Record Series Descriptions

■ United States Forest Service Records

1929-1983

Boxes 8-9

1.5 cubic feet

Arrangement: alphabetical by type or records, thereunder chronological by year

Series documents the activities and programs of the United States Forest Service in Oregon. Most of the records deal with cooperative efforts between the United States Forest Service and the Forestry Department. Records include Clarke-McNary reports; circulars; Emergency Conservation Work (ECW), Works Progress Administration (WPA), and Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) reports; fire and reference reports; correspondence; maps; photographs; and posters. Subjects include ECW/CCC programs, fire protection cooperation, federal and state legislation, Clarke McNary funding, national forest management, protection assessments, boy scouts, education and training, public relations, land exchanges, World War II forest defense, forest closures, and burning restrictions.

Series also includes information about the loss of records due to the 1936 State Capitol fire.
