy Audits, project development planning, engineering design, plan preparation, cost estimating, life cycle costing, construction administration, project management, construction, quality control, operations and maintenance staff training, commissioning services, M & V services and required documentation as a fully integrated function with a single point of responsibility;

(b) Obtaining, through an ESCO, an Energy Savings Guarantee;

(c) Integrating the Technical Energy Audit phase and the Project Development Plan phase into the design and construction phase of Work on the project;

(d) Reducing the risk of design flaws, misunderstandings and conflicts inherent in the construction process, through the integration of ESPC services;

(e) Obtaining innovative design solutions through the collaboration of the members of the ESCO integrated ESPC services team;

(f) Integrating cost-effective ECMS into an existing building or structure, so that the ECMS pay for themselves through savings realized over the useful life of the ECMS;

(g) Preliminary design, development, implementation and an Energy Savings Guarantee of ECMS into an existing building or structure through an ESPC, as a distinct part of a major remodel of that building or structure that is being performed under a separate remodeling Contract; and

(h) Satisfying local energy efficiency design criteria or requirements.

(3) Authority. Authorized Agencies desiring to pursue an exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of ORS 279C.335 (and, if applicable, ORS 351.086), must utilize the ESPC form of contracting only in accordance with the requirements of these OAR 125-249-0600 to 125-249-0690 Rules.

(4) No Findings Required. An Authorized Agency is only required to comply with the ESPC contracting procedures set forth in these OAR 125-249-0600 to 125-249-0690 Rules in order for the ESPC to be exempt from the competitive bidding processes of ORS 279C.335. No Findings are required for an ESPC to be exempt from the competitive bidding process for Public Improvement Contracts according to ORS 279C.335, unless the Authorized Agency is subject to the requirements of ORS 279C.335 and chooses not to comply with the ESPC contracting procedures set forth in these OAR 125-249-0600 to 125-249-0690 Rules.

(5) Selection. ESPC selection criteria may include those factors set forth above in OAR 125-249-0640(2)(a), (b), (c) and (d). Since the Energy Savings Guarantee is such a fundamental component in the ESPC contracting process, Proposers must disclose in their Proposals the identity of any Person providing (directly or indirectly) any Energy Savings Guarantee that may be offered by the successful ESCO during the course of the performance of the ESPC, along with any financial statements and related information pertaining to any such Person.

(6) Qualifications Based Selection (QBS) Inapplicable. Because the value of construction services predominates in the ESPC method of contracting, the qualifications based selection (QBS) process mandated by ORS 279C.110 for Authorized Agencies in obtaining certain Consultant services is not applicable.

(7) Licensing. If the ESCO is not an Oregon licensed design professional, the Authorized Agency must require that the ESCO disclose in the ESPC that it is not an Oregon licensed design professional, and identify the Oregon licensed design professional(s) who will provide design services. See ORS 671.030(5) regarding the offer of architectural services, and ORS 672.060(11) regarding the offer of engineering services that are appurtenant to construction services.

(8) Performance Security. At the point in the ESPC when the parties enter into a binding Contract that constitutes a Design-Build Contract, the ESCO must provide a performance bond and a payment bond, each for 100% of the full Contract Price, including the construction and design and related professional services specified in the ESPC Design-Build Contract, according to ORS 279C.380(1)(a). For ESPC Design-Build Contracts, these "design and related professional services" include conventional design services, commissioning services, training services for the Authorized Agency's operations and maintenance staff, and any similar professional services provided by the ESCO under the ESPC Design-Build Contract before final completion of construction. M & V services, and any services associated with the ESCO's Energy Savings Guarantee are not included in these ORS 279C.380(1)(a) "design and related professional services." Nevertheless, an Authorized Agency may require that the ESCO provide performance security for M & V services and any services associated with the ESCO's Energy Savings Guarantee, if the Authorized Agency so provides in the RFP.

(9) Contracting Requirements. Authorized Agencies must conform their ESPC contracting practices to the following requirements:

(a) General ESPC Contracting Practices. An ESPC involves a multi-phase project, which includes the following contractual elements:

(A) A contractual structure which includes general contract terms describing the relationship of the parties, the various phases of the Work, the contractual terms governing the Technical Energy Audit for the project, the contractual terms governing the Project Development Plan for the project, the contractual terms governing the final design and construction of the project, the contractual terms governing the performance of the M & V services for the project, and the detailed provisions of the ESCO's Energy Savings Guarantee for the project.

(B) The various phases of the ESCO's Work will include the following:

(i) The Technical Energy Audit phase of the Work;

(ii) The Project Development Plan phase of the Work;

(iii) A third phase of the Work that constitutes a Design-Build Contract, during which the ESCO completes any plans and Specifications required to implement the ECMS that have been agreed to by the parties to the ESPC, and the ESCO performs all construction, commissioning, construction administration and related services to actually construct the project; and

(iv) A final phase of the Work, whereby the ESCO, independently or in cooperation with an independent Consultant hired by the Authorized Agency, performs M & V services to ensure that the Energy Savings Guarantee identified by the ESCO in the earlier phases of the Work and agreed to by the parties has actually been achieved.

(b) Design-Build Contracting Requirements in ESPCs. At the point in the ESPC when the parties enter into a binding Contract that constitutes a Design-Build Contract, the Authorized Agency must conform its Design-Build contracting practices to the Design-Build contracting requirements set forth in OAR 125-249-0670(7).

(c) Pricing Alternatives. The Authorized Agency may utilize one of the following pricing alternatives in an ESPC:

(A) A fixed price for each phase of the services to be provided by the ESCO;

(B) A cost reimbursement pricing mechanism, with a maximum not-to-exceed price or a GMP; or

(C) A combination of a fixed fee for certain components of the services to be performed, a cost reimbursement pricing mechanism for the construction services to be performed with a GMP, a single or annual fixed fee for M & V services to be performed for an identified time period after final completion of the construction Work, and a single or annual Energy Savings Guarantee fixed fee payable for an identified time period after final completion of the construction Work that is conditioned on certain energy savings being achieved at the facility by the ECMs that have been implemented by the ESCO during the project (in the event an annual M & V services fee and annual Energy Savings Guarantee fee is utilized by the parties, the parties may provide in the Design-Build Contract that, at the sole option of the Authorized Agency, the ESCO's M & V services may be terminated before the completion of the M & V/Energy Savings Guarantee period and the Authorized Agency's future obligation to pay the M & V services fee and Energy Savings Guarantee fee will likewise be terminated, under terms agreed to by the parties).

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(d) Permitted ESPC Scope of Work. The Scope of Work under the ESPC is restricted to implementation and installation of ECMs, as well as other Work on building systems or building components that are directly related to the ECMs, and that, as an integrated unit, will pay for themselves over the useful life of the ECMs installed. The permitted Scope of Work for ESPCs resulting from a Solicitation under these OAR 125-249-0600 to 125-249-0690 Rules does not include maintenance services for the project facility.

Required Contract Clauses

Except as provided by OAR 125-249-0150 and 125-249-0160, Authorized Agencies must include in all Solicitation Documents for Public Improvement Contracts all of the ORS Chapter 279C required Contract clauses, as set forth in the checklist contained in OAR 125-249-0200(1)(c) regarding Solicitation Documents. The following series of rules provides further guidance regarding particular Public Contract provisions.

125-249-0810

Waiver of Delay Damages Against Public Policy

Authorized Agencies must not place any provision in a Public Improvement Contract purporting to waive, release, or extinguish the rights of a Contractor to damages resulting from an Authorized Agency's unreasonable delay in performing the Contract. However, Contract provisions requiring notice of delay, providing for alternative dispute resolution such as arbitration (where allowable) or mediation, providing other procedures for settling contract disputes, or providing for reasonable liquidated damages, are permissible.

125-249-0815

BOLI Public Works Bond

According to ORS 279C.830(2), the specifications for every Public Works Contract must contain a provision stating that the Contractor and every subcontractor must have a Public Works bond filed with the Construction Contractors Board before starting Work on the project, unless otherwise exempt. This bond is in addition to performance bond and payment bond requirements.

125-249-0820

Retainage

(1) Withholding of Retainage. Except to the extent an Authorized Agency's enabling laws require otherwise, an Authorized Agency must not retain an amount in excess of five percent (5%) of the Contract Price for Work completed. If the Contractor has performed at least fifty percent (50%) of the contract Work and is progressing satisfactorily, upon the Contractor's submission of Written application containing the surety's Written approval, the Authorized Agency may, in its discretion, reduce or eliminate retainage on any remaining progress payments. The Authorized Agency must respond in Writing to all such applications within a reasonable time. When the contract Work is ninety seven and one half percent (97-1/2%) completed, the Authorized Agency may, at its discretion and without application by the Contractor, reduce the retained amount to one hundred percent (100%) of the value of the remaining unperformed contract Work. An Authorized Agency may at any time reinstate retainage. Retainage must be included in the final payment of the Contract Price.

(2) Form of Retainage. Unless an Authorized Agency that reserves an amount as retainage finds in writing that accepting a bond or instrument described in part (a) or (b) of this Section poses an extraordinary risk that is not typically associated with the bond or instrument, the Authorized Agency, instead of withholding moneys from payment, must accept from the Contractor:

(a) Bonds, securities or other instruments that are deposited and accepted as provided in Subsection (4)(a) of this Rule; or

(b) A surety bond deposited as provided in Subsection (4)(b) of this Rule.

(3) Deposit in Interest-bearing Accounts. Upon request of the Contractor, an Authorized Agency must deposit cash retainage in an interest-bearing account in a bank, savings bank, trust company, or savings association, for the benefit of the Authorized Agency. Earnings on such account must accrue to the Contractor. State Authorized Agencies must establish the account through the State Treasurer.

(4) Alternatives to Cash Retainage. Instead of cash retainage to be held by an Authorized Agency, the Contractor may substitute one of the following:

(a) Deposit of bonds, securities or other instruments:

(A) The Contractor may deposit bonds, securities or other instruments with the Authorized Agency or in any bank or trust company to be held for the benefit of the Authorized Agency. If the Authorized Agency accepts the deposit, the Authorized Agency must reduce the cash retainage by an amount equal to the value of the bonds and securities, and reimburse the excess to the Contractor.

(B) Bonds, securities or other instruments deposited or acquired instead of cash retainage must be of a character approved by the Department, including but not limited to:

(i) Bills, certificates, notes or bonds of the United States.

(ii) Other obligations of the United States or agencies of the United States.

(iii) Obligations of a corporation wholly owned by the Federal Government.

(iv) Indebtedness of the Federal National Mortgage Association.

(v) General obligation bonds of the State of Oregon or a political subdivision of the State of Oregon.

(vi) Irrevocable letters of credit issued by an insured institution, as defined in ORS 706.008.

(C) Upon the Authorized Agency's determination that all requirements for the protection of the Authorized Agency's interests have been fulfilled, it must release to the Contractor all bonds and securities deposited instead of retainage.

(b) Deposit of Surety Bond. An Authorized Agency, at its discretion, may allow the Contractor to deposit a surety bond in a form acceptable to the Authorized Agency instead of all or a portion of funds retained or to be retained. A Contractor depositing such a bond must accept surety bonds from its subcontractors and suppliers instead of retainage. In such cases, retainage must be reduced by an amount equal to the value of the bond, and the excess must be reimbursed.

(5) Recovery of Costs. An Authorized Agency may recover from the Contractor all costs incurred in the proper handling of retainage, by reduction of the final payment.

(6) Additional Retainage When Certified Payroll Statements Not Filed. According to ORS 279C.845(7), if a Contractor is required to file certified payroll statements and fails to do so, the Authorized Agency must retain 25 percent of any amount earned by the Contractor on a Public Works Contract until the Contractor has filed such statements with the Authorized Agency. The Authorized Agency must pay the Contractor the amount retained under this provision within 14 days after the Contractor files the certified statements, regardless of whether a subcontractor has filed such statements (but see ORS 279C.845(1) regarding the requirement for both contractors and subcontracts to file certified statements with the Authorized Agency).

Public Works Contracts

(1) Generally. ORS 279C.800 to 279C.870 regulates Public Works Contracts, as defined in ORS 279C.800(6), and requirements for payment of prevailing wage rates. Also see administrative rules of the Bureau of Labor and Industries (BOLI) at OAR chapter 839.

(2) Required Contract Conditions. As detailed in the above statutes and Rules, every Public Works Contract must contain the following provisions:

(a) Authorized Agency authority to pay certain unpaid claims and charge such amounts to Contractors, as set forth in ORS 279C.515(1).

(b) Maximum hours of labor and overtime, as set forth in ORS 279C.520(1).

(c) Employer notice to employees of hours and days that employees may be required to Work, as set forth in ORS 279C.520(2).

(d) Contractor required payments for certain services related to sickness or injury, as set forth in ORS 279C.530.

(e) Requirement for payment of prevailing rate of wage, as set forth in ORS 279C.830(1).

(3) Requirements for Specifications. The Specifications for every Public Works Contract, consisting of the procurement package (such as the project manual, Bid or Proposal booklets, request for quotes or similar procurement Specifications), must contain the following provisions:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) The prevailing rate of wage, as required by ORS 279C.830(1)(a);

(A) Physically contained within or attached to hard copies of procurement Specifications;

(B) Included by a statement incorporating the applicable wage rate publication into the Specifications by reference, in compliance with OAR 839-025-0020; or

(C) When the rates are available electronically or by Internet access, the rates may be incorporated into the Specifications by referring to the rates and providing adequate information on how to access them in compliance with OAR 839-025-0020.

(b) If applicable, BOLI determines (in a separate publication) the federal prevailing rate of wage and information concerning whether the state or federal rate is higher in each trade or occupation in each locality. The same options for inclusion of wage rate information stated in Subsection (3)(a) of this Rule apply. See BOLI rules at OAR 839-025-0020 and 0035.

Specifications; Brand Name Products

(1) Generally. The Authorized Agency's Solicitation Document must not expressly or implicitly require any product by brand name or mark, nor must it require the product of any particular manufacturer or seller, except according to an exemption granted under ORS 279C.345(2).

(2) Equivalents. An Authorized Agency may identify products by brand names as long as the following language: "approved equal"; "or equal"; "approved equivalent" or "equivalent," or similar language is included in the Solicitation Document. The Authorized Agency must determine, in its sole discretion, whether an Offeror's alternate product is "equal" or "equivalent."

Contract Suspension; Termination Procedures

(1) Suspension of Work. In the event an Authorized Agency suspends performance of Work for any reason considered by the Authorized Agency to be in the public interest other than a labor dispute, the Contractor must be entitled to a reasonable extension of contract time, and to reasonable compensation for all costs, including a reasonable allowance for related overhead, incurred by the Contractor as a result of the suspension.

(2) Termination of Contract by Mutual Agreement for Reasons Other Than Default

(a) Reasons for termination. The parties may agree to terminate the Contract or a divisible portion thereof if:

(A) The Authorized Agency suspends Work under the Contract for any reason considered to be in the public interest (other than a labor dispute, or any judicial proceeding relating to the Work filed to resolve a labor dispute); and

(B) Circumstances or conditions are such that it is impracticable within a reasonable time to proceed with a substantial portion of the Work.

(b) Payment. When a Contract, or any divisible portion thereof, is terminated according to this Section (2), the Authorized Agency must pay the Contractor a reasonable amount of compensation for preparatory Work completed, and for costs and expenses arising out of termination. The Authorized Agency must also pay for all Work completed, based on the Contract Price. Unless the Work completed is subject to unit or itemized pricing under the Contract, payment must be calculated based on percent of Contract completed. No claim for loss of anticipated profits will be allowed.

(3) Public Interest Termination by the Authorized Agency. An Authorized Agency may include in its Contracts terms detailing the circumstances under which the Contractor must be entitled to compensation as a matter of right in the event the Authorized Agency unilaterally terminates the Contract for any reason considered by the Authorized Agency to be in the public interest.

(4) Responsibility for Completed Work. Termination of the Contract or a divisible portion thereof according to this Rule must not relieve either the Contractor or its surety of liability for claims arising out of the Work performed.

(5) Remedies Cumulative. The Authorized Agency may, at its discretion, avail itself of any or all rights or remedies set forth in these Rules, in the Contract, or available at law or in equity.

105-040-0015

Veteran's Preference in Employment

Applicability: Recruitment and selection processes for all State of Oregon positions in agencies subject to ORS 240, State Personnel Relations Law, including but not limited to promotional opportunities.

(1) Definitions: (See also HRSD Rule 105-010-0000 Definitions Applicable Generally to Personnel Rules and Policies.)

(a) Initial Application Screening: An agency's process of determining whether an applicant meets the minimum and special qualifications for a position. An Initial Application Screening may also include an evaluation of skills or grading of supplemental test questions if required on the recruiting announcement.

(b) Application Examination: The selection process utilized by an agency after Initial Application Screening. This selection process includes, but is not limited to, formal testing or other assessments resulting in a score as well as un-scored examinations such as interviews and reference checks.

(c) Veteran and Disabled Veteran: As defined by ORS 408.225 and 408.235.

(2) Application of preference points upon Initial Application Screening: Qualifying Veterans and Disabled Veterans receive preference points as follows;

(a) Five Veteran's Preference points are added upon Initial Application Screening when an applicant submits as verification of eligibility a copy of the Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 214 or 215), or a letter from the US Department of Veteran's Affairs indicating the applicant receives a non-service connected pension with the State of Oregon Application; or

(b) Ten Disabled Veteran's points are added upon Initial Application Screening when an applicant submits as verification of eligibility a copy of the Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 214 or 215) with the State of Oregon Application. Disabled Veterans must also submit a copy of their Veteran's disability preference letter from the US Department of Veteran Affairs, unless the information is included in the DD Form 214 or 215.

(c) Veteran's and Disabled Veteran's preference points are not added when a Veteran or Disabled Veteran fails to meet the minimum or the special qualifications for a position.

(3) Following an Initial Application Screening the agency generates a list of qualified applicants to consider for Appointment. An Appointing Authority or designee may then:

(a) Determine whether or not to interview all applicants who meet the minimum and special qualifications of the position (including all Veterans and Disabled Veterans); or

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Select a group of Veteran and Disabled Veteran applicants who most closely match the agency's purposes in filling the position. This group of applicants may be considered along with non-veteran applicants who closely match the purposes of the agency in filling the position as determined by:

(A) Scored Application Examinations (including scored interviews): If an agency utilizes, after an Initial Application Screening, a scored Application Examination to determine whom to consider further for Appointment, the agency will add (based on a 100-point scale) five points to a Veteran's score or 10 points to a Disabled Veteran's score or;

(B) Un-scored Application Examinations: Un-scored Application Examinations done by sorting into levels (such as "unsatisfactory," "satisfactory," "excellent") based on desired attributes or other criteria for further consideration will be accomplished by:

- (i) Advancing the application of a Veteran one level;
- (ii) Advancing an application of a Disabled Veteran two levels.

(4) Preference in un-scored interviews: A Veteran or Disabled Veteran who, in the judgment of the Appointing Authority or designee, meets all or substantially all of the agency's purposes in filling the position will continue to be considered for Appointment.

(5) If a Veteran or Disabled Veteran has been determined to be equal to the top applicant or applicants for a position by the Appointing Authority or designee then the Veteran or Disabled Veteran is ranked more highly than non-veteran applicants and, a Disabled Veteran is ranked more highly than non-veteran and Veteran applicants.

(6) Preference described in Sections 2 through 5 of this rule is not a requirement to appoint a Veteran or Disabled Veteran to a position. An agency may base a decision not to appoint the Veteran or Disabled Veteran solely on the Veteran's or Disabled Veteran's merits or qualifications.

(7) A Veteran or a Disabled Veteran applicant not appointed to a position may request an explanation from the agency. The request must be in writing and be sent within 30 calendar days of the date the Veteran or Disabled Veteran was notified that they were not selected. The agency will respond in writing with the reasons for not appointing the Veteran or Disabled Veteran.

105-050-0025 Injured Worker Preference for Light Duty Assignments Under ORS 659A.052

Applicability: All Executive Branch Agencies except the Oregon University System pursuant to ORS 351.087.

(1) Definitions:

(a) Agency-at-injury: The state agency that employed the injured worker when the compensable injury occurred.

(b) Attending Physician: The physician primarily responsible for the injured worker's care related to the compensable condition in the workers' compensation claim.

(c) Independent and semi-independent agencies: State executive branch agencies not subject to all of ORS 240.

(d) Light duty assignment: A transitional assignment of an injured worker while the worker is recovering from job-related injuries or illnesses to duties within the worker's capacities and restrictions specified in writing by the worker's attending physician.

(2) If feasible, agencies-at-injury will make light duty assignments for injured workers after an attending physician authorizes a worker to return to work with temporary restrictions that preclude the worker from performing some or all of the worker's regular job duties.

(3) To identify light duty assignments, agencies-at-injury:

(a) Where feasible, temporarily modify a worker's regular job duties by removing or modifying those duties that conflict with physical restrictions specified by an injured worker's attending physician.

(b) If it is not feasible to remove or modify the worker's regular job duties to be consistent with the worker's restrictions, the agency-at-injury considers other work the agency may temporarily assign to the injured worker.

(c) If no light duty assignments are available within the agency-at-injury, the agency-at-injury may contact the Human Resource Services Division or other executive branch agencies for assistance in locating light duty assignments.

(d) Agencies-at-injury monitor, adjust, or terminate temporary light duty assignments as appropriate.

(e) An injured worker temporarily assigned light duty work in another agency remains an employee of the agency-at-injury.

(f) In addition to this rule, agencies that are subject to ORS 240 follow State Human Resource Policy 50.020.05, Early Return to Work of Injured Workers.

105-050-0030 Injured Worker Preference for Entry-Level Positions Under ORS 659A.052

Applicability: All Executive Branch Agencies except the Oregon University System pursuant to ORS 351.087.

(1) Definitions:

(a) Agency-at-injury: The state agency that employed the injured worker when the compensable injury occurred.

(b) Attending Physician: The physician primarily responsible for the injured worker's care related to the compensable condition in the workers' compensation claim.

(c) Independent and semi-independent agencies: State executive branch agencies not subject to all of ORS 240.

(d) Entry-level position: All limited competitive and non-competitive appointment classifications listed in OAR 105-040-0060; all classifications defined as entry in their title; single-level classifications and the first level of a classification series.

(2) Injured workers who make a timely demand for reemployment to available, suitable employment in accordance with Oregon Administrative Rule 839-006-0135 may also request consideration for permanent appointment to entry-level positions.

(a) The injured worker, seeking such reemployment, submits a written request to the agency-at-injury noting the specific entry-level positions to which he or she seeks appointment along with an updated employment application form.

(b) An agency-at-injury, subject to ORS 240, after receiving an eligible injured worker's request for permanent reemployment in a suitable or entry-level position, places the injured worker on the injured worker list for suitable and entry-level positions in accordance with State Human Resource Policy 50.020.03 Reinstatement and Reemployment of Injured Workers, or an applicable collective bargaining agreement.

(c) The Human Resource Services Division provides relevant information to semi-independent and independent state agencies regarding the injured workers who are eligible for reemployment to available, suitable, and entry-level positions.

(d) Independent and semi-independent state agencies give priority consideration according to subsection (2)(f) of this rule, to injured workers from other executive branch agencies who make a timely demand for reemployment.

(e) The Human Resource Services Division places workers injured in an independent or semi-independent agency on the injured worker list for appropriate classifications following receipt of notice from an independent or semi-independent agency of the injured worker's timely demand for reemployment to suitable and entry-level positions.

(f) All executive branch agencies, when filling vacancies, subject to the restrictions of an applicable collective bargaining agreement, offer entry-level and suitable positions to injured workers who meet the minimum and special qualifications of the position and can perform the duties within permanent restrictions.

(ii) Pre-OEGB medical insurance coverage was continuous with coverage under OEGB medical insurance.

(13) "Documented district policies" means district policies and practices that apply to an employee group and are submitted to the Oregon Educators Benefit Board during the plan selection process. District policies and practices must be identified and submitted with the applicable employee group plan selections.

(14) "Domestic partner," unless otherwise defined by a collective bargaining agreement or documented district policy in effect on January 31, 2008, means and includes the following:

(a) An unmarried individual of the same sex who has entered into a "Declaration of Domestic Partnership" with the eligible employee that is recognized under Oregon law; or

(b) An unmarried individual of the same or opposite sex who has entered into a partnership that meets the following criteria:

(A) Both are at least 18 years of age;

(B) Are responsible for each other's welfare and are each other's sole domestic partners;

(C) Are not married to anyone and have not had a spouse or another domestic partner within the prior six months. If previously married, the six-month period starts on the final date of divorce;

(D) Share a close personal relationship and are not related by blood closer than would bar marriage in the State of Oregon;

(E) Have jointly shared the same regular and permanent residence for at least six months; and

(F) Are jointly financially responsible for basic living expenses defined as the cost of food, shelter and any other expenses of maintaining a household. Financial information must be provided if requested.

(G) The eligible employee and domestic partner must jointly complete and submit to the educational entity an Affidavit of Domestic Partnership form, within five business days of the electronic enrollment date or the date the educational entity received the enrollment/change form. If the affidavit is not received, coverage will terminate for the domestic partner retroactive to the effective date.

(c) Participating Districts must calculate and apply applicable imputed value tax for domestic partners covered under OEGB benefit plans.

(15) "Educational Entity" means public school districts (K-12), education service districts (ESDs), community colleges and public charter schools participating in OEGB.

(16) "Eligible employee" means and includes:

(a) "Active eligible employee" means an employee of an OEGB participating organization who is employed or is in a job-sharing position on a full time or greater basis or meets the definition of an eligible employee under a separate OEGB rule or under a collective bargaining agreement or documented district policy in effect on January 31, 2008.

(b) "Retired eligible employee" means a previously active eligible employee, who is:

(A) Receiving a service or disability retirement allowance or pension under the Public Employees Retirement System (PERS) or under any other retirement or disability benefit plan or system offered by an OEGB participating organization for its employees;

(B) Eligible to receive a service retirement allowance under PERS and has reached earliest retirement age under ORS Chapter 238;

(C) Eligible to receive a pension under ORS 238A.100 to 238A.245 and has reached earliest retirement age as described in ORS 238A.165; or

(D) Eligible to receive a service retirement allowance or pension under another retirement benefit plan or system offered by an OEGB participating organization and has reached earliest retirement age under the plan or system.

(17) "Employee Group" means one or more similarly situated employees (i.e., nonrepresented or represented by a specific collective bargaining contract) in a common school district, union high school district, education service district, community college district or charter school.

(18) "Members" means and includes the following:

(a) "Eligible employee" as defined by OAR 111-010-0015(16);

111-030-0001

Development of OEBB Medical, Pharmaceutical, Dental and Vision Plan Designs

(1) As used in this section, "comparable plan design" means the actuarial value of the OEBB plan design is within 2.5 percent (higher or lower) than a current district plan.

(2) OEBB will develop plan designs for medical, pharmaceutical, dental and vision benefit plans that are comparable to the plan designs provided by Subject Districts prior to entering the OEBB.

(3) OEBB will develop comparable plan designs by:

(a) Collecting the medical, pharmaceutical, dental and vision plan designs provided by Subject Districts that will be entering OEBB on October 1, 2008, October 1, 2009, and October 1, 2010.

(4) Following initial implementation of the OEBB benefit plans on October 1, 2008, OEBB will re-evaluate its plan designs for the October 1, 2009, and October 1, 2010, plan year start dates to determine if the Subject District plan design was included in the comparability assessment performed for plan design development in 2008.

(a) If the Subject District plan design was considered during the initial plan design process no further analysis will be conducted.

(b) If the plan design was not considered during the initial plan design process OEBB will:

(A) Calculate the actuarial value for the Subject District plan design using an industry-standard actuarial model; and

(B) Identify whether a current OEBB plan design has an actuarial value 2.5 percent higher or lower than the Subject District plan design.

(5)(a) If none of the OEBB plan designs has an actuarial value within 2.5 percent higher or lower than the Subject District plan and the Subject District has 100 or more enrollees, OEBB will develop and implement a plan design with an actuarial value of 2.5 percent higher or lower than the Subject District's plan unless:

(b) There is an OEBB plan that has an actuarial value that is more than 2.5 percent higher than the Subject District's plan and it is determined that OEBB can still meet the comparable cost requirement.

Medical, Dental and Vision Benefit Plans Selection through OEBB

(1) As used in this section, "employee group" means employees of similar employment type, for example administrative, represented classified, nonrepresented classified, confidential, represented licensed, or nonrepre-

sented licensed. If one or more collective bargaining units exist within an employee group, each unit will be considered a separate employee group.

(2) OEBB will offer a range of medical, pharmaceutical, dental and vision plans that provide the flexibility to choose between a number of high quality plan options.

(3) The process for selection of medical, pharmaceutical, dental and vision plans offered by OEBB will include:

(a) Release of preliminary designs and costs for all medical, pharmaceutical, dental, and vision plan options to participating districts no later than 30 days prior to final selection date. The total number offered may vary each year.

(b) Districts select the medical, pharmaceutical, dental, and vision plan options to be offered to each employee group using the OEBB plan selection process.

(c) The specific number of allowed selections and selection parameters will be reviewed, considered and determined on an annual basis by OEBB.

(d) Plan selections for medical, pharmaceutical, dental, and vision benefit coverages must be submitted electronically and a hard copy signed by a district official must be received by OEBB no later than the date designated by OEBB policy each year.

Development of OEBB Basic Life and Accidental Death and Dismemberment and Optional Life and Accidental Death and Dismemberment Plan Designs

(1) As used in this section, "comparable plan design" means that 90 percent of district employees can obtain a maximum benefit through an OEBB plan design that is within $2,500 of the maximum benefit obtained through a pre-OEBB plan design in effect the year prior to implementation.

(2) OEBB will develop plan designs for basic life and AD&D and optional life and AD&D benefit plans that are comparable to the plan designs provided by Subject Districts prior to entering the OEBB.

(3) OEBB will develop comparable plans by: Collecting plan designs for basic life and AD&D and optional life and AD&D plans provided by Subject Districts that enter OEBB on October 1, 2009, and October 1, 2010.

(4) Following initial implementation of the basic life and AD&D and optional life and AD&D benefit plans, OEBB will re-evaluate its plan designs for the October 1, 2010, plan year start date to determine if the Subject District plan design was included in the comparability assessment performed for plan design development.

(a) If the Subject District plan design was considered during the initial plan design process no further analysis will be conducted.

(b) If the plan design was not considered during the initial plan design process OEBB will:

(c) Identify whether a current OEBB plan design is within $2,500 higher or lower than the pre-OEBB life insurance or AD&D benefit level.

(5) If none of the OEBB plan designs is within $2,500 higher or lower than the pre-OEBB life insurance or AD&D benefit level and the Subject District has 100 or more enrollees, OEBB will develop and implement a plan design within $2,500 higher or lower than the pre-OEBB life insurance or AD&D benefit level unless:

(6) There is an OEBB plan that provides a benefit level more than $2,500 higher than the district's option and it is determined that OEBB can still meet the comparable cost requirement.

Development of OEBB Short and Long Term Disability Plan Designs

(1) As used in the section, "comparable plan design" means 90 percent of the district employees can obtain the same elimination period, percentage of covered compensation, definition of covered compensation, coverage period duration, and maximum payment per benefit period through an OEBB plan design as through a pre-OEBB plan design in effect the year prior to implementation.

(2) OEBB will develop comparable plan designs by collecting plan designs for short and long term disability plans provided by Subject Districts that enter OEBB on October 1, 2009, and October 1, 2010.

(3) Following initial implementation of the short and long term disability benefit plans, OEBB will re-evaluate its plan designs for the October 1, 2010 plan year start date to determine if the Subject District plan design was included in the comparability assessment performed for plan design development.

(a) If the Subject District plan design was considered during the initial plan design process no further analysis will be conducted.

(b)(A) If the plan design was not considered during the initial plan design process OEBB will:

(B) Identify if a current OEBB plan design offers a level of benefits, elimination period, percentage of covered compensation, coverage period duration, and maximum payment per benefit period available through the group contract.

(4)(a) If none of the OEBB plan designs offers a level of benefits, elimination period, percentage of covered compensation, coverage period duration, and maximum payment per benefit period available through the group contract, OEBB will develop and implement a plan option that offers the level of benefits available through the Subject District unless;

(b) There is an OEBB benefit option that provides a benefit level or elimination period more generous than the district's option and it is determined that OEBB can still meet the comparable cost requirement.

Optional Benefit Plans Selection through OEBB

(1) As used in the section, "optional benefit plans" means basic life and accidental death and dismemberment, optional life and AD&D, and short and long term disability.

(2) As used in the section, "employee group" means employees of similar employment type, for example administrative, represented classified, nonrepresented classified, confidential, represented licensed, or nonrepresented licensed. If one or more collective bargaining unit exists within an employee group, each unit will be considered a separate employee group.

(3) OEBB will offer a range of optional benefit plans that provide the flexibility to choose between a number of high quality plan options.

(4) The process for selection of optional benefit plans offered by OEBB will include:

(a) Release of preliminary designs and premium costs for all optional benefit plan options to participating districts no later than 30 days prior to final selection date. The total number offered may vary each year.

(b) Districts select the optional benefit plans to be offered to each employee group using the OEBB plan selection process.

(c) Plan selections for optional benefit plans must be submitted electronically and a hard copy signed by a district official must be received by OEBB no later than the date designated by OEBB policy each year.

Effective Dates

(1) Benefit plan changes or initial elections, unless otherwise specified in a collective bargaining agreement or documented district policy in effect on June 30, 2008, are effective on the later of:

(a) The first of the month following a completed online enrollment in the OEBB benefit management system or submission of a paper enrollment or change form,

(b) The first of the month following the date of hire or the date of eligibility; or

(c) The first of the month following the approval date of additional optional life insurance requested above the guarantee issue amount.

(2) Covered dependent changes are effective the first of the month following the date of the event causing the dependent to be eligible under OEBB administrative rules with the following exceptions:

(a) Coverage for a newborn child is effective on the date of birth. The active eligible employee must add the newborn child to their benefit plans within 60 calendar days from the date of birth in order for the newborn child to be eligible for benefit coverage.

(b) Coverage for a newly adopted child is effective the date of the adoption decree or date of placement for adoption. The active eligible employee must add the adopted child to their benefit plans within 60 calendar days from the date of the decree or placement in order for the newly adopted child to be eligible for benefit coverage; and

(A) The active eligible employee must submit the adoption agreement with the enrollment forms to the Participating District.

(B) Claims payments will not be made for expenses incurred prior to the date of decree or placement.

(c) Coverage for a dependent child by affidavit as defined in OEBB administrative rules starts the first of the month following receipt of the affidavit by the district benefits administrator

(3) Elections made during an open enrollment period are effective on the first day of the new plan year.

Correcting Enrollment and Processing Errors

(1) Employee Enrollment Errors. Enrollment errors occur when an active eligible employee provides incorrect information or fails to make correct selections when making benefit plan elections. The active eligible employee is responsible for identifying enrollment errors or omissions.

(a) OEBB authorizes Participating Districts to correct enrollment errors reported by the active eligible employee within 60 calendar days of the original eligibility date, open enrollment period end date, or midyear benefit plan change date. Corrections are retroactive to the original effective date as identified in OAR 111-040-0001.

(b) Enrollment errors identified after 60 calendar days of the eligibility date, open enrollment period end date or midyear benefit plan change date must be submitted to OEBB for review and approval based on OAR 111-080-0030. If approved, corrections are retroactive to the original effective date as identified in OAR 111-040-0001.

(2) Benefit Administrator Processing Errors. Processing errors or omissions occur when benefit plan elections are processed incorrectly in the benefit system or when a newly-eligible active eligible employee does not receive correct enrollment information or materials within 31 calendar days of the eligibility date.

(a) OEBB authorizes Participating Districts to correct processing errors identified within 60 calendar days of the eligibility date, open enrollment period end date, or midyear benefit plan change date. Corrections are retroactive to the original effective date as identified in OAR 111-040-0001. The Participating District must reconcile all premium discrepancies.

(b) Processing errors identified after 60 calendar days of the eligibility date, open enrollment period end date, or midyear benefit plan change date must be submitted to OEBB for review and approval based on OAR 111-080-0030. If approved, corrections are retroactive to the original effective date as identified in OAR 111-040-0001. The Participating District must reconcile all premium discrepancies within 30 calendar days of any adjustments made in the system.

111-040-0030

Late Enrollment

(1) Late enrollment occurs when an active eligible employee fails to enroll for benefits within 31 calendar days of:

(a) The date of hire or other benefit eligibility date as identified in OAR 111-040-0001;

(b) The date a spouse, domestic partner, or dependent child gains eligibility;

(c) The date of marriage to a spouse who was most recently enrolled as a domestic partner; or

(d) The date of birth of the employee's biological newborn dependent child.

(2) OEBB authorizes Participating Districts to approve late enrollment requests for active eligible employees and dependents when the request is reported within 60 calendar days of the eligibility dates referenced in sections 1a, 1b, 1c and 1d.

(3) OEBB must review and approve all late enrollment requests based on OAR 111-080-0030 when the request is made more than 60 calendar days after the eligibility dates referenced in sections 1a, 1b, 1c and 1d.

(4) Approved late enrollment requests, unless determined otherwise in a collective bargaining agreement or documented district policy in effect on June 30, 2008, are effective the first of the month following the date the request is received by a district benefits administrator or OEBB, except for approved requests to add newborn children which are retroactive to the month the child was born along with any premium adjustments.

Declination of Coverage

As used in this section:

“Opting out of coverage” means that an individual elects not to enroll in a medical plan and is eligible to receive a portion of the cash contribution or other type of remuneration as provided for under a collective bargaining agreement, documented district policy, or employment contract.

“Waiving benefits” means that an individual elects not to enroll in any one of the benefit plans available under the OEGBB-sponsored benefits program and is not eligible to receive any portion of a cash contribution or other type of remuneration.

(1) Unless otherwise specified in a collective bargaining agreement, documented district policy or employment contract in effect on July 1, 2008, an eligible employee may opt out of the OEGBB-sponsored medical benefit plans. Eligible employees electing to opt out must:

(a) Maintain coverage under another employer-sponsored group medical benefit plan;

(b) Meet the requirements of the district opt out program in which they are participating;

(c) Submit their election to opt out through the OEGBB benefit management system; and

(d) If requested, provide proof of current coverage under another employer-sponsored group medical benefit plan.

(2) Eligible employees electing to opt out of the OEGBB-sponsored medical benefit plans may enroll in the dental benefit plans, vision benefit plans, and optional benefit plans.

(3) The level and type of funds and allowances retained by eligible employees and districts as a result of opt out programs are determined through collective bargaining agreements and documented district policies.

(4) A participating district will provide OEGBB with a written description of its opt out program upon request.

(5) An eligible employee may waive medical, dental and vision or any combination of benefits provided under the OEGBB-sponsored benefits program.

(6) Elections to opt out of the medical benefit plans or waive benefits must be made at the time of hire, when initially meeting eligibility, during an open enrollment period, or following a midyear benefit plan change.

(7) An eligible employee previously opting out of coverage or waiving benefits may enroll in benefit plans consistent with a midyear benefit plan change or during an open enrollment period.

(a) Coverage for previously OEGBB-eligible employees or a previously OEGBB-eligible dependent enrolling in the dental and/or vision plans during an open enrollment period will be limited to routine and preventive care for the first 12 months and subject to a 12-month waiting period for orthodontia coverage.

(b) Eligible employees who enroll in the dental or vision plans, or add previously OEGBB-eligible dependents to the dental and vision plans, due to a loss of other coverage will not be subject to waiting periods.

(8) Eligible employees electing to not enroll when initially eligible for optional insurance plans will have to go through a medical review process to obtain optional life insurance.

111-040-0040

Qualified Status Changes

(1) Active eligible employees experiencing a change in family or work status as noted below during the plan year have 31 calendar days from the date of the event to make changes unless indicated otherwise. The eligible employee may make only those changes that are consistent with the event for themselves and dependents. Please refer to the Qualified Status Change matrix for detail on what changes can occur with each event.

(2) Change in status. Events include:

(a) Gain spouse by marriage or domestic partner by meeting domestic partner eligibility;

(b) Loss of spouse or domestic partner by divorce, annulment, death or termination of domestic partnership, 60 days from the event;

(c) Gain dependent by birth, placement for/or adoption, affidavit of dependency or Domestic Partner's children (by affidavit of domestic partnership), 60 days from the event;

(d) Active eligible employee starts new employment and gains eligibility;

(e) Change in employment status by active eligible employee which affects eligibility;

(f) Active eligible employee ends employment or other change in employment status resulting in a loss of eligibility;

(g) Spouse or domestic partner starts new employment or other change in employment status which affects eligibility;

(h) Spouse or domestic partner's employment ends or other change in employment status resulting in a loss of eligibility under their employer's plan;

(i) Event by which dependent child satisfies eligibility requirements under OEGBB plans (for a list of requirements see 111-010-0015);

(j) Event by which dependent ceases to satisfy eligibility requirements under OEGBB plans (for a list of requirements see 111-010-0015), 60-days from the event;

(k) Changes in the residence of the active eligible employee or family member (i.e., moving out of the service area of an HMO);

(l) Reinstatement of coverage. Reinstatement can be used in the following situations:

(A) Military (USERRA);

(B) When coverage was continued under COBRA;

(C) When coverage was terminated in error and there is no lapse in coverage.

(m) Changes in cost or coverage do not constitute a Qualified Status Change. All changes resulting from a change in cost or coverage must be made during Open Enrollment.

(n) Related laws or court orders. For example: Qualified Medical Child Support Order (QMCSO), Medicare, HIPAA, or Family Health Insurance Assistance Program (FHIAP). Changes are determined by the applicable law or court order.

Rules Coordinator: April Kelly—(503) 378-6588

111-060-0001

Use of Social Security Numbers

(1) The Oregon Educators Benefit Board (OEGBB) will comply with the requirements of Section 7 of the Privacy Act of 1974 and the Oregon Consumer Identity Theft Protection Act, ORS 646A.600 to 646A.628 when requesting or requiring complete or partial disclosure of an eligible employee's or family member's, as defined in ORS 243.860(4) and (5) respectively, social security number.

(2) OEGBB may request voluntary disclosure and consent to use the social security number of an eligible employee or family member for the following reasons:

(a) OEGBB's internal verification and identification of enrollments or elections for participation in benefits provided by OEGBB.

(b) Medicare Secondary Payer Mandatory Reporting Provisions in Section 111 of the Medicare, Medicaid, and SCHIP Extension Act of 2007 (Public Law 110-173).

(3) A request for disclosure of an employee's social security number will notify the eligible employee or family member:

(a) Whether disclosure is mandatory or voluntary;

(b) Under what statutory or other authority the social security number is requested;

(c) What specific use or uses will be made of the number; and

(d) What effect, if any, refusal to provide the number or to grant consent for a voluntary use as described above in (2) will have on an individual.

(4) An eligible employee's or family member's social security number may not be put to a voluntary use as described above in (2) unless the eligible employee or family member has granted consent for that use. If, after having provided notice and received consent to use an eligible employee's or family member's social security number for specified purposes, OEBB wishes to use the social security number for additional purposes not included in the original notice and consent, OEBB must provide the eligible employee or family member notice and receive the eligible employee's or family member's consent to use the number for those additional purposes.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(5) An eligible employee's or family member's refusal to permit voluntary use of his or her social security number will not be used as a basis to deny the eligible employee or family member a right, benefit, or privilege provided by law.

(6) The request for the disclosure of the SSN has been incorporated in the MyOEBB Benefit Management System where all OEBB benefit eligible employees select, enroll, and manage their benefits.

(7) Per guidelines established by Section 111 of the Medicare, Medicaid, and SCHIP Extension Act of 2007, an entity, a plan administrator, or a fiduciary that fails to comply with the requirements may be subject to a civil money penalty of $1,000 for each day of noncompliance for each eligible employee. Failure by the eligible employee to supply the required information, including, but not limited to, their own or their family member's social security number, Health Insurance Claim Number (HICN) or compliance letter issued by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) could result in the termination of coverage provided by the insurance carrier or administrator.

603-027-0410

Definitions

(1) "Accredited Laboratory" means a laboratory that is currently accredited by an independent laboratory accrediting body for analyzing motor fuels using American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) International test procedures and specifications.

(2) "Alcohol" means a volatile flammable liquid having the general formula  $C_nH_{(2n+1)}OH$  used or sold for the purpose of blending or mixing with gasoline for use in propelling motor vehicles, and commonly or commercially known or sold as an alcohol, and includes ethanol or methanol.

(3) "ASTM" means ASTM International, the national voluntary consensus standards organization formed for the development of standards on characteristics and performance of materials, products, systems, and services; and the promotion of related knowledge. ASTM when used in these rules shall mean the 2009 Annual Book of ASTM Standards, Section 5, Volumes 05.01 through 05.05.

(4) "Antiknock Index (AKI)" means the arithmetic average of the Research Octane Number (RON) and Motor Octane Number (MON):  $AKI = (RON + MON) / 2$ . This value is called by a variety of names, in addition to antiknock index, including: Octane Rating, Posted Octane, (R+M)/2 Octane.

(5) "Automotive Fuel Rating" means the automotive fuel rating determined under 16 CFR 306.5, required to be certified under 16 CFR 306.6 and 16 CFR 306.8, and required to be posted under 16 CFR 306.10. Under this Rule, sellers of liquid automotive fuels, including alternative fuels, must determine, certify, and post an appropriate automotive fuel rating. The automotive fuel rating for gasoline is the antiknock index (octane rating). The automotive fuel rating for alternative liquid fuels consists of the common name of the fuel along with a disclosure of the amount, expressed as a minimum percentage by volume, of the principal component of the fuel. For alternative liquid automotive fuels, a disclosure of other components, expressed as a minimum percentage by volume, may be included, if desired.

(6) "Automotive Gasoline, Automotive Gasoline-Oxygenate Blend" means a type of fuel suitable for use in spark-ignition automobile engines and also commonly used in marine and non-automotive applications.

(7) "Aviation Gasoline" means a type of gasoline suitable for use as a fuel in an aviation gas spark-ignition internal combustion engine.

(8) "Batch" and "Production Lot" means a homogenous production volume of finished biodiesel from one or more sources that is held in a single container where representative samples are taken and analyzed to provide an authentic certificate of analysis (COA) for the specific volume.

(9) "Bulk Facility" means a facility, including pipelines terminals, refinery terminals, rail and barge terminals and associated underground and above ground tanks connected or separate, from which motor vehicle fuels are withdrawn from bulk and delivered to retail, wholesale or nonretail facilities or into a cargo tank or barge used to transport those products.

(10) "Base Gasoline" means all components other than ethanol in a blend of gasoline and ethanol.

(11) "Biomass" means organic matter that is available on a renewable or recurring basis and that is derived from:

(a) Forest or rangeland woody debris from harvesting or thinning conducted to improve forest or rangeland ecological health and reduce uncharacteristic stand replacing wildfire risk;

(b) Wood material from hardwood timber described in ORS 321.267(3);

(c) Agricultural residues;

(d) Offal and tallow from animal rendering;

(e) Food wastes collected as provided under ORS Chapter 459 or 459A;

(f) Yard or wood debris collected as provided under ORS Chapter 459 or 459A;

(g) Wastewater solids; or

(h) Crops grown solely to be used for energy, and

(i) Biomass does not mean wood that has been treated with creosote, pentachlorophenol, inorganic arsenic, or other inorganic chemical compounds.

(12) "Biodiesel" means a motor vehicle fuel consisting of mono-alkyl esters of long chain fatty acids derived from vegetable oils, animal fats, or other nonpetroleum resources, not including palm oil, designated as B100 and complying with ASTM D6751. Biodiesel produced in or imported into Oregon for use as a blend stock shall comply with B100 biodiesel requirements including ASTM International D6751 and the Certificate of Analysis.

(13) "Biodiesel Blend" means a fuel comprised of a blend of biodiesel fuel with petroleum-based diesel fuel, designated BXX. In the abbreviation BXX, the XX represents the volume percentage of biodiesel fuel in the blend.

(14) "Certificate of analysis" means:

(a) A document verifying that B100 biodiesel has been analyzed and complies with, at a minimum, the following ASTM D 6751 biodiesel fuel test methods and specifications:

(A) Flash point (ASTM D 93);

(B) Acid number (ASTM D 664);

(C) Cloud point (ASTM D 2500);

(D) Water and sediment (ASTM D 2709);

(E) Visual appearance (ASTM D 4176);

(F) Free glycerin (ASTM D 6584);

(G) Total glycerin (ASTM D 6584);

(H) Oxidation stability (EN 14112 as per ASTM D 6751); and

(I) Sulfur (ASTM D 5453 or ASTM D 7039).

(b) The ASTM International standards referenced in ORS 646.905(3) for free and total glycerin are incorrect. The correct ASTM International standards reference for free and total glycerin is ASTM D 6584.

(15) "Cetane Index" means an approximation of the cetane number of distillate fuel, which does not take into account the effect of a cetane improver additive, calculated from the density and distillation measurements. (Ref. ASTM D 976.)

(16) "Cetane Number" means a numerical measure of the ignition performance of a diesel fuel obtained by comparing it to reference fuels in a standardized engine test. (Ref. ASTM D 613.)

(17) "Coordinating Research Council (CRC) Rating" means a standardized format for rating injector and engine deposits as developed by the CRC.

(18) "Co-solvent" means an alcohol other than methanol which is blended with either methanol or ethanol or both to minimize phase separation in gasoline.

(19) "Dealer" means any motor vehicle fuel retailer dealer, nonretail dealer or wholesale dealer.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

- (20) "Director" means the Director of Agriculture.
- (21) "Diesel Fuel" means a refined middle distillate suitable for use as a fuel in a compression-ignition (diesel) internal combustion engine.
- (22) "Distillate" means any product obtained by condensing the vapors given off by boiling petroleum or its products.
- (23) "EPA" means the United States Environmental Protection Agency.
- (24) "E85 Fuel Ethanol" means a blend of ethanol and hydrocarbons of which the ethanol portion is nominally 75 to 85 volume percent denatured fuel ethanol (Ref. ASTM D 5798).
- (25) "Ethanol" also known as "Denatured Fuel Ethanol", means nominally anhydrous ethyl alcohol meeting ASTM D 4806 standards. It is intended to be blended with gasoline for use as a fuel in a spark-ignition internal combustion engine. The denatured fuel ethanol is first made unfit for drinking by the addition of Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) approved substances before blending with gasoline.
- (26) "Ethanol facilities production capacity" means the designed and "as-constructed" rated capacity as verified by the Oregon Department of Agriculture, or the ethanol facilities production capacity as determined by an independent Professional Engineer registered in the State of Oregon that is not the design consultant and as verified by the Oregon Department of Agriculture.
- (27) "Feedstock" means the original biomass used in biofuel production.
- (28) "Gasoline" means any fuel sold for use in spark ignition engines whether leaded or unleaded.
- (29) "Gasoline-Oxygenate Blend" means a fuel consisting primarily of gasoline along with a substantial amount (more than 0.35 mass percent oxygen, or more than 0.15 mass oxygen if methanol is the only oxygenate) of one or more oxygenates.
- (30) "Lead Substitute" means an EPA-registered gasoline additive suitable, when added in small amounts to fuel, to reduce or prevent exhaust valve recession (or seat wear) in automotive spark-ignition internal combustion engines designed to operate on leaded fuel.
- (31) "Lead Substitute Engine Fuel" means a gasoline or gasoline-oxygenate blend that contains a "lead substitute."
- (32) "Low Temperature Operability" means a condition which allows the uninterrupted operation of a diesel engine through the continuous flow of fuel throughout its fuel delivery system at low temperatures.
- (33) "Lubricity" means a qualitative term describing the ability of a fluid to affect friction between, and wear to, surfaces in relative motion under load.
- (34) "Methanol" means methyl alcohol, a flammable liquid having the formula CH<sub>3</sub>OH used or sold for the purpose of blending or mixing with gasoline for use in motor vehicles.
- (35) "M100 Fuel Methanol" means nominally anhydrous methyl alcohol, generally containing small amounts of additives, suitable for use as a fuel in a compression-ignition combustion engine.
- (36) "M85 Fuel Methanol" means a blend of methanol and hydrocarbons of which the methanol portion is nominally 70 to 85 volume percent and which meets the requirements of ASTM D 5797.
- (37) "Motor Octane Number" means a numerical indication of a spark-ignition engine fuel's resistance to knock obtained by comparison with reference fuels in a standardized ASTM D 2700 Motor Method engine test.
- (38) "Motor Vehicles" means all vehicles, vessels, watercraft, engines, machines, or mechanical contrivances that are propelled by internal combustion engines or motors.
- (39) "Motor Vehicle Fuel" means gasoline, gasoline-ethanol blends, diesel, other renewable diesel, diesel-other renewable diesel blends, B100 Biodiesel, Biodiesel Blends, E85 Fuel Ethanol, M85 Fuel Methanol, or any other liquid product used for the generation of power in an internal combustion engine, except aviation jet fuels, liquefied petroleum gases or natural gases.
- (40) "Nonretail dealer" means any person who owns, operates, controls or supervises an establishment at which motor vehicle fuel is dispensed through a card or key-activated fuel dispensing device to nonretail customers.
- (41) "Octane Rating" means the rating of the anti-knock characteristics of a grade or type of gasoline determined by dividing by two the sum of the research octane number and the motor octane number.
- (42) "Octane Rating Certification Documentation" means an invoice, bill of lading, delivery ticket, letter or other documentation that specifies the actual octane rating or a rounded rating that is the largest whole number or half of a number that is less than or equal to the number determined by or certified to the person transferring the gasoline.
- (43) "Official Sample" means a motor fuel sample delivered via nozzle directly through a fuel pump, dispenser, or metering device from either a fuel delivery truck, tank wagon, above ground or below ground fuel storage tank into a suitable sealable, one litre or larger pressure-tight metal or glass container in the presence of, or drawn by, a department representative in the manner prescribed by department procedures. An official sample shall be appropriately sealed and labeled as to its identity, type, brand, grade, posted automotive fuel rating and the location, source, date, and name of official taking it at the time it is withdrawn from storage. A custody transfer receipt or record will be completed whenever an official sample changes hands enroute to a qualified motor fuel standards laboratory.

(44) "Other renewable diesel" means a diesel fuel substitute, produced from nonfossil renewable resources, that has an established ASTM International standard, is approved by the United States Environmental Protection Agency, and meets specifications of the National Conference on Weights and Measures, designated "100% Biomass-Based Diesel".

(45) "Other renewable diesel blend" means a fuel comprised of a blend of other renewable diesel fuel with petroleum-based diesel fuel, designated "XX% Biomass-Based Diesel Blend". In the abbreviation, "XX%", the XX represents the volume percentage of other renewable diesel in the blend.

(46) "Oxygen Content of Gasoline" means the percentage of oxygen by mass contained in a gasoline.

(47) "Oxygenate" means an oxygen-containing, ashless, organic compound, such as an alcohol or ether, which can be used as a fuel or fuel supplement.

(48) "Premium Diesel" means a refined middle distillate suitable for use as a fuel in a compression-ignition (diesel) internal combustion engine and shall meet Standard Fuel Specifications OAR 603-027-0420.

(49) "Production" means the ability of a biofuel production facility to produce biofuel that is in compliance with applicable ASTM International specifications.

(50) "Production Lot" and "Batch" means a homogenous production volume of finished biodiesel from one or more sources that is held in a single container where representative samples are taken and analyzed to provide an authentic certificate of analysis (COA) for the specific volume.

(51) "Research Octane Number" means a numerical indication of a spark-ignition engine fuel's resistance to knock obtained by comparison with reference fuels in a standardized ASTM D 2699 Research Method engine test.

(52) "Retail Dealer" means any person who owns, operates, controls or supervises an establishment at which motor vehicle fuel is or offered for sale to the public.

(53) "SAE" means the SAE International, a technical organization for engineers, scientists, technicians, and others in positions that cooperate closely in the engineering, design, manufacture, use, and maintainability of self-propelled vehicles.

(54) "Sales" means volumes of biofuels measured in gallons per year, relevant consumer usage, demand, pricing, and other factors affecting sales.

(55) "Thermal Stability" means the ability of a fuel to resist the thermal stress which is experienced by the fuel when exposed to high temperatures in a fuel delivery system.

(56) "Unleaded" in conjunction with "engine fuel" or "gasoline" means any gasoline or gasoline-oxygenate blend to which no lead or phosphorus compounds have been intentionally added and which contains not more than 0.013 gram lead per liter (0.05 g lead per U.S. gal) and not more than 0.0013 gram phosphorus per liter (0.005 g phosphorus per U.S. gal).

(57) "Use" means the historic blending of biofuel in Oregon in areas using biofuel to meet Oregon's Renewable Fuel Standard (RFS) and other information relevant to industry blending of biofuel including the infrastructure capacity to blend and distribute biofuel.

(58) "Wholesale Dealer" means any person who sells motor vehicle fuel if the seller knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the buyer intends to resell the motor vehicle fuel in the same or an altered form to a retail dealer, a nonretail dealer, or another wholesale dealer.

(59) "Winter" or "Winterized" Diesel means a refined middle distillate suitable for use as a fuel in a compression-ignition (diesel) internal combustion engine which has been blended for low temperature operability and shall meet Standard Fuel Specifications OAR 603-027-0420.

(60) "Withdrawn From Bulk" means removed from a bulk facility for delivery directly into a cargo tank or a barge to be transported to a location other than another bulk facility for use or sale in this state.

Standard Fuel Specifications

(1) Gasoline and Gasoline-Oxygenate Blends, as defined in this regulation, shall meet the following requirements:

(a) The ASTM D 4814, "Standard Specification for Automotive Spark-Ignition Engine Fuel," except that volatility standards for unleaded gasoline blended with ethanol shall not be more restrictive than those adopted under the rules, regulations, and Clean Air Act waivers of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (which includes those promulgated by Oregon and Federally approved State Implementation Plans (SIP's)). Gasoline blended with ethanol shall be blended under any of the following three options:

(A) The base gasoline used in such blends shall meet the requirements of ASTM D 4814; or

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

- (B) The blend shall meet the requirements of ASTM D 4814; or
- (C) The base gasoline used in such blends shall meet all the requirements of ASTM D 4814 except distillation, and the blend shall meet the distillation requirements of the ASTM D 4814 specification.
- (b) Blends of gasoline and ethanol shall not exceed the ASTM D 4814 vapor pressure standard by more than 1.0 psi.
- (c) Minimum Antiknock Index (AKI). The AKI shall not be less than the AKI posted on the product dispenser or as certified on the invoice, bill of lading, shipping paper, or other documentation.
- (d) Lead Substitute Gasoline. Gasoline and gasoline-oxygenate blends sold as "lead substitute" gasoline shall contain a lead substitute additive which provides a level of protection against exhaust valve seat recession which is equivalent to the level of protection provided by a gasoline containing at least 0.026 gram of lead per liter (0.10 g per U.S. gal).
- (2) Ethanol intended for blending with gasoline shall meet the requirements of ASTM D 4806, "Standard Specification for Denatured Fuel Ethanol for Blending with Gasolines for Use as Automotive Spark-Ignition Engine Fuel."
- (3) Gasoline-Ethanol Blends Required
- (a) Consistent with ORS 646.912, the Oregon Department of Agriculture shall study and monitor ethanol fuel production, use, and sales in Oregon.
- (b) Except as provided in OAR 603-027-0420(3)(c), all retail dealers, nonretail dealers, or wholesale dealers may only sell or offer for sale gasoline that contains ten percent ethanol by volume.
- (c) A retail dealer, nonretail dealer, or wholesale dealer may sell or offer for sale gasoline that is not blended with ethanol if the gasoline;
- (A) Has an octane rating, as defined in ORS 646.945, of 91 or above, or;
- (B) If it is for use in an aircraft;
- (i) With a supplemental type certificate approved by the Federal Aviation Administration that allows the aircraft to use gasoline that is intended for use in motor vehicles; or
- (ii) Issued a type certificate by an aircraft engine manufacturer that allows the aircraft to use gasoline that is intended for use in motor vehicles;
- (C) An aircraft that has been issued an experimental certificate, described in 14 C.F.R. 21.191, by the Federal Aviation Administration and that is required by the manufacturer's specifications to use gasoline that is intended for use in motor vehicles;
- (D) A light-sport aircraft, as defined in 14 C.F.R. 1.1, that is required by the manufacturer's specifications to use gasoline that is intended for use in motor vehicles;
- (E) A vintage aircraft, as defined by the Oregon Department of Aviation by rule, that is required by the manufacturer's specifications to use gasoline that is intended for use in motor vehicles;
- (F) An antique vehicle, as defined in ORS 801.125;
- (G) A Class I all-terrain vehicle, as defined in ORS 801.190;
- (H) A Class III all-terrain vehicle, as defined in ORS 801.194;
- (I) A racing activity vehicle, as defined in ORS 801.404;
- (J) A snowmobile, as defined in ORS 801.490;
- (K) Tools, including but not limited to lawn mowers, leaf blowers, and chain saws; or
- (L) A watercraft.
- (d) Gasoline-ethanol blends shall contain not less than 9.2 percent by volume of agriculturally derived ethanol, exclusive of denaturants and permitted contaminants, that complies with
- (A) OAR 603-027-0420(2) Ethanol ASTM D 4806 standards,
- (B) Denatured as specified in 27 C.F.R. parts 20 and 21, and
- (C) Complies with the volatility requirements specified in 40 C.F.R. part 80.
- (e) The ethanol shall be derived from agricultural product, woody waste or residue.
- (f) The gasoline and gasoline-ethanol blends shall comply with OAR 603-027-0420(1).
- (g) It is prohibited to blend with casinghead gasoline, absorption gasoline, drip gasoline, or natural gasoline after the gasoline has been sold, transferred, or otherwise removed from a refinery or terminal.
- (4) Gasoline Additive Restrictions.
- (a) Effective November 1, 2009, a wholesale dealer, retail dealer, or nonretail dealer may not sell or offer to sell any gasoline blended or mixed with:
- (A) Ethanol unless the blend or mixture meets the specifications or registration requirements established by the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to section 211 of the Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. section 7545 and 40 C.F.R. Part 79, and the ethanol complies with ASTM International specification ASTM D 4806;
- (B) Methyl tertiary butyl ether in concentrations that exceed 0.15 percent by volume; or
- (C) A total of all of the following oxygenates that exceeds one-tenth of one percent, by weight, of;
- (i) Diisopropyl ether,
- (ii) Ethyl tert-butyl ether,
- (iii) Iso-butanol,
- (iv) Iso-propanol,
- (v) N-butanol,
- (vi) N-propanol,
- (vii) Sec-butanol,
- (viii) Tert-amyl methyl ether,
- (ix) Tert-butanol,
- (x) Tert-pentanol or tert-amyl alcohol, and
- (xi) Any other additive that has not been approved by the California Air Resources Board or the United States Environmental Protection Agency.
- (b) Nothing in this section shall prohibit transshipment through this state, or storage incident to the transshipment, of gasoline that contains methyl tertiary butyl ether in concentrations that exceed 0.15 percent by volume or any of the oxygenates listed in OAR 603-027-0420(4)(a)(C), provided,
- (A) The gasoline is used or disposed of outside of this state; and
- (B) The gasoline is segregated from gasoline intended for use within this state.
- (c) Notwithstanding the additives in OAR 603-027-0420(4)(a), a person may sell, supply, or offer to sell or supply gasoline in this state that contains any oxygenate other than ethanol, if the California Air Resources Board (CARB), California Environmental Policy Council (CEPC), or the United States Protection Agency (U.S. EPA) allow use of the oxygenate.
- (5) Diesel Fuel shall meet the requirements of ASTM D 975, "Standard Specification for Diesel Fuel Oils."
- (6) Winter or Winterized Diesel Fuel shall meet the requirements of ASTM D 975, "Standard Specification for Diesel Fuel Oils" and have a cold flow performance measurement which meets the ASTM D 975 tenth percentile minimum ambient air temperature charts and maps by either ASTM Standard Test Method D 2500 (Cloud Point) or ASTM Standard Test Method D 4539 (Low Temperature Flow Test, LTFT). Winter or winterized diesel (low temperature operability) is only applicable October 1–March 31 of each year.
- (7) Premium Diesel Fuel — All diesel fuels identified on retail and non-retail dispensers, bills of lading, invoices, shipping papers, or other documentation with terms such as premium, super, supreme, plus, or premier shall meet the requirements of ASTM D 975, "Standard Specification for Diesel Fuel Oils" and must conform to the following requirements:
- (a) Cetane Number — A minimum cetane number of 47.0 as determined by ASTM Standard Test Method D 613;
- (b) Low Temperature Operability — A cold flow performance measurement which meets the ASTM D 975 tenth percentile minimum ambient air temperature charts and maps by either ASTM Standard Test Method D 2500 (Cloud Point) or ASTM Standard Test Method D 4539 (Low Temperature Flow Test, LTFT). Low temperature operability is only applicable October 1–March 31 of each year;
- (c) Thermal Stability — A minimum reflectance measurement of 80 percent as determined by ASTM Standard Test Method D 6468 (180 minutes, 150 OC);
- (d) Lubricity — A maximum wear scar diameter of 520 microns as determined by ASTM D 6079. If a single test of more than 560 microns is determined, a second test shall be conducted. If the average of the two tests is more than 560 microns, the sample does not conform to the requirements of this part.
- (8) Biodiesel; B100 Biodiesel and Biodiesel intended for blending with diesel fuel shall.
- (a) Meet the requirements of ASTM D 6751, "Standard Specification for Biodiesel Fuel (B100) Blend Stock for Distillate Fuels";
- (b) Have a Certificate of Analysis for each batch or production lot produced in Oregon prior to blending with any diesel fuel sold or offered for sale in Oregon. Imported biodiesel shall have a Certificate of Analysis after entry into Oregon prior to blending, sale, or offer for sale in Oregon;
- (c) If biodiesel with a Certificate of Analysis does not comply with the specifications of ASTM International D 6751 when tested by the Department of Agriculture, then until the producer's Certificate of Analysis is verified and acceptable to the Department, the Department may require the producer of the biodiesel to test future productions by one of the following:
- (A) An accredited motor fuel laboratory, or
- (B) A non-accredited motor fuel laboratory that meets all of the following requirements;
- (i) The laboratory facilities must house and allow proper operation of all required equipment in accordance with the applicable test procedures,
- (ii) The laboratory must use personnel trained to perform and analyze ASTM International D 6751 biodiesel fuel tests and other required tests,
- (iii) The laboratory must use testing equipment that has been calibrated or verified to meet the requirements of each ASTM International test procedure used,
- (iv) The laboratory must participate in an ASTM International proficiency program or similar national proficiency program for at least three times per year with appropriate results, and
- (v) The laboratory must maintain current documentation of personnel qualifications, equipment verification, and proficiency results for at least one year. These records shall be available for inspection and reproduction upon request by the Director.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(9) Biodiesel Blends;

(a) Biodiesel blends through B5 must meet the requirements of ASTM D 975 Standard Specification for Diesel Fuel Oils.

