080	Sen. Beyer	Asks if there is anyone to testify. Notes that he has a letter signed by the Governor stating as soon as he receives the bill he will sign it (EXHIBIT P).
090	Chair Clarno	Asks if there is anyone in the hearing room from the Governor's office.
085	Stone	Notes the Governor's office had intended to pull the letter back.
094	Goldman	States there was a message on her answering machine stating the letter was a clerical error.
097	Stone	Clarifies he has been in touch with the Natural Resources office and they state the letter should have been pulled.
100	Chair Clarno	Injects the letter was premature.
103	Sen. Beyer	Notes the letter was signed stating the Governor is in supporting the bill.
The followi	ing prepared testimony is	s submitted for the record without public testimony for HB 3264:
	Aubrey Russell	Submits written testimony (EXHIBIT Q)
