(h) The applicant or foster provider whose certificate has been denied or revoked may not reapply for certification for five years after the date of denial or revocation.

(i) The Department shall provide the applicant or the foster provider a written notice of denial, suspension, or revocation that states the reason for such action.

(j) Such revocation, suspension, or denial shall be done in accordance with the rules of the Department and ORS Chapter 183 that govern contested cases.

Rules Adopted: 411-370-0010, 411-370-0020, 411-370-0030, 411-370-0040

Subject: In response to the Department of Human Services transformation efforts and the need to generally streamline operations in order to meet and address current and future budget needs, the Department is permanently adopting provider enrollment, service billing, and service payment rules for community services programs in OAR chapter 411, division 370.

The rules change the current contracting practices so that it is no longer necessary for local service providers to have service contracts with community developmental disability programs (CDDPs). Instead, service providers will have a provider enrollment agreement with the Department and will receive direct payments. CDDPs will continue to authorize services delivered by providers and paid directly by the Department.

Definitions

(1) “Administrator” means the administrators of the Department of Human Services or that person’s designee.

(2) “Appropriate Service” means services that are required by a recipient’s approved individual service or support plan that are:

(a) Consistent with the recipient’s identified needs, goals, and desired outcomes;

(b) Appropriate with regard to standards of generally recognized practice, evidence based practice, and professional standards of service as effective;

(c) Not solely for the convenience of a provider of the service;

(d) The most cost effective of the alternative services that may be effectively provided to a recipient; and

(e) Coordinated with the recipient’s local community developmental disability program.

(3) “Authorization” means either service or payment authorization for specified covered services given prior to services being rendered by Department staff, or the Department’s designee including community developmental disability programs.

(4) “Benefit Package” means the array and type of services, as described by program-specific rules, for which the recipient is eligible.

(5) “Billing Provider” means an individual, agent, business, corporation, or other entity who, in connection with submission of claims to the Department, receives or directs payment from the Department on behalf of a performing provider and has been delegated the authority to obligate or act on behalf of the performing provider.

(6) “Claim” means a bill for services, a line item of a service, or all services for one recipient within a specified billing period. Claims include a bill submission, an invoice, or an encounter associated with requesting payment whether submitted on paper or electronically. Claim also includes any other methodology for requesting payment or as verification of an expenditure of an advanced payment that may be established in contract, provider enrollment agreement, or program-specific rules.

(7) “Client Process Monitoring System (CPMS)” means the Department’s information system that tracks and documents service delivery of claims funded by the Department.

(8) “Community Developmental Disability Program (CDDP)” as defined in OAR 411-320-0020.

(9) “Community Services Programs” are services provided for recipients under the following program names, service element numbers, or descriptions:

(a) Nursing facility specialized services (DD45) as described in OAR chapter 411, division 070.

(b) Residential facilities (DD50) as described in OAR chapter 411, division 325.

(c) Supported living services (DD51) as described in OAR chapter 411, division 328.

(d) Transportation services (DD 53) as described in the applicable service element standards and procedures.

(e) Employment and community inclusion services (DD54) as described in OAR chapter 411, division 345.

(f) Rent subsidies (DD 56) as described in the applicable service element standards and procedures.

(g) Developmental disabilities special projects (DD 57) as described in the applicable service element standards and procedures.

(h) Children’s residential facilities (DD142) as described in OAR chapter 411, division 325.

(i) Children’s proctor foster homes (DD143) as described in OAR chapter 411, division 335.

(j) Room and board (DD 156) as described in the applicable service element standards and procedures.

(10) “Covered Services” mean appropriate services that are funded by the legislature and applicable Department rules describing the benefit packages of community services programs provided to eligible recipients under service element standards and procedures, program-specific requirements, provider enrollment agreements, or contracts by providers required to enroll with the Department under these rules.

(11) “Date of Service” means the date the recipient receives community services program services, unless otherwise specified in the appropriate program-specific rules.

(12) “Department” means the Department of Human Services. For the purpose of these rules, Department also includes its role as a delegated designee of the Oregon Health Authority (OHA) in carrying out the OHA responsibilities as the designated single Medicaid state agency.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(13) “Express Payment and Reporting System (eXPRS)” means the Department’s information system for managing the disbursement and tracking of Department funding for certain developmental disability programs.

(14) “False Claim” means a claim or encounter that a provider knowingly submits or causes to be submitted that contains inaccurate or misleading information, and that information would result, or has resulted, in an overpayment or other improper payment.

(15) “Fraud” means an intentional deception or misrepresentation made by a recipient or provider with the knowledge that the deception may result in some unauthorized benefit to himself or herself, or some other recipient or provider. Fraud includes any act that constitutes fraud or false claim under applicable federal or state law.

(16) “Medicaid” means a federal and state funded program established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act, as amended, and administered in Oregon by the Department.

(17) “Medicaid Agency Identification Number” means the numeric identifier assigned by the Department to an enrolled provider once enrollment of that provider is completed as described in these rules.

(18) “Medicaid Performing Provider Number” means the numeric identifier assigned to an entity or person by the Department, following enrollment to deliver Medicaid funded services as described in these rules. The Medicaid Performing Provider Number is used by the rendering provider for identification and billing purposes associated with service authorizations and payments.

(19) “Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU)” means the unit of the Oregon Department of Justice that investigates and prosecutes billing fraud committed by Medicaid providers. MFCU also may investigate and prosecute physical, sexual, or financial abuse and neglect of residents who reside in Medicaid-funded facilities.

(20) “Medicaid Management Information System (MMIS)” means the automated claims processing and information retrieval system for handling all Medicaid transactions. The objectives of MMIS include verifying provider enrollment and client eligibility, managing health care provider claims and benefit package maintenance, and addressing a variety of Medicaid business needs.

(21) “Medicare” means the federal health insurance program for the aged and disabled administered by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

(22) “Provider” or “Performing Provider” means an individual, agency, corporate entity, or other organization that provides community services program services that is enrolled with the Department in accordance with these rules to seek payment from the Department.

(23) “Quality Improvement” means the effort to improve the level of performance of key processes, practices, or outcomes in service provision. A quality improvement program measures the level of current performance of the processes and practices, finds ways to improve the performance or outcomes, and implements new and better methods for the processes or practices. Quality improvement includes the goals of quality assurance, quality control, quality planning, and quality management.

(24) “Recipient” means an individual found eligible by the community developmental disability program and the Department to receive community services program services for individuals with developmental disabilities under OAR chapter 411, division 320.

(25) “Service Element Standards and Procedures” means the standard for a particular service element number that further describes the applicable service and details the purpose, performance requirements, special reporting requirements, and applicable rules to adhere to when providing that particular service element.

(26) “SFMA” means the Oregon Statewide Financial Management Services.

(27) “Suspension” means a sanction prohibiting a provider’s participation in the Department’s community services programs by deactivation of the assigned provider number for a specified period of time or until the occurrence of a specified event.

(28) “These Rules” mean the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 370.

(29) “Third Party Resource (TPR)” means a service or financial resource that, by law, is available and applicable to pay for covered services for community services programs.

(30) “United States Department of Health & Human Services (USDHHS)” means the Cabinet department of the United States government with the goal of protecting the health of all Americans and providing essential human services.

Provider Requirements

(1) These rules cover all programs and services of the Department’s community services programs for recipients with developmental disabilities (hereinafter referred to as community services programs). All providers seeking payment from the Department for the provision of covered services to eligible service recipients of community services programs must comply with these rules and the applicable rules, standards, and procedures of the specific programs or services defined as community services programs in OAR 411-370-0010.

(2) COVERED PROVIDER AGREEMENTS. Agreements with providers for community services programs may include:

- (a) Direct contracts with the Department;
- (b) Contracts with Department designees, including CDDPs; or
- (c) Provider enrollment agreements with the Department.

(3) Covered services paid for with state, Medicaid (Title XIX), or other funds by the Department for community services programs are also subject to federal and state Medicaid rules and requirements. In interpreting these rules and program-specific rules, the Department shall construe them as much as possible in a manner that shall comply with federal and state laws and regulations, and the terms and conditions of federal waivers and the state plans.

(4) A provider paid with state or Medicaid funds for community services programs must comply with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations pertaining to the provision of Medicaid services under the Medicaid Act, Title XIX, 42 United States Code (USC)1396 et seq.

(5) Payment for any service by a provider of community services programs may not be made by or through (directly or by power of attorney) any individual or organization, such as a collection agency or service bureau, that advances money to a provider for accounts receivable that the provider has assigned, sold, or transferred to the person or organization for an added fee or a deduction of a portion of the accounts receivable.

(6) The Department shall make community services programs provider payments to only the following:

- (a) The provider who actually performed the service;
- (b) In accordance with a reassignment from the provider a government agency or reassignment by a court order;
- (c) An organization operating as an organized health care delivery system, if the provider has a contract under which the organization submits the claim and the organization is enrolled with the Department as a billing provider; or
- (d) To an enrolled billing provider, such as a billing service or an accounting firm that, in connection with the submission of claims, receives or directs payments in the name of the provider, if the billing provider’s compensation for this service is:

- (A) Related to the cost of processing the billing; and
  - (B) Not related on percentage or other basis to the amount that is billed or collected and not dependent upon the collection of the payment.
- (7) Providers must comply with TPR requirements in Department policies, program-specific rules, provider enrollment agreements, or contracts.

(8) PROGRAM INTEGRITY.

(a) The Department shall use several approaches to promote integrity of the community services programs. This section of the rule describes integrity actions related to:

(A) Provider billings and payments, including actions and expectations contained within service element standards and procedures, program-specific rules, or contracts with Department representatives including CDDPS. The program integrity goal is to pay the correct amount to a properly enrolled provider for covered services provided to an eligible recipient according to these rules and the program-specific services in effect on the date of the service; and

(B) Provider performance in the delivery of services to recipients as well as general program practices. The program integrity goal includes approaches to assure the provision of appropriate services for which payment is to be made as well as compliance with these rules, service element standards and procedures, program-specific rules, provider enrollment agreements, or contracts.

(b) Program integrity activities include but are not limited to the following:

(A) Review, including but not limited to the evaluation of services in accordance with appropriate service or process, error identification, and prior authorization processes including all actions taken to determine the provision of services in accordance with service element standards and procedures, program-specific rules, provider enrollment agreements, or contract;

(B) Onsite visits to verify compliance with service element standards and procedures, program-specific rules, provider enrollment agreements, or contracts;

(C) Quality improvement activities;

(D) Coordination with the Department of Justice MFCU and other oversight authorities including law enforcement; and

(E) For provider billings and payments:

(i) Implementation of transaction standards to improve accuracy and timeliness of claims processing;

(ii) Cost report settlement processes;

(iii) Audits; and

(iv) Investigation of false claims, fraud, or prohibited business relationships.

(F) For provider service delivery:

(i) Provider licensing or certification required responsibilities and activities; and

(ii) Specific service monitoring and evaluation activities provided in program-specific rules or Department policy.

(c) The following may engage in program integrity activities including but not limited to general monitoring of the provider's performance in service delivery, reviewing a request for services, or auditing a claim of services, before or after payment, for assurance that the specific care or service was provided in accordance with the program-specific rules and the generally accepted standards of performance:

(A) Department staff or designees, including staff of a CDDP; and

(B) Federal or state oversight authority.

(d) Payment may be denied or may be subject to recovery if the review or audit determines the service was not provided in accordance with provider rules, program-specific rules, provider enrollment agreements or contracts, or does not meet the criteria for quality or appropriateness of the service or payment.

(e) If the Department or other federal or state oversight authorities determine that an overpayment has been made to a provider, the amount of overpayment is subject to recovery.

(f) The provider may face other sanctions or penalties, including termination of provider enrollment agreements or contracts as allowed by program-specific or Department rules.

(g) The Department may communicate with and coordinate any program integrity actions with the MFCU, USDHHS, other federal or state oversight authorities including law enforcement, or Department designees including CDDPs.

411-370-0030

Provider Enrollment

(1) For the purpose of this rule, all providers of community services programs, authorized to utilize the eXPRS, SFMA, MMIS, or CPMS systems, and licensed or certified by Department rules, or otherwise qualified by program-specific rules, prior to July 1, 2011 shall be deemed to be an enrolled provider as of July 1, 2011, subject to all provisions of these rules.

(2) Being an enrolled provider is a condition of eligibility for a Department payment for claims in community services programs. The Department requires billing providers to be enrolled as providers consistent with the provider enrollment processes set forth in this rule. If payment for community services program services shall be made under a contract with the Department or the Department's designees, including CDDPs, the provider must also meet the contract requirements. Contract requirements are separate from the requirements of these provider enrollment rules.

(3) Enrollment as a provider with the Department is not a promise that the enrolled provider shall receive any minimum amount of work from the Department, or the Department's designees, including CDDPs.

(4) RELATION TO SERVICE ELEMENT STANDARDS AND PROCEDURES, PROGRAM-SPECIFIC RULES, PROVIDER ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT, OR CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS. Provider enrollment establishes essential provider participation requirements for becoming an enrolled provider for the Department. The details of provider qualification requirements, recipient eligibility, covered services, how to obtain service authorization, documentation requirements, claims submission, available electronic access instructions, and other pertinent instructions and requirements are contained in the service element standards and procedures, program-specific rules, or provider enrollment agreement or contract.

(5) CRITERIA FOR ENROLLMENT. To be enrolled after July 1, 2011 providers must:

(a) Meet the requirements, if applicable, of the statewide agency certification process as prescribed in OAR chapter 411, division 323.

(b) Meet all program-specific requirements identified in service element standards and procedures, program-specific rules, provider enrollment agreements, or contracts in addition to the requirements identified in these rules;

(c) Meet Department licensing, certification, or service endorsement requirements for the type of community services programs the provider shall deliver as described in the program-specific rules, provider enrollment agreements, or contracts; and

(d) Obtain a Medicaid Agency Identification Number and applicable Medicaid Performing Provider Number from the Department for the specific services for which the provider is enrolling.

(6) PARTICIPATION AS AN ENROLLED PROVIDER. Participation with the Department as an enrolled provider is open to qualified providers that:

(a) Meet the qualification requirements established in these rules and program-specific rules, provider enrollment agreements, or contracts;

(b) Enroll as a provider with the Department in accordance with these rules;

(c) Provide or shall provide a covered service within their scope of licensure, certification, or service endorsement, if applicable, to an eligible recipient in accordance with service element standards and procedures, program-specific rules, provider enrollment agreements, or contracts; and

(d) Accept the payment amounts established in accordance with the Department's program-specific payment structures, service element standards and procedures, program-specific rules, provider enrollment agreements, or contracts for services providers.

(7) ENROLLMENT PROCESS. To be enrolled as a provider with the Department, an individual or organization must submit a complete and accurate provider enrollment form, provider disclosure form, and provider enrollment agreement, available from the Department.

(a) PROVIDER ENROLLMENT REQUEST FORM. The provider enrollment form requests basic demographic information about the provider that shall be permanently associated with the provider or organization until changed on an updated form. For the purpose of provider enrollment, the Department may use, instead of the provider enrollment form required under these rules, the application for certification required under OAR chapter 411, division 323 if such an application is applicable to the provider.

(b) PROVIDER DISCLOSURE FORM. All individuals and entities are required to disclose information used by the Department to determine whether an exclusion applies that would prevent the Department from enrolling the provider. Individual performing providers must submit a disclosure statement. All providers that are enrolling as an entity (corporation, non-profit, partnership, sole proprietorship, governmental) must submit a disclosure of ownership and control interest statement. For the purpose of provider enrollment, the Department may use, instead of the provider disclosure form required under these rules, the application for certification required under OAR chapter 411, division 323 if such an application is applicable to the provider.

(A) Entities must disclose all the information required on the disclosure of ownership and control interest statement.

(B) Payment may not be made to any individual or entity that has been excluded from participation in federal or state programs or that employs or is managed by excluded individuals or entities.

(C) The Department may refuse to enter into or may suspend or terminate a provider enrollment agreement if the individual performing provider or any individual who has an ownership or control interest in the entity, or who is an agent or managing employee of the provider, has been sanctioned or convicted of a criminal offense related to that individual's involvement in any program established under Medicare, Medicaid, Title XIX services, or other public assistance program.

(D) The Department may refuse to enter into or may suspend or terminate a provider enrollment agreement or contract for provider services, if the Department determines that the provider did not fully and accurately make any disclosure required under this rule.

(8) PROVIDER ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT. The provider must sign the provider enrollment agreement and submit it to the Department for review at the time the provider submits the provider enrollment form and related documentation. Signing the provider enrollment agreement constitutes agreement by a provider to comply with all applicable Department service element standards and procedures, provider and program rules, and applicable federal and state laws and regulations in effect on the date of service. The provider enrollment agreement must be submitted even if alternatives to submitting the provider enrollment form and provider disclosure form are used, as provided in sections (7)(a) and (7)(b) of this rule.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(9) ENROLLMENT OF PROVIDERS. A provider shall be enrolled, assigned, and issued a Medicaid Agency Identification Number and Medicaid Performing Provider Number upon the following criteria:

(a) Provider submission, consistent with Department procedures, of a completed and signed provider enrollment form, provider disclosure form, provider enrollment agreement, any applicable provider licensure, certification, or service endorsement materials, and all other required documents to the Department.

(b) Provider signature on required forms must be the provider or an individual with actual authority for the provider to legally bind the provider to attest and certify to the accuracy and completeness of the information submitted.

(c) The provisions of this rule, OAR chapter 411, division 323 if applicable, program-specific rules, service element standards and procedures, provider enrollment agreements, or contracts relating to provider qualifications, certification, licensure, and service endorsement are completed.

(10) Provider enrollment is not complete until all required information has been submitted, verified, and the Medicaid Agency Identification Number and the Medicaid Performing Provider Number are issued.

(11) CLAIM OR ENCOUNTER SUBMISSION. Submission of a claim or encounter or other payment request document constitutes the enrolled provider's agreement that:

(a) The service was provided in compliance with all applicable rules and requirements in effect on the date of service;

(b) The provider has created and maintained all records necessary to disclose the extent of services provided and provider's compliance with applicable program and financial requirements, and that the provider agrees to make such information available upon request to the Department or the Department's designees including CDDPs, the MFCU (for Medicaid-funded services), the Oregon Secretary of State, and (for federally-funded services) the federal funding authority and the Comptroller General of the United States;

(c) The information on the claim or encounter, regardless of the format or other payment document, is true, accurate, and complete; and

(d) The provider understands that payment of the claim or encounter or other payment document shall be from federal or state funds, or a combination of federal and state funds, and that any falsification, or concealment of a material fact, may result in prosecution under federal and state laws.

(12) Medicaid Agency Identification Numbers and Medicaid Performing Provider Numbers shall be specific to the provider, and the service sites, locations, or type of service authorized by the Department or the Department's designee including CDDPs. Issuance of a Department-assigned Medicaid Agency Identification Number and Medicaid Performing Provider Number establishes enrollment of an individual or organization as a provider for community services programs.

(13) Providers must provide the following updates:

(a) An enrolled provider must notify the Department in writing of a material change in any status or condition on any element of their provider enrollment form. Providers must notify the Department of the following changes in writing within 30 calendar days:

(A) Business affiliation;

(B) Ownership;

(C) Federal tax identification number;

(D) Ownership and control information; or

(E) Criminal convictions.

(b) Claims submitted by, or payments made to, providers who have not timely furnished the notification of changes or have not submitted any of the items that are required due to a change may be denied payment or payment may be subject to recovery.

(14) The provider enrollment agreement may be terminated as follows:

(a) PROVIDER TERMINATION REQUEST.

(A) The provider may ask the Department to terminate the provider enrollment agreement upon the following conditions and timelines unless otherwise required by service element standards and procedures, program-specific rules, or provider enrollment agreement or contract.

(i) Upon the provider's convenience with at least 90 days advance written notice; or

(ii) Upon a minimum of 30 days advance written notice if the Department does not meet the obligations under these rules and such dispute remains unresolved at the end of the 30 day period or such longer period, if any, as specified by the provider in the notice.

(B) The request must be in writing, signed by the provider, and mailed or delivered to the Department. The notice must specify the Department-assigned Medicaid Agency Identification Number and Medicaid Performing Provider Number, if known.

(C) When accepted, the Department shall assign the Medicaid Agency Identification Number and Medicaid Performing Provider Number a termination status and the effective date of the termination status.

(D) Termination of the provider enrollment agreement does not relieve the provider of any obligations for covered services provided under these rules in effect for dates of services during which the provider enrollment agreement was in effect.

(b) DEPARTMENT TERMINATION. Pursuant to the provisions of OAR chapter 407, division 120, the Department may terminate the provider enrollment agreement immediately upon notice to the provider, or a later date as the Department may establish in the notice, upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(A) The Department fails to receive funding, appropriations, limitations, or other expenditure authority at levels that the Department or the specific program determines to be sufficient to pay for the services covered under the agreement;

(B) Federal or state laws, regulations, or guidelines are modified or interpreted by the Department in a such a way that either providing the services under the agreement is prohibited or the Department is prohibited from paying for such services from the planned funding source;

(C) The Department has issued a final order revoking the Department-assigned Medicaid Agency Identification Number, service endorsement, or Medicaid Performing Provider Number based on a sanction;

(D) The provider no longer holds a required license, certificate, service endorsement, or other authority to qualify as a provider. The termination shall be effective on the date the license, certificate, service endorsement, or other authority is no longer valid.

(c) In the event of any termination of the provider enrollment agreement, the provider's sole monetary remedy is limited to covered services the Department determines to be compensable under the provider agreement, a claim for unpaid invoices, hours worked within any limits set forth in the agreement but not yet billed, and Department-authorized expenses incurred prior to termination. Providers are not entitled to recover indirect or consequential damages. Providers are not entitled to attorney fees, costs, or other expenses of any kind.

(15) IMMEDIATE SUSPENSION. When a provider fails to meet one or more of the requirements governing participation as a Department enrolled provider, the provider's Department-assigned Medicaid Agency Identification Number or Medicaid Performing Provider Number may be immediately suspended consistent with the provisions of OAR chapter 407, division 120. The provider may not provide services to recipients during a period of suspension. The Department shall deny claims for payment or other payment requests for dates of service during a period of suspension.

(16) The provision of a program-specific provider enrollment agreement or contract covered services to eligible recipients is voluntary on the part of the provider. Providers are not required to serve all recipients seeking service.

(17) The provider performs all services as an independent contractor. The provider is not an officer, employee, or agent of the Department.

(18) The provider is responsible for its employees and for providing employment-related benefits and deductions that are required by law. The provider is solely responsible for its acts or omissions including the acts or omissions of its own officers, employees, or agents. The Department's responsibility shall be limited to the Department's authorization and payment obligations for covered services provided in accordance with these rules.

approach provides equal or greater effectiveness and does not adversely impact the welfare, health, safety, or rights of individuals.

(2) The provider requesting a variance must submit, in writing, an application on a Department approved form that contains the following:

- (a) The section of the rule from which the variance is sought;
- (b) The reason for the proposed variance; and
- (c) The alternative practice, service, method, concept, or procedure proposed.

(3) The Department shall approve or deny the request for a variance. In reviewing the variance request, the Department may seek input or information from the Department's designees, including CDDPs.

(4) The Department's decision shall be sent to the provider and to all relevant Department programs or offices within 30 calendar days of the receipt of the variance request.

(5) The provider may appeal the denial of a variance request by sending a written request for review to the Administrator, whose decision is final.

(6) The Department shall determine the duration of the variance.

(7) The provider may implement a variance only after written approval from the Department.

Per Diem Rate Setting For the Rate Period Beginning July 1, 2003 Calculation of the Basic Rate and Complex Medical Add-on Rate

(1) The rates are determined for the first year of each biennium, the rebasing year, and the second year of each biennium, the non-rebasing year.

(a) The Rebasing Year.

(A) The basic rate is based on the statements received by the Department by September (or postmarked by October 31, if an extension of filing has been approved by the Department) for the fiscal reporting period ending on June 30 of the previous even-numbered year. For example, for the biennium beginning July 1, 2003, statements for the period ending June 30, 2002 are used. The Department desk reviews or field audits these statements and determines the allowable costs for each nursing facility. The costs include both direct and indirect costs. The costs and days relating to pediatric beds are excluded from this calculation. The Department shall only use financial reports of facilities that have been in operation for at least 180 days and are in operation as of June 30 of even numbered years for biennial rebasing.

(B) For the 2009 rebasing period only, the Department shall limit the administrative and property cost components as follows:

(i) Administrative and general costs per facility, less provider tax and employee benefits, equals the lesser of the facility's allowable cost or the 50th percentile over all facilities; and

(ii) Allowable property expenses shall be limited by the Medicaid occupancy percentage when the facility has an occupancy rate of less than 60 percent.

(C) For each facility, its allowable costs after any limitations as set forth in subsection (1)(a)(B) of this section are applied, less the costs of its self-contained pediatric unit (if any) is inflated from the mid-point of its fiscal reporting period to the mid-point of the first year of the biennium, hereafter referred to as the base year (e.g., for the biennium beginning July 1, 2003, the base year is the fiscal period ending June 30, 2004) by the annual change in the DRI Index, or its successor index, as measured in the previous 4th quarter.

(D) For each facility, its allowable costs after any limitations as set forth in subsection (1)(a)(B) of this section are applied, per Medicaid day is determined using the allowable costs as inflated and resident days, excluding pediatric days as reported in the statement.

(E) The facilities are ranked from highest to lowest by the facility's allowable costs after any limitations as set forth in subsection (1)(a)(B) of this section are applied, per Medicaid day.

(F) The basic rate will be determined by ranking the allowable costs after any limitations as set forth in subsection (1)(a)(B) of this section are applied, per Medicaid day by facility and identifying the allowable cost per day at the applicable percentage. If there is no allowable cost per day at the applicable percentage, the basic rate is determined by interpolating the difference between the allowable costs per day that are just above and just below the applicable percentage to arrive at a basic rate at the applicable percentage.

(i) The applicable percentage for the period beginning July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2005 is at the 63rd percentile.

(ii) The applicable percentage for the period beginning July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2007 is at the 70th percentile.

(iii) The applicable percentage for the period beginning July 1, 2007 is at the 63rd percentile.

(b) The Non-Rebasing Year. On July 1 of each non-rebasing year, the basic flat rate shall be inflated by the annual change in the DRI Index, or its successor index, as measured in the previous 4th quarter.

(2) The complex medical add-on rate is 40 percent of the basic rate for the rebasing year and the non-rebasing year.

(3) The Department shall add a standard payment to fund implementation of certified nursing assistant staffing requirements contained in OAR 411-086-0100 in accordance with the Legislatively Adopted Budget.

(4) For services rendered between July 1, 2011 and June 30, 2012, the Department shall pay a daily rate equal to the following:

(a) Basic rate: $212.12 per day;

(b) Complex medical rate: $295.59 per day; and

(c) Pediatric rate: $358.38 per day.

Pediatric Nursing Facilities

(1) PEDIATRIC NURSING FACILITY.

(a) A pediatric nursing facility is a licensed nursing facility at least 50 percent of whose residents entered the facility before the age of 14 and all of whose residents are under the age of 21.

(b) A nursing facility that meets the criteria of subsection (1)(a) of this section shall be reimbursed as follows:

(A) The pediatric rate is a prospective rate and is not subject to settlement. The Department shall only use financial reports of facilities that have been in operation for at least 180 days and are in operation as of June 30 of even numbered years for biennial rebasing.

(B) The facility specific pediatric cost per resident day shall be inflated by the annual change in the DRI Index as measured in the previous 4th quarter. The Oregon Medicaid pediatric days are multiplied by the inflated facility specific cost per resident day for each pediatric facility. The totals are summed and divided by total Oregon Medicaid days to establish the weighted average cost per pediatric resident day. The rebase relationship percentage (90.18%), determined in the implementation of the flat rate system in 1997, is applied to the weighted average cost to determine the pediatric rate.

(C) On July 1 of each non-rebasing year after 1999, the pediatric rate shall be increased by the annual change in the DRI Index, as measured in the previous 4th quarter. Beginning in 2001 rate rebasing shall occur in alternate years. Rebasing of pediatric nursing facility rates shall be calculated using the method described in subsection (1)(b)(B) of this section.

(D) For services rendered between July 1, 2011 and June 30, 2012, the Department shall pay the pediatric rate of $358.38 per day.

(e) Even though pediatric facilities shall be reimbursed in accordance with subsection (1)(b) of this section, pediatric facilities must comply with all requirements relating to the timely submission of Nursing Facility Financial Statements.

(2) LICENSED NURSING FACILITY WITH A SELF-CONTAINED PEDIATRIC UNIT.

(a) A nursing facility with a self-contained pediatric unit is a licensed nursing facility that provides services for pediatric residents (individuals under the age of 21) in a separate and distinct unit within or attached to the facility with staffing costs separate and distinct from the rest of the nursing facility. All space within the pediatric unit must be used primarily for purposes related to the services of pediatric residents and alternate uses must not interfere with the primary use.

(b) A nursing facility that meets the criteria of subsection (2)(a) of this section shall be reimbursed for its pediatric residents served in the pediatric unit at the per diem rate described in section (1)(b) of this rule commencing on July 1, 1999 or at the per diem rate described in section (1)(b)(D) of this rule commencing on July 1, 2011.

(c) Licensed nursing facilities with a self-contained pediatric unit must comply with all requirements relating to the timely submission of Nursing Facility Financial Statements and must file a separate attachment, on forms prescribed by the Department, related to the costs of the self-contained pediatric unit.

Developmental Disabilities Case Management Program Responsibilities

(1) AVAILABILITY. As required by these rules, the CDDP must assure the availability of a services coordinator to meet the service needs of an individual and any emergencies or crisis. The assignment of the services coordinator must be appropriately documented in individual service records and the CDDP must accurately report enrollment in the Department's payment and reporting systems.

(2) POLICIES AND PROCEDURES. The CDDP must adopt written procedures to assure that the delivery of services meet the standards in section (4) of this rule.

(a) The CDDP must have procedures for ongoing involvement of individuals and family members in the planning and review of consumer satisfaction with the delivery of case management or direct services provided by the CDDP.

(b) Copies of the procedures for planning and review of case management services, consumer satisfaction, and complaints must be maintained on file at the CDDP offices. The procedures must be available to:

(A) CDDP employees who work with individuals;

(B) Individuals who are receiving services from the CDDP and the individuals' families;

(C) Individuals' legal representatives, advocates, and service providers; and

(D) The Department.

(3) NOTICE OF SERVICES. The CDDP must inform the individuals, family members, legal representatives, and advocates of the minimum case management services that are set out in section (4) of this rule.

(4) MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.

(a) The CDDP must ensure that eligibility for services is determined by a trained eligibility specialist in accordance with OAR 411-320-0030.

(b) An Annual Plan for an individual must be developed and reviewed in accordance with OAR 411-320-0120(1).

(A) The services coordinator must assure that there is an Annual Plan. The services coordinator must attend the annual plan meeting and participate in the development of the plan for individuals enrolled in comprehensive services. The services coordinator is responsible for the development of the Annual Plan, on the form provided by the Department, for children receiving family support services in coordination with the child and the family.

(B) An Annual Plan must be completed for each individual that is not enrolled in any Department-funded service other than case management.

(c) Program services must be authorized in accordance with OAR 411-320-0120(3).

(d) Services coordinators must monitor services and supports for all individuals enrolled in case management in accordance with the standards described in OAR 411-320-0130.

(e) Entry, exit, and transfers from comprehensive program services must be in accordance with OAR 411-320-0110.

(f) Crisis diversion services must be assessed, identified, planned, monitored, and evaluated by the services coordinator in accordance with OAR 411-320-0160.

(g) Abuse investigations and provision of protective services for adults must be provided as described in OAR 407-045-0250 to 407-045-0360 and include investigating complaints of abuse, writing investigation reports, and monitoring for implementation of report recommendations.

(h) Civil commitment services must be provided in accordance with ORS 427.215 to 427.306.

(i) The services coordinator must provide information and timely referral for individuals and their families regarding developmental disability services available within the county and services available from other agencies or organizations within the county.

(A) For individuals 18 years and older, information and referral must specifically include information necessary to inform the individual of the comprehensive services wait list and support services. When more than one support services brokerage is available within the CDDP's geographic service area, the CDDP must also provide impartial information about the brokerages available to the individual.

(B) For individuals 18 years and older, information and referral must be provided initially and at minimum annually thereafter if the individual declines the comprehensive services wait list or support services. Documentation of the initial referral and subsequent annual discussion must be documented in the individual's CDDP file.

(C) For individuals enrolled in the support services brokerage but not enrolled in the comprehensive services wait list, the CDDP must coordinate with the support services brokerage to ensure that wait list information is provided annually.

(j) The services coordinator must assist individuals and their families in accessing services and resources.

(A) For individuals 18 years and older who decline support services, annual information and referral about support services must include informing the individual of the individual's right to access support services at any time.

(B) For individuals 18 years and older who decline support services and meet eligibility for support services as described in OAR 411-340-0100, the services coordinator must ensure access to support services within 90 days of the individual's request for support services and selecting a support services brokerage from those available as per OAR 411-340-0110.

(C) For individuals 18 years and older who decline the comprehensive services wait list and who are not enrolled in a support services brokerage, annual information and referral about the comprehensive services wait list must include informing the individual of the individual's right to access the wait list at any time.

(D) For individuals 18 years and older who decline the comprehensive services wait list, the services coordinator must ensure access at any time to the comprehensive services wait list upon the individual's request to be enrolled on the wait list.

(k) The services coordinator must enroll individuals in the comprehensive services wait list who meet the following criteria:

(A) The individual is age 18 or older;

(B) The individual is enrolled in case management services or a support services brokerage;

(C) The individual has requested to be enrolled in the comprehensive services wait list; and

(D) The individual is not enrolled in comprehensive services as an adult.

(l) An individual who moves between CDDP's and whose case management or support services do not lapse for more than a period of 12 months shall retain the wait list enrollment date assigned or continued by the CDDP in which case management services were previously received. If an individual did not receive case management services in any county in

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Oregon for a period exceeding 12 calendar months, a new wait list enrollment date shall be assigned. The new wait list enrollment date must be the date the individual first meets all the criteria described in section (4)(k) of this rule.

(m) When funding and resources are available, the CDDP must facilitate selection of individuals from the comprehensive services wait list using the date of enrollment on the comprehensive services wait list. An individual in crisis according to OAR 411-320-0160(2) and in need of service must be given first consideration for comprehensive services regardless of the date of enrollment on the comprehensive services wait list.

(n) The services coordinator may remove an individual from the comprehensive services wait list for the following reasons:

- (A) The individual requests to be removed;
- (B) The individual is placed in comprehensive services; or
- (C) The individual has exited or been terminated from case management services or a support services brokerage.

(o) The CDDP must inform the individual of the CDDP's intent to remove the individual from the comprehensive services wait list.

(p) Services coordinators must coordinate services with the child welfare (CW) caseworker assigned to a child to ensure the provision of required supports from the Department, CDDP, and CW.

(q) Services coordinators may attend IEP planning meetings or other transition planning meetings for children when the services coordinator is invited by the family or guardian to participate.

(A) The services coordinator may, to the extent resources are available, assist the family in accessing those critical non-educational services that the child or family may need.

(B) Upon request and to the extent possible, the services coordinator may act as a proponent for the child or family at IEP meetings.

(C) The services coordinator must participate in transition planning by attending IEP meetings or other transition planning meetings of students 16 years of age or older, or until the student is enrolled in the support services brokerage, to discuss the individual's transition to adult living and work situations unless such attendance is refused by the child's parent or legal guardian, or the individual if the individual is 18 years or older.

(r) The CDDP must ensure that individuals eligible for and receiving developmental disability services are enrolled in Department payment and reporting systems. The county of origin must enroll the individual into the Department payment and reporting systems for all developmental disability service providers except in the following circumstances:

(A) The Department shall complete the enrollment or termination form for children entering or leaving a licensed 24-hour residential program that is directly contracted with the Department.

(B) The Department shall complete the Department payment and reporting systems enrollment, termination, and billing forms for children entering or leaving the children's intensive in-home services (CIIS) program.

(C) The Department shall complete the enrollment, termination, and billing forms as part of an interagency agreement for purposes of billing for crisis diversion services by a region.

(s) Services coordinators must facilitate referrals to nursing homes when appropriate as determined by OAR 411-070-0043.

(t) The services coordinator must coordinate and monitor the specialized services provided to an eligible individual living in a nursing home in accordance with OAR 411-320-0150.

(u) If an adult who meets eligibility for support services as described in OAR 411-340-0100 is not enrolled in services other than case management and requires more than occasional services, or requires services that are available through a support services brokerage, the individual must be referred to a brokerage, unless the individual refuses. Referrals to the support services brokerage must be in accordance with OAR chapter 411, division 340.

(v) The services coordinator must ensure that all serious events related to an individual are reported to SPD using the SERT system. The CDDP must ensure that there is monitoring and follow-up on both individual events and system trends.

(w) When the services coordinator completes the Title XIX waiver form, the services coordinator must ensure that Medicaid eligible individuals are offered the choice of home and community-based waiver services, provided a notice of hearing rights, and have a completed Title XIX waiver form that is reviewed annually or at anytime there is a significant change. For individuals who are expected to enroll in support services, the services coordinator must complete the initial Title XIX waiver form after the individual's 18th birth date and no more than 30 days prior to enrollment into the support services brokerage. The support services brokerage staff must assess the individual's level of care annually thereafter for continued Title XIX waiver eligibility or at anytime there are significant changes.

(x) The services coordinator must participate in the appointment of a health care representative per OAR chapter 411, division 365.

(y) The services coordinator must coordinate with other state, public, and private agencies regarding services to individuals.

(z) The CDDP must ensure that a services coordinator is available to provide or arrange for comprehensive in-home supports for adults, long term supports for children, or family supports, as required, to meet the support needs of eligible individuals. This includes:

- (A) Providing assistance in determining needs and planning supports;
- (B) Providing assistance in finding and arranging resources and supports;

(C) Providing education and technical assistance to make informed decisions about support need and direct support service providers;

(D) Arranging fiscal intermediary services;

(E) Arranging employer-related supports; and

(F) Providing assistance with monitoring and improving the quality of supports.

(5) SERVICE PRIORITIES. If it becomes necessary for the CDDP to prioritize the availability of case management services, the CDDP must request and have approval of a variance prior to implementation of any alternative plan. If the reason for the need for the variance could not have been reasonably anticipated by the CDDP, the CDDP has 15 working days to submit the variance request to the Department. The variance request must:

(a) Document the reason the service prioritization is necessary (including any alternatives considered);

(b) Detail the specific service priorities being proposed; and

(c) Provide assurances that the basic health and safety of individuals shall continue to be addressed and monitored.

(6) FAMILY RECONNECTION. The CDDP and the services coordinator must provide assistance to the Department when a family member is attempting to reconnect with an individual who was previously discharged from Fairview Training Center or Eastern Oregon Training Center or the individual is currently receiving developmental disability services.

(a) If a family member contacts a CDDP for assistance in locating a family member they shall be referred to the Department. A family member may contact the Department directly.

(b) The Department shall send the family member a Department form requesting further information to be used in providing notification to the individual. The form shall include the following information:

(A) Name of requestor;

(B) Address of requestor and other contact information;

(C) Relationship to individual;

(D) Reason for wanting to reconnect; and

(E) Last time the family had contact.

(c) The Department shall determine if the individual was previously a resident of Fairview Training Center or Eastern Oregon Training Center and also determine:

(A) If the individual is deceased or living;

(B) Whether the individual is currently or previously enrolled in Department services; and

(C) The county in which services are being provided, if applicable.

(d) Within 10 working days of receipt of the request, the Department shall notify the family member if the individual is enrolled or no longer enrolled in Department services.

(e) If the individual is enrolled in Department services, the Department shall send the completed family information form to the individual or the individual's guardian and the individual's services coordinator.

(f) If the individual is deceased, the Department shall follow the process for identifying the personal representative of the deceased as provided for in ORS 192.526.

(A) If the personal representative and the requesting family member are the same, the family member shall be informed that the person is deceased.

(B) If the personal representative is different from the requesting family member, the personal representative shall be contacted for permission to share the information to the requesting family member. In the event of this situation, the Department must make a good faith effort at finding the personal representative and obtaining a decision concerning the sharing of information as soon as practicable.

(g) When an individual is located, the services coordinator when the individual is enrolled in case management, or the CDDP in conjunction with the support services brokerage when the individual is enrolled in a support services brokerage, must facilitate a meeting with the individual or the individual's guardian to discuss and determine if the individual wishes to have contact with the family member.

(A) The services coordinator when the individual is enrolled in case management, or the CDDP in conjunction with the support services brokerage when the individual is enrolled in a support services brokerage, must assist the individual or the individual's guardian in evaluating the information to make a decision regarding initiating contact including providing the information from the form and any relevant history with the family member that might support contact or present a risk to the individual.

(B) If the individual does not have a guardian or is unable to express his or her wishes, the ISP team must be convened to review factors and choose the best response for the individual after evaluating the situation.

(h) If the individual or the individual's guardian wishes to have contact, the individual or ISP team designee may directly contact the family member to make arrangements for the contact.

(i) If the individual or the individual's guardian does not wish to have contact, the services coordinator must notify the Department with the information and the Department shall inform the family member in writing that no contact is requested.

(j) The notification to the family member regarding the decision of the individual or the individual's guardian must be within 60 business days of the receipt of the information form from the family member.

(k) The decision by the individual or the individual's guardian is not appealable.

411-320-0110

Entry and Exit Requirements

(1) ADMISSION TO A DEPARTMENT-FUNDED DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY PROGRAM.

(a) Department staff must authorize entry into children's residential services, children's proctor care, children's intensive in-home supports, state operated community programs, and state training centers. The services coordinator must make referrals for admission and participate in all entry meetings for these programs.

(b) The services coordinator must ensure that individuals are appropriately referred to a support services brokerage and enrolled within 90 days of requesting support services and selecting a support services brokerage from those available as per OAR 411-340-0110.

(c) Admissions to all other Department-funded programs for individuals must be coordinated and authorized by the services coordinator in accordance with these rules.

(2) WRITTEN INFORMATION REQUIRED. The services coordinator, or the services coordinator's designee, must provide available and sufficient written information to service providers including information that is current and necessary to meet the individual's support needs in comprehensive services prior to admission.

(a) This written information must be provided in a timely manner and include:

(A) A copy of the individual's eligibility determination decision;

(B) A statement indicating the individual's safety skills including ability to evacuate from a building when warned by a signal device, and the ability to adjust water temperature for bathing and washing;

(C) A brief written history of any behavioral challenges including supervision and support needs;

(D) A medical history and information on health care supports that includes, where available:

(i) The results of a physical exam (if any) made within 90 days prior to the entry;

(ii) Results of any dental evaluation;

(iii) A record of immunizations;

(iv) A record of known communicable diseases and allergies; and

(v) A record of major illnesses and hospitalizations.

(E) A written record of any current or recommended medications, treatments, diets, and aids to physical functioning;

(F) If applicable, copies of protocols, the risk tracking record, and any support documentation;

(G) Copies of documents relating to guardianship, conservatorship, health care representative, power of attorney, court orders, probation and parole information, or any other legal restrictions on the rights of the individual, when applicable;

(H) Written documentation why preferences or choices of the individual cannot be honored at that time;

(I) Written documentation that the individual is participating in out-of-residence activities including school enrollment for individuals under the age of 21; and

(J) A copy of the most recent functional assessment, Behavior Support Plan, ISP, and IEP, if applicable.

(b) If the individual is being admitted from the individual's family home and entry information is not available due to a crisis, the services coordinator must ensure that the service provider assesses the individual upon entry for issues of immediate health or safety and the services coordinator must document a plan to secure the information listed in subsection (a) this section no later than 30 days after admission. The documentation must include a written description as to why the information is not available. A copy of the information and plan must be given to the service provider at the time of entry.

(c) If the individual is being admitted from comprehensive service, the information must be made available prior to the admission.

(3) ENTRY MEETING. Prior to an individual's date of entry into a Department-funded comprehensive service, the ISP team must meet to review referral material in order to determine appropriateness of placement. The ISP team participants shall be determined according to OAR 411-320-0120. The findings of the entry meeting must be recorded in the individual's file and distributed to the ISP team members. The documentation of the entry meeting must include at a minimum:

(a) The name of the individual proposed for services;

(b) The date of the entry meeting and the date determined to be the date of entry;

(c) The names and role of the participants at the entry meeting;

(d) Documentation of the pre-entry information required by section (2)(a) of this rule;

(e) Documentation of the decision to serve or not serve the individual requesting service, with reasons;

(f) If the decision was made to enter the individual, a written transition plan to include all medical, behavior, and safety supports needed by the individual, to be provided to the individual for no longer than 60 days after admission; and

(g) Documentation of the participants included in the entry meeting.

(4) CRISIS DIVERSION SERVICES. For a period not to exceed 30 days, section (3)(d) of this rule does not apply if an individual is temporarily admitted to a program for crisis diversion services.

(5) EXIT FROM DEPARTMENT-FUNDED PROGRAMS. All exits from Department-funded developmental disability services must be authorized by the CDDP. All exits from Department direct-contracted service for children's 24-hour residential and from state-operated community programs, must be authorized by Department staff. Prior to an individual's exit date, the ISP team must meet to review the appropriateness of the move and to coordinate any services necessary during or following the transition. The ISP team participants must be determined according to OAR 411-320-0120(1)(b).

(6) EXIT STAFFING. The exit plan must be distributed to all ISP team members. The exit plan must include:

(a) The name of the individual considered for exit;

(b) The date of the exit meeting;

(c) Documentation of the participants included in the exit meeting;

(d) Documentation of the circumstances leading to the proposed exit;

(e) Documentation of the discussion of the strategies to prevent an exit from service, unless the individual, the individual's legal guardian or, for a child, the child's parent or guardian, is requesting the exit;

(f) Documentation of the decision regarding exit including verification of majority agreement of the exit meeting participants regarding the decision; and

(g) The written plan for services for the individual after exit.

(7) TRANSFER MEETING. All transfers within a county between service sites by a comprehensive service provider agency must be authorized by the CDDP, except for transfers between Department direct contracted services for children in 24-hour residential programs and in state operated community programs. Transfers between Department direct contracted services for children in 24-hour residential programs and state operated community programs must be coordinated by Department staff. A transfer meeting of the ISP team must precede any decision to transfer an individual. Findings of such a transfer meeting must be recorded in the individual's file and include, at a minimum:

(a) The name of the individual considered for transfer;

(b) The date of the transfer meeting;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) Documentation of the participants included in the transfer meeting;

(d) Documentation of the circumstances leading to the proposed transfer;

(e) Documentation of the alternatives considered instead of transfer;

(f) Documentation of the reasons any preferences of the individual, the individual's legal representative, or family members may not be honored;

(g) Documentation of the decision regarding transfer including verification of majority agreement of the transfer meeting participants regarding the decision; and

(h) The written plan for services for the individual after transfer.

(8) ENTRY TO SUPPORT SERVICES.

(a) Referrals of eligible individuals to a support services brokerage must be made in accordance with OAR 411-340-0110. Referrals must be made using the Department mandated application and referral form in accordance with Department guidelines.

(b) The CDDP of an individual's county of origin must find the individual eligible for services from a support services brokerage when:

(A) The individual is an Oregon resident who has been determined eligible for developmental disability services by the CDDP;

(B) The individual is an adult living in his or her own home or family home and not receiving other Department-paid in-home or community living support other than state Medicaid plan services;

(C) The individual is not enrolled in comprehensive services;

(D) At the time of initial enrollment in the support services brokerage, the individual is not receiving crisis diversion services from the Department because the individual does not meet one or more of the crisis risk factors listed in OAR 411-320-0160;

(E) The individual, or the individual's legal representative, has chosen to use a support service brokerage for assistance with design and management of personal supports; and

(F) The individual is eligible for enrollment in the Support Services Waiver.

(c) The individual must be referred for enrollment within 90 days of:

(A) Being determined eligible for developmental disability services;

(B) Being determined eligible for enrollment in the Support Services

Waiver;

(C) The individual's 18th birth date;

(D) Requesting support services; and

(E) Selecting an available support services brokerage within the CDDP's geographic service area.

(d) The services coordinator must communicate with the support services brokerage staff and provide all relevant information upon request and as needed to assist support services brokerage staff in developing an ISP that best meets the individual's support needs including:

(A) A current application or referral on the Department mandated application or referral form;

(B) A completed Title XIX waiver form;

(C) A copy of the eligibility statement for developmental disability services;

(D) Copies of financial eligibility information;

(E) Copies of any legal documents such as guardianship papers, conservatorship, civil commitment status, probation and parole, etc.;

(F) Copies of relevant progress notes; and

(G) A copy of any current plans.

Eligibility for Support Service Brokerage Services

(1) NON-DISCRIMINATION. Individuals determined eligible according to section (2) of this rule may not be denied brokerage services or otherwise discriminated against on the basis of age, diagnostic or disability category, race, color, creed, national origin, citizenship, income, or duration of Oregon residence.

(2) ELIGIBILITY. The CDDP of an individual's county of residence may find the individual eligible for a brokerage when:

(a) The individual is an Oregon resident who has been determined eligible for developmental disability services by the CDDP;

(b) The individual is eligible for enrollment in the Support Services Waiver;

(c) The individual is an adult living in the individual's own home or family home and not receiving other Department-paid in-home or community living support other than state Medicaid plan services;

(d) The individual is not enrolled in comprehensive services;

(e) At the time of initial enrollment in the brokerage, the individual is not receiving short-term services from the Department because the individual is eligible for, and at imminent risk of, civil commitment under ORS chapter 427.215 through 427.306; and

(f) The individual or the individual's legal representative has chosen to use a brokerage for assistance with design and management of personal supports.

(3) CONCURRENT SERVICES. Individuals are not eligible for service by more than one brokerage unless the concurrent service:

(a) Is necessary to affect transition from one brokerage to another;

(b) Is part of a collaborative plan between the affected brokerages; and

(c) Does not duplicate services and expenditures.

Subject: In response to the Department of Human Services' (Department) transformation efforts and the need to generally streamline operations in order to meet and address current and future budget needs, the Department adopted the developmental disability certification and endorsement rules for community services programs in OAR chapter 411, division 323.

The Department is temporarily updating the following rules to implement the July 1, 2011 adoption of the certification and endorsement rules; further prescribe standards, responsibilities and procedures for endorsement; and centralize many of the program management requirements that were previously reflected in specific program rules.

- OAR chapter 411, division 323 (Developmental Disability Certification and Endorsement);

- OAR chapter 411, division 325 (24-Hour Residential Services);

- OAR chapter 411, division 328 (Supported Living Services);

- OAR chapter 411, division 335 (Proctor Care Residential Services); and

- OAR chapter 411, division 345 (Employment and Alternatives to Employment Services).

The program rules will continue to exist but will focus on rules specific to the operation of the respective service.

411-323-0020

Definitions

(1) "Abuse" means:

(a) Abuse of a child as defined in ORS 419B.005, and for the purposes of these rules, abuse of a child also means abuse as defined in OAR 407-045-0260.

(b) Abuse of an adult as defined in OAR 407-045-0260.

(2) "Abuse Investigation and Protective Services" means reporting and investigation activities as required by OAR 407-045-0300 and any subsequent services or supports necessary to prevent further abuse as required in OAR 407-045-0310.

(3) "Administrator" means the administrator of the Department, or that person's designee.

(4) "Adult" means an individual 18 years or older with developmental disabilities.

(5) "Advocate" means a person other than paid staff who has been selected by the individual or by the individual's legal representative to help the individual understand and make choices in matters relating to identification of needs and choices of services, especially when rights are at risk or have been violated.

(6) "Agency" means a public or private community agency or organization that provides recognized developmental disability services and is approved by the Department to provide these services. For the purpose of these rules, "provider", "service provider", "program", "applicant", and "licensee" are synonymous with "agency".

(7) "Appeal" means the process under ORS chapter 183 that the agency may use to petition conditions or the suspension, denial, or revocation of their application, certificate, or endorsement.

(8) "Applicant" means a person, agency, corporation, or governmental unit, who applies for certification to operate an agency providing services to individuals with developmental disabilities.

(9) "Assessment" means an evaluation of an individual's needs.

(10) "Board of Directors" mean a group of persons formed to set policy and give directions to an agency designed to provide services to individuals with developmental disabilities. A board of directors includes local advisory boards used by multi-state organizations.

(11) "Care" means supportive services, including but not limited to supervision, protection, and assistance in bathing, dressing, grooming, eating, management of money, transportation, or recreation. Care also includes being aware of the individual's general whereabouts at all times and monitoring the activities of the individual to ensure the individual's health, safety, and welfare. The term "care" is synonymous with "services".

(12) "Certificate" means a document issued by the Department to an agency that certifies the agency is eligible to receive state funds for the provision of endorsed program services.

(13) "Child" means an individual under the age of 18 that has a provisional determination of developmental disability.

(14) "Choice" means the individual's expression of preference, opportunity for, and active role in decision-making related to the selection of assessments, services, service providers, goals and activities, and verification of satisfaction with these services. Choice is communicated verbally, through sign language, or by other communication methods.

(15) "Community Developmental Disability Program (CDDP)" means an entity that is responsible for planning and delivery of services for individuals with developmental disabilities in a specific geographic service area of the state operated by or under a contract with the Department or a local mental health authority.

(16) "Complaint Investigation" means an investigation of any complaint that has been made to a proper authority that is not covered by an abuse investigation.

(17) "Condition" means a provision attached to:

(a) A new or existing certificate that limits or restricts the scope of the certificate or imposes additional requirements on the certified agency.

(b) A new or existing endorsement that limits or restricts the scope of program services or imposes additional requirements on the certified agency.

(18) "Denial" means the refusal of the Department to issue:

(a) A certificate to operate an agency because the Department has determined the agency is not in compliance with these rules or the corresponding program services rules.

(b) An endorsement to provide program services because the Department has determined the agency is not in compliance with these rules or the corresponding program services rules.

(19) "Department" means the Department of Human Services (DHS).

(20) "Developmental Disability" as defined in OAR 411-320-0020.

(21) "Division" means the Department of Human Services, Seniors and People with Disabilities Division (SPD).

(22) "Endorsement" means authorization to provide program services issued by the Department to a certified agency that has met the qualification criteria outlined in these rules and the corresponding program services rules.

(23) "Executive Director" means the person designated by a board of directors or corporate owner that is responsible for the administration of the agency's services for individuals.

(24) "Founded Reports" means the Department's Children, Adults, and Families Division or Law Enforcement Authority (LEA) determination, based on the evidence, that there is reasonable cause to believe that conduct in violation of the child abuse statutes or rules has occurred and such conduct is attributable to the person alleged to have engaged in the conduct.

(25) "Guardian" means a parent for individuals under 18 years of age or a person or agency appointed and authorized by the courts to make decisions about services for an individual.

(26) "Independence" means the extent to which individuals with developmental disabilities exert control and choice over their own lives.

(27) "Individual" means an adult or a child with developmental disabilities for whom services are planned and provided.

(28) "Individual Support Plan (ISP)" means the written details of the supports, activities, and resources required for an individual to achieve personal goals. The ISP is developed at minimum annually to reflect decisions and agreements made during a person-centered process of planning and information gathering. The ISP is the individual's Plan of Care for Medicaid purposes.

(29) "Individual Support Plan (ISP) Team" means a team composed of the individual served, agency representatives who provide service to the individual (if appropriate for in-home supports), the guardian (if any), the services coordinator, and family or other persons requested to develop the ISP.

(30) "Integration" means the use by individuals with developmental disabilities of the same community resources used by and available to other persons in the community, including participation in community activities and having contact with persons in their community.

(31) "Legal Representative" means the parent, if the individual is under age 18, unless the court appoints another person or agency to act as guardian. For those individuals over the age of 18, a legal representative means an attorney at law who has been retained by or for the individual or a person or agency authorized by the court to make decisions about services for the individual.

(32) "Mandatory Reporter" means any public or private official including:

(a) For the purposes of these rules, a staff or volunteer working with individuals birth to 17 years of age, and comes in contact with and has reasonable cause to believe a child has suffered abuse, or comes in contact with any person whom the official has reasonable cause to believe abused a child, regardless of whether or not the knowledge of the abuse was gained in the reporter's official capacity. Nothing contained in ORS 40.225 to 40.295 shall affect the duty to report imposed by this section, except that a psychiatrist, psychologist, clergyman, attorney, or guardian ad litem appointed under ORS 419B.231 shall not be required to report such information communicated by a person if the communication is privileged under ORS 40.225 to 40.295.

(b) For the purposes of these rules, a staff or volunteer working with adults eighteen years and older, and while acting in an official capacity, comes in contact with and has reasonable cause to believe an adult with developmental disabilities has suffered abuse, or comes in contact with any person whom the official has reasonable cause to believe abused an adult with developmental disabilities. Pursuant to ORS 430.765(2) psychiatrists, psychologists, clergy, and attorneys are not mandatory reporters with regard to information received through communications that are privileged under ORS 40.225 to 40.295.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(33) "Medicaid Agency Identification Number" means the numeric identifier assigned to an agency as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370 following the agency's enrollment to manage service delivery sites or areas within Oregon under endorsement or license from the Department. .

(34) "Medicaid Performing Provider Number" means the numeric identifier assigned to an entity or person by the Department, following enrollment to deliver Medicaid funded services as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370. The Medicaid Performing Provider Number is used by the rendering provider for identification and billing purposes associated with service authorizations and payments.

(35) "Oregon Intervention System (OIS)" means a system of providing training to people who work with designated individuals to intervene physically or non-physically to keep individuals from harming self or others. OIS is based on a proactive approach that includes methods of effective evasion, deflection, and escape from holding.

(36) "Ownership Interest" means, as defined in 42 CFR 455.101, the possession of equity in the capital, the stock, or the profits of the disclosing entity as determined by 42 CFR 455.102. Person with an ownership or control interest means a person or corporation that:

(a) Has an ownership interest totaling 5 percent or more in a disclosing entity;

(b) Has an indirect ownership interest equal to 5 percent or more in a disclosing entity;

(c) Has a combination of direct and indirect ownership interests equal to 5 percent or more in a disclosing entity;

(d) Owns an interest of 5 percent or more in any mortgage, deed of trust, note, or other obligation secured by the disclosing agency if that interest equals at least 5 percent of the value of the property or assets of the disclosing entity;

(e) Is an officer or director of a disclosing agency that is organized as a corporation; or

(f) Is a partner in a disclosing entity that is organized as a partnership.

(37) "Person-Centered Planning" means:

(a) A process, either formal or informal, for gathering and organizing information that helps an individual:

(A) Determine and describe choices about personal goals, activities, and lifestyle preferences;

(B) Design strategies and networks of support to achieve goals and a preferred lifestyle using individual strengths, relationships, and resources; and

(C) Identify, use, and strengthen naturally occurring opportunities for support at home and in the community.

(b) The methods for gathering information vary, but all are consistent with individual needs and preferences.

(38) "Physical Intervention" means the use of any physical action or any response to maintain the health and safety of an individual or others during a potentially dangerous situation or event.

(39) "Productivity" as defined in ORS 427.005 means:

(a) Engagement in income-producing work by an individual with developmental disabilities that is measured through improvements in income level, employment status, or job advancement; or

(b) Engagement by an individual with developmental disabilities in work contributing to a household or community.

(40) "Program Services" mean, for the purpose of these rules, the services described in:

(a) OAR chapter 411, division 325, 24-hour Residential Services for Children and Adults with Developmental Disabilities;

(b) OAR chapter 411, division 328, Supported Living Services for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities;

(c) OAR chapter 411, division 335, Proctor Care Residential Services for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities; and

(d) OAR chapter 411, division 345, Employment and Alternatives to Employment Services for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities.

(41) "Program Services Rules" mean, for the purpose of these rules, the rules in:

(a) OAR chapter 411, division 325, 24-hour Residential Services for Children and Adults with Developmental Disabilities;

(b) OAR chapter 411, division 328, Supported Living Services for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities;

(c) OAR chapter 411, division 335, Proctor Care Residential Services for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities; and

(d) OAR chapter 411, division 345, Employment and Alternatives to Employment Services for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities.

(42) "Protection" and "Protective Services" means necessary actions taken as soon as possible to prevent subsequent abuse or exploitation of the individual, to prevent self-destructive acts, and to safeguard an individual's person, property, and funds.

(43) "Revocation" means the action taken by the Department to rescind:

(a) An agency certificate after the Department has determined that the agency is not in compliance with these rules or the corresponding program services rules.

(b) An endorsement for an agency after the Department has determined that the agency is not in compliance with these rules or the corresponding program services rules.

(44) "Services Coordinator" means an employee of the community developmental disability program or other agency that contracts with the county or Department, who is selected to plan, procure, coordinate, and monitor Individual Support Plan services, and to act as a proponent for individuals with developmental disabilities.

(45) "Staff" means paid employees responsible for providing services to individuals and whose wages are paid in part or in full with funds sub-contracted with the community developmental disability program or contracted directly through the Department.

(46) "Substantiated" means an abuse investigation has been completed by the Department or the Department's designee and the preponderance of the evidence establishes the abuse occurred.

(47) "Support" means assistance that individuals require, solely because of the affects of developmental disability, to maintain or increase independence, achieve community presence and participation, and improve productivity. Support is subject to change with time and circumstances.

(48) "Suspension" means an immediate temporary withdrawal of the:

(a) Certificate to operate an agency after the Department determines that the agency is not in compliance with these rules or the corresponding program services rules.

(b) Endorsement to provide program services after the Department determines that the agency is not in compliance with these rules or the corresponding program services rules.

(49) "These Rules" mean the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323.

(50) "Unacceptable Background Check" means a check that precludes the agency from being certified or endorsed for the following reasons:

(a) The agency or any person holding 5 percent or greater ownership interest in the agency has been disqualified under OAR 407-007-0275; or

(b) A background check and fitness determination have been conducted resulting in a "denied" status, as defined in OAR 407-007-0210.

(51) "Variance" means a temporary exception from a regulation or provision of these rules or the program services rules that may be granted by the Department upon written application by the agency.

(52) "Volunteer" means any person assisting in an agency without pay to support the services provided to individuals.

Certification

(1) CERTIFICATE REQUIRED.

(a) No person, agency, or governmental unit acting individually or jointly with any other person, agency, or governmental unit intending to provide program services as defined in OAR 411-323-0020 shall establish, conduct, maintain, manage, or operate an agency without being certified by the Department under these rules.

(b) Certificates are not transferable.

(c) The Department shall issue a certificate to an applicant found to be in compliance with these rules. The certificate shall be in effect for five years from the date issued unless revoked or suspended.

(2) CURRENT AGENCY CERTIFICATION. All agencies providing program services as of July 1, 2011 shall be issued a certificate that expires in five years unless sooner revoked or suspended.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(3) CERTIFICATION. Notwithstanding section (2) of this rule, an agency requiring certification must apply for an initial certificate and for a certificate renewal.

(a) INITIAL APPLICATION.

(A) The applicant must submit an application at least 30 days prior to anticipated certification. The completed application must be on a form provided by the Department and must include all information requested by the Department.

(B) The applicant requesting certification as an agency must identify the agency's business plan. At a minimum, the agency's business plan must include:

(i) A copy of any management agreements or contracts, relative to the operation and ownership of the agency;

(ii) A financial plan that includes:

(I) If an existing agency, the last two years audits, as directed by the Office of Management and Budget circular A-133, completed by an outside firm; or

(II) If applying as a new firm, financial statements indicating capital and the financial plan developed to assure sustainability, partnerships, loans, and any other financial assistance.

(iii) The names, dates of birth, and social security numbers of those serving as the agency's Board of Directors as required by CFR 455.104;

(C) The applicant must develop a plan identifying the scope of program services the applicant intends to provide and request endorsement for each program service as described in OAR 411-323-0035; and

(D) Liability and operational insurance coverage as described in subsection (b) of this section.

(b) LIABILITY AND OPERATIONAL INSURANCE COVERAGE.

(A) At a minimum, the agency must demonstrate proof, at the agencies expense, and maintain in effect with respect to all occurrences taking place during the certification period:

(i) Automobile liability insurance with a combined single limit per occurrence of not less than $500,000.

(ii) Comprehensive or commercial general liability insurance covering bodily injury and property damage including personal injury coverage and contractual liability coverage for the agency. The combined single limit per occurrence may not be less than $500,000 or the equivalent. Each annual aggregate limit may not be less than $500,000 when applicable.

(B) The agency, the agency's subcontractors if any, and all employers providing work, labor, or materials under the agency are subject employers under the Oregon Workers' Compensation Law and must comply with ORS 656.017, which requires them to provide workers' compensation coverage for all their subject workers including employers' liability insurance with coverage limits of not less than $100,000 each accident. Agencies who perform the work without the assistance of labor or any staff member need not obtain such coverage.

(C) The agency must name the State of Oregon, Department of Human Services, and their divisions, officers, and employees as additional insured's on any insurance policies required by these rules with respect to agency activities being performed under the agency's certification. Such insurance must be issued by an insurance company licensed to do business in the state of Oregon and must contain a 30 day notice of cancellation endorsement.

(D) Prior to certification, the agency must forward to the Department certificates of insurance indicating coverage as required by this rule.

(E) In the event of unilateral cancellation or restriction by the agency's insurance company of any insurance coverage required by this rule, the agency must immediately notify the Department orally of the cancellation or restriction and must confirm the oral notification in writing within three days of notification by the insurance company to the agency.

(c) RENEWAL.

(A) The Department shall conduct a certification review of the agency prior to the renewal of the certificate. The review shall be conducted 30 to 120 days prior to expiration of the certificate.

(B) An application for renewal filed with the Department before the date of expiration extends the effective date of the existing certificate until the Department takes action upon the application for renewal.

(C) If the renewal application is not submitted prior to the expiration date, the agency shall be treated as a non-certified Medicaid agency subject to termination of their Medicaid Agency Identification Number.

(D) The Department may not renew a certificate if the agency is not in substantial compliance with these rules or the corresponding program services rules.

(d) If an applicant fails to provide complete, accurate, and truthful information during the application or renewal process, the Department may delay initial certification, deny the application, or revoke or refuse to renew the application for certification.

(e) Any applicant or person with an ownership interest in an agency shall be considered responsible for acts occurring during, and relating to, the operation of the agency for purpose of certification.

(f) The Department may consider the background and operating history of the applicant and each person with an ownership interest when determining whether to issue or renew a certificate.

(g) Prior to issuance or renewal of the certificate, the applicant must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Department that the applicant is in compliance with these rules.

(h) The Department shall conduct a review of the agency prior to the issuance of a certificate.

(4) EXPIRATION. Unless revoked, suspended, or terminated earlier, each certificate to operate as a Medicaid agency shall expire five years following the date of issuance.

(5) TERMINATION. The certificate shall automatically terminate on the date agency operation is discontinued or if there is a change in ownership.

(6) RETURN OF CERTIFICATE. The certificate must be returned to the Department immediately upon suspension or revocation of the certificate or when agency operation is discontinued.

(7) CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP, LEGAL ENTITY, LEGAL STATUS, OR MANAGEMENT CORPORATION.

(a) The agency must notify the Department in writing of any pending change in the agency's ownership or legal entity, legal status, or management corporation.

(b) A new certificate shall be required upon change in the agency's ownership or legal entity, legal status, or management corporation. The agency must submit a certificate application at least 30 days prior to change in ownership or legal entity, legal status, or management corporation.

(8) CONDITIONS.

(a) The Department may attach conditions to a certificate that limit, restrict, or specify other criteria for operation of the agency. The type of condition attached to a certificate shall directly relate to a risk of harm or potential risk of harm to individuals. The Department may attach a condition to a certificate upon a finding that:

(A) Information on the application or initial inspection requires a condition to protect the health, safety, or welfare of individuals;

(B) A threat to the health, safety, or welfare of an individual exists;

(C) There is reliable evidence of abuse, neglect, or exploitation; or

(D) The agency is not being operated in compliance with these rules or the corresponding program services rules.

(b) Conditions that the Department may impose on a certificate include but are not limited to:

(A) Restricting the total number of individuals that may be served;

(B) Restricting the number and support level of individuals allowed within program services based upon the capacity of the agency and staff to meet the health and safety needs of all individuals;

(C) Reclassifying the level of individuals that may be served;

(D) Requiring additional staff or staff qualifications;

(E) Requiring additional training;

(F) Restricting the agency from allowing persons on the premises who may be a threat to an individual's health, safety, or welfare;

(G) Requiring additional documentation; or

(H) Restricting admissions.

(c) NOTICE. The Department shall notify the agency in writing of any conditions imposed, the reason for the conditions, and the opportunity to request a hearing under ORS chapter 183. Conditions take effect immediately upon issuance of the notice, or at such later date as indicated on the notice, and shall continue until removed by the Department.

(d) HEARING. The agency may request a contested case hearing in accordance with ORS chapter 183 and this rule upon written notice from the Department of the imposition of conditions.

(A) The agency must request a hearing within 21 days of receipt of the Department's written notice of certificate conditions.

(B) In addition to, or in-lieu of a hearing, an agency may request an administrative review as described in section (11) of this rule. The administrative review does not diminish an agency's right to a hearing.

(e) The agency may send a written request to the Department to remove a condition if the agency believes the situation that warranted the condition has been remedied.

(9) CERTIFICATE DENIAL, REFUSAL TO RENEW, OR REVOCATION.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) The Department may deny, refuse to renew, or revoke a certificate when the Department finds the agency, or any person holding 5 percent or greater ownership interest in the agency:

(A) Demonstrates substantial failure to comply with these rules or the corresponding program services rules such that the health, safety, or welfare of individuals is jeopardized and the agency fails to correct the non-compliance within 30 calendar days of receipt of written notice of non-compliance;

(B) Has demonstrated a substantial failure to comply with these rules or the corresponding program services rules such that the health, safety, or welfare of individuals is jeopardized;

(C) Has been convicted of any crime that would have resulted in an unacceptable background check upon hiring or authorization of service;

(D) Has been convicted of a misdemeanor associated with the operation of an agency or program services;

(E) Falsifies information required by the Department to be maintained or submitted regarding care of individuals, program services finances, or individuals' funds;

(F) Has been found to have permitted, aided, or abetted any illegal act that has had significant adverse impact on individual health, safety, or welfare; or

(G) Has been placed on the current Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services list of excluded or debarred providers.

(b) NOTICE. The Department may issue a notice of denial, refusal to renew, or revocation of the certificate following a Department finding that there is a substantial failure to comply with these rules or the corresponding program services rules such that the health, safety, or welfare of individuals is jeopardized, or that one or more of the events listed in subsection (a) of this section has occurred.

(c) HEARING. An applicant for a certificate or a certified agency, as applicable, may request a contested case hearing in accordance with ORS Chapter 183, this rule, and 443.440 for 24-hour residential services, upon written notice from the Department of denial, refusal to renew, or revocation of the certificate.

(A) DENIAL. The applicant must request a hearing within 60 days of receipt of the Department's written notice of denial.

(B) REFUSAL TO RENEW. The agency must request a hearing within 60 days of receipt of the Department's written notice of refusal to renew.

(C) REVOCATION.

(i) Notwithstanding subsection (ii) below, the agency must request a hearing within 21 days of receipt of the Department's written notice of revocation. In addition to, or in-lieu of a hearing, the agency may request an administrative review as described in section (11) of this rule. The administrative review does not diminish the agency's right to a hearing.

(10) IMMEDIATE SUSPENSION OF CERTIFICATE.

(a) When the Department finds a serious and immediate threat to individual health and safety and sets forth the specific reasons for such findings, the Department may, by written notice to the agency, immediately suspend a certificate without a pre-suspension hearing and the agency may not continue operation.

(b) HEARING. The agency may request a contested case hearing in accordance with ORS Chapter 183, this rule, and 443.440 for 24-hour residential services, upon written notice from the Department of the immediate suspension of the certificate.

(A) Notwithstanding subsection (B) below, the agency must request a hearing within 21 days of receipt of the Department's written notice of suspension. In addition to, or in-lieu of a hearing, the agency may request an administrative review as described in section (11) of this rule. The administrative review does not diminish the agency's right to a hearing.

(B) 24-HOUR RESIDENTIAL SERVICES. An agency endorsed to provide 24-hour residential services as described in OAR chapter 411, division 325, must request a hearing within 10 days of receipt of the Department's written notice of suspension.

(11) ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.

(a) Notwithstanding subsection (b) below, the agency, in addition to the right to a contested case hearing, may request an administrative review by the Department's Administrator or designee.

(b) 24-HOUR RESIDENTIAL SERVICES. An agency endorsed to provide 24-hour residential services as described in OAR chapter 411, division 325, may not request an administrative review for revocation or suspension. An agency endorsed to provide 24-hour residential services as described in OAR chapter 411, division 325, may request an administrative review for imposition of conditions.

(c) The request for administrative review must be received by the Department within 10 days from the date of the Department's notice of suspension, revocation, or imposition of conditions. The agency may submit, along with the request for administrative review, any additional written materials the agency wishes to have considered during the administrative review.

(d) The Department shall conduct the administrative review and issue a decision within 10 days from the date of receipt of the request for administrative review, or by a later date as agreed to by the agency.

(e) If the decision of the Department is to affirm the suspension, revocation, or condition, the agency, notwithstanding subsection (b) of this section, may appeal the decision to a contested case hearing as long as the request for a contested case hearing was received by the Department within 21 days of the original written notice of suspension, revocation, or imposition of conditions.

(12) INFORMAL CONFERENCE. After the Department has received a request for hearing, the Department shall offer the applicant or the agency an opportunity for an informal conference unless an administrative review has been completed as described in section (11) of this rule.

Endorsement

(1) ENDORSEMENT REQUIRED.

(a) To provide program services, an agency must have:

(A) A certificate to provide Medicaid services in the state of Oregon as described in OAR 411-323-0030;

(B) A Medicaid Agency Identification Number assigned by the Department as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370;

(C) For each licensed site or geographic location where direct services shall be delivered, a Medicaid Performing Provider Number assigned by the Department as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370; and

(D) Approved endorsement for each program service as described in this rule.

(b) No person, agency, or governmental unit acting individually or jointly with any other person, agency, or governmental unit shall establish, conduct, maintain, manage, or operate program services without being endorsed by the Department under these rules.

(c) Endorsements are not transferable or applicable to any other program services.

(d) The Department shall issue an endorsement to an applicant found to be in compliance with these rules and the corresponding program services rules. The endorsement shall be in effect for five years from the date issued unless revoked or suspended.

(2) CURRENT AGENCY ENDORSEMENT. All agencies providing program services as of July 1, 2011 shall be endorsed for five years for the program services being provided as of July 1, 2011 unless the endorsement is sooner revoked or suspended.

(3) ENDORSEMENT. A certified agency requiring endorsement must apply for an initial endorsement and for endorsement renewal notwithstanding section (2) of this rule.

(a) INITIAL APPLICATION. At least 30 days prior to providing program services, an agency must submit an application for endorsement that identifies the services that the agency intends to provide. The completed application must be on a form provided by the Department and must include all information requested by the Department.

(b) RENEWAL.

(A) To renew endorsement, the agency must submit an application at least 30 days but not more than 120 days prior to the expiration date of the existing endorsement. On renewal, no additional program services shall be endorsed unless specifically approved by the Department.

(B) An application for renewal filed with the Department before the date of expiration extends the effective date of the existing endorsement until the Department takes action upon the application for renewal.

(C) If the renewal application is not submitted prior to the expiration date, the agency may not provide program services.

(D) The Department may not renew endorsement if the agency is not in substantial compliance with these rules or the corresponding program services rules.

(E) Renewal of endorsements for program services is contingent upon the successful renewal of the agency's certificate.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) If an applicant fails to provide complete, accurate, and truthful information during the application or renewal process, the Department may delay initial endorsement, deny the application, or revoke or refuse to renew the endorsement for program services.

(d) Any applicant or person with an ownership interest in an agency shall be considered responsible for acts occurring during, and relating to, the operation of the agency for purpose of endorsement.

(e) The Department may consider the background and operating history of the applicant and each person with an ownership interest when determining whether to issue or renew an endorsement.

(f) Prior to issuance or renewal of the endorsement, the applicant must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Department that the applicant is in compliance with these rules and the corresponding program services rules.

(g) The Department shall conduct a review of the agency prior to the issuance of an endorsement.

(h) Separate endorsements are required for each endorsed program service.

(4) EXPIRATION. Unless revoked, suspended, or terminated earlier, each endorsement to provide program services shall expire five years following the date of issuance.

(5) TERMINATION. Endorsement shall automatically terminate on the date program services are discontinued or agency certification is terminated.

(6) CHANGE OF CERTIFICATION. New endorsement shall be required upon change of an agency's certification. The recertified agency must submit an application for endorsement at least 30 days prior to change of an agency's certification including but not limited to change in ownership or legal entity, legal status, or management corporation.

(7) CONDITIONS.

(a) The Department may attach conditions to an endorsement that limit, restrict, or specify other criteria for program services. The type of condition attached to an endorsement shall directly relate to a risk of harm or potential risk of harm to individuals. The Department may attach a condition to an endorsement upon a finding that:

(A) Information on the application or initial inspection requires a condition to protect the health, safety, or welfare of individuals;

(B) A threat to the health, safety, or welfare of an individual exists;

(C) There is reliable evidence of abuse, neglect, or exploitation; or

(D) The agency is not being operated in compliance with these rules or the corresponding program services rules.

(b) Conditions that the Department may impose on an endorsement include but are not limited to:

(A) Restricting the total number of individuals that may be served;

(B) Restricting the number and support level of individuals allowed within program services based upon the capacity of the agency and staff to meet the health and safety needs of all individuals;

(C) Reclassifying the level of individuals that may be served;

(D) Requiring additional staff or staff qualifications;

(E) Requiring additional training;

(F) Restricting the agency from allowing persons on the premises who may be a threat to an individual's health, safety, or welfare;

(G) Requiring additional documentation; or

(H) Restricting admissions.

(c) NOTICE. The Department shall notify the agency in writing of any conditions imposed, the reason for the conditions, and the opportunity to request a hearing under ORS chapter 183. Conditions take effect immediately upon issuance of the notice, or at such later date as indicated on the notice, and shall continue until removed by the Department.

(d) HEARING. The agency may request a contested case hearing in accordance with ORS chapter 183 and this rule upon written notice from the Department of the imposition of conditions.

(A) The agency must request a hearing within 21 days of receipt of the Department's written notice of endorsement conditions.

(B) In addition to, or in lieu of a hearing, the agency may request an administrative review as described in section (10) of this rule. The administrative review does not diminish the agency's right to a hearing.

(e) The agency may send a written request to the Department to remove a condition if the agency believes the situation that warranted the condition has been remedied.

(8) ENDORSEMENT DENIAL, REFUSAL TO RENEW, OR REVOCATION.

(a) The Department may deny, refuse to renew, or revoke an endorsement when the Department finds the agency, or any person holding 5 percent or greater ownership interest in the agency:

(A) Fails to maintain agency certification as described in OAR 411-323-0030;

(B) Demonstrates substantial failure to comply with these rules and the corresponding program services rules such that the health, safety, or welfare of individuals is jeopardized and the agency fails to correct the non-compliance within 30 calendar days of receipt of written notice of non-compliance;

(C) Has demonstrated a substantial failure to comply with these rules and the corresponding program services rules such that the health, safety, or welfare of individuals is jeopardized;

(D) Has demonstrated a failure to comply with applicable laws relating to safety from fire;

(E) Has been convicted of any crime that would have resulted in an unacceptable background check upon hiring or authorization of service;

(F) Has been convicted of a misdemeanor associated with the operation of an agency or program services;

(G) Falsifies information required by the Department to be maintained or submitted regarding care of individuals, program services finances, or individuals' funds;

(H) Has been found to have permitted, aided, or abetted any illegal act that has had significant adverse impact on individual health, safety, or welfare; or

(I) Has been placed on the current Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services list of excluded or debarred providers.

(b) NOTICE. The Department may issue a notice of denial, refusal to renew, or revocation of an endorsement following a Department finding that there is a substantial failure to comply with these rules or the corresponding program services rules such that the health, safety, or welfare of individuals is jeopardized, or that one or more of the events listed in subsection (a) of this section has occurred.

(c) HEARING. An applicant for an endorsement or an endorsed agency, as applicable, may request a contested case hearing in accordance with ORS Chapter 183, this rule, and 443.440 for 24-hour residential services, upon written notice from the Department of denial, refusal to renew, or revocation of the endorsement.

(A) DENIAL. The applicant must request a hearing within 60 days of receipt of the Department's written notice of denial.

(B) REFUSAL TO RENEW. The agency must request a hearing within 60 days of the receipt of the Department's written notice of refusal to renew.

(C) REVOCATION.

(i) Notwithstanding subsection (ii) below, the agency must request a hearing within 21 days of receipt of the Department's written notice of revocation. In addition to, or in lieu of a hearing, an agency may request an administrative review as described in section (10) of this rule. The administrative review does not diminish the agency's right to a hearing.

(9) IMMEDIATE SUSPENSION OF ENDORSEMENT.

(a) When the Department finds a serious and immediate threat to individual health and safety and sets forth the specific reasons for such findings, the Department may, by written notice to the agency, immediately suspend an endorsement without a pre-suspension hearing and the program service may not continue operation.

(b) HEARING. The agency may request a contested case hearing in accordance with ORS Chapter 183, this rule, and 443.440 for 24-hour residential services, upon written notice from the Department of the immediate suspension of the endorsement.

(A) Notwithstanding subsection (B) below, the endorsed agency must request a hearing within 21 days of receipt of the Department's written notice of suspension. In addition to, or in-lieu of a hearing, the agency may request an administrative review as described in section (10) of this rule. The administrative review does not diminish the agency's right to a hearing.

(B) 24-HOUR RESIDENTIAL SERVICES. An agency endorsed to provide 24-hour residential services as described in OAR chapter 411, division 325 must request a hearing within 10 days of receipt of the Department's written notice of suspension.

(10) ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.

(a) Notwithstanding subsection (b) below, the agency, in addition to the right to a contested case hearing, may request an administrative review by the Department's Administrator or designee.

Inspections and Investigations

(1) Agencies certified and endorsed under these rules must allow the following types of investigations and inspections:

- (a) Quality assurance, onsite inspections, and certificate renewal;
- (b) Complaint investigations; and
- (c) Abuse investigations.

(2) The Department, the Department's designee, or proper authority shall perform all inspections and investigations.

(3) Any inspection or investigation may be unannounced.

(4) All documentation and written reports required by these rules must be:

(a) Open to inspection and investigation by the Department, the Department's designee, or proper authority; and

(b) Submitted to or be made available for review by the Department within the time allotted.

(5) When abuse is alleged or death of an individual has occurred and a law enforcement agency, the Department, or the Department's designee has determined to initiate an investigation, the agency may not conduct an internal investigation without prior authorization from the Department. For the purposes of this section, an "internal investigation" is defined as:

(a) Conducting interviews of the alleged victim, witness, the accused person, or any other person who may have knowledge of the facts of the abuse allegation or related circumstances;

(b) Reviewing evidence relevant to the abuse allegation, other than the initial report; or

(c) Any other actions beyond the initial actions of determining:

(A) If there is reasonable cause to believe that abuse has occurred;

(B) If the alleged victim is in danger or in need of immediate protective services;

(C) If there is reason to believe that a crime has been committed; or

(D) What, if any, immediate personnel actions must be taken to assure individual safety.

(6) The Department or the Department's designee shall conduct abuse investigations as described in OAR 407-045-0250 to 407-045-0360 and shall complete an abuse investigation and protective services report according to OAR 407-045-0320.

(7) Upon completion of the abuse investigation by the Department, the Department's designee, or a law enforcement agency, the agency may conduct an investigation without further Department approval to determine if any personnel actions are necessary.

(8) Upon completion of the abuse investigation and protective services report, according to OAR 407-045-0330, the sections of the report that are public records and not exempt from disclosure under the public records law shall be provided to the appropriate agency. The agency must implement the actions necessary within the deadlines listed, to prevent further abuse as stated in the report.

(9) The agency must submit a plan of correction to the Department for any noncompliance found during an inspection under this rule.

Agency Management and Personnel Practices

(1) NON-DISCRIMINATION. The agency must comply with all applicable state and federal statutes, rules, and regulations in regard to non-discrimination in employment policies and practices.

(2) BASIC PERSONNEL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES. The agency must have in place and implement personnel policies and procedures that address suspension, increased supervision, or other appropriate disciplinary employment procedures when a staff member or subcontractor including respite providers and volunteers has been identified as an accused person in an abuse investigation or when the allegation of abuse has been substantiated.

(3) PROHIBITION AGAINST RETALIATION. The agency or service provider may not retaliate against any staff member, subcontractor including respite providers and volunteers, or proctor providers that reports in good faith suspected abuse or retaliate against the child or adult with respect to any report. An accused person may not self-report solely for the purpose of claiming retaliation.

(a) Any community facility, community program, or person that retaliates against any person because of a report of suspected abuse or neglect shall be liable according to ORS 430.755, in a private action to that person for actual damages and, in addition, shall be subject to a penalty up to $1000, notwithstanding any other remedy provided by law.

(b) Any adverse action is evidence of retaliation if taken within 90 days of a report of abuse. For purposes of this subsection, "adverse action" means any action taken by a community facility, community program, or person involved in a report against the person making the report or against the child or adult because of the report and includes but is not limited to:

(A) Discharge or transfer from the agency, except for clinical reasons;

(B) Discharge from or termination of employment;

(C) Demotion or reduction in remuneration for services; or

(D) Restriction or prohibition of access to the agency or the individuals served by the agencies.

(4) MANDATORY ABUSE REPORTING PERSONNEL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES. All agency staff are mandatory reporters. The agency must notify all staff of mandatory reporting status at least annually on forms provided by the Department. The agency must provide all staff with a Department produced card regarding abuse reporting status and abuse reporting. For reporting purposes the following shall apply:

(a) Agencies providing services to adults must report to the CDDP where the adult resides and if there is reason to believe a crime has been committed a report must also be made to law enforcement.

(b) Agencies providing services to children must report to the Department or law enforcement in the county where the child resides.

(5) APPLICATION FOR EMPLOYMENT. An application for employment at the agency must inquire whether an applicant has had any founded reports of child abuse or substantiated abuse.

(6) BACKGROUND CHECKS. Any staff, volunteer, proctor provider, respite provider, crisis provider, advisor, skill trainer, or any subject individual defined by OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370, who has or will have contact with an individual in services must have an approved background check in accordance with OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370 and under ORS 181.534.

(a) Effective July 28, 2009, the agency may not use public funds to support, in whole or in part, a person as described above in section (6) of this rule in any capacity who has been convicted of any of the disqualifying crimes listed in OAR 407-007-0275.

(b) Subsection (6)(a) of this section does not apply to agency staff who were hired prior to July 28, 2009 and remain in the current position for which the staff member was hired.

(c) Any staff, volunteer, respite provider, advisor, skill trainer, or any subject individual defined by OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370 must self-report any potentially disqualifying condition as described in OAR 407-007-0280 and OAR 407-007-0290. The person must notify the Department or its designee within 24 hours.

(7) EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR QUALIFICATIONS. The agency must be operated under the supervision of a Director who has a minimum of a bachelor's degree and two years of experience, including supervision, in developmental disabilities, mental health, rehabilitation, social services, or a related field. Six years of experience in the identified fields may be substituted for a degree.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(8) GENERAL STAFF QUALIFICATIONS. Any staff member providing direct assistance to individuals must meet the following criteria:

- (a) Be at least 18 years of age;
- (b) Have approval to work based on current Department policy and procedures for background checks in OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370 and section (6) of this rule;
- (c) If hired on or after July 28, 2009, not have been convicted of any of the disqualifying crimes listed in OAR 407-007-0275;
- (d) Be literate and capable of understanding written and oral orders;
- (e) Be able to communicate with individuals, physicians, services coordinators, and appropriate others;
- (f) Be able to respond to emergency situations at all times; and
- (g) Have clear job responsibilities as described in a current signed and dated job description.

(9) PERSONNEL FILES AND QUALIFICATION RECORDS. The agency must maintain up-to-date written job descriptions for all staff as well as a file available to the Department or the Department's designee for inspection that includes written documentation of the following for each staff member:

- (a) Written documentation that references and qualifications were checked;
- (b) Written documentation by the Department of an approved background check as defined in OAR 407-007-0210;
- (c) Written documentation of staff notification of mandatory abuse training and reporter status prior to supervising individuals and annually thereafter;
- (d) Written documentation of any complaints filed against the staff member and the results of the complaint process, including, if any, disciplinary action;
- (e) Written documentation of any founded report of child abuse or substantiated abuse; and
- (f) Written documentation of required training and hours of training received as described in the program services rules.

(10) DISSOLUTION OF AN AGENCY. Prior to the dissolution of an agency, a representative of the governing body or owner of the agency must notify the Department 30 days in advance in writing and make appropriate arrangements for the transfer of individual's records.

Policies and Procedures

(1) INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS. The agency must have and implement written policies and procedures that protect an individual's rights that address the following:

(a) ABUSE. Individuals as defined in OAR 411-323-0020 must not be abused nor shall abuse be tolerated by any staff or volunteer of the agency.

(b) PROTECTION AND WELLBEING. The agency must ensure the health and safety of individuals from abuse including the protection of individual rights, as well as, encourage and assist individuals through the ISP process to understand and exercise these rights. Except for children under the age of 18, where reasonable limitations have been placed by a parent or guardian, these rights must at a minimum allow for:

(A) Assurance that each individual has the same civil and human rights accorded to other citizens of the same age except when limited by a court order;

(B) Adequate food, housing, clothing, medical and health care, supportive services, and training;

(C) Visits with family members, guardians, friends, advocates and others of the individual's choosing, and legal and medical professionals;

(D) Confidential communication including personal mail and telephone;

(E) Personal property and fostering of personal control and freedom regarding that property;

(F) Privacy in all matters that do not constitute a documented health and safety risk to the individual;

(G) Protection from abuse and neglect, including freedom from unauthorized training, treatment, and chemical, mechanical, or physical restraints;

(H) Freedom to choose whether or not to participate in religious activity;

(I) The opportunity to vote for individuals over the age of 18 and training in the voting process;

(J) Expression of sexuality within the framework of state and federal laws, and for adults over the age of 18, freedom to marry and to have children;

(K) Access to community resources, including recreation, agency services, employment and community inclusion services, school, educational opportunities, and health care resources;

(L) Individual choice for children and adults that allows for decision making and control of personal affairs appropriate to age;

(M) Services that promote independence, dignity, and self-esteem and reflect the age and preferences of the individual;

(N) Individual choice for adults to consent to or refuse treatment, unless incapable, and then an alternative decision maker must be allowed to consent or refuse for the individual. For children, the child's parent or guardian must be allowed to consent to or refuse treatment except as described in ORS 109.610 or limited by court order;

(O) Individual choice to participate in community activities; and

(P) Access to a free and appropriate education for children and individuals under the age of 21 including a procedure for school attendance or refusal to attend.

(2) HEALTH. The agency must have and implement policies and procedures that maintain and protect the health of individuals.

(3) INDIVIDUAL AND FAMILY INVOLVEMENT. The agency must have and implement a written policy that addresses:

(a) Opportunities for the individual to participate in decisions regarding the operations of the agency;

(b) Opportunities for families, guardians, legal representatives, and significant others of the individuals served by the agency to interact; and

(c) Opportunities for individuals, families, guardians, legal representatives, and significant others to participate on the Board or on committees or to review policies of the agency that directly affect the individuals served by the agency.

(4) CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS. The agency must have and implement written policies and procedures that ensure all individuals' records are confidential except as otherwise provided by applicable state and federal rule or laws.

(a) For the purpose of disclosure from individual medical records under this rule, an agency is considered a "public provider" as defined in ORS 179.505.

(b) For the purpose of disclosure from non-medical individual records, all or portions of the information contained in these records may be exempt from public inspection under the personal privacy information exemption to the public records law set forth in ORS 192.502.

(5) BEHAVIOR SUPPORT. The agency must have and implement a written policy for behavior support that utilizes individualized positive behavior support techniques and prohibits abusive practices.

(6) PHYSICAL INTERVENTION. The agency must have and implement written policies and procedures for physical interventions that address the following:

(a) Circumstances allowing the use of physical intervention. The agency must only employ physical intervention techniques that are included in the OIS curriculum approved by the Department or the OIS Steering Committee.

(b) Physical intervention techniques must only be applied:

(A) When the health and safety of the individual and others are at risk, and the ISP team has authorized the procedures in a documented ISP team decision that is included in the ISP and uses procedures that are intended to lead to less restrictive intervention strategies; or

(B) As an emergency measure, if absolutely necessary to protect the individual or others from immediate injury; or

(C) As a health related protection ordered by a physician, if absolutely necessary during the conduct of a specific medical or surgical procedure, or for the individual's protection during the time that a medical condition exists.

(7) HANDLING AND MANAGING INDIVIDUALS' MONEY. The agency must have written policies and procedures for the handling and management of individuals' money. Such policies and procedures must provide for:

(a) The individual to manage his or her own funds unless the ISP documents and justifies limitations to self-management;

(b) Safeguarding of an individual's funds;

(c) Individuals receiving and spending their money; and

(d) Taking into account the individual's interests and preferences.

(8) INFORMAL COMPLAINTS AND GRIEVANCES. The agency must develop and implement written policies and procedures regarding individual informal complaints and formal grievances. These policies and procedures must at minimum address:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) INFORMAL COMPLAINT RESOLUTION. An individual or someone acting on behalf of the individual must be given the opportunity to informally discuss and resolve any allegation that an agency has taken action which is contrary to law, rule, or policy and that does not meet the criteria for an abuse investigation. Choosing this opportunity does not preclude the individual or someone acting on behalf of the individual to pursue resolution through formal grievance processes.

(b) FORMAL GRIEVANCE AND GRIEVANCE LOG.

(A) The agency's formal grievance policies and procedures must include:

(i) A description of how the agency receives and documents grievances from individuals and others acting on the individuals' behalf; and

(ii) Investigation of the facts supporting or disproving the grievance.

(B) The Executive Director or designee must provide a formal written response to the grievant within 15 days of receipt of the grievance, unless the grievance is informally resolved to the grievant's satisfaction prior to that time. The formal written response of the Executive Director or designee must clearly inform the grievant of the availability of assistance in appealing the grievance and how to access that assistance.

(C) The Executive Director or designee must submit to the Department for review grievances that have not been resolved to the satisfaction of the grievant, where the Executive Director or designee believes that the grievant may not have the capability to appeal an adverse decision to the Department.

(D) Documentation of each grievance and its resolution must be filed or noted in the complainant's record. In addition, the agency must maintain a grievance log, which must, at a minimum, identify the person making the complaint, the date of the grievance, the nature of the grievance, the resolution, and the date of the resolution.

(c) If a grievance is associated in any way with abuse, the recipient of the grievance must immediately report the issue to the appropriate authority, the CDDP, the Department, and notify the Executive Director or designee.

(9) AGENCY DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. The agency must have and implement policies and procedures that address agency documentation requirements. Documentation must:

(a) Be prepared at the time, or immediately following the event being recorded;

(b) Be accurate and contain no willful falsifications;

(c) Be legible, dated, and signed by the person making the entry; and

(d) Be maintained for no less than three years.

Variations

(1) The Department may grant a variance to these rules based upon a demonstration by the agency that an alternative method or different approach provides equal or greater agency effectiveness and does not adversely impact the welfare, health, safety, or rights of individuals.

(2) The agency requesting a variance must submit, in writing, an application to the Department that contains the following:

(a) The section of the rule from which the variance is sought;

(b) The reason for the proposed variance; and

(c) The alternative practice, service, method, concept, or procedure proposed.

(3) The Department shall approve or deny the request for a variance.

(4) The Department's decision shall be sent to the agency and to all relevant Department programs or offices within 30 calendar days of the receipt of the variance request.

(5) The agency may appeal the denial of a variance request by sending a written request for review to the Administrator, whose decision is final.

(6) The Department shall determine the duration of the variance.

(7) The agency may implement a variance only after written approval from the Department.

411-325-0020

Definitions

(1) "24-Hour Residential Program" means a comprehensive residential home or facility licensed by the Department under ORS 443.410 to provide residential care and training to individuals with developmental disabilities.

(2) "Abuse" means:

(a) Abuse of a child as defined in ORS 419B.005, and for the purposes of these rules, abuse of a child also means abuse as defined in OAR 407-045-0260.

(b) Abuse of an adult as defined in OAR 407-045-0260.

(3) "Abuse Investigation and Protective Services" means reporting and investigation activities as required by OAR 407-045-0300 and any subsequent services or supports necessary to prevent further abuse as required in OAR 407-045-0310.

(4) "Administration of Medication" means the act of placing a medication in or on an individual's body by a staff member who is responsible for the individual's care.

(5) "Administrator" means the administrator of the Department, or that person's designee.

(6) "Adult" means an individual 18 years or older with developmental disabilities.

(7) "Advocate" means a person other than paid staff who has been selected by the individual or by the individual's legal representative to help the individual understand and make choices in matters relating to identification of needs and choices of services, especially when rights are at risk or have been violated.

(8) "Aid to Physical Functioning" means any special equipment prescribed for an individual by a physician, therapist, or dietician that maintains or enhances the individual's physical functioning.

(9) "Appeal" means the process under ORS chapter 183 that the licensed service provider may use to petition conditions or the suspension, denial, or revocation of their application, certificate, endorsement, or license.

(10) "Applicant" means a person, agency, corporation, or governmental unit, who applies for a license to operate a residential home or facility providing 24-hour comprehensive services to individuals with developmental disabilities.

(11) "Assessment" means an evaluation of an individual's needs.

(12) "Baseline Level of Behavior" means the frequency, duration, or intensity of a behavior, objectively measured, described, and documented prior to the implementation of an initial or revised Behavior Support Plan. This baseline measure serves as the reference point by which the ongoing efficacy of the Individual Support Plan (ISP) is to be assessed. A baseline level of behavior is reviewed and reestablished at minimum yearly, at the time of the ISP team meeting.

(13) "Behavior Data Collection System" means the methodology specified within the individual's Behavior Support Plan that directs the process for recording observations, interventions, and other support provision information critical to the analysis of the efficacy of the Behavior Support Plan.

(14) "Behavior Data Summary" means a document composed by the service provider to summarize episodes of physical intervention. The behavior data summary serves as a substitution for the requirement of individual incident reports for each episode of physical intervention.

(15) "Board of Directors" means a group of persons formed to set policy and give directions to a service provider designed to provide residential services to individuals with developmental disabilities. A board of directors includes local advisory boards used by multi-state organizations.

(16) "Care" means supportive services, including but not limited to supervision, protection, and assistance in bathing, dressing, grooming, eating, management of money, transportation, or recreation. Care also includes being aware of the individual's general whereabouts at all times and monitoring the activities of the individual to ensure the individual's health, safety, and welfare. The term "care" is synonymous with "services".

(17) "Certificate" means a document issued by the Department to a service provider that certifies the service provider is eligible under the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323 to receive state funds for the provision of endorsed 24-hour residential services.

(18) "Chemical Restraint" means the use of a psychotropic drug or other drugs for punishment or to modify behavior in place of a meaningful behavior or treatment plan.

(19) "Child" means an individual under the age of 18 that has a provisional determination of developmental disability.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(20) "Choice" means the individual's expression of preference, opportunity for, and active role in decision-making related to the selection of assessments, services, service providers, goals and activities, and verification of satisfaction with these services. Choice is communicated verbally, through sign language, or by other communication methods.

(21) "Community Developmental Disability Program (CDDP)" means an entity that is responsible for the planning and delivery of services for individuals with developmental disabilities in a specific geographic service area of the state operated by or under a contract with the Department or a local mental health authority.

(22) "Competency Based Training Plan" means a written description of a service provider's process for providing training to newly hired staff. At a minimum, the Competency Based Training Plan:

(a) Addresses health, safety, rights, values and personal regard, and the service provider's mission; and

(b) Describes competencies, training methods, timelines, how competencies of staff are determined and documented including steps for remediation, and when a competency may be waived by a service provider to accommodate a staff member's specific circumstances.

(23) "Complaint Investigation" means an investigation of any complaint that has been made to a proper authority that is not covered by an abuse investigation.

(24) "Condition" means a provision attached to a new or existing certificate, endorsement, or license that limits or restricts the scope of the certificate, endorsement, or license or imposes additional requirements on the service provider.

(25) "Crisis" means:

(a) A situation as determined by a qualified services coordinator that may result in civil court commitment under ORS 427.215 to 427.306 and for which no appropriate alternative resources are available; or

(b) Risk factors described in OAR 411-320-0160(2) are present for which no appropriate alternative resources are available.

(26) "Denial" means the refusal of the Department to issue a certificate, endorsement, or license to operate a 24-hour residential home or facility for children or adults because the Department has determined that the service provider or the home or facility is not in compliance with these rules or the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323.

(27) "Department" means the Department of Human Services (DHS).

(28) "Developmental Disability" as defined in OAR 411-320-0020.

(29) "Direct Nursing Service" means the provision of individual-specific advice, plans, or interventions, based on nursing process as outlined by the Oregon State Board of Nursing, by a nurse at the home or facility. Direct nursing service differs from administrative nursing services. Administrative nursing services include non-individual-specific services, such as quality assurance reviews, authoring health related agency policies and procedures, or providing general training for staff.

(30) "Division" means the Department of Human Services, Seniors and People with Disabilities Division (SPD).

(31) "Domestic Animals" mean any various animals domesticated so as to live and breed in a tame condition. Examples of domestic animals are dogs, cats, and domesticated farm stock.

(32) "Educational Surrogate" means a person who acts in place of a parent in safeguarding a child's rights in the special education decision-making process:

(a) When the parent cannot be identified or located after reasonable efforts;

(b) When there is reasonable cause to believe that the child has a disability and is a ward of the state; or

(c) At the request of a parent or adult student.

(33) "Endorsement" means authorization to provide 24-hour residential services issued by the Department to a certified service provider that has met the qualification criteria outlined in these rules and the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323.

(34) "Entry" means admission to a Department-funded developmental disability service. For purposes of these rules, "entry" means admission to a licensed 24-hour home or facility.

(35) "Executive Director" means the person designated by a board of directors or corporate owner that is responsible for the administration of 24-hour residential services.

(36) "Exit" means either termination from a Department-funded developmental disability service provider or transfer from one Department-funded service provider to another.

(37) "Founded Reports" means the Department's Children, Adults, and Families Division or Law Enforcement Authority (LEA) determination, based on the evidence, that there is reasonable cause to believe that conduct in violation of the child abuse statutes or rules has occurred and such conduct is attributable to the person alleged to have engaged in the conduct.

(38) "Guardian" means a parent for individuals under 18 years of age or a person or agency appointed and authorized by the courts to make decisions about services for an individual.

(39) "Health Care Provider" means a person or health care facility licensed, certified, or otherwise authorized or permitted by Oregon law to administer health care in the ordinary course of business or practice of a profession.

(40) "Health Care Representative" means:

(a) A health care representative as defined in ORS 127.505; or

(b) A person who has authority to make health care decisions for an individual under the provisions of OAR chapter 411, division 365.

(41) "Incident Report" means a written report of any injury, accident, acts of physical aggression, or unusual incident involving an individual.

(42) "Independence" means the extent to which individuals with developmental disabilities exert control and choice over their own lives.

(43) "Individual" means an adult or a child with developmental disabilities for whom services are planned and provided.

(44) "Individualized Education Plan (IEP)" means a written plan of instructional goals and objectives in conference with the teacher, parent or guardian, student, and a representative of the school district.

(45) "Individual Support Plan (ISP)" means the written details of the supports, activities, and resources required for an individual to achieve personal goals. The ISP is developed at minimum annually to reflect decisions and agreements made during a person-centered process of planning and information gathering. The ISP is the individual's Plan of Care for Medicaid purposes.

(46) "Individual Support Plan (ISP) Team" means a team composed of the individual served, agency representatives who provide service to the individual (if appropriate for in-home supports), the guardian (if any), the services coordinator, and family or other persons requested to develop the ISP.

(47) "Integration" means: the use by individuals with developmental disabilities of the same community resources used by and available to other persons in the community, including participation in community activities and having contact with persons in their community.

(48) "Legal Representative" means the parent, if the individual is under age 18, unless the court appoints another person or agency to act as guardian. For those individuals over the age of 18, a legal representative means an attorney at law who has been retained by or for the individual or a person or agency authorized by the court to make decisions about services for the individual.

(49) "Licensee" means a person or organization to whom a certificate, endorsement, and license is granted.

(50) "Majority Agreement" means for purposes of entry, exit, transfer, and annual Individual Support Plan (ISP) team meetings, that no one member of the ISP team has the authority to make decisions for the team unless so authorized by the team process. Service providers, families, community developmental disability programs, advocacy agencies, or individuals are considered as one member of the ISP team for the purpose of reaching majority agreement.

(51) "Mandatory Reporter" means any public or private official including:

(a) For the purposes of these rules, a staff or volunteer working with individuals birth to 17 years of age, and comes in contact with and has reasonable cause to believe a child has suffered abuse, or comes in contact with any person whom the official has reasonable cause to believe abused a child, regardless of whether or not the knowledge of the abuse was gained in the reporter's official capacity. Nothing contained in ORS 40.225 to 40.295 shall affect the duty to report imposed by this section, except that a psychiatrist, psychologist, clergyman, attorney, or guardian ad litem appointed under ORS 419B.231 shall not be required to report such information communicated by a person if the communication is privileged under ORS 40.225 to 40.295.

(b) For the purposes of these rules, a staff or volunteer working with adults eighteen years and older, and while acting in an official capacity, comes in contact with and has reasonable cause to believe an adult with developmental disabilities has suffered abuse, or comes in contact with any person whom the official has reasonable cause to believe abused an adult with developmental disabilities. Pursuant to ORS 430.765(2) psychiatrists, psychologists, clergy, and attorneys are not mandatory reporters with regard to information received through communications that are privileged under ORS 40.225 to 40.295.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(52) "Mechanical Restraint" means any mechanical device, material, object, or equipment that is attached or adjacent to an individual's body that the individual cannot easily remove or easily negotiate around, and that restricts freedom of movement or access to the individual's body.

(53) "Medicaid Agency Identification Number" means the numeric identifier assigned to a service provider as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370 following the service provider's enrollment to manage service delivery sites or areas within Oregon under endorsement or license from the Department.

(54) "Medicaid Performing Provider Number" means the numeric identifier assigned to an entity or person by the Department, following enrollment to deliver Medicaid funded services as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370. The Medicaid Performing Provider Number is used by the rendering service provider for identification and billing purposes associated with service authorizations and payments.

(55) "Medication" means any drug, chemical, compound, suspension, or preparation in suitable form for use as a curative or remedial substance taken either internally or externally by any person.

(56) "Modified Diet" means the texture or consistency of food or drink is altered or limited. Examples include but are not limited to no nuts or raw vegetables, thickened fluids, mechanical soft, finely chopped, pureed, or bread only soaked in milk.

(57) "Nurse" means a person who holds a current license from the Oregon Board of Nursing as a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse pursuant to ORS chapter 678.

(58) "Nursing Care Plan" means a plan of care developed by a registered nurse that describes the medical, nursing, psychosocial, and other needs of the individual and how those needs shall be met. The Nursing Care Plan includes which tasks shall be taught or delegated to the provider and staff.

(59) "Oregon Core Competencies" means:

(a) A list of skills and knowledge for newly hired staff in the areas of health, safety, rights, values and personal regard, and the service provider's mission; and

(b) The associated timelines in which newly hired staff must demonstrate competencies.

(60) "Oregon Intervention System (OIS)" means a system of providing training to people who work with designated individuals to intervene physically or non-physically to keep individuals from harming self or others. OIS is based on a proactive approach that includes methods of effective evasion, deflection, and escape from holding.

(61) "Physical Intervention" means the use of any physical action or any response to maintain the health and safety of an individual or others during a potentially dangerous situation or event.

(62) "Physical Restraint" means any manual physical holding of or contact with an individual that restricts the individual's freedom of movement.

(63) "Prescription Medication" means any medication that requires a physician prescription before it may be obtained from a pharmacist.

(64) "Productivity" as defined in ORS 427.005 means:

(a) Engagement in income-producing work by an individual with developmental disabilities that is measured through improvements in income level, employment status, or job advancement; or

(b) Engagement by an individual with developmental disabilities in work contributing to a household or community.

(65) "Protection" and "Protective Services" means necessary actions taken as soon as possible to prevent subsequent abuse or exploitation of the individual, to prevent self-destructive acts, and to safeguard an individual's person, property, and funds.

(66) "Psychotropic Medication" means medication the prescribed intent of which is to affect or alter thought processes, mood, or behavior including but not limited to anti-psychotic, antidepressant, anxiolytic (anti-anxiety), and behavior medications. The classification of a medication depends upon its stated, intended effect when prescribed.

(67) "Respite" means intermittent services provided on a periodic basis, but not more than 14 consecutive days, for the relief of, or due to the temporary absence of, persons normally providing the supports to individuals unable to care for themselves.

(68) "Revocation" means the action taken by the Department to rescind a certificate, endorsement, or 24-hour home or facility license after the Department has determined that the service provider is not in compliance with these rules or the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323.

(69) "Self-Administration of Medication" means the individual manages and takes his or her own medication, identifies his or her own medication and the times and methods of administration, places the medication internally in or externally on his or her own body without staff assistance upon written order of a physician, and safely maintains the medication without supervision.

(70) "Service Provider" means a public or private community agency or organization that provides recognized developmental disability services and is certified and endorsed by the Department to provide these services under these rules and the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323. For the purpose of these rules, "agency", "provider", "program", "applicant", or "licensee" is synonymous with "service provider."

(71) "Services Coordinator" means an employee of the community developmental disability program or other agency that contracts with the county or Department, who is selected to plan, procure, coordinate, and monitor Individual Support Plan services, and to act as a proponent for individuals with developmental disabilities.

(72) "Significant Other" means a person selected by the individual to be the individual's friend.

(73) "Specialized Diet" means that the amount, type of ingredients, or selection of food or drink items is limited, restricted, or otherwise regulated under a physician's order. Examples include but are not limited to low calorie, high fiber, diabetic, low salt, lactose free, or low fat diets. A specialized diet does not include a diet where extra or additional food is offered without physician's orders but may not be eaten, for example, offer prunes each morning at breakfast or include fresh fruit with each meal.

(74) "Staff" means paid employees responsible for providing services to individuals and whose wages are paid in part or in full with funds sub-contracted with the community developmental disability program or contracted directly through the Department.

(75) "Substantiated" means an abuse investigation has been completed by the Department or the Department's designee and the preponderance of the evidence establishes the abuse occurred.

(76) "Support" means assistance that individuals require, solely because of the affects of developmental disability, to maintain or increase independence, achieve community presence and participation, and improve productivity. Support is subject to change with time and circumstances.

(77) "Suspension" means an immediate temporary withdrawal of the approval to operate 24-hour residential services after the Department determines that the service provider or 24-hour home or facility is not in compliance with one or more of these rules or the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323.

(78) "These Rules" mean the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 325.

(79) "Transfer" means movement of an individual from one home or facility to another home or facility within the same county, administered by the same service provider.

(80) "Transition Plan" means a written plan for the period of time between an individual's entry into a particular service and when the individual's Individual Support Plan (ISP) is developed and approved by the ISP team. The Transition Plan includes a summary of the services necessary to facilitate adjustment to the services offered, the supports necessary to ensure health and safety, and the assessments and consultations necessary for ISP development.

(81) "Unusual Incident" means incidents involving serious illness or accidents, death of an individual, injury or illness of an individual requiring inpatient or emergency hospitalization, suicide attempts, a fire requiring the services of a fire department, or any incident requiring abuse investigation.

(82) "Variance" means a temporary exception from a regulation or provision of these rules or the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323 that may be granted by the Department upon written application by the service provider.

(83) "Volunteer" means any person assisting a service provider without pay to support the services provided to individuals.

Program Management

(1) CERTIFICATION, ENDORSEMENT, AND ENROLLMENT. To provide 24-hour residential services, a service provider must have:

(a) A certificate and an endorsement to provide 24-hour residential services as set forth in OAR chapter 411, division 323;

(b) A Medicaid Agency Identification Number assigned by the Department as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370; and

(c) For each specific geographic service area where 24-hour residential services shall be delivered, a Medicaid Performing Provider Number assigned by the Department as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) INSPECTIONS AND INVESTIGATIONS. The service provider must allow inspections and investigations as described in OAR 411-323-0040.

(3) AGENCY MANAGEMENT AND PERSONNEL PRACTICES. The service provider must comply with the agency management and personnel practices as described in OAR 411-323-0050.

(4) COMPETENCY BASED TRAINING PLAN. The service provider must have and implement a Competency Based Training Plan that meets, at a minimum, the competencies and timelines set forth in the Department's Oregon Core Competencies.

(5) GENERAL STAFF QUALIFICATIONS. Any staff member providing direct assistance to individuals must:

(a) Have knowledge of individuals' ISP's and all medical, behavioral, and additional supports required for the individuals; and

(b) Have met the basic qualifications in the service provider's Competency Based Training Plan.

(6) PERSONNEL FILES AND QUALIFICATION RECORDS. The service provider must maintain the following for each staff member in a file available to the Department or the Department's designee for inspection:

(a) Written documentation kept current that the staff member has demonstrated competency in areas identified by the service provider's Competency Based Training Plan as required by section (4) of this rule, and that is appropriate to their job description;

(b) Written documentation of 12 hours of job-related in-service training annually; and

(c) Documentation that the staff member has been certified in CPR and First Aid by a recognized training agency within three months of employment and that certification is kept current.

(7) CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS. The service provider must ensure all individuals' records are confidential as described in OAR 411-323-0060.

(8) DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. All entries required by these rules, unless stated otherwise must:

(a) Be prepared at the time, or immediately following the event being recorded;

(b) Be accurate and contain no willful falsifications;

(c) Be legible, dated, and signed by the person making the entry; and

(d) Be maintained for no less than three years.

Conditions on License

The Department may attach conditions to the license that limit, restrict, or specify other criteria for operation of the home or facility. The type of condition attached to a license shall directly relate to a risk of harm or potential risk of harm to individuals.

(1) The Department may attach a condition to a license upon a finding that:

(a) Information on the application or initial inspection requires a condition to protect the health, safety, or welfare of individuals;

(b) A threat to the health, safety, or welfare of an individual exists;

(c) There is reliable evidence of abuse, neglect, or exploitation;

(d) The home or facility is not being operated in compliance with these rules; or

(e) The service provider is licensed to provide services for a specific person only and further placements may not be made into that home or facility.

(2) Conditions that the Department may impose on a license include but are not limited to:

(a) Restricting the total number of individuals that may be served;

(b) Restricting the number and support level of individuals allowed within a licensed classification level based upon the capacity of the service provider and staff to meet the health and safety needs of all individuals;

(c) Reclassifying the level of individuals that may be served;

(d) Requiring additional staff or staff qualifications;

(e) Requiring additional training;

(f) Restricting the service provider from allowing persons on the premises who may be a threat to an individual's health, safety, or welfare;

(g) Requiring additional documentation; or

(h) Restriction of admissions.

(3) The Department shall notify the service provider in writing of any conditions imposed, the reason for the conditions, and the opportunity to request a hearing under ORS chapter 183. Conditions take effect immediately upon issuance of the notice, or at such later date as indicated on the notice, and shall continue until removed by the Department.

(4) The service provider may request a contested case hearing in accordance with ORS chapter 183 and this rule upon written notice from the Department of the imposition of conditions.

(a) The service provider must request a hearing within 21 days of receipt of the Department's written notice of conditions.

(b) In addition to, or in lieu of a hearing, a service provider may request an administrative review as described in section (5) of this rule. The administrative review does not diminish the service provider's right to a hearing.

(5) ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.

(a) A service provider, in addition to the right to a contested case hearing, may request an administrative review by the Department's Administrator or designee for imposition of conditions.

(b) The request for administrative review must be received by the Department within 10 days from the date of the Department's notice of imposition of conditions. The service provider may submit, along with the request for administrative review, any additional written materials the service provider wishes to have considered during the administrative review.

(c) The Department shall conduct the administrative review and issue a decision within 10 days from the date of receipt of the request for administrative review, or by a later date as agreed to by the service provider.

(d) If the decision of the Department is to affirm the condition, the service provider may appeal the decision to a contested case hearing as long as the request for a contested case hearing was received by the Department within 21 days of the original written notice of imposition of conditions.

(6) The service provider may send a written request to the Department to remove a condition if the service provider believes the situation that warranted the condition has been remedied.

Mid-Cycle Review

(1) Mid-Cycle Review Process. The Department may conduct a mid-cycle monitoring review of the home or facility nine to fifteen months after renewal of the provider's license under the following circumstances:

(a) Failure by the provider to successfully complete licensing renewal as evidenced by two or more follow-up reviews; or

(b) Failure by the provider to successfully complete plans of correction for protective service investigations; or

(c) Upon the request of the CDDP or other Department designee, or provider.

(2) Self-Assessment Required. As part of the mid-cycle process the provider must conduct a self-assessment based upon the requirements of this rule.

(a) The provider must document the findings of the self-assessment on forms provided by the Department;

(b) The provider must develop and implement a plan of correction based upon the findings of the self-assessment; and

(c) The provider must submit the self-assessment to the local CDDP with a copy to the Department 30 days prior to the mid-cycle review.

(3) Compliance with OAR 411-325-0010 – 411-325-0480. The review will be conducted for compliance with OAR 411-325-0010 – 411-325-0480, and at the discretion of the Department the review may be announced or unannounced.

Inspections and Investigations

(1) All services covered by these rules must allow the following types of investigations and inspections:

(a) Quality assurance, license renewal, and onsite inspections;

(b) Complaint investigations; and

(c) Abuse investigations.

(2) The Department, the Department's designee, or proper authority shall perform all inspections and investigations.

(3) Any inspection or investigation may be unannounced.

(4) All documentation and written reports required by these rules must be:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) Open to inspection and investigation by the Department, the Department's designee, or proper authority; and

(b) Submitted to or be made available for review by the Department within the time allotted.

(5) When abuse is alleged or death of an individual has occurred and a law enforcement agency, or the Department or the Department's designee has determined to initiate an investigation, the provider may not conduct an internal investigation. For the purposes of this section, an internal investigation is defined as:

(a) Conducting interviews of the alleged victim, witness, the accused person, or any other person who may have knowledge of the facts of the abuse allegation or related circumstances;

(b) Reviewing evidence relevant to the abuse allegation, other than the initial report; or

(c) Any other actions beyond the initial actions of determining:

(A) If there is reasonable cause to believe that abuse has occurred;

(B) If the alleged victim is in danger or in need of immediate protective services;

(C) If there is reason to believe that a crime has been committed; or

(D) What, if any, immediate personnel actions must be taken to assure individual safety.

(6) When an abuse investigation has been initiated, the Department or the Department's designee shall provide notification in accordance with OAR chapter 407, division 045.

(7) The Department or the Department's designee shall conduct investigations as described in OAR chapter 407, division 045.

(8) When an abuse investigation has been completed, the Department or the Department's designee shall provide notice of the Abuse Investigation and Protective Services Report according to OAR chapter 407, division 045.

(9) Upon completion of the abuse investigation by the Department, the Department's designee, or a law enforcement agency, the provider may conduct an investigation to determine if any personnel actions are necessary.

(10) Upon completion of the Abuse Investigation and Protective Service Report, according to OAR chapter 407, division 045 the sections of the report that are public records and not exempt from disclosure under the public records law shall be provided to the appropriate provider. The provider must implement the actions necessary within the deadlines listed, to prevent further abuse as stated in the report.

(11) A plan of correction must be submitted to the CDDP and the Division for any noncompliance found during an inspection under this rule.

Program Management and Personnel Practices

(1) NON-DISCRIMINATION. The program must comply with all applicable state and federal statutes, rules, and regulations in regard to non-discrimination in employment practices.

(2) BASIC PERSONNEL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES. The program must have in place and implement personnel policies and procedures that address suspension, increased supervision, or other appropriate disciplinary employment procedures when a staff member has been identified as an accused person in an abuse investigation or when the allegation of abuse has been substantiated.

(3) PROHIBITION AGAINST RETALIATION. The program or service provider may not retaliate against any staff that reports in good faith suspected abuse or retaliate against the child or adult with respect to any report. An accused person may not self-report solely for the purpose of claiming retaliation.

(a) Any community facility, community program or person that retaliates against any person because of a report of suspected abuse or neglect shall be liable according to ORS 430.755, in a private action to that person for actual damages and, in addition, shall be subject to a penalty up to $1000, notwithstanding any other remedy provided by law.

(b) Any adverse action is evidence of retaliation if taken within 90 days of a report of abuse. For purposes of this subsection, "adverse action" means any action taken by a community facility, community program or person involved in a report against the person making the report or against the child or adult because of the report and includes but is not limited to:

(A) Discharge or transfer from the program, except for clinical reasons;

(B) Discharge from or termination of employment;

(C) Demotion or reduction in remuneration for services; or

(D) Restriction or prohibition of access to the program or the individuals served by the program.

(4) COMPETENCY BASED TRAINING PLAN. The program must have and implement a Competency Based Training Plan that meets, at a minimum, the competencies and timelines set forth in the Division's Oregon Core Competencies.

(5) MANDATORY ABUSE REPORTING PERSONNEL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES. Any employee of a program is a mandatory reporter. Notification of mandatory reporting status must be made at least annually to all employees on forms provided by the Department. All employees shall be provided with a Department produced card regarding abuse reporting status and abuse reporting. For reporting purposes the following shall apply:

(a) Programs providing services to adults must report to the CDDP where the adult resides and if there is reason to believe a crime has been committed a report must also be made to law enforcement.

(b) Programs providing services to children must report to the Department or law enforcement in the county where the child resides.

(6) APPLICATION FOR EMPLOYMENT. An application for employment at the program must inquire whether an applicant has had any founded reports of child abuse or substantiated abuse.

(7) CRIMINAL RECORDS CHECKS. Any employee, volunteer, respite provider, advisor, skill trainer, or any subject individual defined by OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370, who has or will have contact with a resident of the program, must have an approved criminal records check in accordance with OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370 and under ORS 181.534.

(a) Effective July 28, 2009, the program may not use public funds to support, in whole or in part, a person as described in section (7) of this rule in any capacity who has been convicted of any of the disqualifying crimes listed in OAR 407-007-0275.

(b) Section (7)(a) of this rule does not apply to employees of the service provider who were hired prior to July 28, 2009 and remain in the current position for which the employee was hired.

(c) Any staff, volunteer, respite provider, advisor, skill trainer, or any subject individual defined by OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370 must self-report any potentially disqualifying condition as described in OAR 407-007-0280 and OAR 407-007-0290. The person must notify the Department or its designee within 24 hours.

(8) DIRECTOR QUALIFICATIONS. The program must be operated under the supervision of a Director who has a minimum of a bachelor's degree and two years of experience, including supervision, in developmental disabilities, mental health, rehabilitation, social services, or a related field. Six years of experience in the identified fields may be substituted for a degree.

(9) GENERAL STAFF QUALIFICATIONS. Any employee providing direct assistance to individuals must meet the following criteria:

(a) Be at least 18 years of age;

(b) Have approval to work based on current Department policy and procedures for review of criminal records in OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370 and section (7) of this rule;

(c) If hired on or after July 28, 2009, not have been convicted of any of the disqualifying crimes listed in OAR 407-007-0275;

(d) Be literate and capable of understanding written and oral orders;

(e) Be able to communicate with individuals, physicians, services coordinators, and appropriate others;

(f) Be able to respond to emergency situations at all times;

(g) Have clear job responsibilities as described in a current signed and dated job description;

(h) Have knowledge of individuals' ISP's and all medical, behavioral, and additional supports required for the individuals; and

(i) Have met the basic qualifications in the program's Competency Based Training Plan.

(10) PERSONNEL FILES AND QUALIFICATIONS RECORDS. The program must maintain up-to-date written job descriptions for all employees as well as a file available to the Department or CDDP for inspection that includes written documentation of the following for each employee:

(a) Written documentation that references and qualifications were checked;

(b) Written documentation of an approved criminal records check by the Department;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) Written documentation of employees' notification of mandatory abuse training and reporter status prior to supervising individuals and annually thereafter;

(d) Written documentation of any founded report of child abuse or substantiated abuse;

(e) Written documentation kept current that the staff person has demonstrated competency in areas identified by the provider's Competency Based Training Plan as required by section (4) of this rule, and that is appropriate to their job description; and

(f) Written documentation of 12 hours job-related in-service training annually including documentation of training in CPR and first aid certification.

(11) PROGRAM DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. All entries required by these rules must:

(a) Be prepared at the time, or immediately following the event being recorded;

(b) Be accurate and contain no willful falsifications;

(c) Be legible, dated, and signed by the person making the entry; and

(d) Be maintained for no less than three years.

(12) DISSOLUTION OF PROGRAM. Prior to the dissolution of a program, a representative of the governing body or owner of the program must notify the Division 30 days in advance in writing and make appropriate arrangements for the transfer of individual's records.

Conditions

(1) Circumstances under which conditions may be applied to a license. Conditions may be attached to a license upon a finding that:

(a) Information on the application or initial inspection requires a condition to protect the health and safety of individuals;

(b) There exists a threat to the health, safety, and welfare of an individual;

(c) There is reliable evidence of abuse, neglect, or exploitation;

(d) The home/facility is not being operated in compliance with these rules; or

(e) The provider is licensed to care for a specific person(s) only and further placements must not be made into that home or facility.

(2) Imposing conditions. Conditions that may be imposed on a licensee include:

(a) Restricting the total number of individuals that can be served;

(b) Restricting the number and support level of individuals allowed within a licensed classification level based upon the capacity of the provider and staff to meet the health and safety needs of all individuals;

(c) Reclassifying the level of individuals that can be served;

(d) Requiring additional staff or staff qualifications;

(e) Requiring additional training of provider/staff;

(f) Requiring additional documentation; or

(g) Restriction of admissions.

(3) Written notification. The provider will be notified in writing of any conditions imposed, the reason for the conditions, and be given an opportunity to request a hearing under ORS Chapter 183.310 to 183.550.

(4) Administrative review. In addition to, or in lieu of, a contested case hearing, a provider may request a review by the Administrator or designee of conditions imposed by the Department. The review does not diminish the provider's right to a hearing.

(5) Length of conditions. Conditions may be imposed for the extent of the licensure period (two years) or limited to some other shorter period of time. If the condition corresponds to the licensing period, the reasons for the condition will be considered at the time of renewal to determine if the conditions are still appropriate. The effective date and expiration date of the condition will be indicated on an attachment to the license.

Civil Penalties

(1) Long-term care facility statute applicable. For purposes of imposing civil penalties, 24-Hour residential homes and facilities licensed under ORS 443.440 to 443.455 and subsection (2) of 443.991 are considered to be long-term care facilities subject to ORS 441.705 to 441.745.

(2) Schedule and sections of rule subject to civil penalties. The Department will exercise the powers under ORS 441.705 to 441.745 and thereby issues the following schedule of penalties applicable to 24-hour residential homes and facilities:

(a) Violations of any requirement within any part of the following sections of the rule may result in a civil penalty up to $500 per day for each violation not to exceed $6,000 for all violations for any licensed 24-hour residential home or facility within a 90-day period:

(A) 411-325-0025(3), (4), (5), (6), (7) and (8);

(B) 411-325-0120(2), and (11);

(C) 411-325-0130;

(D) 411-325-0140;

(E) 411-325-0150;

(F) 411-325-0170;

(G) 411-325-0190;

(H) 411-325-0200;

(I) 411-325-0220(1), and (2);

(J) 411-325-0230;

(K) 411-325-0240, 0250, 0260, 0270, 0280, and 0290;

(L) 411-325-0300, 0320, 0330, 0340, and 0350;

(M) 411-325-0360;

(N) 411-325-0380;

(O) 411-325-0430(3), (4), and (5); and

(P) 411-325-0440.

(b) Civil penalties of up to $300 per day per violation may be imposed for violations of any section of this rule not listed in (2)(a) (A)–(N) of this section if a violation has been cited on two consecutive inspections or surveys of a 24-hour residential home or facility where such surveys are conducted by an employee of the Department. Penalties assessed under this section will not exceed $6,000 within a 90-day period.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(3) Monitoring defined. For purposes of this rule, a monitoring occurs when a 24-hour residential home or facility is surveyed, inspected or investigated by an employee or designee of the Department or an employee or designee of the Office of State Fire Marshal.

(4) Consideration of factors when imposing civil penalties. In imposing a civil penalty pursuant to the schedule published in section (2) of this rule, the Department will consider the following factors:

(a) The past history of the program incurring a penalty in taking all feasible steps or procedures necessary or appropriate to correct any violation;

(b) Any prior violations of statutes or rules pertaining to 24-hour residential homes or facilities;

(c) The economic and financial conditions of the program incurring the penalty; and

(d) The immediacy and extent to which the violation threatens or threatened the health, safety and well-being of individuals.

(5) Due and payable. Any civil penalty imposed under ORS 443.455 and 441.710 will become due and payable when the program incurring the penalty receives a notice in writing from the Administrator or designee. The notice referred to in this section will be sent by registered or certified mail and will include:

(a) A reference to the particular sections of the statute, rule, standard, or order involved;

(b) A short and plain statement of the matters asserted or charged;

(c) A statement of the amount of the penalty or penalties imposed; and

(d) A statement of the program's right to request a hearing.

(6) Timeline to make written application for a hearing. The person representing the program, to whom the notice is addressed, will have 20 days from the date of mailing of the notice in which to make a written application for a hearing before the Department.

(7) Conduct of hearing. All hearings will be conducted pursuant to the applicable provisions of ORS Chapter 183.

(8) Failure to request a hearing within 20 days. If the program notified fails to request a hearing within 20 days, an order may be entered by the Department assessing a civil penalty.

(9) Program is found to be in violation of a license, rule, or order listed in ORS 441.701(1). If, after a hearing, the program is found to be in violation of a license, rule, or order listed in ORS 441.710(1), an order may be entered by the Department assessing a civil penalty.

(10) Remittance or reduction of a civil penalty. A civil penalty imposed under ORS 443.455 or 441.710 may be remitted or reduced upon such terms and conditions as the Administrator considers proper and consistent with individual health and safety.

(11) Civil penalty payable within 10 days after order is entered. If the order is not appealed, the amount of the penalty is payable within 10 days after the order is entered. If the order is appealed and is sustained, the amount of the penalty is payable within 10 days after the court decision. The order, if not appealed or sustained on appeal, will constitute a judgment and may be filed in accordance with the provisions of ORS 18.320 to 18.370. Execution may be issued upon the order in the same manner as execution upon a judgment of a court of record.

(12) Violation of any general order or final order. A violation of any general order or final order pertaining to a 24-hour residential home or facility issued by the Department is subject to a civil penalty in the amount of not less than $5 and not more than $500 for each and every violation.

(13) Judicial review of civil penalties. Judicial review of civil penalties imposed under ORS 441.710 will be provided under ORS 183.480, except that the court may, in its discretion, reduce the amount of the penalty.

(14) Penalties recovered. All penalties recovered under ORS 443.455 and 441.710 to 441.740 will be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the General Fund.

(7) "Annual Individual Support Plan (ISP) Meeting" means an annual meeting, facilitated by a services coordinator of the community developmental disability program and attended by the individual served, agency representatives who provide service to the individual, the individual's guardian, if any, relatives of the individual, or other persons, such as an advocate, as appropriate. The purpose of the meeting is to determine needs, coordinate services and training, and develop an ISP.

(8) "Board of Directors" mean a group of persons formed to set policy and give directions to a service provider designed to provide residential services to individuals with developmental disabilities. A board of directors includes local advisory boards used by multi-state organizations.

(9) "Certificate" means a document issued by the Department to a service provider that certifies the service provider is eligible under the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323 to receive state funds for the provision of endorsed supported living services.

(10) "Choice" means the individual's expression of preference, opportunity for, and active role in decision-making related to the selection of assessments, services, service providers, goals and activities, and verification of satisfaction with these services. Choice is communicated verbally, through sign language, or by other communication methods.

(11) "Community Developmental Disability Program (CDDP)" means an entity that is responsible for the planning and delivery of services for individuals with developmental disabilities in a specific geographic service area of the state operated by or under a contract with the Department or a local mental health authority.

(12) "Complaint Investigation" means an investigation of any complaint that has been made to a proper authority that is not covered by an abuse investigation.

(13) "Controlled Substance" means any drug classified as Schedules 1 through 5 under the Federal Controlled Substance Act.

(14) "Department" means the Department of Human Services (DHS).

(15) "Developmental Disability" as defined in OAR 411-320-0020.

(16) "Division" means the Department of Human Services, Seniors and People with Disabilities Division (SPD).

(17) "Endorsement" means authorization to provide supported living services issued by the Department to a certified service provider that has met the qualification criteria outlined in these rules and the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323.

(18) "Entry" means the admission to a Department-funded developmental disability service.

(19) "Executive Director" means the person designated by a board of directors or corporate owner that is responsible for the administration of supported living services.

(20) "Exit" means either termination from a Department-funded developmental disability service provider or transfer from one Department-funded service provider to another.

(21) "Founded Reports" means the Department's Children, Adults, and Families Division or Law Enforcement Authority (LEA) determination, based on the evidence, that there is reasonable cause to believe that conduct in violation of the child abuse statutes or rules has occurred and such conduct is attributable to the person alleged to have engaged in the conduct.

(22) "Health Care Provider" means a person or health care facility licensed, certified, or otherwise authorized or permitted by Oregon law to administer health care in the ordinary course of business or practice of a profession.

(23) "Incident Report" means a written report of any injury, accident, acts of physical aggression, or unusual incident involving an individual.

(24) "Independence" means the extent to which individuals with developmental disabilities exert control and choice over their own lives.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(25) "Individual" means a person with developmental disabilities for whom services are planned and provided.

(26) "Individual Profile" means a written profile that describes the individual entering into supported living. The profile consists of materials or assessments generated by the service provider or other related agencies, consultants, family members, or advocates.

(27) "Individual Support Plan (ISP)" means the written details of the supports, activities, and resources required for an individual to achieve personal goals. The ISP is developed at minimum annually to reflect decisions and agreements made during a person-centered process of planning and information gathering. The ISP is the individual's Plan of Care for Medicaid purposes.

(28) "Individual Support Plan (ISP) Team" means a team composed of the individual served, agency representatives who provide service to the individual (if appropriate for in-home supports), the guardian (if any), the services coordinator, and family or other persons requested to develop the ISP.

(29) "Integration" means the use by individuals with developmental disabilities of the same community resources used by and available to other persons in the community, including participation in community activities and having contact with persons in their community.

(30) "Legal Representative" means the parent, if the individual is under age 18, unless the court appoints another person or agency to act as guardian. For those individuals over the age of 18, a legal representative means an attorney at law who has been retained by or for the individual or a person or agency authorized by the court to make decisions about services for the individual.

(31) "Mandatory Reporter" means any public or private official including for the purpose of these rules, a staff member or volunteer working with adults eighteen years and older, and while acting in an official capacity, comes in contact with and has reasonable cause to believe an adult with developmental disabilities has suffered abuse, or comes in contact with any person whom the official has reasonable cause to believe abused an adult with developmental disabilities. Pursuant to ORS 430.765(2) psychiatrists, psychologists, clergy, and attorneys are not mandatory reporters with regard to information received through communications that are privileged under ORS 40.225 to 40.295.

(32) "Medicaid Agency Identification Number" means the numeric identifier assigned to a service provider as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370 following the service provider's enrollment to manage service delivery sites or areas within Oregon under endorsement or license from the Department.

(33) "Medicaid Performing Provider Number" means the numeric identifier assigned to an entity or person by the Department, following enrollment to deliver Medicaid funded services as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370. The Medicaid Performing Provider Number is used by the rendering service provider for identification and billing purposes associated with service authorizations and payments.

(34) "Medication" means any drug, chemical, compound, suspension, or preparation in suitable form for use as a curative or remedial substance taken either internally or externally by any person.

(35) "Needs Meeting" means a process in which the Individual Support Plan team defines the supports an individual needs to live in his or her own home, and makes a determination as to the feasibility of creating such services. The information generated in this meeting or discussion is used by the service provider to develop the individual's Transition Plan.

(36) "Personal Futures Planning" means an optional planning process for describing a desirable future for an individual with developmental disabilities. The planning process generally occurs around major life transitions (e.g. moving into a new home, graduation from high school, marriage, etc.). Personal futures planning helps determine activities, supports, and resources that best create a desirable future for the individual.

(37) "Physical Restraint" means any manual physical holding of or contact with an individual that restricts the individual's freedom of movement.

(38) "Prescription Medication" means any medication that requires a physician prescription before it may be obtained from a pharmacist.

(39) "Protection" and "Protective Services" means necessary actions taken as soon as possible to prevent subsequent abuse or exploitation of the individual, to prevent self-destructive acts, and to safeguard an individual's person, property, and funds.

(40) "Psychotropic Medication" means medication the prescribed intent of which is to affect or alter thought processes, mood, or behavior including but not limited to anti-psychotic, antidepressant, anxiolytic (anti-anxiety), and behavior medications. The classification of a medication depends upon its stated, intended effect when prescribed.

(41) "Self-Administration of Medication" means the individual manages and takes his or her own medication, identifies his or her own medication and the times and methods of administration, places the medication internally in or externally on his or her own body without staff assistance upon written order of a physician, and safely maintains the medication without supervision.

(42) "Service Provider" means a public or private community agency or organization that provides recognized developmental disability services and is certified and endorsed by the Department to provide these services under these rules and the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323. For the purpose of these rules, "agency" or "program" is synonymous with "service provider."

(43) "Services Coordinator" means an employee of the community developmental disability program or other agency that contracts with the county or Department, who is selected to plan, procure, coordinate, and monitor Individual Support Plan services, and to act as a proponent for individuals with developmental disabilities.

(44) "Significant Other" means a person selected by the individual to be the individual's friend.

(45) "Staff" means paid employees responsible for providing services to individuals and whose wages are paid in part or in full with funds subcontracted with the community developmental disability program or contracted directly through the Department.

(46) "Substantiated" means an abuse investigation has been completed by the Department or the Department's designee and the preponderance of the evidence establishes the abuse occurred.

(47) "Support" means assistance that individuals require, solely because of the affects of developmental disability, to maintain or increase independence, achieve community presence and participation, and improve productivity. Support is subject to change with time and circumstances.

(48) "Supported Living" means the endorsed service that provides the opportunity for individuals with developmental disabilities to live in a residence of their own choice within the community. Supported living is not grounded in the concept of "readiness" or in a "continuum of services model" but rather provides the opportunity for individuals to live where they want, with whom they want, for as long as they desire, with a recognition that needs and desires may change over time.

(49) "These Rules" mean the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 328.

(50) "Transfer" means movement of an individual from one type of service to another within the same county, administered by the same service provider.

(51) "Transition Plan" means a written plan for the period of time between an individual's entry into a particular service and when the individual's Individual Support Plan (ISP) is developed and approved by the ISP team. The Transition Plan includes a summary of the services necessary to facilitate adjustment to the services offered, the supports necessary to ensure health and safety, and the assessments and consultations necessary for ISP development.

(52) "Unusual Incident" means incidents involving serious illness or accidents, death of an individual, injury or illness of an individual requiring inpatient or emergency hospitalization, suicide attempts, a fire requiring the services of a fire department, or any incident requiring an abuse investigation.

(53) "Variance" means a temporary exception from a regulation or provision of these rules or the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323 that may be granted by the Department upon written application by the service provider.

(54) "Volunteer" means any person assisting a service provider without pay to support the services provided to individuals.

Application for Initial Certificate and Certificate Renewal

(1) Form. The application shall be on a form provided by the Division and shall include all information requested by the Division.

(2) Initial application. The applicant shall identify the number of individuals to be served.

(3) Renewal application. To renew certification, the service provider shall make application at least 30 days but not more than 120 days prior to the expiration date of the existing certificate. On renewal, no increase in the number of individuals to be served shall be certified unless specifically approved by the Division.

(4) Renewal application extends expiration date. Filing of an application for renewal at least 30 days but not more than 120 days prior to the expiration date of the existing certificate extends the effective date until the Division or its designee takes action upon such application.

(5) Incomplete or incorrect information. Failure to disclose requested information on the application or provision of incomplete or incorrect information on the application may result in denial, revocation or refusal to renew the certificate.

(6) Demonstrated capability. Prior to issuance or renewal of the certificate the applicant must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Division that the applicant is capable of providing services identified in a manner consistent with the requirements of these rules.

(7) Separate certificates. Separate certificates are required when the service provider delivers services in multiple counties to the extent that contracts with each different county are required.

Inspections and Investigations

(1) All services covered by these rules must allow the following types of investigations and inspections:

(a) Quality assurance, certificate renewal, and onsite inspections;

(b) Complaint investigations; and

(c) Abuse investigations.

(2) The Department, the Department's designee, or proper authority shall perform all inspections and investigations.

(3) Any inspection or investigation may be unannounced.

(4) All documentation and written reports required by these rules must be:

(a) Open to inspection and investigation by the Department, the Department's designee, or proper authority; and

(b) Submitted to or be made available for review by the Department within the time allotted.

(5) When abuse is alleged or death of an individual has occurred and a law enforcement agency, or the Department or the Department's designee has determined to initiate an investigation, the service provider may not conduct an internal investigation without prior authorization from the Department. For the purposes of this section, an internal investigation is defined as:

(a) Conducting interviews of the alleged victim, witness, the accused person, or any other person who may have knowledge of the facts of the abuse allegation or related circumstances;

(b) Reviewing evidence relevant to the abuse allegation, other than the initial report; or

(c) Any other actions beyond the initial actions of determining:

(A) If there is reasonable cause to believe that abuse has occurred;

(B) If the alleged victim is in danger or in need of immediate protective services;

(C) If there is reason to believe that a crime has been committed; or

(D) What, if any, immediate personnel actions must be taken to assure individual safety.

(6) When an abuse investigation has been initiated, the Department or the Department's designee shall provide notification in accordance with OAR 407-045-0290.

(7) The Department or the Department's designee shall conduct investigations as described in OAR 407-045-0250 to OAR 407-045-0360.

(8) When an abuse investigation has been completed, the Department or the Department's designee shall provide notice of the Abuse Investigation and Protective Services Report according to OAR 407-045-0320.

(9) Upon completion of the abuse investigation by the Department, the Department's designee, or a law enforcement agency, the service provider may conduct an investigation to determine if any other personnel actions are necessary.

(10) Upon completion of the Abuse Investigation and Protective Services Report, according to OAR 407-045-0330 the sections of the report that are public records and not exempt from disclosure under the public records law shall be provided to the appropriate service provider. The service provider must implement the actions necessary within the deadlines listed, to prevent further abuse as stated in the report.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(11) A plan of improvement must be submitted to the CDDP and the Division for any noncompliance found during an inspection under this rule.

Health: Medical Services

(1) All individuals' medical records must be kept confidential as described in OAR 411-323-0060.

(2) Individuals must receive sufficient oversight and guidance by the service provider to ensure that the individual's health and medical needs are adequately addressed.

(3) Written health and medical supports must be developed as required by the individual's ISP team and integrated into the Transition Plan or ISP. The Plan must be based on a review or identification of the individual's health and medically related support needs and preferences, and updated annually or as significant changes occur.

(4) The service provider must have and implement written policies and procedures that maintain and improve the physical health of individuals. Policies and procedures must address:

- (a) Early detection and prevention of infectious disease;
- (b) Emergency medical intervention;
- (c) Treatment and documentation of illness and health care concerns;

and

(d) Obtaining, administering, storing, and disposing of prescription and non-prescription drugs including self administration.

(5) The service provider must ensure each individual has a primary physician whom the individual has chosen from among qualified providers.

(6) Provisions must be made for a secondary physician or clinic in the event of an emergency.

(7) The service provider must ensure that individuals have a medical evaluation by a physician no less often than every two years or as recommended by a physician. Evidence of the evaluation must be placed in the individual's record and must address:

- (a) Current health status;
- (b) Changes in health status;
- (c) Recommendations, if any, for further medical intervention;
- (d) Any remedial and corrective action required and when such actions were taken;

(e) Statement of restrictions on activities due to medical limitations; and

(f) A review of medications, treatments, special diets, and therapies prescribed.

(8) Before entry, the service provider must obtain the most complete medical profile available including:

- (a) The results of a physical exam made within 90 days prior to entry;
- (b) Findings of a TB test made within two weeks of entry;
- (c) Results of any dental evaluation;
- (d) A record of immunizations;
- (e) Status of Hepatitis B screening;
- (f) A record of known communicable diseases and allergies; and
- (g) A summary of the individual's medical history including chronic health concerns.

(9) The provider must ensure that all medications, treatments, and therapies:

(a) Have a written order or copy of the written order, signed by a physician or physician designee, before any medication, prescription, or non-prescription, is administered to or self-administered by the individual unless otherwise indicated by the ISP team in the written health and medical support section of the ISP or Transition Plan.

(b) Be followed per written orders.

(10) PRN orders are not allowed for psychotropic medication.

(11) The drug regimen of each individual on prescription medication must be reviewed and evaluated by a physician or physician designee, no less often than every 180 days unless otherwise indicated by the ISP team in the written health and medical support section of the ISP or Transition Plan.

(12) All prescribed medications and treatments must be self-administered unless contraindicated by the ISP team. For individuals who require assistance in the administration of their own medications, the following must be required:

(a) The ISP team has recommended that the individual be assisted with taking their medication;

(b) There is a written training program for the self-administration of medication unless contraindicated by the ISP team; and

(c) There is a written record of medications and treatments that document physician's orders are being followed.

(13) For individuals who independently self-administer medications, there must be a plan for the periodic monitoring and review of medications on each individual's ISP.

(14) The service provider must assist individuals with the use of prosthetic devices as ordered.

Safety: Personnel

(1) BASIC PERSONNEL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES. The program must have in place and implement personnel policies and procedures that address suspension, increased supervision, or other appropriate disciplinary employment procedures when a staff member has been identified as an accused person in an abuse investigation. The program must also have in place and implement personnel policies and procedures that address disciplinary or termination of employment when the allegation of abuse has been substantiated.

(2) MANDATORY ABUSE REPORTING PERSONNEL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES. Any employee of a private agency that contracts with a CDDP is a mandatory reporter. Notification of mandatory reporting status must be made at least annually to all employees on forms provided by the Department. All employees shall be provided with a Department-produced card regarding abuse reporting status and abuse reporting.

(3) APPLICATION FOR EMPLOYMENT. An application for employment at the program must inquire whether an applicant has had any founded reports of child abuse or substantiated abuse.

(4) CRIMINAL RECORDS CHECKS. Any employee, volunteer, advisor, or any subject individual defined by OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370, who has or will have contact with an individual of the program, must have an approved criminal records check in accordance with OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370 and under ORS 181.534.

(a) Effective July 28, 2009, the program may not use public funds to support, in whole or in part, a person as described in section (4) of this rule in any capacity who has been convicted of any of the disqualifying crimes listed in OAR 407-007-0275.

(b) Section (4)(a) of this rule does not apply to employees of the service provider who were hired prior to July 28, 2009 and remain in the current position for which the employee was hired.

(c) Any staff, volunteer, advisor, or any subject individual as defined by OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370 must self-report any potentially disqualifying condition as described in OAR 407-007-0280 and OAR 407-007-0290. The person must notify the Department or its designee within 24 hours.

(5) DIRECTOR QUALIFICATIONS. The program must be operated under the supervision of a Director who has a minimum of a bachelor's degree and two years experience, including supervision, in developmental disabilities, social services, mental health, or a related field. Six years of experience, including supervision, in the field of developmental disabilities or a social service or mental health field may be substituted for a degree.

(6) STAFF QUALIFICATIONS. Any staff who supervises individuals must:

(a) Be at least 18 years of age;

(b) Be capable of performing the duties of the job as described in a current job description which he or she signed and dated; and

(c) If hired on or after July 28, 2009, not have been convicted of any of the disqualifying crimes listed in OAR 407-007-0275.

(7) PERSONNEL FILES AND QUALIFICATION RECORDS. The program must maintain a personnel file for each staff person. In addition, the program must maintain the following for each staff person in a file available to the Division or the Division's designee for inspection:

(a) Written documentation that references and qualifications were checked;

(b) Written documentation of six hours of pre-service training prior to supervising individuals including mandatory abuse reporting training and training on individual profiles and Transition Plan or ISP;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) Documentation that CPR and first aid certification were obtained from a recognized training agency within three months of employment and are kept current;

(d) Written documentation of 12 hours of job-related in-service training annually;

(e) Written documentation of an approved criminal records check by the Department;

(f) Written documentation of a TB test within two weeks of hire;

(g) Written documentation of employees' notification of mandatory reporter status;

(h) Written documentation of any founded report of child abuse or substantiated abuse; and

(i) Written documentation of any complaints filed against the staff person and the results of the complaint process, including, if any, disciplinary action.

Program Management

(1) NON-DISCRIMINATION. The program must comply with all applicable state and federal statutes, rules, and regulations in regard to non-discrimination in employment practices.

(2) PROHIBITION AGAINST RETALIATION. A community program or service provider may not retaliate against any staff who reports in good faith suspected abuse or retaliate against the adult with respect to any report. An alleged perpetrator may not self-report solely for the purpose of claiming retaliation.

(a) Any community facility, community program, or person that retaliates against any person because of a report of suspected abuse or neglect shall be liable according to ORS 430.755, in a private action to that person for actual damages and, in addition, shall be subject to a penalty up to $1000, notwithstanding any other remedy provided by law.

(b) Any adverse action is evidence of retaliation if taken within 90 days of a report of abuse. Adverse action means only those actions arising solely from the filing of an abuse report. For purposes of this subsection, "adverse action" means any action taken by a community facility, community program, or person involved in a report against the person making the report or against the adult because of the report and includes but is not limited to:

(A) Discharge or transfer from the community program, except for clinical reasons;

(B) Discharge from or termination of employment;

(C) Demotion or reduction in remuneration for services; or

(D) Restriction or prohibition of access to the community program or the residents served by the program.

(3) DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. All entries required by this rule, unless stated otherwise, must:

(a) Be prepared at the time, or immediately following the event being recorded;

(b) Be accurate and contain no willful falsifications;

(c) Be legible, dated, and signed by the person making the entry; and

(d) Be maintained for no less than five years.

(4) DISSOLUTION. Prior to the dissolution of a program, a representative of the governing body or owner must notify the Division 30 days in advance in writing and make appropriate arrangements for the transfer of individuals' records.

Certificate Denial, Suspension, Revocation, Refusal to Renew

(1) Conditions. The Division may deny, revoke or refuse to renew a certificate when it finds the program, the program's director, or any person holding five percent or greater financial interest in the program:

(a) Demonstrates substantial failure to comply with these rules such that the health, safety or welfare of individuals is jeopardized and fails to correct the noncompliance within 30 calendar days of receipt of written notice of non-compliance;

(b) Has demonstrated a substantial failure to comply with these rules such that the health, safety or welfare of individuals is jeopardized during two inspections within a six year period (for the purpose of this subsection, "inspection" means an on-site review of the service site by the Division for the purpose of investigation or certification);

(c) Has demonstrated a failure to comply with applicable laws relating to safety from fire;

(d) Has been convicted of a felony;

(e) Has been convicted of a misdemeanor associated with the operation of a residential program;

(f) Falsifies information required by the Division to be maintained or submitted regarding care of individuals, supported living program finances, or individuals' funds; or

(g) Has been found to have permitted, aided or abetted any illegal act which has had significant adverse impact on individual health, safety or welfare.

(2) Immediate suspension of certificate. In any case where the Division finds a serious and immediate threat to individual health and safety and sets forth the specific reasons for such findings, the Division may, by written notice to the certificate holder, immediately suspend a certificate without a pre-suspension hearing and the service may not continue operation.

(3) Notice of certificate revocation or denial. Following a Division finding that there is a substantial failure to comply with these rules such that the health, safety or welfare of individual is jeopardized, or that one or more of the events listed in section (1) of this rule has occurred, the Division may issue a notice of certificate revocation, denial or refusal to renew.

(4) Informal process. Following the notice issued pursuant to section (3) of this rule, the Division shall provide the certificate holder an opportu-

Hearings

(1) Hearings rights. An applicant for a certificate, or certificate holder, upon written notice from the Division of denial, suspension, revocation or refusal to renew a certificate, may request a hearing pursuant to the Contested Case Provisions of ORS Chapter 183.

(2) Request for hearing. Upon written notification by the Division of revocation, denial or refusal to renew a certificate, pursuant to OAR 411-328-0830(1), the applicant/certified program shall be entitled to a hearing in accordance with ORS Chapter 183 within 60 days of receipt of notice. The request for a hearing shall include an admission or denial of each factual matter alleged by the Division and shall affirmatively allege a short plain statement of each relevant, affirmative defense the applicant/certified program may have.

(3) Hearing rights under OAR 411-328-0820(2). In the event of a suspension pursuant to 411-328-0820(2) and during the first 30 days after the suspension of a certificate, the certified program shall be entitled to a fair hearing within 10 days after its written request to the Division for a hearing regarding certificate suspension. Any hearing requested after the end of the 30 days period following certificate suspension shall be treated as a request for hearing under section (2) of this rule.

(4) Issue at hearing on denial or revocation pursuant to OAR 411-328-0820(1)(a). The issue at a hearing on certification, denial, revocation, suspension or refusal to renew a certificate pursuant to 411-328-0820(1)(a) is limited to whether the program was/is in compliance at the end of the 30 calendar days following written notice of non-compliance.

Statement of Purpose

The rules in OAR chapter 411, division 335 prescribe administrative, policy, procedure, documentation, and personnel requirements for proctor agencies providing intensive, person focused services to individuals with developmental disabilities experiencing significant emotional, medical, or behavioral difficulties. Proctor providers are specially trained and supported by the proctor agency. Proctor providers assist the individual in a home environment to make positive changes in the individual's adaptive skills that shall enable the individual to move to a less restrictive setting. These rules, in addition to the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323, also prescribe standards and procedures by which the Department endorses service providers to safely operate and oversee proctor care homes and provide training and support to children with developmental disabilities.

411-335-0020

Definitions

(1) "Abuse" means abuse of a child as defined in ORS 419B.005, and for the purposes of these rules, abuse of a child also means abuse as defined in OAR 407-045-0260.

(2) "Abuse Investigation and Protective Services" means reporting and investigation activities as required by OAR 407-045-0300 and any subsequent services or supports necessary to prevent further abuse as required in OAR 407-045-0310.

(3) "Administration of Medication" means the act of placing a medication in or on an individual's body by a person who is responsible for the individual's care.

(4) "Administrator" means the administrator of the Department, or that person's designee.

(5) "Advocate" means a person other than paid staff who has been selected by the individual or by the individual's guardian to help the individual understand and make choices in matters relating to identification of needs and choices of services, especially when rights are at risk or have been violated.

(6) "Agency Staff" means paid employees responsible for providing services directly or indirectly to children in proctor care, and whose wages or fees are paid in part or in full with funds sub-contracted with the community developmental disability program or contracted directly through the Department. For the purpose of these rules, agency staff includes skill trainers.

(7) "Aid to Physical Functioning" means any special equipment prescribed for an individual by a physician, therapist, or dietician that maintains or enhances the individual's physical functioning.

(8) "Alternate Caregiver" means any person 18 and older responsible for the care or supervision of a child in foster care.

(9) "Baseline Level of Behavior" means the frequency, duration, or intensity of a behavior, objectively measured, described, and documented prior to the implementation of an initial or revised Behavior Support Plan. This baseline measure serves as the reference point by which the ongoing efficacy of the Individual Support Plan (ISP) is to be assessed. A baseline level of behavior is reviewed and reestablished at minimum yearly, at the time of the ISP team meeting.

(10) "Behavior Data Collection System" means the methodology specified within the individual's Behavior Support Plan that directs the process for recording observations, interventions, and other support provision information critical to the analysis of the efficacy of the Behavior Support Plan.

(11) "Behavior Data Summary" means a document composed by the proctor provider to summarize episodes of physical intervention. The behavior data summary serves as a substitution for the requirement of individual incident reports for each episode of physical intervention.

(12) "Behavior Support Plan (BSP)" means a written strategy based on person-centered planning and a functional assessment that outlines specific instructions for proctor providers to follow, to cause an individual's challenging behaviors to become unnecessary, and to change the provider's own behavior, adjust environment, and teach new skills.

(13) "Board of Directors" means a group of persons formed to set policy and give directions to an agency designed to provide residential services to individuals with developmental disabilities. A board of directors includes local advisory boards used by multi-state organizations.

(14) "Care" means supportive services, including but not limited to supervision, protection, and assistance in bathing, dressing, grooming, eating, management of money, transportation, or recreation. Care also includes being aware of the individual's general whereabouts at all times and monitoring the activities of the individual to ensure the individual's health, safety, and welfare. The term "care" is synonymous with "services".

(15) "Certificate" means a document issued by the Department to an agency that certifies the agency is eligible under the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323 to receive state funds for the provision of endorsed proctor care residential services.

(16) "Chemical Restraint" means the use of a psychotropic drug or other drugs for punishment or to modify behavior in place of a meaningful behavior or treatment plan.

(17) "Child" means an individual under the age of 18 that has a provisional determination of developmental disability.

(18) "Choice" means the individual's and guardian's expression of preference, opportunity for, and active role in decision-making related to the selection of assessments, services, service providers, goals and activities, and verification of satisfaction with these services. Choice is communicated verbally, through sign language, or by other communication methods.

(19) "Community Developmental Disability Program (CDDP)" means an entity that is responsible for the planning and delivery of services for individuals with developmental disabilities in a specific geographic service area of the state operated by or under a contract with the Department or a local mental health authority.

(20) "Competency Based Training Plan" means a written description of the proctor agency's process for providing training to newly hired agency staff and proctor providers. At a minimum, the Competency Based Training Plan:

(a) Addresses health, safety, rights, values and personal regard, and the proctor agency's mission; and

(b) Describes competencies, training methods, timelines, how competencies of staff are determined and documented including steps for remediation, and when a competency may be waived by the proctor agency to accommodate staff or proctor provider's specific circumstances.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(21) "Complaint Investigation" means an investigation of any complaint that has been made to a proper authority that is not covered by an abuse investigation.

(22) "Contracting Entity" means the community developmental disability program or proctor agency contracting with the Department.

(23) "Crisis" means:

(a) A situation as determined by a qualified services coordinator that may result in civil court commitment under ORS 427.215 to 427.306 and for which no appropriate alternative resources are available; or

(b) Risk factors described in OAR 411-320-0160(2) are present for which no appropriate alternative resources are available.

(24) "Department" means the Department of Human Services (DHS).

(25) "Developmental Disability" as defined in OAR 411-320-0020.

(26) "Direct Nursing Service" means the provision of child-specific advice, plans, or interventions, based on nursing process as outlined by the Oregon State Board of Nursing, by a nurse at the home or facility. Direct nursing service differs from administrative nursing services. Administrative nursing services include non-individual-specific services, such as quality assurance reviews, authoring health related agency policies and procedures, or providing general training for staff.

(27) "Division" means the Department of Human Services, Seniors and People with Disabilities Division (SPD).

(28) "Educational Surrogate" means a person who acts in place of a parent in safeguarding a child's rights in the special education decision-making process:

(a) When the parent cannot be identified or located after reasonable efforts;

(b) When there is reasonable cause to believe that the child has a disability and is a ward of the state; or

(c) At the request of a parent or adult student.

(29) "Endorsement" means authorization to provide proctor care residential services issued by the Department to a certified proctor agency that has met the qualification criteria outlined in these rules and the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323.

(30) "Entry" means admission to a Department-funded developmental disability service. For purposes of these rules, "entry" means admission to a proctor provider certified by the Department as described in OAR chapter 411, division 346.

(31) "Executive Director" means the person designated by a board of directors or corporate owner that is responsible for the administration of proctor care residential services.

(32) "Exit" means either termination from a Department-funded developmental disability proctor agency or transfer from one Department-funded proctor agency to another.

(33) "Foster Care" for the purpose of these rules means 24-hour substitute care for children in a foster home that is contracted with the proctor agency and certified by the Department as described in OAR chapter 411, division 346.

(34) "Founded Reports" means the Department's Children, Adults, and Families Division or Law Enforcement Authority (LEA) determination, based on the evidence, that there is reasonable cause to believe that conduct in violation of the child abuse statutes or rules has occurred and such conduct is attributable to the person alleged to have engaged in the conduct.

(35) "Guardian" means a parent for individuals under 18 years of age or a person or agency appointed and authorized by the courts to make decisions about services for an individual.

(36) "Health Care Provider" means a person or health care facility licensed, certified, or otherwise authorized or permitted by Oregon law to administer health care in the ordinary course of business or practice of a profession.

(37) "Incident Report" means a written report of any injury, accident, acts of physical aggression, or unusual incident involving an individual, written by the proctor provider or agency staff involved in or witnessing the incident.

(38) "Independence" means the extent to which individuals with developmental disabilities exert control and choice over their own lives.

(39) "Individual" means an adult or a child with developmental disabilities for whom services are planned and provided.

(40) "Individualized Education Plan (IEP)" means a written plan of instructional goals and objectives in conference with the teacher, parent or guardian, student, and a representative of the school district.

(41) "Individual Support Plan (ISP)" means the written details of the supports, activities, and resources required for an individual to achieve personal goals. The ISP is developed at minimum annually to reflect decisions and agreements made during a person-centered process of planning and information gathering. The ISP is the individual's Plan of Care for Medicaid purposes.

(42) "Individual Support Plan (ISP) Team" means a team composed of the individual served, the proctor provider, agency staff who provide service to the individual (if appropriate for in-home supports), the guardian (if any), the services coordinator, and family or other persons requested to develop the ISP.

(43) "Integration" means the use by individuals with developmental disabilities of the same community resources used by and available to other persons in the community, including participation in community activities and having contact with persons in their community.

(44) "Legal Representative" means the parent, if the individual is under age 18, unless the court appoints another person or agency to act as guardian.

(45) "Majority Agreement" means for purposes of entry, exit, transfer, and annual Individual Support Plan (ISP) team meetings, that no one member of the ISP team has the authority to make decisions for the team unless so authorized by the team process. Agency staff, proctor providers, families, the services coordinator, or advocacy agencies are considered as one member of the ISP team for the purpose of reaching majority agreement.

(46) "Mandatory Reporter" means any public or private official who comes in contact with and has reasonable cause to believe a child has suffered abuse, or comes in contact with any person whom the official has reasonable cause to believe abused a child, regardless of whether or not the knowledge of the abuse was gained in the reporter's official capacity. Nothing contained in ORS 40.225 to 40.295 shall affect the duty to report imposed by this section, except that a psychiatrist, psychologist, clergyman, attorney, or guardian ad litem appointed under ORS 419B.231 shall not be required to report such information communicated by a person if the communication is privileged under ORS 40.225 to 40.295.

(47) "Mechanical Restraint" means any mechanical device, material, object, or equipment that is attached or adjacent to an individual's body that the individual cannot easily remove or easily negotiate around, and that restricts freedom of movement or access to the individual's body.

(48) "Medicaid Agency Identification Number" means the numeric identifier assigned to a service provider as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370 following the service provider's enrollment to manage service delivery sites or areas within Oregon under endorsement or license from the Department.

(49) "Medicaid Performing Provider Number" means the numeric identifier assigned to an entity or person by the Department, following enrollment to deliver Medicaid funded services as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370. The Medicaid Performing Provider Number is used by the rendering service provider for identification and billing purposes associated with service authorizations and payments.

(50) "Medication" means any drug, chemical, compound, suspension, or preparation in suitable form for use as a curative or remedial substance taken either internally or externally by any person.

(51) "Modified Diet" means the texture or consistency of food or drink is altered or limited. Examples include but are not limited to no nuts or raw vegetables, thickened fluids, mechanical soft, finely chopped, pureed, or bread only soaked in milk.

(52) "Nurse" means a person who holds a current license from the Oregon Board of Nursing as a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse pursuant to ORS chapter 678.

(53) "Nursing Care Plan" means a plan of care developed by a registered nurse that describes the medical, nursing, psychosocial, and other needs of the individual and how those needs shall be met. The Nursing Care Plan includes which tasks shall be taught or delegated to the provider and staff.

(54) "Oregon Core Competencies" means:

(a) A list of skills and knowledge for newly hired staff and proctor providers in the areas of health, safety, rights, values and personal regard, and the proctor agency's mission; and

(b) The associated timelines in which newly hired staff and proctor providers must demonstrate competencies.

(55) "Oregon Intervention System (OIS)" means a system of providing training to people who work with designated individuals to intervene physically or non-physically to keep individuals from harming self or others. OIS is based on a proactive approach that includes methods of effective evasion, deflection, and escape from holding.

(56) "Physical Intervention" means the use of any physical action or any response to maintain the health and safety of an individual or others during a potentially dangerous situation or event.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(57) "Physical Restraint" means any manual physical holding of or contact with an individual that restricts the individual's freedom of movement.

(58) "Prescription Medication" means any medication that requires a physician prescription before it may be obtained from a pharmacist.

(59) "Proctor Agency" means a public or private community agency or organization that provides recognized developmental disability services and is certified and endorsed by the Department to provide these services under these rules and the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323. For the purpose of these rules, "agency" or "program" is synonymous with "proctor agency".

(60) "Proctor Care Services" means a comprehensive residential program endorsed by the Department to provide intensive individually focused contracted foster care, training, and support to individuals with developmental disabilities experiencing emotional, medical, or behavioral difficulties.

(61) "Proctor Provider" means the certified care provider who resides at a child foster home for individuals with developmental disabilities certified by the Department as described in OAR chapter 411, division 346.

(62) "Productivity" as defined in ORS 427.005 means:

(a) Engagement in income-producing work by an individual with developmental disabilities that is measured through improvements in income level, employment status, or job advancement; or

(b) Engagement by an individual with developmental disabilities in work contributing to a household or community.

(63) "Protection" and "Protective Services" means necessary actions taken as soon as possible to prevent subsequent abuse or exploitation of the individual, to prevent self-destructive acts, and to safeguard an individual's person, property, and funds.

(64) "Psychotropic Medication" means medication the prescribed intent of which is to affect or alter thought processes, mood, or behavior including but not limited to anti-psychotic, antidepressant, anxiolytic (anti-anxiety), and behavior medications. The classification of a medication depends upon its stated, intended effect when prescribed.

(65) "Respite" means intermittent services provided on a periodic basis, but not more than 14 consecutive days, for the relief of, or due to the temporary absence of, persons normally providing the supports to individuals unable to care for themselves.

(66) "Self-Administration of Medication" means the individual manages and takes his or her own medication, identifies his or her own medication and the times and methods of administration, places the medication internally in or externally on his or her own body without staff assistance upon the written order of a physician, and safely maintains the medication without supervision.

(67) "Services Coordinator" means an employee of the community developmental disability program or other agency that contracts with the county or Department, who is selected to plan, produce, coordinate, and monitor Individual Support Plan services and to act as a proponent for individuals with developmental disabilities.

(68) "Significant Other" means a person selected by the individual and guardian to be the individual's friend.

(69) "Specialized Diet" means that the amount, type of ingredients, or selection of food or drink items is limited, restricted, or otherwise regulated under a physician's order. Examples include but are not limited to low calorie, high fiber, diabetic, low salt, lactose free, or low fat diets. A specialized diet does not include a diet where extra or additional food is offered without physician's orders but may not be eaten, for example, offer prunes each morning at breakfast or include fresh fruit with each meal.

(70) "Substantiated" means an abuse investigation has been completed by the Department or the Department's designee and the preponderance of the evidence establishes the abuse occurred.

(71) "Support" means assistance that individuals require, solely because of the effects of developmental disability, to maintain or increase independence, achieve community presence and participation, and improve productivity. Support is subject to change with time and circumstances.

(72) "These Rules" mean the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 335.

(73) "Transfer" means movement of an individual from one proctor provider to another within the same county administered by the same proctor agency.

(74) "Transition Plan" means a written plan for the period of time between an individual's entry into a particular service and when the individual's Individual Support Plan (ISP) is developed and approved by the ISP team. The Transition Plan includes a summary of the services necessary to facilitate adjustment to the services offered, the supports necessary to assure health and safety, and the assessments and consultations necessary for ISP development.

(75) "Unusual Incident" means incidents involving serious illness or accidents, death of an individual, injury or illness of an individual requiring inpatient or emergency hospitalization, suicide attempts, a fire requiring the services of a fire department, or any incident requiring abuse investigation.

(76) "Variance" means a temporary exception from a regulation or provision of these rules or the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323 that may be granted by the Department upon written application by the proctor provider or proctor agency.

(77) "Volunteer" means any person assisting a proctor provider or the proctor agency without pay to support the services provided to individuals.

Agency Management and Personnel Practices

(1) PROCTOR AGENCY.

(a) CERTIFICATION, ENDORSEMENT, AND ENROLLMENT. To provide proctor care residential services, a proctor agency must have:

(A) A certificate and an endorsement to provide proctor care residential services as set forth in OAR chapter 411, division 323;

(B) A Medicaid Agency Identification Number assigned by the Department as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370; and

(C) For each specific geographic service area where proctor care residential services shall be delivered a Medicaid Performing Provider Number assigned by the Department as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370.

(b) INSPECTIONS AND INVESTIGATIONS. The proctor agency must allow inspections and investigations as described in OAR 411-323-0040.

(c) AGENCY MANAGEMENT AND PERSONNEL PRACTICES. The proctor agency must comply with the agency management and personnel practices as described in OAR 411-323-0050.

(d) COMPETENCY BASED TRAINING PLAN. The proctor agency must have and implement a Competency Based Training Plan that meets, at a minimum, the competencies and timelines set forth in the Department's Oregon Core Competencies.

(e) PERSONNEL FILES AND QUALIFICATION RECORDS. The proctor agency must maintain the following for each staff member and proctor provider in a file available to the Department or the Department's designee for inspection:

(A) Written documentation kept current that the staff member and proctor provider has demonstrated competency in areas identified by the proctor agency's Competency Based Training Plan as required by section (5) of this rule, and that is appropriate to their job;

(B) Written documentation of 12 hours of job-related in-service training annually; and

(C) Documentation that the staff member and proctor provider has been certified in CPR and First Aid by a recognized training agency within three months of employment and that certification is kept current.

(f) POLICIES AND PROCEDURES. The proctor agency must implement policies and procedures to:

(A) Assure support, health, safety, and crisis response for individuals served, including policies and procedures to assure training of agency staff and proctor providers.

(B) Assure that provider payment and agency support is commensurate to the support needs of individuals enrolled in proctor care services. Policies and procedures must include frequency of review.

(C) Assure support, health, safety, and crisis response for individuals placed in all types of respite care, including policies and procedures to assure training of respite care providers. The types of respite care include but are not limited to:

(i) Respite care in the proctor provider's home during day hours only;

(ii) Respite care in the home of someone other than the proctor provider for day time only;

(iii) Overnight care in the proctor provider's home; and

(iv) Overnight care at someone other than the proctor provider's home.

(D) Review and document that each child enrolled in proctor care services continues to require such services. Policies and procedures must include frequency of review and the criteria as listed below.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(i) The child's need for a formal Behavior Support Plan based on the Risk Tracking Record and functional assessment of the behavior.

(ii) The child has been stable and generally free of serious behavioral or delinquency incidents for the past 12 months.

(iii) The child has been free of psychiatric hospitalization (hospital psychiatric unit, Oregon State Hospital, and sub acute) for the last 12 months, except for assessment and evaluation.

(iv) The child poses no significant risk to self or community.

(v) The proctor provider has not needed or utilized the proctor agency's crisis services in response to the child's medical, mental health, or behavioral needs more than one time in the past 12 months.

(vi) The proctor provider is successfully supporting the child over time, with a minimum of proctor agency case management contact other than periodic monitoring and check in.

(vii) The proctor provider does not require professional support for the child, and there has been or may be a reduction in ongoing weekly professional support for the child including consultation, skill training, and staffing.

(viii) The proctor agency is not actively working with the child's family to return the child to the family home.

(g) RESPONSIBILITIES. The proctor agency must:

(A) Assure that preliminary certification for the proctor provider is completed per the relevant foster care statutes and OAR chapter 411, divisions 346. Such work must be submitted to the Department for final review and approval.

(B) Complete an initial home study for all proctor provider applicants that is updated at the certification renewal for all certified proctor providers.

(C) Provide and document training and support to agency staff, proctor providers, subcontractors, volunteers, and respite providers:

(i) To maintain the health and safety of the individuals served.

(ii) To implement the ISP process, including completion of a Risk Tracking Record, development of protocols and BSP for each individual served, and the development of the ISP.

(D) Have a plan for emergency back-up for home provider including but not limited to use of crisis respite, other proctor homes, additional staffing, and behavior support consultations.

(E) Coordinate and document entries, exits, and transfers.

(F) Report to the Department, and the CDDP, any placement changes due to a Crisis Plan made outside of normal working hours. Notification must be made by 9:00 a.m. of the first working day after the change has happened.

(G) Assure that each proctor provider has a current Emergency Disaster Plan on file in the proctor provider home, in the proctor agency office, and provided to the CDDP and any case manager of an individual who is not an employee of the local CDDP.

(H) Assure emergency backup in the event the proctor provider is unavailable.

(2) QUALIFICATIONS FOR PROCTOR AGENCY STAFF AND PROCTOR PROVIDERS INCLUDING SUBCONTRACTORS AND VOLUNTEERS. Any agency staff including skill trainers, respite providers, substitute caregivers, subcontractors, and volunteers must meet the following criteria:

(a) Be at least 18 years of age and have a valid social security card.

(b) Have approval to work based on Department policies and a background check completed by the Department in accordance with OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370 and 411-323-0050.

(c) Disclose any founded reports of child abuse or substantiated abuse.

(d) Be literate and capable of understanding written and oral orders, be able to communicate with individual's physicians, services coordinators, and appropriate others, and be able to respond to emergency situations at all times.

(e) Have met the basic qualification in the agency's Competency Based Training Plan.

(3) GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR SAFETY AND TRAINING. All proctor providers, substitute caregivers, respite providers, child care providers, agency staff, and volunteers having contact with an individual, except for those providing services in a crisis situation, must:

(a) Receive training specific to the individual. This training must at a minimum consist of basic information on environment, health, safety, ADLs, positive behavioral supports, and behavioral needs for the individual, including the ISP, BSP, required protocols, and any emergency procedures. Training must include required documentation for health, safety, and behavioral needs of the individual.

(b) Receive OIS training. OIS certification is required if physical intervention is likely to occur as part of the BSP. Knowledge of OIS principles, not certification is required if it is unlikely that physical intervention shall be required.

(c) Receive mandatory reporter training.

(d) Receive confidentiality training.

(e) Be at least 18 years of age and have a valid social security card.

(f) Be cleared by the Department's background check requirements in OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370 and OAR 411-323-0050.

(g) Have a valid Oregon driver's license and proof of insurance.

(4) Receive training in applicable agency policies and procedures.

(4) PROCTOR PROVIDERS.

(a) Proctor providers must:

(A) Meet all the standards in these rules and the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 346;

(B) Must have knowledge of these rules and the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 346; and

(C) Must receive and maintain current First Aid and CPR training.

(b) Any home managed and contracted to serve children with developmental disabilities by a proctor agency must be certified by the Department as a foster home for children with developmental disabilities in accordance with OAR chapter 411, division 346.

(5) SKILLS TRAINERS, ADVISORS, OR OTHER AGENCY STAFF. Skills trainers, advisors, or other agency staff must:

(a) Receive and maintain current First Aid and CPR training;

(b) Must have knowledge of these rules and the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 346;

(c) Anyone age 18 or older, living in an agency staff members uncertified home must have an approved Department background check per OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370 and as described in OAR 411-323-0050, prior to any visit of an individual to the staff member's home.

(d) Assure health and safety guidelines for alternative caregivers including but not limited to the following:

(A) The home and premises must be free from objects, materials, pets, and conditions that constitute a danger to the occupants and the home and premises must be clean and in good repair.

(B) Any sleeping room used for an individual in respite must be finished, attached to the house, and not a common living area, closet, storage area, or garage. If a child is staying overnight, the sleeping arrangements must be safe and appropriate to the individual's age, behavior, and support needs.

(C) The home must have tubs or showers, toilets, and sinks that are operable and in good repair with hot and cold water.

(D) The alternative caregivers must have access to a working telephone in the home, and must have a list of emergency telephone numbers and know where the numbers are located.

(E) All medications, poisonous chemicals, and cleaning materials must be stored in a way that prevents the individuals from accessing them, unless otherwise addressed in an individual's ISP.

(F) Firearms must be stored unloaded. Firearms and ammunition must be stored in separate locked locations. Loaded firearms must never be carried in any vehicle while it is being used to transport an individual.

(G) First aid supplies must be available in the home and in the vehicles that shall be used to transport an individual.

(6) RESPITE PROVIDERS.

(a) If respite is being provided in the proctor provider's home day or night, the respite provider must be trained on the:

(A) Basic health needs of the individuals in service; and

(B) Basic safety in the home including but not limited to first aid supplies, the Emergency Plan, and the Fire Evacuation Plan.

(b) If respite is being provided in a home other than the proctor provider's home day or night, the respite provider must assure health and safety guidelines for alternative caregivers, including but not limited to:

(A) The home and premises must be free from objects, materials, pets, and conditions that constitute a danger to the occupants and the home and premises must be clean and in good repair.

(B) Any sleeping room used for an individual in respite must be finished, have a window that may be opened, be attached to the house, and not a common living area, storage area, closet, or garage. If the individual is staying overnight, the sleeping arrangements must be safe and appropriate to the individual's age, behavior, and support needs.

(C) The home must have tubs or showers, toilets, and sinks that are operable and in good repair with hot and cold water.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(D) The alternative caregivers must have access to a working telephone in the home and must have a list of emergency telephone numbers and know where the numbers are located.

(E) All medications, poisonous chemicals, and cleaning materials must be stored in a way that prevents an individual from accessing them.

(F) Firearms must be stored unloaded. Firearms and ammunition must be stored in separate locked locations. Loaded firearms must never be carried in any vehicle while it is being used to transport an individual.

(G) First aid supplies must be available in the home and in the vehicles that shall be used to transport individuals.

(7) DAY CARE AND CAMP. When a child is cared for by a child care provider, camp, or child care center, the proctor agency must assure that the camp, provider home, or center is certified, licensed, or registered as required by the Child Care Division (ORS 657A.280). The proctor agency must also assure that the ISP team is in agreement with the plan for the child to attend the camp, child care center, or child care provider home.

(8) SOCIAL ACTIVITIES FOR LESS THAN 24 HOURS, INCLUDING OVERNIGHT ARRANGEMENTS. The proctor agency must assure:

(a) The person providing care is capable of assuming all care responsibilities and shall be present at all times.

(b) The ISP team is in agreement with the planned social activity.

(c) The proctor provider maintains back-up responsibilities for the individual in service.

(9) GENERAL CRISIS REQUIREMENTS FOR INDIVIDUALS ALREADY IN PROCTOR AGENCY HOMES.

(a) Crisis service providers must:

(A) Be at least 18 years of age.

(B) Have initial and annual approval to work based on current Department policies and procedures for review of background checks per OAR 407-007-0200 to 407-007-0370 and as described in OAR 411-323-0050, prior to supervising any individual. Providers must also have a child welfare check completed on an annual basis.

(C) Upon placement of the individual, have knowledge of the individual's needs. This knowledge must consist of basic information on health, safety, ADLs, and behavioral needs for the individual, including the ISP, BSP, and required protocols. Be trained on required documentation for health, safety, and behavioral needs of the individual.

(b) The proctor agency must:

(A) Make follow-up contact with the crisis provider within 24 hours of the placement to assess and assure the individual's and provider's support needs are met.

(B) Initiate transition planning with the ISP team and document the plan within 72 hours.

