Educational Income

(1) Educational income is income designated specifically for educational expenses. To be considered educational income, the income must be received by one of the following:

(a) A student at a recognized institution of post-secondary education. Post-secondary education is education offered primarily to individuals 18 years of age or older. Admission may — but does not necessarily — require a high school diploma or equivalent.

(b) A student at a school for individuals with disabilities.

(c) A student in a vocational education program.

(d) A student in a program that provides for completion of requirements for a secondary school diploma or the equivalent.

(2) To determine the amount of educational income to exclude, education expenses listed in the financial aid award letter are used unless one of the following is true:

(a) The student provides verification of amounts different from those listed in the award letter, in which case the verified amounts from the student are used.

(b) The student receives child care benefits — ERDC or other child care subsidies. The amount the student actually pays for child care (including the ERDC copay) is excluded as educational income instead of the amount shown in the award letter.

(c) The student states that actual transportation costs exceed the amount allowed for the expense in the award letter. In that situation, the number of miles to and from school is multiplied by $0.20. The product or the amount from the award letter, whichever is greater, is excluded.

(3) The following items are excluded:

(a) Educational income authorized by the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Applied Technology Education Act or Title IV of the Higher Education Act or made available by the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA).

(b) All income from educational loans.

(4) Except as provided in section (5) of this rule, the cost of the following items from remaining educational funds (including non Title IV work study, externship (see OAR 461-001-0015), graduate assistantship (see OAR 461-001-0015), graduate fellowship (see OAR 461-001-0015) wages, and internship (see OAR 461-001-0015)) is excluded:

(a) Tuition, mandatory fees, books and supplies, transportation, required rental or purchase of equipment or materials charged to students enrolled in a specific curriculum, other miscellaneous personal expenses (except room and board), and loan originator fees and insurance premiums required to obtain an educational loan.

(b) In all programs except ERDC — dependent care.

(5) For a participant in the Parents as Scholars (PAS) component of the JOBS program who has been approved for PAS pursuant to OAR 461-190-0199, all remaining educational funds, including those funds intended for room and board, are excluded.

(6) In all programs covered by chapter 461 of the Oregon Administrative Rules, after allowing exclusions, the remaining income is treated as follows:

(a) Income received through work study (including work study provided through a VA program or other educational program), fellowships and teaching-assistant positions not excluded by section (3) or (4) of this rule is earned income.

(b) Educational income not covered by subsection (a) of this section is prorated over the period it is intended to cover. If the client has already received the income, the prorated amount is counted monthly beginning with the first month of the period. If the client has not received the income at the time the determination is made, the prorated income is counted starting in the month the client expects to receive it.

Loans and Interest on Loans

(1) This rule covers proceeds of loans, loan repayments, and interest earned by a lender. If the proceeds of a loan are used to purchase an asset, the asset is evaluated under the other rules in this division of rules.

(2) For purposes of this rule:

(a) In the GA, GAM, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs:

(A) "Bona fide loan agreement" means an agreement that:

(i) Is enforceable under state law;

(ii) Is in effect at the time the cash proceeds are provided to the borrower; and

(iii) Includes an obligation to repay and a feasible repayment plan.

(B) "Negotiable loan agreement" means a loan agreement in which the instrument ownership and the whole amount of money expressed on its face can be transferred from one person to another (i.e., sold) at prevailing market rates.

(b) In all programs:

(A) "Reverse-annuity mortgage" means a contract with a financial institution (see OAR 461-001-0000) under which the financial institution provides payments against the equity in the home that must be repaid when the homeowner dies, sells the home, or moves.

(B) The proceeds of a home equity loan or reverse-annuity mortgage are considered loans.

(3) For payments that a member of the financial group (see OAR 461-110-0530) receives as a borrower to be treated as a loan:

(a) In the GA, GAM, OSIP, OSIPM, QMB, and SNAP programs, there must be an oral or written loan agreement, and this agreement must state when repayment of the loan is due to the lender.

(b) In programs other than the GA, GAM, OSIP, OSIPM, QMB, and SNAP programs, there must be a written loan agreement, and this agreement must be signed by the borrower and lender, dated before the borrower receives the proceeds of the loan, and state when repayment of the loan is due to the lender.

(4) Payments for a purported loan that do not meet the requirements of section (3) of this rule are counted as unearned income.

(5) When a member of a financial group receives cash proceeds as a borrower from a loan that meets the requirements of section (3) of this rule:

(a) In all programs, educational loans are treated according to OAR 461-145-0150.

(b) In the ERDC, REF, REFM, SNAP, and TANF programs, the loan is excluded. If retained after the month of receipt, the loan proceeds are treated in accordance with OAR 461-140-0070.

(c) In the GA, GAM, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs:

(A) If the loan is a bona fide loan agreement, the money provided by the lender is not income but is counted as the borrower's resource if retained in the month following the month of receipt (notwithstanding OAR 461-140-0070).

(B) If the loan is not a bona fide loan agreement, the money provided by the lender is counted as income in the month received and is counted as a resource if retained in the month following the month it was received.

(6) In the OSIPM program, if a client or a spouse of a client uses funds to purchase a mortgage or to purchase or lend money for a promissory note or loan:

(a) In a transaction occurring on or after July 1, 2006:

(A) The balance of the payments owing to the client or spouse of the client is a transfer of assets for less than fair market value, unless all of the following requirements are met:

(i) The total value of the transaction is being repaid to the client or spouse of the client within three months of the client's life expectancy per that person's actuarial life expectancy as established by the Period Life Table of the Office of the Chief Actuary of the Social Security Administration.

(ii) Payments are made in equal amounts over the term of the transaction without any deferrals or balloon payments.

(iii) The contract is not cancelled upon the death of the individual receiving the payments under this transaction.

(B) If the loan results in a disqualification and the disqualification period has been served, payments against the principal and interest are treated as unearned income.

(b) In a transaction occurring before July 1, 2006 or for a transaction occurring on or after July 1, 2006 that does not result in a disqualification in subsection (a) of this section, the loan is treated as follows:

(A) Interest income is treated as unearned income.

(B) The loan is counted as a resource if:

(i) The financial group includes a client in a nonstandard living arrangement (see OAR 461-001-0000) and the client's spouse;

(ii) The transaction is on or after the date of the first continuous period of care (see OAR 461-001-0030); and

(iii) The amount of the loan plus other resources transferred exceeds the largest amount in OAR 461-160-0580(2)(f).

(C) For all other loans:

(i) If the loan is both a negotiable loan agreement and a bona fide loan agreement, the loan is counted as a resource valued at the outstanding principal balance.

(ii) If the loan does not qualify under subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, payments against the principal are counted as unearned income.

(7) In the GA, GAM, OSIP, and QMB programs:

(a) Interest income is treated as unearned income.

(b) If the loan is both a negotiable loan agreement and a bona fide loan agreement, the loan is counted as a resource of the lender valued at the outstanding principal balance.

(c) If the loan does not qualify under subsection (b) of this section, the payments against the principal are counted as income to the lender.

(8) In all programs other than the GA, GAM, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs:

(a) The interest payment is counted as unearned income.

(b) The payment of principal is excluded.

Motor Vehicle

(1) The value of disability-related apparatus, optional equipment, or low mileage is not considered in determining the fair market value (see OAR 461-001-0000) of an automobile, truck, or van. The fair market value of an automobile, truck, or van is presumed to be the "average trade-in value" established in the National Automobile Dealers Association's (NADA) Used Car Guide. If the vehicle is not listed in the NADA Used Car

Guide, the "average trade-in value" established in the Kelley Blue Book is used. If the vehicle is not listed in the NADA Used Car Guide and Kelley Blue Book, the "average trade-in value" established in a similar publication is used. A client may rebut the presumption with a statement from a car dealer, mechanic, or other reliable source. If the vehicle is not listed in the NADA Used Car Guide, Kelley Blue Book, and a similar publication, the estimate of the value by the client may be accepted unless it appears questionable, in which case additional evidence of the value is required.

(2) Some programs permit an exclusion for a portion of the equity value (see OAR 461-001-0000) for any licensed and unlicensed motor vehicles owned by the financial group:

(a) In the REF, REFM, SNAP, and TANF programs, this exclusion is up to $10,000.

(b) In the GA and GAM programs, this exclusion is up to $4,500.

(c) Any remaining equity in that vehicle and the total equity value of all other vehicles is counted as a resource.

(3) In the EA and ERDC programs, all motor vehicles are excluded.

(4) In the OSIPM and QMB programs:

(a) The total value of a vehicle selected by the financial group is excluded if it is used for transportation of the client or a member of the client's household.

(b) The total equity value of any vehicle not excluded under subsection (a) of this section and all other vehicles is counted as a resource.

(5) In the OSIP-EPD and OSIPM-EPD programs, if a vehicle was purchased as an employment and independence expense (see OAR 461-001-0035) or with moneys from an approved account (see OAR 461-001-0035), the total value of the vehicle is excluded.

National and Community Services Trust Act (NCSTA), including AmeriCorps (other than AmeriCorps VISTA)

(1) The National and Community Service Trust Act (NCSTA) of 1993 (P.L. 103-82) amended the National and Community Service Act (NCSA) of 1990 (P.L. 101-610) that established a Corporation for National and Community Service. The Corporation administers national service programs providing living allowance, educational award, child care and in-kind benefits.

(2) NCSTA payments, including AmeriCorps (except AmeriCorps VISTA which is covered in OAR 461-145-0110) are treated as follows:

(a) The living allowance (stipend benefits) is excluded.

(b) Educational award and in-kind benefits are treated as follows:

(A) In the GA program, these benefits are treated according to the policy for the specific type of asset.

(B) In all programs except GA, these benefits are excluded.

(c) The child care allowance is treated as follows:

(A) For clients in the ERDC, REF, and TANF programs who are eligible for direct provider payment of child care, the allowance is counted as unearned income. The allowance is excluded only if the client already pays the provider. The provider may be paid for only the costs not covered by the allowance.

(B) For clients in the SNAP program who are receiving a child care deduction, the deduction is allowed only for the costs not covered by the allowance.

(C) In all other programs, the allowance is excluded.

Real Property

(1) For purposes of this rule, manufactured and mobile homes and floating homes and houseboats are treated in the same manner as real property.

(2) The applicant has the burden of proof of establishing the fair market value (see OAR 461-001-0000) of real property (see OAR 461-001-0000). Fair market value may be established by any methodology determined to accurately reflect the fair market value of the real property, including the provision of an appraisal or comparative market analysis performed by an impartial individual who is certified or licensed in the applicable jurisdiction.

(3) Real property that is not income-producing or the home of the financial group (see OAR 461-110-0530) is treated as follows:

(a) In the REF, REFM, and TANF programs, the equity value (see OAR 461-001-0000) of all real property that is not excluded under a TANF Interim Assistance agreement is counted as a resource.

(b) In the EA and ERDC programs, real property is excluded.

(c) In the SNAP program, real property is treated as follows:

(A) The equity value of real property is excluded if the financial group is making a good-faith effort to sell the real property at a fair market price.

(B) The equity value of the real property is counted as a resource if the financial group refuses to make a good-faith effort to sell.

(C) The resource is excluded if selling the resource would produce a net gain to the financial group of less than $1,500.

(d) In the GA, GAM, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs:

(A) The equity value of real property that was the home of the financial group is excluded if the financial group is making a good-faith effort to sell the real property at a reasonable price, unless the equity value in the home makes the client ineligible under OAR 461-145-0220(2)(a).

(B) The equity value of all other real property is excluded if the financial group is making a good-faith effort to sell the real property at a reasonable price. The equity value is counted after the real property is excluded for nine months unless the failure to sell it is for reasons beyond the reasonable control of the financial group.

(4) The treatment of real property that is income producing is covered in OAR 461-145-0250.

(5) The treatment of the home of the financial group is covered in OAR 461-145-0220.

Real Property Excluded under an Interim Assistance Agreement; REF, REFM, TANF

(1) This rule applies in the REF, REFM, and TANF programs when the equity value (see OAR 461-001-0000) of real property puts the financial group (see OAR 461-110-0530) over the resource limit.

(2) When section (1) of this rule applies:

(a) The equity value of real property is excluded for a maximum of nine months if the financial group signs and complies with the terms of the program's Interim Assistance Agreement.

(b) After the ninth month, the equity value of the property is counted as a resource.

(3) To comply with the terms of the program's Interim Assistance Agreement, the financial group must agree to do all the following:

(a) Make a good-faith effort to sell the property; and

(b) Use the proceeds from the sale of the property to reimburse the Department for all benefits paid under the terms of the program's Interim Assistance Agreement. The reimbursement will not exceed the net proceeds of the sale of the property.

(4) The amount of benefits paid while the financial group has excess real property is an overpayment if the financial group fails to notify the Department that the group has the property.

(5) The amount of the benefits paid while the financial group has excess real property is an overpayment up to the net proceeds of the sale of the property if the property sells and the financial group does not repay the Department under the terms of the program's Interim Assistance Agreement.

Resettlement and Placement (R&P) Grants

(1) A Reception and Placement (R&P) grant is a payment made by the United States Department of State through a national refugee resettlement agency to a local resettlement agency, refugee sponsor, or refugee. An R&P grant is provided to the resettlement agency to help with the costs of initial resettlement of a refugee in the United States. The resettlement agency provides a part of this grant to the refugee, usually in the refugee's first month after arrival, for the refugee's initial resettlement needs and not for ongoing living expenses.

(2) In the ERDC, REF, REFM, and TANF programs, an R&P grant is excluded from consideration as income or a resource for purposes of determining program eligibility or benefit levels, except as provided in OAR 461-140-0070.

(3) In the SNAP program, any amount paid directly to a SNAP household from an R&P grant is counted as unearned income. For an in-kind payment made directly to a provider by the resettlement agency, see OAR 461-145-0280.

(4) In the GA, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs, an R&P grant determined to be available to the refugee case is considered unearned income.

Sale of a Resource

(1) In the ERDC program, all proceeds from the sale of a resource are excluded as income and as a resource.

(2) In the REF, REFM, and TANF programs:

(a) Proceeds from the sale of an excluded resource to the extent reinvested in another excluded resource are excluded as income and as a resource.

(b) All proceeds from the sale of the resource are counted as unearned income, unless excluded in subsection (a) of this section.

(3) In all programs except the ERDC, REF, REFM, and TANF programs, proceeds from the sale of a resource are treated as follows:

(a) Proceeds from the sale of a resource (other than a home) received on a monthly or other periodic basis are counted as unearned income. Proceeds received on a lump sum basis are treated as follows:

(A) If the proceeds are from the sale of an excluded resource, the amount reinvested in another excluded resource is excluded, and the remainder is counted as a resource.

(B) The proceeds from all other sales are counted as a resource. If the proceeds put the benefit group (see OAR 461-110-0750) over the resource limit, the proceeds are counted as periodic or lump sum income (see OAR 461-140-0110 and 461-140-0120).

(b) Proceeds from the sale of the home of the financial group (see OAR 461-110-0530) are excluded for three months if the financial group intends to use the proceeds (subparagraphs (A)(i) and (A)(ii) of this subsection set out the scope of use of excluded proceeds in the GA, GAM, OSIP, and QMB programs) to buy another home, except as follows:

(A) In the GA, GAM, OSIPM (except for clients eligible under OAR 461-135-0771), and QMB programs for a home sold on or after October 1, 2012:

(i) Principal payments, including lump-sum payments, are excluded for three full calendar months from the date of receipt if the financial group intends to use the proceeds to buy another home or for associated costs including:

(I) Downpayments;

(II) Settlement costs;

(III) Loan processing fees and points;

(IV) Moving expenses;

(V) Necessary repairs to or replacement of the new home's structure or fixtures (including roof, furnace, plumbing, built-in appliances) that are identified and documented prior to occupancy; and

(VI) Mortgage payments.

(ii) For the purposes of subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, funds that are obligated by contract during these three full calendar months are also excluded.

(iii) Interest payments are counted as unearned income.

(B) For clients eligible for OSIPM under OAR 461-135-0771, the proceeds from the sale of the financial group's home, if the financial group intends to use them to buy another home (subparagraphs (A)(i) and (A)(ii) of this subsection set out the scope of use of excluded proceeds), are treated as follows:

(i) For a home sold prior to October 1, 2012, the proceeds are excluded for 12 full calendar months.

(ii) For a home sold on or after October 1, 2012:

(I) Principal payments, including lump-sum payments, are excluded for 12 full calendar months from the date of receipt.

(II) Interest payments are counted as unearned income.

(c) The proceeds from the sale of a home that are not reinvested in another home are counted as a resource, except as follows:

(A) In the GA and GAM programs, if the proceeds put the benefit group over the resource limit, they are counted as periodic or lump sum income.

(B) In the GA, GAM, OSIPM, and QMB programs for a home sold on or after October 1, 2012:

(i) Principal is counted as a resource, except that in the GA and GAM programs, if the proceeds put the benefit group over the resource limit, they are counted as periodic or lump sum income.

(ii) Interest payments are counted as unearned income.

(C) In the SNAP program, the proceeds are treated as lump-sum income (see OAR 461-001-0000) under OAR 461-140-0120.

(d) In the SNAP program:

(A) Interest received monthly or on another periodic basis from the sale of a home is counted as unearned income.

(B) If a self-employed client sells a work-related asset, including equipment and inventory, the proceeds of the sale are treated as self-employment income (see OAR 461-145-0910).

(4) Costs of the type excluded under OAR 461-145-0920 are subtracted from proceeds counted as income under this rule.

(B) Except as provided in paragraph (C) of this subsection, earned shelter-in-kind income is treated as follows:

(i) If shelter is provided for services related to the employer's trade or business and acceptance of the shelter is a condition of employment, the shelter-in-kind income is treated in accordance with paragraph (A) of this subsection.

(ii) Except as provided in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, the fair market value (see OAR 461-001-0000) of the shelter is counted as earned income.

Trusts

(1) This section applies to all trust funds (see OAR 461-001-0000) in the REF, REFM, SNAP, and TANF programs. It also applies to GA, GAM, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB for trust funds established before October 1, 1993:

(a) Trust funds are counted as a resource if the fund is legally available for use by a member of the financial group (see OAR 461-110-0530) for items covered by program benefits. In the OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs, the amount of the trust that is considered legally available is the maximum amount that could be distributed to the beneficiary under the terms of the trust, regardless of whether the trustee exercises his or her authority to actually make a distribution.

(b) Trust funds are excluded if the fund is not available for use by a member of the financial group. The financial group must try to remove legal restrictions on the trust, unless that would cause an expense to the group.

(c) The part of the fund available for use for medical expenses covered by the medical program for which the financial group is eligible is counted.

(2) In the ERDC program, all trust funds are excluded.

(3) In the OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs, trust funds established on or after October 1, 1993, are treated in accordance with sections (4) to (10) of this rule. In the GA and GAM programs, trust funds established on or after October 1, 1993, are treated in accordance with sections (4) to (8) of this rule.

(4) A trust is considered established if the financial group used their resources to form all or part of the trust and if any of the following established a trust, other than by a will:

(a) The client.

(b) The client's spouse.

(c) Any other person, including a court or administrative body, with legal authority to act in place of or on behalf of the client or the client's spouse.

(d) Any other person, including a court or administrative body, acting at the direction or upon the request of the client or the client's spouse.

(5) If the trust contains resources or income of another person, only the share attributable to the client is considered available.

(6) Except as provided in section (9) of this rule, the following factors are ignored when determining how to treat a trust:

(a) The purpose for which the trust was established.

(b) Whether or not the trustees have or exercise any discretion under the trust.

(c) Any restrictions on when or if distributions may be made from the trust.

(d) Any restrictions on the use of distributions from the trust.

(7) If the trust is revocable, it is treated as follows:

(a) The total value of the trust is considered a resource available to the client.

(b) A payment made from the trust to or for the benefit of the client is considered unearned income.

(c) A payment from the trust other than to or for the benefit of the client is considered a transfer of assets covered by OAR 461-140-0210 and following.

(8) If the trust is irrevocable, it is treated as follows:

(a) If, under any circumstances, the funds transferred into the trust are unavailable to the client and the trustee has no discretion to distribute the funds to or for the benefit of the client, the client is subject to a transfer-of-resources penalty as provided in OAR 461-140-0210 and following.

(b) If, under any circumstances, payments could be made to or on behalf of the client, the share of the trust from which the payment could be made is considered a resource. A payment from the trust other than one to or for the benefit of the client is considered a transfer of assets that may be covered by OAR 461-140-0210.

(c) If, under any circumstances, income is generated by the trust and could be paid to the client, the income is unearned income. Payments made for any reason other than to or for the benefit of the client are considered a transfer of assets subject to disqualification per OAR 461-140-0210.

(d) If any change in circumstance makes assets (income or resources) from the trust unavailable to the client, the change is a disqualifying transfer as of the date of the change.

(9) Notwithstanding the provisions in sections (1) and (3) to (8) of this rule, the following trusts are not considered in determining eligibility for OSIPM and QMB:

(a) A trust containing the assets of a client determined to have a disability that meets the SSI criteria that was created before the client reached age 65, if the trust was established by one of the following and the state will receive all funds remaining in the trust upon the death of the client, up to the amount of medical benefits provided on behalf of the client:

(A) The client's parent.

(B) The client's grandparent.

(C) The client's legal guardian or conservator.

(D) A court.

(b) A trust established between October 1, 1993 and March 31, 1995 for the benefit of the client and containing only the current and accumulated income of the client. The accumulated amount remaining in the trust must be paid directly to the state upon the death of the client up to the amount of medical benefits provided on behalf of the client. The trust is the total income in excess of the income standard for OSIPM. The remaining income not deposited into the trust is available for the following deductions in the order they appear prior to applying the patient liability:

(A) Personal-needs allowance.

(B) Community spouse monthly maintenance needs allowance.

(C) Medicare and other private medical insurance premiums.

(D) Other incurred medical.

(c) A trust established on or after April 1, 1995 for the benefit of the client whose income is above 300 percent of the full SSI standard and containing the current and accumulated income of the client. The accumulated amount remaining in the trust must be paid directly to the state upon the death of the client up to the amount of medical assistance provided on behalf of the client. The trust contains all of the client's income. The income deposited into the trust is distributed monthly in the following order with excess amounts treated as income to the individual subject to the rules on transfer of assets in division 140 of this chapter of rules:

(A) Personal needs allowance and applicable room and board standard.

(B) Reasonable administrative costs of the trust, not to exceed a total of $50 per month, including the following:

(i) Trustee fees.

(ii) A reserve for administrative fees and costs of the trust, including bank service charges, copy charges, postage, accounting and tax preparation fees, future legal expenses, and income taxes attributable to trust income.

(iii) Conservatorship and guardianship fees and costs.

(C) Community spouse and family monthly maintenance needs allowance.

(D) Medicare and other private medical insurance premiums.

(E) Other incurred medical costs as allowed under OAR 461-160-0030 and 461-160-0055.

(F) Contributions to reserves or payments for child support, alimony, and income taxes.

(G) Monthly contributions to reserves or payments for the purchase of an irrevocable burial plan with a maximum value of $5,000.

(H) Contributions to a reserve or payments for home maintenance if the client meets the criteria of OAR 461-155-0660 or OAR 461-160-0630.

(I) Patient liability not to exceed the cost of home and community-based care (see OAR 461-001-0030) or nursing facility services.

(10) This section of the rule applies to a trust signed on or after July 1, 2006.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections (1) and (3) to (8) of this rule, a trust that meets the requirements of subsection (b) of this section is not considered in determining eligibility for OSIPM and QMB, except that if the client is age 65 or older when the trust is funded or a transfer is made to the trust, the transfer may constitute a disqualifying transfer of assets under OAR 461-140-0210 and following.

(b) This section of the rule applies to a trust that meets all of the following conditions:

(A) The trust is established and managed by a non-profit association.

(B) A separate account is maintained for each beneficiary of the trust, but, for purposes of investment and management of funds, the trust pools these accounts.

(C) The trust is established by the client, client's parent, grandparent, or legal guardian or a court for clients who have disabilities.

(D) Upon the death of the beneficiary or termination of the trust, the trust pays to the State an amount equal to the total medical assistance paid on behalf of the beneficiary under the State plan for Medicaid. The amount paid to the state may be reduced by administrative costs directly related to administering the sub-trust account of the beneficiary.

(E) The trust contains the resources or income of a client who has a disability that meets the SSI criteria.

(11) In the GA, GAM, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs, the provisions of this rule may be waived for an irrevocable trust if the Department determines that denial of benefits would create an undue hardship on the client if, among other things:

(a) The absence of the services requested may result in a life-threatening situation.

(b) The client was a victim of fraud or misrepresentation.

Workers Compensation

(1) For workers compensation payments received monthly or more frequently:

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, these payments are counted as unearned income.

(b) In the ERDC, REF, REFM, SNAP, and TANF programs, income from workers compensation is counted as earned income (see OAR 461-145-0130) if paid to a client who is still employed while recuperating from an illness or injury.

(2) All workers compensation payments other than those in section (1) are counted as periodic or lump sum income (see OAR 461-140-0110 and 461-140-0120).

Work-Related Capital Assets, Equipment, and Inventory

(1) As used in this rule:

(a) "Inventory" means goods that are in stock and available for sale to prospective customers.

(b) "Work-related equipment" means property essential to the employment or self-employment of a financial group member. Examples are a tradesman's tools, a farmer's machinery, and equipment used to maintain an income-producing vehicle.

(2) A capital asset (see OAR 461-001-0000), other than work-related equipment and inventory, is treated as follows:

(a) In all programs except REF, REFM, SNAP, and TANF, the equity value (see OAR 461-001-0000) of a capital asset is treated according to the rules for the asset.

(b) In the SNAP program, a capital asset used in a business is excluded as follows:

(A) Non-farm assets are excluded as long as the financial group (see OAR 461-110-0530) is actively engaged in self-employment activities.

(B) Farm assets are excluded until one year after the date the person quit self-employment as a farmer.

(c) In the REF, REFM, and TANF programs:

(A) For a self-employed client participating in the microenterprise component of the JOBS program, the value of a capital asset is excluded.

(B) For all other clients, the value of a capital asset is counted according to the rules in this division of rules.

(3) Work-related equipment is treated as follows:

(a) In the EA, ERDC, and SNAP programs, the equity value of work-related equipment is excluded.

(b) In the GA, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs, the value of equipment needed by a client who has a disability or is blind to complete a plan for self-support (see OAR 461-135-0708) is excluded as long as the plan is in effect. For all other equipment, the equity value of the equipment is counted as a resource, except as provided at OAR 461-145-0250.

(c) In the REF, REFM, and TANF programs:

(A) For a self-employed client participating in the microenterprise component of the JOBS program, the equity value of the equipment is excluded.

(B) For all other clients, the equity value of the equipment is treated as a resource.

(4) Inventory is treated as follows:

(a) In the EA, ERDC, and SNAP programs, inventory is excluded as long as the client is engaged in self-employment activities.

(b) In the GA, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs, the value of inventory needed by a client who has a disability or is blind to complete a plan for self-support is excluded, as long as the plan is in effect. For all other inventory, the equity value of the inventory is counted as a resource.

(c) In the REF, REFM, and TANF programs:

(A) For a self-employed client participating in the microenterprise component of the JOBS program, the wholesale value of inventory remaining at the end of the semi-annual period covered in each income statement (see OAR 461-190-0197), less encumbrances, is counted as a resource.

(B) For all other clients, the wholesale value of inventory remaining at the end of a month, less encumbrances, is counted as a resource.

Deemed Assets; Noncitizen's Sponsor

(1) An individual or organization may sponsor the admission of a noncitizen under section 204 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1154).

(2) An affidavit of support (USCIS Form I-864) is the agreement between the sponsor and the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services in which the sponsor agrees to provide financial support for the noncitizen so that the noncitizen will not become a public charge.

(3) In all programs except the ERDC, REF, and REFM programs, the countable assets of an individual sponsor and the spouse of the sponsor are considered countable assets of the noncitizen as provided in this section and OAR 461-145-0810 to 461-145-0860. The sponsor's assets are considered available to the noncitizen whether or not the sponsor lives in the same household as the noncitizen. The assets of the sponsor's spouse are considered available only when the spouse lives in the sponsor's household.

(4) OAR 461-145-0830 sets out situations in which the assets of the sponsor and the spouse of the sponsor are not counted, as well as how the income deemed available to the noncitizen is calculated.

(5) The value of the resources deemed available to each noncitizen is determined as follows:

(a) In all programs except the OSIPM and SNAP programs, the total value of the countable resources is deemed to each sponsored noncitizen according to the rules of the program for which the noncitizen applies.

(b) In the OSIPM program, an amount equal to the OSIPM (not OSIPM-EPD) program resource standard is deducted from the total amount of resources deemed to the noncitizen (see OAR 461-160-0015). If the sponsor lives with a spouse, the two-person standard is deducted.

(c) In the SNAP program only, $1,500 is deducted from the value. The remaining value is divided by the number of noncitizens sponsored by the individual or couple. The result is the value of the resources deemed available to the noncitizen.

When to Deem the Assets of a Sponsor of a Noncitizen

(1) In the ERDC, REF, and REFM programs, the assets of a sponsor and of a sponsor's spouse are not deemed to the sponsored noncitizen.

(2) In all programs except the ERDC, REF, and REFM programs, the assets of a sponsor and the spouse of the sponsor are considered the assets of the sponsored noncitizen unless at least one of the following subsections applies:

(a) The sponsor has not signed a legally binding affidavit of support, for instance USCIS Form I-864 or I-864A;

(b) The sponsor receives SNAP, SSI, or TANF benefits;

(c) The sponsor is deceased. The estate of a deceased sponsor is not responsible for the noncitizen;

(d) The sponsored noncitizen establishes indigence. A sponsored noncitizen establishes indigence if the total income of the household including in-kind income plus any cash, food, housing, or other assistance provided by other individuals including the sponsor is:

(A) In the TANF program, under the countable (see OAR 461-001-0000) income standard.

(B) In the SNAP program, under 130 percent of the federal poverty level.

(C) In all programs except the SNAP and TANF programs, not enough for the noncitizen to obtain food and shelter without program benefits.

(i) If the noncitizen is living with the sponsor, the indigence exception may not apply and deeming does apply.

(ii) If the noncitizen is living apart from the sponsor, the indigence exception applies if the noncitizen meets all of the following requirements:

(I) The total income (of all kinds and from all sources, even excluded income) the noncitizen receives is less than the OSIPM standard for a one-person need group;

(II) The noncitizen does not receive free room and board; and

(III) The resources (even excluded resources) available to the noncitizen are under the applicable resource limit.

(D) Each indigence determination under this subsection is effective for 12 months and may be renewed for additional 12-month periods.

(e) The sponsored noncitizen is a battered immigrant spouse, battered immigrant child, immigrant parent of a battered child or an immigrant child of a battered parent, as long as the battered noncitizen does not live in the same household as the person responsible for the battery;

(f) The sponsored noncitizen does not meet the alien status requirement for the program for which he or she applies;

(g) The sponsored noncitizen becomes a naturalized citizen;

(h) The sponsored noncitizen can be credited with 40 qualifying quarters of work; or

(i) The sponsored noncitizen is under 18 years of age.

(3) In the OSIPM program, the deeming period is three years after the date of admission, which is the date the U.S. Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services establishes as the date the noncitizen was admitted for permanent residence. Deeming ends on the last day of the month that is three years after the date of admission.

(4) In all programs except the ERDC, OSIPM, REF, REFM, and SNAP programs, the following process is used to determine the amount of income considered available to the noncitizen from the noncitizen's sponsor and the spouse of the sponsor. The unearned income of the sponsor and the sponsor's spouse is added to their countable earned income (see OAR 461-140-0010) minus earned income deductions.

(5) In the OSIPM program:

(a) The income of the sponsor or the sponsor's spouse is not counted if any one of the following provisions applies:

(A) The individual is a refugee admitted to the United States under section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) (8 USC 1157);

(B) The individual has been granted asylum under section 208 of the INA (8 USC 1158); or

(C) The individual has become blind or disabled after admission to the United States.

(b) An amount equal to the OSIPM (not OSIPM-EPD) program income standard is deducted from the total amount of income deemed to the noncitizen (see OAR 461-160-0015). If the sponsor lives with a spouse, the two-person standard is deducted.

(6) In the SNAP program, each sponsored noncitizen is considered to have the income calculated according to section (4) of this rule divided by the number of the sponsor's --

(a) Current sponsored noncitizens;

(b) Household members who receive support from the sponsor; and

(c) Dependents.

Deemed Assets, Parent of Minor Parent; TANF

In the TANF program, the assets of the parents of a minor parent are deemed as follows if they are living together and the minor parent is under age 18, has never married, and is not legally emancipated.

(1) The resources of the parents of the minor parent are excluded.

(2) The income of the parents is deemed to the minor parent when the minor parent and the minor's children live with the minor's parents.

(3) The income of the parents of a pregnant minor is deemed to the minor when the minor lives with the parents.

(4) Deemed income is considered available to the minor parent and the parent's dependent child, or to the pregnant minor, even if it is not received.

(5) The amount of the deemed income of the parents is determined as follows:

(a) A $90 earned income deduction is allowed.

(b) The needs of the parents and the parents' dependents, living in the same household and not included in the benefit group, are deducted at the TANF Payment Standard.

(c) Amounts paid to legal dependents not living in the household are deducted.

(d) Payments of alimony or child support are deducted.

(e) Any remaining income is countable deemed income.

Self-Employment; General

(1) Self-employment income is income resulting from one's own business, trade, or profession, rather than from a salary or wage paid by an employer. A client is considered self-employed if he or she meets the criteria in sections (2) or (3) of this rule. Except as noted in section (3) of this rule, for all programs except SNAP, when a client has established a corporation, determine if the client is self-employed according to section (2) of this rule. If a client has more than one self-employment business, trade, or profession, the income from each is determined separately.

(2) Except as provided in OAR 461-145-0250(1), an individual is self-employed for the purposes of this division of rules if he or she:

(a) Is considered an independent contractor by the business that employs him or her; or

(b) Meets at least four of the following criteria:

(A) Is engaged in an enterprise for the purpose of producing income.

(B) Is responsible for obtaining or providing a service or product by retaining control over the means and manner of providing the work or services offered.

(C) Has principal responsibility for the success or failure of the business operation by assuming the necessary business expenses and profit or loss risks connected with the operation of the business, and has the authority to hire and fire employees to perform the labor or services.

(D) Is not required to complete an IRS W-4 form for an employer and is not required to have federal income tax or FICA payments withheld from a pay check.

(E) Is not covered under an employer's liability or workers' compensation insurance policy.

(3) Notwithstanding section (2) of this rule:

(a) Homecare Workers (see OAR 411-031-0020) paid by the Department are not self-employed.

(b) Child care providers (see OAR 461-165-0180) paid by the Department, adult foster home providers (see OAR 411-050-0400) paid by the Department, realty agents, and individuals who sell plasma, redeem beverage containers, pick mushrooms for sale, or engage in similar enterprises are considered to be self-employed.

(4) In the ERDC, REF, SNAP, and TANF programs, self-employment income, including income from a microenterprise, is counted prospectively to determine eligibility as follows:

(a) Self-employment income is annualized when it is:

(A) Received during less than a 12-month period but is intended as a full year's income.

(B) From a business that has operated for a full year and the previous year is representative of what the income and costs will be during the budget month.

(b) Self-employment income is treated as anticipated income when a financial group begins self-employment and is unable to determine what the income and costs will be during the budget month.

(5) In the GA, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs, self-employment income is considered available upon receipt by a member of the financial group, except it is prorated over the period of work if the duration of the work exceeds one month.

(6) When determining the amount of countable self-employment income, use gross receipts and sales, including mileage reimbursements, before costs.

Self-Employment; Costs That Are Excluded To Determine Countable Income

(1) This rule explains how to determine which costs are excluded from gross self-employment income.

(2) Unless prohibited by section (3) of this rule, and subject to the provisions of sections (4) and (5) of this rule and OAR 461-145-0930, the necessary costs of producing self-employment income are excluded from gross sales and receipts, including but not limited to:

(a) Labor (wages paid to an employee or work contracted out).

(b) Materials used to make a product.

(c) In the SNAP program — principal and interest paid to purchase income-producing property, such as real property, equipment or capital assets. In all other programs, interest paid to purchase income-producing property, such as equipment or capital assets.

(d) Insurance premiums, taxes, assessments, and utilities paid on income-producing property.

(e) Service, repair, and rental of business equipment (including motor vehicles) and property that is owned, leased or rented.

(f) Advertisement and business supplies.

(g) Licenses, permits, legal, or professional fees.

(h) Transportation costs at 20 cents per mile, if the cost is part of the business expense. Commuting expenses to and from the worksite are not part of the business expense.

(i) Charges for telephone service that are a necessary cost for self-employment.

(j) Meals and snacks provided by family day care providers for children in their care (except the provider's own children). The actual cost of the meals is used if the provider can document the cost. If the provider cannot document the actual cost, the USDA meal reimbursement rates are used.

(k) Materials purchased for resale, such as cosmetic products.

(l) For newspaper carriers, the cost of newspapers, bags, and rubber bands.

(3) The following costs are not excluded from gross sales and receipts:

(a) Business losses from previous months.

(b) Except in the SNAP program, payments on the principal of the purchase price of income-producing real estate and capital assets, equipment, machinery, and other durable goods.

(c) Federal, state and local income taxes, draws or salaries paid to any financial group member, money set aside for personal retirement, and other work-related personal expenses (such as transportation, personal business, and entertainment expenses).

(d) Depreciation. Depreciation is a prorated lessening of value assigned to a capital asset based on its useful life expectancy and initial cost.

(e) Costs related to traveling to another area to seek business when there is no reasonable possibility of deriving income from the trip.

(f) Interest or fees on personal credit cards.

(g) Personal telephone charges.

(h) Shelter or utility costs associated with the client's home, except as authorized by section (4) of this rule.

(4) The exclusions for items used for both business and personal purposes, such as automobiles and a residence (including utilities), are limited by the following subsections:

(a) In the ERDC, GA, GAM, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs, the portion of the expense that is for business use only is excluded.

(b) In the SNAP program, costs are excluded for a separate office or shop located on the property used as a home, if the costs are billed separately from the residence. Costs for other items used for both business and personal use are excluded.

(5) If no member of the financial group has been self-employed for a sufficiently long period to ascertain the costs of self-employment, the costs may be estimated.

(6) For a client participating in the microenterprise component of the JOBS program, costs are excluded according to this rule and general accounting principles, as applied by a certified public accountant, bookkeeping firm, or other entity approved by the Department.

Self-Employment; Determination of Countable Income

(1) The Department initially determines gross sales and receipts minus any returns and allowances (before excluding or deducting any costs). This rule explains how different programs exclude and deduct costs from self-employment gross sales and receipts.

(2) In the ERDC program, if a client claims an excludable cost permitted under OAR 461-145-0920, at least 50 percent of gross self-employment income is excluded. The maximum exclusion is the total excludable cost under OAR 461-145-0920.

(3) In the GA, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs, all costs permitted under OAR 461-145-0920 are excluded.

(4) In the TANF program:

(a) For a client participating in the microenterprise component of the JOBS program, costs are excluded according to OAR 461-145-0920 and general accounting principles, as applied by a certified public accountant, bookkeeping firm, or other entity approved by the Department.

(b) For all other clients, no costs are subtracted (excluded).

(5) In the REF program, no costs are excluded.

(6) In the SNAP program, if there are any costs permitted under OAR 461-145-0920, there is a deduction of 50 percent of gross self-employment income.

Prospective Eligibility and Budgeting

For prospective eligibility (see OAR 461-001-0000) and budgeting (see OAR 461-001-0000):

(1) The budget month (see OAR 461-001-0000) and payment month (see OAR 461-001-0000) are the same.

(2) The client's anticipated income, household composition, and other relevant factors are used to determine the client's eligibility and benefit level. The client and Department jointly anticipate the client's income based on the income already received and the income the client expects to receive.

(3) Prospective budgeting is used for annualized income and prorated educational income.

(4) When prospective budgeting is used and the actual income differs from the amount determined under section (2) of this rule:

(a) If the anticipated income exceeds the actual income, a client is not entitled to a benefit supplement.

(b) If the actual income exceeds the anticipated income, there may be a client-error overpayment under OAR 461-195-0521.

Prospective Budgeting of Stable Income

(1) Stable income (see OAR 461-001-0000) in prospective budgeting (see OAR 461-001-0000) and eligibility (see OAR 461-001-0000) is treated so that the monthly amount is used to anticipate the income of the financial group (see OAR 461-110-0530). The amount of stable income for each month is determined as follows:

(a) If paid once per month, that amount is used.

(b) If paid twice per month or semi-monthly, that amount is converted to a monthly amount by multiplying it by two.

(c) If paid once every other week or biweekly, that amount is converted to a monthly amount by multiplying it by 2.15.

(d) If paid once per week, that amount is converted to a monthly amount by multiplying it by 4.3.

(2) In the SNAP program, stable income the client expects to receive less often than monthly is treated as periodic income (see OAR 461-001-0000) under OAR 461-140-0110.

Prospective Budgeting of Variable Income; Not OHP; Not MRS

Variable income (see OAR 461-001-0000) is used as follows in prospective budgeting (see OAR 461-001-0000) and eligibility (see OAR 461-001-0000) so that the anticipated amount is the same for each month, except as specified in OAR 461-150-0060 and section (6) of this rule:

(1) For income paid more than once per month, determine an average amount per pay period in accordance with sections (2) to (4) of this rule. The average amount is then converted to a monthly amount as follows, if paid:

(a) Twice per month, multiply by 2;

(b) Every other week, multiply by 2.15; or

(c) Once per week, multiply by 4.3.

(2) For variable earned income based on an hourly wage when the past is representative, monthly income is determined by calculating an average number of hours per pay period, then these hours are multiplied by the hourly wage and converted to a monthly amount under section (1) of this rule.

(3) For variable earned income involving various rates of pay (overtime, shift differential, tips) when the past is representative, monthly income is determined by calculating the average income per pay period, then the average income is converted to a monthly amount under section (1) of this rule.

(4) For variable earned or unearned income when the past is representative and income cannot be calculated under section (2) or (3) of this rule, monthly income is determined by averaging the income over:

(a) A representative period of months by totaling the income for those months and dividing by the number of months used; or

(b) A representative number of pay periods and converting to a monthly amount under section (1) of this rule.

(5) For variable earned and unearned income when the past is not representative of the income the financial group (see OAR 461-110-0530) will receive during the eligibility period, the client and the Department jointly determine the anticipated income.

(6) In the SNAP program, a financial group meeting the definition of "destitute household" in OAR 461-135-0575 is not eligible to use the income averaging option for the initial month (see OAR 461-001-0000) of eligibility or the first month of a new certification period. For a destitute financial group, income for the initial month of eligibility and the first month of a certification period is determined under OAR 461-150-0100, thereafter, the financial group is subject to sections (2) to (5) of this rule.

Prospective Budgeting: Annualizing and Prorating Contracted or Self-employment Income

In all programs except the REFM program:

(1) Income from self-employment, including contract income while self-employed, is treated in accordance with OAR 461-145-0910 unless the income meets the provisions of section (2) of this rule.

(2) If past contract income is not representative of future income or when a substantial increase or decrease is expected in countable (see OAR 461-001-0000) self-employment income (see OAR 461-145-0910) in the next year, costs as allowed under OAR 461-145-0930 and anticipated income are used to determine the countable income.

(3) In the ERDC, REF, SNAP, and TANF programs, contract income that does not meet the criteria of self-employment income (see OAR 461-145-0910) is treated as follows:

(a) Income received during a less than 12-month period but intended as a full year's income is annualized.

(b) Income received on an hourly or piecework basis or monthly over the term of the contract period is not annualized. It is treated as stable income (see OAR 461-001-0000) under 461-150-0070 or variable income (see OAR 461-001-0000) under OAR 461-150-0080.

(4) Contract income that is not the annual income of the financial group and not paid on an hourly or piecework basis is prorated over the period the income is intended to cover.

Income and Payment Standards; MAA, MAF, REF, SAC, TANF

In the JOBS, REF, and TANF programs, the income standards are as follows:

(1) The Countable Income Limit Standard is the amount set as the maximum countable income limit.

(a) For each need group (see OAR 461-110-0630) in the REF and TANF programs containing an adult, the following table is used: [Table not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(b) In the TANF program, a caretaker relative (see OAR 461-001-0000) other than a parent (see OAR 461-001-0000) who chooses not to be included in the need group is subject to the "no-adult countable income limit standard" for the need group under subsection (c) of this section. The "non-needy countable income limit standard" for the filing group (see OAR 461-110-0330) is set at 185 percent of the federal poverty level (see OAR 461-155-0180).

(c) In the REF and TANF programs, when the need group contains no adults, the "no adult countable income limit standard" is calculated as follows:

(A) Refer to the Countable Income Limit Standard for need groups with adults. Use the standard for the number of individuals in the household group (see OAR 461-110-0210).

(B) Divide the standard in paragraph (A) of this subsection by the number of individuals in the household group. Round this figure down to the next lower whole number if the figure is not a whole number.

(C) Multiply the figure from paragraph (B) of this subsection by the number of individuals in the need group. The result is the standard.

(d) In the JOBS program, for the filing group of a non-custodial parent who resides in Oregon and whose dependent child (see OAR 461-001-0000) is receiving TANF program benefits in Oregon to participate in an activity (see OAR 461-001-0025) of the JOBS program, the countable (see OAR 461-001-0000) income limit is set at 185 percent of the federal poverty level (see OAR 461-155-0180).

(2) The Adjusted Income/Payment Standard is used as the adjusted income limit and to calculate cash benefits for need groups with an adult.

(a) For need groups containing an adult in the REF and TANF programs, except as provided otherwise in subsection (b) of this section, the following table is used: [Table not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(b) To calculate cash benefits for a need group with an adult in the REF and TANF programs, the following table is used: [Table not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(c) In the REF and TANF programs, when the need group contains no adult, the No-Adult Adjusted Income/Payment Standard is calculated as follows:

(A) Refer to the Adjusted Income/Payment Standard for need groups with adults. Use the standard for the number of individuals in the household group.

(B) Divide the standard in paragraph (A) of this subsection by the number of individuals in the household group. Round this figure down to the next lower whole number if the figure is not a whole number.

(C) Multiply the figure from paragraph (B) of this subsection by the number of individuals in the need group.

(D) Add $12 to the figure calculated in paragraph (C) of this subsection.

Special Need; Special Diet Allowance

(1) In the GA, GAM, OSIP, OSIPM, REF, REFM, SFPSS, and TANF programs, a client is not eligible for a special diet allowance if receiving any of the following:

(a) Room and board.

(b) Residential care facility services or assisted living facility services.

(c) Nursing facility services.

(d) Adult foster care services.

(e) An allowance for restaurant meals.

(f) A commercial food preparation diet.

(2) A GA, GAM, REF, REFM, SFPSS, or TANF client, or an OSIP or OSIPM client receiving SSI, having an adjusted income less than the OSIPM program income standard under OAR 461-155-0250, or receiving in-home services is eligible for a special diet allowance if the client meets the following requirements:

(a) The client would be in an imminent life-threatening situation without the diet, as verified by medical documentation from a Department-approved medical authority (see OAR 461-125-0830); and

(b) A nutritionist verifies that the special diet needed exceeds the cost of a regular diet.

(3) The amount of a special diet allowance is calculated as follows:

(a) In the REF, REFM, SFPSS, and TANF programs, the difference between the actual cost of the special diet and a prorated share of the SNAP program benefit for the appropriate number of clients in the benefit group (see OAR 461-110-0750).

(b) In the GA, GAM, OSIP, and OSIPM programs, the lesser of the following:

(A) The difference between the actual cost of the special diet and the amount provided in the basic standard for food (see OAR 461-155-0250).

(B) A maximum of $300 per month, or an exceptional amount, authorized by the SPD Program Assistance Section, which will not exceed the cost of home IV therapy.

(4) Local management staff must approve the request for a special diet allowance.

(5) Each special diet allowance must be reviewed at six-month intervals.

Dependent Care Costs; Deduction and Coverage

(1) In the SNAP program, dependent care is deductible (see OAR 461-160-0430) when all of the following are true:

(a) The dependent is a member of the filing group and is in the care, control, and custody of an individual in the group.

(b) The dependent care provider:

(A) Is not in the filing group; and

(B) Is not the parent of the dependent.

(c) The dependent care is necessary because the client is working, commuting, on a meal break, in training, participating in pre-employment education, or participating in an OFSET case plan (see OAR 461-001-0020).

(2) In the ERDC, REF, and TANF programs, the cost of dependent child care may be paid for by the Department (is covered) only if dependent child care is necessary for the working client to perform his or her job duties. For a client working under a JOBS Plus agreement, child care is covered during the time the client is engaged in work or in job search if the employer pays the client during that time.

(3) In the ERDC, JOBS, REF, and TANF programs, the cost of dependent child care is not covered by the Department when free care is available, such as during school hours for school-age children.

(4) Child care is not covered in the ERDC, REF, and TANF programs if the nature of the work of the caretaker does not make it necessary for a person other than the caretaker (see OAR 461-001-0000) to provide the care. Child care is not covered during a period of time when the caretaker:

(a) Works at home and the nature of the work allows the caretaker to provide the care without significantly affecting the work;

(b) Provides child care in a residence; or

(c) Works for a provider of child care in a residence that is not certified under OAR 414-350-0000 to 414-350-0400.

(5) In the ERDC program:

(a) Child care is not covered during a period of time when the caretaker is self-employed (see OAR 461-145-0910).

(b) The cost of dependent child care may continue to be paid for, at the same benefit level, by the Department (is covered) for job search, through the end of the month following the month in which a loss of all employment for an adult in the filing group occurred if both of the following paragraphs apply.

(A) The loss of employment is reported in a timely manner.

(B) None of the following sub-paragraphs apply:

(i) The loss of employment included self-employment.

(ii) The adult was discharged or fired without good cause (see OAR 461-135-0070(3)) for misconduct, felony, or theft. "Misconduct" means willful or wantonly negligent violation of the standards of behavior which an employer has the right to expect of an employee, including an act or series of actions that amount to a willful or wantonly negligent disregard of an employer's interest.

(iii) The adult voluntarily quit in anticipation of discharge or without good cause (see OAR 461-135-0070(3)).

(6) In the JOBS and REF programs, the cost of child care may be covered while the care is necessary to enable the client to participate in a case plan (see OAR 461-190-0211).

(7) In the ERDC, JOBS, JOBS Plus, REF, and TANF programs, the cost of dependent child care may be paid for (is covered) by the Department, only if all the following are true:

(a) The dependent child:

(A) In the ERDC program, is a member of the benefit group (see OAR 461-110-0750) and is in the care, control, and custody of an individual in the group.

(B) In the JOBS, JOBS Plus, REF, and TANF programs, lives with the filing group.

(b) The provider of child care is not in the filing group.

(c) The provider of child care is not the parent of the dependent.

(8) Coverage of the cost of dependent care is subject to the requirements in Chapter 461 of the Oregon Administrative Rules, including OAR 461-120-0510(3), 461-135-0400, 461-155-0150, 461-160-0193, 461-165-0180, and 461-190-0211.

Use of Rounding in Calculating Benefit Amount

(1) In the REF and TANF programs, a benefit amount not a whole number of dollars is rounded down to the next lower whole dollar.

(2) In the ERDC program, total countable income is rounded down to the next lower whole dollar. The benefit figures are not rounded.

(3) In the GA, GAM, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs, rounding is not used.

(4) In the SNAP program:

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, when income and deductions are calculated, a figure ending with less than 50 cents is rounded to the next lower dollar and a figure ending with 50 cents or more is rounded to the next higher dollar.

(b) After multiplying the adjusted income by 30 percent, any amount from 1 to 99 cents is rounded up to the next higher dollar.

How Income Affects Eligibility and Benefits; REF, SFPSS, TANF

(1) Countable income (see OAR 461-001-0000) and adjusted income (see OAR 461-001-0000) are used to determine eligibility for the REF, SFPSS, and TANF programs using the countable and adjusted income standards in OAR 461-155-0030 as explained in this section:

(a) The financial group's countable income is compared to the countable income limit standard for the need group. If countable income equals or exceeds the standard, the benefit group is not eligible.

(b) If countable income is less than the countable income standard, the adjusted income is compared to the payment standard. If the adjusted income equals or exceeds the payment standard for the need group (see OAR 461-110-0630), the benefit group (see OAR 461-110-0750) is not eligible. If the adjusted income is less than the payment standard for the need group, the benefit group meets the income eligibility standard.

(2) Adjusted income is used to determine the monthly benefit in the REF, SFPSS, and TANF (except for a client who receives JOBS Plus income — see OAR 461-145-0130) programs as explained in this section:

(a) The monthly benefit is calculated by subtracting adjusted income from the applicable payment standard for the need group. The remainder is the benefit amount except for a need group that includes an ineligible non-citizen.

(b) If the need group contains an ineligible non-citizen, the benefit is the lesser of the remainder calculated in subsection (a) of this section and the payment standard for the benefit group.

Earned Income Deduction; REF, TANF

(1) In the REF program, the earned income deduction authorized in this division of rules is allowed for each person in the financial group who has earned income. The earned income deduction is 50 percent of the client's gross earned income including self-employment income.

(2) In the TANF program:

(a) For a self-employed client participating in the microenterprise component of the JOBS program, the earned income deduction for income earned in the microenterprise is 50 percent of the client's countable income calculated pursuant to OAR 461-145-0920 and 461-145-0930.

(b) For all other income, the earned income deduction is 50 percent of the client's gross earned income, including self-employment income.

Deduction for Maintaining a Home; Long-Term Care Client

In the OSIP and OSIPM programs, a single client in long term care is eligible for a home maintenance deduction for up to six months if:

(1) A physician has documented that the client is likely to return home within six months;

(2) The amount of the deduction is reasonable in relation to the applicable OSIP shelter standard; and

(3) The Department determines that maintaining the home is an essential part of a plan for the client's relocation to a less restrictive living situation.

Concurrent and Duplicate Program Benefits

(1) An individual may not receive benefits from the Department of the same type (that is, cash, medical, or SNAP benefits) for the same period as a member of two or more different benefit groups (see OAR 461-110-0750) or from two or more separate programs, except as noted in this rule. This provision includes a prohibition against an individual receiving TANF concurrently with another cash assistance program funded under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act.

(a) A client may receive EA, HSP, and TA-DVS benefits and cash payments from other programs for the same time period.

(b) If a GA client becomes eligible for the TANF program, the client's benefits are supplemented during the first month of eligibility for TANF to the TANF payment standards.

(c) An REF or TANF recipient may receive ERDC for a child (see OAR 461-001-0000) in the household group (see OAR 461-110-0210), but who may not be included in the REF or TANF filing group.

(d) A child who is a member of an ERDC benefit group may also be a member of one of the following benefit groups:

(A) An OSIP-AB benefit group.

(B) A TANF benefit group when living with a nonneedy caretaker relative (see OAR 461-001-0000), if the caretaker relative is not the child's parent.

(C) A TANF benefit group when living with a needy caretaker relative receiving SSI.

(e) A client in the SNAP program who leaves a filing group (see OAR 461-110-0370) that includes an individual who abused them and enters a domestic violence shelter (see OAR 461-001-0000) or safe home (see OAR 461-001-0000) for victims of domestic violence (see OAR 461-001-0000) may receive SNAP benefits twice during the month the client enters the domestic violence shelter or safe home.

Benefits for a Client in an Acute Care Hospital

(1) In the REF, REFM, and TANF programs, regular monthly benefits continue when a client enters an acute care hospital. The monthly benefits remain unchanged until the client returns home or enters some other living arrangement. An authorized representative designated by the client or the branch may be used if necessary.

(2) In the ERDC, GA, GAM, OSIP, OSIPM, and QMB programs, regular monthly benefits continue if a client will be in the acute care hospital for less than 30 days. If the client will be in the acute care hospital for 30 days or more or until death, the client's needs are determined as if the client were in a nursing facility.

(3) In the SNAP program, regular monthly benefits continue if the client will be in his or her own home 50 percent of the time or more. If the client will be in an institution for more than 50 percent of a calendar month, the client is not eligible for SNAP benefits.

Acting on Reported Changes; OSIPM, QMB

(1) When an OSIPM or QMB client, who is required by this division of rules to report a change in circumstances, makes a timely report of a change that could reduce or end medical benefits, prior to reducing or ending medical benefits:

(a) The Department must review each individual in the filing group for eligibility for the other medical programs listed in this rule; and

(b) The Oregon Health Authority, Cover Oregon, or the Department must review the individual for Medicaid eligibility under MAGI rules (OAR 410-200).

(2) If the Department needs additional information to act on the timely reported change, members of the benefit group (see OAR 461-110-0750) remain eligible from the date the change was reported until the Department determines their eligibility in accordance with the application processing time frames in OAR 461-115-0190.

Notice Situations; General Information

(1) In the EA program, a basic decision notice (see OAR 461-001-0000) is sent for all situations.

(2) In the SNAP program, a basic decision notice is sent for all actions on applications for assistance.

(3) In the JOBS program:

(a) A basic decision notice is sent whenever a request for a support service payment is denied.

(b) No decision notice is required if request for a support service is approved.

(4) In the TANF program, a notice approving benefits informs the client, within one month following eligibility determination, of the opportunity to volunteer for JOBS participation and of the procedure for JOBS program entry.

(5) In the Pre-TANF program, a basic decision notice is sent when payment for basic living expenses is denied or when payment for other support services in the JOBS program is denied. No other notices are required for this program.

(6) In the TA-DVS program, a basic decision notice (see OAR 461-001-0000) is sent to a safe mailing address or hand delivered for all situations. This includes when the program is approved, denied, or closed (prior to the end of the 90 day eligibility period) and when a payment under the program is denied.

(7) In all programs except the Pre-TANF program, unless stated differently in this rule or another rule, the Department mails or otherwise provides the client with (sends) a decision notice (see OAR 461-001-0000) as follows:

(a) A basic decision notice is sent whenever an application for assistance, including retroactive medical assistance, is approved or denied or a request for a support service payment in the JOBS program is denied.

(b) A timely continuing benefit decision notice (see OAR 461-001-0000) is sent whenever benefits or support service payments authorized by OAR 461-190-0211 are reduced or closed, or the method of payment changes to protective, vendor, or two-party.

(c) A decision notice is sent whenever the Department adjusts previously underissued cash assistance or SNAP benefits.

(8) In all programs:

(a) Notwithstanding any rule in Chapter 461, to the extent permitted by OAR 137-003-0530, the Department may take any of the following actions:

(A) Amend a decision notice with another decision notice or a contested case notice.

(B) Amend a contested case notice.

(C) Delay a reduction or closure of benefits as a result of a client's request for hearing.

(D) Extend the effective date on a decision notice or contested case notice.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (a) of this section or when a delay results from the client's request for a hearing, a notice to reduce or close benefits becomes void if the reduction or closure is not initiated on the date stated on the notice. If the notice is void, a new notice is sent to inform the financial group (see OAR 461-110-0530) of a new date on which their benefits will be reduced or closed.

(c) No decision notice is required in each of the following situations:

(A) Benefits are ended because there is no living person in the benefit group (see OAR 461-110-0750).

(B) A notice was sent, the client requested a hearing, and either the hearing request is dismissed or a final order is issued.

(C) The client has signed a voluntary agreement that qualifies as a final order under ORS 183.417(3)(b) (see OAR 461-175-0340(2)).

(D) A decision notice that included the eligibility begin and end dates was given for TA-DVS program benefits and the 90 day eligibility period ends.

(d) When the Department amends a decision notice with another decision notice under subsection (a) of this section, the date of the amended notice restarts the client's deadlines to request a hearing or continuing benefits, or both.

(e) When a contested case notice extends an effective date or delays a reduction or closure, the date of the amended notice restarts a client's timeline to request continuing benefits.

(f) When a client has a pending hearing request or is receiving continuing benefits, and the Department amends a notice under this section, the client need not re-file the hearing request or renew the request for continuing benefits.

includes the amount of income used to determine the benefits or ineligibility.

(2) For all changes not reported on the Interim Change Report form, which result in a closure or reduction in benefits, the Department sends a timely continuing benefit decision notice.

(3) When the Department changes the reporting system from one reporting system to another reporting system, the Department provides a continuing benefit decision notice if the change occurs at a time other than at the start of a certification period (see OAR 461-001-0000).

Notice Situation; Removing an Individual From a Benefit Group (REF, REFM, SNAP, TANF) or Need Group (ERDC)

(1) To remove an individual from a benefit group (see OAR 461-110-0750), the following notices are used:

(a) A continuing benefit decision notice (see OAR 461-001-0000) is used when the removal is based on information reported on the Interim Change Report form.

(b) A timely continuing benefit decision notice (see OAR 461-001-0000) is used when the removal is not based on the Interim Change Report form.

(2) In the ERDC program, the Department sends a timely continuing benefit decision notice to remove an individual from the need group (see OAR 461-110-0630).

(3) In the REF, REFM, and TANF programs, if a child is removed from the benefit group as a result of a court order or a voluntary placement in foster care by the child's caretaker relative (see OAR 461-001-0000), a basic decision notice (see OAR 461-001-0000) is used.

Effective Dates; Changes in Income or Income Deductions That Cause Increases

For all programs in Chapter 461, except the ERDC program, this rule is used to determine the effective date when a change in income or income deductions causes an increase in benefits. For all changes, the effective date is one of the following:

(1) In the GA, SFPSS, and TANF programs, the effective date for an anticipated change reported before the payment month is the first of the payment month in which it will occur. If the change is not reported until the month it occurs or later, the effective date is the first of the month following the month in which the change was reported.

(2) In the SNAP program:

(a) The effective date when verification is not requested is the first of the month following the date the change was reported.

(b) The effective date if verification is requested is:

(A) The first of the month following the date the change was reported if verification is received no later than the due date for the verification.

(B) The first of the month following the date the verification is received by the Department, if received after the verification due date.

(3) In the OSIP program, the effective date for an anticipated change is:

(a) The first of the month in which the change occurs if the change is reported by the 10th day of the month following the month the change occurred; or

(b) 10 days before the change is reported, if it is reported after the 10th day of the month following the month the change occurred.

Effective Dates; Suspending or Closing Benefits and JOBS Support Service Payments

(1) This rule explains the effective date for closing or suspending benefits for the entire benefit group (see OAR 461-110-0750) and the effective date for ending JOBS support service payments.

(2) In all programs except the ERDC program, when the only individual in a benefit group dies, the effective date of the closure is:

(a) In the REF, SNAP, and TANF programs, the last day of the month in which the death occurred.

(b) In all other programs, the date of the death.

(3) For all closures and suspensions not covered by section (2) of this rule, the effective date is determined as follows:

(a) When prospective eligibility is used, the effective date for closing or suspending benefits is the last day of the month in which the notice period ends.

(b) When retrospective eligibility or budgeting is used, the effective date for closing or suspending benefits is the last day of the budget month.

(c) When an absent parent enters an ongoing TANF program household, or another change occurs that ends eligibility based on the incapacity or unemployment of a parent, the effective date for closing benefits is the last day of the month in which the 45-day period described in OAR 461-125-0255 ends.

(d) For a pregnant female receiving benefits of the OSIPM program, the effective date for closing benefits is no earlier than the last day of the calendar month in which the 60th day after the last day of pregnancy falls, except at the client's request.

(e) For a client who is receiving medical assistance and becomes incarcerated with an expected stay of a year or less, the effective date for suspending medical benefits is the effective date on the decision notice (see OAR 461-001-0000).

(f) The effective date for ending support service payments authorized under OAR 461-190-0211 is the earlier of the following:

(A) The date the related JOBS activity is scheduled to end.

(B) The date the client no longer meets the requirements of OAR 461-190-0211.

Effective Dates; Ending Disqualifications

(1) The effective date for ending a JOBS disqualification or a disqualification related to diagnosis, counseling, or treatment for substance abuse or mental health is:

(a) The date the client meets the requirements for ending the JOBS disqualification (see OAR 461-130-0335); or

(b) The date the client meets the requirements for ending the disqualification for failure to comply with OAR 461-135-0085(1) (see OAR 461-135-0089).

(2) In the GAM and OSIPM programs, the effective date for ending the disqualification for failing to enroll in cost-effective, employer-sponsored health insurance is the date the client provides verification of enrollment during the open enrollment period.

(3) In the SNAP program, the effective date for ending an employment program disqualification is the date the client fulfills the requirements to end the disqualification or the first of the month following the minimum disqualification period, whichever occurs later (see OAR 461-180-0010 regarding the effective date for adding a person to an open case).

(4) For an IPV disqualification, the disqualification ends the day after the minimum disqualification period ends, if there is no additional IPV disqualification to be served and all eligibility requirements are met.

(5) For all other disqualifications in the TANF program, the disqualification ends whenever the client agrees to cooperate.

(6) For other disqualifications in the SNAP program, the disqualification ends at the end of the disqualification period.

Effective Dates; Redeterminations of OSIPM and QMB

In the OSIPM and QMB programs, when the Department initiates a redetermination of eligibility:

(1) Prior to reducing or ending medical benefits:

(a) The Department must review each individual in the filing group (see OAR 461-110-0410) for eligibility for the other medical programs listed in this rule; and

(b) The Oregon Health Authority, Cover Oregon, or the Department must review the individual for Medicaid eligibility under MAGI rules (OAR 410-200).

(2) If additional information is needed to redetermine eligibility, members of the benefit group (see OAR 461-110-0750) who may be eligible for the other programs listed in this rule remain eligible from the date the review is initiated until the Department, Cover Oregon, or the Oregon Health Authority determines their eligibility in accordance with the application processing time frames in OAR 410-200-0110.

Effective Dates; Eligibility Following Closure

The new effective date of eligibility following closure of benefits or following the end of a certification period is determined as follows:

(1) For the SNAP program, see OAR 461 115 0450.

(2) In the ERDC program, eligibility starts the first day of the month of the date of request.

(3) In the TANF program:

(a) Eligibility starts on the date provided by OAR 461-180-0070 for TANF unless the client meets the requirements of subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Eligibility starts the first day of the month following closure if:

(A) The client contacts the Department during the month of closure; and

(B) Submits to the Department a complete application not later than the end of the month following closure.

(4) In all programs other than the ERDC, SNAP, and TANF programs:

(a) If the client completes the application process within the applicable time period described in chapter 461 of the Oregon Administrative Rules, eligibility starts on the first day of the month following closure if the filing group meets all eligibility requirements on that date and if:

(A) The filing group established a date of request (see OAR 461-115-0030 for the meaning of date of request) prior to closure; or

(B) The Department initiated a redetermination of eligibility prior to closure.

(b) If the client does not complete the application process within the time period described in chapter 461 of the Oregon Administrative Rules, the determination of an effective date requires a new date of request (see OAR 461-115-0030 for the meaning of date of request).

Rule Caption: Changing OARs affecting public assistance, medical assistance, or Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program clients
Adm. Order No.: SSP 39-2013(Temp)
Filed with Sec. of State: 12-31-2013
Certified to be Effective: 1-1-14 thru 6-30-14
Notice Publication Date:
Rules Amended: 461-001-0000, 461-115-0016, 461-135-0505, 461-145-0280
Subject: OAR 461-001-0000 about definitions used in various DHS program rules is being amended to revise the definitions of "legally married", "marriage", "parent", and "spouse" so that the Department recognizes as being legally married those same-sex couples who have been united in marriage according to the law of the state or country in which the marriage occurred. The definitions of "legally married" and "spouse" are also being updated and clarified for the ERDC and SNAP programs to prevent unnecessary training in the context of this change.

OAR 461-115-0016 about the application process and reservation list for the Employment Related Day Care (ERDC) program is being amended to add additional exemptions under which families would not be placed on the reservation list. Under this amendment; new ERDC applicants who have an open Child Welfare case or open CPS assessment will meet an exception to the ERDC reservation list, if the child care subsidy is part of a safety plan needed to prevent child removal, allow a child to return home, or allow for placement of the child with a relative or with an adult whom the child or the family of the child has an established relationship. The amendment to this rule will align with Oregon's differential response and the federal guidelines for at risk children.

OAR 461-135-0505 about categorical eligibility for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) is being amended to implement a $25,000 liquid asset test for some households to be determined categorically eligible. Liquid assets are assets that are easily accessible like a bank account or cash on hand. The asset test does not include currently excluded resources for the SNAP program such as a person's home, retirement accounts, or earned income tax refunds. The intent of the policy change is to identify individuals with large windfalls such as a lottery winning that exceeds $25,000 in order to exclude them from receiving SNAP benefits and focus benefits on individuals who need them.

OAR 461-145-0280 about the treatment of in-kind income in determining eligibility for several DHS programs is being amended to remove its coverage of the EXT, MAA, MAF, OHP, and SAC programs. The policies about financial eligibility for medical assistance have been moved from OAR 461 (DHS) into the OAR 410-200 (under OHA), and as part of the implementation efforts for the federal Affordable Care Act (ACA). For applications for medical assistance starting on October 1, 2013, financial eligibility policies are set out in OAR 410-200.

Application Process; Reservation List for ERDC

Notwithstanding any other rule in Chapter 461 of the Oregon Administrative Rules, in the ERDC program:

(1) Eligibility is subject to the availability of funds. The Department may implement a Child Care Reservation List whenever the Department determines that sufficient funding is not available to sustain benefits for all of the applicants requesting assistance.

(2) Except as provided in section (3) of this rule, the following applicants are subject to placement on the Child Care Reservation List when the Child Care Reservation List is in effect:

(a) New applicants for ERDC when no member of the ERDC filing group (see OAR 461-110-0350) meets the requirements of one or more of the following paragraphs:

(A) Received a partial or full month of REF, SFPSS, or TANF program cash benefits from the State of Oregon in at least one of the preceding three months; and no member of the ERDC program filing group may be concurrently receiving TANF program benefits except as allowed under OAR 461-165-0030.

(B) Is eligible for and being placed in a current opening in an Oregon Program of Quality contracted slot under OAR 461-135-0407 or Head Start program contracted slot under OAR 461-135-0405.

(C) The caretaker (see OAR 461-001-0000) is currently working with Child Welfare as part of a CPS assessment or open case, an ongoing safety plan is in place, and Child Welfare has determined the use of child care as part of an ongoing safety plan will:

(i) Prevent removal of the child (see OAR 461-001-0000) from their home;

(ii) Allow a child to be returned home; or

(iii) Allow for placement of the child with a relative or with an adult whom the child or the family of the child has an established relationship.

(b) Individuals who are reapplying for ERDC after a break in ERDC benefits of two consecutive, calendar months or more.

(3) Except as allowed under OAR 461-165-0030, no member of an ERDC program filing group may be concurrently receiving TANF program benefits. When concurrent benefits are not allowed, the Department sends a decision notice (see OAR 461-001-0000) of ineligibility for the ERDC program and the filing group is not placed on the Child Care Reservation List.

(4) When the Child Care Reservation List is in effect, the Department must place all applicants who are subject to the Child Care Reservation List under section (2) of this rule on the Child Care Reservation List for future selection. The Department sends these applicants a decision notice of ineligibility for the ERDC program.

(5) Each month, on the basis of an estimate of available funds, an appropriate number of individuals from the Child Care Reservation List are randomly selected and invited to apply for ERDC.

(6) After an individual is selected from the Child Care Reservation List, the individual must contact the Department to establish a date of request (see OAR 461-115-0030) no later than 30 days after the date on the selection letter. The individual may request child care benefits from the Department:

(a) Without completing a new application, when the previous application is within 45 days of its date of request; or

(b) By submitting a new application for child care benefits to the Department.

(7) The processing time frame for the ERDC application is the same as that specified in OAR 461-115-0190, except that:

(a) An individual who requests benefits after the 30 day deadline to apply (see section (6) of this rule) will be returned to the Child Care Reservation List.

(b) If the Department does not receive a request for benefits within the deadline to apply, the individual is dropped from the Child Care Reservation List.

Categorical Eligibility for SNAP

(1) An individual is categorically eligible for SNAP benefits if the individual:

(a) Receives or is authorized to receive GA or SSI benefits;

(b) Receives or is authorized to receive cash, in-kind benefits, or services funded either under Title IV-A of the Social Security Act or by the state as part of the TANF maintenance of effort;

(c) Is deemed to be receiving SSI under Section 1619(a) or 1619(b) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1382h(a) or (b)); or

(d) Is a member of a financial group (see OAR 461-110-0530) with countable (see OAR 461-001-0000) income less than 185 percent of the federal poverty level as described in OAR 461-155-0180(6), does not have liquid assets in excess of $25,000, and has received a pamphlet about Information and Referral Services. Liquid assets are assets that are easily accessible and do not need to be sold to access their value.

(2) For an entire filing group to be categorically eligible for SNAP benefits, it must contain only clients who are categorically eligible for SNAP benefits. For the purpose of determining who is categorically eligible for SNAP benefits, in the ERDC and TA-DVS programs all members of the filing group are considered receiving the benefits of the program even if not all members receive the benefit.

(3) A filing group that is eligible for transition services or the TA-DVS program is considered receiving benefits for the entire period of eligibility even if benefits are not received during each month of that period.

(4) An individual categorically eligible for the SNAP program is presumed to meet the eligibility requirements for resources and countable and adjusted income limits. The individual is also presumed to meet the requirements for a social security number, sponsored alien information, and residency, if verified in a public assistance or medical assistance program.

(5) When a filing group contains both members who are categorically eligible for SNAP benefits and those who are not, a resource owned in whole or in part by a categorically eligible member is excluded.

(6) An individual may not be categorically eligible for SNAP benefits in either of the following circumstances:

(a) The individual is disqualified from receiving SNAP benefits because of an intentional program violation.

(b) The individual is a primary person (see OAR 461-001-0015) disqualified from receiving SNAP benefits for failure to comply with an OFSET activity or component contained in an OFSET case plan (see OAR 461-001-0020).

In-Kind Income

(1) This rule does not apply to shelter-in-kind income (see OAR 461-145-0470).

(2) In all programs except the REF, REFM, and TANF programs, in-kind income (see OAR 461-001-0000) that is earned is treated according to the administrative rules on earned income (such as OAR 461-145-0130).

