TAPE 41, A

002	Rep. Prozanski	Clarifies based on the bill what information regarding employment. Requests the intent of the bill
007	Rep. Butler	Explains the intent.
012	Rep. Kitts	Notes he does not have the same faith in state agencies as Rep. Butler does. Requests if it is possible for the Governor to freeze new hires by agencies. Believes it would be appropriate to know the information the bill would provide now.
030	Rep. Butler	Answers there is a freeze currently although it is rather fluid. Clarifies.
036	Rep. Kitts	Restates his question regarding the Governor.
043	Rep. Butler	Speak to position currently frozen and the accomplishments of those positions with regard to the movement of employees among agencies.
062	Rep. Mabrey	Believes the goal of the bill is admirable. Questions the value of the work needed to perform the actions the bill would require.
077	Rep. Butler	Notes that an audit process is basically necessary in the ferreting out of unneeded jobs and that one is currently underway in Ways and Means.
094	Rep. Mabrey	Restates earlier question regarding the validation of state employment positions without knowledge of the jobs and persons involved.
109	Rep. Butler	Responds that the right to have the information supersedes the ideals.
119	Rep. Nelson	Requests his recollection of the lack of information of overhead of agencies. Asks if the bill would help in situations like that.
127	Rep. Butler	Explains the information to be provided by the bill.
137	Chair Krummel	Informs of the state employee phone list. Asks if the list could be utilized.
147	Rep. Butler	Remarks it could be used because a database already exists. Notes additions to be made to the database.
154	Chair Krummel	Points out the similarity of the bill to one past.
161	Rep. Butler	Concurs it is similar. Believes the information is needed.
166	Chair Krummel	Inquires about the good in the legislature exercising micromanagement.
170	Rep. Butler	Believes micromanagement is a necessary exercise of the legislature.
192	Rep. Nelson	Asks about the inclusion of consultants in the bill.
198	Rep. Butler	Explains issue consultants. Welcomes the opportunity to gather more information on issues such as these.
218	Rep. Nelson	Clarifies it could include consultants.
223	Chair Krummel	Points out the consultation funds are earned by the private sector.
229	Williams	Testifies in favor of HB 3073 (EXHIBIT A).
257	Rep. Prozanski	Poses question.
264	Williams	Comments on the Ways and Means process. Explains the OTA is interested in the availability of information.
280	Rep. Prozanski	Believes the existence of a list does not necessarily connote improvement. Offers an audit would be helpful. Asks if OTA would be interested in micromanagement.
290	Williams	Responds concerning OTA work on the matter.
295	Rep. Prozanski	Restates his question.
304	Williams	Responds that he would like to see more audits.
310	Rep. Prozanski	Asks if OTA would support the legislature becoming full-time then.
314	Williams	Replies the legislature could experiment with the option.

317	Rep. Prozanski	Explains the requirements overseeing the implications represented by the measure would necessitate a more full-time approach by the legislature.
323	Williams	Concurs.
326	Rep. Prozanski	Explains the intent of his questions.
334	Rep. Mabrey	Comments on his own experiences as a county judge. Notes the nebulous nature of determining necessary employment. Wonders
377	Williams	how the list is not redundant. Responds that the annual report can be a starting point. Believes clarity on the issue is necessary and that it would be easy to produce the list.

HB 2417 WOR
177	Patrick Brennan	Reads SMS on HB 2417. Informs of -1 amendment (EXHIBIT F).
186	Rep. Betsy Close	House District 15. Explains how the amendment has narrowed the bill to cover day passes for public visitors who testify. Acknowledges there is no fiscal analysis yet. Voices belief the cost is not large.
209	Rep. Prozanski	Inquires why a fiscal analysis has not yet been received.
214	Brennan	Explains Committee Services is extrapolating the data to provide Legislative Fiscal with the information needed. Notes a subsequent referral could be added later.
220	Chair Krummel	Adds the Senate could also send the measure to Ways and Means. Informs the committee of his work with Rep. Close on the matter.
244	Rep. Close	Notes parking spots currently exist.
247	Rep. Kitts	MOTION: Moves to ADOPT HB 2417-1 amendments dated 03/19/03.
252	Rep. Prozanski	States he is not ready to move on the bill until a fiscal analysis is received.
256	Rep. Avakian	Concurs with Rep. Prozanski. Asks for the City of Salem's position on the matter.
260	Brennan	Believes the city is comfortable with the bill as amended.
264	Rep. Prozanski	Presents the State of Oregon will incur the costs. Comments.
268	Brennan	Notes the costs will be to Legislative Administration (LA).
272	Rep. Kitts	Clarifies it is a loss of revenue.
276	Chair Krummel	Answers the revenue is neutral to the City of Salem and cost is to the State.
283	Rep. Kitts	Clarifies the State incurs the cost, and there will be no exemption of costs.
288	Rep. Prozanski	Explains that unless it is a 'takings' and the City of Salem no longer charge for the spots, cost will be incurred. Questions the need for the bill when those who travel to the Capitol pay to operate personal vehicles.
295	Rep Kitts	Comments.
305	Rep. Prozanski	Questions that parking pass costs are a burden as he does not believe they are.
314	Brennan	Adds Mr. Bennett from City of Salem explained LA obtains the passes from the city. Notes the possibility of a bulk discount agreement.

331	Rep. Kitts	States he would like to see a compromise reached between the city and the state. Supports the -1 amendment still.
344	Chair Krummel	Concurs with Rep. Prozanski's reservations. Voices belief that any barrier that exists between the public and the Capitol should be removed. Supports the -1 amendment.
357	Rep. Prozanski	Provides alternatives in existence that would not cost the state.
365	Chair Krummel	Comments on the information included to citizens wishing to testify.
370	Rep. Prozanski	Asserts he provides that information for his constituency.