(10) MANDATORY ABUSE REPORTING. Proctor agency staff and providers are mandatory reporters. Upon reasonable cause to believe that abuse has occurred, all members of the household and any proctor providers, substitute caregivers, agency staff, independent contractors, or volunteers must report pertinent information to the Department, the CDDP, or law enforcement. For reporting purposes the following shall apply:

(a) Notification of mandatory reporting status must be made at least annually to all proctor providers, agency employees, substitute caregivers, subcontractors, and volunteers, on forms provided by the Department.

(b) All agency employees and proctor providers must be provided with a Department produced card regarding abuse reporting status and abuse reporting requirements.

(11) CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS.

(a) The proctor agency must ensure all individuals' records are confidential as described in OAR 411-323-0060.

(b) The proctor agency, proctor provider, and the proctor provider's family must treat personal information about an individual or an individual's family in a confidential manner. Confidential information is to be used and disclosed in accordance with OAR 407-014-0020 only on a need to know basis to law enforcement, services coordinators, the Department including child protective services staff and child welfare caseworkers, the CDDP, Office of Investigations and Training investigators, and medical professionals who are treating or providing services to the individual. The information shared must be limited to the health, safety, and service needs of the individual.

(c) The proctor agency, proctor provider, and the proctor provider's family must comply with the provisions of ORS 192.518 to 192.523 and OAR 407-014-0020 and therefore may use or disclose an individual's protected health information as defined in OAR 407-014-0000 only:

(A) To law enforcement, the Department, or the CDDP;

(B) As authorized by the individual's guardian including but not limited to a guardian appointed under ORS 125.305, 419C.481, or 419C.555;

(C) For purposes of obtaining healthcare and treatment of the individual;

(D) For purposes of obtaining payment for health care treatment; or

(E) As permitted or required by state or federal law or by order of a court.

(d) The proctor agency and the proctor provider must keep all written records for each individual in a manner that assures their confidentiality.

(12) DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. All entries required by these rules, unless stated otherwise must:

(a) Be prepared at the time, or immediately following the event being recorded;

(b) Be accurate and contain no willful falsification;

(c) Be legible, dated, and signed by the person making the entry;

(d) Be maintained for no less than five years; and

(e) Be made readily available for the purposes of inspection.

Renewal of Certification

(1) Renewal application required. A certificate is renewable upon submission of an application to the Department.

(2) Filing of application extends date of expiration. Filing of an application for renewal before the date of expiration extends the effective date of expiration until the Department takes action upon such application. If the renewal application is not submitted prior to the expiration date, the agency will be considered as not certified to provide Proctor Care Services for individuals with developmental disabilities funded by the Department.

(3) Certification review. The Department will conduct a certification review of the agency and agency services prior to the renewal of the certificate. The review may be unannounced, will be conducted prior to expiration of the certificate and will review compliance with OAR chapter 411, division 335 and where appropriate, chapter 411, divisions 346 or 360.

(4) Refusal to renew a certification. The Department will not renew a certificate if the agency or its services are not in substantial compliance with these rules.

Inspections and Investigations

(1) All services covered by these rules must allow the following types of investigations and inspections:

(a) Quality assurance, certificate renewal, and onsite inspections including a review of records at the agency office, as well as onsite review of at least one or more proctor provider homes as selected by the Division;

(b) Complaint investigations; and

(c) Abuse investigations. Priority review may be given when protective service investigations have taken place.

(2) The Department, the Department's designee, or proper authority shall perform all inspections and investigations.

(3) Any inspection or investigation may be unannounced.

(4) All documentation and written reports required by these rules must be:

(a) Open to inspection and investigation by the Department, the Department's designee, or proper authority; and

(b) Submitted to or be made available for review by the Department within the time allotted.

(5) When abuse is alleged or death of an individual has occurred and a law enforcement agency, or the Department or the Department's designee has determined to initiate an investigation, the provider may not conduct an internal investigation. For the purposes of this section, an internal investigation is defined as:

(a) Conducting interviews of the alleged victim, witness, the accused person, or any other person who may have knowledge of the facts of the abuse allegation or related circumstances;

(b) Reviewing evidence relevant to the abuse allegation, other than the initial report; or

(c) Any other actions beyond the initial actions of determining:

(A) If there is reasonable cause to believe that abuse has occurred;

(B) If the alleged victim is in danger or in need of immediate protective services;

(C) If there is reason to believe that a crime has been committed; or

(D) What, if any, immediate personnel actions must be taken to assure individual safety.

(6) When an abuse investigation has been initiated, the Department or the Department's designee shall provide notification in accordance with OAR chapter 407, division 045.

(7) The Department or the Department's designee shall conduct investigations as described in OAR chapter 407, division 045.

(8) When an abuse investigation has been completed, the Department or the Department's designee shall provide notice of the Abuse Investigation and Protective Services Report according to OAR chapter 407, division 045.

(9) Upon completion of the abuse investigation by the Department, the Department's designee, or a law enforcement agency, the agency may conduct an investigation to determine if any additional personnel actions are necessary.

(10) Upon completion of the Abuse Investigation and Protective Service Report, according to OAR chapter 407, division 045 the sections of the report that are public records and not exempt from disclosure under the public records law shall be provided to the appropriate provider. The agency must implement the actions necessary within the deadlines listed, to prevent further abuse as stated in the report.

(11) A plan of correction must be submitted to the CDDP and the Division for any noncompliance found during an inspection under this rule.

Mid-Cycle Review

(1) Mid-Cycle Review Process. The Department may conduct a mid-cycle monitoring review of the agency and its services nine to fifteen months after renewal of the agency's certificate under the following circumstances:

(a) Failure by the agency to successfully complete certificate renewal as evidenced by two of more follow-up reviews; or

(b) Failure by the agency to successfully complete plans of correction for protective service investigations; or

(c) Upon the request of the CDDP or other Department designee, or agency.

(2) Self-Assessment Required. As part of the mid-cycle process the agency must conduct a self-assessment based upon the requirements of this rule.

(a) The agency must document the findings of the self-assessment on forms provided by the Department;

(b) The agency must develop and implement a plan of correction based upon the findings of the self-assessment; and

(c) The agency must submit the self-assessment to the local CDDP with a copy to the Department 30 days prior to the mid-cycle review.

(3) Compliance with OAR chapter 411, division 335. The review will be conducted for compliance with OAR chapter 411, division 335 and where applicable, OAR chapter 411, divisions 346 or 360. The review may be announced or unannounced based on the discretion of the Department.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

411-335-0300

Rights: Confidentiality of Records

Confidentiality. All individuals' records are confidential except as otherwise provided by applicable State and Federal rule or laws.

(1) For the purpose of disclosure from individual medical records, service providers under these rules are considered "providers" as defined in ORS 179.505

(2) For the purposes of disclosure from non-medical individual records, all or portions of the information contained in these records may be exempt from public inspection under the personal privacy information exemption to the public records law set forth in ORS 192.502(2).

(3) The proctor agency, proctor provider and the proctor provider's family must treat personal information about an individual or an individual's family in a confidential manner. Confidential information is to be used and disclosed in accordance with OAR 410-014-0020 (1)–(5) only on a need to know basis to law enforcement, Services Coordinator, DHS-CW child protective services staff, SOSCF DHS-CW caseworker, CDDP or OIT investigators, and medical professionals who are treating or providing services to the child. The information shared must be limited to the health and safety, and service needs of the individual.

(4) The proctor agency, proctor provider and the proctor provider's family must comply with the provisions of ORS 192.518 to 192.523 and OAR 410-014-0020(1)–(5) and therefore may use or disclose an individual's protected health information as defined in OAR 410-014-0000(33) only:

(a) To law enforcement, CDDP, SPD, or DHS-CW staff;

(b) As authorized by the child or adults personal representative, including but not limited to a guardian appointed under ORS 125.305, 419C.481 or 419C.555;

(c) For purposes of obtaining healthcare and treatment of the individual;

(d) For purposes of obtaining payment for health care treatment; or

(e) As permitted or required by state or federal law or by order of a court.

(5) The proctor agencies and the proctor providers must keep all written records for each individual in a manner that assures their confidentiality.

411-335-0310

Rights: Informal Complaints and Formal Grievances

(1) The proctor agency must implement written policies and procedures for individuals' grievances as required by OAR 411-323-0060.

(2) The proctor agency must send copies of the documentation on all grievances to the services coordinator within 15 working days of initial receipt of the grievance.

(3) At entry to service and as changes occur, the service provider must inform each individual and parent, guardian, or advocate orally and in writing of the service provider's grievance policy and procedures and a description of how to utilize them.

411-335-0380

Conditions

(1) Conditions may be attached to a certificate upon a finding that:

(a) Information on the application or initial inspection requires a condition to protect the health and safety of individuals;

(b) There exists a threat to the health, safety, and welfare of individuals;

(c) There is reliable evidence of abuse, neglect, or exploitation;

(d) The home or agency is not being operated in compliance with these rules; or

(e) The proctor provider is certified to care for a specific person only and further placements may not be made into that home or facility.

(2) Conditions that may be imposed on a certificate include but are not limited to:

(a) Restricting the total number of individuals;

(b) Restricting the number and support level of individuals allowed within a certified classification level based upon the capacity of the proctor provider and agency staff to meet the health and safety needs of all individuals;

(c) Reclassifying the level of individuals that can be served;

(d) Requiring additional agency staff or agency staff qualifications;

(e) Requiring additional training of proctor providers and agency staff;

(f) Requiring additional documentation; or

(g) Restriction of admissions.

(3) The agency shall be notified in writing of any conditions imposed, the reason for the conditions, and be given an opportunity to request a hearing under ORS 183.310 to 183.502.

(4) In addition to, or in lieu of, a contested case hearing, an agency may request a review by the Administrator or designee of conditions imposed by the Department. The review does not diminish the agency's right to a hearing.

(5) Conditions may be imposed for the duration of the certificate period (five years) or limited to some other shorter period of time. If the condition corresponds to the certification period, the reasons for the condition shall be considered at the time of renewal to determine if the conditions are still appropriate. The effective date and expiration date of the condition shall be indicated on an attachment to the certificate.

Certificate Denial, Suspension, Revocation, Refusal to Renew

(1) Substantial failure to comply with rules. The Department will deny, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew a certificate where it finds there has been substantial failure to comply with these rules; or where the State Fire Marshal or his representative certifies there is failure to comply with all applicable ordinances and rules relating to safety from fire.

(2) Imminent danger to individuals. The Department will immediately suspend the home or agency certificate where imminent danger to health or safety of individuals exists.

(3) Debarred providers or individuals. The Department will deny, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew a certificate or license where it finds that a provider or agency is on the current Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services list of excluded or debarred providers.

(4) Revocation, suspension or denial done in accordance with ORS Chapter 183. Such revocation, suspension or denial will be done in accordance with these rules and ORS Chapter 183.

(5) Failure to disclose requested information. Failure to disclose requested information on the application or provision of incomplete or incorrect information on the application will constitute grounds for denial or revocation of the certificate.

(6) Failure to implement a plan of correction or comply with a final order. The Department will deny, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew a certificate if the agency fails to implement a plan of correction or comply with a final order of the Department.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

411-345-0020

Definitions

As used in these rules, the following definitions apply:

- (1) "Abuse" means abuse of an adult as defined in OAR 407-045-0260.
- (2) "Abuse Investigation and Protective Services" means reporting and investigation activities as required by OAR 407-045-0300 and any subsequent services or supports necessary to prevent further abuse as required in OAR 407-045-0310.
- (3) "Administration of Medication" means the act of placing a medication in or on an individual's body by a staff member who is responsible for the individual's care.
- (4) "Administrator" means the administrator of the Department, or that person's designee.
- (5) "Advocate" means a person other than paid staff who has been selected by the individual or by the individual's legal representative to help the individual understand and make choices in matters relating to identification of needs and choices of services, especially when rights are at risk or have been violated.
- (6) "Aid to Physical Functioning" means any special equipment prescribed for an individual by a physician, therapist, or dietician that maintains or enhances the individual's physical functioning.
- (7) "Alternatives to Employment Services" mean any services, conducted away from an individual's residence that addresses the academic, recreational, social, or therapeutic needs of the individuals for whom it serves.
- (8) "Annual Individual Support Plan (ISP) Meeting" means an annual meeting, facilitated by a services coordinator of the community developmental disability program and attended by the ISP team members and other persons, as appropriate. The purpose of the meeting is to determine needs, coordinate services and training, and develop an ISP.
- (9) "Certificate" means a document issued by the Department to a service provider that certifies the service provider is eligible under the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323 to receive state funds for the provision of endorsed employment and alternatives to employment services.
- (10) "Community Based Service" means any service or program providing opportunities for the majority of an individual's time to be spent in community participation or integration.
- (11) "Community Developmental Disability Program (CDDP)" means an entity that is responsible for the planning and delivery of services for individuals with developmental disabilities in a specific geographic service area of the state operated by or under a contract with the Department.
- (12) "Complaint Investigation" means an investigation of any complaint that has been made to a proper authority that is not covered by an abuse investigation.
- (13) "Controlled Substance" means any drug classified as Schedules 1 to 5 under the Federal Controlled Substance Act.
- (14) "Department" means the Department of Human Services (DHS).
- (15) "Developmental Disability" as defined in OAR 411-320-0020.
- (16) "Discovery" is a focused time-limited service engaging a participant in identifying their strengths, needs, and interests to prepare for integrated employment.
- (17) "Division" means the Department of Human Services, Seniors and People with Disabilities Division (SPD).
- (18) "Employment Services" means any service that has as its primary goal the employment of individuals, including job assessment, job development, training, and ongoing supports.
- (19) "Endorsement" means authorization to provide employment and alternatives to employment services issued by the Department to a certified service provider that has met the qualification criteria outlined in these rules and the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323.
- (20) "Entry" means admission to a Department-funded developmental disability service.
- (21) "Executive Director" means the person designated by a board of directors or corporate owner that is responsible for the administration of employment and alternatives to employment services.
- (22) "Exit" means either termination from a Department-funded developmental disability service provider or transfer from one Department-funded service provider to another.
- (23) "Facility Based Service" means any service or program operated by a service provider that occurs in a location supporting more than eight individuals as a group.
- (24) "Founded Reports" means the Department's Children, Adults, and Families Division or Law Enforcement Authority (LEA) determination, based on the evidence, that there is reasonable cause to believe that conduct in violation of the child abuse statutes or rules has occurred and such conduct is attributable to the person alleged to have engaged in the conduct.

- (25) "Important for an Individual" means the areas of life that relate to being healthy, safe, and a valued member of the community.
- (26) "Important to an Individual" means the individual's perspective on the people, places, and things they like, personal values, spirituality, and a sense of self. This is learned by listening to what is being said by words or actions. When there is a conflict between words and actions, actions are considered first.
- (27) "Incident Report" means a written report of any injury, accident, acts of physical aggression, or unusual incident involving an individual.
- (28) "Independence" means the extent to which individuals exert control and choice over their own lives.
- (29) "Individual" means a person with developmental disabilities for whom services are planned and provided.
- (30) "Individual Support Plan (ISP) Action Plan" means the written documentation of the ISP team's commitment in supporting an individual to resolve or improve particular aspects of their life. An ISP Action Plan identifies the necessary measurable steps to be taken, who is accountable for assuring implementation, and timelines for completion.
- (31) "Individual Support Plan (ISP) Team" means a team composed of the individual served, agency representatives who provide service to the individual (as appropriate), the guardian (if any), the services coordinator, and family or other persons requested to develop the ISP.
- (32) "Integration" means the use by individuals of the same community resources used by and available to other persons in the community, including participation in community activities and having contact with persons in their community.
- (33) "Job Development" means assistance and support for individuals to pursue employment and obtain job placement.
- (34) "Mandatory Reporter" means any public or private official who, while acting in an official capacity, comes in contact with and has reasonable cause to believe an adult with developmental disabilities has suffered abuse, or comes in contact with any person whom the official has reasonable cause to believe abused an adult with developmental disabilities. Pursuant to ORS 430.765(2) psychiatrists, psychologists, clergy, and attorneys are not mandatory reporters with regard to information received through communications that are privileged under ORS 40.225 to 40.295.
- (35) "Medicaid Agency Identification Number" means the numeric identifier assigned to a service provider as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370 following the service provider's enrollment to manage service delivery sites or areas within Oregon under endorsement or license from the Department.
- (36) "Medicaid Performing Provider Number" means the numeric identifier assigned to an entity or person by the Department, following enrollment to deliver Medicaid funded services as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370. The Medicaid Performing Provider Number is used by the rendering service provider for identification and billing purposes associated with service authorizations and payments.
- (37) "Medication" means any drug, chemical, compound, suspension, or preparation in suitable form for use as a curative or remedial substance taken either internally or externally by any person.
- (38) "OIS" means Oregon Intervention System.
- (39) "Path to Employment" means a concept that identifies an individual's preferences in moving toward employment using principles of self-determination and a set of questions and strategies that assist the Individual Support Plan team when planning.
- (40) "Person-Centered Planning" means:
  - (a) A process, either formal or informal, for gathering and organizing information that helps an individual:
    - (A) Determine and describe choices about employment or personal goals, activities, and lifestyle preferences; and
    - (B) Identify, use, and strengthen naturally occurring opportunities for support in the community.
  - (b) The methods for gathering information vary, but all are consistent with individual needs and preferences.
- (41) "Person-Centered Process" means a practice of identifying what is important to and for an individual, and the supports necessary to address issues of health, safety, behavior, and financial support.
- (42) "Physical Intervention" means the use of any physical action or any response to maintain the health and safety of an individual or others during a potentially dangerous situation or event.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(43) "Physical Restraint" means any manual physical holding of or contact with an individual that restricts the individual's freedom of movement.

(44) "Productivity" as defined in ORS 427.005 means:

(a) Engagement in income producing work by an individual that is measured through improvements in income level, employment status, or job advancement; or

(b) Engagement by an individual in work contributing to a household or community.

(45) "Protection" means the necessary actions taken as soon as possible to prevent subsequent abuse or exploitation of the individual, to prevent self-destructive acts, and to safeguard an individual's person, property, and funds.

(46) "Psychotropic Medication" means medication the prescribed intent of which is to affect or alter thought processes, mood, or behavior including but not limited to anti-psychotic, antidepressant, anxiolytic (anti-anxiety), and behavior medications. The classification of a medication depends upon its stated, intended effect when prescribed.

(47) "Self-Administration of Medication" means the individual manages and takes his or her own medication, identifies his or her own medication and the times and methods of administration, places the medication internally in or externally on his or her own body without staff assistance upon the written order of a physician, and safely maintains the medication without supervision.

(48) "Self-Determination" means for the purpose of these rules, a philosophy and process by which individuals are empowered to gain control over the selection of services that meet their needs. The basic principles of self-determination are:

(a) Freedom. The ability for an individual, together with freely chosen family, friends, and professionals, to plan for employment beyond the parameters of a predefined program;

(b) Authority. The ability for an individual, together with the Individual Support Plan team, to declare a chosen employment path and to plan supports accordingly.

(c) Autonomy. Planning for and accessing resources that support an individual to seek employment; and

(d) Responsibility. The acceptance of a valued role in an individual's community through employment, organizational affiliations, personal development, and general caring for others in the community, as well as accountability for spending public dollars in ways that are life-enhancing for individuals.

(49) "Service Provider" or "Service" means a public or private community agency or organization that provides recognized developmental disability services and is certified and endorsed by the Department to provide these services under these rules and the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323. For the purpose of these rules, "agency", "provider", or "program" is synonymous with "service provider".

(50) "Services Coordinator" means an employee of the community developmental disability program or other agency that contracts with the county or Department, who is selected to plan, procure, coordinate, and monitor Individual Support Plan services and to act as a proponent for individuals.

(51) "Staff" means paid employees responsible for providing services to individuals and whose wages are paid in part or in full with funds contracted with the community developmental disability program or contracted directly through the Department.

(52) "Substantiated" means an abuse investigation has been completed by the Department or the Department's designee and the preponderance of the evidence establishes the abuse occurred.

(53) "Support" means assistance that individuals require, solely because of the affects of developmental disability, to maintain or increase independence, achieve community presence and participation, and improve productivity. Support is subject to change with time and circumstances.

(54) "Supported Employment" means the provision of situational assessment, job development, job training, and ongoing support necessary to place, maintain, or change the employment of an individual in an integrated work setting. The individual is compensated in accordance with the Fair Labor Standards Act.

(55) "These Rules" mean the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 345.

(56) "Transfer" means movement of an individual from one site to another site administered by the same service provider within the same county.

(57) "Unit of Service" means the equivalent of an individual receiving services 25 hours per week, 52 weeks per year minus the following:

(a) Personal, vacation, or sick leave allowed by the service provider or employer;

(b) Holidays as recognized by the state of Oregon; and

(c) Up to 4 days for all-staff in-service training.

(58) "Unusual Incident" means incidents involving serious illness or accidents, death of an individual, injury or illness of an individual requiring inpatient or emergency hospitalization, suicide attempts, a fire requiring the services of a fire department, or any incident requiring an abuse investigation.

(59) "Variance" means a temporary exception from a regulation or provision of these rules or the rules in OAR chapter 411, division 323 that may be granted by the Department upon written application by the service provider.

(60) "Volunteer" means any person assisting a service provider without pay to support the services provided to individuals.

Program Management

(1) CERTIFICATION, ENDORSEMENT, AND ENROLLMENT. To provide employment and alternatives to employment services, a service provider must have:

(a) A certificate and an endorsement to provide employment and alternatives to employment services as set forth in OAR chapter 411, division 323;

(b) A Medicaid Agency Identification Number assigned by the Department as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370; and

(c) For each specific geographic service area where employment and alternatives to employment services shall be delivered, a Medicaid Performing Provider Number assigned by the Department as described in OAR chapter 411, division 370.

(2) INSPECTIONS AND INVESTIGATIONS. The service provider must allow inspections and investigations as described in OAR 411-323-0040.

(3) AGENCY MANAGEMENT AND PERSONNEL PRACTICES. The service provider must comply with the agency management and personnel practices as described in OAR 411-323-0050.

(4) PERSONNEL FILES AND QUALIFICATION RECORDS. The service provider must maintain the following for each staff member in a file available to the Department or the Department's designee for inspection:

(a) Written documentation of six hours of pre-service training prior to supervising individuals including mandatory abuse reporting training, training to work with individuals with developmental disabilities, and training on the support needs of the individual to whom they will provide support;

(b) Written documentation of 12 hours of job-related in-service training annually; and

(c) Documentation that the staff member has been certified in CPR and First Aid by a recognized training agency within three months of employment and that certification is kept current;

(5) CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS. The service provider must ensure all individuals' records are confidential as described in OAR 411-323-0060.

(6) DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. All entries required by these rules, unless stated otherwise must:

(a) Be prepared at the time, or immediately following the event being recorded;

(b) Be accurate and contain no willful falsifications;

(c) Be legible, dated, and signed by the person making the entry; and

(d) Be maintained for no less than five years.

(7) INDEPENDENCE, PRODUCTIVITY, AND INTEGRATION. As stated in ORS 427.007, the service provider must have a written policy that states each individual's ISP is developed to meet employment and activities that address each individual's level of independence, productivity, and integration into the local community.

Inspections and Investigations

(1) All services covered by these rules must allow the following types of investigations and inspections:

- (a) Quality assurance, certificate renewal, and on-site inspections;
- (b) Complaint investigations; and
- (c) Abuse investigations.

(2) The Department, the Department's designee, or proper authority shall perform all inspections and investigations.

(3) Any inspection or investigation may be unannounced.

(4) All documentation and written reports required by this rule must be:

(a) Open to inspection and investigation by the Department, the Department's designee, or proper authority; and

(b) Submitted to or made available for review by the Department within the time allotted.

(5) When abuse is alleged or death of an individual has occurred and a law enforcement agency, or the Department or the Department's designee, has determined to initiate an investigation, the service provider may not conduct an internal investigation without prior authorization from the Department. For the purposes of this section, an internal investigation is defined as:

(a) Conducting interviews of the alleged victim, witness, the accused person, or any other persons who may have knowledge of the facts of the abuse allegation or related circumstances;

(b) Reviewing evidence relevant to the abuse allegation, other than the initial report; or

(c) Any other actions beyond the initial actions of determining:

(A) If there is reasonable cause to believe that abuse has occurred;

(B) If the alleged victim is in danger or in need of immediate protective services;

(C) If there is reason to believe that a crime has been committed; or

(D) What, if any, immediate personnel actions must be taken to assure individual safety.

(6) When an abuse investigation has been initiated, the CDDP must provide notice to the service provider according to OAR 407-045-0290.

(7) The Department or the Department's designee shall conduct investigations as described in OAR 407-045-0250 to OAR 407-045-0360.

(8) When an abuse investigation has been completed, the CDDP must provide notice of the outcome of the Abuse Investigation and Protective Services Report according to OAR 407-045-0320.

(9) Upon completion of the abuse investigation by the Department, the Department's designee, or a law enforcement agency, the service provider may conduct an investigation to determine if any other personnel actions are necessary.

(10) Upon completion of the Abuse Investigation and Protective Services Report, according to OAR 407-045-0330 the sections of the report that are public records and not exempt from disclosure under the public records law must be provided to the appropriate service provider. The service provider must implement the actions necessary within the deadlines listed, to prevent further abuse as stated in the report.

(11) A plan of improvement must be submitted to the CDDP and the Division for any noncompliance found during an inspection under this rule.

Individual Rights

(1) ABUSE. Any individual as defined in OAR 411-345-0020 must not be abused nor shall abuse be tolerated by any employee, staff, or volunteer of the service provider.

(2) PROTECTION AND WELLBEING.

(a) The service provider must have and implement written policies and procedures that protect individuals' rights during the hours the individual is receiving services. The service provider must encourage and assist individuals to understand and exercise their rights. The policies and procedures must at a minimum provide for:

(A) Assurance that each individual has the same civil and human rights accorded to other citizens;

(B) Adherence to all applicable state and federal labor rules and regulations;

(C) Opportunities for individuals to be productive;

(D) Services that promote independence and that are appropriate to the age and preferences of the individual;

(E) Confidentiality of personal information regarding the individual;

(F) Adequate medical and health care, supportive services, and training;

(G) Opportunities for visits to legal and medical professionals when necessary;

(H) Private communication, including personal mail and access to a telephone, consistent with the service provider's policies for all employees;

(I) Fostering of personal control and freedom regarding personal property;

(J) Protection from abuse and neglect, including freedom from unauthorized training, treatment, and chemical or mechanical restraints;

(K) Freedom from unauthorized personal restraints; and

(L) Transfer of individuals within a service as described in OAR 411-345-0140.

(b) At entry to service and in a timely manner as changes occur, the service provider must inform each individual and parent, guardian, or advocate orally and in writing of the service provider's policy and procedures and a description of how the individual may exercise their rights.

411-345-0190

Medical Services

(1) All individuals' medical records must be kept confidential as described in OAR 411-323-0060.

(2) The service provider must have and implement written policies and procedures that describe the medical management system including medication administration, early detection and prevention of infectious disease, self-administration of medication, drug disposal, emergency medical procedures including the handling of bodily fluids, and confidentiality of medical records.

(3) Individuals must receive care that promotes their health and well being, as follows:

(a) The service provider must observe the health and physical condition of individuals and take action in a timely manner in response to identified changes in condition that could lead to deterioration or harm;

(b) The service provider must assist individuals with the use and maintenance of prosthetic devices as necessary for the activities of the service;

(c) The service provider, with the individual's knowledge, must share information regarding medical conditions with the individual's residential contact and the Services Coordinator; and

(d) The service provider must provide rest and lunch periods at least as required by applicable law unless the individual's needs dictate additional time.

(4) The service provider must maintain records on each individual to aid physicians, medical professionals, and the service provider in understanding the individual's medical history and current treatment program. These records must be kept current and organized in a manner that permits staff and medical persons to follow easily the individual's course of treatment. Such documentation must include:

(a) A medical history obtained prior to entry to services including where available:

(A) A copy of a record of immunizations; and

(B) A list of known communicable diseases and allergies.

(b) A record of the individual's current medical condition including:

(A) A copy of all current orders for medication administered, maintained at the service provider's site;

(B) A list of all current medications; and

(C) A record of visits to medical professionals, consultants, or therapists if facilitated or provided by the service provider.

(5) The administration of medication at the service site must be avoided whenever possible. When medications, treatments, equipment, or special diets must be administered or monitored for self-administration, the service provider must:

(a) Obtain a copy of a written order, signed by a physician, physician's designee, or a medical practitioner prescribing the medication, treatment, special diet, equipment or other medical service; and

(b) Follow written orders.

(c) PRN orders are not accepted for psychotropic medication.

(6) All medications administered or monitored in the case of self-administration must be:

(a) Kept in their original containers;

(b) Labeled by the dispensing pharmacy, product manufacturer, or physician, as specified per the physician's or licensed health care practitioner's written order;

(c) Kept in a secured locked container and stored as indicated by the product manufacturer; and

(d) Recorded on an individualized Medication Administration Record (MAR), including treatments and PRN orders.

(8) The MAR must include:

(a) The name of the individual;

(b) The brand or generic name of the medication including the prescribed dosage and frequency of administration as contained on physician order and medication;

(c) For topical medications and basic first aid treatments utilized without a physician's order, a transcription of the printed instructions from the package or the description of the basic first aid treatment provided;

(d) Times and dates of administration or self-administration of the medication;

(e) The signature of the staff administering the medication or monitoring the self-administration of the medication;

(f) Method of administration;

(g) Documentation of any known allergies or adverse reactions to a medication;

(h) Documentation and an explanation of why a PRN medication was administered and the results of such administration; and

(i) An explanation of any medication administration irregularity with documentation of administrative review by the service provider's executive director or designee.

(9) Safeguards to prevent adverse medication reactions shall be utilized to include:

(a) Maintaining information about each prescribed medication's effects and side-effects;

(b) Communicating any concerns regarding any medication usage, effectiveness, or effects to the residential contact and the services coordinator; and

(c) Prohibiting the use of one individual's medications by another.

(10) The service site or service provider may not keep unused, discontinued, outdated, or recalled drugs, or drug containers with worn, illegible, or missing labels. All unused, discontinued, outdated, or recalled drugs, or drug containers with worn, illegible, or missing labels must be promptly disposed of in a manner consistent with federal statutes and designed to prevent illegal diversion of the substances into the possession of people other than for whom it was prescribed. A written record must be maintained by the service provider of all disposed drugs and must include:

(a) Date of disposal;

(b) A description of the medication including amount;

(c) The individual for whom the medication was prescribed;

(d) The reason for disposal;

(e) The method of disposal;

(f) Signature of staff disposing; and

(g) For controlled medications, the signature of a witness to the disposal.

(11) For any individual who is self-administering medication the service provider must:

(a) Have documentation that a training program was initiated with approval of the individual's ISP team or that training for the individual is unnecessary;

(b) If necessary, have a training program that is consistent with the self-administration training program in place at the individual's residence;

(c) If necessary, have a training program that provides for retraining when there is a change in dosage, medication, or time of delivery;

(d) Have specific supports identified and documented for the individual when training has been deemed unnecessary; and

(e) Provide for an annual review, at a minimum, as part of the ISP process, upon completion of the training program or when training for the individual has been deemed necessary by the ISP team.

(12) The service provider must ensure that individuals able to self-administer medications keep them secured, unavailable to any other person, and stored as recommended by the product manufacturer.

(13) The service provider must immediately contact the services coordinator when the individual's medical, behavioral, or physical needs change to a point that the individual's needs may not be met by the service provider. The ISP team must determine alternative placement or arrangement if necessary.

137-055-1020

Child Support Program Definitions

The following definitions apply to OAR 137-055-1040 through 137-055-7190:

(1) Unless otherwise stated, “administrator” means either the Administrator of the Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice or a district attorney, or the administrator’s or a district attorney’s authorized representative.

(2) “Assignee” means the Department of Human Services (DHS), the Oregon Health Authority (OHA), the Division of Child Support, Oregon Youth Authority (OYA) or equivalent agencies in any other state or Tribe to which support rights for a person are assigned.

(3) “Assignment” or “Assigned” means all or a portion of support payments owed to a person will be kept by the state if the person or a beneficiary of the person is receiving Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) cash assistance, foster care, or OYA services. Support payments will be distributed as provided in OAR 137-055-6022. Additionally, if a person receives Title XIX medical assistance, medical support rights are assigned.

(4) “Beneficiary” means any child, spouse or former spouse for whom an obligor has been ordered (or has agreed) to pay support, under a court or administrative order, or a voluntary agreement.

(5) “Child Support Award” means a money award or administrative order that requires the payment of child support.

(6) “Child Support Program” or ACSP” is the program authorized under title IV-D of the Social Security Act to provide child support enforcement services required by federal and state law. The CSP director in Oregon is the Administrator of the Division of Child Support. The CSP includes the Division of Child Support and those district attorneys that contract to provide services described in ORS 25.080.

(7) “Class Order” means a support order for multiple children that does not specify an amount of support per child and requires the payment of the entire amount until the last child attains majority or until the order is prospectively modified.

(8) “Court Order” means any judgment or order of the court requiring an obligor to provide child or spousal and/or health care coverage, for specified beneficiaries.

(9) “Court ordered Amount”, or “COA”, means the periodic payment amount, usually monthly, ordered by the administrator, an administrative law judge or by a court for support. The COA can be either the amount for each beneficiary on a support case, or the total amount for all beneficiaries in a single support case.

(10) “Department of Human Services”, or “DHS”, is the state’s health and human services agency. DHS is responsible for public assistance programs such as: TANF, Food Stamps, child-protective services, and foster care and adoption programs.

(11) “Disbursement” means dispensing or paying out collected support.

(12) “Distribution” means allocating or apportioning collected support.

(13) “District Attorney”, or “DA”, means the district attorney for an Oregon county responsible for providing services under ORS 25.080.

(14) “Division of Child Support”, or “DCS”, is the Division of Oregon’s Department of Justice that is responsible for providing services under ORS 25.080.

(15) “Guidelines” refers to the guidelines, the formula, and related provisions established by DCS, in OAR 137-050-0705 through 137-050-0765.

(16) “Income Withholding” means a judicial or administrative process under which an obligor’s employer, trustee, or other provider of income is ordered to withhold a specified percentage, or a specified amount, from each and every paycheck or benefit payment of an obligor, for the purpose of paying current and past due support. Income withholding is distinguished from garnishment as follows: income withholding will occur continuously under a single order and is not subject to claim of exemption; a garnishment occurs for only a limited duration under a single writ and is subject to certain property exemptions provided by law.

(17) “Initiating agency” means a state or tribal IV-D agency, or a child support agency in a reciprocating foreign country, in which an individual has applied for or is receiving child support services.

(18) “Intergovernmental” means a case or action that involves a tribe, another country, or another state’s child support agency.

(19) “Issuing jurisdiction” means the state, tribe or reciprocating foreign country in which a tribunal issues a support order or renders a judgment determining parentage and includes an “issuing state” as defined in ORS 110.303(9).

(20) “Judgment Lien” means the effect of a judgment on real property for the county in which the judgment is entered, or such other county where the lien is recorded, and includes any support arrearage lien attaching to real property.

(21) “Judgment Remedy” means the ability of a judgment creditor to enforce a judgment, including enforcement through a judgment lien.

(22) “Legal proceeding” means any action related to the support order that requires service of documents on the parties. For the purposes of OAR 137-055-1140 and 137-055-1160, “legal proceeding” means a proceeding initiated by the administrator.

(23) “Medicaid” refers to Title XIX of the Social Security Act (see the definition under “Title XIX”).

(24) “Money Award” means a judgment or portion of a judgment that requires the payment of money. A money award will always refer to a sum certain and will not require a payment in installments.

(25) “Oregon Health Authority” or “OHA” is the State of Oregon agency acting as the state Medicaid agency for administration of funds from Title XIX and XXI of the Social Security Act and to administer medical assistance under ORS chapter 414.

(26) “Oregon Youth Authority”, or “OYA”, is the State of Oregon agency responsible for the supervision, management, and administration of state parole and probation services, community out-of-home placements, and youth correction facilities for youth offenders, and other functions related to state programs for youth corrections.

(27) “Party” means an obligor, obligee, a child attending school under ORS 107.108 and OAR 137-055-5110, and includes any person who has been joined to the proceeding.

(28) “Responding agency” means the agency that is providing services in response to a referral from an initiating agency in an intergovernmental case.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(29) "Subsequent child" means a child whose paternity or support has not been established and who is born to the same parents of another child, or who has not been included in a support order for another child with the same parties.

(30) "Support" means monetary payments, health care coverage payments or premiums, cash medical payments or other benefits or payments that a person has been ordered by a court or by administrative process, or has voluntarily agreed, to provide for the benefit and maintenance of another person.

(31) "Support Arrearage Lien" means a lien that attaches to real property when an installment becomes due under the terms of a support award and is not paid.

(32) "Support Award" means a money award or administrative order that requires the payment of child or spousal support.

(33) "Support Order" means a judgment or order, whether temporary, final or subject to modification, which reflects an obligation to contribute to the support of a child, a spouse or a former spouse, and requires an obligor to provide monetary support, health care, arrears or reimbursement. A support order may include related costs and fees, interest, income withholding, attorney fees and other relief.

(34) "TANF" means "Temporary Assistance for Needy Families", a public assistance program which provides case management and cash assistance to low income families with minor children. It is designed to promote personal responsibility and accountability for parents. The goal of the program is to reduce the number of families living in poverty through employment services and community resources. Title IV-A of the Social Security Act is the specific provision that gives grants to states and Tribes for aid and services to needy families with dependent children.

(35) "Tiered" order means an order which includes an amount of support to be paid if an adult child becomes a child attending school under ORS 107.108 and OAR 137-055-5110.

(36) "Title IV-A" refers to Title IV-A of the Social Security Act, which is the specific provision that gives grants to states and Tribes for aid and services to needy families with dependent children (see "TANF"). Applicants for assistance from IV-A programs are automatically referred to their state IV-D agency in order to identify and locate the non-custodial parent, establish paternity or a child support order, and obtain child support payments.

(37) "Title IV-D" refers to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, which requires each state to create a program to locate noncustodial parents, establish paternity, establish and enforce child support obligations, and collect, distribute and disburse support payments. Recipients of IV-A (TANF), IV-E (foster care), XIX (Medicaid), and Oregon Youth Authority (OYA) assistance are referred to their state's IV-D child support program. States must also accept applications from families who do not receive assistance, if requested, to assist in collection of child support. Title IV-D also established the federal Office of Child Support Enforcement.

(38) "Title IV-E" refers to Title IV-E of the Social Security Act which established a federal-state program known as Foster Care that provides financial support to a person, family, or institution that is raising a child or children that is not their own. The funding for IV-E foster care programs is primarily from federal sources.

(39) "Title XIX", known as Medicaid, refers to Title XIX of the Social Security Act which mandates health care coverage by states for TANF recipients and certain other means-tested categories of persons. Within broad national guidelines which the federal government provides, each state: establishes its own eligibility standards; determines the type, amount, duration, and scope of services; sets the rate of payment for services; and administers its own program. In Oregon, the program is administered by OHA.

137-055-1090

Good Cause

(1) For the purposes of OAR chapter 137, division 055, "good cause" means the Child Support Program (CSP) is exempt from providing services as defined in ORS 25.080. Specifically excluded from this definition is good cause for not withholding as defined in ORS 25.396 and OAR 137-

055-4060 and good cause found for not disbursing support to a child attending school under ORS 107.108 and OAR 137-055-5110.

(2) If an obligee believes that physical or emotional harm to the family may result if services under ORS 25.080 are provided, the obligee may request, either verbally or in writing, that the administrator discontinue all activity against the obligor. Upon such a request by an obligee, the administrator will:

(a) On an open TANF or Medicaid case, immediately suspend all activity on the case, notify DHS or OHA to add good cause coding, and send a safety packet to the obligee requesting a response be sent to DHS; or

(b) On any other case, immediately suspend all activity on the case, add good cause case coding pending a final determination, and send a Client Safety Packet on Good Cause to the obligee requesting a response within 30 days.

(3) Good cause must be determined by:

(a) The Department of Human Services (DHS), pursuant to OAR 413-100-0830, 461-120-0350, 461-120-0360, 461-135-1200 or 461-135-1205, if TANF or Title IV-E benefits are being provided;

(b) The Oregon Health Authority (OHA) if Medicaid benefits are being provided;

(c) The Oregon Youth Authority (OYA), pursuant to OAR 416-100-0020 and Policy Statement II-E-1.5, if the child is in OYA's custody;

(d) The Director of the CSP when the provisions of OAR 137-055-3080 apply; or

(e) The administrator when the provisions of subsections (a) through (d) of this section do not apply.

(4) When the provisions of subsection (3)(e) apply and the obligee makes a written claim that the provision of services may result in emotional or physical harm to the child or obligee or completes and returns the good cause form, the administrator will:

(a) Make a finding and determination that it is in the best interests of the child not to provide services;

(b) Proceed with case closure pursuant to OAR 137-055-1120; and

(c) Except for arrears permanently assigned to the Oregon Youth Authority, satisfy any and all permanently assigned arrears as defined in OAR 137-055-6010.

(5) In determining whether providing services is in the best interest of the child under section (3)(d), the CSP Director will consider:

(a) The likelihood that provision of services will result in physical or emotional harm to the child or obligee, taking into consideration:

(A) Information received from the obligee; or

(B) Records or corroborative statements of past physical or emotional harm to the child or obligee, if any.

(b) The likelihood that failure to provide services will result in physical or emotional harm to the child or obligee;

(c) The degree of cooperation needed to complete the service;

(d) The availability and viability of other protections, such as a finding of risk and order for non-disclosure pursuant to OAR 137-055-1160; and

(e) The extent of involvement of the child in the services sought.

(6) A finding and determination by the CSP Director that good cause does not apply, may be appealed as provided in ORS 183.484.

(7) A finding and determination of good cause applies to any case which involves the same obligee and child, or any case in which a child is no longer in the physical custody of the obligee, but there is a support order for the child in favor of the obligee.

(8) When an application for services is received from an obligee and TANF, Title IV-E or Medicaid benefits are not being provided, the child is not in OYA's custody, and there has been a previous finding and determination of good cause, the administrator will:

(a) Notify the obligee of the previous finding and determination of good cause and provide a Client Safety Packet;

(b) Allow the obligee 30 days to retract the application for services or return appropriate documents from the Client Safety Packet; and

(c) If no objection to proceeding or good cause form is received from the obligee, document CSEAS, remove the good cause designation and, if the case has been closed, reopen the case.

(9) When an application for services is received from a physical custodian of a child, the physical custodian is not the obligee who originally claimed good cause and TANF, Title IV-E or Medicaid benefits are not being provided, the child is not in OYA's custody and there is no previous support award, the administrator will open a new case without good cause coding with the physical custodian as the obligee.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(10)(a) When an application for services is received from a physical custodian of a child, the physical custodian is not the obligee who originally claimed good cause and TANF, Title IV-E or Medicaid benefits are not being provided, the child is not in OYA's custody, and the case in which there has been a finding and determination of good cause has a support award in favor of the obligee who originally claimed good cause, the administrator will:

(A) Notify the obligee who originally claimed good cause that an application has been received and provide a Client Safety Packet; and

(B) Advise the obligee who originally claimed good cause that the previous good cause finding and determination will be treated as a claim of risk as provided in OAR 137-055-1160; and

(C) Allow the obligee 30 days to provide a contact address as provided in OAR 137-055-1160.

(b) If an objection or good cause form is received from the obligee who originally claimed good cause, or if the location of the obligee who originally claimed good cause is unknown, the administrator will forward the objection, form or case to the Director of the CSP for a determination of whether to proceed;

(c) If no objection or good cause form is received from the obligee who originally claimed good cause, the administrator will document CSEAS, make a finding of risk and order for non-disclosure pursuant to OAR 137-055-1160 for that obligee, remove the good cause designation, and, if the case has been closed, reopen the case.

(11)(a) If a request for services under ORS chapter 110 is received from another jurisdiction and TANF, Title IV-E or Medicaid benefits are not being provided by the State of Oregon, the child is not in OYA's custody and there has been a finding and determination of good cause, the administrator will:

(A) Notify the referring jurisdiction of the finding and determination of good cause and request that the jurisdiction consult with the obligee to determine whether good cause should still apply; and

(B) If the location of the obligee is known, notify the obligee that the referral has been received, provide a Client Safety Packet and ask the obligee to contact both the referring agency and the administrator if there is an objection to proceeding; and

(C) Advise the obligee who originally claimed good cause that the previous good cause finding and determination will be treated as a claim of risk as provided in OAR 137-055-1160; and

(D) Allow the obligee 30 days to provide a contact address as provided in OAR 137-055-1160.

(b) If an objection or good cause form is received from the obligee, the administrator will forward the objection, form or case to the Director of the CSP for a determination of whether to proceed.

(c) If there is no objection or good cause form received from the obligee, or if the obligee's address is unknown, and the referring jurisdiction advises that the finding and determination of good cause no longer applies, the administrator will document CSEAS, remove the good cause designation and, if the case has been closed, reopen the case.

(12) If a referral for services under ORS 25.080 is received because TANF, Title IV-E or Medicaid benefits are being provided or the child is in OYA's custody, and there has been a previous finding and determination of good cause, the administrator will notify the appropriate state agency of the previous finding and determination of good cause and:

(a) If TANF, Title IV-E or Medicaid benefits are being provided, DHS will, in consultation with the office which made the good cause finding and determination and as provided in DHS policy SS-PT-05-005, decide whether good cause still applies pursuant to OAR 413-100-0830, 461-135-1200, 461-135-1205, 461-120-0350 or 461-120-0360; or

(b) If the child is in OYA's custody, OYA will, in consultation with the office which made the good cause finding and determination and as provided in OYA Policy II-E-1.5, determine if the circumstances that created the good cause still exist and, if they do not, request that the agency which determined good cause remove the coding.

(13) When the provisions of section (12) apply, the administrator will not provide services unless and until good cause coding is removed by the agency who made the good cause finding and determination.

(14) Notwithstanding any other provision of this rule, when a case has not previously had a good cause finding and determination and TANF, Title IV-E or Medicaid benefits are being provided or the child is in OYA's custody, and DHS, OHA or OYA makes a current good cause finding and determination on a related case, the administrator will not provide services on the case or related cases unless and until good cause coding is removed by DHS, OHA or OYA.

(15) In any case in which a good cause finding and determination has been made and subsequently removed, past support under ORS 416.422 and OAR 137-055-3220 may not be sought for any periods prior to the determination that good cause no longer applies.

(16) In any case in which a good cause finding and determination has been made, and a child attending school as defined in ORS 107.108 and OAR 137-055-5110 is a party to the case, the child attending school may file an application for services pursuant to OAR 137-055-1060, 137-055-1070 and 137-055-5110.

137-055-1120

Case Closure

(1) The administrator may close a child support case whenever the case meets at least one of the following criteria for case closure:

(a) There is no longer a current support order, arrears are under $500 and there are no reasonable expectations for collection or the arrears are uncollectible under state law. For the purposes of this subsection, "no longer a current support order" means the support order is not currently accruing or there never was a support order. This subsection specifically includes but is not limited to cases in which:

(A) Action to establish support has not been initiated and the child is at least 18 years old;

(B) The child has been adopted;

(C) The child is deceased; or

(D) Parental rights for the child have been terminated;

(b) The non-custodial parent or putative father is deceased and no further action, including a levy against the estate, can be taken;

(c) Paternity cannot be established because:

(A) A parentage test, or a court or administrative process, has excluded the putative father and no other putative father can be identified;

(B) The identity of the biological father is unknown and cannot be identified after diligent efforts, including at least one interview by the administrator with the recipient of services;

(C) Action to establish paternity has not been initiated and the child is at least 18 years old; or

(D) In a case involving incest or forcible rape, or where legal proceedings for adoption are pending, the administrator has determined that it would not be in the best interests of the child to establish paternity. For the purposes of this paragraph, a determination by the Department of Human Services (DHS) or the Oregon Youth Authority (OYA) that paternity establishment is not in the best interests of the child is sufficient for the administrator to make the same finding.

(d) The location of the non-custodial parent is unknown, and the state parent locator service has made regular attempts using multiple sources, all of which have been unsuccessful, to locate the non-custodial parent:

(A) Over a three-year period when there is sufficient information to initiate an automated locate effort; or

(B) Over a one-year period when there is not sufficient information to initiate an automated locate effort;

(e) When paternity is not at issue and the non-custodial parent cannot pay support for the duration of the child's minority because the parent is both:

(A) Institutionalized in a psychiatric facility, is incarcerated with no chance for parole, or has a medically verified total and permanent disability with no evidence of support potential; and

(B) Without available income or assets which could be levied or attached for support;

(f) The non-custodial parent:

(A) Is a citizen of, and lives in, a foreign country;

(B) Does not work for the Federal government or for a company or state with headquarters in or offices in the United States;

(C) Has no reachable income or assets in the United States; and

(D) Oregon has been unable to establish reciprocity with the country;

(g) The state parent locator service has provided location-only services based upon a request under 45 CFR 302.35(c)(3);

(h) The custodial parent or recipient of services requests closure, and:

(A) There is no assignment to the state of medical support; and

(B) There is no assignment of arrears that have accrued on the case;

(i) An initiating agency requests closure and the agency requesting closure:

(A) Has closed its case; or

(B) Has advised Oregon that services are no longer needed.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(j) The custodial parent or recipient of services is deceased and no trustee or personal representative has requested services to collect arrears;

(k) DHS, OYA, the Oregon Health Authority or the administrator pursuant to OAR 137-055-1090, has made a finding of good cause or other exceptions to cooperation and has determined that support enforcement may not proceed without risk or harm to the child or caretaker;

(l) In a non-TANF case (excluding a Medicaid case), the administrator is unable to contact the custodial parent, or recipient of services, within 60 calendar days, despite an attempt of at least one letter sent by first class mail to the last known address;

(m) In a non-TANF case, the administrator documents the circumstances of non-cooperation by the custodial parent, or recipient of services, and an action by the custodial parent, or applicant for services, is essential for the next step in providing enforcement services; or

(n) The administrator documents failure by the initiating agency to take an action which is essential for the next step in providing services.

(2)(a)(A) Except as otherwise provided in this section, if the administrator elects to close a case pursuant to subsection (1)(a), (1)(e), (1)(f), (1)(j) or (1)(l) through (1)(n) of this rule, the administrator will notify all parties to the case in writing at least 60 calendar days prior to closure of the case of the intent to close the case.

(B) If the administrator elects to close a case pursuant to subsection (1)(b) through (1)(d) of this rule, the administrator:

(i) Will notify the obligee and any child attending school in writing at least 60 days prior to closure of the case of the intent to close the case;

(ii) Is not required to notify the obligor of the intent to close the case; and

(iii) If the provisions of paragraph (1)(c)(D) apply, is not required to notify any other party.

(C) If the administrator elects to close a case pursuant to subsection (1)(g) or (1)(i) of this rule, the administrator is not required to notify any party of the intent to close the case. However, if the case is closed pursuant to paragraph (1)(i), the administrator will send a courtesy notice to the parties advising the reason for closure.

(D) If the administrator elects to close a case pursuant to subsection (1)(h) of this rule, the administrator will notify all parties to the case in writing at least 60 calendar days prior to closure of the case of the intent to close the case, except:

(i) When the case is a Child Welfare or Oregon Youth Authority case in which the child has left state care, an order under OAR 137-055-3290 is not appropriate, and a notice and finding has not been initiated, the case will be closed immediately; and

(ii) No closure notice will be sent to the parents unless a parent had contact with the Child Support Program, Child Welfare or the Oregon Youth Authority regarding the child support case.

(E) If the administrator elects to close a case pursuant to subsection (1)(k) of this rule, the administrator will:

(i) Notify the obligee and any child attending school in writing at least 60 days prior to closure of the case of the intent to close the case; and

(ii) Not notify the obligor of the intent to close the case.

(b) The 60-day time frame in paragraph (2)(a)(A) is independent of the 60-day calendar time frame in subsection (1)(l).

(c) The administrator will document the notice of case closure by entering a narrative line, or lines, on the child support computer system and will include the date of the notice.

(d) The content of the notice in paragraph (2)(a)(A) must include, but is not limited to, the specific reason for closure, actions a party can take to prevent closure, and a statement that an individual may reapply for services at any time.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2)(a)(A) of this rule, a case may be closed immediately if:

(a) All parties agree to waive the notice of intent to close and the 60-day objection period when the notice of intent to close has not yet been sent; or

(b) All parties agree to waive the remainder of the 60-day objection period when the notice of intent to close has already been sent.

(4) The administrator will keep a case open if, in response to the notice sent pursuant to paragraph (2)(a)(A) of this rule:

(a) The applicant or recipient of services:

(A) Supplies information which could lead to the establishment of paternity or of a support order, or enforcement of an order; or

(B) Reestablishes contact with the administrator, in cases where the administrator proposed to close the case under subsection (1)(l) of this rule; or

(b) The party who is not the applicant or recipient of services completes an application for services.

(5) A party may request at a later date that the case be reopened if there is a change in circumstances that could lead to the establishment of paternity or a support order, or enforcement of an order, by completing a new application for services.

(6) The administrator will document the justification for case closure by entering a narrative line or lines on the child support computer system in sufficient detail to communicate the basis for the case closure.

137-055-1145

Access to Child Support Records

(1) When information may be shared pursuant to ORS 25.260, this rule clarifies the type of information which may be accessed through automation or contact and who is authorized to access the information.

(2)(a) Information which may be accessed from the Child Support Enforcement Automated System (CSEAS) records by an agency administering programs under Title IV-A of the Social Security Act may include:

(A) Obligor name, social security number, date of birth, address and phone number;

(B) Obligee name, social security number, date of birth and address;

(C) Title IV-A case number;

(D) Whether the case carries identifiers indicating:

(i) There is a finding or determination of good cause under OAR 137-055-1090, 413-100-0830, 461-120-0350, 461-120-0360, 461-135-1200 or 461-135-1205;

(ii) There is an order for nondisclosure of information pursuant to OAR 137-055-1160; or

(iii) There is a contact address;

(E) Obligor employer name, address, federal identification number and wages;

(F) Obligor's unemployment compensation benefits;

(G) Obligor's gross quarterly compensation;

(H) The name of any jurisdiction with a child support case or order;

(I) Child's name, date of birth and social security number;

(J) The date(s) and amount(s) of any support payment distributed and to whom or where it was distributed; and

(K) Any information which is not considered confidential, including but not limited to the child support case number, caseload assignment and Child Support Program (CSP) employee roster.

(b) Information which may be accessed from CSEAS records by an agency administering programs under Title XIX of the Social Security Act may include:

(A) Obligor name, social security number, date of birth, address and phone number;

(B) Obligee name, social security number, date of birth and address;

(C) Title IV-A case number;

(D) Whether the case carries identifiers indicating:

(i) There is a finding or determination of good cause under OAR 137-055-1090, 413-100-0830, 461-120-0350, 461-120-0360, 461-135-1200 or 461-135-1205;

(ii) There is an order for nondisclosure of information pursuant to OAR 137-055-1160; or

(iii) There is a contact address;

(E) Obligor's employer name, address, federal identification number and wages;

(F) Obligor's unemployment compensation benefits;

(G) Obligor's gross quarterly compensation;

(H) The name of any jurisdiction with a child support case or order;

(I) Child's name, date of birth and social security number;

(J) Whether health care coverage is ordered;

(K) Whether health care coverage is provided;

(L) Insurer name, address and health insurance policy number;

(M) The date(s) and amount(s) of any support payment made to the obligee; and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(N) Any information which is not considered confidential, including but not limited to the child support case number, caseload assignment and CSP employee roster.

(c) Information which may be accessed from CSEAS records by an agency administering programs under Title I, X, XIV or XVI of the Social Security Act, an agency administering the Food Stamp program, the State Employment Services Agency (including agencies which administer the unemployment compensation program), and agencies administering workers' compensation programs is limited to obligor name, social security number and address and employer name, address and federal identification number.

(A) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2)(c), if an agency identified in that subsection receives a written consent to release information as provided in OAR 137-055-1140(12), the agency may have access to information that may be released to a party.

(B) In addition to the information listed in subsection (2)(c), the State Employment Services Agency (including agencies which administer the unemployment compensation program) may have access to the history of the obligor's employers' names, addresses and federal identification numbers.

(d) Information which may be accessed from CSEAS records by a private industry council, as defined in OAR 137-055-1140, is limited to obligor name, address, phone number and Title IV-A case number.

(3) An agency administering a program identified in section (2) of this rule may obtain access for its employees to CSEAS records by entering into an interagency agreement with the Child Support Program (CSP). Any agreement must include provisions under which the agency seeking access agrees to put into place a process that ensures:

(a) Each employee given access has read and understands the CSP rules and Division of Child Support conflict of interest policy;

(b) Each employee given access agrees to abide by the terms of the CSP rules and policy;

(c) Each employee given access agrees to access and use information only for the purposes for which access is allowed as described in this rule;

(d) Employees can identify and be screened from conflict of interest cases;

(e) The agency, on a regular basis, audits access by employees, including verification of the purpose for which information is accessed and provides the CSP with the results of the audit;

(f) Violations are reported to the CSP, including the steps taken by the agency to prevent future violation;

(g) Access is revoked as provided in section (4) of this rule; and

(h) Access rights are updated, including notifying the CSP when an employee terminates or is transferred.

(4) If an employee of an agency described in section (2) of this rule discloses or inappropriately uses the information covered by this rule:

(a) The CSP Director, after consulting with the employee's agency, will determine whether the disclosure or usage occurred or likely occurred; and

(b) The employee's access to information from CSEAS records will be revoked:

(A) Temporarily, if a determination by the CSP Director is pending; or

(B) Permanently, if a determination by the CSP Director is made that disclosure or usage occurred or likely occurred.

(c) The provisions of this section are in addition to any other penalty for disclosure or usage of confidential information imposed by the employee's agency or by any other provision of law.

(5) CSP staff may disclose case information to an employee of an agency described in subsection (2)(a) when:

(a) That agency's employee requests specific information from a branch office;

(b) The employee's agency has entered into an agreement as provided in section (3) of this rule; and

(c) The source of the information is not the Internal Revenue Service.

(6) CSP staff may disclose information to an employee of an agency described in subsection (2)(b) when:

(a) That agency's employee requests specific information from a branch office;

(b) The employee's agency has entered into an agreement as provided in section (3) of this rule; and

(c) The source of the information is not:

(A) The Internal Revenue Service;

(B) The National Directory of New Hires; or

(C) The Federal Case Registry.

(7) Information for which disclosure is allowed under section (5) or (6) of this rule may be accessed from CSEAS records if feasible.

Establishment of Past Support Orders

(1) For purposes of this rule the following definitions apply:

(a) "Past support" means the amount of child support that could have been ordered based on the Oregon Child Support Guidelines and accumulated as arrears against a parent for the benefit of a child for any period of time during which the child was not supported by the parent and for which period no support order was in effect.

(b) "Supported by the parent" in subsection (1)(a) means payments in cash or in kind in amounts or in-kind value equal to the amount that would have accrued under the Oregon Child Support Guidelines from the non-custodial parent to the custodial parent or other custodial adult for purposes of support of the child.

(c) The Oregon Child Support Guidelines means the formula for calculating child support specified in ORS 25.275.

(2) The administrator may establish "past support" when establishing a child support order under ORS 416.400 through 416.470.

(3) When a non-custodial parent has made payments in cash or in kind to a custodial parent or other custodial adult for the support of the child during the period for which a judgment for past support is sought, and providing that those payments were in amounts equal to or exceeding the amount of support that would have been presumed correct under the Oregon Child Support Guidelines, no past support will be ordered.

(4) When such payments as described in section (3) were made in amounts less than the amount of support presumed correct under the Oregon Child Support Guidelines, the amount of the past support judgment will be the correct amount presumed under the Oregon Child Support Guidelines minus any amounts of support paid.

(5) The non-custodial parent must provide evidence of such payments as described in sections (3) and (4) by furnishing copies of:

(a) Canceled checks;

(b) Cash or money order receipts;

(c) Any other type of funds transfer records;

(d) Merchandise receipts;

(e) Verification of payments from the custodial parent or other custodial adult;

(f) Any other record of payment deemed acceptable by the administrator.

(6) It will be within the discretion of the administrator to determine whether to accept evidence of such cash or in-kind support payments for purposes of giving credit for them. If any party disagrees with this determination, the support determination may be appealed to an administrative law judge per ORS 416.427.

(7) Past support may not be ordered for any period of time prior to the later of:

(a) October 1, 1995; or

(b) The date of the initiation of IV-D services from any jurisdiction by application for services; or in case of a mandatory referral based on the receipt of TANF cash assistance, Medicaid, foster care or Oregon Youth Authority services, the date of the referral to the Child Support Program (CSP).

(8) If the support case was initiated from another jurisdiction, the date of application for services will be considered to be either:

(a) The date the initiating jurisdiction requests past support to begin but not before October 1, 1995; or

(b) If the initiating jurisdiction requests that past support be established for multiple periods of time, the beginning date of the most recent period but not before October 1, 1995; or

(c) If the initiating jurisdiction does not specify a beginning date for past support, the date of the initiating petition but not before October 1, 1995.

(9) Where CSP services did not produce a support order and CSP services were terminated by the applicant or by the CSP agency per state and federal regulations and subsequently CSP services were initiated again, the administrator will not establish past support prior to the date of the most recent initiation of CSP services. If an initiating jurisdiction requests that past support be established for two or more periods of time, past support will be established only for the most recent period.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(10) If there is or was a child support judgment in existence in any jurisdiction for the non-custodial parent to pay support to the obligee for the same child, no order for past support will be entered for a period of time before entry of the child support judgment already or previously existing except as provided in OAR 137-055-3200.

(11) Where the order to be entered is for past support only and does not include current support and the past support would be owed only to the State of Oregon or another jurisdiction, the administrator will not enter an order for past support for a period of less than four months.

(12) Past support will be calculated per the Oregon Child Support Guidelines and will use current income for the parties in calculating past support monthly amounts. Parties may rebut use of current income by presenting evidence of income in differing amounts for the months for which past support is being ordered.

Establishment of Arrears

(1) The administrator will establish arrears on support cases when the following conditions have been met:

(a) Services are being provided under ORS 25.080;

(b) There is an Oregon support order or an order from another jurisdiction has been registered in Oregon;

(c) The administrator has determined that there is a need to establish the arrears balance on the case because:

(A) The administrator has no record or an incomplete accounting case record;

(B) An establishment of income withholding has been requested by an obligor or obligee pursuant to ORS 25.381; or

(C) There is a reason which necessitates that the arrears on the case record be reestablished; and

(D) There has been a request for arrears establishment by a party.

(2) A party requesting establishment or reestablishment of arrears must furnish an accounting that shows the payment history in as much detail as is necessary to demonstrate the periods and amounts of any arrears.

(3) Where arrears had earlier been established, through a process which afforded notice and an opportunity to contest to the parties, the arrears from that period will not be reestablished except that if interest had not been included in the establishment, interest may be added for that period.

(4) The administrator may establish or reestablish arrears by either:

(a) Use of the judicial process authorized under ORS 25.167; or

(b) Use of the administrative process authorized under ORS 416.429.

(5) Upon completion of the arrears establishment process in subsection (4)(a) or subsection (4)(b) of this rule, the case record will be adjusted to reflect the new arrears amount.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this rule, when applicable, arrears will be established pursuant to ORS 25.015.

(7) Arrears for a child attending school as defined in OAR 137-055-5110, will be as set forth in OAR 137-055-5120.

District Attorney Case Assignment for Modification or Suspension of Support

(1)(a) The purpose of this rule is to provide criteria for determining which Oregon District Attorney will have responsibility for initiating action to review and modify an Oregon judgment, or administrative order that requires payment of child support. This rule applies only when both of the following conditions exist:

(A) An Oregon District Attorney has responsibility for providing support enforcement services under ORS 25.080; and

(B) Either of the following is true:

(i) A party to the case has requested a review and modification, as provided in OAR 137-055-3420, for purposes of changing the amount of the monthly support obligation; or

(ii) The obligor is presumed entitled to a suspension of the support obligation as a recipient of certain cash assistance, as provided in ORS 25.245.

(b) This rule does not apply to a Division of Child Support (DCS) office that is performing district attorney functions.

(2) For purposes of this rule, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Requesting party" means the party requesting the district attorney to review and modify the support obligation;

(A) The requesting party may be the obligor, the obligee, or the child attending school;

(B) An obligor deemed presumptively eligible for a suspension under ORS 25.245 will be considered the "requesting party";

(b) "Non-requesting party" means any party that is not the party as defined in subsection (2)(a), above.

(3) In any case where there are arrears, the district attorney responsible under OAR 137-055-2020 for enforcing the case will, if the support order is in another Oregon county, transfer in the order for review and modification under ORS 25.100.

(4) In any case where there are no arrears:

(a) If all the parties reside in the same Oregon county, but the support order is in another county:

(A) The district attorney for the county of residence of the parties will be responsible for review and modification action;

(B) The district attorney for the county of residence may transfer in the support order for review and modification under ORS 25.100, as the county of residence for the non-requesting party.

(b) If any of the parties reside in the same Oregon county that is the county of the support order, the district attorney for that county will be responsible for review and modification action;

(c) If the support order, the requesting party, and the non-requesting party(ies) are all in different counties:

(A) If the district attorney for the county of the requesting party has previously transferred the support order to the requesting party's county for enforcement, the district attorney for the enforcing county will be responsible for review and modification action;

(B) If the case is not currently open as an enforcement case under ORS 25.080, or if the district attorney for the requesting party's county has never transferred the support order for enforcement:

(i) That district attorney will refer the requesting party to the district attorney for the county of the support order;

(ii) The district attorney for the county of the support order will then be responsible for review and modification action;

(C) If the case is currently open as an enforcement case under ORS 25.080:

(i) The district attorney for the enforcing county will transfer the enforcement case to the district attorney for the county of the support order;

(ii) The district attorney for the county of the support order will then be responsible for review and modification action;

(iii) Once the review and modification is completed, the district attorney for the county of the support order will transfer the enforcement case back to the proper enforcement county under OAR 137-055-2040.

(5) If the requesting party does not reside in Oregon, and regardless of whether the case has arrears or not:

(a) If the requesting party's case is already being enforced, the administrator will advise the requesting party to direct the request to the child support program in that other jurisdiction. The other child support program may then ask the administrator to pursue action under appropriate state and federal statutes;

(b) If the requesting party's support case is not being enforced under the child support program in another jurisdiction, the administrator will handle the request under sections (3) and (4) of this rule.

(6) If the non-requesting party(ies) does not reside in Oregon, the district attorney will handle the request under sections (3) and (4) of this rule.

(7) The matrix set out in Table 1, is included in this rule as an aid, and incorporates preceding sections of this rule: [Table not included. See Ed. Note.]

(8) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(b), all functions and responsibilities assigned to Oregon District Attorneys under this rule will also be considered assigned to DCS, for those counties where DCS has assumed responsibility from the district attorney for providing support enforcement services.

Periodic Review and Modification of Child Support Order Amounts

(1) In addition to the definitions found in ORS 25.321 and OAR 137-050-0750, for the purposes of this rule, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Determination" means an order resulting from a periodic review, which finds that the current order of support is in "substantial compliance" with the Oregon guidelines (OAR 137-050-0700 through 137-050-0765) and appropriate health care coverage or cash medical support is ordered against one or both parties.

(b) "Periodic Review" means proceedings initiated under ORS 25.287.

(c) "Review" means an objective evaluation by the administrator of the information necessary for application of the guidelines to determine:

(A) The presumptively correct child support amount; and

(B) The need to provide in the order for the child's health care needs through appropriate health care coverage or cash medical support regardless of whether an adjustment in the amount of child support is necessary.

(d) "Substantial compliance" means that the current support order is within at least 15 percent or $50, whichever is less, of the presumptively correct child support amount as calculated using the guidelines. When making this determination, the 15 percent or $50 formula will be applied to the currently ordered support amount.

(2) For all child support cases receiving support enforcement services under ORS 25.080, the Child Support Program (CSP) will annually notify the parties:

(a) Of their right to request a periodic review of the amount of support ordered; and

(b) That the CSP will perform a mandatory periodic review and adjustment if the family is currently receiving TANF.

(3) The purpose of a periodic review is to determine, based on information from the parties and other sources as appropriate, whether the current child support order should be modified to ensure substantial compliance with Oregon's child support guidelines, or to order appropriate health care coverage or cash medical support for the child.

(4) The administrator will initiate a periodic review if a written request is received from any party and 35 months have passed since the date the most recent support order took effect, or the date of a determination that the most recent support order should not be adjusted. For purposes of calculating the 35-month time period, a suspension and temporary modification order entered pursuant to ORS 416.425(13) will not be considered.

(5) The administrator will initiate a periodic review when 35 months have passed since the date the most recent support order took effect, or the date of a determination that the most recent support order should not be adjusted, and the family is currently receiving TANF. For purposes of calculating the 35-month time period, any suspension and temporary modification order entered pursuant to ORS 416.425(13) will not be considered.

(6) The administrator must complete the determination that the order is in substantial compliance with the guidelines and appropriate health care coverage or cash medical support is ordered, or complete the modification of the existing order within 180 days of receiving a written request for a periodic review, initiating the mandatory review, or locating the non-requesting party(ies), if necessary, whichever occurs later.

(7) The administrator is responsible for conducting a periodic review in this state or for requesting that another jurisdiction conduct a review pursuant to OAR 137-055-7190. As provided in ORS 110.429 and 110.432, the law of the jurisdiction reviewing the order applies in determining if a basis for modification exists.

(8) Upon receipt of a written request for a periodic review or when a mandatory periodic review is required, the administrator will notify the parties of the review in writing, allowing the parties 30 days to provide information which may affect the support calculation.

(9) The administrator will notify the parties in writing of the presumed correct support amount under the child support guidelines and the need to order appropriate health care coverage or cash medical support. Notification may be by motion for modification or a proposed determination that the existing order is in substantial compliance and appropriate health care coverage or cash medical support is already ordered, and will include a request for hearing form.

(10) If the administrator determines that the support order should be modified and there is an adult child on the case, the proposed modification will be a tiered order as defined in OAR 137-055-1020.

New Hire Reporting Requirements

(1) Employers with employees who work only in this state or who have designated Oregon as their reporting state with the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services must transmit information regarding the hiring or rehiring of any employee by:

(a) Mailing or faxing to the Division of Child Support (DCS) a copy of the IRS W-4 Form completed by the newly hired employee; or

(b) Mailing or faxing to DCS a completed form adopted by DCS; or

(c) Sending to DCS a magnetic tape or diskette, as specified by DCS;

or

(d) Any other method approved by DCS.

(2) Reports made under this section must contain the employer's name, address and federal tax identification number and the employee's name, address and social security number.

(3) Reports made by copy of W-4 form or by the form adopted by DCS must be sent to DCS not later than 20 days after the employer hires or rehires the employee. Employers who transmit the reporting data magnetically or electronically must transmit the data within 12 to 16 days of hiring or rehiring the employee.

Income Withholding — General Provisions, Requirements and Definitions

(1) OARs 137-055-4060 through 137-055-4080 provide for collection of support by means of income withholding, in accordance with ORS 25.372 through ORS 25.427 and all other applicable Oregon law, on all support cases being enforced by the administrator.

(2) For purposes of OARs 137-055-4060 through 137-055-4080 and as used in ORS 25.372 through 25.427, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Alternative payment method" means the methods of paying support described in OAR 137-055-4080;

(b) "Best interests of the child" means the method of payment likely to produce consistent support that will reach the child(ren) in the most expedient manner.

(c) "Disposable income" means the part of an individual's income that remains after the deduction of any amounts required to be withheld by law, except as provided in paragraphs (B) or (C) of this subsection.

(A) Amounts required to be withheld by law include, but are not limited to, required withholding for taxes and social security;

(B) Any amounts withheld for the following will not be deducted from the obligor's income when computing disposable income, even if such withholding is required by law or by judicial or administrative order:

(i) Health insurance premiums;

(ii) Spousal or child support.

(C) An obligor may claim offsets against gross receipts for ordinary and necessary business expenses and taxes directly related to the income withheld. The obligor has the burden of proving such claims and must therefore furnish verifiable business records or documents to support any offsets claimed. The obligor also has the burden of furnishing such records or documents in a timely manner, and the Division of Child Support (DCS)

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

will not refund to the obligor, on the basis of such claims, any amounts withheld that DCS has already disbursed to the obligee or to any child attending school under ORS 107.108 and OAR 137-055-5110;

(d) "Electronic Funds Transfer" (EFT) has the definition given in OAR 137-055-5035, and includes but is not limited to payment by Electronic Payment Withdrawal (EPW) and by debit or credit system or card.

(e) "Electronic Payment Withdrawal" (EPW) means an automatic withdrawal of support from the person's bank account.

(f) "Good cause" for not withholding means a situation that exists when:

(A) A court or the administrator makes a written determination that, and a written explanation in the official record of why, immediate income withholding would not be in the best interests of the child; and

(B) If the case involves the modification of an existing support order, there is proof of timely payment of previously-ordered support and there are no arrearages. Timely payment is indicated when the obligor has not previously become subject to initiated income withholding under the existing order.

(g) "Periodic recurring income" as used in calculating withholding from a lump sum payment or benefit pursuant to ORS 25.414(4), means income that is intended as a monthly or more frequent payment that includes, but is not limited to, a teacher's lump sum payment for summer months.

(3) All support orders issued or modified by the administrator will include a provision requiring the parties to keep the administrator informed of:

(a) The name and address of the party's current employer;

(b) Whether or not the party has access to appropriate health care coverage, and if so, the health care coverage policy information.

Expiration of Support Judgment Remedies

(1) Judgment remedies for the child support award portion of a judgment, and any lump sum money award for unpaid child support installments, expire 35 years after the entry of the judgment that first establishes the support obligation.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this rule, when the child support judgment being enforced was issued by another jurisdiction, the expiration of judgment under the laws of this state or of the issuing jurisdiction, whichever is longer, applies.

(3) Spousal support judgments entered on or after January 1, 2004: Judgment remedies for any unpaid installment under the spousal support award portion of a judgment, expire the later of:

(a) 25 years after entry of the judgment that first establishes the support obligation; or

(b) 10 years after an installment comes due under the judgment and is not paid.

(4) Spousal support judgments entered prior to January 1, 2004: Judgment remedies for any unpaid installment under the spousal support award portion of a judgment, expire the later of:

(a) 25 years after entry of the judgment that first establishes the support obligation; or

(b) 10 years after an installment comes due under the judgment and is not paid; or

(c) 10 years from the date of a judgment renewal.

(5) The judgment remedies for a money award for child or spousal support expire by operation of law.

(6) The Department of Justice, Division of Child Support (DCS) is responsible for completing expiration of judgment audits on cases receiving support enforcement services under ORS 25.080.

(7) If an audit result is that the expired judgment amount is greater than the current arrearages on the case, DCS will reduce the case arrearages to zero.

(8) When an expiration of judgment audit is completed, DCS will notify the parties if there is any change to the arrearages as a result of the audit. The notice must include:

(a) The current balance or zero, as appropriate, per section (7) of this rule;

(b) Information that a party may make a written request for an administrative review within 30 days of the notice.

(9) If a party requests an administrative review, DCS will:

(a) Conduct the administrative review within 45 days from the date of receiving the objection to verify the case was adjusted correctly and make any necessary corrections or adjustments as determined in the review;

(b) Notify both the obligee and the obligor, in writing, of the results of the review and of the right to appeal pursuant to ORS 183.484.

Passport Denial and Release

(1) When the administrator submits delinquent child support accounts for administrative offset pursuant to OAR 137-055-4340, the federal Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE) will select individual obligors with a total delinquency in excess of $2,500 for passport denial.

(2) Passport denial means that pursuant to 42 U.S. Code 652(k), the United States Secretary of State will refuse to issue a passport and may revoke, restrict or limit a passport which was previously issued.

(3) The parties will receive notice of passport denial with the notice of administrative offset specified in OAR 137-055-4340. The notice will advise the parties of the right to an administrative review under OAR 137-055-4340.

(4) An obligor whose passport has been denied may request an administrative review. The administrator will conduct a review and notify the parties of the decision. The only issues that may be considered in the review are whether:

(a) The administrator erroneously submitted the obligor to OCSE for passport denial, such as mistaken identity or an error in recordkeeping or accounting;

(b) The obligor has provided documentation of a life or death situation involving an immediate family member, as defined by OCSE; or

(c) The obligor has paid as ordered, but the arrearage that caused the case to be submitted for passport denial resulted solely from one or more orders for past support or upward modifications filed in court within one year of the administrator's receipt of the request for review.

(5) If at any time the administrator finds that the obligor qualifies for passport release under one or more of the criteria in subsections (4)(a) through (4)(c), the administrator will notify OCSE to release the passport.

(6) Passport denial will continue until the delinquency is paid in full, unless the administrator determines the obligor qualifies for passport release under this rule.

(7) Where a passport has been denied and the obligor has paid the delinquency in full or the administrator determines the obligor qualifies for passport release under this rule, the administrator will notify OCSE to release the passport. Notice will be by the process specified by OCSE.

Billings for Support Payments

(1) Except as provided in subsections (3)(a) and (b) of this rule, when a case with a support order is activated on the Child Support Enforcement Automated System, the Division of Child Support (DCS) will send notice to the parties of the requirement to pay through DCS.

(2) DCS will begin billing in the first full calendar month following 30 days from the receipt of the order or notice that the order should be activated.

(3)(a) When support is paid for a period of six months by income withholding pursuant to ORS 25.378 or by electronic payment withdrawal pursuant to OAR 137-055-4080 DCS may discontinue monthly billings unless:

(A) The obligor requests otherwise; or

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(B) The administrator determines that monthly billings should continue.

(b) When the total amount due is less than five dollars, DCS will discontinue monthly billings.

Adding Interest Calculations to Individual Support Cases

(1) For a support case with an Oregon support order as the controlling order, the administrator will add interest calculations to the case by using the establishment of arrears process set out in OAR 137-055-3240 under the following conditions:

(a) The party makes a written request that the interest be added to the case;

(b) The requesting party provides a month by month calculation showing support accrual, principal due and interest accrual for each month with total principal and interest due as separate totals at the end of the calculations; and

(c) The interest is calculated per ORS 82.010 from the date of entry of a judgment in Oregon.

(2) The administrator may limit adding interest to the case under section (1) of this rule to one time every 24 months.

(3) For a case with a controlling support order from another jurisdiction, the law of the jurisdiction which issued the controlling order governs the computation and accrual of interest under the support order. Interest accrued under the laws of the jurisdiction which issued the controlling order may be added to the Oregon case by administratively reconciling the case record when interest amounts are provided by the other jurisdiction. The administrator will send an informational notice to the parties when the case is adjusted.

Satisfaction of Support Awards

The purpose of this rule is to define how the Division of Child Support (DCS) will credit "satisfactions of support award" in certain circumstances. This rule must not be construed as limiting the authority of DCS to approve or credit a satisfaction of support award in other lawful circumstances not specified in this rule.

(1) When support payment records are kept by the Department of Justice, an obligee may satisfy amounts indicated on the case records as past due by filing a properly-completed "satisfaction of support award" form with the administrator, subject to approval by DCS under the provisions of this rule; or in accordance with OAR 137-055-5240.

(2) When current support or arrears are assigned to the State of Oregon or to another jurisdiction, and the obligor is seeking credit for support payments not made through DCS:

(a) DCS and its attorneys have authority to approve and sign satisfactions.

(b) This authority may be exercised only when the obligee has signed a satisfaction of support award form which acknowledges that the support payment was received.

(3) DCS and its attorneys have authority to sign and approve satisfactions of support award for money paid through DCS as payment of assigned support.

(4) DCS will record, on the case record, all properly-completed satisfactions of support award not assigned, and all satisfactions ordered by a court or a hearing order, and all satisfactions for assigned support that are approved in accordance with this rule. DCS will also promptly forward the satisfaction form to the appropriate court administrator, together with a certificate stating the amount of support satisfaction entered on the case record.

(5) Except when satisfied and approved by DCS and its attorneys or by a court or hearing order, DCS will not enter a satisfaction on a case record for support that has been assigned to the State of Oregon or another jurisdiction.

(6) When DCS rejects a satisfaction in part or in full as provided in section (5) above, DCS will send written notice to the obligor and obligee, by regular mail to the most recent address of record. Such notice will indicate the reason for the rejection.

(7) All satisfactions must contain the following:

(a) The full names of both the obligor and the obligee;

(b) The name of the Oregon county where the support award was entered;

(c) The Oregon Child Support Program support case number, or the circuit court case number;

(d) Either:

(A) The total dollar amount to be satisfied; or

(B) The period of time for which past due support is satisfied;

(e) A statement that the satisfaction is only for child support or spousal support;

(f) The signature of the obligee, except for those satisfactions approved under sections

(2) and (3) of this rule, where the obligee's signature is not required; and

(g) The date the form is signed.

(8) All signatures on "satisfactions of support award" must be notarized, except on court orders.

(9) Notwithstanding any other provision of this rule, DCS has the authority to file and execute a satisfaction, without the need to notarize such satisfaction, when all of the following are true:

(a) The obligor provides a sworn affidavit that the support award has been paid in full, and

(b) DCS certifies that it has a complete payment record for the support award and that the payment records shows no arrears. DCS will be considered to have a complete pay record if DCS has kept the pay record for the support judgment from the date of the first support payment required under the award, or if the obligee or the administrator established arrears for the time period when DCS did not keep the pay record on the case.

(10) When DCS receives a sworn affidavit under the provisions of subsection (9)(a) of this rule, DCS will examine its support records and determine if it has the authority under section (9) of this rule to execute and file a satisfaction of support award. DCS will promptly notify the obligor if DCS determines that it does not have authority to execute and file a satisfaction of support award. DCS will also determine if any amounts due for support were not assigned to the state. If DCS determines that any amounts were not assigned to the state, DCS will give notice to the obligee in the manner provided by ORS 25.085. The notice must inform the obligee that DCS will execute and file the satisfaction of support award unless DCS receives an objection and request for hearing within 30 days after the date of mailing the notice.

(11) If the obligee requests a hearing under section (10) of this rule, a contested case hearing will be conducted under ORS 183.310 to 183.502 before an administrative law judge.

(12) If support is owed to a child attending school the obligee may only satisfy arrears as defined in OAR 137-055-5120.

Credit for Support Payments not made to the Division of Child Support

(1) In accordance with ORS 25.020, on any support case where the obligor is required to pay support through the Division of Child Support (DCS), DCS will not credit the obligor's support account for any payment not made through DCS, except as provided in ORS 25.020 and this rule.

(2) The other provisions of this rule notwithstanding, on any case where an order of another jurisdiction is registered in Oregon under ORS Chapter 110 for enforcement only, and either the issuing jurisdiction or the jurisdiction in which the obligee resides has an active child support accounting case open, DCS does not have authority to give credit for payments not paid through Oregon DCS. In any such case, the obligor seeking credit must request credit from the jurisdiction with the active child support accounting case. DCS will adjust its records to reflect credit for such payments only upon receiving notification from the other jurisdiction, in writing, by electronic transmission, by telephone, or by court order, that specified payments will be credited.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(3) DCS will give credit for payments not made to DCS when:

(a) Payments are not assigned to the State of Oregon or to another jurisdiction, and

(A) The obligor, obligee and the party who received the payment agree in writing that specific payments were made and should be credited; or

(B) The obligor and the child attending school, as defined in ORS 107.108 and OAR 137-055-5110, agree in writing that specific payments were made and should be credited for amounts that accrued during the time the child was a child attending school.

(b) Payments are assigned to the State of Oregon, and all of the following additional conditions are true:

(A) The parties make sworn written statements that specific payments were made;

(B) The parties present canceled checks, or other substantial evidence, to corroborate that the payments were made; and

(C) The administrator has given written notice to the obligee or the child attending school, prior to the obligee or the child attending school making a sworn written statement under subsection (b), of any potential criminal or civil liability that may attach to an admission of receiving the assigned support. Potential criminal or civil liability may include, but is not limited to:

(i) Prosecution for unlawfully receiving public assistance benefits.

(ii) Liability for repayment of any public assistance overpayments for which the obligee or child attending school may be liable.

(iii) Temporary or permanent disqualification from receiving public assistance, food stamp, or medical assistance benefits due to an intentional program violation being established against the obligee or child attending school for failure to report, to the administrator, having received payments directly from the obligor.

(c) The administrator is enforcing the case at the request of another jurisdiction, regardless of whether or not support is assigned, and that jurisdiction verifies that payments not paid to DCS were received by the other jurisdiction or by the obligee directly. Such verification may be in writing, by electronic transmission, by telephone, or by court order.

(d) An order of an administrative law judge, or an order from a court of appropriate jurisdiction, so specifies.

(4) To receive credit for payments not made to DCS, the obligor may apply directly to the administrator for credit, by providing the documents and evidence specified in section (3) of this rule.

(5) Except as provided in section (2) of this rule if the obligee, a child attending school, or other jurisdiction does not agree that payments were made, pursuant to subsection (3)(a) or (3)(c) of this rule, or does not make a sworn written statement under subsection (3)(b), the obligor may make a written request to the administrator for a hearing.

(a) Prior notice of the hearing and of the right to object will be served upon the obligee in accordance with ORS 25.085 and the child attending school.

(b) Prior notice of the hearing and of the right to object may be served upon the obligor by regular mail to the address provided by the obligor when applying for credit.

(c) A hearing conducted under this rule is a contested case hearing in accordance with ORS 183.413 through 183.470. Any party may also seek a hearing de novo in the Oregon circuit court.

(d) After the hearing, an administrative law judge may order DCS to credit the obligor's support account for a specified dollar amount of payments not made through DCS, or for all payments owed through a specified date.

(e) The other provisions of this section notwithstanding, an administrative law judge does not have jurisdiction under this section in cases where the administrator is enforcing another jurisdiction's order.

(6) Nothing in this rule precludes DCS from giving credit for payments not made through DCS when a judicial determination has been made giving credit or satisfaction, or when the person to whom the support is owed has completed and signed a "satisfaction of support judgment" form adopted by DCS in accordance with OAR 137-055-5220.

Exceptions to Distribution and Disbursement

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of OAR 137-055-6021 to 137-055-6024, support payments received as a result of a personal or real property judgment lien may be distributed and disbursed to pay a parentage test judgment.

(2) Notwithstanding OAR 137-055-6024, DOJ may distribute and, as appropriate, disburse support payments to multiple cases as directed when the obligor or a responding jurisdiction designates in writing the amounts to be distributed and, as appropriate, disbursed to each case, if the designation is made at the time of payment.

(3) Notwithstanding OAR 137-055-6024, DOJ will distribute and, as appropriate, disburse support payments to one case, rather than proportionately, when:

(a) The obligor designates in writing a specific case for which payment is to be applied;

(b) The support payment resulted from a garnishment, issued pursuant to ORS chapter 18, on a particular case;

(c) The support payment resulted from the sale or disposition of a specific piece of property against which a court awarded a specific obligee a judgment lien for child support;

(d) The support payment resulted from a contempt order in a particular case; or

(e) Any other judicial order requires distribution and, as appropriate, disbursement to a particular case.

Satisfaction of Arrears for Less Than Full Payment

The Division of Child Support (DCS) may satisfy all or any portion of child support arrears that are assigned to the State of Oregon or to any other jurisdiction, subject to the following:

(1) DCS may satisfy all or any portion of assigned arrears only if one or more of the following circumstances apply:

(a) The arrears are a substantial hardship to the paying parent or that parent's household; or

(b) A compromise of amounts owing will result in greater collection on the case, considering the maximum amount that DCS could reasonably expect to collect from the obligor if no compromise was made and the probable costs of collecting that maximum amount; or

(c) The obligor has entered into an agreement with DCS to take steps to:

(A) Enhance the obligor's ability to pay child support; or

(B) Enhance the obligor's relationship with the child or children for whom the obligor owes the arrears.

(d) An error or legal defect has occurred that indicates a reduction may be appropriate.

(2) If all or any portion of the assigned arrears are the Astate=s temporarily-assigned arrears@ as defined in OAR 137-055-6010, DCS may satisfy the amount only if the obligee consents and signs the appropriate "satisfaction of support judgment" form.

(3) If all or any portion of the assigned arrears are assigned to another jurisdiction, DCS may satisfy that assigned amount only with the approval of that jurisdiction.

(4) DCS will not sign any satisfaction for less than full payment of arrears until:

(a) The obligor has paid the full amount agreed to as appropriate consideration, and the obligor's payment instrument has cleared the appropriate financial institutions; or

(b) DCS has determined that the obligor has satisfactorily met, or is complying with, any agreement made with DCS pursuant to this rule.

(5) DCS will record a summary of each agreement to satisfy arrears for less than full payment on the appropriate microimaging or computer file on the case.

(6) Any satisfaction executed under this rule will be made pursuant to, and in full compliance with, ORS 18.228.

(7) The provisions of this rule notwithstanding, the obligee may satisfy all or any portion of unassigned arrears due the obligee, pursuant to OAR 137-055-5220.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(8) Nothing in this rule precludes the administrator from negotiating a satisfaction of arrears due or potentially due the obligee for less than full payment by the obligor, but such satisfaction will take effect only when the obligee consents and signs a "satisfaction of support judgment" pursuant to OAR 137-055-5220.

Central Registry

(1) The central registry required by 45 CFR 303.7 is established within the Department of Justice, Division of Child Support. It is responsible for receiving, distributing and responding to inquiries on all incoming intergovernmental requests.

(2) Within ten working days of receipt of a request from an initiating agency or other petitioner, the central registry will:

- (a) Review the documentation submitted with the request to determine completeness;
- (b) Forward the request for necessary action either to the State Parent Locator Service for location services or to the administrator for processing;
- (c) Acknowledge receipt of the request and ask the initiating agency or other petitioner to provide any missing documentation; and
- (d) Inform the initiating agency or other petitioner where the request has been sent for action.

(3) If the documentation received with a request is inadequate, the central registry will forward the request to the appropriate branch or DA office to take appropriate action pending receipt of additional documentation.

(4) The central registry must respond to inquiries about case status within five working days from receipt of the request.

Initiating Jurisdiction Responsibilities – General Provisions

(1) The administrator will use a one-state process, when appropriate, to establish, enforce, or modify a support order, or to determine parentage.

(2) The administrator will determine:

- (a) Whether one order exists or multiple orders exist for the same child and obligor;
- (b) If there are multiple orders, which jurisdiction should complete a controlling order determination; and
- (c) Whether a one-state process is appropriate.

(3) Within 20 calendar days of completing the actions in section (1) and after receipt of any documentation necessary to process a case, the administrator will:

- (a) Refer a request for a controlling order determination and reconciliation of arrears, if needed, to the appropriate jurisdiction;
- (b) If a one-state process is not appropriate, use federally prescribed forms and procedures to refer the case to the appropriate central registry, tribal IV-D program or central authority of a country for appropriate action.
- (4) The administrator will send any requested additional information within 30 calendar days of receipt of the request or notify the responding jurisdiction when the information will be provided.

(5) The administrator will notify the responding jurisdiction within ten working days of receipt of new case information.

(6) The administrator will notify the responding jurisdiction at least annually, and upon request, of interest charges, if any, owed on a support order issued by this state.

Direct Income Withholding

(1) The administrator may send direct income withholding to an employer located in another jurisdiction when:

(a) The employer is located in a jurisdiction which has adopted the direct withholding provisions of UIFSA; and

(b) Any intergovernmental request about the same obligor and child is withdrawn and the responding agency is instructed to close their case; and

(c) If required under OAR 137-055-7180, a controlling order has been determined.

(2) The administrator must ensure that the obligor is given the notice required by ORS 25.399.

(3) If the obligor files a written contest to the income withholding order in the employer's state, the administrator may dismiss the direct income withholding order and initiate an intergovernmental request for registration and enforcement.

Responding Jurisdiction Responsibilities – General Provisions

(1) Within 75 calendar days of receipt of an Intergovernmental Child Support Enforcement Transmittal Form, a UIFSA Action Request Form or other form and documentation from the Oregon central registry, the administrator will:

(a) Provide location services in accordance with 45 CFR 303.3 if appropriate;

(b) If unable to proceed with the case because of inadequate documentation, request any necessary additions or corrections;

(c) If the documentation received with a case is inadequate, process the case to the extent possible pending response from the initiating agency.

(2) Within ten working days of locating the obligor in a different locale within the state, if appropriate, the administrator will forward the form and documentation to the appropriate office and notify the initiating agency.

(3) Within ten working days of locating the obligor outside of Oregon, the administrator will:

(a) Return the form and documentation, including the new location, to the initiating agency, or if directed by that agency, forward the form and documentation to the central registry where the obligor has been located; and

(b) Document the Oregon case record.

(4) Within 30 days of receiving a request, the administrator must provide any order and payment record information requested by another state's child support program for a controlling order determination, or advise the requesting state when the information will be provided.

(5) The administrator must provide to the initiating agency timely advance notice of any formal hearings which may result in establishment or modification of an order.

(6) The administrator must notify the initiating agency within ten working days of receipt of new information on a case.

(7) The administrator must cooperate with requests for the following limited services:

- (a) Quick locate;
- (b) Service of process;
- (c) Assistance with discovery;
- (d) Assistance with genetic testing;
- (e) Teleconferenced hearings;
- (f) Administrative reviews;
- (g) High-volume automated administrative enforcement in interstate cases under 42 USC 666(a)(14); and
- (h) Copies of court orders and pay records; and may cooperate with other requests for limited services.

Determining Controlling Order

(1) The administrator will determine a single controlling order when:

(a) Services are being provided under ORS 25.080 and two or more child support orders have been issued regarding the same obligor, child and obligee; or

(b) A party or other jurisdiction requests a determination.

(2) For purposes of this rule, any order modified or issued after October 20, 1994 (the effective date of the Full Faith and Credit for Child Support Orders Act, 28 USC 1738B), will be interpreted as a modification of all orders issued prior to October 20, 1994, unless:

(a) The tribunal entering the order did not have jurisdiction to do so; or

(b) A party alleges the tribunal lacked personal or subject matter jurisdiction.

(3) When a request for a controlling order determination is received from another jurisdiction:

(a) The request is not complete until documents necessary to perform the determination are received; and

(b) The request is considered “filed with the appropriate tribunal” as required by 45 CFR 303.7(5) when the administrator receives the complete request.

(4) The administrator will determine the controlling order and issue an order setting out the determination. The order is an order in an other than contested case proceeding under ORS chapter 183. The order will be served upon the parties by certified mail, return receipt requested, at the last known address of the parties. The order must include:

(a) The basis for personal jurisdiction over the parties;

(b) The names of the parties and the child for whom support was ordered;

(c) A statement of each child support order which was considered, the jurisdiction which issued the order and the date of the order;

(d) A statement identifying the order the administrator determines is the controlling order and why;

(e) A statement that the controlling order determination is effective the date the order is issued by the administrator;

(f) A reference to ORS 110.333;

(g) A notice that a party may submit further information and petition the administrator for reconsideration of the order within 60 days of the date of the order;

(h) A notice that OAR 137-004-0080 applies to any petition for reconsideration; and

(i) A notice that a party may appeal the order as provided by ORS 183.484.

(5) If the administrator determines that no tribunal has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under ORS chapter 110, the administrator will notify the parties and establish a new child support order.

(6) For the purposes of determining the Oregon county in which the administrator may enter the order determining the controlling order, the following provisions apply:

(a) If one or more Oregon court files exist for the same obligor and child, the order will be entered in each existing court file;

(b) If an Oregon court file does not exist, the administrator will enter the documents required by ORS 416.440 in the circuit court in the county where the party who lives in Oregon resides.

(7) Within 30 days after the expiration of the appeal or reconsideration period, the administrator will certify copies of the order determining the controlling order and file one with each tribunal that issued or registered an earlier order of child support.

(8) Upon written receipt of an order determining the controlling order that a tribunal of this or another jurisdiction properly issued, the administrator will:

(a) Adjust the Oregon case record to cease prospective accrual on any noncontrolling order and initiate accrual on any controlling order which was issued or registered by an Oregon tribunal on the date specified in the order determining controlling order or, when not specified, in accordance with OAR 137-055-5040; and

(b) When one of the noncontrolling orders was issued by an Oregon tribunal, ensure that the order determining the controlling order is entered in the Oregon circuit court for the county which issued or entered the prior order.

Review and Modification In Intergovernmental Cases

(1) Within 15 days of a party's request for a periodic review or a request for a modification based upon a change of circumstances, the administrator will determine in which jurisdiction the review will be sought. The administrator will follow the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA) provisions in ORS 110.303 through 110.452 in making this decision, including:

(a) If the controlling order is an Oregon support order and the obligor, obligee and child reside in this state, Oregon will do the review.

(b) If the controlling order is an Oregon support order and one of the parties or the child resides in this state, Oregon will do the review, presuming personal jurisdiction can be asserted for the remaining party.

(c) If Oregon does not have the controlling order but all the parties have filed in the jurisdiction which has the controlling order a written consent for Oregon to modify the order, Oregon will do the review.

(d) If an order has been registered for enforcement in Oregon and none of the parties or the child resides in the jurisdiction which issued the order, the jurisdiction where the non-requesting party resides will do the review.

(2) If the administrator determines that Oregon is not the appropriate reviewer, the administrator will:

(a) Determine and obtain the information needed;

(b) Complete any required forms; and

(c) Send all required documents to the reviewer within 20 calendar days of receipt;

(3)(a) If the reviewer is currently providing services for Oregon on the case, the documents will be transmitted to the appropriate office or agency working the case;

(b) If the request is the first contact with the reviewer for the case, the request must be sent to the reviewer's central registry.

Self-Support Reserve

(1) A support calculation must ensure that a parent being ordered to pay support is left with enough income to meet his or her own basic needs. This is known as the Self Support Reserve and is determined as follows:

(a) Determine the parent's adjusted income as provided in OAR 137-050-0715;

(b) Calculate the parent's income available for support by subtracting a self-support reserve of $1059 from the parent's adjusted income;

(c) Compare the amount of income available for support to the amount of support that was calculated under OAR 137-050-0710(8). The lesser of the two amounts is presumed to be the correct support amount.

(2) Any available income remaining after application of the self-support reserve in step (1)(c) is the income available for medical support.

(3) This rule does not apply to an incarcerated obligor as defined in OAR 137-055-3300.

(4) The amount of the self-support reserve (SSR) is based on the federal poverty guideline (FPG), and is adjusted to account for estimated taxes using a 1.167 multiplier. (SSR = FPG x 1.167) The self-support reserve amount will be reviewed and updated annually.

(2) The administrator may allow payment by EFT as an exception to income withholding if:

(a) The obligee consents to payment by EFT; or

(b) The only payee on the case is a child attending school (CAS) under ORS 107.108 and OAR 137-055-5110, and the CAS consents to payment by EFT;

(c) The obligor submits a completed request for payment by EFT on a form provided by the Division of Child Support (DCS); and

(d) The obligor continues to pay the amount due for current support each month until DCS activates the EFT.

(3) If payment by EFT is allowed as provided in section (2) of this rule, payment by EPW may be allowed only if:

(a) The obligor's financial institution is a participant in the National Automated Clearinghouse Association;

(b) The request for EPW:

(A) Is signed by all signatories to the obligor's account at the financial institution; and

(B) Establishes a monthly withdrawal date, no later than the monthly support due date, and the amount to be paid on each withdrawal date.

(4) Payment by EPW will not be allowed if the order is a contingency order as provided in ORS 416.417, unless the child is in the care of the Oregon Youth Authority.

(5) If the EFT request is approved, DCS will notify the parties by mail, including the initial withdrawal date.

(6) An obligor may make additional payments by EFT even if the obligor does not qualify for an exception to withholding, as long as the obligor designates a withdrawal date.

(7) The administrator will not process a request to obtain consent to payment by EFT if the obligee or child attending school has failed to consent at any time within the previous six months.

(8) The administrator will terminate income withholding when:

(a) There is no longer a current order for support and all arrears have been paid or satisfied; or

(b) The court or administrator allows an exception to withholding pursuant to ORS 25.396 and this rule.

(9) The administrator will reinstate income withholding and cancel payment by EFT if:

(a) At least one month of arrears accrues;

(b) The obligor cancels the request to pay by EFT; or

(c) The obligee, or if appropriate, CAS, withdraws consent to the EFT and the administrator agrees EFT should be canceled.

Rule Caption: Remove "rebuttable presumption" language and implement plain language standards.

Adm. Order No.: DPSST 7-2011

Filed with Sec. of State: 6-23-2011

Certified to be Effective: 6-23-11

Notice Publication Date: 6-1-2011

Rules Amended: 259-020-0030

Subject: Removes language regarding the "rebuttable presumption." The burden of proof was previously placed on the polygraph examiner who is presumed incompetent and unable to perform their duties. Per Department of Justice recommendation, that burden of proof lies with the Department. Plain language standards are also implemented.

Denial, Suspension, or Revocation of Licenses

(1) The Department may deny, suspend or revoke the license of any polygraph examiner or trainee, if it finds that the person:

(a) Failed to inform an individual being examined as to the nature of the examination or failed to advise the individual or authorized representative of the results of the examination;

(b) Failed to inform an individual being examined that participation in the examination is voluntary;

(c) Made a material misstatement in the application for an original or renewal license under provisions of the Act;

(d) Willfully disregarded or violated any provision of the Act or any rule adopted pursuant to it, including, but not limited to, the willful making of a false report of a polygraph examination or failing to appear for re-examination as directed by the Director and on the recommendation of the Polygraph Licensing Advisory Committee;

(e) Made any willful misrepresentation or employed any false or misleading advertising to obtain business or the services of a trainee;

(f) Has demonstrated any inability or incompetency to carry out the duties of a polygraph examiner. The following are indicators of inability or incompetence to carry out the duties of a polygraph examiner:

(A) Illegal conduct involving moral turpitude;

(B) Conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation;

(C) Conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice;

(D) Use of test questions relating to sexual, religious, or political matters, unless such matters relate to the issue under investigation;

(E) Deliberately using unclear, misleading, circuitous, or ambiguous language in describing or explaining any part of an examination, including, but not limited to, the results of the examination; or

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(F) Failing to maintain any or all written records, along with polygraph charts or polygrams, of all polygraph examinations which they conduct. For purposes of validation, credibility, or accreditation these records and charts are to be maintained in a manner consistent with State Archivist rules pertaining to reports of investigations conducted by Oregon State Police.

(g) Has permitted a license granted under the Act or any rule adopted pursuant to it to be used by another person;

(h) Has willfully aided or abetted any violation of provisions of the Act or any rule adopted pursuant to it; or

(i) Has failed, within a reasonable amount of time, to provide any information requested by the Director after the receipt by the Department of a complaint alleging a violation of the Act or any rule adopted pursuant to it.

(2) The Department shall suspend the trainee's license of any person who fails to pass the oral or written portion of the examination required by OAR 259-020-0015(1)(h) after three attempts in accordance with OAR 259-020-0015(3)(b). The applicant may not reapply for internship until after retaking and successfully completing a polygraph examiner's course approved by the Department.

(3) Upon receipt of written notification of the suspension or revocation by the Department of a license, a polygraph examiner or trainee shall immediately surrender the license to the Director. The Department may restore a suspended license to the prior holder or may issue a license previously denied under subsection (1) of this rule upon written application and receipt by the Department of evidence that the conditions which caused the denial or suspension have been corrected to the satisfaction of the Department. All actions taken by the Department pursuant to this section will be in conformance with the Oregon Administrative Procedures Act.

(4) The Department shall conduct all proceedings under the Act in accordance with ORS Chapter 183. Judicial review of an action by the Department shall be provided in ORS 183.480 to 183.500.

(5) Waivers of the standards will not be allowed unless the trainee or examiner can present evidence that the circumstances are so extraordinary that the rule should not apply to them and that, if approved, the waiver will not adversely affect the safety of the public. All requests for waivers will be submitted to the Polygraph Licensing Advisory Committee for approval.

The maintenance process was changed for the 2009-2010 maintenance period, but the processes and form references in this rule were not updated. All references to training points were removed, as requirements to obtain and maintain certification reference training hours rather than converting them to points. Other obsolete rule references regarding training were also removed. Finally, this update removes obsolete statutory references, updates OAR references, and makes minor housekeeping changes for clarity.

Public Safety Officer Certification

(1) Basic, Intermediate, Advanced, Supervisory, Management, Executive and Instructor Certificates are awarded by the Department to law enforcement officers and telecommunicators meeting prescribed standards of training, education, experience; and the levels established by the employing law enforcement units, or public or private safety agencies. Emergency medical dispatchers may be awarded basic certification only.

(2) Basic certification is mandatory and must be acquired by all police officers, parole and probation officers, telecommunicators, and emergency medical dispatchers within 18 months of employment, and by all corrections officers within one year of employment unless an extension is granted by the Department.

(3) To be eligible for the award of a certificate, law enforcement officers must be full-time employees as defined by ORS 181.610 and OAR 259-008-0005 or part-time parole and probation officers, as described in ORS 181.610 and OAR 259-008-0066.

(4) To be eligible for the award of a certificate, law enforcement officers must meet the Board's prescribed minimum employment standards as established by OAR 259-008-0010.

(5) To be eligible for the award of a certificate, telecommunicators must meet the Board's prescribed minimum employment standards as established by OAR 259-008-0011.

(6) To be eligible for the award of a certificate, law enforcement officers must subscribe to and swear or affirm to abide by the Criminal Justice Code of Ethics (Form F11). Telecommunicators and emergency medical dispatchers must subscribe to and swear or affirm to abide by the Telecommunicator Code of Ethics. (Form F-11T).

(7) Application for certification must be submitted on Form F7 (Application for Certification), with all applicable sections of the form completed. The form must be signed by the applicant. In order to ensure that the applicant meets the minimum standards of employment, training, education, and experience, and is competent to hold the level of certification for which the applicant has applied, the department head or authorized representative must sign the form recommending that the certificate be issued or withheld. If the department head chooses not to recommend the applicant's request for certification, the reason for this decision must be specified in writing and must accompany the Form F7.

(8) When a department head is the applicant, the above recommendation must be made by the department head's appointing authority such as the city manager or mayor, or in the case of a specialized agency, the applicant's superior. Elected department heads are authorized to sign as both applicant and department head.

(9) In addition to the requirements set forth above, each applicant must have completed the designated education and training, combined with the prescribed corrections, parole and probation, police or telecommunications experience for the award of an Intermediate, Advanced, Supervisory, Management, or Executive Certificate.

(a) Each quarter credit unit granted by an accredited college or university which operates on a quarterly schedule will equal one (1) education credit.

(b) Each semester credit unit granted by an accredited college or university operating on a semester schedule will equal one and one half (1-1/2) education credits.

(c) The Department must receive sealed official transcripts from a college prior to entering college credit on an individual's official record.

(10) Training:

(a) Basic courses certified by the Department shall be approved by the Board.

(b) The Department may record training hours for departmental or other in-service training which is recorded and documented in the personnel files of the trainee's department. These records must include the subject, instructor, classroom hours, date, sponsor, and location.

(c) Training completed in other states, military training, and other specialized training, if properly documented, may be accepted, subject to staff evaluation and approval. These records must include the subject, date, and classroom hours, and must be certified true copies of the original.

(d) College credits earned may be counted for either training hours or education credits, whichever is to the advantage of the applicant.

(e) College credit awarded based on training completed may be applied toward either training hours or education credits, whichever is to the advantage of the applicant.

(A) Prior to applying an applicant's college credit toward any upper level of certification, the Department must receive documentation of the number of college credits awarded based on training attended.

(B) The training hours identified under paragraph (A) and submitted as college credit toward an upper level of certification will not be included in any calculation of whether the applicant has earned sufficient training hours to qualify for the requested certification level.

(i) Any college credit received for practical or skills-based training attended will be calculated at a ratio of 1:20 hours for each quarter credit, for purposes of training hour deductions.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(ii) Any college credit received for academic training attended will be calculated at a ratio of 1:10 hours for each quarter credit, for purposes of training hour deductions.

(f) No credit can be applied toward both education credits and training hours when originating from the same training event.

(11) Experience/Employment:

(a) Experience gained as a corrections, parole and probation, or police officer employed full time with municipal, county, state, or federal agencies, may be accepted if the experience is in the field in which certification is requested and is approved by the Department. For the purpose of this rule, creditable service time for experience will not accrue under the following circumstances:

(A) When an individual is employed in a casual, seasonal, or temporary capacity;

(B) When an individual is on leave. A public safety professional may submit a written request for credit for military time served upon return from his or her military duty. The Department will evaluate each written request to determine whether an individual is eligible for any credit for time served;

(C) From the date a public safety professional's certification is recalled until it is reinstated by the Department; or

(D) When a public safety professional fails to obtain Basic certification within a mandated timeframe and is prohibited from being employed as a public safety professional.

(b) Experience acquired as a telecommunicator or emergency medical dispatcher employed with a public or private safety agency may be accepted if the experience is in the field in which certification is requested and is approved by the Department.

(c) Experience acquired as a certified part-time telecommunicator or emergency medical dispatcher as defined in OAR 259-008-0005, or part time parole and probation officer as defined under 259-008-0005 and 259-008-0066, will count on a pro-rated basis.

(d) Police, corrections, parole and probation, telecommunicator, or emergency medical dispatch experience in fields other than that in which certification is requested may receive partial credit when supported by job descriptions or other documentary evidence. In all cases, experience claimed is subject to evaluation and approval by the Department.

(12) The Basic Certificate. In addition to the requirements set forth in section (1) of this rule, the following are required for the award of the Basic Certificate:

(a) Applicants must have completed a period of service of not less than nine (9) months with one or more law enforcement units or public or private safety agencies in a certifiable position in the field in which certification is being requested;

(b) Applicants must have satisfactorily completed the required Basic Course in the field in which certification is requested or have completed equivalent training as determined by the Department; and

(c) Applicants must have valid first aid and cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) cards.

(13) The Intermediate Certificate. In addition to the requirements set forth in section (1) of this rule, the following are required for the award of the Intermediate Certificate:

(a) Applicants must possess a Basic Certificate in the field in which certification is requested; and

(b) Applicants must have acquired the following combinations of education hours and training hours combined with the prescribed years of police, corrections, parole and probation or telecommunications experience, or the college degree designated combined with the prescribed years of experience: [Table not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(14) The Advanced Certificate. In addition to the requirements set forth in section (1) of this rule, the following are required for the award of the Advanced Certificate:

(a) Applicants must possess or be eligible to possess the Intermediate Certificate in the field in which certification is requested; and

(b) Applicants must have acquired the following combinations of education and training hours combined with the prescribed years of corrections, parole and probation, police, telecommunications experience, or the college degree designated combined with the prescribed years of experience: [Table not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(15) The Supervisory Certificate. In addition to requirements set forth in section (1) of this rule, the following are required for the award of the Supervisory Certificate:

(a) Applicants must possess or be eligible to possess the Advanced Certificate in the field in which certification is requested;

(b) Applicants must have satisfactorily completed no less than 45 education credits as defined in section (10) of this rule;

(c) Applicants must have satisfactorily completed the prescribed Supervision Course or an equivalent number of hours of Department-approved supervisory level training within five (5) years prior to application for the Supervisory Certificate; and

(d) Applicants must be presently employed in, or have satisfactorily performed the duties associated with, the position of a first-level supervisor as defined in OAR 259-008-0005 and as attested to by the applicant's department head during the time such duties were performed for a period of one (1) year. The required experience must have been acquired within five (5) years prior to the date of application.

(e) Upon request of the employing agency, the Department may waive the requirements of subsection (c) or (d) of this section, provided the employing agency demonstrates that the applicant performs, on a regular basis, supervisory duties.

(16) The Management Certificate. In addition to requirements set forth in section (1) of this rule, the following are required for the award of the Management Certificate:

(a) Applicants must possess or be eligible to possess the Supervisory Certificate in the field in which certification is requested;

(b) Applicants must have satisfactorily completed no less than 90 education credits as defined in section (10) of this rule;

(c) Applicants must have satisfactorily completed the prescribed Middle Management Course or an equivalent number of hours of Department-approved management level training within five (5) years prior to application for the Management Certificate; and

(d) Applicants must be presently employed in and must have served satisfactorily in a Middle Management position as a Department Head or Assistant Department Head as defined in OAR 259-008-0005 for a period of two (2) years. The required experience must have been acquired within five (5) years prior to the date of application.

(e) Upon request of the employing agency, the Department may waive the requirements of subsection (c) or (d) of this section, provided the employing agency demonstrates that the applicant performs, on a regular basis, management duties.

(17) The Executive Certificate. In addition to requirements set forth in section (1) of this rule, the following are required for the award of the Executive Certificate:

(a) Applicants must possess or be eligible to possess the Management Certificate in the field in which certification is requested;

(b) Applicants must have satisfactorily completed no less than 90 education credits as defined in section (10) of this rule;

(c) Applicants must have satisfactorily completed 100 hours of Department-approved executive level training within five (5) years prior to application for the Executive Certificate; and

(d) Applicants must be presently employed in and must have served satisfactorily in a Middle Management position as Department Head or Assistant Department Head as defined in OAR 259-008-0005 for a period of two (2) years. The required experience must have been acquired within five (5) years prior to the date of the application.

(e) Upon request of the employing agency, the Department may waive the requirements of subsection (c) or (d) of this section, provided the employing agency demonstrates that the applicant performs, on a regular basis, the duties associated with that of a department head or assistant department head.

(18) Multi-discipline Certification. Upon receiving written request from the department head stating a justified and demonstrated need exists for the efficient operation of the employing agency, the Department may approve multi-discipline certification for law enforcement officers who meet all minimum employment, training and education standards established in OAR 259-008-0010, 259-008-0011, 259-008-0025, and this rule, in the disciplines which they are requesting certification. The officer must meet the following requirements for the award of multi-discipline certification:

(a) Basic certification. A law enforcement officer who is certified in one discipline may apply for multi-discipline certification if employed in or transferred to another discipline within the same law enforcement unit. The applicant must demonstrate completion of all training requirements in the discipline in which certification is being requested.

(b) Higher levels of certification. Law enforcement officers who possess higher levels of certification in one discipline may, upon employment in or transfer to another discipline within the same law enforcement unit, apply for the same level of certification after completion of nine (9) months experience in the discipline in which they are requesting certification and meeting the requirements for those higher levels of certification as outlined in this rule. This section does not apply to the emergency medical dispatcher discipline since it only exists at the basic certification level.

(c) Retention of multi-discipline certification. In order to maintain multi-discipline certification, each discipline in which certification is held requires successful completion and documentation of training hours by the holders of the certificates every twelve (12) months. The training must be reported to the Department, as follows:

(A) For a law enforcement officer who also holds emergency medical dispatcher certification, a minimum of four (4) hours of training specific to the emergency medical dispatcher discipline must be reported annually as required under OAR 259-008-0064.

(B) For a law enforcement officer who also holds telecommunicator certification, a minimum of twelve (12) hours of training specific to the telecommunicator discipline must be reported annually as required under OAR 259-008-0064.

(C) A minimum of twenty (20) hours of training specific to each law enforcement discipline in which certification is held must be reported annually as required under subsections (h) through (l) of this section.

(d) The same training may be used for more than one discipline if the content is specific to each discipline. It is the responsibility of the agency head to determine if the training is appropriate for more than one discipline.

(e) The maintenance training cycle for law enforcement officers who are certified in more than one discipline begins on July 1st of each year and ends on June 30th the following year.

(f) The employing agency must maintain documentation of all required maintenance training completed.

(g) If reported on a Form F-6 (Course Attendance Roster), required maintenance training must be submitted to the Department by June 30th of each year. Training reported on a Form F-6 will result in credit for training hours. No training hours will be added to a law enforcement officer's record, unless accompanied by a Form F-6 Course Attendance Roster.

(h) On or after July 1st of each year, the Department will identify all law enforcement officers who are deficient in maintenance training according to Department records and provide notification to the individual and the employing agency.

(A) Within 30 days of receipt of notification, the agency must notify the Department of the training status of any law enforcement officer identified as deficient by submitting a Form F-16 (Maintenance Training Log) to the Department identifying the maintenance training completed during the previous one (1) year reporting period.

(B) Maintenance training hours reported to the Department on a Form F-16 will be used solely to verify completion of maintenance training requirements and will not be added to an officer's training record.

(i) Failure to notify the Department of completion of any required training for individuals with identified training deficiencies will result in a notification of recall letter being sent to the agency head and the officer.

(j) The Department will recall a law enforcement officer's certification for:

(A) Failure to complete or report any required maintenance training above on or before June 30th of each year; or

(B) Failure to submit a Form F-16 within 30 days after a warning notification letter has been sent.

(k) A law enforcement officer with a recalled certification is prohibited from being employed in any position for which the certification has been recalled.

(l) Recertification following a recall may be obtained at the approval of the Department by submitting the following:

(A) A written request from the employing agency head requesting recertification, along with a justification of why the maintenance training was not completed; and

(B) Verification that the missing training was completed.

(m) Failure to complete the required maintenance training may not result in a recall of certification if the law enforcement officer is on leave from a public or private safety agency.

(19) Certificates and awards are the property of the Department. The Department has the power to revoke or recall any certificate or award as provided in the Act.

Minimum Standards for Employment as a Law Enforcement Officer

(1) Citizenship.

(a) A person may not be employed as a corrections officer for more than one year unless the person is a citizen of the United States.

(b) A person may not be employed as a police or parole and probation officer for more than 18 months unless the person is a citizen of the United States.

(2) Age. No law enforcement unit in this state shall employ as a police officer, corrections officer or parole and probation officer, any person who has not yet attained the age of 21 years.

(3) Fingerprints. On or within 90 days prior to the date of employment, each police, corrections, or parole and probation officer shall be fingerprinted on standard applicant fingerprint cards. The hiring agency is responsible for fingerprinting and shall forward two (2) cards to the Oregon State Police Identification Services Section for processing and assignment of identification number.

(a) Applicant's fingerprints will be retained and kept on file with the Oregon State Police Identification Services Section.

(b) The Oregon State Police Identification Services Section will notify the Department and the employing agency of any criminal record disclosed through processing the applicant's fingerprint card.

(c) If any procedural change is made by either the Federal Bureau of Investigation or the Oregon State Police Identification Services Section the Department shall comply with the most current requirements.

(d) If the fingerprint clearance has not been obtained prior to submission of the application for certification, a criminal history affidavit provided by the applicant pending fingerprint clearance.

(4) Criminal Records. No police, corrections, or parole and probation officer shall have been convicted:

(a) In this state or any other jurisdiction, of a crime designated under the law where the conviction occurred as being punishable as a felony or as a crime for which a maximum term of imprisonment of more than one (1) year may be imposed;

(b) Of violating any law involving the unlawful use, possession, delivery, or manufacture of a controlled substance, narcotic, or dangerous drug;

(c) In this state of violating any law subject to denial or revocation as identified in OAR 259-008-0070 or has been convicted of violating the statutory counterpart of any of those offenses in any other jurisdiction.

(5) Notification of Conviction:

(a) A law enforcement officer, instructor, telecommunicator, or EMD who is convicted of a crime, as identified in OAR 259-008-0070, while employed by a public or private safety agency must notify the agency head within 72 hours of the conviction.

(b) When an agency receives notification of a conviction from its employee, or another source, they must notify the Department within five (5) business days. The notification to the Department must be in writing and include the specific charges of the conviction, the county and state where the conviction occurred, the investigating agency and the date of the conviction.

(6) Moral Fitness (Professional Fitness). All law enforcement officers must be of good moral fitness.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) For purposes of this standard, lack of good moral fitness includes, but is not limited to:

(A) Mandatory disqualifying misconduct as described in OAR 259-008-0070(3); or

(B) Discretionary disqualifying misconduct described in OAR 259-008-0070(4).

(7) Education:

(a) Applicants for the position of a law enforcement officer will be required to furnish documentary evidence of one of the following:

(A) High School diploma;

(B) Successful completion of the General Educational Development (GED) Test; or

(C) A four-year, post-secondary degree issued by an accredited, degree-granting college or university recognized by the Oregon Office of Degree Authorization under the provisions of ORS 348.604.

(i) For the purpose of determining high school graduation level as required by these rules, the applicant must have achieved a score no less than that required by the Oregon Board of Education before issuing an Oregon GED certificate.

(ii) Applicants holding a GED from another state may be required to obtain an Oregon certificate at the discretion of the Department.

(b) Evidence of the above shall consist of official transcripts, diplomas, or GED test report forms. Other documentation may be accepted, at the discretion of the Department.

(c) Reading and Writing Standard. Before beginning basic police training, challenging basic police training, or beginning the police career officer development course, each applicant shall provide evidence to DPSST that the applicant has attained a minimum of a 12th grade reading and writing level in the English language.

(A) The hiring agency is responsible for administering a reading and writing instrument, approved by DPSST, and shall forward the results to DPSST on an application for training (Form F-5) prior to the applicant being admitted to basic police training.

(B) Individuals submitting transcripts verifying that they possess at least a four-year academic degree from an institution recognized by DPSST under the provisions of OAR 259-008-0045 are exempt from completing the 12th grade reading/writing test prior to attending a course identified in this section.

(8) Physical Examination. All law enforcement officers and applicants must be examined by a licensed physician or surgeon.

(a) The medical examination shall be completed not more than 180 days prior to initial offer of employment, nor more than 90 days after initial offer of employment, and shall conform to applicable standards of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Title 42 USC 12101.

(b) Individuals who have had a successfully completed physical examination (while at the same employer) and are selected for a certifiable position in a discipline in which the individual is not yet certified must complete and pass a new physical examination.

(c) Except as provided in (e) below, the Department will not require a new physical examination when a law enforcement officer obtains employment, or re-employment, in the same discipline if the officer:

(A) Has had a successfully completed a physical examination, and

(B) Is currently certified; or

(C) Is an officer currently employed full-time in another jurisdiction who has successfully completed a comparable physical examination in that jurisdiction.

(d) Notwithstanding subsection (c), a medical examination may be required by a hiring agency at its discretion.

(e) Notwithstanding subsection (c), any law enforcement officer who is separated from employment for a reason related to a physical inability to perform an essential task of a law enforcement officer must successfully complete a physical examination prior to obtaining re-employment in a certifiable position or applying for certified retired officer status.

(f) Police, Corrections, and Parole and Probation applicants must meet the following criteria:

(A) Visual Acuity. Corrected vision must be at least 20/30 (Snellen) in each eye. Due to the demonstrated likelihood of dislodgment or breakage, candidates who are able to wear only glasses with frames must meet an uncorrected standard not worse than 20/100 (Snellen) in each eye. Those candidates who use soft contact lenses (SCLs) must have vision correctable to at least 20/30 in each eye, with no uncorrected standard, provided the employing agency will monitor compliance. Replacement glasses or lenses (as appropriate) must be on the person or readily available at all times during each work shift.

(B) Color Vision. Red or green deficiencies may be acceptable, providing the applicant can read at least nine (9) of the first thirteen (13) plates of the Ishihara Test (24 Plate Edition). Applicants who fail the Ishihara test can meet the color vision standard by demonstrating that they can correctly discriminate colors via a field test conducted by the employer and approved by DPSST.

(C) Depth Perception. Depth Perception must be sufficient to demonstrate stereopsis adequate to perform the essential tasks of the job. The recommended test is the Random Stereo Test with 60 seconds of arc.

(D) Peripheral Vision. Visual Field Performance must be 140 degrees in the horizontal meridian combined.

(E) Night Blindness. A history of night blindness should be evaluated to determine applicant's capacity to perform essential tasks at night or in dark or low light settings.

(g) Applicants for the position of police or corrections officer must have sufficient hearing in both ears to perform essential tasks without posing a direct threat to themselves or others. The applicant must have no average loss greater than 25 decibels (db) at the 500, 1,000, 2,000 and 3,000-Hertz levels in either ear with no single loss in excess of 40 db.

(h) Applicants for the position of parole and probation officer must have sufficient hearing in both ears to perform essential tasks without posing a direct threat to themselves or others. The applicant must have no average loss greater than 35 decibels (db) at the 500, 1000, 2000, and 3000 Hertz levels in either ear with no single loss in excess of 45 db.

(i) If amplification device(s) is (are) necessary to meet the criteria in (g) or (h) above, or if applicant cannot meet the above criteria and wishes to pursue application, applicant must:

(A) Obtain a hearing evaluation by a licensed audiologist or otorhinolaryngologist (ear, nose, throat) to determine current hearing aid requirement; and

(B) Achieve a Speech Reception Threshold (SRT) of no greater than 25 db for each ear;

(C) Police, corrections and parole and probation officers must achieve a Speech Discrimination test score of no less than 90% utilizing a standard 50-word presentation at 60 db Hearing Threshold Level (HTL). The Department may require an applicant to have another examination by a licensed audiologist or otorhinolaryngologist (ear, nose, and throat) designated by the Department to verify that the applicant's hearing meets the Board's minimum hearing standard. The verification examination will be at the expense of the applicant or the applicant's employing agency. The equipment utilized for all of these evaluations must be calibrated annually using current ANSI standards.

(D) Hearing amplification devices used to meet the hearing standard must be the type that protects the applicant from further hearing degradation due to amplification of loud sounds.

(j) Applicants for the position of police, corrections, or parole and probation officer must be able to use vocal chords and have significant speaking ability to perform speaking-related essential tasks. For police and corrections officers abnormalities of the nose, throat or mouth must not interfere with the applicant's breathing or proper fitting of gas mask or similar device.

(k) Applicants for the position of police, corrections, or parole and probation officer who have a history of organic cardio-vascular disease or a finding during the medical examination of organic cardio-vascular disease will necessitate further medical evaluation.

(A) Resting blood pressure must be less than or equal to 140 mmHg systolic and 90 mmHg diastolic on three successive readings.

(B) Applicants must not have a functional and therapeutic cardiac classification greater than the Heart Association's Class A.

(C) Failure to meet guidelines (k), (A) and (B) will require further medical evaluation.

(D) If the applicant has controlled hypertension not exceeding the above standards and is on medication with side effect profiles, which do not interfere with performance of duty, then the condition may not be excludable.

(E) Functional Capacity I patients with cardiac disease may not be excludable, if they have no limitations of physical activity and ordinary physical activity does not cause discomfort and they do not have symptoms of cardiac insufficiency, nor experience angina pain.

(F) Therapeutic Classification A patients with cardiac disease, whose physical activity is restricted, should be evaluated thoroughly.

(G) If further medical examination is required under (k), it will be at the expense of the applicant or hiring authority.

(l) All law enforcement applicants must submit a current-version DPSST Medical Examination Report (DPSST Form F2), or a medical report completed by a licensed physician containing at a minimum the information on Form F2 and a signed statement by the examining physician that the applicant does not have any condition, physical, mental, or emotional, which, in his/her opinion, suggests further examination. This Report will be furnished to the examining physician by the hiring agency. The physician must indicate that the applicant is or is not physically able to perform the duties of a law enforcement officer as prescribed by DPSST.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(m) A copy of the Medical Examination Report must be sent to the Department prior to acceptance into a basic course, or any course where such report is required by the Department.

(n) The Department may require an applicant offered conditional employment to take a subsequent examination by a licensed physician of the Department's choice at the expense of the applicant or the hiring authority.

(o) The Board may waive any physical requirement where, in its judgment, the waiver would not be detrimental to the performance of an officer's duties, including the protection of the public and the safety of co-workers. The applicant may be required to demonstrate the ability to perform the essential functions of the job.

(p) A person or department head requesting a waiver of any physical requirement set forth in section (8) of this rule shall submit the request to the Department in writing, accompanied by supporting documents or pertinent testimony which would justify the action requested. The supporting documents must include information pertinent to the waiver request. The Board or Department may require additional documentation or testimony by the person or department head requesting the waiver if clarification is needed. Any expense associated with providing documentation or testimony will be borne by the person requesting the waiver or the requesting agency. If the person requesting the waiver does not obtain employment within one (1) year from the date a waiver is granted, the waiver will be considered void.

(A) If the Board grants a waiver, it will be recorded on the certification and any subsequent certification unless removed by the Board upon proof that the condition prompting the waiver no longer exists.

(B) If the Board denies a request for a waiver of any physical requirement set forth in section (8) of this rule, the Department will issue Notice and proceed as provided in section (9) of this rule.

(9) Contested Case Hearing Process for denial of waiver.

(a) Initiation of Proceedings: Upon determination that the reason for denial of a waiver is supported by factual data meeting the statutory and administrative rule requirements, a contested case notice will be prepared.

(b) Contested Case Notice: The "Contested Case Notice" will be prepared in accordance with the Attorney General's Model Rules of Procedure adopted under OAR 259-005-0015. The Department will have a copy of the notice served on the public safety professional or individual.

(c) Response Time: A party who has been served with a "Contested Case Notice" has 60 days from the date of mailing or personal service of the notice in which to file with the Department a written request for a hearing.

(d) Default Order: If a timely request for a hearing is not received, the Contested Case Notice will become a final order denying the requested waiver.

(e) Hearing Request: When a request for a hearing is received in a timely manner, the Department will refer the matter to the Office of Administrative Hearings.

(f) Proposed Order: The assigned Administrative Law Judge will prepare Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Proposed Final Order and serve a copy on the Department and on each party.

(g) Exceptions and Arguments: A party must file specific written exceptions and arguments with the Department no later than 14 days from date of service of the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Proposed Final Order.

(A) The Department may extend the time within which the exceptions and arguments must be filed upon a showing of good cause.

(B) When the exceptions and arguments are filed, the party making the exceptions and arguments must serve a copy on all parties of record in the case and provide the Department with proof of service. A failure to serve copies and provide proof of service will invalidate the filing of exceptions and arguments as being untimely, and the Department may disregard the filing in making a final determination of the case.

(h) Final Order: The Department will issue a final order if a public safety professional or individual fails to file exceptions and arguments in a timely manner.

259-008-0011

Minimum Standards for Employment as a Telecommunicator and Emergency Medical Dispatcher

(1) On or before the date of employment, each telecommunicator and emergency medical dispatcher shall be fingerprinted on standard applicant fingerprint cards.

(a) The hiring agency, if a public agency, is responsible for fingerprinting and shall forward two (2) cards to the Oregon State Police Identification Services Section for processing and assignment of identification number.

(b) If the hiring agency is a private agency it is responsible for fingerprinting and shall forward two (2) cards to the Department along with the appropriate fee.

(A) Applicant's fingerprints will be retained and kept on file with the Oregon State Police Identification Services Section.

(B) The Oregon State Police Identification Services Section shall notify the Department and the employing agency of any criminal record disclosed through processing the applicant's fingerprint card.

(C) If any procedural change is made by either the Federal Bureau of Investigation or the Oregon State Police Identification Services Section, the Department shall comply with the most current requirements.

(D) If the fingerprint clearance has not been obtained prior to submission of the application for certification, a criminal history affidavit provided by the Department shall be completed and returned to the Department by the applicant pending fingerprint clearance.

(2) Criminal Records. No telecommunicator or emergency medical dispatcher shall have been convicted:

(a) In this state or any other jurisdiction, of a crime designated under the law where the conviction occurred as being punishable as a felony or as a crime for which a maximum term of imprisonment of more than one (1) year may be imposed;

(b) Of violating any law involving the unlawful use, possession, delivery, or manufacture of a controlled substance, narcotic, or dangerous drug;

(c) In this state of violating any law subject to denial or revocation as identified in OAR 259-008-0070 or has been convicted of violating the statutory counterpart of any of those offenses in any other jurisdiction.

(3) Moral Fitness (Professional Fitness). All telecommunicators and emergency medical dispatchers must be of good moral fitness. For purposes of this standard, lack of good moral fitness includes, but is not limited to:

(a) Mandatory disqualifying misconduct as described in OAR 259-008-0070(3); or

(b) Discretionary disqualifying misconduct as described in OAR 259-008-0070(4).

(4) Education:

(a) Applicants for the position of a telecommunicator or emergency medical dispatcher will be required to furnish documentary evidence of one of the following:

(A) High School diploma;

(B) Successful completion of the General Educational Development (GED) Test; or

(C) A four-year, post-secondary degree issued by a degree-granting college or university accredited by a recognized national or regional accrediting body, or recognized by the Oregon Office of Degree Authorization under the provisions of ORS 348.604.

(i) For the purpose of determining high school graduation level as required by these rules, the applicant must have achieved a score no less than that required by the Oregon Board of Education before issuing an Oregon GED certificate.

(ii) Applicants holding a GED from another state may be required to obtain an Oregon certificate at the discretion of the Department.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Evidence of the above shall consist of official transcripts, diplomas, or GED test report forms. Other documentation may be accepted, at the discretion of the Department.

(5) Reading Standard. Before beginning basic telecommunicator or Emergency Medical Dispatcher (EMD) training or challenging basic telecommunicator training, each applicant shall provide evidence to DPSST that the applicant has attained a minimum of a 12th grade reading level in the English language.

(a) The hiring agency is responsible for administering a reading test, approved by DPSST, and shall forward the results to DPSST on an application for training (Form F-5) prior to the applicant being admitted to basic telecommunicator or EMD training.

(b) Individuals submitting transcripts verifying that they possess at least a four-year academic degree from an institution recognized by DPSST under the provisions of OAR 259-008-0045 are exempt from completing the 12th grade reading test prior to attending a course identified in this section.

(6) Physical Examination. All Telecommunicators and Emergency Medical Dispatcher applicants must be examined by a licensed physician.

(a) The medical examination must be completed not more than 180 days prior to initial offer of employment, nor more than 90 days after initial offer of employment, and must conform to applicable standards of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Title 42 USC 12101.

(b) Individuals who have had a successfully completed physical examination (while at the same employer) and are selected for a certifiable position in a discipline in which the individual is not yet certified must complete and pass a new physical examination.

(c) The Department will not require a new physical examination when a Telecommunicator or Emergency Medical Dispatcher obtains employment, or re-employment, in the same discipline if the Telecommunicator or Emergency Medical Dispatcher:

(A) Has had a successfully completed a physical examination, and

(B) Is currently certified; or

(C) Is currently employed full-time in another jurisdiction and has successfully completed a comparable physical examination in that jurisdiction.

(d) Notwithstanding subsection (c), a medical examination may be required by a hiring agency at its discretion.

(e) Telecommunicator and Emergency Medical Dispatcher applicants must meet the following criteria:

(A) Visual Acuity. Corrected vision must be at least 20/30 (Snellen) when tested using both eyes together.

(B) Color Vision. Red or green deficiencies may be acceptable, providing the applicant can read at least nine (9) of the first thirteen (13) plates of the Ishihara Test (24 Plate Edition). Applicants who fail the Ishihara test can meet the color vision standard by demonstrating that they can correctly discriminate colors via a field test conducted by the employer and approved by DPSST. The results of the field test and the methods for testing must be maintained by the employing agency.

(i) Any employing agency that conducts a field test to meet the color vision standard must also complete a Department approved affidavit attesting that the applicant can either correctly discriminate colors or is able to successfully perform the required tasks of a Telecommunicator or Emergency Medical Dispatcher, notwithstanding the applicant's inability to correctly discriminate colors.

(ii) Any affidavit required by (i), that the Department receives and accepts, is non-transferable to any subsequent employer and may not be used by any other entity for certification purposes.

(iii) Notwithstanding subsection (c) of this rule, each employer must complete an agency-specific field test and a Department approved affidavit as described in subsection (i) of this section for any Telecommunicator or Emergency Medical Dispatcher who previously met the color vision standard by completing a field test.

(C) Peripheral Vision. Visual Field Performance must be 120 degrees in the horizontal meridian combined.

(f) Applicants for the position of Telecommunicator or Emergency Medical Dispatcher must have sufficient hearing in both ears to perform essential tasks without posing a direct threat to themselves or others. The applicant must meet National Emergency Number Association (NENA) hearing standard 54-002 (June 10, 2006).

(g) Applicants for the position of Telecommunicator or Emergency Medical Dispatcher must be able to use vocal cords and exhibit normal speech patterns, sufficient to perform speaking-related essential tasks.

(7) If further medical examination is required, it will be at the expense of the applicant or the hiring authority.

(8) All Telecommunicator and Emergency Medical Dispatcher applicants must submit a current-version DPSST Medical Examination Report for Telecommunicators and Emergency Medical Dispatchers (DPSST Form F-2T), or a medical report completed by a licensed physician containing at a minimum the information on Form F-2T. This Report will be furnished to the examining physician by the hiring agency.

(9) A copy of the Medical Examination Report must be sent to the Department prior to acceptance into a basic course, or any course where such report is required by the Department.

(10) The Department may require an applicant offered conditional employment to take a subsequent examination by a licensed physician of the Department's choice at the expense of the applicant or the hiring authority.

(11) The Board may waive any physical requirement where, in its judgment, the waiver would not be detrimental to the performance of a Telecommunicator or Emergency Medical Dispatcher's duties. The applicant may be required to demonstrate the ability to perform the essential functions of the job.

(12) A person or department head requesting a waiver of any physical requirement set forth in section (11) of this rule must submit the request to the Department in writing, accompanied by supporting documents or pertinent testimony which would justify the action requested. The supporting documents must include information pertinent to the waiver request. The Board or Department may require additional documentation or testimony by the person or department head requesting the waiver if clarification is needed. Any expense associated with providing documentation or testimony will be borne by the person requesting the waiver or the requesting agency. If the person requesting the waiver does not obtain employment within one (1) year from the date a waiver is granted, the waiver will be considered void.

(a) If the Board grants a waiver, it will be recorded on the certification and any subsequent certification unless removed by the Board upon proof that the condition prompting the waiver no longer exists.

(b) If the Board denies a request for a waiver of any physical requirement set forth in section (8) of this rule, the Department will issue Notice and proceed as provided in section (13) of this rule.

(13) Contested Case Hearing Process for denial of waiver.

(a) Initiation of Proceedings: Upon determination that the reason for denial of a waiver is supported by factual data meeting the statutory and administrative rule requirements, a contested case notice will be prepared.

(b) Contested Case Notice: The "Contested Case Notice" will be prepared in accordance with the Attorney General's Model Rules of Procedure adopted under OAR 259-005-0015. The Department will have a copy of the notice served on the public safety professional or individual.

(c) Response Time: A party who has been served with a "Contested Case Notice" has 60 days from the date of mailing or personal service of the notice in which to file with the Department a written request for a hearing.

(d) Default Order: If a timely request for a hearing is not received, the Contested Case Notice will become a final order denying the requested waiver.

(e) Hearing Request: When a request for a hearing is received in a timely manner, the Department will refer the matter to the Office of Administrative Hearings.

(f) Proposed Order: The assigned Administrative Law Judge will prepare Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Proposed Final Order and serve a copy on the Department and on each party.

(g) Exceptions and Arguments: A party must file specific written exceptions and arguments with the Department no later than 14 days from date of service of the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Proposed Final Order.

(A) The Department may extend the time within which the exceptions and arguments must be filed upon a showing of good cause.

(B) When the exceptions and arguments are filed, the party making the exceptions and arguments must serve a copy on all parties of record in the case and provide the Department with proof of service. A failure to serve copies and provide proof of service will invalidate the filing of exceptions and arguments as being untimely, and the Department may disregard the filing in making a final determination of the case.

(h) Final Order: The Department will issue a final order if a public safety professional or individual fails to file exceptions and arguments in a timely manner.

Also, the order of due process for certification denials and revocations is updated as required by HB 2790.

Rules Coordinator: Linsay Bassler—(503) 378-2431

259-008-0070

Denial/Revocation

(1) It is the responsibility of the Board to set the standards, and of the Department to uphold them, to insure the highest levels of professionalism and discipline. These standards shall be upheld at all times unless the Board determines that neither the safety of the public or respect of the profession is compromised.

Definitions

(2) For purposes of this rule, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Denial" or "Deny" means the refusal to grant a certification for mandatory grounds or discretionary disqualifying misconduct as identified in this rule, pursuant to the procedures identified in (9) of this rule.

(b) "Discretionary Disqualifying Misconduct" means misconduct identified in OAR 259-008-0070(4).

(c) "Revocation" or "Revoke" means to withdraw the certification of a public safety professional or instructor for mandatory grounds or discretionary disqualifying misconduct as identified in this rule, pursuant to the procedures identified in section (9) of this rule.

Grounds for Mandatory Denial or Revocation of Certification

(3) Mandatory Grounds for Denying or Revoking Certification of a Public Safety Professional or Instructor:

(a) The Department must deny or revoke the certification of any public safety professional or instructor after written notice and hearing, based upon a finding that:

(A) The public safety professional or instructor has been discharged for cause from employment as a public safety professional or instructor. For purposes of this rule, "discharged for cause," means an employer-initiated termination of employment for any of the following reasons after a final determination has been made. If, after service by the Department of a Notice of Intent to Deny or Revoke Certifications (NOI), the public safety professional or instructor provides notice to the Department within the time stated in the NOI that the discharge has not become final, then the Department may stay further action pending a final determination.

(i) Dishonesty: Includes untruthfulness, dishonesty by admission or omission, deception, misrepresentation, falsification; (Comment: Conduct underlying the mandatory disqualifying misdemeanors involving these elements in Subsection (D) and the Category I offenses in section (4), is illustrative of the types of conduct falling within this definition. However, misconduct need not have resulted in a criminal conviction.)

(ii) Disregard for the Rights of Others: Includes violating the constitutional or civil rights of others, conduct demonstrating a disregard for the principles of fairness, respect for the rights of others, protecting vulnerable persons, and the fundamental duty to protect and serve the public. (Comment: Conduct underlying the Category II offenses identified in section (4) is illustrative of the types of conduct falling within this definition. However, misconduct need not have resulted in a criminal conviction.)

(iii) Gross Misconduct: means an act or failure to act that creates a danger or risk to persons, property, or to the efficient operation of the agency, recognizable as a gross deviation from the standard of care that a reasonable public safety professional or instructor would observe in a similar circumstance; (Comment: Conduct underlying the Category IV offenses identified in section (4) is illustrative of the types of conduct falling within this definition. However, misconduct need not have resulted in a criminal conviction.)

(iv) Incompetence: means a demonstrated lack of ability to perform the essential tasks of a public safety professional or instructor that remedial measures have been unable to correct.

(v) Misuse of Authority: Includes abuse of public trust, abuse of authority to obtain a benefit, avoid a detriment, or harm another, and abuse under the color of office. (Comment: Conduct underlying the Category III offenses identified in section (4) is illustrative of the types of conduct falling within this definition. However, misconduct need not have resulted in a criminal conviction.)

(B) The public safety professional or instructor has been convicted in this state or any other jurisdiction of a crime designated under the law where the conviction occurred as being punishable as a felony or as a crime for which a maximum term of imprisonment of more than one year may be imposed;

(C) The public safety professional or instructor has been convicted of violating any law of this state or any other jurisdiction involving the unlawful use, possession, delivery or manufacture of a controlled substance, narcotic or dangerous drug except the Department may deny certification for a conviction of possession of less than one ounce of marijuana, which occurred prior to certification; or

(D) The public safety professional or instructor has been convicted in this state of any of the following offenses, or of their statutory counterpart(s) in any other jurisdiction, designated under the law where the conviction occurred as being punishable as a crime:

162.075 (False swearing),

(b) The Department must take action on a mandatory disqualifying conviction, regardless of when it occurred, unless the Department, or the Board, has previously reviewed the conviction and approved the public safety professional or instructor for certification under a prior set of standards.

Discretionary Disqualifying Misconduct as Grounds for Denying or Revoking Certification

(4) Discretionary disqualifying misconduct as Grounds for Denying or Revoking Certification(s) of a Public Safety Professional or Instructor:

(a) The Department may deny or revoke the certification of any public safety professional or instructor, after written notice, and a hearing, if requested, based upon a finding that:

(A) The public safety professional or instructor falsified any information submitted on the application for certification or on any documents submitted to the Board or Department;

(B) The public safety professional or instructor fails to meet the applicable minimum standards, minimum training or the terms and conditions established under ORS 181.640;

(C) The public safety professional or instructor has been convicted of an offense, listed in subsection (4), punishable as a crime, other than a mandatory disqualifying crime listed in section (3) of this rule, in this state or any other jurisdiction; or

(D) A public safety professional failed to attend at least one session with a mental health professional within six months after the public safety professional was involved in using deadly physical force, as required by ORS 181.789.

(b) For purposes of this rule, discretionary disqualifying misconduct includes misconduct falling within the following categories:

(A) Category I: Dishonesty: Includes untruthfulness, dishonesty by admission or omission, deception, misrepresentation, falsification; (Comment: Conduct underlying the mandatory disqualifying misdemeanors involving these elements in Subsection (D) and the Category I offenses in section (4), is illustrative of the types of conduct falling within this definition. However, misconduct need not have resulted in a criminal conviction.)

(B) Category II: Disregard for the Rights of Others: Includes violating the constitutional or civil rights of others, and conduct demonstrating a disregard for the principles of fairness, respect for the rights of others, protecting vulnerable persons, and the fundamental duty to protect and serve the public. (Comment: Conduct underlying the Category II offenses identified in section (4) is illustrative of the types of conduct falling within this definition. However, misconduct need not have resulted in criminal conviction.)

(C) Category III: Misuse of Authority: Includes abuse of public trust, obtaining a benefit, avoidance of detriment, or harming another, and abuses under the color of office. (Comment: Conduct underlying the Category III offenses identified in section (4) is illustrative of the types of conduct falling within this definition. However, misconduct need not have resulted in a criminal conviction.)

(D) Category IV: Gross Misconduct: Means an act or failure to act that creates a danger or risk to persons, property, or to the efficient operation of the agency, recognizable as a gross deviation from the standard of care that a reasonable public safety professional or instructor would observe in a similar circumstance; (Comment: Conduct underlying the Category IV offenses identified in section (4) is illustrative of the types of conduct falling within this definition. However, misconduct need not have resulted in a criminal conviction.)

(E) Category V: Misconduct: Misconduct includes conduct that violates the law, practices or standards generally followed in the Oregon public safety profession. NOTE: It is the intent of this rule that "Contempt of Court" meets the definition of Misconduct within this category; (Comment: Conduct underlying the Category V offenses identified in section (4) is illustrative of the types of conduct falling within this definition. However, misconduct need not have resulted in a criminal conviction.) or

(F) Category VI: Insubordination: Includes a refusal by a public safety professional or instructor to comply with a rule or order, where the order was reasonably related to the orderly, efficient, or safe operation of the agency, and where the public safety professional's or instructor's refusal to comply with the rule or order constitutes a substantial breach of that person's duties. (Note: There are no category VI crimes.)

(c) For discretionary disqualifying misconduct under (a) (A) or (B), the applicable category will be determined based on the facts of each case. For discretionary disqualifying misconduct under (a)(C), the following list identifies the applicable category for each discretionary offense:

Initial Periods of Ineligibility

(d) Upon determination to proceed with the denial or revocation of a public safety professional's or instructor's certification based on discretionary disqualifying misconduct identified in subsection (a), an initial minimum period of ineligibility to apply for certification will be determined based upon the category of misconduct (i.e., Dishonesty, Disregard for Rights of Others, Misuse of Authority, Gross Misconduct, Misconduct or Insubordination).

(e) Following review and recommendation by a Policy Committee, the Board will determine the initial minimum period of ineligibility for discretionary disqualifying misconduct identified in subsection (a) from the time frame identified below for each category of discretionary disqualifying misconduct:

- (A) Category I: Dishonesty (5 years to Lifetime).
- (B) Category II: Disregard for Rights of Others (5 years to 15 years).
- (C) Category III: Misuse of Authority (5 years to 10 years).
- (D) Category IV: Gross Misconduct (5 years to 10 years).
- (E) Category V: Misconduct (3 years to 7 years).
- (F) Category VI: Insubordination (3 years to 7 years).

Eligibility to Reapply; Ineligibility Periods

(5) A person is not eligible to reapply for training or certification if the person had training or certification denied or revoked for:

- (a) Mandatory grounds identified in section (3) of this rule; or
- (b) Discretionary Disqualifying Misconduct identified in section (4) of this rule that is determined to be a Category I lifetime disqualifier.

(6) Eligibility to reapply for certification:

(a) In determining the initial minimum period of ineligibility within any category for discretionary disqualifying misconduct listed in section (4) of this rule, the Board will take into consideration any mitigating or aggravating factors, subject to the provisions of section (9) of this rule.

(b) The initial minimum period of ineligibility will be included in any Final Order of the Department.

(c) Any subsequent eligibility to apply for certification will be determined by the Board, after Policy Committee review, subject to the provisions of section (11) of this rule.

Guidelines for Denial or Revocation Based on Discretionary Disqualifying Misconduct

(7) In determining whether to take action on a conviction, the Department must use the following guidelines:

(a) In making a decision on a discretionary denial or revocation, the Department will consider the implementation dates relating to new mandatory conviction notification requirements adopted in 2003 and statutory changes dealing with lifetime disqualifier convictions for public safety officers adopted in 2001.

(b) The Department will not take action on a conviction constituting discretionary disqualifying misconduct that occurred prior to January 1, 2001. However, the Department may consider such conviction as evidence that a public safety professional or instructor does not meet the established moral fitness guidelines.

(c) The Department may take action on any conviction constituting discretionary disqualifying misconduct that occurred after January 1, 2001.

(d) The Board may reconsider any mandatory conviction which subsequently becomes a conviction constituting discretionary disqualifying misconduct, upon the request of the public safety professional or instructor.

(e) The length of ineligibility for training or certification based on a conviction begins on the date of conviction.

(f) The Department will not take action against a public safety professional, instructor, or agency for failing to report, prior to January 1, 2003, a conviction that constitutes discretionary disqualifying misconduct.

(g) The Department may take action against a public safety professional, instructor, or agency for failing to report, after January 1, 2003, any conviction that constitutes discretionary disqualifying misconduct.

Procedure for Denial or Revocation of a Certificate

(8) Scope of Revocation. Whenever the Department revokes the certification of any public safety professional or instructor under the provisions of OAR 259-008-0070, the revocation will encompass all public safety certificates, except fire certification(s), the Department has issued to that person.

(9) Denial and Revocation Procedure.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) Agency Initiated Review: When the entity utilizing a public safety professional or instructor requests that a public safety professional's or instructor's certification be denied or revoked, it must submit in writing to the Department the reason for the requested denial or revocation and all factual information supporting the request.

(b) Department Initiated Review: Upon receipt of factual information from any source, and pursuant to ORS 181.662, the Department may request that the public safety professional's or instructor's certification be denied or revoked.

(c) Department Staff Review: When the Department receives information, from any source, that a public safety professional or instructor may not meet the established standards for Oregon public safety professionals or instructors, the Department will review the request and the supporting factual information to determine if the request for denial or revocation meets statutory and administrative rule requirements.

(A) If the reason for the request does not meet the statutory and administrative rule requirements for denial or revocation the Department will notify the requestor.

(B) If the reason for the request does meet statutory and administrative rule requirements but is not supported by adequate factual information, the Department will request further information from the employer or conduct its own investigation of the matter.

(C) If the Department determines that a public safety professional or instructor may have engaged in discretionary disqualifying misconduct listed in subsection (4), the case may be presented to the Board, through a Policy Committee.

(D) The Department will seek input from the affected public safety professional or instructor, allowing him or her to provide, in writing, information for the Policy Committee and Board's review.

(E) In misconduct cases in which there has been an arbitrator's opinion related to the public safety professional's or instructor's employment, the Department will proceed as follows:

(i) If the arbitrator's opinion finds that underlying facts supported the allegations of misconduct, the department will proceed as identified in paragraphs (A) through (D) of this subsection.

(ii) If the arbitrator has ordered employment reinstatement after a discharge for cause without a finding related to whether the misconduct occurred, the Department will proceed as identified in paragraphs (A) through (D) of this subsection.

(iii) If the arbitrator's opinion finds that underlying facts did not support the allegation(s) of misconduct, the Department will proceed as identified in paragraph (A) of this subsection and administratively close the matter.

(d) Policy Committee and Board Review: In making a decision to authorize initiation of proceedings under subsection (e) of this rule, based on discretionary disqualifying misconduct, the Policy Committees and Board will consider mitigating and aggravating circumstances, including, but not limited to, the following:

(A) When the misconduct occurred in relation to the public safety professional's or instructor's employment in public safety (i.e., before, during after);

(B) If the misconduct resulted in a conviction:

(i) Whether it was a misdemeanor or violation;

(ii) The date of the conviction(s);

(iii) Whether the public safety professional or instructor was a minor at the time and tried as an adult;

(iv) Whether the public safety professional or instructor served time in prison/jail and, if so, the length of incarceration;

(v) Whether restitution was ordered, and whether the public safety professional or instructor met all obligations;

(vi) Whether the public safety professional or instructor has ever been on parole or probation. If so, the date on which the parole/probation period expired or is set to expire; and

(vii) Whether the public safety professional or instructor has more than one conviction and if so, over what period of time;

(C) Whether the public safety professional or instructor has engaged in the same misconduct more than once, and if so, over what period of time;

(D) Whether the actions of the public safety professional or instructor reflect adversely on the profession, or would cause a reasonable person to have substantial doubts about the public safety professional's or instructor's honesty, fairness, respect for the rights of others, or for the laws of the state or the nation;

(E) Whether the misconduct involved domestic violence;

(F) Whether the public safety professional or instructor self-reported the misconduct;

(G) Whether the conduct adversely reflects on the fitness of the public safety professional or instructor to perform as a public safety professional or instructor;

(H) Whether the conduct renders the public safety professional or instructor otherwise unfit to perform their duties because the agency or public has lost confidence in the public safety professional or instructor; and

(I) What the public safety professional's or instructor's physical or emotional condition was at the time of the conduct.

(e) Initiation of Proceedings: Upon determination that the reason for denial or revocation is supported by factual data meeting the statutory and administrative rule requirements, a contested case notice will be prepared and served on the public safety professional or instructor.

(A) All contested case notices will be prepared in accordance with OAR 137-003-0001 of the Attorney General's Model Rules or Procedures adopted under OAR 259-005-0015.

(B) In discretionary cases heard by a policy committee, the contested case notice will be served on the public safety professional or instructor prior to Board review. If the Board disapproves the policy committee's recommendation, the Department will withdraw the Contested Case Notice.

(f) Response Time:

(A) A party who has been served with a "Contested Case Notice of Intent to Deny Certification" has 60 days from the date of mailing or personal service of the notice in which to file with the Department a written request for a hearing.

(B) A party who has been served with the "Contested Case Notice of Intent to Revoke Certification" has 20 days from the date of mailing or personal service of the notice in which to file with the Department a written request for hearing.

(g) Default Order: If a timely request for a hearing is not received, the Contested Case Notice will become a final order denying or revoking certification pursuant to OAR 137-003-0645.

(h) Hearing Request: When a request for a hearing is received in a timely manner, the Department will refer the matter to the Office of Administrative Hearings in accordance with OAR 137-003-0515.

(i) Proposed Order: The assigned Administrative Law Judge will prepare Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Proposed Final Order and serve a copy on the Department and on each party.

(j) Exceptions and Arguments: A party must file specific written exceptions and arguments with the Department no later than 14 days from date of service of the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Proposed Final Order.

(A) The Department may extend the time within which the exceptions and arguments must be filed upon a showing of good cause.

(B) When the exceptions and arguments are filed, the party making the exceptions and arguments must serve a copy on all parties of record in the case and provide the Department with proof of service. A failure to serve copies and provide proof of service will invalidate the filing of exceptions and arguments as being untimely, and the Department may disregard the filing in making a final determination of the case.

(k) Final Order:

(A) A final order will be issued pursuant to OAR 137-003-0070 if a public safety professional or instructor fails to file exceptions and arguments in a timely manner.

(B) Department-proposed amendments to the proposed order in a case that was originally heard by a policy committee must be considered and approved by the policy committee that originally reviewed the case before a final order is issued.

(l) Stipulated Order Revoking Certification: The Department may enter a stipulated order revoking the certification of a public safety professional or instructor upon the person's voluntary agreement to terminate an administrative proceeding to revoke a certification, or to relinquish a certification, under the terms and conditions outlined in the stipulated order.

Appeals, Reapplication, and Eligibility Determinations

(10) Appeal Procedure. A public safety professional or instructor, aggrieved by the findings and Order of the Department may, as provided in ORS 183.480, file an appeal with the Court of Appeals from the final Order of the Department.

(11) Reapplication Process.

(a) Any public safety professional or instructor whose certification has been denied or revoked pursuant to section (4) of this rule, may reapply for certification within the applicable timeframes described in sections (4) through (6) of this rule. The initial minimum ineligibility period will begin on the date an Order of the Department denying or revoking certification becomes final. The initial minimum ineligibility period will cease when the applicable timeframe stated in the Order has been satisfied.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Any public safety professional or instructor whose certification has been denied or revoked based on discretionary disqualifying misconduct may not reapply for certification until:

(A) The initial minimum period of ineligibility stated in an Order of the Department denying or revoking certification has been satisfied;

(i) If the initial period of ineligibility for the individual was for a period of less than the maximum period identified in section (4) of this rule, and the Board determines that an individual must remain ineligible to apply for certification, then the individual may not reapply for certification under the provisions of this rule until after the maximum initial period of ineligibility identified in (4) of this rule has been satisfied.

(ii) If the individual has satisfied the maximum initial period of ineligibility and the Board determines that an individual must remain ineligible to apply for certification, then the individual may not submit any further requests for an eligibility determination, and the original denial or revocation remains permanent.

(B) A written request for an eligibility determination has been submitted to the Department and a Policy Committee has recommended that a public safety professional's or instructor's eligibility to apply for public safety or instructor certification be restored and the Board has upheld the recommendation;

(i) A request for an eligibility determination should include documentation or information that supports the public safety professional's or instructor's request for eligibility to apply for certification.

(ii) In considering a request for an eligibility determination, the Policy Committee and the Board may consider mitigating and aggravating circumstances identified in Section 9(d) of this rule.

(iii) After reviewing a written request for an eligibility determination, the Board, through a Policy Committee, may determine that the individual's eligibility to apply for certification be restored if the criteria for certification have been met; or determine that the factors that originally resulted in denial or revocation have not been satisfactorily mitigated and the individual must remain ineligible to apply for certification.

(C) The public safety professional or instructor is employed or utilized by a public safety agency; and

(D) All requirements for certification have been met.

259-009-0070

Denial/Revocation

(1) It is the responsibility of the Board to set the standards, and of the Department to uphold them, to insure the highest levels of professionalism and discipline. These standards shall be upheld at all times unless the Board determines that neither the safety of the public or respect of the profession is compromised.

(2) For purposes of this rule, the following definitions will apply:

(a) "Denial" or "Deny" means the refusal to grant a fire service certification for mandatory grounds or discretionary disqualifying misconduct as identified in this rule, pursuant to the procedures identified in (9) of this rule.

(b) "Discretionary Conviction" means a conviction identified in OAR 259-009-0070(6).

(c) "Discretionary Disqualifying Misconduct" means misconduct identified in OAR 259-009-0070(4).

(d) "Revocation" or "Revoke" means to withdraw the certification of a fire service professional or instructor for mandatory grounds or discretionary disqualifying misconduct as identified in this rule, pursuant to the procedures identified in subsection (9) of this rule.

Grounds for Mandatory Denial or Revocation of Certification

(3) Mandatory Grounds for Denying or Revoking Certification of a Fire Service Professional or Instructor:

(a) The Department must deny or revoke the certification of any fire service professional or instructor, after written notice, and a hearing if requested, based upon a finding that:

(A) The fire service professional or instructor has been convicted in this state of a crime listed in ORS 137.700 or in any other jurisdiction of a crime that, if committed in this state would constitute a crime listed in 137.700. Those crimes are:

163.095 Attempted Aggravated Murder;

163.115 Attempted Murder;

163.115 Murder;

163.118 Manslaughter in the First Degree;

163.125 Manslaughter in the Second Degree;

163.149 Aggravated Vehicular Homicide;

163.175 Assault in the Second Degree;

163.185 Assault in the First Degree;

163.225 Kidnapping in the Second Degree;

163.235 Kidnapping in the First Degree;

163.365 Rape in the Second Degree;

163.375 Rape in the First Degree;

163.395 Sodomy in the Second Degree;

163.405 Sodomy in the First Degree;

163.408 Sexual Penetration in the Second Degree;

163.411 Sexual Penetration in the First Degree;

163.427 Sexual Abuse in the First Degree;

163.670 Using a Child in a Display of Sexually Explicit Conduct

164.325 Arson in the First Degree (See exception under OAR 259-009-0070(4));

164.405 Robbery in the Second Degree;

164.415 Robbery in the First Degree;

167.017 Compelling Prostitution.

(B) The fire service professional or instructor has been discharged for cause from employment as a fire service professional or instructor.

(b) For purposes of this rule, "discharged for cause", means an employer initiated termination of employment for any of the following reasons after a final determination has been made. If, after service by the Department of a Notice of Intent to Deny or Revoke Certifications (NOI), the fire service professional or instructor provides notice to the Department within the time stated in the NOI that the discharge has not become final, then the Department may stay further action pending a final determination.

(i) Dishonesty: Includes untruthfulness, dishonesty by admission or omission, deception, misrepresentation, falsification;

(ii) Disregard for the Rights of Others: Includes violating the constitutional or civil rights of others, conduct demonstrating a disregard for the principles of fairness, respect for the rights of others, protecting vulnerable persons, and the fundamental duty to protect and serve the public.

(iii) Gross Misconduct means an act or failure to act that creates a danger or risk to persons, property, or to the efficient operation of the agency, recognizable as a gross deviation from the standard of care that a reasonable fire service professional or instructor would observe in a similar circumstance;

(iv) Incompetence: means a demonstrated lack of ability to perform the essential tasks of a fire service professional or instructor that remedial measures have been unable to correct.

(v) Misuse of Authority: Includes abuse of public trust, abuse of authority to obtain a benefit, avoid a detriment, or harm another, and abuse under the color of office.

Discretionary Disqualifying Misconduct as Grounds for Denying or Revoking Certification

(4) Discretionary disqualifying misconduct as Grounds for Denying or Revoking Certification(s) of a Fire Service Professional or Instructor:

(a) The Department may deny or revoke the certification of any fire service professional or instructor, after written notice, and a hearing, if requested, based upon a finding that:

(A) The fire service professional or instructor falsified any information submitted on the application for certification or on any documents submitted to the Board or Department;

(B) The fire service professional or instructor has been convicted of an offense listed in subsection (4)(c), punishable as a crime, other than a mandatory disqualifying crime listed in section (3) of this rule, in this state or any other jurisdiction.

(b) For purposes of this rule, the Department, through the Fire Policy Committee and Board, has defined core values that are integral to the fire service profession. These values are:

(A) Category I: Honesty. Honesty includes straightforwardness of conduct; integrity, adherence to the facts; freedom from subterfuge or duplicity; truthfulness and sincerity.

(B) Category II: Professionalism. Professionalism includes the conduct, aims, or qualities that characterize or mark a profession or a professional person; extreme competence in an occupation or pursuit.

(C) Category III: Justice. Justice includes just treatment, the quality or characteristics of being just, impartial, or fair.

(c) Pursuant to ORS 181.662(3)(b), the Department has determined that, in the absence of a determination to the contrary by the Fire Policy Committee and Board, a Fire Service Professional or Instructor who has been convicted of the following crimes has violated the core values of the fire service profession and may not be fit to receive or hold certification:

Any crime that requires the fire service professional or instructor to register as a sex offender, "Attempt," "Solicitation," or "Conspiracy" to commit a crime listed in ORS 137.700 or in any other jurisdiction that, if committed in this state would constitute an attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit a crime listed in 137.700 (and identified in OAR 259-009-0070(3)). Conviction of felony or Class A misdemeanor "Attempt," "Solicitation" or "Conspiracy" to commit a crime identified in this rule as a discretionary disqualifier.
(d) If a fire service professional or instructor held certification on or before January 15, 2008 and applies for a new certification, the Department will proceed as follows:
(A) No action will be taken on a discretionary conviction that occurred prior to January 15, 2003.
(B) The Department will not initiate revocation proceedings based on a discretionary disqualifying conviction that occurred between January 15, 2003 and January 15, 2008.
(C) The Department may initiate denial of a new certification based on a discretionary disqualifying conviction that occurred between January 15, 2003 and January 15, 2008.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(e) If a fire service professional or instructor held certification on January 15, 2008 and applies for or obtains certification after that date, the Department may initiate denial or revocation of all certifications held based on a discretionary disqualifying conviction that occurred prior to January 15, 2008.

(f) If a fire service professional or instructor is convicted of a discretionary disqualifying crime on or after January 15, 2008, the Department may initiate a denial or revocation of all certification(s) upon learning of the conviction.

Initial Minimum Periods of Ineligibility

(5) Upon determination to proceed with the denial or revocation of a fire service professional's or instructor's certification based on discretionary disqualifying misconduct identified in section (4), the Fire Policy Committee and Board will determine an initial minimum period of ineligibility to apply for certification. The initial minimum period of ineligibility will range from 30 days to 7 (seven) years.

(a) In determining the initial minimum period of ineligibility for discretionary disqualifying misconduct listed in section (4) of this rule, the Fire Policy Committee and the Board will take into consideration any aggravating or mitigating factors subject to the provisions of section (7) of this rule.

(b) A person is not eligible to reapply for training or certification if the person had training or certification denied or revoked for mandatory grounds identified in section (3) of this rule.

(c) The initial minimum period of ineligibility will be included in any Final Order of the Department.

(d) Any subsequent eligibility to apply for certification will be determined by the Board, after a review by the Fire Policy Committee, subject to the provisions of section (9) of this rule.

Procedure for Denial or Revocation of a Certificate

(6) Scope of Revocation. Except as provided in (4) above, when the Department denies or revokes the certification of any fire service professional or instructor under the provisions of OAR 259-009-0070, the revocation will encompass all fire service certificates the Department has issued to that person.

(7) Denial and Revocation Procedure.

(a) Agency Initiated Review: When the entity utilizing a fire service professional or instructor requests that a fire service professional's or instructor's certification be revoked or denied, it must submit in writing to the Department the reason for the requested revocation or denial and all factual information supporting the request.

(b) Department Initiated Review: Upon receipt of factual information from any source, and pursuant to ORS 181.662, the Department may request that the fire service professional's or instructor's certification be revoked or denied.

(c) Department Staff Review: When the Department receives information, from any source, that a fire service professional or instructor may not meet the established standards for Oregon fire service professionals or instructors, the Department will review the request and the supporting factual information to determine if the request for denial or revocation meets statutory and administrative rule requirements.

(A) If the reason for the request does not meet the statutory and administrative rule requirements for denial or revocation the Department will notify the requestor.

(B) If the reason for the request does meet statutory and administrative rule requirements but is not supported by adequate factual information, the Department will request further information from the employer or conduct its own investigation of the matter.

(C) If the Department determines that a fire service professional or instructor may have engaged in discretionary disqualifying misconduct listed in subsection (4), the case may be presented to the Board, through the Fire Policy Committee.

(D) The Department will seek input from the affected fire service professional or instructor, allowing him or her to provide, in writing, information for the Fire Policy Committee and Board's review.

(E) In misconduct cases in which there has been an arbitrator's opinion related to the fire service professional's or instructor's employment, the Department will proceed as follows:

(i) If the arbitrator's opinion finds that underlying facts supported the allegations of misconduct, the department will proceed as identified in paragraphs (A) through (D) of this subsection.

(ii) If the arbitrator has ordered employment reinstatement after a discharge for cause without a finding related to whether the misconduct occurred, the Department will proceed as identified in paragraphs (A) through (D) of this subsection.

(iii) If the arbitrator's opinion finds that underlying facts did not support the allegation(s) of misconduct, the Department will proceed as identified in paragraph (A) of this subsection and administratively close the matter.

(d) Policy Committee and Board Review: In making a decision to authorize initiation of proceedings under subsection (e) of this rule, based on discretionary disqualifying misconduct, the Fire Policy Committee and Board will consider mitigating and aggravating circumstances including, but not limited to the following:

(A) When the misconduct occurred in relation to the fire service professional's or instructor's service as a fire service professional or instructor (i.e., before, during, after);

(B) Whether the fire service professional or instructor served time in prison/jail; and if so, the length of incarceration;

(C) Whether restitution was ordered, and if so, whether the fire service professional or instructor met all obligations;

(D) Whether the fire service professional or instructor has ever been on parole or probation. If so, the date on which the parole or probation period expired or is set to expire;

(E) Whether the fire service professional or instructor has more than one conviction and if so, over what period of time;

(F) Whether the misconduct involved domestic violence;

(G) Whether the fire service professional or instructor self-reported the misconduct;

(H) Whether the conduct involved dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation;

(I) Whether the conduct was prejudicial to the administration of justice;

(J) Whether the conduct adversely reflects on the fitness of the fire service professional or instructor to perform as a fire service professional or instructor;

(K) Whether the conduct makes the fire service professional or instructor otherwise unfit to render effective service because of the agency's or public's loss of confidence that the fire service professional or instructor possesses the core values integral to the fire service profession; and

(L) What the fire service professional's or instructor's physical or emotional condition was at the time of the conduct.

(e) Initiation of Proceedings: Upon determination by the policy committee that the reason for denial or revocation is supported by factual data meeting the statutory and administrative rule requirements, a contested case notice will be prepared and served on the fire service professional or instructor.

(A) All contested case notices will be prepared in accordance with OAR 137-003-0001 of the Attorney General's Model Rules or Procedures adopted under OAR 259-005-0015.

(B) In discretionary cases heard by a policy committee, the contested case notice will be served on the fire service professional or instructor prior to Board review. If the Board disapproves the policy committee's recommendation, the Department will withdraw the Contested Case Notice.

(f) Response Time:

(A) A party who has been served with a "Contested Case Notice of Intent to Deny Certification" has 60 days from the date of mailing or personal service of the notice in which to file with the Department a written request for a hearing.

(B) A party who has been served with a "Contested Case Notice of Intent to Revoke Certification" has 20 days from the date of mailing or personal service of the notice in which to file with the Department a written request for a hearing.

(g) Default Order: If a timely request for a hearing is not received, the Contested Case Notice will become a final order revoking or denying certification pursuant to OAR 137-003-0645.

(h) Hearing Request: When a request for a hearing is received in a timely manner, the Department will refer the matter to the Office of Administrative Hearings in accordance with OAR 137-003-0515.

(i) Proposed Order. The assigned Administrative Law Judge will prepare Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Proposed Final Order and serve a copy on the Department and on each party.

(j) Exceptions and Arguments: A party must file specific written exceptions and arguments with the Department no later than 14 days from date of service of the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Proposed Final Order.

(A) The Department may extend the time within which the exceptions and arguments must be filed upon a showing of good cause.

(B) When the exceptions and arguments are filed, the party making the exceptions and arguments must serve a copy on all parties of record in the case and provide the Department with proof of service. A failure to serve copies and provide proof of service will invalidate the filing of exceptions and arguments as being untimely, and the Department may disregard the filing in making a final determination of the case.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(k) Final Order:

(A) A final order will be issued pursuant to OAR 137-003-0070 if a fire service professional or instructor fails to file exceptions and arguments in a timely manner.

(B) Department-proposed amendments to the proposed order in a case that was originally heard by a policy committee must be considered and approved by the policy committee that originally reviewed the case before a final order is issued.

(l) Stipulated Order Revoking Certification: The Department may enter a stipulated order revoking the certification of a fire service professional or instructor upon the person's voluntary agreement to terminate an administrative proceeding to revoke a certification, or to relinquish a certification under the terms and conditions outlined in the stipulated order.

Appeals, Reapplication, and Eligibility Determinations

(8) Appeal Procedure. A fire service professional or instructor, aggrieved by the findings and Order of the Department may, as provided in ORS 183.480, file an appeal with the Court of Appeals from the final Order of the Department.

(9) Reapplication Process.

(a) Any fire service professional or instructor whose certification has been denied or revoked under section (4) of this rule for discretionary disqualifying misconduct may reapply for certification within the applicable timeframes described in (4) and (5) of this rule.

(b) Any fire service professional or instructor whose certification has been denied or revoked based on discretionary disqualifying misconduct may not reapply for certification until:

(A) The initial minimum period of ineligibility stated in an Order of the Department denying or revoking certification has been satisfied;

(i) If the initial period of ineligibility for the individual was for a period of less than the maximum period identified in section (4) of this rule, and the Board determines that an individual must remain ineligible to apply for certification, then the individual may not reapply for certification under the provisions of this rule until the maximum initial period of ineligibility identified in (5) of this rule has been satisfied.

(ii) If the individual has satisfied the maximum initial period of ineligibility and the Board determines that an individual must remain ineligible to apply for certification, then the individual may not submit any further requests for an eligibility determination, and the original denial or revocation remains permanent.

(B) A written request for an eligibility determination has been submitted to the Department and the Fire Policy Committee has recommended that a fire service professional's or instructor's eligibility to apply for fire service or instructor certification be restored and the Board has upheld the recommendation;

(i) A request for an eligibility determination should include documentation or information that supports the fire service professional's or instructor's request for eligibility to apply for certification.

(ii) In considering a request for an eligibility determination, the Fire Policy Committee and the Board may consider mitigating and aggravating circumstances identified in Section (7)(d) of this rule.

(iii) After reviewing a written request for an eligibility determination, the Board, through the Fire Policy Committee, may determine that the individual's eligibility to apply for certification be restored if the criteria for certification have been met; or determine that the factors that originally resulted in denial or revocation have not been satisfactorily mitigated and the individual must remain ineligible to apply for certification.

(C) The fire service professional or instructor is employed or utilized by a fire service agency; and

(D) All requirements for certification have been met.

Department of Transportation, Driver and Motor Vehicle Services Division Chapter 735

Rule Caption: Collection of Biometric Data for Driver License, Driver Permit or Identification Card.

Adm. Order No.: DMV 6-2011

Filed with Sec. of State: 6-21-2011

Certified to be Effective: 6-21-11

Notice Publication Date: 5-1-2011

Rules Amended: 735-062-0016

Subject: ORS 807.024 requires each person who applies for a driver license, driver permit or identification card to submit to the collection of biometric data. ORS 801.163 defines biometric data as the physical characteristics of a person's face that can be used to authenticate a person's identity. A person submits to the collection of biometric data by having his or her photograph taken. DMV uses facial recognition technology to determine if the person photographed is the same person who was issued previously under that identity and if the person has ever been issued under another identity. The facial recognition technology requires a clear view of the person's iris and pupil of each eye as well as the structure of the face. DMV recently updated this rule to require the removal of eye glasses or face covering, but more recent occurrences in field offices have shown that the rule needs to more clearly state what is not allowed in order to collect the biometric data with the photograph. Therefore DMV has amended the rule to include language that disallows face paint, novelty contact lenses and other products designed to distort a person's appearance.

Requirements for Establishing Identity Under ORS 807.024 and Consequences of Applicant's Failure to Establish Identity

(1) An applicant for an original, renewal or replacement driver license, driver permit or identification card must submit to the collection of biometric data, as provided in ORS 807.024, for the purpose of establishing identity, unless the applicant meets the requirements of OAR 735-062-0120 or 735-062-0125.

(2) To collect biometric data DMV will take a digital photograph of the applicant which must:

(a) Be full-faced;

(b) Clearly show the iris and pupil of each eye; and

(c) Capture the applicant's natural appearance in accordance with the requirements set forth in section (3) of this rule.

(3) To comply with Section (2) of this rule, DMV will require the applicant to:

(a) Remove any eyeglasses;

(b) Remove any contact lens that significantly changes the appearance of the applicant's eye;

(c) Remove any clothing or similar material that partially or completely covers the applicant's face;

(d) Remove any head covering, including a hat or cap, unless the head covering is for medical or religious reasons. A head covering worn for medical or religious reasons must not cover or distort the applicant's face; and

(e) Remove makeup, face paint, jewelry, sticker or other temporary substance that covers or distorts all or part of the face so as to significantly alter the applicant's natural appearance and which DMV determines is likely to affect the biometric measurements of the digital photograph.

(4) Except as provided in OAR 735-062-0120 and 735-062-0125, if an applicant's identity is not established by the biometric data submitted pursuant to subsection (1) of this rule, the applicant must provide documentation or other evidence sufficient to establish the applicant's identity to the satisfaction of DMV. The documents or other evidence may include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following:

(a) Documents listed in OAR 735-062-0020 that provide proof of the applicant's identity and date of birth to the satisfaction of DMV.

(b) The applicant's SSN and proof and verification of the SSN as provided in OAR 735-062-0005.

(c) A letter from a treating physician that identifies the person and states a medical reason for the person's change in appearance.

(d) A document or letter from a law enforcement agency verifying identity.

(e) A court document verifying identity.

(5) Except as provided in OAR 735-062-0120 and 735-062-0125, DMV will not issue a driver license, driver permit or identification card, if the applicant's identity is not established under this rule.

(6) Pursuant to ORS 809.310(3) and OAR 735-070-0004, DMV will suspend an applicant's driving privileges or identification card and the person's right to apply for driving privileges and an identification card, if the person fails to establish his or her identity as required by this rule and the failure to establish identity is the result of the applicant's committing any of the acts identified in ORS 809.310(3)(a) through (h).

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(7) Pursuant to ORS 809.310(1), 807.400(14), and OAR 735-070-0004, DMV will cancel a driver license, driver permit or identification card issued to an applicant who fails to establish his or her identity as required by this rule when applying for the license, permit or identification card.

(8) Pursuant to ORS 809.310(2), 807.400(14), and OAR 735-070-0004, DMV will cancel a driver license, driver permit or identification card issued to an applicant who fails to establish his or her identity as required by this rule when applying for the license, permit or identification card, and the failure to establish identity is the result of the applicant's providing false information to DMV.

(9) If, based on the identification procedures required under section (1) or section (2) of this rule, DMV determines that an applicant has used different names to identify himself or herself in different applications submitted to DMV and the different names are not the result of the applicant's having legally changed his or her name, DMV may take the actions authorized by ORS 809.135.

Rule Caption: Medical Standards, Certificates and Waivers for Drivers of Commercial Motor Vehicles.

Adm. Order No.: DMV 7-2011

Filed with Sec. of State: 6-21-2011

Certified to be Effective: 6-21-11

Notice Publication Date: 5-1-2011

Rules Amended: 735-063-0000, 735-063-0050, 735-063-0060, 735-063-0065, 735-063-0070

Subject: There are federal medical standards that a person must meet to qualify for a commercial driver license (CDL) and to operate a commercial motor vehicle (CMV). The Oregon Department of Transportation, Driver and Motor Vehicle Services Division (DMV) may issue a waiver of physical disqualification to a driver who operates a CMV in Oregon intrastate commerce but does not meet all federal physical qualification standards required for a CDL. Certain drivers employed by for-hire carriers are not required to have a CDL but they are required to have a medical certificate or a waiver of physical disqualification in order to operate a CMV in Oregon. DMV has amended 735-063-0070 to specify that DMV may issue such drivers a waiver of physical disqualification if they qualify.

Other drivers, exempted under certain Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations from physical qualification requirements while operating in interstate commerce, but not exempt from the requirement to have a CDL, are required to have a medical certificate or a waiver of physical disqualification in order to operate a CMV in Oregon. This operation is not limited only to Oregon intrastate commerce and DMV has amended 735-063-0070 to clarify this requirement.

Other amendments were made to correct references to federal regulations or for clarity.

Definitions

As used in this division the following definitions apply:

(1) "Accident/conviction records" are records used to establish when a Waiver of Physical Disqualification issued by DMV may be denied or suspended. Accident records include, but are not limited to DMV records, police reports, crash reports or other reports from motor carriers. A conviction record is an official record showing a determination of guilt by a court of law upon a plea, verdict, finding, or unvacated bail forfeiture.

(2) "CDL" means commercial driver license.

(3) "CMV" means commercial motor vehicle.

(4) "Disqualifying condition" is a medical condition(s) not meeting FMCSA physical qualification standards as set forth in FMCSR Sec. 391.41(b).

(5) "DMV" means the Driver and Motor Vehicle Services Division of the Oregon Department of Transportation.

(6) "FMCSA" means the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration of the United States Department of Transportation.

