TAPE 1, SIDE A

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SB 1033

Witnesses: Martha Pagel, Director, Oregon Water Resources Department

005 CHAIR BRYANT: Calls the meeting to order (2:06PM).
 -Lists the participants who have reached an agreement
 -The last meeting concluded with the -11 amendments with one correction.

020 MARTHA PAGEL, Director, Oregon Water Resources Department : Presents additional language required on Page 2, line 20, of -11 amendments; up to but not exceeding the amounts.

040 CHAIR BRYANT: Presents overview of bill and amendment.

055 REP. JOSI: Wants further clarification on the word "field".

 CHAIR BRYANT: Clarifies "relevant field" information.

102 PAGEL: Responds to SEN. DWYER's concern regarding subsection A.
 -Discusses the interpretive language that she has some concerns regarding lines 8 and 9

 -Continues discussing "relevant field data" and the granting of water rights with SEN. DWYER.

140 SEN. DWYER: Expresses concerns regarding diminishing water and scenic waterways.

158 CHAIR BRYANT: Discusses hydraulic connection presumption and the definition of "interference",

180 SEN. DWYER: Expresses concern as to who is being cut off 10 years later, when 5,000 new houses are established and it is discovered there's a connection and the river is being measurably affected.

CHAIR BRYANT: Discusses managing aquifers.

202 PAGEL: The permitting requirements do not apply to exempt domestic wells. Secondly, if area where experiencing collective kinds of interference, those are the kinds of areas where we can move forward with declaring a critical ground water area and make necessary adjustments.

210 SEN. DWYER: Asks for clarification on the interaction of aquifers.

236 PAGEL: For each groundwater use, by using certain kinds of mathematics models that have been developed, a geologist can calculate at what point there can be a discharge or lack of discharge or interference with the surface water. Most likely that would be downstream.

252 Continues to explain the effects of the proposed new statute.

257 SEN. DWYER: Asks for clarification regarding agreed water rights.

260 REP. NORRIS: States the committee should get the hydrology issue out to work on and it can later be amended.

CHAIR BRYANT: Assures that the procedures are based on science and water law, and the experience of the Water Resources Department.

319 MOTION: REP. JOSI: Moves SB 1033 -B11 amendments dated 6/3/95 BE ADOPTED and that the bill be further amended and REPASS the bill.

VOTE: Hearing no objection the motion CARRIES.
