

House Committee on Agency Reorganization and Reform January 29, 1991 -Page These minutes contain materials which paraphrase and/or summarizes and pull between central and local control is a very difficult one. We insure a basic level of public health support. Some counties are very children, with behavioral problems, we have to consider school districts. 311 REP. JONES: Where are the four homes located? 312 RICHARD LIPPI General Services is not really equipped to deal with the special circumstances. 099 REP. HUGO: I think those kind of anecdotes this committee