(7) "FMCSR" means the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations of the U.S. Department of Transportation, CFR Title 49 parts 300 to 399.

(8) "Intrastate commerce" is defined in FMCSR Sec. 390.5 and includes any trade, traffic or transportation exclusively within Oregon.

(9) "Medical Determination Officer" is a physician, nurse practitioner or physician assistant, licensed to provide health care services by the State of Oregon, and employed or designated by DMV to make medical determinations of a driver's medical eligibility for driving privileges.

(10) "Medical Specialist" is a person who is licensed as a doctor of medicine, a doctor of osteopathy, an optometrist or an audiologist.

(11) "Physician" is defined in ORS 807.710.

(12) "SPE certificate" is a Skill Performance Evaluation certificate issued by the FMCSA pursuant to FMCSR Sec. 391.49 to a person who demonstrates the ability to safely operate a CMV in spite of limb impairment or loss.

(13) "Waiver of Physical Disqualification" or "waiver" means a waiver issued by the Oregon Department of Transportation to a driver who does not meet certain physical qualifications required for drivers of commercial motor vehicles as set forth in FMCSR Sec. 391.41(b). A Waiver of Physical Disqualification only authorizes the holder to operate a commercial motor vehicle in intrastate commerce.

Medical Standards for Drivers of Commercial Motor Vehicles

(1) DMV adopts FMCSR sections 391.41 through 391.49 in effect on January 31, 2011 pertaining to physical qualifications and medical examination of drivers of commercial motor vehicles. Except as provided in section (2) of this rule, to qualify for a Class A, B, or C CDL or commercial driver permit a person must obtain an approved medical certificate meeting the requirements of these federal regulations.

(2) DMV may issue a Class A, B, or C CDL or commercial driver permit to a person who does not meet all physical qualifications set forth in FMCSR Sec. 391.41(b) if the person is issued:

(a) A Waiver of Physical Disqualification for the disqualifying condition, under OAR 735-063-0070;

(b) An exemption for the disqualifying condition by the FMCSA pursuant to 49 USC sections 31136 and 31135, and FMCSR sections 381.300 to 381.330; or

(c) An SPE certificate for the disqualifying condition issued by the FMCSA pursuant to FMCSR Sec. 391.49.

(3) DMV will issue a restricted Class A, B or C CDL or commercial driver permit if the waiver, exemption or SPE certificate described in section (2) of this rule indicate any applicable restrictions, conditions or limitations for issuance of a commercial license.

(4) DMV will suspend a Class A, B or C CDL or commercial driver permit if a Waiver of Physical Disqualification is denied, not renewed or is revoked for any reason or for any length of time.

(5) DMV will suspend a Class A, B or C CDL or commercial driver permit if notified that FMCSA has revoked or not renewed the SPE certificate issued to the driver under the provisions of FMCSR Sec. 391.49.

(6) DMV will suspend a Class A, B or C CDL or commercial driver permit if notified that FMCSA has revoked or not renewed an exemption to physical qualifications issued to a driver under the provisions of 49 U.S.C. sections 31135 and 31136(e) and FMCSR sections 381.300 to 381.330.

(7) DMV will suspend a Class A, B, or C CDL or commercial driver permit if notified by the Medical Determination Officer that the driver no longer meets the physical qualifications outlined in FMCSR Sec. 391.41(b).

(8) A person suspended under section (4), (5), or (6) of this rule may reinstate commercial driving privileges if the person obtains a medical certificate as described in section (1) of this rule or is reissued a waiver by DMV or an exemption or SPE certificate by FMCSA as described in section (2) of this rule.

(9) A person suspended under section (7) of this rule may reinstate commercial driving privileges if the person is determined by the Medical Determination Officer to meet the physical qualifications for a Class A, B or C CDL or commercial driver permit.

Approved Medical Certificates

(1) DMV approves the following as medical certificates for use when driving a CMV within Oregon:

(a) Any medical certificate that complies with FMCSR sections 391.41 through 391.49. The medical certificate must state that in accordance with these federal regulations the person is qualified; or

(b) An Oregon School Bus Driver's Certificate or Oregon School Bus Driver's Permit, issued by the Oregon Department of Education, as provided in OAR 581-053-0006.

(2) If indicated on the certificate, the medical certificate described in section (1) of this rule must also be accompanied by a current:

(a) Waiver of Physical Disqualification issued by DMV;

(b) SPE certificate issued by the FMCSA; or

(c) Exemption issued by the FMCSA.

(3) The medical certificate must not be expired.

Medical Certificate Procedures

(1) DMV will issue a Class A, B, or C CDL or commercial driver permit only to applicants who present an approved medical certificate as described in OAR 735-063-0060 and, if required, a Waiver of Physical Disqualification, an exemption or SPE certificate when applying for an original or renewal of a Class A, B, or C CDL or commercial driver permit.

(2) An applicant for a Class A, B, or C CDL or commercial driver permit used in interstate commerce must also certify on the application or renewal form that he or she meets all of the driver qualification requirements as required by FMCSR sections 383.71(a) and 383.71(c)(1).

(3) DMV may issue a Class C non-commercial driver license to a person who applies for the renewal of a Class A, B, or C CDL if the person does not present an approved medical certificate as required or fails to certify he or she meets the driver qualification requirements as required in subsections (1) and (2) of this rule.

(4) A driver who needs to replace a medical certificate because it is lost, mutilated, or destroyed may obtain a duplicate from the same source from which they obtained the original medical certificate.

(5) DMV is not responsible for any expenses an applicant may incur from the acquisition of an approved medical certificate or duplicate medical certificate.

Waiver of Physical Disqualification

(1) This rule is applicable to holders of or applicants for a CDL, CDL permit or Class C non-commercial license issued by DMV, who intend to operate a CMV only in Oregon intrastate commerce or are exempt from the physical qualification requirements in FMCSR sections 391.41 and 391.43 under FMCSR sections 390.3(f), 391.2, 391.68 or 398.3 but must have an approved medical certificate under ORS 807.100. For purposes of this rule, CMV means a commercial motor vehicle as defined in FMCSR Sec. 390.5 and includes a driver employed (or applying for employment) to operate a CMV by a for-hire carrier as defined in ORS 825.005.

(2) DMV may issue or renew a Waiver of Physical Disqualification if the person is otherwise disqualified from operating a CMV under FMCSR Sec. 391.41(b) because of one or more of the following disqualifying conditions:

(a) Loss or impairment of limb;

(b) Diabetes;

(c) Seizure disorder;

(d) Impaired vision; or

(e) Hearing loss.

(3) Except as provided in Sections (2) and (13) of this rule, DMV will not issue or renew a Waiver of Physical Disqualification to a person who does not meet the physical qualification standards set forth in FMCSR Sec. 391.41(b).

(4) To apply for a Waiver of Physical Disqualification, an applicant must do the following:

(a) Submit a completed waiver application form and:

(A) A current FMCSA medical examination report completed by a licensed physician, chiropractic physician, physician assistant or nurse practitioner. The report must show that notwithstanding the disqualifying condition, the applicant meets all other physical qualification standards as set forth in FMCSR Sec. 391.41(b);

(B) Current medical information regarding the disqualifying condition from a treating medical specialist specializing in the assessment and treatment of the type of disqualifying condition for which the applicant is requesting a waiver; and

(C) If requested by DMV, a copy of the applicant's out-of-state driver record(s) if the applicant has held a driver license in another jurisdiction during the three year period preceding the date of application.

(b) Provide additional information showing that the disqualifying condition does not impair the person's ability to safely operate a CMV in intrastate commerce, if requested by DMV.

(5) The Medical Determination Officer will review an application for an original waiver or for renewal of a waiver and make a recommendation to DMV whether to approve or deny the waiver.

(a) The Medical Determination Officer review will be conducted using medical waiver guidelines. These are criteria maintained by the Medical Determination Officer and available from DMV.

(b) The Medical Determination Officer may request additional information from DMV or the applicant before making a recommendation.

(6) Records relating to an applicant or the holder of a current waiver may be reviewed at any time by DMV to determine if the person is or remains qualified to hold the waiver and is complying with the restrictions and conditions of the waiver. The review may include a recommendation from the Medical Determination Officer. DMV may use the information from these records or a recommendation from the Medical Determination Officer as a basis for denial of a waiver or for revocation of an existing waiver as specified in OAR 735-063-0075(4). Records include but are not limited to:

(a) Driving record;

(b) Accident/conviction record; and

(c) Medical records.

(7) If DMV has reason to believe the holder of a Waiver of Physical Disqualification is no longer qualified for the waiver, DMV:

(a) May immediately revoke the waiver as specified in OAR 735-063-0075;

(b) May request in writing that the holder submit any information requested by DMV in order for DMV to determine if the holder remains eligible for the waiver. The holder must submit any requested information to DMV within 60 days of the date the written request is mailed. Failure to submit the requested information will result in revocation of the waiver as set forth in OAR 735-063-0075(3). DMV may grant an additional 30 days if:

(A) The person is seriously ill or injured and a physician requests an extension in writing;

(B) The person is temporarily out of state and a written request is received from the person; or

(C) The person can show that the information was requested from another party within the 60 day time period and the delay in submitting the information was caused by the other party.

(8) To be eligible for a Waiver of Physical Disqualification, a driver must:

(a) Qualify for commercial driving privileges, have a valid Oregon CDL or commercial driver permit, or be an Oregon licensed driver employed (or applying for employment) by a for-hire carrier to operate a CMV only in Oregon intrastate commerce;

(b) Not have driving privileges suspended, revoked, cancelled or withdrawn in Oregon or any other jurisdiction;

(c) Not have a Waiver of Physical Disqualification that is currently denied or revoked as specified in OAR 735-063-0075(1) or 735-063-0075(4);

(d) Apply for the Waiver of Physical Disqualification as explained in section (4) of this rule; and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(e) Receive a recommendation for waiver approval from the Medical Determination Officer.

(9) Any driver issued a waiver must comply with the following conditions:

(a) Notify DMV within 10 days of any change in the driver's physical condition or any other condition pertaining to the need for the waiver, modification of the waiver or revocation of the waiver;

(b) Notify DMV of all crashes, arrests or convictions involving the use of a motor vehicle within 30 days of the crash or within 10 days of the arrest or conviction;

(c) Notify DMV within 10 days of any suspension, cancellation, revocation or withdrawal of driving privileges in a jurisdiction other than Oregon;

(d) Notify DMV within 10 days of changing employers and provide the employer with a copy of the waiver;

(e) Carry a copy of the medical waiver and any listed waiver conditions at all times while operating a CMV and make the waiver and waiver conditions available to enforcement personnel upon request;

(f) Only operate a CMV in Oregon intrastate commerce. This subsection does not apply to a driver who is exempt from the physical qualification requirements in FMCSR sections 391.41 and 391.43 under FMCSR sections 390.3(f), 391.2, 391.68 or 398.3, but must have an approved medical certificate under ORS 807.100; and

(g) Comply with all waiver conditions related to the disqualifying condition as noted on the Waiver of Physical Disqualification.

(10) The Oregon CDL or commercial driver permit of a waiver holder must have a "K" restriction limiting the driver to operating a CMV in intrastate commerce.

(a) DMV will notify waiver holders in writing of the requirement to have a CDL or commercial driver permit with a "K" restriction.

(b) Failure of the driver to add the "K" restriction within 60 days of the date of written notification will result in cancellation of the commercial driver license in accordance with ORS 807.010(1) and ORS 809.310(1). DMV is not responsible for any expenses a waiver holder may incur from the acquisition of a replacement license with the "K" restriction.

(11) The waiver is valid for a period not to exceed the expiration date of the driver's medical certificate.

(12) Incomplete waiver applications are invalid after 180 days and DMV will take no action to deny or approve the application. After this period, the person must reapply for a waiver in accordance with all of the requirements of this rule.

(13) DMV will renew a Waiver of Physical Disqualification issued for a sleep disorder or cardiac condition if the waiver was in effect on August 10, 2009 and all other requirements set forth in section (8) of this rule are met.

Subject: A person whose driving privileges are suspended under the At-Risk Driver Program may wish to take driving lessons prior to taking a DMV drive test. DMV may issue either a restricted license or restricted applicant temporary permit for the express purpose of taking driving lessons. DMV may issue a restricted license (under OAR 735-074-0210 or 735-076-0050) pursuant to ORS 807.120 when the person has driving privileges that are suspended. DMV may issue a restricted applicant temporary permit (under OAR 735-074-0212 or 735-076-0052) pursuant to ORS 807.310 when the person does not have driving privileges to restrict. The person's driving privileges may have expired, been surrendered, cancelled under OAR 735-062-0073 Denial of Further Testing, or the person may never have been granted Oregon driving privileges.

DMV amended OAR 735-074-0210(2) and 735-076-0050(2) to remove the requirement that all applicants provide documentation from a medical provider or rehabilitation specialist before a restricted license or permit will be issued and to remove the requirement that a person who completes driving lessons must prove they should be allowed to take a DMV drive test. It is only when a person is denied a drive test under OAR 735-062-0073 that the person must provide such proof.

DMV amended OAR 735-074-0212 and 735-076-0052 to clarify when a person whose right to apply for driving privileges has been suspended and is eligible for a restricted applicant temporary permit and the requirements for issuance. These rule amendments also clarify that the suspension will be rescinded for 60 days but will be re-imposed without further notice or hearing if the person does not pass a drive test within that time period or is not otherwise eligible for driving privileges when the permit expires.

Restricted Licenses

(1) DMV may issue a restricted license to a person who passes the required tests when DMV determines a restriction on the license is necessary to insure the safe operation of a motor vehicle by the person. These restrictions may include but are not limited to the following:

(a) Daylight driving only;

(b) Driving only on a certain, restricted route;

(c) Driving only during certain hours of the day; or

(d) Driving only with certain vehicle equipment or adaptive devices.

(2) A person whose driving privileges are suspended under division 74 rules, who is otherwise eligible for driving privileges, may obtain a 60-day restricted license for the express purpose of taking driving lessons. The suspension will be rescinded for the 60-day period the restricted license is valid. Driving lessons must be provided by a commercial driving instructor, a rehabilitation specialist or other licensed driver approved by DMV as an instructor. The restricted license will only allow the person to drive with an instructor during instruction. No other driving, under any circumstances, will be allowed by the restricted license. All the following must occur before DMV will issue a restricted license under this section:

(a) If required by DMV, the person must receive a determination of medical eligibility from the Medical Determination Officer;

(b) The person must pass a DMV vision screening or submit a Certificate of Vision showing that the person's vision meets DMV standards; and

(c) The person must pass a DMV knowledge test.

(3) A restricted license issued under section (2) of this rule will include a notification that at the end of the 60-day period the suspension will be re-imposed without further notice and without the opportunity for a contested case hearing if the person has not successfully passed a driving test given by a DMV employee.

(4) If, at the end of the 60-day restricted license period under section (2) of this rule, the person has not successfully completed a driving test given by a DMV employee, DMV will re-impose the suspension of the person's driving privileges and right to apply for driving privileges. When a suspension is re-imposed under this section, DMV is not required to provide the person with further notice or an opportunity for a contested case hearing.

Restricted Applicant Temporary Permit

(1) When a person does not have Oregon driving privileges and his or her right to apply for driving privileges is suspended under OAR division 74, DMV may issue a 60-day restricted applicant temporary permit that allows the person to take driving lessons. An applicant for a permit under this section must meet all eligibility requirements listed in section (5) of this rule. The suspension will be rescinded for the 60-day period the restricted applicant temporary permit is valid. If, at the end of the 60-day restricted permit period, the person has not successfully completed a driving test given by a DMV employee, or is not otherwise eligible for driving privileges, DMV will re-impose the suspension of the person's right to apply for driving privileges. When a suspension is re-imposed under this section, DMV is not required to provide the person with further notice or an opportunity for a contested case hearing.

(2) If a person's driving privileges are cancelled and the driver is denied further testing under OAR 735-062-0073, the person may apply for a 60-day restricted applicant temporary permit for the express purpose of taking driving lessons if DMV determines that with driving lessons the person may learn to safely operate a motor vehicle. An applicant for a permit under this section must, in addition to meeting all eligibility requirements listed in section (5) of this rule, provide sufficient information to show that there is a reasonable likelihood that driving lessons will improve the person's ability to safely operate a motor vehicle. Such information may include, but is not limited to:

- (a) Medical information;
- (b) Information from a rehabilitation specialist that the person may benefit from lessons to learn to use an adaptive device or technique; or
- (c) An affidavit from a person(s) with information to show that with driving lessons the applicant is likely to learn to safely operate a motor vehicle.

(3) Driving lessons must be provided by a certified commercial driving instructor, rehabilitation specialist or other licensed driver approved by DMV as an instructor.

(4) A restricted applicant temporary permit only allows the person to drive with an instructor during driving lessons and at no other time.

(5) To be eligible for a restricted applicant temporary permit under section (1) and (2) of this rule, the person must:

- (a) If required by DMV, receive a determination of medical eligibility from the Medical Determination Officer;
- (b) Apply for driving privileges, and specifically request a restricted license or permit for the purpose of taking driving lessons prior to taking a drive test;

(c) Pass a DMV vision screening or submit a Certificate of Vision showing that the person's vision meets DMV standards; and

(d) Pass a DMV knowledge test.

(6) A restricted permit issued under section (1) of this rule will include a notification that at the end of the 60-day period the suspension will be re-imposed without further notice and without the opportunity for a contested case hearing if the person has not successfully passed a driving test given by a DMV employee or is not otherwise eligible for driving privileges.

(7) A restricted permit issued under section (2) of this rule will include a notification that at the end of the 60-day period the permit expires and the person no longer has driving privileges until he or she has successfully passed a DMV driving test and is eligible for driving privileges.

Restricted Applicant Temporary Permit

(1) When a person does not have Oregon driving privileges and his or her right to apply for driving privileges is suspended under OAR division 76, DMV may issue a 60-day restricted applicant temporary permit that allows the person to take driving lessons. An applicant for a permit under this section must meet all eligibility requirements listed in section (5) of this rule. The suspension will be rescinded for the 60-day period the restricted applicant temporary permit is valid. If, at the end of the 60-day restricted permit period, the person has not successfully completed a driving test given by a DMV employee or is not otherwise eligible for driving privileges, DMV will re-impose the suspension of the person's right to apply for driving privileges. When a suspension is re-imposed under this section, DMV is not required to provide the person with further notice or an opportunity for a contested case hearing.

(2) If a person's driving privileges are cancelled and the driver is denied further testing under OAR 735-062-0073, the person may apply for a 60-day restricted applicant temporary permit for the express purpose of taking driving lessons if DMV determines that with driving lessons the person may learn to safely operate a motor vehicle. An applicant for a permit under this section must, in addition to meeting all eligibility requirements listed in section (5) of this rule, provide sufficient information to show that there is a reasonable likelihood that driving lessons will improve the person's ability to safely operate a motor vehicle. Such information may include, but is not limited to:

(a) Medical information;

(b) Information from a rehabilitation specialist that the person may benefit from lessons to learn to use an adaptive device or technique; or

(c) An affidavit from a person(s) with information to show that with driving lessons the applicant is likely to learn to safely operate a motor vehicle.

(3) Driving lessons must be provided by a certified commercial driving instructor, rehabilitation specialist or other licensed driver approved by DMV as an instructor.

(4) A restricted applicant temporary permit only allows the person to drive with an instructor during driving lessons and at no other time.

(5) To be eligible for a restricted applicant temporary permit under sections (1) and (2) of this rule, the person must:

(a) If required by DMV, receive a determination of medical eligibility from the Medical Determination Officer;

(b) Apply for driving privileges, and specifically request a restricted permit for the purpose of taking driving lessons prior to taking a drive test;

(c) Pass a DMV vision screening or submit a Certificate of Vision showing that the person's vision meets DMV standards; and

(d) Pass a DMV knowledge test.

(6) A restricted permit issued under section (1) of this rule will include a notification that at the end of the 60-day period the suspension will be re-imposed without further notice and without the opportunity for a contested case hearing if the person has not successfully passed a driving test given by a DMV employee or is not otherwise eligible for driving privileges.

(7) A restricted permit issued under section (2) of this rule will include a notification that at the end of the 60-day period the permit expires and the person no longer has driving privileges until he or she has successfully passed a DMV driving test given by a DMV employee and is otherwise eligible for driving privileges.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Department of Transportation, Highway Division Chapter 734

Rule Caption: Maximum allowed tow length for mobile homes traveling on U.S. Route 95.

Adm. Order No.: HWD 6-2011

Filed with Sec. of State: 6-21-2011

Certified to be Effective: 6-21-11

Notice Publication Date: 5-1-2011

Rules Amended: 734-075-0010

Subject: A petition for rulemaking was received from the Oregon Manufactured Housing Association, requesting a revision to 734-075-0010 to make permanent allowance of mobile homes up to 80 feet in length when traveling between Idaho and Nevada on US Route 95. The rule previously limited mobile home length to 75 feet. During a temporary allowance, towed 80-foot long mobile homes traveling on U.S. Route 95 were observed in order to evaluate safety issues and road damage. There were no safety problems reported and the highway was not adversely affected by the movement of the 80-foot long mobile homes. OMHA stated that the ability to use US Route 95 to travel between Idaho and Nevada saved the carrier approximately 200 miles of out-of-route travel per trip, along with fuel and other associated cost savings.

Vehicle Combinations and Maximum Size Limitations

This rule establishes the maximum number of vehicles in combination and size of vehicles allowed when moving an over-dimensional unit:

(1) The combination must not exceed two vehicles, the towing vehicle and the unit being transported.

(2) The maximum lengths are as follows:

(a) The maximum overall length of the combination must:

(A) Not exceed 85 feet on State highways;

(B) Not exceed 95 feet on Group 1 highways; and

(C) Not exceed 110 feet on Interstate highways, multilane highways or highways approved for the longer length as authorized by a single trip permit or as authorized by written order of the Chief Engineer.

(b) The mobile home being towed must not exceed 75 feet, including the tongue, except as provided in subsection (c) or OAR 734-075-0011.

(c) The mobile home may be up to 80 feet in length, including the tongue, when the unit will be transported through Oregon on US-95.

(3) The maximum widths are as follows:

(a) Units must not exceed 14 feet overall width, unless a single trip permit or a limited duration permit is issued;

(b) Units transported under a single trip permit or limited duration permit are subject to the following:

(A) The unit must not exceed 16 feet at the base except as described in subsection (e);

(B) The overall width must not, except as described in subsection (e), exceed 18 feet.

(c) Except as prohibited by paragraph (b)(B) of this section, a unit may have an eave, provided the eave does not extend beyond either side by:

(A) More than 30 inches for units with a base width of less than 16 feet; or

(B) More than 16 inches for units with a base width of 16 feet or more.

(d) External appurtenances such as doorknobs, window fasteners, eave cap, clearance lights and load securement devices may exceed the width of the unit by a distance not greater than two inches on each side;

(e) A unit that exceeds 16 feet wide at the base may be allowed if the Administrator of MCTD determines that the public interest requires the impending movement, and the movement can be performed safely.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (5), the maximum height for the combination, while in transit, must not exceed 14 feet unless proper route clearance has been obtained and is so indicated on the single trip permit.

(5) A continuous trip permit may be issued for a combination height up to 14 feet six inches over specifically authorized routes.

Subject: This amendment provides an exception to allow an over-dimensional permit to authorize modular building trailers in lengths up to 75 feet that are fixed in length to be used for unladen (empty) return trips. The industry has modified trailers that are fixed in length to transport modular buildings units. The rule change is necessary to accommodate modified trailers needed to transport increasingly larger modular buildings.

734-075-0025

Hauling Vehicles for Modular Building Units

The following requirements apply to vehicles hauling modular building units:

(1) Modular Building Units must be hauled with a truck-tractor and semitrailer or trailer combination.

(2) Equipment weights of the combination and the sizes and ratings of all its components must be comparable to those commonly used by the motor carrier industry in general over-the-road trucking operations.

(3) When operating unladen, the overall length of the combination must not exceed the length authorized by statute or rule, except as authorized in the permit.

(4) Modifications are permitted to the conventional equipment necessary for hauling modular building units. This may include "stretch-trailer" features, adjustable trailer heights from inflatable air bags, steering capabilities for the semitrailer axles or other modifications. These features must be stipulated in the permit.

(5) Requests for moves using trailers more than 53 feet in length will be on an individual basis, and permits will be issued for a single trip only. The authorized trailer length must be stipulated in the permit and must not exceed 75 feet in length, except when using a stretch trailer. When not operating under the terms of a permit issued under this rule a stretch trailer must be reduced to dimensions authorized by statute or rule.

(6) The modular building unit must be securely fastened to the semitrailer or trailer. It may be secured by steel cables and winch tighteners, steel cables or chains and chain binders, or by adequate bolting directly to the semitrailer or trailer frame. Alternate securing methods approved by the United States Department of Transportation regulations may be used.

Rules Amended: 734-082-0025

Subject: The amended rule specifies the Department of Transportation Bridge Section as the responsible group for providing accurate vertical clearance measurements under all structures. Department policy for vertical clearance is to provide a 4-inch buffer zone between the structure and the load for cautionary purposes. In addition, the amendment allows the Chief Engineer to authorize the Administrator of the Motor Carrier Transportation Division to approve routes and issue permits for loads that encroach on the prescribed 4-inch buffer on a case by case exception basis taking into account the measurements provided by the Bridge Section. The amended rule assigns responsibility to the MCTD Administrator to research and approve over-height permits for the rare cases where the load will encroach on the 4-inch buffer and an alternative route is either not desirable or readily available.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Rules Coordinator: Lauri Kunze—(503) 986-3171

734-082-0025

Height

(1) Permits are required for all vehicles or combinations of vehicles, including any load, which exceeds 14 feet in height. Unless specifically stated on the permit as authorized by ORS Chapter 818 or rule, over height permits will not be valid for loads or items placed or stacked one on top of another or overlapping.

(2) The height of a permitted load is measured from the ground to the highest point as it is ready for transport on the highway.

(3) Vertical clearance through or under structures for over height permitted loads is allowed to be up to, but within no more than four inches of the lowest determined physical clearance for each traffic lane of each structure. Over height loads are routed under or around structures according to this maximum buffered vertical clearance.

(4) The Department of Transportation Bridge Engineering Section is responsible for obtaining and maintaining accurate vertical clearance measurements under all Oregon highway structures.

(5) The Chief Engineer authorizes the Administrator of the Motor Carrier Transportation Division to approve a route and issue a permit resulting in maintaining less than a four inch buffer distance between the load and the structure on a case by case basis only after reviewing vertical clearance measurements and determining issuance of the permit is reasonable. Permits issued under this subsection will be valid only for the single specific movement requested and approved unless otherwise authorized by the Administrator. Permits issued under such conditions may require coordination and monitoring by Department of Transportation staff as designated.

Rules Amended: 471-030-0053

Subject: Senate Bill 725 allows for benefits overpaid under ORS 657.315 to be waived if recovery is “against equity and good conscience”. The rule change defines “against equity and good conscience” by taking into account the individual’s financial ability to repay the overpaid benefits.

The proposed change makes additional plain language and consistency updates. It removes the definition of ‘Recovery’ which is defined in statute. It also replaces in the text of the rule the Manager of Benefits with the Director as the one who authorizes employees to waive overpayments under ORS 657.317. This change is consistent with other rules in this chapter.

471-030-0053

Waiver of Overpayments

(1) Purpose: This rule establishes policy to be used when waiving overpayments pursuant to ORS 657.317.

(2) Definitions: For purposes of ORS 657.317:

(a) “Establishment” means the issuance of an administrative decision which would result in an overpayment under ORS 657.310 or ORS 657.315.

(b) “Amount of the overpayment” means the accumulated amount of potentially overpaid benefits in a single benefit year resulting from the application of ORS 657.150(6) and/or ORS 657.150(7).

(c) “Against equity and good conscience” means that recovery of the overpaid benefits would cause a financial hardship on the individual.

(3) In applying ORS 657.317(2):

(a) An authorized representative of the Employment Department shall determine that a financial hardship exists when the total household expenses equal or exceed 90% of the total household income less unemployment benefits.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3)(a) of this section, if an individual is paid twice for the same week(s), only the amount in excess of the final entitlement is eligible to be waived.

(4) In applying ORS 657.317(4):

(a) No waiver shall be granted if the overpayment is a result of willful misrepresentation or fraud as established in ORS 657.215.

(b) No waiver shall be granted if the overpayment results from a decision which has been issued and become final under Chapter 657.

(c) No waiver shall be granted if the overpayment results from the negotiation of an original and a replacement check which were issued for the same period pursuant to OAR 471-030-0049.

(5) The determination to waive overpayments in accordance with the provisions of ORS 657.317 and this rule shall be made by employees authorized by the Director.

Request for Hearing

(1) A Request for hearing may be filed on forms provided by the Employment Department or similar offices in other states. Use of the form is not required provided the party specifically requests a hearing or otherwise expresses a present intent to appeal.

(2) A request for hearing on an administrative decision related to the payment or amount of unemployment insurance benefits may be filed:

(a) By mail, by fax or by telephone with any Employment Department Unemployment Insurance (UI) Center or UI Section in Oregon; or

(b) In person at any publicly accessible Employment Department office in Oregon; or

(c) By mail or fax with the Office of Administrative Hearings in Oregon.

(3) A request for hearing on an administrative decision related to unemployment insurance taxes pursuant to ORS 657.683, 657.663, 657.485, and 657.457, must be in writing and may be filed:

(a) By mail or by fax with any Employment Department UI Center or UI Tax Section office in Oregon; or

(b) In person at any publicly accessible Employment Department office in Oregon.

(c) By e-mail to the Employment Department’s e-mail address as provided on the appealable document.

(d) Through the use of the Employment Department’s secured website as provided on the appealable document.

(4) The filing date for any request for hearing shall be determined as follows:

(a) When delivered in person to any Employment Department office in the state of Oregon, the date of delivery, as evidenced by the receipt date stamped or written by the agency employee who receives the document, shall be the date of filing.

(b) When filed by mail, the date of filing shall be the postmarked date affixed by the United States Postal Service or, in the absence of a post-marked date, the most probable date of mailing.

(c) When filed by fax, the date of filing shall be the encoded date on the fax document unless such date is absent, illegible, or improbable, in which case the fax receipt date stamped or written by the agency employee, if available, shall be the date of filing. If a filing date cannot otherwise be determined, the most probable date of faxing shall be the date of filing.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(d) When filed by telephone, the date of filing shall be the date marked or stamped by the agency employee accepting the request for hearing.

(e) When filed by e-mail, the date of filing shall be the date of delivery, as evidenced by the receipt date on the Employment Department's e-mail system, according to Pacific Time.

(f) When filed through the secured website, the date of filing shall be the date indicated in the confirmation e-mail sent to the requestor by the Employment Department, according to Pacific Time.

(g) When filed by any other means, the date of filing shall be the date of delivery, as evidenced by the receipt date stamped or written by the employee of the Employment Department, Office of Administrative Hearings or Employment Appeals Board who receives the document.

(5) A request for hearing with respect to a claim for benefits shall not stay the payment of any benefits not placed in issue by the request for hearing, nor shall it stay an order previously entered allowing benefits.

(6) This rule is effective for all hearing requests filed after the effective date of this rule.

Filing an Unfair Labor Practice Complaint

(1) Who may file. An injured party may file a complaint alleging that a person(s) has engaged in or is engaging in an unfair labor practice as defined in ORS 243.672. Such complaint shall be filed in triplicate with the Board on forms approved by the Board.

(2) Contents of Complaint. The complaint shall contain the following information:

(a) The name and address of the person(s) making the complaint (referred to in these rules as complainant);

(b) The name and address of the person(s) against whom the complaint is made (referred to in these rules as respondent);

(c) A clear and concise statement of the facts constituting each alleged violation followed by the specific section and subsection of the law allegedly violated. Such statements shall include the names of persons committing specific complained of acts and the dates when such acts allegedly occurred; and

(d) The signature of the person filing the complaint.

(3) Supporting Data. At the time the complaint is filed, the complainant shall submit a written statement setting forth its version of the relevant facts, including names, dates, and places together with any documentary evidence which may be relevant to the issues raised by the complaint.

(4) Filing fee. A filing fee of $300 must be paid at the time the complaint is filed. Complaints that are filed without a filing fee are subject to dismissal for that reason.

(1) Answer. The respondent shall have 14 days from date of service of the complaint in which to file an answer. All allegations in the complaint not denied by the answer, unless the respondent states in the answer that it is without knowledge, shall be deemed to be admitted to be true and shall be so found by the Board, unless good cause to the contrary is shown. Complainant shall be required to establish a prima facie case. The answer will be deemed sufficient if it generally denies all allegations of the complaint. Respondent shall specifically admit by way of answer any undisputed allegations and set forth any affirmative defenses.

(2) Service of Answer. Upon filing an answer, the respondent shall serve a copy upon the complainant or its representative of record. Proof of such service, setting forth the time and manner thereof, shall be filed with the answer.

(3) Failure to File. If the respondent fails to file a timely answer, absent a showing of good cause, it will not be allowed to present evidence at the hearing, and will be restricted to making legal arguments.

(4) Filing Fee. A filing fee of $300 must be paid by the respondent when the answer is filed. The answer will not be considered to be filed until the fee is paid.

Motions; Intervention

(1) Motions. All motions, including motions for intervention, shall be typewritten or, if made at the hearing, may be stated orally on the record and shall briefly state the order or relief sought and the grounds for such motion. Written motions shall be filed with the Board agent, together with proof of service of a copy thereof upon the other parties.

(2) Motions to Intervene. Any person desiring to intervene in any proceeding shall make a motion for intervention no later than seven days before the date set for hearing, stating the grounds upon which such person claims to have an interest in the proceeding. The Board agent may permit intervention to such extent and upon such terms as he/she may deem proper.

(3) Filing Fee. A filing fee of $300 must be paid by the intervenor when the motion for intervention is filed. The motion will not be considered to be filed until the fee is paid.

Conciliation Service Fees

(1) Interest Mediation: When mediation concerns negotiations over the terms of a collective bargaining agreement, the board will charge a fee for mediation services. The local public employer and the exclusive representative shall each pay one-half of the amount of the fee to the board. The fee charged by the board may not exceed:

(a) $1,000 for the first two mediation sessions ($500 per party);

(b) $500 for the third mediation session ($250 per party);

(c) $750 for the fourth mediation session ($375 per party); and

(d) $1,000 for each additional mediation session ($500 per party).

(2) Grievance Mediation: When mediation concerns a grievance arising under a collective bargaining agreement, a local public employer and an exclusive representative each will be charged $250.

(3) Unfair Labor Practice Mediation: When mediation concerns a pending unfair labor practice complaint, a local public employer and an exclusive representative each will be charged $250.

(4) Interest-Based Training: The Conciliation Service shall offer training in interest-based bargaining, labor/management cooperation, problem solving and similar programs specifically designed for particular local public employer/exclusive representative needs. Fees for such training shall be $2,500 for two-day training programs, $1,500 for one-day refresher training, and $700 for half-day training programs. The fees for facilitations and related travel time shall be $60 per hour.

(5) Billing: For mediation services, parties will be billed when the first mediation session occurs. For training, parties will be billed when the training session occurs, with the employer and exclusive representative sharing equally the costs unless the parties agree otherwise.

(6) Definitions: "Local public employer" means any political subdivision in this state, including a city, county, community college, school district, special district, mass transit district, metropolitan service district, public service corporation or municipal corporation and a public and quasi-public corporation. "Exclusive representative" has the meaning given that term in ORS 243.650(8).

Filing an Unfair Labor Practice Charge

(1) Who May File. An injured party may file a charge alleging that a person(s) has engaged in or is engaging in an unfair labor practice. Such charge shall be filed in triplicate with the Board on forms provided by the Board.

(2) Content of Charge. The charge shall contain the following information:

(a) The name and address of the person making the charge;

(b) The name and address of the person(s) against whom the charge is made;

(c) A description of the nature of the business involved;

(d) A clear and concise statement of the facts constituting each alleged violation followed by the specific section and subsection of the law allegedly violated. Such statements shall include the names of persons committing specific complained of acts and the dates when such acts allegedly occurred; and

(e) The signature of the person filing the charge.

(3) Supporting Data. At the time the charge is filed, the charging party shall submit a written statement setting forth its version of the relevant facts, including names, dates, and places, together with any documentary evidence which may be relevant to the issues raised by the charge.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(4) Service of Charge. Concurrent with the filing of the charge, the filing party shall serve a copy of the charge upon the person against whom the charge is made and certify such service to the Board.

(5) Filing fee. A filing fee of $300 must be paid at the time the charge is filed. Charges that are filed without a filing fee are subject to dismissal for that reason.

In order to qualify for CEH credit under these rules, a CEH program must be a formal program or board approved program of learning that contributes directly to the professional competence of the licensee

(1) Eligible Programs and Activities. The following programs will qualify for CEH credit provided they also meet the requirements of section (2) through (5) of this rule:

(a) Programs presented by national, state or local landscape industry organizations.

(b) Programs offered by a firm to licensees.

(c) Programs sponsored by organizations that provide professional educational programs.

(d) Correspondence courses or other individual independent study programs and activities do not qualify for CEH credit unless both the CEH sponsor and the specific CEH program or activity are approved by the Board prior to the offering of, presentation of, attendance of, or participation in the program or activity.

(e) Volunteering activities for industry related boards, commissions, and designated committees.

(f) Making presentations or teaching courses related to approved subjects for the CEH credit.

(2) Sponsored Program and Activity requirements. Sponsored CEH programs must meet the following requirements to qualify for CEH credit:

(a) An outline of the program is prepared in advance and preserved;

(b) The program must cover at least one of the topic areas listed in 808-040-0040;

(c) The program is at least one hour (fifty-minute period) in length;

(d) A record of attendance is maintained by the provider;

(e) The program is conducted by a qualified instructor or presenter whose background, training, education or experience qualifies the person to teach or lead a discussion on the subject matter of the particular program.

(f) Evidence of completion is provided to participating licensees in the form of a certificate that must include:

(A) Name of sponsoring institution, association or organization;

(B) Title of the presentation;

(C) Name of instructor or presenter;

(D) Date of presentation;

(E) Type of CEH;

(F) Number of approved CEH; and

(G) Signature of the instructor or presenter or official stamp of the sponsor signifying attendance and completion of the course.

(3) Correspondence and Independent Study courses. Correspondence courses or other individual independent study programs and activities must meet the following requirements to qualify for CEH credit:

(a) An outline of the program is prepared in advance and preserved;

(b) The program must cover at least one of the topic areas listed in 808-040-0040;

(c) The program is at least one hour (fifty-minute period) in length;

(d) A record of attendance is maintained by the provider; and

(e) The provider of the correspondence or independent study course is a qualified instructor or presenter whose background, training, education or experience qualifies the person to teach or lead a discussion on the subject matter of the particular course.

(4) Volunteering. Education opportunities that engage the licensee in volunteering must meet the following requirements to qualify for CEH credit. The volunteer activity must be directly related to the landscape construction industry, such as but not limited to:

(a) Serving on industry related boards, commissions or committees; or

(b) Providing a not-for-profit service to local or state entities for the enhancement and preservation of the environment or natural resources through landscape planning, installation and maintenance.

(5) Teaching and Presenting. Activities that engage the licensee in teaching and presenting courses must meet the following criteria to qualify for CEH credit:

(a) The licensee must be an actively licensed landscape construction professional;

(b) The licensee must have been actively licensed for a period of not less than five (5) years;

(c) An outline of the course is prepared in advance and preserved;

(d) The course must cover at least one of the topic areas listed in 808-040-0040;

(e) The course is at least one hour (fifty-minute period) in length;

(f) A record of attendance is maintained by the licensee;

(g) The course is presented for an education provider; a school, university or college; a landscape contracting business, or any industry related organization or association.;

(h) CEH credit is allowed for each 50 minute period completed as an instructor or discussion leader for the first presentation of the subject material;

(i) CEH credit for preparation and research time allowed for an instructor, discussion leader, or a speaker shall be calculated on the basis of two CEH hours of preparation and research in the CEH type of the presentation for each hour of presenting or teaching.

(j) The maximum CEH credit allowed for preparation and research under this section must not exceed one-half of the total number of CEH hours required for the renewal period;

(k) Preparation and research CEH may be available only for teaching a course or making a presentation in its initial presentation. CEH credit may be allowed for additional preparation and research if the substantive content of the program was substantially changed and the licensee provides evidence that such change required significant additional study or research;

Continuing Education — Dentists

(1) Each dentist must complete 40 hours of continuing education every two years. Continuing education (C.E.) must be directly related to clinical patient care or the practice of dental public health.

(2) Dentists must maintain records of successful completion of continuing education for at least four licensure years consistent with the licensee's licensure cycle. (A licensure year for dentists is April 1 through March 31.) The licensee, upon request by the Board, shall provide proof of successful completion of continuing education courses.

(3) Continuing education includes:

(a) Attendance at lectures, study clubs, college post-graduate courses, or scientific sessions at conventions.

(b) Research, graduate study, teaching or preparation and presentation of scientific sessions. No more than 12 hours may be in teaching or scientific sessions. (Scientific sessions are defined as scientific presentations, table clinics, poster sessions and lectures.)

(c) Correspondence courses, videotapes, distance learning courses or similar self-study course, provided that the course includes an examination and the dentist passes the examination.

(d) Continuing education credit can be given for volunteer pro bono dental services provided in the state of Oregon; community oral health instruction at a public health facility located in the state of Oregon; authorship of a publication, book, chapter of a book, article or paper published in a professional journal; participation on a state dental board, peer review, or quality of care review procedures; successful completion of the National Board Dental Examinations taken after initial licensure; a recognized specialty examination taken after initial licensure; or test development for clinical dental, dental hygiene or specialty examinations. No more than 6 hours of credit may be in these areas.

(4) At least three hours of continuing education must be related to medical emergencies in a dental office. No more than four hours of Practice Management and Patient Relations may be counted toward the C.E. requirement in any renewal period.

(5) All dentists licensed by the Oregon Board of Dentistry will complete a one-hour pain management course specific to Oregon provided by the Pain Management Commission of the Oregon Health Authority. All applicants or licensees shall complete this requirement by January 1, 2010 or within 24 months of the first renewal of the dentist's license.

Continuing Education — Dental Hygienists

(1) Each dental hygienist must complete 24 hours of continuing education every two years. A Limited Access Permit Dental Hygienist shall complete a total of 36 hours of continuing education every two years. Continuing education (C.E.) must be directly related to clinical patient care or the practice of dental public health.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) Dental hygienists must maintain records of successful completion of continuing education for at least four licensure years consistent with the licensee's licensure cycle. (A licensure year for dental hygienists is October 1 through September 30.) The licensee, upon request by the Board, shall provide proof of successful completion of continuing education courses.

(3) Continuing education includes:

(a) Attendance at lectures, study clubs, college post-graduate courses, or scientific sessions at conventions.

(b) Research, graduate study, teaching or preparation and presentation of scientific sessions. No more than six hours may be in teaching or scientific sessions. (Scientific sessions are defined as scientific presentations, table clinics, poster sessions and lectures.)

(c) Correspondence courses, videotapes, distance learning courses or similar self-study course, provided that the course includes an examination and the dental hygienist passes the examination.

(d) Continuing education credit can be given for volunteer pro bono dental hygiene services provided in the state of Oregon; community oral health instruction at a public health facility located in the state of Oregon; authorship of a publication, book, chapter of a book, article or paper published in a professional journal; participation on a state dental board, peer review, or quality of care review procedures; successful completion of the National Board Dental Hygiene Examination, taken after initial licensure; or test development for clinical dental hygiene examinations. No more than 6 hours of credit may be in these areas.

(4) At least three hours of continuing education must be related to medical emergencies in a dental office. No more than two hours of Practice Management and Patient Relations may be counted toward the C.E. requirement in any renewal period.

(5) Dental hygienists who hold a Nitrous Oxide Permit must meet the requirements contained in OAR 818-026-0040(9) for renewal of the Nitrous Oxide Permit.

Administration of State Assessments

(1) Definitions. As used in this rule:

(a) "Accommodations" means practices and procedures in presentation, response, setting, and timing or scheduling that, when used in an assessment, provide equitable access to all students. Accommodations do not compromise the learning expectations, construct, grade-level standard, or measured outcome of the assessment as determined by the Oregon Accommodations Panel established by the Oregon Department of Education (ODE).

(b) "Allowable resources" means subject-specific resources identified as allowable in the Test Administration Manual that are made available to students by a test administrator during a testing event. Allowable resources are not student-specific, and their use does not invalidate test results. Allowable resources are the only resources that districts may give to students during administration of an Oregon Statewide Assessment.

(c) "District test coordinator" (DTC) means district personnel who ensure secure administration of Oregon Statewide Assessments as defined by Oregon Revised Statute, Administrative Rules, and the Test Administration Manual, including but not limited to supervising the work of the school test coordinators and test administrators.

(d) "Force majeure" means an extraordinary circumstance (e.g., power outage or network disturbance lasting at least one full school day) or act of nature (e.g., flooding, earthquake, volcano eruption) which directly prevents a school district from making reasonable attempts to adhere to the Test Schedule.

(e) "Impropriety" means the administration of an Oregon Statewide Assessment in a manner not in compliance with the Test Administration Manual, Oregon Revised Statute, or this rule.

(f) "Invalidation" means the act of omitting test results and student responses from the testing, reporting, and accountability systems for a given testing event for which the student may not retest.

(g) "Irregularity" means an unusual circumstance that impacts a group of students who are testing and may potentially affect student performance on the assessment or interpretation of the students' scores. A force majeure is an example of a severe irregularity.

(h) "Modification" means practices and procedures that compromise the intent of the assessment through a change in the achievement level, construct, or measured outcome of the assessment.

(i) "OAKS Online" means the secure web-based testing application used to deliver the Oregon Assessment of Knowledge and Skills (OAKS) and the English Language Performance Assessment (ELPA).

(j) "Oregon Statewide Assessments" means:

(A) The Oregon Assessment of Knowledge and Skills (OAKS) in:

(i) Reading/Literature;

(ii) Mathematics;

(iii) Science;

(iv) Social Sciences;

(B) The Writing Performance Assessment;

(C) The English Language Proficiency Assessment (ELPA); and

(D) The Extended Assessment in:

(i) Reading/Literature;

(ii) Mathematics;

(iii) Science

(k) "Reset" means the removal of student responses from the web-based testing application for a given testing event for which the student may retest.

(l) "School building" means facilities owned, leased, or rented by a school district, educational service district, public charter school, private school, or private alternative program.

(m) "School district" means:

(A) A school district as defined in ORS 332.002;

(B) The Oregon School for the Deaf;

(C) The Juvenile Detention Education Program as defined in ORS 326.695;

(D) The Youth Corrections Education Program as defined in ORS 326.695;

(E) The Long Term Care Program as defined in ORS 343.961; and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(F) The Hospital Education Programs as defined in ORS 343.261.

(n) "School test coordinator" (STC) means school personnel who provide comprehensive training to test administrators and monitor the testing process.

(o) "Test Administration Manual" means a manual published annually by ODE that includes descriptions of the specific policies and procedures that school districts are required to follow when administering any component of the Oregon Statewide Assessments. References to the Test Administration Manual refer to the edition in effect at the time of test administration and include appendices and any addenda published in accordance with ODE's revision policy.

(p) "Test administrator" (TA) means an individual trained to administer the Oregon Statewide Assessments in accordance with the Test Administration Manual.

(q) "Test Schedule" means the Test Schedule and Required Ship Dates published annually by ODE that includes the windows in which school districts must offer their students the Oregon Statewide Assessments and the deadline by which DTCs must ship or postmark test materials.

(2) (a) School districts, as defined in ORS 332.002, must enforce the assessment policies described in this rule for all students enrolled in a school operated by the district or enrolled in a public charter school that is located within the boundaries of the school district.

(b) School districts, as defined in ORS 332.002, must enforce the assessment policies described in this rule for all resident students enrolled in a private alternative education program, regardless of whether the private alternative education program is located within the boundaries of the school district.

(c) The Oregon School for the Deaf must enforce the assessment policies described in this rule for all students enrolled in that school.

(d) The Juvenile Detention Education Program and the Youth Corrections Education Program must enforce the assessment policies described in this rule for all students enrolled in that program.

(e) The Long Term Care Program and the Hospital Education Programs must enforce the assessment policies described in this rule for all students enrolled in that program.

(f) School districts may delegate responsibility for enforcing the assessment policies described in this rule to another school district or education service district under the conditions specified in the Test Administration Manual.

(3) School districts must administer Oregon Statewide Assessments in accordance with the Test Administration Manual and Test Schedule published by ODE. School districts must use student assessment data in accordance with the Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) Policy and Technical Manual published annually by ODE. The results of these assessments are used to satisfy the requirements specified in OAR 581-022-1670 and 581-022-0606 and as a method to evaluate compliance with OAR 581-022-1210.

(4) School districts must ensure that students are administered the proper Oregon Statewide Assessment and that the testing environment satisfies the following testing conditions:

(a) School districts must ensure that Oregon Statewide Assessments are administered by a trained TA who has signed an Assurance of Test Security form for the current school year on file in the district office;

(b) School districts must administer Oregon Statewide Assessments in a school building or in an environment that otherwise complies with the Test Administration Manual;

(c) School districts must apply the following criteria in deciding whether to provide a student with an accommodation during administration of an Oregon Statewide Assessment:

(A) School districts must decide whether to provide accommodations during an assessment on an individual student basis and separately for each content area to be assessed; and

(B) For students with an Individualized Education Plan (IEP) or 504 Plan, school districts must implement the assessment decision made by a student's IEP or 504 team and documented in the IEP or 504 Plan;

(d) School districts may only administer modifications to students with an IEP or 504 Plan and only in accordance with the assessment decision made by the student's IEP or 504 team and documented in the IEP or 504 Plan. Before administering an assessment using a modification, a student's IEP or 504 team must inform the student's parent that the use of a modification on an OAKS assessment will result in an invalid assessment;

(e) School districts must provide only those subject-specific allowable resources listed in the Test Administration Manual;

(f) School districts must ensure that students do not access electronic communication devices such as cellular phones or personal digital assistants (PDAs) during an assessment; and

(g) School districts must follow all additional testing conditions specified in the Test Administration Manual.

(5) Failure by a school district to comply with Section (4) of this rule constitutes an impropriety as defined in Section 1(e) of this rule. DTCs must report all potential improprieties or irregularities to ODE within one business day of learning of the potential impropriety or irregularity in accordance with the reporting procedures contained in the Test Administration Manual.

(6) The ODE may invalidate assessment results and student responses for assessments administered under conditions not meeting the assessment administration requirements specified in Sections 3 and 4 of this rule. In rare instances, ODE may reset a student assessment at the request of the school district if ODE determines that a reset would not compromise the security or validity of the assessment.

(7) ODE counts assessments that meet the following conditions as non-participants in ODE calculations of participation and does not include such assessments in ODE calculations of performance:

(a) OAKS Assessments administered using modifications as defined in Section 1(h) of this rule;

(b) Invalidated assessments;

(c) Assessments administered outside the testing window specified in the Test Schedule; or

(d) Assessments shipped or postmarked after the dates identified in the Test Schedule.

(8) ODE only allows extensions to the testing window or shipping deadlines identified in the Test Schedule in cases where a force majeure occurs within three days of the close of the testing window or shipping deadline and prevents a school district from meeting the deadline. Upon receiving a force majeure extension request from the school district, ODE may permit a one-day extension of the testing window or shipping deadline for each day of the force majeure, for up to five days. The force majeure extension begins on the first school day after normal operations resume and ends no later than the last school day in the month in which the testing window closes.

(9) (a) School districts must use OAKS Online when administering OAKS and ELPA.

(b) School districts may only assess students using the Extended Assessment instead of OAKS if the student has an IEP Plan and the student's Plan indicates separately for each content area to be assessed that the student requires the Extended Assessment.

(10) School districts may only provide students with access to printed test items or reading passages from OAKS Online if:

(a) The TA administering the testing session approves the student's request to print a test item or reading passage;

(b) The printer used to print test items or reading passages is monitored by staff who have received test security training and signed an Assurance of Test Security Form for the current school year;

(c) Staff who have received test security training and signed an Assurance of Test Security Form for the current school year securely shred the printed test items or reading passages immediately after the testing session in which the test was administered in accordance with the Test Administration Manual.

(11) School districts must administer ELPA annually to all students determined by the school district to be eligible for English language development (ELD) services under Title III of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB), regardless of whether an eligible student actually receives ELD services.

581-022-0615

Assessment of Essential Skills

(1) Definitions. As used in this rule:

(a) "Assessment option" means an assessment approved to assess proficiency in the Essential Skills for the purpose of earning a high school diploma or a modified diploma.

(b) "Essential Skills" means process skills that cross academic disciplines and are embedded in the content standards. The skills are not content specific and can be applied in a variety of courses, subjects, and settings.

(c) "Local performance assessment" means a standardized measure (e.g., activity, exercise, problem, or work sample scored using an official state scoring guide), embedded in the school districts' and public charter schools' curriculum that evaluates the application of students' knowledge and skills.

(d) "Official state scoring guide" means an evaluation tool designed for scoring student work that includes specific, consistent assessment criteria for student performance and a 1-6 point scale to help rate student work. It is used by Oregon teachers to evaluate student work samples.

(e) "Student-initiated test impropriety" means student conduct that:

(A) Is inconsistent with:

(i) The Test Administration Manual; or

(ii) Accompanying guidelines; or

(B) Results in a score that is invalid.

(f) "Work sample" means a representative sample of individual student work (e.g., research papers, statistical experiments, speaking presentations, theatrical performances, work experience) that may cover one or more content areas and therefore may be scored using one or more official state scoring guide(s). At the high school level, a work sample can be used to fulfill both the local performance assessment requirement described in Section 2 of this rule and the Essential Skills requirement described in Section 3 of this rule.

(2) School districts and public charter schools that offer grades 3 through 8 or high school shall administer local performance assessments for students in grades 3 through 8 and at least once in high school. For each skill area listed in section (17) of this rule, the assessments shall consist of:

(a) One work sample per grade scored using official state scoring guides; or

(b) Comparable measures adopted by the district.

(3) School districts and public charter schools shall require high school students to demonstrate proficiency in the Essential Skills using assessment options that are approved by the State Board of Education for the purpose of student eligibility for:

(a) The high school diploma as established in OAR 581-022-1130; or

(b) The modified diploma as established in OAR 581-022-1134.

(4) Pursuant to ORS 339.115 and 339.505, school districts and public charter schools shall provide any eligible student with instruction in and multiple assessment opportunities to demonstrate proficiency in the Essential Skills for the purpose of achieving the high school diploma or the modified diploma.

(5) To be eligible to receive a high school diploma or a modified diploma:

(a) For students first enrolled in grade 9 during the 2008-2009 school year, school districts and public charter schools shall require students to demonstrate proficiency in the Essential Skill listed in section (16)(a) of this rule: Read and comprehend a variety of text.

(b) For students first enrolled in grade 9 during the 2009-2010 school year, school districts and public charter schools shall require students to demonstrate proficiency in the Essential Skills listed in sections (16)(a)-(b) of this rule:

(A) Read and comprehend a variety of text; and

(B) Write clearly and accurately.

(c) For students first enrolled in grade 9 during the 2010-2011 school year, school districts and public charter schools shall require students to demonstrate proficiency in the Essential Skills listed in section (16)(a)-(c) of this rule:

(A) Read and comprehend a variety of text;

(B) Write clearly and accurately; and

(C) Apply mathematics in a variety of settings.

(d) For students first enrolled in grade 9 during the 2011-2012 school year or first enrolled in grade 9 in any subsequent school year, school districts and public charter schools shall require students to demonstrate proficiency in the Essential Skills listed in Section 16(a)-(c) of this rule and any additional Essential Skills for which:

(A) The State Board of Education has adopted the determination to phase in for inclusion in the high school diploma and modified diploma requirements; and

(B) The State Board of Education has adopted assessment options by March 1 of the student's 8th grade year.

(e) School districts and public charter schools may require students to demonstrate proficiency in additional Essential Skills beyond the minimum requirements described in section (5)(a)-(d) of this rule.

(6) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish an Assessment of Essential Skills Review Panel (AESRP) to make recommendations on:

(a) The phasing in of Essential Skills for inclusion in the high school diploma and the modified diploma requirements;

(b) The adoption of assessment options to measure students' proficiency in the approved Essential Skills for the purpose of the high school diploma or the modified diploma; and

(c) The achievement standards used to determine student eligibility for the high school diploma or the modified diploma.

(7) The AESRP shall work toward the goal of a system with a high degree of technical adequacy and equivalent rigor between assessment options as practicable.

(8) The AESRP shall base its recommendations on evidence provided by:

(a) School districts;

(b) Research organizations; and

(c) Other experts.

(9) The AESRP shall consist of assessment experts from:

(a) School districts, including but not limited to:

(A) Superintendents;

(B) Principals;

(C) Curriculum Directors;

(D) Educators;

(E) Special education educators; and

(F) English Language Learners (ELL) educators;

(b) Post-secondary education institutions; and

(c) Business partners who have expertise in:

(A) Assessment design;

(B) Assessment administration; or

(C) Use of assessments

(10) The State Board of Education shall make the determination to adopt the AESRP's recommended assessment options, and achievement standards for the purpose of conferring high school diplomas and modified diplomas. The determination of the State Board of Education will be final and not subject to appeal.

(11) The ODE shall issue the State Board of Education's intentions regarding the AESRP's recommendations by December 15 of each year and formal notice of the State Board of Education's final determination regarding the AESRP's recommendations by March 1 of each year as an addendum to the Test Administration Manual, which the ODE shall issue by August 1 of each year.

(12) School districts and public charter schools shall adhere to the requirements set forth in the Test Administration Manual to:

(a) Administer;

(b) Score;

(c) Manage; and

(d) Document the district and school assessments of students' proficiency in the Essential Skills required to receive a high school diploma or a modified diploma.

(13) School districts and public charter schools shall establish conduct and discipline policies addressing student-initiated test impropriety.

(14) School districts and public charter schools shall allow students to use assessment options and achievement standards adopted by the State Board of Education in a student's ninth through twelfth grade years as follows:

(a) Students may demonstrate proficiency in the Essential Skills using assessment options adopted in their ninth through twelfth grade years.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Students may use achievement standards adopted in their 9th through 12th grade years that are equal to or lower than the achievement standards approved as of March 1 of the students' 8th grade year.

(15) Districts may develop and administer a local assessment option for students to demonstrate proficiency in the Essential Skills, using established professional and technical standards in place of the assessment options adopted by the State Board of Education as described in section 14 of this rule. Districts that choose this option are required to publish:

(a) A communication strategy to ensure stakeholders are notified of the district's approach to the local assessment option; and

(b) Materials written in plain language that contain descriptions of the

(A) Purpose of the assessment;

(B) Scoring methodology;

(C) Method by which students and parents will receive results from the assessment;

(D) Criteria for determining student proficiency using the assessment; and

(E) Criteria for determining which students will have access to the assessment

(16) The ODE shall publish the subset of Essential Skills assessment options and the associated performance levels which may be used by each of Oregon's post-secondary institutions as defined by those institutions' policies provided to the ODE by October 15 of each year.

(17) The Essential Skills identified by the State Board of Education as of July 1, 2008 are as follows:

(a) Read and comprehend a variety of text;

(b) Write clearly and accurately;

(c) Apply mathematics in a variety of settings;

(d) Listen actively and speak clearly and coherently;

(e) Think critically and analytically;

(f) Use technology to learn, live, and work;

(g) Demonstrate civic and community engagement;

(h) Demonstrate global literacy; and

(i) Demonstrate personal management and teamwork skills.

(18) School districts and public charter schools shall include one or more local performance assessments for grades 3 through 8 and for high school for each of the following skill areas:

(a) Writing;

(b) Speaking;

(c) Mathematical problem-solving; and

(d) Scientific inquiry.

(19) School districts and public charter schools may include one social science analysis work sample that is administered in accordance with school district or public charter school policies as a local performance assessment for grades 3 through 8 and for high school.

(20) For students on an Individualized Education Plan (IEP) or 504 Plan, if a student's IEP or 504 Team determines that the nature of a student's disability prevents the student from demonstrating proficiency in an Essential Skill using any of the approved assessment options listed in the Test Administration Manual, the student's IEP Team may exempt the student from the requirement as listed in the Test Administration Manual and determine an appropriate replacement assessment option for the student to use that addresses the Essential Skill in a manner that is consistent with:

(a) The student's instructional plan; and

(b) The state assessment criteria adopted by the State Board of Education.

(21) For students seeking a modified diploma, school districts and public charter schools may modify the assessment options adopted by the State Board of Education when the following conditions are met:

(a) For students on IEP or 504 Plans:

(A) School districts and public charter schools must comply with all requirements established by the student's IEP or 504 Plan when implementing modifications for work samples;

(B) School districts and public charter schools must comply with OAR 581-022-0610 section (4)(d) when implementing modifications for a statewide assessment.

(b) For students not on IEP or 504 Plans:

(A) School districts and public charter schools may only implement modifications for work samples that are consistent with the modifications the student has received during instruction in the content area to be assessed in the year in which the work sample is administered.

(B) School districts and public charter schools must obtain approval from the school team responsible for monitoring the student's progress toward the modified diploma before implementing modifications for work samples.

(C) Consistent with OAR 581-022-0610, school districts and public charter schools may not implement modifications for statewide assessments for students who are not on an IEP or 504 Plan.

Rule Caption: Updates minimum standards for retrofit of school buses.

Adm. Order No.: ODE 9-2011

Filed with Sec. of State: 7-1-2011

Certified to be Effective: 7-1-11

Notice Publication Date: 5-1-2011

Rules Adopted: 581-053-0516

Rules Amended: 581-053-0512

Rules Repealed: 581-056-0517

Subject: Updates minimum standards for school buses that are used for the first time in Oregon and combines chassis and body requirements into one rule.

Repeals separate rule regarding minimum standards for school bus bodies. Creates separate minimum standards that apply to all buses regardless of purchase or manufacture date.

Oregon Revised Statute 820.100 directs the State Board of Education to adopt vehicle standards for school buses consistent with national standards. National standards are updated every five years at the National Congress on School Transportation. Oregon is an active participant in this congress. Updates in this rule ensure that our standards are in line with national standards.

In the past, school bus bodies were purchased separately from chassis that were normally made by a truck manufacturer. Because of this process, rules were adopted for both parts of the school bus separately. School bus manufacturing has become more streamlined and most school buses are built from the ground up by one company and all school buses use chassis that are purpose built for the school bus industry.

Currently retrofit standards are part of OAR 581-053-0512 "Minimum Standards for School Bus Chassis" and OAR 581-053-0517 "Minimum Standards for School Bus Bodies." In order to make our rules more understandable, both of these OARs have been combined. Removing the retrofit standards out of the minimum standards for new school buses into their own rule, will further clarify the Department's intent in rule.

581-053-0512

Minimum Standards for School Bus Chassis

(1) Air Cleaner:

(a) The engine intake air cleaner shall be furnished and properly installed by the chassis manufacturer to meet engine specifications;

(b) All Type C and Type D buses equipped with diesel engines shall have an air cleaner restriction indicator properly installed by the chassis manufacturer to meet engine specifications.

(2) Air System: All buses equipped with air systems for brakes shall provide and identify an appropriate air port for plumbing in air powered accessories.

(3) Air-Operated Accessories: Air-operated accessories shall be plumbed into the vehicle's air supply system in compliance with all the following:

(a) Safeguarded by a check valve or equivalent device located between the air supply system and the accessory to prevent air loss due to accessory failure. This shall include the supply line for a designated accessory air tank;

(b) Connected to the air supply system in compliance with all applicable Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards;

(c) Connected in the manner prescribed by the vehicle manufacturer.

(4) Aisle: Minimum clearance of all aisles shall be 12 inches;

(5) Axles: The front and rear axles and suspension systems shall have a gross axle weight rating at ground commensurate with the respective front and rear weight loads of the bus loaded to the rated passenger capacity;

(6) Back-up camera: A back-up camera may be installed. The camera housing shall not block any signage or lights that are required. The monitor for the back-up camera system shall not block the view of any window, gauges, or required indicator lights. The monitor shall only work when the transmission is in reverse.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(7) Body Construction:

(a) Construction shall be of prime commercial quality steel, or other metal, or other material with strength at least equivalent to all-steel as certified by bus body manufacturer;

(b) Construction shall provide a water-tight and reasonably dustproof unit;

(c) Must meet or exceed applicable federal motor vehicle safety standards for construction, effective December 2, 1993.

(8) Body Sizes: Body manufacturer shall determine the vehicle's maximum designed and equipped passenger capacity and post it on the vehicle with the GVWR and vehicle compliance information.

(9) Brakes:

(a) Air brakes are required on all buses having a manufacturer's gross vehicle weight rating of 26,001 pounds or greater;

(b) Buses using air or vacuum in the operation of the brake system shall be equipped with warning signals, readily audible and visible to the driver, that will give a continuous warning when the air pressure available in the system for braking is 60 psi (pounds per square inch) or less or the vacuum in the system available for braking is 8 inches of mercury or less. An illuminated gauge shall be provided that will indicate to the driver, the air pressure in pounds per square inch available for the operation of the brake.

(A) Vacuum-assist brake systems shall have a reservoir used exclusively for brakes which shall be adequate to ensure loss in vacuum at full stroke application of not more than 30 percent with engine not running. Brake system on gas-powered chassis shall include suitable and convenient connections for the installation of separate vacuum reservoir;

(B) Any brake system dry reservoir shall be so safeguarded by a check valve or equivalent device, that in the event of failure or leakage in its connection to the source of compressed air or vacuum, the stored dry air or vacuum shall not be depleted by the leakage or failure.

(c) Buses using a hydraulic assist-booster in the operation of brake system shall be equipped with a warning signal, readily audible and visible to the driver, which will provide continuous warning in the event of a loss of fluid pressure from primary source or loss of electric source powering the backup system;

(d) The brake lines and booster-assist lines shall be protected from excessive heat and vibrations and be so installed as to prevent chafing;

(e) All brake systems shall be designed to permit visual inspection of brake lining wear without removal of any chassis components except for inspection dust covers or wheels;

(f) Air brake systems shall be equipped with manual drain valves on all air tanks. A provision shall be made to operate manual drain valve(s) on first (wet) reservoir(s) from the side of the bus unless one of the following options is provided:

(A) Automatic moisture ejector on the first (wet) reservoir;

(B) An air dryer that has the drying ability to insure an adequate margin of safety under normal and adverse operating conditions;

(C) Skirt-mounted controls for manual drain valve(s) shall not extend beyond the outer side of bus skirt panel.

(10) Bumper (Front):

(a) The bumper on Type A-2, B, C, and D buses shall be equivalent in strength and durability to pressed steel channel at least 3/16 inches thick and not less than 8 inches wide (high). It shall extend beyond the forward-most part of the body, grille, hood and fenders and shall extend to the outer edges of the fenders at the bumper's top line.

(b) Type A-1 buses may be equipped with an OEM-supplied bumper.

(c) The bumper shall be of sufficient strength to permit pushing or being pushed by another vehicle with the same GVWR on a smooth surface with a five degree (8.7 percent) grade, without permanent distortion to the bumper, chassis, or body.

(d) The bumper shall be designed or reinforced so that it will not deform when the bus is lifted by a chain that is attached to both tow hooks when the bus is empty and positioned on a level, hard surface and both tow hooks share the load equally.

(e) Deer guards may be added to a front bumper to protect the front grill. Deer guards shall not be in any portion of the driver's forward view, including use of all mirrors.

(11) Bumper (Rear):

(a) Rear bumper for all body on chassis units shall be of pressed steel channel or equivalent material at least 3/16-inch thick and eight inches wide

(high), and of sufficient strength to permit pushing by another vehicle without distortion;

(b) Bumper for all body on chassis units shall wrap around back corners of bus. It shall extend forward at least 12 inches, measured from rear-most point of body at floor line;

(c) Bumper shall be attached to chassis frame in such manner that it may be easily removed, shall be so braced as to develop full strength of bumper section from rear or side impact, and shall be so attached as to prevent the insertion of small fingers between the body and bumper;

(d) Bumper shall extend beyond rear-most part of body surface at least one inch, measured at floor line;

(e) An energy absorbing rear bumper may be used providing a self-restoring energy absorbing bumper system so attached as to prevent the hitching of rides and of sufficient strength to permit pushing by another vehicle without permanent distortion to the bumper, chassis, or body;

(f) The manufacturer of the energy absorbing system shall provide evidence from an approved test facility (capable of performing the above FMVSS tests) that their product conforms to the above.

(12) Certification: Manufacturer will, upon request, certify to the Oregon Department of Education that their product meets minimum standards on items not covered by FMVSS certification requirements of 49 CFR, Part 567.

(13) Chains, Automatic: Automatic tire chains (traction) may be installed at drive wheels in conformance with manufacturer specifications and any applicable chassis manufacturer standards. (Note: Air-applied chain systems must comply with air-operated accessory requirement included in this rule.)

(14) Clutch:

(a) Clutch torque capacity shall be equal to or greater than, the engine torque output;

(b) A starter interlock shall be installed to prevent actuation of the starter if the clutch is not depressed on all buses manufactured after January 1, 1999.

(15) Color:

(a) Chassis and bumpers shall be black; Wheels may be painted either black or National School Bus Yellow. Type A-1, A-2, and B buses may have manufacturer standard color wheels.

(b) The school bus body shall be painted a uniform National School Bus Yellow. The body exterior paint trim, bumper, lamp hoods, and emergency door lettering shall be black. The engine hood may be painted low-luster yellow. The roof of the bus may be painted white. The white color may extend across the roof down to the drip rails or within 6 inches above the passenger windows on the sides of the bus except that front and rear caps shall remain National School Bus Yellow. Retroreflective material may be used as trim on rear bumper;

(16) Crossing Arm: A crossing arm may be mounted on the front of a school bus in accordance with the following specifications:

(b) Arm shall be located at least 18 inches but not more than 32 inches above ground level and in the closed position; arm shall not cover numbers on license plate;

(c) Installed in a manner to limit the outward deployment to 90 degrees from the front bumper;

(d) Arm shall extend 70 inches from the front bumper in its extended position;

(e) Arm shall be activated through the existing bus safety light system assuring the driver is required to take no additional action to either deploy or retract the arm. No outward movement of the arm may occur before red flashing sequence begins;

(f) Override switches are prohibited;

(g) Crossing arm must be safeguarded from damage due to pushing or pulling by hand through the use of a clutch-like device or equivalent, double spring hinges are not acceptable);

(h) The arm may be equipped with an amber flashing light that functions only when the arm is in the fully extended position;

(i) Entire unit shall have no sharp edges or other projections that could injure children or others due to casual contact;

(j) Unit shall provide secure mounting opportunities to prevent misalignment or failure due to extreme weather conditions;

(k) Shall be either air, vacuum, or electrically operated and in conformance to section (39)(g) of this rule;

(l) Crossing arm color shall be yellow or yellow and black;

(m) All components and connections shall be weatherproofed.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(17) Defrosters:

(a) Defrosting and defogging equipment shall direct a sufficient flow of heated air onto the windshield, the window to the left of the driver and the glass in the viewing area directly to the right of the driver to reduce the amount of frost, fog and snow;

(b) The defrosting system shall conform to SAE performance standards J-381 and 382;

(c) The defroster and defogging system shall be capable of furnishing heated outside ambient air, except that part of the system furnishing additional air to the windshield, entrance door and stepwell may be of the recirculation air type;

(d) Auxiliary fans, if used, shall not be considered as a defrosting and defogging system:

(A) Auxiliary fans shall be mounted above the windshield, so as not to interfere with the driver's vision of the roadway, mirrors or students outside the bus;

(B) The fan blades shall be covered with a protective cage.

(18) Doors:

(a) Service door shall be under the driver's control, designed to afford easy release and to provide a positive latching device on manual operating doors to prevent accidental opening. When hand lever is used, no part shall come together so as to shear or crush fingers. Manual door controls shall not require more than 25 pounds of force to operate at any point throughout the range of operation, as tested on a 10% grade, both up hill and downhill;

(b) Service door shall be located on right side of bus opposite driver and within direct view;

(c) Service door shall have minimum horizontal opening of 24 inches and minimum vertical opening of 68 inches;

(d) Service door shall be a split-type door and shall open outward;

(e) If service door is power operated, pressure shall be controlled by a regulator valve or switch and provision shall be made for opening the door manually in the event of driver disability or mechanical failure. Emergency release valve or switch for power operated doors shall be located in an accessible place, in plain view, as near the service door as practicable. Valve or switch shall be properly identified and "open" and "closed" position plainly marked;

(f) All service door windows shall be approved laminated safety glass. Bottom of lower glass panel shall not be more than ten inches from top surface of bottom step. Top of upper glass panel shall not be more than six inches from top of door.

(g) Vertical closing edges on the service door shall be equipped with flexible material to protect children's fingers.

(h) There shall be no door to left of driver. (This shall not be interpreted to conflict with emergency doors or windows.) Type A-1 and A-2 and B buses may be equipped with chassis manufacturers' left side driver's door;

(i) All doors shall be equipped with an energy absorbing pad at the top edge of each door opening. Pad shall be at least 3 inches wide and 1 inch thick and extend the full width of the door opening.

(19) Drive Shaft: Drive shafts over 24 inches in length shall be protected by metal guard or guards around circumference of drive shaft to reduce the possibility of the shaft whipping through floor or dropping to ground if broken. Guards shall be mounted around front half of each drive shaft section.

(20) Electrical System:

(a) Battery(ies):

(A) Battery shall have a minimum cold cranking capacity rating equal to the cranking current required for 30-seconds at 0° Fahrenheit (-17.8c) and a minimum reserve capacity rating of 120-minutes at 25 amp. Higher capacities may be needed dependent upon optional equipment and local environmental conditions;

(B) The manufacturer shall securely attach the battery(ies) on a slide-out or swing-out tray in a closed, vented compartment in the body skirt so that the battery(ies) is accessible for convenient servicing from the outside. Battery compartment(s) door or cover shall be hinged at front or top and secured by adequate and conveniently operated latch or other type fastener. Type A-1 and A-2 buses may have battery(ies) mounted under the hood in an accessible location;

(C) Access to battery shall not be through body floor;

(D) Buses may be equipped with a battery shut-off switch. The switch shall be placed in a battery compartment or the engine compartment.

(b) Circuits: An appropriate identifying diagram (color and number coded) for electrical circuits shall be provided to the body manufacturer for distribution to the end user;

(c) Generator or Alternator:

(A) All buses with a GVWR of 14,500 pounds or less shall have a generator or alternator with a minimum rating of at least 130 amperes (in accordance with Society of Automotive Engineer rating) with minimum charging of 50 percent of maximum rated output at manufacturer's recommended engine idle speed (12 volt system), and shall be ventilated and voltage-controlled and, if necessary, current-controlled;

(B) All buses with a GVWR greater than 14,500 pounds shall have a generator or alternator with a minimum rating of at least 160 amperes (in accordance with Society of Automotive Engineer rating) with minimum charging of 50 percent of maximum rated output at manufacturer's recommended engine idle speed (12 volt system), and shall be ventilated and voltage-controlled and, if necessary, current-controlled;

(C) Generator or alternator may be direct/gear driven or belt driven. Belt driven generator or alternators shall be capable of handling the rated capacity of the generator or alternator with no detrimental effect on other belt driven components;

(d) Wiring, Chassis:

(A) General — All wiring shall conform to current applicable recommended practices of the Society of Automotive Engineers. All wiring shall use a standard color coding and each chassis shall be delivered with a wiring diagram that coincides with the wiring of the chassis;

(B) Chassis manufacturer shall install a readily accessible terminal strip or plug on the body side of the cowl, or at accessible location in engine compartment of vehicles designed without a cowl, which shall contain the following terminals for the body connections:

(i) Main 100 amp body circuit;

(ii) Tail lamps;

(iii) Right turn signal;

(iv) Left turn signal;

(v) Stop lamps;

(vi) Back up lamps;

(vii) Instrument panel lights (controlled by dimmer switch).

(e) Wiring, Body:

(A) All wiring shall conform to current standards of Society of Automotive Engineers;

(B) Circuits:

(i) Wiring shall be arranged in circuits, as required, with a circuit protection system. A system of color or number coding shall be used for all buses purchased after September 1, 1993 and an appropriate identifying diagram shall be provided the end user along with the wiring diagram provided by the chassis manufacturer. The following interconnecting circuits shall be color coded as noted:

(I) Left rear directional light — yellow;

(II) Right rear directional light — dark green;

(III) Stop lights — red;

(IV) Back-up lights — blue;

(V) Tail lights — brown;

(VI) Ground — white;

(VII) Ignition feed, primary feed — black;

(VIII) The color of cables shall correspond to SAE J1128.

(ii) Wiring shall be arranged in at least seven regular circuits, as follows:

(I) Head, tail, stop (brake) and instrument panel lamps;

(II) Clearance and stepwell lamps (stepwell lamp shall be activated when service door is opened);

(III) Dome lamp;

(IV) Ignition and emergency door signal;

(V) Turn signal lamps;

(VI) School Bus Safety Lights;

(VII) Heaters and defrosters.

(iii) Any of above combination circuits may be subdivided into additional independent circuits;

(iv) Whenever possible, all other electrical functions (such as sanders and electric-type windshield wipers) shall be provided with independent and properly protected circuits.

(C) The entire electrical system of the body shall be designed for the same voltage as the chassis on which the body is mounted;

(D) All wiring shall have an amperage capacity equal to or exceeding the designed load. All wiring splices are to be done at an accessible location and noted as splices on wiring schematic;

(E) Each body circuit shall be coded by number or letter on a diagram of easily readable size and be furnished with each bus body or affixed in an area convenient to the electrical accessory control panel;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(F) Body power wire is to be attached to special terminal on the chassis;

(G) All wires passing through metal openings shall be protected by a grommet;

(H) Wires not enclosed within body shall be fastened securely at intervals of not more than 18 inches. All joints shall be soldered or joined by equally effective connectors and shall be moisture and corrosion resistant.

(I) A 12-volt power port may be installed in the driver's area;

(J) There shall be a non-momentary manual noise suppression switch installed in the control panel. The switch shall be clearly labeled and distinguishable from other switches. This switch shall be an on/off type that deactivates body equipment that produces noise, including the AM/FM/audio radio, heaters, air conditioners, fans and defrosters. The switch shall not deactivate safety systems such as windshield wipers or lighting systems.

(21) Emergency Equipment:

(a) Belt cutter: Each bus equipped with passenger seat belts or webbed restraining devices shall have a belt cutter mounted in the driver's compartment within reach of a driver sitting in the driver's seat. Belt cutter shall be of a design offering protected cutting edges to prevent accidental or intentional injury to drivers or passengers;

(b) Emergency road reflectors:

(A) Each bus shall be equipped with at least three reflex reflective triangle vehicle warning devices that conform to 49 CFR 581.125;

(B) Reflectors must be in a container securely mounted with nut-and-bolt fasteners enhanced with large flat (fender) washers or held in place by a nut-and-bolt mounted metal bracket that also protects and secures the container lid. Both shall be located in an accessible location. Reflectors shall not be mounted in any engine compartment;

(c) Body fluid cleanup kit: Buses shall have a removable moisture proof and dust proof body fluid cleanup kit, mounted in an accessible place within the driver's compartment. Contents shall include at least the following items:

(A) Two pair rubber/latex gloves;

(B) Two four-ounce packages of stabilized chlorine absorbent deodorant (or equivalent) capable of stabilizing at least 1 liter/36 fl. oz. of body fluids;

(C) One spatula for pick up of congealed fluid;

(D) One plastic bag in which to place congealed fluid;

(E) One red plastic bag with tie, identified for infectious waste and as a bio-hazard;

(F) One two-ounce bottle of germicidal detergent to apply to a contaminated area;

(G) Four paper towels to wipe up contaminated area;

(H) One one-ounce antiseptic alcohol hand rinse (or equivalent);

(I) One placard of step by step use instructions;

(J) Germicidal detergents, stabilized chlorine absorbent deodorant, alcohol hand rinse, or their equivalents shall provide documentation of EPA approval regarding their microbiological efficacy for at least the following:

(i) Staphylococcus aureus;

(ii) Pseudomonas aeruginosa;

(iii) Salmonella choleraesuis;

(iv) Streptococcus species;

(v) Herpes simplex Type II;

(vi) HIV (Associated with AIDS);

(vii) Fungi (athlete's foot);

(viii) Poliovirus; and

(ix) Tuberculosis.

(K) Documentation of efficacy for Hepatitis B may be hospital or test studies. The certified effective shelf life of these products shall be a minimum of 12 months. Product expiration date shall be clearly displayed on all time-sensitive products.

(d) Fire extinguishers:

(A) Each bus shall be equipped with at least one pressurized, dry, chemical type fire extinguisher, mounted in a bracket, located in the driver's compartment, and readily accessible. A pressure gauge shall be mounted on the extinguisher so as to be readily read without removing the extinguisher from its mounted position;

(B) The fire extinguisher shall be of a type approved by the Underwriters Laboratories, Inc., with a rating of not less than 2 A-10 BC. The extinguisher shall have a minimum five pound capacity and equipped with a hose and nozzle;

(C) The operating mechanism shall be sealed with a type of seal that will not interfere with the use of the fire extinguisher;

(D) Extinguishers with plastic heads are not permitted.

(e) First aid kit:

(A) Each bus shall have a readily removable, moisture proof and dust-proof first-aid kit container mounted in an accessible place within driver's compartment;

(B) The first aid kit contains a minimum of 24 units that shall include the following:

(i) One 1" adhesive compress — 16 per unit;

(ii) Two 2" bandage compress — 4 per unit;

(iii) Two 3" bandage compress — 2 per unit;

(iv) Two 4" bandage compress — 1 per unit;

(v) Two 3" x 3" plain gauze pads — 4 per unit;

(vi) Two 2" x 6 yards gauze roller bandage — 1 per unit;

(vii) Three 1/2 square yard gauze;

(viii) Three 24" x 72" gauze;

(ix) Four triangular bandages;

(x) One 1/2 x 5 yard adhesive tape-one per unit;

(xi) One round nose scissors and tweezers. Latex gloves-one pair; and

(xii) One micro shield for mouth to mouth airway (to lay on top of other contents).

(C) Specific local requirements may be substituted in lieu of 2 units of 1/2 square yard gauze.

(f) Any piece of emergency equipment may be mounted in an enclosed compartment, provided the compartment is labeled in not less than 1 inch letters, identifying each piece of equipment contained therein. If emergency road reflectors are stored outside the driver's compartment, the location of the triangles shall be displayed in a readily viewable location by the driver in minimum 1 inch letters.

(22) Emergency Exits:

(a) All emergency exits and doors shall comply with the design and performance requirements of FMVSS No. 217, Bus Emergency Exits and Window Retention and Release applicable to that type of exit.

(b) In addition to the requirements of FMVSS No. 217, all emergency exits and doors shall meet the additional requirements:

(A) Doors:

(i) Upper portion of emergency door shall be equipped with approved safety glazing, exposed area of not less than 400 square inches;

(ii) Lower portion of rear emergency door shall be equipped with approved safety glass and shall have an exposed area of not less than 350 square inches of approved safety glazing;

(iii) There shall be no steps leading to emergency door;

(iv) Clearance between outside emergency door handle and emergency door shall not exceed 1/4 inch when handle is in the closed position. Handle shall not provide a firm handhold for someone trying to "hitch" a ride. Handles shall be positioned to prevent snagging of clothing or pinching of fingers;

(v) Emergency door hinge shall not provide an opening for insertion of fingers when door is closed;

(vi) An adequately padded head bumper shall be placed on the interior directly above any emergency exit door opening. The pad shall extend the full width of the door opening and shall be at least three inches wide and one inch thick;

(vii) If emergency door is lockable, provision must be made to prevent the bus from starting while the door is locked. An audible warning which does not affect engine operation shall be provided to alert the driver should the door be locked while the bus is in operation; and

(viii) Emergency doors shall be labeled "Emergency Door" in minimum 2 inch letters that contrast with the background at the top of, or immediately above, the emergency door on both the inside and outside of the bus;

(B) Rear Push-Out Window:

(i) Rear push-out window shall be operable from inside or outside the bus;

(ii) Rear push-out window shall have a lifting assistance device that will aid in lifting and holding the rear emergency window open; and

(iii) If rear push-out window is lockable, provision must be made to prevent the bus from starting while the exit is locked. An audible warning which does not affect engine operation shall be provided to alert the driver should the exit be locked while the bus is in operation;

(C) Swing-Out Windows:

(i) Swing-out windows are windows along the side of the bus with a hinge that is opposite of the emergency release so that it "swings-out" when opened. Swing-out windows may be hinged along any edge of the window. If the hinge is installed vertically, it shall be installed on the forward side of the window;

(ii) Swing-out windows shall not be located above a stop arm;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(iii) Swing-out windows shall provide a minimum clear opening of 18" x 24"; and

(iv) Swing-out windows that are inoperable from the outside shall include the message "Operates From Inside Only" adjacent to the outside "Emergency Exit" labeling required under FVMSS No. 217;

(D) Roof Hatches:

(i) Roof hatch shall be waterproof and provide a minimum clear opening of 16" x 16";

(ii) When a release mechanism on the roof hatch is open and the vehicle's ignition is in the "on" position, a continuous warning shall be audible at the drivers seating position; and

(iii) Roof hatch may also serve as a roof ventilator; however, this shall not be used in place of the required static vent.

(c) Each bus shall be equipped with:

(A) A rear emergency exit door and one roof hatch; or

(B) A left side emergency exit door, a rear emergency push out window, and one roof hatch.

(d) Buses equipped with a rear emergency exit door and roof hatch (as in (c)(A) above) require additional emergency exits based on the maximum design passenger capacity listed below:

(A) Buses designed or equipped with a maximum design passenger capacity of 1 to 22 shall also provide:

(i) 2 swing-out windows placed at approximately the midpoint of the passenger compartment; or

(ii) Side windows with a 12 inch vertical drop.

(B) Buses designed or equipped with a maximum design passenger capacity of 23 to 45 shall also provide:

(i) Left side emergency door; or

(ii) 2 swing-out windows at approximately the midpoint of the passenger compartment.

(C) Buses designed or equipped with a maximum design passenger capacity of 46 and above shall also provide one additional roof hatch and:

(i) Left side emergency door; or

(ii) 4 swing-out windows at approximately the midpoint of the passenger compartment, but not immediately adjacent to each other.

(e) Buses equipped with a left side door and rear push-out window (as in (c)(B) above) require additional emergency exits based on the maximum design passenger capacity listed below:

(A) Buses designed or equipped with a maximum design passenger capacity of 1 to 22 shall also provide:

(i) 2 swing-out windows placed at approximately the midpoint of the passenger compartment; or

(ii) Side windows with a 12 inch vertical drop.

(B) Buses designed or equipped with a maximum design passenger capacity of 23 to 45 shall also provide two swing out windows.

(C) Buses designed or equipped with a maximum design passenger capacity of 46 and above shall also provide one additional roof hatch and:

(i) Right side emergency door; or

(ii) Four swing-out windows.

(f) Any additional emergency exits necessary to comply with the "additional emergency exit area" requirements of FMVSS No. 217 shall be made by the vehicle purchaser.

(g) Manufacturer shall identify all emergency exits used for calculations relating to this rule and FMVSS No. 217 compliance and list the daylight (clear) opening for each exit.

(h) All emergency exits shall be marked on the exterior perimeter with one inch retroreflective yellow material that meets the retroreflectivity requirements of section (53) of this rule. The color of the retroreflective material may be white for a roof hatch on a white roof.

(23) Engine Compartment Fire Suppression System: Automatic fire extinguisher systems may be installed in the engine compartment on buses. System shall have a visible gauge easily read from the driver's seat and a manual activation switch clearly identified and located in the driver's compartment. The entire system must be UL (Underwriters Laboratories) approved and assure protection from passenger compartment. Extinguisher system manual activation switch/control shall be safeguarded from accidental activation by a pull-pin or equivalent device. The extinguisher, if mounted in the passenger compartment, shall not be readily removable for use elsewhere, but dedicated for the engine compartment.

(24) Exhaust System:

(a) Exhaust pipe, muffler, and tailpipe shall be outside bus body compartment and attached to chassis;

(b) Tailpipe shall be constructed of a corrosion-resistant tubing material at least equal in strength and durability to 16 gauge steel tubing;

(c) Tailpipe shall meet one of the following options:

(A) Tailpipe may exit in the rear of the bus provided it:

(a) Does not create a hand hold.

(b) Does not create a step.

(c) Exhaust is defused away from passenger compartment.

(B) Tailpipe may extend to, but not beyond the body limits on the left side of the bus forward or rearward of the rear tires outboard of chassis centerline as described in sub-section (c)(C) of this section. If the tailpipe terminates forward of the rear tires it shall terminate not more than 24 inches or less than 6 inches forward of rear tires. No tailpipe shall terminate beneath any emergency exit or fuel fill receptacle;

(C) Tailpipe shall not exit the right side of the vehicle.

(d) Exhaust system shall be properly insulated from fuel tank and connections by securely attached metal shield at any point where it is 12 inches or less from tank or tank connections;

(e) Muffler shall be constructed of corrosion-resistant material.

(25) Fenders, Front:

(a) Total spread of outer edges of front fenders, measured at fender line, shall exceed total spread of front tires when front wheels are in straight-ahead position;

(b) When equipped, front fenders shall be properly braced and free from any body attachments.

(26) Floor:

(a) Floor in under seat area, including tops of wheel housing, driver's compartment and toe board, shall be covered with rubber floor covering or equivalent having minimum overall thickness of .125 inch:

(A) Floor covering in aisle shall be of aisle-type fire-resistant rubber or equivalent, wear-resistant and ribbed or equivalent non-slip material. Minimum overall thickness shall be .1875 inch measured from tops of ribs;

(B) Floor covering shall be permanently bonded to floor and shall not crack when subjected to sudden changes in temperature. Bonding or adhesive material shall be waterproof and shall be of type recommended by manufacturer of floor-covering material. All seams shall be sealed with waterproof sealer.

(b) Edge of floor at stepwell shall be treated as a step edge and shall be protected as required in section (59)(f)(C) of this rule;

(c) A vapor and liquid proof inspection plate provided for access to the fuel tank sending may be installed;

(d) A subfloor of 5-ply plywood, at least 5/8 inch nominal thickness or equivalent, shall be installed over the standard school bus floor. Plywood shall equal or exceed properties of exterior grade C-C plywood as specified in NIST PS 1. Floor shall be level from front to back and from side to side except for wheel housing, toe board and driver's seat platform areas;

(e) Plywood sub-floor may be replaced with an equivalent material provided it has equal or greater insulation R-value, sound abatement, deterioration-resistant, and moisture-resistant properties.

(27) Frame:

(a) Frame shall be of such design and strength characteristics as to correspond at least to standard practice, for trucks of same general load characteristics which are used for highway service;

(b) Any secondary manufacturer that modifies the original chassis frame shall guarantee the performance of workmanship and materials resulting from such modification;

(c) Any frame modification shall not be for the purpose of extending the wheelbase;

(d) Holes in top or bottom flanges of frame side rail shall not be permitted except as provided in original chassis frame. There shall be no welding to frame side rails except by manufacturer;

(e) Frame lengths shall be established in accordance with the design criteria for the complete vehicle.

(28) Fuel System:

(a) The following fuels may be used:

(A) Diesel, including biodiesel blends,

(B) Gasoline, including ethanol blends,

(C) Liquefied Petroleum Gas (LPG),

(D) Compressed Natural Gas (CNG),

(E) Dual fuel systems using any combination of (A) through (D)

above, provided that the system:

(i) Meets Environmental Protection Agency specifications;

(ii) Meets vehicle manufacture specifications; and

(iii) Has been approved by the Oregon Department of Education.

(F) Other fuels may be approved by the Oregon Department of Education upon request.

(b) Buses with a capacity of 57 or less shall be equipped with one or more fuel tanks that provide a combined liquid capacity of not less than 30 gallons.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) Buses with a capacity of 58 or more shall be equipped with one or more fuel tanks that provide a combined liquid capacity of not less than 60 gallons.

(d) The actual draw capacity of each fuel tank shall be a minimum of 83 percent of the tank capacity.

(e) No portion of the fuel system, which is located outside of the engine compartment, except the filler tube, shall extend above the top of the chassis frame rail. Fuel lines shall be mounted to obtain maximum possible protection from the chassis frame;

(f) Fuel filter with replaceable element shall be installed between fuel tank and engine;

(g) Tank(s) shall be mounted, filled and vented outside of body. The tank(s) location shall not permit fuel spillage to drip or drain on any portion of the exhaust system.

(i) Liquefied Petroleum Gas (LPG) systems shall comply with National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) 58, Liquefied Petroleum Gas Code.

(29) G.P.S. Navigation: A G.P.S. navigation unit may be installed. The unit shall not block any windows, gauges or indicator lights that are required. Portable units shall use an installed 12 volt power port.

(30) Governor:

(a) An electronic engine speed limiter shall be provided and set to limit engine speed, not to exceed the maximum revolutions per minute, as recommended by the engine manufacturer.

(b) When it is desired to limit road speed, a road-speed governor should be installed;

(31) Heaters:

(a) At least one heater of hot water type shall be required;

(b) If only one heater is used, it shall be of fresh-air or combination fresh-air and recirculation type;

(c) If more than one heater is used, additional heaters may be of recirculation air type;

(d) The heating system shall be capable of maintaining throughout the bus a temperature of not less than 50 degree Fahrenheit at average minimum January temperature as established by the National Weather Service, for the area in which the vehicle is to be operated;

(e) All heaters shall bear a name plate which shall indicate the heater rating in accordance with SBMTC Standard No. 001, said plate to be affixed by the heater manufacturer which shall constitute certification that the heater performance is as shown on the plate;

(f) Heater hoses shall be adequately supported to guard against excessive wear due to vibration. The hoses shall not dangle or rub against the chassis or sharp edges, and shall not interfere with or restrict the operation of any engine function. Heater hose shall conform to SAE J20c. Heater hoses on the interior of the bus shall be shielded to prevent scalding of the driver or passengers;

(g) Each hot water heater system installed by a body manufacturer shall include a shutoff valve installed in the pressure and return lines near the engine in an accessible location. There shall be a water flow regulating valve or airflow regulating door for the front heater installed for convenient operation by the driver while seated;

(h) Return heater lines on body company installed heaters shall be equipped with bleeder valves in an accessible location to allow for removal of heater line air;

(i) Auxiliary fuel-fired combustion heating systems may be installed, provided that:

(A) The auxiliary heating system shall be marked plainly with certification stating "Meets FMCSA Bus Heater Requirements"

(B) The auxiliary heating system shall utilize the same type of fuel as specified for the vehicle engine;

(C) The auxiliary heating system may be direct, hot air-type or may be connected to the engine coolant system;

(D) When connected to the engine coolant system, the auxiliary heating system may be used to preheat the engine coolant or preheat and add supplementary heat to the heating system, or both;

(E) Auxiliary heating systems shall be installed pursuant to the manufacturer's recommendations outside of the passenger compartment;

(F) Exhaust from auxiliary heating system shall not exit the right side of the bus;

(G) Installation of auxiliary heating system shall not compromise the requirements of Title 49 CFR Part 579.301 Fuel System Integrity

(j) Portable heaters shall not be used.

(32) Horn: Bus shall be equipped with horn or horns of standard make, each horn capable of producing complex sound in bands of audio frequencies between approximately 250 and 2,000 cycles per second and test per SAE Standard J-377.

(33) Identification:

(a) School buses shall bear the words "SCHOOL BUS" in black capital series letters at least eight inches high and of proportionate width on both front and rear of bus. Lettering shall be placed as high as possible without impairment of its visibility. The background shall be a maximum of 12 inches by 36 inches and shall be either:

(A) Retroreflective material that conforms to the retroreflectivity requirements of section (53); or

(B) Illuminated

(b) A warning sign shall be installed on the rear of all school buses calling attention to the school bus stop law. It shall be located in the most attainable vertical center of the rear emergency door, between the upper and lower windows. Signs on rear engine transit type buses shall be vertically centered and horizontally adjacent to the left and right upper brake lights. Sign shall be either:

(A) A decal with white retroreflectorized letters that conform to the retroreflective requirements listed in section (53) of this rule mounted on a flat black background. The word message shall be centered horizontally and vertically on the decal. The decal shall have the lettering shown below: UNLAWFUL TO PASS (3 inches in height) WHEN (1 inches in height) RED LIGHTS FLASH (3 inches in height) or:

(B) An electronic sign that displays warning messages to motorists. The electronic sign:

(i) Shall be sealed weather tight construction approximately 23½" X 8¾" X 1½" in size.

(ii) Shall be connected to the school bus safety lights;

(iii) Shall alternately flash the word message "CAUTION" and the word message "STOPPING" when the amber school bus safety lights are active. The letters in the word messages shall be amber with a minimum height of three inches;

(iv) Shall alternately flash the word message "STOP" and the word message "DO NOT PASS" when the red school bus lights are active. The letters in the word messages shall be red with a minimum of three inches;

(v) May flash or display the word message "CAUTION" or the word message "CAUTION STOPPING" when the hazard lights are activated. The letters in the word message shall be amber with a minimum height of three inches;

(vi) May flash or display the word message "CAUTION" when the backup lights are activated. The letters in the word message shall be amber with a minimum height of three inches;

(vii) Shall have a minimum viewing angle of 15 degrees on each side of the perpendicular axis;

(viii) Flashing messages may be controlled by the hazard light and school bus safety light flashers; and

(ix) Word and picture messages shall be clearly visible in direct sunlight from a distance of 500 ft along the axis of the vehicle;

(x) L.E.D. lights, if used, shall be of sufficient quantity to result in a clear and legible message.

(C) An electronic sign that displays warning messages to motorists may be placed on the front of the bus provided that:

(i) There is an electronic sign on the back of the bus per section (B) above;

(ii) The sign shall only be wired to the amber and red bus safety lights; and

(iii) The sign shall be mounted below the windshield, vertically centered.

(c) The name of the school district, private school, or parochial school, and contractor name if applicable, shall be placed on the left and right sides of the bus. The name shall appear in the area directly below the side windows and the letters and figures in the name shall not be less than four inches nor more than seven inches in height and of proportionate width;

(d) School team name or contractor's insignia may be placed above the side windows on the front portion of the bus body. All such lettering must be approved by the Pupil Transportation Section of the Oregon Department of Education;

(e) One bus identification number at least four inches in height shall be placed on a flat vertical surface on each side and on the front and rear of the bus. At least one complete bus identification number shall be visible from any point 50 feet from the bus. Type A-1 and A-2 bus numbers may be three inches in height.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(f) Only signs and lettering approved by state law or by the regulations of the Department of Education shall appear on the inside or outside of a school bus.

(g) Optional identification and lettering may be added to the vehicle as outlined below:

(i) Bus identification number on top of the bus. Numbers shall be black and a minimum of 12 inches high;

(ii) The location of the battery(ies) identified by the word "BATTERY" or "BATTERIES" in black letters on the battery compartment door in 2 inch capitol series letters;

(iii) Manufacture or dealer identification or logos. Placement must be approved by the Pupil Transportation Section of the Oregon Department of Education;

(iv) Identification of fuel type on or adjacent to the fuel filler opening in 2 inch black capitol series letters;

(v) Symbols, letters, or numbers not to exceed 64 square inches of total display near the entrance door, displaying information for identification by the students of the bus or route served;

(34) Inside Height:

(a) Clear inside body height for type A-1 buses shall be a minimum of 62 inches measured at any point on the longitudinal center line from the front vertical bow to the rear vertical bow.

(b) Clear inside body height for all other buses shall be a minimum of 72 inches, or more measured at any point on the longitudinal center line from front vertical bow to rear vertical bow.

(c) Height requirements do not apply to air conditioning units installed in the passenger compartment when installed to manufacture's specifications.

(35) Instruments, Gauges, and Indicators:

(a) Bus shall be equipped with following instruments and gauges. (Telltale warning lights in lieu of gauges are not acceptable except as noted):

(A) Speedometer;

(B) Odometer, which will give accrued mileage including tenths of miles;

(C) Voltmeter: A graduated charge and discharge ammeter compatible with generating capacities is permitted in lieu of or in addition to a voltmeter;

(D) Oil-pressure gauge;

(E) Water temperature gauge;

(F) Fuel gauge;

(G) High beam headlight indicator light;

(H) Air pressure or vacuum gauge according to brake system used: Light indicator or gauge required on vehicle equipped with hydraulic-over hydraulic brake system;

(I) Turn signal indicator light;

(J) Tachometer on type B, C, or D buses. Tachometer is optional on Type A buses;

(K) Glow plug indicator light, where appropriate.

(L) Fog light indicator, if fog lights are installed.

(M) Bus safety light pilot lamps / monitors: Each bus shall be equipped with 2 illuminated pilot lamps, one amber and one red. The placement of these lamps shall be in accordance with other telltale light placement requirements in 49 CFR 571.101 Controls and Displays. Pilot lamps shall provide an unmistakable indication that the flasher system is operating and an unmistakable indication if any circuit is broken, any lamp is not operating or the system is not otherwise functioning normally.

(b) All instruments shall be easily accessible for maintenance and repair;

(c) Above instruments and gauges shall be mounted on instrument panel in such a manner that each is clearly visible to and lies within a 140 degree field of vision for a 95th percentile female anthropomorphic dummy while in normal seated position;

(d) Instrument panel shall have lamps of sufficient candlepower to illuminate all instruments and gauges and shift selector indicator for automatic transmission.

(e) All control and indicator lights shall be dimmable except telltale lights. Control and indicator lights may be controlled by one or two dimmer switches.

(36) Insulation:

(a) Ceiling and walls shall be insulated with proper material to deaden sound and to reduce vibration to a minimum.

(b) Thermal insulation that is fire-resistant, non-water absorbing, UL approved, with a minimum R-value of 5.5 shall be installed in the ceiling and walls;

(c) If floor insulation is desired it shall be installed in accordance with the floor section of this rule.

(37) Interior:

(a) Interior of bus shall be free of all projections, including but not limited to luggage/book racks or attendant hand holds, that can cause injury in the event of a collision or rollover.

(b) The ceilings and walls shall have an inner lining.

(c) If ceiling is constructed with lap joints, forward panel shall be lapped by rear panel and exposed edges shall be beaded, hemmed, flanged or otherwise treated to minimize sharp edges;

(d) Buses shall assure noise level taken at the ear of the occupant nearest to the primary vehicle noise source shall not exceed 85 DBA when tested according to the Noise Test Procedure.

(38) Lamps and Signals:

(a) All lamps, signals, and reflectors shall comply with the design and performance requirements of FMVSS No. 108, Lamps, reflective devices, and associated equipment; Oregon Revised Statutes, Chapter 816, Vehicle Equipment: Lights; and Oregon Administrative rules, Chapter 735, Division 108, Lighting Equipment applicable to that type of lamp, signal or reflector.

(b) The following lights shall be installed with any additional requirements listed:

(A) Back-up lamps: The bus shall be equipped with 2 white rear back-up lamps that have a minimum illuminated area of 12 square inches. If back up lamps are placed in the same horizontal line as the tail-stop lamps and turn signal lamps, they shall be to the inside.

(B) Back-up warning alarm: An automatic audible alarm shall be installed on the rear of the bus that complies with SAE 994 Back-Up Alarm Standard specifying a minimum of 97±4db(A).

(C) Bus Safety Lights:

(i) Shall have red and amber flashing lights installed in accordance with SAE Standard J887. Each amber light shall be located near each red signal lamp, at the same level, but closer to the vertical centerline of the bus.

(ii) The area around each lens of the bus safety lights shall be painted black, extending outward a minimum of 3 inches where practicable.

(iii) The front bus safety lights shall be visible either directly or indirectly from inside the bus.

(iv) A separate fuse or circuit breaker, adequate to prevent damage to the system in the event of a short circuit, shall be provided between the power source and flasher system.

(v) The system shall be wired so that the system is activated by a manually operated spring-loaded switch that is clearly labeled and distinguishable from other switches.

(vi) A circuit master switch, if installed, shall be part of the activation switch outlined in (v) above.

(vii) Buses equipped with power-controlled entrance doors may have an additional spring loaded switch that will activate the red school bus safety lights prior to opening the entrance door or keep the red bus safety lights on after closing the entrance door.

(viii) The flashing mechanism shall be capable of carrying the full current load of the signal system.

(ix) Each lamp shall have a minimum illumination area of 38 square inches, flash a minimum of 60 times per minute, and be clearly visible in direct sunlight from a distance of 500ft along the axis of the vehicle.

(x) The Bus Safety Light System shall operate as follows:

(I) The bus safety light activation switch shall activate the amber safety lights when the entrance door is closed or red safety lights when the entrance door is open;

(II) When amber safety lights are activated, they shall automatically deactivate and the red safety lights shall automatically activate when the entrance door is opened;

(III) Once active, the red safety lights shall automatically deactivate when the entrance door is closed;

(IV) No bus safety lights shall activate when the entrance door is opened without first pressing the bus safety light activation switch;

(V) Buses equipped with power-controlled entrance doors may have an additional spring loaded switch that will activate the red school bus safety lights prior to opening the entrance door or keep the red bus safety lights on after closing the entrance door.

(VI) The amber bus safety lights and red bus safety lights shall not flash at the same time.

(VII) There shall be a canceling switch that will deactivate the bus safety lights and activation sequence if they are accidentally activated or if the driver discovers there is no need to make a stop after activating the switch.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

- (D) Clearance lamps;
- (E) Headlamps;
- (F) Identification Lamps;
- (G) Fog lamps may be installed:
  - (i) Fog lamps shall be mounted symmetrically around the front centerline of the bus, below the headlights not less than 12 inches no more than 30 inches above the ground;
  - (ii) Fog lamps shall be wired to a separate switch, pilot light and shall only come on when the low beam head lights are on.
- (H) Interior dome lamps: Interior lamps shall be provided which will adequately illuminate interior aisles. There shall be at least one interior lamp for every two rows of passenger seats. One or two rear dome lamp(s) shall be wired through a separate switch unless there are less than five rows of seats.
  - (I) Reflectors
  - (J) Side Marker Lamps;
  - (K) Stepwell Lamp: A stepwell lamp shall be provided which will adequately illuminate the entire stepwell. The lamp circuit shall be wired through the headlamp or clearance lamp system and shall be activated only when the door is opened.
  - (L) Strobe Lamp: A white flashing strobe lamp may be installed on the longitudinal center of the roof on the rear third of the bus, but no closer than one foot from the rear of the bus.
    - (i) The lamp shall have a single clear lens emitting light 360 degrees around its vertical axis and may not extend above the roof more than 6-1/2 inches, or exceed maximum legal vehicle height.
    - (ii) The lamp shall have a separate switch and be wired through the vehicle hazard lamp system. A pilot lamp to indicate when the light is in operation is required.
  - (F) Tail lamps & Stop lamps: Buses shall be equipped with four combination red tail-stop lamps.
    - (i) Two combination lamps with a minimum 38 square inches of illuminated area shall be mounted immediately inside of, and in line with, the rear turn signal lamps.
    - (ii) Two combination lamps with a minimum 12 square inches of illuminated area shall be placed on the rear of the bus between the beltline and the floor line. The horizontal centerline of the lights shall be a maximum of 12 inches above the floor line.
    - (iii) Stop lamps shall be activated by the service brakes and shall emit a steady light when illuminated.
  - (M) Turn Signals:
    - (i) Front signals shall either
      - (I) have a minimum illuminated area of 38 square inches; or
      - (II) be manufacturer's standard front turn signals for Type A.
    - (ii) Rear signals shall have a minimum illuminated area of 38 square inches and be placed as wide apart as practical with the horizontal centerline a maximum of 12 inches below the rear window.
      - (iii) Side signals: A turn signal lamp with a minimum of 4 candlepower shall be mounted on each side of the bus at approximately seat level height, located to the rear of the entrance door on the right side, and to the rear of the stop arm on the left side. Side turn signals should be in approximately the same location on each side of the bus. Additional side turn signals may be installed if the horizontal centerline is the same for all side turn signals, and additional signals are in the same approximate location on each side of the bus.
        - (iv) All turn signal lamps shall be amber in color.
        - (v) All turn signal lamps shall be independent units and connected to turn signal switch and four-way hazard warning switch that will cause all turn signals to flash simultaneously.
  - (39) Metal Treatment:
    - (a) All metal used in construction of bus body shall be zinc- or aluminum-coated or treated by equivalent process before bus is constructed. Included are such items as structural members, inside and outside panels and floor sills; excluded are such items as door handles, grab handles, interior decorative parts and other interior plated parts;
    - (b) All metal parts that will be painted shall be (in addition to above requirements) chemically cleaned, etched, zinc-phosphate coated and zinc-chromate or epoxy primed or conditioned by equivalent process;
    - (c) In providing for these requirements, particular attention shall be given lapped surfaces, welded connections of structural members, cut edges, punched or drilled hole areas in sheet metal, closed or box sections, un-vented or un-drained areas and surfaces subjected to abrasion during vehicle operation;

(d) As evidence that above requirements have been met, samples of materials and sections used in construction of bus shall be subjected to a cyclic corrosion testing as outlined in SAE J1563.

(40) Mirrors:

(a) Exterior Mirror Systems:

(A) Bus shall be equipped with mirror systems complying with 49 CFR Part 571, FMVSS 111 as adopted by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration for December 3, 1993 implementation, plus all applicable standards specified in this rule;

(B) Manufacturer shall certify compliance with mirror and direct/indirect visibility standards listed in the aforementioned FMVSS 111.

(b) Interior Mirror:

(A) Interior mirror shall be either laminated or tempered. Mirror shall be a minimum of 6" x 30". Mirror shall have rounded corners and protected edges;

(B) Type A buses shall be equipped with a mirror that is 6" x 16" or providing at least 96 square inches of flat mirror surface;

(C) Bus seller shall certify compliance with mirror and direct/indirect visibility standards listed in the aforementioned FMVSS 111 and provide a copy to used bus purchasers when certification is not available from manufacturer for all buses manufactured prior to January 1, 1994.

(41) Mounting:

(a) Chassis frame shall support rear body cross member. Bus body shall be attached to chassis frame at each main floor sill, except where chassis components interfere, in such a manner as to prevent shifting or separation of body from chassis under severe operating conditions;

(b) Body front shall be attached and sealed to chassis in such manner as to prevent entry of water, dust or fumes through joint between chassis cowl and body;

(c) When floor is provided by bus body manufacturer, adequate insulating padding shall be placed at all contact points between body and chassis frame. Insulating material shall be approximately 1/4-inch thick and shall be so attached as to prevent movement under severe operating conditions.

(42) Mud Flaps:

(a) Mud flaps or splash aprons are required for rear wheels on all school buses;

(b) Flaps shall be of heavy-duty rubberized material or equivalent and shall extend at least the full width of tires from a point above the center of the tires to a point not more than ten inches above the surface of the highway when such vehicle is empty.

(43) Oil Filter: Oil filter of replaceable element or cartridge type shall be provided and shall be connected by flexible oil lines if it is not built-in or engine mounted design. Oil filter shall have a capacity in accordance with the engine manufacturer's recommendation.

(44) Openings: All openings in floorboard or firewall between chassis and passenger-carrying compartment, such as for gearshift lever and parking brake lever, shall be sealed. Access plates to cover openings shall have adequate gaskets and be fastened securely.

(45) Overall Length: Maximum length for school buses shall be limited to 45 feet.

(46) Overall Width: Overall width of bus shall not exceed 8.5 feet. The mirrors may exceed the maximum allowable width by a distance of not greater than five inches on each side of the vehicle.

(47) Overhang: Body shall be so mounted as to comply with requirements described in chassis weight distribution standard. Body length extending beyond the rear axle shall not exceed three-fourths the length of the vehicle's wheel base per Oregon Vehicle Code.

(48) Passenger Load:

(a) Actual gross vehicle weight (GVW) is the sum of the chassis wet weight, plus the body weight, plus the driver's weight, plus total seated pupil weight:

(A) For purposes of calculation, the driver's weight is 250 pounds;

(B) For purposes of calculation, the pupil weight is 120 pounds per pupil.

(b) Actual gross vehicle weight (GVW) shall not exceed the chassis manufacturer's gross vehicle weight rating (GVWR) or gross axle weight rating (GAWR) for the chassis;

(c) Manufacturer's gross vehicle weight rating and other chassis information shall be furnished by the manufacturer, the manufacturer's representative or seller to the Oregon Department of Education on forms furnished by the department.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(49) Power and Gradeability: Gross vehicle weight (GVW) shall not exceed 165 pounds per net published horsepower of the engine at the manufacturer's recommended maximum number of revolutions per minute.

(50) Racks: The installation of any kind of exterior luggage rack outside the bus is prohibited. This does not prohibit enclosed luggage compartments.

(51) Radios and Public Address Systems:

(a) Buses shall be equipped with a public address system having interior and exterior speakers and a switch to separate inside and outside speaker systems.

(b) AM/FM/audio radio may be installed

(c) Interior speakers mounted in the ceiling panels or side panels shall be either flush mounted or may protrude not more than 1-1/2 inches if the speaker housing is free of any corners or projections which can cause injury by striking with the head or in the event of a collision or rollover. Speakers protruding more than 1-1/2 inches may be mounted in the vertical end panels above the windshield or back windows as long as speakers are free of corners or projections that could cause injury;

(d) Speakers shall not be placed above any aisle or within four feet of the driver's seat back in its rearmost upright position;

(52) Retarder System: Retarder system, if installed, shall maintain the speed of the fully loaded school bus at 19.0 MPH on a seven percent grade for 3.6 miles without incurring damage to the retarder or vehicle.

(53) Retroreflective Material and Placement:

(a) Red: when used or required, red retroreflective material shall meet or exceed ASDM D4956 standards for type V super high-intensity sheeting and have a coefficient of retroreflection equal to or greater than:

(A) 120 for an observation angle of 0.2 degrees and a light entrance angle of -4 degrees; and

(B) 72 for an observation angle of 0.2 degrees and a light entrance angle of +30 degrees; and

(C) 28 for an observation angle of 0.5 degrees and a light entrance angle of -4 degrees; and

(D) 13 for an observation angle of 0.5 degrees and a light entrance angle of +30 degrees;

(b) White: when used or required, white retroreflective material shall meet or exceed ASDM D4956 standards for type V super high-intensity sheeting and have a coefficient of retroreflection equal to or greater than:

(A) 700 for an observation angle of 0.2 degrees and a light entrance angle of -4 degrees; and

(B) 400 for an observation angle of 0.2 degrees and a light entrance angle of +30 degrees; and

(C) 160 for an observation angle of 0.5 degrees and a light entrance angle of -4 degrees; and

(D) 75 for an observation angle of 0.5 degrees and a light entrance angle of +30 degrees;

(E) Exception: white retroreflective material on the "unlawful to pass" sign shall meet or exceed ASDM D4956 standards for type I engineering grade sheeting and have a coefficient of retroreflection equal to or greater than:

(i) 70 for an observation angle of 0.2 degrees and a light entrance angle of -4 degrees; and

(ii) 30 for an observation angle of 0.2 degrees and a light entrance angle of +30 degrees; and

(iii) 30 for an observation angle of 0.5 degrees and a light entrance angle of -4 degrees; and

(iv) 15 for an observation angle of 0.5 degrees and a light entrance angle of +30 degrees;

(c) Yellow: when used or required, yellow retroreflective material shall meet or exceed ASDM D4956 standards for type V super high-intensity sheeting and have a coefficient of retroreflection equal to or greater than:

(A) 470 for an observation angle of 0.2 degrees and a light entrance angle of -4 degrees; and

(B) 270 for an observation angle of 0.2 degrees and a light entrance angle of +30 degrees; and

(C) 110 for an observation angle of 0.5 degrees and a light entrance angle of -4 degrees; and

(D) 51 for an observation angle of 0.5 degrees and a light entrance angle of +30 degrees;

(d) All retroreflective material shall maintain at least 50 percent of the coefficient of retroreflection for a minimum of six years.

(e) Bumpers may be marked diagonally 45 degrees down to centerline of pavement with two-inch wide strips of black retroreflective material.

(f) Rub Rails may have retroreflective black material.

(g) The rear of the bus body shall be marked with strips of retroreflective yellow material that is a minimum of 1 inch and a maximum of 2 inches to outline the perimeter of the back of the bus. The horizontal strips shall be placed above the rear windows, and immediately above the bumper. Both horizontal strips shall extend to each rear corner of the bus. The vertical strips shall connect the two horizontal strips.

(h) Each side of the bus shall be marked with yellow retroreflective material that extends for the entire length of the bus body and is either:

(A) A background for the name of the school district identification required in section (31) (c) of this rule that is not less than 6 inches and not more than 12 inches in width; or

(B) A two inch wide strip that is between the beltline and the floorline;

(i) Further retroreflective placement requirements can be found in: Emergency Exits (section 21 of this rule), Identification (section 31 of this rule), and Stop Arm (section 61 of this rule)

(54) Rub Rails:

(a) There shall be one rub rail on each side of bus at, or no more than 8 inches above, the seat cushion level which shall extend from rear side of entrance door completely around bus body (except for emergency door and access panel(s)) to point of curvature near outside cowling on left side;

(b) There shall be one rub rail located 10 inches or less above the floor line which shall cover same longitudinal area as upper rub rail, except at wheelhousing, and shall extend only to longitudinal tangent of right and left rear corners;

(c) All rub rails shall be attached at each body post and all other upright structural members;

(d) All rub rails shall be four inches or more in width, shall be of 16-gauge steel, suitable material of equivalent strength, and shall be constructed in corrugated or ribbed fashion;

(e) All rub rails shall be applied to the outside body or outside body posts. Pressed-in or snap-on rub rails do not satisfy this requirement. For buses using rear luggage or engine compartment, rub rails need not extend around rear corners.

(f) The bottom edge of the body side skirts shall be stiffened by application of a rub rail, or the edge may be stiffened by providing a flange or other stiffeners.

(55) Sanders and other traction assisting devices:

(a) Sanders may be installed. When installed, sanders shall:

(A) Be of hopper cartridge-valve type;

(B) Have metal hopper with all interior surfaces treated to prevent condensation of moisture;

(C) Be of at least 100 pound (grit) capacity;

(D) Have cover on filler opening of hopper, which screws into place, sealing unit airtight;

(E) Have discharge tubes extending to front of each rear wheel under fender;

(F) Have no-clogging discharge tubes with slush-proof, nonfreezing rubber nozzles;

(G) Be operated by electric switch with telltale light mounted on instrument panel;

(H) Be exclusively driver-controlled.

(b) Automatic traction chains may be installed.

(56) Seat Belts:

(a) Driver's seat belt: A Type 2 seat belt shall be provided for the driver, a driver's seat with an integrated Type 2 seat belt may be substituted. Each belt section shall be booted to keep belt and the button or buckle type latch off floor when not in use. Shoulder belt assemblies on Type B, C, and D buses shall provide for a height adjustment of at least four inches at its upper point of attachment to the bus. Belt shall be anchored or guided in a manner at the seat frame to prevent the driver from sliding sideways when belt is in use. Locking retractors may be either an ELR (Emergency Locking Retractor) or an ALR (Automatic Locking Retractor). All ALR equipped buses received after July 1, 1989, must include an approved anti-cinching device;

(b) Passenger seat belts:

(A) On buses manufactured prior to October 21, 2011 with a GVWR of more than 10,000 pounds, Type 1 seat belts or Type 2 seat belts may be installed. The attachments, belts and installation shall meet the requirements of:

(i) 49 CFR 571.208 Occupant Crash Protection, 49 CFR 581.209 Seat Belt Assemblies, and 49 CFR 571.210 Seat Belt Assembly Anchorages, as they apply to school buses with a GVWR of 10,000 pounds or less; or

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(ii) The voluntary Type 1 or Type 2 installation requirements outlined in 49 CFR 571.222 School Bus Passenger Seating and Crash Protection that take effect on October 21, 2011.

(B) On buses manufactured on or after October 21, 2011 with a GVWR of more than 10,000 pounds, Type 2 seat belts may be installed. Standards for voluntary installation of seat belts are outlined in 49 CFR 571.222 School Bus Passenger Seating and Crash Protection.

(C) On buses with a GVWR of 10,000 pounds or less, mandatory seat belt standards are outlined in 49 CFR 571.222 School Bus Passenger Seating and Crash Protection.

(57) Seats and Crash Barriers:

(a) Driver's seat shall be so located in relationship to the steering wheel that the driver may assume a natural position while driving, have a clear view of the road, and sufficient leg room to operate safely and effectively the brake and clutch pedals and accelerator without cramping or interference. Minimum distance between steering wheel and back rest of driver's seat shall be 11 inches. Driver's seat shall have a fore-and-aft adjustment of not less than four inches and shall on Type B, C, and D buses be capable of being raised and lowered at least three inches and shall be strongly attached to comply with acceptable installation procedures:

(A) For type B, C, and D buses, driver's seat shall be a high back (suspension) seat with a minimum seat back adjustment of 15 degrees, not requiring the use of tools, and with a head restraint to accommodate a 95th percentile female anthropomorphic dummy as defined in FMVSS 208. The driver's seat shall be secured with nuts, bolts, and washers or flanged-headed nuts. Type A buses may use manufacturer's standard driver's seat.

(B) Driver's seat positioning and range of adjustment shall be designed to accommodate comfortable actuation of the foot control pedal by 95 percent of the adult female population.

(b) Passenger Seats: In addition to the requirements of 49 CFR 571.222 School Bus Passenger Seating and Crash Protection, all passenger seats have the following requirements:

(A) All seats shall have minimum depth of 15 inches;

(B) In determining seating capacity of bus, the minimum allowable rump width shall be 13 inches;

(C) Seat, seat back cushion and crash barrier shall be covered with a material having a minimum 42-ounce finished weight, 54-inch width and finished vinyl coating of 1.06 broken twill, or other material with equal tensile strength, tear strength, seam strength, adhesion strength, resistance to abrasion, resistance to cold, and flex separation. Material shall meet or exceed the criteria contained in the School Bus Seat Upholstery Fire Block Test. (see Appendix);

(D) All seats shall be forward facing and shall be securely fastened to that part(s) of bus that support them with a nut-and-bolt type of fastener. Each seat leg shall be secured to the floor by a minimum of two nut-and-bolt type fasteners of at least grade 5 SAE strength. Sheet metal screw-type fasteners without a nut are not acceptable, except in areas where it is not possible to install a nut-and-bolt type fastener. Seats may be track mounted;

(E) If track mounted seating is installed, the manufacturer shall supply minimum and maximum seat spacing dimensions on a label permanently affixed to the bus to notify end user of seat installation requirements.

(F) No bus shall be equipped with jump seats or portable seats. Flip-up seats at side emergency exit doors are allowed;

(G) Seat spacing shall not be less than 24 inches between the front of the back of each seat and the rear of the back of the seat immediately ahead, measured at all points of the seat width. This shall be measured at cushion height on a plane parallel to the center line of the bus;

(58) Shock Absorbers: Bus shall be equipped with front and rear double-acting shock absorbers compatible with manufacturer's rated axle capacity at each wheel location.

(59) Side skirts shall be 2 inches above the horizontal line between the center of the front spindle to the center of the rear axle, or lower. Measurement shall apply to an unloaded school bus located on a flat, level surface.

(60) Springs:

(a) Capacity of springs or suspension assemblies shall be commensurate with chassis manufacturer's gross vehicle weight rating;

(b) If rear springs are used they shall be of progressive type. Front leaf springs shall have a stationary eye at one end and shall be protected by a wrapped leaf in addition to the main leaf.

(61) Steering Gear:

(a) Steering gear shall be approved by manufacturer and designed to assure safe and accurate performance when vehicle is operated with maximum load and at maximum speed;

(b) Steering mechanism that allows for external adjustment to correct for lost motion shall provide an accessible adjustment location;

(c) No changes shall be made in steering apparatus which are not approved by manufacturer;

(d) There shall be clearance of at least two inches between steering wheel and cowl, instrument panel, windshield, or any other surface;

(e) Power steering of the integral type is required;

(f) The steering system shall be designed to provide for means for lubrication of all wear-points, if wear points are not permanently lubricated.

(62) Steps:

(a) Service door entrance may be equipped with two-step or three-step stepwell. Risers in each case shall be approximately equal and shall not exceed 10 inches in height. When plywood floor is used on steel, differential may be increased by thickness of plywood used:

(A) First step at service door for type A-1, A-2, B, and C buses shall be not less than 10 inches and not more than 14 inches from ground, based on standard chassis specifications;

(B) Type D buses shall be equipped with a three-step stepwell. First step at service door shall not be less than 12 inches and not more than 16 inches from the ground based on standard chassis specifications.

(b) Steps shall be enclosed to prevent accumulation of ice and snow;

(c) Steps shall not protrude beyond side body line;

(d) Steps (if any) on Type A-1 and A-2 buses not manufactured originally as school buses may be chassis manufacturer's standard;

(e) At least one grab handle not less than 20 inches in length shall be provided to assist passengers during entry or egress in unobstructed locations inside doorway. Grab handle shall be designed, installed and maintained to minimize the opportunity for entanglement of passenger clothing and belongings.

(f) Step Treads:

(A) All steps, including floor line platform area, shall be covered with 3/16-inch rubber floor covering or other materials equal in wear resistance and abrasion resistance to top grade rubber;

(B) The step covering shall be permanently bonded to a durable backing material that is resistant;

(C) 3/16-inch ribbed step tread shall have a 1-1/2-inch white or yellow nosing as integral piece without any joint;

(D) Rubber portion of step treads shall have the following characteristics:

(i) Special compounding for good abrasion resistance and high coefficient of friction;

(ii) Flexibility so that it can be bent around a 1/2-inch mandrel both at 130 degrees F and 20 degrees F without breaking, cracking or crazing;

(iii) Show a durometer hardness 85 to 95.

(63) Steps, Windshield Access: There shall be at least one folding step or recessed foothold and suitably located handles on each side of the front of the body for easy accessibility for cleaning the windshield and lamps except when windshield and lamps are easily accessible from the ground. Standard does not apply to chassis not originally manufactured as school buses.

(64) Stop Signal Arms: Buses shall be equipped with stop signal arms mounted in accordance with the following requirements:

(a) Shall be installed on the left side of the bus; the vertical center of the stop blade shall be at least seven inches but not more than 14 inches below the window line, on the first body post to the rear of the driver or as close as practicable;

(b) A windguard shall be provided. All sheet metal parts shall be 16 gauge metal or heavier;

(c) All parts of the assembly that are not color specific in 49 CFR 571.131 School Pedestrian Safety Devices shall be painted black;

(d) Shall be equipped with two, four-inch, double faced alternating flashing red lamps to be mounted centered on the vertical centerline of the stop arm near the perimeter of the sign with a minimum of 12 inches spacing between lamp centers. Lamps shall be LED or strobe

(e) The stop arm and lamps shall be wired to the circuit of the flashing red warning lamps mounted on the front and rear of the bus and shall operate simultaneously with the red bus safety lamps. Override switch is prohibited;

(f) Shall be retroreflectorized on both sides meeting the Retroreflective Materials standard (50) of this rule.

(g) Shall be either air, vacuum, or electrically operated:

(A) Air operated stop arms:

(i) Air may be supplied from an air accessory tank or from the first (wet) tank;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(ii) If source is from the first (wet) tank a pressure protection valve shall be installed to prevent the tank air supply from falling below 60 pounds;

(iii) Stop arm system must have a pressure regulating valve;

(iv) All fittings shall be brass.

(B) Vacuum operated stop arms:

(i) Vacuum shall be supplied from a separate accessory tank. Tank shall be protected by a check valve;

(ii) All fittings shall be brass.

(65) Sun Visor: Interior adjustable sun visor, not less than 6 by 30 inches in size, shall be installed above windshield in position convenient for use by driver. If transparent visor is used, it shall be of such material so as not to prevent distinguishing between the colors of red and green traffic signals. Type A-1 and A-2 may be equipped with manufacturer's standard visor. Visor shall have protected edges.

(66) Throttle: The force required to operate the throttle shall not exceed 16 pounds throughout the full range of accelerator pedal travel.

(67) Tires and Rims:

(a) Tires and rims of proper size and tires with load rating commensurate with chassis manufacturer's gross vehicle weight rating shall be provided. The use of multi-piece rims and/or tube type tires shall not be permitted;

(b) All tires on new buses shall be of same size. Load range of tires shall meet or exceed the gross axle weight rating as required by 49 CFR 571.120 Tire Selection and Rims for Vehicles Other Than Passenger Cars, and as indicated on the manufacturers data plaque;

(c) If bus is equipped with spare tire and rim assembly, it shall be of the same size and load range as those mounted on the vehicle;

(d) A spare tire, when carried, shall be suitably mounted in an accessible location outside passenger compartment. Type A-1, and A-2 buses may have spare tire securely mounted in the rear corner of passenger compartment;

(e) Recapped tires are prohibited on the front of the bus;

(f) Regrooved tires are not permitted on any bus;

(g) Minimum tread depth on tires shall be:

(A) Front axle — 4/32 inch;

(B) Rear axle — 2/32 inch.

(h) Tread depth shall be measured as follows: The minimum depth in any two adjacent major grooves at three locations spaced approximately equally around the outside of the tire but not on wear indicators.

(68) Tool Compartment: A metal container of adequate strength and capacity for storage of tire chains, tow chains and such tools as may be necessary, may be provided. Container may be located inside or outside of passenger compartment. If inside, it shall have a cover and positive type latch to prevent opening in event of a severe impact or bus rollover, and shall be attached to the floor with a nut and bolt fastener, or may be securely attached to a seat frame under a seat. If tool compartment is outside, it shall be lockable.

(69) Tow Hooks:

Type C and D buses shall have two front and rear to hooks that have sufficient strength to pull or be pulled by another vehicle of the same GVWR. Tow hooks shall be installed in order that no permanent distortion to the body or chassis will result if the bus must be towed.

(70) Transmission:

(a) Transmission shall have an input torque capacity greater than maximum net torque developed by engine;

(b) When automatic or semi-automatic transmission is used, it shall provide for not less than three forward and one reverse speed. The shift selector, if applicable, shall provide a detent between each gear position when shift selector is not steering column mounted. Type C and D buses shall be equipped with a transmission temperature gauge;

(c) When manual transmission is used, second gear and higher shall be synchronized. A minimum of three forward speeds and one reverse shall be provided.

(d) Automatic transmissions incorporating a parking pawl shall have a transmission shifter interlock controlled by the application of the service brake to prohibit accidental engagement of the transmission. All non-park pawl transmissions shall incorporate a park brake interlock that requires the service brake to be applied to allow release of the parking brake.

(71) Trash container: When used, the trash container shall be secured by a holding device that is designed to prevent movement and to allow easy removal and replacement. It shall be installed in an accessible location in the driver's compartment, not obstruct passenger access to the entrance door and maintained to minimize the opportunity for entanglement of passenger clothing and belongings.

(72) Turning Radius:

(a) Chassis with a wheel base of 264 inches or less shall have a right and left turning radius of not more than 42 1/2 feet, curb to curb measurement;

(b) Chassis with a wheelbase of 265 inches or more shall have a right and left turning radius of not more than 44 1/2 feet, curb to curb measurement.

(73) Under carriage luggage compartments: Luggage compartments may be installed on the outside of the bus mounted below the floor level or in the rear of the bus. Access to compartments must be from the outside only. Compartment doors must have a positive retention to hold the doors open. Compartment doors must be lockable.

(74) Undercoating:

(a) The entire underside of the bus body, including floor sections, cross members and below floor-line side panels, shall be coated with rust-proofing material for which the material manufacturer has issued to the bus manufacturer a notarized certification that the materials meet or exceed all performance requirements of SAE J1959, Corrosion Preventive Compound, Underbody Vehicle Corrosion Protection;

(b) The undercoating material shall be applied to the material manufacturer's specifications, including application method and recommended film thickness, and shall show no evidence of voids in the cured film.

(c) The undercoating material shall not cover any exhaust components of the chassis.

(75) Ventilation:

(a) Body shall be equipped with suitable, controlled ventilating system of sufficient capacity to maintain proper quantity of air under operating conditions without opening of windows except in extremely warm weather;

(b) Static-type non-closable exhaust ventilation shall be installed in low-pressure area of roof.

(76) Video surveillance cameras may be mounted inside or on either the forward or rear bulkhead, or to the ceiling in compliance with the following requirements:

(a) Surface mounted camera/camera housing/recording devices shall be mounted as far forward (if forward mounted) or as far rearward (if rear mounted) as possible and directly above the center of the windshield/rear window, and shall not:

(A) Extend into the passenger compartment more than 9 inches;

(B) Extend(s) down from the ceiling more than five inches;

(C) Be more than five inches wide;

(D) Interfere with the rear view mirror or sun visor.

(b) Recording devices or their housings shall not be mounted overhead in the passenger compartment;

(c) Video cameras/housings (not recorders) may be mounted overhead in the passenger compartment, provided they are over the seating area, but not over any part of the aisle, all edges must be rounded and/or protected with enclosure of shatterproof construction;

(d) Flush mounted cameras/housings may be mounted in any position in the front or rear bulkhead or ceiling provided that any modification to the body, in order to achieve flush mounting does not compromise the structural integrity of the body panels;

(e) All video related devices mounted to the interior bus body shall be securely fastened in a manner to prevent separation from the bus body in the event of collision or mishap;

(f) Recording devices/housings must allow ready access for camera and video recording medium removal without the use of tools;

(g) All electrical connections shall be made with UL approved wiring and terminals, and protected by grommets any place it passes through metal panels. Any electrical load added to the vehicles electrical system shall be protected with appropriate over current device (fuse).

(77) Weight Distribution:

(a) Weight distribution of fully loaded bus on level surface shall be such as to not exceed the manufacturer's front gross axle weight rating and rear gross axle weight rating;

(b) Weight distribution of fully loaded bus on level surface shall be such that no more than 75 percent of gross vehicle weight is on rear tires and no more than 35 percent is on front tires. Type B and D buses with engine inside front of body and entrance door ahead of front wheels shall have no more than 75 percent of gross vehicle weight on rear tires, no more than 50 percent on front tires. If entrance door is behind front wheels, no more than 75 percent of gross vehicle weight shall be on rear tires, no more than 40 percent on front tires. With engine in rear, no more than 75 percent of gross vehicle weight shall be on rear tires, no more than 40 percent on front tires.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(78) Wheelhousing:

(a) The wheelhousing opening shall allow for easy tire removal and service;

(b) Wheelhousing shall be attached to floor sheets in such a manner as to prevent any dust, water or fumes from entering the body. Wheelhousing shall be constructed of 16-gauge steel, or other material of equal strength;

(c) The inside height of the wheelhousing above the floor line shall not exceed 12 inches;

(d) The wheelhousing shall provide clearance for installation and use of tire chains on single and dual (if so equipped) power-driving wheels;

(e) No part of a raised wheelhousing shall extend into the emergency door opening.

(79) Wind deflectors may be installed according to manufacturer's standards on the rear roof to deflect snow, dust and dirt from the rear window.

(80) Windshield and Windows:

(a) All glass in windshield, windows and doors shall be of approved safety glass so mounted that its identification mark is visible and of a quality to prevent distortion in any direction. All glazing materials shall be on the approved list of the Oregon Department of Motor Vehicles;

(b) Windshield shall be of safety plate glass AS-1 grade as specified by American National Standards Institute Safety Code Z26.1;

(c) Windshield glass may be heat absorbing and may have a horizontal gradient band starting slightly above the line of the operator's vision and gradually decreasing in light transmission to 20 percent or less at the top of the windshield in compliance with Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard 205;

(d) Glass in all side windows, doors and rear windows shall be AS-2 or better grade, as specified in ANSI Z26.1, or AS-4 coated abrasion resistant rigid plastic meeting requirements of Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard 205. Rigid plastic cannot be used for windshields or windows immediately to the left or right of the driver;

(e) Side windows shall conform to the following:

(A) Buses shall provide full drop or split sash windows which provide an unobstructed opening of at least 12 inches and not more than 14 inches in height, obtained by lowering the sash, and at least 22 inches in width. Type A-1 and A-2 buses may have a full drop or split sash windows which provide an unobstructed opening of at least 9 inches and not more than 13 inches in height, obtained by lowering the sash, and at least 22 inches in width, provided the bus has 2 swing-out windows. This requirement does not apply to emergency exit windows installed in compliance with subsection (22) of this rule

(B) One window on each side of the bus may be less than 22 inches in width. This window need not be split sash.

(C) Windows may be tinted.

(81) Windshield Washers: Bus shall be equipped with windshield washers.

581-053-0516

Retrofit Standards for School Buses

In addition to meeting the minimum standards in effect at the time of purchase, all school buses in use by a pupil transportation entity shall meet the following additional requirements:

(1) Body Fluid Kits: All school buses shall have body fluid kits that meet the requirements in OAR 581-053-0512

(2) Emergency Door and Exit Labeling:

(a) All emergency doors shall have the designation "Emergency Door" in letters at least six inches high, of a color that contrasts with its background. The designation shall be located at the top of, or directly above, the emergency door on both the inside and outside surfaces of the bus;

(b) All emergency window exits (swing-out windows and rear push-out windows) shall have the designation "Emergency Exit" in letters at least six inches high, of a color that contrasts with its background. The designation shall be located at the top of, or directly above, or at the bottom of the emergency window exit on both the inside and outside surfaces of the bus.

(3) Fog Lights: Regardless of the age of the vehicle, if a front fog light system is installed after January 21, 1997, then the system shall meet the following requirements:

(a) Fog lamps shall be mounted symmetrically around the front centerline of the bus, below the headlights not less than 12 inches no more than 30 inches above the ground;

(ii) Fog lamps shall be wired to a separate switch and shall only come on when the low beam head lights are on.

(iii) A steady burning indicator light shall be wired so it comes on when the fog lamps are turned on and mounted in a location readily visible to the driver

(d) Fog light systems installed on vehicles prior to January 21, 1997 are exempted from this regulation.

(4) Identification: The name of the school district, private school, or parochial school shall be placed on all school buses on both the left and right sides of the bus. The name shall appear in the area directly below the side windows and the letters and figures in the name shall not be less than four inches nor more than seven inches in height and of proportionate width.

(5) Stop Arm: All school buses shall have a stop arm that meets the requirements in OAR 581-053-0512 except that retroreflective material on the stop arm is not mandated on buses manufactured prior to October 21, 2011.

(6) Wheelchair Restraint Systems: All buses that are equipped to transport students in a wheel chair manufactured prior to September 3, 1993 shall be retrofitted to meet the following requirements:

(a) Each wheelchair location shall have not less than four wheelchair securement anchorages and shall be situated so that:

(A) A wheel chair can be secured in a forward-facing position; and

(B) The wheelchair can be secured by wheelchair securement device at two locations in the front and two locations in the rear.

(b) Each wheelchair location shall have:

(A) Not less than one anchorage for the upper end of the upper torso restraint; and

(B) Not less than two floor anchorages for wheelchair occupant pelvic and upper torso restraint.

(c) Wheelchair securement device and an occupant restraint may share a common anchorage.

(d) All components must conform to 49 CFR 571.222 School bus passenger seating and crash protection published in volume 58 of the Federal Register, September 3, 1993.

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and Adoption of Temporary Rules

(1) Except as provided in ORS 183.335(7) or (12) or 183.341, before permanently adopting, amending, or repealing an administrative rule, the Authority shall give notice of the intended action:

(a) To legislators specified in ORS 183.335(15) at least 49 days before the effective date of the rule;

(b) To persons on the interested parties lists described in section (2) of this rule for the pertinent OAR chapter or pertinent subtopics or programs within an OAR chapter at least 28 days before the effective date of the rule;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) In the Secretary of State's Bulletin referred to in ORS 183.360 at least 21 days before the effective date of the rule;

(d) To other persons, agencies, or organizations that the Authority is required to provide an opportunity to comment pursuant to state statute or federal law or as a requirement of receiving federal funding, at least 28 days before the effective date of the rule;

(e) To the Associated Press and the Capitol Press Room at least 28 days before the effective date of the rule; and

(f) In addition to the above, the Authority may send notice of intended action to other persons, agencies, or organizations that the Authority, in its discretion, believes to have an interest in the subject matter of the proposed rule at least 28 days before the effective date of the rule.

(2) Pursuant to ORS 183.335(8), the Authority shall maintain an interested parties list for each OAR chapter of rules for which the Authority has administrative responsibility, and an interested parties list for subtopics or programs within those chapters. A person, group, or entity that desires to be placed on the list to receive notices regarding proposed permanent adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule must make the request in writing or by electronic mail to the rules coordinator for the chapter. The request must include either a mailing address or an electronic mail address to which notices may be sent.

(3) Notices under this rule may be sent by hand delivery, state shuttle, postal mail, electronic mail, or facsimile. The Authority recognizes state shuttle as "mail" and may use this means to notify other state agencies.

(a) An email notification under section (1) of this rule may consist of any of the following:

(A) An email that attaches the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking or Notice of Proposed Rulemaking Hearing and Statement of Need and Fiscal Impact.

(B) An email that includes a link within the body of the email, allowing direct access online to the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking or Notice of Proposed Rulemaking Hearing and Statement of Need and Fiscal Impact.

(C) An email with specific instructions within the body of the email, usually including an electronic Universal Resource Locator (URL) address, to find the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking or Notice of Proposed Rulemaking Hearing and Statement of Need and Fiscal Impact.

(b) The Authority may use facsimile as an added means of notification, if necessary. Notification by facsimile under section (1) of this rule shall include the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking or Notice of Proposed Rulemaking Hearing and Statement of Need and Fiscal Impact, or specific instructions to locate these documents online.

(c) The Authority shall honor all written requests that notification be sent by postal mail instead of electronically if a mailing address is provided.

(4) If the Authority adopts or suspends a temporary rule, the Authority shall notify:

(a) Legislators specified in ORS 183.335(15);

(b) Persons on the interested parties list described in section (2) of this rule for the pertinent OAR chapter, subtopics, or programs within an OAR chapter;

(c) Other persons, agencies, or organizations that the Authority is required to notify pursuant to state statute or federal law or as a requirement of receiving federal funding; and

(d) The Associated Press and the Capitol Press Room; and

(e) In addition to the above, the Authority may send notice to other persons, agencies, or organizations that the Authority, in its discretion, believes to have an interest in the subject matter of the temporary rulemaking.

(5) In lieu of providing a copy of the rule or rules as proposed with the notice of intended action or notice concerning the adoption of a temporary rule, the Authority may state how and where a copy may be obtained on paper, by electronic mail, or from a specified web site.

Lay Representation in Contested Case Hearings

(1) Contested case hearings are conducted in accordance with the Attorney General's model rules at OAR 137-003-0501 to 0700. Subject to the approval of the Attorney General, an officer or employee of the Oregon Health Authority (Authority) is authorized to appear on behalf of the agency in the following types of hearings conducted by the Authority:

(a) Eligibility and termination determinations related to medical assistance coverage.

(b) Suspension, reduction, or denial of medical assistance services, prior authorization, or medical management decisions.

(c) Enrollment or disenrollment decisions related to managed care plans.

(d) Eligibility for or termination of health insurance premium assistance, or determination of subsidy levels.

(e) Provider issues including provider enrollment or denial of enrollment, overpayment determinations, audits, and sanctions.

(f) Other administrative actions including criminal background checks, hardship waivers related to medical assistance, client overpayments related to medical assistance.

(g) Oregon State Hospital's involuntary administration of a significant procedure to a patient or resident.

(2) The agency representative may not make legal argument on behalf of the agency.

(a) "Legal argument" includes arguments on:

(A) The jurisdiction of the agency to hear the contested case;

(B) The constitutionality of a statute or rule or the application of a constitutional requirement to an agency; and

(C) The application of court precedent to the facts of the particular contested case proceeding.

(b) "Legal argument" does not include presentation of motions, evidence, examination and cross-examination of witnesses or presentation of factual arguments or arguments on:

(A) The application of the statutes or rules to the facts in the contested case;

(B) Comparison of prior actions of the agency in handling similar situations;

(C) The literal meaning of the statutes or rules directly applicable to the issues in the contested case;

(D) The admissibility of evidence;

(E) The correctness of procedures being followed in the contested case hearing.

(3) When an agency officer or employee appears on behalf of the Authority, the administrative law judge shall advise the representative of the manner in which objections may be made and matters preserved for appeal. Such advice is of a procedural nature and does not change applicable law on waiver or the duty to make timely objection. Where such objections involve legal argument, the administrative law judge provide reasonable opportunity for the agency officer or employee to consult legal counsel and permit the Authority's legal counsel to file written legal argument within a reasonable time after the conclusion of the hearing.

Rules Adopted: 943-001-0020

Subject: HB 2009 (2009) created the Oregon Health Authority and transferred to the Authority the Department of Human Services' (Department) Divisions with respect to health and health care. Effective July 1, 2011 the Authority adopts these operational and programmatic rules to assure continuity as a part of the operational transfer from functions previously performed by the Department as a result of HB 2009(2009).

Among the functions transferred to the Authority is the medical assistance program. This rule provides for continuity in the relationship between the Authority and the Department when working together in the administration of the medical assistance program and that the Authority and Department shall work cooperatively in the administration of the medical assistance program, including making determinations of eligibility and service e need for medical assistance. This rule also explains that the Authority designated the Department as the operating agency for home and community-based waiver services and as an Organized Health Care Delivery System.

943-001-0020

Oregon Health Authority Shared Service and Cooperative Relationships with Department of Human Services

(1) The Oregon Health Authority (Authority) will cooperate and collaborate with the Department of Human Services (Department) in order to effectively coordinate services to individuals, families and communities and realize operational efficiencies in the administration of services that are shared between them ("shared services").

(2) For all the programs, functions, and duties with respect to health or health care (generally described in Oregon Laws 2009, chapter 595, section 19(1)(a)), transferred to the Authority from the Department ("transferred program") or for shared services, the Authority declares that:

(a) All transferred program rules shall remain in effect until superceded by adoption of Authority rules or adoption of rules by the Authority coordinating shared services with the Department.

(b) All transferred program administration, policies, and procedures remain in effect pending the completion of review and adoption by the Authority or adoption of such policies and procedures related to coordination of shared services with the Department.

(c) Any judicial or administrative action, proceeding, contested case hearing, or administrative review matters, or new action, proceeding, or matter involving or relating to the duties or powers transferred to the Authority are the responsibility of the Authority.

(d) Rights and obligations legally incurred under transferred program contracts, leases, and business transactions remain legally valid and are the responsibility of the Authority.

(e) Statutorily required filings, notices or service of papers, applications, notices or other documents to be mailed, provided to, or served on the Authority shall be mailed, provided to, or served on the Authority. Any notices required by ORS 113.145, 114.525 and 130.370 to be sent to the Authority may be consolidated with similar notices to the Department and sent to the Estate Administration Unit of the Department. Any notices required by ORS 416.530 to be sent to the Authority may be consolidated with similar notices to the Department and sent to the Personal Injury Lien Unit of the Department Any consolidated notice shall be considered notice to the Authority as long as the Authority's interest or claim in the matter is identified in the notice consistent with requirements in applicable statute.

(f) A reference to an Administrator or Assistant Director in any transferred program rule of the Authority means the Director of the Authority's program that is covered by that chapter of the Oregon Administrative Rules or the Authority's program specified in the rule.

(3) As the state Medicaid agency for the administration of funds from Titles XIX and XXI of the Social Security Act, the Authority is charged with the administration of the medical assistance program. The Authority is responsible for facilitating outreach and enrollment efforts to connect eligible individuals with all available publicly funded health programs.

(a) The Authority and the Department recognize that there are many points of interconnection between their programs and the individuals who receive services through these programs. In addition, there are areas of natural connection between the Authority and the Department based upon the former and current structures of the Department in the administration of the medical assistance program.

(b) The Authority shall work cooperatively with the Department in the administration of the medical assistance program and to facilitate the outreach and enrollment in the program, including making determinations of eligibility and service need for medical assistance. The Authority has designated the Department as the operating agency for home and community-based waiver services and as an Organized Health Care Delivery System.

(c) The Authority and the Department are authorized by state law to delegate to each other any duties, functions and powers that they deem necessary for the efficient and effective operation of their respective functions. The Authority and the Department will work together to adopt rules to assure that medical assistance eligibility requirements, procedures, and determinations are consistent across both agencies. The Authority has authorized the Department to determine medical eligibility for medical assistance. Where that responsibility is given to the Department under ORS Chapter 411, the Department has delegated to the Authority the duties, functions, and powers to make medical eligibility determinations in accordance with OAR 410-120-0006.

(d) Where statute establishes duties and functions of the Authority or the Department in relation to medical assistance as a public assistance program, the Authority and the Department shall cooperate in the effective administration of the program.

943-003-0010

Fees for Inspection or Copies of Public Records and Oregon Health Authority Publications; Other Services

(1) The Authority may charge a fee reasonably calculated to reimburse the Authority for the cost of making public records available:

(a) Costs include but are not limited to:

(A) The services and supplies used in making the records available;
(B) The time spent locating the requested records, reviewing the records, and redacting, or separating material exempt from disclosure;

(C) Supervising a person's inspection of original documents;

(D) Copying records;

(E) Certifying copies of records;

(F) Summarizing, compiling, or organizing the public records to meet the person's request;

(G) Searching for and reviewing records even if the records subsequently are determined to be exempt from disclosure;

(H) Postal and freight charges for shipping the copies of the public records, sent first class or bulk rate based on weight;

(I) Indirect costs or third party charges associated with copying and preparing the public records; and

(J) Costs associated with electronic retrieval of records.

(b) When a Department of Justice review of the records is requested by the Authority, the Authority may charge a fee equal to the Attorney General's charge for the time spent by the attorney reviewing the public records, redacting material from the records, and segregating the public records into exempt and nonexempt records. A fee will not be charged for the cost of time spent by an attorney in determining the application of the provisions of ORS 192.410 to 192.505;

(c) Staff time shall be calculated based on the hourly rate of pay and fringe benefits for the position of the person performing the work;

(d) The cost for publications shall be based on the actual costs of development, printing, and distribution, as determined by the Authority;

(e) The cost for a public records request requiring the Authority to access the State's mainframe computer system, may include but not be limited to costs for computer usage time, data transfer costs, disk work space costs, programming, and fixed portion costs for printing and tape drive usage.

(2) The Authority shall establish a list of fees used to charge requestors for the costs of preparing and making available public records for the following:

(a) Photocopies;

(b) Facsimile copies. The Authority may limit the transmission to thirty pages;

(c) Electronic copies, diskettes, DVDs, and other electronically generated materials. The Authority shall determine what electronic media for reproduction of computer records shall be used and whether the electronic media is to be provided by the Authority or the requestor;

(d) Audio or video cassettes;

(e) Publications.

(3) The Authority shall review the list of fees established in policy from time to time in order to assure that the fees reflect current Authority costs.

(4) No additional fee shall be charged for providing records or documents in an alternative format when required by the Americans with Disabilities Act.

(5) The Authority shall notify requestors of the estimated fees for making the public records available for inspection or for providing copies to the requestor. If the estimated fees exceed $25, the Authority shall provide written notice and will not act further to respond to the request until the requestor notifies the Authority, in writing, to proceed with making the records available:

(a) The Authority may require that all or a portion of the estimated fees be paid before the Authority may proceed with making the record available;

(b) The Authority may require that actual costs of making the record available be paid before the record is made available for inspection or copies provided.

(6) The Director or designee may reduce or waive fees when a determination is made that the waiver or reduction of fees is in the public interest because making the records available primarily benefits the general public. Factors that may be taken into account in making such a determination include, but are not limited to:

(a) The overall costs to be incurred by the Authority is negligible; or

(b) Supplying the requested records or documents is within the normal scope of Authority activity; or

(c) Requiring payment would cause extreme or undue financial hardship upon the requestor; or

(d) Discovery requests made as part of pending administrative, judicial, or arbitration proceedings.

(7) If the Authority denies an initial verbal request for waiver or reduction of fees, the requestor may submit a written request. If the Authority subsequently denies the written request for a waiver or reduction of fees, the requestor may petition the Attorney General for a review of the denial pursuant to the provisions of ORS 192.440(6) and 192.450.

943-005-0005

Definitions

The following definitions apply to OAR 943-005-0000 through 943-005-0030:

(1) "Alternate Format Communication" means printed material converted to a communication style that meets the accessibility needs of individuals with disabilities to achieve "effective communication." The types of alternate format that the Oregon Health Authority offers include but are not limited to: large print, Braille, audiotape, electronic format (E-mail attachment, diskette, or CD-ROM) and oral presentation.

(2) "Americans with Disabilities Act" is a comprehensive federal law passed in 1990, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in employment, programs and services provided by state and local governments; goods and services provided by private companies; commercial facilities; telecommunications and transportation. The ADA was crafted upon a body of existing legislation, particularly the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504), which states that no recipient of federal financial assistance may discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities solely because of a disability. (Public Law 101-336)

(3) "An Individual with a Disability" means an individual who:

(a) Has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities; or

(b) Has a record or history of such an impairment; or

(c) Is regarded as having such an impairment.

(4) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(5) "Auxiliary Aids or Services" mean devices or services that meet the accessibility needs of individuals with hearing, cognitive or speech impairments to achieve "effective communication." The types of auxiliary aids and services that the Authority offers include but are not limited to: qualified sign language interpreters, text telephone (TTYs), oral presentation, note takers and communication through computer keyboarding.

(6) "Direct threat" means a significant risk to the health or safety of others that cannot be eliminated or reduced to an accepted level through the provision of auxiliary aids and services or through reasonably modifying policies, practices or procedures, that person is not considered a qualified individual with a disability and may be excluded from Authority programs services or activities.

(7) "Federal Discrimination Complaint" means a complaint by a client, client applicant or specific class of individuals or their representative filed with a federal agency alleging an act of discrimination by a public entity.

(8) "Qualified Individual with a Disability" means an individual who can meet the essential eligibility requirements for the program, service or activity with or without reasonable modification of rules, policies or procedures, or the provision of auxiliary aids and services.

(9) "Reasonable Modifications" means a modification of policies, practices or procedures made to a program or service that allows an individual with a disability to participate equally in the program or benefit from the service.

(10) "Report of Discrimination" means a report filed with the Authority by a client, client applicant or specific class of individuals or their representative alleging an act of discrimination by the Authority or an Authority contractor, their agents or subcontractors, or a governmental entity under intergovernmental agreement with the Authority, regarding delivery of Authority services, programs or activities that are subject to Title II of the ADA or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.

Non-discrimination

(1) No qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be discriminated against, be excluded from participation in, or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the Authority. In providing any benefit or service, the Authority may not, directly or through contractual or other arrangements, on the basis of a disability deny a qualified individual the opportunity to participate in a service, program or activity or to receive the benefit or services offered. The Authority may not discriminate against a qualified individual with a disability, on the basis of disability in the granting of licenses and certificates.

(2) The Authority shall provide services, programs and activities in the most integrated setting appropriate to the needs of qualified individuals with disabilities within the context of the program being administered. For purposes of this section, "Integrated Setting" means a setting that enables individuals with disabilities to interact with non-disabled persons to the fullest extent possible.

(3) The Authority may not require a qualified individual with a disability to participate in services, programs, or activities that are separate or different, despite the existence of permissibly separate or different programs or activities.

(4) The Authority may not apply eligibility criteria or standards that screen out or tend to screen out an individual with a disability from fully and equally enjoying any goods or services, unless such criteria can be shown to be necessary for the provision of those goods and services or is determined by the Authority to be a legitimate safety requirement.

(5) The Authority shall ensure each program, service, or activity, including public meetings, hearings and events, when viewed in the entirety, is readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities. For purposes of this section, accessible means the ability to approach, enter, operate, participate in, or to use safely and with dignity by a person with a disability.

(6) Nothing in these rules prohibits the Authority from providing benefits or services to individuals with disabilities, or to a particular class of individuals with disabilities, beyond those required by law.

(7) Nothing in these rules requires an individual with a disability to accept a modification, service, opportunity, or benefit provided under these rules that the individual decides not to accept.

(8) The Authority shall provide auxiliary aids and services or alternate format communication to individuals with disabilities where necessary to ensure an equal opportunity to participate in, and enjoy the benefits of, a service, program or activity, unless it would result in a fundamental alteration of the program or an undue financial or administrative burden. Although the Authority shall determine which aid or format, if any, can be provided without fundamental alteration or undue burden, primary consideration should be given to the choice of the requestor.

(9) Except as authorized under specific programs, the Authority is not required to provide personal devices, individually prescribed devices, readers for personal use or study, or services of a personal nature.

(10) The Authority may not assess a charge or fee to an individual with a disability or any group of individuals with disabilities to cover the costs of measures required to provide the individual with the non-discriminatory treatment required by this policy.

(11) The Authority may not deny individuals the opportunity to participate on planning or advisory boards based on their disability.

(12) The Authority may not discriminate against individuals that do not have disabilities themselves, but have a known relationship or association with one or more individuals with disabilities.

(13) The Authority's determination of direct threat to the health and safety of others must be based on an individualized assessment relying on current medical evidence, or the best available objective evidence that shows:

(a) The nature, duration and severity of the risk,

(b) The probability that a potential injury will actually occur; and

(c) Whether reasonable modifications of policies, practices or procedures will lower or eliminate the risk.

Illegal Drug Use

(1) Except as provided in section (2) of this rule, OAR 943-005-0000 through 943-005-0030 does not prohibit discrimination against an individual based on that individual's current illegal use of drugs.

(2) The Authority may not deny health services or services provided in connection with drug rehabilitation to an individual on the basis of that individual's current use of drugs, if the individual is otherwise entitled to such services. However, a drug rehabilitation or treatment program may deny participation to individuals who engage in illegal use of drugs while they are in the program.

(3) A program may adopt reasonable policies related to drug testing that are designed to ensure that an individual who formerly engaged in the illegal use of drugs is not now engaging in the current illegal use of drugs.

(4) A client with a psychoactive substance use disorder resulting from current illegal use of drugs is not considered to have a disability under OAR 943-005-0000 through 943-005-0030 unless the client has a disability due to another condition.

Reasonable Modifications

(1) The Authority shall make reasonable modifications to policies, practices or procedures of a program, services or activity when the modifications are necessary to avoid discrimination based on disability unless the modification would fundamentally alter the nature of the program, service or activity or create an undue administrative or financial burden.

(2) When providing program access to a qualified individual with a disability would cause a fundamental alteration of the program, service or activity or undue financial or administrative burden, the Authority shall, to the extent the benefit of the program, service or activity can be achieved, provide program access to the point at which the program becomes fundamentally altered or experiences an undue burden.

(3) Alternate format communication is considered to be within the scope of reasonable modifications.

Requesting a Reasonable Modification

(1) To request a reasonable modification to an Authority program, service, or activity a client applicant, client or public member must submit to program staff a request for a reasonable modification to the applicable program. Requests may be made verbally or by completing the Request for Reasonable Modification form.

(2) Upon receipt of a request for modification the Authority shall:

(a) Determine whether additional documentation regarding the claimed disability is needed and request such documentation;

(b) Within 15 working days of the request or the receipt of additional medical documentation, whichever is later, provide to the requestor notification of approval, approval with alternative modifications or denial of the request for reasonable modification. All denials and approvals with alternative modifications that were not requested shall be clearly labeled a "Preliminary Notification Subject to Review."; and

(c) Ensure that approved modifications occur within a reasonable time.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(3) A "Reasonable Modification Team" (Team) means a two person team appointed by program managers that meet to evaluate a Request for Reasonable Modification decision that either denied the request or approved the request but with modifications other than those requested.

(4) This process may include additional communication with the individual requesting the reasonable modifications.

(5) Preliminary Notifications shall be reviewed by a Reasonable Modification Team, which shall notify the requestor of the final result of the review within 15 working days of the preliminary notification or within 15 working days following receipt of medical or other supporting documentation requested by the Team, whichever is later.

(6) An individual whose request for reasonable modification has been denied or approved with alternative modifications which the individual believes to be inadequate may file a Report of Discrimination with the Authority within 60 days of the final result or file a complaint with the appropriate federal regulatory agency within 180 days of the final result.

Report of Discrimination and Other Remedies Available for Alleged Discrimination

(1) A client or client applicant or specific class of individuals or their representative may file with the Authority a Report of Discrimination based on disability in the following circumstances:

(a) The final result under OAR 943-005-0025 for a Reasonable Modification Request was denied or was approved with an alternative to the requested modification which is believed to be inadequate;

(b) A request for auxiliary aids and services was denied or was approved with an alternative to the request which is believed to be inadequate;

(c) A request for an alternate format communication was denied or was approved with an alternative to the request which is believed to be inadequate;

(d) Inability to access facilities used for Authority programs;

(e) Denial of participation in Authority programs and services.

(2) A Report of Discrimination must be filed within 60 calendar days of the date of the alleged discrimination unless otherwise set forth in these rules

(3) A Report of Discrimination may be submitted verbally or on a Report of Discrimination Form available at any Authority office or by calling any Authority office.

(4) The claim of discrimination shall be investigated and shall include an interview with the complainant. At the conclusion of the investigation, a Letter of Determination shall be issued within 40 calendar days from the receipt of the Discrimination Report.

(5) An individual may appeal the Letter of Determination to the Civil Rights Review Board (CRRB) within 30 calendar days of receiving the Letter of Determination. CRRB means a panel of Authority employees appointed by the Director that reviews the decisions made by the Authority ADA Coordinator or the Civil Rights Investigator on discrimination complaints filed with the Authority.

(6) At the discretion of CRRB, this may include additional communication with the client.

(7) The remedies available under OAR 943-005-0000 through 943-005-0030 are available in addition to other remedies available under state or federal law or Oregon Administrative Rules, except that these remedies must be exhausted where exhaustion is a requirement of seeking remedies in another forum.

Criminal History Checks

Employees, volunteers, providers and contractors for the Oregon Health Authority (Authority) are subject to background checks and screening to determine if they have a history of criminal behavior such that they should not be allowed to work, volunteer, be employed, or otherwise perform in positions covered by these rules.

(1) The Authority adopts and incorporates by reference the rules established in: OAR 407-007-0000 to 0075 and 407-007-0090 to 0100 (Employees, Volunteers and Contractors); for those matters that involve employees, volunteers, or contractors of the Authority, except as otherwise provided in this rule.

(2) The Authority adopts and incorporates by reference the rules established in: 407-007-0200 to 0325; and 407-007-0335 to 0370 (Providers) for those matters that involve any entity or agency licensed, certified, registered, or otherwise regulated by the Authority, except as otherwise provided in this rule.

(3) Any reference to any rule from OAR 407-007-0000 to 407-007-0100 in rules or contracts of the Authority are deemed to be references to the requirements of this rule, and shall be construed to apply to employees, volunteers, providers, or contractors of the Authority.

(4) References in OAR 407-007-0000 to 407-007-0370 to the Department of Human Services (Department) or to the Oregon Health Authority shall be construed to be references to either or both agencies.

(5) The Authority authorizes the Department to act on its behalf in carrying out background checks and screening associated with the administration of programs or activities administered by the Authority.

(6) Appeals shall be conducted by the Authority pursuant to OAR 943-007-0500.

Contesting a Final Fitness Determination

(1) A final fitness determination of denied or approved with restrictions is considered an adverse outcome. An SI with an adverse outcome may contest that outcome.

(2) If an SI is denied, the SI may not work, volunteer, be employed, hold the position, provide services or be employed, licensed, certified, or registered or otherwise perform in positions covered by these rules. An SI appealing a restricted approval may only work under the terms of the restriction during the appeal.

(3) If an adverse outcome is changed at any time during the appeal process, the change does not guarantee employment or placement.

(4) An SI may challenge the accuracy or completeness of information provided by the OSP, the FBI, or other agencies reporting information to the Authority, by appealing to the entity providing the information. These challenges are not subject to the Authority's appeal process.

(5) The SI has the right to represent him or herself or have legal representation during the appeal process. The SI may not be represented by a lay person. In this rule, the term "SI" shall be considered to include the SI's legal representative.

(6) An SI who is already employed by the Authority at the time of the final fitness determination may appeal through applicable personnel rules, policies, and collective bargaining provisions. The SI's decision to do so is an election of remedies as to the rights of the SI with respect to the fitness determination and constitutes a waiver of the contested case process described in this rule.

(7) An SI may contest an adverse fitness determination by requesting a contested case hearing. The contested case hearing process is conducted

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

pursuant to ORS 183.411 to 183.497 and the Attorney General's Uniform and Model Rules of Procedure for the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH), OAR 137-003-0501 to 137-003-0700.

(a) To request a contested case hearing the SI must complete and sign the Hearing Request form.

(b) The completed and signed form must be received by the Authority within the following time lines:

(A) For Authority employees and SIs offered employment by the Authority, no later than 15 calendar days after the effective date of action listed on the notice of the fitness determination.

(B) For all other SIs, no later than 45 calendar days after the effective date of action listed on the notice of the fitness determination.

(c) If a request for hearing is not timely, the Authority shall determine, based on a written statement from the SI and available information, if there is good cause to proceed with the appeal.

(d) The Authority may refer an untimely request to OAH for a hearing on the issue of timeliness.

(8) The Authority may conduct an administrative review before referring the appeal to OAH.

(a) The SI must participate in the administrative review. Participation may include but is not limited to providing additional information or additional documents requested by the Authority within a specified amount of time.

(b) The administrative review is not open to the public.

(9) The Authority may conduct additional criminal records checks during the contested case hearing process to update or verify the SI's criminal records. If needed, the Authority may amend the notice of fitness determination during the appeal process while still maintaining the original hearing rights and deadlines.

(10) The Authority shall be represented by a hearing representative in contested case hearings. The Authority may also be represented by the Department of Justice's Office of the Attorney General.

(a) The Authority shall provide the administrative law judge and the SI a complete copy of available information used during the criminal records checks and fitness determinations. The notice of contested case and prehearing summary and all other documents shall be mailed by regular first class mail.

(b) SIs may not have access to confidential information contained in records collected or developed during the criminal records check process without a protective order limiting further disclosure of the information.

(A) A protective order issued pursuant to this section must be issued by an administrative law judge as provided for in OAR 137-003-0570(8) or by a court of law.

(B) In conjunction with a protective order issued pursuant to this section, individually identifying information relating to clients, witnesses, and other persons identified in abuse investigation reports or other records collected or developed during the criminal records check process shall be redacted prior to disclosure, except for the information identifying the SI.

(c) The contested case hearing is not open to the public.

(d) The administrative law judge shall make a new fitness determination based on the evidence and the contested case hearing record.

(e) The only remedy that an administrative law judge may grant is a fitness determination that the SI is approved, approved with restrictions (if allowed by rule), or denied. Under no circumstances shall the Authority or Qualified Entity (QE) be required to place an SI in any position, nor shall the Authority or QE be required to accept services or enter into a contractual agreement with an SI.

(f) For providers, a hearing pursuant to these rules may be conducted in conjunction with a licensure or certification hearing for the SI.

(11) The result of an appeal is a final order.

(a) The notice of fitness determination becomes the final order as if the SI never requested a hearing in the following situations:

(A) The SI failed to request a hearing in the time allotted in this rule. No other document shall be issued after the notice of fitness determination.

(B) The SI withdraws the request for hearing at any time during the appeal process.

(b) The Authority may make an informal disposition based on the administrative review. The Authority shall issue a final order and new notice of fitness determination. If the resulting fitness determination is an adverse outcome, the appeal shall proceed to a contested case hearing.

(c) The Authority shall issue a dismissal order in the following situations:

(A) The SI may withdraw a hearing request verbally or in writing at any time before the issuance of a final order. A dismissal order due to the withdrawal is effective the date the withdrawal is received by the Authority or OAH. The SI may cancel the withdrawal in writing within 14 calendar days after the date of withdrawal.

(B) The Authority shall dismiss a hearing request when the SI fails to participate in the administrative review. Failure to participate in the administrative review shall result in termination of hearing rights. The order is effective on the due date for participation in the administrative review. The Authority shall review a good cause request to reinstate hearing rights if received in writing by the Authority within 14 calendar days.

(C) The Authority shall dismiss a hearing request when the SI fails to appear at the time and place specified for the contested case hearing. The order is effective on the date scheduled for the hearing. The Authority shall review a good cause request to reinstate hearing rights if received in writing by the Authority within 14 calendar days of the order.

(d) After a hearing, the administrative law judge shall issue a proposed and final order.

(A) If no written exceptions are received by the Authority within 14 calendar days after the service of the proposed and final order, the proposed and final order shall become the final order.

(B) If timely written exceptions to the proposed and final order are received by the Authority, the Authority's Director or designee shall consider the exceptions and serve a final order, or request a written response or a revised proposed and final order from the administrative law judge.

(12) Final orders, including dismissal and default orders, are subject to reconsideration or rehearing petitions within 60 calendar days after the final order is served, pursuant to OAR 137-003-0675.

(13) The Authority may provide the QE's AD with the results of the appeal.

Definitions

The following definitions apply to OAR 943-012-0005 through 943-012-0025:

(1) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(2) "Division" means every individual organizational unit within the Authority.

(3) "Employee" means individuals acting in the course and scope of their duties who are on the State of Oregon payroll, contract employees, employees of temporary service agencies, and volunteers. It also includes employees of other government or social service agencies who, at the time they are accompanying an Authority employee on Authority business, are the target of conduct described in OAR 943-012-0010.

(4) "Premises" means any land, building, facility, and other property owned, leased, or in the possession of, and used or controlled by the Authority. When the Authority occupies space in a building occupied by multiple tenants, the definition includes the common areas of the building used by all tenants such as, but not limited to, restrooms, hallways, and food service areas.

(5) "Restriction of Access" means the Authority has limited an individual's access to specific Authority premises, employees, or methods of communication.

(6) "Weapon" includes, but is not limited to:

(a) A dangerous or deadly weapon as defined in ORS 161.015;

(b) Any other object or substance used in a manner that compromises the safety of Authority employees or visitors on Authority premises;

(c) An imitation or replica of any of the above.

Prohibited Conduct

(1) Conduct that may result in restriction of access includes, but is not limited to the following:

- (a) Causing or threatening to cause physical injury to Authority employees or visitors;
- (b) Engaging in actions which compromise the safety or health of Authority employees or visitors;
- (c) Causing or threatening to cause harm to the family or property of an employee or visitors through written, electronic, or verbal communication;
- (d) Causing or threatening to cause damage to Authority premises;
- (e) Bringing a deadly or dangerous weapon onto the Authority's premises, unless authorized by ORS chapter 166 to carry a handgun;
- (f) Displaying, attempting, or threatening to use any weapon, on or off Authority premises, that compromises the safety of Authority employees or visitors;
- (g) Engaging in harassing conduct as defined in ORS 166.065.
- (h) Engaging in telephonic harassment as defined in ORS 166.090.

(2) The conduct listed in section (1) is also prohibited if it occurs during employees' off-work hours and off Authority premises and the prohibited conduct is related to the employee's work with the Authority.

(3) Prior to issuing a restriction of access notice, the Authority shall make an individualized assessment as to whether the conduct listed in section (1) of this rule is a result of a disability of which the Authority has knowledge and whether the conduct is a "direct threat" to others as described in OAR 943-005-0000 through 943-005-0030. If the Authority determines the disabled individual's conduct is not a direct threat, the Authority shall explore the possibility of a reasonable accommodation to mitigate the safety risk.

(4) The prohibitions on conduct in this rule do not apply to individuals who are residents of an Authority-operated residential facility.

943-012-0020

Notification

(1) If the Authority determines that it is necessary to restrict access or the methods of communication because of prohibited conduct, the individual will be provided written notification, signed by the assistant director or deputy assistant director of the affected division, and sent by certified mail or other traceable means. The notice shall describe the following:

- (a) Conduct giving rise to the restrictions;
- (b) The specific premises or parts of premises from which the individual is excluded; or the forms of communication which are restricted;
- (c) The alternate method by which services may be obtained;
- (d) Contact information for services or appointment scheduling;
- (e) The availability of the review process, including notification that individuals with disabilities are entitled to request modification;
- (f) The potential criminal consequences for violating the notice of restriction of access; and

- (g) The law enforcement agency being notified.
- (2) The notice shall be effective upon issuance.
- (3) Restrictions on access to Authority premises or methods of communication shall remain in place until the Authority determines the individual no longer poses a threat and issues an official notification of removal.

Authority Review

(1) The Authority shall establish an internal review process to ensure that a notice of restriction of access is warranted prior to issuing a written notice of restriction of access.

(2) Following the Authority's issuance of a notice of restriction of access, the recipient of the notice may request review of the Authority's determination. The request must be submitted to the office of the Director of the Authority. The request must be in writing and submitted, by mail or personal delivery, within 15 business days of the date of issuance of the notice of restriction of access. If the request is submitted by mail, it must be postmarked within 15 business days. No particular format is required for the request for review; however, the individual should include specific grounds for requesting the review.

(3) Upon receipt of a request for review, the Director or an assistant director shall review the request and issue a written decision. The review may include an informal conference. The decision shall be issued within ten days of receipt of the request for review.

(4) The Authority's decision is final.

(5) If the Authority's decision rules in favor of the individual, the restricted individual's access restriction shall be immediately lifted. If the decision is unfavorable to the restricted individual, the restricted individual may seek further review after six months have lapsed since the date of issuance by following the process described in this rule.

943-014-0000

Definitions

The following definitions apply to OAR 943-014-0000 to 943-014-0070:

(1) "Administrative Hearing" means an oral proceeding before an administrative law judge in a contested case hearing.

(2) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(3) "Authority Workforce" means employees, volunteers, trainees, and other persons whose conduct, in the performance of work for the Authority, is under the direction and control of the Authority, whether or not they are paid by the Authority.

(4) "Authorization" means permission from an individual or his or her personal representative giving the Authority, and others named on the form, authorization to obtain, release or use information about the individual from third parties for specified purposes or to disclose information to a third party specified by the individual.

(5) "Business Associate" means an individual or entity performing any function or activity on behalf of the Authority involving the use or disclosure of protected health information (PHI) and is not a member of the Authority's workforce.

(a) "Function or activity" includes but is not limited to program administration, claims processing or administration, data analysis, utilization review, quality assurance, billing, legal, actuarial, accounting, consulting, data processing, management, administrative, accreditation, financial services, and similar services for which the Authority may contract or obtain by interagency agreement, if access to PHI is involved.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Business associates do not include licensees or providers unless the licensee or provider also performs some function or activity on behalf of the Authority.

(6) "Client" means an individual who requests or receives program benefits or direct services from the Authority, including but not limited to services requested in connection with the administration of the medical assistance program, and individuals who apply for or are admitted to a state hospital or who are committed to the custody of the Authority.

(7) "Client Information" means personal information relating to a client that the Authority may maintain in one or more locations and in various forms, reports, or documents, or stored or transmitted by electronic media.

(8) "Collect" or "Collection" means the assembling of personal information through interviews, forms, reports, or other information sources.

(9) "Contract" means a written agreement between the Authority and a person or entity setting forth the rights and obligations of the parties including but not limited to contracts, licenses, agreements, interagency agreements, and intergovernmental agreements.

(10) "Correctional Institution" means any penal or correctional facility, jail, reformatory, detention center, work farm, halfway house, or residential community program center operated by contract with the federal government, a state, or an Indian tribe for the confinement or rehabilitation of persons charged with or convicted of a criminal offense or other persons held in lawful custody. "Other persons held in lawful custody" include juvenile offenders, adjudicated delinquents, aliens detained awaiting deportation, witnesses, or others awaiting charges or trial.

(11) "Corrective Action" means an action that a business associate must take to remedy a breach or violation of the business associate's obligations under the business associate's contractual requirement, including but not limited to reasonable steps that must be taken to cure the breach or end the violation.

(12) "Covered Entity" means health plans, health care clearinghouses, and health care providers who transmit any health information in electronic form in connection with a transaction that is subject to federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) requirements, as those terms are defined and used in the HIPAA regulations, 45 CFR parts 160 and 164.

(13) "De-identified Data" means client information from which the Authority or other entity has deleted, redacted, or blocked identifiers so the remaining information cannot reasonably be used to identify an individual.

(14) "Department" means the Department of Human Services.

(15) "Disclose" means the release, transfer, relay, provision of access to, or conveying of client information to any individual or entity outside the Authority.

(16) "Health Care" means care, services, or supplies related to the health of an individual. Health care includes but is not limited to preventive, diagnostic, therapeutic, rehabilitative, maintenance, palliative care, counseling services, assessment, or procedures with respect to the physical or mental condition, or functional status of an individual, or that affects the structure or function of the body and the sale or dispensing of a drug, device, equipment, or other prescribed item.

(17) "Health Care Operations" means any activities of the Authority to the extent that the activities are related to health care, Medicaid, or any other health care related programs, services, or activities administered by the Authority and include:

(a) Conducting quality assessment and improvement activities, including income evaluation and development of clinical guidelines;

(b) Population-based activities related to improving health or reducing health care costs, protocol development, case management and care coordination, contacting health care providers and patients with information about treatment alternatives; and related functions that do not include treatment;

(c) Reviewing the competence of qualifications of health care professionals, evaluating practitioner, provider, and health plan performance; and conducting training programs in which students and trainees in areas of health care learn under supervision to practice or improve their skills, accreditation, certification, licensing, or credentialing activities;

(d) Underwriting, premium rating, and other activities relating to the creation, renewal, or replacement of a contract for Medicaid or health care related services;

(e) Conducting or arranging for medical review, legal services, and auditing functions, including fraud and abuse detection and compliance programs, and disclosure to the Medicaid Fraud Unit pursuant to 43 CFR part 455.21;

(f) Business planning and development, such as conducting cost-management and planning-related analyses related to managing and operating the Authority, including administration, development, or improvement of methods of payments or health care coverage; and

(g) Business management and general administrative activities of the Authority, including but not limited to:

(A) Management activities relating to implementation of and compliance with the requirements of HIPAA;

(B) Customer service, including providing data analysis;

(C) Resolution of internal grievances, including administrative hearings and the resolution of disputes from patients or enrollees regarding the quality of care and eligibility for services; and

(D) Creating de-identified data or a limited data set.

(18) "Health Oversight Agency" means an agency or authority of the federal government, a state, territory, political subdivision of a state or territory, Indian tribe, or a person or entity acting under a grant of authority from or by contract with the public agency, including employees or agents of the public agency or its contractors or grantees that is authorized by law to oversee the health care system or government programs in which health information is necessary to determine eligibility or compliance, or to enforce civil rights laws for which health information is relevant. When performing these functions, the Authority acts as a health oversight agency for the purposes of these rules.

(19) "HIPAA" means the Title II, Subtitle F of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, 42 USC 1320d et seq, and the federal regulations adopted to implement the Act.

(20) "Individual" means the person who is the subject of information collected, used, or disclosed by the Authority.

(21) "Individually Identifying Information" means any single item or compilation of information or data that indicates or reveals the identity of an individual, either specifically (such as the individual's name or social security number), or from which the individual's identity can be reasonably ascertained.

(22) "Information" means personal information relating to an individual, a participant, or an Authority client.

(23) "Inmate" means a person incarcerated in or otherwise confined in a correctional institution. An individual is no longer an inmate when released on parole, probation, supervised release, or is otherwise no longer in custody.

(24) "Institutional Review Board (IRB)" means a specially constituted review body established or designated by an entity in accordance with 45 CFR part 46 to protect the welfare of human subjects recruited to participate in biomedical or behavioral research. The IRB must be registered with the Office for Human Research Protection.

(25) "Law Enforcement Official" means an officer or employee of any agency or authority of the federal government, a state, territory, political subdivision of a state or territory, or Indian tribe who is empowered by law to:

(a) Investigate and conduct an official inquiry into a potential violation of law; or

(b) Prosecute or otherwise conduct a criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding arising from an alleged violation of law.

(26) "Licensee" means a person or entity that applies for or receives a license, certificate, registration, or similar authority from the Authority to perform or conduct a service, activity, or function.

