(c) The need for new transportation facilities, such as highways and other roadways, interchanges, arterials and collectors, additional travel lanes, other major improvements on existing roadways and, for urban areas of 25,000 or more, the provision of public transit service.

(10) The adopted findings for UGB amendment must describe or map all of the alternative areas evaluated in the boundary location alternatives analysis.

UGB Adjustments

(1) A local government may adjust the UGB at any time to better achieve the purposes of Goal 14 and this division. Such adjustment may occur by adding or removing land from the UGB, or by exchanging land inside the UGB for land outside the UGB. The requirements of section (2) of this rule apply when removing land from the UGB. The requirements of Goal 14 and this division [and ORS 197.298] apply when land is added to the UGB, including land added in exchange for land removed. The requirements of ORS 197.296 may also apply when land is added to a UGB, as specified in that statute. If a local government exchanges land inside the UGB for land outside the UGB, the applicable local government must adopt appropriate rural zoning designations for the land removed from the UGB prior to or at the time of adoption of the UGB amendment and must apply applicable location and priority provisions of OAR 660-024-0060 through 660-020-0067.

(2) A local government may remove land from a UGB following the procedures and requirements of ORS 197.764. Alternatively, a local government may remove land from the UGB following the procedures and requirements of 197.610 to 197.650, provided it determines:

(a) The removal of land would not violate applicable statewide planning goals and rules;

(b) The UGB would provide a 20-year supply of land for estimated needs after the land is removed, or would provide roughly the same supply of buildable land as prior to the removal, taking into consideration land added to the UGB at the same time;

(c) Public facilities agreements adopted under ORS 195.020 do not intend to provide for urban services on the subject land unless the public facilities provider agrees to removal of the land from the UGB and concurrent modification of the agreement;

(d) Removal of the land does not preclude the efficient provision of urban services to any other buildable land that remains inside the UGB; and

(e) The land removed from the UGB is planned and zoned for rural use consistent with all applicable laws.

(3) Notwithstanding sections (1) and (2) of this rule, a local government considering an exchange of land may rely on the land needs analysis that provided a basis for its current acknowledged plan, rather than adopting a new need analysis, provided:

(a) The amount of buildable land added to the UGB to meet:

(A) A specific type of residential need is substantially equivalent to the amount of buildable residential land removed, or

(B) The amount of employment land added to the UGB to meet an employment need is substantially equivalent to the amount of employment land removed, and

(b) The local government must apply comprehensive plan designations and, if applicable, urban zoning to the land added to the UGB, such that the land added is designated:

(A) For the same residential uses and at the same housing density as the land removed from the UGB, or

(B) For the same employment uses as allowed on the land removed from the UGB, or

(C) If the land exchange is intended to provide for a particular industrial use that requires specific site characteristics, only land zoned for commercial or industrial use may be removed, and the land added must be zoned for the particular industrial use and meet other applicable requirements of ORS 197A.320(6).

Purpose

(1) The purpose of this division is to implement ORS 197A.300 to 197A.325 by providing simplified methods to evaluate and amend an urban growth boundary (UGB) for a city outside Metro.

(Note: ORS 197A.320 regarding the establishment of study areas and the priority of lands for UGB amendment applies both to the “simplified” UGB methods under this division and to the “traditional” UGB method described in OAR chapter 660, division 24. Rules in this division at OAR 660-038-0160 and 660-038-0170 interpret that statute with respect to the simplified methods. Rules at OAR 660-024-0065 and 660-024-0067 interpret ORS 197A.320 for purposes of the traditional UGB method).

(2) The method for UGB evaluation and amendment described in OAR chapter 660, division 24 (the traditional UGB method) is not modified by this division. Cities may choose to apply the methods described in this division instead of division 24 in order to evaluate or amend a UGB, as described in OAR 660-038-0020.

(3) The methods described in this division are intended to achieve the following objectives provided in ORS 197A.302:

(a) Become, as a result of reduced costs, complexity and time, the methods that are used by most cities with growing populations to manage their urban growth boundaries;

(b) Encourage, to the extent practicable given market conditions, the development of urban areas in which individuals desire to live and work and that are increasingly efficient in terms of land uses and in terms of public facilities and services;

(c) Encourage the conservation of important farm and forest lands, particularly lands that are needed to sustain agricultural and forest products industries;

(d) Encourage cities to increase the development capacity within their urban growth boundaries;

(e) Encourage the provision of an adequate supply of serviceable land that is planned for needed urban residential and industrial development; and

(f) Assist residents in understanding the major local government decisions that are likely to determine the form of a city’s growth.

Definitions

The definitions in ORS 197.015, the statewide planning goals, and the following definitions apply to this division:

(1) “Buildable lands” means land in urban or urbanizable areas that are suitable for urban uses, as provided in ORS 197A.300(1). Note: This definition applies to this division only; a different definition of “buildable lands” is provided in laws and rules concerning needed housing (ORS 197.295; OAR 660-007-0005 and 660-008-0005 and OAR 660-024-0010).

(2) “Commercial” and “commercial use” mean office, retail, institutional and public employment land uses described by the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Categories 44, 45, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 61, 62, 71, 72, 81, 92, and 99. These are land uses that generally do not require significant space for indoor or outdoor production or logistics.

(3) “Industrial” and “industrial use” mean employment activities including, but not limited to, manufacturing, assembly, fabrication, processing, storage, logistics, warehousing, importation, distribution and transshipment, and research and development, that generate income from the production, handling or distribution of goods or services, including goods or services in the traded sector, as defined in ORS 285A.010. “Industrial use” means NAICS Categories 11, 21, 22, 23, 31, 32, 33, 42, 48, and 49. These are land uses that generally require significant space for indoor or outdoor production or logistics.

(4) “Initiate” means that the local government issues a public notice specified in OAR 660-018-0020, including a notice to the Department of Land Conservation and Development, for a proposed plan amendment that concerns evaluating or amending a UGB.

(5) “Nonresource land” has the meaning specified in OAR 660-004-0005(3).

(6) “Range” means a range of numbers specified in rules in this division (see ORS 197A.325(2)(a)). A city may choose to use the number at either end of a stated range or any number between. Ranges allow a city to make choices regarding its future growth.

(7) “Serviceable” means, with respect to land supply in a UGB, and as described in OAR 660-038-0200, that:

(a) Adequate sewer, water and transportation capacity for planned urban development is available or can be either provided or made subject to committed financing; or

(b) Committed financing can be in place to provide adequate sewer, water and transportation capacity for planned urban development.

(8) “UGB” means “urban growth boundary.”

(9) “Urbanizable land” means land inside a UGB that, due to the present unavailability of urban facilities and services, or for other reasons, either retains the zone designations assigned prior to inclusion in the UGB or is subject to interim zone designations intended to maintain the land’s potential for planned urban development until appropriate public facilities and services are available or planned.

Applicability

(1) This division takes effect January 1, 2016. Rules in this division provide optional simplified methods for a city outside Metro to evaluate or amend its UGB. These methods are available to cities in addition to and not in lieu of the methods provided in OAR chapter 660, division 24. If a city uses this division to evaluate or amend a UGB, the requirements of division 24 do not apply to the UGB evaluation or amendment.

(2) A city that evaluates or amends its UGB using this division must demonstrate that:

(a) It has sufficient buildable lands and other development capacity, including land and capacity for needed housing and employment opportunities, within its UGB to meet the growth in population and employment that is forecast to occur over a 14-year period,

(b) It based its determination of the amount of buildable lands needed for housing, employment and other urban uses on the population and employment growth forecast to occur over a 14-year period, consistent with rules in this division, and

(c) Lands included within the UGB include sufficient serviceable land for at least a seven-year period and can all be serviceable over a 14-year period as provided in OAR 660-038-0200.

(3) A city using this division is not required to adopt findings to support the use of a number or a number within a range that is expressed by a rule in this division.

(4) A city that uses this division to add land to the UGB may not use a method in this division again to add land to the UGB until:

(a) The population of the city has grown by at least 50 percent of the amount of growth forecast to occur in conjunction with the previous use of the method by the city; or

(b) At least one-half of the lands identified as buildable lands for employment needs or for residential needs during the previous use of the method by the city have been developed.

(5) A city that adopts a UGB amendment using this division must evaluate whether the city needs to include additional land for residential or employment uses within the UGB before the population of the city has grown by 100 percent of the population growth forecast to occur in conjunction with the city’s previous use of this division.

(6) A city that adopts a UGB amendment using this division may subsequently add land to the UGB using division 24 instead of the method described in this division. However, a city’s determination of land need resulting from the previous use of this method shall not be considered by itself sufficient to support a housing or employment need determination under OAR chapter 660, division 24.

(7) A city may not use this division in order to evaluate or amend a UGB for purposes of OAR 660-024-0045 concerning Regional Large Lot Industrial Land.

(8) A city that elects to use this division shall notify the Department of Land Conservation and Development in the manner required by ORS 197.610, 197.615 and OAR chapter 660, division 18, regarding a proposed change to an acknowledged comprehensive plan or a land use regulation. The city may revoke its election under this section at any time until the city makes a final decision to amend the UGB.

(9) A city that initiated an amendment of its UGB under OAR chapter 660, division 24, but has not submitted that amendment to the Department of Land Conservation and Development, may withdraw the proposed amendment and use a method described in this division by filing notice of the election with the Department of Land Conservation and Development in the manner required by ORS 197.610, 197.615, and OAR chapter 660, division 18 for notice of a post-acknowledgment plan amendment.

(10) Notwithstanding ORS 197.626, when a city evaluates or amends the UGB pursuant to this division, the Land Use Board of Appeals rather than the commission has jurisdiction for review of the final decision of the city.

(11) A city that amends a UGB under this division is not required to also satisfy the requirements of ORS 197.296 applicable to a UGB amendment for cities subject to that statute.

(12) A city that amends a UGB under this division is not required to also satisfy the requirements of Goals 9 and 10 with respect to the determinations of land need and land supply, the housing needs projection requirements of OAR chapter 660, division 8, or the economic opportunities analysis requirements of OAR chapter 660, division 9.

(13) All statewide planning goals and related administrative rules are applicable when establishing or amending a UGB, except as follows:

(a) The exceptions process in Goal 2 and OAR chapter 660, division 4, is not applicable to a UGB amendment unless a local government chooses to take an exception to a particular goal requirement, for example, as provided in OAR 660-004-0010(1), provided however that a local government may not take an exception to the UGB requirements of Goal 14;

(b) Goals 3 and 4 are not applicable;

(c) Goal 5 and related rules under OAR chapter 660, division 23, apply only to lands added to the UGB, except as required under OAR 660-023-0070 and 660-023-0250;

(d) The transportation planning rule requirements under OAR 660-012-0060 need not be applied at the time of a UGB amendment if the land added to the UGB is zoned as urbanizable land, either by retaining the zoning that was assigned prior to inclusion in the UGB or by assigning interim zoning that does not allow development that would generate more vehicle trips than development allowed by the zoning assigned prior to inclusion in the UGB;

(e) Goal 15 is not applicable to land added to the UGB unless the land is within the Willamette River Greenway Boundary;

(f) Goals 16 through 18 are not applicable to land added to the UGB unless the land is subject to acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations that implement these goals;

(g) Goal 19 is not applicable to a UGB amendment.

(14) A city considering a UGB evaluation or amendment must apply its acknowledged citizen involvement program to ensure adequate notice and participation opportunities for the public and must assist the public in understanding the major local government decisions that are likely to determine the form of the city's growth.

(15) A city that is scheduled to commence periodic review as required by OAR 660-025-0030 is not required to commence periodic review if the city has amended its UGB pursuant to this division, or if the city has evaluated its UGB need and land supply using this division and determined that the UGB contains sufficient buildable land for a 14-year period, including a supply that is serviceable for a seven-year period and a supply that can be serviceable for a 14-year period as provided in OAR 660-038-0200.

(16) When a city is required to undertake an analysis or make a determination concerning lots or parcels under the rules in the division, the city may conduct such analyses using tax lot data shown on the most recent tax assessment rolls in the county in which the land is located.

(17) Beginning on or before January 1, 2023, the commission shall:

(a) Evaluate, every five years, the impact of this division on the population per square mile, livability in the area, the provision and cost of urban facilities and services, the rate of conversion of agriculture and forest lands and other considerations;

(b) Consider changes to the statewide land use planning goals or rules to address adverse outcomes; and

(c) Make recommendations to the Legislative Assembly, as necessary, for statutory changes.

Residential Land Need

OAR 660-038-0030 through 660-038-0080 provides steps that a city must take to determine residential land need over the 14-year planning period.

(1) A city that applies the UGB method in this division:

(a) Must forecast the amount of buildable lands that it will need for housing based on the population forecast for the 14-year period commencing on the date it initiates and consistent with OAR 660-038-0040 through OAR 660-038-0090, and

(b) Must provide within its UGB sufficient buildable lands and other development capacity, for needed housing to accommodate the growth in population forecast to occur over a 14-year period.

(2) The city must use the most recent final forecast issued by the Portland State University Population Research Center under ORS 195.033 in effect at the time the city initiates a UGB review to forecast the UGB population growth for a 14-year period.

(3) The city must subtract from the forecast population growth the number of persons projected to live in group quarters in the UGB during the planning period. The city shall determine this number by calculating the percentage of the city's population living in group quarters at the last decennial United States Census and subtracting the same percentage from projected population growth. For the purpose of this rule, "group quarters," as defined by the United States Census, are places where people live or stay, in a group living arrangement, which is owned or managed by an entity or organization providing housing or services for the residents.

(4) To determine the gross number of dwelling units needed for the 14-year period, the city must divide the projected growth reduced as determined in section (3) by the persons per household within the city determined at the most recent decennial United States Census.

(5) The city must adjust the gross number of needed dwelling units to account for the vacancy rate projected to occur during the planning period, as follows: Multiply the result calculated in section (4) by the vacancy rate and add the resulting product to the gross number of dwelling units needed. The vacancy rate used shall be five percent plus the portion of the vacancy rate that is comprised of seasonal, recreational, or occasional vacancies within the city, determined at the last decennial United States Census. However, the total vacancy rate used may not exceed 15 percent.

(6) The city must account for projected redevelopment expected to occur in residentially zoned areas, and for mixed use residential development expected to occur in commercially zoned areas, as follows: multiply the result calculated in section (5) by the applicable percentage in subsections (a) through (c) of this section.

(a) For cities with a current UGB population less than 10,000, the percentage shall be within a range from one percent to 10 percent of the result calculated in section (5).

(b) For cities with a current UGB population equal to or greater than 10,000 and less than 25,000, the percentage shall be within a range from five percent to 15 percent of the result calculated in section (5).

(c) For cities with a current UGB population equal to or greater than 25,000, the percentage shall be within a range from five percent to 25 percent of the result calculated in section (5).

(7) The city must account for accessory dwelling units expected to occur during the planning period by multiplying the result calculated in section (5) by the applicable percentage in subsection (a) or (b) of this section:

(a) For cities with UGB population less than 10,000, the percentage shall be within a range from zero percent to two percent of the result calculated in section (5).

(b) For cities with UGB population equal to or greater than 10,000, the percentage shall be within a range from one percent to three percent of the result calculated in section (5).

(8) The city must subtract the numbers determined in sections (6) and (7) from the result calculated in section (5). The resulting number is the identified need for new dwelling units for 14 years.

(9) The city shall accommodate the dwelling unit need identified in section (8):

(a) On vacant and partially vacant residentially zoned lands within the UGB, and

(b) If the amount of land described in subsection (a) is insufficient to accommodate all of the identified need, the remaining need must be accommodated on lands to be added to the UGB for residential development consistent with OAR 660-038-0180.

Determine the Mix of Dwelling Units Needed

(1) A city must determine the current mix of housing types within the city based on the percentages of low density, medium density, and high density residential dwellings using:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) For cities with UGB population less than 2,500, the percentages determined in the most recent five-year American Community Survey conducted by the United States Census;

(b) For cities with UGB population greater than or equal to 2,500, using either the percentages determined in:

(A) The most recent American Community Survey conducted by the United States Census, or

(B) An average of the two most recent American Community Surveys conducted by the United States Census.

(2) For the purposes of this rule and for OAR 660-038-0050:

(a) For cities with a UGB population less than 2,500, single-family detached dwellings shall be considered low density residential, and all other dwellings shall be considered medium density residential.

(b) For cities with a UGB population greater than or equal to 2,500, single-family detached dwellings shall be considered low density residential; single-family attached dwellings, mobile homes, and multiplexes with two to four units shall be considered medium density residential; and multi-family dwellings with five or more units shall be considered high density residential.

(3) A city must project the mix of housing types needed for new development over the 14-year period using the ranges of numbers in Table 1. The percentage of low density residential development is calculated by subtracting the percentage of medium density and high density residential development selected by the city from the table.

(4) To determine the number of low density, medium density and high density dwelling units needed over the 14-year period, the city must multiply the percentages of needed housing for different housing categories determined in section (3) by the total housing need determined in OAR 660-038-0030.

Determine Amount of Land Needed for Each Housing Type

A city must:

(1) Determine the land needed for each category of residential development over the 14-year period by dividing the number of needed units determined in OAR 660-038-0040 by the projected number of net dwelling units per acre using the ranges in Table 2.

(2) Calculate the overall net density (total dwelling units divided by total land need) for all residential land need in terms of dwellings units per acre and compare the result with the current density of the developed lands shown in the buildable lands inventory within the city's UGB completed under OAR 660-038-0060(5).

(3) If necessary, adjust the density assumptions used in the residential land need analysis so that the overall net density for all residential land need is at least equal to the density determined in section (2).

(4) Add an amount equal to 25 percent of the total residential land needed to account for public land need for infrastructure and facilities such as schools and parks and to account for private institutional land need.

Buildable Lands Inventory (BLI) for Residential Land within the UGB

A city must determine the supply and development capacity of lands within its UGB by conducting a buildable lands inventory (BLI) as provided in this rule.

(1) For purposes of the BLI, the city shall classify the existing residential comprehensive plan and zoning designations within its UGB based on allowed density. The classification shall be based on either:

(a) The allowed density and housing types on the comprehensive plan map; or

(b) If the comprehensive plan map does not differentiate residential districts by density or type of housing, the applicable city or county zoning map, as follows:

(A) For cities with a UGB population less than 2,500, districts shall be classified as follows:

(i) Districts with a maximum density less than or equal to eight dwelling units per acre: low density residential. A city may classify a district as low density residential despite a maximum density of greater than eight dwelling units per acre if the majority of existing residences within the district are single-family detached and if the city has a medium density residential district as determined by subparagraph (ii);

(ii) Districts with a maximum density greater than eight dwelling units per acre: medium density residential.

(B) For cities with UGB populations greater than or equal to 2,500, districts shall be classified as follows:

(i) Districts with a maximum density less than or equal to eight dwelling units per acre: low density residential. A city may classify a district as low density residential despite a maximum density of greater than eight dwelling units per acre if the majority of existing residences within the district are single-family detached and the city has a medium density residential district as determined by subparagraph (ii);

(ii) Districts with a maximum density greater than eight dwelling units per acre and less than or equal to 16 dwelling units per acre: medium density residential, unless the district has been classified as low density residential pursuant to subparagraph (i). A city may classify a district as medium density residential despite a maximum density of greater than 16 dwelling units per acre if the majority of development within the district is developed at densities of between eight and 16 dwelling units per acre and the city has a high density residential district as determined by subparagraph (iii);

(iii) Districts with a maximum density greater than 16 dwelling units per acre: high density residential, unless the district has been classified as medium density residential pursuant to subparagraph (ii);

(iv) A city may not classify as low density a district that allows higher residential densities than a district the city has classified as medium density. A city may not classify as medium density a district that allows higher residential densities than a district the city has classified as high density.

(2) The city must identify all vacant lots and parcels with a residential comprehensive plan designation. A city shall assume that a lot or parcel is vacant if it is at least 3,000 square feet with a real market improvement value of less than $10,000.

(3) The city must identify all partially vacant lots and parcels with a residential comprehensive plan designation, as follows:

(a) For lots and parcels at least one-half acre in size that contain a single-family residence, the city must subtract one-quarter acre for the residence, and count the remainder of the lot or parcel as vacant land, and

(b) For lots and parcels at least one-half acre in size that contain more than one single-family residence, multiple-family residences, non-residential uses, or ancillary uses such as parking areas and recreational facilities, the city must identify vacant areas using an orthophoto or other map of comparable geometric accuracy. For the purposes of this identification, all publicly owned park land shall be considered developed. If the vacant area is at least one-quarter acre, the city shall consider that portion of the lot or parcel to be vacant land.

(4) The city must determine the amount and mapped location of low density, medium density, and high density vacant and partially vacant land in residential plan or zone districts within the city's UGB.

(5) The city must, within the city limits,

(a) Identify all lots and parcels within a residential district that are developed;

(b) Identify all portions of partially vacant lots and parcels within a residential district that are developed with residential uses;

(c) Calculate the total area of land identified in (a) and (b);

(d) Calculate the total number of existing dwelling units located on the land identified in (a) and (b); and

(e) Calculate the net density of residential development on the land identified in (a) and (b).

Adjust Residential Lands Inventory to Account for Constrained Lands

A city must adjust the inventory of residential lands prepared under OAR 660-038-0060 to account for constrained lands using this rule.

(1) The city must identify the following physical constraints on land inventoried as vacant or partially vacant under OAR 660-038-0060:

(a) Floodways and water bodies. For the purpose of this subsection, "water bodies" includes;

(A) Rivers; and

(B) Lakes, ponds, sloughs, and coastal waters at least one-half acre in size.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) Other lands within the Special Flood Hazard Area as identified on the applicable Flood Insurance Rate Map;

(c) Lands within the tsunami inundation zone established pursuant to ORS 455.446;

(d) Contiguous lands of at least one acre with slopes greater than 25 percent. Slope shall be measured as the increase in elevation divided by the horizontal distance at maximum 10-foot contour intervals;

(e) Lands subject to development restrictions as a result of acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations to implement Statewide Planning Goals 5, 6, or 7, and

(f) Lands subject to development prohibitions, natural resource protections, or both in acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations to implement Statewide Planning Goals 15, 16, 17, or 18.

(2) For lands identified in section (1), the city may reduce the estimated residential development capacity by the following factors in terms of acreage:

(a) For lands within floodways and water bodies: a 100 percent reduction.

(b) For other lands within Special Flood Hazard Area as identified on the applicable Flood Insurance Rate Map: a 100 percent reduction.

(c) For lands within the tsunami inundation zone: no reduction unless the acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations applicable to such areas prohibits or reduces residential development, in which case the reduction shall be based upon the maximum density allowed by the acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulation.

(d) For lands with slopes that are greater than 25 percent: a 100 percent reduction. However, if the lot or parcel includes land with slopes less than 25 percent, the reduction applies only to the land with slopes greater than 25 percent. Slope shall be measured as the increase in elevation divided by the horizontal distance at maximum ten-foot contour intervals;

(e) For lands subject to development restrictions in an acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations developed pursuant to Statewide Planning Goals 5, 6, or 7: a reduction to the maximum level of development authorized by the acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations.

(f) For lands subject to development prohibitions, natural resource protections, or both, in an acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations that implements Statewide Planning Goals 15, 16, 17 or 18: a reduction to the maximum level of development authorized by the acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations.

(3) The residential BLI amount for each type of needed housing for a city is the amount of buildable land for that needed housing type determined in OAR 660-038-0060 reduced by the constraints as determined in this rule.

Compare Residential Land Need to Land Supply

(1) To determine whether to expand the UGB, a city must compare the amount of land needed for each category of residential development, as determined in OAR 660-038-0050, with the amount of buildable land available for each category of residential development, as determined in OAR 660-038-0070(3).

(2) If the amount of buildable residential land is greater than the amount of land needed for all categories of residential development, then no UGB expansion for residential land need is allowed.

(3) If the amount of buildable residential land is less than the amount of land needed for residential development, the city must expand the UGB to provide the amount of land needed, provided that if the amount of buildable residential land is less than the amount of land needed for one category of residential development, but is greater than the amount of land needed for another category, then the city must determine whether the residential land need can be reasonably accommodated by redesignating surplus land in the other residential category, except as provided in section (5) of this rule.

(4) A city must also determine whether surplus employment land as determined in OAR 660-038-0150, or publicly-owned land not designated for employment or residential use that has been declared surplus by the public entity, can reasonably accommodate all or part of a residential land deficit except as provided in OAR 660-038-0150(4).

(5) A city:

(a) Is not required to consider whether a high or medium density land surplus can reasonably accommodate a low density land deficit;

(b) May not redesignate surplus high or medium density land that is located within 500 feet of an arterial roadway or its functional equivalent identified in the city's acknowledged Transportation System Plan.

(6) If a city determines that the UGB must be expanded to meet residential land needs, the city must apply:

(a) OAR 660-038-0160 and 660-038-0170 to evaluate which lands to include in the UGB in order to meet the need deficit, and

(b) OAR 660-038-0190 to plan and zone lands that are added and, if necessary, to adjust planning and zoning of residential lands currently in the UGB.

Employment Land Need

OAR 660-038-0090 to 660-038-0150 provides steps that a city must follow to determine employment land need over the 14-year planning period.

(1) A city that applies the UGB method in this division:

(a) Must forecast the amount of buildable lands that will be needed for projected employment in the UGB over a 14-year period using rules in OAR 660-038-0100 through 660-038-0150, and

(b) Must provide within its UGB sufficient buildable lands and other development capacity to accommodate the growth in employment that is forecast to occur over a 14-year period and plan those lands as required by OAR 660-038-0180.

(2) The city must forecast employment growth within the UGB for a 14-year period from the year in which the UGB analysis was initiated. As provided in ORS 197A.310(4) and 197A.312(4), the city may forecast employment growth based on either:

(a) The population growth forecast for the city's UGB in the most recent final forecast issued by the Portland State University Population Research Center under ORS 195.033 applying the requirements of OAR 660-038-0100, or

(b) The most recent long term employment growth forecast issued by the Oregon Employment Department (OED) for the applicable region, applying the requirements of OAR 660 038 0110.

Forecast Employment Growth Based on Population Growth

To forecast 14-year employment growth based on the PSU long term forecast of population growth, a city must:

(1) Determine the forecast population of the city's UGB for the 14-year period from the year in which the UGB analysis was initiated based on the most recent forecast issued by the Portland State University Population Research Center.

(2) Determine the current population of the UGB using the most recent population estimate issued by the Portland State University Population Research Center.

(3) Determine the rate of population growth for the city over the 14-year period based on sections (1) and (2).

(4) Using Table 3, determine the current number of "commercial" and "industrial" jobs in the UGB, based on the definitions in OAR 660-038-0010.

(5) To forecast the number of new commercial and new industrial jobs anticipated to occur in the UGB for the 14-year planning period, the city must:

(a) Multiply the number of commercial jobs currently in the UGB determined in section (4) by the rate of population growth rate determined in section (3), and

(b) Multiply the number of industrial jobs currently in the UGB determined in section (4) by the rate of population growth determined in section (3).

(6) To account for jobs that are likely to occur on land that is zoned for uses other than commercial or industrial (and which therefore will not require buildable "employment land"), the city must reduce the forecast of new jobs determined in section (5) by 20 percent.

(7) The result is the number of new commercial and industrial jobs forecast for the 14-year planning period to be accommodated on employment lands in the UGB. The city must use this result or the result in OAR

Forecast Employment Growth Based on Oregon Employment Department Forecast

As an alternative to the method provided in OAR 660-038-0100, to forecast 14-year employment growth based on the most recent long-term job forecast issued by the Oregon Employment Department (OED), a city must:

(1) Determine the number of “commercial” and “industrial” jobs currently in the UGB as provided in Table 3.

(2) Using Table 4, determine the long-term growth rates forecast by OED for commercial jobs and for industrial jobs in the OED region that includes the city. For purposes of this rule, “OED region” means Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) Areas for which OED forecasts long-term job growth.

(3) To forecast the number of new commercial and new industrial jobs anticipated to occur in the UGB for the 14-year planning period, the city must:

(a) Multiply the number of commercial jobs currently in the UGB determined in section (1) by the forecast rate of growth determined in section (2), and

(b) Multiply the number of industrial jobs currently in the UGB determined in section (1) by the forecast rate of growth determined in section (2).

(4) To account for jobs that are likely to occur on land that is zoned for uses other than commercial or industrial (and which therefore will not require buildable “employment land”), the city must reduce the forecast of new commercial and industrial jobs determined in subsections (3)(a) and (3)(b) by 20 percent.

(5) The result is the number of new commercial and industrial jobs forecast for the 14-year planning period to be accommodated on employment lands in the UGB. The city must use this result or the result in OAR 660-038-0100 as a basis for determining employment land needs under OAR 660-038-0140.

Inventory of Buildable Employment Land within the UGB

A city must determine the supply and development capacity of employment lands within its UGB at the time of initiation by conducting a buildable lands inventory (BLI) for employment land as provided in this rule and OAR 660-038-00130.

(1) For purposes of the employment BLI, the city shall classify the existing employment zoning districts and plan map districts within its UGB as either “commercial” or “industrial” based on the applicable definitions in OAR 660-038-0010. Districts that allow both commercial and industrial uses as per the definition must be classified as one or the other, based on the intent of the plan and with consideration of whether the predominant NAICS categories allowed by the district are characteristic of a commercial or industrial use.

(2) The city must identify all lots and parcels in the UGB with either a commercial or industrial designation on the comprehensive plan map or zoning district, determine which lots or parcels are vacant, partially vacant, or developed and calculate the total area of such land, as follows:

(a) A city may assume that a lot or parcel is vacant if the real market improvement value is less than $5,000 or if the real market improvement value is less than or equal to 5 percent of the real market land value.

(b) A city may assume that a lot or parcel is partially vacant if either:

(A) The real market improvement value of the lot or parcel is greater than five percent and less than 40 percent of the real market land value, in which case, the city must assume that 50 percent of the lot or parcel is developed and 50 percent is vacant, or

(B) Based on an orthomap, the lot or parcel is greater than one acre in size and at least one-half acre is not improved.

(c) A city may assume that a lot or parcel is developed if the real market improvement value is greater than or equal to 40 percent of the real market land value.

(3) The city must use the results of section (2) to determine the current density of employment land within the UGB under OAR 660-038-0140(4) and (5).

Adjust Employment Buildable Land Inventory to Account for Constrained Lands

A city must adjust the employment buildable lands inventory determined under OAR 660-038-0120 to account for constrained lands using this rule.

(1) The city must identify the following physical constraints on employment land inventoried under OAR 660-038-0120:

(a) Floodways and water bodies. For the purpose of this subsection, “water bodies” includes:

(A) Rivers; and

(B) Lakes, ponds, sloughs, and coastal waters at least one-half acre in size;

(b) Other lands within the Special Flood Hazard Area as identified on the applicable Flood Insurance Rate Map;

(c) Lands within the tsunami inundation zone established pursuant to ORS 455.446;

(d) Contiguous lands planned and zoned for commercial use of at least one acre with slopes that are greater than 25 percent. For purposes of this rule, slope shall be measured as the increase in elevation divided by the horizontal distance at maximum 10-foot contour intervals;

(e) Contiguous lands planned and zoned for industrial use of at least one acre with slopes that are greater than 10 percent. For purposes of this rule, slope shall be measured as the increase in elevation divided by the horizontal distance at maximum 10-foot contour intervals;

(f) Lands subject to development restrictions as a result of acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations to implement Statewide Planning Goals 5, 6, or 7, and

(g) Lands subject to development prohibitions, natural resource protections, or both, in an acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations that implement Statewide Planning Goals 15, 16, 17, or 18.

(2) For lands identified in section (1), the city may reduce the estimated development capacity by the following factors in terms of acreage:

(a) For lands within floodways and water bodies: a 100 percent reduction.

(b) For other lands within the Special Flood Hazard Area (SFHA) as identified on the applicable Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM), either (at the city’s option):

(A) A 50 percent reduction, or

(B) A reduction to the levels required by the acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations.

(c) For lands within the tsunami inundation zone: no reduction unless the acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations applicable to such areas prohibits or reduces allowed development, in which case the reduction shall be based upon the maximum density allowed by the acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations.

(d) For lands designated for commercial use, contiguous lands of at least one acre with slope greater than 25 percent: a 100 percent reduction, provided that if such land includes slopes less than 25 percent, the reduction applies only to those areas with slopes greater than 25 percent. Slope shall be measured as the increase in elevation divided by the horizontal distance at maximum ten-foot contour intervals;

(e) For lands designated for industrial use, contiguous lands of at least one acre with slope greater than 10 percent: a 100 percent reduction, provided that a lot or parcel with slopes greater than 10 percent that has at least five contiguous acres with slopes less than 10 percent, this authorized reduction does not apply to those areas.

(f) For lands subject to restrictions in density or location of development in an acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations developed pursuant to Statewide Planning Goals 5, 6, or 7: a reduction to the maximum level of development authorized by the acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations.

(g) For lands subject to development prohibitions, natural resource protections, or both, in an acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations that implements Statewide Planning Goals 15, 16, 17, or 18: a reduction to the maximum level of development authorized by the acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations.

Translate Job Forecast to Employment Land Need

(1) Determine the current density (jobs per acre) of developed commercial land, as follows:

(a) Based on the determination from OAR 660-038-0120, for all lots and parcels zoned for commercial uses, identify the area (acreage) of “developed” lots and parcels, and the developed portion (acreage) of “partially vacant” lots and parcels. The sum of these equals the total area of “developed commercial land” for purposes of this rule.

(b) Determine current number of commercial jobs in the UGB from Table 3.

(c) Subtract 20 percent from (b) to account for current commercial jobs that occur on land not zoned commercial or industrial.

(d) Divide the number of jobs determined in subsection (c) by the amount of developed commercial land determined in subsection (a). The result is the current density of commercial uses (jobs per acre) on commercial land in the UGB.

(2) Determine the current density (jobs per acre) for developed industrial land in the UGB, as follows:

(a) Based on the determination in OAR 660-038-0120, for all lots and parcels zoned for industrial uses, identify the area (acreage) of “developed” lots and parcels, and the developed portion (acreage) of “partially vacant” lots and parcels. The sum of these equals the total area of “developed industrial land” for purposes of this rule.

(b) Determine current number of industrial jobs in the UGB from Table 3.

(c) Subtract 20 percent from the determination in subsection (b) to account for current industrial jobs that occur on land not zoned commercial or industrial.

(d) Divide the number of jobs determined in subsection (c) by the amount of developed industrial land determined in subsection (a). The result is the current density of industrial uses (jobs per acre) on industrial land in the UGB.

