090 AL YOUNG: Testifies in support; the amendments go a little bit further in defining when a person could get a permit; We are willing to work with committee.

HB 2747 - WORK SESSION

120 CHAIR PARKS: Asks subcommittee if anyone would like to move the bill. I would encourage you to try and work through this by yourselves.

HB 3496 - PUBLIC HEARING AND WORK SESSION

JANET ADKINS: Describes bill.

159 PETER TOLL, DIRECTOR OF GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS: Testifies in support; Newspaper publishers concerned with the integrity level in printed materials, we want to make sure that Oregon maintains its reputation for a clean operating legislature and a clean operating government is sustained through passage of this bill.

202 TODD JONES, SECRETARY OF STATE'S OFFICE: Testifies. - Question of penalty - This does not currently forbid a candidate from making an agreement with an endorsing body - What if a body agrees to endorse me and prints 20 or 30 thousand copies of that publication, what if I "wink, wink - nod, nod" and tell them I won't pay for this endorsement but I might happen to go out and buy 30 thousand copies of your publication and mail it to my constituents.

255 REP. MILNE: The bill just reinforces what current law is?

JONES: The key change is that the words "editorially support" are being removed replaced with "endorsement".

REP. MILNE: So this is clarification and broadening.

281 JANET ADKINS: The bill also changes "periodical" to "publication" - does publication cover a post card?

JONES: The word publication does not replace the word periodical, the word periodical remains.

292 TOLL: A publication is something that is printed specifically in a standardized format with a standard approach.

REP. WYLIE: This gets us as close as we can go without getting into first amendment rights.
