Appraisal Clause Process

INSURANCE APPRAISAL SERVICES

Insurance Appraisal Services was founded in 1975 in Portland Oregon to provide expert auto and property appraisal services to the insurance industry & public. IAS is now one of the largest Independent Appraisal & Adjusting firms in the United States. Our certified appraisers and licensed independent adjusters are well-versed in Appraisal Clause claims and can assist either party in the resolution of these disputes.

WHAT IS THE APPRAISAL CLAUSE IN AN AUTO/PROPERTY INSURANCE POLICY?

The Appraisal Clause in an Auto or Property insurance policy allows the policy holder to demand an independent appraisal of the loss when there is a value disagreement with the insurance carrier. This can apply to either a repair or total loss market value dispute. Once the appraisal provision has been invoked each party must select an independent, competent appraiser to separately evaluate the amount of the loss. Independent appraisals must be performed by a certified appraiser or licensed adjuster. If your claim is with your insurer, and either you or your repairer disagree with the value they offer, you may have the right to an appraisal if your policy includes an appraisal clause provision.

STEPS TO INVOKE THE APPRAISAL CLAUSE

- 1) Contact IAS for a free consultation to see if your claim is a good candidate to invoke the Appraisal Clause.
- 2) Retain IAS as your appointed appraiser to represent you in this claim. Our company and appraiser information will need to be given to your insurance carrier at the 1st notification of appraisal.
- 3) Contact your insurance company in writing, stating that you are invoking your appraisal right due to the inability to reach a mutually agreeable settlement. (This is the typical way to invoke an Appraisal Clause, but it's a good idea to review your insurance policy for specific language that describes how to invoke the Appraisal Clause.)
