043 Chair derfler: Discusses the time frame for the dislocated workers' training.

057 rep. watt: Is the programs you are speaking of from Lane Community College?

064 REP. BEYER: No, the program is statewide, but the program at Lane Community College is the one that I know best.

062 sen. mccoy: Discusses the retraining for shipyard workers in his district.

070 rep. watt: What are we getting for our money?

080 TOM LYNCH: Discusses the program for different areas.

105 TOM LYNCH:: Discusses the end result for the program.

110 CHRIS APGAR: Discusses the different programs that exist for short term training.

128 rep. watt: Would there be a possibility of funding at the original $8 million, and then you go to the "E-board" if you run out of money?

129 CHAIR DERFLER: No, because the "E-Board" is general fund money and this is unemployment monies.

130 chris apgar: Discusses the funding requests for this program.

135 REP. BEYER: Discusses the past funding of the program and the trust fund for the program.

153 MOTION: SEN. MCCOY: Moves to AMEND SB 153 by inserting $15.6 million.as the level at which to fund the program's trust fund.

156 rep. watt: Requests that Sen. Derfler and Rep. Beyer get together and decide what dollar amount should set into the bill.

162 SEN. MCCOY WITHDRAWS HIS MOTION

170 CHAIR DERFLER: I'd be willing to fund for the $12 million and have the department come back with the results.

190 MOTION: SEN. MCCOY: Moves to AMEND SB 153 by inserting $12 million.as
the level at which to fund the program's trust fund.

193 REP. BEYER: Would it be possible to fund the program at 12 million and have a 3 million reserve?

195 CHAIR DERFLER: I would not support that such a motion.

VOTE: 5-0

AYE: 5 - Sen. McCoy, Sen. Adams, Rep. Beyer, Rep. Watt, Sen. Derfler
