About Apollo Grown

In Greek mythology, Apollo was the son of Zeus and traditionally one of the most complex and important Gods. He was the God of music, truth, prophecy, healing, light, poetry, and creativity. Most importantly, it's said that Apollo would ride Pegasus, the winged-horse, to the top of Mount Olympus every morning in order to bring the sun to the people.

The goal of Apollo Grown Inc. is to incorporate this energy into our practice of cultivating the highest quality recreational marijuana products that Oregon has to offer. Like the God Apollo, we strive to be leaders in our community and dedicate ourselves to help make the world a better place through our actions. This motto filters into each and every facet of our company.

5) Description of trademark:

The background is a dark green square with rounded corners, from each vertical side of which dark green marijuana leaves with five leaflets emerge, with the central leaflet of each leaf inclined approximately 30° up from horizontal. Inside the square appear the words "APOLLO GROWN" in white. Between those words appear the initials "AG" in white, with a crescent, open to the left, replacing the right leg of the A. Centered below the initials and above the word "GROWN" is a white marijuana leaf with seven leaflets. On either side of this leaf, curving up around the initials "AG," are two white halves of a stylized laurel wreath.
