004	Chair Starr	Calls Meeting to order at 9:05 a.m Reminds members that there won't be a meeting on Friday, February 2 nd .
TRANSPO	DRTATION FUNDING
010	Bob Melbo	President, Short Lines Railroad Association. Submits written material (EXHIBIT A). Gives an overview of organization and discusses the need for funding.
240	Chair Starr	Asks how helpful it would be if Oregon were to pass a law similar to New York, that exempted taxes for infrastructure improvements.
250	Melbo	Answers that New York exempts capital investment for 10 years and such a practice in Oregon would be a tremendous help.
260	Chair Starr	Asks if nothing is done, what would be the potential loss of short lines.
280	Melbo	Answers that many lines are in grave danger.
300	Rep. Verger	Discuses the emphasis on economic development and the part i c	short-lines play. Asks question regarding opening at bridge - if rail bridge is impediment to navigation in the future.
332	Melbo	Answers that draw bridge is somewhat of an impediment.
355	Rep. Verger	Comments on the Port of Coos Bay, which is faced with serious economic impact.
373	Rep. Zauner	Asks whether the size of cars contributes to the weight problems
	*	on bridges.
376	Melbo	Responds that cars do exact a much heavier maintenance toll on railroads and bridges.

417	Rep. Zauner	Asks if cars need to be filled to capacity.
384	Melbo	Answers that it is difficult for clients to load less than capacity destroys economics.
TAPE 21, A
009	Rep. Nelson	Comments that short lines are a great way to move freight. Asks if efficiency and effectiveness of rail business would be greater served if short lines were separate entity.
016	Melbo	Answers that the rail section of ODOT has been very helpful; however, division is only 30 people.
036	Rep. Verger	Question regarding last session moving aviation out of Oregon Department of Transportation.
041	Chair Starr	Answers yes and that an overview of the aviation department will be on next meeting's agenda.

169	Burl	Responds that he does not know.
190	Rep. Nelson	Asks if Evergreen Shipping Lines is leaving because of an inefficient intermodal system or because Delta Airlines is leaving
200	Burl	Answers that the size of the channel could be an issue.
207	Rep. Nelson	Asks Mr. Burl if he feels the Port of Portland is adequate.
208	Burl	Answers that he cannot answer that question.
209	Rep. Brown	Opines that the dredging of the Columbia River is the main cause of Evergreen leaving. Asks who owns railroad right-of-ways when they are abandoned.
222	Burl	Answers that he does not know.
237	Rep. Devlin	Comments that he believes that abandoned right-of-ways revert back to the property owners along the right of way.
243	Rep. Nelson	Asks what other sources of financial assistance or creative financing has Mr. Burl found for transportation process.
247	Burl	Answers that he does not have an answer, but suggests that the legislature funds a study of systems in other states and how funding is accomplished. Comments that Oregon's highways are not as bad as those in other states.

143 Taylor Affirms that if a person is buying one 10-day pass, the fee would jump 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ times.
149 Rep. Devlin Notes that there is no impact of issuing the permit in terms of employee time, but cautions that fee is enough to cover cost of issuing the permit.
160 Taylor Concurs that time used in filling out and giving permit, because of tracking systems, will be longer and more time consuming.
167 Rep. Verger Asks if there is a less expensive way of utilizing tracking system.
173 Rep. Kropf Asks what is the projected time frame for this tracking system.
175 Taylor Proposes that probably by January 1, 2002. Asks clarification of
Rep. Verger's previous comment.
189 Rep. Verger Clarifies that technology is not always the answer when trying to cut costs. Notes that if one were to install limitations on the permit process and take more information, that this would be a much better system.
198TaylorStates that a manual system would not work.
200Rep. VergerAsks why not.
210TaylorResponds that the honor system does not work.