(27) "Minimum Necessary" means the least amount of information, when using or disclosing confidential client information, that is needed to accomplish the intended purpose of the use, disclosure, or request.

(28) "Participant" means individual's participating in Authority population-based services, programs, and activities that serve the general population, but who do not receive program benefits or direct services received by a client. Examples of participants include but are not limited to an individual whose birth certificate is recorded with Department of Vital Statistics, the subjects of public health studies, immunization or cancer registries, newborn screening, and other public health services, and individuals who contact Authority hotlines or the ombudsman for general public information services.

(29) "Payment" means any activities undertaken by the Authority related to a client to whom health care is provided in order to:

(a) Obtain premiums or to determine or fulfill its responsibility for coverage and provision of benefits under the Medicaid program or other publicly funded health care services; and

(b) Obtain or provide reimbursement for the provision of health care.

(30) Payment activities mean:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) Determinations of eligibility or coverage, including coordination of benefits or the determination of cost sharing amounts, and adjudication of health benefit or health care claims;

(b) Risk adjusting amounts due which are based on enrollee health status and demographic characteristics;

(c) Billing, claims management, collection activities, obtaining payment under a contract for reinsurance, and related health care data processing;

(d) Review of health care services with respect to medical necessity, coverage under a health plan, appropriateness of care, or justification of charges;

(e) Utilization review activities, including pre-certification and pre-authorization of services, concurrent and retrospective review of services; and

(f) Disclosure to consumer reporting agencies relating to collection of premiums or reimbursement including name and address, date of birth, payment history, account number, and name and address of the health care provider or health plan.

(31) "Personal Representative" means a person who has authority to act on behalf of an individual in making decisions related to health care.

(32) "Protected Health Information (PHI)" means any individually identifiable health information, whether oral or recorded in any form or medium, that is created or received by a health care provider, health plan, public health authority, employer, life insurer, school or university, or health care clearinghouse and relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past, present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual. Any data transmitted or maintained in any other form or medium by covered entities, including paper records, fax documents, all oral communications, or any other form, such as screen prints of eligibility information, printed e-mails containing identified individual's health information, claim or billing information, or hard copy birth or death certificates. PHI does not include school records that are subject to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and employment records held in the Authority's role as an employer.

(33) "Protected Information" means any participant or client information that the Authority may have in its records or files that must be safeguarded pursuant to Authority policy. This includes but is not limited to individually identifying information.

(34) "Provider" means a person or entity that may seek reimbursement from the Authority as a provider of services to Authority clients pursuant to a contract. For purposes of these rules, reimbursement may be requested on the basis of claims or encounters or other means of requesting payment.

(35) "Psychotherapy Notes" mean notes recorded in any medium by a health care provider who is a mental health professional documenting or analyzing the contents of conversations during a private counseling session, or group, joint, or family counseling session, when the notes are separated from the rest of the individual's record. Psychotherapy notes do not include medication prescription and monitoring, counseling session start and stop times, the modalities and frequencies of treatment furnished, results of clinical tests, and any summary of diagnosis, functional status, treatment plan, symptoms, prognosis, or progress to date.

(36) "Public Health Agency" means a public agency, including the Authority, or a person or entity acting under a grant of authority from or by contract with the Authority or public agency that performs or conducts one or more of the following essential functions that characterize public health programs, services, or activities:

(a) Monitor health status to identify community health problems;

(b) Diagnose and investigate health problems and health hazards in the community;

(A) Inform, educate, and empower people about health issues;

(B) Mobilize community partnerships to identify and solve health problems;

(C) Develop policies and plans that support individual and community health efforts;

(D) Enforce laws and regulations that protect health and ensure safety;

(E) Direct individuals to needed personal health services and assure the provision of health care when otherwise unavailable;

(F) Ensure a competent public health and personal health care workforce;

(G) Evaluate the effectiveness, accessibility, and quality of personal and population-based health services; and

(H) Perform research for new insights and innovative solutions to health problems.

(37) "Public Health Authority" means an agency or authority of the federal government, a state, territory, political subdivision of a state or territory, Indian tribe, or a person or entity acting under a grant of authority from or by contract with the public agency, including the employees or agents of the public agency, or its contractors or persons or entities to whom it has granted authority, that is responsible for public health matters as part of its official mandate. When performing functions as a public health agency, the Authority acts as a public health authority for purposes of these rules.

(38) "Re-disclosure" means the disclosure of information to a person, an Authority program, an Authority subcontracted entity, or other entity or person other than what was originally authorized.

(39) "Research" means systematic investigation, including research development, testing, and evaluation, designed to develop or contribute to generalized knowledge.

(40) "Required by Law" means a duty or responsibility that federal or state law specifies that a person or entity must perform or exercise. Required by law includes but is not limited to court orders and court-ordered warrants; subpoenas or summons issued by a court, grand jury, a governmental or tribal inspector general, or an administrative body authorized to require the production of information; a civil or an authorized investigative demand; Medicare conditions of participation with respect to health care providers participating in the program; and statutes or rules that require the production of information, including statutes or rules that require such information if payment is sought under a government program providing public benefits.

(41) "Treatment" means the provision, coordination, or management of health care and related services by one or more health care providers, including the coordination or management of health care by a health care provider with a third party, consultation between health care providers relating to a patient, or the referral of a patient for health care from one health care provider to another.

(42) "Use" means the sharing of individual information within an Authority program or the sharing of individual information between program staff and administrative staff that support or oversee the program.

Purpose

(1) The purpose of these rules (OAR 943-014-000 to 943-014-0070) is to govern the collection, use, and disclosure of protected information by the Authority about individuals and to explain the rights and specific actions that individuals may take or request to be taken regarding the uses and disclosures of their protected information. These rules also set forth the Authority's requirements governing the use and disclosure of PHI for purposes of HIPAA, 42 USC 1320-d through 1320d-8, Pub L 104-191, sec. 262 and 264, and the implementing HIPAA privacy rules, 45 CFR parts 160 and 164, applicable to the Authority's health care components.

(2) Except as provided in section (1) of this rule, state and federal statutes, rules, and policies that govern the administration of Authority programs, services, and activities continue to govern the use and disclosure of protected information in those Authority programs, services, and activities.

(3) In the event that it is not possible to comply with the requirements of both sections (1) and (2) of this rule, the Authority shall act in accordance with whichever federal or state law imposes a stricter requirement regarding the privacy or safeguarding of information and which provides the greater protection or access to the individual who is the subject of the information, unless one of the following applies:

(a) Public health. Nothing in these rules shall be construed to invalidate or limit the authority, power, or procedures established under any law providing for the reporting of disease or injury, birth, or death; public health surveillance; or public health investigation or intervention.

(b) Child abuse. Nothing in these rules shall be construed to invalidate or limit the authority, power, or procedures established under any law providing for the reporting of child abuse.

(c) State regulatory reporting. Nothing in these rules shall be construed to limit the ability of the State of Oregon or the Authority to require a health plan to report, or to provide access to information for management audits, financial audits, program monitoring, facility licensure or certification, or individual licensure or certification.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(4) The Authority may collect, maintain, use, transmit, share, and disclose information about any individual to the extent authorized by law to administer Authority programs, services, and activities.

(5) The Authority may use and disclose information about licensees or providers consistent with federal and state laws and regulations. Information regarding the qualifications of licensees and providers are public records.

(a) When the Authority obtains information about individuals that relates to determining payment responsibility when a provider submits a request for payment to the Authority, the Authority shall safeguard the information consistent with federal and state laws and regulations and Authority policies.

(b) The Authority may review the performance of licensees and providers in the conduct of its health oversight activities and shall safeguard information obtained about individuals obtained during those activities in accordance with federal and state laws and regulations and Authority policies.

Covered Entity Status for Purposes of the HIPAA Privacy Rules

(1) These rules address information that, among other things, may be Protected Health Information that is protected by the HIPAA Privacy Rules. For purposes of HIPAA Privacy Rules, the Authority is a hybrid entity because the Authority performs functions that are covered by HIPAA (“health care components”) and functions that are not covered by HIPAA. The Authority’s health care components consist of the functions that are included in the definition of a covered entity, as follows:

(a) The Authority in its capacity as the state Medicaid agency for the administration of funds from Titles XIX and XXI of the Social Security Act and the medical assistance program as described in ORS chapter 414;

(b) The Health Care for All Oregon Children program;

(c) The Family Health Insurance Assistance Program established in ORS 414.841 to 414.864;

(d) Any medical assistance or premium assistance programs reimbursed with Medicaid or the Children’s Health Insurance Program funds operated by the Authority;

(e) The Oregon State Hospital and Blue Mountain Recovery Center;

(f) The Medicaid Management Information system and information technology systems associated with the administration and management of the health care components listed above; and

(g) The ombudsman and other administrative and health care operations functions associated with the administration and management of the health care components listed above.

(2) The Authority administers many aspects of the medical assistance program with the assistance of the Department, including but not limited to eligibility determinations for the medical assistance program and supervising the long-term and community-based services for seniors and people with disabilities. The Department also provides certain health care operations services for the Authority. In doing so, the Department is a business associate of the Authority. As a business associate of the Authority, the Department is authorized to use and disclose protected health information to perform or assist the Authority in the performance of its covered functions.

(3) When these rules of the Authority apply to PHI that is subject to the HIPAA Privacy and Security rules, a reference to the Authority may also include the actions of the Department acting as the Authority’s business associate.

943-014-0020

Uses and Disclosures of Client or Participant Protected Information

(1) Uses and disclosures with individual authorization. The Authority must obtain a completed and signed authorization for release of information from the individual, or the individual’s personal representative, before obtaining or using protected information about an individual from a third party or disclosing protected information about the individual to a third party.

(a) Uses and disclosures must be consistent with what the individual has approved on the signed authorization form approved by the Authority.

(b) An individual may revoke an authorization at any time. The revocation must be in writing and signed by the individual, except that substance abuse treatment patients may orally revoke an authorization to disclose information obtained from substance abuse treatment programs. No revocation shall apply to information already released while the authorization was valid and in effect.

(2) Uses and disclosures without authorization. The Authority may use and disclose information without written authorization in the following circumstances:

(a) The Authority may disclose information to individuals who have requested disclosure to themselves of their information, if the individual has the right to access the information under OAR 943-014-0030(6).

(b) If the law requires or permits the disclosure, and the use and disclosure complies with, and is limited to, the relevant requirements of the relevant law.

(c) For treatment, payment, and health care operations the Authority may disclose the following information:

(A) Activities involving the current treatment of an individual, for the Authority or health care provider;

(B) Payment activities, for the Authority, covered entity, or health care provider;

(C) Protected health information for the purpose of health care operations; and

(D) Substance abuse treatment information, if the recipient has a Qualified Service Organization Agreement with the Authority.

(d) Psychotherapy notes. The Authority may only use and disclose psychotherapy notes in the following circumstances:

(A) In the Authority’s supervised counseling training programs;

(B) In connection with oversight of the originator of the psychotherapy notes; or

(C) To defend the Authority in a legal action or other proceeding brought by the individual.

(e) Public health activities.

(A) The Authority may disclose an individual’s protected information to appropriate entities or persons for governmental public health activities and for other purposes including but not limited to:

(i) A governmental public health authority that is authorized by law to collect or receive protected information for the purpose of preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability. This includes but is not limited to reporting disease, injury, and vital events such as birth or death; and the conducting of public health surveillance, investigations, and interventions;

(ii) An official of a foreign government agency that is acting in collaboration with a governmental public health authority;

(iii) A governmental public health authority, or other government authority that is authorized by law to receive reports of child abuse or neglect;

(iv) A person subject to the jurisdiction of the federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA), regarding an FDA-regulated product or activity for which that person is responsible for activities related to the quality, safety, or effectiveness of an FDA-regulated product or activity; or

(v) A person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease, or may be at risk of contracting or spreading a disease or condition, if the Authority or other public health authority is authorized to notify the person as necessary in conducting a public health intervention or investigation.

(B) Where state or federal law prohibits or restricts use and disclosure of information obtained or maintained for public health purposes, the Authority shall deny the use and disclosure.

(f) Child abuse reporting and investigation. If the Authority has reasonable cause to believe that a child is a victim of abuse or neglect, the Authority may disclose protected information to appropriate governmental authorities authorized by law to receive reports of child abuse or neglect.

(g) Adult abuse reporting and investigation. If the Authority has reasonable cause to believe that a vulnerable adult is a victim of abuse or neglect, the Authority may disclose information, as required by law, to a government authority or regulatory agency authorized by law to receive reports of abuse or neglect including but not limited to a social service or protective services agency authorized by law to receive such reports. Vulnerable adults are adults age 65 or older and persons with disabilities.

(h) Health oversight activities. The Authority may disclose information without authorization for health oversight activities, including audits; civil, criminal, or administrative investigations, prosecutions, licensing or disciplinary actions; Medicaid fraud; or other necessary oversight activities.

(i) Administrative and court hearings, grievances, investigations, and appeals.

(A) The Authority may use or disclose information for an investigation, administrative or court hearing, grievance, or appeal about an individual’s eligibility or right to receive Authority benefits or services.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(B) If the Authority has obtained information in performing its duties as a health oversight agency, public health authority, or public benefit program, the Authority may use or disclose that information in an administrative or court hearing consistent with the other privacy requirements applicable to that program, service, or activity.

(j) Court orders. The Authority may disclose information for judicial or administrative proceedings in response to a court order, subpoena, discovery request, or other legal process. If a court orders the Authority to conduct a mental examination pursuant to ORS 161.315, 161.365, 161.370, or orders the Authority to provide any other report or evaluation to the court, the examination, report, or evaluation shall be deemed to be required by law for purposes of HIPAA.

(k) Law enforcement purposes. For limited law enforcement purposes, the Authority may report certain injuries or wounds; provide information to identify or locate a suspect, victim, or witness; alert law enforcement of a death as a result of criminal conduct; and provide information which constitutes evidence of criminal conduct on Authority premises.

(A) The Authority may provide client information to a law enforcement officer in any of the following situations:

(i) The law enforcement officer is involved in carrying out any investigation, criminal, or civil proceedings connected with administering the program from which the information is sought;

(ii) An Authority employee may disclose information from personal knowledge that does not come from the client's interaction with the Authority;

(iii) The disclosure is authorized by statute or administrative rule;

(iv) The information informs law enforcement of a death as a result of criminal conduct;

(v) The information constitutes evidence of criminal conduct on Authority premises; or

(vi) The disclosure is necessary to protect the client or others, and the client poses a threat to his or her safety or to the safety of others.

(B) Except as provided in section (2)(k)(C) of this rule, the Authority may give a client's current address, Social Security number, and photo to a law enforcement officer if the law enforcement officer makes the request in the course of official duty, supplies the client's name, and states that the client:

(i) Is a fugitive felon or is violating parole, probation, or post-prison supervision;

(ii) For all public assistance programs, has information that is necessary for the officer to conduct official duties, and the location or apprehension of the client is within the officer's official duties; or

(C) If domestic violence has been identified in the household, the Authority may not release information about a victim of domestic violence unless a member of the household is either wanted as a fugitive felon or is violating parole, probation, or post-prison supervision.

(D) For purposes of this subsection, a fugitive felon is a person fleeing to avoid prosecution or custody for a crime, or an attempt to commit a crime, that would be classified as a felony.

(E) For purposes of this section, a law enforcement officer is an employee of the Oregon State Police, a county sheriff's department, or a municipal police department, whose official duties include arrest authority.

(l) Use and disclosure of information about deceased individuals.

(A) The Authority may disclose individual information to a coroner or medical examiner for the purpose of identifying a deceased individual, determining cause of death, or other duties authorized by law.

(B) The Authority may disclose individual information to funeral directors as needed to carry out their duties regarding the decedent. The Authority may also disclose individual information prior to, and in anticipation of, the death.

(m) Organ or tissue donation. The Authority may disclose individual information to organ procurement organizations or other entities engaged in procuring, banking, or transplanting cadaver organs, eyes, or tissue for the purpose of facilitating transplantation.

(n) Research. The Authority may disclose individual information without authorization for research purposes, as specified in OAR 943-014-0060.

(o) Threat to health or safety. To avert a serious threat to health or safety the Authority may disclose individual information if:

(A) The Authority believes in good faith that the information is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public; and

(B) The report is to a person or persons reasonably able to prevent or lessen the threat, including the target of the threat.

(p) National security and intelligence. The Authority may disclose information to authorized federal officials for lawful intelligence, counter-intelligence, and other national security activities.

(q) Correctional institutions and law enforcement custody situations. The Authority may disclose information to a correctional institution or a law enforcement official having lawful custody of an inmate or other person, for the limited purpose of providing health care or ensuring the health or safety of the person or other inmates.

(r) Emergency treatment. In case of an emergency, the Authority may disclose individual information to the extent needed to provide emergency treatment.

(s) Government entities providing public benefits. The Authority may disclose eligibility and other information to governmental entities administering a government program providing public benefits.

(3) Authorization not required if opportunity to object given. The Authority may use and disclose an individual's information without authorization if the Authority informs the individual in advance and gives the individual an opportunity to either agree or refuse or restrict the use and disclosure.

(a) These disclosures are limited to disclosure of information to a family member, other relative, close personal friend of the individual, or any other person named by the individual, subject to the following limitations:

(A) The Authority may disclose only the protected information that directly relates to the person's involvement with the individual's care or payment for care.

(B) The Authority may use and disclose protected information for notifying, identifying, or locating a family member, personal representative, or other person responsible for care of the individual, regarding the individual's location, general condition, or death. For individuals who had resided at one time at the state training center, OAR 411-320-0090(6) addresses family reconnection.

(C) If the individual is present for, or available prior to, a use and disclosure, the Authority may disclose the protected information if the Authority:

(i) Obtains the individual's agreement;

(ii) Provides the individual an opportunity to object to the disclosure, and the individual does not object; or

(iii) Reasonably infers from the circumstances that the individual does not object to the disclosure.

(D) If the individual is not present, or the opportunity to object to the use and disclosure cannot practicably be provided due to the individual's incapacity or an emergency situation, the Authority may disclose the information if, using professional judgment, the Authority determines that the use and disclosure is in the individual's best interests.

(b) Exception. For individuals referred to or receiving substance abuse treatment, mental health, or vocational rehabilitation services, the Authority shall not use or disclose information without written authorization, unless disclosure is otherwise permitted under 42 CFR part 2, 34 CFR 361.38, or ORS 179.505.

(c) Personal representative. The Authority must treat a personal representative as the individual for purposes of these rules, except that:

(A) A personal representative must be authorized under state law to act on behalf of the individual with respect to use and disclosure of information. The Authority may require a personal representative to provide a copy of the documentation authorizing the person to act on behalf of the individual.

(B) The Authority may elect not to treat a person as a personal representative of an individual if:

(i) The Authority has a reasonable belief that the individual has been or may be subjected to domestic violence, abuse, or neglect by the person;

(ii) The Authority, in the exercise of professional judgment, decides that it is not in the best interest of the individual to treat the person as the individual's personal representative.

(4) Redisclosure. The Authority must inform the individual that information held by the Authority and authorized by the individual for disclosure may be subject to redisclosure and no longer protected by these rules.

(5) Specific written authorization. If the use or disclosure of information requires an authorization, the authorization must specify that the Authority may use or disclose vocational rehabilitation records, alcohol and drug records, HIV/AIDS records, genetics information, and mental health or developmental disability records held by publicly funded providers.

(a) Pursuant to federal regulations at 42 CFR part 2 and 34 CFR 361.38, the Authority may not make further disclosure of vocational rehabilitation and alcohol and drug rehabilitation information without the specific written authorization of the individual to whom it pertains.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Pursuant to ORS 433.045 and OAR 333-012-0270, the Authority may not make further disclosure of individual information pertaining to HIV/AIDS.

(c) Pursuant to ORS 192.531 to 192.549, the Authority may not make further disclosure pertaining to genetic information.

(6) Verification of person or entity requesting information. The Authority may not disclose information about an individual without first verifying the identity of the person or entity requesting the information, unless the Authority workforce member fulfilling the request already knows the person or has already verified identity.

(7) Whistleblowers. The Authority may disclose an individual's protected health information under the HIPAA privacy rules under the following circumstances:

(a) The Authority workforce member or business associate believes in good faith that the Authority has engaged in conduct that is unlawful or that otherwise violates professional standards or Authority policy, or that the care, services, or conditions provided by the Authority could endanger Authority staff, individuals in Authority care, or the public; and

(b) The disclosure is to a government oversight agency or public health authority, or an attorney of an Authority workforce member or business associate retained for the purpose of determining the legal options of the workforce member or business associate with regard to the conduct alleged under section (7)(a) above; and

(c) Nothing in this rule is intended to interfere with ORS 659A.200 to 659A.224 describing the circumstances applicable to disclosures by Authority workforce or business associates.

Client Privacy Rights

(1) Rights of clients to access their information. Clients may access, inspect, and obtain a copy of information on their own cases in Authority files or records, consistent with federal and state law.

(a) A client may request access by completing the Access to Records Request form, or by providing sufficient information to accomplish this request.

(b) Clients may request access to their own information that is kept by the Authority by using a personal identifier such as the client's name or Authority case number.

(c) If the Authority maintains information in a record that includes information about other people, the client may see information only about himself or herself.

(d) If a person identified in the file is a minor child of the client, and the client is authorized under Oregon law to have access to the minor's information or to act on behalf of the minor for making decisions about the minor's care, the client may obtain information about the minor.

(e) If the requestor of information is recognized under Oregon law as a the client's guardian or custodian and is authorized under Oregon law to have access to the client's information or to act on behalf of the client for making decisions about the client's services or care, the Authority shall release information to the requestor.

(f) For individuals with disabilities or mental illnesses, the named system in ORS 192.517, to protect and advocate the rights of individuals with developmental disabilities under Part C of the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act (42 U.S.C. 6041 et seq.) and the rights of individuals with mental illness under the Protection and Advocacy for Individuals with Mental Illness Act (42 U.S.C. 10801 et seq.), shall have access to all records defined in ORS 192.515.

(g) The Authority may deny a client's access to their own PHI if federal law prohibits the disclosure. Clients may access, inspect, and obtain a copy of health information on their own case in Authority files or records except for the following:

(A) Psychotherapy notes;

(B) Information compiled in reasonable anticipation of, or for use in civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings;

(C) Information that is subject to the federal Clinical Labs Improvement Amendments of 1988, or exempt pursuant to 42 CFR 493.3(a)(2);

(D) Information that the Authority believes, in good faith, can cause harm to the client, participant, or to any other person; and

(E) Documents protected by attorney work-product privilege.

(h) The Authority may deny a client access to information that was obtained under a promise of confidentiality from a person other than a health care provider to the extent that access would reveal the source of the information.

(i) The Authority may deny a client access to information, if the Authority gives the client a right to have the denial reviewed when:

(A) A licensed health care professional (for health information) or other designated staff (for other information) has determined, in the exercise of professional judgment, that the information requested may endanger the life or physical safety of the client or another person;

(B) The information makes reference to another person, and a licensed health care professional (for health information) or other designated staff (for other information) has determined, in the exercise of professional judgment, that the information requested may cause substantial harm to the client or to another person; or

(C) The request for access is made by the client's personal representative, and a licensed health care professional (for health information) or other designated staff (for other information) has determined, in the exercise of professional judgment, that allowing the personal representative access to the information may cause substantial harm to the client or to another person.

(j) If the Authority denies access under section (1)(i) of this rule, the client may have the decision reviewed by a licensed health care professional (for health information) or other designated staff (for other information) not directly involved in making the original denial decision.

(A) The Authority must promptly refer a client's request for review to the designated reviewer.

(B) The reviewer must determine, within the 30 or 60-day time limits stated in section (1)(k)(A) and (B) of this rule, whether to approve or deny the client's request for access.

(C) Based on the reviewer's decision, the Authority shall:

(i) Promptly notify the client in writing of the reviewer's determination; and

(ii) If approved, take action to carry out the reviewer's determination.

(k) The Authority must act on a client's request for access no later than 30 days after receiving the request, except as provided in this section and in the case of written accounts under ORS 179.505, which must be disclosed within five days.

(A) In cases where the information is not maintained or accessible to the Authority on-site, and does not fall under ORS 179.505, the Authority must act on the client's request no later than 60 days after receiving the request.

(B) If the Authority is unable to act within the 30 or 60-day limits, the Authority may extend this time period a maximum of 30 additional days, subject to the following:

(i) The Authority must notify the client in writing of the reasons for the delay and the date by which the Authority shall act on the request.

(ii) The Authority shall use only one 30-day extension.

(l) If the Authority grants the client's request, in whole or in part, the Authority must inform the client of the access decision and provide the requested access.

(A) If the Authority maintains the same information in more than one format or at more than one location, the Authority may provide the requested information once.

(B) The Authority must provide the requested information in a form or format requested by the client, if readily producible in that form or format. If not readily producible, the Authority shall provide the information in a readable hard-copy format or other format as agreed to by the Authority and the client.

(C) The Authority may provide the client with a summary of the requested information, in lieu of providing access, or may provide an explanation of the information if access has been provided, if:

(i) The client agrees in advance; and

(ii) The client agrees in advance to pay any fees the Authority may impose, under section (1)(L)(E) of this rule.

(D) The Authority shall arrange with the client for providing the requested access in a time, place, and manner convenient for the client and the Authority.

(E) If a client, or legal guardian or custodian, requests a copy, written summary, or explanation of the requested information, the Authority may impose a reasonable cost-based fee, limited to the following:

(i) Copying the requested information, including the costs of supplies and the labor of copying;

(ii) Postage; and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(iii) Staff time for preparing an explanation or summary of the requested information.

(m) If the Authority denies access, in whole or in part, to the requested information, the Authority must:

(A) Give the client access to any other requested client information, after excluding the information to which access is denied; and

(B) Provide the client with a timely written denial. The denial must:

(i) Be provided within the time limits specified in section (1)(k)(A) and (B) of this rule;

(ii) State the basis of the denial in plain language;

(iii) If the Authority denies access under section (1)(i) of this rule, explain the client's review rights as specified in section (1)(j) of this rule, including an explanation of how the client may exercise these rights; and

(iv) Provide a description of how the client may file a complaint with the Authority, and if the information is PHI, with the United States Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), Office for Civil Rights, pursuant to section (7) of this rule.

(n) If the Authority does not maintain the requested information, in whole or in part, and knows where the information is maintained (such as by a medical provider, insurer, other public agency, private business, or other non-Authority entity), the Authority must inform the client where to direct the request for access.

(2) Authority Notice of Privacy Practices. The Authority shall send clients notice about the Authority's privacy practices as follows:

(a) The Authority shall make available to each client a notice of Authority privacy practices that describes the duty of the Authority to maintain the privacy of PHI and include a description that clearly informs the client of the types of uses and disclosures the Authority is permitted or required to make;

(b) The Authority shall provide all clients in direct care settings a notice of Authority privacy practices and shall request the client's signature on an acknowledgement of receipt form;

(c) If the Authority revises its privacy practices, the Authority shall make the revised notice available to all clients;

(d) The Authority shall post a copy of the Authority's Notice of Privacy Practices for public viewing at each Authority worksite and on the Authority website; and

(e) The Authority shall give a paper copy of the Authority's Notice of Privacy Practices to any individual upon request.

(3) Right to request restrictions on uses or disclosures. Clients may request restrictions on the use or disclosure of their information.

(a) The Authority may deny the client's request or limit its agreement to a request.

(A) The Authority may not agree to restrict uses or disclosures of information if the restriction would adversely affect the quality of the client's care or services.

(B) The Authority may not agree to restrict uses or disclosures of information that would limit or prevent the Authority from making or obtaining payment for services.

(b) The Authority may not deny a client's request to restrict the sharing of records of alcohol and drug treatment or records relating to vocational rehabilitation services with another Authority program.

(c) The Authority shall document the client's request, and the reasons for granting or denying the request, in the client's Authority case file.

(d) If the client needs emergency treatment and the restricted protected information is needed to provide the treatment, the Authority may use or disclose the restricted protected information to a provider, for the limited purpose of providing treatment. However, once the emergency situation subsides the Authority shall ask the provider not to redisclose the information.

(e) The Authority may terminate its agreement to a restriction if:

(A) The client agrees to or requests the termination in writing;

(B) The client orally requests or agrees to the termination, and the Authority documents the oral request or agreement in the client's Authority case file; or

(C) With or without the client's agreement, the Authority informs the client that the Authority is terminating its agreement to the restriction. Information created or received while the restriction was in place shall remain subject to the restriction.

(4) Rights of clients to request to receive information from the Authority by alternative means or at alternative locations. The Authority must accommodate reasonable requests by clients to receive communications from the Authority by alternative means, such as by mail, e-mail, fax, or telephone, and at an alternative location.

(a) The client must specify the preferred alternative means or location.

(b) The client may submit the request for alternative means or locations either orally or in writing.

(A) If the client makes a request in-person, the Authority shall document the request and ask for the client's signature.

(B) If the client makes a request by telephone or electronically, the Authority shall document the request and verify the identity of the client.

(c) The Authority may terminate its agreement to an alternative location or method of communication if:

(A) The client agrees to or requests termination of the alternative location or method of communication in writing or orally. The Authority shall document the oral agreement or request in the client's Authority case file; or

(B) The Authority informs the client that the Authority is terminating its agreement to the alternative location or method of communication because the alternative location or method of communication is not effective. The Authority may terminate its agreement to communicate at the alternative location or by the alternate method if:

(i) The Authority is unable to contact the client at the location or by the method requested; or

(ii) The client fails to respond to payment requests, if applicable.

(5) Right of clients to request amendment of their information. Clients may request that the Authority amend information about themselves in Authority files.

(a) For all amendment requests, the Authority shall have the client complete the approved Authority form.

(b) The Authority may deny the request or limit its agreement to amend.

(c) The Authority must act on the client's request no later than 60 days after receiving the request. If the Authority is unable to act within 60 days, the Authority may extend this time limit by a maximum of 30 additional days, subject to the following:

(A) The Authority must notify the client in writing, within 60 days of receiving the request, of the reasons for the delay and the date by which the Authority shall act on the request; and

(B) The Authority shall use only one 30-day extension.

(d) The program's medical director, a licensed health care professional designated by the program administrator, or an Authority staff person involved in the client's case must review the request and any related documentation prior to making a decision to amend a health or medical record.

(e) A staff person designated by the Authority shall review the request and any related documentation prior to making a decision to amend any information that is not a health or medical record.

(f) If the Authority grants the request, in whole or in part, the Authority shall:

(A) Make the appropriate amendment to the information or records, and document the amendment in the client's Authority file or record;

(B) Provide notice to the client that the amendment has been granted, pursuant to the time limits under section (5)(c) of this rule;

(C) Obtain the client's agreement to notify other relevant persons or entities with whom the Authority has shared or needs to share the amended information; and

(D) Inform and provide the amendment within a reasonable time to:

(i) Persons named by the client who have received the information and who need the amendment; and

(ii) Persons, including business associates of the Authority, that the Authority knows have the information that is the subject of the amendment and who may have relied, or could foreseeably rely, on the information to the client's detriment.

(g) The Authority may deny the client's request for amendment if:

(A) The Authority finds the information to be accurate and complete;

(B) The information was not created by the Authority;

(C) The information is not part of Authority records; or

(D) The information would not be available for inspection or access by the client, pursuant to section (1)(g) and (h) of this rule.

(h) If the Authority denies the amendment request, in whole or in part, the Authority must provide the client with a written denial. The denial must:

(A) Be sent within the time limits specified in section (5)(c) of this rule;

(B) State the basis for the denial, in plain language; and

(C) Explain the client's right to submit a written statement disagreeing with the denial and how to file the statement. If the client files a statement:

(i) The Authority shall enter the written statement into the client's Authority case file;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(ii) The Authority may also enter an Authority written rebuttal of the client's written statement into the client's Authority case file. The Authority shall send a copy of any written rebuttal to the client;

(iii) The Authority shall include a copy of the statement and any Authority written rebuttal with any future disclosures of the relevant information;

(iv) If a client does not submit a written statement of disagreement, the client may ask that if the Authority makes any further disclosures of the relevant information that the Authority shall also include a copy of the client's original request for amendment and a copy of the Authority written denial; and

(v) The Authority shall provide information on how the client may file a complaint with the Authority and, if the information is PHI, with DHHS, Office for Civil Rights.

(6) Rights of clients to request an accounting of disclosures of PHI. Clients may receive an accounting of disclosures of PHI that the Authority has made for any period of time, not to exceed six years, preceding the request date for the accounting.

(a) For all requests for an accounting of disclosures, the client may complete the authorized Authority form "Request for Accounting of Disclosures of Health Records", or provide sufficient information to accomplish this request.

(b) The right to an accounting of disclosures does not apply when the request is:

(A) Authorized by the client;

(B) Made prior to April 14, 2003;

(C) Made to carry out treatment, payment, or health care operations, unless these disclosures are made from an electronic health record;

(D) Made to the client;

(E) Made to persons involved in the client's care;

(F) Made as part of a limited data set in accordance with OAR 943-014-0070;

(G) Made for national security or intelligence purposes; or

(H) Made to correctional institutions or law enforcement officials having lawful custody of an inmate.

(c) For each disclosure, the accounting must include:

(A) The date of the disclosure;

(B) The name and address, if known, of the person or entity, who received the disclosed information;

(C) A brief description of the information disclosed; and

(D) A brief statement of the purpose of the disclosure that reasonably informs the client of the basis for the disclosure, or, in lieu of a statement, a copy of the client's written request for a disclosure, if any.

(d) If, during the time period covered by the accounting, the Authority has made multiple disclosures to the same person or entity for the same purpose, the Authority may provide the required information for only the first disclosure. The Authority need not list the same identical information for each subsequent disclosure to the same person or entity if the Authority adds the following information:

(A) The frequency or number of disclosures made to the same person or entity; and

(B) The date of the most recent disclosure during the time period for which the accounting is requested.

(e) The Authority must act on the client's request for an accounting no later than 60 days after receiving the request. If the Authority is unable to act within 60 days, the Authority may extend this time limit by a maximum of 30 additional days, subject to the following:

(A) The Authority must notify the client in writing, within 60 days of receiving the request, of the reasons for the delay and the date by which the Authority shall act on the request; and

(B) The Authority shall use only one 30-day extension.

(f) The Authority shall provide the first requested accounting in any 12-month period without charge. The Authority may charge the client a reasonable cost-based fee for each additional accounting requested by the client within the 12-month period following the first request, if the Authority:

(A) Informs the client of the fee before proceeding with any additional request; and

(B) Allows the client an opportunity to withdraw or modify the request in order to avoid or reduce the fee.

(g) The Authority shall document the information required to be included in an accounting of disclosures, as specified in section (6)(c) of this rule, and retain a copy of the written accounting provided to the client.

(h) The Authority shall temporarily suspend a client's right to receive an accounting of disclosures that the Authority has made to a health oversight agency or to a law enforcement official, for a length of time specified by the agency or official, if the agency or official provides a written or oral statement to the Authority that the accounting would be reasonably likely to impede their activities. If the agency or official makes an oral request, the Authority shall:

(A) Document the oral request, including the identity of the agency or official making the request.

(B) Temporarily suspend the client's request to an accounting of disclosures; and

(C) Limit the temporary suspension to no longer than 30 days from the date of the oral request, unless the agency or official submits a written request specifying a longer time period.

(7) Filing a complaint. Clients may file a complaint with the Authority or, if the information is PHI, with DHHS, Office for Civil Rights.

(a) Upon request, the Authority shall give clients the name and address of the specific person or office of where to submit complaints to DHHS.

(b) The Authority may not intimidate, threaten, coerce, discriminate against, or take any other form of retaliatory action against any individual filing a complaint or inquiring about how to file a complaint.

(c) The Authority may not require clients to waive their rights to file a complaint as a condition of providing treatment, payment, enrollment in a health plan, or eligibility for benefits.

(d) The Authority shall designate staff to review and determine action on complaints filed with the Authority.

(e) The Authority shall document, in the client's Authority case file all complaints, the findings from reviewing each complaint, and the Authority's actions resulting from the complaint. For each complaint the documentation shall include a description of corrective action that the Authority has taken, if any are necessary, or why corrective action is not needed.

Minimum Necessary Standards

(1) The Authority shall limit the use and disclosure of protected information to that which is reasonably necessary to accomplish the intended purpose of the use or disclosure which is referred to in these rules as the minimum necessary standard.

(2) This minimum necessary standard is not intended to impede the essential Authority activities of treatment, payment, health care operations, or service delivery.

(3) The minimum necessary standard applies:

(a) When using protected information within the Authority;

(b) When disclosing protected information to a third party in response to a request; or

(c) When requesting protected information from another covered entity.

(4) The minimum necessary standard does not apply to:

(a) Disclosures to or requests by a health care provider for treatment;

(b) Disclosures made to the individual, including disclosures made in response to a request for access or an accounting;

(c) Disclosures made with a valid authorization;

(d) Disclosures made to DHHS for the purposes of compliance and enforcement of federal regulations under 45 CFR part 160 and required for compliance with 45 CFR part 164.; or

(e) Uses and disclosures required by law;

(5) When requesting protected information about an individual from another entity, the Authority shall limit requests to those that are reasonably necessary to accomplish the purposes for which the request is made. The Authority shall not request a person's entire medical record unless the Authority can specifically justify the need for the entire medical record.

Business Associate

(1) The Authority may disclose an individual's PHI to a business associate, and may allow a business associate to create or receive an individual's PHI on behalf of the Authority if the Authority and the business associate first enter into a contract that complies with applicable federal and state law. In some limited circumstances, the Authority may determine that the Authority is a business associate of a covered entity. A business associate relationship with the Authority requires additional contractual disclosure

Uses and Disclosures of Protected Information for Research Purposes

The Authority may use and disclose an individual's information for research purposes as specified in this rule.

(1) All research disclosures are subject to applicable requirements of federal and state laws and rules including but not limited to 45 CFR part 46 and 21 CFR part 50.0 to 50.56, relating to the protection of human research subjects.

(2) The Authority may use and disclose de-identified information or a limited data set for research purposes, pursuant to OAR 943-014-0070.

(3) The Authority may use and disclose information regarding an individual for research purposes with the specific written authorization of the individual. The authorization must meet all requirements in OAR 943-014-0030, and may indicate an expiration date with terms such as "end of research study" or similar language. An authorization for use and disclosure for a research study may be combined with other types of written authorization for the same research study. If research includes treatment, the researcher may require an authorization for use and disclosure for the research as a provision of providing research related treatment.

(4) Notwithstanding section (3) of this rule, the Authority may use and disclose an individual's information for research purposes without the individual's written authorization, regardless of the source of funding for the research, provided that:

(a) The Authority obtains documentation that a waiver of an individual's authorization for release of information requirements has been approved by an IRB registered with the Office for Human Research Protection. Documentation required of an IRB when granting approval of a waiver of an individual's authorization for release of information must include all criteria specified in 45 CFR part 164.512(i)(2).

(b) A researcher may request access to individual information maintained by the Authority in preparation for research or to facilitate the development of a research protocol in anticipation of research. The Authority may determine whether to permit such use or disclosure, without individual authorization or use of an IRB, pursuant to 45 CFR part 164.512(i)(1)(ii).

(c) A researcher may request access to individual information maintained by the Authority about deceased individuals. The Authority may determine whether to permit such use or disclosure of information about decedents, without individual authorization or use of an IRB, pursuant to 45 CFR part 164.512(i)(1)(iii).

(5) The Authority, as a public health authority, may obtain and use individual information without authorization for the purpose of preventing injury or controlling disease and for the conduct of public health surveillance, investigations, and interventions. The Authority may also collect, use, or disclose information, without individual authorization, to the extent that the collection, use, or disclosure is required by law. When the Authority uses information to conduct studies as a public health authority, no additional individual authorization is required nor does this rule require an IRB or privacy board waiver of authorization based on the HIPAA privacy rules.

(6) The Authority may use and disclose information without individual authorization for studies and data analysis conducted for the Authority's own quality assurance purposes or to comply with reporting requirements applicable to federal or state funding requirements in accordance with the definition of "Health Care Operations" in 45 CFR part 164.501.

943-014-0070

De-identification of Client Information and Use of Limited Data Sets under Data Use Agreements

(1) The Authority may use and disclose information as appropriate for the work of the Authority, without further restriction, if the Authority or another entity has taken steps to de-identify the information pursuant to 45 CFR part 164.514(a) and (b).

(2) The Authority may assign a code or other means of record identification to allow the Authority to re-identify the de-identified information provided that:

(a) The code or other means of record identification is not derived from or related to information about the individual and cannot otherwise be translated to identify the individual; and,

(b) The Authority does not use or disclose the code or other means of record identification for any other purpose, and does not disclose the mechanism for re-identification.

(3) The Authority may use and disclose a limited data set if the Authority enters into a data use agreement with an entity requesting or providing the Authority with a limited data set subject to the requirements of 45 CFR part 164.514(e).

(a) The Authority may use and disclose a limited data set only for the purposes of research, public health, or health care operations. The Authority may use limited data set for its own activities or operations if the Authority has obtained a limited data set that is subject to a data use agreement.

(b) If the Authority knows of a pattern of activity or practice of a limited data set recipient that constitutes a material breach or violation of a data use agreement, the Authority shall take reasonable steps to cure the breach or end the violation. If such steps are unsuccessful, the Authority shall discontinue disclosure of information to the recipient and report the problem to the Secretary of DHHS.

Rule Caption: Confidentiality and Inadmissibility of Mediation and Workplace Interpersonal Dispute Mediation and Communication.

Adm. Order No.: OHA 9-2011(Temp)

Filed with Sec. of State: 7-1-2011

Certified to be Effective: 7-1-11 thru 12-27-11

Notice Publication Date:

Rules Adopted: 943-014-0200, 943-014-0205

Subject: HB 2009 (2009) created the Oregon Health Authority (Authority) and transferred to the Authority the Department of Human Services' (Department) Divisions with respect to health and health care. Effective July 1, 2011 the Authority is adopting its own operational and programmatic rules as a part of the operational transfer from functions previously performed by the Department as a result of HB 2009(2009). These rule adoptions duplicate the rules in the Department's chapter 407 and provide legal authority for the Authority to conduct business. These rules set forth the requirements, responsibilities, and duties of the Authority related to the disclosure of communications received as a result of mediations and workplace interpersonal dispute mediations. Those same requirements, responsibilities, and duties remain in the Department of Human Services OAR chapter 407 regarding disclosure of communications received as a result of mediation.

943-014-0200

Confidentiality and Inadmissibility of Mediation Communications

(1) The words and phrases used in this rule have the same meaning as given to them in ORS 36.110 and 36.234.

(2) Nothing in this rule affects any confidentiality created by other law. Nothing in this rule relieves a public body from complying with the Public Meetings Law, ORS 192.610 to 192.690. Whether or not they are confidential under this or other rules of the agency, mediation communications are exempt from disclosure under the Public Records Law to the extent provided in ORS 192.410 to 192.505.

(3) This rule applies only to mediations in which the agency is a party or is mediating a dispute as to which the agency has regulatory authority. This rule does not apply when the agency is acting as the "mediator" in a matter in which the agency also is a party as defined in ORS 36.234.

(4) To the extent mediation communications would otherwise be compromise negotiations under ORS 40.190 (OEC Rule 408), those mediation communications are not admissible as provided in ORS 40.190 (OEC Rule 408), notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in section (9) of this rule.

(5) Mediations Excluded. Sections (6)-(10) of this rule do not apply to:

(a) Mediation of workplace interpersonal disputes involving the interpersonal relationships between this agency's employees, officials or

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

employees and officials, unless a formal grievance under a labor contract, a tort claim notice or a lawsuit has been filed; or

(b) Mediation in which the person acting as the mediator will also act as the hearings officer in a contested case involving some or all of the same matters;

(c) Mediation in which the only parties are public bodies;

(d) Mediation involving two or more public bodies and a private party if the laws, rule or policies governing mediation confidentiality for at least one of the public bodies provide that mediation communications in the mediation are not confidential;

(e) Mediation involving 15 or more parties if the agency has designated that another mediation confidentiality rule adopted by the agency may apply to that mediation.

(6) Disclosures by Mediator. A mediator may not disclose or be compelled to disclose mediation communications in a mediation and, if disclosed, such communications may not be introduced into evidence in any subsequent administrative, judicial or arbitration proceeding unless:

(a) All the parties to the mediation and the mediator agree in writing to the disclosure; or

(b) The mediation communication may be disclosed or introduced into evidence in a subsequent proceeding as provided in subsections (c)-(d), (j)-(l) or (o)-(p) of section (9) of this rule; or

(c) The mediation communication includes information related to the health or safety of any child, then the mediation communication may be disclosed and may be admitted into evidence in a subsequent proceeding to the extent the disclosure is necessary to prevent or mitigate a threat or danger to the health or safety of any child.

(d) The mediation communication includes information relating to suffering by or commission of abuse upon certain persons and that information would otherwise be required to be reported by a public or private official under the provisions of ORS 124.060 (person 65 years of age or older), 430.765 (1) and (2) (person who is mentally ill or developmentally disabled who is 18 years of age or older and receives services from a community program or facility) or 441.640 (person who is a resident in a long-term care facility), in which case that portion of the mediation communication may be disclosed as required by statute.

(7) Confidentiality and Inadmissibility of Mediation Communications. Except as provided in sections (8)-(9) of this rule, mediation communications are confidential and may not be disclosed to any other person, are not admissible in any subsequent administrative, judicial or arbitration proceeding and may not be disclosed during testimony in, or during any discovery conducted as part of a subsequent proceeding, or introduced as evidence by the parties or the mediator in any subsequent proceeding.

(8) Written Agreement. Section (7) of this rule does not apply to a mediation unless the parties to the mediation agree in writing, as provided in this section, that the mediation communications in the mediation will be confidential and/or nondiscoverable and inadmissible. If the mediator is the employee of and acting on behalf of a state agency, the mediator or an authorized agency representative must also sign the agreement. The parties' agreement to participate in a confidential mediation must be in substantial form. This form may be used separately or incorporated into an "agreement to mediate." [Form not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(9) Exceptions to confidentiality and inadmissibility.

(a) Any statements, memoranda, work products, documents and other materials, otherwise subject to discovery that were not prepared specifically for use in the mediation are not confidential and may be disclosed or introduced into evidence in a subsequent proceeding.

(b) Any mediation communications that are public records, as defined in ORS 192.410(4), and were not specifically prepared for use in the mediation are not confidential and may be disclosed or introduced into evidence in a subsequent proceeding unless the substance of the communication is confidential or privileged under state or federal law.

(c) A mediation communication is not confidential and may be disclosed by any person receiving the communication to the extent that person reasonably believes that disclosing the communication is necessary to prevent the commission of a crime that is likely to result in death or bodily injury to any person. A mediation communication is not confidential and may be disclosed in a subsequent proceeding to the extent its disclosure may further the investigation or prosecution of a felony crime involving physical violence to a person.

(d) Any mediation communication related to the conduct of a licensed professional that is made to or in the presence of a person who, as a condition of his or her professional license, is obligated to report such communication by law or court rule is not confidential and may be disclosed to the extent necessary to make such a report.

(e) The parties to the mediation may agree in writing that all or part of the mediation communications are not confidential or that all or part of the mediation communications may be disclosed and may be introduced into evidence in a subsequent proceeding unless the substance of the communication is confidential, privileged or otherwise prohibited from disclosure under state or federal law.

(f) A party to the mediation may disclose confidential mediation communications to a person if the party's communication with that person is privileged under ORS chapter 40 or other provision of law. A party to the mediation may disclose confidential mediation communications to a person for the purpose of obtaining advice concerning the subject matter of the mediation, if all the parties agree.

(g) An employee of the agency may disclose confidential mediation communications to another agency employee so long as the disclosure is necessary to conduct authorized activities of the agency. An employee receiving a confidential mediation communication under this subsection is bound by the same confidentiality requirements as apply to the parties to the mediation.

(h) A written mediation communication may be disclosed or introduced as evidence in a subsequent proceeding at the discretion of the party who prepared the communication so long as the communication is not otherwise confidential under state or federal law and does not contain confidential information from the mediator or another party who does not agree to the disclosure.

(i) In any proceeding to enforce, modify or set aside a mediation agreement, a party to the mediation may disclose mediation communications and such communications may be introduced as evidence to the extent necessary to prosecute or defend the matter. At the request of a party, the court may seal any part of the record of the proceeding to prevent further disclosure of mediation communications or agreements to persons other than the parties to the agreement.

(j) In an action for damages or other relief between a party to the mediation and a mediator or mediation program, mediation communications are not confidential and may be disclosed and may be introduced as evidence to the extent necessary to prosecute or defend the matter. At the request of a party, the court may seal any part of the record of the proceeding to prevent further disclosure of the mediation communications or agreements.

(k) When a mediation is conducted as part of the negotiation of a collective bargaining agreement, the following mediation communications are not confidential and such communications may be introduced into evidence in a subsequent administrative, judicial or arbitration proceeding:

(A) A request for mediation; or

(B) A communication from the Employment Relations Board Conciliation Service establishing the time and place of mediation; or

(C) A final offer submitted by the parties to the mediator pursuant to ORS 243.712; or

(D) A strike notice submitted to the Employment Relations Board.

(l) To the extent a mediation communication contains information the substance of which is required to be disclosed by Oregon statute, other than ORS 192.410 to 192.505, that portion of the communication may be disclosed as required by statute.

(m) Written mediation communications prepared by or for the agency or its attorney are not confidential and may be disclosed and may be introduced as evidence in any subsequent administrative, judicial or arbitration proceeding to the extent the communication does not contain confidential information from the mediator or another party, except for those written mediation communications that are:

(A) Attorney-client privileged communications so long as they have been disclosed to no one other than the mediator in the course of the mediation or to persons as to whom disclosure of the communication would not waive the privilege; or

(B) Attorney work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial; or

(C) Prepared exclusively for the mediator or in a caucus session and not given to another party in the mediation other than a state agency; or

(D) Prepared in response to the written request of the mediator for specific documents or information and given to another party in the mediation; or

(E) Settlement concepts or proposals, shared with the mediator or other parties.

(n) A mediation communication made to the agency may be disclosed and may be admitted into evidence to the extent the Agency Director, or designee determines that disclosure of the communication is necessary to prevent or mitigate a serious danger to the public's health or safety, and the communication is not otherwise confidential or privileged under state or federal law.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(o) The terms of any mediation agreement are not confidential and may be introduced as evidence in a subsequent proceeding, except to the extent the terms of the agreement are exempt from disclosure under ORS 192.410 to 192.505, a court has ordered the terms to be confidential under ORS 17.095 or state or federal law requires the terms to be confidential.

(p) The mediator may report the disposition of a mediation to the agency at the conclusion of the mediation so long as the report does not disclose specific confidential mediation communications. The agency or the mediator may use or disclose confidential mediation communications for research, training or educational purposes, subject to the provisions of ORS 36.232(4).

(q) The mediation communication may be disclosed and may be admitted into evidence in a subsequent proceeding to the extent the disclosure is necessary to prevent or mitigate a threat or danger to the health or safety of any child or person 65 years of age or older, person who is mentally ill or developmentally disabled and receives services from a community program or facility as defined in ORS 430.735 or person who is a resident of a long-term care facility.

(10) When a mediation is subject to section (7) of this rule, the agency will provide to all parties to the mediation and the mediator a copy of this rule or a citation to the rule and an explanation of where a copy of the rule may be obtained. Violation of this provision does not waive confidentiality or inadmissibility.

943-014-0205

Confidentiality and Inadmissibility of Workplace Interpersonal Dispute Mediation Communications

(1) This rule applies to workplace interpersonal disputes, which are disputes involving the interpersonal relationships between this agency's employees, officials or employees and officials. This rule does not apply to disputes involving the negotiation of labor contracts or matters about which a formal grievance under a labor contract, a tort claim notice or a lawsuit has been filed.

(2) The words and phrases used in this rule have the same meaning as given to them in ORS 36.110 and 36.234.

(3) Nothing in this rule affects any confidentiality created by other law.

(4) To the extent mediation communications would otherwise be compromise negotiations under ORS 40.190 (OEC Rule 408), those mediation communications are not admissible as provided in ORS 40.190 (OEC Rule 408), notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in section (9) of this rule.

(5) Disclosures by Mediator. A mediator may not disclose or be compelled to disclose mediation communications in a mediation and, if disclosed, such communications may not be introduced into evidence in any subsequent administrative, judicial or arbitration proceeding unless:

(a) All the parties to the mediation and the mediator agree in writing to the disclosure; or

(b) The mediation communication may be disclosed or introduced into evidence in a subsequent proceeding as provided in subsections (c) or (h)-(j) of section (7) of this rule; or

(c) The mediation communication includes information related to the health or safety of any child, then the mediation communication may be disclosed and may be admitted into evidence in a subsequent proceeding to the extent the disclosure is necessary to prevent or mitigate a threat or danger to the health or safety of any child.

(d) The mediation communication includes information relating to suffering by or commission of abuse upon certain persons and that information would otherwise be required to be reported by a public or private official under the provisions of ORS 124.060 (person 65 years of age or older), 430.765 (1) and (2) (person who is mentally ill or developmentally disabled who is 18 years of age or older and receives services from a community program or facility) or 441.640 (person who is a resident in a long-term care facility), in which case that portion of the mediation communication may be disclosed as required by statute.

(6) Confidentiality and Inadmissibility of Mediation Communications. Except as provided in section (7) of this rule, mediation communications in mediations involving workplace interpersonal disputes are confidential and may not be disclosed to any other person, are not admissible in any subsequent administrative, judicial or arbitration proceeding and may not be disclosed during testimony in, or during any discovery conducted as part of a subsequent proceeding, or introduced into evidence by the parties or the mediator in any subsequent proceeding so long as:

(a) The parties to the mediation and the agency have agreed in writing to the confidentiality of the mediation; and

(b) The person agreeing to the confidentiality of the mediation on behalf of the agency:

(A) Is neither a party to the dispute nor the mediator; and

(B) Is designated by the agency to authorize confidentiality for the mediation; and

(C) Is at the same or higher level in the agency than any of the parties to the mediation or who is a person with responsibility for human resources or personnel matters in the agency, unless the agency head or member of the governing board is one of the persons involved in the interpersonal dispute, in which case the Governor or the Governor's designee.

(7) Exceptions to confidentiality and inadmissibility.

(a) Any statements, memoranda, work products, documents and other materials, otherwise subject to discovery that were not prepared specifically for use in the mediation are not confidential and may be disclosed or introduced into evidence in a subsequent proceeding.

(b) Any mediation communications that are public records, as defined in ORS 192.410(4), and were not specifically prepared for use in the mediation are not confidential and may be disclosed or introduced into evidence in a subsequent proceeding unless the substance of the communication is confidential or privileged under state or federal law.

(c) A mediation communication is not confidential and may be disclosed by any person receiving the communication to the extent that person reasonably believes that disclosing the communication is necessary to prevent the commission of a crime that is likely to result in death or bodily injury to any person. A mediation communication is not confidential and may be disclosed in a subsequent proceeding to the extent its disclosure may further the investigation or prosecution of a felony crime involving physical violence to a person.

(d) The parties to the mediation may agree in writing that all or part of the mediation communications are not confidential or that all or part of the mediation communications may be disclosed and may be introduced into evidence in a subsequent proceeding unless the substance of the communication is confidential, privileged or otherwise prohibited from disclosure under state or federal law.

(e) A party to the mediation may disclose confidential mediation communications to a person if the party's communication with that person is privileged under ORS chapter 40 or other provision of law. A party to the mediation may disclose confidential mediation communications to a person for the purpose of obtaining advice concerning the subject matter of the mediation, if all the parties agree.

(f) A written mediation communication may be disclosed or introduced as evidence in a subsequent proceeding at the discretion of the party who prepared the communication so long as the communication is not otherwise confidential under state or federal law and does not contain confidential information from the mediator or another party who does not agree to the disclosure.

(g) In any proceeding to enforce, modify or set aside a mediation agreement, a party to the mediation may disclose mediation communications and such communications may be introduced as evidence to the extent necessary to prosecute or defend the matter. At the request of a party, the court may seal any part of the record of the proceeding to prevent further disclosure of mediation communications or agreements to persons other than the parties to the agreement.

(h) In an action for damages or other relief between a party to the mediation and a mediator or mediation program, mediation communications are not confidential and may be disclosed and may be introduced as evidence to the extent necessary to prosecute or defend the matter. At the request of a party, the court may seal any part of the record of the proceeding to prevent further disclosure of the mediation communications or agreements.

(i) To the extent a mediation communication contains information the substance of which is required to be disclosed by Oregon statute, other than ORS 192.410 to 192.505, that portion of the communication may be disclosed as required by statute.

(j) The mediator may report the disposition of a mediation to the agency at the conclusion of the mediation so long as the report does not disclose specific confidential mediation communications. The agency or the mediator may use or disclose confidential mediation communications for research, training or educational purposes, subject to the provisions of ORS 36.232(4).

(k) The mediation communication may be disclosed and may be admitted into evidence in a subsequent proceeding to the extent the disclosure is necessary to prevent or mitigate a threat or danger to the health or safety of any child or person 65 years of age or older, person who is mentally ill or developmentally disabled and receives services from a community program or facility as defined in ORS 430.735 or person who is a resident of a long-term care facility.

(7) The terms of any agreement arising out of the mediation of a workplace interpersonal dispute are confidential so long as the parties and the agency so agree in writing. Any term of an agreement that requires an expenditure of public funds, other than expenditures of $1,000 or less for employee training, employee counseling or purchases of equipment that remain the property of the agency, may not be made confidential.

(8) When a mediation is subject to section (6) of this rule, the agency will provide to all parties to the mediation and to the mediator a copy of this rule or an explanation of where a copy may be obtained. Violation of this provision does not waive confidentiality or inadmissibility.

Review of Substantiated Physical Abuse When Self-Defense is Asserted at State Hospitals

Protective service investigations and review of findings of alleged abuse in state hospitals are handled by the Office of Investigations and Training (OIT) State hospitals are administered by the Oregon Health Authority (Authority).

(1) The Authority adopts and incorporates by reference OAR 407-045-0000 to 407-045-0110 (Review of Substantiated Physical Abuse When Self-Defense is Asserted at State Hospitals).

(2) Any reference to any rule from OAR 407-045-0000 to 407-045-0110 in rules or contracts of the Authority are deemed to be references to the requirements of this rule, and shall be construed to apply to employees, volunteers, providers, or contractors that work at those locations that are administered by the Authority.

(3) References in OAR 407-045-0000 to 407-045-0110 to the Department of Human Services (Department) or to the Authority shall be construed to be references to either or both agencies.

(4) The Authority authorizes the Department to act on its behalf in carrying out protective service investigations and review of findings of alleged abuse at those locations that are administered by the Authority.

(5) Appeals will be handled by the Authority under the procedures set out in OAR 407-045-0000 to 407-045-0110, however, references to agency actions or decisions that qualify as orders under ORS 183.310(6) that are issued by "the Department" or by "the Director" are hereby incorporated as references to "the Oregon Health Authority" and "the Authority Director."

(6) References in OAR 407-045-0000 to 407-045-0110 to the Human Services Abuse Review Committee (HSARC), the OIT Substantiation Review Committee (OSRC) or "Office of Developmental Disability Services Review Committee" (ODDSRC) shall be construed to be references to committees for either the Department or the Authority.

943-045-0260

Definitions

As used in OAR 943-045-0250 to 943-045-0370, the following definitions apply:

- (1) "Abuse of an adult with developmental disabilities" means:
  - (a) "Abandonment" including desertion or willful forsaking by a person who has assumed responsibility for providing care, when that desertion or forsaking results in harm or places the adult at risk of serious harm.
  - (b) Death of an adult caused by other than accidental or natural means or occurring in unusual circumstances.
  - (c) "Financial exploitation" including:
    - (A) Wrongfully taking the assets, funds, or property belonging to or intended for the use of an adult.
    - (B) Alarming an adult by conveying a threat to wrongfully take or appropriate money or property of the adult if the adult would reasonably believe that the threat conveyed would be carried out.
    - (C) Misappropriating, misusing, or transferring without authorization any money from any account held jointly or singly by an adult.
    - (D) Failing to use the income or assets of an adult effectively for the support and maintenance of the adult. "Effectively" means use of income or assets for the benefit of the adult.
    - (d) "Involuntary seclusion" means the involuntary seclusion of an adult for the convenience of a caregiver or to discipline the adult. Involuntary seclusion may include placing restrictions on an adult's freedom of movement by restriction to his or her room or a specific area, or restriction from access to ordinarily accessible areas of the facility, residence, or program, unless agreed to by the Individual Support Plan (ISP) team included in an approved Behavior Support Plan (BSP) or included in a brokerage plan's specialized support. Restriction may be permitted on an emergency or short term basis when an adult's presence would pose a risk to health or safety.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(e) "Neglect" including:

(A) Active or passive failure to provide the care, supervision, or services necessary to maintain the physical and mental health of an adult that creates a significant risk of harm or results in actual harm to an adult. Services include but are not limited to the provision of food, clothing, medicine, housing, medical services, assistance with bathing or personal hygiene, or any other services essential to the well-being of the adult

(B) Failure of a caregiver to make a reasonable effort to protect an adult from abuse.

(f) "Physical abuse" means:

(A) Any physical injury by other than accidental means or that appears to be at variance with the explanation given for the injury.

(B) Willful infliction of physical pain or injury.

(C) Physical abuse is presumed to cause physical injury, including pain, to adults otherwise incapable of expressing pain.

(g) "Sexual abuse" including:

(A) Sexual contact with a nonconsenting adult or with an adult considered incapable of consenting to a sexual act under ORS 163.315.

(B) Sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, or inappropriate exposure to sexually explicit material or language including requests for sexual favors. Sexual harassment or exploitation includes but is not limited to any sexual contact or failure to discourage sexual contact between an employee of a community facility or community program, provider, or other caregiver and an adult. For situations other than those involving an employee, provider, or other caregiver and an adult, sexual harassment or exploitation means unwelcome physical sexual contact and other physical conduct directed toward an adult.

(C) Any sexual contact between an employee of a facility or paid caregiver and an adult served by the facility or caregiver. Sexual abuse does not mean consensual sexual contact between an adult and a paid caregiver who is the spouse or partner of the adult.

(D) Any sexual contact that is achieved through force, trickery, threat, or coercion.

(E) Any sexual contact between an adult with a developmental disability and a relative of the person with a developmental disability other than a spouse or partner. "Relative" means a parent, grandparent, children, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, half brother, half sister, stepparent, or stepchild.

(F) As defined in ORS 163.305, "sexual contact" means any touching of the sexual or other intimate parts of a person or causing such person to touch the sexual or other intimate parts of the actor for the purpose of arousing or gratifying the sexual desire of either party.

(h) "Wrongful restraint" means:

(A) A wrongful use of a physical or chemical restraint, excluding an act of restraint prescribed by a licensed physician, by any adult support team approved plan, or in connection with a court order.

(B) "Wrongful restraint" does not include physical emergency restraint to prevent immediate injury to an adult who is in danger of physically harming himself or herself or others, provided only that the degree of force reasonably necessary for protection is used for the least amount of time necessary.

(i) "Verbal abuse" includes threatening significant physical harm or causing emotional harm to an adult through the use of:

(A) Derogatory or inappropriate names, insults, verbal assaults, profanity, or ridicule.

(B) Harassment, coercion, punishment, deprivation, threats, implied threats, intimidation, humiliation, mental cruelty, or inappropriate sexual comments.

(C) A threat to withhold services or supports, including an implied or direct threat of termination of services. "Services" include but are not limited to the provision of food, clothing, medicine, housing, medical services, assistance with bathing or personal hygiene, or any other services essential to the well-being of an adult.

(D) For purposes of this section, verbal conduct includes but is not limited to the use of oral, written, or gestured communication that is directed to an adult or within their hearing distance, or sight if gestured, regardless of their ability to comprehend. In this circumstance the assessment of the conduct is based on a reasonable person standard.

(E) The emotional harm that can result from verbal abuse may include but is not limited to anguish, distress, or fear.

(j) An adult who in good faith is voluntarily under treatment solely by spiritual means through prayer in accordance with the tenets and practices of a recognized church or religious denomination by a duly accredited practitioner shall for this reason alone not be considered subjected to abuse.

(2) "Abuse of an adult with mental illness" means:

(a) Death of an adult caused by other than accidental or natural means or occurring in unusual circumstances.

(b) "Neglect" including:

(A) Active or passive failure to provide the care, supervision, or services necessary to maintain the physical and mental health of an adult that results in actual harm or significant mental injury to an adult. "Services" include but are not limited to the provision of food, clothing, medicine, housing, medical services, assistance with bathing or personal hygiene, or any other services essential to the well-being of the adult.

(B) Failure of a caregiver to make a reasonable effort to protect an adult from abuse.

(c) "Physical abuse" means:

(A) Any physical injury by other than accidental means or that appears to be at variance with the explanation given for the injury.

(B) Willful infliction of physical pain or injury.

(C) Physical abuse is presumed to cause physical injury, including pain, to adults otherwise incapable of expressing pain.

(d) "Sexual abuse" including:

(A) Sexual contact with a nonconsenting adult or with an adult considered incapable of consenting to a sexual act under ORS 163.315.

(B) Sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, or inappropriate exposure to sexually explicit material or language including requests for sexual favors. Sexual harassment or exploitation includes but is not limited to any sexual contact or failure to discourage sexual contact between an employee of a community facility or community program, provider, or other caregiver and an adult. For situations other than those involving an employee, provider, or other caregiver and an adult, sexual harassment or exploitation means unwelcome physical sexual contact including requests for sexual favors and other physical conduct directed toward an adult.

(C) Any sexual contact between an employee of a facility or paid caregiver and an adult served by the facility or caregiver. Sexual abuse does not mean consensual sexual contact between an adult and a paid caregiver who is the spouse or partner of the adult.

(D) Any sexual contact that is achieved through force, trickery, threat, or coercion.

(E) As defined in ORS 163.305, "sexual contact" means any touching of sexual or other intimate parts of a person or causing such person to touch sexual or other intimate parts of the actor for the purpose of arousing or gratifying the sexual desire of either party.

(e) For the purpose of section (2) of this rule, the following definitions apply:

(A) "Employee" means an individual who provides a program service or who takes part in a program service and who receives wages, a salary, or is otherwise paid by the program for providing the service.

(B) "Program staff" means an employee or individual who, by contract with the program, provides a service and who has the applicable competencies, qualifications, and certification, required by the Integrated Services and Supports Rule (ISSR) (OAR 309-032-1500 to 309-032-1565) to provide the service.

(C) "Provider" means a qualified individual or an organizational entity operated by or contractually affiliated with a community mental health program, or contracted directly with the Authority's Addictions and Mental Health Division (Division ) for the direct delivery of mental health services and supports.

(D) "Volunteer" means an individual who provides a program service or who takes part in a program service and who is not an employee of the program and is not paid for services. The services must be non-clinical unless the individual has the required credentials to provide a clinical service.

(E) In addition to the definitions of abuse in section (2)(a) through (d), abuse also has the following meanings for employees, program staff, providers, and volunteers:

(i) "Abandonment" including desertion or willful forsaking by an individual who has assumed responsibility for providing care when the desertion or forsaking results in harm or places the adult at a risk of serious harm.

(ii) "Financial exploitation" including:

(I) Wrongfully taking the assets, funds, or property belonging to or intended for the use of an adult.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(II) Alarming an adult by conveying a threat to wrongfully take or appropriate money or property of the adult if the adult would reasonably believe that the threat conveyed would be carried out.

(III) Misappropriating, misusing, or transferring without authorization any money from any account held jointly or singly by an adult.

(IV) Failing to use the income or assets of an adult effectively for the support and maintenance of the adult. "Effectively" means use of income or assets for the benefit of the adult.

(iii) "Involuntary Seclusion" means the involuntary seclusion of an adult for the convenience of a caregiver or to discipline the adult. Involuntary seclusion may include placing restrictions on an adult's freedom of movement by restriction to his or her room or a specific area or restriction from access to ordinarily accessible areas of the facility, residence, or program unless agreed to by the treatment plan. Restriction may be permitted on an emergency or short term basis when an adult's presence would pose a risk to health or safety.

(iv) "Neglect" including active or passive failure to provide the care, supervision, or services necessary to maintain the physical and mental health of an adult that creates a significant risk of harm to an adult or results in actual harm or significant mental injury to an adult. Services include but are not limited to the provision of food, clothing, medicine, housing, medical services, assistance with bathing or personal hygiene, or any other services essential to the well-being of the adult.

(v) "Verbal abuse" includes threatening significant physical harm or causing emotional harm to an adult through the use of:

(I) Derogatory or inappropriate names, insults, verbal assaults, profanity, or ridicule.

(II) Harassment, coercion, punishment, deprivation, threats, implied threats, intimidation, humiliation, mental cruelty, or inappropriate sexual comments.

(III) A threat to withhold services or supports, including an implied or direct threat of termination of services. "Services" include but are not limited to the provision of food, clothing, medicine, housing, medical services, assistance with bathing or personal hygiene, or any other services essential to the well-being of an adult.

(IV) For purposes of this section, verbal conduct includes but is not limited to the use of oral, written, or gestured communication that is directed to an adult or within their hearing distance or sight, regardless of their ability to comprehend. In this circumstance the assessment of the conduct is based on a reasonable person standard.

(V) The emotional harm that can result from verbal abuse may include but is not limited to anguish, distress, or fear.

(vi) "Wrongful restraint" means:

(I) A wrongful use of a physical or chemical restraint excluding an act of restraint prescribed by a licensed physician pursuant to OAR 309-033-0730.

(II) Abuse does not include physical emergency restraint to prevent immediate injury to an adult who is in danger of physically harming himself or herself or others, provided that only the degree of force reasonably necessary for protection is used for the least amount of time necessary.

(F) An adult who in good faith is voluntarily under treatment solely by spiritual means through prayer in accordance with the tenets and practices of a recognized church or religious denomination by a duly accredited practitioner shall for this reason alone not be considered subjected to abuse.

(3) "Abuse Investigation and Protective Services Report" means a completed report.

(4) "Adult" means an adult who is 18 years of age or older who:

(a) Has a developmental disability and is currently receiving services from a community program or facility or was previously determined eligible for services as an adult by a community program or facility; or

(b) Has a mental illness and is receiving services from a community program or facility.

(c) Receives services from a community program or facility or care provider which is licensed or certified by or contracts with the Authority or Department; and

(d) Is the alleged abuse victim.

(5) "Adult protective services" means the necessary actions taken to prevent abuse or exploitation of an adult, to prevent self-destructive acts, and to safeguard an allegedly abused adult's person, property, or funds.

(6) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(7) "Brokerage" or "Support service brokerage" means an entity, or distinct operating unit within an existing entity, that performs the functions listed in OAR 411-340-0120(1)(a) to (g) associated with planning for and implementation of support services for an adult with developmental disabilities.

(8) "Caregiver" means an individual or facility that has assumed responsibility for all or a portion of the care of an adult as a result of a contract or agreement.

(9) "Community facility" means a community residential treatment home or facility, community residential facility, adult foster home, community residential training home or facility, or a facility approved by AMH for acute care services or crisis respite.

(10) "Community program" means the community mental health or developmental disabilities program as established in ORS 430.610 to 430.695.

(11) "Designee" means the community program.

(12) "Department" means the Department of Human Services.

(13) "Inconclusive" means there is insufficient evidence to conclude the alleged abuse occurred or did not occur by a preponderance of the evidence. The inconclusive determination may be used only in the following circumstances:

(a) After diligent efforts have been made, the protective services investigator is unable to locate the person alleged to have committed the abuse, or cannot locate the alleged victim or another individual who might have information critical to the investigation; or

(b) Relevant records or documents are unavailable, or there is conflicting or inconsistent information from witnesses, documents, or records with the result that after the investigation is complete, there is insufficient evidence to support a substantiated or not substantiated conclusion.

(14) "Law enforcement agency" means any city or municipal police department, county sheriff's office, the Oregon State Police, or any district attorney.

(15) "Mandatory reporter" means any public or private official who, while acting in an official capacity, comes in contact with and has reasonable cause to believe that an adult has suffered abuse, or that any individual with whom the official comes in contact while acting in an official capacity has abused an adult. Pursuant to ORS 430.765(2), psychiatrists, psychologists, clergy, and attorneys are not mandatory reporters with regard to information received through communications that are privileged under ORS 40.225 to 20.295.

(16) "Not substantiated" means the preponderance of evidence establishes the alleged abuse did not occur.

(17) "OIT" means the Department's Office of Investigations and Training.

(18) "Provider agency" means an entity licensed or certified to provide services, or which is responsible for the management of services to clients.

(19) "Public or private official" means:

(a) Physician, naturopathic physician, osteopathic physician, psychologist, chiropractor, or podiatrist, including any intern or resident;

(b) Licensed practical nurse, registered nurse, nurse's aide, home health aide, or employee of an in-home health services organization;

(c) Employee of the Authority, Department, county health department, community mental health or developmental disabilities program, or private agency contracting with a public body to provide any community services;

(d) Peace officer;

(e) Member of the clergy;

(f) Licensed clinical social worker;

(g) Physical, speech, or occupational therapist;

(h) Information and referral, outreach, or crisis worker;

(i) Attorney;

(j) Firefighter or emergency medical technician; or

(k) Any public official who comes in contact with adults in the performance of the official's duties.

(20) "Substantiated" means that the preponderance of evidence establishes the abuse occurred.

(21) "Unbiased investigation" means an investigation that is conducted by a community program that does not have an actual or potential conflict of interest with the outcome of the investigation.

General Duties of the Community Program and Initial Action on Report of Alleged Abuse

(1) For the purpose of carrying out these rules, community programs are Authority designees.

(2) If mandatory reporters have reasonable cause to believe abuse has occurred, the reporter must report the abuse to the community program and to a local law enforcement agency when the reporter believes a crime may have been committed.

(3) Each community program shall designate at least one employee to conduct protective services investigations. Community programs shall require their designated protective services investigators to participate in training and to demonstrate an understanding of investigative core competencies.

(4) If the Authority or community program has reasonable cause to believe abuse occurred, it must immediately notify the appropriate public licensing or certifying agency and provide a copy of the abuse investigation and completed protective services report.

(5) If the Authority or community program has reasonable cause to believe that an individual licensed or certified by any state agency to provide care has committed abuse, it must immediately notify the appropriate state licensing or certifying agency and provide that agency with a copy of the abuse investigation and completed protective services report.

(6) The Authority or community program may share information prior to the completion of the abuse investigation and protective services report if the information is necessary for:

(a) The provision of protective services; or

(b) The function of licensing and certifying agencies or law enforcement agencies.

(7) Each community program must establish an after hours reporting system.

(8) Upon receipt of any report of alleged abuse or upon receipt of a report of a death that may have been caused by other than accidental or natural means, the community program must begin:

(a) Investigation into the nature and cause of the alleged abuse within one working day of receipt of the report to determine if abuse occurred or whether a death was caused by abuse;

(b) Assessment of the need for protective services; and

(c) Provision of protective services, if protective services are needed.

(9) The community program receiving a report alleging abuse must document the information required by ORS 430.743(1) and any additional reported information. The community program must attempt to elicit the following information from the individual making a report:

(a) The name, age, and present location of the adult;

(b) The names and addresses of the adult's programs or facilities responsible for the adult's care;

(c) The nature and extent of the alleged abuse, including any evidence of previous abuse of the adult or evidence of previous abuse by the person alleged to have committed the abuse;

(d) Any information that led the individual making the report to suspect abuse had occurred;

(e) Any information that the individual believes might be helpful in establishing the cause of the abuse and the identity of the person alleged to have committed the abuse; and

(f) The date of the incident.

(10) The community program shall maintain all reports of abuse in a confidential location.

(11) If there is reason to believe a crime has been committed, the community program must determine if the adult is in danger or in need of immediate protective services and shall provide those services immediately. Under these circumstances, the community program must also advise the provider agency, brokerage, or guardian about the allegation, and must include any information appropriate or necessary for the health, safety, and best interests of the adult in need of protection.

(13) The community program shall immediately, but no later than one working day, notify the Authority it has received a report of abuse, in the format provided by the Authority.

(14) If the community program determines from the report that there is no reasonable cause to believe abuse occurred, the community program shall notify the provider agency or brokerage within five working days that a protective services investigation shall not commence and explain the reasons for that decision. The community program shall document the notice and maintain a record of all notices.

(15) If the community program determines that a report will be assigned for investigation, the community program must notify the provider agency, brokerage, guardian, and any other individual with responsibility for providing services and protection, unless doing so would compromise the safety, health, or best interests of the adult in need of protection, or would compromise the integrity of the abuse investigation or a criminal investigation. The notice shall include information that the case shall be assigned for investigation, identify the investigator, and provide information regarding how the assigned investigator may be contacted. The notice must be provided within five working days from the date the report was received.

(16) The community program or law enforcement agency shall notify the appropriate medical examiner in cases where the community program or law enforcement agency finds reasonable cause to believe that an adult has died as a result of abuse or where the death occurred under suspicious or unknown circumstances.

Investigation of Alleged Abuse

(1) Investigation of abuse shall be thorough and unbiased. Community programs may not investigate allegations of abuse made against employees of the community program. Investigations of community program staff shall be conducted by the Authority or other community programs not subject to an actual or potential conflict of interest.

(2) In conducting an abuse investigation, the investigator must:

(a) Make in-person contact with the adult;

(b) Interview the adult, witnesses, the person alleged to have committed the abuse, and other individuals who may have knowledge of the facts of the abuse allegation or related circumstances. Interviews must be conducted in-person where practicable. The investigator must attempt to elicit the date of birth for each individual interviewed and shall obtain the date of birth of any person alleged to have committed the alleged abuse;

(c) Review all evidence relevant and material to the complaint; and

(d) Photograph the adult consistent with forensic guidelines, or arrange for the adult to be photographed, to preserve evidence of the alleged abuse and of the adult's physical condition at the time of investigation, unless the adult knowingly refuses.

(3) All records necessary for the investigation shall be available to the community program for inspection and copying. A community facility shall provide community programs access to employees, the adult, and the premises for investigation purposes.

(4) When a law enforcement agency is conducting a criminal investigation of the alleged abuse, the community program shall also perform its own investigation as long as it does not interfere with the law enforcement agency investigation under the following circumstances:

(a) There is potential for action by a licensing or certifying agency;

(b) Timely investigation by law enforcement is not probable; or

(c) The law enforcement agency does not complete a criminal investigation.

(5) When a law enforcement agency is conducting an investigation of the alleged abuse, the community program must communicate and cooperate with the law enforcement agency.

vide for the greatest degree of independence available within existing resources. Assessment for the provision of protective services may include:

- (1) Arranging for the immediate protection of the adult;
- (2) Contacting the adult to assess his or her ability to protect his or her own interest or give informed consent;
- (3) Determining the ability of the adult to understand the nature of the protective service and his or her willingness to accept services;
- (4) Coordinating evaluations to determine or verify the adult's physical and mental status, if necessary;
- (5) Assisting in and arranging for appropriate services and alternative living arrangements;
- (6) Assisting in or arranging the medical, legal, financial, or other necessary services to prevent further abuse;
- (7) Providing advocacy to assure the adult's rights and entitlements are protected; and
- (8) Consulting with the community facility, program, brokerage, or others as appropriate in developing recommendations or requirements to prevent further abuse.

Abuse Investigation and Protective Services Report

(1) The Authority shall provide abuse investigation and protective services report formats.

(2) Upon completion of the investigation and within 45 calendar days of the date the community program determines a report alleging abuse shall be assigned for investigation, the community programs shall prepare an abuse investigation and protective services report. This 45-day time period does not include an additional five-working day period allowing OIT to review and approve the report. The protective services report shall include:

- (a) A statement of the allegations being investigated, including the date, location, and time;
- (b) A list of protective services provided to the adult;
- (c) An outline of steps taken in the investigation, a list of all witnesses interviewed, and a summary of the information provided by each witness;
- (d) A summary of findings and conclusion concerning the allegation of abuse;
- (e) A specific finding of "substantiated," "inconclusive," or "not substantiated";
- (f) A plan of action necessary to prevent further abuse of the adult;
- (g) Any additional corrective action required by the community program and deadlines for completing these actions;
- (h) A list of any notices made to licensing or certifying agencies;
- (i) The name and title of the individual completing the report; and
- (j) The date the report is written.

(3) In cases where, for good cause shown, the protective services investigator cannot complete the report within 45 days, the investigator shall submit a request for time extension to OIT.

(a) An extension may be granted for good cause shown which includes but is not limited to:

- (A) When law enforcement is conducting an investigation;
- (B) A material party or witness is temporarily unavailable;
- (C) New evidence is discovered;
- (D) The investigation is complex (e.g. large numbers of witnesses need to be interviewed taking into account scheduling difficulties and limitations, consultation with experts, or a detailed review of records over an extended period of time is required); or
- (E) For some other mitigating reason.

(b) When granting an extension, OIT shall consult with the program about the need for an extension and determine the length of the extension as necessary.

(c) The community program shall notify the provider agency, brokerage, and guardian when an extension is granted and advise them of the new report due date.

(4) A copy of the final abuse investigation and protective services report shall be provided to the Authority or Department within five working days of the report's completion and approval by OIT.

(5) The community program must provide notice of the outcome of the investigation, or assure that notice is provided to the alleged victim, guardian, provider agency and brokerage, accused person, and to any law enforcement agency which previously received notice of the initial report. Notice of outcome shall be provided to a reporter upon the reporter's request. Notice of outcome must be made within five working days after the date the case is completed and approved by OIT. The community program must document how the notice was provided.

(6) A centralized record of all abuse investigation and protective services reports shall be maintained by community programs for all abuse investigations conducted in their county, and by the Authority or Department for all abuse investigations in the state.

Disclosure of the Abuse Investigation and Protective Services Report and Related Documents

(1) Portions of the abuse investigation and protective services report and underlying investigatory documents are confidential and are not available for public inspection. Pursuant to ORS 430.763, names of abuse reporters, witnesses, and the alleged abuse victim are confidential and shall not be available for public inspection. Investigatory documents, including portions of the abuse investigation and protective services report that contains "individually identifiable health information," as that term is defined under ORS 192.519 and 45 CFR 160.103, are confidential under federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) privacy rules, 45 CFR Parts 160 and 164, and ORS 192.520 and 179.505-179.509.

(2) Notwithstanding section (1) of this rule, the Authority shall make confidential information available, including any photographs if appropriate, to any law enforcement agency, public agency that licenses or certifies facilities or licenses or certifies the individuals practicing therein, and any public agency providing protective services for the adult. The Authority shall make the protective services report and underlying investigatory materials available to any private agency providing protective services for the adult and to the protection and advocacy system designated pursuant to ORS 192.517(1).

(3) Individuals or entities receiving confidential information pursuant to this rule shall maintain the confidentiality of the information and shall not redisclose the confidential information to unauthorized individuals or entities, as required by state or federal law.

(4) The community program shall prepare a redacted version of the final completed abuse investigation report within 10 days after the date of the final report. The redacted report shall not contain any confidential information which is prohibited from disclosure pursuant to state or federal law. The redacted report shall be submitted to the provider agency and brokerage.

(5) The community program shall provide a redacted version of the written report to the public for inspection upon written request.

(6) When the abuse investigation and protective services report is conducted by a community program as the Authority's designee, the protective services investigation may be disclosed pursuant to this rule either by the community program or the Authority.

Prohibition Against Retaliation

(1) A community facility, community program, or individual shall not retaliate against any individual who reports suspected abuse in good faith, including the adult.

(2) Any community facility, community program, or individual that retaliates against any individual because of a report of suspected abuse shall be liable, according to ORS 430.755, in a private action to that individual for actual damages and, in addition, a civil penalty up to $1,000, notwithstanding any other remedy provided by law.

(3) Any adverse action creates a presumption of retaliation if taken within 90 days of a report of abuse. For purposes of this sub-section, "adverse action" means any action taken by a community facility, community program, or individual involved in a report against the individual making the report or against the adult because of the report and includes but is not limited to:

- (a) Discharge or transfer from the community facility, except for clinical reasons;
- (b) Termination of employment;
- (c) Demotion or reduction in remuneration for services; or
- (d) Restriction or prohibition of access to the community facility or its residents.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(4) Adverse action may also be evidence of retaliation after 90 days even though the presumption no longer applies.

Immunity of Individuals Making Reports in Good Faith

(1) Any individual who makes a good faith report and who has reasonable grounds for making the report shall have immunity from civil liability with respect to having made the report.

(2) The reporter shall have the same immunity in any judicial proceeding resulting from the report as may be available in that proceeding.

(3) An individual who has personal knowledge that an employee or former employee of the adult was found to have committed abuse is immune from civil liability for the disclosure to a prospective employer of the employee of known facts concerning the abuse.

Authority Investigation of Alleged Abuse

(1) If determined necessary or appropriate, the Authority may conduct an investigation rather than allow the community program to investigate the alleged abuse or in addition to the investigation by the community program. Under such circumstances, the community program must receive authorization from the Authority before conducting any separate investigation.

(2) The community program shall make all records necessary for the investigation available to the Authority for inspection and copying. The community facilities and community programs must provide the Authority access to employees, the adult, and the premises for investigation purposes.

General Policy

(1) The Authority believes every individual is deserving of safe, respectful and dignified treatment provided in a caring environment. To that end, all employees, volunteers, contractors and their employees, as well as visitors shall conduct themselves in such a manner that individuals are free from abuse.

(2) In these rules, the term "abuse" is given a broad definition because of the unique vulnerability of individuals served by the Authority. While some examples are listed later in these rules (including specific conduct listed in ORS 430.735(1)), it must be clearly understood that all possible situations cannot be anticipated and each case must be evaluated based on the particular facts available.

Policy Regarding Abuse

(1) All forms of Abuse Prohibited. Staff, visitors, volunteers, contractors and their employees must continually be aware of the potential for abuse in interactions with individuals.

(2) Listed below are examples of the type of conduct which constitutes abuse. This list of examples is by no means exhaustive and represents general categories of prohibited conduct. Conduct of a like or similar nature is also obviously prohibited. Examples include, but are not limited to:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) Physical Abuse: Examples include hitting, kicking, scratching, pinching, choking, spanking, pushing, slapping, twisting of head, arms, or legs, tripping, the use of physical force which is unnecessary or excessive or other physical contact with an individual inconsistent with prescribed treatment or care;

(b) Verbal Abuse: Verbal conduct may be abusive because of either the manner of communicating with or the content of the communication with individuals. Examples include yelling, ridicule, harassment, coercion, threats, intimidation, cursing, foul language or other forms of communication which are derogatory or disrespectful of the individual, or remarks intended to provoke a negative response by the individual;

(c) Abuse by Failure to Act: This includes neglecting the care of the individual resulting in death (including suicide), physical or psychological harm, or a significant risk of harm to the individual either by failing to provide authorized and prescribed treatment or by failing to intervene when an individual needs assistance such as denying food or drink or leaving the individual unattended when staff presence is mandated;

(d) Sexual Abuse: Examples include:

(A) Contact of a sexual nature between staff and individuals;

(B) Failure to discourage sexual advances toward staff by individuals; and

(C) Permitting the sexual exploitation of individuals or use of individual sexual activity for staff entertainment or other improper purpose.

(e) Condoning Abuse: Permitting abusive conduct toward an individual by any other staff, individual, or person; and

(f) Statutory Terms of Abuse: As defined in ORS 430.735: any death caused by other than accidental or natural means; any physical injury caused by other than accidental means, or that appears to be at variance with the explanation given of the injury; willful infliction of physical pain or injury, sexual harassment or exploitation, including but not limited to any sexual contact between an employee of a facility or community program and an adult, and neglect that leads to physical harm or significant mental injury through withholding of services necessary to maintain health and well being.

(3) At times, persons may be required to utilize self-defense. This includes control procedures that are designed to minimize physical injury to the individual or other persons. Employees must use the least restrictive procedures necessary under the circumstances for dealing with an individual's behaviors or defending against an individual's attack. Abuse does not include acts of self-defense or defense of an individual or other person in response to the use or imminent use of physical force provided that only the degree of force reasonably necessary for protection is used. When excessively severe methods of control are used or when any conduct designed as self-defense is carried beyond what is necessary under the circumstances to protect the individual or other persons from further violence or assault, then that conduct then becomes abuse.

Reporting Requirements

(1) Oregon law requires mandatory reports and investigations of allegations of abuse of individuals with disabilities. Therefore, any person who has reasonable cause to believe that an incident of abuse has occurred to an individual residing at a state hospital must immediately report the incident according to the procedures set forth in the applicable state hospital policy on abuse reporting.

(2) Any person participating in good faith in reporting alleged abuse and who has reasonable grounds for reporting has immunity from any civil liability that otherwise might be imposed or incurred based on the reporting or the content of the report under ORS 430.753(1).

(3) The identity of the person reporting alleged abuse is confidential. The Authority or OIT may reveal the names of abuse reporters to law enforcement agencies, public agencies who certify or license facilities or persons practicing therein, public agencies providing services to the individuals, private agencies providing protective services for the individuals, and the protection and advocacy system for individuals designated by federal law. The identity of the person reporting alleged abuse may also be disclosed in certain legal proceedings including, but not limited to, Human Resources or other administrative proceedings and criminal prosecution.

Preliminary Procedures

(1) Once a report of alleged abuse is made, the following steps shall be taken to ensure both a proper investigation and appropriate action are taken to ensure that individuals are free from any threat of abuse:

(a) No later than two hours after receipt of the allegation except for circumstances with good cause the Superintendent shall notify OIT of the report of alleged abuse. OIT shall determine whether the allegation, if true, would fit within the definition of abuse. This determination shall be made in consultation with the Superintendent. The determination must be made by OIT within 24 hours of receipt of the report of abuse;

(b) If the allegation is determined not to fit the definition of abuse, the Superintendent may take other appropriate action, such as a referral to Human Resources for review as a performance issue, worksite training, or take other systemic measures to resolve problems identified;

(c) The Superintendent with OIT shall ensure that if the allegation meets the definition of child abuse under ORS 419B.005, or elder abuse under ORS 124.050 that the allegation has been reported to the appropriate agency.

(2) Immediately and no later than 24 hours after determining that the allegation falls within the definition of abuse under this policy or other applicable laws, the Superintendent shall:

(a) Provide appropriate protective services to the individual that may include arranging for immediate protection of the individual and the provision of appropriate services including medical, legal, or other services necessary to prevent further abuse;

(b) Determine with OIT if there is reason to believe that an investigation by an appropriate law enforcement agency is necessary, and if so, request that such agency determine whether there is reason to believe a crime has been committed;

(c) Make a report to any other appropriate agencies.

(d) Promptly notify the legal guardian (of an adjudicated incapacitated individual) of the alleged incident and give an explanation of the procedures that will be used to investigate and resolve the matter; as well as the hospital's responsibility and plan to provide appropriate protective services;

(e) Contact the Director if the individual has sustained serious injury.

Investigation by the Office of Investigations and Training

(1) Investigation of allegations of abuse shall be thorough and unbiased. OIT shall conduct an investigation of the allegation.

(2) OIT shall conduct interviews with any party alleging an incident of abuse, the individual allegedly abused, and the person accused. OIT shall also include interviews with persons appearing to be involved in or having knowledge of the alleged abuse or surrounding circumstances.

(3) All records necessary for the investigation shall be available to OIT for inspection and copying. OIT shall collect information which has relevance to the alleged event. This may include, but is not limited to, individual or facility records, statements, diagrams, photographs, and videos.

(4) If the facts in the case are disputed and a law enforcement agency does not conduct a timely investigation or complete a criminal investigation, OIT shall determine the manner and methods of conducting the investigation.

(5) When a law enforcement agency is conducting a criminal investigation of the alleged abuse, OIT shall also perform its own investigation unless OIT is advised by the law enforcement agency that a concurrent OIT investigation would interfere with the criminal investigation.

Abuse Investigation Report

(1) OIT shall complete the investigation and submit a draft report to the Superintendent within 30 calendar days after initiating an investigation. The investigation must be completed within 30 calendar days unless the Director grants an extension. The Director may grant an extension for good cause shown when law enforcement is conducting an investigation, when a key party is unavailable, new evidence is discovered, the investigation is complex (e.g. large numbers of witnesses need to be interviewed, taking into account scheduling difficulties and limitations, consultation with experts, or a detailed review of records over an extended period of time is required) or for some other mitigating reason. The Director shall determine the length of the extension.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) The Superintendent and OIT shall review the OIT or law enforcement investigation report. The Superintendent and OIT shall also review and discuss any other relevant reports or information.

(3) OIT shall determine whether the evidence substantiates the allegation of abuse. In some instances, OIT may determine that the evidence is inconclusive. The determination must be made within 15 calendar days from completion of the draft investigation report, unless a key party is unavailable, additional evidence is discovered, or the Director grants an extension for some other mitigating reason. Any determination not made within the 15-day period must be made as soon as reasonably possible thereafter.

(4) Once this review is complete, OIT shall prepare a final report, which shall include:

(a) A statement of the allegations being investigated, including the date, location and time;

(b) A list of protective services provided to the adult;

(c) An outline of steps taken in the investigation, a list of all witnesses interviewed and a summary of the information provided by each witness;

(d) A summary of evidence and conclusion concerning the allegation of abuse;

(e) A specific finding of substantiated, inconclusive, or not substantiated;

(f) A plan of action necessary to prevent further abuse of the individual;

(g) Any additional corrective action required by the hospital and deadlines for the completion of these actions;

(h) A list of any notices made to licensing or certifying agencies;

(i) The name and title of the person completing the report; and

(j) The date written.

(5) If the allegation of abuse is substantiated, the Superintendent shall direct that appropriate action be taken against the responsible person commensurate with the seriousness of the conduct and any aggravating or mitigating circumstances, including consideration of previous conduct of record. If Human Resources are involved, as necessary to comply with laws related to employee rights, additional investigation may be conducted.

(6) If the allegations are found to be inconclusive, the Superintendent may request a review by Human Resources to determine the need for any training or disciplinary action, as warranted by the facts and any follow-up investigative work.

(7) The Superintendent shall ensure that appropriate documentation exists as to the action taken as a result of an abuse investigation.

(8) The Superintendent shall ensure that a copy of the law enforcement investigation report is forwarded to OIT.

Disclosure of Investigation Report and Related Documents

(1) Investigation reports prepared by OIT are subject to the following:

(a) Portions of the abuse investigation report and investigatory documents are confidential and not available for public inspection. Pursuant to ORS 430.763, names of persons who make reports of abuse, witnesses, and the alleged abuse victim are confidential and shall not be available for public inspection. Investigatory documents, including portions of the abuse investigation report that contains "Individually identifiable health information", as that term is defined under ORS 192.519 and 45 CFR 160.103, are confidential under HIPAA privacy rules, 45 CFR Part 160 and 164, and ORS 192.520 and 179.505 to 509.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this rule, the Authority and OIT shall make the confidential information, including any photographs, available, if appropriate, to any law enforcement agency, to any public agency that licenses or certifies facilities or licenses or certifies the persons practicing therein, and to any public agency providing protective services for the adult. The Authority and OIT shall also make the protective services report and underlying investigatory materials available to any private agency providing protective services for the adult and to the protection and advocacy system designated pursuant to ORS 192.517(1).

(c) Persons or entities receiving confidential information pursuant to this rule must maintain the confidentiality of the information and may not disclose the confidential information to unauthorized persons or entities, as required by state or federal law.

(d) When the report is completed, a redacted version of the abuse investigation report not containing any confidential information, the disclosure of which would be prohibited by state or federal law shall be available for public inspection.

(2) The OIT report shall be disclosed by OIT or the Superintendent to:

(a) The Director of the Division and

(b) Any person designated by the Superintendent for purposes related to the proper administration of the state hospital such as assessing patterns of abuse or to respond to personnel actions and may be disclosed in the Superintendent's discretion;

(c) The individual involved;

(d) The guardian of an adjudicated incapacitated person; and

(e) The person who allegedly abused the individual.

(3) Copies of all reports shall be maintained by the Superintendent separate from employee personnel files. The chart of the individual allegedly abused must contain a reference to the report sufficient to enable authorized persons to retrieve and review the report.

Consequences of Abuse

(1) All persons shall be subject to appropriate action if found responsible for:

(a) Abusing an individual;

(b) Failing to report an alleged incident of abuse; or

(c) Refusing to give information or giving untruthful information during an investigation of alleged abuse.

(2) Any discipline of an employee as a result of the above-described conduct must be in conformance with any applicable standards contained in state law or in a Collective Bargaining Agreement.

(3) Any employee dismissed for violating the abuse policy may not be rehired in any capacity, may not be permitted to visit or have any type of contact with individuals.

(4) Any volunteer found violating the abuse policy may be denied visitation or any other contact with individuals.

(5) The Authority may immediately terminate the contract of any contractor found violating the abuse policy. Any employee of the contractor found violating the abuse policy may be excluded from the grounds and may be subject to appropriate disciplinary action by the employer.

(6) Any visitor found in violation of the abuse policy may be excluded from the grounds and will be subject to other appropriate actions as determined by the Superintendent.

(7) Any employee, volunteer, contractor, contractor's employee, or visitor may be subject to criminal prosecution depending on the outcome of any allegation referred to law enforcement for investigation.

(8) Any staff found to have violated the abuse policy shall be reported to any appropriate professional licensing or certification boards or associations.

Notice of Abuse Policy

(1) Upon admission each individual, and guardian if any, and family must be informed orally and in writing of the rights, policies, abuse definitions and procedures concerning prohibition of abuse of individuals.

(2) A clear and simple statement of the title and number of this policy and how to seek advice about its content must be prominently displayed in areas frequented by individuals at the state hospital.

(3) All staff shall be provided a copy of this rule, either at the commencement of their employment, or duties, or, for current staff, within 90 days of the effective date of this rule and once a year thereafter. All staff must sign a form acknowledging receipt of this information on the date of receipt.

(4) A summary of this policy shall be posted in the state hospital in areas regularly frequented by visitors and in a manner designed to notify visitors of the policy. Copies of the complete policy shall be provided to visitors upon request.

943-120-0100

Definitions

The following definitions apply to OAR 943-120-0100 through 943-120-0200:

(1) "Access" means the ability or means necessary to read, write, modify, or communicate data or information or otherwise use any information system resource.

(2) "Agent" means a third party or organization that contracts with a provider, allied agency, or prepaid health plan (PHP) to perform designated services in order to facilitate a transaction or conduct other business functions on its behalf. Agents include billing agents, claims clearinghouses, vendors, billing services, service bureaus, and accounts receivable management firms. Agents may also be clinics, group practices, and facilities that submit billings on behalf of providers but the payment is made to a provider, including the following: an employer of a provider, if a provider is required as a condition of employment to turn over his fees to the employer; the facility in which the service is provided, if a provider has a contract under which the facility submits the claim; or a foundation, plan, or similar organization operating an organized health care delivery system, if a provider has a contract under which the organization submits the claim. Agents may also include electronic data transmission submitters.

(3) "Allied Agency" means local and regional allied agencies and includes local mental health authority, community mental health programs, Oregon Youth Authority, Department of Corrections, local health departments, schools, education service districts, developmental disability service programs, area agencies on aging, federally recognized American Indian tribes, and other governmental agencies or regional authorities that have a contract (including an interagency, intergovernmental, or grant agreement, or an agreement with an American Indian tribe pursuant to ORS 190.110) with the Oregon Health Authority to provide for the delivery of services to covered individuals and that request to conduct electronic data transactions in relation to the contract.

(4) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(5) "Authority Network and Information Systems" means the Authority's computer infrastructure that provides personal communications, confidential information, regional, wide area and local networks, and the internetworking of various types of networks on behalf of the Authority.

(6) "Clinic" means a group practice, facility, or organization that is an employer of a provider, if a provider is required as a condition of employment to turn over his fees to the employer; the facility in which the service is provided, if a provider has a contract under which the facility submits the claim; or a foundation, plan, or similar organization operating an organized health care delivery system, if a provider has a contract under which the organization submits the claim; and the group practice, facility, or organization is enrolled with the Authority, and payments are made to the group practice, facility, or organization. If the entity solely submits billings on behalf of providers and payments are made to each provider, then the entity is an agent.

(7) "Confidential Information" means information relating to covered individuals which is exchanged by and between the Authority, a provider, PHP, clinic, allied agency, or agents for various business purposes, but which is protected from disclosure to unauthorized individuals or entities by applicable state and federal statutes such as ORS 344.600, 410.150, 411.320, 418.130, or the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, Public Law 104-191 and its implementing regulations. These statutes and regulations are collectively referred to as "Privacy Statutes and Regulations."

(8) "Contract" means a specific written agreement between the Authority and a provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency that provides or manages the provision of services, goods, or supplies to covered individuals and where the Authority and a provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency may exchange data. A contract specifically includes, without limitation, an Authority provider enrollment agreement, fully capitated health plan managed care contract, dental care organization managed care contract, mental health organization managed care contract, chemical dependency organization managed care contract, physician care organization managed care contract, a county financial assistance agreement, or any other applicable written agreement, interagency agreement, intergovernmental agreement, or grant agreement between the Authority and a provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency.

(9) "Covered Entity" means a health plan, health care clearing house, health care provider, or allied agency that transmits any health information in electronic form in connection with a transaction, including direct data entry (DDE), and who must comply with the National Provider Identifier (NPI) requirements of 45 CFR 162.402 through 162.414.

(10) "Covered Individual" means individuals who are eligible for payment of certain services or supplies provided to them or their eligible dependents by or through a provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency under the terms of a contract applicable to a governmental program for which the Authority processes or administers data transmissions.

(11) "Data" means a formalized representation of specific facts or concepts suitable for communication, interpretation, or processing by individuals or by automatic means.

(12) "Data Transmission" means the transfer or exchange of data between the Authority and a web portal or electronic data interchange (EDI) submitter by means of an information system which is compatible for that purpose and includes without limitation, web portal, EDI, electronic remittance advice (ERA), or electronic media claims (EMC) transmissions.

(13) "Department" means the Department of Human Services.

(14) "Direct Data Entry (DDE)" means the process using dumb terminals or computer browser screens where data is directly keyed into a health plan's computer by a provider or its agent, such as through the use of a web portal.

(15) "Electronic Data Interchange (EDI)" means the exchange of business documents from application to application in a federally mandated format or, if no federal standard has been promulgated, using bulk transmission processes and other formats as the Authority designates for EDI transactions. For purposes of these rules (OAR 943-120-0100 through 943-120-0200), EDI does not include electronic transmission by web portal.

(16) "Electronic Data Interchange Submitter" means an individual or entity authorized to establish the electronic media connection with the Authority to conduct an EDI transaction. An EDI submitter may be a trading partner or an agent of a trading partner.

(17) "Electronic Media" means electronic storage media including memory devices in computers or computer hard drives; any removable or transportable digital memory medium such as magnetic tape or disk, optical disk, or digital memory card; or transmission media used to exchange information already in electronic storage media. Transmission media includes but is not limited to the internet (wide-open), extranet (using internet technology to link a business with information accessible only to collaborating parties), leased lines, dial-up lines, private networks, and the physical movement of removable or transportable electronic storage media. Certain transmissions, including paper via facsimile and voice via telephone, are not considered transmissions by electronic media because the information being exchanged did not exist in electronic form before transmission.

(18) "Electronic Media Claims (EMC)" means an electronic media means of submitting claims or encounters for payment of services or supplies provided by a provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency to a covered individual.

(19) "Electronic Remittance Advice (ERA)" means an electronic file in X12 format containing information pertaining to the disposition of a specific claim for payment of services or supplies rendered to covered individuals which are filed with the Authority on behalf of covered individuals by providers, clinics, or allied agencies. The documents include, without limitation, the provider name and address, individual name, date of service, amount billed, amount paid, whether the claim was approved or denied, and if denied, the specific reason for the denial. For PHPs, the remittance advice file contains information on the adjudication status of encounter claims submitted.

(20) "Electronic Data Transaction (EDT)" means a transaction governed by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) transaction rule, conducted by either web portal or EDI.

(21) "Envelope" means a control structure in a mutually agreed upon format for the electronic interchange of one or more encoded data transmissions either sent or received by an EDI submitter or the Authority.

(22) "HIPAA Transaction Rule" means the standards for electronic transactions at 45 CFR Part 160 and 162 (version in effect on January 1, 2008) adopted by the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) to implement the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, 42 USC 1320d et. seq.

(23) "Incident" means the attempted or successful unauthorized access, use, disclosure, modification, or destruction of an information system or information asset including but not limited to unauthorized disclosure of information, failure to protect user IDs, and theft of computer equipment using or storing Authority information assets or confidential information.

(24) "Individual User Profile (IUP)" means Authority forms used to authorize a user, identify their job assignment, and the required access to the Authority's network and information system. It generates a unique security access code used to access the Authority's network and information system.

(25) "Information Asset" means all information, also known as data, provided through the Authority, regardless of the source, which requires measures for security and privacy of the information.

(26) "Information System" means an interconnected set of information resources under the same direct management control that shares common functionality. A system normally includes hardware, software, information, data, applications, communications, and trained personnel necessary for successful data transmission.

(27) "Lost or Indecipherable Transmission" means a data transmission which is never received by or cannot be processed to completion by the receiving party in the format or composition received because it is garbled or incomplete, regardless of how or why the message was rendered garbled or incomplete.

(28) "Mailbox" means the term used by the Authority to indicate trading partner-specific locations on the Authority's secure file transfer protocol (SFTP) server to deposit and retrieve electronic data identified by a unique Authority assigned trading partner number.

(29) "Password" means the alpha-numeric codes assigned to an EDI submitter by the Authority for the purpose of allowing access to the Authority's information system, including the web portal, for the purpose of successfully executing data transmissions or otherwise carrying out the express terms of a trading partner agreement or provider enrollment agreement and these rules.

(30) "Personal Identification Number (PIN)" means the alpha-numeric codes assigned to web portal submitters by the Authority for the purpose of allowing access to the Authority's information system, including the web portal, for the purpose of successfully executing DDE, data transmissions, or otherwise carrying out the express terms of a trading partner agreement, provider enrollment agreement, and these rules.

(31) "Prepaid Health Plan (PHP) or Plan" means a managed health care, dental care, chemical dependency, physician care organization, or mental health care organization that contracts with the Authority on a case managed, prepaid, capitated basis under the Oregon Health Plan (OHP).

(32) "Provider" means an individual, facility, institution, corporate entity, or other organization which supplies or provides for the supply of services, goods or supplies to covered individuals pursuant to a contract, including but not limited to a provider enrollment agreement with the Authority. A provider does not include billing providers as used in the Division of Medical Assistance (DMAP) general rules. DMAP billing providers are defined in these rules as agents, except for DMAP billing providers that are clinics.

(33) "Provider Enrollment Agreement" means an agreement between the Authority and a provider for payment for the provision of covered services to covered individuals.

(34) "Registered Transaction" means each type of EDI transaction applicable to a trading partner that must be registered with the Authority before it can be tested or approved for EDI transmission.

(35) "Security Access Codes" means the alpha-numeric codes assigned by the Authority to the web portal submitter or EDI submitter for the purpose of allowing access to the Authority's information system, including the web portal, to execute data transmissions or otherwise carry out the express terms of a trading partner agreement, provider enrollment agreement, and these rules. Security access codes may include passwords, PINs, or other codes.

(36) "Source Documents" means documents or electronic files containing underlying data which is or may be required as part of a data transmission with respect to a claim for payment of charges for medical services or supplies provided to a covered individual, or with respect to any other transaction. Examples of data contained within a specific source document include but are not limited to an individual's name and identification number, claim number, diagnosis code for the services provided, dates of service, service procedure description, applicable charges for the services provided, and a provider's, PHP's, clinic's, or allied agency's name, identification number, and signature.

(37) "Standard" means a rule, condition, or requirement describing the following information for products, systems, or practices:

- (a) Classification of components;
- (b) Specification of materials, performance, or operations; or
- (c) Delineation of procedures.

(38) "Standards for Electronic Transactions" mean a transaction that complies with the applicable standard adopted by DHHS to implement standards for electronic transactions.

(39) "Submitter" means a provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency that may or may not have entered into a Trading Partner Agreement depending upon whether the need is to exchange Electronic Data Transactions or access the Authority's Web Portal.

(40) "Transaction" means the exchange of data between the Authority and a provider using web portal access or a trading partner using electronic media to carry out financial or administrative activities.

(41) "Trade Data Log" means the complete written summary of data and data transmissions exchanged between the Authority and an EDI submitter during the period of time a trading partner agreement is in effect and includes but is not limited to sender and receiver information, date and time of transmission, and the general nature of the transmission.

(42) "Trading Partner" means a provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency that has entered into a trading partner agreement with the Authority in order to satisfy all or part of its obligations under a contract by means of EDI, ERA, or EMC, or any other mutually agreed means of electronic exchange or transfer of data.

(43) "Trading Partner Agreement (TPA)" means a specific written request by a provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency to conduct EDI transactions that governs the terms and conditions for EDI transactions in the performance of obligations under a contract. A provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency that has executed a TPA will be referred to as a trading partner in relation to those functions.

(44) "User" means any individual or entity authorized by the Authority to access network and information systems or information assets.

(45) "User Identification Security (UIS)" means a control method required by the Authority to ensure that only authorized users gain access to specified information assets. One method of control is the use of passwords and PINs with unique user identifications.

(46) "Web Portal" means a site on the World Wide Web that provides secure access with personalized capabilities to its visitors and a pathway to other content designed for use with the Authority specific DDE applications.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(47) "Web Portal Submitter" means an individual or entity authorized to establish an electronic media connection with the Authority to conduct a DDE transaction. A web portal submitter may be a provider or a provider's agent.

Purpose

(1) These rules establish requirements applicable to providers, PHPs, and allied agencies that want to conduct electronic data transactions with the Authority. These rules govern the conduct of all web portal or EDI transactions with the Authority. These rules only apply to services or items that are paid for by the Authority. If the service or item is paid for by a plan or an allied agency, these rules do not apply.

(2) These rules establish the Authority's electronic data transaction requirements for purposes of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, 42 USC 1320d-1320d-8, Public Law 104-191, sec. 262 and sec. 264, and the implementing standards for electronic transactions rules. Where a federal HIPAA standard has been adopted for an electronic data transaction, this rule implements and does not alter the federal standard.

(3) These rules establish procedures that must be followed by any provider, PHP, or allied agency in the event of a security or privacy incident, regardless of whether the incident is related to the use of an electronic data transaction.

Scope and Sequence of Electronic Data Transmission Rules

(1) The Authority communicates with and receives communications from its providers, PHPs, and allied agencies using a variety of methods appropriate to the services being provided, the nature of the entity providing the services, and constantly changing technology. These rules describe some of the basic ways that the Authority will exchange data electronically. Additional details may be provided in the Authority's access control rules, provider-specific rules, or the applicable contract documents.

(2) Access to eligibility information about covered individuals may occur using one or more of the following methods:

- (a) Automated voice response, via a telephone;
- (b) Web portal access;
- (c) EDI submitter access; or
- (d) Point of sale (POS) for pharmacy providers.

(3) Claims for which the Authority is responsible for payment or encounter submissions made to the Authority may occur using one or more of the following methods:

(a) Paper, using the form specified in the provider specific rules and supplemental billing guidance. Providers may submit paper claims, except that pharmacy providers are required to use the POS process for claims submission and PHPs are required to use the 837 electronic formats;

- (b) Web portal access;
- (c) EDI submitter access; or
- (d) POS for pharmacy providers.

(4) Authority informational updates, provider record updates, depository for PHP reports, or EDT as specified by the Authority for contract compliance.

(5) Other Authority network and information system access is governed by specific program requirements, which may include but is not limited to IUP access. Affected providers, PHPs, and allied agencies will be separately instructed about the access and requirements. Incidents are subject to these rules.

(6) Providers and allied agencies that continue to use only paper formats for claims transactions are only subject to the confidentiality and security rule, OAR 943-120-0170.

Provider Enrollment Agreement

(1) When a provider applies to enroll, the application form will include information about how to participate in the web portal for use of DDE and automated voice response (AVR) inquiries. The enrollment agreement will include a section describing the process that will permit the provider, once enrolled, to participate in DDE over the Internet using the secure Authority web portal. This does not include providers enrolled through the use of the DMAP 3108 Managed Care Plan and FFS Non Paid Provider Application.

(2) When the provider number is issued by the Authority, the provider will also receive two PINs: one that may be used to access the web portal and one that may be used for AVR.

(a) If the PINs are not activated within 60 days of issuance, the Authority will initiate a process to inactivate the PIN. If the provider wants to use PIN-based access to the web portal or AVR after deactivation, the provider must submit an update form to obtain another PIN.

(b) Activating the PIN will require Internet access and the provider must supply security data that will be associated with the use of the PIN.

(c) Providers using the PIN are responsible for protecting the confidentiality and security of the PIN pursuant to OAR 943-120-0170.

Web Portal Submitter

(1) Any provider activating their web portal access for web portal submission may be a web portal submitter. The provider will be referred to as the web portal submitter when functioning in that capacity, and shall be required to comply with these rules governing web portal submitters.

(2) The authorized signer of the provider enrollment agreement shall be the individual who is responsible for the provider's DDE claims submission process.

(a) If a provider submits their own claims directly, the provider will be referred to as the web portal submitter when functioning in that capacity and shall be required to comply with these rules governing web portal submitters.

(b) If a provider uses an agent or clinic to submit DDE claims using the Authority's web portal, the agent or clinic will be referred to as the web portal submitter when functioning in that capacity and shall be required to comply with these rules governing web portal submitters.

943-120-0118

Conduct of Direct Data Entry Using Web Portal

(1) The web portal submitter is responsible for the conduct of the DDE transactions submitted on behalf of the provider, as follows:

(a) Accuracy of Web Portal Submissions. The web portal submitter must take reasonable care to ensure that data and DDE transmissions are timely, complete, accurate, and secure, and must take reasonable precautions to prevent unauthorized access to the information system or the DDE transmission. The Authority will not correct or modify an incorrect DDE transaction prior to processing. The transactions may be rejected and the web portal submitter will be notified of the rejection.

(b) Cost of Equipment. The web portal submitter and the Authority must bear their own information system costs. The web portal submitter must, at their own expense, obtain access to Internet service that is compatible with and has the capacity for secure access to the Authority's web portal. Web portal submitters must pay their own costs for all charges, including but not limited to charges for equipment, software and services, Internet connection and use time, terminals, connections, telephones, and modems. The Authority is not responsible for providing technical assistance for access to or use of Internet web portal services or the processing of a DDE transaction.

(c) Format of DDE Transactions. The web portal submitter must send and receive all data transactions in the Authority's approved format. Any attempt to modify or alter the DDE transaction format may result in denial of web portal access.

(d) Re-submissions. The web portal submitter must maintain source documents and back-up files or other means sufficient to re-create a data transmission in the event that re-creation becomes necessary for any purpose, within timeframes required by federal or state law, or by contractual agreement. Back ups, archives, or related files are subject to the terms of these rules to the same extent as the original data transmission.

(2) Security and Confidentiality. To protect security and confidentiality, web portal submitters must comply with the following:

(a) Refrain from copying, reverse engineering, disclosing, publishing, distributing, or altering any data or data transmissions, except as permitted by these rules or the contract, or use the same for any purpose other than that which the web portal submitter was specifically given access and authorization by the Authority or the provider.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Refrain from obtaining access by any means to any data or the Authority's network and information system for any purpose other than that which the web portal submitter has received express authorization to receive access. If the web portal submitter receives data or data transmissions from the Authority which are clearly not intended for the receipt of web portal submitter, the web portal submitter will immediately notify the Authority and make arrangements to return or re-transmit the data or data transmission to the Authority. After re-transmission, the web portal submitter must immediately delete the data contained in the data transmission from its information system.

(c) Install necessary security precautions to ensure the security of the DDE transmission or records relating to the information system of either the Authority or the web portal submitter when the information system is not in active use by the web portal submitter.

(d) Protect and maintain, at all times, the confidentiality of security access codes issued by the Authority. Security access codes are strictly confidential and specifically subject, without limitation, to all of the restrictions in OAR 943-120-0170. The Authority may change the designated security access codes at any time and in any manner as the Authority in its sole discretion considers necessary.

(e) Install, maintain, and use security measures for confidential information transmitted between a provider and the web portal submitter if a provider uses an agent or clinic as the web portal submitter.

Registration Process — EDI Transactions

(1) The EDI transaction process is preferred by providers, PHPs, and allied agencies for conducting batch or real time transactions, rather than the individual data entry process used for DDE. EDI registration is an administrative process governed by these rules. The EDI registration process begins with the submission of a TPA by a provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency, including all requirements and documentation required by these rules.

(2) Trading partners must be Authority providers, PHPs, clinics, or allied agencies with a current Authority contract. The Authority will not accept a TPA from individuals or entities who do not have a current contract with the Authority.

(a) The Authority may receive and hold the TPA for individuals or entities that have submitted a provider enrollment agreement or other pending contract, subject to the satisfactory execution of the pending document.

(b) Termination, revocation, suspension, or expiration of the contract will result in the concurrent termination, revocation, suspension, or expiration of the TPA without any additional notice; except that the TPA will remain in effect to the extent necessary for a trading partner or the Authority to complete obligations involving EDI under the contract for dates of service when the contract was in effect. Contracts that are periodically renewed or extended do not require renewal or extension of the TPA unless there is a lapse of time between contracts.

(c) Failure to identify a current Authority contract during the registration process will result in a rejection of the TPA. The Authority will verify that the contract numbers identified by a provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency are current contracts.

(d) If contract number or contract status changes, the trading partner must provide the Authority with updated information within five business days of the change in contract status. If the Authority determines that a valid contract no longer exists, the Authority shall discontinue EDI transactions applicable for any time period in which the contract no longer exists; except that the TPA will remain in effect to the extent necessary for the trading partner or the Authority to complete obligations involving EDI under the contract for dates of service when the contract was in effect.

(3) Trading Partner Agreement. To register as a trading partner with the Authority, a provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency must submit a signed TPA to the Authority.

(4) Application for Authorization. In addition to the requirements of section (3) of this rule, a trading partner must submit an application for authorization to the Authority. The application provides specific identification and legal authorization from the trading partner for an EDI submitter to conduct EDI transactions on behalf of a trading partner.

(5) Trading Partner Agents. A trading partner may use agents to facilitate the electronic transmission of data. If a trading partner will be using an agent as an EDI submitter, the application for authorization required under section (4) of this rule must identify and authorize an EDI submitter and must include the EDI certification signed by an EDI submitter before the Authority may accept electronic submission from or send electronic transmission to an EDI submitter.

(6) EDI Registration. In addition to the requirements of section (3) of this rule, a trading partner must also submit its EDI registration form. This form requires the trading partner or its authorized EDI submitter to register an EDI submitter and the name and type of EDI transaction they are prepared to conduct. Signature of the trading partner or authorized EDI submitter is required on the EDI registration form. The registration form will also permit the trading partner to identify the individuals or EDI submitters who are authorized to submit or receive EDI registered transactions.

(7) Review and Acceptance Process. The Authority will review the documentation provided to determine compliance with sections (1) through (6) of this rule. The information provided may be subject to verification by the Authority. When the Authority determines that the information complies with these rules, the Authority will notify the trading partner and EDI submitter by email about any testing or other requirements applicable to place the registered transaction into a production environment.

Trading Partner as EDI Submitter — EDI Transactions

(1) A trading partner may be an EDI submitter. Registered trading partners that also qualify as an EDI submitter may submit their own EDI transactions directly to the Authority. A trading partner will be referred to as an EDI submitter when functioning in that capacity and will be required to comply with applicable EDI submitter rules, except as provided in section (3) of this rule.

(2) Authorization and Registration Designating Trading Partner as EDI Submitter. Before acting as an EDI submitter, a trading partner must designate in the application for application that they are an EDI submitter who is authorized to send and receive data transmissions in the performance of EDI transactions. A trading partner must complete the "Trading Partner Application for Authorization to Submit EDI Transactions" and the "EDI Submitter Information" required in the application. A trading partner must also submit the EDI registration form identifying them as an EDI submitter. A trading partner must notify the Authority of any material changes in the information no less than ten days prior to the effective date of the change.

(3) EDI Submitter Certification Conditions. Where a trading partner is acting as its own EDI submitter, the trading partner is not required to submit the EDI submitter certification conditions in the application for authorization applicable to agents.

Trading Partner Agents as EDI Submitters — EDI Transactions

(1) Responsibility for Agents. If a trading partner uses the services of an agent, including but not limited to an EDI submitter in any capacity in order to receive, transmit, store, or otherwise process data or data transmissions or perform related activities, a trading partner shall be fully responsible to the Authority for the agent's acts.

(2) Notices Regarding EDI Submitter. Prior to the commencement of an EDI submitter's services, a trading partner must designate in the application for authorization the specific EDI submitters that are authorized to send and receive data transmissions in the performance of EDI transactions of a trading partner. A trading partner must complete the "Trading partner Authorization of EDI Submitter" and the "EDI Submitter Information" required in the application. A trading partner must also submit the EDI registration form identifying and providing information about an EDI submitter. A trading partner or authorized EDI submitter must notify the Authority of any material changes in the EDI submitter authorization or information no less than five days prior to the effective date of the changes.

(3) EDI Submitter Authority. A trading partner must authorize the actions that an EDI submitter may take on behalf of a trading partner. The application for authorization permits a trading partner to authorize which decisions may only be made by a trading partner and which decisions are authorized to be made by an EDI submitter. The EDI submitter information authorized in the application for authorization will be recorded by the Authority in an EDI submitter profile. The Authority may reject EDI transactions from an EDI submitter acting without authorization from a trading partner.

(4) EDI Submitter Certification Conditions. Each authorized EDI submitter acting as an agent of a trading partner must execute and comply with the EDI submitter certification conditions that are incorporated into the application for authorization. Failure to include the signed EDI submitter certification conditions with the application shall result in a denial of EDI submitter authorization by the Authority. Failure of an EDI submitter to comply with the EDI submitter certification conditions may result in termination of EDI submitter registration for EDI transactions with the Authority.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(5) EDI Submitters Responsibilities. In addition to the requirements of section (1) of this rule, a trading partner is responsible for ensuring that an EDI submitter makes no unauthorized changes in the data content of all data transmissions or the contents of an envelope, and that an EDI submitter will take all appropriate measures to maintain the timeliness, accuracy, truthfulness, confidentiality, security, and completeness of each data transmission. A trading partner is responsible for ensuring that its EDI submitters are specifically advised of, and will comply with, the terms of these rules and any TPA.

Testing — EDI Transactions

(1) When a trading partner or authorized EDI submitter registers an EDI transaction with the Authority, the Authority may require testing before authorizing the transaction. Testing may include third party and business-to-business testing. An EDI submitter must be able to demonstrate its capacity to send and receive each transaction type for which it has registered. The Authority will reject any EDI transaction if an EDI submitter either refuses or fails to comply with the Authority testing requirements.

(2) The Authority may require EDI submitters to complete compliance testing at an EDI submitter's expense for each transaction type if either the Authority or an EDI submitter has experienced a change to hardware or software applications by entering into business-to-business testing.

(3) When third party and/or business-to-business testing is completed to the Authority's satisfaction, the Authority will notify an EDI submitter that it will register and accept the transactions in the production environment. This notification authorizes an EDI submitter to submit the registered EDI transactions to the Authority for processing and response, as applicable. If there are any changes in the trading partner or EDI submitter authorization, profile data or EDI registration information on file with the Authority, updated information must be submitted to the Authority as required in OAR 943-120-0190.

(4) Testing will be conducted using secure electronic media communications methods.

(5) An EDI submitter may be required to re-test with the Authority if the Authority format changes or if the EDI submitter format changes.

943-120-0160

Conduct of Transactions — EDI Transactions

(1) EDI Submitter Obligations. An EDI submitter is responsible for the conduct of the EDI transactions registered on behalf of a trading partner, including the following:

(a) EDI Transmission Accuracy. An EDI submitter shall take reasonable care to ensure that data and data transmissions are timely, complete, accurate, and secure; and shall take reasonable precautions to prevent unauthorized access to the information system, the data transmission, or the contents of an envelope which is transmitted either to or from the Authority. The Authority will not correct or modify an incorrect transaction prior to processing. The transaction may be rejected and an EDI submitter notified of the rejection.

(b) Re-transmission of Indecipherable Transmissions. Where there is evidence that a data transmission is lost or indecipherable, the sending party must make best efforts to trace and re-transmit the original data transmission in a manner which allows it to be processed by the receiving party as soon as practicable.

(c) Cost of Equipment. An EDI submitter and the Authority will pay for their own information system costs. An EDI submitter shall, at its own expense, obtain and maintain its own information system. An EDI submitter shall pay its own costs for all charges related to data transmission including, without limitation, charges for information system equipment, software and services, electronic mailbox maintenance, connect time, terminals, connections, telephones, modems, any applicable minimum use charges, and for translating, formatting, sending, and receiving communications over the electronic network to the electronic mailbox, if any, of the Authority. The Authority is not responsible for providing technical assistance in the processing of an EDI transaction.

(d) Back-up Files. EDI submitters must maintain adequate data archives and back-up files or other means sufficient to re-create a data transmission in the event that re-creation becomes necessary for any purpose, within timeframes required by state and federal law, or by contractual agreement. Data archives or back-up files shall be subject to these rules to the same extent as the original data transmission.

(e) Transmissions Format. Except as otherwise provided herein, EDI submitters must send and receive all data transmissions in the federally mandated format, or (if no federal standard has been promulgated) other formats as the Authority designates.

(f) Testing. EDI submitters must, prior to the initial data transmission and throughout the term of a TPA, test and cooperate with the Authority in the testing of information systems as the Authority considers reasonably necessary to ensure the accuracy, timeliness, completeness, and confidentiality of each data transmission.

(2) Security and Confidentiality. To protect security and confidentiality of transmitted data, EDI submitters must comply with the following:

(a) Refrain from copying, reverse engineering, disclosing, publishing, distributing, or altering any data, data transmissions, or the contents of an envelope, except as necessary to comply with the terms of these rules or the TPA, or use the same for any purpose other than that which an EDI submitter was specifically given access and authorization by the Authority or a trading partner;

(b) Refrain from obtaining access by any means to any data, data transmission, envelope, mailbox, or the Authority's information system for any purpose other than that which an EDI submitter has received express authorization. If an EDI submitter receives data or data transmissions from the Authority which clearly are not intended for an EDI submitter, an EDI submitter shall immediately notify the Authority and make arrangements to return or re-transmit the data or data transmission to the Authority. After re-transmission, an EDI submitter shall immediately delete the data contained in the data transmission from its information system;

(c) Install necessary security precautions to ensure the security of the information systems or records relating to the information systems of either the Authority or an EDI submitter when the information system is not in active use by an EDI submitter;

(d) Protect and maintain the confidentiality of security access codes issued by the Authority to an EDI submitter; and

(e) Provide special protection for security and other purposes, where appropriate, by means of authentication, encryption, the use of passwords, or other means. Unless otherwise provided in these rules, the recipient of a protected data transmission must at least use the same level of protection for any subsequent transmission of the original data transmission.

(3) Authority Obligations. The Authority shall:

(a) Make available to an EDI submitter, by electronic media, those types of data and data transmissions which an EDI submitter is authorized to receive.

(b) Inform an EDI submitter of acceptable formats in which data transmissions may be made and provide notification to an EDI submitter within reasonable time periods consistent with HIPAA transaction standards, if applicable, or at least 30 days prior by electronic notice of other changes in formats.

(c) Provide an EDI submitter with security access codes that will allow an EDI submitter access to the Authority's information system. Security access codes are strictly confidential and EDI submitters must comply with all of the requirements of OAR 943-120-0170. The Authority may change the designated security access codes at any time and manner as the Authority, in its sole discretion, deems necessary. The release of security access codes shall be limited to authorized electronic data personnel of an EDI submitter and the Authority with a need to know.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

943-120-0170

Confidentiality and Security

(1) Individually Identifiable Health Information. All providers, PHPs, and allied agencies are responsible for ensuring the confidentiality of individually identifiable health information, consistent with the requirements of the privacy statutes and regulations, and shall take reasonable action to prevent any unauthorized disclosure of confidential information by a provider, PHP, allied agency, or other agent. A provider, web portal submitter, trading partner, EDI submitter, or other agent must comply with any and all applicable privacy statutes and regulations relating to confidential information.

(2) General Requirements for Electronic Submitters. A provider (web portal submitter), trading partner (EDI submitter), or other agent must maintain adequate security procedures to prevent unauthorized access to data, data transmissions, security access codes, or the Authority's information system, and must immediately notify the Authority of all unauthorized attempts by any individual or entity to obtain access to or otherwise tamper with the data, data transmissions, security access codes, or the Authority's information system.

(3) Notice of Unauthorized Disclosures. All providers, PHPs, and allied agencies must promptly notify the Authority of all unlawful or unauthorized disclosures of confidential information that come to its agents' attention, and shall cooperate with the Authority if corrective action is required by the Authority. The Authority will promptly notify a provider, PHP, or allied agency of all unlawful or unauthorized disclosures of confidential information in relation to a provider, PHP, or allied agency that come to the Authority's or its agents' attention, and will cooperate with a provider, PHP, or allied agency if corrective action is required.

(4) Wrongful use of the web portal, EDI systems, or the Authority's network and information system, or wrongful use or disclosure of confidential information by a provider, allied agency, electronic submitters, or their agents may result in the immediate suspension or revocation of any access granted under these rules or other Authority rules, at the sole discretion of the Authority.

(5) A provider, allied agency, PHP, or electronic submitter must report to the Authority's Information Security Office at dhsinfo.security@state.or.us and to the Authority program contact individual, any privacy or security incidents that compromise, damage, or cause a loss of protection to confidential information, information assets, or the Authority's network and security system. Reports must be made in the following manner:

(a) No later than five business days from the date on which a provider, allied agency, PHP, or electronic submitter becomes aware of the incident; and

(b) Provide the results of the incident assessment findings and resolution strategies no later than 30 business days after the report is due under section (4)(a).

(6) A provider, allied agency, PHP, or electronic submitter must comply with the Authority's requests for corrective action concerning a privacy or security incident and with applicable laws requiring mitigation of harm caused by the unauthorized use or disclosure of confidential information.

Record Retention and Audit

(1) Records Retention. A provider, web portal submitter, trading partner, and EDI submitter shall maintain, for a period of no less than seven years from the date of service, complete, accurate, and unaltered copies of all source documents associated with all data transmissions.

(2) EDI Trade Data Log. An EDI submitter must establish and maintain a trade data log that must record all data transmissions taking place between an EDI submitter and the Authority during the term of a TPA. A trading partner and EDI submitter must take necessary and reasonable steps to ensure that the trade data log constitutes a current, truthful, accurate, complete, and unaltered record of all data transmissions between the parties and must be retained by each party for no less than 24 months following the date of the data transmission. The trade data log may be maintained on electronic media or other suitable means provided that, if necessary, the information may be timely retrieved and presented in readable form.

(3) Right to Audit. A provider must allow and require any web portal submitter to allow, and a trading partner must allow and require an EDI submitter or other agent to allow access to the Authority, the Oregon Secretary of State, the Oregon Department of Justice Medicaid Fraud Unit, or its designees, and DHHS or its designees to audit relevant business records, source documents, data, data transmissions, trade data logs, or information systems of a provider and its web portal submitter, and a trading partner, and its agents, as necessary, to ensure compliance with these rules. A provider must allow and require its web portal submitter to allow, and a trading partner must allow and require an EDI submitter or other agent to allow the Authority, or its designee, access to ensure that adequate security precautions have been made and are implemented to prevent unauthorized disclosure of any data, data transmissions, or other information.

Material Changes

(1) Changes in Any Material Information — EDT Process. A trading partner must submit an updated TPA, application for authorization, or EDI registration form to the Authority within ten business days of any material change in information. A material change includes but is not limited to mailing or email address change, contract number or contract status (termination, expiration, extension), identification of authorized individuals of a trading partner or EDI submitter, the addition or deletion of authorized transactions, or any other change that may affect the accuracy of or authority for an EDI transaction. The Authority may act on data transmissions submitted by a trading partner and its EDI submitter based on information on file in the application for authorization and EDI registration forms until an updated form has been received and approved by the Authority. A trading partner's signature or the signature of an authorized EDI submitter is required to ensure that an updated TPA, authorization, or EDI registration form is valid and authorized.

(2) Changes in Any Material Information — Web Portal Access. Providers must submit an updated web portal registration form to the Authority within ten business days of any material changes in information. A material change includes but is not limited to mailing or email address change, contract number or contract status (termination, suspension, expiration), identification of web portal submitter contact information, or any other change that may affect the accuracy of or authority for a DDE transaction. The Authority is authorized to act on data transmissions submitted by a provider and its web portal submitter based on information on file in the web portal registration form until an updated form has been received and approved by the Authority. A provider's signature or the signature of an authorized business representative is required to ensure that an updated web portal registration form is valid and authorized.

(3) Failure to submit a timely updated form may impact the ability of a data transaction to be processed without errors. Failure to submit a signed, updated form may result in the rejection of a data transmission.

Authority System Administration

(1) No individual or entity shall be registered to conduct a web portal or an EDI transaction with the Authority except as authorized under these rules. Eligibility and continued participation as a provider, PHP, allied agency or web portal submitter in the conduct of DDE transactions, or as a trading partner or EDI submitter in the conduct of registered transactions, is conditioned on the execution and delivery of the documents required in these rules, the continued accuracy of that information consistent with OAR 943-120-0190, and compliance with a requirements of these rules. Data, including confidential information, governed by these rules may be used for purposes related to treatment, payment, and health care operations and for the administration of programs or services by the Authority.

(2) In addition to the requirements of section (1) of this rule, in order to qualify as a trading partner:

(a) An individual or entity must be a Authority provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency pursuant to a current valid contract; and

(b) A provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency must have submitted an executed TPA and all related documentation, including the application for authorization, that identifies and authorizes an EDI submitter.

(3) In addition to the requirements of section (1) of this rule, in order to qualify as an EDI submitter:

(a) A trading partner must have identified the individual or entity as an authorized EDI submitter in the application for authorization;

(b) If a trading partner identifies itself as an EDI submitter, the application for authorization must include the information required in the "Trading Partner Authorization of EDI Submitter" and the "EDI Submitter Information"; and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) If a trading partner uses an agent as an EDI submitter, the application for authorization must include the information described in section (3)(b) and the signed EDI submitter certification.

(4) The EDI registration process described in these rules provides the Authority with essential profile information that the Authority may use to confirm that a trading partner or EDI submitter is not otherwise excluded or disqualified from submitting EDI transactions to the Authority.

(5) Nothing in these rules or a TPA prevents the Authority from requesting additional information from a trading partner or an EDI submitter to determine their qualifications or eligibility for registration as a trading partner or EDI submitter.

(6) The Authority shall deny a request for registration as a trading partner or for authorization of an EDI submitter or an EDI registration if it finds any of the following:

(a) A trading partner or EDI submitter has substantially failed to comply with the applicable administrative rules or laws;

(b) A trading partner or EDI submitter has been convicted of (or entered a plea of nolo contendere) a felony or misdemeanor related to a crime or violation of federal or state public assistance laws or privacy statutes or regulations;

(c) A trading partner or EDI submitter is excluded from participation in the Medicare program, as determined by the DHHS secretary; or

(d) A trading partner or EDI submitter fails to meet the qualifications as a trading partner or EDI submitter.

(7) Failure to comply with these rules, trading partner agreement, or EDI submitter certification or failure to provide accurate information on an application or certification may also result in sanctions and payment recovery pursuant to applicable Authority program contracts or rules.

(8) For providers using the DDE submission system by the Authority web portal, failure to comply with the terms of these rules, a web portal registration form, or failure to provide accurate information on the registration form may result in sanctions or payment recovery pursuant to the applicable Authority program contracts or rules.

Definitions

The following definitions apply to OAR 943-120-0300 to 943-120-0400:

(1) “Abuse” means provider practices that are inconsistent with sound fiscal, business, or medical practices resulting in an unnecessary cost to the Oregon Health Authority, or in reimbursement for services that are not medically necessary or that fail to meet professionally recognized standards for health care. It also includes actions by clients or recipients that result in unnecessary cost to the Oregon Health Authority.

(2) “Advance Directive” means a form that allows an individual to have another individual make health care decisions when he or she cannot make decisions and informs a doctor if the individual does not want any life sustaining help if he or she is near death.

(3) “Authority” means the Oregon Health Authority.

(4) “Benefit Package” means the package of covered health care services for which the client is eligible.

(5) “Billing Agent or Billing Service” means a third party or organization that contracts with a provider to perform designated services in order to facilitate claim submission or electronic transactions on behalf of the provider.

(6) “Billing Provider” means an individual, agent, business, corporation, clinic, group, institution, or other entity who, in connection with submission of claims to the Authority, receives or directs payment from the Authority on behalf of a performing provider and has been delegated the authority to obligate or act on behalf of the performing provider.

(7) “Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP)” means a federal and state funded portion of the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) established by Title XXI of the Social Security Act and administered by the Division of Medical Assistance Programs.

(8) “Claim” means a bill for services, a line item of a service, or all services for one client within a bill. Claim includes a bill or an encounter associated with requesting reimbursement, whether submitted on paper or electronically. Claim also includes any other methodology for requesting reimbursement that may be established in contract or program-specific rules.

(9) “Client or Recipient” means an individual found eligible by the Authority to receive services under the OHP demonstration, medical assistance program, or other public assistance programs administered by the Authority. The following OHP categories are eligible for enrollment:

(a) Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) are categorically eligible families with income levels under current TANF eligibility rules;

(b) CHIP children under one year of age whose household has income under 185% Federal Poverty Level (FPL) and do not meet one of the other eligibility classifications;

(c) Poverty Level Medical (PLM) adults under 100% of the FPL and clients who are pregnant women with income under 100% of FPL;

(d) PLM adults over 100% of the FPL are clients who are pregnant women with income between 100% and 185% of the FPL;

(e) PLM children under one year of age who have family income under 133% of the FPL or were born to mothers who were eligible as PLM adults at the time of the child’s birth;

(f) PLM or CHIP children one through five years of age who have family income under 185% of the FPL and do not meet one of the other eligibility classifications;

(g) PLM or CHIP children six through 18 years of age who have family income under 185% of the FPL and do not meet one of the other eligibility classifications;

(h) OHP adults and couples are clients age 19 or over and not Medicare eligible, with income below 100% of the FPL who do not meet one of the other eligibility classifications, and do not have an unborn child or a child under age 19 in the household;

(i) OHP families are clients, age 19 or over and not Medicare eligible, with income below 100% of the FPL who do not meet one of the other eligibility classifications, and have an unborn child or a child under the age of 19 in the household;

(j) General Assistance (GA) recipients are clients who are eligible by virtue of their eligibility under the GA program, ORS 411.710 et seq.;

(k) Assistance to Blind and Disabled (AB/AD) with Medicare eligibles are clients with concurrent Medicare eligibility with income levels under current eligibility rules;

(l) AB/AD without Medicare eligibles are clients without Medicare with income levels under current eligibility rules;

(m) Old Age Assistance (OAA) with Medicare eligibles are clients with concurrent Medicare Part A or Medicare Parts A and B eligibility with income levels under current eligibility rules;

(n) OAA with Medicare Part B only are OAA eligibles with concurrent Medicare Part B only income under current eligibility rules;

(o) OAA without Medicare eligibles are clients without Medicare with income levels under current eligibility rules; or

(p) Children, Adults and Families (CAF) children are clients with medical eligibility determined by CAF or Oregon Youth Authority (OYA) receiving OHP under ORS 414.025, 418.034, and 418.189 to 418.970. These individuals are generally in placement outside of their homes and in the care or custody of CAF or OYA.

(10) “Client Representative” means an individual who can make decisions for clients who are not able to make such decisions themselves. For purposes of medical assistance, a client representative may be, in the following order of priority, an individual who is designated as the client’s health care representative under ORS 127.505(12), a court-appointed guardian, a spouse or other family member as designated by the client, the individual service plan team (for developmentally disabled clients), an

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Authority case manager, or other Authority designee. To the extent that other Authority programs recognize other individuals who may act as a client representative, that individual may be considered the client representative.

(11) "Clinical Records" means the medical, dental, or mental health records of a client. These records include the Primary Care Provider (PCP) records, the inpatient and outpatient hospital records and the Exceptional Needs Care Coordinator (ENCC), complaint and disenrollment for cause records which may be located in the Prepaid Health Plan (PHP) administrative offices.

(12) "Conviction or Convicted" means that a judgment of conviction has been entered by a federal, state, or local court, regardless of whether an appeal from that judgment is pending.

(13) "Covered Services" means medically appropriate health services or items that are funded by the legislature and described in ORS Chapter 414, including OHP authorized under ORS 414.705 to 414.750, and applicable Authority rules describing the benefit packages of covered services except as excluded or limited under OAR 410-141-0500 or such other public assistance services provided to eligible clients under program-specific requirements or contracts by providers required to enroll with the Authority under OAR 943-120-0300 to 943-120-0400.

(14) "Date of Service" means the date on which the client receives medical services or items, unless otherwise specified in the appropriate provider rules.

(15) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(16) "Diagnosis Code" means the code as identified in the International Classification of Diseases, 9th Revision, Clinical Modification (ICD-9-CM). The primary diagnosis code is shown in all billing claims and PHP encounters, unless specifically excluded in individual provider rules. Where they exist, diagnosis codes must be shown to the degree of specificity outlined in OAR 943-120-0340 (claim and PHP encounter submission).

(17) "Electronic Data Transaction (EDT)" means the electronic exchange of business documents from application to application in a federally mandated format or, if no federal standard has been promulgated, conducted by either web portal or electronic data interchange pursuant to the Authority's electronic data transaction rule (OAR 943-120-0100 to 943-120-0200).

(18) "Exclusion" means the Authority may not reimburse a specific provider who has defrauded or abused the Authority for items or services that a provider furnished.

(19) "False Claim" means a claim or PHP encounter that a provider knowingly submits or causes to be submitted that contains inaccurate or misleading information, and that information would result, or has resulted, in an overpayment or improper use for per capita cost calculations.

(20) "Fraud" means an intentional deception or misrepresentation made by an individual with the knowledge that the deception could result in some unauthorized benefit to himself or herself, or some other individual. It includes any act that constitutes fraud or false claim under applicable federal or state law.

(21) "Healthcare Common Procedure Coding System (HCPCS)" means a method for reporting health care professional services, procedures and supplies. HCPCS consists of the Level 1 — American Medical Association's Physicians' Current Procedural Terminology (CPT), Level II — National Codes and Level III — Local Codes.

(22) "Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA)" means a federal law (Public Law 104-191, August 21, 1996) with the legislative objective to assure health insurance portability, reduce health care fraud and abuse, enforce standards for health information and guarantee security and privacy of health information.

(23) "Hospice" means a public agency or private organization or subdivision of either that is primarily engaged in providing care to terminally ill individuals, is certified for Medicare, accredited by the Oregon Hospice Association, and is listed in the Hospice Program Registry.

(24) "Individual Adjustment Request" means a form (DMAP 1036) used to resolve an incorrect payment on a previously paid claim, including underpayments or overpayments.

(25) "Medicaid" means a federal and state funded portion of the medical assistance program established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act, as amended, and administered in Oregon by the Authority.

(26) "Medicaid Management Information System (MMIS)" means the automated claims processing and information retrieval system for handling all Medicaid transactions. The objectives of the system include verifying provider enrollment and client eligibility, managing health care provider claims and benefit package maintenance, and addressing a variety of Medicaid business needs.

(27) "Medical Assistance Program" means a program for payment of health care provided to eligible Oregonians. Oregon's medical assistance program includes Medicaid services including the OHP Medicaid Demonstration, and CHIP. The medical assistance program is administered and coordinated by DMAP, a division of the Authority.

(28) "Medically Appropriate" means services and medical supplies that are required for prevention, diagnosis, or treatment of a health condition that encompasses physical or mental conditions, or injuries and which are:

(a) Consistent with the symptoms or treatment of a health condition;

(b) Appropriate with regard to standards of good health practice and generally recognized by the relevant scientific community, evidence based medicine, and professional standards of care as effective;

(c) Not solely for the convenience of a client or a provider of the service or medical supplies; and

(d) The most cost effective of the alternative levels of medical services or medical supplies that can be safely provided to a client in the provider's judgment.

(29) "Medicare" means the federal health insurance program for the aged and disabled administered by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

(30) "National Provider Identification (NPI)" means a federally directed provider number mandated for use on HIPAA covered transactions by individuals, provider organizations, and subparts of provider organizations that meet the definition of health care provider (45 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 160.103) and who conduct HIPAA covered transactions electronically.

(31) "Non-Covered Services" means services or items for which the Authority is not responsible for payment. Non-covered services are identified in:

(a) OAR 410-120-1200, Excluded Services and Limitations;

(b) OAR 410-120-1210, Medical Assistance Benefit Packages and Delivery System;

(c) OAR 410-141-0480, OHP Benefit Package of Covered Services;

(d) OAR 410-141-0520, Prioritized List of Health Services; and

(e) The individual Authority provider rules, program-specific rules, and contracts.

(32) "Non-Participating Provider" means a provider who does not have a contractual relationship with the PHP.

(33) "Nursing Facility" means a facility licensed and certified by the Department of Human Services Seniors and People with Disabilities Division (SPD) defined in OAR 411-070-0005.

(34) "Oregon Health Plan (OHP)" means the Medicaid demonstration project that expands Medicaid eligibility to eligible clients. The OHP relies substantially upon prioritization of health services and managed care to achieve the public policy objectives of access, cost containment, efficacy, and cost effectiveness in the allocation of health resources.

(35) "Out-of-State Providers" means any provider located outside the borders of Oregon:

(a) Contiguous area providers are those located no more than 75 miles from the border of Oregon;

(b) Non-contiguous area providers are those located more than 75 miles from the borders of Oregon.

(36) "Post-Payment Review" means review of billings or other medical information for accuracy, medical appropriateness, level of service, or for other reasons subsequent to payment of the claim.

(37) "Prepaid Health Plan (PHP)" means a managed health, dental, chemical dependency, physician care organization, or mental health care organization that contracts with DMAP or Addictions and Mental Health Division (AMH) on a case managed, prepaid, capitated basis under the OHP. PHP's may be a Dental Care Organization (DCO), Fully Capitated Health Plan (FCHP), Mental Health Organization (MHO), Primary Care Organization (PCO) or Chemical Dependency Organization (CDO).

(38) "Prohibited Kickback Relationships" means remuneration or payment practices that may result in federal civil penalties or exclusion for violation of 42 CFR 1001.951.

(39) "PHP Encounter" means encounter data submitted by a PHP or by a provider in connection with services or items reimbursed by a PHP.

(40) "Prior Authorization" means payment authorization for specified covered services or items given by Authority staff, or its contracted agencies, or a county if required by the county, prior to provision of the service. A physician or other referral is not a prior authorization.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(41) "Provider" means an individual, facility, institution, corporate entity, or other organization which supplies health care or other covered services or items, also termed a performing provider, that must be enrolled with the Authority pursuant to OAR 943-120-0300 to 943-120-0400 to seek reimbursement from the Authority, including services provided, under program-specific rules or contracts with the Authority or with a county or PHP.

(42) "Quality Improvement" means the effort to improve the level of performance of key processes in health services or health care. A quality improvement program measures the level of current performance of the processes, finds ways to improve the performance and implements new and better methods for the processes. Quality improvement includes the goals of quality assurance, quality control, quality planning, and quality management in health care where "quality of care is the degree to which health services for individuals and populations increase the likelihood of desired health outcomes and are consistent with current professional knowledge."

(43) "Quality Improvement Organization (QIO)" means an entity which has a contract with CMS under Part B of Title XI to perform utilization and quality control review of the health care furnished, or to be furnished, to Medicare and Medicaid clients; formerly known as a "Peer Review Organization."

(44) "Remittance Advice" means the automated notice a provider receives explaining payments or other claim actions.

(45) "Subrogation" means the right of the state to stand in place of the client in the collection of third party resources, including Medicare.

(46) "Suspension" means a sanction prohibiting a provider's participation in the Authority's medical assistance or other programs by deactivation of the assigned provider number for a specified period of time or until the occurrence of a specified event.

(47) "Termination" means a sanction prohibiting a provider's participation in the Authority's programs by canceling the assigned provider number and agreement unless:

- (a) The exceptions cited in 42 CFR 1001.221 are met; or
- (b) Otherwise stated by the Authority at the time of termination.

(48) "Third Party Resource (TPR)" means a medical or financial resource, including Medicare, which, by law, is available and applicable to pay for covered services and items for a medical assistance client.

(49) "Usual Charge" means when program-specific or contract reimbursement is based on usual charge, and is the lesser of the following, unless prohibited from billing by federal statute or regulation:

(a) The provider's charge per unit of service for the majority of non-medical assistance users of the same service based on the preceding month's charges;

(b) The provider's lowest charge per unit of service on the same date that is advertised, quoted, or posted. The lesser of these applies regardless of the payment source or means of payment; or

(c) Where the provider has established a written sliding fee scale based upon income for individuals and families with income equal to or less than 200% of the FPL, the fees paid by these individuals and families are not considered in determining the usual charge. Any amounts charged to TPR must be considered.

(50) "Visit Data" means program-specific or contract data collection requirements associated with the delivery of service to clients on the basis of an event such as a visit.

943-120-0310

Provider Requirements

(1) All providers seeking reimbursement from the Authority, a PHP, or a county pursuant to a county agreement with the Authority for the provision of covered services or items to eligible recipients, must comply with these rules, OAR 943-120-0300 to 943-120-0400, and the applicable rules or contracts of the specific programs described below:

(a) Programs administered by DMAP including the OHP and the medical assistance program that reimburses providers for services or items provided to eligible recipients, including but not limited to chapter 410, division 120; chapter 410, division 141; and provider rules in chapter 410 applicable to the provider's service category;

(b) Programs administered by AMH that reimburse providers for services or items provided to eligible AMH recipients; or

(c) Programs administered by SPD that reimburse providers for services or items provided to eligible SPD recipients.

(2) Authority programs use visit data to monitor service delivery, planning, and quality improvement activities. Visit data must be submitted by a program-specific rule or contract. A provider shall make accurate, complete, and timely submission of visit data. Visit data is not a HIPAA transaction and does not constitute a claim for reimbursement.

(3) CHIP and Medicaid-Funded Covered Services and Items.

(a) Covered services or items paid for with Medicaid (Title XIX) and CHIP (Title XXI) funds (referred to as the medical assistance program) are also subject to federal and state Medicaid rules and requirements. In interpreting these rules and program-specific rules or contracts, the Authority shall construe them as much as possible in a manner that shall comply with federal and state medical assistance program laws and regulations, and the terms and conditions of federal waivers and the state plans

(b) If a provider is reimbursed with medical assistance program funds, the provider must comply with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations pertaining to the provision of Medicaid services under the Medicaid Act, Title XIX, 42 United States Code (USC) 1396 et. seq., and CHIP services under Title XXI, including without limitation:

(A) Maintaining all records necessary to fully disclose the extent of the services provided to individuals receiving medical assistance and furnish such information to any state or federal agency responsible for administration or oversight of the medical assistance program regarding any payments claimed by an individual or institution for providing Medicaid services as the state or federal agency may from time to time request;

(B) Complying with all disclosure requirements of 42 CFR 1002.3(a) and 42 CFR 455 subpart (B);

(C) Maintaining written notices and procedures respecting advance directives in compliance with 42 USC 1396(a)(57) and (w), 42 CFR 431.107(b)(4), and 42 CFR 489 subpart I;

(D) Certifying that the information is true, accurate and complete when submitting claims or PHP encounters for the provision of medical assistance services or items. Submission of a claim or PHP encounter constitutes a representation of the provider's understanding that payment of the claim shall be from federal or state funds, or both and that any falsification or concealment of a material fact may result in prosecution under federal or state laws.

(c) Hospitals, nursing facilities, home health agencies (including those providing personal care), hospices, and HMOs must comply with the Patient Self-Determination Act as set forth in Section 4751 of OBRA 1991. To comply with the obligation under the above-listed laws to deliver information on the rights of the individual under Oregon law to make health care decisions, the named providers and organizations must give capable individuals over the age of 18 a copy of "Your Right to Make Health Care Decisions in Oregon," copyright 1993, by the Oregon State Bar Health Law Section. Out-of-state providers of these services must comply with Medicare and Medicaid regulations in their state. Submittal to the Authority of the appropriate claim form requesting payment for medical services provided to a Medicaid eligible shall be considered representation to the Authority of the medical provider's compliance with the above-listed laws.

(d) Payment for any service or item furnished by a provider of CHIP or Medicaid-funded services or items may not be made by or through (directly or by power of attorney) any individual or organization, such as a collection agency or service bureau, that advances money to a provider for accounts receivable that the provider has assigned, sold, or transferred to the individual or organization for an added fee or a deduction of a portion of the accounts receivable.

(e) The Authority shall make medical assistance provider payments only to the following:

(A) The provider who actually performed the service or provided the item;

(B) In accordance with a reassignment from the provider to a government agency or reassignment by a court order;

(C) To the employer of the provider, if the provider is required as a condition of employment to turn over his or her fees to the employer, and the employer is enrolled with the Authority as a billing provider;

(D) To the facility in which the service is provided, if the provider has a contract under which the facility submits the claim, and the facility is enrolled with the Authority as a billing provider;

(E) To a foundation, PHP, clinic, or similar organization operating as an organized health care delivery system, if the provider has a contract under which the organization submits the claim, and the organization is enrolled with the Authority as a billing provider; or

(F) To an enrolled billing provider, such as a billing service or an accounting firm that, in connection with the submission of claims, receives or directs payments in the name of the provider, if the billing provider's compensation for this service is:

(i) Related to the cost of processing the billing;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(ii) Not related on percentage or other basis to the amount that is billed or collected and not dependent upon the collection of the payment.

(f) Providers must comply with TPR requirements in program-specific rules or contracts.

(4) The Authority uses several approaches to promote program integrity. These rules describe program integrity actions related to provider payments, including provider reimbursement under program-specific rules, county agreements, and contracts. The program integrity goal is to pay the correct amount to a properly enrolled provider for covered services provided to an eligible client according to the program-specific coverage criteria in effect on the date of service.

(a) Program integrity activities include but are not limited to the following:

(A) Medical or professional review including but not limited to following the evaluation of care in accordance with evidence-based principles, medical error identification, and prior authorization processes, including all actions taken to determine the coverage and appropriateness of services or items;

(B) Provider obligations to submit correct claims and PHP encounters;

(C) Onsite visits to verify compliance with standards;

(D) Implementation of HIPAA electronic transaction standards to improve accuracy and timeliness of claims processing and encounter reporting;

(E) Provider credentialing activities;

(F) Accessing federal Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) database (exclusions);

(G) Quality improvement activities;

(H) Cost report settlement processes;

(I) Audits;

(J) Investigation of false claims, fraud or prohibited kickback relationships; and

(K) Coordination with the Department of Justice Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) and other health oversight authorities.

(b) The following individuals may review a request for services or items, or audit a claim or PHP encounter for care, services, or items, before or after payment, for assurance that the specific care, item, or service was provided pursuant to the program-specific and the generally accepted standards of a provider's field of practice or specialty:

(A) Authority staff or designee;

(B) Medical utilization and professional review contractor;

(C) Dental utilization and professional review contractor; or

(D) Federal or state oversight authority.

(c) Payment may be denied or subject to recovery if the review or audit determines the care, service, or item was not provided pursuant to provider rules or does not meet the criteria for quality or medical appropriateness of the care, service, or item or payment. Related provider and hospital billings shall also be denied or subject to recovery.

(d) If the Authority determines that an overpayment has been made to a provider, the amount of overpayment is subject to recovery.

(e) The Authority may communicate with and coordinate any program integrity actions with the MFCU, DHHS, and other federal and state oversight authorities.

943-120-0320

Provider Enrollment

(1) In some Authority program areas, being an enrolled Authority provider is a condition of eligibility for an Authority contract for certain services or activities. The Authority requires billing providers to be enrolled as providers consistent with the provider enrollment processes set forth in this rule. If reimbursement for covered services will be made under a contract with the Authority, the provider must also meet the Authority's contract requirements. Contract requirements are separate from the requirements of these provider enrollment rules. Enrollment as a provider with the Authority is not a promise that the enrolled provider will receive any amount of work from the Authority, a PHP, or a county.

(2) Provider enrollment establishes essential Authority provider participation requirements for becoming an enrolled Authority provider. The details of provider qualification requirements, client eligibility, covered services, how to obtain prior authorization or review (if required), documentation requirements, claims submission, and available electronic access instructions, and other pertinent instructions and requirements are contained in the program-specific rules or contract.

(3) Prior to enrollment, providers must:

(a) Meet all program-specific or contract requirements identified in program-specific rules or contracts in addition to those requirements identified in these rules;

(b) Meet Authority contracting requirements, as specified by the Authority's Office of Contracts and Procurement (OC&P);

(c) Meet Authority and federal licensing requirements for the type of service for which the provider is enrolling;

(d) Meet Authority and federal certification requirements for the type of service for which the provider is enrolling; and

(e) Obtain a provider number from the Authority for the specific service for which the provider is enrolling.

(4) Participation with the Authority as an enrolled provider is open to qualified providers that:

(a) Meet the qualification requirements established in these rules and program-specific rules or contracts;

(b) Enroll as an Authority provider pursuant to these rules;

(c) Provide a covered service or item within their scope of practice and licensure to an eligible Authority recipient pursuant to program-specific rules or contracts; and

(d) Accept the reimbursement amounts established pursuant to the Authority's program-specific fee structures or contracts for the service or item.

(5) To be enrolled as an Authority provider, an individual or organization must submit a complete and accurate provider enrollment form, available from the Authority, including all required documentation, and a signed provider enrollment agreement.

(a) The provider enrollment form requests basic demographic information about the provider that will be permanently associated with the provider or organization until changed on an update form.

(b) Each Authority program establishes provider-specific qualifications and program criteria that must be provided as part of the provider enrollment form.

(A) The provider must meet applicable licensing and regulatory requirements set forth by federal and state statutes, regulations, and rules, and must comply with all Oregon statutes and regulations applicable to the provider's scope of service as well as the program-specific rules or contract applicable to the provision of covered services. The provider and program addendum shall specify the required documentation of professional qualifications that must be provided with the provider enrollment form.

(B) All providers of services within Oregon must have a valid Oregon business license if such a license is a requirement of the state, federal, county, or city government to operate a business or to provide services. In addition providers must be registered to do business in Oregon by registering with the Oregon Secretary of State, Corporation Division, if registration is required.

(c) All individuals and entities shall disclose information used by the Authority to determine whether an exclusion applies that would prevent the Authority from enrolling the provider. Individual performing providers must submit a disclosure statement. All providers that are enrolling as an entity (corporation, non-profit, partnership, sole proprietorship, governmental) must submit a disclosure of ownership and control interest statement. Payment may not be made to any individual or entity that has been excluded from participation in federal or state programs or that employs or is managed by excluded individuals or entities.

(A) Entities must disclose all the information required on the disclosure of ownership and control interest statement. Information that must be disclosed includes the name, address, and taxpayer identification number of each individual with an ownership or control interest in the disclosing entity or in any subcontractor in which the disclosing entity has a direct or indirect ownership of five percent or more; whether any of the named individuals are related as spouse, parent, child, sibling, or other family member by marriage or otherwise; and the name and taxpayer identification number of any other disclosing entity in which an individual with an ownership or control interest in the disclosing entity also has an ownership or control interest.

(B) A provider must submit, within 35 days of the date of a request by DHHS or the Authority, full and complete information about the ownership of any subcontractor with whom the provider had business transactions totaling more than $25,000 during the 12-month period ending on the date of the request; and any significant business transactions between the provider and any wholly owned supplier, or between the provider and any subcontractor, during the five-year period ending on the date of the request.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(C) Before the Authority enters into a provider enrollment agreement with a provider, or renews a provider agreement, or at any time upon written request of the Authority, the provider must disclose to the Authority the identity and taxpayer identification number of any individual who has an ownership or control interest in the provider; or is an agent or managing employee of the provider; or the individual performing provider that has been convicted of a criminal offense related to that individual's involvement in any program under Medicare, Medicaid, or Title XX services program, since the inception of those programs.

(D) The Authority may refuse to enter into or may suspend or terminate a provider enrollment agreement if the individual performing provider or any individual who has an ownership or control interest in the entity, or who is an agent or managing employee of the provider, has been sanctioned or convicted of a criminal offense related to that individual's involvement in any program established under Medicare, Medicaid, Children's Health Insurance, Title XX services, or other public assistance program.

(E) The Authority may refuse to enter into or may suspend or terminate a provider enrollment agreement, or contract for provider services, if it determines that the provider did not fully and accurately make any disclosure required under section (5)(c) of this rule.

(F) Taxpayer identification numbers, including social security numbers (SSN) and employer identification numbers (EIN), must be provided where indicated on the Disclosure Statement or the Disclosure of Ownership and Control Interest Statement. The taxpayer identification number will be used to confirm whether the individual or entity is subject to exclusion from participation in the Oregon Medicaid program.

(6) The provider must sign the provider enrollment agreement, and submit it for review to the Authority at the time the provider submits the provider enrollment form and related documentation. Signing the provider enrollment agreement constitutes agreement by a provider to comply with all applicable Authority provider and program rules, and applicable federal and state laws and regulations in effect on the date of service.

(7) A provider may request to conduct electronic transactions with the Authority by enrolling and completing the appropriate authorization forms pursuant to the electronic data transaction rules (OAR 943-120-0100 to 943-120-0200).

(8) A provider shall be enrolled, assigned, and issued a provider number for use in specific payment or business operations upon the following criteria:

(a) Provider submission of a complete and signed (when applicable), provider enrollment form, provider enrollment agreement, provider certification and all required documents to the Authority program responsible for enrolling the provider. Provider signature must be the provider or an individual with actual authority from the provider to legally bind the provider to attest and certify to the accuracy and completeness of the information submitted;

(b) The Authority's verification of licensing or certification or other authority to perform the service or provide the item within the lawful scope of practice recognized under Oregon law. The Authority may confirm any information on the provider enrollment form or documentation submitted with the provider enrollment form, and may request additional information; and

(c) The Authority's acceptance of the provider enrollment form, provider enrollment agreement, and provider certification by the Authority unit responsible for approving the enrollment of the provider.

(9) Submission of a claim or encounter or other reimbursement document constitutes the enrolled provider's agreement that:

(a) The service or item was provided in compliance with all applicable rules and requirements in effect on the date of service;

(b) The provider has created and maintained all records necessary to disclose the extent of services or items provided and provider's compliance with applicable program and financial requirements, and that the provider agrees to make such information available upon request to the Authority, the MFCU (for Medicaid-funded services or items), the Oregon Secretary of State, and (for federally-funded services or items) the federal funding authority and the Comptroller General of the United States, or their designees;

(c) The information on the claim or encounter, regardless of the format or other reimbursement document is true, accurate and complete; and

(d) The provider understands that payment of the claim or encounter or other reimbursement document will be from federal or state funds, or a combination of federal and state funds, and that any falsification, or concealment of a material fact, may result in prosecution under federal and state laws.

(10) The Authority has taken action to ensure compliance with the NPI requirements pursuant to 45 CFR Part 162 when those requirements became effective on May 23, 2007. In the event of a transition period approved by CMS beyond May 23, 2008, the following requirements for contractors, providers, and provider-applicants shall apply:

(a) Providers and contractors that obtain an NPI must use their NPI where indicated. In situations where a taxonomy code may be used in conjunction with the NPI, providers must update their records as specified with the Authority's provider enrollment unit. Providers applying for enrollment with the Authority that have been issued an NPI must include that NPI and any associated taxonomy codes with the provider enrollment form;

(b) A provider enrolled with the Authority must bill using the NPI pursuant to 45 CFR part 162.410, in addition to the Authority-assigned provider number, where applicable, and continue to bill using the Authority assigned provider number until the Authority informs the provider that the Authority assigned provider number is no longer allowed, or the NPI transition period has ended, whichever occurs first. Failure to use the NPI and Authority-assigned provider number as indicated during this transition period may result in delay or rejection of claims and other transactions;

(c) The NPI and applicable taxonomy code combinations will be cross-referenced to the Authority assigned provider number for purposes of processing all applicable electronic transactions as specified in OAR 943-120-0100;

(d) The provider and PHP must cooperate with the Authority with reasonable consultation and testing procedures, if any, related to implementation of the use of NPI's; and

(e) Certain provider types are not eligible for an NPI based on federal criteria for obtaining an NPI. Providers not eligible for an NPI must always use their Authority provider number on claims, encounters, or other reimbursement documents for that specific provider type.

(11) The effective date of provider enrollment is the date the provider's request is received by the Authority if on that date the provider has met all applicable requirements. The effective date may be retroactive for up to one year to encompass dates on which the provider furnished covered services to a medical assistance recipient for which it has not been paid, if on the retroactive effective date the provider has met all applicable requirements.

(12) Provider numbers are specific to the category of service or items authorized by the Authority. Issuance of an Authority-assigned provider number establishes enrollment of an individual or organization as a provider for the specific category of services covered by the provider and program addendum submitted with the provider enrollment form and enrollment agreement.

(13) Providers must provide the following updates:

(a) An enrolled provider must notify the Authority in writing of a material change in any status or condition on any element of their provider enrollment form. Providers must notify the Authority of changes in any of this information in writing within 30 calendar days of any of the following changes:

- (A) Business affiliation;
- (B) Ownership;
- (C) NPI;
- (D) Associated taxonomy codes;
- (E) Federal Tax Identification number;
- (F) Ownership and control information; or
- (G) Criminal convictions.

(b) These changes may require the submission of a provider enrollment form, provider enrollment agreement, provider certification, or other related documentation.

(c) Claims submitted by, or payments made to, providers who have not timely furnished the notification of changes or have not submitted any of the items that are required due to a change may be denied or recovered.

(d) Notice of bankruptcy proceedings must be immediately provided to the Authority in writing.

(14) Tax Reporting and Withholding.

(a) Providers must submit the provider's SSN for individuals or a federal EIN for entities, whichever is required for tax reporting purposes on IRS Form 1099. Billing providers must submit the SSN or EIN of all performing providers in connection with claims or payments made to or on behalf of the performing provider, in addition to the billing provider's SSN or EIN. Providing this number is mandatory to be eligible to enroll as a provider. The provider's SSN or EIN is required pursuant to 42 CFR 433.37 federal tax laws at 26 USC 6041. SSN's and EIN's provided pursuant to this authority are used for the administration of state, federal, and local tax laws and the administration of this program for internal verification and administrative purposes including but not limited to identifying the provider for payment and collection activities.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) The Authority must comply with the tax information reporting requirements of section 6041 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 USC 6041). Section 6041 requires the filing of annual information returns showing amounts paid to providers, who are identified by name, address, and SSN or EIN. The Authority files its information returns with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) using Form 1099MISC.

(c) The IRS Code section 3406(a)(1)(B) requires the Authority to begin backup withholding when notified by the IRS that a taxpayer identification number reported on an information return is incorrect. If a provider receives notice of backup withholding from the Authority, the provider must timely comply with the notice and provide the Authority with accurate information. The Authority shall comply with IRS requirements for backup withholding.

(d) Failure to notify the Authority of a change in federal tax identification number (SSN or EIN) may result in the Authority imposing a sanction as specified in OAR 943-120-0360.

(e) If the Authority notifies a provider about an error in federal tax identification number, the provider must supply a valid federal tax identification number within 30 calendar days of the date of the Authority's notice. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in the Authority imposing a sanction as specified in OAR 943-120-0360, for each time the provider submits an inaccurate federal tax identification number, and may require back-up withholding. Federal tax identification number requirements described in this rule refer to any requirements established by the IRS.

(15) Providers of services to clients outside the State of Oregon must be enrolled as a provider under section (8) of this rule if they comply with the requirements of section (8) and meet the following conditions:

(a) The provider is appropriately licensed or certified and is enrolled in the provider's home state for participation in that state's Medicaid program or, for non-Medicaid services, enrolled or contracted with the state agency in the provider's state to provide the same program-specific service in the provider's state. Disenrollment or sanction from the other state's Medicaid program, or exclusion from any other federal or state health care program or comparable program-specific service delivery system is a basis for denial of enrollment, termination, or suspension from participation as an Authority provider;

(b) The Oregon Board of Pharmacy issued a license to provide pharmacy services to a noncontiguous out-of-state pharmacy provider;

(c) The services must be authorized in the manner required for out-of-state services under the program-specific rules or contract for an eligible client;

(d) The services for which the provider bills are covered services under the OHP or other Authority program for which covered services are authorized to be provided to the client;

(e) A facility, including but not limited to a hospital, rehabilitative facility, institution for care of individuals with mental retardation, psychiatric hospital, or residential care facility, is enrolled or contracted by the state agency in the state in which the facility is located or is licensed as a facility provider of services by Oregon; or

(f) If the provider is not domiciled in or registered to do business in Oregon, the provider must promptly provide to the Oregon Department of Revenue and the Oregon Secretary of State, Corporation Division all information required by those agencies relative to the provider enrollment form and provider enrollment agreement. The Authority shall withhold enrollment and payments until the out-of-state provider has provided documentation of compliance with this requirement to the Authority unit responsible for enrollment.

(16) The provider enrollment agreement may be terminated as follows:

(a) The provider may ask the Authority to terminate the provider enrollment agreement at any time, subject to any specific provider termination requirements in program-specific rules or contracts.

(A) The request must be in writing, signed by the provider, and mailed or delivered to the Authority provider enrollment unit. The notice must specify the Authority-assigned provider number, if known.

(B) When accepted, the Authority shall assign the provider number a termination status and the effective date of the termination status.

(C) Termination of the provider enrollment agreement does not relieve the provider of any obligations for covered services or items provided under these rules, program-specific rules or contracts in effect for dates of services during which the provider enrollment agreement was in effect.

(b) The Authority may terminate the provider enrollment agreement immediately upon notice to the provider, or a later date as the Authority may establish in the notice, upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(A) The Authority fails to receive funding, appropriations, limitations, or other expenditure authority at levels that the Authority or the specific program determines to be sufficient to pay for the services or items covered under the agreement;

(B) Federal or state laws, regulations, or guidelines are modified or interpreted by the Authority in a manner that either providing the services or items under the agreement is prohibited or the Authority is prohibited from paying for such services or items from the planned funding source;

(C) The Authority has issued a final order revoking the Authority-assigned provider number based on a sanction under termination terms and conditions established in program-specific rules or contract;

(D) The provider no longer holds a required license, certificate or other authority to qualify as a provider. The termination shall be effective on the date the license, certificate, or other authority is no longer valid; or

(E) The provider fails to submit any claims for reimbursement for an 18-month period. The provider may reapply for enrollment.

(c) In the event of any dispute arising out of the termination of the provider enrollment agreement, the provider's sole monetary remedy is limited to covered services or items the Authority determines to be compensable under the provider agreement, a claim for unpaid invoices, hours worked within any limits set forth in the agreement but not yet billed, and Authority-authorized expenses incurred prior to termination. Providers may not recover indirect or consequential damages. Providers are not entitled to attorney fees, costs, or expenses of any kind.

(17) When a provider fails to meet one or more of the requirements governing participation as an Authority enrolled provider, the provider's Authority-assigned provider number may be immediately suspended, pursuant to OAR 943-120-0360. The provider may not provide services or items to clients during a period of suspension. The Authority shall deny claims for payment or other reimbursement requests for dates of service during a period of suspension.

(18) The provision of program-specific or contract covered services or items to eligible clients is voluntary on the part of the provider. Providers are not required to serve all clients seeking service. If a provider undertakes to provide a covered service or item to an eligible client, the provider must comply with these rules, program-specific rules or contract.

(a) The provider performs all services, or provides all items, as an independent contractor. The provider is not an officer, employee, or agent of the Authority.

(b) The provider is responsible for its employees, and for providing employment-related benefits and deductions that are required by law. The provider is solely responsible for its acts or omissions, including the acts or omissions of its own officers, employees or agents. The Authority's responsibility is limited to its authorization and payment obligations for covered services or items provided pursuant to these rules.

(19) For Medicaid services, a provider may not deny services to any eligible client because of the client's inability to pay the cost sharing amount imposed by the applicable program-specific or provider-specific rules or contract. A client's inability to pay does not eliminate the client's liability for the cost sharing charge.

Compliance with Federal and State Statutes

(1) When a provider submits a claim for services or supplies provided to an Authority client, the Authority shall consider the submission as the provider's representation of the provider's compliance with the applicable sections of the federal and state statutes and rules referenced in this rule, and other program rules or contract requirements of the specific program under which the claim is submitted:

(a) 45 CFR Part 84 which implements Title V, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973;

(b) 42 CFR Part 493 Laboratory Requirements and ORS chapter 438 (Clinical Laboratories).

(c) The provider must comply and, as indicated, require all subcontractors to comply with the following federal and state requirements to the extent that they are applicable to the items and services governed by these rules, unless exempt under 45 CFR Part 87 for Faith-Based Organizations (Federal Register, July 16, 2004, Volume 69, #136), or other federal provisions. For purposes of these rules, all references to federal and state laws are references to federal and state laws as they may be amended from time to time that are in effect on the date of provider's service:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(A) The provider must comply and require all subcontractors to comply with all federal laws, regulations, executive orders applicable to the items and services provided under these rules. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the provider must comply and require all subcontractors to comply with the following laws, regulations and executive orders to the extent they are applicable to the items and services provided under these rules:

- (i) Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended;
- (ii) Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended;
- (iii) The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended;
- (iv) Executive Order 11246, as amended;
- (v) The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996;
- (vi) The Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended;
- (vii) The Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended;
- (viii) all regulations and administrative rules established pursuant to the foregoing laws;
- (ix) All other applicable requirements of federal civil rights and rehabilitation statutes, rules, and regulations;
- (x) All federal laws governing operation of community mental health programs, including without limitation, all federal laws requiring reporting of client abuse. These laws, regulations and executive orders are incorporated by reference herein to the extent that they are applicable to the items and services governed by these rules and required by law to be so incorporated. No federal funds may be used to provide services in violation of 42 USC 14402.

(B) Any provider that receives or makes annual payments under Medicaid of at least $5,000,000, as a condition of receiving such payments, shall:

- (i) Establish written policies for all employees of the entity (including management), and of any contractor, subcontractor, or agent of the entity, that provide detailed information about the False Claims Act established under 31 USC 3729 through 3733, administrative remedies for false claims and statements established under 31 USC 38, any Oregon state laws pertaining to civil or criminal penalties for false claims and statements, and whistle blowing protections under such laws, with respect to the role of such laws in preventing and detecting fraud, waste, and abuse in Federal health care programs (as defined in 42 USC 1320a-7b(f));
- (ii) Include as part of written policies, detailed provisions regarding the entity's policies and procedures for detecting and preventing fraud, waste, and abuse; and
- (iii) Include in any employee handbook for the entity, a specific discussion of the laws described in sub-paragraph (i), the rights of the employees to be protected as whistleblowers.

(C) If the items and services governed under these rules exceed $10,000, the provider must comply and require all subcontractors to comply with Executive Order 11246, entitled "Equal Employment Opportunity," as amended by Executive Order 11375, and as supplemented in U.S. Authority of Labor regulations (41 CFR part 60);

(D) If the items and services governed under these rules exceed $100,000, and are paid in any part with federal funds, the provider must comply and require all subcontractors to comply with all applicable standards, orders, or requirements issued under Section 306 of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7606), the Federal Water Pollution Control Act as amended (commonly known as the Clean Water Act — 33 U.S.C. 1251 to 1387), specifically including, but not limited to, Section 508 (33 U.S.C. 1368). Executive Order 11738, and Environmental Protection Agency regulations (40 CFR Part 32), which prohibit the use under non-exempt Federal contracts, grants or loans of facilities included on the EPA List of Violating Facilities. Violations must be reported to the Authority, DHHS, and the appropriate Regional Office of the Environmental Protection Agency. The provider must include and require all subcontractors to include in all contracts with subcontractors receiving more than $100,000, language requiring the subcontractor to comply with the federal laws identified in this section;

(E) The provider must comply and require all subcontractors to comply with applicable mandatory standards and policies relating to energy efficiency that are contained in the Oregon energy conservation plan issued in compliance with the Energy Policy and Conservation Act, 42 U.S.C. 6201 et seq. (Pub. L. 94-163);

(F) The provider must provide written certification indicating that:

(i) No federal appropriated funds have been paid or shall be paid, by or on behalf of the provider, to any person for influencing or attempting to influence an officer or employee of an agency, a Member of Congress, an officer or employee of Congress, or an employee of a Member of Congress in connection with the awarding of any federal contract, the making of any federal grant, the making of any federal loan, the entering into of any cooperative agreement, and the extension, continuation, renewal, amendment or modification of any federal contract, grant, loan or cooperative agreement;

(ii) If any funds other than federal appropriated funds have been paid or shall be paid to any person for influencing or attempting to influence an officer or employee of any agency, a Member of Congress, an officer or employee of Congress, or an employee of a Member of Congress in connection with this federal contract, grant, loan or cooperative agreement, the provider must complete and submit Standard Form LLL, "Disclosure Form to Report Lobbying" in accordance with its instructions;

(iii) The provider must require that the language of this certification be included in the award documents for all sub-awards at all tiers (including subcontracts, sub-grants, and contracts under grants, loans, and cooperative agreements) and that all sub-recipients and subcontractors must certify and disclose accordingly;

(iv) This certification is a material representation of fact upon which reliance was placed when this provider agreement was made or entered into. Submission of this certification is a prerequisite for making or entering into this provider agreement imposed by 31 USC 1352. Any person who fails to file the required certification shall be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $10,000 and not more than $100,000 for each such failure.

(G) If the items and services funded in whole or in part with financial assistance provided under these rules are covered by HIPAA or the federal regulations implementing HIPAA, the provider must deliver the goods and services in compliance with HIPAA. The provider must comply and require all subcontractors to comply with the following:

(i) Individually identifiable health information about specific individuals is confidential. Individually identifiable health information relating to specific individuals may be exchanged between the provider and the Authority for purposes directly related to the provision to clients of services that are funded in whole or in part under these rules. The provider must not use or disclose any individually identifiable health information about specific individuals in a manner that would violate Authority privacy rules, (OAR 943-014-0000 to 0070.), or the Authority's Notice of Privacy Practices, if done by the Authority;

(ii) Providers who engage in EDI transactions with the Authority in connection with claims or encounter data, eligibility or enrollment information, authorizations or other electronic transactions must execute an EDI trading partner agreement with the Authority and must comply with the Authority's electronic data transmission rules (OAR 943-120-0100 to 943-120-0200);

(iii) If a provider reasonably believes that the provider's or the Authority's data transactions system or other application of HIPAA privacy or security compliance policy may result in a violation of HIPAA requirements, the provider must promptly consult the Authority's privacy officer. The provider or the Authority may initiate a request to test HIPAA transactions, subject to available resources and the Authority's testing schedule.

