Excerpts from Internal Revenue Code
SEC. 6321 Lien for Taxes.

If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable penalty, together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto) shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.

SEC. 6322 Period of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability) is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

SEC. 6323 Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchasers, Holders of Security Interests, Mechanic's Lienors, and Judgment Lien Creditors

The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lienor, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (f) has been filed by the Secretary.

NOTE: See section 6323(b) for protection for certain interest even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

1. Security
2. Motor Vehicles
3. Personal property purchased at retail
4. Personal property purchased in casual sale
5. Personal property subjected to possessor lien
6. Real property tax and special assessment liens
7. Residential property subject to a mechanic's lien for certain repairs and improvements
8. Attorney's liens
9. Certain insurance contracts
10. Passbook loans

(f) Place for Filing Notice: Form

(1) Place for filing -- The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed

(A) Under State laws--

(i) Real property In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; and

(ii) Personal property In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office

within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated, except that State law merely conforming to or reenacting Federal law establishing a national filing system does not constitute a second office for filing as designated by the laws of such State; or

(B) With clerk of district court--In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to the lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A); or

(C) With Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia--In the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(2) Situs of property subject to lien -- For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (4), property shall be deemed to be situated

(A) Real property -- In the case of real property, at its physical location; or

(B) Personal property -- In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, at the residence of the taxpayer at the time the notice of lien is filed. For purposes of paragraph (2)(B), the residence of a corporation or partnership shall be deemed to be the place at which the principal executive office of the business is located, and the residence of a taxpayer whose residence is without the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(3) Form -- The form and content of the notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or content of a notice of lien.

(g) Refiling of Notice -- For purposes of this section

(1) General rule -- Unless notice of lien is refilled in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2) during the required refilling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed (in accordance with subsection (f)) after the expiration of such refilling period.

(2) Place for filing -- A notice of lien refilled during the required refilling period shall be effective only--(A) if,

(i) such notice of lien is refilled in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed, and

(ii) in the case of real property, the fact of refilling is entered and recorded in an index to the extent required by subsection (f)(4); and

(B) in any case in which, 90 days or more prior to the date of a refilling of notice of lien under subparagraph (A), the Secretary received written information (in the manner prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary) concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence, if a notice of such lien is also filed in accordance with subsection (f) in the State in which such residence is located.

(3) Required refilling period -- In the case of any notice of lien, the term "required refilling period" means--

(A) the one-year period ending 30 days after the expiration of 10 years after the date of the assessment of the tax, and

(B) the one-year period ending with the expiration of 10 years after the close of the preceding required refilling period for such notice of lien.

SEC. 6325 Release of Lien Or Discharge of Property

(a) Release of Lien--Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any internal revenue tax not later than 30 days after the day on which--

(1) Liability satisfied or unenforceable--The Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, has been fully satisfied or has become legally unenforceable; or

(2) Bond accepted--There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, within the time prescribed by law (including any extension of such time), and that is in accordance with such requirements relating to terms, conditions, and form of the bond and sureties thereon, as may be specified by such regulations.

Sec. 6103. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return Information

(k) Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return Information for Tax Administration Purposes

(2) Disclosure of amount of outstanding lien

-- If a notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6323 (f), the amount of the outstanding obligation secured by such lien may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory written evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or intends to obtain a right in such property.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY – ALCOHOL AND TOBACCO TAX AND TRADE BUREAU
NOTICE OF FEDERAL TAX LIEN FILING

This notice of Federal Tax Lien has been filed as a matter of public record. If you want this notice of lien released, you can find out how it can be done by calling Racquel Alpasan, at (513) 684-3532. Penalty and interest accrue until the liability is paid. For the amount you need to submit to have the lien released, contact the above named employee.

Administrative Appeal of the Erroneous Filing of Notice of Federal Tax Lien

Under Internal Revenue Code, Section 6326, you have the right to file an administrative appeal. If you believe the filing of this notice of lien was erroneous. The intent of the appeal process is to correct any erroneous filing of notice of lien and is not to be used for the purpose of challenging the calculation of the tax, penalty, or interest.