(3) In all programs except the REF, REFM, and TANF programs, in-kind income that is unearned (except third-party payments) is treated as follows:

(a) Income from court-ordered community service work or bartering is excluded. Bartering is the exchange of goods of equal value.

(b) Items such as cars and furniture are treated according to the administrative rule for the specific type of asset.

(4) In the REF, REFM, and TANF programs, in-kind income (except unearned third-party payments) is excluded.

(5) In the SNAP program, except for child support (see OAR 461-145-0080) and an expenditure by a business entity that benefits a principal (see OAR 461-145-0088), in-kind income is excluded.

(6) Unearned third-party payments are treated as follows:

(a) Payments made to a third party that should legally be paid directly to a member of the financial group (see OAR 461-110-0530) are counted as unearned income.

(b) Payments made to a third party that the payee is not legally obligated to pay directly to a member of the financial group and that the financial group does not have the option of taking as cash, and payments made by the noncustodial parent to a third party that are court-ordered are treated as follows:

(A) In the SNAP program, these third-party payments are excluded unless they are transitional housing payments for the homeless.

(B) In the REF, REFM, and TANF programs, except for payments designated as child support (see OAR 461-145-0080), these third-party payments are excluded.

(C) In all programs except the REF, REFM, SNAP, and TANF programs, these third-party payments are excluded.

Periodic Review and Modification of Child Support Order Amounts

(1) "Periodic Review" means a proceeding initiated under ORS 25.287(1) to modify an existing order to comply with the child support guidelines.

(2) The administrator will initiate a periodic review if a written request is received from any party or the family is currently receiving TANF, and 35 months have passed since the date:

(a) The most recent support order took effect, or

(b) The most recent order determining that the support order should not be adjusted was signed. For purposes of calculating the 35-month time period, a suspension and temporary modification order entered pursuant to ORS 416.425(13) will not be considered.

(3) For purposes of a periodic review, a child support order is not in substantial compliance with the guidelines if it has been more than 35 months since the order took effect.

(4) The administrator must complete the modification of the existing order within 180 days of receiving a written request for a periodic review, initiating the mandatory review, or locating the non-requesting party(ies), whichever occurs later.

(5) The administrator is responsible for conducting a periodic review in this state or for requesting that another jurisdiction conduct a review pursuant to OAR 137-055-7190. As provided in ORS 110.429 and 110.432, the law of the jurisdiction reviewing the order applies in determining if a basis for modification exists.

(6) On receipt of a written request for a periodic review or when a mandatory periodic review is required, the administrator will notify the parties of the review in writing, allowing the parties 30 days to provide information that may affect the support calculation.

(7) If there is an adult child on the case, the proposed modification will be a tiered order as defined in OAR 137-055-1020.

(8) For all child support cases receiving support enforcement services under ORS 25.080, the Child Support Program (CSP) will annually notify the parties:

(a) Of their right to request a periodic review of the amount of support ordered; and

(b) That the CSP will perform a mandatory periodic review and adjustment if the family is currently receiving TANF.

Department of Public Safety Standards and Training
Chapter 259

Rule Caption: Clarifies instructor certification requirements; Housekeeping.
Adm. Order No.: DPSST 1-2014
Filed with Sec. of State: 1-2-2014
Certified to be Effective: 1-2-14
Rules Amended: 259-008-0005, 259-008-0010, 259-008-0020, 259-008-0025, 259-008-0060, 259-008-0069, 259-008-0070, 259-008-0075, 259-008-0080, 259-008-0090, 259-008-0100, 259-013-0000, 259-013-0220, 259-013-0230
Subject: Current ORS and OAR requires that anyone instructing a mandated Basic Course be certified by DPSST. There are three types of instructor certification; Certified Instructor, Allied Professions Instructor, and Subject Matter Expert Instructor. This proposed rule change ensures certified instructors are held to the same standard as other certifications, including criminal records checks, notification of conviction, moral fitness, education, experience, training requirements and renewal cycle timelines. This rule change adds the definitions of "Instructor", "Allied Professions Instructor", and "Subject Matter Expert Instructor" to OAR 259-008-0005. Further, it makes "Public Safety Professional" a stand-alone definition, which includes corrections officers, emergency medical dispatchers, parole and probation officers, police officers, certified reserve officers, telecommunicators, liquor enforcement inspectors, and instructors. OAR 259-008-0080 is updated to add fingerprint requirements, criminal records checks, notice of conviction requirements, moral fitness standards, training requirements, experience requirements, and document submission requirements. Further, OAR's in Divisions 8 and 13 are updated to reflect definition changes. Finally, minor housekeeping changes are made for clarity.

(B) If the reason for the request does meet statutory and administrative rule requirements but is not supported by adequate factual information, the Department will request further information from the employer or conduct its own investigation of the matter.

(A) The initial minimum period of ineligibility stated in an Order of the Department denying or revoking certification has been satisfied;

The notification must be in writing and include the specific charges of the conviction, the county and state where the conviction occurred, the investigating agency and the date of the conviction.

(B) The DPSST Standards and Certification Section may, at its sole discretion, waive the requirement for the experience to be in a certifiable public safety position. Such a waiver must be based on documentation that certification would have no bearing on the relevance of the experience or the qualifications or credibility of the Instructor to provide instruction in the category in which the Instructor will be utilized

(C) Instructors applying for certification under the definition of an Allied Professions Instructor must document three years' experience relevant to the category or categories they will be utilized.

(D) Instructors applying for certification under the definition of a Subject Matter Expert Instructor must document three years' experience relevant to the specific topical area in which they will be utilized.

Discretionary Grounds for Denying, Suspending or Revoking Private Security Certification or Licensure

(4) The Department may deny or revoke the certification or licensure of any applicant or private security provider after written notice and hearing, if requested, upon finding that an applicant or private security provider:

(a) Fails to meet the minimum standards for certification or licensure as a private security provider as defined in OAR 259-060-0020;

(b) Has falsified any information submitted on the application for certification or licensure or any documents submitted to the Department pertaining to private security certification or licensure;

(c) Has violated any of the temporary assignment provisions of OAR 259-060-0120(1);

(d) Has failed to submit properly completed forms or documentation in a time frame as designated by the Department;

(e) Has failed to pay a civil penalty or fee imposed by the Department when due;

(f) Has failed to comply with any provisions found in the Act or these rules; or

(g) Lacks moral fitness. For the purposes of this standard, the Department, through the Policy Committee and Board, has defined lack of moral fitness as:

(A) Dishonesty. Lack of honesty includes, but is not limited to, untruthfulness, dishonesty by admission or omission, deception, misrepresentation or falsification;

(B) Lack of Good Character. Lack of good character includes, but is not limited to, failure to be faithful and loyal to the employer's charge and failure to use discretion and compassion;

(C) Mistreatment of Others. Mistreatment of others includes, but is not limited to, violating another person's rights and failure to respect others;

(D) Lack of Public Trust. Failure to maintain public trust and confidence includes, but is not limited to, acting in an unlawful manner or not adhering to recognized industry standards; or

(E) Lack of Respect for the Laws of this State or Nation. Lack of respect for the laws of this state and nation includes a pattern of behavior which leads to three or more arrests or convictions within a ten-year period prior to application or during certification or licensure.

Procedure for Denial or Revocation of Certification or Licensure

(5) Scope of Revocation. Whenever the Department revokes the certification or licensure of a private security provider under the provisions of this rule, the revocation will encompass all private security certificates and licenses the Department has issued to that person.

(6) Denial and Revocation Procedure.

(a) Employer Request: When the employer of the private security provider requests that certification or licensure be denied or revoked, the employer must submit in writing to the Department the reason for the requested action and include all factual information supporting the request.

(b) Department Initiated Request: Upon receipt of factual written information from any source other than an employer, and pursuant to ORS 181.878, the Department may request that the Board deny, revoke or suspend the private security provider's certification or licensure.

(c) Department Staff Review: When the Department receives information from any source that a private security provider may not meet the established standards for Oregon private security providers, the Department will review the request and the supporting factual information to determine if a sufficient factual basis exists to support the request for denial, suspension, or revocation of a private security license or certification under the Act or these administrative rules.

(A) If the Department determines that a private security provider may have engaged in discretionary disqualifying misconduct.

(B) The Department will seek input from the affected private security provider by allowing the individual to provide, in writing, information for review.

(C) The Department may take action upon discovery of discretionary disqualifying misconduct when consensus is reached that the nature of the discretionary disqualifying misconduct is appropriate for summary staff disposition or administrative closure.

(D) If the Department determines that a private security provider may have engaged in discretionary disqualifying misconduct, but is unable to reach a consensus to summarily dispose of or administratively close the case, the case will be presented to the Board, through the Policy Committee.

(d) In making a decision to authorize initiation of proceedings under subsection (e) of this rule based on discretionary disqualifying misconduct, Department staff, the Policy Committee and Board will consider mitigating and aggravating circumstances.

(e) Initiation of Proceedings: Upon determination that a sufficient factual basis exists to support the request for denial, suspension, or revocation of a private security license or certification under the Act or these administrative rules, the Department will prepare and serve a contested case notice on the private security provider.

(A) All contested case notices will be prepared in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Attorney General's Model Rules of Procedure adopted under OAR 259-005-0015.

(B) In discretionary cases heard by a policy committee, the contested case notice will be served on the private security provider prior to Board review. If the Board disapproves the Policy Committee's recommendation, the Department will withdraw the contested case notice.

(C) Applicants who choose to withdraw their application forfeit their application fees.

(f) Response Time:

(A) A party who has been served with an Emergency Suspension Order has 90 days from the date of mailing or personal service of the Order in which to file a written request for hearing with the Department.

(B) A party who has been served with a Contested Case Notice of Intent to Deny Certification or Licensure has 60 days from the date of mailing or personal service of the notice in which to file a written request for hearing or a written request withdrawing their application from consideration with the Department.

(C) A party who has been served with a Contested Case Notice of Intent to Revoke Certification or Licensure has 20 days from the date of the mailing or personal service of the notice in which to file a written request for hearing with the Department.

(g) Default Order: If a timely request for a hearing is not received, the Contested Case Notice will become a final order denying or revoking certification pursuant to OAR 137-003-0672.

(h) Final Order:

(A) A final order will be issued pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Attorney General's Model Rules of Procedure adopted under OAR 259-005-0015 if a private security provider fails to file exceptions and arguments within 20 days of issuance of the proposed order.

(B) Department-proposed amendments to the proposed order in a case that was originally heard by a policy committee must be considered and approved by the policy committee that originally reviewed the case before a final order is issued.

(i) Stipulated Order Revoking Certification or Licensure: The Department may enter a stipulated order revoking certification or licensure of a private security provider upon the person's voluntary agreement to terminate an administrative proceeding to revoke a certification or license, or to surrender a certification or license, under the terms and conditions provided in the stipulated order.

Appeals, Ineligibility Period, and Reconsideration

(7) Appeal Procedure. Private security applicants and providers aggrieved by the findings and Order of the Department may file an appeal with the Court of Appeals from the Final Order of the Department, as provided in ORS 183.480.

(8) Notwithstanding section (9) of this rule, any private security applicant or provider whose certification or licensure is denied or revoked will be ineligible to hold any private security certification or licensure for a period of ten years from the date of the final order issued by the Department.

(9) Reconsideration Process. Any individual whose certification or license has been denied or revoked for discretionary grounds may apply for reconsideration of the denial or revocation after a minimum four-year ineligibility period from the date of the final order.

(a) All applicants for reconsideration are required to submit a new application packet along with a Form PS-30 Application for Reconsideration. The applicant may provide any mitigating information for the consideration of DPSST, Policy Committee, and Board.

(b) In reconsidering the application of an applicant whose certification or licensure was previously denied or revoked for discretionary grounds, DPSST, the Policy Committee and the Board may consider mitigating and aggravating circumstances.

(c) The Board's decision to deny an application for reconsideration will be subject to the contested case procedure described under subsection (6) of this rule.

(d) If an application for reconsideration is denied, the original ineligibility date remains in effect as described in subsection (8) of this rule.

Subject: 150-305.810 explains the different methods the department will accept for a taxpayer to verify their return is true and accurate. The update specifies that submitting a direct efile income tax return is the act of verifying as well as clarifying for other tax programs. This change informs taxpayers how efiled returns may be verified.

150-314.385(4) specifies that the department may allow alternative methods for filing a tax return. This gives the department the ability to specify and allow alternative methods as new processes or methods are developed, including direct filing with DOR.

150-314.415(7) clarifies when a separate refund will be issued when a joint return has been filed. The update is to correct a code cite and include examples.

150-315.514 allows the Office of Film and Television to sell their tax credits through an auction. The rule spells out the parameters of the auction.

150-314.HB2071(B) implemented mandatory efile in 2012. This change is to renumber to match codification of House Bill.

150-316.014 discusses an Oregon Net Operating Loss. This change is to renumber to match statute number.

Verification of Returns, Statements, or Documents Filed Under Tax Law

(1) The declaration under ORS 314.385(2) that a return, statement, or document is made under penalties for false swearing and is true, complete, and correct must be verified by the taxpayer or by an authorized agent, and in the case of a joint personal income tax return, by each taxpayer or authorized agent for such taxpayer.

(2) Personal income tax returns for individuals are verified by:

(a) Signing the return.

(b) A signed statement, such as Oregon Form EF, submitted to the department if requested.

(c) Any verification method allowed by the IRS when electronically filing the federal return with the Oregon return, such as a federal personal identification number.

(d) Submission of an electronically filed return submitted without the use of a federal signature method (unlinked) by the taxpayer, tax preparer, or an authorized representative of the taxpayer.

(3) Corporate income and excise tax returns are verified by:

(a) Signing the return.

(b) For tax year 2011 and earlier forms:

(A) Any verification method allowed by the IRS when electronically filing the federal return with the Oregon return, such as a federal personal identification number.

(B) A signed and scanned Corporation E-file Signature Form included with the electronic return when electronically filing without the use of a federal signature method or when the Oregon filer is different than the federal filer.

(c) For tax year 2012 and later forms, submission of an electronically filed return by the taxpayer, tax preparer, or an authorized representative of the taxpayer.

(4) For Oregon Quarterly Payroll Tax reports, the declaration under ORS 314.385(2), must be verified by the taxpayer or an authorized agent by:

(a) Signing the return or similar statement.

(b) Transmitting a payroll tax return using the state's online payroll reporting method. The return is considered signed when the return is transmitted to the state by an authorized person. An "authorized person" is any person certified by the employer and the Oregon Employment Department as allowed to file the return using the state's reporting system.

(5) All other returns are verified by:

(a) Signing the return.

(b) Any verification method allowed by the IRS when electronically filing the federal return with the Oregon return, if applicable; otherwise only a signed return is accepted.

150-314.364(B)
Requirement to File Returns Electronically

(1) All paid tax preparers filing Oregon personal income tax returns in this state are required to file them by electronic means if the paid tax preparer is required to do so by federal law. See 26 USC § 6011 and Treasury Regulation §301.6011-7 for the federal mandate and relevant definitions.

(2) Waivers.

(a) A waiver granted by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) pursuant to Treasury Regulation §301.6011-7(c)(1) or (2) will be accepted by the department as a waiver to the mandate under section (1). The paid preparer must notify the department in writing when such a waiver is granted in accordance with the department's instructions.

(b) In addition to a waiver allowed under subsection (a), the department may grant a waiver of the mandate in section (1) if the following conditions are met:

(A) The paid preparer requests a waiver in advance of the preparation of personal income tax returns subject to the mandate in accordance with the department's instructions; and

(B) The paid preparer's facts and circumstances are such that complying with the mandate would cause the paid preparer an undue financial hardship. The paid preparer's refusal to purchase or use the requisite software or computer equipment does not, in and of itself, satisfy the conditions for a waiver under this subsection.

(c) When circumstances warrant, the department may issue an administrative waiver of the mandate in section (1) to a paid preparer or group of paid preparers when the department determines it is necessary to promote the effective and efficient administration of the tax system.

(3) This rule is effective January 1, 2012 and applies to tax returns filed on or after that date.

(1) As used in this rule:

(a) "Alternatively filed return" means an Oregon return submitted using a department-approved alternative filing method under section (2) of this rule.

(b) "IRS date of receipt" means the electronic time stamp indicating the date and time of receipt of the Oregon return by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

(2) The department may provide for filing of returns using electronic or other methods as an alternative to paper returns.

(3) Alternatively filed returns are deemed filed and received on:

(a) The date the return is received by the department as indicated by the department's date stamp; or

(b) In the case of an electronically filed return, the earlier of:

(A) The IRS date of receipt, or

(B) The date of successful transmission.

(4) Alternatively filed returns must be verified pursuant to the rules of the department adopted under ORS 305.810.(5) If an alternatively filed return cannot be processed, a paper return must be filed with the department. If the paper return is filed within 30 days of the date of the successful transmission of the alternatively filed return, the date of the successful transmission of the alternatively filed return is considered the filing date of the paper return.

150-314.415(7)

Separate Refunds When a Joint Return Has Been Filed

(1) The department may, as a convenience to taxpayers, issue separate refunds when either spouse submits a signed request. To issue separate refunds when a joint refund check has already been issued, the check must be returned uncashed. If either spouse has an amount owing to the state of Oregon, any refund due that person will be applied to the liability and the balance, if any, issued in a separate refund check.

(2) For purposes of this rule, the separate adjusted gross income (AGI) of each spouse is equal to each spouse's share of Oregon adjusted gross income.

Example 1: Ann and her husband Ian, both Idaho residents, filed a joint Oregon return claiming a $600. He owes a $500 debt to an Oregon city for unpaid parking tickets so the department withheld part of the joint $600 refund to pay the $500 debt and issued a $100 refund for the difference. Before they cashed the $100 refund, Ann sent it back requesting her share of the amount paid to the city in Oregon because she did not owe the debt. Ian reported $25,000 of wages of which he earned $10,000 in Oregon. Ann reported $15,000 of wages of which $5,000 she earned in Oregon. They had no other income to report. The department will apportion her refund based on her share of Oregon AGI as follows:

	Federal column	Oregon Column
Ian's wages	$25,000	$10,000
Ann's wages	$15,000	$5,000
Federal AGI	$40,000	$15,000 (Oregon AGI)

$5,000 ÷ $15,000 = 1/3

$600 x 1/3 = $200

The department will apportion the $600 refund and issue a $200 refund to Ann. Ian's portion of the refund was $400 thus he still owes the City of Portland $100.

(3) For purposes of this rule, items of income and deduction, separate adjusted gross income, and any refund claimed are determined without regard to community property law.

Example 2: Ethan and his wife Ava, both Washington residents, filed a joint Oregon return claiming a $1,500 refund. She owes a $1,200 debt to an Oregon university so the department withheld part of the joint refund and sent a $300 check for the difference. Before they cashed the $300 refund, Ethan sent it back requesting his share of the joint refund because he did not owe the debt and he claimed he owned half of the refund because he lives in a community property state. Ethan reported $50,000 of wages all of which he earned in Washington. Ava reported $25,000 of wages all of which she earned in Oregon. They had no other income to report. The department will apportion his refund based on his share of Oregon AGI without regard to community property law as follows:

	Federal column	Oregon Column
Ethan's wages	$50,000	$0
Ava's wages	$25,000	$25,000
Federal AGI	$75,000	$25,000 (Oregon AGI)

Because Ethan does not have any share of the Oregon AGI and community property law is disregarded for this purpose, the entire refund belongs to Ava and the department will not apportion any of it to Ethan.

(4) If the refund is being held for application against an amount owed to an agency of the state of Oregon, the request for separate refunds must be mailed to the Department of Revenue within 30 days of the date of the Notice of Proposed Adjustment and/or Distribution. Separate refunds will not be made if the request is not received timely.

(5) Pursuant to ORS 18.665(2), the department cannot issue separate refunds when a garnishment or levy has been served on the department for one or both spouses.

150-315.514

Oregon Production Investment Fund Tax Credit Auctions

(1) Definitions.

(a) "Tax Credit" means the credit authorized by ORS 315.514.

(b) "Qualified Bid" means a bid that is eligible for consideration in the tax credit auction because:

(A) It is submitted in a manner and time prescribed by the department's instructions and this rule;

(B) It is submitted for no less than 95 percent of the tax credit value;

(C) An associated payment is received by the department in the time and manner prescribed in section (4).

(c) "Non-qualified Bid" means a bid that is not eligible to participate in the auction because it does not meet the requirements of subsection (b).

(d) "Invalid or Insufficient Payments" are payments that are:

(A) Not received by the department by 5:00 p.m. (PT) on the date for payment set by the department;

(B) In a form other than one listed in section (4) of this rule;

(C) Fraudulent or otherwise not able to be immediately banked by the department;

(D) Less than the full amount of the corresponding bid received by the department; or

(E) Not submitted in a manner consistent with department's instructions (including attaching the required completed forms).

(e) "PT" means Pacific Time (Daylight or Standard as dictated by the time of year).

(2) Auction Bidding Period. The tax credits auction bidding period is no less than seven days, not to exceed 14 days; with specific dates as announced by the department.

(3) Tax Credit Certificates. The Oregon Film and Video Office will issue tax credit certificates for the prevailing qualified bids. A taxpayer to whom a certificate is issued may claim a credit in the amount shown on the certificate against Oregon personal income or corporate income or excise tax otherwise due for that tax year. The tax credit may not exceed the liability of the taxpayer in any one year. Any credit amount unused by the taxpayer may be carried forward to offset tax liabilities in the next three succeeding tax years. No transfer of the certificate (or the credit that it represents) is allowed.

(4) Determination of Qualifying Bids and Payments.

(a) Bids must be submitted on-line in a manner consistent with the department's instructions and within the bidding period as outlined in section (2). Bids received before or after the bidding period will be considered a non-qualified bid. The department will determine the order of bids received by the electronic date and time stamp.

(b) A bidder may submit multiple separate bids.

(c) After a bid is submitted, a bidder must send, and the department must receive, a payment for the total amount bid. Invalid or insufficient payments will be returned to the bidder and the associated bid considered non-qualified. All bid payments must be received by the department no later than 5:00 p.m. (PT) on the payment date. The department will date stamp payments when they are received. The department will not consider postmarks when determining if the payment has been timely received. It is the bidder's responsibility to ensure that the department receives the payment by the deadline. The method of payment is limited to the following:

(A) Bank-issued certified check;

(B) Bank-issued cashier's check; or

(C) Money Order.

(d) All payments will be held until the outcome of the auction is determined. As soon as practicable, the department will return payments received to bidders that do not prevail at the auction. No interest will be paid on payments.

(e) A bid, once submitted, is not revocable and may not be changed. A payment will only be returned if a bid does not result in the issuance of a tax credit certificate.

(5) Determination of the Prevailing Bid(s). After the payment deadline has passed, the department will determine the prevailing bids by placing the qualifying bids in order from highest bid amount to lowest bid amount. The department will allot tax credit certificates to the highest qualifying bids. In the event that two or more qualifying bids have identical bid amounts for the last tax credit increment (or increments) available, the prevailing qualifying bid will be the one the department received first as determined under section (4).

Example: Four bidders (A, B, C and D) make qualifying bids on $10,000 worth of tax credits (sold in twenty increments of $500). Bidder A bids $475 for each of eight increments on October 24. Bidder B bids $480 for each of eight increments on October 26. Bidder C bids $485 for each of six increments and $480 for each of four increments on November 1. Bidder D bids $495 for each of ten increments on November 4.

The results of the auction are as follows:

10 of the 20 increments go to D.

6 of the 20 increments go to C (for the $490 bid).

4 of the 20 increments go to B (for the $480 bid).

NOTE 1: B only received four of the eight increments he bid on because no more increments were available. The department will return the payment to B for the amount of the four non-prevailing bids.

NOTE 2: The bid C placed at $480 did not prevail because it tied with the bid B submitted. B's bid will prevail over C's bid in the event of a tie because it was received before C's bid. C's payment for the $480 bid will be returned.

NOTE 3: A's bid was not high enough to prevail. A's bid payment will be returned.

(1) Applicability of this Rule.

(a) This rule applies to the computation of net operating losses occurring in loss years beginning after December 31, 1984; and net operating loss deductions allowed or allowable in tax years beginning after December 31, 1984.

(b) For the computation and application of Oregon net operating losses for loss years beginning before January 1, 1985; net operating loss deductions with regard to loss years beginning before January 1, 1985; and net operating loss carrybacks and net operating loss carryovers applied in tax years beginning before January 1, 1985 that also originated in tax years beginning before January 1, 1985, see OAR 150-316.007.

(2) Definitions for Purposes of this rule.

(a) Prohibited amounts. "Prohibited amounts" means those amounts that the state of Oregon is prohibited from taxing, such as all stocks, bonds, Treasury notes, and other obligations of the United States as provided in 31 United States Code Section 3124. Prohibited amounts do not include such items as federally taxable social security benefits since Oregon is not prohibited from indirectly taxing such types of income.

(b) Oregon Adjusted Gross Income (Oregon AGI). For a full-year resident, Oregon AGI is generally the same as federal AGI. For a nonresident, "Oregon AGI" means the items included in federal adjusted gross income as defined in IRC Section 62 that relate to Oregon sources without modifications.

(c) Modified Oregon Taxable Income. "Modified Oregon taxable income" means Oregon AGI reduced by the sum of the following:

(A) Oregon itemized deductions. For a resident, Oregon itemized deductions are generally the same amount as federal. For part-year and nonresident taxpayers, Oregon itemized deductions are the Oregon percentage of federal itemized deductions; or

(B) Oregon standard deduction. For part-year and nonresident taxpayers, only the Oregon percentage of the standard deductions can be used;

(C) Federal personal exemption(s); and

(D) Prohibited amounts included in Oregon AGI.

(3) Computation of an NOL for a Resident.

(a) For Oregon purposes, a resident's net operating loss is computed in the same manner as for federal purposes without Oregon modifications. Generally, the Oregon NOL is the same as the federal NOL. The only modification necessary is to subtract prohibited amounts.

(b) The computation of the Oregon NOL begins with the Oregon adjusted gross income (AGI) to arrive at modified Oregon taxable income. Then the modified Oregon taxable income is adjusted as required by IRC Section 172(d).

Example 1. Susan and Joe filed joint 2009 federal and Oregon tax returns. On their federal return, they reported wages of $26,000, a business loss of $50,000, a gain on the sale of stock of $400, and interest income of $800 from a bank. They also reported total itemized deductions of $12,800 which were all nonbusiness and claimed personal exemptions of $7,300. On their Oregon return, Susan and Joe also reported $500 municipal bond interest from California that was exempt from federal income tax. Their allowable Oregon NOL is computed as follows: [Formula not included. See ED. NOTE.]

Note: Except for prohibited amounts, the Oregon NOL is computed based on the federal NOL method and definitions without Oregon modifications.

Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1, except that the interest of $800 is from U.S. government securities (prohibited amounts). The Oregon NOL for Susan and Joe is ($24,800) computed as follows: [Formula not included. See ED. NOTE.]

Note: The U.S. government interest (prohibited amounts) is not used in computing Oregon NOL.

(4) Computation of an NOL for a Part-year Resident and a Nonresident

(a) A nonresident is allowed an Oregon NOL for any loss year when the NOL is attributable to Oregon sources. A taxpayer is not allowed an NOL or carryover on the Oregon return if the loss was incurred while the taxpayer was a nonresident and the loss was not attributable to Oregon. The computation of the allowable net operating loss for Oregon purposes begins with Oregon adjusted gross income as defined in this rule. Any modifications provided in IRC Section 172(d) apply to all items of income and deduction as they apply to modified Oregon taxable income with the exception of prohibited amounts.

(b) The IRC Section 172(d) modifications attributable to Oregon sources are the following:

(A) Oregon NOL deduction from prior years included in Oregon income after adjustments.

(B) Net Oregon capital loss deduction.

(C) Federal personal exemption amount.

(D) Excess of nonbusiness deductions over nonbusiness income included in modified Oregon taxable income.

Example 3. Herb and Sallie are married nonresidents and file a joint 2009 return. On their federal return, they have itemized deductions of $14,000 (all nonbusiness) and claimed exemptions of $10,950. They also had a business loss of $25,000 from Oregon sources and $1,000 non-Oregon source corporate bond interest. On their Oregon nonresident return, the Oregon percentage is zero (0). They compute their Oregon NOL as follows: [Formula not included. See ED. NOTE.]

Note: The Schedule A itemized deductions are -0- for Oregon purposes because their Oregon percentage is zero.

(5) Application of an NOL.

(a) General rule. An Oregon net operating loss for any loss years is applied in the same manner as the federal net operating loss as provided in IRC Section 172(b). If the loss was not attributable to Oregon sources and was incurred while the taxpayer was a nonresident, there is no Oregon NOL to carry over even if the taxpayer later becomes an Oregon resident. In such cases, the amount of the NOL carryover that is not attributable to Oregon sources is added back on the Oregon resident tax return. If a taxpayer carries back a federal NOL, the taxpayer is treated as carrying the loss back for Oregon purposes as well. If a taxpayer makes an election to carry over the federal NOL, the taxpayer is treated as making the same irrevocable election for Oregon purposes as well.

(b) Exceptions.

(A) If a taxpayer has an Oregon NOL but does not have a federal NOL, the taxpayer may elect to carry the Oregon NOL over to the next succeeding year, if the taxpayer makes an irrevocable election on the timely filed Oregon loss year return (including extensions). If no such election is made, then the taxpayer may only carry the Oregon loss back in the same manner as provided in IRC Section 172(b).

(B) If a taxpayer is not required to file an Oregon return for all years to which the federal NOL deduction (NOLD) is applied, the Oregon NOL is carried back to the year in which the loss may be first applied.

(C) The total number of years to which an NOL may be carried back or forward is the same for Oregon and federal, and is generally determined as follows:

(i) For net operating losses incurred in tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2003, the carry back period is two years with a twenty year carryover period. Oregon follows any exceptions allowed under federal law for these tax years.

(ii) For net operating losses incurred in tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2001 and before January 1, 2003, the carryback period is five years with a twenty year carryover period.

(iii) For net operating losses incurred in tax years beginning on or after August 5, 1997 and before January 1, 2001, the carryback period is two years with a twenty year carry over period.

(iv) For net operating losses incurred in tax years beginning prior to August 6, 1997, the carryback period is three years with a fifteen year carryover period. See IRC 172 and the related regulations for exceptions to the general carryback periods for net operating losses attributable to certain casualty losses, disaster areas and farming losses.

Example 4. Joe has a net operating loss for federal and Oregon for tax year 2009. For federal purposes, Joe carried his federal NOL back to 2007. Since he carried back his loss for federal purposes, he must carry back the loss for Oregon purposes to his 2007 Oregon tax return. If he is not required to file an Oregon tax return for 2007, he may carry his Oregon NOL to his 2008 Oregon tax return.

Example 5. Assume the same facts as in Example 4. However, Joe was not required to file an Oregon tax return prior to tax year 2009. Joe may carry his Oregon NOL over to his 2010 Oregon tax return even if the loss was carried back for federal purposes.

Example 6. As the result of a stimulus bill passed by Congress in 2009, Kerry, an Oregon resident and small business owner, is eligible to carry back her loss up to five years (instead of the normal two years). Kerry chose to carry her loss back five years on her federal return, so she must use the same five year carry back for purposes of her Oregon return.

Example 7. Devin, a Washington resident, incurs a $25,000 NOL in 2009 from his Washington area business and elects to carry the loss forward. Devin moves to Oregon on January 1, 2010. Since the loss was incurred while Devin was a nonresident of Oregon and the loss is not from an Oregon source, there is no Oregon NOL and Devin must make an addition on his 2010 Oregon return to add back the $25,000 NOL included in federal adjusted gross income.

(6) A Net Operating Loss Deduction, Carryback and Carryover Amount.

(a) A taxpayer's net operating loss deduction (NOLD), carryback and carryover amount is computed in the same manner as for federal purposes. The method to compute the carryback and carryover amount is not modified for Oregon purposes.

(b) For a full-year resident, generally an NOLD, carryback and carryover amount is the same as for federal purposes except that prohibited amounts as defined in section (2)(a) of this rule are not taken into consideration.

Example 8. John and Joyce incurred losses in 2009 from partnerships and S corporations. They compute an NOL of $12,000 and elect to carry the loss back. The 2007 return shows negative taxable income, so the 2009 NOL is first applied to 2008 where the loss is completely absorbed. John and Joyce have a federal AGI in 2008 of $50,000. The fully absorbed 2009 NOL is applied as follows: [Formula not included. See ED. NOTE.]

Example 9. Assume the same facts in Example 8, except that John and Joyce elect to carry forward the 2009 NOL for federal and Oregon purposes. In 2010, John and Joyce have federal AGI of $15,000 and have reported additions of $8,000 and subtractions of $3,000. John and Joyce will apply the NOL to 2010 and compute the amount carried over to 2011 as follows: [Formula not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(c) A part-year resident and a nonresident use the federal method without modifications, except that prohibited amounts are not taken into consideration, and the NOLD, carryback and carryover are based only upon amounts attributable to Oregon sources.

Example 10. In 2008, while residents of California, Ron and Valerie incurred losses from an Oregon partnership creating an Oregon only NOL in the amount of $85,000. Prior to 2008, neither Ron nor Valerie needed to file Oregon returns. In 2009, Ron and Valerie moved to Oregon and filed a part-year Oregon return. They reported federal income after adjustments of $385,000, Oregon income after adjustments of $235,000, and itemized deductions of $10,000. Ron and Valerie calculate their 2009 Oregon taxable income as follows: [Formula not included. See ED. NOTE.]

Example 11. Scott and Jill live in Vancouver, Washington and Scott operates a business in Oregon. In 2008, Scott and Jill filed a nonresident Oregon return reporting an Oregon only NOL of $6,000. Scott and Jill elected to carry the NOL forward. In 2009, Scott and Jill reported Oregon income after adjustments of $1,600, federal income after adjustments of $32,000, and federal itemized deductions of $9,200. Their Oregon itemized deductions are $460 [($1,600/$32,000) x $9,200]. Scott and Jill calculate their net operating loss deduction for 2009 and the carryover to 2010 as follows: [Formula not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(7) Net Operating Loss Carrybacks to Amnesty Years A net operating loss deduction (NOLD) carried back to an amnesty return (as that term is defined in OAR 150-305.100-(C)) may not result in a refund of any tax reported and paid pursuant to the amnesty program. However, if a NOLD is carried back to a year in which a taxpayer participated in amnesty, a refund that is otherwise allowed may be granted to the extent that the taxpayer has adequate income reported outside the amnesty program to absorb the loss (or portion thereof). A NOLD resulting in a denied refund due to participation in the amnesty program does not change the net operating loss deduction calculation or the amount that can be carried to another tax year.

Example 12. Ed, an Oregon resident, qualified for amnesty in November 2009 and received penalty and interest relief for tax year 2005 under the program. Ed's original 2005 return (which was filed timely on April 17, 2006) showed a tax liability of $20,000, which Ed paid when he filed his original 2005 return. The amended return for 2005 filed under amnesty increased his tax by an additional $15,000 for a total of $35,000 in Oregon tax liability. In tax year 2009 his business experienced a loss that created a net operating loss for tax year 2009. Ed elects to carry the loss back to tax year 2005 and amends his 2005 federal return. On June 1, 2010, he amends his 2005 Oregon return to claim the net operating loss deduction (NOLD). After applying the NOLD, Ed claims an Oregon refund of $30,000 for 2005. (Ed's 2005 net tax liability has been decreased to $5,000.) The department agrees with Ed's calculations but only allows a refund of $20,000 because that is the amount of tax Ed paid for 2005 before the amnesty program. The refund is limited because the law prohibits refunds of tax paid under amnesty. Ed's carryover of the NOLD is not changed because of the amnesty refund denial. Even though the refund was partially denied, the NOLD has been absorbed and there is no carryforward to tax year 2006.

Deductions Allowed in Determining Estate Tax or Fiduciary Income Tax

This rule applies to estates of decedents who die on or after January 1, 2012.

(1) An estate may claim deductions allowable under sections 2053 or 2054 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) for either estate tax purposes or fiduciary income tax purposes, but not both. The executor of an estate may make different elections for federal and Oregon purposes.

(2) If deductions are claimed against fiduciary income, the executor must include with the return a statement that the deductions are not being claimed for estate tax purposes.

Example 1: The executor of Estate A elects to deduct $19,500 of expenses in determining the estate's federal income tax. For Oregon, the executor elects to claim the deduction in determining estate tax. The amount deducted for federal purposes is not allowed for Oregon fiduciary income tax purposes.

Example 2: The executor of Estate B elects to deduct $10,000 of expenses in determining the estate's federal income tax. The executor elects to claim these deductions in determining Oregon's fiduciary income tax. No modification to income is required for Oregon. A deduction may not be made on the Oregon estate tax return.

Example 3: The executor of Estate C elects to claim a deduction of $15,000 for federal estate tax purposes. For Oregon, the executor elects to claim the deduction for fiduciary income tax purposes. The deduction may not also be made on the Oregon estate tax return if the election is made by deducting the $15,000 on the Oregon fiduciary income tax return.

Imposition of Tax

This rule applies to estates of decedents who die before January 1, 2012.A tax equal to the state death tax credit allowable for federal estate tax purposes is imposed. The tax is due in every case even though the credit may not be claimed on the federal estate tax return, Form 706.

(1) Property within the jurisdiction of the state includes the following:

(a) Resident Decedent.

(A) Real property situated in Oregon.

(B) Tangible personal property situated in Oregon.

(C) Intangible personal property wheresoever situated.

(b) Nonresident Decedent.

(A) Real property situated in Oregon.

(B) Tangible personal property situated in Oregon.

(C) Intangible personal property situated in Oregon.

NOTE: See ORS 118.010(4)(b) which provides an exemption as to intangible personal property of nonresident decedents.

(2) The phrase "within the jurisdiction of the state" connotes extent of power and has a broader meaning than the phrase "within the state" which denotes locality. Property may be within the jurisdiction of the state but not physically situated in the state, for example:

(a) Stock of an Oregon corporation is within the jurisdiction of this state although the certificate may not be within this state.

(b) A savings account, checking account, and certificate of deposit in an Oregon bank are within the jurisdiction of this state although the passbook or certificate may not be within this state.

(c) A promissory note given by a resident of Oregon is within the jurisdiction of this state although the note may not be within this state.

(3) The term "intangible personal property" includes stocks, bonds, notes, currency, bank deposits, accounts receivable, patents, trademarks, copyrights, royalties, goodwill, partnership interests, life insurance policies, and other choices in action.

(4) The doctrine of equitable conversion is recognized in the administration of the Oregon inheritance tax law.

Deductions Allowed on Either the Inheritance Tax Return or the Fiduciary Income Tax Return

This rule applies to estates of decedents who die before January 1, 2012. Deductions allowed under sections 2053 or 2054 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) may be claimed on either the Oregon inheritance tax return (Form IT-1) or the Oregon fiduciary income tax return (Form 41), but not both. The personal representative of an estate may make different elections for federal and Oregon returns. If the deductions are claimed on the Oregon Form 41, attach a statement that the deductions are not being claimed on the Oregon Form IT-1. For federal purposes, those deductions may be taken on either the federal estate tax return (Form 706) or the federal estate income tax return (Form 1041) under IRC 642(g).

Example 1: Peter dies in 2004 with a gross estate of $900,000. The personal representative of the estate elects to deduct $19,500 of expenses on the federal Form 1041. For Oregon, the personal representative elects to take the deduction on the Oregon Form IT-1. The amount deducted on the federal Form 1041 must be added back to income on the Oregon Form 41.

Example 2: Sally dies in 2004 with a gross estate of $950,000. The personal representative of the estate elects to deduct $10,000 of expenses on the federal Form 1041. The personal representative does not claim these deductions on the Oregon Form IT-1. The deductions claimed on the federal Form 1041 flow through to the Oregon Form 41. No modification to income is required.

Example 3: Mildred dies in 2004 with a gross estate of $2,000,000. The personal representative of the estate elects to claim a deduction of $15,000 on the federal Form 706. For Oregon, the personal representative elects to claim the deduction on the Oregon Form 41. The election is made by subtracting the deduction from the Oregon return. The deduction is not allowed on the Oregon Form IT-1 if it was claimed on the Oregon Form 41. The personal representative must reduce the deductions by $15,000 on the Oregon Form IT-1.

Apportionment of Tax

This rule applies to estates of decedents who die before January 1, 2012.

(1) Where property is left in two or more states by a decedent, the maximum state tax credit allowed against the federal estate tax is apportioned. The numerator of the apportionment formula is the value for federal estate tax purposes of the property within the jurisdiction of this state notwithstanding that some of such property for Oregon inheritance tax purposes may be exempt, deductible, appraised at different values or considered in computing a credit. The denominator of the apportionment formula is the value of the gross estate for federal estate tax purposes.

(2) The executor shall, upon demand, file a copy of the federal estate tax return and such other information deemed necessary by the department in the computation of the additional tax. In case of failure to file such returns as these rules provide, the department shall compute the tax upon the basis of the best information available.

(3) If the amount of federal estate tax is increased or decreased subsequently, the pick-up tax imposed upon such estate shall be changed accordingly. In such case it is the duty of the executor to notify the department of the changes.

(4) Example of apportionment of federal credit where decedent leaves property in three states that impose death taxes: [Example not included. See ED. NOTE.]

150-118.010(4)(b)
Reciprocal Exemption of Intangible Personal Property of Nonresident Decedent

This rule applies to estates of decedents who die before January 1, 2012. Intangible personal property within the jurisdiction of the state of Oregon and owned by a nonresident of this state is exempt from inheritance tax if a like exemption is made by the laws of the state or country of decedent's residence in favor of residents of this state. There is no such exemption allowed as to property owned by a deceased resident of a state which does not impose a death tax. However, if a state has a death tax law which does not impose a tax on intangible personal property owned by a nonresident of that state, the "like exemption" requirement of ORS 118.010(4)(b) is satisfied, and Oregon would exempt intangible personal property owned by a deceased resident of that state. A nonresident is one who at the time of death had a permanent dwelling place and an official or legal residence outside the State of Oregon. To have a change of domicile there must be:

(1) Residence in a new place;

(2) Intent to abandon the old domicile; and

(3) Intent to acquire a new domicile (196 Or 256).

NOTE: For definition of the term "intangible personal property," see OAR 150-118.010(1).

Separate Oregon Elections

This rule applies to estates of decedents who die before January 1, 2012.

(1) For deaths after December 31, 2001, and before January 1, 2012, the Oregon inheritance tax is computed using the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) in effect on December 31, 2000. Federal changes enacted after this date, including the "Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001", do not affect the computation of Oregon tax. Oregon allows separate elections, including but not limited to elections provided by IRC Sections 2031(c), 2032, 2032A, 2033A, 2056 and 2056A that would have been allowed under federal law in effect as of December 31, 2000, whether or not a federal estate tax return is filed. The Oregon elections are irrevocable. If a federal estate tax return is not required with respect to the decedent's death, the Oregon elections must be made in the same manner as required under the IRC on a return filed with the Oregon Department of Revenue.

Example 1: The personal representative may not make a qualified terminal interest property (QTIP) election on the 2004 Oregon Inheritance Tax Return under the following circumstances. Harold dies in 2004 with an estate valued at $950,000. He is survived by his wife, Wanda. They had provided for a credit shelter trust funded by an amount equal to the unused federal exclusion amount. The trust is set up to distribute or accumulate income to someone other than the spouse and allows for discretionary distribution of income to the surviving spouse. The trust does not qualify for a QTIP election under IRC 2056(b)(7), as in effect as of December 31, 2000.

Example 2: The personal representative may make a QTIP election on the 2004 Oregon Inheritance Tax Return under the following circumstances. Winifred dies in 2004 with an estate valued at $1,500,000. She is survived by her husband, Harvey. They had provided for a credit shelter trust funded by an amount equal to the unused federal exclusion amount. The trust provides for all income to be distributed to the surviving spouse and otherwise qualifies for the federal QTIP election. The personal representative files a 2004 federal estate tax return without claiming a QTIP election. The personal representative may file the 2004 Oregon return claiming a QTIP election because that election would have been allowed under federal law effective on December 31, 2000.

(2) If a QTIP election is taken when the first spouse dies, the estate of the surviving spouse must include the value of any property included in the QTIP election provided in IRC 2044. The Oregon and federal gross estate amount will be different for the surviving spouse's estate when a separate election is taken for Oregon only.

Example 3: Same situation as example 2. The personal representative claimed an Oregon only QTIP election on Winifred's Oregon IT-1 return. Harvey dies in 2005. Harvey's estate for Oregon will include the value of the Oregon only QTIP taken for Winifred per IRC 2044 "Certain property for which a marital deduction was previously allowed". Harvey's gross estate for Oregon and for federal will be different because of the Oregon only QTIP election taken on Winifred's Oregon IT-1 return.

(3) For purposes of the Oregon tax, the obligations of electing parties, agreements required of persons benefiting from elections, and the inclusion of property in the gross estate of a surviving beneficiary are the same as under the IRC.

Elections

This rule applies to estates of decedents who die on or after January 1, 2012.

(1) An estate may elect a larger or smaller amount, percentage or fraction of the qualified terminal interest property (QTIP) for Oregon tax purposes than was elected for federal estate tax purposes in order to reduce the Oregon estate tax liability while making full use of the federal unified credit. In addition to or in lieu of a QTIP the estate may elect to claim Oregon Special Marital Property (OSMP) to reduce the estate tax liability.

(2) The Oregon and federal taxable estate amount will be different for the surviving spouse's estate when a separate QTIP or OSMP election was taken for Oregon. In addition to the value of property for which a federal QTIP election was made, the value of property for which an Oregon QTIP or OSMP election was made is includible as part of the Oregon taxable estate to the extent that the property is subject to Oregon estate tax.

(3) The executor must identify the assets by schedule, item number, and the fixed amount, percentage or fractional interest that are included as part of the Oregon QTIP or OSMP election, either on the return or, if those assets have not been determined when the estate tax return is filed, on a statement to that effect, prepared when the assets are definitively identified.

Example 1: W dies in 2012 with a gross estate of $7,000,000. The decedent established a federal QTIP trust for the benefit of W's surviving spouse H, an Oregon resident, in an amount to result in no federal estate tax. For Oregon, the executor may elect a larger fixed amount, percentage or fractional interest QTIP or an OSMP. To achieve zero Oregon estate tax, the Oregon QTIP or OSMP election will be the difference between the federal exemption amount and the Oregon exemption amount. H was an Oregon resident at the time of H's death. Upon H's death, the assets remaining in the Oregon QTIP or OSMP trust must be included in H's gross estate.

(4) The amount to be included in the estate on the death of a surviving spouse is limited to trust property that is subject to Oregon estate tax. If a QTIP or OSMP election was taken when the first spouse dies, the property that is required to be included in the estate of the surviving spouse is dependent upon the residency status of the surviving spouse. If a resident decedent, the gross estate of a surviving spouse must include the value of any property included in the QTIP or OSMP election. If a nonresident decedent, the gross estate of a surviving spouse must include the value of any property included in the QTIP or OSMP election to the extent that the property consists of real property located in Oregon or tangible personal property located in Oregon.

Example 2: Same facts as Example 1, except H was not an Oregon resident at the time of H's death. The Oregon estate must include the value of any real property located in Oregon and any tangible personal property located in Oregon remaining in the trust; intangible property is excluded from the estate.

Due Dates and Extensions of Time to File

This rule applies to estates of decedents who die on or after January 1, 2012.

(1) An estate return shall be filed and the tax shall be paid to the Department of Revenue on the date the federal estate tax is payable or, if no federal estate tax return is required, no later than nine months following the date of death of the decedent. An estate tax return is due the day of the ninth calendar month after the decedent's death numerically corresponding to the day of the calendar month on which death occurred, except that, if there is no numerically corresponding day in such ninth month, the last day of the ninth month is the due date. For example, if the decedent dies on July 31, the estate tax return and tax payment must be made on or before April 30 of the next year.

(2) When the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, the due date for filing the return is the next succeeding day that is not Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday. For this purpose, "legal holiday" means a holiday recognized statewide in Oregon or a holiday recognized in the District of Columbia.

(3) The department may grant an extension of time to file an estate tax return, generally not to exceed six months. If an estate has been granted an extension of time to file a federal estate tax return, the department will accept that as an approved extension to file the Oregon estate tax return. The executor must submit a copy of the federal extension request with the Oregon return when filed. If the estate does not need a federal extension, the executor may request an extension for Oregon only by submitting a federal extension form to the department on or before the due date of the Oregon estate tax return and writing "Oregon Only" on the top of the federal form.

(4) If the Internal Revenue Service denies the extension request, but grants a period of time from the date of denial in which to file the federal return without imposition of delinquency charges, the department will not impose penalties for late filing if the Oregon return is received by the department within one month from the Internal Revenue Service's date by which the federal return must be filed with no imposition of delinquency charges. The executor must submit a copy of the federal extension request denial with the Oregon return when filed.

(5) An extension of time to file, without an approved extension of time to pay, does not relieve the estate from the five percent penalty for failure to pay the tax on or before the original due date and interest accrues during the extension period. See OAR 150-118.260 for information regarding interest and penalty. [Publications: Publications referenced are available from the agency.]

Property Values and Appraisals

This rule applies to estates of decedents who die on or after January 1, 2012.

(1) The fair market value of an estate's property must be determined as of the date of death or six months following the date of death if the alternate valuation method is elected. The property value reported on the estate tax return must be substantiated. The executor is required to explain how the value was determined and must attach copies of any appraisals used to value property included on the return. If there was no appraisal, the executor must attach a statement to the return explaining how the value was determined. If the determination of value is based on a county property tax statement, the determination of value must be supported by other evidence of value.

(2) A fee appraisal represents both common and best practice for determination of the value for most real and personal property but may not always be necessary. For example, where an Oregon Special Marital Property election has been made, the value of the asset(s) included within the election may not have an impact upon the estate tax.

150-118.140
Estate Tax Credit for Natural Resource Property

Part I of this rule applies to estates of decedents who die on or after January 1, 2012. For the user's convenience, Part II of the rule contains provisions applicable to estates of decedents who die before January 1, 2012.

Part I (applies to estates of decedents who die on or after January 1, 2012)

(1) Definitions. The following definitions apply for purposes of ORS 118.140 and Part I of this rule:

(a) "Active Management" is defined by Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 2032A(e)(12) to mean the making of the management decisions of a business (other than the daily operating decisions).

(b) "Ancestor" means a person from whom the decedent is directly descended, such as a parent, grandparent, or great-grandparent. The term does not include aunts, uncles, or cousins.

(c) "Cash equivalents" means accounts receivable, inventory, marketable securities, capital or sinking funds, prepaid expenses and other assets that are spent, maintained, used or available for use, in the operation of a farm business, forestry business, or fishing business.

(d) "Disposition" means to sell, exchange, transfer, convey, or otherwise dispose of natural resource property that was used to compute the natural resource property credit, if such disposition results in the property no longer qualifying for the credit.

(e) "Domestic partner" means an individual who has entered into a domestic partnership as defined in ORS 106.310. Per the general applicability provision of ORS 106.340 "spouse" as used in these rules includes domestic partner.

(f) "Family member" means a member of the family as defined in IRC section 2032A, and for purposes of ORS 118.140 includes:

(A) An ancestor of the decedent;

(B) The spouse of the decedent;

(C) A lineal descendant of the decedent or of the decedent's spouse;

(D) A lineal descendant of a parent of the decedent; or

(E) The spouse of any lineal descendant described in paragraph (C) or (D). For purposes of the preceding sentence, a legally adopted child of an individual is a lineal descendant of the adoptive parent(s).

(g) "Lineal descendant" means a person in a direct line of descent from the decedent, such as a child, grandchild or great-grandchild.

(h) "Lineal descendant of a parent of the decedent" means a decedent's siblings, children and grandchildren of those siblings, and any other person in a direct line of descent from the decedent's siblings.

(2) Material participation by a Family Member. In order to qualify under ORS 118.140(8), at least one family member must materially participate in the business after the transfer.

(a) Material participation is a factual determination, and the types of activities which will support such a finding will vary. No single factor is determinative.

(b) Actual employment of the family member on a substantially full-time basis (35 hours a week or more) or to any lesser extent necessary personally to manage fully the farm or business in which the real property to be valued under section 2032A is used constitutes material participation.

(c) Payment of self-employment tax for employment with respect to the farm business, forestry business or fishing business is not conclusive as to the presence of material participation, and the requirement can be met even though no self-employment tax is payable by the family member with respect to income derived from the business.

(d) As provided by section 2032A of the Internal Revenue Code, active management shall be treated as material participation.

(e) The rules for determining material participation are illustrated by the examples found in CFR 20.2032A-3(g).

(f) Examples of active management decisions that can be used to demonstrate material participation include the following: inspecting growing crops, animals, forests, or equipment; reviewing and approving annual crop plans in advance of planting; making a substantial number of the management decisions of the business operation; approving expenditures for other than nominal operating expenses in advance of the time the amounts are expended; deciding what crops to plant or how many cattle to raise; determining what fields to leave fallow; determining where and when to market crops and other business products; determining how to finance business operations; and determining what capital expenditures the trade or business should make.

(3) If a transferee disposes of property resulting in additional tax as described in ORS 118.140(9)(a), the transferee must file a report with the department and pay the additional tax. The report may be made by filing a copy of the form described in ORS 118.140(10), identifying the asset or assets that no longer qualify for the credit, and including a calculation of the additional tax as described in ORS 118.140(9)(e). The report and payment of the tax are due within six months of the disposition. Interest and penalties under ORS 118.260 apply if the report is not filed and tax is not paid on or before the due date prescribed in ORS 118.140(9)(e).

Part II (applies to estates of decedents who die before January 1, 2012)
Inheritance Tax Credit for Natural Resource or Commercial Fishing Property

(4) Definitions. The following definitions apply for purposes of ORS 118.140 and this rule:

(a) "Active Management" is defined by Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 2032A(e)(12) and means the making of the management decisions of a business (other than the daily operating decisions). Treasury Regulations 20.2032A-3(e) through (g) provide additional examples of active management.

(b) "Adjusted gross estate" means the value of the gross estate reduced by the sum of the amounts allowable as a deduction under either IRC sections 2053 or 2054, or both. The amount is determined on the basis of the facts and circumstances in existence on the date (including extensions) for filing the return of tax imposed by chapter 118 (or, if earlier, the date on which the return is filed).

(c) "Cessation of qualified use" means the natural resource property or fishing business property use has changed and the property no longer qualifies as natural resource property or fishing business property.

(d) "Current assets" means the sum of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, inventory, marketable securities, prepaid expenses and other assets of the qualified natural resource business that can be converted to cash within one year. Current assets do not include assets not used in the qualified natural resource business, long-term assets such as capital or sinking funds, or personal assets.

(e) "Current liabilities" means the sum of all money owed to the qualified natural resource business that is required to be paid within one year.

(f) "Disposition of property" means to sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of natural resource property or fishing business property that was used to compute the natural resource credit, if such disposition results in the property no longer qualifying for the credit.

(g) "Domestic partner" means an individual who has entered into a domestic partnership as defined in the Oregon Family Fairness Act, ORS 106.300 to 106.340.

(h) "Member of family" means, with respect to a decedent:

(A) An ancestor of the decedent;

(B) The spouse or domestic partner of the decedent;

(C) A lineal descendant of the decedent, of the decedent's spouse or domestic partner, or of a parent of the decedent, or

(D) The spouse or domestic partner of any lineal descendant described in paragraph (C). For purposes of the preceding sentence, a legally adopted child of an individual is treated as the child of such individual by blood.

(i) "Working capital" means current assets less current liabilities.

(j) "Working capital of a farm, natural resource-based business or fishing business" means working capital in an amount that represents the funds needed to operate the business annually.

(5) Federal Elections Binding for Oregon. Because ORS 118.007 ties Oregon inheritance tax law to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) as it existed on December 31, 2000, elections that were available on December 31, 2000, and that are made for federal estate tax purposes are binding for Oregon inheritance tax purposes unless specifically provided otherwise by statute or rule. Property that is excluded from the estate due to claiming a marital deduction under IRC ?2056 cannot be included in the Oregon estate in order to claim a tax credit under this section.

Example 1: Edwina passed away on July 1, 2007; her husband survives her. The value of her gross estate is $8,000,000, made up entirely of natural resource property. For federal estate tax purposes, the estate elects a marital deduction of $6,000,000. The unified credit offsets tax otherwise due on the balance of the estate, $2,000,000, and there is no federal tax due. For Oregon purposes, the $6,000,000 marital deduction election applies. In addition, the estate may elect to establish a Special Oregon Marital property trust as provided in ORS 118.016 to shelter $1,000,000 of the value of the estate (the difference between the $1,000,000 Oregon taxable estate and the $2,000,000 federal taxable estate). Alternatively, the estate may use any portion of the $2,000,000 in value to claim a natural resource credit against tax imposed on the estate.

(6) Active Management by a Member of Family. If natural resource property or a commercial fishing business is owned indirectly by the decedent or a member of the family, the following requirements must be met to qualify for a credit under ORS 118.140:

(a) At least one member of the family must engage in active management of the natural resource property or commercial fishing business after the transfer.

(A) The determination of whether active management occurs is factual, and the requirement can be met even though no self-employment tax is payable by the member of the family with respect to income derived from the farm or other trade or business operation.

(B) Among the farming activities, various combinations of which constitute active management, are inspecting growing crops, reviewing and approving annual crop plans in advance of planting, making a substantial number of the management decisions of the business operation, and approving expenditures for other than nominal operating expenses in advance of the time the amounts are expended.

(C) Examples of active management decisions are what crops to plant or how many cattle to raise, what fields to leave fallow, where and when to market crops and other business products, how to finance business operations, and what capital expenditures the trade or business should make.

(b) An otherwise qualifying natural resource property or commercial fishing business qualifies for the credit without active management if it is the subject of a net cash lease or percentage lease from the decedent or a member of the decedent's family.

(c) The property also qualifies for the credit if it is held in trust for a member of the family or if the property is transferred directly to a member of the family.

(d) If an indirect interest is held in trust for a member of the family, it qualifies as long as a member of the family is engaged in the active management of the business.

(e) The trustee does not have to be engaged in active management if these requirements are met.

(7) Prior Use Requirement.

(a) An estate that otherwise qualifies for the commercial fishing business property credit is not required to meet the aggregate use period of five out of eight years ending on the date of the decedent's death.

(b) Active management of the natural resource property is not a requirement prior to death.

Example 2: Kelly died on April 3, 2007. Kelly owned and operated Kelly's Fishing Boat business starting in February 2005. The estate files the tax return with the department on June 17, 2008, claiming the commercial fishing business credit, and pays the inheritance tax due. The estate may claim the commercial fishing business credit providing all other requirements to qualify for the credit are met.

(8) Future Use Requirement. In order for the estate to meet the requirements of ORS 118.140(7)(a) the following apply.

(a) Cash and like cash assets that are included in the credit calculation as working capital must be spent on the operation of the business either during the year of death or any of the eight calendar years following the decedent's death. Current assets remaining unspent on January 1 of the ninth calendar year following the decedent's death are subject to recapture of tax under ORS 118.140(7)(a).

(b) Payment of federal estate taxes or state inheritance taxes is not considered to be an expense incurred in operation of the natural resource business. Thus, use of cash or other assets to pay those taxes results in recapture of the credit to the extent the cash or asset was used as the basis for the credit.

Example 3: The Smith estate claimed a credit in 2007 based on farming assets worth $1,000,000. In 2009, the estate sold a combine for $100,000 to pay additional federal estate tax resulting from an audit. Sale of the combine results in recapture of the tax credit because the combine was not used in the farming business for 5 of the 8 years following the decedent's death.

(9) Claiming a Partial Credit. In determining whether the value of the credit property is at least 50 percent of the total estate, all of the eligible property must be considered, regardless of an election to claim only a partial credit under ORS 118.140(2)(b)(C).

(10) Working Capital. The determination of whether an amount qualifies as "working capital of a farm, natural resource-based business or fishing business" is based on the facts and circumstances existing at the decedent's death. However, the department will presume that working capital that does not exceed the highest amount of working capital present at any time during the five years prior to the year of the date of death qualifies as "working capital of a farm, natural resource-based business or fishing business." This presumption may be overcome by the facts in a particular case, including, but not limited to, the growth rate of the business, the length of the business cycle or the proximity of the date of death to the harvest date.

(11) Interest and Penalty. The department will not charge penalty or interest if an estate claims a natural resource property or commercial fishing business property credit or if the estate is directly affected by the changes made to ORS 118.140 by chapter 28, Oregon Laws 2008 and the return is filed and tax is paid before September 1, 2008. This provision applies to estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2007, and before December 1, 2007.

Example 4: John died on June 23, 2007. The regular due date of the inheritance tax return is March 23, 2008. The estate files the return with the department on August 29, 2008, claiming the natural resource credit, and pays the inheritance tax due. Because the return is filed and the tax is paid before September 1, 2008, the interest and penalty which would otherwise result from late filing and late payment is cancelled.

(12) Disposition or Disqualified Property. Upon the disposition or cessation of use of natural resource property or fishing business property for which the estate claimed a natural resource credit, additional inheritance tax becomes due. The additional inheritance tax is due and payable within six months after the date of the disposition or cessation of use occurs and must be reported on a form prescribed by the department.

(13) Interest and penalties under ORS 118.260 apply for a failure to file the return or failure to pay the tax on or before the due date prescribed in section (9).

(1) If the estate is required to file a federal estate tax return, the executor must include a complete copy of the federal return, schedules, and supporting documents with the Oregon estate tax return.

Inheritance Tax Return; Extension of Time to File

(1) This rule applies to estates of decedents who die on or after January 1, 2003 and before January 1, 2012.

(2) The executor shall, not more than nine months after the date of the decedent's death, file with the department an inheritance tax return, Form IT-1. A complete copy of the federal estate tax return and schedules must be filed with the Oregon Form IT-1. If the estate is not required to file a federal estate tax return, the executor must prepare a federal estate tax return and schedules reflecting federal estate tax law in effect December 31, 2000 and file that return and schedules with the Oregon inheritance tax return.

(3) If the executor cannot file a return within nine months, the department may allow additional time, usually not to exceed six months, to file the return. A copy of the federal extension request must be attached to the front of the Oregon return when filed and will serve as evidence of a granted extension by the department.

(4) If the Internal Revenue Service denies the extension request, but grants a period of time from the date of denial in which to file the federal return without imposition of delinquency charges, the department will not impose delinquency charges if the Oregon return is received by the department within one month from the last date on which the Internal Revenue Service would accept the federal return without imposition of delinquency charges. A copy of the denied extension request must be attached to the front of the Oregon return at the time of filing.

(5) An extension of time to file does not relieve the estate from the five percent penalty for failure to pay the tax on or before the original due date. Interest accrues during the extension period.

Extension of Time to Pay Tax

(1) An executor may request an extension of time to pay the estate tax. The extension request must be in writing and submitted to the department by the date the estate return is due, including extensions of time to file, or 30 days from the date shown on a notice of deficiency. Collateral determined acceptable by the department must be secured for payment of the estate tax. An extension to pay tax does not eliminate penalties for late filing of a return, and interest continues to accrue on unpaid tax at the rate provided in OAR 150-305.220(1). See OAR 150-118.260.

(a) If a federal extension of time to pay has been obtained and acceptable collateral is secured for payment of the Oregon estate tax, the department will grant an extension to pay the Oregon estate tax for the same period of time as an approved federal extension. The executor must submit the Oregon extension request in writing and the estate must secure acceptable collateral for payment of the Oregon estate tax. A copy of the accepted federal extension must be submitted with the Oregon return.

(b) If reasonable cause exists and acceptable collateral is provided to the department, the department may grant an extension of time for payment of estate tax for up to 14 years, or, in the case of an estate tax deficiency, for a period of up to four years. If a federal extension of time to pay federal estate tax has been granted, the department may extend additional time for the payment of Oregon estate tax for up to 14 years if reasonable cause exists and collateral acceptable to the department is provided.

(2) In general, reasonable cause exists if:

(a) The estate can pay the tax only by disposing of property for less than market value or by borrowing money at a rate in excess of the mortgage money market (on terms that would inflict loss on the estate), or

(b) The gross taxable estate includes a beneficial interest in one or more closely held businesses whose value exceeds either 35 percent of the gross taxable estate or 50 percent of the net taxable estate. For purposes of this rule:

(A) "Interest in a closely held business" means, as determined immediately before the decedent's death, an interest that was:

(i) An interest as a proprietor in a trade or business carried on as a proprietorship;

(ii) An interest as a partner in a partnership carrying on a trade or business, if the gross taxable estate includes 20 percent or more of the total capital interest in that partnership, or the partnership had 15 or fewer partners;

(iii) Stock in a corporation carrying on a trade or business, if 20 percent or more of the voting stock of such corporation is included in the gross taxable estate, or such corporation had 15 or fewer shareholders. Stock, or a partnership interest, that is held by a husband and wife as community property or as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety, or tenants in common, is treated as owned by one shareholder or one partner, whichever is applicable.

(B) "Trade or business" does not include an investment or holding company;

(C) An extension only applies to the portion of tax attributable to the closely held business. To determine the portion of tax attributable to the closely held business, divide the value of the interest in the closely held business by the taxable estate amount, and multiply that ratio by the computed net tax.

Example 1: A's estate assets included a retail store valued at $900,000 that had been operated by the decedent. Listed securities, cash, a family residence and miscellaneous personal effects made up the balance. The taxable estate was $1,300,000. The department may grant an extension for the payment of tax on the portion attributable to the value of the store; i.e. $900,000 divided by $1,300,000 multiplied by tax owed.
Example 2: B's taxable estate of $1,400,000 included $950,000 of stock in a closely held corporation. The balance of the property was listed securities and personal effects. The corporation was a holding company with the majority of corporate assets invested in real estate. The estate could not show that money could only be borrowed on terms that would inflict loss upon the estate. The department will not grant an extension of time to pay the tax.
Example 3: C's taxable estate of $2,100,000 included farm land valued at $1,050,000. The balance of the estate was real property, listed securities, cash and personal effects. The estate leased the farm land for cash rent, which is considered an investment in real property and not a trade or business; the department will not grant an extension for payment of tax.
Example 4: D's taxable estate of $1,200,000 included a tree farm valued at $800,000. The farm consisted of all pre-merchantable timber. The estate demonstrated that the farm could only be sold at a sacrifice price in a depressed market and that money could only be borrowed on terms that would inflict loss upon the estate. The department may grant an extension for payment of the tax that is attributable to the tree farm's value of $800,000.

(3) The department generally will accept the following as collateral for purposes of extending the date for payment of tax:

(a) A first mortgage or trust deed on real property with a value at least double the amount of the tax paid on extension;

(b) A surety bond executed by a corporation licensed to do business in the State of Oregon. The bond must be at least double the amount of the tax paid on extension and must be renewed every five years.

(4) Collateral must be received within 60 days from the date the estate return is due, including extensions of time to file, or within 60 days from the date the estate return is filed, whichever is earlier.

(5) The executor must make payments in at least equal annual installments for the tax paid on extension, plus accrued interest. The department may cancel an extension of time to pay and collect the tax plus interest if any installment is not paid on or before its due date.

(6) The department may cancel an extension of time to pay and collect the tax plus interest if the value of the interest in a closely held business is reduced by one-third or more through sale, exchange or other disposition, or through aggregate withdrawals of money or other property.

Estate Tax Receipt

A receipt issued by the department as required by ORS 118.250 to an executor, trustee or other payor is not a final determination of the estate tax liability; the department may determine that an estate owes additional tax under ORS 118.010.

Penalties and Interest

(1) Penalties

(a) For purposes of determining the five percent penalty under ORS 118.260(1) or the 20 percent penalty under ORS 118.260(2), the tax required to be shown on the return is reduced by the amount of any tax that is paid on or before the due date of the return, excluding extensions.

(b) If an estate fails to file a return by the due date, including extensions, and also fails to pay the tax by the due date, only one five percent delinquency penalty will be added.

(c) ORS 305.145 and the rules implementing that statute apply to penalties imposed under ORS 118.260 and requests for waiver of penalty. The one-time penalty waiver provision provided by OAR 150-305.145(4) does not apply to penalties imposed under chapter 118.

(2) Interest on Refunds and Deficiencies

(a) A refund of an overpayment of estate tax accrues interest at the rates provided in OAR 150-305.220(2).

(b) A deficiency in tax accrues interest at the rates provided in OAR 150-305.220(1).

(c) For the estates of decedents who die on or after January 1, 2012, if an estate has been granted an extension to pay tax under ORS 118.225, or if a beneficiary has elected to defer payment of tax under ORS 118.300, interest accrues at the rates provided in OAR 150-305.220(1).

(d) Except as provided in (2)(c), if the estate tax is not paid within 60 days of assessment, the annual interest rates provided in OAR 150-305.220(1) are increased by four percentage points pursuant to ORS 305.222.

Refund of Excess Payment

This rule applies to estates of decedents who die before January 1, 2012. Where payment exceeds the amount of tax shown by the return or as determined by audit of the return, the excess shall be refunded without application from the taxpayer. The department does not have authority to pay interest on the refund for interest periods beginning prior to May 31, 1982.

Application for Determination of Estate Tax and Discharge from Personal Liability

(1) The executor may apply to the department for a determination of tax due and discharge from personal liability of estate tax.

(2) The written application must include the following information:

(a) The name and date of death of the decedent;

(b) The decedent's Social Security Number;

(c) If the executor applies before filing the estate tax return, a copy of the decedent's will, the decedent's trust, or other document indicating the person is authorized to act on behalf of the estate.

(3) The discharge does not apply to tax liability resulting from assets of the decedent's estate that are still in the possession or control of the executor.

(1) A beneficiary electing to defer payment of the tax under ORS 118.300 must, within nine months of the decedent's death, file with the Director a signed statement indicating that the person has not come into actual possession or enjoyment of the property.

(a) A beneficiary of real property, as defined in ORS 111.005(28), is not required to provide a bond.

(b) A beneficiary of personal property, as defined in ORS 111.005(25), must give a bond to the State of Oregon in double the amount of the tax, with such sureties as the Director may approve, conditioned for the payment of the tax and accrued interest at such time and period as the beneficiary comes into actual possession or enjoyment of the property.

(2) The department will accept a bond:

(a) In a form approved by the Director and executed by a company licensed to issue surety insurance by the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services, Insurance Division;

(b) Executed by a corporate surety, other than a surety company, provided such corporate surety establishes that it is within its corporate powers to act as surety for another individual, partnership, association, or corporation; or

(c) Executed by two or more individual sureties meeting the requirements of subsection (2)(d) that is secured by a:

(A) A mortgage on real or personal property;

(C) A United States postal, bank, or express money order;

(D) Corporate bonds or stocks, or by bonds issued by the State of Oregon, or by a political subdivision of this state; or

(E) Any other collateral acceptable to the Director.

(d) Each surety that executes a bond under subsection (2)(c) must:

(A) Have property, including Oregon real property, that is subject to execution and with a current market value net of all encumbrances that is at least equal to the penalty of the bond;

(B) Agree to not encumber the secured property while the bond continues in effect;

(C) Annually file an affidavit with the department as to the adequacy of the security.

(3) A beneficiary must file a return with the Director within six months of the date the person comes into actual possession or enjoyment of the property in question.

Relief for Subsequent Tax Years

(1) ORS 305.285 provides an additional procedural remedy for a taxpayer. It precludes the need for filing a protective petition during the pendency of petition for a previous year. While ORS 305.285 extends the period for filing petition it does not automatically entitle the taxpayer to the substantive relief requested.

(2) The taxpayer shall make his or her request for relief in a subsequent year to the department on or before December 15 of the year in which the final determination was made, or within six months of the mailing date of the final determination, whichever is later. Subsequent year is defined as any tax year following the tax year that is the subject of the final determination.

(3) The request shall state the name of the taxpayer, the property's account number and the county in which it is located, the year or years for which relief is requested, and the mailing date of the final determination. For purposes of this section, a final determination includes only those cases where there has been a decision on the merits (including stipulations). A copy of this final determination shall be attached to the request.

Statewide Base Map System and the Oregon Land Information System Advisory Committee Role, Membership and Meetings

(1) The department is responsible to establish and deliver the Oregon Map (ORMAP) project pursuant to ORS 306.132 and 306.135. The ORMAP project creates an accessible statewide base map system to assist with and improve the administration of Oregon's property tax system.

(2) The role of the Oregon Land Information System (OLIS) Advisory Committee is to provide advice and support to the department in the development and implementation of ORMAP's administrative and technical needs. The committee has the authority to submit recommendations to the department concerning ORMAP and related project proposals. The advice and support that the committee provides to the department includes, but is not limited to:

(a) Assisting the department in developing the statewide goals and priorities for ORMAP.

(b) Assisting and providing advice to the department in setting statewide mapping and Geographical Information System (GIS) standards for ORMAP.

(c) Providing review of the Oregon Land Information System Fund and giving assistance in the development of fair and equitable fund distribution processes and policies for ORMAP projects.

(d) Support by communicating ORMAP information and goals to citizens and interested groups within the state and local communities.

(3) The Advisory Committee is composed of not more than 15 individuals appointed by the department's director. Members of the committee include ORMAP stakeholders from private industry, and federal, state, or local government leaders with an interest in the success of the project.

(a) Committee members serve at the pleasure of the director. Each Advisory Committee member serves a two-year term with an opportunity to continue for multiple terms. Committee member terms are staggered to allow for sufficient committee membership coverage; terms begin July 1 and end June 30.

(b) In the event of a vacancy, the director appoints another member to serve the duration of the term.

(c) Upon expiration of a term, a committee member may serve until the appointment of a successor. Members reaching the end of their two-year term may remain on the committee, if they request and receive approval from the director.

(d) Advisory Committee members serve without compensation for travel or per diem.

(4) The Advisory Committee meetings must adhere to the Oregon Public Meetings Laws, ORS 192.610–192.690.

(a) The Advisory Committee meets at the request of the department to review ORMAP policies, proposals, funding, and practices.

(b) A department employee designated by the director, presides as the Advisory Committee chair at all meetings.

(c) Advisory Committee members and any other organization or person who expresses interest in Advisory Committee meetings will receive agendas and study notes prepared by the department's ORMAP staff before the meeting date.

