110	Handforth	States he can submit it later at the committee's request.
116	Chair Bryant	Asks about the surveyor and if he responded to Mrs. Waterman's complaint.
120	Handforth	States they did discuss the issue and agreed that Waterman requested money for coming onto the property, which he did not pay. States the owner's permission is not needed, but prior notice is to be given before entering the property.
149	Sen. Leonard	Asks if the surveyor had fulfilled the requirements of the law.
153	Handforth	States the surveyor said he had, but a letter was written to him in concern that he had not.
156	Sen. Leonard	Asks about access.
160	Sen. Brown	Asks about the evidence.
163	Handforth	States the complaint was issued without evidence, and reviews access rules.
174	Sen. Brown	Asks who conducted the investigation.
175	Handforth	States the Law Enforcement Coordinator screens out the complaints then assigns the cases to a subcommittee which does the investigations.
182	Sen. Brown	Asks if the subcommittee called Ms. Waterman or others for an investigation.
183	Handforth	States the subcommittee decided evidence could not be found.
189	Sen. Brown	Asks about the fee which Waterman charged the surveyor.
193	Handforth	States there was no claim of specific damages.
197	Chair Bryant	Asks if Waterman or the surveyor was interviewed by Handforth.
206	Handforth	States he was not.
212	Chair Bryant	Asks if anyone present was on the subcommittee.
214	Handforth	States there is not anyone present from the subcommittee.
229	Parsons	States doorhanger were sent to all certified land surveyors in the state reminding them of their responsibilities. States they have not reviewed the amendments. States a simpler law was proposed in 1995.
271	Sen. Derfler	Refers to complaints.
281	Handforth	States the board received only two complaints.
290	Parsons	Comments on the right of entry law. States in many cases the land owner doesn't live in the state or on the property and they are therefore difficult to contact.
		Jefferson County. Presents (EXHIBIT L) , including survey materials which were left behind on property, in support of SB 815. States it

360	Nancy Richards	took ten months to resolve a surveyor problem. Explains the problems the surveyors caused on her property. States there was no response to their first complaint letter.
420	Richards	States they provided the board with the names of other landowners who had run into similar problems. Explains it took four months for the marker to be removed.
TAPE 183, B
040	Richards	Explains the surveyor only provided his name and considered that to be sufficient notification.
052	Chair Bryant	Asks about the purpose of the survey.
054	Richards	States a neighbor was interested in the boundary lines. Explains the notification was not satisfactory and the board did not respond to the complaints. Explains no other complaints were filed because the ones which were filed were ignored.
067	Mickey Killingsworth	President, Jefferson County Farm Bureau. Presents (EXHIBIT M) in support of SB 815. Explains there was no notice before stakes were placed on her land. Explains her concerns with the dangers of gates left open by surveyors. States she wants communication in order to work with the surveyors so further bad situations do not arise.
121	Sen. Nelson	Asks how big the permanent markers are.
127	Richards	Describes the markers. States putting the markers below the surface only took 15 minutes and fixed the problem.
136	Jack N. Burris	County Surveyor in Wallowa County, Consultant and Chairman Board of Directors of Professional Land Surveyors of Oregon. Opposes SB 815. States surveyors provide a useful function of society.
172	Ray Wilson	Deputy Land Surveyor. Opposes SB 815. Explains most surveyors do subsurface monuments since they do not want them torn out. States that out of 1,800 surveyors in Oregon getting only two complaints is not bad.
197	Tim Fassbender	Opposes SB 815. Displays the doorhangers which are used for notification. Explains there are differences between county surveyors and private surveyors. States the problems of trying to contact the owners.
254	Sen. Derfler	Comments on the slow response times for complaints.
265	Fassbender	Explains the board can take licenses away if the law is broken.
288	Sen. Derfler	Asks for ideas which could make the board more responsive to complaints.
290	Wilson	Comments on county versus private surveyors.
320	Roger Moreland	Moreland Surveying Inc. Opposes SB 815. Comments on technicalities of markings.
372	Chair Bryant	Asks if the markers are below the ground.
374	Moreland	States they are flush or below the ground.

385	Dean Bartell	City Surveyor for City of Salem. Refers to the letter in (EXHIBIT E) . Explains the doorhanger notification. States the amendments would be difficult to work with and the costs would be significant.
TAPE 184I, A
030	Dan Linscheid	Yamhill County Surveyors of Oregon. Opposes SB 815.
036	Chair Bryant	Closes public hearing on SB 815 and opens work session on SB 345.
