003	Vice-chair Derfler	Opens meeting at 8:42am, opens public hearing on SB 8.
SB 8 PUBLIC HEARING
009	Bill Kennemer	County Commissioner, Clackamas County, provides testimony in support of SB 8.
028	Jono Hildner	Director, Department of Human Services, Clackamas County, continues testimony in support of SB 8.
135	David Anderson	Assistant County Counsel, Clackamas County, provides testimony in support of SB 8 (EXHIBIT A).
152	Sen. Trow	Questions the scope of authority and the timeline being requested
160	Kennemer	Responds that they estimate 12-18 months to research and create a plan that would be acceptable for implementation.
164	Sen. Trow	Questions creating the project and then return to the legislature for approval.
167	Kennemer	Responds that is acceptable, however the exploration is labor intensive and to do that much work without a sense of the legislature's position is risky.
172	Sen. Trow	Questions why the bill is being addressed at this time.
174	Kennemer	Responds that this did not become an issue until after the November election.
194	Sen. Leonard	Questions if a directive is removed does cause have to be shown.
195	Kennemer	Responds no.
202	Hildner	Comments directed to Sen. Trow's question, this bill is arriving late in the session because the issue required time and work to draft an acceptable bill.
218	Sen. Trow	Comments on the funding authority.
235	Alison Deane	Vice-president, Employees Association testifies that the organization is neutral on this bill.
245	Vice-chair Derfler	Closes public hearing on SB 8, opens public hearing on HB 2321.

292	Suzanne Townsend	Assistant Attorney General, Department of Justice, provides testimony in support of HB 2321.

361	Vice-chair Derfler	Questions the purpose for the contract review.
364	Townsend	Responds that the contract is reviewed for lawfulness, adequate protections and drafting.
381	Vice-chair Derfler	Questions why Mr. Clark has concerns with these factors.
384	Clark	Responds that the concern lies with accountability of the Department of Justice.
397	Vice-chair Derfler	Questions if this review is unnecessary.
398	Clark	Responds that for the higher education system it is unnecessary and notes that current statute has exempted higher education.
405	Sen. Trow	Questions if the bill requires contracts to be reviewed.
410	Townsend	Responds affirmatively and notes the provision allowing for exemptions.
419	Sen. Trow	Questions if this process is for information only or advisory.
422	Townsend	Responds with explanation of the review criteria.
435	Sen. Trow	Questions who this review affects.
436	Townsend	Responds all state agencies.
475	Vice-chair Derfler	Comments that most state agencies currently have access to someone from the Attorney General's office regularly.
480	Townsend	Responds that it varies.
TAPE 96, A
006	Sen. Trow	Comments that a solution might be to require that agencies use the Attorney General's staff prior and during the contract negotiations instead of creating a review process.
012	Don Arnold	Department of Justice, comments that this bill addresses agencies that do not pursue advice prior to contract signing.
032	Vice-chair Derfler	Questions if there is a fiscal impact.
033	Arnold	Responds affirmatively.
036	Sen. Trow	Questions if the additional staff is requested in the budget proposal.
037	Arnold	Responds no.
046	Townsend	Notes that when the contract is published the DOJ is excluded from the drafting process.
056	Vice-chair Derfler	Questions the effectiveness of the pre-printed contract forms.
058	Townsend	Responds that not all contracts can be handled with those forms.
065	Vice-chair Derfler	Questions if the DOJ can publish a check list or neutral form that covers their concerns.

067	Townsend	Responds that those are currently available and that procedure will be continued.
081	Sen. Trow	Questions if DOJ had been involved with the current DMV situation could some of the problems been avoided.
084	Townsend	Responds affirmatively.
092	Sen. Bryant	Questions if an executive order could address their concerns.
094	Townsend	Responds affirmatively.
