OPPOSITION to adopting the amendment. (Exhibit B.)

132 -In response to Rep. Federici: Explains why US West believes the amendments are unnecessary. Does not believe they add substantively to the bill.

155 -In response to Chair Lundquist: Explains the commissions regulatory authority over service.

165 -In response to Chair Lundquist: Explains the complexity differentiating between cables/fiberoptics for cable TV and telephone.

196 -Responds further to Chair Lundquist: Explains the increase in rates under the current form of regulation in response to the lack of competitive alternatives and their availability.

198 -In response to Rep. Federici: Yes, "Rate of Return" and "Cost of Service" are generally used interchangeably. Discusses a similar bill that referred to gas, electric and some water utilities.

227 -In response to Rep. Snodgrass: Explains depreciation expenses and investment and the criteria/formula used by the Utilities Commission.

243 -In response to Rep. Snodgrass: Yes, section 2 is enabling language. There is nothing which obliges the industry to move towards this form of regulation, it just enables it.

251 PAUL ROMAIN, MCI Telecommunications: Testifies in SUPPORT of the SB 413-2 amendment submitted by MCI. (Exhibit B.) Explains the amendments.

354 MIKE KANE, Public Utility Commission: Testifies in SUPPORT of SB 413. (Exhibit C.)

116 -Responds further to Rep. Federici concerning the use of 72 hours notice for payment of rent.

140 -Responds to Rep. Federici that this bill would only apply to tenancies in mobile home parks. Originally drafted including all renters, amendments narrowed scope to mobile home parks.

157 -Responds to Rep. Wells explaining that the tenants must still go through courts.

179 -Explains further for Rep. Wells what SB 902 will do.

193 -Explains for Rep. Wells how SB 902 changes current proceedings for eviction of tenants.

208 -Responds to Rep. Snodgrass: Is not sure of a general time frame for evictions.

217 REP. SNODGRASS: Explains her concerns that she is happy to look at average amount of months payments are late. She is concerned that the landlord must still make payments even if the tenant does not pay.

237 NEBEL: Responds to Rep. Snodgrass: Depends on the circumstances as to the average number of months payment is late.

268 REP. FEDERICI: Corrects himself that he was looking at SB 902 and not the A engrossed version of the bill.

283 OPENS WORK SESSION ON SB 902.

-Offers an amendment if the committee plans to move forward with the bill.

(Exhibit S.)

230 -Responds to Rep. Snodgrass regarding the FED process.
239 -Responds further to Rep. Snodgrass: Explains that instead of using the FED process, hotel/motel owners locked the tenant out, which is illegal.

266 -Responds further to Rep. Snodgrass explaining the time frame involved within the FED process.

293 -Responds further to Rep. Snodgrass explaining that after the 14th day, the landlord can request the tenant to leave. There is no reimbursement for rent owing either by getting the tenant to agree to pay within the FED process or by suing the tenant for the funds.

325 -In response to Rep. Federici: Explains the importance of changing from 30 days to 14 days. Allows lodging owners to lockout tenants after 14 days. 14 days gives the operator enough time to know if the person can stay or remain.

362 -In response to Rep. Wells: Current law is 5 days, and Oregon Legal Services would like to see it at 14 days versus the 30 days within the bill.

375 REP. FEDERICI: Asks Mr. Huggins whether or not the compromise being suggested has been submitted to the Senate?

410 HUGGINS: Responds further to Rep. Wells concerning the reasons behind the amendment.

426 HARVEY: In response to Rep. Snodgrass: Clarifies the FED process. Not promoting locking out individuals. Explains reason for 30 days or less. 30 days in reference to transient occupancy tax.

TAPE 76, SIDE B

-Responds to Rep. Federici regarding the lack of inspection by all counties of all temporary or mobile restaurants.

300 -Responds to Rep. Wells regarding the similarities between SB 466 and HB

2165.

-For the record: We are assuming that all of the mobile restaurants are operating within the perimeters for which they are licensed, we don't want to see the mobile unit to come to the State Fair and set up a beer garden because they are not licensed in this fashion.
