At a working group meeting, all parties concerned agreed to have the bill read that the permit requirements and the licensing requirements don't apply to cable television installations. This amendment is found on page 3. The second provision is that the electrical products code and rules do apply to cable television.

019 SENATOR BUNN: On page 3 line 5 of the hand-engrossed amendments it says "apply to cable."
Does it need to say coaxial cable or television cable?

023 CHERIE COPELAND: It is appropriate the way it is worded because it is in the context of dealing with cable television.
