

1932, March 22, Morning Oregonian Newspaper Article “Principals in Toledo Jail Delivery”

Transcript

Principals in Toledo Jail Delivery

Top - Lincoln county jail at Toledo where delivery took place.

Center right - Three of party which liberated prisoners from Lincoln county jail Sunday morning alleged to be connected with burning motor craft Sea Island February 7 near De Poe bay and held on charges of violation of prohibition law.

Left - Burt Chapin

Center - Paul Remaley, said to be brains of gang.

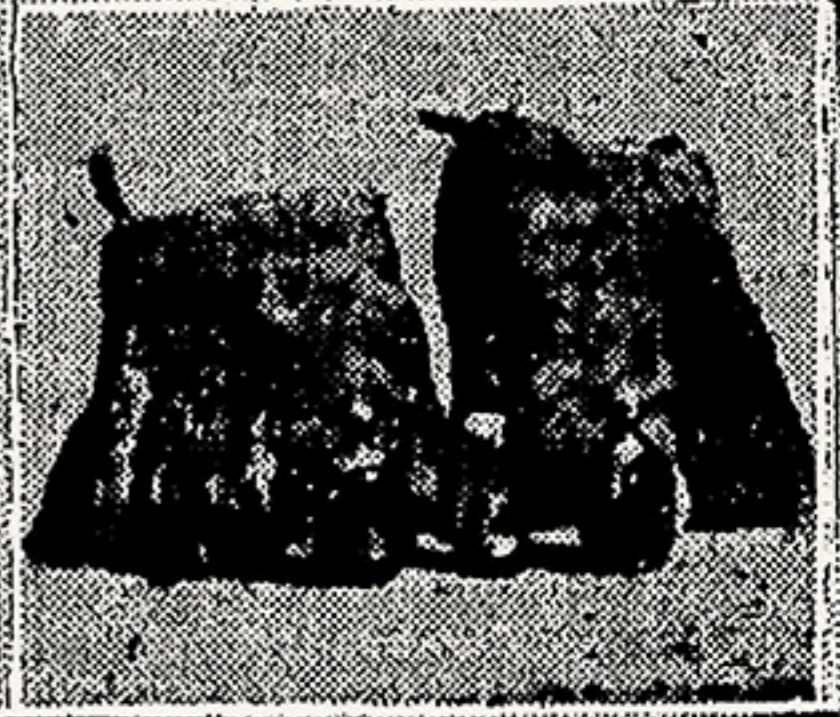

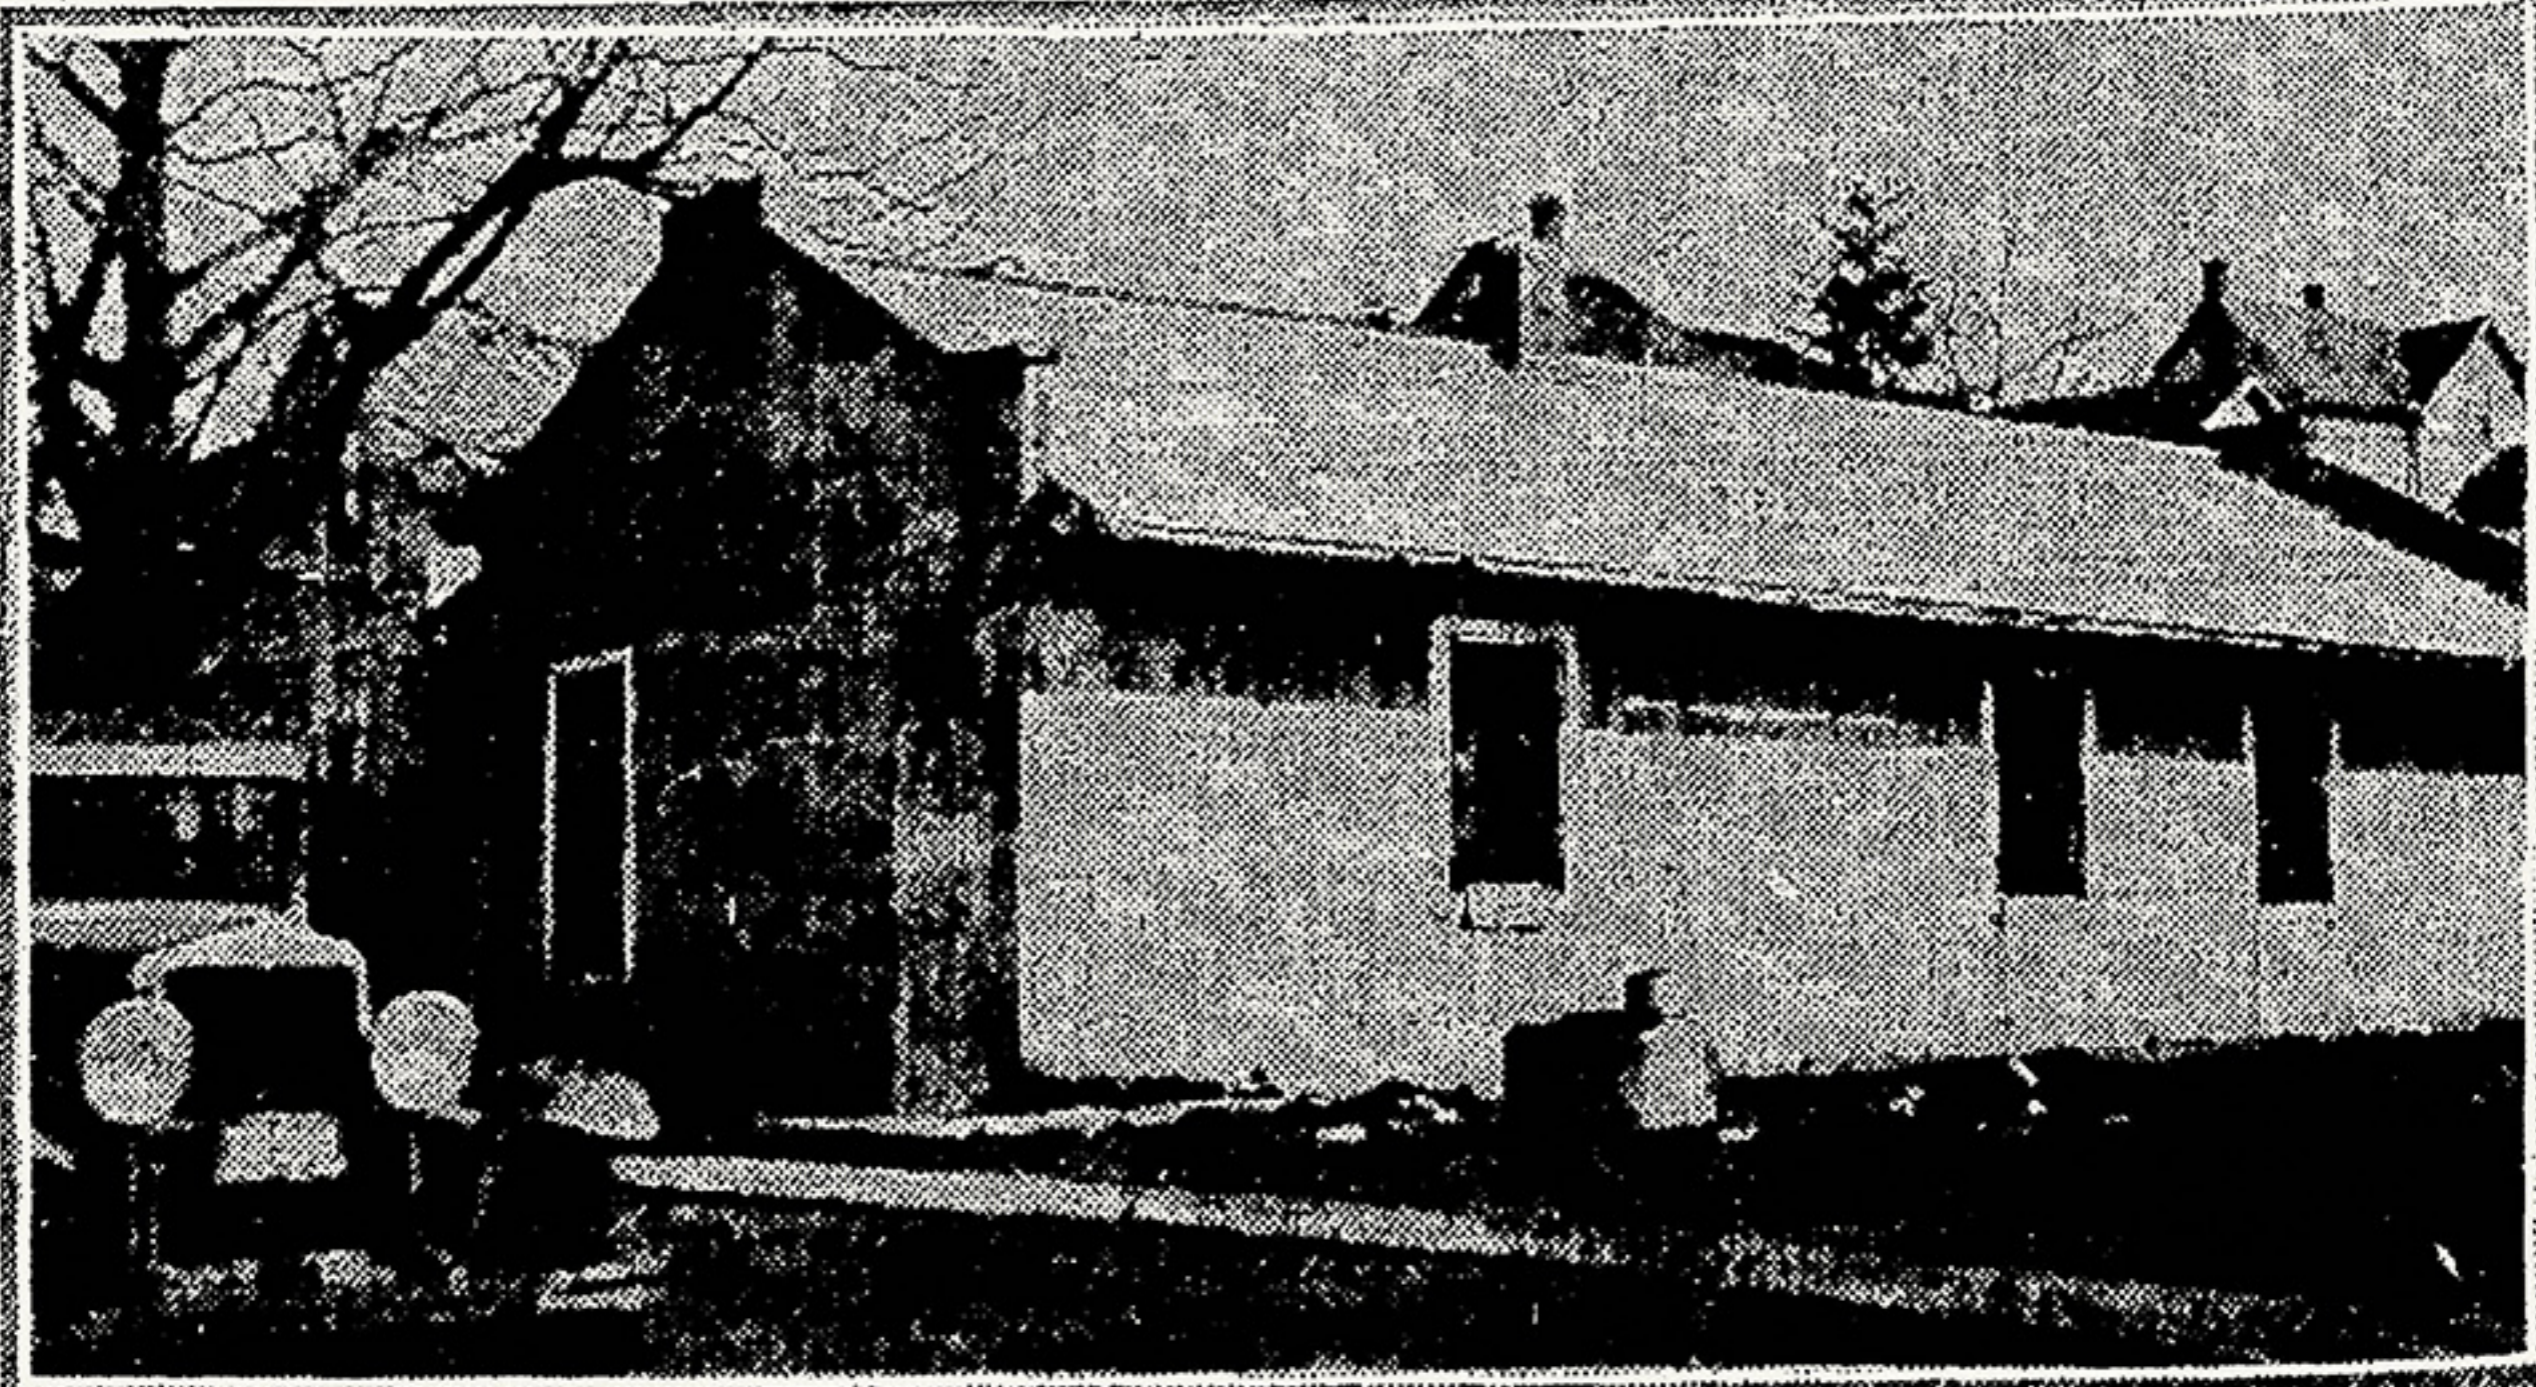

Right - S. U. Carrick. These held in Benton county jail at Corvallis until Toledo jail is repaired.

Center, left - Some of the seized liquor.

Bottom - Three alleged rum runners who were released from Toledo jail; from left, W. L. Kerr, C. T. Ryall and A. S. Babcock.

End of Transcript

See image next page.

PRINCIPALS IN TOLEDO JAIL DELIVERY

Top—Lincoln county jail at Toledo, where delivery took place. Center, right—Three of party which liberated prisoners from Lincoln county jail Sunday morning alleged to be connected with burning motor craft Sea Island February 7 near De Poe bay and held on charges of violation of prohibition law. Left—Burt Chapin. Center—Paul Remaley, said to be brains of gang. Right—S. U. Carrick. These held in Benton county jail at Corvallis until Toledo jail is repaired. Center, left—Some of the seized liquor. Bottom—Three alleged rum runners who were released from Toledo jail; from left, W. L. Kerr, C. T. Ryall and A. S. Babcock.