Quality PARTS

Precision Door Service has searched the world over to locate manufacturers of the highest quality garage door parts. When our technician completes the work, you can rest assured the best replacement parts have been selected to offer the utmost effectiveness and longevity for the price.

Quality EXPERIENCE

Our mission at Precision Door Service is to provide outstanding garage door repair service and complete customer satisfaction, plus, a program that rewards excellence from our franchisees, technicians and staff.

Quality Commitment

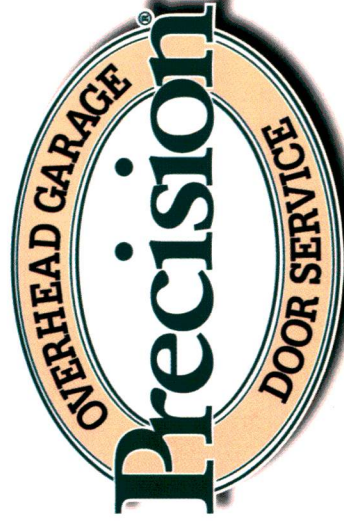

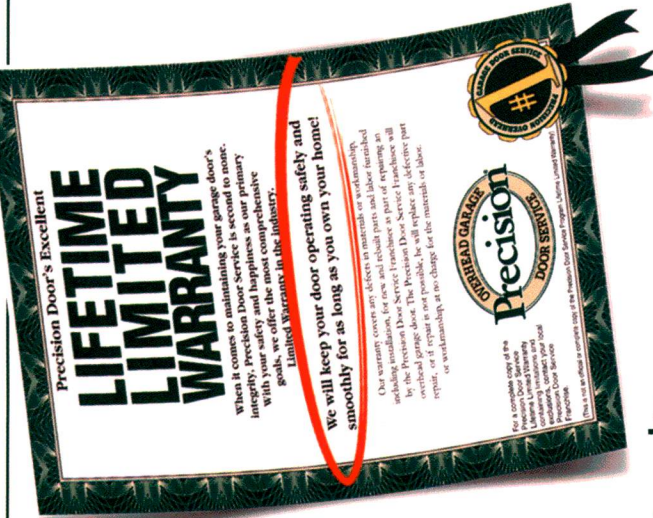

Precision Door Service is the leading garage door repair franchise company in the United States. We offer consistent, qualified service from each of our locations - nationwide.

Since 1997, we have been providing quality garage door repair service to homeowners and businesses across the country. Only upon completion of the industry's most stringent and extensive training course - a two-week-long event at our state-of-the-art training facility, are our technicians certified to handle repairs for your garage door.

Because of this intense training, few garage door owners ever need our top-notch warranty! But, it's there ... all labor and repaired parts on your door system are covered for as long as you own your door.

Quality Training

Precision Door Service offers an innovative garage door repair training and certification program for the Precision Door Service franchise system. PDS technicians are trained by the best in the business at our state-of-the-art certification facility in Akron, Ohio. It is a unique school unlike any other in the United States. Extensive training ensures PDS technicians are able to repair any garage door system. Plus, continued education and training keeps them current on industry trends and technology.