(H) The provider must comply and require all subcontractors to comply with all mandatory standards and policies that relate to resource conservation and recovery pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (codified at 42 USC 6901 et. seq.). Section 6002 of that Act (codified at 42 USC 6962) requires that preference be given in procurement programs to the purchase of specific products containing recycled materials identified in guidelines developed by the Environmental Protection Agency. Current guidelines are set forth in 40 CFR Parts 247;

(I) The provider must comply and require all subcontractors to comply with the applicable audit requirements and responsibilities set forth in the Office of Management and Budget Circular A-133 entitled "Audits of States, Local Governments and Non-Profit Organizations;"

(J) The provider may not permit any person or entity to be a subcontractor if the person or entity is listed on the non-procurement portion of the General Service Administration's "List of Parties Excluded from Federal Procurement or Nonprocurement Programs" pursuant to Executive Orders No. 12,549 and No. 12,689, "Debarment and Suspension". (See 45 CFR part 76). This list contains the names of parties debarred, suspended, or otherwise excluded by agencies, and providers and subcontractors declared ineligible under statutory authority other than Executive Order No. 12549. Subcontractors with awards that exceed the simplified acquisition threshold must provide the required certification regarding their exclusion status and that of their principals prior to award;

(K) The provider must comply and require all subcontractors to comply with the following provisions to maintain a drug-free workplace:

(i) Certify that it shall provide a drug-free workplace by publishing a statement notifying its employees that the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of a controlled substance, except as may be present in lawfully prescribed or over-the-counter medications, is prohibited in the provider's workplace or while providing services to Authority clients. The provider's notice must specify the actions that shall be taken by the provider against its employees for violation of such prohibitions;

(ii) Establish a drug-free awareness program to inform its employees about the dangers of drug abuse in the workplace, the provider's policy of maintaining a drug-free workplace, any available drug counseling, rehabilitation, and employee assistance programs, and the penalties that may be imposed upon employees for drug abuse violations;

(iii) Provide each employee to be engaged in the performance of services under these rules a copy of the statement required in paragraph (J)(i) above;

(iv) Notify each employee in the statement required by paragraph (J)(i) that, as a condition of employment to provide services under these rules, the employee shall abide by the terms of the statement and notify the employer of any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace no later than five days after the conviction;

(v) Notify the Authority within ten days after receiving notice under paragraph (J)(iv) from an employee or otherwise receiving actual notice of the conviction;

(vi) Impose a sanction on, or require the satisfactory participation in a drug abuse assistance or rehabilitation program by any employee who is convicted as required by Section 5154 of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988;

(vii) Make a good-faith effort to continue a drug-free workplace through implementation of paragraphs (J)(i) through (J)(vi);

(viii) Require any subcontractor to comply with paragraphs (J)(i) through (J)(vii);

(ix) The provider, the provider's employees, officers, agents, or subcontractors may not provide any service required under these rules while under the influence of drugs. For purposes of this provision, "under the influence" means observed abnormal behavior or impairments in mental or physical performance leading a reasonable person to believe the provider or provider's employee, officer, agent, or subcontractor has used a controlled substance, prescription, or non-prescription medication that impairs the provider or provider's employee, officer, agent, or subcontractor's performance of essential job function or creates a direct threat to Authority clients or others. Examples of abnormal behavior include but are not limited to hallucinations, paranoia or violent outbursts. Examples of impairments in physical or mental performance include but are not limited to slurred speech, difficulty walking or performing job activities;

(x) Violation of any provision of this subsection may result in termination of the provider agreement.

(L) The provider must comply and require all sub-contractors to comply with the Pro-Children Act of 1994 (codified at 20 USC section 6081 et. seq.);

(M) A provider reimbursed or seeking reimbursement with Medicaid funds must comply with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations pertaining to the provision of Medicaid services under the Medicaid Act, Title XIX, 42 USC Section 1396 et. seq., including without limitation:

(i) Maintain necessary records to fully disclose the extent of the services provided to individuals receiving Medicaid assistance and must furnish the information to any state or federal agency responsible for administering the Medicaid program regarding any payments claimed by the provider or institution for providing Medicaid services as the state or federal agency may from time to time request. 42 USC Section 1396a(a)(27); 42 CFR 431.107(b)(1) & (2);

(ii) Comply with all disclosure requirements of 42 CFR 1002.3(a) and 42 CFR 455 Subpart (B);

(iii) Maintain written notices and procedures respecting advance directives in compliance with 42 USC Section 1396(a)(57) and (w), 42 CFR 431.107(b)(4), and 42 CFR 489 subpart I;

(iv) Certify when submitting any claim for the provision of Medicaid services that the information submitted is true, accurate and complete. The provider must acknowledge provider's understanding that payment of the claim shall be from federal and state funds and that any falsification or concealment of a material fact may be prosecuted under federal and state laws.

(N) Providers must comply with the obligations intended for contractors under ORS 279B.220, 279B.225, 279B.230 and 279B.235 (if applicable). Providers shall, to the maximum extent economically feasible in the performance of covered services, use recycled paper (as defined in ORS 279A.010(1)(ee)), recycled PETE products (as defined in 279A.010(1)(ff)), and other recycled plastic resin products and recycled products (as "recycled product" is defined in 279A.010(1)(gg)).

(O) Providers must comply with all federal, state and local tax laws, including Social Security payment requirements, applicable to payments made by the Authority to the provider.

(2) Hospitals, nursing facilities, home health agencies (including those providing personal care), hospices, and health maintenance organizations shall comply with the Patient Self-Determination Act as set forth in Section 4751 of OBRA 1991. To comply with the obligation under the above listed laws to deliver information on the rights of the individual under Oregon law to make health care decisions, the named providers and organizations must provide capable individuals over the age of 18 a copy of "Your Right to Make Health Care Decisions in Oregon," copyright 1993, by the Oregon State Bar Health Law Section. Out-of-state providers of these services must comply with Medicare and Medicaid regulations in their state. Submittal to the Authority of the appropriate billing form requesting payment for medical services provided to a Medicaid eligible client shall be deemed representation to the Authority of the medical provider's compliance with the above-listed laws.

(3) Providers described in ORS chapter 419B must report suspected child abuse to their local Children, Adults and Families Division office or police, in the manner described in ORS chapter 419.

(4) The Clinical Laboratory Improvement Act (CLIA), requires all entities that perform even one laboratory test, including waived tests, on "materials derived from the human body for the purpose of providing information for the diagnosis, prevention or treatment of any disease or impairment of, or the assessment of the health of, human beings" to meet certain federal requirements. If an entity performs tests for these purposes, it is considered, under CLIA, to be a laboratory.

Billing Procedures

(1) These rules only apply to covered services and items provided to clients that are paid for by the Authority based on an Authority fee schedule or other reimbursement method (often referred to as fee-for-service), or for services that are paid for by the Authority at the request of a county for county-authorized services. .

(a) If a client's service or item is paid for by a PHP, the provider must comply with the billing and procedures related to claim submission established under contract with that PHP, or the rules applicable to non-participating providers if the provider is not under contract with that PHP.

(b) If the client is enrolled in a PHP, but the client is permitted by a contract or program-specific rules to obtain covered services reimbursed by the Authority (such as family planning services that may be obtained from any provider), the provider must comply with the billing and claim procedures established under these rules.

(2) All Authority-assigned provider numbers are issued at enrollment and are directly associated with the provider as defined in OAR 943-120-0320(12) and have the following uses:

(a) Log-on identification for the Authority web portal;

(b) Claim submission in the approved paper formats; and

(c) For electronic claims submission including the web portal for atypical providers pursuant to 45 CFR 160 and 162 where an NPI is not mandated. Use of the Authority-assigned provider number shall be considered authorized by the provider and the provider shall be accountable for its use.

(3) Except as provided in section (4) below, an enrolled provider may not seek payment for any covered services from:

(a) A client for covered benefits; or

(b) A financially responsible relative or representative of that client.

(4) Providers may seek payment from an eligible client or client representative as follows:

(a) From any applicable coinsurance, co-payments, deductibles, or other client financial obligation to the extent and as expressly authorized by program-specific rules or contract;

(b) From a client who failed to inform the provider of Authority program eligibility, of OHP or PHP enrollment, or of other third party insur-

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

ance coverage at the time the service was provided or subsequent to the provision of the service or item. In this case, the provider may not bill the Authority, the PHP, or third party payer for any reason, including but not limited to timeliness of claims and lack of prior authorization. The provider must document attempts to obtain information on eligibility or enrollment;

(c) The client became eligible for Authority benefits retroactively but did not meet other established criteria described in the applicable program-specific rules or contracts.

(d) The provider may document that a TPR made payments directly to the client for services provided that are subject to recovery by the provider.;

(e) The service or item is not covered under the client's benefit package. The provider must document that prior to the delivery of services or items, the provider informed the client the service or item would not be covered by the Authority;

(f) The client requested continuation of benefits during the administrative hearing process and the final decision was not in favor of the client. The client shall be responsible for any charges since the effective date of the initial notice of denial; or

(g) In exceptional circumstances, a client may request continuation of a covered service while asserting the right to privately pay for that service. Under this circumstance, a provider may bill the client for a covered service only if the client is informed in advance of receiving the specific service of all of the following:

(A) The requested service is a covered service and the provider would be paid in full for the covered service if the claim is submitted to the Authority or the client's PHP;

(B) The estimated cost of the covered service, including all related charges, that the Authority or PHP would pay, and for which the client is billed cannot be an amount greater than the maximum Authority or PHP reimbursable rate or PHP rate;

(C) The provider may not require the client to enter into a voluntary payment agreement for any amount for the covered service; and

(D) The provider must be able to document, in writing, signed by the client or the client's representative, that the client was provided the information described above; was provided an opportunity to ask questions, obtain additional information, and consult with the client's caseworker or client representative; and the client agreed to be responsible for payment by signing an agreement incorporating all of the information described above. The provider must provide a copy of the signed agreement to the client. The provider may not submit a claim for payment for the service or item to the Authority or to the client's PHP that is subject to such an agreement.

(5) Reimbursement for Non-Covered Services.

(a) A provider may bill a client for services that are not covered by the Authority or a PHP, except as provided in these rules. The client must be informed in advance of receiving the specific service that it is not covered, the estimated cost of the service, and that the client or client's representative is financially responsible for payment for the specific service. Providers must provide written documentation, signed by the client, or the client's representative, dated prior to the delivery of services or item indicating that the client was provided this information and that the client knowingly and voluntarily agreed to be responsible for payment.

(b) Providers may not bill or accept payment from the Authority or a PHP for a covered service when a non-covered service has been provided and additional payment is sought or accepted from the client. Examples include but are not limited to charging the client an additional payment to obtain a gold crown (not covered) instead of the stainless steel crown (covered) or charging an additional client payment to obtain eyeglass frames not on the covered list of frames. This practice is called buying-up, which is prohibited, and a provider may be sanctioned for this practice regardless of whether a client waiver is documented.

(c) Providers may not bill clients or the Authority for a client's missed appointment.

(d) Providers may not bill clients or the Authority for services or items provided free of charge. This limitation does not apply to established sliding fee schedules where the client is subject to the same standards as other members of the public or clients of the provider.

(e) Providers may not bill clients for services or items that have been denied due to provider error such as required documentation not submitted or prior authorization not obtained.

(6) Providers must verify that the individual receiving covered services is, in fact, an eligible client on the date of service for the service provided and that the services is covered in the client's benefit package.

(a) Providers shall pay for costs incurred for failing to confirm eligibility or that services are covered.

(b) Providers must confirm the Authority's client eligibility and benefit package coverage using the web portal, or the Authority telephone eligibility system, and by other methods specified in program-specific or contract instructions.

943-120-0340

Claim and PHP Encounter Submission

(1) All claims must be submitted using one of the following methods:

(a) Paper forms, using the appropriate form as described in the program-specific rules or contract;

(b) Electronically, using the web portal accessed by provider-specific PIN and password. Initial activation by provider of Authority-assigned provider number and PIN for web portal access invokes provider's agreement to meet all of the standards for HIPAA privacy, security, and transactions and codes sets standards as defined in 45 CFR 162;

(c) Electronically in a manner authorized by the Authority's EDT rules (OAR 943-120-0100 to 943-120-0200); or

(d) Electronically, for PHP encounters, in the manner required by the PHP contract with the Authority and authorized by the Authority's EDT rules.

(2) Claims may not be submitted prior to delivery of service unless otherwise authorized by program-specific rules or contracts. A claim for an item may not be submitted prior to dispensing, shipping, or mailing the item unless otherwise specified in the Authority's program-specific rules or contracts.

(3) Claims and PHP encounters must be submitted in compliance HIPAA transaction and code set rules. The HIPAA transaction and code set rules, 45 CFR 162, apply to all electronic transactions for which DHHS has adopted a standard.

(a) The Authority may deny or reject electronic transactions that fail to comply with the federal standard.

(b) The Authority shall comply with the HIPAA code set requirements in 45 CFR 162.1000 through 162.1011, regardless of whether a request is made verbally, or a claim is submitted on paper or electronically, and with regard to the electronic claims and encounter remittance advice information, including the web portal. Compliance with the code set requirements includes the codes and the descriptors of the codes established by the official entity that maintains the code set. These federal code set requirements are mandatory and the Authority may not delay or alter their application or effective dates established by DHHS.

(A) The issuance of a federal code does not mean that the Authority covers the item or service described by the federal code. When there is a variation between an Authority-listed code and a national code, the provider may seek clarification from the Authority program. The Authority shall apply the national code in effect on the date of request or date of service and the Authority-listed code may be used for the limited purpose of describing the Authority's intent in identifying whether the applicable national code represents an Authority covered service or item.

(B) For purposes of maintaining HIPAA code set compliance, the Authority adopts by reference the required use of the version of all national code set revisions, deletions, and additions pursuant to the HIPAA transaction and code set rules in effect on the date of this rule. This code set adoption may not be construed as Authority coverage or that the existence of a particular national code constitutes a determination by the Authority that the particular code is a covered service or item. If the provider is unable to identify an appropriate procedure code to use on the claim or PHP encounter, the provider may contact the Authority for assistance in identifying an appropriate procedure code reference in but not limited to the following:

(i) Current Procedural Terminology, Fourth Edition (CPT-4), (American Medical Association);

(ii) Current Dental Terminology (CDT), (American Dental Association);

(iii) Diagnosis Related Group (DRG), (DHHS);

(iv) Health Care Financing Administration Common Procedural Coding System (HCPCS), (DHHS);

(v) National Drug Codes (NDC), (DHHS); or

(vi) HIPAA related codes, DHHS, claims adjustment reason, claim status, taxonomy codes, and decision reason available at the Washington Publishing Company web site: <http://www.wpc.edi.com/content/view/180/223>.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(C) For electronic claims and PHP encounters, the appropriate HIPAA claim adjustment reason code for third party payer, including Medicare, explanation of payment must be used.

(c) Diagnosis Code Requirement.

(A) For claims and PHP encounters that require the listing of a diagnosis code as the basis for the service provided, the code listed on the claim must be the code that most accurately describes the client's condition and the service or item provided.

(B) A primary diagnosis code is required on all claims, using the HIPAA nationally required diagnosis code set including the code and the descriptor of the code by the official entity that maintains the code set, unless the requirement for a primary diagnosis code is specifically excluded in the Authority's program-specific rules or contract. All diagnosis codes must be provided to the highest degree of specificity. Providers must use the ICD-9-CM diagnosis coding system when a diagnosis is required unless otherwise specified in the appropriate program-specific rules or contract.

(C) Hospitals must follow national coding guidelines and must bill using the 5th digit, in accordance with methodology used in the Medicare Diagnosis Related Groups.

(d) Providers must provide and identify the following procedures codes.

(A) The appropriate procedure code on claims and PHP encounters as instructed in the appropriate Authority program-specific rules or contract and must use the appropriate HIPAA procedure code set, set forth in 45 CFR 162.1000 through 162.1011, which best describes the specific service or item provided.

(B) Where there is one CPT, CDT, or HCPCS code that according to those coding guidelines or standards, describes an array of services, the provider must use that code rather than itemizing the services under multiple codes. Providers must not "unbundle" services in order to increase payment or to mischaracterize the service.

(4) No provider or its contracted agent (including billing service or billing agent) shall submit or cause to be submitted to the Authority:

(a) Any false claim for payment or false PHP encounter;

(b) Any claim or PHP encounter altered in such a way as to result in a duplicate payment for a service that has already been paid;

(c) Any claim or PHP encounter upon which payment has been made or is expected to be made by another source unless the amount paid or to be paid by the other party is clearly entered on the claim form or PHP encounter format; or

(d) Any claim or PHP encounter for providing services or items that have not been provided.

(5) Third Party Resources.

(a) A provider may not refuse to furnish covered services or items to an eligible client because of a third party's potential liability for the service or item.

(b) Providers must take all reasonable measures to ensure that the Authority shall be the payer of last resort. If available, private insurance, Medicare, or worker's compensation must be billed before the provider submits a claim for payment to the Authority, county, or PHP. For services provided to a Medicare and Medicaid dual eligible client, Medicare is the primary payer and the provider must first pursue Medicare payment (including appeals) prior to submitting a claim for payment to the Authority, county, or PHP. For services not covered by Medicare or other third party resource, the provider must follow the program-specific rules or contracts for appropriate billing procedures.

(c) When another party may be liable for paying the expenses of a client's injury or illness, the provider must follow program-specific rules or contract addressing billing procedures.

(6) Full Use of Alternate Community Resources.

(a) The Authority shall generally make payment only when other resources are not available for the client's needs. Full use must be made of reasonable alternate resources in the local community; and

(b) Providers must not accept reimbursement from more than one resource for the same service or item, except as allowed in program-specific or contract TPR requirements.

(7) Timely Submission of Claim or Encounter Data.

(a) Subsection (a) through (c) below apply only to the submission of claims data or other reimbursement document to the Authority, including provider reimbursement by the Authority pursuant to an agreement with a county. Unless requirements for timely filing provided for in program-specific rules or applicable contracts are more specific than the timely filing standard established in this rule, all claims for services or items must be submitted no later than 12 months from the date of service.

(b) A denied claim submitted within 12 months of the date of service may be resubmitted (with resubmission documentation, as indicated within the program-specific rules or contracts) within 18 months of the date of service. These claims must be submitted to the Authority in writing. The provider must present documentation acceptable to the Authority verifying the claim was originally submitted within 12 months of the date of service, unless otherwise stated in program-specific rules or contracts. Acceptable documentation is:

(A) A remittance advice or other claim denial documentation from the Authority to the provider showing the claim was submitted before the claim was one year old; or

(B) A copy of a billing record or ledger showing dates of submission to the Authority.

(c) Exceptions to the 12-month requirement that may be submitted to the Authority are as follows:

(A) When the Authority confirms the Authority or the client's branch office has made an error that caused the provider not to be able to bill within 12 months of the date of service;

(B) When a court or an administrative law judge in a final order has ordered the Authority to make payment;

(C) When the Authority determines a client is retroactively eligible for Authority program coverage and more than 12 months have passed between the date of service and the determination of the client's eligibility, to the extent authorized in the program-specific rules or contracts.

(d) PHP encounter data must be submitted pursuant to 45 CFR part 162.1001 and 162.1102 and the time periods established in the PHP contract with the Authority.

Payments and Overpayments

(1) Payment Authorization.

(a) Some services or items covered by the Authority require authorization before a service, item, or level of care can be provided or before payment shall be made. Providers must check the appropriate program-specific rules or contracts for information on services or items requiring prior authorization and the process to follow to obtain authorization.

(b) Documentation submitted when requesting authorization must support the program-specific or contract justification for the service, item, or level of care. A request is considered complete if it contains all necessary documentation and meets any other requirements as described in the appropriate program-specific rules or contract.

(c) The authorizing program shall authorize the covered level of care, type of service, or item that meets the client's program-eligible need. The authorizing program shall only authorize services which meet the program-specific or contract coverage criteria and for which the required documentation has been submitted. The authorizing program may request additional information from the provider to determine the appropriateness of authorizing the service, item, or level of care within the scope of program coverage.

(d) Authorizing programs may not authorize services or make payment for authorized services when:

(A) The client was not eligible at the time services were provided. The provider must check the client's eligibility each time services are provided;

(B) The provider cannot produce appropriate documentation to support that the level of care, type of service, or item meets the program-specific or contract criteria, or the appropriate documentation was not submitted to the authorizing program;

(C) The delivery of the service, item, or level of care has not been adequately documented as described in OAR 943-120-0370. Requirements for financial, clinical and other records, and the documentation in the provider's files is not adequate to determine the type, medical appropriateness, or quantity of services, or items provided or the required documentation is not in the provider's files;

(D) The services or items identified in the claim are not consistent with the information submitted when authorization was requested or the services or items provided are retrospectively determined not to be authorized under the program-specific or contract criteria;

(E) The services or items identified in the claim are not consistent with those which were provided;

(F) The services or items were not provided within the timeframe specified on the authorization of services document; or

(G) The services or items were not authorized or provided in compliance with the program-specific rules or contracts.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(e) Payment made for services or items described in subsections (d)(A) through (G) of this rule shall be recovered.

(f) Retroactive Authority Client Eligibility.

(A) When a client is determined to be retroactively eligible for an Authority program, or is retroactively disenrolled from a PHP or services provided after the client was disenrolled from a PHP, authorization for payment may be given if the following conditions are met:

(i) The client was eligible on the date of service and the program-specific rules or contract authorize the Authority to reimburse the provider for services provided to clients made retroactively eligible;

(ii) The services or items provided to the client meet all other program-specific or contract criteria and Oregon Administrative Rules;

(iii) The request for authorization is received by the appropriate Authority branch or program office within 90 days of the date of service; and

(iv) The provider is enrolled with the Authority on the date of service, or becomes enrolled with the Authority no later than the date of service as provided in OAR 943-120-0320(11).

(B) Requests for authorization received after 90 days from date of service require all the documentation required in subsection (f)(A)(i), (ii) and (iv) and documentation from the provider stating why the authorization could not have been obtained within 90 days of the date of service.

(g) Service authorization is valid for the time period specified on the authorization notice, but shall not exceed 12 months, unless the client's benefit package no longer covers the service, in which case the authorization terminates on the date coverage ended.

(h) Service authorization for clients with other insurance or for Medicare beneficiaries is governed by program-specific rules or contracts.

(2) Payments.

(a) This rule only applies to covered services and items provided to eligible clients within the program-specific or contract covered services or items in effect on the date of service that are paid for by the Authority based on program-specific or contract fee schedules or other reimbursement methods, or for services that are paid for by the Authority at the request of a county for county-authorized services.

(b) If the client's service or item is paid for by a PHP, the provider must comply with the payment requirements established under contract with that PHP, and pursuant to OAR 410-120 and 410-141, applicable to non-participating providers.

(c) The Authority shall pay for services or items based on the reimbursement rates and methods specified in the applicable program-specific rules or contract. Provider reimbursement on behalf of a county must include county service authorization information.

(d) Providers must accept, as payment in full, the amounts paid by the Authority pursuant to the fee schedule or reimbursement method specified in the program-specific rules or contract, plus any deductible, co-payment, or coinsurance required to be paid by the client. Payment in full includes:

(A) Zero payments for claims where a third party or other resource has paid an amount equivalent to or exceeding the Authority's allowable payment; or

(B) Denials of payment for failure to submit a claim in a timely manner, failure to obtain payment authorization in a timely and appropriate manner, or failure to follow other required procedures identified in the program-specific rules or contracts.

(e) The Authority may not make payments for duplicate services or items. The Authority may not make a separate payment or co-payment to a provider for services included in the provider's all-inclusive rate if the provider has been or shall be reimbursed by other resources for the service or item.

(f) Payment by the Authority does not limit the Authority or any state or federal oversight entity from reviewing or auditing a claim before or after the payment. Payment may be denied or subject to recovery if medical, clinical, program-specific or contract review, audit, or other post-payment review determines the service or item was not provided in accordance with applicable rules or contracts or does not meet the program-specific or contract criteria for quality of care, or appropriateness of the care, or authorized basis for payment.

(3) Recovery of Overpayments to Providers — Recoupments and Refunds

(a) The Authority may deny payment or may deem payments subject to recovery as an overpayment if a review or audit determines the item or service was not provided pursuant to the Authority's rules, terms of contract, or does not meet the criteria for quality of care, or appropriateness of the care or payment. Related provider billings shall also be denied or subject to recovery.

(b) If a provider determines that a submitted claim or encounter is incorrect, the provider must submit an individual adjustment request and refund the amount of the overpayment, if any, or adjust the claim or encounter.

(c) The Authority may determine, as a result of review or other information, that a payment should be denied or that an overpayment has been made to a provider, which indicates that a provider may have submitted claims or encounters, or received payment to which the provider is not properly entitled. The payment denial or overpayment determinations may be based on but not limited to the following:

(A) The Authority paid the provider an amount in excess of the amount authorized under a contract, state plan or Authority rule;

(B) A third party paid the provider for services, or portion thereof, previously paid by the Authority;

(C) The Authority paid the provider for services, items, or drugs that the provider did not perform or provide;

(D) The Authority paid for claims submitted by a data processing agent for whom a written provider or billing agent or billing service agreement was not on file at the time of submission;

(E) The Authority paid for services and later determined they were not part of the client's program-specific or contract-covered services;

(F) Coding, data processing submission, or data entry errors;

(G) Medical, dental, or professional review determines the service or item was not provided pursuant to the Authority's rules or contract or does not meet the program-specific or contract criteria for coverage, quality of care, or appropriateness of the care or payment;

(H) The Authority paid the provider for services, items, or drugs when the provider did not comply with the Authority's rules and requirements for reimbursement; or

(I) The provider submitted inaccurate, incomplete or false encounter data to the Authority.

(d) Prior to identifying an overpayment, the Authority may contact the provider requesting preliminary information and additional documentation. The provider must provide the requested documentation within the specified time frame.

(e) When an overpayment is identified, the Authority shall notify the provider in writing as to the nature of the discrepancy, the method of computing the overpayment, and any further action that the Authority may take on the matter. The notice may require the provider to submit applicable documentation for review prior to requesting an appeal from the Authority, and may impose reasonable time limits for when documentation must be provided for Authority consideration. The notice shall inform the provider of the process for appealing the overpayment determination.

(f) The Authority may recover overpayments made to a provider by direct reimbursement, offset, civil action, or other legal action:

(A) The provider must make a direct reimbursement to the Authority within 30 calendar days from the date of the notice of the overpayment, unless other regulations apply.

(B) The Authority may grant the provider an additional period of time to reimburse the Authority upon written request made within 30 calendar days from the date of the notice of overpayment. The provider must include a statement of the facts and reasons sufficient to show that repayment of the overpayment amount should be delayed pending appeal because:

(i) The provider shall suffer irreparable injury if the overpayment notice is not delayed;

(ii) There is a reason to believe that the overpayment is incorrect or is less than the amount in the notice, and the provider has timely filed an appeal of the overpayment, or that the provider accepts the amount of the overpayment but is requesting to make repayment over a period of time;

(iii) A proposed method for assuring that the amount of the overpayment can be repaid when due with interest including but not limited to a bond, irrevocable letter of credit, or other undertaking, or a repayment plan for making payments, including interest, over a period of time;

(iv) Granting the delay shall not result in substantial public harm; and

(v) Affidavits containing evidence relied upon in support of the request for stay.

(C) The Authority may consider all information in the record of the overpayment determination, including provider cooperation with timely provision of documentation, in addition to the information supplied in provider's request. If provider requests a repayment plan, the Authority may require conditions acceptable to the Authority before agreeing to a repayment plan. The Authority must issue an order granting or denying a repayment delay request within 30 calendar days after receiving it;

(D) A request for hearing or administrative review does not change the date the repayment of the overpayment is due; and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(E) The Authority may withhold payment on pending claims and on subsequently received claims for the amount of the overpayment when overpayments are not paid as a result of paragraph (B)(i);

(g) In addition to any overpayment, the Authority may impose a sanction on the provider in connection with the actions that resulted in the overpayment. The Authority may, at its discretion, combine a notice of sanction with a notice of overpayment.

(h) Voluntary submission of an adjustment claim or encounter transaction or an individual adjustment request or overpayment amount after notice from the Authority does not prevent the Authority from issuing a notice of sanction. The Authority may take such voluntary payment into account in determining the sanction.

943-120-0360

Consequences of Non-Compliance and Provider Sanctions

(1) There are two classes of provider sanctions, mandatory and discretionary, that may be imposed for non-compliance with the provider enrollment agreement.

(2) Except as otherwise provided, the Authority shall impose provider sanctions at the direction of the Authority's division director or designee, whose budget includes payment for the services involved.

(3) Mandatory Sanctions. The Authority shall impose mandatory sanctions and suspend the provider from participation in the Authority's programs:

(a) When a provider has been convicted (as that term is defined in 42 CFR part 1001.2) of a felony or misdemeanor related to a crime, or violation of Title XVIII, XIX, or XX of the Social Security Act or related state laws, or other disqualifying criminal conviction pursuant to program-specific rules or contract;

(b) When a provider is excluded from participation in federal or state health care programs by the Office of the Inspector General of DHHS or from the Medicare (Title XVIII) program of the Social Security Act as determined by the Secretary of DHHS. The provider shall be excluded and suspended from participation with the Authority for the duration of exclusion or suspension from the Medicare program or by the Office of the Inspector General; or

(c) If the provider fails to disclose ownership or control information required under 42 CFR part 455.104 that must be reported at the time the provider submits a provider enrollment form or when there is a material change in the information that must be reported, or information related to business transactions required to be provided under 42 CFR part 455.105 upon request of federal or state authorities.

(4) Discretionary Sanctions. When the Authority determines the provider fails to meet one or more of the Authority's requirements governing participation in its programs the Authority may impose discretionary sanctions. Conditions that may result in a discretionary sanction include, but are not limited to when a provider has:

(a) Been convicted of fraud related to any federal, state, or locally financed health care program or committed fraud, received kickbacks, or committed other acts that are subject to criminal or civil penalties under the Medicare or Medicaid statutes;

(b) Been convicted of interfering with the investigation of health care fraud;

(c) Been convicted of unlawfully manufacturing, distributing, prescribing, or dispensing a controlled substance or other potentially disqualifying crime, as determined under program-specific rules or contracts;

(d) By actions of any state licensing authority for reasons relating to the provider's professional competence, professional conduct, or financial integrity either:

(A) Had the professional license suspended or revoked, or otherwise lost such license; or

(B) Surrendered the license while a formal disciplinary proceeding is pending before the relevant licensing authority.

(e) Been suspended or excluded from participation in any federal or state program for reasons related to professional competence, professional performance, or other reason;

(f) Billed excessive charges including but not limited to charging in excess of the usual charge, furnished items or services in excess of the client's needs or in excess of those services ordered by a provider, or in excess of generally accepted standards or quality that fail to meet professionally recognized standards;

(g) Failed to furnish necessary covered services as required by law or contract with the Authority if the failure has adversely affected or has a substantial likelihood of adversely affecting the client;

(h) Failed to disclose required ownership information;

(i) Failed to supply requested information on subcontractors and suppliers of goods or services;

(j) Failed to supply requested payment information;

(k) Failed to grant access or to furnish as requested, records, or grant access to facilities upon request of the Authority or the MFCU conducting their regulatory or statutory functions;

(l) In the case of a hospital, failed to take corrective action as required by the Authority, based on information supplied by the QIO to prevent or correct inappropriate admissions or practice patterns, within the time specified by the Authority;

(m) In the case of a licensed facility, failed to take corrective action under the license as required by the Authority within the time specified by the Authority;

(n) Defaulted on repayment of federal or state government scholarship obligations or loans in connection with the provider's health profession education;

(A) Providers must have made a reasonable effort to secure payment;

(B) The Authority must take into account access of beneficiaries to services; and

(C) Shall not exclude a community's sole physician or source of essential specialized services;

(o) Repeatedly submitted a claim with required data missing or incorrect:

(A) When the missing or incorrect data has allowed the provider to:

(i) Obtain greater payment than is appropriate;

(ii) Circumvent prior authorization requirements;

(iii) Charge more than the provider's usual charge to the general public;

(iv) Receive payments for services provided to individuals who were not eligible; or

(v) Establish multiple claims using procedure codes that overstate or misrepresent the level, amount, or type of services or items provided.

(B) Does not comply with the requirements of OAR 410-120-1280.

(p) Failed to develop, maintain, and retain, pursuant to relevant rules and standards, adequate clinical or other records that document the client's eligibility and coverage, authorization (if required by program-specific rules or contracts), appropriateness, nature, and extent of the services or items provided;

(q) Failed to develop, maintain, and retain pursuant to relevant rules and standards, adequate financial records that document charges incurred by a client and payments received from any source;

(r) Failed to develop, maintain, and retain adequate financial or other records that support information submitted on a cost report;

(s) Failed to follow generally accepted accounting principles or accounting standards or cost principles required by federal or state laws, rules, or regulations;

(t) Submitted claims or written orders contrary to generally accepted standards of professional practice;

(u) Submitted claims for services that exceed the requested or agreed upon amount by the OHP client, the client representative, or requested by another qualified provider;

(v) Breached the terms of the provider contract or agreement;

(w) Failed to comply with the terms of the provider certifications on the claim form;

(x) Rebated or accepted a fee or portion of a fee for a client referral; or collected a portion of a service fee from the client and billed the Authority for the same service;

(y) Submitted false or fraudulent information when applying for an Authority-assigned provider number, or failed to disclose information requested on the provider enrollment form;

(z) Failed to correct deficiencies in operations after receiving written notice of the deficiencies from the Authority;

(aa) Submitted any claim for payment for which the Authority has already made payment or any other source unless the amount of the payment from the other source is clearly identified;

(bb) Threatened, intimidated, or harassed clients, client representatives, or client relatives in an attempt to influence payment rates or affect the outcome of disputes between the provider and the Authority;

(cc) Failed to properly account for a client's personal incidental funds including but not limited to using a client's personal incidental funds for payment of services which are included in a medical facility's all-inclusive rates;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(dd) Provided or billed for services provided by ineligible or unsupervised staff;

(ee) Participated in collusion that resulted in an inappropriate money flow between the parties involved;

(ff) Refused or failed to repay, in accordance with an accepted schedule, an overpayment established by the Authority;

(gg) Failed to report to Authority payments received from any other source after the Authority has made payment for the service; or

(hh) Collected or made repeated attempts to collect payment from clients for services covered by the Authority, under OAR 410-120-1280.

(5) A provider who has been excluded, suspended, or terminated from participation in a federal or state medical program, such as Medicare or Medicaid, or whose license to practice has been suspended or revoked by a state licensing board, may not submit claims for payment, either personally or through claims submitted by any billing agent or service, billing provider or other provider, for any services or supplies provided under the medical assistance programs, except those services or supplies provided prior to the date of exclusion, suspension or termination.

(6) Providers may not submit claims for payment to the Authority for any services or supplies provided by an individual or provider entity that has been excluded, suspended, or terminated from participation in a federal or state medical program, such as Medicare or Medicaid, or whose license to practice has been suspended or revoked by a state licensing board, except for those services or supplies provided prior to the date of exclusion, suspension or termination.

(7) When the provisions of sections (5) or (6) are violated, the Authority may suspend or terminate the billing provider or any provider who is responsible for the violation.

(8) Sanction Types and Conditions.

(a) A mandatory sanction imposed by the Authority pursuant to section (3) may result in any of the following:

(A) The provider shall either be terminated or suspended from participation in the Authority's programs. No payments of Title XIX, Title XXI or other federal or state funds shall be made for services provided after the date of termination. Termination is permanent unless:

(i) The exceptions cited in 42CFR part 1001.221 are met; or

(ii) Otherwise stated by the Authority at the time of termination.

(B) No payments of Title XIX, Title XXI, or other federal or state funds shall be made for services provided during the suspension. The Authority shall automatically reactivate the provider number y after the suspension period has elapsed if the conditions that caused the suspension have been resolved. The minimum duration of a suspension shall be determined by the DHHS Secretary, under the provisions of 42 CFR parts 420, 455, 1001, or 1002. The Authority may suspend a provider from participation in the medical assistance programs longer than the minimum suspension determined by the DHHS secretary.

(b) The Authority may impose the following discretionary sanctions on a provider pursuant to OAR 410-120-1400(4):

(A) The provider may be terminated from participation in the Authority's programs. No payments of Title XIX, Title XXI or other federal or state funds shall be made for services provided after the date of termination. Termination is permanent unless:

(i) The exceptions cited in 42 CFR part 1001.221 are met; or

(ii) Otherwise stated by the Authority at the time of termination.

(B) The provider may be suspended from participation in the Authority's programs for a specified length of time, or until specified conditions for reinstatement are met and approved by the Authority. No payments of Title XIX, Title XXI, or other federal or state funds shall be made for services provided during the suspension. The Authority shall automatically reactivate the provider number after the suspension period has elapsed if the conditions that caused the suspension have been resolved.

(C) The Authority may withhold payments to a provider;

(D) The provider may be required to attend provider education sessions at the expense of the sanctioned provider;

(E) The Authority may require that payment for certain services are made only after the Authority has reviewed documentation supporting the services;

(F) The Authority may require repayment of amounts paid or provide for reduction of any amount otherwise due the provider; and

(G) Any other sanctions reasonably designed to remedy or compel future compliances with federal, state, or Authority regulations.

(c) The Authority shall consider the following factors in determining the sanction to be imposed. Factors include but are not limited to:

(A) Seriousness of the offense;

(B) Extent of violations by the provider;

(C) History of prior violations by the provider;

(D) Prior imposition of sanctions;

(E) Prior provider education;

(F) Provider willingness to comply with program rules;

(G) Actions taken or recommended by licensing boards or a QIO;

(H) Adverse impact on the availability of program-specific or contract covered services or the health of clients living in the provider's service area; and

(I) Potential financial sanctions related to the non-compliance may be imposed in an amount that is reasonable in light of the anticipated or actual harm caused by the non-compliance, the difficulties of proof of loss, and the inconvenience or non-feasibility of otherwise obtaining an adequate remedy.

(d) When a provider fails to meet one or more of the requirements identified in OAR 943-120-0300 through 943-120-0400, the Authority, in its sole discretion, may immediately suspend the provider's Authority assigned billing number and any electronic system access code to prevent public harm or inappropriate expenditure of public funds.

(A) The provider subject to immediate suspension is entitled to a contested case hearing pursuant to ORS 183 to determine whether the provider's Authority assigned number and electronic system access code may be revoked; and

(B) The notice requirements described in section (5) of this rule do not preclude immediate suspension, in the Authority's sole discretion, to prevent public harm or inappropriate expenditure of public funds. Suspension may be invoked immediately while the notice and contested case hearing rights are exercised.

(e) If the Authority sanctions a provider, the Authority shall notify the provider by certified mail or personal delivery service of the intent to sanction. The notice of immediate or proposed sanction shall identify:

(A) The factual basis used to determine the alleged deficiencies and a reference to the particular sections of the statutes and rules involved;

(B) Explanation of actions expected of the provider;

(C) Explanation of the Authority's intended action;

(D) The provider's right to dispute the Authority's allegations and submit evidence to support the provider's position;

(E) The provider's right to appeal the Authority's proposed actions pursuant to ORS 183;

(F) A statement of the authority and jurisdiction under which the appeal may be requested and description of the procedure and time to request an appeal; and

(G) A statement indicating whether and under what circumstances an order by default may be entered.

(f) If the Authority decides to sanction a provider, the Authority shall notify the provider in writing at least 15 days before the effective date of action, except in the case of immediate suspension to avoid public harm or inappropriate expenditure of funds.

(g) The provider may appeal the Authority's immediate or proposed sanction or other actions the Authority intends to take. The provider must appeal this action separately from any appeal of audit findings and overpayments. These include but are not limited to the following:

(A) Termination or suspension from participation in the Medicaid-funded medical assistance programs;

(B) Termination or suspension from participation in the Authority's state-funded programs; or

(C) Revocation of the provider's Authority assigned provider number.

(h) Other provisions:

(A) When a provider has been sanctioned, all other provider entities in which the provider has ownership of five percent or greater, or control of, may also be sanctioned;

(B) When a provider has been sanctioned, the Authority may notify the applicable professional society, board of registration or licensure, federal or state agencies, OHP, PHP's, and the National Practitioner Data Base of the findings and the sanctions imposed;

(C) At the discretion of the Authority, providers who have previously been sanctioned or suspended may or may not be re-enrolled as Authority providers;

(D) Nothing in this rule prevents the Authority from simultaneously seeking monetary recovery and imposing sanctions against the provider;

(E) Following a contested case hearing in which a provider has been found to violate ORS 411.675, the provider shall be liable to the Authority for treble the amount of payments received as a result of each violation.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

943-120-0370

Requirements for Financial, Clinical, and Other Records

(1) The Authority shall analyze and monitor the operation of its programs and audit and verify the accuracy and appropriateness of payment, utilization of services, or items.

(2) The Authority shall comply with client coverage criteria and requirements for the level of care or service or item authorized or reimbursed by the Authority and the quality of covered services or items and service or item delivery, and access to covered services or items.

(3) The provider and the provider's designated billing service or other entity responsible for the maintenance of financial, service delivery, and other records must:

(a) Develop and maintain adequate financial and service delivery records and other documentation which supports the specific care, items, or services for which payment has been requested. The Authority may not make payment for services that are not adequately documented. The following documentation must be completed before the service is billed to the Authority:

(A) All records documenting the specific service provided, the number of services or items comprising the service provided, the extent of the service provided, the dates on which the service was provided, and identification of the individual who provided the service. Patient account and financial records must also include documentation of charges, identify other payment resources pursued, indicate the date and amount of all debit or credit billing actions, and support the appropriateness of the amount billed and paid. For cost reimbursed services, the provider must maintain adequate records to thoroughly and accurately explain how the amounts reported on the cost statement were determined.

(B) Service delivery, clinical records, and visit data, including records of all therapeutic services, must document the basis for service delivery and record visit data if required under program-specific rules or contracts. A client's clinical record must be annotated each time a service is provided and signed or initialed by the individual providing the service or must clearly identify the individual providing the service. Information contained in the record must be sufficient in quality and quantity to meet the professional standards applicable to the provider or practitioner and any additional standards for documentation found in this rule, program-specific rules, and any pertinent contracts.

(C) All information about a client obtained by the provider or its officers, employees, or agents in the performance of covered services, including information obtained in the course of determining eligibility, seeking authorization, and providing services, is confidential. The client information must be used and disclosed only to the extent necessary to perform these functions.

(b) Implement policies and procedures to ensure confidentiality and security of the client's information. These procedures must ensure the provider may release such information pursuant to program-specific federal and state statutes or contract, which may include but is not limited to, ORS 179.505 to 179.507, 411.320, 433.045, 42 CFR part 2, 42 CFR part 431 subpart F, 45 CFR 205.50, and ORS 433.045(3) with respect to HIV test information.

(c) Ensure the use of electronic record-keeping systems does not alter the requirements of this rule.

(A) A provider's electronic record-keeping system includes electronic transactions governed by HIPAA transaction and code set requirements and records, documents, documentation, and information include all information, whether maintained or stored in electronic media, including electronic record-keeping systems, and information stored or backed up in an electronic medium.

(B) If a provider maintains financial or clinical records electronically, the provider must be able to provide the Authority with hard-copy versions. The provider must also be able to provide an auditable means of demonstrating the date the record was created and the identity of the creator of a record, the date the record was modified, what was changed in the record and the identity of any individual who has modified the record. The provider must supply the information to individuals authorized to review the provider's records under subsection (e) of this rule.

(C) Providers may comply with the documentation review requirements in this rule by providing the electronic record in an electronic format acceptable to an authorized reviewer. The authorized reviewer must agree to receive the documentation electronically.

(d) Retain service delivery, visit, and clinical records for seven years and all other records described in this rule, program-specific rules and contract for at least five years from the date of service.

(e) Furnish requested documentation (including electronically recorded information or information stored or backed up in an electronic medium) immediately or within the time-frame specified in the written request received from the Authority, the Oregon Secretary of State, DHHS or other federal funding agency, Office of Inspector General, the Comptroller General of the United States (for federally funded programs), MFCU (for Medicaid-funded services or items), or the client representative. Copies of the documents may be furnished unless the originals are requested. At their discretion, official representatives of the Authority, Medicaid Fraud Unit, DHHS, or other authorized reviewers may review and copy the original documentation in the provider's place of business. Upon written request of the provider, the program or the unit, may, at its sole discretion, modify or extend the time for provision of such records if, in the opinion of the program or unit good cause for such extension is shown. Factors used in determining if good cause exists include:

(A) Whether the written request was made prior to the deadline for production;

(B) If the written request is made after the deadline for production, the amount of time lapsed since that deadline;

(C) The efforts already made to comply with the request;

(D) The reasons the deadline cannot be met;

(E) The degree of control that the provider had over its ability to produce the records prior to the deadline; and

(F) Other extenuating factors.

(f) Except as otherwise provided access to records, inclusive of clinical charts and financial records does not require authorization or release from the client, if the purpose of the access is:

(A) To perform billing review activities;

(B) To perform utilization review activities;

(C) To review quality, quantity, medical appropriateness of care, items, and services provided;

(D) To facilitate service authorization and related services;

(E) To investigate a client's hearing request;

(F) To facilitate investigation by the MFCU or DHHS; or

(G) To review records necessary to the operation of the program.

(g) Failure to comply with requests for documents within the specified time-frame means that the records subject to the request may be deemed by the Authority not to exist for purposes of verifying appropriateness of payment, clinical appropriateness, the quality of care, and the access to care in an audit or overpayment determination, and subjects the provider to possible denial or recovery of payments made by the Authority or to sanctions.

Fraud and Abuse

(1) Providers shall promptly refer all suspected fraud and abuse, including fraud or abuse by its employees or in Authority administration, to the MFCU, or to the Authority's audit unit.

(2) Providers must permit the MFCU and the Authority to inspect, copy, evaluate, or audit books, records, documents, files, accounts, and facilities, without charge, as required to investigate allegations or incidents of fraud or abuse.

(3) Providers aware of suspected fraud or abuse by a client must report the incident to the Authority's fraud unit.

(4) The Authority may share information for health oversight purposes with the MFCU and other federal or state health oversight authorities.

(5) The Authority may take actions necessary to investigate and respond to substantiated allegations of fraud and abuse including but not limited to suspending or terminating the provider from participation in the Authority's programs, withholding payments or seeking recovery of payments made to the provider, or imposing other sanctions provided under state law or regulations. Such actions by the Authority may be reported to CMS or other federal or state entities as appropriate.

MMIS Replacement Communication Plan

(1) The purpose of this rule is to describe the Authority's plan for communicating instructions and guidance related to the Authority's implementation of the replacement MMIS that began on December 9, 2008. System issues are anticipated to be identified for a period of time during and after implementation. This rule is adopted to be effective retroactively to December 9, 2008 for the purpose of providing continuity of all MMIS communication efforts throughout the transition implementation process and regular operations following the transition. By adopting this communication plan in rule, the Authority seeks to assure that eligible Authority clients receive all necessary and appropriate services, and that Authority providers and PHPs are correctly reimbursed for covered services provided to eligible clients.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) To the extent necessary to accomplish the purposes of this rule, the Authority shall provide guidance and instructions related to MMIS for providers and PHPs using its web site and MMIS provider announcements.

(a) In cases of limitations or system errors in the replacement MMIS, the Authority shall provide update information and important action required in concert with, or in place of, normal established procedures.

(b) In other cases, the Authority shall provide instructions and guidance about the use of revised or improved functionality that is available through the replacement MMIS, such as the use of the web portal.

(3) Providers and PHPs must follow all applicable instructions given on the Authority's web page and any provider announcements for the dates specifically noted in the communications, or if a date is not specified, until further instructions are provided. Authority web site information and links to specific topics may be accessed at: http://www.oregon.gov/DHS/healthplan/tools\_prov/main.shtml.

(4) This rule does not amend existing rules or contracts that require providers or PHPs to confirm eligibility, respond to requests for prior authorization, submit claims or encounter data, or comply with any other rule or contract that imposes obligations on a provider or PHP as a condition of receiving reimbursement for services. This rule is intended to provide assurance to providers and PHPs that the MMIS-related processes for meeting those obligations are being addressed by the Authority by providing guidance and instruction related to the provider's or PHP's interface with MMIS processes, and by identifying the resources providers and PHPs may use to obtain information during this time of transition to the replacement MMIS and during regular MMIS operations.

(5) The Authority shall work with providers and PHPs by providing instructions and guidance to assure that service delivery and reimbursement disruptions related to transition to the replacement MMIS are minimized. Providers and PHPs must appropriately document all eligibility, services, authorization, claims, and payment information during the transition time, and their efforts to comply with instructions and guidance provided by the Authority, so that reimbursement may be correctly provided.

(6) Providers and PHPs must immediately communicate to the Authority any issues they encounter that are not addressed in the Authority's instructions or guidance in seeking eligibility information or activities related to reimbursement for services through MMIS, errors discovered in the correct amount of any reimbursement received for those services, or in applying the instruction or guidance to resolve an issue.

(7) After the transition period is complete, the Authority shall continue to implement this communication plan as long as necessary during regular MMIS operations in order to assist providers and PHPs with technical and system requirements of the replacement MMIS.

Audits and Overpayment Recovery

Providers or contractors receiving payments from or through the Oregon Health Authority are subject to audit or other post payment review procedures for all payments applicable to items or services furnished or supplied by the provider or contractor to or on behalf of the Authority or to its clients.

(1) The Authority adopts and incorporates by reference the rules established in OAR 407-120-1505, for those matters that involve providers or contractors of the Authority, except as otherwise provided in this rule. Audit rules and procedures from OAR 407-120-1505 as incorporated into this rule ensure proper payments were made by the Authority based on requirements applicable to covered services and promote program integrity.

(2) Any reference to OAR 407-120-1505 in rules or contracts of the Authority are deemed to be references to the requirements of this rule, and shall be construed to apply to providers or contractors receiving payments from or through the Authority.

(3) The Authority authorizes the Department to act on its behalf in carrying out audits and establishing overpayment amounts associated with the administration of programs or activities administered by the Authority.

(4) Provider appeals for the Authority shall be handled by the Authority under the procedures set forth in OAR 407-120-1505. References to "the OPAR Administrator" or "the Administrator" are hereby incorporated as references to "the Authority Director."

Medical Eligibility Standards

As the state Medicaid and CHIP agency, the Oregon Health Authority (Authority) is responsible for establishing and implementing eligibility policies and procedure consistent with applicable law. As outlined in 943-001-0020, the Authority, and the Department of Human Services (Department) work together to adopt rules to assure that medical assistance eligibility procedures and determinations are consistent across both agencies.

(1) The Authority adopts and incorporates by reference the rules established in OAR Chapter 461, for all medical eligibility requirements for medical assistance when the Authority conducts eligibility determinations.

(2) Any reference to OAR Chapter 461 in Oregon Administrative Rules or contracts of the Authority are deemed to be references to the requirements of this rule, and shall be construed to apply to all eligibility policies, procedures and determinations by or through the Authority.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(3) For purposes of this rule, references in OAR chapter 461 to the Department or to the Authority shall be construed to be references to both agencies.

(4) Effective July 1, 2011 the Authority shall conduct medical eligibility determinations using the OAR chapter 461 rules which are in effect on the date the Authority makes the medical eligibility determination.

(5) A request for a hearing resulting from a determination under this rule, made by the Authority shall be handled pursuant to the hearing procedures set out in division 25 of OAR Chapter 461. References to "the Administrator" in division 25 of chapter 461 or "the Department" are hereby incorporated as references to the "Authority."

Subject: The General Rules program administrative rules govern Division payments for services to clients. The Division amended as follows:

- OAR 410-120-0000, Definitions: 2009 Legislative session created the Oregon Health Authority and moved various Divisions from the Department of Human Services. The Division revised this rule to reflect this change. The Division also added a definition for the National Correct Coding Initiative (NCCI) edits required by the Affordable Care Act.

- OAR 410-120-0030, Children's Health Insurance Program: The Division amended this rule to add Columbia, Crook, Douglas, Jefferson, Morrow, Union and Wasco counties to participate in the prenatal care expansion providing prenatal care during pregnancy and labor and delivery services under CHIP for women who are not eligible for Medicare and who are at or below 185% of FPL, subject to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) approval.

- OAR 410-120-1560, Provider Appeals: The Affordable Care Act requires Medicaid agencies to use NCCI edits. The Division amended this rule to specify the inclusion of provider appeals for an NCCI edit.

- All above rules reflect the Oregon Health Authority name change and updated statutory reference.

- Other text may be revised to improve readability and to take care of necessary "housekeeping" corrections.

(7) Addiction and Mental Health Division (AMH) – A division within the Authority that administers mental health and addiction programs and services.

(8) Adequate record keeping – Documentation that supports the level of service billed. See 410-120-1360, Requirements for Financial, Clinical, and Other Records, and the individual provider rules.

(9) Administrative medical examinations and reports – Examinations, evaluations, and reports, including copies of medical records, requested on the DMAP 729 form through the local Department branch office or requested or approved by the Division to establish client eligibility for a medical assistance program or for casework planning.

(10) Adverse event – An undesirable and unintentional, though not unnecessarily unexpected, result of medical treatment.

(11) All-inclusive rate – The nursing facility rate established for a facility. This rate includes all services, supplies, drugs and equipment as described in OAR 411-070-0085, and in the health departments, schools, education service districts, developmental disability service programs, area agencies on aging (AAAs), federally recognized American Indian tribes).

(13) Ambulance – A specially equipped and licensed vehicle for transporting sick or injured persons which meets the licensing standards of the Department or the licensing standards of the state in which the ambulance provider is located.

(14) Ambulatory Surgical Center (ASC) – A facility licensed as an ASC by the Department.

(15) American Indian/Alaska Native (AI/AN) – A member of a federally recognized Indian tribe, band or group, an Eskimo or Aleut or other Alaska native enrolled by the Secretary of the Interior pursuant to the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, 43 U.S.C. 1601, or a person who is considered by the Secretary of the Interior to be an Indian for any purpose.

(16) American Indian/Alaska Native (AI/AN) clinic – A clinic recognized under Indian Health Services (IHS) law or by the Memorandum of Agreement between IHS and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS).

(17) Ancillary services – Services supportive of or necessary to the provision of a primary service (e.g., anesthesiology is an ancillary service necessary for a surgical procedure); Typically, such medical services are not identified in the definition of a condition/treatment pair, but are medically appropriate to support a service covered under the OHP benefit package; ancillary services and limitations are specified in the OHP (Managed Care) administrative rules related to the Oregon Health Services Commission's Prioritized List of Health Services (410-141-0480 through 410-141-0520), the General Rules Benefit Packages (410-120-1210), Exclusions (410-120-1200) and applicable individual program rules.

(18) Anesthesia services – Administration of anesthetic agents to cause loss of sensation to the body or body part.

(19) Atypical provider – Entity able to enroll as a billing provider (BP) or performing provider for medical assistance programs related non-health care services but which does not meet the definition of health care provider for National Provider Identification (NPI) purposes.

(20) Audiologist – A person licensed to practice audiology by the State Board of Examiners for Speech Pathology and Audiology.

(21) Audiology – The application of principles, methods and procedures of measurement, testing, appraisal, prediction, consultation, counseling and instruction related to hearing and hearing impairment for the purpose of modifying communicative disorders involving speech, language, auditory function, including auditory training, speech reading and hearing aid evaluation, or other behavior related to hearing impairment.

(22) Automated Voice Response (AVR) – A computer system that provides information on clients' current eligibility status from the Division by computerized phone or Web-based response.

(23) Benefit Package – The package of covered health care services for which the client is eligible.

(24) Billing agent or billing service – Third party or organization that contracts with a provider to perform designated services in order to facilitate an Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) transaction on behalf of the provider.

(25) Billing provider (BP) – A person, agent, business, corporation, clinic, group, institution, or other entity who submits claims to and/or receives payment from the Division on behalf of a performing provider and has been delegated the authority to obligate or act on behalf of the performing provider.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(26) Buying Up – The practice of obtaining client payment in addition to the Division or managed care plan payment to obtain a non-covered service or item. (See 410-120-1350 Buying Up)

(27) By Report (BR) – Services designated, as BR require operative or clinical and other pertinent information to be submitted with the billing as a basis for payment determination. This information must include an adequate description of the nature, and extent of need for the procedure. Information such as complexity of symptoms, final diagnosis, pertinent physical findings, diagnostic and therapeutic procedures, concurrent problems, and follow-up care will facilitate evaluation.

(28) Children, Adults and Families Division (CAF) – A division within the Department, responsible for administering self-sufficiency and child-protective programs.

(29) Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) – A federal and state funded portion of the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) established by Title XXI of the Social Security Act and administered by the Division.

(30) Chiropractor – A person licensed to practice chiropractic by the relevant state licensing board.

(31) Chiropractic services – Services provided by a licensed chiropractor within the scope of practice, as defined under state law and Federal regulation.

(32) Citizen/Alien-Waived Emergency Medical (CAWEM) – Aliens granted lawful temporary resident status, or lawful permanent resident status under the Immigration and Nationality Act, are eligible only for emergency services and limited service for pregnant women. Emergency services for CAWEM are defined in OAR 410-120-1210 (3)(f).

(33) Claimant – a person who has requested a hearing.

(34) Client – A person who is currently receiving medical assistance (also known as a recipient).

(35) Clinical Social Worker – A person licensed to practice clinical social work pursuant to State law.

(36) Contiguous Area – The area up to 75 miles outside the border of the State of Oregon.

(37) Contiguous area provider – A provider practicing in a contiguous area.

(38) Co-payments – The portion of a claim or medical, dental or pharmaceutical expense that a client must pay out of their own pocket to a provider or a facility for each service. It is usually a fixed amount that is paid at the time service is rendered. (See 410-120-1230 Client Copayment)

(39) Cost effective – The lowest cost health care service or item that, in the judgment of Division staff or its contracted agencies, meets the medical needs of the client.

(40) Current Dental Terminology (CDT) – A listing of descriptive terms identifying dental procedure codes used by the American Dental Association.

(41) Current Procedural Terminology (CPT) – The physicians' CPT is a listing of descriptive terms and identifying codes for reporting medical services and procedures performed by physicians and other health care providers.

(42) Date of receipt of a claim – The date on which the Division receives a claim, as indicated by the Internal Control Number (ICN) assigned to a claim. Date of receipt is shown as the Julian date in the 5th through 7th position of the ICN.

(43) Date of service – The date on which the client receives medical services or items, unless otherwise specified in the appropriate provider rules. For items that are mailed or shipped by the provider, the date of service is the date on which the order was received, the date on which the item was fabricated, or the date on which the item was mailed or shipped.

(44) Dental emergency services – Dental services provided for severe tooth pain, unusual swelling of the face or gums, or an avulsed tooth.

(45) Dental Services – Services provided within the scope of practice as defined under state law by or under the supervision of a dentist.

(46) Dentist – A person licensed to practice dentistry pursuant to state law of the state in which he/she practices dentistry, or a person licensed to practice dentistry pursuant to Federal law for the purpose of practicing dentistry as an employee of the Federal government.

(47) Denturist – A person licensed to practice denture technology pursuant to State law.

(48) Denturist services – Services provided, within the scope of practice as defined under State law, by or under the personal supervision of a denturist.

(49) Dental hygienist – A person licensed to practice hygiene under the direction of a licensed professional within the scope of practice pursuant to State law.

(50) Dental hygienist with Limited Access Certification (LAC) – A person licensed to practice dental hygiene with LAC pursuant to State law.

(51) Department – the Department of Human Services.

(52) Department of Human Services (Department) – The Department or DHS means the Department of Human Services established in ORS Chapter 409, including such divisions, programs and offices as may be established therein. Wherever the former Office of Medical Assistance Programs, OMAP or DMAP is used in contract or in administrative rule, it shall mean the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division). Wherever the former Office of Mental Health and Addiction Services or OMHAS is used in contract or in rule, it shall mean the Addictions and Mental Health Division (AMHD). Wherever the former Seniors and People with Disabilities or SPD is used in contract or in rule, it shall mean the Seniors and People with Disabilities Division (SPD). Wherever the former Children Adults and Families or CAF is used in contract or rule, it shall mean the Children, Adults and Families Division (CAF). Wherever the former Health Division is used in Contract or in rule, it shall mean the Public Health Division (PHD).

(53) Department representative – A person who represents the Department and presents the position of the Department in a hearing.

(54) Diagnosis code – As identified in the International Classification of Diseases, 9th revision, Clinical Modification (ICD-9-CM), the primary diagnosis code is shown in all billing claims, unless specifically excluded in individual provider rule(s). Where they exist, diagnosis codes shall be shown to the degree of specificity outlined in OAR 410-120-1280, Billing.

(55) Diagnosis Related Group (DRG) – A system of classification of diagnoses and procedures based on the ICD-9-CM.

(56) Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) – A division within the Authority; the Division is responsible for coordinating the medical assistance programs within the State of Oregon including the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) Medicaid demonstration, the State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP -Title XXI), and several other programs.

(57) Division member – An OHP client enrolled with a PHP.

(58) Durable Medical Equipment, Prosthetics, Orthotics and Medical Supplies (DMEPOS) – Equipment that can stand repeated use and is primarily and customarily used to serve a medical purpose. Examples include wheelchairs, respirators, crutches and custom built orthopedic braces. Medical supplies are non-reusable items used in the treatment of illness or injury. Examples of medical supplies include diapers, syringes, gauze bandages and tubing.

(59) Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnosis and Treatment (EPSDT) Services (aka, Medichex) – The Title XIX program of EPSDT services for eligible clients under age 21. It is a comprehensive child health program to assure the availability and accessibility of required medically appropriate health care services and to help Division clients and their parents or guardians effectively use them.

(60) Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) – The exchange of business documents from application to application in a federally mandated format or, if no federal standard has been promulgated, using bulk transmission processes and other formats as the Authority designates for EDI transactions. For purposes of rules 407-120-0100 through 407-120-0200, EDI does not include electronic transmission by web portal.

(61) EDI submitter – An individual or an entity authorized to establish an electronic media connection with the Authority to conduct and EDI transaction. An EDI submitter may be a trading partner or an agent of a trading partner.

(62) Electronic Verification System (EVS) eligibility information that has met the legal and technical specifications of the Division in order to offer eligibility information to enrolled providers of the Division.

(63) Emergency department – The part of a licensed hospital facility open 24 hours a day to provide care for anyone in need of emergency treatment.

(64) Emergency medical condition – a medical condition manifesting itself by acute symptoms of sufficient severity (including severe pain) such that a prudent layperson, who possesses an average knowledge of health and medicine, could reasonably expect the absence of immediate medical attention to result in placing the health of the individual (or with respect to a pregnant woman, the health of the woman or her unborn child) in serious jeopardy, serious impairment to bodily functions or serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part. An emergency medical condition is determined based on the presenting symptoms (not the final diagnosis) as perceived by a prudent layperson (rather than a health care professional) and includes cases in which the absence of immediate medical attention would not in fact have had the adverse results described in the previous sentence. (This defi-dition does not apply to clients with CAWEM benefit package. CAWEM emergency services are governed by OAR 410-120-1210(3)(f)(B)).

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(65) Emergency Medical transportation – Transportation necessary for a client with an emergency medical condition, as defined in this rule, and requires a skilled medical professional such as an Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) and immediate transport to a site, usually a hospital, where appropriate emergency medical service is available.

(66) Evidence-based medicine- is the conscientious, explicit, and judicious use of current best evidence in making decisions about the care of individual patients. The practice of evidence based medicine means integrating individual clinical expertise with the best available external clinical evidence from systematic research. By individual clinical expertise we mean the proficiency and judgment that individual clinicians acquire through clinical experience and clinical practice. Increased expertise is reflected in many ways, but especially in more effective and efficient diagnosis and in the more thoughtful identification and compassionate use of individual patients' predicaments, rights, and preferences in making clinical decisions about their care. By best available external clinical evidence we mean clinically relevant research, often from the basic sciences of medicine, but especially from patient centered clinical research into the accuracy and precision of diagnostic tests (including the clinical examination), the power of prognostic markers, and the efficacy and safety of therapeutic, rehabilitative, and preventive regimens. External clinical evidence both invalidates previously accepted diagnostic tests and treatments and replaces them with new ones that are more powerful, more accurate, more efficacious, and safer. (67) False claim – A claim that a provider knowingly submits or causes to be submitted that contains inaccurate, misleading or omitted information and such inaccurate, misleading or omitted information would result, or has resulted, in an overpayment.

(68) Family planning services – Services for clients of child bearing age (including minors who can be considered to be sexually active) who desire such services and which are intended to prevent pregnancy or otherwise limit family size.

(69) Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) – A federal designation for a medical entity which receives grants under Section 329, 330, or 340 of the Public Health Service Act; or a facility designated as a FQHC by Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS) upon recommendation of the U.S. Public Health Service.

(70) Fee-for-service provider – A medical provider who is not reimbursed under the terms of a Division contract with a Prepaid Health Plan (PHP), also referred to as a Managed Care Organization (MCO). A medical provider participating in a PHP may be considered a fee-for-service provider when treating clients who are not enrolled in a PHP.

(71) Fraud – An intentional deception or misrepresentation made by a person with the knowledge that the deception could result in some unauthorized benefit to himself or some other person. It includes any act that constitutes fraud under applicable federal or state law.

(72) Fully dual eligible – For the purposes of Medicare Part D coverage (42 CFR 423.772), Medicare clients who are also eligible for Medicaid, meeting the income and other eligibility criteria adopted by the Department for full medical assistance coverage.

(73) General Assistance (GA) – Medical assistance administered and funded 100% with State of Oregon funds through OHP.

(74) Healthcare Common Procedure Coding System (HCPCS) – A method for reporting health care professional services, procedures, and supplies. HCPCS consists of the Level I – American Medical Association's Physician's Current Procedural Terminology (CPT), Level II – National codes, and Level III – Local codes. The Division uses HCPCS codes; however, Division uses Current Dental Terminology (CDT) codes for the reporting of dental care services and procedures.

(75) Health Maintenance Organization (HMO) – A public or private health care organization which is a federally qualified HMO under Section 1310 of the U.S. Public Health Services Act. HMOs provide health care services on a capitated, contractual basis.

(76) Hearing aid dealer – A person licensed by the Board of Hearing Aid Dealers to sell, lease or rent hearing aids in conjunction with the evaluation or measurement of human hearing and the recommendation, selection, or adaptation of hearing aids.

(77) Home enteral nutrition – Services provided in the client's place of residence to an individual who requires nutrition supplied by tube into the gastrointestinal tract, as described in the Home Enteral/Parenteral Nutrition and IV Services program provider rules.

(78) Home health agency – A public or private agency or organization which has been certified by Medicare as a Medicare home health agency and which is licensed by the Authority as a home health agency in Oregon, and meets the capitalization requirements as outlined in the Balanced Budget Act (BBA) of 1997.

(79) Home health services – Part-time or intermittent skilled nursing services, other therapeutic services (physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy), and home health aide services made available on a visiting basis in a place of residence used as the client's home.

(80) Home intravenous services – Services provided in the client's place of residence to an individual who requires that medication (antibiotics, analgesics, chemotherapy, hydrational fluids, or other intravenous medications) be administered intravenously as described in the Home Enteral/Parenteral Nutrition and IV Services program administrative rules.

(81) Home parenteral nutrition – Services provided in the client's residence to an individual who is unable to absorb nutrients via the gastrointestinal tract, or for other medical reasons, requires nutrition be supplied parenterally as described in the Home Enteral/Parenteral Nutrition and IV Services program administrative rules.

(82) Hospice – A public agency or private organization or subdivision of either that is primarily engaged in providing care to terminally ill individuals, is certified for Medicare, accredited by the Oregon Hospice Association, and is listed in the Hospice Program Registry.

(83) Hospital – A facility licensed by the Office of Public Health Systems as a general hospital which meets requirements for participation in the OHP under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act. The Division does not consider facilities certified by the CMS as long-term care hospitals, long term acute care hospitals or religious non-medical facilities as hospitals for reimbursement purposes. Out-of-state hospitals will be considered hospitals for reimbursement purposes if they are licensed as a short term acute care or general hospital by the appropriate licensing authority within that state, and if they are enrolled as a provider of hospital services with the Medicaid agency within that state.

(84) Hospital-based professional services – Professional services provided by licensed practitioners or staff based on a contractual or employee/employer relationship and reported as a cost on the Hospital Statement of Reasonable Cost report for Medicare and the Calculation of Reasonable Cost (Division 42) report for the Division.

(85) Hospital laboratory – A laboratory providing professional technical laboratory services as outlined under laboratory services, in a hospital setting, as either an inpatient or outpatient hospital service whose costs are reported on the hospital's cost report to Medicare and to the Division.

(86) Indian Health Program – Any Indian health service facility, any Federally recognized Tribe or Tribal organization, or any FQHC with a 638 designation.

(87) Individual Adjustment Request Form (DMAP 1036) – Form used to resolve an incorrect payment on a previously paid claim, including underpayments or overpayments.

(88) Inpatient hospital services – Services that are furnished in a hospital for the care and treatment of an inpatient. (See Division Hospital Services program administrative rules in chapter 410, division 125 for inpatient covered services.)

(89) Institutional Level of Income Standards (ILIS) – Three times the amount SSI pays monthly to a person who has no other income and who is living alone in the community. This is the standard used for Medicaid eligible individuals to calculate eligibility for long-term nursing care in a nursing facility, Intermediate Care Facilities for the Mentally Retarded (ICF/MR) and individuals on ICF/MR waivers or eligibility for services under Seniors and People with Disabilities' (SPD) Home and Community Based Waiver.

(90) Institutionalized – A patient admitted to a nursing facility or hospital for the purpose of receiving nursing and/or hospital care for a period of 30 days or more.

(91) International Classification of Diseases, 9th Revision, Clinical Modification (ICD-9-CM) (including volumes 1, 2, and 3, as revised annually) – A book of diagnosis codes used for billing purposes when treating and requesting reimbursement for treatment of diseases.

(92) Laboratory – A facility licensed under ORS 438 and certified by CMS, Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), as qualified to participate under Medicare, to provide laboratory services (as defined in this rule) within or apart from a hospital. An entity is considered to be a laboratory if the entity derives materials from the human body for the purpose of providing information for the diagnosis, prevention or treatment of any disease or impairment of, or the assessment of the health of, human beings. If an entity performs even one laboratory test, including waived tests for these purposes, it is considered to be a laboratory, under the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Act (CLIA).

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(93) Laboratory services – Those professional and technical diagnostic analyses of blood, urine, and tissue ordered by a physician or other licensed practitioner of the healing arts within his/her scope of practice as defined under State law and provided to a patient by or under the direction of a physician or appropriate licensed practitioner in an office or similar facility, hospital, or independent laboratory.

(94) Licensed Direct Entry Midwife – A practitioner who has acquired the requisite qualifications to be registered and/or legally licensed to practice midwifery by the Public Health Division.

(95) Liability insurance – Insurance that provides payment based on legal liability for injuries or illness. It includes, but is not limited to, automobile liability insurance, uninsured and underinsured motorist insurance, homeowner's liability insurance, malpractice insurance, product liability insurance, Worker's Compensation, and general casualty insurance. It also includes payments under state wrongful death statutes that provide payment for medical damages.

(96) Managed Care Organization (MCO) – Contracted health delivery system providing capitated or prepaid health services, also known as a Prepaid Health Plan (PHP). An MCO is responsible for providing, arranging and making reimbursement arrangements for covered services as governed by state and federal law. An MCO may be a Chemical Dependency Organization (CDO), Fully Capitated Health Plan (FCHP), Dental Care Organization (DCO), Mental Health Organization (MHO), or Physician Care Organization (PCO).

(97) Maternity Case Management – A program available to pregnant clients. The purpose of Maternity Case Management is to extend prenatal services to include non-medical services, which address social, economic and nutritional factors. For more information refer to the Division's Medical-Surgical Services Program administrative rules.

(98) Medicaid – A federal and state funded portion of the medical assistance programs established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act, as amended, administered in Oregon by the Authority.

(99) Medical assistance eligibility confirmation – Verification through the Electronic Verification System (EVS), AVR, Secure Web site or Electronic Data Interchange (EDI), or an authorized Department or Authority representative.

(100) Medical services – Care and treatment provided by a licensed medical provider directed at preventing, diagnosing, treating or correcting a medical problem.

(101) Medical transportation – Transportation to or from covered medical services.

(102) Medically appropriate – Services and medical supplies that are required for prevention, diagnosis or treatment of a health condition which encompasses physical or mental conditions, or injuries, and which are:

(a) Consistent with the symptoms of a health condition or treatment of a health condition;

(b) Appropriate with regard to standards of good health practice and generally recognized by the relevant scientific community, evidence-based medicine and professional standards of care as effective;

(c) Not solely for the convenience of an OHP client or a provider of the service or medical supplies; and

(d) The most cost effective of the alternative levels of medical services or medical supplies which can be safely provided to a Division client or Primary Care Manager (PCM) Member in the PHP's or PCM's judgment.

(103) Medicare – A federally administered program offering health insurance benefits for persons aged 65 or older and certain other aged or disabled persons. This program includes:

(a) Hospital Insurance (Part A) for Inpatient services in a hospital or skilled nursing facility, home health care, and hospice care; and

(b) Medical Insurance (Part B) for physicians' services, outpatient hospital services, home health care, end-stage renal dialysis, and other medical services and supplies;

(c) Prescription drug coverage (Part D) – Covered Part D drugs include prescription drugs, biological products, insulin as described in specified paragraphs of section 1927(k) of the Social Security Act, and vaccines licensed under section 351 of the Public Health Service Act; also includes medical supplies associated with the injection of insulin; Part D covered drugs prohibit Medicaid Title XIX Federal Financial Participation (FFP). For limitations, see the Division's Pharmaceutical Services program administrative rules in chapter 410, division 121.

(104) Medichex for Children and Teens – Services also known as Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnosis and Treatment (EPSDT) services – The Title XIX program of EPSDT services for eligible clients under age 21. It is a comprehensive child health program to assure the availability and accessibility of required medically appropriate health care services and to help Division clients and their parents or guardians effectively use them.

(105) NCCI- National Correct Coding Initiative— The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) developed the National Correct Coding Initiative (NCCI) to promote national correct coding methodologies and to control improper coding leading to inappropriate payment.

(106) National Provider Identification (NPI) – Federally directed provider number mandated for use on HIPAA covered transactions; individuals, provider organizations and subparts of provider organizations that meet the definition of health care provider (45 CFR 160.103) and who conduct HIPAA covered transactions electronically are eligible to apply for an NPI; Medicare covered entities are required to apply for an NPI.

(107) Naturopath – A person licensed to practice naturopathy pursuant to State law.

(108) Naturopathic services – Services provided within the scope of practice as defined under State law.

(109) Non-covered services – Services or items for which the Division is not responsible for payment or reimbursement. Non-covered services are identified in:

(a) OAR 410-120-1200, Excluded Services and Limitations; and,

(b) 410-120-1210, Medical Assistance Benefit Packages and Delivery System;

(c) 410-141-0480, OHP Benefit Package of Covered Services;

(d) 410-141-0520, Prioritized List of Health Services; and

(e) Any other applicable Division administrative rules.

(110) Nurse Anesthetist, C.R.N.A. – A registered nurse licensed in the State of Oregon who is currently certified by the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists Council on Certification.

(111) Nurse Practitioner – A person licensed as a registered nurse and certified by the Board of Nursing to practice as a Nurse Practitioner pursuant to State law.

(112) Nurse Practitioner services – Services provided within the scope of practice of a Nurse Practitioner as defined under State law and by rules of the Board of Nursing.

(114) Nursing services – Health care services provided to a patient by a registered professional nurse or a licensed practical nurse under the direction of a licensed professional within the scope of practice as defined by State law.

(115) Nutritional counseling – Counseling which takes place as part of the treatment of a person with a specific condition, deficiency or disease such as diabetes, hypercholesterolemia, or phenylketonuria.

(116) Occupational Therapist – A person licensed by the State Board of Examiners for Occupational Therapy.

(117) Occupational Therapy – The functional evaluation and treatment of individuals whose ability to adapt or cope with the task of living is threatened or impaired by developmental deficiencies, physical injury or illness, aging process, or psychological disability; the treatment utilizes task-oriented activities to prevent or correct physical and emotional difficulties or minimize the disabling effect of these deficiencies on the life of the individual.

(118) Optometric services – Services provided, within the scope of practice of optometrists as defined under State law.

(119) Optometrist – A person licensed to practice optometry pursuant to State law.

(120) Oregon Health Authority (OHA)— The Authority or OHA means the Oregon Health Authority established in ORS Chapter 413, that administers the funds for Titles XIX and XXI of the Social Security Act. It is the single state agency for the administration of the medical assistance program under ORS chapter 414. For purposes of these rules the agencies under the authority of the OHA are the Public Health Division, the Addictions and Mental Health Division, and the Division of Medical Assistance Programs. These divisions are referred to as the Authority whereas the divisions under authority of the Department of Human Services are CAF and SPD and are referred to as the Department.

(121) Oregon Youth Authority (OYA) – The state department charged with the management and administration of youth correction facilities, state parole and probation services and other functions related to state programs for youth corrections.

(122) Out-of-State providers – Any provider located outside the borders of the State of Oregon:

(a) Contiguous area providers are those located no more than 75 miles from the border of the State of Oregon;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Non-contiguous area providers are those located more than 75 miles from the borders of the State of Oregon.

(123) Outpatient hospital services – Services that are furnished in a hospital for the care and treatment of an outpatient. For information on outpatient-covered services, see the Division's Hospital Services administrative rules found in chapter 410, division 125.

(124) Overdue claim – A valid claim that is not paid within 45 days of the date it was received.

(125) Overpayment – Payment(s) made by Division to a provider in excess of the correct Division payment amount for a service. Overpayments are subject to repayment to the Division.

(126) Overuse – Use of medical goods or services at levels determined by Division medical staff and/or medical consultants to be medically unnecessary or potentially harmful.

(127) Panel – The Hearing Officer Panel established by section 3, chapter 849, Oregon Laws 1999.

(128) Payment Authorization – Authorization granted by the responsible agency, office or organization for payment prior or subsequent to the delivery of services, as described in these General Rules and the appropriate program rules. See the individual program rules for services requiring authorization.

(129) Peer Review Organization (PRO) – An entity of health care practitioners of services contracted by the State to review services ordered or furnished by other practitioners in the same professional field.

(130) Pharmaceutical Services – Services provided by a Pharmacist, including medications dispensed in a pharmacy upon an order of a licensed practitioner prescribing within his/her scope of practice.

(131) Pharmacist – A person licensed to practice pharmacy pursuant to state law.

(132) Physical Capacity Evaluation – An objective, directly observed measurement of a person's ability to perform a variety of physical tasks combined with subjective analysis of abilities of the person.

(133) Physical Therapist – A person licensed by the relevant State licensing authority to practice Physical Therapy.

(134) Physical Therapy – Treatment comprising exercise, massage, heat or cold, air, light, water, electricity or sound for the purpose of correcting or alleviating any physical or mental disability, or the performance of tests as an aid to the assessment, diagnosis or treatment of a human being. Physical Therapy shall not include radiology or electrosurgery.

(135) Physician – A person licensed to practice medicine pursuant to state law of the state in which he/she practices medicine, or a person licensed to practice medicine pursuant to federal law for the purpose of practicing medicine under a contract with the federal government.

(136) Physician Assistant – A person licensed as a physician assistant in accordance with ORS 677. Physician assistants provide medical services under the direction and supervision of an Oregon licensed physician according to a practice description approved by the Board of Medical Examiners.

(138) Podiatric Services – Services provided within the scope of practice of podiatrists as defined under state law.

(139) Podiatrist – A person licensed to practice podiatric medicine pursuant to state law.

(140) Post-Payment Review – Review of billings and/or other medical information for accuracy, medical appropriateness, level of service or for other reasons subsequent to payment of the claim.

(141) Practitioner – A person licensed pursuant to state law to engage in the provision of health care services within the scope of the practitioner's license and/or certification.

(142) Premium sponsorship – Premium donations made for the benefit of one or more specified Division clients (See 410-120-1390).

(143) Prepaid Health Plan (PHP) – A managed health, dental, chemical dependency, or mental health organization that contracts with the Division and/or AMH on a case managed, prepaid, capitated basis under OHP. PHP's may be a Chemical Dependency Organization (CDO), Dental Care Organization (DCO), Fully Capitated Health Plan (FCHP), Mental Health Organization (MHO), or Physician Care Organization (PCO)

(144) Primary Care Physician – A physician who has responsibility for supervising, coordinating and providing initial and primary care to patients, initiating Referrals for consultations and specialist care, and maintaining the continuity of patient care.

(145) Primary Care Provider (PCP) – Any enrolled medical assistance provider who has responsibility for supervising, coordinating, and providing initial and primary care within their scope of practice for identified clients. PCPs initiate Referrals for care outside their scope of practice, consultations and specialist care, and assure the continuity of medically appropriate client care.

(146) Prior Authorization (PA) – Payment authorization for specified medical services or items given by Division staff, or its contracted agencies prior to provision of the service. A physician referral is not a PA.

(147) Prioritized List of Health Services – Also referred to as the Prioritized List, the Oregon Health Services Commission's (HSC) listing of health services with "expanded definitions" of ancillary Services and preventive services and the HSC practice guidelines, as presented to the Oregon Legislative Assembly. The Prioritized List is generated and maintained by HSC. The Prioritized List governs medical assistance programs' health services and benefit packages pursuant to these General Rules (OAR 410-120-0000 et seq.) and OAR 410-141-0480 through 410-141-0520.

(148) Private Duty Nursing Services – Nursing services provided within the scope of license by a registered nurse or a licensed practical nurse, under the general direction of the patient's physician to an individual who is not in a health care facility.

(149) Provider – An individual, facility, institution, corporate entity, or other organization which supplies health care services or items, also termed a performing provider, or bills, obligates and receives reimbursement on behalf of a performing provider of services, also termed a billing provider (BP). The term provider refers to both performing providers and BP(s) unless otherwise specified.

(150) Provider Organization – a group practice, facility, or organization that is:

(a) An employer of a provider, if the provider is required as a condition of employment to turn over fees to the employer; or

(b) The facility in which the service is provided, if the provider has a contract under which the facility submits claims; or

(c) A foundation, plan, or similar organization operating an organized health care delivery system, if the provider has a contract under which the organization submits the claim; and

(d) Such group practice, facility, or organization is enrolled with the Authority, and payments are made to the group practice, facility or organization.

(e) If such entity solely submits billings on behalf of providers and payments are made to each provider, then the entity is an agent.

(See Subparts of Provider Organization)

(151) Public Health Clinic – A clinic operated by county government.

(152) Public Rates – The charge for services and items that providers, including Hospitals and nursing facilities, made to the general public for the same service on the same date as that provided to Division clients.

(153) Qualified Medicare Beneficiary (QMB) – A Medicare beneficiary, as defined by the Social Security Act and its amendments.

(154) Qualified Medicare and Medicaid Beneficiary (QMM) – A Medicare beneficiary who is also eligible for Division coverage.

(155) Quality Improvement Organization (QIO) – An entity that has a contract with CMS under Part B of Title XI to perform utilization and quality control review of the health care furnished, or to be furnished, to Medicare and Medicaid clients; formerly known as a Peer Review Organization.

(156) Radiological Services – Those professional and technical radiological and other imaging services for the purpose of diagnosis and treatment ordered by a physician or other licensed practitioner of the healing arts within the scope of practice as defined under state law and provided to a patient by or under the direction of a physician or appropriate licensed practitioner in an office or similar facility, Hospital, or independent radiological facility.

(157) Recipient – A person who is currently eligible for medical assistance (also known as a client).

(158) Recreational therapy – recreational or other activities that are diversional in nature (includes, but is not limited to, social or recreational activities or outlets).

(159) Recoupment – An accounts receivable system that collects money owed by the provider to the Division by withholding all or a portion of a provider's future payments.

(160) Referral – The transfer of total or specified care of a client from one provider to another. As used by the Division, the term referral also includes a request for a consultation or evaluation or a request or approval of specific services. In the case of clients whose medical care is contracted through a Prepaid Health Plan (PHP), or managed by a Primary Care Physician, a referral is required before non-emergency care is covered by the PHP or the Division.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(161) Remittance Advice (RA) – The automated notice a provider receives explaining payments or other claim actions. It is the only notice sent to providers regarding claim actions.

(162) Request for Hearing – A clear expression, in writing, by an individual or representative that the person wishes to appeal a Department or Authority decision or action and wishes to have the decision considered by a higher authority.

(163) Retroactive Medical Eligibility – Eligibility for medical assistance granted to a client retroactive to a date prior to the client's application for medical assistance.

(164) Sanction – An action against providers taken by the Division in cases of fraud, misuse or abuse of division requirements.

(165) School Based Health Service – A health service required by an Individualized Education Plan (IEP) during a child's education program which addresses physical or mental disabilities as recommended by a physician or other licensed practitioner.

(166) Seniors and People with Disabilities Division (SPD) – An Office of the Department responsible for the administration of programs for seniors and people with disabilities.

(167) Service agreement – An agreement between the Division and a specified provider to provide identified services for a specified rate. Service agreements may be limited to services required for the special needs of an identified client. Service agreements do not preclude the requirement for a provider to enroll as a provider.

(168) Sliding Fee Schedule – A fee schedule with varying rates established by a provider of health care to make services available to indigent and low-income individuals. The sliding-fee schedule is based on ability to pay.

(169) Social Worker – A person licensed by the Board of Clinical Social Workers to practice clinical social work.

(170) Speech-Language Pathologist – A person licensed by the Oregon Board of Examiners for Speech Pathology.

(171) Speech-Language Pathology Services – The application of principles, methods, and procedure for the measuring, evaluating, predicting, counseling or instruction related to the development and disorders of speech, voice, or language for the purpose of preventing, habilitating, rehabilitating, or modifying such disorders in individuals or groups of individuals.

(172) Spend-Down – The amount the client must pay for medical expenses each month before becoming eligible for medical assistance under the Medically Needy Program. The spend-down is equal to the difference between the client's total countable income and Medically Needy program income limits.

(173) State Facility – A Hospital or training center operated by the State of Oregon, which provides long-term medical or psychiatric care.

(174) Subparts (of a provider organization) – For NPI application, subparts of a health care provider organization would meet the definition of health care provider (45 CFR 160.103) if it were a separate legal entity and if it conducted HIPAA-covered transactions electronically, or has an entity do so on its behalf, could be components of an organization or separate physical locations of an organization.

(175) Subrogation – Right of the State to stand in place of the client in the collection of third party resources (TPR).

(164) Supplemental Security Income (SSI) – A program available to certain aged and disabled persons which is administered by the Social Security Administration through the Social Security office.

(177) Surgical Assistant – A person performing required assistance in surgery as permitted by rules of the State Board of Medical Examiners.

(178) Suspension – A sanction prohibiting a provider's participation in the medical assistance programs by deactivation of the provider's Division-assigned billing number for a specified period of time. No payments, Title XIX or State Funds, will be made for services provided during the suspension. The number will be reactivated automatically after the suspension period has elapsed.

(179) Targeted Case Management (TCM)- Activities that will assist the client in a target group in gaining access to needed medical, social, educational and other services. This includes locating, coordinating, and monitoring necessary and appropriate services. TCM services are often provided by Allied Agency providers.

(180) Termination – A sanction prohibiting a provider's participation in the Division's programs by canceling the provider's Division-assigned billing number and agreement. No payments, Title XIX or State Funds, will be made for services provided after the date of termination. Termination is permanent unless:

(a) The exceptions cited in 42 CFR 1001.221 are met; or

(b) Otherwise stated by the Division at the time of termination.

(181) Third Party Resource (TPR) – A medical or financial resource which, under law, is available and applicable to pay for medical Services and items for a Division client.

(182) Transportation – See Medical Transportation.

(183) Type A Hospital – A hospital identified by the Office of Rural Health as a Type A hospital.

(184) Type B AAA Unit – A Type B Area Agency on Aging (AAA) funded by Oregon Project Independence (OPI), Title III – Older Americans Act, and Title XIX of the Social Security Act.

(185) Type B Hospital – A hospital identified by the Office of Rural Health as a Type B hospital.

(186) Usual Charge (UC) – The lesser of the following unless prohibited from billing by federal statute or regulation:

(a) The provider's charge per unit of service for the majority of non-medical assistance users of the same service based on the preceding month's charges;

(b) The provider's lowest charge per unit of service on the same date that is advertised, quoted or posted. The lesser of these applies regardless of the payment source or means of payment;

(c) Where the provider has established a written sliding fee scale based upon income for individuals and families with income equal to or less than 200% of the federal poverty level, the fees paid by these individuals and families are not considered in determining the usual charge. Any amounts charged to third party resources (TPR) are to be considered.

(187) Utilization Review (UR) – The process of reviewing, evaluating, and assuring appropriate use of medical resources and services. The review encompasses quality, quantity, and appropriateness of medical care to achieve the most effective and economic use of health care services.

(188) Valid Claim – An invoice received by the Division or the appropriate Authority/Department office for payment of covered health care services rendered to an eligible client which:

(a) Can be processed without obtaining additional information from the provider of the goods or services or from a TPR; and

(b) Has been received within the time limitations prescribed in these General Rules (OAR 410 division 120).

(189) Vision Services – Provision of corrective eyewear, including ophthalmological or optometric examinations for determination of visual acuity and vision therapy and devices.

Children's Health Insurance Program

(1) The Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) is a federal non-entitlement program for children under 19 years of age that provides health coverage for uninsured, low-income children who are ineligible for Medicaid and meet the CHIP eligibility requirements. The CHIP program is administered by the Oregon Health Authority (Authority) in accordance with the Oregon Health Plan waiver and the CHIP state plan. The General Rules Program (OAR 410-120-0000 et. seq.) and Oregon Health Plan Program rules (OAR 410-141-0000 et. seq.) applicable to the Medicaid program are also applicable to the Authority's CHIP program.

(2) Eligibility criteria, including but not limited to income methodologies and citizenship requirements for medical assistance applicable to children under the age of 19 years, are established in OAR chapter 461 through the program acronym OHP-CHIP.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(3) Benefit package of covered services: Children determined eligible for CHIP receive the same OHP Plus benefits as covered under Medicaid categorically needy program. (For benefits refer to OAR 410-120-1210).

(4) CHIP Prenatal coverage for women not eligible for Medicaid at or below 185% of the FPL:

(a) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3) of this rule, pregnant women, who are not eligible for Medicaid and who reside in the participating counties during pregnancy will receive expanded medical services (OHP Plus benefit package, as limited under subsection (d) of this subsection) to provide prenatal care for the unborn child and labor and delivery services through this expansion program. The benefit identifier for this category is BMH, PERC code CX:

- (A) Effective 4/1/08 Multnomah and Deschutes;
- (B) Effective 10/1/09 Benton, Clackamas, Hood River and Jackson;
- (C) Effective 1/1/11 Lane.
- (D) Effective 7/1/11 Columbia, Crook, Douglas, Jefferson, Morrow, Union and Wasco.

(b) This population is exempt from managed care enrollment. The preferred service delivery system will be Primary Care Management (PCM). Fee-for-service (FFS) enrollment will be available by exception for continuity of care or other Authority-approved reasons that could justify disenrollment from a PCM under OAR 410-141-0085;

(c) Pilot project services continue through labor and delivery. The day after pregnancy ends, eligibility for medical services is based on eligibility categories established in OAR chapter 461;

(d) The following services are not covered for the pilot project:

- (i) Postpartum care beyond the global payment;
- (ii) Sterilization;
- (iii) Abortion;
- (iv) Death with dignity services;
- (v) Hospice.

410-120-1560

Provider Appeals

(1) For purposes of Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) provider appeal rules in chapter 410, division 120 the following terms and definitions are used:

(a) "Provider" means a person or entity enrolled with the Division, or under contract with the Division that is subject to the Division rules, that has requested an appeal in relation to health care, items, drugs or services provided or requested to be provided to a client on a fee-for-service basis or under contract with the Division where that contract expressly incorporates these rules;

(b) "Provider Applicant" means a person or entity that has submitted an application to become an enrolled provider with the Division but the application has not been approved;

(c) "Prepaid Health Plan" has the meaning in OAR 410-141-0000, except to the extent that Mental Health Organizations (MHO) have separate procedures applicable to provider grievances and appeals;

(d) "Prepaid Health Plan provider" means a person or entity enrolled with the Division but that provided health care services, supplies or items to a client enrolled with a PHP, including both participating providers and non-participating providers as those terms are defined in OAR 410-141-0000, except that services provided to a client enrolled with an MHO shall be governed by the provider grievance and appeal procedures administered by the Office of Mental Health and Addiction Services;

(e) The "Provider Appeal Rules" refers to the rules in OAR 410-120-1560 to 410-120-1700, describing the availability of appeal procedures and the procedures applicable to each appeal procedure.

(f) "Non-participating provider" has the meaning in OAR 410-141-0000

(2) A Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) enrolled provider may appeal a Division decision in which the provider is directly adversely affected such as the following:

(a) A denial or limitation of payment allowed for services or items provided;

(b) A denial related to a NCCI edit;

(c) A denial of provider's application for new or continued participation in the Medical Assistance Program; or

(d) Sanctions imposed, or intended to be imposed, by the Medical Assistance program on a provider or provider entity; and

(e) Division overpayment determinations made under OAR 410-120-1397.

(3) Client appeals of actions must be handled in accordance with OAR 140-120-1860 and 410-120-1865.

(4) A provider appeal is initiated by filing a timely request in writing for review with the Division.

(a) A provider appeal request is not required to follow a specific format as long as it provides a clear written expression from a provider or provider applicant expressing disagreement with a Division decision or from a Prepaid Health Plan (PHP) provider expressing disagreement with a decision by a PHP.

(b) The request should identify the decision made by the Division or a PHP that is being appealed and the reason the provider disagrees with that decision.

(c) A provider appeal request is timely if it is received by the Division within 180 calendar days of the date of the Division's decision or the date of the PHP decision on the provider's appeal to the PHP.

(5) Types and methods for provider appeals are listed below.

(a) A Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) denial of or limitation of payment allowed, Division claim decision including prior authorization decision, or Division overpayment determination for services or items provided to a client must be appealed as claim re-determinations under OAR 410-120-1570.

(b) A notice of sanctions imposed, or intended to be imposed, the effect of the notice of sanction is, or will be, to deny suspend or revoke a provider number necessary to participate in the medical assistance on a provider, or provider applicant is entitled to appeal under OAR 410-120-1600. A provider that is entitled to appeal a notice of sanction as a contested case may request administrative review instead of contested case hearing if the provider submits a written request for administrative review of the notice of sanction and agrees in writing to waive the right to a contested case hearing and the Division agrees to review the appeal of the notice of sanction as an administrative review.

(c) All provider appeals of Division decisions not described in paragraphs (4)(a) or (b) are handled as administrative reviews in accordance with OAR 410-120-1580, unless Division issues an order granting a contested case hearing.

(6) Decisions that adversely affect a provider may be made by different program areas within the Department/Authority.

(a) Decisions issued by the Office of Payment Accuracy and Recovery (OPAR) or the Department information security office shall be appealed in accordance with the process described in the notice.

(b) Other program areas within the Department/Authority that have responsibility for administering medical assistance funding, such as nursing home care or community mental health and developmental disabilities program services, may make decisions that adversely affect a provider. Those providers are subject to the provider grievance or appeal processes applicable to those payment or program areas.

(c) Some decisions that adversely affect a provider are issued on behalf of the Division by Department or Authority contractors such as the Division pharmacy benefits manager, by entities performing statutory functions related to the medical assistance programs such as the Drug Use Review Board, or by other entities in the conduct of program integrity activities applicable to the administration of the medical assistance programs. For these decisions made on behalf of the division in which the Division has legal authority to make the final decision in the matter, a provider may appeal such a decision to the Division as an administrative review and the Division may accept such review.

(d) This rule does not apply to contract administration issues that may arise solely between the Division and a PHP. Such issues shall be governed by the terms of the applicable contract.

(e) The Division provides limited provider appeals for Prepaid Health Plan providers (PHP providers) or non-participating providers concerning a decision by a Prepaid Health Plan (PHP). In general, the relationship between a PHP and PHP providers is a contract matter between them. Client appeals are handled under the client appeal rules, not provider appeal rules.

(i) The PHP provider seeking a provider appeal must have a current valid provider enrollment agreement with the Division and, unless the provider is a non-participating provider, must also have a contract with the Prepaid Health Plan as a PHP provider; and

(ii) The PHP provider or non-participating provider must have exhausted the applicable appeal procedure established by the PHP and the

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

request for provider appeal must include a copy of the written decision(s) of the PHP that is being appealed from and a copy of any PHP policy being applied in the appeal; and

(iii) The PHP provider appeal or non-participating provider appeal from a PHP decision is limited to issues related to the scope of coverage and authorization of services under the Oregon Health Plan, including whether services are included as covered on the Prioritized List, guidelines, and in the OHP Benefit package. The Division provider appeal process does not include PHP payment or claims reimbursement amount issues, except in relation to non-participating provider matters governed by Division rule.

(iv) A timely provider appeal must be made within 30 calendar days from the date of the PHP's decision and include evidence that the PHP was sent a copy of the provider appeal. In every provider appeal involving a PHP decision, the PHP will be treated as a participant in the appeal.

(7) In the event a request for provider appeal is not timely, the Division will determine whether the failure to file the request was caused by circumstances beyond the control of the provider, provider applicant or PHP provider. In determining whether to accept a late request for review, the Division requires the request to be supported by a written statement that explains why the request for review is late. The Division may conduct such further inquiry as the Division deems appropriate. In determining timeliness of filing a request for review, the amount of time that the Division determines accounts for circumstances beyond the control of the provider is not counted. The Division may refer an untimely request to the Office of Administrative Hearings for a hearing on the question of timeliness.

(8) The burden of presenting evidence to support a provider appeal is on the provider, provider applicant or PHP provider.

(a) Consistent with OAR 410-120-1360, payment on a claim will only be made for services that are adequately documented and billed in accordance with OAR 410-120-1280 and all applicable administrative rules related to covered services for the client's benefit package and establishing the conditions under which services, supplies or items are covered, such as the Prioritized List, medical appropriateness and other applicable standards.

(b) Eligibility for enrollment and for continued enrollment is based on compliance with applicable rules, the information submitted or required to be submitted with the application for enrollment and the enrollment agreement, and the documentation required to be produced or maintained in accordance with OAR 410-120-1360.

(9) Provider appeal proceedings, if any, will be held in Salem, unless otherwise stipulated to by all parties and agreed to by the Division.

- Clarify the requirements of prior authorization and supply limitations;
- Add new claims submission criteria that are needed to implement this expansion to client access;
- Reflect the Division's governing agency change from Department of Human Resources to Oregon Health Authority and update statutory reference.

- Improve readability and to take care of other necessary "house-keeping" corrections.

Glucose Monitors and Diabetic Supplies

(1) Indications and limitations of coverage and medical appropriateness:

(a) The Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) may cover home blood glucose monitors and related diabetic supplies for clients with diabetes who can self-monitor blood glucose (SMBG) or be monitored with assistance;

(b) Coverage of home blood glucose monitors is limited to clients meeting all of the following conditions:

(A) The client has diabetes which is being treated by a practitioner; and

(B) The glucose monitor and related accessories and supplies have been ordered by a practitioner who is treating the client's diabetes; and

(C) The client or caregiver has successfully completed training or is scheduled to begin training in the use of the monitor, test strips, and lancing devices; and

(D) The client or caregiver is capable of using the test results to assure the client's appropriate glycemic control; and

(E) The device is designed for home use;

(c) Home blood glucose monitors with special features (E2100 or E2101) may be covered for clients who meet the basic coverage criteria (1)(b)(A)-(E) of this rule; and:

(A) The treating practitioner certifies that the client has a severe visual impairment (i.e., best corrected visual acuity of 20/200 or worse) requiring use of this special monitoring system; or

(B) For code E2101, the treating practitioner certifies that the client has an impairment of manual dexterity severe enough to require the use of this special monitoring system.

(d) If a glucose monitor is covered, lancets blood glucose test reagent strips glucose control solutions insulin syringes and spring powered devices for lancets) may also be covered. Coverage limitations for these supplies are as follows:

(A) A4258 – only one spring powered device every six months;

(B) A4253 and A4259 – The provider of the test strips and lancets must maintain, in their records, the order from the treating practitioner. Before dispensing more test strips and lancets, the client must have nearly exhausted their supply. The amount of test strips and lancets covered are based on the needs of the client according to the following limitations:

(i) Up to 100 test strips and 100 lancets every three months for clients who are not currently being treated with insulin injections;

(ii) Up to 100 test strips and 100 lancets every month for clients who are currently being treated with insulin injections;

(iii) For clients under age 19 with Type I diabetes, up to 100 test strips and 100 lancets every month;

(iv) For clients with gestational diabetes:

(I) Insulin-treated: Up to 100 test strips and 100 lancets per month no longer than 60 days beyond the duration of the pregnancy;

(II) Non-insulin treated: Up to 100 test strips and 100 lancets per month no longer than 60 days beyond the duration of the pregnancy;

(v) Upon refills of quantities that exceed the utilization guidelines, the treating practitioner must have:

(I) Documented in the client's medical record the specific reason for the additional supplies for that particular client; and

(II) Seen the client and have evaluated their diabetes control within six months prior to ordering quantities that exceed the utilization guidelines; and

(III) Documented in the client's medical record, a specific narrative statement that adequately specifies the frequency at which the client is actually testing or a copy of the client's log; or there must be documentation in the provider's records, (e.g., a copy of the client's log) that the client is actually testing at a frequency that corroborates the quantity of supplies that have been dispensed. If the client is regularly using quantities of supplies that exceed the utilization guidelines, new documentation must be present at least every six months;

(C) Home blood glucose monitors are subject to a limit of one monitor per two calendar years.

(e) Diabetic supply providers must not dispense a quantity of supplies exceeding a client's expected utilization. Providers should stay attuned to atypical utilization patterns on behalf of their clients and verify with the ordering practitioner that the atypical utilization is, in fact, warranted.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Regardless of utilization, a provider must not dispense more than a three month quantity of glucose testing supplies (i.e. up to 300 test strips, 300 lancets, and 500 insulin syringes) at a time. A PA must be obtained prior to dispensing amounts in excess of these utilization limits.;

(f) Providers may contact the treating practitioner to renew an order; however, the request for renewal may only be made with the client's continued monthly use of testing supplies and only with the client's or caregiver's request to the provider for order renewal;

(g) An order refill does not have to be approved by the ordering practitioner; however, a client or their caregiver must specifically request refills of glucose monitor supplies before they are dispensed. The provider must not automatically dispense a quantity of supplies on a predetermined regular basis, even if the client has "authorized" this in advance;

(h) Purchase fee for a glucose monitor includes normal, low and high-calibrator solution/chips (A4256), a battery (A4233, A4234, A4235 or A4236) and a spring-powered lancet device (A4258);

(i) The following services are not covered:

(A) Peroxide (A4244), betadine or phisoHex (A4246, A4247); (B) Alternate site blood glucose monitors;

(C) Blood glucose monitors and related supplies prescribed on an "as needed" basis;

(D) Blood glucose test or reagent strips that use a visual reading and are not used in a glucose monitor;

(E) Continuous glucose monitoring devices;

(F) Disposable gloves;

(G) Home blood glucose disposable monitors;

(H) Jet injectors;

(I) Insulin delivery devices and related supplies;

(J) Reflectance colorimeter devices used for measuring blood glucose levels in clinical settings;

(K) Urine test or reagent strips or tablets.

(2) Guidelines:

(a) Insulin-treated means that the client is receiving insulin injections to treat their diabetes. Insulin does not exist in an oral form and therefore clients taking oral medication to treat their diabetes are not insulin-treated;

(b) A severe visual impairment is defined as a best corrected visual acuity of 20/200 or worse in both eyes;

(c) An order renewal is the act of obtaining an order for an additional period of time beyond that previously ordered by the treating practitioner;

(d) An order refill is the act of replenishing quantities of previously ordered items during the time period in which the current order is valid;

(e) A4256 describes control solutions containing high, normal, and low concentrations of glucose that can be applied to test strips to check the integrity of the test strips. This code does not describe the strip or chip which is included in a vial of test strips and which calibrates the glucose monitor to that particular vial of test strips;

(f) For glucose test strips (A4253), 1 unit of service = 50 strips. For lancets (A4259), 1 unit of service = 100 lancets;

(3) Documentation requirements:

(a) For codes requiring prior authorization (PA), submit documentation which supports coverage criteria as specified in this rule are met;

(b) The order for home blood glucose monitors and/or diabetic testing supplies must include all of the following:

(A) All item(s) to be dispensed;

(B) The specific frequency of testing;

(C) The treating practitioner's signature;

(D) The date of the treating practitioner's signature;

(E) A start date of the order - only required if the start date is different than the signature date;

(c) A new order must be obtained when there is a change in the testing frequency;

(d) For E2100 or E2101 in a client with impaired visual acuity, submit documentation which includes a narrative statement from the practitioner that indicates the client's specific numerical visual acuity (e.g., 20/400) and that this result represents "best corrected" vision;

(e) For E2101 - clients with impaired manual dexterity, submit documentation which includes a narrative statement from the practitioner that indicates an explanation of the client's medical condition necessitating the monitor with special features;

(f) When requesting quantities of supplies which exceed utilization guidelines as specified in (1)(d)(B)(i)-(iv) (e.g., more than 100 blood glucose test strips per month for insulin-dependent diabetes mellitus), submit documentation supporting the medical appropriateness for the higher utilization as specified in (1)(d)(B)(v)(I)-(III) to the appropriate authorization authority for PA;

(g) Documentation which supports condition of coverage requirements for codes billed in this rule must be kept on file by the DMEPOS provider and made available to the Division on request;

(h) The appropriate diagnosis code describing the condition that necessitates glucose testing must be included on each claim for the monitor, accessories and supplies;(k) Diabetic supply providers are not prohibited from creating data collection forms in order to gather medically appropriate information; however, the Division will not rely solely on those forms to prove the medical appropriateness of services provided;

(l) A client's medical records must support the justification for supplies dispensed and billed to the Division.

(4) Billing and Payment Guidelines

(a) Diabetic supplies must be billed using a National Drug Code (NDC) and be submitted to the Division via the Web Portal or Point of Sale Systems via pharmacy claim format. Claims submitted on these systems without NDC's will not be processed. This NDC requirement applies to:

(A) Home glucose monitors; and

(B) Blood glucose test reagent strips;

(C) Lancets;

(D) Insulin syringes;

(E) Spring powered lancet devices;

(F) Calibrating solutions and chips.

(b) For specialized glucose monitors and the respective testing supplies, such as those with special features for the visually impaired and those with manual dexterity problems, provider must obtain a prior authorization (PA). After PA the provider can submit a professional claim to the Division.

(c) For orders received from prescribing clinician for blood glucose test reagent strips that exceed utilization guidelines outlined in Section (1)(d)(B)(i-iv) will require PA from the Division. Diabetic supply providers may initially dispense up to utilization limits (i.e. 300 test strips, 300 lancets, and 500 insulin syringes) prior to obtaining PA for orders that exceed utilization guidelines. After PA is issued the remaining amount may be dispensed for a three month time period.

Subject: The Medicaid (EHR) Incentive Program administrative rules govern Division of Medical Assistance Programs payments to certain providers. The Division adopted the rules listed above because Section 4201 of the American Reinvestment and Recovery Act of 2009 established a voluntary program to disburse incentive payments to Medicaid providers who adopt, implement, or upgrade, or become meaningful users of certified electronic health record systems.

These rules outline the Medicaid EHR Incentive Program criteria for participation of eligible professionals and eligible hospitals that adopt, implement, or upgrade, or successfully demonstrate meaningful use of certified electronic health record technology, and are qualified by the program.

Implementation of these rules is pending approval from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services.

410-165-0000

Basis and Purpose

(1) Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR) chapter 410, division 165, govern the Oregon Health Authority (Authority), Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division), Medicaid Electronic Health Record (EHR) Incentive Program. The Medicaid EHR Incentive Program provides incentive payments to eligible providers participating in the Medicaid program who adopt, implement or upgrade, or successfully demonstrate meaningful use of certified EHR technology and who are qualified by the program.

(2) The Medicaid EHR Incentive Program is implemented pursuant to:

(a) The American Reinvestment and Recovery Act of 2009, Pub. L. No. 111-5, section 4201;

(b) The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) federal regulation 42 CFR Part 495 (2010) pursuant to the Social Security Act sections 1903(a)(3)(F) and 1903(t);

(c) The Division's General Rules Program, OAR chapter 410, division 120;

(d) The Authority's General Rules Program, OAR chapter 943, division 120; and

(e) The Department of Human Services' Administrative Services Division and Director's Office Provider Rules, OAR chapter 407, division 120.

410-165-0020

Definitions

For the purposes of the Medicaid Electronic Health Record (EHR) Incentive Program Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR), chapter 410, division 165, the following definitions apply:

(1) Acceptance documents – Written evidence supplied by a provider to demonstrate that the provider met Medicaid EHR Incentive Program eligibility criteria or participation requirements according to standards specified by the Oregon Health Authority's (Authority) Division of Medicaid Assistance Programs.

(2) Acute care hospital – A healthcare facility, including but not limited to a critical access hospital, with a Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' (CMS) certification number (CCN) that ends in 0001-0879 or 1300-1399; and where the average length of patient stay is 25 days or fewer.

(3) Adopt, implement or upgrade:

(a) Acquire, purchase, or secure access to certified EHR technology

(b) Install or commence utilization of certified EHR technology capable of meeting meaningful use requirements; or

(c) Expand the available functionality of certified EHR technology capable of meeting meaningful use requirements at the practice site, including staffing, maintenance, and training, or upgrade from existing EHR technology to certified EHR technology.

(4) Certified EHR technology – As defined in 42 CFR 495.4 (2010) and 45 CFR 170.102 (2010 and 2011) per the Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology EHR certification criteria.

(5) Children's hospital – A separately certified hospital, either free-standing or hospital-within hospital that has a CCN that ends in 3300-3399; and predominantly treats individuals under 21 years of age.

(6) Dentist – As defined in OAR 410-120-0000; and as defined in 42 CFR 440.100.

(7) Eligible hospital – An acute care hospital with at least 10% Medicaid patient volume or a children's hospital.

(8) Eligible professional – A physician; a dentist; a nurse practitioner, including a nurse-midwife nurse practitioner; or a physician assistant practicing in a Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) led by a physician assistant or a Rural Health Clinic (RHC), that is so led by a physician assistant, and meets patient volume requirements described in OAR 410-165-0060.

(9) Eligible provider – Eligible hospital or eligible professional.

(10) Encounter:

(a) For an eligible hospital either may apply:

(A) Services rendered to an individual per inpatient discharge; or

(B) Services rendered in an emergency department on any one day;

(b) For an eligible professional, services rendered to an individual on any one day.

(11) Enrolled provider – A hospital or health care practitioner who is actively registered with the Authority pursuant to OAR 407-120-0320.

(12) Entity promoting the adoption of certified EHR technology – An entity, designated by the Authority, that promotes the adoption of certified EHR technology by enabling: oversight of the business, operational and legal issues involved in the adoption and implementation of certified EHR technology; or the exchange and use of electronic clinical and administrative data between participating providers, in a secure manner, including but not limited to maintaining the physical and organizational relationship integral to the adoption of certified EHR technology by eligible providers.

(13) Federal fiscal year (FFY) – October 1 to September 30.

(14) Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) – As defined in OAR 410-120-0000.

(15) Group – A clinic as defined in OAR 407-120-0100.

(16) Hospital-based – An eligibility criterion that excludes an eligible professional from participating in the Medicaid EHR Incentive Program when an eligible professional furnishes 90 percent or more of the eligible professional's Medicaid covered services in a hospital emergency room (place of service code 23), or inpatient hospital (place of service code 21) in the calendar year (CY) preceding the payment year.

(17) Individuals receiving Medicaid – Individuals served by an eligible provider where the services rendered would qualify under the Medicaid encounter definition.

(18) Meaningful EHR user – An eligible provider that, for an EHR reporting period for a payment year, demonstrates (in accordance with 42 CFR 495.8) meaningful use of certified EHR technology by meeting the applicable objectives and associated measures in 42 CFR 495.6 and as prescribed by 42 CFR Part 495.

(19) Medicaid encounter:

(a) For an eligible hospital either may apply:

(A) Services rendered to an individual per inpatient discharge where Medicaid (or a Medicaid demonstration project approved under the Social Security Act section 1115) paid for part or all of the service; or Medicaid (or a Medicaid demonstration project approved under the Social Security Act section 1115) paid all or part of the individual's premiums, copayments, or cost-sharing; or

(B) Services rendered in an emergency department on any one day where Medicaid (or a Medicaid demonstration project approved under the Social Security Act section 1115) paid for part or all of the service; or Medicaid (or a Medicaid demonstration project approved under the Social Security Act section 1115) paid all or part of the individual's premiums, copayments, and cost-sharing;

(b) For an eligible professional either may apply:

(A) Services rendered to an individual on any one day where Medicaid (or a Medicaid demonstration project approved under the Social Security Act section 1115) paid for part or all of the service; or

(B) Medicaid (or a Medicaid demonstration project approved under the Social Security Act section 1115) paid all or part of the individual's premiums, copayments, and cost-sharing.

(20) National Provider Identifier – As defined in 45 CFR Part 160 and OAR 410-120-0000.

(21) Needy individual – Individuals served by an eligible professional where the services rendered qualify under the needy individual encounter definition.

(22) Needy individual encounter – Services rendered to an individual on any one day where:

(a) Medicaid or Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) (or a Medicaid or CHIP demonstration project approved under the Social Security Act section 1115) paid for part or all of the service;

(b) Medicaid or CHIP (or a Medicaid or CHIP demonstration project approved under the Social Security Act section 1115) paid all or part of the individual's premiums, copayments, or cost-sharing;

(c) The services were furnished at no cost, and calculated consistent with 42 CFR 495.310(h); or

(d) The services were paid for at a reduced cost based on a sliding scale determined by the individual's ability to pay.

(23) Nurse practitioner – As defined in OAR 410-120-0000; and as defined in 42 CFR 440.166.

(24) Panel – A managed care panel, medical or health home program panel, or similar provider structure with capitation or case assignment that assigns patients to providers.

(25) Payment year –

(a) The CY for an eligible professional; or

(b) The FFY for an eligible hospital.

(26) Pediatrician – A physician who predominately treats individuals under 21.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(27) Physician – As defined in OAR 410-120-0000; and as defined in 42 CFR 440.50.

(28) Physician assistant – As defined in OAR 410-120-0000; and as defined in 42 CFR 440.60.

(29) Practices predominately – An eligibility criterion to permit use of needy individual patient volume that applies when more than 50 percent of an eligible professional's total patient encounters over a period of six months in the calendar year preceding the payment year occur at an FQHC or RHC.

(30) Preparer – A person authorized by a provider to act on behalf of the provider to complete an application for a Medicaid EHR incentive via an electronic media connection with the Authority.

(31) Provider Web Portal – The Department of Human Services' web site that provides a secure gateway for authorized providers to apply for the Medicaid EHR Incentive Program.

(32) Qualify – The Medicaid EHR Incentive Program determines an eligible provider meets the eligibility criteria and participation requirements to receive a Medicaid EHR incentive payment for the payment year.

(33) Rural Health Clinic (RHC) – A clinic located in a rural and medically underserved community, designated as an RHC by CMS. Payment by Medicare and Medicaid to an RHC is on a cost-related basis for outpatient physician and certain non-physician services.

(34) So led – When an FQHC or RHC has a physician assistant who is:

- (a) The primary provider in the clinic;
- (b) A clinical or medical director at the clinical site of practice; or
- (c) An owner of the RHC.

Application

(1) An eligible provider must apply to the Medicaid Electronic Health Record (EHR) Incentive Program each year that the eligible provider seeks an incentive payment. In order to apply, an eligible provider must:

- (a) Register with the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) for each payment year;
- (b) Apply to the Oregon Medicaid EHR Incentive Program after registering with CMS for each payment year; and
- (c) Attest, and ensure that the eligible provider's preparer attests, that:
  - (A) The information submitted is true, accurate, and complete; and
  - (B) Any falsification or concealment of a material fact may be prosecuted under federal and state laws;
- (d) Maintain, for a period of no less than seven years from the date of completed application, complete, accurate, and unaltered copies of all acceptance documents associated with all data transmissions and attestations. The information maintained must include, at a minimum documentation to support:

(A) The adoption, implementation, or upgrade of certified EHR technology including, but not limited to the purchase agreement or contract;

(B) Demonstration of meaningful use for the year corresponding to the payment year;

(C) Patient volume for the year corresponding to the payment year; and

(D) The eligible hospital's payment calculation data including, but not limited to Medicare cost reports.

(2) An eligible provider may submit to Oregon the acceptance documents to support attestation at application.

(3) The Medicaid EHR Incentive Program reviews the completed application and the documentation provided to determine if the eligible provider qualifies for an incentive payment:

(a) The information provided may be subject to verification by the program;

(b) The Medicaid EHR Incentive Program determines if the eligible provider's information complies with the eligibility criteria and participation requirements;

(c) The program notifies the eligible provider about the incentive payment determination;

(d) The Oregon Health Authority (Authority) may reduce the incentive payment to pay off debt if an eligible provider or incentive payment recipient owes a debt under a collection mandate to the state of Oregon. The incentive payment is considered paid to the eligible provider even when part or all of the incentive may offset the debt. The Authority may not reduce the incentive payment amount for any other purpose unless permitted or required by federal or state regulation; and

(e) The Authority distributes 1099 forms to the tax identification number designated to receive the Medicaid EHR incentive payment.

410-150-0080

Meaningful Use

(1) An eligible provider must demonstrate being a meaningful Electronic Health Record (EHR) user as prescribed by 42 CFR 495.4 and 42 CFR 495.8.

(2) An eligible provider must satisfy meaningful use objectives and measures as prescribed by 42 CFR 495.6. The state of Oregon has an exception that requires an eligible provider to satisfy the objective "Capability to submit electronic data to immunization registries or immunization information systems and actual submission in accordance with applicable law and practice" as part of the core requirements for Stage 1:

(a) If an eligible hospital is deemed to be a meaningful EHR user by Medicare for a payment year, then the eligible hospital is automatically deemed to be a meaningful EHR user for the Medicaid EHR Incentive Program for the same payment year;

(b) An eligible hospital deemed to be a meaningful EHR user by Medicare for a payment year does not have to meet Oregon's exception to qualify for the Medicaid EHR incentive payment for the same payment year.

410-165-0100

Participation and Incentive Payments

(1) An eligible provider applying for a Medicaid Electronic Health Record (EHR) incentive payment must meet the Medicaid EHR Incentive Program eligibility criteria and participation requirements for each year that the eligible provider applies to qualify for an incentive payment:

(a) An eligible provider must meet the eligibility criteria for each payment year of:

(A) Type of eligible provider;

(B) Patient volume minimum; and

(C) Certified EHR technology requirements for the first payment year and meaningful use requirements for the subsequent payment years;

(b) An eligible provider must meet the participation requirements for each payment year including:

(A) Be an enrolled Medicaid provider with the Oregon Health Authority's (Authority) Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division);

(B) Provide up to date provider information to the Division;

(C) Possess an active professional license and comply with all licensing statutes and regulations within the state where the eligible provider practices;

(D) Possess an active Provider Web Portal account;

(E) Be able to receive electronic funds transfer from the Authority; and

(F) Comply with all applicable Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR), including chapter 407, division 120, chapter 410, division 120, and chapter 943, division 120;

(c) An eligible professional may reassign the entire amount of the incentive payment to:

(A) The eligible professional's employer with which the eligible professional has a contractual arrangement allowing the employer to bill and receive payments for the eligible professional's covered professional services;

(B) An entity with which the eligible professional has a contractual arrangement allowing the entity to bill and receive payments for the eligible professional's covered professional services; or

(C) An entity promoting the adoption of certified EHR technology.

(2) An eligible professional must follow the Medicaid EHR Incentive Program participation conditions including an eligible professional must:

(a) Receive an incentive payment from only one state for a payment year;

(b) Only receive an incentive payment from either Medicare or Medicaid for a payment year, but not both;

(c) Not receive more than the maximum incentive amount of $63,750 over a six-year period; or the maximum incentive of $42,500 over a six-year period if the eligible professional qualifies as a pediatrician who meets the 20 percent patient volume minimum and less than the 30 percent patient volume;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

- (d) Participate in the Medicaid EHR Incentive Program:
- (A) Starting as early as calendar year (CY) 2011, but no later than CY 2016;
- (B) Ending no later than CY 2021;
- (C) For a maximum of six years; and
- (D) On a consecutive or non-consecutive annual basis;
- (e) Be allowed to switch between the Medicare and Medicaid EHR Incentive Program only one time after receiving at least one incentive payment, and only for a payment year before 2015.
- (3) Payments are disbursed to an eligible professional on a rolling basis following verification of eligibility for the payment year:
- (a) An eligible professional is paid an incentive amount for the corresponding payment year for each year of qualified participation in the Medicaid EHR Incentive Program;
- (b) The payment structure is as follows for:
- (A) An eligible professional qualifying with 30 percent minimum patient volume:
- (i) The first payment year incentive amount is $21,250; and
- (ii) The second, third, fourth, fifth, or sixth payment year incentive amount is $8,500; or
- (B) An eligible pediatrician qualifying with 20 percent, but less than 30 percent minimum patient volume:
- (i) The first payment year incentive amount is $14,167; and
- (ii) The second, third, fourth, fifth, or sixth payment year incentive amount is $5,667.
- (4) An eligible hospital must follow the Medicaid EHR Incentive Program participation conditions including that the eligible hospital:
- (a) Receives a Medicaid EHR incentive payment from only one state for a payment year;
- (b) May participate in both the Medicare and Medicaid EHR Incentive Programs if the eligible hospital meets all eligibility criteria for the payment year for both programs;
- (c) Participates in the Medicaid EHR Incentive Program:
- (A) Starting as early as federal fiscal year (FFY) 2011 but no later than FFY 2016;
- (B) Ending no later than FFY 2021;
- (C) For a maximum of three years;
- (D) On a consecutive or non-consecutive annual basis for federal fiscal years prior to FFY 2016; and
- (E) On a consecutive annual basis for federal fiscal years starting in FFY 2016;
- (d) A multi-site hospital with one Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' Certification Number is considered one hospital for purposes of calculating payment.
- (5) Payments are disbursed to an eligible hospital on a rolling basis following verification of eligibility for the payment year. An eligible hospital is paid the aggregate incentive amount over three years of qualified participation in the Medicaid EHR Incentive Program:
- (a) The payment structure as listed in Table 165-0100-1 is as follows:
- (A) The first payment year incentive amount is equal to 50% of the aggregate amount;
- (B) The second payment year incentive amount is equal to 40% of the aggregate amount; and
- (C) The third payment year incentive amount is equal to 10% of the aggregate amount;
- (b) The aggregate EHR hospital incentive amount is calculated as the product of the "overall EHR amount" times the "Medicaid Share" as listed in Table 165-00100-2. The aggregate amount is calculated once, for the first year participation, and then paid over three years according to the payment schedule:
- (A) The overall EHR amount for an eligible hospital is based upon a theoretical four years of payment the hospital would receive, and is the sum of the following calculation performed for each of such four years. For each year, the overall EHR amount is the product of the initial amount, the Medicare share and the transition factor:
- (i) The initial amount as listed in Table 165-0100-3 is equal to the sum of the base amount, which is set at $2,000,000 for each of the theoretical four years, plus the discharge-related amount, that is calculated for each of the theoretical four years:
- (I) The discharge-related amount is $200 per discharge for the 1,150th through the 23,000th discharge, based upon the total discharges for the eligible hospital (regardless of source of payment) from the hospital fiscal year that ends during the FFY prior to the fiscal year that serves as the first payment year. No discharge-related amount is added for discharges prior to the 1,150th or any discharges after the 23,000th;

(II) For purposes of calculating the discharge-related amount for the last three of the theoretical four years of payment, discharges are assumed to increase each year by the provider's average annual rate of growth; negative rates of growth must also be applied. Average annual rate of growth is calculated as the average of the annual rate of growth in total discharges for the most recent three years for which data are available per year.

- (ii) The Medicare share that equals 1;
- (iii) The transition factor, that equals:
- (I) 1 for the first of the theoretical four years;
- (II) 0.75 for the second of the theoretical four years;
- (III) 0.5 for the third of the theoretical four years; and
- (IV) 0.25 for the fourth of the theoretical four years;
- (B) The Medicaid share for an eligible hospital is equal to a fraction:
- (i) The numerator for the FFY and with respect to the eligible hospital is the sum of:
- (I) The estimated number of inpatient-bed-days that are attributable to Medicaid individuals; and
- (II) The estimated number of inpatient-bed-days that are attributable to individuals who are enrolled in a managed care organization, a pre-paid inpatient health plan, or a pre-paid ambulatory health plan administered under 42 CFR Part 438;
- (ii) The denominator is the product of:
- (I) The estimated total number of inpatient-bed-days with respect to the eligible hospital during such period; and
- (II) The estimated total amount of the eligible hospital's charges during such period, not including any charges that are attributable to charity care, divided by the estimated total amount of the hospital's charges during such period;
- (iii) In computing inpatient-bed-days for the Medicaid share, an eligible hospital may not include the following:
- (I) Estimated inpatient-bed-days attributable to individuals that may be made under Medicare Part A; or
- (II) Inpatient-bed-days attributable to individuals who are enrolled with a Medicare Advantage organization under Medicare Part C;
- (iv) If an eligible hospital's charity care data necessary to calculate the portion of the formula for the Medicaid share are not available, the eligible hospital's data on uncompensated care may be used to determine an appropriate proxy for charity care, but must include a downward adjustment to eliminate bad debt from uncompensated care data if bad debt is not otherwise differentiated from uncompensated care. Auditable data sources must be used; and
- (v) If an eligible hospital's data necessary to determine the inpatient bed-days attributable to Medicaid managed care patients are not available, that amount is deemed to equal 0. In the absence of an eligible hospital's data necessary to compute the percentage of inpatient bed days that are not charity care as described under (B)(ii)(II) in this section, that amount is deemed to be 1.

Appeals

(1) The appeals process for the Medicaid Electronic Health Record (EHR) Incentive Program is pursuant to 42 CFR 495.370 and the Oregon Health Authority's (Authority) Provider Appeals Rules in the Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR) chapter 410, division 120.

(2) For purposes of OAR chapter 410, division 165, a provider who applies for a Medicaid EHR incentive payment may appeal a decision by the Medicaid EHR Incentive Program as outlined in the Authority's Division of Medical Assistance Programs' Provider Appeal Rules (OAR chapter 410, division 120). The provider's appeal must note the specific reason for the appeal, which must be due to:

- (a) An incentive payment;
- (b) An incentive payment amount;
- (c) A provider eligibility determination;
- (d) The demonstration of adopting, implementing or upgrading; or
- (e) Meaningful use eligibility.

Exclusions and Limitations

(1) The following items are not covered for payment by the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division):

(a) Drug products for diagnoses below the funded line on the Health Services Commission Prioritized List or an excluded service under Oregon Health Plan (OHP) coverage;

(b) Home pregnancy kits;

(c) Fluoride for individuals over 18 years of age;

(d) Expired drug products;

(e) Drug products from non-rebatable manufacturers, with the exception of selected oral nutritionals, vitamins, and vaccines;

(f) Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients (APIs) and Excipients as described by Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS);

(g) Drug products that are not assigned a National Drug Code (NDC) number;

(h) Drug products that are not approved by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA);

(i) Drug products dispensed for Citizen/Alien-Waived Emergency Medical client benefit type;

(j) Drug Efficacy Study Implementation (DESI) drugs (see OAR 410-121-0420);

(k) Medicare Part D covered drugs or classes of drugs for fully dual eligible clients.

(2) Effective on or after April 1, 2008, Section 1903(i) of the Social Security Act requires that written (nonelectronic) prescriptions for covered outpatient drugs for Medicaid clients be executed on a tamper-resistant pad in order to be eligible for federal matching funds. To meet this requirement, the Division shall only reimburse for covered Medicaid outpatient drugs only when the written (nonelectronic) prescription is executed on a tamper-resistant pad, or the prescription is electronically submitted to the pharmacy.

(3) Drugs requiring a skilled medical professional for safe administration will be billed by the medical professional's office; unless otherwise specified by the Division.

Reimbursement

(1) The Division shall pay the lesser of the provider's usual charge to the general public for a drug or the estimated acquisition cost (EAC) plus a dispensing fee. The EAC is defined by the Division as the lesser of:

(a) The Average Actual Acquisition Cost (AAAC) of the drug;

(b) In cases where no AAAC is available, the Division shall reimburse at Wholesale Acquisition Cost (WAC);

(c) The Federally Mandated Upper Limit (FUL) for certain multiple source drugs as established and published by CMS;

(d) 340B covered entities and federally qualified health centers or their contracted agents that fill Medicaid patient prescriptions with drugs purchased at the prices authorized under Section 340B of the Public Health Service Act must bill Medicaid for the actual acquisition cost.

(2) The Division shall revise its EAC file weekly. Pharmacies must make available to the Division, or its contractor, any information necessary to determine the pharmacy's actual acquisition cost of drug products dispensed to the Division's clients.

(3) The AAAC shall serve as the basis for reimbursement. Individual pharmacies are required to participate in an AAC survey conducted by the Division, or its contractor, not more than one time per every 18 to 24-month period. Pharmacies that do not respond to AAC survey requests may be subject to disenrollment as providers for the Oregon Health Plan.

(4) If a provider is unable to purchase a particular drug product at the AAAC the provider shall report this to the Division or its contractor for further review through a dispute resolution process. Providers may submit inquiries via telephone, facsimile, via electronic mail, or the contractor's secure web site: <http://or.msle.com/RequestRateReview.aspx>:

(a) The Division or its contractor shall respond to all inquiries or complaints within 24 hours and resolve the issue within 5 business days;

(b) The pricing dispute resolution process shall include the Division or its contractor verifying the accuracy of pricing to ensure consistency with marketplace pricing and drug availability;

(c) Price adjustments shall be made during the next weekly pricing update.

(5) Payment for covered fee-for-service drug products shall be the lesser of the billed amount or the EAC of the generic form, minus applicable copayments, plus a professional dispensing fee.

(6) Payment for trade name forms of multiple source products:

(a) Shall be the EAC of the trade name form, minus applicable copayments, plus a professional dispensing fee;

(b) The Division shall pay only if the prescribing practitioner has received a prior authorization for the trade name drug, or;

(c) The brand drug is listed on the Division's Preferred Drug List.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(7) No professional dispensing fee is allowed for dispensing pill splitters/cutters or diabetic supplies and glucose monitors which are exempt from co-payments under OHP General Rules.

(8) Payment for pill splitters/cutters with a National Drug Code (NDC) number shall be reimbursed at the lesser of the billed amount or the EAC, and:

(a) A practitioner prescription is required, and;

(b) The Division shall only pay for one pill splitter/cutter per client in a twelve-month period.

(9) A prescription is required for glucose monitors and related diabetic supplies.

(10) Payment for glucose monitors and related diabetic supplies billed with an NDC shall be reimbursed at a percentage of Medicare's rate for the HCPCS procedure code. The Division's reimbursement rates are listed in the DMAP fee schedule located at: http://www.oregon.gov/DHS/healthplan/data\_pubs/feeschedule/downloads.shtml

410-121-0157

Participation in the Medicaid Drug Rebate Program

(1) The Oregon Medicaid Pharmaceutical Services Program is a participant in the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) Medicaid Drug Rebate Program, created by the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (OBRA) of 1990. The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA) enacted on March 23, 2010 and the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, (HCERA) enacted on March 30, 2010, together called the Affordable Care Act, requires the Division to collect drug rebates for covered outpatient drugs dispensed to enrollees of Medicaid managed care organizations, (MCOs). The Medicaid Drug Rebate Program requires a drug manufacturer to enter into and have in effect a national rebate agreement with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services for States to receive federal funding for outpatient drugs dispensed to Medicaid patients. The drug rebate program is administered by CMS's Center for Medicaid and State Operations (CMSO). Pharmaceutical companies participating in this program have signed agreements with CMS to provide rebates to the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) on all their drug products. The Division will reimburse providers only for outpatient drug products manufactured or labeled by companies participating in this program.

(2) Documents in rule by reference: Names and Label Code numbers for participants in the Medicaid Drug Rebate Program are the responsibility of and maintained by CMS. The Division receives this information from CMS in the form of numbered and dated Releases. The Division includes in rule by reference, the CMS Releases online at: available on the Oregon Health Authority's website: www.dhs.state.or.us/policy/healthplan/guides/pharmacy/main.html. CMS Releases Drug Product Data and Drug Company Contact information that are available at: www.cms.hhs.gov/MedicaidDrugRebateProgram/02\_StateReleases.asp

(3) Retroactive effective dates: The CMS Medicaid Drug Rebate Program experiences frequent changes in participation and often this information is submitted to the Division after the effective date(s) of some changes. Therefore, certain participant additions and deletions may be effective retroactively. See specific instructions in the CMS Releases for appropriate effective date(s) of changes.

(4) The Division contracts with a Pharmacy Benefit Manager (PBM) to manage the Medicaid Rebate Dispute Resolution program. Pharmacy providers must verify the accuracy of their Medicaid pharmacy claims with the PBM within 30 days of request in instances where drug manufacturers dispute their claim information. Verification can be photocopies of drug invoices showing that the billed products were in stock during the time of the date of service.

(5) The actual National Drug Code (NDC) dispensed and the actual metric decimal quantity dispensed, must be billed.

410-121-0160

Dispensing Fees

(1) Professional dispensing fees allowable for services shall be based on an individual pharmacy's annual claims volume as follows:

(a) Less than 49,999 claims a year = $14.01;

(b) Between 50,000 and 69,999 claims per year = $10.14;

(c) 70,000 or more claims per year = $9.68;

(2) All Division enrolled pharmacies shall be required to complete an annual survey that collects claim volumes from enrolled pharmacies and other information from the previous 12 month period to determine the appropriate dispensing fee reimbursement:

(a) Claims volume shall be stated by total OHP covered prescriptions and claims from all payer types;

(b) Survey activities shall be conducted by either the Division or its contractor and must be completed and returned by pharmacies within 14 days of receipt;

(c) Completed surveys must be signed with a letter of attestation by:

(A) The store owner or majority owner for independent pharmacies;

(B) The Pharmacy manager and the store manager or a corporate officer for chain pharmacies;

(d) Pharmacies that fail to respond to the survey or do not include the letter of attestation shall default to the lowest dispensing tier.

(3) Once a tier is established for a calendar year, the pharmacy's dispensing fee shall remain in that tier until the next annual claims volume survey is conducted.

(4) Pharmacies newly enrolled with the Division shall be defaulted to the lowest dispensing tier until the next claims volume survey is conducted.

Pharmacy Based Immunization Delivery

(1) When administering immunizations for adults (ages 19+) the pharmacy can bill either:

(a) Through Point-of-Sale (POS) using the appropriate National Drug Code (NDC) for the serum and the administration fee shall automatically be applied equivalent to Current Procedural Terminology (CPT) codes 90470-90474 ; or

(b) Bill on a CMS-1500 claim form using the appropriate immunization CPT code for the serum.

(2) If using a CMS-1500, you must also include:

(a) An ICD-9 diagnosis in field 21, and;

(b) The diagnosis code must be shown to the highest degree of specificity, and;

(c) Use the appropriate CPT code for the serum, code ranges 90476-90749; and

(d) Use the appropriate CPT code for the administration, code ranges 90470-90474.

(3) Pursuant to ORS 689.205 and the Board of Pharmacy administrative rules 855-019-0270 through 855-019-0290; pharmacists may prescribe and administer vaccines to children who are from the age of 11 through 18 years of age only if the pharmacy is enrolled in the Vaccines for Children (VFC) Program. The Division will not reimburse providers the cost of privately purchased vaccination.

(4) If the pharmacy is enrolled in the VFC Program, then only the administration fee shall be reimbursed by the Division and must be billed on a CMS-1500 claim form. For detailed information on billing for the VFC Program, refer to Medical Surgical Services OAR 410-130-0255.

Billing Forms

Guidelines for using the Prescription Drug Invoice 5.1 Universal Claim Form:

(1) When a paper claim form is needed, this form is used to bill for all pharmacy services, home blood glucose monitors, and related diabetic supplies. These services must be billed with a National Drug Code (NDC);

(2) The provider may bill on the form when a valid Medical Care Identification has been presented (Refer to OAR 410-120-1140 Verification of Eligibility);

(3) All completed 5.1 Universal Claim Forms must be mailed to the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division);

(4) All other durable medical equipment and certain Enteral/Parenteral nutrition and IV services must be billed on the CMS-1500, using the billing instructions found in the Division's Durable Medical Equipment and Medical Supplies administrative rules (Division 122) and Supplemental Information, and the Division's Home Enteral/Parenteral Nutrition and IV Services Administrative rules (Division 148) and Supplemental Information. These services are billed with HCPCS procedure codes.

Definitions

(1) Adapted vehicle – Vehicle specifically designed or modified to transport passengers with disabilities.

(2) Adequate recordkeeping – In addition to General Rules OAR 410-120-0000, Definitions and 410-120-1360, Requirements for financial, clinical, and other records, documentation in the student's educational record and on the Individualized Education Plan (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) showing the necessary and appropriate health services provided to the student detailed in the School-Based Health Services (SBHS) administrative rules (410-133-0000 and 410-133-0320).

(3) Agent – means a third party or organization that contracts with a provider, allied agency, or Prepaid Health Plan (PHP) to perform designated services in order to facilitate a transaction or conduct other business functions on its behalf. Agents include billing agents, claims clearinghouses, vendors, billing services, service bureaus, and accounts receivable management firms. Agents may also be clinics, group practices, and facilities that submit billings on behalf of providers but the payment is made to a provider, including the following: an employer of a provider, if a provider is required as a condition of employment to turn over his fees to the employer; the facility in which the service is provided, if a provider has a contract under which the facility submits the claim; or a foundation, plan, or similar organization operating an organized health care delivery system, if a provider has a contract under which the organization submits the claim. Agents may also include electronic data transmission submitters.

(4) Allied Agency – Local and regional governmental agencies and regional authorities that contract with the Department of Human Services (Department) or the Oregon Health Authority (Authority) to provide the delivery of services to covered individuals. (e.g., local mental health authority, community mental health program, Oregon Youth Authority, Department of Corrections, local health departments, public schools, Education Service Districts (ESDs), developmental disability service programs, Area Agencies on Aging (AAAs), federally recognized American Indian tribes).

(5) Assessment – A process of obtaining information to determine if a student qualifies for or continues to qualify for the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) covered school-based health services.

(6) Assistive technology service – Services provided by medically qualified staff within the scope of practice under State law with training and expertise in the use of assistive technology (see 410-133-0080 Coverage and 410-133-0200 Not Covered Services in these rules).

(7) Audiologist – A person licensed to practice audiology by the State Board of Examiners for Speech Pathology and Audiology or holds a Certificate of Clinical Competency (CCC) from the American Speech and Hearing Association (ASHA) and meet the requirements in 42 CFR 440.110.

(8) Audiology – Assessment of children with hearing loss; determination of the range, nature and degree of hearing loss, including the referral for medical or other professional attention for restoration or rehabilitation due to hearing disorders; provision of rehabilitative activities, such as language restoration or rehabilitation, auditory training, hearing evaluation and speech conversation, and determination of the child's need for individual amplification; obtaining and interpreting information; and coordinating care and integrating services relative to the student receiving services.

(9) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority (Please see General Rules 410-120-0000 Acronyms and Definitions)

(10) Automated Voice Response (AVR) – A computer system that provides information on clients' current eligibility status from the Division of Medical Assistance Programs by computerized phone or web-based response.

(11) Benefit Package – The "package" of covered health care services for which the Medicaid-eligible student is eligible. (See General Rules OAR 410-120-1210 Medical Assistance Benefit Packages and Delivery System)

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(12) Billing agent or billing service – Third party or organization that contracts with a provider to perform designated services in order to facilitate an Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) transaction on behalf of the provider. Also see definition for Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) Submitter

(13) Billing Provider (BP) – A person, agent, business, corporation, clinic, group, institution, or other entity who submits claims to and/or receives payment from the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) on behalf of a performing provider and has been delegated the authority to obligate or act on behalf of the performing provider. (See the Department-wide Support Services (DWSS) administrative rules in, chapter 407, division 120 Provider Rules, and the Division's General Rules OAR 410-120-1260 and SBHS OAR 410-133-0140.)

(14) Billing time limit – Refers to the rules concerning the period of time allowed to bill services to the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) see General Rules OAR 410-120-1300, Timely Submission of Claims. In general, those rules require initial submission within 12 months of the date of service or 18 months for resubmission.

(15) Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) – The federal regulatory agency for Medicaid programs.

(16) CMS-1500 – The standard federal billing form used to bill medical services.

(17) Certification – See “licensure.”

(18) Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) – A federal and state funded portion of the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) established by Title XXI of the Social Security Act and administered in Oregon by the Oregon Health Authority (Authority) Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division).

(19) Clinical Social Work Associate (CSWA) – A person working toward Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) licensure in compliance with Division 20, Procedure for Certification and Licensing, OAR 877-20-0000 through OAR 877-20-0060.

(20) Coordinated care – Services directly related to covered school-based health services (SBHS) specified in the individualized education program (IEP) or individualized family service plan (IFSP), performed by medically qualified staff, and allowed under OAR 410-133-0080, Coverage, to manage integration of those health services in an education setting. Coordinated care includes the following activities:

(a) Conference – The portion of a conference in a scheduled meeting, between medically qualified staff and interested parties, to develop, review, or revise components of school-based health services provided to a Medicaid-eligible student for the purpose to establish, re-establish or terminate a Medicaid covered health service on a Medicaid-eligible student's Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP); or to develop, review, or revise components of a health service currently provided to a Medicaid-eligible student to determine whether or not those covered health services continue to meet the student's needs as specified on the student's IEP or IFSP.

(b) Consultation – performed by medically qualified staff within the scope of practice providing technical assistance to or conferring with, special education providers, physicians, and families to assist them in providing a covered health service for Medicaid-eligible students related to a specific health service and health service goals and objectives in the individualized education program (IEP) or individualized family service plan (IFSP).

(c) Physician coordinated care – Meeting or communication with a physician in reference to oversight of care and treatment provided for a health service specified on a Medicaid-eligible student's individualized education program (IEP) or individualized family service plan (IFSP).

(21) Cost Determination – The process of establishing an annual discipline fee (cost rate), based on the prior-year actual audited costs, used by an EA for the purpose of billing for covered school-based health services (see 410-133-0245 Cost Determination and Payment in these rules).

(22) Covered entity – means a health plan, health care clearing house, health care provider, or allied agency that transmits any health information in electronic form in connection with a transaction, including direct data entry (DDE), and who must comply with the National Provider Identifier (NPI) requirements of 45 CFR 162.402 through 162.414. When a school provides covered SBHS services in the normal course of business and bills Medicaid for reimbursed covered transactions electronically in connection with that health care such as electronic claims, it is then a covered entity and must comply with the HIPAA Administrative Simplification Rules for Transactions and Code sets and Identifiers with respect to its transactions.

(23) Current Procedural Terminology (CPT) – The American Medical Association's CPT is a listing of descriptive terms and identifying codes for reporting medical services and procedures performed by physicians and other health care providers. See the Division of Medical Assistance Programs' General Rules Program (OAR 410-120-0000 Definitions).

(24) Data transmission – means the transfer or exchange of data between the Department and a web portal or electronic data interchange (EDI) submitter by means of an information system which is compatible for that purpose and includes without limitation, web portal, EDI, electronic remittance advice (ERA), or electronic media claims (EMC) transmissions.

(25) Delegated Health Care Aide – A non-licensed person trained and supervised by a licensed registered nurse (RN) or nurse practitioner (NP) to perform selected tasks of nursing care specific to the Medicaid-eligible student identified in the nursing plan of care pursuant to the Individualized Education Program/Individualized Family Service Plan (IEP/IFSP).

(26) Delegation of nursing task – A selected nursing task that is performed by an unlicensed person, trained and monitored by a licensed RN. Delegation and supervision of selected nursing tasks must comply with Oregon Administrative Rules (OARs), Board of Nursing, chapter 851, division(s) 45 and 47. A school medical (SM) provider must maintain documentation of the actual delegation, training, supervision and provision of the nursing service billed to Medicaid.

(27) “Department” means the Department of Human Services established in OAR chapter 407, including any divisions, programs and offices as may be established therein.

(28) Diagnosis code – As identified in the International Classification of Diseases 9th Revision, Clinical Modification (ICD-9-CM), the primary Diagnosis Code is shown in all billing claims, unless specifically excluded in individual Division provider rule(s). Where they exist, diagnosis codes shall be shown to the degree of specificity outlined in OAR 410-120-1280, Billing.

(29) Direct services – Face-to-face delivery of health services between the medically qualified staff who is the service provider and a Medicaid-eligible student.

(30) Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) – A Division within the Oregon Health Authority (Authority); the Division is responsible for coordinating the medical assistance programs within the State of Oregon including the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) Medicaid demonstration, the State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP- Title XXI), and several other programs.

(31) Early Intervention/Early Childhood Special Education (EI/ECSE) – EI is a program designed to address the unique needs of a child age 0-3 years and ECSE is a program for preschool children with a disability ages 3-5 years or eligible for Kindergarten.

(32) Educational Agency (EA) – For purposes of these rules, any public school, school district, Education Service District (ESD), state institution, or youth care center providing educational services to students, birth to age 21 through grade 12, that receives federal or state funds either directly or by contract or subcontract with the Oregon Department of Education (ODE).

(33) Education records – Those records, files, documents and other materials which contain information directly related to a student and maintained by an Education Agency (EA) or by a person acting for such EA as set forth in OAR 581-021-0220. (A school-based health services (SBHS) provider is required to keep and maintain supporting documentation for Medicaid reimbursed school-based health services for a period of seven (7) years; this documentation is part of the student's education record but may be filed and kept separately by school health professionals.) See 410-133-0320 Documentation and Recordkeeping Requirements in these rules.

(34) Education Service District (ESD) – An education agency established to offer a resource pool of cost-effective, education-related, physical or mental health-related, state-mandated services to multiple local school districts within a geographic area described in ORS 334.010

(35) Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) – The exchange of business documents from application to application in a federally mandated format or, if no federal standard has been promulgated, using bulk transmission processes and other formats as the Department designates for EDI transactions. For purposes of these rules (OAR 407-120-0100 through 407-120-0200), EDI does not include electronic transmission by web portal.

(36) EDI submitter – An Individual or an entity authorized to establish an electronic media connection with the Department to conduct an EDI transaction. An EDI submitter may be a trading partner or an agent of a trading partner. Also see definition for billing agent in these rules.

(37) Electronic Verification System (EVS) – Eligibility information that have met the legal and technical specifications of the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) in order to offer eligibility information to enrolled Division providers.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(38) Eligibility for special education services – A determination by a designated education agency (EA), through a team, that a child meets the eligibility criteria for early intervention (EI), early childhood special education (ECSE) or special education as defined in ORS 343 and OAR chapter 581, division 15.

(39) Evaluation – Evaluations are procedures performed by medically qualified staff to determine whether a Medicaid-eligible student is disabled and the nature and extent of the health services the student needs under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and in accordance with Oregon Department of Education OAR chapter 581 division 15. The Authority can only reimburse evaluations that establish, re-establish or terminate a school-based health services (SBHS) covered health service on a Medicaid-eligible student's Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).

(40) Federal Medical Assistance Percentage (FMAP) – The percentage of federal matching dollars for qualified state medical assistance program expenditures.

(41) Healthcare Common Procedure Coding System (HCPCS) – A method for reporting health care professional services, procedures, and supplies. HCPCS consists of the Level I -American Medical Association's Physician's Current Procedural Terminology (CPT), Level II – National codes, and Level III – Local codes. DMAP uses HCPCS codes. See General Rules (OAR 410-120-1280 Billing).

(42) Health assessment plan (nursing) – Systematic collection of data for the purpose of assessing a Medicaid-eligible student's health or illness status and actual or potential health care needs in the educational setting. Includes taking a nursing history, and an appraisal of the student's health status through interview, information from the family and information from the student's past health or medical record. A SBHS provider is required to keep and maintain the health assessment plan and supporting documentation for Medicaid reimbursed health services described in a Medicaid-eligible student's individualized education program (IEP) or individualized family service plan (IFSP) for a period of seven (7) years, as part of the student's education record, which may be filed and kept separately by school health professionals. (See 410-133-0320 Documentation and Recordkeeping Requirements.)

(43) Health care practitioner – A person licensed pursuant to state law to engage in the provision of health care services within the scope of the health care practitioner's license and/or certification standards established by their health licensing agency. Medical provider and health care practitioner are interchangeable terms. See Definition for medical provider in these rules.

(44) Health services – Medical evaluation services provided by a physician for diagnostic and evaluation purposes for a Medicaid-eligible student that is found eligible under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and leads to an established Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Individualized Family service Plan (IFSP), physical or mental health evaluations, and assessment or treatment performed by medically qualified staff to achieve the goals set forth in a Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP. A covered health service is one that is covered by the medical assistance program and is provided to enable the Medicaid-eligible student to benefit from a special education program (age 3-21) or to achieve developmental milestones in an early intervention program (age 0-3). "Health services" are synonymous with "medical services" in these rules. To determine whether a health service specified on an Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) is a covered School-Based Health Service (SBHS) (See 410-133-0080 Coverage and 410-133-0200 Not Covered Services).

(45) Health Services Commission (HSC) – An eleven member commission that is charged with reporting to the Governor the ranking of health benefits from most to least important, and representing the comparable benefits of each service to the entire population to be serviced.

(46) ID number – A number issued by the Authority used to identify Medicaid-eligible students. This number may also be referred to as recipient identification number; prime number; client medical ID Number or medical assistance program ID number.

(47) Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) – The federal law ensuring the rights of children with disabilities to a "free and appropriate education" (FAPE).

(48) Individualized Education Plan (IEP) – A written statement of an educational program for a child with a disability which is developed, reviewed, or revised in a meeting in accordance with Oregon Department of Education OAR chapter 581, division 15. When an IEP is used as a prescription for Medicaid reimbursement for covered School-Based Health Services (SBHS), it must include: type of health service, amount, duration and frequency for the service provided. In order to bill Medicaid for covered health services they must be delivered by or under the supervision of medically qualified staff and must be recommended by a physician or appropriate health care practitioner acting within the scope of practice. See definition medically qualified staff.

(49) Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) – A written plan of early childhood special education (ECSE) services, early intervention (EI) services, and other services developed in accordance with criteria established by the Oregon Department of Education (ODE) for each child (age's birth to 5 years) eligible for IFSP services. The plan is developed to meet the needs of a child with disabilities in accordance with requirements and definitions in OAR chapter 581, division 15. When an IFSP is used as a prescription for Medicaid reimbursement for SBHS covered services, it must include: type of health service, amount, duration and frequency for the service provided. In order to bill Medicaid for covered health services they must be delivered by or under the supervision of medically qualified staff and must be recommended by a physician or appropriate health care practitioner acting within their scope of practice. See definition medically qualified staff.

(50) Individualized Education Plan/Individualized Family Service Plan (IEP/IFSP) Team – A group of teachers, specialists, and parents responsible for determining eligibility, developing, reviewing, and revising an IEP or IFSP in compliance with the Oregon Department of Education (ODE) OAR chapter 581, division 15.

(51) Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) – A person licensed to practice clinical social work pursuant to State law.

(52) Licensed Physical Therapist Assistant (LPTA) – A person licensed to assist in the administration of physical therapy, solely under the supervision and direction of a physical therapist.

(53) Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) – A person licensed to practice under the direction of a licensed professional within the scope of practice as defined by State law.

(54) Licensure – Documentation from state agencies demonstrating that licensed or certified individuals are qualified to perform specific duties and a scope of services within a legal standard recognized by the licensing agency. In the context of health services, licensure refers to the standards applicable to health service providers by health licensing authorities. For health services provided in the state of Oregon, licensure refers to the standards established by the appropriate State of Oregon licensing agency.

(55) Medicaid-eligible student – The child or student who has been determined to be eligible for Medicaid health services by the Authority. For purposes of this rule, Medicaid-eligible student is synonymous with "recipient" or "Oregon Health Plan (OHP) client". For convenience, the term student used in these rules applies to both students covered by an Individualized Education Program (IEP) and children covered by an Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP). Also for purposes of this rule, students or children whose eligibility is based on the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) shall be referred to as Medicaid-eligible students.

(56) Medical Assistance Program – A program for payment of health services provided to eligible Oregonians. Oregon's medical assistance program includes Medicaid services including the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) Medicaid Demonstration, and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP). The Medical Assistance Program is administered by the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division), of the Oregon Health Authority.

(57) Medical Management Information System (MMIS) – A data collection system for processing paper and electronic claims for payment of health services provided to Medicaid-eligible recipients.

(58) Medical provider – An individual licensed by the State to provide health services within their governing body's definitions and respective scope of practice. Medical provider and health care practitioner are interchangeable terms.

(59) Medical services – The care and treatment provided by a licensed health care practitioner to prevent, diagnose, treat, correct or address a medical problem; whether physical, mental or emotional. For the purposes of these rules, this term shall be synonymous with health services or health-related services listed on an Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP), as defined in OAR chapter 581, division 15. Not all health-related services listed on an IEP or IFSP are covered as SBHS. See 410-133-0080 Coverage and 410-133-0200 Not Covered Services.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(60) Medical transportation – Specialized transportation in a vehicle adapted to meet the needs of passengers with disabilities transported to and from a SBHS covered service.

(61) Medically qualified staff:

(a) Staff employed by and/or through contract with an EA; and

(b) Licensed by the State to provide health services in compliance with State law defining and governing the scope of practice, described further in OAR 410-133-0120.

(62) Medication management – A task performed only by medically qualified staff, pursuant to a student's Individualized Education Program/Individualized Family Service Plan (IEP/IFSP), which involves administering medications, observing for side effects, and monitoring signs and symptoms for medication administration.

(63) National Provider Identification (NPI) – Federally directed Provider number mandated for use on Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) covered transactions; individuals, provider organizations, and subparts of provider organizations that meet the definition of health care provider (45 CFR 160.103) and who conduct HIPAA covered transactions electronically are eligible to apply for an NPI; Medicare covered entities are required to apply for an NPI.

(64) "Necessary and appropriate" health services – Those health services described in a Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP which are:

(a) Consistent with the symptoms of a health condition or treatment of a health condition;

(b) Appropriate with regard to standards of good health practice and generally recognized by the relevant scientific community and professional standards of care as effective;

(c) Not solely for the convenience of the Medicaid-eligible student or provider of the service; and

(d) The most cost-effective of the alternative levels of health services, which can safely be provided to a Medicaid-eligible student.

(65) Nursing Diagnosis and Management Plan – A written plan that describes a Medicaid-eligible student's actual and anticipated health conditions that are amenable to resolution by nursing intervention.

(66) Nursing Plan of Care – Written guidelines that are made a part of, and attached to the Individualized Education Program (IEP) or individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) that identify specific health conditions of the Medicaid-eligible student, and the nursing regimen that is "necessary and appropriate" for the student. Development and maintenance of this plan includes establishing student and nursing goals, and identifying nursing interventions (including location, frequency, duration and delegation of care) to meet the medical care objective identified in their IEP or IFSP, see Oregon State Board of Nursing Practice Act, Division 47. The SBHS provider is responsible for developing the nursing plan of care and is required to keep and maintain a copy of the nursing plan of care as supporting documentation for Medicaid reimbursed health services. (See definition "Education records".)

(67) Nurse practitioner – A person licensed as a registered nurse and certified by the Board of Nursing to practice as a nurse practitioner pursuant to State law.

(68) Nursing services – Services provided by a nurse practitioner (NP), registered professional nurse (RN), a licensed practical nurse (LPN) or delegated health care aide, within the scope of practice as defined by State law. Nursing services include preparation and maintenance of the health assessment plan, nursing diagnosis and management plan, nursing plan of care, consultation, and coordination and integration of health service activities, as well as direct patient care and supervision.

(69) Observation – Surveillance or visual monitoring performed by medically qualified staff as part of an evaluation, assessment, direct service, or care coordination for a necessary and appropriate Medicaid covered health service specified on a Medicaid-eligible student's Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) to better understand the child's medical needs and progress in their natural environment. An observation by itself is not billable.

(70) Occupational therapist (OT) – A person licensed by the State's Occupational Therapy Licensing Board.

(71) Occupational Therapist Assistant – A person who is licensed as an occupational therapy assistant assisting in the practice of occupational therapy under the supervision of a licensed occupational therapist.

(72) Occupational therapy – Assessing, improving, developing, or restoring functions impaired or lost through illness, injury or deprivation, to improve the ability to perform tasks for independent functioning when functions are lost or impaired, preventing through early intervention, initial or further impairment or loss of function. Obtaining and interpreting information, coordinating care, and integrating necessary and appropriate occupational therapy services relative to the Medicaid-eligible student.

(73) Oregon Department of Education (ODE) – The state agency that provides oversight to public educational agencies for ensuring compliance with Federal and State laws relating to the provision of services required by the individuals with disabilities education act (IDEA).

(74) Orientation and mobility training – Services provided to blind or visually impaired students by qualified personnel to enable those students to attain systematic orientation to and safe movement within their environments in school, home, and community. These services are not covered under School-Based Health Services (SBHS) (See OAR 410-133-0200 Not Covered Services).

(75) Performing provider – A person, agent, business, corporation, clinic, group, institution, or other entity that is the provider of a service or item with the authority to delegate fiduciary responsibilities to a billing provider, also termed billing agent, to obligate or act on the behalf of the performing provider regarding claim submissions, receivables, and payments relative to the Medical Assistance Program. For the purposes of these SBHS rules, the school medical (SM) provider is the performing provider.

(76) Physical Therapist – A person licensed by the relevant State licensing authority to practice physical therapy (See OAR chapter 848, division 10 Licensed Physical Therapists and Licensed Physical therapist Assistants; chapter 848 division, 040 Minimum Standards For Physical therapy Practice and Records

(77) Physical Therapy – Assessing, preventing or alleviating movement dysfunction and related functional problems. Obtaining and interpreting information: coordinating care and integrating necessary and appropriate physical therapy services relative to the student receiving treatments.

(78) Prime Number – See definition of ID Number.

(79) Prioritized List of Health Services – Also referred to as the Prioritized List, the Oregon Health Services Commission's (HSC) listing of health services with "expanded definitions" of ancillary services and preventative services and the HSC practice guidelines, as presented to the Oregon Legislative Assembly. The Prioritized List is generated and maintained by the HSC. The Prioritized List governs medical assistance programs' health services and Benefit Packages pursuant to the Division of Medical Assistance Programs' General Rules OAR 410-120-0000 et seq., and OAR 410-141-0480 through 410-141-0520 (for the listing of condition and treatment pairs).

(80) Procedure code – See definition of HCPC healthcare common procedure code.

(81) Provider – An individual, facility, institution, corporate entity, or other organization which supplies health care services or items, also termed a performing provider, or bills, obligates and receives reimbursement on behalf of a performing provider of services, also termed a billing provider (BP). The term "Provider" refers to both performing providers and billing providers unless otherwise specified. Payment can only be made to DMAP-enrolled providers who have by signature on the provider enrollment forms and attachments, agreed to provide services and to bill in accordance with General Rules OAR 410-120-1260, and the SBHS OAR 410-133-0140. If a provider submits claims electronically, the provider must become a trading partner with the Authority and comply with the requirements of the Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) rules pursuant to OAR 407-120-0100 through 407-120-0200.

(82) Provider enrollment agreement – An agreement between the provider and the Oregon Health Authority (Authority) that sets forth the conditions for being enrolled as a provider with the Authority and to receive a provider number in order to submit claims for reimbursement for covered SBHS provided to Medicaid-eligible students. Payment can only be made to Division of Medical Assistance Programs' (Division)-enrolled providers who have by signature on the provider enrollment forms and program applicable attachments agree to provide services and to bill in accordance with Provider Rules chapter 407, division 120 and the Division's General Rules chapter 410, division 120, and these SBHS rules. Also see definitions for Trading Partner and Trading Partner Agreement in these rules.

(83) Psychiatrist – A person licensed to practice medicine and surgery in the state of Oregon and possesses a valid license from the Oregon Licensing Board for the Healing Arts.

(84) Psychologist – A person with a doctoral degree in psychology and licensed by the State Board of Psychologist Examiners See 858-010-0010.

(85) Psychologist Associate – A person who does not possess a doctoral degree that is licensed by the Board of Psychologists Examiners, to perform certain functions within the practice of psychology under the supervision of a psychologist. See 858-010-0037 through 858-010-

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

0038. An exception would be psychologist associate with the authority to function without immediate supervision, see OAR 858-010-0039.

(86) Recordkeeping requirements – A SBHS SM provider is required to keep and maintain the supporting documentation for Medicaid reimbursed health services described in a Medicaid-eligible student's Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) for a period of seven (7) years, as part of the student's education record, which may be filed and kept separately by school health professionals (See OAR 410-133-0320).

(87) Re-evaluation – Procedures used to measure a Medicaid-eligible student's health status compared to an initial or previous evaluation, are focused on evaluation of progress toward current goals, modifying goals or treatment, or making a professional judgment to determine whether or not the student will continue to receive continued care for a covered service pursuant to an IEP or IFSP under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). Continuous assessment of the student's progress as a component of ongoing therapy services is not billable as a re-evaluation.

(88) Regional program – Regional program services are provided on a multi-county basis, under contract from the Oregon Department of Education (ODE) to eligible children (birth to 21) visually impaired, hearing impaired, deaf-blind, autistic, and/or severely orthopedically impaired. A regional program may be reimbursed for covered health services it provides to Medicaid-eligible students through the school medical (SM) provider (e.g., public school district or ESD) that administers the program.

(89) Registered Nurse (RN) – A person licensed and certified by the Oregon Board of Nursing to practice as a registered nurse pursuant to State law.

(90) Rehabilitative services – For purposes of the School-Based Health Services (SBHS) program, any health service that is covered by the Medical Assistance Program and that is a medical, psychological or remedial health service recommended by a physician or other licensed health care practitioner within the scope of practice under State law, and provided to a Medicaid-eligible student pursuant to an Individualized Education Program/Individualized Family Service Plan (IEP/IFSP) under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), for reduction, correction, stabilization or functioning improvement of physical or mental disability of a Medicaid-eligible student (See 410-133-0060).

(91) Related services – For purposes of this rule, related services as listed on an Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) may include: transportation and such developmental, corrective and other supportive services (e.g., speech language, audiology services, psychological services, physical therapy, occupational therapy, social work services in schools, and nursing services) as are required to assist a child or student with a disability to benefit from special education; and includes early identification and assessment of disabling conditions in children. NOTE: Not all "related services" are covered for payment by Medicaid. To determine whether a particular related service is a covered health service for a Medicaid-eligible student (see OAR 410-133-0080, Coverage and OAR 410-133-0200, Not Covered Services).

(92) School-Based Health Services (SBHS) – Health services provided in the educational setting, meeting the requirements of these rules, and applicable federal and state laws and rules.

(93) School medical (SM) provider – An enrolled provider type established by the Division to designate the provider of school-based health services eligible to receive reimbursement from the Division. See the Authority's general rules chapter 943 division 120, the Division's General Rules OAR 410-120-1260, and School-Based Health Services Program OAR 410-133-0140 (School Medical (SM) Provider Enrollment Provisions).

(94) Screening – A limited examination to determine a Medicaid-eligible student's need for a diagnostic medical evaluation. See OAR 410-133-0200 (Not Covered Services).

(95) Special Education Services – Specially designed instruction to meet the unique needs of a child with a disability, including regular classroom instruction, instruction in physical education, home instruction, and instruction in hospitals, institutions, special schools, and other settings.

(96) Speech Language Pathology Assistant (SLPA) – A person who is licensed by the Oregon State Board of Examiners for Speech Pathology and Audiology and provides speech-language pathology services under the direction and supervision of a speech-language pathologist licensed under ORS 681.250.

(97) Speech-Language Pathologist – A person licensed by the Oregon Board of Examiners for Speech Pathology and Audiology or holds a Certificate of Clinical Competency (CCC) from the American Speech and Hearing Association (ASHA) (See Medically Qualified Staff 410-133-0120).

(98) Speech-language pathology services – Assessment of children with speech/language disorders, diagnosis and appraisal of specific speech/language disorders, referral for medical and other professional attention necessary for the rehabilitation of speech/language disorders and provision of speech/language services for the prevention of communicative disorders. Obtaining and interpreting information, coordinating care, and integrating necessary and appropriate speech-language pathology services relative to the student receiving services.

(99) State Education Agency (SEA) – See "Oregon Department of Education (ODE)".

(100) State-operated school – The Oregon School for the Deaf. See "Educational Agency."

(101) Student health/medical/nursing records – Education records that document, for Medical Assistance Program purposes, the Medicaid-eligible student's diagnosis or the results of tests, screens or treatments, treatment plan, the Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP), and the record of treatments or health services provided to the child or student.

(102) Teachers' Standards and Practices Commission (TSPC) – The Commission that governs licensing of teachers, personnel, service specialists, and administrators as set forth in OAR chapter 584. In order for schools or school providers to participate in the Medicaid program and receive Medicaid reimbursement, they must meet the Medicaid provider qualifications. It is not sufficient for a state to use Department of Education provider qualifications for reimbursement of Medicaid-covered health services provided in an education setting.

(103) Testing – See "Assessment".

(104) Testing Technician – A person/technician adequately trained to administer and score specific tests, as delegated under the direction and supervision of a licensee, and maintains standards for the testing environment and testing administration as set forth in the American Psychological Association Standards for Educational and Psychological Tests (1999) and Ethical Principles for Psychologists (2002). See ORS 675.010(4), OAR 858-010-0001, and 858-010-0002.

(105) Third-party billing – A process of sending a bill to a public or private insurance company for a medical or health service given to someone who is insured.

(106) Trading partner – means a provider, prepaid health plan (PHP), clinic, or allied agency that has entered into a trading partner agreement with the Department in order to satisfy all or part of its obligations under a contract by means of electronic data interchange (EDI), electronic remittance advice (ERA), or electronic media claims (EMC), or any other mutually agreed means of electronic exchange or transfer of data. EDI transactions must comply with the requirements of the EDI rules OAR 407-120-0100 through 407-120-0200 for the purposes of these rules EDI does not include electronic transmission by web portal.

(107) Trading partner agreement (TPA) – means a specific request by a provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency to conduct EDI transactions that governs the terms and conditions for EDI transactions in the performance of obligations under a contract. A provider, PHP, clinic, or allied agency that has executed a TPA will be referred to as a trading partner in relation to those functions.

(108) Transportation Aide – An individual trained for health and safety issues to accompany a Medicaid-eligible student transported to and from a covered Health Service as specified in the Individualized Education Program/individualized Family Service Plan (IEP/IFSP). The School Medical (SM) Provider must maintain documentation of the training, supervision and provision of the services billed to Medicaid. For the purposes of these rules, individual transportation aides are included in the cost calculation for transportation costs and will not be billed separately. This computation will not include delegated health care aides for whom costs are direct costs.

(109) Transportation as a related service – Specialized transportation adapted to serve the needs of a Medicaid-eligible student to and from a covered health service that is necessary and appropriate, and described in the Individualized Education Program/individualized Family Service Plan (IEP/IFSP) as outlined in OAR 410-133-0080 (Coverage).

(110) Transportation vehicle trip log – A record or log kept specifically for tracking each transportation trip a Medicaid-eligible student receives transportation to or from a covered health service. (See OAR 410-136-0280 Medical Transportation rules – Required Documentation and SBHS OAR 410-133-0245, Cost Determination and Payment).

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(111) Treatment Plan – A written plan of care services, including treatment with proposed location, frequency and duration of treatment as required by the health care practitioner’s health licensing agency.

(112) Unit – Is a service measurement of time for billing and reimbursement efficiency. One (1) unit equals 15 minutes unless otherwise stated.

(113) Web Portal submitter – means an individual or entity authorized to establish an electronic media connection with the Department of Human Services to conduct a direct data entry transaction. A web portal submitter may be a provider or a provider’s agent.

410-133-0080

Coverage

The Oregon Health Authority (Authority) may reimburse school medical (SM) providers for covered health services that meet all of the following criteria:

(1) The health service(s) must be “necessary and appropriate” and covered under the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) as a service that is above the funding line of the Prioritized List of health services and the health services must not be excluded under OAR 410-133-0200 (Not Covered Services).

(2) The health service(s) must be required by a Medicaid-eligible student’s physical or mental condition(s) as specified on the Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) and further described in the treatment plan and the evaluation of the student.

(3) The health service, individual or group, may include corrective health services treatments and Medicaid-covered related services as described in a student’s IEP or IFSP.

(a) The payment rate for health services includes case management and necessary supplies for these services. Additional reimbursement for such services, are not paid separately from the health service.

(b) These services must be provided by medically qualified staff that meet the standards of licensing or certification for the health service being provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120 and comply with the respective medical provider’s governing definitions, scope of practice, documentation requirements, and licensure or certification.

(4) Evaluation and assessment for SBHS are reimbursed for the part of the evaluation or assessment regarding a Medicaid-eligible student’s “necessary and appropriate” SBHS needs for the purpose of establishing, re-establishing, or terminating a Medicaid covered service on a Medicaid-eligible student’s IEP or IFSP; or to develop, review, or revise components of a covered health service currently provided to a Medicaid-eligible student for continuation of those covered services pursuant to an IEP or IFSP under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).

(a) Evaluation services are procedures used to determine a SBHS covered health-related need, diagnosis, or eligibility under IDEA.

(b) Re-evaluation services are procedures used to measure a Medicaid-eligible student’s health status compared to an initial or previous evaluation and is focused on evaluation of progress toward current goals, modifying goals or treatment or making a professional judgment to determine whether or not a Medicaid-eligible student will continue to receive continued care for a SBHS covered service pursuant to the IEP or IFSP under IDEA. Continuous assessment of the student’s progress as a component of ongoing therapy services is not billable as a re-evaluation.

(5) Assistive technology services directly assist a Medicaid-eligible student with a disability, eligible under IDEA, to receive assistive technology covered SBHS as specified on the IEP or IFSP, in the selection, acquisition, or use of an assistive technology device, including:

(a) The assistive technology assessment with one-to-one student contact time by medically qualified staff within the scope of practice performing the assessment of the need, suitability, and benefits of the use of an assistive technology device or adaptive equipment that will help restore, augment, or compensate for existing functional ability in the Medicaid-eligible student or that will optimize functional tasks and/or maximize the Medicaid-eligible student’s environmental accessibility. This requires and includes the preparation of a written report;

(b) Care coordination with the Medicaid-eligible student’s physician, parent/guardian, and the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) for the parent/guardian’s acquisition of a personal assistive technology device for their Medicaid-eligible student through the student’s

Medicaid plan for the benefit of the Medicaid-eligible student to maximize his/her functional ability and environmental accessibility; and

(c) Training or technical assistance provided to or demonstrated with the Medicaid-eligible student by medically qualified staff, instructing the use of an assistive technology device or adaptive equipment in the educational setting with professionals (including individuals providing education and rehabilitation services) or where appropriate the family members, guardians, advocates, or authorized representative of the Medicaid-eligible student. In order to bill Medicaid for this service, the student must be present.

(6) The Authority may reimburse physical therapy services provided by:

(a) A physical therapist authorized to administer physical therapy to an individual, when the individual is a Medicaid-eligible student eligible for special education, as defined by state or federal law, and is being seen pursuant to the Medicaid-eligible student’s individual education plan or individual family service plan (see Oregon administrative rules chapter 848, division 010, Licensed Physical therapist and Licensed Physical Therapist Assistants; Division 015 Physical Therapist Assistants; and Division 040 Minimum Standards For Physical therapy Practice and Records);

(b) A physical therapist assistant providing treatment under the supervision of a physical therapist that is available and readily accessible for consultation with the assistant, at all times, either in person or by means of telecommunications (see OAR chapter 848, division 015, Physical Therapist Assistants). Physical therapy services must be provided by medically qualified staff that meet the standards of licensing or certification for the health service being provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120.

(c) Reimbursement time may include:

(A) Preparation of the written initial evaluation or initial assessment report to establish necessary and appropriate physical therapy services on a Medicaid-eligible student’s IEP or IFSP.

(B) Obtaining and interpreting medical information for the part of an evaluation or assessment performed by the physical therapist to establish necessary and appropriate physical therapy services on a Medicaid-eligible student’s IEP or IFSP; or to determine whether or not necessary and appropriate physical therapy services will continue to be specified on the Medicaid-eligible student’s IEP or IFSP under IDEA (cannot be delegated).

(C) Care coordination and integrating services, within the scope of practice, for providing necessary and appropriate physical therapy services relative to the Medicaid-eligible student pursuant to an IEP or IFSP.

(D) Direct treatment and supervision of services provided to a Medicaid-eligible student by the physical therapist and defined in the individual plan; when

(E) Documentation by the supervising physical therapist supporting the appropriate supervision of the assistant is maintained and kept by the School Medical Provider for a period of seven years (See OAR chapter 848, division 40, Minimum Standards for Physical Therapy Practice and Records).

(F) Individual or group physical therapy services provided to a Medicaid-eligible student by or under the supervision and direction of a Licensed physical therapist pursuant to the Medicaid-eligible student’s IEP or IFSP; when the documentation describing physical therapy services provided are signed by the therapist providing the service in accordance with their board licensing requirements and documentation for supervision of services performed by or under the supervision and direction of the supervising physical therapist supporting the services provided is maintained and kept by the school medical provider for seven (7) years (See Minimum Standards for Physical Therapy Practice and Records OARs 848-040-0100 through 848-040-0170).

(G) Other covered physical therapy services within the scope of practice and subsections (1) and (2) of this rule.

(7) The Authority may reimburse occupational therapy services provided by:

(a) A licensed Occupational Therapist (OT) authorized to administer occupational therapy to an individual, when the individual is a Medicaid-eligible student eligible for special education, as defined by state or federal law, and is being seen pursuant to the Medicaid-eligible student’s individual education plan or individual family service plan; and

(b) A licensed occupational therapy assistant assisting in the practice of occupational therapy under the general supervision of a licensed occupational therapist. (General supervision requires the supervisor to have at least monthly direct contact in person with the supervisee at the work site with supervision available as needed by other methods); and

(c) Before an occupational therapy assistant assists in the practice of occupational therapy, he/she must file with the Board a signed, current statement of supervision of the licensed occupational therapist that will supervise the occupational therapy assistant (See OAR 339-010-0035 Statement of Supervision for Occupational Therapy Assistant). Occupational therapy services must be provided by medically qualified staff that meet the standards of licensing or certification for the health service being provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120.

(d) Reimbursement time may include:

(A) Preparation of the written initial evaluation or initial assessment reports that establish necessary and appropriate occupational therapy services on a Medicaid eligible student's IEP or IFSP.

(B) Obtaining and interpreting medical information for the part of the evaluation or assessment performed by the occupational therapist to establish necessary and appropriate occupational therapy services on a Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP; or to determine whether or not necessary and appropriate occupational therapy services will continue to be specified on the Medicaid eligible student's IEP or IFSP under IDEA (cannot be delegated).

(C) Development of the initial occupational therapy treatment plan by the OT (cannot be delegated).

(D) Coordinating care and integrating services, within the scope of practice, relative to the Medicaid-eligible student receiving necessary and appropriate occupational therapy services as specified on the IEP or IFSP.

(E) Individual or group occupational therapy services provided to a Medicaid-eligible student by or under the supervision and direction of a licensed occupational therapist as specified on Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP.

(F) Direct treatment and supervision of services provided to a Medicaid-eligible student by the occupational therapist and defined in the individual plan; when documentation supporting the appropriate supervision of the assistant is kept and maintained by the school medical provider for a period of seven years;

(G) The occupational therapy services provided are consistent with OAR 339-010-0050 Occupational Therapy Services for Children and Youth in Education and Early childhood Programs regulated by federal laws; and

(H) Documentation describing occupational therapy treatment provided must be signed including credentials by the occupational therapist providing the service. Where appropriate, services provided by an occupational therapist assistant shall be reviewed and co signed by the supervising occupational therapist. All documentation describing treatment provided by an occupational therapy assistant must name the assistant therapist and the supervising therapist including credentials as reflected on the current statement of supervision filed with the Occupational Therapist Licensing Board. Supervision and documentation of supervision by the supervising therapist for therapy provided by the occupational therapy assistant must meet general supervision requirements or closer supervision where professionally appropriate. See OAR 339-010-0005, 339-010-0035, and 339-010-0050. Also, see 410-133-0320, Documentation and Recordkeeping Requirements in these rules.

(I) Other covered occupational therapy services within the scope of practice and subsections (1) and (2) of this rule.

(8) The Authority may reimburse speech therapy services provided by:

(a) A licensed speech pathologist licensed by the Oregon Board of Examiners for Speech Pathology and Audiology or holds a Certificate of Clinical Competency (CCC) from the American Speech and Hearing Association (ASHA), authorized to administer speech therapy to an individual, when the individual is a Medicaid-eligible student eligible for special education, as defined by state or federal law, receiving speech therapy services pursuant to an individual education plan or individual family service plan; or

(b) A graduate speech pathologist in their Clinical Fellowship Year (CFY) practicing under the supervision of an ASHA licensed speech pathologist with CCC meeting the standards of licensing or certification for the health service provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120 medically qualified staff; and when

(A) A standardized system for reviewing the clinical work of the clinical fellow is performed at regularly scheduled intervals, using the Skills Inventory Rating (CFSI) form addressing the fellow's attainment of skills for independent practice;

(B) The clinical fellow supervisor maintains and documents the supervision of the clinical fellow to be kept by the school medical provider for a period of seven years.

(C) Documentation describing the treatment provided are signed and initialed by the clinical fellow for review and co-signature by the supervising clinical fellow.

(c) Speech-language pathology assistants (SLPA), licensed by the Oregon State Board of Examiners for Speech Pathology and Audiology, under the supervision of a supervising speech-language pathologist and who meet the standards of licensing or certification for the health service provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120 Medically Qualified Staff, when the following conditions are met:

(A) The supervising speech-language pathologist must have at least two years of full-time professional speech-language pathology experience (see OAR 335-095-0040 and 335-095-0050, Requirements for Supervising Licensed Speech-Language Pathology Assistants);

(B) The supervising speech therapist does not supervise more than the equivalent of two full-time speech-language pathology assistants;

(C) The supervising speech-language pathologist maintains documentation supporting the appropriate supervision of the assistant(s) to be kept by the school medical provider for a period of seven (7) years;

(D) The caseload of the supervising clinician allows for administration, including assistant supervision, evaluation of students and meeting times. (All students assigned to an assistant are considered part of the caseload of the supervising clinician);

(E) The supervising speech-language pathologist must be able to be reached at all times (A temporary supervisor may be designated as necessary);

(F) The services provided by the assistants are consistent with the Scope of Duties for the Speech-Language Pathology Assistant (SLPA) pursuant to OAR 335-095-0060;

(G) Documentation describing the treatment provided are signed and initialed by the SLPA for review and co-signature by the supervising speech-language pathologist to be kept by the school medical provider for a period of seven (7) years.

(d) Reimbursement time may include:

(A) Preparation of the written initial evaluation or initial assessment report, including obtaining and interpreting medical information for the part of the evaluation or assessment performed by the speech pathologist to establish necessary and appropriate speech therapy services on a Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP; or determine whether or not necessary and appropriate speech therapy services will continue to be specified on the Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP under IDEA (cannot be delegated);

(B) Development of the initial speech therapy treatment plan by the speech pathologist (cannot be delegated);

(C) Care coordination and integrating services, within the scope of practice, relative to the Medicaid-eligible student receiving necessary and appropriate speech therapy services specified on the IEP or IFSP;

(D) Direct individual or group speech therapy services provided to a Medicaid-eligible student for speech services specified on the IEP or IFSP delivered by or under the supervision and direction of a speech pathologist who is medically qualified to deliver the service see 410-133-0120 Medically Qualified Staff;

(E) Direct training and supervision of services provided to a Medicaid-eligible student by the medically qualified supervising speech pathologist to be kept by the school medical provider for a period of seven (7) years; and

(F) Other covered speech therapy services within the scope of practice and subsections (1) and (2) of this rule.

(9) The Authority may reimburse audiology services provided by:

(a) A licensed audiologist within the scope of practice as defined by state or federal law who meet the standards of licensing or certification for the health service provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120, Medically Qualified Staff

(b) Reimbursement time may include:

(A) Preparation of the written initial evaluation or initial assessment report, including obtaining and interpreting medical information for the part of the evaluation or assessment performed by the audiologist within the scope of practice, to establish necessary and appropriate hearing services on a Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP; or determine whether or not necessary and appropriate hearing impairment services will continue to be specified on the Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP under IDEA.