(3) To account for redevelopment and the anticipated long term increase in efficiency of employment land, the city must:

(a) Multiply the result of section (1) for commercial uses, and section (2) for industrial uses, by the applicable factors in paragraphs (A) or (B) of this subsection:

(A) For cities with a UGB population less than 10,000, the factor shall be a range from one to three percent for commercial, and one-half of a percent for industrial.

(B) For cities with a UGB population equal to or greater than 10,000 the factor shall be a range of three to five percent for commercial and one percent for industrial.

(b) Add the result from subsection (a) to the result in section (1) for commercial uses, and to the result in section (2) for industrial uses. This is the anticipated density of commercial and industrial land (jobs per acre) in the UGB.

(4) Divide the number of commercial and industrial jobs forecast in OAR 660-038-0100 and 660-038-0110 by the applicable results in section (3) to determine the net new land need for commercial and industrial uses over the planning period.

(5) The city must increase the results of section (4) by 15 percent to convert net land need to gross land need in consideration of land need for streets, roads and other public facilities due to employment land growth over the planning period.

Determine if UGB Expansion is Necessary to Accommodate Employment Needs

(1) To determine whether to expand the UGB, a city using the method in this division must compare the amount of land needed for new commercial and industrial development determined under OAR 660-038-0140 with the amount of vacant or partially vacant buildable employment land designated for commercial and industrial development as determined in the employment BLI as per OAR 660-038-0130.

(2) If the amount of buildable commercial land in the UGB is greater than the amount of land needed for new commercial development, and the amount of buildable industrial land is greater than the amount of land needed for new industrial development, then no UGB expansion for employment land need is allowed.

(3) If the amount of buildable employment land in the UGB is less than the amount of land needed for either commercial or industrial development, then the UGB may be expanded to provide the amount of land needed, provided that:

(a) If the amount of buildable industrial land is less than the amount of land needed for industrial development, but is greater than the amount of land needed for commercial development, then the city must determine whether the industrial land need can be reasonably accommodated by redesignating the surplus of buildable commercial land within the UGB, except as provided in section (4) of this rule.

(b) If the amount of buildable commercial land is less than the amount of land needed for commercial development, but is greater than the amount of land needed for new industrial development, then the city must determine if the commercial land need can be reasonably accommodated by redesignating the surplus of industrial land within the UGB, except as provided in section (4) of this rule.

(c) A city must also determine whether surplus residential land as determined in OAR 660-038-0080, or publicly-owned land not designated for employment or residential use that has been declared surplus by the public entity, can reasonably accommodate all or part of an employment land deficit, except as provided in OAR 660-038-0080(5).

(4) The following existing commercial or industrial lands may not be re-designated for another use under this division, including in response to section (3):

(a) Land within industrial sanctuaries identified on the acknowledged comprehensive plan, including lands added to UGB as Regional Large Lot Industrial Land under to OAR 660-024-0045.

(b) Land owned by a port district or other public entity for the purpose of economic development.

(c) Land within:

(A) An urban renewal district;

(B) An enterprise zone, rural enterprise zone, or urban enterprise zone, as defined in ORS 285C.050; or

(C) A strategic investment zone, as defined in ORS 285C.623.

(d) Sites served by state or regional infrastructure investments, such as the Strategic Reserve Fund (ORS chapter 285B), Connect Oregon, Immediate Opportunity Fund, or grant or loan programs administered by the Infrastructure Finance Authority.

(e) Sites that include working port access or Class A rail access (e.g., access to existing sidings or loops).

(f) Sites that have been certified as a shovel ready site by the Oregon Business Development Department (OBDD), or has received designation as a Regionally Significant Industrial Area by the Economic Recovery Review Council.

(g) Land that was previously designated as industrial under rules under this division and may not be redesignated as provided in OAR 660-038-0180(6).

(h) Land that is designated for a particular land need under OAR 660-024-0065(10).

Establishment of Study Area to Evaluate Land for Inclusion in the UGB

Cities shall comply with this rule and OAR 660-038-0170 when determining which lands to include within the UGB in response to a deficit of land to meet long-term needs determined under OAR 660-038-0080, OAR 660-038-0150, or both.

(1) The city shall determine which land to add to the UGB by evaluating alternative locations within a “study area” established pursuant to this rule. To establish the study area, the city must first identify a “preliminary study area” which shall not include land within a different UGB or the corporate limits of a city within a different UGB. The preliminary study area shall include:

(a) All lands in the city’s acknowledged urban reserve, if any;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) All lands that are within the following distance from the acknowledged UGB, except as provided in subsection (d):

(A) For cities with a UGB population less than 10,000: one-half mile;

(B) For cities with a UGB population equal to or greater than 10,000: one mile;

(c) All exception areas contiguous to an exception area that includes land within the distance specified in subsection (b) and that are within the following distance from the acknowledged UGB:

(A) For cities with a UGB population less than 10,000: one mile;

(B) For cities with a UGB population equal to or greater than 10,000: one and one-half miles;

(d) At the discretion of the city, the preliminary study area may include land that is beyond the distance specified in subsections (b) and (c).

(2) The city may exclude land from the preliminary study area if it determines that any of the conditions in this section apply to the land:

(a) Based on the standards in section (5) of this rule, it is impracticable to provide necessary public facilities or services to the land;

(b) The land is subject to significant development hazards, due to a risk of:

(A) Landslides: The land consists of a landslide deposit or scarp flank that is described and mapped on the Statewide Landslide Information Database for Oregon (SLIDO) Release 3.2 Geodatabase published by the Oregon Department of Geology and Mineral Industries (DOGAMI) December 2014, provided that the deposit or scarp flank in the data source is mapped at a scale of 1:40,000 or finer. If the owner of a lot or parcel provides the city with a site-specific analysis by a certified engineering geologist demonstrating that development of the property would not be subject to significant landslide risk, the city may not exclude the lot or parcel under this paragraph;

(B) Flooding, including inundation during storm surges: the land is within the Special Flood Hazard Area (SFHA) identified on the applicable Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM);

(C) Tsunamis: the land is within a tsunami inundation zone established pursuant to ORS 455.446.

(c) The land consists of a significant scenic, natural, cultural or recreational resource described in this subsection:

(A) Land that is designated in an acknowledged comprehensive plan prior to initiation of the UGB amendment, or that is mapped on a published state or federal inventory at a scale sufficient to determine its location for purposes of this rule, as:

(i) Critical or essential habitat for a species listed by a state or federal agency as threatened or endangered;

(ii) Core habitat for Greater Sage Grouse; or

(iii) Migration corridors or big game winter range, except where located on lands designated as urban reserves or exception areas;

(B) Federal Wild and Scenic Rivers and State Scenic Waterways, including Related Adjacent Lands described by ORS 390.805, as mapped by the applicable state or federal agency responsible for that scenic program;

(C) Designated Natural Areas on the Oregon State Register of Natural Heritage Resources;

(D) Wellhead protection areas described under OAR 660-023-0140 and delineated on a local comprehensive plan;

(E) Aquatic areas subject to Statewide Planning Goal 16 that are in a Natural or Conservation management unit designated in an acknowledged comprehensive plan;

(F) Lands subject to acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations that implement Statewide Planning Goal 17, Coastal Shoreland, Use Requirement 1;

(G) Lands subject to acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations that implement Statewide Planning Goal 18, Implementation Requirement 2.

(d) The land is owned by the federal government and managed primarily for rural uses.

(3) After excluding land from the preliminary study area under section (2), the city must adjust the study area, if necessary, so that it includes an amount of land that is at least twice the amount of land needed to satisfy the combined need deficiency determined under OAR 660-038-0080 and OAR 660-038-0150. Such adjustment shall be made by expanding the applicable distance specified under section (1) and applying section (2) to the expanded area.

(4) For purposes of evaluating the priority of land under OAR 660-038-0170, the "study area" shall consist of all land that remains in the preliminary study area described in section (1) of this rule after adjustments to the area based on sections (2) and (3).

(5) For purposes of subsection (2)(a), the city may consider it impracticable to provide necessary public facilities or services to the following lands:

(a) Contiguous areas of at least five acres where 75 percent or more of the land has a slope of 25 percent or greater; provided that contiguous areas 20 acres or more that are less than 25 percent slope may not be excluded under this subsection. Slope shall be measured as the increase in elevation divided by the horizontal distance at maximum ten-foot contour intervals;

(b) Lands requiring the construction of a new freeway interchange, overpass, underpass, or similar improvement to accommodate planned urban development providing such improvement is not currently identified in the Statewide Transportation Improvement Program (STIP) for construction within the planning period;

(c) Land that is isolated from existing service networks by physical, topographic, or other impediments to service provision such that it is impracticable to provide necessary facilities or services to the land within the planning period. The city's determination shall be based on an evaluation of:

(A) The likely amount of development that could occur on the land within the planning period;

(B) The likely cost of facilities and services; and,

(C) Any substantial evidence collected by or presented to the city regarding how similarly situated land in the region has, or has not, developed over time.

(d) As used in this section, "impediments to service provision" may include but are not limited to:

(A) Major rivers or other water bodies that would require new bridge crossings to serve planned urban development;

(B) Topographic features such as canyons or ridges with slopes exceeding 40 percent and vertical relief of greater than 80 feet;

(C) Freeways, rail lines, or other restricted access corridors that would require new grade separated crossings to serve planned urban development;

(D) Significant scenic, natural, cultural or recreational resources on an acknowledged plan inventory and subject protection measures under the plan or implementing regulations, or on a published state or federal inventory, that would prohibit or substantially impede the placement or construction of necessary public facilities and services.

(6) Land may not be excluded from the preliminary study area based on a finding of impracticability that is primarily a result of existing development patterns. However, a city may forecast development capacity for such land as provided in OAR 660-038-0170(1)(d).

(7) A city that has a population of 10,000 or more that evaluates or amends its UGB using a method described in this division, must notify districts and counties that have territory within the study area in the manner required by ORS 197A.315 and meet other applicable requirements in that statute.

Evaluation of Land in the Study Area for Inclusion in the UGB; Priorities

(1) A city considering a UGB amendment must decide which land to add to the UGB by evaluating all land in the study area determined under OAR 660-038-0160, as follows:

(a) Beginning with the highest priority category of land described in section (2), the city must apply section (5) to determine which land in that priority category is suitable to satisfy the need deficiency determined under OAR 660-038-0080 and OAR 660-038-0150 and select for inclusion in the UGB as much of the land as necessary to satisfy the need.

(b) If the amount of suitable land in the first priority category is not adequate to satisfy the identified need deficiency, the city must apply section (5) to determine which land in the next priority is suitable and select for inclusion in the UGB as much of the suitable land in that priority as necessary to satisfy the need. The city must proceed in this manner until all the land need is satisfied.

(c) If the amount of suitable land in a particular priority category in section (2) exceeds the amount necessary to satisfy the need deficiency, the city must choose which land in that priority to include in the UGB by applying the criteria in section (7) of this rule.

(d) In evaluating the sufficiency of land to satisfy a need under this section, the city may consider factors that reduce the capacity of the land to meet the need, including factors identified in sections (5) and (6) of this rule.

(e) Land that is determined to not be suitable under section (5) of this rule to satisfy the need deficiency determined under OAR 660-038-0080 or OAR 660-038-0150 is not required to be selected for inclusion in the UGB unless its inclusion is necessary to serve other higher priority lands.

(2) Priority of Land for inclusion in a UGB:

(a) First priority is urban reserve, exception land, and nonresource land. Lands in the study area that meet the description in paragraphs (A) through (C) of this subsection are of equal (first) priority:

(A) Land designated as an urban reserve under OAR chapter 660, division 21, in an acknowledged comprehensive plan;

(B) Land that is subject to an acknowledged exception under ORS 197.732; and

(C) Land that is nonresource land.

(b) Second priority is marginal land: land within the study area that is designated as marginal land under ORS 197.247 (1991 Edition) in the acknowledged comprehensive plan.

(c) Third priority is forest or farm land that is not predominantly high-value farmland: land within the study area that is designated for forest or agriculture uses in the acknowledged comprehensive plan that is not predominantly high-value farmland, as defined in ORS 195.300, or that does not consist predominantly of prime or unique soils, as determined by the United States Department of Agriculture Natural Resources Conservation Service (USDA NRCS). In selecting as much of the suitable land as necessary to satisfy the need, the city must use the agricultural land capability classification system or the cubic foot site class system, as appropriate for the acknowledged comprehensive plan designation, to select lower capability or cubic foot site class lands first.

(d) Fourth priority is farmland that is predominantly high-value farmland: land within the study area that is designated as agricultural land in an acknowledged comprehensive plan and is predominantly high-value farmland as defined in ORS 195.300. A city may not select land that is predominantly made up of prime or unique farm soils, as defined by the USDA NRCS, unless there is an insufficient amount of other land to satisfy its land need. In selecting as much of the suitable land as necessary to satisfy the need, the city must use the agricultural land capability classification system to select lower capability lands first.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (2)(c) or (d) of this rule, land that would otherwise be excluded from a UGB may be included if:

(a) The land contains a small amount of third or fourth priority land that is not important to the commercial agricultural enterprise in the area and the land must be included in the UGB to connect a nearby and significantly larger area of land of higher priority for inclusion within the UGB; or

(b) The land contains a small amount of third or fourth priority land that is not predominantly high-value farmland or predominantly made up of prime or unique farm soils and the land is completely surrounded by land of higher priority for inclusion into the UGB.

(4) For purposes of categorizing and evaluating land pursuant to subsections (2)(c) and (d) and section (3) of this rule:

(a) Areas of land not larger than 100 acres may be grouped together and studied as a single unit of land;

(b) Areas of land larger than 100 acres that are similarly situated and have similar soils may be grouped together provided soils of lower agricultural or forest capability may not be grouped with soils of higher capability in a manner inconsistent with the intent of section (2) of this rule, which requires that higher capability resource lands shall be the last priority for inclusion in a UGB;

(c) When determining whether the land is predominantly high-value farmland, or predominantly prime or unique, "predominantly" means more than 50 percent.

(5) With respect to section (1), a city must assume that vacant or partially vacant land in a particular priority category is "suitable" to satisfy a need deficiency identified in OAR 660-038-0080 or OAR 660-038-0150, whichever is applicable, unless it demonstrates that the land cannot satisfy the need based on one or more of the conditions described in subsections (a) through (f) of this section:

(a) Existing parcelization, lot sizes or development patterns of rural residential land make that land unsuitable for an identified employment need, as follows:

(A) Parcelization: the land consists primarily of parcels 2-acres or less in size, or

(B) Existing development patterns: the land cannot be reasonably redeveloped or infilled within the planning period due to the location of existing structures and infrastructure.

(b) The land would qualify for exclusion from the preliminary study area under the factors in OAR 660-038-0160(2) but the city declined to exclude it pending more detailed analysis.

(c) The land is, or will be upon inclusion in the UGB, subject to natural resources protection under Statewide Planning Goals 5 such that that no development capacity should be forecast on that land to meet the land need deficiency.

(d) With respect to needed industrial uses only, the land is over 10 percent slope, as measured in the manner described in OAR 660-038-0160(5); is an existing lot or parcel that is smaller than 5 acres in size; or both.

(e) The land is subject to a conservation easement described in ORS 271.715 that prohibits urban development.

(f) The land is committed to a use described in this subsection and the use is unlikely to be discontinued during the planning period:

(A) Public park, church, school, or cemetery, or

(B) Land within the boundary of an airport designated for airport uses, but not including land designated or zoned for residential, commercial or industrial uses in an acknowledged comprehensive plan or land use regulations.

(6) For vacant or partially vacant lands added to the UGB to provide for residential uses:

(a) Existing lots or parcels one acre or less may be assumed to have a development capacity of one dwelling unit per lot or parcel. Existing lots or parcels greater than one acre but less than two acres shall be assumed to have an aggregate development capacity of two dwelling units per acre.

(b) In any subsequent review of a UGB pursuant to this division, the city may use a development assumption for land described in subsection (a) of this section for a period of up to 14 years from the date the lands were added to the UGB.

(7) Pursuant to subsection (1)(c), if the amount of suitable land in a particular priority category under section (2) exceeds the amount necessary to satisfy the need deficiency, the city must choose which land in that priority to include in the UGB by first applying the boundary location factors of Goal 14 and then applying applicable criteria in the comprehensive plan and land use regulations acknowledged prior to initiation of the UGB evaluation or amendment. The city may not apply local comprehensive plan criteria that contradict the requirements of the boundary location factors of Goal 14. The boundary location factors are not independent criteria; when the factors are applied to compare alternative boundary locations and to determine the UGB location the city must demonstrate that it considered and balanced all the factors. The criteria in this section may not be used to select lands designated for agriculture or forest use that have higher land capability or cubic foot site class, as applicable, ahead of lands that have lower capability or cubic foot site class.

(8) The city must apply the boundary location factors in coordination with service providers and state agencies, including the Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT) with respect to Factor 2 regarding impacts on the state transportation system, and the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife (ODFW) and the Department of State Lands (DSL) with respect to Factor 3 regarding environmental consequences. "Coordination" includes timely notice to agencies and service providers and consideration of any recommended evaluation methodologies.

(9) In applying Goal 14 Boundary Location Factor 2, to evaluate alternative locations under section (7), the city must compare relative costs, advantages and disadvantages of alternative UGB expansion areas with respect to the provision of public facilities and services needed to urbanize alternative boundary locations. For purposes of this section, the term "public facilities and services" means water, sanitary sewer, storm water management, and transportation facilities. The evaluation and comparison under Boundary Location Factor 2 must consider:

(a) The impacts to existing water, sanitary sewer, storm water and transportation facilities that serve nearby areas already inside the UGB;

(b) The capacity of existing public facilities and services to serve areas already inside the UGB as well as areas proposed for addition to the UGB; and

(c) The need for new transportation facilities, such as highways and other roadways, interchanges, arterials and collectors, additional travel lanes, other major improvements on existing roadways and, for urban areas of 25,000 or more, the provision of public transit service.

(10) The adopted findings for UGB amendment must describe or map all of the alternative areas evaluated in the boundary location alternatives analysis.

Planning Requirements for Land added to a UGB

- (1) A city must plan and zone lands included within the UGB:
 - (a) For categories of land uses in amounts that are roughly proportional to the land need determined for each category of use; and
 - (b) For an intensity of use that is generally consistent with the estimates that were used to determine the amount of land needed.
- (2) All land added to a UGB under this division must be planned and zoned such that the lands will not significantly affect a state highway, a state highway interchange, or a freight route designated in the Oregon Highway Plan, based on the requirements of OAR 660-012-0060(1) and on written concurrence provided by the Oregon Department of Transportation. However, a city may add land that does not meet this requirement provided the land is planned and zoned either:
 - (a) For industrial uses only, or
 - (b) Compact urban development consisting of a mixed-use, pedestrian friendly center or neighborhood as described in OAR 660-012-0060(8).
- (3) For lands added to the UGB to provide for residential uses, the city must also satisfy applicable requirements of OAR 660-038-0190.
- (4) If factual information is submitted demonstrating that a Goal 5 resource site, or the impact areas of such a site, is included in the area proposed to be added to the UGB, the city shall apply the applicable requirements of OAR chapter 660, division 23, concurrent with adoption of a UGB amendment. For purposes of this section, "impact area" is a geographic area within which conflicting uses could adversely affect a significant Goal 5 resource, as described in OAR 660-023-0040(3).
- (5) Concurrently with adoption of a UGB amendment pursuant to this division, a city must assign appropriate urban plan designations to land added to the UGB consistent with the need determination. The city must also apply appropriate zoning to the added land consistent with the plan designation or may maintain the land as urbanizable land until the land is rezoned for the planned urban uses, either by retaining the zoning that was assigned prior to inclusion in the boundary or by applying other interim zoning that maintains the land's potential for planned urban development.
- (6) When lands added to the UGB pursuant to rules in this division are planned and zoned for industrial or residential uses, the lands must remain planned and zoned for the use for 20 years beyond the date of adoption of the UGB amendment by the city.
- (7) The UGB and amendments to the UGB must be shown on the applicable city and county plan and zone maps at a scale sufficient to determine which particular lots and parcels are included in the UGB. Where a UGB does not follow lot or parcel lines, the map must provide sufficient information to determine the precise UGB location.
- (8) Amendment of a UGB shall be a cooperative process among cities and counties. A UGB and amendments to the UGB shall be adopted by all cities within the boundary and by the county or counties within which the boundary is located. Cities and counties shall follow the requirements of OAR 660-018-0021 regarding coordinated notice of a UGB amendment.
- (9) "Roughly proportional" means, with respect to planning of land added to a UGB in response to a need determination, the amount of land provided for a particular category of need is within five percent of the amount needed or within 10 acres, whichever is less.

Additional Planning for Residential Lands Added to the UGB

Cities that use the method in this division to provide land for needed housing must plan for residential lands added to the UGB as provided in this rule, in addition to the requirements in OAR 660-038-0180.

- (1) The comprehensive plan and implementing zoning shall allow the housing types and densities determined to be needed in OAR 660-038-0040 and 660-038-0050 under clear and objective standards and shall meet other applicable needed housing requirements specified in ORS 197.307 and OAR chapter 660, division 8.
- (2) The city and appropriate counties must assign appropriate urban plan designations to the added residential land consistent with the need determination, and either:
 - (a) Apply appropriate zoning to the added land consistent with the plan designation, or

(b) Adopt measures to maintain the land as urbanizable land until the land is rezoned for the planned urban uses by retaining the zoning that was assigned prior to inclusion in the boundary or by applying other interim zoning that maintains the land's potential for planned urban development. Measures for rezoning urbanizable land for needed housing shall be clear and objective and consistent with other requirements of ORS 197.307.

(3) Cities with UGB population of 10,000 or greater must either:

- (a) Consider the housing measures listed in the Table 5 and adopt at least one high impact measure or three low impact measures, or
 - (b) Satisfy the alternate performance standard in section (4).
- (4) A city has satisfied the alternate performance standard section (3)(b) if the city:

(a) Has a development code that contains the provisions specified in items 1 through 5 and 29 through 31 of Table 5; and

(b) Demonstrates with substantial evidence in the record that, during the preceding planning period or preceding seven years, whichever is less, development in the city equaled or exceeded the maximum percentage set forth in the ranges for redevelopment in residentially zoned and developed areas and mixed use residential development in commercially zoned areas in OAR 660-038-0030(6)(a) through (c).

Serviceability

(1) Pursuant to ORS 197A.310(3) or 197A.312(3), a city that amends its UGB using this division shall demonstrate that lands included within the UGB:

(a) Provide sufficient serviceable land for at least a seven-year period, and

(b) Can all be serviceable over a 14-year period.

(2) For purposes of subsection (1)(a) of this rule, a city shall demonstrate adequate sewer, water and transportation capacity to serve at least seven years of planned urban development based on system capacity and system improvements that are identified and described in an acknowledged public facilities plan, an acknowledged Transportation System Plan, a capital improvement plan, or the findings adopted by a city in support of a decision to amend its UGB. This shall consist of sewer, water and transportation capacity that is available or can be provided based on subsection (a) or (b) of this section, or both:

(a) Capacity is available: existing sewer, water and transportation system capacity sufficient to serve some or all of the anticipated seven-year demand is available. To demonstrate available sewer and water capacity, a city may rely upon the system capacity documentation contained in the acknowledged Public Facilities Plan adopted pursuant to OAR chapter 660, division 11, and documentation from city or other service provider records of current system condition and demand. To demonstrate available transportation system capacity, a city may rely upon the system capacity documentation contained in an acknowledged Transportation System Plan (TSP) adopted pursuant to OAR chapter 660, division 12;

(b) Capacity can be provided within seven years: sewer, water and transportation system capacity sufficient to serve the anticipated seven-year demand can be provided by identified system improvements that:

(A) Are fully funded and scheduled for construction within a seven-year period;

(B) Can be made subject to committed financing, which means a city or other service provider has one or more dedicated funding mechanisms in place that will generate sufficient revenue to fund the construction of such improvements within a seven-year period; or

(C) Can have committed financing in place, which means a city or other service provider does not have dedicated funding mechanisms in place but has identified funding sources and methods that will be implemented by the city or other service provider, and that will generate sufficient revenues to fund the construction of such improvements within a seven-year period.

(3) For purposes of subsection (1)(b) of this rule, to demonstrate that adequate sewer, water and transportation capacity can be in place for that portion of the 14-year period for which capacity has not been demonstrated in accordance with section (2) of this rule, a city shall:

(a) Identify the type and amount of the needed capacity;

(b) Identify the system improvements required to provide the needed capacity; and,

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) Identify the funding method(s) that is or can be in place to provide committed financing in an amount sufficient to provide the needed capacity within the 14-year period. This identification shall include:

(A) The type of proposed funding method(s);

(B) The statutory or other legal authority for establishing the proposed funding method(s);

(C) The timing of the establishment of the proposed funding method(s); and,

(D) The projected revenues to be generated by the proposed funding method(s).

(4) For purposes of this rule, "sewer, water and transportation capacity for planned urban development" includes:

(a) Sewer capacity, which consists of wastewater treatment facility capacity and collection system capacity, including interceptors, lift or pump stations, force mains, and main sewer lines;

(b) Water capacity, including:

(A) Available water rights;

(B) Water treatment capacity;

(C) Water storage capacity, including system reserves needed for fire suppression; and,

(D) Distribution system capacity, including pumping facilities, primary and secondary feeders, and distributor mains; and

(c) Transportation capacity, including:

(A) Networks of pedestrian, bicycle, transit, and street facilities; and

(B) Performance of the planned transportation system measured against adopted transportation performance standards set forth in the applicable acknowledged TSP.

(5) For purposes of this rule, "committed financing" means financing methods for which a city or other service provider has identified and documented the following: the authority to establish and implement the method, the amount of funding to be generated, the purpose to which the funding will be dedicated, and the repayment method and schedule for any bonded or credit indebtedness is identified and documented. Committed financing includes, but is not limited to, funding that is:

(a) Included in the adopted budget of the service provider;

(b) Designated for projects included in the Statewide Transportation Improvement Program;

(c) Provided by the Department of Interior through the Bureau of Indian Affairs Tribal Transportation Plan (TTP) program pursuant to 25 CFR Part 170;

(d) Provided through a development agreement entered into pursuant to ORS 94.504 to 94.528;

(e) Provided by system development charges established pursuant to ORS 223.997 to 223.314 or by other authorized development fees, conditions of approval or exactions;

(f) Provided by utility fees;

(g) Provided through Local Improvement District or Reimbursement District assessments; or

(h) Provided by revenue bonds, financing agreements, voter approved general obligation bonds or other authorized debt instruments.

(6) For lands that are added to a UGB pursuant to a method described in this division but not made "serviceable" within 20 years after the date of their inclusion:

(a) The lands must be removed from within the UGB the next time the city evaluates the UGB; or

(b) If there have been significant increases in the cost of making the lands serviceable, the planned development capacity of the lands must be reduced by an amount based on such costs the next time the city evaluates the need for land in the UGB.

(b) Subcontracts the landscaping work that is outside the phase of the license to another licensed landscape contracting business licensed for that phase of landscaping work.

(4) Landscaping Job Exceeding Licensee's Scope or Including Construction Contracting. A landscape contracting business may bid on a job or enter into a contract that, as part of the landscaping project, includes:

(b) Construction contracting work that is not included within the lawful scope of work of a landscape contracting business, including work of residential specialty contractors and commercial specialty contractors, and for which the landscape contracting business does not fall under a statutory exemption from appropriate licensure. (5) Subcontracting.

(a) A landscape contracting business may subcontract, verbally or in writing as is appropriate for the value of the subcontract, with another licensed landscape contracting business to perform landscaping work, pursuant to subsection (3) of this rule. (1) Apprenticeship for embalmer, funeral service practitioner, or intern apprentice must be served under persons who are and have been licensed and working in Oregon for at least one year.

(a) A funeral service practitioner may supervise up to three apprentices at a time and an embalmer may supervise up to three apprentices at a time.

(b) Notwithstanding (a), a combination embalmer/funeral service practitioner may supervise no more than three persons with any combination of trainee (apprentice) licenses.

(c) Notwithstanding (a), a funeral service practitioner, an embalmer or a combination embalmer/funeral service practitioner may serve as preceptor for intern apprentices from an accredited funeral service education provider in addition to any trainee (apprentice) embalmers or funeral service practitioners; if that individual's license meets the requirements for the internship program as identified by the educational institution; however, no licensee may have more than a total of three trainees (apprentices) or interns at any one time.

(d) The licensee who supervises an apprentice must be working and located in the same licensed facility or facilities as the trainee (apprentice) he or she is supervising.

(2) To qualify for a license as an embalmer, an apprentice embalmer must assist in the embalming of at least 35 human remains during the apprenticeship period under the direct supervision of a licensed embalmer and must meet the time and competency requirements published by the Board at the time of initial application.

(a) An apprentice embalmer must maintain a log book of embalming under supervision, with accurate and current entries, and the apprentice and his or her supervisor must furnish this record to the Board upon request. The apprentice may use a supplemental page to log any arrangements or other competencies performed at an alternate facility as directed by their supervisor. Such page MUST be brought back and included in the log at the end of that specific assignment. The log book must be retained for a period of one year after full licensure as an embalmer, or, if not licensed as an embalmer, for six years after the last log entry and must include the following:

- (A) Name of the deceased;
- (B) Date of death;
- (C) Date and place of embalming;
- (D) Name of licensed facility making the embalming arrangements;
- (E) Supervisor's written confirmation for each embalming performed by their apprentice; and
- (F) Number of hours worked per week.

(3) To qualify for a license as a funeral service practitioner, an apprentice funeral service practitioner must assist in the planning of at least 25 funerals or dispositions per year through some form of direct contact with the family or representative of the deceased and must meet the time and competency requirements published by the Board at the time of initial application.

(a) An apprentice funeral service practitioner must keep a log book on the premises of the licensed facility where he or she is supervised, showing all arrangements made or participated in by the apprentice. The apprentice may use a supplemental page to log any arrangements or other competencies performed at an alternate facility as directed by their supervisor. Such page MUST be brought back and included in the log at the end of that specific assignment. The apprentice, under supervision, must make accurate and current entries. The apprentice and his or her supervisor must furnish the log book to the Board upon request.

(b) The log book must be retained for a period of one year after licensure as a funeral service practitioner, or, if not licensed, for six years from the last log entry, and must include the following:

- (A) Name of deceased and person authorizing final disposition arrangements;
- (B) Date of death;
- (C) Date and place arrangements were made;
- (D) Description of apprentice's direct participation with family;
- (E) Number of days and hours worked per week;
- (F) Specific competency demonstrated;
- (G) Supervisor's written confirmation for each arrangement made by their apprentice; and
- (H) Name of the licensed facility responsible for the final disposition arrangements.

(4) Intern apprentices must serve their apprenticeships in accordance with the internship guidelines established by an accredited funeral service education program and as recognized and approved by the Board. A copy of the guidelines is available from the Board upon request.

(5) Applicants for an apprenticeship certificate must make application in accordance with ORS Chapter 692. The application must be made on the most current form provided by the Board and be accompanied by the fee prescribed by OAR 830-020-0040, a certified copy of the applicant's birth certificate, and satisfactory proof of high school graduation or equivalency. If an applicant for an apprentice certificate does not have a high school diploma, he or she must present satisfactory evidence that he or she possesses the equivalent of a high school education received in a private, public, or trade school, or he or she must successfully pass the high school equivalency test (General Education Development Test) given by the local high school, or some similar equivalency test conducted by a similar agency. Prior to becoming licensed as a funeral service practitioner, apprentices must provide a certified copy of a transcript from a school accredited by an Association of Schools and Colleges demonstrating completion of an Associate's degree or higher degree. Prior to becoming licensed as an embalmer, apprentices must provide proof of completion of an accredited course of funeral service education.

(6) The effective date of the apprenticeship will be the date the completed application, fee, and the required certificates are received and validated in the office of the Board and the application is approved by the Board. A letter will be sent notifying the apprentice of the status of his or her apprenticeship or application.

(7) The certificate of apprenticeship must be issued to the applicant as a trainee (apprentice) to a specified licensee in good standing. If the apprentice intends to change the licensee to whom apprenticed, he or she must immediately file a request for approval of the transfer with the Board and pay the required fee. A certificate must be reissued upon payment of an administrative charge. When an apprentice ceases to work under a specific licensee, the apprenticeship certificate becomes null and void. It is the responsibility of the supervising licensee to notify the Board's office of any termination in employment or supervision of the apprentice.

(8) Trainee (Apprentice) funeral service practitioner and embalmer certificates will not be granted to any person for a period longer than 48 aggregate months. When an apprentice has completed his or her apprenticeship, he or she will no longer be licensed as an apprentice, but must qualify either as a licensed embalmer or licensed funeral service practitioner.

(9) Notwithstanding (8), the Board may consider a request for extension of the apprenticeship period for reasonable and extenuating circumstances beyond the control of the trainee (apprentice).

(10) Trainee (Apprentice) supervisors are responsible for all assigned activities and any arrangements made by the trainee (apprentice) at any location.

(11) In lieu of meeting apprenticeship requirements, an applicant for Oregon funeral service practitioner or embalmer licensure is deemed to have satisfied the respective apprenticeship requirement upon submitting satisfactory proof to the Board that the person has practiced, respectively, as a funeral service practitioner or embalmer licensed in good standing in this state or another state identified by the Board to have requirements substantially similar to Oregon: For a minimum of one year.

(12) Embalmer applicants who meet the requirements set forth in section (10) of this rule may be required to demonstrate competency by way of a practical examination at a time and place designated by the Board.

(13) Funeral service practitioner applicants who meet the requirements set forth in section (10) of this rule must successfully complete a written examination and receive a score of not less than 75 percent, based on the total number of questions.

(14) An applicant or licensee whose application for license has been denied or revoked or who voluntarily surrendered the license may not reapply for a minimum period of three years unless otherwise specified in a

Temporary Burial Permit

(1) The Oregon Mortuary and Cemetery Board (Board) may grant a temporary burial permit authorizing interment in a cemetery that does not hold a current, valid license or registration for the sole purpose of facilitating an at-need burial of non-cremated remains in accordance with 2015 HB 3242, and only when the normal procedures for licensing or registration of a cemetery authority cannot be completed before burial must take place.

(2) The burial permit request must be made on the most current application form provided by the Board and must include copies of all pre-qualifying pre-arrangement documents as well as evidence of the verification of plot location to be considered. A permit will not be granted when pre-arrangements or plot location cannot be produced or verified or when such documents are disputed.