(b) Biodiesel blends of B6 through B20 must meet the requirements of ASTM D 7467, Standard Specification for Diesel Fuel Oil, Biodiesel Blend (B6-B20).

(c) Blends of biodiesel and diesel fuels greater than B20 must meet the following requirements:

(A) The base diesel fuel must meet the requirements of ASTM D 975, Standard Specification for Diesel Fuel Oils; and

(B) The biodiesel blend stock must meet:

(i) The requirements of ASTM D 6751, Standard Specification for Biodiesel Fuel (B100) Blend Stock for Distillate Fuels, and

(ii) The requirements in OAR 603-027-0420(8).

(d) Exception; Biodiesel may be blended with diesel fuel whose sulfur, lubricity, or aromatic levels are outside specification ASTM D 975, Standard Specification for Diesel Fuel Oils, grades 1-D S15, 1-D S500, 2-D S15, or 2-D S500 provided the finished mixture meets pertinent national and local specifications and requirements for these properties.

(10) Other Renewable Diesel must meet its established ASTM International standard, be approved by the United States Environmental Protection Agency, and comply with specifications of the National Conference on Weights and Measures.

(11) Biodiesel Blends Required.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (e) of this section, a retail dealer, nonretail dealer, or wholesale dealer may only sell or offer for sale diesel fuel in Oregon containing at least two percent by volume biodiesel.

(b) When the capacity of biodiesel production facilities in Oregon reaches a level of at least 15 million gallons on an annualized basis;

(A) The Department shall notify all retailers, nonretail dealers, and wholesale dealers in Oregon that the capacity of biodiesel production facilities in Oregon has reached a level of at least 15 million gallons on an annualized basis and that a retail dealer, nonretail dealer, or wholesale dealer may only sell or offer for sale diesel fuel in Oregon containing at least five percent by volume biodiesel within two months of the date on the notification under this subsection, and

(B) Two months after the date of the notice, a retail dealer, nonretail dealer, or wholesale dealer may only sell or offer for sale diesel fuel in Oregon containing at least five percent biodiesel by volume.

(c) Biodiesel blends and other renewable diesel blends shall contain the volume percent stated to the nearest;

(A) 1 volume percent for blends through 5 volume percent, and

(B) 2 volume percent for blends greater than 5 volume percent through 20 volume percent.

(d) Diesel fuel containing more than five percent biodiesel by volume or other renewable diesel with more than five percent renewable component by volume must be labeled as required in OAR 603-027-0430.

(e) Exemption. The minimum biodiesel fuel content requirements in OAR 603-027-0420 do not apply to diesel fuel sold or offered for sale for use by railroad locomotives, marine engines, or home heating.

(12) Aviation Gasoline shall meet the requirements of ASTM D 910, "Standard Specification for Aviation Gasoline."

(13) E85 Fuel Ethanol shall meet the requirements of ASTM D 5798, "Standard Specification for Fuel Ethanol (Ed75-Ed85) for Automotive Spark-Ignition Engines."

(14) M85 Fuel Methanol shall meet the requirements of ASTM D 5797, "Standard Specification for Fuel Methanol (M70-M85) for Automotive Spark-Ignition Engines."

603-027-0430

Classification and Method of Sale of Petroleum Products

(1) General Considerations:

(a) Documentation.

(A) When gasoline; gasoline-oxygenate blends; reformulated gasoline; M85 and M100 fuel methanol; E85 and E100 fuel ethanol; B100 biodiesel and biodiesel blends; renewable diesel and diesel-renewable diesel blends; diesel fuel; winter or winterized diesel fuel; premium diesel fuel; or aviation gasoline are sold, an invoice, bill of lading, shipping paper or other documentation, must accompany each delivery other than a sale by a retail or non-retail dealer. This document must identify the:

(i) Quantity,

(ii) The name of the product,

(iii) The particular grade of the product,

(iv) The word "Winter" or "Winterized" diesel if applicable,

(v) The word "Premium" diesel if applicable,

(vi) The volume percent biodiesel and other renewable diesel, if a biodiesel, biodiesel blend, other renewable diesel, or diesel-other renewable diesel blend through 5 volume percent to the nearest 1 volume percent and for greater than 5 volume percent through 20 volume percent blends to the nearest 2 volume percent,

(vii) The applicable automotive fuel rating,

(viii) The name and address of the seller and buyer,

(ix) The date and time of the sale,

(x) For gasoline-oxygenate and gasoline-alcohol blends which contain more than 1.5 mass percent oxygen, the documentation shall state the oxygenate type and oxygenate content, in volume percent, to the nearest 0.5 volume percent, and

(xi) For non-ethanol blended gasoline the documentation shall state that the gasoline is non-ethanol blended.

(B) Each operator of a bulk facility and each person who imports motor vehicle fuels into this state for sale in this state shall keep, for at least one year, at the person's registered place of business complete and accurate records of any motor vehicle fuels sold if sold or delivered in this state.

(C) Each biodiesel producer, each operator of a biodiesel bulk facility and each person who imports biodiesel into Oregon for sale in this state shall keep, on a monthly basis for at least one year, at the person's registered place of business the certificate of analysis for each batch or production lot of biodiesel sold or delivered in Oregon.

(D) Each biodiesel producer in Oregon shall keep, on a monthly basis for at least one year, at the person's registered place of business, documentation declaring the producer's name, location address, date, and quantity of biodiesel production and sales. This documentation shall be completed on a form provided by the Department of Agriculture and mailed on a quarterly basis to the Department in Salem, Oregon.

(E) All retail dealers, nonretail dealers, and wholesale dealers in Oregon are required to provide, upon request of the Department, evidence of a certificate of analysis for the biodiesel received.

(F) Each ethanol production facility in Oregon shall keep, on a monthly basis for at least one year, at the person's registered place of business, documentation declaring the production facility's name, location address, net ethanol production capacity, the date that the net ethanol capacity was attained, quantity of ethanol produced, and sales in Oregon. This documentation shall be completed on a form provided by the Department of Agriculture and mailed on a quarterly basis to the Department in Salem, Oregon.

(G) Retail dealers and nonretail dealers shall maintain at their facilities the octane rating certification or motor vehicle fuel delivery documentation for the three most recent deliveries to the facility for each grade of gasoline, fuel ethanol, fuel methanol, biodiesel, biodiesel blends, diesel fuel, other renewable diesel fuel, and diesel-other renewable diesel fuel blends sold or offered for sale.

(b) Retail and Nonretail Gasoline Dispenser Labeling. All retail and nonretail gasoline dispensing devices must identify conspicuously on each face of the dispenser(s),

(A) The type of product,

(B) The particular grade of the product,

(C) Type of oxygenate contained if applicable,

(i) Including the specific volume percent of ethanol in gasoline-ethanol blends stating, for example,

"THIS PRODUCT CONTAINS 10% ETHANOL" or other similar language in type at least 12.7 millimeters (1/2 inch) in height, 1.5 millimeter (1/16 inch) stroke (width of type) located on each face and on the upper 50 percent of the dispenser front panels in a position clear and conspicuous from the driver's position,

(ii) Prohibited terms and phrases include but are not limited to, "Contains Up To 10% Ethanol", "May Contain Ethanol", or any other similar language,

(D) The applicable automotive fuel rating, and

(E) If non-ethanol blended gasoline, other than 91 octane or above, in compliance with OAR 603-027-0420, the dispensers shall be labeled,

"NON-ETHANOL BLENDED GASOLINE FOR EXEMPTED USE ONLY (ORS 646.913)" in capital letters and type at least 12.7 millimeters (1/2 inch) in height, 1.5 millimeter (1/16 inch) stroke (width of type) located on each face and on the upper 50 percent of the dispenser front panels in a position clear and conspicuous to the consumer.

(c) Posting of Exceptions for Non-Ethanol Blended Gasoline. The exceptions for non-ethanol blended gasoline, other than 91 octane or above, shall be posted at a business that sells or offers for sale non-ethanol blended gasoline in a position that is clear and conspicuous to the consumer. The exceptions shall be posted;

"NON-ETHANOL BLENDED GASOLINE FOR USE IN THE FOLLOWING APPLICATIONS ONLY;" in capital letters and type at least 6.4 millimeters (1/4 inch) in height, 1 millimeter (1/32 inch) stroke (width of type), followed by,

"AIRCRAFT WITH A SUPPLEMENTAL TYPE CERTIFICATE APPROVED BY THE FEDERAL AVIATION ADMINISTRATION THAT ALLOWS THE AIRCRAFT TO USE GASOLINE THAT IS INTENDED FOR USE IN MOTOR VEHICLES:

(d) Grade Name. The sale of any product under any posted grade name that indicates to the purchaser that it is of a certain automotive fuel rating or ASTM grade indicated in the posted grade name must be consistent with the applicable standard specified in OAR 603-027-0420 "Standard Fuel Specifications".

(2) Automotive Gasoline and Automotive Gasoline-Oxygenate Blends:

(a) Posting of Antiknock Index Required. All automotive gasoline and automotive gasoline-oxygenate blends shall post the antiknock index in accordance with 16 CFR Part 306.

(b) Use of Lead Substitute Must Be Disclosed. Each dispensing device from which gasoline or gasoline oxygenate blend containing a lead substitute is dispensed shall display the grade name followed by "With a Lead Substitute" (e.g. "Unleaded With a Lead Substitute"). The lettering of the lead substitute declaration shall not be less than 12.7 millimeters (1/2 in) in height and 1.5 centimeters (1/16 in) stroke (width of type). The color of the lettering shall be in definite contrast to the background color to which it is applied.

(c) Prohibition of Terms. It is prohibited to use specific terms to describe a grade of gasoline or gasoline-oxygenate blend unless it meets the minimum antiknock index requirement shown in Table 1. [Table not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(3) Diesel Fuel:

(a) Labeling of Product and Grade Required. Diesel fuel shall be identified by "Diesel" and grades "No. 1-D S15", "No. 1-D S500", "No. 1-D S5000", "No. 2-D S15", "No. 2-D S500", "No. 2-D S5000", or "No. 4-D". Each retail or nonretail dispenser of diesel fuel shall be labeled "Diesel" and the grade being dispensed.

(b) Location of Label. These labels shall be located on each face and on the upper 50 percent of the dispenser front panels in a position clear and conspicuous from the driver's position, in a type at least 12.7 millimeter (1/2 in) in height, 1.5 millimeter (1/16 in) stroke (width of type).

(4) Winter or Winterized Diesel Fuel:

(a) Labeling of Product and Grade Required. The dispensers of winterized diesel fuel must be labeled as required in OAR 603-027-0430(3)(a) and include the words "WINTERIZED DIESEL" or "WINTER DIESEL" (e.g. "WINTERIZED DIESEL No. 2-D S15").

(b) Location of Winterized Diesel Fuel Label. The location of the winterized diesel label shall be as required in OAR 603-027-0430(3)(b) or on a "pump topper" mounted on top of each winterized diesel dispenser with lettering as specified in OAR 603-027-0430(3)(b) and must be in a position that is clear and conspicuous from the driver's position.

(5) Premium Diesel Fuel :

(a) Labeling of Premium Diesel Required. In addition to labeling requirements specified in OAR 603-027-0430(3), all retail and nonretail dispensers of premium diesel shall be labeled "Premium Diesel" (e.g. "Premium Diesel No. 2-D S15").

(b) Location of Premium Diesel Fuel Label. The location of the premium diesel fuel label shall be located on the upper 50 percent of the dispenser front panels in a position clear and conspicuous from the driver's position, in a type at least 12.7 millimeter (1/2 inch) in height, 1.5 millimeter (1/16 inch) stroke (width of type).

(6) Biodiesel and Other Renewable Diesel:

(a) Identification of Product.

(A) Biodiesel and biodiesel blends shall be identified by the capital letter B followed by the numerical value representing the volume percentage of biodiesel fuel. (Examples: B10; B20; B100)

(B) Other renewable diesel and other renewable diesel blends shall be identified by the numerical value representing the volume percentage of other renewable diesel immediately followed by the percentage symbol (%) and then the term "Biomass-Based Diesel" or "Biomass-Based Diesel Blend".

(Examples: "10% Biomass-Based Diesel Blend"; "20% Biomass-Based Diesel Blend"; "70% Biomass-Based Diesel Blend"; "100% Biomass-Based Diesel".)

(b) Labeling of Retail and Non-Retail Dispensers Containing Between 5% and Up To and Including 20% Biodiesel or Other Renewable Diesel.

(A) If containing biodiesel, the dispenser(s) shall be labeled with either:

(i) The capital letter "B" followed by the numerical value representing the volume percentage of biodiesel fuel and ending with "Biodiesel Blend" (Examples: "B10 Biodiesel Blend"; "B20 Biodiesel Blend"); or

(ii) The phrase, "Biodiesel Blend Between 5% and 20%" or similar words; or

(iii) The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) 16 CFR Part 306 approved label "Biodiesel Blend" that is appropriate for blends from 5% to 20% biodiesel, or "B20 Biodiesel Blend" that is appropriate for 20% biodiesel blends only.

(B) If containing other renewable diesel, the dispenser(s) shall be labeled with either:

(i) "XX% Biomass-Based Diesel Blend" where the abbreviation "XX" represents the volume percentage of other renewable diesel in the blend; or

(ii) The phrase, "Biomass-Based Diesel Blend Between 5% and 20%" or similar words.

(c) Labeling of Retail and Non-Retail Dispensers Containing More Than 20% Biodiesel or More Than 20% Other Renewable Diesel.

(A) If containing more than 20% biodiesel, the dispenser(s) shall be labeled:

(i) "Consult Vehicle Manufacturer Fuel Recommendations", posted on the dispenser front panels in a position clear and conspicuous from the driver's position in block letter type at least 6 mm (1/4 inch) in height by 0.8 mm (1/32) stroke (width of type) and the color must be in definite contrast to the background color to which it is applied; and in addition,

(ii) Separately labeled with the capital letter "B" followed by the numerical value representing the volume percentage of biodiesel fuel and ending with either "Biodiesel" or "Biodiesel Blend" (Examples: "B100 Biodiesel"; "B60 Biodiesel Blend"); or

(iii) The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) 16 CFR Part 306 approved label for biodiesel blends greater than 20% biodiesel.

(B) If containing more than 20% other renewable diesel, the dispenser(s) shall be labeled with the numerical value representing the volume percentage of other renewable diesel immediately followed by the percentage symbol (%) and then the term "Biomass-Based Diesel" or "Biomass-Based Diesel Blend" (Examples: "100% Biomass-Based Diesel"; "70% Biomass-Based Diesel Blend").

(d) Documentation for Biodiesel, Biodiesel Blends, Other Renewable Diesel, and Other Renewable Diesel Blends. The operator of retail and non-retail dispensers shall be provided, at the time of delivery of the fuel, with a declaration of the volume percent biodiesel, other renewable diesel, or any combination thereof on an invoice, bill of lading, shipping paper, or other document in compliance with OAR 603-027-0430(1)(a).

(e) Exemption.

(A) Biodiesel blends containing 5% or less biodiesel by volume or 5% or less other renewable diesel by volume are exempted from the dispenser labeling requirements in OAR 603-027-0430(6) except.

(B) If a dispenser is labeled with any reference to biodiesel or other renewable diesel and the fuel contains 5% or less biodiesel or 5% or less other renewable diesel, then it shall be labeled either:

(i) "5% Or Less Biodiesel Blend", or

(ii) "5% Or Less Biomass-Based Diesel Blend".

(f) Size of Labeling Type. Except for the FTC 16 CFR Part 306 approved labels and the "Consult Vehicle Manufacturer Fuel Recommendations" labels as specified, all labeling required in OAR 603-027-0430(6), shall be in type at least 12 mm (1/2 inch) in height and 1.5 mm (1/16 inch) stroke (width of type)

(7) Aviation Gasoline: Labeling of Grade Required. Aviation gasoline and dispensers shall be identified by and labeled with Grade 80, Grade 100, or Grade 100LL.

(8) E85 Fuel Ethanol:

(a) How to Identify E85 Fuel Ethanol. Fuel ethanol shall be identified as E85. (Example: E85)

(b) Retail or Nonretail E85 Fuel Ethanol Dispenser Labeling.

(A) Fuel ethanol dispensers shall be labeled with its automotive fuel rating in accordance with 16 Code of Federal Regulations Part 306.

(B) A label shall be posted which states, "For Use in Flexible Fuel Vehicles (FFV) Only". This information shall be posted on the upper 50% of the dispenser front panels in a position clear and conspicuous from the driver's position, in a type at least 12.7 mm (1/2 inch) in height, 1.5 mm (1/16 inch) stroke (width of type).

(C) A label must be posted that states, "Consult Vehicle Manufacturer Fuel Recommendations". This label must be posted on the dispenser front panels in a position clear and conspicuous from the driver's position in block letter type at least 6 mm (1/4 inch) in height by 0.8 mm (1/32 inch) stroke (width of type) and the color must be in definite contrast to the background color to which it is applied.

(9) Fuel Methanol:

(a) Identification of Fuel Methanol. Fuel methanol shall be identified by the capital letter M followed by the numerical value volume percentage of methanol. (Example: M85)

(b) Retail or Nonretail Dispenser Labeling. Each retail or nonretail dispenser of fuel methanol shall be labeled in type at least 12 mm (1/2 inch) in height and 1.5 mm (1/16 inch) stroke (width of type) with the capital letter M followed by the numerical value volume percent methanol and ending with the word "methanol". (Example: M85 Methanol).

(c) Additional Labeling Requirements. Fuel methanol shall be labeled with its automotive fuel rating in accordance with 16 CFR Part 306.

Storage Tanks

(1) Water in Motor Vehicle Fuel Storage:

(a) Water in Gasoline-Alcohol Blends, Biodiesel, Biodiesel Blends, E85 Fuel Ethanol, M85 Fuel Methanol, and Aviation Gas. No water or water-alcohol phase greater than six millimeters (1/4 in) as determined by an appropriate detection paste is allowed to accumulate in any tank utilized in the storage of gasoline-alcohol blend, biodiesel, biodiesel blends, E85 fuel ethanol, M85 fuel methanol, and aviation fuel.

(b) Water in Gasoline, Diesel, Other Renewable Diesel, Other Renewable Diesel Blends, Gasoline-Ether, and Other Fuels. Water phase shall not exceed 25 mm (1 inch) in depth when measured with water indicating paste in any tank utilized in the storage of diesel, gasoline, gasoline-ether blends at retail or nonretail except as required in OAR 603-027-0440(1)(a).

(2) Product Storage Identification:

(a) Fill Connection Labeling.

(A) The fill connection for any motor vehicle fuel or aviation fuel storage tank from which the fuels are dispensed directly into motor vehicle or aircraft fuel tanks shall be permanently, plainly, and visibly marked as to the grade of product contained therein.

(B) In addition, storage tank fill connections of non-ethanol blended gasoline shall be permanently, plainly, and visibly marked that the product contained therein is non-ethanol blended gasoline.

(b) Declaration of Meaning of Color Code. When the fill connection device is marked by means of a color code, the color code key shall be conspicuously displayed at the place of business.

603-027-0490

Enforcement Proceedings; Civil Penalties

(1) Consolidation of Proceedings: Notwithstanding that each and every violation of these rules and/or 1997 Oregon Laws Chapter 310 is a separate and distinct act and in cases of continuing violations, each day's continuance is a separate and distinct violation, proceedings for a Stop Use, Hold and/or Removal Order, or for the assessment of civil penalties arising from the same conduct or failure to act may be consolidated into a single proceeding.

(2) The Director or the Director's designate shall prescribe a reasonable time for the elimination of the violation prior to imposing a civil penalty, except that if a party fails to abide by the terms of any Stop Use, Hold and/or Removal Order, the Director or the Director's designate may immediately impose a civil penalty in addition to any other remedies provided by law.

(3) Violations occurring after the time prescribed for the elimination of the violation shall be considered repeat violations.

(4) Civil penalties shall be due and payable when the person incurring the penalty receives a Civil Penalty Assessment Notice in writing from the Director or the Director's designate.

(5) A Civil Penalty Assessment Notice, Stop Use Order, Hold Order and/or Removal Order shall be in writing. In addition to the posting providing for by OAR 603-207-0470 for Stop Use, Hold and Removal Orders, these documents shall be served on the owner or operator of the facility by registered mail, certified mail, or in person. The notice shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) A reference to the particular section of the statute and/or administrative rule involved and;

(b) A short and plain statement of the matters asserted or charged;

(c) A statement of the amount of the penalty or penalties imposed, if any;

(d) A statement of the person's right to request a hearing if such request is made within ten days of mailing of the notice and an explanation of how a hearing may be requested;

(e) A statement that the notice becomes a final order unless the person upon whom the Stop Use, Hold and/or Removal Order, and/or civil penalty is assessed makes a written request for a hearing within ten days from the date of the mailing of the notice.

(6) A civil penalty imposed under the applicable statutes or these regulations may be remitted or reduced at the Director's discretion upon such terms and conditions that are proper and consistent with public safety and welfare.

(7) Hearing Procedures: All hearings shall be conducted pursuant to the applicable contested case procedures as outlined in ORS 183.310 to 183.550, and the Attorney General's Uniform and Model Rules of Procedure (OAR chapter 137).

(8) Entry of Order and Appeal Rights: If a person notified of the Stop Use, Hold, and/or Removal Order and/or civil penalty fails to request a hearing as specified in OAR 603-027-0490(5)(e), or if after the hearing the person is found to be in violation of the provisions of these rules, a final order may be entered by the Department as follows:

(a) The order shall be signed by the Director or the Director's designate;

(b) If the order is not appealed, or if it is appealed and the order is sustained on appeal, the order shall constitute a judgment and may be recorded with the county clerk in any county of this state. Any penalty provided in the order so recorded becomes a lien upon the title of any interest and real property in the county owned by the person against whom the order is entered.

(9) Penalty schedule: In addition to any other penalty provided by law, the Director may assess a civil penalty for violation of any provision of Oregon Laws 1997, chapter 310 section (7) relating to Motor Fuel Standards Regulation. The amount of any civil penalty shall be determined using the following table and shall not exceed $10,000. In establishing penalty assessments within the table (Table 2), the department will consider factors such as the type of violation, the cause(s) of the violation, the economic impact on fuel purchasers, prior history of violations, repetition of violations, and the degree of demonstrated cooperativeness of the fuel seller. [Table not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(10) The commission of each violation has been categorized as to its magnitude of violation as follows:

(a) Gravity 1 (Minor):

(A) Labeling of Dispenser(s) (Ref. OAR 603-027-0430):

(i) Gasoline dispenser(s) not labeled with the identity of the product dispensed;

(ii) Gasoline dispenser(s) not labeled with the identity of the grade dispensed;

(iii) Gasoline dispenser(s) not labeled with the identity of oxygenates;

(iv) Gasoline-ethanol blend dispensers not labeled that the product contains 10% by volume ethanol in compliance with OAR 603-027-0430.

(v) Gasoline dispenser(s) of non-ethanol blended gasoline, other than 91 octane or above, not labeled for exempted use only in compliance with OAR 603-027-0430.

(vi) Exceptions for non-ethanol blended gasoline, other than 91 octane or above, not posted in compliance with OAR 603-027-0430.

(vii) Use of Prohibited Terms. Prohibited terms used to describe the grade of gasoline or gasoline-oxygenate blends. (Ref. OAR 603-027-0430);

(viii) Gasoline dispenser(s) not labeled with the Antiknock Index (AKI) number;

(ix) Gasoline dispenser(s) for lead substitute motor vehicle fuels not properly identified;

(x) Diesel dispenser not labeled with either the identity of the product and/or grade dispensed;

(xi) Location of either the diesel product and/or grade label not on each face and on the upper 50 percent of the dispenser front panels;

(xii) Winter or winterized diesel fuel dispenser(s) not labeled in compliance with OAR 603-027-0430;

(xiii) Premium diesel fuel dispenser(s) not labeled in compliance with OAR 603-027-0430;

(xiv) Aviation gasoline dispenser(s) not labeled with the identity of the grade dispensed;

(xv) Fuel ethanol dispenser(s) not labeled with the correct automotive fuel rating, "For Use In Flexible Fuel Vehicles (FFV) Only", or "Consult Vehicle Manufacturer Fuel Recommendations" in compliance with OAR 603-027-0430;

(xvi) Fuel methanol dispenser(s) not labeled with the correct automotive fuel rating and the identity of the product dispensed;

(xvii) Biodiesel, biodiesel blend, other renewable diesel, or other renewable diesel blend fuel dispenser(s) not labeled in compliance with OAR 603-027-0430.

(B) Storage Tank(s); Motor vehicle fuel storage tank(s);

(i) Not correctly identified as to the product contained;

(ii) Not correctly identified that the product contained therein is non-ethanol blended gasoline. (Ref. OAR 603-027-0440)

(C) Documentation, Wholesale Dealer and Bulk Facility (Ref. OAR 603-027-0430):

(i) Incorrect, incomplete, or no documentation of motor vehicle fuels provided to the retail dealer or nonretail dealer at the time of motor vehicle fuel delivery;

(ii) Motor vehicle fuel delivery documentation not maintained for at least one year at the person's registered place of business.

(D) Certificate of Analysis Documentation, Biodiesel Producer, Operator of a Biodiesel Bulk Facility, and each Person Who Imports Biodiesel not keeping on a monthly basis for at least one year, at the person's registered place of business the certificate of analysis for each batch or production lot of biodiesel sold or delivered in Oregon (Ref. OAR 603-027-0430);

(E) Documentation, Biodiesel Production Facility not keeping, on a monthly basis for at least one year, at the person's registered place of business, documentation declaring the producer's name, location address, date and quantity of biodiesel production and sales (Ref. OAR 603-027-0430);

(F) Documentation not delivered on a quarterly basis to the Oregon Department of Agriculture declaring the biodiesel producer's name, location address, date and quantity of biodiesel production and sales in compliance with OAR 603-027-0430;

(G) Documentation, Retail Dealer, Nonretail Dealer, and Wholesale Dealer not providing, upon request of the Department, evidence of a certificate of analysis for the biodiesel received (Ref. OAR 603-027-0430);

(H) Documentation, Ethanol Production Facility not keeping, on an annual basis by month, at the person's registered place of business, documentation declaring the production facility's name, location address, net ethanol production capacity, the date that the net ethanol capacity attained, quantity of ethanol produced, and sales in Oregon.

(I) Documentation declaring the ethanol facility's name, location address, net ethanol production, date, quantity of ethanol produced, and sales in Oregon not delivered to the Oregon Department of Agriculture on a quarterly basis in compliance with OAR 603-027-0430;

(J) Documentation, Retail Dealer and Nonretail Dealer (Ref. OAR 603-027-0430); Octane rating certification or motor vehicle fuel delivery documentation not maintained at their facilities for the three most recent deliveries to the facility for each grade of gasoline, fuel ethanol, fuel methanol, biodiesel, biodiesel blends, diesel fuel, other renewable diesel fuel, and other renewable diesel fuel blends sold or offered for sale.

(b) Gravity 2 (Moderate):

(A) Storage Tank(s);

(i) Water phase in motor vehicle fuel storage tank(s) for gasoline-alcohol blends, B100 Biodiesel, Biodiesel Blends, E85 fuel ethanol, M85 fuel methanol, and aviation fuel exceed allowable limits (Ref. OAR 603-027-0440);

(ii) Water phase in motor vehicle fuel storage tank(s) for gasoline, diesel, other renewable diesel, other renewable diesel blends, gasoline-ether, and other fuels exceed allowable limits (Ref. OAR 603-027-0440).

(c) GRAVITY 3 (Major):

(A) Automotive fuel rating of the gasoline does not meet the minimum antiknock index (AKI) posted on the dispenser or certified on the invoice, bill of lading, shipping paper, or other documentation. (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420 and 603-027-0430);

(B) Gasoline does not meet ASTM standards (Ref. OAR 603-207-0420);

(C) Gasoline offered for sale with a lead substitute that does not meet requirements for a lead substitute gasoline. (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420);

(D) Ethanol intended for blending with gasoline does not meet the requirements of ASTM D 4806, "Standard Specification for Denatured Fuel Ethanol for Blending with Gasolines for Use as Automotive Spark-Ignition Engine Fuel". (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420);

(E) Gasoline sold or offered for sale does not meet gasoline-ethanol blend requirements (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420);

(F) Gasoline Additive Restrictions: A wholesale dealer, retail dealer, or nonretail dealer selling or offering for sale gasoline blended or mixed with prohibited additives. (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420);

(G) Diesel fuel offered for sale does not meet ASTM standards (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420);

(H) Winter or Winterized diesel fuel offered for sale does not meet Standard Fuel Specifications (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420);

(I) Premium diesel fuel offered for sale does not meet Standard Fuel Specifications (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420);

(J) Biodiesel intended for blending with diesel fuel does not meet ASTM Standard Fuel Specifications (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420);

(K) Biodiesel blend offered for sale does not meet fuel specifications (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420);

(L) Certificate of analysis not provided for each batch or production lot of biodiesel produced in Oregon or imported into Oregon prior to blending with any diesel fuel sold or offered for sale in Oregon. (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420);

(M) Other renewable diesel sold or offered for sale does not meet fuel specifications (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420);

(N) Diesel fuel sold or offered for sale does not meet diesel-biodiesel blend requirements. (Ref. OAR 603-027-0420);

Definitions

As used in these regulations, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Blackberry dealer" and "blackberry packer" means dealer as defined in ORS 646.515(3)(a), or a licensed food processor that is a cooperative.

(2) "Grower Bargaining Association" refers to any growers association legally organized in accordance with Federal Capper-Volstead Laws (7 U.S.C. 291-292) and state law (ORS 646.515 to 646.545) for incorporation as a grower cooperative or bargaining unit for blackberries.

(3) "Mediate" or "mediation" has the same meaning as ORS 36.110(5).

(4) "Price negotiation," "negotiate," or "bargain" means to discuss the terms of a contract price and related issues, and attempt to come to agreement.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(5) "Director" means the Director of Agriculture or a designee of the Director of Agriculture.

(6) "Department" means the Oregon Department of Agriculture.

(7) "Active supervision," "active state supervision," and "actively supervise" means the Department's regulatory oversight of the price discussions among dealers, and price negotiations between dealers and grower representatives of a grower bargaining association for the purpose of arriving at a negotiated price for the sale of blackberries under production contracts or other arrangements that meet standards established by the Blackberry Bargaining Council.

(8) "Negotiated price" means the proposed price for blackberries agreed upon by representatives of a grower bargaining association and blackberry dealers.

(9) "Established price" means the price set and approved by the Director as the price at which blackberries produced by grower members of the bargaining association shall be sold to dealers.

(10) "State action immunity" means immunity liability under the federal antitrust laws and the Oregon Antitrust Act for conduct that is carried out pursuant to a regulatory program in which competition in certain areas of the blackberry industry in Oregon is displaced by regulations and active state supervision in accordance with ORS 62.845, 62.848, 646.535 and 646.740.

(11) "Parties" or "party" means blackberry producers, blackberry grower associations, blackberry processing or marketing cooperatives, or blackberry dealers who are participants in the state regulatory program for establishing prices on blackberries produced in Oregon.

(12) "Blackberry Bargaining Council" means the collective group of blackberry dealers and blackberry growers from the bargaining association, who voluntarily meet under the auspices of the department for the purposes of price negotiations.

(13) "Regulatory program" means the state regulatory program described in ORS 62.015, 62.845, 62.848, 646.535 and 646.740 that is actively supervised by the Director of Agriculture, and that authorizes parties to engage in bargaining and negotiations to establish the price and terms of blackberry products produced under contract or other terms and sold to blackberry dealers.

603-076-0106

Active State Supervision of Blackberry Price Negotiations

(1) Where more than one blackberry dealer is agreeable to meet with a grower bargaining association, it is the intent of the department that the process of state supervised price negotiations for blackberries will assist in good faith negotiations by all parties, the generation of credible data on which to make pricing decisions, and the efficiency and efficacy of price discovery.

(2) To ensure that the Director is actively supervising the conduct of the grower representatives and the blackberry dealers under the regulatory program in accordance with the requirements of the federal antitrust laws and the Oregon Antitrust Act (ORS 646.740):

(a) The Director or the director's designee shall attend all meetings between the grower association and blackberry dealer representatives pursuant to the regulatory program and shall monitor, and if necessary, mediate the price negotiations between the representatives at these meetings.

(b) The Director or the director's designee will ask each party who participates in the negotiations to sign a pre-mediation agreement with the following commitments:

(A) Negotiate in good faith, arm's length transactions, considering all relevant data presented;

(B) Develop, share, document, and evaluate all information requested by the department for consideration and deliberation by the Blackberry Bargaining Council, to include, but not limited to: by variety or other appropriate categories — acres under production, inventory, yields, import/export data, and market information (the department shall aggregate all data sources and not reveal any proprietary data to any other party);

(C) Actively participate and contribute toward common interests and reasonable pricing agreements; and,

(D) Comply with applicable state laws pertaining to non-discrimination in pricing based on membership in a grower bargaining association (ORS 646.535), payment term requirements (ORS 585.213, unless otherwise negotiated), and other considerations of Oregon's contract laws (ORS 72.3050).

(E) Pay the fees described in these rules.

(c) The parties to the supervised blackberry pricing negotiations shall, to the extent practical, aggregate blackberry varieties into three categories: early varieties, late varieties, and Boysenberries.

(d) The Blackberry Bargaining Council may, under the direct supervision of the Department, conduct individual negotiations each year for categories of blackberries as described in section (c), and how berries are packed (i.e., IQF, straight pack, puree, juice, etc.)

(e) Meetings of the Bargaining Council are not subject to Oregon's public meeting laws. However, minutes of all meetings between representatives of the growers association and the blackberry dealers will be created and maintained by the Department and are subject to the provisions of ORS 192.

(f) Within two (2) days after the final meeting of the Blackberry Bargaining Council, the Council shall either:

(A) Submit to the Director, for review and approval, a negotiated price or price range effective for the upcoming crop year; or,

(B) Notify the Director that the bargaining representatives cannot arrive at a negotiated price or price range, and suggest to the Director a specified price range for consideration, from which the Director shall approve a price that represents the interests of the state and the industry based on the information and facts available; or,

(C) Terminate the negotiations.

(g) Within two (2) days after the Blackberry Bargaining Council's submission under section (f), the Director shall approve an established price, or reject the parties' negotiated price and direct the parties to continue their negotiations. The Director may request any information deemed necessary from the parties to understand, review and approve the established price. The Director may notify the parties of the decision under this section in writing.

(h) In approving the established price, the Director shall consider the negotiated price reached by the representatives of the growers' association and the blackberry dealers. The Director shall ensure the parties have considered, to the extent practical, blackberry inventories for the respective type of berry under consideration; acres in production; production factors; competitive factors; local, national and world market prices; the influence of imported product on prices; and any other factors the Director deems necessary to approve the established price.

(i) The Director must approve the established price and any adjustments to established prices previously approved by the Director before the established prices shall be implemented by the parties.

(j) The Director shall collect fees from the parties who are participants in the blackberry regulatory program as follows:

(A) Fees may include reimbursement of costs for Department consultation with the Attorney General as this consultation directly relates to the Department's supervision of the regulatory program. Such fees shall be divided evenly between the parties and reimbursed to the Department

(B) The Department shall assess a flat rate fee of $1,000 for each yearly negotiation meeting supervised by the Department. This fee shall be assessed evenly across all parties or otherwise fairly divided between the parties, such that the dealers pay half of the fee and the growers association pays half of the fee. Other equitable arrangements may be allowed as approved by the Director. The Department may assess additional fees to reimburse the Department any cost or expense that exceeds the flat rate fee. The costs will be documented by the Department, evenly divided between the parties, and collected from the parties. Payment of all fees is to the Department of Agriculture.

Division Mailing Lists

This rule governs procedures for placement on the various mailing lists maintained by the division and boards. The procedures in this rule are created under ORS 183.335(8) and the general rulemaking authority of the director in ORS 455.030 and 455.100.

(1) Creation of Interested Parties Mailing Lists for Board Activities. Mailing lists are created for interested people and organizations who want to receive notices and agendas of board meetings for the following:

(a) Electrical and Elevator Board;

(b) Building Codes Structures Board;

(c) Residential and Manufactured Structures Board;

(d) State Plumbing Board;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

- (e) Board of Boiler Rules;
- (f) Mechanical Board; and
- (g) Construction Industry Energy Board.

(2) Creation of Interested Parties Mailing Lists for Rulemaking. Mailing lists are created for interested people and organizations wanting to receive notices of the division's rulemaking activities. The mailing lists are divided into the following program areas:

(a) Electrical List. This list covers rulemaking activities of the Electrical and Elevator Board and Construction Industry Energy Board, where applicable, relating to electrical matters, including the Electrical Safety Law, the Oregon Electrical Specialty Code, and the electrical provisions of the Oregon Residential Specialty Code.

(A) Building officials and members of the boards are automatically on this list.

(B) All municipalities with authority to administer the building code are served notice when the rulemaking involves the adoption or amendment of the code.

(C) Interested parties requesting placement on this list per section (3) of this rule will also be served notice.

(b) Elevator List. This list covers the rulemaking activities of the Electrical and Elevator Board relating to elevators and the Oregon Elevator Specialty Code.

(A) Building officials and members of the board are automatically on this list.

(B) All municipalities with authority to administer the building code are served notice when the rulemaking involves the adoption or amendment of the code.

(C) Interested parties requesting placement on this list per section (3) of this rule will also be served notice.

(c) Commercial Structures List. This list covers rulemaking activities of the Building Codes Structures Board and the Construction Industry Energy Board, where applicable, relating to commercial structures and the Oregon Structural Specialty Code.

(A) Building officials and members of the boards are automatically on this list.

(B) All municipalities with authority to administer the building code are served notice when the rulemaking involves the adoption or amendment of the code.

(C) Interested parties requesting placement on this list per section (3) of this rule will also be served notice.

(d) Mechanical List. This list covers the rulemaking activities of the Mechanical Board relating to mechanical matters and the Oregon Mechanical Specialty Code.

(A) Building officials and members of the board are automatically on this list.

(B) All municipalities with authority to administer the building code are served notice when rulemaking involves the adoption or amendment of the code.

(C) Interested parties requesting placement on this list per section (3) of this rule will also be served notice.

(e) Residential Structures List. This list covers rulemaking activities of the Residential and Manufactured Structures Board and the Construction Industry Energy Board, where applicable, relating to residential structures and the Oregon Residential Specialty Code.

(A) Building officials and members of the boards are automatically on this list.

(B) All municipalities with authority to administer the building code are served notice when rulemaking involves the adoption or amendment of the code.

(C) Everyone entitled to notice on the electrical and plumbing lists are also served notice when Oregon Residential Specialty Code rules are involved.

(D) Interested parties requesting placement on this list per section (3) of this rule will also be served notice.

(f) Manufactured Structures and Parks List. This list covers the rulemaking activities of the Residential and Manufactured Structures Board and the Construction Industry Energy Board, where applicable, relating to manufactured dwellings, recreational vehicles, manufactured dwelling parks, recreation parks, organizational camps, and picnic parks.

(A) Building officials and members of the boards are automatically on this list.

(B) All municipalities with authority to administer the building code are served notice when the rulemaking involves the adoption or amendment of the code.

(C) Interested parties requesting placement on this list per section (3) of this rule will also be served notice.

(g) Plumbing List. This list covers rulemaking activities of the State Plumbing Board relating to plumbing activities, including the Oregon Plumbing Specialty Code and the plumbing provisions of the Oregon Residential Specialty Code.

(A) Building officials and members of the board are automatically on this list.

(B) All municipalities with authority to administer the building code are served notice when the rulemaking involves the adoption or amendment of the code.

(C) Interested parties requesting placement on this list per section (3) of this rule will also be served notice.

(h) Boiler List. This list covers rulemaking activities of the Board of Boiler Rules relating to boiler and pressure vessel activities and the Oregon Boiler and Pressure Vessel Specialty Code.

(A) Building officials and members of the board are automatically on this list;

(B) All municipalities with authority to administer the building code are served notice when the rulemaking involves the adoption or amendment of the code.

(C) Interested parties requesting placement on this list per section (3) of this rule will also be served notice.

(i) Amusement Ride and Device List. This list includes amusement device and ride owners and amusement parks.

(A) All municipalities with authority to administer the building code are served notice when rulemaking involves the adoption or amendment of the code.

(B) Interested parties requesting placement on this list per section (3) of this rule will also be served notice.

(j) General Rulemaking List. This list covers the rulemaking activities of the division that are not specific to a code or program.

(A) Building officials are automatically on this list.

(B) All municipalities with authority to administer the building code are also on this list.

(C) Interested parties requesting placement on this list per section (3) of this rule will also be served notice.

(k) Illegal Drug Manufacturing Site List. Interested parties referenced in OAR chapter 918, division 10 are automatically on this list.

(3) Mailing List Subscription. The division will add a person or organization to its interested parties mailing lists if the person or organization:

(a) Subscribes to the division's online e-mail notification system through the division's Web site at www.bcd.oregon.gov; or

(b) Requests in writing to receive notification materials by mail. The request must include the full name of the person or organization, a mailing address, and must indicate the board or rulemaking program mailing list the interested party would like to subscribe to.

(4) The division will send notices to those on the e-mail notification list described in (3)(a) of this rule and mail paper copies to those on the hard-copy notification list described in (3)(b) of this rule. These notification materials are also available on the division's Web site at www.bcd.oregon.gov/rules.html.

Division Organization

(1) The Building Codes Division coordinates the activities of and has general supervision over seven advisory boards, as follows:

(a) Board of Boiler Rules, established under ORS 480.535;

(b) Electrical and Elevator Board, established under ORS 455.138;

(c) Residential and Manufactured Structures Board, established under ORS 455.135;

(d) State Plumbing Board, established under ORS 693.115;

(e) Building Codes Structures Board, established under ORS 455.132;

(f) Mechanical Board, established under ORS 455.140; and

(g) Construction Industry Energy Board, established under chapter 567, 2009 Oregon Laws.

(2)(a) Appointing authority for the six boards listed in subsections (1)(a) through (f) of this rule rests with the Governor and requires Senate confirmation.

(b) Membership for the Construction Industry Energy Board includes two members selected by the Electrical and Elevator Board, two members selected by the Residential and Manufactured Structures Board, two members selected by the Building Codes Structures Board, and one member appointed by the director of the State Department of Energy.

(3) The division is located at 1535 Edgewater N.W., Salem, OR 97304.

918-225-0240

Definitions

As used in OAR chapter 918, division 225, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Agricultural Purposes" means:

(a) Sowing, tending, and harvesting of products of the soil grown under natural conditions;

(b) Raising of poultry or fowl;

(c) Pasturage or raising of livestock or other animals; or

(d) Original processing of the farm product, but not the processing of the product of a different operator, or reprocessing work as freezing, canning, or packing if performed substantially for commercial purposes.

(2) "Available" to determine inspection fees at cost, means the vessels must be due for inspection in the year the notification is applicable, and must all be ready for inspection at the time designated by the inspector.

(3) "Board" is defined in ORS 480.515(2).

(4) "Boiler Room" means any enclosed room or designated space within a building, intended by design or by usage to contain a boiler that is connected and available for use. A boiler located in an area not meeting the definition of "boiler room" under OAR 918-225-0465 shall apply to any space within 20 feet of any burner.

(5) "Building Service Piping" means piping systems operating at or less than 150 psig steam; and water at or less than 160 psig and 250o F as described in ANSI/ASME Standard B31.9.

(6) "Chief Inspector" means the inspector appointed by the director pursuant to ORS 480.565(1).

(7) "Farm" means an area of land:

(a) Located in a rural district;

(b) Of sufficient size to generally be considered as a farm in its locale; and

(c) Devoted primarily to tillage and raising crops under natural conditions, or to raising animals, fowl, or poultry.

(8) "Emergency" as used in ORS 480.630(6) means an unplanned circumstance requiring immediate repair, installation, replacement, or shutdown because of risk to health, life, or property.

(9) "Hobby" or "Demonstration" means recreational or other noncommercial use.

(10) "Immediate Safety Hazard" means hazardous conditions exist requiring immediate correction to a boiler, pressure vessel, or pressure piping system to preserve the safety of people or property.

(11) "Installer," as used in the boiler or pressure vessel laws and rules, means the person making the water, steam, air, refrigerant, or other product piping connection to the boiler or pressure vessel. A person who transports or merely positions the boiler or pressure vessel is not an "installer." An electrician making electrical connections is not an "installer."

(12) "National Board" means the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors.

(13) "Operating" means any vessel connected and ready for service.

(14) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental subdivision, or public or private organization of any character.

(15) "Place of Public Assembly" means a building used or held for use, in whole or in part, for worship; health treatment; rest, recuperation, or retirement living; child care nurseries or institutions; public meetings; education; instruction; entertainment; eating; recreation; or awaiting transportation.

(16) "Pressure Piping" means piping systems and components under the scope of ASME B31.1, B31.3, B31.5, and B31.9.

(17) "Pressure Relief Valve" means a valve activated by inlet static pressure which opens in proportion to the increase in pressure over the opening pressure range. Only ASME approved valves are allowed under the boiler rules.

(18) "Pressure Vessel" is defined in ORS 480.515(12).

(19) "Process Piping Inspector" means the owner's inspector, for the inspection of ASME B31.3 Process Piping, Category "M" fluid service only.

(20) "Psig" means pounds per square inch gauge pressure.

(21) "Related Appurtenance" is defined in ORS 480.515(13).

(22) "Safety Valve" means a valve activated by inlet static pressure and characterized by rapid opening or pop action. Only ASME approved valves are allowed under the boiler rules.

(23) "Same Location," to determine inspection fees at cost, means that all vessels are within 2,000 feet of one another.

(24) "Service of Process" means deposit in the U.S. mail a copy of a notice addressed to the respondent at the respondent's last known address.

(25) "Single Family Dwelling" means a one-family dwelling structure.

(26) "Structure" means a building or shed with a roof and enclosed on the sides 75 percent or more.

(27) "Traction Boiler" means a boiler constructed before January 1, 1961, designed to operate or pull equipment, or to convert steam power into a flywheel energy driving apparatus such as a thresher, road roller, or grinding equipment.

(28) "Vessel That is Considered Subject to Corrosion or Erosion" means the vessel contains or is intended to contain contents having a corrosive or erosive effect on any portion of the vessel. The use of glass linings leaves a vessel subject to corrosion unless all portions of the vessel are impervious to the corrosive or erosive effects of the contents.

Permits

(1) An installation permit is required before installing, altering, or repairing a nonexempt boiler or pressure vessel. Fees for installation permits are non-refundable.

(2) An operating permit or a temporary operation authorization is required before placing a nonexempt vessel into operation.

(3) An installation permit fee includes two inspections of the boiler or pressure vessel. An operating permit fee includes one external inspection of the boiler or pressure vessel and one internal inspection when both are required. If an inspection is scheduled, and the inspector is at the site but the boiler or pressure vessel is not ready or cannot be accessed, the rescheduled inspection will be at an additional cost. The fee for such inspections is the hourly rate specified in ORS 480.605.

(4) Permits to operate boilers or pressure vessels shall be issued periodically according to vessel type, based on the schedule established by the division in Table 1-A.

(5) Operating and installation permit fees are as shown in Table 3-B.

(6)(a) Operating permit fees not received within 90 days of the billing date may be considered delinquent and subject to a late penalty of double the fee amount. It is the equipment owner's responsibility to maintain a current operating permit. This responsibility includes notifying the division of address and other billing information changes. Late penalties may only be waived under exceptional circumstances.

(b) All waiver requests must be submitted in writing and must clearly state the reason for the request. A waiver may be granted for all or part of the additional fee.

(7) Prepaid permit application forms do not authorize work until the contractor provides the required information to the division for review and approval. Prior to beginning the intended installation, repair, or alteration, the contractor must notify the deputy or special inspector who will inspect the work. Work may not begin until the inspector has reviewed and approved the work to be performed.

(8) Upon receipt of permit approval:

(a) The permit must be posted at the job site before beginning the work; or

(b) The approved permit number must be posted at the job site and signed by the contractor.

(9) A permit issued under this rule is not transferable.

(10) This rule does not change the provisions for emergency permits in ORS 480.630(6). It is recommended, but not required, that emergency permits be reviewed and coordinated with the inspector responsible for inspecting the completed work.

Bulk Rate Permits

(1) Bulk rate permits may be granted if there is a quantity of either six (6) or more boilers or six (6) or more pressure vessels at the same location.

(2) To obtain bulk rate permits, the owner or user must make a written request to the division at least 30 days before the expiration of existing operating permits.

(3) If a bulk rate site requires two or more inspections during an inspection cycle, the division may rescind bulk rate permits and charge the full operating permit fees, as provided in Table 3-B. Inspection cycles are listed in Table 1-B.

Board-Created Definitions

For the purposes of OAR chapter 918, division 400, unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions are adopted:

(1) "Alteration" means a change of original design or operation through modernization, replacement of components or assemblies, or upgrade to existing equipment.

(2) "ANSI" means the American National Standards Institute.

(3) "Apprentice" means any person who is enrolled in an approved elevator apprenticeship program.

(4) "ASME" means the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

(5) "Board" means the Electrical and Elevator Board.

(6) "BOLI" means the Bureau of Labor and Industries Apprenticeship and Training Division.

(7) "Conveyance" is the industry term for elevator and includes, but is not limited to, escalator, man lift, inclined elevator, dumbwaiter, lowerator, platform hoist, material lift, moving walk, platform or wheelchair lift, and chair lift.

(8) "Electrical equipment" means any device or group of components that is connected to a source of electrical power. Such devices include, but are not limited to, electro-mechanical switches, controllers, motors, car and hall fixtures, lighting fixtures, or any other component that has exposed electrical parts or connections either by design or when protective covers are removed.

(9) "Elevator Lobby" means the area in front of an elevator for waiting, boarding, disembarking, loading, and unloading.

(10) "Equipment testing" means safety tests required by the adopted safety standard and required to be performed by properly licensed elevator technicians.

(11) "Industrial plant" means a facility engaged in a manufacturing endeavor to make a finished product using raw materials, especially on a large industrial scale wherein elevators are located and maintained by authorized plant personnel.

(12) "Interactive testing and maintenance" means that which requires interaction with the technical components of controllers and machinery and except where allowed by law, interactive testing and maintenance checks must only be performed by licensed elevator personnel. This includes, but is not limited to, car and counterweight safety tests, pressure relief tests, buffer tests, brake tests, unintended car movement, and ascending car over speed tests.

(13) "License" means a document that signifies competency to install, repair, alter, or maintain elevator mechanical equipment within a particular field in the elevator industry.

(14) "Maintenance" means the renewal of operating parts, cleaning, lubricating, and adjusting existing elevator equipment to ensure proper and safe operation as required by code.

(15) "Mitigating Circumstances" are caused by a lack of materials or labor and are beyond the reasonable control of a building owner or contractor.

(16) "Modernization" means replacing elevator equipment with equipment that is not of the same design.

(17) "Operational testing and maintenance" means that which requires measurement, observation, cleaning, and lubricating equipment that does not require disassembly or opening the equipment and must be permitted to be performed by authorized or licensed elevator personnel. This includes, but is not limited to, fire service tests, step/skirt index tests, cleaning and lubricating exposed surfaces, starting and stopping of equipment through normal means, smoke and heat detector tests, relamping and repairing car lighting fixtures, and monthly monitoring of hydraulic oil levels.

(18) "Operator" means an individual employed by a general contractor, elevator contractor, or owner to operate an elevator under a construction use permit.

(19) "Reciprocating conveyor" means:

(a) A self contained, power driven stationary device that moves objects on a platform equipped with safety guards; or

(b) A prepackaged, self contained unit, that moves individuals in a residence on a motorized chair, along a predetermined horizontal, inclined, or vertical path between loading and discharge points.

(A) "Prepackaged" means a reciprocating conveyor sold as a unit that:

(i) Requires no electrical installations as defined by ORS 479.530;

(ii) Requires minimal assembly; and

(iii) Is installed on a straight run stairway.

(B) For the purposes of this section, the definition does not include vertical wheelchair lifts.

(20) "Repair" means the restoration of an elevator to its original intended design, but not changing its operation or intended use.

(21) "Term" means a set period for each phase of training within an approved apprenticeship program.

(22) "Transferable experience" means experience, knowledge, and aptitude gained on equipment not governed by the Elevator Safety Law but is similar in construct and application to the types of equipment associated with the licensing requirements herein.

(23) "Vertical Reciprocating Lift" means a power driven, isolated, self contained stationary lift that meets the requirements of the Oregon Elevator Specialty Code, Vertical Reciprocating Lift Code.

(24) "Waiver" or "Variance" means a site-specific exception from code requirement granted under ORS 460.085.

Elevator Contractor License

A person seeking issuance or renewal of an elevator contractor license must:

(1)(a) Provide a list of the company's employees and their license numbers issued under ORS 460.057, 460.059, 460.061, or 479.630 who will be performing the installation, alteration, repair, and maintenance of elevator mechanical equipment; or

(b) Provide a list of employees who have applied and qualify for licensure under ORS 460.057, 460.061, or 479.630.

(2) Provide written documentation from the company's insurance carrier that the applicant is insured as an elevator contractor. The certificate of insurance, or its equivalent, required by this section must:

(a) Be a certified copy or original on the standard form issued by the insurance carrier;

(b) Include the insurance policy number, the insured's name, and the insurance company's name, address, and telephone number;

(c) Have clear information that the insurance company recognizes the insured as an elevator contractor and that the policy will cover the scope of elevator-related work in which the contractor is engaged; and

(d) Show proof of authorization from the insurance carrier that the division will be given notice upon any change to or cancellation of the insurance policy.

(3) Provide verification of the State Construction Contractors Board registration as an elevator company; and

(4) Pay applicable fees as required by OAR 918-400-0800.

Limited Elevator and Reciprocating Conveyor Licenses

(1) Limited Elevator Mechanic License

(a) Pursuant to ORS 460.057, any person installing, altering, repairing, or maintaining elevator mechanical equipment prior to October 23, 1999, and who does not otherwise qualify for licensure herein, may be issued a limited elevator mechanic's license commensurate with their prior verifiable work experience if they apply in the manner established by the division in OAR chapter 918, division 30.

(b) The following may not be used to determine prior experience:

(A) Work on equipment not regulated by the Elevator Safety Law unless such prior experience is considered to be transferable experience gained prior to October 23, 1999;

(B) The installation, alteration, repair, or maintenance of equipment installed in Oregon that was not lawfully permitted as required by the Elevator Safety Law;

(C) Work in Oregon while employed by a company not lawfully licensed as an elevator contractor in Oregon or not lawfully registered with the Construction Contractors Board; or

(D) Experience gained in violation of any other state law.

(c) Experience gained may be considered based on the following. Applicants must have been regularly engaged in the installation, alteration, repair, or maintenance on the type, or types, of equipment commensurate with the license being sought based on:

(A) Minimum of 4,000 hours "substantial experience" lawfully obtained on equipment covered by a limited elevator mechanic's license;

(B) "Substantial experience" for purposes of this rule, means verified evidence in the form of two separate notarized affidavits. One from an Oregon business attesting the person has been involved in 40 or more elevator projects and one from a CPA attesting that the business had at least $75,000 of gross business prior to October 23, 1999. Nothing in this rule prevents an applicant from faxing or scanning and e-mailing documents.

(d) A license under this rule is limited to the scope of work for which the person has provided work experience acceptable to the division.

(2) Reciprocating Conveyor Mechanic License. Applicant must demonstrate 3,000 hours of "lawful work experience," as defined in OAR chapter 918, division 30, in the installation, alteration, repair, and maintenance of reciprocating conveyors. An applicant must apply for the license as required under OAR chapter 918, division 30.

(3) Restricted Reciprocating Conveyor Mechanic License. Applicant must apply to the division as required under OAR chapter 918, division 30.

(4) Exemption from Limited Elevator and Reciprocating Conveyor Licensing Requirements. A person installing the mechanical portion of a reciprocating conveyor defined in OAR 918-400-0280(19)(b) is not required to hold any kind of mechanic's license under the Elevator Safety Law. This section does not exempt the installation of reciprocating conveyors defined in OAR 918-400-0280(19)(b) from other applicable provisions of the Elevator Safety Law, including ORS 460.045.

Apprentice Scope of Work

A person with an apprentice license issued under OAR 918-400-0385 must:

(1) Work consistent with the apprenticeship committee's requirements under ORS chapter 660 and these rules; and

(a) Engage only in cleaning, lubrication, painting, relamping fixtures, and replacing of comb plate teeth of existing installations with limited supervision after completing:

(A) At least 2,000 hours (12 months) of work experience;

(B) The appropriate related instruction for two periods; and

(C) Is evaluated and authorized to do this type of work by the apprenticeship committee; or

(b) The apprentice engages only in installation, alteration, maintenance, and repair with limited supervision after completing:

(A) 4,000 hours of work experience;

(B) The appropriate related classroom instruction; and

(C) Is evaluated and authorized by the committee.

(2) As apprentices progress through each phase, they may be authorized to participate in work processes of the preceding phase provided they have been evaluated and authorized by the apprenticeship committee to do the specific type of work.

(3) A person enrolled in a board-approved apprenticeship program, who has been issued an apprentice card by BOLI, shall be considered licensed under ORS 460.059.

Apprenticeship Program Requirements

In order to obtain board approval of an individual elevator apprentice program, the following requirements must be met:

(1)(a) On-the-job training installing, repairing, altering, and maintaining elevator mechanical equipment in the following work categories and minimum hours:

(A) Basic construction and maintenance safety and tools — 150 hours;

(B) Blue print reading — 150 hours;

(C) Material handling — hoisting and rigging — 150 hours;

(D) Guide rail systems installation and maintenance — 150 hours;

(E) Drive machines and systems; overhead equipment including beams and sheaves — 150 hours;

(F) Hydraulic systems and control valves — 150 hours;

(G) Car frames, platforms, and enclosures — 150 hours;

(H) Doors, entrances, and operators — 150 hours;

(I) Adjusting elevator systems — 150 hours;

(J) Maintenance and periodic testing requirements — 150 hours;

(K) Alteration of existing equipment — 150 hours;

(L) Structure and operation of escalators and moving walks — 150 hours; and

(M) Installing related equipment such as dumbwaiters, wheelchair lifts, and material lifts — 150 hours.

(b) Total Hours Required. Total work experience must be at least 4,000 hours. No more than 300 percent credit is allowed under paragraphs (A) through (M) for any one subject.

(2) Required Educational Training. 144 hours of classroom instruction must be provided each year covering the following subjects. Individuals are required to obtain grades of "C" or better in graded classes and a "pass" in non-graded classes for the following subjects:

(a) Basic construction and maintenance safety;

(b) Blueprint reading;

(c) Code-related requirements;

(d) Equipment testing procedures;

(e) Guide rail systems installation and maintenance;

(f) Pit equipment and maintenance;

(g) Car frames, platforms, and enclosures;

(h) Hoisting and rigging;

(i) Overhead equipment including beams and sheaves;

(j) Hoist ropes and roping procedures;

(k) Structure and operation of escalators and moving walks;

(l) Drive machines and components;

(m) Hydraulic systems and control valves; and

(a) The listing or certification number and identification of the approved laboratory that tested the equipment;

(b) When applicable, date and identification of the electrical special deputy who certified the equipment to the Oregon Elevator Specialty Code electrical requirement; or

(c) Proof that requests for listing or certification are pending.

(2) For the purpose of complying with plan submittal requirements of ORS 460.048, and when applicable to the type of equipment being proposed, a complete set of drawings must include:

(a) Elevation view;

(b) Plan view;

(c) Machine room layout (when applicable to the type of equipment);

(d) Cab and fixture detail;

(e) Hoistway entrance detail; and

(f) Electrical straight line wiring diagrams showing, as a minimum, safety circuits, normal and final limit circuits, and door lock circuits, which must include circuitry required by the Oregon Elevator Specialty Code.

Provisional Permits for Elevators Under Construction

(1) A construction-use (workman's) permit is only issued to an elevator contractor while the elevator is under construction and may be granted under the following conditions:

(a) The elevator must only be used for transportation of workers and materials necessary for the physical construction and inspection of the site and may not be used by the general public;

(b) Notification must be given to the division before making any elevator changes, except those necessary to complete construction of the elevator;

(c) The installation meets all requirements of the Oregon Elevator Specialty Code;

(d) An operator is provided for all elevator operations unless the elevator meets all requirements for normal operations; and

(e) The provisional permit must be:

(A) Specific to a particular elevator; and

(B) Attached to the car enclosure in plain view.

(2) Notwithstanding any expiration date placed on a provisional permit, the permit automatically terminates upon issuance of an operating permit.

Operating Permits

Operating permits that expire on or before September 30, 2007 are not affected by these rules.

(1) Operating permits are issued periodically based on the inspection intervals established by the division in Table 1-A, effective October 1, 2007.

(2) The division uses the following criteria to set elevator inspection intervals, which may include but are not limited to the following:

(a) Accidents and injuries;

(b) Commercial and public assembly structures;

(c) Special residency occupancies, schools, hospitals;

(d) Type of elevator;

(e) Passenger or freight conveyances;

(f) Construction only purpose elevators; and

(g) Environmental conditions.

(3) The division may refuse to issue an operating permit if:

(a) Inspections are not satisfactorily completed; or

(b) Permit fees have not been received.

(4) The elevator-operating permit, or copy of the permit, must be posted in clear view in the elevator. A sign may be substituted providing the sign indicates the on-site location where the actual operating permit may be inspected during normal business hours.

NOTE: Table 1-A, Elevator Inspection Frequencies, is available on the division's

Web site at <<http://www.bcd.oregon.gov/rules.html#oar>>.

Renewals

(1) Operating permit fees not received within 90 days of the billing date may be considered delinquent and subject to a late penalty of double the fee amount. It is the equipment owner's responsibility to maintain a current operating permit. This responsibility includes notifying the division of address and other billing changes. Late penalties may only be waived under exceptional circumstances.

(2) All waiver requests must be submitted in writing and must clearly state the reason for the request. A waiver may be granted for all or part of the additional fee.

Taking Elevators Out of Service

Except as provided in OAR 918-400-0275, a person wishing to take an elevator out of service must:

(1) Within 30 days of taking an elevator out of service, notify the division in writing of the date the elevator was taken out of service; and

(2) Within 12 months from the date the elevator is taken out of service, disable it as an "installation placed out of service," described in the Oregon Elevator Specialty Code.

Fees

(1) Subject to section (2) of this rule, the following elevator fees are adopted effective July 1, 2009 under ORS 460.165:

(a) Elevator contractor's license, $585 for application or renewal;

(b) Plan reviews, when required, $78;

(c) Operating permits for:

(A) Dumbwaiters, sidewalk elevators, residential elevators, residential inclinators, or subveyors, $60;

(B) Escalators, lowerators, manlifts, stagelifts, inclined elevators, platform hoists, or moving walks, $98;

(C) Power-driven elevators with a four-floor rise or under, $88;

(D) Power-driven elevators with over a four-floor rise, but under a 10-floor rise, $108;

(E) Power-driven elevators with a 10-floor rise or over, but under a 20-floor rise, $134;

(F) Power-driven elevators with a 20-floor rise or over, $157.

(d) Reinspections on a mechanism in section (1)(c) of this rule made by request or in continued existence of a defect, $75;

(e) For special inspections, testing, consultations, site visits, or other services for which no fee is otherwise specified, $75 per hour for travel and inspection time;

(f) For the installation or alteration of an elevator, if the total cost of the installation or alteration other than the inspection fee, is:

(A) $1,000 or under — $98;

(B) $1,001 to $14,999 — $98, plus $13 for each $1,000 or fraction of $1,000 by which the cost exceeds $1,000;

(C) $15,000 to $49,999 — $280, plus $8 for each $1,000 or fraction of $1,000 by which the cost exceeds $15,000;

(D) $50,000 or over — $553, plus $3 for each $1,000 or fraction of $1,000 by which the cost exceeds $50,000.

(2) Elevator alterations.

(a) No fee shall be charged when an alteration is limited to fixture upgrades to meet state-adopted accessibility standards;

(b) No fee shall be charged where the alteration is limited to the car interior upgrades that do not alter the gross weight of the car more than five percent;

(c) When a group of elevators under common group control is proposed for an upgrade, and the same upgrade is proposed for all cars in the group, the inspection fee shall be the contract valuation for the entire elevator upgrade project rather than the higher separate inspection fee for each elevator in the group; and

(d) Where the upgrade for a group of elevators is not identical for each elevator, the fees shall be calculated separately based on the contract valuation for each elevator.

(3) Plan Review Fees. Where a complete set of drawings shows all elevators affected by the proposed installation or alteration, only one plan review fee shall be required rather than a separate fee for each elevator.

(4) Limited Elevator Mechanic's License. The following fee applies to the license issued under OAR 918-400-0380(1): $60 for application or renewal.

(5) Reciprocating Conveyor Mechanic's Licenses. The following fees apply to licenses issued under OAR 918-400-0380(2) and (3):

(a) Reciprocating Conveyor Mechanic's license, $300 for application or renewal;

(b) Restricted Reciprocating Conveyor Mechanic's license, $50 for application or renewal.

Subject: In 2009, the legislature enacted House Bill 2191. HB 2191 created a comprehensive registration system for persons engaged in debt management services. The bill requires that persons engaging in debt management activities register with the Department of Consumer and Business Services as debt management service providers. These permanent rules implement the registration requirement from the bill. These permanent rules also clarify the scope of the exemptions from registration and implement an additional counseling fee authorized by the bill until January 2012.