Filing of a notice of lien is erroneous if:

- all tax, penalty, and interest was paid prior to filing the notice of lien;
- tax was assessed after the date on the petition for bankruptcy in violation of the automatic stay in bankruptcy (Title 11);
- the statute of limitations for collection expired prior to the filing of the notice of lien.

All request must be in writing and contain the following:

- the person's name, current address, and taxpayer identification number;
- a copy of the notice of lien as filed, if available;
- the specific reason why you think we were in error;
- the canceled check or other evidence of payment;
- information identifying the bankruptcy court, docket number and petition date.

All requests should be addressed to Chief, Revenue Accounting Service and mailed to the TTB "PLACE OF FILING" as shown on the reverse side of this form.

Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code
SEC. 6321. Lien for Taxes.

If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable penalty, together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto) shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.

SEC. 6322. Period of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability) is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

SEC. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchasers, Holders of Security Interests, Mechanic's Lienors, and Judgment Lien Creditors

The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lienor, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (f) has been filed by the Secretary.

NOTE: See section 6323(b) for protection for certain interest even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

- 1 Security
- 2 Motor Vehicles
- 3 Personal property purchased at retail
- 4 Personal property purchased in casual sale
- 5 Personal property subjected to possessor lien
- 6 Real property tax and special assessment liens
- 7 Residential property subject to a mechanic's lien for certain repairs and improvements
- 8 Attorney's liens
- 9 Certain insurance contracts
- 10 Passbook loans

(f) Place For Filing Notice; Form—

(1) Place for filing—The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed

(A) Under State laws—

(i) Real property In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; and

(ii) Personal property In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office

within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated, except that State law merely conforming to or reenacting Federal law establishing a national filing system does not constitute a second office for filing as designated by the laws of such State; or

(B) With clerk of district court—In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to the lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A); or

(C) With Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia—In the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(2) Situs of property subject to lien—For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (4), property shall be deemed to be situated

(A) Real property —In the case of real property, at its physical location; or

(B) Personal property—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, at the residence of the taxpayer at the time the notice of lien is filed. For purposes of paragraph (2)(B), the residence of a corporation or partnership shall be deemed to be the place at which the principal executive office of the business is located, and the residence of a taxpayer whose residence is without the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(3) Form—The form and content of the notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or content of a notice of lien.

(g) Refilling of Notice —For purposes of this section

(1) General Rule—Unless notice of lien is refilled in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2) during the required refilling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed (in accordance with subsection (f)) after the expiration of such refilling period.

(2) Place For Filing—A notice of lien refilled during the required refilling period shall be effective only—(A) if—

(i) such notice of lien is refilled in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed, and

(ii) in the case of real property, the fact of refilling is entered and recorded in an index to the extent required by subsection (f)(4); and

(B) in any case in which, 90 days or more prior to the date of a refilling of notice of lien under subparagraph (A), the Secretary received written information (in the manner prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary) concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence, if a notice of such lien is also filed in accordance with subsection (f) in the State in which such residence is located.

(3) Required Refilling Period—In the case of any notice of lien, the term "required refilling period" means—

(A) the one-year period ending 30 days after the expiration of 10 years after the date of the assessment of the tax, and

(B) the one-year period ending with the expiration of 10 years after the close of the preceding required refilling period for such notice of lien.

SEC. 6325. Release of Lien or Discharge of Property

(a) Release of Lien—Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any internal revenue tax not later than 30 days after the day on which—

(1) Liability satisfied or unenforceable—The Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, has been fully satisfied or has become legally unenforceable; or

(2) Bond accepted—There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, within the time prescribed by law (including any extension of such time), and that is in accordance with such requirements relating to terms, conditions, and form of the bond and sureties thereon, as may be specified by such regulations.

6103. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return information

(k) Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return information for Tax Administration Purposes

(2) Disclosure of amount of outstanding lien—If a notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6323 (f), the amount of the outstanding obligation secured by such lien may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory written evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or intends to obtain a right in such property.