(B) Periodic hearing evaluations and assessments of a Medicaid-eligible student with hearing loss found eligible under IDEA pursuant to services as specified on the IEP or IFSP, for determination of the range, nature and degree of hearing loss.

(C) Care coordination and integration of services for medical or other professional attention relative to Medicaid-eligible student receiving services for restoration or rehabilitation due to hearing and communication disorders as specified on the IEP or IFSP.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(D) Provision of rehabilitative activities, such as language restoration or rehabilitation, auditory training, hearing evaluation and speech conversation, and determination of the Medicaid-eligible-student's need for individual amplification in accordance with the student's IEP or IFSP.

(10) The Authority may reimburse nurse services provided by:

(a) A Nurse practitioner (NP), registered nurse (RN), licensed practical nurse (LPN) or delegated health care aid under the supervision of an RN or NP who meet the standards of licensing or certification for the health service provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120 Medically Qualified Staff

(b) Nursing services under this program are not intended to reimburse nursing activities of a private duty RN or LPN that is otherwise billing Medicaid directly for those services.

(c) Reimbursement time may include:

(A) Preparation of the written initial evaluation or initial assessment report to establish nursing services including obtaining and interpreting medical information for the part of the evaluation or assessment performed to establish Necessary and Appropriate nursing services on the Medicaid-Eligible student's IEP or IFSP; or determine whether or not necessary and appropriate nursing services will continue to be specified on the Medicaid-eligible students IEP or IFSP under IDEA.

(B) Coordinated care for other specified care management for a chronic medical condition that is not addressed on the current IEP or IFSP that will result in amending nursing services specified in the IEP or IFSP and requires an updated nursing plan of care. This may result in an increase in supervision, monitoring and training of DHC staff to provide new nursing tasks related to the change in condition. For example: a child with seizure disorder that develops diabetes.

(C) Care coordination and integration of necessary and appropriate nursing services relative to the Medicaid-eligible student's covered health service specified on the IEP or IFSP.

(D) Nurse to student interactive services that are covered health services provided to a Medicaid-eligible student with a chronic medical condition receiving nursing services pursuant to an IEP or IFSP.

(E) Oversight of delegated health care aides performing delegated nursing services directly with the student as specified on the IEP or IFSP.

(F) Student observation by medically qualified staff for medical reasons of a Medicaid-eligible student with a chronic medical condition as part of an evaluation, assessment, or care coordination. An observation by itself is not a billable activity.

(G) Other covered nursing care services within the scope of practice and subsections (1) and (2) of this rule.

(11) The Authority may reimburse mental health services provided by:

(a) A Psychiatrist who meets the standards of licensing or certification for the health service being provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120(2)(f)(A), or a psychologist who meets the standards of licensing or certification for the health service being provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120(2)(f)(B), or a mental health nurse practitioner who meets the standards of licensing or certification for the health service being provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120(2)(e)(A); or

(b) A Psychologist Associate with authority to function without immediate supervision, performing functions that may include but are not restricted to administering tests of mental abilities, conducting personality assessments and counseling (see OAR 858-010-0039 Application for Independent Status). These services must be provided by medically qualified staff who meet the standards of licensing or certification for the health service being provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120(2)(f)(C); or

(c) A Psychologist Associate under the supervision of a psychologist as specified by the Board of Psychologists Examiners, OAR chapter 858, division 010. These services must be provided by medically qualified staff who meet the standards of licensing or certification for the health service being provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120(2) (f) (D); or

(d) A technician under the supervision of a psychologist as specified by the Board of Psychologists Examiners, chapter 858, division 010, OAR 858-010-0002, Guidelines for Supervising Technicians, and who meet the standards of licensing or certification for the health service being provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120 (f) (E); or

(e) A Licensed (LCSW) qualified and licensed to deliver the service, or a Clinical Social Work Associate (CSWA) under the supervision of an LCSW specified by the Board of Clinical Social Workers, chapter 877, division 020, OAR 877-020-0000 through 877-020-0060 and who meet the standards of licensing or certification for the health service being provided as described in OAR 410-133-0120 (f) (F).

(f) Reimbursable time may include:

(A) Preparation of the written initial evaluation or initial assessment report for a suspected disability per the referral process for determining IDEA eligibility, including obtaining and interpreting medical information for the part of the evaluation or assessment performed by the mental health care practitioner within the scope of practice, to establish necessary and appropriate mental health services on the Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP; or to determine whether or not necessary and appropriate mental health services will continue to be specified on the Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP under IDEA.

(B) Care coordination and integrating services, within the scope of practice, relative to the Medicaid-eligible student receiving mental health services as specified on the IEP or IFSP;

(C) Direct individual therapy services provided within the scope of practice under state law and covered under subsections (1) and (2) of this rule to a Medicaid-eligible student by or under the supervision and direction of a psychologist, a psychiatrist, or mental health nurse practitioner, or a Licensed Clinical Social Worker qualified and licensed to deliver the service pursuant to the Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP.

(12) Medicaid reimbursed transportation:

(a) Transportation to a covered health service as documented in the child's IEP/IFSP and defined in these rules (see 410-133-0245, Cost Determination and Payment).

(b) Ongoing transportation specified, as a related service, on the Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP may be claimed as a Medicaid service on the days a Medicaid-eligible student receives a covered health service that is also specified on the IEP or IFSP,

(c) The Authority may only reimburse for transportation as a related service to and from a Medicaid-covered service for a Medicaid-eligible student when the student receives a Medicaid covered health service other than transportation on that day when either of the following situations exist:

(A) The Medicaid-eligible student requires specialized transportation adapted to serve the needs of the disabled student, there is documentation to support specialized transportation is "necessary and appropriate", and transportation is listed as a related service on the student's IEP or IFSP; or

(B) The Medicaid-eligible student has a medical need for transportation that is documented in the IEP or IFSP, and resides in an area that does not have regular school bus transportation such as those areas in close proximity to a school.

(d) If a Medicaid-eligible student is able to ride on a regular school bus, but requires the assistance of a delegated health care aide, trained by an RN to provide a delegated nursing task specific to the student, who cannot be transported safely without the delegated health care aide, the service provided by the delegated healthcare aide is reimbursed under the delegated healthcare code. See the standards for delegation of a Nursing Care Task as outlined in the Nurse Practice Act, OAR 851-047-0000 through 851-047-0040.

(e) If a Medicaid-eligible student requires the assistance of a delegated health care aide and transportation adapted to serve the needs of the disabled student, both the necessary and appropriate transportation and the service provided by the delegated healthcare aide may be reimbursed when both are specified on the Medicaid-eligible student's current IEP or IFSP.

(f) If an education agency provides special transportation to a Medicaid-eligible student to a covered service outside the district or the Medicaid-eligible student's resident school and the student cannot be transported safely without a transportation aide as specified on the IEP or IFSP, the transportation is billable. However, a transportation aide who is not a delegated healthcare aide trained by an RN cannot be billed as a separate cost because the cost of the transportation aide is included in the cost of the transportation.

(g) Transportation is not reimbursable by the Division when provided by the parent or relative of the child.

(h) Transportation to an "evaluation" service is covered as long as:

(A) Medically necessary transportation is listed and included in the Medicaid-eligible student's current IEP or IFSP and the evaluation is to establish, re-establish, or terminate a SBHS covered service under IDEA;

(B) The evaluation is a SBHS covered health service;

(C) The medical provider conducting the evaluation, if not employed or contracted by the school medical provider, is an enrolled provider with the Division and meets applicable medical licensing standards necessary to conduct the evaluation.

(13) Medicaid may reimburse for contracted consultation health services for furnishing consultations regarding a Medicaid-eligible student's covered health service(s) specified on the IEP or IFSP for an evaluation or assessment to establish, re-establish, or terminate a covered SBHS on an

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

IEP or IFSP. Contracted consultation services must be provided by a licensed medical professional other than school medical provider staff.

(a) This service may be on a contracted basis for a number of students;

(b) Allowable services must be furnished through a personal service contract between the school medical provider and the licensed health care practitioner;

(c) This service would only be a SBHS covered health service by the school medical provider when the licensed health care practitioner did not bill Medicaid directly under other programs for the same services.

(14) Reimbursed coordinated care, performed by medically qualified staff as described in OAR 410-133-0120 directly related to health services required by a Medicaid-eligible student's physical or mental condition as described in the IEP or IFSP; and must be one of the following:

(a) Managing integration of those Medicaid covered health services for treatment provided in the education setting;

(b) The portion of a conference between interested parties and medically qualified staff for developing, reviewing, or revising a Medicaid covered health service, or therapy treatment plan, for services provided pursuant to a Medicaid-eligible student's IEP or IFSP, or to establish, re-establish, or terminate a covered health service under IDEA for eligibility purposes;

(c) Consultation from medically qualified staff providing technical assistance to or conferring with special education providers, physician, or families to assist them in providing covered health services to Medicaid-eligible students for treatment provided in the educational setting related to specific health services, and the goals and objectives in the student's IEP or IFSP. Consultation services must be completed by a licensed health care practitioner within the scope of practice under their licensure;

Medically Qualified Staff

(1) The school medical (SM) provider shall furnish covered health services through the medically qualified staff who provide health services within the scope of their licensure. The SM provider shall document the credentials and qualifications, updated periodically, of all medically qualified staff. The SM provider credential file shall document the manner in which the provider checked, and periodically re-checked, the Medicaid provider exclusion list to confirm that the medically qualified staff is eligible to provide health services to Medicaid-eligible students. Special education teachers are not recognized as medically qualified staff for these services. See <http://oig.hhs.gov/fraud/exclusions.asp>

(2) School-based health services are delivered by providers who meet the federal requirements listed below and who operate within the scope of their health care practitioner's license or certification pursuant to state law as follows:

(a) Evaluation and physical therapy treatments shall be provided by licensed physical therapists, that meet the federal requirements of 42 CFR 440.110, and are licensed by the State Physical Therapist Licensing Board. Licensed physical therapists assistants who's function is to assist the physical therapist in patient-related activities and to perform delegated procedures that are commensurate with the licensed therapist assistant's education and training may provide therapy treatments under the supervision and direction of a State licensed physical therapist within the scope of the health care practitioner's license and accreditation pursuant to State law;

(b) Occupational therapy evaluation and treatments shall be provided by licensed occupational therapists that meet the federal requirements of 42 CFR 440.110, and are licensed by the State Occupational Therapy Licensing Board. Licensed occupational therapist assistants who's function is to assist the occupational therapist in patient-related activities and to perform delegated procedures that are commensurate with the licensed therapist assistant's education and training may provide therapy treatments under the supervision and direction of a State licensed occupational therapist within the scope of the health care practitioner's license and accreditation pursuant to State law;

(c) Speech therapy evaluation and treatments shall be provided by speech pathologists that meet the federal requirements at 42 CFR 440.110, and are licensed by the State Board of Examiners for Speech Pathology and Audiology or hold a Certificate of Clinical Competency from the American Speech and Hearing Association;

(A) Speech therapy services may be provided by a graduate speech pathologist being supervised in the Clinical Fellowship Year (CFY) under the supervision of an ASHA licensed speech-language pathologist; or

(B) A Certified Speech-language Pathology Assistant (SLPA) performing within the scope of practice may provide therapy under the supervision of a State licensed speech-language pathologist within the scope of the health care practitioner's license and accreditation pursuant to State law. Excludes services described in OAR 335-095-0055, Permit for Supervisors of Speech-language Pathology Assistants in Schools; see OAR 410-133-0200, Not Covered Services;

(d) Audiology evaluation and services shall be provided by audiologists that meet the federal requirements at 42 CFR 440.110;

(e) Nurse evaluation and treatments shall be provided by or under the direction of registered nurses (RN) licensed to practice in Oregon by the Oregon State Board of Nursing; or nurse practitioners that meet the federal requirements at 42 CFR 440.166, and are licensed by the Oregon State Board of Nursing to practice in Oregon as a Nurse Practitioner (See Oregon State Board of Nursing Nurse Practice Act, OAR 851-047-0000 through 851-047-0040 and Nurse Practitioners, OAR 851-050-0000 through 851-050-0142;

(A) Licensed practical nurses (LPN) may participate in the implementation of the plan of care for providing care to clients under the supervision of a licensed registered nurse, nurse practitioner, or physician pursuant to the Oregon State Board of Nursing Practice Act, OAR divisions 045 and 047;

(B) Treatment may also be provided by a delegated health care aide that is a non-licensed person trained and supervised by a licensed registered nurse (RN) or nurse practitioner (NP) to perform selected tasks of nursing care pursuant to The Oregon State Board of Nursing administrative rules, division 047 of the Nurse Practice Act;

(f) Psychological/mental health evaluations, testing, psychological services and treatments shall be provided by individuals who meet the relevant requirements of their respective professional state licensure as follows:

(A) Psychiatrists must be licensed to practice medicine and surgery in the State of Oregon; and possess a valid license from the Oregon Licensing Board for the Healing Arts;

(B) Psychologists must have one of the following: a doctoral degree in psychology obtained from an approved doctoral program in psychology accredited by the American Psychological Association (APA); or a doctoral degree in psychology from a program at a college or university that is regionally accredited at the doctoral level that meet the requirements approved by the State Board of Psychologist Examiners (Board) by rule (see OAR Chapter 858 Division010); and have two years of supervised employment under the direction of a psychologist licensed in Oregon or under the direction of a person considered by the board to have equivalent supervisory competence;

(C) Psychologists Associates granted independent status by the Board for authority to function without immediate and direct supervision in compliance with OAR 858-010-0039. Until the psychologist associate successfully obtains independent status, the "psychologist associate resident" must not practice without immediate supervision, but must at all times be under the periodic direct supervision of a licensed psychologist or under the direction of a person considered by the board to have equivalent supervisory competency who shall continue to be responsible for the practice of the associate see OAR 858-010-0037and 858-010-0038;

(D) Psychologists Associates who do not possess a doctoral degree, and are deemed competent to perform certain functions within the practice of psychology under the periodic direct supervision of a psychologist licensed by the Board:

(i) Has complied with all the applicable provisions of ORS 675.010 to 675.150;

(ii) Has received a master's degree in psychology from a psychology program approved by the Board by rule;

(iii) Has completed an internship in an approved educational institution or one year of other training experience acceptable to the Board, such as supervised professional experience under the direction of a psychologist licensed in Oregon, or under the direction of a person considered by the Board to have equivalent supervisory competence; and

(iv) Furnishes proof acceptable to the Board of at least 36 months, exclusive of internship, of full-time experience satisfactory to the board under the direct supervision of a licensed psychologist in Oregon, or under the direct supervision of a person considered by the Board to have equivalent supervisory competence.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(E) Testing Technicians under the supervision of a licensed psychologist. A licensee may delegate administration and scoring of tests to technicians as provided in ORS 675.010(4) and OAR 858-010-0001, if the licensee ensures the technicians are adequately trained to administer and score the specific test being used; and ensures that the technicians maintain standards for the testing environment and testing administration as set forth in the American Psychological Association Standards for Educational and Psychological Tests (1999) and Ethical Principles for Psychologists (2002). See OAR 858-010-0002, Guidelines for Supervising Technicians;

(F) Services provided by Clinical Social Work Associate (CSWA) or Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW): must possess a master's degree from an accredited college or university accredited by the Council on Social Work Education and have completed the equivalent of two years of full-time experience in the field of clinical social work in accordance with rules of the Oregon State Board of Clinical Social Workers for a LCSW or whose plan of practice and supervision has been approved by the board, for a CSWA working toward LCSW licensure under the supervision of a LCSW for two years of post masters clinical experience and is licensed by the State Board of Clinical Social Workers to practice in Oregon. See Board of Clinical Social Workers, Chapter 877, Division 20, Procedure for Certification and Licensing.

Notice Publication Date: 5-1-2011

Rules Amended: 410-123-1220, 410-123-1260

Subject: The Dental Services Program administrative rules govern Division payment for services to certain clients. The Division amended rules 410-123-1220 and 410-123-1260 as follows:

- To cover stainless steel crowns on anterior primary teeth in addition to posterior primary and permanent teeth for clients under age 21 or who are pregnant; to list coverage of a newly created dental code for pulpal regeneration that is limited to clients under age 21 or who are pregnant; to clarify that prefabricated post and core services are covered only for clients under 21 or pregnant; to reference the updated “Covered and Non-Covered Services document” and other minor clarifications.

- To clarify current policies and procedures to ensure these rules are not open to interpretation by the provider or outside parties and to help eliminate confusion possibly resulting in non-compliance and help facilitate provider compliance with eligibility, service coverage and limitations, and billing requirements.

- To reflect the Oregon Health Authority name change and updated statutory reference.

- Other text may be revised to improve readability and to take care of necessary “housekeeping” corrections.

Coverage According to the Prioritized List of Health Services

(1) This rule incorporates by reference the “Covered and Non-Covered Dental Services” document, dated July 1, 2011, and located on the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) Website at: www.dhs.state.or.us/policy/healthplan/guides/dental/main.html.

(a) The “Covered and Non-Covered Dental Services” document lists coverage of Current Dental Terminology (CDT) procedure codes according to the Oregon Health Services Commission (HSC) Prioritized List of Health Services (HSC Prioritized List) and the client’s specific Oregon Health Plan benefit package;

(b) This document is subject to change if there are funding changes to the HSC Prioritized List.

(2) Changes to services funded on the HSC Prioritized List are effective on the date of the HSC Prioritized List change:

(a) The Division administrative rules (chapter 410, division 123) will not reflect the most current HSC Prioritized List changes until they have gone through the Division rule filing process;

(b) For the most current HSC Prioritized List, refer to the HSC Web site at www.oregon.gov/OHPPR/HSC/current\_prior.shtml;

(c) In the event of an alleged variation between a Division-listed code and a national code, the Division shall apply the national code in effect on the date of request or date of service.

(3) Refer to OAR 410-123-1260 for information about limitations on procedures funded according to the HSC Prioritized List. Examples of limitations include frequency and client’s age.

(4) The HSC Prioritized List does not include or fund the following general categories of dental services and the Division does not cover them for any client. Several of these services are considered elective or “cosmetic” in nature (i.e., done for the sake of appearance):

(a) Desensitization;

(b) Implant and implant services;

(c) Mastique or veneer procedure;

(d) Orthodontia (except when it is treatment for cleft palate);

(e) Overhang removal;

(f) Procedures, appliances or restorations solely for aesthetic/ cosmetic purposes;

(g) Temporomandibular joint dysfunction treatment; and

(h) Tooth bleaching.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

410-123-1260

OHP Plus Dental Benefits

(1) GENERAL:

(a) Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnosis and Treatment (EPSDT):

(A) Refer to Code of Federal Regulations (42 CFR 441, Subpart B) and OAR chapter 410, division 120 for definitions of the EPSDT program, eligible clients, and related services. EPSDT dental services includes, but are not limited to:

(i) Dental screening services for eligible EPSDT individuals; and

(ii) Dental diagnosis and treatment which is indicated by screening, at as early an age as necessary, needed for relief of pain and infections, restoration of teeth and maintenance of dental health;

(B) Providers must provide EPSDT services for eligible Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) clients according to the following documents:

(i) The Dental Services Program administrative rules (OAR chapter 410, division 123), for dentally appropriate services funded on the Oregon Health Services Commission Prioritized List of Health Services (HSC Prioritized List); and

(ii) The "Oregon Health Plan (OHP) – Recommended Dental Periodicity Schedule," dated January 1, 2010, incorporated by reference and posted on the Division Web site in the Dental Services Supplemental Information document at www.dhs.state.or.us/policy/healthplan/guides/dental/main.html;

(b) Restorative, periodontal and prosthetic treatments:

(A) Such treatments must be consistent with the prevailing standard of care, documentation must be included in the client's charts to support the treatment, and may be limited as follows:

(i) When prognosis is unfavorable;

(ii) When treatment is impractical;

(iii) A lesser-cost procedure would achieve the same ultimate result;

or

(iv) The treatment has specific limitations outlined in this rule;

(B) Prosthetic treatment (including porcelain fused to metal crowns) are limited until rampant progression of caries is arrested and a period of adequate oral hygiene and periodontal stability is demonstrated; periodontal health needs to be stable and supportive of a prosthetic.

(2) DIAGNOSTIC SERVICES:

(a) Exams:

(A) For children (under 19 years of age):

(i) The Division shall reimburse exams (billed as D0120, D0145, D0150, or D0180) a maximum of twice every 12 months with the following limitations:

(I) D0150: once every 12 months when performed by the same practitioner;

(II) D0150: twice every 12 months only when performed by different practitioners;

(III) D0180: once every 12 months;

(ii) The Division shall reimburse D0160 only once every 12 months when performed by the same practitioner;

(B) For adults (19 years of age and older) – The Division shall reimburse exams (billed as D0120, D0150, D0160, or D0180) by the same practitioner once every 12 months;

(C) For each emergent episode, use D0140 for the initial exam. Use D0170 for related dental follow-up exams;

(D) The Division only covers oral exams by medical practitioners when the medical practitioner is an oral surgeon;

(E) As the American Dental Association's Current Dental Terminology (CDT) codebook specifies the evaluation, diagnosis and treatment planning components of the exam are the responsibility of the dentist, the Division does not reimburse dental exams when furnished by a dental hygienist (with or without a limited access permit);

(b) Radiographs:

(A) The Division shall reimburse for routine radiographs once every 12 months;

(B) The Division shall reimburse bitewing radiographs for routine screening once every 12 months;

(C) The Division shall reimburse a maximum of six radiographs for any one emergency;

(D) For clients under age six, radiographs may be billed separately every 12 months as follows:

(i) D0220 – once;

(ii) D0230 – a maximum of five times;

(iii) D0270 – a maximum of twice, or D0272 once;

(E) The Division shall reimburse for panoramic (D0330) or intra-oral complete series (D0210) once every five years, but both cannot be done within the five-year period;

(F) Clients must be a minimum of six years old for billing intra-oral complete series (D0210). The minimum standards for reimbursement of intra-oral complete series are:

(i) For clients age six through 11 – a minimum of 10 periapicals and two bitewings for a total of 12 films;

(ii) For clients ages 12 and older – a minimum of 10 periapicals and four bitewings for a total of 14 films;

(G) If fees for multiple single radiographs exceed the allowable reimbursement for a full mouth complete series (D0210), the Division shall reimburse for the complete series;

(H) Additional films may be covered if dentally or medically appropriate, e.g., fractures (Refer to OAR 410-123-1060 and 410-120-0000);

(I) If the Division determines the number of radiographs to be excessive, payment for some or all radiographs of the same tooth or area may be denied;

(J) The exception to these limitations is if the client is new to the office or clinic and the office or clinic was unsuccessful in obtaining radiographs from the previous dental office or clinic. Supporting documentation outlining the provider's attempts to receive previous records must be included in the client's records;

(K) Digital radiographs, if printed, should be on photo paper to assure sufficient quality of images.

(3) PREVENTIVE SERVICES:

(a) Prophylaxis:

(A) For children (under 19 years of age) – Limited to twice per 12 months;

(B) For adults (19 years of age and older) – Limited to once per 12 months;

(C) Additional prophylaxis benefit provisions may be available for persons with high risk oral conditions due to disease process, pregnancy, medications or other medical treatments or conditions, severe periodontal disease, rampant caries and/or for persons with disabilities who cannot perform adequate daily oral health care;

(D) Are coded using the appropriate Current Dental Terminology (CDT) coding:

(i) D1110 (Prophylaxis – Adult) – Use for clients 14 years of age and older; and

(ii) D1120 (Prophylaxis – Child) – Use for clients under 14 years of age;

(b) Topical fluoride treatment:

(A) For adults (19 years of age and older) – Limited to once every 12 months;

(B) For children (under 19 years of age) – Limited to twice every 12 months;

(C) For children under 7 years of age who have limited access to a dental practitioner, topical fluoride varnish may be applied by a medical practitioner during a medical visit:

(i) Bill the Division directly regardless of whether the client is fee-for-service (FFS) or enrolled in a Fully Capitated Health Plan (FCHP) or Physician Care Organization (PCO);

(ii) Bill using a professional claim format with the appropriate CDT code (D1206 – Topical Fluoride Varnish);

(iii) An oral screening by a medical practitioner is not a separate billable service and is included in the office visit;

(D) Additional topical fluoride treatments may be available, up to a total of 4 treatments per client within a 12-month period, when high-risk conditions or oral health factors are clearly documented in chart notes for the following clients who:

(i) Have high-risk oral conditions due to disease process, medications, other medical treatments or conditions, or rampant caries;

(ii) Are pregnant;

(iii) Have physical disabilities and cannot perform adequate, daily oral health care;

(iv) Have a developmental disability or other severe cognitive impairment that cannot perform adequate, daily oral health care; or

(v) Are under seven year old with high-risk oral health factors, such as poor oral hygiene, deep pits and fissures (grooves) in teeth, severely crowded teeth, poor diet, etc;

(c) Sealants:

(A) Are covered only for children under 16 years of age;

(B) The Division limits coverage to:

(i) Permanent molars; and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

- (ii) Only one sealant treatment per molar every five years, except for visible evidence of clinical failure;
- (d) Tobacco cessation:
  - (A) For services provided during a dental visit, bill as a dental service using CDT code D1320 when the following brief counseling is provided:
    - (i) Ask patients about their tobacco-use status at each visit and record information in the chart;
    - (ii) Advise patients on their oral health conditions related to tobacco use and give direct advice to quit using tobacco and a strong personalized message to seek help; and
    - (iii) Refer patients who are ready to quit, utilizing internal and external resources to complete the remaining three A's (assess, assist, arrange) of the standard intervention protocol for tobacco;
  - (B) The Division allows a maximum of 10 services within a three-month period;
  - (C) For tobacco cessation services provided during a medical visit follow criteria outlined in OAR 410-130-0190;
- (e) Space management:
  - (A) The Division shall cover fixed and removable space maintainers (D1510, D1515, D1520, and D1525) only for clients under 19 years of age;
  - (B) The Division may not reimburse for replacement of lost or damaged removable space maintainers.
- (4) RESTORATIVE SERVICES:
  - (a) Restorations – amalgam and composite:
    - (A) Resin-based composite crowns on anterior teeth (D2390) are only covered for clients under 21 years of age or who are pregnant;
    - (B) The Division limits payment to the maximum restoration fee of four surfaces per tooth. Refer to the American Dental Association (ADA) CDT codebook for definitions of restorative procedures;
    - (C) Combine and bill one line per tooth using the appropriate code. For example, if tooth #30 has a buccal amalgam and a mesial-occlusal-distal (MOD) amalgam, then bill MOD, B, using code D2161 (four or more surfaces);
    - (D) The Division may not reimburse for an amalgam or composite restoration and a crown on the same tooth;
    - (E) The Division reimburses for a surface once in each treatment episode regardless of the number or combination of restorations;
    - (F) The restoration fee includes payment for occlusal adjustment and polishing of the restoration;
    - (G) The Division reimburses for posterior composite restorations at the same rate as amalgam restorations;
    - (H) The Division limits payment for replacement of posterior composite restorations to once every five years;
  - (b) Crowns and related services:
    - (A) General payment policies:
      - (i) The fee for the crown includes payment for preparation of the gingival tissue;
      - (ii) The Division shall cover crowns only when:
        - (I) There is significant loss of clinical crown and no other restoration will restore function; and
        - (II) The crown-to-root ratio is 50:50 or better and the tooth is restorable without other surgical procedures;
        - (iii) Reimbursement of retention pins (D2951) is per tooth, not per pin;
      - (B) The Division shall not cover the following services:
        - (i) Endodontic therapy alone (with or without a post);
        - (ii) Aesthetics (cosmetics);
        - (iii) Crowns in cases of advanced periodontal disease or when a poor crown/root ratio exists for any reason;
      - (C) The Division shall cover acrylic heat or light cured crowns (D2970 temporary crown, fractured tooth) – allowed only for anterior permanent teeth;
      - (D) The Division shall cover the following only for clients under 21 years of age or who are pregnant:
        - (i) Prefabricated plastic crowns (D2932) – allowed only for anterior teeth, permanent or primary;
        - (ii) Stainless steel crowns (D2930/D2931) – allowed only for anterior or primary teeth and posterior permanent or primary teeth;
        - (iii) Prefabricated stainless steel crowns with resin window (D2933) – allowed only for anterior teeth, permanent or primary;
        - (iv) Prefabricated post and core in addition to crowns (D2954/D2957);
        - (v) Permanent crowns (resin-based composite – D2710, and porcelain fused to metal (PFM) – D2751 and D2752) as follows:
          - (I) Limited to teeth numbers 6-11, 22 and 27 only, if dentally appropriate;
          - (II) Limited to four (4) in a seven-year period. This limitation includes any replacement crowns allowed according to (E)(i) of this rule;
          - (III) Only for clients at least 16 years of age ; and
          - (IV) Rampant caries are arrested and the client demonstrates a period of oral hygiene before prosthetics are proposed;
          - (v) PFM crowns (D2751 and D2752) must also meet the following additional criteria:
            - (I) The dental practitioner has attempted all other dentally appropriate restoration options, and documented failure of those options;
            - (II) Written documentation in the client's chart indicates that PFM is the only restoration option that will restore function;
            - (III) The dental practitioner submits radiographs to the Division for review; history, diagnosis, and treatment plan may be requested. See OAR 410-123-1100 (Services Reviewed by the Division of Medical Assistance Programs);
            - (IV) The client has documented stable periodontal status with pocket depths within 1 – 3 millimeters. If PFM crowns are placed with pocket depths of 4 millimeter and over, documentation must be maintained in the client's chart of the dentist's findings supporting stability and why the increased pocket depths will not adversely affect expected long term prognosis;
            - (V) The crown has a favorable long-term prognosis; and
            - (VI) If tooth to be crowned is clasp/abutment tooth in partial denture, both prognosis for crown itself and tooth's contribution to partial denture must have favorable expected long-term prognosis;
      - (E) Crown replacement:
        - (i) Permanent crown replacement limited to once every seven years;
        - (ii) All other crown replacement limited to once every five years; and
        - (iii) The Division may make exceptions to crown replacement limitations due to acute trauma, based on the following factors:
          - (I) Extent of crown damage;
          - (II) Extent of damage to other teeth or crowns;
          - (III) Extent of impaired mastication;
          - (IV) Tooth is restorable without other surgical procedures; and
          - (V) If loss of tooth would result in coverage of removable prosthetic.
    - (5) ENDODONTIC SERVICES:
      - (a) Pulp capping:
        - (A) The Division includes direct and indirect pulp caps in the restoration fee; no additional payment shall be made for clients with the OHP Plus benefit package;
        - (B) The Division covers direct pulp caps as a separate service for clients with the OHP Standard benefit package because restorations are not a covered benefit under this benefit package;
      - (b) Endodontic therapy:
        - (A) Endodontic therapy (D3230, D3240, D3330) is covered only for clients under 21 years of age or who are pregnant;
        - (B) The Division covers endodontics only if the crown-to-root ratio is 50:50 or better and the tooth is restorable without other surgical procedures;
        - (c) Endodontic retreatment and apicoectomy/periradicular surgery:
          - (A) The Division does not cover retreatment of a previous root canal or apicoectomy/periradicular surgery for bicuspid or molars;
          - (B) The Division limits either a retreatment or an apicoectomy (but not both procedures for the same tooth) to symptomatic anterior teeth when:
            - (i) Crown-to-root ratio is 50:50 or better;
            - (ii) The tooth is restorable without other surgical procedures; or
            - (iii) If loss of tooth would result in the need for removable prosthodontics;
          - (C) Retrograde filling (D3430) is covered only when done in conjunction with a covered apicoectomy of an anterior tooth;
          - (d) The Division does not allow separate reimbursement for open-and-drain as a palliative procedure when the root canal is completed on the same date of service, or if the same practitioner or dental practitioner in the same group practice completed the procedure;
          - (e) The Division does not cover root canal therapy for third molars;
          - (f) The Division covers endodontics if the tooth is restorable within the OHP benefit coverage package;
          - (g) Apexification/recalcification and pulpal regeneration procedures:
            - (A) The Division limits payment for apexification to a maximum of five treatments on permanent teeth only;
            - (B) Apexification/recalcification and pulpal regeneration procedures are covered only for clients under 21 years of age or who are pregnant;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(h) Canal preparation and fitting of preformed dowel or post (D3950) should not be reported in conjunction with D2952, D2953, D2954, or D2957 by the same practitioner.

(6) PERIODONTIC SERVICES:

(a) Surgical periodontal services (includes six months routine postoperative care):

(A) D4210 and D4211 – limited to coverage for severe gingival hyperplasia where enlargement of gum tissue occurs that prevents access to oral hygiene procedures, e.g., Dilantin hyperplasia;

(B) The Division covers the following services only for clients under 21 years of age or who are pregnant:

(i) D4240, D4241, D4260 and D4261 – allowed once every three years unless there is a documented medical/dental indication;

(ii) D4245 and D4268;

(b) Non-surgical periodontal services:

(A) D4341 and D4342 – allowed once every two years. A maximum of two quadrants on one date of service is payable, except in extraordinary circumstances. Quadrants are not limited to physical area, but are further defined by the number of teeth with pockets 5 mm or greater;

(B) D4355 – allowed only once every 2 years;

(c) Other periodontal services – D4910 – limited to following periodontal therapy and allowed once every six months. For further consideration of more frequent periodontal maintenance benefits, office records must clearly reflect clinical indication, i.e., chart notes, pocket depths and radiographs;

(d) Records must clearly document the clinical indications for all periodontal procedures, including current pocket depth charting and/or radiographs;

(e) The Division may not reimburse for procedures identified by the following codes if performed on the same date of service:

(A) D1110 (Prophylaxis – adult);

(B) D1120 (Prophylaxis – child);

(C) D4210 (Gingivectomy or gingivoplasty – four or more contiguous teeth or bounded teeth spaces per quadrant);

(D) D4211 (Gingivectomy or gingivoplasty – one to three contiguous teeth or bounded teeth spaces per quadrant);

(E) D4260 (Osseous surgery, including flap entry and closure – four or more contiguous teeth or bounded teeth spaces per quadrant);

(F) D4261 (Osseous surgery, including flap entry and closure – one to three contiguous teeth or bounded teeth spaces per quadrant);

(G) D4341 (Periodontal scaling and root planning – four or more teeth per quadrant);

(H) D4342 (Periodontal scaling and root planning – one to three teeth per quadrant);

(I) D4355 (Full mouth debridement to enable comprehensive evaluation and diagnosis); and

(J) D4910 (Periodontal maintenance).

(7) REMOVABLE PROSTHODONTIC SERVICES:

(a) Clients age 16 years and older are eligible for removable resin base partial dentures (D5211–D5212) and full dentures (complete or immediate, D5110–D5140);

(b) The Division limits full dentures for non-pregnant clients age 21 and older to only those clients who are recently edentulous:

(A) For the purposes of this rule:

(i) “Edentulous” means all teeth removed from the jaw for which the denture is being provided; and

(ii) “Recently edentulous” means the most recent extractions from that jaw occurred within six months of the delivery of the final denture (or, for fabricated prosthetics, the final impression) for that jaw;

(B) See OAR 410-123-1000 for detail regarding billing fabricated prosthetics;

(c) The fee for the partial and full dentures includes payment for adjustments during the six-month period following delivery to clients;

(d) Resin partial dentures (D5211–D5212):

(A) The Division may not approve resin partial dentures if stainless steel crowns are used as abutments;

(B) The client must have one or more anterior teeth missing or four or more missing posterior teeth per arch with resulting space equivalent to that loss demonstrating inability to masticate. Third molars are not a consideration when counting missing teeth;

(C) The dental practitioner must note the teeth to be replaced and teeth to be clasped when requesting prior authorization (PA);

(e) Replacement of removable partial or full dentures, when it cannot be made clinically serviceable by a less costly procedure (e.g., reline, rebase, repair, tooth replacement), is limited to the following:

(A) For clients at least 16 years and under 21 years of age or who are pregnant – the Division shall replace full or partial dentures once every ten years, only if dentally appropriate. This does not imply that replacement of dentures or partials must be done once every ten years, but only when dentally appropriate;

(B) For non-pregnant clients 21 years of age and older – the Division may not cover replacement of full dentures, but shall cover replacement of partial dentures once every 10 years only if dentally appropriate;

(C) The ten year limitations apply to the client regardless of the client’s OHP or Dental Care Organization (DCO) enrollment status at the time client’s last denture or partial was received. For example: a client receives a partial on February 1, 2002, and becomes a FFS OHP client in 2005. The client is not eligible for a replacement partial until February 1, 2012. The client gets a replacement partial on February 3, 2012 while FFS and a year later enrolls in a DCO. The client would not be eligible for another partial until February 3, 2022, regardless of DCO or FFS enrollment;

(D) Replacement of partial dentures with full dentures is payable ten years after the partial denture placement. Exceptions to this limitation may be made in cases of acute trauma or catastrophic illness that directly or indirectly affects the oral condition and results in additional tooth loss. This pertains to, but is not limited to, cancer and periodontal disease resulting from pharmacological, surgical and/or medical treatment for aforementioned conditions. Severe periodontal disease due to neglect of daily oral hygiene may not warrant replacement;

(f) The Division limits reimbursement of adjustments and repairs of dentures that are needed beyond six months after delivery of the denture as follows for non-pregnant clients 21 years of age and older:

(A) A maximum of 4 times per year for:

(i) Adjusting complete and partial dentures, per arch (D5410–D5422);

(ii) Replacing missing or broken teeth on a complete denture – each tooth (D5520);

(iii) Replacing broken tooth on a partial denture – each tooth (D5640);

(iv) Adding tooth to existing partial denture (D5650);

(B) A maximum of 2 times per year for:

(i) Repairing broken complete denture base (D5510);

(ii) Repairing partial resin denture base (D5610);

(iii) Repairing partial cast framework (D5620);

(iv) Repairing or replacing broken clasp (D5630);

(v) Adding clasp to existing partial denture (D5660);

(g) Denture rebase procedures:

(A) Rebase should only be done if a reline may not adequately solve the problem. The Division limits payment for rebase to once every three years;

(B) The Division may make exceptions to this limitation in cases of acute trauma or catastrophic illness that directly or indirectly affects the oral condition and results in additional tooth loss. This pertains to, but is not limited to, cancer and periodontal disease resulting from pharmacological, surgical and/or medical treatment for aforementioned conditions. Severe periodontal disease due to neglect of daily oral hygiene may not warrant rebasing;

(h) Denture reline procedures:

(A) The Division limits payment for reline of complete or partial dentures to once every three years;

(B) The Division may make exceptions to this limitation under the same conditions warranting replacement;

(C) Laboratory relines:

(i) Are not payable prior to six months after placement of an immediate denture; and

(ii) Are limited to once every three years;

(i) Interim partial dentures (D5820–D5821, also referred to as “flip-pers”):

(A) Are allowed if the client has one or more anterior teeth missing; and

(B) The Division shall reimburse for replacement of interim partial dentures once every 5 years, but only when dentally appropriate;

(j) Tissue conditioning:

(A) Is allowed once per denture unit in conjunction with immediate dentures; and

(B) Is allowed once prior to new prosthetic placement.

(8) MAXILLOFACIAL PROSTHETIC SERVICES:

(a) Maxillofacial prosthetics are medical services. Refer to the “Covered and Non-Covered Dental Services” document and OAR 410-123-1220;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Bill for maxillofacial prosthetics using the professional (CMS-1500, DMAP 505 or 837P) claim format:

(A) For clients receiving services through an FCHP or PCO, bill maxillofacial prosthetics to the FCHP or PCO;

(B) For clients receiving medical services through FFS, bill the Division.

(9) Fixed Prosthodontics – The Division limits coverage of prefabricated post and core in addition to fixed partial denture retainer (D6972) only to clients under 21 years of age or who are pregnant.

(10) ORAL SURGERY SERVICES:

(a) Bill the following procedures in an accepted dental claim format using CDT codes:

(A) Procedures that are directly related to the teeth and supporting structures that are not due to a medical, including such procedures performed in an ambulatory surgical center (ASC) or an inpatient or outpatient hospital setting;

(B) Services performed in a dental office setting (including an oral surgeon's office):

(i) Such services include, but are not limited to, all dental procedures, local anesthesia, surgical postoperative care, radiographs and follow-up visits;

(ii) Refer to OAR 410-123-1160 for any PA requirements for specific procedures;

(b) Bill the following procedures using the professional claim format and the appropriate American Medical Association (AMA) CPT procedure and ICD-9 diagnosis codes:

(A) Procedures that are a result of a medical condition (i.e., fractures, cancer);

(B) Services requiring hospital dentistry that are the result of a medical condition/diagnosis (i.e., fracture, cancer);

(c) Refer to the "Covered and Non-Covered Dental Services" document to see a list of CDT procedure codes on the HSC Prioritized List that may also have CPT medical codes. See OAR 410-123-1220. The procedures listed as "medical" on the table may be covered as medical procedures, and the table may not be all-inclusive of every dental code that has a corresponding medical code;

(d) For clients enrolled in a DCO, the DCO is responsible for payment of those services in the dental plan package;

(e) Oral surgical services performed in an ASC or an inpatient or outpatient hospital setting:

(A) Require PA;

(B) For clients enrolled in a FCHP, the facility charge and anesthesia services are the responsibility of the FCHP. For clients enrolled in a PCO, the outpatient facility charge (including ASCs) and anesthesia are the responsibility of the PCO. Refer to the current Medical Surgical Services administrative rules in OAR chapter 410, division 130 for more information;

(C) If a client is enrolled in a FCHP or a PCO, it is the responsibility of the provider to contact the FCHP or the PCO for any required authorization before the service is rendered;

(f) All codes listed as "by report" require an operative report;

(g) The Division covers payment for tooth re-implantation only in cases of traumatic avulsion where there are good indications of success;

(h) Biopsies collected are reimbursed as a dental service. Laboratory services of biopsies are reimbursed as a medical service;

(i) The Division does not cover surgical excisions of soft tissue lesions (D7410–D7415);

(j) Extractions – Includes local anesthesia and routine postoperative care, including treatment of a dry socket if done by the provider of the extraction. Dry socket is not considered a separate service;

(k) Surgical extractions:

(A) Include local anesthesia and routine post-operative care;

(B) The Division limits payment for surgical removal of impacted teeth or removal of residual tooth roots to treatment for only those teeth that have acute infection or abscess, severe tooth pain, and/or unusual swelling of the face or gums;

(C) The Division does not cover alveoplasty in conjunction with extractions (D7310 and D7311) separately from the extraction;

(D) The Division covers alveoplasty not in conjunction with extractions (D7320) only for clients under 21 years of age or who are pregnant.

(11) ORTHODONTIA SERVICES:

(a) The Division limits orthodontia services and extractions to eligible clients:

(A) With the ICD-9-CM diagnosis of:

(i) Cleft palate; or

(ii) Cleft palate with cleft lip; and

(B) Whose orthodontia treatment began prior to 21 years of age; or

(C) Whose surgical corrections of cleft palate or cleft lip were not completed prior to age 21;

(b) PA is required for orthodontia exams and records. A referral letter from a physician or dentist indicating diagnosis of cleft palate/cleft lip must be included in the client's record and a copy sent with the PA request;

(c) Documentation in the client's record must include diagnosis, length and type of treatment;

(d) Payment for appliance therapy includes the appliance and all follow-up visits;

(e) Orthodontists evaluate orthodontia treatment for cleft palate/cleft lip as two phases. Stage one is generally the use of an activator (palatal expander) and stage two is generally the placement of fixed appliances (banding). The Division shall reimburse each phase individually (separately);

(f) The Division shall pay for orthodontia in one lump sum at the beginning of each phase of treatment. Payment for each phase is for all orthodontia-related services. If the client transfers to another orthodontist during treatment, or treatment is terminated for any reason, the orthodontist must refund to the Division any unused amount of payment, after applying the following formula: Total payment minus $300.00 (for banding) multiplied by the percentage of treatment remaining;

(g) The Division shall use the length of the treatment plan from the original request for authorization to determine the number of treatment months remaining;

(h) As long as the orthodontist continues treatment, the Division may not require a refund even though the client may become ineligible for medical assistance sometime during the treatment period;

(i) Code:

(A) D8660 – PA required (reimbursement for required orthodontia records is included);

(B) Codes D8010–D8999 – PA required.

(12) ADJUNCTIVE GENERAL AND OTHER SERVICES:

(a) Fixed partial denture sectioning (D9120) is covered only when extracting a tooth connected to a fixed prosthesis and a portion of the fixed prosthesis is to remain intact and serviceable, preventing the need for more costly treatment;

(b) Anesthesia:

(A) Only use general anesthesia or IV sedation for those clients with concurrent needs: age, physical, medical or mental status, or degree of difficulty of the procedure (D9220, D9221, D9241 and D9242);

(B) The Division reimburses providers for general anesthesia or IV sedation as follows:

(i) D9220 or D9241: For the first 30 minutes;

(ii) D9221 or D9242: For each additional 15-minute period, up to three hours on the same day of service. Each 15-minute period represents a quantity of one. Enter this number in the quantity column;

(C) The Division reimburses administration of Nitrous Oxide (D9230) per date of service, not by time;

(D) Oral pre-medication anesthesia for conscious sedation (D9248):

(i) Limited to clients under 13 years of age;

(ii) Limited to four times per year;

(iii) Includes payment for monitoring and Nitrous Oxide; and

(iv) Requires use of multiple agents to receive payment;

(E) Upon request, providers must submit a copy of their permit to administer anesthesia, analgesia and/or sedation to the Division;

(F) For the purpose of Title XIX and Title XXI, the Division limits payment for code D9630 to those oral medications used during a procedure and is not intended for "take home" medication;

(c) The Division limits reimbursement of house/extended care facility call (D9410) only for urgent or emergent dental visits that occur outside of a dental office. This code is not reimbursable for provision of preventive services or for services provided outside of the office for the provider or facilities' convenience;

(d) Office visit for observation (D9430):

(A) Is covered only for clients under 21 years of age or who are pregnant; and

(B) The Division reimburses a maximum of three visits per year;

(e) Oral devices/appliances (E0485, E0486):

(A) These may be placed or fabricated by a dentist or oral surgeon, but are considered a medical service;

(B) Bill the Division or the FCHP/PCO for these codes using the professional claim format.

Medical Eligibility Standards

As the state Medicaid and CHIP agency, the Oregon Health Authority (Authority) is responsible for establishing and implementing eligibility policies and procedure consistent with applicable law. As outlined in 943-001-0020, the Authority, and the Department of Human Services (Department) work together to adopt rules to assure that medical assistance eligibility procedures and determinations are consistent across both agencies.

(1) The Authority adopts and incorporates by reference the rules established in OAR Chapter 461, and in effect July 15, 2011, for all medical eligibility requirements for medical assistance when the Authority conducts eligibility determinations.

(2) Any reference to OAR Chapter 461 in Oregon Administrative Rules or contracts of the Authority are deemed to be references to the requirements of this rule, and shall be construed to apply to all eligibility policies, procedures and determinations by or through the Authority.

(3) For purposes of this rule, references in OAR chapter 461 to the Department or to the Authority shall be construed to be references to both agencies.

(4) Effective on or after July 1, 2011 the Authority shall conduct medical eligibility determinations using the OAR chapter 461 rules which are in effect on the date the Authority makes the medical eligibility determination.

(5) A request for a hearing resulting from a determination under this rule, made by the Authority shall be handled pursuant to the hearing procedures set out in division 25 of OAR Chapter 461. References to "the Administrator" in division 25 of chapter 461 or "the Department" are hereby incorporated as references to the Authority."

Subject: The Division temporarily amended OAR 410-121-0030 effective March 1, 2011, to include the semi-annual changes to the current Preferred Drug List (PDL) classes. This filing will permanently amend this rule.

The Division also filed Notice of Proposed Rulemaking/Hearing for this rule to allow exceptions for the dispensing of brand name prescriptions instead of the generic form when a brand manufacturer contracts with the State and the branded product's Net Price to the Division becomes less than the generic Net price and it is listed as preferred on the PDL. This update is also included in the permanent rule.

This rule reflects the Division's agency authority from the Department of Human Services to the Oregon Health Authority and updated statutory reference. Other text may be revised to improve readability and to take care of necessary "housekeeping" corrections.

410-121-0030

Practitioner-Managed Prescription Drug Plan

(1) The Practitioner-Managed Prescription Drug Plan (PMPDP) is a plan that ensures that fee-for-service clients of the Oregon Health Plan shall have access to the most effective prescription drugs appropriate for their clinical conditions at the best possible price:

(a) Licensed health care practitioners (informed by the latest peer reviewed research), make decisions concerning the clinical effectiveness of the prescription drugs;

(b) The licensed health care practitioners also consider the health condition of a client or characteristics of a client, including the client's gender, race or ethnicity.

(2) PMPDP Preferred Drug List (PDL):

(a) The PDL is the primary tool that the Division developed to inform licensed health care practitioners about the results of the latest peer-reviewed research and cost effectiveness of prescription drugs;

(b) The PDL consists of prescription drugs in selected classes that the Division, in consultation with the Health Resources Commission (HRC), has determined represent the most effective drug(s) available at the best possible price;

(c) For each selected drug class, the PDL shall identify the drug(s) in the class that the Division determines to be the most effective drug(s) and determine the Net Price for each drug and Average Net Price of the class;

(d) The PDL shall include drugs in the class that are Medicaid reimbursable and the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has determined to be safe and effective if the relative cost is less than the Average Net Price. If pharmaceutical manufacturers enter into supplemental rebate agreements with the Division that reduce the cost of their drug below that of the Average Net Price for the class, the Division, in consultation with the HRC recommendations, may include their drug on the PDL.

(3) PMPDP PDL Selection Process:

(a) The Division shall utilize the recommendations made by the HRC, that result from an evidence-based evaluation process, as the basis for identifying the most effective drug(s) within a selected drug class;

(b) The Division shall determine the drugs identified in (3)(a) that are available for the best possible price and shall consider any input from the HRC about other FDA-approved drug(s) in the same class that are available for a lesser relative price. The Division shall determine relative price using the methodology described in subsection (4);

(c) The Division shall evaluate drug classes and selected drugs for the drug classes periodically:

(A) Evaluation shall occur more frequently at the discretion of the Division if new safety information or the release of new drugs in a class or other information makes an evaluation advisable;

(B) New drugs in classes already evaluated for the PDL shall be non-preferred until the new drug has been reviewed by the HRC;

(C) The Division shall make all changes or revisions to the PDL, using the rulemaking process and shall publish the changes on the Division's Pharmaceutical Services provider rules Web page.

(4) Relative cost and best possible price determination:

(a) The Division shall determine the relative cost of all drugs in each selected class that are Medicaid reimbursable and that the FDA has determined to be safe and effective;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) The Division may also consider dosing issues, patterns of use and compliance issues. The Division shall weigh these factors with any advice provided by the HRC in reaching a final decision;

(c) The Division shall determine the Average Net Price for each PDL drug class;

(d) The Division shall include drugs on the PDL based on all of the above and with a Net Price under the Average Net Price.

(5) Regardless of the PDL, pharmacy providers shall dispense prescriptions in the generic form, unless:

(a) The practitioner requests otherwise, subject to the regulations outlined in OAR 410-121-0155;

(b) The brand manufacturer contracts the Net Price to remain less than the generic Net Price and it is listed as preferred on the PDL.

(6) The exception process for obtaining non-preferred physical health drugs that are not on the PDL drugs shall be as follows:

(a) If the prescribing practitioner, in their professional judgment, wishes to prescribe a physical health drug not on the PDL, they may request an exception, subject to the requirements of OAR 410-121-0040;

(b) The prescribing practitioner must request an exception for physical health drugs not listed in the PDL subject to the requirements of OAR 410-121-0060;

(c) Exceptions shall be granted in instances:

(A) Where the prescriber in their professional judgment determines the non-preferred drug is medically appropriate after consulting with the Division or the Oregon Pharmacy Help Desk; or

(B) Where the prescriber requests an exception subject to the requirement of (6)(b) and fails to receive a report of PA status within 24 hours, subject to OAR 410-121-0060.

442-005-0020

Reservation Lists

(1) To manage enrollment and ensure that funds are available to cover subsidy payments for those enrolled, FHIAP will establish three reservation lists for prospective applicants. One reservation list for each of the following:

(a) Applicants who have or will have access to group coverage;

(b) Applicants who do not have access to group coverage; and

(c) Applicants who are families with potentially eligible children.

(2) The Office will establish procedures to manage the reservation lists with the goal of equal distribution of funds between the reservation lists. This may require FHIAP to release applications from one reservation list ahead of the other.

(3) An applicant may obtain an individual or group application by first getting on the reservation list; or may access a group application via FHIAP's website, or from an employer or insurance producer.

(4) Prospective applicants will be added to the appropriate reservation list or assigned a reservation number in order of the date FHIAP receives a completed reservation request either in writing or over the telephone. A completed application form may be deemed a reservation request if no prior request was made.

(5) Each request will be assigned a reservation number, which will also function as confirmation of placement on the appropriate reservation list.

(6) Prospective applicants on the reservation list will be notified of their right to apply for FHIAP, as program funds are available.

(7) When enrollment in FHIAP reaches the maximum that funding will allow, additional enrollment may occur as current members terminate or if additional program funding becomes available.

(8) A prospective applicant has 75 calendar days from the date the Office mails the application form, or notifies the prospective applicant that they may apply for a FHIAP subsidy, to return a completed application form to the Office.

(9) If a prospective applicant does not return an application form within 75 calendar days from the original date of mailing or notification, the Office will remove the prospective applicant's name from the reservation list.

(10) A prospective applicant may enroll in a health benefit plan while on the reservation list as long as they have met the two-month period of uninsurance requirement or exceptions to the period of uninsurance requirement prior to enrolling in the plan.

(11) FHIAP applicants may add new dependents to an existing insurance plan or their FHIAP application without adding them to the reservation list first.

(12) Members who have terminated from FHIAP cannot re-enroll in the program without first being placed on the appropriate reservation list unless they have a family member who is still enrolled in FHIAP.

Application Process

(1) FHIAP will use an application and any documentation required on the application, will be used to determine eligibility and subsidy level.

(2) Applicants may only send in information providing program eligibility during the application process. FHIAP will not accept information sent outside of the application timeframe to use in an audit, appeal or contested case hearing except as provided in OARs 442-005-0310, 442-005-0320, 442-005-0330 and 442-005-0340.

(3) Program openings occur when funds are available.

(4) Applicants are mailed an application on a first come first serve basis, when there are program openings.

(5) FHIAP reviews applications in the order they are received. Eligibility decisions include:

(a) Approval for immediate subsidy;

(b) Denial; or

(c) Request for more information.

(6) When there are no program openings, FHIAP may approve the application, but the applicant may not be eligible for a subsidy right away. These approved applications are held in a queue. Applicants are mailed a notice when they are able to enroll for subsidies.

(7) Documents that verify required information requested on the application must be provided with the application if FHIAP is not able to verify the information electronically. Required documentation includes but is not limited to:

(a) A copy of a current Oregon identification or other proof of Oregon residency for all adult applicants;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) For non-United States citizens, a copy of documentation from the Department of Homeland Security showing their status and when they arrived in the United States.

(c) Documents verifying all adult applicant's and spouse's earned and unearned income and children's unearned income for the one month prior to the month in which the application is signed. Documentation may include, but is not limited to, pay stubs, award letters, child support documentation and unemployment benefit stubs or printouts. If an applicant or spouse is employed by a business or partnership that is either partially or wholly owned by the applicant or spouse, business documentation as described in OAR 442-005-0070(2)(d) must also be submitted.

(d) A completed Self-Employment Income Worksheet and documents verifying income from self-employment and fishing for the twelve months prior to the signature month on the application for those submitting an income attestation. Documentation may include, but is not limited to, business ledgers, profit and loss statements and bank statements;

(e) A completed Farming and Ranching Income Worksheet and documents verifying income from farming, fishing and ranching for the 12 months prior to the signature month on the application for those submitting an income attestation. Documentation may include, but is not limited to, business ledgers, profit and loss statements and bank statements;

(f) The most recently filed federal tax return and all schedules for applicants who have income from self-employment, fishing, farming, or ranching, rentals or royalties, or capital gains, interest and dividends.

(g) A copy of any group insurance handbook, summary, or contract that is available to any applicant.

(h) A completed Group Insurance Information (GII) form, if the applicant has group insurance available to them.

(i) For applicants with no income, the completed No Income form or other signed statement explaining how the applicant is meeting their basic needs, such as food, clothing and shelter.

(8) Additional verification must be provided when FHIAP requests it.

(9) FHIAP may verify any factors affecting eligibility, benefit levels or any information reported, such as:

(a) Data or other information received by FHIAP that is inconsistent with information on the FHIAP application;

(b) Information provided on the application is inconsistent;

(c) Information reported on previous applications that is inconsistent with a current FHIAP application.

(10) FHIAP may decide at any time during the application process that additional eligibility factors must be verified.

(11) FHIAP may deny an application or end ongoing subsidy when acceptable verification or required documentation is not provided.

Eligibility

In order for an applicant to qualify for a FHIAP subsidy, applicants must:

(1) Be a resident of Oregon or a full-time college student with a parent who is a resident of Oregon.

(2) Be a United States citizen or a qualified non-citizen who meets the alien status requirement.

(3) Not be eligible for or receiving Medicare benefits.

(4) Have income of zero through 200 percent of the Federal Poverty Level in effect at the time of eligibility determination. Income determination is outlined in OAR 442-005-0070.

(5) Meet one of the statutory definitions of family in ORS 414.841(3) at the time of eligibility determination. To be included in the family size for FHIAP eligibility determination, the applicant's family members must meet the definition of dependent under OAR 442-005-0010(8):

(a) A dependent may be counted in two separate households for the purposes of determining eligibility for FHIAP and any other state assistance program;

(b) A dependent may be counted in two separate households for the purpose of determining eligibility for both families in FHIAP;

(c) A dependent may not be enrolled in FHIAP and OHP (or any other state medical assistance program) at the same time;

(d) A dependent may be enrolled in FHIAP and any other state assistance program (except medical) at the same time;

(e) If a dependent is counted in two separate households for the purpose of determining eligibility in two different assistance programs, enrollment will be determined by criteria established in procedure.

(6) Meet either a period of uninsurance requirement or exceptions listed in OAR 442-005-0060.

(7) Not be incarcerated for more than 30 days or be a ward of the State.

(8) Provide necessary materials by the due dates specified in FHIAP correspondence in order to allow for eligibility determination. If information is not submitted by the dates specified in FHIAP correspondence or the information is inconsistent or incomplete, the application may be denied.

(9) If applying for subsidy in the group market, must be able to enroll in a group insurance plan that meets the benchmark standard established by the Office within twelve months of eligibility determination. If an applicant to the group market does not have access to a group plan, the group plan they have access to does not meet the benchmark standard, or they cannot enroll into their group plan within twelve months of eligibility determination, the applicant will be denied and placed on the reservation list for an individual subsidy using the same date they were placed on the group reservation list.

(10) If an application is sent from the child-only reservation list, subsidies will only be approved for children. Adults are not eligible for subsidy on this type of application. If an application from the child-only list is denied, the family will be placed at the end of the group or individual reservation list, depending on the available insurance market.

442-005-0070

Income Determination

(1) In order to qualify for FHIAP an applicant must have an average monthly gross income, from all sources, up through 200 percent of the federal poverty level in effect at the time of determination. Subsidies will be approved on a sliding scale determined by income and family size. Income from more than one source will be determined individually based on the criteria for each source and the results totaled for a final average monthly income amount. For the purposes of FHIAP, there are six primary categories of income; these categories are:

(a) Earned and unearned income from non-self-employment sources.

(b) Self-employment and fishing income.

(c) Farming and ranching income.

(d) Income to owners of corporations and/or partnerships.

(e) Rental and royalty income.

(f) Interest and dividend income.

(2) FHIAP will determine into which category or categories an applicant's income falls and treat each type of income appropriately. FHIAP will determine the applicant's income eligibility according to the following detail:

(a) For earned and unearned income from non-self-employment sources, average gross monthly income will be determined using income received in the one month prior to the month in which the application was signed.

(b) For self-employment and fishing, average income will be determined using figures from the applicant's most recently filed federal Schedule C or C-EZ.

(c) For farming and ranching, income will be determined using figures from the applicant's most recently filed federal Schedule F.

(d) For owners of corporations and partnerships, income will be determined using wages paid to the applicant(s) plus any payments made from business funds for personal expenses in the three-calendar months prior to the month in which the application was signed. The following documents are required for eligibility determination:

(A) Owners of corporations must submit the corporation's most recently filed federal taxes with all schedules.

(B) Owners of partnerships must submit the partnerships most recently filed federal taxes with all schedules.

(C) Owners of either corporations or partnerships must submit three months of both personal and business bank statements.

(e) Income from rentals and royalties will be determined using figures from the applicant's most recently filed federal Schedule E.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(f) Income from interest and dividends will be determined using figures from the applicant's most recently filed federal Schedule B, C, D, or 1099 DIV.

(3) In the event the taxes of an applicant with income in categories (1)(b) and (1)(c) do not reflect the applicant's current income, the applicant may submit an attestation of their income with documentation of their income for the previous six months for self-employed applicants or 12 months for farming, fishing and ranching applicants.

(a) Documentation includes but is not limited to business ledgers, profit and loss statements and bank statements.

(b) Average adjusted income will be determined by either method described below as specified by the applicant on the Self-Employment or Farming, Ranching and Fishing Income Worksheet. Whichever method the applicant chooses to use will be the method used throughout that year's eligibility determination, including appeal and contested case hearing processes.

(A) Income received from farming, fishing, ranching and self-employment will be reduced by 50 percent for business expenses; or

(B) Income received from farming, fishing, ranching or self-employment will be reduced by the actual allowable expenses incurred during the six or 12 months prior to the month in which the application was signed. Allowable expenses are listed on the Self-Employment or Farming, Ranching and Fishing Income Worksheets.

(c) Attestations are subject to future audit for accuracy. The file may be referred for collection if misrepresentation or overpayment are found.

(4) Income is available immediately upon receipt, or when the applicant has a legal interest in the income and the legal ability to make the income available, except in the following situations when it is considered available as indicated:

(a) For earned and unearned income:

(A) Income available prior to any deductions such as garnishments, taxes, payroll deductions, or voluntary payroll deductions will be considered as available; however, support payments as defined in OAR 442-005-0010(25) may be deducted from gross income if the applicant is able to prove the payments were made.

(B) Income usually paid monthly or on some other regular schedule, but paid early or late is treated as available on the regular payday.

(C) Payments made in a "lump sum" will be divided out over the number of months the payment is for. "Lump sum" payments will only be divided if the applicant can provide proof of the period for which the payment was made.

(b) Earned income is available as follows:

(A) Income withheld or diverted at the request of an employee is considered available in the month the wages would have been paid;

(B) An advance or draw that will be subtracted from later wages is available when received; and

(c) Payments that should legally be made directly to an applicant, but are paid to a third party on behalf of an applicant, are considered available the date that is on the check or stub.

(6) Income is not available if:

(a) The wages are withheld by an employer, with the exception of garnishment, even if in violation of the law;

(b) The income is paid jointly to the applicant and other individuals and the other individuals do not pay the applicant his/her share; and

(c) It is received by a separated spouse. FHIAP will determine when an applicant's spouse is deemed separated for purposes of this subsection (5)(c).

Rule Caption: Amends OEBB's qualified status change rule.

Adm. Order No.: OEBB 11-2011

Filed with Sec. of State: 6-22-2011

Certified to be Effective: 6-22-11

Notice Publication Date: 4-1-2011

Rules Amended: 111-040-0040

Rules Repealed: 111-040-0040(T)

Subject: OAR 111-040-0040 is amended to include a qualified status change which allows an OEBB member to make a change to their benefit selections outside of the annual open enrollment when their spouse/domestic partner's annual open enrollment or plan year is different from OEBB's.

Rules Coordinator: April Kelly—(503) 378-6588

111-040-0040

Qualified Status Changes (QSC's)

(1) Active eligible employees experiencing a change in family or work status as noted below after annual enrollment, or anytime during the plan year, have 31 calendar days beginning on the date of the event to make changes. If the event is gaining a child, as defined by 111-040-0040(2)(c), or results in a loss of eligibility, the eligible employee has 60 calendar days after the event to make changes.

(2) The eligible employee can only make changes that are consistent with the event for themselves and/or dependents.

(3) The employee must report the Qualified Status Change (QSC) to the employee's Educational Entity within the specified timeframe. Failure to report a QSC that will result in removal of a spouse, domestic partner, or child within the timeframe stated in 111-040-0040(1) may be considered intentional misrepresentation, and OEBB may retroactively terminate the individual's coverage back to the last day of the month in which the individual lost eligibility. Please refer to the QSC matrix for details on what changes can occur with each event.

(4) Qualified Status Changes which allow the employee to make changes to his or her coverage are:

(a) Gain spouse by marriage or domestic partner by meeting domestic partner eligibility;

(b) Loss of spouse or domestic partner by divorce, annulment, death or termination of domestic partnership,

(c) Gain a child by birth, placement for/or adoption, or Domestic Partner's children (by affidavit of domestic partnership),

(d) Active eligible employee starts new employment and gains eligibility;

(e) Change in employment status by active eligible employee which affects eligibility;

(f) Active eligible employee ends employment or other change in employment status resulting in a loss of eligibility;

(g) Spouse or domestic partner starts new employment or other change in employment status which affects eligibility;

(h) Spouse or domestic partner's employment ends or other change in employment status resulting in a loss of eligibility under their employer's plan;

(i) Event by which a child satisfies eligibility requirements under OEBB plans (for a list of requirements see 111-010-0015);

(j) Event by which a child ceases to satisfy eligibility requirements under OEBB plans (for a list of requirements see 111-010-0015),

(k) Changes in the residence of the active eligible employee, spouse, domestic partner, or child (i.e., moving out of the service area of an HMO);

(l) Reinstatement of coverage. Reinstatement can be used in the following situations:

(A) Military (USERRA);

(B) When coverage was continued under COBRA

(C) When coverage was terminated in error and there is no lapse in coverage.

(m) Significant changes in cost of the eligible employee's or early retiree's current plan and tier level that result in a negative impact of 10 percent or more to:

(A) The amount an active eligible employee or early retiree must contribute toward benefits.

(B) The amount a spouse or domestic partner must contribute toward his or her group health insurance plan cost.

(n) Different Open Enrollment/Plan Year under a spouse/domestic partner's employer plan.

(o) Related laws or court orders. For example: Qualified Medical Child Support Order (QMCSO), Medicare, HIPAA, or Family Health Insurance Assistance Program (FHIAP). Changes are determined by the applicable law or court order.

(5) Changes in coverage, or contribution amounts that result in a reduced amount that an employee or eligible dependent must contribute toward benefits, do not constitute a Qualified Status Change.

(6) The following applies to the Long Term Care benefit plans only:

(a) Cancel the plan at anytime without a QSC event.

(b) Plan additions or changes require a QSC event as defined 111-040-0040(2). The addition of a plan or change in plans with a QSC is subject to a medical evidence review by the LTC carrier.

Eligibility and Policy Term Violations — Definitions

For the purposes of OAR 111-080-0045 and 111-080-0050, the following definitions will apply:

(1) "Eligibility or Enrollment Violations" means and includes a violation of the Oregon Educators Benefit Board's eligibility or enrollment rules or policies including fraud or material misrepresentation. Misstatements, misrepresentations, omissions or concealments on the part of the OEBB member are not fraudulent unless they are made with intent to knowingly defraud. OEBB has primary responsibility in investigating such violations. If an Eligibility Violation is considered a violation of the insurance carrier's policy, then the violation may also be considered a Policy Term Violation, and OAR 111-080-0050 would also apply.

(A) "Intentional Violation" is a violation that has occurred in which OEBB has electronic or written documentation that the eligible employee took action resulting in a non-eligible member being enrolled in OEBB benefits.

(B) "Unintentional Violation" is a violation that has occurred in which the eligible employee was not aware that such violation had occurred and there is no evidence of the eligible employee completing a paper form or logging in and enrolling an ineligible member in OEBB benefits.

(2) "Policy Term Violations" means and includes a violation of the insurance carrier's policy terms. The insurance carrier has primary responsibility in investigating such violations.

111-080-0045

Eligibility Violations

(1) Unintentional Violation:

(A) OEBB will remove from coverage an ineligible OEBB member due to eligibility or enrollment violations. Removal from all benefit plans will be retroactive to the date the individual is determined to have no longer been eligible, or the effective date of coverage if eligibility criteria was never met unless in conflict with federal healthcare reform.

(B) When an eligibility or enrollment violation has been discovered and investigated, OEBB will notify the member and the Educational Entity with the outcome. If the outcome includes rescission of coverage, OEBB will give a 30 day notice of such rescission prior to terminating coverage retroactively to the date the member was no longer eligible for benefits.

(C) The member may be responsible for any claims paid during the period of time the member was enrolled inappropriately.

(2) Intentional Violation:

(A) The ineligible member shall be removed from coverage by OEBB. The ineligible member's coverage will be retroactively terminated to the date the individual is determined to have no longer been eligible, or the effective date of coverage if eligibility criteria was never met.

(B) OEBB may terminate the eligible employee along with remaining dependents from all plans excluding basic and mandatory plans selected by the educational entity. This will be a prospective termination lasting for a period of 12 months. The prospective termination will be effective the first day of the following month that the Intentional Violation was discovered.

111-080-0050

Policy Term Violations

(1) An OEBB-contracted insurance carrier may remove from coverage and/or deny the claims of an OEBB member due to policy term violations. Removal from coverage for policy term violations is at the discretion of the insurance carrier.

(A) If a policy term violation results in a termination from the plan or carrier that the violation was committed, it will not prevent the member from continuing enrollment in other OEBB types of coverages (e.g., medical, dental, vision, life, etc.), as long as they remain an employee and eligible for these benefits.

(B) If an eligible employee commits a policy term violation and loses coverage, OEBB will remove the entire family from the insurance plan since the benefits are extended to his or her dependents through the eligible employee. If the eligible employee chooses to, and it is offered, they can enroll in a different carrier plan (if applicable) during open enrollment and cover themselves and dependents during the upcoming plan year.

(C) If a dependent commits a policy term violation, OEBB will remove only the dependent from the insurance plan. If the eligible employee chooses to and it is offered, they can enroll in a different carrier plan (if applicable) during open enrollment and cover the dependent during the upcoming plan year, or as defined by the carrier.

(D) The OEBB member who is removed from an OEBB sponsored insurance plan may appeal the decision through the carrier that terminated coverage.

(E) When a policy term violation has been discovered and investigated, the applicable insurance carrier will notify OEBB and the member with the outcome.

(2) The insurance carrier may do the following when a member has violated a provision of the policy the OEBB member has enrolled in, committed fraudulent activity or misrepresentation:

(A) The insurance carrier may retain the value of any expenditure it made related to the member who committed the fraudulent activity or misrepresentation.

(B) The insurance carrier may deny future enrollments of the individual in accordance with the carrier's policies.

Authority, Purpose, Scope

(1) Authority. These rules are promulgated in accordance with and under the authority of ORS 431.920.

(2) Purpose. These rules prescribe the requirements for accredited training programs to ensure a properly trained workforce to perform inspection, risk assessment and abatement of hazards associated with lead-based paint. These rules are designed to ensure that good quality training is available to those who need or want to have training in lead-based paint inspection, assessment or abatement activities.

(3) Scope.

(a) A training program may seek accreditation to offer lead-based paint activity courses in any of the following disciplines: inspector, risk assessor, supervisor, project designer, and abatement worker. A training program accredited in a discipline may also seek accreditation to offer refresher courses for the discipline.

(b) These rules prescribe the requirements for training programs to provide, offer, or claim to provide Authority accredited lead-based paint activities courses.

(c) These rules prescribe those actions or circumstances that constitute failure to achieve or maintain competency, or that otherwise are contrary to the public interest, for which the Authority may deny, suspend, or revoke accreditation.

(d) These rules provide criteria for the certification by the Authority and licensure by the Construction Contractors Board (CCB) of persons and the firms employing persons who have completed accredited training.

(e) These rules establish fees to the extent necessary to defray costs of those activities prescribed herein.

333-068-0015

Definitions

As used in these rules unless otherwise required by context:

(1) “Abatement” means any measure or set of measures designed to permanently eliminate lead-based paint hazards including, but not limited to:

(a) The removal of lead-based paint and lead-contaminated dust, the permanent enclosure or encapsulation of lead-based paint, the replacement of lead-painted surfaces or fixtures, and the removal or covering of lead-contaminated soil; and

(b) All preparation, cleanup, disposal, and post-abatement clearance examination activities associated with such measures;

(c) Specifically, abatement includes, but is not limited to:

(A) Projects for which there is a written contract or other documentation, which provides that an individual or firm will be conducting activities in or to a residential dwelling or child-occupied facility that results in permanent elimination of lead-based paint hazards or designed to permanently eliminate lead-based paint hazards as described in subsections (1)(a) and (1)(b) above.

(B) Projects resulting in the permanent elimination of lead-based paint hazards, conducted by certified and licensed firms or individuals, unless such projects are covered under subsection (1)(d) of this definition.

(c) Projects resulting in the permanent elimination of lead-based paint hazards; conducted by firms or individuals who, through their company name or promotional literature, represent, advertise, or hold themselves out to be in the business of performing lead-based paint activities, unless such projects are covered under subsection (1)(d) of this section.

(d) Projects resulting in the permanent elimination of lead-based paint hazards that are conducted in response to state or local abatement orders.

(e) Abatement does not include renovation, remodeling, landscaping or other activities, when such activities are not designed to permanently eliminate lead-based paint hazards, but, instead, are designed to repair, restore, or remodel a given structure or dwelling, even though these activities may incidentally result in a reduction or elimination of lead-based paint hazards. Furthermore, abatement does not include interim controls, operations and maintenance activities, or other measures and activities designed to temporarily, but not permanently, reduce lead-based paint hazards.

(2) “Accreditation” means the process whereby the Authority has reviewed and approved a training program’s written application with associated materials for accreditation, and has conducted an on-site audit finding the training program in compliance as specified in these rules.

(3) “Accredited Training Program” means an individual, corporation, partnership or other unincorporated association or public entity to which the Authority, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program has received accreditation or provisional accreditation to provide training for individuals engaged in lead-based paint activities.

(4) “Approved” means approved in writing by the Authority.

(5) “Authority” means the Oregon Health Authority.

(6) “Certified” means successful completion of a training program accredited by the Authority, EPA or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program, passage of a certification examination administered by the Authority, satisfaction of any other requirements for the appropriate discipline, and submittal and approval of the appropriate application by the Authority for inspection, risk assessment or abatement activities in target housing and child-occupied facilities.

(7) “Certified firm” means a company, partnership, corporation, sole proprietorship, association, or other business entity that performs lead-based paint activities that the Authority has issued a certificate under OAR 333-069-0005 through 333-069-0090.

(8) “Clearance examination” means visual examination and clearance testing performed following abatement of lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards using documented methodologies as defined in this section. Such examination shall be performed by a person certified to perform risk assessments or lead-based paint inspections.

(9) “Clearance examination standards” means values that indicate the maximum amount of lead permitted in dust on a surface or in soil following completion of an abatement activity. Standards for lead in dust are 40 micrograms per square foot ( $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$ ) on floors, 250  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  on interior window sills, and 400  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  on window troughs. The values for lead in soil are 400 parts per million (ppm) in play areas and 1,200 ppm in the remainder of the yard.

(10) “Contact hour” means 60 minutes of lead-based paint related training which may include a break of not more than 10 minutes.

(11) “Course completion document” means documentation issued by an accredited training program to an individual as proof of successful completion of an Authority approved lead-based paint course or refresher training course.

(12) “Demonstration testing” means the observation and scoring of a student’s job task and equipment use skills taught during a course or refresher training course.

(13) “Discipline” means a specific type or category of lead-based paint activity.

(14) “Guest instructor” means an individual who is responsible for providing less than 30 percent of training in any course.

(15) “Hands-on training” means training during which students practice skills that they will be expected to perform at the worksite.

(16) “Inspection” means a surface-by-surface investigation to determine the presence of lead-based paint and the provision of a report, in writing, explaining the results of the investigation.

(17) “Inspector” means an individual who is certified by the Authority to conduct in target housing and child-occupied facilities a surface-by-surface investigation to determine the presence of lead-based paint and the provision of a written report explaining the results of the investigation; and to collect dust-wipe and soil samples incidental to post-abatement clearance examination, in accordance with OAR 333-069-0070.

(18) “Instructor” means an individual who is responsible for providing 30 percent or more of training in any course.

(19) “Interactive/participatory teaching methods” means instruction which consists of active participation of the students, such as brainstorming, hands-on training, demonstration and practice, small group problem-solving, learning games, discussions, risk mapping, field visits, walk-throughs, problem-posing, group work assignments, homework review sessions, question-and-answer periods, skits, or role-playing sessions. Lecture is not considered an interactive/participatory teaching method.

(20) “Job tasks” mean the specific activities performed in the context of work.

(21) “Lead-based paint” means paint or other surface coatings that contain lead equal to or in excess of 1.0 milligram per square centimeter or 0.5 percent by weight.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(22) "Lead-based paint activities" means, in the case of target housing and child-occupied facilities, inspection, risk-assessment, and abatement.

(23) "Lead-based paint hazard" means any condition that causes exposure to lead from lead-contaminated dust, lead-contaminated soil, lead-contaminated paint that is deteriorated or present in accessible surfaces, friction surfaces or impact surfaces that would result in adverse human health effects.

(24) "Licensed" means a person who has been certified by the Authority in one or more disciplines and has completed the requirements of the CCB.

(25) "Person" means individuals, corporations, associations, firms, partnerships, joint stock companies, and public entities.

(26) "Principal instructor" means the individual who has the primary responsibility for organizing and teaching a particular course.

(27) "Proficiency test" means any alternative to a conventional written examination that is used to measure a trainee's mastery of course content. An oral examination offered to a trainee with a manual disability is an example of a proficiency test.

(28) "Provisional accreditation" means the Authority has reviewed and finds acceptable a training program's written application for accreditation, but has not conducted an on-site audit as specified in these rules.

(29) "Project designer" means an individual who is certified by the Authority and licensed by the CCB to interpret lead inspection or risk assessment reports and to develop plans, specifications, and project procedures for lead abatement projects in target housing and child-occupied facilities, including, occupant notification and protection, clean-up and clearance, and abatement reports.

(30) "Refresher training course" means a minimum seven hour training course (or four hours for project designer) accredited by the Authority to update an individual's knowledge and skills in the discipline in which training is offered.

(31) "Risk assessment" means an on-site investigation to determine the existence, nature, severity, and location of lead-based paint hazards, and the provision of a report by the individual or the firm conducting the risk assessment, explaining the results of the investigation and options for reducing lead-based hazards.

(32) "Risk assessor" means an individual who is certified by the Authority and licensed by the CCB to conduct, in target housing and child-occupied facilities, on-site investigations to determine the existence, nature, severity, and location of lead-based paint hazards, and to provide a report explaining the results of the investigation and options for reducing lead-based hazards; and who may conduct a lead-hazard investigation, in accordance with OAR 333-069-0070.

(33) "Sample quality control" means a plan or design which ensures the authenticity, integrity, and accuracy of samples, including dust, soil, and paint chip or film samples. Sample quality control also includes provisions for representative sampling and control samples.

(34) "Supervisor" means an individual who is certified by the Authority and licensed by the CCB to either conduct or oversee and direct the work-site conduct of lead-based paint abatement and clearance activities in target housing and child-occupied facilities, and to prepare occupant protection plans and abatement reports in accordance with OAR 333-069-0070.

(35) "These rules" means OAR 333-068-0005 through 333-068-0065.

(36) "Training manager" means the individual responsible for administering a training program and monitoring the performance of principal instructors and guest instructors.

(37) "Worker" means an individual who is certified by the Authority and licensed by the CCB to conduct work site lead-based paint abatement activities in target housing and child-occupied facilities in accordance with OAR 333-069-0070.

333-068-0020

Accreditation Required

(1) No person shall provide, offer, or claim to provide an accredited lead-based paint activities course unless the person has received accreditation or provisional accreditation from the Authority.

(2) Curricula may be accredited for the initial and refresher training courses for inspector, risk assessor, abatement worker, supervisor, and project designer.

(3) Only Authority accredited or provisionally accredited training programs are eligible to offer refresher training courses for lead-based paint discipline courses.

(4) To qualify for and maintain accreditation, a training program shall:

(a) Propose and offer at least one accredited or provisionally accredited lead-based paint training course.

(b) Conform with personnel, operational and curriculum requirements.

(c) Comply with accreditation application and procedural requirements.

(5) The Authority shall review and approve or deny accreditation, provisional accreditation, or renewal of accreditation of any applicant.

(a) If approved, a written notice shall be sent to the applicant.

(b) If denied, the Authority shall state, in writing, the reasons for denial. An applicant may reapply for accreditation of the same course after a period of 30 days from the date the application was denied.

(6) Provisional status shall be removed upon an on-site audit stating that requirements for Authority approval are satisfied.

(a) A provisional accredited or accredited training program shall permit the Authority to conduct an audit without charge to the Authority.

(b) Advance notice shall not be required prior to conducting an audit.

(c) An audit shall be performed on-site and shall include, but not be limited to, a review of: records, including course completion forms and attendance records; facilities; instructional curriculum; examination design, administration and security procedures, and results, including those of demonstration testing; classroom instruction; audio-visual materials; course content; and coverage.

(7) Accreditation must be obtained and maintained for each training course and refresher training course.

(8) Accreditation shall be valid for 1 year, must be renewed annually, and shall not be transferrable.

(9) Accreditation based on a valid lead-based paint accreditation issued by the EPA or by an EPA-authorized state or tribal program shall be issued with an expiration date not to exceed the date of expiration listed on the EPA or EPA-authorized state or tribal accreditation document.

(10) The provider of an accredited or provisionally accredited training course shall submit for review a written description of changes in method or content that affect one-half hour or more of contact instruction.

(11) A provider of an accredited training course may not implement changes in method or content that affect one-half hour or more of contact instruction without prior approval of the Authority.

(12) An accredited or provisionally accredited training program shall permit the Authority to conduct unannounced on-site audits at any time.

(13) An accredited or provisionally accredited training program shall notify the Authority within 30 days of any change to the current application.

Application

(1) Submittal of a completed application for course accreditation or re-accreditation shall include:

(a) Name, address, and phone number of training program and training program manager.

(b) List of course(s) for which accreditation is being applied.

(c) Training program manager signed statement certifying each instructor meets qualifications under OAR 333-068-0030 in these rules, as well as, a list of the topics/skill areas to be taught by each instructor.

(d) A copy of the entire course or refresher course instruction curriculum, including, but not limited to: learning objectives; documentation of course agenda with time allocation for each course topic and sequence of topics to be covered during the course(s); student and instructor manuals, handouts, quizzes and homework.

(e) Copy of the test blueprint describing the portion of test questions devoted to each major course topic.

(f) Description of the classroom and field site training facilities, equipment for lecture and hands-on training and equipment storage.

(g) Description of the procedures for conducting the assessment of the hands-on skills and evaluation testing of trainees' ability to perform work practices.

(h) A copy of the quality control plan developed by the training manager. The plan shall be used to maintain and improve the training program and contain at least the following elements:

(A) Procedures for periodic revision of training materials and course test to be current with innovations in the field.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(B) Procedures for the training manager's annual review of principle instructor competency.

(i) An example of numbered certificates to be issued to students who successfully complete the training course.

(j) Description of record keeping procedures.

(k) Schedule of anticipated course dates and location(s).

(l) Description of the amount of time and type of hands-on training including student-to-instructor ratio during hands-on training.

(m) Description of the teaching methods to be used for each major topic and for hands-on training.

(n) Description of the audio/visual aids to be used for each major topic.

(2) The program application materials shall demonstrate that it meets the minimum requirements for each discipline for which the program is seeking accreditation.

(3) Documentation of compliance with Oregon Administrative Rules for radioactive lead detection devices in accordance with OAR chapter 333, divisions 102 and 103, which includes, but is not limited to, licensing, storage, and use requirements shall be provided.

(4) Documentation of accreditation issued by the EPA or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program, if applicable.

(5) Applicants for accreditation based on accreditation from the EPA or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program must document to the Authority that they have read and understand the accreditation standards as described in these rules.

(6) When re-accrediting, the training program shall submit a completed application form and required documentation, except for unchanged information and documentation that was submitted with the original application.

(7) When seeking accreditation to offer an additional course, the training program shall submit a completed application form and required documentation, except for unchanged information and documentation submitted with the original application for accreditation.

(8) The Authority may deny an application for accreditation or re-accreditation of a training course for any of the following reasons:

(a) Failure to complete application in accordance with Authority policy or instructions.

(b) Failure to meet minimum curriculum standards as set forth in these rules.

(c) Failure to meet minimum operational standards as set forth in these rules.

(d) Failure to pass a field audit conducted in accordance with Authority policy and procedures.

(9) An applicant whose application for accreditation or re-accreditation of a training course has been denied by the Authority may submit another application for accreditation or reaccreditation of the course after a period of 30 days from the date the application was denied.

(10) The Authority may withdraw provisional accreditation of a training program following the failure of a field audit of that course. If provisional accreditation is withdrawn by the Authority, the training program is required to receive written permission from the Authority before continuing to offer the course for which provisional accreditation has been withdrawn.

333-068-0030

Minimum Personnel Requirements

(1) The training program shall be administered by a training manager having the following minimum qualifications:

(a) Two years of experience administering training programs or two years of experience teaching or training adults;

(b) Successful completion of a course that provides instruction in the planning and teaching of an adult education course, or has obtained a bachelor's or graduate level degree in adult education from an accredited college or university;

(c) A bachelor's or graduate degree in building construction technology, engineering, industrial hygiene, safety, public health, education, business administration or program management including: lead or asbestos abatement, painting, carpentry, renovation, remodeling, occupational safety and health, or industrial hygiene;

(d) Successful completion of at least 16 contact hours of lead-based paint training from any of the required topics listed in OAR 333-068-0040.

(2) Each training program shall be taught by a principal instructor who shall be responsible for the organization of the course, teaching of all course material, may deliver course content and has the following minimum qualifications:

(a) Has completed a course that provides instruction in the planning and teaching of any adult education course, or has obtained a degree in adult education from an accredited college or university, or has at least two years of classroom experience in teaching workers or adults;

(b) Successful completion of at least 16 contact hours lead-based paint training from any of the required topics listed in OAR 333-068-0040;

(c) Demonstrated one year of experience, education, or training in lead or asbestos abatement, painting, carpentry, renovation, remodeling, occupational safety and health, or industrial hygiene. Except, that instructors of hands-on training must have two years of such experience; and

(d) Successful completion of seven contact hours of an Authority accredited refresher training instruction annually.

(3) Only a principal instructor receiving a satisfactory annual performance review by the training manager shall provide course or refresher training, unless the instructor is also the training manager.

(4) The training manager may designate guest instructors as needed for teaching particular skills specific to the lecture, hands-on activities, or work practice components of a course.

(a) Each qualified guest instructor shall have a minimum of one year of experience related to the subject matter that they teach.

(b) Except that, guest instructors of hands-on training shall have a minimum of two years of lead-based paint activities experience.

(5) The maximum student to instructor ratio shall be 30 to 1 for classroom training and 10 to 1 for hands-on instruction.

333-068-0035

Minimum Operation Requirements

(1) The training program shall have available and provide adequate facilities for delivery of the lecture, hands-on training and assessment activities. This includes training equipment that reflects current work practices, and maintaining or updating the equipment and facilities as needed.

(2) For each course offered, the training program shall conduct at the completion of each course a course test composed of questions relevant to the objectives of the course and, if applicable, a hands-on skills assessment, or in the alternative, a proficiency test for that discipline.

(a) The written course examination shall contain a minimum of 50 questions, which shall be presented in multiple-choice format.

(b) A member of the training staff or a designated proctor must remain in the room where the examination is being administered until all trainees have completed the exam.

(c) Each trainee must successfully complete the hands-on skills assessment and receive a passing score on the written course test to pass any course, or successfully complete a proficiency test.

(d) The hands-on skill assessment is an evaluation of the effectiveness of the hands-on training which shall test the ability of the trainees to demonstrate satisfactory performance of work practices and procedures in OAR 333-069-0070, as well as any other skills demonstrated in the course.

(3) The training manager is responsible for maintaining the validity and integrity of the hands-on skills assessment or proficiency test to assure that it accurately evaluates the trainee's performance of the work practices and procedures associated with the course topics.

(4) The training manager is responsible for maintaining the validity and integrity of the course test to ensure that it accurately evaluates the trainee's knowledge and retention of the course topics.

(a) The course test is an evaluation of the overall effectiveness of the training which shall test the trainee's knowledge and retention of the topics covered during the course. A score of 70 percent is considered passing the course test.

(b) The course test shall be developed in accordance with the test blueprint submitted with the training course accreditation application.

(5) Training programs shall issue unique course completion certificates to each individual who successfully completes the course requirements. The course completion certificate shall include:

(a) The name, a unique identification number, and the individual's address;

(b) Name of particular course completed;

(c) Dates of course completion/test passage;

(d) Expiration date of certification, which shall be six months from date of course completion;

(e) Name, address, and telephone number of training program

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(6) The training manager shall develop and implement a quality control plan to be used to maintain or improve the quality of the training program and contain at least:

(a) Procedures for periodic revision of training materials and course test to reflect innovations in the field; and

(b) Procedures for training manager's annual review of instructor competency.

(7) The training manager shall offer courses which teach the work practice standards, testing criteria and field measurements for conducting lead-based paint activities and other lead-based paint standards that are at least as protective of the environment and of public health as those developed by the EPA, and in accordance with worker safety requirements of the Oregon Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OR-OSHA), and based on principles and practices determined to protect the environment and human beings from exposure to lead contaminants. These standards shall be taught in the appropriate courses to provide trainees with the knowledge needed to perform the lead-based paint activities they are responsible for conducting

(8) The training manager shall be responsible for ensuring that the training program complies at all times with the accreditation regulations.

(9) The training manager shall provide the Authority with a current listing of training courses including the date, time and location of scheduled lead-based paint training courses.

(10) The training manager shall permit the Authority to conduct a course audit without charge to the Authority.

(a) Advance notice shall not be required prior to conducting a course audit to verify the contents of the application for accreditation.

(b) A course audit shall be performed on-site and shall include, but not be limited to, a review of: instructional curriculum; examination design, administration and security procedures, and results, including those of demonstration testing; classroom instruction; audio-visual materials; course content; coverage; teaching facilities, and equipment licensure.

(11) An accredited training program shall maintain at the principal place of business in Oregon, accurate records of attendance; examination results including demonstration testing; completed course forms; and training director, instructor and guest instructor qualifications, for at least seven years.

333-068-0040

Minimum Curriculum Requirements

(1) The inspector course shall consist of a minimum of 24 contact hours. At least 10 of the 24 required contact hours shall be taught using interactive/participatory teaching methods, which includes a minimum of eight hours hands-on training.

(a) Classroom instruction shall include, but not be limited to:

(A) Roles and responsibilities of lead-based paint inspector including qualifications and conflicts of interest.

(B) One contact hour of background information on lead, including but not limited to, identification of environmental lead sources such as surface dust, soil, water, air and food; history of uses and locations of lead and leaded paint in buildings; lead dust and paint characteristics; and summary of abatement control options.

(C) One contact hour of adverse health effects of lead exposure, including but not limited to, nature of lead-related diseases; pathways of exposure and how exposure occurs; dose-response relationships; permissible exposure limit; blood lead levels in children and adults; effects on various body systems; different effects on children and adults including women and the fetus during pregnancy; symptoms and diagnosis of lead poisoning and reportable blood lead levels; how lead in the body is absorbed, distributed and eliminated; medical treatment for lead poisoning including but not limited to chelation therapy.

(D) One contact hour on regulatory review and background information of relevant federal, state, and local regulations including guidance that pertains to lead-based paint and lead-based paint activities.

(E) At least one contact hour on radiation information and safety training requirements including but not limited to:

(i) The Oregon radiation safety training requirements.

(ii) Ionization radiation including atomic structure, units of radiation, radioactivity, radioactive decay, ionization, radiation absorption in matter, and radiation detection.

(iii) Safe use of X-ray florescent (XRF) analyzers, including limitations, transportation, storage, records, record keeping and licensing requirements.

(F) At least two contact hours on lead-based paint respiratory protection and personal protective training that conforms with OAR 437-003-0001(4)(m).

(G) At least six contact hours on inspection work practice standard tasks including, but not limited to:

(i) Legal responsibilities and insurance issues including liabilities, errors and omissions, and bonding.

(ii) Formulation of a testing plan for multi-family dwellings and single family target housing and child-occupied facilities, including notification of property owner and occupants, building access, and use of warning signs.

(iii) Investigation protocol, sample collection including equipment, procedures, quality assurance, contamination factors before, during and after abatement as set forth in the U.S. Housing and Urban Development's (HUD's) "Guidelines for the Evaluation and Control of Lead-based Paint Hazards in Housing" and EPA's "Residential Sampling of Lead: Protocols for Dust and Soil Sampling".

(iv) Sample analysis and quality assurance procedures including National Lead Laboratory Accreditation Program (NLLAP) recognized laboratories to test paint, dust, soil and other media.

(b) Hands-on training shall include performance of tasks including but not limited to:

(A) Lead-based paint inspection methods including selection of rooms and components for sampling or testing.

(B) Paint, dust and soil sampling methodologies.

(C) Clearance standards and testing, including random sampling.

(D) Preparation of a final inspection report.

(2) The risk assessor course shall consist of a minimum of 40 contact hours, which includes a 24 contact hour inspector course. At least 16 of the 40 required contact hours shall be taught using interactive/participatory teaching methods, which includes a minimum of 12 hours of hands-on training.

(a) Classroom instruction shall include, but not be limited to:

(A) Role and responsibilities of a risk assessor including risk assessor qualifications, legal obligations, conflicts of interest, and insurance issues.

(B) Collection of background information to perform a risk assessment

(C) Sources of environmental lead contamination exposure sources including paint, surface dust and soil, water, air, packaging, and food.

(D) Risk assessment report form;

(E) Lead hazard screen protocol;

(F) Development of hazard control options, the role of interim controls, and operations and maintenance activities to reduce lead-based paint hazards.

(G) Preparation of a final risk assessment report;

(H) Record keeping;

(I) At least nine contact hours on lead hazard screen and risk assessment work practice standard tasks for target housing and child-occupied facilities.

(b) Hands-on training shall include performance of tasks including but not limited to:

(A) Visual inspections for the purposes of identifying potential lead-based paint hazard sources;

(B) Sampling for other sources of lead exposure;

(C) Interpretation of lead-based paint and other lead sampling results including all applicable state or federal guidance or regulations pertaining to lead-based paint hazards.

(3) The supervisor course shall consist of at least a minimum of 32 contact hours. At least 13 of the 32 required contact hours shall be taught using interactive/participatory teaching methods which includes a minimum of eight hours hands-on training.

(a) Classroom instruction shall include, but not be limited to:

(A) Roles and responsibilities of lead-based paint supervisor including supervisor qualifications, legal obligations, conflicts of interest, abatement liability, and insurance issues.

(B) Background information on lead, including but not limited to, identification of environmental lead sources such as surface dust, soil, water, air and food; history of uses and locations of lead and leaded paint in buildings; lead dust and paint characteristics; and summary of abatement control options.

(C) Adverse health effects of lead exposure, including but not limited to, nature of lead related diseases; pathways of exposure and how exposure occurs; dose-response relationships; permissible exposure limit; blood lead levels in children and adults; effects on various body systems; different effects on children and adults including women and the fetus during pregnancy; symptoms and diagnosis of poisoning and reportable blood lead levels; how lead in the body is absorbed, distributed and eliminated; medical treatment for lead poisoning including but not limited to chelation therapy.

(D) Regulatory review and background information of relevant federal, state, and local regulations including guidance that pertains to lead-based paint and lead-based paint activities.

(E) At least two contact hours on lead-based paint respiratory protection and personal protective training that conforms with OAR 437-003-0001(64)(m).

(F) Identification and prevention of hazards encountered during lead-based paint activities including potential lead hazard exposure; prevention of lead dust contamination; emergency procedures for sudden releases and electrical, heat stress, fire, explosion and other hazards, chemical air contaminants, and disturbance of friable asbestos.

(G) Record keeping.

(H) Personal hygiene, including entry and exit procedures for the work area, use of showers, avoidance of eating, drinking, smoking, chewing, and applying cosmetics in the work or changing area, avoidance of take-home exposures.

(I) Medical monitoring requirements discussion of need for medical monitoring of lead toxicity and disclosure of lead related medical history and treatment of lead poisoning cases including medical removal and issues involved in selecting medical services.

(J) Hazard communication with property owner, occupants and neighbors relative to the reduction or elimination of lead sources at the job site.

(K) Development and implementation of an occupant protection plan and abatement report.

(L) Clearance examination standards and testing.

(M) Clean-up and waste disposal.

(N) At least six contact hours on supervisor work practice standard tasks including but not limited to:

(i) Interior and exterior leaded paint, soil and dust abatement methods, including chemical, enclosure, manual, mechanical, blasting, and encapsulation; removal and demolition; ventilation and engineering controls; management in place; and clean-up techniques, including high efficiency particulate air (HEPA) vacuums and negative air machines, as described in HUD's "Guidelines for the Evaluation and Control of Lead-based Paint Hazards in Housing."

(ii) Construction and maintenance of containment barriers.

(iii) Warning signs and their placement.

(iv) Electrical and ventilation system lockout and hazardous and non-hazardous waste characterization and disposal.

(b) Hands-on training shall include performance of tasks including but not limited to:

(A) Risk assessment and inspection report interpretation;

(B) Hazard recognition and control;

(C) Respiratory protection and protective clothing;

(D) Lead paint abatement or lead hazard reduction including prohibited methods;

(E) Interior dust abatement/clean-up or lead hazard reduction;

(F) Soil and exterior dust abatement or lead hazard reduction.

(4) The project designer course shall consist of at least a minimum of 40 contact hours, which includes a 32 contact hours supervisor course. At least 16 of the 40 required contact hours shall be taught using interactive/participatory teaching methods, which includes a minimum of eight hours hands-on training and shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) Role and responsibilities of a project designer.

(b) Development and implementation of an occupant protection plan for large scale abatement projects.

(c) Lead-based paint abatement and lead-based paint hazard reduction methods, including restricted practices for large scale projects.

(d) Interior dust abatement/clean-up or lead hazard control and reduction methods for large scale projects.

(e) Clearance examination standards and testing for large scale projects.

(f) Integration of lead-based paint abatement methods with modernization and rehabilitation projects for large scale abatement projects.

(5) The abatement worker course shall consist of at least a minimum of 16 contact hours. At least eight of the 16 required contact hours shall be taught using interactive/participatory teaching methods, which includes a minimum of eight hours hands-on training.

(a) Classroom instruction shall include, but not be limited to:

(A) Role and responsibilities of an abatement worker.

(B) One contact hour of background information on lead, including but not limited to, identification of environmental lead sources such as surface dust, soil, water, air and food; history of uses and locations of lead and leaded paint in buildings; lead dust and paint characteristics; and summary of abatement control options.

(C) One contact hour of adverse health effects of lead exposure, including but not limited to, nature of lead related diseases; pathways of exposure and how exposure occurs; dose-response relationships; permissible exposure limit; blood lead levels in children and adults; effects on various body systems; different effects on children and adults including women and the fetus during pregnancy; symptoms and diagnosis of poisoning and reportable blood lead levels; how lead in the body is absorbed, distributed and eliminated; medical treatment for lead poisoning including but not limited to chelation therapy.

(D) One contact hour on regulatory review and background information of relevant federal, state, and local regulations including guidance that pertains to lead-based paint and lead-based paint activities.

(E) Identification and prevention of hazards encountered during lead-based paint activities including potential lead hazard exposure; prevention of lead dust contamination; emergency procedures for sudden releases and electrical, heat stress, fire, explosion and other hazards, chemical air contaminants, and disturbance of friable asbestos.

(F) At least six contact hours on lead-based paint abatement work practice standard tasks including, but not limited to:

(i) Interior and exterior leaded paint, soil and dust abatement methods, including chemical, enclosure, hand, mechanical, blasting, encapsulation, and management in place, and clean-up techniques, including high efficiency particulate air (HEPA) vacuums and negative air machines, as described in HUD's "Guidelines for the Evaluation and Control of Lead-based Paint Hazards in Housing."

(ii) Construction and maintenance of containment barriers.

(iii) Warning signs and their placement.

(iv) Electrical and ventilation system lockout and hazardous and non-hazardous waste characterization and disposal.

(G) Record keeping.

(H) At least two contact hours on lead-based paint respiratory protection and personal protective training that conforms with OAR 437-003-0001(4)(m).

(I) Personal hygiene, including entry and exit procedures for the work area, use of showers, avoidance of eating, drinking, smoking, chewing, and applying cosmetics in the work or changing area, avoidance of take-home exposures.

(J) Medical monitoring requirements discussion that shall include, but not be limited to, the need for medical monitoring of lead toxicity; the disclosure of lead-related medical history; and the treatment of lead poisoning cases, including issues of medical removal and of selecting medical services.

(K) Hazard communication with property owner, occupants and neighbors relative to the reduction or elimination of lead sources at the job site.

(b) Hands-on training shall include performance of tasks including but not limited to:

(A) Lead-based paint hazard recognition and control;

(B) Lead-based paint abatement and lead-based paint hazard reduction methods, including restricted practices;

(C) Interior dust abatement/clean-up methods or lead hazard reduction;

(D) Soil & exterior dust abatement methods or lead hazard reduction;

(E) Waste disposal.

(6) OR-OSHA respiratory protection and personal protective equipment training is required under these rules. Other OR-OSHA lead-based paint requirements may be included in the training, but are not required by the Authority.

Minimum Requirements for Accreditation of Refresher Training Course

(1) Refresher training shall only be provided by an accredited training program for the same course discipline.

(2) Refresher training course shall consist of at least seven contact hours of training except for the project designer refresher course which shall consist of at least four contact hours of training.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(3) Each refresher training course shall review the curriculum topics of the respective accredited or provisionally accredited lead-based paint training course and include, but not be limited to:

(a) An overview of current lead-based paint safety practices in general, as well as, specific safety practices for the refresher discipline.

(b) An update on current federal, state, and local lead-based paint laws and regulations in general, as well as, specific laws and regulations applicable to the discipline.

(c) An update on current technologies relating to lead-based paint activities in general, as well as, specific information pertaining to the discipline.

(4) Each student shall be required to pass a course test and a hands-on assessment (if applicable) covering course topics and upon passing the student shall be provided with a course completion certificate.

(5) The training program shall conduct a hands-on assessment, if applicable, and a course completion test for each course offered.

(6) At least 40 percent of refresher education instruction shall be taught using interactive/participatory teaching methods, except for refresher education instruction for lead abatement workers, which shall be taught using at least 50 percent interactive/participatory teaching methods.

(7) A training program seeking accreditation of a refresher course shall submit a written application including:

(a) Name, address, and telephone number;

(b) List of course(s) for which accreditation application is being made;

(c) A copy of student manuals and instructor manuals to be used for each course;

(d) A copy of the course agenda for each course;

(e) Also include with the application for accreditation documentation that complies with OAR 333-068-0030(1) through (4).

Renewal of Training Program

(1) If a training program meets the regulations for accreditation the program shall be reaccredited. A training program accreditation shall expire one year from date of reaccreditation and shall not be transferable.

(2) A training program seeking reaccreditation shall submit an application to the Authority no later than 60 days before its accreditation expires. If a training program does not submit its application for reaccreditation by that date, the Authority cannot guarantee that the program will be reaccredited before the end of the accreditation period.

(3) The application shall contain:

(a) The training program's name, address, and telephone number;

(b) List of courses for which it is applying for reaccreditation;

(c) Description of any changes or updates to the training facility or equipment; and

(d) The certified statement as described in OAR 333-069-0050(4) below.

(4) The training program's application for reaccreditation shall contain a statement signed by the training program manager certifying that:

(a) The course materials, for each course, meet the minimum training curricula requirements, as appropriate;

(b) The training manager, principal instructors, and guest instructors meet the qualifications in OAR 333-068-0030(1) through OAR 333-068-0030(4);

(c) The training program manager complies at all times with all requirements in OAR 333-068-0030;

(d) The quality control program meets the requirements in OAR 333-068-0025(h); and

(e) The record keeping and reporting requirements of OAR 333-068-0060 shall be followed.

(5) An audit may be performed by the Authority to verify the certified statement and the contents of the application.

Suspensions, Revocation and Modification of Accredited Training Course Curriculum

(1) After notice and a hearing, the Authority may suspend, revoke, or modify a training program's accreditation if a training program, training manager, or other person with supervisory authority over the program has:

(a) Misrepresented the contents of the training course to the Authority and/or student population;

(b) Failed to submit required notifications in a timely manner;

(c) Failed to maintain required records;

(d) Falsified accreditation records, instructor qualifications, or other accreditation information;

(e) Failed to comply with the training standards and requirements for accreditation of training programs or to deliver the course according to the content and format described in the training program's application for accreditation and granted provisional approval by the Authority.

(f) Failed to comply with federal, state or local lead-based paint statutes or regulations.

(2) In addition to an administrative or judicial finding of violation, execution of a consent agreement in settlement of an enforcement action constitutes evidence of a failure to comply with relevant statutes or regulations.

(3) Training programs shall permit representatives of the Authority to attend any training course for the purpose of evaluation or monitoring of the course without charge.

(4) Prior to suspending, revoking, or modifying an accreditation of a training program the program shall be notified in writing of procedures in accordance with ORS 183.310 to 183.540.

(5) A training program, for whom the Authority has suspended or revoked a training course, must initiate a new application process with the Authority for re-instatement of the training program and may do so after 45 days following the date of the suspension or revocation.

(6) The Authority shall maintain a list, available to the public, of parties whose accreditation has been suspended, revoked, or modified.

Training Course Record-Keeping

(1) Accredited training programs shall maintain, and make available to the Authority if requested, the following records:

(a) All documents specified in OAR 333-068-0030 that demonstrate the qualifications listed in OAR 333-068-0030(2), (3), and (4) for training manager, principal instructors, and work practice instructors;

(b) Current curriculum, course materials and documents reflecting any changes made to these materials;

(c) Course test blueprint;

(d) Information on how hands-on assessment is conducted including, but not limited to, who conducts the assessment, how skills are graded, what facilities are used, and the pass/fail rate;

(e) The quality control plan;

(f) Results of student's hands-on skills assessments and course tests and a copy of each student's course completion certificate; and

(g) Any other material submitted as part of the program's application for accreditation.

(2) All training course records shall be retained a minimum of seven years at the location specified on the training course accreditation application.

(3) The Authority shall be notified 30 days prior to any change in the training program's current application.

(4) Accredited or provisionally accredited training programs shall provide the Authority with a course roster of persons who have successfully completed the training course within 30 days of course completion.

(5) Accredited or provisionally accredited training programs shall notify the Authority with the location and dates of each course a minimum of 30 days prior to course starting date.

Fees

The following fees are established:

(1) A non-refundable application fee of $750 for accreditation of a standard lead-based paint inspector or supervisor training course and $500 for accreditation of a standard lead-based paint risk assessor or worker training course; a non-refundable application fee of $600 for a refresher lead-based paint activities training course covering more than two disciplines; and a non-refundable application fee of $500 for an inspector or supervisor refresher training course; and $350 for a risk assessor or a worker refresher training course.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(2) A non-refundable annual reaccreditation application fee of $300 for any initial standard lead-based paint activities training course for each discipline; a non-refundable annual reaccreditation application fee of $200 for a refresher training course covering more than two disciplines; and a non-refundable annual renewal application fee of $100 for a refresher training course covering up to two disciplines.

(3) For initial accreditation application, the following non-refundable fees shall apply for each standard training or refresher training course: Training manager: $175; Each additional instructor or guest instructor: $90.

(4) For annual reaccreditation application, the following non-refundable fees shall apply for each standard training or refresher training course: Training manager: $100; Each additional instructor or guest instructor: $50.

(5) Applicants for accreditation shall pay no more than the maximum single training manager fee for each training manager. An additional instructor or guest instructor fee shall be paid for every training course that is taught by the training manager.

Authority, Purpose, Scope

(1) Authority. These rules are promulgated in accordance with and under the authority of ORS 431.920.

(2) Purpose:

(a) The purpose of these rules is to address Oregon's need for a qualified and properly trained workforce to perform inspection, risk assessment and removal of hazards associated with lead-based paint, to safeguard the environment and protect human health, and the health of building occupants, especially for high-risk groups (children under six years of age), from lead-based paint hazards.

(b) These rules prescribe the requirements for certification of individuals and firms engaged in lead-based paint activities in target housing and child-occupied facilities.

(c) These rules will establish work practice standards for the performance of lead-based paint inspection, risk assessment, and abatement activities for individuals and firms and will require that all lead-based paint activities be performed only by certified individuals and firms.

(3) Scope:

(a) These rules apply to all individuals and firms who are engaged in lead-based paint activities for compensation or where a child residing in the building has been identified as having an elevated blood lead level.

(b) These rules establish the requirement that lead-based paint activities be performed only by certified individuals and firms.

(c) These rules prescribe the requirements for, and the manner of, certifying competency of applicants for certification of lead-based paint inspector, risk assessor, supervisor, project designer, and worker, and of firms employing such individuals.

(d) These rules prescribe work practice standards for the removal or mitigation of lead-based paint hazards and for the performance of lead-based paint inspection and risk assessment, and those actions or circumstances that constitute failure to achieve or maintain competency, or that otherwise are contrary to the public interest, for which the Authority may assess civil penalties, deny, suspend, or revoke certification.

(e) These rules establish fees to the extent necessary to defray costs of those activities prescribed herein.

333-069-0015

Definitions

As used in these rules unless otherwise required by context:

(1) "Abatement" means any measure or set of measures designed to permanently eliminate lead-based paint hazards including, but not limited to:

(a) The removal of paint and dust, the permanent enclosure or encapsulation of lead-based paint, the replacement of painted surfaces or fixtures, or the removal or covering of soil, when lead-based paint hazards are present in such paint, dust or soil; and

(b) All preparation, cleanup, disposal, and post-abatement clearance examination activities associated with such measures,

(c) Specifically, abatement includes, but is not limited to:

(A) Projects for which there is a written contract or other documentation, which provides that an individual or firm will be conducting activities in or to a residential dwelling or child-occupied facility that results in permanent elimination of lead-based paint hazards or designed to permanently eliminate lead-based paint hazards and described in subsections (1)(a) and (1)(b) above.

(B) Projects resulting in the permanent elimination of lead-based paint hazards, conducted by certified and licensed firms or individuals, unless such projects are covered under subsection (1)(d) of this definition.

(C) Projects resulting in the permanent elimination of lead-based paint hazards, conducted by certified firms or individuals who, through their company name or promotional literature, represent, advertise, or hold themselves out to be in the business of performing lead-based paint activities, unless such projects are covered under subsection (1)(d) of this section.

(D) Projects resulting in the permanent elimination of lead-based paint hazards that are conducted in response to state or local abatement orders.

(d) Abatement does not include renovation, remodeling, landscaping or other activities, when such activities are not designed to permanently eliminate lead-based paint hazards, but, instead, are designed to repair, restore, or remodel a given structure or dwelling, even though these activities may incidentally result in a reduction or elimination of lead-based paint hazards. Furthermore, abatement does not include interim controls, operations and maintenance activities, or other measures and activities designed to temporarily, but not permanently, reduce lead-based paint hazards.

(2) "Accredited training program" means a training program accredited or provisionally accredited by the Authority, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program, to provide training for individuals engaged in lead-based paint activities.

(3) "Arithmetic mean" means the algebraic sum of data values divided by the number of data values (e.g., the sum of the concentration of lead in several soil samples divided by the number of samples).

(4) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(5) "Certified" means successful completion of a training program accredited by the Authority, passage of a certification examination administered by the Authority and satisfaction of any other requirements for the appropriate discipline, and submittal and approval of the appropriate application by the Authority for inspection, risk assessment or abatement activities in target housing and child-occupied facilities.

(6) "Certified firm" means a company, partnership, corporation, sole proprietorship, association, or other entity that performs lead-based paint activities to which the Authority has issued a certificate under these rules.

(7) "Chewable surface" means an interior or exterior surface painted with lead-based paint that a young child can mouth or chew. A chewable surface is the same as an accessible surface. Hard metal substrates and other materials that cannot be dented by the bite of a young child are not considered chewable.

(8) "Child-occupied facility" means a building, or a portion of a building, constructed prior to 1978, visited regularly by the same child, under six years of age, on at least two different days within any week (Sunday through Saturday period), provided that each day's visit lasts at least three hours and the combined weekly visit lasts at least six hours, and the combined annual visits last at least 60 hours. Child-occupied facilities may include, but are not limited to, day-care centers, preschools and kindergarten classrooms.

(9) "Clearance examination" means visual examination and clearance testing performed following abatement of lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards using documented methodologies as defined in this rule. Such examination shall be performed by a person certified to perform risk assessments or lead-based paint inspections.

(10) "Clearance examination standards" means values that indicate the maximum amount of lead permitted in dust on a surface or in soil following completion of an abatement activity. Standards for lead in dust are 40 micrograms per square foot ( $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$ ) on floors, 250  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  on interior window sills, and 400  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  on window troughs. The values for lead in soil are 400 parts per million (ppm) in play areas and 1,200 ppm in the remainder of the yard.

(11) "Common area" means a portion of a building that is generally accessible to all occupants that may include, but that is not limited to, hallways, stairways, laundry and recreational rooms, playgrounds, community centers, garages, and boundary fences.

(12) "Common area group" means a group of common areas that are similar in design, construction, and function. Common area groups include, but are not limited to hallways, stairwells, and laundry rooms.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(13) "Component" means an architectural element of a dwelling unit or common area identified by type and location, such as a bedroom wall, an exterior window sill, a baseboard in a living room, a kitchen floor, an interior window sill in a bathroom, a porch floor, stair treads in a common stairwell, or an exterior wall.

(14) "Concentration" means the relative content of a specific substance contained within a larger mass, such as the amount of lead (in micrograms per gram or parts per million by weight) in a sample of dust or soil.

(15) "Contact hour" means 60 minutes of lead-based paint related training, which may include a break of not more than 10 minutes.

(16) "Containment" means a process or arrangement of materials to protect workers and the environment by controlling exposure to the lead-contaminated dust and debris created during an abatement.

(17) "Course completion date" means the final date of classroom instruction and/or student examination of an accredited lead-based paint training course.

(18) "Course completion certificate" means documentation issued by an accredited training program to an individual as proof of successful completion of an Authority-accredited lead-based paint training course.

(19) "Critical barrier" means a containment structure that allows for the passage of persons or materials.

(20) "Demonstration testing" means the observation and scoring of a student's job task and equipment use skills taught during a course or continuing education instruction.

(21) "Deteriorated paint" means any interior or exterior paint or other coating that is peeling, chipping, chalking or cracking, or any paint or coating located on an interior or exterior surface or fixture that is otherwise damaged or separated from the substrate.

(22) "Discipline" means a specific type or category of lead-based paint activity.

(23) "Distinct painting history" means the application history, as indicated by the visual appearance or a record of application, over time, of paint or other surface coatings to a component or room.

(24) "Documented methodologies" are written methods or protocols used to sample for the presence of lead in paint, dust, and soil as recommended in U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) "Guidelines for the Evaluation and Control of Lead-Based Paint Hazards in Housing", and "EPA's Residential Sampling for Lead: Protocols for Dust and Soil Sampling".

(25) "Dripline" means the area within three feet surrounding the perimeter of a building.

(26) "Dust-lead hazard" means surface dust in a residential dwelling or child-occupied facility that contains a mass-per-area concentration of lead equal to or exceeding 40  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  on floors, 250  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  on interior window sills, or 400  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  based on wipe samples.

(27) "Emergency" means a situation in which failure to act promptly would likely result in immediate harm to persons or property.

(28) "Emergency lead-based paint abatement activities" means activities required in response to an elevated blood lead level determination, or federal, state, tribal or local emergency abatement order, or operations necessitated by non-routine failures of equipment, that were not planned but result from a sudden, unexpected event that, if not immediately attended to, presents a safety or public health hazard, or threatens equipment and/or property with significant damage.

(29) "Firm" means a sole proprietorship, corporation, association, partnership, or joint stock company.

(30) "Friction surface" means an interior or exterior surface that is subject to abrasion or friction, including, but not limited to, certain window, floor, and stair surfaces.

(31) "Hands-on training" means training during which students practice skills that they will be expected to perform at the worksite.

(32) "Impact surface" means an interior or exterior surface that is subject to damage by repeated sudden force such as certain parts of door frames.

(33) "Inspection" means a surface-by-surface investigation to determine the presence of lead-based paint and the provision of a report, in writing, explaining the results of the investigation.

(34) "Inspector" means an individual who is certified by the Authority and licensed by the Construction Contractors Board (CCB), except where exempt by these rules, to conduct in target housing and child-occupied facilities a surface-by-surface investigation to determine the presence of lead-based paint and the provision of a report, in writing; and conduct clearance procedures in accordance with OAR 333-069-0070. An inspector may also collect dust and soil samples and perform clearance examinations. An inspector may cite the applicable standard for the medium being sampled, but may not evaluate the results or assess risk.

(35) "Interior window sill" means the portion of the horizontal window ledge that protrudes into the interior of the room.

(36) "Job tasks" mean the specific activities performed in the context of work.

(37) "Lead-based paint" means paint or other surface coatings that contain lead equal to or in excess of 1.0 milligram per square centimeter or 0.5 percent by weight.

(38) "Lead-based paint activities" means, in the case of target housing and child-occupied facilities, inspection, risk-assessment, and abatement.

(39) "Lead-based paint hazard" means any condition that causes exposure to lead from lead-contaminated dust, lead-contaminated soil, lead-contaminated paint that is deteriorated or present in accessible surfaces, friction surfaces or impact surfaces that would result in adverse human health effects.

(40) "Lead hazard standard" means the amount of lead the Authority considers to be a hazard in target housing or child-occupied facilities. The standards for lead in dust are 40 micrograms per square foot ( $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$ ) on floors, 250  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  on interior window sills, and 400  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  on window troughs. The standards for lead in soil are 400 parts per million (ppm) in play areas and 1,200 ppm in the remainder of the yard.

(41) "Licensed" means a person or firm who has been certified by the Authority in one or more disciplines and is licensed by the CCB.

(42) "Loading" means the quantity of specific substance present per unit of surface area, such as the amount of lead in micrograms contained in the dust collected from a certain surface area divided by the surface area in square feet or square meters.

(43) "Multi-family housing" means a housing property consisting of more than four dwelling units.

(44) "Notice of noncompliance" is a description, in writing, of activities conducted in violation of these rules observed or documented by the Authority, and of requirements for corrective action.

(45) "Paint in poor condition" means more than 10 square feet of deteriorated paint on exterior components with large surface areas; or more than two square feet of deteriorated paint on interior components with large surface areas (e.g., walls, ceilings, floors, doors); or more than 10 percent of the total surface area of the component is deteriorated on interior or exterior components with small surface areas (window sills, baseboards, soffits, trim).

(46) "Paint-lead hazard" means any of the following:

(a) Any lead-based paint on a friction surface that is subject to abrasion and where the lead dust levels on the nearest horizontal surface underneath the friction surface (e.g., the window sill, or floor) are equal to or greater than the dust-lead hazard levels identified in these rules.

(b) Any damaged or otherwise deteriorated lead-based paint on an impact surface that is caused by impact from a related building component (such as a door knob that knocks into a wall or a door that knocks against its door frame).

(c) Any chewable lead-based painted surface on which there is evidence of teeth marks.

(d) Any other deteriorated lead-based paint in any residential building or child-occupied facility or on the exterior of any residential building or child-occupied facility.

(47) "Permit" means a written authorization obtained from the Authority without which a painter may not remove or stabilize paint on target housing or pre-1978 child-occupied facilities.

(48) "Permanent" means having an expected design life of 20 years.

(49) "Permanently covered soil" means soil which has been separated from human contact by the placement of a barrier consisting of solid, relatively impermeable materials, such as pavement or concrete. Grass, mulch, and other landscaping materials are not considered permanent covering.

(50) "Person" means an individual.

(51) "Play area" means an area of frequent soil contact by children under six years of age as indicated by, but not limited to, such factors including the following: the presence of play equipment (e.g., sandboxes, swing sets, and sliding boards), toys, or other children's possessions, observations of play patterns, or information provided by parents, residents, care givers, or property owners.

(52) "Preliminary clearance" means clearance of interior living areas according to which an inspector or risk assessor determines that residual lead levels (as determined by laboratory analysis) do not exceed clearance examination standards.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(53) "Project designer" means an individual who is certified by the Authority and licensed by the CCB to interpret lead inspection or risk assessment reports and to develop plans, specifications, and project procedures for lead abatement projects in target housing and child-occupied facilities, including occupant notification and protection, clean-up and clearance, and abatement reports.

(54) "Public agency" means an entity that functions as part of a governmental body or organization at the local, state, or federal level.

(55) "Refresher training course" means a minimum seven hour training program accredited by the Authority to update an individual's knowledge and skills so that he/she can effectively and safely continue to practice in the field.

(56) "Residential building" means a building containing one or more residential dwellings.

(57) "Residential dwelling" means:

(a) A detached single family dwelling unit, including attached structures such as porches and stoops; or

(b) A single family dwelling unit in a structure that contains more than one separate residential dwelling unit, which is used or occupied, or intended to be occupied, in whole or in part, as the home or residence of one or more persons.

(58) "Risk assessment" means an on-site investigation to determine the existence, nature, severity, and location of lead-based paint hazards, and the provision of a report by the individual or the firm conducting the risk assessment, explaining the results of the investigation and options for reducing lead-based paint hazards.

(59) "Risk assessor" means an individual who is certified by the Authority and licensed by the CCB, unless where exempt by the rules, to conduct in target housing and child-occupied facilities on-site investigation to determine the existence, nature, severity, and location of lead-based paint hazards, and to provide a report explaining the results of the investigation and options for reducing lead-based paint hazards; and who may conduct a lead-hazard screen, in accordance with OAR 333-069-0070.

(60) "Room" means a separate part of the inside of a building, such as a bedroom, living room, dining room, kitchen, bathroom, laundry room, or utility room. To be considered a separate room, the room must be separated from adjoining rooms by built-in walls or archways that extend at least six inches from an intersecting wall. Half walls or bookcases count as room separators if built-in. Movable or collapsible partitions or partitions consisting solely of shelves or cabinets are not considered built-in walls. A screened in porch that is used as a living area is a room.

(61) "Sample quality control" means a plan or design which ensures the authenticity, integrity, and accuracy of samples, including dust, soil, and paint chip or film samples. Sample quality control also includes provisions for representative sampling and control samples.

(62) "Scope of work" means a written description of all of the abatement activities to be conducted at a specific abatement project site.

(63) "Soil-lead hazard" means bare soil on residential real property or on the property of a child-occupied facility that contains total lead equal to or exceeding 400 ppm in a play area or average of 1,200 ppm of bare soil in the remainder of the yard based on soil samples.

(64) "Soil sample" means a sample collected in a representative location using American Society for Testing Materials (ASTM) E1727, "Standard Practice for Field Collection of Soil Samples for Lead Determination by Atomic Spectrometry Techniques," or equivalent method.

(65) "Supervisor" means an individual who is certified by the Authority and licensed by the CCB to either conduct or oversee and direct the work-site conduct of lead-based paint abatement and clearance activities in target housing and child-occupied facilities, and to prepare occupant protection plans and abatement reports in accordance with OAR 333-069-0070.

(66) "Target housing" means any housing constructed prior to 1978, except housing for the elderly or persons with disabilities (unless any one or more children under six years of age resides or is expected to reside in such housing for the elderly or persons with disabilities) or any zero-bedroom dwelling.

(67) "These rules" means OAR 333-069-0005 through 333-069-0090.

(68) "Weighted arithmetic mean" means the arithmetic mean of sample results weighted by the number of subsamples in each sample. Its purpose is to give influence to a sample relative to the surface area it represents. A single surface sample is comprised of a single subsample. A composite sample may contain from two to four subsamples of the same area as each other and of each single surface sample in the composite. The weighted arithmetic mean is obtained by summing, for all samples, the product of the sample's result multiplied by the number of subsamples in the sample, and dividing the sum by the total number of subsamples contained in all samples. For example the weighted arithmetic mean of a single surface sample containing 60  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$ , a composite sample (three subsamples) containing 100  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$ , and a composite sample (4 subsamples) containing 110  $\text{mg}/\text{ft}^2$  is 100  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$ . This result is based on the equation  $[60+(3*100) + (4*110)]/(1+3+4)$ .

(69) "Window trough" means for a typical double-hung window, the portion of the exterior window sill between the interior window sill (or stool) and the frame of the storm window. If there is no storm window, the window trough is the area that receives both the upper and lower window sashes when they are both lowered. The window trough is sometimes referred to as the window "well".

(70) "Wipe sample" means a sample collected by wiping a representative surface of known area, as determined by ASTM E 1728, "Standard Practice for Field Collection of Settled Dust Samples Using Wipe Sampling Methods for Lead Determination by Atomic Spectrometry Techniques, or equivalent method, with an acceptable wipe material as defined in ASTM E 1792, "Standard Specification for Wipe Sampling Materials for Lead in Surface Dust."

(71) "Worker" means an individual who is certified by the Authority and licensed by the CCB to conduct lead-based paint abatement activities in target housing and child-occupied facilities in accordance with OAR 333-069-0070.

Certification Required

(1) No person, firm, or public agency shall offer to perform or perform lead-based paint inspection, risk assessment, or abatement activities in target housing or child-occupied facilities without first receiving certification from the Authority and a license from the CCB, except if such a person, firm, or public agency is exempt from CCB licensing requirements.

(2) All certificates to perform lead-based paint activities shall expire on June 30, and are renewable upon meeting all of the requirements as determined by the Authority.

(3) Certified persons or firms conducting lead-based paint activities shall comply with the work practice standards for performing lead-based paint activities as prescribed in these rules. Painters shall follow the work practices described on the Permit application.

(4) It shall be considered a violation of these rules and the CCB regulations for any person to conduct any of the lead-based paint activities described in these rules unless the individual has received certification from the Authority and licensure from the CCB, except if such a person, is exempt from CCB licensing requirements.

(5) Applicants for inspector, risk assessor, project designer and supervisor shall pass with a score of 70 or more on a certification examination administered by the Authority for each discipline for which certification is desired.

(6) Individuals may take the certification examination no more than three times within six months of the course completion date of the accredited lead-based paint training course.

(7) If an individual applicant does not complete all certification requirements (including passing the certification examination for required disciplines) within six months of the course completion date of the accredited lead-based paint training course, the individual shall successfully complete the appropriate accredited standard or refresher training course before reapplying for certification.

(8) A certificate for an individual will be issued by the Authority in the form of an identification card and a numbered certificate. This card will identify each discipline for which a person is certified and must be available on demand for inspection at all times while conducting inspection, risk assessment, or abatement activities.

(9) A numbered certificate for a certified firm will be issued by the Authority.

(10) A public agency whose employees perform 'in house' lead-based paint services need not be a certified firm, but shall furnish the Authority with a letter of compliance certifying the following:

(a) The agency will use only certified individuals of the appropriate discipline to conduct lead-based paint activities as described in these rules;

(b) The agency will follow the standards for conducting lead-based paint activities as prescribed in these rules; and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) The agency will maintain records of all such activities per these rules.

(d) The letter of compliance will be signed by an individual authorized to sign on the agency's behalf.

(e) Any public agency determined by the Authority to be in violation of this exemption shall be subject to the certification requirements of a non-exempt firm.

(11) A firm or public agency that contracts with a certified firm or public agency to provide lead-based paint activities on its behalf need not be certified.

(a) The contracting firm or public agency shall submit to the Authority a letter of compliance stating the following:

(A) The firm or agency will use only certified firms and certified individuals of the appropriate discipline to conduct lead-based paint activities as described in these rules;

(B) The firm or agency will ensure that the standards for conducting lead-based paint activities as prescribed in these rules will be followed; and

(C) The firm or agency will maintain records of all such activities per these rules.

(D) The letter of compliance will be signed by an individual authorized to sign on the firm or the agency's behalf.

(b) The contracting firm shall submit to the Authority, upon request, a copy of the contract agreement between the contracting firm and the certified firm or firms.

(12) Employees or agents of regulatory agencies are exempt from these rules if:

(a) Those employees or agents are acting in a regulatory capacity;

(b) They are carrying out activities within the scope of the agency's regulatory authority; and

(c) They have been trained in a manner consistent with the public and environmental health objectives of these rules.

Eligibility

(1) Inspector. To qualify, an individual shall complete all elements on the application form and meet the following eligibility requirements:

(a) Successfully complete and receive a course completion certificate from an Authority accredited training program as an inspector;

(b) Pass the certification examination administered by the Authority for an inspector.

(2) Risk assessor. To qualify, an individual shall complete all elements on the application form and meet the following minimum eligibility requirements:

(a) Successfully complete and receive a course completion certificate from an Authority accredited training program as a risk assessor and inspector;

(b) Pass the certification exam administered by the Authority for a risk assessor;

(c) Have completed one of the following education and applicable experience criteria:

(A) Certification as an industrial hygienist, an engineer, a registered architect, certified safety professional, registered sanitarian, or registered environmental health specialist; or

(B) A bachelor's degree and one year of experience in a related field (e.g. lead, asbestos, environmental remediation work, or construction); or an associates degree and two years experience in a related field (e.g., lead, asbestos, environmental remediation work, or construction); or

(C) A high school diploma (or equivalent), plus at least three years of experience in a related field (e.g. lead, asbestos, environmental remediation work, or construction).

(3) Supervisor. To qualify, an individual shall complete all elements on the application form and meet the following minimum eligibility requirements:

(a) Successfully complete and receive a course completion certificate from an Authority accredited training program as a lead abatement supervisor;

(b) Pass the certification exam administered by the Authority for a supervisor;

(c) Have completed one of the following experience requirements:

(A) One year of experience as a certified lead-based paint abatement worker; or

(B) At least two years of experience in a related field (e.g. lead, asbestos, or environmental remediation work) or in the building trades.

(4) Abatement worker. To qualify, an individual shall complete all elements on the application form and successfully complete and receive a course completion certificate from an Authority accredited training program as a lead abatement worker.

(5) Project designer. To qualify, an individual shall comply with all application requirements and meet the following minimum eligibility requirements:

(a) Successfully complete and receive a course completion certificate from an Authority accredited training program as a lead abatement supervisor and project designer;

(b) Have completed one of the following education and applicable experience criteria:

(A) Bachelor's degree in engineering, architecture, or a related profession, and one year of experience in building construction and design or a related field; or

(B) Four years of experience in building construction and design or a related field; and

(C) Pass the certification examination administered by the Authority for a project designer.

(6) Applicants for certification may complete a refresher course in the same discipline in satisfaction of the training requirement if no more than one year has passed since the original course was completed and the original course was accredited by the Authority, EPA, or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program.

(7) The Authority may certify an individual who has been certified as an inspector, risk assessor, supervisor, project designer, or abatement worker by the EPA or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program upon receiving evidence that the individual has:

(a) Completed and received a course completion certificate from an accredited training course specific to the position for which the individual has applied and the course is accredited by the EPA or by a state or tribal program authorized by the EPA under 40 CFR 745.234;

(b) Met or exceeded all other eligibility requirements specified in OAR 333-069-0030 specific to the position applied for;

(c) Met all application requirements in OAR 333-069-0040; and

(d) Completed any additional requirements established by the Authority.

(8) Applicants for certification based on certification from another state or tribal program must document to the Authority that they have read and understand the certification and work practice standards as described in these rules.

(9) Certification based on a valid lead-based paint certification issued by the EPA or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program shall be issued with an expiration date not to exceed the date of expiration listed on the certification.

Application Requirements

(1) No person, firm or public agency shall conduct lead-based paint activities in or on target housing or child-occupied facilities without first applying to the Authority for and receiving certification to conduct such activities.

(2) Applications for certification or permit shall be accompanied with a check or money order made out to the 'Oregon Health Authority' in the amount as described in OAR 333-069-0090.

(3) Applications for a person shall be submitted on forms prescribed by the Authority and shall be accompanied, as appropriate, by:

(a) Documentation of applicant's training, experience, and education including:

(A) Lead-based paint training course completion certificate issued by an Authority-accredited training program.

(B) Documentation of experience must include name and address of employer, name and telephone number of supervisor; or indicate if self-employed. Documentation must also include employment dates, description of specific duties performed, estimated percentage of time associated with conducting inspections and assessing health, safety or environmental hazards. This documentation must be signed by supervisor or employer verifying, under penalty of perjury, that the information is true and correct. A self-employed individual must submit a notarized affidavit attesting to the work experience claimed for the purposes of application.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(C) Evidence of completion of educational requirements under OAR 333-069-0030, such as a transcript or diploma, if applicable.

(b) Two current, passport size photos.

(c) Applicant's name, printed or typed, date, and signature, verifying, under penalty of perjury, that all information submitted is true and correct.

(4) Applications for a certification or permit shall be submitted on forms prescribed by the Authority. Application materials can be obtained from the Authority's website.

(5) Applications for certification of a firm shall be accompanied by a letter of compliance certifying the following:

(a) The firm will employ only certified employees of the appropriate discipline to conduct lead-based paint activities as prescribed in these rules.

(b) The firm will follow the standards for conducting lead-based paint activities as prescribed in these rules.

(c) The firm shall maintain all records pursuant to these rules.

(d) The letter of compliance shall be signed by an officer of the firm, or an individual authorized to sign on the firm's behalf.

(6) Certified individuals, firms and permit holders shall notify the Authority within 30 calendar days of any change to the current application.

(7) For the purposes of application, photocopies of original documents are acceptable.

Renewal and Recertification

(1) To maintain a permit or certification in a particular discipline, application for recertification shall be made annually to the Authority. Applicants shall submit completed application forms available from the Authority, postmarked 60 days or more before the date the current certification expires, and shall pay the appropriate fee per OAR 333-069-0090.

(2) Recertification is required for individuals by June 30, no more than three years after the issue date of an original certification or recertification, whichever is most recent. To obtain recertification, an individual shall fulfill the following:

(a) Submit to the Authority an application for recertification that shall include two current passport-size photos and the appropriate fee per OAR 333-069-0090; and

(b) Submit to the Authority a copy of the course completion certificate from an accredited lead-based paint standard or refresher training course in the appropriate discipline.

(3) An individual whose Authority certification has been expired for more than six months must complete a standard or refresher course in that discipline and pass a qualifying examination administered by the Authority. An individual whose Authority certification has been expired for more than one year shall successfully complete a standard course in that discipline and pass a qualifying examination administered by the Authority.

Certification Procedures

(1) The Authority shall inform the applicant, in writing, when his/her application is granted, denied or incomplete and of the additional information and/or documentation that is required to complete the application.

(a) If granted, a certificate shall be mailed to the applicant and the effective date shall be the issuance date of certification or recertification.

(b) A unique certification number will be assigned to each certificate holder.

(c) If an application is denied, the Authority shall state, in writing, the reasons for denial.

(d) An application may be withdrawn at any time by written request to the Authority.

(2) The Authority may take into consideration various factors in determining whether to grant or deny a permit or certification including, but not limited to:

(a) Failure to satisfy eligibility requirements for certification;

(b) Failure to satisfy training requirements;

(c) Failure to provide required documentation or information requested by the Authority;

(d) History of citations or violations of existing regulations or standards;

(e) History of revocation of a certificate;

(f) Making false or misleading statements in the application.

(3) Certification and permits shall be non-transferable.

(4) All certifications and permits shall expire on June 30.

Work Practice Standards

(1) When performing any lead-based paint activity described by a certified and licensed individual as an inspection, lead hazard screen, risk assessment or abatement, a certified and licensed person must perform that activity in compliance with these rules, documented methodologies, procedures and work practice standards.

(2) Inspection. An inspection shall be conducted only by a person certified by the Authority and licensed by the CCB as an inspector or risk assessor. Persons exempt from CCB licensing requirements shall be certified by the Authority. Employees of public agencies who conduct 'in-house' lead-based paint activities are exempt from licensing by the CCB.

(a) Locations shall be selected according to documented methodologies and tested for the presence of lead as follows:

(A) In target housing and child-occupied facilities, each component with a distinct painting history shall be tested, except those components determined to have been replaced after 1978 or to not contain lead-based paint; and

(B) In a multi-family dwelling or child-occupied facility, each component with a distinct painting history in every common area shall be tested, except those components determined to have been replaced after 1978 or to not contain lead-based paint.

(b) Paint shall be tested for the presence of lead using documented methodologies which incorporate sampling quality control procedures and all paint chip, dust, and soil samples shall be analyzed for detectable levels of lead by a laboratory accredited under the National Lead Laboratory Accreditation Program.

(c) Inspection reports shall be prepared and include at least:

(A) Inspection date;

(B) Building address;

(C) Date of construction;

(D) Apartment identification (numbers, letters, names if applicable);

(E) Name, address and telephone number of owner or owners of each unit;

(F) Name, signature, and certification number of each inspector and/or risk assessor conducting testing;

(G) Name, address and telephone number of the certified firm employing each inspector and/or risk assessor;

(H) Each testing method and device and/or sampling procedure employed for paint analysis, including sample quality control data, and if used, the serial number of any X-ray fluorescence (XRF) device; and

(I) Specific locations of each painted component tested and the results of the inspection expressed in appropriate units for the sampling method used.

(3) Lead hazard screen. A lead hazard screen shall be conducted only by a person certified by the Authority and licensed by the CCB as a risk assessor, except if such a person, is exempt from CCB licensing requirements, and shall be conducted as follows:

(a) Background information shall be collected about the physical characteristics of the target housing or child-occupied facility and occupant use patterns that may cause lead-based paint exposure to one or more children under six years of age.

(b) A visual inspection shall be conducted to determine the presence of any deteriorated paint and locate at least two dust sampling locations.

(c) If deteriorated paint is present, each deteriorated paint surface determined, using documented methodologies, to be in poor condition and to have a distinct painting history shall be tested for the presence of lead.

(d) In residential dwellings, two composite dust samples shall be collected, one from the floors and the other from the windows, in rooms, hallways or stairwells where one or more children under six years of age are likely to come in contact with dust.

(e) In multi-family dwellings and child-occupied facilities, floor and window composite dust sampling shall be conducted as specified in OAR 333-069-0070(3)(d). In addition, composite dust samples shall be collected in common areas where one or more children under six years of age are likely to come in contact with dust.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(f) All dust samples shall be collected using documented methodologies that incorporate sample quality control procedures and analyzed by a laboratory accredited under the National Lead Laboratory Accreditation Program to determine detectable lead.

(g) A lead hazard screen report shall be prepared by the risk assessor and include:

(A) Information in a risk assessment report as specified in section (4) of this rule, including paragraphs (4)(i)(A) through (4)(i)(N) and excluding paragraphs (4)(i)(O) through (4)(i)(R) of this rule. Additionally, any background information collected pursuant to the lead hazard screen shall be included.

(B) Any recommendations for follow-up risk assessment and other further actions.

(4) Risk assessment. A risk assessment of target housing or child-occupied facility shall be conducted only by a person certified by the Authority and licensed by the CCB as a risk assessor. Persons exempt from CCB licensing requirements shall be certified by the Authority. Employees of public agencies who conduct 'in-house' lead-based paint activities are exempt from licensing by the CCB. A risk assessment shall be conducted as follows:

(a) A visual inspection shall be conducted to locate the existence of deteriorated paint, assess the extent and cause of deterioration, and other potential lead-based hazards.

(b) Background information shall be collected regarding the physical characteristics and occupant use patterns that may cause lead-based paint exposure to one or more children under six years of age.

(c) The following surfaces which are determined, using documented methodologies, to have a distinct painting history, shall be tested for the presence of lead:

(A) Each friction surface or impact surface with visibly deteriorated paint.

(B) All other surfaces with visibly deteriorated paint.

(d) In residential dwellings, dust samples (either composite or single-surface samples) from the interior window sill(s) and floor shall be collected and analyzed for lead concentration in all living areas where one or more children under six years of age are most likely to come in contact with dust.

(e) For multi-family dwellings and child-occupied facilities, the samples required in subsection (4)(d) of this rule shall be taken. In addition, interior window sill and floor dust samples (either composite or single-surface samples) shall be collected and analyzed for lead concentration in the following locations:

(A) Common areas adjacent to sampled target house or child-occupied facility; and

(B) Other common areas in the building where the risk assessor determines that one or more children under six years of age are likely to come in contact with dust.

(f) For child-occupied facilities, interior window sill and floor dust samples (either composite or single-surface samples) shall be collected and analyzed in each room, hallway or stairwell utilized by one or more children under six years of age, and in other common areas in the child-occupied facility where the risk assessor determines one or more children under six years of age are likely to come in contact with dust.

(g) Soil samples shall be collected and analyzed for lead concentrations from the following locations:

(A) Exterior play areas where bare soil is present; and

(B) The remainder of the yard (i.e., non-play areas) where bare soil is present.

(h) Any paint, dust or soil sampling or testing shall be conducted using documented methodologies that incorporate sample quality control procedures and analyzed by a laboratory accredited under the National Lead Laboratory Accreditation Program to determine detectable lead.

(i) The certified risk assessor shall prepare a risk assessment report which shall include at a minimum the following information:

(A) Assessment date;

(B) Address of each building;

(C) Date of construction of buildings;

(D) Apartment identification (numbers, letters, names if applicable);

(E) Name, address and telephone number of each owner of each building;

(F) Name, signature, and certification number of each risk assessor conducting the assessment;

(G) Name, address and telephone number of the certified firm employing each risk assessor;

(H) Name, address and telephone number of each laboratory conducting analysis of collected samples;

(I) Results of the visual inspection;

(J) Testing method and sampling procedure employed for paint analysis;

(K) Specific locations of each painted component tested for the presence of lead;

(L) All data collected from on-site testing, including quality control data, and if used, the serial number of any X-ray fluorescence (XRF) device;

(M) All results of laboratory analysis on collected paint, soil, and dust samples;

(N) Any other sampling results;

(O) Any background information collected pursuant to subsection (4)(b) of this rule;

(P) To the extent used as part of the lead-based paint hazard determination, the results of any previous inspections or analyses for the presence of lead-based paint, or other assessments of lead-based paint related hazards;

(Q) A description of the location, type, and severity of identified lead-based paint hazards and any other potential lead hazards; and

(R) A description of interim controls and/or abatement options for each identified lead-based paint hazard and a recommended prioritization for addressing each hazard. If the use of an encapsulant or enclosure is recommended, the report shall recommend a maintenance and monitoring schedule for the encapsulant or enclosure.

(5) Abatement. An abatement shall be conducted only by a person certified by the Authority and licensed by the CCB. Persons exempt from CCB licensing requirements shall be certified by the Authority. Employees of public agencies who conduct 'in-house' lead-based paint activities are exempt from licensing by the CCB. Abatement shall be conducted as follows:

(a) A certified and licensed supervisor or project designer is required for each abatement project and shall be onsite during all work site preparation and during post-abatement cleanup of work areas. At all other times, the certified supervisor or project designer shall be onsite or available by telephone, pager, or answering service, and be able to be present at the work site in no more than two hours.

(b) A certified and licensed project designer is required for each abatement project that:

(A) Consists of 10 or more target housing units built prior to 1960;

(B) Consists of 20 or more target housing units built during or after 1960; or

(C) Consists of 25,000 square feet or more of target housing.

(c) The certified and licensed supervisor or project designer, as well as, the certified and licensed firm employing that supervisor shall ensure that all abatement activities are conducted according to the requirements of these rules and all federal, state and local requirements.

(d) A certified and licensed project designer may replace and assume the responsibilities of a certified and licensed supervisor required for an abatement project. If a certified and licensed project designer provides supervision on an abatement project, the project designer shall be responsible for preparing the occupant protection plan and the abatement report.

(e) Any firm or individual conducting lead-based paint abatement activities in target housing or child-occupied facilities must notify the Authority at least seven business days before the start date of the project by completing and submitting a notice of abatement form available from the Authority.

(A) The notice of abatement shall specify the time of day that abatement activities will start and the date on which abatement activities will be completed.

(B) Amendments to or cancellations of the original notice of abatement, including completion-date changes must be submitted 24 hours prior to the original start date.

(C) In the event of an emergency, an original or amended notice of abatement describing the emergency must be submitted. Notification for lead-based paint abatement activities required in response to an elevated blood lead level (EBLL) determination, or federal, state, tribal, or local emergency abatement order should be received by the Authority as early as possible before, but must be received no later than the start date of the lead-based paint abatement activities. Should the start date and/or location provided to the Authority change, an updated notification must be received by the Authority on or before the start date provided in the notice of abatement to the Authority. Documentation showing evidence of an EBLL determination or a copy of the federal, state, tribal, or local emergency abatement order must be included in the written notification to take advantage of this abbreviated notification period.

(D) A request for waiver of the seven-business day advance notice requirement must be submitted in writing and granted in writing by the Authority before work under the waiver can start.

(E) The Authority may reject a notice of abatement form that has not been completed in full and signed by the applicant.

(f) A written occupant protection plan shall be developed prior to all abatement projects, be prepared by a certified and licensed supervisor or project designer, be unique to each target housing or child-occupied facility, describe the measures and management procedures that will be taken during the abatement to protect the building occupants from exposure to any lead-based paint hazards. The written occupant protection plan shall be present at the project site and must be made available on demand for inspection.

(g) A scope of work for the abatement project shall be present at the project site and must be made available on demand for inspection.

(h) These work practices shall be restricted during abatement:

(A) Open-flame burning or torching of lead-based paint is prohibited;

(B) Uncontained hydro blasting or high-pressure washing of lead-based paint is prohibited;

(C) Machine sanding or grinding or abrasive blasting or sandblasting of lead-based paint is prohibited unless used with High Efficiency Particulate Air (HEPA) exhaust control which removes particles of 0.3 microns or larger from the air at 99.97 percent or greater efficiency;

(D) Dry scraping of lead-based paint is permitted only in conjunction with heat guns or around electrical outlets or when treating defective paint spots totaling no more than two square feet in any room, hallway or stairwell or totaling no more than 20 square feet on exterior surfaces; and

(E) Operating a heat gun on lead-based paint is permitted only at temperatures below 1100 degrees Fahrenheit.

(i) When soil abatement is conducted:

(A) If the soil is removed:

(i) The soil shall be replaced by soil with a lead concentration as close to local background as practicable, but no greater than 400 ppm.

(ii) The soil that is removed shall not be used as top soil at another residential property or child-occupied facility.

(B) If the soil is not removed, the soil shall be permanently covered as defined in these rules.

(j) The following clearance procedures shall be performed only by a certified and licensed inspector or risk assessor and according to the following procedures:

(A) A visual inspection shall be performed to determine if deteriorated painted surfaces and/or visible amounts of dust, debris or residue are still present. If deteriorated painted surfaces or visible amounts of dust, debris or residue are present, these conditions must be eliminated prior to the continuation of the clearance procedures.

(B) If exterior work on a project cannot be completed due to inclement weather or other factors, the project supervisor may apply in writing to the Authority for authorization of a preliminary clearance.

(i) The application must include the following:

(I) The project address;

(II) The name and certification number of the abatement project supervisor or project designer;

(III) A description of the conditions that justify issuance of a waiver;

(IV) A description of the abatement work that remains to be done on the project;

(V) A schedule for completion of the abatement work that remains to be done; and

(VI) A plan for monitoring and controlling potential lead-based paint contamination until work can be completed.

(ii) At the conclusion of all work on a project for which preliminary clearance examination has been authorized, the project supervisor shall present the Authority with documentation that clearance testing has been performed on exterior and interior areas according to these rules and that all results are below clearance examination standards.

(C) Following the visual inspection and any post-abatement clean up required by paragraph (5)(j)(A) of this rule, clearance testing for lead in dust and/or soil shall be conducted. Clearance testing may be conducted by employing single-surface sampling techniques.

(D) Clearance testing shall be performed using documented methodologies that incorporate sample quality control procedures and shall be taken a minimum of one hour after completion of final cleanup activities.

(E) Post-abatement clearance examination activities shall be conducted based upon the extent or manner of work activities conducted in or on the target housing or child-occupied facility as follows:

(i) After conducting an abatement with containment between containment and non-containment areas, one dust sample shall be taken from one interior window sill and from one window trough (if present) and one dust sample shall be taken from the floors of no less than four rooms, hallways or stairwells within the containment area. In addition, one dust sample shall be taken from the floor outside the containment area. If a room containment consists of more than one critical barrier, one dust sample shall be taken outside each critical barrier. If there are fewer than four rooms, hallways or stairwells within the containment area, then all rooms, hallways or stairwells shall be sampled.

(ii) After conducting an abatement with no containment, two dust samples shall be taken from no fewer than four rooms, hallways or stairwells in the residential dwelling or child-occupied facility. One dust sample shall be taken from one interior window sill and from one window trough (if present) and one dust sample shall be taken from the floor of each room, hallway or stairwell selected. If there are fewer than four rooms, hallways or stairwells within the target housing or child-occupied facility then all rooms, hallways or stairwells shall be sampled.

(iii) Following exterior paint abatement, a visual inspection shall be conducted. All horizontal surfaces in the outdoor living area closest to the abated surfaces shall be found to be cleaned of visible dust and debris. The surfaces shall be recleaned when visible dust and debris is present. The visual inspection shall be conducted to determine the presence of paint chips on the dripline or next to the foundation below any exterior abated surface. Paint chips, if present, shall be removed from the site and disposed of according to federal, state and local requirements.

(F) The rooms, hallways or stairwells selected for sampling shall be selected according to documented methodologies.

(G) The certified and licensed inspector or risk assessor shall compare residual lead levels (as determined by laboratory analysis) from each single surface dust sample with clearance examination standards as defined in these rules for lead in dust on floors and interior window sills, and window troughs, divided by half the number of subsamples in the composite sample. If the residual lead level in a single surface dust sample equals or exceeds the applicable clearance examination standard or if the residual lead level in a composite dust sample equals or exceeds the applicable clearance examination standard divided by half the number of subsamples in the composite sample, the components represented by the failed sample shall be recleaned and retested until clearance examination standards are met.

(k) In a multi-family dwelling with similarly constructed and maintained residential dwellings, random sampling for the purposes of clearance examination may be conducted provided:

(A) The certified individuals who work on or clean the residential dwellings do not know which residential dwelling will be selected for the random sample.

(B) The randomly selected residential dwellings shall be sampled and evaluated according to subsection (5)(j) of this rule.

(C) A sufficient number of residential dwellings are selected for dust sampling to provide a 95 percent level of confidence that no more than five percent or 50 of the residential dwellings (whichever is smaller) in the randomly sampled population exceeds the appropriate clearance examination standards.

(l) An abatement report shall be prepared by a certified and licensed supervisor or project designer and shall include as a minimum the following information:

(A) Start and completion dates of abatement;

(B) The name, address and telephone number of each certified firm conducting the abatement and the name of each supervisor or project designer assigned to the abatement project;

(C) The occupant protection plan;

(D) The name, address and signature of each certified and licensed inspector or risk assessor conducting the clearance examination and the date(s) that the clearance examination was performed;

(E) The results of the clearance examination and all soil analyses and the name of each laboratory conducting analysis of collected samples; and

(F) A detailed written description of the abatement, including abatement methods, location of rooms and/or components where abatement occurred, reason for selecting particular abatement methods for each component, and any suggested monitoring of encapsulants or enclosures.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(m) A clearance examination report shall be prepared by a certified inspector or risk assessor. The clearance examination report shall include the following information:

- (A) The property address where the clearance examination occurred;
- (B) The abatement cleanup completion date and time;
- (C) The date and time of the clearance examination;
- (D) Name and certification number of each inspector or risk assessor conducting the clearance;
- (E) The signature of the inspector or risk assessor conducting the clearance;
- (F) Name, address, telephone number, and certification number of the certified firm employing the inspector or risk assessor;
- (G) Results of the visual inspection;
- (H) Identification of containment or non-containment applications;
- (I) Identification of location(s) where the clearance examination sample(s) were collected;
- (J) Name, address, and telephone number of the laboratory analyzing the collected samples;
- (K) All results of laboratory analysis on collected samples, including quality control results; and
- (L) Documented methodology used for sampling.

(6) Sampling. Any paint chip, dust, or soil samples collected pursuant to these work practice standards shall be collected by a certified and licensed inspector or risk assessor. Persons exempt from CCB licensing requirements shall be certified by the Authority. Employees of public agencies who conduct 'in-house' lead-based paint activities are exempt from licensing by the CCB. Such samples shall be analyzed by a laboratory accredited under the National Lead Laboratory Accreditation Program.

(7) Composite sample. Composite dust sampling may only be conducted when conducting a lead hazard screen, risk assessment, or post abatement activities. If conducted, the composite dust samples shall consist of at least two subsamples, every component that is being tested shall be included in the sampling, and shall not consist of subsamples from more than one type of component.

(8) Reports or plans. All lead-based paint activity reports or plans shall be maintained by the certified firm or individual who prepared the report for no fewer than three years and six months. Also, the certified firm or individual shall provide copies of these reports to the building owner or client who contracted for the services, unless otherwise specified by contract, within 30 days of the lead-based paint activity, or within 15 days if a child under six years of age with a confirmed EBLL  $\geq 10 \mu\text{g}/\text{dL}$  is an occupant of the building.

(9) Certified individuals and firms shall, upon request, make available to the Authority records and documents regarding regulated lead-based paint activities so that the Authority may inspect said records and documents for the purposes of monitoring compliance with these rules. The Authority shall respect the proprietary nature of business records.

(10) Signage. Every work site where lead-based paint abatement is being conducted shall bear signage warning of lead-based paint hazards.

(a) The text on warning signage shall warn of "Lead-Based Paint Hazards" and be readable from 30 feet.

(b) If the Authority determines that a paint-lead hazard, dust-lead hazard, or soil-lead hazard exists at target housing or pre-1978 child-occupied facilities, the Authority shall post signage to that effect on the building exterior in one or more visible locations.

(c) Signage posted by the Authority warning of lead hazards must remain in place until the lead hazard or hazards determined by the Authority have been remediated per clearance examination standards.

(11) Determinations.

(a) Lead-based paint is present:

(A) On any surface that is tested and found to contain lead equal to or in excess of 1.0 milligrams per square centimeter or equal to or in excess of 0.5 percent by weight; and

(B) On any surface similar to a surface tested in the same room equivalent that has a similar painting history and is found to be lead-based paint.

(b) A paint-lead hazard is present:

(A) On any friction surface that is subject to abrasion and where the lead dust levels on the nearest horizontal surface (e.g., the window sill or floor) are equal to or greater than the dust hazard levels identified in OAR 333-069-0015(9);

(B) On any chewable lead-based paint surface on which there is evidence of teeth marks;

(C) Where there is any damaged or otherwise deteriorated lead-based paint on an impact surface that is caused by impact from a related building component (such as a door knob that knocks into a wall or a door that knocks against a door frame); and

(D) If there is any other deteriorated lead-based paint in any residential building or child-occupied facility or on the exterior of any residential building or child-occupied facility.

(c) A dust lead-hazard is present in a residential dwelling or child-occupied facility:

(A) In a residential dwelling on floors and interior window sills when the weighted arithmetic mean lead loading for all surfaces on floors, interior window sills and window troughs is equal to or greater than  $40 \mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  for floors,  $250 \mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  for interior window sills, and  $400 \mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  for window troughs;

(B) On floors or interior window sills in an unsampled residential dwelling in a multi-family dwelling, if a dust-lead hazard is present on floors or interior window sills, respectively, in at least one sampled residential unit on the property; and

(C) On floors or interior window sills in an unsampled common area in a multi-family dwelling, if a dust-lead hazard is present on floors or interior window sills, respectively in at least one sampled common area in the same common area group on the property.

(d) A soil-lead hazard is present in a residential dwelling or child-occupied facility:

(A) In a play area when the soil-lead concentration from a play area sample of bare soil is equal to or greater than 400 ppm; or

(B) When the arithmetic mean lead concentration from a composite sample (or arithmetic mean of composite samples) of bare soil from the remainder of the yard for each residential building on a property is equal to or greater than 1,200 ppm.

Denial, Suspension or Revocation of Certification

(1) The Authority may deny issuance of, suspend, or revoke certification for an individual or a firm for circumstances including but not limited to the following:

(a) Performing work requiring certification at a job site without having a current valid certificate identification card available at the job site for inspection;

(b) Permitting the duplication or use of the individual's own certificate by another;

(c) Performing work for which appropriate certification has not been received from the Authority;

(d) Having been subject to a final administrative order imposing a civil penalty or a criminal conviction for engaging in a prohibited act under Authority or CCB rules;

(e) Failing to comply with relevant local, state, or federal statutes or regulations including execution of a consent agreement in settlement of an enforcement action;

(f) Failing to comply with work practices and standards set forth in these rules and other generally accepted work practices;

(g) Obtaining certification through fraudulent representation of documentation satisfying eligibility requirements;

(h) Failing to renew certification or to recertify in a timely manner;

(i) Gaining admission to and completing education through fraudulent representation of initial or previous education documentation;

(j) Obtaining certification through fraudulent representation of certification requirements such as education, training, professional registration, or experience;

(k) Performing work requiring certification at a job site with individuals who are not certified;

(l) Failing to maintain required records; and

(m) Failing to comply with these rules including execution of a consent agreement in settlement of an enforcement action.

(2) The Authority may deny issuance of, suspend, or revoke certification for an individual for circumstances including but not limited to the following:

(a) Obtaining training documentation through fraudulent means, and/or;

(b) Gaining admission to and completing education through fraudulent representation of initial or previous education documentation.

(3) The Authority may deny issuance of, suspend, or revoke certification for a firm for circumstances including but not limited to the following:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

- (a) Performing work requiring certification at a job site with individuals who are not certified;
- (b) Failing to maintain required records.
- (4) Hearings on the denial, suspension or revocation of a certificate shall be conducted as a contested case in accordance with ORS 183.310 through 183.540.

333-069-0085

Schedule of Penalties

The Authority may assess penalties, not to exceed the actions or amount shown in the following guidelines:

(1) A level one violation includes, but is not limited to, the following violations:

(a) Offering to perform or performing lead-based paint activities without Authority certification and CCB licensing, unless specifically exempted by these rules.

(b) Clearance examination inconsistencies including, but not limited to, the following:

- (A) Failure to conduct clearance examination;
- (B) Allowing rehabilitation before clearance has been achieved;
- (C) Allowing rehabilitation when lead hazard levels exceed the standard;

(c) The collection of samples as described in these rules by a non-certified individual or firm;

(d) Obtaining certification via fraud or duplication of certification documents;

(e) Conducting lead-based paint activities with a revoked, suspended or expired certification;

(f) Employing uncertified individuals to conduct lead-based paint activities;

(g) Failure to comply with a consent agreement or an administrative order;

(h) Falsification of results of lead-hazard sampling;

(i) Removing paint from target housing or child-occupied facilities without a permit;

(j) Use of prohibited abatement methods.

(2) A level two violation includes, but is not limited to, the following violations:

(a) Failure to comply with prescribed work practice standards;

(b) Improper collection or handling of samples or sampling information collected for an inspection, risk assessment, clearance, or lead-hazard screen;

(c) Failure to use a National Lead Laboratory Accreditation Program laboratory for analysis of samples referred to in subsection (2)(b) of this rule;

(d) Incomplete, missing or late reports;

(e) Failure to provide notice of abatement, or notice given in a manner that obstructs proper oversight;

(f) Failure to provide client with report of lead-based paint activity in a timely manner, as specified for in these rules;

(g) Failure to maintain or to provide for Authority inspection lead-based paint activities reports and documents;

(h) Performance by a certified individual of lead-based paint activity outside of the scope of that individual's certification;

(3) A level three violation includes, but is not limited to, the following violations:

(a) Conducting lead-based paint activities without a valid certification badge;

(b) Conducting in-house lead-based paint activities by a public agency without having submitted a letter of compliance to the Authority;

(c) Conducting lead-based paint activities that have been contracted for by a non-certified firm or agency, without the firm or agency having submitted a letter of compliance to the Authority;

(d) Conducting lead-based paint abatement without an occupant protection plan;

(4) The penalties for levels one, two and three as described in this rule will be assessed according to the following schedule:

(a) Level one:

(A) First offense: notice of noncompliance and up to $1,000.

(B) Second offense: notice of noncompliance, a fine of up to $3,000 and suspension of certification for up to 90 days.

(C) Third offense: notice of noncompliance, a fine of up to $5000 and either suspension of certification for up to 180 days or revocation of certification.

(b) Level two:

(A) First offense: notice of noncompliance and a fine of up to $500.

(B) Second offense: notice of noncompliance and a fine of up to $2,000.

(C) Third offense: notice of noncompliance, a fine of up to $5,000 and suspension of certification for up to 30 days.

(c) Level three:

(A) First offense: notice of noncompliance.

(B) Second offense: notice of noncompliance and/or a letter of warning.

(C) Third offense: notice of noncompliance and/or a letter of warning and a fine of up to $100.

(5) Violations that are not specifically addressed in sections (1) through (4) of this rule, such as in the case of serial violations of different levels, shall be assessed appropriate penalties by the Authority in accordance with the hazard to public health produced by the activity and the compliance history of the violator.

(6) Removal of signage. It shall be a violation to remove a sign posted by the Authority to warn the public of lead hazards, and such action shall be punishable by a fine of $100 per day.

(7) The Authority may revoke, suspend, or refuse to issue or reissue the certification or permit of any individual or firm who fails to pay on demand a civil penalty that has become due and payable.

(8) Procedures, including a hearing, pursuant to the assessment of a civil penalty shall be conducted according to ORS 183.745.

Fees

The following fees are established:

(1) Firms shall pay a non-refundable certification or recertification application fee of $85 for a one-year certification.

(2) Inspectors, risk assessors, supervisors, and project designers shall pay a non-refundable certification or recertification fee of $85 for a one year certification.

(3) Workers shall pay a non-refundable certification or recertification fee of $50 for a one-year certification.

(4) The fee for applications for certification received by the Authority between April 1 and June 30 shall be as follows: Worker, $25; all other disciplines, $45.

(5) The application fee for a permit for painting shall be $5.

333-070-0075

Authority, Purpose, Applicability

(1) Authority. These rules are promulgated in accordance with and under the authority of ORS 431.920.

(2) Purpose:

(a) The purpose of these rules is to address Oregon's need for a qualified and properly trained workforce to perform renovation, repair and painting of target housing and child-occupied facilities, and to safeguard the environment and protect the health of building occupants from lead-based paint hazards.

(b) These rules prescribe the requirements for certification of individuals and firms who perform for compensation renovation, repair and painting in target housing and child occupied facilities.

(c) These rules will establish work practice standards for the performance of renovation, repair and painting activities for certified individuals and certified renovation firms and will require that activities be performed only by certified individuals and certified renovation firms.

(d) These rules prescribe the requirements to ensure that owners and occupants of target housing and child-occupied facilities receive information on lead-based paint hazards before these renovations begin.

(3) Applicability:

(a) These rules apply to all certified individuals and certified renovation firms who perform for compensation renovation, repair and painting activities in target housing and child-occupied facilities as defined in OAR 333-070-0085, except for the following:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(A) Renovations in target housing or child-occupied facilities in which a written determination from a State of Oregon certified lead inspector or risk assessor that the components affected by the renovation are free of paint or other surface coatings that contain lead equal to or in excess of 1.0 milligrams per square centimeter (mg/cm<sup>2</sup>) or 0.5 percent by weight.

(B) Renovations in target housing or child-occupied facilities in which a certified renovator tests each component affected by the renovation using an Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) recognized test kit as defined in OAR 333-070-0085. The renovator must follow the kit manufacturer's instructions. This determines that the components are free of paint or other surface coatings that contain lead equal to or in excess of 1.0 mg/cm<sup>2</sup> or 0.5 percent by weight. If the components make up an integrated whole, such as the individual stair treads and risers of a single staircase, the renovator is required to test only one of the individual components, unless the individual components appear to have been repainted or refinished separately.

(b) The information distribution requirements in OAR 333-070-0095 do not apply to emergency renovation operations. Emergency renovations other than interim controls are also exempt from the warning sign, containment, waste handling, training, and certification requirements in OAR 333-070-0105 to the extent necessary to respond to the emergency. Emergency renovations are not exempt from the cleaning requirements of OAR 333-070-0090, which must be performed by certified renovators or individuals trained in accordance with OAR 333-070-0100, the cleaning verification requirements of OAR 333-070-0090, which must be performed by certified renovators, and the recordkeeping requirements of OAR 333-070-0110. Once the immediate emergency is over, lead safe work practices and all the requirements of these rules shall be in effect.

(c) These rules:

(A) Require that renovation, repair and painting activities must be performed by certified renovators and individuals who have on the job training by a certified renovator working for a certified renovation firm.

(B) Prescribe the requirements for, and the manner of, certifying competency of applicants for certification as a certified individual and of the certified renovation firms employing such individuals.

(C) Determine the work practice standards for renovation, repair and painting activities, and those actions or circumstances that constitute failure to achieve or maintain competency, or that otherwise are contrary to the public interest, for which the Authority may deny, suspend, or revoke certification.

(D) Establish the fees to the extent necessary to defray costs of those activities prescribed herein.

(d) A certified renovation firm who is licensed by the Construction Contractors Board (CCB) is not required to be certified by the Authority under these rules, but is subject to the work practice standards in these rules.

333-070-0085

Definitions

As used in these rules unless otherwise required by context:

(1) "Accredited training program" means a training program accredited or provisionally accredited by the Authority, EPA, or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program to provide training for individuals engaged in renovation, repair and painting activities.

(2) "Accreditation" means the process whereby the Authority has reviewed and approved a training program's written application with associated materials for accreditation, and has conducted an onsite audit finding the training program in compliance as specified in these rules.

(3) "Approved" means approved in writing by the Authority.

(4) "Audit" means a classroom evaluation of ongoing training. An audit involves verifying the course content, specific time requirements for each subject, hands-on training, classroom conditions, attendance size and other measures of the adequacy of the training provided.

(5) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(6) "Certificate of mailing" means a United States Postal Service document that indicates when a piece of mail was presented to the Postal Service for mailing.

(7) "Certified dust sampling technician" means a technician who has successfully completed a dust sampling course accredited by the Authority, EPA, or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program.

(8) "Certified individual" means an individual certified by the Authority as a renovator or dust sampling technician.

(9) "Certified renovation firm" means a company, partnership, corporation, sole proprietorship, association, or other entity that has been certified by the Authority to conduct renovation under ORS 431.920 or licensed by the CCB under ORS 701.515.

(10) "Certified renovator" means a renovator who has successfully completed a renovator course accredited by the Authority, EPA, or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program.

(11) "Child-occupied facility" means a building, or a portion of a building, constructed prior to 1978, visited regularly by the same child, under age six, on at least two different days within any week (Sunday through Saturday), provided that each day's visit lasts at least three hours and the combined weekly visit lasts at least six hours, and the combined annual visits last at least sixty hours. Child-occupied facilities may include, but are not limited to, day-care centers, preschools and kindergarten classrooms. Child-occupied facilities may be located in target housing or in public or commercial buildings. With respect to common areas in public or commercial buildings that contain child-occupied facilities, the child-occupied facility encompasses only those common areas that are routinely used by children under age six, such as restrooms and cafeterias. In addition, with respect to exteriors of public or commercial buildings that contain child-occupied facilities, the child-occupied facility encompasses only the exterior sides of the building that are immediately adjacent to the child-occupied facility or the common areas routinely used by children under age six.

(12) "Cleaning verification card" means a card developed and distributed, or otherwise approved, by EPA for the purpose of determining, through comparison of wet and dry disposable cleaning cloths with the card, whether post-renovation cleaning has been properly completed.

(13) "Clearance examination standards" means values that indicate the maximum amount of lead permitted in dust on a surface or in soil following completion of a renovation activity. Standards for lead in dust are 40 micrograms per square foot ( $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$ ) on floors, 250  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  on interior window sills, and 400  $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$  on window troughs. The values for lead in soil are 400 parts per million (ppm) in play areas and 1,200 ppm in the remainder of the yard.

(14) "Common areas" means portion(s) of a building that are generally accessible to all occupants. This may include, but is not limited to, hallways, stairways, laundry and recreational rooms, playgrounds, community centers, garages, and boundary fences. With respect to common areas in public or commercial buildings that contain child-occupied facilities, the child-occupied facility encompasses only those common areas that are routinely used by children under age six, such as restrooms and cafeterias. Common areas that children under age six only pass through, such as hallways, stairways, and garages are not common areas.

(15) "Component or building component" means specific design or structural elements or fixtures of a building or residential dwelling that are distinguished from each other by form, function, and location. These include, but are not limited to: interior components such as ceilings, crown molding, walls, chair rails, doors, door trim, floors, fireplaces, radiators and other heating units, shelves, shelf supports, stair treads, stair risers, stair stringers, newel posts, railing caps, balustrades, windows and trim (including sashes, window heads, jambs, sills or stools and troughs), built-in cabinets, columns, beams, bathroom vanities, counter tops, and air conditioners; and exterior components such as painted roofing, chimneys, flashing, gutters and downspouts, ceilings, soffits, fascias, rake boards, corner boards, bulkheads, doors and door trim, fences, floors, joists, lattice work, railings and railing caps, siding, handrails, stair risers and treads, stair stringers, columns, balustrades, windowsills or stools and troughs, casings, sashes and wells, and air conditioners.

(16) "Concentration" means the relative content of a specific substance contained within a larger mass, such as the amount of lead (in micrograms per gram or parts per million by weight) in a sample of dust or soil.

(17) "Containment" means a process or arrangement of materials to protect workers, occupants, the public, and the environment by controlling exposure to the lead-contaminated dust and debris created during renovation activities.

(18) "Course completion certificate" means documentation issued by an accredited training program to an individual as proof of successful completion of a Authority-accredited renovator or dust sampling technician training course or refresher training course.

(19) "Course completion date" means the final date of classroom instruction and/or student examination of an accredited renovator or dust sampling technician training course.

(20) "Critical barrier" means a containment structure that allows for the passage of persons or materials while maintaining containment.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(21) "Demonstration testing" means the observation and scoring of a student's job task and equipment use skills taught during a course or refresher training course.

(22) "Desk audit" means an audit of the training program to document proper records keeping, filing procedures and notifications required by the Authority.

(23) "Deteriorated paint" means any interior or exterior paint or other coating that is peeling, chipping, chalking, cracking, flaking, or any paint or coating located on an interior or exterior surface or fixture that is otherwise damaged or separated from the substrate.

(24) "Distinct painting history" means the application history, as indicated by the visual appearance or a record of application, over time, of paint or other surface coatings to a component or room.

(25) "Documented methodologies" are written methods or protocols used to sample for the presence of lead in paint, dust, and soil as recommended in U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development "Guidelines for the Evaluation and Control of Lead-Based Paint Hazards in Housing" and "EPA's Residential Sampling for Lead: Protocols for Dust and Soil Sampling".

(26) "Dripline" means the area within three feet surrounding the perimeter of a building.

(27) "Dry disposable cleaning cloth" means a commercially available dry, electro-statically charged, white disposable cloth designed to be used for cleaning hard surfaces such as uncarpeted floors or counter tops.

(28) "Dust-lead hazard" means surface dust in a residential dwelling or child-occupied facility that contains a mass-per-area concentration of lead equal to or exceeding 40 µg/ft<sup>2</sup> on floors, 250 µg/ft<sup>2</sup> on interior window sills, and 400 µg/ft<sup>2</sup> in window troughs based on wipe samples.

(29) "Emergency" means a situation in which failure to act promptly would likely result in immediate harm to persons or property.

(30) "Emergency renovation operations" means renovation activities, such as operations necessitated by non-routine failures of equipment, that were not planned but result from a sudden, unexpected event that, if not immediately attended to, presents a safety or public health hazard, or threatens equipment or property with significant damage. Interim controls performed in response to an elevated blood lead level in a resident child are also emergency renovations.

(31) "EPA" means the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

(32) "EPA-authorized program" means a state or tribal program authorized by EPA to administer and enforce the provisions of 40 CFR § 745.324 and 40 CFR § 745.326.

(33) "Friction surface" means an interior or exterior surface that is subject to abrasion or friction, including, but not limited to, certain window, floor, and stair surfaces.

(34) "Guest instructor" means an individual who is responsible for providing less than 30 percent of training in any course.

(35) "Hands-on training" means training during which students practice skills that they will be expected to perform at the worksite.

(36) "HEPA vacuum" means a vacuum cleaner which has been designed with a high-efficiency particulate air (HEPA) filter as the last filtration stage. A HEPA filter is a filter that is capable of capturing particles of 0.3 microns with 99.97 percent efficiency. The vacuum cleaner must be designed so that all the air drawn into the machine is expelled through the HEPA filter with none of the air leaking past it.

(37) "Impact surface" means an interior or exterior surface that is subject to damage by repeated sudden force such as certain parts of door frames.

(38) "Inspection" means a surface-by-surface investigation to determine the presence of lead-based paint and the provision of a report, in writing, explaining the results of the investigation.

(39) "Interim controls" means a set of measures designed to temporarily reduce human exposure or likely exposure to lead-based paint hazards, including specialized cleaning, repairs, maintenance, painting, temporary containment, ongoing monitoring of lead-based paint hazards or potential hazards, and the establishment and operation of management and resident education programs.

(40) "Interactive/participatory teaching methods" mean instruction which consists of active participation of the students, such as brainstorming, hands-on training, demonstration and practice, small group problem-solving, learning games, discussions, risk mapping, field visits, walk-throughs, problem-posing, group work assignments, homework review sessions, question-and-answer periods, skits, or role-playing sessions. Lecture is not considered an interactive/participatory teaching method.

(41) "Job tasks" mean the specific activities performed in the context of work.

(42) "Lead-based paint" means paint or other surface coatings that contain lead equal to or in excess of 1.0 milligram per square centimeter or 0.5 percent by weight.

(43) "Lead-based paint hazard" means deteriorated lead-based paint, dust-lead hazard or soil-lead hazard as identified in these rules.

(44) "Lead-contaminated dust" means surface dust in residential dwellings or child-occupied facilities that contains an area or mass concentration of lead in excess of levels determined by the appropriate federal agency to pose a threat of adverse health effects in pregnant women or young children.

(45) "Minor repair and maintenance activities" means activities, including minor heating, ventilation or air conditioning work, electrical work, and plumbing, that disrupts six square feet or less of painted surface per room for interior activities, or 20 square feet or less of painted surface for exterior activities where none of the work practices prohibited or restricted by OAR 333-070-0090 are used and where the work does not involve window replacement or demolition of painted surface areas. When removing painted components, or portions of painted components, the entire surface area removed is the amount of painted surface disturbed. Jobs, other than emergency renovations, performed in the same room within the same 30 days are the same job for the purpose of determining whether the job is a minor repair and maintenance activity.

(46) "Multi-family housing" means a housing property consisting of more than four dwelling units.

(47) "Paint in poor condition" means more than 10 square feet of deteriorated paint on exterior components with large surface areas; or more than two square feet of deteriorated paint on interior components with large surface areas (e.g., walls, ceilings, floors, doors); or more than 10 percent of the total surface area of the component is deteriorated on interior or exterior components with small surface areas (e.g., window sills, baseboards, soffits, trim).

(48) "Paint-lead hazard" means any of the following:

(a) Any lead-based paint on a friction surface that is subject to abrasion and where the lead dust levels on the nearest horizontal surface underneath the friction surface (e.g., the window sill, or floor) are equal to or greater than the dust-lead hazard levels identified in these rules.

(b) Any damaged or otherwise deteriorated lead-based paint on an impact surface that is caused by impact from a related building component (such as a door knob that knocks into a wall or a door that knocks against its door frame).

(c) Any chewable lead-based painted surface on which there is evidence of teeth marks. (d) Any other deteriorated lead-based paint in any residential building or child-occupied facility or on the exterior of any residential building or child-occupied facility.

(49) "Paint stabilization" means repairing any physical defect in the substrate of a painted surface that is causing paint deterioration, removing loose paint and other material from the surface to be treated, and applying a new protective coating or paint.

(50) "Pamphlet" means the EPA pamphlet titled Renovate Right: Important Lead Hazard Information for Families, Child Care Providers and Schools or any state pamphlet approved by EPA pursuant to 40 CFR 745.326 that is developed for the same purpose. This includes reproductions of the pamphlet when copied in full and without revision or deletion of material from the pamphlet (except for the addition or revision of state or local sources of information).

(51) "Permanent" means having an expected design life of 20 years.

(52) "Principal instructor" means the individual who has the primary responsibility for organizing and teaching a particular course.

(53) "Proficiency test" means any alternative to a conventional written examination that is used to measure a trainee's mastery of course content. An oral examination offered to a trainee with a disability is an example of a proficiency test.

(54) "Provisional accreditation" means the Authority has reviewed and finds acceptable a training program's written application for accreditation, but has not conducted an on-site audit as specified in these rules.

(55) "Public agency" means an entity that functions as part of a governmental body or organization at the local, state, or federal level.

(56) "Recognized test kit" means a commercially available kit recognized by EPA under 40 CFR 745.88 as being capable of allowing a user to determine the presence of lead at levels equal to or in excess of 1.0 milligrams per square centimeter, or more than 0.5 percent lead by weight, in a paint chip, paint powder, or painted surface.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(57) “Refresher renovator of dust sampling technician training course” means a minimum training program accredited by the Authority to update an individual’s knowledge and skills so that they can effectively and safely continue to practice in the field.

(58) “Renovation” means the modification of any existing structure, or portion thereof, that results in the disturbance of painted surfaces, unless that activity is performed as part of an abatement as defined by these rules. The term renovation includes, but is not limited to, the removal or modification of painted surfaces or painted components (e.g., modification of painted doors, surface preparation activity such as sanding, scraping, or other such activities that may generate paint dust); the removal of large structures (e.g., walls, ceiling, large surface re-plastering, major re-plumbing); and window replacement, weatherization projects (e.g., cutting holes in painted surfaces to install blown-in insulation or to gain access to attics, planning thresholds to install weather-stripping), and interim controls that disturb painted surfaces. A renovation performed for the purpose of converting a building, or part of a building, into target housing or a child-occupied facility is a renovation under this subpart. The term renovation does not include minor repair and maintenance activities.

(59) “Residential building” means a building containing one or more residential dwellings.

(60) “Residential dwelling” means:

(a) A detached single family dwelling unit, including attached structures such as porches and stoops; or

(b) A single family dwelling unit in a structure that contains more than one separate residential dwelling unit, which is used or occupied, or intended to be occupied, in whole or in part, as the home or residence of one or more persons.

(61) “Room” means a separate part of the inside of a building, such as a bedroom, living room, dining room, kitchen, bathroom, laundry room, or utility room. To be considered a separate room, the room must be separated from adjoining rooms by built-in walls or archways that extend at least six inches from an intersecting wall. Half walls or bookcases count as room separators if built-in. Movable or collapsible partitions or partitions consisting solely of shelves or cabinets are not considered built-in walls. A screened in porch that is used as a living area is a room.

(62) “RRP” means the U.S. EPA Renovation Repair and Painting Rule under 40 CFR § 745 Subpart E-Residential Property Renovation.

(63) “Site Visit” means a visit by the Authority to audit a training program and includes but is not limited to a review of: records, including course completion forms and attendance records; facilities; instructional curriculum; examination design, administration and security procedures and results, including those of demonstration testing; classroom instruction; audio-visual materials; course content; and coverage.

(64) “Soil lead hazard” means bare soil on residential property or on the property of a child-occupied facility that contains total lead equal to or exceeding 400 ppm in a play area or 1,200 ppm in the remainder of the yard based on soil samples.

