TAPE/#	Speaker	Comments
TAPE 43, A
005	Chair Brown	Calls the meeting to order at 8:34 a.m. Opens a public hearing on executive appointments.
EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS – PUBLIC HEARING
OCEAN POLICY ADVISORY COUNCIL (OPAC) – APPOINTMENTS OF PAUL ENGELMEYER, FRED SICKLER, AND FRANK WARRENS (EXHIBIT A)
010	Paul Engelmeyer	Appears before the committee. Discusses his interest in and qualifications for the appointment.
035	Fred Sickler	Lincoln City. Business owner, surf shop. Retired educator. Discusses interest in and qualifications for the appointment. Offers perspective of recreational activities and concern with near-shore activities to be studied and improved.
065	Frank Warrens	Portland. Automotive repair business owner. Charter boat operator. Member, Pacific Fishery Management Council (PFMC). Former member of the Ocean Policy Advisory Council (OPAC). Discusses interest in and qualifications for the appointment. Offers a commercial and recreational perspective.
080	Sen. Ringo	Asks Mr. Warrens about marine reserves.
085	Warrens	Replies that the PFMC has enacted a large closure area off the pacific coast where rockfish fishing is prohibited. Says that other marine sanctuaries along the west coast are protected. Adds that reserves often restrict fishing altogether.

105	Sen. Shields	Asks witnesses about a marine reserve versus a nursery area for recovering species.
115	Warrens	Replies that they are somewhat synonymous. Says there are various protections for species living within a reserve.
125	Sickler	Sees a reserve as a nursery. Adds that they can also be located near the shore.

STATE APPRENTICESHIP AND TRAINING COUNCIL – APPOINTMENT OF JASON LANDON

(EXHIBIT B)

140	Jason Landon	Electrical contractor, Portland. Trustee member for NECA-IBEW Local 48 training center. Believes that the apprenticeship is the backbone of the industry. Discusses his interest in and qualifications for the appointment.
-----	--------------	---

OREGON BOARD OF DENTISTRY – APPOINTMENT OF JILL MASON (EXHIBIT C)

160	Jill Mason	Portland. Discusses interest in and qualifications for the appointment.
175	Chair Brown	Asks about involvement with the Alternative Healthcare Access Campaign (AHAC) and assuring all Oregonians have access to dental care.
180	Mason	Discusses the board's role to increase access, particularly in rural areas.
185	Chair Brown	Asks about fluoride treatment.
188	Mason	Opines it is a positive thing.
195	Sen. Ringo	Asks what the board's role is in reviewing citizen complaints and disciplining dental practitioners.
200	Mason	Says that she is not familiar with the role of the board but guesses the role is to investigate and resolve the problem.
205	Sen. Ringo	Asks if she could take on that role.
210	Mason	Affirms.
215	Sen. Shields	Asks about politics of fluoride treatment and competing science available.
235	Mason	Agrees it is a very emotional issue, which can obstruct the scientific evidence. Says she is a proponent of fluoride treatment and has studied the research from both sides of the issue.
265	Chair Brown	Asks about the issue of amalgam fillings.
270	Mason	Discusses controversy over whether amalgam fillings are safe. Feels they are safe. Reports that she has used them.

OREGON PATIENT SAFETY COMMISSION BOARD OF DIRECTORS – APPOINTMENT OF

NANCY CHI (EXHIBIT D)

285	Nancy Chi	Portland. Director of Management Information Reporting, Regence BlueCross BlueShield of Oregon. Discusses interest in and qualifications for the appointment.
-----	-----------	---

PSYCHIATRIC SECURITY REVIEW BOARD – APPOINTMENT OF JULIA HURLBURT

(EXHIBIT E)

305	Julia Hurlburt	Salem. Discusses background in corrections. Discusses interest in and qualifications for the appointment.
310	Chair Brown	Asks about juvenile needs.
315	Hurlburt	Discusses experience working with juveniles in the past.
320	Chair Brown	Asks about addressing the needs of public safety.
340	Hurlburt	Discusses public safety.

OCEAN POLICY ADVISORY COUNCIL – APPOINTMENTS OF SCOTT McMULLEN AND

ROBIN HARTMANN (EXHIBIT A)

350 Scott McMullen Commercial fisherman. Executive Director, Oregon Fishermen's Cable Committee. Discusses background, interest and qualifications for the appointment.

370 Sen. Ringo Asks how he balances the short-term vs. the long-term benefit of the industry.

375 McMullen Explains that marine reserves could be looked at as one option of management.

400 Sen. Ringo Asks how long it would take to establish whether the marine reserve is effective.

405 McMullen Says 20 years would be necessary.

415 Chair Brown Asks what role he sees in helping the OPAC in getting started back up.

TAPE 44, A

005 McMullen Replies that he has looked at the nominees and there are good qualified members from a variety of backgrounds.

