Money Orders

Plaid Pantry is proud to offer money orders for only 47 cents. They are a "cash only" purchase. We also provide Claim Cards in English and Spanish in the event your money order is lost or stolen. You can check to see if a money order that you purchased has been cashed by emailing moneyorders@plaidpantry.com or calling (503) 646-4736. If your money order becomes lost or stolen, you will need to pick up a money order claim report which is available at any Oregon Plaid Pantry or you can download a claim card below.

Remember to fill out your money order! A blank money order is like cash

If your Money Order has been lost or stolen:

1. Find out the status of the money order (whether it has been cashed) by calling (503) 646-4736 or toll free (877) 440-6994. You may also e-mail us. If you phone us and get voice mail, leave your name, the serial number of the lost money order, and a number where you can be reached.

2. You will need to fill out a claim card to receive a photocopy or to have a stop payment placed on the item if it has not been cashed. The bank charges a $6 fee per money order to either retrieve the photocopy or have the stop placed. The claim card is required because we need your written permission which is done when you sign the claim card.

3. The claim cards are available at any Plaid Pantry, and are available in English and in Spanish. You can also download the claim cards below, but remember you must include the fee when submitting a claim, so it must be mailed or delivered in person.
