Division.

This logo represents a brand and is modeled after an Egyptian hieroglyph. There are 4 sections to the logo:

1. At the top there are 3 vertical lines parallel to each other, with the middle line extending above the outside two lines.

2. Below the 3 vertical lines is a circle. In combination with the 3 vertical lines it looks like the sun. The circle has a horizontal line coming off of its right side. This represents the "sky".

3. Below the circle is a line that goes up and down in a triangular shape with a flat line extending horizontally off of its right side. This represents a mountain.

4. At the bottom of the figure is a wavy line with a long flat line starting at the left immediately below the "mountain" figure from (3). This figure represents "water". The "waves" are created from two semi-circles that meet along the horizontal line.