010 Chair Brown Asks about representatives from the north coast.

015 McMullen Says he is willing to try.

017 Sen. Shields Asks about a coastal town in New England with a large marine reserve which rejuvenated the fishing industry. Asks how long that study took.

025 McMullen Refers to areas set aside in rotation in New England partitioned off for 5-10 years and then reopened. Suggests it was probably restricted for a long time (10 years or more).

035 Sen. Shields Asks if he would be willing to do that here.

040 McMullen Agrees. Says that during the last OPAC he recommended setting aside some trial areas. Reminds any reserve must have a fishing industry buy-in to be successful.

050 Sen. Shields Asks about science used to determine the size of reserves.

052 McMullen Describes widely varying sizes of reserves. Says they need scientists to advise the council.

065 Robin Hartmann Roseburg. Discusses interest in and qualifications for the appointment.

090 Chair Brown Comments about new procedure reviewing the background of the appointees. Says she is impressed with the varying backgrounds and willingness to appear and to serve.

STATE WORKFORCE INVESTMENT BOARD – APPOINTMENTS OF JAMES PAULSON AND

C. CARL CALIFANO (EXHIBIT F)

115 James Paulson Keizer Permanente. Discusses his interest in and qualifications for the appointment.

135 C. Carl Califano Vice President of Operations, ATI Wah Chang. Discusses interest in and qualifications for the appointment.

155 Chair Brown Asks Mr. Paulson about health care as a tool for economic development. Asks about the role of the Oregon Health Sciences University (OHSU) in meeting demands.

160 Paulson Replies that OHSU is only a small component of developing a health care workforce. Describes other professions where there is need. Says that more growth for the economy means more growth of his profession.

OCEAN POLICY ADVISORY COUNCIL – APPOINTMENT OF ONNO HUSING (EXHIBIT A)

180 Onno Husing Director, Oregon Coastal Zone Management Association (OCZMA). Reports that he served on the council once before in 1996 and that he worked on the original territorial sea task force.

		Expresses interest in striking the balance between socio-economic needs and the preservation of the resources. Expresses common concern that the creation of marine reserves will go too far. Says he is ready to talk about the issue. Endorses other members nominated to the council. Says there will be some friction in the process but that he is prepared to move forward.
235	Chair Brown	Refers to SB 734 (2005) which allows the state to establish marine reserve parks. Asks how he feels about the state legislature taking a pro-active approach on the issue.
240	Husing	Reports that he opposes the bill because he was never consulted. Says that the spectrum of people from his side are ready to go forward but want to have a voice. Discusses how the process can go forward under Oregon law to create marine reserves in territorial waters. Reminds that the fishing industry has been under pressure in the past few years. Asks for 2 years to work through the issue.
345	Sen. Ringo	Asks for review of his opinion.
355	Husing	Reiterates he is in favor of marine reserves but wants a voice. Summarizes his testimony.

TAPE 43, B

005	Sen. Ringo	Asks about reductions of fish for harvest. Asks if fisheries are in a state of collapse.
010	Husing	Explains in 1996 congress changed fisheries management. Says that was in response to a collapse of fisheries in New England.
015	Sen. Ringo	Asks about the west coast.
017	Husing	Describes changes in the nature of the harvest away from rockfish (slow growing) versus faster growing species.
020	Sen. Ringo	Asks if collapse is the right term. Says that dramatic reduction is accurate.
022	Husing	Agrees.
025	Sen. Ringo	Asks about over-fishing by the industry.
030	Husing	Discusses how the populations have changed and how the industry has responded. Refers to the January 2002 OCZMA resolution (EXHIBIT G).
050	Sen. Ferrioli	Comments on tools available for managing the industry. Refers to the proposed bill and asks for a thoughtful process instead. Offers support to all the nominees.
090	Sen. Ringo	Refers to the National Academy of Sciences recommendation to establish marine reserves.
095	Husing	Affirms.
100	Chair Brown	Calls Douglas Kirkpatrick.

BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS – APPOINTMENT OF DOUGLAS KIRKPATRICK

(EXHIBIT H)

110	Douglas Kirkpatrick	Board of Medical Examiners. Discusses interest in and background for the appointment.
140	Chair Brown	Asks about the role of the board responding to patient complaints.
145	Kirkpatrick	Responds that it is a very important role. Says that the board must evaluate complaints against practitioners in Oregon. Discusses ongoing need to maintain high medical standards in medical care.
155	Sen. Shields	Discusses workers' compensation issues including the role of independent medical examiners working in Oregon.

170	Kirkpatrick	Says there is a need for someone outside the context to review the worker's claim and medical condition. Agrees the IME is sometimes not independent. Suggests SAIF and the board must both oversee the process.
190	Sen. Shields	Asks if the Board of Medical Examiners certify the independence of IME documents. Comments that insurance companies are the ones paying the "independent" examiners.
205	Kirkpatrick	Agrees there may be a role for the board or some other group to review and certify the independence of the examiners.
215	Chair Brown	Closes public hearing and opens work session on executive appointments.