(a) Applicants must be directly associated with the cemetery authority, with a licensed party to the pre-arrangements, or with another qualifying person in accordance with 2015 HB 3242, and

(b) Must be working on behalf of person(s) requesting burial.

(c) The application must also include the specific details of the planned burial and evidence that it will be performed by persons qualified to do so, and

(d) All paperwork will be kept with the permit that was issued for the burial and filed at the OMCB with the copy of the permit until a permanent place can be decided upon. If the cemetery authority is not a party to the interment, the Board will maintain the records and provide to the appropriate party identified by the Board on the permit.

(3) Permit holder shall only be responsible for any issues related to the permitted interment and not for any pre-existing conditions, contract terms or document errors made by the Cemetery Authority, nor for the condition of and continuing maintenance of the plot after closing.

(4) Sections (1) and (2) shall be repealed on January 1, 2018.

For the purpose of this section, "funeral establishment" also includes immediate disposition companies and persons acting as funeral service practitioners as defined in ORS 432.

(2) Each itemized statement shall be accompanied by the claimant's certification that services for which reimbursement is claimed were in accordance with stipulations in ORS 97.170.

(3) The OMCB shall make the Form FS 23-154 or similar document containing all pertinent information available at its office and on its website.

(4) The OMCB shall disburse funds to eligible claimants upon receipt and verification of a claim.

(a) In accordance with ORS 413.825, the maximum reimbursement will equal the invoice amount or the currently published annual reimbursement rate, whichever is less; and

(b) The claimant must be current on all invoiced filing fees.

(c) If the fund amount at the close of the accounting period is insufficient to pay the eligible claims for the month, the OMCB pay the claims using the collected funds referenced in ORS 413.825(1).

(d) If the fund amount at the close of the accounting period exceeds the total amount of claimants' itemized statements or the maximum per claim, the remaining funds will carry forward to the next accounting period and be made available to pay future claims up to the allowable maximum reimbursement or to repay the funds borrowed from the OMCB.

(5) Fraudulent submission of Form 23-154 or similar document will result in penalties set forth in ORS 692.180.

(6) An eligible reimbursement claim must include all expenses related to the case, and must include documentation of any reimbursement, in all or part, by any entity or person already made at time of filing. If a claimant receives payment from any other entity or person after a claim is filed, the claimant must:

(a) Amend the claim, if not yet paid;

(b) If already paid, the claimant must submit a reimbursement form and accompanying payment to the fund within 90 days of receiving any amount from any other entity or person.

(7) In accordance with ORS 413.825(2), the OMCB shall set the annual reimbursement rate at the beginning of each biennium with an annual adjustment based on historical data and mortality projections. Purpose

(1) The purpose of OAR 123-200-1000 to 123-200-2200 is to adopt a standard application form and procedure designed to provide complete documentation for certification of businesses as minority, woman, or service-disabled veteran owned business or an Emerging Small Business and to adopt a procedure for handling complaints, investigations, and issuing sanctions.

(2) The Certification Office for Business Inclusion and Diversity (COBID) is the sole certification agency for the State of Oregon and all political subdivisions. To the extent there is any reference to the Office of Minority, Women, and Emerging Small Business from the implementation of these rules forward, all references defer to the agency's new name, COBID.

(3) The COBID shall certify Minority Business Enterprises (MBE), Woman Business Enterprises (WBE), and businesses owned by service-disabled veterans (SDV) under the State of Oregon certification program based on ORS 200.055. The COBID shall also certify Emerging Small Businesses (ESB) under the State of Oregon certification program based on ORS 200.170. Any public contracting agency shall consider an enterprise certified by the COBID as eligible to participate in the certification programs pursuant to these rules in the State of Oregon as defined in ORS 279.011(5).

(4) Certified firms are eligible to participate on state funded projects to meet commitment requirements. Any certified firm is eligible to participate in private or non-state funded projects.

(5) These rules also cover publication of a directory, ineligibility complaints, and representation of the COBID in contested case hearings.

(6) In making a determination as to whether a firm qualifies for certification, in addition to the rules contained herein, the COBID defers to the Code of Federal Regulations 49 CFR part 26.

Definitions

As used in these rules, the following terms shall have the following definitions, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Agency" means the Oregon Business Development Department.

(2) "COBID" means the Certification Office for Business Inclusion and Diversity in the Oregon Business Development Department.

(3) "Commercially Useful Function" or "CUF" means function the firm performs when it is responsible for execution of the work of the contract and carries out its responsibilities by actually performing, managing, and supervising the work involved. The firm must also be responsible, with respect to materials and supplies used on the contract, for negotiating price, determining quality and quantity, ordering the material, and installing (where applicable) and paying for the material itself. 49 CFR § 26.55(c)(1) (e-CFR 2015 Edition)

(4) "Contribution" means a real and substantial contribution of money, tangible personal assets, and expertise to acquire ownership interest in the firm. A contribution is not a promise to contribute, an unsecured note payable to the firm or an owner who is not a disadvantaged individual, or mere participation in a firm's activities as an employee.

(5) "Control" or "controlled" means that operational and managerial control of all aspects of the business is true, real, and exercised by one or more socially disadvantaged individual(s) as further defined in 49 CFR § 26.71 (2013 Edition).

(8) "Independence" or "Independent" means the business is not dependent upon any non-disadvantaged, non-minority or non-woman owned firm.

(9) "Management Control" or "Management" means that the applicant has responsibility for the critical areas of business operations and has the demonstrated ability to make independent and unilateral business decisions needed to guide the future of the business.

(10) "Minority" means a person who is a citizen or lawful permanent resident of the United States and who is one of the persons described in (a) through (f) below.

(e) Subcontinent Asian Americans includes persons whose origins are from India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, the Maldives Islands, Nepal, or Sri Lanka;

(f) Any additional groups whose members are designated as socially disadvantaged by the Small Business Administration and/or as designated under 49 CFR Part 26 (2013 Edition).

(g) Other minority group membership as established by the applicant. Membership is based on evidence provided by the applicant to support the applicant's claim he or she is a member of a minority group and the particular minority community recognizes the individual to be a member of the community. It is in COBID's discretion to determine if the applicant's claim is valid. If the minority community does not exist in Oregon, the burden of proof shifts to the applicant to prove he or she is a socially and economically disadvantaged individual.

(11) "Minority Business Enterprise" or "MBE" means a business owned and operated by a minority who meets the eligibility standards set out in OAR 123-200-1210 through 123-200-1240. For the purposes of the certification programs, the rules recognize women as a separate group and not as a "minority" group.

(13) "Public agency" or "agency" means every government officer, board, commission, department, institution, branch or agency of the government, whose costs are paid wholly or in part from funds held in the federal, state, county, or city treasury.

(14) "Principal place of business" means the place where the firm directs, controls, and coordinates its primary, high-level business activities; the address the firm uses to file Federal income taxes. If the firm uses a P.O. Box, the COBID may request additional documentation to verify location.

(16) “Small Business” means a small business as defined pursuant to 13 CFR part 121 (e-CFR 2015 Edition). A small business shall not include any concern or group of concerns controlled by the same socially disadvantaged individual or individuals that have average annual gross receipts over the previous three fiscal years (including its affiliates) that exceed the cap as established yearly by the Small Business Administration (SBA).

(a) Firms seeking certification must also meet the business and NAICS size standards set yearly by the SBA.

(b) The COBID will utilize federal tax information, submitted by the applicant along with new applications, No Change Statements, and certification review applications, to determine annual gross receipts for the business.

(17) “Socially Disadvantaged Individuals” means individuals who are minorities, women, service disabled veterans or any other individuals found to be disadvantaged by the SBA pursuant to Section 8(a)(5) of the Small Business Act and has the meaning set out in 49 CFR § 26.67 (e-CFR 2015 Edition).

(18) “Timely notice” as used in ORS 200.035, shall mean at the time the state agency publicly releases the contract and bid request solicitations.

Determination of Socially and Economically Disadvantaged

(1) It is a rebuttable presumption that minorities, women, and service-disabled veterans are socially and economically disadvantaged.

(2) The COBID may also determine on a case-by-case basis other individuals who are socially and economically disadvantaged. These individuals claiming disadvantaged status are required to submit a socially and economically Disadvantaged Questionnaire administered by COBID.

(3) Socially disadvantaged individuals are people subject to racial or ethnic prejudice or cultural bias because of their identity as members of a group without regard to individual qualities.

(a) The social disadvantage must stem from the individual’s color, national origin, gender, physical handicap, long-term residence in an environment isolated from the mainstream of American society, or other similar cause beyond the individual’s control.

(b) The applicant must demonstrate:

(A) He or she personally suffered the disadvantage because of treatment in the United States; and

(B) The disadvantage was chronic, long-standing, and substantial, and was not fleeting or insignificant.

(4) Social disadvantage does not include factors common to small business.

Determination of Ownership

(1) In determining whether the socially disadvantaged individual(s) in a firm owns the firm, the COBID must consider all the facts in record viewed as a whole.

(2) One or more socially disadvantaged individuals must own at least 51% of the business. COBID will apply the standards a criteria for ownership as set out in 49 CFR § 26.69 (e-CFR 2015 Edition).

(a) In the case of a corporation, such individual(s) must own at least 51 percent of each class of voting stock outstanding and 51 percent of the aggregate of all stock outstanding.

(b) In the case of a partnership, the socially disadvantaged individual(s) must own 51 percent of each class of partnership interest. The ownership must also reflect in the firm’s partnership agreement.

(3) In the case of a limited liability company, the socially disadvantaged individual(s) must own at least 51 percent of each class of member interest.

(4) If a firm is owned equally (i.e., 50/50) by a combination of socially or economically disadvantaged individuals, the COBID will determine whether a firm is certified as a MBE, WBE, or SDV based on which individual possesses overall management and control of the firm. Evidence in support of management and control may include one or more of the following:

(a) Professional licensing as generally required by the industry (e.g., engineer, architect, plumber, electrician, landscape architect, etc.)

(b) Control of day-to-day operations of the firm

(c) Position held in the firm

(d) Ability to hire and fire staff

(5) The business must be controlled by one or more socially disadvantaged individual(s). COBID will apply the standards and criteria set out in 49 CFR § 26.71 (e-CFR 2015 Edition).

(6) One or more of the socially disadvantaged individual(s) must have made a substantial contribution of capital to the business, which is commensurate with his or her ownership interest.

(a) The COBID may consider differences in compensation between the potentially certified owner(s) and other participants in the firm to determine whether to certify a firm. Such consideration shall encompass the duties of the persons involved, normal industry practices, the firm’s policy, and practice concerning reinvestment of income, and any other explanations for the differences proffered by the firm.

(b) A contribution is not a promise to contribute capital, an unsecured note payable to the firm or to an owner who is not a socially disadvantaged individual or mere participation in a firm’s activities as an employee. Debt instruments from financial institutions or other organizations that lend funds in the normal course of their business do not render a firm ineligible, even if the debtor’s ownership interest is security for the loan.

(7) The socially disadvantaged individual’s ownership in the firm must be real, substantial, and continuing, going beyond pro forma ownership and reflected as such in all business documents. The socially disadvantaged owner(s) must enjoy the customary incidents of ownership, and share the risks and profits commensurate with their ownership interest, as demonstrated by the substance, not merely the form, or arrangements.

(8) The socially and economically disadvantaged individuals must directly hold all securities that constitute ownership of a firm.

(a) Except as provided in this paragraph, the COBID does not consider securities or assets held in trust, or by any guardian for a minor, as owned or held by the socially disadvantaged persons in determining the ownership of a firm.

(b) The COBID does recognize securities or assets held in trust by a socially disadvantaged individual for purposes of determining ownership of the firm, if:

(A) The beneficial owner of securities or assets held in trust and the trustee are both socially disadvantaged individuals; or

(B) The beneficial owner of a trust is a socially disadvantaged individual who, rather than the trustee, exercises effective control over the management, policymaking, and daily operational activities of the firm. The applicant may count assets held in a revocable living trust only in the situation where he or she is the sole grantor, beneficiary, and trustee.

(9) If the applicant is relying on his or her expertise for certification, he or she must have a significant financial investment in the firm.

(10) The COBID will consider the following requirements as they apply to situations in which the applicant relies on his or her expertise as a contribution to acquire ownership. The owner’s expertise must be:

(a) In a specialized field;

(b) Of outstanding quality;

(c) In areas critical to the firm’s operations;

(d) Indispensable to the firm’s potential success;

(e) Specific to the type of work the firm performs; and

(f) The records of the firm must reflect the applicant’s expertise.

These records must clearly show the contribution of expertise and its value to the firm. The applicant may quantify his or her expertise in years of experience, education, and accomplishments related to the types of services the firm offers.

(11) When an applicant receives majority stock ownership or control of a firm from a non-qualifying applicant within two years prior to submitting an application and the non-qualifying applicant remains involved in the firm as a stockholder, officer, director, or key employee the COBID will presume that the applicant does not control the firm. The applicant may rebut this presumption by showing that he or she has independent management experience necessary to control the operation of the firm and indeed is participating in the management of the firm.

(12) Assets held by a socially disadvantaged individual(s) as result of a final property settlement; court order in a divorce or, legal separation from a non-socially disadvantaged individual; through inheritance; or following the death of the former owner, are assets of the socially disadvantaged individual. The terms and conditions of legal documentation governing that transaction (i.e. divorce settlement, legal will, etc.) support the transfer of ownership to them.

(13) The COBID will not consider as evidence of ownership interest or assets in a firm obtained by a socially disadvantaged individual through gift or transfer from a non-socially disadvantaged individual unless there is evidence to support the transfer of interest and assets occurred for reasons other than obtaining certification.

(14) To overcome this presumption and permit the COBID to count interests or assets, the socially disadvantaged individual must demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that:

(a) The gift or transfer to the socially disadvantaged individual was made for reasons other than obtaining certification as a MBE, WBE, and/or SDV; and

(b) The socially disadvantaged individual actually controls the management, policy, and operations of the firm, notwithstanding the continuing participation of a non-socially disadvantaged individual who provided the gift or transfer.

(15) The COBID will closely scrutinize such transfers when the socially disadvantaged individual and non-socially disadvantaged individual are:

(a) Directly affiliated and involved in the same firm for which the socially disadvantaged individual is seeking certification;

(b) Involved in the same or a similar line of business; or

(c) Engaged in an ongoing business relationship related to the types of services in which the socially disadvantaged individual is seeking certification.

(16) In situations in which marital assets form a basis for ownership of a firm, the COBID considers the following:

(a) When marital assets (other than the assets of the business in question), held jointly or as community property by both spouses, are used to acquire the ownership interest asserted by one spouse, the COBID must deem the ownership interest in the firm to have been acquired by that spouse with his or her own individual resources. In doing so, the other spouse must irrevocably renounce and transfer all rights in the ownership interest of the applicant in the manner sanctioned by the laws of the state in which either spouse or the firm is domiciled. The COBID does not count a greater portion of joint or community property assets toward ownership than state law would recognize as belonging to the socially disadvantaged owner of the applicant firm.

(b) The COBID will require a fully executed Non-participation Statement renouncing the non-qualifying spouse or domestic partner's rights in the jointly owned or community asset used to acquire an ownership interest in the firm.

(17) The COBID must not regard a contribution of capital as failing to be real and substantial, or find a firm ineligible, solely because:

(a) A socially disadvantaged individual acquired his or her ownership interest as the result of a gift or transfer without adequate consideration, other than the types set forth in paragraph (12) of this section;

(b) There is a provision for the co-signature of a spouse who is not a socially disadvantaged individual on financing agreements, contracts for the purchase or sale of real or personal property, bank signature cards, or other documents; or

(c) An applicant receives ownership of the firm in question or its assets for adequate consideration from a spouse who is not a socially disadvantaged individual to a spouse who is such an individual.

Determination of Independence

(1) The business must be a "for profit" independent, properly licensed and registered with the Secretary of State in the State of Oregon.

(2) In determining whether a certified firm is an independent business, the COBID must scrutinize relationships with non-certified firms in such areas as personnel, facilities, equipment, financial and/or bonding support, and other resources.

(3) The COBID may consider whether present or recent employer/employee relationships between the owner(s) of the certified firm and non-certified firms, or persons associated with non-certified firms, compromise the independence of the certified firm.

(a) The COBID may examine the certified firm's relationship with prime contractors to determine whether a pattern of exclusive or primary dealings with a prime contractor compromises the independence of the certified firm.

(b) While reviewing factors related to the independence of a certified firm, the COBID must consider the consistency of relationships between the firm and non-certified firms with normal industry practice.

(4) The COBID will consider whether owner(s) of the business owns or leases equipment and resources necessary to perform the services provided. If the business leases equipment, leasing must follow normal industry practice and the lease must not involve a relationship with a prime contractor or non-disadvantaged individual that compromises the control and independence of the firm.

(5) The COBID may certify a business operating under a franchise or license agreement if it meets the standards in this subpart and the franchisor or licensor does not have an affiliation with the franchisee or licensee. The franchisor or license issuer must not have the ability to control employees, location, or prevent the certified owners from making any business decision for the firm without the cooperation or vote of any non-certified individual.

Determination of Management Control

(1) All legal documents and financial statements must clearly document that the socially disadvantaged individual has management control of the firm.

(2) A certified owner must hold the highest officer position in the company (e.g. chief executive officer or president).

(a) In a corporation, the certified owner(s) must control the Board of Directors.

(b) In a partnership, one or more certified owner(s) must serve as general partners, with control over all partnership decisions.

(c) In order for a certified individual(s) to control a partnership, any non-certified partners must not have the power, without the specific written concurrence of the certified partner(s), to contractually bind the partnership or subject the partnership to contract or tort liability.

(d) Certified owners and/or firms must not be subject to any formal or informal restrictions, which limit the customary discretion of the certified owner(s). There can be no restrictions (i.e. through corporate charter provisions, by-laws, contracts, or any other formal or informal devices) preventing the certified owners from making any business decision for the firm without the cooperation or vote of any non-certified individual. This paragraph does not preclude a spousal co-signature on documents as provided for in 49 CFR § 26.69(j)(2) (2013 Edition).

(3) The socially disadvantaged individual(s) must possess sufficient knowledge, managerial and technical competence, and experience, and have an overall understanding directly related to the type of business in which the firm seeks certification. The socially disadvantaged individual(s) must also be able to maintain day-to-day control over all operational aspects of the business.

(a) The COBID will evaluate the training and experience of the applicant based on a variety of factors. The list is not exclusive and COBID may take additional training and experience into consideration when making a determination regarding the owner's qualifications. Factors include:

(A) A college degree in the field of expertise;

(B) Essential license in Oregon in the field in which the firm operates (e.g. electrician, plumber, engineer, or landscape architect, etc.) that is current and up-to-date;

(C) Experience and/or training in the primary field of expertise;

(D) Experience in project management in the primary field of expertise;

(E) Individual's presence and activity on work site and ability to determine if work is proceeding in accordance with plans and to supervise field operations, resolve problems, and answer technical questions for subordinates;

(F) Individual's demonstration of knowledge in area of expertise during the certification interview process; and

(G) Additional training and experience related specifically to construction firms.

(i) Has ability to read and interpret blueprints and specifications.

(ii) Has independently done take offs and can prepare estimates and bids.

(iii) Can operate necessary equipment (e.g. excavator, backhoe, dump truck, etc.)

(b) Quality of work performed does not determine an applicant's eligibility for certification.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(c) In order to determine that the socially disadvantaged individual(s) has the technical expertise and competence to maintain operational control, the socially disadvantaged individual(s) may be required to submit proof of expertise to include:

- (i) A copy of his or her essential license(s).
- (ii) His or her resume.

(4) The socially disadvantaged applicant(s) must have responsibility for the critical areas of business operations and demonstrate the ability to make independent and unilateral business decisions needed to guide the future of the business.

(5) The certified owner(s) must possess the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the firm and to make day-to-day as well as long-term decisions on matters of management, policy, and operations.

(6) The socially disadvantaged applicant(s) is not required to have hands-on, direct control or expertise in every aspect of the business' affairs so long as the owner is able to intelligently use discretion, critically evaluate, and determine appropriate course of action based on information presented by employees.

(7) In order to substantiate management and control of a firm, a certified owner(s) cannot engage in outside employment or other business interests that conflict with the management of the firm or prevent the applicant from devoting sufficient time and attention to the affairs of the firm to control its activities.

(8) If an individual is required to hold a specific license (e.g. engineer, electrician, or plumber, etc.) or other credential in order to legally provide the goods or services in areas of work in which the firm seeks certification, the certified owner(s) who control a firm of that type must possess the required license or credential.

(a) If a trade or industry requires a specific license or credential (e.g., landscape architecture, plumber's license, etc.) in order to provide services in Oregon, general licensing provided by the Construction Contractor's Board (CCB) does not meet this prerequisite without the necessary trade or industry license.

(b) If the CCB requires a firm appoint a Responsible Managing Individual (RMI), this individual can be an owner or a manager of the firm and must be able to manage or supervise its construction activities.

(9) A socially disadvantaged individual may control a firm even though one or more of the individual's immediate family members (who themselves are not socially disadvantaged individuals) participate in the firm as a manager, employee, owner, or in another capacity.

(10) When a socially disadvantaged individual obtains ownership or control of a firm and the previous owner or individual in control is not a socially disadvantaged individual but remains active in some role at the firm, the socially disadvantaged individual must demonstrate to the COBID, by clear and convincing evidence, that:

(a) The transfer of ownership or control to the applicant was made for reasons other than obtaining certification; and

(b) The applicant actually controls the management, policy, and operations of the firm, notwithstanding the continuing participation of a non-certified individual who formerly owned and/or controlled the firm.

(11) In considering a MBE, WBE, or SDV certification where a non-disadvantaged individual was formerly controlling the firm, the COBID may consider the difference between the compensation of the non-disadvantaged individual and the socially disadvantaged applicant as a factor in determining control.

(12) If the COBID is unable to determine that the socially disadvantaged owner(s) control the firm, as distinct from the family as a whole, then the socially disadvantaged owner(s) have failed to carry their burden of proof concerning control even though they may participate significantly in the firm's activities.

(13) Individuals who are not socially disadvantaged may be involved in a MBE, WBE, and/or SDV firm as owners, managers, employers, stockholders, officers, and/or directors. Such individuals must not, however, possess or exercise the power to control the firm or be disproportionately responsible for the operation of the firm.

(14) The certified owner(s) of the firm may delegate various areas of management, policymaking, or daily operations of the firm to other participants in the firm, regardless of whether these participants are socially disadvantaged individuals. Such delegation of authority must be revocable and the certified owner(s) must retain the power to hire and fire any person to whom they delegate such authority. The managerial role of the certified owner(s) in the firm's overall affairs must be such that the COBID can reasonably conclude that the certified owner(s) actually exercises control over the firm's operations, management, and policy.

(15) The certified individual(s) controlling a firm may use an employee leasing company. The use of such a company does not preclude the certified individual(s) from controlling the firm if he or she continues to maintain an employer-employee relationship with the leased employees.

(16) When a firm contracts out the actual management of the business to individuals other than the owner or delegates the management to employees, those persons who have the power to hire and fire these managers exercise management control.

(17) In determining whether a certified owner(s) controls a firm, the COBID may consider whether the firm owns equipment necessary to perform its work.

(a) The business must own or lease sufficient machinery, equipment, and employees to operate. In making this determination, the COBID shall compare the operations of the certified firm to a non-certified firm in the same or similar business. If leasing, it must be a normal industry practice and the lease must not involve a relationship with a prime contractor or non-disadvantaged individual that compromises the control or independence of the firm as referenced under OAR 123-200-1100(2).

(18) The COBID may grant certification to a firm only for specific types of work in which the certified owner(s) has the ability to control the firm. To gain certification in an additional type of work, the firm needs to demonstrate to the COBID that only its certified owner(s) controls the firm with respect to that type of work.

(a) The North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) codes assigned to the firm must describe the types of work an applicant can control and manage and must directly relate to the services provided.

(b) The applicant bears the burden of providing the necessary, detailed company information to COBID for it to make an appropriate NAICS code designation and is primarily responsible to ensure the codes remain current to reflect services provided.

(c) In order for certified individuals to control a partnership, any non-certified partners must not have the power, without the specific written concurrence of the certified partner(s), to contractually bind the partnership or subject the partnership to contract or tort liability.

Certification: Application and Procedure

(1) Businesses seeking certification as a DBE, MBE, WBE, SDV, or ESB must complete the Certification Application provided by the COBID.

(2) Applicants seeking certification as a DBE through COBID must meet the eligibility criteria set out in 49 CFR parts 23 and 26 and any written directives, administrative guidelines, and written decisions of the US Department of Transportation.

(3) The COBID will make certification determinations based on the eligibility standards included in these rules and apply written directives of the administrative guidelines, Oregon Revised Statutes, 49 CFR part 26, and written appeal decisions regarding state certification so long as they are in accord with these rules.

(4) The completed application, together with all required supporting documentation, shall be submitted through the e-application process, by mail or in person to the Certification Office for Business Inclusion and Diversity, 775 Summer St. NE, Suite 200, Salem OR 97301. The COBID will not process incomplete applications.

(5) The COBID will take action on completed applications as promptly as its resources permit. The order of priority for processing applications shall be the date the COBID receives the complete application including all supporting documentation.

(6) The COBID may conduct a phone interview or on-site investigation at the owner's place of business and/or jobsite if applicable. The purpose of the interview and/or site visit is to verify material submitted with the application and to substantiate eligibility.

(7) As part of its investigation, the COBID may require firms to provide information in addition to that requested on the application. The applicant has the burden of proving that he or she is eligible for certification.

(8) The applicant must cooperate fully with the investigation and make available any additional information requested by the COBID.

(9) The COBID shall notify applicants promptly by mail after making a decision. When the COBID denies an application, the letter shall set forth the specific reasons for the denial.

(10) In making certification determinations under this section, the COBID does not consider whether the business has previously performed or would be able to perform a commercially useful function. Repeated failure by a business to perform a commercially useful function may indicate, however, that the business is not independent, owned, or controlled by a socially disadvantaged individual.

Certification Review

(1) All certifications are valid for three years.

(2) The COBID will send an annual “no change” statement to firms, approximately 30 days prior to the one-year and two-year anniversaries of the certification date. The applicant must complete the statement, provide federal tax information for the previous year, and provide documentation supporting any changes prior to the anniversary date, or the COBID will decertify the firm.

(3) The COBID will send a certification review notice to certified firms approximately two months prior to the firm’s anniversary date. The applicant shall promptly return the application along with any requested documentation (e.g. by-law amendments, evidence of changes in ownership, etc.). The COBID will review the signed application to determine continued eligibility and may conduct an on-site investigation to verify information submitted.

(4) A firm owner must demonstrate that his or her business currently meets the qualifications for the requested certification. It is the responsibility of the firm to provide the information deemed necessary by the COBID to ascertain eligibility. Failure to return the certification review form or provide supporting documentation may lead to decertification.

Denial and Decertification of MBE, WBE, and SDV Firms

(1) The COBID may deny or decertify a firm at any time it determines that the firm does not or no longer meets the eligibility standards set out in OAR 123-200-1000 through 123-200-2300 and ORS 200.005. The procedure is as follows:

(a) In the case of denial of initial certification, the COBID will notify the applicant in writing of the denial and provide a detailed explanation supporting the reasons for denial.

(b) In the case of decertification, the COBID shall issue a Notice of Intent to Decertify the firm 21 days prior to the date of decertification and provide a detailed explanation to support the reasons for the determination.

(c) In the event of a denial or decertification, the applicant or certified firm has 21 calendar days from the date of notice in which to submit a written appeal to the manager of the COBID. Following the review of the applicant’s written appeal, the manager of the COBID will issue a decision.

(d) If the applicant or certified firm does not agree with the manager’s decision, he or she may request a contested case hearing. The COBID will conduct a contested case hearing in accordance with ORS 183.310 to 183.550. Following the contested case hearing, the Hearings Officer will forward a proposed order to the manager of the COBID for issuance of a final order.

(e) If the applicant or certified firm files an appeal in writing or requests a contested case hearing, the COBID will stay the denial or decertification pending the issuance of the final order. If the applicant or certified firm does not submit a written appeal or request for a contested case hearing to the COBID within the 21-day period, the denial or decertification shall be final.

(2) The COBID may decertify a firm if the socially disadvantaged individual leaves the business or dies.

(3) An individual may withdraw his or her application or certification if he or she no longer wishes to participate in the program. The applicant must complete a notarized withdrawal form provided by the COBID.

(4) Any business denied initial certification is ineligible to reapply for a period of 12 months.

Eligibility Standards

(1) The ESB program is race and gender neutral and is based on the size of the business, not the individual applicant.

(2) A firm’s certification as an ESB may only last for a maximum of 12 consecutive years from the original certificate date and qualify as a tier one or tier two firm.

(a) A certified firm may only remain in each tier for a period of six years.

(b) If the firm graduates to a tier two status, due to size, before exhausting six years of certification under tier one, the firm’s certification in tier two must not exceed a period of six years, regardless of the firm’s certification period as tier one.

(c) If an applicant provides compelling information to show, to the satisfaction of the COBID, that he or she has not received an opportunity to bid on ESB projects during the 12 years of eligibility, the COBID will extend the certification of the firm for one additional year. A firm may receive the extension only once. The firm must provide a written request for an extension to the COBID, including any supporting documentation.

(3) To be eligible for certification as an ESB, a firm must meet the following criteria:

(a) Be in existence, operational, and in business for a profit.

(b) The principal place of business must be located in the State of Oregon as determined by the address used to file federal income taxes. If the business uses a P.O. Box, the COBID may require additional documentation to verify location.

(c) Be properly licensed and legally registered with the Secretary of State in the State of Oregon (i.e. registered as a domestic corporation, limited liability corporation, partnership, or assumed business name, etc.).

(d) Must not be a subsidiary or parent company belonging to a group of firms that are owned or controlled by the same individuals if, taken together, the group of firms do not qualify.

(e) Have average, annual gross receipts over the last three years that do not exceed monetary limitations determined by OBDD/COBID annually based on the Consumer Price Index.

(f) If state or local law requires a person to have a particular license or other credential in order to own and/or control a certain type of firm, then the certified applicant(s) who owns and controls an ESB must possess the required license or credential.

(g) The owner(s) must work a minimum of 20 hours per week for the business.

(h) The business must have 19 or fewer full-time employees to qualify for tier one or have 29 or fewer full-time employees to qualify to tier two. The COBID calculates a full-time employee as follows:

(A) Hours worked by all employees (part-time, seasonal, or full-time) shall be converted into equivalent hours; dividing the total hours worked by 2080.

(B) The COBID does not consider owners of the business in the calculation of the equivalent employees.

(C) The period of calculation shall be the same as the business’ tax year.

ESB Certification: Application Form and Procedure

(1) The COBID will utilize ORS 200.170 to review a business’ eligibility for certification as an ESB.

(2) A firm wishing to apply for certification in the ESB program shall complete the application provided by the COBID.

(3) The completed application, together with all required supporting documentation, shall be submitted to the Certification Office for Business Inclusion and Diversity at 775 Summer Street NE, Suite 200, Salem, OR 97301. The COBID will not process incomplete applications.

(4) The COBID will conduct a review and take action on completed applications as promptly as resources permit. The order of priority for processing applications shall be the date the COBID receives the completed application with all supporting documentation.

(5) The COBID shall make a determination based on the eligibility standards included in these rules and the applicable laws of the State of Oregon. As part of its investigation, the COBID may require the applicant firm to provide information in addition to that requested on the application. The applicant(s) has the burden of proving the firm is eligible for certification and meets all the requirements of the program. If the COBID certifies the firm, the agency will send a confirmation letter.

(6) The applicable emerging small business size standard for each applicant set out in ORS 123-200-1600 shall be determined by the business’ primary service offered.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(7) Registration of the business with the Construction Contractors Board and/or Landscape Contractors Board will establish a firm as a construction firm. For the purposes of this program, the COBID will consider a construction-related trucking business as a construction firm. The COBID does not consider Engineering and Architecture firms as construction firms.

Certification Review

(1) Certification as an ESB is valid for three years from the date of certification.

(2) The COBID will send an annual “no-change” statement to firms approximately 30 days prior to the one-year and two-year anniversaries of the certification date. The applicant must submit a completed statement, along with federal tax information for the previous year and documentation of any changes, prior to the anniversary date or the firm will be decertified.

(3) The ESB shall notify the COBID within 30 days of any changes, which may affect its continued eligibility in the program. Failure to notify the COBID may result in denial or decertification.

(4) The COBID will send a certification review notice and application to certified firms 60 days prior to expiration of current certification. The applicant shall promptly return the completed application along with any requested documentation (i.e. evidence of change in ownership, federal tax returns for the last year, etc.). Continued certification is not automatic. The applicant must demonstrate that his or her business still meets the criteria set out in OAR 123-200-1600 through 123-200-1700.

(5) The COBID staff shall review the signed application to determine the firm has continued eligibility. The COBID may also request additional information to verify the firm has continued eligibility.

(6) Failure to return the completed review application by the expiration date shall result in decertification.

Denial and Decertification of ESB Firms

(1) This rule applies only to the denial and decertification of a firm's ESB status under Oregon law. The COBID may deny certification or decertify a firm at any time if the agency determines that the firm no longer meets eligibility standards set out in OAR 123-200-1600. The procedure is as follows:

(a) The COBID will issue a Notice of Intent to Deny Certification in the case of denial of initial certification and the reasons therefore.

(b) In the case of decertification, the COBID shall issue a Notice of Intent to Decertify the firm 21 days prior to the date of decertification, and indicate the specific reasons for the decision.

(c) In the event of a denial or decertification, the applicant or firm representative has 21 calendar days from the date of notice in which to submit a written appeal to the manager of the COBID. Following the review of the applicant's written appeal, the manager of COBID will issue a decision.

(d) If the applicant or firm representative does not agree with the manager's decision, he or she may request a contested case hearing. The COBID will conduct a contested case hearing in accordance with ORS 183.310 to 183.550. Following the contested case hearing, the Hearings Officer will forward a proposed order to the COBID. The manager of the COBID will issue a final order.

(e) If the applicant or firm representative files an appeal in writing or requests a contested case hearing, the COBID will stay the denial or decertification pending the issuance of the final order. If the applicant or certified firm does not submit a written appeal or request for a contested case hearing to the COBID within the 21-day period, the denial or decertification shall be final.

(2) An applicant or firm representative may withdraw an application or certification if there is no longer a desire to participate in the program. The applicant or firm representative must complete a withdrawal form provided by the COBID.