Definitions

The definitions of terms used in ORS 697.602 and the rules of OAR chapter 441, division 910 are:

(1) "Act as a broker" or "brokering" includes any of the following activities undertaken for the payment of money or other valuable consideration:

- Soliciting or receiving an application from a consumer for a debt management service;
- Providing a consumer's name, address or other information that identifies the consumer to a debt management service provider for the purpose of arranging the provision of a debt management service;
- Referring a consumer to another debt management service provider, if the person is a debt management service provider; or
- Forwarding or providing a completed application for a debt management service to a debt management service provider.

(2) "Advantageous to the consumer" means a plan for a debt management service that places a consumer in a more favorable or beneficial position in relation to the consumer's debt than if the consumer did not agree to debt management services, taking into consideration the suitability of the proposed services and the customer's ability to pay for services. A plan under this section includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- A plan that improves or preserves a consumer's credit record, history or rating;
- A plan that enables a consumer to obtain or use credit in the future; or
- A plan that obtains favorable or beneficial changes to the principal, interest, loan term, or other key terms of an existing debt obligation.

(3) "An activity for which a person receives money or other valuable consideration or expects to receive money or other valuable consideration" under ORS 697.602 does not include a negotiation, an offer, an attempt or an agreement to negotiate the sale, exchange, purchase, rental or leasing of real estate by a licensed real estate broker if:

- The sale price of the real estate is for an amount that is less than the amount of the seller's outstanding obligation on the home loan, commonly known as a short sale; and
  - The real estate broker receives compensation that is usual and customary for a real estate broker and under the terms of an executed real estate contract with the debtor as a real estate seller.
- (4) "Counseling" means discussions with a consumer that:

- Occurs after a consumer signs a contract for debt management services;
- Covers meaningful services provided by the debt management service provider, as described in the contract for debt management services; and
- Advises the consumer on particular topics with respect to the services as described in the contract for debt management services, including:
  - Causes and conditions of the consumer's current financial situation;
  - The consumer's financial goals and responsibilities;
  - Options available to the consumer;
  - Development of a spending plan or budget;
  - Possible referrals to outside organizations or agencies; and
  - Review and revisions necessary to implement the budget plan.

(d) If a debt management service provider improves, offers to improve or preserves a consumer's credit record, credit history or credit rating, "counseling" includes reviewing results from credit reporting agencies regarding the consumer's credit records, credit history, or credit rating.

(e) For purposes of subsections (a) through (d), "counseling" does not include routine customer contact or administrative functions.

(5) "Counseling session" means a discussion between the consumer and the debt management service provider:

- (A) Conducted in person, by telephone or by similarly immediate electronic means;
  - (B) Conducted in 45 minute increments or intervals equivalent to two 45-minute counseling sessions occurring within a 30-day period; and
  - (C) Covering topics defined in section (4)(c) of this rule; or
  - (b) Conducted in person, by telephone or by similarly immediate electronic means, and covering services provided under section (4)(d) of this rule.
- (6) "Director" means the Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services.

(7) "Trust account" means an account held at an insured institution taking deposits at its headquarters in Oregon or a branch in Oregon into which all funds received or handled on behalf of Oregon consumers by the debt management service provider are initially deposited.

Exemptions from Debt Management Service Provider Registration

(1) An attorney provides debt management services only incidentally to the practice of law if:

- The attorney only provides the services to a client of the attorney and only while acting as an attorney on behalf of the client;
- The attorney does not act as a broker for debt management services;

(c) If the attorney refers a consumer who is a client of the attorney to a third party debt management services provider, the attorney does not receive compensation, directly or indirectly, for the referral and in the attorney's professional judgment the attorney believes the referral will be beneficial to the client;

(d) The attorney does not provide debt management services to a third party on behalf of a consumer who is a client of the attorney; and

(e) Any advertisement used by the attorney concerning debt management services complies with the Oregon Rules of Professional Conduct and formal ethics opinions published by the Oregon State Bar applicable to advertising.

(2) An individual licensed as a real estate broker under ORS 696.020 may negotiate, offer, attempt or agree to negotiate the sale, exchange, purchase, rental or leasing of real estate without being registered as a debt management service provider if the licensed real estate broker only receives the usual and customary fees of a real estate broker under the terms of an executed real estate contract with the debtor as a real estate seller.

(3) A nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee overseeing the administration of bankruptcy cases may claim the exemption in ORS 697.612(3)(L) if:

(a) The nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency provides an individual or group briefing that outlines the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted such individual in performing a related budget analysis that is not a budget analysis under OAR 441-910-0140;

(b) An individual or group briefing is provided only for persons likely to become debtors under 11 U.S.C. § 109(h); and

(c) The nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency does not otherwise engage in any activity constituting debt management services or act as a broker for debt management services.

(4) A nonprofit entity that only provides advice, assistance, instruction or instructional materials to a consumer in return for a fee reasonably calculated to pay the cost of making the advice, assistance, instruction or instructional materials available may claim the exemption in ORS 697.612(3)(m) if:

(a) The nonprofit entity does not conduct any activities constituting debt management services or act as a broker for debt management services;

(b) The nonprofit entity does not advise a consumer in whole or in part by conducting a budget analysis described in OAR 441-910-0415; and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) The nonprofit entity's reasonably calculated fee to pay the cost of making the advice, assistance, instruction or instructional materials available does not in any case exceed $25.

(5) An organization or a counselor approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development may claim the exemption in ORS 697.612(3)(n) if the organization or counselor:

(a) Is under contract or receiving a grant through the Department of Housing and Urban Development's Housing Counseling program;

(b) The contract or grant under subsection (a) of this section is made or funded only for the purposes of:

(A) Providing assistance to eligible homebuyers to find and purchase homes;

(B) Helping renters locate and qualify for assisted rental units;

(C) Helping eligible homebuyers obtain affordable housing;

(D) Assisting homeowners to avoid or mitigate foreclosures;

(E) Assisting renters to avoid evictions;

(F) Helping the homeless find temporary or permanent shelter;

(G) Reporting fair housing and discrimination complaints; or

(H) Addressing housing problems; and

(c) The organization or counselor does not otherwise engage in any activity constituting debt management services or act as a broker for debt management services.

Registration Requirements

(1) All persons performing debt management services shall apply for registration on a form provided by the director. The application form shall require the person to supply the information required by ORS 697.632 and the following:

(a) The identification number of the applicant's Oregon issued certified public accountant or law license, if the applicant holds a certified public accountant or law license;

(b) The name and identifying number, if any, of an applicant's license, registration, or similar indicia of permission as a debt management service provider or similar form of license or registration in any other state;

(c) A description of any other business activities not constituting debt management services and a description or depiction of the debt management service provider's organizational structure;

(d) Any assumed business name registered with the Secretary of State under which the applicant will conduct business as a debt management service provider; and

(e) The name and the location of the insured institution the applicant establishes to keep the consumer funds that the debt management service provider holds.

(2) The person shall attach to the application for registration as a debt management service provider the following:

(a) A correct and true copy of the surety bond required by ORS 697.642 in a form and on terms approved by the director in the amount of $25,000.

(b) A copy of any disclosure documents, agreements, or contracts to be signed by a consumer for any debt management services.

(c) A sample budget analysis conforming to the minimum requirements in OAR 441-910-0415.

(d) A copy of the applicant's proposed fee schedule.

(e) A resume of the debt management service provider's managing members, managing partners, executive officers, directors, principals, or persons authorized to enter into contracts or make changes in policy for a debt management service provider.

(f) Financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consisting of a balance sheet and a statement of income or operations and are dated not more than 12 months prior to submission of the application; and

(g) A signed disclosure for the applicant and each person identified in subsection (e) of this section of the following occurring within the five year period prior to application:

(A) Any adverse judgment by a state or federal court;

(B) Any pending bankruptcy proceedings or any bankruptcy judgments;

(C) Any injunctions issued to stop an act involving a debt management practice;

(D) Any arbitration award made in favor of another person;

(E) Any adverse final order issued by a federal or state agency;

(F) Any cease and desist order issued by the director; and

(G) Any criminal convictions, if an essential element of the crime involved fraud.

(2) An application for registration as a debt management service provider shall be considered abandoned if:

(a) The director has had one or more incomplete documents as part of an application for a minimum of 60 days; and

(b) The applicant has not responded within 30 days following a written notice from the director requesting submission of all fees, documents, or information necessary to make the application complete.

(3) The director shall not issue a registration as a debt management service provider unless the applicant pays any applicable fee specified in OAR 441-910-0605.

(4) A debt management services provider registration expires on December 31 two years after issuance.

Contracts for Debt Management Services

(1) A debt management service provider may not enter into separate contracts for each debt or obligation due by a consumer. A debt management service provider may enter into a single contract with a consumer for debt management services that specifies the provision of different debt management services for each debt or obligation. If a debt management service provider enters into an agreement with more than one consumer for debt management services, each consumer party to the agreement shall be considered one consumer.

(2) For purposes of this rule, "consumer" means an individual that has entered into a contract for debt management services.

(a) However, when a contract covers jointly-held debt and the services will be provided to the co-debtors, such as husband and wife or domestic partners, then "consumer" shall be both of the co-debtors and they shall only be charged a single set of fees.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(a), a debt management provider may enter into separate debt management service contracts and charge separate fees for each spouse and domestic partners if the spouses or domestic partners seek services for individually held debt. The burden will be upon the debt management service provider to establish the basis for charging two sets of fees.

Loan Modifications

(1) A person registered as a debt management service provider may modify or offer to modify the terms and conditions of a consumer's existing loan or obligation as described in ORS 697.602 if the modification meets all the following conditions:

(a) The existing loan or obligation is in default, is in imminent danger of default, or there is an objectively reasonable basis to believe that the loan or obligation will default;

(b) The borrower is not required to pay fees normally assessed for a new loan or obligation to receive the modification; and

(c) The contract or agreement makes or is anticipated to make permanent or long-term changes to the principal, interest, length of the loan or obligation, or other key terms of the existing loan or obligation.

(2) A debt management service provider meeting the requirements of section (1) of this rule may charge the fees allowed under ORS 697.692.

(3) Section (1) of this rule shall not be construed to allow a debt management service provider to make or offer to make a new loan or obligation, including residential mortgage loans.

(4) Notwithstanding section (3) of this rule, a mortgage loan originator regulated by the director under applicable law may modify or offer to modify the terms and conditions of an existing residential mortgage loan without a registration as a debt management service provider.

(5) The term "modifying or offering to modify terms and conditions of an existing loan or obligation" does not include an individual who negotiates with a consumer to modify a loan if:

(a) The individual is either an employee or has contracted to represent a lender or loan servicer;

(b) The loan modification activity is within the scope of the individual's responsibilities for the lender or loan servicer; and

(c) The individual receives no direct compensation from the consumer for the individual's services.

(g) The type and amount of other fixed periodic payments;

(h) A complete list of reasonable and necessary living expenses for food, clothing, utilities, transportation, insurance, and other items;

(i) A complete list of creditors, showing accounts subject to debt management services and accounts not subject to debt management services;

(j) Information on any existing garnishments and judgments;

(k) Periodic amount available for payment toward the plan; and

(L) Anticipated near-term changes in the consumer's economic circumstances.

(2) If a debt management service provider enters into an agreement for debt management services with a consumer to improve or preserve a consumer's credit record, history or rating, the budget analysis shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(a) The name and address of the consumer;

(b) All wages, salary, and other income;

(c)(A) Housing costs, including rents, leases or other consideration paid for the use of property; or

(B) If the consumer is the owner of a home, any liens, mortgages or other claims or liabilities attached to the consumer's property other than taxes and monthly payment on the residence;

(d) The type and amount of other fixed periodic payments;

(e) A complete list of creditors, showing accounts subject to debt management services and accounts not subject to debt management services; and

(f) Anticipated near-term changes in the consumer's economic circumstances.

(3) A debt management service provider that completes a budget analysis shall give the consumer a written document that:

(a) Informs the consumer that the budget analysis is conditioned on the information provided by the consumer;

(b) Includes a statement that discusses the options for debt management services that may be advantageous for the consumer.

(c) Includes a copy of the budget that formed the basis for the analysis

(d) Warns the consumer that a creditor may not accept a plan for debt management services based on the budget analysis.

Subject: In November, the division proposed administrative rules to implement 2009 House Bill 2189, itself Oregon's implementation of the federal S.A.F.E. Act (Pub. L. 110-289). This rulemaking activity adopts rules for a new license for mortgage loan originators. This rulemaking activity also makes conforming amendments to the rules governing mortgage bankers and mortgage brokers. These rules require mortgage loan originators to apply for and renew licenses with the NMLSR. These rules also adjust the criminal background check for mortgage bankers and brokers and update supervision requirements. These rules also make many technical changes to differentiate the new mortgage loan originator license from the mortgage banker and mortgage broker licenses.

Rules for Use of Assumed Business Names

(1) In addition to any requirements for registering an assumed business name with the Secretary of State, a mortgage banker or mortgage broker who intends to use an assumed business name to identify the person's mortgage banker or mortgage broker business shall also comply with the following before doing business under the assumed business name:

(a) If the assumed business name contains words or phrases described in ORS 56.023, the mortgage banker or mortgage broker must obtain specific written approval from the director under ORS 705.635.

(b) The assumed business name must be added to the corporate surety bond of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker under either OAR 441-860-0085 or 441-860-0090.

(c) The mortgage banker or mortgage broker may purchase a separate corporate surety bond for the assumed business name if:

(A) The separate corporate surety bond contains the name of the principal mortgage banker or mortgage; and

(B) The separate corporate surety bond complies with either OAR 441-860-0085 or 441-860-0090, as applicable.

(d) Any corporate surety bond must be in force as of the date of the addition of the assumed business name, and must be forwarded to the director within two weeks from the addition of the assumed business name; and

(e) The assumed business name must be placed upon any client trust account maintained by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker.

(2) Regardless of the lack of any ownership interest in the assumed business name, the mortgage banker or mortgage broker is responsible for all actions of those acting under the assumed business name which relate to mortgage banking loans or mortgage loans.

Supervision of Branch Offices and Mortgage Loan Originators

(1) A mortgage banker or a mortgage broker must diligently supervise and control every mortgage loan originator employed by the mortgage banker or the mortgage broker in the mortgage banker or mortgage broker's principal place of business and at each branch office.

(2) A mortgage banker or mortgage broker must personally supervise or designate a control person to supervise each branch office to ensure compliance with ORS 59.840 through 59.980 and OAR 441-850-0005 through 441-885-0500.

(3) To diligently supervise and control a mortgage loan originator employed by the mortgage banker or the mortgage broker, the mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall:

(a) Ensure that mortgage loan originators, and persons required to be licensed as mortgage loan originators, employed by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker obtain and maintain a license under 2009 Or Laws ch. 863, §§ 1 to 13 and OAR 441, division 880.

(b) Establish, maintain and enforce written procedures to supervise the activities of mortgage loan originators employed by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker and other associated persons that are subject to its supervision and to supervise the operation of each office of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker transacting loans with Oregon consumers. The procedures shall be reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable Oregon and federal lending laws and rules, including ORS 59.840 to 59.980.

(c) Review the activities of each office transacting loans with Oregon consumers, which shall include the examination of customer loan files, including closed and opened files. The reviews shall be reasonably designed to assist in detecting violations of, preventing violations of and achieving compliance with applicable mortgage lending laws, regulations and rules, as well as detecting and preventing irregularities or abuses. Each mortgage broker shall retain a record of the dates and findings of each review. The duties of this rule may be delegated to a qualified supervisor.

(d) Provide a copy of the procedures required by this rule to every mortgage loan originator employed by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker in written or electronic format.

(e) Ensure that mortgage loan originators obtain training to address deficiencies identified by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker in loan file and operations reviews or make up deficiencies in continuing education as necessary.

(f) Establish procedures for handling consumer complaints and develop procedures to identify the types of consumer complaints that must be forwarded to a supervisor for review. Complaints that must be forwarded to a supervisor include complaints about material changes in loan terms, fees or expenses, or material omissions about loan terms, fees or expenses. The mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall also develop procedures for investigating, responding to and keeping a record of complaints forwarded to a supervisor.

(g) Visit at least annually each branch the mortgage banker or mortgage broker licenses in Oregon to review compliance with the procedures listed in this section.

(3) In establishing the procedures in section (2) of this rule and in determining the frequency of office reviews, the mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall consider the following:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

- (a) The number of loan transactions made by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker;
- (b) The number of office locations transacting loans with Oregon consumers;
- (c) The number of affiliated persons assigned to each location;
- (d) The nature and complexity of the loan transactions that the mortgage banker or mortgage broker predominantly makes;
- (e) The number of mortgage loan originators assigned to a location;
- (f) The number of mortgage loan originators assigned to the supervision of an individual supervisor; and
- (g) The results of previous office reviews.

(4) In establishing the procedures in section (2) of this rule and in determining the number of files from each mortgage loan originator to be reviewed, the mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall consider the following:

- (a) The knowledge and years of lending experience of a mortgage loan originator;
- (b) The disciplinary history of and the number of complaints received about a mortgage loan originator;
- (c) The experience and level of sophistication of the borrowers of a mortgage loan originator, if the mortgage banker, mortgage broker or mortgage loan originator predominantly serves specific segments of society;
- (d) The nature and complexity of the loan transactions that the mortgage banker or mortgage broker predominantly makes; and
- (e) The results of previous file reviews for a particular mortgage loan originator.

(5) The mortgage banker or mortgage broker is subject to disciplinary action of the director for any violation of the Oregon Mortgage Lender Law or corresponding rules committed by a mortgage loan originator authorized to make or negotiate residential mortgage loans for the mortgage banker or mortgage broker, whether or not that accountability is documented in any written agreement.

State Criminal Records Check

(1) In addition to the criminal records check required for submission to the National Mortgage Licensing System and Registry under 2009 Or Laws ch. 863, §§ 4 and 10, a mortgage banker or mortgage broker must conduct a state criminal records check of each individual employed by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker as a mortgage loan originator.

(a) The mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall search state records of all states where the individual has resided in the past 10 years using the person's full legal name, date of birth, place of birth and Social Security number.

(b) The mortgage banker or mortgage broker must use the services of law enforcement agencies or an independent private company that complies with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act to conduct the state criminal records check.

(2) An applicant for a mortgage loan originator license may not be employed and a currently employed mortgage loan originator must be terminated immediately if the state criminal records check discloses a conviction for a felony or a misdemeanor if an essential element of the misdemeanor involved false statements or dishonesty:

(a) During a period of seven years before the date the applicant submits an application for a license as a mortgage loan originator; or

(b) At any time before the date the applicant submits an application a license as a mortgage loan originator if the conviction or plea involved a felony and an element of the felony was an act of fraud, dishonesty, a breach of trust or laundering a monetary instrument.

(3) State criminal records check documents received by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall be maintained in a secure location separate from personnel records, and shall be made available to the director for examination at any reasonable time and may require, without subpoena, the production of such records at the office of the director as often as is reasonably necessary. These records shall be preserved for three years after the mortgage banker or mortgage broker terminates the mortgage loan originator's employment. After the retention period, the records shall be destroyed in a secure manner.

Renewal of Mortgage Banker and Mortgage Broker License

(1) A mortgage banker or a mortgage broker license shall expire on December 31 of each calendar year. At least 30 days prior to the expiration of a mortgage banker or mortgage broker license, an application for renewal of the license shall be submitted to the director and shall include the following:

- (a) A completed license renewal form approved by the director.

(b) Financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, including a balance sheet and a statement of income or operations, dated not more than six months prior to submission of the application. If the financial statements are more than six months old, interim period financial statements prepared by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker for the period ending the last full month prior to the date of the application must also be submitted.

(c) Any applicable renewal fees prescribed under OAR 441-860-0100.

(d) A mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall file with the director as a condition of renewal a corporate surety bond conforming to the requirements of OAR 441-860-0085 or a corporate surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit conforming to the requirements of OAR 441-860-0090.

(2) The director may refuse to renew a license if a reason exists under ORS 59.840 to 59.980 or 2009 Or Laws ch 863, §§ 1 to 13.

(3) If a mortgage banker or mortgage broker submits an application for renewal which is incomplete in any respect, the director shall notify the mortgage banker or broker of the deficiencies on the application. The mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall have 15 days from the date of the notice or the end of the renewal period, whichever occurs first, to complete the application for renewal. If the mortgage banker or mortgage broker fails to complete the application for renewal, and the license shall be terminated on the expiration date by reason of failure to renew.

Equivalent and Related Experience

(1) An applicant or an applicant's control person who has experience in the following categories shall be given full credit for such experience toward meeting the experience requirement under ORS 59.850:

- (a) Origination of loans secured by lien interests in real estate;
- (b) Negotiation of loans secured by lien interests in real estate;
- (c) Underwriting of loans secured by lien interests in real estate; or
- (d) Persons who supervise the activities of those persons enumerated in subsections (a) through (c) of this section.

(2) An applicant who has experience in the following categories, within the five year period preceding the application date, may receive partial credit for such experience toward the experience requirement contained in ORS 59.840 through 59.980. Credit may be given in only one category listed and for not more than three years actual experience. Credit given shall be in the ratios of actual years of experience to equivalent years credited toward qualification for a mortgage banker and mortgage broker license as set forth below. The remaining years of experience required to qualify for a mortgage banker or mortgage broker license shall be obtained from experience in categories listed in section (1) of this rule. The categories of possible alternative experience for which partial credit is available, and the ratios of actual years of experience to equivalent years credited toward qualification for a mortgage banker or mortgage broker license are:

- (a) Escrow officer, 3:2;
- (b) Loan processor with responsibility primarily for loans secured by lien interests on real estate, 3:2;
- (c) Branch manager of lender with responsibilities primarily for loans not secured by lien interests on real estate, 3:1.5;
- (d) Loan officer with responsibility primarily for loans not secured by lien interests on real estate, 3:1.5;
- (e) Paralegal with demonstrated experience in real estate financing matters, 3:1;
- (f) Real estate broker with an Oregon license or a license from a state with substantially equivalent real estate licensing requirements, 3:1;

Disclosure of Significant Developments

(1) A mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall be required to notify the director within 30 days of the occurrence of any of the following significant developments:

(a) Filing for bankruptcy or reorganization.

(b) Notification of the institution of license revocation procedures against the mortgage banker or mortgage broker by any state.

(c) Filing of a felony indictment against a mortgage banker or mortgage broker, officer, director, principal, control person or experienced person.

(d) A mortgage banker or mortgage broker, officer, director, principal, control person or experienced persons being convicted of a felony or misdemeanor involving fraud.

(e) All material litigation occurring against the mortgage banker or mortgage broker.

(f) The director may require other information as deemed necessary to determine whether a new application is required if a change of control or ownership of a mortgage banker or mortgage broker occurs. For purposes of this rule, a change in control or ownership includes:

(A) Acquisition of ten percent or more of the stock in a corporation by a person or a group of persons, or the ability of a person or group acting in concert to elect a majority of the directors or otherwise effect a change in policy of the corporation.

(B) Acquisition of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker business, if the applicant is an unincorporated sole proprietorship;

(C) Acquisition by a managing partner of a limited partnership or a partner in a general partnership of ten percent or more of the partnership interests in the general or limited partnership;

(D) Acquisition by a member or managing member in a limited liability company of a membership interest greater than or equal to ten percent of the total membership interests in the limited liability company; and

(E) In the case of entities other than corporations or those listed in paragraphs (A) through (D) of this subsection, change in control shall mean any change in principals of the organization, whether active or passive.

(g) In addition to the requirements of OAR 441-860-0030, a mortgage banker or a mortgage broker shall notify the director when a branch office ceases to operate.

(h) Any changes in the information required on the mortgage banker or mortgage broker's application form, including, but not limited to address changes, phone number changes, etc.

(i) Any changes in the status of a mortgage loan originator employed by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker.

(j) Any dismissal of a mortgage loan originator employed by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker due to a change in the mortgage loan originator's licensing status or an event that would constitute grounds for license revocation under 2009 Or Laws ch. 863, §§ 1 to 13 and OAR chapter 441, division 880.

(2) The director may request additional information regarding any of the occurrences outlined in this rule.

Failure to Continually Satisfy Experience Requirement

(1) If a mortgage banker or mortgage broker fails to satisfy the experience requirements under ORS 59.850(3) during any licensing period regardless of the reason for that failure, the mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall:

(a) Notify the director within three working days that the mortgage banker or mortgage broker no longer satisfies the experience requirement;

(b) Submit to the director within seven calendar days of the occurrence, an inventory and status of pending loan application files including an accounting of all Clients' Trust Accounts;

(c) Account for all investor funds;

(d) Submit to the director within one week of the occurrence a proposed plan to rectify the deficiency or a plan for the orderly transfer of business to a duly licensed mortgage banker or mortgage broker;

(e) Immediately cease accepting new applications from borrowers and, in the case of mortgage brokers who fund mortgages from investors other than institutions described in ORS 59.035(4), solicitation of funds and accepting such investor funds shall immediately cease.

(2) If the mortgage banker or mortgage broker fails to comply with the provisions of section (1) of this rule, the director shall take appropriate action, consistent with the authority granted pursuant to ORS 59.840 through 59.965 to ensure that the interests of borrowers and investors are protected.

(3) If the mortgage banker or mortgage broker is unable to satisfy the director that the experience requirement will be satisfied within 30 days, the director may institute action to suspend or revoke the mortgage banker's or mortgage broker's license.

(4) The director may require reports on the status of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker's business. A mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall provide a report containing the content specified by the director as often as the director may specify. The reports may be written or oral, or both as the director may specify.

(5) If a mortgage banker or mortgage broker renews a license but does not conduct business, the time period that the person does not conduct business does not apply to the experience requirement in ORS 59.850(2).

Borrower Transactions

A dishonest, fraudulent or illegal practice or conduct under ORS 59.865 includes, but is not limited to, the following conduct by a person in connection with a mortgage loan:

(1) Making any representation or guarantee to a customer that a loan can be secured by a date certain;

(2) Entering into a lock agreement for a specific interest rate or advertising the availability of a lock agreement for a specific interest rate unless:

(a) The agreement or advertisement also specifies the terms of the lock agreement including the length of the lock period and the costs to the borrower associated with the lock agreement; and

(b) The mortgage banker or mortgage broker can demonstrate that they have successfully closed loans under lock agreements, which provided for similar interest rates within similar time frames;

(3) Making a representation to a customer that interest rates, points, or other financing terms are available at the time the representation was made unless the interest rates, points, or terms are actually available within the time frame represented from:

(a) A lender with whom the mortgage banker or mortgage broker maintains a correspondent or loan brokerage agreement;

(b) A person exempt from licensing pursuant to ORS 59.840(7)(b)(A) or (B); or

(c) One or more persons, other than persons exempt under ORS 59.035(4), if the mortgage banker or mortgage broker has a written commitment from such persons to fund the mortgage loan at the interest rate, points or other financing term offered to the borrower.

(4) Failing to disclose in writing to a borrower before negotiating loan terms for a mortgage loan that the person, mortgage banker or mortgage broker, or mortgage loan originator has a verbal or written contract, joint venture agreement or any other type of understanding with a builder or a realtor who is a party to the transaction and that this relationship may result in the borrower getting less favorable loan terms.

(5) Failing to refund within 72 hours of rejecting a loan, the advance fees paid which have not been distributed pursuant to a signed loan agreement or, in the event the loan agreement does not contain provisions for acceptance and distribution of advance fees, pursuant to a fee agreement;

(6) Failing to account, after reasonable notice, to any person whose property secures a loan made by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker for any money which that person has paid to the mortgage banker or mortgage broker for the payment of third party obligations including, but not limited to, appraisal fees, title search fees, taxes, and insurance premiums;

(7) Failing to comply within 30 working days of a written request by a borrower made within 90 days of notice that the loan will not be obtained, for copies of any appraisal, title report, or credit report paid for by the borrower, unless the agreement between the mortgage banker or mortgage broker and the credit service prohibits such distribution;

(8) Providing a savings statement to the borrower, unless:

(a) The amount of savings the borrower will realize can be projected with certainty;

(b) The amount of savings actually realized is within $1000.00 of the amount projected;

(c) The savings statement includes a disclaimer that the actual amount of savings may vary; and

(d) The savings statement shows changing payments over the life of the loan when the loan being offered is an adjustable rate product.

(9) Requiring or permitting a consumer to sign promissory notes and trust deeds prior to:

(a) The loan receiving final written loan approval;

(b) Full disclosure to the consumer of repayment terms; and

(c) The lender having funds available to fund the loan.

(10) Delaying release of loan funds to the borrower, the borrower's approved representative or escrow for more than one business day following recording of the lien.

Investor Transactions

A dishonest, fraudulent or illegal practice or conduct under ORS 59.865 includes, but is not limited to, the following conduct by a person in connection with a mortgage loan:

(1) Failing to provide to investors who are persons other than persons enumerated pursuant to ORS 59.035(4) and (5), prior to the time of sale of any interest in real estate paper, a written disclosure document which contains the following information:

(a) The priority of the lien created by the security and the total face amount of any senior liens;

(b) A statement whether any future advances may have a priority senior to that of the lien created by the security;

(c) A copy of the most recent complete property tax statement, covering the real property underlying the security;

(d) The value of the real property underlying the security. This value must be provided by:

(A) The tax assessed value if it is 100 percent of the true cash value and is on the same property underlying the security; or

(B) An appraisal by an independent licensed appraiser.

(e) The debtor's payment record, on the instrument being sold for the two years immediately preceding the sale. When the debtor's payment record is less than two years or not available:

(A) The payment record to date or a statement that payment records are not available; and

(B) A current credit report on the debtor prepared by a credit reporting agency or a current financial statement of the debtor.

(f) The terms of any senior lien or a copy of the instrument creating the lien and any assignments;

(g) If the mortgage seller, seller's agent, or any affiliate is the debtor, a statement disclosing that fact and the amount of cash paid to the debtor in consideration for the issuance of the real estate paper;

(h) A statement of any commissions, collection fees, and other costs chargeable to the purchaser of the real estate paper;

(i) A prominent statement of any balloon payments;

(j) In the case of a sale of junior real estate paper, a statement of the risk of loss on foreclosure of a senior lien; and

(k) A statement of whether or not the purchaser of the real estate paper will be insured against casualty loss.

(2) In the case of transactions involving securities sold under a registration which is currently effective, compliance with the provisions of this rule shall be deemed to be satisfied if the mortgage banker or mortgage broker provides to the investor a copy of the offering memorandum which was submitted to the director as part of the application to register securities pursuant to ORS Chapter 59.

(3) In the case of transactions which are exempt from registration under the provisions of ORS 59.035(7), compliance with the provisions of this rule shall be deemed to be satisfied if the mortgage banker or mortgage broker provides to the investor a copy of the risk disclosure section of an offering memorandum prepared for sales of similar, but non-exempt securities, if the memorandum was submitted to the director as a part of the registration application and that the registration is effective at the time the document is provided to the investor.

Branch Office Trust Accounts

(1) Branch offices shall maintain a separate trust account if:

(a) The main office of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker does not maintain a trust account or deposit funds into a neutral escrow depository on behalf of the branch offices' clients; or

(b) The main office of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker is not located within the State of Oregon.

(2) If the branch office maintains a trust account separate from the main office, the mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall be responsible for supervision of the branch office trust account to ensure compliance with the provisions of OAR 441-875-0030 and ORS 59.935 and 59.940.

(3) If the branch office places funds into a neutral escrow depository, the mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall be responsible for supervision of the branch office activities to ensure compliance with the provisions of OAR 441-875-0030 and ORS 59.935(1).

(4) Branch offices may maintain a trust account separate from any trust account maintained by the main office provided the branch office complies with all provisions under OAR 441-875-0030 and ORS 59.935(4).

(5) Examination of the branch office books and records relating to the trust accounts may be made at such time as the director may choose.

(6) Compliance with the provisions of OAR 441-875-0020 through 441-875-0040 does not relieve any person of any other duties and liabilities under ORS Chapter 59, applicable administrative rules, or any other provisions of law.

Manner of Deposit

(1) A mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall deposit all trust funds received from a client into the trust account or neutral escrow depository and shall keep such funds in the trust account or neutral escrow depository until:

(a) In the case of a neutral escrow depository, the written escrow instructions prepared pursuant to the provisions of OAR 441-875-0040(3) and agreed to by all parties have been fulfilled; or

(b) In the case of a trust account, the instructions for disbursement of trust funds have been fulfilled as contained in:

- (A) The loan application form; or
- (B) A separate fee agreement, if any.

(2) A mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall not commingle any monies received from a client for deposit into a trust account with personal funds of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker. For purposes of OAR 441-875-0010 through 441-875-0040, the following shall not constitute commingling of trust funds with personal funds if the funds are removed from the trust account within 30 days:

(a) Earned, but untransferred interest income accruing to the mortgage banker or mortgage broker pursuant to a written agreement with the client;

(b) Earned, but untransferred fees due the mortgage banker or mortgage broker.

(3) Every deposit into a trust account shall be made with deposit slips or other evidence of deposit identifying each transaction by a written notation of the file identification assigned to the transaction on whose behalf the deposit is made. Compliance with this rule may be satisfied when a mortgage banker or mortgage broker has attached a copy of the client's check to the deposit slips.

(4) Every deposit into a neutral escrow depository shall be accompanied by a letter of transmittal which shall include a written notation of the file identification assigned to the transaction on whose behalf the deposit is made. Compliance with this rule may be satisfied when a mortgage banker or mortgage broker has attached a copy of the client's check to the letter of transmittal.

(5) All customer securities must be held in trust and kept in a secure depository. The securities must be held in such a manner that they will be free from claims, levy, or attachment by creditors of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker.

(6) All funds, whether in the form of money, checks, drafts, or warrants belonging to others and accepted by any mortgage banker or mortgage broker engaged in professional activity shall be deposited prior to the close of business of the third banking day following the date of the receipt of the funds into a trust account or neutral escrow depository established by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker. The mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall account for all funds received.

(7) Every mortgage banker or mortgage broker which requires a residential loan client to pay an amount for services prior to the time that the services are rendered may maintain a separate trust account in this state for prepayments and shall keep prepayment funds subject to refund in the trust account until the services are performed according to the provisions contained in OAR 441-875-0040(5) and (6), or the loan is rejected.

(8) In the event that the mortgage banker or mortgage broker accepts fees in advance of completing professional services, or accepts fees paid as a retainer to secure the availability of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker,

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

or accepts a consulting fee for professional services, the fees shall be refundable and are trust funds unless the mortgage banker or mortgage broker provides written notice to the client prior to or at the time of receipt of the fees that such fees are not refundable. A record of this written notice to a client shall be maintained in the client file pursuant to the provisions of OAR 441-865-0020 through 441-865-0090.

Financial Practices; Manner of Disbursement

(1) In addition to those books and records required under ORS 59.840 through 59.980 and OAR 441-865-0010 through 441-865-0090, a mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall maintain books and records for each trust account in accordance with this rule:

(a) Mortgage bankers and mortgage brokers must reconcile at least monthly all trust accounts:

(A) The reconciled bank balance of the trust account must equal the sum of the balances in the individual owner's ledger accounts and also must equal the balance shown in the check register or the journal of receipts and disbursements for the trust account;

(B) The mortgage banker or mortgage broker must sign and date the reconciliation upon its completion.

(b) Each mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall set up and maintain a subsidiary ledger for each trust account showing the receipts and disbursements and maintaining a running total of every transaction pertaining to the trust account.

(2) The mortgage banker's or mortgage broker's offices, places of business, books, records, accounts, files and papers relating to the trust account shall be available for examination by the director under OAR 441-865-0010 through 441-865-0090.

(3) If funds are placed in a neutral escrow depository pursuant to the written agreement required by ORS 59.935(1), the agreement shall provide authorization for the director to examine the offices, places of business, books, records, accounts, files and papers relating to the client funds.

(4) Funds disbursed from a trust account shall be by checks which are prenumbered and bear the words "Client Trust Account" upon the face of the check. A mortgage banker or mortgage broker shall account for all checks, including voided checks, as part of the books and records maintained by the mortgage banker or mortgage broker.

(5) In the case of residential loan applications, escrow instructions and instructions for trust fund disbursement of fees shall provide that no trust funds may be disbursed to the mortgage banker or mortgage broker until the mortgage banker or mortgage broker has provided the following minimum services and disclosures:

(a) A good faith estimate required by Regulation X, 24 C.F.R. Part 3500;

(b) A completed loan application;

(c) If prepared, a fee agreement;

(d) HUD guide(s) for home buyers;

(e) The adjustable rate mortgage booklet as prepared by the Federal Reserve Board, if applicable;

(f) Truth in Lending Act disclosures as required by 12 C.F.R. Part 226.

(6) In the event that the mortgage banker or mortgage broker accepts fees in advance of completing professional services, or accepts fees paid as a retainer to secure the availability of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker, or accepts a consulting fee for professional services, and such fees are subject to refund under the provisions of these rules, such amounts may be withdrawn from the trust account for the benefit of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker only when actually expended for the benefit of the client or five days after notice of the proposed withdrawal has been mailed to the client.

(7) Every mortgage banker or mortgage broker must maintain a record listing all persons employed by that firm who have signatory authority to disburse funds held in the trust account and the date such authority begins and ends.

Certified Authority

(1) Until July 31, 2010, an organization may apply to the director to become a certified authority by filing an application in a form acceptable to the director. The application must include:

(a) Name, address, contact person, phone number and e-mail address;

(b) Names of the principals of the organization; and

(c) The bylaws or rules that will be utilized by the organization in selecting providers.

(2) The director's approval for certification will be dependent upon:

(a) The experience, knowledge, and professional ethics of the membership of the organization; and

(b) The bylaws or rules for approval and withdrawal of provider applications and test and course content.

(3) Certification will remain effective until surrendered by the certified authority, revoked or suspended by the director, or until July 31, 2010, whichever occurs sooner.

(4) Revocation or suspension of a certified authority will occur if the certified authority fails to follow its own bylaws or rules or fails to consider in good faith the test and course content in provider applications.

(5) The certified authority will review and approve or disapprove providers and the following matters:

(a) The requirements and contents of the entry-level training course;

(b) The examination on state and federal laws and rules relating to mortgage lending in this state;

(c) The contents of all continuing education.

(6) The certified authority will be responsible for approving education offered by another state's mortgage lender program, provided the director has determined that the laws of that state provide protection to the public that exceeds or is substantially similar to the protection provided by Oregon's mortgage lender law and rules.

Mortgage Loan Originator Examination Requirements

An applicant for a mortgage loan originator license shall take and pass an examination on state and federal statutes and rules relating to mortgage lending in this state before taking an application for a residential mortgage loan or negotiating the terms of a residential mortgage loan, consistent with the requirements of this rule.

(1) Between January 1, 2010 and July 16, 2010, an applicant for a mortgage loan originator license shall take and pass either:

(a) An examination approved by the Mortgage Lending Education Board and administered by a provider approved by the Mortgage Lending Education Board under ORS 59.977 and OAR 441-880-0010; or

(b) The national and Oregon state components of the examination approved by the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry.

(2) On or after July 16, 2010, an applicant for a mortgage loan originator license shall take and pass the national and Oregon state components of the examination approved by the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry.

(3) A passing score on either examination described in section (1) of this rule is 75 percent or greater. A passing score on a certified authority approved examination is valid for two years or until July 16, 2010, whichever occurs sooner. A person must apply for a license within two years of successfully passing an examination under this rule.

Mortgage Loan Originator Continuing Education Requirements

A mortgage loan originator shall take continuing education courses in order to take an application for a residential mortgage loan or negotiate the terms of a residential mortgage loan, consistent with the requirements of this rule.

(1)(a) Between January 1, 2010 and December 31, 2010, a mortgage loan originator shall take either a continuing education course approved by the Mortgage Lending Education Board under ORS 59.977 and OAR 441-880-0010 or by the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry. Each mortgage loan originator must complete 20 hours of continuing education within 24 months of the mortgage loan originator's notification date and every subsequent 24-month period. There shall be no carryover of hours of continuing education between periods. A mortgage loan originator is not required to complete continuing education if there is less than 24 months between the end of the last education period and December 31, 2010.

(b) A mortgage loan originator who fails to meet the continuing education requirement between January 1, 2010 and December 31, 2010 shall not take an application for a residential mortgage loan or negotiate the terms of a residential mortgage loan until the mortgage loan originator makes up any continuing education required by this section.

(c) The director may refuse to renew, deny or suspend the mortgage loan originator's license until the mortgage loan originator makes up any continuing education required by this section.

(2)(a) On or after January 1, 2011, a mortgage loan originator shall take a continuing education course approved by the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry. A mortgage loan originator shall complete at least ten hours of continuing education per year.

(b) A mortgage loan originator who fails to meet the continuing education requirement after July 31, 2011 shall not take an application for a residential mortgage loan or negotiate the terms of a residential mortgage loan until the mortgage loan originator makes up any continuing education required by this section.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) The director may refuse to renew, deny or suspend the mortgage loan originator's license until the mortgage loan originator makes up any continuing education required this section.

(3) For purposes of this rule:

(a) "Notification date" is the date the director receives the first initial, renewal, or amended mortgage banker/broker mortgage banker or mortgage broker application which lists the mortgage loan originator's name. For an existing mortgage banker or mortgage broker, the notification to the director of a person functioning as a loan originator is considered an amended application and establishes the notification date for that loan originator.

(b) For a mortgage loan originator not subject to continuing education requirements while employed by an exempt entity, but who was previously the subject of notification to the director as a mortgage loan originator, the date of the director's receipt of an initial, renewal or amended application which again lists that loan originator's name is a new notification date for that loan originator.

Employer's Requirements

(1) All persons employing mortgage loan originators shall provide the director with a list of all mortgage loan originators and the information in section (3) of this rule.

(2) Between January 1, 2010 and July 31, 2010, within 30 days of a person starting to function as a mortgage loan originator or ending functioning as a mortgage loan originator, the employer must notify the director by amending their licensee application in a form approved by the director.

(3) If the notice is for a person starting to function as a mortgage loan originator, the amendment shall include the following information about the mortgage loan originator:

- (a) Name;
- (b) The start date as a loan originator;
- (c) Current business and home address, telephone, and e-mail address;
- (d) Social Security number;
- (e) Date of birth; and
- (f) Certification of compliance with ORS 59.967(2), 59.969(4)(a) & (b) and 59.971.

(4) If the notice is for a person ending functioning as a mortgage loan originator, the amendment should include the following information:

- (a) Name;
- (b) The ending date as a mortgage loan originator;
- (c) Last known contact information; and
- (d) The reason for termination if it was for failure to comply with state or federal laws, regulations or rules.

(5) Between January 1, 2010 and July 31, 2010, at the time for each mortgage banker/broker license application or renewal, the employer must notify the director of the names and current contact information of the loan originators employed, including certification of compliance with ORS 59.967(2), 59.969(4)(a) & (b) and 59.971.

(6) No employer may hire, or continue to employ, a person to serve as a mortgage loan originator who has not met the educational requirements of ORS 59.840 through 59.980, 59.969 & 59.975 and OAR 441-880-0020.

(7) As courses are satisfactorily completed by the mortgage loan originators, the employer shall retain a copy of the completion certificate in the loan originator's personnel file for review by the director at the time of the next occurring examination or for five years, whichever first occurs.

(8) On or after July 31, 2010, all mortgage brokers or mortgage bankers employing mortgage loan originators shall provide notice to the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry within 30 days of a person starting to function as a mortgage loan originator or ending functioning as a mortgage loan originator.

(9) Sponsorship or termination of sponsorship of a loan originator through the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry is deemed compliance with this rule.

Mortgage Loan Originator Requirements

(1) It is unlawful for any person to act as a mortgage loan originator unless the educational requirements in ORS 59.840 to 59.980, 2009 Or Laws ch. 863, §§ 1 to 13, and OAR 441-880-0020 are met.

(2) The mortgage loan originator must retain the original completion certificate provided following satisfactory course completion for five years and provide a copy to the employer.

(3) Only mortgage loan originators employed by exempt employers may file notification of completed education directly with the director. A copy of the completion certificate may be provided or notification may be provided electronically of the course name and number, the number of hours of each course, the completion date, and the score or pass/fail result, if applicable.

(4) A mortgage loan originator may notify the director of termination of the mortgage loan originator's employment including the end date, reason for termination, and current contact information for the mortgage loan originator.

(5) Sections (1) to (4) of this rule apply to mortgage loan originators before July 31, 2010.

(5) A mortgage loan originator shall be required to notify the director within 30 days of the occurrence of any of the following significant developments:

(a) Filing for bankruptcy.

(b) Notification of the institution of license revocation procedures against the mortgage loan originator by any state.

(c) Filing of a felony indictment against the mortgage loan originator.

(d) Convictions for a felony or misdemeanor involving fraud.

(e) Instances of material litigation occurring against the mortgage loan originator.

(f) Changes in the information required on the mortgage loan originator's application form, including, but not limited to address changes, phone number changes, etc. and

(g) Changes in the employment status of a mortgage loan originator.

Financial Responsibility Criteria

(1) For purposes of this rule, an applicant is not financial responsible if the applicant has shown a disregard of his or her own financial circumstances, taking into consideration the totality of the applicant's financial circumstances.

(2) Factors that the director may consider in determining whether an applicant has not demonstrated financial responsibility include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Current outstanding judgments or material litigation, excluding judgments solely as a result of medical expenses;

(b) Current outstanding tax liens or other government liens and filings;

(c) A foreclosure within the past three years and the type of property subject to foreclosure, whether residential or commercial;

(d) Pending or completed bankruptcy proceedings, and the nature of the proceedings, occurring within the past five years; or

(e) A pattern of seriously delinquent accounts within the past three years.

(2) In assessing the financial responsibility of the applicant, the director may consider extenuating or mitigating factors, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Involuntary loss of job or income;

(b) Involuntary medical expenses;

(c) Divorce;

(d) Attempting workout arrangements with creditors; or

(e) Any other factor the director believes reflects circumstances beyond the control of the applicant.

License Renewal; Reinstatement Process

(1) A mortgage loan originator license shall expire on December 31 of each calendar year. At least 30 days prior to the expiration of a mortgage loan originator license, a mortgage loan originator shall submit all information required by the National Mortgage Licensing System and Registry to the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry. The renewal application shall include evidence that:

(a) The applicant continues to meet the minimum requirements for a mortgage loan originator license in 2009 Or Laws ch. 863, § 4;

(b) The applicant paid any required fee, as applicable, under OAR 441-880-0400; and

(c) The applicant completed ten hours of continuing education approved by the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry.

(2) A person applying to reinstate a mortgage loan originator license that has lapsed for a period of five or more years, whether or not the applicant was employed or continued to engage in business as a mortgage loan originator during the period of the lapse, shall:

(a) Complete the continuing education requirements under this section (1) of this rule; and

(b) Pass a qualified written test under 2009 Or Laws ch. 863, § 5 and OAR 441-880-0215.

Deficiencies in Continuing Education

(1) A mortgage loan originator may submit a written request to make up deficiencies in continuing education due to hardship or illness. A written request shall:

(a) Describe the hardship or illness; and

(b) Describe why the mortgage loan originator was unable to meet requirements for continuing education.

(2) In all requests under this rule, the mortgage loan originator has the burden of proving the hardship or illness responsible for the deficiency in continuing education.

(3) The director shall consider and may grant a request, but the director shall not grant a request for the following:

(a) Failure or inability to pay applicable fees to obtain or maintain a mortgage loan originator license;

(b) A suspension of business activities as a mortgage loan originator; or

(c) Incapacity due to imprisonment

(4) Sections (1) to (3) of this rule apply to mortgage loan originators on or after July 31, 2010.

(5) Nothing in this rule affects the director's authority to require by order a mortgage loan originator to make up deficiencies in continuing education under 2009 Or Laws ch. 863, § 6 or to decline to renew the person's mortgage loan originator license.

Cancellation of Mortgage Banker Or Mortgage Broker License for Failure to Maintain Corporate Surety Bond or Irrevocable Letter of Credit

(1) The director may cancel the license of a mortgage banker or mortgage broker for failing to maintain a corporate surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit as required by ORS 59.850 and OAR 441-860-0090 or 2009 Or Laws ch. 863, § 9 and OAR 441-860-0085. The procedure for canceling a mortgage banker or mortgage broker license under this rule is as follows:

(a) Upon notification from the surety of notice of intent to cancel the corporate surety bond, or upon notification from the financial institution of notice of intent to cancel the irrevocable letter of credit, the director shall send written notice to the mortgage banker or mortgage broker. This notice shall be sent by certified mail within three business days of receipt of notification from the surety or financial institution. Failure to send the notice within three business days will not preclude cancellation under subsection (1)(b) of this rule.

(b) If the director does not receive an effective corporate surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit by 5 p.m. Pacific Time seven business days after the corporate surety bond or letter of credit cancellation date, the director shall cancel the license of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker. The cancellation of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker license shall be effective as of the corporate surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit cancellation date. For purposes of this rule, an effective corporate surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit is one that commences no later than the cancellation date of the previous corporate surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit.

(2) A mortgage banker or mortgage broker whose license has been cancelled may obtain a mortgage banker or mortgage broker license in Oregon by submitting a new application.

(3) Upon cancellation of a mortgage banker or mortgage broker license all rights under the license are terminated, except that the director shall retain jurisdiction to investigate the professional activities pursuant to ORS 59.880.

(4)(a) The director may change the mortgage loan originator's license status to inactive if the director finds that the mortgage loan originator is not covered by a corporate surety bond or the corporate surety bond covering the mortgage loan originator is maintained in an insufficient amount under OAR 441-860-0085.

(b) The director may change the mortgage loan originator's license status to approved if the mortgage loan originator provides evidence acceptable to the director that the mortgage loan originator is covered by a corporate surety bond or the corporate surety bond covering the mortgage loan originator is maintained in a sufficient amount under OAR 441-860-0085.

Subject: Oregonians who lose their jobs have two options to continue coverage under their group health plan. If their former employer has twenty or more workers, they are eligible under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA). If their former employer has fewer than twenty workers, they are eligible under Oregon's state continuation law. In February 2009, the federal economic stimulus package extended a 65 percent subsidy for up to nine months of coverage. Recognizing the need for changes to state law to allow Oregonians to obtain the full advantage of the federal subsidy, the Oregon Legislative Assembly enacted House Bill 2433, which extends the period of eligibility for state continuation coverage from six to nine months and allows the Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services to adopt rules as necessary to allow Oregonians to take full advantage of the benefits provided by the federal law including additional extensions of the period of eligibility to match future extensions or changes in the federal subsidy or COBRA program. On December 21, 2009, President Obama signed HR 3326, the Fiscal Year 2010 Defense Appropriations Act, which extends the COBRA benefits. These rules amend earlier-adopted provisions to implement House Bill 2433 to match extensions of the federal benefits included in HR 3326. The federal act extends the eligibility period for the ARRA premium reduction for an additional two months (through February 28, 2010) and the maximum period for receiving the subsidy for an additional six months (from nine to 15 months). These temporary rules make the same changes to the state continuation program.

(2) "Certificate holder" means any covered employee or qualified beneficiary who:

- (a) Is eligible for continuation coverage;
- (b) Elects continuation coverage;
- (c) Is subject to a qualifying event; and
- (d) Is considered an assistance eligible individual under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (P.L. 111-5).

(3) "Covered employee" means a certificate holder who has been insured continuously under a policy or similar predecessor policy during the three-month period ending on the date of the termination of employment or membership.

(4)(a) "Qualified beneficiary" means a covered employee under a group health plan or any other individual who, on the day before the qualifying event for that employee, is a beneficiary under that plan as the spouse of the covered employee or as the dependent child of the employee, including a child born or placed for adoption after the qualifying event or during the period the covered employee is eligible for continuation coverage.

(b) An individual is not a qualified beneficiary if:

(A) The individual is eligible for Federal Medicare coverage.

(B) The individual is eligible for any other group health plan. This limitation does not apply to coverage consisting only of:

(i) Dental, vision, counseling, or referral services;

(ii) Coverage under a health flexible spending arrangement as defined in section 106(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; or

(iii) Treatment that is furnished in an on-site medical facility maintained by an employer.

(C) An individual is not a qualified beneficiary only for purposes of receiving a premium subsidy if the individual is a domestic partner.

(5) "Qualifying event" means involuntary termination of employment and loss of group health insurance coverage during the period beginning September 1, 2008 and ending December 31, 2009.

(6)(a) "Transition period" means, with respect to any assistance eligible individual, any period of coverage if:

(A) The period begins before December 21, 2009; and

(B) The subsidy allowed under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 applies to such period due to the extension of the state continuation period to 15 months.

(b) Any period of time during the transition period for which the assistance eligible individual pays the applicable premium under OAR 836-053-0865(9) shall be treated as a period of coverage for which timely payment of premium was paid, irrespective of any failure to timely pay the applicable premium for such period.

Notification

(1) An insurer subject to the requirements of ORS 743.610 and chapter 73, Oregon Laws 2009 (Enrolled House Bill 2433) shall provide a notice explaining continuation of benefits directly to individuals losing group coverage, for any reason other than group replacement of coverage, within 10 days following the date of any administrative action taken by an insurer to initiate or document the loss of coverage.

(2) The insurer providing the notice required under section (1) of this rule shall include in the notice at least the following information:

(a) Contact information for the employee to reach the insurer;

(b) Forms and instructions about how to complete and return the forms and to whom (i.e., going through employer or direct to insurer);

(c) A clear statement explaining availability of premium subsidy;

(d) Premium information or directions for determining the premium amount for each qualified beneficiary and instructions for submitting the premium;

(e) A clear statement about who is eligible to continue coverage;

(f) Information about how to enroll in different coverage if allowed by the employer;

(g) Instructions about the employee's responsibility to notify the insurer if the employee becomes ineligible for the subsidy; and

(h) Instructions about how to appeal denials for treatment as a certificate holder.

(3)(a) In the case of an individual who was an assistance eligible individual at any time on or after October 31, 2009, or experiences a qualifying event (consisting of termination of employment) relating to state continuation coverage on or after October 31, 2009, the insurer shall provide, no later than February 21, 2010, an additional notification consisting of the following:

(A) A qualifying event means involuntary termination of employment during the period of September 1, 2008 and ending February 28, 2010;

(B) Assistance eligible individuals are eligible to continue coverage for a period of fifteen months beginning with the coverage month first following the qualifying event;

(C) A transition period exists for assistance eligible individuals who became eligible for a premium subsidy under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 before December 21, 2009 and whose state continuation coverage has now been extended to fifteen months due to availability of the subsidy for that period of time;

(D) An assistance eligible individual who has paid the full premium during the transition period is entitled to a refund or credit as specified in OAR 836-053-0865(10);

(E) Assistance eligible individuals who did not timely pay the premium for any period of coverage during their transition period may now pay premiums retroactively in accordance with OAR 836-053-0865(9).

(b) In the case of a qualifying event occurring after December 21, 2009, the insurer shall provide notification consistent with this rule.

(4) In the case of an assistance eligible individual who did not timely pay the premium for any period of coverage during the individual's transition period or paid the full premium for the transition period without regard to the subsidy, the insurer shall provide to the individual, within the first 60 days of the start of the individual's transition period, an additional notification. The additional notification shall include the information required in section (3) of this rule and information on the ability to make retroactive premium payments in accordance with OAR 836-053-0865(9) with respect to the transition period of the individual in order to maintain state continuation coverage.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Provisions Relating to Premium Subsidy for State Continuation Coverage

(1) In order to maximize the benefit to Oregonians under the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (P.L. 111-5), certain qualified beneficiaries are eligible for:

(a) Premium subsidy for continuation of coverage;

(b) An opportunity to elect continuation of coverage that is in addition to the period allowed under ORS 743.610(5);

(c) Continuation of coverage for a period of time that exceeds the period allowed under ORS 743.610(7)(a); and

(d) An option to enroll in different coverage if the employer permits certificate holders to elect enrollment in different coverage.

(2) After receiving the attestation from an employer stating that the employee meets the requirements of a certificate holder and the date of the qualifying event, an insurer is required to accept timely payment of the certificate holder's 35 percent share of the total premium as full payment of the premium and process claims as though 100 percent of the total premium due has been paid.

(3)(a) The following certificate holders qualify for a second opportunity to elect continuation of coverage if the group health plan remains in effect:

(A) Certificate holders who did not elect to continue coverage during the period allowed under ORS 743.610(5) prior to April 28, 2009; and

(B) Certificate holders who elected continuation coverage during the period allowed under ORS 743.610(5) but whose continuation coverage ended for any reason prior to April 28, 2009;

(b) Within 31 calendar days after the insurer provides the notice required under OAR 836-053-0860(1), certificate holders who received the notice under paragraph (a) of this subsection must return the following items according to instructions provided by the insurer:

(A) Completed forms for electing state continuation coverage and requesting treatment as a certificate holder;

(B) The individual's tax identification number;

(C) Form for Switching State Continuation Coverage Benefit Options, if offered; and

(D) The initial premium if required.

(c) Certificate holders who became eligible on or after September 1, 2008 and prior to April 28, 2009 are eligible to continue coverage while the group health plan remains in effect, and upon timely payment of their portion of the premium, for 15 months of continuation coverage beginning with the coverage month first following the qualifying event.

(d) The effective date for continuation coverage issued in response to a second election of coverage will be the later of the first day of the coverage month on or after February 17, 2009 or the first day of the coverage month first following the qualifying event.

(4)(a) Within 31 calendar days after the insurer provides the notice required under OAR 836-053-0860(1), certificate holders who become eligible on or after April 28, 2009 must return the following items according to any instructions provided by the insurer:

(A) Forms for electing state continuation coverage and requesting treatment as a certificate holder;

(B) The individual's tax identification number;

(C) The form for switching state continuation coverage benefit options, if offered; and

(D) The initial premium, if required.

(b) A certificate holder who becomes eligible on or after April 28, 2009 is eligible to continue coverage for a period of 15 months beginning with the coverage month first following the qualifying event. However, the premium subsidy available to the individual shall not exceed any period of limitation specified in the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (P.L. 111-5)

(5) A certificate holder may elect to enroll in different coverage as described in subsection (1)(d) of this rule if:

(a) The employer permits certificate holders to enroll in different coverage;

(b) The premium for the different coverage does not exceed the premium for coverage in which the certificate holder was enrolled at the time of the qualifying event;

(c) The different coverage in which the individual elects to enroll is coverage that is also offered to the active employees of the employer at the time the individual makes the election; and

(d) The different coverage is not:

(A) Coverage that provides only dental, vision, counseling or referral services, or a combination of such services;

(B) A flexible spending arrangement as defined in section 106(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; or

(C) Coverage that provides coverage for services or treatments furnished in an on-site medical facility maintained by the employer and that consists primarily of first-aid services, prevention and wellness care or similar care, or a combination of such care.

(6) The period of time beginning on the date of the qualifying event and ending with the effective date of continuation coverage shall be disregarded for purposes of determining periods of creditable coverage under ORS 743.754, 743.737, and 743.766.

(7) A premium subsidy is not available to a certificate holder who becomes eligible for coverage under any other group health plan or Medicare. An individual paying a reduced premium for continuation coverage as described in this section must promptly notify the insurer if they become eligible for other group health plan coverage or Medicare.

(8) Certificate holders who elected continuation on or after September 1, 2008 and prior to April 28, 2009, are eligible to continue coverage while the group health plan remains in effect, and upon timely payment of their portion of the premium, for a period of 15 months beginning with the coverage month first following the qualifying event

(9) In the case of any premium for a period of coverage during an assistance eligible individual's transition period, the individual shall be treated for purposes of any state continuation provision as having timely paid the amount of such premium if:

(a) The individual was covered under the state continuation coverage to which the premium relates for the period of coverage immediately preceding the transition period; and

(b) The individual pays the individual's 35 percent share of the total premium:

(A) Not later than February 21, 2010; or

(B) If the transition period extends beyond February 21, 2010, not later than 30 days after the date notification required under OAR 836-053-0860(4) is provided to the individual.

(10) In the case of an assistance eligible individual who pays, with respect to any period of state continuation coverage during the individual's transition period, the full premium amount for such coverage, the insurer shall:

(a) Make a reimbursement payment to the individual for the amount of premium paid in excess of the 35 percent share of the total premium; or

(b) Provide credit to the individual for the amount in a manner that reduces one or more subsequent premium payments that the individual is required to pay for the coverage involved.

Standards for Prompt and Fair Total Loss Settlements — Automobile Insurance

(1) When an automobile insurance policy provides for the adjustment and settlement of collision or comprehensive coverage total losses on the basis of actual cash value or replacement with another comparable automobile or one of like kind and quality, the insurer shall adjust and settle the claim as provided in this rule.

(2) The insurer may elect to offer a replacement automobile that is at least comparable to the insured automobile. A replacement automobile is at least comparable if it is the same make, is of the same or a newer year, is of a similar body style, has similar options and mileage as the insured automobile, is in as good or better overall condition and is available for inspection within a reasonable distance of the insured's residence. The insurer shall pay all applicable taxes, license fees and other fees incident to the transfer of evidence of ownership of the automobile at no cost other than any deductible provided in the policy. The offer and any rejection thereof must be documented in the claim file.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(3) The insurer may elect to make a cash settlement, less any deductible provided in the policy, but including all applicable taxes, license fees and other fees incident to transfer of ownership of another comparable automobile. When an insurer makes a cash settlement, the insurer shall furnish the insured copies of the information used by the insurer for the purpose of determining the amount of the cash settlement. The insurer shall comply with the provisions of the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act (ORS 84.001 to 84.061) and ORS 84.070 if the insurer provides this information electronically. If the information includes documentation of a specific and comparable automobile that the insurer intends to rely upon to preclude reopening the claim file under section (6) of this rule, the insurer shall prominently disclose that intention. The value of the automobile for purposes of a cash settlement may be based upon one of the following standards:

(a) A valuation obtained from a computerized database source that produces statistically valid and fair market values for automobiles, on the basis of the following criteria:

(A) The source shall produce values for at least 85 percent of all makes and models of private passenger automobiles for the last 15 model years;

(B) The source shall rely upon values of vehicles that are currently available or were available within the last 90 days from the date of loss for all vehicles and shall apply appropriate standards of comparability;

(C) For all vehicles of five model years or less of age, the values must be derived primarily from verifiable data or inventory from licensed dealers;

(D) The source shall monitor the average retail price of private passenger automobiles when there is insufficient data or inventory from licensed dealers to ensure statistically valid market area values;

(E) The source shall give primary consideration to the values of vehicles in the local market area and may consider data on vehicles outside the area; and

(F) The source shall produce fair market values based on current data available from the area surrounding the location where the insured vehicle was principally garaged or a necessary expansion of parameters, such as time and area, to assure statistical validity.

(b) The actual cost to purchase the automobile identified by the insurer as a replacement automobile that is at least comparable to the insured automobile as determined pursuant to section (2) of this rule, including all applicable taxes, license fees and other fees incident to purchase of the automobile other than any deductible provided in the policy; or

(c) An alternative that deviates from the methods described in subsections (a) and (b) of this section and is allowable under the policy, as long as documentation in the claim file supports the deviation and gives particulars of the pre-loss condition of the automobile. Any deductions from the cost, including deduction for salvage if the salvage is retained by the claimant, must be measurable, discernible, itemized and specified as to dollar amount and must be appropriate in amount. The basis for a settlement under this subsection must be fully explained in writing, supplied to the claimant and maintained in the claim file.

(4) When an insurer elects to make a cash settlement, the insurer shall provide the insured or third-party claimant with the written statement set forth in Exhibit 1 of this rule. The insurer shall comply with the provisions of the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act (ORS 84.001 to 84.061) and 84.070 if the insurer provides this written statement electronically.

(5) If an insurer and the insured or third-party claimant are unable to agree on the value of the automobile, an insurer shall pay the insured or third-party claimant the amount of the automobile's value that is not in dispute as provided in section 3, chapter 65, Oregon Laws 2009. An insurer is not obligated to pay the undisputed amount until the insured or third-party owner of the automobile:

(a) Agrees to execute documents sufficient to transfer ownership of the automobile to the insurer; and

(b) Authorizes the insurer, at the insurer's expense, to move the automobile to a disclosed location selected by the insurer, where the automobile will remain available for inspection and evaluation for not fewer than 14 calendar days. After the expiration of the 14-day period, the insurer may proceed with the salvage sale of the automobile.

(6) If the insured notifies the insurer within 35 days of the receipt of the claim draft that the insured cannot purchase an automobile for the market value as determined in section (3) of this rule, the insurer shall reopen its claim file and the following procedures shall apply:

(a) The insurer may locate an automobile that is at least comparable to the insured automobile as determined pursuant to section (2) of this rule, and that is currently available for the market value determined by the insurer at the time of settlement;

(b) The insurer may either pay the insured the difference between the market value before applicable deductions and the cost of the comparable automobile of like kind and quality that the insured has located, or negotiate and effect the purchase of the automobile for the insured;

(c) The insurer may elect to offer a replacement automobile in accordance with the provisions set forth in section (2) of this rule; or

(d) The insurer may conclude the loss settlement in the manner provided in the appraisal section of the insurance policy in force at the time of the loss. The insurer shall reimburse the insured for the reasonable appraisal costs as provided in ORS 742.466.

(7) The right of the insured to have a claim reopened under section (6) of this rule applies only to first party claims of the insured under the policy. The insurer is not required to take action under section (6) of this rule if its documentation to the insured at the time of settlement includes written notification of the availability and location of a specified automobile that is at least comparable to the insured automobile as determined pursuant to section (2) of this rule, that could have been purchased for the market value determined by the insurer before applicable deductions. The documentation shall include the vehicle identification number or another specific vehicle identifier.

(8) When the issue of liability is reasonably clear, an insurer shall not recommend that a third party claimant make claim under the claimant's own insurance policy solely for the recommending insurer to avoid paying a claim.

(9) An insurer shall not require unreasonable travel of a claimant to inspect a replacement automobile, to obtain a repair estimate or to have the automobile repaired at a repair shop.

