To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is in reply to REGISTRATION #51318 to address the reasons the document could not be filed. Explanations for the two sections are described below and all documents originally submitted are being resubmitted for your convenience.

- 1) In section 8, please explain the mode or manner in which the mark is used. Example: on goods, labels, containers, etc.
  - a. The words, "Kindness Sting" is a primary component of what our nonprofit does. This phrase signifies a very unique event that Kindness 911 coordinates specifically with the assistance of law enforcement agencies. It is used fluently within the organization and found within video production and all social media and web platforms (photo attached). All uses are in relation to business, marketing, advertising and services that we provide as a nonprofit organization.

- 2) In section 11, please provide the exact date of first use in Oregon.
  - a. The first date of use in Oregon was January 3, 2021 with the Gresham Police Department in Gresham Oregon. Kindness 911 invoiced and began using our program with this agency effective the date of this invoice.
  - b. Invoice attached for proof of above statement.

Sincerely,

Jason Hattrick
Kindness 911, Founder/CEO

Re: Kindness Sting Trade/Wordmark

Trade and Service Marks – Registration

Question #5

The words “Kindness Sting” is what participating law enforcement agencies do throughout their communities to recognize deserving citizens. This wordmark is the actual title of an event performed by officers/deputies. You will also find the wordmark affixed to Kindness 911 business and marketing materials, correspondence, presentation and used regularly in conversation.

On additional pages you will see samples of the “Kindness Sting”, social media and our web page.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Laurie Burpee is a teacher at York Elementary School and loved by all of her students and staff alike. She has worked in Evergreen Public Schools for 23 years. Laurie embodies the kindness spirit even in difficult times. Laurie is battling cancer and is currently undergoing chemotherapy. She has used her personal struggle to continue to teach her students. Just as a caterpillar goes through a metamorphosis Laurie will come through her struggle as a beautiful and victorious butterfly. A parent has set up a Facebook group called "Give Love: Random Acts of Kindness in the Name of LB" inviting people to be kind this holiday season. This FB is helping to spread kindness that Laurie started many years ago. Instead of gifts for her birthday Laurie invites friends and family to do random acts of kindness for her birthday.

This Sting is all about lifting the spirits of someone that does that for an entire community at York Elementary. I want to thank all of you for your participation and kindness for our community and for being part of this amazing opportunity.