(3) Any business denied initial certification would be ineligible to reapply for a period of 12 months.

Complaints of Ineligibility for All Programs

(1) A complainant must submit a Complaint of Ineligibility regarding certification of an individual or firm to the COBID. The COBID will process complaints according to the following procedure:

(a) Any individual or agency who believes that an individual or certified firm does not qualify under the standards of eligibility for certification may file a complaint of ineligibility. The complainant(s) must fill out a formal complaint form provided by the COBID. The purpose of the complaint process is to maintain the transparency of all programs.

(b) The complainant must use the form provided and submit the document to the COBID setting forth facts, which indicate that the applicant or certified firm is not eligible. The complaint must include copies of any supporting documents the complainant(s) may possess. The complainant(s) shall describe the facts in as much detail as possible.

(c) The COBID will only investigate complaints based on firsthand knowledge and those that contain allegations supported by evidence. The COBID will not investigate anonymous or third party complaints. Complaints based on hearsay (i.e. third person account, general assumption, word-of-mouth, and/or speculation) will not be investigated. The COBID does not accept general allegations. The COBID will not investigate unsupported complaints and will return the document to the complainant.

(2) The COBID will notify the complainant(s) in writing when it refuses to investigate a complaint. The notification may include:

(a) The initial complaint filed by the complainant(s);

(b) Explanation of why the complaint is not being investigated; and

(c) A request for additional information, when applicable.

(3) The complainant(s) may submit a revised complaint addressing the COBID's concerns.

(4) The complainant(s) must sign the complaint and provide a physical mailing and email address, and telephone number where the COBID may reach the individual during the investigation.

(5) While responding to requests for information concerning any aspect of the programs, the COBID complies with provisions of the Federal Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts. The COBID may make available to the public any information concerning the programs not prohibited by federal or state law. Information submitted to the COBID is subject to public record law, ORS 192.410, 192.501, 192.502, and 192.505. The public may inspect certain information in the agency's possession. (6) The COBID may keep the identity of the complainant(s) confidential, at the complainant(s) election, throughout the course of the investigation. A complainant(s) may waive this privilege of confidentiality at any time. If such confidentiality will hinder the investigation, proceeding, hearing, or result in a denial of appropriate administrative due process to other parties, the COBID will advise the complainant(s) that, in some circumstances, failure to waive the privilege of confidentiality may result in the closure of the investigation or dismissal of the proceeding or hearing.

(7) The COBID will investigate each complaint as promptly as resources allow. If preliminary investigative results show good cause for in-depth investigation, the COBID will notify the applicant or certified firm identified in the complaint by certified mail. The notice will summarize the grounds for the challenge and will require the applicant or certified firm to provide to the COBID, within a reasonable period of time, information sufficient to permit the agency to evaluate the complaint and the application or certified firm's qualifications for the programs. The applicant, certified firm, and complainant(s) shall cooperate fully in the COBID's investigation.

(8) After the investigation is complete, the COBID will issue a written decision in the form of a rejection of the complaint, Notice of Intent to Deny, or Notice of Intent to Decertify. The decision will address each issue raised in the complaint and throughout the investigation and the reasoning for the decision. The COBID will mail the written decision to the applicant or certified firm and to the complainant(s). The COBID will not deny or decertify a firm based on a complaint without first giving the firm an opportunity to respond.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(9) The applicant or certified firm has 21 calendar days from the date of Notice of Intent to Deny or Notice of Intent to Decertify in which to submit a written appeal to the manager of the COBID. Following the review of the applicant's written appeal, the manager of COBID will issue a decision.

Contracting Agency Responsibilities

(1) It is the public agency's sole responsibility to perform commercially useful function (CUF) reviews.

(2) The COBID may consider and review the CUF reviews completed by the public contracting agency or any other relevant factors when determining whether the certified firm has exhibited a pattern of failing to perform CUFs.

(3) Notwithstanding any other part of this section, the COBID and a public contracting agency may enter into an agreement to share and protect information and otherwise cooperate in order to facilitate the enforcement of ORS 200.065 and ORS 200.075, as permitted by ORS 192.410 to 192.505.

(a) The COBID, for purposes of an investigation regarding certification, will consider CUF reviews under the following circumstances:

(i) During the course of a project

(ii) When multiple reviews occur over an extended period suggesting reoccurring violations

(iii) Within three years of the discovery of an alleged CUF failure.

(4) CUF reviews and investigations shall consider the following:

(a) Whether the certified firm is responsible for execution of the work outlined in the public contract and carries out its responsibilities by actually performing, managing, and supervising the work involved. The public agency may evaluate the amount of work contracted and standard industry practices.

(b) Whether a certified firm is responsible, with respect to materials and supplies used on the contract, for negotiating price; determining quality and quantity; ordering the material and installing (where applicable); and paying for the material.

(c) Whether a certified firm has a role that is limited to that of an extra participant in a transaction, contract, or project through which participants pass funds in order to obtain the appearance of involvement by the certified firm. In determining whether a certified firm is such an extra participant and thus not performing a CUF, the public agency may examine similar transactions, particularly those in which non-certified firms participate.

(d) Whether a certified firm performs or exercises responsibility for at least 30 percent of the total cost of its contract with its own work force or subcontract with another firm certified by the State of Oregon. If it does not, the public agency may presume the certified firm is not performing a CUF. The firm must not subcontract a greater portion of the work of a contract to a non-certified firm than would be expected based on normal industry practice for the type of work involved.

(5) If a public agency determines that a certified firm is not performing a CUF as provided in paragraph (4) (b), (c), and (d) of this section, the certified firm may present evidence to rebut this presumption. The public agency may determine that the firm is performing a CUF given the type of work involved and normal industry practices.

(6) A public agency shall notify the COBID if the agency investigates a certified firm.

(7) The COBID may not decertify a firm based solely on a public agency's investigation.

(8) COBID, at its discretion, may perform its own investigation of a certified firm if it receives a complaint or notification that alleges a certified firm has failed to perform a CUF. As part of its investigation, COBID may request information from the complainant or author of the notification unless such requirements violate an agreement entered into by the public contracting agency and COBID under (3) of this section. If COBID does not receive sufficient information to conduct an investigation, COBID may in its discretion close the investigation without taking further action. Requested information may include:

(a) All documentation gathered by the public contracting agency during the CUF review and any additional documentation related to the complaint or investigation.

(b) Disclosure of all participants in a complaint or investigation.

(c) Confirmation that the public contracting agency notified the firm in question that it failed a CUF review and provided the firm an opportunity to present evidence to rebut the claim.

(d) List of current, open contracts let to the firm in question by the public contracting agency.

(A) A written request from the student’s parent or guardian or the student, if the student is 18 years of age or older or a legally emancipated minor, listing the reasons for the request and a proposed alternative for an individualized learning activity which substitutes for the period of time exempt from the program and meets the goals of the learning activity or course being exempt;

Funding

(1) The Department of Education shall determine for each fiscal year the portion of the funds available for the Career Pathway Funding allocation and the annual pathway allocation maximum.

(2) Prior to the allocation in each fiscal year, the Department of Education shall:

Enforcement to Reduce Tobacco Use by Minors

(1) The Division is required to coordinate with law enforcement agencies to conduct annual, random and targeted, unannounced inspections of over-the counter and vending machine outlets to insure compliance with, and to enforce, Oregon laws designed to discourage the use of tobacco by minors. Nothing in these rules shall preempt local jurisdictions from passing ordinances to conduct unannounced inspections.

(2) Random Sample Procedures: Annual random, unannounced inspections will be based on the following methodological procedures:

(a) Cover a range of outlets, not to be preselected on the basis of prior violations, to measure overall levels of compliance as well as to identify violations.

(b) Be conducted annually.

(c) Be conducted in such a way as to ensure a scientifically sound estimate to the success of enforcement actions being taken throughout the state;

(d) Use reliable methodological design and adequate sample design to reflect:

(A) Distribution of the population of those under 18 throughout the state;

(B) Distribution of outlets throughout the state; and

(C) Must further reflect that, because of location (e.g. near schools) or other factors, some outlets are more likely to be used by minors.

(e) Conduct inspections at times when minors are likely to purchase tobacco products

(3) Targeted Inspections: Pursuant to ORS 431.853(2)(c), targeted inspections are to focus on outlets where a compliance problem exists or is suspected. Information gained in targeted inspection will not be included in data used to determine rate of offense in random inspections.

(4) Conducting Inspections: Inspections may take place:

(a) Only in areas open to the public;

(b) Only during hours that tobacco products are sold or distributed; and

(c) No more frequently once a month in any single unless a compliance problem exists or is suspected. For purposes of this rule, a "single outlet" refers to a specific address location of an outlet, regardless of ownership.

(d) Using minors shall be at the discretion of the law enforcement officer or the Division.

Enrollment Requirements in a CCO

(1) For the purposes of this rule, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Client" means an individual found eligible to receive OHP health services. "Client" is inclusive of members enrolled in PHPs and CCOs as stated in OAR 410-120-0000;

(b) "Eligibility Determination" means an approval or denial of eligibility and a renewal or termination of eligibility as stated in OAR 410-200-0015;

(c) "Member" means a client enrolled with a pre-paid health plan or a coordinated care organization as stated in OAR 410-120-0000;

(d) "Newly Eligible" means recently determined through the eligibility determination process as having the right to obtain state health benefits, satisfying the appropriate conditions;

(e) "Redetermination" means a review of eligibility outside of regularly scheduled renewals. Redeterminations that result in the assignment of a new renewal date or a change in program are considered renewals as stated in OAR 410-200-0015;

(f) "Renewal" means a regularly scheduled periodic review of eligibility resulting in a renewal or change of program benefits, including the assignment of a new renewal date or a change in eligibility status.

(2) Pursuant to ORS 414.631, the following populations may not be enrolled into a CCO for any type of health care coverage including:

(a) Persons who are non-citizens and are Citizen/Alien Waivered-Emergency Medical program eligible for labor and delivery services and emergency treatment services;

(b) Clients receiving premium assistance through the Specified Low-Income Medicare Beneficiary, Qualified Individuals, Qualified Disabled Working Individuals and Qualified Medicare Beneficiary programs without other Medicaid;

(c) Persons who are dually eligible for Medicare and Medicaid and enrolled in a program of all-inclusive care for the elderly.

(3) The following populations may not be enrolled into a CCO under the following circumstances:

(a) Newly eligible clients are exempt from enrollment with a CCO but not exempt from enrollment in a DCO if they became eligible when admitted as an inpatient in a hospital. The client shall receive health care services on a fee-for-service (FFS) basis only until the hospital discharges the client. The individual shall receive dental services through the DCO;

(b) The client is covered under a major medical insurance policy or other third party resource (TPR) that covers the cost of services to be provided by a PHP as specified in ORS 414.631 and except as provided for children in Child Welfare through the Behavioral Rehabilitation Services (BRS) and PRTS programs outlined in OAR 410-141-3050. A client shall be enrolled with a DCO even if they have a dental TPR.

(4) Persons who are documented American Indian and Alaskan Native (AI/AN) beneficiaries are exempt mandatory enrollment into a managed care plan, as specified in 42 USC 1932, 2(C), but may elect to be manually enrolled.

(5) Populations specified below are exempt from mandatory enrollment into a physical health CCO but are subject to mandatory enrollment into both dental and mental health plans as available in the member's service area. The member may be manually enrolled into a physical health plan as deemed appropriate by the Authority. These populations are as follows:

(a) Children in the legal custody of the Department or where the child is expected to be in a substitute care placement for less than 30 calendar days unless:

(A) Access to health care on a FFS basis is not available; or

(B) Enrollment would preserve continuity of care;

(b) Clients who are dually eligible for Medicare and Medicaid but not enrolled in a program of all-inclusive care for the elderly. The following apply to these:

(A) A client has the option to enroll in a CCO regardless of whether they are enrolled in Medicare Advantage;

(B) A client enrolled in Medicare Advantage, whether or not they pay their own premium, has the option to enroll in a CCO even if the CCO does not have a corresponding Medicare Advantage plan;

(C) A client has the option to enroll with a CCO, even if the client withdrew from that CCO's Medicare Advantage plan. The CCO shall accept the client's enrollment if the CCO has adequate health access and capacity;

(D) A client has the option to enroll with a CCO even if the client is enrolled in Medicare Advantage with another entity.

(6) The Authority may temporarily exempt clients for other just causes as determined by the Authority through medical review. The Authority may set an exemption period on a case-by-case basis for those as follows:

(a) Children under 19 years of age who are medically fragile and who have special health care needs. The Authority may enroll these children in CCOs on a case-by-case basis. Children not enrolled in a CCO shall continue to receive services on a FFS basis;

(b) Until December 31, 2017, women who are pregnant and meet the qualifications in sub-sections A through F below may receive OHP benefits on a FFS basis for physical health only until 60 days after the birth of her child. Women meeting the criteria for the pregnancy enrollment exemption for their physical health plan coverage shall continue to be enrolled in the appropriate CCO plan in their service area for dental and mental health coverage. After the 60-day post estimated date of delivery, the member shall enroll in a plan as appropriate. Those women under consideration for a pregnancy enrollment exemption for their physical health enrollment shall receive a response from the Authority within 30 working days of request. Upon approval of the FFS pregnancy exemption for physical health enrollment only, the client shall remain FFS for as long as she continues to meet the requirements in A through F below. In order to qualify for the FFS pregnancy exemption for physical health only, there shall be no out of hospital birth option available to the client through her plan, and the client shall:

(A) Be pregnant;

(B) State that her intention is to have an out of hospital birth;

(C) Have an established relationship for the purpose of an out of hospital birth with a licensed, qualified practitioner who is not a participating provider with the client's CCO;

(D) Make a request to change to FFS. This request can be made through the end of the twenty-seventh week of pregnancy;

(E) Meet all administrative rules including, but not limited to, OAR 410-130-0240 and statutory requirements that define when an out of hospital birth is eligible for reimbursement by the Authority; and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(F) Meet any of the requirements specified in OAR 333-076-0650, either upon initial evaluation or once the exemption is granted. If a woman becomes unable to meet the requirements, the exemption shall be withdrawn and the client shall be subject to CCO enrollment requirements as stated in OAR 410-141-3060.

(c) The following apply to clients and exemptions relating to organ transplants:

(A) Newly eligible clients are exempt from enrollment with a CCO if the client is newly diagnosed and under the treatment protocol for an organ transplant;

(B) Newly eligible clients with existing transplants shall enroll into the appropriate CCO for their service area;

(d) Other just causes to preserve continuity of care include the following considerations:

(A) Enrollment would pose a serious health risk; and

(B) The Authority finds no reasonable alternatives.

(7) Unless stated above, CCO enrollment is mandatory in all areas served by a CCO. A client who is eligible for or receiving health services shall enroll in a CCO as required by ORS 414.631, except as provided in ORS 414.631(2), (3), (4) and (5) and this rule.

(8) Enrollment is voluntary in service areas without adequate access and capacity to provide health care services through a CCO or PHP.

(9) Enrollment is mandatory in service areas with adequate health care access and capacity to provide health care services through a CCO or PHP. If upon application or redetermination a client does not select a CCO, the Authority shall auto-assign the client and the client's household to a CCO that has adequate health care access and capacity. The following outlines the priority of enrollment in service areas where enrollment is mandatory and a PHP remains available for enrollment:

(a) Priority 1: The client shall enroll in a CCO that serves that area and has adequate health care access and capacity;

(b) Priority 2: The client has the option to enroll in a PHP through a manual process if:

(A) The client has an established relationship with a provider who is only contracted with the PHP; or

(B) The PHP serves an area that a CCO serves, but the CCO has inadequate health care services capacity to accept new members. Clients shall be FFS unless already established with a PHP's provider;

(c) Priority 3: The client shall receive services on an FFS basis.

(10) If a service area changes from mandatory enrollment to voluntary enrollment, the member shall remain with the PHP for the remainder of their eligibility period or until the Authority or Department redetermines eligibility, whichever comes sooner, unless otherwise eligible to disenroll pursuant to OAR 410-141-3080.

(11) Clients who are exempt from physical health services or who are enrolled with a PHP for physical health services shall receive managed or coordinated mental health and oral health services as follows:

(a) The client shall be enrolled with a CCO if the CCO offers mental health and oral health services; or

(b) The client shall be enrolled with an MHO for mental health services and with a DCO for oral health services if the CCO does not offer those services; or

(c) The client shall be enrolled with a DCO for oral health services and remain FFS for mental health services if an MHO is not available; or

(d) The client shall remain FFS for both mental health and oral health services if an MHO or DCO is unavailable.

(12) The following pertains to the effective date of the enrollment. If the enrollment occurs:

(a) On or before Wednesday, the date of enrollment shall be the following Monday; or

(b) After Wednesday, the date of enrollment shall be one week from the following Monday.

(13) Coordinated care services shall begin as of the effective date of enrollment with the CCO except for:

(a) A newborn's date of birth when the mother was a member of a CCO at the time of birth;

(b) For persons other than newborns who are hospitalized on the date enrolled, the date of enrollment shall be the first possible enrollment date after the date the client is discharged from inpatient hospital services;

(c) For members who are re-enrolled within 30 calendar days of disenrollment, the date of enrollment shall be the date specified by the Authority and may be earlier than the effective date outlined above.

(d) For adopted children or children placed in an adoptive placement, the date of enrollment shall be the date specified by the Authority.

Disenrollment from Coordinated Care Organizations

(1) For purposes of this rule, continuity of care means the ability to sustain services necessary for a person's treatment. Continuity of care is a concern when a member is transferred from one service provider to another.

(2) All member-initiated requests for disenrollment from a Coordinated Care Organization (CCO) or Dental Care Organization (DCO) shall be initiated orally or in writing by the primary person in the benefit group enrolled with a CCO or DCO, where primary person and benefit group are defined in OAR 461-001-0000, 461-001-0035, and 461-110-0750, respectively. For members who are not able to request disenrollment on their own, the request may be initiated by the member's representative.

(3) In accordance with 42 CFR 438.56(c)(2), the Authority, CCO, or DCO shall honor a member or representative request for disenrollment for the following:

(a) Without cause:

(A) Newly eligible members may change their CCO or DCO assignment within 90 days following the date of initial enrollment. The effective date of disenrollment shall be the first of the month following the Division's approval of disenrollment;

(B) At least once every 12 months thereafter;

(C) Existing members may change their CCO or DCO assignment within 30 days of the Authority's automatic assignment or reenrollment in a CCO or DCO;

(D) In accordance with ORS 414.645, members may disenroll from a CCO or DCO during their redetermination (enrollment period) or one additional time during their enrollment period based on the member's choice and with Authority approval. The disenrollment shall be considered "recipient choice."

(b) With cause:

(A) At any time;

(B) Due to moral or religious objections, the CCO or DCO does not cover the service the member seeks;

(C) When the member needs related services (for example a cesarean section and a tubal ligation) to be performed at the same time, not all related services are available within the network, and the member's primary care provider or another provider determines that receiving the services separately would subject the member to unnecessary risk; or

(D) Other reasons including, but not limited to, poor quality of care, lack of access to services covered under the contract, or lack of access to participating providers who are experienced in dealing with the member's health care needs. Examples of sufficient cause include, but are not limited to:

(i) The member moves out of the CCO or DCO's service area;

(ii) The member is a Native American or Alaskan Native with Proof of Indian Heritage who wishes to obtain primary care services from his or her Indian Health Service facility, tribal health clinic/program, or urban clinic and the Fee-For-Service (FFS) delivery system;

(iii) Continuity of care that is not in conflict with any section of OAR 410-141-3060 or as defined in this rule. Participation in OHP, including coordinated care or dental care, does not guarantee that any OHP member has a right to continued care or treatment by a specific provider. A request for disenrollment based on continuity of care shall be denied if the basis for this request is primarily for the convenience of an OHP member or a provider of a treatment, service, or supply, including, but not limited to, a decision of a provider to participate or decline to participate in a CCO or DCO;

(iv) As specified in ORS 414.647, the Authority may approve the transfer of 500 or more members from one CCO or DCO to another CCO or DCO if:

(I) The member's provider has contracted with the receiving CCO or DCO and has stopped accepting patients from or has terminated providing services to members in the transferring CCO or DCO; and

(II) Members are offered the choice of remaining enrolled in the transferring CCO or DCO; and

(III) The member and all family (case) members shall be transferred to the provider's new CCO or DCO; and

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(IV) The transfer shall take effect when the provider's contract with their current CCO or DCO contractual relationship ends, or on a date approved by the Division; and

(V) Members may not be transferred under section (2) (E) (vi) until the Division has evaluated the receiving CCO or DCO and determined that the CCO or DCO meets criteria established by the Division as stated in rule including, but not limited to, ensuring that the CCO or DCO maintains a network of providers sufficient in numbers, areas of practice, and geographically distributed in a manner to ensure that the health services provided under the contract are reasonably accessible to members; and

(VI) The Division shall provide notice of a transfer to members affected by the transfer at least 90 days before the scheduled date of the transfer.

(E) If a member's disenrollment is denied, notice of denial shall be sent to the member pursuant to OAR 410-141-0263 and 410-141-3263 of their right to file a grievance or request a hearing.

(c) If the following conditions are met:

(A) As supported in 42 CFR 438.56(d) (2), clients at any point in the third trimester of pregnancy, separate from those clients requesting out of hospital births as referenced in OAR 410-141-3060, and those clients newly determined eligible for OHP, or those clients newly re-determined eligible for OHP and not enrolled in a CCO or DCO within the past three months;

(B) Members enrolled with a new CCO that does not contract with the member's current OB provider and the member wishes to continue obtaining maternity services from that non-participating OB provider;

(C) The enrollment exemption shall remain in place until 60 days post-estimated date of delivery, at which time the member shall select and be enrolled in the appropriate CCO plan in their service area.

(d) For purposes of a member's right to file a grievance or request a hearing, disenrollment does not include the following:

(A) Transfer of a member from a PHP to a CCO or DCO.

(B) Involuntary transfer of a member from a CCO or DCO to another CCO or DCO; or

(C) Automatic enrollment of a member in a CCO or DCO.

(e) Member disenrollment requests are subject to the following requirements:

(A) The member shall join another CCO or DCO, unless the member resides in a service area where enrollment is voluntary, or the member meets the exemptions to enrollment set forth in OAR 410-141-3060 or 410-141-0060 or the member meets disenrollment criteria stated in 42 CFR 438.56(c)(2), or there is not another CCO or DCO in the service area;

(B) The effective date of disenrollment shall be the end of the month in which disenrollment was requested unless the Division approves retroactively;

(C) If the Authority fails to make a disenrollment determination by the first day of the second month following the month in which the member files a request for disenrollment, the disenrollment is considered approved.

(4) The CCO or DCO may not disenroll members solely for the following reasons:

(a) Because of a physical, intellectual, developmental, or mental disability;

(b) Because of an adverse change in the member's health;

(c) Because of the member's utilization of services, either excessive or lack thereof;

(d) Because the member requests a hearing;

(e) Because the member exercises their option to make decisions regarding their medical care with which the CCO or DCO disagrees;

(f) Because of uncooperative or disruptive behavior resulting from the member's special needs.

(5) Subject to applicable disability discrimination laws, the Division may disenroll members for cause when the CCO or DCO requests it for cause, which includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) The member commits fraudulent or illegal acts related to the member's participation in the OHP such as: permitting the use of their medical ID card by others, altering a prescription, theft, or other criminal acts. The CCO or DCO shall report any illegal acts to law enforcement authorities and, if appropriate, to DHS Fraud Investigations Unit at 888-Fraud01 (888-372-8301) or <http://www.oregon.gov/DHS/aboutdhs/fraud/> as appropriate, consistent with 42 CFR 455.13;

(b) The member became eligible through a hospital hold process and placed in the Adults and Couples category as required under OAR 410-141-3060;

(c) Requests by the CCO for routine disenrollment of specific members shall include the following procedures to be followed and documented prior to requesting disenrollment of a member:

(A) A request shall be submitted in writing to the Coordinated Account Representative (CAR). The CCO or DCO shall document the reasons for the request, provide written evidence to support the basis for the request, and document that attempts at intervention were made as described below. The procedures cited below shall be followed and documented prior to requesting disenrollment of a member;

(B) There shall be notification from the provider to the CCO or DCO at the time the problem is identified. The notification shall describe the problem and allow time for appropriate resolution by the CCO or DCO. Such notification shall be documented in the member's clinical record. The CCO or DCO shall conduct provider education or training regarding the need for early intervention, disability accommodation, and the services available to the provider;

(C) The CCO or DCO shall contact the member either verbally or in writing, if it is a severe problem, to inform the member of the problem that has been identified and attempt to develop an agreement with the member regarding the issue. Any contact with the member shall be documented in the member's clinical record. The CCO or DCO shall inform the member that their continued behavior may result in disenrollment from the CCO or DCO;

(D) The CCO or DCO shall provide individual education, disability accommodation, counseling, or other interventions with the member in a serious effort to resolve the problem;

(E) The CCO or DCO shall contact the member's care team regarding the problem and, if needed and with the agreement of the member, involve the care team and other appropriate individuals working with the member in the resolution within the laws governing confidentiality;

(F) If the severity of the problem warrants, the CCO or DCO shall develop a care plan that details how the problem is going to be addressed and coordinate a care conference with the member, their care team, and other individuals chosen by the member. If necessary, the CCO or DCO shall obtain an authorization for release of information from the member for the providers and agencies in order to involve them in the resolution of the problem. If the release is verbal, it shall be documented in the member's record;

(G) The CCO or DCO shall submit any additional information or assessments requested by the Division CAR;

(H) The Authority shall notify the member in writing of a disenrollment made as defined in the section above;

(I) If the member's behavior is uncooperative or disruptive including, but not limited to, threats or acts of physical violence as the result of his or her special needs or disability, the CCO or DCO shall also document each of the following:

(i) A written description of the relationship of the behavior to the special needs or disability of the individual and whether the individual's behavior poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others. Direct threat means a significant risk to the health or safety of others that cannot be eliminated by a modification of policies, practices, or procedures. In determining whether a member poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others, the CCO or DCO shall make an individualized assessment based on reasonable judgment that relies on current medical knowledge or best available objective evidence to ascertain the nature, duration, and severity of the risk to the health or safety of others; the probability that potential injury to others shall actually occur; and whether reasonable modifications of policies, practices, or procedures shall mitigate the risk to others;

(ii) A CCO or DCO-staffed interdisciplinary team review that includes a mental health professional or behavioral specialist and other health care professionals who have the appropriate clinical expertise in treating the member's condition to assess the behavior, the behavioral history, and previous history of efforts to manage behavior;

(iii) If warranted, a clinical assessment of whether the behavior will respond to reasonable clinical or social interventions;

(iv) Documentation of any accommodations that have been attempted and why the accommodations haven't worked;

(v) Documentation of the CCO or DCO's rationale for concluding that the member's continued enrollment in the CCO or DCO seriously impairs the CCO's or DCO's ability to furnish services to either this particular member or other members;

(vi) If a Primary Care Provider (PCP) terminates the provider/patient relationship, the CCO or DCO shall attempt to locate another PCP on their panel who shall accept the member as their patient. If needed, the CCO or DCO shall obtain an authorization for release of information from the member in order to share the information necessary for a new provider to evaluate whether they can treat the member. All terminations of provider/patient relationships shall be according to the CCO or DCO's policies and shall be consistent with CCO or DCO or PCP's policies for commercial members and with applicable disability discrimination laws. The CCO or DCO shall determine whether the PCP's termination of the provider/patient relationship is based on behavior related to the member's disability and shall provide education to the PCP about disability discrimination laws.

(d) In addition to the requirements in subsection (c), requests by the CCO or DCO for an exception to the routine disenrollment process shall include the following:

(A) In accordance with 42 CFR 438.56 the CCO or DCO shall submit a request in writing to the CAR for approval. An exception to the disenrollment process may only be requested for members who have committed an act of or made a credible threat of physical violence directed at a health care provider, the provider's staff, other patients, or the CCO or DCO's staff so that it seriously impairs the CCO or DCO's ability to furnish services to either this particular member or other members. A credible threat means that there is a significant risk that the member may cause grievous physical injury to others (including but not limited to death) in the near future, and that risk cannot be eliminated by a modification of policies, practices, or procedures. The CCO or DCO shall document the reasons for the request and provide written evidence to support the basis for the request prior to requesting an exception to the disenrollment process of a member;

(B) Providers shall immediately notify the CCO or DCO about the incident with the member. The notification shall describe the problem and be maintained for documentation purposes;

(C) The CCO or DCO shall attempt and document contact with the member and their care team regarding the problem and, if needed, involve the care team and other appropriate individuals in the resolution within the laws governing confidentiality;

(D) The CCO or DCO shall provide any additional information requested by the CAR, the Authority, or the Department assessment team;

(E) If the member's behavior could reasonably be perceived as the result of their special needs or disability, the CCO or DCO shall also document each of the following:

(i) A written description of the relationship between the behavior to the special needs or disability of the individual and whether the individual's behavior poses a credible threat of physical violence as defined in section (2)(b)(C)(i) of this rule;

(ii) In determining whether a member poses a credible threat to the health or safety of others, the CCO or DCO shall make an individualized assessment, based on reasonable judgment that relies on current medical knowledge or best available objective evidence to ascertain the nature, duration, and severity of the risk to the health or safety of others; the probability that potential injury to others may actually occur; and whether reasonable modifications of policies, practices, or procedures may mitigate the risk to others;

(F) Documentation shall exist that verifies the provider or CCO or DCO immediately reported the incident to law enforcement. The CCO or DCO shall submit a copy of the police report or case number. If a report is not available, submit a signed entry in the member's clinical record documenting the report to law enforcement or other reasonable evidence;

(G) Documentation shall exist that verifies what reasonable modifications were considered and why reasonable modifications of policies, practices, or procedures may not mitigate the risk to others;

(H) Documentation shall exist that verifies any past incidents and attempts to accommodate similar problems with this member;

(I) Documentation shall exist that verifies the CCO or DCO's rationale for concluding that the member's continued enrollment in the CCO or DCO seriously impairs the CCO or DCO's ability to furnish services to either this particular member or other members.

(e) Approval or denial of disenrollment requests shall include the following:

(A) If there is sufficient documentation, the request shall be evaluated by the CCO or DCO's CAR or a team of CARs who may request additional information from Ombudsman Services, AMH, or other agencies as needed. If the request involves the member's mental health condition or behaviors related to substance abuse, the CAR shall also confer with the AMH's substance use disorder specialist;

(B) In cases where the member is also enrolled in the CCO or DCO's Medicare Advantage plan, the CCO or DCO shall provide proof to the Division of CMS' approval to disenroll the member. If approved by the Division, the date of disenrollment from both plans shall be the disenrollment date approved by CMS;

(C) If there is insufficient documentation, the CAR shall notify the CCO or DCO within two business days of initial receipt what supporting documentation is needed for final consideration of the request;

(D) The CARs shall review the request and notify the CCO or DCO of the decision within ten working days of receipt of sufficient documentation from the CCO or DCO;

(E) Written decisions shall be sent to the CCO or DCO within 15 working days from receipt of request and sufficient documentation from the CAR.

(6) The following procedures apply to all denied disenrollment requests:

(a) The CAR shall send the member a notice within five days after the decision for denial with a copy to the CCO or DCO and the member's care team;

(b) The notice shall give the disenrollment date, the reason for disenrollment, and the notice of the member's right to file a complaint, as specified in 410-141-3260 through 410-141-3266, and to request an administrative hearing and the option to continue enrollment in the PHP pending the outcome of the hearing, in accordance with 42 CFR 438.420. If the member requests a hearing, the disenrollment shall proceed unless the member requests continued enrollment pending a decision;

(c) If disenrollment is approved, the CAR shall contact the member's care team to arrange enrollment in a different plan. The Division may require the member to obtain services from FFS providers until such time as they can be enrolled with another CCO or DCO;

(d) If no other CCO or DCO is available to the member, the member shall be exempt from enrollment in that type of managed care plan for 12 months. If a member who has been disenrolled for cause is re-enrolled in the CCO or DCO, the CCO or DCO may request a disenrollment review by the CAR. A member may not be involuntarily disenrolled from the same CCO or DCO for a period of more than 12 months. If the member is re-enrolled after the 12-month period and the CCO or DCO again requests disenrollment for cause, the request shall be referred to the Authority assessment team for review.

(7) The following procedures apply to all approved disenrollment requests:

(a) The CAR shall send the member a notice within five days after the request was approved with a copy to the CCO or DCO and the member's care team;

(b) The notice shall give the disenrollment date, the reason for disenrollment, and the notice of member's right to file a complaint, as specified in OAR 410-141-3260 through 410-141-3266, and to request an administrative hearing and the option to continue enrollment in the CCO or DCO pending the outcome of the hearing, in accordance with 42 CFR 438.420. If the member requests a hearing, the disenrollment shall proceed unless the member requests continued enrollment pending a decision;

(c) The disenrollment effective date shall be ten calendar days after the disenrollment notice is sent to the member, unless the member requests a hearing and ongoing enrollment pending a hearing decision. The disenrollment shall become effective immediately upon the issuing of an Administrative Law Judge's decision to uphold disenrollment;

(d) If disenrollment is approved, the CAR shall contact the member's care team to arrange enrollment in a different plan. The Division may require the member to obtain services from FFS providers until such time as they can be enrolled with another CCO or DCO;

(e) If no other CCO or DCO is available to the member, the member shall be exempt from enrollment in that type of managed care plan for 12 months. If a member who has been disenrolled for cause is re-enrolled in the CCO or DCO, the CCO or DCO may request a disenrollment review by the CAR. A member may not be involuntarily disenrolled from the same CCO or DCO for a period of more than 12 months. If the member is re-enrolled after the 12-month period and the CCO or DCO or the member again requests disenrollment for cause, the request shall be referred to the Authority's assessment team for review.