(65) “Target housing” means any housing constructed prior to 1978, except housing for the elderly or persons with disabilities (unless one or more children under age six resides or is expected to reside in such housing for the elderly or persons with disabilities) or any zero-bedroom dwelling.

(66) “These rules” mean OAR 333-070-0075 through 333-070-0160.

(67) “Training hour” means 60 minutes of lead-based paint related training which may include a break of not more than 10 minutes.

(68) “Training instructor” means the individual responsible for organization of the course and oversight of the teaching of all course material, and who teaches at least 70 percent of the course.

(69) “Training manager” means the individual responsible for administering a training program and monitoring the performance of principal instructors and guest instructors.

(70) “Visual inspection” means:

(a) For interiors, that a certified renovator determines whether dust, debris, or residue is still present.

(b) For exteriors, that a certified renovator determines whether dust or debris is still present in and below the work area, including windowsills and the ground.

(71) “Wet disposable cleaning cloth” means a commercially available, pre-moistened white disposable cloth designed to be used for cleaning hard surfaces such as uncarpeted floors or counter tops.

(72) “Wet mopping system” means a device with the following characteristics: A long handle, a mop head designed to be used with disposable absorbent cleaning pads, a reservoir for cleaning solution, and a built-in mechanism for distributing or spraying the cleaning solution onto a floor, or a method of equivalent efficacy.

(73) “Work area” means the area that the certified renovator establishes to contain the dust and debris generated by a renovation.

333-070-0090

Work Practice Standards

All renovations must be performed in accordance with the work practice standards in this rule unless the renovation qualifies for one of the exceptions identified in OAR 333-070-0075(3)(a).

(1) Standards for renovation activities.

(a) Renovations must be performed by certified renovation firms using certified renovators as directed in OAR 333-070-0100.

(b) The responsibilities of certified renovation firms are set forth in OAR 333-070-0105.

(c) The responsibilities of certified renovators are set forth in OAR 333-070-0100.

(2) Occupant protection.

(a) A certified renovation firm shall:

(A) Post signs clearly defining the work area and warning occupants and other persons not involved in renovation activities to remain outside of the work area. To the extent practicable, these signs must be in the primary language of the occupants.

(B) Post signs before beginning the renovation and keep them in place and readable until the renovation and the post-renovation cleaning verification has been completed.

(C) Post signs at each entry to the renovation project work area, at a minimum.

(b) If warning signs have been posted in accordance with paragraph (2)(a)(A) of this rule, additional signs are not required.

(3) Containing the work area. A certified renovation firm shall:

(a) Isolate the work area so that no dust or debris leaves the work area while the renovation is being performed, before beginning the renovation;

(b) Maintain the integrity of the containment by ensuring that any plastic or other impermeable materials are not torn or displaced, and taking any other steps necessary to ensure that no dust or debris leaves the work area while the renovation is being performed; and

(c) Ensure that containment is installed in such a manner that it does not interfere with occupant and worker egress in an emergency.

(4) Interior renovations. A certified renovation firm shall:

(a) Remove all objects from the work area, including furniture, rugs, and window coverings, or cover them with plastic sheeting or other impermeable material with all seams and edges taped or otherwise sealed;

(b) Close and cover all ducts opening in the work area with taped-down plastic sheeting or other impermeable material;

(c) Close windows and doors in the work area;

(d) Cover doors with plastic sheeting or other impermeable material. Doors used as an entrance to the work area must be covered with plastic sheeting or other impermeable material in a manner that allows workers to pass through while confining dust and debris to the work area;

(e) Cover the floor surface, including installed carpet, with taped-down plastic sheeting or other impermeable material in the work area six feet beyond the perimeter of surfaces undergoing renovation or a sufficient distance to contain the dust, whichever is greater; and

(f) Use precautions to ensure that all personnel, tools, and other items, including the exteriors of containers of waste, are free of dust and debris before leaving the work area.

(5) Exterior renovations. A certified renovation firm shall:

(a) Close all doors and windows within 20 feet of the renovation. On multi-story buildings, close all doors and windows within 20 feet of the renovation on the same floor as the renovation, and close all doors and windows on all floors below that are the same horizontal distance from the renovation;

(b) Ensure that doors within the work area that will be used while the job is being performed are covered with plastic sheeting or other impermeable material in a manner that allows workers to pass through while confining dust and debris to the work area;

(c) Cover the ground with plastic sheeting or other disposable impermeable material extending 10 feet beyond the perimeter of surfaces undergoing renovation or a sufficient distance to collect falling paint debris, whichever is greater, unless the property line prevents 10 feet of such ground covering; and

(d) In adverse weather conditions (e.g. windy conditions), the certified renovation firm must take extra precautions in containing the work area to ensure that dust and debris from the renovation does not contaminate other buildings or other areas of the property or migrate to adjacent properties.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(6) Prohibited and restricted practices. The work practices listed below are prohibited during a renovation:

(a) Open-flame burning or torching of lead-based paint;

(b) The use of machines that remove lead-based paint through high speed operation such as sanding, grinding, power planing, needle gun, abrasive blasting, or sandblasting, unless such machines are used with HEPA exhaust control; and

(c) Operating a heat gun on lead-based paint is prohibited unless the temperature is below 1100 degrees Fahrenheit.

(7) Waste from renovations. A certified renovation firm shall:

(a) Contain waste from a renovation to prevent releases of dust and debris before the waste is removed from the work area for storage or disposal. If a chute is used to remove waste from the work area, it must be covered;

(b) Store and contain waste that has been collected from renovation activities in an enclosure, or behind a barrier that prevents release of dust and debris out of the work area and prevents access to dust and debris, at the conclusion of each work day and at the conclusion of the renovation; and

(c) Contain the waste to prevent release of dust and debris when transporting waste from renovation activities.

(8) Cleaning the work area. After a renovation has been completed, the certified renovation firm shall clean the work area until no dust, debris or residue remains.

(9) Interior and exterior renovations. A certified renovation firm shall:

(a) Collect all paint chips and debris and, without dispersing any of it, seal this material in a heavy-duty bag;

(b) Remove the protective sheeting;

(c) Mist the sheeting before folding it, fold the dirty side inward, and either tape shut to seal or seal in heavy-duty bags. Sheeting used to isolate contaminated rooms from non-contaminated rooms must remain in place until after the cleaning and removal of other sheeting; and

(d) Dispose of sheeting as waste.

(10) Additional cleaning for interior renovations. A certified renovation firm shall clean all objects and surfaces in the work area and within two feet of the work area in the following manner, cleaning from higher to lower:

(a) Walls. Clean walls starting at the ceiling and working down to the floor by either vacuuming with a HEPA vacuum or wiping with a damp cloth. Dust bags from HEPA machines must be properly contained and disposed. Changing of vacuum bag must occur in containment and wrapped and taped in plastic for disposal.

(b) Remaining surfaces. Thoroughly vacuum all remaining surfaces and objects in the work area, including furniture and fixtures, with a HEPA vacuum. The HEPA vacuum must be equipped with a beater bar when vacuuming carpets and rugs.

(c) Wipe all remaining surfaces and objects in the work area, except for carpeted or upholstered surfaces, with a damp cloth. Mop uncarpeted floors thoroughly, using a mopping method that keeps the wash water separate from the rinse water, such as the two-bucket mopping method, or using a wet mopping system.

(11) Standards for post-renovation cleaning verification of interiors. A certified renovation firm shall have a certified renovator:

(a) Perform a visual inspection to determine whether dust, debris or residue is still present. If dust, debris or residue is present, these conditions must be removed by re-cleaning and another visual inspection must be performed.

(b) After a successful visual inspection:

(A) Verify that each windowsill in the work area has been adequately cleaned, using the following procedure:

(i) Wipe the windowsill with a wet disposable cleaning cloth that is damp to the touch. If the cloth matches or is lighter than the cleaning verification card, the windowsill has been adequately cleaned.

(ii) If the cloth does not match and is darker than the cleaning verification card, re-clean the windowsill as directed in subparagraph (A)(i) of this subsection, then either use a new cloth or fold the used cloth in such a way that an unused surface is exposed, and wipe the surface again. If the cloth matches or is lighter than the cleaning verification card, that windowsill has been adequately cleaned.

(iii) If the cloth does not match and is darker than the cleaning verification card, wait for one hour or until the surface has dried completely, whichever is longer, and wipe the windowsill with a dry disposable cleaning cloth. After this wipe, the windowsill has been adequately cleaned.

(B) Wipe uncarpeted floors and countertops within the work area with a wet disposable cleaning cloth. Floors must be wiped using an application device with a long handle and a head to which the cloth is attached. The cloth must remain damp at all times while it is being used to wipe the surface for post-renovation cleaning verification. If the surface within the work area is greater than 40 square feet, the surface within the work area must be divided into roughly equal sections that are each less than 40 square feet. Wipe each such section separately with a new wet disposable cleaning cloth. If the cloth used to wipe each section of the surface within the work area matches the cleaning verification card, the surface has been adequately cleaned.

(i) If the cloth used to wipe a particular surface section does not match the cleaning verification card, re-clean that section of the surface as directed in paragraph (b)(B) of this section, then use a new wet disposable cleaning cloth to wipe that section again. If the cloth matches the cleaning verification card, that section of the surface has been adequately cleaned.

(ii) If the cloth used to wipe a particular surface section does not match the cleaning verification card after the surface has been re-cleaned, wait for one hour or until the entire surface within the work area has dried completely, whichever is longer.

(iii) After waiting for the entire surface within the work area to dry, wipe each section of the surface that has not yet achieved post-renovation cleaning verification with a dry disposable cleaning cloth. After this wipe, that section of the surface has been adequately cleaned.

(c) Remove the warning signs when the work area passes the post-renovation cleaning verification.

(12) Standards for post-renovation cleaning verification of exteriors. A certified renovation firm shall have a certified renovator:

(a) Perform a visual inspection to determine whether dust, debris or residue is still present on surfaces in and below the work area, including windowsills and the ground. If dust, debris or residue is present, these conditions must be eliminated and another visual inspection must be performed.

(b) Remove the warning signs when the area passes the visual inspection.

(13) Optional dust clearance testing. Cleaning verification need not be performed if the contract between the certified renovation firm and the person contracting for the renovation or another federal, state or local law or regulation requires:

(a) The certified renovation firm to perform dust clearance sampling at the conclusion of a renovation covered by this rule.

(b) The dust clearance samples are required to be collected by a certified inspector, risk assessor or dust sampling technician.

(c) The certified renovation firm is required to re-clean the work area until the dust clearance sample results are below the dust clearance standards in OAR 333-070-0085.

(14) Activities conducted after post-renovation cleaning verification. Activities that do not disturb paint, such as applying paint to walls that have already been prepared, are not regulated by this rule if they are conducted after post-renovation cleaning verification has been performed.

333-070-0095

Information Distribution Requirements for the Pre-Renovation Notification Rule (406).

(1) Renovations in dwelling units. No more than 60 days before beginning renovation activities in any residential dwelling unit of target housing, a certified renovation firm performing the renovation shall:

(a) Provide the owner of the unit with the pamphlet; and:

(A) Obtain, from the owner, a written acknowledgment that the owner has received the pamphlet; or

(B) Obtain a certificate of mailing at least seven days prior to the renovation.

(b) If the owner does not occupy the dwelling unit, in addition to the requirements in subsection (a) of this section, a certified renovation firm shall provide an adult occupant of the unit with the pamphlet; and:

(A) Obtain, from the adult occupant, a written acknowledgment that the occupant has received the pamphlet; or

(B) Certify in writing that a pamphlet has been delivered to the dwelling and that the certified renovation firm performing the renovation has been unsuccessful in obtaining a written acknowledgment from an adult occupant. A certification must include:

(i) The address of the unit undergoing renovation;

(ii) The date and method of delivery of the pamphlet;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

- (iii) The name of the individual delivering the pamphlet;
- (iv) The reason for lack of acknowledgment (e.g., occupant refuses to sign, no adult occupant available);
- (v) The signature of a representative of the certified renovation firm performing the renovation; and
- (vi) The date of signature.

(C) If receipt can not be obtained from the adult occupant, obtain a certificate of mailing at least seven days prior to the renovation.

(2) Renovations in common areas. No more than 60 days before beginning renovation activities in common areas of multi-unit target housing, the certified renovation firm performing the renovation shall:

- (a) Provide the owner with the pamphlet, and:

(A) Obtain, from the owner, a written acknowledgment that the owner has received the pamphlet; or

(B) Obtain a certificate of mailing at least seven days prior to the renovation.

- (b) Comply with one of the following:

(A) Notify the affected units in writing of the proposed renovation and make the pamphlet available upon request prior to the start of renovation. Such notification shall be accomplished by distributing written notification to each affected unit. The notice shall:

(i) Describe the general nature and locations of the planned renovation activities;

- (ii) Include the expected starting and ending dates; and

(iii) Contain a statement of how the occupant can obtain the pamphlet and a copy of the records required by OAR 333-070-0110, at no cost to the occupants; or

(B) While the renovation is ongoing, post informational signs describing the general nature and locations of the renovation and the anticipated completion date. These signs must be posted in areas where they are likely to be seen by the occupants of all of the affected units. The signs must be accompanied by a posted copy of the pamphlet or information on how interested occupants can review a copy of the pamphlet or obtain a copy from the certified renovation firm at no cost to occupants. The signs must also include information on how interested occupants can review a copy of the records required by OAR 333-070-0110 or obtain a copy from the renovation firm at no cost to the occupants.

(c) Prepare, sign, and date a statement describing the steps performed to notify all occupants of the intended renovation activities and to provide the pamphlet.

(d) If the scope, locations, or expected starting and ending dates of the planned renovation activities change after the initial notification, and the certified renovation firm provided written initial notification to each affected unit, the certified renovation firm performing the renovation must provide further written notification to the owners and occupants providing revised information on the ongoing or planned activities. This subsequent notification must be provided before the certified renovation firm performing the renovation initiates work beyond that which was described in the original notice.

(3) Renovations in child-occupied facilities. No more than 60 days before beginning renovation activities in any child-occupied facility, the certified renovation firm performing the renovation shall:

- (a) Provide the owner of the building with the pamphlet, and:

(A) Obtain, from the owner, a written acknowledgment that the owner has received the pamphlet; or

(B) Obtain a certificate of mailing at least seven days prior to the renovation.

(b) In addition to the requirements in subsection (a) of this section, if the operator of the child-occupied facility is not the owner of the building, provide the operator of the child-occupied facility with the pamphlet, and:

(A) Obtain, from the operator, a written acknowledgment the operator has received the pamphlet;

(B) Certify in writing that a pamphlet has been delivered to the operator and that the certified renovation firm performing the renovation has been unsuccessful in obtaining a written acknowledgment from the operator. Such certification shall comply with the requirements in paragraph (1)(b)(B) of this rule; or

(C) Obtain a certificate of mailing at least seven days prior to the renovation.

(c) Provide the parents and guardians of children using the child-occupied facility with the pamphlet and information describing the general nature and locations of the renovation and the anticipated completion date by:

(A) Mailing or hand-delivering the pamphlet and the renovation information to each parent or guardian of a child using the child-occupied facility; or

(B) While the renovation is ongoing, post informational signs describing the general nature and locations of the renovation and the anticipated completion date. These signs must be posted in areas where they can be seen by the parents or guardians of the children frequenting the child-occupied facility. The signs must be accompanied by a posted copy of the pamphlet or information on how interested parents or guardians of children frequenting the child-occupied facility can review a copy of the pamphlet or obtain a copy from the renovation firm at no cost to the parents or guardians. The signs must also include information on how interested parents or guardians of children frequenting the child-occupied facility can review a copy of the records required by OAR 333-070-0110 or obtain a copy from the renovation firm at no cost to the parents or guardians; and

(C) Prepare, sign, and date a statement describing the steps performed to notify all parents and guardians of the intended renovation activities and to provide the pamphlet.

(4) Written acknowledgment. A written acknowledgment required by paragraphs (1)(a)(A), (1)(b)(A), (2)(a)(A), (4)(a)(A) and (4)(b)(A) of this rule must:

(a) Include the owner or occupant's name and a statement from the owner or occupant acknowledging receipt of the pamphlet prior to the start of renovation, the address of the unit undergoing renovation, the signature of the owner or occupant as applicable, and the date of signature;

(b) Be on a separate sheet of paper or part of any written contract or service agreement for the renovation; and

(c) Be written in the same language as the text of the contract or agreement for the renovation or, in the case of non-owner occupied target housing, in the same language as the lease or rental agreement or the pamphlet.

Renovator Certification and Dust Sampling Technician Certification and Responsibilities

(1) Renovator certification allows a certified individual to perform renovations covered by these rules.

(2) Dust sampling technician certification allows the individual to perform dust clearance sampling under OAR 333-070-0090. Optional dust sampling, procedures and determinations are contained in OAR 333-069-0070, paragraph (5)(j)(D); and sections (6) and (11).

(3) Renovator certification and dust sampling technician certification.

(a) To become a certified renovator or certified dust sampling technician, an individual must successfully complete the appropriate course accredited by the Authority, EPA, or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program. The course completion certificate serves as proof of certification.

(b) Individuals who have successfully completed an accredited abatement worker or supervisor course, or individuals who have successfully completed an EPA, HUD, or EPA/HUD model renovation training course may take an accredited refresher renovator training course in lieu of the initial renovator training course to become a certified renovator.

(c) To become a certified dust sampling technician, a certified inspector or risk assessor need only to take the dust sampling technician refresher course.

(d) To maintain renovator certification or dust sampling technician certification, an individual must complete a renovator or dust sampling technician refresher course accredited by the Authority, EPA or an EPA-authorized program within five years of the date the individual completed the initial course described in OAR 333-0070-0100. If the individual does not complete a refresher course within this time, the individual must re-take the initial course to become certified again.

(4) Renovator responsibilities. Certified renovators are responsible for ensuring compliance with OAR 333-070-0090 at all renovations to which they are assigned. A certified renovator shall:

(a) Perform all of the tasks described in OAR 333-070-0090 and either perform or direct workers to perform, all of the tasks described in OAR 333-070-0090.

(b) Provide training to workers on the work practices they will be using in performing their assigned tasks.

(c) Be physically present at the work site:

(A) At the time the signs required by OAR 333-070-0090(2) are posted;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(B) While the work area containment required by OAR 333-070-0090(3) is being established; and

(C) While the work area cleaning required by OAR 333-070-0090(8) is performed.

(d) Regularly direct work being performed by other individuals to ensure that the work practices are being followed, including maintaining the integrity of the containment barriers and ensuring that dust or debris does not spread beyond the work area.

(e) Be available, either on-site or by telephone, at all times that renovations are being conducted.

(f) Use an EPA recognized test kit when requested by the party contracting for renovation services to determine whether components to be affected by the renovation contain lead-based paint. If the components make up an integrated whole, such as the individual stair treads and risers of a single staircase, the renovator is required to test only one of the individual components, unless the individual components appear to have been repainted or refinished separately.

(g) Have, at the work site, copies of their initial course completion certificate and their most recent refresher course completion certificate.

(h) Prepare the records required by OAR 333-070-0110.

(5) Dust sampling technician responsibilities. When performing optional dust clearance sampling as referenced in OAR 333-069-0070, paragraph (5)(j)(D); and sections (6) and (11) a certified dust sampling technician shall:

(a) Collect dust samples in accordance with 40 CFR § 745.227(e)(8), send the collected samples to a laboratory recognized by the EPA under § 405(b) of the Toxic Substances Control Act, National Lead Laboratory Accreditation Program, and compare the results to the clearance levels in accordance with 40 CFR § 745.227(e)(8)(C)(vii); and

(b) Have, at the work site, copies of their initial course completion certificate and their most recent refresher course completion certificate.

Certified Renovation Firm Certification and Responsibilities

(1) Initial certification.

(a) Firms that perform renovations for compensation shall:

(A) Apply to the Authority for certification to perform renovations or dust sampling by submitting a completed "Application for Certified Renovation Firms," signed by an authorized agent of the firm; and

(B) Pay the correct amount of fees.

(b) An application will be considered complete if it contains all of the information requested on the form and includes the correct amount of fees.

(c) If the Authority receives an incomplete application, it will request that the applicant submit the missing information or fee within 30 days. If an applicant fails to submit the requested information or the fee, the application will be returned to the applicant. An applicant who has had its application returned may reapply at any time.

(d) Within 30 days of declaring an application complete, the Authority shall:

(A) Approve the application if the Authority determines that the environmental compliance history of the applicant, its principals, or its key employees shows a willingness and ability to maintain compliance with environmental statutes or regulations; or

(B) Deny the application if the Authority determines that the environmental compliance history of the applicant, its principals, or its key employees demonstrates an unwillingness or inability to maintain compliance with environmental statutes or regulations.

(e) If the Authority approves the application, the Authority shall issue the applicant a certificate with an expiration date not more than five years from the date the application is approved.

(f) If the Authority denies the application it shall send the applicant a letter giving the reason for denying the application.

(2) Recertification.

(a) To maintain its certification, a certified renovation firm shall apply for recertification every five years, by submitting a timely and complete "Application for Certified Renovation Firms" with the required fee to the Authority.

(A) An application for recertification is timely if it is postmarked 60 days or more before the date the certified renovation firm's current certification expires. If the certified renovation firm's application is complete and timely, the certified renovation firm's current certification will remain in effect until its expiration date or until the Authority has made a final decision to approve or deny the recertification application, whichever is later.

(B) If the certified renovation firm submits a complete recertification application less than 60 days before its current certification expires, and the Authority does not approve the application before the expiration date, the certified renovation firm's current certification will expire and the certified renovation firm will not be able to conduct renovations until the Authority approves its recertification application.

(C) If the certified renovation firm fails to obtain recertification before the certified renovation firm's current certification expires, the certified renovation firm may not perform renovations or dust sampling and must apply for initial certification under section (1) of this rule.

(b) A recertification application will be considered complete if it contains all of the information requested on the form and includes the correct amount of fees.

(c) If the Authority receives an incomplete application, it will request a certified renovation firm to submit the missing information or fee within 30 days. If an applicant fails to submit the requested information or the fee, the application will be returned to the applicant.

(d) Within 60 days of declaring an application for recertification complete, the Authority shall:

(A) Approve a certified renovation firm's recertification application if the Authority determines that the environmental compliance history of the certified renovation firm, its principals, or its key employees shows a willingness and ability to maintain compliance with environmental statutes or regulations; or

(B) Deny a certified renovation firm's recertification application if the Authority determines that the environmental compliance history of the certified renovation firm, its principals, or its key employees demonstrates an unwillingness or inability to maintain compliance with environmental statutes or regulations.

(e) If the Authority approves a certified renovation firm's recertification application, the Authority shall issue the certified renovation firm a certificate with an expiration date not more than five years from the date the application is approved.

(f) If the Authority denies the recertification application it shall send the certified renovation firm a letter giving the reason for denying the application.

(3) Amendment of certification.

(a) A certified renovation firm shall amend its application for certification within 30 days of the date a change occurs to information included in the certified renovation firm's most recent application.

(b) If the certified renovation firm fails to amend its certification within 30 days of the date the change occurs, the certified renovation firm may not perform renovations or dust sampling until its certification is amended.

(c) To amend a certification, a certified renovation firm must submit a completed "Application for Certified Renovation Firms," signed by an authorized agent of the certified renovation firm, noting on the form that it is submitted as an amendment and indicating the information that has changed.

(d) If additional information is needed to process the amendment, the Authority will request the certified renovation firm to submit the necessary information. The certified renovation firm's certification is not amended until the certified renovation firm submits all the required information and the Authority has approved the amendment.

(e) Amending a certification does not affect the certification expiration date.

(4) The Authority will not refund the application fees if a certified renovation firm's application for initial or recertification is denied.

(5) A certified renovation firm that is denied initial certification or recertification shall have the right to a contested case hearing under ORS chapter 183.

(6) A certified renovation firm that is denied initial or recertification may reapply for certification at any time by filing a new, complete application that includes the correct amount of fees.

(7) Certified renovation firm responsibilities. Certified renovation firms performing renovations shall ensure that:

(a) All individuals performing renovation activities on behalf of the certified renovation firm are either certified renovators or have been trained by a certified renovator as described in OAR 333-070-0100;

(b) A certified renovator is assigned to each renovation performed by the certified renovation firm and discharges all of the certified renovator responsibilities identified in OAR 333-070-0100;

(c) All renovations performed by the certified renovation firm are performed in accordance with the work practice standards as described in OAR 333-070-0090;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(d) The pre-renovation education requirements of OAR 333-070-0095 have been performed;

(e) The recordkeeping requirements of OAR 333-070-0110 are met; and

(f) The certified renovator is in compliance with the responsibilities as identified in OAR 333-070-0100 and 333-070-0090.

333-070-0110

Certified Renovation Firm Recordkeeping and Reporting Requirements

(1) A certified renovation firm performing renovations must retain and, if requested, make available to the Authority all records required by these rules necessary to demonstrate compliance with these rules for a period of three years following completion of the renovation.

The three-year retention requirement does not supersede longer obligations required by other provisions for retaining the same documentation.

(2) Records that must be retained pursuant to this rule shall include (where applicable):

(a) Records or reports certifying that a determination had been made by an inspector or risk assessor that lead-based paint is not present on the components affected by the renovation. These records or reports include:

(A) Reports prepared by a certified inspector or certified risk assessor (certified by the Authority, EPA, or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program);

(B) Records prepared by a certified renovator after using EPA-recognized test kits, including an identification of the manufacturer and model of any test kits used, a description of the components that were tested including their locations, and the result of each test kit used.

(b) Signed and dated acknowledgments of receipts;

(c) Certifications of attempted delivery as described;

(d) Certificates of mailing;

(e) Records of notification activities performed regarding common area renovations and renovations in child-occupied facilities;

(f) Documentation of compliance with OAR chapter 333, division 70, including documentation that a certified renovator was assigned to the project, that the certified renovator provided on-the-job training for workers used on the project, that the certified renovator performed or directed workers who performed all of the tasks as described in this rule and that the certified renovator performed the post-renovation cleaning verification. If the certified renovation firm was unable to comply with all of the requirements of this rule due to an emergency, the certified renovation firm must document the nature of the emergency and the provisions of the rule that were not followed. This documentation must include a copy of the certified renovator's training certificate, and a certification by the certified renovator assigned to the project that:

(A) Training was provided to workers (topics must be identified for each worker);

(B) Warning signs were posted at the entrances to the work area;

(C) If test kits were used, that the specified brand of kits was used at the specified locations and that the results were as specified;

(D) The work area was contained by:

(i) Removing or covering all objects in the work area (interiors);

(ii) Closing and covering all HVAC ducts in the work area (interiors);

(iii) Closing all windows in the work area (interiors) or closing all windows in and within 20 feet of the work area (exteriors);

(iv) Closing and sealing all doors in the work area (interiors) or closing and sealing all doors in and within 20 feet of the work area (exteriors);

(v) Covering doors in the work area that were being used to allow passage but prevent spread of dust;

(vi) Covering the floor surface, including installed carpet, with taped-down plastic sheeting or other impermeable material in the work area six feet beyond the perimeter of surfaces undergoing renovation or a sufficient distance to contain the dust, whichever is greater (interiors) or covering the ground with plastic sheeting or other disposable impermeable material anchored to the building extending 10 feet beyond the perimeter of surfaces undergoing renovation or a sufficient distance to collect falling paint debris, whichever is greater, unless the property line prevents 10 feet of such ground covering, weighted down by heavy objects (exteriors);

(vii) Installing (if necessary) vertical containment to prevent migration of dust and debris to adjacent property (exteriors);

(viii) Waste was contained on-site and while being transported off-site.

(E) The work area was properly cleaned after the renovation by:

(i) Picking up all chips and debris, misting protective sheeting, folding it dirty side inward, and taping it for removal;

(ii) Cleaning the work area surfaces and objects using a HEPA vacuum and/or wet cloths or mops (interiors);

(iii) The certified renovator performed the post-renovation cleaning verification (the results of which must be briefly described, including the number of wet and dry cloths used).

(3) When the final invoice for the renovation is delivered or within 30 days of the completion of the renovation, whichever is earlier, the renovation firm must provide information pertaining to compliance with this subpart to the following persons:

(a) The owner of the building; and

(b) An adult occupant of the residential dwelling, if the renovation took place within a residential dwelling, or an adult representative of the child-occupied facility, if the renovation took place within a child-occupied facility.

(4) When performing renovations in common areas of multi-unit target housing, renovation firms must post the information required by this subpart or instructions on how interested occupants can obtain a copy of this information. This information must be posted in areas where it is likely to be seen by the occupants of all of the affected units.

(5) The information required to be provided by OAR 333-070-0110(2) may be provided by completing the sample form titled "Sample Renovation Recordkeeping Checklist" or a similar form containing the test kit information required by OAR 333-070-0075(3)(a)(B) and the training and work practice compliance information required by OAR 333-070-0090 and 333-070-0100.

(6) If dust clearance sampling is performed in lieu of cleaning verification as permitted by OAR 333-070-0090(13), the renovation firm must provide, when the final invoice for the renovation is delivered or within 30 days of completion of the renovation, whichever is earlier, a copy of the dust sampling report to:

(a) The owner of the building; and

(b) An adult occupant of the residential dwelling, if the renovation took place within a residential dwelling, or an adult representative of the child-occupied facility, if the renovation took place within a child-occupied facility.

(7) When performing renovations in common areas of multi-unit target housing, renovation firms must post these dust sampling reports or information on how interested occupants of the housing being renovated can obtain a copy of the report. This information must be posted in areas where they are likely to be seen by the occupants of all of the affected units.

Inspections and Enforcement

(1) The Authority may:

(a) Enter private or public property at any reasonable time with consent of the owner or custodian of the property to inspect, investigate, evaluate or conduct tests or take specimens or samples for testing, as necessary to determine compliance with ORS 431.920;

(b) Issue subpoenas to determine compliance with ORS 431.920;

(c) Suspend, revoke or modify a certification to perform lead-based paint activities or renovation if the holder of the certification fails to comply with state or federal statutes or regulations related to lead-based paint;

(d) Suspend, revoke or modify a certified renovator's certification if the renovator fails to comply with state or federal statutes or regulations related to lead-based paint; and

(e) Issue civil penalties not to exceed $5,000 per violation for a violation of ORS 431.920, or any of these rules, including failure or refusal to permit entry or inspection in accordance with this rule.

(A) In issuing civil penalties the Authority shall consider whether:

(i) The Authority made repeated attempts to obtain compliance;

(ii) The certified firm or individual has a history of noncompliance with environmental statutes or regulations;

(iii) The violation poses a serious risk to the public's health;

(iv) The certified firm or individual gained financially from the non-compliance; and

(v) There are mitigating factors, such as a certified firm's or individual's cooperation with an investigation or actions to come into compliance.

(B) The Authority shall document its consideration of the factors in paragraph (1)(e)(A) of this rule.

(C) Each day a violation continues is an additional violation.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(D) A civil penalty imposed under this rule shall comply with ORS 183.745.

(2) An individual who is issued a notice of suspension, revocation or modification shall have the right to a contested case hearing under ORS chapter 183.

(3) The Authority shall maintain a publicly available list of individuals whose certification has been suspended, revoked, modified, or reinstated.

(4) Unless a final order specifies otherwise:

(a) An individual whose certification has been suspended must take a refresher training course (renovator or dust sampling technician) prior to certification being reinstated.

(b) An individual whose certification has been revoked shall take an initial renovator or dust sampling technician course in order to become certified again.

(c) A certified renovation firm whose certification has been revoked may reapply for certification after one year from the date of revocation.

(d) If the certified renovation firm's certification has been suspended and the suspension ends less than five years after the certified renovation firm was initially certified or re-certified, the certified renovation firm does not need to do anything to re-activate its certification once the period of suspension has expired.

Certification Fees and Refunds

(1) Fees for the certification of certified renovation firms.

(a) Certification: $250

(b) Recertification: $250

(2) Fee Waivers. A renovation firm that has applied to EPA for certification or is certified by the EPA may request a waiver of the certification fee if the firm:

(a) Is required to be certified by the Authority; and

(b) Provides documentation that the date of application to EPA for certification or the date of certification is prior to May 3, 2010.

(3) Refund policy.

(a) An incomplete application shall be returned with the application fee minus a $50 administration fee.

(b) If an applicant requests that a complete application be withdrawn within 30 days of its receipt by the Authority, the Authority shall refund the applicant $200 minus a $50 administration fee.

(c) No fees will be refunded if the Authority has begun to process an application.

(4) Lost certificate. A $15 fee will be charged for the replacement of a certified renovation firm certificate.

(5) Certificate replacement. Certified renovation firms seeking certificate replacement must submit the replacement application form and a payment of $15 in accordance with the instructions provided with the application package.

Training Program Accreditation Required

(1) A training program may seek accreditation to offer courses in either of the following disciplines: renovator or dust sampling technician. A training program may also seek accreditation to offer refresher courses for each of the above listed disciplines.

(2) Application process. The following are procedures a training program must follow to receive Authority accreditation to offer renovator courses or dust sampling technician courses:

(a) A training program seeking accreditation shall submit a written application with the appropriate fee to the Authority containing the following information:

(A) The training program's name, address, and telephone number;

(B) A list of courses for which it is applying for accreditation. For the purposes of this section, courses taught in different languages are considered different courses, and each must independently meet the accreditation requirements; and

(C) A statement signed by the training program manager certifying that the training program meets the requirements established in OAR 333-070-0130 and 333-070-0135. If a training program uses EPA model training materials, or training materials approved by an EPA-authorized program, the training program manager shall include a statement certifying that as well.

(b) If a training program does not use EPA model training materials or training materials approved by an EPA-authorized program, its application for accreditation shall also include:

(A) A copy of the student and instructor manuals, or other materials to be used for each course;

(B) A copy of the course agenda for each course; and

(C) When applying for accreditation of a course in a language other than English, a signed statement from a qualified, independent translator that they have compared the course to the English language version and found the translation to be accurate.

(c) All training programs shall include in their application for accreditation the following:

(A) A description of the facilities and equipment to be used for lecture and hands-on training;

(B) A copy of the course test blueprint for each course;

(C) A description of the activities and procedures that will be used for conducting the assessment of hands-on skills for each course; and

(D) A copy of the quality control plan as described in section (4) of OAR 333-070-0135.

(d) If the Authority receives an incomplete application, it will request that the applicant submit the missing information or fee within 30 days. If an applicant fails to submit the requested information or the fee, the application will be returned to the applicant. An applicant who has had its application returned may reapply at any time.

(e) If a training program meets the requirements in OAR 333-070-0130 and 333-070-0135, then the Authority will approve the application for accreditation no more than 60 days after receiving a complete application from the training program. In the case of approval, a certificate of accreditation shall be sent to the applicant.

(f) If the Authority denies the application it shall send the applicant a letter giving the reason for denying the application. An individual whose application is denied shall have the right to a contested case hearing under ORS chapter 183.

(g) If the applicant's application is denied, the program may reapply for accreditation at any time.

(3) A training program may apply for accreditation to offer courses or refresher courses in as many disciplines as it chooses. A training program may seek accreditation for additional courses at any time as long as the program can demonstrate that it meets the requirements of OAR 333-070-0130 and 333-070-0135.

(4) A training program must not provide, offer, or claim to provide renovator or dust sampling technician courses without applying for and receiving accreditation from the Authority.

(5) Refresher courses only.

(a) A training program seeking accreditation to offer refresher training courses only shall submit a written application to the Authority containing the following information:

(A) The refresher training program's name, address, and telephone number;

(B) A list of courses for which it is applying for accreditation;

(C) A statement signed by the training program manager certifying that:

(i) The refresher training program meets the minimum requirements established by section (18) of OAR 333-070-0135; and

(ii) The training program uses EPA-developed model training materials, or training materials approved by a state or Indian tribe that has been authorized by the EPA under 40 CFR §745.324 to develop its refresher training course materials, if applicable.

(D) If the refresher training course materials are not based on EPA-developed model training materials or training materials approved by an authorized state or Indian tribe:

(i) A copy of the student and instructor manuals to be used for each course; and

(ii) A copy of the course agenda for each course.

(E) A description of the facilities and equipment to be used for lecture and hands-on training;

(F) A copy of the course test blueprint for each course;

(G) A description of the activities and procedures that will be used for conducting the assessment of hands-on skills for each course (if applicable); and

(H) A copy of the quality control plan as described in section (4) of OAR 333-070-0135.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) If the Authority receives an incomplete application, it will request that the applicant submit the missing information or fee within 30 days. If an applicant fails to submit the requested information or the fee, the application will be returned to the applicant. An applicant who has had its application returned may reapply at any time.

(c) If a refresher training program meets the requirements in section (5) of this rule, then the Authority will approve the application for accreditation no more than 60 days after receiving a complete application from the training program. In the case of approval, a certificate of accreditation shall be sent to the applicant.

(d) If the Authority denies the application it shall send the applicant a letter giving the reason for denying the application. An applicant who receives a denial shall have the right to a contested case hearing under ORS chapter 183.

(6) Accreditation shall be valid for four years and shall not be transferable.

(7) The Authority may accredit a training program that has been accredited by the EPA or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program upon receiving evidence of that accreditation and that the training program has:

(a) Completed any additional requirements established by the Authority; and

(b) The training manager has read and understands the accreditation standards as described in these rules.

(8) Accreditation based on a valid accreditation issued by EPA or an EPA-authorized state or tribal program shall be issued with an expiration date not to exceed the date of expiration listed on the EPA or EPA-authorized state or tribal accreditation.

Minimum Personnel Requirements for Training Program Accreditation

For a training program to obtain accreditation from the Authority to offer renovator courses or dust sampling technician courses, the program shall:

(1) Employ a training manager who has:

(a) At least two years of experience, education, or training in teaching workers or adults; or

(b) A bachelor's or graduate degree in building construction technology, engineering, industrial hygiene, safety, public health, education, business administration or program management or a related field; or

(c) Two years of experience in managing a training program specializing in environmental hazards; and

(d) Demonstrated experience, education, or training in the construction industry including: lead or asbestos abatement, painting, carpentry, renovation, remodeling, occupational safety and health, or industrial hygiene.

(2) Designate a qualified principal instructor for each course who has:

(a) Demonstrated experience, education, or training in teaching workers or adults;

(b) Successfully completed at least 16 hours of any EPA-accredited or EPA-authorized Lead-Based Paint Activities or Lead Renovation, Repair and Painting training program; and

(c) Demonstrated experience, education, or training in lead or asbestos abatement, painting, carpentry, renovation, remodeling, occupational safety and health, or industrial hygiene.

(3) Have a principal instructor responsible for the organization of the course and oversight of the teaching of all course material. The training manager may designate guest instructors as needed to provide instruction specific to the lecture, hands-on activities, or work practice components of a course.

(4) Have documents that serve as evidence that training managers and principal instructors have the education, work experience, training requirements or demonstrated experience, specifically listed in sections (1) and (2) of this rule. This documentation need not be submitted with the accreditation application, but, if not submitted, shall be retained by the training program as required by the recordkeeping requirements contained in OAR 333-070-0150. Those documents include the following:

(a) Official academic transcripts or diploma as evidence of meeting the education requirements.

(b) Resumes, letters of reference, or documentation of work experience, as evidence of meeting the work experience requirements.

(c) Certificates from lead-specific training courses, as evidence of meeting the training requirements.

(5) Ensure the availability of, and provide adequate facilities for, the delivery of the lecture, course test, hands-on training, and assessment activities. This includes providing training equipment that reflects current work practices and maintaining or updating the equipment and facilities as needed.

333-070-0135

Minimum Curriculum Requirements for Training Program Accreditation

(1) In order to become accredited in the following disciplines a training program shall provide training courses that meet the following training hour requirements:

(a) The renovator course must provide a minimum of eight training hours, with a minimum of two hours devoted to hands-on training activities. Hands-on training activities must cover renovation methods that minimize the creation of dust and lead-based paint hazards, interior and exterior containment and cleanup methods, and post-renovation cleaning verification.

(b) The dust sampling technician course shall provide a minimum of eight training hours, with a minimum of two hours devoted to hands-on training activities. Hands-on training activities must cover dust sampling methodologies.

(2) A student shall be required to pass a course test or a proficiency test and a hands-on-skill assessment for each course offered.

(a) The training manager is responsible for maintaining the validity and integrity of the hands-on skills assessment or proficiency test to ensure that it accurately evaluates the trainees' performance of the work practices and procedures associated with the course topics contained in sections (16), (17) and (18) of this rule.

(b) The training manager is responsible for maintaining the validity and integrity of the course test to ensure that it accurately evaluates the trainees' knowledge and retention of the course topics.

(c) The course test shall be developed in accordance with the test blueprint submitted with the training accreditation application.

(3) The training program shall issue unique course completion certificates to each individual who passes the training course. The course completion certificate shall include:

(a) The name, a unique identification number, and address of the individual;

(b) The name of the particular course that the individual completed;

(c) Dates of course completion/test passage; and

(d) For renovator and dust sampling technician course completion certificates, a photograph of the individual.

(4) The training manager shall develop and implement a quality control plan. The plan shall be used to maintain and improve the quality of the training program over time. This plan shall contain at least the following elements:

(a) Procedures for periodic revision of training materials and the course test to reflect innovations in the field.

(b) Procedures for the training manager's annual review of principal instructor competency.

(5) Courses offered by the training program must teach the work practice standards contained in OAR 333-070-0090, in such a manner that trainees are provided with the knowledge needed to perform the renovations they will be responsible for conducting.

(6) The training manager shall be responsible for ensuring that the training program complies at all times with all of the requirements in this rule.

(7) The Authority may audit the training program to verify the contents of the application for accreditation as described in OAR 333-070-0130 and OAR 333-070-0135.

(8) The training manager shall provide the Authority with notification of all renovator or dust sampling technician courses offered. The original notification must be received by the Authority at least seven business days prior to the start date of any renovator or dust sampling technician course.

(9) The training manager shall provide the Authority updated notification when renovator or dust sampling technician courses will begin on a date other than the start date specified in the notification, as follows:

(a) For renovator or dust sampling technician courses beginning prior to the start date provided to the Authority, an updated notification must be received by the Authority at least seven business days before the new start date.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) For renovator or dust sampling technician courses beginning after the start date provided to the Authority, an updated notification must be received by the Authority at least two business days before the start date.

(10) The training manager shall update the Authority of any change in location of renovator or dust sampling technician courses at least seven business days prior to the start date.

(11) The training manager shall update the Authority regarding any course cancellations, or any other change to the original notification. Updated notifications must be received by the Authority at least two business days prior to the start date.

(12) Each notification required by sections (8) through (11) of this rule, including updates shall include the following:

- (a) Notification type (original, update, cancellation);
- (b) Training program name, the Authority accreditation number, address, and telephone number;
- (c) Course discipline, type (initial/ refresher), and the language in which instruction will be given;
- (d) Date(s) and time(s) of training;
- (e) Training location(s), telephone number, and address;
- (f) Principal instructor's name; and
- (g) Training manager's name and signature.

(13) Renovator or dust sampling training courses may not begin on a date, or at a location other than that specified in the original notification unless an updated notification identifying a new start date or location is submitted, in which case the course must begin on the new start date and/or location specified in the updated notification.

(14) The training manager shall provide the Authority notification after the completion of any renovator or dust sampling technician course. This notice must be received by the Authority no later than 10 business days following course completion. The notification shall include the following:

- (a) Training program name, accreditation number, address, and telephone number;
- (b) Course discipline and type (initial/refresher);
- (c) Date(s) of training;
- (d) The following information for each student who took the course:
  - (A) Name;
  - (B) Address;
  - (C) Date of birth;
  - (D) Course completion certificate number;
  - (E) Course test score; and
  - (F) A digital photograph of the student;
- (e) Training manager's name and signature.

(15) Notifications required by this rule can be accomplished by using an Authority approved form or can be provided in writing with the information.

- (a) All notifications shall be in writing and submitted to the Authority:
  - (A) By mail through the U.S. Postal Service or other commercial delivery service;
  - (B) By facsimile;
  - (C) In person; or
  - (D) Electronically via electronic mail or through the Authority's web-based system if one is established.

(b) A training program providing notifications through the U.S. Postal Service should allow three additional business days for delivery in order to ensure that the Authority receives the notification by the required date.

(c) Instructions for notifications and sample forms can be obtained from the Authority's website at www.healthoregon.org/lead.

(16) Renovator Training Course. A renovator training course shall include the following subjects:

- (a) Role and responsibility of a renovator;
- (b) Background information on lead and its adverse health effects;
- (c) Background information on, HUD, OSHA, and other federal, state, and local regulations and guidance that pertains to lead-based paint and renovation activities;
- (d) Procedures for using EPA recognized test kits to determine whether paint is lead-based paint;
- (e) Renovation methods to minimize the creation of dust and lead-based paint hazards;
- (f) Interior and exterior containment and cleanup methods;
- (g) Methods to ensure that the renovation has been properly completed, including cleaning verification, and clearance testing;
- (h) Waste handling and disposal;
- (i) Providing on-the-job training to other workers; and
- (j) Record preparation.

(17) Dust sampling technician. A dust sampling technician course shall include the following subjects:

- (a) Role and responsibility of a dust sampling technician;
- (b) Background information on lead and its adverse health effects;
- (c) Background information on federal, state, and local regulations and guidance that pertains to lead-based paint and renovation activities;
- (d) Dust sampling methodologies;
- (e) Clearance standards and testing; and
- (f) Report preparation.

(18) Requirements for the accreditation of refresher training programs. A training program may seek accreditation to offer refresher training courses in either of the following disciplines: renovator and dust sampling technician. To obtain the Authority accreditation to offer refresher training, a training program shall meet the following minimum requirements:

(a) Each refresher course shall review the curriculum topics of the full-length courses listed under sections (16) and (17) of this rule, as appropriate. In addition, to become accredited to offer refresher training courses, training programs shall ensure that their courses of study include, at a minimum, the following:

(A) An overview of current safety practices relating to lead-based paint in general, as well as specific information pertaining to the appropriate discipline.

(B) Current laws and regulations relating to lead-based paint in general, as well as specific information pertaining to the appropriate discipline.

(C) Current technologies relating to lead-based paint in general, as well as specific information pertaining to the appropriate discipline.

(D) Refresher courses for renovator and dust sampling technician must last a minimum of four training hours.

(E) For each course offered, the training program shall conduct a hands-on assessment (if applicable), and at the completion of the course, a course test.

(19) A training program may apply for accreditation of a refresher course concurrently with its application for accreditation of a corresponding training course as described in OAR 333-070-0135(1).

Re-Accreditation of Training Programs

(1) Unless reaccredited, a training program's accreditation (including refresher training accreditation) shall expire four years after the date of issuance. If a training program meets the requirements of this rule, the training program shall be reaccredited.

(2) A training program seeking reaccreditation shall submit an application to the Authority no later than 60 days before its accreditation expires. If a training program does not submit its application for reaccreditation by that date, the Authority cannot guarantee that the program will be reaccredited before the end of the accreditation period.

(3) The training program's application for reaccreditation shall contain:

- (a) The training program's name, address, and telephone number.
- (b) A list of courses for which it is applying for reaccreditation.
- (c) A description of any changes to the training facility, equipment or course materials since its last application was approved that adversely affects the student's ability to learn.
- (d) A statement signed by the program manager stating:

(A) That the training program complies at all times with all requirements in OAR 333-070-0130 and OAR 333-070-0135 as applicable; and

(B) The recordkeeping and reporting requirements of OAR 333-070-0150 shall be followed.

(e) A payment of appropriate fees in accordance with these rules.

(4) The Authority may audit the training program to verify the contents of the application for reaccreditation as described in OAR 333-070-0140.

(5) If the Authority receives an incomplete application, it will request that the applicant submit the missing information or fee within 30 days. If an applicant fails to submit the requested information or the fee, the application will be returned to the applicant. An applicant who has had its application returned may reapply at any time.

(6) If a training program meets the requirements in section (2) of this rule, then the Authority will approve the application for reaccreditation no more than 60 days after receiving a complete application from the training program. In the case of approval, a certificate of accreditation shall be sent to the applicant.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(7) If the Authority denies the application it shall send the applicant a letter giving the reason for denying the application. An applicant whose application is denied shall have the right to a contested case hearing under ORS chapter 183.

Suspending, Revoking, or Denying a Training Program's Accreditation; Civil Penalties

(1) The Authority may:

(a) Enter private or public property at any reasonable time with consent of the owner or custodian of the property to inspect or investigate as necessary to determine compliance with ORS 431.920;

(b) Issue subpoenas to determine compliance with ORS 431.920;

(c) Suspend, revoke, or deny an accreditation if the holder of the accreditation fails to comply with state or federal statutes or regulations related to lead-based paint; and

(d) Issue civil penalties not to exceed $5,000 per violation for a violation of ORS 431.920, or any of these rules, including failure or refusal to permit entry or inspection in accordance with this rule.

(A) In issuing civil penalties the Authority shall consider whether:

(i) The Authority made repeated attempts to obtain compliance;

(ii) The training program has a history of noncompliance with environmental statutes or regulations;

(iii) The violation poses a serious risk to the public's health;

(iv) The training program gained financially from the noncompliance; and

(v) There are mitigating factors, such as the training program's cooperation with an investigation or actions to come into compliance.

(B) The Authority shall document its consideration of the factors in paragraph (1)(d)(A) of this rule.

(C) Each day a violation continues is an additional violation.

(D) A civil penalty imposed under this rule shall comply with ORS 183.745.

(2) An accredited training program that is issued a notice of suspension, revocation or denial shall have the right to a contested case hearing under ORS chapter 183.

(3) The Authority shall maintain a publicly available list of training programs whose accreditation has been suspended, revoked, denied, or reinstated.

(4) Unless a final order specifies otherwise:

(a) An accredited training program whose accreditation has been revoked may reapply for reaccreditation after one year from the date of revocation.

(b) If the training program's accreditation has been suspended and the suspension ends less than four years after the training program was initially accredited or reaccredited, the training program does not need to do anything to reactivate its accreditation once the period of suspension has expired.

Subject: The Oregon Health Authority, Public Health Division is temporarily amending rules throughout all of chapter 333. The amendments are mainly in the "definitions" rules of the chapter, and change the name of the agency and the subsequent definition of that name.

These amendments are necessary due to legislation passed by the 75th Legislative Assembly during the 2009 regular session. HB 2009 created the Oregon Health Authority and transferred to the Authority the Department of Human Services' (Department) Divisions with respect to health and health care. Consequently, the Public Health Division is now in the Oregon Health Authority and is no longer a part of the Department of Human Services as defined in statute. Amendments need to be made to the chapter 333 rules to change references of "Department" to "Authority" and "Authority" must be defined. Most other changes of the agency name from "Department" to "Authority" throughout the chapter 333 rules have been made by housekeeping changes as allowed by ORS 183.335(7)(a) and are therefore not a part of this rulemaking.

(c) Any other medical condition or treatment for a medical condition adopted by the Authority by rule or approved by the Authority pursuant to a petition submitted under OAR 333-008-0090.

(6) "Delivery" means the actual, constructive or attempted transfer, other than by administering or dispensing, from one person to another of a controlled substance, whether or not there is an agency relationship, but does not include transfer of marijuana from one patient to another patient if no consideration is paid for the transfer.

(7) "Designated primary caregiver" means an individual 18 years of age or older who has significant responsibility for managing the well-being of a person who has been diagnosed with a debilitating medical condition and who is designated as such on that person's application for a registry identification card or in other written notification to the Authority. "Designated primary caregiver" does not include the person's attending physician.

(8) "Grow site registration card" means the card issued to the patient and displayed at the grow site.

(9) "Grower" has the same meaning as "person responsible for a marijuana grow site".

(10) "Immature plant" has the same meaning as "seedling or start".

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(11) "Marijuana" means all parts of the plant Cannabis family Moraceae, whether growing or not; the resin extracted from any part of the plant; and every compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture, or preparation of the plant or its resin. It does not include the mature stalks of the plant, fiber produced from the stalks, oil or cake made from the seeds of the plant, any other compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture, or preparation of the mature stalks (except the resin extracted therefrom), fiber, oil, or cake, or the sterilized seed of the plant which is incapable of germination.

(12) "Mature plant" means a marijuana plant that does not fall within the definition of a seedling or a start.

(13) "Medical use of marijuana" means the production, possession, delivery, or administration of marijuana, or paraphernalia used to administer marijuana, as necessary for the exclusive benefit of a person to mitigate the symptoms or effects of his or her debilitating medical condition.

(14) "Oregon Health Plan (OHP)" means the medical assistance program administered by the Authority under ORS chapter 414.

(15) "OMMP identity card" means a wallet-sized card issued by the Authority in addition to the registry identification card that designates a person as a patient, primary caregiver, or grower.

(16) "Parent or legal guardian" means the custodial parent or legal guardian with responsibility for health care decisions for the person under 18 years of age.

(17) "Patient" has the same meaning as "registry identification cardholder."

(18) "Person responsible for a marijuana grow site" means a person who has been selected by a patient to produce medical marijuana for the patient, and who has been registered by the Authority for this purpose.

(19) "Primary responsibility" as that term is used in relation to an attending physician means that the physician:

(a) Provides primary health care to the patient; or

(b) Provides medical specialty care and treatment to the patient as recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties; or

(c) Is a consultant who has been asked to examine and treat the patient by the patient's primary care physician licensed under ORS chapter 677, the patient's physician assistant licensed under ORS chapter 677, or the patient's nurse practitioner licensed under ORS chapter 678; and,

(d) Has reviewed a patient's medical records at the patient's request and has conducted a thorough physical examination of the patient, has provided or planned follow-up care, and has documented these activities in the patient's medical record.

(20) "Production" includes the manufacture, planting, cultivation, growing or harvesting of a controlled substance.

(21) "Registry identification card" means a document issued by the Authority that identifies a person authorized to engage in the medical use of marijuana, and the person's designated primary caregiver, if any.

(22) "Registry identification cardholder" means a person who has been diagnosed by an attending physician with a debilitating medical condition and for whom the use of medical marijuana may mitigate the symptoms or effects of the person's debilitating medical condition, and who has been issued a patient registry identification card by the Authority.

(23) "Seedling or start" means a marijuana plant that has no flowers, is less than 12 inches in height, and less than 12 inches in diameter. A seedling or start that does not meet all three criteria will be considered a mature plant.

(24) "Supplemental Security Income (SSI)" means the monthly benefit assistance program administered by the federal government for persons who are age 65 or older, or blind, or disabled and who have limited income and financial resources.

(25) "Usable marijuana" means the dried leaves and flowers of the plant Cannabis family Moraceae, and any mixture or preparation thereof, that are appropriate for medical use. "Usable marijuana" does not include the seeds, stalks and roots of the plant.

(26) "Written documentation" means a statement signed and dated by the attending physician of a person diagnosed with a debilitating medical condition or copies of the person's relevant medical records, maintained in accordance with standard medical record practices.

Suspension and Revocation

(1) The Authority may suspend a registry identification card, and preclude a person from using a registry identification card for a period of up to six months if the Authority obtains evidence that establishes a registry identification cardholder has:

(a) Committed egregious violations of the Act, including obtaining a registry identification card by fraud;

(b) Committed multiple or continuing violations of the Act; or

(c) Been convicted of a marijuana-related offense.

(2) The Authority shall send written notice of a suspension by certified mail. The notice shall comply with ORS 183.415, and shall include the right to request a contested case hearing. The request for hearing must be received within 21-days from the date the notice was mailed.

(3) The Authority shall revoke the registry identification card of a cardholder if a court has issued an order that prohibits the cardholder from participating in the medical use of marijuana or otherwise participating in the OMMP under ORS 475.300 to 475.346. The cardholder shall return the registry identification card to the Authority within seven calendar days.

(4) The cardholder shall return the registry identification card to the Authority within seven calendar days of the final order of suspension being issued. If the cardholder is a patient, the patient shall return his or her card and all other associated OMMP cards.

(5) If, during the period of suspension, a patient's annual renewal date comes due, the patient must apply for renewal at the end of the period of suspension.

Definitions

As used in these rules:

(1) "Anonymous research" means scientific or medical genetic research conducted in such a manner that any DNA sample or genetic information used in the research is unidentified. "Anonymous research" does not include research conducted in such a manner that the identity of such an individual, or the identity of the individual's blood relatives, can be determined by use of a code, encryption key or other means of linking the information to a specific individual.

(2) "Biological sample" means any human biological specimen that may be used as a DNA sample.

(3) "Blanket informed consent" means that the individual has consented to the use of that individual's DNA sample or health information for any future research, but has not been provided with a description of or consented to the use of the sample in genetic research or any specific genetic research project.

(4) "Blood relative" means a person who is:

(a) Related by blood to an individual; and

(b) A parent, sibling, son, daughter, grandparent, grandchild, aunt, uncle, first cousin, niece or nephew of the individual.

(5) "Clinical" means relating to or obtained through the actual observation, diagnosis, or treatment of patients and not through research.

(6) "Coded" means identifiable only through the use of a system of encryption that links a DNA sample or genetic information to an individual or the individual's blood relative. A coded DNA sample or genetic information is supplied by a repository to an investigator with a system of encryption.

(7) "Covered entity," as applied to a health care provider, means a health care provider that transmits any health information in electronic form to carry out financial or administrative activities in connection with a transaction covered by ORS 192.518 to 192.524.

(8) "Deidentified" means lacking, or having had removed, the identifiers or system of encryption that would make it possible for a person to link a biological sample or health information to an individual or the individual's blood relative, and neither the investigator nor the repository can reconstruct the identity of the individual from whom the sample or information was obtained. DNA samples and genetic information will be considered deidentified only if they meet the following standards provided in the Federal Privacy Rule:

(a) A person with appropriate knowledge of and experience with generally accepted statistical and scientific principles and methods for rendering information not individually identifiable:

(A) Applying such principles and methods, determines that the risk is very small that the information could be used, alone or in combination with other reasonably available information, by an anticipated recipient to identify an individual who is a subject of the information; and

(B) Documents the methods and results of the analysis that justify such determination; or

(b) The following identifiers of the individual or of relatives, employers, or household members of the individual, are removed:

(A) Names;

(B) All geographic subdivisions smaller than a state, including street address, city, county, precinct, zip code, and their equivalent geocodes, except for the initial three digits of a zip code if, according to the current publicly available data from the Bureau of the Census:

(i) The geographic unit formed by combining all zip codes with the same three initial digits contains more than 20,000 people; and

(ii) The initial three digits of a zip code for all such geographic units containing 20,000 or fewer people is changed to 000.

(C) All elements of dates (except year) for dates directly related to an individual, including birth date, admission date, discharge date, date of death; and all ages over 89 and all elements of dates (including year) indicative of such age, except that such ages and elements may be aggregated into a single category of age 90 or older;

(D) Telephone numbers;

(E) Fax numbers;

(F) Electronic mail addresses;

(G) Social security numbers;

(H) Medical record numbers;

(I) Health plan beneficiary numbers;

(J) Account numbers;

(K) Certificate/license numbers;

(L) Vehicle identifiers and serial numbers, including license plate numbers;

(M) Device identifiers and serial numbers;

(N) Web Universal Resource Locators (URLs);

(O) Internet Protocol (IP) address numbers;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(P) Biometric identifiers, including finger and voice prints;
(Q) Full face photographic images and any comparable images; and
(R) Any other unique identifying number, characteristic, or code; and
(c) The investigator and repository do not have actual knowledge that the information could be used alone or in combination with other information to identify an individual who is a subject of the information.

(9) "Direct provider" means a health care provider that is not an indirect treatment provider.

(10) "Disclose" means to release, publish, or otherwise make known to a third party a biological sample or health information.

(11) "DNA" means deoxyribonucleic acid.

(12) "DNA sample" means any human biological specimen that is obtained or retained for the purpose of extracting and analyzing the individual's DNA to perform a genetic test. "DNA sample" includes DNA extracted from the specimen.

(13) "Federal Common Rule" means the Federal Policy for the Protection of Human Subjects, as adopted by the following federal agencies and as revised through November 13, 2001: 7 CFR Part 1c, Department of Agriculture; 10 CFR Part 745, Department of Energy; 14 CFR Part 1230, National Aeronautics and Space Administration; 15 CFR Part 27, Department of Commerce; 16 CFR Part 1028, Consumer Product Safety Commission; 21 CFR Parts 50 and 56, Food and Drug Administration; 22 CFR Part 225, International Development Cooperation Agency, Agency for International Development; 24 CFR Part 60, Department of Housing and Urban Development; 28 CFR Part 46, Department of Justice; 32 CFR Part 219, Department of Defense; 34 CFR Part 97, Department of Education; 38 CFR Part 16, Department of Veterans Affairs; 40 CFR Part 26, Environmental Protection Agency; 45 CFR Part 690, National Science Foundation; 45 CFR Part 46, Department of Health and Human Services; 49 CFR Part 11, Department of Transportation. In the case of research not subject to federal regulation under one of these provisions, "Federal Common Rule" means 45 CFR Part 46.

(14) "Federal Privacy Rule" means the federal regulations under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, 45 CFR parts 160 and 164.

(15) "Genetic characteristic" includes a gene, chromosome or alteration thereof that may be tested to determine the existence or risk of a disease, disorder, trait, propensity or syndrome or to identify an individual or a blood relative. "Genetic characteristic" does not include family history or a genetically transmitted characteristic whose existence or identity is determined other than through a genetic test.

(16) "Genetic information" means information about an individual or the individual's blood relatives obtained from a genetic test.

(17) "Genetic research" means research using human DNA samples, genetic testing or genetic information.

(18) "Genetic test" means a test for determining the presence or absence of genetic characteristics in a human individual or the individual's blood relatives, including tests of nucleic acids such as DNA, RNA, and mitochondrial DNA, chromosomes or proteins in order to diagnose or determine a genetic characteristic.

(19) "Health care facility" means a hospital, long term care facility, an ambulatory surgical center, a freestanding birthing center or an outpatient dialysis center. "Health care facility" does not mean:

(a) An establishment furnishing residential care or treatment not meeting federal intermediate care standards, not following a primarily medical model of treatment, prohibited from admitting persons requiring 24-hour nursing care and licensed or approved under the rules of the Oregon Health Authority, Department of Human Services or the Department of Corrections; or
(b) An establishment furnishing primarily domiciliary care.

(20) "Health care provider" has the meaning given in ORS 192.519(5).

(21) "Health information" means any information in any form or medium that:

(a) Is created or received by a health care provider, a state health plan, a health insurer, a healthcare clearinghouse, a public health authority, an employer, a life insurer, a school, or a university; and

(b) Relates to:

(A) The past, present or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual;

(B) The provision of health care to an individual; or

(C) The past, present or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual.

(22) "Human biological specimen" means any material derived from human subjects, such as blood, urine, tissues, organs, hair, nail clippings, or any other cells or fluids, whether collected for research purposes or as residual specimens from diagnostic, therapeutic, or surgical procedures.

(23) "Identifiable" or "Individually identifiable" means capable of being linked to the individual or a blood relative of the individual from whom the biological sample or health information was obtained, including demographic information that identifies the individual, or for which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify an individual.

(24) "Identified" means having an identifier that links, or that could readily allow the recipient to link, a DNA sample or genetic information directly to the individual or a blood relative of the individual from whom the sample or information was obtained.

(25) "Identifier" means data elements that directly link a DNA sample or genetic information to the individual or a blood relative of the individual from whom the sample or information was obtained. Identifiers include, but are not limited to, names, telephone numbers, electronic mail addresses, Social Security numbers, driver license numbers and fingerprints.

(26) "Indirect provider" means a health care provider having a relationship with an individual in which:

(a) The health care provider delivers health care to the individual based on the orders of another health care provider; and

(b) The health care provider typically provides services or products, or reports the diagnosis or results associated with the health care, directly to another health care provider, who provides the services or products or reports to the individual.

(27) "Institutional Review Board" or "IRB" means an Institutional Review Board established in accord with and for the purposes expressed in the Federal Common Rule.

(28) "IRB approval" means the determination of the IRB that the research has been reviewed and may be conducted within the constraints set forth by the IRB and by other institutional and Federal and State requirements.

(29) "Limited data set" means protected health information that, in accordance with the Federal Privacy Rule, excludes the following direct identifiers of the individual or of relatives, employers, or household members of the individual:

(a) Names;

(b) Postal address information, other than town or city, state, and zip code;

(c) Telephone numbers;

(d) Fax numbers;

(e) Electronic mail addresses;

(f) Social security numbers;

(g) Medical record numbers;

(h) Health plan beneficiary numbers;

(i) Account numbers;

(j) Certificate/license numbers;

(k) Vehicle identifiers and serial numbers, including license plate numbers;

(l) Device identifiers and serial numbers;

(m) Web Universal Resource Locators (URLs);

(n) Internet Protocol (IP) address numbers;

(o) Biometric identifiers, including finger and voice prints; and

(p) Full face photographic images and any comparable images.

(30) "Obtain genetic information" means performing or getting the results of a genetic test.

(31) "Opt-out statement" means a written expression of an individual's desire to withhold his or her own biological specimen or clinical individually identifiable health information from use and disclosure for the purpose of anonymous research or coded research.

(32) "Person" includes but is not limited to any health care provider, health care facility, clinical laboratory, blood or sperm bank, insurer, insurance agent, insurance-support organization, as defined in ORS 746.600, government agency, employer, research organization or agent of any of them.

(33) "Personal representative" includes but is not limited to:

(a) A person appointed as a guardian under ORS 125.305, 419B.370, 419C.481 or 419C.555 with authority to make medical and health care decisions;

(b) A person appointed as a health care representative under ORS 127.505 to 127.660 or a representative under ORS 127.700 to 127.737 to make health care decisions or mental health treatment decisions; and

(c) A person appointed as a personal representative under ORS Chapter 113.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(34) "Recontact" means disclosure of genetic research findings to a research subject or the subject's physician through use of personal identifiers.

(35) "Research" means a systematic investigation, including research development, testing and evaluation, designed to develop or contribute to generalized knowledge.

(36) "Retain a DNA sample" means the act of storing the DNA sample.

(37) "Retain genetic information" means making a record of the genetic information.

(38) "Specific informed consent for genetic research" means the individual or the individual's representative has consented to the use of that individual's DNA sample or genetic information for genetic research or for a specified genetic research project.

(39) "Unidentified" means deidentified or not identifiable.

333-030-0015

Definitions

As used in these rules unless otherwise required by context:

(1) "Administrator" means the Public Health Director of the Oregon Health Authority or designee.

(2) "Activity Leader or Supervisor" means the staff member providing direct onsite supervision for a camp program or activity.

(3) "Ancillary Activity" means an individual or group using the camp facilities in a manner unrelated to the camp's mission or programs. An example might include a wedding party or a business group using a Boy Scout Camp for a reception or meeting. Such activities may require the camp to maintain a food service or traveler's accommodation license in addition to the organization camp license.

(4) "Approved" means approved in writing by the Oregon Health Authority, Public Health Division.

(5) "Aquatic Director" means a person over 18 years of age who is employed by or within the organizational camp and is a currently certified Red Cross Water Safety Instructor, Boy Scouts of America National Aquatic Instructor or having equivalent certification as determined by the Oregon Health Authority, Public Health Division.

(6) "Camp Director" means the person on-site who has the overall responsibility for all camp activities and functions.

(7) "Camp Staff" include paid and volunteer leaders working directly for the camp operator and may include contract or rental (user group) individuals.

(8) "Contract groups" or "Rental groups" are organized groups that are not participating in ancillary activities or the normal camp activities, but that use the camp facilities under contracted arrangement with the camp operator whether or not a fee is paid. These groups may or may not use all of the camp's facilities or staff.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(9) "Day Camp" means an organizational camp facility that campers attend for an established period of time, leaving at the end of the camping day. It provides creative and recreational opportunities in the out-of-doors utilizing trained leadership and the resources of the natural surroundings to contribute to the camper's mental, physical and spiritual growth. It is oriented to providing such programming for children between the ages of 5-13 when school is not in session.

(10) "Delegated County" means a county delegated to administer the Organizational Camp Program under ORS 446.425.

(11) "Division" means the Public Health Division of the Oregon Health Authority or delegated county.

(12) "Family Camp" means sessions operated or staffed by the camp or user group for parents and children as family groups. Parents and guardians are on-site and have frequent contact with and make decisions on behalf of their children.

(13) "Health History" means an up-to-date record of the camper's or staff's past and present health status. It should be as accurate and complete as possible and list immunizations, past medical treatment, allergies, medications currently being taken, date of the last tetanus shot, health problems and other health issues of concern.

(14) "Health Services" means the services provided to campers and staff including first aid, medication management, provision of prescribed medical treatment and health practices.

(15) "Lifeguard" means a currently certified Red Cross Lifeguard (with waterfront module where applicable), YMCA Lifeguard, Boy Scout Lifeguard, National Pool and Waterpark Lifeguard, or a person having equivalent certification as determined by the Oregon Health Authority, Public Health Division.

(16) "On-Site" means within the boundaries of the camp facility.

(17) "Organizational Camp" means any facility operating for recreational use by groups or organizations. Organizational Camps include, but are not limited to, youth camps, scout camps, summer camps, day camps, nature camps, science camps, survival camps, athletic camps, camps operated and maintained under the guidance, supervision or auspices of religious, public and private educational systems and community service organizations or other persons or organizations whether for-profit or non-profit. Organizational camps are distinguished from recreation parks, or hotels and motels by the existence of organized group activities comprising the majority of activities by all participants rather than individual or family recreation. Camps operating less than one week per year are excluded from these rules unless they have permanent structures or operate as a "day camp."

(18) "Outdoor Youth Program" means a program that provides, in an outdoor living setting, treatment services to youth who are enrolled in the program because they have behavioral problems, mental health problems or problems with abuse of alcohol or drugs. "Outdoor Youth Programs" must meet the requirements of OAR 413-215-0901 through 413-215-1031. Licensing with the Department of Human Services is required.

(19) "Permanent Sleeping Unit" means cabins, tents, huts and other shelters that are used for sleeping and remain stationary for more than six nights in an organizational camp.

(20) "Person" means individuals, corporations, associations, firms, partnerships and joint stock companies as well as public entities such as schools, colleges, public or private educational corporations.

(21) "Primitive Camping" means camp activities that take place in a wilderness setting far enough away from the organizational camp to require eating meals or sleeping away from the camp facilities.

(22) "Public Spa Pool" means any public swimming pool or wading pool designed primarily to direct water or air-enriched water under pressure onto the bather's body with the intent of producing a relaxing or therapeutic effect.

(23) "Public Swimming Pool" means an artificial structure, and its appurtenances, that contains water more than two feet deep that is used, or intended to be used, for swimming or recreational bathing and is for the use of any segment of the public. A "public swimming pool" includes, but is not limited to, swimming pools owned or operated by organizational camps.

(24) "Public Wading Pool" means an artificial structure, and its appurtenances, that contains water less than two feet deep that is expressly designated or is used with the knowledge and consent of the owner or operator for wading or recreational bathing and is for the use of any segment of the public, whether limited to patrons of a companion facility or not.

(25) "Recreation Park" means any area designated by the person establishing, operating, managing or maintaining the same for picnicking or overnight camping by the general public or any segment of the public. Recreation park includes, but is not limited to, areas open to use free of charge or through payment of a tax or fee or by virtue of rental, lease, license, membership, association or common ownership and further includes, but is not limited to, those areas divided into two or more lots, parcels, units or other interests for purposes of such use.

(26) "These Rules" means OAR 333-030-0005 through 333-030-0130.

(27) "Trip Camping" means camp activities that involve travel. Such travel may include eating meals or sleeping away from the organizational camp.

(28) "Unregulated Small Drinking Water System" means a facility licensed under the authority of these rules that is not regulated under OAR 333-061, (Public Water Systems). These systems must comply with the requirements of OAR 333-030-0080.

(29) "Waterfront Program" means those activities occurring in or on bodies of water other than public swimming and spa pools.

(30) "Wilderness Camping" means camp activities that take place in a wilderness setting far enough away from the organizational camp to require eating meals or sleeping away from the camp facilities.

(11) "Farmers' Market," means a group of five or more farmers who assemble over the course of a year at a defined location for the purpose of selling their eligible produce directly to consumers.

(12) "Farm Stand," means a location at which a farmer sells produce directly to consumers.

(13) "FDNP Participant" or "participant" means a senior participant or a WIC participant receiving FDNP benefits.

(14) "Fine," means a monetary penalty imposed against the farmer for non-compliance of FDNP rules.

(15) "Locally grown," means grown in the state of Oregon or in the following counties of a contiguous state: California — Del Norte, Modoc, Siskiyou; Idaho — Adams, Canyon, Idaho, Owyhee, Payette, Washington; Nevada — Humboldt, Washoe; Washington — Asotin, Benton, Clark, Columbia, Cowlitz, Garfield, Klickitat, Pacific, Skamania, Wahkiakum, Walla Walla.

(16) "Local WIC agency," means the agency or clinic where a participant receives WIC services and FDNP checks.

(17) "Market," means a farmers' market that has a signed agreement with the Authority to participate in the FDNP.

(18) "Market Coordinator," means an individual designated by the farmers' market manager (or market board members) responsible for overseeing the market's participation in the FDNP.

(19) "Market Season" means the time period in which FDNP checks may be transacted as determined by the Authority.

(20) "Senior Participant" means an individual who is over 60 years of age, meets all the eligibility components of the program and who receives FDNP checks.

(21) "Trafficking," means the buying or exchanging of FDNP checks for cash, drugs, firearms or alcohol.

(22) "USDA" means the United States Department of Agriculture.

(23) "Validating," means stamping the FDNP check in the designated box with the farmer identification number using the stamp provided by the Authority.

(24) "Violation," means an activity that is prohibited by OAR 333-052-0030 through 333-052-0090 and classified in 333-052-0080 through 333-052-0130.

(25) "WIC" or "WIC program" means the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) authorized by Section 17 of the Federal Child Nutrition Act of 1966, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §1786.

(26) "WIC participant" means any pregnant, breastfeeding, or post-partum woman, infant, or child who receives WIC benefits.

Definitions

(1) "Adjunctively income eligible" means an applicant or participant is eligible for WIC if they are:

(a) Certified and fully eligible to receive benefits for the:

(A) Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR);

(B) Food Stamp Program;

(C) Medicaid/Oregon Health Plan (OHP); or

(D) Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF).

(b) Determined presumptively eligible for either TANF or Medicaid/OHP (pending completion of that program's process); or

(c) A member of a household with:

(A) A food stamp recipient;

(B) A pregnant woman or infant currently on Medicaid/OHP; or

(C) A TANF recipient.

(2) "Applicant" means any pregnant woman, breastfeeding woman, post-partum non-lactating woman, infant or child (through the end of the month he or she turns five years of age) or their guardian or proxy who applies to receive WIC benefits.

(3) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(4) "Authorized food" means any supplemental foods listed on the WIC Authorized Food List, the food instrument or the CVV.

(5) "Authorized shopper" means:

(a) The participant or any person designated by the participant who has signed the WIC ID card on the second line (second authorized signer);

(b) A documented proxy;

(c) A participant's caretaker or the caretaker's designee; or

(d) Any Authority representative posing as a participant or participant designee as authorized by the Authority.

(6) "Cash Value Voucher" or "CVV" means a fixed-dollar amount check, voucher, electronic benefit transfer (EBT) card or other document which is used by a participant to obtain WIC authorized fruits and vegetables.

(7) "Certification" means the implementation of criteria and procedures to assess and document each applicant's eligibility for participation in the WIC program.

(8) "CFR" means Code of Federal Regulations.

(9) "Claim" means a demand for repayment for intentional misuse of WIC or FDNP benefits.

(10) "CSFP" means the Commodity Supplemental Food Program.

(11) "Disqualification" means termination of participation in the WIC program and cessation of WIC benefits due to an intentional participant violation for a specific amount of time. Participants may reapply for benefits at any time after the sanction period is over.

(12) "Dual participation" means simultaneous participation in more than one WIC program (more than one state or more than one local agency within Oregon) or participation in the WIC program and in the CSFP at the same time.

(13) "Farm Direct Nutrition Program" or "FDNP" means the Farmers' Market Nutrition Program administered by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), Food and Nutrition Services and implemented by the state of Oregon, Oregon Health Authority.

(14) "Food instrument" means a negotiable financial instrument by which WIC benefits are provided to participants. Food instruments are also referred to as "checks" or "vouchers."

(15) "Hearing request" or "request for a hearing" means any clear expression by an individual, or the individual's parent, caretaker or representative, that they want a higher authority to review the adverse action that was taken against them by the local or state WIC program.

(16) "Local agency" means:

(a) A public or private non-profit health or human services agency that provides health services, either directly or through contract with the Authority to provide services, in accordance with 7 CFR § 246.5;

(b) An Indian Health Service unit in contract with the Authority to provide services;

(c) An Indian tribe, band or group recognized by the Department of the Interior that operates a health clinic or is provided health services by an Indian Health Service unit; or

(d) An intertribal council or group that is an authorized representative of Indian tribes, bands or groups recognized by the Department of the Interior that operates a health clinic or is provided health services by an Indian Health Service unit.

(17) "Offense" means any unintentional action of a participant, parent or caretaker of an infant or child participant, or a proxy that violates federal or state statutes, regulations, policies or procedures governing the WIC program.

(18) "Participant" means any pregnant woman, breastfeeding woman, post-partum non-lactating woman, infant or child (through the end of the month he or she turns five years of age) who has been certified to receive benefits from the WIC program.

(19) "Participant's caretaker" means a person who has significant responsibility for providing food to the infant or child. The caretaker is usually part of the family unit, for example the parent or legal guardian of the infant or child.

(20) "Proxy" means a third person (besides the participant or authorized individual whose signature appears on the WIC ID card) temporarily authorized to pick up or shop with WIC food instruments or cash value vouchers on behalf of a participant.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(21) "Restitution" means reimbursement to the Authority of the cash value of the benefits that were obtained or disposed of improperly as the result of an intentional participant violation.

(22) "Sanction" means a penalty imposed by the state WIC program due to an intentional misuse of program funds or other intentional violation including, but not limited to, misrepresentation of information provided to determine program eligibility.

(23) "Second authorized signer" means the individual who signed the WIC ID card on the second line.

(24) "Service area" means a local program or subdivision of a local program that encompasses a specific geographic area.

(25) "Termination from program" means a participant's file is closed and benefits cease for any reason including, but not limited to, lack of eligibility, no longer breastfeeding, or transferring out of state.

(26) "Trafficking" means the buying or exchanging of WIC food instruments, cash value vouchers or FDNP checks for alcohol, cash, credit, tobacco or any other non-food item.

(27) "Violation" means an intentional action of a participant, parent or caretaker of an infant or child participant, or a proxy that violates federal or state statutes, regulations, policies or procedures governing the WIC program.

(28) "WIC program" or "WIC" means the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children authorized by Section 17 of the Federal Child Nutrition Act of 1966, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 1786.

333-054-0010

Definitions

(1) "A50" means an authorized vendor or applicant that derives, or is expected to derive, more than 50 percent of its total annual food sales from WIC food sales. The total food sales do not include alcohol, tobacco, lottery or any other non-food item.

(2) "Abbreviated administrative review" means a hearing that is held at the request of a vendor that has been issued an application denial, civil money penalty, fine, or sanction by the Authority. Abbreviated Reviews are facilitated by the Authority staff other than the staff person that imposed the sanction. A facilitated discussion is held in order to resolve the imposition of a sanction.

(3) "Adequate participant access" means there are authorized vendors sufficient for participant need.

(4) "Annual Food Sales" means sales of all Food Stamp/Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (FSP/SNAP) eligible foods intended for home preparation and consumption including meat, fish, and poultry; bread and cereal products; dairy products; fruits and vegetables. Food items such as condiments and spices, coffee, tea, cocoa, and carbonated and non-carbonated drinks may be included in food sales when offered for sale along with foods in the categories identified above. Food sales do not include sales of any items that cannot be purchased with food stamp benefits, such as hot foods or food that will be eaten in the store.

(5) "Applicant" means any person, or person with an interest in the business, making a written request for authorization to participate in the WIC Program, including vendors and farmers that reapply for authorization.

(6) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(7) "Authorization" means the process by which the Authority assesses, selects, and enters into agreements with stores and farmers that apply or subsequently reapply to be vendors or authorized farmers allowed to transact CVVs.

(8) "Authorized food" means any supplemental foods listed on the WIC Authorized Food List, food instrument or CVV.

(9) "Authorized shopper" means the participant or any person designated by a participant who has been documented as such at the local agency to act on the participant's behalf and, in the case of an infant or child, the caretaker or the caretaker's designee. This includes any representative posing as a participant or participant designee as authorized by the Authority.

(10) "CFR" means Code of Federal Regulations.

(11) "Change of Ownership" means a change in the ownership or control of ten percent or more of any class of stock in a corporation; a change in, addition of or removal of a partner of any partnership; a change in ownership or control of ten percent or more of the total investment commitment in partnership; or a change in the owner of a sole proprietorship.

(12) "CMP" means civil money penalty.

(13) "Cash Value Voucher" or "CVV" means a fixed-dollar check, voucher, electronic benefit transfer (EBT) card or other document which is used by a participant to obtain WIC authorized fruits and vegetables.

(14) "Compliance buy" means a single covert, on-site visit in which an Authority authorized representative poses as an authorized shopper and attempts to transact, or transacts, one or more food instruments or CVVs.

(15) "Disqualification" means cancelling the WIC program participation of a vendor or farmer, as a punitive action.

(16) "Farmer" means an individual who owns, leases, rents or share-crops land to grow, cultivate or harvest crops on that land.

(17) "Farmer agreement" means a standard written legal contract between the farmer and the Authority that sets forth responsibilities of the parties.

(18) "FNS" means the Food and Nutrition Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

(19) "FSP" means the Food Stamp Program, of the Food and Nutrition Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

(20) "Food instrument" means a WIC Program voucher, check, coupon or other WIC approved document, which is used to obtain authorized foods.

(21) "Full administrative review" means a formal hearing that is held before an assigned administrative law judge from the state Office of Administrative Hearings. Attorneys may be present to represent both parties. Formal procedures are followed as to the presentation of evidence, examination of documentation and cross-examination of witnesses in accordance with 7 CFR § 246.18 and ORS chapter 183.

(22) "Incentive item" means a food or non-food item offered free of charge to WIC shoppers to motivate them to shop at a particular store. Examples of incentive items include, but are not limited to, cash prizes, lottery tickets, transportation, sales/specials such as a buy-one-get one free or free additional ounces offer, and other free food or merchandise.

(23) "Inventory audit" means an examination of food invoices or other proofs of vendor purchases to determine whether a vendor has purchased sufficient quantities of authorized foods to support the vendor's claim for reimbursement for such foods from the Authority during a specific period of time.

(24) "Investigation" means a period of review, beginning with the start of an inventory audit or the first compliance buy and closing when the audit has been completed or a sufficient number of compliance buys have been completed to provide evidence of compliance or non-compliance, not to exceed 24 months, to determine a vendor or farmer's compliance with program rules and procedures.

(25) "Local agency" means:

(a) A public or private non profit health or human services agency that provides health services, either directly or through contract, in accordance with 7 CFR § 246.5;

(b) An Indian Health Service unit;

(c) An Indian tribe, band or group recognized by the Department of the Interior which operates a health clinic or is provided health services by an Indian Health Service unit; or

(d) An intertribal council or group that is an authorized representative of Indian tribes, bands or groups recognized by the Department of the Interior, which operates a health clinic or is provided health services by an Indian Health Service unit.

(26) "Mid-Contract Assessment" means a procedure used by the Authority to evaluate whether WIC authorized vendors/farmers continue to meet selection criteria throughout their agreement term.

(27) "Overcharge" means intentionally or unintentionally charging the Authority more for authorized foods than the actual shelf price or the price charged to other shoppers.

(28) "Participant" means any pregnant woman, breastfeeding woman, post-partum woman, infant or child who receives authorized foods or food instruments or CVVs under the WIC Program, and the breastfed infant of any participating breastfeeding woman.

(29) "Pattern" means three or more of the same rule violation that occurs within a single investigation.

(30) "Peer group" means a group of vendors considered to be in the same category by the Authority based on factors such as store type, store size and geography.

(31) "Person" means a human being, a public or private corporation, an unincorporated association, a partnership, a Limited Liability Corporation, a sole proprietor, a government or a governmental instrumentality.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(32) "Person with an interest in the business" means an officer, director, partner, or manager of the business or a shareholder with 10 percent interest or more in the business.

(33) "Price adjustment" means an adjustment made by the Authority, in accordance with the vendor/farmer agreement, to the purchase price on a food instrument or CVV, after it has been submitted by a vendor/farmer for redemption to ensure that the payment to the vendor/farmer for the food instrument or CVV complies with the Authority price limitations.

(34) "Prominently displayed" means immediately noticeable by persons entering the vendor location.

(35) "Routine monitoring" means an overt, on-site visit in which the Authority authorized representatives or federal officials identify themselves to vendor or farm personnel.

(36) "Shelf Price Survey" or "SPS" means a tool used by the Authority to collect a sample of a WIC authorized vendor's current shelf prices.

(37) "Stand Alone Pharmacy" means a pharmacy that is operated independently from or is not located in a WIC authorized grocery store. These stores are exempt from the minimum stock requirements set forth for grocery vendors.

(38) "Store Run Pharmacy" means a pharmacy that is located within a WIC authorized grocery store and is affiliated with that business entity.

(39) "Termination" means the cancellation of a vendor or farmer agreement which may or may not be linked to a disqualification.

(40) "Trafficking" means buying or selling food instruments or CVVs for cash.

(41) "U.S.C." means United States Code.

(42) "Unauthorized food item" means foods and/or brands, and/or size not allowed on the WIC Authorized Food List. It also means foods not specified on a food instrument or CVV as eligible for purchase for that participant, with WIC benefits.

(43) "Vendor" means the current owner(s) or any person with an interest in the business, of any retail store location that is currently authorized by the Authority to participate in the WIC Program. Vendor may also refer to the authorized store location.

(44) "Vendor agreement" means a standard written legal contract between the vendor and the Authority that sets forth responsibilities of the parties.

(45) "Vendor Price List" means a comprehensive list of current authorized foods and minimum stock requirements, with current shelf prices completed by the vendor.

(46) "Violation" means an activity that is prohibited by OAR 333-054-0000 through 333-054-0070 and is classified in OAR 333-054-0050 and OAR 333-054-0055.

(47) "WIC Authorized Food List" means the supplemental foods approved by the State of Oregon.

(48) "WIC Program" means the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) authorized by Section 17 of the Federal Child Nutrition Act of 1966, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §1786.

333-061-0020

Definitions

As used in these rules, unless the context indicates otherwise:

(1) "Act" means the Oregon Drinking Water Quality Act of 1981 (ORS 448.115-448.990 as amended).

(2) "Action Level" means the concentration of lead or copper in water which determines, in some cases, the treatment requirements that a water system is required to complete.

(3) "Administrator" means the Director of the Oregon Health Authority or his/her designee.

(4) "Analytical Run" means the process during which a set of analytical drinking water samples along with an appropriate number of blanks, matrix spikes, or quality control samples are analyzed according to National Environmental Laboratory Accreditation Conference (NELAC) requirements to determine the presence, absence, or concentration of a specific target analyte or analytes. An analytical run is complete when the instrument performing the sample analysis generates a report of the sample analysis.

(5) "Approval" or "Approved" means approved in writing.

(6) "Approved Air Gap (AG)" means a physical separation between the free-flowing discharge end of a potable water supply pipeline and an open or non-pressurized receiving vessel. An "Approved Air Gap" shall be at least twice the diameter of the supply pipe measured vertically above the overflow rim of the vessel and in no case less than 1 inch (2.54 cm), and in accord with Oregon Plumbing Specialty Code.

(7) "Approved Backflow Prevention Assembly" means a Reduced Pressure Principle Backflow Prevention Assembly, Reduced Pressure Principle-Detector Backflow Prevention Assembly, Double Check Valve Backflow Prevention Assembly, Double Check-Detector Backflow Prevention Assembly, Pressure Vacuum Breaker Backsiphonage Prevention Assembly, or Spill-Resistant Pressure Vacuum Breaker Backsiphonage Prevention Assembly, of a make, model, orientation, and size approved by the Authority. Assemblies listed in the currently approved backflow prevention assemblies list developed by the University of Southern California, Foundation for Cross-Connection Control and Hydraulic Research, or other testing laboratories using equivalent testing methods, are considered approved by the Authority.

(8) "Aquifer" means a water saturated and permeable geological formation, group of formations, or part of a formation that is capable of transmitting water in sufficient quantity to supply wells or springs.

(9) "Aquifer Parameter" means a characteristic of an aquifer, such as thickness, porosity or hydraulic conductivity.

(10) "Aquifer Test" means pumping a well in a manner that will provide information regarding the hydraulic characteristics of the aquifer.

(11) "Area of public health concern" means an area of the state with a confirmed presence of groundwater contaminants likely to cause adverse human health effects.

(12) "Atmospheric Vacuum Breaker (AVB)" means a non-testable device consisting of an air inlet valve or float check, a check seat and an air inlet port(s). This device is designed to protect against a non-health hazard or a health hazard under a backsiphonage condition only. Product and material approval is under the Oregon Plumbing Specialty Code.

(13) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(14) "Auxiliary Water Supply" means any supply of water used to augment the supply obtained from the public water system, which serves the premise in question.

(15) "Average Groundwater Velocity" means the average velocity at which groundwater moves through the aquifer as a function of hydraulic gradient, hydraulic conductivity and porosity.

(16) "AWWA" means the American Water Works Association.

(17) "Backflow" means the flow of water or other liquids, mixtures, or substances into the distributing pipes of a potable supply of water from any sources other than its intended source, and is caused by backsiphonage or backpressure.

(18) "Backflow Preventer" means a device, assembly or method to prevent backflow into the potable water system.

(19) "Backflow Prevention Assembly" means a backflow prevention assembly such as a Pressure Vacuum Breaker Backsiphonage Prevention Assembly, Spill-Resistant Pressure Vacuum Breaker Backsiphonage Prevention Assembly, Double Check Valve Backflow Prevention Assembly, Double Check-Detector Backflow Prevention Assembly, Reduced Pressure Principle Backflow Prevention Assembly, or Reduced Pressure Principle-Detector Backflow Prevention Assembly and the attached shutoff valves on the inlet and outlet ends of the assembly, assembled as a complete unit.

(20) "Backpressure" means an elevation of pressure downstream of the distribution system that would cause, or tend to cause, water to flow opposite of its intended direction.

(21) "Backsiphonage" means a drop in distribution system pressure below atmospheric pressure (partial vacuum), that would cause, or tend to cause, water to flow opposite of its intended direction.

(22) "Bag filter" means a pressure-driven separation device that removes particulate matter larger than one micrometer using an engineered porous filtration media. It is typically constructed of a non-rigid, fabric filtration media housed in a pressure vessel in which the direction of flow is from the inside of the bag to the outside.

(23) "Bank Filtration" means a water treatment process that uses a horizontal or vertical well to recover surface water that has naturally infiltrated into groundwater through a river bed or bank(s). Infiltration is typically enhanced by the hydraulic gradient imposed by a nearby pumping water supply.

(24) "Best Available Technology" or "BAT" means the best technology, treatment techniques, or other means which the EPA finds, after examination for efficacy under field conditions and not solely under laboratory conditions, are available (taking cost into consideration).

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(25) "Bore-Sighted Drain to Daylight" means an unrestricted straight-line opening in an enclosure that vents to grade, and is sized and constructed to adequately drain the full flow discharge from a reduced pressure principle backflow prevention assembly thus preventing any potential for surmersion of the assembly.

(26) "Bottled Water" means potable water from a source approved by the Authority for domestic use which is placed in small, easily transportable containers.

(27) "Calculated Fixed Radius" means a technique to delineate a well-head protection area, based on the determination of the volume of the aquifer needed to supply groundwater to a well over a given length of time.

(28) "Cartridge filter" means a pressure-driven separation device that removes particulate matter larger than one micrometer using an engineered porous filtration media. It is typically constructed of rigid or semi-rigid, self-supporting filter elements housed in a pressure vessel in which flow is from the outside of the cartridge to the inside.

(29) "Certificate," for the purposes of OAR 333-061-0210 through 0295, means a certificate of competency issued by the Authority stating that the operator meets the requirements for a specific operator classification and level.

(30) "CFR" means the Code of Federal Regulations. Specifically, it refers to those sections of the code which deal with the National Primary and Secondary Drinking Water Regulations.

(31) "Check Valve" means a valve, which allows flow in only one direction.

(32) "Coagulation" means a process using coagulant chemicals and mixing by which colloidal and suspended materials are destabilized and agglomerated into floc.

(33) "Coliform-Positive" means the presence of coliform bacteria in a water sample.

(34) "Combined distribution system" means the interconnected distribution system consisting of the distribution systems of wholesale water systems and of the purchasing water systems that receive finished water.

(35) "Community Water System" means a public water system that has 15 or more service connections used by year-round residents, or that regularly serves 25 or more year-round residents.

(36) "Compliance Cycle" means the nine-year calendar year cycle during which public water systems must monitor. Each compliance cycle consists of three three-year compliance periods. The first calendar year cycle begins January 1, 1993 and ends December 31, 2001.

(37) "Compliance Period" means a three-year calendar year period within a compliance cycle. Each compliance cycle has three three-year compliance periods. Within the first compliance cycle, the first compliance period runs from January 1, 1993 to December 31, 1995; the second from January 1, 1996 to December 31, 1998; and the third from January 1, 1999 to December 31, 2001.

(38) "Comprehensive performance evaluation (CPE)" means a thorough review and analysis of a treatment plant's performance-based capabilities and associated administrative, operation and maintenance practices. It is conducted to identify factors that may be adversely impacting a plant's capability to achieve compliance and emphasizes approaches that can be implemented without significant capital improvements. The CPE must consist of at least the following components: Assessment of plant performance; evaluations of major unit processes; identification and prioritization of performance limiting factors; assessment of the applicability of comprehensive technical assistance; and preparation of a CPE report.

(39) "Conceptual Model" means a three-dimensional representation of the groundwater system, including the location and extent of the hydrogeologic units, areas of recharge and discharge, hydrogeologic boundaries and hydraulic gradient.

(40) "Confined Well" means a well completed in a confined aquifer. More specifically, it is a well which produces water from a formation that is overlain by an impermeable material of extensive area. This well shall be constructed according to OAR chapter 690, division 200 "Well Construction and Maintenance" standards.

(41) "Confluent Growth" means a continuous bacterial growth covering the entire filtration area of a membrane filter, or a portion thereof, in which bacterial colonies are not discrete.

(42) "Constructed Conveyance" means any human-made conduit such as ditches, culverts, waterways, flumes, mine drains, canals or any human-altered natural water bodies or waterways as determined by the Authority.

(43) "Contaminant" means any physical, chemical, biological, or radiological substance or matter in water that creates a health hazard.

(44) "Contingency Plan" means a document setting out an organized, planned and coordinated course of action to be followed in the event of a loss of capacity to supply water to the distribution system or in case of a fire, explosion or release of hazardous waste which could threaten human health or the environment.

(45) "Continuing Education Unit (CEU)" means a nationally recognized unit of measurement for assigning credits for education or training that provides the participant with advanced or post high school learning. One CEU is awarded for every 10 classroom hours of lecture or the equivalent of participation in an organized education experience, conducted under responsible sponsorship, capable direction and qualified instruction as determined by the Authority or its designee.

(46) "Conventional Filtration Treatment Plant" means a water treatment plant using conventional or direct filtration to treat surface water or groundwater under the direct influence of surface water.

(47) "Corrosion Inhibitor" means a substance capable of reducing the corrosivity of water toward metal plumbing materials, especially lead and copper, by forming a protective film on the interior surface of those materials.

(48) "Cross Connection" means any actual or potential unprotected connection or structural arrangement between the public or user's potable water system and any other source or system through which it is possible to introduce into any part of the potable system any used water, industrial fluid, gas, or substances other than the intended potable water with which the system is supplied. Bypass arrangements, jumper connections, removable sections, swivel, or change-over devices, and other temporary or permanent devices through which, or because of which, backflow can occur are considered to be cross connections.

(49) "CT" means the product of the residual disinfectant concentration "C" (measured in mg/l) and disinfectant contact time(s), "T" (measured in minutes).

(50) "Degree of Hazard" means either pollution (non-health hazard) or contamination (health hazard) and is determined by an evaluation of hazardous conditions within a system.

(51) "Delineation" means the determination of the extent, orientation and boundaries of a wellhead protection area using factors such as geology, aquifer characteristics, well pumping rates and time of travel.

(52) "Demonstration Study" means a series of tests performed to prove an overall effective removal and/or inactivation rate of a pathogenic organism through a treatment or disinfection process.

(53) "Direct Responsible Charge (DRC)" means an individual designated by the owner or authorized agent to make decisions regarding the daily operational activities of a public water system, water treatment facility and/or distribution system, that will directly impact the quality or quantity of drinking water.

(54) "Discharge" means the volume rate of loss of groundwater from the aquifer through wells, springs or to surface water.

(55) "Disinfectant Contact Time" means the time in minutes that it takes for water to move from the point of disinfectant application or the previous point of disinfection residual measurement to a point before or at the point where residual disinfectant concentration is measured.

(56) "Disinfectant Residual Maintenance" means a process where public water systems add chlorine (or other chemical oxidant) for the purpose of maintaining a disinfectant residual in the distribution system, when the source(s) is not at risk of microbial contamination.

(57) "Disinfection" means a process which inactivates pathogenic organisms in water by chemical oxidants or equivalent agents.

(58) "Disinfection profile" means a summary of Giardia lamblia inactivation through the treatment plant.

(59) "Distribution System" means the network of pipes and other facilities, which are used to distribute water from the source, treatment, transmission, or storage facilities to the water user.

(60) "Domestic" means provided for human consumption.

(61) "Domestic or other non-distribution system plumbing problem" means a coliform contamination problem in a public water system with more than one service connection that is limited to the specific service connection from which the coliform-positive sample was taken.

(62) "Dose Equivalent" means the product of the absorbed dose from ionizing radiation and such factors as account for differences in biological effectiveness due to the type of radiation and its distribution in the body as specified by the International Commission on Radiological Units and Measurements (ICRU).

(63) "Double Check-Detector Backflow Prevention Assembly (DCDA)" means a specially designed assembly composed of a line size approved double check valve assembly assembled with a bypass containing a specific water meter and an approved double check valve assembly. The meter shall register accurately for only very low rates of flow up to three gallons per minute and shall show a registration for all rates of flow. This assembly is designed to protect against a non-health hazard.

(64) "Double Check Valve Backflow Prevention Assembly (DC)" means an assembly of two independently acting approved check valves, including tightly closing resilient seated shutoff valves attached at each end of the assembly and fitted with properly located resilient seated test cocks. This assembly is designed to protect against a non-health hazard.

(65) "Drawdown" means the difference, measured vertically, between the static water level in the well and the water level during pumping.

(66) "Drinking Water Protection" means implementing strategies within a drinking water protection area to minimize the potential impact of contaminant sources on the quality of water being used as a drinking water source by a Public Water System.

(67) "Drinking Water Protection Area (DWPA)" means the source area supplying drinking water to a Public Water System. For a surface water-supplied drinking water source the DWPA is all or a specifically determined part of a lake's, reservoir's or stream's watershed that has been certified by the Department of Environmental Quality. For a groundwater-supplied drinking water source the DWPA is the area on the surface that directly overlies that part of the aquifer that supplies groundwater to a well, well field or spring that has been certified by the Authority.

(68) "Drinking Water Protection Plan" means a plan, certified by the Department of Environmental Quality according to OAR 340-040-0160 to 340-040-0180, which identifies the actions to be taken at the local level to protect a specifically defined and certified drinking water protection area. The plan is developed by the local Responsible Management Authority and/or team and includes a written description of each element, public participation efforts, and an implementation schedule.

(69) "Dual sample set" means a set of two samples collected at the same time and same location, with one sample analyzed for TTHM and the other for HAA5. Dual sample sets are collected for the purposes of conducting an Initial Distribution System Evaluation (IDSE) as prescribed in 333-061-0036(4)(b) of these rules, and for determining compliance with the maximum contaminant levels for TTHM and HAA5 listed in OAR 333-061-0030(2)(b).

(70) "Effective Corrosion Inhibitor Residual" means a concentration sufficient to form a passivating film on the interior walls of a pipe.

(71) "Effective Porosity" means the ratio of the volume of interconnected voids (openings) in a geological formation to the overall volume of the material.

(72) "Element" means one of seven objectives considered by the U.S. EPA as the minimum required components in any state wellhead protection program: specification of duties, delineation of the wellhead protection area, inventory of potential contaminant sources, specification of management approaches, development of contingency plans, addressing new (future) wells, and ensuring public participation.

(73) "Emergency" means a condition resulting from an unusual calamity such as a flood, storm, earthquake, drought, civil disorder, volcanic eruption, an accidental spill of hazardous material, or other occurrence which disrupts water service at a public water system or endangers the quality of water produced by a public water system.

(74) "Emergency Response Plan" means a written document establishing contacts, operating procedures, and actions taken for a public water system to minimize the impact or potential impact of a natural disaster, accident, or intentional act which disrupts or damages, or potentially disrupts or potentially damages the public water system or drinking water supply, and returns the public water system to normal operating condition.

(75) "Enhanced coagulation" means the addition of sufficient coagulant for improved removal of disinfection byproduct precursors by conventional filtration treatment.

(76) "Enhanced softening" means the improved removal of disinfection byproduct precursors by precipitative softening.

(77) "EPA" means the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

(78) "Filter profile" means a graphical representation of individual filter performance, based on continuous turbidity measurements or total particle counts versus time for an entire filter run, from start-up to backwash inclusively, that includes an assessment of filter performance while another filter is being backwashed.

(79) "Filtration" means a process for removing particulate matter from water through porous media.

(a) "Conventional Filtration Treatment" means a series of processes including coagulation (requiring the use of a primary coagulant and rapid mix), flocculation, sedimentation, and filtration resulting in substantial particulate removal.

(b) "Direct Filtration Treatment" means a series of processes including coagulation (requiring the use of a primary coagulant and rapid mix) and filtration but excluding sedimentation resulting in substantial particulate removal.

(c) "Slow Sand Filtration" means a treatment process involving passage of raw water through a bed of sand at low velocity (generally less than 235 gallons per square foot per day) resulting in substantial particulate removal by physical and biological mechanisms.

(d) "Diatomaceous Earth Filtration" means a process resulting in substantial particulate removal in which:

(A) A precoat cake of diatomaceous earth filter media is deposited on a support membrane (septum); and

(B) While the water is filtered by passing through the cake on the septum, additional filter media, known as body feed, is continuously added to the feed water, in order to maintain the permeability of the filter cake.

(80) "Filtration Endorsement" means a special provision added to a Water Treatment Operator's certification that includes experience in and knowledge of the operational decision making at a Conventional or Direct Filtration Treatment Plant.

(81) "Finished water" means water that is introduced into the distribution system of a public water system and intended for distribution and consumption without further treatment, except as necessary to maintain water quality in the distribution system such as booster disinfection or the addition of corrosion control chemicals.

(82) "First Customer" means the initial service connection or tap on a public water supply after any treatment processes.

(83) "First Draw Sample" means a one-liter sample of tap water that has been standing in plumbing pipes at least 6 hours and is collected without flushing the tap.

(84) "Flocculation" means a process to enhance agglomeration or collection of smaller floc particles into larger, more easily settleable particles through gentle stirring by hydraulic or mechanical means.

(85) "Flowing stream" means a course of running water flowing in a definite channel.

(86) "Future Groundwater Sources" means wells and/or springs that may be required by the public water system in the future to meet the needs of the system.

(87) "GAC 10" means granular activated carbon filter beds with an empty-bed contact time of 10 minutes based on average daily flow and a carbon reactivation frequency of every 180 days, except that the reactivation frequency for GAC10 used as a best available technology for compliance with OAR 333-061-0030(2)(b) shall be 120 days.

(88) "GAC 20" means granular activated carbon filter beds with an empty-bed contact time of 20 minutes based on average daily flow and a carbon reactivation frequency of every 240 days.

(89) "Gross Alpha Particle Activity" means the total radioactivity due to alpha particle emission as inferred from measurements on a dry sample.

(90) "Gross Beta Particle Activity" means the total radioactivity due to beta particle emission as inferred from measurements on a dry sample.

(91) "Groundwater" means any water, except capillary moisture, beneath the land surface or beneath the bed of any stream, lake, reservoir or other body of surface water within the boundaries of this state, whatever may be the geologic formation or structure in which such water stands, flows, percolates or otherwise moves.

(92) "Groundwater System" means any public water system that uses groundwater, including purchasing water systems that receive finished groundwater, but excluding public water systems that combine all of their groundwater with surface water or groundwater under the direct influence of surface water prior to treatment.

(93) "Groundwater under the direct influence of surface water (GWUDI)" means any water beneath the surface of the ground with significant occurrence of insects or other macro-organisms, algae or large-diameter pathogens such as Giardia lamblia or Cryptosporidium, or significant and relatively rapid shifts in water characteristics such as turbidity, temperature, conductivity, or pH which closely correlate to climatological or surface water conditions.

(94) "Haloacetic acids (five) (HAA5)" mean the sum of the concentrations in milligrams per liter of the haloacetic acid compounds (monochloroacetic acid, dichloroacetic acid, trichloroacetic acid, monobromoacetic acid and dibromoacetic acid), rounded to two significant figures after addition.

(95) "Hauled Water" means water for human consumption transported from a Public Water System in a manner approved by the Authority.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(96) "Health Hazard (Contamination)" means an impairment of the quality of the water that could create an actual hazard to the public health through poisoning or through the spread of disease by sewage, industrial fluids, waste, or other substances.

(97) "Human Consumption" means water used for drinking, personal hygiene bathing, showering, cooking, dishwashing, and maintaining oral hygiene.

(98) "Hydraulic Conductivity" means the capacity of the medium, e.g., soil, aquifer, or any hydrogeological unit of interest, to transmit water.

(99) "Hydraulic Connection" refers to a well, spring or other groundwater collection system in which it has been determined that part of the water supplied by the collection system is derived, either naturally or induced, from a surface water source.

(100) "Hydraulic Gradient" means the slope of the water table or potentiometric surface, calculated by dividing the change in hydraulic head between two points by the horizontal distance between the points in the direction of groundwater flow.

(101) "Hydraulic Head" means the energy possessed by the water mass at a given point, related to the height above the datum plane that water resides in a well drilled to that point. In a groundwater system, the hydraulic head is composed of elevation head and pressure head.

(102) "Hydrogeologic Boundary" means physical features that bound and control direction of groundwater flow in a groundwater system. Boundaries may be in the form of a constant head, e.g. streams, or represent barriers to flow, e.g. groundwater divides and impermeable geologic barriers.

(103) "Hydrogeologic Mapping" means characterizing hydrogeologic features (e.g. hydrogeologic units, hydrogeologic boundaries, etc.) within an area and determining their location, areal extent and relationship to one another.

(104) "Hydrogeologic Unit" means a geologic formation, group of formations, or part of a formation that has consistent and definable hydraulic properties.

(105) "Impermeable Material" means a material that limits the passage of water.

(106) "Impounding Reservoir" means an uncovered body of water formed behind a dam across a river or stream, and in which water is stored.

(107) "Infiltration Gallery" means a system of perforated pipes laid along the banks or under the bed of a stream or lake installed for the purpose of collecting water from the formation beneath the stream or lake.

(108) "Initial Compliance Period" means the 1993-95 three-year compliance period for systems with 150 or more service connections and the 1996-98 three-year compliance period for systems having fewer than 150 service connections for the contaminants prescribed in OAR 333-061-0036(2)(a)(A)(v), 333-061-0036(3)(a)(K) and (3)(b)(O).

(109) "Interfering Wells" means wells that, because of their proximity and pumping characteristics, and as a result of the aquifer's hydraulic properties, produce drawdown cones that overlap during simultaneous pumping. The result is a lowering of the pumping level in each well below what it would be if that well were pumping by itself.

(110) "Inventory of Potential Contaminant Sources" means the reconnaissance level location of land use activities within the Drinking Water Protection Area that as a category have been associated with groundwater or surface water contamination in Oregon and elsewhere in the United States.

(111) "Lake/reservoir" means a natural or man-made basin or hollow on the Earth's surface in which water collects or is stored that may or may not have a current or single direction of flow.

(112) "Lead Free" when used with respect to solders and flux shall mean solders and flux containing not more than 0.2 percent lead, and when used with respect to pipes and fittings shall mean pipes and fittings containing not more than 8.0 percent lead. When used with respect to plumbing fittings and fixtures intended for dispensing water for human consumption shall mean in compliance with standards established in accordance with 42 U.S.C. 300g-6(e) and ANSI/NSF standard 61, section 9.

(113) "Lead Service Line" means a service line made of lead, which connects the water main to the building inlet and any pigtail, gooseneck or other fitting, which is connected to such lead line.

(114) "Legionella" means a genus of bacteria, some species of which have caused a type of pneumonia called Legionnaires Disease.

(115) "Local Administrative Authority" means the individual official, board, department or agency established and authorized by a state, county or city to administer and enforce the provisions of the Oregon State Plumbing Specialty Code adopted under OAR 918-750-0110.

(116) "Locational running annual average (LRAA)" means the arithmetic average of analytical results for samples taken at a specific monitoring location during the previous four calendar quarters.

(117) "Major Additions or Modifications" means changes of considerable extent or complexity including, but not limited to, projects involving water sources, treatment facilities, facilities for continuous disinfection, finished water storage, pumping facilities, transmission mains, and distribution mains, except main replacements of the same length and diameter.

(118) "Man-made Beta Particle and Photon Emitters" means all radionuclides emitting beta particles and/or photons listed in Maximum Permissible Body Burdens and Maximum Permissible Concentration of Radionuclides in Air or Water for Occupational Exposure, NBS Handbook 69, except the daughter products of Thorium-232, Uranium-235 and Uranium-238.

(119) "Master Plan" means an overall plan, which shows the projected development of a distribution system and alternatives for source development.

(120) "Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL)" means the maximum allowable level of a contaminant in water delivered to the user's of a public water system, except in the case of turbidity where the maximum allowable level is measured at the point of entry to the distribution system.

(121) "Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level (MRDL)" means a level of a disinfectant added for water treatment that may not be exceeded at the consumer's tap without an unacceptable possibility of adverse health effects.

(122) "Membrane filtration" means a pressure or vacuum driven separation process in which particulate matter larger than one micrometer is rejected by an engineered barrier, primarily through a size-exclusion mechanism, and which has a measurable removal efficiency of a target organism that can be verified through the application of a direct integrity test. This definition includes the common membrane technologies of microfiltration, ultrafiltration, nanofiltration, and reverse osmosis.

(123) "Multi-purpose Piping System" means a piping system within residential dwellings intended to serve both domestic and fire protection needs. This type of system is considered part of a potable water system.

(124) "New Groundwater Sources" means additional or modified wells and/or springs owned by the Public Water System.

(125) "Non-Health Hazard (Pollution)" means an impairment of the quality of the water to a degree that does not create a hazard to the public health, but does adversely affect the aesthetic qualities of such water for potable use.

(126) "Non-Transient Non-Community Water System (NTNC)" means a public water system that is not a Community Water System and that regularly serves at least 25 of the same persons over 6 months per year.

(127) "Open Interval" means in a cased well, the sum of the length(s) of the screened or perforated zone(s) and in an uncased (open-hole) well, the sum of the thickness(es) of the water-bearing zones or, if undeterminable, 10 percent of the length of the open hole.

(128) "Operating Experience" means the routine performance of duties, tasks, and responsibilities at a drinking water system or in a related field as allowed under OAR 333-061-0245(6)(b).

(129) "Operational Decision Making" means having responsibility for making decisions among the alternatives in the performance of the water treatment plant or the water distribution system regarding water quality or quantity which affect public health.

(130) "Operator," for the purposes of OAR 333-061-0210 through 0295, means an individual with responsibilities that directly impact the quality of drinking water including individuals making process control or system integrity decisions about water quality or quantity that affect public health. This term does not include officials, managers, engineers, directors of public works, or equivalent whose duties do not include the actual "hands-on" operation or supervision on-site of water system facilities or operators.

(131) "Optimal Corrosion Control Treatment" means the corrosion control treatment that minimizes the lead and copper concentrations at users' taps while insuring that the treatment does not cause the water system to violate any national primary drinking water regulations.

(132) "Pathogenic" means a specific agent (bacterium, virus or parasite) causing or capable of causing disease.

(133) "Peak Daily Demand" means the maximum rate of water use, expressed in gallons per day, over the 24-hour period of heaviest consumption.

(134) "Permit" means official permission granted by the Authority for a public water system which exceeds maximum contaminant levels to delay, because of economic or other compelling factors, the installation of water treatment facilities which are necessary to produce water which does not exceed maximum contaminant levels.

(135) "Person" means any individual, corporation, association, firm, partnership, municipal, state or federal agency, or joint stock company and includes any receiver, special master, trustee, assignee, or other similar representative thereof.

(136) "Picocurie (pCi)" means that quantity of radioactive material producing 2.22 nuclear transformations per minute.

(137) "Pilot Study" means the construction and operation of a scaled down treatment system during a given period of time to determine the feasibility a full-scale treatment facility.

(138) "Plant intake" means the works or structures at the head of a conduit through which water is diverted from a source, such as a river or lake, into a treatment plant.

(139) "Plug Flow" means movement of water in a pipe such that particles pass through the pipe and are discharged in the same sequence in which they entered.

(140) "Point of Delivery (POD)" means the point of connection between a public water system and the user's water system. Beyond the point of delivery, the Oregon Plumbing Specialty Code applies. See "Service Connection."

(141) "Point of Disinfectant Application" is the point where the disinfectant is applied and water downstream of that point is not subject to recontamination by surface water runoff.

(142) "Point-of-Entry Treatment Device" is a treatment device applied to the drinking water entering a house or building for the purpose of reducing contaminants in the drinking water distributed throughout the house or building.

(143) "Point-of-Use Treatment Device" is a treatment device applied to a single tap used for the purpose of reducing contaminants in drinking water at that one tap.

(144) "Pollutant" means a substance that creates an impairment of the quality of the water to a degree which does not create a hazard to the public health, but which does adversely affect the aesthetic qualities of the water.

(145) "Porous Media Assumption" means the assumption that groundwater moves in the aquifer as if the aquifer were granular in character, i.e. moves directly down-gradient, and the velocity of the groundwater can be described by Darcy's Law.

(146) "Post High School Education" means that education acquired through programs such as short schools, bona fide correspondence courses, trade schools, colleges, universities, formalized workshops or seminars that are acceptable to the Authority and for which college or continuing education credit is issued by the training sponsor.

(147) "Potable Water" See Safe Drinking Water.

(148) "Potential Contaminant Source Inventory" means the determination of the location within the wellhead protection area of activities known to use or produce materials that can contaminate groundwater.

(149) "Potential Cross Connection" means a cross connection that would most likely occur, but may not be taking place at the time of an inspection.

(150) "Potentiometric Surface" means a surface that denotes the variation of hydraulic head in the given aquifer across an area.

(151) "Premise" means real estate and the structures on it.

(152) "Premise Isolation" means the practice of protecting the public water supply from contamination or pollution by installing backflow prevention assemblies at, or near, the point of delivery where the water supply enters the premise. Premise isolation does not guarantee protection to persons on the premise.

(153) "Presedimentation" means a preliminary treatment process used to remove gravel, sand and other particulate material from the source water through settling before the water enters the primary clarification and filtration processes in a treatment plant.

(154) "Pressure Vacuum Breaker Backsiphonage Prevention Assembly (PVB)" means an assembly consisting of an independently operating, internally loaded check valve and an independently operating loaded air inlet valve located on the discharge side of the check valve. This assembly is to be equipped with properly located resilient seated test cocks and tightly closing resilient seated shutoff valves attached at each end of the assembly. This assembly is designed to protect against a non-health hazard or a health hazard under backsiphonage conditions only.

(155) "Provisional Delineation" means approximating the wellhead protection area for a well by using the wellhead protection area from another well in the same hydrogeologic setting or by using generalized values for the aquifer characteristics to generate an approximate wellhead protection area for the well. Used only for the purpose of evaluating potential siting of new or future groundwater sources. Not an acceptable way to formally delineate a wellhead protection area.

(156) "Public Health Hazard" means a condition, device or practice which is conducive to the introduction of waterborne disease organisms, or harmful chemical, physical, or radioactive substances into a public water system, and which presents an unreasonable risk to health.

(157) "Public Water System" means a system for the provision to the public of piped water for human consumption, if such system has more than three service connections, or supplies water to a public or commercial establishment that operates a total of at least 60 days per year, and that is used by 10 or more individuals per day. Public water system also means a system for the provision to the public of water through constructed conveyances other than pipes to at least 15 service connections or regularly serves at least 25 individuals daily at least 60 days of the year. A public water system is either a "Community Water System," a "Transient Non-Community Water System," a "Non-Transient Non-Community Water System" or a "State Regulated Water System."

(158) "Purchasing Water System" means a public water system which obtains its water in whole or in part from another public water system. Delivery may be through a direct connection or through the distribution system of one or more purchasing water systems.

(159) "Recharge" means the process by which water is added to a zone of saturation, usually by downward infiltration from the surface.

(160) "Recharge Area" means a land area in which water percolates to the zone of saturation through infiltration from the surface.

(161) "Recovery" means the rise in water level in a well from the pumping level towards the original static water level after pumping has been discontinued.

(162) "Reduced Pressure Principle Backflow Prevention Assembly (RP)" means an assembly containing two independently acting approved check valves, together with a hydraulically operating, mechanically independent pressure differential relief valve located between the check valves and at the same time below the first check valve. The unit shall include properly located resilient seated test cocks and tightly closing resilient seated shutoff valves at each end of the assembly. This assembly is designed to protect against a non-health hazard or a health hazard.

(163) "Reduced Pressure Principle-Detector Backflow Prevention Assembly (RPDA)" means a specifically designed assembly composed of a line size approved reduced pressure principle backflow prevention assembly with a bypass containing a specific water meter and an approved reduced pressure principle backflow prevention assembly. The meter shall register accurately for only very low rates of flow up to three gallons per minute and shall show a registration for all rates of flow. This assembly is designed to protect against a non-health hazard or a health hazard.

(164) "Rem" means the unit of dose equivalent from ionizing radiation to the total body or any internal organ or organ system. A "millirem (mrem)" is 1/1000 of a rem.

(165) "Repeat Compliance Period" means any subsequent compliance period after the initial compliance period.

(166) "Residual disinfectant concentration" means the concentration of disinfectant measured in mg/l in a representative sample of water.

(167) "Responsible Management Authority" means the Public Water System whose water supply is being protected and any government entity having management, rule or ordinance-making authority to implement wellhead protection management strategies within the wellhead protection area. The Responsible Management Authority is responsible for implementation of the Wellhead Protection Plan and includes cities, counties, special districts, Indian tribes, state/federal entities as well as public water systems.

(168) "Safe Drinking Water" means water which has sufficiently low concentrations of microbiological, inorganic chemical, organic chemical, radiological or physical substances so that individuals drinking such water at normal levels of consumption, will not be exposed to disease organisms or other substances which may produce harmful physiological effects.

(169) "Sanitary Survey (Water System Survey)" means an on-site review of the water source(s), facilities, equipment, operation, maintenance and monitoring compliance of a public water system to evaluate the adequacy of the water system, its sources and operations in the distribution of safe drinking water. The sanitary survey also identifies sources of contamination by using the results of source water assessments where available.

(170) "Secondary Contaminant" means those contaminants, which, at the levels generally found in drinking water, do not present an unreasonable risk to health, but do:

- (a) Have adverse effects on the taste, odor and color of water;
- (b) Produce undesirable staining of plumbing fixtures; or

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) Interfere with treatment processes applied by water suppliers.

(171) "Secondary Maximum Contaminant Level (SMCL)" means the level of a secondary contaminant which when exceeded may adversely affect the aesthetic quality of the drinking water which thereby may deter public acceptance of drinking water provided by public water systems or may interfere with water treatment methods.

(172) "Sedimentation" means a process for removal of solids before filtration by gravity or separation.

(173) "Seller's Designee" means the person assigned by the seller to complete the necessary paperwork and submit the lab results to the Authority and can be the seller's attorney, real estate agent or broker, the person conducting the tests or a private party.

(174) "Sensitivity" means the intrinsic characteristics of a drinking water source such as depth to the aquifer for groundwater or highly erodible soils in a watershed that increase the potential for contamination to take place if a contaminant source is present.

(175) "Service Connection" means the piping connection by means of which water is conveyed from a distribution main of a public water system to a user's premise. For a community water system, the portion of the service connection that conveys water from the distribution main to the user's property line, or to the service meter, where provided, is under the jurisdiction of the water supplier.

(176) "Significant Deficiency" means a defect in design, operation, or maintenance, or a malfunction of the source(s), treatment, storage, or distribution system that has been determined to cause or have the potential for causing the introduction of contamination into the water delivered to consumers.

(177) "Single Connection System" means a public water system serving only one installation, such as a restaurant, campground or place of employment.

(178) "Single Family Structure" means a building constructed as a single-family residence that is currently used as either a residence or a place of business.

(179) "Small Water System," for the purposes of OAR 333-061-0210 through 0295, means a community or non-transient non-community water system serving fewer than 150 connections and either uses groundwater as its only source or purchases its water from another public water system without adding any additional treatment.

(180) "Source Water Assessment" means the information compiled by the Authority and the Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ), consisting of the delineation, inventory and susceptibility analyses of the drinking water source, which enable public water systems to develop and implement drinking water protection plans.

(181) "Specific Ultraviolet Absorption (SUVA) at 254 nanometers" means an indicator of the humic content of water as a calculated parameter obtained by dividing a sample's ultraviolet absorption at a wavelength of 254 nanometers (UV254) by its concentration of dissolved organic carbon (DOC) (in milligrams per liter).

(182) "Spill Resistant Pressure Vacuum Breaker Backsiphonage Prevention Assembly (SVB)" means an assembly containing an independently operating, internally loaded check valve and independently operating loaded air inlet valve located on the discharge side of the check valve. The assembly is to be equipped with a properly located resilient seated test cock, a properly located bleed/vent valve, and tightly closing resilient seated shutoff valves attached at each end of the assembly. This assembly is designed to protect against a non-health hazard or a health hazard under a backsiphonage condition only.

(183) "Spring" means a naturally occurring discharge of flowing water at the ground surface, or into surface water where the flow of water is the result of gravity or artesian pressure. Springs can be derived from groundwater or they can be surface water influenced.

(184) "Stand-alone Fire Suppression System" means a piping system within a premise intended to only serve as a fire protection system separated from the potable water system.

(185) "State Regulated Water System" means a public water system, which serves 4 to 14 service connections or serves 10 to 24 people. Monitoring requirements for these systems are the same as those for Transient Non-Community water systems.

(186) "Static Water Level" means the vertical distance from ground surface to the water level in the well when the well is at rest, i.e., the well has not been pumped recently and the water level is stable. This is the natural level of water in the well.

(187) "Submeter" means a water meter by which a property owner (or association of property owners) meters individual water use after the water passes through a master meter. For the purposes of OAR 333-061-0010, submetering does not constitute applying a direct charge for water or directly selling water to a person.

(188) "Surface Water" means all water, which is open to the atmosphere and subject to surface runoff.

(189) "Susceptibility" means the potential, as a result of the combination of land use activities and source water sensitivity that contamination of the drinking water source may occur.

(190) "Team" means the local Wellhead Protection team, which includes representatives from the Responsible Management Authorities and various interests and stakeholders potentially affected by the Wellhead Protection Plan.

(191) "Thermal Expansion" means the pressure increase due to a rise in water temperature that occurs in water piping systems when such systems become "closed" by the installation of a backflow prevention assembly or other means, and will not allow for expansion beyond that point of installation.

(192) "These Rules" means the Oregon Administrative Rules encompassed by OAR 333-061-0005 through 333-061-0335.

(193) "Time-of-Travel (TOT)" means the amount of time it takes groundwater to flow to a given well. The criterion that effectively determines the radius in the calculated fixed radius method and the up-gradient distance to be used for the analytical and numerical models during delineation of the wellhead protection area.

(194) "Too Numerous To Count (TNTC)" means that the total number of bacterial colonies exceeds 200 on a 47 mm diameter membrane filter used for coliform bacteria detection.

(195) "Total Organic Carbon (TOC)" means total organic carbon in milligrams per liter measured using heat, oxygen, ultraviolet irradiation, chemical oxidants, or combinations of these oxidants that convert organic carbon to carbon dioxide, rounded to two significant figures.

(196) "Total Trihalomethanes (TTHM)" means the sum of the concentrations in milligrams per liter of the trihalomethane compounds bromodichloromethane, dibromochloromethane, tribromomethane (bromofrom) and trichloromethane (chlorofrom), rounded to two significant figures after addition.

(197) "Transient Non-Community Water System (TNC)" means a public water system that serves a transient population of 25 or more persons.

(198) "Turbidity" means a measure of the cloudiness of water caused by suspended particles. The units of measure for turbidity are nephelometric turbidity units (NTU).

(199) "Two-stage lime softening" means a process in which a chemical addition and hardness precipitation occur in each of two distinct unit clarification processes in series prior to filtration.

(200) "Unconfined Well" means a well completed in an unconfined aquifer. More specifically, a well which produces water from a formation that is not overlying by impermeable material. This well shall be constructed according to OAR chapter 690, division 200 "Well Construction and Maintenance" standards.

(201) "Uncovered finished water storage facility" means a tank, reservoir, or other facility used to store water that will undergo no further treatment to reduce microbial pathogens except residual disinfection and is directly open to the atmosphere.

(202) "University of Southern California, Foundation for Cross-Connection Control and Hydraulic Research (USC FCCCHR)" is an agency that conducts laboratory and field tests to evaluate and grant "Certificates of Approval" to backflow prevention assemblies meeting approved standards.

(203) "Vadose Zone" means the zone between the ground surface and the water table where the available open spaces between soil and sediment particles, in rock fractures, etc., are most filled with air.

(204) "Variance" means official permission granted by the Authority for public water systems to exceed maximum contaminant levels because the quality of the raw water is such that the best available treatment techniques are not capable of treating the water so that it complies with maximum contaminant levels, and there is no unreasonable risk to health.

(205) "Vault" means an approved enclosure above or below ground to house a backflow prevention assembly that complies with the local administrative authority having jurisdiction.

(206) "Virus" means a virus of fecal origin, which is infectious to humans by waterborne transmission.

(207) "Waiver" means official permission from the Authority for a public water system to deviate from the construction standards set forth in these rules.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(208) "Water-bearing Zone" means that part or parts of the aquifer encountered during drilling that yield(s) water to a well.

(209) "Waterborne disease outbreak" means the significant occurrence of acute infectious illness, epidemiologically associated with the ingestion of water from a public water system which is deficient in treatment, as determined by the Authority.

(210) "Water Source" means any lake, stream, spring, groundwater supply, impoundment or other source of water from which water is obtained for a public water system. In some cases, a public water system can be the source of supply for one or more other public water systems.

(211) "Water Supplier" means a person, group of persons, municipality, district, corporation or other entity, which owns or operates a public potable water system.

(212) "Water System" means a system for the provision of piped water for human consumption.

(213) "Water System Operations Manual" means a written document describing the actions and procedures necessary to operate and maintain the entire water system.

(214) "Water Table" means the upper surface of an unconfined aquifer, the surface of which is at atmospheric pressure and fluctuates seasonally. It is defined by the levels at which water stands in wells that penetrate the aquifer.

(215) "Water Treatment" means a process of altering water quality by physical or chemical means and may include domestic, industrial or commercial applications.

(216) "Well" means an artificial opening or artificially altered natural opening, however made, by which ground water is sought or through which ground water flows under natural pressure or is artificially withdrawn or injected, provided that this definition shall not include a natural spring, or wells drilled for the purpose of exploration or production of oil or gas.

(217) "Wellfield" means two or more drinking water wells, belonging to the same water system that are within 2,500 feet, or as determined by the Authority, and produce from the same and no other aquifer.

(218) "Wellhead Protection." See Drinking Water Protection.

(219) "Wellhead Protection Area (WHPA)." See Drinking Water Protection Area.

(220) "Wellhead Protection Plan." See Drinking Water Protection Plan.

(221) "Wholesale system" means a public water system that treats source water as necessary to produce finished water and then delivers some or all of that finished water to another public water system. Delivery may be through a direct connection or through the distribution system of one or more purchasing water systems.

333-100-0005

Definitions

The following definitions apply to OAR chapter 333 divisions 100, 102, 103, 106, 111, 116, 118, 119, and 120. Additional definitions used only in a certain division will be found in that division.

(1) "Absorbed dose" means the energy imparted by ionizing radiation per unit mass of irradiated material. The units of absorbed dose are the gray (Gy) and the rad.

(2) "Accelerator" means any machine capable of accelerating electrons, protons, deuterons, or other charged particles in a vacuum and of discharging the resultant particulate or other radiation into a medium at energies usually in excess of 1 MeV. For purposes of this definition, "particle accelerator" is an equivalent term.

(3) "Accelerator-produced material" means any material made radioactive by a particle accelerator.

(4) "Act" means Oregon Revised Statutes 453.605 through 453.807.

(5) "Activity" means the rate of disintegration or transformation or decay of radioactive material. The units of activity are the becquerel (Bq), defined as one disintegration per second, and the curie (Ci), defined as 3.7 x 10<sup>10</sup> disintegrations per second.

(6) "Adult" means an individual 18 or more years of age.

(7) "Agreement State" means any state with which the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission or the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission has entered into an effective agreement under subsection 274b. of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (73 Stat. 689).

(8) "Airborne radioactive material" means any radioactive material dispersed in the air in the form of dusts, fumes, particulates, mists, vapors, or gases.

(9) "Airborne radioactivity area" means a room, enclosure, or area in which airborne radioactive material, composed wholly or partly of licensed material, exist in concentrations:

(a) In excess of the derived air concentrations (DACs) specified in Appendix B, Table I, to 10 CFR Part 20.1001 to 20.2401; or

(b) To such a degree that an individual present in the area without respiratory protective equipment could exceed, during the hours an individual is present in a week, an intake of 0.6 percent of the annual limit on intake (ALI) or 12 DAC-hours.

(10) "ALARA" (acronym for "As Low As Reasonably Achievable") means making every reasonable effort to maintain exposures to radiation as far below the dose limits in this part as is practical consistent with the purpose for which the licensed activity is undertaken, taking into account the state of technology, the economics of improvements in relation to state of technology, the economics of improvements in relation to benefits to the public health and safety, and other societal and socioeconomic considerations, and in relation to utilization of nuclear energy and licensed materials in the public interest.

(11) "Alert" means events may occur, are in progress, or have occurred that could lead to a release of radioactive material but that the release is not expected to require a response by offsite response organizations to protect persons offsite.

(12) "Annual" means occurring every year or within a consecutive twelve month cycle.

(13) "Annual Limit on Intake" (ALI) means the derived limit for the amount of radioactive material taken into the body of an adult worker by inhalation or ingestion in a year. ALI is the smaller value of intake of a given radionuclide in a year by the Reference Man that would result in a committed effective dose equivalent of 0.05 Sv (5 rem) or a committed dose equivalent of 0.5 Sv (50 rem) to any individual organ or tissue. ALI values for intake by ingestion and by inhalation of selected radionuclides are given in Table I, Columns 1 and 2, of Appendix B to 10 CFR Part 20.1001 to 20.2401.

(14) "As Low As Reasonably Achievable" see "ALARA."

(15) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(16) "Background radiation" means radiation from cosmic sources; naturally occurring radioactive materials, including radon, except as a decay product of source or special nuclear material, and including global fallout as it exists in the environment from the testing of nuclear explosive devices or from past nuclear accidents such as Chernobyl that contribute to background radiation and are not under the control of the licensee. "Background radiation" does not include sources of radiation from radioactive or special nuclear materials regulated by the Authority.

(17) "Becquerel" (Bq) means the International System of Units (SI) unit of activity. One becquerel is equal to one disintegration or transformation per second (dps or tps).

(18) "Bioassay" means the determination of kinds, quantities or concentrations, and, in some cases, the locations, of radioactive material in the human body, whether by direct measurement (in vivo counting) or by analysis and evaluation of materials excreted or removed from the human body. For purposes of these rules, "radiobioassay" is an equivalent term.

(19) "Brachytherapy" means a method of radiation therapy in which sealed sources are utilized to deliver dose at a distance of up to a few centimeters, by surface, intracavitary, or interstitial application.

(20) "Byproduct material" means:

(a) Any radioactive material, except special nuclear material, yielded in, or made radioactive by, exposure to the radiation incident to the process of producing or utilizing special nuclear material; and

(b) The tailings or wastes produced by the extraction or concentration of uranium or thorium from any ore processed primarily for its source material content, including discrete surface wastes resulting from uranium solution extraction process. Underground ore bodies depleted by such solution extraction operations do not constitute "byproduct material" within this definition.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(21) "Calendar quarter" means not less than 12 consecutive weeks nor more than 14 consecutive weeks. The first calendar quarter of each year must begin in January and subsequent calendar quarters must be so arranged such that no day is included in more than one calendar quarter and no day in any one year is omitted from inclusion within a calendar quarter. No licensee or registrant may change the method observed for determining calendar quarters except at the beginning of a calendar year.

(22) "Calibration" means the determination of:

(a) The response or reading of an instrument relative to a series of known radiation values over the range of the instrument; or

(b) The strength of a source of radiation relative to a standard.

(23) "CFR" means Code of Federal Regulations.

(24) "Chelating agent" means amine polycarboxylic acids, hydroxycarboxylic acids, gluconic acid, and polycarboxylic acids.

(25) "Class" means a classification scheme for inhaled material according to its rate of clearance from the pulmonary region of the lung. For purposes of these rules, "lung class" or "inhalation class" are equivalent terms. Materials are classified as D, W, or Y, which applies to a range of clearance half-times:

(a) For Class D, Days, of less than 10 days;

(b) For Class W, Weeks, from 10 to 100 days; and

(c) For Class Y, Years, of greater than 100 days.

(26) "Clinical laboratory" means a laboratory licensed pursuant to ORS 438.110 through 438.140.

(27) "Collective dose" means the sum of the individual doses received in a given period of time by a specified population from exposure to a specified source of radiation.

(28) "Committed dose equivalent" (HT, 50) means the dose equivalent to organs or tissues of reference (T) that will be received from an intake of radioactive material by an individual during the 50-year period following the intake.

(29) "Committed effective dose equivalent" (HE, 50) is the sum of the products of the weighting factors applicable to each of the body organs or tissues that are irradiated and the committed dose equivalent to each of these organs or tissues (HE, 50 = WT, HT, 50).

(30) "Contamination" (Radioactive) means deposition or presence of radioactive material in any place where it is not desired, and particularly in any place where its presence can be harmful. The harm may be in compromising the validity of an experiment or a procedure, or in being a source of danger to persons. Contamination may be divided into two types: Fixed and removable. Removable contamination may be transferred easily from one object to another by light rubbing or by the use of weak solvents such as water or alcohol. Removable contamination is evaluated and recorded in units of microcuries or dpm. Fixed contamination is not easily transferred from one object to another and requires mechanical or strong chemicals to remove it from its current location. Fixed contamination is evaluated and recorded in units of mR/hr.

(31) "Curie" means a unit of quantity of radioactivity. One curie (Ci) is that quantity of radioactive material that decays at the rate of  $3.7 \times 10^{10}$  disintegrations or transformations per second (dps or tps).

(32) "Declared pregnant woman" means a woman who has voluntarily informed the licensee, in writing, of her pregnancy and the estimated date of conception. The declaration remains in effect until the declared pregnant woman withdraws the declaration in writing or is no longer pregnant.

(33) "Decommission" means to remove (as a facility) safely from service and reduce residual radioactivity to a level that permits:

(a) Release of the property for unrestricted use and termination of license; or

(b) Release of the property under restricted conditions and termination of the license.

(34) "Deep dose equivalent" (Hd) which applies to external whole body exposure, means the dose equivalent at a tissue depth of 1 centimeter (1000 mg/cm<sup>2</sup>).

(35) "Depleted uranium" means source material uranium in which the isotope uranium-235 is less than 0.711 weight percent of the total uranium present. Depleted uranium does not include special nuclear material.

(36) "Derived air concentration" (DAC) means the concentration of a given radionuclide in air which, if breathed by Reference Man for a working year of 2,000 hours under conditions of light work, results in an intake of one ALI. For purposes of these rules, the condition of light work is an inhalation rate of 1.2 cubic meters of air per hour for 2,000 hours in a year. DAC values are given in Table I, Column 3, of Appendix B to 10 CFR Part 20.1001 to 20.2401.

(37) "Derived air concentration-hour" (DAC-hour) means the product of the concentration of radioactive material in air, expressed as a fraction or multiple of the derived air concentration for each radionuclide, and the time of exposure to that radionuclide, in hours. A licensee may take 2,000 DAC-hours to represent one ALI, equivalent to a committed effective dose equivalent of 0.05 Sv (5 rem).

(38) "Dose" is a generic term that means absorbed dose, dose equivalent, effective dose equivalent, committed dose equivalent, committed effective dose equivalent, total organ dose equivalent, or total effective dose equivalent. For purposes of these rules, "radiation dose" is an equivalent term.

(39) "Dose equivalent" (HT) means the product of the absorbed dose in tissue, quality factor, and all other necessary modifying factors at the location of interest. The units of dose equivalent are the sievert (Sv) and rem (see "Rem"). (See OAR 333-100-0070(2) for SI equivalent sievert.)

(40) "Dose limits" means the permissible upper bounds of radiation doses established in accordance with these rules. For purposes of these rules, "limits" is an equivalent term.

(41) "Dosimetry processor" means an individual or an organization that processes and evaluates individual monitoring equipment in order to determine the radiation dose delivered to the equipment.

(42) "Effective dose equivalent" (HE) means the sum of the products of the dose equivalent to the organ or tissue (HT) and the weighting factor (WT) applicable to each of the body organs or tissues that are irradiated (HE = WT HT).

(43) "Electronic product" means any manufactured product or device or component part of such a product or device that is capable of generating or emitting electromagnetic or sonic radiation such as, but not limited to, X-rays, ultrasonic waves, microwaves, laser light or ultraviolet light.

(44) "Embryo/fetus" means the developing human organism from conception until the time of birth.

(45) "Entrance or access point" means any opening through which an individual or extremity of an individual could gain access to radiation areas or to licensed or registered radioactive materials. This includes entry or exit portals of sufficient size to permit human entry, irrespective of their intended use.

(46) "Exclusive use" (also referred to in other regulations as "sole use" or "full load") means the sole use of a conveyance by a single consignor and for which all initial, intermediate, and final loading and unloading are carried out in accordance with the direction of the consignor or consignee.

(47) "Explosive material" means any chemical compound, mixture, or device that produces a substantial instantaneous release of gas and heat spontaneously or by contact with sparks or flame.

(48) "Exposure" means:

(a) The quotient of dQ by dm where "dQ" is the absolute value of the total charge of the ions of one sign produced in air when all the electrons (negatrons and positrons) liberated by photons in a volume element of air having mass "dm" are completely stopped in air. The SI unit of exposure is the coulomb per kilogram.

(b) Being exposed to ionizing radiation or to radioactive material.

(49) "Exposure rate" means the exposure per unit of time, such as roentgen per minute and milliroentgen per hour.

(50) "External dose" means that portion of the dose equivalent received from any source of radiation outside the body.

(51) "Extremity" means hand, elbow, arm below the elbow, foot, knee, or leg below the knee.

(52) "Eye dose equivalent" means the external dose equivalent to the lens of the eye at a tissue depth of 0.3 centimeter (300 mg/cm<sup>2</sup>).

(53) "Fixed gauge" means a measuring or controlling device that is intended to be mounted at a specific location, stationary, not to be moved, and is not portable.

(54) "Former U.S. Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) or U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) licensed facilities" means nuclear reactors, nuclear fuel reprocessing plants, uranium enrichment plants, or critical mass experimental facilities where AEC or NRC licenses have been terminated.

(55) "General license" means a license granted by rule, in contrast to an issued license, to acquire, own, possess, use, or transfer radioactive material or a device that contains radioactive material.

(56) "Generally applicable environmental radiation standards" means standards issued by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) under the authority of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, that impose limits on radiation exposures or levels, or concentrations or quantities of radioactive material, in the general environment outside the boundaries of locations under the control of persons possessing or using radioactive material.

(57) "Gray" (Gy) means the International System of Units (SI), unit of absorbed dose. One gray is equal to an absorbed dose of one joule per kilogram (100 rad). (See OAR 333-100-0070(2))

(58) "Hazardous waste" means those wastes designated as hazardous by U.S. Environmental Protection Agency regulations in 40 CFR Part 261.

(59) "Healing arts" means:

(a) The professional disciplines authorized by the laws of this state to use X-rays or radioactive material in the diagnosis or treatment of human or animal disease. For the purposes of this Authority they are Medical Doctors, Osteopaths, Dentists, Veterinarians, Chiropractors, and Podiatrists; or

(b) Any system, treatment, operation, diagnosis, prescription, or practice for the ascertainment, cure, relief, palliation, adjustment, or correction of any human disease, ailment, deformity, injury or unhealthy or abnormal physical or mental condition.

(60) "Human use" means the internal or external administration of radiation or radioactive material to human beings.

(61) "Individual" means any human being.

(62) "Individual monitoring" means:

(a) The assessment of dose equivalent by the use of devices designed to be worn by an individual;

(b) The assessment of committed effective dose equivalent by bioassay (see Bioassay) or by determination of the time-weighted air concentrations to which an individual has been exposed, that is, DAC-hours; or

(c) The assessment of dose equivalent by the use of survey data.

(63) "Individual monitoring devices" means devices designed to be worn by a single individual for the assessment of dose equivalent such as film badges, thermoluminescent dosimeters (TLDs), pocket ionization chambers, and personal ("lapel") air sampling devices.

(64) "Inhalation class" (see "Class").

(65) "Inspection" means an official examination or observation including, but not limited to, tests, surveys, and monitoring to determine compliance with rules, regulations, orders, requirements, and conditions of the Authority.

(66) "Interlock" means a device arranged or connected such that the occurrence of an event or condition is required before a second event or condition can occur or continue to occur.

(67) "Internal dose" means that portion of the dose equivalent received from radioactive material taken into the body.

(68) "Ionizing radiation" means any electromagnetic or particulate radiation capable of producing ions, directly or indirectly, in its passage through matter. It includes any or all of the following: Alpha particles, beta particles, electrons, positrons, gamma rays, X-rays, neutrons, high-speed electrons, high-speed protons, fission fragments and other atomic and subatomic particles; but not sound or radio waves, or visible, infrared, or ultraviolet light.

(69) "Laser" means any device which, when coupled with an appropriate laser energy source, can produce or amplify electromagnetic radiation by the process of controlled stimulated emission.

(70) "License" means a license issued by the Authority in accordance with rules adopted by the Authority.

(71) "Licensed material" means radioactive material received, possessed, used, transferred or disposed of under a general or specific license granted or issued by the Authority. For the purpose of meeting the definition of a Licensing State by the Conference of Radiation Control Program Directors, Inc. (CRCPD), Naturally Occurring and Accelerator Produced Radioactive Material (NARM) refers only to discrete sources of NARM. Diffuse sources of NARM are excluded from consideration by the CRCPD for Licensing State designation purposes.

(72) "Licensee" means any person who is licensed by the Authority in accordance with these rules and the Act.

(73) "Licensing state" means any state with rules or regulations equivalent to the Suggested State Regulations for Control of Radiation relating to, and having an effective program for, the regulatory control of NARM.

(74) "Limits" (dose limits) means the permissible upper bounds of radiation doses.

(75) "Lost or missing licensed or registered source of radiation" means licensed or registered source(s) of radiation whose location is unknown. This definition includes licensed material that has been shipped but has not reached its planned destination and whose location cannot be readily traced in the transportation system.

(76) "Lung class" (see "Class").

(77) "Major processor" means a user processing, handling, or manufacturing radioactive material exceeding Type A quantities as unsealed sources or material, or exceeding four times Type B quantities as sealed sources, but does not include nuclear medicine programs, universities, industrial radiographers, or small industrial programs. Type A and B quantities are defined in division 118 of this chapter.

(78) "Member of the public" means an individual, except when that individual is receiving an occupational dose.

(79) "Minor" means an individual less than 18 years of age.

(80) "Monitoring" means the measurement of radiation, radioactive material concentrations, surface area activities or quantities of radioactive material and the use of the results of these measurements to evaluate potential exposures and doses. For purposes of these rules, "radiation monitoring" and "radiation protection monitoring" are equivalent terms.

(81) "NARM" means any naturally occurring or accelerator-produced radioactive material. It does not include byproduct, source, or special nuclear material.

(82) "Natural radioactivity" means radioactivity of naturally occurring nuclides.

(83) "Naturally-occurring radioactive material" (NORM) means any nuclide that is found in nature as a radioactive material (i.e., not technologically produced).

(84) "Natural thorium" means thorium with the naturally occurring distribution of thorium isotopes (essentially 100 weight percent thorium-232).

(85) "Natural uranium" means a mixture of the uranium isotopes 234, 235 and 238 (approximately 0.7 weight percent uranium-235 and the remainder by weight essentially uranium-238), found in nature, that is neither enriched nor depleted in the isotope uranium 235.

(86) "Nonstochastic effect" means a health effect that varies with the dose and a threshold is believed to exist. Radiation-induced cataract formation is an example of a nonstochastic effect. For purposes of these rules, "deterministic effect" is an equivalent term.

(87) "Normal form radioactive material" means radioactive material that has not been demonstrated to qualify as "special form radioactive material". See "Special form."

(88) "NRC" is the acronym for Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

(89) "Nuclear Regulatory Commission" (NRC) means the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission or its duly authorized representatives.

(90) "Package" means packaging together with its radioactive contents as presented for transport.

(91) "Particle accelerator" means any machine capable of accelerating electrons, protons, deuterons, or other charged particles in a vacuum and of discharging the resultant particulate or other radiation into a medium at energies usually in excess of one MeV.

(92) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, firm, association, trust, estate, public or private institution, group, agency, political subdivision of this state, any other state or political subdivision or agency thereof, and any legal successor, representative, agent, or agency of the foregoing.

(93) "Personnel monitoring equipment" means devices such as film badges, pocket dosimeters, and thermoluminescent dosimeters designed to be worn or carried by an individual for the purpose of estimating the dose received by the individual. See "Individual monitoring devices."

(94) "Pharmacist" means an individual licensed by a state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico to practice pharmacy.

(95) "Physician" means an individual licensed by the Oregon State Board of Medical Examiners to dispense drugs in the practice of medicine.

(96) "Planned special exposure" means an infrequent exposure to radiation, separate from and in addition to the annual occupational dose limits.

(97) "Portable gauge" means a measuring or controlling device that is intended to be portable and is not fixed to a specific location. All portable gauges require a specific license (there is no general license granted for portable generally licensed devices in the State of Oregon).

(98) "Program" means the Radiation Protection Services section of the Oregon Health Authority, Public Health Division.

(99) "Pyrophoric liquid" means any liquid that ignites spontaneously in dry or moist air at or below 130 °F (54.4 °C).

(100) "Pyrophoric solid" means any solid material, other than one classed as an explosive, which under normal conditions is liable to cause fires through friction, retained heat from manufacturing or processing, or which can be ignited readily and, when ignited, burns so vigorously and persistently as to create a serious transportation, handling, or disposal hazard. Included are spontaneously combustible and water-reactive materials.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(101) "Qualified expert" means an individual, approved by the Authority, who has demonstrated, pursuant to these rules, that he/she possesses the knowledge, skills, and training to measure ionizing radiation, to evaluate radiation parameters, to evaluate safety techniques, and to advise regarding radiation protection needs. The individual must:

(a) Be certified in the appropriate field by the American Board of Radiology, the American Board of Health Physics, the American Board of Medical Physics or the American Board of Nuclear Medicine Science; or

(b) Hold a master's or doctor's degree in physics, biophysics, radiological physics, health physics, or medical physics and have completed one year of documented, full time training in the appropriate field and also one year of documented, full time work experience under the supervision of a qualified expert in the appropriate field. To meet this requirement, the individual must have performed the tasks required of a qualified expert during the year of work experience; or

(c) Receive approval from the Authority for specific activities.

(102) "Quality factor" (Q) means the modifying factor (listed in Tables 1004(b).1 and 1004(b).2 of 10 CFR Part 20.1004 provided at the end of this division) that is used to derive dose equivalent from absorbed dose.

(103) "Quarter" means a period of time equal to one-fourth of the year observed by the licensee, approximately 13 consecutive weeks, providing that the beginning of the first quarter in a year coincides with the starting date of the year and that no day is omitted or duplicated in consecutive quarters.

(104) "Rad" means the special unit of absorbed dose. One rad is equal to an absorbed dose of 100 erg per gram or 0.01 joule per kilogram (0.01 gray). See OAR 333-100-0070(2) for SI equivalent gray.

(105) "Radiation" means:

(a) Ionizing radiation including gamma rays, X-rays, alpha and beta particles, protons, neutrons, and other atomic or nuclear particles or rays;

(b) Any electromagnetic radiation which can be generated during the operations of electronic products and which the Authority has determined to present a biological hazard to the occupational or public health and safety but does not include electromagnetic radiation which can be generated during the operation of an electronic product licensed by the Federal Communications Commission;

(c) Any sonic, ultrasonic or infrasonic waves which are emitted from an electronic product as a result of the operation of an electronic circuit in such product and which the Authority has determined to present a biological hazard to the occupational or public health and safety.

(106) "Radiation area" means any area, accessible to individuals, in which radiation levels could result in an individual receiving a dose equivalent in excess of 0.05 mSv (0.005 rem) in one hour at 30 centimeters from the source of radiation or from any surface that the radiation penetrates.

(107) "Radiation machine" means any device capable of producing radiation except those which produce radiation only from radioactive material.

(108) "Radiation safety officer" means:

(a) An individual who has the knowledge, responsibility, and authority to apply appropriate radiation protection rules; or

(b) The representative of licensee management, authorized by the Authority, and listed on the specific license as the radiation safety officer, who is responsible for the licensee's radiation safety program.

(109) "Radioactive material" means any solid, liquid, or gas that emits radiation spontaneously.

(a) Radioactive material, as used in these rules, includes: byproduct material, naturally occurring radioactive material, accelerator produced material, and source material, as defined in this rule.

(b) Radioactive material, as used in these rules, does not include special nuclear material.

(110) "Radioactive waste" means radioactive material that is unwanted or is unusable, as defined in division 50 of chapter 345. No radioactive material may be disposed of in Oregon except as provided in division 50 of chapter 345.

(111) "Radioactivity" means the transformation of unstable atomic nuclei by the emission of radiation.

(112) "Reference Man" means a hypothetical aggregation of human physical and physiological characteristics determined by international consensus. These characteristics may be used by researchers and public health workers to standardize results of experiments and to relate biological insult to a common base. A description of the Reference Man is contained in the International Commission on Radiological Protection report, ICRP Publication 23, "Report of the Task Group on Reference Man."

(113) "Registrant" means any person who is registered with the Authority and is legally obligated to register with the Authority pursuant to these rules and the Act.

(114) "Registration" means the identification of any material or device emitting radiation, and the owner of such material or device must furnish information to the Authority in accordance with the rules adopted by the Authority.

(115) "Regulations of the U.S. Department of Transportation" means the regulations in 49 CFR Parts 100-189 and Parts 390-397.

(116) "Rem" means the special unit of any of the quantities expressed as dose equivalent. The dose equivalent rem is equal to the absorbed dose in rad multiplied by the quality factor (1 rem = 0.01 sievert).

(117) "Research and development" means:

(a) Theoretical analysis, exploration, or experimentation; or

(b) The extension of investigative findings and theories of a scientific or technical nature into practical application for experimental and demonstration purposes, including the experimental production and testing of models, devices, equipment, materials, and processes. Research and development does not include the internal or external administration of radiation or radioactive material to human beings.

(118) "Respiratory protective equipment" means an apparatus, such as a respirator, used to reduce an individual's intake of airborne radioactive materials.

(119) "Restricted area" means an area to which access is limited by the licensee or registrant for the purpose of protecting individuals against undue risks from exposure to sources of radiation. A restricted area does not include areas used as residential quarters, but separate rooms in a residential building may be set apart as a restricted area.

(120) "Roentgen" means the special unit of exposure. One roentgen (R) equals  $2.58 \times 10^{-4}$  Coulombs/kilogram of air (see "Exposure" and division 120).

(121) "Sanitary sewerage" means a system of public sewers for carrying off waste water and refuse, but excluding sewage treatment facilities, septic tanks, and leach fields owned or operated by the licensee.

(122) "Screening" means the use of a systematic approach to obtain cursory examinations of a person or group of persons without regard to specific clinical indications.

(123) "Sealed source" means radioactive material that is encased in a capsule designed to prevent leakage or escape of the radioactive material.

(124) "Sealed Source and Device Registry" means the national registry that contains all the registration certificates, generated by both the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission and Agreement States, that summarize the radiation safety information for sealed sources and devices and describe the licensing and use conditions approved for the product.

(125) "Shallow dose equivalent" (H<sub>s</sub>), which applies to the external exposure of the skin or an extremity, means the dose equivalent at a tissue depth of 0.007 centimeter (7 mg/cm<sup>2</sup>) averaged over an area of one square centimeter.

(126) "SI" means the abbreviation for the International System of Units.

(127) "Sievert" means the International System of Units (SI), unit of any of the quantities expressed as dose equivalent. The dose equivalent in sievert is equal to the absorbed dose in gray multiplied by the quality factor (1 Sv = 100 rem). (See OAR 333-100-0070(2).)

(128) "Site boundary" means that line beyond which the land or property is not owned, leased, or otherwise controlled by the licensee or registrant.

(129) "Source material" means:

(a) Uranium or thorium or any combination of uranium and thorium in any physical or chemical form; or

(b) Ores that contain by weight one-twentieth of one percent (0.05 percent) or more of uranium, thorium, or any combination thereof. Source material does not include special nuclear material.

(130) "Source material milling" means any activity that results in the production of byproduct material, as defined by this rule.

(131) "Source of radiation" means any radioactive material or any device or equipment emitting, or capable of producing, radiation. Source of radiation, pursuant to this rule, includes, but is not limited to, radiation facilities, radiation producing machines, radiation producing devices, radioactive material sealed and unsealed form (normal form and special form), and radioactive material uses.

(132) "Special form radioactive material" means radioactive material that satisfies the following conditions:

(a) It is either a single solid piece or is contained in a sealed capsule that can be opened only by destroying the capsule;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) The piece or capsule has at least one dimension not less than five millimeters (0.2 inch); and

(c) It satisfies the test requirements specified by the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission. A special form encapsulation designed in accordance with the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission requirements in effect on June 30, 1983, and constructed prior to July 1, 1985, and a special form encapsulation designed in accordance with the Nuclear Regulatory Commission requirements in effect on March 31, 1996, and constructed prior to April 1, 1998, may continue to be used. Any other special form encapsulation either designed or constructed after April 1, 1998, must meet requirements of this definition applicable at the time of its design or construction.

(133) "Special nuclear material" means:

(a) Plutonium, uranium-233, uranium enriched in the isotope 233 or in the isotope 235, and any other material that the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, pursuant to the provisions of section 51 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, determines to be special nuclear material, but does not include source material; or

(b) Any material artificially enriched by any of the foregoing but does not include source material.

(134) "Special nuclear material in quantities not sufficient to form a critical mass" means uranium enriched in the isotope U-235 in quantities not exceeding 350 grams of contained U-235; uranium-233 in quantities not exceeding 200 grams; plutonium in quantities not exceeding 200 grams; or any combination of them in accordance with the following formula: For each kind of special nuclear material, determine the ratio between the quantity of that special nuclear material and the quantity specified above for the same kind of special nuclear material. The sum of such ratios for all of the kinds of special nuclear material in combination must not exceed one. For example, the following quantities in combination would not exceed the limitation and are within the formula: * * 175 (grams contained U-235) + 50 (grams U-233) + 50 (grams Pu) = 1 350 200 200

(135) "Specific activity of a radionuclide" means the radioactivity of the radionuclide per unit mass of that nuclide. The specific activity of a material in which the radionuclide is essentially uniformly distributed is the radioactivity per unit mass of the material.

(136) "Stochastic effect" means health effects that occur randomly and for which the probability of the effect occurring, rather than its severity, is assumed to be a linear function of dose without threshold. Hereditary effects and cancer incidence are examples of stochastic effects.

(137) "Supervision" as used in these rules, means the responsibility for, and control of, the application, quality, radiation safety and technical aspects of all sources of radiation possessed, used and stored through authorization granted by the Authority.

(138) "Survey" means an evaluation of the radiological conditions and potential hazards incident to the production, use, transfer, release, disposal, or presence of sources of radiation. When appropriate, such evaluation includes, but is not limited to, tests, physical examinations, and measurements of levels of radiation or concentrations of radioactive material present.

(139) "Termination" means:

(a) The end of employment with the licensee or registrant or, in the case of individuals not employed by the licensee or registrant, the end of work assignment in the licensee's or registrant's restricted area in a given calendar quarter, without expectation or specific scheduling of re-entry into the licensee's or registrant's restricted area during the remainder of that calendar quarter; or

(b) The closure of a registered or licensed facility and conclusion of licensed or registered activities, pursuant to a registration or specific license.

(140) "Test" means the process of verifying compliance with an applicable rule.

(141) "These rules," mean all parts of the Oregon Administrative Rules promulgated under ORS 453.605 through 453.807.

(142) "Total effective dose equivalent" (TEDE) means the sum of the deep dose equivalent for external exposures and the committed effective dose equivalent for internal exposures.

(143) "Total organ dose equivalent" (TODE) means the sum of the deep dose equivalent and the committed dose equivalent to the organ receiving the highest dose as described in OAR 333-120-650(1)(d).

(144) "Transport index" means the dimensionless number (rounded up to the first decimal place) placed on the label of a package to designate the degree of control to be exercised by the carrier during transportation. The transport index is the number expressing the maximum radiation level in millirem per hour at one meter from the external surface of the package.

(145) "U.S. Department of Energy" means the Department of Energy established by Public Law 95-91, August 4, 1977, 91 Stat. 565, 42 U.S.C. 7101 et seq., to the extent that the Department exercises functions formerly vested in the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, its Chairman, members, officers and components and transferred to the U.S. Energy Research and Development Administration and to the Administrator thereof pursuant to sections 104(b), (c) and (d) of the Energy Reorganization Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-438, October 11, 1974, 88 Stat. 1233 at 1237 42 U.S.C. 5814, effective January 19, 1975) and retransferred to the Secretary of Energy pursuant to section 301(a) of the Department of Energy Organization Act (Public Law 95-91, August 4, 1977, 91 Stat. 565 at 577-578, 42 U.S.C. 7151, effective October 1, 1977).

(146) "Unrefined and unprocessed ore" means ore in its natural form prior to any processing, such as grinding, roasting, beneficiating, or refining.

NOTE: "Ore" refers to fuel cycle materials pursuant to 10 CFR Part 150.

(147) "Unrestricted area" means an area, access to which is neither limited nor controlled by the licensee or registrant. For purposes of these rules, "uncontrolled area" is an equivalent term.

(148) "Uranium — depleted, enriched" means:

(a) "Depleted uranium" means uranium containing less uranium-235 than the naturally occurring distribution of uranium isotopes.

(b) "Enriched uranium" means uranium containing more uranium-235 than the naturally occurring distribution of uranium isotopes.

(149) "Validation certificate" means the official document issued upon payment to the Authority of the appropriate fee listed in division 103 of this chapter. The license or registration is subject and void without the annual validation certificate.

(150) "Waste" means radioactive waste.

(151) "Week" means seven consecutive days starting on Sunday.

(152) "Weighting factor" (WT) for an organ or tissue (T) means:

(a) The proportion of the risk of stochastic effects resulting from irradiation of that organ or tissue to the total risk of stochastic effects when the whole body is irradiated uniformly. For calculating the effective dose equivalent, the values of WT are:

(A) Gonads 0.25

(B) Breast 0.15

(C) Red Bone Marrow 0.12

(D) Lung 0.12

(E) Thyroid 0.03

(F) Bone Surfaces 0.03

(G) Remainder 0.30 (see note below)

(H) Whole Body 1.00

Note: Assignment of 0.30 for the remaining organs results from a weighting factor of 0.06 for each of five "remainder" organs, excluding the skin and the lens of the eye, that receive the highest doses.

(b) For the purpose of weighting the external whole body dose, for adding it to the internal dose, a single weighting factor, WT = 1.0, has been specified. The use of other weighting factors for external exposure will be approved on a case-by-case basis until such time as specific guidance is issued.

(153) "Whole body" means, for purposes of external exposure, head, trunk including male gonads, arms above the elbow, or legs above the knee.

(154) "Worker" means an individual engaged in work under a license or registration issued by the Authority and controlled by a licensee or registrant, but does not include the licensee or registrant.

(155) "Working level" (WL) means any combination of short-lived radon progeny in one liter of air that will result in the ultimate emission of  $1.3 \times 10^5$  MeV of potential alpha particle energy. The short-lived radon-222 progeny are: polonium-218, lead-214, bismuth-214, and polonium-214; and for radon-220 the progeny are: polonium-216, lead-212, bismuth-212, and polonium-212.

(156) "Working level month" (WLM) means an exposure to one working level for 170 hours (2,000 working hours per year divided by 12 months per year is approximately equal to 170 hours per month.)

(157) "Year" means the period of time beginning in January used to determine compliance with the provisions of these rules. The licensee or registrant may change the starting date of the year used to determine compliance by the licensee or registrant provided that the change is made at the beginning of the year and that no day is omitted or duplicated in consecutive years.

333-102-0203

Definitions

The following definitions apply for Radioactive Material Licenses issued pursuant to this division and divisions 105, 113, 115, 117, and 121 of this chapter:

NOTE: Unless otherwise specified in this rule, the licenses described in this rule are limited by conditions of the radioactive materials license issued pursuant to OAR 333-102-0200, and other applicable rules in this chapter.

(1) "Analytical Leak Test" means a facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(a), authorizing possession of environmental samples, sealed source leak-test, contamination wipe, etc. samples for radioanalytical measurements. This license does not authorize collection of samples, or decommissioning or decontamination activities.

(2) "Assets" means anything of material value or usefulness. In the context of a materials license, assets include all existing capital, effects, possessions, and belongings and all probable future economic benefits obtained or controlled by a particular entity.

(3) "Basic License" means a facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(b) authorizing the receipt, possession, use, transfer, and disposal of sources of radiation or radioactive materials incident to gauge service, teletherapy service, medical afterloader service, and other licensed service activities; pre-packaged waste pickup (not packaging), storage of materials prior to license termination, instrument quality control servicing or calibration (excluding activities authorized by 333-103-0010(2)(m)), or other minor activities not otherwise specified in these rules, such as authorization for "systems," as defined in these rules, pursuant to that definition.

(4) "Beneficiating" means subjecting a product to any process that will increase or concentrate any component (including the radioactive materials) to benefit the product.

(5) "Brachytherapy" means a Healing Arts facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(c) authorizing the use of brachytherapy sources for in vivo application of radiation in accordance with 333-116-0420. Brachytherapy includes radioactive material sealed sources in seeds, needles, plaques, or other localized medical devices, but excludes remote afterloaders.

(6) "Broad Scope A" means a facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(d), authorizing activities in 333-102-0900(1)(a), under the authority of a Radiation Safety Committee.

(7) "Broad Scope B" means a facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(e) authorizing activities described in 333-102-0900(1)(b), under the authority of a Radiation Safety Officer.

(8) "Broad Scope C" means a facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(f) authorizing activities described in 333-102-0900(1)(c), under the authority of an authorized user.

(9) "Commencement of construction" means any clearing of land, excavation or other substantial action related to a proposed activity for specific licensing that would adversely affect the natural environment of a site.

(10) "Current assets" means cash or other assets or resources commonly identified as those which are reasonably expected to be realized in cash or sold or consumed during the normal operating cycle of the business.

(11) "Decontamination and Decommissioning" means:

(a) A facility specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(w) authorizing activities that result in returning a site to its original pre-license condition prior to termination of licensed activities; and

(b) Activities performed pursuant to OAR 333-102-0335 on any portion of a site prior to license termination.

(12) "Diagnosis" means examination, determination, identification, study, or analysis of a medical condition.

(13) "Distribution" means a facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(g), authorizing transfer or distribution (sale) of general or specific license radioactive material to persons granted a general license or issued a specific license, or, in the case of NARM, to persons exempt from the rules in this chapter.

(14) "Exempt Source" means radioactive material, exempt from the rules in this chapter.

(15) "Facility" means location of licensed activities under the direct control of licensee management. If a "facility," as used in this division, includes multiple separate addresses, the Authority may determine how the scope of licensed activities, pursuant to OAR 333-102-0190, 333-102-0300, 333-102-0305, 333-102-0315, 333-102-0320, or 333-102-0325, is authorized.

(16) "Fixed Gauge" means a source-specific license for measuring, gauging, or controlling devices pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(h). The fixed gauge license also includes X-ray & Hybrid Gauges pursuant to division 115 of this chapter, that contain either an X-ray source or a radioactive sealed source.

(17) "General License" means a granted license, as opposed to an issued license, effective under these rules, to acquire, own, possess, use, or transfer radioactive material or a device that contains radioactive material.

(18) "General License Depleted Uranium" means the general license granted subject to receipt of the registration application pursuant to OAR 333-101-0007, and fee, pursuant to 333-103-0015, for depleted uranium used for shielding or counter weights and issued pursuant to 333-102-0103.

(19) "General License Device" means the general license for in vitro materials granted subject to receipt of the registration application pursuant to OAR 333-101-0007, and fee, pursuant to 333-103-0015, for measuring, gauging.

(20) "General License In Vitro Laboratory" means the general license granted by OAR 333-102-0130, subject to receipt of the registration application pursuant to 333-101-0007, and fee, pursuant to 333-103-0015, for in vitro materials granted a general license by 333-102-0130.

(21) "General License Source Material" means the general license granted for use and possession of source material pursuant to OAR 333-102-0101.

(22) "General License for Certain Devices and Equipment" means the general license granted for use and possession of devices consisting of not more than 500 microcuries of polonium-210 or not more than 50 millicuries of tritium (H-3) per device, pursuant to 10 CFR 31.3.

(23) "General License for Luminous Devices for Aircraft" means the general license granted for use and possession of devices containing not more than ten curies of tritium or not more than 300 millicuries of promethium-147.

(24) "General License for Ownership of Radioactive Material and Limits of Possession" means the general license granted to own material that is not necessarily possessed; conversely, material that is possessed is, by grant of general license, not necessarily owned, pursuant to the general license in OAR 333-102-0120.

(25) "General License for Calibration and Reference Sources" means the general license granted to possess not more than five microcuries (185 kBq) of americium-241, plutonium-238, plutonium-239, or radium-226, pursuant to the general license in OAR 333-102-0125.

(26) "General License for Ice Detection Devices" means the general license granted to possess not more than 50 microcuries (1.85 MBq) of strontium-90, pursuant to the general license in OAR 333-102-0135.

(27) "Generators and Kits" means "Imaging and Localization."

(28) "Healing Arts Specific License" means a specific license authorizing activities in division 116 of this chapter.

(29) "High Doserate Remote Afterloader" means a source-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(i) authorizing the use of sources in accordance with 333-116-0475, which may be either mobile or stationary, and which deliver a doserate in excess of two Gray (200 rad) per hour at the point or surface where the dose is prescribed. A device may be designated as being high, medium, or pulsed dose remote afterloader or mobile high, medium, or pulsed doserate remote afterloader.

(30) "Hybrid Gauge" means a fixed gauging device that contains both a sealed source and an X-ray source, pursuant to division 115 of this chapter.

(31) "In Vitro Laboratory" means a Healing Arts facility-specific license, under management of a physician or Healing Arts specialist, issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(k) authorizing the use of prepackaged radioactive materials in quantities greater than those authorized by the General License granted by 333-102-0130(2).

(32) Imaging and Localization means a Healing Arts facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(j) authorizing the use of generators and kits for nuclear medicine imaging and localization in accordance with 333-116-0320 or positron emission tomography studies in accordance with 333-116-0800 through 333-116-0880.

(33) "Industrial Radiography" means a facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(l) authorizing activities in division 105 of this chapter.

(34) "Instrument Calibration" means a source-specific radioactive materials license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(m) for sources of radiation used to calibrate instruments.

(35) "Investigational New Drug" means a Healing Arts facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(n) authorizing the use of any investigational product or device approved by the US Food and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Drug Administration (FDA) for human use research, diagnosis, or therapy, in accordance with the rules in this chapter.

(36) "Irradiator-Other" means an irradiator with greater than 10,000 curies (370 TBq) licensed pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(w) and 333-103-0010(7), designed to produce extremely high dose rates as authorized by division 121 of this chapter.

(37) "Irradiator Self-shielded or Other -- Less than 10,000 Curies" means a source-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(o) authorizing self-shielded irradiators, including blood irradiators, panoramic irradiators, and converted teletherapy units, with less than 10,000 Ci (370 TBq) activity.

(38) "Liabilities" means probable future sacrifices of economic benefits arising from present obligations to transfer assets or provide services to other entities in the future as a result of past transactions or events.

(39) "Lot Tolerance Percent Defective" means, expressed in percent defective, the poorest quality in an individual inspection lot that should be accepted.

(40) "Low Doserate Remote Afterloader Device" means a Healing Arts source-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(b) authorizing devices 333-116-0475, which remotely deliver a doserate of less than two Gray (200 rad) per hour at the point or surface where the dose is prescribed.

(41) "Manufacturing or Compounding" means a facility-specific radioactive materials license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(p) authorizing manufacture, fabrication, assembly, construction, combining, processing, concentrating, beneficiating, or processing items or products using or containing radioactive materials into a finished product containing radioactive material in accordance with applicable requirements in division 102 of this chapter.

(42) "Manufacturing or Compounding and Distribution" means activities performed as defined in sections (13) and (41) of this rule and require separate specific licenses for each activity.

(43) "Mobile Nuclear Medicine Service" means a facility-specific Healing Arts license issued pursuant to OAR 333-116-0120 authorizing the medical use of radioactive material at specified temporary locations.

(44) "Nationally Tracked Source" means a sealed source containing a quantity equal to or greater than Category 1 or 2 levels of any radioactive material listed in 10 CFR 20 Appendix E.

(45) "Naturally occurring radioactive material (NORM)" means radioactive material in the uranium or thorium decay series existing in nature in concentrations less than 0.05% source material.

(46) "Net working capital" means current assets minus current liabilities.

(47) "Net worth" means total assets minus total liabilities and is equivalent to owner's equity.

(48) "Neutron Howitzer" means a device that contains a sealed source containing Special Nuclear Material (see definition in OAR 333-100-0005) that generates neutrons that are used for analytical, teaching, or research purposes.

(49) "Neutron Production" denotes a process in which neutrons are produced, either by natural or artificial means.

(50) "NORM (no processing)" means a facility-specific license pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(n) authorizing possession, use, and transfer of NORM in accordance with division 117 of this chapter.

NOTE: NORM licenses authorize licensable quantities of radioactive material in the uranium or thorium decay series. Licensable quantities of NORM are derived from disposal limits in OAR 345-050. Any material that contains NORM requires a specific license unless exempted in OAR 345-050. Zircon sand is used as the NORM model for licensing purposes. Quantities of zircon sand in excess of 20,000 pounds in a year constitute a licensable quantity of NORM. NORM materials that are not zircon are based on the zircon model.

(51) "Nuclear Laundry" means a laundry facility designed specifically to clean or launder clothing contaminated with licensed radioactive materials. Nuclear Laundry facilities must have process and waste management control procedures to prevent reconcentrating of licensed materials in sewers, drains, premises, and the environment. Nuclear Laundry activities are authorized pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(w), "Radioactive Material Not Otherwise Specified Facility," see 333-102-0203(61).

(52) "Nuclear Pharmacy" means a facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(s) for activities authorized by 333-102-0285 and the Oregon Board of Pharmacy rules, to compound Radiopharmaceutical and distribute (sell or transfer) to persons specifically licensed to receive such compounds or products.

NOTE: Nuclear Pharmacies, pursuant to policy provisions of chapter 345 division 50 may collect syringes containing residual licensed material from spent patient doses, since the syringe is considered to be a transport device under the administrative control of the pharmacy rather than the licensed material transferred as the dose. Residual licensed material may be considered either to be exempt pursuant to Table 1 of division 50 or under the authority of a division license if the receding licensee stores syringes for decay. In either case, the division license should specify which disposal method is being used by the pharmacy and licensee to avoid compatibility conflicts with division 50 requirements.

(53) "Other Measuring Device" means a source-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(t), authorizing analytical instruments, gas chromatograph electron capture detectors, and other non-portable analytical instruments, including those devices that contain multiple sources but are configured and used as a "system," in accordance with the definition in this rule.

NOTE: General license gas chromatograph detectors that formerly were granted a general license by OAR 333-102-0115, but which required a registration fee pursuant to 333-103-0015(2)(b), now are subject to the specific license in 333-103-0010(2)(t).

(54) "Pool-type Irradiator" means an irradiator with greater than 10,000 curies (370 TBq) in which water provides the radiation shielding, authorized in accordance with division 121 of this chapter.

(55) "Portable Gauge" means a source-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(u) for sources used in devices that can be transported and used at temporary job sites.

NOTE: Any device that meets the definition of "portable gauge" and is transported or used at temporary job sites within the state of Oregon, requires an application for and issuance of an Oregon specific license subject to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(u).

(56) "Positron Emission Tomography" (PET) means a licensed healing arts activity authorized by OAR 333-116-0800 and included in the facility specific license issued pursuant to 333-103-0010(2)(j). PET nuclides, which are NARM, are subject to all Oregon rules.

(57) "Possession or Storage of Industrial Wastes Containing Radioactive Material" means activities subject to division 110 of this chapter for the production or storage of wastes that are exempt from division 50 of chapter 345 facility siting requirements, and were generated under a current NRC, Agreement State, or Licensing State specific radioactive materials license.

(58) "Possession or Storage of Uranium Tailings" means activities incident to uranium processing or milling operations resulting in the production of tailings.

(59) "Principal Activities" means activities authorized by the license that are essential to achieving the purpose(s) for which the license was issued or amended. Storage during which no licensed material is accessed for use or disposal and activities incidental to decontamination or decommissioning are not principal activities.

(60) "Processing" means chemically or physically changing a licensed material from one physical form to another form or specie (e.g., breaking an ore down into its components resulting in "tailings"; milling a raw licensed material and combining to form another product or material. See "Beneficiating"; "Manufacturing or Compounding").

(61) "Radiation Source" means source of radiation (see definition of "Source of radiation" in OAR 333-100-0005).

(62) "Radioactive Material Not Otherwise Specified Facility" means a license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(w) authorizing activities that includes, but are not limited to, complex licensable activities such as facility decontamination and decommissioning, nuclear laundry activities, uranium mill tailings storage, storage of industrial wastes containing radioactive materials, large irradiator management, and other complex activities not otherwise specified in these rules.

(63) "Radioactive Materials License" means the document, pursuant to OAR 333-102-0300, issued after an application, pursuant to OAR 333-102-0190, has been accepted as adequate, that specifies radioactive materials, use authorizations, safety procedures, and use locations.

(64) "Radiopharmaceutical Therapy" means a Healing Arts facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(v) authorizing the use of Radiopharmaceutical for therapy in accordance with 333-116-0360.

(65) "Remote Afterloader" means a medical device that moves a sealed source to an interstitial (in vivo) location without exposing the practitioner to the radiation dose. Remote afterloader sources may be manipulated using computer software and engineering techniques.

(66) "Research & Development" means a facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(x) authorizing research and development activities, as defined in 333-100-0005, but does not authorize additional specific sources of radiation, which must be licensed separately pursuant to 333-103-0010 and 333-103-0015.

(67) "Responsible Representative" means

(a) The person designated as having responsibility for general license device or general license material;

(b) The person management has selected to certify general license inventory; and

(c) The individual responsible to the Authority and to management to ensure that all regulatory elements are adequate.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(68) "Sealed Source/Device Evaluation" means the review of a licensee's prototype source or device prior to registration by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission in the Sealed Source and Device Catalog.

NOTE: The Authority no longer has authority to review sources or devices. All source or device reviews must be forwarded to the NRC for review. Authority to conduct device or source evaluations was rescinded by the NRC in 1998.

(69) "Site Area Emergency" means events may occur, are in progress, or have occurred that could lead to a significant release of radioactive material and that could require a response by offsite response organizations to protect persons offsite.

(70) "Sealed Sources for Diagnosis" means a Healing Arts source-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(y) authorizing the use of sealed sources for diagnosis in accordance with 333-116-0400.

(71) "Special Nuclear Material" means:

(a) Plutonium, uranium 233, uranium enriched in the isotope 233 or in the isotope 235, and any other material which the NRC, pursuant to the provisions of section 51 of the act, determines to be special nuclear material, but does not include source material; or

(b) Any material artificially enriched by any of the foregoing but does not include source material.

(72) "Specific License Radioactive Material" means radioactive material that requires authorization in a specific license document pursuant to OAR 333-102-0075(2) where materials must be annotated on the specific license, and validated with a specific license fee pursuant to 333-103-0010(2)(a) through 333-103-0010(2)(hh) (see "Radioactive Materials License").

(73) "System," as used in this division, means multiple separate (individual) sources of radiation (sealed radioactive sources), which together, rather than independently, achieve a desired functionality. Such "system" is subject to one specific license fee or general license registration fee, as the case may be.

(74) "Tangible Net Worth" means the tangible assets that remain after deducting liabilities; such assets would not include intangibles such as goodwill and rights to patents or royalties.

(75) "Teletherapy" means a Healing Arts source-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(cc) authorizing teletherapy procedures in accordance with OAR 333-116-0480. This license also includes other high dose rate external beam therapy devices such as the "gamma knife."

(76) "Temporary Job Site" means any location, where specific license material is used that is either:

(a) Not the specific location of the licensee if an in-state licensee; or

(b) Any location in the State if an out-of-state specific licensee pursuant to a specific radioactive materials license.

NOTE: Persons authorized for temporary jobsites in Oregon must have a specific license for such activities.

(77) "Therapy" means a process that is meant to be restorative, promotes healing, or is beneficial to a patient in a healing arts context.

(78) "Unique" means a specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(dd) to Agencies in the Oregon Health Authority.

(79) "Uptake and Dilution" means a Healing Arts facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(ee) authorizing activities in OAR 333-116-0300 for uptake, dilution, and excretion studies.

(80) "Use and Possession of Source Material" means a facility-specific radioactive materials license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(z) to possess, use, process, or transfer source material, as defined in OAR 333-100-0005, in quantities greater than general license quantities or in concentrations greater than 0.05 percent source material.

NOTE: This definition was amended to avoid confusion between the definition of "source material" in division 100 of this chapter and the specific license (billable object) in division 103 of this chapter.

(81) "Use of Xenon Gas" means a Healing Arts facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(ff) authorizing the use of Xe-133 for diagnosis pursuant to OAR 333-116-0280;

(82) "Waste Packaging" means a facility-specific license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(gg), authorizing packaging, collection, storage, and transfer of radioactive waste. This specific license does not authorize storage of radioactive wastes, but does authorize temporary job sites.

(83) "Well Logging" means a license issued pursuant to OAR 333-103-0010(2)(hh) authorizing the possession, use, transfer, or disposal of sources of radiation used for well logging activities authorized by division 113 of this chapter.

NOTE: Unless specifically authorized in this rule or in a radioactive materials license that authorizes temporary job sites, specific licenses must be used only at one authorized site.

333-106-0005

Definitions

As used in this division, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Accessible Surface" means the external surface of the enclosure or housing provided by the manufacturer.