(d) Advisory Committee members or other interested parties with additional agenda items must request an agenda revision from the ORMAP staff to add the item and receive meeting time in which to present the item.

(e) Decisions are made by a consensus of the committee members.

(5) After each funding cycle, the department will post project update information to the publicly-accessible ORMAP website.

Continuing Education Requirements for Registered Appraisers, Waiver of those Requirements, and Revocation of Registrations

(1) Registered appraisers in Oregon must participate in a continuing education program related to technical competency. To maintain their registration, appraisers must meet the continuing education requirements outlined in this rule. The requirements of this rule apply to any person who wishes to maintain registration, without regard to the person's place of employment.

(2) Definitions:

(a) For the purposes of this rule, a "registered appraiser" is a person who has satisfied the requirements of ORS 308.010 relating to employment or has successfully completed an appraiser skills examination.

(b) "Continuing education credits" are units of training that are approved by the department in subjects related to assessment and taxation. Credits are equal to the number of hours in a course or presentation the department approves for continuing education.

(A) Technical credits are awarded for training in assessment and taxation subjects. Topics eligible for technical credit include, but are not limited to: mass appraisal, tax rate calculation, ratio studies, personal property, farm or forest uses, board of property tax appeals, property tax exemptions and special assessments and computer applications.

(B) Instructor credits are awarded for course development and presentation. The course instructor will receive instructor credits for the first training session equal to the number of hours the department approved for continuing education for that training session. For each subsequent training session on the same subject, the course trainer will receive one-half hour of instructor credit for each hour of department approved continuing education credit.

(3) Required Credit Hours

(a) Registered appraisers must accumulate 30 credit hours of continuing education every two calendar years following registration. Registered appraisers with less than three years appraisal experience with either the Department of Revenue or an Oregon county assessor's office or a combination of the two must accumulate 60 credit hours of continuing education credits within the first two calendar years following their registration.

(b) In the case of registered appraisers employed by the county, the assessor annually will certify on forms provided by the Department of Revenue a list of those registered appraisers who have met the continuing education requirements. In the case of registered appraisers employed by the State of Oregon, the direct supervisor of those employees annually will certify on forms provided by the Department of Revenue a list of those registered appraisers who have met the continuing education requirements. In the case of registered appraisers not employed by the county assessor or the State of Oregon, individuals annually will self-certify on a form provided by the Department of Revenue as to the satisfactory completion of continuing education requirements.

(c) The Department of Revenue will maintain a database of training it provides to registered appraisers. That database may be supplemented by records provided by the registered appraiser as to qualifying appraisal training received from sources other than the Department of Revenue.

(d) The department will provide sufficient training programs to allow registered appraisers to meet continuing education credit requirements. Credit hours are approved for appraisal-related courses offered by the following organizations:

(A) Department of Revenue;

(B) International Association of Assessing Officials (IAAO);

(C) American Society of Appraisers (ASA);

(D) The Appraisal Institute.

(e) The department will approve credit hours provided through training given by other entities, individuals or by the county if it determines that the content of the training meets the definition for technical credits provided in this rule.

(4) Waiver of Requirement for Continuing Education Credits

(a) Prior to March 31 of the first year of any registered appraiser's current certification period, either the registered appraiser or the appraiser's employer on behalf of the appraiser may submit a request to the Department of Revenue for waiver of the continuing education requirements to be certified for the current two-year certification period. A request for waiver must be in writing and signed by the requestor. If it is a waiver for a registered appraiser employed by the county, the assessor must approve it. For registered appraisers employed by the Department of Revenue, the appraiser's immediate supervisor must approve the request for waiver.

(b) The following are conditions for which the department may grant a waiver:

(A) Military service that prevents the completion of continuing education requirements.

(B) Disability or illness that prevents the completion of continuing education requirements.

(C) Accident or other uncontrollable events that prevent the completion of continuing education requirements.

(D) Limited duration assignments within the Department of Revenue but outside the Property Tax Division for Department of Revenue appraisers.

(E) Formal retirement from regular employment, whether or not the appraiser is working on a temporary or part-time basis in an appraisal capacity.

(F) Absence from the state that prevents completion of continuing education requirements.

(c) Waivers under this subsection for the conditions in subparagraphs (A) through (C) of paragraph (b) above may be allowed indefinitely as long as the condition continues. However waivers under subparagraphs (A) through (C) above will not be granted for more than a single two-year certification period if the appraiser is also practicing in an appraisal capacity, either independently or under the employ of an individual, entity, or public employer.

(d) Waivers under this subsection may be granted for no more than a single two-year certification period for the conditions in subparagraphs (D) through (F) above.

(5) Validation of Accumulated Credits

(a) Prior to January 1 each year registered appraisers must provide the department with a statement that they have met their education requirement. The statement must be made on a form provided by the department.

(b) Prior to February 1 of each year the department will notify the Human Resource Services Division of the Department of Administrative Services of:

(A) Those individuals who have met the continuing education requirements of ORS 308.010 and this rule or

(B) Have been granted a waiver of the requirements.

(6) Revocation of Appraiser Registration The Human Resource Services Division of the Department of Administrative Services:

(a) May revoke appraiser registration under ORS 308.010(1) for fraud or deceit in appraising or in the securing of a certificate or for incompetence.

(b) Will revoke appraiser registration under ORS 308.010(4)(d) for failing to submit satisfactory evidence to the department that the registered appraiser has met the continuing education requirement.

Board of Property Tax Appeals (BOPTA) Defective and Amended Petition Process

For purposes of this rule, "petitioner" is used as defined in OAR 150-309.100(3)-(C).

(1) The clerk of BOPTA will review the filed petitions for compliance with OAR 150-309.100(3)-(A).

(2) If the petition is defective, the clerk will provide written notice to the petitioner unless a representative is named on the petition. If a representative is named on the petition, the clerk will provide written notice to the petitioner's representative. The notice may be personally delivered or mailed to the mailing address on the petition. If the petitioner's representative has not provided a mailing address and the notice cannot be personally delivered, the clerk will provide notice of the defective petition to the petitioner.

(3) The notice must include the following information:

(a) The nature of the defect,

(b) The time allowed by section (4) or section (6) of this rule to correct the defect, and

(c) A statement that failure to correct the defect within the time allowed will result in dismissal of the appeal without further notice.

(4) If the board clerk provides notice of a defective petition by mailing or personal delivery more than 20 days before the last day of the board session described in ORS 309.026, the petitioner or petitioner's representative has 20 days from the date the notice of defective petition was mailed or personally delivered, or until the last day for filing a petition with BOPTA, whichever is later, to correct the defect. Time is computed from the first day following the date the written notice was mailed or personally delivered and includes the last day unless the last day falls on a legal holiday, Saturday, or Sunday. The time is then extended to the next working day. Corrected petitions may be faxed to the county clerk and will be considered timely filed under the guidelines listed in Section (4) of OAR 150-309.100(2)-(A).

(5) If the board clerk provides notice of a defective petition by mailing or personal delivery within 20 days of the last day of the board session described in ORS 309.026, the board clerk may give the notice described in section (3) of this rule by any practical means such as telephone, fax, or letter. In this circumstance, the petitioner or petitioner's representative has until 3:00 p.m. of the last day of the board session to file an amended petition correcting the defect. However, if the petitioner or petitioner's representative appears at the hearing, all corrections must be made at that time.

(6) The board must dismiss the petition as defective if the petitioner or petitioner's representative does not correct the petition within the time periods prescribed in Sections (4) and (6) of this rule.

(7) In addition to amending a petition to comply with OAR 150-309.100(3)-(A) under (4) above, any petition may be amended up to and including the time of the hearing for the following reasons:

(a) To add or delete land or improvements that are components of the account originally appealed.

(b) To add a separate account that together with the original account appealed creates a "parcel" within the meaning of OAR 150-308A.256(1)(a). A petition may not be amended to include a separate account that is not part of an identified parcel.

(c) To add a manufactured structure account that is sited on the original account under appeal.

(d) To designate or change an authorized representative.

(e) To change the value requested.

150-457.440(9)
Urban Renewal Certification, Calculation and Distribution

(1) Definitions: For purposes of this rule:

(a) "Consolidated billing tax rate" means:

(A) For reduced rate plans, the total of all taxing district billing tax rates used to extend taxes, after any adjustments to reflect tax offsets, but does not include:

(i) Any urban renewal special levy rate;

(ii) Any local option tax rate if the tax was approved by the voters after October 6, 2001;

(iii) Any exempt bonded indebtedness tax rate (except for Portland Police and Fire Pension and Disability bonds, if so issued) approved by the voters after October 6, 2001; or

(iv) The portion of Portland Public School District's permanent rate levy described in OAR 150-457.440(2) section (13) that the district notifies the assessor to exempt from division of tax.

(B)(i) For standard rate plans, the total of all taxing district billing tax rates used to extend taxes, after any adjustments to reflect tax offsets, but does not include any urban renewal special levy rate or rates of new local option taxes.

(ii) Notwithstanding paragraph (1)(a)(B)(i), if an urban renewal agency filed an impairment certificate under ORS 457.445 with respect to a standard rate plan, the rates of new local option taxes that were identified in the impairment certificate must be included in the total.

(b) "Division of tax" means:

(A) For purposes of determining the amount of division of tax to use in tax calculation, the amount calculated by multiplying the tax rate for each taxing district levy in a code area by the increment value used in that code area and summing the product for all code areas in the plan area. Only those taxing district tax rates that are part of the consolidated billing tax rate for that plan are used for this calculation.

(B) For purposes of computing the estimate of the division of tax portion of the maximum authority for existing plans, the amount calculated by multiplying the consolidated billing tax rate for the code area by the increment value used in the code area and summing the product for all code areas in the plan. Only those taxing district tax rates that are part of the consolidated billing tax rate are used for this calculation.

(c) "Division of tax rate" means the rate determined for each taxing district levy within the consolidated billing tax rate for an urban renewal plan. This rate is calculated by dividing the division of tax amount by the taxable assessed value of any shared property for that district. This is the rate that is multiplied by the taxable assessed value of any shared property of the district to determine the amount of division of tax extended before compression on that property from that levy for that plan.

(d) "Existing plan" means an urban renewal plan that provides for a division of ad valorem property taxes as described under ORS 457.420 to 457.460, adopted by ordinance before December 6, 1996, that meets the conditions of 457.010(4).

(e) "Frozen value" means:

(A) The assessed value of the property in an urban renewal plan area at the plan's inception, as certified by the assessor under ORS 457.430 and OAR 150-457.430; or

(B) The value stated by the agency in the notice to the assessor pursuant to ORS 457.455(2).

(f) "Increment value" means the positive value obtained by subtracting the frozen value in a plan area from the total assessed value in a plan area, calculated code area by code area. Negative results are disregarded, resulting in the code area having zero increment value.

(g) "Increment value used" means:

(A) For an Option Three existing plan, that portion of the increment value in the plan area necessary to raise the amount of division of tax stated in the ordinance selecting Option Three that was adopted by the urban renewal agency under ORS 457.435, or a lesser amount of increment value specified by the agency under paragraph (B) of this subsection.

(B) For plans for which the urban renewal agency specifies, pursuant to ORS 457.455(1) or 457.470, an amount of assessed value less than the full increment amount that is available, the amount of increment value specified. The assessor must apportion to the code areas in the plan area the amount of increment specified by the agency.

(C) For all other plans "increment value used" means "increment value."

(h) "Maximum authority" means the limitation on the amount of revenue to be raised for the year for an existing plan area, as described in ORS 457.435(3). Only plans that are existing plans have a maximum authority amount. The maximum authority is adjusted each year to reflect growth in assessed value within the plan area as provided in ORS 457.435(3)(b).

(i) "New local option tax" means a local option tax described in ORS 457.445(5) that is approved by taxing district electors after January 1, 2013.

(j) "Rate computation value" means the total assessed value in an ad valorem taxing district, plus the value of Fish and Wildlife properties and of Non-Profit Housing properties, minus urban renewal increment value used.

(k) "Reduced rate plan" means any urban renewal plan that is:

(A) Adopted before December 6, 1996, designated as an existing plan, and also designated as an Option One plan;

(B) Adopted before December 6, 1996, was an existing plan designated as an Option One plan on October 6, 2001, and was substantially amended as described in ORS 457.085(2)(i)(A) or (B) on or after October 6, 2001;

(C) Adopted on or after October 6, 2001; or

(D) Adopted before December 5, 1996, and the governing body of the city or county that adopted the plan irrevocably elects to change the plan from being a standard rate plan to a reduced rate plan, pursuant to ORS 457.445(4), and provides the assessor by July 15 of the first tax year it is effective, a copy of the resolution or ordinance making the election.

(l) "Shared property" is property that is both within a taxing district that overlaps an urban renewal plan area, and within the boundaries of a municipality that activated an urban renewal agency. It also includes any area of a plan that extends beyond the boundaries of the activating municipality for that plan.

(m) "Standard rate plan" means an urban renewal plan that is not a reduced rate plan.

(2) Urban renewal agencies making use of tax increment financing must certify their tax increment financing request to the county assessor under ORS 310.060 and pursuant to OAR 150-457.440(2) by July 15 using Department of Revenue Form UR-50 Notice to Assessor for the current tax year. The assessor may, for cause, grant an extension of this date up to October 1.

(3) The assessor must separately calculate the estimated revenue to be raised from each plan area within the territory of a taxing district. To make this calculation the assessor must:

(a) Determine whether the plan is a standard rate plan or a reduced rate plan. Calculate the consolidated billing tax rate accordingly;

(b) Determine the maximum authority of an existing plan by multiplying last year's maximum authority by the percentage growth in plan increment value this year as provided in ORS 457.435(3);

(c) Determine the estimated amount to be raised by the division of tax for the plan. For each code area within the plan area, multiply the consolidated billing tax rate by the increment value used in the code area. Add the amounts of all code areas within a plan; and

(d) Determine the maximum amount of the special levy, if any, for each existing urban renewal plan by subtracting the estimated amount to be raised by the division of tax from the maximum authority of the plan. The maximum special levy cannot be less than zero.

(4) If the plan is an Option One plan:

(a) The assessor must calculate the maximum amount of urban renewal taxes to be raised through the division of tax as provided in section (3) of this rule, or a lesser amount of division of tax using the increment value used that is specified by the agency, according to the agency's certification on Form UR-50.

(b) If the agency requests one hundred percent of the division of tax and a special levy amount on Form UR-50, the assessor must calculate and extend a special levy for the amount certified, provided the total amount of the special levy plus the estimated division of tax amount is equal to or less than the maximum authority of the plan as determined under subsection (3)(b) of this rule.

(c) If the total of the special levy certified for the plan area plus the estimated division of tax amount computed for the plan by the assessor exceeds the maximum authority of the plan, the assessor must reduce the amount of the special levy until the total of the special levy and the estimated division of tax amount equals the maximum authority for the plan.

(d) If, instead of requesting one hundred percent of division of tax, an agency certifies on Form UR-50 an amount of increment value used, the assessor must not calculate a special levy for that plan.

(5) If the plan is an Option Three plan:

(a) The agency must certify on Form UR-50 the amount stated in the ordinance selecting Option Three as the amount to be collected through the division of taxes, or the amount of increment value that the agency estimates will raise some lesser amount of division of tax.

(b) If the agency certifies the amount of division of tax stated in the ordinance selecting Option Three, the assessor must calculate the amount of increment value necessary to raise the division of tax amount stated in the ordinance. The amount calculated by the assessor is the increment value used.

(c) If the agency certifies the amount of increment value that the agency estimates will raise some lesser amount of division of tax, the amount specified is the increment value used.

(d) If the agency certifies a special levy and certifies the amount of division of tax stated in the ordinance selecting Option Three, and the total special levy plus the estimated division of tax amount computed for the plan by the assessor exceeds the maximum authority of the plan, the assessor must reduce the special levy until the total of the two equals the maximum authority.

(e) If the agency certifies a special levy and certifies an amount of increment value used that the agency estimates will raise an amount of division of tax that is less than the amount stated in the ordinance selecting Option Three, and the total of the special levy plus the estimated division of tax amount computed by the assessor using that amount of increment value exceeds the total that would have been available under the plan's maximum authority had the agency certified the amount of division of tax stated in the ordinance selecting Option Three, the assessor must reduce the special levy amount so that the total of the special levy and the estimated division of tax equals the total that would have been available under the plan's maximum authority, had the agency certified the amount of division of tax stated in the ordinance selecting Option Three.

(6) If the plan is not an existing plan, the agency must certify on Form UR-50:

(a) One hundred percent of the amount of division of tax; or

(b) The amount of increment value used that the agency estimates will raise some lesser amount of division of tax, pursuant to ORS 457.455(1) or 457.470.

(7) The assessor must:

(a) Apportion the increment value used to the code areas in the plan area in the same proportions as the increment value is distributed among those code areas.

(b) If the full increment value in a code area is less than the amount of increment value used that is apportioned to the code area under subsection (7)(a) of this rule, the assessor must calculate the division of tax using the full increment value. No increment value is then used in calculating the taxes of the ad valorem taxing districts for the year.

(c) If the full increment value exceeds the amount of the increment value used, the assessor must use the remaining increment value in calculating the taxes of the ad valorem taxing districts for the current year.

(8) The assessor must:

(a) Use the rate computation value in calculating taxes for a taxing district that has an urban renewal plan area within its boundaries and whose rate is part of the consolidated billing tax rate for the plan.

(b) Calculate the urban renewal special levy tax rate for each plan area using the current year taxable value of all taxable property in the municipality that adopted the plan and any portion of the urban renewal plan area outside of the municipality. Current year taxable value includes the value of Non-profit Housing properties, Fish and Wildlife properties and urban renewal increment value.

(c) Calculate urban renewal special levy tax rates on a plan area by plan area basis. If one plan area of an agency extends beyond the boundary limits of the activating municipality, only the special levy rate for that plan area is extended beyond the boundaries of the municipality.

(d) Unless otherwise specifically provided by law, no tax offset applies to the special levy rate.

(9) The assessor must determine the tax rate for each code area for each tax levy that an ad valorem district certifies as follows:

(a) Determine the rate certified by the district for tax rate levies or calculate a tax rate for dollar amount levies;

(b) Subtract any offsets as applicable; and

(c) Subtract any division of tax rate for that district applicable to that code area from the result of subsection (9)(b) of this rule.

(10) The assessor must calculate a total division of tax rate for each code area. This is the total of the division of tax rates from all of the levies from all taxing districts with shared property in that code area, if such rates are in the consolidated billing tax rate.

(11) The division of tax rate may have two components. One is the total of rates derived from any local option tax levies. The other component is the total of rates derived from any other levies. The assessor must treat the amount of taxes derived from each of the two total rates separately for purposes of determining compliance with the limitations of section 11(b) Article XI of the Oregon Constitution.

(12) The assessor must calculate the amount of tax on each account that is distributed to each urban renewal agency as follows:

(a) For each property within a shared property area the assessor must calculate the division of tax amount extended by multiplying the taxable assessed value of the account by the division of tax rate for each plan area.

(b) For each property within a shared property area that has an urban renewal special levy, the assessor must calculate the amount extended for the special levy by multiplying the taxable assessed value of the account by the rate calculated for each urban renewal special levy.

(c) If taxes exceed the limitations in either category of section 11(b) Article XI of the Oregon Constitution, the assessor must reduce the taxes to the category limit. The division of tax portion derived from local option levies must be reduced proportionately with all other similarly categorized local option levies before any other taxes in the category are reduced.

(13) The special levy and the division of tax must be imposed on all taxable property in the municipality that activated the urban renewal agency and any portion of the urban renewal plan area outside of the municipality that is shared property for that plan.

(14) The tax statement must display at a minimum for each agency, under the applicable limitation category, the total combined dollar amount imposed for the urban renewal special levy and the division of tax for that account.

(15) In preparing the percentage distribution schedule under ORS 311.390, the tax collector must use the dollar amount generated for urban renewal division of tax and the dollar amount imposed for urban renewal special levy for each urban renewal agency.

150-305.145(3)

Discretionary Waiver of Interest

(1) General Policy. The department does not generally waive interest because interest represents a charge for the use of money.

(2) Interest may be waived for good and sufficient cause upon request of the taxpayer as required in OAR 150-305.145(4) section (4).

(a) The department will waive interest charges if the department determines the taxpayer did not have the use of the money on which the interest is charged.

Example 1: Sue mailed her Oregon tax payment to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) by mistake. The IRS cashed the check and six months later sent the money back to Sue as an overpayment. Two months later, Sue mailed payment to the department. The department will waive interest for the six-month period that Sue did not have use of the money.

(b) The department will waive interest imposed for failure to pay state tax on or before the due date if the taxpayer:

(A) Files an Oregon tax return on or before the due date of the return, excluding extensions;

(B) Submits the Oregon tax return in the same transmission as a federal tax return, using a department-approved alternative to filing a paper return;

(C) Pays any federal tax shown as due on the transmitted federal return on or before the due date using an electronic form of payment such as a credit card, debit card, or electronic funds transfer (ACH Debit);

(D) Pays any tax shown as due on the Oregon return within 30 days of the date shown on the Notice of Assessment sent to the taxpayer;

(E) Establishes to the department's satisfaction that failure to pay Oregon tax was due to a good faith, mistaken belief of the taxpayer that the state tax had been paid; and

(F) Has not received relief under this subsection before.

(c) The waiver of interest provided by subsection (2)(b) of this rule applies only to interest otherwise imposed on unpaid tax and does not include interest imposed on the underpayment of estimated tax.

(3) When interest will not be waived.

(a) The department will not waive interest on a deficiency resulting from changes made to Oregon tax based on any adjustments reported by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) or another state's taxing authority, regardless of the time lapse between completion of the IRS or another state's taxing authority adjustment and the completion of the Oregon audit report. ORS 314.380 and 314.410 require a taxpayer to report to the department a change in the taxpayer's net income as defined under OAR 150-314.380(2)-(B) resulting from an adjustment by the IRS or another taxing authority.

(b) The department will not waive interest to the extent the taxpayer earned interest on the money from another taxing authority.

Example 2: Don mailed his Oregon tax payment with his Idaho return by mistake. Idaho cashed the check and three months later refunded the $1,000 plus $25 of interest. One month later, Don mailed his payment to Oregon and requested a waiver of Oregon's interest charge of $35. The department will waive $10, which is the excess of interest charged over what Don received from Idaho.

(c) The department will not waive interest on underpayment of tax when the taxpayer requests that a refund shown on a delinquent return be applied to a later tax year. ORS 316.583 requires that a refund from a delinquent return that is applied to the next tax year is credited as an estimated payment as of the date the delinquent return was filed.

Example 3: Scott files his 2010 return on February 19, 2012 and requests that his tax year 2010 refund be applied to his tax year 2011 tentative tax. His 2010 tax return was due April 18, 2011. Because he filed his return late, the refund is credited as an estimated payment on February 19, 2012. The interest charged on the underpayment of 2011 estimated tax will not be waived because ORS 316.583 requires that the payment be credited as of the date the delinquent return is filed.

Representation of Taxpayers before the Department of Revenue

(1) Application of ORS 305.230. The provisions of ORS 305.230 apply to all administrative proceedings before the Department of Revenue. Only those individuals who qualify under ORS 305.230 and this rule may represent the taxpayer.

(2) Individuals Authorized to Represent by Department Rule. The following individuals may represent the taxpayer before the department unless the individual is prohibited from representing the taxpayer by other Oregon law:

(a) An adult immediate family member of the taxpayer may represent the taxpayer.

(b) The taxpayer's registered domestic partner may represent the taxpayer.

(c) A regular full-time employee of an individual employer may represent the employer.

(d) A general partner or a regular full-time employee of a partnership may represent the partnership. For general representation rules for partnerships see OAR 150-305.242(2) and 150-305.242(5).

(e) An officer or a regular full-time employee of a corporation (including a parent, subsidiary, or other affiliated corporation), association, or organized group may represent the corporation, association, or organized group.

(f) Any shareholder in an S corporation may be designated to represent that S corporation as the tax matters shareholder.

(g) Any tax matters shareholder or any shareholder of an S corporation may represent another shareholder or group of shareholders of that S corporation in matters related to adjustments of items that flow through from the S corporation to the shareholder's return.

(h) Limited Liability Company (LLC) classified as a corporation. A member-manager, a non-member manager, or a regular full-time employee of the LLC may represent the LLC.

(i) Limited Liability Company classified as a partnership. Any member with management authority may represent the LLC (including a member in a member-managed LLC). Any regular, full-time employee of the LLC may represent the LLC. If the LLC has no members with management authority, then any member may represent the LLC (see ORS 63.130 and Treas. Reg. § 301.6231(a)(7)-2).

(j) A regular full-time employee of a trust, receivership, guardianship, or estate may represent the trust, receivership, guardianship, or estate.

(k) An officer or a regular employee of a governmental unit, agency, or authority may represent the governmental unit, agency, or authority in the course of his or her official duties.

(l) An individual may represent any individual or entity that is outside the United States before department personnel when such representation takes place outside the United States.

(m) An individual who prepares and signs a taxpayer's tax return as the preparer, or who prepares a tax return but is not required (by the instructions to the tax return or by rule) to sign the tax return, may represent the taxpayer during an examination of the tax year or period covered by that tax return. This provision does not permit such individuals to represent taxpayers, regardless of the circumstances, before conference officers, revenue agents, legal counsel or similar department employees.

(n) A taxpayer's authorized agent may represent the taxpayer in proceedings relating to the property tax assessment of designated utilities and companies by the Oregon Department of Revenue under ORS 308.505 through 308.665 and 308.805 through 308.820. For purposes of this rule, an "authorized agent" means a person who is authorized by a company assessed under ORS 308.505 to 308.665 and 308.805 to 308.820 to transact all business related to the filing or processing of an annual statement filed as required by ORS 308.525 or all business related to the filing of a request for a director's conference under ORS 308.595.

(o) Persons authorized to represent in an ad valorem property tax conference or proceeding under ORS 305.230(1)(d), any person licensed by the Oregon State Board of Tax Practitioners, and consulting foresters may represent a taxpayer in any proceeding with respect to taxes imposed under ORS Chapter 321. For purposes of this rule, "consulting forester" means a person who is engaged by the taxpayer to render expert or professional advice in forest management related matters.

(p) The director may, subject to restrictions imposed under other Oregon law, authorize an individual who is not otherwise eligible under this rule to represent a taxpayer before the department. The sole fact that an individual does not qualify under another section of this rule is not an adequate reason to request special permission to represent a taxpayer.

(3) Revocation of Authorization. The department, in its discretion, may revoke the authority to represent a taxpayer granted under section (2) of this rule.

(4) Representation by a Tax Matters Shareholder.

(a) A tax matters shareholder may be designated to represent an S corporation before the Department of Revenue in any conference or proceeding with respect to the administration of any tax on or measured by net income.

(b) An S corporation that elects to designate a tax matters shareholder as its authorized representative in proceedings before the department for issues relating to the S corporation adjustments on a Notice of Deficiency must make the designation as provided in this rule.

(c) The tax matters shareholder designated for Oregon purposes may be the federal tax matters shareholder or may be another shareholder, and must be a shareholder who is:

(A) A shareholder in the S corporation at some time during the taxable year to which the Notice of Deficiency pertains; or

(B) A shareholder in the S corporation at the time the designation is made.

(d) In order to designate a tax matters shareholder, an S corporation must file a signed statement with the department. The statement must:

(A) Identify the shareholders making the designation by name, address, and social security number;

(B) Identify the S corporation and the designated shareholder by name, address, and taxpayer identification number;

(C) Declare that the statement is a designation of a tax matters shareholder for the taxable year to which the Notice of Deficiency relates; and

(D) Authorize the tax matters shareholder as a qualified representative under ORS 305.230 and identify the taxable year(s) of authorization.

(e) Only one tax matters shareholder may be designated and authorized to represent the corporation for each examination at the S corporation level which results in a Notice of Deficiency to the corporation.

(f) If a notice explaining the S corporation adjustments is mailed by the department to the tax matters shareholder with respect to any S corporation taxable year, the tax matters shareholder must supply the department with the name, address, ownership percentage and taxpayer identification number of each person who was a shareholder in the S corporation at any time during the taxable year, unless that information was provided in the S corporation return for that year.

(g) The tax matters shareholder for Oregon will bind the S corporation with respect to the proceedings between the department and the S corporation whose tax liability is in dispute. When appealing on behalf of the S corporation, the tax matters shareholder may exercise any administrative remedy before the department allowed by Oregon law.

(h) Other actions of the tax matters shareholder that are binding on the S corporation include, but are not limited to:

(A) Consent to the extension of the statute of limitations regarding an S corporation return.

(B) Making a settlement offer to the department.

(C) Acceptance of a closing agreement with the department.

(D) Consent to time and place of any appeals proceedings.

(5) S corporation Shareholder Representation.

(a) When the treatment of S corporation items on a shareholder's return is consistent with the treatment of that item on the S corporation return and results in a deficiency, a tax matters shareholder or any shareholder of that S corporation may be designated to represent a shareholder or group of shareholders of that S corporation before the Department of Revenue in any conference or proceeding with respect to the administration of any tax on or measured by net income. All shareholders or groups of shareholders are not required to designate the same representative.

(b) A shareholder or group of shareholders that elect to designate an authorized representative in proceedings before the department for issues relating to the S corporation adjustments on a Notice of Deficiency must make the designation as provided in this rule.

(c) If the representative designated for Oregon purposes is a shareholder, the representative may be the tax matters shareholder or another shareholder, and must be a shareholder who is:

(A) A shareholder in the S corporation at some time during the taxable year to which the Notice of Deficiency pertains; or

(B) A shareholder in the S corporation at the time the designation is made.

(d) In order to designate a representative, a shareholder or group of shareholders of an S corporation must file a signed statement with the department. The statement must be signed by each shareholder electing that representative and:

(A) Identify the name, address, and social security number of each shareholder electing the representative;

(B) Identify the S corporation and the representative by name, address, and taxpayer identification number;

(C) Declare that the statement is a designation for the taxable year to which the Notice of Deficiency relates; and

(D) Authorize the representative as a qualified representative under ORS 305.230 and identify the taxable year(s) of authorization. The shareholder or group of shareholders may authorize the representative to represent the shareholders for issues other than S corporation issues that are heard during the same appeal with any S corporation adjustments.

(e) A shareholder or group of shareholders may not designate more than one representative for an appeal. While different shareholders can designate different representatives, each cannot not have more than one representative.

(f) If a group of shareholders has the same representative and has filed an appeal requesting a conference for the same S corporation adjustment the appeal will be resolved in a single conference.

(g) Shareholders who do not designate a representative as provided in this rule may appeal their Notice of Deficiency by following the administrative remedies under ORS 305.265 and the related rules.

(h) The representative will bind all shareholders who have made the designation under this section to all actions with respect to the proceedings between the department and the shareholder whose tax liability is in dispute. Any shareholder who has designated a representative may participate in any level of the administrative proceedings.

Example: Assume an S corporation with 10 shareholders has been examined and each shareholder receives a Notice of Deficiency. If 8 shareholders designate the same representative, their appeal will be heard collectively. If the representative requests a conference, the conference decision will apply to all 8 shareholders (all 8 shareholders may participate). The other 2 shareholders may appeal their cases individually because they did not make the election to be represented by the same representative.

(i) Other actions of the representative that are binding on the shareholders who have made the designation include, but are not limited to:

(A) Consent to the extension of the statute of limitations regarding S corporation items with respect to all electing shareholders.

(B) Making a settlement offer to the department.

(C) Acceptance of a closing agreement with the department.

(D) Consent to time and place of any appeals proceedings.

(6) Limited Liability Companies. When a limited liability company (LLC) has elected to be classified as a corporation and has made an S corporation election, section (4) applies to the LLC. When applying section (4) to an LLC, LLC members are treated as shareholders.

Report of Changes in Federal Taxable Income

(1) Report Requirements. The report of change or correction required by ORS 314.380(2) must be:

(a) Filed in writing with the department;

(b) Signed by the taxpayer or the taxpayer's authorized representative; and,

(c) Filed separately from any statement or attachment forming a part of the taxpayer's original tax return.

(2) The report may be in the form of an amended return or a schedule showing the adjustments and the recomputation of the tax. Regardless of what form is used, the report must include either a copy of the report of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) adjustment, federal revenue agent's report or the audit report of the other state's taxing authority, whichever is applicable, or other information sufficient to inform the department of each item on the tax return that has been changed or corrected.

(3) If the taxpayer does not concede the accuracy of any change or correction made by the IRS or other state's taxing authority, the report filed with the department must include a full explanation of the reason why the taxpayer believes such change or correction to be erroneous. If the report is not filed in the manner stated in this rule, the department will not be considered to have been notified by the taxpayer.

(4) A report of a change or correction is treated as a timely claim for refund, pursuant to ORS 314.415, if filed with the department within two years after the date of the IRS adjustment or the audit report of the other state's taxing authority.

Definitions for Composite Tax Returns and Pass-through Entity Withholding

The following definitions apply for purposes of ORS 314.775 to 314.784, this rule, and OAR 150-314.778 to 150-314.784:

(1) "Disregarded entity" is an entity that is not recognized for income tax purposes and all items related to the entity are reported on the owner's income tax return. Examples of disregarded entities are:

(a) Single member limited liability company (LLC), and

(b) Grantor trusts.

(2) "Distributive income" means the net amount of income, gain, deduction, or loss of a pass-through entity for the tax year of the entity and includes those items directly related to the entity that are considered in determining the federal taxable income of the owner or, in the case of an owner that is a corporation, would be included in its federal taxable income if the corporation were an individual.

(3) "Electing owner" means a nonresident owner that elects to participate in an Oregon composite tax return filed by a pass-through entity. An electing owner also includes the nonresident owner of a disregarded entity.

(4) "Modified distributive income" means the distributive income as defined in section (1) of this rule, of a pass-through entity, with the modifications provided in ORS Chapter 316 and other Oregon law that directly relate to those items taken into consideration by the pass-through entity in arriving at its distributive income. Such modifications include, but are not limited to, any Oregon modification necessary for depreciation, depletion, gain or loss difference on the sale of depreciable property, and any modification for federal tax credits, and do not include the federal tax subtraction, itemized deductions, and the Oregon standard deduction. Guaranteed payments are treated as a business income component of the entity's distributive income and attributed directly to the owner receiving the payment.

(5) "Nonelecting owner" means a nonresident owner of a pass-through entity that is eligible, but does not elect to participate in a composite return and who is required to file an Oregon tax return.

(6) "Oregon-source distributive income" means the portion of the entity's modified distributive income that is derived from or connected with Oregon sources. For entities operating in Oregon and one or more other states, Oregon-source distributive income is determined by attributing to Oregon sources that portion of the modified distributive income of the entity, as defined in section (3) of this rule, determined in accordance with the allocation and apportionment provisions of ORS 314.280 or 314.625 to 314.675.

(7) "Pass-through entity" means any entity that is recognized as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes, for which the owners are required to report income, gains, losses, deductions or credits from the entity for federal income tax purposes. Examples include:

(a) A partnership;

(b) An S corporation;

(c) A limited liability company that is treated as one of the above for tax purposes; and

(d) A trust that has been established or maintained primarily for tax avoidance purposes, including: an abusive tax shelter as defined in ORS 314.402, an entity subject to a penalty for promoting an abusive tax shelter under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) section 6700, and a tax shelter as defined under IRC section 6662 and related Treasury regulations.

Oregon Composite Tax Return

(1) General provisions. A pass-through entity (PTE) doing business in or deriving income from sources within this state is required to file an Oregon composite tax return if requested by one or more electing owners. Estimated tax payments are required for the composite return if the total Oregon tax due for any electing owner is expected to be $1,000 or more for an individual; or $500 or more for a corporation.

(a) Computation of tax. Each PTE filing a composite return on behalf of electing owners must calculate the tax for each electing owner. The tax liability for each electing owner on the composite return, determined without regard to the tax credits allowed under subsection (1)(b) of this rule, is calculated by applying the Oregon tax rates based on the owner's filing status to the difference between the owner's share of the entity's Oregon-source distributive income for the taxable year and the owner's self-employment tax deduction, as provided for in subsection (1)(b) of this rule. If distributive income is apportioned, the deduction must also be apportioned by multiplying the owner's federal deduction for one-half self-employment tax (attributable to the owner's share of the entity's net earnings from self-employment) by the apportionment percentage provided in ORS 314.650 through 314.675. The PTE will report on the Oregon composite return the tax computed for each electing owner and total amounts for all electing owners.

(b) Credits and deductions. Below is a list of items that may or may not be allowed for electing owners. [Table not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(c) Losses.

(A) Net operating losses for Oregon nonresidents are computed under ORS 316.028. A PTE that has filed an Oregon composite tax return on behalf of nonresident individual owners may file amended returns to carry back the Oregon net operating losses incurred by the PTE. A schedule must be attached to any return filed under these provisions indicating the taxpayers affected and calculations of the loss amounts. These losses may also be carried forward. The allowed carryback and carryforward periods (including elections to forego the carryback period) are the same as provided under Internal Revenue Code section 172. The election to forego the carryback period must be made by attaching a statement to the Oregon composite return filed on or before the due date (including extensions) of the return for the loss year. Corporations are not allowed to carry back a net operating loss (ORS 317.476).

(B) Any refund of tax made pursuant to an original or amended composite return filed under these provisions will be paid to the PTE, regardless of changes in ownership or changes in the identity of nonresidents participating in an Oregon composite filing.

(2) Election to participate in an Oregon composite tax return. The following provisions apply:

(a) The owner must make a separate election for each tax year;

(b) The owner must not have been a resident of Oregon at any time during the owner's tax year;

(c) The owner is considered to have made the election on the date the PTE files the composite return that includes the electing owner;

(d) By making the election, the owner elects to have the owner's Oregon tax liability paid and reported by the PTE; and

(e) An electing owner is ultimately liable for tax, penalty and interest if the PTE fails to file a composite tax return or pay the tax on behalf of the owner.

(f) An electing owner may be a disregarded entity. The PTE must look to the owner of the disregarded entity to determine whether the owner of the disregarded entity will choose to join in the composite filing.

Example 1: Hermiston Partners is owned by four individuals, one grantor trust, and one single-member LLC. Both of these owners are disregarded entities. Therefore, Hermiston Partners will look to the nonresident owner of each disregarded entity to determine if that nonresident owner elects to join in the filing of a composite return. The grantor trust is owned by a nonresident individual. Hermiston Partners looks to the individual who owns the grantor trust. Hermiston Partners must allow the individual to join in the filing of the composite return. Hermiston Partners will use the individual's name and Social Security number on the composite, not the name or tax identification number of the disregarded trust. If the individual doesn't join in the composite filing or file an affidavit, Hermiston Partners must send in estimated payments on the individual's behalf as required in OAR 150-314.781.

The single-member LLC is solely owned by another partnership, Ontario LP. A partnership can't join in the filing of a composite return. Thus, Hermiston Partners cannot include Ontario LP in the composite return and is not required to send in estimated payments on behalf of the LP. Ontario LP is the entity responsible for filing a composite return or sending estimated payments for its owners.

(3) Filing and payment requirements.

(a) Due date. The Oregon composite tax return is due the 15th day of the fourth month after the close of the tax year of the majority of the electing owners, in accordance with ORS 314.385.

Example 2: Around-the-Bend LLC (ATB) has a tax year ending June 30. The electing owners consist of four individuals and three corporations. Because the individuals are all calendar year taxpayers, the majority of the electing owners have a calendar tax year which ends December 31. Therefore the composite return and any estimated payments are due using a calendar tax year. For tax year 2010, the composite return will include the income reported by ATB for its 2009 tax year ending June 30, 2010. The 2010 composite return that ATB will file on behalf of its owners is due April 15, 2011.

Example 3: Coast Around Oregon Incorporated (CAO) is an S Corporation with a tax year ending October 31. The electing owners consist of 15 individuals, so they are all calendar year taxpayers. For tax year 2010, the composite return will include the income reported by CAO for its 2009 tax year ending October 31, 2010. The 2010 composite return that CAO will file on behalf of its owners is due April 15, 2011.

(b) Payment of amounts due. Payment of the amount due is made by the PTE on the owner's behalf and must accompany the filing of the Oregon composite tax return in accordance with ORS 314.395. The payment must include the tax due plus any penalty or interest provided by Oregon law.

(c) Extensions of time to file. If the entity is granted a federal or Oregon extension of time to file the entity's return (partnership return or S corporation return), an extension for filing the Oregon composite return is allowed. This is true even if the composite return reports the income in a different tax year than the entity's partnership or S corporation return. The entity must keep a copy of the federal extension with its tax records. The extension to file the composite return is 6 months from the composite return due date regardless of the length of extension the entity received for its partnership or S corporation tax return.

Example 4: Pendleton LLC filed for extension for its 2012 fiscal tax year ending June 30, 2013 (2012 partnership return). The partnership return had a due date of October 15, 2013. Partnerships receive a 5-month extension so the due date with extension is March 15, 2014 for the partnership return. The owners of Pendleton LLC are calendar year filers. Therefore, they report the income in tax year 2013. The nonresident owners that elect to participate in the 2013 composite return filed by Pendleton have an extension to file because the partnership has an extension to file for the partnership return. The 2013 composite return reporting this income is due April 15, 2014; however, with the extension, it is due October 15, 2014. The 6-month extension applies, even though the income is reported in a different tax year for the owners and Pendleton LLC received a 5-month extension for filing its partnership return.

(d) An electing owner may file a separate tax return without revoking the election to join in the filing of a composite return. The income reported on the composite return is subtracted on the electing owner's separate return and tax is paid only on the Oregon source income not reported on the composite return.

(4) Ineligibility or revoking an election to participate in a composite return.

(a) One or more owners may revoke the election to join in the Oregon composite tax return after the Oregon composite tax return has been filed. The revocation of the election must be made within three years from the date the Oregon composite tax return was filed. To revoke a previous election:

(A) The PTE must file an amended Oregon composite return removing the owner and request a transfer of any payment made on the owner's behalf to the now nonelecting owner's account, and

(B) The owner must file a separate return with the department showing all items of income and deduction from the PTE. This separate return will be treated as an original return and, if filed after the due date, any tax liability shown on the return is subject to interest and penalties in the same manner as any other delinquently filed original return. The decision to revoke a previous election by one or more owners has no effect on the election of the remaining owners.

(b) If any of the owners becomes ineligible, revokes an election, or declines to participate in filing an Oregon composite tax return, and the PTE made tax payments on the owner's behalf, the PTE must submit a written transfer request to the department. The department will transfer the tax payment to the account of the nonresident owner only if the entity submits such a written request to the department. The request must contain:

(A) The name and federal employer identification number of the entity that made the tax payment(s);

(B) The name and social security number of the nonresident owner; and

(C) The specific dollar amount to transfer to the account of the owner.

(c) An owner who does not or cannot elect to participate, or who revokes a prior election, is subject to withholding on the owner's share of the Oregon source distributive income under ORS 314.781 and OAR 150-314.781.

(5) Payment of tax on behalf of electing owners. An entity may be required to make quarterly tax payments to the department on behalf of all electing owners. The tax liability required to be paid is the sum of each electing owner's estimated tax liability for that quarter that is attributable to each owner's interest in the entity. In determining the electing owner's tax liability, the provisions of ORS 314.505 to 314.525 or 316.579 to 316.589 regarding calculation of estimated tax apply. The entity must remit the tax payments to the department using forms and instructions provided by the department.

Claim of Right Credit

(1) Credit qualifications. If you repaid income that was taxed in a prior year, you may be eligible for a credit on your Oregon return. This rule applies to repayments made on or after January 1, 2013 that are claimed on returns filed after the effective date of this rule. To claim the credit, you must:

(a) Claim a federal credit or deduction under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) section 1341; and

(b) Have paid Oregon tax in a prior year on the income that you repaid.

(2) Credit calculation. Your Oregon claim of right credit is the difference between the Oregon tax you paid in the prior year and the Oregon tax you would have paid without including the repaid income. Calculate your credit as follows:

(a) Refigure the Oregon tax before credits in the year the income was originally taxed by determining the tax for the year in which the income was originally taxed without the repaid income. Do not change the federal tax subtraction or any other items on the Oregon return.

(b) Subtract the refigured tax before credits from the Oregon tax before credits as filed (or amended or adjusted, if applicable). This is your claim of right credit.

Example 1: In 2012, Jerry was required to repay $10,000 of the unemployment compensation he had received in 2011. He claimed the claim of right credit on his federal return, so he can also claim the credit for Oregon. For 2011, Jerry had federal adjusted gross income (AGI) of $50,000 and Oregon tax before credits of $3,568. Jerry refigures his 2011 Oregon tax before credits without the repaid income. He reduces his federal AGI compared to what was included in his original 2011 federal return by the amount repaid, $10,000. All other Oregon items stay the same (including the federal tax subtraction). The recalculated Oregon tax before credits is $2,668. The difference between the refigured and original tax before credits is $900 ($3,568 minus $2,668). Jerry's claim of right credit is $900.

(3) Federal deduction. If you claim a deduction under IRC § 1341 on your federal return, you can allow the deduction to flow through or you can claim a credit on your Oregon return. Determine by comparing the following amounts:

(a) Calculate Oregon tax before credits for the year of repayment with the deduction.

(b) Add back the federal deduction and figure your Oregon tax before credits. Then subtract the Oregon claim of right credit.

(c) If the tax in (a) is less, allow the deduction for Oregon also. If the tax in (b) is less, add back any deduction as required under ORS 316.680(2)(i) and claim the Oregon credit.

Example 2: In 2012, Shannon had to repay wages of $3,800 from tax year 2010. She qualifies to claim itemized deductions and chooses to claim the deduction on her federal return. Oregon allows this deduction to flow through or allows her to claim the credit instead. Her itemized deductions are mostly Oregon taxes, so her Oregon itemized deductions are less than the standard deduction. Therefore, she will not claim itemized deductions for Oregon and will claim the credit instead.
In 2010, she had federal AGI of $45,000 and her 2010 tax was $2,988. If Shannon had not received the $3,800 she had to repay, her 2010 tax would have been $2,679. Her 2012 credit is the difference of $342, which she will claim on her 2012 Oregon return as a claim of right credit. There's no addition required because she claimed the standard deduction for Oregon, so the federal deduction did not flow through.

Dependent Care Credits: General Information

(1) Taxpayers must apply to the Department of Education, Early Learning Division, Office of Child Care and receive certification before being eligible for the Dependent Care Assistance or Dependent Care Information and Referral Services credits. Contact the Office of Child Care of the Department of Education for more information.

(2) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, the following credits are available to employers that provide dependent care assistance or information and referral services to their employees:

(a) Dependent Care Assistance Credit. This credit is available to employers for the expenses paid or incurred by the employer for the care of employees' dependents.

(b) Dependent Care Information and Referral Services Credit. This credit is available to employers that provide information and referral services to assist their employees in obtaining dependent care.

(3) Any tax credit otherwise allowable that is not used by the taxpayer in a tax year may be carried forward and offset against the taxpayer's tax liability for up to five tax years. The amount of credit carried forward to a succeeding tax year is the sum of credits that exceed the tax liability, after other credits, for all prior tax years that are within the carryover period.

(a) If a credit carried forward from a prior year and a current year's credit are available, the taxpayer must use the credit from the prior year first and then the current year's credit.

(b) If a credit carried forward from a prior year and a current year's credit are available, the two credits may be combined and taken up to the amount of tax liability for the year.

(4) If the taxpayer is an individual and the tax year is changed resulting in a short period return (a return covering a period of less than 12 months), the credit must be computed in a manner consistent with ORS 314.085.

(5) If the taxpayer is a part-year resident individual, the credit must be computed in a manner consistent with ORS 316.117.

Credit for Political Contributions

(1) In General: To qualify for the political contribution credit, the contribution must be a voluntary contribution of money made to one of the following:

(a) A major political party or its political committees, or a minor political party or its political committees;

(b) A candidate for federal, state or local office; or

(c) A political committee. Each of these categories is discussed in more detail in the following sections.

(2) Contributions to political parties. For purposes of this rule, a major political party is defined in ORS 248.006. A minor political party is defined in ORS 248.008. Contributions to any of these parties, or their political committees, qualify for the credit.

Example 1: In 2012, Jim contributes $50 to the Republican National Party, $50 to the Republican Committee to Re-elect U.S. Senators, $50 to the Democratic National Party Committee to Re-elect Senator Jones of California and $50 to the Libertarian Party. All contributions qualify for the political contribution credit. Jim will be able to claim a credit of $50 on his 2012 income tax return. If he files a joint return with his wife, they may claim a $100 credit.

(3) Contributions to candidates. Qualifying contributions are those made directly to the candidate or the principal campaign committee of the candidate.

(a) A principal campaign committee (PCC) means a candidate's political committee. The PCC must have met the filing requirements contained in ORS Chapter 260.

(b) Candidates do not have to appear on a ballot in this state in the same year the contribution is made for the credit to be claimed. However, if the candidate is not on a ballot, at least one of the following must have occurred in the same year the contribution is made:

(A) A prospective petition is filed;

(B) A declaration of candidacy is filed;

(C) A certificate of nomination is filed; or

(D) A designation of a principal campaign committee is filed.

Example 2: Amanda filed a declaration of candidacy in November 2011 and appeared on the ballot for the 2012 primary election as a candidate for Oregon state senator. Contributions made in 2011 or 2012 to Amanda, or her principal campaign committee, will qualify for the credit.

(4) Contributions to political committees. Contributions made to a political committee will qualify only if the committee has certified the name of its treasurer to the appropriate filing officerin the manner provided in ORS Chapter 260. As used in this rule, "filing officer" means:

(a) For a political committee whose purpose is to support or oppose a candidate or measure in an election concerning an irrigation district formed under ORS chapter 545, the county clerk or secretary of the irrigation district as provided under ORS 260.005(9)(b).

(b) For all other purposes, the Secretary of State as provided under ORS 260.005(9)(a).

(c) Contributions may qualify under this provision even though:

(A) No measure appears on the ballot in the same year the contribution is made;

(B) The contribution is made to reduce a deficit from a prior year; or

(C) The political committee is formed by a national committee.

Example 3: Royal is a member of the Association of Certified Engineers of America. The association forms a Political Action Committee (PAC) in Oregon, certifies the name of its treasurer to the Secretary of State, and solicits voluntary donations from individual members. The PAC states in its material that it is organized and operated to support or oppose any political candidates or measures the directors of the association determine will impact its members. Contributions made to the PAC will qualify for the credit.

Example 4: Debra belongs to a trade union that engages in political activities. The union informs Debra that a certain percentage of her monthly dues is used for political purposes. No part of her dues payment will qualify for the credit because it is not a voluntary payment of money to a candidate or a political committee.

Example 5: Same facts as Example 4, but the union also solicits voluntary political contributions from its members. These funds are placed directly into a separate PAC, which is not subsidized in any way by the union, and are used for political activities. In January 1999, Debra signs up for a payroll deduction of $5 to be taken from her monthly checks. She may claim a credit of up to $50 on her tax return, or a credit of $60 (12 months x $5) if she files jointly with her husband.

(5) The amount of the contribution must be reduced by the fair market value of any items or services received in exchange for the contributions.

Example 6: A political committee solicits donations and offers T-shirts in return for contributions of $50 or more. Douglas contributes $50 and receives a T-shirt valued at $10. He may claim a political contribution credit of $40.

Example 7: Same facts as Example 6, except that Douglas contributes $100. He is entitled to a credit of $50 on a single return, or $90 on a joint return.

(6) A partnership or S corporation may make political contributions on behalf of its partners or shareholders. The credit may be claimed on the individual tax return, subject to all of the limitations in ORS 316.102 and this rule.

(7) Proof of the credit, such as a canceled check or receipt, should not be attached to the tax return but should be kept with the taxpayer's records. Upon audit or examination, the taxpayer must provide documentation to verify the credit.

Gross Income of Nonresidents: Waterway Workers

(1) General Policy. The State of Oregon imposes taxes on Oregon source income of nonresidents to the extent allowed under Oregon and federal law and exempts Oregon source income of nonresidents to the extent provided under federal law: 46 USCA 11108. Under both federal and state law, compensation of a nonresident waterway worker is exempt from Oregon taxation to the extent the compensation is paid to an individual engaged on a vessel and performing assigned duties as a licensed pilot in more than one State or to an individual performing regularly assigned duties while engaged as a master, officer, or crewman on a vessel operating on the navigable waters in two or more states.

(2) For purposes of ORS 316.127(10) and this rule:

(a) "Master" is the commander of a merchant vessel, who is in charge of the vessel, its crew, its passengers, and the care and control of the vessel and cargo.

(b) "Member of a crew" or "crew member" is an individual carried on board a vessel who is not required to obtain a license (though they may be required to obtain certification) who provides services such as navigation and maintenance of the vessel, its machinery, systems, or services essential for propulsion and safe navigation or to provide services for passengers on board.

(c) "Navigable waters" are waters that are subject to the ebb and flow of the tide and waters that are presently used, or were used in the past, to transport interstate or foreign commerce.

(d) "Officer" is an individual carried on board the vessel who must obtain a specialized license and who provides navigation and maintenance of the vessel, its machinery, systems, and arrangements essential for propulsion and safe navigation.

(e) "Passenger" is a person on board a vessel other than:

(A) The master, a member of the crew, or other person employed or engaged in any capacity in the business of the vessel; or

(B) A child under one year of age.

(f) "Regularly assigned duties" are those duties performed on a regular basis (i.e. daily, weekly, or monthly). Duties that are performed on sporadically or intermittently as occurs when serving on an "on-call" or "as-needed" basis are not "regularly assigned duties."

(g) "Vessel" is watercraft used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation on navigable waters in 2 or more states for business purposes.

(h) "Waterway worker" is a nonresident who is:

(A) Engaged on a vessel to perform assigned duties in more than one State as a pilot licensed under section 7101 of Title 46 of the United States Code or licensed or authorized under the laws of a State, or

(B) An individual who performs regularly assigned duties while engaged as a master, officer, or member of a crew on a vessel operating on the navigable waters in two or more states.

Example 1: Ben, a resident of Washington, is a crew member and works on a dredging vessel on the Willamette River in Oregon and the Cowlitz River in Washington six months of the year. The other six months of the year Ben works in the company's office in Portland, Oregon. Only six months of compensation from his employer is exempt because it's for services Ben performed on the dredging vessel and is not taxable by Oregon. The remaining six months of compensation is taxable by Oregon.

Example 2: Kirk, a nonresident, works for a log mill located on the Oregon shore of the Columbia River. He spends 6 hours a day piloting a tugboat on the river carrying logs to the mill. For the remaining 2 hours of his shift, he works in the mill doing maintenance on mill equipment as well as other tasks. Kirk's compensation for his time working on the tugboat is not subject to Oregon tax. However, the time he spent working in the mill in Oregon is Oregon-source income and subject to Oregon tax. Kirk may exclude 75 percent (6 divided by 8) of his total compensation from this employer from Oregon taxation. He will only report 25 percent of his wages in the Oregon column of his nonresident return.

Example 3: Remy, a nonresident, is a crew member and works on a vessel plying the Columbia and Willamette rivers. Remy makes weekly trips from Hood River to Tualatin and back, hauling cargo on the vessel. Each trip entails three days on the Columbia River and two days on the Willamette River. All of Remy's income is exempt and is not taxable to Oregon.

Example 4: Jim, a nonresident, works in Oregon for a water transportation company that plies the waters of the Columbia River. On occasion, he is called upon to work as a member of a crew for a full day on one of the company's vessels when they are short-handed. His income is taxable by Oregon, even for the days he works on the vessel, because his work on the vessel is on an as-needed, sporadic, or intermittent basis.

Example 5: Ken, a Washington resident, works in Oregon as a manager for a water transportation company whose two vessels traverse the Columbia River. Once every quarter, Ken boards the company's vessels to check on the employees working on the vessel. Ken's income is taxable by Oregon, even for the days that he spends on board a vessel because he is not a pilot, master, officer, or crew member of the vessel.

Petitioning Department to Equally Split Joint Liability

(1) A tax liability incurred by spouses filing a joint tax return is joint and several. Each spouse is responsible for the entire liability. However, the department may split a joint tax liability equally between two separated or divorced spouses. Either spouse may file a petition to split the joint liability equally between the spouses. In order to split the liability, the department must be satisfied that payment of the entire liability by the petitioning spouse will cause undue hardship on the petitioner and petitioner's household. Mere inconvenience is insufficient to establish hardship. A statement in the divorce decree is also insufficient to relieve either spouse of the liability.

(2) The conditions listed below may constitute hardship. The examples given are not intended to be all-inclusive.

(a) Annual household income of the petitioning spouse, number of dependents and limited assets within the household are such that petitioner could not, in the department's opinion, pay the entire liability within five years.

Example 1: The petitioning spouse receives social security income with no other income and only minimal assets.

Example 2: The petitioning spouse earns $20,000 annually, is not receiving child or spousal support, and is the sole support of three adolescent dependents. Household assets are minimal. The liability owed jointly with the petitioner's ex-spouse is $4,000.

(b) Major medical problems or a prolonged illness of either the petitioning spouse or a family member that either severely limits petitioning spouse's earning ability or creates an extreme financial burden on household resources.

Example 3: Petitioning spouse or family member has a major illness and has been forced to retire. The only household income is from social security.

Example 4: The petitioning spouse has a major illness and family is living on disability and attempting to meet high medical costs.

(3) Included within the petition must be:

(a) An explanation of how payment of the entire liability will cause undue hardship on the petitioner and petitioner's household;

(b) The current address of the non-petitioning spouse (if known);

(c) A completed Statement of Financial Condition for Individuals (form number 150-860-009);

(d) A copy of the legal separation or divorce decree; and

(e) An explanation of how the petitioner will pay the remaining liability.

(4) Following review of the petition, the department will either:

(a) Accept the petition, cause the liability to be split equally between spouses and notify both spouses of the action; or

(b) Notify the petitioning spouse the petition has not been accepted.

(5) Acceptance by the department of the petition is discretionary. If the department denies a petition to split a joint liability, the petitioner may appeal that denial to the Magistrate Division of the Oregon Tax Court.

Special Oregon Medical Subtraction

(1) Eligible Expenses. Expenses eligible for this subtraction are those authorized under IRC §213. Medical and dental expenses not allowed for this subtraction include expenses:

(a) Otherwise deducted in the calculation of Oregon taxable income for any tax period; or

(b) Paid on behalf of any other individual who is not an eligible taxpayer or eligible spouse of the taxpayer under ORS 316.693.

Example 1: Sam (age 66) and Rebecca (age 60) file a joint return and claim Rebecca's 80-year-old mother as a dependent. During the year, Sam and Rebecca paid $4,000 in medical and dental expenses: $1,000 for Sam, $1,000 for Rebecca and $2,000 for Rebecca's mother. Sam's medical expenses are the only medical expenses that qualify for the special Oregon medical subtraction because Rebecca does not meet the age requirement and Rebecca's mother is a dependent.

Example 2: Shannon and Dustin, both age 66, file a joint return with Oregon itemized deductions. During the year, Shannon and Dustin paid $18,900 in unreimbursed medical and dental expenses: $6,900 for self-employed health insurance premiums (claimed on the front of Form 1040), $10,000 for health insurance for two employees (claimed on Schedule C), and $2,000 of unreimbursed medical and dental expenses (claimed on Schedule A, line 1). Only the medical and dental expenses on Schedule A, line 1 ($2,000) can be used in the calculation of eligible expenses for the special Oregon medical subtraction because deduction for the self-employed health insurance was already used in the calculation of Oregon taxable income and employee insurance is not an eligible expense.

(2) Calculation of Eligible Expenses.

(a) General rule. The general rule is that if the expenses can be attributed to a particular individual, only that individual can claim those expenses.

Example 3: Mary (age 59) and Steve (age 66). Mary and Steve each have their own insurance policy and do not cover each other on the individual policies. Mary's premium is $350 per month and Steve's premium is $400 per month. The only expenses that are eligible to be considered for this subtraction are Steve's premiums, ($4,800). Depending on his income and the portion of Steve's premiums already included in itemized deductions on Schedule A, Steve may claim up to $1,800 as a special Oregon medical subtraction.

(b) Expenses that cannot be attributed to a particular individual. A taxpayer that cannot determine to whom the expense is attributable must prorate the expense using a method that is reasonable based on the taxpayer's particular facts and circumstances. Common examples of expenses that are not attributable to a particular individual include, but are not limited to, medical, dental or long-term care insurance premiums. Depending on the facts and circumstances, reasonable methods of proration for such expenses may include:

(A) Dividing the eligible expenses that are for more than one person by the number of individuals covered by the policy.

(B) In the case of spouses filing separate returns, splitting any eligible expenses paid out of a joint checking account in which the taxpayer and the taxpayer's spouse have the same interest equally, unless you can show otherwise.

Example 4: Branden (age 66) and Natalie (age 61) file a joint return with Oregon itemized deductions and three dependent children. During the year, Branden and Natalie paid $19,380 in medical expenses: $16,600 in health insurance premiums for a plan that covered Branden, Natalie, and all three children; $500 in dental expenses for Branden; $1,500 in medical expenses for Natalie; and $780 in medical and dental expenses for the children. Natalie and the children's medical and dental expenses do not qualify for this subtraction because Natalie does not meet the age requirement and the children are dependents. For Branden and Natalie, a reasonable method to calculate the joint expenses attributable to Branden is to divide the total health insurance premiums paid ($16,600) by the number of insured (5) to arrive at $3,320 for Branden's portion of the joint expenses. Add the additional medical expenses attributable to Branden, $500, to arrive at a total of $3,820 of eligible expenses.

(3) Taxpayer who itemizes deductions. If a taxpayer has already claimed a portion of the eligible expenses as an itemized deduction on federal schedule A, line 4, the taxpayer must make an adjustment for those eligible expenses already deducted. Only medical and dental expenses for an age-qualifying taxpayer that are not already deducted in the calculation of Oregon taxable income are eligible for the subtraction. The taxpayer must prorate medical and dental expenses included in itemized deductions to determine what portion is eligible for this subtraction.

Example 5: Jeff and Maggie, both age 64, file a joint return with Oregon itemized deductions and federal Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) of $55,000. Jeff and Maggie also claim Maggie's 84-year-old mother as a dependent. During the year, Jeff and Maggie paid $12,300 in unreimbursed medical and dental expenses: $3,400 for self-employed health insurance premiums (claimed on the front of the 1040), $1,200 for Jeff, $4,200 for Maggie, $1,500 for Maggie's mother, and $2,000 in long-term care insurance premiums for Jeff and Maggie.

Jeff and Maggie deduct the entire self-employed health insurance premiums on the federal return; therefore, they do not include those expenses in the calculation of the subtraction. They can only include the $8,900 of medical expenses claimed on Schedule A, line 1, to calculate the subtraction ($1,200 for Jeff, $4,200 for Maggie, $1,500 for Maggie's mother, and $2,000 in long-term care insurance premiums for Jeff and Maggie).

For Jeff and Maggie, a reasonable method to calculate their joint expenses is to divide by two the total long-term care insurance premiums paid ($2,000) to arrive at $1,000 for each individual. Add the additional medical expenses attributable to Jeff and Maggie to arrive at total eligible expenses before calculating the subtraction. Jeff's expenses total $2,200 ($1,200 + $1,000) and Maggie's expenses total $5,200 ($4,200 + $1,000).

Jeff's expenses claimed on the Schedule A are 24.7% of the total expenses ($2,200 divided by $8,900). Maggie's expenses claimed on the Schedule A are 58.4% of the total expenses ($5,200 divided by $8,900). Jeff and Maggie could not deduct $5,500 of their expenses on Schedule A because of the AGI limitation. Jeff's portion of the expenses that were not deducted are $1,359 ($5,500 x 24.7%; rounded). Maggie's portion of the expenses that were not deducted is $3,212 ($5,500 x 58.4%). Based on their federal AGI, each of their expenses may not exceed $1,400 for this subtraction. Jeff's expenses are less than the limit, so his subtraction is limited to $1,359. Maggie's expenses are more than the limit, so her subtraction is $1,400. They will claim a $2,759 special Oregon medical subtraction on their return.

Military Pay Subtraction

(1) Definitions.

(a) "Uniformed services" refers only to services under the orders of the President of the United States and means the commissioned corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (i.e., the Coast and Geodetic Survey) and the Public Health Service (regular and reserve), consistent with 10 USC § 101(a)(5)(B) and (5)(C). Other members of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration and the Public Health Service, or members of these organizations not under the orders of the President, are not included in this definition and would not qualify for an Oregon military pay subtraction.

(b) "Home of the taxpayer" is where the taxpayer does any of the following:

(A) Maintains his or her primary residence;

(B) Lives with his or her family; or

(C) Incurs continuing living expenses, such as mortgage or rent, utilities, and real and personal property taxes and insurance.

(2) Military pay subtraction. A member of the Armed Forces as defined in ORS Chapter 316 and this rule may subtract the following from their taxable military pay:

(a) Year of entry-Year of discharge. Military pay earned for services performed outside of Oregon.

(A) Year of discharge includes termination of full-time active duty from the Armed Forces of the United States.

(B) Year of entry is for initial enlistment or draft and only allowed one time per taxpayer, but the subtraction for year of discharge is allowed each time a taxpayer is discharged.

(C) The date of the enlistment order or date of discharge is the applicable tax year.

Example 1: Brian is domiciled in Oregon and remains domiciled in Oregon for all years relevant to this example. He enlists in the U.S. Army for the first time in 2004 and is stationed in California. In 2008, he is discharged and moves back to Oregon. The Army offers him a position in Portland, Oregon. He accepts the offer and reenlists shortly after the discharge. In 2012, Brian is reassigned to Florida. He plans to retire from the Army in 2024 and move back to Oregon. Brian will qualify for a subtraction of all military pay earned outside Oregon for tax year 2004 because that is his initial year of enlistment into the Armed Forces. He will also qualify for a subtraction for all of his military pay earned outside Oregon for tax years 2008 and 2024 because both years are treated as a year of discharge. From 2008 to 2012, he will qualify for a subtraction of $6,000 of his military pay while stationed in Oregon.

Example 2: Karen is domiciled in Oregon and remains domiciled in Oregon for all years relevant to this example. She enlists in the U.S. Navy in 2000 and is discharged in 2004 and returns to Oregon. Karen decides to reenlist in 2005 at which time she leaves Oregon and is assigned outside Oregon for the rest of her military career. In 2021, she retires from the Navy and returns to Oregon. Karen qualifies for a subtraction of military pay earned outside Oregon for tax year 2000 because that is her initial year of enlistment into the Armed Forces. She will also qualify for a subtraction for her military pay earned outside Oregon for tax years 2004 and 2021 because both years are treated as a year of discharge. Karen does not qualify for a subtraction for her military pay earned outside Oregon in 2005 under the year of entry or year of discharge rules because it was not her initial year of entry. However, she may subtract all of her military pay earned outside Oregon for that year under the subtraction for service performed outside of Oregon discussed in subsection (2)(b) of this rule.

(b) Service outside Oregon. Military pay earned for service performed outside of Oregon from August 1, 1990, to the date set by the President as the end of combat activities in the Persian Gulf Desert Shield area can be subtracted (Executive Order 12744).

Example 3: Jan enlisted in the Air Force Reserves in 2010. She was called to active duty September 15, 2013, and shipped to Fort Lewis, Washington. She earned a total of $10,000 military pay in 2013. $2,000 was earned in Oregon before September 15. She qualifies to subtract her military pay earned outside Oregon after September 15. Jan also qualifies to subtract the remaining $2,000 because it is less than $6,000. Her military pay subtraction is $10,000.

Example 4: Mike enlisted in the Oregon Army National Guard in 2000. He was called to active duty on August 1, 2013 and assigned outside Oregon. He earned $15,000 in military pay -- $10,000 prior to August 1, and $5,000 after. Mike's military pay subtraction for 2013 is $11,000 ($5,000 for service performed outside Oregon and up to $6,000 of his remaining military pay).

(c) Reserve component members away from home overnight. The taxpayer is "away from home" when the taxpayer is required to stay in a temporary location that is not a home of the taxpayer and is not allowed to go home while at the temporary location. The pay earned while away from home for 21 days or longer may only be subtracted by someone who is a member of a reserve component; reserves or National Guard.

Example 5: Hallie is a member of the Army National Guard assigned to her unit in Medford and earned a total of $12,000 for the year. She was required to go on assignment to Umatilla from April 5 to June 23 and stayed overnight in that area. Hallie wasn't authorized to go home during this time. She may subtract the $3,000 she earned during her assignment because she was away from home overnight for 21 days or longer. She may also subtract $6,000 of her remaining military pay.

(d) Other military pay. Any taxable military pay that is not eligible for one of the above subtractions may be subtracted up to $6,000. The military pay subtraction may not exceed the taxable military pay on the return. If both taxpayers on a joint tax return are eligible for a military pay subtraction, each person's subtraction is separately figured before adding them together to report on the return.

Example 6: Joe is a member of the Marine Corps and on active duty for all of 2013. He is domiciled and stationed in Oregon. He earned $25,000 of military pay during 2013. Joe's military pay subtraction is $6,000.

Example 7: Mary and Clyde are married and both members of the Army National Guard. During 2013, Mary was stationed overseas on active duty for 10 months. She received $1,000 of military pay before she was deployed. During her deployment she received $28,000 and $15,000 of that was excluded from federal taxable income. Of the total $29,000 she made, she's only reporting $14,000 as taxable income. She qualifies for a military pay subtraction of all $14,000; $13,000 of her taxable military pay was earned outside Oregon and the remaining taxable military pay is eligible as other military pay. Clyde remained in Oregon during 2013 and earned $10,000 of taxable military pay. He isn't eligible for any of the subtractions allowed for certain situations, but he is eligible to subtract up to $6,000 of his taxable military pay. Together the subtraction on their joint Oregon tax return is $20,000; $14,000 is Mary's and $6,000 is Clyde's.

(3) Combat zone benefits.

(a) Additional time to file and pay. Members of the Armed Forces who served in a combat zone are allowed extra time to take care of their Oregon income tax matters. Taxpayers are allowed the statutory filing period of 3 months and 15 days following the close of the tax year plus at least 180 days after the later of:

(A) The last day the person was in a combat zone (or the last day the area qualifies as a combat zone); or

(B) The last day of any continuous qualified hospitalization for injury from service in the combat.

(b) Eligible actions. The following are some of the income tax actions that can be extended:

(A) Filing any return of income tax (except withholding taxes);

(B) Paying any income tax (except withholding taxes);

(C) Filing a petition with the Tax Court;

(D) Filing a refund claim;

(E) Collection of any income tax due by the Department of Revenue.

Example 8: Margaret entered Saudi Arabia on August 26, 2012. She remained there through March 16, 2013, when she departed for the United States. She was not injured and did not return to the combat zone. She has 285 days (180 plus 105) after her last day in the combat zone, March 16, to file her 2012 income tax return. The 105 additional days are the number of days in the three and a half month filing period that were left when she entered the combat zone (January 1–April 15). Margaret's return is due by December 26, 2013.

Example 9: Leonard's ship entered the Persian Gulf on January 5, 2013. On February 15, 2013, he was injured and flown to a U.S. hospital. Leonard remained in the hospital through April 21, 2013. He has 281 days (180 plus 101) after April 21, his last day in the hospital, to file his 2012 income tax return. The 101 additional days are the number of days in the three and a half month filing period that were left when he entered the combat zone (January 5–April 15). His 2012 return is due by January 27, 2014.

Election to Use Alternative Apportionment Weightings by Taxpayers Engaged in Utilities or Telecommunications; Revocation of Election

(1) A taxpayer engaged in utilities or telecommunications as defined in ORS 314.280(3)(e)(A) and (B) may elect to use the double-weighted sales apportionment factor weightings in ORS 314.650 (1999 Edition).

For processing purposes check the appropriate box in the information section.

(3) A taxpayer may revoke the election to use the double-weighted sales apportionment factor weightings. This revocation is made by completing schedule AP using the single-sales apportionment factor on the original tax return.

Time Limit to Make Adjustment

(1) The provisions of this rule that apply to a federal change or correction apply to reports that are received by the department on or after October 4, 1997. The provisions of this rule that apply to another state's change or correction apply to changes or corrections made on or after October 23, 1999.

(2) The department may mail a Notice of Deficiency at any time within two years after the department receives notification of a change or correction contained in:

(a) A report received from the Internal Revenue Service;

(b) A report received from another state's taxing authority; or

(c) The written report filed by the taxpayer as required by ORS 314.380(2)(a)(A).

Example 1: Ron filed his 1996 federal and state returns on time. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) audited and adjusted his federal return in March 2000. The department may mail a Notice of Deficiency within two years of receiving the report of the Internal Revenue Service adjustment.

(3) The department may mail a Notice of Deficiency if, at the time the change or correction by the Internal Revenue Service or another state's taxing authority was made, an assessment or issuance of a refund of federal or other state's tax based on the change or correction was within the time permitted by federal tax law or the tax law of the other state, as applicable. This provision applies regardless of whether an adjustment to the return is allowable under any other provision of Oregon law.

Example 2: ABC Corporation was audited by the IRS for tax year 1991. ABC Corporation signed an agreement with the IRS to extend the period of time for assessing federal tax. No separate extension agreement was signed with Oregon. Following completion of the federal audit, the department may mail a Notice of Deficiency at any time within two years of receiving the report of the Internal Revenue Service adjustment.

Example 3: Sally filed a timely 1993 tax return. In 1999, the IRS determined that Sally had omitted an item of income that was more than 25 percent of the gross income shown on the return. The IRS assessed additional tax based on Internal Revenue Code section 6501(e), which allows an assessment to be issued within six years of the filing of the return when there is such an omission. The department may mail a Notice of Deficiency based on the federal RAR within two years of receiving that report.

(4) The department may not mail a Notice of Deficiency based on a federal adjustment or the audit report of another state if, at the time of the change or correction, the tax year was closed to adjustment for Oregon purposes and also closed for adjustment under federal tax law, or the law of the other state, whichever applies.