(8) Other reasons for the CCO or DCO's requests for disenrollment may include the following:

(a) If the member is enrolled in the CCO or DCO on the same day the member is admitted to the hospital, the CCO or DCO shall be responsible for the hospitalization. If the member is enrolled after the first day of the inpatient stay, the member shall be disenrolled and enrolled on the next available enrollment date following discharge from inpatient hospital services;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) The member has surgery scheduled at the time their enrollment is effective with the CCO or DCO, the provider is not on the CCO or DCO's provider panel, and the member wishes to have the services performed by that provider;

(c) The Medicare member is enrolled in a Medicare Advantage plan and was receiving hospice services at the time of enrollment in the CCO or DCO;

(d) Excluding the DCOs, if the CCO determines that the member or MHO member has Third Party Liability (TPL), the CCO shall report the TPL to the Health Insurance Group (HIG) at www.reportTPL.org. If the member is determined to have active TPL, HIG shall disenroll the member from the CCO effective the end of the month the TPL is reported;

(e) If a CCO or DCO has knowledge of a member's change of address, the CCO or DCO shall notify the member's care team. The care team shall verify the address information and disenroll the member from the CCO or DCO if the member no longer resides in the CCO or DCO's service area. Members shall be disenrolled if out of the CCO or DCO's service area for more than three months unless previously arranged with the CCO or DCO. The effective date of disenrollment shall be the date specified by the Division, and if a partial month remains, the Division shall recoup the balance of that month's capitation payment from the CCO or DCO;

(f) The member is an inmate who is serving time for a criminal offense or confined involuntarily in a state or federal prison, jail, detention facility, or other penal institution. This does not include members on probation, house arrest, living voluntarily in a facility after their case has been adjudicated, infants living with an inmate, or inmates who become inpatients. The CCO or DCO shall identify the members and provide sufficient proof of incarceration to the Division for review of the disenrollment request. The Division shall approve requests for disenrollment from CCO or DCOs for members who have been taken into custody;

(g) The member is in a state psychiatric institution.

(9) The Division may initiate and disenroll members as follows:

(a) If informed that a member has TPL, the Division shall refer the case to the HIG for investigation and possible exemption from CCO or DCO enrollment. The Division shall disenroll members who have TPL effective the end of the month in which HIG makes such a determination. In some situations, the Division may approve retroactive disenrollment;

(b) If the member moves out of the CCO or DCO's service area, the effective date of disenrollment shall be the date specified by the Division, and the Division shall recoup the balance of that month's capitation payment from the CCO or DCO;

(c) If the member is no longer eligible for OHP, the effective date of disenrollment shall be the date specified by the Division;

(d) If the member dies, the last date of enrollment shall be the date of death.

(10) Unless specified otherwise in these rules or in the Division notification of disenrollment to the CCO or DCO, all disenrollments are effective the end of the month the Authority approves the disenrollment with the following exceptions:

(a) The Authority may retroactively disenroll or suspend enrollment when the member is taken into custody. The effective date shall be the date the member was incarcerated;

(b) The Authority may retroactively disenroll enrollment if the member has TPL pursuant to this rule. The effective date shall be the end of the month in which HIG makes the determination.

Rules Amended: 410-123-1260

Subject: The amendment of OAR 410-123-1260 is needed to align the administrative rule to reflect recent changes to the Prioritized List of Health Services and the American Dental Association's (ADA) Code on Dental Procedures and Nomenclature (CDT Codes). Effective January 1, 2016, the Health Evidence Review Commission (HERC) added five oral health procedure codes to funded lines of the Prioritized List of Health Services. Four of these codes are either diagnostic or are payable dependent on other codes. The HERC also added a guideline to one of the codes, which this amendment reflects. In addition, the ADA deleted five CDT Codes that were on the prioritized list. Those changes are reflected in this amendment.

(H) Reattachment of tooth fragment (D2921) is covered once in the lifetime of a tooth when there is no pulp exposure and no need for endodontic treatment.

(I) The Division reimburses for a surface not more than once in each treatment episode regardless of the number or combination of restorations;

(III) The dental practitioner submits radiographs to the Division for review; history, diagnosis, and treatment plan may be requested. (See OAR 410-123-1100 Services Reviewed by the Division);

(IV) The client has documented stable periodontal status with pocket depths within 1–3 millimeters. If PFM crowns are placed with pocket depths of 4 millimeters and over, documentation shall be maintained in the client's chart of the dentist's findings supporting stability and why the increased pocket depths will not adversely affect expected long-term prognosis;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(V) The crown has a favorable long-term prognosis; and

(VI) If the tooth to be crowned is a clasp/abutment tooth in partial denture, both prognosis for the crown itself and the tooth's contribution to partial denture shall have favorable expected long-term prognosis;

(a) Endodontic therapy:

(A) Pulpal therapy on primary teeth (D3230 and D3240) is covered only for clients under 21 years of age;

(e) Apexification/recalcification procedures:

(A) The Division limits payment for apexification to a maximum of five treatments on permanent teeth only;

(7) PERIODONTIC SERVICES:

(a) Surgical periodontal services:

(A) Gingivectomy/Gingivoplasty (D4210 and D4211) — limited to coverage for severe gingival hyperplasia where enlargement of gum tissue occurs that prevents access to oral hygiene procedures, e.g., Dilantin hyperplasia; and

(B) Includes six months routine postoperative care;

(C) The Division shall consider gingivectomy or gingivoplasty to allow for access for restorative procedure, per tooth (D4212) as part of the restoration and will not provide a separate reimbursement for this procedure;

(b) Non-surgical periodontal services:

(A) Periodontal scaling and root planing (D4341 and D4342):

(I) D4341 is allowed for quadrants with at least four or more teeth with pockets 5 mm or greater;

(II) D4342 is allowed for quadrants with at least two teeth with pocket depths of 5 mm or greater;

(v) Prior authorization for more frequent scaling and root planing may be requested when:

Third molars are not a consideration when counting missing teeth;

(D) The dental practitioner shall note the teeth to be replaced and teeth to be clasped when requesting prior authorization (PA);

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(e) Replacement of removable partial or full dentures, when it cannot be made clinically serviceable by a less costly procedure (e.g., reline, rebase, repair, tooth replacement), is limited to the following:

(A) For clients at least 16 years and under 21 years of age, the Division shall replace full or partial dentures once every ten years, only if dentally appropriate. This does not imply that replacement of dentures or partials shall be done once every ten years, but only when dentally appropriate;

(B) For clients 21 years of age and older, the Division may not cover replacement of full dentures but shall cover replacement of partial dentures once every ten (10) years only if dentally appropriate;

(C) The ten year limitations apply to the client regardless of the client's OHP or Dental Care Organization (DCO)/Coordinated Care Organization (CCO) enrollment status at the time the client's last denture or partial was received. For example: A client receives a partial on February 1, 2002, and becomes a FFS OHP client in 2005. The client is not eligible for a replacement partial until February 1, 2012. The client gets a replacement partial on February 3, 2012 while FFS and a year later enrolls in a DCO or CCO. The client would not be eligible for another partial until February 3, 2022, regardless of DCO, CCO, or FFS enrollment;

(D) Replacement of partial dentures with full dentures is payable ten years after the partial denture placement. Exceptions to this limitation may be made in cases of acute trauma or catastrophic illness that directly or indirectly affects the oral condition and results in additional tooth loss. This pertains to, but is not limited to, cancer and periodontal disease resulting from pharmacological, surgical, and medical treatment for aforementioned conditions. Severe periodontal disease due to neglect of daily oral hygiene may not warrant replacement;

(f) The Division limits reimbursement of adjustments and repairs of dentures that are needed beyond six months after delivery of the denture as follows for clients 21 years of age and older:

(A) A maximum of four times per year for:

(i) Adjusting complete and partial dentures, per arch (D5410-D5422);

(ii) Replacing missing or broken teeth on a complete denture, each tooth (D5520);

(iii) Replacing broken tooth on a partial denture, each tooth (D5640);

(iv) Adding tooth to existing partial denture (D5650);

(B) A maximum of two times per year for:

(i) Repairing broken complete denture base (D5510);

(ii) Repairing partial resin denture base (D5610);

(iii) Repairing partial cast framework (D5620);

(iv) Repairing or replacing broken clasp (D5630);

(v) Adding clasp to existing partial denture (D5660);

(g) Replacement of all teeth and acrylic on cast metal framework (D5670, D5671):

(A) Is covered for clients age 16 and older a maximum of once every ten (10) years, per arch;

(B) Ten years or more shall have passed since the original partial denture was delivered;

(C) Is considered replacement of the partial so a new partial denture may not be reimbursed for another ten years; and

(D) Requires prior authorization as it is considered a replacement partial denture;

(h) Denture rebase procedures:

(A) The Division shall cover rebases only if a reline may not adequately solve the problem;

(B) For clients through age 20, the Division limits payment for rebase to once every three years;

(C) For clients age 21 and older:

(i) There shall be documentation of a current reline that has been done and failed; and

(ii) The Division limits payment for rebase to once every five years;

(D) The Division may make exceptions to this limitation in cases of acute trauma or catastrophic illness that directly or indirectly affects the oral condition and results in additional tooth loss. This pertains to, but is not limited to, cancer and periodontal disease resulting from pharmacological, surgical, and medical treatment for aforementioned conditions. Severe periodontal disease due to neglect of daily oral hygiene may not warrant rebasing;

(i) Denture reline procedures:

(A) For clients through age 20, the Division limits payment for reline of complete or partial dentures to once every three years;

(B) For clients age 21 and older, the Division limits payment for reline of complete or partial dentures to once every five years;

(C) The Division may make exceptions to this limitation under the same conditions warranting replacement;

(D) Laboratory rebases:

(i) Are not payable prior to six months after placement of an immediate denture; and

(ii) For clients through age 20, are limited to once every three years;

(iii) For clients age 21 and older, are limited to once every five years;

(j) Interim partial dentures (D5820-D5821, also referred to as "flip-pers"):

(A) Are allowed if the client has one or more anterior teeth missing; and

(B) The Division shall reimburse for replacement of interim partial dentures once every five years but only when dentally appropriate;

(k) Tissue conditioning:

The procedures listed as "medical" on the table may be covered as medical procedures, and the table may not be all-inclusive of every dental code that has a corresponding medical code;

(d) For clients enrolled in a DCO or CCO responsible for dental services, the DCO or CCO shall pay for those services in the dental plan package;

(e) Oral surgical services performed in an ASC or an inpatient or outpatient hospital setting:

Rule Caption: Rewrite Rule to Implement House Bill 2306 (2015 Regular Session) for a Pharmacy Management Program

Adm. Order No.: DMAP 77-2015

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-22-2015

Certified to be Effective: 1-1-16

Notice Publication Date: 12-1-2015

Rules Amended: 410-121-0135

Subject: The Authority is rewriting OAR 410-121-0135 to align the Pharmacy Management Program with legislative intent, as contained in Oregon Laws 2015, chapter 467, section 2 (HB 2306). The program avoids overutilization of pharmaceutical services by restricting certain fee-for-service medical assistance recipients' pharmacy choices. Amendment of the existing rule will align the program with the statute.

Rules Coordinator: Sandy Cafourek—(503) 945-6430

410-121-0135

Pharmacy Management Program

(1) The Pharmacy Management Program promotes the appropriate use of quality pharmaceutical services by identifying and correcting overutilization of services.

(2) The Pharmacy Management Program limits some fee-for-service clients to receiving their prescription drugs through the following sources:

- (a) A single retail pharmacy to pick up prescriptions;
- (b) The Division of Medical Assistance Program (Division) mail order pharmacy contractor; and
- (c) A specialty pharmacy.

(3) The Division will not include the following clients in the Pharmacy Management Program:

- (a) Members enrolled in a Coordinated Care Organization;
- (b) Clients with Medicare drug coverage in addition to OHP;
- (c) Children in the care and custody of the Department of Human Services; or

(d) Inpatients or residents in a hospital, nursing facility, other medical institution or long term care facility.

(4) The Division will consider referrals of potential Pharmacy Management Program clients from the following sources:

- (a) Providers;
- (b) Division staff; and
- (c) Division contractors.

(5) Reasons for referring a client to the Division for potential enrollment in the Pharmacy Management Program shall be limited to factors that indicate possible overutilization or drug misuse, or that raise concern for patient safety. Those factors are:

- (a) Use of three or more pharmacies during the prior six months;
- (b) Fills prescriptions from more than one prescriber for the same or comparable medications; or
- (c) Evidence that the client altered a prescription; or

(d) Exhibits behaviors or patterns of behavior that the Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee has identified as indicative of intentional overutilization or misuse.

(6) Clients referred to the Division for potential enrollment in the Pharmacy Management Program shall be enrolled in the program only when a licensed pharmacist appointed by the Division conducts a review and concludes the individual utilized pharmaceutical items or services at a frequency or amount that is not medically necessary based on factors including, but not limited to, those described in subsection (5) of this rule.

(7) When the Division concludes enrollment in the Pharmacy Management Program is appropriate as described in subsection (6), the Division shall send the client a notice that provides the following information:

(a) The Division plans to require that the client use a designated pharmacy for a 12-month period;

(b) The specific date when the requirement will begin;

(c) An explanation of the reason for enrollment in the Pharmacy Management Program, and the benefits of enrollment in the Pharmacy Management Program; and

(d) The client's right to request the following, within 45 days of the date of the notice:

(A) A different designated pharmacy; and

(B) An administrative hearing to appeal the Division's decision to enroll the client into the Pharmacy Management Program.

(8) Changing the Pharmacy Management Program client's enrolled pharmacy:

(a) Clients may change their enrolled pharmacy if they:

(A) Move out of area;

(B) Are reapplying for OHP benefits; or

(C) Are denied access to pharmacy services by their selected pharmacy for reasons other than the Pharmacy Management Program factors identified by the Division;

(b) Clients cannot change their choice of pharmacy more than once every 3 months.

(9) Pharmacy Management Program clients may receive drugs from a different pharmacy if the client urgently needs to fill a prescription and the enrolled pharmacy:

(a) Is not available;

(b) Does not have the prescribed drug in stock; or

(c) Is more than 50 miles away from the client's location at the time the prescription needs to be filled. However, DMAP may deny coverage if the client frequently fills prescriptions out of the area of the enrolled pharmacy.

(10) Call the Oregon Pharmacy Help Desk for authorization to fill a prescription in the situations described in (9)(a)–(c) above.

(11) The client's appeal rights and the process for appealing a Division decision to enroll a client in the Pharmacy Management Program are found in OAR 410-120-1860. If the client requests an administrative hearing before the effective date of the client notice and requests that the services be continued, the Authority shall continue the services pursuant to OAR 410-120-1865.

Eligibility and Budgeting; MAGI Medicaid/CHIP; Not BCCTP or EXT

(1) The budget month means the calendar month from which non-financial and financial information is used to determine eligibility for OCCS Medical Programs.

(2) The budget month is determined as follows:

(a) For a new applicant, the budget month is:

(A) The month in which medical assistance is requested; or

(B) If ineligible in the month in which medical assistance is requested, the budget month is the following month;

(b) For a current Medicaid/CHIP beneficiary, the budget month is:

(A) The final month of the twelve-month enrollment period;

(B) The month a change that affects eligibility is reported, if reported timely; or

(C) The month the individual ages off a medical program or is no longer eligible for a medical assistance program;

(c) For retroactive medical, the budget month is the month in which the applicant received medical services for which they are requesting payment. Retroactive medical is determined on a month-by-month basis.

(3) Countable income anticipated or received in the budget month is determined as follows:

(a) Income is calculated by adding together the income of the household group already received in the initial budget month and the income that is reasonably expected to be received in the remainder of the initial budget month;

(b) If ineligible using the initial budget month, countable income from the month following the initial budget month is considered. If eligible, eligibility shall begin as described in OCCS Medical Programs — Effective Dates (OAR 410-200-0115).

(c) If ineligible under subsections (a) or (b) of this section because the countable income is over the income standard for all OCCS Medical Programs, income shall be annualized using the requirements of 25 CFR §1.36 B-1(e) for the year in which medical has been requested:

(A) If the annualized income is below 100 percent FPL as identified in 26 CFR §1.36 B-1(e), income shall be converted to a monthly amount and applied to the initial budget month;

(B) If eligible for budget month eligibility pursuant to subsection (A), eligibility shall be determined for the appropriate program pursuant to OAR 410-200-0315 and begin as described in OCCS Medical Programs — Effective Dates (OAR 410-200-0115).

(4) The household group's budget month income is compared to the income standard for the appropriate family size to determine if an applicant may be eligible for an OCCS medical program.

(a) Individuals who lose eligibility for MAA, MAF, or MAGI PCR due to the receipt or increase of earned income are eligible for 12 months of EXT if eligibility is redetermined and the individual is not eligible for any other Medicaid/CHIP program.

(b) Individuals who lose eligibility for MAA, MAF, or MAGI PCR due to the receipt or increase of spousal support are eligible for four months of EXT benefits if:

(3) Individuals who lose EXT eligibility for one of the following reasons may regain EXT eligibility for the remainder of the original eligibility period if the requirements outlined in sections (1) and (2) are met:

Specific Program Requirements; BCCM, CEC, CEM, EXT, MAA, MAF, OHP, and Substitute Care

(1) This rule describes OCCS Medical Programs for which individuals may be determined eligible through December 31, 2013. See OAR 410-200-0500 for information regarding the treatment of those beneficiaries as of January 1, 2014.

(2) To be eligible for a program listed in this rule, an individual must meet the following:

(a) The eligibility factors set forth in OAR 410-200-0200 through 410-200-0240;

(b) The budgeting and income standard requirements set forth in OAR 410-200-0300 through 410-200-0315; and

(c) The individual must have established a Date of Request prior to January 1, 2014.

(3) For purposes of this rule, private major medical health insurance means a comprehensive major medical insurance plan that, at a minimum, provides physician services; inpatient and outpatient hospitalization; outpatient lab, x-ray, immunizations; and prescription drug coverage. This term does not include coverage under the Kaiser Child Health Program or Kaiser Transition Program but does include policies that are purchased privately or are employer-sponsored.

(4) For the purposes of this rule, the receipt of private major medical health insurance does not affect OCCS medical program eligibility if it is not accessible. Private major medical health insurance is not considered accessible if:

(a) The travel time or distance to available providers exceeds:

(A) In urban areas: 30 miles, 30 minutes, or the community standard, whichever is greater;

(B) In rural areas: 60 miles, 60 minutes, or the community standard, whichever is greater;

(b) Accessing the private major medical health insurance would place a filing group member at risk of harm.

(5) CEM provides eligibility for the balance of the 12-month eligibility period for non-CAWEM children who were receiving Child Welfare (CW) medical, EXT, MAA, MAF, OHP, OSIPM, or Substitute Care program benefits and lost eligibility for reasons other than moving out of state or turning 19 years old. CEM benefits end when:

(a) The child becomes eligible for CW medical, EXT, MAA, MAF, OHP, OSIPM, or Substitute Care program benefits;

(b) The child turns 19 years of age;

(c) The child moves out of state; or

(d) Benefits are closed voluntarily.

(6) CEC provides eligibility for the OHP-CHP program for non-CAWEM pregnant children who were receiving OHP-CHP and would have otherwise lost eligibility for reasons other than moving out of state or becoming a recipient of private major medical health insurance. CEC eligibility for OHP-CHP ends the day following the end of the month in which the earliest of the following occur:

(a) The pregnancy ends;

(b) The individual moves out of state;

(c) The individual begins receiving private major medical health insurance;

(d) Benefits are closed voluntarily; or

(e) The individual becomes eligible for CW medical, EXT, MAA, MAF, OHP, OSIPM, or Substitute Care program benefits.

(7) For the Authority to enroll a child in the program based on a determination made by an ELA, the child's parent or guardian shall give consent in writing, by telephone, orally, or through electronic signature.

(8) To be eligible for EXT, an individual must have been eligible for and receiving MAA or MAF and became ineligible due to a caretaker relative's increased earned income or due to increased spousal support (OAR 410-200-0440).

(9) To be eligible for MAA or MAF, an individual must be one of the following:

(a) A dependent child who lives with a caretaker relative. However, a dependent child for whom foster care payments are made for more than 30 days is not eligible while the payments are being made;

(b) A caretaker relative of an eligible dependent child. However, a caretaker relative to whom foster care payments are made for more than 30 days is not eligible while the payments are being made;

(c) A caretaker relative of a dependent child, when the dependent child is ineligible for MAA or MAF for one of the following reasons:

(A) The child is receiving SSI;

(B) The child is in foster care but is expected to return home within 30 days; or

(C) The child's citizenship has not been documented;

(d) An essential person. An essential person is a member of the household group who:

(A) Is not required to be in the filing group;

(B) Provides a service necessary to the health or protection of a member of the household group who has a mental or physical disability; and

(C) Is less expensive to include in the benefit group than the cost of purchasing this service from another source;

(e) A parent of an unborn as follows:

(A) For the MAA program:

(i) Any parent whose only child is an unborn child, once the mother's pregnancy has reached the calendar month preceding the month in which the due date falls;

(ii) The father of an unborn child who does not meet the criteria described in subsection (e)(A)(i) of this part may be eligible if there is another dependent child in the household group;

(B) For the MAF program, a mother whose only child is an unborn child, once the mother's pregnancy has reached the calendar month preceding the month in which the due date falls.

(10) To be eligible for any OHP program in sections (12) through (15), an individual may not be:

(a) Receiving SSI benefits;

(b) Eligible for Medicare, except that this requirement does not apply to the OHP-OPP program;

(c) Receiving Medicaid through any other program concurrently.

(11) To be eligible for the OHP-OPC program, an individual must be less than 19 years of age.

(13) To be eligible for the OHP-OPP program, an individual must:

(a) Be pregnant;

(b) Be within the time period through the end of the calendar month in which the 60th day following the last day of the pregnancy falls; or

(c) Be an infant under age one.

(14) To be eligible for the OHP-CHP program, an individual must be under 19 years of age and must:

(a) Not be eligible for the OHP-OPC, OHP-OPP, or OHP-OP6 programs; and

Practitioner-Managed Prescription Drug Plan

(1) The Practitioner-Managed Prescription Drug Plan (PMPDP) is a plan that ensures that OHP fee-for-service clients have access to the most effective prescription drugs appropriate for their clinical conditions at the best possible price:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) Licensed health care practitioners, who are informed by the latest peer reviewed research, make decisions concerning the clinical effectiveness of the prescription drugs;

(b) Licensed health care practitioners also consider the client's health condition, personal characteristics, and the client's gender, race, or ethnicity.

(2) PMPDP Preferred Drug List (PDL):

(a) The PDL is the primary tool the Division uses to inform licensed health care practitioners about the results of the latest peer-reviewed research and cost effectiveness of prescription drugs;

(b) The PDL contains a list of prescription drugs that the Division, in consultation with the Drug Use Review (DUR)/Pharmacy & Therapeutics Committee (P&T), has determined represent the most effective drugs available at the best possible price;

(c) The PDL shall include drugs that are Medicaid reimbursable and the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has determined to be safe and effective.

(3) PMPDP PDL Selection Process:

(a) The Division shall utilize the recommendations made by the P&T that result from an evidence-based evaluation process as the basis for selecting the most effective drugs;

(b) The Division shall ensure the drugs selected in section (3)(a) that are available for the best possible price and shall consider any input from the P&T about other FDA-approved drugs in the same class that are available for a lesser relative price. The Division shall determine relative price using the methodology described in section (4);

(c) The Division shall evaluate selected drugs for the drug classes periodically:

(A) The Division may evaluate more frequently if new safety information or the release of new drugs in a class or other information makes an evaluation advisable;

(B) New drugs in classes already evaluated for the PDL shall be non-preferred until the new drug has been reviewed by the P&T;

(C) The Division shall make all revisions to the PDL using the rule-making process and shall publish the changes on the Division's Pharmaceutical Services provider rules website.

(4) Relative cost and best possible price determination:

(a) The Division shall determine the relative cost of all drugs in each selected class that are Medicaid reimbursable and that the FDA has determined to be safe and effective;

(b) The Division may also consider dosing issues, patterns of use, and compliance issues. The Division shall weigh these factors with any advice provided by the P&T in reaching a final decision.

(5) Pharmacy providers shall dispense prescriptions in the generic form unless:

(a) The practitioner requests otherwise pursuant to OAR 410-121-0155;

(b) The Division notifies the pharmacy that the cost of the brand name particular drug, after receiving discounted prices and rebates, is equal to or less than the cost of the generic version of the drug.

(6) The exception process for obtaining non-preferred physical health drugs that are not on the PDL drugs shall be as follows:

(a) If the prescribing practitioner in their professional judgment wishes to prescribe a physical health drug not on the PDL, they may request an exception subject to the requirements of OAR 410-121-0040;

(b) The prescribing practitioner must request an exception for physical health drugs not listed in the PDL subject to the requirements of OAR 410-121-0060;

(c) Exceptions shall be granted when:

(A) The prescriber in their professional judgment determines the non-preferred drug is medically appropriate after consulting with the Division or the Oregon Pharmacy Call Center; or

(B) Where the prescriber requests an exception subject to the requirement of section (6)(b) and fails to receive a report of PA status within 24 hours, subject to OAR 410-121-0060.

Prior Authorization Required for Drugs and Products

(1) Prescribing practitioners shall obtain prior authorization (PA) for the drugs and categories of drugs requiring PA in this rule, using the procedures set forth in OAR 410-121-0060.

(2) All drugs and categories of drugs including, but not limited to, those drugs and categories of drugs that require PA shall meet the following requirements for coverage:

(a) Each drug shall be prescribed for conditions funded by the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) in a manner consistent with the Health Evidence Review Commission (HERC) Prioritized List of Health Services (OAR 410-141-0480 through 410-141-0520). If the medication is for a non-covered diagnosis, the medication may not be covered unless there is a co-morbid condition for which coverage would be allowed. The use of the medication shall meet corresponding treatment guidelines and be included within the client's benefit package of covered services and not otherwise excluded or limited;

(b) Each drug shall also meet other criteria applicable to the drug or category of drug in these pharmacy provider rules, including PA requirements imposed in this rule.

(3) The Authority may require PA for individual drugs and categories of drugs to ensure that the drugs prescribed are indicated for conditions funded by OHP and consistent with the Prioritized List of Health Services and its corresponding treatment guidelines (see OAR 410-141-0480). The drugs and categories of drugs that the Authority requires PA for this purpose are found in the Oregon Medicaid Fee-for-Service Prior Authorization Approval Criteria (PA Criteria guide) dated October 9, 2015, adopted and incorporated by reference and found at: <http://www.oregon.gov/OHA/healthplan/pages/pharmacy-policy.aspx>.

(4) The Authority may require PA for individual drugs and categories of drugs to ensure medically appropriate use or to address potential client safety risk associated with the particular drug or category of drug, as recommended by the Pharmacy & Therapeutics Committee (P&T) and adopted by the Authority in this rule. The drugs and categories of drugs for which the Authority requires PA for this purpose are found in the Pharmacy PA Criteria Guide.

(5) New drugs shall be evaluated when added to the weekly upload of the First Databank drug file:

(a) If the new drug is in a class where current PA criteria apply, all associated PA criteria shall be required at the time of the drug file load;

(b) If the new drug is indicated for a condition below the funding line on the Prioritized List of Health Services, PA shall be required to ensure that the drug is prescribed for a condition funded by OHP;

(c) PA criteria for all new drugs shall be reviewed by the DUR/P&T Committee.

(6) PA shall be obtained for brand name drugs that have two or more generically equivalent products available and that are not determined Narrow Therapeutic Index drugs by the DUR/P&T Committee:

(a) Immunosuppressant drugs used in connection with an organ transplant shall be evaluated for narrow therapeutic index within 180 days after United States patent expiration;

(b) Manufacturers of immunosuppressant drugs used in connection with an organ transplant shall notify the Authority of patent expiration within 30 days of patent expiration for section (5)(a) to apply;

(c) Criteria for approval are:

(A) If criteria established in section (3) or (4) of this rule applies, follow that criteria;

(B) If section (6)(A) does not apply, the prescribing practitioner shall document that the use of the generically equivalent drug is medically contraindicated and provide evidence that either the drug has been used and has failed or that its use is contraindicated based on evidence-based peer reviewed literature that is appropriate to the client's medical condition.

(c) The prescription is a refill for the treatment of seizures, cancer, HIV, or AIDS; or

(d) The prescription is a refill of an immunosuppressant.

(8) PA may not be required:

Subject: The Division's rule requires CCOs to demonstrate that they are able to provide coordinated care service efficiently, effectively, and economically. General Financial Reporting and Financial Solvency Matters; CCO Reporting Method

(1) Each CCO must demonstrate that it is able to provide coordinated care services efficiently, effectively, and economically. CCOs shall maintain sound financial management procedures, maintain protections against insolvency, and generate periodic financial reports as provided in these rules.

(2) The Authority shall collaborate with the Department of Consumer and Business Services (DCBS) to review CCO financial reports and evaluate financial solvency. CCOs are not required to file financial reports with both OHA and DCBS except as provided in this section or as outlined in the CCO contract:

(a) Initial applicants for certification as a CCO shall submit all required information to the Authority as part of the application process, and the Authority shall transmit that information to DCBS for its review. In making its determination about the qualifications of the applicant, the Authority shall consult with DCBS about the financial materials and reports submitted with the application;

(b) For purposes of these financial reporting and solvency rules, DCBS is authorized to make recommendations to the Authority and to act in conjunction with the Authority in accordance with these rules. If quarterly reports or other evidence suggest that a CCO's financial solvency is in jeopardy, the Authority shall act as necessary to protect the public interest.

(3) The Authority may address any proper inquiries to any CCO or its officers in relation to the activities or condition of the CCO or any other matter connected with its transactions. The person shall promptly and truthfully reply to the inquiries using the form of communication requested by the Authority. The reply shall be timely, accurate, and complete and, if the Authority requires, verified by an officer of the CCO. A reply is subject to the provisions of ORS 731.260.

(4) OAR 410-141-3345 through 410-141-3395 provide for three alternative methods for a CCO's solvency plan and financial reporting requirements, depending on the status of the CCO as described in this rule:

(a) The Authority reporting CCO: The CCO complies with restricted reserve and net worth requirements the Authority used to regulate financial solvency of MCOs on July 1, 2012, submitting financial information and reports to the Authority as detailed in the CCO contract. Under this approach, the Authority shall monitor the CCO's financial solvency utilizing the same reporting format and financial standards that the Authority used for MCOs on July 1, 2012;

(b) DCBS reporting CCO: The CCO complies with financial requirements as detailed in the CCO contract and in OAR 410-141-3345 through 410-141-3395, including risk-based capital and NAIC reporting requirements. These requirements shall be monitored by DCBS;

(c) Certificate of Authority: The CCO has a certificate of authority and complies with financial reporting and solvency requirements applicable to licensed health entities pursuant to applicable DCBS requirements under the Oregon insurance code and DCBS rules. In addition, the CCO shall report to the Authority the schedules outlined in the CCO contract.

(5) CCO Status. The method described in this rule that applies to a CCO is determined as follows:

(a) If the CCO is a licensed health entity, the CCO shall use the method described in this rule for certificate of authority. The CCO shall submit a copy of its certificate of authority to the Authority, not later than the readiness review document submission date under the initial CCO contract, and annually thereafter, not later than August 31. The CCO shall report to the Authority immediately at any time that this certificate of authority is suspended or terminated;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) If the CCO is neither a converting MCO nor a licensed health entity, the CCO shall use the method described in this rule for DCBS reporting CCO;

(c) If the CCO is a converting MCO and is not a licensed health entity, the CCO shall elect either the method described in this rule for the Authority reporting CCO or the method described in this rule for DCBS reporting CCO. The CCO shall notify the Authority of its election no later than the readiness review document submission date under the initial CCO contract. The CCO shall comply with the requirements applicable to its elected method until it notifies the Authority of its intent to change its election. If the CCO expects to change its election, any elements of the solvency plan, or solvency protection arrangements, the CCO shall provide written advance notice to the Authority, at least 90-calendar days before the proposed effective date of change. Such changes are subject to written approval from the Authority.

(6) CCOs may be required to use specific required reporting forms or items in order to supply information related to financial responsibility, financial solvency, and financial management. The Authority or DCBS, as applicable, shall provide supplemental instructions about the use of these forms.

(7) The standards established in OAR 410-141-3350 through 410-141-3395 are intended to be consistent with, and may utilize procedures and standards common to insurers and to DCBS in its administration of financial reporting and solvency requirements. Any reference in these rules to the insurance code or to rules adopted by DCBS under the insurance code may not be deemed to require a CCO to be an insurer but is adopted and incorporated by reference as the Authority standard.

Rules Adopted: 410-123-1510

Subject: The rule implements Sections 2 and 4 of House Bill 3464, which passed in 2015. It creates a standard for access to dental care for pregnant women who receive Oregon Health Plan benefits through the fee-for-service delivery system that is as good as or better than the standard for clients who receive benefits through the managed care delivery system, as measured by how long it takes for a client to receive a dental appointment.

Dental Care Access Standards for Pregnant Women

(1) The Authority shall establish access standards for dental care for pregnant women who receive Oregon Health Plan (OHP) benefits through the fee-for-service delivery system. Those standards shall be as good as or better than the standards for clients who receive services through the managed care delivery system. Access shall be monitored by the Authority to determine the length of time it takes for a pregnant client in fee-for-service to receive a dental appointment. The standard shall be for the client to be seen, treated, or referred within the following time frames:

(a) Emergency dental care standard: Client shall be seen or treated within 24 hours;

(b) Urgent dental care standard: Client shall receive an appointment within one to two weeks or as indicated in the initial screening in accordance with OAR 410-123-1060;

(c) Routine dental care standard: Clients shall be seen for routine care within an average of four weeks, unless there is a documented special clinical reason that would make access longer than four weeks appropriate;

(d) Initial dental screening or examination standard: Client shall be seen within four weeks.

(2) The Authority shall reach out to pregnant clients by e-mail, mail, phone, or in person to assess each pregnant client's need for oral health care within one month of either enrollment in OHP or record of pregnancy, whichever is later. Within one week of assessment, the Authority shall refer the client to an appropriate oral health provider.

(3) The Authority shall generate regular reporting to monitor fee-for-service delivery system performance to these standards.

Prior Authorization Required for Drugs and Products

(1) Prescribing practitioners shall obtain prior authorization (PA) for the drugs and categories of drugs requiring PA in this rule, using the procedures set forth in OAR 410-121-0060.

(2) All drugs and categories of drugs including, but not limited to, those drugs and categories of drugs that require PA shall meet the following requirements for coverage:

(a) Each drug shall be prescribed for conditions funded by the Oregon Health Plan (OHP) in a manner consistent with the Health Evidence Review Commission (HERC) Prioritized List of Health Services (OAR 410-141-0480 through 410-141-0520). If the medication is for a non-covered diagnosis, the medication may not be covered unless there is a co-morbid condition for which coverage would be allowed. The use of the medication shall meet corresponding treatment guidelines and be included within the client's benefit package of covered services and not otherwise excluded or limited;

(b) Each drug shall also meet other criteria applicable to the drug or category of drug in these pharmacy provider rules, including PA requirements imposed in this rule.