(10) An insurer shall, upon a first party claimant's request, include the claimant's deductible in the insurer's demands under its subrogation rights. Subrogation recoveries shall be shared at least on a proportionate basis with the first party claimant, unless the deductible amount has been otherwise recovered by the claimant. No deduction for expenses may be made from the deductible recovery unless an outside attorney is retained to collect such recovery, in which case deduction may be made only for a pro rata share of the cost of retaining the attorney.

(11) If an insurer or body shop prepares an estimate of the cost of automobile repairs, the estimate shall be in the amount for which the damage may reasonably be expected to be satisfactorily repaired. If crash parts manufactured by anyone other than the original manufacturer are to be supplied or installed, the estimate shall identify each such part in a clearly understandable manner. The insurer or body shop shall give a copy of the written estimate to the claimant.

(12) As provided in ORS 746.280, an insurer shall not require that a particular person make the repairs to the first party claimant's automobile as a condition for recovery under the claimant's policy. An insurer shall not make such a requirement for the repair of a third party claimant's automobile as a condition for claim payment.

(13) When the amount claimed as automobile damage is reduced because of betterment or depreciation, all information used as the basis for the reduction shall be contained in the insurer's claim file. Such deductions shall be itemized and specified as to dollar amount and shall be appropriate for the amount of betterment or depreciation.

(14) Sections (3), (4), (5), (8), and (12) of this rule also apply to third party claimants.

Life Settlement Provider License Requirements

(1) Any person, other than the owner of a life insurance policy, that enters into or effectuates a life settlement contract with an owner who is a resident of Oregon must obtain a life settlement provider license from the Department of Consumer and Business Services.

(2) In order for an applicant to qualify for authority to transact business as a life settlement provider the person must do all of the following:

(a) Demonstrate evidence of financial responsibility as follows:

(A) The applicant’s assets must exceed its liabilities by an amount of not less than $150,000;

(B) The applicant must file with the Department of Consumer and Business Services a surety bond in the sum of $100,000 that meets the requirements of ORS 731.640; or

(C) The applicant must deposit with the Department of Consumer and Business Services the sum of $100,000 in cash, certificates of deposit or securities, or any combination of cash, certificates of deposit or securities.

(b) Submit a detailed plan of operation with the application that includes a description of the method for retaining records as required under ORS 744.346.

(c) Provide an anti-fraud plan that includes initiatives reasonably calculated to detect, prosecute and prevent fraudulent life settlement acts. The anti-fraud plan must include but need not be limited to:

(A) A provision for use of fraud investigators;

(B) A description of the procedures for detecting and investigating possible fraudulent life settlement acts and procedures to resolve material inconsistencies between medical records and insurance applications;

(C) Procedures for reporting possible fraudulent life settlement activities to the director;

(D) A plan for anti-fraud education and training of the provider’s staff and employees; and

(E) A description or organizational chart of the personnel responsible for implementing and maintaining the integrity of the anti-fraud plan.

(d) Demonstrate that procedures are in place to prevent any person convicted of a felony involving dishonesty or breach of trust to participate in the life settlement operations of the applicant.

(3) As a condition of maintaining a license to act as a life settlement provider, a life settlement provider must do all of the following:

(a) (A) At all times maintain assets that exceed its liabilities by an amount of not less than $150,000; or

(B) At all times maintain with the Department of Consumer and Business Services a surety bond or the deposit of cash, certificates of deposit or securities. The surety bond, cash or securities must meet the requirements of ORS 731.640 and must be in the sum of $100,000.

(b) Pay the annual provider renewal fee as specified in OAR 836-014-0210; and

(c) Submit to the Department of Consumer and Business Services a completed license renewal application on the form prescribed by the Department, not later than the 30th day after the anniversary date of the life settlement provider’s license.

(4) A bond filed or deposit made in this state under this rule shall be held for the faithful performance by the life settlement provider of all transactions of the provider subject to ORS 744.319 to 744.358.

(5) A life settlement provider license does not eliminate the need to obtain a securities license from the Department if a life settlement provider conducts life settlement transactions in a manner that would be considered an offer, sale, transfer or delivery of a security under the Oregon Securities Law.

Life Settlement Investment Agent Licensing Requirements

(1) In order for an applicant to qualify to transact business as a life settlement investment agent, the person must pay the appropriate application fee under OAR 836-014-0210 and either:

(a) Demonstrate that the person has completed to the director’s satisfaction an examination of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) that is Series 6 or Series 7; or

(b) Operates under the appropriate license from the equivalent chief insurance official of the state of residence of the life settlement purchaser whom the agent is negotiating with on behalf of a life settlement provider. If there is more than one purchaser of a single policy and the purchasers are residents of different states, the life settlement investment agent must be licensed by the state in which the purchaser having the largest percentage ownership resides, or if the purchasers hold equal ownership, the state of residence of one purchaser agreed upon in writing by all purchasers.

(2) A life settlement investment agent license does not eliminate the need to obtain a securities license from the Department if a life settlement investment agent conducts life settlement transactions in a manner that would be considered an offer, sale, transfer or delivery of a security under the Oregon Securities Law.

Filing Requirements, Life Settlement Contracts and Disclosure Statement Forms; Promotional, Advertising and Marketing Materials

(1) An applicant for a license as a life settlement provider or life settlement broker must file with the Director a copy of each life settlement contract form and disclosure statement form that the applicant intends to use in business under the license.

(2) A life settlement provider or life settlement broker must file with the Director, prior to use in this state, any amendment to a previously-filed life settlement contract form or disclosure statement form and any new life settlement contract form or disclosure statement form.

(3) Contract forms and amendments thereto and disclosure statement forms and amendments thereto are subject to approval prior to use in this state, as provided in ORS 744.341.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(4) Each form of life settlement contract filed with the Director must contain all of the following:

- (a) A life settlement contract, completed in John Doe fashion;
- (b) A copy of a policyholder's or certificate holder's application, completed in John Doe fashion; and
- (c) A copy of the disclosure statement form that will be provided to a policyholder or certificate holder as required by section 11, chapter 711, Oregon Laws 2009 (Enrolled Senate Bill 973) and 836-014-0280.

(5) A life settlement contract form or a disclosure statement form is subject to disapproval by the Director:

- (a) If the Director finds it does not comply with the law;
- (b) If the Director finds it contains any provision or has any description of its contents, title, heading or other indication of its provisions, that is unintelligible, uncertain, ambiguous or abstruse, or likely to mislead a person to whom the contract is offered or with whom the contract is made;
- (c) If, in the Director's judgment, its use would be prejudicial to the interest of the persons with whom the life settlement provider contracts; or
- (d) If the Director finds it contains provisions that are unjust, unfair or inequitable.

(6) A life settlement provider must file with the Director, prior to use in this state, any promotional, advertising and marketing materials related to a life settlement contract used in this state.

Contents of Life Settlement Contracts

(1) In addition to the requirements of ORS 744.341, each life settlement contract must be in writing, in a type size of not less than 12 points, and written in clear, understandable and straightforward wording.

(2) A life settlement contract may not contain any limitation or restriction on the use of the proceeds by the policyholder or certificate holder.

(3) Each life settlement contract shall specify any effect that entering into the contract will have upon the continuation or continued availability of supplemental benefits or riders that are or may be attached to the life insurance policy that is the subject of the life settlement contract, including assignment of the responsibility for the continued payment of premiums. The contract must require the provider to pay the premium on supplemental benefits and riders added to the policy before the life settlement contract was entered, when so elected according to OAR 836-014-0260, and must require the provider to notify the former policyholder or certificate holder of any option that may arise to select any supplemental benefits or riders. The benefits and riders considered shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

- (a) Guaranteed insurability options;
- (b) Accidental death benefits, or accidental death and dismemberment benefits;
- (c) Disability income or loss of income protection; and
- (d) Family, spousal or children's riders or benefits.

(4) The life settlement contract must provide for rescission by the policyholder or certificate holder entering the life settlement contract as set forth in ORS 744.341. The rescission provision must appear on the first page of the contract. The rescission period specified in 744.341 may not be less than 60 days after the date on which the contract is executed by all parties or less than 30 days after the date on which the policyholder or certificate holder receives the life settlement proceeds, whichever is the lesser period. The rescission provision must also provide that if the insured dies during the period of time for rescission:

- (a) The contract is rescinded effective on the date of application; and
- (b) The provider will return the amount by which the insurance proceeds according to the terms of the policy exceed the compensation paid by the provider pursuant to the life settlement contract and any premiums paid by the provider on the policy so that all parties, including any beneficiaries, are returned to their original positions under the insurance policy.

(5) A life settlement contract must provide a method for giving notice of rescission, including but not limited to the address or addresses to which the rescission notice must be sent, and a telephone number that the insured may call for information.

(6) All life settlement contracts, purchase agreement forms and applications for life settlements must contain the following statement or a substantially similar statement approved by the Director: "Any person who knowingly presents false information in this application is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison."

Rights and Duties of Parties to Life Settlement Contract

(1) A policyholder or certificate holder who has entered a life settlement contract has the right to retain additional benefits or optional riders that were part of the life insurance policy, including but not limited to disability income, accidental death and dismemberment and spouse, children and family riders, but not including term riders. Any premiums payable on the insurance policy or certificate that is the subject of the life settlement contract, including premiums payable for additional benefits retained at the option of the policyholder or certificate holder, shall be paid by the life settlement provider when due, for the remaining duration of the life that is the subject of the life settlement contract.

(2) Except as provided in this section (2), any additional benefit or optional rider that the policyholder or certificate holder elects not to continue must be terminated when the life settlement takes place. A waiver of premium provision may be continued by the life settlement provider.

(3) The life settlement provider does not have the right to any cash surrender value unless all additional benefits retained by the policyholder or certificate holder, whether by rider or endorsement, are in a paid-up status and will be unaffected by any change in cash surrender value.

(4) The life settlement provider shall make the payment of proceeds of a life settlement to an escrow agent as required in Section 13, chapter 711, Oregon Laws 2009 (Enrolled Senate Bill 973) by means of wire transfer or by cashier's check.

(5) Any policyholder or certificate holder who enters into a life settlement contract has the right to rescind the contract not later than the 60th day after the date on which the contract is executed by all parties or not later than the 30th day after the date the policyholder or certificate holder receives the life settlement proceeds, whichever is the lesser period. Not later than the date on which the life settlement proceeds are paid to the policyholder or certificate holder, the life settlement provider must give the policyholder or certificate holder a written statement of the date on which the rescission period expires. The statement must include a notice to the policyholder or certificate holder that a rescission is not complete until the full payment, including any premiums paid by the life settlement provider, is returned to the life settlement provider and that the full payment must be returned not later than the 30th day after the date specified for expiration of the rescission period.

(6) If the statement required in section (5) of this rule is given by mail, it shall be considered to be given when deposited in the United States mail, first class postage prepaid.

(7) If notice of rescission is given by mail, it shall be considered to be given when deposited in the United States mail, first class postage prepaid.

(8) A life settlement broker represents exclusively the owner, and not the insurer or the life settlement provider, and owes a fiduciary duty to the owner, including a duty to act according to the owner's instructions and in the best interest of the owner.

(9) The life settlement investment agent does not have the right to have any contact with the owner or insured under a policy or to any knowledge of the identity of the owner or insured.

Request to Insurer for Verification of Coverage

(1) The life settlement provider or broker shall submit in writing a request for verification of coverage from the insurer on the status of the life insurance policy or certificate of a policyholder. The request shall be in the form illustrated on the Insurance Division website, or a similar form approved by the Director and shall be accompanied by an instruction executed by the policyholder or certificate holder authorizing the insurer to release the specified information referred to in this section to the life settlement provider or to the life settlement broker.

(2) A life settlement provider or broker who submits a request under section (1) of this rule must state in the request that the provider or broker is licensed as a life settlement provider in this state and must disclose its license number.

Response by Insurer

(1) An insurer shall provide information requested by a life settlement provider or life settlement broker on the status of the life insurance policy or certificate of a policyholder or certificate holder within 30 calendar days after the insurer receives the request for verification of coverage.

(2) Nothing in this rule prohibits a certificate holder from assigning rights or benefits under the certificate to a licensed life settlement provider if assignment is allowed in the group policy, or from converting the coverage to an individual life insurance policy as provided by law and any applicable terms of the group policy.

Standards for Evaluation of Reasonable Payments; Definition of "Terminal Illness or Condition"

(1) If the insured is terminally ill or chronically ill, payments under life settlement contracts must be fair and equitable and may not in any event be less than the following: Insured's Life Expectancy — Minimum Percentage of Face Value Less Outstanding Loans Received by Policyholder or Certificate Holder

- (a) Less than six months — 85 percent;
- (b) At least six but less than 12 months — 80 percent;
- (c) At least 12 but less than 18 months — 75 percent;
- (d) At least 18 but less than 24 months — 70 percent;

(2) If the insured is chronically ill, payments under life settlement contracts must be fair and equitable and may not in any event be less than the following: Insured's Life Expectancy — Minimum Percentage of Face Value Less Outstanding Loans Received by Policyholder or Certificate Holder

- (a) At least 24 but less than 36 months — 60 percent;
- (b) 36 months or more — The insured must receive at least the greater of:

- (A) 50 percent;
- (B) The cash surrender value; or
- (C) The accelerated death benefit in the policy.

(3) If the insured is not terminally ill or chronically ill, the owner must receive a reasonable return for entering into a life settlement agreement. The life settlement contract shall not provide a payment to the insured that is unreasonable or unjust. In determining whether a payment is unreasonable or unjust, the Director may consider the following factors:

- (a) The face amount being purchased;
- (b) Any policy loan in effect on the policy being purchased;
- (c) The life expectancy of the insured at the time of purchase;
- (d) The age of the insured at the time of purchase;
- (e) The future premiums that must be paid to minimally keep the policy in force;

(f) The cash surrender value or accelerated death benefit available from the policy;

(g) The method for allocating internal costs relating directly to the acquisition of this policy;

(h) The payment of any commission, fee or other expense to a life settlement broker or any other external party;

(i) If known, any future interest payments due for funds borrowed to purchase this policy;

(j) The applicable rating at the time of purchase of the insurance company that issued the policy by a rating service generally recognized by the insurance industry, regulators and consumer groups;

(k) Whether the policy is within the contestable period; and

(l) Other factors that the Director considers relevant.

(3) A payment may be reduced by the minimum premium required under sections (1) or (2) of this rule to keep the contract in force for the duration of the remaining life expectancy of the life that is the subject of the life settlement contract. The minimum premium includes any premiums payable for additional benefits retained at the option of the policyholder or certificate holder. Other than this allowable reduction in payment, there shall be no other retention for expenses or broker's fees that would reduce payments below the minimum levels established in sections (1) or (2) of this rule.

(4) The estimated life expectancy of an insured person must be determined according to sound actuarial principles or other sound methodology acceptable to the director.

Disclosure Required

(1) With an application for a life settlement, a life settlement provider or life settlement broker shall disclose the information specified in section 11, chapter 711, 2009 Oregon Laws (Enrolled Senate Bill 973) in a disclosure statement in a form approved by the director. The statement must be in not less than 12 point type. An example of the form of the disclosure statement will be displayed on the Insurance Division website and the director may update names, telephone numbers and similar information from time to time as necessary. A life settlement broker shall disclose to the insured in writing any relationship required to be disclosed to an owner under section 15, chapter 711, Oregon Laws 2009 prior to effectuating a life settlement contract. The form of the disclosure statement shall be approved by the director.

(2) For each life settlement contract entered into by a life settlement provider, the provider must keep a copy of the disclosure statement in the provider's file on the contract, along with an affidavit signed by the provider showing the date the statement was delivered to and signed by the policyholder or insured and the life settlement provider or life settlement broker and attesting to the provider's belief that the policyholder or insured had an opportunity to read and understand the statement. The provider must also send a copy of the statement and the signed affidavit to the life settlement broker.

(3) The disclosures required under section (1) of this rule must be provided in a separate document that is signed by the owner or insured and the life settlement provider or life settlement broker, and must provide the following information:

(a) All information required by section 11(1), chapter 711, Oregon Laws 2009 (Enrolled Senate Bill 973);

(b) The brochure required by section 11(2), chapter 711, Oregon Laws 2009 (Enrolled Senate Bill 973); and

(c) An explanation of the ability of the life settlement provider and the life settlement broker to contact the insured for the purpose of determining the health status of the insured after the life settlement occurs, and the frequency at which those contacts may occur.

(4) No later than the date the life settlement contract is signed by all parties, a life settlement provider shall provide the owner and insured with at least the disclosures required under section 11(3), chapter 711, Oregon Laws 2009 (Enrolled Senate Bill 973). The disclosures shall be conspicuously displayed in the life settlement contract or in a separate document signed by the owner or insured.

(5) If the life settlement provider transfers ownership or changes the beneficiary of the insurance policy, the provider shall communicate in writing the change in ownership or beneficiary to the insured within 20 days after the change. Any subsequent life settlement purchaser that transfers ownership or changes the beneficiary shall notify the person identified by the life settlement provider under section 11(7)(h), chapter 711, Oregon Laws 2009 (Enrolled Senate Bill 973) in order that the life settlement provider may again notify the insured of the subsequent change in ownership or beneficiary.

(6) Prior to the date the life settlement purchase agreement is signed by all parties, a life settlement provider or its life settlement investment agent shall provide the life settlement purchaser with at least the following disclosures. The disclosures must be conspicuously displayed in any life purchase contract or in a separate document signed by the life settlement purchaser and life settlement provider or life settlement investment agent, and must include the following:

(a) The disclosures required by section 11(5), chapter 711, Oregon Laws 2009 (Enrolled Senate Bill 973); and

(b) A brochure describing the process of investment in life settlements in a form approved by the director. The director shall review the form to determine whether the form is sufficiently similar to the brochure as illustrated on the Insurance Division website.

(7) No later than at the time of the assignment, transfer or sale of all or a portion of an insurance policy, a life settlement provider or its life settlement investment agent shall provide the life settlement purchaser with at least the disclosures required by section 11(7), chapter 711, Oregon Laws 2009 (Enrolled Senate Bill 973).

(8) A life settlement broker shall retain for five years a copy of a disclosure statement given to a person under section (3) of this rule that is signed by the person, in the broker's files.

(9) A life settlement broker to whom a copy of a disclosure statement and signed affidavit is sent by the life settlement provider must retain for five years the copies in the broker's files on the contract.

(10) A life settlement provider shall not enter a life settlement contract affecting a life insurance policy issued by an insurer with which the life settlement provider is affiliated or of which the life settlement provider is a subsidiary, unless the relationship between the insurer and the life settlement provider is fully disclosed, in writing, to the policyholder or certificate holder.

Contacts by Life Settlement Provider or Broker

(1) After a life settlement provider has entered into a life settlement contract, neither the life settlement provider nor the life settlement broker may make contact with the insured:

(a) More frequently than once every three months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one year; and

(b) More frequently than twice each month if the insured has a life expectancy of one year or less.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) The life settlement provider shall explain the procedure for contacts authorized in section (1) of this rule to the insured when the life settlement contract is entered into.

(3) The limitation in this rule on contacts by a life settlement provider or life settlement broker does not apply to contacts initiated by the policyholder, certificate holder or insured, to contacts required to inform the insured of any transfer of ownership under OAR 836-014-0280(5) or for keeping the life insurance policy in force.

(4) The disclosure statement required under OAR 836-014-0280 must include a clear description of the permitted contacts with an insured allowed under section (1) of this rule including an explanation of the purpose of such subsequent contacts.

Reporting Requirements

(1) On or before March 1 of each year, a life settlement provider shall file an annual statement with the director. The information provided in the statement shall be limited to those transactions for which the owner is a resident of Oregon. The statement shall include at a minimum:

(a) Total number and aggregate face amount and life settlement proceeds of policies settled during the immediately preceding calendar year;

(b) A breakdown of the information by policy issue year;

(c) The names of the insurance companies whose policies have been settled; and

(d) The life settlement brokers who have settled the policies.

(2) For each policy for which a life settlement contract has been entered into during the preceding calendar year or that was entered into prior to the preceding calendar year and for which deaths had not yet been reported as of the beginning of the preceding year:

(a) The date the life settlement contract was entered into;

(b) The life expectancy of the insured at the time of the contract;

(c) The face amount of the policy.

(d) The amount paid by the life settlement provider for purposes of making a life settlement on the policy and the percentage that amount represents of the face amount;

(e) If the insured has died:

(A) The date of death; and

(B) The total insurance premiums paid by the life settlement provider to maintain the policy in force; and

(f) The amount of commission paid by the life settlement provider to the life settlement broker.

(3) The annual statement required under section (1) of this rule also shall include a breakdown, by disease category, of applications, received, accepted and rejected during the preceding calendar year.

Requirements for Brokers

(1) A life settlement broker may not seek or obtain any compensation from the policyholder or certificate holder without the written agreement of the policyholder or certificate holder obtained before the broker performs any services in connection with the life settlement.

(2)(a) Unless convicted of a felony as described in section 17(2), chapter 711, Oregon Laws 2009 (Enrolled Senate Bill 973), a life insurance producer meets the licensing requirements of this section and is permitted to operate as a life settlement broker in this state if the producer has been duly licensed:

(A) As a resident insurance producer with a life line of authority in this state for at least one year; or

(B) In the producer's home state for at least one year and is licensed as a nonresident producer in this state.

(b) A life insurance producer qualified to operate as a life settlement broker under this section must:

(A) Not later than 30 days from the date the producer first acts as a life settlement broker, submit an application for a life settlement broker license;

(B) Have in place an anti-fraud plan as required by section 17(10), chapter 711, Oregon Laws 2009 (Enrolled Senate Bill 973); and

(C) Comply with all other requirements of ORS 744.319 to 744.358 pertaining to acting as a life settlement broker.

(3) A life settlement broker may not also be licensed as a life settlement investment agent.

(4) The anti-fraud plan required under this rule must include initiative reasonably calculated to detect, prosecute and prevent fraudulent life settlement acts. The anti-fraud plan must include but need not be limited to:

(a) A provision for use of fraud investigators;

(b) A description of the procedures for detecting and investigating possible fraudulent life settlement acts and procedures to resolve material inconsistencies between medical records and insurance applications;

(c) Procedures for reporting possible fraudulent life settlement activities to the director;

(d) A plan for anti-fraud education and training of the broker's staff and employees; and

(e) A description or organizational chart of the personnel responsible for implementing and maintaining the integrity of the anti-fraud plan.

(f) A demonstration that procedures are in place to prevent any person convicted of a felony involving dishonesty or breach of trust to participate in the life settlement operations of the applicant.

Disclosures Required by Life Insurers

(1) With respect to each policy issued by an insurance company, the insurance company shall provide notice to the owner of an individual life insurance policy when the insured person under such a policy is 60 years of age or older, and:

(a) The life insurance company receives notice from such an owner of a request to surrender, in whole or in part, an individual policy;

(b) The life insurance company receives notice from such an owner of a request to receive an accelerated death benefit under an individual policy; or

(c) The life insurance company sends to such an owner all notices of lapse of an individual policy, other than a term policy.

(2)(a) The notice must consist of the following statement in large, bold or otherwise conspicuous typeface calculated to draw the eye: "Life insurance is a critical part of a broader financial plan. There are many options available, and you have the right to shop suited to your needs." The notice may include the contact information for the Department of Consumer and Business Services as suggested in Exhibit 1 to this rule or in a form similar to the notice in Exhibit 1 to this rule. The director may update the names, telephone numbers, website information and similar information in Exhibit 1 from time to time as necessary.

(b) If the notice does not include the contact information for the department, the communication of the notice must also contain a statement advising the recipient that the recipient may contact the Insurance Division of the Department of Consumer and Business Services for more information. The insurer shall direct the recipient of the communication to either contact the Insurance Division Consumer Advocacy Unit at its toll free telephone number or visit the Division's website at the website address currently provided by the Division as Exhibit 1 to this rule as may be updated from time to time on the Division website.

Fees

(1) The following fees apply to certificates of authority:

(a) The fee for application for a certificate of authority to transact insurance as an insurer is $2,500. The fee for application as a domestic insurer must be paid when application for a permit to organize as a domestic insurer is made. Otherwise, the fee must be paid when the application for the certificate is made;

(b) The fee for annual continuation of a certificate of authority issued under subsection (a) of this section is $1,500;

(c) The fee for reinstatement of a certificate of authority is $100.

(2) The fees in this section apply to examinations for licenses for insurance producers, adjusters and insurance consultants. The fees may be charged by the examination vendor under contract with the Department of Consumer and Business Services and are as follows:

(a) Examination fees:

(A) Insurance producer, property and casualty insurance or life and health insurance — $65;

(B) Insurance producer, property insurance only, casualty insurance only, personal lines insurance only, life insurance only or health insurance only — $55;

(C) Surplus lines licensee — $55;

(D) Adjuster, general lines insurance or life and health insurance — $55;

(E) Adjuster, health insurance or any single other line designated by rule — $55;

(F) Consultant, life and health insurance or general lines insurance — $55;

(G) Consultant, life insurance only, health insurance only or any other single line designated by rule — $55;

(b) Reexamination fees, to be charged when the applicant retakes an examination:

(A) Insurance producer, property and casualty insurance or life and health insurance — $65;

(B) Insurance producer, property insurance only, casualty insurance only, personal lines insurance only, life insurance only or health insurance only — $55;

(C) Surplus lines licensee — $55;

(D) Adjuster, general lines insurance or life and health insurance — $55;

(E) Adjuster, health insurance or any single other line designated by rule — $55;

(F) Consultant, life and health insurance or general lines insurance — $55;

(G) Consultant, life insurance only, health insurance only or any other single line designated by rule — $55;

(c) For purposes of the fees charged under subsections (a) and (b) of this section:

(A) Surety is included in the casualty insurance line and marine and transportation insurance may be included in the property insurance line or the casualty insurance line; and

(B) The personal lines line is a subcategory of the casualty insurance line. Consequently, a person who holds a license that is endorsed to transact casualty insurance need not obtain a separate endorsement to transact personal lines insurance.

(3) The following fees apply to application for licenses for insurance producers, adjusters and insurance consultants:

(a) Resident insurance producer — $30;

(b) Nonresident insurance producer — $30;

(c) Adjuster — $30;

(d) Insurance consultant — $30.

(4) The following fees apply to issuance of licenses for insurance producers, adjusters and insurance consultants:

(a) Resident insurance producer — $45;

(b) Nonresident insurance producer — $45;

(c) Adjuster — $45;

(d) Insurance consultant — $45;

(e) In addition, the actual cost of any criminal records check under 836-072-0010. The amount charged will not exceed the actual cost of acquiring and furnishing criminal offender information as authorized by ORS 181.534(9)(g).

(5) The examination fee under section (2) of this rule must be paid to the examination vendor. The application fee under section (3) of this rule and the license issuance fee under section (4) of this rule must be paid at the same time. There is no refund of the application and examination fees. Refund of the license issuance fee is governed by section (14) of this rule.

(6) The fees established in this section apply to the renewal of licenses for insurance producers, adjusters and insurance consultants. A license expires biennially in the month of the individual's birthday anniversary. The fees are as follows:

(a) Resident insurance producer — $45;

(b) Nonresident insurance producer — $45;

(c) Adjuster — $45;

(d) Insurance consultant — $45.

(7) The applicable fee under sections (3) and (4) of this rule shall be paid for each category of insurance business appearing on a license.

(8) The following fees apply to certificates of registration for legal expense organizations:

(a) Application for a certificate of registration — $350;

(b) Renewal of certificate of registration — $350. The fee under this subsection shall be paid annually.

(9) Annual registration of a foreign risk retention group — $350. The fee under this section shall be paid at the time of initial registration and annually thereafter.

(10) Annual registration of a purchasing group — $100. The fee under this section shall be paid at the time of initial registration and annually thereafter.

(11) The license for a rating organization — $180. The fee under this section shall be paid at the time of initial licensing and triennially thereafter.

(12) The fee for filing a statement by an acquiring party under ORS 732.521 for the purpose of acquiring a controlling interest in an insurer (a "Form A" filing as prescribed in OAR 836-027-0100) is $50 per hour of Division staff time spent on reviewing the statement, with a minimum fee of $5,000.

(13) The Fire Marshal shall pay $50,000 each year for services provided by the Department in the collection of gross premium taxes on insurance covering the peril of fire under ORS 731.820.

(14) Fees paid as required under this rule are not refundable except as provided in this section. If the Director determines that an amount paid exceeds the amount legally due and payable to the Department and the amount of the overpayment is less than $20, the Department shall refund the amount only upon receipt of a written request from the payer or the representative of the payer. A fee paid for a license under section (4) of this rule is refundable if the license applicant fails the examination or if the license is otherwise not issued to the applicant.

(15) The amendments to section (2)(a), (b) and (d) of this rule that were filed in ID 15-2002 with the Secretary of State on June 26, 2002 to become effective on July 1, 2002, are re-adopted with the operative date of July 1, 2002, and those same amendments to section (2)(a) and (b) of this rule are repealed effective July 1, 2003.

Adjuster and Insurance Consultant License Application; Required Information

(1) In addition to information required under ORS 744.001, an applicant for an adjuster or insurance consultant license shall provide the following information relating to the applicant, as applicable on the application form:

(a) Date and place of birth;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Duration of employment in insurance. Include the beginning and ending dates and the names and addresses of each employer and prior places of business in the insurance industry;

(c) All states and provinces of Canada in which the applicant currently holds a license to engage in the transaction of insurance, or has held such a license within ten years prior to the date of the application;

(d) Any assumed business name or alias ever used;

(e) Whether any firm or corporation of which the applicant is or has been a member, officer or director has ever filed for bankruptcy or been adjudged a bankrupt;

(f) The Social Security number of the applicant; and

(g) If the applicant is a firm or corporation, the name of all current officers, directors and stockholders who own more than ten percent of any class of equity security of the applicant.

(2) An applicant for a resident adjuster or insurance consultant license who is or has been licensed as a resident producer, adjuster or insurance consultant in another state or a province of Canada within five years prior to the date of application shall include with the application a statement that the resident license is inactive or no longer valid from the insurance department of the state or province in which the applicant is or was last authorized to transact insurance.

(3) An applicant for a non-resident adjuster or insurance consultant license who is licensed as a resident producer, adjuster or insurance consultant in another state or province of Canada shall include with the application a statement of current licensure from the insurance department of the state or province in which the applicant was authorized to transact insurance as a resident licensee. The statement must indicate that the applicant has a current license for the class or classes of insurance that are being applied for in Oregon. The statement must be dated not earlier than the 90th day prior to the date of application. The exemption to the adjuster licensing examination in ORS 744.535(2) applies only to non-resident adjuster licensing.

(4) The Director may collect Social Security numbers submitted in applications under this rule and may use a Social Security number of an individual when authorized to do so for the purposes specified in this section. In addition to the governmental uses for which a Social Security number is required in an application under federal and state law, when authorized by the holder of a Social Security number, the Director may use a Social Security number for any of the following purposes:

(a) As an identification number in maintaining records and reporting grades or examination scores;

(b) For licensing purposes; and

(c) For use by other government agencies to carry out their statutory duties.

(5) An applicant may voluntarily allow the Director to use the Social Security number of the applicant, as the Director may request in the application form, for the purposes specified in section (4) of this rule. Refusal to voluntarily allow such use of the Social Security number will not result in the denial of any individual right, benefit or privilege provided by law. The use authorized by an applicant is in addition to uses authorized by state and federal law for which collection of Social Security numbers is mandatory.

Adjuster or Insurance Consultant License Renewal

(1) The adjuster or insurance consultant license of an individual expires biennially in the month of the individual's birthday anniversary. The adjuster or insurance consultant license of a person other than an individual expires on the last day of the month in which the second anniversary of the initial issuance date occurs. Thereafter, the license of a person other than an individual shall expire on the second anniversary following each renewal.

(2) An adjuster or insurance consultant licensee applying for renewal must do the following, as applicable:

(a) Submit a completed renewal application, on a form provided by the Director. If mailed, the renewal application must be postmarked by the United States Postal Service not later than the license expiration date;

(b) Submit the renewal fee;

(c) Submit a statement of current license status from the insurance department of the state of residence of the licensee, if the licensee is a non-resident licensee; and

(d) Furnish evidence of current Federal Crop Insurance Corporation certification, if the applicant is a crop insurance adjuster.

(3) The Director may allow an adjuster or insurance consultant licensee not more than 30 days to submit missing information on the application form if the fees have been submitted on or before the expiration date.

(4) The Director may request on the renewal application any information requested on the original application for a license.

(5) For the purpose of making the transition to renewal according to birth date month as provided in this rule, the adjuster or insurance consultant license of an individual that would have expired on or after November 27, 2007 according to this rule as the rule read prior to November 27, 2007 expires instead in the birth date month next following the former expiration date.

Subject: This rulemaking amends temporary rules adopted December 22, 2009 to reflect changes necessary to correct an erroneous calculation of the effective date of federal legislation that the temporary rules adopted on December 22, 2009 were intended to implement. Because eligibility dates and notice requirements are tied to the effective date of the federal legislation, it is necessary to amend the temporary rules to correctly align with the federal provisions, which provide a subsidy for Oregonians who continue their health insurance coverage in the state continuation program.

Oregonians who lose their jobs have two options to continue coverage under their group health plan. If their former employer has twenty or more workers, they are eligible under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA). If their former employer has fewer than twenty workers, they are eligible under Oregon's state continuation law. In February 2009, the federal economic stimulus package extended a 65 percent subsidy for up to nine months of coverage. Recognizing the need for changes to state law to allow Oregonians to obtain the full advantage of the federal subsity, the Oregon Legislative Assembly enacted House Bill 2433, which extends the period of eligibility for state continuation coverage from six to nine months and allows the Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services to adopt rules as necessary to allow Oregonians to take full advantage of the benefits provided by the federal law including additional extensions of the period of eligibility to match future extensions or changes in the federal subsidy or COBRA program. On December 19, 2009, President Obama signed HR 3326, the Fiscal Year 2010 Defense Appropriations Act, which extends the COBRA benefits. This date was first mistakenly reported as December 21, 2009. These rules amend earlier-adopted provisions to implement House Bill 2433 to match extensions of the federal benefits included in HR 3326. The federal act extends the eligibility period for the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act premium reduction for an additional two months (through February 28, 2010) and the maximum period for receiving the subsidy for an additional six months (from nine to 15 months). These temporary rules make the same changes to the state continuation program allowing Oregonians enrolled in the state continuation plans to receive the maximum subsidy provided by the federal law.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Definitions

As used in OAR 836-053-0850 to 836-053-0885:

(1) "American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009" means the Public Law 111-5 as amended by the Fiscal Year 2010 Defense Appropriations Act (HR 3326).

(2) "Certificate holder" means any covered employee or qualified beneficiary who:

- Is eligible for continuation coverage;
- Elects continuation coverage;
- Is subject to a qualifying event; and
- Is considered an assistance eligible individual under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (P.L. 111-5).

(3) "Covered employee" means a certificate holder who has been insured continuously under a policy or similar predecessor policy during the three-month period ending on the date of the termination of employment or membership.

(4)(a) "Qualified beneficiary" means a covered employee under a group health plan or any other individual who, on the day before the qualifying event for that employee, is a beneficiary under that plan as the spouse of the covered employee or as the dependent child of the employee, including a child born or placed for adoption after the qualifying event or during the period the covered employee is eligible for continuation coverage.

(b) An individual is not a qualified beneficiary if:

(A) The individual is eligible for Federal Medicare coverage.

(B) The individual is eligible for any other group health plan. This limitation does not apply to coverage consisting only of:

- Dental, vision, counseling, or referral services;
- Coverage under a health flexible spending arrangement as defined in section 106(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; or
- Treatment that is furnished in an on-site medical facility maintained by an employer.

(C) An individual is not a qualified beneficiary only for purposes of receiving a premium subsidy if the individual is a domestic partner.

(5) "Qualifying event" means involuntary termination of employment during the period beginning September 1, 2008 and ending February 28, 2010.

(6)(a) "Transition period" means, with respect to any assistance eligible individual, any period of coverage if:

(A) The period begins before December 19, 2009; and

(B) The subsidy allowed under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 applies to such period due to the extension of the state continuation period to 15 months.

(b) Any period of time during the transition period for which the assistance eligible individual pays the applicable premium under OAR 836-053-0865(9) shall be treated as a period of coverage for which timely payment of premium was paid, irrespective of any failure to timely pay the applicable premium for such period.

Notification

(1) An insurer subject to the requirements of ORS 743.610 and chapter 73, Oregon Laws 2009 (Enrolled House Bill 2433) shall provide a notice explaining continuation of benefits directly to individuals losing group coverage, for any reason other than group replacement of coverage, within 10 days following the date of any administrative action taken by an insurer to initiate or document the loss of coverage.

(2) The insurer providing the notice required under section (1) of this rule shall include in the notice at least the following information:

- Contact information for the employee to reach the insurer;
- Forms and instructions about how to complete and return the forms and to whom (i.e., going through employer or direct to insurer);
- A clear statement explaining availability of premium subsidy;
- Premium information or directions for determining the premium amount for each qualified beneficiary and instructions for submitting the premium;
- A clear statement about who is eligible to continue coverage;
- Information about how to enroll in different coverage if allowed by the employer;
- Instructions about the employee's responsibility to notify the insurer if the employee becomes ineligible for the subsidy; and
- Instructions about how to appeal denials for treatment as a certificate holder.

(3)(a) In the case of an individual who was an assistance eligible individual at any time on or after October 31, 2009, or experiences a qualifying event (consisting of termination of employment) relating to state continuation coverage on or after October 31, 2009, the insurer shall provide, no later than February 17, 2010, an additional notification consisting of the following:

(A) A qualifying event means involuntary termination of employment during the period of September 1, 2008 and ending February 28, 2010;

(B) Assistance eligible individuals are eligible to continue coverage for a period of fifteen months beginning with the coverage month first following the qualifying event;

(C) A transition period exists for assistance eligible individuals who became eligible for a premium subsidy under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 before December 19, 2009 and whose state continuation coverage has now been extended to fifteen months due to availability of the subsidy for that period of time;

(D) Assistance eligible individuals who did not timely pay the premium for any period of coverage during their transition period may now pay premiums retroactively in accordance with OAR 836-053-0865(9).

(b) In the case of a qualifying event occurring after December 19, 2009, the insurer shall provide notification consistent with this rule.

(4) In the case of an assistance eligible individual who did not timely pay the premium for any period of coverage during the individual's transition period the insurer shall provide to the individual, within the first 60 days of the start of the individual's transition period, an additional notification. The additional notification shall include the information required in section (3) of this rule and information on the ability to make retroactive premium payments in accordance with OAR 836-053-0865(9) with respect to the transition period of the individual in order to maintain state continuation coverage.

Provisions Relating to Premium Subsidy for State Continuation Coverage

(1) In order to maximize the benefit to Oregonians under the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (P.L. 111-5), certain qualified beneficiaries are eligible for:

- Premium subsidy for continuation of coverage;
- An opportunity to elect continuation of coverage that is in addition to the period allowed under ORS 743.610(5);
- Continuation of coverage for a period of time that exceeds the period allowed under ORS 743.610(7)(a); and
- An option to enroll in different coverage if the employer permits certificate holders to elect enrollment in different coverage.

(2) After receiving the attestation from an employer stating that the employee meets the requirements of a certificate holder and the date of the qualifying event, an insurer is required to accept timely payment of the certificate holder's 35 percent share of the total premium as full payment of the premium and process claims as though 100 percent of the total premium due has been paid.

(3) (a) The following certificate holders qualify for a second opportunity to elect continuation of coverage if the group health plan remains in effect:

(A) Certificate holders who did not elect to continue coverage during the period allowed under ORS 743.610(5) prior to April 28, 2009; and

(B) Certificate holders who elected continuation coverage during the period allowed under ORS 743.610(5) but whose continuation coverage ended for any reason prior to April 28, 2009;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Within 31 calendar days after the insurer provides the notice required under OAR 836-053-0860(1), certificate holders who received the notice under paragraph (a) of this subsection must return the following items according to instructions provided by the insurer:

- (A) Completed forms for electing state continuation coverage and requesting treatment as a certificate holder;
- (B) The individual's tax identification number;
- (C) Form for Switching State Continuation Coverage Benefit Options, if offered; and
- (D) The initial premium if required.

(c) Certificate holders who became eligible on or after September 1, 2008 and prior to April 28, 2009 are eligible to continue coverage while the group health plan remains in effect, and upon timely payment of their portion of the premium, for 15 months of continuation coverage beginning with the coverage month first following the qualifying event.

(d) The effective date for continuation coverage issued in response to a second election of coverage will be the later of the first day of the coverage month on or after February 17, 2009 or the first day of the coverage month first following the qualifying event.

(4)(a) Within 31 calendar days after the insurer provides the notice required under OAR 836-053-0860(1), certificate holders who become eligible on or after April 28, 2009 must return the following items according to any instructions provided by the insurer:

- (A) Forms for electing state continuation coverage and requesting treatment as a certificate holder;
- (B) The individual's tax identification number;
- (C) The form for switching state continuation coverage benefit options, if offered; and
- (D) The initial premium, if required.

(b) A certificate holder who becomes eligible on or after April 28, 2009 is eligible to continue coverage for a period of 15 months beginning with the coverage month first following the qualifying event. However, the premium subsidy available to the individual shall not exceed any period of limitation specified in the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (P.L. 111-5)

(5) A certificate holder may elect to enroll in different coverage as described in subsection (1) (d) of this rule if:

(a) The employer permits certificate holders to enroll in different coverage;

(b) The premium for the different coverage does not exceed the premium for coverage in which the certificate holder was enrolled at the time of the qualifying event;

(c) The different coverage in which the individual elects to enroll is coverage that is also offered to the active employees of the employer at the time the individual makes the election; and

(d) The different coverage is not:

(A) Coverage that provides only dental, vision, counseling or referral services, or a combination of such services;

(B) A flexible spending arrangement as defined in section 106(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; or

(C) Coverage that provides coverage for services or treatments furnished in an on-site medical facility maintained by the employer and that consists primarily of first-aid services, prevention and wellness care or similar care, or a combination of such care.

(6) The period of time beginning on the date of the qualifying event and ending with the effective date of continuation coverage shall be disregarded for purposes of determining periods of creditable coverage under ORS 743.754, 743.737, and 743.766.

(7) A premium subsidy is not available to a certificate holder who becomes eligible for coverage under any other group health plan or Medicare. An individual paying a reduced premium for continuation coverage as described in this section must promptly notify the insurer if they become eligible for other group health plan coverage or Medicare.

(8) Certificate holders who elected continuation on or after September 1, 2008 and prior to April 28, 2009, are eligible to continue coverage while the group health plan remains in effect, and upon timely payment of their portion of the premium, for a period of 15 months beginning with the coverage month first following the qualifying event

(9) In the case of any premium for a period of coverage during an assistance eligible individual's transition period, the individual shall be treated for purposes of any state continuation provision as having timely paid the amount of such premium if:

(a) The individual was covered under the state continuation coverage to which the premium relates for the period of coverage immediately preceding the transition period; and

(b) The individual pays the individual's 35 percent share of the total premium:

(A) Not later than February 17, 2010; or

(B) If the transition period extends beyond February 17, 2010, not later than 30 days after the date notification required under OAR 836-053-0860(4) is provided to the individual.

(10) In the case of an assistance eligible individual who pays, with respect to any period of state continuation coverage during the individual's transition period, the full premium amount for such coverage, the insurer shall:

- (a) Make a reimbursement payment to the individual for the amount of premium paid in excess of the 35 percent share of the total premium; or
- (b) Provide credit to the individual for the amount in a manner that reduces one or more subsequent premium payments that the individual is required to pay for the coverage involved.

Certified to be Effective: 1-4-10 thru 7-3-10

Notice Publication Date:

Rules Adopted: 291-180-0274

Subject: Adoption of this rule is necessary to establish an application fee for offenders seeking to transfer supervision to another state under the Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision as required in Oregon Laws 2009, Ch 742 (Senate Bill 74). The supervisory authority collects the fee and forwards it to the Governor's office for deposit in the Arrest and Return Account.

Rules Coordinator: Janet R. Worley—(503) 945-0933

291-180-0274

Application Fee for Interstate Compact Transfers

(1) Payment of NonRefundable Application Fee Required:

(a) Offenders on probation, parole, or post-prison supervision who request transfer of their supervision to another state under the compact must submit a nonrefundable application fee of $50.00 to the supervisory authority before the Department of Corrections will process the offender's transfer request.

(b) Payment of an additional application fee will not be required of offenders for processing revised or subsequent requests for transfer of their supervision to the same state. However, offenders who request transfer of their supervision to the same state after being returned to Oregon from the receiving state from a previous compact transfer, and offenders that make a subsequent request for transfer of their supervision to a different state must pay a new application fee.

(2) The supervisory authority shall collect the application fee and forward it to the Governor's Office for deposit in the Arrest and Return Account as defined in ORS 133.865.

(a) The fee shall be paid and collected in the form of a bank money order or cashier's check made payable and mailed to "State of Oregon, c/o Director of Extradition Services, Governor's Office, Room 160 State Capitol Building, Salem, OR 97310"

(b) The payment should be identified as an Interstate Compact Application fee and include the offender's name and SID number.

(3) The application fee is not subject to waiver; however, upon the recommendation of the supervisory authority, the Department of Corrections may reduce the amount of the fee by up to 50%. In determining if a fee reduction is warranted, the supervisory authority shall consider:

(a) The offender's financial resources;

(b) The burden the application fee will impose in light of the offender's overall obligations;

(c) The rehabilitative effect of the application fee and compact transfer; and

(d) The community's interests in the transfer of the offender.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Rules Suspended: 330-075-0030

Subject: During the 2009 session the legislature, through House Bill 2626, the definition of energy supplier changed for the purposes of assessment. This change added generation and distribution to the definition of activities eligible for inclusion under the energy supplier assessment. To implement this change and remain consistent with statute the ESA rules require amendment. In addition, changes were made to the timing of the assessment related to the gross operating revenue for 2008 and the one time special assessment.

Rules Coordinator: Kathy Stuttaford—(503) 378-4128

Purpose

These rules specify the form and content of information regarding Oregon gross operating revenues and energy sales to be submitted to the Department of Energy by energy resource suppliers. Such submittals are pursuant to ORS 469.421 as amended by Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 753. The information will be used to calculate annual assessments on energy resource suppliers.

330-075-0010

Timing

(1) Annual Assessment for the 2009 calendar year. The energy supplier assessment based on 2008 operating revenue shall be assessed to energy resource suppliers who supply electricity, natural gas or petroleum products in Oregon.

(2) Special Assessment. For the purposes of assessing the special assessment, the department may collect information relating to the annual gross operating revenue from all energy resource suppliers who supply, generate, transmit or distribute electricity, natural gas or petroleum products in Oregon. The submission deadline of May 2009 is extended to allow reporting and special assessment of gross operating revenues from the 2008 calendar year. Reporting forms shall be provided by the Department to energy resource suppliers who have not previously reported 2008 revenues, with a submission deadline of two weeks following the distribution of forms. The information shall be used to determine the gross operating revenue for that supplier ratio.

(3) For the purposes of determining the assessment under ORS 469.421 and these rules, the director will enter an order establishing the amount assessed to each energy resource supplier. Any assessment shall not be considered due and payable until the director enters an order. Penalties may be assessed by the director on amounts remaining due 60 days following the distribution of a copy of the order to an energy resource supplier.

Energy Resource Suppliers Gross Operating Revenue Reporting Requirements

(1) Energy resource suppliers with one or more locations or service areas in Oregon shall complete and submit the appropriate Department-supplied form or forms based on the suppliers energy type. The information provided on the forms shall when appropriate: Contain information relating to total gross operating revenue derived from the energy resource supplier's operations within Oregon during the most recently completed calendar year. Energy resource suppliers whose energy generation, transmission or distribution activities within Oregon are undertaken to directly supply the suppliers operations at the same location and not for the primary purpose of distribution or sale, shall report only gross operating revenue from supplying, generating, transmitting or distributing energy to another person when the person is not an energy resource supplier; and contain gross operating revenues relating to wholesale and retail sales by the petroleum supplier of distillate fuel oil within Oregon during the most recently completed calendar year.

(2) Except as provided in OAR 330-075-0035, every energy resource supplier with one or more locations in Oregon shall submit a completed Department-supplied form on or before May 1 of each year. Forms shall be considered submitted as of the post mark date or receipt at the Department, whichever is earlier.

Extension of Submission Deadline

(1) Any energy resource supplier which finds it cannot meet the deadline set forth in OAR 330-075-0025 may apply to the Director for an extension of time. The written application shall include the following:

- (a) The reasons why the deadline cannot be met;
- (b) The measures being taken to comply with the deadline; and
- (c) The date on which the energy resource supplier intends to submit the required form(s).

(2) A petition for extension of time must be submitted no later than 15 days before the deadline from which an extension is sought.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(3) The Director may grant an extension of not more than fifteen days if:

(a) The energy supplier makes a showing of hardship caused by the deadline;

(b) The energy supplier provides reasonable assurance that the energy supplier can comply with the revised deadline; and

(c) The extension of time does not prevent the department from fulfilling its statutory responsibilities.

Pass-through Option Facilities

(1) A Pass-through Partner may accept a Business Energy Tax Credit certificate on behalf of an applicant with a facility that is otherwise eligible for the tax credit in return for a cash lump-sum pass through payment equivalent to the net present value of the transferable tax credit. For the purposes of these rules, the net present value of the pass through payment is calculated based on the formulas below:

(a) For original precertifications issued on or after January 1, 2010:

(A) For a five year tax credit issued to a renewable energy resource equipment manufacturing facility as defined in ORS 469.185(13), to a public body as defined in ORS 174.109 or to a Federally recognized Indian tribe in Oregon. The net present value is determined by taking the total tax credit amount divided by the sum of one plus three times the five year United States Treasury Note minus the average of the net change for the three previous calendar years of the urban Consumer Price Index (CPI) for the west region based on the index published on the first day of the calendar quarter and the first day of the same calendar quarter for the previous three calendar years exponentially raised by 5. Tax Credit/[1+ (3(5 year Treasury Note) - 3 Year average net change of the Urban CPI for West region)]5

(B) For a five year tax credit issued to an applicant other than those described in subsection (A) of this rule. The net present value is determined by taking the tax credit amount divided by the sum of one plus two times the five year United States Treasury Note minus the net change for the three previous calendar years of the urban Consumer Price Index (CPI) for the west region based on the index published on the first day of the calendar quarter and the first day of the same calendar quarter for the same calendar quarter for the previous three calendar years exponentially raised by 5. Tax Credit/[1+ (2(5 year Treasury Note) - 3 Year average net change of the Urban CPI for West region)]5

(C) For a one year tax credit. The net present value is determined by taking the tax credit amount divided by the sum of one plus two times the two year United States Treasury Note minus the urban CPI for the west region published on the first day of the same calendar quarter for the tax credit year in which pre-certification is issued. Tax Credit/[1 +(2(2 year Treasury Note) - Urban CPI for West region)]

(D) The formula shall be calculated on the first of each calendar quarter by using the appropriate treasury note rate published by the United States Treasury on the 15th of the month preceding the calendar quarter and the appropriate current and past urban consumer price index values as published by the U.S. Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics on the first day of the appropriate calendar quarter and the first day of the appropriate calendar quarter of the previous three years as determined by the formulas contained in this rule.

(E) The net present value of the tax credit shall be calculated on the first of each calendar quarter beginning January 1, 2010. If the five year or two year United States Treasury Note yield changes by less than a whole percentage point from the rate used in the previous calendar quarter, then the department shall continue to use the previous quarters' net present value for the new calendar quarter. For the purposes of this subsection, when a net present value is used for more than one quarter, the United States Treasury Note rate used to calculate the net present value shall be considered the quarters' United States Treasury Note rate.

(b) For original pre certifications issued on or before December 31, 2009:

(A) 50% BETC more than $20,000 in eligible costs — 33.5% pass-through rate;

(B) 50% BETC $20,000 or less in eligible costs — 43.5% pass-through rate.

(C) 35% BETC more than $20,000 in eligible costs — 25.5% pass-through rate.

(D) 35% BETC $20,000 or less in eligible costs — 30.5% pass-through rate.

(E) Homebuilder Installed Renewable Energy Facility or High Performance Home tax credits — 87% of tax credit amount.

(c) If an applicant elects to use the pass through option, the net present value of the pass through payment for a facility is determined by the date the department issues the initial preliminary certification for the project.

(2) An Investor-Owned Utility may choose to become a utility Pass-Through Partner under the provisions of this section or participate as a Pass-Through Partner under other Provisions of these rules that would apply to any other Pass-Through Partner.

(a) An investor-owned utility (IOU) that complies with this section may choose to become a Utility Pass-Through Partner.

(b) Preliminary certification standards and process:

(A) The application for preliminary certification must include an estimate of the total installation cost of the qualifying measures for which the applicant expects to make payments under OAR 330-090-0140(2) for that year.

(B) Within 60 days after an application for preliminary certification of the pass-through is filed, the Director shall decide if it is complete. If it is not complete, the application will be rejected and returned to the applicant. The applicant may resubmit a complete application.

(C) Within 120 days after a completed application is filed, the Director shall notify the applicant of the status of the application, if the applicant has not been notified otherwise that the application has been approved or denied.

(D) The application for preliminary certification of the pass-through must include a supplemental work plan, which includes a copy, or reference to any proposed or required OPUC tariff and all evaluations of the program through which the pass-through will be delivered. The applicant and ODOE must mutually agree upon the work plan and program.

(c) Final certification standards and process: Final application for a pass-through tax credit must include a summary and total of each facility's owner, site address, facility description or type, number of dwelling units for multifamily facilities, total facility cost, energy savings, energy type saved and tax credit amount passed through. The applicant must retain records for each facility including all of the information required in 110-090-0130(4) of these rules.

(A) By the last working day of each month but not more than once per month, an applicant may apply to the Director for final certification. An application must contain:

(i) An itemized list of costs for each rental dwelling unit weatherized, premium efficient appliance, each alternative fuel vehicle, alternative fuel vehicle for company use, and alternative fuel fueling station, solar or other renewable resource and the total facility costs made that period for which the applicant is applying for credit.

(ii) The nominal value of credits for which the applicant applies.

(iii) The name, address, and phone number of the owner of each rental unit, alternative fuel vehicle, or alternative fuel fueling station listed in OAR 330-090-0140(2)(c)(A)(i).

(iv) Certification that each rental dwelling unit energy conservation measure (ECM) is defined in the BETC Technical Requirements as a measure that would qualify under or is a measure recommended in an energy audit completed under ORS 469.633(2).

(v) Certification that the ECMs paid for were installed and inspected in accordance with the IOU's appropriate allowed tariff(s),

(vi) Certification that the ECMs paid for were installed and inspected in accordance with the IOUs' Model Conservation Standards tariff or equivalent program as approved by ODOE.

(vii) If the facility costs are $50,000 or more or if required by the Director, a written review and summary completed by a certified public accountant, who is not otherwise employed by the facility owner or pass-through partner, of costs paid based on canceled checks, invoices, receipts, a binding contract or agreement, or other documentation as may be required by OAR 330-090-0110(19).

(viii) If a contractor installed fueling station: the name, address, and phone number of the contractor as defined under OAR 330-090-0130(4) of this rule and the site at which the fueling station is installed.

(ix) The last final certification application filed each year must include complete evaluation(s) as defined in the applicant approved preliminary certification(s).

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Category II — The Department will provide public notice of the proposed permit action and a minimum of 30 days to submit written comments.

(c) Category III — The Department will provide notice of the proposed permit action and a minimum of 35 days to submit written comments. The Department will provide a minimum of 30 days notice for a hearing, if one is scheduled. The Department will schedule a hearing to allow interested persons to submit oral or written comments if:

(A) The Department determines that a hearing is necessary; or

(B) Within 35 days of the mailing of the public notice, the Department receives written requests from ten persons, or from an organization representing at least ten persons, for a hearing.

(d) Category IV — Once an application is considered complete under OAR 340-216-0040, the Department will:

(A) Provide notice of the completed application and requested permit action;

(B) Schedule an informational meeting within the community where the facility will be or is located and provide public notice of the meeting;

(C) Once a draft permit is completed, provide public notice of the proposed permit and a minimum of 40 days to submit written comments; and

(D) Schedule a public hearing to allow interested persons to submit oral or written comments and provide a minimum of 30 days public notice for the hearing.

(4) Except for title V permit actions, the Department may move a permit action to a higher category under section (3) of this rule based on, but not limited to the following factors:

(a) Anticipated public interest in the facility;

(b) Compliance and enforcement history of the facility or owner; or

(c) Potential for significant environmental or public harm due to location or type of facility.

340-210-0100

Registration in General

(1) Any air contaminant source not subject to Air Contaminant Discharge Permits, OAR 340 division 216, or Oregon Title V Operating Permits, OAR 340 division 218, must register with the Department upon request pursuant to 340-210-0110 through 340-210-0120.

(2) The following air contaminant sources that are certified through a Department approved environmental certification program and subject to an Area Source NESHAP may register with the Department pursuant to 340-210-0110 through 340-210-0120 in lieu of obtaining a permit in accordance with OAR 340-216-0020, unless the Department determines that the source has not complied with the requirements of the environmental certification program.

(a) Motor vehicle surface coating operations.

(b) Dry cleaners using perchloroethylene.

(3) Approved environmental certification program. To be approved, the environmental certification program must, at a minimum, require certified air contaminant sources to comply with all applicable state and federal rules and regulations and require additional measures to increase environmental protection.

(4) Fees. In order to obtain and maintain registration, owners and operators of air contaminant sources registered pursuant to section (2) of this rule must pay the following annual fees by March 1 of each year:

(a) Motor vehicle surface coating operations — $240.00.

(b) Dry cleaners using perchloroethylene — $180.00.

(c) Late fees.

(A) 30 days late: 5% of annual fee.

(B) 31-60 days late: 10% of annual fee.

(C) 61 or more days late: 20% of annual fee.

(d) Failure to pay fees. Registration is automatically terminated upon failure to pay annual fees within 90 days of invoice by the Department, unless prior arrangements for payment have been approved in writing by the Department.

(5) Recordkeeping. In order to maintain registration, owners and operators of air contaminant sources registered pursuant to section (2) of this rule must maintain records required by the approved environmental performance program under section (3) of this rule. The records must be kept on site and in a form suitable and readily available for expeditious inspection and review.

(6) Revocation. The Department may revoke a registration if a source fails to meet any requirement in OAR 340-210-0110.

NOTE: This rule is included in the State of Oregon Clean Air Act Implementation Plan as adopted by the EQC under OAR 340-200-0040.

Registration Requirements

(1) Registration must be completed within 30 days following the mailing date of the request by the Department.

(2) Registration must be made on forms furnished by the Department and completed by the owner, lessee of the source, or agent.

(3) In order to obtain registration pursuant to OAR 340-210-0100(1), the following information must be reported by registrants:

(a) Name, address, and nature of business;

(b) Name of local person responsible for compliance with these rules;

(c) Name of person authorized to receive requests for data and information;

(d) A description of the production processes and a related flow chart;

(e) A plot plan showing the location and height of all air contaminant sources. The plot plan must also indicate the nearest residential or commercial property;

(f) Type and quantity of fuels used;

(g) Amount, nature, and duration of air contaminant emissions;

(h) Estimated efficiency of air pollution control equipment under present or anticipated operating conditions;

(i) Any other information requested by the Department.

(4) In order to obtain registration pursuant to OAR 340-210-0100(2), a source must submit the information in section (3)(a), (b), (c), and (i) of this rule and the following:

(a) Information demonstrating that the air contaminant source is operating in compliance with all applicable state and federal rules and regulations, as requested by the Department.

(b) Information demonstrating that the source is certified through an approved environmental certification program.

(c) A signed statement that the submitted information is true, accurate, and complete. This signed statement shall state that, based on information and belief formed after reasonable inquiry, the statements and information in the document are true, accurate, and complete.

Re-Registration

(1) In order to re-register or maintain registration, a person responsible for an air contaminant source must reaffirm in writing, by March 1 of each year, the correctness and current status of the information furnished to the Department.

(2) Any change in any of the factual data reported under OAR 340-210-0110(3) or (4) must be reported to the Department, at which time re-registration may be required on forms furnished by the Department.

(3) In order to re-register, a person must not have had their registration terminated or revoked within the last 3 years, unless the air contaminant source has changed ownership since termination or revocation.

340-216-0020

Applicability

This division applies to all sources referred to in Table 1. This division also applies to Oregon Title V Operating Permit program sources when an ACDP is required by OAR 340-218-0020 or 340-224-0010. Sources referred to in Table 1 are subject to fees as set forth in Table 2.

(1) No person may construct, install, establish, develop or operate any air contaminant source which is referred to in Table 1 without first obtaining an Air Contaminant Discharge Permit (ACDP) from the Department or Regional Authority, unless otherwise deferred from the requirement to obtain an ACDP in subsection (1)(c) or (d) of this rule. No person may continue to operate an air contaminant source if the ACDP expires, or is terminated or revoked; except as provided in OAR 340-216-0082.

(a) For portable sources, a single permit may be issued for operating at any area of the state if the permit includes the requirements from both the Department and Regional Authorities.

(b) The Department or Regional Authority where the portable source's Corporate offices are located will be responsible for issuing the permit. If the corporate office of a portable source is located outside of the state, the Department will be responsible for issuing the permit.

(c) An air contaminant source required to obtain an ACDP or ACDP Attachment pursuant to a NESHAP or NSPS adopted by the Commission by rule is not required to submit an application for an ACDP or ACDP

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Attachment until four months after the effective date of the Commission's adoption of the NESHAP or NSPS, and is not required to obtain an ACDP or ACDP Attachment until six months after the Commission's adoption of the NESHAP or NSPS. In addition, the Department may defer the requirement to submit an application for, or to obtain an ACDP or ACDP Attachment, or both, for up to an additional six months.

(d) Gasoline dispensing facilities are not required to submit an application for an ACDP or ACDP Attachment until May 1, 2010 or obtain an ACDP or ACDP attachment until June 1, 2010. The Department may defer the requirement to submit an application for, or to obtain an ACDP or ACDP Attachment, or both, for up to an additional six months.

(e) Deferrals of Oregon permitting requirements do not relieve an air contaminant source from the responsibility of complying with federal NESHAP or NSPS requirements.

(2) No person may construct, install, establish, or develop any source that will be subject to the Oregon Title V Operating Permit program without first obtaining an ACDP from the Department or Regional Authority.

(3) No person may modify any source that has been issued an ACDP without first complying with the requirements of OAR 340-210-0205 through 340-210-0250.

(4) No person may modify any source required to have an ACDP such that the source becomes subject to the Oregon Title V Operating Permit program without complying with the requirements of OAR 340-210-0205 through 340-210-0250.

(5) No person may increase emissions above the PSEL by more than the de minimis levels specified in OAR 340-200-0020 without first applying for and obtaining a modified ACDP.

NOTE: This rule is included in the State of Oregon Clean Air Act Implementation Plan as adopted by the EQC under OAR 340-211-0040.

340-216-0060

General Air Contaminant Discharge Permits

(1) Applicability.

(a) The Department may issue a General ACDP under the following circumstances:

(A) There are several sources that involve the same or substantially similar types of operations;

(B) All requirements applicable to the covered operations can be contained in a General ACDP;

(C) The emission limitations, monitoring, recordkeeping, reporting and other enforceable conditions are the same for all operations covered by the General ACDP; and

(D) The pollutants emitted are of the same type for all covered operations.

(b) Permit content. Each General ACDP must include the following:

(A) All relevant requirements for the operations covered by the General ACDP;

(B) Generic PSELS for all pollutants emitted at more than the de minimis level in accordance with OAR 340, division 222;

(C) Testing, monitoring, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements necessary to ensure compliance with the PSEL and other applicable emissions limits and standards; and

(D) A permit expiration date not to exceed 10 years from the date of issuance.

(c) Permit issuance procedures: A new General ACDP requires public notice and opportunity for comment in accordance with OAR 340 division 209 for Category III permit actions. A reissued General ACDP or a modification to a General ACDP requires public notice and opportunity for comment in accordance with OAR 340 division 209 for Category II permit actions. All General ACDPs are on file and available for review at the Department's headquarters.

(2) Source assignment:

(a) Application requirements. Any person requesting that a source be assigned to a General ACDP must submit a written application in accordance with OAR 340-216-0040 that includes the information in OAR 340-216-0040(1), specifies the General ACDP source category, and shows that the source qualifies for the General ACDP.

(b) Fees. Applicants must pay the fees set forth in Table 2 of OAR 340-216-0020. The fee class for each General ACDP is as follows:

(A) Hard chrome platers — Fee Class Three;

(B) Decorative chrome platers — Fee Class Two;

(C) Halogenated solvent degreasers — batch cold — Fee Class Two;

(D) Halogenated solvent degreasers — batch vapor and in-line — Fee Class Two;

(E) Halogenated solvent degreasers — batch cold, batch vapor, and in-line — Fee Class Two;

(F) Perchloroethylene dry cleaners — Fee Class Six;

(G) Asphalt plants — Fee Class Three;

(H) Rock crushers — Fee Class Two;

(I) Ready-mix concrete — Fee Class One;

(J) Sawmills, planing mills, millwork, plywood manufacturing and veneer drying — Fee Class Three;

(K) Boilers — Fee Class Two;

(L) Crematories — Fee Class Two;

(M) Grain elevators — Fee Class One;

(N) Prepared feeds, flour, and cereal — Fee Class One;

(O) Seed cleaning — Fee Class One;

(P) Coffee roasters — Fee Class One;

(Q) Bulk gasoline plants — Fee Class One;

(R) Electric power generators — Fee Class Two;

(S) Clay ceramics — Fee Class One;

(T) Hospital sterilizers — Fee Class Four;

(U) Secondary nonferrous metals — Fee Class One;

(V) Gasoline dispensing facilities — stage I — Fee Class Five;

(W) Gasoline dispensing facilities — stage II — Fee Class Four;

(X) Wood preserving — Fee Class Four;

(Y) Metal fabrication and finishing — Fee Class Two;

(Z) Plating and polishing — Fee Class One;

(AA) Miscellaneous surface coating operations — Fee Class One;

(BB) Paint stripping — Fee Class One;

(CC) Motor vehicle and mobile equipment surface coating operations — Fee Class One;

(DD) Aluminum, copper, and nonferrous foundries — Fee Class Two;

(EE) Any General ACDP not listed above — Fee Class One.