Example 4: Lester filed timely 1995, 1996 and 1997 federal and state tax returns. In 1999, the Internal Revenue Service issued an adjustment that indicated Lester had incorrectly figured a capital loss for 1995. However, the IRS did not assess additional federal tax for 1995 because the year was not open to adjustment under any provision of federal law. Because both the federal and state returns were closed to adjustment, the department may not use the provisions of ORS 314.410(3)(b) to issue a Notice of Deficiency based on the Internal Revenue Service adjustment.

(5) When the department is notified of a change or correction, the department is not limited to the adjustments reflected in the IRS report, the report of the other state's taxing authority, or the taxpayer's written report submitted in the format required by OAR 150-314.380(2)-(B). The department may make any adjustments deemed necessary to properly reflect Oregon taxable income or Oregon tax liability for the year in question.

Example 5: Paul, a California resident, worked temporarily in Oregon in 1995 before returning to California. In April 1996, Paul filed a nonresident Oregon return for 1995 and claimed a credit for taxes paid to California. In March 2000, California audited his 1995 California return and in July 2000 Paul paid additional tax to California based on additional wages earned in Oregon. Paul filed a claim for refund with Oregon in November 2000, as allowed by ORS 314.380(2)(b). In reviewing the claim, the department allowed the increase in the credit for taxes paid to another state based on the increased wages. However, the department determined Paul had incorrectly calculated the political contribution credit and issued an adjusted refund.

Pollution Control Facilities: Tax Credit Carry Forward

(1) The amount of pollution control facility tax credit that may be carried forward to a succeeding tax year is the sum of credits that exceed the tax liability, after other credits, for all prior tax years that are within the carryover period.

Example 1: A corporate excise taxpayer built a pollution control facility in 1995 at a certified cost of $80,000. The certified percentage allocable to pollution control is 50 percent and the facility has a useful life of eight years. The maximum credit allowed in one tax year is calculated as follows: The $80,000 certified cost is multiplied by the 50 percent allocable to pollution control, yielding $40,000 as the total amount of credit to be claimed over the eight year life of the facility. The $40,000 divided by eight equals $5,000, the maximum yearly credit. See ORS 315.304(2). The taxpayer claimed the maximum credit on tax returns for 1995 and 1996. On the taxpayer's 1997 return, the taxpayer is subject to a corporate excise tax of $1,000 that is offset by $1,000 of the pollution control facility tax credit, leaving $4,000 of credit to be carried forward.

(2) If a credit carried forward from a prior year and a current year's credit are available, the taxpayer must use the credit from a previous year first and then the current year's credit.

(3) If a credit carried forward from a prior year and a current year's credit are available, the two credits may be combined and taken up to the amount of tax liability for the year.

Example 2: The taxpayer described in the prior example computes a tax of $8,000 for 1998. The taxpayer will offset that tax with $8,000 of credit ($4,000 carried over from 1997 plus $4,000 of the current year's $5,000 credit), leaving $1,000 of the 1998 credit to be carried forward.

(4) When a facility is sold, the amount of unused credit carried forward from tax years before the sale is retained by the seller to offset tax in future years.

Example 3: Calendar year taxpayer A sold a facility to taxpayer B on January 1, 2001. A's allowable pollution control facility credit for 2000 was $500, but A had a net loss and no tax liability to offset. The unused 2000 credit will be carried forward by A to offset A's future taxes.

(5) A taxpayer that has unexpired credits at the beginning of tax year 2001 may carry those credits forward for up to three additional tax years, but only if the facility is in use and operation during the tax year to which the credit is carried.

Example 4: Calendar year corporation taxpayer B received certification for a pollution control facility with a 10 year asset life and was first eligible to claim the credit in tax year 1996. B reported losses for tax years 1996 through 2000 and was not able to claim the allowable credits for those years. The credit allowed for 1996 was carried forward to 1997, 1998, and 1999 and expired. The credit allowed for 1997 was carried forward to 1998, 1999, and 2000 and expired. The credits allowed for tax years 1998 through 2005 were unexpired at the beginning of B's 2001 tax year and are eligible to be carried forward for up to six years.

Example 5: Taxpayer B from Example 4 reports a loss in tax year 2002 and closes the pollution control facility on December 31, 2002. B's unused credits from 1998 and 1999 may not be carried forward to 2003 because the facility was not in use and operation during the tax year to which the credit is carried and the three year period for carryover expired in 2001 and 2002 respectively. The credits for tax years 2000, 2001, and 2002 are eligible to be carried forward for up to three years. No credits may be computed for tax years 2003, 2004, and 2005, but the unused credits carried forward from 2000, 2001, and 2002 may be claimed in the three later years.

Example 6: Corporation taxpayer C's pollution control facility is certified on January 1, 2001. C is able to offset only half of its allowable credit against tax on its 2001 return. The balance of the 2001 credit may only be carried forward for up to three years. C did not have unexpired credits at the beginning of its tax year beginning in 2001.

Definition: "Doing Business"

(1) A taxpayer is doing business when it engages in any profit-seeking activity in the State of Oregon. What transaction or transactions need be entered into within this state in the course of such an activity to constitute the doing or carrying on of business within the state is primarily a question of fact, depending upon the circumstances in each case.

Example 1: The taxpayer is clearly doing business within this state if it occupies, has, maintains or operates an office, shop, store, warehouse, factory, agency or other place within this state where some of its affairs are systematically and regularly carried on, notwithstanding the fact that it may also enter into transactions outside this state.

Example 2: A corporation engaged in the sale of tangible personal property is doing business within this state if sales activities are regularly carried on within this state by an employee or agent of the seller, and if either a stock of goods is maintained within this state, or an office or other place of business where affairs of the corporation are regularly carried on is maintained within this state.

Example 3: A foreign corporation consigns goods to one or more consignees within Oregon who then sell the goods. The foreign corporation is doing business in Oregon since it has sales activity and a stock of goods within Oregon.

(2) A foreign corporation whose business is providing services is "doing business" in this state if it has employees providing those services in Oregon. It does not matter whether the services are provided on the client's property or on the corporation's own property since it is engaged in a profit seeking activity in Oregon.

(3) If a foreign corporation's business activities in this state are confined to purchase and storage of personal property incident to shipment outside the state, the corporation is not deemed to be doing business for corporation excise tax purposes if the following conditions are met:

(a) The personal property remains in the exact state or form as it was when purchased during the time it is located within Oregon.

(b) The foreign corporation is not an affiliate of another foreign or domestic corporation, as defined in section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code, which is doing business in Oregon.

(4) The fact that a corporation has no employees in Oregon does not mean the corporation is not doing business in this state. If activities are performed in Oregon by a third party on behalf of the corporation, and the activities are not protected under Public Law 86-272, the corporation is doing business in Oregon.

Example 4: The provision of in-state repair and warranty services by an independent contractor for a direct marketing computer company, advertised as part of its standard warranty or as an option that can be separately purchased, contribute significantly to the company's ability to establish and maintain its market for computer hardware sales in Oregon. Therefore, the computer company is doing business in Oregon. The extension of immunity for activities by independent contractors under Public Law 86-272 does not include repair and warranty service.

(5) A corporation that is not "doing business" in Oregon may still be subject to tax in this state. The Oregon corporation income tax under ORS Chapter 318 imposes tax on corporations that have income derived from sources within Oregon. See OAR 150-318.020(2) for a list and description of the activities that, if conducted in Oregon, will result in a corporation being subject to the corporation income tax.

Tax on Homeowner's Association Income

Homeowners associations, such as condominium management associations and residential real estate management associations, may elect to be treated as tax-exempt organizations for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1978. But this tax-exempt status will protect the association from tax only on its exempt function income, such as membership dues, fees, and assessments received from member-owners of residential units in the particular condominium or subdivision involved. The homeowners association taxable income will be taxed at the corporate rates provided in ORS 317.061. To qualify for the election, the association must meet the following conditions:

(1) A copy of the federal Form 1120-H filed with the Internal Revenue Service must be filed with the Oregon Department of Revenue no later than the time prescribed by law for filing the return.

(2) It must be organized and operated as provided in section 528(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) "Homeowners association taxable income" is determined pursuant to section 528(d) of the Internal Revenue Code and pertinent federal regulations. However, net capital gains shall be included in the computation of homeowners association taxable income and shall receive no special treatment.

(4) "Exempt function income" is determined pursuant to section 528(d) of the Internal Revenue Code and pertinent federal regulations.

(5) If a homeowners association that elects to be treated as a tax exempt organization has positive homeowners association taxable income, it shall be reported on an Oregon Corporation Excise Tax Return, Form 20and the association is subject to the greater of the calculated corporation excise tax or the minimum tax.

(6) If a homeowners association that elects to be treated as a tax-exempt organization does not have positive homeowners association taxable income, the association is not required to file an Oregon Corporation Excise Tax Return, Form 20 and is not subject to the minimum tax.

Rules Repealed: 141-030-0036, 141-035-0015
Subject: The revised rules repeal all references to institutional escheat property which was no longer reportable to the Department when ORS 179.540 was repealed in 1997, and all such property currently being held has been held for more than 10 years and is no longer available for claim. Other sections of the rules are revised to reflect the current statutory authority and/or remove authority that has been repealed.

The revised rules clarify the types of abandoned tangible personal property that are not considered reportable as unclaimed. The revisions provide specific exclusions for willful abandonment of things such as automobiles, furniture, household goods, used clothing, and hazardous materials.

The agency and its stakeholders have been able to achieve efficiencies in administration of and compliance with program requirements by advances in technology. The rules have been revised to reflect the increased use of technology and electronic reporting and record keeping.

The Division 35 rules were last revised in December 2003. The majority of the revisions are intended to provide clarity and improve the readability of the rules.

The Department shall sign a receipt for the unopened package upon delivery to the Department, and forward the receipt to the holder within five working days.

(d) The holder shall clearly identify on the package the holder's complete name and return address.

(e) With the exception of hazardous tangible property noted in OAR 141-045-0031(2)(b), the holder shall forward the complete contents of safekeeping depositories to the Department intact. The holder may not convert, substitute or exchange any coins and currency found in the box.

(f) The holder may include information about safekeeping depository costs in its report to the Department. When the owner files a claim for the property, the Department shall require the owner to furnish a paid receipt or waiver for these costs from the holder before the claim will be approved.

(10) Any holder, business association, transfer agent, registrar or other person acting on behalf of the holder of an intangible equity ownership interest deemed unclaimed according to ORS 98.322 shall, in addition to supplying the information required in OAR 141-045-0100(5) above:

(a) Report and transfer the shares directly to the Department's designated stock broker or transfer agent via available electronic medium and include a confirmation of the transfer with the report.

(b) When an electronic method of transfer is not available the holder shall:

(A) Where the original certificate is being held by the holder for the owner (i.e., stock or other certificate of ownership of a business association which has been returned to the holder, who cannot find the owner), cancel that certificate and issue a replacement certificate of ownership to the Department; or

(B) When the holder does not hold the original certificate, issue a replacement certificate i.e., a duplicate certificate of ownership or other distribution or stock or other certificates of ownership of a business association issued in the name of the Department of State Lands as custodian of unclaimed property. The original certificate of ownership is presumed to be in the possession of the missing owner to the Department.

(c) In any case, the holder shall report and forward to the Department all outstanding accrued dividends, along with the certificate.

(11) In addition to supplying the information required in OAR 141-045-0100(5), a holder reporting mutual funds in book entry form shall:

(a) Transfer the account directly into the Department's account at the Department's designated broker dealer and forward a confirmation of account transfer to the Department along with the report; and

(b) Forward future income in the form of cash (for example, dividends, capital gains, etc.) payable to the Department from mutual fund accounts with dividend reinvestment plans.

(12) If the holder is a dissolved agricultural cooperative, the holder shall forward the original reports detailing unclaimed dissolved agricultural cooperative accounts to the Department along with the funds, and file a copy of the report with the State Board of Higher Education. The Department shall reconcile the report to the delivered funds, deduct the costs as provided for in ORS 62.720 and forward the funds to the State Board of Higher Education within 14 working days after receiving the funds.

(13) The receiver or other liquidating agent for a dissolved corporation shall prepare a report containing the names and last-known addresses of the persons entitled to such funds.

(14) Before October 1 each year, each state agency shall prepare a report of all checks, warrants, and orders drawn by it which have been outstanding for a period of more than two years prior to July 1, and that have not been paid by the State Treasurer. The report shall not include checks or orders that have already been paid pursuant to indemnity bonds. The agency shall forward the report to the Department before November 1.

(15) After October 1, the State Treasurer may refuse payment of the unpresented checks or orders included in the report, and upon instructions by the issuing agency shall:

(a) Transfer and credit the amounts of the unpresented checks or orders dedicated for general funding to the General Fund;

(b) Except for federal funds governed by federal laws and rules as provided in ORS 291.003 and 409.040(2), transfer all other funds to the Department; and

(c) Report information about any payment made to an owner subsequent to filing the report, but before transferring the funds to the Department.

(16) If the holder of the unclaimed account is a successor to other persons who previously held the property, or if the holder has had a name change, the holder shall include in the initial report prior known names and addresses of the original or previous holder.

Subject: On December 14, 2010 the State Land Board directed the Department of State Lands to initiate rulemaking to develop new rules governing the processes to be used by the Department to authorize environmental remediation and/or restoration activities undertaken by, or pursuant to an order issued by DEQ or the EPA within the Portland Harbor Superfund Site and other locations throughout Oregon.

The proposed rules define the administrative process by which the Department will authorize remedial actions on state-owned submerged and/or submersible lands. The Department will authorize these uses by issuing access authorizations, easements, and leases. The authorization type can vary depending on the time requested, type of remediation, and applicant preference. The proposed rules also define the administrative process by which conservation easements for habitat restoration will be issued.

The Department convened a rulemaking advisory committee (RAC) to assist in the drafting of this rule. The RAC had seven all day meetings spanning from December of 2011 to September of 2012. The RAC discussed remediation and restoration issues; and provided comment, edits and proposed language for this rulemaking effort. At the September 6, 2012 meeting, the RAC voted unanimously that the draft rules were ready to move to the public comment phase.

Rules Coordinator: Tiana Teeters—(503) 986-5239

Purpose and Applicability

(1) These rules:

(a) Govern the granting and renewal of access authorizations, leases, and easements issued to facilitate remediation conducted pursuant to an order issued by the Oregon Department of Environmental Quality (ODEQ) or the United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and habitat restoration activities in, on, under or over state-owned submerged and submersible land including, but not limited to:

(A) Site monitoring;

(B) Site habitat restoration;

(C) Environmental dredging;

(D) Mitigation;

(E) Monitored natural recovery;

(F) Enhanced monitored natural recovery; and

(G) Construction and maintenance of a soil cap or sediment cap

(b) Are to facilitate access needed for remediation and restoration of state-owned submerged and submersible lands and not to require any action that is contrary to or in conflict with any order, work plan, design, or other deliverable approved by the ODEQ or EPA, and do not apply to the granting of:

(A) Easements on state-owned submerged and submersible land governed by division 122 of the Department's administrative rules;

(B) Authorizations for leases, licenses and registrations for structures on and uses of state-owned submerged and submersible lands governed by division 82 of the Department's rules;

(C) Authorizations for special uses of state-owned submerged and submersible land such as to conduct site investigations and scientific experiments as governed by division 125 of the Department's administrative rules;

(D) Land sale approvals governed by division 67 of the Department's administrative rules.

(E) Any regulatory permits that may be required, including permits governed by division 85 of the Department's administrative rules.

(F) Authorizations for uses and structures specifically governed by any other chapter of the Department's administrative rules; and,

(G) Authorizations for uses other than removal, remediation, or restoration.

(c) Clarify that all uses of, and structures occupying state-owned submerged and submersible land not otherwise exempt from authorization under these rules or other state law, require prior written authorization from the Department pursuant to these rules.

(2) The Director may determine other uses and structures similar to those specified in OAR 141-145-0015 that are subject to a specific authorization under these rules.

(3) An application submitted under these rules to remove royalty exempt material (as defined in ORS 274.550) does not require a sand and gravel authorization under division 14. Submitting an application for this activity under these rules satisfies the requirement that an application be submitted under division 14.

(4) Requirements of the Lower Willamette River Management Plan, OAR 141-080-0105, do not apply to authorizations issued under these rules.

Definitions

As used in these rules:

(1) "Access Authorization" is a written authorization issued by the Department for a specific length of time determined by the Director that allows access to state land for remediation or habitat restoration activities.

(2) "Applicant" is any person applying for an authorization.

(3) "Appraised Value" means an estimate of current fair market value of property (not including improvements) in dollars per square foot derived by disinterested persons of suitable qualifications, for example, a licensed independent appraiser.

(8) "Conservation Easement" as defined in ORS 271.715(1), means a nonpossessory interest of a holder in real property imposing limitations or affirmative obligations the purposes of which include retaining or protecting natural, scenic, or open space values of real property, ensuring its availability for agricultural, forest, recreational, or open space use, protecting natural resources, maintaining or enhancing air or water quality, or preserving the historical, architectural, archaeological, or cultural aspects of real property.

(9) "Department" means the Department of State Lands. The Department is the administrative arm of the State Land Board.

(10) "Director" means the Director of the Department of State Lands or designee.

(11) "Easement" is an authorization granted by the Department that gives a person the use of a specifically designated parcel of state-owned land for a specific purpose and length of time. An easement does not convey any proprietary or other rights of use to the holder other than those specifically granted in the easement authorization.

(12) "Enhanced Monitored Natural Recovery" combines natural recovery with engineering approaches such as installing flow control structures to encourage natural deposition, or the placement of a thin layer of additional clean sediment or additives to enhance sorption or chemical transformation.

(13) "Environmental Dredging" means the removal of contaminated sediments from a waterbody as part of a removal, remediation or habitat restoration project.

(14) "Fair Market Value" is the amount at which property would change hands between a willing buyer and a willing seller, neither being under any compulsion to buy or sell, and both having reasonable knowledge of the relevant facts concerning the property.

(15) "Habitat Restoration" means the manipulation of the physical, chemical, or biological characteristics of a site with the goal of returning natural functions to the lost or degraded native habitat.

(16) "Holder" is the person who has been issued an authorization under these rules.

(19) "Line of Ordinary Low Water" as defined in ORS 274.005, means the line on the bank or shore to which the low water ordinarily recedes annually in season.

(20) "Monitored Natural Recovery" is a remedy for contaminated sediment that uses ongoing, naturally occurring processes to contain, destroy, or reduce the bioavailability or toxicity of contaminants in sediment.

(21) "Mitigation" means compensating for the effect by creating, restoring, enhancing or preserving substitute functions and values for the waters of this state.

(22) "Natural Resource Damage Assessment" is a process by which a designated Natural Resources Trustee evaluates how natural resources were harmed over the time that an area has been contaminated and develops a restoration plan to compensate for those losses.

(23) "Not for Profit" refers to an association or group organized for purposes other than generating profit, such as an educational, charitable, scientific, or other organization qualifying under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(24) "Permanent Easement" is a type of easement that is issued in perpetuity.

The preference right does not apply to the renewal of an existing lease where the lessee is in compliance with all the terms and conditions of the lease. A person claiming the right of occupancy to submerged and submersible land under a conveyance recorded before January 1, 1981, has a preference right to the requested lease area.

(28) "Preference Right Holder" means the person holding the preference right to lease as defined in these rules and ORS 274.040(1).

(29) "Public Trust Use(s)" means those uses embodied in the Public Trust Doctrine under federal and state law including, but not limited to navigation, recreation, commerce and fisheries, and other uses that support, protect, and enhance those uses. Examples of Public Trust Uses include, but are not limited to, short term moorage, camping, bank fishing, picnicking, and boating.

(30) "Remediation" or "Remedial Action" as defined in ORS 465.200(23), means those actions consistent with a permanent remedial action taken instead of or in addition to removal actions in the event of a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance into the environment, to prevent or minimize the release of a hazardous substance so that it does not migrate to cause substantial danger to present or future public health, safety, welfare or the environment. "Remedial action" includes, but is not limited to:

(a) Such actions at the location of the release as storage, confinement, perimeter protection using dikes, trenches or ditches, clay cover, neutralization, cleanup of released hazardous substances and associated contaminated materials, recycling or reuse, diversion, destruction, segregation of reactive wastes, dredging or excavations, repair or replacement of leaking containers, collection of leachate and runoff, on-site treatment or incineration, provision of alternative drinking and household water supplies, and any monitoring reasonably required to assure that the actions protect the public health, safety, welfare and the environment.

(32) "Site Diminishment Impact" is a measure of the negative effect, including but not limited to use restrictions, of the applicant's proposed use on public trust uses of the state-owned submerged and submersible lands. It is used in calculating the fair compensation that a holder will pay for the use of the authorized area.

(33) "Site Monitoring" means visiting a property on an established schedule to check compliance with an order or other agreement to complete remedial action or habitat restoration; or periodically visiting a property to determine compliance with the terms of a conservation easement. (37) "Structure" means anything placed, constructed, or erected on, in, under or over state-owned submerged and submersible land that is associated with a use that requires an authorization. A "structure" includes but is not limited to, a soil or sediment cap, moored dredge equipment, monitoring equipment, a ship, boat, vessel, or components of a restoration project.

General Provisions

(1) All tidally influenced and title navigable waterways (referred to as state-owned submerged and submersible land) have been placed by the Oregon State Legislature under the jurisdiction of the State Land Board and the Department, as the administrative arm of the State Land Board.

(2) The State Land Board, through the Department, has a constitutional responsibility to manage "the lands under its jurisdiction with the object of obtaining the greatest benefit for the people of this state, consistent with the conservation of this resource under sound techniques of land management" pursuant to Article 8, Section 5(2) of the Oregon Constitution. This responsibility requires that the Department receives fair compensation for the use or disposal of state-owned land managed by the Department.

(3) State-owned submerged and submersible land is managed to ensure the collective rights of the public, including riparian owners, to fully use and enjoy this resource for commerce, navigation, fishing, recreation and other public trust values. These rights are collectively referred to as "public trust rights."

(4) No person is allowed to place a structure on, or make use of state-owned submerged and submersible land, regardless of the length of time the structure may have existed on, or the use may have occurred on the land, without the required authorization described in these rules, unless the structure or use is exempt from such authorization. Ownership of state-owned submerged and submersible land cannot be obtained by adverse possession regardless of the length of time the structure or use has been in existence.

(5) All uses of state-owned submerged and submersible land must conform to applicable local (including local comprehensive land use planning and zoning ordinance requirements), state and federal laws.

(6) No applicant or holder is allowed to request from any government agency a change in the zoning for, or approved uses of state-owned submerged and submersible land without first applying to, and receiving written approval from the Department.

(7) All references in these rules to "state-owned submerged and submersible land" include state-owned submerged lands or submersible lands or both.

Types of Authorizations

(1) Access Authorization: Uses of state-owned submerged and submersible land for a term less than three (3) years, for purposes of, including but not limited to:

(a) Site monitoring;
(b) Habitat restoration;
(c) Environmental dredging;
(d) Monitored natural recovery; or
(e) Enhanced monitored natural recovery.

(2) Easement: Uses of state-owned submerged and submersible land for more than three (3) years including but not limited to:

(a) Construction and maintenance of permanent structures associated with removal or remedial activities. For the purposes of these rules, soil and sediment caps are considered a permanent structure.
(b) Site monitoring;
(c) Environmental dredging;
(d) Monitored natural recovery; or
(e) Enhanced monitored natural recovery

(3) Lease: Uses of state-owned submerged and submersible land including but not limited to construction and maintenance of a non-permanent structure or structures.

(4) Conservation Easement: Use of state-owned submerged and submersible land for which the applicant is seeking long-term use restrictions to protect its conservation value. Conservation easements may be issued in perpetuity or for a term of years.

(5) The Department may, at its discretion, authorize multiple uses by a holder under one authorization. The Department will evaluate the proposed project as a whole, and offer the authorization that accommodates the longer term use. For example, the Department may evaluate a project that includes environmental dredging for one year and monitored natural recovery for twenty years. In this example the Department would offer one easement, or lease, that would authorize both uses of state-owned submerged and submersible lands.

(2) If an application is determined by the Department to be incomplete, the Department will notify the applicant that the application is incomplete and provide a list of additional information required. If an incomplete application is resubmitted within 120 calendar days from the date the Department determined the application incomplete, no additional application fee will be assessed.

(3) The Department may reject an application for an authorization if:

(a) The applicant's financial status or past business/management practices or experience indicates that it may not:

(A) Be able to fully meet the terms and conditions of the authorization offered by the Department; or

(B) Use the land for which authorization is sought in a way that meets the provisions of these rules.

(b) The applicant is not in compliance with the terms and conditions on any other authorization granted to them by the Department.

(4) Except as provided in OAR 141-145-0030(5), the Department will notify the appropriate city or county planning department, pertinent state and federal agencies, federally recognized tribal governments, ports and all lessees and adjacent riparian property owners (as available from the local county assessor's office records) and other interested parties of the application and request review and comment. The Department may require the applicant to respond to comments where applicable.

(5) The Department may elect not to request review and comment on an application as provided in OAR 141-145-0030(4) if the use or structure:

(a) Has already received the necessary city or county approvals;

(b) Has been subjected to public comment during a prior circulation; and,

(c) Has not changed in terms of the size of the authorized area or use of that area since the time those approvals were given.

(6) Based on its evaluation of the application and the comments received, the Department will:

(a) Approve the application and move forward with the issuance of the requested authorization.

(b) Require that the applicant modify, and as deemed necessary by the Department, resubmit the application; or

(c) Deny the application.

(7) An applicant or an affected party who submitted a timely comment on the proposed project has the right to appeal a decision under the provisions of OAR 141-145-0090.

(1) The following terms and conditions apply for authorizations administered under these rules.

(a) Authorizations issued by the Department will be for the minimum area determined to be required for the requested use.

(b) The Department may grant additional authorizations which, as determined by the Department, do not substantially interfere with an authorized use administered under these rules.

Compensation

(1) The compensation for an authorization for remediation necessitated by operations at an orphan site as determined by and under the management of the ODEQ or EPA shall be five hundred ($500) dollars. If at any point a party is located to perform or pay for the remediation of what had previously been designated an orphan site, that party must compensate the Department for the cost of that use of state-owned land according to these rules.

(2) The minimum compensation for any authorization issued under these rules shall be one thousand dollars ($1,000), with the following exceptions:

(a) Authorizations meeting the provisions of OAR 141-145-0060(1), and;

(b) Proposed uses determined by the Department to have a "no or minimal impact" in OAR 141-145-0060(4)(a). Uses considered to have a "no or minimal impact" in 141-145-0060(4)(a) require no compensation.

(3) Subject to the base minimum compensation established in OAR 141-145-0060(2), the method for calculating compensation due for an authorization issued under these rules shall be determined through the following formula.

COMP = AV x LA x SDI
NOTE: Formula Explanation
AV= Appraised value or assessed value (as defined in OAR 141-145-0005(3) and (4) of these rules) whichever is less except as stated in OAR 141-145-0060(7). AV is expressed as a value per square foot.
LA= Authorized use area in square feet of state-owned submerged and submersible land.
SDI= Defined in OAR 141-145-0005(32). SDI is expressed as a percentage in this formula.
COMP= Compensation due to the Department for the authorization.

(a) For access authorizations, compensation due to the Department for the authorization will be a one-time payment determined by the formula COMP = AV x LA x SDI.

(b) For easements, compensation due the Department for the authorization will be a one-time payment that is the lesser of:

(A) [(AV x LA x SDI)/30] x number of years authorized; or

(B) Flat rate method for a non-marine use (as described in Division 82) of $0.5301 per square foot (which will be increased each year on July 1st by three percent) x LA x number of years authorized.

(c) For conservation easements, compensation due the Department for the authorization will be a one-time payment equal to AV x LA x 50%.

(d) For lease authorizations, annual lease payment calculation is the lesser of the:

(A) AV x LA x SDI x 5%; or

(B) Flat rate method for a non-marine use (as described in Division 82) of $0.5301 per square foot (which will be increased each year on July 1st by three percent) x LA

(4) The Site Diminishment Impact percentage for an access authorization is calculated by the Department as follows:

(a) A proposed use is considered to have a "no or minimal impact" and an SDI of 0% if the Department determines:

(A) The proposed use would not impose any public trust use restrictions that last more than fourteen (14) consecutive days per calendar year, and

(B) The proposed use would not limit or constrain the Department in issuing other waterway authorizations administered under Division 82.

(b) A proposed use is considered to have a "moderate impact" and an SDI of 3.5% if the Department determines:

(A) The proposed use would impose one public trust use restriction that lasts more than fourteen (14) consecutive days, or

(B) The proposed use would limit or constrain the Department in issuing other waterway authorizations administered under Division 82.

(c) A proposed use is considered to have a "significant impact" and an SDI of 7% if the Department determines:

(A) The proposed use would impose more than one public trust use restrictions that last more than fourteen (14) consecutive days, or,

(B) The proposed use would preclude the Department from issuing any other waterway authorizations administered under division 82.

(5) The Site Diminishment Impact for an easement or lease is calculated by the Department as follows:

(a) A proposed use is considered to have "no or minimal impact" and an SDI of 1% if the Department determines that:

(A) The proposed use would not impose any public trust use restrictions that last more than fourteen (14) consecutive days per calendar year, and

(B) The proposed use would not limit or constrain the Department in issuing other waterway authorizations administered under Division 82.

(b) A proposed use is considered to have a "moderate impact" and an SDI of 50% if the Department determines that:

(A) The proposed use would impose one public trust use restriction that lasts more than fourteen (14) consecutive days, or

(B) The proposed use would limit or constrain the Department in issuing other waterway authorizations administered under division 82.

(c) An easement or lease is considered to have a "significant impact" and an SDI of 100% if the Department determines that:

(A) The proposed use would impose more than one public trust use restrictions that last more than fourteen (14) consecutive days, or,

(B) The proposed use would preclude the Department from issuing any other waterway authorizations administered under division 82.

(6) In calculating compensation under these rules, applicants may substitute an appraised value of the adjacent riparian tax lot or as determined by the Department, a comparable tax lot in place of the assessed value. The Department reserves the right to evaluate, review, and challenge the appraisal. The appraisal shall be conducted at the applicant's expense. If the appraisal is used by the Department to calculate the compensation, the Department will credit one-half of the cost of the appraisal to the applicant's compensation. In the event of a dispute between the Department and the applicant, the value shall be determined through the three-appraiser method specified in ORS 274.929(3).

(7) If in the process of calculating compensation, the AV is found to be depressed due to the presence of hazardous substances or some other extenuating circumstance(s) as determined by the Department, another comparable upland tax lot shall be selected by the Department as the basis for calculating the compensation. The applicant may suggest a comparable tax lot or may appeal the Department's selection as allowed in OAR 141-145-0090.

(3) To assign an easement or lease, the holder must submit to the Department a:

(a) Notice of proposed assignment on a form provided by the Department at least 60 calendar days prior to the date that the assignment is to occur; and

(b) Non-refundable administrative processing fee of $750, payable to the Department.

(1) State-owned submerged and submersible land must remain open to Public Trust Uses unless a restriction is approved by the Department or other agencies with jurisdiction over navigation or public safety.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of division 88, a holder may close all or a portion of the authorized area to Public Trust Uses, or restrict Public Trust Uses within all or a portion of the authorized area, provided the closure or restriction is:

(A) Reasonably necessary to protect persons and property from harm arising from holder's authorized use of the submerged and submersible land;

(B) Limited in duration; and

(C) Limited in scope.

(b) If the proposed closure or restriction is wholly or partially within the navigation channel of the waterway as established by the United States Coast Guard, or is located in such a way as to increase traffic in or otherwise impact use of the navigation channel, holder shall consult with the United States Coast Guard, the Oregon Marine Board and any applicable port prior to implementing the closure or restriction. Holder must comply with all requirements imposed by the United States Coast Guard and the Oregon Marine Board.

(c) The holder must provide written notice to the Department no less than fourteen (14) days prior to the implementation of any closure or restriction. The written notice must identify the need for and the scope, and duration of the closure or restriction, and must certify that holder has consulted and received approval from the United States Coast Guard and the Oregon Marine Board regarding the closure or restriction, if required under OAR 141-145-0080(1)(b).

731-147-0040
Special Delegated Procurements

(1) Terms used in division 147 rules have the same meaning as defined in ORS 279B.085.

(2) Authorization. The Chief Procurement Officer of the DAS State Procurement Office has granted approval and authority per OAR 125-246-0140, and 125-247-0288 to the ODOT Designated Procurement Officer for the following Special Procurements:

(a) Brand Names or Products, "or Equal," Single Seller and Sole Source;

(b) Equipment Repair and Overhaul;

(c) Purchases of Used Personal Property; and

(d) Reverse Auctions.

(3) The following apply to Brand Names or Products, "or Equal," Single Seller and Sole Source procurements:

(a) "Procurement of Brand Name 'or Equal' Products" means the Procurement of a product after specifying the registered Brand name of the product or requiring the same Specifications of the Brand Name product.

(b) Specifications. Solicitation Specifications for Public Contracts must not expressly or implicitly require any product of any particular manufacturer or seller except:

(A) "Or Equal" Specification. ODOT may specify a particular brand name, make or product suffixed by "or equal," "or approved equal," "or equivalent," "or approved equivalent," or similar language if there is no other practical method of Specification; and

(B) Specifying a particular make or product. ODOT may specify a Brand Name, make, or product without an "or equal" or equivalent suffix if there is no other practical method of Specification, after documenting the Procurement File with the following:

(i) A brief description of the Solicitation(s) to be covered including volume of contemplated future purchases;

(ii) The Brand Name, mark, or product to be specified; and

(iii) The reason ODOT is seeking this procurement method, which must include at least one of the following findings in the Procurement File:

(I) It is unlikely that Specification of the Brand Name, mark or product will encourage favoritism in the award of the Public Contracts or substantially diminish competition;

(II) Specification of the Brand Name, mark or product would result in substantial cost savings to ODOT; or

(III) Efficient utilization of existing equipment or supplies requires the acquisition of compatible equipment or supplies.

(c) Public Notice. ODOT must make a reasonable effort to notify all known suppliers of the specified product and invite such suppliers to submit competitive bids or proposals; or must document the Procurement File with findings of current market research to support the determination that the product is available from only one seller. Posting a notice on ORPIN for a reasonable time period satisfies this requirement.

(d) Purchasing From Sole Source, Single Seller. ODOT may purchase a particular product or service (also known as Goods or Services) available from only one source if ODOT meets the requirements of paragraphs (b)(A) and (B) of this section and a Sole-Source Procurement pursuant to ORS 279B.075. ODOT, prior to purchase, must document the Procurement File with ODOT's findings of current market research to support the determination that the product or service is available from only one seller or source. ODOT's findings must also include:

(A) A brief description of the Contract or Contracts to be covered including volume of contemplated future purchases;

(B) Description of the Goods or Services to be purchased; and

(C) The reason ODOT is seeking this procurement method, that could include the following reasons:

(i) Efficient utilization of existing Goods or Services requires the acquisition of compatible Goods or Services;

(ii) The required product is data processing equipment which will be used for research where there are requirements for exchange of software and data with other research establishments; or

(iii) The particular product is for use in a pilot or an experimental project.

(e) Single Manufacturer, Multiple Sellers. ODOT may specify Goods or Services available from only one manufacturer, but available through multiple sellers, if ODOT meets the requirements of paragraphs (b)(A) and (B) of this section and the following:

(A) If the total purchase is $10,000 or more but does not exceed $150,000 and a comparable product or service is not available under an existing Mandatory Use Contract, competitive quotes must be obtained and retained in the Procurement File for Intermediate Procurements; or

(B) If the purchase exceeds $150,000, and the comparable Good or Services is not available under an existing Mandatory Use Contract, ODOT must follow the Solicitation process for Competitive Sealed Bids or Competitive Sealed Proposals.

(f) Single Manufacturer, Multiple Purchases. If ODOT intends to make several purchases of the product of a particular manufacturer or seller for a period not to exceed five (5) years, ODOT must so state in the Procurement file, the Solicitation Document, if any, and the public notice described in paragraph (b)(B) of this section. Such documentation and public notice constitute sufficient notice as to subsequent purchases. If the total purchase amount is estimated to exceed $150,000, this must be stated in the advertisement for Bids or Proposals.

(g) If ODOT competitively solicits, it must comply with the rules for that method of Solicitation pursuant to ORS 279B.055 through 279B.075 and 137-047-0255 through 137-047-0263.

(h) Nothing in this rule exempts ODOT from obtaining the approval of the Attorney General for legal sufficiency review requirement pursuant to ORS 291.047.

(i) ODOT must comply with ORS 200.035, notwithstanding this rule.

(4) The following apply to Equipment Repair and Overhaul procurements:

(a) Conditions. ODOT may enter into a Public Contract for equipment repair or overhaul without competitive bidding, subject to the following conditions:

(A) Service or parts required are unknown and the cost cannot be determined without extensive preliminary dismantling or testing; or

(B) Service or parts required are for sophisticated equipment for which specially trained personnel are required and such personnel are available from only one source; and

(b) Process and Criteria. ODOT must use competitive methods wherever possible to achieve best value and must document in the Procurement File the reasons why a competitive process was deemed impractical. If the anticipated purchase exceeds $5,000, ODOT must post notice on ORPIN. The resulting Contract must be in Writing and ODOT's Procurement File must document the use of this Special Procurement rule by number to identify the sourcing method. Nothing in this rule waives the Department of Justice legal sufficiency review requirement if applicable under ORS 291.047.

(5) The following apply to Purchase of Used Personal Property procurements:

(a) Authorization. Subject to the provisions of this rule, ODOT may purchase used property or equipment without competitive bidding and without obtaining competitive quotes, if, at the time of purchase, ODOT has determined and documented that the purchase will:

(A) Be unlikely to encourage favoritism or diminish competition; and

(B) Result in substantial cost savings or promote the public interest.

(b) "Used personal property or equipment" means the property or equipment which has been placed in its intended use by a previous owner or user for a period of time recognized in the relevant trade or industry as qualifying the personal property or equipment as "used," at the time of ODOT's purchase. "Used personal property or equipment" generally does not include property or equipment if ODOT was the previous user, whether under a lease, as part of a demonstration, trial or pilot project, or similar arrangement.

(c) Process and Criteria:

(A) For purchases of used personal property or equipment with a cost not exceeding $150,000, ODOT must, where feasible, obtain three competitive Quotes, unless ODOT has determined and documented that a purchase without obtaining competitive Quotes will result in cost savings and will not diminish competition or encourage favoritism.

(B) For purchases of used personal property or equipment exceeding $150,000, ODOT must use competitive methods wherever possible to achieve best value and must document in the Procurement File the reasons why a competitive process was deemed impractical. If the anticipated purchase amount exceeds $5,000, ODOT must post notice on ORPIN. The resulting Contract must be in Writing and ODOT's Procurement File must document the use of this Special Procurement rule by number to identify the sourcing method. Nothing in this rule waives the Department of Justice legal sufficiency review requirement if applicable under ORS 291.047.

(6) The following apply to Reverse Auction procurements:

(a) Process. A Reverse Auction means a process for the purchase of Goods or Services by a buyer from the lowest Bidder. ODOT, as the buyer, must conduct Reverse Auctions by first publishing a Solicitation that describes its requirements, and the Contract terms and conditions. Then, ODOT must solicit online Bids from all interested Bidders through an Internet-based program. The Solicitation must set forth a start and end time for Bids and specify any combination of the following type of information to be disclosed to Bidders during the Reverse Auction:

(A) The prices of the other Bidders or the price of the most competitive Bidder;

(B) The rank of each Bidder (e.g., (i) "winning" or "not winning" or (ii) "1st, 2nd, or higher");

(C) The scores of the Bidders if ODOT chooses to use a scoring model that weighs non-price factors in addition to price; or

(D) Any combination of paragraphs (A), (B) and (C) of this subsection.

(b) Before the Reverse Auction commences, Bidders must be required by ODOT to assent to the Contract terms and conditions, either in Writing or by an Internet "click" agreement. The Bidders then compete for the award of a Contract by offering successively lower prices, informed by the price(s), ranks, and scores, separately or in any combination thereof, disclosed by ODOT. The identity of the Bidders must not be revealed during this process. Only the successively lower price(s), ranks, scores and related details, separately or in any combination thereof, will be revealed to the participants. ODOT may cancel this Solicitation if it determines that it is in ODOT's or the State's best interest. At the end of the Bidding process, and if the solicitation has not been cancelled, ODOT must award any potential Contract to the lowest Responsible Bidder or in the case of multiple awards, lowest Responsible Bidders pursuant to ORS 279A.055(10)(b). This process allows ODOT to test and determine the suitability of the Goods or Services before making the Award. ODOT must comply with the following public notice procedures for this type of Solicitation:

(A) ODOT must disclose the Reverse Auction process in the Solicitation Documents.

(B) ODOT must provide initial notice of this Solicitation through ORPIN.

(C) ODOT must give subsequent notices of the price(s) offered, rank(s), score(s) and related details to the initial Bidders, as described in the Solicitation Document.

(D) ODOT must issue a Notice of Intent to award at least seven (7) calendar days prior to making the Award.

(c) Prequalification. For each Solicitation, under ORS 279B.085, on a case-by-case basis, ODOT may determine whether prequalification of suppliers is needed. If prequalification is used, ODOT must pre-qualify suppliers and provide an appeal process in accordance with ORS 279B.120 and related rules.

(7) The following process applies to Advertising Contracts: ODOT must use competitive methods wherever possible to achieve best value and must document in the Procurement File the reasons why a competitive process was deemed to be impractical. If the anticipated purchase exceeds $5,000, ODOT must post notice on ORPIN. The resulting Contract must be in Writing and the Procurement File must document the use of this Special Procurement Rule by number to identify the sourcing method. Nothing in this rule waves the Department of Justice Legal Sufficiency Review requirement, if applicable under ORS 291.047.

Protests must be submitted in writing to the Director within 30 days of the event or action that is being protested. The Director's decision is final. Jurisdiction for review of the Director's decision is in the circuit court for Marion County pursuant to ORS 183.484.

Rules Amended: 735-062-0385
Subject: Chapter 473, Oregon Laws 2013 (Senate Bill 288) amends ORS 807.363 to eliminate a requirement that a person with a limited vision condition who is granted driving privileges pass a DMV drive test every two years to retain those privileges. 735-062-0385
A Person with a Limited Vision Condition Must Qualify Every Two Years

(1) Beginning two years from the date of issuance and at least every two years thereafter, a person issued a license under ORS 807.363 must be examined by a licensed vision specialist and submit a Report of Limited Vision Examination form showing the person meets the vision requirements under ORS 807.359. (a) Satisfy all requirements set forth in ORS 807.040 and 807.060(2)(a) if under the age of 18. For purposes of ORS 807.060 and this subsection:

(A) "Mother" means the biological or adoptive mother of the applicant;

(B) "Father" means the biological or adoptive father of the applicant; and

(C) "Legal guardian" means an individual, or the authorized representative of an entity, private or public institution or agency appointed as guardian of the applicant by a court having jurisdiction.

(b) Satisfy all requirements set forth in ORS 807.065 and 807.066 to receive a driver license (provisional) if under 18 years of age;

(c) Provide a verifiable SSN or proof that the person is not eligible for a SSN as provided in OAR 735-062-0005;

(d) Provide proof of legal presence as provided in OAR 735-062-0015;

(e) Submit to the collection of biometric data for the purpose of establishing identity as provided in ORS 807.024 and OAR 735-062-0016;

(f) Provide proof of the person's identity and date of birth as provided in OAR 735-062-0020;

(g) Provide proof of the person's residence address as provided in OAR 735-062-0030;

(h) Provide proof, as provided in OAR 735-016-0070, that the person is domiciled in or a resident of Oregon;

(i) Surrender all driver permits and driver licenses in the person's possession issued outside of Oregon.

(j) In addition to all requirements in subsections (a) through (i) of this section, a person applying for a commercial driver license or commercial instruction permit must:

(A) Certify driving type; and

(B) Meet medical qualifications as described in OAR 735-063-0050.

(C) Satisfy all requirements set forth in ORS 807.045 and OAR 735-062-0200 if the person holds a commercial driver license from another jurisdiction.

(2) A person is not eligible for driving privileges under ORS 807.060(4) or (5) and DMV will not issue or renew driving privileges or replace a driver license or driver permit if on an application for driving privileges or a replacement license or permit a person:

(a) Answers yes to the question "Do you have a vision condition or impairment that has not been corrected by glasses, contacts or surgery that affects your ability to drive safely?" and the person is unable to pass a DMV vision screening;

(b) Answers yes to the question "Do you have any physical or mental conditions or impairments that affect your ability to drive safely?";

(c) Answers yes to the question "Do you use alcohol, inhalants, or controlled substances to a degree that affects your ability to drive safely?"

(3) A person who is denied issuance or renewal of driving privileges or replacement of a driver license or driver permit under section (2) of this rule will be allowed to establish or reestablish eligibility by passing DMV examinations under ORS 807.070, by getting a determination of eligibility from the Medical Determination Officer under ORS 807.090 or both, as determined by DMV. The requirement may be waived if DMV determines the application was completed in error and the person is eligible for driving privileges.

(4) Upon receipt of an application for a driver license or driver permit, DMV will make an inquiry to the National Driver Register/Problem Driver Pointer System (NDR/PDPS) or the Commercial Driver License Information System (CDLIS) or both to determine if the applicant's driving privileges are suspended, revoked, canceled or otherwise not valid in any other jurisdiction. For issuance of a commercial driver license (CDL), DMV will also make an inquiry to CDLIS to determine if the applicant has been issued a CDL in another jurisdiction.

(5) DMV may require the applicant to provide a clearance letter in compliance with OAR 735-062-0160, indicating the applicant has valid driving privileges from any jurisdiction in which an inquiry with the National Driver Register/Problem Driver Pointer System (NDR/PDPS) or the Commercial Driver License Information System (CDLIS) or both indicates the applicant's driving privilege is not fully valid.

(6) DMV will not issue driving privileges to a person until his or her driving privilege is reinstated in all jurisdictions, unless the only remaining reinstatement requirement in the other jurisdiction is proof of financial responsibility. Nothing in this section prohibits DMV from issuing a regular Class C driver license to a person whose CDL driving privileges are not valid as long as the person's regular Class C or equivalent driving privileges are valid.

(7) DMV will not issue a driver license or permit to a person with a current, valid Oregon identification card (ID card). To become eligible, the person must surrender the ID card before DMV may issue the Oregon driver license or permit. If the person's ID card is lost or destroyed, the person must make a statement that the card is lost or destroyed and that it will be returned to DMV if found.

(8) A driver license issued to a person with a February 29 birth date expires:

(a) On February 29 if the expiration year is a leap year; or

(9) After determining that an applicant has met all requirements under this rule, DMV will issue the license or permit and mail it to the address provided by the applicant at the time of the application.

(10) After determining that an applicant has met all requirements under this rule and has provided proof of legal presence in the United States on a temporary basis, as described in OAR 735-062-0015(4), DMV will issue a limited term driver license or limited term driver permit and mail it to the address provided by the applicant at the time of the application. The expiration date of a limited term driver license or limited term driver permit is as described in ORS 807.130(3).

(11) DMV will issue a person who is a citizen of a country with a Compact of Free Association with the United States and who provides proof of legal presence as set forth in OAR 735-062-0015, a driver license with an expiration date as described in ORS 807.130(1) or (2).

Adm. Order No.: DMV 21-2013
Filed with Sec. of State: 12-20-2013
Certified to be Effective: 1-1-14
Notice Publication Date: 11-1-2013
Rules Adopted: 735-070-0082
Rules Amended: 735-064-0070
Subject: Chapter 315, Oregon Laws 2013 (House Bill 2116) amends ORS 813.602 to allow a court to exempt a person from the condition in a diversion agreement to install and use an ignition interlock device (IID) if the court determines that the person meets the requirements for a medical exemption in accordance with rules adopted by the department. HB 2116 prompted DMV to review and amend OAR 735-064-0070 by deleting the sections concerning the process for obtaining an IID medical exemption and to clarify current requirements related to issuance of a hardship, probationary and hardship/probationary permit when the person must have an IID. DMV also adopted a new rule, OAR 735-070-0082, to clarify in more detail the process for obtaining an IID medical exemption, which includes implementation of HB 2116. OAR 735-070-0082 clarifies DMV's procedure for applying for an IID exemption, including submission of a form completed by the applicant and the applicant's physician or health care provider, and clarifying the criteria for determining if the person qualifies for an IID medical exemption. It also differentiates between a DMV issued IID medical exemption and one issued by the court.

Ignition Interlock Device (IID) Requirement for Issuance of Hardship, Probationary or Hardship/Probationary Permits

(1) When a person whose driving privileges are suspended or revoked applies for a hardship, probationary or hardship/probationary permit, DMV will require the applicant to install an ignition interlock device (IID) in any vehicle operated by the applicant if the applicant's driving record shows any of the following:

(a) The applicant's driving privileges are currently suspended based on a conviction for DUII in an Oregon court;

(b) The applicant is currently participating in a DUII Diversion Agreement and the court ordered an IID as a condition of the agreement; or

(c) The applicant's driving privileges are revoked as a habitual offender and the applicant is also required to install an IID:

(A) As a condition of a DUII Diversion Agreement;

(B) During the suspension period for a conviction for DUII entered in an Oregon court; or

(C) Following the end of a suspension or revocation of driving privileges for DUII or any crime described in ORS 813.602(1) or (2).

(2) As a condition of a hardship, probationary or hardship/probationary permit, the IID must be installed, maintained and used in any vehicle the person operates for the duration of the person's IID requirement. The IID requirement may exceed the period the person's hardship, probationary or hardship/probationary permit is valid.

(3) When installation of an IID is required, DMV will not issue a hardship, probationary or hardship/probationary permit to the person until a provider submits an installation report form showing an approved device has been installed in each vehicle the person intends to operate during the permit period. The provider who installed the device(s) must sign the installation report form.

(4) Notwithstanding section (1) of this rule, DMV may issue a hardship, probationary or a hardship/probationary permit to a person who has not installed an IID if the person will only operate a vehicle(s) owned or leased by his or her employer during the course and scope of the person's employment. For purposes of ORS 813.606, DMV will place a notation on the driving record and on the hardship, probationary or hardship/probationary permit issued to the person that the person's employer has been informed of the IID requirement. To qualify, DMV must receive:

(a) A letter on business letterhead, signed by the employer, stating that the employer has been informed of the IID requirement and that the person is required to operate the employer's vehicle(s) in the course and scope of employment; or

(b) An Employer IID Exemption, (DMV form 735-6874) submitted by the employer.

(5) For purposes of ORS 813.606, a person who is self-employed is not an employee and DMV will not place an employer IID notification notation on the person's driving record.

(6) Notwithstanding section (1) of this rule, DMV may issue a hardship, probationary or hardship/probationary permit to a person who has not installed an IID if the person has been issued a medical exemption under OAR 735-070-0082.

(7) The hardship, probationary or hardship/probationary permit will contain a restriction that the person may only operate vehicles equipped with an IID. If the person operates a vehicle owned or leased by the person's employer in the course and scope of employment or has been issued a medical exemption, the hardship, probationary or hardship/probationary permit driving restrictions will state that the person must have in his or her possession a copy of the employer's IID exemption letter, a completed DMV Employer IID Exemption Form, an IID medical exemption letter issued by DMV, or an IID medical exemption approval issued by a court.

(8) The IID restriction in a hardship, probationary, or hardship/probationary permit will specify the length of time allowed for the person to travel to and from an IID provider's facility to have the IID checked or maintained.

Medical Exemption from IID Requirement

(1) A person may qualify for a medical exemption from the ignition interlock device (IID) requirement under ORS 813.602(1) and (2) if the person provides satisfactory evidence to DMV that due to a medical condition or impairment the person is unable to operate an IID or unable to safely operate a motor vehicle equipped with an IID. (2) The following definitions apply:

(a) A "health care provider" is a person licensed, certified or otherwise authorized or permitted by law to administer health care in the State of Oregon. For purposes of these rules, the term health care provider is limited to: a chiropractic physician, nurse practitioner, and physician assistant.

(b) A "primary care provider" is a physician or health care provider who is responsible for supervising, coordinating and providing a person's initial and ongoing health care.

(c) "Unable to safely operate a motor vehicle equipped with an IID" means the person's medical condition or functional impairment prevents the person from safely operating a motor vehicle when requested to perform an IID rolling retest while operating a motor vehicle equipped with an IID.

(2) To apply for a medical exemption a person must submit a completed IID Medical Exemption form (DMV form 735-6941). The form must be completed by both the person and the person's primary care provider or the physician or health care provider providing specialized treatment to the person for the particular medical condition or functional impairment that prevents the person from operating an IID or prevents the person from safely operating a motor vehicle equipped with an IID.

(3) The person must fully complete the information in Section 1 of the IID Medical Exemption form, including:

(a) The reason(s) the person is required to install an IID; and

(b) An explanation of why the person believes he or she has a medical condition or functional impairment that prevents the operation of an IID or prevents safe operation of a vehicle equipped with an IID.

(4) Section 2 of the IID Medical Exemption form must be completed by the person's primary care provider, or a physician or health care provider providing specialized treatment to the person for a medical condition or functional impairment that prevents the person from operating an IID or prevents the person from safely operating a motor vehicle equipped with an IID. The physician or health care provider must determine that in his or her professional opinion the person is unable to operate an IID or is unable to safely operate a vehicle equipped with an IID because of the person's medical condition or functional impairment, including but not limited to a determination that:

(a) The person has a medical condition or functional impairment that does not allow the person to provide the necessary alveolar air or deep lung air sample to properly operate the device; or

(b) The person consistently has a ketone level in his or her breath which creates a false positive reading of over .025 blood alcohol concentration even though the person has had no alcohol.

(5) If the determination of the physician or health care provider described in section (4) of this rule is not based on subsection (a) or (b), the physician or health care provider must provide a detailed description of why the medical condition or functional impairment prevents the person from operating an IID or prevents the person from safely operating a motor vehicle equipped with an IID.

(6) In completing Section 2 of the IID Medical Exemption form, the physician or health care provider must:

(a) Specify the medical condition or functional impairment that prevents the person from operating an IID or prevents the person from safely operating a vehicle equipped with an IID;

(b) State whether the medical condition or functional impairment is permanent or temporary, and if temporary, the projected length of time; and

(c) Specify why the medical condition or functional impairment prevents the person from operating an IID or prevents the person from safely operating a motor vehicle equipped with an IID.

(7) From the information provided on the IID Medical Exemption form, DMV will determine if the person qualifies for a medical exemption. If DMV determines from the information on the form that the person qualifies, DMV will issue a medical exemption. If DMV is unable to determine from the information provided that the person qualifies, DMV will deny the medical exemption.

(8) If the person's medical condition or functional impairment is temporary, DMV will issue a temporary IID medical exemption that expires on the date specified in Section 2 of the IID Medical Exemption form, or a date six months from the date of issuance if no date is provided. If the temporary condition or functional impairment continues beyond the expiration date of the temporary IID medical exemption, the person may submit a signed statement from the physician or health care provider who completed the Request for IID Medical Exemption form describing the person's continuing need for a medical exemption, or the person may submit a new application as set forth in sections (2) through (4) of this rule. From the information submitted DMV will determine if the person continues to qualify for a temporary IID medical exemption.

(9) Before granting or denying an IID medical exemption, DMV may require the person to provide additional information from a physician or health care provider or to obtain a statement from an IID provider that the device cannot be adjusted to accommodate the person's medical condition or functional impairment.

(10) A person who is granted an IID medical exemption by DMV will be issued a medical exemption letter. The person must carry the IID medical exemption letter issued by DMV when driving.

(11) A person who must install and use an IID as a condition of a DUII diversion agreement must obtain an IID medical exemption from the court. The person must submit a completed IID Medical Exemption form directly to the court that approved the DUII diversion agreement. The court must approve or deny the IID medical exemption request. DMV will not forward an IID Medical Exemption form to a court if it is submitted to DMV in error.

(12) A person may need both an IID medical exemption letter issued by DMV and an IID medical exemption approval issued by a court. An IID medical exemption letter issued by DMV is not valid if the person is required to install an IID as a condition of a DUII diversion. A medical exemption issued by a court is not valid if the requirement to install and use an IID is required for any reason other than a DUII diversion agreement. Both an IID medical exemption letter issued by DMV and IID medical exemption approval issued by a court must be carried by the person when driving.

Rules Amended: 735-070-0185, 735-070-0190
Subject: Under Oregon Law 2013, Chapter 163 (SB 193) a school transportation provider must have an in-house drug and alcohol testing program, or be a member of a consortium that provides drug and alcohol testing that meets federal standards. A medical review officer of a school transportation provider's testing program must report a positive drug or alcohol test to DMV. DMV will notify a person who is the subject of such a report that he or she has the right to request a hearing. If the person does not request a hearing or if the hearing results in a finding that the test report was valid, the positive test will be noted on the person's employment driving record. DMV had existing rules that outline the reporting requirements and the process for requesting a hearing for motor carrier drug and alcohol programs. DMV will use the same process for school transportation provider reports and requests for hearing, and amended OAR 735-070-0185 and 735-070-0190 to include Chapter 163, Oregon Laws 2013 in the existing rules.

Certified to be Effective: 1-1-14
Notice Publication Date: 11-1-2013
Rules Amended: 735-072-0035
Subject: ORS 809.480 authorizes the Oregon Department of Transportation, Driver and Motor Vehicle Services Division (DMV) to establish by administrative rule a Driver Improvement Program with the goal of reducing traffic convictions and especially accidents. The Driver Improvement Program uses two specific lists of traffic offenses under separate rules to determine whether a person meets the criteria for a restriction or suspension of driving privileges. OAR 735-072-0035 lists those traffic offenses, and requires five convictions to count as one driver improvement violation.

Chapter 361, Oregon Laws 2013 (Senate Bill 444) creates a new traffic offense to add to OAR 735-072-0035. The offense is smoking in a motor vehicle while a person under 18 years of age is in the motor vehicle. This rule amendment adds this offense to the list of offenses in OAR 735-072-0035.

Driver Improvement Offenses

(1) The conviction for an offense listed below counts toward both the Provisional and Adult Driver Improvement Programs. It takes five convictions from the following list to equal one driver improvement violation. All other convictions counting in the Driver Improvement Programs are outlined in OAR 735-064-0220.
(2) Offenses from other states are posted to driver records using an AAMVAnet Code Dictionary (ACD) code. This section identifies the code that appears on the driver record, a description of the offense and the ORS or administrative rule reference to the equivalent offense(s) in Oregon. The offenses listed below also count towards both the Provisional and Adult Driver Improvement Programs as described in section (1) of this rule.
(3) The following ACD codes are obsolete but convictions reported under these codes may still count as a conviction for an offense for both the Provisional and Adult Driver Improvement Programs as described in section (1) of this rule if DMV received notice from another state of a conviction using the following codes:

Rule Caption: Implements 2013 Legislation; Amends Rules Relating to Vehicle Dealers and Vehicle Dismantlers
Adm. Order No.: DMV 24-2013
Filed with Sec. of State: 12-20-2013
Certified to be Effective: 1-1-14
Notice Publication Date: 11-1-2013
Rules Amended: 735-150-0045, 735-150-0105, 735-152-0037
Subject: This rulemaking implements legislation enacted by the 2013 Legislative Assembly. Chapter 372, Oregon Laws 2013:

Section 1 of the Act repeals DMV's authority under ORS 822.084 to establish (by rule) a fee schedule for a recreational vehicle (RV) show license.

Section 2 amends ORS 822.700 in part to establish-for a certified vehicle dealer and certified dismantler — a late payment charge for the late renewal of: 1) a certificate; 2) a duplicate certificate; 3) or issuance of a certificate for a supplemental business location.

Consequently, DMV amended the following rules:

1. OAR 735-150-0045(6) to remove reference to the RV show license fee. The fee is now established under ORS 822.700.

2. OAR 735-150-0105 and 735-152-0037 to remove reference to the fees for the late renewal of a vehicle dealer certificate and the late renewal of dismantler certificate. Those fees are now established under ORS 822.700.

735-150-0045
Special Rules Concerning Recreational Vehicle Dealers

(1) The purpose of this rule is to:
(a) Establish a process for issuing recreational vehicle (RV) show licenses and establish a fee for RV show licenses; and

(b) Clarify ORS 822.025(9) concerning maintenance of a service facility by RV dealers.

(2) Nothing in this rule is intended to limit or conflict with any other rule or law governing RV dealers.

(3) Definitions. As used in this rule and ORS 822.082 through 822.084:

(a) "Primary purpose" means that at least 51% of the RV service facility's income-producing activity is derived from the service and repair of recreational vehicles, as shown by gross service receipts;

(b) "Prominently display" means clearly and conspicuously posted in plain view in the area most frequently visited by the public and legible at a distance of six feet or more. For example, the main entrance of an RV show or the main lobby of an RV dealer;

(c) "Recreational vehicle service facility" means a permanent facility listed on the vehicle dealer's certificate and having the primary purpose of servicing and repairing RVs;

(d) "RV" means a recreational vehicle, as defined in ORS 446.003(37); and

(e) "Show license" means a license issued by DMV pursuant to ORS 822.084.

(4) Application for show license. The show organizer must submit an application for a show license to DMV, Business Regulation Section, no sooner than 60 days before the first day of the proposed show, and not later than 30 days before the first day of the proposed show. The show license application must be on a form provided by DMV and must include the following:

(a) The name, address and telephone number of the show organizer;

(b) The total number of days of the show, the date(s), location and times of the show;

(c) The date of the application for the show license;

(d) For each dealer displaying at the show the following information as listed in the dealer's main location application:

(A) The name under which the business is conducted;

(B) The street address, city and county of the dealer;

(C) The dealer number; and

(D) The expiration date of the dealer certification.

(e) That the show will include two or more recreational vehicle dealers, one of whose place of business as listed in the dealer's main location application is located more than 50 miles from the site of the show and the number of dealers participating in the RV show;

(f) Whether or not the public will be charged an admission fee;

(g) A show license application may be amended to add or delete show participants, or to correct information if submitted to DMV Business Regulation Section no later than 30 days before the date of a prospective show. In the event a participant printed on a show license is unable to attend or withdraws from the show after the 30th day, the organizer must mark a line on the approved show license using black ink through the name of that participant.

(5) Issuance and Display of License. DMV will issue a show license to the organizer, authorizing the listed dealers to participate in the RV show if the application is complete, the fee established under ORS 822.700 is paid and all other requirements are met. The show license must be conspicuously posted at the main entrance to the RV show for each day of the show and must be available for inspection by DMV.

(6) Service Facility. Vehicle dealers that sell new RVs must maintain, within Oregon, a recreational vehicle service facility that has the primary purpose of servicing and repairing recreational vehicles. The location of the recreational vehicle service facility must be prominently displayed at the RV dealer's sales site. In order to meet the requirement that the vehicle dealer "maintain" a recreational vehicle service facility, the dealer must own or lease the service facility and directly conduct the servicing and repair operation, without subcontracting.

Late Renewal of Dealer Certificate

(1) An application to renew a dealer certificate will not be considered late if the dealer submits an application for renewal within 15 days of the date that the previous certificate expired, and the application is submitted with all applicable fees and a surety bond in effect during that 15-day period.

(2) An application to renew a dealer certificate is late, and subject to the late payment charge under ORS 822.700(6), if the dealer submits:

(b) A surety bond in effect during that 45-day period.

(3) A dealer who continues business operations 45 days after their certificate has expired is in violation of ORS 822.005 and is subject to civil penalties under OAR 735-150-0170.

(4) Except for the late payment fee under ORS 822.700, DMV may waive or reduce a penalty described under this rule if the dealer provides DMV with written documentation that shows mitigating circumstances prevented the dealer from renewing their certificate on time. Mitigating circumstances DMV may consider include:

(a) The dealer took action to renew the certificate on a date reasonably calculated to complete the process in a timely manner; and

(b) The delay in renewal was due to circumstances beyond the dealer's ability to control.

Adm. Order No.: MCTD 7-2013
Filed with Sec. of State: 12-20-2013
Certified to be Effective: 1-1-14

Department of Veterans' Affairs
Chapter 274

Rule Caption: Conservatorship fees, fee waiver and retraction of fee waiver
Adm. Order No.: DVA 12-2013
Filed with Sec. of State: 12-20-2013
Certified to be Effective: 1-1-14

Notice Publication Date: 11-1-2013
Rules Amended: 274-015-0010
Rules Repealed: 274-015-0010(T)
Subject: The Department filed this rule as a temporary rule on August 29, 2013 that is effective from August 30, 2013 through January 3, 2014. The rule is needed to implement Chapter 258, 2013 Oregon Laws (HB 2044) and Chapter 190, 2013 Oregon Laws (HB 2046), that amended ORS 406.100 and 406.110. The temporary rule is repealed and the new amended rule is adopted.

The amendments to ORS 406.100 (HB 2044, 2013) changed the fees the Department may charge when acting as a conservator for a protected person. The fees were "an amount not to exceed 5% of the income to the estate" for all ordinary and usual conservatorship services. The statute now allows the Department to charge a "reasonable" compensation for ordinary services. The amended rule provides that the Department will charge 7% for ordinary services, an hourly rate of $40 for unusual services and $50 per real property inspection. The amendments to ORS 406.110 (HB 2046, 2013) allow the Department to retract a previously granted waiver of all or a portion of the fees charged to the estate of a protected person.

The amendments to the rule include adding some definitions, and housekeeping for readability and clarity.
Rules Coordinator: Laurie Skillman—(503) 373-2016

Eligibility Factors

(1) In considering suitable work factors under ORS 657.190 and for purposes of determining eligibility under 657.155(1)(c), the Director may require an individual to actively seek the type of work the individual is most capable of performing due to prior job experience and training except that:

(a) If an individual is unable to secure the individual's customary type of work after contacting the potential employers in the labor market where benefits are being claimed, the Director may require the individual to seek less desirable but similar work or work of another type which the individual is capable of performing by virtue of experience and training.

(b) If the type of work an individual is most capable of performing does not exist in the labor market where the individual is claiming benefits, the Director may require the individual to seek any work that exists in the labor market for which the individual is suited by virtue of experience and training.

(c) After the individual has contacted the potential employers in the labor market where benefits are being claimed and is still unable to obtain work as described in (1)(a) and (b) of this section, the Director may require the individual to further expand work-seeking activities.

(2) For the purposes of ORS 657.155(1)(c), an individual shall be considered able to work in a particular week only if physically and mentally capable of performing the work he or she actually is seeking during all of the week except:

(a) An occasional and temporary disability for less than half of the week shall not result in a finding that the individual is unable to work for that week; and

(b) An individual with a permanent or long-term "physical or mental impairment" (as defined at 29 CFR 1630.2(h)) which prevents the individual from working full time or during particular shifts shall not be deemed unable to work solely on that basis so long as the individual remains available for some work.

(3) For the purposes of ORS 657.155(1)(c), an individual shall be considered available for work if, at a minimum, he or she is:

(a) Willing to work full time, part time, and accept temporary work opportunities, during all of the usual hours and days of the week customary for the work being sought, unless such part time or temporary opportunities would substantially interfere with return to the individual's regular employment; and

(b) Capable of accepting and reporting for any suitable work opportunities within the labor market in which work is being sought, including temporary and part time opportunities; and

(c) Not imposing conditions which substantially reduce the individual's opportunities to return to work at the earliest possible time; and

(d) Physically present in the normal labor market area as defined by section (6) of this rule, every day of the week, unless:

(A) The individual is actively seeking work outside his or her normal labor market area; or

(B) The individual is infrequently absent from the normal labor market area for reasons unrelated to work search, for less than half of the week, and no opportunity to work or referral to work was missed by such absence.

(e) However, an individual with a permanent or long-term physical or mental impairment (as defined at 29 CFR 1630.2(h)) which prevents the individual from working full time or during particular shifts shall not be deemed unavailable for work solely on that basis so long as the individual remains available for some work.

(f) For the purposes of ORS 657.155(1)(c), an individual is not available for work in any week claimed if:

(A) The individual has an opportunity to perform suitable work during the week and fails to accept or report for such work due to illness, injury or other temporary physical or mental incapacity.

(B) During the week, the individual is incarcerated during any days or hours customary for the type of work the individual is seeking.

(i) "Incarcerated" means in custody at a city, county, state, or federal law enforcement or correctional facility to include any "arrest" as defined in ORS 133.005 or a similar law in another state or jurisdiction.

(ii) When an individual is in an alternative sentencing facility operated pursuant to a community corrections plan that individual will not be considered unavailable for work solely because of their non-traditional custody. Alternative sentencing is defined by the jurisdiction responsible for supervision of the suspect or offender.

(iii) "Incarcerated" does not include a "stop" as authorized under ORS 131.605 to 131.625.

(iv) "Incarcerated" does not mean being involved in questioning by peace officers as part of an investigation where the individual is free to leave and not charged with a crime.

(g) An individual will be considered not available for work if he or she fails or refuses to seek the type of work required by the Director pursuant to section (1) of this rule.

(h) Providing the individual is otherwise eligible for benefits pursuant to OAR 471-030-0036(3)(a) through (g), a person who has been found to be qualified for benefits under the provisions of ORS 657.176(2)(f) or (g) or 657.176(9)(b)(A) shall be considered available for work only during weeks in which the individual is enrolled in and participating in a recognized drug or alcohol treatment program if such participation was a condition in the determination to allow benefits. This provision does not apply if the individual has satisfactorily completed the course of treatment in accordance with the terms and conditions of the recognized treatment program.

(A) An individual is participating when engaged in a course of treatment through a recognized drug or alcohol rehabilitation program;

(B) A recognized drug or alcohol rehabilitation program is a program authorized and licensed under the provisions of OAR chapter 415.

(i) An individual is not available for work in any week claimed under ORS 657.155 if the individual resides or spends the major portion of the week:

(A) In Canada unless the individual is authorized to work in both the United States and Canada;

(B) In a country not included in the Compact of Free Association with the United States of America; or

(C) outside of the United States, District of Columbia or any territory or political division that is directly overseen by the United States federal government; except,

(i) If the individual is the spouse or domestic partner of an individual stationed at a military base or embassy located outside the United States;

(ii) Job opportunities exist on the military base or embassy for family members of those stationed there;

(iii) The individual lives within a reasonable commuting distance to job opportunities at the military base or embassy; and

(iv) The individual is willing to accept the conditions and terms of the available employment provided they are not inconsistent with ORS 657.195.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of OAR 471-030-0036(3), an individual who is the parent, step-parent, guardian or other court/legally-appointed caretaker of a child under 13 years of age or of a child with special needs under the age of 18 who requires a level of care over and above the norm for his or her age, who is not willing to or capable of working a particular shift because of a lack of care for that child acceptable to the individual shall be considered available for work if:

(a) The work the individual is seeking is customarily performed during other shifts in the individual's normal labor market area as defined by OAR 471-030-0036(6); and

(b) The individual is willing to and capable of working during such shift(s).

(5)(a) For purposes of ORS 657.155(1)(c) an individual is actively seeking work when doing what an ordinary and reasonable person would do to return to work at the earliest opportunity. Unless otherwise directed by the director or an authorized representative of the employment department, an individual who is not on temporary layoff as described in subsection (b), is not a union member as described in subsection (d), nor is filing a continued claim for the first week of an initial or additional claim as described in subsection (e), shall be required to conduct at least five work seeking activities per week, with at least two of those being direct contact with an employer who might hire the individual.

(A) Work seeking activities include but are not limited to registering for job placement services with the Employment Department, attending job placement meetings sponsored by the Employment Department, participating in a job club or networking group dedicated to job placement, updating a resume, reviewing the newspaper or job placement web sites without responding to a posted job opening, and making direct contact with an employer.

(B) Direct contact with an employer means making contact with an employer in person, by phone, mail, or electronically to inquire about a job opening or applying for job openings in the manner required by the hiring employer.

(b) For an individual on temporary layoff of four weeks or less with the individual's regular employer:

(A) If the individual had, as of the layoff date, been given a date to return to full-time work or work for which remuneration is paid or payable that equals or exceeds the individual's weekly benefit amount, such individual is actively seeking work by remaining in contact with and being capable of accepting and reporting for any suitable work with that employer for a period of up to four calendar weeks following the end of the week in which the temporary layoff occurred. The individual no longer meets the requirements of this subsection if four calendar weeks have passed following the week in which the temporary layoff occurred, therefore the individual must seek work consistent with subsection (a) of this section in addition to the individual's regular employer.

(B) The individual does not meet the requirements of this subsection if the individual had not, as of the layoff date, been given a date to return to full-time work or work for which remuneration is paid or payable that equals or exceeds the individual's weekly benefit amount.

(c) For an individual on temporary layoff of more than four weeks with the individual's regular employer: such individual must immediately seek work consistent with the requirements of subsection (a) of this section

(d) For an individual who is a member in good standing of a union that does not allow members to seek non-union work, such individual is actively seeking work by remaining in contact with that union and being capable of accepting and reporting for work when dispatched by that union.

(e) For an individual who is filing a continued claim for the first week of an initial or additional claim:

(A) If the individual worked less than full time and remuneration paid or payable to the individual for services performed during the week is less than the individual's weekly benefit amount, each day the individual worked for the employer shall be considered a direct employer contact.

(B) An individual does not meet the requirements of this subsection if the individual performed no work for an employer during the first week of an initial or additional claim; therefore the individual must seek work consistent with subsection (a) of this section

(f) In determining whether to modify the requirements in this section for an individual the Employment Department may consider among other factors, length of unemployment, economic conditions in the individual's labor market and prospective job openings, weather conditions affecting occupations or industries, seasonal aspects of the individual's regular occupation, expected date of return to work in regular occupation, seniority status of individual, registration with a union hiring hall and normal practices for obtaining the type of work which the individual is seeking pursuant to section (1) of this rule. The Department shall provide a written copy of the work search requirements to the individual if the individual's work search requirements are modified.

(6)(a) An individual's normal labor market shall be that geographic area surrounding the individual's permanent residence within which employees in similar circumstances are generally willing to commute to seek and accept the same type of work at a comparable wage. The geographic area shall be defined by employees of the adjudicating Employment Department office, based on criteria set forth in this section;

(b) When an individual seeks work through a union hiring hall, the individual's normal labor market area for the work sought is the normal referral jurisdiction of the union, as indicated by the applicable contract.

