387 REPRESENTATIVE ELDON JOHNSON: What discussion was there about changes in members' staff.

396 KENADY: We didn't foresee a change in Legislative Assistants.

435 JOHNSON: We would all have to have at least one full-time staff person then & maybe a part-time person as well.

TAPE 18, SIDE A

030 KENADY: Explains the off-year concept.

044 WATT: During the intense interim, would we put more pressure on committee staff?

050 SUSAN WILSON, LEGISLATIVE ADMINISTRATOR: That is an option.

060 JOHNSON: Would we ask committee staff to handle the roles of member staff?

067 WILSON: Today, no. But in the case of this legislation, that could be done.

072 REPRESENTATIVE AVEL GORDLY: In support of these proposals. -How could this benefit the public?

089 WILSON: Responds.

106 GORDLY: How will it better serve the public is more of a concern than how will it make it more convenient for us.

115 WATT: Addresses the advantages of telecommunications.

154 JOHNSON: Notes the "one-day organizational" issue. -Could we have a single block of time to have an overview?

176 KENADY: In HJR 62, there's a provision for the organizational session. -That is definitely worth considering. 198
WATT: Suggests an "informational book" that is given out at the organizational session.

229 JOHNSON: That's a good concept.

238 REPRESENTATIVE MICHAEL PAYNE: In support of these proposals. -Distance is a difficult barrier. -Could interim committees ever meet in other areas of the state?

248 WILSON: Responds.

270 KENADY: This would let you know in advance how much time it would take for you during the interim.

300 JOHNSON: Is it more difficult to get housing in September?

310 KENADY: Responds.

343 WATT: In your proposed rules, what are the thoughts on legislative newsletters?

350 KENADY: Responds.

373 JOHN KREFT, EXECUTIVE DEPT.: Submits written testimony
(EXHIBIT) in opposition to HB 3614 & HB 3615.

426 WATT: I don't see any objections that can't be overcome.

461 KREFT: We are concerned because of many blanks that need to be filled in.