(c) Source assignment procedures:

(A) Assignment of a source to a General ACDP is a Category I permit action and is subject to the Category I public notice requirements in accordance with OAR 340, division 209.

(B) A person is not a permittee under the General ACDP until the Department assigns the General ACDP to the person.

(C) Assignments to General ACDPs and attachment(s) terminate when the General ACDP or attachment expires or is modified, terminated or revoked.

(D) Once a source has been assigned to a General ACDP, if the assigned General ACDP does not cover all requirements applicable to the source, the other applicable requirements must be covered by assignment to one or more General ACDP Attachments in accordance with OAR 340-216-0062, otherwise the source must obtain a Simple or Standard ACDP.

(E) A source requesting to be assigned to a General ACDP Attachment, in accordance with OAR 340-216-0062, for a source category in a higher annual fee class than the General ACDP the source is currently assigned to, must be reassigned to the General ACDP for the source category in the higher annual fee class.

(3) Department Initiated Modification. If the Department determines that the conditions have changed such that a General ACDP for a category needs to be modified, the Department may issue a new General ACDP for that category and assign all existing General ACDP permit holders to the new General ACDP.

(4) Rescission. In addition to OAR 340-216-0082 (Termination or Revocation of an ACDP), the Department may rescind an individual source's assignment to a General ACDP if the source no longer meets the requirements of this rule or the conditions of the permit, including, but not limited to a source having an ongoing, reoccurring or serious compliance problem. Upon rescinding a source's assignment to a General ACDP the Department will place the source on a Simple or Standard ACDP. The Department may also revoke a General ACDP or attachment or both if conditions, standards or rules have changed so the permit or attachment no longer meets the requirements of this rule.

NOTE: This rule is included in the State of Oregon Clean Air Act Implementation Plan as adopted by the EQC under OAR 340-200-0040.

340-216-0062

General ACDP Attachments

(1) Purpose. This rule allows a source to be assigned to one General ACDP and one or more General ACDP Attachments, as long as the General ACDP and General ACDP Attachment(s) contain all requirements applicable to the source. This would allow a source to avoid having to obtain a more costly Simple or Standard ACDP if there are no General ACDPs that contain all requirements applicable to the source.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) Applicability.

(a) The Department may issue a General ACDP Attachment under the following circumstances:

(A) There are several sources that involve the same or substantially similar types of operations;

(B) All requirements applicable to the covered operations can be contained in a General ACDP Attachment;

(C) The emission limitations, monitoring, recordkeeping, reporting and other enforceable conditions are the same for all operations covered by the General ACDP Attachment;

(D) The pollutants emitted are of the same type for all covered operations. If a General ACDP and a General ACDP Attachment(s) cannot address all activities at a source, the owner or operator of the source must apply for Simple or Standard ACDP in accordance with this Division.

(b) Attachment content. Each General ACDP Attachment must include the following:

(A) All relevant requirements for the operations covered by the General ACDP Attachment;

(B) Testing, monitoring, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements necessary to ensure compliance with the applicable emissions limits and standards; and

(C) An attachment expiration date not to exceed 10 years from the date of issuance.

(c) Attachment issuance procedures: A General ACDP Attachment requires public notice and opportunity for comment in accordance with OAR 340 division 209 for Category II permit actions. All General ACDP Attachments will be on file and available for review at the Department's headquarters.

(3) Source assignment:

(a) Application requirements. Any person requesting to be assigned to a General ACDP Attachment must submit a written application for each requested General ACDP Attachment that specifies the requested General ACDP Attachment and shows that the source qualifies for the requested General ACDP Attachment.

(b) Fees. Permittees must pay an annual fee of $120 for each assigned General ACDP Attachment.

(c) Assignment procedures:

(A) Assignment to a General ACDP Attachment is a Category I permit action and is subject to the Category I public notice requirements in accordance with OAR 340, division 209.

(B) A person is not a permittee under the General ACDP Attachment until the Department assigns the General ACDP Attachment to the person.

(C) Assignments to a General ACDP Attachments terminate when the General ACDP Attachment expires or is modified, terminated or revoked.

(D) A source may not be assigned to a General ACDP Attachment for a source category in a higher annual fee class than the General ACDP the source is currently assigned to. Instead a source must be reassigned to the General ACDP for the source category in the higher annual fee class in accordance with OAR 340-216-0060(2)(c)(E) and may be assigned to one or more General ACDP Attachments associated with source categories in an equal or lower annual fee class.

(d) If all activities at a source cannot be addressed by a General ACDP and General ACDP Attachments, the owner or operator of the source must apply for a Simple or Standards ACDP in accordance with this Division.

NOTE: This rule is included in the State of Oregon Clean Air Act Implementation Plan as adopted by the EQC under OAR 340-200-0040.

Simple ACDP

(1) Applicability.

(a) Sources and activities listed in Table 1, Part B of OAR 340-216-0020 that do not qualify for a General ACDP and are not required to obtain a Standard ACDP must, at a minimum, obtain a Simple ACDP.

(b) Any source required to obtain a Simple ACDP may obtain a Standard ACDP.

(c) The Department may determine that a source is ineligible for a Simple ACDP and must obtain a Standard ACDP based upon, but not limited to, the following considerations:

(A) The nature, extent, and toxicity of the source's emissions;

(B) The complexity of the source and the rules applicable to that source;

(C) The complexity of the emission controls and potential threat to human health and the environment if the emission controls fail;

(D) The location of the source; and

(E) The compliance history of the source.

(2) Application Requirements. Any person requesting a new, modified, or renewed Simple ACDP must submit an application in accordance with OAR 340-216-0040.

(3) Fees. Applicants for a new, modified, or renewed Simple ACDP must pay the fees set forth in Table 2 of 340-216-0020. Annual fees for Simple ACDPs will be assessed based on the following:

(a) Low Fee — A Source may qualify for the Low Fee if:

(A) the source is, or will be, permitted under only one of the following categories from OAR 340-216-0020 Table 1, Part B (category 25. Electric Power Generation, may be included with any category listed below):

(i) Category 7. Asphalt felt and coatings;

(ii) Category 13. Boilers and other fuel burning equipment;

(iii) Category 33. Galvanizing & Pipe coating;

(iv) Category 39. Gray iron and steel foundries, malleable iron foundries, steel investment foundries, steel foundries 100 or more tons/yr. metal charged (not elsewhere identified);

(v) Category 40. Gypsum products;

(vi) Category 45. Liquid Storage Tanks subject to OAR Division 232;

(vii) Category 56. Non-Ferrous Metal Foundries 100 or more tons/yr. of metal charged;

(viii) Category 57. Organic or Inorganic Industrial Chemical Manufacturing;

(ix) Category 61. Perchloroethylene Dry Cleaning;

(x) Category 72. Secondary Smelting and/or Refining of Ferrous and Non-Ferrous Metals; or

(xi) Category 84. All Other Sources not listed in Table 1 which would have actual emissions, if the source were to operate uncontrolled, of 5 or more tons a year of PM<sub>10</sub> if located in a PM<sub>10</sub> non-attainment or maintenance area, or 10 or more tons of any single criteria pollutant in any part of the state; and

(B) The actual emissions from the 12 months immediately preceding the invoice date, and future projected emissions are less than 5 tons/yr. PM<sub>10</sub> in a PM<sub>10</sub> nonattainment or maintenance area, and less than 10 tons/yr. for each criteria pollutant; and

(C) The source is not considered an air quality problem or nuisance source by the Department.

(b) High Fee — Any source required to have a Simple ACDP (OAR 340-216-0020 Table 1 Part B) that does not qualify for the Low Fee will be assessed the High Fee.

(c) If the Department determines that a source was invoiced for the Low Annual Fee but does not meet the Low Fee criteria outlined above, the source will be required to pay the difference between the Low and High Fees, plus applicable late fees in accordance with OAR 340-216-0020 Table 2. Late fees start upon issuance of the initial invoice. In this case, the Department will issue a new invoice specifying applicable fees.

(4) Permit Content.

(a) All relevant applicable requirements for source operation, including general ACDP conditions for incorporating generally applicable requirements;

(b) Generic PSELS for all pollutants emitted at more than the de minimis level in accordance with OAR 340 division 222;

(c) Testing, monitoring, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements sufficient to determine compliance with the PSEL and other emission limits and standards, as necessary; and

(d) A permit duration not to exceed 5 years

(5) Permit issuance procedures:

(a) Issuance of a new or renewed Simple ACDP requires public notice in accordance with OAR 340 division 209 for Category II permit actions.

(b) Issuance of a modification to a Simple ACDP requires one of the following procedures, as applicable:

(A) Non-technical and non-NSR/PSD Basic and Simple technical modifications require public notice in accordance with OAR 340, division 209 for Category I permit actions; or

(B) Issuance of non-NSR/PSD Moderate and Complex technical modifications require public notice in accordance with OAR 340 division 209 for Category II permit actions.

340-228-0606

Hg Emission Standards

(1) Mercury reduction plan. By July 1, 2009 or 1-year prior to commencement of commercial operation, whichever is later, the owner or operator of each coal-fired electric generating unit must develop and submit for Department approval a mercury reduction plan for each coal-fired electric generating unit. The plan must propose a control strategy for mercury that is most likely to result in the capture of at least 90 percent of the mercury emitted from the unit or that will limit mercury emissions to 0.60 pounds per trillion BTU of heat input. The owner or operator must demonstrate that the plan reflects technology that could reasonably be expected to meet the limits in this section if the technology operates as anticipated by the manufacturer. The plan must provide a timeframe for implementation of the selected control strategy including major milestones, installation and operation requirements, and work practice standards for the selected technology. The owner and operator of the coal-fired electric generating unit may proceed with the plan within 60 days of submittal unless, within the 60 day period, the Department notifies the owner or operator of the coal-fired electric generating unit that the plan must be revised.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) Mercury emission standards. On and after July 1, 2012 or at commencement of commercial startup, whichever is later, except as allowed under section (3) of this rule, each coal-fired electric generating unit must have implemented the approved control strategy projected to achieve at least 90 percent mercury capture or that will limit mercury emissions to 0.60 pounds per trillion BTU of heat input.

(3) Compliance extension. Up to a 2-year extension of the requirement to implement the approved control strategy may be granted by the Department if the owner or operator of a coal-fired electric generating unit demonstrates that it is not practical to install mercury control equipment by July 1, 2012 due to supply limitations, ESP fly ash contamination, or other extenuating circumstances that are beyond the control of the owner or operator.

(4) Compliance demonstration. Commencing in July 2013 or 12 months after commercial startup or 12 months after expiration of the extension granted under section (3) of this rule, whichever is later, each coal-fired electric generating unit must thereafter demonstrate compliance with one of the standards in subsections (4)(a) or (4)(b) of this rule for each compliance period, except as allowed under sections (5) and (6) of this rule. A compliance period consists of twelve months. Each month commencing with June 2013 or the twelfth month after commencement of commercial operation or twelfth month after expiration of the extension granted under section (3) of this rule, whichever is later, is the end of a compliance period consisting of that month and the previous 11 months.

(a) A mercury emission standard of 0.60 pounds per trillion BTU of heat input calculated by dividing the Hg mass emissions determined using a mercury CEMS or sorbent trap monitoring system by heat input as determined according to 40 CFR part 75, appendix F (procedure 5); or

(b) A minimum 90 percent capture of inlet mercury determined as follows:

(A) Inlet mercury must be determined as specified in subparagraph (4)(b)(A)(i) or (4)(b)(A)(ii) of this rule:

(i) Coal sampling and analysis. To demonstrate compliance by coal sampling and analysis, the owner or operator of a coal-fired electric generating unit must test its coal for mercury consistent with a coal sampling and analysis plan. The coal sampling and analysis plan must be consistent with the requirements of OAR 340-228-0639.

(ii) Hg mass emissions prior to any control device(s). To demonstrate compliance by measuring Hg mass emissions, the owner or operator of a coal-fired electric generating unit must measure mercury emissions prior to any control device(s) using a Hg CEMS or sorbent trap.

(B) The mercury capture efficiency must be calculated using the Hg emissions determined using a mercury CEMS or sorbent trap monitoring system and the inlet mercury determined using the coal mercury content data obtained in accordance with subparagraph (4)(b)(A)(i) of this rule or the measured inlet mercury data obtained in accordance with subparagraph (4)(b)(A)(ii) of this rule and a calculation methodology approved by the Department.

(5) Temporary compliance alternative. If the owner or operator of a coal-fired electric generating unit properly implements the approved control strategy and the strategy fails to achieve at least 90 percent mercury capture or limit mercury emissions to 0.60 pounds per trillion BTU of heat input:

(a) The owner or operator must notify the Department of the failure within 30 days of the end of the initial compliance period; and

(b) The owner or operator must file an application with the Department for a permit or permit modification in accordance with OAR 340 division 216 to establish a temporary alternative mercury emission limit. The application must be filed within 60 days of the end of the initial compliance period, and must include a continual program of mercury control progression able to achieve at least 90 percent mercury capture or to limit mercury emissions to 0.60 pounds per trillion BTU of heat input and all monitoring and operating data for the coal-fired electric generating unit.

(c) The Department may establish a temporary alternative mercury emission limit only if the owner or operator applies for a permit or permit modification, that includes a control strategy that the Department determines constitutes a continual program of mercury control progression able to achieve at least 90 percent mercury capture or to limit mercury emissions to 0.60 pounds per trillion BTU of heat input.

(d) Establishment of a temporary alternative mercury emission limit requires public notice in accordance with OAR 340 division 209 for Category III permit actions

(e) If the owner or operator files an application under subsection (5)(b) of this rule, the coal-fired electric generating unit must operate according to the temporary alternative mercury emission limit proposed in the permit or permit modification application until the Department either denies the application or issues the permit or permit modification. Compliance with the proposed temporary alternative mercury emission limit prior to final Department action on the application shall constitute compliance with the limits in section (2) of this rule.

(f) A temporary alternative mercury emission limit established in a permit expires July 1, 2016 or within 2 years of commencement of commercial operation, whichever is later.

(6) Permanent compliance alternative. If the owner or operator of a coal-fired electric generating unit is unable to achieve at least 90 percent mercury capture or an emission level of 0.60 pounds per trillion BTU of heat input by July 1, 2016 or within 2 years of commencement of commercial operation, whichever is later, despite properly implementing the continual program of mercury progression required in section (5) of this rule:

(a) The owner or operator of the coal-fired electric generating unit may file an application with the Department for a permit modification in accordance with OAR 340 division 216 to establish a permanent alternative mercury emission limit that comes as near as technically possible to achieving 90 percent mercury capture or an emission level of 0.60 pounds per trillion BTU of heat input.

(b) The Department may establish a permanent alternative mercury emission limit only if the owner or operator applies for a permit modification, that proposes an alternative mercury emission limit that the Department determines comes as near as technically possible to achieving 90 percent mercury capture or an emission level of 0.60 pounds per trillion BTU of heat input.

(c) Establishment of a permanent alternative mercury emission limit requires public notice in accordance with OAR 340 division 209 for Category IV permit actions.

(d) If the owner or operator files an application under subsection (6)(a) of this rule, the coal-fired electric generating unit must operate according to the permanent alternative mercury emission limit proposed in the permit modification application until the Department either denies the application or modifies the permit. Compliance with the proposed permanent alternative mercury emission limit prior to final Department action on the application shall constitute compliance with the limits in section (4) of this rule.

(7) Emission Caps. Beginning in calendar year 2018, the following coal-fired electric generating unit specific emission caps shall apply.

(a) Existing Boardman coal-fired electric generating unit cap. The existing coal-fired electric generating unit in Boardman shall emit no more than:

(A) 60 pounds of mercury in any calendar year in which there are no new coal-fired electric generating units operated in Oregon.

(B) 35 pounds of mercury in any calendar year in which there are new coal-fired electric generating units operated in Oregon.

(b) New coal-fired electric generating unit cap:

(A) New coal-fired electric generating units, in aggregate, shall emit no more than:

(i) 25 pounds of mercury in any calendar year in which the existing coal-fired electric generating unit in Boardman is operated.

(ii) 60 pounds of mercury in any calendar year in which the existing coal-fired electric generating unit in Boardman is not operated.

(B) The owner or operator of each new coal-fired electric generating unit must submit to the Department a request, in a format specified by the Department, to receive a portion of the new coal-fired electric generating unit cap. The request may not be submitted until the new coal-fired electric generating unit has received its Site Certification from the Facility Siting Council, or if the new coal-fired electric generating unit is not required to obtain a Site Certificate, all governmental approvals necessary to commence construction.

(C) The Department will allocate the new coal-fired electric generating unit cap in order of receipt of requests and, once allocated, the new coal-fired electric generating unit shall be entitled to receive an equal allocation in future years unless the new coal-fired electric generating unit permanently ceases operations.

(D) Each individual new coal-fired electric generating unit shall emit no more than the lesser of:

(i) An amount of mercury determined by multiplying the design heat input in TBtu of such coal-fired electric generating unit by 0.60 pounds per TBtu rounded to the nearest pound as appropriate, or

(ii) The amount of the emission cap under (7)(b) less the amount of the emission cap under (7)(b) that has been allocated to other new coal-fired electric generating units.

(c) Compliance demonstration. Each coal-fired electric generating unit must demonstrate compliance with the applicable calendar year emission cap in subsection (7)(a) or (7)(b) of this rule using a mercury CEMS or sorbent trap monitoring system.

340-228-0621

Initial Certification and Recertification Procedures

(1) The owner or operator of a coal-fired electric generating unit shall be exempt from the initial certification requirements of this rule for a monitoring system under OAR 340-228-0609(1)(a) if the following conditions are met:

(a) The monitoring system has been previously certified; and

(b) The applicable quality-assurance and quality-control requirements are fully met for the certified monitoring system described in subsection (1)(a) of this rule.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) The recertification provisions of this rule shall apply to a monitoring system under OAR 340-228-0609(1)(a) exempt from initial certification requirements under section (1) of this rule.

(3) Initial certification and recertification procedures. Except as provided in section (1) of this rule, the owner or operator of a coal-fired electric generating unit must comply with the following initial certification and recertification procedures for a continuous monitoring system (e.g., a continuous emission monitoring system or sorbent trap monitoring system). The owner or operator must meet any additional requirements for Hg concentration monitoring systems, sorbent trap monitoring systems (as defined in OAR 340-228-0602(36)), flow monitors, CO<sub>2</sub> monitors, O<sub>2</sub> monitors, or moisture monitors, as set forth under OAR 340-228-0613, under the common stack provisions in OAR 340-228-0615. The owner or operator of a unit that qualifies to use an alternative monitoring system must comply with the procedures in section (4) of this rule.

(a) Requirements for initial certification. The owner or operator must ensure that each monitoring system under OAR 340-228-0609(1)(a) (including the automated data acquisition and handling system) successfully completes all of the initial certification testing by the applicable deadline in OAR 340-228-0609(2). In addition, whenever the owner or operator installs a monitoring system to meet the requirements of this rule in a location where no such monitoring system was previously installed, initial certification is required.

(b) Requirements for recertification. Whenever the owner or operator makes a replacement, modification, or change in any certified continuous emission monitoring system or sorbent trap monitoring system that may significantly affect the ability of the system to accurately measure or record the CO<sub>2</sub> concentration, stack gas volumetric flow rate, Hg concentration, Hg mass emissions, percent moisture, or heat input rate or to meet the quality-assurance and quality-control requirements of 40 CFR 75.21, OAR 340-228-0623, or appendix B to 40 CFR part 75, the owner or operator must recertify the monitoring system in accordance with 40 CFR 75.20(b). Furthermore, whenever the owner or operator makes a replacement, modification, or change to the flue gas handling system or the unit's operation that may significantly change the stack flow or concentration profile, the owner or operator must recertify each continuous emission monitoring system or sorbent trap monitoring system, whose accuracy is potentially affected by the change, in accordance with 40 CFR 75.20(b). Examples of changes to a continuous emission monitoring system that require recertification include replacement of the analyzer, complete replacement of an existing continuous emission monitoring system, or change in location or orientation of the sampling probe or site.

(c) Approval process for initial certification and recertification. Paragraphs (3)(c)(A) through (D) of this rule apply to both initial certification and recertification of a continuous monitoring system under OAR 340-228-0609(1)(a). For recertifications, apply the word "recertification" instead of the words "certification" and "initial certification" and apply the word "recertified" instead of the word "certified," and follow the procedures in 40 CFR 75.20(b)(5) in lieu of the procedures in paragraph (3)(c)(E) of this rule.

(A) Notification of certification. The owner or operator must submit to the Department written notice of the dates of certification testing, in accordance with 40 CFR 75.61.

(B) Certification application. The owner or operator must submit to the Department a certification application for each monitoring system. A complete certification application must include the information specified in 40 CFR 75.63.

(C) Provisional certification date. The provisional certification date for a monitoring system must be determined in accordance with 40 CFR 75.20(a)(3). A provisionally certified monitoring system may be used for a period not to exceed 120 days after receipt by the Department of the complete certification application for the monitoring system under paragraph (3)(c)(B) of this rule. Data measured and recorded by the provisionally certified monitoring system will be considered valid quality-assured data (retroactive to the date and time of provisional certification), provided that the Department does not invalidate the provisional certification by issuing a notice of disapproval within 120 days of the date of receipt of the complete certification application by the Department.

(D) Certification application approval process. The Department will issue a written notice of approval or disapproval of the certification application to the owner or operator within 120 days of receipt of the complete certification application under paragraph (3)(c)(B) of this rule. In the event the Department does not issue such a notice within such 120-day period, each monitoring system that meets the applicable performance requirements and is included in the certification application will be deemed certified for use.

(i) Approval notice. If the certification application is complete and shows that each monitoring system meets the applicable performance requirements, then the Department will issue a written notice of approval of the certification application within 120 days of receipt.

(ii) Incomplete application notice. If the certification application is not complete, then the Department will issue a written notice of incompleteness that sets a reasonable date by which the owner or operator must submit the additional information required to complete the certification application. If the owner or operator does not comply with the notice of incompleteness by the specified date, then the Department may issue a notice of disapproval under subparagraph (3)(c)(D)(iii) of this rule. The 120-day review period must not begin before receipt of a complete certification application.

(iii) Disapproval notice. If the certification application shows that any monitoring system does not meet the performance requirements or if the certification application is incomplete and the requirement for disapproval under subparagraph (3)(c)(D)(ii) of this rule is met, then the Department will issue a written notice of disapproval of the certification application. Upon issuance of such notice of disapproval, the provisional certification is invalidated by the Department and the data measured and recorded by each uncertified monitoring system must not be considered valid quality-assured data beginning with the date and hour of provisional certification (as defined under 40 CFR 75.20(a)(3)). The owner or operator must follow the procedures for loss of certification in paragraph (3)(c)(E) of this rule for each monitoring system that is disapproved for initial certification.

(iv) Audit decertification. The Department may issue a notice of disapproval of the certification status of a monitor in accordance with OAR 340-228-0629(2).

(E) Procedures for loss of certification. If the Department issues a notice of disapproval of a certification application under subparagraph (3)(c)(D)(iii) of this rule or a notice of disapproval of certification status under subparagraph (3)(c)(D)(iv) of this rule, then:

(i) The owner or operator must substitute the following values, as applicable, for each disapproved monitoring system, for each hour of unit operation during the period of invalid data specified under 40 CFR 75.20(a)(4)(iii), 40 CFR 75.21(e) and continuing until such time, date, and hour as the continuous emission monitoring system can be adjusted, repaired, or replaced and certification tests successfully completed (or, if the conditional data validation procedures in 40 CFR 75.20(b)(3)(ii) through (ix) are used, until a probationary calibration error test is passed following corrective actions in accordance with 40 CFR 75.20(b)(3)(ii)):

(I) For a disapproved Hg pollutant concentration monitor and disapproved flow monitor, respectively, the maximum potential Hg concentration, as defined in OAR 340-228-0602(25), and the maximum potential flow rate, as defined in section 2.1.4.1 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75; and

(II) For a disapproved moisture monitoring system and disapproved diluent gas monitoring system, respectively, the minimum potential moisture percentage and either the maximum potential CO<sub>2</sub> concentration or the minimum potential O<sub>2</sub> concentration (as applicable), as defined in sections 2.1.5, 2.1.3.1, and 2.1.3.2 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75.

(III) For a disapproved sorbent trap monitoring system and disapproved flow monitor, respectively, the maximum potential Hg concentration, as defined in OAR 340-228-0602(25), and maximum potential flow rate, as defined in section 2.1.4.1 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75.

(ii) The owner or operator must submit a notification of certification retest dates as specified in 40 CFR 75.61(a)(1)(ii) and a new certification application in accordance with paragraphs (3)(c)(A) and (B) of this rule.

(iii) The owner or operator must repeat all certification tests or other requirements that were failed by the monitoring system, as indicated in the Department's notice of disapproval, no later than 30 unit operating days after the date of issuance of the notice of disapproval.

(d) For each Hg concentration monitoring system, the owner or operator must perform the following tests for initial certification or recertification of a Hg continuous emission system:

(A) A 7-day calibration error test in accordance with section 6.3 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75. The owner or operator may perform this test using either NIST-traceable elemental Hg standards, a NIST-traceable source of oxidized Hg, or other standards subject to the approval of the Department. The calibration error of a Hg concentration monitor must not deviate from the reference value of either the zero or upscale calibration gas by more than 5.0 percent of the span value, as calculated using Equation A-5 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75. Alternatively, if the span value is 10 µg/m<sup>3</sup>, the calibration error test results are also acceptable if the absolute value of the difference between the monitor response value and the reference value, |R-A| in Equation A-5 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75, is ≤ 1.0 µg/m<sup>3</sup>. If moisture is added to the calibration gas, the added moisture must be accounted for and the dry-basis concentration of the calibration gas must be used to calculate the calibration error.

(B) A linearity check in accordance with section 6.2 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75. Design and equip each mercury monitor to permit the introduction of known concentrations of elemental Hg and HgCl<sub>2</sub> separately, at a point immediately preceding the sample extraction filtration system, such that the entire measurement system can be checked. If the Hg monitor does not have a converter, the HgCl<sub>2</sub> injection capability is not required. Follow the applicable procedures in section 6.2 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75 when performing the 3-level system integrity checks described in paragraph (3)(d)(F) of this rule. Perform the linearity check using NIST-traceable elemental Hg standards and the 3-level system integrity checks using NIST-traceable source of oxidized Hg or other standards subject to the approval of the Department. If moisture is added to the calibration gas during the required linearity checks or system integrity checks, the moisture content of the calibration gas must be accounted for. Under these circumstances, the dry basis concentration of the calibration gas must be used to calculate the linearity error or measurement error (as applicable).

(C) A relative accuracy test audit (RATA) in accordance with section 6.5 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75 and as follows:

(i) The RATA must be performed on a  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$  basis and while the unit is combusting coal.

(ii) Calculate the relative accuracy, in accordance with section 7.3 or 7.4 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75, as applicable.

(iii) The relative accuracy shall not exceed 20.0 percent. Alternatively, for affected units where the average of the reference method measurements of Hg concentration during the relative accuracy test audit is less than 5.0  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ , the test results are acceptable if the difference between the mean value of the monitor measurements and the reference method mean value does not exceed 1.0  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ , in cases where the relative accuracy specification of 20.0 percent is not achieved.

(iv) For the RATA of a Hg CEMS using the Ontario Hydro Method, or for the RATA of a sorbent trap system (irrespective of the reference method used), the time per run must be long enough to collect a sufficient mass of Hg to analyze. For the RATA of a sorbent trap monitoring system, use the same-size trap that is used for daily operation of the monitoring system. Spike the third section of each sorbent trap with elemental Hg, as described in OAR 340-228-0627(7)(a)(B). Install a new pair of sorbent traps prior to each test run. For each run, the sorbent trap data must be validated according to the quality assurance criteria in OAR 340-228-0627(8).

(v) Use the same basic approach for traverse point selection that is used for other gas monitoring system RATAs, except that the stratification test provisions in sections 8.1.3 through 8.1.3.5 of Method 30A shall apply, rather than the provisions of section 6.5.6.1 through 6.5.6.3 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75.

(vi) Up to 336 consecutive unit or stack operating hours may be taken to complete the RATA of a Hg monitoring system, when the Ontario Hydro Method or Method 29 is used as the reference method.

(D) A bias test in accordance with section 7.6 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75 and as follows:

(i) To calculate bias for a Hg monitoring system when using the Ontario Hydro Method or Method 29, "d" is, for each data point, the difference between the average Hg concentration value (in  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ ) from the paired Ontario Hydro or Method 29 sampling trains and the concentration measured by the monitoring system. For sorbent trap systems, use the average Hg concentration measured by the paired traps in calculation of "d".

(ii) For single-load RATAs of Hg concentration monitoring systems, and sorbent trap monitoring systems, the appropriate BAF is determined directly from the RATA results at normal load, using Equation A-12.

(iii) For multiple-load flow RATAs, perform a bias test at each load level designated as normal under section 6.5.2.1 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75.

(iv) Mercury concentration monitoring systems and sorbent trap monitoring systems shall not be biased low.

(v) For Hg concentration and sorbent trap monitoring systems, where the average Hg concentration during the RATA is  $< 5.0 \mu\text{g}/\text{dscm}$ , if the monitoring system meets the normal or the alternative relative accuracy specification in subparagraph (3)(d)(C)(iii) of this rule but fails the bias test, the owner or operator may either use the bias adjustment factor (BAF) calculated from Equation A-12 appendix A to 40 CFR part 75 and in accordance with sections 7.6.4 and 7.6.5 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75, using the data from the relative accuracy test audits, or may use a default BAF of 1.250 for reporting purposes.

(vi) Use the bias-adjusted values in computing substitution values in the missing data procedure and in reporting the concentration of Hg during the quarter and calendar year. In addition, when using a Hg concentration or sorbent trap monitoring system and a flow monitor to calculate Hg mass emissions, use bias-adjusted values for Hg concentration and flow rate in the mass emission calculations and use bias-adjusted Hg concentrations to compute the appropriate substitution values for Hg concentration in the missing data routines.

(E) A cycle time test in accordance with section 6.4 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75. For Hg monitors, the calibration gas used for this test may either be the elemental or oxidized form of Hg. As an alternative, the reading is considered stable if it changes by no more than 0.5  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$  for two minutes.

(F) A 3-level system integrity check, using a NIST-traceable source of oxidized Hg, or other standards subject to the approval of the Department. This test is not required for an Hg monitor that does not have a converter. The system measurement error must not exceed 10.0 percent of the reference value at any of the three gas levels. To calibrate the measurement error at each level, take the absolute value of the difference between the reference value and mean CEM response, divide the result by the reference value, and then multiply by 100. Alternatively, the results at any gas level are acceptable if the absolute value of the difference between the average monitor response and the average reference value, i.e.,  $|\text{R}-\text{A}|$  in equation A-4 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75, does not exceed 0.8  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ .

(4) Certification/recertification procedures for alternative monitoring systems. The owner or operator of each unit for which the owner or operator intends to use an alternative monitoring system approved by the Department must comply with the applicable notification and application procedures of 40 CFR 75.20(f).

340-228-0623

Quality Assurance and Quality Control Requirements

(1) For units that use continuous emission monitoring systems to account for Hg mass emissions, the owner or operator must meet the applicable quality assurance and quality control requirements in 40 CFR 75.21, appendix B to 40 CFR part 75, and as follows, for the flow monitoring systems, Hg concentration monitoring systems, moisture monitoring systems, and diluent monitors required under OAR 340-228-0613. Units using sorbent trap monitoring systems must meet the applicable quality assurance requirements in OAR 340-228-0617, 340-228-0627, and as follows.

(a) Calibration Error Test. Except as provided in section 2.1.1.2 of appendix B to 40 CFR part 75, perform the daily calibration error test of each Hg monitoring system according to the procedures in OAR 340-228-0621(3)(d)(A). For Hg monitors, the daily assessments may be made using either NIST-traceable elemental Hg standards, a NIST-traceable source of oxidized Hg, or other standards subject to the approval of the Department.

(b) Data Validation. For a Hg monitor, an out-of-control period occurs when the calibration error exceeds 5.0% of the span value. Notwithstanding, the Hg monitor shall not be considered out-of-control if  $|\text{R}-\text{A}|$  in Equation A-6 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75 does not exceed 1.0  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ .

(c) Linearity Check. Unless a particular monitor (or monitoring range) is exempted under this subsection or under section 6.2 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75, perform a linearity check, in accordance with the procedures in section 6.2 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75, for each primary and redundant backup Hg at least once during each QA operating quarter, as defined in 40 CFR 72.2. For Hg monitors, perform the linearity checks using NIST-traceable elemental Hg standards, or other standards subject to the approval of the Department. Alternatively, the owner or operator may perform 3-level system integrity checks at the same three calibration gas levels (i.e., low, mid, and high), using a NIST-traceable source of oxidized Hg, or other standards subject to the approval of the Department. If choosing this option, the performance specification in paragraph (1)(i)(B) of this rule must be met at each gas level. For units using both a low and high span value, a linearity check is required only on the range(s) used to record and report emission data during the QA operating quarter. Conduct the linearity checks no less than 30 days apart, to the extent practicable.

(d) Standard RATA Frequencies. For each primary and redundant backup Hg concentration monitoring system and each sorbent trap monitoring system, RATAs must be performed annually, i.e., once every four successive QA operating quarters (as defined in 40 CFR 72.2).

(e) RATA Load (or Operating) Levels and Additional RATA Requirements. For Hg concentration monitoring systems and sorbent trap monitoring systems, the required semiannual or annual RATA tests must be done at the load level (or operating level) designated as normal under section 6.5.2.1(d) of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75. If two load levels (or operating levels) are designated as normal, the required RATA(s) may be done at either load level (or operating level).

(f) Data Validation. Each time that a hands-off RATA of a Hg concentration monitoring system or a sorbent trap monitoring system is passed, perform a bias test in accordance with section 7.6.4 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75. Apply the appropriate bias adjustment factor to the reported Hg data, in accordance with subsection (1)(g) of this rule.

(g) Bias Adjustment Factor. Except as otherwise specified in section 7.6.5 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75, if an Hg concentration monitoring system or sorbent trap monitoring system fails the bias test, use the bias adjustment factor given in Equations A-11 and A-12 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75, or a default bias adjustment factor of 1.250, to adjust the monitored data.

(h) Bias Adjusted Values. Use the bias-adjusted values in computing substitution values in the missing data procedure and in reporting the concentration of Hg during the quarter and calendar year. In addition, when using a Hg concentration or sorbent trap monitoring system and a flow monitor to calculate Hg mass emissions, use bias-adjusted values for Hg concentration and flow rate in the mass emission calculations and use bias-adjusted Hg concentrations to compute the appropriate substitution values for Hg concentration in the missing data routines.

(i) System Integrity Checks for Hg Monitors. For each Hg concentration monitoring system (except for a Hg monitor that does not have a converter), perform a single-point system integrity check weekly, i.e., at least once every 168 unit or stack operating hours, using a NIST-traceable source of oxidized Hg, or other standards subject to the approval of the Department. Perform this check as follows using a mid- or high-level gas concentration, as defined in section 5.2 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75.

(A) The performance specification in paragraph (1)(i)(B) must be met, otherwise the monitoring system is considered out-of-control, from the hour of the failed check until a subsequent system integrity check is passed. If a required system integrity check is not performed and passed within 168 unit or stack operating hours of last successful check, the monitoring system shall also be considered out of control, beginning with the 169th unit of stack operating hour after the last successful check, and continuing until a subsequent system integrity check is passed. This weekly check is not required if the daily calibration assessments in subsection (1)(a) of this rule are performed using a NIST-traceable source of oxidized Hg, or other standards subject to the approval of the Department.

(B) The measurement error for the linearity check must not exceed 10.0 percent of the reference value at any of the three gas levels. To calibrate the measurement error at each level, take the absolute value of the difference between the reference value and mean CEM response, divide the result by the reference value, and then multiply by 100. Alternatively, the results at any gas level are acceptable if the absolute value of the difference between the average monitor response and the average reference value, i.e.,  $|R-A|$  in equation A-4 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75, does not exceed  $0.8 \mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ .

(2) Missing data procedures. Except as provided in OAR 340-228-0617(11) and 340-228-0631(2), the owner or operator must provide substitute data from monitoring systems required under OAR 340-228-0613 for each affected unit as follows:

(a) For an owner or operator using an Hg concentration monitoring system, substitute for missing data in accordance with the applicable missing data procedures in 40 CFR 75.31 through 75.37 and OAR 340-228-0631 and 0633 whenever the unit combusts fuel and:

(A) A valid, quality-assured hour of Hg concentration data (in  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ ) has not been measured and recorded, either by a certified Hg concentration monitoring system, by an appropriate reference method under OAR 340-228-0602(33) or 40 CFR 75.22, or by an approved alternative monitoring method under 40 CFR part 75 subpart E; or

(B) A valid, quality-assured hour of flow rate data (in scfh) has not been measured and recorded for a unit either by a certified flow monitor, by an appropriate EPA reference method under 40 CFR 75.22, or by an approved alternative monitoring system under 40 CFR part 75 subpart E; or

(C) A valid, quality-assured hour of moisture data (in percent H<sub>2</sub>O) has not been measured or recorded for an affected unit, either by a certified moisture monitoring system, by an appropriate EPA reference method under 40 CFR 75.22, or an approved alternative monitoring method under 40 CFR part 75 subpart E. This requirement does not apply when a default percent moisture value, as provided in 40 CFR 75.11(b), is used to account for the hourly moisture content of the stack gas, or when correction of the Hg concentration for moisture is not necessary; or

(D) A valid, quality-assured hour of heat input rate data (in MMBtu/hr) has not been measured and recorded for a unit, either by certified flow rate and diluent (CO<sub>2</sub> or O<sub>2</sub>) monitors, by appropriate EPA reference methods under 40 CFR 75.22, or by approved alternative monitoring systems under 40 CFR part 75 subpart E.

(b) For an owner or operator using a sorbent trap monitoring system to quantify Hg mass emissions, substitute for missing data in accordance with the missing data procedures in OAR 340-228-0633.

340-228-0625

Specifications and Test Procedures for Total Vapor Phase Mercury CEMS

(1) Analyte. Mercury (Hg), CAS No. 7439-97-6.

(2) Applicability.

(a) This specification is for evaluating the acceptability of total vapor phase Hg CEMS installed on the exit gases from fossil fuel fired boilers at the time of or soon after installation and whenever specified in the regulations. The Hg CEMS must be capable of measuring the total concentration in  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$  (regardless of speciation) of vapor phase Hg, and recording that concentration on a wet or dry basis.

(b) Particle bound Hg is not included in the measurements.

(c) This specification is not designed to evaluate an installed CEMS's performance over an extended period of time nor does it identify specific calibration techniques and auxiliary procedures to assess the CEMS's performance. The source owner or operator, however, is responsible to calibrate, maintain, and operate the CEMS properly.

(d) The Department may require the operator to conduct CEMS performance evaluations at other times besides the initial test to evaluate the CEMS performance.

(e) The owner or operator must conduct the performance evaluation of the Hg CEMS according to OAR 340-228-0621(3)(d) and the following procedures:

(3) Summary of Performance Specification. Procedures for measuring CEMS relative accuracy, measurement error and drift are outlined. CEMS installation and measurement location specifications, and data reduction procedures are included. Conformance of the CEMS with the Performance Specification is determined.

(4) Definitions.

(a) "Continuous Emission Monitoring System (CEMS)" means the total equipment required for the determination of a pollutant concentration. The system consists of the following major subsystems:

(A) "Sample Interface" means that portion of the CEMS used for one or more of the following: sample acquisition, sample transport, sample conditioning, and protection of the monitor from the effects of the stack effluent.

(B) "Hg Analyzer" means that portion of the Hg CEMS that measures the total vapor phase Hg mass concentration and generates a proportional output.

(C) "Data Recorder" means that portion of the CEMS that provides a permanent electronic record of the analyzer output. The data recorder may provide automatic data reduction and CEMS control capabilities.

(b) "Span Value" means the upper limit of the intended Hg concentration measurement range. The span value is a value equal to two times the emission standard. Alternatively, the Hg span value(s) may be determined as follows:

(A) For each Hg monitor, determine a high span value, by rounding the maximum potential Hg concentration value from OAR 340-228-0602(25) upward to the next highest multiple of  $10 \mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ .

(B) For an affected unit equipped with an FGD system or a unit with add-on Hg emission controls, if the maximum expected Hg concentration value from OAR 340-228-0602(24) is less than 20 percent of the high span value from paragraph (4)(b)(A) of this rule, and if the high span value is  $20 \mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$  or greater, define a second, low span value of  $10 \mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ .

(C) If only a high span value is required, set the full-scale range of the Hg analyzer to be greater than or equal to the span value.

(D) If two span values are required, the owner or operator may either:

(i) Use two separate (high and low) measurement scales, setting the range of each scale to be greater than or equal to the high or low span value, as appropriate; or

(ii) Quality-assure two segments of a single measurement scale.

(c) "Measurement Error (ME)" means the absolute value of the difference between the concentration indicated by the Hg analyzer and the known concentration generated by a reference gas, expressed as a percentage of the span value, when the entire CEMS, including the sampling interface, is challenged. An ME test procedure is performed to document the accuracy and linearity of the Hg CEMS at several points over the measurement range.

(d) "Upscale Drift (UD)" means the absolute value of the difference between the CEMS output response and an upscale Hg reference gas, expressed as a percentage of the span value, when the entire CEMS, including the sampling interface, is challenged after a stated period of operation during which no unscheduled maintenance, repair, or adjustment took place.

(e) "Zero Drift (ZD)" means the absolute value of the difference between the CEMS output response and a zero-level Hg reference gas, expressed as a percentage of the span value, when the entire CEMS, including the sampling interface, is challenged after a stated period of operation during which no unscheduled maintenance, repair, or adjustment took place.

(f) "Relative Accuracy (RA)" means the absolute mean difference between the pollutant concentration(s) determined by the CEMS and the value determined by the reference method (RM) plus the 2.5 percent error confidence coefficient of a series of tests divided by the mean of the RM tests. Alternatively, for low concentration sources, the RA may be expressed as the absolute value of the difference between the mean CEMS and RM values.

(5) Safety. The procedures required under this performance specification may involve hazardous materials, operations, and equipment. This performance specification may not address all of the safety problems associated with these procedures. It is the responsibility of the user to establish appropriate safety and health practices and determine the applicable regulatory limitations prior to performing these procedures. The CEMS user's manual and materials recommended by the RM should be consulted for specific precautions to be taken.

(6) Equipment and Supplies.

(a) CEMS Equipment Specifications.

(A) Data Recorder Scale. The Hg CEMS data recorder output range must include zero and a high level value. The high level value must be approximately two times the Hg concentration corresponding to the emission standard level for the stack gas under the circumstances existing as the stack gas is sampled. A lower high level value may be used, provided that the measured values do not exceed 95 percent of the high level value. Alternatively, the owner or operator may set the full-scale range(s) of the Hg analyzer according to subsection (4)(b) of this rule.

(B) The CEMS design should also provide for the determination of calibration drift at a zero value (zero to 20 percent of the span value) and at an upscale value (between 50 and 100 percent of the high-level value).

(b) Reference Gas Delivery System. The reference gas delivery system must be designed so that the flowrate of reference gas introduced to the CEMS is the same at all three challenge levels specified in subsection (7)(a) of this rule and at all times exceeds the flow requirements of the CEMS.

(c) Other equipment and supplies, as needed by the applicable reference method used. See paragraph (8)(f)(B) of this rule.

(7) Reagents and Standards.

(a) Reference Gases. Reference gas standards are required for both elemental and oxidized Hg (Hg and mercuric chloride, HgCl<sub>2</sub>). The use of

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST)-certified or NIST-traceable standards and reagents is required. However, other standards approved by the Department may be used if NIST-certified or traceable standards are not available. The following gas concentrations are required.

- (A) Zero-level. 0 to 20 percent of the span value.
- (B) Mid-level. 50 to 60 percent of the span value.
- (C) High-level. 80 to 100 percent of the span value.
- (b) Reference gas standards may also be required for the reference methods. See paragraph (8)(f)(B) of this rule.

(8) Performance Specification (PS) Test Procedure.

(a) Installation and Measurement Location Specifications.

(A) CEMS Installation. Install the CEMS at an accessible location downstream of all pollution control equipment. Since the Hg CEMS sample system normally extracts gas from a single point in the stack, use a location that has been shown to be free of stratification for SO<sub>2</sub> and NO<sub>x</sub> through concentration measurement traverses for those gases. If the cause of failure to meet the RA test requirement is determined to be the measurement location and a satisfactory correction technique cannot be established, the Administrator may require the CEMS to be relocated. Measurement locations and points or paths that are most likely to provide data that will meet the RA requirements are listed below.

(B) Measurement Location. The measurement location should be (1) at least two equivalent diameters downstream of the nearest control device, point of pollutant generation or other point at which a change of pollutant concentration may occur, and (2) at least half an equivalent diameter upstream from the effluent exhaust. The equivalent duct diameter is calculated as per appendix A to 40 CFR part 60, Method 1.

(C) Hg CEMS Sample Extraction Point. Use a sample extraction point (1) no less than 1.0 meter from the stack or duct wall, or (2) within the centroidal velocity traverse area of the stack or duct cross section.

(b) RM Measurement Location and Traverse Points. Refer to PS 2 of appendix B to 40 CFR part 60. The RM and CEMS locations need not be immediately adjacent.

(c) ME Test Procedure. The Hg CEMS must be constructed to permit the introduction of known concentrations of Hg and HgCl<sub>2</sub> separately into the sampling system of the CEMS immediately preceding the sample extraction filtration system such that the entire CEMS can be challenged. Sequentially inject each of the three reference gases (zero, mid-level, and high level) for each Hg species. Record the CEMS response and subtract the reference value from the CEMS value, and express the absolute value of the difference as a percentage of the span value. For each reference gas, the absolute value of the difference between the CEMS response and the reference value must not exceed 5 percent of the span value. If this specification is not met, identify and correct the problem before proceeding.

(d) UD Test Procedure.

(A) UD Test Period. While the affected facility is operating at more than 50 percent of normal load, or as specified in an applicable subpart, determine the magnitude of the UD once each day (at 24-hour intervals, to the extent practicable) for 7 consecutive unit operating days according to the procedure given in paragraphs (8)(d)(B) through (C) of this rule. The 7 consecutive unit operating days need not be 7 consecutive calendar days. Use either Hg<sub>0</sub> or HgCl<sub>2</sub> standards for this test.

(B) The purpose of the UD measurement is to verify the ability of the CEMS to conform to the established CEMS response used for determining emission concentrations or emission rates. Therefore, if periodic automatic or manual adjustments are made to the CEMS zero and response settings, conduct the UD test immediately before these adjustments, or conduct it in such a way that the UD can be determined.

(C) Conduct the UD test at either the mid-level or high-level point specified in subsection (7)(a) of this rule. Introduce the reference gas to the CEMS. Record the CEMS response and subtract the reference value from the CEMS value, and express the absolute value of the difference as a percentage of the span value. For the reference gas, the absolute value of the difference between the CEMS response and the reference value must not exceed 5 percent of the span value. If this specification is not met, identify and correct the problem before proceeding.

(e) ZD Test Procedure.

(A) ZD Test Period. While the affected facility is operating at more than 50 percent of normal load, or as specified in an applicable subpart, determine the magnitude of the ZD once each day (at 24-hour intervals, to the extent practicable) for 7 consecutive unit operating days according to the procedure given in paragraphs (8)(e)(B) through (C) of this rule. The 7 consecutive unit operating days need not be 7 consecutive calendar days. Use either nitrogen, air, Hg<sub>0</sub>, or HgCl<sub>2</sub> standards for this test.

(B) The purpose of the ZD measurement is to verify the ability of the CEMS to conform to the established CEMS response used for determining emission concentrations or emission rates. Therefore, if periodic automatic or manual adjustments are made to the CEMS zero and response settings, conduct the ZD test immediately before these adjustments, or conduct it in such a way that the ZD can be determined.

(C) Conduct the ZD test at the zero level specified in subsection (7)(a) of this rule. Introduce the zero gas to the CEMS. Record the CEMS response and subtract the zero value from the CEMS value and express the absolute value of the difference as a percentage of the span value. For the zero gas, the absolute value of the difference between the CEMS response and the reference value must not exceed 5 percent of the span value. If this specification is not met, identify and correct the problem before proceeding.

(f) RA Test Procedure.

(A) RA Test Period. Conduct the RA test according to the procedure given in paragraphs (8)(f)(B) through (F) of this rule while the affected facility is operating at normal full load, or as specified in an applicable subpart. The RA test may be conducted during the ZD and UD test period.

(B) RM. Use one of the reference methods specified in OAR 340-228-0602(33). Do not include the filterable portion of the sample when making comparisons to the CEMS results. When Method 29 or ASTM D6784-02 is used, conduct the RM test runs with paired or duplicate sampling systems. When an approved instrumental method is used, paired sampling systems are not required. If the RM and CEMS measure on a different moisture basis, data derived with Method 4 in appendix A to 40 CFR part 60 must also be obtained during the RA test.

(C) Sampling Strategy for RM Tests. Conduct the RM tests in such a way that they will yield results representative of the emissions from the source and can be compared to the CEMS data. It is preferable to conduct moisture measurements (if needed) and Hg measurements simultaneously, although moisture measurements that are taken within an hour of the Hg measurements may be used to adjust the Hg concentrations to a consistent moisture basis. In order to correlate the CEMS and RM data properly, note the beginning and end of each RM test period for each paired RM run (including the exact time of day) on the CEMS chart recordings or other permanent record of output.

(D) Number and length of RM Tests. Conduct a minimum of nine RM test runs. When Method 29 or ASTM D6784-02 is used, only test runs for which the data from the paired RM trains meet the relative deviation (RD) criteria of this PS must be used in the RA calculations. In addition, for Method 29 and ASTM D 6784-02, use a minimum sample run time of 2 hours. Note: More than nine sets of RM tests may be performed. If this option is chosen, paired RM test results may be excluded so long as the total number of paired RM test results used to determine the CEMS RA is greater than or equal to nine. However, all data must be reported, including the excluded data.

(E) Correlation of RM and CEMS Data. Correlate the CEMS and the RM test data as to the time and duration by first determining from the CEMS final output (the one used for reporting) the integrated average pollutant concentration for each RM test period. Consider system response time, if important, and confirm that the results are on a consistent moisture basis with the RM test. Then, compare each integrated CEMS value against the corresponding RM value. When Method 29 or ASTM D6784-02 is used, compare each CEMS value against the corresponding average of the paired RM values.

(F) Paired RM Outliers.

(i) When Method 29 or ASTM D6784-02 is used, outliers are identified through the determination of relative deviation (RD) of the paired RM tests. Data that do not meet this criteria should be flagged as a data quality problem. The primary reason for performing paired RM sampling is to ensure the quality of the RM data. The percent RD of paired data is the parameter used to quantify data quality. Determine RD for two paired data points as follows:

$$RD = 100 \times |(Ca - Cb)| / (Ca + Cb)$$

where Ca and Cb are concentration values determined from each of the two samples respectively.

(ii) A minimum performance criteria for RM Hg data is that RD for any data pair must be  $\leq 10$  percent as long as the mean Hg concentration is greater than 1.0  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ . If the mean Hg concentration is less than or equal to 1.0  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ , the RD must be  $\leq 20$  percent. Pairs of RM data exceeding these RD criteria should be eliminated from the data set used to develop a Hg CEMS correlation or to assess CEMS RA.

(G) Calculate the mean difference between the RM and CEMS values in the units of micrograms per cubic meter ( $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ ), the standard deviation, the confidence coefficient, and the RA according to the procedures in section (10) of this rule.

(g) Reporting. At a minimum (check with the Department for additional requirements, if any), summarize in tabular form the results of the RD tests and the RA tests or alternative RA procedure, as appropriate. Include all data sheets, calculations, charts (records of CEMS responses), reference gas concentration certifications, and any other information necessary to confirm that the performance of the CEMS meets the performance criteria.

(9) Analytical Procedure. Sample collection and analysis are concurrent for this PS (see section (8) of this rule). Refer to the RM employed for specific analytical procedures.

(10) Calculations and Data Analysis. Summarize the results on a data sheet similar to that shown in Figure 2-2 for PS 2.

(a) Consistent Basis. All data from the RM and CEMS must be compared in units of  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ , on a consistent and identified moisture and volumetric basis (STP = 20°C, 760 millimeters (mm) Hg).

(b) Moisture Correction (as applicable). If the RM and CEMS measure Hg on a different moisture basis, using the following equation to make the appropriate corrections to the Hg concentrations.

$$\text{Concentration(dry)} = \text{Concentration(wet)} / (1 - Bws)$$

In the above equation, Bws is the moisture content of the flue gas from Method 4, expressed as a decimal fraction (e.g., for 8.0 percent H<sub>2</sub>O, Bws = 0.08).

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) Arithmetic Mean. Calculate the arithmetic mean of the difference,  $d$ , of a data set using equation 2 to this division.

(d) Standard Deviation. Calculate the standard deviation,  $S_d$ , using equation 3 to this division.

(e) Confidence Coefficient (CC). Calculate the 2.5 percent error confidence coefficient (one-tailed),  $CC$ , using equation 4 to this division.

(f) RA. Calculate the RA of a set of data using equation 5 to this division.

(11) Performance Specifications.

(a) ME. ME is assessed at zero-level, mid-level and high-level values as given below using standards for both Hg<sub>0</sub> and HgCl<sub>2</sub>. The mean difference between the indicated CEMS concentration and the reference concentration value for each standard must be no greater than 5 percent of the span value.

(b) UD. The UD must not exceed 5 percent of the span value on any of the 7 days of the UD test.

(c) ZD. The ZD must not exceed 5 percent of the span value on any of the 7 days of the ZD test.

(d) RA. The RA of the CEMS must be no greater than 20 percent of the mean value of the RM test data in terms of units of  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ . Alternatively, if the mean RM is less than 5.0  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ , the results are acceptable if the absolute value of the difference between the mean RM and CEMS values does not exceed 1.0  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ .

Quality Assurance and Operating Procedures for Sorbent Trap Monitoring Systems

(1) Scope and Application. This rule specifies sampling, and analytical, and quality-assurance criteria and procedures for the performance-based monitoring of vapor-phase mercury (Hg) emissions in combustion flue gas streams, using a sorbent trap monitoring system (as defined in OAR 340-228-0602). The principle employed is continuous sampling using in-stack sorbent media coupled with analysis of the integrated samples. The performance-based approach of this rule allows for use of various suitable sampling and analytical technologies while maintaining a specified and documented level of data quality through performance criteria. Persons using this rule should have a thorough working knowledge of Methods 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 in appendices A-1 through A-3 to 40 CFR part 60, as well as the determinative technique selected for analysis.

(a) Analytes. The analyte measured by these procedures and specifications is total vapor-phase Hg in the flue gas, which represents the sum of elemental Hg (Hg<sub>0</sub>, CAS Number 7439-97-6) and oxidized forms of Hg, in mass concentration units of micrograms per dry standard cubic meter ( $\mu\text{g}/\text{dscm}$ ).

(b) Applicability. These performance criteria and procedures are applicable to monitoring of vapor-phase Hg emissions under relatively low-dust conditions (i.e., sampling in the stack after all pollution control devices), from coal-fired electric utility steam generators. Individual sample collection times can range from 30 minutes to several days in duration, depending on the Hg concentration in the stack. The monitoring system must achieve the performance criteria specified in section (8) of this rule and the sorbent media capture ability must not be exceeded. The sampling rate must be maintained at a constant proportion to the total stack flowrate to ensure representativeness of the sample collected. Failure to achieve certain performance criteria will result in invalid Hg emissions monitoring data.

(2) Principle. Known volumes of flue gas are extracted from a stack or duct through paired, in-stack, pre-spiked sorbent media traps at an appropriate nominal flow rate. Collection of Hg on the sorbent media in the stack mitigates potential loss of Hg during transport through a probe/sample line. Paired train sampling is required to determine measurement precision and verify acceptability of the measured emissions data. The sorbent traps are recovered from the sampling system, prepared for analysis, as needed, and analyzed by any suitable determinative technique that can meet the performance criteria. A section of each sorbent trap is spiked with Hg<sub>0</sub> prior to sampling. This section is analyzed separately and the recovery value is used to correct the individual Hg sample for measurement bias.

(3) Clean Handling and Contamination. To avoid Hg contamination of the samples, special attention should be paid to cleanliness during transport, field handling, sampling, recovery, and laboratory analysis, as well as during preparation of the sorbent cartridges. Collection and analysis of blank samples (field, trip, lab) is useful in verifying the absence of contaminant Hg.

(4) Safety.

(a) Site hazards. Site hazards must be thoroughly considered in advance of applying these procedures/specifications in the field; advance coordination with the site is critical to understand the conditions and applicable safety policies. At a minimum, portions of the sampling system will be hot, requiring appropriate gloves, long sleeves, and caution in handling this equipment.

(b) Laboratory safety policies. Laboratory safety policies should be in place to minimize risk of chemical exposure and to properly handle waste disposal. Personnel must wear appropriate laboratory attire according to a Chemical Hygiene Plan established by the laboratory.

(c) Toxicity or carcinogenicity. The toxicity or carcinogenicity of any reagents used must be considered. Depending upon the sampling and analytical technologies selected, this measurement may involve hazardous materials, operations, and equipment and this rule does not address all of the safety problems associated with implementing this approach. It is the responsibility of the user to establish appropriate safety and health practices and determine the applicable regulatory limitations prior to performance. Any chemical should be regarded as a potential health hazard and exposure to these compounds should be minimized. Chemists should refer to the Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) for each chemical used.

(d) Wastes. Any wastes generated by this procedure must be disposed of according to a hazardous materials management plan that details and tracks various waste streams and disposal procedures.

(5) Equipment and Supplies. The following list is presented as an example of key equipment and supplies likely required to perform vapor-phase Hg monitoring using a sorbent trap monitoring system. It is recognized that additional equipment and supplies may be needed. Collection of paired samples is required. Also required are a certified stack gas volumetric flow monitor that meets the requirements of 40 CFR 75.10 and an acceptable means of correcting for the stack gas moisture content, i.e., either by using data from a certified continuous moisture monitoring system or by using an approved default moisture value (see 40 CFR 75.11(b)).

(a) Sorbent Trap Monitoring System. The monitoring system must include the following components:

(A) Sorbent Traps. The sorbent media used to collect Hg must be configured in a trap with three distinct and identical segments or sections, connected in series, that are amenable to separate analyses. Section 1 is designated for primary capture of gaseous Hg. Section 2 is designated as a backup section for determination of vapor-phase Hg breakthrough. Section 3 is designated for QA/QC purposes where this section must be spiked with a known amount of gaseous Hg<sub>0</sub> prior to sampling and later analyzed to determine recovery efficiency. The sorbent media may be any collection material (e.g., carbon, chemically-treated filter, etc.) capable of quantitatively capturing and recovering for subsequent analysis, all gaseous forms of Hg for the intended application. Selection of the sorbent media must be based on the material's ability to achieve the performance criteria contained in section (8) of this rule as well as the sorbent's vapor phase Hg capture efficiency for the emissions matrix and the expected sampling duration at the test site. The sorbent media must be obtained from a source that can demonstrate the quality assurance and control necessary to ensure consistent reliability. The paired sorbent traps are supported on a probe (or probes) and inserted directly into the flue gas stream.

(B) Sampling Probe Assembly. Each probe assembly must have a leak-free attachment to the sorbent trap(s). Each sorbent trap must be mounted at the entrance of or within the probe such that the gas sampled enters the trap directly. Each probe/sorbent trap assembly must be heated to a temperature sufficient to prevent liquid condensation in the sorbent trap(s). Auxiliary heating is required only where the stack temperature is too low to prevent condensation. Use a calibrated thermocouple to monitor the stack temperature. A single probe capable of operating the paired sorbent traps may be used. Alternatively, individual probe/sorbent trap assemblies may be used, provided that the individual sorbent traps are co-located to ensure representative Hg monitoring and are sufficiently separated to prevent aerodynamic interference.

(C) Moisture Removal Device. A robust moisture removal device or system, suitable for continuous duty (such as a Peltier cooler), must be used to remove water vapor from the gas stream prior to entering the dry gas meter.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(D) Vacuum Pump. Use a leak-tight, vacuum pump capable of operating within the candidate system's flow range.

(E) Dry Gas Meter. A dry gas meter must be used to determine total sample volume. The meter must be sufficiently accurate to measure the total sample volume within 2 percent, must be calibrated at the selected flow rate and conditions actually encountered during sampling, and must be equipped with a temperature sensor capable of measuring typical meter temperatures accurately to within 30C for correcting final sample volume.

(F) Sample Flow Rate Meter and Controller. Use a flow rate indicator and controller for maintaining necessary sampling flow rates.

(G) Temperature Sensor. Same as Section 6.1.1.7 of Method 5 in appendix A-3 to 40 CFR part 60.

(H) Barometer. Same as Section 6.1.2 of Method 5 in appendix A-3 to 40 CFR part 60.

(I) Data Logger (Optional). Device for recording associated and necessary ancillary information (e.g., temperatures, pressures, flow, time, etc.).

(b) Gaseous Hg<sub>0</sub> Sorbent Trap Spiking System. A known mass of gaseous Hg<sub>0</sub> must be spiked onto section 3 of each sorbent trap prior to sampling. Any approach capable of quantitatively delivering known masses of Hg<sub>0</sub> onto sorbent traps is acceptable. Several technologies or devices are available to meet this objective. Their practicality is a function of Hg mass spike levels. For low levels, NIST-certified or NIST-traceable gas generators or tanks may be suitable, but will likely require long preparation times. A more practical, alternative system, capable of delivering almost any mass required, makes use of NIST-certified or NIST-traceable Hg salt solutions (e.g., Hg(NO<sub>3</sub>)<sub>2</sub>). With this system, an aliquot of known volume and concentration is added to a reaction vessel containing a reducing agent (e.g., stannous chloride); the Hg salt solution is reduced to Hg<sub>0</sub> and purged onto section 3 of the sorbent trap using an impinger sparging system.

(c) Sample Analysis Equipment. Any analytical system capable of quantitatively recovering and quantifying total gaseous Hg from sorbent media is acceptable provided that the analysis can meet the performance criteria in section (8) of this rule. Candidate recovery techniques include leaching, digestion, and thermal desorption. Candidate analytical techniques include ultraviolet atomic fluorescence (UV AF); ultraviolet atomic absorption (UV AA), with and without gold trapping; and in situ X-ray fluorescence (XRF) analysis.

(6) Reagents and Standards. Only NIST-certified or NIST-traceable calibration gas standards and reagents (or other standards approved by the Department, if NIST-certified or traceable standards are not available) must be used for the tests and procedures required under this rule.

(7) Sample Collection and Transport.

(a) Pre-Test Procedures.

(A) Selection of Sampling Site. Sampling site information should be obtained in accordance with Method 1 in appendix A-1 to 40 CFR part 60. Identify a monitoring location representative of source Hg emissions. Locations shown to be free of stratification through measurement traverses for gases such as SO<sub>2</sub> and NO<sub>x</sub> may be one such approach. An estimation of the expected stack Hg concentration is required to establish a target sample flow rate, total gas sample volume, and the mass of Hg<sub>0</sub> to be spiked onto section 3 of each sorbent trap.

(B) Pre-Sampling Spiking of Sorbent Traps. Based on the estimated Hg concentration in the stack, the target sample rate and the target sampling duration, calculate the expected mass loading for section 1 of each sorbent trap (for an example calculation, see subsection (12)(a) of this rule). The pre-sampling spike to be added to section 3 of each sorbent trap must be within ± 50 percent of the expected section 1 mass loading. Spike section 3 of each sorbent trap at this level, as described in subsection (5)(b) of this rule. For each sorbent trap, keep an official record of the mass of Hg<sub>0</sub> added to section 3. This record must include, at a minimum, the ID number of the trap, the date and time of the spike, the name of the analyst performing the procedure, the mass of Hg<sub>0</sub> added to section 3 of the trap (µg), and the supporting calculations. This record must be maintained in a format suitable for inspection and audit and must be made available to the regulatory agencies upon request.

(C) Pre-test Leak Check. Perform a leak check with the sorbent traps in place. Draw a vacuum in each sample train. Adjust the vacuum in the sample train to ± 15" Hg. Using the dry gas meter, determine leak rate. The leakage rate must not exceed 4 percent of the target sampling rate. Once the leak check passes this criterion, carefully release the vacuum in the sample train then seal the sorbent trap inlet until the probe is ready for insertion into the stack or duct.

(D) Determination of Flue Gas Characteristics. Determine or measure the flue gas measurement environment characteristics (gas temperature, static pressure, gas velocity, stack moisture, etc.) in order to determine ancillary requirements such as probe heating requirements (if any), initial sample rate, proportional sampling conditions, moisture management, etc.

(b) Sample Collection.

(A) Remove the plug from the end of each sorbent trap and store each plug in a clean sorbent trap storage container. Remove the stack or duct port cap and insert the probe(s). Secure the probe(s) and ensure that no leakage occurs between the duct and environment.

(B) Record initial data including the sorbent trap ID, start time, starting dry gas meter readings, initial temperatures, setpoints, and any other appropriate information.

(C) Flow Rate Control. Set the initial sample flow rate at the target value from paragraph (7)(a)(A) of this rule. Record the initial dry gas meter reading, stack temperature, meter temperatures, etc. Then, for every operating hour during the sampling period, record the date and time, the sample flow rate, the gas meter reading, the stack temperature, the flow meter temperatures, temperatures of heated equipment such as the vacuum lines and the probes (if heated), and the sampling system vacuum readings. Also record the stack gas flow rate, as measured by the certified flow monitor, and the ratio of the stack gas flow rate to the sample flow rate. Adjust the sampling flow rate to maintain proportional sampling, i.e., keep the ratio of the stack gas flow rate to sample flow rate constant, to within ± 25 percent of the reference ratio from the first hour of the data collection period (see section (11) of this rule). The sample flow rate through a sorbent trap monitoring system during any hour (or portion of an hour) in which the unit is not operating shall be zero.