(7) Nothing in this rule shall prohibit an individual who is a citizen, permanent legal resident, or otherwise legally authorized to work in the United States from seeking work in other labor market areas in any state or country.

Initial, Additional, and Reopened Claims

(1) As used in these rules, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Claimant" is an individual who has filed an initial, additional, or reopened claim for unemployment insurance purposes within a benefit year or other eligibility period;

(b) An "initial claim" is a new claim that is a certification by a claimant completed as required by OAR 471-030-0025 to establish a benefit year or other eligibility period;

(c) "Additional claim" is a claim certification by a claimant completed as required by OAR 471-030-0025 that restarts a claim during an existing benefit year or other eligibility period and certifies to the end of a period of employment;

(d) "Reopened claim" is a certification by a claimant completed as required by OAR 471-030-0025 that restarts a claim during an existing benefit year or other eligibility period and certifies that there was no employment in any week since last reporting on this claim;

(e) "Backdating" occurs when an authorized representative of the Employment Department corrects, adjusts, resets or otherwise changes the effective date of an initial, additional or reopened claim to reflect filing in a prior week. Backdating may occur based upon evidence of the individual's documented contact on the prior date with the Employment Department or with any other state Workforce agency, or as otherwise provided in this rule.

(2) For the purposes of filing an initial, additional, or reopened claim:

(a) When delivered in person to any Employment Department office in the state of Oregon, the date of filing shall be the date of delivery, as evidenced by the receipt date stamped or written by the public employee who receives the document;

(b) When filed by mail, the date of filing shall be the date of the postmark affixed by the United States Postal Service. In the absence of a postmarked date, the date of filing shall be the most probable date of mailing as determined by the Employment Department;

(c) When filed by fax, the date of filing shall be the encoded date on the fax document unless such date is absent, illegible, improbable or challenged, in which case the fax receipt date, if available, shall be the date of filing. If a filing date cannot otherwise be determined, the filing date shall be the most probable date of faxing as determined by the Employment Department;

(d) When filed by Internet, the date of filing shall be the initial date of transmission of the online claim; or

(3) An initial, additional, or reopened claim must be filed prior to or during the first week or series of weeks for which benefits, waiting week credit, or noncompensable credit is claimed and prior to or during the first week of any subsequent series thereafter. An initial claim is effective the Sunday of the calendar week in which it is filed. An authorized representative of the Employment Department will backdate an additional or reopened claim to the calendar week immediately preceding the week in which the request to backdate was made when a claimant requests backdating of the additional or reopened claim.

(4) The provisions of this section do not apply to an individual claiming benefits as a "partially unemployed individual," as defined in OAR 471-030-0060.

Continued Claims

(1) As used in these rules, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Continued Claim" means an application that certifies to the claimant's completion of one or more weeks of unemployment and to the claimant's status during these weeks. The certification may request benefits, waiting week credit, or non-compensable credit for such week or weeks. A continued claim must follow the first effective week of an initial, additional or reopen claim, or the claimant's continued claim for the preceding week;

(b) A "non-compensable credit week" is a week of unemployment for which benefits will not be allowed but which may qualify as a week allowed toward satisfying a disqualification as provided in ORS 657.215.

(2) A claimant, in order to obtain benefits, waiting week credit, or non-compensable credit for a week of unemployment, must file a continued claim for the week by any method approved by the Director.

(3) As directed by the Director, a continued claim must be filed:

(a) In person at any Employment Department office in the state of Oregon. When delivered in person to any Employment Department office in the state of Oregon, the date of filing shall be the date of delivery, as evidenced by the receipt date stamped or written by the public employee who receives the document;

(c) By fax. When filed by fax, the date of filing shall be the encoded date on the fax document unless such date is absent, illegible, improbable or challenged, in which case the fax receipt date, if available, shall be the date of filing. (d) By Internet. When filed on line, the date of filing shall be the initial date of transmission of the on line continued claim; or

(e) By telephone. When filed by telephone, the date of filing shall be the date marked, stamped, or imprinted on the document by the agency system that records the oral request or by the employee accepting the continued claim.

(4) A continued claim must be filed no later than seven days following the end of the week for which benefits, waiting week credit, or non-compensable credit, or any combination of the foregoing is claimed, unless:

(a) The continued claim is for the first effective week of the benefit year, in which case the week must be claimed no later than 13 days following the end of the week for which waiting week credit is claimed, or

(b) The claimant routinely files weekly claims by submitting a weekly paper certification forms, in which case the week is timely if it is filed to the Employment Department no later than seven days, as per sections (3)(a)–(c) of this rule, after the Employment Department originally sent the paper certification form to the claimant.

(5) The Director may, with respect to individual claimants or groups of claimants, direct that continued claims be filed on any reporting schedule appropriate to existing facilities and conditions.

(6) The provisions of this rule do not apply to an individual claiming benefits as a "partially unemployed individual," as defined in OAR 471-030-0060.

471-030-0052
Misrepresentation Disqualification

(1) An authorized representative of the Employment Department shall determine the number of weeks of disqualification under ORS 657.215 according to the following criteria:

(a) When the disqualification is imposed because the individual failed to accurately report work and/or earnings, the number of weeks of disqualification shall be determined by dividing the total amount of benefits overpaid to the individual for the disqualifying act(s), by the maximum Oregon weekly benefit amount in effect during the first effective week of the initial claim in effect at the time of the individual's disqualifying act(s), rounding off to the nearest two decimal places, multiplying the result by four rounding it up to the nearest whole number.

(b) When the disqualification is imposed because the disqualifying act(s) under ORS 657.215 relates to the provisions of 657.176, the number of weeks of disqualification shall be the number of weeks calculated in the same manner as under subsection (a) above, or four weeks, whichever is greater.

(c) When the disqualification is imposed because the disqualifying act(s) relates to the provisions of ORS 657.155 (other than work and/or earnings), the number of weeks of disqualification shall be the number of weeks calculated in the same manner as under subsection (a) above, or the number of weeks in which a disqualifying act(s) occurred, whichever is greater.

(d) When the disqualification is imposed because the disqualifying act(s) under ORS 657.215 relates to the provisions of 657.176 and a failure to accurately report work and/or earnings, the number of weeks of disqualification shall be the number of weeks calculated in the manner set forth in subsection (a) plus four weeks.

(e) When the disqualification is imposed because the disqualifying act(s) relates to the provisions of ORS 657.155 (other than work and/or earnings) and a failure to accurately report work and/or earnings, the number of weeks of disqualification shall be the number of weeks calculated in the manner set forth in subsection (a) plus the number of weeks in which a disqualifying act(s) occurred relating to the provisions of 657.155 (other than work and earnings).

(2) The number of weeks of disqualification assessed under section (1) of this rule shall be doubled, but not to exceed 52 weeks, if the individual has one previous disqualification under ORS 657.215, and that prior disqualification determination has become final.

(3) Notwithstanding sections (1) and (2) of this rule, the number of weeks of disqualification under ORS 657.215 shall be 52 weeks if:

(a) The disqualification under ORS 657.215 is because the individual committed forgery; or

(b) The individual has two previous disqualifications under ORS 657.215, and those prior two disqualification determinations have become final.

(4) Notwithstanding Sections (1), (2) and (3), an authorized representative of the Employment Department may determine the number of weeks of disqualification according to the circumstances of the individual case, but not to exceed 52 weeks.

(5) All disqualifications imposed under ORS 657.215 shall be served consecutively.

(6) Any week of disqualification imposed under ORS 657.215 may be satisfied by meeting all of the eligibility requirements of Chapter 657, other than 657.155(1)(e).

(7) The department will review the number of occurrences of misrepresentation when applying the penalty as described in ORS 657.310(2). An occurrence shall be counted each time an individual willfully makes a false statement or representation, or willfully fails to report a material fact to obtain benefits. The department shall use the date the individual failed to report a material fact or willfully made a false statement as the date of the occurrence. For an individual subject to disqualification by administrative action under 657.215, the penalty will be:

(a) For the first or second occurrence within 5 years of the occurrence for which a penalty is being assessed, 15 percent of the total amount of benefits the individual received but to which the individual was not entitled.

(b) For the third or fourth occurrence within 5 years of the occurrence for which a penalty is being assessed, 20 percent of the total amount of benefits the individual received but to which the individual was not entitled.

(c) For the fifth or sixth occurrence within 5 years of the occurrence for which a penalty is being assessed, 25 percent of the total amount of benefits the individual received but to which the individual was not entitled.

(d) For the seventh or greater occurrence within 5 years of the occurrence for which a penalty is being assessed, 30 percent of the total amount of benefits the individual received but to which the individual was not entitled.

(e) In cases of forgery or identity theft, 30 percent of the amount of benefits the individual received but to which the individual was not entitled.

(8)(a) Under ORS 657.215, the Director or an authorized representative of the Employment Department may determine it is proper and equitable to cancel the disqualification if:

(A) All benefits, interest, penalties, fees, and court costs have been paid in full;

(B) Three or more years have passed since the decision assessing the number of weeks of disqualification was issued; and

(C) The department has issued only one decision assessing weeks of disqualification to the individual within the last 10 years from the date of the request to cancel.

(b) For the purposes of the section (c) of this rule, an "occurrence" is each time an individual willfully makes a false statement or representation, or willfully fails to report a material fact to obtain benefits within the same willful misrepresentation decision.

(c) The Director or an authorized representative of the Employment Department shall determine the amount of weeks applicable for cancellation under ORS 657.215 according to the following criteria:

(A) The individual has satisfied the requirements of subsection (a);

(B) When the individual has committed one occurrence of violating ORS 657.215 within the same willful misrepresentation decision, the director may cancel the remaining weeks of disqualification in whole.

(C) When the individual has committed two occurrences of violating ORS 657.215 within the same willful misrepresentation decision, the director may cancel half the weeks of disqualification.

(D) When the individual has committed three or more occurrences of violating ORS 657.215 within the same willful misrepresentation decision or the disqualification under 657.215 is because the individual committed forgery, weeks of disqualification shall not be cancelled.

(d) Weeks of disqualification served prior to the request for cancellation shall not be cancelled.

Waiving Recovery of Overpayments

(1) This rule addresses waiving recovery of overpayments pursuant to ORS 657.317.

(2) Recovering overpaid benefits is against equity and good conscience if the person requesting a waiver has no means to repay the benefits and has total allowable household expenses that equal or exceed 90% of the total household income less unemployment benefits. The Employment Department will use the IRS Collection Financial Standards to determine maximum allowable household expenses. The Employment Department may allow expenses higher than those provided for in the IRS Collection Financial standards if the person requesting a waiver provides documents showing that using those IRS Collection Financial Standards would leave him or her an inadequate means of providing for basic living expenses.

(3) If a waiver is granted, the Department will stop collection activity of the overpaid benefits that are waived. The Department will give written notice of any waivers that are granted, indicating the amount of the overpaid benefits for which the waiver is granted, and the time period of the waiver.

(4) The amount of overpaid benefits that are waived will be removed from the balance of remaining benefits that the claimant has remaining on the claim during the duration of the waiver of recovery of benefits.

(5) Waivers are effective the Sunday of the week in which the request for waiver was filed with the Employment Department. The date of the post mark from the United States Postal Service, a date stamp from an Employment Department office, or an embedded fax date, whichever is earliest, will be used to determine the date of filing.

(6) If a request for waiver of recovery is denied, the claimant may submit another request for waiver of recovery if his or her situation changes significantly enough to establish that recovery of the benefits would be against equity and good conscience. No such subsequent request will be granted unless the claimant explains the significant change in financial situation in writing and provides supporting documentation.

(7) If a waiver is granted but the Employment Department then determines a hardship no longer exists, or that the person who received the waiver gave inaccurate or incomplete information in the request for waiver, the Employment Department may end the waiver.

(8) If a request for a waiver of recovery is denied or if the Employment Department determines a hardship no longer exists and ends the waiver of recovery, the claimant will receive an administrative decision as defined in OAR 471-030-0039.

(9) Overpaid benefits that have been recovered prior to the filing of a waiver request will not be waived.

(10) If a person is paid more than once for the same week(s), only the amount in excess of the final entitlement is eligible to be waived.

(11) In applying ORS 657.317(4), a waiver will not be granted if the overpayment is a result of willful misrepresentation or fraud as established in 657.215

(12) Overpayments caused by the negotiation of an original and a replacement check that were issued for the same period pursuant to OAR 471-030-0049 will not be waived.

(13) The determination to waive recovery of overpayments under ORS 657.317 and this rule shall be made by employees authorized by the Director.

Offset of Unemployment Compensation Debt Through U.S. Treasury Offset Program

(1) The Oregon Employment Department may submit liquidated unemployment insurance overpayments for offset against federal tax refunds through the "Treasury Offset Program" under 31 USC 3716(h) and 31 CFR 285.6. For purposes of this rule, liquidated means legally enforceable because:

(a) The liability is assessed by the department;

(b) The department has made written demand for payment of the liability;

(c) The claimant is not in bankruptcy; and

(d) All relevant appeal periods for contesting the liability have expired.

(2) Notice of intent to offset. Before submitting an unemployment insurance overpayment to Financial Management Service, U.S. Treasury for offset against a federal refund, the Oregon Employment Department must send written notice of intent to offset to the claimant by mail.

(3) Disagreement procedures. If a claimant disagrees with the notice of intent to offset and wants reconsideration, the claimant must submit a letter of disagreement within 60 days of the date shown on the notice of intent to offset. The claimant must provide, and the department will limit consideration to, evidence that the overpayment scheduled for offset is not:

(a) Past due; or

(b) Legally enforceable.

(4) If the claimant claims that the debt is not legally enforceable, the department will consider the merits of such a claim unless the issue has already been finally adjudicated by the Office of Administrative Hearings or Employment Appeals Board in a proceeding to which the department is a party.

(5) Review of disagreement. For each letter of disagreement provided by the claimant, the department will:

(a) Review evidence provided by the claimant, and

(b) Remove claimant's name from the federal refund offset list for this debt if evidence supports the claimant's position that the debt is not past due or legally enforceable.

Employer Penalties

For the purposes of ORS 657.471:

(1) A request for information means when the Department asks an employer or its representative to provide the Department with information regarding Unemployment Insurance by:

(a) A written notice of claim filing as provided in ORS 657.265, where an individual was discharged, suspended, or voluntarily left work;

(b) Any communication made by mail, telephone, or electronically, to an employer or agent of the employer relating to a notice of claim filing as provided in ORS 657.265 regarding an individual's discharge, suspension, or voluntary leaving work;

(c) Any communication made by mail, telephone, or electronically, to an employer or agent of the employer in order for the department to make a determination under ORS 657.215.

(2) An employer or agent of the employer has failed to respond timely when they do not respond within the time frame provided by the department to a request for information.

(3) An employer or agent of the employer has failed to respond adequately when:

(a) The employer or agent of the employer does not respond to a request for information; or

(b) The employer or agent of the employer responds to a request for information but provides incomplete or inaccurate information to the questions asked.

(4) An employer or agent of the employer has established a pattern when the employer or agent of the employer has failed to respond timely or adequately to the greater of:

(a) More than (2%) of the requests for information; or,

(b) More than (2) requests for information.

(5) For the purposes of this rule, the department will determine if the employer or agent of the employer has established a pattern of failing to respond timely or accurately to requests for information by reviewing requests for information during the previous twelve months ending the month prior to which the decision creating the overpayment of unemployment insurance benefits is issued.

Interstate Reciprocal Overpayment Recovery Arrangement

(1) The following rules shall govern the Oregon Employment Department in its administrative cooperation with other States adopting similar regulations for the recovery of overpayments.

(2) Definitions: As used in these rules unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "State" includes the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

(b) "Offset" means the withholding of an amount against benefits which would otherwise be payable for a compensable week of unemployment.

(c) "Overpayment" means an improper payment of benefits, from a State or Federal unemployment compensation fund that has been determined recoverable under the Requesting State's law.

(d) "Participating State" means a State which has subscribed to the Interstate Reciprocal Overpayment Recovery Arrangement.

(e) "Paying State" means the State under whose law a claim for unemployment benefits has been established on the basis of combining wages and employment covered in more than one State.

(f) "Recovering State" means the state that has received a request for assistance from a "Requesting State".

(g) "Requesting State" means the State that has issued a final determination of overpayment and is requesting another State to assist it in recovering the outstanding balance from the overpaid individual.

(h) "Transferring State" means a State in which a Combined Wage claimant had covered employment and wages in the base period of a paying State, and which transfers such employment and wages to the paying State for its use in determining the benefit rights of such claimant under its law.

(i) "Liable State" means any state against which an individual files, through another state, a claim for benefits.

(3) Recovery of State or Federal Benefit Overpayments:

(a) Duties of the Requesting State. The requesting State shall:

(A) Send the recovering State a written request or a request using an approved electronic application for overpayment recovery assistance which includes:

(i) Certification that the overpayment is legally collectable under the requesting State's law;

(ii) Certification that the determination is final and that any rights to postponement of recoupment have been exhausted or have expired;

(iii) A statement as to whether the State is participating in cross-program offset by agreement with the U.S. Secretary of Labor; and,

(iv) A copy of the initial overpayment determination and a statement of the outstanding balance.

(B) Send notice of this request to the claimant; and

(C) Send to the recovering State a new outstanding overpayment balance whenever the requesting State receives any amount of repayment from a source other than the recovering State (e.g., interception of tax refund, etc.).

(b) Duties of Recovering State. The Recovering State shall:

(A) Issue an overpayment recovery determination to the claimant which includes at a minimum:

(i) The statutory authority for the offset;

(ii) The name of the State requesting recoupment;

(iii) The date of the original overpayment determination;

(iv) Type of overpayment (fraud or nonfraud);

(v) Program type (UI, UCFE, UCX, TRA, etc.)

(vi) Total amount to be offset;

(vii) The amount to be offset weekly;

(viii) The right to request redetermination and appeal of the determination to recover the overpayment by offset.

(B) Offset benefits payable for each week claimed in the amount determined under State law; and

(C) Provide the claimant with a notice of the amount offset; and,

(D) Prepare and forward, no less than once a month, a payment representing the amount recovered made payable to the requesting State, except as provided in section (c) below.

(E) Retain a record of the overpayment balance in its files no later than the exhaustion of benefits, end of the benefit year, exhaustion or end of an additional or extended benefits period, or other extensions of benefits, whichever is later.

(F) The Recovering State shall not redetermine the original overpayment determination.

(c) Combined Wage Claims. When processing combined wage claims, the following shall apply:

(A) Recovery of Outstanding Overpayment in Transferring State. The paying State shall:

(i) Offset any outstanding overpayment in a Transferring State(s) prior to honoring a request from any other "Participating State" under this Arrangement.

(ii) Credit the deductions against the Statement Of Benefits Paid To Combined Wage Claimants, Form IB-6 or forward a check to the Transferring State as described in (b)(D).

(B) Withdrawal of Combined Wage Claim After Benefits Have Been Paid. Withdrawal of a Combined Wage Claim after benefits have been paid shall be honored only if the combined wage claimant has repaid any benefits paid or authorizes the new liable State to offset the overpayment.

(i) The Paying State shall issue an overpayment determination and forward a copy, together with an overpayment recovery request and an authorization to offset, with the initial claim to the new liable State.

(ii) The Recovering State (which is the new liable State) shall:

(I) Offset the total amount of any overpayment, resulting from the withdrawal of a Combined Wage claim, prior to the release of any payments to the claimant;

(II) Offset the total amount of any overpayment, resulting from the withdrawal of a Combined Wage Claim prior to honoring a request from any other Participating State under this arrangement;

(III) Provide the claimant with a notice for the amount offset; and,

(IV) Prepare and forward a check representing the amount recovered to the Requesting State as described in (b)(D).

(d) Cross-Program Offset: The Recovering State shall offset benefits payable under a State unemployment compensation program to recover any benefits overpaid under a Federal unemployment compensation program (as described in the Recovering State's Agreement with the Secretary of Labor) and vice versa, in the same manner as required under subsection (3)(b) and (c) of this section, as appropriate, if the Recovering State and Requesting State have entered into an agreement with the U.S. Secretary of Labor to implement Section 303(g)(2) of the Social Security Act.

Failure to File Reports or Pay Tax — Good Cause

(1) As used in ORS 657.457, 657.552, and 657.663 "good cause" will be found to exist when the employer establishes by satisfactory evidence that factors or circumstances beyond the employer's reasonable control caused the delay in filing the required document or paying the tax due.

(2) In determining "good cause" under section (1) of this rule, the Director or an authorized representative may consider all circumstances, but shall require at a minimum that the employer:

(a) Prior to the date the document or tax was due, gave notice to the Employment Department, when reasonably possible, of the factors or circumstances which ultimately caused the delay;

(b) Filed the required document or paid the tax due within seven days after the date determined by the Director to be the date the factors or circumstances causing the delay ceased to exist; and

(c) Made a diligent effort to remove the cause of the delay and to prevent its recurrence.

(d) Provide an official police report, or other documentation of the criminal act acceptable to the Director or an authorized representative, that was made within 20 days of the incident, or discovery of the incident, if the delay was due to a criminal act by any party.

(3) In applying sections (1) and (2) of this rule, a lack of funds on the part of the employer shall not constitute good cause for failure to pay all taxes when due.

(4) In applying sections (1) and (2) of this rule, failure to notify the Employment Department of an updated mailing address per ORS 657.660(4) shall not constitute good cause for failure to file reports.

(5) The period within which an employer may request a waiver of the penalty or hearing on the denial of a waiver may be extended a reasonable time upon a showing of "good cause" for the late request as defined in OAR 471-040-0010.

(c) That the person will not voluntarily appear.

(3) If the requesting party wishes the witness to produce books, records, documents, or other physical evidence, the party should also show:

(a) The name or a detailed description of the specific books, records, documents, or other physical evidence the witness should bring to the hearing;

(b) That such evidence is material; and

(4) An administrative law judge may limit the number of subpoenas for witnesses material to the proof of any one issue at the hearing.

(5) Service of the subpoena upon the witness is the responsibility of the party requesting the subpoena.

(6) A witness who attends a hearing pursuant to subpoena issued under this rule is entitled to witness fees and mileage as provided in Rule 55 E. (1), Rules of Civil Procedure, and in ORS 44.415(2) for subpoenaed witnesses. Fees will be paid by check mailed subsequent to the conclusion of the hearing. The witness shall request payment of fees by completion of forms approved by the Employment Department. Payment of fees shall be made promptly upon receipt of the request for payment.

(7) Only witnesses, other than parties, who attend a hearing pursuant to subpoena issued under this rule may be paid or reimbursed by the Employment Department for witness fees and mileage.

(8) For the purposes of ORS 657.295, the amount approved by the Director that counsel or agent representing an individual who is claiming benefits may charge or receive for the services is no more than 25% of an individual's benefits affected by the administrative decision on a disputed claim and no more than 25% of the maximum benefit amount payable as defined under 657.150(5).

Eligibility Factors

(1) In considering suitable work factors under ORS 657.190 and for purposes of determining eligibility under 657.155(1)(c), the Director may require an individual to actively seek the type of work the individual is most capable of performing due to prior job experience and training except that:

(a) If an individual is unable to secure the individual's customary type of work after contacting the potential employers in the labor market where benefits are being claimed, the Director may require the individual to seek less desirable but similar work or work of another type which the individual is capable of performing by virtue of experience and training.

(b) If the type of work an individual is most capable of performing does not exist in the labor market where the individual is claiming benefits, the Director may require the individual to seek any work that exists in the labor market for which the individual is suited by virtue of experience and training.

(c) After the individual has contacted the potential employers in the labor market where benefits are being claimed and is still unable to obtain work as described in (1)(a) and (b) of this section, the Director may require the individual to further expand work-seeking activities.

(2) For the purposes of ORS 657.155(1)(c), an individual shall be considered able to work in a particular week only if physically and mentally capable of performing the work he or she actually is seeking during all of the week except:

(a) An occasional and temporary disability for less than half of the week shall not result in a finding that the individual is unable to work for that week; and

(b) An individual with a permanent or long-term "physical or mental impairment" (as defined at 29 CFR 1630.2(h)) which prevents the individual from working full time or during particular shifts shall not be deemed unable to work solely on that basis so long as the individual remains available for some work.

(3) For the purposes of ORS 657.155(1)(c), an individual shall be considered available for work if, at a minimum, he or she is:

(a) Willing to work full time, part time, and accept temporary work opportunities, during all of the usual hours and days of the week customary for the work being sought, unless such part time or temporary opportunities would substantially interfere with return to the individual's regular employment; and

(b) Capable of accepting and reporting for any suitable work opportunities within the labor market in which work is being sought, including temporary and part time opportunities; and

(c) Not imposing conditions which substantially reduce the individual's opportunities to return to work at the earliest possible time; and

(d) Physically present in the normal labor market area as defined by section (6) of this rule, every day of the week, unless:

(A) The individual is actively seeking work outside his or her normal labor market area; or

(B) The individual is infrequently absent from the normal labor market area for reasons unrelated to work search, for less than half of the week, and no opportunity to work or referral to work was missed by such absence.

(e) However, an individual with a permanent or long-term physical or mental impairment (as defined at 29 CFR 1630.2(h)) which prevents the individual from working full time or during particular shifts shall not be deemed unavailable for work solely on that basis so long as the individual remains available for some work.

(f) For the purposes of ORS 657.155(1)(c), an individual is not available for work in any week claimed if:

(A) The individual has an opportunity to perform suitable work during the week and fails to accept or report for such work due to illness, injury or other temporary physical or mental incapacity.

(B) During the week, the individual is incarcerated during any days or hours customary for the type of work the individual is seeking.

(i) "Incarcerated" means in custody at a city, county, state, or federal law enforcement or correctional facility to include any "arrest" as defined in ORS 133.005 or a similar law in another state or jurisdiction.

(ii) When an individual is in an alternative sentencing facility operated pursuant to a community corrections plan that individual will not be considered unavailable for work solely because of their non-traditional custody. Alternative sentencing is defined by the jurisdiction responsible for supervision of the suspect or offender.

(iii) "Incarcerated" does not include a "stop" as authorized under ORS 131.605 to 131.625.

(iv) "Incarcerated" does not mean being involved in questioning by peace officers as part of an investigation where the individual is free to leave and not charged with a crime.

(g) An individual will be considered not available for work if he or she fails or refuses to seek the type of work required by the Director pursuant to section (1) of this rule.

(h) Providing the individual is otherwise eligible for benefits pursuant to OAR 471-030-0036(3)(a) through (g), a person who has been found to be qualified for benefits under the provisions of ORS 657.176(2)(f) or (g) or 657.176(9)(b)(A) shall be considered available for work only during weeks in which the individual is enrolled in and participating in a recognized drug or alcohol treatment program if such participation was a condition in the determination to allow benefits. This provision does not apply if the individual has satisfactorily completed the course of treatment in accordance with the terms and conditions of the recognized treatment program.

(A) An individual is participating when engaged in a course of treatment through a recognized drug or alcohol rehabilitation program;

(B) A recognized drug or alcohol rehabilitation program is a program authorized and licensed under the provisions of OAR chapter 415.

(i) An individual is not available for work in any week claimed under ORS 657.155 if the individual resides or spends the major portion of the week:

(A) In Canada unless the individual is authorized to work in both the United States and Canada;

(B) In a country not included in the Compact of Free Association with the United States of America; or

(C) outside of the United States, District of Columbia or any territory or political division that is directly overseen by the United States federal government; except,

(i) If the individual is the spouse or domestic partner of an individual stationed at a military base or embassy located outside the United States;

(ii) Job opportunities exist on the military base or embassy for family members of those stationed there;

(iii) The individual lives within a reasonable commuting distance to job opportunities at the military base or embassy; and

(iv) The individual is willing to accept the conditions and terms of the available employment provided they are not inconsistent with ORS 657.195.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of OAR 471-030-0036(3), an individual who is the parent, step-parent, guardian or other court/legally-appointed caretaker of a child under 13 years of age or of a child with special needs under the age of 18 who requires a level of care over and above the norm for his or her age, who is not willing to or capable of working a particular shift because of a lack of care for that child acceptable to the individual shall be considered available for work if:

(a) The work the individual is seeking is customarily performed during other shifts in the individual's normal labor market area as defined by OAR 471-030-0036(6); and

(b) The individual is willing to and capable of working during such shift(s).

(5)(a) For purposes of ORS 657.155(1)(c) an individual is actively seeking work when doing what an ordinary and reasonable person would do to return to work at the earliest opportunity. Unless otherwise directed by the director or an authorized representative of the employment department, an individual who is not on temporary layoff as described in subsection (b), is not a union member as described in subsection (d), nor is filing a continued claim for the first week of an initial or additional claim as described in subsection (e), shall be required to conduct at least five work seeking activities per week, with at least two of those being direct contact with an employer who might hire the individual.

(A) Work seeking activities include but are not limited to registering for job placement services with the Employment Department, attending job placement meetings sponsored by the Employment Department, participating in a job club or networking group dedicated to job placement, updating a resume, reviewing the newspaper or job placement web sites without responding to a posted job opening, and making direct contact with an employer.

(B) Direct contact with an employer means making contact with an employer in person, by phone, mail, or electronically to inquire about a job opening or applying for job openings in the manner required by the hiring employer.

(b) For an individual on temporary layoff of four weeks or less with the individual's regular employer:

(A) If the individual had, as of the layoff date, been given a date to return to full-time work or work for which remuneration is paid or payable that equals or exceeds the individual's weekly benefit amount, such individual is actively seeking work by remaining in contact with and being capable of accepting and reporting for any suitable work with that employer for a period of up to four calendar weeks following the end of the week in which the temporary layoff occurred. The individual no longer meets the requirements of this subsection if four calendar weeks have passed following the week in which the temporary layoff occurred, therefore the individual must seek work consistent with subsection (a) of this section in addition to the individual's regular employer.

(B) The individual does not meet the requirements of this subsection if the individual had not, as of the layoff date, been given a date to return to full-time work or work for which remuneration is paid or payable that equals or exceeds the individual's weekly benefit amount.

(c) For an individual on temporary layoff of more than four weeks with the individual's regular employer: such individual must immediately seek work consistent with the requirements of subsection (a) of this section

(d) For an individual who is a member in good standing of a union that does not allow members to seek non-union work, such individual is actively seeking work by remaining in contact with that union and being capable of accepting and reporting for work when dispatched by that union.

(e) For an individual who is filing a continued claim for the first week of an initial or additional claim:

(A) If the individual worked less than full time and remuneration paid or payable to the individual for services performed during the week is less than the individual's weekly benefit amount, each day the individual worked for the employer shall be considered a direct employer contact.

(B) An individual does not meet the requirements of this subsection if the individual performed no work for an employer during the first week of an initial or additional claim; therefore the individual must seek work consistent with subsection (a) of this section

(f) In determining whether to modify the requirements in this section for an individual the Employment Department may consider among other factors, length of unemployment, economic conditions in the individual's labor market and prospective job openings, weather conditions affecting occupations or industries, seasonal aspects of the individual's regular occupation, expected date of return to work in regular occupation, seniority status of individual, registration with a union hiring hall and normal practices for obtaining the type of work which the individual is seeking pursuant to section (1) of this rule. The Department shall provide a written copy of the work search requirements to the individual if the individual's work search requirements are modified.

(6)(a) An individual's normal labor market shall be that geographic area surrounding the individual's permanent residence within which employees in similar circumstances are generally willing to commute to seek and accept the same type of work at a comparable wage. The geographic area shall be defined by employees of the adjudicating Employment Department office, based on criteria set forth in this section;

(b) When an individual seeks work through a union hiring hall, the individual's normal labor market area for the work sought is the normal referral jurisdiction of the union, as indicated by the applicable contract.

(7) Nothing in this rule shall prohibit an individual who is a citizen, permanent legal resident, or otherwise legally authorized to work in the United States from seeking work in other labor market areas in any state or country.

Initial, Additional, and Reopened Claims

(1) As used in these rules, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Claimant" is an individual who has filed an initial, additional, or reopened claim for unemployment insurance purposes within a benefit year or other eligibility period;

(b) An "initial claim" is a new claim that is a certification by a claimant completed as required by OAR 471-030-0025 to establish a benefit year or other eligibility period;

(c) "Additional claim" is a claim certification by a claimant completed as required by OAR 471-030-0025 that restarts a claim during an existing benefit year or other eligibility period and certifies to the end of a period of employment;

(d) "Reopened claim" is a certification by a claimant completed as required by OAR 471-030-0025 that restarts a claim during an existing benefit year or other eligibility period and certifies that there was no employment in any week since last reporting on this claim;

(e) "Backdating" occurs when an authorized representative of the Employment Department corrects, adjusts, resets or otherwise changes the effective date of an initial, additional or reopened claim to reflect filing in a prior week. Backdating may occur based upon evidence of the individual's documented contact on the prior date with the Employment Department or with any other state Workforce agency, or as otherwise provided in this rule.

(2) For the purposes of filing an initial, additional, or reopened claim:

(a) When delivered in person to any Employment Department office in the state of Oregon, the date of filing shall be the date of delivery, as evidenced by the receipt date stamped or written by the public employee who receives the document;

(b) When filed by mail, the date of filing shall be the date of the postmark affixed by the United States Postal Service. In the absence of a postmarked date, the date of filing shall be the most probable date of mailing as determined by the Employment Department;

(c) When filed by fax, the date of filing shall be the encoded date on the fax document unless such date is absent, illegible, improbable or challenged, in which case the fax receipt date, if available, shall be the date of filing. If a filing date cannot otherwise be determined, the filing date shall be the most probable date of faxing as determined by the Employment Department;

(d) When filed by Internet, the date of filing shall be the initial date of transmission of the online claim; or

(e) When filed by telephone, the date of filing shall be the date recorded in the completed telephone initial claim record of the agency system or by an employee completing the filing of the claim record.

(f) An incomplete certification must be completed and returned within seven business days from the date of notification that the original was incomplete to preserve the original date of filing.

(3) An initial, additional, or reopened claim must be filed prior to or during the first week or series of weeks for which benefits, waiting week credit, or noncompensable credit is claimed and prior to or during the first week of any subsequent series thereafter. An initial claim is effective the Sunday of the calendar week in which it is filed. An authorized representative of the Employment Department will backdate an additional or reopened claim to the calendar week immediately preceding the week in which the request to backdate was made when a claimant requests backdating of the additional or reopened claim.

(4) The provisions of this section do not apply to an individual claiming benefits as a "partially unemployed individual," as defined in OAR 471-030-0060.

(a) "Continued Claim" means an application that certifies to the claimant's completion of one or more weeks of unemployment and to the claimant's status during these weeks. The certification may request benefits, waiting week credit, or non-compensable credit for such week or weeks. A continued claim must follow the first effective week of an initial, additional or reopen claim, or the claimant's continued claim for the preceding week;

(b) A "non-compensable credit week" is a week of unemployment for which benefits [shall] will not be allowed but which may qualify as a week allowed toward satisfying a disqualification as provided in ORS 657.215.

(2) A claimant, in order to obtain benefits, waiting week credit, or non-compensable credit for a week of unemployment, must file a continued claim for the week by any method approved by the Director.

(3) As directed by the Director, a continued claim must be filed:

(a) In person at any Employment Department office in the state of Oregon. When delivered in person to any Employment Department office in the state of Oregon, the date of filing shall be the date of delivery, as evidenced by the receipt date stamped or written by the public employee who receives the document;

(b) By United States mail. When filed by mail, the date of filing shall be the date of the postmark affixed by the United States Postal Service. In the absence of a postmarked date, the date of filing shall be the most probable date of mailing as determined by the Employment Department;

(c) By fax. When filed by fax, the date of filing shall be the encoded date on the fax document unless such date is absent, illegible, improbable or challenged, in which case the fax receipt date, if available, shall be the date of filing. If a filing date cannot otherwise be determined, the filing date shall be the most probable date of faxing as determined by the Employment Department;

(d) By Internet. When filed on line, the date of filing shall be the initial date of transmission of the on line continued claim; or

(e) By telephone. When filed by telephone, the date of filing shall be the date marked, stamped, or imprinted on the document by the agency system that records the oral request or by the employee accepting the continued claim.

(4) A continued claim must be filed no later than seven days following the end of the week for which benefits, waiting week credit, or non-compensable credit, or any combination of the foregoing is claimed, unless:

(a) The continued claim is for the first effective week of the benefit year, in which case the week must be claimed no later than 13 days following the end of the week for which waiting week credit is claimed, or

(b) The claimant routinely files weekly claims by submitting a weekly paper certification forms, in which case the week is timely if it is filed to the Employment Department no later than seven days, as per sections (3)(a)–(c) of this rule, after the Employment Department originally sent the paper certification form to the claimant.

(5) The Director may, with respect to individual claimants or groups of claimants, direct that continued claims be filed on any reporting schedule appropriate to existing facilities and conditions.

(6) The provisions of this rule do not apply to an individual claiming benefits as a "partially unemployed individual," as defined in OAR 471-030-0060.

Misrepresentation Disqualification

(1) An authorized representative of the Employment Department shall determine the number of weeks of disqualification under ORS 657.215 according to the following criteria:

(a) When the disqualification is imposed because the individual failed to accurately report work and/or earnings, the number of weeks of disqualification shall be determined by dividing the total amount of benefits overpaid to the individual for the disqualifying act(s), by the maximum Oregon weekly benefit amount in effect during the first effective week of the initial claim in effect at the time of the individual's disqualifying act(s), rounding off to the nearest two decimal places, multiplying the result by four rounding it up to the nearest whole number.

(b) When the disqualification is imposed because the disqualifying act(s) under ORS 657.215 relates to the provisions of 657.176, the number of weeks of disqualification shall be the number of weeks calculated in the same manner as under subsection (a) above, or four weeks, whichever is greater.

(c) When the disqualification is imposed because the disqualifying act(s) relates to the provisions of ORS 657.155 (other than work and/or earnings), the number of weeks of disqualification shall be the number of weeks calculated in the same manner as under subsection (a) above, or the number of weeks in which a disqualifying act(s) occurred, whichever is greater.

(d) When the disqualification is imposed because the disqualifying act(s) under ORS 657.215 relates to the provisions of 657.176 and a failure to accurately report work and/or earnings, the number of weeks of disqualification shall be the number of weeks calculated in the manner set forth in subsection (a) plus four weeks.

(e) When the disqualification is imposed because the disqualifying act(s) relates to the provisions of ORS 657.155 (other than work and/or earnings) and a failure to accurately report work and/or earnings, the number of weeks of disqualification shall be the number of weeks calculated in the manner set forth in subsection (a) plus the number of weeks in which a disqualifying act(s) occurred relating to the provisions of 657.155 (other than work and earnings).

(2) The number of weeks of disqualification assessed under section (1) of this rule shall be doubled, but not to exceed 52 weeks, if the individual has one previous disqualification under ORS 657.215, and that prior disqualification determination has become final.

(3) Notwithstanding sections (1) and (2) of this rule, the number of weeks of disqualification under ORS 657.215 shall be 52 weeks if:

(a) The disqualification under ORS 657.215 is because the individual committed forgery; or

(b) The individual has two previous disqualifications under ORS 657.215, and those prior two disqualification determinations have become final.

(4) Notwithstanding sections (1), (2) and (3), an authorized representative of the Employment Department may determine the number of weeks of disqualification according to the circumstances of the individual case, but not to exceed 52 weeks.

(5) All disqualifications imposed under ORS 657.215 shall be served consecutively.

(6) Any week of disqualification imposed under ORS 657.215 may be satisfied by meeting all of the eligibility requirements of Chapter 657, other than 657.155(1)(e).

(7) The department will review the number of occurrences of misrepresentation when applying the penalty as described in ORS 657.310(2). An occurrence shall be counted each time an individual willfully makes a false statement or representation, or willfully fails to report a material fact to obtain benefits. The department shall use the date the individual failed to report a material fact or willfully made a false statement as the date of the occurrence. For an individual subject to disqualification by administrative action under 657.215, the penalty will be:

(a) For the first or second occurrence within 5 years of the occurrence for which a penalty is being assessed, 15 percent of the total amount of benefits the individual received but to which the individual was not entitled.

(b) For the third or fourth occurrence within 5 years of the occurrence for which a penalty is being assessed, 20 percent of the total amount of benefits the individual received but to which the individual was not entitled.

(c) For the fifth or sixth occurrence within 5 years of the occurrence for which a penalty is being assessed, 25 percent of the total amount of benefits the individual received but to which the individual was not entitled.

(d) For the seventh or greater occurrence within 5 years of the occurrence for which a penalty is being assessed, 30 percent of the total amount of benefits the individual received but to which the individual was not entitled.

(e) In cases of forgery or identity theft, 30 percent of the amount of benefits the individual received but to which the individual was not entitled.

(8)(a) Under ORS 657.215, the Director or an authorized representative of the Employment Department may determine it is proper and equitable to cancel the disqualification if:

(A) All benefits, interest, penalties, fees, and court costs have been paid in full;

(B) Three or more years have passed since the decision assessing the number of weeks of disqualification was issued; and

(C) The department has issued only one decision assessing weeks of disqualification to the individual within the last 10 years from the date of the request to cancel.

(b) For the purposes of the section (c) of this rule, an "occurrence" is each time an individual willfully makes a false statement or representation, or willfully fails to report a material fact to obtain benefits within the same willful misrepresentation decision.

(c) The Director or an authorized representative of the Employment Department shall determine the amount of weeks applicable for cancellation under ORS 657.215 according to the following criteria:

(A) The individual has satisfied the requirements of subsection (a);

(B) When the individual has committed one occurrence of violating ORS 657.215 within the same willful misrepresentation decision, the director may cancel the remaining weeks of disqualification in whole.

(C) When the individual has committed two occurrences of violating ORS 657.215 within the same willful misrepresentation decision, the director may cancel half the weeks of disqualification.

(D) When the individual has committed three or more occurrences of violating ORS 657.215 within the same willful misrepresentation decision or the disqualification under 657.215 is because the individual committed forgery, weeks of disqualification shall not be cancelled.

(d) Weeks of disqualification served prior to the request for cancellation shall not be cancelled.

Waiving Recovery of Overpayments

(1) This rule addresses waiving recovery of overpayments pursuant to ORS 657.317.

(2) Recovering overpaid benefits is against equity and good conscience if the person requesting a waiver has no means to repay the benefits and has total allowable household expenses that equal or exceed 90% of the total household income less unemployment benefits. The Employment Department will use the IRS Collection Financial Standards to determine maximum allowable household expenses. The Employment Department may allow expenses higher than those provided for in the IRS Collection Financial standards if the person requesting a waiver provides documents showing that using those IRS Collection Financial Standards would leave him or her an inadequate means of providing for basic living expenses.

(3) If a waiver is granted, the Department will stop collection activity of the overpaid benefits that are waived. The Department will give written notice of any waivers that are granted, indicating the amount of the overpaid benefits for which the waiver is granted, and the time period of the waiver.

(4) The amount of overpaid benefits that are waived will be removed from the balance of remaining benefits that the claimant has remaining on the claim during the duration of the waiver of recovery of benefits.

(5) Waivers are effective the Sunday of the week in which the request for waiver was filed with the Employment Department. The date of the post mark from the United States Postal Service, a date stamp from an Employment Department office, or an embedded fax date, whichever is earliest, will be used to determine the date of filing.

(6) If a request for waiver of recovery is denied, the claimant may submit another request for waiver of recovery if his or her situation changes significantly enough to establish that recovery of the benefits would be against equity and good conscience. No such subsequent request will be granted unless the claimant explains the significant change in financial situation in writing and provides supporting documentation.

(7) If a waiver is granted but the Employment Department then determines a hardship no longer exists, or that the person who received the waiver gave inaccurate or incomplete information in the request for waiver, the Employment Department may end the waiver.

(8) If a request for a waiver of recovery is denied or if the Employment Department determines a hardship no longer exists and ends the waiver of recovery, the claimant will receive an administrative decision as defined in OAR 471-030-0039.

(9) Overpaid benefits that have been recovered prior to the filing of a waiver request will not be waived.

(10) If a person is paid more than once for the same week(s), only the amount in excess of the final entitlement is eligible to be waived.

(11) In applying ORS 657.317(4), a waiver will not be granted if the overpayment is a result of willful misrepresentation or fraud as established in ORS 657.215

(12) Overpayments caused by the negotiation of an original and a replacement check that were issued for the same period pursuant to OAR 471-030-0049 will not be waived.

(13) The determination to waive recovery of overpayments under ORS 657.317 and this rule shall be made by employees authorized by the Director.

Offset of Unemployment Compensation Debt Through U.S. Treasury Offset Program

(1) The Oregon Employment Department may submit liquidated unemployment insurance overpayments for offset against federal tax refunds through the "Treasury Offset Program" under 31 USC 3716(h) and 31 CFR 285.6. For purposes of this rule, liquidated means legally enforceable because:

(a) The liability is assessed by the department;

(b) The department has made written demand for payment of the liability;

(c) The claimant is not in bankruptcy; and

(d) All relevant appeal periods for contesting the liability have expired.

(2) Notice of intent to offset. Before submitting an unemployment insurance overpayment to Financial Management Service, U.S. Treasury for offset against a federal refund, the Oregon Employment Department must send written notice of intent to offset to the claimant by mail.

(3) Disagreement procedures. If a claimant disagrees with the notice of intent to offset and wants reconsideration, the claimant must submit a letter of disagreement within 60 days of the date shown on the notice of intent to offset. The claimant must provide, and the department will limit consideration to, evidence that the overpayment scheduled for offset is not:

(a) Past due; or

(b) Legally enforceable.

(4) If the claimant claims that the debt is not legally enforceable, the department will consider the merits of such a claim unless the issue has already been finally adjudicated by the Office of Administrative Hearings or Employment Appeals Board in a proceeding to which the department is a party.

(5) Review of disagreement. For each letter of disagreement provided by the claimant, the department will:

(a) Review evidence provided by the claimant, and

(b) Remove claimant's name from the federal refund offset list for this debt if evidence supports the claimant's position that the debt is not past due or legally enforceable.

provided in ORS 657.265 regarding an individual's discharge, suspension, or voluntary leaving work;

(2) An employer or agent of the employer has failed to respond timely when they do not respond within the time frame provided by the department to a request for information.

(3) An employer or agent of the employer has failed to respond adequately when:

(a) The employer or agent of the employer does not respond to a request for information; or

(b) The employer or agent of the employer responds to a request for information but provides incomplete or inaccurate information to the questions asked.

(4) An employer or agent of the employer has established a pattern when the employer or agent of the employer has failed to respond timely or adequately to the greater of:

(a) More than (2%) of the requests for information; or,

(b) More than (2) requests for information.

(5) For the purposes of this rule, the department will determine if the employer or agent of the employer has established a pattern of failing to respond timely or accurately to requests for information by reviewing requests for information during the previous twelve months ending the month prior to which the decision creating the overpayment of unemployment insurance benefits is issued.

Failure to File Reports or Pay Tax — Good Cause

(1) As used in ORS 657.457, 657.552, and 657.663 "good cause" will be found to exist when the employer establishes by satisfactory evidence that factors or circumstances beyond the employer's reasonable control caused the delay in filing the required document or paying the tax due.

(2) In determining "good cause" under section (1) of this rule, the Director or an authorized representative may consider all circumstances, but shall require at a minimum that the employer:

(a) Prior to the date the document or tax was due, gave notice to the Employment Department, when reasonably possible, of the factors or circumstances which ultimately caused the delay;

(b) Filed the required document or paid the tax due within seven days after the date determined by the Director to be the date the factors or circumstances causing the delay ceased to exist; and

(c) Made a diligent effort to remove the cause of the delay and to prevent its recurrence.

(d) Provide an official police report, or other documentation of the criminal act acceptable to the Director or an authorized representative, that was made within 20 days of the incident, or discovery of the incident, if the delay was due to a criminal act by any party.

(3) In applying sections (1) and (2) of this rule, a lack of funds on the part of the employer shall not constitute good cause for failure to pay all taxes when due.

(4) In applying sections (1) and (2) of this rule, failure to notify the Employment Department of an updated mailing address per ORS 657.660(4) shall not constitute good cause for failure to file reports.

(5) The period within which an employer may request a waiver of the penalty or hearing on the denial of a waiver may be extended a reasonable time upon a showing of "good cause" for the late request as defined in OAR 471-040-0010.

Notice of a Proposed Change to a Comprehensive Plan or Land Use Regulation

(1) Before a local government adopts a change to an acknowledged comprehensive plan or a land use regulation, unless circumstances described in OAR 660-018-0022 apply, the local government shall submit the proposed change to the department, including the information described in section (2) of this rule. The local government must submit the proposed change to the director at the department's Salem office at least 35 days before holding the first evidentiary hearing on adoption of the proposed change.

(2) The submittal must include applicable forms provided by the department, be in a format acceptable to the department, and include all of the following materials:

(a) The text of the proposed change to the comprehensive plan or land use regulation implementing the plan, as provided in section (3) of this rule;

(b) If a comprehensive plan map or zoning map is created or altered by the proposed change, a copy of the relevant portion of the map that is created or altered;

(c) A brief narrative summary of the proposed change and any supplemental information that the local government believes may be useful to inform the director and members of the public of the effect of the proposed change;

(d) The date set for the first evidentiary hearing;

(e) The notice or a draft of the notice required under ORS 197.763 regarding a quasi-judicial land use hearing, if applicable; and

(f) Any staff report on the proposed change or information that describes when the staff report will be available and how a copy may be obtained.

(3) The proposed text submitted to comply with subsection (2)(a) of this rule must include all of the proposed wording to be added to or deleted from the acknowledged plan or land use regulations. A general description of the proposal or its purpose, by itself, is not sufficient. For map changes, the material submitted to comply with Subsection (2)(b) must include a graphic depiction of the change; a legal description, tax account number, address or similar general description, by itself, is not sufficient. If a goal exception is proposed, the submittal must include the proposed wording of the exception.

(4) If a local government proposes a change to an acknowledged comprehensive plan or a land use regulation solely for the purpose of conforming the plan and regulations to new requirements in a land use statute, statewide land use planning goal, or a rule implementing the statutes or goals, the local government may adopt such a change without holding a public hearing, notwithstanding contrary provisions of state and local law, provided:

(a) The local government provides notice to the department of the proposed change identifying it as a change described under this section, and includes the materials described in section (2) of this rule, 35 days before the proposed change is adopted by the local government, and

(b) The department confirms in writing prior to the adoption of the change that the only effect of the proposed change is to conform the comprehensive plan or the land use regulations to the new requirements.

(5) For purposes of computation of time for the 35-day notice under this rule and OAR 660-018-0035(1)(c), the proposed change is considered to have been "submitted" on the day that paper copies or an electronic file of the applicable notice forms and other documents required by section (2)

this rule are received or, if mailed, on the date of mailing. The materials must be mailed to or received by the department at its Salem office.

(2) For purposes of the 20-day requirement under section (1) of this rule, the proposed change is considered submitted to the department:

(a) On the day the applicable notice forms and other required documents are received by the department in its Salem office, if hand-delivered or submitted by electronic mail or similar electronic method, or

(b) On the date of mailing if the local government mails the forms and documents.

(3) The submission to the department must in a format acceptable to the department and include all of the following materials:

(a) A copy of final decision;

(b) The findings and the text of the change to the comprehensive plan or land use regulation;

(c) If a comprehensive plan map or zoning map is created or altered by the proposed change:

(A) A map showing the area changed and applicable designations; and

(B) Electronic files containing geospatial data showing the area changed, as specified in section (5) of this rule, if applicable.

(d) A brief narrative summary of the decision, including a summary of substantive differences from the proposed change submitted under OAR 660-018-0020 and any supplemental information that the local government believes may be useful to inform the director or members of the public of the effect of the actual change; and

(e) A statement by the individual transmitting the decision identifying the date of the decision and the date the submission was mailed to the department.

(4) Where amendments or new land use regulations, including supplementary materials, exceed 100 pages, a summary of the amendment briefly describing its purpose and requirements shall be included with the submittal to the director.

(5) For local governments that produce geospatial data describing an urban growth boundary (UGB) or urban or rural reserve that is created or altered as part of an adopted change to a comprehensive plan or land use regulation, the submission must include electronic geospatial data depicting the boundary change. Local governments that create or alter other zoning or comprehensive plan maps as geospatial data are encouraged but not required to share this data with the department. Geospatial data submitted to the department must comply with the following standards endorsed by the Oregon Geographic Information Council:

(a) Be in an electronic format compatible with the State's Geographic Information System software standard described in OAR 125-600-7550; and

(b) Be accompanied by metadata that meets at least the minimum requirements of the federal Content Standard for Digital Geospatial Metadata.

(6) Local government must notify the department of withdrawals or denials of proposals previously sent to the department under requirements of OAR 660-018-0020.

(7) If a local government did not submit a notice of a proposed change to a comprehensive plan or land use regulation to the department as required by OAR 660-018-0020, the transmittal must clearly indicate which provisions of OAR 660-018-022 are applicable.

NOTE: ORS 197.610 clearly requires all adopted plan and land use regulation amendments and new land use regulations to be submitted to the director even if they were not required to be submitted for review prior to adoption.

(8) ORS 197.620 provides that a local government may cure the untimely submission of materials by either postponing the date for the final evidentiary hearing by the greater of 10 days or the number of days by which the submission was late; or by holding the evidentiary record open for an additional period of time equal to 10 days or the number of days by which the submission was late, whichever is greater. The local government shall provide notice of such postponement or record extension to the department.

In addition to forest practices and operations and uses auxiliary to forest practices, as set forth in ORS 527.722, the Commission has determined that five general types of uses, as set forth in the goal, may be allowed in the forest environment, subject to the standards in the goal and in this rule. These general types of uses are:

(a) Uses related to and in support of forest operations;

(c) Locationally-dependent uses, such as communication towers, mineral and aggregate resources, etc.

(d) Dwellings authorized by ORS 215.705 to 215.755; and

(d) For the purposes of section (2) of this rule "auxiliary" means a use or alteration of a structure or land that provides help or is directly associated with the conduct of a particular forest practice. An auxiliary structure is located on site, temporary in nature, and is not designed to remain for the forest's entire growth cycle from planting to harvesting. An auxiliary use is removed when a particular forest practice has concluded.

(3) The following uses may be allowed outright on forest lands:

(a) Uses to conserve soil, air and water quality and to provide for wildlife and fisheries resources;

(b) Farm use as defined in ORS 215.203;

(A) Has intact exterior walls and roof structures;

(B) Has indoor plumbing consisting of a kitchen sink, toilet and bathing facilities connected to a sanitary waste disposal system;

(C) Has interior wiring for interior lights;

(D) Has a heating system; and

(E) In the case of replacement, is removed, demolished or converted to an allowable nonresidential use within three months of the completion of the replacement dwelling;

(e)(A) Private parks and campgrounds. Campgrounds in private parks shall only be those allowed by this subsection. Except on a lot or parcel contiguous to a lake or reservoir, campgrounds shall not be allowed within three miles of an urban growth boundary unless an exception is approved pursuant to ORS 197.732 and OAR chapter 660, division 4. A campground is an area devoted to overnight temporary use for vacation, recreational or emergency purposes, but not for residential purposes and is established on a site or is contiguous to lands with a park or other outdoor natural amenity that is accessible for recreational use by the occupants of the campground. A campground shall be designed and integrated into the rural agricultural and forest environment in a manner that protects the natural amenities of the site and provides buffers of existing native trees and vegetation or other natural features between campsites. Campsites may be occupied by a tent, travel trailer or recreational vehicle. Separate sewer, water or electric service hook-ups shall not be provided to individual camp sites. Campgrounds authorized by this rule shall not include intensively developed recreational uses such as swimming pools, tennis courts, retail stores or gas stations. Overnight temporary use in the same campground by a camper or camper's vehicle shall not exceed a total of 30 days during any consecutive six-month period.

(C) Subject to the approval of the county governing body or its designee, a private campground may provide yurts for overnight camping. No more than one-third or a maximum of 10 campsites, whichever is smaller, may include a yurt. The yurt shall be located on the ground or on a wood floor with no permanent foundation. Upon request of a county governing body, the Commission may provide by rule for an increase in the number of yurts allowed on all or a portion of the campgrounds in a county if the Commission determines that the increase will comply with the standards described in ORS 215.296(1). The manufactured dwelling shall use the same subsurface sewage disposal system used by the existing dwelling, if that disposal system is adequate to accommodate the additional dwelling. If the manufactured dwelling will use a public sanitary sewer system, such condition will not be required. Within three months of the end of the hardship, the manufactured dwelling or recreational vehicle shall be removed or demolished or, in the case of an existing building, the building shall be removed, demolished or returned to an allowed nonresidential use. A temporary residence approved under this subsection is not eligible for replacement under subsection (3)(p) of this rule. (y) An outdoor mass gathering subject to review by a county planning commission under the provisions of ORS 433.763. These gatherings are those of more than 3,000 persons that continue or can reasonably be expected to continue for more than 120 hours within any three-month period and any part of which is held in open spaces.

(A) Areas within an urban growth boundary cannot reasonably accommodate the structures;

(B) The structures are located outside tsunami inundation zones and consistent with evacuation maps prepared by Department of Geology and Mineral Industries (DOGAMI) or the local jurisdiction;

(E) The structures are managed by a local government entity for the single purpose of providing for the temporary emergency support needs of the public; and

(F) Written notification has been provided to the County Office of Emergency Management of the application for the storage structures.

(5) A use authorized by section (4) of this rule may be allowed provided the following requirements or their equivalent are met. These requirements are designed to make the use compatible with forest operations and agriculture and to conserve values found on forest lands:

(a) The proposed use will not force a significant change in, or significantly increase the cost of, accepted farming or forest practices on agriculture or forest lands;

(b) The proposed use will not significantly increase fire hazard or significantly increase fire suppression costs or significantly increase risks to fire suppression personnel; and

(c) A written statement recorded with the deed or written contract with the county or its equivalent is obtained from the land owner that recognizes the rights of adjacent and nearby land owners to conduct forest operations consistent with the Forest Practices Act and Rules for uses authorized in subsections (4)(e), (m), (s), (t) and (w) of this rule.

(6) Nothing in this rule relieves governing bodies from complying with other requirement contained in the comprehensive plan or implementing ordinances such as the requirements addressing other resource values (e.g., Goal 5) that exist on forest lands.

New Land Division Requirements in Forest Zones

(1) Governing bodies shall legislatively amend their land division standards to incorporate one or more of the following parcel sizes. Under these provisions, a governing body may not determine minimum parcel sizes for forest land on a case-by-case basis:

(a) An 80-acre or larger minimum parcel size; or

(b) One or more numeric minimum parcel sizes less than 80 acres provided that each parcel size is large enough to ensure:

(A) The opportunity for economically efficient forest operations typically occurring in the area;

(B) The opportunity for the continuous growing and harvesting of forest tree species;

(C) The conservation of other values found on forest lands as described in Goal 4; and

(D) That parcel meets the requirements of ORS 527.630.

(2) New land divisions less than the parcel size in section (1) of this rule may be approved for any of the following circumstances:

(a) For the uses listed in OAR 660-006-0025(3)(m) through (o) and (4)(a) through (o) provided that such uses have been approved pursuant to OAR 660-060-0025(5) and the parcel created from the division is the minimum size necessary for the use.

(b) For the establishment of a parcel for a dwelling that has existed since before June 1, 1995, subject to the following requirements:

(A) The parcel established may not be larger than five acres, except as necessary to recognize physical factors such as roads or streams, in which case the parcel shall not be larger than 10 acres; and

(B) The parcel that does not contain the dwelling is not entitled to a dwelling unless subsequently authorized by law or goal and the parcel either:

(i) Meets the minimum land division standards of the zone; or

(ii) Is consolidated with another parcel, and together the parcels meet the minimum land division standards of the zone.

(c) To allow a division of forest land to facilitate a forest practice as defined in ORS 527.620 that results in a parcel that does not meet the minimum area requirements of subsection (1)(a) or (b). Approvals shall be based on findings that demonstrate that there are unique property specific characteristics present in the proposed parcel that require an amount of land smaller than the minimum area requirements of subsections (1)(a) or (b) of this rule in order to conduct the forest practice. Parcels created pursuant to this subsection:

(A) Are not eligible for siting of new dwelling;

(B) May not serve as the justification for the siting of a future dwelling on other lots or parcels;

(C) May not, as a result of the land division, be used to justify redesignation or rezoning of resource lands; and

(D) May not result in a parcel of less than 35 acres, unless the purpose of the land division is to:

(i) Facilitate an exchange of lands involving a governmental agency; or

(ii) Allow transactions in which at least one participant is a person with a cumulative ownership of at least 2,000 acres of forest land.

(d) To allow a division of a lot or parcel zoned for forest use if:

(A) At least two dwellings lawfully existed on the lot or parcel prior to November 4, 1993;

(B) Each dwelling complies with the criteria for a replacement dwelling under ORS 215.213(1) or 215.283(1);

(C) Except for one lot or parcel, each lot or parcel created under this paragraph is between two and five acres in size;

(D) At least one dwelling is located on each lot or parcel created under this paragraph; and

(E) The landowner of a lot or parcel created under this paragraph provides evidence that a restriction prohibiting the landowner and the landowner's successors in interest from further dividing the lot or parcel has been recorded with the county clerk of the county in which the lot or parcel is located. A restriction imposed under this paragraph shall be irrevocable unless a statement of release is signed by the county planning director of the county in which the lot or parcel is located indicating that the comprehensive plan or land use regulations applicable to the lot or parcel have been changed so that the lot or parcel is no longer subject to statewide planning goals protecting forestland or unless the land division is subsequently authorized by law or by a change in a statewide planning goal for land zoned for forest use.

(e) To allow a proposed division of land as provided in ORS 215.783.

(3) A county planning director shall maintain a record of lots and parcels that do not qualify for division under the restrictions imposed by OAR 660-006-0026(2)(d) and (4). The record shall be available to the public.

(4) A lot or parcel may not be divided under OAR 660-006-0026(2)(d) if an existing dwelling on the lot or parcel was approved under:

(a) A statute, an administrative rule or a land use regulation as defined in ORS 197.015 that required removal of the dwelling or that prohibited subsequent division of the lot or parcel; or

(b) A farm use zone provision that allowed both farm and forest uses in a mixed farm and forest use zone under statewide goal 4 (Forest Lands).

(5)(a) An applicant for the creation of a parcel pursuant to subsection (2)(b) of this rule shall provide evidence that a restriction on the remaining parcel, not containing the dwelling, has been recorded with the county clerk of the county where the property is located. The restriction shall allow no dwellings unless authorized by law or goal on land zoned for forest use except as permitted under section (2) of this rule.

(b) A restriction imposed under this subsection shall be irrevocable unless a statement of release is signed by the county planning director of the county where the property is located indicating that the comprehensive plan or land use regulations applicable to the property have been changed in such a manner that the parcel is no longer subject to statewide planning goals pertaining to agricultural land or forest land.

(c) The county planning director shall maintain a record of parcels that do not qualify for the siting of a new dwelling under restrictions imposed by this rule. The record shall be readily available to the public.

(6) A landowner allowed a land division under section (2) of this rule shall sign a statement that shall be recorded with the county clerk of the county in which the property is located, declaring that the landowner will not in the future complain about accepted farming or forest practices on nearby lands devoted to farm or forest use.

New Land Division Requirements in Agriculture/Forest Zones

(1) A governing body shall apply the standards of OAR 660-006-0026 and 660-033-0100 to determine the proper minimum lot or parcel size for a mixed agriculture/forest zone. These standards are designed: To make new land divisions compatible with forest operations; to maintain the opportunity for economically efficient forest and agriculture practices; and to conserve values found on forest lands.

(2) New land divisions less than the parcel size established according to the requirements in section (1) of this rule may be approved for any of the following circumstances:

(a) For the uses listed in OAR 660-006-0025(3)(m) through (o) and (4)(a) through (o) provided that such uses have been approved pursuant to OAR 660-060-0025(5) and the land division created is the minimum size necessary for the use.

(b) For the establishment of a parcel for a dwelling that has existed since before June 1, 1995, subject to the following requirements:

(A) The parcel established may not be larger than five acres, except as necessary to recognize physical factors such as roads or streams, in which case the parcel shall not be larger than 10 acres; and

(B) The parcel that does not contain the dwelling is not entitled to a dwelling unless subsequently authorized by law or goal and the parcel either:

(i) Meets the minimum land divisions standards of the zone; or

(ii) Is consolidated with another parcel, and together the parcels meet the minimum land division standards of the zone;

(C) The minimum tract eligible under subsection (b) of this section is 40 acres;

(D) The tract shall be predominantly in forest use and that portion in forest use qualified for special assessment under a program under ORS chapter 321; and

(E) The remainder of the tract does not qualify for any uses allowed under ORS 215.213 and 215.283 that are not allowed on forestland.

(c) To allow a division of forestland to facilitate a forest practice as defined in ORS 527.620 that results in a parcel that does not meet the minimum area requirements of section (1). Parcels created pursuant to this subsection:

(A) Are not eligible for siting of a new dwelling;

(B) May not serve as the justification for the siting of a future dwelling on other lots or parcels;

(C) May not, as a result of the land division, be used to justify redesignation or rezoning of resource land; and

(D) May not result in a parcel of less than 35 acres, unless the purpose of the land division is to:

(i) Facilitate an exchange of lands involving a governmental agency; or

(ii) Allow transactions in which at least one participant is a person with a cumulative ownership of at least 2,000 acres of forestland.

(d) To allow a division of a lot or parcel zoned for mixed farm and forest use if:

(A) At least two dwellings lawfully existed on the lot or parcel prior to November 4, 1993;

(B) Each dwelling complies with the criteria for a replacement dwelling under ORS 215.213(1) or 215.283(1);

(C) Except for one lot or parcel, each lot or parcel created under this section is between two and five acres in size;

(D) At least one dwelling is located on each lot or parcel created under this section; and

(E) The landowner of a lot or parcel created under this section provides evidence that a restriction prohibiting the landowner and the land owner's successors in interest from further dividing the lot or parcel has been recorded with the county clerk of the county in which the lot or parcel is located. A restriction imposed under this section shall be irrevocable unless a statement of release is signed by the county planning director of the county in which the lot or parcel is located indicating that the comprehensive plan or land use regulations applicable to the lot or parcel have been changed so that the lot or parcel is no longer subject to statewide goal 4 (Forest Lands) or unless the land division is subsequently authorized by law or by a change in statewide goal 4 (Forest Land);

(e) To allow a proposed division of land as provided in ORS 215.783.

(3) A county planning director shall maintain a record of lots and parcels that do not qualify for division under the restrictions imposed by OAR 660-006-0055(2)(d) and (4). The record shall be readily available to the public.

(4) A lot or parcel may not be divided under OAR 660-006-0055(2)(d) if an existing dwelling on the lot or parcel was approved under:

(a) A statute, an administrative rule or a land use regulation as defined in ORS 197.015 that required removal of the dwelling or that prohibited subsequent division of the lot or parcel; or

(b) A farm use zone provision that allowed both farm and forest uses in a mixed farm and forest use zone under statewide goal 4 (Forest Lands).

(5)(a) An applicant for the creation of a parcel pursuant to subsection (2)(b) of this rule shall provide evidence that a restriction on the remaining parcel, not containing the dwelling, has been recorded with the county clerk of the county where the property is located. The restriction shall allow no dwellings unless authorized by law or goal on land zoned for forest use except as permitted under section (2) of this rule.

(b) A restriction imposed under this section shall be irrevocable unless a statement of release is signed by the county planning director of the county where the property is located indicating that the comprehensive plan or land use regulations applicable to the property have been changed in such a manner that the parcel is no longer subject to statewide planning goals pertaining to agricultural land or forestland.

(c) The county planning director shall maintain a record of parcels that do not qualify for the siting of a new dwelling under restrictions imposed by this section. The record shall be readily available to the public.

(6) A landowner allowed a land division under section (2) of this rule shall sign a statement that shall be recorded with the county clerk of the county in which the property is located, declaring that the landowner and the landowner's successors in interest will not in the future complain about accepted farming or forest practices on nearby lands devoted to farm or forest use.

660-033-0030

Identifying Agricultural Land

(1) All land defined as "agricultural land" in OAR 660-033-0020(1) shall be inventoried as agricultural land.

(2) When a jurisdiction determines the predominant soil capability classification of a lot or parcel it need only look to the land within the lot or parcel being inventoried. However, whether land is "suitable for farm use" requires an inquiry into factors beyond the mere identification of scientific soil classifications. The factors are listed in the definition of agricultural land set forth at OAR 660-033-0020(1)(a)(B). This inquiry requires the consideration of conditions existing outside the lot or parcel being inventoried. Even if a lot or parcel is not predominantly Class I-IV soils or suitable for farm use, Goal 3 nonetheless defines as agricultural "Lands in other classes which are necessary to permit farm practices to be undertaken on adjacent or nearby lands." A determination that a lot or parcel is not agricultural land requires findings supported by substantial evidence that addresses each of the factors set forth in 660-033-0020(1).

(3) Goal 3 attaches no significance to the ownership of a lot or parcel when determining whether it is agricultural land. Nearby or adjacent land, regardless of ownership, shall be examined to the extent that a lot or parcel is either "suitable for farm use" or "necessary to permit farm practices to be undertaken on adjacent or nearby lands" outside the lot or parcel.

(4) When inventoried land satisfies the definition requirements of both agricultural land and forest land, an exception is not required to show why one resource designation is chosen over another. The plan need only document the factors that were used to select an agricultural, forest, agricultural/forest, or other appropriate designation.

(5)(a) More detailed data on soil capability than is contained in the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) soil maps and soil surveys may be used to define agricultural land. However, the more detailed soils data shall be related to the NRCS land capability classification system.

(b) If a person concludes that more detailed soils information than that contained in the Web Soil Survey operated by the NRCS as of January 2, 2012, would assist a county to make a better determination of whether land qualifies as agricultural land, the person must request that the department arrange for an assessment of the capability of the land by a professional soil classifier who is chosen by the person, using the process described in OAR 660-033-0045.

(c) This section and OAR 660-033-0045 apply to:

(A) A change to the designation of land planned and zoned for exclusive farm use, forest use or mixed farm-forest use to a non-resource plan designation and zone on the basis that such land is not agricultural land; and

(B) Excepting land use decisions under section (7) of this rule, any other proposed land use decision in which more detailed data is used to demonstrate that land planned and zoned for exclusive farm use does not meet the definition of agricultural land under OAR 660-033-0020(1)(a)(A).

(d) This section and OAR 660-033-0045 implement ORS 215.211, effective on October 1, 2011. After this date, only those soils assessments certified by the department under section (9) of this rule may be considered by local governments in land use proceedings described in subsection (c) of this section. However, a local government may consider soils assessments that have been completed and submitted prior to October 1, 2011.

(e) This section and OAR 660-033-0045 authorize a person to obtain additional information for use in the determination of whether land qualifies as agricultural land, but do not otherwise affect the process by which a county determines whether land qualifies as agricultural land as defined by Goal 3 and OAR 660-033-0020.

(6) Any county that adopted marginal lands provisions before January 1, 1993, may continue to designate lands as "marginal lands" according to those provisions and criteria in former ORS 197.247 (1991), as long as the county has not applied the provisions of ORS 215.705 to 215.750 to lands zoned for exclusive farm use.

(7)(a) For the purposes of approving a land use application on high-value farmland under ORS 215.705, the county may change the soil class, soil rating or other soil designation of a specific lot or parcel if the property owner:

(A) Submits a statement of agreement from the NRCS that the soil class, soil rating or other soil designation should be adjusted based on new information; or

(B) Submits a report from a soils scientist whose credentials are acceptable to the Oregon Department of Agriculture that the soil class, soil rating or other soil designation should be changed; and

(C) Submits a statement from the Oregon Department of Agriculture that the Director of Agriculture or the director's designee has reviewed the report described in paragraph (a)(B) of this section and finds the analysis in the report to be soundly and scientifically based.

(b) Soil classes, soil ratings or other soil designations used in or made pursuant to this section are those of the NRCS Web Soil Survey for that class, rating or designation before November 4, 1993, except for changes made pursuant to subsection (a) of this section.

(8) For the purposes of approving a land use application on high-value farmland under OAR 660-033-0090, 660-033-0120, 660-033-0130 and 660-033-0135, soil classes, soil ratings or other soil designations used in or made pursuant to this definition are those of the NRCS Web Soil Survey as of January 2, 2012 for that class, rating or designation.

Uses Authorized on Agricultural Lands

The specific development and uses listed in the following table are allowed or may be allowed in the areas that qualify for the designation pursuant to this division. All uses are subject to the general provisions, special conditions, additional restrictions and exceptions set forth in this division. The abbreviations used within the schedule shall have the following meanings:

(1) A — Use is allowed. Authorization of some uses may require notice and the opportunity for a hearing because the authorization qualifies as a land use decision pursuant to ORS chapter 197. Minimum standards for uses in the table that include a numerical reference are specified in OAR 660-033-0130. Counties may prescribe additional limitations and requirements to meet local concerns only to the extent authorized by law.

(2) R — Use may be allowed, after required review. The use requires notice and the opportunity for a hearing. Minimum standards for uses in the table that include a numerical reference are specified in OAR 660-033-0130. Counties may prescribe additional limitations and requirements to meet local concerns.

(3) * — Use not allowed.

(4) # — Numerical references for specific uses shown on the chart refer to the corresponding section of OAR 660-033-0130. Where no numerical reference is noted for a use on the chart, this rule does not establish criteria for the use.

660-033-0130

Minimum Standards Applicable to the Schedule of Permitted and Conditional Uses

The following standards apply to uses listed in OAR 660-033-0120 where the corresponding section number is shown on the chart for a specific use under consideration. Where no numerical reference is indicated on the chart, this division does not specify any minimum review or approval criteria. Counties may include procedures and conditions in addition to those listed in the chart as authorized by law:

(1) A dwelling on farmland may be considered customarily provided in conjunction with farm use if it meets the requirements of OAR 660-033-0135.

(2)(a) No enclosed structure with a design capacity greater than 100 people, or group of structures with a total design capacity of greater than 100 people, shall be approved in connection with the use within three miles of an urban growth boundary, unless an exception is approved pursuant to ORS 197.732 and OAR chapter 660, division 4, or unless the structure is described in a master plan adopted under the provisions of OAR chapter 660, division 34.

