EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENT – PUBLIC HEARING

PACIFIC NORTHWEST ELECTRIC POWER AND CONSERVATION PLANNING COUNCIL –JOAN DUKES (EXHIBIT B)055Sen. Joan DukesDistrict 16. Appears and discusses her interest and qualifications

075	Sen. Ferrioli	for appointment to the Power Planning Council. Describes her experience working on fishery issues, service on Legislative Council on River Governance dealing with Columbia River issues, and service on Public Affairs Committee, working on deregulation. Discusses her intent to find solutions to regional issues. Comments on Sen. Dukes' qualifications and hard work in this issue area. Asks how she would balance the multiple uses of the Columbia River. Points out his constituents depend on the river for hydropower. Stresses importance of uninterrupted, affordable distribution of electric power, and critical nature of river levels for transportation, flood control and navigation. Comments on Sen. Dukes' advocacy of fishermen in her district. Asks how she will balance natural resource uses with the economic advantage of low-cost hydro power.
105	Sen. Dukes	Responds she hopes that once on the council she will learn more.
		Explains up to now she was elected to represent one portion of Oregon, but on the council would represent all of Oregon. Shares plans to travel through Oregon to seek input. Believes in one Oregon, and also one river. Expresses concern over differing interests of river users.
135	Sen. Ferrioli	Asks about battles over issues. Reminds that Governor is willing to reignite a litigious strategy on the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) Fisheries 2004 Biological Opinion, and potentially embroil Oregon in litigation. Asserts the opinion releases a stranglehold on cattle ranching, grazing, irrigation, hydroelectric power generation and other issues affecting rural economies and public power users. Asks what she would advise the Governor.
155	Sen. Dukes	Refers to Governor's briefing paper and offers to provide it to the committee. Discusses the six points in the Governor's plan. Points out the Governor wants to negotiate and not go to court, and his staff has started meetings with federal agencies.
185	Sen. Ferrioli	Observes Governor's six points are the same as Oregon Trout's six points. Asks for acceptance of idea that objections raised must be based on science.
190	Sen. Dukes	Points out two scientists can differ in their opinion. Agrees science must be based on recent, credible and useful studies.
210	Sen. Ferrioli	Refers to controversy over programs which raised costs to ratepayers without measurable benefit to fish. Observes Bonneville Power Administration (BPA) has spent some $3 billion of ratepayer dollars mitigating for fish. Asks how she will create an expectation of measurable outcomes from council programs.
230	Sen. Dukes	Acknowledges the headlines about excess expenditures by BPA. Expresses intent not to waste money.
250	Sen. Ferrioli	Reminds she has disagreed with many members on some issues, and expresses confidence she will disagree with the Governor when needed.
260	Sen. Ringo	Comments fish runs have improved but are still not at historic levels. Asks whether she will try to maintain or increase the fish runs.
270	Sen. Dukes	Explains she will continue to push for increases in fish runs. Discusses ocean conditions and watershed improvements.

		Comments on hatchery operations which are constantly
200	a al : 11	improving fish.
290	Sen. Shields	From standpoint of city district, comments on vast differences between districts. Asks how to balance interests of rural and urban constituents. Invites her participation in the River
220	Ser Delese	Governance Council.
320	Sen. Dukes	Agrees she would like to participate in that group. Discusses disconnect between different groups and hopes to resolve some differences. Invites feedback to the Power Planning Council from 250	Can Chielde	different points of view. Asks for her contact information.
350 360	Sen. Shields Sen. Dukes
300	Sell. Dukes	Reminds them to use her legislative contact information. Refers to staff in Portland office.
375	Sen. Ferrioli	Comments on council membership of former Sen. Gene Derfler.
515	Sell. Perifoli	Expresses hope her appointment is not meant to silence dissent.
		Acknowledges service of Sen. Derfler on the council.
TAPE 2, A		Technowledges service of sen. Derner on the council.
005	Sen. Dukes	Advises she has already met with Sen. Derfler.