(2) "Added Filtration" means any filtration that is in addition to the inherent filtration.

(3) "Aluminum Equivalent" means the thickness of type 1100 aluminum alloy affording the same attenuation, under specified conditions, as the material in question.

NOTE: The nominal chemical composition of type 1100 aluminum alloy is 99.00 percent minimum aluminum, 0.12 percent copper.

(4) "Applications Training" means a vendor or manufacturer providing training for specific X-ray equipment.

(5) "A.R.R.T." means the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists.

(6) "Assembler" means any person engaged in the business of assembling, replacing, or installing one or more components into an X-ray system or subsystem. The term includes the owner of an X-ray system or his or her employee or agent who assembles components into an X-ray system that is subsequently used to provide professional or commercial services.

(7) "Attenuation Block" means a block or stack, having dimensions 20 centimeters (cm) by 20 cm by 3.8 cm, of type 1100 aluminum alloy or other materials having equivalent attenuation.

(8) "Authority approved instructor" means an individual who has been evaluated and approved by the Authority to teach Radiation Safety.

(9) "Authority approved training course" means a course of training that has been evaluated and approved by the Authority.

(10) "Automatic Exposure Control (AEC)" means a device that automatically controls one or more technique factors in order to obtain at a pre-selected location(s) a required quantity of radiation. (See also "Photo timer".)

(11) "Barrier" (see "Protective Barrier").

(12) "Beam Axis" means a line from the source through the centers of the X-ray fields.

(13) "Beam-Limiting Device" means a device that provides a means to restrict the dimensions of the X-ray field.

(14) "Beam Monitoring System" means a system designed to detect and measure the radiation present in the useful beam.

(15) "C-arm X-ray system" means an X-ray system in which the image receptor and X-ray tube housing are connected by a common mechanical support system in order to maintain a desired spatial relationship. This system is designed to allow a change in the projection of the beam through the patient without a change in the position of the patient.

(16) "Cephalometric Device" means a device intended for the radiographic visualization and measurement of the dimensions of the human head.

(17) "Certified Components" means components of X-ray systems that are subject to the X-ray Equipment Performance Standards promulgated under Public Law 90-602, the Radiation Control Agency for Health and Safety Act of 1968.

(18) "Certified System" means any X-ray system that has one or more certified component(s).

(19) "Changeable Filters" means any filter, exclusive of inherent filtration, which can be removed from the useful beam through any electronic, mechanical or physical process.

(20) "Coefficient of Variation (C)" means the ratio of the standard deviation to the mean value of a set of observations.

(21) "Computed tomography (CT)" means the production of a tomogram by the acquisition and computer processing of X-ray transmission data.

(22) "Computed radiography (CR)" means creating an X-ray image using plates consisting of a photo stimulable phosphor (PSP) that when exposed to radiation and then processed by a scanner, provides the information to a computer for display and manipulation.

(23) "Contact Therapy System" means an X-ray system used for therapy with the tube port placed in contact with or within five centimeters of the surface being treated.

(24) "Control Panel" means that part of the X-ray control upon which are mounted the switches, knobs, pushbuttons and other hardware necessary for manually setting the technique factors.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(25) "Cooling Curve" means the graphical relationship between heat units stored and cooling time.

(26) "Dead-Man Switch" means a switch so constructed that a circuit closing contact can be maintained only by continuous pressure on the switch by the operator.

(27) "Detector" (see "Radiation detector").

(28) "Diagnostic X-ray imaging system" means an assemblage of components for the generation, emission, and reception of X-rays and the transformation, storage, and visual display of the resultant X-ray image.

(29) "Diagnostic Source Assembly" means the tube housing assembly with a beam-limiting device attached.

(30) "Diagnostic-Type Protective Tube Housing" means a tube housing so constructed that the leakage radiation measured at a distance of one meter from the source does not exceed 100 milliroentgens (mR) in one hour when the tube is operated at its leakage technique factors.

(31) "Diagnostic X-ray System" means an X-ray system designed for irradiation of any part of the human body or animal body for the purpose of diagnosis or visualization.

(32) "Direct Digital Radiography (DR)" means creating an X-ray image by sending signals directly from a digital image receptor to a computer for display and manipulation.

(33) "Direct Scattered Radiation" means that scattered radiation which has been deviated in direction only by materials irradiated by the useful beam (see "Scattered radiation").

(34) "Direct supervision" means that the person who directs the X-ray or fluoroscopic equipment operator(s) shall be present in the room while the individual operates the equipment.

(35) "Entrance Exposure Rate" means the exposure free in air per unit of time.

(36) "Field Emission Equipment" means equipment which uses a tube in which electron emission from the cathode is due solely to the action of an electric field.

(37) "Filter" means material placed in the useful beam to absorb preferentially selected radiations.

(38) "Fluoroscopic Benchmark" means a standard based upon the average cumulative fluoroscopic on-time normally found to be used for a specific fluoroscopic procedure at the site.

(39) "Fluoroscopic Imaging Assembly" means a subsystem in which X-ray photons produce a visible image. It includes the image receptor(s) such as the image intensifier and spot-film device, electrical interlocks, if any, and structural material providing linkage between the image receptor and diagnostic source assembly.

(40) "Fluoroscopic X-ray equipment operator" means any individual who, adjusts technique factors, activates the exposure switch or button of a fluoroscopic X-ray machine or physically positions patients or animals. Human holders, used solely for immobilization purposes (i.e. veterinarian human holders) are excluded from this rule.

(41) "Focal Spot" means the area projected on the anode of the tube by the electrons accelerated from the cathode and from which the useful beam originates.

(42) "General Purpose Radiographic X-ray System" means any radiographic X-ray system which, by design, is not limited to radiographic examination of specific anatomical regions.

(43) "General supervision" means that the person who directs the X-ray or fluoroscopic equipment operator(s), must be immediately available by telephone, pager, or other mode of communication, to provide direction if needed or requested.

(44) "Gonad Shield" means a protective barrier for the testes or ovaries.

(45) "Hand-held unit" means a self contained X-ray machine designed so that it can be held in one or two hands to perform intra-oral radiography or other Authority approved radiography.

(46) "Half-Value Layer (HVL)" means the thickness of specified material which attenuates the beam of radiation to an extent such that the exposure rate is reduced to one-half of its original value. In this definition, the contribution of all scattered radiation, other than any which might be present initially in the beam concerned, is deemed to be excluded.

(47) "Healing arts screening" means the testing of human beings using X-ray machines for the detection or evaluation of health indications when such tests are not specifically and individually ordered by an Oregon licensed practitioner of the healing arts legally authorized to prescribe such X-ray tests for the purpose of diagnosis or treatment.

(48) "Heat Unit" means a unit of energy equal to the product of the peak kilovoltage, milliamperes and seconds, i.e., kVp x mA x second.

(49) "HVL" (see "Half-value layer").

(50) "Image Intensifier" means a device, installed in its housing, which instantaneously converts an X-ray pattern into a corresponding light image of higher energy density.

(51) "Image Receptor" means any device, such as a fluorescent screen or radiographic film, which transforms incident photons either into a visible image or into another form which can be made into a visible image by further transformations.

(52) "Indirect supervision" means that the person who directs the X-ray or fluoroscopic equipment operator(s) be readily available on facility premises when the X-ray or fluoroscopic equipment is operated.

(53) "Inherent Filtration" means the filtration of the useful beam provided by the permanently installed components of the tube housing assembly.

(54) "Interlock" means a device arranged or connected such that the occurrence of an event or condition is required before a second event or condition can occur or continue to occur.

(55) "Irradiation" means the exposure of matter to ionizing radiation.

(56) "Kilovolt-Peak" (see "Peak tube potential").

(57) "kV" means kilovolts.

(58) "kVp" (see "Peak tube potential").

(59) "kW's" means kilowatt second.

(60) "Lead Equivalent" means the thickness of lead affording the same attenuation, under specified conditions, as the material in question.

(61) "Leakage Radiation" means radiation emanating from the diagnostic or therapeutic source assembly except for:

(a) The useful beam; and

(b) Radiation produced when the exposure switch or timer is not activated.

(62) "Leakage Technique Factors" means the technique factors associated with the diagnostic or therapeutic source assembly which are used in measuring leakage radiation. They are defined as follows:

(a) For diagnostic source assemblies intended for capacitor energy storage equipment, the maximum rated peak tube potential and the maximum-rated number of exposures in an hour for operation at the maximum rated peak tube potential with the quantity of charge per exposure being 10 millicoulombs, i.e., 10 milliamperes seconds (mAs), or the minimum obtainable from the unit, whichever is larger.

(b) For diagnostic source assemblies intended for field emission equipment rated for pulsed operation, the maximum-rated peak tube potential and the maximum-rated number of X-ray pulses in an hour for operation at the maximum-rated peak tube potential.

(c) For all other diagnostic or therapeutic source assemblies, the maximum-rated peak tube potential and the maximum-rated continuous tube current for the maximum-rated peak tube potential.

(63) "Light Field" means that area of the intersection of the light beam from the beam-limiting device and one of the set of planes parallel to and including the plane of the image receptor, whose perimeter is the locus of points at which the illumination is one-fourth of the maximum in the intersection.

(64) "Line-Voltage Regulation" means the difference between the no-load and the load line potentials expressed as a percent of the load line potential.

(65) "mA" means milliamperes.

(66) "mAs" means milliamperes second.

(67) "Maximum Line Current" means the root-mean-square current in the supply line of an X-ray machine operating at its maximum rating.

(68) "Mobile Equipment" (see "X-ray Equipment").

(69) "Non-radiologist practitioner" means an individual who practices medicine as a medical doctor (M.D.), doctor of osteopathic medicine (D.O.), doctor of chiropractic medicine (D.C.), doctor of podiatric medicine (D.P.M.) or doctor of veterinary medicine (D.V.M.); and

(a) Are not specifically certified in diagnostic and/or therapeutic use of X-rays; and

(b) Are currently licensed by their respective Oregon licensing board.

(70) "Operator" means an individual who, under the supervision of a practitioner of the healing arts, handles ionizing radiation equipment, physically positions patients or animals, determines exposure parameters or applies the radiation for the diagnostic or therapeutic purposes intended.

(71) "Patient" means an individual subjected to healing arts examination, diagnosis, or treatment.

(72) "Peak Tube Potential" means the maximum value of the potential difference across the X-ray tube during an exposure.

(73) "Phantom" means a volume of material behaving in a manner similar to tissue with respect to the attenuation and scattering of radiation.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

This requires that both the atomic number (Z) and the density of the material be similar to that of tissue.

(74) "Photo timer" means a method for controlling radiation exposures to image receptors by measuring the amount of radiation which reaches a radiation monitoring device(s). The radiation monitoring device(s) is a part of an electronic circuit which controls the duration of time the tube is activated (see also "Automatic exposure control").

(75) "PID" (see "Position indicating device").

(76) "Portable Equipment" (see "X-ray Equipment").

(77) "Position Indicating Device" means a device on dental X-ray equipment used to indicate the beam position and to establish a definite source-surface (skin) distance. It may or may not incorporate or serve as a beam-limiting device.

(78) "Primary Dose Monitoring System" means a system which will monitor useful beam during irradiation and which will terminate irradiation when a pre-selected number of dose monitor units have been acquired.

(79) "Primary Protective Barrier" (see "Protective barrier").

(80) "Protective Apron" means an apron made of radiation absorbing materials used to reduce radiation exposure.

(81) "Protected Area" means an area shielded with primary or secondary protective barriers or an area removed from the radiation source such that the exposure rate within the area due to normal operating procedures and workload does not exceed any of the following limits:

(a) 2 milliroentgens (mR) in any one hour; or

(b) 100 mR in any one year.

(c) See OAR 333-120-0180 for additional information.

(82) "Protective Barrier" means a barrier of radiation absorbing material(s) used to reduce radiation exposure. The types of protective barriers are as follows:

(a) "Primary protective barrier" means the material, excluding filters, placed in the useful beam, for protection purposes, to reduce the radiation exposure;

(b) "Secondary protective barrier" means a barrier sufficient to attenuate the stray radiation to the required degree.

(83) "Protective Glove" means a glove made of radiation absorbing materials used to reduce radiation exposure.

(84) "Qualified Expert" means an individual, approved by the Authority, who has demonstrated, pursuant to these rules, that he/she possesses the knowledge, skills, and training to measure ionizing radiation, to evaluate radiation parameters, to evaluate safety techniques, and to advise regarding radiation protection needs. The individual shall:

(a) Be certified in the appropriate field by the American Board of Radiology, the American Board of Health Physics, the American Board of Medical Physics or the American Board of Nuclear Medicine Science; or

(b) Hold a master's or doctor's degree in physics, biophysics, radiological physics, health physics, or medical physics and have completed one year of documented, full time training in the appropriate field and also one year of documented, full time work experience under the supervision of a qualified expert in the appropriate field. To meet this requirement, the individual shall have performed the tasks required of a qualified expert during the year of work experience; or

(c) Receive approval from the Authority for specific activities.

(85) "Quality Control Program" means a program directed at film processing and radiographic image quality whereby periodic monitoring of film processing is performed. Test films are compared against control film, either visually or by use of a densitometer, to determine if density or contrast have changed. Steps can then be taken to investigate such change and correct the problem. The X-ray machine itself can also be involved in the quality control program, as can other components of the imaging chain.

(86) "Radiation Detector" means a device which in the presence of radiation provides a signal or other indication suitable for use in measuring one or more quantities of incident radiation.

(87) "Radiation Therapy Simulation System" means a radiographic or fluoroscopic system intended for localizing the volume to be exposed during radiation therapy and confirming the position and size of the therapeutic irradiation field.

(88) "Radiograph" means an image receptor on which the image is created directly or indirectly by a pattern and results in a permanent record.

(89) "Radiographic Imaging System" means any system whereby a permanent or semipermanent image is recorded on an image receptor by the action of ionizing radiation.

(90) "Radiological Physicist" means an individual who:

(a) Is certified by the American Board of Radiology in therapeutic radiological physics, radiological physics, or x- and gamma-ray physics; or

(b) Has a bachelor's degree in one of the physical sciences or engineering and three years full-time experience working in therapeutic radiological physics under the direction of a physicist certified by the American Board of Radiology. The work duties must include duties involving the calibration and spot checks of a medical accelerator or a sealed source teletherapy unit; or

(c) Has a master's or a doctor's degree in physics, biophysics, radiological physics, health physics, or engineering; has had one year's full-time training in therapeutic radiological physics; and has had one year's full-time work experience in a radiotherapy facility where the individual's duties involve calibration and spot checks of a medical accelerator or a sealed source teletherapy unit.

(91) "Radiologist" or "Oral Radiologist" means a physician or dentist trained in the diagnostic and/or therapeutic use of X-rays and who is:

(a) Currently licensed by their respective Oregon licensing board; and

(b) Board certified by the American Board of Radiology (ABR) or American Osteopathic Board of Radiology (AOBR) or American Chiropractic Board of Radiology (DACBR) or Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada (RCPSC) or the American Board of Oral and Maxillo-Facial Radiology (ABOMFR) and currently licensed to practice medicine or dentistry in Oregon.

(92) "Radiology Physician's Assistant" (R.P.A.)/ "Registered Radiology Assistant" (R.R.A.).

(a) An R.P.A. means an American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (A.R.R.T.) technologist who has successfully completed an advanced training program and is certified by the Certification Board for Radiology Practitioner Assistants (CBRPA).

(b) An R.R.A. means an A.R.R.T. technologist who has successfully completed an advanced training program and is certified by A.R.R.T.

(93) "R.T." means a radiologic technologist certified in radiography and currently licensed by the Oregon Board of Radiologic Technology (OBRT).

(94) "Rating" means the operating limits as specified by the component manufacturer.

(95) "Recording" means producing a permanent form of an image resulting from X-ray photons.

(96) "Registrant," as used in this division, means any person who owns or possesses and administratively controls an X-ray system which is used to deliberately expose humans, animals or materials to the useful beam of the system and is required by the provisions contained in divisions 100 and 101 of this chapter to register with the Authority.

(97) "Response Time" means the time required for an instrument system to reach 90 percent of its final reading when the radiation-sensitive volume of the instrument system is exposed to a step change in radiation flux from zero, sufficient to provide a steady state midscale reading.

(98) "Scattered Radiation" means radiation that, during passage through matter, has been deviated in direction (see "Direct Scattered Radiation").

(99) "Screening" means the use of a systematic approach to obtain cursory examinations of a person or group of persons without regard to specific clinical indications.

(100) "Secondary Dose Monitoring System" means a system which will terminate irradiation in the event of failure of the primary system.

(101) "Secondary Protective Barrier" (see "Protective barrier").

(102) "Shutter" means a device attached to the tube housing assembly which can totally intercept the useful beam and which has a lead equivalency not less than that of the tube housing assembly.

(103) "SID" (see "Source-image receptor distance").

(104) "Source" means the focal spot of the X-ray tube.

(105) "Source-Image Receptor Distance" means the distance from the source to the center of the input surface of the image receptor.

(106) "Spot Check" means a procedure which is performed to assure that a previous calibration continues to be valid.

(107) "Spot Film" means a radiograph which is made during a fluoroscopic examination to permanently record conditions which exist during that fluoroscopic procedure.

(108) "Spot-Film Device" means a device intended to transport and/or position a radiographic image receptor between the X-ray source and fluoroscopic image receptor. It includes a device intended to hold a cassette over the input end of an image intensifier for the purpose of making a radiograph.

(109) "SSD" means the distance between the source and the skin of the patient.

(110) "Stationary Equipment" (see "X-ray Equipment").

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(111) "Stray Radiation" means the sum of leakage and scattered radiation.

(112) "Technique Factors" means the conditions of operation. They are specified as follows:

(a) For capacitor energy storage equipment, peak tube potential in kV and quantity of charge in mAs;

(b) For field emission equipment rated for pulsed operation, peak tube potential in kV and number of X-ray pulses;

(c) For all other equipment, peak tube potential in kV and either tube current in mA and exposure time in seconds, or the product of tube current and exposure time in mAs.

(113) "Termination of Irradiation" means the stopping of irradiation in a fashion which will not permit continuance of irradiation without the resetting of operating conditions at the control panel.

(114) "Traceable to a National Standard" means that a quantity or a measurement has been compared to a national standard directly or indirectly through one or more intermediate steps and that all comparisons have been documented.

(115) "Tube" means an X-ray tube, unless otherwise specified.

(116) "Tube Housing Assembly" means the tube housing with tube installed. It includes high-voltage and/or filament transformers and other appropriate elements when such are contained within the tube housing.

(117) "Tube Rating Chart" means the set of curves which specify the rated limits of operation of the tube in terms of the technique factors.

(118) "Unprotected Area" means any area in which the exposure rate, due to the use of the radiation machine under normal operating procedures and workload, exceeds any of the following limits:

(a) Two mR in any one hour;

(b) 100 mR in any seven consecutive days; or

(c) 500 mR in any one year.

(119) "Useful Beam" means the radiation emanating from the tube housing port or the radiation head and passing through the aperture of the beam limiting device when the exposure controls are in a mode to cause the system to produce radiation.

(120) "Variable-Aperture Beam-Limiting Device" means a beam-limiting device which has capacity for stepless adjustment of the X-ray field size at a given SID.

(121) "Visible Area" means that portion of the input surface of the image receptor over which the incident X-ray photons are producing a visible image.

(122) "Wedge Filter" means an added filter effecting continuous progressive attenuation on all or part of the useful beam.

(123) "X-ray Control" means a device which controls input power to the X-ray high-voltage generator and/or the X-ray tube. It includes equipment such as exposure switches (control), timers, photo timers, automatic brightness stabilizers and similar devices, which control the technique factors of an X-ray exposure.

(124) "X-ray Equipment" means an X-ray system, subsystem, or component thereof. Types of equipment are as follows:

(a) "Mobile equipment" means X-ray equipment mounted on a permanent base with wheels and/or casters for moving while completely assembled;

(b) "Portable equipment" means X-ray equipment designed to be hand-carried;

(c) "Stationary equipment" means X-ray equipment which is installed in a fixed location; and

(d) "Transportable" means X-ray equipment installed in a vehicle or trailer.

(125) "X-ray equipment operator" means any individual who handles, adjusts technique factors, activates the exposure switch/ or button of an X-ray machine, or physically positions patients or animals for a radiograph (see "Operator").

(126) "X-ray Field" means that area of the intersection of the useful beam and any one of the set of planes parallel to and including the plane of the image receptor, whose perimeter is the locus of points at which the exposure rate is one-fourth of the maximum in the intersection.

(127) "X-ray High-Voltage Generator" means a device which transforms electrical energy from the potential supplied by the X-ray control to the tube operating potential. The device may also include means for transforming alternating current to direct current, filament transformers for the X-ray tube(s), high-voltage switches, electrical protective devices and other appropriate elements.

(128) "X-ray System" means an assemblage of components for the controlled production of X-rays. It includes minimally an X-ray high-voltage generator, an X-ray control, a tube housing assembly, a beam-limiting device and the necessary supporting structures. Additional components which function with the system are considered integral parts of the system.

(129) "X-ray Subsystem" means any combination of two or more components of an X-ray system for which there are requirements specified in this division.

(130) "X-ray Tube" means any electron tube which is designed to be used primarily for the production of X-rays.

333-106-0101

Diagnostic X-ray Systems

Additional Requirements. In addition to other requirements of this division, all diagnostic X-ray systems shall meet the following requirements:

(1) Warning Label. The control panel containing the main power switch shall bear the warning statement, legible and accessible to view: "WARNING: This X-ray unit may be dangerous to patient and operator unless safe exposure factors and operating instructions are observed."

(2) The state will attach an identification number to each X-ray control panel or an appropriate location:

(a) Identification numbers shall not be removed without written permission of the Authority;

(b) Identification numbers shall not be defaced.

(3) Mobile and portable X-ray systems shall meet the requirements of a stationary system when used for greater than seven consecutive days in the same location.

(4) Battery Charge Indicator. On battery-powered X-ray generators, visual means shall be provided on the control panel to indicate whether the battery is in a state of charge adequate for proper operation.

(5) Leakage Radiation from the Diagnostic Source Assembly. The leakage radiation from the diagnostic source assembly measured at a distance of one meter in any direction from the source shall not exceed 100 mR (25.8 C/kg) in one hour when the X-ray tube is operated at its leakage technique factors. Compliance shall be determined by measurements averaged over an area of 100 square cm with no linear dimension greater than 20 cm.

(6) Radiation from Components Other Than the Diagnostic Source Assembly. The radiation emitted by a component other than the diagnostic source assembly shall not exceed 2 mR (0.516 C/kg) in one hour at 5 cm from any accessible surface of the component when it is operated in an assembled X-ray system under any conditions for which it was designed. Compliance shall be determined by measurements averaged over an area of 100 square cm with no linear dimension greater than 20 cm.

(7) Beam Quality:

(a) Half-Value Layer (HVL):

The HVL of the useful beam for a given X-ray tube potential shall not be less than the values shown in Table 4. If it is necessary to determine such HVL at an X-ray tube potential which is not listed in Table 4, linear interpolation or extrapolation may be made; The referenced table is available on the Program's website: <http://www.oregon.gov/DHS/ph/rps/index.shtml>

(A) The HVL required in subsection (7)(a) of this rule will be considered to have been met if it can be demonstrated that the aluminum equivalent of the total filtration in the primary beam is not less than that shown in Table 5. The referenced table is available on the Program's website: <http://www.oregon.gov/DHS/ph/rps/index.shtml>

(B) In addition to the requirements of section (5) of this rule, all intra-oral dental radiographic systems manufactured on and after December 1, 1980, shall have a minimum HVL not less than 1.5 mm aluminum (Al) equivalent filtration permanently installed in the useful beam;

(C) Beryllium window tubes shall have a minimum of 0.5 mm Al equivalent filtration permanently installed in the useful beam;

(D) For capacitor energy storage equipment, compliance with the requirements of section (5) of this rule shall be determined with the maximum quantity of charge per exposure;

(E) The required minimal aluminum equivalent filtration shall include the filtration contributed by all materials, which are always, present between the source and the patient.

(b) Filtration Controls. For X-ray systems which have variable kVp and variable filtration for the useful beam, a device shall link the kVp selec-

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

tor with the filter(s) and shall prevent an exposure unless the minimum amount of filtration required by subsection (5)(a) of this rule is in the useful beam for the given kVp, which has been selected.

(8) Multiple Tubes. Where two or more radiographic tubes are controlled by one exposure switch, the tube or tubes, which have been selected, shall be clearly indicated prior to initiation of the exposure. This indication shall be both on the X-ray control panel and at or near the tube housing assembly, which has been selected.

(9) Mechanical Support of Tube Head. The tube housing assembly supports shall be adjusted such that the tube housing assembly will remain stable during an exposure unless the tube housing movement is a designed function of the X-ray system.

(10) Technique Indicators:

(a) The technique factors to be used during an exposure shall be indicated before the exposure begins. If automatic exposure controls are used, the technique factors, which are set prior to the exposure, shall be indicated;

(b) The requirement of subsection (10)(a) of this rule may be met by permanent marking on equipment having fixed technique factors.

(11) There shall be provided for each X-ray machine a means for determining the proper SID.

(12) X-ray film developing requirements. Compliance with this section is required of all healing arts registrants and is designed to ensure that patient and operator exposure is minimized and to produce optimum image quality and diagnostic information:

(a) Manual processing of films.

(A) The relationship between temperature of the developer and development time indicated in Table 6 or the manufacturer's recommendations must be used with standard developing chemistry. The referenced table is available on the Program's website: <http://www.oregon.gov/DHS/ph/rps/index.shtml>

(B) Processing of film. All films shall be processed in such a fashion as to achieve adequate sensitometric performance. This criterion shall be adjudged to have been met if:

(i) Film manufacturer's published recommendations for time and temperature are followed; or

(ii) Each film is developed in accordance with the time-temperature chart (see subsection (12)(a) of this rule).

(C) Chemical-film processing control.

(i) Chemicals shall be mixed in accordance with the chemical manufacturer's recommendations;

(ii) Developer replenisher shall be periodically added to the developer tank based on the recommendations of the chemical or film manufacturer. Solution may be removed from the tank to permit the addition of an adequate volume of replenisher.

(D) All processing chemicals shall be completely replaced at least every two months or as indicated by the manufacturer.

(E) Devices shall be available which will:

(i) Give the actual temperature of the developer; and

(ii) Give an audible or visible signal indicating the termination of a preset development time (in minutes or seconds).

(b) Automatic film processing. Films shall be processed in such a manner that the degree of film development is the same as would be achieved by proper adherence to subsection (a) of this rule (manual processing).

(c) Darkrooms. Darkrooms shall be constructed so that film being processed, handled, or stored will be exposed only to light which has passed through an appropriate safelight filter.

(d) Safelights shall be mounted in accordance with manufacturer's recommendations.

(e) Light bulbs used in safelights shall be the type and wattage recommended by the manufacturer.

(f) Safelight lenses shall be the type recommended for use by the film manufacturer.

(g) Rapid film processing. Special chemicals have been designed for use in Endodontics. These chemicals have special development requirements and do not permit as large a margin of error in darkroom technique as do standard developing chemicals. Failure to precisely follow manufacturer's recommendations can easily lead to overexposure and underdevelopment. Darkroom procedures shall include:

(A) The manufacturer's time temperature development is crucial and shall be followed exactly;

(B) Caution: A timer capable of accurately measuring the short development times required shall be used;

(C) If rapid chemical processing is used for general radiography all applicable requirements of section (12) of this rule shall be followed.

(h) The Authority shall make such tests as may be necessary to determine compliance with this section.

Definitions

(1) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(2) "Customer" means any member of the public who is provided access to a tanning device in exchange for a fee or other compensation, or any individual who, in exchange for a fee or other compensation, is afforded use of a tanning device as a condition or benefit of membership or access.

(3) "Employee" means any individual, including a minor whether lawfully or unlawfully employed, who engages to furnish services for remuneration, financial or otherwise, subject to the direction and control of an employer and includes any individual who is required to have workers' compensation coverage.

(4) "EPA" means the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

(5) "FDA" means the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

(6) "Formal Training" means a course of instruction reviewed and approved by the Authority and which is conducted or presented under formal classroom conditions or online by a qualified expert possessing adequate knowledge and experience to offer a curriculum, associated training, and certification testing pertaining to and associated with the correct use of tanning equipment. Operator training shall cover ultraviolet radiation and effects on the skin, photosensitivity, FDA and State of Oregon regulations, eye protection, and equipment maintenance.

(7) "Handrails" means a suitable physical aid that will help to maintain proper exposure distance.

(8) "Individual" means any human being.

(9) "Minor" means any individual under the age of 18.

(10) "Operator" means the person who is an employee (defined by the Oregon Occupational Safety and Health Division, Oregon Administrative Rule 437-003-0011(2)) or contractor of the tanning facility who has received a certificate from an approved formal training course and who is responsible for:

(a) Determining customer's skin type;

(b) Determining the suitability for use of a tanning device;

(c) Providing information regarding the dangers of ultraviolet radiation exposure including photoallergic reactions and photosensitizing agents;

(d) Assuring that all required forms are understood and properly signed by the customer;

(e) Maintaining required exposure records;

(f) Recognizing and reporting injuries or alleged injuries to the registrant;

(g) Determining the customers' exposure schedule;

(h) Setting timers which control the duration of exposure; and

(i) Instructing the customer in the proper use of protective eyewear.

(11) "Other Compensation" means the payment or exchange of goods, services or anything of value for use of the tanning device or devices.

(12) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, firm, association, trust, estate, public or private institution, group, agency, political subdivision of this state, any other state or political subdivision or agency thereof, and any legal successor, representative, agent or agency of these entities.

(13) "Phototherapy Device" means equipment that emits Ultraviolet radiation used by a health care professional in the treatment of disease or illness.

(14) "Program" means the Radiation Protection Services section of the Public Health Division.

(15) "Protective Eyewear" means suitable eyewear that protects the eye from Ultraviolet radiation and allows adequate vision.

(16) "Registrant" means a tanning facility registered with the Authority as required by provisions of this division.

(17) "Registration" means registration with the Authority in accordance with provisions of this division.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(18) "Safe Level" means not more than 50 colonies of microorganisms per four square inches of equipment surface.

(19) "Sanitize" means the effective bactericidal treatment of surfaces of equipment and devices by an EPA or FDA registered product that provides a sufficient concentration of chemicals, and enough time to reduce the bacterial count, including pathogens, to a safe level. Chemical germicides that are registered with EPA as hospital disinfectants when used at recommended dilutions and directions may be approved for sanitizing of tanning devices.

(20) "Tanning Device" means any equipment used for tanning of the skin, that emits electromagnetic radiation with wavelengths in the air between 200 and 400 nanometers including, but not limited to, a sunlamp, Ultraviolet Lamp, tanning booth, facial unit, UVA wand, or tanning bed. "Tanning device" also means any accompanying equipment, including, but not limited to, protective eyewear, timers, ballasts, starters, lamps, reflectors, cooling fans, acrylics, comfort pillows and handrails.

(21) "Tanning Facility" means any location, place, area, structure, or business that provides persons access to any tanning device.

(22) "Timers" means a device provided to terminate the exposure at a preset time interval.

(23) "Ultraviolet Radiation" means radiation that has a wavelength between two hundred nanometers and four hundred nanometers.

333-536-0005

Definitions

As used in 333-536-0000 through 333-536-0095, the following definitions apply:

(1) Abuse.

(A) As it applies to an adult, includes but is not limited to:

(i) Any physical injury caused by other than accidental means, or that appears to be at variance with the explanation given of the injury.

(ii) Neglect that leads to physical harm through withholding of services necessary to maintain health and well-being.

(iii) Abandonment, including desertion or willful forsaking of a person or the withdrawal or neglect of duties and obligations owed a person.

(iv) Willful infliction of physical pain or injury.

(v) Use of derogatory or inappropriate names, phrases or profanity, ridicule, harassment, coercion, threats, cursing, intimidation or inappropriate sexual comments or conduct of such a nature as to threaten significant physical or emotional harm to a person.

(vi) Wrongfully taking or appropriating money or property, of knowingly subjecting a person to harm by conveying a threat to wrongfully take or appropriate money or property, which threat reasonably would be expected to cause the person to believe that the threat will be carried out.

(vii) Sexual contact with a non-consenting person or with a person considered incapable of consenting to a sexual act as described in ORS 163.315. As used in this paragraph, "sexual contact" has the meaning given that term in ORS 163.305.

(B) As it applies to a child, has the same meaning as "abuse" as that term is defined in ORS 419B.005.

(2) "Activities of Daily Living" means self-care activities that must be accomplished by an individual to meet his or her daily needs.

(3) "Agency" means In-Home Care Agency.

(4) "Authentication" means verification by the author that an entry in the client record is genuine.

(5) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(6) "Branch office" means a location or site from which an in-home care agency provides services within a portion of the total geographic area served by the parent agency. The site of the branch office generally does not exceed one hour of travel time from the parent agency. The branch office is part of the in-home care agency and is located sufficiently close to share administration, supervision, and services in a manner that renders it unnecessary for the branch to independently meet the requirements of an in-home care agency.

(7) "Caregiver" means a person providing assistance with activities of daily living or assistance with personal care tasks, household and supportive services, or medication services as authorized by these rules.

(8) "Client Representative" means:

(a) A parent, stepparent, foster parent, or other adult with primary caregiving responsibility for the client when the client is a child; or

(b) An individual, paid or unpaid, related or unrelated, who acts on behalf of, or cares for the client when the client is an adult.

(9) "Governing Body" means the owner or designee legally responsible for the direction and control of the operation of the in-home care agency.

(10) "Home health agency" means a public or private agency that provides coordinated home health services on a home visiting basis. Home health agencies provide skilled nursing services and at least one of the following therapeutic services:

(a) Physical therapy;

(b) Occupational therapy;

(c) Speech therapy;

(d) Home health aide services.

(11) "In-home care agency" means an agency primarily engaged in providing in-home care services for compensation to an individual in that individual's place of residence. "In-home care agency" does not include a home health agency or portion of an agency providing home health services as defined in ORS 443.005.

(12) "In-home care services" means personal care services furnished by an in-home care agency, or an individual under an arrangement or contract with an in-home care agency, that are necessary to assist an individual in meeting the individual's daily needs, but do not include curative or rehabilitative services.

(13) "Licensed" means that the person or agency for which the term applies is currently licensed, certified, or registered by the proper authority within the State of Oregon.

(14) "Medication assistance" means self-administration of non-injectable medication which the client is not physically able to administer to him or herself, but fully self directs its administration.

(15) "Medication administration" means agency staff administering medications to a client or directly supervising the client who is not able or not willing to self-direct, but may be physically able to perform the tasks.

(16) "Medication set up" means taking the client's medications from original containers and putting the medications into closed secondary containers designed and manufactured for this purpose.

(17) "Parent agency" means the in-home care agency that develops and maintains administrative controls of subunits or branch offices.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(18) "Personal care services" means the provision of or assistance with tasks intended to supplement a client's own personal abilities which are necessary to accomplish the client's activities of daily living and other activities as described in OAR 333-536-0045(1), and are preventive and maintaining in nature.

(19) "Registered Nurse" (RN) means a person licensed under ORS Chapter 678.

(20) "Schedule caregivers" means to plan appointments for caregivers to deliver specific in-home care services to clients; the times and dates of these appointments are set by the in-home care agency.

(21) "Skilled nursing services" means the patient care services pertaining to the curative, rehabilitative, and/or preventive aspects of nursing performed by, or under the supervision of, registered nurse pursuant to the plan of treatment established by a physician or nurse practitioner.

(22) "Stable and predictable condition" means a situation where the client's clinical and behavioral state is known, not characterized by rapid changes, and does not require continuous reassessment and evaluation.

(23) "Subunit" means an in-home care agency that provides for a parent agency in a geographic area different from that of the parent agency and generally exceeding one hour of travel time from the location of the parent agency.

(24) "Written "pro re nata (prn) parameters" means directions that are so specific that the unlicensed caregivers uses no discretion when administering prn (as needed) medications or treatments.

333-700-0005

Definitions

As used in OAR chapter 333, division 700, unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Health care facility" (HCF) has the meaning given the term in Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 442.015, and includes but is not limited to the classifications defined in subsections (a) through (e) of this section. The phrases "subject health care facility(ies)" and "subject HCF(s)" refer to those classifications subject to Oregon Health Authority or Department of Human Services licensure; i.e., hospitals, special inpatient care facilities, long-term care facilities, ambulatory surgical centers, outpatient renal dialysis facilities, and freestanding birthing centers.

(a) "Hospital" means an establishment with an organized medical staff, with permanent facilities that include inpatient beds, and with medical services, including physician services and continuous nursing services under the supervision of registered nurses, to provide diagnosis and medical or surgical treatment primarily for, but not limited to, acutely ill patients and accident victims, or to provide treatment for the mentally ill or to provide treatment in special inpatient care facilities. "Special inpatient care facilities" are facilities with permanent inpatient beds and other facilities designed and utilized for special health care purposes, to include but not be limited to: Rehabilitation center, college infirmary, chiropractic facility, facility for the treatment of alcoholism or drug abuse, freestanding hospice facility, infirmary for the homeless, or inpatient care facility meeting the requirements of ORS 441.065, and any other establishment falling within a classification established by the Authority, after determination of the need for such classification and the level and kind of health care appropriate for such classification.

(b) "Long-term care facility" includes the terms "skilled nursing facility" and "intermediate care facility," but such definition shall not be construed to include facilities licensed and operated pursuant to ORS 443.400 to 443.455.

(c) "Ambulatory surgical center" (ASC) means a health care facility which performs outpatient surgery not routinely or customarily performed in a physician's or dentist's office, and is able to meet health facility licensure requirements.

(d) A freestanding birthing center means a health care facility licensed for the primary purpose of performing low risk deliveries.

(e) An outpatient renal dialysis facility means a facility licensed to provide ESRD services on an outpatient basis.

(2) "Administrator" means a person designated by the governing body to have overall management of the facility. The administrator enforces the rules and regulations relative to the health care and safety of patients. The administrator plans, organizes, and directs those responsibilities delegated to the administrator by the governing body.

(3) As used in 333-700-0085 and 333-700-0090, the term "assessment" means an assessment done by a registered nurse, social worker, or dietitian that is appropriate for the scope of practice for that discipline. This includes:

(a) Systematic and ongoing collection of information to determine an individual's health status and need for intervention;

(b) Comparison with past information; and

(c) Judgment, evaluation, or conclusion that occurs as a result of parts (a) and (b) of this definition.

(4) "Agreement", as used in these rules, means a written document executed between a dialysis facility and another facility in which the other facility agrees to assume responsibility for furnishing specified services to patients and for obtaining reimbursement for those services.

(5) "Arrangement", as used in these rules, means a written document executed between a dialysis facility and another facility in which the other facility agrees to furnish specified services to patients but the dialysis facility retains responsibility for those services and for obtaining reimbursement for them.

(6) "Authentication" means verification that an entry in the patient medical record is genuine.

(7) "Authority" means the Oregon Health Authority.

(8) "CMS" means the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services.

(9) "Dialysis" means a process by which dissolved substances are removed from a patient's body by diffusion from one fluid compartment to another across a semi-permeable membrane. The two types of dialysis that are currently in common use are hemodialysis and peritoneal dialysis.

(10) "Discharge", as used in these rules, means the process whereby a patient who was receiving services in a facility is either sent home, transferred to another facility or has died.

847-002-0000

Purpose and Intent

The purpose of these rules is to provide for the reasonable screening of subject individuals to determine if they have a history of criminal behavior such that they are not fit to work or volunteer for the Board. The fact that the Board determines that a subject individual is fit does not guarantee the individual a position as a Board employee, volunteer, or that the individual will be hired by the Board.

Definitions

As used in OAR 847-002-0000 through 847-002-0050, unless the context of the rule requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

- (1) "Board" means the Oregon Medical Board.
- (2) "Conviction" means a final judgment on a verdict or finding of guilty, a plea of guilty, or a plea of nolo contendere (no contest) or any determination of guilt entered by a court of law against a subject individual in a criminal case, unless that judgment has been reversed or set aside by a subsequent court decision.
- (3) "Criminal offender information" means records and related data concerning physical description and vital statistics, fingerprints received and compiled by the Oregon State Police (OSP) to identify criminal offenders and alleged offenders, records of arrests and the nature and disposition of criminal charges, including sentencing, confinement, parole and release records.

(4) "Criminal records check" means one or more of the following three processes undertaken by the Board to check the criminal history of a subject individual:

- (a) Law Enforcement Data System (LEDS) Check: A name-based check of criminal offender information maintained by the OSP;
- (b) Oregon Criminal Records Check: A check of Oregon criminal offender information, through fingerprint identification and other means, conducted by the OSP at the Board's request; or
- (c) Nationwide Criminal Records Check: A nationwide check of federal criminal offender information, through fingerprint identification and other means, conducted by the OSP through the Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) or otherwise at the Board's request.

(5) "Criminal records request form" means a Board-approved form, completed by a subject individual, requesting the Board to conduct a criminal records check.

(6) "False statement" means, in association with an activity governed by these rules, a subject individual either:

- (a) Provided the Board with false information about the subject individual's criminal history, including but not limited to false information about the individual's identity or conviction record; or
- (b) Failed to provide the Board information material to determine the individual's criminal history.

(7) "Fitness determination" means a determination made by the Board, pursuant to the process established under OAR 847-002-0020, that a subject individual is fit or not fit to be a Board employee or volunteer.

(8) "OSP" means the Oregon State Police.

(9) "Subject individual" means an individual the Board may require to complete a criminal records check pursuant to these rules because the person is:

- (a) A Board employee;
- (b) A Board volunteer; or
- (c) An applicant for employment with the Board.

847-002-0010

Criminal Records Check Process

(1) A subject individual must disclose information required by the Board as described below:

(a) Before a criminal records check, a subject individual must complete and sign the Board Criminal Records Request form and a fingerprint card, both of which may include identifying information (e.g., name, birth date, social security number, physical characteristics, driver's license or identification card number and current and previous addresses).

(b) A subject individual must complete and submit to the Board the Criminal Records Request form and, if requested, a fingerprint card within five business days of receiving the forms. The deadline may be extended for good cause.

(c) Additional information may be required from the subject individual as necessary to complete the criminal records check and fitness determination, including but not limited to, proof of identity or additional criminal, judicial, or other background information.

(d) The Board may not request a fingerprint card from a subject individual under the age of 18 years unless the subject individual is emancipated pursuant to ORS 419B.550 et seq, or unless the Board also requests the written consent of a parent or guardian. Such parent or guardian and youth must be informed that they are not required to consent. Notwithstanding, failure to consent may be construed as a refusal to consent under OAR 847-002-0015(4).

(2) The Board or its staff may conduct, or request the OSP to conduct, a criminal record check when:

(a) An individual meets the definition of a subject individual; or

(b) A federal law or regulation, state statute or administrative rule, or contract or written agreement with the Board requires a criminal record check.

847-002-0015

Final Fitness Determination

(1) After a criminal records check, the Board or its staff must make a fitness determination about a subject individual based on information provided by the subject individual under OAR 847-002-0010(1), any criminal records check conducted, and any false statement made by the subject individual.

(2) In relation to information described in section (1) of this rule and other known information, the following factors will be considered:

(a) Whether the subject individual has been convicted, found guilty except for insanity (or a comparable disposition), or has a pending indictment for a crime listed in OAR 847-002-0020;

(b) The nature of any crime identified under section (2)(a) of this rule;

(c) The facts that support the conviction, finding of guilty except for insanity, or pending indictment;

(d) Any facts that indicate the subject individual made a false statement;

(e) The relevance, if any, of a crime identified under section (2)(a) of this rule or of a false statement made by the subject individual to the specific requirements of the subject individual's present or proposed position, services or employment; and

(f) The following intervening circumstances, to the extent that they are relevant to the responsibilities and circumstances of the position, services or employment:

(A) The passage of time since the commission or alleged commission of the crime identified under section (2)(a) of this rule;

(B) The age of the subject individual at the time of the commission or alleged commission of the crime identified under section (2)(a) of this rule;

(C) The likelihood of a repetition of offenses or of the commission of another crime;

(D) The subsequent commission of another crime listed in OAR 847-002-0020;

(E) Whether the conviction identified under section (2)(a) of this rule has been set aside, and the legal effect of setting aside the conviction;

(F) A recommendation of an employer;

(G) The disposition of the pending indictment identified under section (2)(a) of this rule;

(H) Whether the subject individual has been arrested for or charged with a crime listed under OAR 847-002-0020;

(I) Whether the subject individual is being investigated, or has an outstanding warrant, for a crime listed under OAR 847-002-0020;

(J) Whether the subject individual is currently on probation, parole or another form of post-prison supervision for a crime listed under OAR 847-002-0020;

(K) Whether the subject individual has a deferred sentence or conditional discharge in connection with a crime listed under OAR 847-002-0020;

(L) Whether the subject individual has been adjudicated in a juvenile court and found to be within the court's jurisdiction for an offense that would have constituted a crime listed in OAR 847-002-0020 if committed by an adult;

(M) Periods of incarceration of the subject individual; and

(N) The education and work history (paid or volunteer) of the subject individual since the commission or alleged commission of a crime.

(3) The subject individual must meet with the Board or its staff if requested and provide additional relevant information or authorization to obtain other relevant information within a reasonable period of time, as established by the Board.

(4) If a subject individual refuses to submit or consent to a criminal records check including fingerprint identification, the Board may deny the position, employment or services. A person may not appeal any determination made based on a refusal to consent.

(5) If a subject individual is determined to be not fit, the subject individual may not be employed by or provide services as a volunteer to the Board.

(6) A completed final fitness determination is a final order of the Board unless the affected subject individual appeals the determination by requesting a contested case hearing as provided by OAR 847-002-0035(1) or an alternative appeals process as provided by OAR 847-002-0035(6).

Potentially Disqualifying Crimes

(1) Crimes Relevant to a Fitness Determination:

(a) All felonies;

(b) All misdemeanors; and

(c) Any United States Military crime or international crime.

(2) A crime will be evaluated on the basis of the law of the jurisdiction in which the crime or offense occurred, as those laws are in effect at the time of the fitness determination.

(3) Under no circumstances may a subject individual be determined to be not fit under these rules on the basis of the existence or contents of a juvenile record that has been expunged pursuant to ORS 419A.260 and 419A.262.

Incomplete Fitness Determination.

(1) A preliminary or final fitness determination is incomplete when:

(a) Circumstances change so that a person no longer meets the definition of a "subject individual" under OAR 847-002-0005;

(b) The subject individual does not submit materials or information within the time required under OAR 847-001-0045;

(c) The Board cannot locate or contact the subject individual;

(d) The subject individual fails or refuses to cooperate with attempts to acquire other criminal records information under OAR 847-002-0015;

(e) The subject individual is not eligible or not qualified for the position of employee or volunteer, for a reason unrelated to the fitness determination process; or

(f) The position is no longer open.

(2) A subject individual does not have a right to a contested case hearing under OAR 847-002-0035(1) or a right to an alternative appeals process under OAR 847-002-0035(6) to challenge the closing of a fitness determination as incomplete.

847-002-0035

Appealing a Fitness Determination

(1) Appeal process:

(a) To request a contested case hearing, the subject individual or the subject individual's legal representative must submit a written request for a contested case within 14 calendar days of the date of the notice provided under OAR 847-002-0030 to the address specified in that notice. The Board must address a request received after expiration of the deadline as provided under OAR 137-003-0528.

(b) When a timely request is received, a contested case hearing will be conducted by an administrative law judge assigned by the Office of Administrative Hearings, pursuant to the Attorney General's Uniform and Model Rules, "Procedural Rules, Office of Administrative Hearings" OAR 137-003-0501 to 137-003-0700, as supplemented by the provisions of this rule.

(2) Discovery: The Board or the administrative law judge may protect information made confidential by ORS 181.534(15) or other applicable law as provided under OAR 137-003-0570(7) or (8).

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(3) Contested case hearings on fitness determinations are closed to non-participants.

(4) Proposed and Final Order:

(a) After a hearing, the administrative law judge will issue a proposed order.

(b) Exceptions, if any, must be filed within 14 calendar days after service of the proposed order. The proposed order must provide an address to which exceptions must be sent.

(c) A completed final fitness determination made under OAR 847-002-0015 becomes final:

(A) Unless the subject individual makes a timely request for a hearing; or

(B) When a party withdraws a hearing request, notifies the Board or the Administrative Law Judge that the party will not appear, or fails to appear at the hearing.

(5) The only remedy that may be awarded is a determination that the subject individual is fit or not fit. Under no circumstances may the Board be required to place a subject individual in any position, nor may the Board be required to accept services or enter into a contractual agreement with a subject individual.

(6) Alternative Process: A subject individual currently employed by the Board may choose to appeal a fitness determination either under the process made available in sections (1) to (5) of this rule or through a process made available by applicable personnel rules, policies and collective bargaining provisions. A subject individual's decision to appeal a fitness determination through applicable personnel rules, policies, and collective bargaining provisions is an election of remedies as to the rights of the individual with respect to the fitness determination and is a waiver of the contested case process made available by this rule.

(7) A subject individual may not use the appeals process established by this rule to challenge the accuracy or completeness of information provided by the OSP, the FBI, or agencies reporting information to the OSP or the FBI.

(a) To challenge such information, a subject individual may use any process made available by the agency that provided the information.

(b) If the subject individual successfully challenges the accuracy or completeness of such information and the position for which the original criminal history check was conducted is vacant and available, the subject individual may request that the Board conduct a new criminal records check and re-evaluate the original fitness determination made under OAR 847-002-0015 by submitting a new Board Criminal Records Request form.

(8) Appealing a fitness determination under section (1) or section (6) of this rule, challenging criminal offender information with the agency that provided the information, or requesting a new criminal records check and re-evaluation of the original fitness determination under section (7)(b) of this rule, will not delay or postpone the Board's hiring process or employment decisions.

Reinstatement of License Lapsed Due to Non-Renewal

(1) A licensee of the Board whose license has lapsed through failure to renew registration may:

(a) Reinstatement within 90 days of the end of the registration period by paying a late registration fee, paying renewal fees for the lapsed registration period, completing and submitting the required forms, and meeting any other requirements defined by Oregon law. The reinstatement will be effective on the date the renewal is processed.

(b) Reactivate after 90 days from the end of the registration period but within two biennia by completing and submitting the reactivation application and processing fee, paying a late registration fee, paying renewal fees for the lapsed registration periods, and meeting any other requirements defined by Oregon law. If a licensee has ceased the practice of medicine for a period of 12 or more consecutive months, the licensee may be required to demonstrate clinical competency. If a licensee has ceased the practice of medicine for a period of 24 or more consecutive months, the licensee may be required to complete a re-entry plan. The reactivation will be effective on the date the renewal is processed.

(2) A license will expire if it is not reinstated or reactivated within two biennia from the date the license lapsed. A previous licensee of the Board who wishes to be relicensed after the license has expired must apply as a new applicant by submitting the license application form and fee, meeting all current licensing requirements, and satisfactorily completing the application process.

(1) A licensee of the Board who wishes to reactivate from an inactive or emeritus status to an active or locum tenens status, or from locum tenens status to active status, must provide the Board with the following:

(a) Completed Affidavit of Reactivation form;

(b) Completed application(s) for registration;

(c) Appropriate fees for processing of affidavit and registration;

(d) A completed "Reports for Disciplinary Inquiries" (MD/DO/DPM) sent to the Board from the Federation of State Medical Boards or

Federation of Podiatric Medical Boards and the results of the Practitioner Request for Information Disclosure (Self-Query) from the National Practitioners Data Bank and the Healthcare Integrity and Protection Data Bank, sent to the Board by the applicant;

(e) Verification of current licensure sent directly from each of the State Boards in the United States or Canada where the licensee has been practicing during the past 5 years, or from the date the license to practice in Oregon changed to inactive, locum tenens or emeritus status, whichever is the shorter period of time, showing license number, date issued, and status; and

(f) An official letter sent directly to the Board from the director, administrator, dean, or other official of each hospital, clinic, office, or training institute where the licensee was employed, practiced, had hospital privileges (MD/DO/DPM), or trained in the United States or foreign countries during the past 5 years, or from the date the license to practice in Oregon changed to locum tenens, inactive or emeritus status, whichever is the shorter period of time. The letter must include an evaluation of overall performance, and specific beginning and ending dates of practice/employment/training.

(2) A licensee who wishes to reactivate from an active-military or public health status to an active or locum tenens status must provide the Board with a completed Affidavit of Reactivation form and a copy of the Active Duty Orders, Change of Duty Orders or Reassignment Orders.

(3) A personal appearance before the Board may be required.

(4) If, in the judgment of the Board, the conduct of the licensee has been such, during the period of active-military or public health, locum tenens, inactive or emeritus registration, that the licensee would have been denied a license if applying for an initial license to practice medicine, the Board may deny active registration.

(5) If a licensee has ceased the practice of medicine for a period of 12 or more consecutive months, the licensee may be required to demonstrate clinical competency.

Mandatory Pain Management Education

(1) All licensees of the Oregon Medical Board, except the licensees listed in section (2) of this rule, must complete mandatory continuing medical education (CME) in the subjects of pain management and/or the treatment of terminally ill and dying patients as follows:

(a) A one-hour pain management course specific to Oregon provided by the Pain Management Commission of the Department of Human Services; and

(b) A minimum of six continuing medical education credit hours in the subjects of pain management and/or the treatment of terminally ill and dying patients. Any combination of CME coursework focusing on pain management and/or treatment of terminally ill and dying patients may be used to fulfill this requirement.

(2) Licensees holding the following types of licenses are not required to meet this requirement:

- (a) Lapsed license;
- (b) Limited License;
- (c) Telemedicine license;
- (d) Teleradiology license; or
- (e) Telemonitoring license.

(3) The required CME must be completed after January 1, 2000, and before January 2, 2009.

(4) Licensees must be prepared to provide documentation of CME if requested by the Board.

(5) All applicants granted a license after January 2, 2009, except those granted a license listed in section (2), must obtain the required CME coursework no later than 12 months after the date the Board granted licensure.

(6) Licensees who wish to reactivate to a status requiring completion of this CME who have not previously completed the required CME must obtain the required coursework no later than 12 months after the date the Board approved reactivation.

(7) The continuing medical education hours in pain management and/or the treatment of terminally ill or dying patients may be used to fulfill the continuing medical education hours required for registration renewal under 847-008-0070.

Definitions

(1) "Agent" means a medical or osteopathic physician licensed under ORS Chapter 677, actively registered and in good standing with the Board, a resident of or actively practicing in the area in which the emergency service is located, designated by the supervising physician to provide direction of the medical services of EMTs and First Responders as specified in these rules.

(2) "Board" means the Oregon Medical Board for the State of Oregon.

(3) "Committee" means the EMT Advisory Committee to the Oregon Medical Board.

(4) "Emergency Care" as defined in ORS 682.025(5) means the performance of acts or procedures under emergency conditions in the observation, care and counsel of the ill, injured or disabled; in the administration of care or medications as prescribed by a licensed physician, insofar as any of these acts is based upon knowledge and application of the principles of biological, physical and social science as required by a completed course utilizing an approved curriculum in prehospital emergency care. However, "emergency care" does not include acts of medical diagnosis or prescription of therapeutic or corrective measures.

(5) "Authority" means the Public Health Division, Emergency Medical Services and Trauma Systems of the Oregon Health Authority.

(6) "First Responder" means a person who is certified by the Authority as a First Responder.

(7) "Emergency Medical Technician-Basic (EMT-Basic)" means a person who is certified by the Authority as an EMT-Basic.

(8) "Advanced Emergency Medical Technician (AEMT or Advanced EMT)" means a person who is certified by the Authority as an Advanced Emergency Medical Technician (AEMT).

(9) "Emergency Medical Technician-Intermediate (EMT-Intermediate)" means a person who is certified by the Authority as an EMT-Intermediate.

(10) "Emergency Medical Technician-Paramedic (EMT-Paramedic)" means a person who is certified by the Authority as an EMT-Paramedic.

(11) "In Good Standing" means a person who is currently certified or licensed, who does not have any restrictions placed on his/her certificate or license, or who is not on probation with the certifying or licensing agency for any reason.

(12) "Nonemergency care" as defined in ORS 682.025 (11) means the performance of acts or procedures on a patient who is not expected to die, become permanently disabled or suffer permanent harm within the next 24 hours, including but not limited to observation, care and counsel of a patient and the administration of medications prescribed by a physician licensed under ORS 677, insofar as any of these acts are based upon knowledge and application of the principles of biological, physical and social science and are performed in accordance with scope of practice rules adopted by the Oregon Medical Board in the course of providing prehospital care.

(13) "Supervising Physician" means a person licensed under ORS Chapter 677, actively registered and in good standing with the Board as a Medical Doctor or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine, approved by the Board, and who provides direction of, and is ultimately responsible for emergency and nonemergency care rendered by EMTs and First Responders as specified in these rules. The supervising physician is also ultimately responsible for the agent designated by the supervising physician to provide direction of the medical services of the EMT and First Responder as specified in these rules.

(14) "Scope of Practice" means the maximum level of emergency and nonemergency care that an EMT or First Responder may provide as defined in OAR 847-035-0030.

(15) "Standing Orders" means the written detailed procedures for medical or trauma emergencies and nonemergency care to be performed by an EMT or First Responder issued by the supervising physician commensurate with the scope of practice and level of certification of the EMT or First Responder.

Supervision

(1) A supervising physician is responsible for the following:

(a) Issuance, review and maintenance of standing orders within the scope of practice not to exceed the certification level of the EMT or the First Responder when applicable;

(b) Explaining the standing orders to the EMT and First Responder, making sure they are understood and not exceeded;

(c) Ascertaining that the EMT and First Responder are currently certified and in good standing with the Division;

(d) Providing regular review of the EMT's and First Responder's practice by complying with one or more of the following:

(A) Direct observation of prehospital emergency care performance by riding with the emergency medical service; and

(B) Indirect observation using one or more of the following:

(i) Prehospital emergency care report review;

(ii) Prehospital communications tapes review;

(iii) Immediate critiques following presentation of reports;

(iv) Demonstration of technical skills; and

(v) Post-care patient or receiving physician interviews using questionnaire or direct interview techniques.

(e) Provide or coordinate formal case reviews for EMTs by thoroughly discussing a case (whether one in which the EMT has taken part or a textbook case) from the time the call was received until the patient was delivered to the hospital. The review should include discussing what the problem was, what actions were taken (right or wrong), what could have been done that was not, and what improvements could have been made;

(f) Provide or coordinate continuing education. Although the supervising physician is not required to teach all sessions, the supervising physician is responsible for assuring that the sessions are taught by a qualified person.

(2) The supervising physician may delegate responsibility to his/her agent to provide any or all of the following:

(a) Explanation of the standing orders to the EMT or First Responder, making sure they are understood, and not exceeded;

(b) Assurance that the EMT or First Responder is currently certified and in good standing with the Division;

(c) Regular review of the EMT's and First Responder's practice by complying with one or more of the following:

(A) Direct observation of prehospital emergency care performance by riding with the emergency medical service; and

(B) Indirect observation using one or more of the following:

(i) Prehospital emergency care report review;

(ii) Prehospital communications tapes review;

(iii) Immediate critiques following presentation of reports;

(iv) Demonstration of technical skills; and

(v) Post-care patient or receiving physician interviews using questionnaire or direct interview techniques.

(d) Provide or coordinate continuing education. Although the supervising physician or agent is not required to teach all sessions, the supervising physician or agent is responsible for assuring that the sessions are taught by a qualified person.

(3) Nothing in this section shall limit the number of EMTs and First Responders that may be supervised by a supervising physician so long as the supervising physician can meet with the EMTs and First Responders under his/her direction for a minimum of two hours each calendar year.

(4) An EMT or First Responder may have more than one supervising physician as long as the EMT or First Responder has notified all of the supervising physicians involved, and the EMT or First Responder is functioning under one supervising physician at a time.

(5) The supervising physician shall report in writing to the Authority's Chief Investigator any action or behavior on the part of the EMT or First Responder which could be cause for disciplinary action under ORS 823.160 or 823.165.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

571-060-0005

Special Fees, Fines, Penalties, Service Charges

The University of Oregon has adopted by reference a list of Special Fees, Fines, Penalties, Service Charges, etc., for the current fiscal year:

(1) The fees, fines, penalties and service charges listed by reference in this rule are updated annually and copies are on file in the listed departments by July 1.

(2) The amounts and conditions of these fees may change from time to time throughout the year due to administrative considerations, changing costs, changes in institutional budgets, etc. If the size and the amount of these fees are or could be of importance to users, they should verify the details prior to making a commitment, before entering into any planning activities or before actually incurring any charges.

(3) The master copy of the current list of fees is maintained in the Office of the Director of Business Affairs and is available upon request to any person during regular business hours. The Director of Business Affairs also maintains a bulletin board where fee changes made during each 30-day period are posted. Following that posted period, the changes are filed with in the master copy.

(4) University departments charging fees shall maintain a copy of at least that department's section of the list of special fees, fines, penalties and service charges including any updates made during the course of the fiscal year. The list and all current changes shall be available upon request to any person during regular departmental business hours.

(5) No department may change fees between annual amendments to this rule without first obtaining an approved statement of justification signed by the appropriate Vice-President. Prior to granting approval of any fee charged to students, the Vice-President shall consult with the Office of Student Advocacy. Changes in fees approved by the Vice-President and the justification statement shall be posted for 15 days in a public area of the departmental office. The new fee, fine, penalty or charge becomes effective at the end of the 15-day posting period after it is filed with the Director of Business Affairs along with the justification statement.

(6) However, student loan service charges, charges levied as penalties for prohibited conduct, general tuition, building fees, incidental fees, health service fees, and residence hall and housing charges, shall be adopted in accordance with the provision of ORS 183.310 to 183.500.

(7) Certain charges, fees or fee schedules may, according to ORS 351.072(b), be adopted without compliance with rulemaking provisions of ORS 183.310 to 183.500. They are: charges relating to symposiums, conferences, short courses, food, books or other retail goods, prices of admission to athletic, entertainment or cultural events or advertising rates in student or institutional publications.

Psychiatric Security Review Board Chapter 859

Rule Caption: Establishes Exception for Petition Requirements for Persons who Previously received Judicial Relief for their Civil Commitment Firearm Bar.

Adm. Order No.: PSRB 2-2011(Temp)

Filed with Sec. of State: 7-5-2011

Certified to be Effective: 7-5-11 thru 12-27-11

Notice Publication Date:

Rules Amended: 859-300-0050

Subject: Oregon Laws 2009, Ch. 826 requires the PSRB to administer a hearings process for persons who are disqualified from transporting, shipping, possessing, or receiving a firearm under federal and certain state laws. Prior to the passage of this legislation, persons previously civilly committed could seek judicial relief from state court to request that their state firearms privilege be restored. However, this judicial relief never restored their federal firearm privileges. On August 3, 2009, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) certified Oregon's PSRB Gun Relief Program has having authority to restore a person's federal firearm privilege. The purpose of this administrative rules is to streamline the petition process for those individuals who have previously been granted State relief who now seek to have their federal mental health prohibitor lifted.

Rules Coordinator: Mary Claire Buckley—(503) 229-5596

Petition for Relief

(1) An individual who is barred from transporting, shipping, possessing, or receiving a firearm under federal law due to a State of Oregon mental health determination may petition for relief of the firearm bar to the PSRB for the limited purpose of having his or her federal gun rights restored as it pertains only to the mental health determination firearm disqualification.

(2) An individual who is barred from possessing or purchasing a firearm under ORS 166.250(1)(c)(D) or (E), or 166.470(1)(e) or (f), may petition for relief of the firearm bar to the PSRB for the purpose of having his or her state gun rights restored as it pertains only to the firearm disqualification as a result of either a commitment to the Oregon Health

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Authority or the Department of Human Services under ORS 426.130 or 427.290, or an order of a court under ORS 426.130 after a finding of mental illness that the petitioner is prohibited from purchasing or possessing a firearm as a result of petitioner's mental illness.

(3) A petition for relief shall be made on forms developed by the PSRB, which shall be available on the PSRB's public website, e-mail, or through U.S. Mail. The petition for relief shall be submitted in its entirety before a hearing will be scheduled. In addition to the forms provided, the petitioner shall submit:

(a) A certified copy of all mental health records pertaining to the disqualifying mental health determination;

(b) A certified copy of all court records related to the circumstances surrounding the firearms disability. If the county courthouse is unable to locate petitioner's records, petitioner must obtain a letter from the courthouse records department stating that it is unable to locate the court records related to petitioner's mental health determination;

(c) A certified copy of petitioner's national criminal history, including juvenile adjudications;

(d) An independent forensic mental health assessment performed no more than 90 calendar days prior to submission of the petition for relief to the PSRB. This assessment may not be performed by petitioner's current or previous mental health provider. The assessment shall be performed by a licensed psychiatrist or psychologist. The assessment shall include, at a minimum, an opinion and a basis for that opinion, of petitioner's interpersonal violence and self-harm risk. If petitioner has previously been granted judicial gun relief under ORS 166.274, for his or her civil commitment mental health determination prior to August 3, 2009, this independent forensic mental health assessment is not required as a prerequisite for scheduling a hearing. However, this waiver does not bar the Board from later ordering an assessment if deemed appropriate under OAR 859-300-0160.

(4) In addition to the required forms and documents in subsection (3), the petitioner may submit additional information in support of the petition for relief including, but not limited to:

(a) A certified copy of all mental health records detailing the petitioner's psychiatric history.

(b) A certified copy of medical records from all of the petitioner's current and former mental health treatment providers, including alcohol/substance abuse providers if the petitioner is receiving or has received such treatment. The records may also include a letter from petitioner's current treating mental health practitioner, if any. The letter may contain the petitioner's current medical health diagnosis, a list of psychiatric medicines and dosage, if any, the petitioner is currently prescribed, history of compliance with the medication, and any other information the practitioner deems relevant to petitioner possessing a firearm.

(c) If petitioner is currently on probation/parole for a criminal offense, a letter from the petitioner's probation/parole officer providing a history of petitioner's compliance with terms of probation/parole and any other relevant information he or she deems relevant to petitioner's risk for harm if granted a firearm.

(d) Written evidence of the petitioner's reputation, such as notarized letters of reference from current and past employers, family members or personal friends or other character evidence.

(5) In addition to submitting a petition and required documents to the PSRB, petitioner shall serve a copy of the petition and required documents on the Department of Human Services/Oregon Health Authority and the district attorney in the county in which the court made the mental health determination.

(6) The petitioner shall ensure that all required information accompanies the petition for relief at the time it is submitted to the PSRB and served on the Department of Human Services/Oregon Health Authority and the district attorney in the county in which the court made the mental health determination.

(7) Failure to provide truthful information in the petition and application materials shall result in denial of the petition.

Rules Amended: 860-038-0080, 860-038-0480

Subject: The revision to OAR 860-038-0080(1) requires that new utility-owned resources be included in revenue requirement at cost. In its Order No. 11-007, the Commission ordered this change be made as a result of its investigation (docket UM 1066) to re-examine and update resource planning acquisition policies. The revision to OAR 860-038-0480(2) was necessary to clarify that self-directing customer credits are applied to specific accounts.

Resource Policies and Plans

(1) The Commission adopts the following policies with respect to the Oregon share of generating resources (generating assets and power purchase contracts with a duration of at least one year) of each electric company:

(a) At such time as the Resource Plan is implemented and fully executed, each electric company will retain in its Oregon revenue requirement costs associated with a level of generating resources that is not greater than that necessary to meet the current and reasonably expected future loads of its Oregon cost-of-service consumers. In determining whether an electric company has excess generating resources, the Commission will consider the projected useful lives and mix of fuels of the electric company's generating resources. To encourage the development of a competitive retail energy market, it is the policy of the Commission to release to the competitive market generating resources in excess of such reasonably expected future loads. It is also the policy of the Commission to determine a one-time valuation for the share of an electric company's generating resources attributable to Oregon consumers who are not cost-of-service consumers;

(b) The Commission will not require an electric company to acquire new generating resources except as provided in ORS 757.663.

(c) Major capital improvements to existing generating resources will continue to be, and new generating resources will be, subject to least cost planning processes and analyses and the Oregon share of their prudently-incurred costs will be included in an electric company's Oregon revenue requirement, which for a multi-state electric company shall be consistent with Commission decisions pursuant to subsection (3)(a)(G) of this rule.

(d) The Oregon share of the costs of each generating resource may be either completely in, completely out, or "mixed" with respect to inclusion in an electric company's Oregon revenue requirement. The Commission will permit mixed status unless it finds that mixed status will:

(A) Reduce the generating resource's operating efficiency;

(B) Harm the development of a competitive market; and

(C) Prevent the owners from making economic decisions about the operation of the generating resource.

(e) For a multi-state electric company for which the Commission adopts a fixed-allocated Oregon share amount, and a Resource Plan is implemented, such generating allocation amount will be used for developing cost-of-service rates, transition charges and credits, and Operations and Maintenance allocations as well as other allocations that use generation-based factors.

(2) For purposes of this rule and OARs 860-038-0100 and 860-038-0140, a class's share of the total Oregon share of a generating resource will equal the ratio of the class's total Oregon retail load measured in weather-normalized kilowatt-hour sales to total Oregon retail load measured in weather-normalized kilowatt-hour sales for a 12 month period as determined by the Commission. Loads will be adjusted to remove the effects of demand exchange programs that were in effect during the 12 month period. To the extent such shares are not known as of the time period established by the Commission, the electric company will use estimates until relevant data are available.

(3) By a date to be determined by the Commission, each electric company must file with the Commission a resource plan that meets the following requirements:

(a) Information. The resource plan must include the following information:

(A) Consistent with paragraph subsection (3)(a)(G) of this rule, the amount of capacity and energy and the availability of each generating resource that is attributable to the share of the electric company's load from cost-of-service consumers, and the amount that is attributable to the share of the electric company's load from consumers not eligible for a cost-of-service rate;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(B) A forecast of the revenue requirements associated with each generating resource over both its projected remaining useful life and economic life, with sensitivities for major assumptions, and identification of deferred taxes, excess deferred taxes, FASB 109 assets, and any investment tax credits associated with each generating resource;

(C) The other characteristics of the generating resource that could affect its value including but not limited to its capability to provide or support ancillary services, the value of its site and environmental or operating permits, and any environmental issues associated with it;

(D) A forecast of future market prices for electricity, including forecasts of major fuel inputs and sensitivity analyses;

(E) A forecast of loads of the electric company's Oregon cost-of-service consumers covering at least the period of the longest-lived generating resource;

(F) The estimated fair market value of the Oregon share of each generating resource; and

(G) For a multi-state electric company, how the electric company proposes to allocate a share of its generating resources to Oregon. The multi-state electric company must also propose a fixed Oregon-allocated generating resource share based on the following factors:

(i) A forecasted allocation of each generating resource for a 12 month period as determined by the Commission, using traditional allocation methods recognized by the Commission;

(ii) The projected potential changes in Oregon share, due to alternative inter-jurisdictional allocation methods, over the life of each resource absent implementation of these rules; and

(iii) The change in risk borne by parties by fixing the Oregon share of generating resource.

(b) Recommended Valuation Methodology. The resource plan must identify, for each generating resource, or portion thereof if the resource meets the criteria for mixed status, whether the Oregon share of each generating resource should be:

(A) Retained in the electric company's Oregon revenue requirement for the purpose of serving Oregon cost-of-service consumers and administratively valued through a process to be specified by rule;

(B) Sold through the auction process specified in OAR 860-038-0100, and if so:

(i) The general terms and conditions that should apply to the sale, including but not limited to, a prototype purchase and sale agreement; and

(ii) Any sales incentives that the electric company proposes to apply to Oregon nonresidential consumers for the Oregon nonresidential consumers' share of the generating resource. Such incentives may be structured to encourage the electric company to follow the recommended timeline provided under subsection (3)(d) of this rule; or

(C) Removed from the electric company's Oregon revenue requirement and administratively valued through a process to be specified by rule, and if so, any incentive to apply to Oregon nonresidential consumers for removing the nonresidential consumers' share of the generating resource from revenue requirement. Such incentives may be structured to encourage the electric company to follow the recommended timeline provided under subsection (3)(d) of this rule.

(c) Results of the Resource Plan. The resource plan must identify the impacts of implementing it, including the following:

(A) The approximate load/resource balance, and the availability of each generating resource based on the electric company's current and forecasted load for Oregon cost-of-service consumers;

(B) The estimated rates to each Oregon customer class that will result from implementation of the resource plan, including:

(i) The amount of estimated transition charges and credits;

(ii) A comparison to the current effective rates of the electric company as of the date of filing; and

(iii) An estimate of the cost-of-service rates for cost-of-service consumers 10 years after implementation of the resource plan.

(C) How the resource plan is consistent with the purposes of SB 1149 in that the plan:

(i) Facilitates a fully competitive market;

(ii) Provides consumers fair, non-discriminatory access to competitive markets; and

(iii) Retains the benefits of low-cost resources for consumers.

(D) Any other implications of the resource plan that could help inform the Commissioners in their decision.

(d) Process. The electric company must develop the resource plan in a public process designed to inform and solicit input from Commission staff, representatives of Oregon residential, small nonresidential and large nonresidential consumers, and other interested parties.

(4) The Commission must consider the electric company's recommended resource plan in a contested case proceeding. The Commission's order must identify those resources that, at the option of the electric company, may be auctioned immediately, before any Commission decision to waive the requirements for a cost-of-service rate for any consumers under ORS 757.603(1)(b) and before final administrative valuation of other resources and potential modification of the electric company's Resource Plan. The Commission's order must also approve, modify, or reject the resource plan.

(a) If the Commission modifies the resource plan, the electric company will have 30 days from the date of the Commission's order to accept or reject the modifications. If the electric company rejects the Commission's modifications, the electric company must file a second recommended resource plan within 60 days of the date of rejection;

(b) If the Commission rejects the resource plan, the order rejecting the plan must specifically describe the deficiencies in the resource plan. In that event, the electric company must file a second recommended resource plan within 60 days of the order rejecting the original plan;

(c) If the Commission modifies the second recommended resource plan, the electric company will have 30 days from the date of the order to accept or reject the modifications. If the electric company rejects the Commission's modifications, future attempts at reaching a resource plan may be initiated by either the electric company or the Commission. The timelines outlined in subsection (4)(a) of this rule shall apply once a new resource plan is submitted or modifications to a former plan are suggested.

(5) A resource plan that has been recommended by the electric company and approved by the Commission, or modified by the Commission and accepted by the electric company, is referred to in these rules as a "Resource Plan." The Resource Plan may encompass one plan or a set of plan options corresponding to different assumptions about consumer eligibility for cost-of-service rates. The electric company must implement the Resource Plan consistent with OAR 860-038-0100 and a process for administrative valuation to be specified by rule. The ongoing valuation method, as described in OAR 860-038-0140, will be used to establish transition charges and credits for resources that have not been sold or administratively valued.

(6) For a multi-state electric company, pending the implementation of a Resource Plan and establishing final values for generating resources in accordance with these rules, the following will guide developing rates for Oregon consumers of the electric company for the period March 1, 2002, through December 31, 2003:

(a) Cost-of-service rates will be based upon traditional allocation methods;

(b) Transition charges or credits shall not include assumed costs and revenues of the portion of generating resources not needed to serve Oregon loads associated with residential and small nonresidential consumers choosing portfolio access, small nonresidential consumers choosing direct access or standard offer rate options, and large nonresidential consumers when, and to the extent, the costs and revenues of the generating resources that are not needed are recognized and included in the electric company's revenue requirement in another state, less the costs and revenues of such generating resources which have been included in the electric company's revenue requirement by another state prior to October 1, 2001; and

(c) Beginning January 1, 2004, transition charges and transition credits will be calculated without regard to subsection (7)(b) of this rule.

Public Purposes

(1) Each electric company that offers direct access to its retail electricity consumers and each electricity service supplier that provides electricity services to direct access consumers in the electric company's service territory will collect a public purpose charge from its retail electricity consumers until January 1, 2026.

(2) Except as provided in section (6) of this rule, electric companies and electricity service suppliers will bill and collect from each of their retail electricity consumers a public purpose charge equal to 3 percent of the total revenues billed to those consumers for electricity services, distribution,

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

ancillary services, metering and billing, transition charges, and other types of costs that were included in electric rates on July 23, 1999.

(3) The electricity service suppliers will remit monthly to each electric company the public purpose charges they collect from the customers of each electric company.

(4) The electricity service suppliers will remit monthly the public purpose charges collected from direct service industrial consumers they serve to the electric company in whose service territory the direct service industrial site is located.

(5) The electric company whose territory abuts the greatest percentage of the site of an aluminum plant that averages more than 100 average megawatts of electricity use per year will collect monthly from the aluminum company a public purpose charge. The aluminum company will remit to the appropriate electric company a public purpose charge equal to 1 percent of the total revenue from the sale of electricity services to the aluminum plant from any source. Annually, the aluminum company will submit to the electric company an affidavit from a certified public accountant verifying that the costs for electricity services at the site of the aluminum plant and the remittance of the public purpose charges are accurate for the previous calendar year.

(6) A retail electricity consumer, including an aluminum plant as described in section (5) of this rule, may receive credits against its public purpose charges for qualifying expenditures incurred for new energy conservation and the above-market costs of new renewable energy resources at any site if the following qualifications for becoming a self-directing consumer are met:

(a) The consumer has used more than one average megawatt of electricity at any such site in the prior calendar year; and

(b) The consumer has received final certification from the Oregon Department of Energy for expenditures for new energy conservation and/or new renewable energy resources.

(7) Self-directing consumers may not claim a public purpose credit for energy conservation measures that were started prior to July 23, 1999. For energy conservation measures that were started on or after July 23, 1999, but prior to the implementation of direct access, a self-directing consumer may claim a public purpose credit if either of the following conditions is met:

(a) The energy conservation measure did not receive funding from an electric company conservation program and was certified by the Oregon Department of Energy after July 23, 1999; or

(b) The energy conservation measure did receive funding from an electric company conservation program and was certified by the Oregon Department of Energy after July 23, 1999, but the self-directing consumer repaid the amount of such funding (cost of audit and incentives plus interest) no later than 90 days following the implementation of direct access; provided that, a self-directing consumer shall not be required to repay the amount of any energy conservation audit related to a conservation measure if the audit was completed prior to January 1, 2000. The cost of an audit that identifies multiple energy conservation measures shall be prorated among such measures.

(c) For purposes of this subsection, "started" means that a contract has been executed to install or implement an energy conservation measure.

(8) The Oregon Department of Energy will establish specific rules and procedures that are consistent with these rules for qualifying a self-directing consumer's expenditures.

(9) The electric company will apply the self-direction credit, determined by the Oregon Department of Energy, toward the consumer's public purpose obligation.

(10) Each electric company will establish five separate accounts for the public purpose charges to be funded from its collections of public purpose charges as follows:

(a) Energy conservation in schools;

(b) New cost-effective local energy conservation and new market transformation;

(c) Above-market costs of new renewable energy resources;

(d) New low-income weatherization; and

(e) Construction and rehabilitation of low-income housing.

(11) Each electric company will allocate the public purpose funds it collects (billed less uncollectible amounts) from electricity service suppliers and consumers to the five public purpose accounts as follows:

(a) Energy conservation in schools — 10.0 percent;

(b) Local and market transformation conservation — 56.7 percent;

(c) Above market costs of new renewable energy resources — 17.1 percent;

(d) Low-income weatherization — 11.7 percent; and

(e) Low-income housing — 4.5 percent.

(12) Each electric company will adjust the local and market transformation conservation and above market costs of new renewable energy resources accounts specified in subsections 11(b) and (c) of this rule for the credits returned to self-directing customers for conservation or renewable resource expenditures certified by the Oregon Department of Energy.

(13) Each electric company will distribute funds from the public purpose accounts at least monthly as follows:

(a) The funds for conservation in schools to the education service districts located in its service territory;

(b) The funds for local and market transformation conservation as directed by the Commission;

(c) The funds for renewable energy resources as directed by the Commission;

(d) The funds for low-income weatherization to the Housing and Community Services Department; and

(e) The funds for low-income housing to the Housing and Community Services Department Revolving Account.

(14) Each electric company will determine by January 1 of each year the allocation of public purpose funds for schools to the Education Service Districts according to the following methodology:

(a) From the Department of Education, collect current total weighted average daily membership (ADMw) as defined in ORS 327.013 and average daily membership (ADM) for each Education Service District that contains schools served by the electric company;

(b) For each of the Education Service Districts, compute the ratio of ADM in schools served by the electric company to total ADM;

(c) For each Education Service District, multiply its total ADMw by the ratio of ADM in schools served by the electric company to total ADM. The result is an estimate of ADMw in schools served by the electric company;

(d) Add the estimates of ADMw for each Education Service District; and

(e) Compute the percentage of the total ADMw represented by each Education Service District. These are the percentages that will be used to allocate the public purpose funds for schools to Education Service Districts for the 12-month period with the exception of 2002 where the funds will be allocated for a 10-month period beginning March 1, 2002. After 2002, the 12-month period will begin on January 1 of each year.

(15) The electric company may be reimbursed for the reasonable administrative costs it incurs to collect and distribute the public purpose funds. Those administrative costs will be deducted from the total amount of public purpose funds collected by the electric company before the funds are allocated to the five public purpose accounts. The electric company will also pay from the total public purpose funds collected or from a specific fund any other administrative costs the Commission directs to be paid for implementation of the public purpose requirements. The entities responsible for administering the public purpose funds will pay for their costs of implementing the public purpose requirements from the public purpose funds they receive from the electric company.

(16) The electric companies and the administrators of the public purpose funds will collect sufficient information so that biennial reports can be made to the Legislature on what has been accomplished with the public purpose funds and how those funds have benefited the consumers of each electric company. Specifically, information must be collected so that the reporting requirements of ORS 757.617 can be fulfilled.

(a) Each electric company must report the total funds collected by source (that is, electric company customers, electricity service suppliers and self-directing consumers) for public purposes, the amounts distributed to the administrators of each public purpose fund, and its administrative costs;

(b) Each administrator of public purpose funds must report, at a minimum:

(A) The amount of funds received;

(B) The amount of funds spent;

(C) Its administrative costs; and

(D) Its results, for example, measures installed, projects funded, energy saved, homes weatherized, and low-income homes built/rehabilitated.

Renewal of License

(1) Application for renewal of license shall be made on a form provided by the board, signed by the applicant, accompanied by a completed physical examination form consistent with the provisions of 856-010-0010(2) and presented to the administrator of the board at least thirty (30) days prior to expiration of license.

(2) All state-licensed pilots shall be required to have an annual physical examination by an Oregon or Washington licensed physician within ninety (90) days prior to expiration of their license, the physical requirements for which are the same as for the original license as specified in OAR 856-010-0010(2), except for drug testing.

(3) All state-licensed pilots shall, within six months prior to the expiration of their license, submit to a test indicating licensee is free of illegal substance abuse. Testing will be for the presence of Cocaine, Opiates, Marijuana (THC), Amphetamines and PCP (phencyclidine). Testing will be in accordance with the Department of Transportation (Coast Guard) guidelines outlined in the Code of Federal Regulations 46, CFR § 16 (2009). Urine specimens are to be analyzed by a laboratory that meets DHHS regulations set forth by the National Institute of Drug Abuse (NIDA); or provide proof to the board that licensee is participating in a US Coast Guard approved random drug testing program;

(4) All applicants for renewal of licenses shall submit a photocopy of their currently applicable United States government license with radar endorsement issued by the United States Coast Guard.

(5) All applicants for renewal of unlimited licenses shall provide certification of meeting the continuing professional development requirements specified in OAR 856-010-0027. Unless waived as provided below in this paragraph, failure to comply with all requirements for renewal of license shall constitute the failure to submit a complete application for renewal and will result in the withholding of the renewal license. A pilot who is unable to complete the requirements within the time allowed due to unexpected, emergency circumstances may request in writing a waiver and the Board may, upon good cause shown, permit a license renewal for one year without the requirements being met, provided that all required certifications must be made by the applicant at the time application for renewal is made the following year.

(6) Each license issued is valid for one year and only the unlimited state license may be renewed.

(7) Notwithstanding subsection (4) of this section, if a pilot has submitted an application for renewal of the pilot's federal license at least 60 days prior to the expiration date of his federal license, but the United States Coast Guard has not completed its renewal process by the expiration date for the federal license and the pilot has, for that reason, no currently applicable federal license at the time of renewing his state license, then the board may issue a provisionally renewed state license. Any pilot to whom a provisionally renewed state license is issued must report to the board every 30 days regarding the status of the pilot's federal license renewal. If the United States Coast Guard completes its processing for the federal license but declines to renew the federal license, the board may treat the refusal to renew the federal license as a suspension or revocation of the federal license.

Incident Investigation Procedures

(1) Upon receiving notice that an incident has occurred, the Board member who is a licensee for the pilotage ground where the incident occurred will commence a preliminary investigation as soon as practicable. If the incident involves that Board member, or if that Board member is not available to commence a timely preliminary investigation, then the Board Chair will appoint another Board member to commence the preliminary investigation, in which case the Board Chair will also seek a volunteer from among those who are or have been licensees for the pilotage ground where the incident occurred, to serve as an advisor to the Board member conducting the preliminary investigation.

(2) The Board member conducting the preliminary investigation will, as soon as possible after receiving notice that an incident has occurred, gather sufficient information to form an opinion regarding whether the incident is likely to be a Category I or Category II incident, according to the following criteria:

(a) Category I Incident:

(A) Property damage exceeding $150,000; or

(B) loss of life or serious personal injury (requiring hospitalization);

or

(C) allision with a bridge; or

(D) release of more than 50 gallons of oil or other hazardous substance into the water; or

(E) a pilot may have been acting under the influence of drugs or alcohol or there is evidence of gross negligence or willful misconduct; or

(F) any factor that results in substantial, widespread public interest in the incident.

(b) Category II Incident:

(A) Any incident reportable under Board regulations that does not satisfy any of the criteria in OAR 856-010-0022(2)(a).

(3) As soon as possible after completing the preliminary investigation, the investigating Board member will contact the Board's Chair to make a preliminary report and recommendation regarding classification of the incident as Category I or Category II. Based on the preliminary report, the investigating Board member's recommendation, and such other factors as the Board Chair deems appropriate under the circumstances, the Board Chair will, in his or her discretion, determine whether to classify the incident as Category I or Category II.

(4) Upon the Chair's classification of an incident as Category I, an investigating team will be promptly appointed by the Chair. The investigating team will include:

(a) The Chair or other public member of the Board, to serve as the team leader; and

(b) a shipping industry or port representative member of the Board; and

(c) the pilot member of the Board from the pilotage ground where the incident occurred, unless the incident involves that pilot, in which case the Chair will appoint another pilot member of the Board. If the pilot Board member appointed to the investigating team is not a licensee on the pilotage ground where the incident occurred, then the Board will request a volunteer from among those who are or have been licensees for the pilotage ground where the incident occurred, to serve as an advisor to the investigating team.

(5) Upon the Chair's classification of an incident as Category II, the Board member who conducted the preliminary investigation shall proceed with completion of the investigation. The Chair may, at any time during the course of the investigation, upon receipt of new information, elect to reclassify the incident as a Category I incident requiring the appointment of an investigating team.

(6) The services of a qualified independent investigator, or an expert in a discipline that is relevant and necessary for determining the cause of an incident, should be obtained in the following circumstances:

(a) In any Category I incident, upon request of the Chair, or of two or more members of the investigating team.

(b) In any Category II incident, upon agreement of the Chair and the Board member conducting the investigation.

(7) In order to qualify as an expert for purposes of OAR 856-010-0022(6), a person must have a postgraduate degree, professional training or substantial practical experience in a discipline or subject matter that the Board investigators determine is relevant and necessary for determining the cause of an incident.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(8) The Board will keep and periodically update a list of qualified independent investigators who may be available to provide services. In order to qualify as an independent investigator for the Board, a person must:

(a) Have had at least four years previous experience investigating maritime casualties; or

(b) have served at least two years as pilot or master of vessels greater than 1600 GRT, and had formal training in investigations procedures or extensive actual experience investigating maritime casualties.

(9) The role of an independent investigator is that of an advisor to the investigating team in a Category I incident, or to the investigating Board member in a Category II incident. An independent investigator is to serve as a fact gatherer at the direction of the Board investigators, delivering information to the Board members investigating the incident. Information gathered by an independent investigator may be used by the investigating Board members for their analysis and for use in their preparation of a written report with their recommendations to the Board as a whole.

(10) When the investigation is complete, the investigating Board member or members will prepare a written report for consideration by the Board. The report shall describe the scope of the investigation, the information gathered, and include an assessment of the probable causes of the incident, and recommendations for any further Board action that should be considered. The written report shall also make a recommendation concerning the scope of distribution of the report.

Complaint Process

(1) Any person or entity may file a complaint with the Board regarding the conduct of a Board licensee or trainee. Such complaints shall be in writing, and include a detailed explanation of the conduct or events complained of. Anonymous complaints are disfavored, but allowed, provided that an explanation is offered of the reason why the complainant does not wish to be identified. Anonymity may limit the ability of the Board to investigate the complaint, and therefore anonymous complaints should allege facts sufficient to allow the Board, should it choose to investigate as provided in this section, to pursue an investigation without further communications with the complainant.

(2) Each complaint shall be assigned a filing code, and then shall be directed to the Board's Executive Committee, with a copy provided to the licensee or trainee who's conduct is the subject of the complaint. The Executive Committee will review each complaint and shall, within 10 days of the date of filing, provide an initial response to the complainant, if identified, and the licensee or trainee, indicating whether a preliminary investigation will be undertaken. Every complaint and the Executive Committee's initial response will be announced at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board.

(3) If the Executive Committee decides that an investigation should be undertaken, the Committee shall determine what resources will be necessary to complete the preliminary investigation, which may include, but are not limited to, assistance from the Board Administrator, Board Counsel, independent investigators, or subject matter experts. The Executive Committee may proceed with an initial investigation using such resources, provided that the Board may subsequently choose to expand or limit access to such resources.

(4) The Executive Committee shall, at each regularly scheduled meeting of the Board, report on the progress of any preliminary investigation it has in progress.

(5) When the preliminary investigation is complete, the Executive Committee shall report preliminary findings to the Board in writing, and shall include a recommendation to the Board of what further action, if any, appears appropriate under the circumstances, including whether to commence a disciplinary or other action authorized by ORS Chapter 776 or the Board's regulations. A copy of the Executive Committee's preliminary findings and recommendations shall be provided to the complainant, if known, and to the licensee or trainee whose conduct was the subject of the preliminary investigation.

(6) Nothing in this section is intended to limit the Board's authority to initiate and conduct investigations on the Board's own motion, supported by any basis deemed adequate by the Board.

Transportation Oversight Committee

(1) For the purpose of making annual, automatic, cost-based adjustments to the transportation system cost component of the tariff funding the pilotage system for the Columbia River Bar pilotage grounds, a Transportation Oversight Committee is established, composed of one public member of the Oregon Board of Maritime Pilots (Board), two members of the Columbia River Bar Pilots (CRBP), a representative of the Columbia River Steamship Operators Association and a representative of a port located on the Columbia River. The public member of the Transportation Oversight Committee will act as chair.

(2) Beginning in 2011, the Transportation Oversight Committee will meet as necessary but at least semiannually. The Transportation Oversight Committee will perform long-term transportation system planning, will regularly review transportation system costs and operations, and will make recommendations regarding the operation of the transportation system, for the Columbia River Bar pilotage grounds.

(3) Upon agreement of a majority of members, the Transportation Oversight Committee may submit data requests to the CRBP. Data requests are written interrogatories or requests for production of documents. The data requests must be answered within 20 Board business days from the date of service. Each data request must be answered fully and separately in writing or by production of documents.

(4) On an annual basis beginning in 2011, the Transportation Oversight Committee shall make a recommendation to the Board regarding annual adjustments to the components of the Transportation System Cost of the pilotage system serving the Columbia River Bar pilotage grounds to reflect the best available information about changing economic conditions including expense levels shown by CRBP financial statements and Transportation Oversight Committee projections. The Transportation System Cost components include the following line item categories: helicopter service; repairs and maintenance infrastructure; repairs and maintenance; insurance; boat operator expense; employee wages; employee benefits; transportation launch expense; food vessel expense; taxes and licenses; and administrative/accounting. The recommended adjustments to one or more of the components of the Transportation System Cost shall be developed by the Transportation Oversight Committee and submitted in writing to the Board by June 1 of each year.

(5) In the event the Transportation Oversight Committee cannot reach agreement on one or more of the components of the Transportation System Cost, the competing views shall be described in appropriate memoranda drafted by one or more representative of the Transportation Oversight Committee and submitted to the Oregon Board of Maritime Pilots by June 1 of each year. The submission from the Transportation Oversight Committee shall be considered by the Oregon Board of Maritime Pilots at a meeting that occurs on or before July 15 of each year so that the Committee's recommendations can be considered and any disputed issue decided in order for any adjustments to the components of the Transportation System cost to be effective on July 15 of that year.

Grounds for Denying Original License Application

The Board may deny an application for a pilot's license, if the Board finds, after notice and hearing, that:

(1) The applicant fails to meet any one or all of the requirements of the physical examination as specified in OAR 856-010-0010 and/or the physical health of the applicant is such that the applicant is not physically capable of competently exercising the license privilege and performing the work involved without creating an unreasonable risk of harm to the applicant or to the person or property of others.

(2) The mental or emotional health of an applicant is such that the applicant is not competent to exercise the license privilege and is unable to perform the work involved without creating an unreasonable risk of harm to the applicant or to the person or property of others.

(3) The applicant has committed a criminal act, the facts and circumstances of which bear a demonstrable relationship to the exercise of the license privilege. Conviction of a crime is not required to deny an application under this provision.

(4) The applicant uses or has used alcohol, drugs, or any other substance in such a manner as to impair the applicant's physical or mental ability to exercise the license privilege without creating an unreasonable risk of harm to the applicant or the person or property of others.

(5) The applicant has engaged in conduct involving dishonesty or misrepresentation, the facts and circumstances of which bear a demonstrable relationship to the exercise of the license privilege.

(6) The applicant has failed to fulfill all the minimum requirements as stated in ORS Chapter 776 and OAR Chapter 856.

(7) The applicant has been charged with a drug or alcohol offense during the past five years, the facts and circumstances of which bear a demonstrable relationship to the exercise of the license privilege.

Miscellaneous Reporting Obligations

(1) Any licensee or trainee who has a post-incident, random or reasonable cause drug or alcohol test with results confirmed positive by a medical review officer must report the results in writing to the Board within 72 hours after receiving such results.

(2) Any licensee or trainee who is arrested or cited for any alcohol or drug-related offense must report the arrest or citation in writing to the Board within 72 hours. Additionally, any licensee or trainee arrested or cited for any alcohol or drug-related offense must, within 72 hours, report in writing to the Board the ultimate resolution of the arrest or citation, whether by conviction, diversion, dismissal, acquittal or otherwise.

(3) Any licensee or trainee who is convicted of any crime must report the conviction in writing to the Board within 5 days of receiving notice of such conviction.

(4) Any licensee or trainee who has disciplinary action commenced against him or her, or against his or her license by the U.S. Coast Guard, must report such action in writing to the Board within 5 days of receiving notice of the initiation of such action by the U.S. Coast Guard.

Disciplinary Actions

(1) Absence from Pilotage Grounds. A pilot must request in writing to the Board on the form provided by the Board permission to be absent from the pilotage ground for a period of more than sixty days. The Board will discipline any pilot who is absent from the pilotage ground for a period of more than 60 days without permission of the Board. A pilot who has been granted permission to be absent from piloting duties for a period of more than 60 days shall, at the end of 180 days, reapply in writing for an extension or shall return to duty. The pilot must notify the Board in writing, ten days prior to returning to the pilotage ground, of the pilot's intention to return to duty. A pilot who has been absent with permission from piloting duties for more than 180 days shall notify the Board in writing on the form provided by the Board of the pilot's intention to return to the pilotage ground. The notice shall include a statement of the number of trips under the supervision of an unlimited state-licensed pilot that will be taken to re-familiarize the pilot with the pilotage ground, but in no event shall the returning pilot take fewer than two trips for every 90 days' absence from the pilotage grounds. The Board may, following receipt of a pilot's notice of intent to return to the pilotage ground, require more familiarization trips than the returning pilot indicates in the notice provided to the Board.

(2) Suspension, Revocation or Lapse of Federal License. The state license of any pilot whose federal license is suspended or revoked, or whose federal license lapses due to delay in renewal as a consequence of a drug or alcohol-related event, shall be automatically suspended or revoked for the same period. The lapse of a federal license due to delay in renewal as a consequence of a drug or alcohol-related event shall be treated as a suspension for purposes of the paragraph. The state license shall be reinstated upon restoration of the federal license. The pilot so affected may apply to the Board for a review of the case while under suspension. If the review of the case shows that circumstances warrant modification of the pilot's suspended status, the Board may order the pilot's state license restored, or it may take any other appropriate action.

(3) Upon suspension, revocation or other disciplinary action taken by the Board against a state-licensed pilot, the U.S. Coast Guard shall be notified by the Board in writing within 24 hours.

(4) Pilots shall not refuse to provide pilotage service unless necessary for their own or public safety. If a representative of the vessel requesting piloting service contests a pilot's determination concerning safety, then, the vessel's representative may seek a determination by the Board.

(5) Other Causes for Discipline. See the following administrative rules for other causes for discipline of licensee:

(a) OAR 856-010-0015, failure to comply with requirements for renewal;

(b) OAR 856-010-0019, failure to present surety bond or deposit;

(c) OAR 856-010-0025, failure to report to Board;

(d) OAR 856-010-0025, failure to report incident to U.S. Coast Guard;

(e) OAR 856-010-0035, refusal to provide pilotage service;

(f) OAR 856-010-0045, grounds for pilot discipline.

Preventative, Corrective or Remedial Actions

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of its regulations, the board may enter into a written agreement with a licensee in lieu of license suspension or revocation proceedings or any other disciplinary alternative. The board may enter into an agreement pursuant to this section if, after the preliminary investigation of an incident or other occurrence is complete, it appears that the licensee, the pilotage system or the public interest will be served by preventative, corrective or remedial action. An agreement between the board and a licensee may include any preventative, corrective or remedial measures including, but not limited to:

(a) Supervised retraining trips for the licensee under the supervision of pilots from the training organization for the pilotage ground;

(b) Completion of computerized simulated ship-handling training, manned model training, radar observer training, or such other training or course work as may be appropriate under the circumstances that is in addition to continuing professional development training required of all licensees;

(c) Counseling relating to the duties and obligations of a pilot; or

(d) Issuance by the board of a letter of warning or concern to the licensee.

(2) An agreement entered into between a licensee and the board pursuant to this section shall not be considered an admission of a violation of statute or rule and the agreement shall not be considered to be a board determination of a violation of statute or rule on the part of the licensee who enters into the agreement. The preventative, corrective or remedial measures contained in such agreement and the licensee's compliance with the agreement may be considered by the board in any subsequent proceeding in which such matters are relevant.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(3) A licensee who enters into an agreement with the board must complete all requirements in the agreement within the time period specified in the agreement. Failure by the licensee to complete any agreed upon remedial or corrective measures shall constitute a separate ground for discipline pursuant to OAR 856-010-0045.

Grounds for Pilot Discipline

The board may revoke or suspend a pilot's license, impose on the pilot a civil penalty of not more than $250 for each offense, or issue the pilot a written reprimand if the board finds, after notice and hearing, that:

(1) The physical health of a pilot is such that the pilot is not physically capable of competently exercising the license privilege and performing the work involved without creating an unreasonable risk of harm to the pilot or to the person or property of others.

(2) The mental or emotional health of a pilot is such that the pilot is not competent to exercise the license privilege and is unable to perform the work involved without creating an unreasonable risk of harm to the pilot or to the person or property of others.

(3) The pilot has committed a criminal act, the facts and circumstances of which bear a demonstrable relationship to the exercise of the license privilege. Conviction of a crime is not required to discipline a pilot under this provision.

(4) The pilot uses or has used alcohol, drugs, or any other substance in such a manner as to impair the pilot's physical or mental ability to exercise the license privilege without creating an unreasonable risk of harm to the pilot or the person or property of others.

(5) The pilot has used alcohol, drugs, medications or controlled substances in a manner that, as the Board determines, casts substantial doubt on the ability of the pilot to exercise the level of sound judgment expected of a pilot, or has used prescription drugs in a manner inconsistent with warnings or instructions provided by the manufacturer or the prescribing physician.

(6) The pilot has failed to make a timely report to the board as required by these rules.

(7) The pilot when summoned to testify before the board has failed to appear before the board, or has failed to answer under oath any question touching on any matter connected with the pilot's service or the pilotage ground over which the pilot is licensed as a pilot.

(8) The pilot has been absent from the pilotage ground for a period of sixty (60) days without the express permission of the board.

(9) The pilot's federal license has been suspended, revoked or has lapsed.

(10) The pilot has engaged in conduct involving dishonesty or misrepresentation, the facts and circumstances of which bear a demonstrable relationship to the exercise of the license privilege.

(11) The pilot has failed to exercise the license privilege competently or diligently.

(12) The pilot has violated any provision of ORS 776.015 through 776.991 or any rule of the Board.

(13) The pilot has failed to post or maintain a surety bond or cash deposit.

(14) The pilot has failed to obey a directive issued by an officer of the United States Customs Service, the United States Coast Guard or other law enforcement agency when such a directive could have been complied with safely.

(15) The pilot or trainee has failed to comply with the provisions of an agreement in lieu of discipline, entered into pursuant to OAR 856-010-0041.

Original Licensing Requirements

In addition to the qualifications required for licensing of pilots under ORS 776, the applicant shall:

(1) Present an application in writing to the administrator of the board on the form provided by the board for the pilotage ground for which the applicant intends to become licensed. The application shall be filed not less than 30 days prior to appearance before the board for a written examination and may be supplemented at any time until the examination is taken. The board shall consider the application and upon approval, the written examination will be scheduled. The examination shall be proctored by the board's administrator. The examination for each pilotage ground shall be prepared by the board with the assistance of the board's licensed training organization for that pilotage ground. The examination will test for skill and knowledge of those factors identified in ORS 776.035(2) and 776.325(1)(b). The examination will be graded by the board member from the pilotage ground for which the applicant is seeking a license. If requested by the training course monitor and approved by the board may participate with the board member in grading the exam. The examination will be pass/fail.

(2) Accompany the application with a photocopy of a U.S. Coast Guard physical examination report and signed by an Oregon or Washington licensed physician verifying that the applicant meets the physical, medical and mental criteria required to qualify for a federal pilot's license.

(a) If the examining physician determines that the applicant is not competent to perform the duties of a pilot, the applicant is not then medically eligible to receive a license from the board.

(b) If the examining physician determines that the applicant is competent to perform the duties of a pilot, or if the examining physician determines that the applicant's physical, medical or mental condition is in need of further review, then the applicant is then considered medically eligible to receive a license from the board, subject to any later review and conclusion by the U.S. Coast Guard that the applicant is not competent for continued federal licensure as a pilot

(c) If the U.S. Coast Guard undertakes further medical review of an applicant's physical, medical or mental competency, either upon recommendation by the examining physician or otherwise, then the applicant shall report to the board at least every 30 days regarding the status of such further review. If, at the conclusion of such review process, the U.S. Coast Guard declines to approve the applicant for continued federal licensure as a pilot, the applicant shall immediately notify the board and the board will treat the decision as a suspension of the applicant's federal license. Any license issued by the board shall be automatically suspended as of the date the board receives notice of the U.S. Coast Guard's decision, notwithstanding any appeal that may be taken from such decision. If the Coast Guard concludes its review by issuing a waiver to the applicant, the terms of the waiver shall be immediately reported to the board, and the license issued by the board shall become subject to the terms of the waiver issued by the Coast Guard.

(3) Have actual experience as a pilot handling ships over the pilotage ground for which a state license is sought and state in the application the names of ships piloted, dates, draft, gross tonnage, and length over all, as specified in (but not limited to) (4), (5), (6) and/or (7) in this section, and:

(a) Hold a valid license as Master endorsed for Radar Observer issued by the U.S. Coast Guard;

(b) Hold an unlimited federal pilot's endorsement for the ground for which a state license is sought; and

(c) Have served at least two years as Master aboard vessels, or when applying for a license over the Columbia and Willamette River pilotage ground, have completed a program of apprenticeship training which has been approved by the Board.

(4) In addition to the requirements in OAR 856-010-0010(1), (2), (3), to qualify for a Grade "C" license over the Columbia and Willamette River pilotage ground, the applicant shall, prior to taking the board's examination required under section (1) above:

(a) Have served at least 730 active working days as captain of towing vessels on the Columbia River and its tributaries, or have completed a program of apprenticeship training which has been approved by the Board, as specified in OAR 856-010-0014;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Complete at least six trips under the supervision of an unlimited state-licensed pilot within 270 days preceding the examination while on the bridge of a ship of not less than 500 feet length over-all (L.O.A.) through the bridges in the upper harbor in Portland, up to and including the Broadway Bridge, which shall be made with and without the aid of a tug or towboat, including at least one trip in each direction, and also including at least six ship turns in the Willamette River;

(c) Complete at least 110 transits while on the bridge of a ship of not less than 500 feet L.O.A. within the 270 days preceding the examination, with at least 70 of these transits made under the supervision of an unlimited state-licensed pilot and at least 80 of the transits completed within 150 days after the first transit is completed;

(d) When combining trip segments to establish a transit, each trip segment may be used only once;

(e) Complete at least six trips under the supervision of an unlimited state-licensed pilot within the 270 days preceding the examination while on the bridge of a ship of not less than 500 feet L.O.A. in a combination of the following directions, with at least three trips in each direction:

(A) From the Willamette River, turning east (upstream) into the Columbia River; and

(B) From the Columbia River upstream of the mouth of the Willamette River, turning south into the Willamette River.

(f) Complete at least 10 trips in either direction between Astoria and Longview or Kalama under the supervision of an unlimited state-licensed pilot.

(g) Train at least 35 additional days as directed by the training course monitor, with assignments chosen at the discretion of the training course monitor that may include, but need not be limited to, shipboard training, electronic navigation training, manned model training, attendance at meetings with maritime-related governmental agencies or exposure to maritime related administrative activities.

(h) Present recommendations from the training course monitor and from at least ten unlimited state-licensed pilots who participated in the training, certifying that the applicant has demonstrated sufficient knowledge and shiphandling skills to pilot ocean-going ships up to 570 feet L.O.A. on the pilotage ground.

(5) When applying for a license on the Coos Bay bar pilotage ground, the applicant shall:

(a) Hold a valid license as Master endorsed for Radar Observer issued by the U.S. Coast Guard and shall have served at least two years as Master aboard vessels;

(b) Obtain an unlimited federal pilots endorsement for the Coos Bay bar pilotage ground;

(c) Complete at least one hundred (100) crossings of the Coos Bay bar while under the supervision of an unlimited state-licensed Coos Bay bar pilot, with at least ten crossings with each unlimited state-licensed Coos Bay bar pilot and with at least 25 of the bar crossings completed during hours of darkness;

(d) Dock and undock at least 25 ships under the supervision of an unlimited state-licensed pilot;

(e) Make at least 25 trips through each of the bridges; and

(f) Submit letters from each of the Coos Bay bar pilots who have supervised the training of the applicant, certifying that the applicant has demonstrated local knowledge of the pilotage ground and shiphandling skills sufficient to pilot ocean-going ships on the pilotage ground.

(6) When applying for a license on the Yaquina Bay bar pilotage ground the applicant shall:

(a) Hold a valid license as Master endorsed for Radar Observer issued by the U.S. Coast Guard and shall have served at least two years as Master aboard vessels;

(b) Obtain an unlimited federal pilots endorsement for the Yaquina Bay bar pilotage ground;

(c) Complete at least one hundred (100) crossings of the Yaquina Bay bar while under the supervision of an unlimited state-licensed Yaquina Bay bar pilot, or after completing two years of piloting with a state license in Coos Bay, the number of bar crossings at Yaquina Bay may be reduced to 12, with at least one such crossing with each unlimited state-licensed Yaquina Bay bar pilot and with at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the bar crossings completed during the hours of darkness;

(d) Dock and undock at least 25 ships under the supervision of an unlimited state-licensed Yaquina Bay bar pilot, or after completing two years of piloting with a state license in Coos Bay, the number of dockings and undockings may be reduced to 12;

(e) Make at least twenty-five (25) trips through the bridge, or after completing two years of piloting with a state license in Coos Bay, the number of trips may be reduced to 12; and

(f) Submit letters from each of the Yaquina Bay bar pilots who have supervised training of the applicant, certifying that the applicant has demonstrated local knowledge of the pilotage ground and shiphandling skills sufficient to pilot ocean-going ships on the pilotage ground.

(7) When applying for an original license on the Columbia River bar pilotage ground the applicant shall:

(a) Hold a valid license issued by the U.S. Coast Guard as "Unlimited Master any oceans — any tonnage", endorsed for Radar Observer;

(b) Have served at least two years as Master of an offshore merchant ship of 5,000 gross tons or more, certified by Certificates of Discharge or Continuous Discharge Book;

(c) Obtain a federal pilot's endorsement for the Columbia River bar pilotage ground, after which a minimum of one hundred (100) crossings of the Columbia River bar shall be made under the supervision of an unlimited state-licensed pilot, and make crossings with at least five unlimited state-licensed Columbia River bar pilots;

(d) Be on board a minimum of ten ships docking or undocking from the Astoria Port Docks, Tongue Point, and other facilities;

(e) Make approximately twenty-five percent (25%) of the crossings of the Columbia River bar during the hours of darkness.

Restrictions on Licenses

After receiving an original license the following restrictions shall apply:

(1) Columbia and Willamette River Grade "C" license holders shall not pilot tankers, or vessels with a draft of 38 feet or greater.

(2) Except for Columbia River bar pilots who have a minimum of two years experience on tankers as Master or pilot, no Columbia River bar pilot shall pilot a loaded tanker during the first two years as a licensee.

(3) Coos Bay bar pilots shall not move any ship exceeding 40,000 gross tons, or exceeding 700 feet in length, or exceeding 106 feet of beam, or any ship exceeding 300 feet in length with the wheelhouse forward of amidships, during the first two years as a licensee.

(4) Coos Bay bar pilots shall not move loaded tankers during the first two years as a licensee, nor shall Coos Bay bar pilots move any ship exceeding 23,000 gross tons through the bridges during the first two years as a licensee.

(5) Yaquina Bay bar pilots shall not move any ship exceeding 23,000 gross tons, or any ship exceeding 300 feet in length with the wheelhouse forward of amidships, during the first two years as a licensee.

(6) Yaquina Bay bar pilots shall not move loaded tankers during the first two years as a licensee.

(7) The Board may, upon application by the licensee, recognize any combination of master's tanker and pilot's experience to equal any time period required by this rule.

Degrees of Licenses for the Columbia and Willamette River Pilotage Ground

(1) Grade “C” License: The initial license issued by the Board to a pilot for the Columbia and Willamette River pilotage ground shall only authorize the pilot to pilot vessels under 600 feet length over-all (L.O.A.).

(2) To obtain a Grade “B” License while holding a Grade “C” License: In order to obtain authority from the Board to pilot vessels from and including 600 feet L.O.A. up to 700 feet L.O.A. on the Columbia and Willamette River pilotage ground, an applicant must meet the following requirements:

(a) Complete at least 180 days service on the pilotage ground while holding a Grade “C” license;

(b) Complete at least 30 transits on the pilotage ground piloting ships of between 300 and 600 feet L.O.A.;

(c) Complete at least 25 transits on ships 600 feet L.O.A. or greater under the supervision of a minimum of ten different pilots, at least six of whom have held unlimited state licenses for at least 5 years;

(d) Complete at least 5 trips in either direction between Astoria and either Longview or Kalama on ships 600 feet L.O.A. or greater under the supervision of an unlimited state-licensed pilot;

(e) Train at least 5 additional days as directed by the training course monitor, with assignments chosen at the discretion of the training course monitor;

(f) Present recommendations from the training course monitor and from at least ten pilots holding unlimited or Grade “A” state licenses who participated in the training, certifying that the applicant has sufficient knowledge and shiphandling skills to pilot vessels from and including 600 feet L.O.A. up to 700 feet L.O.A.; and

(g) The requirements specified in subsections (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this section must have been met during the 180 days preceding application for authority to pilot vessels from and including 600 feet L.O.A. up to 700 feet L.O.A.; and

(h) When the foregoing requirements are met, the Board shall issue a license to the applicant authorizing the applicant to pilot vessels which are less than 700 feet L.O.A., except that the applicant shall not pilot tankers, or vessels with a draft of 38 feet or greater, on the pilotage ground.

(3) To obtain a Grade “A” License while holding a Grade “B” License: In order to obtain authority from the Board to pilot vessels from and including 700 feet L.O.A. up to 800 feet L.O.A. on the Columbia and Willamette River pilotage ground, an applicant must meet the following requirements:

(a) Complete at least 270 days service on the pilotage ground while holding a Grade “B” license;

(b) Complete at least 40 transits piloting ships of between 300 and 700 feet L.O.A. as a state-licensed pilot;

(c) Complete at least 20 transits on ships 700 feet L.O.A. or greater while under the supervision of at least ten unlimited state-licensed pilots;

(d) Complete 2 trips from dock to dock or from an anchorage to a dock under the supervision of unlimited state-licensed pilots while on ships 700 feet L.O.A. or greater, with each trip including a 180 degree turn before docking;

(e) Make at least 6 trips under the supervision of unlimited state-licensed pilots within the 270 days preceding the application while on the bridge of a ship 500 feet L.O.A. or greater, with at least three trips in each of the following directions:

(A) From the Willamette River, turning east (upstream) into the Columbia; and

(B) From the Columbia River upstream of the mouth of the Willamette River, turning south into the Willamette River;

(f) Train at least 5 additional days as directed by the training course monitor, with assignments chosen at the discretion of the training course monitor;

(g) Present recommendations from the training course monitor and from at least ten pilots who participated in the training, certifying that the applicant has sufficient knowledge and shiphandling skills to pilot vessels from and including 700 feet L.O.A. up to 800 feet L.O.A. on the pilotage ground;

(h) The requirements specified in subsections (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of this section must have been met during the 270 days preceding application for authority to pilot vessels from and including 700 feet L.O.A. up to 800 feet L.O.A.; and

(i) When the foregoing requirements are met, the Board shall issue a license to the applicant authorizing the applicant to pilot vessels which are less than 800 feet L.O.A. on the pilotage ground, except that the applicant shall not pilot tankers, or vessels with a draft of 38 feet or greater.

(4) To obtain an Unlimited License while holding a Grade “A” License: In order to obtain authority from the Board to pilot vessels on the Columbia and Willamette River pilotage ground without any limitation on the length and draft of the vessels, including tankers and vessels with a draft of 38 feet or deeper, an applicant must meet the following requirements:

(a) Complete at least 180 days service on the pilotage ground while holding a Grade “A” license;

(b) Complete at least 30 transits on ships of between 300 and 800 feet L.O.A. during the 180 days preceding application for an unlimited license;

(c) Complete 4 trips on ships 600 feet L.O.A. or greater from dock to dock or from an anchorage to a dock while under the supervision of unlimited state-licensed pilots, with each trip including a 180 degree turn before docking;

(d) Complete at least 6 trips within the 180 days preceding the application under the supervision of unlimited state-licensed pilots while on the bridge of a ship 500 feet L.O.A. or greater, with at least three trips in each of the following directions:

(A) From the Willamette River, turning east (upstream) into the Columbia; and

(B) From the Columbia River upstream of the mouth of the Willamette River, turning south into the Willamette River;

(e) Train at least 5 additional days as directed by the training course monitor, with assignments chosen at the discretion of the training course monitor;

(f) While holding a Grade “B” or Grade “A” license, complete at least ten transits on ships greater than 800 feet L.O.A. while under the supervision of ten different pilots. Five of these transits must be supervised by pilots with not less than five years experience as unlimited state-licensed pilots;

(g) Present recommendations from the training course monitor and from at least ten pilots who participated in training, certifying that the applicant has sufficient knowledge and shiphandling skills to pilot vessels 800 feet L.O.A. or greater on the pilotage ground;

(h) While holding a Grade “B” or Grade “A” license, complete at least 12 transits on tankers (including at least nine transits on loaded tankers) while under the supervision of at least six different state-licensed pilots with not less than five years’ experience as unlimited state-licensed pilots;

(i) Present recommendations from the training course monitor and from at least six pilots who participated in training on tankers, certifying that the applicant has sufficient knowledge and shiphandling skills to pilot tankers on the pilotage ground and understands the risks and hazards peculiar to piloting tankers on the pilotage ground;

(j) While holding a Grade “B” or a Grade “A” license, complete at least twelve transits on ships with drafts greater than 38 feet while under the supervision of at least six different state-licensed pilots with not less than five years’ experience as unlimited state-licensed pilots;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(k) Present recommendations from the training course monitor and from at least six pilots who participated in training on vessels with drafts greater than 38 feet, certifying that the applicant has sufficient knowledge and shiphandling skills to pilot vessels with drafts greater than 38 feet;

(l) While holding a Grade "C", Grade "B" or Grade "A" license, complete a United States Coast Guard approved course in automatic plotting aids.

(m) When the foregoing requirements are met, the Board shall issue an unlimited license to the applicant authorizing the applicant to pilot vessels of any length and draft, including tankers, on the pilotage ground.

(5) Each grade of license will be valid for one year. No license except an unlimited license may be renewed.

Rules Suspended: 863-020-0025(T)

Subject: OAR 863-020-0025 establishes the requirements for a petitioner who wishes to petition the Real Estate Board for the Board to approve the petitioner's qualifications to apply to become a continuing education provider. On February 3, 2011, the Agency filed a temporary rule that was effective from 2-4-11 thru 8-3-11. The Board used the temporary rule during Board meetings as a basis for considering the qualifications of a continuing education provider. The Board found that the rule did not adequately reflect the Board's determinations and, at the June 6, 2011 Board meeting, requested that the rule be amended to conform to the Board's determinations. A person not otherwise qualified to be a continuing education provider must apply to the Board and request the Board's approval of the person's qualifications. The temporary rule filed on February 3, 2011 is suspended and the new temporary rule filed with this filing replaces that temporary rule.

Board Approval of Continuing Education Provider Qualification

(1) A person not otherwise qualified under OAR 863-020-0020(1)(a) through (g) seeking the Board's approval as an applicant for certification must petition the Board under this rule.

(2) The person must submit a petition for approval to the Agency on an Agency-approved form at least 21 days before the scheduled Board meeting at which the applicant wishes the Board to act. The petition must include the following:

(a) The petitioner's name, address, and phone number.

(b) Sufficient information about the petitioner named in the application to allow the Board to determine whether the petitioner qualifies for certification, including specifics about one or both of the following:

(A) Petitioner's demonstrated expertise and experience in providing educational courses to real estate licensees;

(B) Petitioner's demonstrated experience and expertise in at least two course topics eligible for continuing education credit under OAR 863-020-0035(4)(a)-(gg).

(c) Attestation by the petitioner that the petitioner knows and understands:

(A) The responsibilities of a continuing education provider under OAR 863-020-0050;

(B) The requirements of an instructor under ORS 696.186 and the information required on a continuing education instructor form under OAR 863-020-0060.

(3) If the Board approves the petition, the Agency will mail a letter to the petitioner confirming the Board's approval, and the petitioner may apply for certification as a course provider under OAR 863-020-0030.

Subject: These rules amend the real estate broker, principal broker and property manager licensing rules in OAR chapter 863, divisions 14 and 24 and implement the statutory changes in SB 156, which became effective May 27, 2011. The purposes of these amendments are to align the license application process with the Agency's new electronic licensing system. Changes to processes and requirements include: (1) the license application processes and payment of fees for fingerprinting and examination services, which have been contracted to a service provider; (2) the requirement of a licensee to renew online; (3) new requirement to maintain a license applicant or licensee's email address; (4) establishes the Agency's primary and preferred method of notification, correspondence or confirmation is to a licensee's email address; and (5) allows the Agency to require an original or electronic signature. New rules in division 14 and 24 establish the new requirements for a licensee's name change. A new rule in Division 14 establishes new requirements of the pre-license education providers to certify course completion to the examination service provider. ### License Application Form and Content

(1) Effective July 1, 2011, before the Agency will accept any documents or information relating to an applicant's qualifications, an applicant for a real estate broker or principal broker license must submit an application and fee required under this rule.

(2) Effective September 15, 2011, before the Agency will accept any documents or information relating to an applicant's qualifications, an applicant for a real estate broker license or principal broker license must submit an application and pay the fee required under this rule using an online application process that is available through the Agency's website.

(3) The license application includes:

(a) The applicant's legal name as defined in OAR 863-014-0003, mailing address, email address and phone number.

(b) The applicant's date and place of birth.

(c) The applicant's Social Security Number.

(d) Certification by the applicant that the applicant has a high school diploma, General Educational Development (GED) certificate or the international equivalent.

(e) Certification by the applicant that the applicant is at least 18 years of age.

(f) For a real estate broker license applicant or a principal broker license applicant, who is not an active or inactive Oregon real estate licensee, whether the applicant:

(A) Has ever been convicted of or is under arrest, investigation, or indictment for a felony or misdemeanor;

(B) Has ever been refused a real estate license or any other occupational or professional license in any other state or country;

(C) Has ever had any real estate license or other occupational or professional license revoked or suspended; or

(D) Has ever been fined or reprimanded as such a licensee.

(g) Any other information the commissioner considers necessary to evaluate the applicant's trustworthiness and competency to engage in professional real estate activity in a manner that protects the public interest.

(h) Certification by the applicant that all information provided by the applicant is true and correct.

(4) In addition to the requirements of (3) of this rule, a real estate broker license applicant, who is basing the applicant's examination qualifications on a broker license from another state, must provide the applicant's certified license history from the state where such examination was taken.

(5) In addition to the requirements in (3) of this rule, a principal broker license applicant must provide proof that the applicant has three years of active real estate experience.

(6) Every license application must be accompanied by the license fee authorized by ORS 696.270. At all periods of the year, the fee for all licenses issued is as authorized by 696.270. That is, the Agency does not pro-rate license fees.

Background Check Application and Fingerprint

(1) An applicant for real estate broker or principal real estate broker license must submit to a background check, except an applicant who is currently licensed as a real estate broker, principal real estate broker, or real estate property manager or who is eligible for renewal of such licenses.

(2) The background check includes a criminal background check as provided in OAR chapter 863, division 005, which requires the applicant to provide fingerprints.

(3) Effective July 1, 2011, the Agency and a vendor for fingerprinting services ("fingerprint service provider") have contractually agreed that:

(a) The fingerprint service provider will provide fingerprint services to license applicants and submit the fingerprints to the Oregon State Police for Oregon and nationwide criminal history checks.

(b) A license applicant may only submit fingerprints required by the Agency through the fingerprint services provider.

(c) A license applicant must pay the fee for fingerprinting, authorized under ORS 696.270, directly to the fingerprint services provider.

(d) A license applicant must provide fingerprints according to the requirements and instructions of the fingerprint services provider.

(e) A license applicant must have submitted a license application to the Agency before providing fingerprints.

(4) As provided in ORS 181.540, all fingerprint cards, photographs, records, reports, and criminal offender information obtained or compiled by the Agency are confidential and exempt from public inspection. The commissioner will keep such information segregated from other information on the applicant or licensee and maintain such information in a secure place.

(5) If the Agency determines that additional information is necessary to conduct a background check, the Agency may request such information in writing, and the applicant must provide the requested information. If the applicant fails to provide the requested information, the Agency may determine that the license application is incomplete and terminate the application.

863-014-0020

Examinations

(1) For purposes of this rule, "examination provider" means the vendor, under a contract with the Agency, which provides licensing examination services and collects the fee for such services directly from a license applicant.

(2) In addition to any other licensing eligibility requirements:

(a) A real estate broker license applicant must pass a real estate broker examination, consisting of a state portion and a national portion.

(b) A principal broker license applicant must pass a principal real estate broker examination.

(c) A principal broker license applicant who was licensed in Oregon as a salesperson prior to July 1, 2002 is not required to take the real estate broker examination, but must pass the principal broker examination.

(d) A real estate broker or principal broker who has not held an active license for two or more consecutive years must pass a reactivation examination.

(3) To be eligible to take an examination:

(a) A license applicant must have submitted a license application and fee to the Agency required under OAR 863-014-0010 or a license reactivation application and fee required under OAR 863-014-0065;

(b) A real estate broker license applicant must have successfully completed the required courses of study for a real estate broker license under OAR 863-022-0010 from an approved school(s);

(c) A principal broker license applicant, who has never held an Oregon real estate broker license and who has not completed the required courses of study for a real estate broker license, must have successfully completed the required courses of study for a real estate broker license under OAR 863-022-0010 from an approved school(s);

(d) A principal real estate broker license applicant must have successfully completed the brokerage administration and sales supervision course required under OAR 863-022-0025 from an approved school; and

(e) The school providing the course(s) under (b), (c) or (d) of this section, must have certified to the examination provider that the applicant completed the course(s) as provided in OAR 863-022-0060.

(4) To be admitted to an examination site:

(a) A license applicant must be eligible to take an examination under section (3) of this rule;

(b) The applicant must register with the examination provider in advance of the examination and comply with the provider's requirements and instructions; and

(c) The examination provider will collect the examination fee under ORS 696.270 directly from the applicant.

(5) An applicant must pay a separate examination fee for each examination.

(6) If an applicant for a principal real estate broker license passes an examination but is not issued a license within one year from the date of the examination:

(a) The applicant is no longer qualified for the license on the basis of the examination; and

(b) The applicant must retake and pass the examination as required by this rule.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(7) If an applicant for a real estate broker license passes both the national and the state portions of an examination but is not issued a license within one year from the date of the examination:

(a) The applicant is no longer qualified for the license on the basis of the examination; and

(b) The applicant must retake and pass the examination as required by this rule.

(8) A real estate broker license applicant who passes only one portion of a license examination (state or national portion) must pass the remaining portion within one year from the examination date of the passed portion in order to qualify for a license on the basis of the examination.

(9) In lieu of the national portion of the examination required for a real estate broker license in this rule, the Board may accept an applicant's passing results of the national portion of a broker examination taken in another state if:

(a) The examination was taken after November 1, 1973 and the license issued as a result of that examination has not been expired for more than one year; or

(b) The examination was taken within the 12 months before the license application date and

(c) The applicant provides the Agency with the applicant's certified license history from the state where such examination was taken.

License Issue, Term and Form

(1) The Agency will issue a real estate license to an applicant after determining that the applicant meets the license requirements contained in ORS 696.022 and 696.790, has paid all required fees, and meets:

(a) The requirements under OAR 863-014-0035 for real estate broker license applicant; or

(b) The requirements under OAR 863-014-0040 for a principal broker license applicant.

(2) A licensee may engage in professional real estate activities allowed for that license by ORS Chapter 696 and OAR chapter 863 from the date the license is issued until the license expires, becomes inactive, or is revoked, surrendered, or suspended.

(3) A licensee may hold only one of the following Oregon real estate licenses at any time:

(a) Real estate broker,

(b) Principal real estate broker, or

(c) Property manager.

(4) The license expiration date is the last day of the month of a licensee's birth month.

(5) The license term is not more than 24 months plus the number of days between the date the license is issued or renewed and the last day of the month of the licensee's birth month.

(6) The license will include the following information:

(a) The licensee's legal name,

(b) The license number, effective date, and expiration date,

(c) The name under which the licensee conducts real estate business or the registered business name,

(d) The licensee's business address,

(e) The seal of the Real Estate Agency, and

(f) Any other information the Agency deems appropriate.

Real Estate Broker Licensing Requirements

(1) Effective July 1, 2011, to be eligible for a real estate broker's license, an individual must complete the following steps in the order listed:

(a) Submit a license application and pay the fee to the Agency required by OAR 863-014-0010.

(b) Successfully complete the required courses of study for a real estate broker license required by OAR 863-022-0010.

(c) Ensure that the school providing the required course of study certifies to the examination provider that the applicant completed the course as required by OAR 863-014-0020.

(d) Pass the real estate broker licensing examination and pay the fee to the examination provider as required by OAR 863-014-0020.

(e) Provide fingerprints for a criminal background check and pay the fee to the fingerprint services provider as required by OAR 863-0014-0015.

(2) If the applicant's qualifications for the required examination under (1) of this rule are based upon an active real estate license held in another state, the applicant must furnish a certificate of active license history from the other state.

(3) After the applicant meets the requirements under (1) and (2) of this rule, the Agency will complete a background check on the applicant, which includes a criminal background check under OAR 863-014-0015.

(4) A real estate broker must be associated with a principal broker. Effective July 1, 2011 until September 14, 2011, after the requirements in (1) and (2) of this rule are met, the applicant must submit to the Agency:

(a) The name and address of the principal broker who will supervise the applicant's professional real estate activity and name and address of the registered business name of the principal broker; and

(b) The written authorization of the principal broker to be associated with the principal broker and use the principal broker's registered business name.

(5) Effective September 15, 2011, after the requirements in (1) and (2) of this rule are met:

(a) The applicant must submit to the Agency the name and address of the principal broker who will supervise the applicant's professional real estate activity and name and address of the registered business name of the principal broker; and

(b) The Agency will contact the principal broker for authorization for the applicant to be associated with the principal broker and to use the registered business name.

(6) Effective September 15, 2011, a currently licensed principal broker who wishes to be licensed as a real estate broker must submit a license application and pay the fee to the Agency required by OAR 863-014-0010.

Principal Real Estate Broker Licensing Requirements

(1) Effective July 1, 2011, to be eligible for a principal real estate broker's license, an individual must complete the following steps in the order listed:

(a) Submit a license application and pay the fee to the Agency required by OAR 863-014-0010. The license application includes proof satisfactory to the Agency that the applicant has three years of active real estate experience.

(b) If the applicant has never held an Oregon real estate broker license and has not completed the required courses of study for a real estate broker license, the applicant must complete such required courses under OAR 863-022-0010 from an approved school(s).

(c) Ensure that the school providing the courses of study for a real estate broker license under (b) of this section, certifies to the examination provider that the applicant completed the course as required by OAR 863-014-0020.

(d) Successfully complete the brokerage administration and sales supervision course required by OAR 863-022-0025.

(e) Ensure that the school providing the brokerage administration and sales supervision course certifies to the examination provider that the applicant completed the course as required by OAR 863-014-0020.

(f) Pass the principal broker licensing examination and pay the fee to the examination provider required by OAR 863-014-0020.

(g) If the applicant is not an active or inactive Oregon real estate licensee, provide fingerprints for a criminal background check and pay the fee to the fingerprint services provider as required by OAR 863-0014-0015.

(2) If the applicant is required to submit fingerprints under (1) of this rule, the Agency will complete a background check on the applicant, which includes a criminal background check, as required by OAR 863-014-0015.

(3) Effective July 1, 2011 to September 14, 2011, after the requirements in (1) and (2) of this rule are met:

(a) The applicant must state that the applicant will be conducting professional real estate activity under the applicant's licensed name or is registering a business name as provided in (5) of this rule; or

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) The applicant must submit to the Agency the name, address and authorization of a principal broker with whom the applicant will be associated, and the authorization of the principal broker to use the principal broker's registered business name.

(4) Effective September 15, 2011, after the requirements in (1) and (2) of this rule are met:

(a) The applicant must state whether the applicant will be conducting professional real estate activity under the applicant's licensed name or is registering a business name as provided in (5) of this rule; or

(b) After the applicant has submitted the following, the Agency will contact the principal broker for authorization for the applicant to be associated with the principal broker and to use the registered business name:

(A) The name and address of a principal broker with whom the applicant will be associated; and

(B) The address of the registered business name.

(5) If an applicant wishes to conduct professional real estate activity under a registered business name registered by the applicant, the applicant must first obtain the principal broker license and then register a business name under 863-014-0095.

(6) If the applicant's qualifications for three years of active experience are based wholly or partially upon an active real estate license held in another state, the applicant must furnish with the application a certificate of active license history from the other state.

(7) Effective September 15, 2011, a currently licensed real estate broker who has held a principal broker license and who wishes to be licensed as a principal broker must apply for a principal broker license, pay the required fee and meet all the qualifications for a principal broker license under this rule.

License Renewal

(1) Effective July 1, 2011 a licensee may only submit a license renewal application and pay the fee using an online application process, which will be available through the Agency's website.

(2) For purposes of this rule, "received by the Agency" means the date a licensee completed the online renewal process and paid the fee required under ORS 696.270.

(3) A real estate broker or principal broker license expires if a licensee fails to renew the license on or before the license expiration date. A real estate licensee may not engage in any professional real estate activity after a license expires. A real estate licensee may renew an expired license as provided in this rule.

(4) The Agency will renew an active real estate license to active status for the term prescribed in OAR 863-014-0030 when the Agency has received the following:

(a) The renewal fee authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) An active renewal application that includes certification by the licensee that the licensee has met the continuing education renewal requirements under section OAR 863-020-0010.

(5) The Agency will renew an active real estate license to inactive status for the term prescribed in OAR 863-014-0030, when the Agency has received the following:

(a) The renewal fee authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) An inactive renewal application.

(6) The Agency will renew an inactive active real estate license to inactive status for the term prescribed in OAR 863-014-0030, when the Agency has received the following:

(a) The renewal fee authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) An inactive renewal application.

(7) The Agency will renew an inactive real estate license to active status for the term prescribed in OAR 863-014-0030, when the Agency has received the following:

(a) The renewal fee authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) An Agency-approved active renewal application form that includes certification by the licensee that the licensee has met the real estate continuing education renewal requirements under OAR 863-020-0010.

(8) The Agency will renew an expired real estate license to active status when the Agency receives, within one year of the date the license expired, the following:

(a) The renewal fee and a late fee authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) An Agency-approved active renewal application form that includes certification by the licensee that the licensee met the real estate continuing education renewal requirements under OAR 863-020-0010.

(9) The Agency will renew an expired real estate license to inactive license status when the Agency receives, within one year of the date the license expired, the following:

(a) The renewal fee and a late fee authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) An Agency-approved inactive renewal application form.

(10) When the Agency renews an expired license, the renewed license is effective the date the renewal requirements are met. The renewal is not retroactive to the date the license expired and an expired license retains the status of expired during the expiration period.

(11) A license renewed under this rule expires two years from the date of the original expiration date.

(12) A real estate license that has expired for more than one year is lapsed, as defined in ORS 696.010.

(13) A license may not be renewed if it is lapsed, surrendered, suspended, or revoked. Except as provided in 863-014-0075, the former licensee must reapply and meet all the licensing qualifications required of new license applicants.

Mailing Address, Email Address, Address Change, Service of Notice

(1) Each active, inactive and expired real estate licensee must maintain on file with the Agency a current mailing address and email address and notify the Agency within 10 calendar days of a change to a mailing or email address.

(2) A forwarding address is effective as a "current mailing address" when the Agency receives notice of the forwarding address by the United States Postal Service.

(3) Agency notice by mail, whether registered, certified, or regular, to the real estate licensee's current mailing address on file with the Agency constitutes service on the licensee.

(4) The Agency is not required by law to send notification or correspondence by regular mail to a licensee or license applicant regarding license or application status. The Agency may send notification or correspondence to a licensee or license applicant to the email address of the licensee or applicant on file with the Agency. Failure by a licensee or applicant to receive notification or correspondence provided via email does not relieve the licensee or applicant of the responsibility to maintain a current license or complete an application process.

(5) Effective September 15, 2011, the Agency's primary and preferred method of notification and correspondence is to the licensee or license applicant's email address.

(6) For purposes of this rule, "notification or correspondence" in (4) and (5) of this rule means:

(a) Notification, correspondence or confirmation to licensees about license renewal, change of license status to active or inactive, license transfers, registered business name, branch office registration, license reactivation, license expiration, and name and address changes.

(b) Notification, correspondence or confirmation to license applicants about license application status, receipt of documents or information from third parties on license qualifications, and license issuance.

Real Estate License Transfers, Principal Brokers' Responsibilities, Authority to Use Registered Business Name

(1) As used in this rule:

(a) "Authorized licensee" means a principal broker who has authority and is responsible for a registered business name;

(b) "License transfer form" means a completed and signed form that does one of the following:

(A) Transfers a real estate broker license to a receiving principal broker in order to become associated with the receiving principal broker, or

(B) Authorizes a real estate licensee to use a registered business name to conduct professional real estate activity.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) "Sending principal broker" means the authorized licensee or principal broker with whom an active real estate broker is associated before the license transfer;

(d) "Receiving principal broker" means the authorized licensee or principal broker with whom an active real estate broker will be associated after the license transfer.

(2) A license transfer form includes:

(a) The name, mailing address, email address and license number of the licensee who is transferring the license or documenting the authorized use of a registered business name;

(b) The current status of the license, whether active or inactive;

(c) If the real estate broker is associated with a sending principal broker, certification that the real estate broker provided written notice of the transfer to the sending principal broker, and that such notice was provided before the date the transfer form is submitted to the Agency, including:

(A) The date of personal service of such notice; or

(B) The date a certified letter was delivered by the post office to the sending principal broker's address;

(d) If the form is used to authorize the use of a different registered business name, certification that the licensee provided written notice of such change to the authorized licensee for the current registered business name, and that such notice was provided before the date the license transfer form is submitted to the Agency, including:

(A) The date of personal service of such notice; or

(B) The date a certified letter was delivered to the authorized licensee's address;

(e) If applicable, the receiving principal broker's registered business name, street address, and registered business name identification number;

(f) If applicable, the street address, registered business name identification number, and the registered business name under which the real estate licensee will be authorized to conduct professional real estate activity; and

(g) The receiving broker's or authorized licensee's name, license number, telephone number, date, and signature.

(3) The Agency will transfer the license of an active real estate broker associated with a sending principal broker to a receiving principal broker when the Agency receives a license transfer form and the transfer fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(4) The Agency will transfer the license of an active principal real estate broker to a receiving principal broker when the Agency receives a license transfer form and the transfer fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(5) The Agency will transfer the license of an inactive real estate licensee, who has been inactive for a period of 30 days or less, to a receiving principal broker when the Agency receives a license transfer form and the transfer fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(6) A principal real estate broker with whom a licensee is associated remains responsible for the licensee's professional real estate activity until the Agency receives one of the following:

(a) An Agency-approved form submitted by the principal real estate broker terminating the relationship with the licensee under OAR 863-014-0065; or

(b) A license transfer form and fee.

(7) If a principal real estate broker with whom a real estate broker is associated voluntarily gives the license to the real estate broker named in the license, the principal real estate broker remains responsible for the licensee's subsequent professional real estate activity until the Agency receives one of the following:

(a) An Agency-approved form submitted by the principal real estate broker terminating the relationship with the licensee under OAR 863-014-0065;

(b) An Agency-approved form submitted by the licensee terminating the relationship with the principal real estate broker under OAR 863-014-0065; or

(c) A license transfer form and fee.

(8) The Agency will document the registered business name under which a real estate licensee is authorized to conduct professional real estate activity when the Agency receives a license transfer form and the transfer fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

Inactive License, Change License Status to Active, Change License Category, License Reactivation

(1) A real estate licensee whose license is on inactive status may not engage in professional real estate activity.

(2) The commissioner may reprimand, suspend, revoke, or impose a civil penalty against an inactive licensee under ORS 696.301.

(3) The Agency will change an active real estate license to inactive license status when the Agency actually receives the following:

(a) The license;

(b) A request by the licensee submitted on an Agency-approved form to change the license status to inactive; or

(c) An Agency-approved form submitted by the licensee terminating the relationship with the principal real estate broker under this rule.

(4) The Agency will change the status of an active real estate broker who is associated with a principal real estate broker to inactive status when the Agency receives one of the following:

(a) The real estate broker license, submitted by the licensee;

(b) The real estate broker license, submitted by the principal real estate broker;

(c) An Agency-approved form, submitted by the principal real estate broker, terminating the principal real estate broker's relationship with the real estate broker; or

(d) An Agency-approved form submitted by the real estate broker terminating the relationship with the principal real estate broker.

(5) An inactive real estate licensee may renew such license under OAR 863-014-0050.

(6) For a period of 30 days after a real estate broker license becomes inactive, the licensee may change such license status from inactive to active and transfer the license to a principal real estate broker under OAR 863-014-0063.

(7) Except as provided in section (8) of this rule, for a period of 30 days after the real estate license becomes inactive, the licensee may change such license category to an active principal real estate broker only if:

(a) The licensee is qualified for such license and

(b) The licensee submits to the Agency:

(A) An Agency-approved application form to change the license category and to change the license status to active,

(B) A license transfer form under OAR 863-014-0063, if applicable, and

(C) Payment of the transfer fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(8) If the licensee under section (7) of this rule is changing license category to a principal real estate broker and has never been licensed as a principal real estate broker, the licensee must submit to the Agency:

(a) An Agency-approved broker license application form and

(b) The licensing fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(9) If a license has not been on active status for two or more consecutive years, the licensee must complete the following steps in the order listed to reactivate the license:

(a) Submit a reactivation application and pay the fee to the Agency required under ORS 696.270.

(b) Pass the real estate reactivation examination and pay the fee to the examination provider as required by OAR 863-014-0020.

(10) After the 30-day period specified in sections (6) and (7) of this rule, and subject to the examination requirements in section (9) of this rule, a licensee may change the license status from inactive to active only by submitting to the Agency:

(a) An application for license reactivation; and

(b) Payment of the reactivation fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(11) Subject to the examination requirements in section (9) of this rule, if an inactive licensee renews a license and maintains inactive status under section (5) of this rule, the licensee may, within 60 days of the date of renewal, change the license status to active by submitting to the Agency:

(a) An Agency-approved application for license reactivation that includes certification that the licensee met the real estate continuing education renewal requirements under OAR 863-020-0008 or 863-020-0010; and

(b) Payment of the active renewal fee authorized by ORS 696.270, less the amount of the inactive renewal fee already paid by the licensee.

(12) The change of license status, transfer, change of license category or the reactivation of a license is effective when the Agency actually receives all required forms and fees.

Business Name Registration

(1) If a principal real estate broker wishes to conduct real estate business in a name other than the licensee's legal name, the principal broker must first register the business name with the Agency. For the purposes of this rule, "business name" means an assumed name or the name of a business entity, such as a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other business entity recognized by law. A licensee must maintain the registered business name in active status with the Oregon Secretary of State's Corporation Division.

(2) To register a business name, the principal broker must submit to the Agency on an Agency-approved form the following:

(a) The business name in which the licensee wishes to conduct real estate business, which must be the exact name on file with the Oregon Secretary of State.

(b) Written authority to register the business name;

(c) A copy of the registration on file with the Oregon Secretary of State Business Registry showing the business name is active; and

(d) The fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(3) A licensee who wishes to use a registered business name must submit to the Agency the following:

(a) The registered business name the licensee wishes to use; and

(b) Authorization from the principal broker who is responsible for the registered business name on the records of the Agency to use the name.

(4) Business names registered with the Agency do not expire and need not be renewed by the licensee. Any change in the business name registered with the Agency will be treated as the registration of a new business name, and an application for the change in business name must be submitted to the Agency together with the fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(5) If a principal broker wishes to transfer the right to use and the responsibility for a business name that is registered with the Agency, the principal broker acquiring the right to use the name must file a change of business name registration with the Agency together with the fee authorized by ORS 696.270. A licensee must notify the Agency in writing if the licensee terminates its use of a business name.

(6) A business name registration becomes void when the Agency receives notice of termination of the use of a business name. A business name registration becomes void when no licensees are affiliated with the registered business name. A business name registration may be reactivated within one year from the voiding of a registration, unless a new user has registered the business name, without paying the fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(7) Except as provided in OAR 863-014-0085 and this section, no real estate broker or principal broker may engage in professional real estate activities under more than one registered business name. A principal broker may engage in professional real estate activities under more than one registered business name if the business entity is an affiliated or subsidiary organization as described in OAR 863-014-0061.

Background Check and Fingerprint Requirements

(1) An applicant for a property manager license must submit to a background check, except an applicant who is currently licensed as a real estate broker or principal real estate broker or who is eligible for renewal of such licenses.

(2) The background check includes a criminal background check as provided in OAR chapter 863, division 005, which requires the applicant to provide fingerprints.

(3) Effective July 1, 2011, the Agency and a vendor for fingerprinting services ("fingerprint service provider") have contractually agreed that:

(a) The fingerprint service provider will provide fingerprint services to license applicants and submit the fingerprints to the Oregon State Police for Oregon and nationwide criminal history checks.

(b) A license applicant may only submit fingerprints required by the Agency through the fingerprint services provider.

(c) A license applicant must pay the fee for fingerprinting, authorized under ORS 696.270, directly to the fingerprint services provider.

(d) A license applicant must provide fingerprints according to the requirements and instructions of the fingerprint services provider.

(e) A license applicant must have submitted a license application to the Agency before providing fingerprints.

(4) As provided in ORS 181.540, all fingerprint cards, photographs, records, reports, and criminal offender information obtained or compiled by the Agency are confidential and exempt from public inspection. The commissioner will keep such information segregated from other information on the applicant or licensee and maintain such information in a secure place.

(5) If the Agency determines that additional information is necessary in order to conduct a background check, the Agency may request such information in writing, and the applicant must provide the requested information. If the applicant fails to provide the requested information, the Agency may determine that the license application is incomplete and terminate the application.

Examinations

(1) For purposes of this rule, "examination provider" means the vendor, under a contract with the Agency, which provides licensing examination services and collects the fee for such services directly from a license applicant.

(2) In addition to any other licensing eligibility requirements:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) A property manager license applicant must pass a property manager examination.

(b) A property manager who has not held an active license for two or more consecutive years must pass a reactivation examination.

(3) To be eligible to take an examination:

(a) A license applicant must have submitted a license application and fee to the Agency required under OAR 863-024-0010 or a license reactivation application and fee required under OAR 863-024-0065;

(b) A license applicant must have successfully completed the required course of study for a property manager license under OAR 863-022-0015 from an approved school; and

(c) The school providing the course under (b) of this section must have certified to the examination provider that the applicant completed the course as provided in OAR 863-022-0060;

(4) To be admitted to an examination site:

(a) A license applicant must be eligible to take an examination under section (3) of this rule;

(b) The applicant must register with the examination provider in advance of the examination and comply with the provider's requirements and instructions; and

(c) The examination provider will collect the examination fee under ORS 696.270 directly from the applicant.

(5) An applicant must pay a separate examination fee for each examination.

(6) If an applicant for a property manager license examination passes the examination but is not issued a license within one year from the date of the examination:

(a) The applicant is no longer qualified for the license on the basis of the examination; and

(b) The applicant must retake and pass the examination as required by this rule.

License Issue, Term, Form

(1) The Agency will issue a property manager license to an applicant after determining that the applicant meets the license requirements contained in ORS 696.022 and 696.790, has paid all required fees and meets the requirements under OAR 863-024-0045.

(2) A licensee may engage in property management from the date the license is issued until the license expires, becomes inactive, or is revoked, surrendered, or suspended.

(3) A licensee may hold only one of the following Oregon real estate licenses at any time:

(a) Real estate broker;

(b) Principal real estate broker; or

(c) Property manager.

(4) The license expiration date is the last day of the month of a licensee's birth month.

(5) The license term is not more than 24 months plus the number of days between the date the license is issued or renewed and the last day of the month of the licensee's birth month.

(6) The license will include the following information:

(a) The licensee's legal name;

(b) The license number, effective date, and expiration date,

(c) The name under which the licensee conducts real estate business or the registered business name;

(d) The licensee's business address;

(e) The seal of the Real Estate Agency; and

(f) Any other information the Agency deems appropriate.

Property Manager Licensing Requirements

(1) Effective July 1, 2011, to be eligible for a property manager license, an individual must complete the following steps in the order listed:

(a) Submit a license application and pay the fee to the Agency required by OAR 863-024-0010.

(b) Successfully complete the required courses of study for a property manager license required by OAR 863-022-0015.

(c) Ensure that the school providing the required course of study certifies to the examination provider that the applicant completed the course as required by OAR 863-024-0020.

(d) Pass the property manager licensing examination and pay the fee to the examination provider as required by OAR 863-012-0020.

(e) Provide fingerprints for a criminal background check and pay the fee to the fingerprint services provider as required by OAR 863-0014-0015.

(2) After the applicant meets the requirements under (1) of this rule, the Agency will complete a background check on the applicant, which includes a criminal background check under OAR 863-024-0015.

(3) Effective July 1, 2011 to September 14, 2011, after the requirements in (1) and (2) of this rule are met:

(a) The applicant must state that the applicant will be conducting professional real estate activity under the applicant's licensed name or is registering a business name as provided in (5) of this rule; or

(b) The applicant must submit to the Agency the name and address and authorization of a property manager or principal broker with whom the applicant will be associated and the authorization of the property manager or principal broker to use the registered business name.

(4) Effective September 15, 2011, after the requirements in (1) and (2) of this rule are met:

(a) The applicant must state whether the applicant will be conducting professional real estate activity under the applicant's licensed name or is registering a business name as provided in (5) of this rule; or

(b) After the applicant has submitted the following, the Agency will contact the property manager or principal broker for authorization for the applicant to be associated with the property manager or principal broker and to use the registered business name:

(A) The name and address of a property manager or principal broker with whom the applicant will be associated; and

(B) The address of the registered business name.

(5) If an applicant wishes to conduct professional real estate activity under a registered business name registered by the applicant, the applicant must first obtain a property manager license and then register a business name under 863-024-0095.

(6) A real estate property manager may only engage in the management of rental real estate. The licensee may not offer to, negotiate, attempt to, or engage in the sale, purchase, lease-option, appraisal, or exchange of real estate for another individual for compensation. The licensee may not charge, pay, receive, or accept a referral fee, finder's fee, or compensation from or share in a commission paid to a real estate broker for any activity involving the sale, purchase, lease-option, appraisal, or exchange of real estate. However, the licensee may charge, pay, receive, or accept a referral fee or finder's fee from or to a real estate broker or another real estate property manager for finding or referring an owner, renter, or lessee in real estate property management activity.

(7) A real estate property manager is responsible for all property management activity conducted under the property manager's license and for the actions of the property manager's nonlicensed property management employees. A licensed property manager may not authorize an unlicensed individual to supervise that property manager's licensed activity in the manager's absence. Except as provided for in OAR 863-024-0085, a property manager may not authorize another real estate licensee to supervise that property manager's licensed activity in the property manager's absence.

(8) A real estate property manager may be associated with a principal real estate broker to engage in property management activity on behalf of the principal real estate broker and under the supervision of that principal real estate broker. However, a property manager may not act in the broker's absence under OAR 863-024-0085.

License Renewal

(1) Effective July 1, 2011 a licensee may only submit a license renewal application and pay the fee using an online application process, which will be available through the Agency's website.

(2) For purposes of this rule, "received by the Agency" means the date a license renewal is received by the Agency or the postmarked date.

(3) A property manager license expires if a licensee fails to renew the license on or before the license expiration date. A licensee may not engage in any professional real estate activity after a license expires. A property manager may renew an expired license as provided in this rule.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(4) The Agency will renew an active property manager license to active status for the term prescribed in OAR 863-024-0030 when the Agency has received the following:

(a) The renewal fee authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) An Agency-approved active renewal application form requesting active license status that includes certification by the licensee that the licensee has met the real estate continuing education renewal requirements under section OAR 863-020-0010.

(5) The Agency will renew an active property manager license to inactive status for the term prescribed in OAR 863-024-0030, when the Agency has received the following:

(a) The renewal fee authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) An Agency-approved inactive renewal application form.

(6) The Agency will renew an inactive property manager license to inactive status for the term prescribed in OAR 863-024-0030 when the Agency has received the following:

(a) The renewal fee authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) An Agency-approved inactive renewal application form.

(7) The Agency will renew an inactive property manager license to active status for the term prescribed in OAR 863-024-0030, when the Agency has received the following:

(a) The renewal fee authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) An Agency-approved active renewal application form requesting active license status that includes certification by the licensee that the licensee has met the real estate continuing education renewal requirements under section (3) or (4) of this rule.

(8) The Agency will renew an expired property manager license to active status when the Agency receives, within one year of the date the license expired, the following:

(a) The renewal fee and a late fee authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) An Agency-approved active renewal application form that includes certification by the licensee that the licensee met the real estate continuing education renewal requirements under section OAR 863-020-0010.

(9) The Agency will renew an expired property manager license to inactive status when the Agency receives, within one year of the date the license expired, the following:

(a) The renewal fee and a late fee authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) An Agency-approved inactive renewal application form.

(10) When the Agency renews an expired license, the renewed license is effective the date the renewal requirements are met. The renewal is not retroactive to the date the license expired, and the expired license retains the status of expired during the expiration period.

(11) A license renewed under this rule expires two years from the date of the original expiration date.

(12) A real estate license that has expired for more than one year is lapsed, as defined in ORS 696.010.

(13) A license may not be renewed if it is lapsed, surrendered, suspended, or revoked. Except as provided in OAR 863-024-0075, the former licensee must reapply and meet all the licensing qualifications required of new license applicants.

Mailing Address, Email Address, Address Change, Service of Notice

(1) Each active, inactive and expired property manager licensee must maintain on file with the Agency a current mailing address and email and notify the Agency within 10 calendar days of a change of mailing or email address.

(2) A forwarding address is effective as a "current mailing address" when the Agency receives notice of the forwarding address by the United States Postal Service.

(3) Agency notice by mail, whether registered, certified, or regular, to the real estate licensee's current mailing address on file with the Agency constitutes service on the licensee.

(4) The Agency is not required by law to send notification or correspondence by regular mail to a licensee or license applicant regarding license or application status. The Agency may send notification or correspondence to a licensee or license applicant to the email address of the licensee or applicant on file with the Agency. Failure by a licensee or applicant to receive notification or correspondence provided via email does not relieve the licensee or applicant of the responsibility to maintain a current license or complete an application process.

(5) Effective September 15, 2011, the Agency's primary and preferred method of notification and correspondence is to the licensee or license applicant's email address.

(6) For purposes of this rule, "notification or correspondence" in (4) and (5) of this rule means:

(a) Notification, correspondence or confirmation to licensees about license renewal, change of license status to active or inactive, license transfers, registered business name, branch office registration, license reactivation, license expiration, and name and address changes.

(b) Notification, correspondence or confirmation to license applicants about license application status, receipt of documents or information from third parties on license qualifications, and license issuance.

863-024-0063

Property Manager License Transfers, Principal Brokers' Responsibilities, Authority to Use Registered Business Name

(1) As used in this rule:

(a) "Authorized licensee" means a property manager or principal broker who has authority over the use of a registered business name;

(b) "License transfer form" means a completed and signed Agency-approved form that does one of the following:

(A) Transfers a property manager license to a receiving principal broker in order to become associated with the receiving principal broker, or

(B) Authorizes a property manager to use a registered business name to conduct management of rental real estate.

(c) "Sending principal broker" means the principal real estate broker with whom an active property manager license is associated before the license transfer;

(d) "Receiving principal broker" means the principal real estate broker with whom an active property manager license will be associated after the license transfer.

(2) The property manager licensee must provide the following information on a license transfer form:

(a) The name, mailing address, email address and license number of the property manager licensee who is transferring the license or documenting the authorized use of a registered business name;

(b) The current status of the license, whether active or inactive;

(c) If the property manager is associated with a sending principal broker, certification that the property manager provided written notice of the transfer to the sending principal broker, and that such notice was provided before the date the transfer form is submitted to the Agency, including:

(A) The date of personal service of such notice; or

(B) The date a certified letter was delivered by the post office to the sending principal broker's address;

(d) If the form is used to authorize the use of a different registered business name, certification that the property manager licensee provided written notice of such change to the authorized licensee for the current registered business name, and that such notice was provided before the date the license transfer form is submitted to the Agency, including:

(A) The date of personal service of such notice; or

(B) The date a certified letter was delivered to the authorized licensee's address;

(e) If applicable, the receiving principal broker's registered business name, street address, and registered business name identification number;

(f) If applicable, the street address, registered business name identification number, and the registered business name under which the property manager licensee will be authorized to conduct management of rental real estate; and

(g) The receiving broker's or authorized licensee's name, license number, telephone number, date, and signature.

(3) The Agency will transfer the license of an active property manager associated with a sending principal broker to a receiving principal broker when the Agency receives a license transfer form and the transfer fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(4) The Agency will transfer the license of a property manager to a receiving principal broker when the Agency receives a license transfer form and the transfer fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(5) The Agency will transfer the license of an inactive property manager licensee, who has been inactive for a period of 30 days or less, to a receiving principal broker when the Agency receives a license transfer form and the transfer fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(6) A principal real estate broker with whom a property manager licensee is associated remains responsible for the licensee's management of rental real estate until the Agency receives one of the following:

(a) An Agency-approved form submitted by the principal real estate broker terminating the relationship with the licensee under OAR 863-024-0065; or

(b) A license transfer form and fee.

(7) If a principal real estate broker with whom a property manager is associated voluntarily gives the license to the property manager named in the license, the principal real estate broker remains responsible for the licensee's subsequent management of rental real estate until the Agency receives one of the following:

(a) An Agency-approved form submitted by the principal real estate broker terminating the relationship with the licensee under OAR 863-024-0065;

(b) An Agency-approved form submitted by the licensee terminating the relationship with the principal real estate broker under OAR 863-024-0065; or

(c) A license transfer form and fee.

(8) The Agency will document the registered business name under which a property manager licensee is authorized to conduct management of rental real estate when the Agency receives a license transfer form and the transfer fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

863-024-0065

Inactive License, Change License Status to Active, License Reactivation

(1) A property manager licensee whose license is on inactive status may not engage in management of rental real estate.

(2) The commissioner may reprimand, suspend, revoke, or impose a civil penalty against an inactive licensee under ORS 696.301.

(3) The Agency will change an active property manager license to inactive license status when the Agency actually receives a request by the licensee submitted on an Agency-approved form to change the license status to inactive.

(4) An inactive property manager licensee may renew such license under OAR 863-024-0050.

(5) For a period of 30 days after a property manager license becomes inactive, a property manager may change such license status from inactive to active under OAR 863-024-0063.

(6) If a property manager license has not been on active status for two or more consecutive years, the licensee must complete the following steps in the order listed to reactivate the license:

(a) Submit an application for licensing reactivation examination and pay the fee to the Agency authorized by ORS 696.270; and

(b) Pass the property manager reactivation examination and pay the fee to the examination provider as required by OAR 863-024-0020.

(7) After the 30-day period in section (5) of this rule, and subject to the examination requirements in section (6) of this rule, a property manager may change the license status from inactive to active only by submitting to the Agency:

(a) An application for license reactivation; and

(b) Payment of the reactivation fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(8) Subject to the examination requirements in section (6) of this rule, if an inactive licensee renews a license and maintains inactive status, the licensee may, within 60 days of the date of renewal, change the license status to active by submitting to the Agency:

(a) An Agency-approved application for license reactivation that includes certification that the licensee met the real estate continuing education renewal requirements under OAR 863-020-0010; and

(b) Payment of the active renewal fee authorized by ORS 696.270, less the amount of the inactive renewal fee already paid by the licensee.

(9) The change of license status, transfer of license, or the reactivation of a license is effective when the Agency actually receives all required forms and fees.

Licensee Name Change

A licensee may apply for a name change by submitting to the Agency:

(1) A name change application and payment of the fee authorized under ORS 696.270; and

(2) Legal proof of the name change, which must be in the form of an official record such as a marriage certificate, divorce certificate, or a court order/decre.

863-024-0095

Business Name Registration

(1) Before conducting business in a name other than the licensee's legal name, the property manager must register the business name with the Agency. For the purposes of this rule, "business name" means an assumed name or the name of a business entity, such as a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other business entity recognized by law. A licensee must maintain the registered business name with the Oregon Secretary of State's Corporation Division.

(2) To register a business name, the property manager must submit to the Agency, on a Agency-approved form, the following:

(a) The business name in which the licensee wishes to conduct business, which must be the exact name on file with the Oregon Secretary of State;

(b) Written authority by which the licensee is authorized to use the business name;

(c) A copy of the registration on file with the Oregon Secretary of State Business Registry, showing the business name is active; and

(d) The fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(3) A property manager who wishes to use a registered business name must submit to the Agency the following:

(a) The registered business name the licensee wishes to use; and

(b) Authorization from the property manager or principal broker who is responsible for the registered business name on the records of the Agency to use the name.

(4) Business names registered with the Agency do not expire and need not be renewed by the licensee. Any change in the business name registered with the Agency will be treated as the registration of a new business name, and the change in business name must be registered with the Agency together with the fee authorized by ORS 696.270.

(5) If a licensee wishes to transfer the right to use a business name that is registered with the Agency, the licensee acquiring the right to use the name must file a change of business name registration with the Agency together with the fee authorized by ORS 696.270. A licensee must notify the Agency in writing if the licensee terminates its use of a business name.

(6) A business name registration becomes void when the Agency receives notice of termination of the use of a business name. A business name registration becomes void when no licensees are affiliated with the registered business name. A business name registration may be reactivated within one year from the voiding of a registration, unless a new user has registered the business name, without paying the fee set forth in ORS 696.270.

(7) No real estate property manager may engage in professional real estate activities under more than one registered business name. An exception to this requirement is that a real estate property manager may engage in the management of rental real estate under more than one registered business name if the business entity is an affiliated or subsidiary organization as described in OAR 863-024-0061.

(B) One photocopy of the original filing form.

(b) One 8 1/2 by 11 inch paper copy of the complete and final rule text for each rule listed on the Certificate:

(A) Agencies shall number paper copy pages consecutively and note any special instructions where needed.

(B) Agencies shall include tables, appendices and other specially formatted material in the original paper copy filed with the Administrative Rules Unit. These items may be omitted from print Oregon Administrative Rule publications per ORS 183.360(2)(a).

(C) Agencies adopting or amending rules incorporating published standards by reference may omit copies of the publications per ORS 183.355(1)(b).

(c) A diskette or CD that contains:

(A) The final rule text as described in 166-500-0055;

(B) A Word copy of the Certificate and Order for Filing Administrative Rules; and

(C) PDFs of any tables, appendices or other specially formatted material appearing in the rule text, submitted as described in 166-500-0055(2). These items may be omitted from print publications, but when possible the Administrative Rules Unit will include these items in the on-line Administrative Rules Compilation.

(2) Each Certificate and Order for Filing Permanent Administrative Rules shall be comprised only of administrative rules for which prior notice was published in the Oregon Bulletin. This provision does not apply in the case of rules being renumbered only.

(3) Forms are available from the Administrative Rules Unit or downloadable from the Administrative Rules Unit Web Site at <<http://arcweb.sos.state.or.us/banners/rules.htm>>.

Public Records Disposition and Destruction (State and Local Agencies)

A Special Schedule approved by the State Archivist, or an applicable General Schedule published in OAR Chapter 166, authorizes disposition of public records. Disposition includes:

(1) Transfer to the custody of the State Archivist. When the scheduled retention period specifies transfer to the State Archives, an agency shall transfer its custody of the specified records to the custody of the State Archivist.

(2) Shredding, Pulping, or Incineration. Public Records which are confidential by law and negotiable instruments (even when cancelled or satisfied in writing) must be destroyed by shredding, pulping, or incineration. The destruction should be supervised and witnessed by a responsible employee of the agency. When using a contractor to destroy public records, the state or local agency must require posting of a bond or undertaking by the contractor to indemnify the state or local agency against any claims or actions resulting from his failure to protect the confidentiality of the public records, and must require a provision precluding sale, transfer, or delivery of the public records to a third party prior to data obliteration. The agreement shall also include provisions requiring secure transit to and handling by the contractor; and prompt processing of the public records by the contractor to fully obliterate the data they contain by shredding, pulping, or incineration.

(3) Recycling. Records which are not confidential by law may be sold or traded for recycling of the fiber or chemical they contain, provided that the sale or trade agreement includes provisions to ensure that the public records are promptly converted into a form which precludes use of the information they contain.

(4) Deposit in a Library, Museum, or Historical Society with the permission of the State Archivist. The originals of public records that have been microfilmed in compliance with ORS 192.040 to 192.070 and OAR 166-025, and other public records which have continuing local historical value although destruction is authorized, may be deposited in a Library, Museum, or Historical Society if disclosure of the record is not prohibited by law and the depository agrees to comply with ORS 162.305, 192.420, and 192.430. Agreements for such deposits must stipulate that the depository cannot sell or otherwise dispose of the records except by lawful and complete destruction or by returning them to the depositing agency. Permission of the State Archivist is required prior to transfer of records.

Notice of Opportunity for Hearing

When the Secretary of State proposes to impose a civil penalty or find a violation of an election law, or both, under ORS 260.232 or 260.995, the

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Secretary of State shall cause a notice to be served by regular mail on the person(s) subject to the penalty. The notice shall include:

(1) A statement of the person's right to a hearing before an Administrative Law Judge with the Office of Administrative Hearings.

(2) A statement that if the person desires a hearing, the agency must be notified within the number of days provided by statute from the date of receiving the notice.

(3) A statement of the authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held.

(4) A reference to the particular sections of the statutes and rules involved.

(5) A short and plain statement of the matters asserted or charged as a violation.

(6) A statement of the amount of penalty that may be imposed.

(7) A statement that the person may be represented by counsel at the hearing.

(8) If the person is an agency, corporation or an unincorporated association, that such person must be represented by an attorney licensed in Oregon.

(9) A statement that the record of the proceeding to date, including the agency file or files on the subject of the contested case, automatically become part of the contested case record upon default for the purpose of proving a prima facie case.

(10) A statement that the person against whom a penalty may be assessed need not appear in person at a hearing held under ORS 260.232 or 260.995, but instead may submit written testimony and other evidence, sworn to before a notary public, to the Secretary of State for entry in the hearing record. Such documents must be received by the Secretary of State not later than three business days prior to the hearing as provided by 260.232(6).

(11) A statement that unless precluded by law, informal disposition may be made of any contested case by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order or default.

Proposed Orders in Contested Cases, Filing of Exceptions, Argument, and Adoption of Order

(1) The administrative law judge shall prepare a proposed order and serve the proposed order on the agency and each party. The proposed order shall be served not later than 30 calendar days after the hearing is adjourned. The proposed order shall also include information about when and where written exceptions to the proposed order must be filed to be considered by the agency.

(2) If the administrative law judge's proposed order recommended a decision favorable to a party and the agency intends to reject that recommendation and issue an order adverse to that party, the agency shall issue an amended proposed order. When the agency serves an amended proposed order on the party, the agency shall, at the same time notify the party when and where written exceptions for the amended order must be filed to be considered by the agency.

(3) The agency decision maker, after considering any of the written exceptions may adopt the proposed order, amended proposed order or prepare a new order.

Designating the Campaign Finance Manual and Forms; Late Penalty Matrix

(1) Pursuant to ORS 260.156, the Secretary of State designates the 2010 Campaign Finance Manual and associated forms as the procedures and guidelines to be used for compliance with Oregon campaign finance regulations.

(2) The following amendments to the 2010 Campaign Finance Manual will apply to all ORESTAR late and insufficient penalty cases under ORS 260.232. The amendments to this rule with the exception of sections (7) and (9) go into effect upon the adoption of this rule. Sections (7), (9) and (12) apply to late or insufficient cases occurring May 2011 forward.

(3) Pg 64 right column, replace all paragraphs under the heading Late and Insufficient Penalty Cases (ORS 260.232) with the following:

(a) If the Secretary of State determines that a committee is in violation of Oregon election law for a late or insufficient filing, the treasurer, and candidate, if applicable, of the committee is sent a notice of proposed civil penalty (the charging document) that informs them of the potential civil penalty and provides them with an opportunity to request a hearing. This notice is sent by both certified and regular mail to the committee treasurer or, in the case of a candidate committee, by both certified and regular mail to the candidate with a copy by regular mail to the treasurer, and correspondence recipient, if applicable.

(b) Late and insufficient violations will be processed by calendar month. Each case for a given month will include late violations (transactions that are filed late in that particular month) and insufficient violations. (Transactions that are not sufficiently corrected by the exam response due date in that particular month.)

(c) For example, a transaction is due on April 15, 2009. The transaction isn't filed until May 1, 2009. This violation will be part of the May case.

(d) A transaction is identified as insufficient on an exam letter, with a response due date of May 10, 2009. The transactions isn't corrected until May 15, 2009, this violation will also be part of the May case.

(e) If the total calculated penalty for a case is less than $50, a proposed penalty will not be issued and there will be no violation found.

(f) If a person is not going to contest the proposed penalty, payment may be made payable to the Secretary of State and mailed to the Elections Division prior to the issuance of a default final order or not later than 60 days after the default final order is issued.

(4) Pg 65 left column, replace all language beginning with heading Request for Hearing through the language under the heading Hearing by Telephone located in the right column with the following:

(a) STEP ONE: RESPONDING TO PROPOSED PENALTY NOTICE.

(A) When a person receives a proposed penalty notice, they can either pay the penalty, or contest the charges by submitting notarized testimony in lieu of a hearing or requesting an in person or telephone hearing.

(B) To pay the penalty the following must occur:

(i) Payment is made payable to the Secretary of State.

(ii) Payment may be mailed to the Elections Division prior to the issuance of the default final order, at any time after the proposed penalty notice is issued.

(iii) Payment must be received not later than 60 days after the default final order is issued.

(iv) If necessary, the person may contact the Elections Division at 503-986-1518 to discuss payment plan options.

(C) To submit notarized testimony in lieu of an in person or telephone hearing to contest the case the following must occur:

(i) The person must submit a signed Hearing Request Form and an answer to the violations within 20 days of the receipt of the certified mail notice of proposed civil penalty. If the certified letter is refused or left unclaimed at the post office, the 20 day period begins on the day the post office indicates it has given first notice of the certified letter.

(ii) The answer must include an admission or denial of each factual matter alleged in the proposed penalty notice.

(iii) The answer must identify any mitigating circumstance that applies and indicate specifically what facts or transactions the mitigating circumstance applies to.

(iv) If the person has evidence of a mitigating circumstance, or other relevant evidence, this can be submitted with the answer as exhibits.

(v) Except for good cause shown to the administrative law judge, factual matters alleged in the penalty notice and not denied in the answer will be deemed admitted by the party.

(vi) The testimony must be notarized by a licensed Notary Public.

(vii) A worksheet is available on the back of the Hearing Request Form and may be used to complete the answer. Additional copies may be obtained by emailing your request to elec-hearings@sos.state.or.us or by contacting the Elections Division at 503-986-1518.

(viii) The testimony may be mailed to the Elections Division at 255 Capitol St NE, Ste 501, Salem OR 97310 or may be faxed to 503-373-7414.

(D) To request an in person or telephone hearing to contest the case the following must occur:

(i) The person must submit a signed Hearing Request Form and an answer to the violations within 20 days of the receipt of the certified mail notice of proposed civil penalty. If the certified letter is refused or left unclaimed at the post office, the 20 day period begins on the day the post office indicates it has given first notice of a certified letter.

(ii) The person must elect whether or not they want the hearing by telephone or in person on the Hearing Request Form, and sign where indicated.

(iii) The answer must include an admission or denial of each factual matter alleged in the proposed penalty notice.

(iv) The answer must identify any mitigating circumstance that applies and indicate specifically what facts or transactions the mitigating circumstance applies to.

(v) If the person has evidence of a mitigating circumstance, or other relevant evidence, this can be submitted with the answer as exhibits.

(vi) Except for good cause shown to the administrative law judge, factual matters alleged in the penalty notice and not denied in the answer will be deemed admitted by the party.

(b) STEP TWO: CONTESTED CASE PROCESS — If a person submits the Hearing Request Form, the hearing will be conducted by an administrative law judge with the Office of Administrative Hearings through one of the following processes:

(A) NOTARIZED TESTIMONY PROCESS — If the person has timely submitted the signed Hearing Form designating the submission of notarized testimony, the Elections Division will refer the case and forward the person's notarized testimony to the Office of Administrative Hearings. The following process then applies:

(i) When the Elections Division Submits Testimony — The Elections Division may submit notarized testimony (and any exhibits) to the Office of Administrative Hearings and to the person that filed the notarized testimony. The Elections Division's notarized testimony will be sent via email to the email address provided on the request form. The Secretary of State, Elections Division may mail its notarized testimony to the party's last known address if the party's email address is unknown or does not accept the Secretary of State's email.

(ii) Opportunity for Rebuttal Testimony — The person may, but is not required to, respond to the Elections Division testimony by submitting rebuttal notarized testimony. The rebuttal testimony is limited to issues raised in the person's original testimony and the Elections Division's testimony. The rebuttal testimony must be received not later than five business days from the date of service of the Division's testimony (the date the testimony was emailed or mailed). The notarized testimony "hearing" is deemed closed the day after the deadline for the person to submit rebuttal testimony.

(B) IN PERSON OR TELEPHONE HEARING PROCESS — If the person has timely submitted the signed Hearing Form designating an in person or telephone hearing, the following process applies:

(i) Scheduling a Hearing — The Elections Division will refer the hearing request, including the party's answer and hearing request form, to the Office of Administrative Hearings. The Office of Administrative Hearings will schedule a hearing not later than 45 days after the deadline for requesting a hearing. A 15 day extension may be granted if requested in writing by the person subject to the civil penalty.

(ii) Submitting Exhibits — Not less than five business days prior to the commencement of the hearing, each party, including the Elections Division, must deliver copies of the exhibits it intends to offer into evidence at the hearing. Exhibits must be delivered to the Administrative Law Judge, all parties, and the Elections Division. Delivery of the exhibits may be accomplished by any of the following means, or by other means of similar nature: Hand delivery; First class or certified mail; Facsimile; Professional delivery service; or Emailed in a pdf format to elec-hearings@sos.state.or.us. Nothing precludes any party or the Elections Division from seeking to introduce documentary evidence in addition to evidence described above during a telephone or in person hearing. The Administrative Law Judge shall receive such evidence, subject to the applicable rules of evidence, only if inclusion of the evidence in the record is necessary to conduct a full and fair hearing.

(iii) Conduct of In Person or Telephone Hearing — If the hearing is in person, it will be conducted at the time scheduled and held in a hearing room at the Office of Administrative Hearings in Salem. If the hearing is by telephone, the parties will call the phone number provided in the Notice of Hearing sent by the Office of Administrative Hearings. The hearing will be presided over by an Administrative Law Judge. The Administrative Law Judge will describe the hearing process at the beginning of each hearing. The parties will then be given the opportunity to give opening statements, present and examine witnesses, and give closing statements.

(iv) Opportunity to Opt Out of In Person or Telephone Hearing — If a person requests an in person or telephone hearing and the hearing is scheduled by the Office of Administrative Hearings, then subsequently decides they do not want to appear at the hearing, but still wants to contest the penalty, the person may submit notarized testimony and other evidence for entry into the hearing record before the Administrative Law Judge. The Elections Division must receive the testimony no later than three business days before the day of the scheduled hearing. The Elections Division may submit notarized testimony. The testimony must be received by the Office of Administrative Hearings not later than 5:00 pm on the hearing scheduled date. If the Elections Division does not submit notarized testimony, the Agency file will become a part of the case file and establish the basis for liability. This process is separate and distinct from the Notarized Testimony process discussed above and applies only when a party requests an in person or telephone hearing and later decides not to appear at the hearing and instead provide notarized testimony and evidence.

(c) STEP THREE: PROPOSED AND FINAL ORDERS.

(A) Proposed Order — After the hearing is closed, the Office of Administrative Hearings sends the treasurer, candidate, and the Elections Division the administrative law judge's proposed order. The administrative law judge's proposed order will provide a deadline to file written exceptions to the proposed order. If the Elections Division chooses to amend the proposed order issued by the administrative law judge, the Elections Division will send an amended proposed order which will provide a deadline to file written exceptions to the amended proposed order.

(B) Final Order — After reviewing and considering the written exceptions, the Elections Division will issue a final order no later than 90 days after the hearing is closed. If the order imposes a civil penalty, the party has 60 days to pay the penalty or file an appeal. If necessary, the person may contact the Elections Division at 503-986-1518 to discuss payment plan options.

(d) Judicial Review of a Final or Default Order — After the issuance of a final order or default final order, a candidate or treasurer is entitled to judicial review of the order. Judicial review may be obtained by filing a petition for review with the Oregon Court of Appeals within 60 days of the service date of the order.

(5) Page 65 right column, under heading Mitigating Circumstances, replace the first paragraph with the following: If an in person, telephone or notarized testimony hearing is requested and testimony is provided regarding the mitigating circumstance that directly caused the late or insufficient filing, the Administrative Law Judge and the Secretary of State may consider reducing in whole or in part, the civil penalty, based on the facts presented by the testimony.

(6) Page 66 right column, delete all language under headings Final Order and Default Final Order.

(7) Page 67 left column under the heading Penalties for Late Transactions, replace the paragraph with: The treasurer responsible for a late filed transaction is the treasurer of record at the time the transaction is due. The liability for the civil penalty remains with the treasurer, and the candidate, if applicable, even if the late transaction is filed by the designated alternate transaction filer.(8) Page 68 left column under the heading Penalty Matrix Late Filings should be replaced with the following: Penalties may be assessed for any contribution or expenditure transaction that is filed late or any cash balance adjustment transaction. A transaction is considered late in any of the following circumstances:

(a) A transaction is not filed by the due date for the transaction;

(b) A change is made to the name of the contributor or payee after the transaction due date, resulting in an entirely different contributor or payee being associated with the transaction (the transaction is considered late from the transaction due date to the date the amended transaction changing the contributor or payee is filed);

(c) A change is made to the date of the transaction resulting in a due date that is prior to the date the transaction was originally filed (the transaction is considered late from the date the transaction should have been filed to the date the transaction was originally filed);

(d) A change (increase or decrease) is made to the amount of a previously reported transaction after the transaction due date (the amount of the change is late from the transaction due date to the date the amended transaction changing the amount is filed) no penalty will be imposed for a change in the amount of an expenditure made by an agent transaction;

(e) A previously reported transaction is deleted after the transaction due date (the transaction is considered late from the transaction due date to the date the transaction deletion is filed);

(f) a cash balance adjustment transaction is filed because the committee is unable to reconcile the calculated cash balance based on transactions filed with the Secretary of State with the committee's bank balance; or

(g) The transaction type is amended from any transaction type other than a contribution or expenditure to a contribution or expenditure, and the original transaction was filed after the deadline (the transaction is considered late from the transaction due date to the date the original transaction is filed).

(9) Page 69 under the heading Maximum Penalties should be replaced with the following:

(a) The maximum penalty for each late transaction, except for a change in a transaction amount, is 10% of the amount of the transaction. The maximum penalty for a change in a transaction amount is 10% of the change in amount.

(b) The maximum penalty for a late Certificate of Limited Contributions and Expenditures is $100.

(c) The maximum penalty for each cash balance adjustment is 10% of the amount of the transaction.

(d) The maximum penalty for a late Statement of Independent Expenditures (form PC 10) is 10% of the total amount reported on form PC 10.

(10) Page 71 right column under the heading Penalties should be replaced with the following:

(a) for all missing or insufficient items, other than those listed below: $10 per item;

(b) failure to provide the terms of a loan: 1% of the loan.

(c) Omitted or insufficient information submitted after the amendment deadline but prior to the deadline for a candidate or treasurer to request a hearing will result in a 50% per item reduction of the penalty, if the information is deemed sufficient. If a public hearing is requested, the omitted or insufficient information may be submitted up to the date of the hearing and if deemed sufficient will result in a 50% per item reduction of the penalty.

(11) Amend all references in the 2010 Campaign Finance Manual regarding the requirement for a candidate to file a candidate committee from $350 to $750, including Pages 13, 41, 59 and form SEL 220, Statement of Organization for Candidate Committee.

(12) Page 70 under the heading Maximum Penalties should be replaced with the following: The maximum penalty for each late transaction, except for a change in a transaction amount, is 10% of the amount of