(b) Any enclosed structures or group of enclosed structures described in subsection (a) within a tract must be separated by at least one-half mile. For purposes of this section, "tract" means a tract as defined by ORS 215.010(2) that is in existence as of June 17, 2010.

(c) Existing facilities wholly within a farm use zone may be maintained, enhanced or expanded on the same tract, subject to other requirements of law, but enclosed existing structures within a farm use zone within three miles of an urban growth boundary may not be expanded beyond the requirements of this rule.

(3)(a) A dwelling may be approved on a pre-existing lot or parcel if:

(A) The lot or parcel on which the dwelling will be sited was lawfully created and was acquired and owned continuously by the present owner as defined in subsection (3)(g) of this rule:

(i) Since prior to January 1, 1985; or

(ii) By devise or by intestate succession from a person who acquired and had owned continuously the lot or parcel since prior to January 1, 1985.

(B) The tract on which the dwelling will be sited does not include a dwelling;

(C) The lot or parcel on which the dwelling will be sited was part of a tract on November 4, 1993, no dwelling exists on another lot or parcel that was part of that tract;

(D) The proposed dwelling is not prohibited by, and will comply with, the requirements of the acknowledged comprehensive plan and land use regulations and other provisions of law;

(E) The lot or parcel on which the dwelling will be sited is not high-value farmland except as provided in subsections (3)(c) and (d) of this rule; and

(F) When the lot or parcel on which the dwelling will be sited lies within an area designated in an acknowledged comprehensive plan as habitat of big game, the siting of the dwelling is consistent with the limitations on density upon which the acknowledged comprehensive plan and land use regulations intended to protect the habitat are based.

(b) When the lot or parcel on which the dwelling will be sited is part of a tract, the remaining portions of the tract are consolidated into a single lot or parcel when the dwelling is allowed;

(c) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (3)(a)(E) of this rule, a single-family dwelling may be sited on high-value farmland if:

(A) It meets the other requirements of subsections (3)(a) and (b) of this rule;

(B) The lot or parcel is protected as high-value farmland as defined in OAR 660-033-0020(8)(a);

(C) A hearings officer of a county determines that:

(i) The lot or parcel cannot practicably be managed for farm use, by itself or in conjunction with other land, due to extraordinary circumstances inherent in the land or its physical setting that do not apply generally to other land in the vicinity. For the purposes of this section, this criterion asks whether the subject lot or parcel can be physically put to farm use without undue hardship or difficulty because of extraordinary circumstances inherent in the land or its physical setting. Neither size alone nor a parcel's limited economic potential demonstrates that a lot of parcel cannot be practicably managed for farm use. Examples of "extraordinary circumstances inherent in the land or its physical setting" include very steep slopes, deep ravines, rivers, streams, roads, railroad or utility lines or other similar natural or physical barriers that by themselves or in combination separate the subject lot or parcel from adjacent agricultural land and prevent it from being practicably managed for farm use by itself or together with adjacent or nearby farms. A lot or parcel that has been put to farm use despite the proximity of a natural barrier or since the placement of a physical barrier shall be presumed manageable for farm use;

(ii) The dwelling will comply with the provisions of ORS 215.296(1); and

(iii) The dwelling will not materially alter the stability of the overall land use pattern in the area by applying the standards set forth in paragraph (4)(a)(D) of this rule; and

(D) A local government shall provide notice of all applications for dwellings allowed under subsection (3)(c) of this rule to the Oregon Department of Agriculture. Notice shall be provided in accordance with the governing body's land use regulations but shall be mailed at least 20 calendar days prior to the public hearing before the hearings officer under paragraph (3)(c)(C) of this rule.

(d) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (3)(a)(E) of this rule, a single-family dwelling may be sited on high-value farmland if:

(A) It meets the other requirements of subsections (3)(a) and (b) of this rule;

(B) The tract on which the dwelling will be sited is:

(i) Identified in OAR 660-033-0020(8)(c) or (d);

(ii) Not high-value farmland defined in OAR 660-033-0020(8)(a); and

(iii) Twenty-one acres or less in size; and

(C) The tract is bordered on at least 67 percent of its perimeter by tracts that are smaller than 21 acres, and at least two such tracts had dwellings on January 1, 1993; or

(D) The tract is not a flaglot and is bordered on at least 25 percent of its perimeter by tracts that are smaller than 21 acres, and at least four dwellings existed on January 1, 1993, within one-quarter mile of the center of the subject tract. Up to two of the four dwellings may lie within an urban growth boundary, but only if the subject tract abuts an urban growth boundary; or

(E) The tract is a flaglot and is bordered on at least 25 percent of its perimeter by tracts that are smaller than 21 acres, and at least four dwellings existed on January 1, 1993, within one-quarter mile of the center of the subject tract and on the same side of the public road that provides access to the subject tract. The governing body of a county must interpret the center of the subject tract as the geographic center of the flaglot if the applicant makes a written request for that interpretation and that interpretation does not cause the center to be located outside the flaglot. Up to two of the four dwellings may lie within an urban growth boundary, but only if the subject tract abuts an urban growth boundary:

(i) "flaglot" means a tract containing a narrow strip or panhandle of land providing access from the public road to the rest of the tract.

(ii) "Geographic center of the flaglot" means the point of intersection of two perpendicular lines of which the first line crosses the midpoint of the longest side of a flaglot, at a 90-degree angle to the side, and the second line crosses the midpoint of the longest adjacent side of the flaglot.

(e) If land is in a zone that allows both farm and forest uses, is acknowledged to be in compliance with both Goals 3 and 4 and may qualify as an exclusive farm use zone under ORS chapter 215, a county may apply the standards for siting a dwelling under either section (3) of this rule or OAR 660-006-0027, as appropriate for the predominant use of the tract on January 1, 1993;

(f) A county may, by application of criteria adopted by ordinance, deny approval of a dwelling allowed under section (3) of this rule in any area where the county determines that approval of the dwelling would:

(A) Exceed the facilities and service capabilities of the area;

(B) Materially alter the stability of the overall land use pattern of the area; or

(C) Create conditions or circumstances that the county determines would be contrary to the purposes or intent of its acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations.

(g) For purposes of subsection (3)(a) of this rule, "owner" includes the wife, husband, son, daughter, mother, father, brother, brother-in-law, sister, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, stepparent, stepchild, grandparent or grandchild of the owner or a business entity owned by any one or a combination of these family members;

(h) The county assessor shall be notified that the governing body intends to allow the dwelling.

(i) When a local government approves an application for a single-family dwelling under section (3) of this rule, the application may be transferred by a person who has qualified under section (3) of this rule to any other person after the effective date of the land use decision.

(4) A single-family residential dwelling not provided in conjunction with farm use requires approval of the governing body or its designate in any farmland area zoned for exclusive farm use:

(a) In the Willamette Valley, the use may be approved if:

(A) The dwelling or activities associated with the dwelling will not force a significant change in or significantly increase the cost of accepted farming or forest practices on nearby lands devoted to farm or forest use;

(B) The dwelling will be sited on a lot or parcel that is predominantly composed of Class IV through VIII soils that would not, when irrigated, be classified as prime, unique, Class I or II soils;

(C) The dwelling will be sited on a lot or parcel created before January 1, 1993;

(D) The dwelling will not materially alter the stability of the overall land use pattern of the area. In determining whether a proposed nonfarm dwelling will alter the stability of the land use pattern in the area, a county shall consider the cumulative impact of possible new nonfarm dwellings and parcels on other lots or parcels in the area similarly situated. To address this standard, the county shall:

(i) Identify a study area for the cumulative impacts analysis. The study area shall include at least 2000 acres or a smaller area not less than 1000 acres, if the smaller area is a distinct agricultural area based on topography, soil types, land use pattern, or the type of farm or ranch operations or practices that distinguish it from other, adjacent agricultural areas. Findings shall describe the study area, its boundaries, the location of the subject parcel within this area, why the selected area is representative of the land use pattern surrounding the subject parcel and is adequate to conduct the analysis required by this standard. Lands zoned for rural residential or other urban or nonresource uses shall not be included in the study area;

(ii) Identify within the study area the broad types of farm uses (irrigated or nonirrigated crops, pasture or grazing lands), the number, location and type of existing dwellings (farm, nonfarm, hardship, etc.), and the dwelling development trends since 1993. Determine the potential number of nonfarm/lot-of-record dwellings that could be approved under subsection(3)(a) and section (4) of this rule, including identification of predominant soil classifications, the parcels created prior to January 1, 1993 and the parcels larger than the minimum lot size that may be divided to create new parcels for nonfarm dwellings under ORS 215.263(4). The findings shall describe the existing land use pattern of the study area including the distribution and arrangement of existing uses and the land use pattern that could result from approval of the possible nonfarm dwellings under this subparagraph; and

(iii) Determine whether approval of the proposed nonfarm/lot-of-record dwellings together with existing nonfarm dwellings will materially alter the stability of the land use pattern in the area. The stability of the land use pattern will be materially altered if the cumulative effect of existing and potential nonfarm dwellings will make it more difficult for the existing types of farms in the area to continue operation due to diminished opportunities to expand, purchase or lease farmland, acquire water rights or diminish the number of tracts or acreage in farm use in a manner that will destabilize the overall character of the study area; and

(E) The dwelling complies with such other conditions as the governing body or its designate considers necessary.

(b) In the Willamette Valley, on a lot or parcel allowed under OAR 660-033-0100(7), the use may be approved if:

(A) The dwelling or activities associated with the dwelling will not force a significant change in or significantly increase the cost of accepted farming or forest practices on nearby lands devoted to farm or forest use;

(B) The dwelling will not materially alter the stability of the overall land use pattern of the area. In determining whether a proposed nonfarm dwelling will alter the stability of the land use pattern in the area, a county shall consider the cumulative impact of nonfarm dwellings on other lots or parcels in the area similarly situated and whether creation of the parcel will lead to creation of other nonfarm parcels, to the detriment of agriculture in the area by applying the standards set forth in paragraph (4)(a)(D) of this rule; and

(C) The dwelling complies with such other conditions as the governing body or its designate considers necessary.

(c) In counties located outside the Willamette Valley require findings that:

(A) The dwelling or activities associated with the dwelling will not force a significant change in or significantly increase the cost of accepted farming or forest practices on nearby lands devoted to farm or forest use;

(B)(i) The dwelling is situated upon a lot or parcel, or a portion of a lot or parcel, that is generally unsuitable land for the production of farm crops and livestock or merchantable tree species, considering the terrain, adverse soil or land conditions, drainage and flooding, vegetation, location and size of the tract. A lot or parcel or portion of a lot or parcel shall not be considered unsuitable solely because of size or location if it can reasonably be put to farm or forest use in conjunction with other land; and

(ii) A lot or parcel or portion of a lot or parcel is not "generally unsuitable" simply because it is too small to be farmed profitably by itself. If a lot or parcel or portion of a lot or parcel can be sold, leased, rented or otherwise managed as a part of a commercial farm or ranch, then the lot or parcel or portion of the lot or parcel is not "generally unsuitable". A lot or parcel or portion of a lot or parcel is presumed to be suitable if, in Western Oregon it is composed predominantly of Class I-IV soils or, in Eastern Oregon, it is composed predominantly of Class I-VI soils. Just because a lot or parcel or portion of a lot or parcel is unsuitable for one farm use does not mean it is not suitable for another farm use; or

(iii) If the parcel is under forest assessment, the dwelling shall be situated upon generally unsuitable land for the production of merchantable tree species recognized by the Forest Practices Rules, considering the terrain, adverse soil or land conditions, drainage and flooding, vegetation, location and size of the parcel. If a lot or parcel is under forest assessment, the area is not "generally unsuitable" simply because it is too small to be managed for forest production profitably by itself. If a lot or parcel under forest assessment can be sold, leased, rented or otherwise managed as a part of a forestry operation, it is not "generally unsuitable". If a lot or parcel is under forest assessment, it is presumed suitable if, in Western Oregon, it is composed predominantly of soils capable of producing 50 cubic feet of wood fiber per acre per year, or in Eastern Oregon it is composed predominantly of soils capable of producing 20 cubic feet of wood fiber per acre per year. If a lot or parcel is under forest assessment, to be found compatible and not seriously interfere with forest uses on surrounding land it must not force a significant change in forest practices or significantly increase the cost of those practices on the surrounding land;

(C) The dwelling will not materially alter the stability of the overall land use pattern of the area. In determining whether a proposed nonfarm dwelling will alter the stability of the land use pattern in the area, a county shall consider the cumulative impact of nonfarm dwellings on other lots or parcels in the area similarly situated by applying the standards set forth in paragraph (4)(a)(D) of this rule. If the application involves the creation of a new parcel for the nonfarm dwelling, a county shall consider whether creation of the parcel will lead to creation of other nonfarm parcels, to the detriment of agriculture in the area by applying the standards set forth in paragraph (4)(a)(D) of this rule; and

(D) The dwelling complies with such other conditions as the governing body or its designate considers necessary.

(d) If a single-family dwelling is established on a lot or parcel as set forth in section (3) of this rule or OAR 660-006-0027, no additional dwelling may later be sited under the provisions of section (4) of this rule;

(e) Counties that have adopted marginal lands provisions before January 1, 1993, shall apply the standards in ORS 215.213(3) through 215.213(8) for nonfarm dwellings on lands zoned exclusive farm use that are not designated marginal or high-value farmland.

(5) Approval requires review by the governing body or its designate under ORS 215.296. Uses may be approved only where such uses:

(a) Will not force a significant change in accepted farm or forest practices on surrounding lands devoted to farm or forest use; and

(b) Will not significantly increase the cost of accepted farm or forest practices on surrounding lands devoted to farm or forest use.

(6) A facility for the primary processing of forest products shall not seriously interfere with accepted farming practices and shall be compatible with farm uses described in ORS 215.203(2). Such facility may be approved for a one-year period that is renewable and is intended to be only portable or temporary in nature. The primary processing of a forest product, as used in this section, means the use of a portable chipper or stud mill or other similar methods of initial treatment of a forest product in order to enable its shipment to market. Forest products as used in this section means timber grown upon a tract where the primary processing facility is located.

(7) A personal-use airport as used in this section means an airstrip restricted, except for aircraft emergencies, to use by the owner, and, on an infrequent and occasional basis, by invited guests, and by commercial aviation activities in connection with agricultural operations. No aircraft may be based on a personal-use airport other than those owned or controlled by the owner of the airstrip. Exceptions to the activities allowed under this definition may be granted through waiver action by the Oregon Department of Aviation in specific instances. A personal-use airport lawfully existing as of September 13, 1975, shall continue to be allowed subject to any applicable rules of the Oregon Department of Aviation.

(8)(a) A lawfully established dwelling may be altered, restored or replaced under ORS 215.213(1)(q) or 215.283(1)(p) if, when an application for a permit is submitted, the permitting authority finds to its satisfaction, based on substantial evidence that:

(A) The dwelling to be altered, restored or replaced has, or formerly had:

(i) Intact exterior walls and roof structure;

(ii) Indoor plumbing consisting of a kitchen sink, toilet and bathing facilities connected to a sanitary waste disposal system;

(iii) Interior wiring for interior lights; and

(iv) A heating system; and

(B) The dwelling was assessed as a dwelling for purposes of ad valorem taxation for the previous five property tax years, or, if the dwelling has existed for less than five years, from that time; and

(C) Notwithstanding paragraph (B), if the value of the dwelling was eliminated as a result of either of the following circumstances, the dwelling was assessed as a dwelling until such time as the value of the dwelling was eliminated:

(i) The destruction (i.e by fire or natural hazard), or demolition in the case of restoration, of the dwelling; or

(ii) The applicant establishes to the satisfaction of the permitting authority that the dwelling was improperly removed from the tax roll by a person other than the current owner. "Improperly removed" means that the dwelling has taxable value in its present state, or had taxable value when the dwelling was first removed from the tax roll or was destroyed by fire or natural hazard, and the county stopped assessing the dwelling even though the current or former owner did not request removal of the dwelling from the tax roll.

(b) For replacement of a lawfully established dwelling under ORS 215.213(1)(q) or 215.283(1)(p):

(A) The dwelling to be replaced must be removed, demolished or converted to an allowable nonresidential use:

(i) Within one year after the date the replacement dwelling is certified for occupancy pursuant to ORS 455.055; or

(ii) If the dwelling to be replaced is, in the discretion of the permitting authority, in such a state of disrepair that the structure is unsafe for occupancy or constitutes an attractive nuisance, on or before a date set by the permitting authority that is not less than 90 days after the replacement permit is issued; and

(iii) If a dwelling is removed by moving it off the subject parcel to another location, the applicant must obtain approval from the permitting authority for the new location.

(B) The applicant must cause to be recorded in the deed records of the county a statement that the dwelling to be replaced has been removed, demolished or converted.

(C) As a condition of approval, if the dwelling to be replaced is located on a portion of the lot or parcel that is not zoned for exclusive farm use, the applicant shall execute and cause to be recorded in the deed records of the county in which the property is located a deed restriction prohibiting the siting of another dwelling on that portion of the lot or parcel. The restriction imposed is irrevocable unless the county planning director, or the director's designee, places a statement of release in the deed records of the county to the effect that the provisions of 2013 Oregon Laws, chapter 462, section 2 and either ORS 215.213 or 215.283 regarding replacement dwellings have changed to allow the lawful siting of another dwelling.

(D) The county planning director, or the director's designee, shall maintain a record of:

(i) The lots and parcels for which dwellings to be replaced have been removed, demolished or converted; and

(ii) The lots and parcels that do not qualify for the siting of a new dwelling under subsection (b) of this section, including a copy of the deed restrictions filed under paragraph (B) of this subsection.

(c) A replacement dwelling under ORS 215.213(1)(q) or 215.283(1)(p) must comply with applicable building codes, plumbing codes, sanitation codes and other requirements relating to health and safety or to siting at the time of construction. However, the standards may not be applied in a manner that prohibits the siting of the replacement dwelling.

(A) The siting standards of paragraph (B) of this subsection apply when a dwelling under ORS 215.213(1)(q) or 215.213(1)(p) qualifies for replacement because the dwelling:

(i) Formerly had the features described in paragraph (a)(A) of this section;

(ii) Was removed from the tax roll as described in paragraph (C) of subsection (a); or

(iii) Had a permit that expired as described under paragraph (d)(C) of this section.

(B) The replacement dwelling must be sited on the same lot or parcel:

(i) Using all or part of the footprint of the replaced dwelling or near a road, ditch, river, property line, forest boundary or another natural boundary of the lot or parcel; and

(ii) If possible, for the purpose of minimizing the adverse impacts on resource use of land in the area, within a concentration or cluster of structures or within 500 yards of another structure.

(C) Replacement dwellings that currently have the features described in paragraph (a)(A) of this subsection and that have been on the tax roll as described in paragraph (B) of subsection (a) may be sited on any part of the same lot or parcel.

(d) A replacement dwelling permit that is issued under ORS 215.213(1)(q) or 215.283(1)(p):

(A) Is a land use decision as defined in ORS 197.015 where the dwelling to be replaced:

(i) Formerly had the features described in paragraph (a)(A) of this section; or

(ii) Was removed from the tax roll as described in paragraph (a)(C) of this section;

(B) Is not subject to the time to act limits of ORS 215.417; and

(C) If expired before January 1, 2014, shall be deemed to be valid and effective if, before January 1, 2015, the holder of the permit:

(i) Removes, demolishes or converts to an allowable nonresidential use the dwelling to be replaced; and

(ii) Causes to be recorded in the deed records of the county a statement that the dwelling to be replaced has been removed, demolished or converted.

(9)(a) To qualify for a relative farm help dwelling, a dwelling shall be occupied by relatives whose assistance in the management and farm use of the existing commercial farming operation is required by the farm operator. The farm operator shall continue to play the predominant role in the management and farm use of the farm. A farm operator is a person who operates a farm, doing the work and making the day-to-day decisions about such things as planting, harvesting, feeding and marketing.

(b) Notwithstanding ORS 92.010 to 92.192 or the minimum lot or parcel requirements under 215.780, if the owner of a dwelling described in this section obtains construction financing or other financing secured by the dwelling and the secured party forecloses on the dwelling, the secured party may also foreclose on the "homesite," as defined in 308A.250, and the foreclosure shall operate as a partition of the homesite to create a new parcel. Prior conditions of approval for the subject land and dwelling remain in effect.

(c) For the purpose of subsection(b), "foreclosure" means only those foreclosures that are exempt from partition under ORS 92.010(9)(a).

(10) A manufactured dwelling, or recreational vehicle, or the temporary residential use of an existing building allowed under this provision is a temporary use for the term of the hardship suffered by the existing resident or relative as defined in ORS Chapter 215. The manufactured dwelling shall use the same subsurface sewage disposal system used by the existing dwelling, if that disposal system is adequate to accommodate the additional dwelling. If the manufactured home will use a public sanitary sewer system, such condition will not be required. Governing bodies shall review the permit authorizing such manufactured homes every two years. Within three months of the end of the hardship, the manufactured dwelling or recreational vehicle shall be removed or demolished or, in the case of an existing building, the building shall be removed, demolished or returned to an allowed nonresidential use. A temporary residence approved under this section is not eligible for replacement under 215.213(1)(q) or 215.283(1)(p). Department of Environmental Quality review and removal requirements also apply. As used in this section "hardship" means a medical hardship or hardship for the care of an aged or infirm person or persons.

(11) Subject to the issuance of a license, permit or other approval by the Department of Environmental Quality under ORS 454.695, 459.205, 468B.050, 468B.053 or 468B.055, or in compliance with rules adopted under 468B.095, and with the requirements of 215.246, 215.247, 215.249 and 215.251, the land application of reclaimed water, agricultural process or industrial process water or biosolids for agricultural, horticultural or silvicultural production, or for irrigation in connection with a use allowed in an exclusive farm use zones under this division is allowed.

(12) In order to meet the requirements specified in the statute, a historic dwelling shall be listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

(13) Roads, highways and other transportation facilities, and improvements not otherwise allowed under this rule may be established, subject to the adoption of the governing body or its designate of an exception to Goal 3, Agricultural Lands, and to any other applicable goal with which the facility or improvement does not comply. In addition, transportation uses and improvements may be authorized under conditions and standards as set forth in OAR 660-012-0035 and 660-012-0065.

(14) Home occupations and the parking of vehicles may be authorized. Home occupations shall be operated substantially in the dwelling or other buildings normally associated with uses permitted in the zone in which the property is located. A home occupation shall be operated by a resident or employee of a resident of the property on which the business is located, and shall employ on the site no more than five full-time or part-time persons.

(15) New uses that batch and blend mineral and aggregate into asphalt cement may not be authorized within two miles of a planted vineyard. Planted vineyard means one or more vineyards totaling 40 acres or more that are planted as of the date the application for batching and blending is filed.

(16)(a) A utility facility established under ORS 215.213(1)(c) or 215.283(1)(c) is necessary for public service if the facility must be sited in an exclusive farm use zone in order to provide the service. To demonstrate that a utility facility is necessary, an applicant must:

(A) Show that reasonable alternatives have been considered and that the facility must be sited in an exclusive farm use zone due to one or more of the following factors:

(i) Technical and engineering feasibility;

(ii) The proposed facility is locationally-dependent. A utility facility is locationally-dependent if it must cross land in one or more areas zoned for exclusive farm use in order to achieve a reasonably direct route or to meet unique geographical needs that cannot be satisfied on other lands;

(iii) Lack of available urban and nonresource lands;

(iv) Availability of existing rights of way;

(v) Public health and safety; and

(vi) Other requirements of state and federal agencies.

(B) Costs associated with any of the factors listed in paragraph (A) of this subsection may be considered, but cost alone may not be the only consideration in determining that a utility facility is necessary for public service. Land costs shall not be included when considering alternative locations for substantially similar utility facilities and the siting of utility facilities that are not substantially similar.

(C) The owner of a utility facility approved under this section shall be responsible for restoring, as nearly as possible, to its former condition any agricultural land and associated improvements that are damaged or otherwise disturbed by the siting, maintenance, repair or reconstruction of the facility. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the owner of the utility facility from requiring a bond or other security from a contractor or otherwise imposing on a contractor the responsibility for restoration.

(D) The governing body of the county or its designee shall impose clear and objective conditions on an application for utility facility siting to mitigate and minimize the impacts of the proposed facility, if any, on surrounding lands devoted to farm use in order to prevent a significant change in accepted farm practices or a significant increase in the cost of farm practices on surrounding farmlands.

(E) Utility facilities necessary for public service may include on-site and off-site facilities for temporary workforce housing for workers constructing a utility facility. Such facilities must be removed or converted to an allowed use under OAR 660-033-0130(19) or other statute or rule when project construction is complete. Off-site facilities allowed under this paragraph are subject to 660-033-0130(5). Temporary workforce housing facilities not included in the initial approval may be considered through a minor amendment request. A minor amendment request shall have no effect on the original approval.

(F) In addition to the provisions of paragraphs (A) to (D) of this subsection, the establishment or extension of a sewer system as defined by OAR 660-011-0060(1)(f) in an exclusive farm use zone shall be subject to the provisions of 660-011-0060.

(G) The provisions of paragraphs (A) to (D) of this subsection do not apply to interstate natural gas pipelines and associated facilities authorized by and subject to regulation by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

(b) An associated transmission line is necessary for public service and shall be approved by the governing body of a county or its designee if an applicant for approval under ORS 215.213(1)(c) or 215.283(1)(c) demonstrates to the governing body of a county or its designee that the associated transmission line meets either the requirements of paragraph (A) of this subsection or the requirements of paragraph (B) of this subsection.

(A) An applicant demonstrates that the entire route of the associated transmission line meets at least one of the following requirements:

(i) The associated transmission line is not located on high-value farmland, as defined in ORS 195.300, or on arable land;

(ii) The associated transmission line is co-located with an existing transmission line;

(iii) The associated transmission line parallels an existing transmission line corridor with the minimum separation necessary for safety; or

(iv) The associated transmission line is located within an existing right of way for a linear facility, such as a transmission line, road or railroad, that is located above the surface of the ground.

(B) After an evaluation of reasonable alternatives, an applicant demonstrates that the entire route of the associated transmission line meets, subject to paragraphs (C) and (D) of this subsection, two or more of the following criteria:

(i) Technical and engineering feasibility;

(ii) The associated transmission line is locationally-dependent because the associated transmission line must cross high-value farmland, as defined in ORS 195.300, or arable land to achieve a reasonably direct route or to meet unique geographical needs that cannot be satisfied on other lands;

(iii) Lack of an available existing right of way for a linear facility, such as a transmission line, road or railroad, that is located above the surface of the ground;

(iv) Public health and safety; or

(v) Other requirements of state or federal agencies.

(C) As pertains to paragraph (B), the applicant shall present findings to the governing body of the county or its designee on how the applicant will mitigate and minimize the impacts, if any, of the associated transmission line on surrounding lands devoted to farm use in order to prevent a significant change in accepted farm pratices or a significant increase in the cost of farm practices on the surrounding farmland.

(D) The governing body of a county or its designee may consider costs associated with any of the factors listed in paragraph (B) of this subsection, but consideration of cost may not be the only consideration in determining whether the associated transmission line is necessary for public service.

(17) A power generation facility may include on-site and off-site facilities for temporary workforce housing for workers constructing a power generation facility. Such facilities must be removed or converted to an allowed use under OAR 660-033-0130(19) or other statute or rule when project construction is complete. Temporary workforce housing facilities not included in the initial approval may be considered through a minor amendment request. A minor amendment request shall be subject to 660-033-0130(5) and shall have no effect on the original approval. Permanent features of a power generation facility shall not preclude more than 12 acres from use as a commercial agricultural enterprise unless an exception is taken pursuant to ORS 197.732 and OAR chapter 660, division 4.

(18)(a) Existing facilities wholly within a farm use zone may be maintained, enhanced or expanded on the same tract, subject to other requirements of law. An existing golf course may be expanded consistent with the requirements of sections (5) and (20) of this rule, but shall not be expanded to contain more than 36 total holes.

(b) In addition to and not in lieu of the authority in ORS 215.130 to continue, alter, restore or replace a use that has been disallowed by the enactment or amendment of a zoning ordinance or regulation, a use formerly allowed pursuant to 215.213(1)(a) or 215.283(1)(a), as in effect before January 1, 2010, the effective date of 2009 Oregon Laws, chapter 850, section 14, may be expanded subject to:

(A) The requirements of subsection (c) of this section; and

(B) Conditional approval of the county in the manner provided in ORS 215.296.

(c) A nonconforming use described in subsection (b) of this section may be expanded under this section if:

(A) The use was established on or before January 1, 2009; and

(B) The expansion occurs on:

(i) The tax lot on which the use was established on or before January 1, 2009; or

(ii) A tax lot that is contiguous to the tax lot described in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph and that was owned by the applicant on January 1, 2009.

(19)(a) Except on a lot or parcel contiguous to a lake or reservoir, private campgrounds shall not be allowed within three miles of an urban growth boundary unless an exception is approved pursuant to ORS 197.732 and OAR chapter 660, division 4. A campground is an area devoted to overnight temporary use for vacation, recreational or emergency purposes, but not for residential purposes and is established on a site or is contiguous to lands with a park or other outdoor natural amenity that is accessible for recreational use by the occupants of the campground. A campground shall be designed and integrated into the rural agricultural and forest environment in a manner that protects the natural amenities of the site and provides buffers of existing native trees and vegetation or other natural features between campsites. Campgrounds authorized by this rule shall not include intensively developed recreational uses such as swimming pools, tennis courts, retail stores or gas stations. Overnight temporary use in the same campground by a camper or camper's vehicle shall not exceed a total of 30 days during any consecutive six-month period.

(b) Campsites may be occupied by a tent, travel trailer, yurt or recreational vehicle. Separate sewer, water or electric service hook-ups shall not be provided to individual camp sites except that electrical service may be provided to yurts allowed for by subsection (19)(c) of this rule.

(c) Subject to the approval of the county governing body or its designee, a private campground may provide yurts for overnight camping. No more than one-third or a maximum of 10 campsites, whichever is smaller, may include a yurt. The yurt shall be located on the ground or on a wood floor with no permanent foundation. Upon request of a county governing body, the commission may provide by rule for an increase in the number of yurts allowed on all or a portion of the campgrounds in a county if the commission determines that the increase will comply with the standards described in ORS 215.296(1). As used in this section, "yurt" means a round, domed shelter of cloth or canvas on a collapsible frame with no plumbing, sewage disposal hook-up or internal cooking appliance.

(20) "Golf Course" means an area of land with highly maintained natural turf laid out for the game of golf with a series of nine or more holes, each including a tee, a fairway, a putting green, and often one or more natural or artificial hazards. A "golf course" for purposes of ORS 215.213(2)(f), 215.283(2)(f), and this division means a nine or 18 hole regulation golf course or a combination nine and 18 hole regulation golf course consistent with the following:

(a) A regulation 18 hole golf course is generally characterized by a site of about 120 to 150 acres of land, has a playable distance of 5,000 to 7,200 yards, and a par of 64 to 73 strokes;

(b) A regulation nine hole golf course is generally characterized by a site of about 65 to 90 acres of land, has a playable distance of 2,500 to 3,600 yards, and a par of 32 to 36 strokes;

(c) Non-regulation golf courses are not allowed uses within these areas. "Non-regulation golf course" means a golf course or golf course-like development that does not meet the definition of golf course in this rule, including but not limited to executive golf courses, Par three golf courses, pitch and putt golf courses, miniature golf courses and driving ranges;

(d) Counties shall limit accessory uses provided as part of a golf course consistent with the following standards:

(A) An accessory use to a golf course is a facility or improvement that is incidental to the operation of the golf course and is either necessary for the operation and maintenance of the golf course or that provides goods or services customarily provided to golfers at a golf course. An accessory use or activity does not serve the needs of the non-golfing public. Accessory uses to a golf course may include: Parking; maintenance buildings; cart storage and repair; practice range or driving range; clubhouse; restrooms; lockers and showers; food and beverage service; pro shop; a practice or beginners course as part of an 18 hole or larger golf course; or golf tournament. Accessory uses to a golf course do not include: Sporting facilities unrelated to golfing such as tennis courts, swimming pools, and weight rooms; wholesale or retail operations oriented to the non-golfing public; or housing;

(B) Accessory uses shall be limited in size and orientation on the site to serve the needs of persons and their guests who patronize the golf course to golf. An accessory use that provides commercial services (e.g., pro shop, etc.) shall be located in the clubhouse rather than in separate buildings; and

(C) Accessory uses may include one or more food and beverage service facilities in addition to food and beverage service facilities located in a clubhouse. Food and beverage service facilities must be part of and incidental to the operation of the golf course and must be limited in size and orientation on the site to serve only the needs of persons who patronize the golf course and their guests. Accessory food and beverage service facilities shall not be designed for or include structures for banquets, public gatherings or public entertainment.

(21) "Living History Museum" means a facility designed to depict and interpret everyday life and culture of some specific historic period using authentic buildings, tools, equipment and people to simulate past activities and events. As used in this rule, a living history museum shall be related to resource based activities and shall be owned and operated by a governmental agency or a local historical society. A living history museum may include limited commercial activities and facilities that are directly related to the use and enjoyment of the museum and located within authentic buildings of the depicted historic period or the museum administration building, if areas other than an exclusive farm use zone cannot accommodate the museum and related activities or if the museum administration buildings and parking lot are located within one quarter mile of an urban growth boundary. "Local historical society" means the local historical society, recognized as such by the county governing body and organized under ORS Chapter 65.

(22) A power generation facility may include on-site and off-site facilities for temporary workforce housing for workers constructing a power generation facility. Such facilities must be removed or converted to an allowed use under OAR 660-033-0130(19) or other statute or rule when project construction is complete. Temporary workforce housing facilities not included in the initial approval may be considered through a minor amendment request. A minor amendment request shall be subject to 660-033-0130(5) and shall have no effect on the original approval. Permanent features of a power generation facility shall not preclude more than 20 acres from use as a commercial agricultural enterprise unless an exception is taken pursuant to ORS 197.732 and OAR chapter 660, division 4.

(23) A farm stand may be approved if:

(a) The structures are designed and used for sale of farm crops and livestock grown on the farm operation, or grown on the farm operation and other farm operations in the local agricultural area, including the sale of retail incidental items and fee-based activity to promote the sale of farm crops or livestock sold at the farm stand if the annual sales of the incidental items and fees from promotional activity do not make up more than 25 percent of the total annual sales of the farm stand; and

(b) The farm stand does not include structures designed for occupancy as a residence or for activities other than the sale of farm crops and livestock and does not include structures for banquets, public gatherings or public entertainment.

(c) As used in this section, "farm crops or livestock" includes both fresh and processed farm crops and livestock grown on the farm operation, or grown on the farm operation and other farm operations in the local agricultural area. As used in this subsection, "processed crops and livestock" includes jams, syrups, apple cider, animal products and other similar farm crops and livestock that have been processed and converted into another product but not prepared food items.

(d) As used in this section, "local agricultural area" includes Oregon or an adjacent county in Washington, Idaho, Nevada or California that borders the Oregon county in which the farm stand is located.

(24) Accessory farm dwellings as defined by subsection (e) of this section may be considered customarily provided in conjunction with farm use if:

(a) Each accessory farm dwelling meets all the following requirements:

(A) The accessory farm dwelling will be occupied by a person or persons who will be principally engaged in the farm use of the land and whose seasonal or year-round assistance in the management of the farm use, such as planting, harvesting, marketing or caring for livestock, is or will be required by the farm operator;

(B) The accessory farm dwelling will be located:

(i) On the same lot or parcel as the primary farm dwelling;

(ii) On the same tract as the primary farm dwelling when the lot or parcel on which the accessory farm dwelling will be sited is consolidated into a single parcel with all other contiguous lots and parcels in the tract;

(iii) On a lot or parcel on which the primary farm dwelling is not located, when the accessory farm dwelling is limited to only a manufactured dwelling with a deed restriction. The deed restriction shall be filed with the county clerk and require the manufactured dwelling to be removed when the lot or parcel is conveyed to another party. The manufactured dwelling may remain if it is reapproved under these rules;

(iv) On any lot or parcel, when the accessory farm dwelling is limited to only attached multi-unit residential structures allowed by the applicable state building code or similar types of farmworker housing as that existing on farm or ranch operations registered with the Department of Consumer and Business Services, Oregon Occupational Safety and Health Division under ORS 658.750. A county shall require all accessory farm dwellings approved under this subparagraph to be removed, demolished or converted to a nonresidential use when farmworker housing is no longer required. "Farmworker housing" shall have the meaning set forth in 215.278 and not the meaning in 315.163; or

(v) On a lot or parcel on which the primary farm dwelling is not located, when the accessory farm dwelling is located on a lot or parcel at least the size of the applicable minimum lot size under ORS 215.780 and the lot or parcel complies with the gross farm income requirements in OAR 660-033-0135(3) or (4), whichever is applicable; and

(C) There is no other dwelling on the lands designated for exclusive farm use owned by the farm operator that is vacant or currently occupied by persons not working on the subject farm or ranch and that could reasonably be used as an accessory farm dwelling.

(b) In addition to the requirements in subsection (a) of this section, the primary farm dwelling to which the proposed dwelling would be accessory, meets one of the following:

(A) On land not identified as high-value farmland, the primary farm dwelling is located on a farm or ranch operation that is currently employed for farm use, as defined in ORS 215.203, on which, in each of the last two years or three of the last five years or in an average of three of the last five years, the farm operator earned the lower of the following:

(i) At least $40,000 in gross annual income from the sale of farm products. In determining the gross income, the cost of purchased livestock shall be deducted from the total gross income attributed to the tract; or

(ii) Gross annual income of at least the midpoint of the median income range of gross annual sales for farms in the county with the gross annual sales of $10,000 or more according to the 1992 Census of Agriculture, Oregon. In determining the gross income, the cost of purchased livestock shall be deducted from the total gross income attributed to the tract;

(B) On land identified as high-value farmland, the primary farm dwelling is located on a farm or ranch operation that is currently employed for farm use, as defined in ORS 215.203, on which the farm operator earned at least $80,000 in gross annual income from the sale of farm products in each of the last two years or three of the last five years or in an average of three of the last five years. In determining the gross income, the cost of purchased livestock shall be deducted from the total gross income attributed to the tract;

(C) On land not identified as high-value farmland in counties that have adopted marginal lands provisions under former ORS 197.247 (1991

Edition) before January 1, 1993, the primary farm dwelling is located on a farm or ranch operation that meets the standards and requirements of 215.213(2)(a) or (b) or paragraph (A) of this subsection; or

(D) It is located on a commercial dairy farm as defined by OAR 660-033-0135(8); and

(i) The building permits, if required, have been issued and construction has begun or been completed for the buildings and animal waste facilities required for a commercial dairy farm;

(ii) The Oregon Department of Agriculture has approved a permit for a "confined animal feeding operation" under ORS 468B.050 and 468B.200 to 468B.230; and

(iii) A Producer License for the sale of dairy products under ORS 621.072.

(c) The governing body of a county shall not approve any proposed division of a lot or parcel for an accessory farm dwelling approved pursuant to this section. If it is determined that an accessory farm dwelling satisfies the requirements of OAR 660-033-0135, a parcel may be created consistent with the minimum parcel size requirements in 660-033-0100.

(d) An accessory farm dwelling approved pursuant to this section cannot later be used to satisfy the requirements for a dwelling not provided in conjunction with farm use pursuant to section (4) of this rule.

(e) For the purposes of OAR 660-033-0130(24), "accessory farm dwelling" includes all types of residential structures allowed by the applicable state building code.

(25) In counties that have adopted marginal lands provisions under former ORS 197.247 (1991 Edition) before January 1, 1993, an armed forces reserve center is allowed, if the center is within one-half mile of a community college. An "armed forces reserve center" includes an armory or National Guard support facility.

(26) Buildings and facilities associated with a site for the takeoff and landing of model aircraft shall not be more than 500 square feet in floor area or placed on a permanent foundation unless the building or facility preexisted the use approved under this section. The site shall not include an aggregate surface or hard surface area unless the surface preexisted the use approved under this section. An owner of property used for the purpose authorized in this section may charge a person operating the use on the property rent for the property. An operator may charge users of the property a fee that does not exceed the operator's cost to maintain the property, buildings and facilities. As used in this section, "model aircraft" means a small-scale version of an airplane, glider, helicopter, dirigible or balloon that is used or intended to be used for flight and is controlled by radio, lines or design by a person on the ground.

(27) Insect species shall not include any species under quarantine by the Oregon Department of Agriculture or the United States Department of Agriculture. The county shall provide notice of all applications under this section to the Oregon Department of Agriculture. Notice shall be provided in accordance with the county's land use regulations but shall be mailed at least 20 calendar days prior to any administrative decision or initial public hearing on the application.

(28) A farm on which a processing facility is located must provide at least one-quarter of the farm crops processed at the facility. A farm may also be used for an establishment for the slaughter, processing or selling of poultry or poultry products pursuant to ORS 603.038. If a building is established or used for the processing facility or establishment, the farm operator may not devote more than 10,000 square feet of floor area to the processing facility or establishment, exclusive of the floor area designated for preparation, storage or other farm use. A processing facility or establishment must comply with all applicable siting standards but the standards may not be applied in a manner that prohibits the siting of the processing facility or establishment. A county may not approve any division of a lot or parcel that separates a processing facility or establishment from the farm operation on which it is located.

(29)(a) Composting operations and facilities allowed on high-value farmland are limited to those that are accepted farming practices in conjunction with and auxiliary to farm use on the subject tract, and that meet the performance and permitting requirements of the Department of Environmental Quality under OAR 340-093-0050 and 340-096-0060. Excess compost may be sold to neighboring farm operations in the local area and shall be limited to bulk loads of at least one unit (7.5 cubic yards) in size. Buildings and facilities used in conjunction with the composting operation shall only be those required for the operation of the subject facility.

(b) Composting operations and facilities allowed on land not defined as high-value farmland shall meet the performance and permitting requirements of the Department of Environmental Quality under OAR 340-093-0050 and 340-096-0060. Composting operations that are accepted farming practices in conjunction with and auxiliary to farm use on the subject tract are allowed uses, while other composting operations are subject to the review standards of ORS 215.296. Buildings and facilities used in conjunction with the composting operation shall only be those required for the operation of the subject facility. Onsite sales shall be limited to bulk loads of at least one unit (7.5 cubic yards) in size that are transported in one vehicle.

(30) The County governing body or its designate shall require as a condition of approval of a single-family dwelling under ORS 215.213, 215.283 or 215.284 or otherwise in a farm or forest zone, that the landowner for the dwelling sign and record in the deed records for the county a document binding the landowner, and the landowner's successors in interest, prohibiting them from pursuing a claim for relief or cause of action alleging injury from farming or forest practices for which no action or claim is allowed under 30.936 or 30.937.

(31) Public parks including only the uses specified under OAR 660-034-0035 or 660-034-0040, whichever is applicable.

(32) Utility facility service lines are utility lines and accessory facilities or structures that end at the point where the utility service is received by the customer and that are located on one or more of the following:

(a) A public right of way;

(b) Land immediately adjacent to a public right of way, provided the written consent of all adjacent property owners has been obtained; or

(c) The property to be served by the utility.

(33) An outdoor mass gathering as defined in ORS 433.735 or other gathering of 3,000 or fewer persons that is not anticipated to continue for more than 120 hours in any three-month period is not a "land use decision" as defined in 197.015(10) or subject to review under this division. Agritourism and other commercial events or activities may not be permitted as mass gatherings under 215.213(11) and 215.283(4).

(34) Any outdoor gathering of more than 3,000 persons that is anticipated to continue for more than 120 hours in any three-month planning period is subject to review by a county planning commission under the provisions of ORS 433.763.

(35)(a) As part of the conditional use approval process under ORS 215.296 and OAR 660-033-0130(5), for the purpose of verifying the existence, continuity and nature of the business described in ORS 215.213(2)(w) or 215.283(2)(y), representatives of the business may apply to the county and submit evidence including, but not limited to, sworn affidavits or other documentary evidence that the business qualifies; and

(b) Alteration, restoration or replacement of a use authorized in ORS 215.213(2)(w) or 215.283(2)(y) may be altered, restored or replaced pursuant to 215.130(5), (6) and (9).

(36) For counties subject to ORS 215.283 and not 215.213, a community center authorized under this section may provide services to veterans, including but not limited to emergency and transitional shelter, preparation and service of meals, vocational and educational counseling and referral to local, state or federal agencies providing medical, mental health, disability income replacement and substance abuse services, only in a facility that is in existence on January 1, 2006. The services may not include direct delivery of medical, mental health, disability income replacement or substance abuse services.

(37) For purposes of this rule a wind power generation facility includes, but is not limited to, the following system components: all wind turbine towers and concrete pads, permanent meteorological towers and wind measurement devices, electrical cable collection systems connecting wind turbine towers with the relevant power substation, new or expanded private roads (whether temporary or permanent) constructed to serve the wind power generation facility, office and operation and maintenance buildings, temporary lay-down areas and all other necessary appurtenances, including but not limited to on-site and off-site facilities for temporary workforce housing for workers constructing a wind power generation facility. Such facilities must be removed or converted to an allowed use under OAR 660-033-0130(19) or other statute or rule when project construction is complete. Temporary workforce housing facilities not included in the initial approval may be considered through a minor amendment request filed after a decision to approve a power generation facility. A minor amendment request shall be subject to 660-033-0130(5) and shall have no effect on the original approval. A proposal for a wind power generation facility shall be subject to the following provisions:

(a) For high-value farmland soils described at ORS 195.300(10), the governing body or its designate must find that all of the following are satisfied:

(A) Reasonable alternatives have been considered to show that siting the wind power generation facility or component thereof on high-value farmland soils is necessary for the facility or component to function properly or if a road system or turbine string must be placed on such soils to achieve a reasonably direct route considering the following factors:

(i) Technical and engineering feasibility;

(ii) Availability of existing rights of way; and

(iii) The long term environmental, economic, social and energy consequences of siting the facility or component on alternative sites, as determined under paragraph (B);

(B) The long-term environmental, economic, social and energy consequences resulting from the wind power generation facility or any components thereof at the proposed site with measures designed to reduce adverse impacts are not significantly more adverse than would typically result from the same proposal being located on other agricultural lands that do not include high-value farmland soils;

(C) Costs associated with any of the factors listed in paragraph (A) may be considered, but costs alone may not be the only consideration in determining that siting any component of a wind power generation facility on high-value farmland soils is necessary;

(D) The owner of a wind power generation facility approved under subsection (a) shall be responsible for restoring, as nearly as possible, to its former condition any agricultural land and associated improvements that are damaged or otherwise disturbed by the siting, maintenance, repair or reconstruction of the facility. Nothing in this subsection shall prevent the owner of the facility from requiring a bond or other security from a contractor or otherwise imposing on a contractor the responsibility for restoration; and

(E) The criteria of subsection (b) are satisfied.

(b) For arable lands, meaning lands that are cultivated or suitable for cultivation, including high-value farmland soils described at ORS 195.300(10), the governing body or its designate must find that:

(A) The proposed wind power facility will not create unnecessary negative impacts on agricultural operations conducted on the subject property. Negative impacts could include, but are not limited to, the unnecessary construction of roads, dividing a field or multiple fields in such a way that creates small or isolated pieces of property that are more difficult to farm, and placing wind farm components such as meteorological towers on lands in a manner that could disrupt common and accepted farming practices;

(B) The presence of a proposed wind power facility will not result in unnecessary soil erosion or loss that could limit agricultural productivity on the subject property. This provision may be satisfied by the submittal and county approval of a soil and erosion control plan prepared by an adequately qualified individual, showing how unnecessary soil erosion will be avoided or remedied and how topsoil will be stripped, stockpiled and clearly marked. The approved plan shall be attached to the decision as a condition of approval;

(C) Construction or maintenance activities will not result in unnecessary soil compaction that reduces the productivity of soil for crop production. This provision may be satisfied by the submittal and county approval of a plan prepared by an adequately qualified individual, showing how unnecessary soil compaction will be avoided or remedied in a timely manner through deep soil decompaction or other appropriate practices. The approved plan shall be attached to the decision as a condition of approval; and

(D) Construction or maintenance activities will not result in the unabated introduction or spread of noxious weeds and other undesirable weeds species. This provision may be satisfied by the submittal and county approval of a weed control plan prepared by an adequately qualified individual that includes a long-term maintenance agreement. The approved plan shall be attached to the decision as a condition of approval.

(c) For nonarable lands, meaning lands that are not suitable for cultivation, the governing body or its designate must find that the requirements of OAR 660-033-0130(37)(b)(D) are satisfied.

(d) In the event that a wind power generation facility is proposed on a combination of arable and nonarable lands as described in OAR 660-033-0130(37)(b) and (c) the approval criteria of 660-033-0130(37)(b) shall apply to the entire project.

(38) A proposal to site a photovoltaic solar power generation facility shall be subject to the following definitions and provisions:

(a) "Arable land" means land in a tract that is predominantly cultivated or, if not currently cultivated, predominantly comprised of arable soils.

(b) "Arable soils" means soils that are suitable for cultivation as determined by the governing body or its designate based on substantial evidence in the record of a local land use application, but "arable soils" does not include high-value farmland soils described at ORS 195.300(10) unless otherwise stated.

(c) "Nonarable land" means land in a tract that is predominantly not cultivated and predominantly comprised of nonarable soils.

(d) "Nonarable soils" means soils that are not suitable for cultivation. Soils with an NRCS agricultural capability class V–VIII and no history of irrigation shall be considered nonarable in all cases. The governing body or its designate may determine other soils, including soils with a past history of irrigation, to be nonarable based on substantial evidence in the record of a local land use application.

(e) "Photovoltaic solar power generation facility" includes, but is not limited to, an assembly of equipment that converts sunlight into electricity and then stores, transfers, or both, that electricity. This includes photovoltaic modules, mounting and solar tracking equipment, foundations, inverters, wiring, storage devices and other components. Photovoltaic solar power generation facilities also include electrical cable collection systems connecting the photovoltaic solar generation facility to a transmission line, all necessary grid integration equipment, new or expanded private roads constructed to serve the photovoltaic solar power generation facility, office, operation and maintenance buildings, staging areas and all other necessary appurtenances. For purposes of applying the acreage standards of this section, a photovoltaic solar power generation facility includes all existing and proposed facilities on a single tract, as well as any existing and proposed facilities determined to be under common ownership on lands with fewer than 1320 feet of separation from the tract on which the new facility is proposed to be sited. Projects connected to the same parent company or individuals shall be considered to be in common ownership, regardless of the operating business structure. A photovoltaic solar power generation facility does not include a net metering project established consistent with ORS 757.300 and OAR chapter 860, division 39 or a Feed-in-Tariff project established consistent with ORS 757.365 and OAR chapter 860, division 84.

(f) For high-value farmland described at ORS 195.300(10), a photovoltaic solar power generation facility shall not preclude more than 12 acres from use as a commercial agricultural enterprise unless an exception is taken pursuant to ORS 197.732 and OAR chapter 660, division 4. The governing body or its designate must find that:

(A) The proposed photovoltaic solar power generation facility will not create unnecessary negative impacts on agricultural operations conducted on any portion of the subject property not occupied by project components. Negative impacts could include, but are not limited to, the unnecessary construction of roads dividing a field or multiple fields in such a way that creates small or isolated pieces of property that are more difficult to farm, and placing photovoltaic solar power generation facility project components on lands in a manner that could disrupt common and accepted farming practices;

(B) The presence of a photovoltaic solar power generation facility will not result in unnecessary soil erosion or loss that could limit agricultural productivity on the subject property. This provision may be satisfied by the submittal and county approval of a soil and erosion control plan prepared by an adequately qualified individual, showing how unnecessary soil erosion will be avoided or remedied and how topsoil will be stripped, stockpiled and clearly marked. The approved plan shall be attached to the decision as a condition of approval;

(C) Construction or maintenance activities will not result in unnecessary soil compaction that reduces the productivity of soil for crop production. This provision may be satisfied by the submittal and county approval of a plan prepared by an adequately qualified individual, showing how unnecessary soil compaction will be avoided or remedied in a timely manner through deep soil decompaction or other appropriate practices. The approved plan shall be attached to the decision as a condition of approval;

(D) Construction or maintenance activities will not result in the unabated introduction or spread of noxious weeds and other undesirable weed species. This provision may be satisfied by the submittal and county approval of a weed control plan prepared by an adequately qualified individual that includes a long-term maintenance agreement. The approved plan shall be attached to the decision as a condition of approval;

(E) The project is not located on high-value farmland soils unless it can be demonstrated that:

(i) Non high-value farmland soils are not available on the subject tract;

(ii) Siting the project on non high-value farmland soils present on the subject tract would significantly reduce the project's ability to operate successfully; or

(iii) The proposed site is better suited to allow continuation of an existing commercial farm or ranching operation on the subject tract than other possible sites also located on the subject tract, including those comprised of non high-value farmland soils; and

(F) A study area consisting of lands zoned for exclusive farm use located within one mile measured from the center of the proposed project shall be established and:

(i) If fewer than 48 acres of photovoltaic solar power generation facilities have been constructed or received land use approvals and obtained building permits within the study area, no further action is necessary.

(ii) When at least 48 acres of photovoltaic solar power generation have been constructed or received land use approvals and obtained building permits, either as a single project or as multiple facilities within the study area, the local government or its designate must find that the photovoltaic solar energy generation facility will not materially alter the stability of the overall land use pattern of the area. The stability of the land use pattern will be materially altered if the overall effect of existing and potential photovoltaic solar energy generation facilities will make it more difficult for the existing farms and ranches in the area to continue operation due to diminished opportunities to expand, purchase or lease farmland or acquire water rights, or will reduce the number of tracts or acreage in farm use in a manner that will destabilize the overall character of the study area.

(g) For arable lands, a photovoltaic solar power generation facility shall not preclude more than 20 acres from use as a commercial agricultural enterprise unless an exception is taken pursuant to ORS 197.732 and OAR chapter 660, division 4. The governing body or its designate must find that:

(A) The project is not located on high-value farmland soils or arable soils unless it can be demonstrated that:

(i) Nonarable soils are not available on the subject tract;

(ii) Siting the project on nonarable soils present on the subject tract would significantly reduce the project's ability to operate successfully; or

(iii) The proposed site is better suited to allow continuation of an existing commercial farm or ranching operation on the subject tract than other possible sites also located on the subject tract, including those comprised of nonarable soils;

(B) No more than 12 acres of the project will be sited on high-value farmland soils described at ORS 195.300(10) unless an exception is taken pursuant to 197.732 and OAR chapter 660, division 4;

(C) A study area consisting of lands zoned for exclusive farm use located within one mile measured from the center of the proposed project shall be established and:

(i) If fewer than 80 acres of photovoltaic solar power generation facilities have been constructed or received land use approvals and obtained building permits within the study area no further action is necessary.

(ii) When at least 80 acres of photovoltaic solar power generation have been constructed or received land use approvals and obtained building permits, either as a single project or as multiple facilities, within the study area the local government or its designate must find that the photovoltaic solar energy generation facility will not materially alter the stability of the overall land use pattern of the area. The stability of the land use pattern will be materially altered if the overall effect of existing and potential photovoltaic solar energy generation facilities will make it more difficult for the existing farms and ranches in the area to continue operation due to diminished opportunities to expand, purchase or lease farmland, acquire water rights or diminish the number of tracts or acreage in farm use in a manner that will destabilize the overall character of the study area; and

(D) The requirements of OAR 660-033-0130(38)(f)(A), (B), (C) and (D) are satisfied.

(h) For nonarable lands, a photovoltaic solar power generation facility shall not preclude more than 250 acres from use as a commercial agricultural enterprise unless an exception is taken pursuant to ORS 197.732 and OAR chapter 660, division 4. The governing body or its designate must find that:

(A) The project is not located on high-value farmland soils or arable soils unless it can be demonstrated that:

(i) Siting the project on nonarable soils present on the subject tract would significantly reduce the project's ability to operate successfully; or

(ii) The proposed site is better suited to allow continuation of an existing commercial farm or ranching operation on the subject tract as compared to other possible sites also located on the subject tract, including sites that are comprised of nonarable soils;

(B) No more than 12 acres of the project will be sited on high-value farmland soils described at ORS 195.300(10);

(C) No more than 20 acres of the project will be sited on arable soils unless an exception is taken pursuant to ORS 197.732 and OAR chapter 660, division 4;

(D) The requirements of OAR 660-033-0130(38)(f)(D) are satisfied;

(E) If a photovoltaic solar power generation facility is proposed to be developed on lands that contain a Goal 5 resource protected under the county's comprehensive plan, and the plan does not address conflicts between energy facility development and the resource, the applicant and the county, together with any state or federal agency responsible for protecting the resource or habitat supporting the resource, will cooperatively develop a specific resource management plan to mitigate potential development conflicts. If there is no program present to protect the listed Goal 5 resource(s) present in the local comprehensive plan or implementing ordinances and the applicant and the appropriate resource management agency(ies) cannot successfully agree on a cooperative resource management plan, the county is responsible for determining appropriate mitigation measures; and

(F) If a proposed photovoltaic solar power generation facility is located on lands where the potential exists for adverse effects to state or federal special status species (threatened, endangered, candidate, or sensitive), or to wildlife species of concern identified and mapped by the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife (including big game winter range and migration corridors, golden eagle and prairie falcon nest sites, and pigeon springs), the applicant shall conduct a site-specific assessment of the subject property in consultation with all appropriate state, federal, and tribal wildlife management agencies. A professional biologist shall conduct the site-specific assessment by using methodologies accepted by the appropriate wildlife management agency and shall determine whether adverse effects to special status species or wildlife species of concern are anticipated. Based on the results of the biologist's report, the site shall be designed to avoid adverse effects to state or federal special status species or to wildlife species of concern as described above. If the applicant's site-specific assessment shows that adverse effects cannot be avoided, the applicant and the appropriate wildlife management agency will cooperatively develop an agreement for project-specific mitigation to offset the potential adverse effects of the facility. Where the applicant and the resource management agency cannot agree on what mitigation will be carried out, the county is responsible for determining appropriate mitigation, if any, required for the facility.

(G) The provisions of paragraph (F) are repealed on January 1, 2022.

(i) The county governing body or its designate shall require as a condition of approval for a photovoltaic solar power generation facility, that the project owner sign and record in the deed records for the county a document binding the project owner and the project owner's successors in interest, prohibiting them from pursuing a claim for relief or cause of action alleging injury from farming or forest practices as defined in ORS 30.930(2) and (4).

(j) Nothing in this section shall prevent a county from requiring a bond or other security from a developer or otherwise imposing on a developer the responsibility for retiring the photovoltaic solar power generation facility.

(k) The commission may re-evaluate the acreage thresholds identified in subsections (f), (g) and (h) should ORS 469.300(11)(a)(D) be amended.

(39) Dog training classes or testing trials conducted outdoors or in farm buildings that existed on January 1, 2013, when:

(a) The number of dogs participating in training does not exceed 10 per training class and the number of training classes to be held on-site does not exceed six per day; and

(b) The number of dogs participating in a testing trial does not exceed 60 and the number of testing trials to be conducted on-site does not exceed four per calendar year.

division approving a proposed development on agricultural or forest land outside an urban growth boundary under ORS 215.010 to 215.293 and 215.317 to 215.438 or under county legislation or regulation adopted pursuant thereto is void two years from the date of the final decision if the development action is not initiated in that period.

(2) A county may grant one extension period of up to 12 months if:

(a) An applicant makes a written request for an extension of the development approval period;

(b) The request is submitted to the county prior to the expiration of the approval period;

(c) The applicant states reasons that prevented the applicant from beginning or continuing development within the approval period; and

(d) The county determines that the applicant was unable to begin or continue development during the approval period for reasons for which the applicant was not responsible.

(3) Approval of an extension granted under this rule is an administrative decision, is not a land use decision as described in ORS 197.015 and is not subject to appeal as a land use decision.

(4) Additional one-year extensions may be authorized where applicable criteria for the decision have not changed.

(5)(a) If a permit is approved for a proposed residential development on agricultural or forest land outside of an urban growth boundary, the permit shall be valid for four years.

(b) An extension of a permit described in subsection (5)(a) of this rule shall be valid for two years.

(6) For the purposes of section (5) of this rule, "residential development" only includes the dwellings provided for under ORS 215.213(3) and (4), 215.284, 215.705(1) to (3), 215.720, 215.740, 215.750 and 215.755(1) and (3).

Withdrawal of Decision for Reconsideration

(1) If a local government or state agency, pursuant to ORS 197.830(13)(b), withdraws a decision for the purposes of reconsideration, it shall file a notice of withdrawal with the Board on or before the date the record is due or, on appeal of a decision under 197.610 to 197.625, the local government shall file a notice of withdrawal prior to the filing of the respondent's brief. A copy of the decision on reconsideration shall be filed with the Board within 90 days after the filing of the notice of withdrawal or within such other time as the Board may allow.

(2) The filing of a notice of withdrawal under section (1) of this rule shall suspend proceedings on the appeal until a decision on reconsideration is filed with the Board, or the time designated therefor expires, unless otherwise ordered by the Board. If no decision on reconsideration is filed within the time designated therefor, the Board shall issue an order restarting the appeal.

(3) A copy of the decision on reconsideration under section (1) of this rule shall be filed with the Board within 7 days after the local government or state agency issues the decision on reconsideration and copies of the decision on reconsideration shall be served on all parties. The first page of the decision on reconsideration, or an accompanying transmittal letter, shall indicate the title and case number of the pending appeal before the Board.

(4) Petitioner(s) may seek review of the decision on reconsideration as provided in section (5) of this rule. Any other person may file a notice of intent to appeal the decision on reconsideration as provided in OAR 661-010-0015. If such an appeal is filed, and a petitioner files an amended notice of intent to appeal or refiles the original notice of intent to appeal as provided in section (5) of this rule, any party may move to consolidate the appeals challenging the decision on reconsideration as provided in 661 010-0055.

(5) After the filing of a decision on reconsideration:

(a) If the petitioner wishes review by the Board of the decision on reconsideration:

(A) Except as provided in paragraph (B) of this subsection, the petitioner shall file an amended notice of intent to appeal together with two copies within 21 days after the decision on reconsideration is received by the Board.

(B) In the event the local government or state agency affirms its decision or modifies its decision with only minor revisions, the petitioner may refile the original notice of intent to appeal, with the date of the decision on reconsideration indicated thereon, together with two copies within 21 days after the decision on reconsideration is received by the Board.

(b) Refiling of the original notice of intent to appeal or filing of an amended notice of intent to appeal is accomplished by delivery of the Notice to the Board, or receipt of the Notice by the Board, on or before the due date. Filing or refiling may also be accomplished by mailing on or before the due date by first-class, certified or registered mail.

(c) An amended notice of intent to appeal or a refiled notice of intent to appeal under paragraphs (A) and (B) of subsection (5)(a) of this rule shall conform with the requirements of OAR 661-010-0015(3) and shall be served on the following:

(A) All parties to the appeal suspended pursuant to section (2) of this rule;

(B) The applicant, if any (and if other than the petitioner). If an applicant was represented by an attorney before the governing body, then the name, address and telephone number of the applicant's attorney shall also be included;

(C) Any other person to whom written notice of the original or reconsidered land use decision or limited land use decision was mailed as shown on the governing body's records. The telephone number may be omitted for any such person.

(d) No additional filing fee or deposit for costs shall be required to refile the original notice of intent to appeal or file an amended notice of intent to appeal under subsection (5)(a) of this rule.

(e) If no amended notice of intent to appeal is filed or no original notice of intent to appeal is refiled, as provided in subsection (5)(a) and (b) of this rule, the appeal will be dismissed.

(f) Parties who have already intervened in the appeal need not file new motions to intervene when an amended notice of intent to appeal is filed or the original notice of intent to appeal is refiled.

(6) The local government or state agency shall, within 21 days after service of the amended notice of intent to appeal or refiled original notice of intent to appeal under subsection (5)(a) of this rule, transmit to the Board a certified copy of the record of the proceeding under review in accordance with OAR 661-010-0025. Record

(1) Contents of Record: Unless the Board otherwise orders, or the parties otherwise agree in writing, the record shall include at least the following:

(a) The final decision including any findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(b) All written testimony and all exhibits, maps, documents or other materials specifically incorporated into the record or placed before, and not rejected by, the final decision maker, during the course of the proceedings before the final decision maker.

(c) Minutes and tape, CD, DVD or other media recordings of the meetings conducted by the final decision maker as required by law, or incorporated into the record by the final decision maker. A verbatim transcript of media recordings shall not be required, but if a transcript has been prepared by the governing body, it shall be included. If a verbatim transcript is included in the record, the media recordings from which that transcript was prepared need not be included in the record, unless the accuracy of the transcript is challenged.

(d) Notices of proposed action, public hearing and adoption of a final decision, if any, published, posted or mailed during the course of the land use proceeding, including affidavits of publication, posting or mailing. Such notices shall include any notices concerning amendments to acknowledged comprehensive plans or land use regulations given pursuant to ORS 197.610(1) or 197.615(1) and (2).

(2) Transmittal of Record:

(a) The governing body shall, within 21 days after service of the Notice on the governing body, transmit to the Board a certified paper copy of the record of the proceeding under review. The governing body may, however, retain any large maps, media recordings, or difficult-to-duplicate documents and items until the date of oral argument. Where documents are retained until the date of oral argument, those retained documents shall be identified in the table of contents, as provided in OAR 661-010-0025(4)(B).Transmittal of the record is accomplished by delivery of the record to the Board, or by receipt of the record by the Board, on or before the due date.

(b) As an alternative to transmitting a certified paper copy of the record, a local government may transmit the record to the Board in electronic format. Transmittal of an electronic copy is accomplished by delivery of two complete copies of the record on optical disks, with documents recorded in a PDF format. If the record exceeds 100 pages, the electronic copy shall be searchable. A local government may transmit the record in electronic form, and also retain items until oral argument as described in OAR 661-010-0025(2)(a).

(3) Service of Record:

(a) Contemporaneously with transmittal, the governing body shall serve a paper copy of the record, exclusive of large maps, media recordings, and difficult-to-duplicate documents and items, on the petitioner or the lead petitioner, if one is designated. The governing body shall also serve a paper copy of the record on any other party, including intervenors-petitioner, requesting a copy provided such other party reimburses the governing body for the reasonable expense incurred in copying the record. The governing body shall also serve a copy of any media recording included in the record, or any recording from which a transcript included in the record was prepared, on any party requesting such a copy, provided such party reimburses the governing body for the reasonable expense incurred in copying the recording.

(b) By prior agreement of the party to be served, service of the record as described in OAR 661-010-0025(3)(a) may be in an electronic format instead of a paper copy.

(4) Specifications of Record:

(a) The record, including any supplements or amendments, shall:

(A) Be filed in a suitable folder; the cover shall bear the title of the case as it appears in the Notice or in the Board's order consolidating multiple appeals, and the Board's numerical designation for the case, and shall indicate the numerical designation given the land use decision or limited land use decision by the governing body; if the record consists of multiple volumes, the cover shall indicate the page numbers contained in each volume;

(B) Begin with a table of contents, listing each item contained therein, and the page of the record where the item begins (see Exhibit 2).

(i) Where an item listed in the table of contents includes attached exhibits, the exhibits shall be separately listed as an exhibit to the item. Where the exhibit is also a document that is being retained under OAR 661-010-0025(2), the exhibit shall also be listed at the end of the table of contents as provided in subsection (ii) below.

(ii) Where large maps, media recordings, or other items or documents are retained by the governing body under section (2) of this rule, those retained items shall be separately listed at the end of the table of contents;

(C) Be securely fastened on the left side;

(D) Have pages numbered consecutively, with the page number at the bottom outside corner of each page;

(E) Be arranged in inverse chronological order, with the most recent item first. Exhibits attached to a record item shall be included according to the numerical or alphabetical order in which they are attached, not the date of the exhibits. Upon motion of the governing body, the Board may allow the record to be organized differently.

(b) Where the record includes the record of a prior appeal to this Board, the table of contents shall specify the LUBA number of the prior appeal, and indicate that the record of the prior appeal is incorporated into the record of the current appeal.

(c) A record that does not substantially conform to the preceding requirements may be rejected by the Board.

(5) If no record objection is filed and the governing body transmits an amendment to the record, the date the amendment is received by the Board shall be considered the date the record is received for the purpose of computing time limits as required by these rules.

Petition for Review

(1) Filing and Service of Petition: The petition for review together with four copies shall be filed with the Board within 21 days after the date the record is received or settled by the Board. See OAR 661 010-0025(2) and 661-010-0026(6). The petition shall also be served on the governing body and any party who has filed a motion to intervene. Failure to file a petition for review within the time required by this section, and any extensions of that time under 661-010-0045(9) or 661-010-0067(2), shall result in dismissal of the appeal and forfeiture of the filing fee and deposit for costs to the governing body. See 661-010-0075(1)(c).

(2) Specifications of Petition: The petition for review shall:

(a) Begin with a table of contents;

(b) Not exceed 50 pages, exclusive of appendices, unless permission for a longer petition is given by the Board;

(c) Have blue front and back covers of at least 65-pound weight paper. The front cover page shall state the full title of the proceeding, and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all parties unrepresented by an attorney. If a party is represented by an attorney, the name, address and telephone number of the attorney shall be substituted for the party. If there is more than one petitioner, the cover page shall specify which petitioner(s) are filing the petition. An intervenor shall be designated as either petitioner or respondent in accordance with OAR 661-010-0050;

(d) Be typewritten or word-processed in proportionately spaced font such as Times New Roman no smaller than 14 point both for text and for footnotes;

(e) Be double spaced, except that quotations and footnotes may be single-spaced with double space above and below each paragraph of quotation;

(f) Have text printed on only one side of the page; however, text may be printed on both sides of the page if the paper is sufficiently opaque to prevent material on one side from showing through, and the petition is bound along the left-hand margin so that the pages lie flat when open;

(g) Be printed on 8-1/2 by 11 inch paper, with numbers for each line of text;

(h) Have inside margins of 1-1/4 inches, outside margins of 1 inch, top and bottom margins of 3/4 inch; and

(i) Be signed on the last page by the author. In cases where multiple unrepresented petitioners or intervenors-petitioner file a single petition for review, the petition for review shall be signed by all petitioners or intervenors-petitioner who wish to join the petition for review.

(3) If the Board determines that the petition for review fails to conform with the requirements of section (2) of this rule, it shall notify the author, and a brief conforming with the requirements of section (2) shall be filed within three (3) days of notification by the Board. The Board may refuse to consider a brief that does not substantially conform to the requirements of this rule.

(4) Contents of Petition: The petition for review shall:

(a) State the facts that establish petitioner's standing;

(b) Present a clear and concise statement of the case, in the following order, with separate section headings:

(A) The nature of the land use decision or limited land use decision and the relief sought by petitioner;

(B) A summary of the arguments appearing under the assignments of error in the body of the petition;

(C) A summary of the material facts. The summary shall be in narrative form with citations to the pages of the record where the facts alleged can be found. Where there is a map in the record that helps illustrate the material facts, the petitioner shall include a copy of that map in the summary of the material facts or attach it as an appendix to the petition.

(c) State why the challenged decision is a land use decision or a limited land use decision subject to the Board's jurisdiction;

(d) Set forth each assignment of error under a separate heading. Each assignment of error must demonstrate that the issue raised in the assignment of error was preserved during the proceedings below. Where an assignment raises an issue that is not identified as preserved during the proceedings below, the petition shall state why preservation is not required. Each assignment of error must state the applicable standard of review. Where several assignments of error present essentially the same legal questions, the argument in support of those assignments of error shall be combined;

(e) Contain a copy of the challenged decision, including any adopted findings of fact and conclusions of law; and

(f) Contain a copy of any comprehensive plan provision, ordinance or other provision of local law cited in the petition, unless the provision is quoted verbatim in the petition.

(5) The petition for review may include appendices containing verbatim transcripts of relevant portions of media recordings that are part of the record.

(6) Amended Petition: A petition for review which fails to comply with section (4) of this rule may, with permission of the Board, be amended. The Board shall determine whether to allow an amended petition for review to be filed in accordance with OAR 661-010-0005.

(7) Cross Petition: Any respondent or intervenor-respondent who seeks reversal or remand of an aspect of the decision on appeal regardless of the outcome under the petition for review may file a cross petition for review that includes one or more assignments of error. A respondent or intervenor-respondent who seeks reversal or remand of an aspect of the decision on appeal only if the decision on appeal is reversed or remanded under the petition for review may file a cross petition for review that includes contingent cross-assignments of error, clearly labeled as such. The cover page shall identify the petition as a cross petition and the party filing the cross petition. The cross petition shall be filed within the time required for filing the petition for review and must comply in all respects with the requirements of this rule governing the petition for review, except that a notice of intent to appeal need not have been filed by such party.

Intervention

(1) Standing to Intervene: The applicant and any person who appeared before the local government, special district or state agency may intervene in a review proceeding before the Board. Status as an intervenor is recognized when a motion to intervene is filed, but the Board may deny that status at any time.

(2) Motion to Intervene: A motion to intervene shall be filed within 21 days of the date the notice of intent to appeal is filed pursuant to OAR 661-010-0015, or the amended notice of intent to appeal is filed or original notice of intent to appeal is refiled pursuant to 661-010-0021. When two or more intervenors join in a motion to intervene and are unrepresented by an attorney, a lead intervenor shall be designated as the contact person for the purpose of receiving documents from the Board and other parties. The motion to intervene (see Exhibit 3) shall:

(a) List the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all persons moving to intervene. If an attorney represents the intervenor(s), the attorney's name, address and telephone number shall be substituted for that of the intervenor(s);

(b) State whether the party is intervening on the side of the petitioner or the respondent;

(c) State the facts which show the party is entitled to intervene, supporting the statement with affidavits or other proof;

(d) On the last page, be signed by each intervenor, or the attorney representing that intervenor, on whose behalf the motion to intervene is filed;

(e) Be served upon the Board and all parties.