(3) The Authority may require PA for individual drugs and categories of drugs to ensure that the drugs prescribed are indicated for conditions funded by OHP and consistent with the Prioritized List of Health Services and its corresponding treatment guidelines (see OAR 410-141-0480). The drugs and categories of drugs that the Authority requires PA for this purpose are found in the Oregon Medicaid Fee-for-Service Prior Authorization Approval Criteria (PA Criteria guide) dated January 1, 2016, adopted and incorporated by reference and found at: <http://www.oregon.gov/OHA/healthplan/pages/pharmacy-policy.aspx>.

(4) The Authority may require PA for individual drugs and categories of drugs to ensure medically appropriate use or to address potential client safety risk associated with the particular drug or category of drug, as recommended by the Pharmacy & Therapeutics Committee (P&T) and adopted by the Authority in this rule. The drugs and categories of drugs for which the Authority requires PA for this purpose are found in the Pharmacy PA Criteria Guide.

(5) New drugs shall be evaluated when added to the weekly upload of the First Databank drug file:

(a) If the new drug is in a class where current PA criteria apply, all associated PA criteria shall be required at the time of the drug file load;

(b) If the new drug is indicated for a condition below the funding line on the Prioritized List of Health Services, PA shall be required to ensure that the drug is prescribed for a condition funded by OHP;

(c) PA criteria for all new drugs shall be reviewed by the DUR/P&T Committee.

(6) PA shall be obtained for brand name drugs that have two or more generically equivalent products available and that are not determined Narrow Therapeutic Index drugs by the DUR/P&T Committee:

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) Immunosuppressant drugs used in connection with an organ transplant shall be evaluated for narrow therapeutic index within 180 days after United States patent expiration;

(b) Manufacturers of immunosuppressant drugs used in connection with an organ transplant shall notify the Authority of patent expiration within 30 days of patent expiration for section (5)(a) to apply;

(c) Criteria for approval are:

(A) If criteria established in section (3) or (4) of this rule applies, follow that criteria;

(B) If section (6)(A) does not apply, the prescribing practitioner shall document that the use of the generically equivalent drug is medically contraindicated and provide evidence that either the drug has been used and has failed or that its use is contraindicated based on evidence-based peer reviewed literature that is appropriate to the client's medical condition.

(7) PA shall be obtained for non-preferred Preferred Drug List (PDL) products in a class evaluated for the PDL except in the following cases:

(a) The drug is a mental health drug as defined in OAR 410-121-0000;

(b) The original prescription is written prior to 1/1/10;

(c) The prescription is a refill for the treatment of seizures, cancer, HIV, or AIDS; or

(d) The prescription is a refill of an immunosuppressant.

(8) PA may not be required:

(a) When the prescription ingredient cost plus the dispensing fee is less than the PA processing fees as determined by the Authority;

(b) For over-the-counter (OTC) covered drugs when prescribed for conditions covered under OHP; or

(c) If a drug is in a class not evaluated from the Practitioner-Managed Prescription Drug Plan under ORS 414.334.

Practitioner-Managed Prescription Drug Plan

(1) The Practitioner-Managed Prescription Drug Plan (PMPDP) is a plan that ensures that OHP fee-for-service clients have access to the most effective prescription drugs appropriate for their clinical conditions at the best possible price:

(a) Licensed health care practitioners, who are informed by the latest peer reviewed research, make decisions concerning the clinical effectiveness of the prescription drugs;

(b) Licensed health care practitioners also consider the client's health condition, personal characteristics, and the client's gender, race, or ethnicity.

(2) PMPDP Preferred Drug List (PDL):

(a) The PDL is the primary tool the Division uses to inform licensed health care practitioners about the results of the latest peer-reviewed research and cost effectiveness of prescription drugs;

(b) The PDL contains a list of prescription drugs that the Division, in consultation with the Drug Use Review (DUR)/Pharmacy & Therapeutics Committee (P&T), has determined represent the most effective drugs available at the best possible price;

(c) The PDL shall include drugs that are Medicaid reimbursable and the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has determined to be safe and effective.

(3) PMPDP PDL Selection Process:

(a) The Division shall utilize the recommendations made by the P&T that result from an evidence-based evaluation process as the basis for selecting the most effective drugs;

(b) The Division shall ensure the drugs selected in section (3)(a) that are available for the best possible price and shall consider any input from the P&T about other FDA-approved drugs in the same class that are available for a lesser relative price. The Division shall determine relative price using the methodology described in section (4);

(c) The Division shall evaluate selected drugs for the drug classes periodically;

(A) The Division may evaluate more frequently if new safety information or the release of new drugs in a class or other information makes an evaluation advisable;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(B) New drugs in classes already evaluated for the PDL shall be non-preferred until the new drug has been reviewed by the P&T;

(C) The Division shall make all revisions to the PDL using the rule-making process and shall publish the changes on the Division's Pharmaceutical Services provider rules website.

(4) Relative cost and best possible price determination:

(a) The Division shall determine the relative cost of all drugs in each selected class that are Medicaid reimbursable and that the FDA has determined to be safe and effective;

(b) The Division may also consider dosing issues, patterns of use, and compliance issues. The Division shall weigh these factors with any advice provided by the P&T in reaching a final decision.

(5) Pharmacy providers shall dispense prescriptions in the generic form unless:

(a) The practitioner requests otherwise pursuant to OAR 410-121-0155;

(b) The Division notifies the pharmacy that the cost of the brand name particular drug, after receiving discounted prices and rebates, is equal to or less than the cost of the generic version of the drug.

(6) The exception process for obtaining non-preferred physical health drugs that are not on the PDL drugs shall be as follows:

(a) If the prescribing practitioner in their professional judgment wishes to prescribe a physical health drug not on the PDL, they may request an exception subject to the requirements of OAR 410-121-0040;

(b) The prescribing practitioner must request an exception for physical health drugs not listed in the PDL subject to the requirements of OAR 410-121-0060;

(c) Exceptions shall be granted when:

(A) The prescriber in their professional judgment determines the non-preferred drug is medically appropriate after consulting with the Division or the Oregon Pharmacy Call Center; or

(B) Where the prescriber requests an exception subject to the requirement of section (6)(b) and fails to receive a report of PA status within 24 hours, subject to OAR 410-121-0060.

Rule Caption: Process for Resolving Disputes between CCOs and the Oregon Health Authority

Adm. Order No.: DMAP 85-2015

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-24-2015

Certified to be Effective: 12-27-15

Notice Publication Date: 11-1-2015

Rules Adopted: 410-141-3267

Rules Repealed: 410-141-3267(T)

Subject: These rules provide the existing Coordinated Care Organizations direction and clarification regarding recourse available when in dispute with the Oregon Health Authority. This rule offers Administrative Review, as specified in OAR 410-120-1580, and mediation, as outlined in the Attorney General's Model Rules located in the Administrative Procedures Act.

Rules Coordinator: Sandy Cafourek—(503) 945-6430

410-141-3267

Process for Resolving Disputes between Coordinated Care Organizations (CCOs) and the Oregon Health Authority

(1) If a CCO has a dispute with the Oregon Health Authority (Authority) as a result of a Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division) decision that is perceived as adversely affecting a CCO, the CCO may submit a request to the Division director or his or her designee requesting an Administrative Review, as prescribed in OAR 410-120-1580.

(2) An example of such disputes include, but is not limited to, Authority decisions made through the OHA Provider Discrimination Review Process as a result of a provider discrimination appeal. These disputes primarily address legal or policy issues that may arise in the context of a Division decision that is perceived by the CCO to adversely affect the CCO and is not otherwise reviewed as a claim redetermination, a contested case, or client appeal. This rule does not involve claims that the Authority has breached its contract with a CCO. This CCO process is not mandatory, and it need not be exhausted before a CCO seeks judicial review or brings any other form of action related to any CCO/Authority dispute related decision.

(3) Within thirty calendar days of the conclusion of the administrative review, or such other time as may be agreed to by the CCO and the Division, the Division shall send written results of the administrative review to the initiating CCO and any other affected CCO. Should a resolution be reached through administrative review that is mutually agreeable to all involved, the process shall be considered complete and binding.

(4) If the dispute between the CCO and the Authority remains unresolved as a result of the administrative review, the CCO may request an alternative dispute resolution as set forth in section (5) of this rule to attempt to resolve the issue. The alternative dispute process is conducted pursuant to the Attorney General's Uniform Model Rules OAR 137-005-0060 and 137-005-0070.

(5) Not more than ten business days after receipt of the final administrative review decision, the CCO may contact the Division director indicating the CCO's intent to pursue mediation. In that request, the CCO may request to stay the administrative review decision, which the Division will grant if the CCO alleges sufficient facts and provides good cause for the stay as provided in OAR 137-004-0090. The Division shall respond within ten business days of the date of the stay request.

(6) After both the CCO and the Authority agree to enter into mediation, both shall attempt to agree on the selection of the mediator and complete paperwork required to secure the mediator's services. If the CCO and the Authority are unable to agree on the selection of a mediator, both shall appoint a mediator, and those mediators shall select the final mediator. To be qualified to propose resolutions for disputes under this rule, the mediator shall:

(a) Be a knowledgeable and experienced mediator;

(b) Be familiar with health care and the disputed matters; and

(c) Follow the terms and conditions specified in this rule for the mediation process.

(7) If the dispute is likely to impact another CCO, the Authority shall notify all CCOs potentially impacted by the dispute and provide an opportunity for the impacted CCOs to participate in the dispute resolution process.

(8) The CCO and the Authority shall share in the cost of all mediation expenses, whether the dispute is resolved or not.

(9) Within ten business days of a selection of a mediator or upon a different schedule, as agreed to by the parties and the mediator, the CCO and the Authority shall submit to each other and to the mediator the following:

(a) Dispute resolution offer; and

(b) Explanation of their position, i.e., advocacy brief.

(10) The parties will engage in mediation as arranged by the mediator.

(11) The Authority shall maintain the confidentiality of proprietary information of all participating CCOs to the extent the information is protected under state or federal law.

- (5) Amount billed may not exceed the provider's "usual charge" (see definitions).

(6) The Division's maximum allowable rate setting process uses the following methodology for:

(a) Relative Value Unit (RVU) weight-based rates: For all CPT/HCPCS codes assigned an RVU weight, the 2016 Total RVU weights published in the Federal Register, Vol. 80, November 16, 2015 to be effective for dates of services on or after January 1, 2016:

(A) For professional services not typically performed in a facility, the Non-Facility Total RVU weight;

(B) For professional services typically performed in a facility, the Facility Total RVU weight;

(C) The Division applies the following conversion factors:

(i) $40.79 for labor and delivery codes (59400-59622);
(ii) $36.0666 for Federally Qualified primary care codes billed by providers meeting the criteria in OAR 410-130-0005 for dates of service between January 1, 2013 and December 31, 2014;

(iii) $27.82 for Oregon primary care providers and services not specified in sub-paragraph (ii). A current list of primary care CPT, HCPCS, and provider specialty codes is available at <http://www.oregon.gov/oha/healthplan/Pages/providers.aspx>

(iv) $25.48 for all remaining RVU weight based CPT/HCPCS codes.

(D) Rate calculation: Effective January 1, 2016, the Division shall calculate rates for each RVU weight-based code using statewide Geographic Practice Cost Indices (GPCIs) as follows:

(i) Work RVU) X (Work GPCI of 1) + (Practice Expense RVU) X (Practice GPCI of 0.974) + (Malpractice RVU) X (Malpractice GPCI of 0.708);

(ii) Sum in paragraph (D)(i) multiplied by the applicable conversion factor in paragraph (C).

(b) Non RVU based rates:

(A) $20.78 is the base rate for anesthesia service codes 00100-01996. The rate is based on per unit of service;

(B) Clinical lab codes are priced at 70 percent of the 2016 Medicare clinical lab fee schedule;

(C) All approved Ambulatory Surgical Center (ASC) procedures are reimbursed at 80 percent of the 2016 Medicare fee schedule;

(D) Physician administered drugs, billed under a HCPCS code, are based on Medicare's Average Sale Price (ASP). When no ASP rate is listed, the rate shall be based upon the Wholesale Acquisition Price (WAC) plus 6.25 percent. If no WAC is available, then the rate shall be reimbursed at Acquisition Cost. Pricing information for WAC is provided by First Data Bank. These rates may change periodically based on drug costs;

(E) All procedures used for vision materials and supplies are based on contracted rates that include acquisition cost plus shipping and handling;

(F) Individual provider rules may specify reimbursement rates for particular services or items.

(7) The rates in section (6) are updated periodically and posted on the Authority web site at

<http://www.oregon.gov/oha/healthplan/pages/feeschedule.aspx>

(8) The Division reimburses inpatient hospital service under the DRG methodology, unless specified otherwise in the Hospital Services program administrative rules (chapter 410, division 125). Reimbursement for services, including claims paid at DRG rates, may not exceed any upper limits established by federal regulation.

(9) The Division reimburses all out-of-state hospital services at Oregon DRG or FFS rates as published in the Hospital Services Program rules (OAR chapter 410, division 125) unless the hospital has a contract or service agreement with the Division to provide highly specialized services.

(10) Payment rates for in-home services provided through Department of Human Services (Department) Aging and People with Disabilities (APD) may not exceed the costs of nursing facility services unless the criteria in OAR 411-027-0020 have been met.

(11) The Division sets payment rates for out-of-state institutions and similar facilities, such as skilled nursing care facilities and psychiatric and rehabilitative care facilities at a rate that is:

(a) Consistent with similar services provided in the State of Oregon; and

(b) The lesser of the rate paid to the most similar facility licensed in the State of Oregon or the rate paid by the Medical Assistance Programs in that state for that service; or

(c) The rate established by APD for out-of-state nursing facilities.

(12) The Division may not make payment on claims that have been assigned, sold, or otherwise transferred or when the billing provider, billing agent, or billing service receives a percentage of the amount billed or collected or payment authorized. This includes, but is not limited to, transfer to a collection agency or individual who advances money to a provider for accounts receivable.

(13) The Division may not make a separate payment or copayment to a nursing facility or other provider for services included in the nursing facility's all-inclusive rate. The following services are not included in the all-inclusive rate (OAR 411-070-0085) and may be separately reimbursed:

(a) Legend drugs, biologicals and hyperalimentation drugs and supplies, and enteral nutritional formula as addressed in the Pharmaceutical Services Program administrative rules (chapter 410, division 121) and Home Enteral/Parenteral Nutrition and IV Services Program administrative rules (chapter 410, division 148);

(b) Physical therapy, speech therapy, and occupational therapy provided by a non-employee of the nursing facility within the appropriate program administrative rules (chapter 410, division 129 and 131);

(c) Continuous oxygen that exceeds 1,000 liters per day by lease of a concentrator or concentrators as addressed in the Durable Medical Equipment, Prosthetics, Orthotics and Supplies program administrative rules (chapter 410, division 122);

(d) Influenza immunization serum as described in the Pharmaceutical Services program administrative rules (chapter 410, division 121);

(e) Podiatry services provided under the rules in the Medical-Surgical Services program administrative rules (chapter 410, division 130);

(f) Medical services provided by a physician or other provider of medical services, such as radiology and laboratory, as outlined in the Medical-Surgical Services program rules (chapter 410, division 130);

(g) Certain custom fitted or specialized equipment as specified in the Durable Medical Equipment, Prosthetics, Orthotics and Supplies program administrative rules (chapter 410, division 122).

(14) The Division reimburses hospice services based on CMS Core-Based Statistical Areas (CBSA's). A separate payment may not be made for services included in the core package of services as outlined in OAR chapter 410, division 142.

(15) Payment for Division clients with Medicare and full Medicaid:

(a) The Division limits payment to the Medicaid allowed amount, less the Medicare payment, up to the Medicare co-insurance and deductible, whichever is less. The Division's payment may not exceed the co-insurance and deductible amounts due;

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(b) The Division pays the allowable rate for covered services that are not covered by Medicare.

(16) For clients with third-party resources (TPR), the Division pays the allowed rate less the TPR payment but not to exceed the billed amount.

(17) The Division payments, including contracted PHP or CCO payments, unless in error, constitute payment in full, except in limited instances involving allowable spend-down or copayments. For the Division, payment in full includes:

(a) Zero payments for claims where a third party or other resource has paid an amount equivalent to or exceeding Division allowable payment; and

(b) Denials of payment for failure to submit a claim in a timely manner, failure to obtain payment authorization in a timely and appropriate manner, or failure to follow other required procedures identified in the individual provider rules.

(18) Payment by the Division does not restrict or limit the Authority or any state or federal oversight entity's right to review or audit a claim before or after the payment. Claim payment may be denied or subject to recovery if medical review, audit, or other post-payment review determines the service was not provided in accordance with applicable rules or does not meet the criteria for quality of care or medical appropriateness of the care or payment.

Adm. Order No.: DMAP 87-2015

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-29-2015

Certified to be Effective: 1-1-16

Notice Publication Date: 12-1-2015

Rules Amended: 410-136-3040

Subject: This amendment adds language regarding aerosolizing or vaporizing to the existing rule to bring subcontractor and vehicle standards into alignment with changes to the Oregon Indoor Clean Air Act made in HB 2456, which passed in the 2015 legislative session.

Rules Coordinator: Sandy Cafourek—(503) 945-6430

Vehicle Equipment and Subcontractor Standards

(1) Brokerages shall require subcontractors to maintain their vehicles for the comfort and safety of the clients. The vehicles shall meet the following requirements:

(a) The interior of the vehicle shall be clean;

(b) The subcontractor shall not smoke, aerosolize or vaporize an inhalant or permit smoking, aerosolizing or vaporizing of an inhalant in the vehicle at any time; and

(c) The subcontractor shall comply with appropriate local, state, and federal transportation safety standards regarding passenger safety and comfort. The vehicle shall include, but is not limited to, the following safety equipment:

(A) Safety belts for all passengers if the vehicle is legally required to provide safety belts;

(B) A first aid kit;

(C) A fire extinguisher;

(D) Roadside reflective or warning devices;

(E) A flashlight;

(F) Tire traction devices when appropriate;

(G) Disposable gloves; and

(H) All equipment necessary to transport clients using wheelchairs or stretchers if the subcontractor uses the vehicle for these modes of transport.

(2) The subcontractor shall follow a preventative maintenance schedule that incorporates at least all of the maintenance recommended by the vehicle manufacturer. The vehicle must be in good operating condition and shall include, but is not limited to:

(a) Side and rear view mirrors;

(b) A horn; and

(c) Working turn signals, headlights, taillights and windshield wipers.

(3) Brokerages shall require the subcontractors' drivers to receive training on their job duties and responsibilities, including:

(a) Understanding NEMT services in general, reporting forms, vehicle operation, requirements for fraud and abuse reporting and the geographic area in which subcontractors will provide service;

(b) Requiring the subcontractors' drivers to complete the National Safety Council Defensive Driving course or an equivalent course within six months of the date of hire and at least every three years thereafter;

(c) Requiring the subcontractors' drivers to complete Red Cross-approved First Aid, Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation and blood spill procedures courses or equivalent courses within six months of the date of hire and to maintain the certification as a condition of employment;

(d) Requiring the subcontractors' drivers to complete the Passenger Service and Safety course or an equivalent course within six months of the date of hire and at least every three years thereafter;

(e) Understanding established procedures for subcontractors and the subcontractors' drivers in the event that the client needs emergency care during the ride; and

(f) If providing ground or air ambulance services, verifying that the Authority has licensed the subcontractor to operate ground or air ambulance. If the subcontractor is located in a contiguous state and regularly provides rides to OHP eligible clients, the brokerage must ensure that both the Authority and the contiguous state have licensed the subcontractor.

(4) Brokerages shall require the following when hiring a subcontractor:

(a) The subcontractor's driver must have valid driver license. The license must be the class of license, with any required endorsements, that permits the subcontractor's driver to legally operate the vehicle for which they are hired to drive per ORS Chapter 807 and OAR chapter 735, division 062, or the applicable statutes of other states; and

(b) The subcontractor's drivers must pass a criminal background check in accordance with ORS 181.534 and 181.537 and OAR chapter 257, division 10, or if the brokerage is a mass transit district formed under ORS Chapter 267, the subcontractor's drivers must pass a criminal background check in accordance with ORS 267.237 and the mass transit district's background check policies. The brokerage may request an exception to this requirement in writing to the Authority, but only the Authority may grant the exception. Approval of the exception is dependent upon when the crime occurred, the nature of the offense, and any other circumstances to ensure that the client is not at risk of harm from the subcontractor. If approved, the Authority shall document the approval within 30 days of the request.

(5) For authorized out-of-state NEMT services in which the subcontractor solely performs work in the other state and for which the brokerage has no oversight authority, the brokerage is not responsible for requiring that the subcontractor's vehicle and the subcontractor's standards meet the requirements set forth in this rule.

Vehicle Equipment and Driver Standards

(1) This rule does not apply to ambulance providers, ambulance vehicles, or ambulance personnel that are licensed and regulated by ORS Chapter 682 and OAR chapter 333, divisions 250, 255, 260 and 265, whether providing ambulance or stretcher transports.

(a) The interior of the vehicle shall be clean and free from any debris impeding a member's ability to ride comfortably;

(b) Smoking, aerosolizing or vaporizing of inhalants is prohibited in the vehicle at all times in accordance with ORS 433.835 to 433.990 and OAR 333-015-0025 to 333-015-0090; and

(c) The transportation provider shall comply with appropriate local, state, and federal transportation safety standards regarding passenger safety and comfort. The vehicle shall include, but is not limited to, the following safety equipment:

A CCO shall have an exception process to the criminal background check requirement that may allow approval of a driver with a criminal background under certain circumstances. The exception process must include review and consideration of when the crime occurred, the nature of the offense, and any other circumstances to ensure that the member is not at risk of harm from the driver. Any approvals made through the exception process must be documented and maintained for three calendar years, even if the CCO is no longer a Medicaid enrolled provider before the end of the three years. The Authority may request this information at any time during the three year retention period.

(5) Drivers authorized to provide NEMT services must receive training on their job duties and responsibilities including:

(a) Understanding NEMT services in general, reporting forms, vehicle operation, requirements for fraud and abuse reporting, and the geographic area in which drivers will provide service;

Rule Caption: OHP FFS Program, Begin Requiring PA for Billing Out-Of-Hospital Birth and Gender Dysphoria Surgery Services

Adm. Order No.: DMAP 89-2015

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-30-2015

Certified to be Effective: 1-1-16

Notice Publication Date: 12-1-2015

Rules Amended: 410-130-0200

Rules Repealed: 410-130-0200(T)

Subject: This rule specifies the medical billing codes for which the OHP FFS medical surgical program requires prior authorization (PA) for reimbursement. The codes for which PA is required are listed in Table 1 of the rule. The amendments to the rule add the billing codes used for out-of-hospital birth services and gender dysphoria surgeries to the list of codes requiring prior authorization.

Rules Coordinator: Sandy Cafourek—(503) 945-6430

Prior Authorization

(1) For fee-for-service (FFS) clients, prior authorization (PA) is required for all procedure codes listed in Table 130-0200-1 regardless of the setting in which they are performed unless the setting is otherwise specified in Table 1 of this rule. For details on where to obtain PA, download a copy of the Medical-Surgical Services Supplemental Information booklet at: <http://www.oregon.gov/oha/healthplan/Pages/medical-surgical.aspx>.

(2) Providers must obtain PA from the OHP payer, either FFS or CCO; which shall be responsible for payment at the time the service is delivered.

(3) The Division shall authorize for the level of care or type of service that meets the client's medical need consistent with the Health Evidence Review Commission's (HERC) Prioritized List of Health Services (Prioritized List) and guideline notes, as referenced in OAR 410-141-0520.

(4) Codes for which medical need has not been specified by the HERC shall be authorized based on medical appropriateness as the term is defined in OAR 410-120-0000.

(5) For out-of-hospital birth PA requests, initial documentation adequate to assess pregnancy risk per OAR 410-130-0240 must be received before 27 weeks 6 days gestation. Exceptions to the 27 week 6 day limit may be granted in cases where the member has recently moved into Oregon, provided requirements for prior prenatal care documentation are met. Requests for ongoing documentation to continue the support of assessment of pregnancy risk must also be met per OAR 410-120-1320(2)(3).

(6) For bariatric surgery, PA is required in two steps from:

(a) The OHP primary care provider prior to referral to a bariatric surgery center, and

(b) The bariatric surgery center prior to surgery.

(7) PA is not required:

(a) For clients with both Medicare and Medical Assistance Program coverage, and the service is covered by Medicare. However, PA is still required for bariatric surgeries and evaluations and most transplants, even if they are covered by Medicare;

(b) For kidney and cornea transplants unless they are performed out-of-state;

(c) For emergent or urgent procedures or services;

(d) For hospital admissions unless the procedure requires PA.

(8) A second opinion may be requested by the Division or the contractor before PA is given.

(9) Treating and performing practitioners are responsible for obtaining PA.

(10) PA documentation must be complete and legible.

(11) PA shall be considered based on the documentation submitted.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(12) Refer to Table 130-0200-1 for all services and procedures requiring PA.

Rules Repealed: 410-141-3150(T)

Subject: The Division needs to amend this rule to provide the CCO framework for compliance with the 1115 Waiver demonstration for the Oregon Health Plan-Waiver as they apply to non-state plan, health related services provided in-lieu of Medicaid managed care benefits. These services are intended to improve care delivery and member health and lower costs.

Rules Coordinator: Sandy Cafourek—(503) 945-6430

Flexible Services

(1) Flexible Services, as cross referenced in OAR 410-141-0000, in alignment with the CMS Waiver, and for purposes of this rule, means non-state plan, non-covered health related services. These services are provided instead of or as an adjunct to benefits and are intended to improve health delivery and member health and lower costs. Flexible services are likely to be cost-effective alternatives to covered benefits and are likely to generate savings. These services may effectively treat or prevent physical, oral, or behavioral health conditions, improve health outcomes, and prevent or delay health deterioration. Flexible services are consistent with the member's treatment plan as developed by the member's care team and documented in the member's medical record as specified in OAR 410-141-3180. Flexible services lack traditional billing or encounter codes, are not encounterable, and cannot be reported for utilization purposes.

(2) The Authority requires all CCOs to reflect the above standardized definition of flexible services in their policies and procedures (P&Ps). These P&Ps shall be written in collaboration with the Authority and are intended for administration of flexible services through their provider network. Flexible services P&Ps shall encourage transparency and provider and member engagement, reflect streamlined administrative processes that do not create unnecessary barriers, and provide for accountability.

(3) CCO flexible services policies shall:

(a) Describe how members and primary care teams are engaged;

(b) Allow providers outside of the primary care team to render and coordinate flexible services efficiently;

(c) Provide mechanisms to capture services within the treatment plan and clinical record as specified in OAR 410-141-3180;

(d) Provide efficient decision making processes that are separate from CCO prior authorization protocols;

(e) Describe how community resources are considered and coordinated with community partners;

(f) Describe the data collection and tracking reporting plan;

(g) Efficiently and effectively reduce costs and improve care; validate that no cost sharing is required and that no administrative burden is imposed on the member;

(h) Provide clear accountability for service delivery;

(i) Allow for consideration of any flexible services requested; and

(j) Not limit the range of possible flexible services.

(4) Flexible services provided to individual members shall be consistent with the member's treatment plan as developed by the member's care team and agreed to by the CCO. The care team and the CCO shall work with the member and, as appropriate, the family of the member in determination of the additional health related services effective as alternative in the member's care. These services shall be documented in the member's treatment plan and clinical record, as specified in OAR 410-141-3180.

(5) Flexible services provided on a community based level and initiated by the CCO shall, for documentation purposes, be reflected with date and details within the Community Advisory Council (CAC) minutes in the same calendar quarter as the activity occurrence. Such activities might include: Programs to improve the general community health, e.g., farmers' market in the "food desert" or classes on healthy meal preparation.

(6) An enrollee's request to have an approved state plan service rather than a flexible service must be honored when medically necessary.

(7) Flexible services are not accounted for in the medical expenses part of the capitation rate.

(8) CCOs shall submit their financial reporting for flexible services as directed through their contracting agreement with the Authority.

(9) As allowed under 42 CFR 438.6(e), CCOs are always at liberty to offer any additional health related services. The services are separate from flexible services and delivered at the complete discretion of the CCO.

(10) All CCOs shall have written P&Ps for a grievance system. A grievance process, described in OAR 410-141-3261, applies only to those situations in which the member or their representative expresses concern or dissatisfaction about any matter other than an "Action," as referenced in 42 CFR 438.400, (b)(6). A flexible services outcome is not an "Action." CCOs shall have written procedures to acknowledge the receipt, disposition, and documentation of each grievance from members as specified in 42 CFR 438.402-408 and OAR 410-141-3260 through 410-141-3264.

(11) CCOs shall provide to members a written outcome regarding flexible services requests and shall be copied to any representative of the member and any provider who made or participated in the request on the member's behalf. Flexible services outcomes are subject to the grievance provisions of OAR 410-141-3260 and 410-141-3261. The written outcomes shall inform the member and any provider of the member's right to file a grievance in response to the outcome.

(12) Except as provided in section (11), members have no appeal or hearing rights in regard to a flexible services outcome.

Subject: These rules provide the framework for existing Coordinated Care Organizations (CCOs) electing to apply to the Authority for service area change, once the Authority has stated that it has a need for network and capacity in a given service area. new service area. The CCO is described for purposes of this rule as the applicant upon its submission of the CCO Letter of Intent to Apply;

(b) "Document Review" means the review conducted by the Authority, occurring at the point after the receipt of the completed SAC packet and before the effective date of the contract amendment, to determine applicant's ability to serve Medicaid beneficiaries in the requested service areas;

(c) "Letter of intent to apply (LOIA)" means a letter from a CCO to the Authority stating the CCO's intent to submit a SAC packet in response to a service area need. A LOIA may be binding or non-binding, as specified in the Authority's announcement of the service area need;

(d) "Recertification" means the process outlined in this rule, allowing the CCO to submit an abbreviated application to apply as an existing CCO for a new CCO service area and that meets the requirements of ORS 414.625 and the standards set forth in this rule;

(e) "SAC packet" means the packet of application documents that the Authority provides to CCOs applying for a SAC;

(f) "Service Area Change" or "SAC" means a change in a CCO's service area as specified in the Authority's contract with the CCO;

(g) "Service area need" means when the Authority identifies a need, as defined in section (3) of this rule, for existing CCOs to apply to the Authority for a SAC to serve a service area.

(2) A CCO that desires to withdraw from all or a portion of its service area shall make every effort to provide the Authority with a form Letter of Intent to Exit the service area at least 150 calendar days prior to the intended date of withdrawal. The template for this form can be found on the CCO Contract Forms page at: www.oregon.gov/OHA/healthplan/pages/CCO-Contract-Forms.aspx. The Authority shall work with the CCO and any other impacted CCO for a workable exit transition.

(3) The Authority may determine a service area need exists, or is anticipated to exist, when a CCO would no longer be serving all or a portion of its service area.

(4) The Authority shall follow the process set forth in this rule when announcing a need for a SAC:

(a) Within thirty days of the Authority's identification of a need for a SAC, the Authority shall notify all existing CCOs that the Authority will begin accepting LOIAs for the SAC. The announcement shall specify when the LOIA is due;

(b) Not later than fifteen calendar days from the date of the Authority's notification in section (4)(a) above, the Authority shall issue a second announcement of the Authority's identification of a need for a SAC and when LOIAs are due;

(c) To be considered for a SAC, interested CCOs shall submit their LOIAs by the deadline indicated in the Authority's notice of a need for a SAC. CCOs shall designate a sole point of contact in their LOIA for this process. The Authority will not accept a LOIA or any subsequent SAC application materials from a CCO that has not submitted a LOIA by the deadline indicated in the Authority's notice;

(d) The Authority shall send a letter of acknowledgement to the CCO within ten calendar days of receipt of the LOIA.

(5) Within thirty calendar days of the date specified by the Authority as the due date for submission of a LOIA, the CCO shall complete a SAC packet in its entirety and submit it to the contract administration unit at the address indicated in the SAC application packet. CCOs can locate a SAC packet on the CCO Contract Forms page at: www.oregon.gov/OHA/healthplan/pages/CCO-Contract-Forms.aspx. The completed SAC recertification application is the applicant's offer to enter into a contract for the period and service area specified in the SAC packet.

(6) CCOs applying for the service area change process outlined in this rule must meet the requirements set forth in ORS 414.625 and submit documentation as it applies to the new service areas indicated in the application. Documentation requirements, based on criteria set forth in OAR 410-141-3010 and 410-141-3015, shall be included in the acknowledgement letter sent by the Authority as described in section 4(d), which shall include, but is not limited to, information related to the following:

(a) Delivery system network and provider capacity reports highlighting any providers operating in the new service area or existing contracted providers expanding their services into the new service area. (7) The Authority shall review SAC packets from all CCOs that have timely submitted a LOIA and SAC packet as required by this rule and that are considered responsive and completed as set forth in this rule.

(8) During its review of the SAC packets, the Authority may request additional information from a CCO. If additional information is requested, the CCO shall submit the additional information to the Authority within 30 days of the request.

(9) Within sixty calendar days from the date the initial SAC packets were due, the Authority shall complete its document review. To be eligible for recertification in the new service area, the applicant must meet standards established by the Authority, this rule, and be in compliance with the contract between the CCO and the Authority.

The application shall include the quantitative data described in OAR 409-055-0040.

If the application is incomplete the applicant will be notified in writing of the information that is missing and when it must be submitted.

(3) The Authority shall review a complete application within 60 days of submission. If the Authority determines that the applicant has met the requirements of these rules the Authority shall:

(b) Assign a Tier level, and

(c) Include the effective recognition date.

(4) The Authority shall maintain instructions and criteria for submitting a PCPCH Recognition Application posted on the Program website.

(5) The Authority may deny PCPCH recognition if an applicant does not meet the requirements of these rules.

(b) If a PCPCH believes that it meets the criteria to be recognized at a higher tier or increase its point threshold by at least 15 points, it may request to have its tier status reassessed by re-submitting an application not more than once every six months. The Authority may grant exceptions to the six month time period for good cause shown.

(4) If the Authority amends a practice's tier level or revokes PCPCH status this information will be made available to the Health Services Division (Division), the coordinated care or managed care plans, and insurance carriers.

(5) A practice that has had its PCPCH status revoked may have it reissued after reapplying for recognition and when the Authority determines that compliance with PCPCH Standards has been achieved satisfactorily.

(6) When the Authority is informed of any suspected breach of the system or unauthorized access, the Authority shall notify the Authority's Information Security Office and investigate.