(D) Stack Gas Moisture Determination. Determine stack gas moisture using a continuous moisture monitoring system, as described in 40 CFR 75.11(b). Alternatively, the owner or operator may use the appropriate fuel-specific moisture default value provided in 40 CFR 75.11, or a site specific moisture default value approved by petition under 40 CFR 75.66.

(E) Essential Operating Data. Obtain and record any essential operating data for the facility during the test period, e.g., the barometric pressure must be obtained for correcting sample volume to standard conditions. At the end of the data collection period, record the final dry gas meter reading and the final values of all other essential parameters.

(F) Post Test Leak Check. When sampling is completed, turn off the sample pump, remove the probe/sorbent trap from the port and carefully re-plug the end of each sorbent trap. Perform a leak check with the sorbent traps in place, at the maximum vacuum reached during the sampling period. Use the same general approach described in paragraph (7)(a)(C) of this rule. Record the leakage rate and vacuum. The leakage rate must not exceed 4 percent of the average sampling rate for the data collection period. Following the leak check, carefully release the vacuum in the sample train.

(G) Sample Recovery. Recover each sampled sorbent trap by removing it from the probe, sealing both ends. Wipe any deposited material from the outside of the sorbent trap. Place the sorbent trap into an appropriate sample storage container and store/preserve in appropriate manner.

(H) Sample Preservation, Storage, and Transport. While the performance criteria of this approach provide for verification of appropriate sample handling, it is still important that the user consider, determine, and plan for suitable sample preservation, storage, transport, and holding times for these measurements. Therefore, procedures in ASTM D6911-03 "Standard Guide for Packaging and Shipping Environmental Samples for Laboratory Analysis" must be followed for all samples.

(I) Sample Custody. Proper procedures and documentation for sample chain of custody are critical to ensuring data integrity. The chain of custody procedures in ASTM D4840-99 (reapproved 2004) "Standard Guide for Sample Chain-of-Custody Procedures" must be followed for all samples (including field samples and blanks).

(8) Quality Assurance and Quality Control. The owner and operator using a sorbent trap monitoring system must develop and implement a quality assurance/quality control (QA/QC) program. At a minimum, include in each QA/QC program a written plan that describes in detail (or that refers to separate documents containing) complete, step-by-step procedures and operations. Upon request from the Department, the owner or operator must make all procedures, maintenance records, and ancillary supporting documentation from the manufacturer (e.g., software coefficients and troubleshooting diagrams) available for review during an audit. Electronic storage of the information in the QA/QC plan is permissible, provided that the information can be made available in hardcopy upon request during an audit. Table 2 to this division summarizes the QA/QC performance criteria that are used to validate the Hg emissions data from sorbent trap monitoring systems, including the relative accuracy test audit (RATA) requirement (see section 6.5.7 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75 and section 2.3 of appendix B to 40 CFR part 75, except that for sorbent trap monitoring systems, RATAs must be performed annually, i.e., once every four successive QA operating quarters). The RATA must meet the requirements in OAR 340-228-0621(3)(d)(C)(iii). Except as provided in OAR 340-228-0617(8) and as otherwise indicated in Table 2 to this division, failure to achieve these performance criteria will result in invalidation of Hg emissions data.

(9) Quality Assurance and Quality Control Plan Content. In addition to section 1 of Appendix B to 40 CFR part 75, the QA/QC plan must contain the following:

(a) Sorbent Trap Identification and Tracking. Include procedures for inscribing or otherwise permanently marking a unique identification number on each sorbent trap, for tracking purposes. Keep records of the ID of the monitoring system in which each sorbent trap is used, and the dates and hours of each Hg collection period.

(b) Monitoring System Integrity and Data Quality. Explain the procedures used to perform the leak checks when a sorbent trap is placed in service and removed from service. Also explain the other QA procedures used to ensure system integrity and data quality, including, but not limited to, dry gas meter calibrations, verification of moisture removal, and ensuring air-tight pump operation. In addition, the QA plan must include the data acceptance and quality control criteria in section (8) of this rule.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) Hg Analysis. Explain the chain of custody employed in packing, transporting, and analyzing the sorbent traps (see paragraphs (7)(b)(H) and (I) of this rule). Keep records of all Hg analyses. The analyses must be performed in accordance with the procedures described in section (11) of this rule.

(d) Laboratory Certification. The QA Plan must include documentation that the laboratory performing the analyses on the carbon sorbent traps is certified by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO) to have a proficiency that meets the requirements of ISO 17025. Alternatively, if the laboratory performs the spike recovery study described in subsection (11)(c) of this rule and repeats that procedure annually, ISO certification is not required.

(10) Calibration and Standardization.

(a) Only NIST-certified and NIST-traceable calibration standards (i.e., calibration gases, solutions, etc.) (or other standards approved by the Department if NIST-certified or traceable standards are not available) must be used for the spiking and analytical procedures in this rule.

(b) Dry Gas Meter Calibration. Prior to its initial use, perform a full calibration of the metering system at three orifice settings to determine the average dry gas meter coefficient (Y), as described in section 10.3.1 of Method 5 in appendix A-3 to 40 CFR part 60. Thereafter, recalibrate the metering system quarterly at one intermediate orifice setting, as described in section 10.3.2 of Method 5 in appendix A-3 to 40 CFR part 60. If a quarterly recalibration shows that the value of Y has changed by more than 5 percent, repeat the full calibration of the metering system to determine a new value of Y.

(c) Thermocouples and Other Temperature Sensors. Use the procedures and criteria in section 10.3 of Method 2 in appendix A-1 to 40 CFR part 60 to calibrate in-stack temperature sensors and thermocouples. Dial thermometers must be calibrated against mercury-in-glass thermometers. Calibrations must be performed prior to initial use and at least quarterly thereafter. At each calibration point, the absolute temperature measured by the temperature sensor must agree to within  $\pm 1.5$  percent of the temperature measured with the reference sensor, otherwise the sensor may not continue to be used.

(d) Barometer. Calibrate against a mercury barometer. Calibration must be performed prior to initial use and at least quarterly thereafter. At each calibration point, the absolute pressure measured by the barometer must agree to within  $\pm 10$  mm Hg of the pressure measured by the mercury barometer, otherwise the barometer may not continue to be used.

(e) Other Sensors and Gauges. Calibrate all other sensors and gauges according to the procedures specified by the instrument manufacturer(s).

(f) Analytical System Calibration. See subsection (10)(a) of this rule.

(11) Analytical Procedures. The analysis of the Hg samples may be conducted using any instrument or technology capable of quantifying total Hg from the sorbent media and meeting the performance criteria in section (8) of this rule.

(a) Analyzer System Calibration. Perform a multipoint calibration of the analyzer at three or more upscale points over the desired quantitative range (multiple calibration ranges must be calibrated, if necessary). The field samples analyzed must fall within a calibrated, quantitative range and meet the necessary performance criteria. For samples that are suitable for aliquoting, a series of dilutions may be needed to ensure that the samples fall within a calibrated range. However, for sorbent media samples that are consumed during analysis (e.g., thermal desorption techniques), extra care must be taken to ensure that the analytical system is appropriately calibrated prior to sample analysis. The calibration curve range(s) should be determined based on the anticipated level of Hg mass on the sorbent media. Knowledge of estimated stack Hg concentrations and total sample volume may be required prior to analysis. The calibration curve for use with the various analytical techniques (e.g., UV AA, UV AF, and XRF) can be generated by directly introducing standard solutions into the analyzer or by spiking the standards onto the sorbent media and then introducing into the analyzer after preparing the sorbent/standard according to the particular analytical technique. For each calibration curve, the value of the square of the linear correlation coefficient, i.e.,  $r^2$ , must be  $\geq 0.99$ , and the analyzer response must be within  $\pm 10$  percent of reference value at each upscale calibration point. Calibrations must be performed on the day of the analysis, before analyzing any of the samples. Following calibration, an independently prepared standard (not from same calibration stock solution) must be analyzed. The measured value of the independently prepared standard must be within  $\pm 10$  percent of the expected value.

(b) Sample Preparation. Carefully separate the three sections of each sorbent trap. Combine for analysis all materials associated with each section, i.e., any supporting substrate that the sample gas passes through prior to entering a media section (e.g., glass wool, polyurethane foam, etc.) must be analyzed with that segment.

(c) Spike Recovery Study. Before analyzing any field samples, the laboratory must demonstrate the ability to recover and quantify Hg from the sorbent media by performing the following spike recovery study for sorbent media traps spiked with elemental mercury. Using the procedures described in subsections (5)(b) and (11)(a) of this rule, spike the third section of nine sorbent traps with gaseous Hg<sub>0</sub>, i.e., three traps at each of three different mass loadings, representing the range of masses anticipated in the field samples. This will yield a 3 x 3 sample matrix. Prepare and analyze the third section of each spiked trap, using the techniques that will be used to prepare and analyze the field samples. The average recovery for each spike concentration must be between 85 and 115 percent. If multiple types of sorbent media are to be analyzed, a separate spike recovery study is required for each sorbent material. If multiple ranges are calibrated, a separate spike recovery study is required for each range.

(d) Field Sample Analyses. Analyze the sorbent trap samples following the same procedures that were used for conducting the spike recovery study. The three sections of the sorbent trap must be analyzed separately (i.e., section 1, then section 2, then section 3). Quantify the mass of total Hg for each section based on analytical system response and the calibration curve from subsection (10)(a) of this rule. Determine the spike recovery from sorbent trap section 3. Pre-sampling spike recoveries must be between 75 and 125 percent. To report final Hg mass, normalize the data for sections 1 and 2 based on the sample-specific spike recovery, and add the normalized masses together.

(12) Calculations and Data Analysis.

(a) Calculation of Pre-Sampling Spiking Level. Determine sorbent trap section 3 spiking level using estimates of the stack Hg concentration, the target sample flow rate, and the expected sample duration. First, calculate the expected Hg mass that will be collected in section 1 of the trap. The presampling spike must be within  $\pm 50$  percent of this mass. Example calculation: For an estimated stack Hg concentration of 5  $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ , a target sample rate of 0.30 L/min, and a sample duration of 5 days:

$$(0.30 \text{ L/min}) (1440 \text{ min/day}) (5 \text{ days}) (10^{-3} \text{ m}^3/\text{liter}) (5 \mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3) = 10.8 \mu\text{g}$$

A pre-sampling spike of 10.8  $\mu\text{g} \pm 50$  percent is, therefore, appropriate.

(b) Calculations for Flow-Proportional Sampling. For the first hour of the data collection period, determine the reference ratio of the stack gas volumetric flow rate to the sample flow rate, as follows:

$$\text{Rref} = K \times \text{Qref} / \text{Fref}$$

Where:

Rref = Reference ratio of hourly stack gas flow rate to hourly sample flow rate

Qref = Average stack gas volumetric flow rate for first hour of collection period, adjusted for bias, if necessary according to section 7.6.5 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75, (scfh)

Fref = Average sample flow rate for first hour of the collection period, in appropriate units (e.g., liters/min, cc/min, dscm/min)

K = Power of ten multiplier, to keep the value of Rref between 1 and 100. The appropriate K value will depend on the selected units of measure for the sample flow rate. Then, for each subsequent hour of the data collection period, calculate ratio of the stack gas flow rate to the sample flow rate using the following equation:

$$\text{Rh} = K \times \text{Qh} / \text{Fh}$$

Where:

Rh = Ratio of hourly stack gas flow rate to hourly sample flow rate

Qh = Average stack gas volumetric flow rate for the hour, adjusted for bias, if necessary, according to section 7.6.5 of appendix A to 40 CFR part 75, (scfh)

Fh = Average sample flow rate for the hour, in appropriate units (e.g., liters/min, cc/min, dscm/min)

K = Power of ten multiplier, to keep the value of Rh between 1 and 100. The appropriate K value will depend on the selected units of measure for the sample flow rate and the range of expected stack gas flow rates.

Maintain the value of Rh within  $\pm 25$  percent of Rref throughout the data collection period.

(c) Calculation of Spike Recovery. Calculate the percent recovery of each section 3 spike, as follows:

$$\%R = (\text{M3}/\text{Ms}) \times 100$$

Where:

%R = Percentage recovery of the presampling spike

M3 = Mass of Hg recovered from section 3 of the sorbent trap, ( $\mu\text{g}$ )

Ms = Calculated Hg mass of the pre-sampling spike, from paragraph (7)(a)(B) of this rule, ( $\mu\text{g}$ )

(d) Calculation of Breakthrough. Calculate the percent breakthrough to the second section of the sorbent trap, as follows:

$$\%B = (\text{M2}/\text{M1}) \times 100$$

Where:

%B = Percent breakthrough

M2 = Mass of Hg recovered from section 2 of the sorbent trap, ( $\mu\text{g}$ )

M1 = Mass of Hg recovered from section 1 of the sorbent trap, ( $\mu\text{g}$ )

(e) Normalizing Measured Hg Mass for Section 3 Spike Recoveries. Based on the results of the spike recovery in subsection (12)(c) of this rule, normalize the Hg mass collected in sections 1 and 2 of the sorbent trap, as follows:

$$\text{M}^* = ((\text{M1} + \text{M2}) \times \text{Ms}) / \text{M3}$$

Where:

M\* = Normalized total mass of Hg recovered from sections 1 and 2 of the sorbent trap, ( $\mu\text{g}$ )

M1 = Mass of Hg recovered from section 1 of the sorbent trap, unadjusted, ( $\mu\text{g}$ )

M2 = Mass of Hg recovered from section 2 of the sorbent trap, unadjusted, ( $\mu\text{g}$ )

Ms = Calculated Hg mass of the pre-sampling spike, from paragraph (7)(a)(B) of this rule, ( $\mu\text{g}$ )

M3 = Mass of Hg recovered from section 3 of the sorbent trap, ( $\mu\text{g}$ )

(f) Calculation of Hg Concentration. Calculate the Hg concentration for each sorbent trap, using the following equation:

$$\text{C} = \text{M}^* / \text{Vt}$$

Where:

C = Concentration of Hg for the collection period, ( $\mu\text{g}/\text{dscm}$ )

M\* = Normalized total mass of Hg recovered from sections 1 and 2 of the sorbent trap, ( $\mu\text{g}$ )

Vt = Total volume of dry gas metered during the collection period, (dscm). For the purposes of this rule, standard temperature and pressure are defined as 20°C and 760 mm Hg, respectively.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(g) Calculation of Paired Trap Agreement. Calculate the relative deviation (RD) between the Hg concentrations measured with the paired sorbent traps as follows:

$$RD = (|Ca - Cb| / (Ca + Cb)) \times 100$$

Where:

RD = Relative deviation between the Hg concentrations from traps "a" and "b" (percent)

Ca = Concentration of Hg for the collection period, for sorbent trap "a" ( $\mu\text{g}/\text{dscm}$ )

Cb = Concentration of Hg for the collection period, for sorbent trap "b" ( $\mu\text{g}/\text{dscm}$ )

(h) Calculation of Hg Mass Emissions. To calculate Hg mass emissions, follow the procedures in OAR 340-228-0619(1)(b). Use the average of the two Hg concentrations from the paired traps in the calculations, except as provided in OAR 340-228-0617(8) or in Table 2 to this division.

(13) Method Performance. These monitoring criteria and procedures have been applied to coal-fired utility boilers (including units with post-combustion emission controls), having vapor-phase Hg concentrations ranging from 0.03  $\mu\text{g}/\text{dscm}$  to 100  $\mu\text{g}/\text{dscm}$ .

Fuel Analyses and Procedures

(1) The owner or operator must conduct fuel analyses according to the procedures in sections (2) through (5) of this rule and Table 4 to this division, as applicable.

(2) The owner or operator must develop and submit a site-specific fuel analysis plan to the Department for review and approval according to the following procedures and requirements in subsections (2)(a) and (b) of this rule.

(a) The owner or operator must submit the fuel analysis plan no later than 60 days before the date that the owner or operator intends to demonstrate compliance.

(b) The owner or operator must include the information contained in paragraphs (2)(b)(A) through (F) of this rule in the fuel analysis plan.

(A) The identification of all fuel types anticipated to be burned in each boiler or process heater.

(B) For each fuel type, the notification of whether the owner or operator or a fuel supplier will be conducting the fuel analysis.

(C) For each fuel type, a detailed description of the sample location and specific procedures to be used for collecting and preparing the composite samples if the procedures are different from section (3) or (4) of this rule. Samples should be collected at a location that most accurately represents the fuel type, where possible, at a point prior to mixing with other dissimilar fuel types.

(D) For each fuel type, the analytical methods, with the expected minimum detection levels, to be used for the measurement of selected total metals, chlorine, or mercury.

(E) If requesting to use an alternative analytical method other than those required by Table 4 to this division, the owner or operator must also include a detailed description of the methods and procedures that will be used.

(F) If using fuel analysis from a fuel supplier in lieu of site-specific sampling and analysis, the fuel supplier must use the analytical methods required by Table 4 to this division.

(3) At a minimum, the owner or operator must obtain three composite fuel samples for each fuel type according to the procedures in subsection (3)(a) or (b) of this rule.

(a) If sampling from a belt (or screw) feeder, collect fuel samples according to paragraphs (3)(a)(A) and (B) of this rule.

(A) Stop the belt and withdraw a 6-inch wide sample from the full cross-section of the stopped belt to obtain a minimum two pounds of sample. Collect all the material (fines and coarse) in the full cross-section. Transfer the sample to a clean plastic bag.

(B) Each composite sample will consist of a minimum of three samples collected at approximately equal intervals during the testing period.

(b) If sampling from a fuel pile or truck, collect fuel samples according to paragraphs (3)(b)(A) through (C) of this rule.

(A) For each composite sample, select a minimum of five sampling locations uniformly spaced over the surface of the pile.

(B) At each sampling site, dig into the pile to a depth of 18 inches. Insert a clean flat square shovel into the hole and withdraw a sample, making sure that large pieces do not fall off during sampling.

(C) Transfer all samples to a clean plastic bag for further processing.

(4) Prepare each composite sample according to the procedures in subsections (4)(a) through (f) of this rule.

(a) Thoroughly mix and pour the entire composite sample over a clean plastic sheet.

(b) Break sample pieces larger than 3 inches into smaller sizes.

(c) Make a pie shape with the entire composite sample and subdivide it into four equal parts.

(d) Separate one of the quarter samples as the first subset.

(e) Grind the sample in a mill.

(f) If the subset is too large for grinding, repeat the procedures in subsection (4)(c) of this rule to obtain a one-quarter subsample for analysis. If the quarter sample is too large, subdivide it further using the same procedure.

(5) Determine the concentration of pollutants in the fuel (mercury, chlorine, and/or total selected metals) in units of pounds per million Btu of each composite sample for each fuel type according to the procedures in Table 6 to this subpart.

340-238-0040

Definitions

The definitions in OAR 340-200-0020 and this rule apply to this division. If the same term is defined in this rule and OAR 340-200-0020, the definition in this rule applies to this division.

(1) "Administrator" means the Administrator of the EPA or authorized representative.

(2) "Alternative method" means any method of sampling and analyzing for an air pollutant that is not a reference or equivalent method but that has been demonstrated to the DEQ's satisfaction to, in specific cases, produce results adequate for determination of compliance.

(3) "Capital expenditures" means an expenditure for a physical or operational change to an existing facility that exceeds the product of the applicable "annual asset guideline repair allowance percentage" specified in Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Publication 534 and the existing facility's basis, as defined by section 1012 of the Internal Revenue Code. However, the total expenditure for a physical or operational change to an existing facility must not be reduced by any "excluded additions" as defined in IRS Publication 534, as would be done for tax purposes.

(4) "CFR" means Code of Federal Regulations and, unless otherwise expressly identified, refers to the July 1, 2009 edition.

(5) "Closed municipal solid waste landfill" (closed landfill) means a landfill in which solid waste is no longer being placed, and in which no additional solid wastes will be placed without first filing a notification of modification as prescribed under 40 CFR 60.7(a)(4). Once a notification of modification has been filed, and additional solid waste is placed in the landfill, the landfill is no longer closed. A landfill is considered closed after meeting the criteria of 40 CFR 258.60.

(6) "Commenced", with respect to the definition of "new source" in section 111(a)(2) of the federal Clean Air Act, means that an owner or operator has undertaken a continuous program of construction or modification or that an owner or operator has entered into a contractual obligation to undertake and complete, within a reasonable time, a continuous program of construction or modification.

(7) "Construction" means fabrication, erection, or installation of a facility.

(8) "Department" means the Department of Environmental Quality or, in the case of Lane County, the Lane Regional Air Protection Agency.

(9) "Environmental Protection Agency" or "EPA" means the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

(10) "Existing municipal solid waste landfill" (existing landfill) means a municipal solid waste landfill that began construction, reconstruction or modification before 5/30/91 and has accepted waste at any time since 11/08/87 or has additional design capacity available for future waste deposition.

(11) "Equivalent method" means any method of sampling and analyzing for an air pollutant that has been demonstrated to the Department's satisfaction to have a consistent and quantitatively known relationship to the reference method, under specified conditions.

(12) "Existing facility", with reference to a stationary source, means any apparatus of the type for which a standard is promulgated in 40 CFR Part 60, and the construction or modification of which commenced before the date of proposal by EPA of that standard; or any apparatus that could be altered in such a way as to be of that type.

(13) "Facility" means all or part of any public or private building, structure, installation, equipment, vehicle or vessel, including, but not limited to, ships.

(14) "Fixed capital cost" means the capital needed to provide all the depreciable components.

(15) "Large municipal solid waste landfill" (large landfill) means a municipal solid waste landfill with a design capacity greater than or equal to 2.5 million megagrams or 2.5 million cubic meters.

(16) "Modification:"

(a) except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, means any physical change in, or change in the method of operation of, an existing facility that increases the amount of any air pollutant (to which a standard applies) emitted into the atmosphere by that facility or that results in the emission of any air pollutant (to which a standard applies) into the atmosphere not previously emitted;

(b) As used in OAR 340-238-0100 means an action that results in an increase in the design capacity of a landfill.

(17) "Municipal solid waste landfill" (landfill) means an entire disposal facility in a contiguous geographical space where household waste is placed in or on land. A municipal solid waste landfill may also receive other types of RCRA Subtitle D wastes such as commercial solid waste, nonhaz-

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

ardous sludge, conditionally exempt small quantity generator waste, and industrial solid waste. Portions of a municipal solid waste landfill may be separated by access roads and may be publicly or privately owned. A municipal solid waste landfill may be a new municipal solid waste landfill, an existing municipal solid waste landfill, or a lateral expansion (modification).

(18) "New municipal solid waste landfill" (new landfill) means a municipal solid waste landfill that began construction, reconstruction or modification or began accepting waste on or after 5/30/91.

(19) "Particulate matter" means any finely divided solid or liquid material, other than uncombined water, as measured by an applicable reference method, or an equivalent or alternative method.

(20) "Reconstruction" means the replacement of components of an existing facility to such an extent that:

(a) The fixed capital cost of the new components exceeds 50 percent of the fixed capital cost that would be required to construct a comparable entirely new facility; and

(b) It is technologically and economically feasible to meet the applicable standards set forth in 40 CFR Part 60.

(21) "Reference method" means any method of sampling and analyzing for an air pollutant as specified in 40 CFR Part 60.

(22) "Small municipal solid waste landfill" (small landfill) means a municipal solid waste landfill with a design capacity less than 2.5 million megagrams or 2.5 million cubic meters.

(23) "Standard" means a standard of performance proposed or promulgated under 40 CFR Part 60.

(24) "State Plan" means a plan developed for the control of a designated pollutant provided under 40 CFR Part 60.

(25) "Stationary source" means any building, structure, facility, or installation that emits or may emit any air pollutant subject to regulation under the federal Clean Air Act.

(26) "Volatile organic compounds" or "VOC" means any organic compounds that participate in atmospheric photochemical reactions; or that are measured by a reference method, an equivalent method, an alternative method, or that are determined by procedures specified under any applicable rule.

340-244-0030

Definitions

The definitions in OAR 340-200-0020, 340-218-0030 and this rule apply to this division. If the same term is defined in this rule and OAR 340-200-0020 or 340-218-0030, the definition in this rule applies to this division.

(1) "Accidental Release" means an unanticipated emission of a regulated substance or other extremely hazardous substance into the ambient air from a stationary source.

(2) "Act" and "FCAA" mean the Federal Clean Air Act, Public Law 88-206 as last amended by Public Law 101-549.

(3) "Annual throughput" means the amount of gasoline transferred into a gasoline dispensing facility during 12 consecutive months.

(4) "Area Source" means any stationary source which has the potential to emit hazardous air pollutants but is not a major source of hazardous air pollutants.

(5) "CFR" means Code of Federal Regulations and, unless otherwise expressly identified, refers to the July 1, 2009 edition.

(6) "Commission" means the Oregon Environmental Quality Commission.

(7) "Construct a major source" means to fabricate, erect, or install at any greenfield site a stationary source or group of stationary sources which is located within a contiguous area and under common control and which emits or has the potential to emit 10 tons per year of any HAPs or 25 tons per year of any combination of HAP, or to fabricate, erect, or install at any developed site a new process or production unit which in and of itself emits or has the potential to emit 10 tons per year of any HAP or 25 tons per year of any combination of HAP, unless the process or production unit satisfies criteria in paragraphs (a) through (f) of this definition:

(a) All HAP emitted by the process or production unit that would otherwise be controlled under the requirements of 40 CFR Part 63, Subpart B will be controlled by emission control equipment which was previously installed at the same site as the process or production unit;

(b) The Department has determined within a period of 5 years prior to the fabrication, erection, or installation of the process or production unit that the existing emission control equipment represented the best available control technology (BACT), lowest achievable emission rate (LAER) under 40 CFR part 51 or 52, toxics-best available control technology (T-BACT), or MACT based on State air toxic rules for the category of pollutants which includes those HAP to be emitted by the process or production unit; or the Department determines that the control of HAP emissions provided by the existing equipment will be equivalent to that level of control currently achieved by other well-controlled similar sources (i.e., equivalent to the level of control that would be provided by a current BACT, LAER, T-BACT, or State air toxic rule MACT determination).

(c) The Department determines that the percent control efficiency for emission of HAP from all sources to be controlled by the existing control equipment will be equivalent to the percent control efficiency provided by the control equipment prior to the inclusion of the new process or production unit;

(d) The Department has provided notice and an opportunity for public comment concerning its determination that criteria in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this definition apply and concerning the continued adequacy of any prior LAER, BACT, T-BACT, or State air toxic rule MACT determination;

(e) If any commenter has asserted that a prior LAER, BACT, T-BACT, or State air toxic rule MACT determination is no longer adequate, the Department has determined that the level of control required by that prior determination remains adequate; and

(f) Any emission limitations, work practice requirements, or other terms and conditions upon which the above determinations by the Department are predicated will be construed by the Department as applicable requirements under section 504(a) and either have been incorporated into any existing Title V permit for the affected facility or will be incorporated into such permit upon issuance.

(8) "Department" means the Department of Environmental Quality.

(9) "Director" means the Director of the Department or Regional Agency, and authorized deputies or officers.

(10) "Dual-point vapor balance system" means a type of vapor balance system in which the storage tank is equipped with an entry port for a gasoline fill pipe and a separate exit port for a vapor connection.

(11) "Emission" means a release into the atmosphere of any regulated pollutant or air contaminant.

(12) "Emissions Limitation" and "Emissions Standard" mean a requirement adopted by the Department or Regional Agency, or proposed or promulgated by the Administrator of the EPA, which limits the quantity, rate, or concentration of emissions of air pollutants on a continuous basis, including any requirements which limit the level of opacity, prescribe equipment, set fuel specifications, or prescribe operation or maintenance procedures for a source to assure continuous emission reduction.

(13) "Emissions Unit" means any part or activity of a stationary source that emits or has the potential to emit any regulated air pollutant.

(a) A part of a stationary source is any machine, equipment, raw material, product, or by-product that produces or emits air pollutants. An activity is any process, operation, action, or reaction (e.g., chemical) at a stationary source that emits air pollutants. Except as described in paragraph (d) of this definition, parts and activities may be grouped for purposes of defining an emissions unit provided the following conditions are met:

(A) The group used to define the emissions unit may not include discrete parts or activities to which a distinct emissions standard applies or for which different compliance demonstration requirements apply; and

(B) The emissions from the emissions unit are quantifiable.

(b) Emissions units may be defined on a pollutant by pollutant basis where applicable;

(c) The term "emissions unit" is not meant to alter or affect the definition of the term "unit" for purposes of Title IV of the FCAA;

(d) Parts and activities cannot be grouped for determining emissions increases from an emissions unit under OAR 340-224-0050 through 340-224-0070, or OAR 340 division 210, or for determining the applicability of a New Source Performance Standard (NSPS).

(14) "EPA" means the Administrator of the United States Environmental Protection Agency or the Administrator's designee.

(15) "Equipment leaks" means leaks from pumps, compressors, pressure relief devices, sampling connection systems, open ended valves or lines, valves, connectors, agitators, accumulator vessels, and instrumentation systems in hazardous air pollutant service.

(16) "Existing Source" means any source, the construction of which commenced prior to proposal of an applicable standard under sections 112 or 129 of the FCAA.

(17) "Facility" means all or part of any public or private building, structure, installation, equipment, or vehicle or vessel, including but not limited to ships.

(18) "Fugitive Emissions" means emissions of any air contaminant that escape to the atmosphere from any point or area that is not identifiable as a stack, vent, duct or equivalent opening.

(19) "Gasoline cargo tank" means a delivery tank truck or railcar which is loading gasoline or which has loaded gasoline on the immediately previous load.

(20) "Gasoline dispensing facility (GDF)" means any stationary facility which dispenses gasoline into the fuel tank of a motor vehicle. In Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington Counties, the Medford-Ashland Air Quality Maintenance Area, and the Salem-Keizer Area Transportation Study area, "gasoline dispensing facility" means any stationary facility which dispenses gasoline into the fuel tank of a motor vehicle, boat, or airplane.

(21) "Hazardous Air Pollutant" (HAP) means an air pollutant listed by the EPA pursuant to section 112(b) of the FCAA or determined by the Commission to cause, or reasonably be anticipated to cause, adverse effects to human health or the environment.

(22) "Major Source" means any stationary source or group of stationary sources located within a contiguous area and under common control that emits or has the potential to emit considering controls, in the aggregate, 10 tons per year or more of any hazardous air pollutant or 25 tons per year or more of any combination of hazardous air pollutants. The EPA may establish a lesser quantity, or in the case of radionuclides different criteria, for a major source on the basis of the potency of the air pollutant, persistence, potential for bioaccumulation, other characteristics of the air pollutant, or other relevant factors.

(23) "Maximum Achievable Control Technology (MACT)" means an emission standard applicable to major sources of hazardous air pollutants that requires the maximum degree of reduction in emissions deemed achievable for either new or existing sources.

(24) "Monthly throughput" means the total volume of gasoline that is loaded into all gasoline storage tanks during a month, as calculated on a rolling 30-day average.

(25) "New Source" means a stationary source, the construction of which is commenced after proposal of a federal MACT or January 3, 1993 of this Division, whichever is earlier.

(26) "Person" means the United States Government and agencies thereof, any state, individual, public or private corporation, political subdivision, governmental agency, municipality, industry, co-partnership, association, firm, trust, estate, or any other legal entity whatsoever.

(27) "Potential to Emit" means the maximum capacity of a stationary source to emit any air pollutant under its physical and operational design. Any physical or operational limitation on the capacity of a source to emit an air pollutant, including air pollution control equipment and restrictions on hours of operation or on the type or amount of material combusted, stored, or processed, shall be treated as part of its design if the limitation is enforceable by the EPA. This section does not alter or affect the use of this section for any other purposes under the Act, or the term "capacity factor" as used in Title IV of the Act or the regulations promulgated thereunder. Secondary emissions shall not be considered in determining the potential to emit of a source.

(28) "Reconstruct a Major Source" means the replacement of components at an existing process or production unit that in and of itself emits or has the potential to emit 10 tons per year of any HAP or 25 tons per year of any combination of HAP, whenever: the fixed capital cost of the new components exceeds 50 percent of the fixed capital cost that would be required to construct a comparable process or production unit; and; it is technically and economically feasible for the reconstructed major source to meet the applicable maximum achievable control technology emission limitation for new sources established under 40 CFR Part 63 Subpart B.

(29) "Regional Agency" means Lane Regional Air Protection Agency.

(30) "Regulated Air Pollutant" as used in this Division means:

- (a) Any pollutant listed under OAR 340-200-0400 or 340-244-0230; or
- (b) Any pollutant that is subject to a standard promulgated pursuant to Section 129 of the Act.

(31) "Secondary Emissions" means emissions from new or existing sources which occur as a result of the construction and/or operation of a source or modification, but do not come from the source itself. Secondary emissions shall be specific, well defined, and quantifiable, and impact the same general area as the source associated with the secondary emissions. Secondary emissions may include but are not limited to:

(a) Emissions from ships and trains coming to or from a facility;

(b) Emissions from onsite support facilities which would be constructed or would otherwise increase emissions as a result of the construction of a source or modification.

(32) "Section 111" means that section of the FCAA that includes standards of performance for new stationary sources.

(33) "Section 112(b)" means that subsection of the FCAA that includes the list of hazardous air pollutants to be regulated.

(34) "Section 112(d)" means that subsection of the FCAA that directs the EPA to establish emission standards for sources of hazardous air pollutants. This section also defines the criteria to be used by EPA when establishing the emission standards.

(35) "Section 112(e)" means that subsection of the FCAA that directs the EPA to establish and promulgate emissions standards for categories and subcategories of sources that emit hazardous air pollutants.

(36) "Section 112(n)" means that subsection of the FCAA that includes requirements for the EPA to conduct studies on the hazards to public health prior to developing emissions standards for specified categories of hazardous air pollutant emission sources.

(37) "Section 112(r)" means that subsection of the FCAA that includes requirements for the EPA promulgate regulations for the prevention, detection and correction of accidental releases.

(38) "Section 129" means that section of the FCAA that requires EPA to promulgate regulations for solid waste combustion.

(39) "Solid Waste Incineration Unit" as used in this Division shall have the same meaning as given in Section 129(g) of the FCAA.

(40) "Stationary Source":

(a) As used in OAR 340 division 244 means any building, structure, facility, or installation which emits or may emit any regulated air pollutant;

(b) As used in OAR 340-244-0230 means any buildings, structures, equipment, installations, or substance emitting stationary activities:

(A) That belong to the same industrial group;

(B) That are located on one or more contiguous properties;

(C) That are under the control of the same person (or persons under common control); and

(D) From which an accidental release may occur.

(41) "Submerged filling" means, for the purposes of this subpart, the filling of a gasoline storage tank through a submerged fill pipe whose discharge is no more than the applicable distance specified in OAR 340-244-0242(2) from the bottom of the tank. Bottom filling of gasoline storage tanks is included in this definition.

(42) "Topping off" means, in the absence of equipment malfunction, continuing to fill a gasoline tank after the nozzle has clicked off.

(43) "Vapor balance system" means a combination of pipes and hoses that create a closed system between the vapor spaces of an unloading gasoline cargo tank and a receiving storage tank such that vapors displaced from the storage tank are transferred to the gasoline cargo tank being unloaded.

(44) "Vapor-tight" means equipment that allows no loss of vapors. Compliance with vapor-tight requirements can be determined by checking to ensure that the concentration at a potential leak source is not equal to or greater than 100 percent of the Lower Explosive Limit when measured with a combustible gas detector, calibrated with propane, at a distance of 1 inch from the source.

ble, no later than January 10, 2008 or upon startup, whichever is later, except as follows:

(a) The owner or operator of a new or reconstructed GDF must comply with OAR 340-244-0240(1)(b) and (c) no later than July 1, 2009 or upon startup, whichever is later.

(b) For tanks located at a GDF with average monthly throughput less than 100,000 gallons of gasoline and not listed in OAR 340-244-0234(4)(a)(C) or (4)(b) must comply with OAR 340-244-0242, as applicable, no later than December 13, 2009 or upon startup, whichever is later.

(c) The owner or operator of a GDF subject to Table 4 of this division must comply no later than September 23, 2008 or upon startup, whichever is later.

(2) For an existing affected source, the owner or operator must comply with the standards in OAR 340-244-0240 and 0242, as applicable, by no later than January 10, 2011, except as follows:

(a) For tanks with a capacity between 1,500 and 40,000 gallons and located in the Portland AQMA, Medford AQMA, or Salem SATS, the owner or operator must comply with the standards in OAR 340-244-0240(3) and 0242 no later than December 13, 2008.

(b) For tanks located at an affected source located in Clackamas, Multnomah, or Washington County, whose annual throughput exceeds 120,000 gallons, the owner or operator must comply with the standards in OAR 340-244-0240(3) and 0242 no later than December 13, 2008.

(c) The owner or operator of an existing GDF must comply with OAR 340-244-0240(1)(b) and (c) no later than July 1, 2009 or upon startup, whichever is later.

(3) For an existing affected source that becomes subject to the control requirements in this rule because of an increase in the average monthly throughput, as specified in OAR 340-244-0234(4), the owner or operator must comply with the standards in this rule no later than January 10, 2011 or within 2 years after the affected source becomes subject to the control requirements in this rule, whichever is later.

NOTE: This rule is included in the State of Oregon Clean Air Act Implementation Plan as adopted by the Environmental Quality Commission under OAR 340-200-0040.

Work Practice and Submerged Fill Requirements

(1) The owner or operator of a GDF must not allow gasoline to be handled in a manner that would result in vapor releases to the atmosphere for extended periods of time. Measures to be taken include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Minimize gasoline spills;

(b) Do not top off or overflow vehicle tanks. If a person can confirm that a vehicle tank is not full after the nozzle clicks off (such as by checking the vehicle's fuel tank gauge), the person may continue to dispense fuel using best judgment and caution to prevent a spill;

(c) Post a sign at the GDF instructing a person filling up a motor vehicle to not top off the vehicle tank;

(d) Clean up spills as expeditiously as practicable;

(e) Cover all open gasoline containers and all gasoline storage tank fill-pipes with a gasketed seal when not in use;

(f) Minimize gasoline sent to open waste collection systems that collect and transport gasoline to reclamation and recycling devices, such as oil/water separators.

(g) Ensure that cargo tanks unloading at the GDF comply with subsections (1)(a) through (e) of this rule.

(2) Any cargo tank unloading at a GDF equipped with a functional vapor balance system must connect to the vapor balance system whenever gasoline is being loaded.

(3) The owner or operator must only load gasoline into storage tanks at the facility by utilizing submerged filling, as defined in OAR 340-244-0030, and as specified in subsection (3)(a) or (3)(b) of this rule.

(a) Submerged fill pipes installed on or before November 9, 2006, must be no more than 12 inches from the bottom of the storage tank.

(b) Submerged fill pipes installed after November 9, 2006, must be no more than 6 inches from the bottom of the storage tank.

(4) Gasoline storage tanks with a capacity of less than 250 gallons are not required to comply with the submerged fill requirements in section (3) of this rule.

(5) The owner or operator must submit the applicable notifications as required under OAR 340-244-0246.

(6) The owner or operator must have records available within 24 hours of a request by the Department to document gasoline throughput.

(7) The owner or operator must comply with the requirements of this rule by the applicable dates specified in OAR 340-244-0238.

NOTE: This rule is included in the State of Oregon Clean Air Act Implementation Plan as adopted by the Environmental Quality Commission under OAR 340-200-0040.

340-244-0242

Vapor Balance Requirements

(1) Except as provided in section (2) of this rule, the owner or operator of gasoline storage tank listed in OAR 340-244-0234(4), must meet the requirements in either subsection (1)(a) or (1)(b) of this rule.

(a) Each management practice in Table 4 of this division that applies to the GDF.

(b) If, prior to January 10, 2008, the owner or operator operates a vapor balance system at the GDF that meets the requirements of either paragraph (1)(b)(A) or (1)(b)(B) of this rule, the owner or operator will be deemed in compliance with this section.

(A) Achieves emissions reduction of at least 90 percent.

(B) Operates using management practices at least as stringent as those in Table 4 of this division.

(2) Gasoline storage tanks equipped with floating roofs or the equivalent are not required to comply with the control requirements in section (1) of this rule.

(3) Cargo tanks unloading at a GDF must comply with the requirements of OAR 340-244-0240(1) and management practices in Table 5 of this division.

(4) The owner or operator of a GDF subject to section (1) of this rule or having a gasoline storage tank equipped with a vapor balance system, must comply with the following requirements on and after the applicable compliance date in OAR 340-244-0238:

(a) When loading a gasoline storage tank equipped with a vapor balance system, connect and ensure the proper operation of the vapor balance system whenever gasoline is being loaded.

(b) Maintain all equipment associated with the vapor balance system to be vapor tight and in good working order.

(c) In order to ensure that the vapor balance equipment is maintained to be vapor tight and in good working order, have the vapor balance equipment inspected on an annual basis to discover potential or actual equipment failures.

(d) Replace, repair or modify any worn or ineffective component or design element within 24 hours to ensure the vapor-tight integrity and efficiency of the vapor balance system. If repair parts must be ordered, either a written or verbal order for those parts must be initiated within 2 working days of detecting such a leak. Such repair parts must be installed within 5 working days after receipt.

(5) The owner or operator of a GDF subject to section (1) of this rule must also comply with the following requirements:

(a) The applicable testing requirements contained in OAR 340-244-0244.

(b) The applicable notification requirements under OAR 340-244-0246.

(c) The applicable recordkeeping and reporting requirements as specified in OAR 340-244-0248 and 0250.

(d) The owner or operator must have records available within 24 hours of a request by the Department to document gasoline throughput.

NOTE: This rule is included in the State of Oregon Clean Air Act Implementation Plan as adopted by the Environmental Quality Commission under OAR 340-200-0040.

Notifications

(1) Each owner or operator subject to the control requirements in OAR 340-244-0240(3) must comply with subsections (1)(a) through (c) of this rule.

(a) The owner or operator must submit an Initial Notification that the owner or operator is subject to the Gasoline Dispensing Facilities NESHAP by May 9, 2008, or at the time the owner or operator becomes subject to the control requirements in OAR 340-244-0240(3), unless the owner or operator meets the requirements in subsection (1)(c) of this rule. The Initial Notification must contain the information specified in paragraphs (1)(a)(A) through (C) of this rule. The notification must be submitted to EPA's Region 10 Office and the Department as specified in 40 CFR 63.13.

(A) The name and address of the owner and the operator.

(B) The address (i.e., physical location) of the GDF.

(C) A statement that the notification is being submitted in response to the Gasoline Dispensing Facilities NESHAP and identifying the requirements in OAR 340-244-0240(1) through (3) that apply to the owner or operator.

(b) The owner or operator must submit a Notification of Compliance Status to EPA's Region 10 Office and the Department, as specified in 40 CFR 63.13, by the compliance date specified in OAR 340-244-0238 unless the owner or operator meets the requirements in subsection (1)(c) of this rule. The Notification of Compliance Status must be signed by a responsible official who must certify its accuracy and must indicate whether the source has complied with the requirements of OAR 340-244-0232 through 0252. If the facility is in compliance with the requirements of OAR 340-244-0232 through 0252 at the time the Initial Notification required under subsection (1)(a) of this rule is due, the Notification of Compliance Status may be submitted in lieu of the Initial Notification provided it contains the information required under subsection (1)(a) of this rule.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) If, prior to January 10, 2008, the owner or operator is operating in compliance with an enforceable State rule or permit that requires submerged fill as specified in OAR 340-244-0240(3), the owner or operator is not required to submit an Initial Notification or a Notification of Compliance Status under subsection (1)(a) or (b) of this rule.

(2) Each owner or operator subject to the control requirements in OAR 340-244-0242 must comply with subsections (2)(a) through (e) of this rule.

(a) The owner or operator must submit an Initial Notification that the owner or operator is subject to the Gasoline Dispensing Facilities NESHAP by May 9, 2008, or at the time the owner or operator becomes subject to the control requirements in OAR 340-244-0242. The Initial Notification must contain the information specified in paragraphs (2)(a)(A) through (C) of this rule. The notification must be submitted to EPA's Region 10 Office and the Department as specified in 40 CFR 63.13.

(A) The name and address of the owner and the operator.

(B) The address (i.e., physical location) of the GDF.

(C) A statement that the notification is being submitted in response to the Gasoline Dispensing Facilities NESHAP and identifying the requirements in OAR 340-244-0242 that apply to the owner or operator.

(b) The owner or operator must submit a Notification of Compliance Status to EPA's Regional 10 Office and the Department, as specified in 40 CFR 63.13, by the compliance date specified in OAR 340-244-0238. The Notification of Compliance Status must be signed by a responsible official who must certify its accuracy and must indicate whether the source has complied with the requirements of OAR 340-244-0232 through 0252. If the facility is in compliance with the requirements OAR 340-244-0232 through 0252 at the time the Initial Notification required under subsection (2)(a) of this rule is due, the Notification of Compliance Status may be submitted in lieu of the Initial Notification provided it contains the information required under subsection (2)(a) of this rule.

(c) If, prior to January 10, 2008, the owner or operator satisfies the requirements in both paragraphs (2)(c)(A) and (B) of this rule, the owner or operator is not required to submit an Initial Notification or a Notification of Compliance Status if the owner or operator operates a vapor balance system at the gasoline dispensing facility that meets the requirements of either paragraphs (2)(c)(A) or (B) of this rule.

(A) Achieves emissions reduction of at least 90 percent.

(B) Operates using management practices at least as stringent as those in Table 4 of this division.

(d) The owner or operator must submit a Notification of Performance Test, as specified in 40 CFR 63.9(e), prior to initiating testing required by OAR 340-244-0244(1) and (2).

(e) The owner or operator must submit additional notifications specified in 40 CFR 63.9, as applicable.

NOTE: This rule is included in the State of Oregon Clean Air Act Implementation Plan as adopted by the Environmental Quality Commission under OAR 340-200-0040.

Rules Adopted: 340-215-0050

Rules Amended: 340-216-0020, 340-220-0050

Subject: The temporary rule adoption and amendments create fees for sources subject to Oregon's greenhouse gas reporting rules, pursuant to ORS 468A.050(1)(4)(a). The new fees for the calendar year are equal to fifteen percent of the permit fees paid by affected sources in 2009. The new fees apply to subset of sources that hold Air Contaminant Discharge Permits and a subset of sources that hold Title V operating permits. The new fees are capped at $6,000 for any individual source holding a Title V operating permit.

Greenhouse Gas Reporting Fees

(1) Any person required to register and report under OAR 340-215-0030(1)(a) must submit greenhouse gas reporting fees to the Department as specified in OAR 340-220-0050(4). The fees must be received by the Department within 30 days after the Department mails the fee invoice.

(2) Any person required to register and report under OAR 340-215-0030(1)(b)–(c) must submit greenhouse gas reporting fees to the Department as specified in OAR Chapter 340, Division 216, Table 2, Part 3. The fees must be received by the Department within 30 days after the Department mails the fee invoice.

340-216-0020

Applicability

This division applies to all sources referred to in Table 1. This division also applies to Oregon Title V Operating Permit program sources when an ACDP is required by OAR 340-218-0020 or 340-224-0010. Sources referred to in Table 1 are subject to fees as set forth in Table 2.

(1) No person may construct, install, establish, develop or operate any air contaminant source which is referred to in Table 1 without first obtaining an Air Contaminant Discharge Permit (ACDP) from the Department or Regional Authority, unless otherwise deferred from the requirement to obtain an ACDP in subsection (1)(c) or (d) of this rule. No person may continue to operate an air contaminant source if the ACDP expires, or is terminated or revoked; except as provided in OAR 340-216-0082.

(a) For portable sources, a single permit may be issued for operating at any area of the state if the permit includes the requirements from both the Department and Regional Authorities.

(b) The Department or Regional Authority where the portable source's Corporate offices are located will be responsible for issuing the permit. If the corporate office of a portable source is located outside of the state, the Department will be responsible for issuing the permit.

(c) An air contaminant source required to obtain an ACDP or ACDP Attachment pursuant to a NESHAP or NSPS adopted by the Commission by rule is not required to submit an application for an ACDP or ACDP Attachment until four months after the effective date of the Commission's adoption of the NESHAP or NSPS, and is not required to obtain an ACDP or ACDP Attachment until six months after the Commission's adoption of the NESHAP or NSPS. In addition, the Department may defer the requirement to submit an application for, or to obtain an ACDP or ACDP Attachment, or both, for up to an additional six months.

(d) Gasoline dispensing facilities are not required to submit an application for an ACDP or ACDP Attachment until May 1, 2010 or obtain an ACDP or ACDP attachment until June 1, 2010. The Department may defer the requirement to submit an application for, or to obtain an ACDP or ACDP Attachment, or both, for up to an additional six months.

(e) Deferrals of Oregon permitting requirements do not relieve an air contaminant source from the responsibility of complying with federal NESHAP or NSPS requirements.

(2) No person may construct, install, establish, or develop any source that will be subject to the Oregon Title V Operating Permit program without first obtaining an ACDP from the Department or Regional Authority.

(3) No person may modify any source that has been issued an ACDP without first complying with the requirements of OAR 340-210-0205 through 340-210-0250.

(4) No person may modify any source required to have an ACDP such that the source becomes subject to the Oregon Title V Operating Permit program without complying with the requirements of OAR 340-210-0205 through 340-210-0250.

(5) No person may increase emissions above the PSEL by more than the de minimis levels specified in OAR 340-200-0020 without first applying for and obtaining a modified ACDP.

NOTE: This rule is included in the State of Oregon Clean Air Act Implementation Plan as adopted by the EQC under OAR 340-211-0040.

Adm. Order No.: DEQ 10-2009

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-28-2009

Certified to be Effective: 1-4-10

Notice Publication Date: 9-1-2009

Rules Amended: 340-071-0140

Subject: Onsite program costs have increased 3.89% per year on average over the past 9 years. Applications fees have not increased in the past 10 years. Application fees are proposed to increase by up to 60% to account for these cost increases and take into account rising costs through 2015. The fee increase will support 2.5 staff positions that are currently unaffordable and will provide year round operating reserves. These fees are found in Tables 9 A, B, C, & F, which will be updated through this rulemaking.

The fee increase will primarily impact the estimated 2,500 applicants per year for site evaluations, permits and other reports associated with development and redevelopment of properties that utilize septic systems in counties where DEQ administers the onsite program directly (currently 14 of 36 counties). Manufacturers of products proposed for use in septic systems in Oregon will also be impacted by this fee increase.

340-071-0140

Onsite System Fees

(1) This rule establishes the fees for site evaluations, permits, reports, variances, licenses, and other services the department provides under this division.

(2) Site evaluation and existing system evaluation fees are listed in Table 9A.

(3) Permitting fees for systems not subject to WPCF permits are listed in Table 9B and Table 9C.

(4) WPCF permit fees. Fees in this section apply to WPCF permits issued pursuant to OAR 340-071-0162. WPCF permit fees are listed in Table 9D.

(5) Innovative or Alternative Technology or Material Review fees are listed in Table 9F.

(6) Material Plan Review fees are listed in Table 9F.

(7) Sewage Disposal Service License and Truck Inspection fees are listed in Table 9E.

(8) Contract county fee schedules.

(a) Each county having an agreement with the department under ORS 454.725 must adopt a fee schedule for services rendered and permits issued. The county fee schedule may not include the department's surcharge established in section (9) of this rule unless identified as a department surcharge.

(b) A copy of the fee schedule and any subsequent amendments to the schedule must be submitted to the department.

(c) Fees may not exceed actual costs for efficiently conducted services.

(9) Department surcharge.

(a) To offset a portion of the administrative and program oversight costs of the statewide onsite wastewater management program, the department and contract counties must levy a surcharge for each site evaluation, report permit, and other activity for which an application is required in this division. The surcharge fee is listed in Table 9F. This surcharge does not apply to sewage disposal service license applications, pumper truck inspections, annual report evaluation fees, or certification of installers or maintenance providers.

(b) Proceeds from surcharges collected by the department and contract counties must be accounted for separately. Each contract county must forward the proceeds to the department in accordance with its agreement with the department.

(10) Refunds. The department may refund all or a portion of a fee accompanying an application if the applicant withdraws the application before any field work or other substantial review of the application has been done.

Rules Amended: 635-500-0703

Subject: Amended rule modifies the Diamond Lake Management Plan and directs Diamond Lake be managed under the Basic Yield Management Alternative of the Oregon Trout Management Plan. Additions have been made to the plan to provide management direction to monitor the fishery to evaluate potential impacts and avoid stressing the lake's ecosystem. The updated plan also provides for the prevention and control of illegal fish introductions and other invasive species.

Rules Coordinator: Therese Kucera—(503) 947-6033

635-500-0703

Diamond Lake

Policies and objectives for fish management in Diamond Lake in the upper Umpqua Basin.

(1) Policies:

(a) Fingerling, legal and trophy sized rainbow trout shall be managed for hatchery production consistent with the Basic Yield Management Alternative of Oregon's Trout Plan (OAR 635-500-0115(4));

(b) Annual fingerling rainbow trout stocking will provide the primary fish production in Diamond Lake; and

(c) Legal and trophy sized rainbow trout may be stocked annually to enhance trout production;

(2) Objectives:

(a) Provide quality, consumptive angling opportunities for hatchery produced trout;

(b) Conduct ecologically based fishery monitoring and evaluations necessary to maintain ecologically based fishery objectives and healthy lake ecology; and

(c) Provide for the prevention and control of illegally introduced fish species.

635-044-0051

Holding Wolves in Captivity

On January 1, 2010, SB 391 (Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 492) will change the agency responsible for regulating the holding of wolves in captivity from the Department of Agriculture to the Department of Fish and Wildlife. This temporary rule is intended to maintain the current substance of regulation until the Fish and Wildlife Commission can consider permanent rules in the Spring of 2010. This rule governs the holding in captivity of pure bred wolves in Oregon, with the objective of protecting the public's native wildlife. Any person who, as of December 31, 2009, held a wolf or wolves in captivity under a current Oregon Department of Agriculture, Class 1 Exotic Canine, Exotic Animal Permit may continue to hold such wolf or wolves so long as the person complies with all requirements of OAR 603-011-0725 (as in effect December 31, 2009). The Department will not issue any new authorizations to hold a wolf or wolves in captivity.

Subject: Amended rule sets the 2010 harvest quota for the Yaquina Bay commercial roe herring fishery. Under OAR 635-004-0027, this harvest quota shall not exceed 20% of the available spawning biomass, as established in the Yaquina Bay Basin Fish Management Operating Principles and Objectives found in OAR 635-500-0665(2). The available spawning biomass shall be determined by ODFW Fish Division's Marine Resources Program (MRP). The MRP has determined that 20% of the available spawning biomass yields a harvest quota of 117 tons for the 2010 Yaquina Bay commercial roe herring fishery.

635-004-0027

Inland Waters Herring Season

There is no closed season for the commercial taking of herring in inland waters except:

(1) In all inland waters except Yaquina Bay, herring taken during the period January 1 through April 15 may only be sold for use as bait.

(2) In Yaquina Bay:

(a) The open season for the taking of herring is January 1 through December 31.

(b) The yearly harvest quota for the Yaquina Bay commercial roe herring fishery during the period of January 1 through April 15 shall not exceed 20% of the available spawning biomass as established in the Yaquina River Basin Fish Management Operating Principles and Objectives 635-500-0665(2). The available spawning biomass shall be determined by the ODFW Fish Division's Marine Resources Program.

(A) The harvest quota for the Yaquina Bay commercial roe herring fishery during the period January 1 through April 15, 2010 is 117 tons.

(B) Only fishers with a limited entry permit issued pursuant to ORS 508.765 may participate in this fishery.

(c) The factor used to convert an equivalent amount of "whole fish" resource in the Yaquina Bay commercial roe herring fishery during the period of January 1 through April 15 to the equivalent amount of herring eggs on kelp fishery is 0.2237.

(d) During the period January 1 through April 15 it is unlawful to:

(A) Fish commercially from midnight Friday through midnight Sunday with nets;

(B) Use any fishing gear or method of harvest for the taking of herring other than: a purse seine with a maximum length of 50 fathoms (300 feet), defined as the maximum distance from the first to last pursuing rings on the purse line; lampara net; hook and line "jiggging;" or eggs-on-kelp method.

Subject: Amended rule adopts management measures for the 2010 commercial sardine fishery, as approved by the Pacific Fishery Management Council in November 2009.

Rules Coordinator: Therese Kucera—(503) 947-6033

635-004-0016

Harvest Guideline

(1) This rule incorporates, by reference, the sardine management measures for 2010 included in the Pacific Council list of decisions for the November 2009 Pacific Fishery Management Council meeting, and in addition to the extent they are consistent with these rules, Code of Federal Regulations, Title 50 Part 660, as amended to incorporate the standards recommendations of the Pacific Council. Therefore, persons must consult the Federal Regulations in addition to this rule to determine all applicable sardine fishing requirements. Where regulations refer to the fishery management area, that area is extended from shore to three nautical miles from shore coterminous with the Exclusive Economic Zone.

(2) For the purposes of permit renewal in OAR 635-006-1075 the federal coastwide maximum harvest guideline referenced in section (1) above is 72,039 metric tons.

Sampling Data and Tag Recovery

It is unlawful for any person licensed by the Department of Fish and Wildlife to fail to comply with the directions of authorized Department personnel related to the collection of sampling data or material (e.g., tissue and blood samples, otoliths and other bones, fins, shells, parasites, tags, etc.) from fish, shellfish, or marine invertebrates. It is also unlawful for any such person to fail to relinquish to the Department any part of a salmon or other food fish containing coded-wire tags, including but not limited to, the snouts of those salmon that are marked by having clipped adipose fins.

Groundfish Restrictions

(1) The season for most species of ocean food fish is open year-round, until catch quotas are met (where applicable). Regulations for the following species or species groups of ocean food fish change throughout the season and the Oregon Administrative Rules and federal regulations should be consulted before fishing:

- (a) Minor Shelf Rockfish
- (b) Minor Slope Rockfish
- (c) Black and Yellow Rockfish
- (d) Brown Rockfish
- (e) Calico Rockfish
- (f) China Rockfish
- (g) Copper Rockfish
- (h) Gopher Rockfish
- (i) Grass Rockfish
- (j) Kelp Rockfish

- (k) Olive Rockfish
- (l) Quillback Rockfish
- (m) Treefish
- (n) Black Rockfish
- (o) Blue Rockfish
- (p) Cabezon
- (q) Canary Rockfish
- (r) Greenling
- (s) Tiger Rockfish
- (t) Vermilion Rockfish
- (u) Widow Rockfish
- (v) Yelloweye Rockfish
- (w) Yellowtail Rockfish
- (x) Darkblotched Rockfish
- (y) Pacific Ocean Perch
- (z) Longspine Thornyhead
- (aa) Shortspine Thornyhead
- (bb) Arrowtooth Flounder
- (cc) Dover Sole
- (dd) Petrale Sole
- (ee) Rex Sole
- (ff) Other Flatfish
- (gg) Lingcod
- (hh) Sablefish
- (ii) Pacific Whiting

(2) For the purpose of this rule, "Other nearshore rockfish" means: black and yellow (Sebastes chrysomelas); brown (S. auriculatus); calico (S. dalli); China (S. nebulosus); copper (S. caurinus); gopher (S. carnatus); grass (S. rastelliger); kelp (S. atrovirens); olive (S. serranoides); quillback (S. maliger); and treefish (S. serriceps).

(3) For the purpose of this rule a "commercial harvest cap" is defined as the total fishery-related mortality for a given species, or species group, that may occur in a single calendar year in Oregon commercial fisheries. For 2010, the commercial harvest cap for black rockfish is 139.2 metric tons.

(4) For the purpose of this rule a "commercial landing cap" is defined as the total landed catch of a given species, or species group, that may be taken in a single calendar year in Oregon commercial fisheries. For 2010, the commercial landing caps are:

- (a) Black rockfish, 137.9 metric tons.
- (b) Black rockfish and blue rockfish combined of 141.9 metric tons.
- (c) Other nearshore rockfish, 14.3 metric tons.
- (d) Cabezon, 31.3 metric tons.
- (e) Greenling, 23.4 metric tons.

(5) For the purpose of this rule, the periods to which cumulative trip limits apply are: January through February (period 1); March through April (period 2); May through June (period 3); July through August (period 4); September through October (period 5); and November through December (period 6).

(6) For black and blue rockfish combined, no vessel may land more than:

- (a) 800 pounds in period 1;
- (b) 1,000 pounds in period 2;
- (c) 1,400 pounds in each of periods 3 and 4;
- (d) 1,000 pounds in period 5; and
- (e) 800 pounds in period 6.

(7) In each period, no vessel may land more than:

- (a) 700 pounds of other nearshore rockfish, combined;
- (b) 1,500 pounds of cabezon; or
- (c) 250 pounds of greenling species in periods 1-6.

Black Rockfish Management Areas

In addition to catch restrictions set forth in the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 50 Parts 660 and 663, and OAR 635-004-0033, the following trip limit applies to black rockfish (Sebastes melanops) taken with all commercial gears except trawl:

(1) It is unlawful to take or retain more than 300 pounds of black rockfish per vessel from a single fishing trip within one of the following areas:

(a) Tillamook Head (45°56'45" N latitude) to Cape Lookout (45°20'15" N latitude);

(b) Cascade Head (45°03'50" N latitude) to Cape Perpetua (44°18' N latitude);

(c) From a point (43°30' N latitude), approximately 8 1/2 nautical miles north of the Coos Bay north jetty, to a point (43°03' N latitude) adjacent to the mouth of Four-mile Cr.;

(d) Mack Arch (42°13'40" N latitude) to the Oregon-California border (42°00' N latitude).

(2) No vessel shall take, retain, possess, or land more than the allowed trip limit when fishing occurs for any species of fish within one of these restricted areas.

Closures

(1) It is unlawful to take white sturgeon (Acipenser transmontanus) for commercial purposes except in the:

(a) Columbia River, in the areas and during the times open to the taking of sturgeon for commercial purposes.

(b) Coos, Coquille, and Siuslaw, in the areas and during the times open to the taking of shad for commercial purposes.

(c) Pacific Ocean at all times.

(2) It is unlawful to take green sturgeon (Acipenser medirostris) for commercial purposes.

Definitions

As used in Division 004 regulations, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "At-sea processing" means processing that takes place on a vessel or other platform that floats and is capable of being moved from one location to another whether shoreside or on the water.

(2) "Commission" means the Oregon Fish and Wildlife Commission.

(3) "Department" means the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife.

(4) "Director" means the Director of the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife.

(5) "DTS complex" includes Dover sole (Microstomus pacificus), thornyhead (Sebastes spp.), and trawl-caught sablefish (blackcod, Anoplopoma fimbria).

(6) "Exclusive economic zone" means the zone between 3-200 nautical miles offshore of the United States.

(7) "Fishing gear" includes:

(a) "Beam trawl" means a trawl which is held open by a fixed beam frame;

(b) "Bobbin trawl" means the same as roller trawl, and is a type of bottom trawl;

(c) "Bottom trawl" means a trawl in which the otter boards or the footrope of the net contact the seabed, and includes Danish and Scottish seine gear. It also includes pair trawls fished on the bottom. Any trawl not meeting the requirements for pelagic trawls described in OAR 635-004-0040(5) is a bottom trawl;

(d) "Chafing gear" means webbing or other material attached to the codend of a trawl net to protect the codend from wear;

(e) "Codend" shall be defined as the last 50 mesh length constituting the terminal, closed end of a trawl. The meshes shall be counted forward of the pursuing tackle which terminates the codend;

(f) "Double-ply mesh" or "Double-bar mesh" means two lengths of twine tied into a single knot;

(g) "Double-walled codend" means a codend constructed of two walls of webbing;

(h) "Fixed gear" means longline, trap or pot, setnet, and stationary hook-and-line gears;

(i) "Gillnet" has the meaning as set forth in OAR 635-042-0010;

(j) "Hook-and-line" means one or more hooks attached to one or more lines;

(k) "Large footrope trawl gear" is a bottom trawl net with a footrope diameter larger than 8 inches (20 cm) (including rollers, bobbins or other material encircling or tied along the length of the footrope).

(l) "Longline" means a stationary buoyed, and anchored groundline with hooks attached;

(m) "Mesh size" means the opening between opposing knots. Minimum mesh size means the smallest distance allowed between the inside of one knot to the inside of the opposing knot regardless of twine size;

(n) "Nontrawl gear" means all legal commercial groundfish gear other than trawl gear;

(o) "Pelagic trawl" (midwater or off-bottom) means a trawl in which the otter boards may be in contact with the seabed but the footrope of the net remains above the seabed. It includes pair trawls if fished in midwater. A pelagic trawl has no rollers or bobbins on the net;

(p) "Pot or trap" means a portable, enclosed device with one or more gates or entrances and one or more lines attached to surface floats;

(q) "Roller trawl" or "bobbin trawl" are identical, and mean a trawl net with footropes equipped with rollers or bobbins made of wood, steel, rubber, plastic, or other hard material which protects the net and footrope during fishing on the seabed. A roller trawl is a type of bottom trawl;

(r) "Seine" means any nonfixed net other than a trawl net or gillnet;

(s) "Selective flatfish trawl gear" is a type of small footrope trawl gear. The selective flatfish trawl net must be a two-seamed net with no more than two riblines, excluding the codend. The breastline may not be longer than 3 ft (0.92 meters) in length. There may be no floats along the center third of the headrope or attached to the top panel except on the riblines. The footrope must be shorter than 105 ft (32.26 meters) in length. The headrope must be at least 30% longer in length than the footrope. An explanatory diagram of a selective flatfish trawl net is provided as Figure 1 of Part 660, Subpart G in Title 50 Code of Federal Regulations.

(t) "Set net" means a stationary, buoyed and anchored gillnet or trammel net;

(u) "Single-walled codend" means a codend constructed of a single wall of webbing knitted with single or double-ply mesh;

(v) "Small footrope trawl gear" is a bottom trawl net with a footrope diameter of 8 inches (20 cm) or smaller (including rollers, bobbins or other material encircling or tied along the length of the footrope). Other lines or ropes that run parallel to the footrope must not be augmented with material encircling or tied along their length such that they have a diameter larger than 8 inches (20 cm). For enforcement purposes, the footrope will be measured in a straight line from the outside edge to the opposite outside edge at the widest part on any individual part, including any individual disk, roller, bobbin, or any other device.

