CPR LifeLine brought CPR training to Oregon in 1976 and created the first AED training program for the public.

About Us:

CPR LifeLine® was established in 1976 and was the first organization in Oregon to offer CPR training to the public. We also developed the first AED (Automated External Defibrillator) training course, integrating the use of the AED with CPR training. We have one of the first AEDs in our office! The rich history of CPR LifeLine® is matched only by our passion for teaching quality CPR classes. Our instructors understand that you can save a life if you receive a great class and they pride themselves on the outstanding "saves" our students have had over the years. We consult with companies and organizations wanting to develop onsite emergency medical response teams along with providing products and continuous training for those teams.

What We Offer:

- 45 years of experience
- Business office with full time staff
- Fully computerized registration & records system
- Traditional classroom training and eLearning blended courses
- Open enrollment public classes in the Portland metro area
- Discount Program for groups utilizing our public classes
- Custom Group Classes onsite with contract rates available
- Emergency response consulting, training, and supplies for companies/organizations wanting to develop onsite emergency response teams along with continuous training for those teams.

CPR & First Aid Classes:

- American Heart Association courses, the nationally recognized authority in resuscitation and emergency cardiac care www.heart.org

- Medic First Aid courses
- Low student to manikin ratios and the use of quality equipment
- Scenario based training with maximum hands-on experience
- Highly experienced and professional instructors with backgrounds in emergency response
- We follow all national infection control guidelines for CPR training