(7) If patient data is determined to have been breached or accessed without proper authorization, the Authority shall notify all affected patients, the Attorney General, and the applicable health professional regulatory board as soon as possible but no later than 30 days from the date of the final determination that a breach or unauthorized access occurred. Notice shall be made by first class mail to a patient or a patient's next of kin if the patient is deceased. The notice shall include:

(11) The Authority shall review each application to authenticate before granting approval of a new account.

(12) If the Authority learns that an applicant has provided inaccurate or false information on an application, the Authority shall deny access to the system or terminate access to the system if access has already been established. The Authority may send written notification to the appropriate health professional regulatory board or oversight entity.

(13) A practitioner or pharmacist who is an authorized system user shall notify the Authority when his or her license or DEA registration has been limited, revoked, or voluntarily retired. A practitioner or pharmacist who changes or terminates employment shall notify the Authority of that change.

(14) When the Authority learns that a practitioner or pharmacist's license has been limited or revoked, the Authority shall deny further access to the system.

(15) When a delegate for any reason is no longer authorized as a delegate by a practitioner or pharmacist, the practitioner or pharmacist shall revoke the delegation and notify the Authority.

- (a) Revoke the delegation; and
- (b) Notify the Authority of the potential unauthorized use.

(23) When the State Medical Examiner learns of any potential unauthorized use of the system or system data by a designee, the State Medical Examiner shall notify the Authority.

(28) If the Authority cannot verify the information, the Authority shall send written notification to the patient explaining why the request cannot be processed.

(29) After the Authority has verified the request, the Authority shall query the system based upon the patient information provided in the request and securely send the report to the patient at no cost to the patient. The report shall include:

(a) A list of controlled substances dispensed to the patient including the dates of dispensation, the practitioners who prescribed the controlled substances, and the pharmacies that dispensed them; and

(b) A list of users who accessed the system for information on that specific patient with the date of each instance of access.

(30) If no data is found that matches the patient identified in the request, the Authority shall send written notification to the patient explaining possible reasons why no patient data was identified.

(31) A patient may send written notification to the Authority if he or she believes unauthorized access to his or her information has occurred. The notification shall include the patient's name, who is suspected to have gained unauthorized access to the patient's information, what information is suspected to have been accessed by unauthorized use, when the suspected unauthorized access occurred, and why the patient suspects the access was unauthorized. The Authority shall treat such patient notifications as potential unauthorized use of the system.

(32) A patient may request that the Authority correct information in a patient record report as follows:

(a) The patient shall specify in writing to the Authority what information in the report the patient considers incorrect.

(b) When the Authority receives a request to correct a patient's information in the system, the Authority shall make a note in the system that the information is contested and verify the accuracy of the system data with the vendor. The vendor shall verify that the data obtained from the query is the same data received from the pharmacy.

(c) If the data is verified incorrect, the Authority shall correct the errors in consultation with the vendor and document the correction. The Authority shall send to the patient the corrected report.

(d) If the vendor verifies the data is correct, the Authority shall send written notification informing the patient that the request for correction is denied. The notice shall inform the patient of his or her rights as are applicable to the prescription drug monitoring program, the process for filing an appeal, and if there are no appeal rights, how to otherwise address or resolve the issue.

(33) The Authority shall respond to all patient requests within 10 business days after the Authority receives a request. Each response shall include information that informs the patient of his or her rights as are applicable to the prescription drug monitoring program.

(34) If the Authority denies a patient's request to correct information, or fails to grant a patient's request within 10 business days after the Authority receives the request, a patient may appeal the denial or failure by requesting a contested case hearing. The appeal shall be filed within 30 days after the request to correct information is denied. The appeal process is conducted pursuant to ORS chapter 183 and the Attorney General's Uniform and Model Rules of Procedure for the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH), OAR 137-003-0501 through 137-003-0700.

Subject: The Oregon Health Authority (Authority), Public Health Division is permanently adopting administrative rules in chapter 333, division 16 related to high priority chemicals of concern for children's health.

SB 478 (Oregon Laws 2015, chapter 786) was passed by the Oregon Legislature during the 2015 legislative session. The law requires the Authority to maintain a list of high priority chemicals of concern for children's health when used in children's products. The law states that the initial Authority list shall "include on the list chemicals that are listed on the Washington State Department of Ecology's Reporting List of Chemicals of High Concern to Children". These rules establish the initial list of high priority chemicals of concern for children's health when used in children's products that a manufacturer of children's products sold or offered for sale in this state shall provide biennial notice to the Oregon Health Authority beginning on January 1, 2018. This rulemaking is only establishing the list of high priority chemicals of concern for children's health when used in children's products. No requirements are being imposed on manufacturers at this time.

Purpose, Scope, and Effective Date

(1) These rules establish the initial list of high priority chemicals of concern for children's health when used in children's products. The presence of a high priority chemical of concern in a children's product does not necessarily mean that the product is harmful to human health or that there is any violation of existing safety standards or laws. The information required to be reported in these rules will help fill a data gap that exists for both consumers and agencies.

(2) A manufacturer of children's products sold or offered for sale in this state must provide biennial notice to the Oregon Health Authority, of all children's products that contain a high priority chemical listed in OAR 333-016-2020.

(3) A manufacturer's first report is due no later than January 1, 2018.

laboratory accreditation to implement marijuana testing as a result of the passage of HB 3400 (Oregon Laws 2015, chapter 614). The Oregon Environmental Laboratory Accreditation Program (ORELAP) is a fee based program that accredits laboratories by Matrix-Technology/Method-Analyte. In order for ORELAP to accredit laboratories testing marijuana pursuant to licensure through the Oregon Liquor Control Commission (OLCC), the rule amendments will expand the scope of accreditation by means of adding liquid chromatography tandem mass spectrometry, polymerase chain reaction and sampling to the Complex Field of Testing, and defining matrix to include cannabinoid products, concentrates or extracts.

Fees will be charged to Oregon in-state and out-of-state environmental laboratories according to the following schedule. A mobile category 2 laboratory that operates as an entity of an Oregon fixed base facility will be considered an in-state laboratory, and one that does not operate as an entity of an Oregon fixed base facility will be considered an out-of-state laboratory. Mobile category 1 laboratories are covered under the parent fixed laboratory's accreditation and are not required to pay an additional fee.

(1) A non-refundable application fee must be paid for each application requesting accreditation for methods.

(a) For laboratories located in Oregon, one of three levels of fees, Tier 1 at $450, Tier 2 at $900, and Tier 3 at $1,600 will be charged. The Tiers will be determined by the total number of points derived from the number of fields of testing requested for accreditation listed in subsections (2)(a) through (c) of this rule.

(A) Each Basic Field of Testing has a multiplier of 1.

(B) Each Moderate Field of Testing has a multiplier of 3.

(C) Each Complex Field of Testing has a multiplier of 5.

(D) The total number of points is determined by first summing the number of fields of testing within each category (Basic, Moderate or Complex) and then multiplying the sums by their appropriate multiplier as given in this rule. The sum of these results determines the total number of points for each laboratory. Laboratories with a total of 1 to 10 points are to be considered Tier 1 laboratories, 11 to 25 points are Tier 2 laboratories and 26 or more points are Tier 3 laboratories.

(b) For each out-of-state laboratory requesting primary or secondary accreditation through ORELAP, one of three levels of fees, Tier 1 at $1,375, Tier 2 at $2,200 and Tier 3 at $3,300 will be charged with each Tier determined according to subsection (1)(a) of this rule.

(c) If a new owner acquires the laboratory and wishes the laboratory to remain accredited, the laboratory must submit a new owner application, and may be required to pay the application fee and be subject to a new on-site assessment and payment of on-site assessment fees as described in this rule.

(2) Upon ORELAP's review of a laboratory's application, each laboratory requesting primary accreditation through ORELAP, when ORELAP personnel will be used for the assessment, the laboratory will be charged an assessment fee based on the number fields of testing and matrices as follows:

(a) Oregon laboratories will be charged $90 and out-of-state laboratories will be charged $100 for each of the following Basic Fields of Testing requested for accreditation:

(A) Chromofluorogenic (Microbiology);

(B) Membrane Filter and/or Heterotrophic Plate Count (Microbiology);

(C) Multiple Tube Fermentation/Most Probable Number (MPN) (Microbiology);

(D) Gravimetric;

(E) Physical;

(F) Probe.

(b) Oregon laboratories will be charged $350 and out-of-state laboratories will be charged $385 for each of the following Moderate Fields of Testing requested for accreditation:

(A) Inorganic Atomic absorption spectrometry;

(B) Inorganic Atomic fluorescence spectrometry;

(C) Inorganic-non-metals automated colorimetric;

(D) Inorganic-non-metals manual colorimetric;

(E) Inorganic-ion chromatography (IC);

(F) Organic-liquid chromatography (LC);

(G) Organic-gas chromatography (GC) — volatiles;

(H) Organic-gas chromatography (GC) — extractables;

(I) Whole Effluent Toxicity Immunoassay;

(J) Asbestos (bulk);

(K) Asbestos — electron microscopy

(L) Radiochemistry.

(c) Oregon laboratories will be charged $500 and out-of-state laboratories will be charged $550 for each of the following Complex Fields of Testing requested for accreditation:

(A) Organic — gas chromatography/mass spectrometry (GC/MS) — volatiles;

(B) Organic — gas chromatography/mass spectrometry (GC/MS) — extractables;

(C) Organic — liquid chromatography/mass spectrometry (LC/MS);

(D) Organic — gas chromatography/tandem mass spectrometry (GC/MS/MS);

(E) Organic — gas chromatography/high resolution mass spectrometry (GC/HRMS);

(F) Organic — liquid chromatography/tandem mass spectrometry (LC/MS/MS);

(G) Inorganic — metals — inductively coupled plasma (ICP);

(H) Inorganic — metals — inductively coupled plasma/mass spectrometry (ICP/MS);

(I) Inorganic — ion chromatography/mass spectrometry (IC/MS);

(J) Microbiology — polymerase chain reaction (PCR);

(K) Sampling;

(L) X-ray.

(d) An additional fee of $10 for Basic Fields of Testing, $40 for Moderate Fields of Testing and $75 for Complex Fields of Testing will be charged to Oregon laboratories, and an additional fee of $11 for Basic Fields of Testing, $44 for Moderate Fields of Testing and $83 for Complex Fields of Testing will be charged to out-of-state laboratories for each additional matrix per field of testing for which the laboratory has requested accreditation. The matrices are:

(A) Air;

(B) Biological tissue;

(C) Drinking water;

(D) Non-potable water;

(E) Solids.

(e) Assessment fees must be paid before a routine on-site assessment will be performed.

(f) All laboratories must pay the appropriate on-site assessment fee per on-site assessment performed due to just cause according to TNI Standards.

(3) All Oregon environmental laboratories requesting primary accreditation through ORELAP where Oregon state assessor(s) will perform the on-site assessment must pay an on-site trip fee for each on-site assessment. For a mobile category 2 laboratory, the trip fees are waived if it is moved to the Oregon State Public Health Laboratory for the on-site assessment, and reduced to the amount in excess of its fixed base facility when moved to the fixed base facility if both are to be assessed at the same time.

(a) On-site trip fees are $350 for Tier 1, $500 for Tier 2 and $1,000 for Tier 3 laboratories with the Tiers determined according to subsection (1)(a) of this rule.

(b) All laboratories must pay the appropriate on-site trip fee for performing each required on-site assessment and additional assessments as requested by the laboratory for accreditation for additional fields of testing and matrices.

(c) All laboratories must pay the appropriate on-site trip fee per on-site assessment performed due to just cause according to TNI Standards.

(4) All environmental laboratories located in Oregon requesting primary accreditation through ORELAP where ORELAP has determined that third party assessors will be used, must pay ORELAP application assessment fees plus all third party assessors costs. ORELAP may require the laboratory to pay the on-site assessment costs directly to the third party assessor according to the schedule of the assessor for all required on-site assessments.

(5) All out of-state environmental laboratories must pay all on-site assessment costs incurred by ORELAP approved assessors to perform the on-site assessment including but not limited to transportation, per diem and wages during travel. For a mobile category 2 laboratory, the travel costs are waived if it is moved to the Oregon State Public Health Laboratory for the on-site assessment, and reduced to the amount in excess of its fixed base facility when moved to the fixed base facility if both are to be assessed at the same time. The excess amount is to be determined by those fields of testing and matrices requested for accreditation by the mobile lab that have not been requested by its fixed based facility. If third party assessors are used, ORELAP may require the lab to pay the on-site assessment costs directly to the assessor according to the schedule of the assessor for all required inspections.

(6) Accredited laboratories requesting additions to their fields of accreditation during the accreditation period must pay:

(a) The difference in cost of the application fee with a minimum fee of $200;

(b) The difference in cost of the assessment fee;

(c) An on-site trip fee, as described in subsection (3)(a) and section (5) of this rule, based only on the additional parameters if ORELAP determines that an on-site assessment is required.

Enforcement

(1) The Authority shall coordinate with law enforcement agencies to conduct random, unannounced inspections of wholesalers and retailers of tobacco products, smoking instruments or inhalant delivery systems to ensure compliance with, and to enforce, the laws of this state designed to discourage the sale of tobacco products, smoking instruments and inhalant delivery systems to minors. Nothing in these rules shall preempt local jurisdictions from passing ordinances to conduct unannounced inspections.

(2) Random Sample Procedures: Random, unannounced inspections will be based on the following methodological procedures:

(a) Cover a range of outlets, not to be preselected on the basis of prior violations, to measure overall levels of compliance as well as to identify violations;

(b) Be conducted in such a way as to provide a probability sample of outlets in order to estimate the success of enforcement actions being taken throughout the state;

(c) Use reliable methodological design and adequate sample design to reflect:

(A) Distribution of the population of those under 18 throughout the state; and

(B) Distribution of outlets throughout the state that are accessible to minors; and

(d) Be conducted at times when minors are likely to purchase tobacco products, smoking devices or inhalant delivery systems.

(3) Targeted Inspections: The Authority may conduct targeted inspections of outlets where a compliance problem exists or is suspected. Information gained in targeted inspections will not be included in data used to determine rate of offense in random inspections.

(4) Conducting Inspections: Inspections may take place:

(a) Only in areas open to the public;

(b) Only during the hours that tobacco products, smoking instruments or inhalant delivery systems are distributed or sold; and

(c) No more frequently than once a month in any single outlet unless a compliance problem exists or is suspected. For purposes of this rule, a "single outlet" refers to a specific address location of an outlet, regardless of ownership.

(5) The Authority may use minors to complete inspections to determine compliance with these rules.

Subject: The Oregon Health Authority, Public Health Division is temporarily adopting Oregon Administrative Rules in chapter 333, division 8 related to marijuana laboratory testing and grandfathered medical marijuana grow sites.

With the passage of HB 3400 (Oregon Laws 2015, chapter 614) during the 2015 legislative session, the Legislature established marijuana plant limits for medical marijuana grow sites. The plant limits take effect on March 1, 2016. Under the temporary rules a grower can petition for a grandfathered grow site beginning in January 2016.

In addition, in order to better ensure that marijuana is being tested appropriately for pesticides, OHA is adopting temporary rules to require laboratories that are testing marijuana to provide a quality control manual to OHA.

Rules Repealed: 845-004-0105

Subject: HB 2567 passed in the 2015 Oregon legislative session with an effective date of June 25, 2015. It makes several changes to ORS 471.230 (the distillery license statute). The following amendments are required to align the rules with the statute changes.

845-005-0413 will be amended to allow a distillery licensee to hold a Special Events Distillery (SED) license at its annually licensed premises, change the number of license days for an SED at one address from a limit of 31 to a limit of 62, and allow a taste to contain liquids other than the distilled liquor manufactured by the distillery licensee.

845-005-0431 will be amended to allow more than one distillery to be licensed at a primary location to provide tastings.

845-006-0452 will be amended to allow a taste to contain liquids other than the distilled liquor manufactured by the distillery licensee.

In addition, the Commission needs to update how it controls the use of alcohol for scientific, pharmaceutical, manufacturing, mechanical, and industrial purposes.

845-004-0101 will be amended to change the name to an Industrial Alcohol Authority and create a process that will be less work for the industry and the Commission.

845-004-0105 will be repealed because creating the Industrial Alcohol Authority and clarifying its privileges eliminates the need for this rule.

Qualifications for Direct Shipment of Wine or Cider to a Resident of Oregon

ORS 471.282 allows a person with a Direct Shipper Permit to sell and deliver malt beverages, wine or cider directly to a resident of Oregon who is at least 21 years of age. 471.186 allows an off-premises sales licensee to deliver malt beverages, wine and cider to a resident of Oregon who is at least 21 years of age.

(1) A Direct Shipper Permit allows the delivery of only the type of alcohol allowed by the license that authorizes the person to hold a Direct Shipper Permit. Only the following persons may qualify for a Direct Shipper Permit:

(a) A person holding a brewery-public house license issued under ORS 471.200, a winery license issued under ORS 471.223, or a grower sales privilege license issued under 471.227. These licenses are issued with a Direct Shipper Permit.

(b) A person holding a temporary sales license issued under ORS 471.190 that is also a nonprofit trade association and that has a membership primarily composed of persons holding winery licenses issued under 471.223 and grower sales privilege licenses issued under 471.227.

(c) A person holding a license issued by another state within the United States that authorizes the manufacture of malt beverages, wine, or cider. The person in the other state may deliver malt beverages only if that state allows Oregon licensees to deliver malt beverages directly to a resident of that state.

(d) A person holding a license issued by another state within the United States that authorizes the sale of wine or cider produced only from grapes or other fruit grown under the control of the licensee.

(e) A person holding a license issued by another state within the United States that authorizes the sale of malt beverages, wine, or cider at retail for consumption off the licensed premises. The person in the other state may deliver malt beverages only if that state allows Oregon licensees to deliver malt beverages directly to a resident of that state.

(2) Application for a Direct Shipper Permit. A person described under subsections (1)(b)–(e) of this rule must make application to the Commission and receive a Direct Shipper Permit from the Commission before shipping any malt beverages, wine or cider directly to a resident of Oregon. Applicants must apply in writing using the forms provided by the Commission and submit the required fee. The Commission may require additional forms, documents, or information as part of the application. The Commission may refuse to process any application that is not complete or not accompanied by the documents or disclosures required by the form or the Commission.

(3) The Commission may revoke or refuse to issue or renew a Direct Shipper Permit if the permit holder or applicant fails to qualify for the permit under this rule or a refusal basis applies under ORS Chapter 471 or any other rule of the Commission and good cause does not overcome the refusal basis.

(4) A Direct Shipper Permit issued under subsections (1)(c)–(e) of this rule must be renewed annually.

(a) If the person holds the permit based on a license issued by another state, the permit may be renewed by applying in writing using the forms provided by the Commission and submitting the required fee. The Commission may require additional forms, documents, or information as part of the application.

(b) If the person holds the permit based on an annual license issued by this state, the permit may be renewed at the same time that the license is renewed.

(5) Same-Day and Next-Day Delivery.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

(a) The privilege of next-day delivery of malt beverages, wine, and cider is included with a Direct Shipper Permit and an off-premises sales license.

(b) A person who holds, or is applying for, a Direct Shipper Permit or an off-premises sales license issued by the Commission who intends to provide the service of same-day delivery of malt beverages, wine, or cider to a resident of Oregon must make application to the Commission upon forms to be furnished by the Commission and receive approval from the Commission prior to beginning the same-day delivery service. The application for same-day delivery approval shall include a statement that the person understands and will follow the same-day delivery requirements listed in OAR 845-006-0392 and 845-006-0396.

(6) The Commission may refuse to process any application required under this rule if the application is not complete and accompanied by the documents or disclosures required by the form. The Commission shall give applicants the opportunity to be heard if the Commission refuses to process an application. A hearing under this subsection is not subject to the requirements for contested case proceedings under ORS Chapter 183.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Rule Caption: Aligns the definition of lot or parcel with the statutory definition in HB 3400.

Adm. Order No.: OLCC 6-2015(Temp)

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-22-2015

Certified to be Effective: 1-1-16 thru 6-28-16

Notice Publication Date:

Rules Amended: 845-025-1115

Subject: On October 22, 2014, the Commission adopted temporary rules implementing the “Control, Regulation and Taxation of Marijuana and Industrial Hemp Act of 2014” (“Measure 91”) and 2015 House Bill 3400 (“HB 3400”). The Commission amended certain sections of the temporary rules on November 20, 2015. Staff have recently identified another area of the rule that require revision.

845-025-1115(1)(d)(B) states that OLCC may deny a producer license if it is “On the same tax lot or parcel as another producer license under common ownership.”

There are two problems with this rule. First, for outdoor growers it is not consistent with the statutory definition of a licensed premises. HB 3400 defines a licensed premises of an outdoor producer as “the entire lot or parcel.” A tax lot is not the same as a lot as the term is used in statute. In fact the same lot or parcel may contain multiple tax lots. Because our rule is inconsistent with the statute for outdoor producers, the statute controls and the rule does not apply outdoors. Staff interpret the statute to mean that only one outdoor production license can be issued on the lot or parcel regardless of ownership.

Second, when applying this rule to indoor producers the rule as written is not consistent with the Commission’s intent. Staff had intended to allow multiple indoor producers at the same location only if the producers were separately owned. However, the use of the term “tax lot” means that a single owner could have multiple indoor production licenses at the same location if they have designated separate tax lots on their property.

The suggested amendments address both these issues by removing the term “tax lot” from our rules and clarifying the different requirements for indoor and outdoor producers. The net result is that only one outdoor producer license may be issued on a lot or parcel, and that multiple indoor licenses may be issued on a lot or parcel only if those licenses are under separate ownership.

Interview and Examination

(1) In addition to all other requirements for licensure, the Board may require the applicant to appear for a personal interview regarding information received in the application process. Unless excused in advance, failure to appear before the Board for a personal interview violates ORS 677.190(17) and may subject the applicant to disciplinary action.

Adm. Order No.: OMB 2-2016

Filed with Sec. of State: 1-8-2016

Certified to be Effective: 1-8-16

Notice Publication Date: 11-1-2015

Rules Amended: 847-001-0015

Subject: The rule amendment provides an exemption to the Attorney General's Model Rule 137-003-0655(7) because the Board has determined that, due to the nature of the cases, 90 days is an insufficient time in which to issue an amended proposed or final order.

Rules Coordinator: Nicole Krishnaswami—(971) 673-2667

847-001-0015

Delegation of Authority and Issuance of Final Order

(1) The Oregon Medical Board (Board) has delegated to the Executive Director the authority to make certain procedural determinations on its behalf on matters arising under the Attorney General's Model Rules for Contested Cases in OAR 137-003-0001 to 137-003-0700. The procedural functions include, but are not limited to:

(a) For discovery requests before the Board, to authorize or deny requested discovery in a contested case, to include specifying the methods, timing and extent of discovery;

(b) To review all requests to take a deposition of a witness and to authorize or deny any request for deposition. If a request to take a deposition is authorized, the Executive Director may specify the terms on which the deposition is taken, to include, but not limited to the location, the manner of recording, the time of day, the persons permitted to be present, and the duration of the deposition;

(c) Whether a request for hearing filed after the prescribed time will be accepted, based upon a finding of good cause. In making this determination, the Executive Director may require the request to be supported by an affidavit or other writing to explain why the request is late and may conduct such further inquiry as deemed appropriate. The Executive Director may authorize a hearing on whether the late filing should be accepted. If any party disputes the facts contained in the explanation as to why the request was late or the accuracy of the reason that the request was late, the requestor has a right to a hearing before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) on the reasons for that factual dispute;

(d) Whether the late filing of a document may be accepted based upon a finding of good cause;

(e) Whether to issue a subpoena for the attendance of witnesses or to produce documents at the hearing;

(f) Prior to the issuance of a proposed order issued by an ALJ, whether the Board will consider taking notice of judicially cognizable facts or of general, technical or scientific facts in writing which are within the specialized knowledge of the Board;

(g) Whether to submit to the Board prior to an ALJ's proposed final order the following issues:

(A) The Board's interpretation of its rules and applicable statutes;

(B) Which rules or statutes are applicable to a proceeding;

(C) Whether the Board will answer a question transmitted to it by the ALJ;

(h) In regard to a proposed order issued by an ALJ, whether the Board's legal representative will file exceptions and present argument to the Board; and

(i) Whether a request for delay of hearing on emergency suspension will be accepted.

(2) All actions taken under section (1) of this rule must be reported to the Board at the regularly scheduled meeting in which the Board deliberates on the proposed order in the case.

(3) The Board's disciplinary and suspension cases brought under ORS 677.205 are exempt from the requirements of OAR 137-003-0655(7), which requires an agency to give written notice to the ALJ and all parties of the date by which the agency expects to issue an amended proposed order or a final order if the agency will not issue an amended proposed order or final order within 90 days of the proposed order. Due to the complexity of Board cases and the infrequency of regularly scheduled Board meetings, 90 days is an insufficient time for the Board to issue an amended proposed order or a final order.

Inactive Registration and Re-Entry to Practice

(1) Any acupuncturist licensed in this state who changes location to some other state or country shall be listed by the Board as inactive.

(2) If the acupuncturist wishes to resume active status, the acupuncturist must file an reactivation application and fee, satisfactorily complete the reactivation process and be approved by the Board before beginning active practice in Oregon.

(3) The Board may deny active registration if it judges the conduct of the acupuncturist during the period of inactive registration to be such that the acupuncturist would have been denied a license if applying for an initial license.

(4) If an acupuncturist applicant has ceased practice for a period of 24 or more consecutive months immediately preceding the application for licensure or reactivation, the applicant may be required to do one or more of the following:

(a) Obtain certification or re-certification in Acupuncture or Oriental Medicine by the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM);

(b) Provide documentation of current NCCAOM Acupuncture or Oriental Medicine certification;

(c) Complete 15 hours of continuing education acceptable to the Board for every year the applicant has ceased practice;

(d) Complete a mentorship of at least 20 hours under a Board-approved mentor who must individually supervise the licensee. The mentor must report the successful completion of the mentorship to the Board.

(5) The acupuncturist applicant who has ceased practice for a period of five or more consecutive years may be required to complete a re-entry plan to the satisfaction of the Board. The re-entry plan must be reviewed and approved through a Consent Agreement prior to the applicant beginning the re-entry plan. Depending on the amount of time out of practice, the re-entry plan may contain one or more of the requirements listed in section (4) of this rule and such additional requirements as determined appropriate by the Board.

Rule Caption: Updates to the definitions of sexual misconduct and licensee impairment

Adm. Order No.: OMB 5-2016

Filed with Sec. of State: 1-8-2016

Certified to be Effective: 1-8-16

Notice Publication Date: 11-1-2015

Rules Amended: 847-010-0073

Subject: The rule amendment revises the definition of “sexual misconduct” to include electronic forms of communication such as text message and e-mail under the “sexual impropriety heading” and clarifies that sexual misconduct results from inappropriate behavior with a patient or a patient’s immediate family. The amendment also clarifies that the use of alcohol or other substances, including the legal use of recreational marijuana, should not be used while a licensee is working in any capacity or used while off duty if it may cause impairment while on duty. The rule amendment also removes section (8), which allows a civil penalty to be issued through an administrative process to licensees who fail to report as required by statute and this rule.

(a) A licensee must self-report to the Board:

(A) Any conviction of a misdemeanor or felony or any arrest for a felony crime to the Board within 10 days after the conviction or arrest;

(B) Any adverse action taken by another licensing jurisdiction or any peer review body, health care institution, professional or medical society or association, governmental agency, law enforcement agency or court for acts or conduct similar to acts or conduct that would constitute grounds for disciplinary action as described in ORS chapter 677;

(C) Any official action taken against the licensee within 10 business days of the official action; or

(D) A voluntary withdrawal from practice, voluntary resignation from the staff of a health care facility or voluntary limitation of the licensee’s staff privileges at a health care facility if the licensee’s voluntary action occurs while the licensee is under investigation by the health care facility or its committee for any reason related to possible medical incompetence, unprofessional conduct or physical incapacity or impairment.

(b) A licensee who has reasonable cause to believe that another state licensed health care professional has engaged in prohibited or unprofessional conduct must report the conduct within 10 working days to the board responsible for the other professional unless disclosure is prohibited by state or federal laws relating to confidentiality or protection of health information.

Sexual misconduct includes but is not limited to:

(B) The fact that the licensee has voluntarily withdrawn from the practice of medicine or podiatry, voluntarily resigned from the staff of a health care facility or voluntarily limited the licensee's privileges at a health care facility and the effective date of the withdrawal, resignation or limitation.

Confidentiality and Inadmissibility of Mediation Communications

(1) Words and phrases used in this rule have the same meaning as given to them in ORS 36.110 and 36.234.

(2) Nothing in this rule affects any confidentiality created by other law. Nothing in this rule relieves a public body from complying with the Public Meetings Law, ORS 192.610 to 192.690. Whether or not they are confidential under this or other rules of the agency, mediation communications are exempt from disclosure under the Public Records Law to the extent provided in 192.410 to 192.505.

(3) This rule applies only to mediations in which the agency is a party or is mediating a dispute as to which the agency has regulatory authority. This rule does not apply when the agency is acting as the “mediator” in a matter in which the agency also is a party as defined in ORS 36.234.

(4) To the extent mediation communications would otherwise be compromise negotiations under ORS 40.190 (OEC Rule 408), those mediation communications are not admissible as provided in ORS 40.190 (OEC Rule 408), notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in section (9) of this rule.

(5) Mediations Excluded. Sections (6)–(10) of this rule do not apply to:

(a) Mediation of workplace interpersonal disputes involving the interpersonal relationships between this agency’s employees, officials or employees and officials, unless a formal grievance under a labor contract, a tort claim notice or a lawsuit has been filed; or

(b) Mediation in which the person acting as the mediator will also act as the hearings officer in a contested case involving some or all of the same matters;

(c) Mediation in which the only parties are public bodies;

(d) Mediation involving two or more public bodies and a private party if the laws, rule or policies governing mediation confidentiality for at least one of the public bodies provide that mediation communications in the mediation are not confidential;

(e) Mediation involving 15 or more parties if the agency has designated that another mediation confidentiality rule adopted by the agency may apply to that mediation; or

(6) Disclosures by Mediator. A mediator may not disclose or be compelled to disclose mediation communications in a mediation and, if disclosed, such communications may not be introduced into evidence in any subsequent administrative, judicial or arbitration proceeding unless:

(a) All the parties to the mediation and the mediator agree in writing to the disclosure; or

(b) The mediation communication may be disclosed or introduced into evidence in a subsequent proceeding as provided in subsections (c)–(d), (j)–(l) or (o)–(p) of section (9) of this rule; or

(7) Confidentiality and Inadmissibility of Mediation Communications. Except as provided in sections (8)–(9) of this rule, mediation communications are confidential and may not be disclosed to any other person, are not admissible in any subsequent administrative, judicial or arbitration proceeding and may not be disclosed during testimony in, or during any discovery conducted as part of a subsequent proceeding, or introduced as evidence by the parties or the mediator in any subsequent proceeding.

(8) Written Agreement. Section (7) of this rule does not apply to a mediation unless the parties to the mediation agree in writing, as provided in this section, that the mediation communications in the mediation will be confidential and/or nondiscoverable and inadmissible. If the mediator is the employee of and acting on behalf of a state agency, the mediator or an authorized agency representative must also sign the agreement. The parties’ agreement to participate in a confidential mediation must be in substantially the following form. This form may be used separately or incorporated into an “agreement to mediate.” [Form not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(9) Exceptions to confidentiality and inadmissibility.

(a) Any statements, memoranda, work products, documents and other materials, otherwise subject to discovery that were not prepared specifically for use in the mediation are not confidential and may be disclosed or introduced into evidence in a subsequent proceeding.

(b) Any mediation communications that are public records, as defined in ORS 192.410(4), and were not specifically prepared for use in the mediation are not confidential and may be disclosed or introduced into evidence in a subsequent proceeding unless the substance of the communication is confidential or privileged under state or federal law.

(c) A mediation communication is not confidential and may be disclosed by any person receiving the communication to the extent that person reasonably believes that disclosing the communication is necessary to prevent the commission of a crime that is likely to result in death or bodily injury to any person. A mediation communication is not confidential and may be disclosed in a subsequent proceeding to the extent its disclosure may further the investigation or prosecution of a felony crime involving physical violence to a person.

(d) Any mediation communication related to the conduct of a licensed professional that is made to or in the presence of a person who, as a condition of his or her professional license, is obligated to report such communication by law or court rule is not confidential and may be disclosed to the extent necessary to make such a report.

(e) The parties to the mediation may agree in writing that all or part of the mediation communications are not confidential or that all or part of the mediation communications may be disclosed and may be introduced into evidence in a subsequent proceeding unless the substance of the communication is confidential, privileged or otherwise prohibited from disclosure under state or federal law.

(f) A party to the mediation may disclose confidential mediation communications to a person if the party’s communication with that person is privileged under ORS chapter 40 or other provision of law. A party to the mediation may disclose confidential mediation communications to a person for the purpose of obtaining advice concerning the subject matter of the mediation, if all the parties agree.

(g) An employee of the agency may disclose confidential mediation communications to another agency employee so long as the disclosure is necessary to conduct authorized activities of the agency. An employee receiving a confidential mediation communication under this subsection is bound by the same confidentiality requirements as apply to the parties to the mediation.

(h) A written mediation communication may be disclosed or introduced as evidence in a subsequent proceeding at the discretion of the party who prepared the communication so long as the communication is not otherwise confidential under state or federal law and does not contain confidential information from the mediator or another party who does not agree to the disclosure.

(i) In any proceeding to enforce, modify or set aside a mediation agreement, a party to the mediation may disclose mediation communications and such communications may be introduced as evidence to the extent necessary to prosecute or defend the matter. At the request of a party, the court may seal any part of the record of the proceeding to prevent further disclosure of mediation communications or agreements to persons other than the parties to the agreement.

(j) In an action for damages or other relief between a party to the mediation and a mediator or mediation program, mediation communications are not confidential and may be disclosed and may be introduced as evidence to the extent necessary to prosecute or defend the matter. At the request of a party, the court may seal any part of the record of the proceeding to prevent further disclosure of the mediation communications or agreements.

(k) When a mediation is conducted as part of the negotiation of a collective bargaining agreement, the following mediation communications are not confidential and such communications may be introduced into evidence in a subsequent administrative, judicial or arbitration proceeding:

(A) A request for mediation; or

(B) A communication from the Employment Relations Board Conciliation Service establishing the time and place of mediation; or

(C) A final offer submitted by the parties to the mediator pursuant to ORS 243.712; or

(D) A strike notice submitted to the Employment Relations Board.