(w) "Trammel net" means a gillnet made with two or more walls joined to a common float line;

(x) "Trawl net" means a cone or funnel-shaped net which is towed or drawn through the water by one or two vessels. Trawl nets are used both on bottom and off bottom. They may be fished with or without trawl doors. They may employ warps or cables to herd fish. Trawl nets are restricted to beam trawl, bobbin or roller trawl, bottom trawl and pelagic trawl;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(y) "Trawl riblines" means heavy rope or lines that run down the sides, top, or underside of a trawl net from the mouth of the net to the terminal end of the codend to strengthen the net during fishing;

(z) "Troll" means fishing gear that consists of 1 or more lines that drag hooks with bait or lures behind a moving fishing vessel. Additional troll fishing gear defined in the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 50, Part 660 H;

(aa) "Vertical hook and line (Portuguese longline)" means a line attached to the vessel or to a surface buoy vertically suspended to the bottom by a weight or anchor, with hooks attached between its surface and bottom end.

(8) "Groundfish" means all species of ocean food fish defined as groundfish in the Pacific Coast Groundfish Fishery Management Plan and in the Federal Groundfish Regulations, Title 50, Parts 660 and 663.

(9) "Inland waters" means all waters of the state except the Pacific Ocean.

(10) "Land, landed, or landing" means to begin transfer of fish from a fishing vessel. Once transfer begins, all fish aboard the vessel are counted as part of the landing.

(11) "Length, total" is measured from the tip of the snout (mouth closed) to the tip of the tail (pinched together) without mutilation of the fish or the use of additional force to extend the length.

(12) Management lines include:

(a) "Cape Arago" means a line extending due west at 43 degrees 20 minutes 50 seconds north latitude;

(b) "Cape Blanco" means a line extending due west at 42 degrees 50 minutes 00 seconds north latitude;

(c) "Cape Falcon" means a line extending due west at 45 degrees 46 minutes 00 seconds north latitude;

(d) "Cape Lookout" means a line extending due west at 45 degrees 20 minutes 15 seconds north latitude;

(e) "Cascade Head" means a line extending due west at 45 degrees 03 minutes 50 seconds north latitude;

(f) "Heceta Head" means a line extending due west at 44 degrees 08 minutes 18 seconds north latitude;

(g) "Humbug Mountain" means a line extending due west at 42 degrees 40 minutes 30 seconds north latitude;

(h) "Mack Arch" means a line extending due west at 42 degrees 13 minutes 40 seconds north latitude.

(13) "Ocean food fish" includes all saltwater species of food fish except salmon, halibut, and shellfish whether found in fresh or salt water.

(14) "Pacific Ocean" means all water seaward of the end of the jetty or jetties of any river, bay, or tidal area, except in the Columbia River the Pacific Ocean has the definition prescribed in OAR 635-003-0005, or all water seaward of the extension of the shoreline high watermark across the river, bay, or tidal area where no jetties exist.

(15) "Rockfish" includes:

(a) aurora rockfish, Sebastes aurora;

(b) bank rockfish, S. rufus;

(c) black rockfish, S. melanops;

(d) black and yellow rockfish, S. chrysomelas;

(e) blackgill rockfish, S. melanostomus;

(f) Blue rockfish, S. mystinus;

(g) bocaccio, S. paucispinis;

(h) bronzedspotted rockfish, S. gilli;

(i) brown rockfish, S. auriculatus;

(j) calico rockfish, S. dalli;

(k) California scorpionfish, Scorpaena guttata;

(l) canary rockfish, Sebastes pinniger;

(m) chilipepper, S. goodei;

The Sebastes complex includes yellowtail rockfish (Sebastes flavidus).

(17) "Shore-based (shoreside) processors" means any facility where fish will be processed which is fixed permanently to land.

(18) "Smelt" means all species in the family Osmeridae.

(19) "Tender" means any vessel that buys or obtains fish directly from a catching vessel and transports it to a port of landing or fish dealer.

(20) "Trip limit" means the total allowable amount of a groundfish species or species complex, by weight, or by percentage of fish on board, that may be taken and retained, possessed, or landed per vessel from a single fishing trip. A vessel which has landed its cumulative or daily limit may continue to fish on the limit for the next legal period as long as the fish are not landed until the next period:

(a) "Daily trip limit" means the maximum amount that may be taken and retained, possessed, or landed per vessel in 24 consecutive hours, starting at 0001 hours local time. Only one landing of groundfish may be made in that 24-hour period;

(b) "Cumulative trip limit" means the maximum amount that may be taken and retained, possessed, or landed per vessel in a specified period of time, without a limit on the number of landings or trips. Cumulative trip limits apply to calendar months.

Seasons

(1) Smelt may be taken for commercial purposes from the:

(a) Columbia River at all times in those areas not closed to commercial fishing for shad;

(b) Sandy River at all times in the area below and west of the highway bridge at Troutdale, Oregon (U.S. 30 Alternate);

(c) Columbia River as described in OAR 635-042-0130.

(2) The targeted take of smelt for commercial purposes in areas and at times not specified in this rule is prohibited including take in the Pacific ocean at all times.

(3) Incidentally caught smelt may be landed by vessels targeting other commercial species not to exceed 1% of landing by weight.

Marine Snail Fishery Prohibited

It is unlawful to take any marine snail species of the class gastropoda, including all abalone species, for commercial purposes except that a commercial aquaculture facility may take abalone for use as broodstock under the terms and conditions specified in a permit issued by the Department. Application for such a permit shall be in writing and shall include a description of the commercial aquaculture facility, the methods for collecting and returning broodstock abalone to and from the wild, the methods for checking abalone and imported kelp food for pathogens or exotic fauna, the procedures for isolating and culturing abalone to prevent contamination of wild abalone stock and such other information as the Department may require. Permit applications shall be mailed to: Marine Resources Program Office, Department of Fish and Wildlife, 2040 SE Marine Science Drive, Newport, OR, 97365.

Logbooks

The Department shall provide a logbook to each individual or vessel to harvest Category A, B or C developmental fishery species. Each individual or vessel skipper is responsible for maintaining the logbook in accordance with the instructions contained therein and shall, upon request of an authorized representative of the Department, permit examination and transcription of information from such logbook. Information so received by the Department shall be treated as confidential to the extent allowable under Oregon law.

Rule Caption: Adoption of Regulations Governing Marine Reserves and Protected Areas in Oregon's Territorial Sea.

Adm. Order No.: DFW 157-2009

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-30-2009

Certified to be Effective: 6-30-11

Notice Publication Date: 11-1-2009

Rules Adopted: 635-012-0020, 635-012-0030, 635-012-0040, 635-012-0050, 635-012-0060

Subject: These adopted rules will regulate hunting and fishing activities in the Otter Rock and Redfish Rocks Marine Reserves and the Redfish Rocks Marine Protected Area. The proposed rules prohibit fishing for, hunting for, or take of any fish or wildlife species in the marine reserves; and allow for removing crab pots and other fishing gear; scientific research; transiting, drifting, or anchoring; and non-extractive activities. In the marine protected area, the proposed rules prohibit and allow the same activities as in marine reserves, with the addition of allowing commercial and recreational salmon trolling and crabbing for Dungeness and red rock crab.

Marine Reserve Prohibitions and Allowances

- (1) Except as specified in section (2) below, the following activities are prohibited within the Otter Rock and Redfish Rocks marine reserve areas:
    - (a) Fishing or hunting for any fish or wildlife species.
    - (b) Take of any fish or wildlife species.
  - (2) Notwithstanding the prohibitions in section (1) above, a person may:
    - (a) Remove fishing gear from within the marine reserve boundary, provided that the retrieving vessel operator must notify the Oregon State Police before retrieving the gear and no fish or wildlife species from the retrieved gear shall be retained. Specific to commercial crab pots:
      - (A) If the retrieving vessel operator does not own the pot(s), the operator must follow the retrieval requirements set forth in OAR 635-005-0055(9)(b).
      - (B) If the vessel operator does own the pot(s), the operator may re-set the pot(s) outside of the reserve area.
      - (b) Take fish and wildlife species if authorized by a valid scientific taking permit as required by OAR divisions 635-007 and 635-043.
      - (c) Have catch onboard while transiting, drifting through, or anchoring in the marine reserve area. Except as allowed by subsection (2)(a) and subsection (2)(b) above, gear shall not be deployed at any time within the marine reserve.
    - (3) Nothing in these regulations shall limit the right to engage in otherwise lawful activities within the marine reserves, including but not limited to the following:
      - (a) Non-extractive activities, including but not limited to swimming, diving, surfing, boating, and tide pool exploration.
      - (b) Transiting or drifting through the reserve.

Permit Required to Harass Wildlife

Any landowner suffering damage from wildlife (except for bobcat, red fox, cougar, bear, and non-threatened or non-endangered migratory birds) to property that they own or lawfully occupy, and desiring to control the damage by means of harassment shall first secure a Wildlife Harassing Permit by applying to the Department. No Wildlife Harassing Permit is required for harassment of non-threatened or non-endangered migratory bird species. However, if dogs are used to harass non-threatened or non-endangered migratory birds during the period April 1–July 31, a permit from the Department is required. Dogs may be used during the remainder of the year without a permit. Any harassment of non-threatened or non-endangered migratory birds must not result in the take of migratory birds, their eggs or their nests.

Rule Caption: Adopted Rules Related to Removal of Feral Swine.

Adm. Order No.: DFW 2-2010

Filed with Sec. of State: 1-12-2010

Certified to be Effective: 1-12-10

Notice Publication Date: 12-1-2009

Rules Adopted: 635-058-0000, 635-058-0010, 635-058-0020

Subject: Adopted rules to implement portions of HB 2221, enacted by the 2009 Legislative Assembly. These rules specify how a person who owns or controls land must remove feral swine that they know is roaming on that land. The rules also authorize the Department of Fish and Wildlife and Oregon State Police to inspect land to ensure compliance with feral swine removal plans.

Rules Coordinator: Therese Kucera—(503) 947-6033

635-058-0000

Purpose and General Information

- (1) The purpose of this rule is to protect Oregon's native wildlife from disease, predation and the destruction of habitat caused by feral swine within the state. These rules remove various incentives for allowing feral swine to knowingly roam on private and public property.
  - (2) Feral Swine are defined by the State Department of Agriculture in OAR 603-010-0055.
  - (3) "Department" means the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife.

Removal of Feral Swine

- (1) HB 2221 (Oregon Laws 2009, Chapter 605) requires that a person who owns or controls land (or an employee of that person who acts as land manager) must notify the Department within 10 days of discovering feral swine on the land. Within 60 days after notification, the person or their land manager must submit a feral swine removal plan to the Department for approval. At minimum, the plan must include:
    - (a) Actions to be taken to remove all feral swine from the land (which may include, but are not limited to, hunting and trapping); and
    - (b) An expiration date for the proposed actions.
  - (2) Upon approval of the plan by the Department, the person or land manager must implement the plan.
  - (3) The Department may grant an extension of the expiration date of the feral swine removal plan.
    - (a) The request for an extension must be submitted to the Department by the person or land manager at least seven (7) days prior to the expiration date.
    - (b) The Department will determine the length of the extension on a case-by-case basis.

635-058-0020

Land Subject to Inspection

After the expiration date of a Department-approved feral swine removal plan, the Oregon State Police or Department may (upon 10 days' prior notice) enter the land to determine whether implementation of the plan removed all feral swine. Entry will be limited to regular and usual business hours, including weekends. Nothing in these rules is intended to authorize or allow the warrantless search or inspection of a residence.

Purpose and General Information

(1) The purpose of this rule is to protect Oregon's water resources, fish, wildlife and their habitat from harm due to the introduction and/or spread of aquatic invasive species.

(2) "Aquatic Invasive Species" is any species of wildlife, fish (excluding game fish) or freshwater or marine invertebrates that are listed in the "United States Geological Service list of Aquatic Nonindigenous species in Oregon" dated June 4, 2009 or that is listed as a mollusk or crustacean in OAR 635-056-0050 as a Prohibited Species.

Aquatic Invasive Species Reporting Information

If aquatic invasive species are found on or inside a watercraft, the owner or operator must provide the department with an accurate history as to where the watercraft has been during the last six months. Information shall include:

- (1) All waterbody(s) in which the watercraft has been moored or operated;
- (2) The length of time that the watercraft has been out of water;
- (3) All locations where the watercraft has been stored; and
- (4) If previously inspected, the agency and individual which conducted the inspection.

Allowable Blind Material for Coats

(1) Oregon Laws 2009, chapter 303, section 2(2) generally prohibits the launching of boats with aquatic species on or in the boat. However, that law also authorizes the Fish and Wildlife Commission to by rule allow the presence of certain aquatic species on or in a boat for activities including but not limited to hunting and photography. This rule implements that authority.

(2) Aquatic plant species which are not listed in the "Oregon State Noxious Weed List" adopted by the Oregon Department of Agriculture in OAR 603-052-1200 may be used on or within a boat as blind material for the purpose of hunting or wildlife photography.

635-069-0000

Purpose and General Information

(1) The purpose of these rules is to establish season dates, bag limits, areas, methods and other restrictions for hunting eastern Oregon deer pursuant to ORS Chapter 496.

(2) Controlled hunt tag numbers for 2009 are listed in Tables 1 and 2 and are adopted and incorporated into OAR Chapter 635, Division 069 by reference.

(3) OAR Chapter 635, Division 069 incorporates, by reference, the requirements for hunting eastern Oregon deer set out in the document entitled "2010 Oregon Big Game Regulations," into Oregon Administrative Rules. Therefore, persons must consult the "2010 Oregon Big Game Regulations" in addition to OAR Chapter 635, to determine all applicable requirements for hunting eastern Oregon deer. The annual Oregon Big Game Regulations are available at hunting license agents and regional, district and headquarters offices of the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife.

Department of Human Services, Addictions and Mental Health Division: Mental Health Services Chapter 309

Rule Caption: A Committed Person's Right to Fresh Air and the Outdoors.

Adm. Order No.: MHS 5-2009

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-17-2009

Certified to be Effective: 12-17-09

Notice Publication Date: 12-1-2009

Rules Amended: 309-033-0270, 309-035-0155, 309-035-0380

Subject: HB 2312 Enrolled (2007 Session) established that, under most circumstances, a committed person has the right to fresh air and the outdoors. The Addictions and Mental Health Division is amending rules in OAR 309-033 & 309-035 to define terms, and to establish that these rights may be limited under certain circumstances.

Rules Coordinator: Richard Luthe—(503) 947-1186

309-033-0270

Provision of Care, Custody and Treatment of Persons Committed to the Division

(1) Provision of rights. In addition to the rights provided under ORS 426.385, committed persons also have the rights provided under ORS 430.205 through 430.210 and this rule, including:

(a) A Committed Person's Right to Fresh Air. For the purpose of this rule, these terms have the following meanings:

(A) "Fresh air" means the inflow of air from outside the facility where the committed person is receiving services. "Fresh air" may be accessed through an open window or similar method as well as through access to the outdoors.

(B) "Outdoors" means an area with fresh air that is not completely enclosed overhead. "Outdoors" may include a courtyard or similar area.

(b) If a committed person requests access to fresh air and the outdoors or the committed person's treating health care provider determines that fresh air or the outdoors would be beneficial to the committed person, the facility in which the committed person is receiving services shall provide daily access to fresh air and the outdoors unless this access would create a significant risk of harm to the committed person or others.

(c) The determination whether a significant risk of harm to the committed person or others exists shall be made by the committed person's treating health care provider. The treating health care provider may find that a significant risk of harm to the committed person or others exists if:

(A) The committed person's individual circumstances and condition indicate an unreasonable risk of harm to the committed person or others which cannot be reasonably accommodated within existing programming should the committed person be allowed access to fresh air and the outdoors; or

(B) The facility's existing physical plant or existing staffing prevent the provision of access to fresh air and the outdoors in a manner that maintains the safety of the committed person or others.

(d) If a facility determines that its existing physical plant prevents the provision of access to fresh air and the outdoors in a safe manner, the facility shall make a good faith effort at the time of any significant renovation to the physical plant that involves renovation of the unit or relocation of where committed persons are treated to include changes to the physical plan or location that allow access to fresh air and the outdoors, so long as such changes do not add an unreasonable amount to the cost of the renovation.

(2) Provision of care at a state hospital. The superintendent of the state hospital serving the county of commitment shall be responsible for all admissions to the state hospital:

(a) The superintendent, in consultation with the director, shall determine whether the best interests of a committed person are served by an admission to the state hospital;

(b) The superintendent shall implement policies and procedures which afford a committed person placed in a state hospital the rights provided by ORS 426.385, 430.205 through 430.210 and this rule.

(3) Provision of care at a community hospital. The director shall assign and place a committed person only at a community hospital approved under OAR 309-033-0530:

(a) The admitting physician, in consultation with the director, shall determine whether the best interests of a committed person are served by an admission to a community hospital;

(b) The administrator shall implement policies and procedures which afford a committed person placed in a community hospital the rights provided by ORS 426.385, 430.205 through 430.210 and this rule.

(4) Provision of care at a nonhospital facility or an outpatient program. The director shall only assign and place a committed person in a nonhospital facility that is licensed or certified by the Division:

(a) The administrator, in consultation with the director, shall determine whether the best interests of a committed person are served by an admission to a nonhospital facility or an outpatient program;

(b) The administrator shall implement policies and procedures which afford a committed person placed in a nonhospital facility or an outpatient program the rights provided by ORS 426.385, 430.205 through 430.210 and this rule;

(c) The director shall place on a trial visit a committed person who is discharged from a state hospital or a community hospital when the director assigns and places the person in a nonhospital facility;

(d) The director shall place a committed person, who the court has ordered on outpatient commitment at the commitment hearing, on outpatient commitment when the director assigns and places the person in a nonhospital facility.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(5) Provision of medical services for a committed person. The superintendent of a state hospital, the treating physician at a community hospital or the director may transfer a committed person to a general hospital, or transfer a committed person from a psychiatric ward to a medical ward for medical care:

(a) The treating physician shall only provide medical care with the consent of the committed person in accordance with OAR 309-033-0600 through 309-033-0650;

(b) The superintendent or treating physician shall transfer a committed person to a general hospital for medical services on a pass or discharge the person from the state hospital when it is determined that the person will not return to the state hospital within a reasonable length of time, or that discharge is clinically appropriate and is required for the person to have access to third-party insurance benefits;

(c) The treating physician shall immediately notify the director that a person was transferred to another hospital for medical care under this subsection.

Resident Rights

(1) Statutory and Constitutional Rights. Each resident will be assured the same civil and human rights accorded to other citizens. These rights will be assured unless expressly limited by a court in the case of a resident who has been adjudicated incompetent and not restored to legal capacity. The rights described in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this section are in addition to, and do not limit, all other statutory and constitutional rights which are afforded to all citizens including, but not limited to, the right to vote, marry, have or not have children, own and dispose property, enter into contracts and execute documents.

(2) Rights of Service Recipients. In accordance with ORS 430.210, residents will have the right to:

(a) Choose from available services those which are appropriate, consistent with the plan developed in accordance with paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection, and provided in a setting and under conditions that are least restrictive to the person's liberty, that are least intrusive to the person and that provide for the greatest degree of independence;

(b) An individualized written service plan, services based upon that plan and periodic review and reassessment of service needs;

(c) Ongoing participation in planning services in a manner appropriate to the person's capabilities, including the right to participate in the development and periodic revision of the plan described in paragraph (b) of this subsection, and the right to be provided with a reasonable explanation of all service considerations;

(d) Not receive services without informed consent except in a medical emergency or as otherwise permitted by law;

(e) Not participate in experimentation without informed voluntary written consent;

(f) Receive medication only for the person's individual clinical needs;

(g) Not be involuntarily terminated or transferred from services without prior notice, notification of available sources of necessary continued services and exercise of a grievance procedure;

(h) A humane service environment that affords reasonable protection from harm and affords reasonable privacy;

(i) Be free from abuse or neglect and to report any incident of abuse without being subject to retaliation;

(j) Religious freedom;

(k) Not be required to perform labor, except personal housekeeping duties, without reasonable and lawful compensation;

(l) Visit with family members, friends, advocates and legal and medical professionals;

(m) Exercise all rights set forth in ORS 426.385 and 427.031 if the individual is committed to the Department;

(n) Be informed at the start of services and periodically thereafter of the rights guaranteed by this section and the procedure for reporting abuse, and to have these rights and procedures prominently posted in a location readily accessible to the person and made available to the person's guardian and any representative designated by the person;

(o) Assert grievances with respect to infringement of the rights described in this section, including the right to have such grievances considered in a fair, timely and impartial grievance procedure;

(p) Have access to and communicate privately with any public or private rights protection program or rights advocate; and

(q) Exercise all rights described in this section without any form of reprisal or punishment.

(3) Additional Rights in Residential Treatment Facilities. Residents will also have a right to:

(a) Adequate food, shelter and clothing, consistent with OAR 309-035-0159;

(b) A reasonable accommodation if, due to their disability, the housing and services are not sufficiently accessible;

(c) Confidential communication, including receiving and opening personal mail, private visits with family members and other guests, and access to a telephone with privacy for making and receiving telephone calls;

(d) Express sexuality in a socially appropriate and consensual manner;

(e) Access to community resources including recreation, religious services, agency services, employment and day programs, unless such access is legally restricted;

(f) Be free from seclusion and restraint, except as outlined in OAR 309-035-0167.

(g) To review the Residential Treatment Facility's policies and procedures; and

(h) Not participate in research without informed voluntary written consent.

(4) The Resident's Right to Fresh Air. For the purpose of this rule, these terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Fresh air" means the inflow of air from outside the facility where the resident is receiving services. "Fresh air" may be accessed through an open window or similar method as well as through access to the outdoors.

(b) "Outdoors" means an area with fresh air that is not completely enclosed overhead. "Outdoors" may include a courtyard or similar area.

(c) If a resident requests access to fresh air and the outdoors or the resident's treating health care provider determines that fresh air or the outdoors would be beneficial to the resident, the facility in which the resident is receiving services shall provide daily access to fresh air and the outdoors unless this access would create a significant risk of harm to the resident or others.

(d) The determination whether a significant risk of harm to the resident or others exists shall be made by the resident's treating health care provider. The treating health care provider may find that a significant risk of harm to the resident or others exists if:

(A) The resident's individual circumstances and condition indicate an unreasonable risk of harm to the resident or others which cannot be reasonably accommodated within existing programming should the resident be allowed access to fresh air and the outdoors; or

(B) The facility's existing physical plant or existing staffing prevent the provision of access to fresh air and the outdoors in a manner that maintains the safety of the resident or others.

(e) If a facility determines that its existing physical plant prevents the provision of access to fresh air and the outdoors in a safe manner, the facility shall make a good faith effort at the time of any significant renovation to the physical plant that involves renovation of the unit or relocation of where residents are treated to include changes to the physical plan or location that allow access to fresh air and the outdoors, so long as such changes do not add an unreasonable amount to the cost of the renovation.

(5) Program Requirements. The program will have and implement written policies and procedures which protect residents' rights, and encourage and assist residents to understand and exercise their rights. The program will post a listing of resident rights under these rules in a place readily accessible to all residents and visitors.

309-114-0005

Definitions

As used in these rules:

(1) "Authorized Representative" or "representative" means an individual who is an employee of the system described in ORS 192.517(1) and who may represent a party in a contested case hearing; the representative must be supervised by an attorney that is licensed by the Oregon State Bar and employed by the same system described in ORS 192.517(1).

(2) "Chief Medical Officer" means the physician designated by the superintendent of each state institution pursuant to ORS 179.360(1)(f) who is responsible for the administration of medical treatment at each state institution.

(3) "Division" means these Divisions of the Department of Human Services:

(a) Addictions and Mental Health Division (AMH) when referring to "patients;" and

(b) The Seniors and People with Disabilities Division (SPD) when referring to "residents."

(4) "Guardian" means a legal guardian who is an individual appointed by a court of law to act as guardian of a minor or a legally incapacitated person.

(5) "Legally Incapacitated" means having been found by a court of law under ORS 426.295 to be unable, without assistance, to properly manage or take care of one's personal affairs.

(6) "Material Risk." A risk is material if it may have a substantial adverse effect on the patient's or resident's psychological or physical health, or both. Tardive dyskinesia is a material risk of neuroleptic medication. Other risks include, but are not limited to, raised blood pressure, onset of diabetes, and metabolic changes.

(7) "Medication Educator" means a Qualified Mental Health Professional (QMHP) or Qualified Mental Retardation Professional who provides information about the proposed significant procedures to patients and residents.

(8) "Patient" means a person who is receiving care and treatment in a state institution for the mentally ill.

(9) "Person Committed to the Division" or "Person" means a patient or resident committed under ORS 161.327, 161.370, 179.478, 426.130, or 427.215, or certified by the State Training Center Review Board under 427.020.

(10) "Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner," means a registered nurse with prescription authority who independently provides health care to clients with mental and emotional needs or disorders.

(11) "Qualified Mental Health Professional" (QMHP) means any individual meeting the following minimum qualifications as documented by the state institution:

(a) Graduate degree in psychology;

(b) Bachelor's or graduate degree in nursing and licensed by the State of Oregon;

(c) Graduate degree in social work or counseling;

(d) Graduate degree in a behavioral science field;

(e) Graduate degree in recreational art, or music therapy;

(f) Bachelor's degree in occupational therapy and licensed by the State of Oregon; or

(g) Bachelor's or graduate degree in a relevant area.

(12) "Qualified Mental Retardation Professional" means an individual who meets the professional requirements under 42 CFR 483.430.

(13) "Resident" means a person who is receiving care, treatment, and training in a state institution for the mentally retarded.

(14) "Routine Medical Procedure" means a procedure customarily administered by facility medical staff under circumstances involving little or no risk of causing injury to a patient or resident, including, but not limited to physical examinations, blood draws, influenza vaccinations, tuberculosis (TB) testing, and hygiene.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(15) "Significant Procedure" means a diagnostic or treatment modality, and all significant procedures of a similar class that pose a material risk of substantial pain or harm to the patient or resident such as, but not limited to, psychotropic medication and electro-convulsive therapy. Significant procedures do not include routine medical procedures. For purposes of these rules, "Human immunodeficiency virus" (HIV) testing shall be considered a "Significant Procedure."

(16) "Significant Procedures of a Similar Class" means a diagnostic or treatment modality that presents substantially similar material risks as the significant procedure listed on the treating physician's or psychiatric nurse practitioner's informed consent form and is generally considered in current clinical practice to be a substitute treatment or belong to the same class of medications as the listed significant procedure. Significant procedures of a similar class do not need to be specifically listed on the treating physician's or psychiatric nurse practitioner's form.

(17) "State Institution" or "Institution" means all Oregon State Hospital campuses and the Blue Mountain Recovery Center.

(18) "Superintendent" means the executive head of the state institution listed in section (17) of this rule, or the superintendent's designee.

Department of Human Services, Administrative Services Division and Director's Office Chapter 407

Rule Caption: Update of Criminal Records Check Rules for Department of Human Services Employees, Volunteers, and Contractors.

Adm. Order No.: DHSD 9-2009

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-31-2009

Certified to be Effective: 1-1-10

Notice Publication Date: 12-1-2009

Rules Adopted: 407-007-0065, 407-007-0075

Rules Amended: 407-007-0000, 407-007-0010, 407-007-0020, 407-007-0030, 407-007-0040, 407-007-0050, 407-007-0060, 407-007-0070, 407-007-0080, 407-007-0090, 407-007-0100

Subject: These rules describe the criminal records check process conducted on Department of Human Services employees, applicants, volunteers, and certain contractors. SB 157 becomes effective January 1, 2010, and these rules are being updated to reflect new statutory language regarding who is subject to criminal records checks. In addition, these rules are being updated to better align with ORS 181.534 and 181.537 and to meet Secretary of State requirements for rule writing.

Rules Coordinator: Jennifer Bittel—(503) 947-5250

Purpose and Scope

(1) The purpose of these rules, OAR 407-007-0000 to 407-007-0100, is to provide for the reasonable screening under ORS 181.534 and 181.537 of the Department of Human Services' employees, volunteers, and contractors to determine if they have a history of criminal behavior such that they should not be allowed to work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in positions covered by these rules.

(2) These rules apply to evaluating criminal records and potentially disqualifying conditions of a subject individual when conducting fitness determinations based upon such information. The fact that a subject individual is approved does not guarantee employment or placement. These rules do not apply to subject individuals covered under OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370.

(3) Although abuse checks may occur concurrently with criminal records checks performed under these rules and may share similar processes, the criminal records check process is separate and distinct from the abuse checks that may be performed under OAR 407-007-0400 to 407-007-0460.

407-007-0010

Definitions

As used in OAR 407-007-0000 to 407-007-0100, unless the context of the rule requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Approved" means that a subject individual, following a final fitness determination, is fit to work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in the position listed on the Background Check Request form.

(2) "Approved with restrictions" means an approval in which some restriction is made including but not limited to the subject individual, the subject individual's environment, the type or number of clients for whom the subject individual may provide care, or the information to which the subject individual has access.

(3) "Authorized designee (AD)" means an individual whom the Department of Human Services designates and authorizes to receive and process Background Check Request forms from subject individuals and criminal records information from the Department of Human Services.

(4) "Background Check Unit" means the Department of Human Services' Background Check Unit (BCU).

(5) "Client" means any individual who receives services, care, or funding for care through the Department of Human Services.

(6) "Closed case" means a criminal records check application that has been closed without a final fitness determination.

(7) "Criminal records check" means obtaining and reviewing criminal records as required by these rules and includes any or all of the following:

(a) An Oregon criminal records check where criminal offender information is obtained from Oregon State Police (OSP) using the Law Enforcement Data System (LEDS). The Oregon criminal records check may also include a review of other criminal information.

(b) A national criminal records check where criminal records are obtained from the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) through the use of fingerprint cards sent to OSP and other identifying information.

(c) A state-specific criminal records check where criminal records are obtained from law enforcement agencies, courts, or other criminal records information resources located in, or regarding, a state or jurisdiction outside Oregon.

(8) "Criminal offender information" means records, including fingerprints and photographs, received, compiled, and disseminated by OSP for purposes of identifying criminal offenders and alleged offenders and maintained as part of an individual's records of arrest, the nature and disposition of criminal charges, sentencing, confinement, but does not include the retention by OSP of records of transfer of inmates between penal institutions or other correctional facilities, and release. It also includes the OSP Computerized Criminal History System (see OAR 257-010-0015).

(9) "Denied" means that a subject individual, following a fitness determination including a weighing test, is not fit to work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in the position listed on the Background Check Request form.

(10) "Department" means the Department of Human Services.

(11) "Employee" means an individual working in the Department in any position including a new hire, promotion, demotion, direct appointment, re-employment, job rotation, developmental assignment, transfer, an individual impacted by the Department's lay-off process, or temporary hire.

(12) "Fitness determination" means the decision in a case that is not closed and includes:

(a) The decision regarding a Background Check Request form, an Oregon criminal records check, and preliminary review (a preliminary fitness determination); or

(b) The decision regarding a Background Check Request form, completed criminal records check including gathering of other information as necessary, and a final review by an AD (a final fitness determination).

(13) "Good cause" means a valid and sufficient reason for not complying with time frames set during the criminal records check process or contested case hearing process, including but not limited to an explanation of circumstances beyond a subject individual's reasonable control.

(14) "Hearing representative" means a Department employee representing the Department in a contested case hearing.

(15) "Hired on a preliminary basis" means a condition in which a subject individual may be allowed by the Department to work, volunteer, be trained, or reside in an environment following the submission of a completed Background Check Request form. Hired on a preliminary basis is applicable only during the time frame following a preliminary fitness determination and prior to a final fitness determination.

(16) "Office of Human Resources" means the Department's Office of Human Resources.

(17) "Other criminal records information" means information obtained and used in the criminal records check that is not criminal offender information from OSP. Other criminal records information includes but is not limited to police investigations and records, information from local or regional criminal records information systems, justice records, court records, information from the Oregon Judicial Information Network, sexual offender registration records, warrants, Oregon Department of Corrections records, Oregon Department of Transportation's Driver and Motor Vehicle Services Division information, information provided on the Background Check forms, disclosures by a subject individual, and any other information from any jurisdiction obtained by or provided to the Department for the purpose of conducting a fitness determination.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(18) "Position" means the position listed on the Background Check Request form for the subject individual which determines whether the individual is a subject individual under these rules. Covered positions include any type of employment, volunteer placement, or contract placement.

(19) "Subject individual (SI)" means an individual on whom the Department may conduct a criminal records check and from whom the Department may require fingerprints for the purpose of conducting a national criminal records check. An SI includes any of the following:

- (a) A Department employee.
- (b) An individual who has been offered employment by the Department.
- (c) An individual secured by the Department through the services of a temporary employment agency, staffing agency, or personnel services agency who is providing any of the duties or having access as described in OAR 407-007-0060(3).
- (d) A Department client who is placed in the Work Experience or JOBS Plus program at a Department site.

(e) An individual who provides or seeks to provide services to the Department at Department facilities, sites, or offices as a contractor, subcontractor, vendor, volunteer under Department direction and control, or student under Department direction and control who:

- (A) May have contact with clients;
- (B) Has access to personal information about employees of the Department, clients, or members of the public, including but not limited to Social Security numbers, dates of birth, driver license numbers, medical information, personal financial information, or criminal background information;

(C) Has access to information the disclosure of which is prohibited by state or federal laws, rules, or regulations or information that is defined as confidential under state or federal laws, rules, or regulations;

(D) Has access to property held in trust or to private property in the temporary custody of the state;

(E) Has payroll or fiscal functions or responsibility for:

(i) Receiving, receipting or depositing money or negotiable instruments;

(ii) Billing, collections, setting up financial accounts, or other financial transactions; or

(iii) Purchasing or selling property;

(F) Provides security, design or construction services for government buildings, grounds, or facilities;

(G) Has access to critical infrastructure or secure facilities information; or

(H) Is providing information technology services and has control over or access to information technology systems.

(f) Any individual applying for employment or a volunteer placement or any employee, volunteer, contractor, or employee of any contractor in any of the following:

(A) A State-operated or Department-contracted secure residential treatment facility;

(B) A State-operated group home within the Department's State-Operated Community Programs;

(C) Blue Mountain Recovery Center; or

(D) Oregon State Hospital.

(20) "Weighing test" means a process carried out by the Department in which available information is considered to make a fitness determination.

407-007-0020

Criminal History Check Required

(1) The Department conducts criminal records checks on all SIs through LEDS maintained by OSP pursuant to ORS Chapter 181 and the rules adopted pursuant thereto (see OAR 257-015).

(2) If a national criminal records check of an SI is necessary, OSP shall provide the Department the results of criminal records checks conducted pursuant to ORS 181.534, including fingerprint identification, through the FBI.

(3) SIs must have a criminal records check in the following circumstances:

(a) If an individual becomes an SI on or after the effective date of these rules.

(b) Except as provided in section (3) of this rule, if the individual, whether previously considered an SI or not, changes positions, and the position requires a criminal records check. Change in a position may include but is not limited to promotion, transfer, demotion, re-employment, job rotation, developmental assignment, restoration, layoff, or recall.

(c) If the Department has reason to believe that a criminal records check is justified. Examples include but are not limited to any indication of possible criminal behavior by an SI or quality assurance monitoring of a previously conducted criminal records check.

(4) The Office of Human Resources may determine that conducting a new criminal records check and fitness determination for a Department employee is not required.

(a) After the completion of the Background Check Request form, the Office of Human Resources may consider ending the criminal records check if:

(A) The SI who has been offered a new position has completed a previous criminal records check and fitness determination with an outcome of approved; and

(B) There has been no break in employment with the Department.

(b) The Office of Human Resources may cease the criminal records check without making a new fitness determination if there is no indication of new potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions, and at least one of the following is true:

(A) The previous criminal records check identified no potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions as defined at that time and the Office of Human Resources determines that the previous fitness determination is sufficient for the new position.

(B) The Office of Human Resources determines that the new position requires the same or less responsibility or access in the duties as described in OAR 407-007-0060(3).

(5) All SIs shall notify the Department's Office of Human Resources within five days of being arrested, charged, or convicted of any crime.

Stat. Auth.: ORS 181.534, 181.537, 409.050

Stats. Implemented: ORS 181.534, 181.537 & 409.010

407-007-0030

Criminal History Check Process

(1) Only Department employees, called ADs, may be authorized and approved pursuant to OAR 407-007-0230 to 407-007-0240 to receive and evaluate criminal offender information and other criminal records information. Only ADs may conduct fitness determinations.

(2) An SI shall use the Background Check Request form to request the criminal records check and shall include:

(a) Name and aliases;

(b) Date of birth;

(c) Address and recent residency information;

(d) Driver license information;

(e) Position for which the SI is submitting the Background Check Request form;

(f) Disclosure of criminal history;

(A) All arrests, charges, and convictions.

(B) The disclosed crimes and the dates must reasonably match the SI's criminal offender information and other criminal records information, as determined by the Department.

(g) Disclosure of other history required under OAR 407-007-0400 to 407-007-0460; and

(h) Disclosure of other information to be considered in the event of a weighing test if the SI discloses any criminal history or other history required under OAR 407-007-0400 to 407-007-0460.

(3) The Background Check Request form shall include the following notices:

(a) A notice regarding disclosure of Social Security number indicating:

(A) The SI's disclosure is voluntary; and

(B) The Department requests the Social Security number solely for the purpose of positively identifying the SI during the criminal records check process.

(b) A notice that the SI may be subject to fingerprinting and a criminal records check.

(4) The Department shall verify the identity of an SI using methods which include but are not limited to asking the SI for current and valid government-issued photo identification and confirming the information on the photo identification with the SI, the information written on the Background Check Request form, and the information written on the fingerprint card if a national criminal records check is conducted.

(5) The Department shall conduct an Oregon criminal records check after a completed Background Check Request form is received.

(a) Using information submitted on the Background Check Request form, the Department may obtain criminal offender information from the LEDS system and may request other criminal records information as needed.

(b) The Department shall handle criminal offender information obtained through LEDS in accordance with applicable OSP requirements in ORS chapter 181 and the rules adopted pursuant thereto (see OAR chapter 257, division 15).

(6) The Department may conduct a fingerprint-based national criminal records check after an Oregon criminal records check is completed.

(a) A fingerprint-based national criminal records check may be completed under any of the following circumstances:

(A) The SI has out of state residency evidenced by the SI's possession of an out of state driver license or being outside Oregon for 60 or more consecutive days during the previous five years.

(B) The LEDS check, SI disclosures, or any other criminal records information obtained by the Department indicates there may be criminal records outside of Oregon.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(C) The Department has reason to question the identity or history of the SI.

(D) The SI's position is at Oregon state institutions under OAR 407-007-0010(19)(g).

(E) The SI is assigned duties involving any aspect of a criminal records or abuse check process.

(F) A fingerprint-based criminal records check is required by federal or state laws or regulations, other rules adopted by the Department, or by contract with the Department.

(G) If the Department has reason to believe that fingerprints are needed to make a final fitness determination.

(b) The Department must receive consent from the parent or guardian to obtain fingerprints from an SI under 18 years of age.

(c) The SI shall complete and submit a fingerprint card when requested by the Department.

(A) The SI shall use a fingerprint card provided by the Department. The Department shall give the SI notice regarding the Social Security number as set forth in OAR 407-007-0030(3)(a).

(B) The SI shall submit the fingerprint card to the BCU within 21 calendar days of the request.

(i) The Department shall close the application, making it a closed case, if the fingerprint card is not received within 21 calendar days.

(ii) The Department may extend the time allowed for good cause.

(C) The Department may require new fingerprint cards if previous cards are rejected by OSP or the FBI.

(7) The Department may also conduct a state-specific criminal records check in lieu of or in addition to a national criminal records check. Reasons for a state-specific criminal records check include but are not limited to:

(a) When the Department has reason to believe that out-of-state criminal records may exist.

(b) When the Department has been unable to complete a national criminal records check due to illegible fingerprints.

(c) When the national criminal records check results show incomplete information about charges or criminal records without final disposition.

(d) When there is indication of residency or criminal records in a state that does not submit all criminal records to the FBI.

(e) When, based on available information, the Department has reason to believe that a state-specific criminal records check is necessary.

(8) In order to complete a criminal records check and fitness determination, the Department may require additional information from an SI.

(a) Additional information includes but is not limited to criminal, judicial, other background information, or proof of identity.

(b) If an SI who is a represented Department employee is required to provide additional information, the process for obtaining that information through investigatory interviews shall adhere to collective bargaining agreements on investigatory interviews.

(9) The Department may conduct a criminal records check in situations of imminent danger.

(a) If the Department determines there is indication of criminal behavior by an SI that could more likely than not pose an immediate risk to the Department, its clients, or vulnerable persons, the Department shall authorize a criminal records check without the completion of a Background Check Request form.

(b) If the Department determines that a fitness determination based on the criminal records check would be adverse to the SI, the Department shall provide the SI, if available, the opportunity to disclose criminal records, potentially disqualifying conditions, and other information as indicated in OAR 407-007-0060 before the completion of the fitness determination.

(10) Criminal records checks conducted under this rule shall be documented in writing.

407-007-0040

Potentially Disqualifying Crimes

(1) A conviction of any of the following crimes is potentially disqualifying. Offenses or convictions that are classified as less than a misdemeanor, such as violations or infractions, are not potentially disqualifying (see ORS 161.505 to 161.565).

(a) Any federal crime.

(b) Any U.S. military crime.

(c) Any felony or misdemeanor in Oregon Revised Statutes or local codes in Oregon.

(d) Any felony or misdemeanor in a jurisdiction outside Oregon (including known crimes outside the United States) that is the substantial equivalent of any crime in Oregon Revised Statutes, or that is serious and demonstrates behavior that poses a threat or jeopardizes the safety of the Department, its clients, or vulnerable individuals as determined by the Department.

(e) Any crime that is no longer codified in Oregon or other jurisdiction but that is the substantial equivalent of any crime listed in this section as determined by the Department.

(2) Regardless of the conviction date, evaluations of crimes may be based on Oregon laws and laws in other jurisdictions in effect at the time of the fitness determination.

(3) Under no circumstances may an SI be denied under these rules because of a juvenile record that has been expunged or set aside pursuant to ORS 419A.260 to 419A.262.

(4) Under no circumstances may an SI be denied under these rules because of an adult record that has been set aside pursuant to ORS 137.225.

407-007-0050

Other Potentially Disqualifying Conditions

The following are potentially disqualifying conditions:

(1) The SI makes a false statement to the Department, including the provision of materially false information, false information regarding criminal history, or failure to disclose information regarding criminal history. Nondisclosure of charges classified as less than a misdemeanor such as violations or infractions may not be considered as false statement.

(2) The SI is a registered sex offender in any jurisdiction. There is a rebuttable presumption that an SI is likely to engage in conduct that would pose a significant risk to the Department, its clients, or vulnerable individuals if the SI has been designated a predatory sex offender under ORS 181.585 or found to be a sexually violent dangerous offender under ORS 144.635 (or similar statutes in other jurisdictions).

(3) The SI has an outstanding warrant in any jurisdiction.

(4) The SI has a deferred sentence, conditional discharge, or is participating in a diversion program in any jurisdiction for any potentially disqualifying crime.

(5) The SI is currently on probation, parole, or post-prison supervision for any crime in any jurisdiction, regardless of the original conviction date or date of guilty or no contest plea if there is no conviction date.

(6) The SI is found in violation of post-prison supervision, parole, or probation for any crime in any jurisdiction regardless of the original conviction date or date of guilty or no contest plea if there is no conviction date, within five years or less from the date the Background Check Request form was signed or the date the Department conducted a criminal records check due to imminent danger.

(7) The SI has an unresolved arrest, charge, or a pending indictment for any crime in any jurisdiction.

(8) The SI has been arrested in any jurisdiction as a fugitive from another state or a fugitive from justice, regardless of the date of arrest.

(9) An adjudication in a juvenile court in any jurisdiction, finding that the SI was responsible for a potentially disqualifying crime that would result in a conviction if committed by an adult.

(10) A finding of "guilty except for insanity," "guilty except by reason of insanity," "not guilty by reason of insanity," "responsible except for insanity," "not responsible by reason of mental disease or defect," or similarly worded disposition in any jurisdiction regarding a potentially disqualifying crime, unless the local statutes indicate that such an outcome is considered an acquittal.

Weighing Test

If the SI has potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions, the Department shall consider any of the following factors disclosed by the SI or otherwise known when making the fitness determination:

(1) Circumstances regarding the nature of potentially disqualifying crimes and conditions including but not limited to:

(a) Age of the SI at time of the potentially disqualifying crime or condition.

(b) Details of incidents leading to the charges of potentially disqualifying crimes or resulting in potentially disqualifying conditions.

(c) Facts that support the conviction or other potentially disqualifying condition.

(d) Passage of time since commission of the crime or potentially disqualifying condition.

(e) Consideration of state or federal laws, regulations, or rules covering the position or the Department, regarding the potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions.

(2) Other factors when available including but not limited to:

(a) Other information related to criminal activity including charges, arrests, pending indictments, or convictions. Other behavior involving contact with law enforcement may also be reviewed if information is relevant to other criminal records or shows a pattern relevant to criminal history.

(b) Periods of incarceration.

(c) Status of and compliance with parole, post-prison supervision, or probation.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(d) Evidence of drug or alcohol issues directly related to criminal activity or potentially disqualifying conditions.

(e) Evidence of other treatment or rehabilitation related to criminal activity or potentially disqualifying conditions.

(f) Likelihood of repetition of criminal behavior or behaviors leading to potentially disqualifying conditions, including but not limited to patterns of criminal activity or behavior or whether the SI appears to accept responsibility for past actions, as determined by the Department.

(g) Changes in circumstances subsequent to the criminal activity or disqualifying conditions including but not limited to:

(A) History of high school, college, or other education related accomplishments.

(B) Work history (employee or volunteer).

(C) History regarding licensure, certification, or training for licensure or certification.

(D) Written recommendations from current or past employers.

(h) Indication of the SI's cooperation, honesty, or the making of a false statement during the criminal records check process, including acknowledgment and acceptance of responsibility of criminal activity and potentially disqualifying conditions.

(3) The relevancy of the SI's criminal history or potentially disqualifying conditions to the position or to the environment of the position, shall be considered. Consideration includes the relation between the SI's potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions and the following tasks or duties in the position:

(a) Access to or direct contact with Department clients, client property, or client funds.

(b) Access to information technology services, or control over or access to information technology systems that would allow an individual holding the position to harm the information technology systems or the information contained in the systems.

(c) Access to information, the disclosure of which is prohibited by state or federal laws, rules, or regulations, or information that is defined as confidential under state or federal laws, rules, or regulations.

(d) Access to payroll functions.

(e) Responsibility for receiving, receipting, or depositing money or negotiable instruments.

(f) Responsibility for billing, collections, or other financial transactions.

(g) Access to mail received or sent to the Department, including interagency mail, or access to any mail facilities in the Department.

(h) Responsibility for auditing the Department or other governmental agencies.

(i) Responsibility for any personnel or human resources functions.

(j) Access to personal information about employees, clients, or members of the public including Social Security numbers, dates of birth, driver license numbers, residency information, medical information, personal financial information, criminal offender information, or other criminal records information.

(k) Access to medications, chemicals, or hazardous materials; access to facilities in which medications, chemicals, and hazardous materials are present; or access to information regarding the transportation of medications, chemicals, or hazardous materials.

(L) Access to property to which access is restricted in order to protect the health or safety of the public.

(m) Responsibility for security, design, or construction services. This includes government buildings, grounds, or facilities or buildings, owned, leased, or rented for government purposes.

(n) Access to critical infrastructure or security-sensitive facilities or information.

Hired on a Preliminary Basis

The Department shall make a preliminary fitness determination to determine if an SI may work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in the position listed on the Background Check Request form prior to a final fitness determination. The Department may not hire an SI on a preliminary basis prior to the completion of a preliminary fitness determination.

(1) The SI shall complete and submit a Background Check Request form.

(2) The Department shall complete a preliminary fitness determination and send notice to the hiring manager.

(3) After review of the Background Check Request form, the Department shall make one of the following determinations:

(a) An SI may be hired on a preliminary basis, only during the time period prior to a final fitness determination, into the position listed on the Background Check Request form and allowed to participate in training, orientation, and position activities under the one of the following circumstances:

(A) If there is no indication of potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions on the Background Check Request form and the Department has no reason to believe the SI has potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions.

(B) If an SI discloses potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions, the SI may be hired on a preliminary basis only after the Office of Human Resources completes a weighing test. The Department may hire an SI on a preliminary basis only if, based on information available at the time, the Office of Human Resources determines that more likely than not that the SI poses no potential threat to the Department, its clients, or vulnerable persons.

(b) The Department shall not hire an SI on a preliminary basis if the Office of Human Resources determines that:

(A) After a weighing test, the SI more likely than not poses a potential threat to the Department, its clients, or vulnerable persons;

(B) The SI's most recent criminal records check under these rules or other Department criminal records check rules resulted in a denial; or

(C) The SI is currently involved in contesting a criminal records check determination under these or other Department criminal records check or abuse check rules.

(4) An SI who is hired on a preliminary basis shall be actively supervised at all times by an individual who has been approved without restrictions pursuant to these rules or previous Department criminal records check rules. The individual providing active supervision shall do at all times the following:

(a) Be in the same building as the SI or, if outdoors of Department buildings or any location off Department property, be within line of sight and hearing of the SI;

(b) Know where the SI is and what the SI is doing; and

(c) Periodically observe the actions of the SI.

(5) An SI who was approved without restrictions within the previous 24 months through a documented criminal records check pursuant to these rules may work after being hired on a preliminary basis without active supervision. The 24 month time frame is calculated from the date of previous approval to the date starting the new position. This exemption is not allowed in any of the following situations:

(a) If the SI cannot provide documented proof that he or she worked continuously under the previous approval for at least one year.

(b) If there is evidence of criminal activity within the previous 24 months.

(c) If the Department determines the job duties in the new position are so substantially different from the previous position that the previous fitness determination is inadequate for the new position.

(6) The Department may immediately remove an SI hired on a preliminary basis from the position listed on the Background Check Request form. Removal is not subject to hearing or appeal. Reasons for removal include but are not limited to the following:

(a) There is any indication of falsification on the Background Check Request form.

(b) The SI fails to disclose convictions for any potentially disqualifying crimes, any arrests that did not result in convictions, or any out of state arrests or convictions.

(c) The Department determines that allowing the SI to be hired on a preliminary basis is not appropriate, based on the application, criminal records, position duties, or regulations regarding the position.

(7) Nothing in this rule is intended to require that an SI, who is eligible for being hired on a preliminary basis be allowed to work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in the position listed on the Background Check Request form prior to a final fitness determination.

Final Fitness Determinations

The Office of Human Resources shall make a final fitness determination after all necessary criminal records checks, and a weighing test if necessary, have been completed. The Office of Human Resources may obtain and consider additional information as necessary to complete the final fitness determination.

(1) The final fitness determination may result in one of the following outcomes:

(a) The Office of Human Resources may approve an SI if:

(A) The SI has no potentially disqualifying crimes or potentially disqualifying conditions; or

(B) The SI has potentially disqualifying crimes or potentially disqualifying conditions and, after a weighing test with available information, the Department determines that more likely than not the SI poses no risk to the Department, its clients, or vulnerable persons.

(b) The Office of Human Resources may approve an SI with restrictions if, after a weighing test with available information, it determines that more likely than not that the SI poses no risk to the Department, its clients, or vulnerable persons, if certain restrictions are placed on the SI, such as but not limited to restrictions to one or more specific clients, position duties, or environments. The Department shall complete a new background check and fitness determination on the SI before removing a restriction. A fitness determination of approved with restrictions shall only be considered for the following SIs:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(A) An individual secured by the Department through the services of a temporary employment agency, staffing agency, or personnel services agency who is providing any of the duties or having access as described in OAR 407-007-0060(3).

(B) A volunteer or student under Department direction and control.

(C) A Department client who is placed in a Work Experience or JOBS Plus program at a Department site.

(D) Any individual who is required to complete a criminal records check pursuant to the statutory authority of ORS 181.534 and 181.537 or the authority of these rules pursuant to a contract with the Department.

(c) The Office of Human Resources shall deny an SI whom it determines, after a weighing test with available information, more likely than not poses a risk to the Department, its clients, or vulnerable individuals.

(2) The BCU may assist in or handle final fitness determinations as requested by the Office of Human Resources.

(3) Upon completion of a final fitness determination, the Office of Human Resources shall provide written notice to the SI. The notice shall:

(a) Be in a Department approved format;

(b) Include information regarding appeal rights for denied or approved with restrictions outcomes. The notice shall also include a statement that it becomes a final order by default in the event of a withdrawal or a failure to participate during the appeal or hearing; and

(c) Be mailed or hand-delivered to the SI no later than 14 calendar days after the decision. The effective date of action shall be recorded on the notice.

(d) The Office of Human Resources shall also provide employees with all formal disciplinary documents and letters up to and including a letter of dismissal.

(4) When an SI is denied, the Department shall not allow the SI to work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in the position listed on the Background Check Request form. A denial applies only to the position in question.

(a) The process for a Department employee's removal from service or dismissal shall adhere to Department-wide Support Services discharge policies, Department of Administrative Services' Human Resource Services Division dismissal policies, and collective bargaining agreements on discharge, as applicable.

(b) For all other SIs, a denial shall result in immediate dismissal.

(5) Final fitness determinations shall be documented in writing, including any other necessary details including but not limited to restrictions in a restricted approval or potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions in a denial.

(6) The Department shall make new fitness determinations for each application. The outcome of previous fitness determinations does not set a precedent for subsequent fitness determinations.

Closed Case

If an SI discontinues the application or fails to cooperate with the criminal records check or fitness determination process, the application is considered incomplete and shall be closed.

(1) Discontinuance or failure to cooperate includes but is not limited to the following circumstances:

(a) The SI refuses to be fingerprinted when required by these rules.

(b) The SI fails to respond within a stated time period to a request for corrections to the application, fingerprints, or provide any other information necessary to conduct a criminal records check and there is not enough information available to make a fitness determination.

(c) The SI withdraws the application, leaves the position prior to completion of the criminal records check, or the Department cannot locate or contact the SI.

(d) The SI is determined to be ineligible for the position for reasons other than the criminal records check.

(2) When the application is closed without a final fitness determination, there is no right to contest the closure.

(3) When a case is closed, the SI shall not be allowed to work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in the position listed on the Background Check Request form. A closed case applies only to the position in question.

(a) The process for a Department employee's removal from service or dismissal shall adhere to Department-wide Support Services discharge policies, Department of Administrative Services' Human Resource Services Division dismissal policies, and collective bargaining agreements on discharge, as applicable.

(b) For all other SIs, a closed case shall result in immediate dismissal.

(4) The Office of Human Resources or the BCU shall document in writing the reasons for a closed case, and shall provide that information to the SI.

Contesting a Final Fitness Determination

(1) A final fitness determination of denied or approved with restrictions is considered an adverse outcome. An SI with an adverse outcome may contest that outcome.

(2) If an SI is denied, then the SI may not work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in positions covered by these rules. An SI appealing a restricted approval may only work under the terms of the restriction during the appeal.

(3) If an adverse outcome is changed at any time during the appeal process, the change does not guarantee employment or placement.

(4) If an SI wishes to challenge the accuracy or completeness of criminal offender information provided by OSP, the FBI, or other criminal records information from other agencies reporting information to the Department, the SI may appeal to the entity providing the information. These challenges are not subject to the Department's appeal process.

(5) The SI has the right to represent himself or herself or have legal representation during the appeal process. The SI may not be represented by a lay person. In this rule, the term "SI" shall be considered to include the SI's legal representative.

(6) An SI who is already employed by the Department at the time of the final fitness determination may appeal through applicable personnel rules, policies, and collective bargaining provisions. The SI's decision to do so is an election of remedies as to the rights of the SI with respect to the fitness determination and constitutes a waiver of the contested case process described in this rule.

(7) An SI who wishes to challenge an adverse fitness determination may appeal the determination by requesting a contested case hearing. The appeal process is conducted pursuant to ORS 183.411 to 183.497 and the Attorney General's Uniform and Model Rules of Procedure for the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH), OAR 137-003-0501 to 137-003-0700.

(a) To request a contested case hearing the SI shall complete and sign the Hearing Request form.

(b) The completed and signed form must be received by the Department within the following time lines:

(A) For Department employees and SIs offered employment by the Department, no later than 15 calendar days after the effective date of action listed on the notice of the fitness determination.

(B) For all other SIs, no later than 45 calendar days after the effective date of action listed on the notice of the fitness determination.

(c) If a request for hearing is not timely, the Department shall determine, based on a written statement from the SI and available information, if there is good cause to proceed with the appeal.

(d) The Department may refer an untimely request to OAH for a hearing on the issue of timeliness.

(8) When an SI requests a contested case hearing, the Department may conduct an administrative review before referring the appeal to OAH.

(a) The SI must participate in the administrative review. Participation may include but is not limited to providing additional information or additional documents requested by the Department within a specified amount of time.

(b) The administrative review is not open to the public.

(9) The Department may conduct additional criminal records checks during the appeal process to update or verify the SI's criminal records. If needed, the Department shall amend the notice of fitness determination during the appeal process while still maintaining the original hearing rights and deadlines.

(10) A hearing representative shall represent the Department in contested case hearings, or may use representation through the Department of Justice's Office of the Attorney General.

(a) The Department shall provide the administrative law judge and the SI a complete copy of available information used during the criminal records checks and fitness determinations. The notice of contested case and prehearing summary and all other documents shall be mailed by regular first class mail.

(b) The contested case hearing is not open to the public.

(c) The administrative law judge shall make a new fitness determination based on the evidence and the contested case hearing record.

(d) The only remedy that may be awarded is a fitness determination that the SI is approved or denied. Under no circumstances shall the Department be required to place an SI in any position, nor shall the Department be required to accept services or enter into a contractual agreement with an SI.

(11) The result of an appeal is a final order.

(a) In the following situations, the notice of fitness determination becomes the final order as if the SI never requested a hearing:

(A) Failure to request a hearing in the time allotted in this rule. No other document shall be issued after the notice of fitness determination.

(B) Withdrawal of the request for hearing at any time during the appeal process.

(b) The Department may make an informal disposition based on the administrative review. The Department shall issue a final order and new notice of fitness determination. If the resulting fitness determination is an adverse outcome, the appeal shall proceed to contested case hearing.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) The Department shall issue a dismissal order in the following circumstances:

(A) The SI may withdraw a hearing request verbally or in writing at any time before the issuance of a final order. A dismissal order due to a withdrawal is effective the date the withdrawal is received by the Department or OAH. The SI may cancel the withdrawal in writing within 14 calendar days after the date of withdrawal.

(B) The Department shall dismiss a hearing request when the SI fails to participate in the administrative review. Failure to participate in the administrative review shall result in termination of hearing rights. The order is effective on the due date for participation in the administrative review. The Department shall review a good cause request to reinstate hearing rights if received in writing by the Department within 14 calendar days.

(C) The Department shall dismiss a hearing request when the SI fails to appear at the time and place specified for the contested case hearing. The order is effective on the date scheduled for the hearing. The Department shall review a good cause request to reinstate hearing rights if received in writing by the Department within 14 calendar days.

(d) After a hearing, the administrative law judge shall issue a proposed and final order.

(A) If no written exceptions are received by the Department within 14 calendar days after the service of the proposed and final order, the proposed and final order shall become the final order.

(B) If timely written exceptions to the proposed and final order are received by the Department, the Department's Director or designee shall consider the exceptions and serve a final order, or request a written response or a revised proposed and final order from the administrative law judge.

(12) Final orders, including dismissal and default orders, are subject to reconsideration or rehearing petitions within 60 calendar days after the final order is served, pursuant to OAR 137-003-0675.

Record Keeping, Confidentiality

(1) All LEADS reports are confidential and the Department shall maintain the reports in accordance with applicable OSP requirements in ORS chapter 181 and the rules adopted pursuant thereto (see OAR chapter 257, division 15).

(a) LEADS reports may only be shared with approved Department authorized designees if there is a need to know consistent with these rules.

(b) The LEADS report and any photocopies may not be shown or given to the SI.

(2) The results of a national criminal records check provided by the FBI or through OSP are confidential and may not be disseminated by the Department except:

(a) If a fingerprint-based criminal records check was conducted on the SI, the SI shall be provided a copy of the results upon request.

(b) During the contested case hearing, the Department shall provide state and national criminal offender information as exhibits.

(3) All completed Background Check Request forms, other criminal records information, and other records collected or developed during the criminal records check process shall be kept confidential and disseminated only on a need-to-know basis.

(4) The Department shall retain and destroy all criminal records check documents pursuant to federal law and records retention schedules published by Oregon State Archives.

Variations

(1) The outcome of a fitness determination made pursuant to these rules is not subject to variance. Challenges to fitness determinations may only be made through contested case hearing rights set forth in these rules or alternative options available to Department employees.

(2) The Department may grant a variance based upon a demonstration by the Department program area or work unit that the variance would not pose a significant risk to the Department, its clients, or vulnerable individuals.

(3) The program office or work unit requesting a variance shall submit, in writing, an application to the BCU that contains the following:

- (a) The section of the rule from which the variance is sought;
- (b) The reason for the proposed variance;
- (c) The alternative practice, service, method, concept or procedure proposed;

(d) A plan and timetable for compliance with the section of the rule from which the variance is sought; and

(e) An explanation on how the safety and well-being of the Department or affected individuals will be ensured during the time the variance period is in effect.

(4) The Assistant Director or designee for the Department's Administrative Services Division shall approve or deny the request for a variance.

(5) The Department shall notify the program office or work unit of the decision. This notice shall be sent within 30 calendar days of the receipt of the request by the Department with a copy to other relevant divisions of the Department.

(6) Appeal of the denial of a variance request shall be made in writing to the Department's Director or designee, whose decision shall be final.

(7) The duration of the variance shall be determined by the Department's Director or designee.

(8) The Department program office or work unit may implement a variance only after receipt of written approval from the Department.

(9) Granting a variance does not set a precedent for subsequent requests for variances.

Rules Repealed: 407-007-0355

Subject: The Department of Human Services (Department) is updating the term "probationary status" to "hired on a preliminary basis" to align with statutory language. The definition of "subject individual" is modified to include language from HB 2442 (2009.) The Department's Criminal History Request form is being renamed the Background Check Request form, so references in the rules are being updated. The crimes lists are being updated to include new crimes added to the Oregon Revised Statutes since 2007. Rule language is being clarified and changed to meet Secretary of State guidelines and to more closely align the Department's two sets of criminal records check rules. Additional guidelines are being provided for the appointment and responsibilities of authorized designees and contact persons. OAR 407-007-0320 is expanding into three rules — 407-007-0315, 407-007-0320 and 407-007-0325 — for clarification. OAR 407-007-0355 is being repealed because it was never implemented and direction from the Federal Bureau of Investigation indicates that it does not meet their requirements for confidentiality of national criminal records check results.

Purpose

(1) The purpose of these rules, OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370, is to provide for the reasonable screening under ORS 181.534 and 181.537 of subject individuals to determine if they have a history of criminal behavior such that they should not be allowed to work, volunteer, be employed, reside, or otherwise perform in positions covered by these rules.

(2) These rules apply to evaluating criminal records and potentially disqualifying conditions of a subject individual when conducting fitness determinations based upon such information. The fact that a subject individual is approved does not guarantee employment or placement. These rules do not apply to individuals subject to OAR 407-007-0000 to 407-007-0100.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

407-007-0210

Definitions

As used in OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370, unless the context of the rule requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Appointing authority" means the individual designated by the qualified entity responsible for appointing authorized designees and contact persons. Examples include but are not limited to human resources staff with the authority to offer and terminate employment, business owners, a member of the board of directors, a director, or a program administrator.

(2) "Approved" means, with regard to a fitness determination, that a subject individual, following a final fitness determination, is fit to work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in the position listed on the Background Check Request form.

(3) "Approved with restrictions" means an approval in which some restriction is made including but not limited to the subject individual, the subject individual's environment, the type or number of clients for whom the subject individual may provide care, or the information to which the subject individual has access.

(4) "Authorized designee (AD)" means an individual designated by the Department of Human Services, or an approved qualified entity authorized by the Department of Human Services to receive and process criminal records check request forms from subject individuals and criminal records information from the Department of Human Services.

(5) "Background Check Unit (BCU)" means the Department of Human Services' Background Check Unit.

(6) "Care" means the provision of care, treatment, education, training, instruction, supervision, placement services, recreation, or support to children, the elderly, or individuals with disabilities (see ORS 181.537).

(7) "Client" means any individual who receives services, care, or funding for care through the Department of Human Services.

(8) "Closed case" means a criminal records check application that has been closed without a final fitness determination.

(9) "Contact person (CP)" means an individual who is designated by the Department of Human Services or an approved qualified entity to receive and process criminal records check request forms from subject individuals, but who is not authorized to receive criminal records information from the Department of Human Services.

(10) "Criminal records check" means obtaining and reviewing criminal records as required by these rules and includes any or all of the following:

(a) An Oregon criminal records check where criminal offender information is obtained from the Oregon State Police (OSP) using the Law Enforcement Data System (LEDS). The Oregon criminal records check may also include a review of other criminal records information.

(b) A national criminal records check where records are obtained from the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) through the use of fingerprint cards sent to OSP and other identifying information. The national criminal records check may also include a review of other criminal records information.

(c) A state-specific criminal records check where records are obtained from law enforcement agencies, courts, or other criminal records information resources located in, or regarding, a state or jurisdiction outside Oregon.

(11) "Criminal offender information" means records, including fingerprints and photographs, received, compiled, and disseminated by OSP for purposes of identifying criminal offenders and alleged offenders and maintained as part of an individual's records of arrest, the nature and disposition of criminal charges, sentencing, confinement, and release, but does not include the retention by OSP of records of transfer of inmates between penal institutions or other correctional facilities. It also includes the OSP Computerized Criminal History System (see OAR 257-010-0015).

(12) "Denied" means, with regard to a fitness determination, that a subject individual, following a fitness determination including a weighing test, is not fit to work, volunteer, be employed, reside, or otherwise hold the position listed on the Background Check Request form.