(3) Filing Fee: A motion to intervene shall be accompanied by a filing fee of $100 for each appeal in which intervention is sought, payable to the Land Use Board of Appeals. Where multiple parties file a single joint motion to intervene, only one fee per appeal is required. If a motion to intervene is received without payment of the filing fee or a check providing the filing fee is returned for insufficient funds, the intervenor will be given an opportunity to submit the required fee. If the filing fee is not paid within the time set by the Board, the Board shall deny the motion to intervene. Cash shall not be accepted.

(4) Intervention in an appeal that is consolidated with other appeals does not allow the intervenor to appear as a party with respect to those appeals in which the intervenor has not filed a timely motion to intervene.

(5) Parties who have already intervened in an appeal need not file new motions to intervene when an amended notice of intent to appeal is filed or the original notice of intent to appeal is refiled pursuant to OAR 661-010-0021.

(6) Intervenor's Brief:

(a) If intervention is sought as a petitioner, the brief shall be filed within the time limit for filing the petition for review, and shall satisfy the requirements for a petition for review in OAR 661-010-0030.

(b) If intervention is sought as a respondent, the brief shall be filed within the time for filing a respondent's brief and shall satisfy the requirements for a respondent's brief in OAR 661-010-0035.

Extensions of Time

(1) In no event shall the time limit for the filing of the notice of intent to appeal be extended.

(2) Except as provided in this section and OAR 661-010-0045(9), in no event shall the time limit for the filing of the petition for review be extended without the written consent of all parties. Written consent may include facsimile signatures. The Board may, on a motion of a party or its own motion, extend the deadline for filing the petition for review to allow time to rule on a motion to dismiss. Written consent to extend the deadline for filing record objections shall automatically extend the deadline for filing the petition for review for the same number of days granted to extend the deadline for filing record objections, unless the consenting parties expressly provide otherwise.

(3) All other time limits may be extended upon oral or written consent of all parties, the Board's motion or motion of a party. Written consent may include facsimile signatures.

(4) A motion for extension of time shall state the reasons for granting the extension and must be filed with the Board within the time required for performance of the act for which an extension of time is requested. A motion for extension of time that is not accompanied by a written consent by all parties to the requested extension shall state whether all parties to the appeal have agreed to the motion for extension of time, orally or otherwise.

(5) Any agreement by the parties allowing an extension of time shall automatically extend the time for subsequent filings, as well as the issuance of the Board's final order by an amount of time equal to the extension agreed to by the parties.

(6) In the event the Board extends the deadline for issuance of its final order without consent of the parties, it shall enter the findings required by ORS 197.840.

(b) Recoverable Costs: Costs may be recovered only for the items set forth in this subsection.

(A) If the petitioner is the prevailing party, the petitioner may be awarded the cost of the filing fee.

(B) If the governing body is the prevailing party, the governing body may be awarded copying costs for the required number of copies of the record, at 25 cents per page, whether or not the governing body actively participated in the review.

(C) Costs awarded to the governing body pursuant to this section shall be paid from the deposit required by OAR 661-010-0015(4) and shall not exceed the amount of that deposit.

(D) If an intervenor under OAR 661-010-0050 or a state agency under OAR 661-010-0038 is the prevailing party, the intervenor or state agency may be awarded the cost of the fee to intervene or to file a state agency brief.

(c) Forfeit of Filing Fee and Deposit: If a record has been filed and a petition for review is not filed within the time required by these rules, and the governing body files a cost bill pursuant to this section requesting forfeiture of the filing fee and deposit, the filing fee and deposit required by OAR 661-010-0015(4) shall be awarded to the governing body as cost of preparation of the record. See 661-010-0030(1).

(d) Return of Deposit: After any award of costs under subsection (b) of this section is made, any amount of the deposit remaining shall be returned to petitioner.

(e) Attorney Fees:

(A) Attorney fees shall be awarded by the Board to the prevailing party as specified in ORS 197.830(15)(b); a motion for attorney fees shall include a signed and detailed statement of the amount of attorney fees sought.

(C) Attorney fees shall be awarded to the applicant, against the person who requested a stay pursuant to ORS 197.845, if the Board affirms a quasi-judicial land use decision or limited land use decision for which such a stay was granted. Objections to the cost bill shall be filed with the Board within 14 days after the date of service of the cost bill.

(g) If a cost bill, a motion for attorney fees, or both are filed, and the Board's decision is appealed to the Court of Appeals, the Board shall act on the cost bill or motion for attorney fees after an appellate judgment is issued and any further Board proceedings necessitated by that judgment are concluded.

(2) Filing and Service:

(a) Filing:

(A) Documents may not be filed by facsimile. Documents filed with the Board may include facsimile signatures.

(B) Except as provided in OAR 661-010-0015(1)(b) with regard to the notice of intent to appeal, filing a document with the Board is accomplished by:

(i) Delivery to the Board on or before the date due; or

(ii) Mailing on or before the date due by first class mail with the United States Postal Service. If the date of mailing is relied upon as the date of filing, the date of the first class postmark on the envelope mailed to the Board is the date of filing.

(b) Service:

(A) Any document filed with the Board, other than the record as provided in OAR 661-010-0025(3), or the record after withdrawal for reconsideration as provided in 661-010-0021(6), must also be served on all parties contemporaneously. Service on two or more petitioners unrepresented by an attorney is accomplished by serving the lead petitioner designated under 661-010-0015(3)(f)(A). Service on two or more intervenors unrepresented by an attorney is accomplished by serving the lead intervenor designated under 661-010-0050(2).

(B) Service may be in person, or by first-class mail. Mail service is complete on deposit in the mail.

(C) Service copies of documents other than the Notice or the record shall include a certificate showing the date of filing with the Board (see Exhibit 5). [Exhibit not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(D) Documents filed with the Board shall contain either an acknowledgement of service by the person served or proof of service by a statement certified by the person who made service of the date of personal delivery or deposit in the mail, and the names and addresses of the persons served (see Exhibit 6). [Exhibit not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(c) Recycled Paper. Parties filing anything with the Board, including but not limited to notices of intent to appeal, records, motions, and briefs, are encouraged to use recycled paper if recycled paper is readily available at a reasonable price in the party's community. Further, parties are encouraged to use paper containing the highest available content of post-consumer waste, as defined in ORS 279.545, that is recyclable in the office paper recycling program in the party's community.

(3) Number of Copies Required: Unless these rules provide otherwise, all documents filed with the Board shall be filed with one copy. No copy of a record transmitted pursuant to OAR 661-010-0025(2), or a record after withdrawal for reconsideration transmitted pursuant to 661-010-0021(6), is required.

(4) Copying Fee: The following fees shall be charged for certified copies or scans of Board nonexempt public records as defined in ORS 192.410, 192.501, 192.502, and 192.505:

(a) 25 cents per page for copies or scans of any Board transcript or document of public record.

(b) $10 for a copy of a cassette tape, compact disc or similar media disc in the record.

(c) $20 for a copy of a videocassette tape in the record.

(d) The Board shall also charge the actual cost of copying and mailing oversized exhibits, plans or maps.

(5) Conferences: On its own motion or at the request of any party, the Board may conduct one or more conferences. Conferences may be by telephone. The Board shall provide reasonable notice advising all parties of the time, place and purpose of any conference.

(6) Appearances Before the Board: An individual shall either appear on his or her own behalf or be represented by an attorney. A corporation or other organization shall be represented by an attorney. In no event may a party be represented by someone other than an active member of the Oregon State Bar. In the event someone other than an active member of the Oregon State Bar files a notice of intent to appeal on behalf of a corporation, other organization, or another individual, the individual filing the notice of intent to appeal will be given an opportunity to provide an amended notice of intent to appeal that conforms with this section. If an amended notice of intent to appeal is not filed within the time set by the Board, the Board will dismiss the appeal.

(7) Lead Petitioner or Intervenor:

(a) A lead petitioner is responsible for notifying the other petitioners of documents and communications received from the Board and other parties, but each petitioner remains responsible for his or her own representation.

(b) A lead intervenor is responsible for notifying the other intervenors of documents and communications received from the Board and other parties, but each intervenor remains responsible for his or her own representation. A lead intervenor's responsibilities under this subsection extend only to intervenors who joined in the lead intervenor's motion to intervene and does not extend to intervenors who filed separate motions to intervene.

(8) Computation of Time: Time deadlines in these rules shall be computed by excluding the first day and including the last day. If the last day is Saturday, Sunday or other state or federal legal holiday, the act must be performed on the next working day.

(9) Address and Hours of the Board: The Board's address is 775 Summer Street NE, Suite 330, Salem Oregon, 97301-1283. The telephone number is (503) 373-1265. The Board's office shall be open from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., and 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

(10) Citations to Board Decisions: Citations to Board decisions shall be in the following form:

(a) Reported Cases: John Doe v. XYZ County, 5 Or LUBA 654 (1981).

(b) Unreported Cases: John Doe v. XYZ County, ___ Or LUBA ___ (LUBA No. 80-123, February 15, 1981).

(11) Motion to Transfer to Circuit Court:

(a) Any party may request, pursuant to ORS 34.102, that an appeal be transferred to the circuit court of the county in which the appealed decision was made, in the event the Board determines the appealed decision is not reviewable as a land use decision or limited land use decision as defined in 197.015(10) or (12).

(b) A request for a transfer pursuant to ORS 34.102 shall be initiated by filing a motion to transfer to circuit court not later than 14 days after the date a respondent's brief or motion that challenges the Board's jurisdiction is filed. If the Board raises a jurisdictional issue on its own motion, a motion to transfer to circuit court shall be filed not later than 14 days after the date the moving party learns the Board has raised a jurisdictional issue.

(c) If the Board determines the appealed decision is not reviewable as a land use decision or limited land use decision as defined in ORS 197.015(10) or (12), the Board shall dismiss the appeal unless a motion to transfer to circuit court is filed as provided in subsection (11)(b) of this rule, in which case the Board shall transfer the appeal to the circuit court of the county in which the appealed decision was made.

(12) Transfer from Circuit Court: When any appeal of a land use or limited land use decision is transferred to LUBA from circuit court, the petition for writ of review filed in the circuit court shall be treated as the notice of intent to appeal, and the case shall proceed as provided in LUBA's rules, subject to the following:

(a) No additional filing fee shall be required;

(b) After an appeal is transferred to LUBA, the Board, by letter, will establish a deadline for the petitioner to submit the deposit for costs and a deadline for the respondent to transmit the record.

(13) Transfer from the Oregon Department of Land Conservation and Development: Where the Director of the Oregon Department of Land Conservation and Development transfers a matter to LUBA pursuant to ORS 197.825(2)(c)(A), the case shall proceed as provided in LUBA's rules, subject to the following:

(a) The date of the notice from the Director making the transfer shall begin the running of a 21-day period within which one or more parties in the proceedings before the department may file a notice of intent to appeal with LUBA. A notice filed thereafter shall not be deemed timely filed, and the appeal shall be dismissed.

(b) Except as provided in this section, the notice of intent to appeal shall conform to the requirements of OAR 661-010-0015, including payment of the filing fee and deposit for costs. The notice of intent to appeal shall identify the local government as the respondent, rather than the Oregon Department of Land Conservation and Development or the Land Conservation and Development Commission.

(c) On receipt of a notice of intent to appeal, the Board shall, by letter, establish a deadline for the respondent to file the portion of the local record necessary to review the transferred matter. In all other respects, an appeal of a transferred matter shall proceed according to LUBA's rules.

(14) All briefs and motions filed with the Board shall comply with the rules in OAR 661-010-0030(2) with respect to type size, spacing, paper size and printing, numbering and margins.

Criteria and Limitations for Funding — Non-Technical Assistance Projects

(1) The intent of the Legislature was to provide funding to municipalities to assist in complying with the Safe Drinking Water Act and the Clean Water Act. Therefore, priority will be given to projects necessary to ensure that municipal water and wastewater systems comply with the requirements of:

(a) Drinking water quality standards administered by the Oregon Health Authority Drinking Water Services; or

(b) Water quality statutes, rules, orders, or permits administered by DEQ or the Environmental Quality Commission.

(2) If a municipal water or wastewater system has not been issued a notice of non-compliance by the governing regulatory authority, the Authority may determine that a proposed project is eligible for assistance upon a finding that one of the following has been met:

(a) The Authority deems it reasonable and prudent that an award from the fund will assist in bringing the drinking water, storm water or wastewater system into compliance with the requirements of the Safe Drinking Water Act, the Clean Water Act, those requirements proposed to take effect within the next two years, or the requirements of other regulatory agencies recognized by the Authority as having responsibility for the protection of water quality and the supply of clean drinking water; or

(b) A recent letter has been issued by the appropriate regulatory authority, typically the Department of Human Services Drinking Water Program, DEQ, or its contracted agent, which indicates a high probability that the system owner will soon be notified of non-compliance with either the Safe Drinking Water Act or the Clean Water Act.

(3) The Authority generally will not fund projects without the conditions of 123-043-0035(2) being met.

(4) The project must be consistent with the acknowledged local comprehensive plan.

(5) The Authority encourages regionalization whenever feasible.

(6) The Authority encourages asset management planning where possible.

(7) The Authority will apply approved prioritization utilizing criteria listed in this section when reviewing project information contained in project notification intake form.

Criteria and Limitations for Funding — Technical Assistance Projects

(1) Awards are available to municipalities with populations of less than 15,000 people for technical assistance. If the project is for a facility plan or study required by a regulatory agency, the municipality is not required to document non-compliance. Other Technical Assistance projects may be considered after consulting with and receiving documentation of non-compliance from the regulatory agency.

(2) Technical assistance grants and loans are subject to the following limitations:

(a) A grant of up to $20,000 per water, sewer, and storm drainage system may be awarded once every three (3) years for a project;

(b) A loan of up to $50,000 may be awarded for a project. Interest shall be at 75 percent of the annual interest rate for other loans made in accordance with the requirements of this OAR chapter 123, division 43. The loan term shall not exceed seven years;

(c) Pre-award expenses are not eligible for reimbursement;

(d) No more than $600,000 shall be expended from the fund on technical assistance in any biennium. When awarding a grant under this section the Authority will not first consider a municipality's ability to repay a loan; and

(e) The application must meet the requirements listed in OAR 123-043-0075(2).

(3) The loan shall be a full faith and credit obligation which is payable from any taxes which the municipality may levy within the limitations of Article XI of the Oregon Constitution and all legally available revenues and other funds of the municipality. A pledge of specific revenues of the municipality may be pledged in addition to the foregoing.

Loan and Grant Information

(1) The Authority may award financing in a manner that maximizes the use of available resources and maintains the desired credit standards of the fund. The Authority shall determine the amount, type, interest rate and terms of any financing awarded. It may offer an alternate mix or lower amount of assistance than requested. The amount of the award may be the minimum amount that the department determines is necessary to enable the project to proceed, and the Authority may investigate and recommend other sources of funds for all or part of a proposed project. Projects that the Authority determines are not financially feasible will not be funded.

(2) Loans for non-technical assistance projects:

(a) The term of a loan is limited to the usable life of the contracted project, or 30 years from the year of project completion, whichever is less.

(b) Except as provided elsewhere in OAR chapter 123, division 43, the interest rate on a loan is based on market conditions for similar debt and is set at the time of the award.

(c) The interest rate on a bond funded loan is equal to the coupon rates on the state revenue bonds funding the loan. Until the state revenue bonds funding the loan are sold, the municipality will pay interest at a rate established by the Authority on loan funds disbursed to the municipality.

(d) Maximum amount for a loan for a project will be determined by the Authority on the basis of the department's financial analysis of the municipality's capacity for repaying the debt, the availability of moneys in the fund and prudent fund management but will not exceed $10,000,000.

(e) The loan shall be a full faith and credit obligation which is payable from any taxes which the municipality may levy within the limitations of Article XI of the Oregon Constitution and all legally available revenues and other funds of the municipality. A pledge of specific revenues of the municipality may be required by the Authority to be pledged in addition to the foregoing.

(3) Grants for non-technical assistance projects: When making a determination to award a grant, the Authority will apply prudent fiscal management of the fund in order to manage limited funding resources. The Authority shall determine if the project meets the criteria of a grant and make a determination on the amount of the grant based on financial need or other special circumstances. In making its determination, the Authority shall apply the following criteria:

(a) The Authority's financial analysis determines that the municipality's financial resources, including its borrowing capacity, are insufficient to finance the project;

(b) The projected annual residential utility rate for the system is at least equivalent to a minimum rate as determined by the Authority's policy. The Authority's policy may include such factors as the most recent U.S. Census data on median household income and annual adjustments for inflation since the most recent census;

(c) Only a distressed community is eligible for a grant award; and

(d) Grants may be awarded up to $750,000 based on the Department's policy, but not more than 50 percent of the financial award from the fund.

Application Review and Approval

(1) For a non-technical assistance project, the Authority must make the following determinations:

(a) The municipality shall document that a professional engineer registered in the State of Oregon has certified in an engineering report, such as a Master Plan, that the proposed project is feasible, is the most cost effective solution, and adequately serves the applicable land uses in both the short and long term;

(b) The loan is secured by the pledge of utility revenues or other revenues or payments from owners of specially benefited properties, and these revenues or payments are sufficient, when considered with other security, to assure repayment of the loan and the municipality has certified to the Authority that there will be adequate funds available to repay the loans made to the municipality from the fund;

(c) Moneys in the appropriate accounts of the fund are or will be available for the project;

(d) The municipality is willing and able to enter into a contract with the Authority;

(e) The project is consistent with the requirements governing assistance from the fund. If the Authority determines that the municipality or the proposed project does not meet the requirements of this OAR 123-043-

0075, the Authority may reject an application or require further documentation from the municipality; and

(f) The project is ready to begin and the municipality has committed in writing that, if awarded the assistance it shall proceed immediately.

(2) To award assistance from the fund for a technical assistance project, the Authority must make the following determinations:

(a) The technical assistance activities must be for a project that is eligible under the criteria listed in 123-043-0041; and

(b) The municipality has, or has demonstrated the ability to secure, the administrative capacity to undertake and complete the project.

(1) Loan repayment must be secured by a full faith and credit pledge of the municipality;

(2) The loan must be of sufficient size as determined by the Authority;

(3) The loan must be fully amortized over its term with fixed annual principal and interest payments, and the term of the loan must not exceed the usable life of the contracted project or 30 years from the year of project completion, whichever is less;

(4) The loan must conform to the requirements of the bond indenture for the state revenue bonds; and

(5) The loan and the municipality must meet the minimum underwriting criteria for state revenue bond financing as established by Department policies.

Appeals and Exceptions

(1) Appeals of decisions made by the municipality regarding a project must be made at the local level in accordance with the requirements and procedures of the municipality.

(2) The director or the director's designee will consider appeals of the Authority's funding decisions. Only the municipality may appeal. Appeals must be submitted in writing to the director within 30 days of the event or action that is being appealed. A project that would have been funded but for a technical error in the Authority's review of the application, as determined by the director, will be funded as soon as sufficient moneys become available in the fund, provided the project is still viable. The director or the director's designee decision is final.

(3) The director or the director's designee may waive any non-statutory requirements of OAR chapter 123, division 43, if it is demonstrated such a waiver will further the goals and objectives of the program.

(1) General Rule. The Department may amend any contract without additional competition, including reinstatements and cost overruns, but only when the Department has determined:

(a) The amended Contract is within the Scope of the Solicitation Document, or if no Solicitation Document, the Contract; or in the instance of a Special Procurement, the approval of Special Procurement;

(b) The amended Contract does not adversely affect the competitive conditions for the original contract; and

(c) If the Contract was selected according to the Small Procurement method, the total compensation does not exceed $10,000, or, if selected according to the Intermediate Procurement method, the total compensation does not exceed $150,000.

(2) Anticipated Amendments.

(a) "Anticipated Amendment" means the Department has text in any Solicitation Document and the Contract that explains:

(A) The possibility of one or more Amendments;

(B) A general description of circumstances that might require an Amendment to be issued under the Contract and any changes to the requirements of the Contract that may be anticipated or even planned for, but not necessarily quantified at the time of Contract execution. These changes may be described in any Solicitation and Contract as, for example: Extra Work or Goods; Additional Work; Work to be done if certain situations are encountered; or Changes in terms, conditions, price, or type of Work; etc.; and

(C) The provisions of the Contract that are subject to negotiation in order to finalize the details and costs of such an Amendment.

(c) Unlimited Amount. The Department may make one or more Unanticipated Amendments to a Contract without any additional competitive process and for an unlimited amount, subject to section (1) of this rule, and provided the Department's Designated Procurement Officer gives written approval of the Unanticipated Amendment as meeting the following requirements:

(A) The Unanticipated Amendment is due to circumstances that were unforeseen at the time the original Contract was established;

(B) The Unanticipated Amendment does not represent any important general change that alters the essential identity or main purpose of the original Contract, nor is of such importance that it should be a new undertaking; and

(C) The Unanticipated Amendment serves the public interest, including specific reasoning to support that conclusion. Reasons may include, but are not limited to: To address emergencies arising in the course of the Contract that require prompt action to protect the Work already completed or Goods delivered; to comply with official or judicial commands or directives issued during contract performance; or to ensure that the purpose of the Contract will be realized.

Reasons may include, but are not limited to: To address emergencies arising in the course of the Contract that require prompt action to protect the Work already completed; to comply with official or judicial commands or directives issued during contract performance; or to ensure that the purpose of the Contract will be realized.

(2) When a sponsor has received a written request from a public charter school governing body, the sponsor must schedule and hold a public hearing on the renewal request within 45 days from the receipt of the request for renewal.

(3) Within 30 days after the public hearing, the sponsor must either:

(a) Renew the charter; or

(b) State in writing the reasons for denying the renewal of the charter.

(4)(a) A sponsor must base its decision to renew or not renew a charter on a good faith evaluation of whether the charter school:

(A) Is in compliance with state and federal laws;

(B) Is in compliance with the terms of the prior charter;

(C) Is meeting or working toward meeting the student performance goals and agreements specified in the charter or any other written agreements between the sponsor and the public charter school governing body;

(D) Is fiscally stable and evidence that a sound financial management system described in the proposal submitted under ORS 338.045 and incorporated into the written charter was used; and

(E) Is in compliance with any renewal criteria specified in the previous charter, if any.

(b) As used in this section, "good faith evaluation" means an evaluation of all criteria required by this section resulting in a conclusion that a reasonable person would come to who is informed of the law and the facts before that person.

(5) The sponsor must base the evaluation described in subsection (4) of this rule primarily on a review of the public charter school's annual performance reports, annual audit of accounts and annual site visit and review as required by ORS 338.095 and any other information mutually agreed upon by the public charter school governing body and the sponsor.

(6)(a) If the sponsor renews the charter, the sponsor and public charter school governing body shall negotiate in good faith a new charter within 90 days after the date on which the sponsor approved the renewal of the charter, unless both parties agree to an extension of time.

(b) If the sponsor and the charter school governing body have not executed a new charter agreement within 90 days after the date on which the sponsor approved the renewal of the charter or an alternative date agreed to by both parties, the expiring charter shall remain in effect until a new charter is negotiated.

(c) As used in this section, "negotiate in good faith" means to negotiate with an honest exchange of the facts of the matters under consideration with a view to obtaining agreement of each of the parties involved.

(7) If the sponsor does not renew the charter, the public charter school governing body may address the reasons for nonrenewal and resubmit its request to the sponsor within 30 days after the date on which the sponsor notified the public charter school governing body of the decision not to renew the charter. If a sponsor receives a revised request under this section, the sponsor shall review the request using the process required by sections (2) to (6) of this rule. A public charter school governing board may only submit a revised request once under this section unless otherwise specified by the sponsor.

(8) Notwithstanding sections (1) to (7) of this rule, a sponsor and a public charter school governing body may agree in the charter of the school to a timeline for renewing the charter that is different from the timeline required by sections (1) to (7) of this rule.

(9) The State Board of Education delegates to the Superintendent of Public Instruction or designee all administrative functions necessary or reasonable in order to determine if the charter of a school sponsored by the state board should be renewed. The Superintendent or designee shall follow the procedures and timelines required by this rule. This delegation to the Superintendent or designee includes, but is not limited to:

(2) "At Poverty Level" means at 100% of federal poverty guidelines as adopted by the United States Department of Health and Human Service.

(3) "At Risk" means a child who is at risk of not entering school ready to learn due to factors including but not limited to:

(a) Living in a household that is at or near poverty, as determined under federal poverty guidelines;

(b) Living in inadequate or unsafe housing; having inadequate nutrition;

(c) Living in a household where there is significant or documented domestic conflict, disruption or violence;

(d) Having a parent who suffers from mental illness, who engages in substance abuse or who experiences a developmental disability or an intellectual disability;

(e) Living in circumstances under which there is neglectful or abusive care-giving; or

Early Learning Hubs Purpose and Functions

Hubs are established to coordinate services to children ages 0 through 6 in a specific geographic area or community of interest, i.e., a special population not constrained by geography in order to produce better outcomes for children. Hubs are vested with the authority to distribute state and federal funds, coordinate services for children and purchase services for children and families. Hubs can leverage public and private funds in their efforts to attain results. Because Hubs are established to coordinate services with current service providers and, or purchase new services to support specific child centered outcomes, including kindergarten readiness, a Hub that provides direct services must meet additional criteria set forth in OAR 414-900-0020(1)(g)(F).

(1) Hubs must:

(a) Account for outcomes that benefit children within the Hub geographic area or community of interest by:

(A) Aligning service delivery focused on outcomes across five functional sectors and be able to prove that entities that represent the following five functional sectors are participating in the Hub:

(i) Health care services,

(ii) Human and social services,

(iii) Education services,

(iv) Early childhood services, and

(v) Business.

(B) Ensuring that service providers which the Hub coordinates and contracts with are also accountable to the Hub for client-level outcomes supporting Oregon's 40-40-20 Educational Goal.

(b) Complete a community readiness assessment to determine the readiness to effectively coordinate services to achieve outcomes by:

(A) Working with providers the Hub plans to contract with to ensure readiness to provider efficient, outcome focused services, and

(B) Using the community readiness assessment to connect services to outcomes and resources.

(c) Map and coordinate funding to maximize the return of the investment by:

(A) Creating a comprehensive children's budget for the Hub territory modeled on the state level comprehensive children's budget,

(B) Mapping all local, state, federal and philanthropic dollars currently available or committed to the proposed service area and ensuring funders are willing to collaborate toward a set of shared outcomes advancing Oregon's 40-40-20 Educational Goal,

(C) Ensuring that contracted service providers are accountable for providing services in a cost efficient manner, and

(D) Ensuring that no more than 15% of the total funds received from the ELC go toward administrative overhead by the end of the contract period.

(d) If individuals spend more than 15% of their time on administrative functions, their salaries and expenses must be prorated between program and administrative overhead.

(e) Reporting to the ELC on making progress towards the following outcomes:

(A) Kindergarten readiness, in support of Oregon's 40-40-20 Educational Goal,

(B) Stable and attached families, and

(C) System coordination and efficiency.

(2) Reports shall be submitted by the Hub to appropriate interim legislative committee and the ELC by January 1, 2014.

Selection Criteria for Hub Contracts

The Early Learning Council may fund no more than seven Hub Demonstration Projects in fiscal year 2013-2014. The ELC will release a request for applications for Hubs in August 2013. A Hub may provide services to a geographic area or a community of interest. The ELC and Hubs, through either communities of geography or communities of interest, will serve no fewer than 50,000 at risk children in year one.

(1) The ELC will award Hub Demonstration Project contracts based on the degree to which any individual Hub demonstrates the following application criteria:

(a) Representation of the five functional sectors: health care services, human and social services, education services, early childhood services, and business in its governance

(b) A defined service area and cross-sector coordination, including identifying a target population and high quality services for at-risk children and their families,

(c) Accountability for outcomes and return on investment, including improving the results for at-risk children by the ability to identify, evaluate and implement coordinated strategies for ensuring that a child is ready to succeed at school,

(b) For clients enrolled in a CCO responsible for NEMT, the transportation provider must coordinate all transportation services with the client's transportation brokerage or CCO prior to providing services.

(4) The requirements in OAR 410-136-3000 – 410-136-3360 apply to NEMT services for which the Authority is responsible pursuant to this rule.

(5) A brokerage may request that the Authority delay responsibility for reimbursement to clients pursuant to OAR 410-136-3240, Client Reimbursed Mileage, Meals and Lodging, until a CCO in the brokerage's service area assumes NEMT services for the CCO's enrollees. The delay of the brokerage's responsibility also includes reimbursing clients in the fee-for-service delivery system.

(6) OAR 410-136-3040,Vehicle Equipment and Subcontractor Standards, and 410-136-3120, Secured Transports, do not apply to ambulance providers, ambulance vehicles or ambulance personnel that are licensed and regulated by ORS Chapter 682 and OAR chapter 333, divisions 250, 255, 260 and 265, whether providing ambulance or stretcher transports.

General Requirements for NEMT

(1) The Authority may enroll governmental transportation brokerages (local units of government) or other entities to arrange rides and pay subcontractors for NEMT services. The Authority may limit the enrollment with brokerages to units of local government.

(2) For purposes of the rules (OAR 410-136-3000 through 410-136-3360), "subcontractor" means the individual or entity with which the brokerage subcontracts or employs to drive the client to and from OHP covered medical services.

(3) The brokerage shall:

(a) Prior authorize and pay subcontractors for the least costly but most appropriate mode of transport for the client's medical needs to and from an OHP covered medical service. The most appropriate and least costly ride may include requiring the client to share the ride with other clients;

(b) Verify that the client is obtaining OHP covered medical services in the client's local area. "Local area" means an area within the accepted community standard and includes the client's metropolitan area, city or town of residence;

(c) Verify the client's OHP eligibility and that the client's benefit package includes NEMT services. The brokerage shall verify this through electronic eligibility information;

(d) Assess the client's access to other means of transportation, such as driving their own car or getting a ride from a family member or neighbor;

(e) Verify the client's attendance for continuing requests for rides if the medical provider could not affirm an appointment for a previous ride;

(f) Schedule a ride with an alternate subcontractor if the subcontractor originally assigned is unable to provide the ride; and

(g) Assign rides based on an evaluation of several factors, including but not limited to:

(A) Cost;

(B) The client's need for appropriate equipment and transportation;

(C) Any factors related to a subcontractor's capabilities, availability and past performance; and

(D) Any factors related to the brokerage's need to maintain sufficient service capacity to meet client needs.

(4) Pursuant to OAR 410-120-1210, Medical Assistance Benefit Packages and Delivery System, clients receiving the following benefit packages are not eligible for NEMT:

(a) Citizen Alien Waived Emergency Medical (CWM)l; and

(b) Qualified Medicare Beneficiary (QMB) only.

(5) The brokerage shall maintain records of the reasons for authorizing a ride:

(a) That is not cost effective or not based on the factors specified in section (3);

(b) With more than two attendants for an ambulance or stretcher car; or

(c) With more than one attendant for a wheelchair van.

(6) The brokerage shall provide a ride to a client to fill prescription medication only in the following situation:

(a) The client needs to stop on the way home to fill or pick up prescribed medication related to the medical service for which the brokerage provided the ride;

(b) It is medically necessary to fill or pick up the medication immediately; and

(c) The pharmacy is located on the return route or is the closest pharmacy to the return route.

(7) The brokerage may provide a ride to a client to fill prescribed medication under the following situations:

(a) The brokerage asks the client if the prescription service is available through the Authority's contracted postal prescription service, and the client responds that it is not available through that source;

(b) The client has an urgent need to fill or pick up prescribed medication because the postal prescription service mailed the wrong medication, or the client has an unexpected problem caused by the medication; or

(c) The client is transient or without regular access to a mailbox. In this situation, the brokerage may evaluate the need on a case-by-case basis.

(8) The brokerage shall provide rides outside the brokerage's service area, as described in Table 136-3380, under the following circumstances:

(a) The client is receiving an OHP covered medical service that is not available in the service or local area but is available in another area of the state;

(b) The client is receiving a covered service in California, Idaho or Washington where the service location is no more than 75 miles from the Oregon border; or

(c) No local medical provider or facility will provide OHP covered medical services for the client.

(9) Brokerages may coordinate to provide a return ride to a client who receives medical services outside the client's local area.

(10) Brokerages shall retroactively authorize and pay for NEMT services that have already occurred only when the brokerage could not prior authorize the service because the brokerage was closed and the request for authorization is within 30 days of the date of service. The brokerage also must confirm that one of the following circumstances supported the ride:

(a) The eligible client needed urgent medical care;

(b) The eligible client required secured transport pursuant to OAR 410-136-3120, Secured Transports; or

(c) The client was in a hospital, and the hospital discharged or transferred the client.

(11) Notwithstanding section (10), a brokerage shall retroactively authorize NEMT services for ambulance transports when:

(a) An ambulance provider responds to an emergency call, but the client's medical condition does not warrant an emergency transport;

(b) The ambulance provider transports the client as a NEMT service; and

(c) The ambulance provider requests retroactive authorization within 30 days of the NEMT service.

(12) Brokerages shall not authorize or pay for rides outside their service areas based only on client preference or convenience.

(13) Brokerages shall provide toll-free call centers for clients to request rides. The following pertain to the brokerage's call center and scheduling of rides:

(a) The call center shall operate at a minimum Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., but the brokerage may close the call center on New Year's Day, Memorial Day, July 4, Labor Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas. The Authority may approve, in writing, additional days of closure if the brokerage requests the closure at least 30 days in advance.

(b) Brokerages shall make all reasonable efforts for clients to have access to available NEMT services 24 hours a day. When the call center is closed, the brokerages shall provide a recording or answering service to refer the client directly to a subcontractor. If no subcontractor is available, the brokerage must provide clients with recorded information about service hours and how to reach emergency services by calling 911;

(c) The brokerage shall allow a client to schedule rides at least 30 days in advance of the medical service; and

(d) The brokerage shall allow a client to request multiple ride requests at one time.

(e) The brokerage shall develop procedures and make reasonable efforts to arrange a ride requested on the day of the medical service when the medical service is:

(A) For an urgent medical condition; and

(B) Due to the urgency of the medical condition, the client scheduled an immediate medical appointment.

(14) The brokerage is not responsible for providing emergency medical transportation services. However, brokerages shall have procedures for referring clients requesting emergency medical transportation services to the appropriate emergency transportation resources and procedures for subcontractors per OAR 410-136-3040, Vehicle Equipment and Subcontractor Standards.

(15) The Authority shall collaborate with brokerages and CCOs to develop and conduct a statewide client satisfaction survey at least once every two years. The Authority may contract with one or more brokerages to conduct the survey. The Authority shall use the results of the survey to identify and address potential operational deficiencies and to identify and share successes in the NEMT program.

(16) Brokerages shall establish regional advisory groups consisting of representatives from the Authority, DHS, Area Agencies on Aging, consumers, representatives of client advocacy groups from within the service or local area, brokerage subcontractors and providers of NEMT ambulance services. The role of the group includes, but is not limited to:

(a) Assisting in monitoring and evaluating the NEMT program; and

(b) Recommending potential policy or procedure changes and program improvements to brokerages and the Authority and assisting in prioritizing those changes and improvements.

(17) Brokerages shall have the discretion to use or not use DHS-approved volunteers. DHS shall provide brokerages with a list of approved and trained volunteers. DHS shall supervise the volunteers and assumes all liability for each volunteer as provided by law.

(18) Brokerages or their subcontractors shall not bill eligible clients for any transports to and from OHP covered medical services or any transports where the Authority denied reimbursement.

(19) On a minimum of five percent of the ride requests, brokerages shall contact medical providers to verify appointments and that the appointments are for OHP covered medical services.

(20) Brokerages may purchase tickets for common carrier transportation, such as inter- or intra-city bus, train or commercial airline when deemed cost effective and safe for the client.

Insurance Requirements

(1) Brokerages must obtain and maintain general and automobile liability coverage for personal injury and death in accordance with ORS 30.271, Limitations on Liability of State for Personal Injury and Death.

(2) Brokerages must obtain and maintain general and automobile liability coverage for property damage and destruction in accordance with ORS 30.273, Limitations on Liability of Public Bodies for Property Damage or Destruction.

(3) The liability coverage required by sections (1) and (2) of this rule shall include the State of Oregon, Oregon Health Authority and its divisions, officers, employees and agents as additional insureds but only as related to the brokerages' NEMT services.

(4) In lieu of purchasing liability coverage under sections (1) and (2) of this rule, the Authority may authorize a brokerage to establish and maintain a Self-Insurance Reserve Fund. The following apply to requirements of the fund:

(a) The Authority shall establish the fund at $1,000,000 through the fixed rate for rides established in OAR 410-136-3200, Reimbursement and Accounting for all Modes of Transport;

(b) The fund shall comply with OMB Circular 87;

(c) If the brokerage subsequently terminates its enrollment with the state as a Medicaid provider, the brokerage shall refund the Authority the balance of any monies in the fund within two years from the termination of its enrollment or at the conclusion of any claim or litigation related to the brokerage's NEMT services for eligible clients;

(d) Once funded, the fund shall be maintained at an amount not less than $1,000,000 through the fixed rate for rides established in OAR 410-136-3200, Reimbursement and Accounting for all Modes of Transport;

(e) The Authority shall reconcile the fund amount during the annual cost settlement process pursuant to OAR 410-136-3200, Reimbursement and Accounting for all Modes of Transport, and shall increase or decrease the fixed rate for ride to maintain the $1,000,000 fund amount; and

(f) The brokerage shall maintain a separate account for the fund.

(5) Brokerages and their subcontractors that employ workers as defined in ORS 656.027 shall comply with 656.017 and shall provide workers' compensation insurance coverage for those workers, unless they meet the requirement for an exemption under 656.126 (2). Brokerages shall require each of their subcontractors to comply with this requirement.

(6) In lieu of purchasing workers' compensation insurance coverage as required by section (5), a brokerage may self-insure for all of its subject workers. The Authority shall not fund this reserve and shall only reimburse the brokerage for costs of self-insurance in the event of a claim arising from the brokerage's NEMT services to eligible clients.

(7) Brokerages and their subcontractors shall furnish proof of liability coverage and insurance to the Authority upon request.

Transports of Clients Changing Hospitals or Other Facilities

(1) Brokerages shall arrange and pay for transporting an eligible client who has had a change in condition, noted in the client's DHS care plan, resulting in a need for a new service setting with a lower or higher level of care. This includes clients who are changing levels of care between their community-based care settings or between institutional and community-based settings. The client's DHS worker must request the ride.

(2) Brokerages shall not arrange or pay for:

(a) The transport or return of an inpatient client from an admitting hospital to another hospital (or facility) for diagnostic or other short-term services when the patient will return to the admitting hospital within the first 24-hours of admission. The subcontractor shall bill the admitting hospital directly for these transports;

(b) The transport of a client receiving long-term care service in their home or residing in a long-term care facility for the sole purpose of shopping for another long-term care facility, even if the client is looking for a new facility to receive a lower or higher level of care;

(c) The transport of a client moving from one type of facility to a facility of the same type, such as from an adult foster home to another adult foster home; and

(d) The transport of a client who is relocating to another state, unless the transport is to receive an OHP covered medical service pursuant to OAR 410-136-3080, Out-of-State Transportation.

Brokerage Reimbursements to Subcontractors

(1) Brokerages shall reimburse their NEMT subcontractors for the most cost-effective route from point of origin to point of destination that most benefits the client's condition.

(2) Brokerages shall establish a base rate with its subcontractors. "Base rate" for all modes of transportation except ground and air ambulance means the rate the brokerage and its subcontractors agree on for each mode of transportation.

(3) If a subcontractor uses an ambulance as a stretcher car or van, the brokerage shall reimburse the subcontractor using the base rate for stretcher cars or vans.

(4) Notwithstanding section (3), brokerages shall pay ambulance subcontractors at the ambulance rate instead of the stretcher car or van rate when the transport exceeds two hours, necessitating a health care professional to care for the client during the ride.

(5) Brokerages shall not reimburse their subcontractors for waiting for clients to get to the vehicle or for assisting clients to get in or out of a vehicle.

(6) Brokerages may reimburse their subcontractors for waiting time:

(a) In special situations, such as when the subcontractor has to wait for a client who is using the subcontractor's gurney and cannot transfer to a gurney at a medical facility; or

(b) Because of a medical issue during the ride, such as:

(A) The client is nauseous or is vomiting after dialysis or chemotherapy; or

(B) The client needs to stop to get prescription medication or medical supplies related to the medical service.

(7) Brokerages shall reimburse their subcontractors at the base rate for ambulatory vehicles if the subcontractor provides a ride to an ambulatory client in a non-ambulatory vehicle.

(8) Brokerages may authorize a subcontractor to transport a non-ambulatory client in an ambulatory vehicle if the vehicle can accommodate and transport the client and if allowed by local ordinance. The brokerage shall reimburse its subcontractor at the non-ambulatory vehicle rate.

(9) The wheelchair base rate applies to the transport of a client with a reclining wheelchair; wheelchairs do not qualify as stretchers or gurneys.

(10) The following applies to reimbursement for deceased clients:

(a) If a client dies before the subcontractor arrives at the scene, the brokerage shall not reimburse its subcontractors; or

(b) If a client dies after the transport begins but before reaching the destination, the brokerage's payment is limited to the base rate for the mode of transportation and mileage. For ambulance transports, the payment also would include costs for an extra attendant, if applicable.

(11) Brokerages may authorize shared-ride transports of two or more clients at the same time when the shared-ride transports are allowable under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA).

(12) Brokerages shall reimburse subcontractors:

(a) At the full base rate for the first client and one-half the base rate for each additional client when all of these clients need the same mode of transportation, such as by wheelchair van; or

(b) At the full base rate for the client with the need for the highest mode of transportation and one-half the base rate of the appropriate mode of transportation for each additional client. This applies when the additional client needs a less costly mode of transportation than the first client. For example, the first client needs an ambulance, but the additional client needs a less costly wheelchair van.

(13) When transporting two or more clients at the same time, brokerages shall pay subcontractors only from the first pickup point to the final destination under the following circumstances:

(a) The clients have a single pick up point but different destinations;

(b) The clients have different pick up points but a single destination; or

(c) The clients have different pick up points and different destinations.

(14) Brokerages shall reimburse subcontractors only for actual miles traveled, regardless of the number of clients transported.

(15) A brokerage shall not reimburse a subcontractor if:

(a) A county or city ordinance prohibits any charging for services identified in the medical transportation services administrative rules; or

(b) The subcontractor does not charge the public for such services.

Client Reimbursed Mileage, Meals and Lodging

(1) The brokerage must prior authorize a client's mileage, meals and lodging to an OHP covered medical service in order for the client to qualify for reimbursement. If the brokerage prior authorized the travel costs, a client may request reimbursement up to 45 days after the travel.

(2) The client must return any documentation the brokerage requires before receiving reimbursement. Documentation required shall include a receipt for lodging.

(3) The brokerage may hold reimbursements under the amount of $10 until the client's reimbursement reaches $10.

(4) Brokerages shall reimburse clients for meals when a client, with or without an attendant, travels a minimum of four hours round-trip out of their local area. The travel, however, must span the following meal times:

(a) For a breakfast allowance, the travel must begin before 6 a.m.;

(b) For a lunch allowance, the travel must span the entire period from 11:30 a.m. through 1:30 p.m.; and

(c) For a dinner allowance, the travel must end after 6:30 p.m.

(5) Brokerages shall reimburse for meals at the Authority's allowable rate.

(6) Brokerages shall not reimburse clients for meals that a hospital or other medical facility provides.

(7) Brokerages shall reimburse clients for lodging when:

(a) A client would otherwise be required to begin travel before 5 a.m. in order to reach a scheduled appointment;

(b) Travel from a scheduled appointment would end after 9 p.m.; or

(c) The client's health care provider documents a medical need.

(8) Brokerages shall reimburse for lodging at the Authority's allowable rate or the actual cost of the lodging, whichever is less.

(9) Brokerages shall reimburse for meals or lodging for only one attendant, which may be a parent, to accompany the client if medically necessary, but only if:

(a) The client is a minor child and unable to travel without an attendant;

(b) The client's attending physician provides a signed statement indicating the reason an attendant must travel with the client;

(c) The client is mentally or physically unable to reach his or her medical appointment without assistance; or

(d) The client is or would be unable to return home without assistance after the treatment or service.

(10) The brokerage shall not reimburse for the attendant's time or services.

(11) If a client's health care provider admits the client for inpatient care, an attendant is no longer medically necessary because the facility provides all necessary services for the client. Therefore, the attendant is no longer eligible for lodging and travel expenses. The brokerage shall reimburse for meals and lodging for the attendant's transportation home. However, the brokerage may pay for the attendant's meals and lodging if it is more cost effective for the attendant to remain near the client to accompany the client on the return trip as allowed by section (12).

(12) Upon the client's release from inpatient care, if the attendant is medically necessary based on one of the conditions or circumstances listed in section (9), the brokerage shall reimburse for the attendant to return to the inpatient facility to accompany the client on the return trip. This only applies if the brokerage prior authorizes the attendant's travel.

(13) Brokerages shall not reimburse for mileage, meals and lodging for an attendant visiting an inpatient client, unless the physician provides a signed statement of the medical need. This exclusion includes, but is not limited to, parents of minors, breastfeeding mothers and spouses.

(14) The state shall recover overpayments made to a client. Overpayments occur when the brokerage paid the client:

(a) For mileage, meals and lodging, and another resource also paid:

(A) The client or;

(B) The ride, meal or lodging provider directly;

(b) Directly to travel to medical appointments, and the client did not use the money for that purpose, did not attend the appointment or shared the ride with another client whom the brokerage also directly paid;

(c) For common carrier or public transportation tickets or passes, and the client sold or otherwise transferred the tickets or passes to another person.

(15) If a person or entity other than the client or the minor client's parent or legal guardian provides the ride, the brokerage may reimburse the person or entity that provided the ride. However, the client or the minor client's parent or legal guardian must approve in writing of the reimbursement.

Rule Caption: Add arbitration language for HCE and CCO Contracting Disputes
Adm. Order No.: DMAP 70-2013(Temp)
Filed with Sec. of State: 12-24-2013
Certified to be Effective: 1-1-14 thru 6-30-14
Notice Publication Date:
Rules Amended: 410-141-3268
Subject: The Medical Assistance Program needs to amend this rule to incorporate arbitration language for when a dispute involves a Health Care Entity (HCE) who chooses not to contract with a Coordinated Care Organization (CCO). Changes have been made for clarity of rule language, legislative intent and program requirements. This rule revision is needed immediately to assist the CCOs who currently have or will be seeking contractual relationships with a Health Care Entity.
Rules Coordinator: Sandy Cafourek—(503) 945-6430

410-141-3268
Process for Resolving Disputes on Formation of CCO

(1) The dispute resolution process described in this rule applies only when, under ORS 414.635:

(a) An entity is applying to the Authority for certification as a CCO (applicant);

(b) A Health Care Entity (HCE) and the applicant (together, the "parties" for purposes of this rule) have failed to agree upon terms for a contract; and

(c) One or more of the following occurs:

(A) The applicant states that the HCE is necessary for the applicant to qualify as a CCO;

(B) An HCE states that its inclusion is necessary for the applicant to be certified as a CCO; or

(C) In reviewing the applicant's information, the Authority identifies the HCE as necessary for the applicant to qualify as a CCO.

(2) If an applicant and HCE disagree about whether the HCE is necessary for the applicant's certification as a CCO, the applicant or HCE may request the Authority to review the issue.

(3) If the Authority determines the HCE is not necessary for the applicant's certification, the process described in this rule does not apply.

(4) If the Authority determines or the parties agree the HCE is necessary for the applicant's certification, the following applies:

(a) The HCE and the applicant shall participate in good faith contract negotiations. The parties must take the following actions in an attempt to reach a good faith resolution:

(A) The applicant must provide a written offer of terms and conditions to the HCE. The HCE must explain the area of disagreement to the applicant;

(B) The applicant's or HCE's chief financial officer, chief executive officer, or an individual authorized to make decisions on behalf of the HCE or applicant must have at least one face-to-face meeting in a good faith effort to resolve the disagreement.

(b) The applicant or HCE may request the Authority to provide technical assistance. The Authority also may offer technical assistance, with or without a request. The Authority's technical assistance is limited to clarifying the CCO certification process, criteria, and other program requirements.

(5) Pursuant to 2013 Engrossed SB 568 and 2013 Oregon Laws chapter 27, if the applicant and HCE cannot reach agreement on contract terms within ten (10) calendar days of the face-to-face meeting, either party may request arbitration. The requesting party must notify the other party in writing to initiate a referral to an independent third party arbitrator; for a HCE's refusal to contract with the CCO or the termination, extension or renewal of a HCE's contract with a CCO. The party initiating the referral must provide a copy of the notification to the Authority.

(6) After notification that one party initiated arbitration, the parties shall attempt to agree upon the selection of the arbitrator and complete the paperwork required to secure the arbitrator's services. If the parties are unable to agree, each party shall appoint an arbitrator, and these arbitrators shall select the final arbitrator.

(7) The parties shall pay for all arbitration costs. In consideration of potentially varied financial resources between the parties, which may pose a barrier to the use of this process, the parties may ask the arbitrator to allocate costs between the parties based on ability to pay.

(8) Within ten (10) calendar days of a referral to an arbitrator, the applicant and HCE must submit to each other and to the arbitrator:

(a) The most reasonable contract offer; or

(b) The HCE's statement that a contract is not desirable and an explanation of why this is reasonable.

(9) Within ten (10) calendar days of receiving the other party's offer or the HCE's statement that a contract is not desirable, each party must submit to the arbitrator and the other party the advocacy briefs regarding whether the HCE is reasonably or unreasonably refusing to contract with the applicant.

(10) The arbitrator shall apply the following standards when making a determination about whether an HCE reasonably or unreasonably refused to contract with the applicant:

(a) An HCE may reasonably refuse to contract when an applicant's reimbursement to an HCE for a health service is below the reasonable cost to provide the service. The arbitrator shall apply federal or state statutes or regulations that establish specific reimbursements, such as payments to federally qualified health centers, rural health centers and tribal health centers; and

(b) An HCE may reasonably refuse to contract if that refusal is justified in fact or by circumstances, taking into consideration the Health Services Transformation (HST) legislative policies. Facts or circumstances outlining what is a reasonable or unreasonable refusal to contract include, but are not limited to:

(A) Whether contracting with the applicant would impose demands that the HCE, taking into consideration the legislative policies described in the HST laws, cannot reasonably meet without significant negative impact on HCE costs, obligations or structure, in the context of the proposed reimbursement arrangement or other CCO requirements, including, but not limited to, the use of electronic health records, service delivery requirements or quality or performance requirements;

(B) Whether the HCE's refusal affects access to covered services in the applicant's community. This factor alone cannot result in a finding that the refusal to contract is unreasonable; however, the HCE and applicant should make a good faith effort to work out differences in order to achieve beneficial community objectives and HST policy objectives;

(C) Whether the HCE has entered into a binding obligation to participate in the network of a different CCO or applicant, and that participation significantly reduces the HCE's capacity to contract with the applicant.

(11) The following outlines the arbitrator determination and the parties' final opportunity to settle:

(a) The arbitrator must evaluate the final offers or statement of refusal to contract and the advocacy briefs from each party and issue a determination within 15 calendar days of the receipt of the parties' information;

(b) The arbitrator shall provide the determination to the parties. The arbitrator and the parties may not disclose the determination to the Authority for ten (10) calendar days to allow the parties an opportunity to resolve the issue themselves. If the parties resolve the issue no later than the end of the tenth day, the arbitrator may not release the determination to the Authority;

(c) If the parties have not reached an agreement after ten (10) calendar days, the arbitrator must provide its decision to the Authority. After submission to the Authority, the arbitrator's determination becomes a public record, subject to protection of trade secret information if identified by one of the parties prior to the arbitrator's submission of the determination.

(12) If the parties cannot agree, the Authority shall evaluate the arbitrator's determination and may take the following actions:

(a) The Authority may certify an applicant if the arbitrator determined the applicant made a reasonable attempt to contract with the HCE or the HCE's refusal to contract was unreasonable;

(b) The Authority may refuse to certify, recertify or continue to certify an applicant when the arbitrator determined the applicant did not reasonably attempt to contract with the HCE or the HCE's refusal to contract was reasonable, and the Authority determines that participation from the HCE remains necessary for certification of applicant as a CCO;

(c) The Authority may not pay fee-for-service reimbursements to an HCE if the arbitrator determined the HCE unreasonably refused to contract with the applicant; this applies to health services available through a CCO;

(d) In any circumstance within the scope of this rule when the parties have failed to agree, the current statutes regarding reimbursement to non-participating providers shall apply to certified CCOs and the HCE, consistent with ORS 414.743 for hospitals, and consistent with Authority rules for other providers.

(13) To be qualified to resolve disputes under this rule, the arbitrator must:

(a) Be a knowledgeable and experienced arbitrator;

(b) Be familiar with health care provider contracting matters;

(c) Be familiar with HST; and

(d) Follow the terms and conditions specified in this rule for the arbitration process.

(a) Hospitals;

(b) Federally qualified health centers/rural health clinics (FQHC/RHCs);

(c) County health departments;

(g) Other primary care clinics as approved by the Authority.

(3) The site shall send all employees that will be assisting to a mandatory Authority training session for application assistance certification. Employees must pass a test provided at that training session before initiating application assistance service. At least one trained employee must be a permanent employee of the site. Sites shall ensure that individuals performing application assistance are recertified at appropriate times as set forth by the Authority. Rule Caption: Annual Relative Value Unit (RVU) weight update
Adm. Order No.: DMAP 72-2013(Temp)
Filed with Sec. of State: 12-30-2013
Certified to be Effective: 12-30-13 thru 6-28-14
Notice Publication Date:
Rules Amended: 410-120-1340

Subject: The Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) General Rules, administrative rules govern payments for services provided to certain eligible clients. The Division temporarily amends 410-120-1340 to implement the annual update to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS) Relative Value Unit (RVU) weights for physician services.

Rules Coordinator: Sandy Cafourek—(503) 945-6430

410-120-1340

Payment

(1) The Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) shall make payment only to the enrolled provider (see OAR 410-120-1260) who actually performs the service or to the provider's enrolled billing provider for covered services rendered to eligible clients.

(2) Division reimbursement for services may be subject to review prior to reimbursement.

(3) The Division that is administering the program under which the billed services or items are provided sets fee-for-service (FFS) payment rates.

(4) The Division uses FFS payment rates in effect on the date of service that are the lesser of:

(a) The amount billed;

(b) The Division maximum allowable amount or;

(c) Reimbursement specified in the individual program provider rules:

(5) Amount billed may not exceed the provider's "usual charge" (see definitions);

(6) The Division's maximum allowable rate setting process uses the following methodology for:

(a) Relative Value Unit (RVU) weight-based rates: For all CPT/HCPCS codes assigned an RVU weight, the 2014 Total RVU weights published in the Federal Register, Vol. 78, December 10, 2013 to be effective for dates of services on or after January 1, 2014.

(A) For professional services not typically performed in a facility, the Non-Facility Total RVU weight;

(B) For professional services typically performed in a facility, the Facility Total RVU weight;

(C) The Division applies the following conversion factors:

(i) $40.79 for labor and delivery codes (59400-59622);

(ii) $36.0666 for Federally Qualified primary care codes billed by providers meeting the criteria in OAR 410-130-0005;

(iii) $27.82 for other Oregon primary care providers and services not specified in (ii). A current list of primary care CPT, HCPCs and provider specialty codes is available at http://www.oregon.gov/OHA/healthplan/data_pubs/feeschedule/main.shtml

(iv) $25.48 for all remaining RVU weight based CPT/HCPCS codes.

(D) Rate calculation: Effective January 1, 2014, the Division will calculate rates for each RVU weight-based code using statewide Geographic Practice Cost Indices (GPCIs) as follows:

(i) Work RVU) X (Work GPCI of .986) + (Practice Expense RVU) X (Practice GPCI of 0.972) + (Malpractice RVU) X (Malpractice GPCI of 0.667);

(ii) Sum in (D)(i) multiplied by the applicable conversion factor in section C.

(b) Non RVU based rates:

(A) $20.78 is the base rate for anesthesia service codes 00100-01996. The rate is based on per unit of service;

(B) Clinical lab codes are priced at 70 percent of the 2014 Medicare clinical lab fee schedule;

(C) All approved Ambulatory Surgical Center (ASC) procedures are reimbursed at 80 percent of the 2013 Medicare fee schedule;

(D) Physician administered drugs, billed under a HCPCS code, are based on Medicare's Average Sale Price (ASP). When no ASP rate is listed the rate shall be based upon the Wholesale Acquisition Price (WAC) plus 6.25 percent. If no WAC is available, then the rate shall be reimbursed at Acquisition Cost. Pricing information for WAC is provided by First Data Bank. These rates may change periodically based on drug costs;

(E) All procedures used for vision materials and supplies are based on contracted rates that include acquisition cost plus shipping and handling.

(F) Individual provider rules may specify reimbursement rates for particular services or items.

(7) The rates in (6) are updated periodically and posted on the Authority web site at http://www.oregon.gov/OHA/healthplan/data_pubs/feeschedule/main.shtml.

(8) The Division reimburses inpatient hospital service under the DRG methodology, unless specified otherwise in the Division's Hospital Services Program administrative rules (chapter 410, division 125). Reimbursement for services, including claims paid at DRG rates, shall not exceed any upper limits established by federal regulation.

(9) The Division reimburses all out-of-state hospital services at Oregon DRG or FFS rates as published in the Hospital Services Program rules (OAR chapter 410, division 125) unless the hospital has a contract or service agreement with the Division to provide highly specialized services.

(10) Payment rates for in-home services provided through Department of Human Services (Department) Aging and People with Disabilities (APD) will not exceed the costs of nursing facility services unless the criteria in OAR 411-027-0020 have been met.

(11) The Division sets payment rates for out-of-state institutions and similar facilities, such as skilled nursing care facilities, psychiatric and rehabilitative care facilities at a rate that is:

(a) Consistent with similar services provided in the State of Oregon; and

(b) The lesser of the rate paid to the most similar facility licensed in the State of Oregon or the rate paid by the Medical Assistance Programs in that state for that service; or

(c) The rate established by APD for out-of-state nursing facilities.

(12) The Division shall not make payment on claims that have been assigned, sold, or otherwise transferred or when the billing provider, billing agent or billing service receives a percentage of the amount billed or collected or payment authorized. This includes, but is not limited to, transfer to a collection agency or individual who advances money to a provider for accounts receivable.

(13) The Division shall not make a separate payment or copayment to a nursing facility or other provider for services included in the nursing facility's all-inclusive rate. The following services are not included in the all-inclusive rate (OAR 411-070-0085) and may be separately reimbursed:

(a) Legend drugs, biologicals and hyperalimentation drugs and supplies, and enteral nutritional formula as addressed in the Pharmaceutical Services Program administrative rules (chapter 410, division 121) and Home Enteral/Parenteral Nutrition and IV Services Program administrative rules, (chapter 410, division 148);

(b) Physical therapy, speech therapy, and occupational therapy provided by a non-employee of the nursing facility within the appropriate program administrative rules (chapter 410, division 129 and 131);

(c) Continuous oxygen which exceeds 1,000 liters per day by lease of a concentrator or concentrators as addressed in the Durable Medical Equipment, Prosthetics, Orthotics and Supplies Program administrative rules, (chapter 410, division 122);

(d) Influenza immunization serum as described in the Pharmaceutical Services Program administrative rules, (chapter 410, division 121);

(e) Podiatry services provided under the rules in the Medical-Surgical Services Program administrative rules, (chapter 410, division 130);

(g) Certain custom fitted or specialized equipment as specified in the Durable Medical Equipment, Prosthetics, Orthotics and Supplies Program administrative rules, (chapter 410, division 122).

(14) The Division reimburses hospice services based on CMS Core-Based Statistical Areas (CBSA's). A separate payment will not be made for services included in the core package of services as outlined in OAR chapter 410, division 142.

(15) Payment for Division clients with Medicare and full Medicaid:

(a) The Division limits payment to the Medicaid allowed amount, less the Medicare payment, up to the Medicare co-insurance and deductible, whichever is less. The Division's payment cannot exceed the co-insurance and deductible amounts due;

(b) The Division pays the Division allowable rate for Division covered services that are not covered by Medicare.

(16) For clients with third-party resources (TPR), the Division pays the Division allowed rate less the TPR payment but not to exceed the billed amount.

(17) The Division payments, including contracted PHP or CCO payments, unless in error, constitute payment in full, except in limited instances involving allowable spend-down or copayments. For the Division, such payment in full includes:

(a) Zero payments for claims where a third party or other resource has paid an amount equivalent to or exceeding Division allowable payment; and

(b) Denials of payment for failure to submit a claim in a timely manner, failure to obtain payment authorization in a timely and appropriate manner, or failure to follow other required procedures identified in the individual provider rules.

(18) Payment by the Division does not restrict or limit the Authority or any state or federal oversight entity's right to review or audit a claim before or after the payment. Claim payment may be denied or subject to recovery if medical review, audit or other post-payment review determines the service was not provided in accordance with applicable rules or does not meet the criteria for quality of care, or medical appropriateness of the care or payment.

Rule Caption: Payment process for doula services provided at the time of labor and delivery
Adm. Order No.: DMAP 73-2013
Filed with Sec. of State: 12-31-2013
Certified to be Effective: 1-1-14
Notice Publication Date: 12-1-2013
Rules Adopted: 410-130-0015
Subject: House Bill 3650, passed during the 2011 legislative session, mandates that members enrolled in Medicaid have access to Traditional Health Workers (THWs) to facilitate culturally and linguistically appropriate care. The Traditional Health Worker Steering Committee under the Office of Equity and Inclusion identified doulas as Traditional Health Care workers. The Authority adopted OAR 410-180-0300 through 0380 establishing the process for training, certification, and registry enrollment of doulas and other traditional healthcare workers. This rule sets forth the requirement for reimbursing doula services provided to eligible members.

Doula Services

(1) The primary purpose of providing concurrent doula services with the services of a licensed obstetrical practitioner is to optimize birth outcomes, including reduced Caesarian sections, epidural use, reduced assisted vaginal deliveries, and reduce the number of neonatal care unit admissions. These face-to-face services are provided only during the labor and delivery phase of the client's pregnancy. The following are expected to benefit most from doula services:

(a) A woman with a racially or ethnically diverse background including, Black/African American, Asian, Pacific Islander, Native American, Latino or multiracial;

(b) A homeless woman;

(c) A woman who speaks limited to no English;

(d) A woman who has limited to no family or partner support; or

(e) A woman who is under the age of 21;

(2) Doula services may be provided only at the request of the licensed obstetrical practitioner. The doula and licensed obstetrical practitioner must work concurrently. The licensed obstetrical practitioner must be a physician or advance practice nurse.

(3) Doulas must be certified and registered with the Authority pursuant to OAR 410-180-0325 through 0327. Certification must be effective at the time doula services are provided. Doulas must provide proof of certification to the practitioner.

(4) Doula services are covered for any woman whose benefit package covers labor and delivery.

(5) The provision of doula services during labor and delivery must be documented in the client's medical record by the licensed obstetrical practitioner.

(6) Payment for doula's services

(a) The licensed obstetrical practitioner may be eligible for an additional payment, as remuneration for the attending doula providing the doula services;

(b) Doulas may not receive direct payment from the Division;

(c) To be considered for the additional payment, the professional claim for the delivery services must include the unique Medicaid modifier of U9 appended to the appropriate obstetrical code billed at the time of delivery;

(d) This modifier may only be billed once per pregnancy. Multiples (i.e., twins, triplets) are not eligible for additional payment for the doula's services;

(e) Only one additional payment shall be made for doula services regardless of the number of doulas providing the services;

(f) Only providers with a provider type designation of 34 or 42 may bill the U9 modifier.

(7) Doula services at the time of delivery are the only services eligible for payment under this rule. Services provided during the prenatal and postnatal period are governed by OAR 410-130-0595 (Maternity Case Management).

(c) Young adults in Substitute Care and in the Former Foster Care Youth Medical Program;

(d) Clients receiving services under the home and community based waiver and developmental disability waiver;

(e) Inpatients in a hospital, nursing facility, or Intermediate Care Facility for the Mentally Retarded (ICF/MR);

(f) American Indian/Alaska Native (AI/AN) clients who are members of a federally recognized Indian tribe or receive services through Indian Health Services (IHS), tribal organization or services provided at an Urban Tribal Health Clinic as provided under Public Law 93-638;(g) Individuals receiving hospice care;

(h) Individuals eligible for the Breast and Cervical Cancer Program.

(4) Co-payment for services is due and payable at the time the service is provided unless exempted in sections (2) and (3) above. Services to a client may not be denied solely because of an inability to pay an applicable co-payment. This does not relieve the client of the responsibility to pay the co-payment, nor does it prevent the provider from attempting to collect any applicable co-payments from the client; the co-payment is a legal debt, and is due and payable to the provider of service.

(5) Except for prescription drugs, one co-payment is assessed per provider, per visit, per day unless otherwise specified in other Division program administrative rules.

(6) Fee-for-service co-payment requirements:

(a) The provider may not deduct the co-payment amount from the usual and customary billed amount submitted on the claim. Except as provided in section (2) and (3) of this rule, the Division shall deduct the co-payment from the amount the Division pays to the provider (whether or not provider collects the co-payment from the client);

(b) If the Division's payment is less than the required co-payment, then the co-payment amount is equal to the Division's lesser required payment, unless the client or services are exempt according to exclusions listed in sections (2) and (3) above. The client's co-payment shall constitute payment-in-full;

(c) Unless specified otherwise in individual program rules, and to the extent permitted under 42 CFR 1001.951 – 1001.952, the Division does not require providers to bill or collect a co-payment from the Medicaid client. The provider may choose not to bill or collect a co-payment from a Medicaid client; however, the Division shall still deduct the co-payment amount from the Medicaid reimbursement made to the provider.

(7) CCO, PHP, or PCO co-payment requirements:

(a) Unless specified otherwise in individual program rules, and to the extent permitted under 42 CFR 447.58 and 447.60, the Division does not require CCOs, PHP or PCOs to bill or collect a co-payment from the Medicaid client. The CCO, PHP or PCO may choose not to bill or collect a co-payment from a Medicaid client; however, the Division shall still deduct the co-payment amount from the Medicaid reimbursement made to the CCO, PHP or PCO;

(b) When a CCO, PHP or PCO is operating within the scope of the safe harbor regulation outlined in 42 CFR 1001.952(l), a CCO, PHP, or PCO may elect to assess a co-payment on some of the services outlined in table 120-1230-1 but not all. The CCO, PHP, or PCO must assure they are working within the provisions of 42 CFR 1003.102(b) (13).

(8) Services that require co-payments are listed in Table 120-1230-1:

Definition of Terms

(1) Anesthesia — The following depicts the Division of Medical Assistance Programs' (Division) usage of certain anesthesia terms; however, for further details refer also to the Oregon Board of Dentistry administrative rules (OAR chapter 818, division 026):

(a) Conscious Sedation:

(A) Deep Sedation — A drug-induced depression of consciousness during which patients cannot be easily aroused but respond purposefully following repeated or painful stimulation. The ability to independently maintain ventilatory function may be impaired. Patients may require assistance maintaining a patient airway, and spontaneous ventilation may be inadequate. Cardiovascular function is usually maintained;

(B) Minimal sedation — A minimally depressed level of consciousness, produced by non-intravenous pharmacological methods, that retains the patient's ability to independently and continuously maintain an airway and respond normally to tactile stimulation and verbal command. When the intent is minimal sedation for adults, the appropriate initial dosing of a single non-intravenous pharmacological method is no more than the maximum recommended dose (MRD) of a drug that can be prescribed for unmonitored home use. Nitrous oxide/oxygen may be used in combination with a single non-intravenous pharmacological method in minimal sedation;

(C) Moderate sedation — A drug-induced depression of consciousness during which the patient responds purposefully to verbal commands, either alone or accompanied by light tactile stimulation. No interventions are required to maintain a patient airway, and spontaneous ventilation is adequate. Cardiovascular function is usually maintained;

(b) General Anesthesia — A drug-induced loss of consciousness during which the patient is not arousable, even by painful stimulation. The ability to independently maintain ventilatory function is often impaired. Patients often require assistance in maintaining a patient airway, and positive pressure ventilation may be required because of depressed spontaneous ventilation or drug-induced depression of neuromuscular function. Cardiovascular function may be impaired;

(c) Local anesthesia — The elimination of sensation, especially pain, in one part of the body by the topical application or regional injection of a drug;

(d) Nitrous Oxide Sedation — An induced controlled state of minimal sedation, produced solely by the inhalation of a combination of nitrous oxide and oxygen, in which the patient retains the ability to independently and continuously maintain an airway and to respond purposefully to physical stimulation and to verbal command;

(2) Citizen/Alien-Waived Emergency Medical (CAWEM) — Refer to OAR 410-120-0000 for definition of clients who are eligible for limited emergency services under the CAWEM benefit package. The definition of emergency services does not apply to CAWEM clients. OAR 410-120-1210 provides a complete description of limited emergency coverage pertaining to the CAWEM benefit package.

(3) Covered Services — Services on the Health Evidence Review Commission's (HERC) Prioritized List of Health Services (Prioritized List) that have been funded by the Legislature and identified in specific program rules. Services are limited as directed by General Rules — Excluded Services and Limitations (OAR 410-120-1200), the Division's Dental Services Program rules (chapter 410, division 123) and the Prioritized List. Services that are not considered emergency dental services as defined by OAR 410-123-1060(12) are considered routine services.

(4) Dental Hygienist — A person licensed to practice dental hygiene pursuant to State law.

(5) Dental Hygienist with Expanded Practice Dental Hygiene Permit (EPDH) — A person licensed to practice dental hygiene with an EPDH permit issued by the Board of Dentistry and within the scope of an EPDH permit pursuant to State law.

(6) Dental Practitioner — A person licensed pursuant to State law to engage in the provision of dental services within the scope of the practitioner's license and/or certification.

(7) Dental Services — Services provided within the scope of practice as defined under State law by or under the supervision of a dentist or dental hygienist, or denture services provided within the scope of practice as defined under State law by a denturist.

(8) Dental Services Documentation — Must meet the requirements of the Oregon Dental Practice Act statutes; administrative rules for client records and requirements of OAR 410-120-1360, "Requirements for Financial, Clinical and Other Records;" and any other documentation requirements as outlined in the Dental rules.

(9) Dentally Appropriate — In accordance with OAR 410-141-0000, services that are required for prevention, diagnosis or treatment of a dental condition and that are:

(a) Consistent with the symptoms of a dental condition or treatment of a dental condition;

(b) Appropriate with regard to standards of good dental practice and generally recognized by the relevant scientific community, evidence-based medicine and professional standards of care as effective;

(c) Not solely for the convenience of a OHP member or a provider of the service; and

(d) The most cost effective of the alternative levels of dental services that can be safely provided to a Division member.

(10) Dentist — A person licensed to practice dentistry pursuant to State law.

(11) Denturist — A person licensed to practice denture technology pursuant to State law.

(12) Direct Pulp Cap — The procedure in which the exposed pulp is covered with a dressing or cement that protects the pulp and promotes healing and repair.

(13) Emergency Services:

(a) Refer to OAR 410-120-0000 for the complete definition of emergency services. (This definition of emergency services does not apply to CAWEM clients. OAR 410-120-1210 provides a complete description of limited emergency coverage pertaining to the CAWEM benefit package);

(b) Covered services for an emergency dental condition manifesting itself by acute symptoms of sufficient severity requiring immediate treatment. This includes services to treat the following conditions:

(A) Acute infection;

(B) Acute abscesses;

(C) Severe tooth pain;

(D) Unusual swelling of the face or gums; or

(E) A tooth that has been avulsed (knocked out);

(c) The treatment of an emergency dental condition is limited only to covered services. The Division recognizes that some non-covered services may meet the criteria of treatment for the emergency condition; however, this rule does not extend to those non-covered services. Routine dental treatment or treatment of incipient decay does not constitute emergency care;

(14) Hospital Dentistry — Dental services normally done in a dental office setting, but due to specific client need (as detailed in OAR 410-123-1490) are provided in an ambulatory surgical center, inpatient, or outpatient hospital setting under general anesthesia (or IV conscious sedation, if appropriate).

(15) Medical Practitioner — A person licensed pursuant to State law to engage in the provision of medical services within the scope of the practitioner's license and/or certification.

(16) Procedure Codes — The procedure codes in the Dental Services rulebook (OAR chapter 410, division 123) refer to Current Dental Terminology (CDT), unless otherwise noted. Codes listed in this rulebook and other documents incorporated in rule by reference are subject to change by the American Dental Association (ADA) without notification.

(17) Standard of Care — What reasonable and prudent practitioners would do in the same or similar circumstances.

OHP Plus Dental Benefits

(1) General:

(a) Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnosis and Treatment (EPSDT):

(A) Refer to Code of Federal Regulations (42 CFR 441, Subpart B) and OAR chapter 410, division 120 for definitions of the EPSDT program, eligible clients, and related services. EPSDT dental services includes, but are not limited to:

(i) Dental screening services for eligible EPSDT individuals; and

(ii) Dental diagnosis and treatment which is indicated by screening, at as early an age as necessary, needed for relief of pain and infections, restoration of teeth and maintenance of dental health;

(B) Providers must provide EPSDT services for eligible Division clients according to the following documents:

(i) The Dental Services Program administrative rules (OAR chapter 410, division 123), for dentally appropriate services funded on the Oregon Health Evidence Review Commission Prioritized List of Health Services (Prioritized List); and

(ii) The "Oregon Health Plan (OHP) — Recommended Dental Periodicity Schedule," dated January 1, 2010, incorporated by reference and posted on the Division Web site in the Dental Services Provider Guide document at www.oha.state.or.us/policy/healthplan/guides/dental/main.html;

(b) Restorative, periodontal and prosthetic treatments:

(A) Treatments must be consistent with the prevailing standard of care, documentation must be included in the client's charts to support the treatment, and may be limited as follows:

(i) When prognosis is unfavorable;

(ii) When treatment is impractical;

(iii) A lesser-cost procedure would achieve the same ultimate result; or

(iv) The treatment has specific limitations outlined in this rule;

(B) Prosthetic treatment, including porcelain fused to metal crowns, are limited until rampant progression of caries is arrested and a period of adequate oral hygiene and periodontal stability is demonstrated; periodontal health needs to be stable and supportive of a prosthetic.

