The discussion for 24 26 is a moot point. There are 40 students per class in all schools. The real problem is a land use problem. Measure 5 (1990) is causing this problem. School districts are now faced with problems not of their own making. Until a solution is found, homebuilders are on record for promoting sales tax in order to deal with this issue. I invite you to speak to us with broader background.