(13) "Department" means the Department of Human Services.

(14) "Fitness determination" means the decision in a case that is not closed, and includes:

(a) The decision regarding a Background Check Request form and preliminary review (a preliminary fitness determination); or

(b) The decision regarding a Background Check Request form, completed criminal records check, including gathering other information as necessary, and a final review by an AD (a final fitness determination).

(15) "Good cause" means a valid and sufficient reason for not complying with time frames set during the criminal records check process or contested case hearing process that includes but is not limited to an explanation of circumstances beyond a subject individual's reasonable control.

(16) "Hearing representative" means a Department employee representing the Department in a contested case hearing.

(17) "Hired on a preliminary basis" means a condition in which a qualified entity allows a subject individual to work, volunteer, be trained, or reside in an environment following the submission of a completed Background Check Request form. Hired on a preliminary basis may also be called probationary status.

(18) "Other criminal records information" means information obtained and used in the criminal records check process that is not criminal offender information from OSP. Other criminal records information includes but is not limited to police investigations and records, information from local or regional criminal records information systems, justice records, court records, information from the Oregon Judicial Information Network, sexual offender registration records, warrants, Oregon Department of Corrections records, Oregon Department of Transportation's Driver and Motor Vehicle Services Division information, information provided on the Background Check Request forms, disclosures by a subject individual, and any other information from any jurisdiction obtained by or provided to the Department for the purpose of conducting a fitness determination.

(19) "Position" means the position listed on the Background Check Request form which determines whether the individual is a subject individual under these or Department program rules.

(20) "Qualified entity (QE)" means a community mental health or developmental disability program, local health department, or an individual, business, or organization, whether public, private, for-profit, nonprofit, or voluntary, that provides care, including a business or organization that licenses, certifies, or registers others to provide care (see ORS 181.537).

(21) "Subject individual (SI)" means an individual on whom the Department may conduct a criminal records check and from whom the Department may require fingerprints for the purpose of conducting a national criminal records check.

(a) An SI includes any of the following:

(A) An individual who is licensed, certified, registered, or otherwise regulated or authorized for payment by the Department and who provides care.

(B) An employee, contractor, temporary worker, or volunteer who provides care, or has access to clients, client information, or client funds, within any entity or agency licensed, certified, registered, or otherwise regulated by the Department.

(C) Any individual who is paid directly or indirectly with public funds who has or will have contact with recipients of:

(i) Services within an adult foster home (defined in ORS 443.705); or

(ii) Services within a residential facility (defined in ORS 443.400).

(D) Any direct care staff secured by any long term care facility licensed by the Department pursuant to ORS chapter 441 through the services of a personnel services or staffing agency who works in the long term care facility.

(E) Except as provided in section (21)(b)(C) and (D) of this rule, an individual who lives in a facility that is licensed, certified, registered, or otherwise regulated by the Department to provide care. The position of this SI includes but is not limited to resident manager, household member, or boarder.

(F) An individual working or volunteering for a private licensed child caring agency or system of care contractor providing child welfare services pursuant to ORS chapter 418.

(G) A homecare worker, personal care services provider, or an independent provider employed by a Department client who provides care to the client if the Department helps pay for the services.

(H) A child care provider and their employees reimbursed through the Department's child care program and other individuals in child care facilities that are exempt from certification or registration by the Child Care Division of the Oregon Employment Department (OED). This includes all individuals who reside in or who are frequent visitors to the residence or facility where the child care services are provided and who may have unsupervised access to the children (see OAR 461-165-0180).

(I) An AD or CP in any entity or agency licensed, certified, registered, or otherwise regulated by the Department.

(J) An individual providing on the job certified nursing assistant classes to staff within a long term care facility.

(K) A student at a long term care facility enrolled in a certified nursing assistant class for employment at the facility.

(L) Any individual serving as an owner, operator, or manager of a room and board facility pursuant to OAR 411-068.

(M) Except as provided in section (21)(b) of this rule, any individual who is required to complete a criminal records check pursuant to other Department program rules or a contract with the Department or if the requirement is within Department's statutory authority. Specific statutory authority or reference to these rules and the positions under the contract subject to a criminal records check must be specified in the contract.

(b) An SI does not include:

(A) Any individual under 16 years of age.

(B) An individual receiving training in a Department-licensed or Department-certified facility as part of the required curriculum through any college, university, or other training program and who is not an employee in the facility in which training is provided. The individual may not be considered a volunteer under these rules. Facilities must ensure that all students or interns have passed a substantially equivalent background check process through the training program or are:

(i) Actively supervised at all times as defined in OAR 407-007-0315; and

(ii) Not allowed to have unsupervised access to vulnerable individuals.

(C) Department clients or QE clients, unless specific written permission to conduct a criminal records check is received from the Department.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

The only circumstance in which the Department shall allow a check to be performed on a client pursuant to this paragraph is if the client falls within the definition of "subject individual" as listed in sections (21)(a)(A)-(D) and 21(a)(F)-(M) of this rule.

(D) Individuals who live in or visit relative adult foster homes. This exclusion does not apply to the licensee.

(E) Individuals working in child care facilities certified or registered by the OED.

(F) Individuals employed by a private business that provides services to clients and the general public and is not regulated by the Department.

(G) Individuals employed by a business that provides appliance or structural repair for clients and the general public, and who are temporarily providing these services in an environment regulated by the Department. The QE shall ensure active supervision of these individuals while on QE property and the QE may not allow unsupervised contact with QE clients or residents. This exclusion does not apply to a business that receives funds from the Department for care provided by an employee of the business.

(H) Individuals employed by a private business in which a client of the Department is working as part of a Department-sponsored employment service program. This exclusion does not apply to an employee of a business that receives funds from the Department for care provided by the employee.

(I) Employees and volunteers working in hospitals, ambulatory surgical centers, special inpatient care facilities, outpatient renal dialysis facilities, and freestanding birthing centers as defined in ORS 442.015, in-home care agencies as defined on ORS 443.305, and home health agencies as defined in ORS 443.005.

(J) Volunteers, who are not under the direction and control of any entity licensed, certified, registered, or otherwise regulated by the Department.

(K) Individuals employed or volunteering in a Medicare-certified health care business which is not subject to licensure or certification by the State of Oregon.

(L) Individuals working in restaurants or at public swimming pools.

(M) Hemodialysis technicians.

(N) Individuals employed by alcohol and drug programs that are certified, licensed, or approved by the Department's Addictions and Mental Health Division to provide prevention, evaluation, or treatment services. This exclusion does not apply to programs specifically required by other Department rules to conduct criminal records checks in accordance with these rules.

(O) Individuals working for a transit service provider which conducts background checks pursuant to ORS 267.237.

(P) Individuals being certified by the Department as interpreters pursuant to ORS 409.623. This exclusion does not apply to Department-certified interpreters when being considered for a specific position.

(Q) Provider group categories that were authorized for payment by the Department for care if the provider group categories were not covered by a Department criminal record check process prior to 2004.

(R) Emergency medical technicians and first responders certified by the Department's Emergency Medical Services and Trauma Systems program.

(S) An individual employed by an entity that provides services solely contracted under ORS 414.022.

(22) "Weighing test" means a process in which one or more ADs consider available information to make a fitness determination when an SI has potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions.

Criminal History Check Required

(1) The Department or a Department authorized QE shall conduct criminal records checks on all SIs through LEDS maintained by OSP in accordance with ORS Chapter 181 and the rules adopted thereto (see OAR chapter 257, division 15).

(2) If a national criminal records check of an SI is necessary, OSP shall provide the Department the results of criminal records checks conducted pursuant to ORS 181.534, including fingerprint identification, through the FBI.

(3) An SI is required to have a check in the following circumstances:

(a) An individual who becomes an SI on or after the effective date of these rules.

(b) The SI changes employers to a different QE.

(c) Except as provided in section (4) of this rule, the individual, whether previously considered an SI or not, changes positions under the same QE, and the new position requires a criminal records check.

(d) The individual, whether previously considered an SI or not, changes Department-issued licenses, certifications, or registrations, and the license, certification, or registration requires a criminal records check under these rules.

(e) A criminal records check is required by federal or state laws or regulations, other Department administrative rules, or by contract with the Department.

(f) When the Department or the AD has reason to believe that a criminal records check is justified. Examples include but are not limited to any indication of possible criminal behavior by an SI or quality assurance monitoring of a previously conducted criminal records check.

(4) A criminal records check is not required under the following circumstances:

(a) A personal care services provider, Lifespan Respite care provider, or an independent provider paid with Department funds who changes or adds clients, and the prior, documented criminal records check conducted within the previous 24 months through the Department has been approved without restrictions.

(b) The SI is a child care provider as described in OAR 461-165-0180 who has been approved without restrictions and who changes or adds clients.

(c) The SI remains with a QE in the same position while the QE merges with another QE, is sold to another QE, or changes names. The changes may be noted in documentation attached to the notice of fitness determination but do not warrant a new criminal records check.

(5) An AD must document in writing the reason why a new criminal records check was not completed.

(6) Criminal records checks are completed on SIs who otherwise meet the qualifications of the position in question. A criminal records check may not be used to screen applicants for a position.

Qualified Entity

(1) A QE and its appointing authorities must be approved in writing by the Department pursuant to these rules in order to appoint an AD or CP. Unless specifically indicated otherwise in these rules, all QEs and appointing authorities discussed in these rules are considered approved.

(2) Except as provided in section (3) of this rule, all QEs shall ensure the completion of criminal records checks for SIs who are the QE's employees, volunteers, or other SIs under the direction or control of the QE.

(a) The QE's appointing authority shall appoint ADs or CPs within 30 calendar days following Department approval, or within time frames required by Department program offices.

(b) Unless specifically allowed by the Department, an appointing authority may not appoint themselves as an AD.

(c) Appointing authorities in all QEs shall appoint one or more ADs, or have a written agreement with another QE to handle AD responsibilities.

(d) Appointing authorities in all QEs may also appoint one or more CPs, or may have a written agreement with another QE to perform CP responsibilities.

(3) The Department's appointing authorities shall appoint ADs and CPs within the Department. Department-employed ADs shall make fitness determinations for the following QEs:

(a) Private QEs with fewer than 10 employed SIs are not eligible to appoint ADs. These QEs shall do one of the following:

(A) Use another QE to perform AD responsibilities instead of using the Department. If another QE is used, the two QEs must have a written agreement. The QE must provide the Department with a copy of the agreement.

(B) Appoint one or more CPs, or have a written agreement with another QE to perform CP responsibilities. The QE must provide the Department with a copy of the agreement.

(b) QEs with SIs not under the direction and control of the QE but who provide care under programs administered by the QE may have the Department ADs make fitness determinations.

(A) The QE shall appoint one or more CPs, or use an AD or CP appointed under section (2) of this rule to perform CP responsibilities.

(B) The QE may appoint an AD for SIs not under the direction and control of the QE if the QE chooses to do so or is required to do so under other Department program rules or contract with the Department. The QE shall notify the Department in writing which programs are affected and which AD shall perform the responsibilities for each program.

(c) QEs may have specific direction by administrative rule or Department program about AD or CP appointments.

(A) Administrative rules governing certain QEs may prohibit AD appointment or CP appointment, such as private licensed child caring agencies.

(B) Department program offices may determine that:

(i) Certain QEs may not have their own ADs or CPs, but must use ADs or CPs at a local Department branch or a local QE. Examples include but are not limited to adult foster homes and child foster homes.

(ii) Specific QEs may have specific AD or CP requirements resulting from licensing actions, sanctions, or from quality assurance monitoring.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(d) The Department may require certain QEs to use Department-employed ADs to make fitness determinations. Examples include but are not limited to initial opening of a new QE, newly adopted administrative rules creating a new type of QE, or Department investigation or review of the QE.

(4) The Department may revoke approval of the QE to appoint or maintain ADs if the Department is investigating a compliance issue or determines that the QE, or an AD or CP appointed by the QE, has failed to comply with these rules. The BCU and the appropriate entity or program office within the Department may develop a plan of action to resolve the compliance issues.

(5) The QE's appointing authorities shall appoint ADs and CPs as needed to remain in compliance with these rules. If a QE no longer has an AD or CP for any reason, the appointing authorities shall ensure that new ADs or CPs are appointed within 30 calendar days from the date of no longer having ADs or CPs, and shall communicate any changes to the BCU.

(6) The Department shall provide QEs with periodic training and ongoing technical assistance.

(7) Any decisions made by the Department in regard to these rules are final and may not be overturned by any QE, its ADs or CPs.

Authorized Designees and Contact Persons

(1) All requirements in this section must be completed within 90 calendar days. To receive Department approval, all ADs and CPs must meet the following requirements:

(a) ADs and CPs for the Department must be employed by the Department. For QEs, the ADs and CPs must be one of the following:

(A) Employed by the agency for which they will handle criminal records check information.

(B) Contracted with the QE to perform as an AD or CP.

(C) Employed by another similar QE or a parent QE (e.g., assisted living facility AD helping another assisted living facility).

(b) ADs and CPs shall complete a training program and successfully pass any testing as required by the Department.

(c) An appointing authority shall appoint an AD or CP in writing on a form provided by the Department. The applicant AD or CP shall complete and submit the form to the Department for processing and registration.

(d) The Department shall conduct an Oregon criminal records check, a national criminal records check, and if necessary, a state-specific criminal records check. The AD or CP must have:

(A) No conviction for a potentially disqualifying permanent review crime;

(B) No convictions for any other crime in the past 15 years;

(C) No potentially disqualifying conditions; and

(D) If an AD, Criminal Justice Information Systems (CJIS) clearance and approval to view criminal records in accordance with OSP rules.

(e) The Department shall conduct an abuse check if Department program rules require an abuse check on SIs and the BCU has the authority to conduct the abuse check. The AD or CP may not have been found responsible for abuse of a vulnerable person.

(2) The Department shall deny the individual's status as an AD or CP if the individual does not meet the AD or CP requirements. Once denied, the individual may no longer perform the duties of an AD or CP. There are no exceptions for individuals who do not meet the AD or CP requirements.

(3) Approved ADs and CPs shall have the following responsibilities:

(a) Demonstrate understanding of and adherence to these rules in all actions pertaining to the criminal records check process.

(b) Act as the Department's designee in any action pursuant to these rules and the criminal records check process. The AD or CP may not advocate for an SI during any part of the criminal records check process, including contesting a fitness determination.

(c) Ensure that adequate measures are taken to protect the confidentiality of the records and documents required by these rules. Only an AD may view criminal offender information. A CP may not view criminal offender information.

(d) Verify the identity of an SI. The AD or CP shall verify identity or ensure that the same verification requirements are understood by each individual responsible for verifying identity.

(A) If conducting a criminal records check on the SI for the first time or at rehire of the SI, the AD or CP shall verify identity by using methods which include but are not limited to asking the SI for current and valid government-issued photo identification and confirming the information on the photo identification with the SI, the information written on the Background Check Request form, and the information written on the fingerprint card if a national criminal records check is conducted.

(B) If an AD or CP is verifying the identity of an SI who is being rechecked, review of government-issued photo identification may not be necessary, but the AD or CP shall verify the SI's name, current address, and any aliases or previous names. (e) Ensure that an SI is not permitted to work, volunteer, reside, or otherwise hold any position covered by these rules before the completion of a preliminary fitness determination and submission of the Background Check Request form to the Department along with a fingerprint card if the SI discloses out of state criminal records or residency.

(f) Ensure that when an SI is hired on a preliminary basis, the need for active supervision is understood by each individual responsible for providing active supervision.

(g) Ensure that if an SI is removed from working on a preliminary basis, the SI is immediately removed from the position and remains removed until the completion of a final fitness determination or unless the BCU reinstates hired on a preliminary basis.

(h) Notify the Department of any changes regarding an SI who still has a criminal records check being processed, including but not limited to address or employment status changes.

(i) Monitor the status of criminal records check applications and investigate any delays in processing.

(j) Ensure that documentation required by these rules is processed and maintained in accordance with these rules.

(k) Notify the BCU immediately if arrested, charged, or convicted of any crime.

(4) A CP may not conduct final fitness determinations or review criminal offender information. A CP has the following limitations when making preliminary fitness determinations:

(a) The CP may review the SIs completed Background Check Request form to ensure completeness of the form, verify identity, and to determine if the SI has any potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions.

(b) The CP may allow the SI to be hired on a preliminary basis only after the CP has reviewed the Background Check Request form and determined there is no indication that the SI has any potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions.

(c) The CP shall not allow an SI who discloses any potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions to work on a preliminary basis.

(d) If the SI discloses potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions, the CP shall forward the Background Check Request form to an AD for preliminary fitness determination, or to the BCU for processing if there is no local AD available.

(5) In addition to the responsibilities listed in section (3) of this rule, the AD shall:

(a) Review the completed Background Check Request form (if not already done so by a CP) and conduct a preliminary fitness determination to determine eligibility for probationary status before forwarding the Background Check Request form to the BCU.

(b) Make a final fitness determination on all SIs when the Department returns their Background Check Request form to the AD for final review. The decision of an AD may not be overruled by an employee, owner, or board member of a QE who is not an AD.

(c) Participate in the appeal process if requested by the Department.

(d) Ensure the confidentiality and integrity of criminal records check documents. After the completion of a criminal records check, ADs not involved with original fitness determinations may not review criminal records check documents to gain information on an SI's criminal history. If a review is necessary, the AD must have written approval from the Department prior to reviewing any documents.

(6) An AD may not have access to criminal offender information, other criminal information (except the Background Check Request form), or make a fitness determination if there is a conflict of interest between the AD and the SI.

(A) A conflict of interest includes but is not limited to the following situations:

(A) If the AD is related to the SI. In this context, "related" means spouse, domestic partner, natural parent, child, sibling, adopted child, adopted parent, stepparent, stepchild, stepbrother, stepsister, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, grandparent, grandchild, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, or cousin.

(B) If the AD has a close personal or financial relationship, other than an employee-employer relationship, with the SI.

(b) When there is a conflict of interest and the QE has no other ADs available to conduct the fitness determination, the Department shall complete the fitness determination.

(7) The Department may change AD or CP status in the following circumstances which include but are not limited to:

(a) The Department shall inactivate AD or CP status when the AD or CP position with the QE ends or when the QE terminates the appointment. The QE shall notify the Department immediately upon the end of the position or termination of the appointment.

(b) The Department or QE shall suspend or revoke the appointment if an AD or CP fails to comply with responsibilities or fails to continue to meet the requirements for AD or CP, as applicable. After suspending or revoking the appointment, the QE must immediately notify the BCU in writing. If the Department takes the action, it must immediately notify the QE in writing.

(c) The Department shall revoke AD or CP status if an AD or CP fails to recertify.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(6) Any changes to AD or CP status are not subject to appeal rights unless the denial or termination results in immediate loss of employment or position. ADs or CPs losing employment or position have the same hearing rights as other SIs under these rules. (7) If an AD or CP leaves employment with the QE for any reason, the Department shall inactivate AD or CP status. If the individual finds employment with another QE, a new appointment, application, and registration must be completed.

(8) The Department shall review and recertify appointments of ADs and CPs, up to and including a new application, criminal records check, abuse check if required, and additional training, to under the following circumstances:

(a) Every three years; or

(b) Any time the Department has reason to believe the individual no longer meets the AD or CP requirements including but not limited to indication of criminal behavior or indication of noncompliance with these rules.

Oregon Criminal History Check Process

(1) A QE and SI shall use the Background Check Request form to request a criminal records check that must include the following information:

(a) Name and aliases;

(b) Date of birth;

(c) Address and recent residency information;

(d) Driver license or identification card information;

(e) Position the SI is completing the Background Check Request form;

(f) Disclosure of all criminal history;

(A) The SI must disclose all arrests, charges, and convictions regardless of outcome or when the arrests, charges, or convictions occurred.

(B) The disclosed crimes and the dates must reasonably match the SI's criminal offender information and other criminal records information, as determined by the Department.

(g) Disclosure of other information to be considered in the event of a weighing test.

(2) The Background Check Request form shall include the following notices:

(a) A notice regarding disclosure of Social Security number indicating that:

(A) The SI's disclosure is voluntary; and

(B) The Department requests the Social Security number solely for the purpose of positively identifying the SI during the criminal records check process.

(b) A notice that the SI may be subject to fingerprinting as part of a criminal records check.

(3) The BCU shall review each Background Check Request form received for completeness and timeliness. If the BCU rejects the form, the QE's AD or CP shall immediately remove the SI from the position. If the QE still plans to hire the SI, the QE shall resolve the reasons for rejection and re-submit the form.

(4) The Department or an approved QE under contract with OSP for LEDS access shall conduct an Oregon criminal records check after a completed Background Check Request form is received. Using information submitted on the Background Check Request form, the Department or QE may obtain criminal offender information from LEDS and may request other criminal records information as needed.

(5) The Department and all QEs receiving LEDS information shall handle criminal offender information in accordance with applicable OSP requirements in ORS chapter 181 and the rules adopted pursuant thereto (see OAR chapter 257, division 15).

(6) The Department may conduct a fingerprint-based national criminal records check after an Oregon criminal records check has been completed.

(a) A fingerprint-based national criminal records check may be completed under any of the following circumstances:

(A) The SI has been outside Oregon:

(i) For 60 or more consecutive days during the previous 18 months and the SI is a child care provider or other individual included in OAR 461-165-0180.

(ii) For 60 or more consecutive days during the previous five years for all other SIs.

(B) The LEDS check, SI disclosures, or any other criminal records information obtained by the Department indicate there may be criminal records outside of Oregon.

(C) The SI has an out-of-state driver license.

(D) The Department has reason to question the identity or criminal record of the SI.

(E) A fingerprint-based criminal records check is required by federal or state laws or regulations, other Department rules, or by contract with the Department.

(F) The SI is an AD or CP.

(G) The Department has reason to believe that fingerprints are needed to make a final fitness determination.

(b) The Department must receive consent from the parent or guardian to obtain fingerprints from an SI under 18 years of age.

(c) The SI shall complete and submit a fingerprint card when requested by the Department. The Department shall send the request to the QE and the AD or CP shall notify the SI.

(A) The SI shall use a fingerprint card provided by the Department. The Department shall give the SI notice regarding the Social Security number as set forth in OAR 407-007-0250(2)(a).

(B) The SI shall submit the fingerprint card to the BCU within 21 calendar days of the request.

(i) The Department shall close the application, making it a closed case, if the fingerprint card is not received within 21 calendar days. When a case is closed, the SI may not be allowed to work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in positions covered by these rules, and shall be immediately terminated and removed from the position.

(ii) The Department may extend the time allowed for good cause provided by the SI or QE.

(C) The Department may require new fingerprint cards if previous cards are rejected by OSP or the FBI.

(5) The Department may also conduct a state-specific criminal records check instead of or in addition to a national criminal records check. Reasons for a state-specific criminal records check include but are not limited to:

(a) When the Department has reason to believe that out-of-state criminal records may exist and a national criminal records check may not be accomplished.

(b) When the Department has been unable to complete a national criminal records check due to illegible fingerprints.

(c) When the national criminal records check results show incomplete information about charges or criminal records without final disposition.

(d) When there is indication of residency or criminal records in a state that does not submit all criminal records to the FBI.

(e) When, based on available information, the Department has reason to believe that a state-specific criminal records check is necessary.

(6) In order to complete a criminal records check and fitness determination, the Department may require additional information from the SI including but not limited to additional criminal, judicial, other background information, or proof of identity.

(7) The Department may conduct a criminal records check in situations of imminent danger.

(a) If the Department determines there is indication of criminal behavior that could more likely than not pose an immediate risk to vulnerable individuals, the Department shall conduct a new criminal records check on an SI without the completion of a new Background Check Request form.

(b) If the Department determines that a fitness determination based on the new criminal records check would be adverse to the SI, the Department shall provide the SI, if available, the opportunity to disclose criminal records, potentially disqualifying conditions, and other information as indicated in OAR 407-007-0300 before the completion of the fitness determination.

(8) All criminal records checks conducted under this rule shall be documented in writing.

Other Potentially Disqualifying Conditions

The following are potentially disqualifying conditions:

(1) The SI makes a false statement to the QE, AD, or Department, including the provision of materially false information, false information regarding criminal records, or failure to disclose information regarding criminal records. Nondisclosure of violation or infraction charges may not be considered a false statement.

(2) The SI is a registered sex offender in any jurisdiction. There is a rebuttable presumption that an SI is likely to engage in conduct that would pose a significant risk to vulnerable individuals if the SI has been designated a predatory sex offender in any jurisdiction under ORS 181.585 or found to be a sexually violent dangerous offender under ORS 144.635 (or similar statutes in other jurisdictions).

(3) The SI has an outstanding warrant for any crime in any jurisdiction.

(4) The SI has a deferred sentence, conditional discharge, or is participating in a diversion program in any jurisdiction for any potentially disqualifying crime.

(5) The SI is currently on probation, parole, or post-prison supervision for any crime in any jurisdiction, regardless of the original conviction date (or date of guilty or no contest plea if there is no conviction date).

(6) The SI has been found in violation of post-prison supervision, parole, or probation for any crime in any jurisdiction, regardless of the original conviction date (or date of guilty or no contest plea if there is no conviction date), within five years from the date the Background Check Request form was signed or the date the Department conducted a criminal records check due to imminent danger.

(7) The SI has an unresolved arrest, charge, or a pending indictment for any crime in any jurisdiction.

(8) The SI has been arrested in any jurisdiction as a fugitive from another state or a fugitive from justice, regardless of the date of arrest.

(9) The SI has an adjudication in a juvenile court in any jurisdiction, finding that the SI was responsible for a potentially disqualifying crime that would result in a conviction if committed by an adult.

(10) The SI has a finding of "guilty except for insanity," "guilty except by reason of insanity," "not guilty by reason of insanity," "responsible except for insanity," "not responsible by reason of mental disease or defect," or similarly worded disposition in any jurisdiction regarding a potentially disqualifying crime, unless the local statutes indicate that such an outcome is considered an acquittal.

(10) Child protective services reports that show behavior or conduct by the SI that would pose a risk to or jeopardize the safety of vulnerable individuals. This potentially disqualifying condition only applies when:

(a) The Department administrative rules specifically require a protective services background check as part of the application process including but not limited to child foster homes, adoptive families, licensed private child caring agencies, or child care providers; and

(b) The BCU has the authority to conduct an abuse check.

Weighing Test

When making a fitness determination, the AD shall consider any of the following factors if an SI has potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions as disclosed by the SI or which is otherwise known:

(1) Circumstances regarding the nature of potentially disqualifying crimes and conditions including but not limited to:

(a) The details of incidents leading to the charges of potentially disqualifying crimes or resulting in potentially disqualifying conditions.

(b) Age of the SI at time of the potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions.

(c) Facts that support the convictions or potentially disqualifying conditions.

(d) Passage of time since commission of the potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions.

(e) Consideration of state or federal laws, regulations, or rules covering the position, facility, employer, or QE regarding the potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) Other factors when available including but not limited to:

(a) Other information related to criminal activity including charges, arrests, pending indictments, and convictions. Other behavior involving contact with law enforcement may also be reviewed if information is relevant to other criminal records or shows a pattern relevant to criminal history.

(b) Periods of incarceration.

(c) Status of and compliance with parole, post-prison supervision, or probation.

(d) Evidence of alcohol or drug issues directly related to criminal activity or potentially disqualifying conditions.

(e) Evidence of other treatment or rehabilitation related to criminal activity or potentially disqualifying conditions.

(f) Likelihood of repetition of criminal behavior or behaviors leading to potentially disqualifying conditions, including but not limited to patterns of criminal activity or behavior.

(g) Changes in circumstances subsequent to the criminal activity or disqualifying conditions including but not limited to:

(A) History of high school, college, or other education related accomplishments.

(B) Work history (employee or volunteer).

(C) History regarding licensure, certification, or training for licensure or certification.

(D) Written recommendations from current or past employers, including Department client employers.

(m) Indication of the SI's cooperation, honesty, or the making of a false statement during the criminal records check process, including acknowledgment and acceptance of responsibility of criminal activity and potentially disqualifying conditions.

(3) The AD shall consider the relevancy of the SI's criminal activity or potentially disqualifying conditions to the paid or volunteer position, or to the environment in which the SI will reside, work, or visit.

Hired on a Preliminary Basis

A preliminary fitness determination is required to determine if an SI may work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in the position listed on the Background Check Request form prior to a final fitness determination. The SI may not be hired on a preliminary basis prior to the completion of a preliminary fitness determination.

(1) The SI must complete required information on a Background Check Request form and the AD or CP must review the form.

(2) The AD or CP shall review the Background Check Request form, complete a preliminary fitness determination and shall then make one of the following determinations

(a) An SI may be hired on a preliminary basis, only during the period of time prior to a final fitness determination, into the position listed on the Background Check Request form and be allowed to participate in training, orientation, and position activities under the one of the following circumstances:

(A) If there is no indication of a potentially disqualifying crime or condition on the Background Check Request form and the AD or CP have no reason to believe the SI has potentially disqualifying history., This is the only situation in which a CP may hire an SI on a preliminary basis.

(B) If the SI discloses convictions or arrests for a potentially disqualifying crime or any other potentially disqualifying condition, the SI may be hired on a preliminary basis only after the completion of a weighing test by an AD. The SI may be hired on a preliminary basis only if, based on information available at the time, the AD determines that more likely than not that the SI poses no potential threat to vulnerable individuals.

(b) The QE may not hire a SI on a preliminary basis under any of the following circumstances:

(A) Being hired on a preliminary basis or probationary status is not allowed by program rules.

(B) The SI has disclosed potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions and the QE does not have an AD to make a preliminary fitness determination.

(C) The AD or Department determine that:

(i) More likely than not, the SI poses a potential threat to vulnerable individuals, based on a preliminary fitness determination and weighing test;

(ii) The SI's most recent criminal records check under these rules or other Department criminal records check rules resulted in a denial; or

(iii) The SI is currently involved in contesting a criminal records check under these or other Department criminal records check rules.

(D) An outcome of no hiring on a preliminary basis may only be overturned by the Department.

(3) The QE shall forward the Background Check Request form to the Department immediately upon completion of the preliminary fitness determination or, if the QE cannot make a preliminary fitness determination, immediately after the SI's completion of the form and verification of the SIs identity.

(4) The Department shall review the preliminary fitness determination made by the QE.

(a) The Department may change the outcome of the preliminary fitness determination based on available information.

(b) A QE without access to an AD may request the Department make a preliminary fitness determination if the SI discloses potentially disqualifying crimes or conditions.

(5) An SI hired on a preliminary basis shall be actively supervised at all times by an individual who has been approved without restrictions pursuant to these rules or previous Department criminal records check rules.

(a) The individual providing active supervision at all times shall do the following:

(A) Be in the same building as the SI or, if outdoors of QE buildings or any location off the QE property, be within line-of-sight and hearing, except as provided in section (6)(b)(B) of this rule;

(B) Know where the SI is and what the SI is doing; and

(C) Periodically observe the actions of the SI.

(b) A Department client, an adult client's adult relation, or a child's parent or guardian may provide active supervision without a criminal records check.

(A) The client may actively supervise a homecare worker, personal care services provider, or independent provider if the client makes an informed decision to employ the provider. Someone related to the client may also provide active supervision if the relative has been approved by the AD.

(B) A child's parent or guardian shall be responsible for providing active supervision in the case of child care providers. The supervision is not required to be performed by someone in the same building as the child.

(6) An SI approved without restrictions within the previous 24 months through a documented criminal records check pursuant to these rules or prior Department criminal records check rules may be hired on a preliminary basis without active supervision. Twenty-four months is calculated from date of previous approval to the date of hire in the new position. This exemption from active supervision is not allowed in any of the following situations:

(a) If the SI cannot provide documented proof that he or she worked continuously under the previous approval for at least one year.

(b) If there is evidence of criminal activity within the previous 24 months.

(c) If, as determined by the AD or the Department, the job duties in the new position are so substantially different from the previous position that the previous fitness determination is inadequate for the current position.

(7) Revocation of hired on a preliminary basis is not subject to hearing or appeal. The QE or the Department may immediately revoke hired on a preliminary basis for any of the following reasons:

(a) There is any indication of falsification of application.

(b) The QE or Department determines that allowing the SI to be hired on a preliminary basis is not appropriate, based on the application, criminal record, position duties, or Department program rules.

(8) Nothing in this rule is intended to require that an SI who is eligible to be hired on a preliminary basis be allowed to work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in the position listed on the Background Check Request form prior to a final fitness determination.

(9) Preliminary fitness determinations must be documented in writing, including any details regarding a weighing test, if required.

Final Fitness Determinations

The AD shall make a final fitness determination after all necessary criminal records checks have been received and a weighing test, if necessary, has been completed. The AD may obtain and consider additional information as necessary to complete the final fitness determination.

(1) The final fitness determination results in one of the following outcomes:

(a) The AD may approve an SI if:

(A) The SI has no potentially disqualifying crimes or potentially disqualifying conditions; or

(B) The SI has potentially disqualifying crimes or potentially disqualifying conditions and, after a weighing test, the AD determines that more likely than not that the SI poses no risk to the physical, emotional, or financial well-being of vulnerable individuals.

(b) The AD may approve an SI with restrictions if the AD determines that more likely than not that the SI poses no risk to the physical, emotional, or financial well-being of vulnerable individuals, if certain restrictions are placed on the SI. Restrictions may include but are not limited to restrictions to one or more specific clients, job duties, or environments. A new criminal records check and fitness determination shall be completed on the SI before removing a restriction.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) The AD shall deny an SI whom the AD determines, after a weighing test, more likely than not poses a risk to the physical, emotional, or financial well-being of vulnerable individuals.

(2) The Department shall make a final fitness determination in the following situations:

(a) A national or state-specific criminal records check has been completed on the SI;

(b) If program rules governing the QE or the position require that the Department makes the final fitness determination;

(c) The SI has the following history regarding criminal records checks:

(A) The SI's most recent criminal records check under these rules or other Department criminal records check rules resulted in a denial; or

(B) The SI's most recent criminal records check under these or other Department criminal records check rules required a weighing test which was completed by the Department.

(d) If, after conducting a criminal records check, the Department determines that, based on the presence of a potentially disqualifying crime or condition, there is a potential for imminent danger to vulnerable individuals;

(e) If the QE requests the Department to make the final fitness determination because the QE is temporarily unable to provide an AD to conduct a fitness determination;

(f) Upon request of an AD, the Department may provide technical assistance or make the final fitness determination;

(g) If the Department has reason to believe a final fitness determination has not been conducted in compliance with these rules, the Department may repeat the criminal records check and make a final fitness determination; or

(h) If the QE or AD is under investigation regarding compliance with these rules and the status of all ADs have been suspended during the investigation.

(3) The Department may review final fitness determinations made by local ADs and make a new final fitness determination at its discretion.

(4) Upon completion of a final fitness determination, the Department or AD making the decision shall provide written notice to the SI. The notice shall:

(a) Be in a Department approved format;

(b) If denied or approved with restrictions, include information regarding appeal rights and the notice becoming a final order in the event of a withdrawal or failure to appear at the hearing; and

(c) Be mailed or hand-delivered to the SI within 14 calendar days after the decision. The effective date of action shall be recorded on the form.

(5) When an SI is denied, the SI shall not be allowed to work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in the position listed on the Background Check Request form. A denial applies only to the position and application in question. A denial shall result in immediate termination, dismissal, or removal of the SI.

(6) Final fitness determinations must be documented in writing, including any details needed including but not limited to the weighing test, restrictions in a restricted approval, or the potentially disqualifying crimes or convictions in a denial.

(7) The Department or AD shall make new fitness determinations for each application. The outcome of previous fitness determinations does not set a precedent for subsequent fitness determinations.

Closed Case

If the SI discontinues the application or fails to cooperate with the criminal records check or fitness determination process, the application is considered incomplete and may be closed.

(1) Discontinuance or failure to cooperate includes but is not limited to the following circumstances:

(a) The SI fails to disclose all criminal history on the Background Check Request form.

(b) The SI refuses to be fingerprinted when required by these rules.

(c) The SI fails to respond within a stated time period to a request for corrections to the application, fingerprints, or any other information necessary to conduct a criminal records check and there is not enough information available to make a fitness determination.

(d) The SI withdraws the application, leaves the position prior to completion of the criminal records check, or the Department cannot locate or contact the subject individual.

(e) The SI is determined to be ineligible for the position for reasons other than the criminal records check.

(2) When the application is closed without a final fitness determination, the SI does not have a right to contest the closure.

(3) When a case is closed, the SI shall not be allowed to work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in the position listed on the Background Check Request form. A closed case applies only to the position in question. A closed case shall result in immediate termination, dismissal, or removal of the SI.

(4) The AD or CP shall document in writing the reasons for a closed case, and shall provide that information to the SI.

Contesting a Fitness Determination

(1) A final fitness determination of denied or restricted approval is considered an adverse outcome. An SI with an adverse outcome may contest that fitness determination.

(2) If an SI is denied, the SI may not hold the position, provide services or be employed, licensed, certified, or registered, or otherwise perform in positions covered by these rules. An SI appealing a restricted approval may only work under the terms of the restriction during the appeal.

(3) If an adverse outcome is changed at any time during the appeal process, the change does not guarantee employment or placement.

(4) An SI may challenge the accuracy or completeness of information provided by the OSP, the FBI, or other agencies reporting information to the Department, by appealing to the entity providing the information. These challenges are not subject to the Department's appeal process.

(5) An SI has the right to represent him or herself or have legal representation during the appeal process. The SI may not be represented by a lay person. In this rule, the term "SI" shall be considered to include the SI's legal representative.

(6) An SI may contest an adverse fitness determination by requesting a contested case hearing. The contested case hearing process is conducted in accordance with ORS 183.411 to 183.497 and the Attorney General's Uniform and Model Rules of Procedure for the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH), OAR 137-003-0501 to 137-003-0700.

(a) To request a contested case hearing, the SI shall complete and sign the Hearing Request form.

(b) The completed and signed form must be received by the Department within 45 calendar days after the effective date of action listed on the notice of the fitness determination.

(c) In the event an appeal is not timely, the Department shall determine, based on a written statement from the SI and available information, if there is good cause to proceed with the appeal.

(d) The Department may refer an untimely request to the OAH for a hearing on the issue of timeliness.

(7) The Department may conduct an administrative review before referring the appeal to OAH.

(a) The SI must participate in the administrative review. Participation may include but is not limited to providing additional information or additional documents requested by the BCU within a specified amount of time.

(b) The administrative review is not open to the public.

(8) The Department may conduct additional criminal records checks during the contested case hearing process to update or verify the SI's criminal records. If needed, the Department shall amend the notice of fitness determination while still maintaining the original hearing rights and deadlines.

(9) The Department shall be represented by a hearing representative in contested case hearings. The Department may also be represented by Department of Justice's Office of the Attorney General.

(a) The Department shall provide the administrative law judge and the SI a complete copy of available information used during the criminal records checks and fitness determinations. The notice of contested case and prehearing summary and other documents may be mailed by regular first class mail.

(b) SIs may not have access to confidential information contained in abuse investigation reports or other records collected or developed during the abuse check process without a protective order limiting further disclosure of the information.

(A) A protective order issued pursuant to this section must be issued by an administrative law judge as provided for in OAR 137-003-0570(8) or by a court of law.

(B) In conjunction with a protective order issued pursuant to this section, individually identifying information relating to clients, witnesses, and other persons identified in abuse investigation reports or other records collected or developed during the abuse check process shall be redacted prior to disclosure, except for the information identifying the SI.

(c) The contested case hearing is not open to the public.

(d) The administrative law judge shall make a new fitness determination based on evidence and the contested case hearing record.

(e) The only remedy an administrative law judge may grant is a fitness determination that the subject individual is approved, approved with restrictions, or denied. Under no circumstances shall the Department or the QE be required to place an SI in any position, nor shall the Department or the QE be required to accept services or enter into a contractual agreement with an SI.

(f) A hearing pursuant to these rules may be conducted in conjunction with a licensure or certification hearing for the SI.

(10) The notice of fitness determination issued is final as if the SI never requested a hearing in the following situations:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) The SI failed to request a hearing in the time allotted in this rule. No other document will be issued after the notice of fitness determination.

(b) The SI withdraws the request for hearing at any time during the appeal process.

(11) The Department may make an informal disposition based on the administrative review. The Department shall issue a final order and new notice of fitness determination. If the resulting fitness determination is an adverse outcome, the appeal shall proceed to contested case hearing.

(12) The Department shall issue a dismissal order in the following situations:

(a) The SI may withdraw a hearing request verbally or in writing at any time before the issuance of a final order. A dismissal order due to the withdrawal is effective the date the withdrawal is received by the Department or the OAH. The SI may cancel the withdrawal in writing within 14 calendar days after the date of withdrawal.

(b) The Department shall dismiss a hearing request when the SI fails to participate in the administrative review. Failure to participate in the administrative review shall result in termination of hearing rights. The order is effective on the due date for participation in the administrative review. The Department shall review a good cause request to reinstate hearing rights if received in writing by the Department within 14 calendar days.

(c) The Department shall dismiss a hearing request when the SI fails to appear at the time and place specified for the contested case hearing. The order is effective on the date scheduled for the hearing. The Department shall review a good cause request to reinstate hearing rights if received in writing by the Department within 14 calendar days of the order.

(13) After a hearing, the administrative law judge shall issue a proposed and final order.

(a) If no written exceptions are received by the Department within 14 calendar days after the service of the proposed and final order, the proposed and final order becomes the final order.

(b) If timely written exceptions to the proposed and final order are received by the Department, the Department's Director or designee shall consider the exceptions and serve a final order, or request a written response or a revised proposed and final order from the administrative law judge.

(14) Final orders, including dismissal and default orders, are subject to reconsideration or rehearing petitions within 60 calendar days after the order is served, pursuant to OAR 137-003-0675.

(15) The Department may provide the QE's AD with the results of the appeal.

Record Keeping, Confidentiality

(1) All LEDS reports are confidential and the AD shall maintain the reports in accordance with applicable OSP requirements in ORS Chapter 181 and the rules adopted pursuant thereto (see OAR chapter 257, division 15).

(a) LEDS reports are confidential and may only be shared with another AD if there is a need to know consistent with these rules.

(b) The LEDS report and any photocopies may not be shown or given to the SI.

(2) The results of a national criminal records check provided by the FBI or the OSP are confidential and may not be disseminated by the Department unless:

(a) If a fingerprint-based criminal records check was conducted on the SI, the SI shall be provided a copy of the results if requested.

(b) The state and national criminal offender information shall be provided as exhibits during the contested case hearing.

(3) All completed Background Check Request forms, other criminal records information, and other records collected or developed during the criminal records check process shall be kept confidential and disseminated only on a need-to-know basis.

(4) The Department shall retain and destroy all criminal records check documents pursuant to federal law and records retention schedules published by Oregon State Archives.

(5) Documents may be requested and reviewed by the Department and the OSP for the purposes of determining and ensuring compliance with these rules.

(6) Neither local ADs nor the Department may re-create past notices of fitness determinations. If an error is discovered on a notice of fitness determination, the local AD or the Department may correct it by issuing an amended notice of fitness determination.

Immunity from Liability

(1) The Department, QE, AD, or CP, acting within the course and scope of employment, have immunity from any civil liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed for determining, in accordance with ORS 181.537, that an SI is fit or not fit to hold a position, provide services, or be employed, licensed, certified, or registered.

(2) The Department, QE, AD, or CP, acting within the course and scope of employment, and an employer or employer's agent are not liable for the failure to hire a prospective employee or the decision to discharge an employee on the basis of the QE's decision if they in good faith comply with:

(a) ORS 181.537; and

(b) The decision of the QE or employee of the QE acting within the course and scope of employment.

(3) No employee of the state, a business, or an organization, acting within the course or scope of employment, is liable for defamation, invasion of privacy, negligence, or any other civil claim in connection with the lawful dissemination of information lawfully obtained under ORS 181.537.

Variations

(1) The Department may consider variance requests regarding these rules.

(a) The outcomes of a fitness determination made pursuant to these rules is not subject to variance. Challenges to fitness determinations may only be made by SIs through contested case hearing rights set forth in these rules.

(b) The Department may not grant variances to ORS 181.534 and 181.537.

(2) The Department may grant a variance to any section of these rules based upon a demonstration by the QE that the variance would not pose a significant risk to physical, emotional, or financial well-being of vulnerable individuals.

(3) The QE requesting a variance must submit, in writing, an application to the BCU that contains:

(a) The section of the rule from which the variance is sought;

(b) The reason for the proposed variance;

(c) The alternative practice, service, method, concept, or procedure proposed;

(d) A plan and timetable for compliance with the section of the rule from which the variance is sought; and

(e) An explanation on how the welfare, health, or safety of individuals receiving care will be ensured during the time the variance is in effect.

(4) The Assistant Director or designee for the Department's Administrative Services Division shall approve or deny the request for a variance.

(5) The Department shall notify the QE of the decision within 60 calendar days of the receipt of the request and shall provide a copy to other relevant Department program offices.

(6) Appeal of the denial of a variance request must be made in writing to the Department's Director, whose decision is final.

(7) The Department shall determine the duration of the variance.

(8) The QE may implement a variance only after receipt of written approval from the Department.

(9) Granting a variance does not set a precedent that must be followed by the Department when evaluating subsequent variance requests.

Oregon Health Authority Transition Period Roles and Responsibilities

(1) Effective June 26, 2009, 2009 Or. Laws Chapter 595 (House Bill 2009) created the Oregon Health Authority and transferred certain duties, functions, and powers of the Department of Human Services (Department) with respect to health and health care to the Oregon Health Authority. House Bill 2009 also authorized an operational transition period beginning June 26, 2009 and ending no later than June 30, 2011. The transferred subject areas are generally described in Section 19(1)(a), 2009 Or. Laws Chapter 595 as including but not limited to:

- (a) Developing the policies for and the provision of publicly funded medical care and medical assistance in Oregon;
- (b) Ensuring the promotion and protection of public health and the licensing of health care facilities;
- (c) Developing the policies for and the provision of mental health treatment and treatment for substance use disorders;
- (d) Administering the Oregon Prescription Drug Program; and
- (e) Establishing responsibility for the Office for Oregon Health Policy and Research and all functions of the office.

(2) The transferred functions described in section (1)(a)–(e) above are generally carried out as currently described in Department rules by the Public Health Division, the Addictions and Mental Health Division, and the Division of Medical Assistance Programs.

(3) Operational transfer of any Department program, business transaction, judicial or administrative proceeding, or any other duty, function, or power transferred to the Oregon Health Authority may occur, in whole or in part, on the date specified by the Oregon Health Authority, but no later than June 30, 2011.

(4) In accordance with OAR 943-001-0010 to 943-001-0015, the Department shall continue to exercise all of the duties, functions, and powers relating to the transfer to the Oregon Health Authority, subject to the supervision and oversight of the Oregon Health Authority, until superseded by operational transfer, either in whole or in part, to the Oregon Health Authority as follows:

- (a) All rules shall remain in effect and ongoing rule filing processes may continue.
- (b) All program administration, policies, and procedures shall remain in effect and may continue to be developed and implemented.
- (c) Any judicial or administrative action, proceeding, contested case hearing, administrative review matter, or new action, proceeding, or matter involving or relating to the Department's duties, functions, or powers transferred to the Oregon Health Authority shall continue under the Department.
- (d) All procurements, contracts, grants, or other business transactions shall remain the Department's responsibility.
- (e) Rights and obligations legally incurred under contracts, leases, and business transactions shall remain legally valid.
- (f) Any taxes, assessments, fees, charges, or any payments due and payable to or reimbursable by the Department relating to the duties, functions, or powers transferred to the Oregon Health Authority shall continue to be paid to or reimbursed by the Department on behalf of the Oregon Health Authority.
- (g) Any former statutorily required findings, determinations, or recommendations to be made by the Department shall remain the Department's responsibility.
- (h) All filings, notices, or service documents that were formerly mailed, provided to, or served upon the Department relating to the duties, functions, or powers transferred to the Oregon Health Authority shall continue to be made, provided to, or served upon the Department on behalf of the Oregon Health Authority.

(A) Mailing or service of notices or documents on the Department shall be considered notice to the Oregon Health Authority. For example, any notice sent to the Department of Human Services Estate Administration Unit for purposes of ORS 113.145, 114.525, and 130.370 shall be considered notice to the Oregon Health Authority.

(B) If mailed, provided to, or served on the Oregon Health Authority, the filing, notice, or document shall be transmitted to the Department to respond or take such other actions as necessary to protect the state's interests.

(5) Any and all remaining duties, functions, or powers relating to the duties, functions, and powers transferred to the Oregon Health Authority that are not described in section (4) shall continue in effect or be exercised by the Department until superseded by operational transfer, either in whole or in part, to the Oregon Health Authority.

Definitions

As used in OAR 407-045-0250 to 407-045-0360, the following definitions apply:

- (1) "Abuse of an adult with developmental disabilities" means:
  - (a) "Abandonment" means desertion by a caregiver or other individual.
  - (b) Death of an adult caused by other than accidental or natural means or occurring in unusual circumstances.
  - (c) "Financial exploitation" means:
    - (A) Wrongfully taking the assets, funds, or property belonging to or intended for the use of a person with a developmental disability.
    - (B) Alarming a person with a developmental disability by conveying a threat to wrongfully take or appropriate money or property of the person if the person would reasonably believe that the threat conveyed would be carried out.
    - (C) Misappropriating, misusing, or transferring without authorization any money from any account held jointly or singly by a person with a developmental disability.
    - (D) Failing to use the income or assets of a person with a developmental disability effectively for the support and maintenance of the person. "Effectively" means use of income or assets for the benefit of the person.
  - (d) "Neglect" means:
    - (A) Withholding services necessary to maintain the health and well-being of an adult which leads to physical harm or significant mental injury to an adult. "Services" include but are not limited to the provision of food, clothing, medicine, housing, medical services, assistance with bathing or personal hygiene, or any other services essential to the well-being of an adult.
    - (B) Failure to provide the care, supervision, or services necessary to maintain the physical and mental health of a person with a developmental disability that results in actual harm or creates a significant risk of physical harm or significant emotional harm to the person with a developmental disability. Such failure may occur whether due to passive or active neglect, or through negligent omission or negligent treatment.
    - (C) Failure of a caregiver to make a reasonable effort to protect a person with a developmental disability from abuse.
- (e) "Physical abuse" means:
  - (A) Any physical injury by other than accidental means or that appears to be at variance with the explanation given for the injury.
  - (B) Willful infliction of physical pain or injury.
  - (f) "Restraint" means:
    - (A) A wrongful use of a physical or chemical restraint upon a person with a developmental disability, excluding an act of restraint prescribed by a licensed physician and any treatment team activities that are consistent with an approved treatment plan or in connection with a court order.
    - (B) Involuntary seclusion of a person with a developmental disability for the convenience of a caregiver or to discipline the person. Involuntary seclusion includes placing restrictions on an individual's freedom of movement by restriction to an area of the facility, residence, or program, or restriction from access to ordinarily accessible areas of the facility, residence, or program, unless agreed to by the Individual Support Plan (ISP) team and included in an approved Behavior Support Plan (BSP). Involuntary seclusion may also include confinement in a home setting.
  - (g) "Sexual abuse" means:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(A) Sexual contact with a nonconsenting adult or with an adult considered incapable of consenting to a sexual act under ORS 163.315.

(B) Sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, or inappropriate exposure to sexually explicit material or language. Sexual harassment or exploitation includes but is not limited to any sexual contact between an employee of a community facility or community program, provider, or other caregiver and an adult. For situations other than those involving an employee, provider, or other caregiver and an adult, sexual harassment or exploitation means unwelcome physical sexual contact including requests for sexual favors and other physical conduct directed toward an adult.

(C) Any sexual contact between an employee of a facility or paid caregiver and an adult served by the facility or caregiver. Sexual abuse does not mean consensual sexual contact between an adult and a paid caregiver who is the spouse or partner of the adult.

(D) Any sexual contact that is achieved through force, trickery, threat, or coercion.

(E) Any sexual contact between a person with a developmental disability and a relative of the person with a developmental disability other than a spouse or partner. "Relative" means a parent, grandparent, children, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, half brother, half sister, stepparent, or stepchild.

(F) As defined in ORS 163.305, "sexual contact" means any touching of the sexual or other intimate parts of a person or causing such person to touch the sexual or other intimate parts of the actor for the purpose of arousing or gratifying the sexual desire of either party.

(h) "Verbal abuse" means to threaten significant physical or emotional harm to a person with a developmental disability through the use of:

(A) Derogatory or inappropriate names, insults, verbal assaults, profanity, or ridicule;

(B) Harassment, coercion, threats, intimidation, humiliation, mental cruelty, or inappropriate sexual comments; or

(C) A threat to withhold services or supports, including an implied or direct threat of termination of services. "Services" include but are not limited to the provision of food, clothing, medicine, housing, medical services, assistance with bathing or personal hygiene, or any other services essential to the well-being of an adult.

(D) For purposes of this section, verbal conduct includes but is not limited to the use of oral, written, or gestured communication that is directed to a person with a developmental disability or within their hearing distance, regardless of their ability to comprehend.

(E) The emotional harm that can result from verbal abuse may include but is not limited to anguish, distress, or fear.

(F) In a facility setting, verbal abuse includes but is not limited to direct or implied threats of harm, punishment, or deprivation directed toward the person.

(2) "Abuse of an adult with mental illness" means:

(a) Death of an adult caused by other than accidental or natural means or occurring in unusual circumstances.

(b) "Neglect" means withholding services necessary to maintain the health and well-being of an adult which leads to physical harm or significant mental injury to an adult. "Services" include but are not limited to the provision of food, clothing, medicine, housing, medical services, assistance with bathing or personal hygiene, or any other services essential to the well-being of an adult.

(c) "Physical abuse" means:

(A) Any physical injury by other than accidental means or that appears to be at variance with the explanation given for the injury.

(B) Willful infliction of physical pain or injury.

(d) "Sexual abuse" means:

(A) Sexual contact with a nonconsenting adult or with an adult considered incapable of consenting to a sexual act under ORS 163.315.

(B) Sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, or inappropriate exposure to sexually explicit material or language. Sexual harassment or exploitation includes but is not limited to any sexual contact between an employee of a community facility or community program, provider, or other caregiver and an adult. For situations other than those involving an employee, provider, or other caregiver and an adult, sexual harassment or exploitation means unwelcome physical sexual contact including requests for sexual favors and other physical conduct directed toward an adult.

(C) Any sexual contact between an employee of a facility or paid caregiver and an adult served by the facility or caregiver. Sexual abuse does not mean consensual sexual contact between an adult and a paid caregiver who is the spouse or partner of the adult.

(D) Any sexual contact that is achieved through force, trickery, threat, or coercion.

(E) As defined in ORS 163.305, "sexual contact" means any touching of sexual or other intimate parts of a person or causing such person to touch sexual or other intimate parts of the actor for the purpose of arousing or gratifying the sexual desire of either party.

(e) Abuse does not include spiritual treatments by a duly accredited practitioner of a recognized church or religious denomination when an adult voluntarily consents.

(3) "Abuse Investigation and Protective Services Report" means a completed report.

(4) "Adult" means an individual who is 18 years of age or older who:

(a) Has a developmental disability and is currently receiving services from a community program or facility or was previously determined eligible for services as an adult by a community program or facility; or

(b) Has a mental illness and is receiving services from a community program or facility.

(c) Receives services from a community program or facility or care provider which is licensed or certified by or contracts with the Department of Human Services; and

(d) Is the alleged abuse victim.

(5) "Adult protective services" means the necessary actions taken to prevent abuse or exploitation of an adult, to prevent self-destructive acts, and to safeguard an allegedly abused adult's person, property, and funds.

(6) "Brokerage" or "Support service brokerage" means an entity, or distinct operating unit within an existing entity, that performs the functions listed in OAR 411-340-0120(1)(a) to (g) associated with planning for and implementation of support services for an adult with developmental disabilities.

(7) "Caregiver" means an individual or facility that has assumed responsibility for all or a portion of the care of an adult as a result of a contract or agreement.

(8) "Community facility" means a community residential treatment home or facility, community residential facility, adult foster home, community residential training home or facility, or a facility approved by the Department's Addictions and Mental Health Division (AMH) for acute care services or crisis respite.

(9) "Community program" means the community mental health or developmental disabilities program as established in ORS 430.610 to 430.700.

(10) "Designee" means the community program.

(11) "Department" means the Department of Human Services.

(12) "Inconclusive" means there is insufficient evidence to conclude the alleged abuse occurred or did not occur by a preponderance of the evidence. The inconclusive determination may be used only in the following circumstances:

(a) After diligent efforts have been made, the protective services investigator is unable to locate the individual alleged to have committed the abuse, or cannot locate the alleged victim or another individual who might have information critical to the investigation; or

(b) Relevant records or documents are unavailable, or there is conflicting or inconsistent information from witnesses, documents, or records, with the result that after the investigation is complete, there is insufficient evidence to support a substantiated or not substantiated conclusion.

(13) "Law enforcement agency" means any city or municipal police department, county sheriff's office, the Oregon State Police, or any district attorney.

(14) "Mandatory reporter" means any public or private official who, while acting in an official capacity, comes in contact with and has reasonable cause to believe that an adult has suffered abuse, or that any individual with whom the official comes in contact while acting in an official capacity has abused an adult. Pursuant to ORS 430.765(2), psychiatrists, psychologists, clergy, and attorneys are not mandatory reporters with regard to information received through communications that are privileged under ORS 40.225 to 20.295

(15) "Not substantiated" means the preponderance of evidence establishes the alleged abuse did not occur.

(16) "OIT" means the Department's Office of Investigations and Training.

(17) "Provider agency" means an entity licensed or certified to provide services, or which is responsible for the management of services to clients.

(18) "Public or private official" means:

(a) Physician, naturopathic physician, osteopathic physician, psychologist, chiropractor, or podiatrist, including any intern or resident;

(b) Licensed practical nurse, registered nurse, nurse's aide, home health aide, or employee of an in-home health services organization;

(c) Employee of the Department, county health department, community mental health or developmental disabilities program or private agency contracting with a public body to provide any community mental health services;

(d) Peace officer;

(e) Member of the clergy;

(f) Licensed clinical social worker;

(g) Physical, speech, or occupational therapist;

(h) Information and referral, outreach, or crisis worker;

(i) Attorney;

(j) Firefighter or emergency medical technician; or

(k) Any public official who comes in contact with adults in the performance of the official's duties.

(19) "Substantiated" means that the preponderance of evidence establishes the abuse occurred.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(20) "Unbiased investigation" means an investigation that is conducted by a community program that does not have an actual or potential conflict of interest with the outcome of the investigation.

General Duties of the Community Program and Initial Action on Report of Alleged Abuse

(1) For the purpose of carrying out these rules, community programs are the designee of the Department.

(2) Mandatory reporters must report abuse, when the reporter has reasonable cause to believe abuse has occurred, to the community program and to a local law enforcement agency when the reporter believes a crime may have been committed.

(3) Each community program shall designate at least one employee to conduct protective services investigations. Community programs shall require their designated protective services investigators to participate in training, and to demonstrate an understanding of investigative core competencies.

(4) If the Department or community program has reasonable cause to believe abuse occurred, it must immediately notify the appropriate public licensing or certifying agency and provide a copy of the abuse investigation and completed protective services report.

(5) If the Department or community program has reasonable cause to believe that an individual licensed or certified by any state agency to provide care has committed abuse, it must immediately notify the appropriate state licensing or certifying agency and provide that agency with a copy of the abuse investigation and completed protective services report.

(6) The Department or community program may share information prior to the completion of the abuse investigation and protective services report if the information is necessary for:

(a) The provision of protective services; or

(b) The function of licensing and certifying agencies or law enforcement agencies.

(7) Each community program must establish an after hours reporting system.

(8) Upon receipt of any report of alleged abuse or upon receipt of a report of a death that may have been caused by other than accidental or natural means, the community program must begin:

(a) Investigation into the nature and cause of the alleged abuse within one working day of receipt of the report to determine if abuse occurred or whether a death was caused by abuse;

(b) Assessment of the need for protective services; and

(c) Provision of protective services, if protective services are needed.

(9) The community program receiving a report alleging abuse must document the information required by ORS 430.743(1) and any additional reported information. The community program must attempt to elicit the following information from the individual making a report:

(a) The name, age, and present location of the adult;

(b) The names and addresses of individuals, programs, or facilities responsible for the adult's care;

(c) The nature and extent of the alleged abuse, including any evidence of previous abuse of the adult or by the individual alleged to have committed the abuse;

(d) Any information that led the individual making the report to suspect abuse had occurred;

(e) Any information that the individual believes might be helpful in establishing the cause of the abuse and the identity of the individual alleged to have committed the abuse;

(f) The date of the incident;

(10) The community program shall maintain all reports of abuse in a confidential location.

(11) If there is reason to believe a crime has been committed, the community program must contact the law enforcement agency with jurisdiction in the county where the report is made.

(12) If there is reasonable cause to believe that abuse has occurred, the community program must determine if the adult is in danger or in need of immediate protective services and shall provide those services immediately. Under these circumstances the community program must also advise the provider agency, brokerage, or guardian about the allegation, and must include any information appropriate or necessary for the health, safety, and best interests of the adult in need of protection.

(13) The community program shall immediately, but no later than one working day, notify the Department it has received a report of abuse, in the format provided by the Department.

(14) If the community program determines from the report that there is no reasonable cause to believe abuse occurred, the community program shall notify the provider agency or brokerage within two working days that a protective services investigation shall not commence and explain the reasons for that decision. The community program shall document the notice and maintain a record of all notices.

(15) If the community program determines that a report will be assigned for investigation, the community program must notify the provider agency, brokerage, guardian, and any other individual with responsibility for providing services and protection, unless doing so would compromise the safety, health, or best interests of the adult in need of protection, or would compromise the integrity of the abuse investigation or a criminal investigation. The notice shall include information that the case will be assigned for investigation, identify the investigator, and provide information regarding how the assigned investigator may be contacted. The notice must be provided within five working days from the date the report was received.

(16) The community program or law enforcement agency shall notify the appropriate medical examiner in cases where the community program or law enforcement agency finds reasonable cause to believe that an adult has died as a result of abuse or where the death occurred under suspicious or unknown circumstances.

407-007-0440

Current Employees of the Department

(1) This rule applies to any subject individual who is a current Department employee.

(2) If a subject individual is identified as an alleged perpetrator, reported perpetrator, or accused person in an abuse investigation, all relevant abuse investigation and licensing rules shall apply.

(3) The Department shall apply Department employee administrative review policies if the person identified as responsible in a founded or substantiated abuse finding is a Department employee.

(4) If a current subject individual is identified as an alleged perpetrator, reported perpetrator, or accused person in an abuse investigation, the Office of Human Resources may initiate an investigation during or following the investigation of the alleged abuse to determine whether to take any action, up to and including dismissal or removal from employment.

(a) If the abuse investigation results in potentially disqualifying abuse, the Office of Human Resources shall initiate an investigation which may include conducting a weighing test as described in OAR 407-007-0430(5). The purpose of the investigation is to determine whether any action, up to and including dismissal or removal from employment, is justified.

(b) If the Office of Human Resources learns of potentially disqualifying abuse from previous investigations that may be inconsistent with a subject individual's current position, the Office of Human Resources may initiate an investigation which may include conducting a weighing test as described in OAR 407-007-0430(5). The purpose of the investigation is to determine whether any action, up to and including dismissal or removal from employment, is justified.

(c) For Department employees, if disciplinary action up to and including dismissal, is appropriate, the action shall be taken in accordance with:

(A) Relevant collective bargaining agreements;

(B) Statutory provisions for unrepresented or management services employees; or

(C) Relevant Department or statewide policies or procedures.

(5) A pending related action, such as a civil, criminal, juvenile, or administrative proceeding in which the allegations of abuse are at issue shall not automatically be grounds for the subject individual to seek to detain or stay either the review of the founded or substantiated disposition or any resulting disciplinary action. The Department may detain or stay either the review of the founded or substantiated abuse disposition or any resulting disciplinary action based on the pending related action such as a civil, criminal, juvenile, or administrative proceeding in which the allegations of abuse are at issue.

413-070-0900

Purpose

The purpose of these rules, OAR 413-070-0900 to 413-070-0974, is to state Department criteria for program eligibility and receipt of guardianship assistance for Title IV-E eligible children in Oregon. Guardianship assistance for a child from another state placed with a guardian in Oregon is the responsibility of the sending state.

413-070-0905

Definitions

The following definitions apply to OAR 413-070-0900 to 413-070-0974:

(1) "APPLA" means Another Planned Permanent Living Arrangement, a permanency plan for a stable secure living arrangement for a child that includes building relationships with significant people in the child's life that may continue after substitute care. APPLA is the least preferred permanency plan of the four permanency plan options for a child and is appropriate only in very limited circumstances.

(a) "Planned" means the arrangement is intended, designed, and deliberate.

(b) "Permanent" means enduring and stable.

(2) "CANS screening" means Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths screening, a process of integrating information on a child or young adult's needs and strengths for the purposes of case planning, service planning, and determining the supervision needs of the child or young adult. The Department uses two versions of the CANS Comprehensive Screening Tool, one version for an individual birth through five years old and another version for an individual six through twenty years old.

(3) "Certified family" means an individual or individuals who hold a current Certificate of Approval from the Department to operate a home to provide care, in the home in which he or she resides, to a child or young adult in the care or custody of the Department.

(4) "Child" means a person less than 18 years of age.

(5) "Enhanced supervision" means the additional support, direction, observation, regulation, and guidance provided by a certified family to a child or young adult to promote and ensure the safety and well-being of the child or young adult, beyond the level of supervision that typically is required for a child or young adult of the same age.

(6) "Guardianship assistance" means financial assistance or medical benefits to a child's guardian on behalf of an eligible child under guardianship. Benefits may be in the form of a monthly guardianship assistance payment, Medicaid coverage, and nonrecurring legal costs incurred in establishing the guardianship.

(7) "Guardianship assistance agreement" means a written agreement between the Department and the guardian of an eligible child setting forth the assistance the Department is to provide the child, the responsibilities of the guardian and the Department, and the manner in which the agreement and amount of assistance may be modified or terminated.