(2) Diagnostic Services:

(a) Exams:

(A) For children under 19 years of age:

(i) The Division shall reimburse exams (billed as D0120, D0145, D0150, or D0180) a maximum of twice every 12 months with the following limitations:

(I) D0150: once every 12 months when performed by the same practitioner;

(II) D0150: twice every 12 months only when performed by different practitioners;

(III) D0180: once every 12 months;

(ii) The Division shall reimburse D0160 only once every 12 months when performed by the same practitioner;

(B) For adults 19 years of age and older, the Division shall reimburse exams (billed as D0120, D0150, D0160, or D0180) once every 12 months;

(C) For problem focused exams (urgent or emergent problems), the Division shall reimburse D0140 for the initial exam. The Division shall reimburse D0170 for related problem focused follow-up exams. Providers should not bill D0140 and D0170 for routine dental visits;

(D) The Division only covers oral exams by medical practitioners when the medical practitioner is an oral surgeon;

(E) As the American Dental Association's Current Dental Terminology (CDT) codebook specifies the evaluation, diagnosis and treatment planning components of the exam are the responsibility of the dentist, the Division may not reimburse dental exams when furnished by a dental hygienist (with or without an expanded practice permit);

(b) Assessments of a patient (D0191):

(A) When performed by a dental practitioner, the Division shall reimburse:

(i) If performed by a dentist outside of a dental office;

(iii) For children under 19 years of age, a maximum of twice every 12 months; and

(iv) For adults age 19 and older, a maximum of once every 12 months;

(B) When performed by a medical practitioner, the Division shall cover:

(i) Only for children under 7 years of age; and

(ii) A maximum of once a year;

(C) Medical practitioners performing D0191 shall bill the client's medical coverage for reimbursement (Coordinated Care Organization (CCO) or Prepaid Health Plan (PHP) if the member is enrolled, or the Division if fee-for-service clients);

(D) The maximum limits for this procedure for dental practitioners do not affect the maximum limits for medical providers, and vice versa; and

(E) An assessment does not take the place of the need for oral evaluations/exams;

(c) Radiographs:

(A) The Division shall reimburse for routine radiographs once every 12 months;

(B) The Division shall reimburse bitewing radiographs for routine screening once every 12 months;

(C) The Division shall reimburse a maximum of six radiographs for any one emergency;

(iii) D0270 — a maximum of twice, or D0272 once;

(E) The Division shall reimburse for panoramic (D0330) or intra-oral complete series (D0210) once every five years, but both cannot be done within the five-year period;

(F) Clients must be a minimum of six years old for billing intra-oral complete series (D0210). The minimum standards for reimbursement of intra-oral complete series are:

(i) For clients age six through 11- a minimum of 10 periapicals and two bitewings for a total of 12 films;

(ii) For clients ages 12 and older - a minimum of 10 periapicals and four bitewings for a total of 14 films;

(G) If fees for multiple single radiographs exceed the allowable reimbursement for a full mouth complete series (D0210), the Division shall reimburse for the complete series;

(H) Additional films may be covered if dentally or medically appropriate, e.g., fractures (Refer to OAR 410-123-1060 and 410-120-0000);

(I) If the Division determines the number of radiographs to be excessive, payment for some or all radiographs of the same tooth or area may be denied;

(J) The exception to these limitations is if the client is new to the office or clinic and the office or clinic was unsuccessful in obtaining radiographs from the previous dental office or clinic. Supporting documentation outlining the provider's attempts to receive previous records must be included in the client's records;

(K) Digital radiographs, if printed, should be on photo paper to assure sufficient quality of images.

(3) Preventive Services:

(a) Prophylaxis:

(A) For children under 19 years of age — Limited to twice per 12 months;

(ii) Bill using a professional claim format with the appropriate CDT code (D1206 — Topical Fluoride Varnish);

(D) Additional topical fluoride treatments may be available, up to a total of four treatments per client within a 12-month period, when high-risk conditions or oral health factors are clearly documented in chart notes for the following clients who:

(i) Have high-risk oral conditions due to disease process, medications, other medical treatments or conditions, or rampant caries;

(ii) Are pregnant;

(iii) Have physical disabilities and cannot perform adequate, daily oral health care;

(iv) Have a developmental disability or other severe cognitive impairment that cannot perform adequate, daily oral health care; or

(v) Are under seven year old with high-risk oral health factors, such as poor oral hygiene, deep pits and fissures (grooves) in teeth, severely crowded teeth, poor diet, etc;

(E) Flouride limits include any combination of fluoride varnish (D1206) or other topical fluoride (D1208);

(c) Sealants (D1351):

(A) Are covered only for children under 16 years of age;

(B) The Division limits coverage to:

(i) Permanent molars; and

(D) The Division limits payment for replacement of posterior composite restorations to once every five years;

(D) The Division limits payment of covered restorations to the maximum restoration fee of four surfaces per tooth. Refer to the American Dental Association (ADA) CDT codebook for definitions of restorative procedures;

(E) Providers must combine and bill multiple surface restorations as one line per tooth using the appropriate code. Providers may not bill multiple surface restorations performed on a single tooth on the same day on separate lines. For example, if tooth #30 has a buccal amalgam and a mesial-occlusal-distal (MOD) amalgam, then bill MOD, B, using code D2161 (four or more surfaces);

(F) The Division may not reimburse for an amalgam or composite restoration and a crown on the same tooth;

(G) The Division reimburses for a surface once in each treatment episode regardless of the number or combination of restorations;

(H) The restoration fee includes payment for occlusal adjustment and polishing of the restoration;

(b) Crowns and related services:

(A) General payment policies:

(i) The fee for the crown includes payment for preparation of the gingival tissue;

(ii) The Division shall cover crowns only when:

(I) There is significant loss of clinical crown and no other restoration will restore function; and

(II) The crown-to-root ratio is 50:50 or better and the tooth is restorable without other surgical procedures;

(iii) The Division shall cover core buildup (D2950) only when necessary to retain a cast restoration due to extensive loss of tooth structure from caries or a fracture and only when done in conjunction with a crown. Less than 50% of the tooth structure must be remaining for coverage of the core buildup.

(iv) Reimbursement of retention pins (D2951) is per tooth, not per pin;

(B) The Division shall not cover the following services:

(II) Written documentation in the client's chart indicates that PFM is the only restoration option that will restore function;

(III) The dental practitioner submits radiographs to the Division for review; history, diagnosis, and treatment plan may be requested. (See OAR 410-123-1100 Services Reviewed by the Division) ;

(IV) The client has documented stable periodontal status with pocket depths within 1–3 millimeters. If PFM crowns are placed with pocket depths of 4 millimeter and over, documentation must be maintained in the client's chart of the dentist's findings supporting stability and why the increased pocket depths will not adversely affect expected long term prognosis;

(V) The crown has a favorable long-term prognosis; and

(VI) If tooth to be crowned is clasp/abutment tooth in partial denture, both prognosis for crown itself and tooth's contribution to partial denture must have favorable expected long-term prognosis;

(E) Crown replacement:

(i) Permanent crown replacement limited to once every seven years;

(ii) All other crown replacement limited to once every five years; and

(iii) The Division may make exceptions to crown replacement limitations due to acute trauma, based on the following factors:

(I) Extent of crown damage;

(II) Extent of damage to other teeth or crowns;

(III) Extent of impaired mastication;

(IV) Tooth is restorable without other surgical procedures; and

(V) If loss of tooth would result in coverage of removable prosthetic;

(F) Crown repair (D2980) is limited to only anterior teeth.

(5) Endodontic Services:

(a) Endodontic therapy:

(A) Pulpal therapy on primary teeth (D3230 and D3240) is covered only for clients under 21 years of age;

(B) For permanent teeth:

(ii) Molar endodontic therapy (D3330):

(I) For clients through age 20, is covered only for first and second molars; and

(II) For clients age 21 and older who are pregnant, is covered only for first molars;

(C) The Division covers endodontics only if the crown-to-root ratio is 50:50 or better and the tooth is restorable without other surgical procedures;

(b) Endodontic retreatment and apicoectomy/periradicular surgery:

(A) The Division does not cover retreatment of a previous root canal or apicoectomy/periradicular surgery for bicuspid or molars;

(B) The Division limits either a retreatment or an apicoectomy (but not both procedures for the same tooth) to symptomatic anterior teeth when:

(i) Crown-to-root ratio is 50:50 or better;

(ii) The tooth is restorable without other surgical procedures; or

(iii) If loss of tooth would result in the need for removable prosthodontics;

(C) Retrograde filling (D3430) is covered only when done in conjunction with a covered apicoectomy of an anterior tooth;

(c) The Division does not allow separate reimbursement for open-and-drain as a palliative procedure when the root canal is completed on the same date of service, or if the same practitioner or dental practitioner in the same group practice completed the procedure;

(e) Apexification/recalcification and pulpal regeneration procedures:

(A) The Division limits payment for apexification to a maximum of five treatments on permanent teeth only;

(B) Apexification/recalcification and pulpal regeneration procedures are covered only for clients under 21 years of age or who are pregnant.

(6) Periodontic Services:

(a) Surgical periodontal services:

(A) Gingivectomy/Gingivoplasty (D4210 and D4211) — limited to coverage for severe gingival hyperplasia where enlargement of gum tissue occurs that prevents access to oral hygiene procedures, e.g., Dilantin hyperplasia; and

(B) Includes six months routine postoperative care;

(C) The Division shall consider gingivectomy or gingivolplasty to allow for access for restorative procedure, per tooth (D4212) as part of the restoration and will not provide a separate reimbursement for this procedure;

(b) Non-surgical periodontal services:

(A) Periodontal scaling and root planing (D4341 and D4342):

(i) For clients through age 20, allowed once every two years;

(ii) For clients age 21 and over, allowed once every three years;

(I) D4341 is allowed for quadrants with at least four or more teeth with pockets 5 mm or greater;

(II) D4342 is allowed for quadrants with at least two teeth with pocket depths of 5 mm or greater;

(v) Prior authorization for more frequent scaling and root planing may be requested when:

(I) Medically/dentally necessary due to periodontal disease as defined above is found during pregnancy; and

(ii) Allowed once every twelve months;

(iii) Prior authorization for more frequent periodontal maintenance may be requested when:

(I) Medically/dentally necessary, such as due to presence of periodontal disease during pregnancy; and

(II) Client's medical record is submitted that supports the need for increase periodontal maintenance (chart notes, pocket depths and radiographs);

(d) Records must clearly document the clinical indications for all periodontal procedures, including current pocket depth charting and/or radiographs;

(e) The Division may not reimburse for procedures identified by the following codes if performed on the same date of service:

(A) D1110 (Prophylaxis — adult);

(B) D1120 (Prophylaxis — child);

(7) Removable Prosthodontic Services:

(a) Clients age 16 years and older are eligible for removable resin base partial dentures (D5211-D5212) and full dentures (complete or immediate, D5110-D5140);

(b) The Division limits full dentures for clients age 21 and older to only those clients who are recently edentulous:

(A) For the purposes of this rule:

(i) "Edentulous" means all teeth removed from the jaw for which the denture is being provided; and

(ii) "Recently edentulous" means the most recent extractions from that jaw occurred within six months of the delivery of the final denture (or, for fabricated prosthetics, the final impression) for that jaw;

(B) See OAR 410-123-1000 for detail regarding billing fabricated prosthetics;

(c) The fee for the partial and full dentures includes payment for adjustments during the six-month period following delivery to clients;

(d) Resin partial dentures (D5211-D5212):

(A) The Division may not approve resin partial dentures if stainless steel crowns are used as abutments;

(B) For clients through age 20, the client must have one or more anterior teeth missing or four or more missing posterior teeth per arch with resulting space equivalent to that loss demonstrating inability to masticate. Third molars are not a consideration when counting missing teeth;

(C) For clients age 21 and older, the client must have one or more missing anterior teeth or six or more missing posterior teeth per arch with documentation by the provider of resulting space causing serious impairment to mastification. Third molars are not a consideration when counting missing teeth;

(D) The dental practitioner must note the teeth to be replaced and teeth to be clasped when requesting prior authorization (PA);

(e) Replacement of removable partial or full dentures, when it cannot be made clinically serviceable by a less costly procedure (e.g., reline, rebase, repair, tooth replacement), is limited to the following:

(A) For clients at least 16 years and under 21 years of age - the Division shall replace full or partial dentures once every ten years, only if dentally appropriate. This does not imply that replacement of dentures or partials must be done once every ten years, but only when dentally appropriate;

(B) For clients 21 years of age and older - the Division may not cover replacement of full dentures, but shall cover replacement of partial dentures once every 10 years only if dentally appropriate;

(C) The ten year limitations apply to the client regardless of the client's OHP or Dental Care Organization (DCO)./Coordinated Care Organization (CCO) enrollment status at the time client's last denture or partial was received. For example: a client receives a partial on February 1, 2002, and becomes a FFS OHP client in 2005. The client is not eligible for a replacement partial until February 1, 2012. The client gets a replacement partial on February 3, 2012 while FFS and a year later enrolls in a DCO, CCO. The client would not be eligible for another partial until February 3, 2022, regardless of DCO, CCO or FFS enrollment;

(D) Replacement of partial dentures with full dentures is payable ten years after the partial denture placement. Exceptions to this limitation may be made in cases of acute trauma or catastrophic illness that directly or indirectly affects the oral condition and results in additional tooth loss. This pertains to, but is not limited to, cancer and periodontal disease resulting from pharmacological, surgical and/or medical treatment for aforementioned conditions. Severe periodontal disease due to neglect of daily oral hygiene may not warrant replacement;

(f) The Division limits reimbursement of adjustments and repairs of dentures that are needed beyond six months after delivery of the denture as follows for clients 21 years of age and older:

(A) A maximum of four times per year for:

(i) Adjusting complete and partial dentures, per arch (D5410-D5422);

(ii) Replacing missing or broken teeth on a complete denture – each tooth (D5520);

(iii) Replacing broken tooth on a partial denture – each tooth (D5640);

(iv) Adding tooth to existing partial denture (D5650);

(B) A maximum of two times per year for:

(i) Repairing broken complete denture base (D5510);

(ii) Repairing partial resin denture base (D5610);

(iii) Repairing partial cast framework (D5620);

(iv) Repairing or replacing broken clasp (D5630);

(v) Adding clasp to existing partial denture (D5660);

(g) Replacement of all teeth and acrylic on cast metal framework (D5670D5671):

(A) Is covered for clients age 16 and older a maximum of once every 10 years, per arch;

(B) Ten years or more must have passed since the original partial denture was delivered;

(C) Is considered replacement of the partial so a new partial denture may not be reimbursed for another ten years; and

(D) Requires prior authorization as it is considered a replacement partial denture;

(h) Denture rebase procedures:

(A) The Division shall cover rebases only if a reline may not adequately solve the problem;

(B) For clients through age 20, the Division limits payment for rebase to once every three years;

(C) For clients age 21 and older:

(i) There must be documentation of a current reline which has been done and failed; and

(ii) The Division limits payment for rebase to once every five years;

(D) The Division may make exceptions to this limitation in cases of acute trauma or catastrophic illness that directly or indirectly affects the oral condition and results in additional tooth loss. This pertains to, but is not limited to, cancer and periodontal disease resulting from pharmacological, surgical and medical treatment for aforementioned conditions. Severe periodontal disease due to neglect of daily oral hygiene may not warrant rebasing;

(i) Denture reline procedures:

(A) For clients through age 20, the Division limits payment for reline of complete or partial dentures to once every three years;

(B) For clients age 21 and older, the Division limits payment for reline of complete or partial dentures to once every five years;

(C) The Division may make exceptions to this limitation under the same conditions warranting replacement;

(D) Laboratory relines:

(i) Are not payable prior to six months after placement of an immediate denture; and

(ii) For clients through age 20, are limited to once every three years;

(iii) For clients age 21 and older, are limited to once every five years;

(j) Interim partial dentures (D5820-D5821, also referred to as "flippers"):

(8) Maxillofacial Prosthetic Services:

(a) Fluoride gel carrier (D5986) is limited to those patients whose severity of oral disease causes the increased cleaning and fluoride treatments allowed in rule to be insufficient. The dental practitioner must document failure of those options prior to use of the fluoride gel carrier;

(b) All other maxillofacial prosthetics (D5900-D5999) are medical services. Refer to the "Covered and Non-Covered Dental Services" document and OAR 410-123-1220:

(c) Refer to the "Covered and Non-Covered Dental Services" document to see a list of CDT procedure codes on the Prioritized List that may also have CPT medical codes. See OAR 410-123-1220. The procedures listed as "medical" on the table may be covered as medical procedures, and the table may not be all-inclusive of every dental code that has a corresponding medical code;

(d) For clients enrolled in a DCO or CCO responsible for dental services, the DCO, CCO shall pay for those services in the dental plan package;

(e) Oral surgical services performed in an ASC or an inpatient or outpatient hospital setting:

(A) Require PA;

(B) For clients enrolled in a CCO or FCHP, the CCO or FCHP shall pay for the facility charge and anesthesia services. For clients enrolled in a Physician Care Organization (PCO), the PCO shall pay for the outpatient facility charge (including ASCs) and anesthesia.. (A) Include local anesthesia and routine post-operative care;

(B) The Division limits payment for surgical removal of impacted teeth or removal of residual tooth roots to treatment for only those teeth that have acute infection or abscess, severe tooth pain, and/or unusual swelling of the face or gums;

(C) The Division does not cover alveoloplasty in conjunction with extractions (D7310 and D7311) separately from the extraction;

(D) The Division covers alveoplasty not in conjunction with extractions (D7320-D7321) only for clients under 21 years of age or who are pregnant;

(f) The Division shall pay for orthodontia in one lump sum at the beginning of each phase of treatment. Payment for each phase is for all orthodontia-related services. If the client transfers to another orthodontist during treatment, or treatment is terminated for any reason, the orthodontist must refund to the Division any unused amount of payment, after applying the following formula: Total payment minus $300.00 (for banding) multiplied by the percentage of treatment remaining;

(g) The Division shall use the length of the treatment plan from the original request for authorization to determine the number of treatment months remaining;

Limited Hospital Benefit for the OHP Standard Population

(1) The Oregon Health Plan (OHP) Standard population has a limited hospital benefit for urgent or emergent inpatient and outpatient services. Inpatient and outpatient hospital services are limited to the International Classification of Diseases 9th revision Clinical Modification (ICD-9 CM) Diagnoses codes listed on the 'Standard Population Limited Hospital Benefit Code List.'

(2) The limited hospital benefit includes the ICD-9 CM codes listed in the OHP Standard Population — Limited Hospital Benefit Code List. This rule incorporates by reference the OHP Standard Population – Limited Hospital Benefit Code List. This list includes diagnoses requiring prior authorization indicated by the letters for prior authorization (PA) next to the code number. The archived and the current list is available on the web site (www.dhs.state.or.us/policy/healthplan/guides/hospital), or contact the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) for a hardcopy. The document dated:

(a) August 1, 2004, is effective for dates of service August 1, 2004 through August 31, 2004;

(b) September 1, 2004, is effective for dates of service September 30, 2004 through June 30, 2008; and

(c) July 1, 2008 is effective for dates of service July 1, 2008 forward;

(d) On or after January 1, 2012 the limited hospital benefit for the OHP Standard population will be enhanced to the OHP plus hospital benefit and will not be operative until the Division determines all necessary federal approvals have been obtained.

(3) The Division shall reimburse hospitals for inpatient (diagnostic and treatment) services, outpatient (diagnostic and treatment services) and emergency room (diagnostic and treatment) based on the following:

(a) For treatment, the diagnosis must be listed in the OHP Standard Population – Limited Hospital Benefit Code List;

(b) For treatment the diagnosis must be above the funding line on The Health Services Commission Prioritized List of Health Services (OAR 410-141-0520);

(c) The diagnosis (ICD-9) must pair with the treatment (CPT code); and

(d) Prior authorization (PA) must be obtained for codes indicated in the OHP Standard Population — Limited Hospital Benefit Code List. PA request should be directed to the Division and will follow the present (current) PA process. PAs must be processed as expeditiously as the client's health condition requires;

(e) Medically appropriate services required to make a definitive diagnosis are a covered benefit.

(4) Some non-diagnostic outpatient hospital services (e.g. speech, physical or occupational therapy, etc.) are not covered benefits for the OHP Standard population (see the individual program for coverage) in the hospital setting.

(5) For benefit implementation process and PA requirements for the client enrolled in a Fully Capitated Health Plan (FCHP) and/or Mental Health Organization (MHO), contact the client's FCHP or MHO. The FCHP and/or MHO may have different requirements than the Division.

Inpatient Services

(1) Elective (not urgent or emergent) hospital admission:

(a) Coordinated Care Organization (CCO), Fully-Capitated Health Plan (FCHP), and Mental Health Organization (MHO) clients: Contact the client's CCO, FCHP, or MHO. The health plan may have different prior authorization (PA) requirements than the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division);

(b) Medicare clients: The Division does not require PA for inpatient services provided to clients with Medicare Part A or B coverage;

(c) Division clients: Oregon Health Plan (OHP) clients covered by the OHP Plus Benefit Package:

(A) For a list of medical and surgical procedures that require PA, see the Division's Medical-Surgical Services Program, rules OAR chapter 410, division 130, specifically OAR 410-130-0200, table 130-0200-1, unless they are urgent or emergent defined in OAR 410-125-0401.

(B) For PA, contact the Division unless otherwise indicated in the Medical-Surgical Service Program rules, specifically OAR 410-130-0200, Table 130-0200-1.

(2) Transplant services:

(a) Complete rules for transplant services are in the Division's Transplant Services Program rules, OAR chapter 410, division 124;

(b) Clients are eligible for transplants covered by the Oregon Health Evidence Review Commission's Prioritized List of Health Services (Prioritized List). See the Transplant Services Program administrative rules for criteria. For clients enrolled in a FCHP, contact the plan for authorization. Clients not enrolled in a FCHP, contact the Division's Medical Director's office.

(3) Out-of-State non-contiguous hospitals:

(a) All non-emergent and non-urgent services provided by hospitals more than 75 miles from the Oregon border require PA;

(b) Contact the Division's Medical Director's office for authorization for clients not enrolled in a Prepaid Health Plan (PHP). For clients enrolled in a PHP, contact the plan.

(4) Out-of-State contiguous hospitals: The Division prior authorizes services provided by contiguous-area hospitals, less than 75 miles from the Oregon border, following the same rules and procedures governing in-State providers.

(5) Transfers to another hospital:

(a) Transfers for the purpose of providing a service listed in the Medical-Surgical Service Program rules, specifically OAR 410-130-0200, Table 130-0200-1, e.g., inpatient physical rehabilitation care, require PA. Contact the Division-contracted Quality Improvement Organization (QIO);

(b) For transfers to a long-term, acute-care hospital, skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility or swing bed, contact Aging and People with Disabilities (APD). APD reimburses nursing facilities and swing beds through contracts with the facilities. For CCO and FCHP clients, transfers require authorization and payment (for first 20 days) from the CCO or FCHP;

(c) For transfers for the same or lesser level inpatient care to a general acute-care hospital, the Division shall cover transfers, including back transfers that are primarily for the purpose of locating the patient closer to home and family, when the transfer is expected to result in significant social or psychological benefit to the patient:

(A) The assessment of significant benefit shall be based on the amount of continued care the patient is expected to need (at least seven days) and the extent to which the transfer locates the patient closer to familial support;

(B) Payment for transfers not meeting these guidelines may be denied on the basis of post-payment review;

(d) Exceptions:

(A) Emergency transfers do not require PA;

(B) In-State or contiguous non-emergency transfers for the purpose of providing care that is unavailable in the transferring hospital do not require PA unless the planned service is listed in the Medical-Surgical Service Program rules, specifically OAR 410-130-0200, Table 130-0200-1;

(C) All non-urgent transfers to out-of-State, non-contiguous hospitals require PA.

(6) Dental procedures provided in a hospital setting:

(a) For prior authorization requirements, see the Division's Dental Services Program rules, specifically OAR 410-123-1260 and 410-123-1490;

(b) Emergency dental services do not require PA;

(c) For prior authorization for fee-for-service clients, contact the Division's Dental Services Program analyst. (See the Division's Dental Services Program Supplemental information, online);

Targeted Case Management Definitions

The following definitions apply to OAR 410-138-0000 through 410-138-0420:

(1) Assessment means the act of gathering information and reviewing historical and existing records of an eligible client in a target group to determine the need for medical, educational, social, or other services. To perform a complete assessment, the case manager shall gather information from family members, medical providers, social workers, and educators, if necessary.

(2) Care Plan means a Targeted Case Management (TCM) Care Plan that is a multidisciplinary plan that contains a set of goals and actions required to address the medical, social, educational, and other service needs of the eligible client based on the information collected through an assessment or periodic reassessment.

(3) Case Management means services furnished by a case manager to assist individuals eligible under the Medicaid State plan in gaining access to and effectively using needed medical, social, educational, and other services (such as housing or transportation) in accordance with 42 CFR 441.18. See also definition for Targeted Case Management.

(4) Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) means the federal agency under the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services that provides the federal funding for Medicaid and Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).

(5) Department means the Department of Human Services (Department).

(6) Division means the Division of Medical Assistance Programs.

(7) Duplicate payments mean payments if more than one payment is made for the same services to meet the same need for the same client at the same point in time.

(8) Early intervention (EI) means services for preschool children with disabilities from birth until three years of age, including Indian children and children who are homeless and their families.

(9) Early childhood special education (ECSE) means free, specially designed instruction to meet the unique needs of a preschool child with a disability, three years of age until the age of eligibility for public school, including instruction in physical education, speech-language services, travel training, and orientation and mobility services. Instruction is provided in any of the following settings: home, hospitals, institutions, special schools, classrooms, and community childcare or preschool settings.

(10) Early Intervention/Early Childhood Special Education (EI/ECSE) services means services provided to a preschool child with disabilities, eligible under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), from birth until they are eligible to attend public school, pursuant to the eligible child's Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP).

(11) EI/ECSE Case manager (i.e., service coordinator) means an employee of the EI/ECSE contracting or subcontracting agency meeting the personnel standards requirements in OAR 581-015-2900. The EI/ECSE case manager serves as a single point-of-contact and is responsible for coordinating all services across agency lines for the purpose of assisting an eligible client to obtain needed medical, social, educational, developmental and other appropriate services (such as housing or transportation) identified in the eligible client's care plan in coordination with the client's IFSP.

(12) EI/ECSE TCM Program means a service under the State plan, and includes case management services furnished to eligible EI/ECSE preschool children age 0-5 with disabilities, assisting them to gain access to needed medical, social, educational, developmental and other appropriate services (such as housing or transportation) in coordination with their IFSP. EI/ECSE TCM providers must meet the criteria for the provision of special education programs approved by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction qualifying such programs for State reimbursement under OAR 581-015-2710 EI/ECSE; and must be contractors with the Oregon Department of Education in the provision of EI/ECSE services or be subcontractors with such a contractor. Medicaid reimbursement for EI/ECSE TCM services is available only to eligible clients in the target group and does not restrict an eligible client's free choice of providers.

(13) Eligible client means an individual who is found eligible for Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) by the Oregon Health Authority (Authority) and eligible for case management services (including TCM services) as defined in the Medicaid State plan, at the time the services are furnished.

(14) Federal Financial Participation (FFP) means the portion paid by the federal government to states for their share of expenditures for providing Medicaid services. FFP was created as part of the Title XIX, Social Security Act of 1965. There are two objectives that permit claims under FFP. They are:

(a) To assist individuals eligible for Medicaid to enroll in the Medicaid program; and

(b) To assist individuals on Medicaid to access Medicaid providers and services. The second objective involves TCM.

(15) Federal Medical Assistance Percentage (FMAP) means the percentage of federal matching dollars available to a state to provide Medicaid services. The FMAP is calculated annually based on a three-year average of state per capita personal income compared to the national average. The formula is designed to provide a higher federal matching rate to states with lower per capital income. No state receives less than 50 percent or more than 83 percent.

(16) Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) means a written plan of early childhood special education, related services, early intervention services, and other services developed in accordance with criteria established by the State Board of Education for each child eligible for services. (See OAR 581-015-2700 to 581-015-2910, Early Intervention and Early Childhood Special Education Programs.)

(17) Medical Assistance Program means a program administered by the Division that provides and pays for health services for eligible Oregonians. The Medical Assistance Program includes TCM services provided to clients eligible under the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) Title XIX, and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) Title XXI.

(18) Monitoring means ongoing face-to-face or other contact to conduct follow-up activities with the participating eligible client or the client's health care decision makers, family members, providers or other entities or individuals when the purpose of the contact is directly related to managing the eligible client's care to ensure the care plan is effectively implemented.

(19) Oregon Health Plan (OHP) means the Medicaid program in Oregon that is known as the OHP, and governed by a series of laws passed by the Oregon Legislature with the intention of providing universal access to healthcare to Oregonians. OHP is also governed by many federal laws.

(20) Reassessment means periodically re-evaluating the eligible client to determine whether or not medical, social, educational, or other services continue to be adequate to meet the goals and objectives identified in the care plan. Reassessment decisions include those to continue, change, or terminate TCM services. A reassessment must be conducted at least annually or more frequently if changes occur in an eligible client's condition; or when resources are inadequate or the service delivery system is nonresponsive to meet the client's identified service needs.

(21) Referrals mean performing activities such as scheduling appointments that link the eligible client with medical, social, or educational providers, or other programs and services, and follow-up and documentation of services obtained.

(22) Targeted Case Management (TCM) Services means case management services furnished to a specific target group of eligible clients under the Medicaid State plan to gain access to needed medical, social, educational, and other services (such as housing or transportation).

(23) Unit of Government means a city, a county, a special purpose district, or other governmental unit in the State.

Oregon Health Plan Primary Care Manager and Patient Centered Primary Care Home Provider Qualification and Enrollment

(1) Definitions:

(a) ACA-qualified conditions shall be posted on the agency website. The types of conditions include a mental health condition, substance use disorders, asthma, diabetes, heart disease, BMI over 25 or for patients under the age of 20, the equivalent measure would be BMI equal or greater than 85 percentile, HIV/AIDS, hepatitis, chronic kidney disease and cancer;

(b) An ACA-qualified patient is a patient who meets the criteria described in these rules as authorized by Section 2703 of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

(c) ACA-qualified patients are individuals with:

(A) A serious mental health condition; or

(B) At least two chronic conditions proposed by the state and approved by CMS; or

(C) One chronic condition and at risk of another qualifying condition as described above;

(i) Providers and plans must use information published by the US Preventive Services Task Force, Bright Futures, and HRSA Women's Preventive Services when making decisions about the particular risk factors for an additional chronic condition that may lead a patient with one chronic condition to meet the criteria of one chronic condition and at risk of another.

(ii) The conditions and risk factors shall be documented in the patient's medical record.

(d) Core services are defined as:

(A) Comprehensive Care Management is identifying patients with high risk environmental or medical factors, including patients with special health care needs, who will benefit from additional care planning. Care management activities may include but are not limited to population panel management, defining and following self-management goals, developing goals for preventive and chronic illness care, developing action plans for exacerbations of chronic illnesses, and developing end- of-life care plans when appropriate.

(B) Care coordination is an integral part of the PCPCH. Care coordination functions will include the use of the person centered plan to manage such referrals and monitor follow up as necessary. The Division shall assign clients to a provider, clinic, or team to increase continuity of care and ensure responsibility for individual client care coordination functions, including but not limited to:

(i) Tracking ordered tests and notifying all appropriate care-givers and clients of results;

(ii) Tracking referrals ordered by its clinicians, including referral status and whether consultation results have been communicated to clients and clinicians; and

(iii) Directly collaborating or co-managing clients with specialty mental health and substance abuse, and providers of services and supports to people with developmental disabilities and people receiving long- term care services and supports. (The Division strongly encourages co-location of behavioral health and primary care services.);

(C) Health promotion is demonstrated when a PCPCH provider supports continuity of care and good health through the development of a treatment relationship with the client, other primary care team members and community providers. The PCPCH provider shall promote the use of evidence-based, culturally sensitive wellness and prevention by linking the client with resources for smoking cessation, diabetes, asthma, self-help resources and other services based on individual needs and preferences. The PCPCH shall use health promotion activities to promote patient and family education and self-management of their ACA-qualifying conditions;

(D) Comprehensive transitional care is demonstrated when a PCPCH emphasizes transitional care with either a written agreement or procedures in place with its usual hospital providers, local practitioners, health facilities and community-based services to ensure notification and coordinated, safe transitions, as well as improve the percentage of patients seen or contacted within one (1) week of facility discharges;

(E) Individual and family support services are demonstrated when a PCPCH has processes in place for:

(i) Patient and family education;

(ii) Health promotion and prevention;

(iii) Self-management supports; and

(iv) Information and assistance to obtain available non-health care community resources, services and supports.

(F) Referral to community and social support services is demonstrated through the PCPCH's processes and capacity for referral to community and social support services, such as patient and family education, health promotion and prevention, and self-management support efforts, including available community resources.

(e) Patient Centered Primary Care Home (PCPCH) pursuant to OAR 409-055-0010(7) is defined as a health care team or clinic as defined in ORS 414.655, meets the standards pursuant to OAR 409-055-0040, and has been recognized through the process pursuant to 409-055-0040.

(f) A PCPCH "team" is interdisciplinary and inter-professional and must include non-physician health care professionals, such as a nurse care coordinator, nutritionist, social worker, behavioral health professional, community health workers, personal health navigators and peer wellness specialists authorized through State plan or waiver authorities. (*Community health workers, personal health navigators and peer wellness specialists are individuals who meet criteria established by the Oregon Health Authority, have passed criminal history background check, and in the judgment of the Authority, hiring agency, and licensed health professional approving the patient centered plan, have the knowledge, skills, and abilities to safely and adequately provide the services authorized). These PCPCH professionals may operate in a variety of ways, such as free standing, virtual, or based at any of the clinics and facilities.(f) Person-centered plan is defined as the plan that shall be developed by the PCPCH and reflect the client and family/caregiver preferences for education, recovery and self-management as well as management of care coordination functions. Peer supports, support groups and self-care programs shall be utilized to increase the client and caregivers knowledge about the client's health and health-care needs. The person-centered plan shall be based on the needs and desires of the client including at least the following elements:

(A) Options for accessing care;

(B) Information on care planning and care coordination;

(C) Names of other primary care team members when applicable; and

(D) Information on ways the team member participates in this care coordination;

(g) Primary Care Managers (PCM) must be trained and certified or licensed, as applicable under Oregon statutes and administrative rules, in one of the following disciplines:

(A) Doctors of medicine;

(B) Doctors of osteopathy;

(C) Naturopathic physicians;

(D) Nurse Practitioners;

(E) Physician assistants.

(F) Naturopaths who have a written agreement with a physician sufficient to support the provision of primary care, including prescription drugs, and the necessary referrals for hospital care.

(2) Enrollment requirements:

(a) To enroll as a PCM, all applicants must:

(A) Be enrolled as a Division provider;

(B) Make arrangements to ensure provision of the full range of PCM Managed Services, including prescription drugs and hospital admissions;

(C) Complete and sign the PCM Application (DMAP 3030 (7/11).

(D) If the Division determines that the PCM or an applicant for enrollment as a PCM does not comply with the OHP administrative rules pertaining to the PCM program or the Division's General Rules, or if the Division determines that the health or welfare of Division clients may be adversely affected or in jeopardy by the PCM the Division may:

(i) Deny the application for enrollment as a PCM;

(ii) Close enrollment with an existing PCM; or

(iii) Transfer the care of those PCM clients enrolled with that PCM until such time as the Division determines that the PCM is in compliance.

(E) The Division may terminate their agreement without prejudice to any obligations or liabilities of either party already accrued prior to termination, except when the obligations or liabilities result from the PCM's failure to terminate care for those PCM members. The PCM shall be solely responsible for its obligations or liabilities after the termination date when the obligations or liabilities result from the PCM's failure to terminate care for those PCM members.

(b) To enroll as a PCPCH with the Division, all applicants must:

(A) Apply to and be "recognized" as a PCPCH by the Oregon Health Authority (Authority) as organized in accordance with relevant Oregon Office of Health Policy and Research (OHPR) administrative rules (OAR 409-055-0000 to 409-055-0090), the Division administrative rules (chapter 410, division 141), and OHPRs Oregon Patient Centered Primary Care Home Model, dated October 2011 and found at www.primarycarehome.oregon.gov. The Authority grants PCPCH recognition only when a practice, site, clinic, or individual provider is successful in the application process with the Authority;

(i) The type of practice, site, clinic or individual provider that may apply to become a PCPCH, include physicians (family practice, general practice, pediatricians, gynecologists, obstetricians, Internal Medicine), Certified Nurse Practitioner and Physician Assistants, clinical practices or clinical group practices; FQHCs; RHCs; Tribal clinics; Community health centers; Community Mental Health Programs and Drug and Alcohol Treatment Programs with integrated Primary Care Providers.

(ii) PCPCH services will occur under the direction of licensed health professionals, physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, nurses, social workers, or professional counselors.

(B) PCPCH providers must complete the enrollment process in order to receive reimbursement (OAR 410-120-1260), except as otherwise stated in OAR 410-120-1295. The Provider Enrollment Attachment (attachment to the Provider Enrollment Agreement) sets forth the relationship between the Division and the PCPCH site (recognized clinic or provider) to receive payment for providing PCPCH services under OHP OAR 410-141-0860.

(C) New PCPCH enrollment shall be effective on or after October 1, 2011 or the date established by the Division upon receipt of required information. (Note: PCPCH tier enrollment changes shall be effective the first of the next month or a date approved by the Division).

(D) The PCPCH enrollment process requires the PCPCH submit a list of fee-for-service (FFS) clients to the Division in a format approved by the Division. The PCPCH must identify current OHP clients being treated within their practice. The PCPCH shall identify that patients are ACA qualified or not as defined in these rules.

(E) PCPCHs serving clients enrolled in a managed care organization (MCO, FCHP or PCO) must consult the MCO on the procedures for developing an OHP client list. The MCO shall submit the list of their identified clients to the Division. Identified client lists are submitted to the Division so that the Division can assign the appropriate clients to the PCPCH and begin making payments for services rendered, all in accordance with relevant OARs.

(F) Termination of PCPCH enrollment shall be the date established by the Authority. All providers shall comply with Provider Sanctions as outlined in OAR 410-120-1400.

(3) The Division shall make per member per month (PMPM) payments based on the PCPCH clinic's recognized tier and on the patient's ACA status.

(a) PCPCH payments are made as follows:

(A) For fee-for-service (FFS) ACA-qualified patients, the amount of the PMPM shall be based on the PCPCH tier:

(i) $ 10 for tier 1;

(ii) $15 for tier 2 and;

(iii) $24 for tier 3.

(B) For FFS non-ACA-qualified patients, the amount of the PMPM shall be based on the PCPCH tier:

(i) $2 for tier 1;

(ii) $4 for tier 2 and;

(iii) $6 for tier 3.

(b) For MCO enrolled ACA-qualified members MCO's are responsible for payment to PCPCH providers assigned to the PCPCH. MCOs shall make payments to PCPCH clinics in accordance with OAR 409-055-0030. If an MCO retains any portion of the PCPCH payment, that portion shall be used to carry out functions related to PCPCH and is subject to approval and oversight by the Division.

(c) MCOs that wish to use PCPCH payment methodology or amount different than Division must receive Division approval

(d) The Division shall not provide additional PMPM payment to the MCOs for non-ACA-qualified members. For MCO enrolled non-ACA-qualified members PCPCH payment responsibility will be integrated into MCOs capitation payments and covered services at the next opportunity to revise capitation rates expected on or near July 1, 2012.

(e) MCOs must use an alternative payment methodology that supports the Division's goal of improving the efficiency and quality of health services for primary care homes by decreasing the use of FFS reimbursement models. PMPM payment is an alternative methodology.

(f) It is the Division's intention that the PCPCH Program will not duplicate other similar services or programs such as PCM and medical case management, and the Authority shall not make PCPCH payments for patients who participate in these programs. The Division may review on a program to program basis if care coordination programs are complimentary with PCPCH.

(4) Client Assignment:

(a) OHP clients' participation with PCPCH is voluntary. OHP clients can opt-out at any time from a PCPCH.

(b) The Division will provide client notice of PCPCH assignment including information about benefits of PCPCH and how to notify the Division if they wish to opt out.

(c) The Division shall remove PCPCH assignment from clients who choose not to participate in a PCPCH Program.

(d) Upon completion of PCPCH enrollment process and approval from CMS, the Division will implement PMPM payments for non-ACA patients who are not enrolled in an FCHP or PCO. The Division shall integrate this service into rate setting and managed care responsibilities at the first available opportunity. This provision only affects the startup phase of the program and is acknowledgment of a more gradual implementation than was originally intended;

(e) Clients assigned must have full medical eligibility with either Oregon Health Plan (OHP) Plus (BMH, BMP, BMM or BMD) benefit plans, this excludes CAWEM Plus (CWX) and QMB (MED) only.

(5) Documentation Requirements:

(a) The PCPCH must coordinate the care of all assigned clients who do not choose to opt out of the PCPCH Program, to ensure they have a "person-centered plan" that has been developed with the client or the client's caregiver. The PCPCH must provide an assigned client with at least one of the six "core" services as defined in Oregon State Medicaid Plan, each quarter and document the service(s) in the medical record in order to be eligible for payment.

(b) PCPCHs shall assure that the patient's engagement, education and agreement to participate in the PCPCH program are documented within six months of initial participation;

(c) PCPCHs shall assure that for each patient, providers are working with the patient to develop a person-centered plan within six months of initial participation and revise as needed;

(d) For ACA-qualified patients, PCPCH clinics shall provide one of the six core services or an activity that is defined in the service definition at least quarterly. Documentation of the services provided must be kept in the patient's medical record;

(e) PCPCHs shall assure that they notify the Division when a patient moves out of the service area, terminates care, or no longer receives primary care from the PCPCH clinic as stated in OAR 410-141-0080 and 410-141-0120. Patient assignment shall be terminated at the end of the month for which PCPCH services terminated, unless a move to another PCPCH provider begins primary care before the end of the month. In this situation, the disenrollment and payment will be prorated;

(f) PCPCH clinics and MCOs must report to the Division a complete list of their Medicaid PCPCH patients, no less than quarterly. The Division will not make payments for patients that are not reported on these quarterly reports or for patients where documentation requirements are not met; PCPCH clinics and MCOs may provide the Division information on new member assignment or termination member assignment on a more frequent basis if they desire;

(g) PCPCH clinics must log on to the PCPCH provider portal, which will be available at www.primarycarehome.oregon.gov, no less than quarterly. In conjunction with submission of the quarterly patient list, logging on to the PCPCH provider portal serves as evidence that the clinic has complied with the service and documentation requirements. Clinics will have the opportunity to track quality measures through the portal and use this as a panel management tool;

(h) PCPCH clinics that have their own information technology system can use their own system as an alternative to the PCPCH provider portal. To do this, PCPCH clinics must:

(A) Be able to document quarterly usage of the system for panel management purposes; and

(B) Submit a request in writing to the Division to utilize their system as an alternative. The Division will respond to each request in writing.

(i) No later than the 15th of January, April, July and October, MCO's shall provide the Division with the following information for the preceding quarter:

(A) Number of clinics or sites that meet PCPCH standards;

(B) Number of Primary Care Providers in those service delivery sites;

(C) Number of patients receiving primary care in those sites; and

(D) Number of ACA-qualified patients receiving primary care at those sites

(j) PCPCH shall provide their Division PCPCH clinic number when referring a patient to another provider to ensure it is added to the claim as a referring provider. The PCPCH will also need to document the referral in the patient's medical record.

Practitioner-Managed Prescription Drug Plan

(1) The Practitioner-Managed Prescription Drug Plan (PMPDP) is a plan that ensures that fee-for-service clients of the Oregon Health Plan shall have access to the most effective prescription drugs appropriate for their clinical conditions at the best possible price:

(a) Licensed health care practitioners (informed by the latest peer reviewed research), make decisions concerning the clinical effectiveness of the prescription drugs;

(b) The licensed health care practitioners also consider the health condition of a client or characteristics of a client, including the client's gender, race or ethnicity.

(2) PMPDP Preferred Drug List (PDL):

(a) The PDL is the primary tool that the Division developed to inform licensed health care practitioners about the results of the latest peer-reviewed research and cost effectiveness of prescription drugs;

(b) The PDL (as defined in 410-121-0000 (cc) consists of prescription drugs that the Division, in consultation with the Drug Use Review (DUR) / Pharmacy & Therapeutics Committee (P&T), has determined represent the most effective drug(s) available at the best possible price;

(c) The PDL shall include drugs that are Medicaid reimbursable and the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has determined to be safe and effective.

(3) PMPDP PDL Selection Process:

(a) The Division shall utilize the recommendations made by the P&T, that result from an evidence-based evaluation process, as the basis for selecting the most effective drug(s);

(b) The Division shall determine the drugs selected in (3)(a) that are available for the best possible price and shall consider any input from the P&T about other FDA-approved drug(s) in the same class that are available for a lesser relative price. The Division shall determine relative price using the methodology described in subsection (4);

(c) The Division shall evaluate selected drug(s) for the drug classes periodically:

(A) Evaluation shall occur more frequently at the discretion of the Division if new safety information or the release of new drugs in a class or other information which makes an evaluation advisable;

(B) New drugs in classes already evaluated for the PDL shall be non-preferred until the new drug has been reviewed by the P&T;

(C) The Division shall make all changes or revisions to the PDL, using the rulemaking process and shall publish the changes on the Division's Pharmaceutical Services provider rules Web page.

(4) Relative cost and best possible price determination:

(a) The Division shall determine the relative cost of all drugs in each selected class that are Medicaid reimbursable and that the FDA has determined to be safe and effective;

(b) The Division may also consider dosing issues, patterns of use and compliance issues. The Division shall weigh these factors with any advice provided by the P&T in reaching a final decision;

(5) Pharmacy providers shall dispense prescriptions in the generic form, unless:

(a) The practitioner requests otherwise, subject to the regulations outlined in OAR 410-121-0155;

(b) The brand name medication is listed as preferred on the PDL.

(6) The exception process for obtaining non-preferred physical health drugs that are not on the PDL drugs shall be as follows:

(a) If the prescribing practitioner, in their professional judgment, wishes to prescribe a physical health drug not on the PDL, they may request an exception, subject to the requirements of OAR 410-121-0040;

(b) The prescribing practitioner must request an exception for physical health drugs not listed in the PDL subject to the requirements of OAR 410-121-0060;

(c) Exceptions shall be granted in instances:

(A) Where the prescriber in their professional judgment determines the non-preferred drug is medically appropriate after consulting with the Division or the Oregon Pharmacy Help Desk; or

(B) Where the prescriber requests an exception subject to the requirement of (6)(b) and fails to receive a report of PA status within 24 hours, subject to OAR 410-121-0060.

(7) Table 121-0030-1, PMPDP PDL dated January 1, 2014 is incorporated in rule by reference and is found on our Web page at www.orpdl.org.

410-121-0040

Prior Authorization Required for Drugs and Products

(1) Prescribing practitioners are responsible for obtaining prior authorization (PA) for the drugs and categories of drugs requiring PA in this rule, using the procedures required in OAR 410-121-0060.

(2) All drugs and categories of drugs, including but not limited to those drugs and categories of drugs that require PA as described in this rule, are subject to the following requirements for coverage:

(a) Each drug must be prescribed for conditions funded by Oregon Health Plan (OHP) in a manner consistent with the Oregon Health Services Commission's Prioritized List of Health Services (OAR 410141-0480 through 410-141-0520). If the medication is for a non-covered diagnosis, the medication shall not be covered unless there is a co-morbid condition for which coverage would be extended. The use of the medication must meet corresponding treatment guidelines, be included within the client's benefit package of covered services, and not otherwise excluded or limited;

(b) Each drug must also meet other criteria applicable to the drug or category of drug in these pharmacy provider rules, including PA requirements imposed in this rule.

(3) The Oregon Health Authority (Authority) may require PA for individual drugs and categories of drugs to ensure that the drugs prescribed are indicated for conditions funded by OHP and consistent with the Prioritized List of Health Services and its corresponding treatment guidelines (see OAR 410-141-0480). The drugs and categories of drugs that the Authority requires PA for this purpose are found in the OHP Fee-For-Service Pharmacy PA Criteria Guide (PA Criteria Guide) dated January 1, 2014, incorporated in rule by reference and found on our Web page at: http://www.dhs.state.or.us/policy/healthplan/guides/pharmacy/clinical.html

(4) The Authority may require PA for individual drugs and categories of drugs to ensure medically appropriate use or to address potential client safety risk associated with the particular drug or category of drug, as recommended by the Pharmacy & Therapeutics Committee (P&T) and adopted by the Authority in this rule (see OAR 410-121-0100 for a description of the DUR program). The drugs and categories of drugs for which the Authority requires PA for this purpose are found in the Pharmacy PA Criteria Guide.

(5) New drugs shall be evaluated when added to the weekly upload of the First DataBank drug file:

(a) If the new drug is in a class where current PA criteria apply, all associated PA criteria shall be required at the time of the drug file load;

(b) If the new drug is indicated for a condition below the funding line on the Prioritized List of Health Services, PA shall be required to ensure that the drug is prescribed for a condition funded by OHP;

(c) PA criteria for all new drugs shall be reviewed by the DUR/P&T Committee.

(6) PA is required for brand name drugs that have two or more generically equivalent products available and that are NOT determined Narrow Therapeutic Index drugs by the Oregon DUR/P&T Committee:

(a) Immunosuppressant drugs used in connection with an organ transplant must be evaluated for narrow therapeutic index within 180 days after United States patent expiration;

(b) Manufacturers of immunosuppressant drugs used in connection with an organ transplant must notify the department of patent expiration within 30 days of patent expiration for (5)(a) to apply;

(c) Criteria for approval are:

(A) If criteria established in subsection (3) or (4) of this rule applies, follow that criteria;

(B) If (6)(A) does not apply, the prescribing practitioner must document that the use of the generically equivalent drug is medically contraindicated, and provide evidence that either the drug has been used and has failed or that its use is contraindicated based on evidence-based peer reviewed literature that is appropriate to the client's medical condition.

(7) PA is required for non-preferred Preferred Drug List (PDL) products in a class evaluated for the PDL except in the following cases:

(a) The drug is a mental health drug as defined in OAR 410-121-0000;

(b) The original prescription is written prior to 1/1/10;

(c) The prescription is a refill for the treatment of seizures, cancer, HIV or AIDS; or

(d) The prescription is a refill of an immunosuppressant.

(8) PA may not be required:

(a) When the prescription ingredient cost plus the dispensing fee is less than the PA processing fees as determined by the Authority;

(b) For over-the-counter (OTC) covered drugs when prescribed for conditions covered under OHP or;

(c) If a drug is in a class not evaluated from the Practitioner-Managed Prescription Drug Plan under ORS 414.334.

Practitioner-Managed Prescription Drug Plan

(1) The Practitioner-Managed Prescription Drug Plan (PMPDP) is a plan that ensures that fee-for-service clients of the Oregon Health Plan shall have access to the most effective prescription drugs appropriate for their clinical conditions at the best possible price:

(a) Licensed health care practitioners (informed by the latest peer reviewed research) make decisions concerning the clinical effectiveness of the prescription drugs;

(b) The licensed health care practitioners also consider the health condition of a client or characteristics of a client, including the client's gender, race or ethnicity.

(2) PMPDP Preferred Drug List (PDL):

(a) The PDL is the primary tool that the Division developed to inform licensed health care practitioners about the results of the latest peer-reviewed research and cost effectiveness of prescription drugs;

(b) The PDL (as defined in 410-121-0000 (cc) consists of prescription drugs that the Division, in consultation with the Drug Use Review (DUR)/Pharmacy & Therapeutics Committee (P&T), has determined the most effective drug(s) available at the best possible price;

(c) The PDL shall include drugs that are Medicaid reimbursable and the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has determined to be safe and effective.

(3) PMPDP PDL Selection Process:

(a) The Division shall utilize the recommendations made by the P&T, that result from an evidence-based evaluation process, as the basis for selecting the most effective drug(s);

(b) The Division shall determine the drugs selected in (3)(a) that are available for the best possible price and shall consider any input from the P&T about other FDA-approved drug(s) in the same class that are available for a lesser relative price. The Division shall determine relative price using the methodology described in subsection (4);

(c) The Division shall evaluate selected drug(s) for the drug classes periodically:

(A) Evaluation shall occur more frequently at the discretion of the Division if new safety information or the release of new drugs in a class or other information which makes an evaluation advisable;

(B) New drugs in classes already evaluated for the PDL shall be non-preferred until the new drug has been reviewed by the P&T;

(C) The Division shall make all changes or revisions to the PDL, using the rulemaking process and shall publish the changes on the Division's Pharmaceutical Services provider rules Web page.

(4) Relative cost and best possible price determination:

(a) The Division shall determine the relative cost of all drugs in each selected class that are Medicaid reimbursable and that the FDA has determined to be safe and effective;

(b) The Division may also consider dosing issues, patterns of use and compliance issues. The Division shall weigh these factors with any advice provided by the P&T in reaching a final decision;

(5) Pharmacy providers shall dispense prescriptions in the generic form, unless:

(a) The practitioner requests otherwise, subject to the regulations outlined in OAR 410-121-0155;

(b) The brand name medication is listed as preferred on the PDL.

(6) The exception process for obtaining non-preferred physical health drugs that are not on the PDL drugs shall be as follows:

(a) If the prescribing practitioner, in their professional judgment, wishes to prescribe a physical health drug not on the PDL, they may request an exception, subject to the requirements of OAR 410-121-0040;

(b) The prescribing practitioner must request an exception for physical health drugs not listed in the PDL subject to the requirements of OAR 410-121-0060;

(c) Exceptions shall be granted in instances:

(A) Where the prescriber in their professional judgment determines the non-preferred drug is medically appropriate after consulting with the Division or the Oregon Pharmacy Help Desk; or

(B) Where the prescriber requests an exception subject to the requirement of (6)(b) and fails to receive a report of PA status within 24 hours, subject to OAR 410-121-0060.

(7) Table 121-0030-1, PMPDP PDL dated January 10, 2014 is incorporated in rule by reference and is found on our Web page at www.orpdl.org.

Notice Publication Date:
Rules Amended: 410-122-0186
Subject: The rule provides the percentages of Medicare fee schedule that DMAP will pay for each category of service. DMEPOS rates are currently calculated as a percentage of 2010 Medicare fee schedule and vary depending on category of service. The amendment will change the percentages and are based on a more current version of Medicare (2012). The new percentages keep rates essentially the same to maintain budget neutrality.

Rules Adopted: 410-180-0325, 410-180-0326

Subject: House Bill 3650, passed during the 2011 legislative session, mandates that members enrolled in Oregon's Coordinated Care Organizations (CCOs) have access to Traditional Health Workers (THWs) to facilitate culturally and linguistically appropriate care. THWs include community health workers, personal health navigators, peer wellness specialists and other health care workers who are not currently regulated or certified by this state, including birth doulas. The Authority needs to adopt these rules which establish a new application and renewal process for THW certification and registry enrollment. These rules also set forth the THW background check requirements, which THWs must pass before being certified, enrolled on the Authority's registry and to be eligible for Medicaid reimbursement for their services.

The Authority needs to adopt these to ensure the full engagement and utilization of THWs in Oregon's Integrated and Coordinated Healthcare System to ensure quality healthcare for its clients.

Subject: With passage of the Affordable Care Act (ACA), Medicaid and CHIP eligibility methodologies are mandated to be changed January 1, 2014 to use of Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) income and methodologies. Oregon was approved for early implementation of the MAGI income and eligibility methodologies, an option provided by CMS to the states. Final Orders, Dismissals and Withdrawals

(1) When the Authority refers a contested case under chapter 410 division 200 to the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH), the Authority must indicate on the referral:

(a) Whether the Authority is authorizing a proposed order, a proposed and final order, or a final order; and

(b) If the Authority establishes an earlier deadline for written exceptions and argument because the contested case is being referred for an expedited appeal.

(2) When the Authority authorizes either a proposed order or a proposed and final order:

(a) The claimant may file written exceptions and written argument to be considered by the Authority. The exceptions and argument must be received at the location indicated in the OAH order not later than the 20th day after service of the proposed order or proposed and final order, unless subsection (1)(b) of this rule applies.

(b) Proposed Orders. After OAH issues a proposed order, the Authority shall issue the final order, unless the Authority requests that OAH issue the final order pursuant to OAR 137-003-0655.

(c) Proposed and Final Orders. If the claimant does not submit timely exceptions or argument following a proposed and final order, the proposed and final order becomes a final order on the 21st day after service of the proposed and final order unless:

(A) The Authority has issued a revised order; or

(B) Has notified the claimant and OAH that the Authority shall issue the final order.

(d) When the Authority receives timely exceptions or argument, the Authority shall issue the final order, unless the Authority requests that OAH issue the final order.

(3) In a contested case appeal if the OAH is authorized to issue a final order on behalf of the Authority, the Authority may issue the final order in the case of default.

(4) A petition by a claimant for reconsideration or rehearing must be filed with the individual who signed the final order, unless stated otherwise on the final order.

(5) A final order is effective immediately upon being signed or as otherwise provided in the order. Delay due to a postponement or continuance granted at the claimant's request shall not be counted in computing time limits for a final order. A final order shall be issued or the case otherwise resolved no later than:

(a) 90 days following the date of the appeal for the standard appeal time frame.

(b) 3 working days after the date the OAH hears an expedited appeal.

(6) In the event a request for appeal is not timely or the claimant has no right to a contested case appeal on an issue, and there are no factual disputes about whether this division of rules provides a right to an appeal, the Authority may issue an order accordingly. The Authority may refer an untimely request to the OAH for an appeal on timeliness or on the question of whether the claimant has the right to a contested case appeal.

(7) When the Authority receives an appeal request that is not filed within 90 days of the date of the decision notice but is filed within 75 days after a decision notice has become a final order:

(a) The Authority may refer the appeal request to the OAH for a contested case appeal on the merits of the Authority's action described in the notice:

(A) If the Authority finds that the claimant and claimant's representative did not receive the decision notice and did not have actual knowledge of the notice; or

(B) If the Authority finds that the claimant did not meet the timeframe required by OAR 410-200-0145(5) due to excusable mistake or neglect, which may be due to significant cognitive or health issues, reasonable reliance on the statement of an Agency employee relating to procedural requirements, or due to misrepresentation or other misconduct of the Agency.

(b) The Authority may dismiss an appeal request if it finds it is untimely if the claimant does not qualify for an appeal under subsection (7)(a).

(8) When the Authority receives an appeal request more than 75 days after a decision notice became a final order:

(a) For an overpayment notice:

(A) The Authority shall verify whether its records indicate that the liable adult requesting the appeal was sent the overpayment notice to the address known to the Agency.

(B) If no overpayment notice was sent to the liable adult, the overpayment appeal request is timely. The Authority shall send the claimant a decision notice or a contested case notice.

(C) If the Authority determines that an overpayment notice was sent to the liable adult at the last address known to the Agency, there is no appeal right based on the issue of whether or not the appeal request was received timely.

(b) Any appeal request is treated as timely when required under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act.

(c) The Authority may dismiss an appeal request as untimely if the claimant does not qualify for an appeal under subsections 8(a) and (b).

(9) A claimant may withdraw an appeal request at any time before a final order has been issued on the contested case. When a claimant withdraws an appeal request:

(a) The Authority shall send an order confirming the withdrawal to the claimant's last known address.

(b) The claimant may cancel the withdrawal in writing. The withdrawal must be received by the Authority hearing representative no later than the tenth working day following the date the Authority sent the order confirming the withdrawal.

(10) An appeal request is dismissed by order by default when neither the claimant nor the claimant's representative appears at the time and place specified for the appeal. The order is effective on the date scheduled for the appeal. The Authority shall cancel the dismissal order on request of the claimant on a showing that the claimant was unable to attend the appeal and unable to request a postponement for good cause reasons beyond his or her control.

Eligibility and Budgeting; MAGI Medicaid/CHIP; Not BCCTP or EXT

(1) The budget month means the calendar month from which nonfinancial and financial information is used to determine eligibility for OCCS Medical Programs.

(2) The budget month is determined as follows:

(a) For a new applicant, the budget month is:

(A) The month in which medical assistance is requested; or

(B) If ineligible in the month in which medical assistance is requested, the budget month is the following month.

(b) For a current Medicaid/CHIP beneficiary, the budget month is:

(A) The final month of the twelve-month enrollment period;

(B) The month a change that affects eligibility is reported, if reported timely; or

(C) The month the individual ages off a medical program or is no longer eligible for a medical assistance program.

(c) For retroactive medical, the budget month is the month in which the applicant received medical services for which they are requesting payment. Retroactive medical is determined on a month-by-month basis.

(3) Countable income anticipated or received in the budget month is determined as follows:

(a) Income is calculated by adding together the income of the household group already received in the budget month, and the income that is reasonably expected to be received in the remainder of the budget month.

(b) If ineligible in the budget month, countable income from the month following the budget month is considered.

(c) If ineligible under subsections (a) or (b) of this section because the countable income is over the income standard for OCCS Medical Programs, income shall be annualized using the requirements in 26 CFR §1.36 B-1(e) for the year in which medical has been requested, and applied to the budget month. If the annualized income is below 100% FPL as identified in 26 CFR §1.36 B-1(e), eligibility shall be determined for the appropriate program pursuant to OAR 410-200-0315.

(4) The household group's budget month income is compared to the income standard for the appropriate family size to determine if an applicant may be eligible for an OCCS Medical Program.

Standards and Determining Income Eligibility

(1) MAGI-based income not specifically excluded is countable, and its value is used in determining the eligibility and benefit level of an applicant or beneficiary.

(2) MAGI-based income is considered available on the date it is received or the date a member of the household group has a legal right to the payment and the legal ability to make it available, whichever is earlier, except as follows:

(a) Income usually paid monthly or on some other regular payment schedule is considered available on the regular payment date if the date of payment is changed because of a holiday or weekend.

(b) Income withheld or diverted at the request of an individual is considered available on the date the income would have been paid without the withholding or diversion.

(c) An advance or draw of earned income is considered available on the date it is received.

(3) In determining financial eligibility for each applicant, the sum of the budget month MAGI-based income of all household group members is combined and compared to the applicable income standard for the family size. If the income is at or below the MAGI income standard, the individual meets the financial eligibility requirements. Except as provided in section (4)(a), if income exceeds the MAGI income standard, the individual is ineligible.

(4) This section is effective January 1, 2014:

(a) If an individual is ineligible for MAGI Medicaid based solely on income, and would otherwise be eligible for MAGI CHIP or be referred to the Exchange for APTC, a disregard equivalent to 5 percentage points of the federal poverty level for the applicable family size shall be applied the household group's income. If the resulting amount is below the income standard for the applicable program and family size, the individual meets the financial eligibility requirements in the following programs:

(A) The MAGI Parent or Other Caretaker Relative Program,

(B) The MAGI Child Program,

(C) The MAGI Adult Program, and

(D) The MAGI Pregnant Woman Program

(b) If an individual is ineligible for MAGI CHIP based solely on income, and would otherwise be referred to the Exchange for APTC, a disregard equivalent to 5 percentage points of the federal poverty level for the applicable family size shall be applied the household group's income. If the resulting amount is below the income standard for the applicable program and family size, the individual meets the financial eligibility requirements in the MAGI CHIP.

(c) The MAGI income standard for the MAGI Parent or Other Caretaker-Relative program is set as follows: [Table not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(d) The MAGI income standard for the MAGI Child Program and the MAGI Adult Program is set at 133% of the FPL as follows. If an individual's household group income exceeds the income standard for their family size, the appropriate disregard for their family size described in section (4)(a) shall be applied: [Table not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(e) The MAGI income standard for the MAGI Pregnant Woman Program and for MAGI Child Program recipients under age one is set at 185% FPL. (1) This rule describes OCCS Medical Programs for which individuals may be determined eligible through December 31, 2013. See OAR 410-200-0500 for information regarding the treatment of those beneficiaries as of January 1, 2014.

(2) To be eligible for a program listed in this rule, an individual must meet the following:

(a) The eligibility factors set forth in OAR 410-200-0200 through 410-200-0240;

(b) The budgeting and income standard requirements set forth in OAR 410-200-0300 through 410-200-0315; and

(c) The individual must have established a Date of Request prior to January 1, 2014.

(3) For purposes of this rule, private major medical health insurance means a comprehensive major medical insurance plan that, at a minimum, provides physician services; inpatient and outpatient hospitalization; outpatient lab, x-ray, immunizations; and prescription drug coverage. This term does not include coverage under the Kaiser Child Health Program or Kaiser Transition Program but does include policies that are purchased privately or are employer-sponsored.

(4) For the purposes of this rule, the receipt of private major medical health insurance does not affect OCCS Medical Program eligibility if it is not accessible. Private major medical health insurance is not considered accessible if:

(a) The travel time or distance to available providers exceeds:

(A) In urban areas: 30 miles, 30 minutes, or the community standard, whichever is greater;

(B) In rural areas: 60 miles, 60 minutes, or the community standard, whichever is greater.

(b) Accessing the private major medical health insurance would place a filing group member at risk of harm.

(5) To be eligible for Chafee medical, the individual must be a child who was receiving foster care in Oregon, upon attaining:

(a) Age 18, or

(b) If over 18, the age at which Oregon Medicaid or Oregon Tribal foster care assistance ended under Title IV-E of the Act;

(6) CEM provides eligibility for the balance of the 12-month eligibility period for non-CAWEM children who were receiving Child Welfare (CW) medical, EXT, MAA, MAF, OHP, OSIPM, or SAC program benefits and lost eligibility for reasons other than moving out of state or turning 19 years old. CEM benefits end when:

(a) The child becomes eligible for CW medical, EXT, MAA, MAF, OHP, OSIPM, or SAC program benefits;

(b) The child turns 19 years of age;

(c) The child moves out of state; or

(d) Benefits are closed voluntarily.

(7) CEC provides eligibility for the OHP-CHP program for non-CAWEM pregnant children who were receiving OHP-CHP and would have otherwise lost eligibility for reasons other than moving out of state or becoming a recipient of private major medical health insurance. CEC eligibility for OHP-CHP ends the day following the end of the month in which the earliest of the following occur:

(a) The pregnancy ends;

(b) The individual moves out of state;

(c) The individual begins receiving private major medical health insurance;

(d) Benefits are closed voluntarily; or

(e) The individual becomes eligible for CW medical, EXT, MAA, MAF, OHP, OSIPM, or SAC program benefits.

(8) For the Authority to enroll a child in the program based on a determination made by an ELA, the child's parent or guardian must give consent in writing, by telephone, orally, or through electronic signature.

(9) To be eligible for EXT, an individual must have been eligible for and receiving MAA or MAF and became ineligible due to a caretaker relative's increased earned income or due to increased spousal support (see OAR 410-200-0440).

(10) To be eligible for MAA or MAF, an individual must be one of the following:

(a) A dependent child who lives with a caretaker relative. However, a dependent child for who foster care payments are made for more than 30 days is not eligible while the payments are being made.

(b) A caretaker relative of an eligible dependent child. However, a caretaker relative to who foster care payments are made for more than 30 days is not eligible while the payments are being made.

(c) A caretaker relative of a dependent child, when the dependent child is ineligible for MAA or MAF for one of the following reasons:

(A) The child is receiving SSI;

(B) The child is in foster care, but is expected to return home within 30 days; or

(C) The child's citizenship has not been documented.

(d) An essential person. An essential person is a member of the household group who:

(A) Is not required to be in the filing group;

(B) Provides a service necessary to the health or protection of a member of the household group who has a mental or physical disability; and

(C) Is less expensive to include in the benefit group than the cost of purchasing this service from another source.

(e) A parent of an unborn as follows:

(A) For the MAA program:

(i) Any parent whose only child is an unborn child, once the mother's pregnancy has reached the calendar month preceding the month in which the due date falls.

(ii) The father of an unborn child who does not meet the criteria described in subsection (e)(A)(i) of this part may be eligible if there is another dependent child in the household group.

(B) For the MAF program, a mother whose only child is an unborn child, once the mother's pregnancy has reached the calendar month preceding the month in which the due date falls

(E) The Department determines that the individual was continuously eligible for the OHP-OPU program on or after June 30, 2004 under paragraphs (A) to (D) of this section.

(B) Established a Date of Request prior to the eligibility ending date in paragraph (A) of this section; and

(C) Meets the eligibility requirements for the OHP-OPU program or the related CAWEM program within either the month of the Date of Request or, if ineligible in the month of the Date of Request, the following month.

(20) A child who becomes ineligible for the OHP program because of age while receiving in-patient medical services remains eligible until the end of the month in which he or she no longer receives those services if he or she is receiving in-patient medical services on the last day of the month in which the age requirement is no longer met.

All premiums in arrears and past due premiums for a filing group must be paid before a client can be redetermined for ongoing eligibility.

(5) For any billed premium, the Agency shall cancel the arrearage if the applicant is otherwise eligible for the OHP-OPU program and one of the following applies:

(a) The arrearage was incurred while the client was exempt from the requirement to pay a premium; or

(c) Based on the number in the household group and the countable income, the monthly premium for each non-exempt OHP-OPU beneficiary is determined using the following table: [Table not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(1) An Eligible Employees experiencing a change in family or work status as noted below after an annual open enrollment, or anytime during the plan year, has 31 calendar days beginning on the date of the event to make allowable changes. If the event is gaining a child, as defined by 111-040-0040(4)(c), or results in a loss of eligibility, the Eligible Employee has 60 calendar days after the event to make allowable changes.

(2) An Eligible Employee can only make changes that are consistent with the event for them self and/or dependents.

(3) An Eligible Employee must report the Qualified Status Change (QSC) to the employee's Entity within the specified timeframe. Failure to report a QSC that will result in removal of a spouse, domestic partner, or child within the timeframe stated in 111-040-0040(1) may be considered intentional misrepresentation, and OEBB may rescind the individual's coverage back to the last day of the month in which the individual lost eligibility. Please refer to the QSC matrix for details on what changes can occur with each event.

(4) Qualified Status Changes which allow an employee to make changes to his or her coverage are:

(a) Gaining a spouse by marriage or domestic partner by meeting domestic partner eligibility;

(b) Loss of spouse or domestic partner by divorce, annulment, death or termination of domestic partnership,

(c) Gaining a child by birth, placement for/or adoption, or Domestic Partner's children (by affidavit of domestic partnership),

(d) Change in employee group which affects plan option availability;

(e) Spouse or domestic partner starts new employment or other change in employment status which affects eligibility for benefits;

(f) Spouse or domestic partner's employment ends or other change in employment status resulting in a loss of eligibility for benefits under their employer's plan;

(g) Event by which a child satisfies eligibility requirements under OEBB plans;

(h) Event by which a child ceases to satisfy eligibility requirements under OEBB plans;

(i) Changes in the residence of the active eligible employee, spouse, domestic partner, or child (i.e., moving out of the service area of an HMO);

(j) Significant changes in cost of the Eligible Employee's or Early Retiree's current plan and tier level that result in a negative impact of 10 percent or more to:

(A) The amount an active Eligible Employee or Early Retiree must contribute toward benefits.

(B) The amount a spouse or domestic partner must contribute toward his or her group health insurance plan cost.

(k) Different Open Enrollment/Plan Year under a spouse/domestic partner's employer plan.

(l) Related laws or court orders. For example: Qualified Medical Child Support Order (QMSCO), Entitlement to Medicare or Medicaid, HIPAA, or Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP). Changes are determined by the applicable law or court order.

(5) Changes in coverage, or contribution amounts that result in a reduced amount that an employee or eligible dependent must contribute toward benefits, do not constitute a Qualified Status Change.

(6) The following applies to the Long Term Care benefit plans only:

(a) Cancel the plan at any time without a QSC event.

(b) Plan additions or changes require a QSC event as defined 111-040-0040(2). The addition of a plan or change in plans with a QSC is subject to a medical evidence review by the LTC carrier.

(2) Unless otherwise specified in a collective bargaining agreement, documented Entity policy or employment contract in effect on July 1, 2008, an Eligible Employee may opt out of the OEBB-sponsored medical benefit plans. Eligible Employees electing to opt out must:

(a) Maintain coverage under another employer-sponsored group medical benefit plan;

(b) Meet the requirements of the Entity opt out program in which they are participating;

(c) Submit their election to opt out through the OEBB benefit management system; and

(d) If requested, provide proof of current coverage under another employer-sponsored group medical benefit plan.

(3) Eligible Employees electing to opt out of the OEBB-sponsored medical benefit plans may enroll in the dental benefit plans, vision benefit plans, and optional benefit plans.

(5) An Entity will provide OEBB with a written description of its opt out program upon request.

(6) An otherwise Eligible Employee may opt-out of medical if the criteria above are met, decline dental and/or vision, or elect any combination of benefits provided under the OEBB-sponsored benefits program, unless otherwise stated in a collective bargaining agreement or documented Entity policy.

(7) Elections to opt out of the medical benefit plans or waive benefits must be made at the time of hire, when initially meeting eligibility, during an open enrollment period, or following a QSC event whereby the OEBB QSC Matrix allows this as an option.

(a) Coverage for previously OEBB-eligible employees or a previously OEBB-eligible dependent enrolling in the dental and/or vision plans during an open enrollment period will be limited to routine and preventive care for the first 12 months and subject to a 12-month waiting period for orthodontia coverage.

(b) An Eligible Employee who enrolls in the dental or vision plans, or adds previously OEBB- eligible dependents to the dental and vision plans following and consistent with a QSC event will not be subject to waiting periods.

(8) An Eligible Employee electing to not enroll when initially eligible for optional insurance plans, or enrolling for more than the guarantee issue amount, will have to go through a medical review. Failure to remit a medical history statement or complete other requirements will result in a declination of requested amounts, or the amount above the guaranteed amount, if applicable.

(9) An Eligible Employee electing to not enroll when initially eligible for optional short term disability will be subject to a late enrollment penalty upon enrollment.