(l) To the extent a mediation communication contains information the substance of which is required to be disclosed by Oregon statute, other than ORS 192.410 to 192.505, that portion of the communication may be disclosed as required by statute.

(m) Written mediation communications prepared by or for the agency or its attorney are not confidential and may be disclosed and may be introduced as evidence in any subsequent administrative, judicial or arbitration proceeding to the extent the communication does not contain confidential information from the mediator or another party, except for those written mediation communications that are:

(A) Attorney-client privileged communications so long as they have been disclosed to no one other than the mediator in the course of the mediation or to persons as to whom disclosure of the communication would not waive the privilege; or

(B) Attorney work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial; or

(C) Prepared exclusively for the mediator or in a caucus session and not given to another party in the mediation other than a state agency; or

(D) Prepared in response to the written request of the mediator for specific documents or information and given to another party in the mediation; or

(E) Settlement concepts or proposals, shared with the mediator or other parties.

(n) A mediation communication made to the agency may be disclosed and may be admitted into evidence to the extent the Oregon State Library Board determines that disclosure of the communication is necessary to prevent or mitigate a serious danger to the public's health or safety, and the communication is not otherwise confidential or privileged under state or federal law.

(o) The terms of any mediation agreement are not confidential and may be introduced as evidence in a subsequent proceeding, except to the extent the terms of the agreement are exempt from disclosure under ORS 192.410 to 192.505, a court has ordered the terms to be confidential under ORS 30.402 or state or federal law requires the terms to be confidential.

(p) The mediator may report the disposition of a mediation to the agency at the conclusion of the mediation so long as the report does not disclose specific confidential mediation communications. The agency or the mediator may use or disclose confidential mediation communications for research, training or educational purposes, subject to the provisions of ORS 36.232(4).

(10) When a mediation is subject to section (7) of this rule, the agency will provide to all parties to the mediation and the mediator a copy of this rule or a citation to the rule and an explanation of where a copy of the rule may be obtained. Violation of this provision does not waive confidentiality or inadmissibility.

Oregon State Lottery Chapter 177

Rule Caption: Adopts rule for public assistance overpayments recovery from certain Lottery prizes; prioritizes child support

Adm. Order No.: LOTT 4-2015

Filed with Sec. of State: 12-18-2015

Certified to be Effective: 1-1-16

Notice Publication Date: 11-1-2015

Rules Adopted: 177-010-0094

Subject: The Oregon State Lottery has initiated permanent rule-making to adopt OAR 177-010-0094 regarding the recovery of certain public assistance overpayments from Lottery prizes greater than $600 when a Lottery ticket or share is presented at the Lottery for payment.

The rule implements HB 2393 (2015) effective January 1, 2016. Priority is given to past due child support payments when a claimant owes both public assistance and child support.

Public assistance includes:

(a) Medical assistance as defined in ORS 411.025.

(b) Public assistance as defined in ORS 411.010.

(c) Supplemental nutrition assistance provide under ORS 411.806 to 411.845.

(d) Any other benefit, aid, or assistance for which the Department of Human Services or the Oregon Health Authority is authorized to issue a final order for an overpayment under ORS Chapter 183.

Rules Coordinator: Mark W. Hohlt—(503) 540-1417

Overpayments Recovery Validation Check

The Lottery will use the following procedures as part of the validation process before paying any portion of a Lottery prize in excess of $600. These procedures are in addition to any other procedures set forth in OAR Chapter 177, including the child support validation check contained in OAR 177-010-0090.

(1) Database: The Lottery shall work with the Department of Human Services and the Oregon Health Authority to establish and operate a data match system using automated data exchanges with the Department of Human Services and the Oregon Health Authority that identifies persons that have received an overpayment of assistance for which a final order for overpayment has been issued by the Department of Human Services or the Oregon Health Authority under ORS Chapter 183. Any information necessary to identify the person and hold a payment on a Lottery prize must be available to the Lottery's central computer system through the data match system.

(2) Searching the Database: When a Lottery ticket or share is presented at the Lottery for payment for a prize that is in excess of $600, or when a prize winner claims any other prize payment at the Lottery that is in excess of $600, the Lottery shall enter the prize claimant's name, social security number, and any other available identifying information into the Lottery's central computer system. The computer shall search the database containing the names of the persons that have received an overpayment of assistance as described in section (1) of this rule for a possible match.

(3) 30 Day Hold: When a claimant is listed in the database, the Lottery will place a 30-day hold on any prize payment to the claimant. The Lottery will inform the claimant of the hold, notify the Department of Human Services or the Oregon Health Authority that a recipient of an overpayment of assistance has won a Lottery prize in excess of $600 or is entitled to payment in excess of $600 on a Lottery prize.

(a) If Lottery has questions concerning a match, Lottery will confirm the match with the Department of Human Services or the Oregon Health Authority before proceeding. If the department or the authority confirms that the claimant is the obligor on an overpayment of assistance, Lottery will proceed as provided herein.

(4) Garnishment: If the Lottery receives a notice or writ of garnishment under ORS 18.600 to 18.857 within the 30-day hold period, the Lottery must continue to hold any payment to the claimant pending disposition of the garnishment. Thereafter, the Lottery shall make payment to the garnishor. If the prize claim exceeds the amount of the garnishment, the Lottery will pay the claimant the balance remaining after deduction of the prize claim, the Lottery will inform the claimant that the entire amount of the prize claim was used to respond to the garnishment.

(5) Payment of Prize: If a garnishment is not received within the 30-day hold period, the Lottery shall pay the prize to the claimant at the end of the 30-day hold period or when the Department of Human Services or the Oregon Health Authority notifies the Lottery that a garnishment will not be issued, whichever is sooner.

(6) Voluntary Release: Nothing in this section is intended to prevent a prize claimant from voluntarily releasing payment of all or any portion of the claimant's prize towards payment of the claimant's overpayment of assistance.

(7) Priorities: If the Lottery receives multiple garnishments against the same claimant while it is holding the prize claim, it will honor the garnishments in the order that they were received pursuant to ORS 18.627(1), provided however that payment of any past-due child support under OAR 177-010-0090 has priority over the recovery of any overpayment of assistance from a Lottery prize under this rule.

(8) Definitions: As used herein,

(a) "Assistance" includes:

(A) Medical assistance as defined in ORS 414.025.

(B) Public assistance as defined in ORS 411.010.

(C) Supplemental nutrition assistance provided under ORS 411.806 to 411.845.

(D) Any other benefit, aid, or assistance for which the Department of Human Services or the Oregon Health Authority is authorized to issue a final order for an overpayment under ORS Chapter 183.

(b) "Garnishor" means:

(A) The creditor, if the writ of garnishment is issued by a court administrator.

(B) The person or entity that issued the notice or writ of garnishment, if the garnishment was issued by any person other than a court administrator.

Requesting a Hearing

(1) If a party wishes to request an in-person or telephone hearing to contest the allegations in the charging document, they must submit to the Agency a signed Hearing Request Form and an "answer," to the allegations in the charging document not later than the deadline to request a hearing stated in the charging document.

(a) The answer must include an admission or denial of each factual matter alleged in the charging document and a statement of each relevant defense to the allegations, including any relevant mitigating circumstance that may apply and indicate specifically what facts or transactions the mitigating circumstance applies to.

(b) A general denial is not sufficient to constitute an answer.

(c) The person must choose whether they want the hearing by telephone or in-person. If no choice is indicated on the form, the hearing will be held by telephone.

(d) Any evidence of a mitigating circumstance or other relevant evidence may be submitted with the answer as exhibits.

(2) An answer not including the information required by this rule may be disregarded and a notice of default may be issued in accordance with OAR 165-001-0025 as if no answer had been filed.

(3) Except for good cause shown to the administrative law judge, factual matters alleged in the charging document and not denied in the answer will be deemed admitted by the party.

(4) The failure of the party to raise a mitigating circumstance in the answer is a waiver of such mitigating circumstance.

(5) The party bears the burden of proof to show that all or part of the penalty should be mitigated based on a mitigating circumstance.

(6) Any new facts or defenses alleged in the answer will be deemed denied by the Agency.

(7) Evidence will not be taken at the contested case hearing on any factual or legal issue not raised in the charging document or the answer as filed.

(8) The Secretary of State hereby adopts by reference and designates the SEL 850 as the Hearing Request Form, Campaign Finance Transactions to be used to request an in-person or telephone hearing, or submit notarized testimony to contest campaign finance transaction violations.

(9) The Secretary of State hereby adopts by reference and designates the SEL 851 as the Hearing Request Form, Other Campaign Finance Violations to be used to request an in-person or telephone hearing, or submit notarized testimony to contest campaign finance violations, other than those violations relating to late or insufficient campaign finance transactions.

(10) The Secretary of State hereby adopts by reference and designates the SEL 852 as the Hearing Request Form to be used to request an in-person or telephone hearing to contest non-campaign finance violations.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

165-001-0025

Orders When No Hearing Requested, Hearing is Cancelled, or Failure to Appear at Hearing

(1) When a party has been given an opportunity to request a hearing and fails to request a hearing in writing within the specified time, or having requested a hearing fails to appear at the specified time and place, the agency shall, subject to section (2) of this rule, enter an order by default which supports the agency action.

(2) The time provided by statute to request a hearing under ORS 260.995 is calculated from the delivery date indicated on the certified letter's postal confirmation. If the certified letter is refused or left unclaimed at the post office, the time shall be calculated from the date the post office indicates it has given first notice of a certified letter. If the certified card is not returned to the Secretary of State by the United States Postal Service (USPS), the Secretary shall use the date recorded on the official USPS website utilizing the Track and Confirm delivery service.

(3) The time provided by statute to request a hearing under ORS 260.232 is 20 calendar days after the service date on the charging document.

(4) An order adverse to a party may be issued on default only if the agency record demonstrates a prima facie case justifying the order. The Administrative Law Judge will declare a party to be in default if the party which requested the hearing does not appear within 15 minutes of the time set for the hearing, unless the party gives notice of a reason for the inability to appear at the designated time and requests and receives a continuance. A continuance shall be granted only if the reason for the inability to appear is beyond the reasonable control of the party.

(5) The prima facie record upon default may be made at a scheduled hearing on the matter, or, if the notice of intended action states that the order will be issued or become effective upon the failure of the party to timely request a hearing, when the order is issued.

(6) The record may consist of oral (transcribed, recorded, or reported) or written evidence or a combination of oral and written evidence. When the record is made at the time the notice or order is issued, the agency file may be designated as the record. In all cases, the record must contain substantial evidence to support the findings of fact.

(7) When the Administrative Law Judge has set a specified time and place for a hearing and the party subsequently notifies the agency or the Administrative Law Judge assigned to the case that the party will not appear at such specified time and place, the agency may cancel the hearing and follow the procedure described in subsections (2), (3) and (4) of this rule.

(8) The deadline to issue a Final Order by Default if there is no hearing request, the hearing is cancelled or the party fails to appear at the hearing is not later than the 90th day after the deadline to request a hearing.

(9) When a party requests a hearing after the time specified by the agency, but before entry of a final order by default, or, if a final order by default is entered, on or before 30 calendar days after entry of the order, the agency may accept the late request only if the cause for failure to timely request the hearing was beyond the reasonable control of the party. In determining whether to accept a late hearing request, the agency may require the request to be supported by an affidavit and may conduct such further inquiry, including holding a hearing, that it deems appropriate. The agency shall enter an order granting or denying the request.

(10) When a party requests a hearing after entry of a default order, the party must file the request within a reasonable time. If the request is received more than 30 days after the agency mailed the default order to the party or the party's attorney (based on the service date of the order), it is presumed that the request is not timely. The request shall state why the party should be relieved of the default order. If the request is allowed by the agency, it shall enter an order granting the request and schedule the hearing in due course. If the request is denied, the agency shall enter an order setting forth its reasons for the denial.

(11) The agency shall notify a defaulting party of the entry of a default order by mailing a copy of the order as required by ORS 183.470.

(12) Notwithstanding the provisions of this rule relating to late requests for a hearing, no hearing may be held if the timing of the request would cause the agency to miss the statutory deadlines established for the conduct of hearings in ORS 260.232(4) or 260.995(6).

(1) If a party wishes to contest the allegations in the charging document, but does not wish to request an in person or telephone hearing, the party may submit notarized testimony in lieu of a hearing.

(2) The notarized testimony must be filed with the Agency not later than the deadline to request a hearing stated in the charging document.

(3) The notarized testimony must:

(a) Include an admission or denial of each factual matter alleged in the charging document and a statement of each relevant defense to the allegations, including any relevant mitigating circumstance. A general denial is not sufficient. Notarized testimony not including the information required by this rule may be disregarded and a notice of default may be issued in accordance with OAR 165-001-0025 as if no notarized testimony had been filed.

(b) Include a signed and completed Hearing Request Form.

(c) Be notarized by a commissioned Notary Public.

(4) After the party submits notarized testimony, the Agency may submit notarized testimony and any exhibits to the Office of Administrative Hearings and to the individual who submitted notarized testimony. If the Agency submits notarized testimony, it will be transmitted via e-mail to the Office of Administrative Hearings and the party. The Agency may mail its notarized testimony to the party's last known address if the party's e-mail address is unknown or the e-mail is returned as undeliverable.

(5) The party may, but is not required to, respond to the Agency testimony by submitting rebuttal notarized testimony.

(a) Rebuttal notarized testimony is limited to issues raised in the original notarized testimony and the Agency's testimony.

(b) Rebuttal notarized testimony must be notarized by a commissioned Notary Public.

(c) The rebuttal notarized testimony must be received by the Agency not later than five business days from the date of service of the Agency's testimony (the date the testimony was e-mailed or mailed).

(d) The notarized testimony hearing record is deemed closed the day after the deadline for the person to submit rebuttal testimony.

(6) If a person submits notarized testimony in lieu of requesting an in person or telephone hearing, the person is waiving their right to an in person or telephone hearing.

(7) The deadline to issue a final order when notarized testimony is submitted in lieu of an in-person or telephone hearing is not later than 90 days after the hearing record is closed.

Review of Specified Chief Petitioner Accounts

(1) Each chief petitioner of an initiative, referendum or prospective petition who pays any person money or other valuable consideration to obtain signatures on the petition shall keep detailed accounts in accordance with ORS 260.262. The Elections Division will review these accounts in the manner and in accordance with the schedule set out in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this rule.

(2) Chief petitioners shall submit digital copies of the applicable accounts described on the SEL 320 unless they receive prior written approval from the Elections Division to submit paper copies.

(a) Acceptable digital formats include pdf files, Excel files, or Word files submitted on CD-ROM or via electronic mail.

(b) The Elections Division may request original documentation of chief petitioner accounts, in addition to or in lieu of copies.

(c) The Elections Division may choose to conduct on-site reviews of chief petitioner accounts.

(3) Detailed copies of the applicable accounts described on the SEL 320, must be submitted by the 10th business day of each month after any month in which circulators were paid to collect signatures for the primary signature gathering effort. Accounts for the sponsorship phase must be included with the first submittal of accounts for the primary signature gathering effort. The Elections Division may require accounts to be submitted in shortened time frame depending on the circumstances of each petition.

(4) The Elections Division reserves the right to demand all accounts described under ORS 260.262, including all circulated signature sheets.

(5) Chief petitioners, or their authorized agent, must submit a completed SEL 320, each time accounts are provided, detailing the nature of the accounts provided under ORS 260.262.

(6) The Elections Division shall review accounts to determine whether all of the required information appears to have been provided. If after review it is determined that the accounts submitted are incomplete or the chief petitioners fail to submit the requested accounts, the Elections Division may find that a violation of section 1b, Article IV of the Oregon Constitution, has occurred, suspend the petition from obtaining additional signatures, and/or issue a civil penalty under OAR 165-013-0020.

(7) If the Elections Division takes action under ORS 260.262(6) the chief petitioners may file notarized written explanation contesting the suspension and providing evidence that the accounts submitted are complete.

(8) If a petition is suspended under ORS 260.262(6) the chief petitioners are prohibited from obtaining any additional signatures on the petition until it has been determined by the Elections Division that the accounts are complete. Any signatures gathered in violation of the suspension will not be accepted for signature verification.

(9) If the petition has multiple chief petitioners, only one set of copies of the detailed accounts for each petition need to be produced by the deadline.

(10) Accounts must be kept current as of not later than the 7th calendar day after the date a payment is made to a person for obtaining signatures on a petition.

(11) The Elections Division reserves the right to conduct a review of all chief petitioner accounts in accordance with ORS 260.262(4).

Prohibition on Paying or Receipt of Payment based on the Number of Signatures Obtained on an Initiative, Referendum, Candidate Nominating Petition or Voter Registration Cards

(1) The purpose of this rule is to interpret Article IV, section 1b of the Oregon Constitution and ORS 260.569. Article IV, section 1b of the Oregon Constitution provides: "It shall be unlawful to pay or receive money or other thing of value based on the number of signatures obtained on an initiative or referendum petition. Nothing herein prohibits payment for signature gathering which is not based, either directly or indirectly, on the number of signatures obtained." ORS 260.569 provides: "A person may not pay or receive money or another thing of value based on the number of: signatures a person obtains for purposes of nominating a candidate for elective public office or signed voter registration cards a person collects.

(2) Section 1b and ORS 260.569 bans the practice of paying circulators or others involved in an initiative, referendum, candidate nominating petition or voter registration card collection effort if the basis for payment is the number of signatures obtained. This means that payment cannot be made on a per signature basis. Employment relationships that do not base payment on the number of signatures collected are allowed. Allowable practices include: paying an hourly wage or salary, using express minimum signature requirements (quota), terminating those who do not meet the productivity requirements, adjusting salaries prospectively relative to productivity, and paying discretionary bonuses based on reliability, longevity and productivity, provided no payments are made on a per signature basis. The use of express minimum signature requirements (quota) for an initiative or referendum petition is allowable so long as that requirement is disclosed to the Elections Division on the SEL 320 as part of accounts.

(3) If a circulator is carrying a petition subject to Section 1b or ORS 260.569 and another petition not subject to Section 1b or ORS 260.569 (for example, a state initiative petition and a local recall petition), the circulator may be paid by the signature only for signatures collected on the petition not subject to Section 1b or ORS 260.569. Any payment for collecting signatures on the petition subject to Section 1b or ORS 260.569 must comply with Section 1b or ORS 260.569.

(4) The phrase "directly or indirectly" in Section 1b means that the chief petitioners who are responsible for the circulation and submission of the initiative or referendum petition cannot directly pay for signature gathering based on the number of signatures obtained, and cannot contract or delegate to another person or entity to obtain signatures and allow the third party to pay circulators on the basis of the number of signatures obtained. However, chief petitioners may contract with a person or entity to manage the signature gathering, and pay the person or entity for services, including the service of qualifying the petition for the ballot, so long as the individuals who actually circulate the petition are not paid based on the number of signatures obtained. The chief petitioners are responsible for insuring that agents of the chief petitioner (anyone who is delegated the task of obtaining signatures on the initiative or referendum petition) do not violate Section 1b.

(5) Violations of Section 1b or ORS 260.569 will be processed under 260.995 as civil penalties. Penalties may be assessed against chief petitioners or any other persons who either directly or indirectly pay based on the number of signatures or voter registration cards obtained. Liability may be imposed on chief petitioners as provided in 260.561. Violations of Section 1b or 260.569 will be calculated by deeming each individual signature sheet or voter registration card that contains signatures that were collected in violation of Section 1b or 260.569 as a single occurrence.

Subject: 165-013-0010 is proposed for amendment to add an alternate transaction filer and independent expenditure filer to mitigating circumstances the Secretary may consider in reducing or waiving a penalty for Other Campaign Finance Violations.

165-013-0020 is proposed for amendment to clarify when an offense is considered to be a single or multiple violations, clarifies the minimum penalty for violations of Article IV, section 1b of the Oregon Constitution, clarifies the minimum penalty for violations of ORS 260.569 and removes certain mitigating circumstances for violations of ORS 260.432.

165-013-0010 Penalty Matrix for Other Campaign Finance Violations

(1) This penalty matrix applies to civil penalties for campaign finance violations not covered by the penalty matrices in the Campaign Finance Manual.

(2) Mitigating Circumstances. The only mitigating circumstances that will be considered in a campaign finance violation covered by this rule include:

(a) The violation is a direct result of a valid personal emergency of the candidate, treasurer, alternate transaction filer, or independent expenditure filer. A valid personal emergency is an emergency, such as a serious personal illness or death in the immediate family of the candidate or treasurer which caused the violation to occur. A valid personal emergency does not include a common cold or flu, or a long-term illness where other arrangements could have been made. In this case, independent written verification must be provided;

(b) The violation is the direct result of an error by the elections filing officer;

(c) The violation is the direct result of clearly-established fraud, embezzlement, or other criminal activity against the committee, committee treasurer, candidate, alternate transaction filer, or independent expenditure

filer, as determined in a criminal or civil action in a court of law or independently corroborated by a report of a law enforcement agency or insurer or the sworn testimony or affidavit of an accountant or bookkeeper or the person who actually engaged in the criminal activity. This mitigating circumstance is not available to the committee treasurer, candidate, alternate transaction filer, or independent expenditure filer who was the perpetrator of the wrongdoing described above;

(d) The violation is the direct result of fire, flood, utility failure or other calamitous event, resulting in physical destruction of, or inaccessibility to, campaign finance records. ("Calamitous event" means a phenomenon of an exceptional character, the effects of which could not have been reasonably prevented or avoided by the exercise of due care or foresight);

(e) The violation is the direct result of failure of a professional delivery service to deliver documents in the time guaranteed for delivery by written receipt of the service provider. This does not include delivery by fax.

(3)(a) Penalty Matrix. These mitigating circumstances may be considered in reducing, in whole or in part, the civil penalty. If the violation is a direct result of an error by the elections filing officer, the violation is waived and no penalty is assessed.

(b) Omitted or insufficient information for a violation of ORS 260.039(4), 260.042(4) or 260.118(3) submitted prior to the deadline for a candidate or treasurer to request a hearing will result in a 50% reduction of the penalty. If a public hearing is requested, the omitted or insufficient information may be submitted up to the date of the hearing. In such an event, the treasurer, candidate, alternate transaction filer or independent expenditure filer will be entitled to a 50% reduction of the assessed penalty.

(c) For the purpose of issuing a proposed penalty notice and subsequent imposition of a civil penalty for any violation in Appendix A of this rule, the candidate of a principal campaign committee, the treasurer of a political action committee, or the chief petitioner of a petition committee, is the party named in a proposed penalty notice and is the party responsible for the payment of any civil penalty if a penalty is assessed.

(d) For purposes of determining penalty amounts for violations of campaign finance violations covered by this rule Appendix A of this rule will apply. [Appendix not included. See ED. NOTE.]

Penalty Matrix for Non-Campaign Finance Civil Penalty Election Law Violations

(1)(a) This penalty matrix applies to civil penalties for violations of election laws that are not covered by the penalty matrices in the Campaign Finance Manual (late and insufficient campaign finance reports and new transactions to campaign finance reports), or other campaign finance violations as outlined in 165-013-0010.

(b) The penalty amount will be calculated against the same person, candidate or entity as described below for a period of four years from the date the violation occurs, for any election law violation, other than campaign finance violations covered in the penalty matrices in the Campaign Finance Manual and other campaign finance violations as outlined in 165-013-0010.

(c) In determining whether the offense is to be considered against the same person, candidate or entity, the following factors are to be considered:

(A) A person is considered the same candidate, regardless of the office(s) for which the person runs within this state, or whether there is a lapse in time between candidacies.

(B) A political committee is considered the same, regardless of who the treasurer is, or if the political committee has changed names but is established by the same group of persons.

(C) The same individual.

(d) When determining whether the offense is to be considered a single or multiple violations, the following factors are to be considered:

(A) One occurrence is considered one violation.

(B) Violations of Article IV, Section 1(b) will be calculated by deeming each individual signature sheet that contains signatures that were collected in violation of Section 1(b) as a single occurrence.

(C) Violations of ORS 260.569, will be calculated by deeming each individual signature sheet that contains a signature a violation of ORS 260.569 or each signed voter registration card in violation of ORS 260.569 as a single occurrence.

(2) Mitigating Circumstances: The burden is on the person alleged to have committed the election law violation to show that a mitigating circumstance exists and caused the election law violation. The only mitigating circumstances which will be considered, if applicable to the specific situation, include:

(a) The violation is a direct result of a valid personal emergency of the involved person(s). A valid personal emergency is an emergency such as a serious personal illness or death in the immediate family of the involved person(s). Personal emergency does not include a common cold or flu, or a long-term illness where other arrangements could have been made. In this case, independent written verification must be provided;

(b) The violation is the direct result of an error by an elections officer;

(c) The violation is the direct result of fire, flood or other calamitous event, resulting in physical destruction of, or inaccessibility to, any records required to be kept to document compliance with Oregon election law. ("Calamitous event" means a phenomenon of an exceptional character, the effects of which could not have been reasonably prevented or avoided by the exercise of due care or foresight);

(3)(a) Penalty Matrix. These mitigating circumstances may be considered in reducing, in whole or in part, the civil penalty. If the violation is a direct result of an error by an elections officer, the violation is waived and no penalty is assessed.

(b) For purposes of determining penalty amounts for violations of non-campaign finance civil penalty election law violations, Appendix B of this rule will apply. [Appendix not included. See ED. NOTE.]

(G) Total amount of power to be developed;

(H) If a pond or reservoir is part of the project, how much water will be impounded.

(c) A 30 day comment period shall commence on the day the Department sends the notice. The notice shall state the date comments must be received by the Department;

(d) Following the comment period, the Department shall prepare a proposed final order with findings to address whether the proposed project together with any recommended measures to protect, mitigate, or enhance the natural resources of the State is consistent with the minimum standards in ORS 543.017 and the requirements in OAR 690 051 0160 through 690 051 0270 and whether the project would impair or be detrimental to the public interest as provided in ORS 543.225. The proposed final order shall include the action proposed to be taken on the minor hydroelectric application;

(e) The proposed final order shall be distributed to the applicant and all individuals, including all governmental agencies, who have filed timely comments with the Department. Mitigation, No Net Loss

(1) The following standards on mitigation and no net loss are minimums. They apply to all natural resources in the project vicinity. Resource specific rules may impose stricter standards. In order to approve an application, the Director must determine the natural resources of the state will be maintained or enhanced. In making such a determination, the following standards must be applied:

(a) No activity may be approved that may result in the net loss of natural resources. In determining whether a proposed activity may result in a net loss of natural resources, the department may consider mitigation.

(b) Proposed mitigation must be in the project vicinity and determined as acceptable to the Director or Commission;

(c) All mitigation measures which reasonably can, shall be fully functional when the project begins operation; and

(d) The Collective benefits of all mitigation measures must equal or exceed the collective adverse impacts on natural resources so there is no net loss of natural resources.

(2) In applying the standards in section (1) of this rule, the Commission or Director shall:

(a) Consult with federal, state, and local resource agencies, and the appropriate affected tribe(s); and

(b) Prefer mitigation that benefits the natural resource(s) affected, over mitigation that benefits some other natural resource(s). If mitigation that benefits the affected natural resource(s) is unacceptable or not possible, mitigation that benefits some other natural resource(s) may be considered.

(3) The standards in section (1) of this rule shall apply to the following natural resources: water quality; wildlife; scenic and aesthetic resources; historic, cultural, and archaeological; agricultural lands; forest resources; wetlands; plant life; fish life; recreation; soils; and natural communities and geologic features.

(4) At the Director's discretion, the standards in section (1) of this rule may apply to natural resource(s) not identified in section (3) of this rule that an applicant or interested party can demonstrate to be a natural resource of value to the public. Anyone making a showing of value for a natural resource not listed in section (3) of this rule shall also propose, for consideration, a standard for the protection of the natural resource. If agreed by the Director and upon acceptable showing of public value, an applicant may propose enhancement or other mitigation of an unlisted natural resource to offset impacts on natural resources listed in section (3) of this rule.

Water Resources

The Director and Commission shall determine whether the proposed project would impair or be detrimental to the public interest so far as the coordinated, integrated state water resources policy is concerned. In order to approve an application, the Director shall have due regard for:

(1) The amount of waters available for appropriation for beneficial use.

(2) Whether the proposed use will preclude or interfere with any existing rights or permits for the use of water.

(3) Whether the proposed use is consistent with the applicable State Water Resources Policies in OAR chapter 690, divisions 400, 410 and the Basin Program in OAR chapter 690, divisions 500 through 520 or, in the absence of a policy, the proposed use is consistent with the policies set forth in ORS 536.300 through 536.350.

(4) Whether the project is consistent with achieving maximum economic development of the waters involved.

(5) Whether the project is consistent with making the fullest practical use of the stream's hydroelectric potential in the project vicinity.

(6) Whether the project will constitute wasteful, uneconomic, impracticable or unreasonable use of the waters involved.

(7) Whether the project, including mitigation and enhancement measures, is consistent with conserving the highest use of the waters of the state for all beneficial purposes.

(8) Whether the project is consistent with controlling the waters of the state for all beneficial purposes, including, drainage, sanitation and flood control.

(9) Whether construction and operation of the proposed project complies with water quality standards established in OAR chapter 340, division 41. Exceptions to this standard may be allowed if permitted by Division 41 rules, and granted by the DEQ.

Consolidated Review

(1) The Director shall enter an order on the potential that the proposed project may contribute to cumulative impacts with other existing, approved or proposed hydroelectric projects in the same river basin. It is presumed that if there are other existing, approved or proposed projects, in the same river basin, there is a potential for cumulative impacts. This presumption may be rebutted by showing the impacts of the proposed project are so small in extent, short termed or localized that there is no reasonable likelihood of cumulative impacts. The Director shall consult with the agencies listed in OAR 690-051-0060 on cumulative impacts. Natural resources on which the potential for cumulative impacts will be considered are listed in OAR 690-051-0190 through 690-051-0250.

(2) If the Director determines the proposed project may have unacceptable cumulative impacts, a consolidated review shall be conducted. The review will cover all existing, approved and proposed projects in the same river basin. Existing and approved projects shall not be subject to any action by the Director or the Commission resulting from the consolidated review. If an applicant for a proposed project does not wish to be included in the consolidated review, the application may be withdrawn and refiled at a later date. The application may be subject to a later consolidated review if refiled.

(3) If two or more of the applications are competing for the same site, only one will be chosen to proceed in the consolidated review. Preference will be given to the project best suited to the site. Suitability shall be based on the criteria in OAR 690-051-0320.

(4) The consolidated review shall be conducted as a contested case hearing. Applicants and owners of all existing, approved and proposed projects in the affected basin will be advised of the need for a consolidated review contested case hearing. Applicants and owners shall be advised not less than 90 days before the hearing so they may prepare. Notice advising of the need for a consolidated review shall be sent by registered or certified mail. Separate notice will be given when the hearing actually is to take place. This notice will be as required by ORS 183.415.

(5) The consolidated review shall include a study of the individual and cumulative impacts each project would cause on the natural resources discussed in OAR 690-051-0190 through 690-051-0250. Cumulative impacts on any given natural resource shall be considered unacceptable if the level of impact would exceed any of the natural resource standards set forth in OAR 690-051-0190 through 690 051 0250.

(6) The purpose of the consolidated review will be to determine if the individual and cumulative impacts of proposed projects meet the natural resource standards in OAR 690-051-0190 through 690-051-0250. If the individual impacts of the applicant's project would exceed any of the resource standards, the application shall be rejected. When cumulative impacts on a natural resource would violate the natural resource standards, proposed projects in the consolidated review will be chosen for further consideration on the basis of the following criteria:

(a) Contribution to cumulative impact(s) Projects exhibiting lesser potential contribution to cumulative impact(s) will be preferred over projects exhibiting greater potential contribution to cumulative impact(s);

(b) Individual impacts on natural resources Projects potentially causing impact on a lesser number of natural resources and/or having a lesser degree of impact on a given resource shall be preferred over projects potentially affecting a greater number of natural resources or having a greater degree of impact on a given resource;

(c) Project suitability Projects making more efficient use of water, developing more capacity, having greater annual output or producing more revenue will be preferred over projects that are less efficient, develop less capacity, have less annual output or produce less revenue;

(d) Mitigation Projects proposing more desirable mitigation in terms of restoration, improvement or enhancement will be preferred over projects proposing less desirable mitigation; and

(e) If no distinction can be made on the criteria in subsections (a) through (d) of this section, the final basis of decision will be priority of filing.

(7) Following the conclusion of the consolidated review contested case hearing, the Director will enter an order stating the findings on each proposed project included in the review. Applications for projects not selected for further consideration on the basis of criteria in section (5) of this rule, shall be rejected.

(8) Any application not filed in time to be included in the notice of contested case hearing for a consolidated review shall not be reviewed until after the Director has entered the final order on the proceeding.

(9) If there is only one proposed project in the river basin, the Director may initiate consolidated review proceedings at the applicant's request.

Competing Applications

(1) When filed with the Director, a notice of competing application shall also be served on other applicants for the same site.

(2) A competing application shall be filed with the Director within 180 days of the time the original application is filed. If a hearing notice for the original application has been published before 180 days have passed, a notice of intent to file a competing application shall be filed. The notice of intent shall be filed prior to the closing date for comments as stated in the hearing notice. The competing application itself shall be filed within 60 days of the comment closing date.

(3) When determining which competing application should be given preference, the Director shall consider:

(a) Conservation of the waterpower involved including:

(A) Efficiency within the system;

(B) Effect on instream fisheries;

(C) Water quality; and

(D) Other factors as the Director may deem appropriate.

(b) Use of the waterpower involved including:

(A) Availability of water;

(B) Existing rights;

(C) Development of the available hydroelectric potential; and holder of a valid Preliminary Permit and has priority under ORS 543.250, preference shall be given to the holder of the Preliminary Permit.

(D) Other factors as the Director may deem appropriate.

(7) Where one application is determined to be best adapted to conserve and utilize the water power involved and the other applicant is either a municipal corporation or has priority as the holder of a Preliminary Permit, the municipal corporation or holder of the Preliminary Permit shall be informed of specific reasons why its application is not as well adapted and shall be afforded a reasonable period of time to amend its application to be at least as well adapted as the competing application. Water Rights

The right to the use of the waters of the State of Oregon in connection with the development of any water power project for the generation of electricity under a License issued by the Director shall be vested in the Licensee while the License or any lawful extension is in force. On termination of the License, the right to use water may be converted as provided in ORS 543A.305. In case a project is taken over by the state or a municipality under the provisions of ORS 543.610, the right to use the waters previously used by the project shall continue in the state or the municipality until lawfully terminated, transferred, or converted as provided in ORS 543A.305.
